575. Effect of partial invalidity.
576. Citation of chapter.
577. Laws applicable to Philippines.

SUBTITLE I.—DUTIABLE LIST

Section 121. Articles dutiable, and rates; schedules.—Except as otherwise specially provided for in this chapter, there shall be levied, collected, and paid upon all articles when imported from any foreign country into the United States or into any of its possessions (except the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, and the islands of Guam and Tutuila) the rates of duty which are prescribed by the schedules and paragraphs of the dutiable list of this title, namely:

SCHEDULE 1.—CHEMICALS, OILS, AND PAINTS

PARAGRAPH 1. Acids and acid anhydrides: Acetic acid containing by weight not more than 65 per centum of acetic acid, three-fourths of 1 cent per pound; containing by weight more than 65 per centum, 2 cents per pound; acetic anhydride, 5 cents per pound; boric acid, 1½ cents per pound; chloroacetic acid, 5 cents per pound; citric acid, 17 cents per pound; lactic acid, containing by weight of lactic acid less than 30 per centum, 2 cents per pound; 30 per centum or more and less than 55 per centum, 4 cents per pound; and 55 per centum or more, 9 cents per pound: Provided, That any lactic-acid anhydride present shall be determined as lactic acid and included as such: And provided further, That the duty on lactic acid shall not be less than 25 per centum ad valorem; tannic acid, tannin, and extracts of nutgalls, containing by weight of tannic acid less than 50 per centum, 4 cents per pound; 50 per centum or more and not medicinal, 10 cents per pound; 50 per centum or more and medicinal, 20 cents per pound; tartaric acid, 6 cents per pound; arsenic acid, 3 cents per pound; gallic acid, 8 cents per pound; oleic acid or red oil, 1½ cents per pound; oxalic acid, 4 cents per pound; phosphoric acid, 2 cents per pound; pyrogallic acid, 12 cents per pound; stearic acid, 1½ cents per pound; and all other acids and acid anhydrides not specially provided for, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 2. Acetaldehyde, aldol or acetaldol, aldehyde ammonia, butyraldehyde, crotonaldehyde, paracetaldehyde, ethylene, chlorohydrin, ethylene dichloride, ethylene glycol, ethylene oxide, glycol, monoacetate, propylene chlorohydrin, propylene dichloride, and propylene glycol, 6 cents per pound and 30 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 3. Acetone, acetone oil, and ethyl methyl ketone, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 4. Alcohol: Amyl, butyl, propyl, and fusel oil, 6 cents per pound; methyl or wood (or methanol), 12 cents per gallon; and ethyl for nonbeverage purposes only, 15 cents per gallon.

PAR. 5. All chemical elements, all chemical salts and compounds, all medicinal preparations, and all combinations and mixtures of any of the foregoing, all the foregoing obtained naturally or artificially and not specially provided for, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 6. Aluminum hydroxide or refined bauxite, one-half of 1 cent per pound; potassium aluminum sulphate or potash alum and ammonium aluminum sulphate or ammonia alum, three-fourths of 1 cent per pound; aluminum sulphate, alum cake or aluminous cake, containing not more than 15 per centum of alumina and more iron than the equivalent of one-tenth of 1 per centum of ferric oxide, three-tenths of 1 cent per pound; containing more than 15 per centum of alumina or not more iron than the equivalent of one-tenth of 1 per centum of ferric oxide, three-eighths of 1 cent per pound; all other aluminum salts and compounds not specially provided for, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 7. Ammonium carbonate and bicarbonate, 1½ cents per pound; ammonium chloride, 1¼ cents per pound; ammonium nitrate, 1 cent per pound; ammonium perchlorate and ammonium phosphate, 1½ cents per pound; ammonium sulphate, one-fourth of 1 cent per pound; liquid anhydrous ammonia, 2½ cents per pound.

PAR. 8. Antimony: Oxide, 2 cents per pound; tartar emetic or potassium-antimony tartrate, 6 cents per pound; sulphides and other antimony salts and compounds, not specially provided for, 1 cent per pound and 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 9. Argols, tartar, and wine lees, crude or partly refined, containing not more than 90 per centum of potassium bitartrate, 5 per centum ad valorem; containing more than 90 per centum of potassium bitartrate, 5 cents per pound; cream of tartar, Rochelle salts or potassium-sodium tartrate, 5 cents per pound; calcium tartrate, crude, 5 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 10. Balsams: Copaiba, fir or Canada, Peru, tolu, tyrax, and all other balsams, all the foregoing which are natural and uncompounded, 10 per centum ad valorem: Provided, That no article containing alcohol shall be classified for duty under this paragraph.

PAR. 11. Gums: Amber and amberoid unmanufactured, not specially provided for, $1 per pound; arabic or senegal, ½ cent per pound.

PAR. 12. Barium carbonate, precipitated, 1 cent per pound; barium chloride, 1¼ cents per pound; barium dioxide, 4 cents per pound; barium hydroxide, 1¼ cents per pound; and barium nitrate, 2 cents per pound.

PAR. 13. Blackings, powders, liquids, and creams for cleaning or polishing, not specially provided for, 25 per centum ad valorem: Provided, That no preparations containing alcohol shall be classified for duty under this paragraph.

PAR. 14. Bleaching powder or chlorinated lime, three-tenths of 1 cent per pound.

PAR. 15. Caffeine, $1.50 per pound; compounds of caffeine, 25 per centum ad valorem; impure tea, tea waste, tea siftings and sweepings, for manufacturing purposes in bond, pursuant to the provisions of sections 41 and 47 of Title 21, 1 cent per pound.

PAR. 16. Calcium carbide, 1 cent per pound.

PAR. 17. Calomel, corrosive sublimate, and other mercurial preparations, 45 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 18. Carbon tetrachloride, 2½ cents per pound; chloroform, 6 cents per pound; tetrachloroethane and trichloroethylene, 35 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 19. Casein or lactarene, 2½ cents per pound.

PAR. 20. Chalk or whiting or Paris white: Dry, ground, bolted, or precipitated, 25 per centum ad valorem; ground in oil (putty), three-fourths of 1 cent per pound; put up in the form of cubes, blocks, sticks, or disks, or otherwise, including tailors', billiard, red, and manufactures of chalk not specially provided for, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 21. Chemical compounds, mixtures, and salts, of which gold, platinum, rhodium, or silver constitutes the element of chief value, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 22. Chemical compounds, salts, and mixtures of bismuth, 35 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 23. Chemicals, drugs, medicinal and similar substances, whether dutiable or free, when imported in capsules, pills, tablets, lozenges, troches, ampoules, jubes, or similar forms, including powders put up in medicinal doses, shall be dutiable at not less than 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 24. Chemical elements, and chemical and medicinal compounds, preparations, mixtures, and salts, distilled or essential oils, expressed or extracted oils, animal oils and greases, ethers and esters, flavoring and other extracts, and natural or synthetic fruit flavors, fruit esters, oils and essences, all the foregoing and their combinations when containing alcohol, and all articles consisting of vegetable or mineral objects immersed or placed in, or saturated with, alcohol, except perfumery and spirit varnishes, and all alcoholic compounds not specially provided for, if containing 20 per centum of alcohol or less, 20 cents per pound and 25 per centum ad valorem; containing more than 20 per centum and not more than 50 per centum of alcohol, 40 cents per pound and 25 per centum ad valorem; containing more than 50 per centum of alcohol, 80 cents per pound and 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 25. Chicle, crude, 10 cents per pound; refined or advanced in value by drying, straining, or any other process or treatment whatever beyond that essential to the proper packing, 15 cents per pound.

PAR. 26. Chloral hydrate, terpin hydrate, thymol, urea, and glycerophosphoric acid, and salts and compounds of glycerophosphoric acid, 35 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 27. Coal-tar products: Acetanilide not suitable for medicinal use, alpha-naphthol, aminobenzoic acid, aminonaphthol, aminophenetole, aminophenol, aminosalicylic acid, aminoanthraquinone, aniline oil, aniline salt, anthraquinone, arsanilic acid, benzaldehyde not suitable for medicinal use, benzal chloride, benzanthrone, benzidine, benzidine sulfate, benzoic acid not suitable for medicinal use, benzoquinone, benzoyl chloride, benzyl chloride, benzylethylaniline, betanaphthol not suitable for medicinal use, bromobenzene, chlorobenzene, chlorophthalic acid, cinnamic acid, cumidine, dehydrothiotoluidine, diaminostilbene, dianisidine, dichlorophthalic acid, dimethylaniline, dimethylaminophenol, dimethylphenylbenzylammonium hydroxide, dimethylphenylenediamine, dinitrobenzene, dinitrochlorobenzene, dinitronaphthalene, dinitrophenol, dinitrotoluene, dihydroxynaphthalene, diphenylamine, hydroxyphenylarsinic acid, metanilic acid, methylanthraquinone, naphthylamine, naphthylenediamine, nitroaniline, nitroanthraquinone, nitrobenzaldehyde, nitrobenzene, nitronaphthalene, nitrophenol, nitrophenylenediamine, nitrosodimethylaniline, nitrotoluene, nitrotoluylenediamine, phenol, phenylenediamine, phenylhydrazine, phenylnaphthylamine, phenylglycine, phenylglycine-ortho-carboxylic acid, phthalic acid, phthalic anhydride, phthalimide, quinaldine, quinoline, resorcinol not suitable for medicinal use, salicylic acid and its salts not suitable for medicinal use, sulfanilic acid, thiocarbanilide, thiosalicylic acid, tetrachlorophthalic acid, tetramethyldiaminobenzophenone, tetramethyldiaminodiphenylmethane, toluene sulfochloride, toluene sulfonamide, tribromophenol, toluidine, tolidine, tolylenediamine, xylidine, anthracene having a purity of 30 per centum or more, carbazole having a purity of 65 per centum or more, metacresol having a purity of 90 per centum or more, naphthalene which after the removal of all water present has a solidifying point of seventy-nine degrees centigrade or above, orthocresol having a purity of 90 per centum or more, paracresol having a purity of 90 per centum or more; all the foregoing products in this paragraph whether obtained, derived, or manufactured from coal tar or other source; all distillates of coal tar, blast-furnace tar, oil-gas tar, and water-gas tar, which on being subjected to distillation yield in the portion distilling below one hundred and ninety degrees centigrade a quantity of tar acids equal to or more than 5 per centum of the original distillate or which on being subjected to distillation yield in the portion distilling below two hundred and fifteen degrees centigrade a quantity of tar acids equal to or more than 75 per centum of the original distillate; all similar products by whatever name known, which are obtained, derived, or manufactured in whole or in part from any of the products provided for in this paragraph, or from any of the products provided for in paragraph 1549; all mixtures, including solutions, consisting in whole or in part of any of the foregoing products provided for in this paragraph, except sheep dip and medicinal soaps; all the foregoing products provided for in this paragraph, not colors, dyes, or stains, color acids, color bases, color lakes, leuco-compounds, indoxyl, indoxyl compounds, ink powders, photographic chemicals, medicinals, synthetic aromatic or odoriferous chemicals, synthetic resinlike products, synthetic tanning materials or explosives, and not specially provided for in paragraph 28 or 1549, 40 per centum ad valorem based upon the American selling price (as defined in section 239 of this title) of any similar competitive article manufactured or produced in the United States, and 7 cents per pound. If there is no similar competitive article manufactured or produced in the United States then the ad valorem rate shall be based upon the United States value, as defined in section 237 of this title. For the purposes of this paragraph any coal-tar product provided for in this chapter shall be considered similar to or competitive with any imported coal-tar product which accomplishes results substantially equal to those accomplished by the domestic product when used in substantially the same manner. No duty imposed under this paragraph shall be increased under the provisions of sections 154 to 159 of this title.

PAR. 28. Coal-tar products: All colors, dyes, or stains, whether soluble or not in water, color acids, color bases, color lakes, leuco-compounds, whether colorless or not, indoxyl and indoxyl compounds; ink powders; photographic chemicals; acetanilide suitable for medicinal use, acetphenetidine, acetylsalicylic acid, antipyrine, benzaldehyde suitable for medicinal use, benzoic acid suitable for medicinal use, beta-naphthol suitable for medicinal use, guaiacol and its derivatives, phenolphthalein, resorcinol suitable for medicinal use, salicylic acid and its salts suitable for medicinal use, salol, and other medicinals; sodium benzoate; saccharin; artificial musk, benzyl acetate, benzyl benzoate, coumarin, diphenyloxide, methyl anthranilate, methyl salicylate, phenylacetaldehyde, phenylethyl alcohol, and other synthetic odoriferous or aromatic chemicals, including flavors, all of these products not marketable as perfumery, cosmetics, or toilet preparations, and not mixed and not compounded, and not containing alcohol; synthetic phenolic resin and all resin-like products prepared from phenol, cresol, phthalic anhydride, coumarone, indene, or from any other article or material provided for in paragraph 27 or 1549, all of these products whether in a solid, semisolid, or liquid condition; synthetic tanning materials; picric acid, trinitrotoluene, and other explosives except smokeless powders; all of the foregoing products provided for in this paragraph when obtained, derived, or manufactured in whole or in part from any of the products provided for in paragraph 27 or 1549; natural alizarin and natural indigo, and colors, dyes, stains, color acids, color bases, color lakes, leuco-compounds, indoxyl, and indoxyl compounds, obtained, derived, or manufactured in whole or in part from natural alizarin or natural indigo; natural methyl salicylate or oil of wintergreen or oil of sweet birch; natural coumarin; natural guaiacol and its derivatives; and all mixtures, including solutions, consisting in whole or in part of any of the articles or materials provided for in this paragraph, excepting mixtures of synthetic odoriferous or aromatic chemicals, 45 per centum ad valorem based upon the American selling price (as defined in section 239 of this title) of any similar competitive article manufactured or produced in the United States, and 7 cents per pound. If there is no similar competitive article manufactured or produced in the United States then the ad valorem rate shall be based upon the United States value, as defined in section 237 of this title. For the purposes of this paragraph any coal-tar product provided for in this chapter shall be considered similar to or competitive with any imported coal-tar product which accomplishes results substantially equal to those accomplished by the domestic product when used in substantially the same manner. No duty imposed under this paragraph shall be increased under the provisions of sections 154 to 159 of this title. The specific duty of 7 cents per pound herein provided for on colors, dyes, or stains, whether soluble or not in water, color acids, color bases, color lakes, leuco-compounds, indoxyl, and indoxyl compounds, shall be based on standards of strength which shall be established by the Secretary of the Treasury, and that upon all importations of such articles which exceed such standards of strength the specific duty of 7 cents per pound shall be computed on the weight which the article would have if it were diluted to the standard strength, but in no case shall any such articles of whatever strength pay a specific duty of less than 7 cents per pound. It shall be unlawful to import or bring into the United States any such color, dye, stain, color acid, color base, color lake, leuco-compound, indoxyl, or indoxyl compound unless the immediate container and the invoice shall bear a plain, conspicuous, and truly descriptive statement of the identity and percentage, exclusive of diluents, of such color, dye, stain, color acid, color base, color lake, leuco-compound, indoxyl, or indoxyl compound contained therein. It shall be unlawful to import or bring into the United States any such color, dye, stain, color acid, color base, color lake, leuco-compound, indoxyl, or indoxyl compound, if the immediate container or the invoice bears any statement, design, or device regarding the article or the ingredients or substances contained therein which is false, fraudulent, or misleading in any particular. In the enforcement of the foregoing provisions of this paragraph the Secretary of the Treasury shall adopt a standard of strength for each dye or other article which shall conform as nearly as practicable to the commercial strength in ordinary use in the United States prior to July 1, 1914. If a dye or other article has been introduced into commercial use since said date then the standard of strength for such dye or other article shall conform as nearly as practicable to the commercial strength in ordinary use. If a dye or other article was or is ordinarily used in more than one commercial strength, then the lowest commercial strength shall be adopted as the standard of strength for such dye or other article. Any article or product which is within the terms of paragraph 1, 5, 38, 40, 61, 68, 84, or 1585, as well as within the terms of paragraph 27, 28, or 1549, shall be assessed for duty or exempted from duty as the case may be under paragraph 27, 28, or 1549.

PAR. 29. Cobalt: Oxide, 20 cents per pound; sulphate and linoleate, 10 cents per pound; and all other cobalt salts and compounds, 30 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 30. Cellulose esters, collodion and other liquid solutions of pyroxylin, of other cellulose esters or ethers, or of cellulose, 35 cents per pound.

PAR. 31. Compounds of pyroxylin, of other cellulose esters or ethers, or of cellulose, by whatever name known (except compounds of cellulose known as vulcanized or hard fiber), in blocks, sheets, rods, tubes, or other forms, and not made into finished or partly finished articles, 40 cents per pound; made into finished or partly finished articles, of which any of the foregoing is the component material of chief value, 60 per centum ad valorem. All such articles (except photographic and moving-picture films), whether or not more specifically provided for elsewhere, shall be dutiable under this paragraph.

PAR. 32. Compounds of cellulose, known as vulcanized or hard fiber, made wholly or in chief value of cellulose, 35 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 33. Compounds of casein, known as galalith, or by any other name, in blocks, sheets, rods, tubes, or other forms, not made into finished or partly finished articles, 25 cents per pound; made into finished or partly finished articles of which any of the foregoing is the component material of chief value not specially provided for, 40 cents per pound and 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 34. Drugs, such as barks, beans, berries, buds, bulbs, bulbous roots, excrescences, fruits, flowers, dried fibers, dried insects, grains, herbs, leaves, lichens, mosses, roots, stems, vegetables, seeds (aromatic, not garden seeds), seeds of morbid growth, weeds, and all other drugs of vegetable or animal origin; any of the foregoing which are natural and uncompounded drugs and not edible, and not specially provided for, but which are advanced in value or condition by shredding, grinding, chipping, crushing, or any other process or treatment whatever beyond that essential to the proper packing of the drugs and the prevention of decay or deterioration pending manufacture, 10 per centum ad valorem. The term "drug" wherever used in this chapter shall include only those substances having therapeutic or medicinal properties and chiefly used for medicinal purposes. No article containing alcohol shall be classified for duty under this paragraph.

PAR. 35. Aconite, aloes, asafetida, cocculus indicus, ipecac, jalap, manna; marshmallow or althea root, leaves and flowers; maté, and pyrethrum or insect flowers; all the foregoing which are natural and uncompounded, but which are advanced in value or condition by shredding, grinding, chipping, crushing, or any other process or treatment whatever beyond that essential to proper packing and the prevention of decay or deterioration pending manufacture, 10 per centum ad valorem: Provided, That no article containing alcohol shall be classified for duty under this paragraph.

PAR. 36. Buchu leaves, 10 cents per pound; coca leaves, 10 cents per pound; gentian, one-fourth of 1 cent per pound; licorice root, one-half of 1 cent per pound; sarsaparilla root, 1 cent per pound; belladonna, digitalis, henbane, and stramonium, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 37. Ergot, 10 cents per pound.

PAR. 38. Ethers and esters: Diethyl sulphate and dimethyl sulphate, 25 per centum ad valorem; ethyl acetate, 3 cents per pound; ethyl chloride, 15 cents per pound; ethyl ether, 4 cents per pound; and ethers and esters of all kinds not specially provided for, 25 per centum ad valorem: Provided, That no article containing more than 10 per centum of alcohol shall be classified for duty under this paragraph.

PAR. 39. Extracts, dyeing and tanning: Chestnut, cutch, chlorophyll, divi-divi, fustic, hemlock, logwood, mangrove, myrobalan, oak, Persian berry, quebracho, sumac, saffron, safflower, saffron cake, valonia, wattle, and other extracts, decoctions, and preparations of vegetable origin used for dyeing, coloring, staining, or tanning, not specially provided for, and combinations and mixtures of the foregoing articles in this paragraph, 15 per centum ad valorem: Provided, That no article containing alcohol shall be classified for duty under this paragraph.

PAR. 40. Flavoring extracts and natural or synthetic fruit flavors, fruit esters, oils, and essences, all the foregoing not containing alcohol, and not specially provided for, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 41. Formaldehyde solution or formalin, 2 cents per pound; solid formaldehyde or paraformaldehyde, 8 cents per pound; and hexamethylenetetramine, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 42. Edible gelatin, valued at less than 40 cents per pound, 20 per centum ad valorem and 3½ cents per pound; valued at 40 cents or more per pound, 20 per centum ad valorem and 7 cents per pound; gelatin, glue, glue size and fish glue, not specially provided for, valued at less than 40 cents per pound, 20 per centum ad valorem and 1½ cents per pound; valued at 40 cents or more per pound, 20 per centum ad valorem and 7 cents per pound; casein glue, agar agar, isinglass and other fish sounds, cleaned, split, or otherwise prepared, and manufactures, wholly or in chief value of gelatin, glue or glue size, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 43. Glycerine, crude, 1 cent per pound; refined, 2 cents per pound.

PAR. 44. Ink, and ink powders not specially provided for, 20 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 45. Iodine, resublimed, 20 cents per pound.

PAR. 46. Bromine and all bromine compounds not specially provided for, 10 cents per pound.

PAR. 47. Lead: Acetate, white, 2½ cents per pound; acetate, brown, gray, or yellow, 2 cents per pound; nitrate, arsenate, and resinate, 3 cents per pound; and all other lead compounds not specially provided for, 30 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 48. Licorice, extracts of, in pastes, rolls, or other forms, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 49. Lime, citrate of, 7 cents per pound.

PAR. 50. Magnesium: Carbonate, precipitated, 1½ cents per pound; chloride, anhydrous, 1 cent per pound; chloride, not specially provided for, five-eighths of 1 cent per pound; sulphate or Epsom salts, one-half of 1 cent per pound; oxide or calcined magnesia, medicinal, 3½ cents per pound; oxide or calcined magnesia not suitable for medicinal use, 3½ cents per pound.

PAR. 51. Manganese: Borate, resinate, sulphate, and other manganese compounds and salts, not specially provided for, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 52. Menthol, 50 cents per pound; camphor, crude, natural, 1 cent per pound; camphor, refined or synthetic, 6 cents per pound.

PAR. 53. Oils, animal: Sod, herring, and menhaden, 5 cents per gallon; whale and seal, 6 cents per gallon; sperm, 10 cents per gallon; and all fish oils, not specially provided for, 20 per centum ad valorem; wool grease, crude, including that known commercially as degras or brown wool grease, one-half of 1 cent per pound; wool grease, not crude, including adeps lanæ, hydrous and anhydrous, 1 cent per pound; all other animal oils, fats, and greases, not specially provided for, 20 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 54. Oils, expressed or extracted: Castor oil, 3 cents per pound; hempseed oil, 1½ cents per pound; linseed or flaxseed oil, raw, boiled, or oxidized, 3⅛ cents per pound; olive oil, weighing with the immediate container less than forty pounds, 7½ cents per pound on contents and container; olive oil, not specially provided for, 6½ cents per pound; poppy-seed oil, raw, boiled, or oxidized, 2 cents per pound; rapeseed oil, 6 cents per gallon; all other expressed and extracted oils not specially provided for, 20 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 55. Coconut oil, 2 cents per pound; cottonseed oil, 3 cents per pound; peanut oil, 4 cents per pound; and soya-bean oil, 2½ cents per pound.

PAR. 56. Alizarin assistant, Turkey red oil, sulphonated castor or other sulphonated animal or vegetable oils, soaps made in whole or in part from castor oil, and all soluble greases; all of the foregoing in whatever form, and used in the processes of softening, dyeing, tanning, or finishing, not specially provided for, 35 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 57. Hydrogenated or hardened oils and fats, 4 cents per pound; other oils and fats, the composition and properties of which have been changed by vulcanizing, oxidizing, chlorinating, nitrating, or any other chemical process, and not specially provided for, 20 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 58. Combinations and mixtures of animal, vegetable, or mineral oils or of any of them (except combinations or mixtures containing essential or distilled oils), with or without other substances, and not specially provided for, 25 per centum ad valorem: Provided, That no article containing alcohol shall be classified for duty under this paragraph.

PAR. 59. Oils, distilled or essential: Lemon and orange, 25 per centum ad valorem; clove, eucalyptus, peppermint, patchouli, sandalwood, and all other essential and distilled oils not specially provided for, 25 per centum ad valorem: Provided, That no article mixed or compounded or containing alcohol shall be classified for duty under this paragraph.

PAR. 60. Opium containing not less than 8.5 per centum of anhydrous morphine, crude or unmanufactured and not adulterated, $3 per pound; powdered, or otherwise advanced beyond the condition of crude or unmanufactured, and containing 15 per centum or less of moisture, $4 per pound; morphine, morphine sulphate, and all opium alkaloids and salts, esters, and other derivatives thereof, $3 per ounce; cocaine, ecgonine, and salts, esters, and other derivatives thereof, $2.60 per ounce; tincture of opium, such as laudanum, and other liquid preparations of opium, not specially provided for, 60 per centum ad valorem; opium containing less than 8.5 per centum of anhydrous morphine, $6 per pound: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to repeal or in any manner impair or affect the provisions of Chapter 6 of Title 21.

PAR. 61. Perfume materials: Ambergris, castoreum, civet, and musk grained or in pods, 20 per centum ad valorem; anethol, citral, geraniol, heliotropin, ionone, rhodinol, safrol, terpineol, vanillin, and all natural or synthetic odoriferous or aromatic chemicals, all the foregoing not mixed and not compounded, and not specially provided for, 45 per centum ad valorem; all mixtures or combinations containing essential or distilled oils, or natural or synthetic odoriferous or aromatic substances, 40 cents per pound and 50 per centum ad valorem: Provided, That only materials not marketable as perfumery, cosmetics, or toilet preparations, and not containing more than 10 per centum of alcohol, shall be classified for duty under this paragraph: Provided further, That all of the foregoing materials containing more than 10 per centum of alcohol shall be classified for duty under paragraph 62 as toilet preparations.

PAR. 62. Perfumery, including cologne and other toilet waters, articles of perfumery, whether in sachets or otherwise, and all preparations used as applications to the hair, mouth, teeth, or skin, such as cosmetics, dentifrices, tooth soaps, pastes, theatrical grease paints, pomades, powders, and other toilet preparations, all the foregoing if containing alcohol, 40 cents per pound and 75 per centum ad valorem; if not containing alcohol, 75 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 63. Floral or flower waters containing no alcohol, not specially provided for, 20 per centum ad valorem; bay rum or bay water, whether distilled or compounded, 40 cents per pound and 60 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 64. Paris green and London purple, 15 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 65. Phosphorus, 8 cents per pound.

PAR. 66. Plasters, healing or curative, of all kinds, and court-plaster, 20 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 67. Paints, colors, and pigments commonly known as artists' paints or colors, whether in tubes, cakes, jars, pans, or other forms, and not assembled in paint sets, kits, or color outfits, 40 per centum ad valorem; paints, colors, and pigments in tubes, cakes, jars, pans, or other forms, when assembled in paint sets, kits, or color outfits, with or without brushes, water pans, outline drawing, stencils, or other articles, 70 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 68. Pigments, colors, stains, and paints, including enamel paints, whether dry, mixed, or ground in or mixed with water, oil, or solutions other than oil, not specially provided for, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 69. Barytes ore, crude or unmanufactured, $4 per ton; ground or otherwise manufactured, $7.50 per ton; precipitated barium sulphate or blanc fixe, 1 cent per pound.

PAR. 70. Blue pigments and all blues containing iron ferrocyanide or iron ferricyanide, in pulp, dry, or ground in or mixed with oil or water, 8 cents per pound; ultramarine blue, dry, in pulp, or ground in or mixed with oil or water, wash and all other blues containing ultramarine, 3 cents per pound.

PAR. 71. Bone black or bone char, blood char, and decolorizing and deodorizing chars or carbons, 20 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 72. Chrome yellow, chrome green, and other colors containing chromium, in pulp, dry, or ground in or mixed with oil or water, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 73. Gas black, lampblack, and all other black pigments, by whatever name known, dry or ground in or mixed with oil or water, and not specially provided for, 20 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 74. Lead pigments: Litharge, 2½ cents per pound; orange mineral, 3 cents per pound; red lead, 2¾ cents per pound; white lead, 2½ cents per pound; all pigments containing lead, dry or in pulp, or ground in or mixed with oil or water, not specially provided for, 30 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 75. Ochers, siennas, and umbers, crude or not ground, one-eighth of 1 cent per pound; washed or ground, three-eighths of 1 cent per pound; iron-oxide and iron-hydroxide pigments not specially provided for, 20 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 76. Satin white and precipitated calcium sulphate, one-half of 1 cent per pound.

PAR. 77. Spirit varnishes containing less than 5 per centum of methyl alcohol, $2.20 per gallon and 25 per centum ad valorem; spirit varnishes containing 5 per centum or more of methyl alcohol, and all other varnishes, including so-called gold size or japan, not specially provided for, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 78. Vermilion reds containing quicksilver, dry or ground in or mixed with oil or water, 28 cents per pound.

PAR. 79. Zinc oxide and leaded zinc oxides containing not more than 25 per centum of lead, in any form of dry powder, 1¾ cents per pound; ground in or mixed with oil or water, 2¼ cents per pound; lithopone, and other combinations or mixtures of zinc sulphide and barium sulphate, 1¾ cents per pound.

PAR. 80. Potassium: Chromate and dichromate, 2¼ cents per pound; chlorate and perchlorate, 1½ cents per pound; ferricyanide or red prussiate of potash, 7 cents per pound; ferrocyanide or yellow prussiate of potash, 4 cents per pound; iodide, 25 cents per pound; bromide, 10 cents per pound; bicarbonate, 1½ cents per pound; carbonate, three-fourths of 1 cent per pound; hydroxide or caustic potash, 1 cent per pound; nitrate or saltpeter, refined, one-half of 1 cent per pound; and permanganate, 4 cents per pound.

PAR. 81. Santonin, and salts of, 75 cents per pound.

PAR. 82. Soap: Castile, 15 per centum ad valorem; toilet, 30 per centum ad valorem; all other soap and soap powder not specially provided for, 15 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 83. Sodium: Arsenate, 1 cent per pound; bicarbonate or baking soda, one-fourth of 1 cent per pound; borate or borax, refined, one-eighth of 1 cent per pound; bromide, 10 cents per pound; carbonate, calcined, or soda ash, hydrated or sal soda, and monohydrated, one-fourth of 1 cent per pound; chlorate, 1½ cents per pound; chloride or salt, in bags, sacks, barrels, or other packages, 11 cents per one hundred pounds; in bulk, 7 cents per one hundred pounds; chromate and dichromate, 1¾ cents per pound; formate, 2 cents per pound; ferrocyanide or yellow prussiate of soda, 2 cents per pound; hydroxide or caustic soda, one-half of 1 cent per pound; nitrite, 3 cents per pound; phosphate, one-half of 1 cent per pound; sesquicarbonate, one-fourth of 1 cent per pound; sulphate, crystallized, or Glauber salt, $1 per ton; sulphate, anhydrous, $2 per ton; sulphide, containing not more than 35 per centum of sodium sulphide, three-eighths of 1 cent per pound; containing more than 35 per centum, three-fourths of 1 cent per pound; silicate sulphite, bisulphite, metabisulphite, and thiosulphate, three-eighths of 1 cent per pound.

PAR. 84. Sodium hydrosulphite, hydrosulphite compounds, sulphoxylate compounds, and all combinations and mixtures of the foregoing, 35 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 85. Starch: Potato, 1¾ cents per pound; and all other starches not specially provided for, 1 cent per pound.

PAR. 86. Dextrine, made from potato starch or potato flour, 2¼ cents per pound; dextrine, not otherwise provided for, burnt starch or British gum, dextrine substitutes, and soluble or chemically treated starch, 1¼ cents per pound.

PAR. 87. Strontium: Carbonate, precipitated, nitrate, and oxide, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 88. Strychnine, and salts of, 15 cents per ounce.

PAR. 89. Thorium nitrate, thorium oxide, and other salts of thorium not specially provided for, cerium nitrate, cerium fluoride, and other salts of cerium not specially provided for, and gas-mantle scrap consisting in chief value of metallic oxides, 35 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 90. Tin bichloride, tin tetrachloride, and all other chemical compounds, mixtures, and salts, of which tin constitutes the element of chief value, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 91. Titanium potassium oxalate, and all compounds and mixtures containing titanium, 30 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 92. Vanilla beans, 30 cents per pound; tonka beans, 25 cents per pound.

PAR. 93. Zinc chloride, 1⅝ cents per pound; zinc sulphate, three-fourths of 1 cent per pound; and zinc sulphide, 1½ cents per pound.

SCHEDULE 2.—EARTH, EARTHENWARE, AND GLASSWARE

PAR. 201. Bath brick, chrome brick, and fire brick, not specially provided for, 25 per centum ad valorem, magnesite brick, three-fourths of 1 cent per pound and 10 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 202. Tiles, unglazed, glazed, ornamented, hand painted, enameled, vitrified, semivitrified, decorated, encaustic, ceramic mosaic, flint, spar, embossed, gold decorated, grooved or corrugated, and all other earthenware tiles and tiling by whatever name known, except pill tiles and so-called quarries or quarry tiles, red or brown, and measuring seven-eighths of an inch or over in thickness, but including tiles wholly or in part of cement valued at not more than 40 cents per square foot, 8 cents per square foot, but not less than 45 nor more than 60 per centum ad valorem; valued at more than 40 cents per square foot, 50 per centum ad valorem; mantels, friezes, and articles of every description or parts thereof, composed wholly or in chief value of earthenware tiles or tiling, except pill tiles, 50 per centum ad valorem; so-called quarries or quarry tiles, red or brown, and measuring seven-eighths of an inch or over in thickness, 3 cents per square foot, but not less than 30 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 203. Limestone (not suitable for use as monumental or building stone), crude, or crushed but not pulverized, 5 cents per one hundred pounds; lime, not specially provided for, 10 cents per one hundred pounds, including the weight of the container; hydrated lime, 12 cents per one hundred pounds, including the weight of the container.

PAR. 204. Crude magnesite, five-sixteenths of 1 cent per pound; caustic calcined magnesite, five-eighths of 1 cent per pound; dead burned and grain magnesite, not suitable for manufacture into oxychloride cements, twenty-three fortieths of 1 cent per pound.

PAR. 205. Plaster rock or gypsum, ground or calcined, $1.40 per ton; white nonstaining Portland cement, 8 cents per one hundred pounds, including the weight of the container; Keene's cement, and other cement of which gypsum is the component material of chief value, valued at $14 per ton or less, $3.50 per ton; valued above $14 and not above $20 per ton, $5 per ton; valued above $20 and not above $40 per ton, $10 per ton; valued above $40 per ton, $14 per ton: other cement, not specially provided for, 20 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 206. Pumice stone, unmanufactured, valued at $15 or less per ton, one-tenth of 1 cent per pound; valued at more than $15 per ton, one-fourth of 1 cent per pound; wholly or partly manufactured, fifty-five one-hundredths of 1 cent per pound; manufactures of pumice stone, or of which pumice stone is the component material of chief value, not specially provided for, 35 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 207. Clays or earths, unwrought or unmanufactured, including common blue clay and Gross-Almerode glass pot clay, not specially provided for, $1 per ton; wrought or manufactured, not specially provided for, $2 per ton; china clay or kaolin, $2.50 per ton; bauxite, crude, not refined or otherwise advanced in condition in any manner, $1 per ton; fuller's earth, unwrought and unmanufactured, $1.50 per ton; wrought or manufactured, $3.25 per ton; silica, crude, not specially provided for, $4 per ton; silica, suitable for use as a pigment, not specially provided for, $7.50 per ton; fluorspar, $5.60 per ton.

PAR. 208. Mica, unmanufactured, valued at not above 15 cents per pound, 4 cents per pound; valued above 15 cents per pound, 25 per centum ad valorem; mica, cut or trimmed, and mica splittings, 30 per centum ad valorem; mica plates, and built-up mica, and all manufactures of mica or of which mica is the component material of chief value, 40 per centum ad valorem; ground mica, 20 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 209. Talc, steatite or soapstone, and French chalk, crude and unground, one-fourth of 1 cent per pound; ground, washed, powdered, or pulverized (except toilet preparations), 25 per centum ad valorem; cut or sawed, or in blanks, crayons, cubes, disks, or other forms, 1 cent per pound; manufactures (except toilet preparations), of which talc, steatite or soapstone, or French chalk is the component material of chief value, wholly or partly finished, and not specially provided for, if not decorated, 35 per centum ad valorem; if decorated, 45 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 210. Common yellow, brown, or gray earthenware made of natural, unwashed, and unmixed clay, plain or embossed; common salt-glazed stoneware; stoneware and earthenware crucibles; all the foregoing not ornamented, incised, or decorated in any manner, 15 per centum ad valorem; ornamented, incised, or decorated in any manner and manufactures wholly or in chief value of such ware, not specially provided for, 20 per centum ad valorem; and Rockingham earthenware, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 211. Earthenware and crockery ware composed of a nonvitrified absorbent body, including white granite and semiporcelain earthenware, and cream-colored ware, and stoneware, including clock cases with or without movements, pill tiles, plaques, ornaments, toys, charms, vases, statues, statuettes, mugs, cups, steins, lamps, and all other articles composed wholly or in chief value of such ware; plain white, plain yellow, plain brown, plain red, or plain black, not painted, colored, tinted, stained, enameled, gilded, printed, ornamented, or decorated in any manner, and manufactures in chief value of such ware not specially provided for, 45 per centum ad valorem; painted, colored, tinted, stained, enameled, gilded, printed, ornamented, or decorated in any manner, and manufactures in chief value of such ware, not specially provided for, 50 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 212. China, porcelain, and other vitrified wares, including chemical porcelain ware and chemical stoneware, composed of a vitrified nonabsorbent body which when broken shows a vitrified or vitreous, or semivitrified or semivitreous fracture, and all bisque and parian wares, including clock cases with or without movements, plaques, pill tiles, ornaments, toys, charms, vases, statues, statuettes, mugs, cups, steins, lamps, and all other articles composed wholly or in chief value of such ware, plain white, or plain brown, not painted, colored, tinted, stained, enameled, gilded, printed, or ornamented or decorated in any manner, and manufactures in chief value of such ware not specially provided for, 60 per centum ad valorem; painted, colored, tinted, stained, enameled, gilded, printed, or ornamented or decorated in any manner, and manufactures in chief value of such ware not specially provided for, 70 per centum ad valorem; any of the foregoing articles containing 25 per centum or more of calcined bone, not painted, colored, tinted, stained, enameled, gilded, printed, or ornamented or decorated in any manner, 50 per centum ad valorem; painted, colored, tinted, stained, enameled, gilded, printed, or ornamented or decorated in any manner, 55 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 213. Graphite or plumbago, crude or refined: Amorphous, 10 per centum ad valorem; crystalline lump, chip, or dust, 20 per centum ad valorem; crystalline flake, 1½ cents per pound. As used in this paragraph, the term "crystalline flake" means graphite or plumbago which occurs disseminated as a relatively thin flake throughout its containing rock, decomposed or not, and which may be or has been separated therefrom by ordinary crushing, pulverizing, screening, or mechanical concentration process, such flake being made up of a number of parallel laminæ, which may be separated by mechanical means.

PAR. 214. Earthy or mineral substances wholly or partly manufactured and articles, wares, and materials (crude or advanced in condition), composed wholly or in chief value of earthy or mineral substances, not specially provided for, whether susceptible of decoration or not, if not decorated in any manner, 30 per centum ad valorem; if decorated, 40 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 215. Gas retorts, 20 per centum ad valorem; lava tips for burners, 10 cents per gross and 15 per centum ad valorem; and magnesia clay supporters, consisting of rings, rods, and other forms for gas mantles, 35 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 216. Carbons and electrodes, of whatever material composed, and wholly or partly manufactured, for producing electric arc light; electrodes, composed wholly or in part of carbon or graphite, and wholly or partly manufactured, for electric furnace or electrolytic purposes; brushes, of whatever material composed, and wholly or partly manufactured, for electric motors, generators, or other electrical machines or appliances; plates, rods, and other forms, of whatever material composed, and wholly or partly manufactured, for manufacturing into the aforesaid brushes; and articles or wares composed wholly or in part of carbon or graphite, wholly or partly manufactured, not specially provided for, 45 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 217. Plain green or colored, molded or pressed, and flint, lime, or lead glass bottles, vials, jars, and covered or uncovered demijohns, and carboys, any of the foregoing, filled or unfilled, not specially provided for, and whether their contents be dutiable or free (except such as contain merchandise subject to an ad valorem rate of duty, or to a rate of duty based in whole or in part upon the value thereof, which shall be dutiable at the rate applicable to their contents), shall pay duty as follows: If holding more than one pint, 1 cent per pound; if holding not more than one pint and not less than one-fourth of a pint, 1½ cents per pound; if holding less than one-fourth of a pint, 50 cents per gross: Provided, That the terms "bottles," "vials," "jars," "demijohns," and "carboys," as used herein, shall be restricted to such articles when suitable for use and of the character ordinarily employed for the holding or transportation of merchandise, and not as appliances or implements in chemical or other operations, and shall not include bottles for table service and thermostatic bottles.

PAR. 218. Biological, chemical, metallurgical, pharmaceutical, and surgical articles and utensils of all kinds, including all scientific articles, utensils, tubing and rods, whether used for experimental purposes in hospitals, laboratories, schools or universities, colleges, or otherwise, all of the foregoing, finished or unfinished, composed wholly or in chief value of glass or paste, or a combination of glass and paste, 65 per centum ad valorem; illuminating articles of every description, including chimneys, globes, shades, and prisms, for use in connection with artificial illumination, all of the foregoing, finished or unfinished, composed wholly or in chief value of glass or paste, or a combination of glass and paste, 60 per centum ad valorem; all glassware commercially known as plated or cased glass, composed of two or more layers of clear, opaque, colored, or semitranslucent glass, or combinations of the same, 60 per centum ad valorem; table and kitchen articles and utensils, and all articles of every description not specially provided for, composed wholly or in chief value of glass or paste, or combinations of glass and paste, blown or partly blown in the mold or otherwise, or colored, cut, engraved, etched, frosted, gilded, ground (except such grinding as is necessary for fitting stoppers or for purposes other than ornamentation), painted, printed in any manner, sand-blasted, silvered, stained, or decorated or ornamented in any manner, whether filled or unfilled, or whether their contents be dutiable or free, 55 per centum ad valorem; table and kitchen articles and utensils, composed wholly or in chief value of glass or paste, or a combination of glass and paste, when pressed and unpolished, whether not decorated or ornamented in any manner or ground (except such grinding as is necessary for fitting stoppers or for purposes other than ornamentation), whether filled or unfilled, or whether their contents be dutiable or free, 50 per centum ad valorem; Provided, That any of the articles specified in this paragraph, if containers of merchandise subject to an ad valorem rate of duty or to a rate of duty based in whole or in part upon the value thereof, shall be dutiable at the rate applicable to their contents, but not less than the rate provided for in this paragraph: Provided further, That for the purposes of this chapter, bottles with cut-glass stoppers shall with their stoppers be deemed entireties.

PAR. 219. Cylinder, crown, and sheet glass, by whatever process made, and for whatever purpose used, unpolished, not exceeding one hundred and fifty square inches, 1¼ cents per pound; above that, and not exceeding three hundred and eighty-four square inches, 1⅜ cents per pound; above that, and not exceeding seven hundred and twenty square inches, 1⅝ cents per pound; above that, and not exceeding eight hundred and sixty-four square inches, 1¾ cents per pound; above that, and not exceeding one thousand two hundred square inches, 2 cents per pound; above that, and not exceeding two thousand four hundred square inches, 2¼ cents per pound; above that, 2½ cents per pound: Provided, That unpolished cylinder, crown, and sheet glass, imported in boxes, shall contain fifty square feet, as nearly as sizes will permit, and the duty shall be computed thereon according to the actual weight of glass.

PAR. 220. Cylinder, crown, and sheet glass, by whatever process made, polished, not exceeding three hundred and eighty-four square inches, 4 cents per square foot; above that, and not exceeding seven hundred and twenty square inches, 6 cents per square foot; above that, and not exceeding one thousand four hundred and forty square inches, 12 cents per square foot; above that, 15 cents per square foot.

PAR. 221. Fluted, rolled, ribbed, or rough plate glass, or the same containing a wire netting within itself (not including crown, cylinder, or sheet glass), not exceeding three hundred and eighty-four square inches, three-fourths of 1 cent per square foot; all above that, 1½ cents per square foot; and all fluted, rolled, ribbed, or rough plate glass, weighing over one hundred pounds per one hundred square feet, shall pay an additional duty on the excess at the same rates herein imposed: Provided, That all of the above plate glass, when ground, smoothed, or otherwise obscured, shall be subject to the same rate of duty as cast polished plate glass unsilvered.

PAR. 222. Cast polished plate glass, finished or unfinished, and unsilvered, not exceeding three hundred and eighty-four square inches, 12½ cents per square foot; above that, and not exceeding seven hundred and twenty square inches, 15 cents per square foot; all above that, 17½ cents per square foot. Plate glass described in this paragraph containing a wire netting within itself, not exceeding three hundred and eighty-four square inches, 15 cents per square foot; above that, and not exceeding seven hundred and twenty square inches, 17½ cents per square foot; all above that, 20 cents per square foot.

PAR. 223. Cast polished plate glass, silvered, cylinder and crown glass, silvered, and looking-glass plates, exceeding in size one hundred and forty-four square inches and not exceeding three hundred and eighty-four square inches, 13½ cents per square foot; above that, and not exceeding seven hundred and twenty square inches, 16 cents per square foot; all above that, 21 cents per square foot: Provided, That none of the foregoing shall pay less duty than 85 per centum ad valorem: Provided further, That no looking-glass plates or glass, silvered, when framed, shall pay a less rate of duty than that imposed upon similar glass of like description not framed, but shall pay in addition thereto upon such frames the rate of duty applicable thereto when imported separate.

PAR. 224. Cast polished plate glass, silvered or unsilvered, and cylinder, crown, and sheet glass, by whatever process made, silvered or unsilvered, polished or unpolished, when bent, ground, obscured, frosted, sanded, enameled, beveled, etched, embossed, engraved, flashed, stained, colored, painted, ornamented, or decorated, shall be subject to a duty of 5 per centum ad valorem in addition to the rates otherwise chargeable thereon.

PAR. 225. Spectacles, eyeglasses, and goggles, and frames for the same, or parts thereof, finished, or unfinished, valued at not over 65 cents per dozen, 20 cents per dozen and 15 per centum ad valorem; valued at over 65 cents per dozen and not over $2.50 per dozen, 60 cents per dozen and 20 per centum ad valorem; valued at over $2.50 per dozen, 40 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 226. Lenses of glass or pebble, molded or pressed, or ground and polished to a spherical, cylindrical, or prismatic form, and ground and polished plano or coquill glasses, wholly or partly manufactured, with the edges unground, 40 per centum ad valorem; with the edges ground or beveled, 10 cents per dozen pairs and 35 per centum ad valorem; strips of glass not more than three inches wide, ground or polished on one or both sides to a cylindrical or prismatic form, including those used in the construction of gauges, and glass slides for magic lanterns, 35 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 227. Optical glass or glass used in the manufacture of lenses or prisms for spectacles, or for optical instruments or equipment, or for optical parts, scientific or commercial, in any and all forms, 45 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 228. Azimuth mirrors, sextants, and octants; photographic and projection lenses, opera and field glasses, telescopes, microscopes, and other optical instruments, and frames and mountings for the same; all the foregoing not specially provided for, 45 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 229. Incandescent electric-light bulbs and lamps, with or without filaments, 20 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 230. Stained or painted glass windows, and parts thereof; and all mirrors, not specially provided for, not exceeding in size one hundred and forty-four square inches, with or without frames or cases, 50 per centum ad valorem; and all glass or manufactures of glass or paste, or of which glass or paste is the component material of chief value, not specially provided for, 50 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 231. Smalts, frostings, and all ceramic and glass colors, fluxes, glazes, and enamels, all the foregoing, ground or pulverized, 30 per centum ad valorem; in any other form, 40 per centum ad valorem; opal, enamel or cylinder glass tiles, tiling, and rods, 40 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 232. Marble, breccia, and onyx, in block, rough or squared only, 65 cents per cubic foot; marble, breccia, and onyx, sawed or dressed, over two inches in thickness, $1 per cubic foot; slabs and paving tiles of marble, breccia, or onyx, containing not less than four superficial inches, if not more than one inch in thickness, 8 cents per superficial foot; if more than one inch and not more than one and one-half inches in thickness, 10 cents per superficial foot; if more than one and one-half inches and not more than two inches in thickness, 13 cents per superficial foot; if rubbed in whole or in part, 8 cents per superficial foot in addition; mosaic cubes of marble, breccia, or onyx, not exceeding two cubic inches in size, if loose, one-fourth of 1 cent per pound and 20 per centum ad valorem; if attached to paper or other material, 5 cents per superficial foot and 35 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 233. Marble, breccia, onyx, alabaster, and jet, wholly or partly manufactured into monuments, benches, vases, and other articles, and articles of which these substances or any of them is the component material of chief value, and all articles composed wholly or in chief value of agate, rock crystal, or other semiprecious stone, except such as are cut into shapes and forms fitting them expressly for use in the construction of jewelry, not specially provided for, 50 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 234. Burrstones, manufactured or bound up into millstones, 15 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 235. Freestone, granite, sandstone, limestone, lava, and all other stone suitable for use as monumental or building stone, except marble, breccia, and onyx, not specially provided for, hewn, dressed, or polished, or otherwise manufactured, 50 per centum ad valorem; unmanufactured, or not dressed, hewn, or polished, 15 cents per cubic foot.

PAR. 236. Grindstones, finished or unfinished, $1.75 per ton.

PAR. 237. Slates, slate chimney pieces, mantles, slabs for tables, roofing slates, and all other manufactures of slate, not specially provided for, 15 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 238. Watch crystals, 60 per centum ad valorem.

SCHEDULE 3.—METALS AND MANUFACTURES OF

PAR. 301. Iron in pigs, iron kentledge, spiegeleisen containing more than 1 per centum of carbon, 75 cents per ton; wrought and cast scrap iron, and scrap steel, valued at not more than 7 cents per pound, 75 cents per ton: Provided, That spiegeleisen for the purposes of this chapter shall be an iron manganese alloy containing less than 30 per centum of manganese: Provided further, That nothing shall be deemed scrap iron or scrap steel except secondhand or waste or refuse iron or steel fit only to be remanufactured.

PAR. 302. Manganese ore or concentrates containing in excess of 30 per centum of metallic manganese, 1 cent per pound on the metallic manganese contained therein; molybdenum ore or concentrates, 35 cents per pound on the metallic molybdenum contained therein; tungsten ore or concentrates, 45 cents per pound on the metallic tungsten contained therein; ferromanganese containing more than 1 per centum of carbon, 1⅛ cents per pound on the metallic manganese contained therein: Provided, That ferromanganese for the purposes of this chapter shall be such iron manganese alloys as contain 30 per centum or more of manganese; manganese metal, manganese silicon, manganese boron, and ferromanganese and spiegeleisen containing not more than 1 per centum of carbon, 1⅛ cents per pound on the manganese contained therein and 15 per centum ad valorem; ferromolybdenum, metallic molybdenum, molybdenum powder, calcium molybdate, and all other compounds and alloys of molybdenum, 50 cents per pound on the molybdenum contained therein and 15 per centum ad valorem; ferrotungsten, metallic tungsten, tungsten powder, tungstic acid, and all other compounds of tungsten, 60 cents per pound on the tungsten contained therein and 25 per centum ad valorem; ferrochromium tungsten, chromium tungsten, chromium cobalt tungsten, tungsten nickel, and all other alloys of tungsten not specially provided for, 60 cents per pound on the tungsten contained therein and 25 per centum ad valorem; ferrosilicon, containing 8 per centum or more of silicon and less than 60 per centum, 2 cents per pound on the silicon contained therein; containing 60 per centum or more of silicon and less than 80 per centum, 3 cents per pound on the silicon contained therein; containing 80 per centum or more of silicon and less than 90 per centum, 4 cents per pound on the silicon contained therein; containing 90 per centum or more of silicon, and silicon metal, 8 cents per pound on the silicon contained therein; ferrochrome or ferrochromium containing 8 per centum or more of carbon, 3½ cents per pound on the chromium contained therein; ferrochrome or ferrochromium containing less than 8 per centum of carbon, and chrome or chromium metal, 30 per centum ad valorem; ferrophosphorus, ferrotitanium, ferrovanadium, ferrouranium, ferrozirconium, zirconiumferrosilicon, ferroboron, titanium, zirconium, chromium nickel, vanadium nickel, zirconium nickel, chromium vanadium, chromium silicon, zirconium silicon, calcium silicide, and all alloys used in the manufacture of steel not specially provided for, 25 per centum ad valorem; cerium metal, $2 per pound; ferrocerium and all other cerium alloys, $2 per pound and 25 per centum ad valorem; ductile tantalum metal or ductile nonferrous alloys of tantalum metal, 40 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 303. Muck bars, bar iron, and round iron in coils or rods, iron in slabs, blooms, loops, or other forms less finished than iron in bars and more advanced than pig iron, except castings; all of the foregoing, valued at not over 1 cent per pound, two-tenths of 1 cent per pound; valued above 1 cent and not above 1½ cents per pound, three-tenths of 1 cent per pound; valued above 1½ and not above 2½ cents per pound, five-tenths of 1 cent per pound; valued above 2½ and not above 3½ cents per pound, eight-tenths of 1 cent per pound; valued above 3½ and not above 5 cents per pound, 1 cent per pound; valued above 5 cents per pound, 1½ cents per pound.

PAR. 304. Steel ingots, cogged ingots, blooms and slabs, by whatever process made; die blocks or blanks; billets and bars, whether solid or hollow; shafting; pressed, sheared, or stamped shapes, not advanced in value or condition by any process or operation subsequent to the process of stamping; hammer molds or swaged steel; gun-barrel molds not in bars; alloys not specially provided for used as substitutes for steel in the manufacture of tools; all descriptions and shapes of dry sand, loam, or iron molded steel castings; sheets and plates and steel not specially provided for; all of the foregoing valued at not over 1 cent per pound, two-tenths of 1 cent per pound; valued above 1 cent and not above 1½ cents per pound, three-tenths of 1 cent per pound; valued above 1½ and not above 2½ cents per pound, five-tenths of 1 cent per pound; valued above 2½ and not above 3½ cents per pound, eight-tenths of 1 cent per pound; valued above 3½ and not above 5 cents per pound, 1 cent per pound; valued above 5 and not above 8 cents per pound, 1⅞ cents per pound; valued above 8 and not above 12 cents per pound, 2½ cents per pound; valued above 12 and not above 16 cents per pound, 3½ cents per pound; valued above 16 cents per pound, 20 per centum ad valorem: Provided, That on steel circular saw plates there shall be levied, collected and paid an additional duty of one-fourth of 1 cent per pound.

PAR. 305. In addition to the rates of duty provided for in this schedule on steel in all forms and shapes, by whatever process made, and by whatever name designated, whether cast, hot or cold rolled, forged, stamped, or drawn, containing more than six-tenths of 1 per centum of nickel, cobalt, vanadium, chromium, tungsten, molybdenum, or any other metallic element used in alloying steel, there shall be levied, collected, and paid 8 per centum ad valorem: Provided, That manganese and silicon shall not be considered as alloying material unless present in the steel in excess of 1 per centum manganese or silicon: Provided further, That an additional cumulative duty of 65 cents per pound on the molybdenum content in excess of six-tenths of 1 per centum, and 72 cents per pound on the tungsten content in excess of six-tenths of 1 per centum shall be levied, collected, and paid on any material provided for in paragraph 304 containing molybdenum and tungsten.

PAR. 306. All metal produced from iron or its ores, which is cast and malleable, of whatever description or form, without regard to the percentage of carbon contained therein, whether produced by cementation, or converted, cast, or made from iron or its ores, by the crucible, electric, Bessemer, Clapp-Griffith, pneumatic, Thomas-Gilchrist, basic, Siemens-Martin, or open-hearth process, or by the equivalent of either, or by a combination of two or more of the processes, or their equivalents, or by any fusion or other process which produces from iron or its ores a metal either granular or fibrous in structure, which is cast and malleable, excepting what is known as malleable-iron castings, shall be classed and denominated as steel.

PAR. 307. Boiler or other plate iron or steel, except crucible plate steel and saw plate steel, not thinner than one hundred and nine one-thousandths of one inch, cut or sheared to shape or otherwise, or unsheared, and skelp iron or steel sheared or rolled in grooves, valued at 1 cent per pound or less, seven-twentieths of 1 cent per pound; valued above 1 cent per pound and not above 3 cents per pound, five-tenths of 1 cent per pound; valued at over 3 cents per pound, 20 per centum ad valorem: Provided, That all sheets or plates of iron or steel thinner than one hundred and nine one-thousandths of one inch shall pay duty as iron or steel sheets.

PAR. 308. Sheets of iron or steel, common or black, of whatever dimensions, and skelp iron or steel, valued at 3 cents per pound or less, thinner than one hundred and nine one-thousandths and not thinner than thirty-eight one-thousandths of an inch, forty-five one-hundredths of 1 cent per pound; thinner than thirty-eight one-thousandths and not thinner than twenty-two one-thousandths of an inch, fifty-five one-hundredths of 1 cent per pound; thinner than twenty-two one-thousandths and not thinner than ten one-thousandths of an inch, seventy-five one-hundredths of 1 cent per pound; thinner than ten one-thousandths of an inch, eighty-five one-hundredths of 1 cent per pound; corrugated or crimped, seventy-five one-hundredths of 1 cent per pound; all the foregoing when valued at more than 3 cents per pound, 20 per centum ad valorem: Provided, That all sheets or plates of common or black iron or steel not thinner than one hundred and nine one-thousandths of an inch shall pay duty as plate iron or plate steel.

PAR. 309. All iron or steel sheets, plates, bars, and rods, and all hoop, band, or scroll iron or steel, excepting what are known commercially as tin plates, terneplates, and taggers tin, when galvanized or coated with zinc, spelter, or other metals, or any alloy of those metals, shall pay two-tenths of 1 cent per pound more duty than if the same was not so galvanized or coated; sheets or plates composed of iron, steel, copper, nickel, or other metal with layers of other metal or metals imposed thereon by forging, hammering, rolling, or welding, 30 per centum ad valorem; thermostatic metal in sheets, plates, or other forms, 50 per centum ad valorem; sheets and plates of iron or steel, polished, planished, or glanced, by whatever name designated, 1¼ cents per pound: Provided, That plates or sheets of iron or steel, by whatever name designated, other than polished, planished, or glanced, herein provided for, which have been pickled or cleaned by acid, or by any other material or process, or which are cold-rolled, smoothed only, not polished, shall pay two-tenths of 1 cent per pound more duty than the rates provided on corresponding thicknesses of common or black sheet iron or steel.

PAR. 310. Sheets or plates of iron or steel, or taggers iron or steel, coated with tin or lead, or with a mixture of which these metals, or either of them, is a component part, by the dipping or any other process, and commercially known as tin plates, terneplates, and taggers tin, 1 cent per pound.

PAR. 311. No article not specially provided for which is wholly or partly manufactured from tin plate, terneplate, or sheet, plate, hoop, band, or scroll iron or steel, or of which such tin plate, terneplate, sheet, plate, hoop, band or scroll iron or steel shall be the material of chief value, shall pay a lower rate of duty than that imposed on the tin plate, terneplate, or sheet, plate, hoop, band, or scroll iron or steel from which it is made, or of which it shall be the component thereof of chief value.

PAR. 312. Beams, girders, joists, angles, channels, car-truck channels, tees, columns and posts, or parts or sections of columns and posts, deck and bulb beams, and building forms, together with all other structural shapes of iron or steel, not assembled, manufactured or advanced beyond hammering, rolling, or casting, one-fifth of 1 cent per pound; any of the foregoing machined, drilled, punched, assembled, fitted, fabricated for use, or otherwise advanced beyond hammering, rolling, or casting, 20 per centum ad valorem; sashes, frames, and building forms, of iron or steel, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 313. Hoop, band, and scroll iron or steel, not specially provided for, valued at 8 cents per pound or less, eight inches or less in width, and thinner than three-eighths and not thinner than one hundred and nine one-thousandths of one inch, twenty-five one-hundredths of 1 cent per pound; thinner than one hundred and nine one-thousandths and not thinner than thirty-eight one-thousandths of one inch, thirty-five one-hundredths of 1 cent per pound; thinner than thirty-eight one-thousandths of one inch, fifty-five one-hundredths of 1 cent per pound: Provided, That barrel hoops of iron or steel, and hoop or band iron, or hoop or band steel, flared, splayed, or punched, with or without buckles or fastenings, shall pay no more duty than that imposed on the hoop or band iron or steel from which they are made; bands and strips of iron or steel, whether in long or short lengths, not specially provided for, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 314. Hoop or band iron, and hoop or band steel, cut to lengths, or wholly or partly manufactured into hoops or ties, coated or not coated with paint or any other preparation, with or without buckles or fastenings, for baling cotton or any other commodity, one-fourth of 1 cent per pound.

PAR. 315. Wire rods: Rivet, screw, fence, and other iron or steel wire rods, whether round, oval, or square, or in any other shape, nail rods and flat rods up to six inches in width ready to be drawn or rolled into wire or strips, all the foregoing in coils or otherwise, valued at not over 4 cents per pound, three-tenths of 1 cent per pound; valued at over 4 cents per pound, six-tenths of 1 cent per pound: Provided, That all round iron or steel rods smaller than twenty one-hundredths of one inch in diameter shall be classified and dutiable as wire: Provided further, That all iron or steel wire rods which have been tempered or treated in any manner or partly manufactured shall pay an additional duty of one-fourth of 1 cent per pound: Provided further, That on all iron or steel bars and rods of whatever shape or section which are cold rolled, cold drawn, cold hammered, or polished in any way in addition to the ordinary process of hot rolling or hammering, there shall be paid one-eighth of 1 cent per pound in addition to the rates provided on bars or rods of whatever section or shape which are hot rolled; and on all strips, plates, or sheets of iron or steel of whatever shape, other than polished, planished, or glanced sheet iron or sheet steel, which are cold hammered, blued, brightened, tempered, or polished by any process to such perfected surface finish or polish better than the grade of cold rolled, smoothed only, there shall be paid two-tenths of 1 cent per pound in addition to the rates provided on plates, strips, or sheets of iron or steel of common or black finish of corresponding thickness or value.

PAR. 316. Round iron or steel wire, not smaller than ninety-five one-thousandths of one inch in diameter, three-fourths of 1 cent per pound; smaller than ninety-five one-thousandths and not smaller than sixty-five one-thousandths of one inch in diameter, 1¼ cents per pound; smaller than sixty-five one-thousandths of one inch in diameter, 1½ cents per pound: Provided, That all of the foregoing valued above 6 cents per pound shall pay a duty of 25 per centum ad valorem; all wire composed of iron, steel, or other metal, not specially provided for (except gold, silver, or platinum); all flat wires and all steel in strips not thicker than one-quarter of one inch and not exceeding sixteen inches in width, whether in long or short lengths, in coils or otherwise, and whether rolled or drawn through dies or rolls, or otherwise produced, 25 per centum ad valorum: Provided, That all wire of iron, steel, or other metal coated by dipping, galvanizing, sherardizing, electrolytic, or any other process with zinc, tin, or other metal, shall pay a duty of two-tenths of 1 cent per pound in addition to the rate imposed on the wire of which it is made; telegraph, telephone, and other wires and cables composed of iron, steel, or other metal (except gold, silver, or platinum), covered with or composed in part of cotton, jute, silk, enamel, lacquer, rubber, paper, compound, or other material, with or without metal covering, 35 per centum ad valorem; wire rope and wire strand, 35 per centum ad valorem; spinning and twisting ring travelers, 35 per centum ad valorem; wire heddles and healds, 25 cents per thousand and 30 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 317. All galvanized wire not specially provided for, not larger than twenty one-hundredths and not smaller than eight one-hundredths of one inch in diameter, of the kind commonly used for fencing purposes, galvanized wire fencing composed of wires not larger than twenty one-hundredths and not smaller than eight one-hundredths of one inch in diameter; and all wire commonly used for baling hay or other commodities, one-half of 1 cent per pound.

PAR. 318. Woven-wire cloth: Gauze, fabric, or screen, made of wire composed of steel, brass, copper, bronze, or any other metal or alloy, not specially provided for, with meshes not finer than thirty wires to the lineal inch in warp or filling, 25 per centum ad valorem; with meshes finer than thirty and not finer than ninety wires to the lineal inch in warp or filling, 35 per centum ad valorem; with meshes finer than ninety wires to the lineal inch in warp or filling, 45 per centum ad valorem.

PAR 319. Iron or steel anchors and parts thereof; forgings of iron or steel, or of combined iron and steel, not machined, tooled, or otherwise advanced in condition by any process or operation subsequent to the forging process, not specially provided for, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 320. Electric storage batteries and parts thereof, storage battery plates, and storage battery plate material, wholly or partly manufactured, all the foregoing not specially provided for, 40 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 321. Antifriction balls and rollers, metal balls and rollers commonly used in ball or roller bearings, metal ball or roller bearings, and parts thereof, whether finished or unfinished, for whatever use intended, 10 cents per pound and 45 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 322. Railway fishplates or splice bars, and tie plates, made of iron or steel, one-fourth of 1 cent per pound; rail braces, and all other railway bars made of iron or steel, and railway bars made in part of steel, T rails, and punched iron or steel flat rails, one-tenth of 1 cent per pound.

PAR. 323. Axles and parts thereof, axle bars, axle blanks, and forgings for axles, of iron or steel, without reference to the stage or state of manufacture, not specially provided for, valued at not more than 6 cents per pound, six-tenths of 1 cent per pound: Provided, That when iron or steel axles are imported fitted in wheels, or parts of wheels, of iron or steel, they shall be dutiable at the same rate as the wheels in which they are fitted.

PAR. 324. Wheels for railway purposes, and parts thereof, of iron or steel, and steel-tired wheels for railway purposes, wholly or partly finished, and iron or steel locomotive, car, or other railway tires and parts thereof, wholly or partly manufactured, 1 cent per pound: Provided, That when wheels for railway purposes, or parts thereof, of iron or steel, are imported with iron or steel axles fitted in them, the wheels and axles together shall be dutiable at the same rate as is provided for the wheels when imported separately.

PAR. 325. Jewelers' and other anvils weighing less than five pounds each, 45 per centum ad valorem; all other anvils of iron or steel, or of iron and steel combined, by whatever process made, or in whatever stage of manufacture, 1⅝ cents per pound.

PAR. 326. Blacksmiths' hammers, tongs, and sledges, track tools, wedges, and crowbars, of iron or steel, 1⅜ cents per pound.

PAR. 327. Cast-iron pipe of every description, cast-iron andirons, plates, stove plates, sadirons, tailors' irons, hatters' irons, but not including electric irons, and castings and vessels wholly of cast iron, including all castings of iron or cast-iron plates which have been chiseled, drilled, machined, or otherwise advanced in condition by processes or operations subsequent to the casting process but not made up into articles, or parts thereof, or finished machine parts; castings of malleable iron not specially provided for; cast hollow ware, coated, glazed, or tinned, but not including enameled ware and hollow ware containing electrical elements, 20 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 328. Lap-welded, butt-welded, seamed, or jointed iron or steel tubes, pipes, flues, and stays, not thinner than sixty-five one-thousandths of an inch, if not less than three-eighths of an inch in diameter, three-fourths of 1 cent per pound; if less than three-eighths and not less than one-fourth of an inch in diameter, 1¼ cents per pound; if less than one-fourth of an inch in diameter, 1¾ cents per pound: Provided, That no tubes, pipes, flues, or stays made of charcoal iron shall pay a less rate of duty than 1¼ cents per pound; cylindrical and tubular tanks or vessels, for holding gas, liquids, or other material, whether full or empty; welded cylindrical furnaces, tubes and flues made from plate metal, whether corrugated, ribbed, or otherwise reinforced against collapsing pressure, and all other finished or unfinished iron or steel tubes not specially provided for, 25 per centum ad valorem; flexible metal tubing or hose, whether covered with wire or other material, including any appliances or attachments affixed thereto, not specially provided for, and rigid iron or steel tubes or pipes prepared and lined or coated in any manner suitable for use as conduits for electrical conductors, 30 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 329. Chain and chains of all kinds, made of iron or steel, not less than three-fourths of one inch in diameter, seven-eighths of 1 cent per pound; less than three-fourths and not less than three-eighths of one inch in diameter, 1⅛ cents per pound; less than three-eighths and not less than five-sixteenths of one inch in diameter, 2⅛ cents per pound; less than five-sixteenths of one inch in diameter, 4 cents per pound; sprocket and machine chains, of iron or steel, and parts thereof, 35 per centum ad valorem; anchor or stud link chain, two inches or more in diameter, 1½ cents per pound; less than two inches in diameter, 2 cents per pound: Provided, That all articles manufactured wholly or in chief value of chain shall not pay a lower rate of duty than that imposed upon the chain of which it is made, or of which chain is the component material of chief value.

PAR. 330. Nuts, nut blanks, and washers, of wrought iron or steel, six-tenths of 1 cent per pound; bolts, with or without threads or nuts, and bolt blanks, of iron or steel, 1 cent per pound; spiral nut locks, and lock washers, of iron or steel, 35 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 331. Cut nails and cut spikes, of iron or steel, exceeding two inches in length, four-tenths of 1 cent per pound; cut tacks and brads, hobnails and cut nails, of iron or steel, not exceeding two inches in length, 15 per centum ad valorem; horseshoe nails, and other iron or steel nails, not specially provided for, 1½ cents per pound; nails, spikes, tacks, brads, and staples, made of iron or steel wire, not less than one inch in length nor smaller than sixty-five one-thousandths of one inch in diameter, four-tenths of 1 cent per pound; less than one inch in length and smaller than sixty-five one-thousandths of one inch in diameter, three-fourths of 1 cent per pound; spikes, tacks, brads, and staples, not specially provided for, six-tenths of 1 cent per pound.

PAR. 332. Rivets, studs, and steel points, lathed, machined, or brightened, and rivets or studs for nonskidding automobile tires, 30 per centum ad valorem; rivets of iron or steel, not specially provided for, 1 cent per pound.

PAR. 333. Common horse, mule, or ox shoes, of wrought iron or steel, one-fifth of 1 cent per pound; horse, mule, or ox shoes, punched, drilled or tapped, of wrought iron or steel, for use with adjustable wrought-iron or steel skid calks, and solid drop-forged calked shoes of wrought iron or steel, 1 cent per pound.

PAR. 334. Steel wool, 10 cents per pound; steel shavings, 5 cents per pound; and in addition thereto, on all of the foregoing, 30 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 335. Grit, shot, and sand of iron or steel, in any form, three-fourths of 1 cent per pound.

PAR. 336. Corset clasps, corset steels, and dress steels, whether plain or covered with cotton, silk, or other material, 35 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 337. Card clothing not actually and permanently fitted to and attached to carding machines or to parts thereof at the time of importation, when manufactured with round iron or untempered round steel wire, 20 per centum ad valorem; when manufactured with tempered round steel wire, or with plated wire, or other than round iron or steel wire, or with felt face, wool face, or rubber-face cloth containing wool, 45 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 338. Screws, commonly called wood screws, of iron or steel, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 339. Table, household, kitchen, and hospital utensils, and hollow or flat ware, not specially provided for; composed of iron or steel and enameled or glazed with vitreous glasses, 5 cents per pound and 30 per centum ad valorem; composed wholly or in chief value of aluminum, 11 cents per pound and 55 per centum ad valorem; composed wholly or in chief value of copper, brass, steel, or other base metal, not specially provided for, 40 per centum ad valorem; and in addition thereto, upon any of the foregoing articles containing electrical heating elements as constituent parts thereof, 10 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 340. Crosscut saws, mill saws, pit and drag saws, circular saws, steel band saws, finished or further advanced than tempered and polished, hand, back, and all other saws, not specially provided for, 20 per centum ad valorem; jewelers' or piercing saws, 40 cents per gross.

PAR. 341. Steel plates, stereotype plates, electrotype plates, half-tone plates, photogravure plates, photo-engraved plates, and plates of other materials, engraved or otherwise prepared for printing, and plates of iron or steel engraved or fashioned for use in the production of designs, patterns, or impressions on glass in the process of manufacturing plate or other glass, 25 per centum ad valorem; lithographic plates of stone or other material engraved, drawn, or prepared, 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 342. Umbrella and parasol ribs and stretchers, composed wholly or in chief value of iron, steel, or other metal, in frames or otherwise, and tubes for umbrellas, wholly or partly finished, 50 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 343. Spring-beard needles, and other needles for knitting, sewing, shoe, or embroidery machines of every description, not specially provided for, and crochet needles, $1.15 per thousand and 40 per centum ad valorem; latch needles, $2 per thousand and 50 per centum ad valorem; tape, knitting, and all other needles, not specially provided for, bodkins of metal, and needle cases or needle books furnished with assortments of needles or combinations of needles and other articles, 45 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 344. Fishhooks, fishing rods and reels, artificial flies, artificial baits, snelled hooks, leaders or casts, and all other fishing tackle and parts thereof, fly books, fly boxes, fishing baskets or creels, finished or unfinished, not specially provided for, except fishing lines, fishing nets, and seines, 45 per centum ad valorem: Provided, That any prohibition of the importation of feathers in this chapter shall not be construed as applying to artificial flies used for fishing, or to feathers used for the manufacture of such flies.

PAR. 345. Saddlery and harness hardware: Buckles, rings, snaps, bits, swivels, and all other articles of iron, steel, brass, composition, or other metal, not plated with gold or silver, commonly or commercially known as harness hardware, 35 per centum ad valorem; all articles of iron, steel, brass, composition, or other metal, not plated with gold or silver, commonly or commercially known as saddlery or riding bridle hardware, 50 per centum ad valorem; all the foregoing, if plated with gold or silver, 60 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 346. Belt buckles, trouser buckles, and waistcoat buckles, shoe or slipper buckles, and parts thereof, made wholly or partly of iron, steel, or other base metal, valued at not more than 20 cents per hundred, 5 cents per hundred; valued at more than 20 and not more than 50 cents per hundred, 10 cents per hundred; valued at more than 50 cents per hundred, 15 cents per hundred; and in addition thereto, on all of the foregoing, 20 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 347. Hooks and eyes, wholly or in chief value of metal, whether loose, carded, or otherwise, including weight of cards, cartons, and immediate wrappings and labels, 4½ cents per pound and 25 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 348. Snap fasteners and clasps, and parts thereof, by whatever name known, or of whatever material composed, not plated with gold, silver, or platinum, and not mounted on tape, 55 per centum ad valorem; mounted on tape, including sew-on fasteners, 60 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 349. Metal trouser buttons (except steel), nickel bar buttons, one-twelfth of 1 cent per line per gross; steel trouser buttons, one-fourth of 1 cent per line per gross; buttons of metal, not specially provided for, three-fourths of 1 cent per line per gross; and in addition thereto, on all of the foregoing, 15 per centum ad valorem; metal buttons embossed with a design, device, pattern, or lettering, 45 per centum ad valorem: Provided, That the term "line" as used in this paragraph shall mean the line button measure of one-fortieth of one inch.

PAR. 350. Pins with solid heads, without ornamentation, including hair, safety, hat, bonnet, and shawl pins; and brass, copper, iron, steel, or other base metal pins, with heads of glass, paste, or fusible enamel; all the foregoing not plated with gold or silver, and not commonly known as jewelry, 35 per centum ad valorem.

PAR. 351. Pens, metallic, not specially provided for, 12 cents per gross; with nib and barrel in one piece, 15 cents per gross.

PAR. 1701. Paving posts, railroad ties, and telephone, trolley, electric-light, and telegraph poles of cedar or other woods.

PAR. 1702. Pickets, palings, hoops, and staves of wood of all kinds.

PAR. 1703. Woods: Sticks of partridge, hair wood, pimento, orange, myrtle, bamboo, rattan, india malacca joints, and other woods not specially provided for, in the rough, or not further advanced than cut into lengths suitable for sticks for umbrellas, parasols, sunshades, whips, fishing rods, or walking canes.

PAR. 1704. Original paintings in oil, mineral, water, or other colors, pastels, original drawings and sketches in pen, ink, pencil, or water colors, artists' proof etchings unbound, and engravings and woodcuts unbound, original sculptures or statuary, including not more than two replicas or reproductions of the same; but the terms "sculpture" and "statuary" as used in this paragraph shall be understood to include professional productions of sculptors only, whether in round or in relief, in bronze, marble, stone, terra cotta, ivory, wood, or metal, or whether cut, carved, or otherwise wrought by hand from the solid block or mass of marble, stone, or alabaster, or from metal, or cast in bronze or other metal or substance, or from wax or plaster, made as the professional productions of sculptors only; and the words "painting" and "sculpture" and "statuary" as used in this paragraph shall not be understood to include any articles of utility, nor such as are made wholly or in part by stenciling or any other mechanical process; and the words "etchings," "engravings," and "woodcuts" as used in this paragraph shall be understood to include only such as are printed by hand from plates or blocks etched or engraved with hand tools and not such as are printed from plates or blocks etched or engraved by photochemical or other mechanical processes.

PAR. 1705. Works of art, drawings, engravings, photographic pictures, and philosophical and scientific apparatus brought by professional artists, lecturers, or scientists arriving from abroad for use by them temporarily for exhibition and in illustration, promotion, and encouragement of art, science, or industry in the United States, and not for sale, shall be admitted free of duty, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe; but bonds shall be given for the payment to the United States of such duties as may be imposed by law upon any and all such articles as shall not be exported within six months after such importation: Provided, That the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, extend such period for a further term of six months in cases where application therefor shall be made.

PAR. 1706. Works of art, collections in illustration of the progress of the arts, sciences, agriculture, or manufactures, photographs, works in terra cotta, parian, pottery, or porcelain, antiquities and artistic copies thereof in metal or other material, imported in good faith for exhibition at a fixed place by any State or by any society or institution established for the encouragement of the arts, science, agriculture, or education, or for a municipal corporation, and all like articles imported in good faith by any society or association, or for a municipal corporation, for the purpose of erecting a public monument, and not intended for sale nor for any other purpose than herein expressed; but bond shall be given, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, for the payment of lawful duties which may accrue should any of the articles aforesaid be sold, transferred, or used contrary to this provision, and such articles shall be subject at any time to examination and inspection by the proper officers of the customs: Provided, That the privileges of this paragraph and paragraph 1705 shall not be allowed to associations or corporations engaged in or connected with business of a private or commercial character.

PAR. 1707. Works of art, productions of American artists residing temporarily abroad, or other works of art, including pictorial paintings on glass, imported expressly for presentation to a national institution or to any State or municipal corporation or incorporated religious society, college, or other public institution, including stained or painted window glass or stained or painted glass windows which are works of art when imported to be used in houses of worship and when ordered after the passage of this chapter, valued at $15 or more per square foot, and excluding any article, in whole or in part, molded, cast, or mechanically wrought from metal within twenty years prior to importation; but such exemption shall be subject to such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

PAR. 1708. Works of art (except rugs and carpets), collections in illustration of the progress of the arts, works in bronze, marble, terra cotta, parian, pottery, or porcelain, artistic antiquities, and objects of art of ornamental character or educational value which shall have been produced more than one hundred years prior to the date of importation, but the free importation of such objects shall be subject to such regulations as to proof of antiquity as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

PAR. 1709. Worm gut, unmanufactured.

PAR. 1710. Zaffer. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title II, § 201, 42 Stat. 922–934.)

SUBTITLE III—SPECIAL PROVISIONS

THE PHILIPPINE ISLANDS, CUBA, AND CANAL ZONE

123. Duties upon articles coming from or imported into Philippine Islands.—There shall be levied, collected, and paid upon all articles coming into the United States from the Philippine Islands the rates of duty which are required to be levied, collected, and paid upon like articles imported from foreign countries: Provided, That all articles, the growth or product of or manufactured in the Philippine Islands from materials the growth or product of the Philippine Islands or of the United States, or of both, or which do not contain foreign materials to the value of more than 20 per centum of their total value, upon which no drawback of customs duties has been allowed therein, coming into the United States from the Philippine Islands shall be admitted free of duty: Provided, however, That in consideration of the exemptions aforesaid, all articles, the growth, product, or manufacture of the United States, upon which no drawback of customs duties has been allowed therein, shall be admitted to the Philippine Islands from the United States free of duty. The free admission, herein provided, of such articles, the growth, product, or manufacture of the United States, into the Philippine Islands, or of the growth, product, or manufacture, as hereinbefore defined, of the Philippine Islands into the United States, shall be conditioned upon the direct shipment thereof, under a through bill of lading from the country of origin to the country of destination: Provided, That direct shipments shall include shipments in bond through foreign territory contiguous to the United States: Provided, however, That if such articles become unpacked while en route by accident, wreck, or other casualty, or so damaged as to necessitate their repacking, the same shall be admitted free of duty upon satisfactory proof that the unpacking occurred through accident or necessity and that the merchandise involved is the identical merchandise originally shipped from the United States or the Philippine Islands, as the case may be, and that its condition has not been changed except for such damage as may have been sustained. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 301, 42 Stat. 934.)

124. Products of Cuba; reduction of duties on.—So long as the convention between the United States and the Republic of Cuba, signed on the 11th day of December, in the year 1902, shall remain in force, all articles of merchandise being the product of the soil or industry of the Republic of Cuba, which on December 17, 1903, were imported into the United States free of duty, shall continue to be so admitted free of duty, and all other articles of merchandise being the product of the soil or industry of the Republic of Cuba imported into the United States shall be admitted at a reduction of 20 per centum of the rates of duty thereon, as provided by this chapter, or as may be provided by any tariff law of the United States subsequently enacted. The rates of duty herein granted by the United States to the Republic of Cuba are and shall continue during the term of said convention preferential in respect to all like imports from other countries. Nothing contained in this section shall be held or construed as an admission on the part of the House of Representatives that customs duties can be changed otherwise than by an Act of Congress, originating in said House. (Dec. 17, 1903, c. 1, § 1, 33 Stat. 3; Oct. 3, 1913, c. 16, § IV, B, 38 Stat. 192.)

125. Same; no additional charges on; equal treatment of imports.—So long as the convention mentioned in section 124 of this title shall remain in force, the laws and regulations adopted, or that may be adopted by the United States to protect the revenues and prevent fraud in the declarations and proofs, that the articles of merchandise to which said convention may apply are the product or manufacture of the Republic of Cuba, shall not impose any additional charge or fees therefor on the articles imported, excepting the consular fees established, or which may be established, by the United States for issuing shipping documents, which fees shall not be higher than those charged on the shipments of similar merchandise from any other nation whatsoever. Articles of the Republic of Cuba shall receive, on their importation into the ports of the United States, treatment equal to that which similar articles of the United States shall receive on their importation into the ports of the Republic of Cuba. Any tax or charge that may be imposed by the national or local authorities of the United States upon the articles of merchandise of the Republic of Cuba, embraced in the provisions of said convention, subsequent to importation and prior to their entering into consumption into the United States, shall be imposed and collected without discrimination upon like articles whencesoever imported. (Dec. 17, 1903, c. 1, § 2, 33 Stat. 4.)

126. Imports from Canal Zone.—All laws affecting imports of articles, goods, wares, and merchandise from foreign countries shall apply to articles, goods, wares, and merchandise from the Canal Zone, Isthmus of Panama, and seeking entry into any State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia. (Mar. 2, 1905, c. 1311, 33 Stat. 843.)

Countervailing and Discriminating Duty

127. Countervailing duty upon articles on which export bounty has been paid.—Whenever any country, dependency, colony, province, or other political subdivision of government, person, partnership, association, cartel, or corporation shall pay or bestow, directly or indirectly, any bounty or grant upon the manufacture or production or export of any article or merchandise manufactured or produced in such country, dependency, colony, province, or other political subdivision of government, and such article or merchandise is dutiable under the provisions of this chapter, then upon the importation of any such article or merchandise into the United States, whether the same shall be imported directly from the country of production or otherwise, and whether such article or merchandise is imported in the same condition as when exported from the country of production or has been changed in condition by remanufacture or otherwise, there shall be levied and paid, in all such cases, in addition to the duties otherwise imposed by this chapter, an additional duty equal to the net amount of such bounty or grant, however the same be paid or bestowed. The net amount of all such bounties or grants shall be from time to time ascertained, determined, and declared by the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall make all needful regulations for the identification of such articles and merchandise and for the assessment and collection of such additional duties. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 303, 42 Stat. 935.)

128. Discriminating duty on goods imported in foreign vessels; exception.—A discriminating duty of 10 per centum ad valorem, in addition to the duties imposed by law, shall be levied, collected, and paid on all goods, wares, or merchandise which shall be imported in vessels not of the United States, or which being the production or manufacture of any foreign country not contiguous to the United States, shall come into the United States from such contiguous country; but this discriminating duty shall not apply to goods, wares, or merchandise which shall be imported in vessels not of the United States entitled at the time of such importation by treaty or convention or Act of Congress to be entered in the ports of the United States on payment of the same duties as shall then be payable on goods, wares, and merchandise imported in vessels of the United States, nor to goods, wares, and merchandise imported in a vessel owned by citizens of the United States, but not a vessel of the United States, if such vessel, after entering an American port, shall before leaving the same be registered as a vessel of the United States, nor to such foreign products or manufactures as shall be imported from such contiguous countries in the usual course of strictly retail trade. (Oct. 3, 1913, c. 16, § IV, J, subsec. 1, 38 Stat. 195; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 171, § 1, 38 Stat. 1193.)

129. Discriminating duties.—No part of the additional or discriminating duty imposed by law on merchandise on account of its importation in foreign vessels shall be allowed to be drawback, but the whole shall be retained. (R. S. § 3027.)

Country of Origin

130. Importation only in vessels of United States or of country of origin.—No goods, wares, or merchandise, unless in cases provided for by treaty, shall be imported into the United States from any foreign port or place, except in vessels of the United States, or in such foreign vessels as truly and wholly belong to the citizens or subjects of that country of which the goods are the growth, production, or manufacture, or from which such goods, wares, or merchandise can only be, or most usually are, first shipped for transportation. All goods, wares, or merchandise imported contrary to this section, and the vessel wherein the same shall be imported, together with her cargo, tackle, apparel, and furniture, shall be forfeited to the United States; and such goods, wares, or merchandise, ship, or vessel, and cargo shall be liable to be seized, prosecuted, and condemned in like manner, and under the same regulations, restrictions, and provisions as have been heretofore established for the recovery, collection, distribution, and remission of forfeitures to the United States by the several revenue laws. (Oct. 3, 1913, c. 16, § IV, J, subsec. 2, 38 Stat. 196.)

131. Same; vessels, goods, etc., of nations not maintaining similar regulations; vessels of citizens of the United States.—The preceding section shall not apply to vessels or goods, wares, or merchandise imported in vessels of a foreign nation which does not maintain a similar regulation against vessels of the United States nor to any vessel owned by citizens of the United States but not a vessel of the United States if such vessel after entering an American port shall, before leaving the same, be registered as a vessel of the United States. (Oct. 3, 1913, c. 16, § IV, J, subsec. 3, 38 Stat. 196; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 171, § 1, 38 Stat. 1193.)

132. Marking imported articles and packages to indicate country of origin; withholding delivery.—Every article imported into the United States, which is capable of being marked, stamped, branded, or labeled, without injury, at the time of its manufacture or production, shall be marked, stamped, branded, or labeled, in legible English words, in a conspicuous place that shall not be covered or obscured by any subsequent attachments or arrangements, so as to indicate the country of origin. Said marking, stamping, branding, or labeling shall be as nearly indelible and permanent as the nature of the article will permit. Any such article held in customs custody shall not be delivered until so marked, stamped, branded, or labeled, and until every such article of the importation which shall have been released from customs custody not so marked, stamped, branded, or labeled, shall be marked, stamped, branded, or labeled, in accordance with such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. Unless the article is exported under customs supervision, there shall be levied, collected, and paid upon every such article which at the time of importation is not so marked, stamped, branded, or labeled, in addition to the regular duty imposed by law on such article, a duty of 10 per centum of the appraised value thereof, or if such article is free of duty there shall be levied, collected, and paid upon such article a duty of 10 per centum of the appraised value thereof.

Every package containing any imported article, or articles, shall be marked, stamped, branded, or labeled, in legible English words, so as to indicate clearly the country of origin. Any such package held in customs custody shall not be delivered unless so marked, stamped, branded, or labeled, and until every package of the importation which shall have been released from customs custody not so marked, stamped, branded, or labeled, shall be marked, stamped, branded, or labeled in accordance with such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

The Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe the necessary rules and regulations to carry out the foregoing provisions. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 304(a), 42 Stat. 936.)

133. Violation of law requiring marking, stamping, etc.; penalty.—If any person shall fraudulently violate any of the provisions of this chapter relating to the marking, stamping, branding, or labeling of any imported articles or packages or shall fraudulently deface, destroy, remove, alter, or obliterate any such marks, stamps, brands, or labels with intent to conceal the information given by or contained in such marks, stamps, brands, or labels, he shall upon conviction be fined in any sum not exceeding $5,000, or be imprisoned for any time not exceeding one year, or both. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 304(b), 42 Stat. 936.)

Medicinal Preparations

134. Name of proprietor affixed to medicines.—All medicinal preparations, whether chemical or otherwise, usually imported with the name of the manufacturer, shall have the true name of the manufacturer and the place where they are prepared, permanently and legibly affixed to each parcel by stamp, label, or otherwise; and all medicinal preparations imported without such names so affixed shall be adjudged to be forfeited. (R. S. § 2934.)

Importations Prohibited

135. Obscene books, etc.; seizure and forfeiture.—All persons are prohibited from importing into the United States from any foreign country any obscene book, pamphlet, paper, writing, advertisement, circular, print, picture, drawing, or other representation, figure, or image on or of paper or other material, or any cast, instrument, or other article of an immoral nature, or any drug or medicine, or any article whatever for the prevention of conception or for causing unlawful abortion, or any lottery ticket, or any printed paper that may be used as a lottery ticket, or any advertisement of any lottery. No such articles, whether imported separately or contained in packages with other goods entitled to entry, shall be admitted to entry; and all such articles shall be proceeded against, seized, and forfeited by due course of law. All such prohibited articles and the package in which they are contained shall be detained by the officer of customs, and proceedings taken against the same as hereinafter prescribed, unless it appears to the satisfaction of the collector that the obscene articles contained in the package were inclosed therein without the knowledge or consent of the importer, owner, agent, or consignee. The drugs hereinbefore mentioned, when imported in bulk and not put up for any of the purposes hereinbefore specified, are excepted from the operation of this section. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 305(a), 42 Stat. 936.)

136. Warrants for search for and seizure of articles mentioned in section 135 of this title.—Any district judge of the United States, within the proper district, before whom complaint in writing of any violation of section 135 of this title is made, founded upon probable cause and supported by oath or affirmation of the complainant, may issue, conformably to the Constitution, a warrant directed to the United States marshal or deputy marshal in the proper district or to a duly accredited customs officer, directing him to search for, seize, and take possession of any article or thing mentioned in such section, and to make due and immediate return thereof, to the end that the same may be condemned and destroyed by proceedings, which shall be conducted in the same manner as other proceedings in the case of municipal seizure, and with the same right of appeal or writ of error. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 305(c), 42 Stat. 937.)

137. Neat cattle and hides prohibited.—The importation of neat cattle and the hides of neat cattle from any foreign country into the United States is prohibited under such rules of inspection as the Secretary of Agriculture may determine. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 306(a), 42 Stat. 937.)

138. Same; exceptions.—If the Secretary of Agriculture shall determine that such importation will not tend to the introduction or spread of contagious or infectious diseases among the cattle of the United States, he shall officially notify the Secretary of the Treasury and give public notice that the operation of section 137 of this title shall be suspended as to any foreign country or countries, or any parts of such country or countries. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 306(b), 42 Stat. 937.)

139. Same; punishment.—Any person convicted of a willful violation of any of the provisions of section 137 of this title shall be fined not exceeding $500, or imprisoned not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 306(c), 42 Stat. 937.)

140. Goods manufactured by convict labor prohibited.—All goods, wares, articles, and merchandise manufactured wholly or in part in any foreign country by convict labor shall not be entitled to entry at any of the ports of the United states, and the importation thereof is prohibited, and the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to prescribe such regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of this provision. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 307, 42 Stat. 937.)

141. Merchandise bearing trade-marks owned by citizens; prohibited, when.—It shall be unlawful to import into the United States any merchandise of foreign manufacture if such merchandise, or the label, sign, print, package, wrapper, or receptacle, bears a trade-mark owned by a citizen of, or by a corporation or association created or organized within, the United States, and registered in the Patent Office by a person domiciled in the United States, under the provisions of sections 81 to 109, inclusive, of Title 15, if a copy of the certificate of registration of such trade-mark is filed with the Secretary of the Treasury, in the manner provided in section 106, of Title 15, and unless written consent of the owner of such trade-mark is produced at the time of making entry. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 526(a), 42 Stat. 975.)

142. Same; seizure and forfeiture of merchandise.—Any such merchandise imported into the United States in violation of the provisions of section 141 of this title shall be subject to seizure and forfeiture for violation of the customs laws. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 526(b), 42 Stat. 975.)

143. Same; restraining dealing in or requiring reexport or destruction of merchandise, or obliteration or removal of trade-mark; damages and profits.—Any person dealing in any such merchandise may be enjoined from dealing therein within the United States or may be required to export or destroy such merchandise or to remove or obliterate such trade-mark and shall be liable for the same damages and profits provided for wrongful use of a trade-mark, under the provisions of sections 81 to 109, inclusive, of Title 15. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 526(c), 42 Stat. 975.)

SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR ADMISSION OR WITHDRAWAL FROM BONDED WAREHOUSE WITHOUT PAYMENT OF DUTY

144. Admission without payment of duty, under bond for exportation.—The following articles, when not imported for sale or for sale on approval, may be admitted into the United States under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, without the payment of duty under bond for their exportation within six months from the date of importation:

(1) Machinery or other articles to be altered or repaired;

(2) Models of women's wearing apparel imported by manufacturers for use solely as models in their own establishments, and not for sale;

(3) Molder's patterns for use in the manufacture of castings;

(4) Samples solely for use in taking orders for merchandise;

(5) Articles intended solely for experimental purposes, and upon satisfactory proof to the Secretary that any such article has been destroyed because of its use for experimental purposes such bond may be canceled without the payment of duty;

(6) Automobiles, motor cycles, bicycles, airplanes, airships, balloons, motor boats, racing shells and similar vehicles and craft, teams and saddle horses, all of which are brought temporarily into the United States by nonresidents for touring purposes, or for the purposes of taking part in races or other specific contests;

(7) Locomotives, cars and coaches, and repair equipment belonging to railroads brought temporarily into the United States for the purpose of clearing obstructions, fighting fires, or making emergency repairs on lines the property of railroads within the United States; and

(8) Containers for compressed gases which comply with the laws and regulations for the transportation of such containers in the United States. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 308, 42 Stat. 938.)

145. Supplies for vessels in foreign trade or trade between Atlantic and Pacific.—All articles of foreign or domestic production needed and actually withdrawn from bonded warehouses and bonded manufacturing warehouses for supplies (not including equipment) of vessels of the United States engaged in foreign trade, or in trade between the Atlantic and Pacific ports of the United States, or for construction, equipment, repairs and supplies of vessels of the United States employed in the fisheries or in the whaling business, may be so withdrawn from said bonded warehouses, free of duty or of internal-revenue tax, as the case may be, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe; but no such article shall be landed at any port of the United States. (June 26, 1884, c. 121, § 16, 23 Stat. 57; June 19, 1886, c. 421, § 15, 24 Stat. 82; July 24, 1897, c. 11, § 14, 30 Stat. 207.)

146. Supplies to war vessels free of duty.—The privilege of purchasing supplies from public warehouses, free of duty, and from bonded manufacturing warehouses, free of duty or of internal-revenue tax, as the case may be, shall be extended, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe, to the vessels of war of any nation in ports of the United States which may reciprocate such privileges toward the vessels of war of the United States in its ports. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 309, 42 Stat. 938.)

147. Admission free of duty of merchandise of sunken and abandoned vessels.—Whenever any vessel laden with merchandise, in whole or in part subject to duty, has been sunk in any river, harbor, bay, or waters subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, and within its limits, for the period of two years and is abandoned by the owner thereof, any person who may raise such vessel shall be permitted to bring any merchandise recovered therefrom into the port nearest to the place where such vessel was so raised free from the payment of any duty thereupon, but under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 310, 42 Stat. 938.)

BONDED WAREHOUSES

148. Manufacturing warehouses; bonds of manufacturers; manufacture of distilled spirits not permitted.—All articles manufactured in whole or in part of imported materials, or of materials subject to internal-revenue tax, and intended for exportation without being charged with duty, and without having an internal-revenue stamp affixed thereto, shall, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, in order to be so manufactured and exported, be made and manufactured in bonded warehouses similar to those known and designated in Treasury Regulations as bonded warehouses, class six. The manufacturer of such articles shall first give satisfactory bonds for the faithful observance of all the provisions of law and of such regulations as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. The manufacture of distilled spirits from grain, starch, molasses, or sugar, including all dilutions or mixtures of them or either of them, shall not be permitted in such manufacturing warehouses.

Exemption from duty of goods manufactured in warehouses upon reexportation.—Whenever goods manufactured in any bonded warehouse established under the provisions of the preceding paragraph shall be exported directly therefrom or shall be duly laden for transportation and immediate exportation under the supervision of the proper officer who shall be duly designated for that purpose, such goods shall be exempt from duty and from the requirements relating to revenue stamps.

Materials, etc., used in manufacture of goods for reexportation free of duty.—Any materials used in the manufacture of such goods, and any packages, coverings, vessels, brands, and labels used in putting up the same may, under the regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, be conveyed without the payment of revenue tax or duty into any bonded manufacturing warehouse, and imported goods may, under the aforesaid regulations, be transferred without the exaction of duty from any bonded warehouse into any bonded manufacturing warehouse; but this privilege shall not be held to apply to implements, machinery, or apparatus to be used in the construction or repair of any bonded manufacturing warehouse or for the prosecution of the business carried on therein.

Withdrawal of manufactured goods for exportation; withdrawal of by-products for domestic consumption; destruction of waste; supervision by customs officer.—Articles or materials received into such bonded manufacturing warehouse or articles manufactured therefrom may be withdrawn or removed therefrom for direct shipment and exportation or for transportation and immediate exportation in bond to foreign countries or to the Philippine Islands under the supervision of the officer duly designated therefor by the collector of the port, who shall certify to such shipment and exportation, or ladening for transportation, as the case may be, describing the articles by their mark or otherwise, the quantity, the date of exportation, and the name of the vessel. The by-products incident to the processes of manufacture, including waste derived from cleaning rice in bonded warehouses under the Act of March 24, 1874, chapter 65, Eighteenth Statutes, page 24, in said bonded warehouses may be withdrawn for domestic consumption on the payment of duty equal to the duty which would be assessed and collected by law if such waste or by-products were imported from a foreign country. All waste material may be destroyed under Government supervision. All labor performed and services rendered under these provisions shall be under the supervision of a duly designated officer of the customs and at the expense of the manufacturer.

Accounts of merchandise delivered to warehouses.—A careful account shall be kept by the collector of all merchandise delivered by him to any bonded manufacturing warehouse, and a sworn monthly return, verified by the customs officers in charge, shall be made by the manufacturers containing a detailed statement of all imported merchandise used by him in the manufacture of exported articles.

Lists of articles intended to be manufactured to be filed.—Before commencing business the proprietor of any manufacturing warehouse shall file with the Secretary of the Treasury a list of all the articles intended to be manufactured in such warehouse, and state the formula of manufacture and the names and quantities of the ingredients to be used therein.

Withdrawal of manufactured articles for transportation and delivery into bonded warehouse for immediate export; withdrawal of cigars for home consumption.—Articles manufactured under these provisions may be withdrawn under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe for transportation and delivery into any bonded warehouse at an exterior port for the sole purpose of immediate export therefrom. Cigars manufactured in whole of tobacco imported from any one country, made and manufactured in such bonded manufacturing warehouses, may be withdrawn for home consumption upon the payment of the duties on such tobacco in its condition as imported under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, and the payment of the internal-revenue tax accruing on such cigars in their condition as withdrawn, and the boxes or packages containing such cigars shall be stamped to indicate their character, origin of tobacco from which made, and place of manufacture.

Bonded warehouses; application of previous law.—The provisions of section 1168 of Title 26 shall, so far as may be practicable, apply to any bonded manufacturing warehouse established under this chapter and to the merchandise conveyed therein. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 311, 42 Stat. 938.)

149. Bonded smelting warehouses; removal of ores or crude metals to; withdrawal of metals for domestic consumption upon payment of duties; sampling and assaying; supervision; charges against bonds.—The works of manufacturers engaged in smelting or refining, or both, of ores and crude metals, may upon the giving of satisfactory bonds, be designated as bonded smelting warehouses. Ores or crude metals may be removed from the vessel or other vehicle in which imported, or from a bonded warehouse, into a bonded smelting warehouse without the payment of duties thereon, and there smelted or refined, or both, together with ores or crude metals of home or foreign production. The bonds shall be charged with a sum equal in amount to the regular duties which would have been payable on such ores and crude metals if entered for consumption at the time of their importation, and the several charges against such bonds shall be canceled upon the exportation or delivery to a bonded manufacturing warehouse established under the preceding section of this title of a quantity of the same kind of metal equal to the quantity of metal producible from the smelting or refining, or both, of the dutiable metal contained in such ores or crude metals, due allowance being made of the smelter wastage as ascertained from time to time by the Secretary of the Treasury. The said metals so producible, or any portion thereof, may be withdrawn for domestic consumption or transferred to a bonded customs warehouse and withdrawn therefrom and the several charges against the bonds canceled upon the payment of the duties chargeable against an equivalent amount of ores or crude metals from which said metal would be producible in their condition as imported. On the arrival of the ores and crude metals at such establishments they shall be sampled and assayed according to commercial methods under the supervision of Government officers. All labor performed and services rendered pursuant to this section shall be under the supervision of an officer of the customs, to be appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury and at the expense of the manufacturer. The several charges against the bonds of any smelting warehouse established under the provisions of this section may be canceled upon the exportation or transfer to a bonded manufacturing warehouse from any other bonded smelting warehouse established under this section of a quantity of the same kind of metal, in excess of that covered by open bonds, equal to the amount of metal producible from the smelting or refining, or both, of the dutiable metal contained in the imported ores and crude metals, due allowance being made of the smelter wastage as ascertained from time to time by the Secretary of the Treasury. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 312, 42 Stat. 940.)

150. Same; regulations for enforcement prescribed.—All regulations for carrying out the provisions of section 149 of this title shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 312, 42 Stat. 940.)

151. Bonded warehouses for storage and cleansing of imported garbanzo; withdrawals.—Under such regulations and conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, bonded warehouses may be established in which imported Mexican peas, commonly called garbanzo may be stored, cleaned, repacked or otherwise changed in condition, but not manufactured, and withdrawn for exportation without the payment of duty thereon. The whole or any part of such imported garbanzo, and the waste material and by-products incident to cleaning or otherwise treating said imported garbanzo, may be withdrawn for domestic consumption upon the payment on the quantity so withdrawn of the duty imposed by law on such garbanzo in their condition as imported. The compensation of customs officers and storekeepers for all services in the supervision of such warehouses shall be paid from moneys advanced by the warehouse proprietor to the collector of customs and be carried in a special account and disbursed for such purposes, and all expenses incurred shall be paid by the warehouse proprietor. (June 28, 1916, c. 180, 39 Stat. 239.)

DRAWBACKS

152. Drawbacks; articles made from imported materials; flavoring extracts and medicinal or toilet preparations; imported salt for curing fish; meats cured in United States; materials for construction and equipment of vessels.—Upon the exportation of articles manufactured or produced in the United States with the use of imported merchandise, the full amount of the duties paid upon the merchandise so used shall be refunded as drawback, less 1 per centum of such duties, except that such duties shall not be so refunded upon the exportation of flour or by-products produced from imported wheat unless an amount of wheat grown in the United States equal to not less than 30 per centum of the amount of such imported wheat has been mixed with such imported wheat. Where two or more products result from the manipulation of imported merchandise, the drawback shall be distributed to the several products in accordance with their relative values at the time of separation.

When the articles exported are manufactured or produced in part from domestic materials, the imported merchandise shall so appear in the completed articles that the quantity or measure thereof may be ascertained. The drawback on any article allowed under law existing on September 21, 1922, shall be continued at the rate herein provided. The imported merchandise used in the manufacture or production of articles entitled to drawback of customs duties when exported shall, in all cases where drawback of duties paid on such merchandise is claimed, be identified, the quantity of such merchandise used and the amount of duties paid thereon shall be ascertained, the facts of the manufacture or production of such articles in the United States and their exportation therefrom shall be determined, and the drawback due thereon shall be paid to the manufacturer, producer, or exporter, the agent of either, or to the person to whom such manufacturer, producer, exporter, or agent shall in writing order such drawback paid, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe.

On the exportation of flavoring extracts, medicinal or toilet preparations (including perfumery) manufactured or produced in the United States after September 21, 1922, in part from domestic alcohol on which an internal-revenue tax has been paid, there shall be allowed a drawback equal in amount to the tax found to have been paid on the alcohol so used. Such drawback shall be determined and paid under such rules and regulations, and upon the filing of such notices, bonds, bills of lading, and other evidence of payment of tax and exportation, as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe.

Imported salt in bond may be used in curing fish taken by vessels licensed to engage in the fisheries and in curing fish on the shores of the navigable waters of the United States, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe; and upon proof that the salt has been used for either of the purposes hereinbefore stated, the duties on the same shall be remitted. Upon the exportation of meats, whether packed or smoked, which have been cured in the United States with imported salt, there shall be refunded from the Treasury, upon satisfactory proof, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe, that such meats have been cured with imported salt, the duties paid on the salt so used in curing such exported meats, in amounts not less than $100.

The provisions of this section shall apply to materials imported and used in the construction and equipment of vessels built for foreign account and ownership, or for the Government of any foreign country, notwithstanding that such vessels may not within the strict meaning of the term be articles exported. (Mar. 8, 1902, c. 140, § 6, 32 Stat. 55; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 313, 42 Stat. 940.)

152a. Same; articles shipped to Philippines.—All articles manufactured in bonded manufacturing warehouses in whole or in part of imported materials, or of materials subject to internal-revenue tax and intended for shipment from the United States to the Philippine Islands, shall, when so shipped, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, be exempt from internal-revenue tax, and shall not be charged with duty except the duty levied upon imports into the Philippine Islands.

Where materials on which duties have been paid are used in the manufacture of articles manufactured or produced in the United States, there shall be allowed on the shipment of said articles to the Philippine Archipelago a drawback equal in amount to the duties paid on the materials used, less 1 per centum of such duties, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. (Mar. 8, 1902, c. 140, § 6, 32 Stat. 55.)

152b. Same; articles reexported to Philippines.—Merchandise in bonded warehouse or otherwise in the custody and control of the officers of the customs upon which duties have been paid, shall be entitled, on shipment to the Philippine Islands within three years from the date of the original arrival, to a return of the duties paid less 1 per centum, and merchandise upon which duties have not been paid may be shipped without the payment of duties to the Philippine Islands within said period, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. (Mar. 8, 1902, c. 140, § 7, 32 Stat. 55.)

Reimporting Exported Articles

153. Duty on articles reimported after exportation free of internal revenue taxes.—Upon the reimportation of articles once exported, of the growth, product, or manufacture of the United States, upon which no internal tax has been assessed or paid, or upon which such tax has been paid and refunded by allowance or drawback, there shall be levied, collected, and paid a duty equal to the tax imposed by the internal revenue laws upon such articles, except articles manufactured in bonded warehouses and exported pursuant to law, which shall be subject to the same rate of duty as if originally imported, but proof of the identity of such articles shall be made under general regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 314, 42 Stat. 941.)

Cross reference.—Reimportation of articles exported with benefit of drawback of customs duties; see paragraph 1514 of section 121 of this title.

Equalizing Production Costs

154. Procedure where duties do not equalize differences in costs of production in United States and principal competing country; changes in classifications by President.—In order to regulate the foreign commerce of the United States and to put into force and effect the policy of the Congress by this chapter intended, whenever the President upon investigation of the differences in costs of production of articles wholly or in part the growth or product of the United States and of like or similar articles wholly or in part the growth or product of competing foreign countries, shall find it thereby shown that the duties fixed in this chapter do not equalize the said differences in costs of production in the United States and the principal competing country he shall, by such investigation, ascertain said differences and determine and proclaim the changes in classifications or increases or decreases in any rate of duty provided in this chapter shown by said ascertained differences in such costs of production necessary to equalize the same. Thirty days after the date of such proclamation or proclamations such changes in classification shall take effect, and such increased or decreased duties shall be levied, collected, and paid on such articles when imported from any foreign country into the United States or into any of its possessions (except the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, and the islands of Guam and Tutuila): Provided, That the total increase or decrease of such rates of duty shall not exceed 50 per centum of the rates specified in Subtitle I of this chapter, or in any amendatory Act. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 315(a), 42 Stat. 941.)

155. Same; value of imported articles to be based upon American selling price.—In order to regulate the foreign commerce of the United States and to put into force and effect the policy of the Congress by this chapter intended, whenever the President, upon investigation of the differences in costs of production of articles provided for in Subtitle I of this chapter, wholly or in part the growth or product of the United States and of like or similar articles wholly or in part the growth or product of competing foreign countries, shall find it thereby shown that the duties prescribed in this chapter do not equalize said differences, and shall further find it thereby shown that the said differences in costs of production in the United States and the principal competing country can not be equalized by proceeding under the provisions of 154 of this title, he shall make such findings public, together with a description of the articles to which they apply, in such detail as may be necessary for the guidance of appraising officers. In such cases and upon the proclamation by the President becoming effective the ad valorem duty or duty based in whole or in part upon the value of the imported article in the country of exportation shall thereafter be based upon the American selling price, as defined in section 239 of this title, of any similar competitive article manufactured or produced in the United States embraced within the class or kind of imported articles upon which the President has made a proclamation under this section.

The ad valorem rate or rates of duty based upon such American selling price shall be the rate found, upon said investigation by the President, to be shown by the said differences in costs of production necessary to equalize such differences, but no such rate shall be decreased more than 50 per centum of the rate specified in Subtitle I of this chapter upon such articles, nor shall any such rate be increased. Such rate or rates of duty shall become effective fifteen days after the date of the said proclamation of the President, whereupon the duties so estimated and provided shall be levied, collected, and paid on such articles when imported from any foreign country into the United States or into any of its possessions (except the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, and the islands of Guam and Tutuila). If there is any imported article within the class or kind of articles, upon which the President has made public a finding, for which there is no similar competive article manufactured or produced in the United States, the value of such imported article shall be determined under the provisions of paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) of section 234 of this title. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 315(b), 42 Stat. 942.)

156. Same; methods of ascertaining differences in costs of production; investigations by Tariff Commission; restrictions on reclassifications.—In ascertaining the differences in costs of production, under the provisions of sections 154 and 155 of this title, the President, in so far as he finds it practicable, shall take into consideration (1) the differences in conditions in production, including wages, costs of material, and other items in costs of production of such or similar articles in the United States and in competing foreign countries; (2) the differences in the wholesale selling prices of domestic and foreign articles in the principal markets of the United States; (3) advantages granted to a foreign producer by a foreign government, or by a person, partnership, corporation, or association in a foreign country; and (4) any other advantages or disadvantages in competition.

Investigations to assist the President in ascertaining differences in costs of production under this section shall be made by the United States Tariff Commission, and no proclamation shall be issued under this section until such investigation shall have been made. The commission shall give reasonable public notice of its hearings and shall give reasonable opportunity to parties interested to be present, to produce evidence, and to be heard. The commission is authorized to adopt such reasonable procedure, rules, and regulations as it may deem necessary.

The President, proceeding as hereinbefore provided for in proclaiming rates of duty, shall, when he determines that it is shown that the differences in costs of production have changed or no longer exist which led to such proclamation, accordingly as so shown, modify or terminate the same. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize a transfer of an article from the dutiable list to the free list or from the free list to the dutiable list, nor a change in form of duty. Whenever it is provided in any paragraph of Subtitle I of this chapter, that the duty or duties shall not exceed a specified ad valorem rate upon the articles provided for in such paragraph, no rate determined under the provision of this section and sections 154, 155, 157 to 159 of this title, upon such articles shall exceed the maximum ad valorem rate so specified. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 315(c), 42 Stat. 942.)

157. Same; coal-tar products.—For the purposes of sections 154 to 159 of this title, any coal-tar product provided for in paragraphs 27 or 28 of Subtitle I of this chapter shall be considered similar to or competitive with any imported coal-tar product which accomplishes results substantially equal to those accomplished by the domestic product when used in substantially the same manner. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 315(d), 42 Stat. 943.)

158. Same; presidential rules and regulations.—The President is authorized to make all needful rules and regulations for carrying out the provisions of sections 154 to 159 of this title. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 315(e), 42 Stat. 943.)

159. Same; rules and regulations for entry and declaration of articles.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to make such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary for the entry and declaration of imported articles of the class or kind of articles upon which the President has made a proclamation under the provisions of section 155 of this title and for the form of invoice required at time of entry. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 315(f), 42 Stat. 943.)

Dumping Investigation

160. Investigations by Secretary of Treasury; notice to Secretary by appraisers as to sales price of imported articles; withholding appraisement.—(a) Whenever the Secretary of the Treasury (hereinafter called the "Secretary"), after such investigation as he deems necessary, finds that an industry in the United States is being or is likely to be injured, or is prevented from being established, by reason of the importation into the United States of a class or kind of foreign merchandise, and that merchandise of such class or kind is being sold or is likely to be sold in the United States or elsewhere at less than its fair value, then he shall make such finding public to the extent he deems necessary, together with a description of the class or kind of merchandise to which it applies in such detail as may be necessary for the guidance of the appraising officers.

(b) Whenever, in the case of any imported merchandise of a class or kind as to which the Secretary has not so made public a finding, the appraiser or person acting as appraiser has reason to believe or suspect, from the invoice or other papers or from information presented to him, that the purchase price is less, or that the exporter's sales price is less or likely to be less, than the foreign market value (or, in the absence of such value, than the cost of production) he shall forthwith, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, notify the Secretary of such fact and withhold his appraisement report to the collector as to such merchandise until the further order of the Secretary, or until the Secretary has made public a finding as provided in subdivision (a) in regard to such merchandise. (May 27, 1921, c. 14, § 201, 42 Stat. 11.)

Special Dumping Duty

161. Amount of duty to be collected; determination of foreign market value of goods.—(a) In the case of all imported merchandise, whether dutiable or free of duty, of a class or kind as to which the Secretary of the Treasury has made public a finding as provided in section 160 of this title, and as to which the appraiser or person acting as appraiser has made no appraisement report to the collector before such finding has been so made public, if the purchase price or the exporter's sales price is less than the foreign market value (or, in the absence of such value, than the cost of production) there shall be levied, collected, and paid, in addition to the duties imposed thereon by law, a special dumping duty in an amount equal to such difference.

(b) if it is established to the satisfaction of the appraising officers that the amount of such difference between the purchase price and the foreign market value is wholly or partly due to the fact that the wholesale quantities, in which such a similar merchandise is sold or freely offered for sale to all purchasers for exportation to the United States in the ordinary course of trade, are greater than the wholesale quantities in which such or similar merchandise is sold or freely offered for sale to all purchasers in the principal markets of the country of exportation in the ordinary course of trade for home consumption (or, if not so sold or offered for sale for home consumption, then for exportation to countries other than the United States), then due allowance shall be made therefor in determining the foreign market value for the purposes of this section.

(c) If it is established to the satisfaction of the appraising officers that the amount of such difference between the exporter's sales price and the foreign market value is wholly or partly due to the fact that the wholesale quantities, in which such or similar merchandise is sold or freely offered for sale to all purchasers in the principal markets of the United States in the ordinary course of trade, are greater than the wholesale quantities in which such or similar merchandise is sold or freely offered for sale to all purchasers in the principal markets of the country of exportation in the ordinary course of trade for home consumption (or, if not so sold or offered for sale for home consumption, then for exportation to countries other than the United States), then due allowance shall be made therefor in determining the foreign market value for the purposes of this section. (May 27, 1921, c. 14, § 202, 42 Stat. 11.)

PURCHASE PRICE

162. Purchase price.—For the purposes of this section and sections 160 to 173 of this title, the purchase price of imported merchandise shall be the price at which such merchandise has been purchased or agreed to be purchased, prior to the time of exportation, by the person by whom or for whose account the merchandise is imported, plus, when not included in such price, the cost of all containers and coverings and all other costs, charges, and expenses incident to placing the merchandise in condition, packed ready for shipment to the United States, less the amount, if any, included in such price, attributable to any additional costs, charges, and expenses, and United States import duties, incident to bringing the merchandise from the place of shipment in the country of exportation to the place of delivery in the United States; and plus the amount, if not included in such price, of any export tax imposed by the country of exportation on the exportation of the merchandise to the United States; and plus the amount of any import duties imposed by the country of exportation which have been rebated, or which have not been collected, by reason of the exportation of the merchandise to the United States; and plus the amount of any taxes imposed in the country of exportation upon the manufacturer, producer, or seller, in respect to the manufacture, production or sale of the merchandise, which have been rebated, or which have not been collected, by reason of the exportation of the merchandise to the United States. (May 27, 1921, c. 14, § 203, 42 Stat. 12.)

EXPORTER'S SALES PRICE

163. Determination of exporter's sales price.—For the purpose of sections 160 to 173 of this title, the exporter's sales price of imported merchandise shall be the price at which such merchandise is sold or agreed to be sold in the United States, before or after the time of importation, by or for the account of the exporter, plus, when not included in such price, the cost of all containers and coverings and all other costs, charges, and expenses incident to placing the merchandise in condition, packed ready for shipment to the United States, less (1) the amount, if any, included in such price, attributable to any additional costs, charges, and expenses, and United States import duties, incident to bringing the merchandise from the place of shipment in the country of exportation to the place of delivery in the United States, (2) the amount of the commissions, if any, for selling in the United States the particular merchandise under consideration, (3) an amount equal to the expenses, if any, generally incurred by or for the account of the exporter in the United States in selling identical or substantially identical merchandise, and (4) the amount of any export tax imposed by the country of exportation on the exportation of the merchandise to the United States; and plus the amount of any import duties imposed by the country of exportation which have been rebated, or which have not been collected, by reason of the exportation of the merchandise to the United States; and plus the amount of any taxes imposed in the country of exportation upon the manufacturer, producer, or seller in respect to the manufacture, production, or sale of the merchandise, which have been rebated, or which have not been collected, by reason of the exportation of the merchandise to the United States. (May 27, 1921, c. 14, § 204, 42 Stat. 13.)

FOREIGN MARKET VALUE

164. Determination of foreign market value.—For the purposes of sections 160 to 173 of this title, the foreign market value of imported merchandise shall be the price, at the time of exportation of such merchandise to the United States, at which such or similar merchandise is sold or freely offered for sale to all purchasers in the principal markets of the country from which exported, in the usual wholesale quantities and in the ordinary course of trade for home consumption (or, if not so sold or offered for sale for home consumption, then for exportation to countries other than the United States), plus, when not included in such price, the cost of all containers and coverings and all other costs, charges, and expenses incident to placing the merchandise in condition packed ready for shipment to the United States, except that in the case of merchandise purchased or agreed to be purchased by the person by whom or for whose account the merchandise is imported, prior to the time of exportation, the foreign market value shall be ascertained as of the date of such purchase or agreement to purchase. In the ascertainment of foreign market value for the purposes of said sections no pretended sale or offer for sale, and no sale or offer for sale intended to establish a fictitious market, shall be taken into account. (May 27, 1921, c. 14, § 205, 42 Stat. 13.)

COST OF PRODUCTION

165. Cost of production.—For the purposes of sections 160 to 173 of this title, the cost of production of imported merchandise shall be the sum of—

(1) The cost of materials of, and of fabrication, manipulation, or other process employed in manufacturing or producing, identical or substantially identical merchandise, at a time preceding the date of shipment of the particular merchandise under consideration which would ordinarily permit the manufacture or production of the particular merchandise under consideration in the usual course of business;

(2) The usual geperal expenses (not less than 10 per centum of such cost) in the case of identical or substantially identical merchandise;

(3) The cost of all containers and coverings, and all other costs, charges, and expenses incident to placing the particular merchandise under consideration in condition, packed ready for shipment to the United States; and

(4) An addition for profit (not less than 8 per centum of the sum of the amounts found under paragraphs (1) and (2)) equal to the profit which is ordinarily added, in the case of merchandise of the same general character as the particular merchandise under consideration, by manufacturers or producers in the country of manufacture or production who are engaged in the same general trade as the manufacturer or producer of the particular merchandise under consideration. (May 27, 1921, c. 14, § 206, 42 Stat. 13.)

EXPORTER

166. Who are exporters.—For the purposes of sections 160 to 173 of this title, the exporter of imported merchandise shall be the person by whom or for whose account the merchandise is imported into the United States:

(1) If such person is the agent or principal of the exporter, manufacturer, or producer; or

(2) If such person owns or controls, directly or indirectly, through stock ownership or control or otherwise, any interest in the business of the exporter, manufacturer, or producer; or

(3) If the exporter, manufacturer, or producer owns or controls, directly or indirectly, through stock ownership or control or otherwise, any interest in any business conducted by such person; or

(4) If any person or persons, jointly or severally, directly or indirectly, through stock ownership or control or otherwise, own or control in the aggregate 20 per centum or more of the voting power or control in the business carried on by the person by whom or for whose account the merchandise is imported into the United States, and also 20 per centum or more of such power or control in the business of the exporter, manufacturer, or producer. (May 27, 1921, c. 14, § 207, 42 Stat. 14.)

OATHS AND BONDS ON ENTRY

167. Oath and bond of person for whose account merchandise is imported before delivery thereof.—In the case of all imported merchandise, whether dutiable or free of duty, of a class or kind as to which the Secretary of the Treasury has made public a finding as provided in section 160 of this title, and delivery of which has not been made by the collector before such finding has been so made public, unless the person by whom or for whose account such merchandise is imported makes oath before the collector, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, that he is not an exporter, or unless such person declares under oath at the time of entry, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, the exporter's sales price of such merchandise, it shall be unlawful for the collector to deliver the merchandise until such person has made oath before the collector, under regulations prescribed by the said Secretary, that the merchandise has not been sold or agreed to be sold by such person, and has given bond to the collector, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary, with sureties approved by the collector, in an amount equal to the estimated value of the merchandise, conditioned: (1) That he will report to the collector the exporter's sales price of the merchandise within thirty days after such merchandise has been sold or agreed to be sold in the United States; (2) that he will pay on demand from the collector the amount of special dumping duty, if any, imposed by sections 160 to 173 of this title, upon such merchandise; and (3) that he will furnish to the collector such information as may be in his possession and as may be necessary for the ascertainment of such duty, and will keep such records as to the sale of such merchandise as the Secretary may by regulation prescribe. (May 27, 1921, c. 14, § 208, 42 Stat. 14.)

DUTIES OF APPRAISERS

168. Appraisal and report to collector.—In the case of all imported merchandise, whether dutiable or free of duty, of a class or kind as to which the Secretary of the Treasury has made public a finding as provided in section 160 of this title, and as to which the appraiser or person acting as appraiser has made no appraisement report to the collector before such finding has been so made public, it shall be the duty of each appraiser or person acting as appraiser, by all reasonable ways and means to ascertain, estimate, and appraise (any invoice or affidavit thereto or statement of cost of production to the contrary notwithstanding) and report to the collector the foreign market value or the cost of production, as the case may be, the purchase price, and the exporter's sales price, and any other facts which the Secretary may deem necessary for the purposes of sections 160 to 173 of this title. (May 27, 1921, c. 14, § 209, 42 Stat. 15.)

APPEALS AND PROTESTS

169. Appeals, etc., from determinations of appraisers.—For the purposes of sections 160 to 173 of this title, the determination of the appraiser or person acting as appraiser as to the foreign market value or the cost of production, as the case may be, the purchase price, and the exporter's sales price, and the action of the collector in assessing special dumping duty, shall have the same force and effect and be subject to the same right of appeal and protest, under the same conditions and subject to the same limitations; and the general appraisers, the Board of General Appraisers, and the Court of Customs Appeals shall have the same jurisdiction, powers, and duties in connection with such appeals and protests as in the case of appeals and protests relating to customs duties under existing law. (May 27, 1921, c. 14, § 210, 42 Stat. 15.)

DRAWBACKS

170. Special duties treated as regular duties.—The special dumping duty imposed by sections 160 to 173 of this title shall be treated in all respects as regular customs duties within the meaning of all laws relating to the drawback of customs duties. (May 27, 1921, c. 14, § 211, 42 Stat. 15.)

SHORT TITLE

171. Citation.—Sections 160 to 173 of this title may be cited as the "Antidumping Act, 1921." (May 27, 1921, c. 14, § 212, 42 Stat. 15.)

DEFINITIONS

172. Definitions.—When used in sections 160 to 173 of this title—

The term "person" includes individuals, partnerships, corporations, and associations; and

The term "United States" includes all Territories and possessions subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, except the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, the islands of Guam and Tutuila, and the Canal Zone. (May 27, 1921, c. 14, § 406, 42 Stat. 18.)

RULES AND REGULATIONS

173. Rules and regulations.—The Secretary shall make rules and regulations necessary for the enforcement of sections 160 to 172 of this title. (May 27, 1921, c. 14, § 407, 42 Stat. 18.)

UNFAIR METHODS OF COMPETITION AND IMPORTATION UNLAWFUL

174. Unfair methods of competition and unfair acts tending to destroy or injure domestic industries.—Unfair methods of competition and unfair acts in the importation of articles into the United States, or in their sale by the owner, importer, consignee, or agent of either, the effect or tendency of which is to destroy or substantially injure an industry, efficiently and economically operated, in the United States, or to prevent the establishment of such an industry, or to restrain or monopolize trade and commerce in the United States, are declared unlawful and when found by the President to exist shall be dealt with, in addition to any other provisions of law, as hereinafter provided. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 316(a), 42 Stat. 943.)

175. Same; investigations by Tariff Commission.—To assist the President in making any decisions under sections 174 to 180 of this title the United States Tariff Commission is authorized to investigate any alleged violation hereof on complaint under oath or upon its initiative. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 316(b), 42 Stat. 943.)

176. Same; conduct of investigations by Tariff Commission; findings; appeals to Court of Customs Appeals and review by Supreme Court.—The commission shall make such investigation under and in accordance with such rules as it may promulgate and give such notice and afford such hearing, and when deemed proper by the commission such rehearing with opportunity to offer evidence, oral or written, as it may deem sufficient for a full presentation of the facts involved in such investigation. The testimony in every such investigation shall be reduced to writing, and a transcript thereof with the findings and recommendation of the commission shall be the official record of the proceedings and findings in the case, and in any case where the findings in such investigation show a violation of section 174 of this title, a copy of the findings shall be promptly mailed or delivered to the importer or consignee of such articles. Such findings, if supported by evidence, shall be conclusive, except that a rehearing may be granted by the commission, and except that, within such time after said findings are made and in such manner as appeals may be taken from decisions of the United States Board of General Appraisers, an appeal may be taken from said findings upon a question or questions of law only to the United States Court of Customs Appeals by the importer or consignee of such articles. If it shall be shown to the satisfaction of said court that further evidence should be taken, and that there were reasonable grounds for the failure to adduce such evidence in the proceedings before the commission, said court may order such additional evidence to be taken before the commission in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as to the court may seem proper. The commission may modify its findings as to the facts or make new findings by reason of additional evidence, which, if supported by the evidence, shall be conclusive as to the facts except that within such time and in such manner an appeal may be taken as aforesaid upon a question or questions of law only. The judgment of said court shall be final, except that the same shall be subject to review by the United States Supreme Court upon certiorari applied for as provided in section 350 of Title 28. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 316(c), 42 Stat. 943.)

177. Same; final findings transmitted to President.—The final findings of the commission shall be transmitted with the record to the President. (Sept 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 316(d), 42 Stat. 944.)

178. Same; levy of additional offset duties.—Whenever the existence of any such unfair method or act shall be established to the satisfaction of the President he shall determine the rate of additional duty, not exceeding 50 nor less than 10 per centum of the value of such articles as defined in sections 234 to 239 of this title, which will offset such method or act, and which shall be imposed upon articles imported in violation of this chapter, or, in what he shall be satisfied and find are extreme cases of unfair methods or acts as aforesaid, he shall direct that such articles as he shall deem the interests of the United States shall require, imported by any person violating the provisions of this chapter, shall be excluded from entry into the United States, and upon information of such action by the President, the Secretary of the Treasury shall, through the proper officers, assess such additional duties or refuse such entry; and the decision of the President shall be conclusive. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 316(e), 42 Stat. 944.)

179. Same; forbidding entry of articles until completion of investigations.—Whenever the President has reason to believe that any article is offered or sought to be offered for entry into the United States in violation of section 174 of this title but has not information sufficient to satisfy him thereof, the Secretary of the Treasury shall, upon his request in writing, forbid entry thereof until such investigation as the President may deem necessary shall be completed. The Secretary of the Treasury may permit entry under bond upon such conditions and penalties as he may deem adequate. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 316(f), 42 Stat. 944.)

180. Same; length of time additional duties or refusal of entries effective.—Any additional duty or any refusal of entry under sections 174 to 179 of this title shall continue in effect until the President shall find and instruct the Secretary of the Treasury that the conditions which led to the assessment of such additional duty or refusal of entry no longer exist. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 316(g), 42 Stat. 944.)

IMPORTS FROM COUNTRIES MAKING DISCRIMINATIONS

181. Suspension of imports from countries making discriminations.—Whenever the President shall be satisfied that unjust discriminations are made by or under the authority of any foreign state against the importation to or sale in such foreign state of any product of the United States, he may direct that such products of such foreign state so discriminating against any product of the United States as he may deem proper shall be excluded from importation to the United States; and in such case he shall make proclamation of his direction in the premises, and therein name the time when such direction against importation shall take effect, and after such date the importation of the articles named in such proclamation shall be unlawful. The President may at any time revoke, modify, terminate, or renew any such direction as, in his opinion, the public interest may require. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 839, § 5, 26 Stat. 415.)

182. Imports from countries making discriminations against products of United States; new or additional duties; proclamation by President.—The President when he finds that the public interest will be served thereby shall by proclamation specify and declare new or additional duties as hereinafter provided upon articles wholly or in part the growth or product of any foreign country whenever he shall find as a fact that such country—

Imposes, directly or indirectly, upon the disposition in or transportation in transit through or reexportation from such country of any article wholly or in part the growth or product of the United States any unreasonable charge, exaction, regulation, or limitation which is not equally enforced upon the like articles of every foreign country;

Discriminates in fact against the commerce of the United States, directly or indirectly, by law or administrative regulation or practice, by or in respect to any customs, tonnage, or port duty, fee, charge, exaction, classification, regulation, condition, restriction, or prohibition, in such manner as to place the commerce of the United States at a disadvantage compared with the commerce of any foreign country. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 317(a), 42 Stat. 944.)

183. Same; exclusion from importation; proclamation by President.—If at any time the President shall find it to be a fact that any foreign country has not only discriminated against the commerce of the United States, as aforesaid, but has, after the issuance of a proclamation as authorized in section 182 of this title, maintained or increased its said discriminations against the commerce of the United States, the President is authorized, if he deems it consistent with the interests of the United States, to issue a further proclamation directing that such articles of said country as he shall deem the public interests may require shall be excluded from importation into the United States. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 317(b), 42 Stat. 945.)

184. Same; scope of, and suspension, revocation, etc., of proclamations.—Any proclamation issued by the President under the authority of sections 182 to 186 of this title shall, if he deems it consistent with the interests of the United States, extend to the whole of any foreign country or may be confined to any subdivision or subdivisions thereof; and the President shall, whenever he deems the public interests require, suspend, revoke, supplement, or amend any such proclamation. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 317(c), 42 Stat. 945.)

185. Same; effective date of new or additional duties or exclusion from importation.—Whenever the President shall find as a fact that any foreign country places any burdens upon the commerce of the United States by any of the unequal impositions or discriminations aforesaid, he shall, when he finds that the public interest will be served thereby, by proclamation specify and declare such new or additional rate or rates of duty as he shall determine will offset such burdens, not to exceed 50 per centum ad valorem or its equivalent, and on and after thirty days after the date of such proclamation there shall be levied, collected, and paid upon the articles enumerated in such proclamation when imported into the United States from such foreign country such new or additional rate or rates of duty; or, in case of articles declared subject to exclusion from importation into the United States under the provisions of section 183 of this title, such articles shall be excluded from importation. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 317(d), 42 Stat. 945.)

186. Same; further new or additional duties.—Whenever the President shall find as a fact that any foreign country imposes any unequal imposition or discrimination as aforesaid upon the commerce of the United States, or that any benefits accrue or are likely to accrue to any industry in any foreign country by reason of any such imposition or discrimination imposed by any foreign country other than the foreign country in which such industry is located, and whenever the President shall determine that any new or additional rate or rates of duty or any prohibition hereinbefore provided for do not effectively remove such imposition or discrimination and that any benefits from any such imposition or discrimination accrue or are likely to accrue to any industry in any foreign country, he shall, when he finds that the public interest will be served thereby, by proclamation specify and declare such new or additional rate or rates of duty upon the articles wholly or in part the growth or product of any such industry as he shall determine will offset such benefits, not to exceed 50 per centum ad valorem or its equivalent, upon importation from any foreign country into the United States of such articles and on and after thirty days after the date of any such proclamation such new or additional rate or rates of duty so specified and declared in such proclamation shall be levied, collected, and paid upon such articles. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 317(e), 42 Stat. 945.)

187. Same; forfeiture, seizure, and condemnation of articles unlawfully imported.—All articles imported contrary to the provisions of sections 182 to 190 of this title shall be forfeited to the United States and shall be liable to be seized, prosecuted, and condemned in like manner and under the same regulations, restrictions, and provisions as may from time to time be established for the recovery, collection, distribution, and remission of forfeitures to the United States by the several revenue laws. Whenever the provisions of this chapter shall be applicable to importations into the United States of articles wholly or in part the growth or product of any foreign country, they shall be applicable thereto whether such articles are imported directly or indirectly. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 317(f), 42 Stat. 946.)

188. Same; duties of Tariff Commission.—It shall be the duty of the United States Tariff Commission to ascertain and at all times to be informed whether any of the discriminations against the commerce of the United States enumerated in sections 182, 183 and 186 of this title are practiced by any country; and if when such discriminatory acts are disclosed, it shall be the duty of the commission to bring the matter to the attention of the President, together with recommendations. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 317(g), 42 Stat. 946.)

189. Same; rules and regulations by Secretary of Treasury.—The Secretary of the Treasury with the approval of the President shall make such rules and regulations as are necessary for the execution of such proclamations as the President may issue in accordance with the provisions of sections 182 to 188 of this title. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 317(h), 42 Stat. 946.)

190. Same; "foreign country" defined.—When used in sections 182 to 189 of this title, the term "foreign country" shall mean any empire, country, dominion, colony, or protectorate, or any subdivision or subdivisions thereof (other than the United States and its possessions), within which separate tariff rates or separate regulations of commerce are enforced. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 317(i), 42 Stat. 946.)

SPECIAL PROVISIONS

191. Duties on automobiles, etc., sold to foreign Governments, etc., upon importation into United States.—All automobiles, automobile bodies, automobile chassis, and parts thereof, including tires, exported prior to February 11, 1919, from the United States of America for the use of the American Expeditionary Forces or the governments associated with the Government of the United States of America in the war with Germany and Austria, and which have been sold or delivered to any foreign government, individual, partnership, corporation, or association by the United States Liquidation Commission, or by any other agent or official of the United States of America, when imported into the United States of America shall pay a duty of 90 per centum ad valorem, the value of such articles to be fixed on a basis equivalent to the original value of such articles in the United States, under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 322, 42 Stat. 948.)

192. Entry of cigars.—No cigars shall be imported unless the same are packed in boxes of not more than five hundred cigars in each box; and no entry of any imported cigars shall be allowed of less quantity than three thousand in a single package; and all cigars on importation shall be placed in public store or bonded warehouse, and shall not be removed therefrom until the same shall have been inspected and a stamp affixed to each box indicating such inspection, and also a serial number to be recorded in the customhouse. And the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to provide the requisite stamps, and to make all necessary regulations for carrying the above provisions of law into effect. (R. S. § 2804; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 26, 28 Stat. 552.)

193. Grain brought from Canada for grinding.—Grain brought into the United States in wagons or other ordinary road vehicles, by farmers residing in the Dominion of Canada, to be ground by mills owned by citizens of the United States, shall not be deemed to be imported or liable to import duties. Such grain shall be brought into the United States under such regulations as the Treasury Department may prescribe to prevent fraud and evasion, and shall be returned as in like manner provided by such regulations. Entry shall be made of and duties paid upon all such grain as shall be taken or received by mill owners as tolls for such grinding, under like regulations provided by the Treasury Department. (Jan. 9, 1883, c. 17, 22 Stat. 402.)

194. Return free of livestock exported for exhibition.—Whenever any article or articles or livestock shall be sent out of the United States for temporary use or exhibition at any public exposition, fair, or conference, held in a foreign country, such articles shall be entitled to be returned to the United States, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, without the payment of customs duty, whether they shall be of domestic or of foreign production: Provided, That the articles of foreign production have once paid duty in the United States and no drawback has been allowed thereon, and if any domestic articles are subject to internal-revenue tax, such tax shall be proved to have been paid before exportation and not refunded. (May 18, 1896, c. 195, 29 Stat. 122.)

195. Same; animals taken abroad with circus or menagerie.—The privilege of free entry conferred by section 194 of this title shall apply to wild and other animals of foreign origin taken abroad temporarily for exhibition in connection with any circus or menagerie, subject, however, to the conditions and limitations prescribed in said section. The provision of this section shall apply only in such cases as those of foreign-born animals taken abroad, and inventories of which are filed prior to their leaving the country with the collector of customs at the port of their departure. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 454, 30 Stat. 1372.)

196. Duties imposed applicable to certain previous imports; duties based upon weight of merchandise at time of entry.—All goods, wares, and merchandise, imported, prior to September 21, 1922, for which no entry was made prior to that date, and all goods, wares, and merchandise entered prior to that date without payment of duty and under bond for warehousing, transportation, or any other purpose, for which no permit of delivery to the importer or his agent was issued prior to such date, shall be subjected to the duties imposed by this chapter and to no other duty upon the entry or the withdrawal thereof. When duties are based upon the weight of merchandise deposited in any public or private bonded warehouse, said duties shall be levied and collected upon the weight of such merchandise at the time of its entry. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 319, 42 Stat. 947.)

PAYMENT OF DUTY

197. Duties, how payable.—Except as provided in the following section all duties upon imports shall be collected in ready money, and may be paid in gold and silver coin, coin certificates, demand Treasury notes, issued under the authority of the Acts of July 17, 1861, chapter 5, and February 12, 1862, chapter 20, and such other certificates or Treasury notes as may by law be declared receivable in payment thereof. (R. S. §§ 3009, 3478; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 249.)

198. Certified checks; receivable for all public dues; lien for payment of.—It shall be lawful for collecting officers to receive certified checks drawn on National and State banks and trust companies, during such time and under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, in payment for duties on imports, and all public dues, including special customs deposits. No person, however, who may be indebted to the United States on account of duties on imports who shall have tendered a certified check or checks as provisional payment for such duties or taxes, in accordance with the terms of this section, shall be released from the obligation to make ultimate payment thereof until such certified check so received has been duly paid; and if any such check so received is not duly paid by the bank on which it is drawn and so certifying, the United States shall, in addition to its right to exact payment from the party originally indebted therefor, have a lien for the amount of such check upon all the assets of such bank; and such amount shall be paid out of its assets in preference to any or all other claims whatsoever against said bank, except the necessary costs and expenses of administration and the reimbursement of the United States for the amount expended in the redemption of the circulating notes of such bank. (Mar. 2, 1911, c. 191, § 1, 36 Stat. 965.)

199. Judgments, how payable.—In all proceedings brought by the United States in any court for due recovery as well of duties upon imports alone as of penalties for the nonpayment thereof, the judgment shall recite that the same is rendered for duties, and such judgment, interest, and costs shall be payable in the coin by law receivable for duties, and the execution issued on such judgment shall set forth that the recovery is for duties, and shall require the marshal to satisfy the same in the coin by law receivable for duties; and in case of levy upon and sale of the property of the judgment debtor, the marshal shall refuse payment from any purchaser at such sale in any other money than that specified in the execution. (R. S. § 3014.)

SUBTITLE IV.—CUSTOMS ADMINISTRATION

ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

PART 1.—DEFINITIONS

231. Definitions.—When used in this subtitle—

(a) Vessel.—The word "vessel" includes every description of water craft or other contrivance used, or capable of being used, as a means of transportation in water or in water and in air.

(b) Vehicle.—The word "vehicle" includes every description of carriage or other contrivance used, or capable of being used, as a means of transportation on land, or through the air.

(c) Merchandise.—The word "merchandise" means goods, wares, and chattels of every description and includes merchandise the importation of which is prohibited.

(d) Person.—The word "person" includes partnerships, associations, and corporations.

(e) Master.—The word "master" means the person having the command of the vessel.

(f) Day.—The word "day" means the time from eight o'clock antemeridian to five o'clock postmeridian.

(g) Night.—The word "night" means the time from five o'clock postmeridian to eight o'clock antemeridian.

(h) Collector.—The word "collector" means the collector of customs, and includes a deputy collector of customs and any person authorized by law or by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury to perform the duties of collector of customs.

(i) Appraiser.—The word "appraiser" means the person authorized by law, or by the Secretary of the Treasury, to appraise imported merchandise and to make a return of the value thereof.

(j) The term "United States" includes all Territories and possessions of the United States, except the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, and the islands of Guam and Tutuila. (R. S. §§ 2766, 2768; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 401, 42 Stat. 948.)

232. Same; "port."—The word "port," as used in this title, may include any place from which merchandise can be shipped for importation, or at which merchandise can be imported. (R. S. § 2767.)

233. Departure from prescribed forms.—In cases where the forms of official documents, as prescribed by this title, shall be substantially complied with and observed, according to the true intent thereof, no penalty or forfeiture shall be incurred by a deviation therefrom. (R. S. § 2769.)

234. Valuation of imported merchandise.—For the purposes of this chapter the value of imported merchandise shall be—

(1) The foreign value or the export value, whichever is higher;

(2) If neither the foreign value nor the export value can be ascertained to the satisfaction of the appraising officers, then the United States value;

(3) If neither the foreign value, the export value, nor the United States value can be ascertained to the satisfaction of the appraising officers, then the cost of production;

(4) If there be any similar competitive article manufactured or produced in the United States of a class or kind upon which the President has made public a finding as provided in section 155 of this title, then the American selling price of such article. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 402(a), 42 Stat. 949.)

235. Same; foreign value; how ascertained.—The foreign value of imported merchandise shall be the market value or the price at the time of exportation of such merchandise to the United States, at which such or similar merchandise is freely offered for sale to all purchasers in the principal markets of the country from which exported, in the usual wholesale quantities and in the ordinary course of trade, including the cost of all containers and coverings of whatever nature, and all other costs, charges, and expenses incident to placing the merchandise in condition, packed ready for shipment to the United States. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 402(b), 42 Stat. 949.)

236. Same; export value; how ascertained.—The export value of imported merchandise shall be the market value or the price, at the time of exportation of such merchandise to the United States, at which such or similar merchandise is freely offered for sale to all purchasers in the principal markets of the country from which exported, in the usual wholesale quantities and in the ordinary course of trade, for exportation to the United States, plus, when not included in such price, the cost of all containers and coverings of whatever nature, and all other costs, charges, and expenses incident to placing the merchandise in condition, packed ready for shipment to the United States. If in the ordinary course of trade imported merchandise is shipped to the United States to an agent of the seller, or to the seller's branch house, pursuant to an order or an agreement to purchase (whether placed or entered into in the United States or in the foreign country), for delivery to the purchaser in the United States, and if the title to such merchandise remains in the seller until such delivery, then such merchandise shall not be deemed to be freely offered for sale in the principal markets of the country from which exported for exportation to the United States, within the meaning of this section. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 402(c), 42 Stat. 949.)

237. Same; United States value; how ascertained.—The United States value of imported merchandise shall be the price at which such or similar imported merchandise is freely offered for sale, packed ready for delivery, in the principal market of the United States to all purchasers, at the time of exportation of the imported merchandise, in the usual wholesale quantities and in the ordinary course of trade, with allowance made for duty, cost of transportation and insurance, and other necessary expenses from the place of shipment to the place of delivery, a commission not exceeding 6 per centum, if any has been paid or contracted to be paid on goods secured otherwise than by purchase, or profits not to exceed 8 per centum and a reasonable allowance for general expenses, not to exceed 8 per centum on purchased goods. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 402(d), 42 Stat. 949.)

238. Same; cost of production; how ascertained.—For the purpose of this subtitle the cost of production of imported merchandise shall be the sum of—

(1) The cost of materials of, and of fabrication, manipulation, or other process employed in manufacturing or producing such or similar merchandise, at a time preceding the date of exportation of the particular merchandise under consideration which would ordinarily permit the manufacture or production of the particular merchandise under consideration in the usual course of business;

(2) The usual general expenses (not less than 10 per centum of such cost) in the case of such or similar merchandise;

(3) The cost of all containers and coverings of whatever nature, and all other costs, charges, and expenses incident to placing the particular merchandise under consideration in condition, packed ready for shipment to the United States; and

(4) An addition for profit (not less than 8 per centum of the sum of the amounts found under paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subdivision) equal to the profit which ordinarily is added, in the case of merchandise of the same general character as the particular merchandise under consideration, by manufacturers or producers in the country of manufacture or production who are engaged in the production or manufacture of merchandise of the same class or kind. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 402(e), 42 Stat. 949.)

239. Same; American selling price; how ascertained.—The American selling price of any article manufactured or produced in the United States shall be the price, including the cost of all containers and coverings of whatever nature and all other costs, charges, and expenses incident to placing the merchandise in condition packed ready for delivery, at which such article is freely offered for sale to all purchasers in the principal market of the United States, in the ordinary course of trade and in the usual wholesale quantities in such market, or the price that the manufacturer, producer, or owner would have received or was willing to receive for such merchandise when sold in the ordinary course of trade and in the usual wholesale quantities, at the time of exportation of the imported article. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 402(f), 42 Stat. 950.)

240. Value at date of shipment.—When the duty upon any imports shall be subject to be levied upon the true market value of such imports in the principal markets of the country from whence the importation has been made, or at the port of exportation, the duty shall be estimated and collected upon the value on the day of actual shipment, whenever a bill of lading shall be presented showing the date of shipment, and which shall be certified by a certificate of the United States consul or legally authorized deputy. (R. S. § 2904.)

PART 2.—REPORT, ENTRY, AND UNLADING OF VESSELS AND VEHICLES

241. Manifests, form and contents.—The master of every vessel arriving in the United States and required to make entry shall have on board his vessel a manifest in a form to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury and signed by such master under oath as to the truth of the statements therein contained. Such manifest shall contain:

First. The names of the ports at which the merchandise was taken on board and the ports of entry of the United States for which the same is destined, particularly describing the merchandise destined to each such port. The master of any vessel laden exclusively with coal, sugar, salt, nitrates, hides, dyewoods, wool, or other merchandise in bulk consigned to one owner and arriving at a port for orders, may destine such cargo "for orders," and within fifteen days thereafter, but before the unlading of any part of the cargo such manifest may be amended by the master by designating the port or ports of discharge of such cargo, and in the event of failure to amend the manifest within the time permitted such cargo must be discharged at the port at which the vessel arrived and entered.

Second. The name, description, and build of the vessel, the true measure or tonnage thereof, the port to which such vessel belongs, and the name of the master of such vessel.

Third. A detailed account of all merchandise on board such vessel, with the marks and numbers of each package, and the number and description of the packages according to their usual name or denomination, such as barrel, keg, hogshead, case, or bag.

Fourth. The names of the persons to whom such packages are respectively consigned in accordance with the bills of lading issued therefor, except that when such merchandise is consigned to order the manifest shall so state.

Fifth. The names of the several passengers aboard the vessel, stating whether cabin or steerage passengers, with their baggage, specifying the number and description of the pieces of baggage belonging to each, and a list of all baggage not accompanied by passengers.

Sixth. An account of the sea stores and ship's stores on board of the vessel. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 431, 42 Stat. 950.)

242. Same; separate specification of sea stores, etc.; forfeiture of articles in excess of specification or landed without permit; penalty.—The manifest of any vessel arriving from a foreign port or place shall separately specify the articles to be retained on board of such vessel as sea stores, ship's stores, or bunker coal or bunker oil, and if any other or greater quantity of sea stores, ship's stores, bunker coal, or bunker oil is found on board of any such vessel than is specified in the manifest, or if any such articles, whether shown on the manifest or not, are landed without a permit therefor issued by the collector, all such articles omitted from the manifest or landed without a permit shall be subject to forfeiture, and the master shall be liable to a penalty equal to the value of the articles. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 432, 42 Stat. 951.)

243. Report of arrival of vessels; duty of master.—Within twenty-four hours after the arrival of any vessel from a foreign port or place, or of a foreign vessel from a domestic port, or of a vessel of the United States carrying bonded merchandise, or foreign merchandise for which entry has not been made, at any port or within any harbor or bay at which such vessel shall come to, the master shall, unless otherwise provided by law, report the arrival of the vessel at the customhouse, under such regulations as the Secretary of Commerce may prescribe. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 433, 42 Stat. 951.)

244. Entry of American vessels.—Except as otherwise provided by law, and under such regulations as the Secretary of Commerce may prescribe, the master of a vessel of the United States arriving in the United States from a foreign port or place shall, within forty-eight hours after its arrival within the limits of any customs collection district, make formal entry of the vessel at the customhouse by producing and depositing with the collector the vessel's crew list, its register, or document in lieu thereof, the clearance and bills of health issued to the vessel at the foreign port or ports from which it arrived, together with the original and one copy of the manifest, and shall make oath that the ownership of the vessel is as indicated in the register and that the manifest was made out in accordance with section 241 of this title. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 434, 42 Stat. 951.)

245. Entry of foreign vessels.—The master of any foreign vessel arriving within the limits of any customs collection district shall, within forty-eight hours thereafter, make entry at the customhouse in the same manner as is required for the entry of a vessel of the United States, except that a list of the crew need not be delivered, and that instead of depositing the register or document in lieu thereof such master may produce a certificate by the consul of the nation to which such vessel belongs that said documents have been deposited with him. Such exception shall not apply to the vessels of foreign nations in whose ports American consular officers are not permitted to have the custody and possession of the register and other papers of vessels entering the ports of such nations. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 435, 42 Stat. 951.)

246. Failure to report or enter vessel.—Every master who fails to make the report or entry provided for in sections 243, 244, or 245 of this title shall, for each offense, be liable to a fine of not more than $1,000. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 436, 42 Stat. 951.)

247. Documents returned upon clearance.—The register, or document in lieu thereof, deposited in accordance with section 244 or 245 shall be returned to the master or owner of the vessel upon its clearance. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 437, 42 Stat. 951.)

248. Foreign consuls; return of documents before production of clearance; fine.—It shall not be lawful for any foreign consul to deliver to the master of any foreign vessel the register, or document in lieu thereof, deposited with him in accordance with the provisions of section 245 of this title until such master shall produce to him a clearance in due form from the collector of the port where such vessel has been entered. Any consul offending against the provisions of this section shall be liable to a fine of not more than $5,000. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 438, 42 Stat. 952.)

249. Mailing copy of manifest and corrections thereof to Comptroller General or comptroller of customs; failure; penalty.—Immediately upon arrival and before entering his vessel, the master of a vessel from a foreign port required to make entry shall mail to the Comptroller General of the United States at Washington, District of Columbia, or shall mail or deliver to the comptroller of customs, if any be located in such district, a copy of the manifest, and shall on entering his vessel make affidavit that a true and correct copy was so mailed or delivered, and he shall also mail to said Comptroller General, or mail or deliver to said comptroller of customs a true and correct copy of any correction of such manifest filed on entry of his vessel. Any master who fails so to mail or deliver such copy of the manifest or correction thereof shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $500. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 439, 42 Stat. 952.)

250. Post entries; mailing copies to Comptroller General or comptroller of customs; failure; penalty.—If there is any merchandise or baggage on board such vessel which is not included in or which does not agree with the manifest, the master of the vessel shall make a post entry thereof, and mail a copy to the Comptroller General of the United States or mail or deliver a copy to the comptroller of customs, if any, and for failure so to do shall be liable to a penalty of $500. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 440, 42 Stat. 952.)

251. Vessels not required to enter.—The following vessels shall not be required to make entry at the customhouse:

(1) Vessels of war and public vessels employed for the conveyance of letters and dispatches and not permitted by the laws of the nations to which they belong to be employed in the transportation of passengers or merchandise in trade;

(2) Passenger vessels making three trips or oftener a week between a port of the United States and a foreign port, or vessels used exclusively as ferryboats, carrying passengers, baggage, or merchandise: Provided, That the master of any such vessel shall be required to report such baggage and merchandise to the collector within twenty-four hours after arrival;

(3) Yachts of fifteen gross tons or under not permitted by law to carry merchandise or passengers for hire;

(4) Vessels arriving in distress or for the purpose of taking on bunker coal, bunker oil, or necessary sea stores and which shall depart within twenty-four hours after arrival without having landed or taken on board any merchandise other than bunker coal, bunker oil, or necessary sea stores. The master, owner, or agent of such vessel shall report under oath to the collector the hour and date of arrival and departure and the quantity of bunker coal, bunker oil, or necessary sea stores taken on board; and

(5) Tugs enrolled and licensed to engage in the foreign and coasting trade in the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers when towing vessels which are required by law to enter and clear. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 441, 42 Stat. 952.)

252. Goods destined for ports other than port of entry at which vessel first arrived; bonds.—Any vessel having on board merchandise shown by the manifest to be destined to a foreign port or place may, after the report and entry of such vessel under the provisions of this chapter, proceed to such foreign port of destination with the cargo so destined therefor, without unlading the same and without the payment of duty thereon. Any vessel arriving from a foreign port or place having on board merchandise shown by the manifest to be destined to a port or ports in the United States other than the port of entry at which such vessel first arrived and made entry may proceed with such merchandise from port to port or from district to district for the unlading thereof. The Secretary of the Treasury may, by general regulations or otherwise, require the master or owner of any vessel so proceeding to a foreign port or to a port or district other than that at which the vessel first arrived to give a bond in an amount equal to the estimated duties conditioned that no merchandise shall be landed in the United States from such vessel without entry therefor having been made and a permit secured from the customs officer and for the production of such landing certificates or other evidence of compliance with such bond as the Secretary of the Treasury may by general regulations require. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 442, 42 Stat. 952.)

253. Manifests; cargoes for different districts or ports; permits for departure from port of first arrival.—Merchandise arriving in any vessel for delivery in different districts or ports of entry shall be described in the manifest in the order of the districts or ports at or in which the same is to be unladen. Before any vessel arriving in the United States with any such merchandise shall depart from the port of first arrival, the master shall obtain from the collector a permit therefor with a certified copy of the vessel's manifest showing the quantities and particulars of the merchandise entered at such port of entry and of that remaining on board. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 443, 42 Stat. 953.)

254. Entry at another port.—Within twenty-four hours after the arrival of such vessel at another port of entry, the master shall make entry with the collector at such port and shall produce the permit issued by the collector at the port of first arrival, together with the certified copy of his manifest. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 444, 42 Stat. 953.)

255. Failure to obtain or to produce permit.—If the master of any such vessel shall proceed to another port or district without having obtained a permit therefor and a certified copy of his manifest, or if he shall fail to produce such permit and certified copy of his manifest to the collector at the port of destination, or if he shall proceed to any port not specified in the permit, he shall be liable to a penalty, for each offense, of not more than $500. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 445, 42 Stat. 953.)

256. Stores retained on board.—Vessels arriving in the United States from foreign ports may retain on board, without the payment of duty, all coal and other fuel supplies, ships' stores, sea stores, and the legitimate equipment of such vessels. Any such supplies, ships' stores, sea stores, or equipment landed and delivered from such vessel shall be considered and treated as imported merchandise. Bunker coal, bunker oil, ships' stores, sea stores, or the legitimate equipment of vessels belonging to regular lines plying between foreign ports and the United States, which are delayed in part for any cause, may be transferred under a permit by the collector and under customs supervision from the vessel so delayed to another vessel of the same line, and owner, and engaged in the foreign trade without the payment of duty thereon. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 446, 42 Stat. 953.)

257. Duty on equipments or repair parts for vessels.—The equipments, or any part thereof, including boats, purchased for, or the repair parts or materials to be used, or the expenses of repairs made in a foreign country upon a vessel documented under the laws of the United States to engage in the foreign or coasting trade, or a vessel intended to be employed in such trade, shall, on the first arrival of such vessel in any port of the United States, be liable to entry and the payment of an ad valorem duty of 50 per centum on the cost thereof in such foreign country; and if the owner or master of such vessel shall willfully and knowingly neglect or fail to report, make entry, and pay duties as herein required, such vessel, with her tackle, apparel and furniture, shall be seized and forfeited. (R. S. § 3114; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 466, 42 Stat. 957.)

258. Remission for necessary repairs.—If the owner or master of any vessel mentioned in section 257 of this title, however, furnishes good and sufficient evidence that such vessel, while in the regular course of her voyage, was compelled, by stress of weather or other casualty, to put into such foreign port and purchase such equipments, or make such repairs, to secure the safety of the vessel to enable her to reach her port of destination, then the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to remit or refund such duties, and such vessel shall not be liable to forfeiture, and no license or enrollment and license, or renewal of either, shall hereafter be issued to any such vessel until the collector to whom application is made for the same shall be satisfied, from the oath of the owner or master, that all such equipments and repairs made within the year immediately preceding such application have been duly accounted for under the provisions of this section and section 257 of this title, and the duties accruing thereon duly paid; and if such owner or master shall refuse to take such oath, or take it falsely, the vessel shall be seized and forfeited. (R. S. § 3115; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 466, 42 Stat. 957.)

259. Place of entry and unlading; merchandise in bulk.—It shall be unlawful to make entry of any vessel or to unlade the cargo or any part thereof of any vessel elsewhere than at a port of entry. Upon good cause therefor being shown, the Secretary of Commerce may permit entry of any vessel to be made at a place other than a port of entry designated by him, under such conditions as he shall prescribe. Any vessel laden with merchandise in bulk may proceed after entry of such vessel to any place designated by the Secretary of the Treasury for the purpose of unlading such cargo, under the supervision of customs officers if the collector shall consider the same necessary, and in such case the compensation and expenses of such officers shall be reimbursed to the Government by the party in interest. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 447, 42 Stat. 953.)

260. Unlading before entry or report of arrival and grant of permit; preliminary entry.—Except as provided in section 251 of this title, no merchandise, passengers, or baggage shall be unladen from any vessel or vehicle arriving from a foreign port or place until entry of such vessel or report of the arrival of such vehicle has been made and a permit for the unlading of the same issued by the collector. The master may make a preliminary entry of a vessel by making oath or affirmation to the truth of the statements contained in the vessel's manifest and delivering the manifest to the customs officer who boards such vessel, but the making of such preliminary entry shall not excuse the master from making formal entry of his vessel at the customhouse, as provided by this chapter. After the entry, preliminary or otherwise, of any vessel or report of the arrival of any vehicle, the collector may issue a permit to the master of the vessel, or to the person in charge of the vehicle, to unlade merchandise or baggage, but merchandise or baggage so unladen shall be retained at the place of unlading until entry therefor is made and a permit for its delivery granted, and the owners of the vessel or vehicle from which any imported merchandise is unladen prior to entry of such merchandise shall be liable for the payment of the duties accruing on any part thereof that may be removed from the place of unlading without a permit therefor having been issued. Any merchandise or baggage so unladen from any vessel or vehicle for which entry is not made within forty-eight hours, exclusive of Sunday and holidays, from the time of the entry of the vessel or report of the vehicle, unless a longer time is granted by the collector, as provided in section 345 of this title, shall be sent to the public stores and held as unclaimed at the risk and expense of the consignee in the case of merchandise and of the owner in the case of baggage, until entry thereof is made. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 448, 42 Stat. 953.)

261. Boarding officers may administer oaths; compensation.—Customs officers acting as boarding officers, and any customs officer who may be designated for that purpose by the collector of customs, are authorized to administer the oath or affirmation provided for in section 260 of this title, and such boarding officers shall be allowed extra compensation for services in boarding vessels at night or on Sundays or holidays—at the rate prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury as provided in section 267 of this title, the said extra compensation to be paid by the master, owner, agent, or consignee of such vessels. (Feb. 13, 1911, c. 46, § 5, 36 Stat. 901; Feb. 7, 1920, c. 61, 41 Stat. 402.)

262. Unlading; place; cases of emergency.—Except as provided in sections 252 and 259 of this title, merchandise and baggage imported in any vessel by sea shall be unladen at the port of entry to which such vessel is destined, unless (1) such vessel is compelled by any cause to put into another port of entry, and the collector of such port issues a permit for the unlading of such merchandise or baggage, or (2) the Secretary of the Treasury, because of an emergency existing at the port of destination, authorizes such vessel to proceed to another port of entry. Merchandise and baggage so unladen may be entered in the same manner as other imported merchandise or baggage and may be treated as unclaimed merchandise or baggage and stored at the expense and risk of the owner thereof, or may be reladen without entry upon the vessel from which it was unladen for transportation to its destination. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 449, 42 Stat. 954.)

263. Unlading on Sundays, holidays, or at night; special licenses.—No merchandise, baggage, or passengers arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place, and no bonded merchandise or baggage being transported from one port to another, shall be unladen from the carrying vessel or vehicle on Sunday, a holiday, or at night, except under special license granted by the collector under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 450, 42 Stat. 954.)

264. Bonds for special licenses.—Before any special license to unlade, as mentioned in section 263 of this title, shall be granted, the master, owner, or agent, of such vessel or vehicle shall be required to give a bond in a penal sum to be fixed by the collector conditioned to indemnify the United States for any loss or liability which might occur or be occasioned by reason of the granting of such special license and to pay the compensation and expenses of the customs officers and employees whose services are required in connection with such unlading at night or on Sunday or a holiday in accordance with the provisions of section 267 of this title. In lieu of such bond the owner, or agent, of any vessel or vehicle or line of vessels or vehicles may execute a bond in a penal sum to be fixed by the Secretary of the Treasury to cover and include the issuance of special licenses for the unlading of vessels or vehicles belonging to such line for a period of one year from the date thereof. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 451, 42 Stat. 954.)

265. Special license for lading at night or on Sundays or holidays.—No merchandise or baggage entered for transportation under bond or for exportation with the benefit of drawback, or other merchandise or baggage required to be laden under customs supervision, shall be laden on any vessel or vehicle at night or on Sunday or a holiday, except under special license therefor to be issued by the collector under the same conditions and limitations as pertain to the unlading of imported merchandise or merchandise being transported in bond. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 452, 42 Stat. 955.)

266. Penalty and forfeiture for lading or unlading contrary to law.—If any merchandise or baggage is laden on, or unladen from, any vessel or vehicle without a special license or permit therefor issued by the collector, the master of such vessel or the person in charge of such vehicle and every other person who knowingly is concerned, or who aids therein, or in removing or otherwise securing such merchandise or baggage, shall each be liable to a penalty equal to the value of the merchandise or baggage so laden or unladen, and such merchandise or baggage shall be subject to forfeiture, and if the value thereof is $500 or more, the vessel or vehicle on or from which the same shall be laden or unladen shall be subject to forfeiture. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 453, 42 Stat. 955.)

267. Compensation for overtime services; fixing working hours.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall fix a reasonable rate of extra compensation for overtime services of inspectors, storekeepers, weighers, and other customs officers and employees who may be required to remain on duty between the hours of five o'clock postmeridian and eight o'clock antemeridian, or on Sundays or holidays, to perform services in connection with the lading or unlading of cargo, or the lading of cargo or merchandise for transportation in bond or for exportation in bond or for exportation with benefit of drawback, or in connection with the receiving or delivery of cargo on or from the wharf, or in connection with the unlading, receiving, or examination of passengers' baggage, such rates to be fixed on the basis of one-half day's additional pay for each two hours or fraction thereof of at least one hour that the overtime extends beyond five o'clock postmeridian (but not to exceed two and one-half days' pay for the full period from five o'clock postmeridian to eight o'clock antemeridian), and two additional days' pay for Sunday or holiday duty. The said extra compensation shall be paid by the master, owner, agent, or consignee of such vessel or other conveyance whenever such special license or permit for immediate lading or unlading or for lading or unlading at night or on Sundays or holidays shall be granted to the collector of customs, who shall pay the same to the several customs officers and employees entitled thereto according to the rates fixed therefor by the Secretary of the Treasury. Such extra compensation shall be paid if such officers or employees have been ordered to report for duty and have so reported, whether the actual lading, unlading, receiving, delivery, or examination takes place or not. In those ports where customary working hours are other than those hereinabove mentioned, the collector of customs is vested with authority to regulate the hours of customs employees so as to agree with prevailing working hours in said ports, but nothing contained in this section shall be construed in any manner to affect or alter the length of a working day for customs employees or the overtime pay herein fixed. (Feb. 13, 1911, c. 46, § 5, 36 Stat. 901; Feb. 7, 1920, c. 61, 41 Stat. 402.)

268. Boarding and discharging inspectors; duties; obstructing or hindering; penalty.—The collector for the district in which any vessel or vehicle arrives from a foreign port or place may put on board of such vessel or vehicle while within such district, and if necessary while going from one district to another, one or more inspectors or other customs officers to examine the cargo and contents of such vessel or vehicle and superintend the unlading thereof, and to perform such other duties as may be required by law or the customs regulations for the protection of the revenue. Such inspector or other customs officer may, if he shall deem the same necessary for the protection of the revenue, secure the hatches or other communications or outlets of such vessel or vehicle with customs seals or other proper fastenings while such vessel is not in the act of unlading and such fastenings shall not be removed without permission of the inspector or other customs officer. Such inspector or other customs officer may require any vessel or vehicle to discontinue or suspend unlading during the continuance of unfavorable weather or any conditions rendering the discharge of cargo dangerous or detrimental to the revenue. Any officer, owner, agent of the owner, or member of the crew of any such vessel who obstructs or hinders any such inspector or other customs officer in the performance of his duties, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $500. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 454, 42 Stat. 955.)

269. Same; compensation and expenses.—The compensation of any inspector or other customs officer, stationed on any vessel or vehicle while proceeding from one port to another and returning therefrom, shall be reimbursed to the Government by the master or owner of such vessel, together with the actual expense of such inspector or customs officer for subsistence, or in lieu of such expenses such vessel or vehicle may furnish such inspector or customs officer the accommodations usually supplied to passengers. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 455, 42 Stat. 955.)

270. Custody of cargo not unladen promptly.—Whenever any merchandise remains on board any vessel or vehicle from a foreign port more than twenty-five days after the date on which report of said vessel or vehicle was made, the collector may take posession of such merchandise and cause the same to be unladen at the expense and risk of the owners thereof, or may place one or more inspectors or other customs officers on board of said vessel or vehicle to protect the revenue. The compensation and expenses of any such inspector or customs officer for subsistence while on board of such vessel or vehicle shall be reimbursed to the Government by the owner or master of such vessel or vehicle. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 456, 42 Stat. 955.)

271. Unlading at risk of consignee until entry made.—At the request of the consignee of any merchandise, or of the owner or master of the vessel or the person in charge of the vehicle in which the same is imported, any merchandise may be taken posession of by the collector after the expiration of one day after the entry of the vessel or report of the vehicle and may be unladen and held at the risk and expense of the consignee until entry thereof is made. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 457, 42 Stat. 956.)

272. Time for unlading bulk cargo.—The limitation of time for unlading shall not extend to vessels laden exclusively with merchandise in bulk consigned to one consignee and arriving at a port for orders, but if the master of such vessel requests a longer time to discharge its cargo, the compensation of the inspectors or other customs officers whose services are required in connection with the unlading shall, for every day consumed in unlading in excess of twenty-five days from the date of the vessel's entry, be reimbursed by the master or owner of such vessel. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 458, 42 Stat. 956.)

273. Landing spirits and wines; marking casks and cases.—The officers of inspection of any port where distilled spirits or wines shall be landed, shall, upon the landing thereof, and as soon as the casks, vessels, and cases containing the same shall be inspected, gauged, or measured, brand or otherwise mark in durable characters, the several casks, vessels, and cases containing the same, and the marks shall express the number of casks, vessels, or cases, whether of spirits or wines, marked by each officer respectively, in each year, in progressive numbers for each of the articles; also the port of importation, the name of the vessel, and the surname of the master; also each kind of spirits or wines, for which different rates of duty are or shall be imposed, the number of gallons in each cask or case, and the rate of proof if spirits; also the name of the surveyor or chief officer of inspection for the port, and the date of importation; of all which particulars the chief officers of inspections shall keep fair and correct accounts, in books to be provided for that purpose. (R. S. § 2885.)

274. Same; obliteration of marks.—On the sale of any cask, vessel, or case, which has been or shall be marked as containing distilled spirits or wines, and which has been emptied of its contents, and prior to the delivery thereof to the purchaser, or any removal thereof, the marks and numbers, which shall have been set thereon by or under the direction of any officer of inspection, shall be defaced and obliterated in the presence of some officer of inspection or of the customs, who shall, on due notice being given, attend for that purpose, at which time the certificate which ought to accompany such chest, vessel, or case, shall also be returned and canceled. Every person who shall obliterate, counterfeit, alter, or deface any mark or number placed by an officer of inspection upon any cask, vessel, or case, containing distilled spirits or wines, or any certificate thereof; or who shall sell or in any way alienate or remove any cask, vessel, or case, which has been emptied of its contents, before the marks and numbers, set thereon pursuant to the provisions of section 273 of this title, shall have been defaced or obliterated, in presence of an officer of inspection; or who shall neglect or refuse to deliver the certificate issued to accompany the cask, chest, vessel, or case, of which the marks and numbers shall have been defaced or obliterated in manner aforesaid, on being thereto required by an officer of inspection or of the customs, shall for every such offense be liable to a penalty of $100, with costs of suit. (R. S. § 2886.)

275. Imports from contiguous countries; reports and manifests; permits; penalties and forfeitures for failure to report arrival or unlading without permit.—The master of any vessel of less than five net tons carrying merchandise and the person in charge of any vehicle arriving in the United States from contiguous country, shall immediately report his arrival to the customs officer at the port of entry or customhouse which shall be nearest to the place at which such vessel or vehicle shall cross the boundary line or shall enter the territorial waters of the United States, and if such vessel or vehicle have on board any merchandise, shall produce to such customs officer a manifest as required by law, and no such vessel or vehicle shall proceed farther inland nor shall discharge or land any merchandise, passengers, or baggage without receiving a permit therefor from such customs officer. The master of any such vessel or the person in charge of any such vehicle who fails to report arrival in the United States as required by the provisions of this section shall be subject to a fine of $100 for each offense, and if any merchandise or baggage is unladen or discharged from any such vessel or vehicle without a permit therefor, the same, together with the vessel or vehicle in which imported, shall be subject to forfeiture. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 459, 42 Stat. 956.)

276. Same; failure to report arrival or file manifest.—If any merchandise is imported or brought into the United States in any vessel or vehicle from a contiguous country without being so reported to the collector, or in case of the neglect or failure of the master of the vessel or the person in charge of the vehicle to file a manifest therefor, such merchandise and the vessel or vehicle shall be subject to forfeiture and the master of such vessel or the person in charge of such vehicle shall be liable to a penalty equal to the value of the merchandise imported in such vessel or vehicle which was not reported to the collector or included in the manifest. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 460, 42 Stat. 956.)

277. Same; inspection of merchandise and baggage.—All merchandise and baggage imported or brought in from any contiguous country, except as otherwise provided by law or by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall be unladen in the presence of and be inspected by a customs officer at the first port of entry at which the same shall arrive; and such officer may require the owner, or his agent, or other person, having charge or possession of any trunk, traveling bag, sack, valise, or other container, or of any closed vehicle, to open the same for inspection, or to furnish a key or other means for opening the same. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 461, 42 Stat. 956.)

278. Same; forfeiture on refusal to permit inspection.—If such owner, agent, or other person shall fail to comply with his demand, the officer shall retain such trunk, traveling bag, sack, valise, or other container or closed vehicle, and open the same, and, as soon thereafter as may be practicable, examine the contents, and if any article subject to duty or any article the importation of which is prohibited is found therein, the whole contents and the container or vehicle shall be subject to forfeiture. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 462, 42 Stat. 956.)

279. Same; sealing vessels or vehicles.—To avoid unnecessary inspection of merchandise imported from a contiguous country at the first port of arrival, the master of the vessel or the person in charge of the vehicle in which such merchandise is imported may apply to the customs or consular officer of the United States stationed in the place from which such merchandise is shipped, and such officer may seal such vessel or vehicle. Any vessel or vehicle so sealed may proceed with such merchandise to the port of destination under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 463, 42 Stat. 957.)

280. Same; failure to proceed to port of destination, etc.—If the master of such vessel or the person in charge of any such vehicle fails to proceed with reasonable promptness to the port of destination and to deliver such vessel or vehicle to the proper officers of the customs, or fails to proceed in accordance with such regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, or unlades such merchandise or any part thereof at other than such port of destination, or disposes of any such merchandise by sale or otherwise, he shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both; and any such vessel or vehicle, with its contents, shall be subject to forfeiture. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 464, 42 Stat. 957.)

281. Same; supplies, etc.; filing lists of with manifest; penalty for failure.—The master of any vessel of the United States documented to engage in the foreign and coasting trade on the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers shall, upon arrival from a foreign contiguous territory, file with the manifest of such vessel a detailed list of all supplies or other merchandise purchased in such foreign country for use or sale on such vessel, and also a statement of the cost of all repairs to and all equipment taken on board such vessel. The conductor or person in charge of any railway car arriving from a contiguous country shall file with the manifest of such car a detailed list of all supplies or other merchandise purchased in such foreign country for use in the United States. If any such supplies, merchandise, repairs, or equipment shall not be reported, the master, conductor, or other person having charge of such vessel or vehicle shall be liable to a fine of not less than $100 and not more than $500, or to imprisonment for not more than two years, or both. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 465, 42 Stat. 957.)

282. Oath of master.—In the oath to be taken by such master of such vessel, on making such report, he shall declare that such articles purchased for use of the vessel, designated "sea stores" are truly intended for the use exclusively of the vessel, and are not intended for sale, transfer, or private use. If any other or greater quantity of dutiable articles shall be found on board such vessel than are specified in such report or entry of such articles, or any part thereof shall be landed without a permit from a collector or other officer of the customs, such articles, together with the vessel, her apparel, tackle, and furniture, shall be forfeited. (R. S. § 3111.)

283. Duty on saloon stores.—Articles purchased for the use of or for sale on board any such vessel, as saloon stores or supplies, shall be deemed merchandise, and shall be liable, when purchased at a foreign port, to entry and the payment of the duties found to be due thereon, at the first port of arrival of such vessel in the United States; and for a failure on the part of the saloon keeper or person purchasing or owning such articles to report, make entries, and pay duties, as hereinbefore required, such articles, together with the fixtures and other merchandise, found in such saloon or on or about such vessel, belonging to and owned by such saloon keeper or other person interested in such saloon, shall be seized and forfeited, and such saloon keeper or other person so purchasing and owning shall be liable to a penalty of not less than $100 and not more than $500, and shall be punishable by imprisonment for not less than three months, and not more than two years. (R. S. § 3113.)

284. Manifests of vessels in coasting trade.—The master of every vessel enrolled or licensed to engage in the foreign and coasting trade on the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers of the United States, except canal boats employed in navigating the canals within the United States, shall, before the departure of his vessel from a port in one collection district to a port in another collection district, present to the collector at the port of departure duplicate manifests of his cargo, or, if he have no cargo, duplicate manifests setting forth that fact; such manifests shall be subscribed and sworn to by the master before the collector, who shall indorse thereon his certificate of clearance, retaining one for the files of his office; the other he shall deliver for the use of the master. (R. S. § 3116.)

285. Entry for goods taken or delivered at intermediate ports.—If any vessel so enrolled or licensed shall touch at any intermediate port in the United States, and there discharge cargo taken on board at an American port, or at such intermediate ports shall take on board cargo destined for an American port, the master of such vessel shall not be required to report such lading or unlading at such intermediate ports, but shall enter the same on his manifest obtained at the original port of departure, which he shall deliver to the collector of the port at which the unlading of the cargo is completed, within twenty-four hours after arrival, and shall subscribe and make oath as to the truth and correctness of the same. (R. S. § 3117.)

286. Departure for place where no customhouse.—The master of any vessel so enrolled or licensed shall, before departing from a port in one collection district to a place in another collection district, where there is no customhouse, file his manifest, and obtain a clearance in the same manner, and make oath to the manifest, which manifest and clearance shall be delivered to the proper officer of customs at the port at which the vessel next arrives after leaving the place of destination specified in the clearance. (R. S. § 3118.)

287. Report and unlading of cargoes.—Nothing contained in sections 284 to 286 of this title shall exempt masters of vessels from reporting, as required by law, any merchandise destined for any foreign port. No permit shall be required for the unlading of cargo brought from an American port. (R. S. § 3119.)

288. Enrolled or licensed vessels.—Enrolled or licensed vessels engaged in the foreign and coasting trade on the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers of the United States, departing from or arriving at a port in one district to or from a port in another district, and also touching at intermediate foreign ports, shall not thereby become liable to the payment of entry and clearance fees, as if from or to foreign ports; but such vessels shall, notwithstanding, be required to enter and clear. (R. S. § 2793.)

289. Entry of ferryboats; vessels exempt from fees.—The masters of vessels used exclusively as ferryboats carrying passengers, baggage, and merchandise, shall not be required to pay clearance fees.

Any passenger vessel engaged triweekly or oftener in trade between ports of the United States and foreign ports shall be exempt from clearance fees while such service triweekly or oftener is maintained. (R. S. § 2792; May 28, 1908, 212, § 1; 35 Stat. 424.)

290. Departure from place where there is no customhouse.—The master of any vessel so enrolled or licensed, destined with a cargo from a place in the United States, at which there may be no customhouse, to a port where there may be a customhouse, shall, within twenty-four hours after arrival at the port of destination, deliver to the proper officer of the customs a manifest, subscribed by him, setting forth the cargo laden at the place of departure, or laden or unladen at any intermediate port, or place, to the truth of which manifest he shall make oath before such officer. If the vessel, however, have no cargo, the master shall not be required to deliver such manifest. (R. S. § 3122.)

291. Forms.—The manifests, certificates of clearance, and oaths, provided for by sections 284 to 287 and section 290 of this title shall be in such form, and prepared, filled up, and executed in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury may from time to time prescribe. (R. S. § 3124.)

292. Penalty for neglect.—If the master of any enrolled or licensed vessel shall neglect or fail to comply with any of the provisions or requirements of sections 284 to 287, 290 and 291 of this title, such master shall forfeit and pay to the United States the sum of $20 for each and every failure or neglect, and for which sum the vessel shall be liable, and may be summarily proceeded against, by way of libel, in any district court of the United States. (R. S. § 3125.)

293. Registered vessels touching at foreign ports.—Any vessel, on being duly registered in pursuance of the laws of the United States, may engage in trade between one port in the United States and one or more ports within the same, with the privilege of touching at one or more foreign ports during the voyage, and land and take in thereat merchandise, passengers and their baggage, and letters, and mails. All such vessels shall be furnished by the collectors of the ports at which they shall take in their cargoes in the United States, with certified manifests, setting forth the particulars of the cargoes, the marks, number of packages, by whom shipped, to whom consigned, at what port to be delivered; designating such merchandise as is entitled to drawback, or to the privilege of being placed in warehouse; and the masters of all such vessels shall, on their arrival at any port of the United States from any foreign port at which such vessel may have touched, as herein provided, conform to the laws providing for the delivery of manifests of cargo and passengers taken on board at such foreign port, and all other laws regulating the report and entry of vessels from foreign ports, and be subject to all the penalties therein prescribed. (R. S. § 3126.)

294. Same; no duty by reason thereof.—Any foreign merchandise taken in at one port of the United States to be conveyed in registered vessels to any other port within the same, either under the provisions relating to warehouses, or under the laws regulating the transportation coastwise of merchandise entitled to drawback, as well as any merchandise not entitled to drawback, but on which the import duties chargeable by law shall have been duly paid, shall not become subject to any import duty by reason of the vessel in which they may arrive having touched at a foreign port during the voyage. (R. S. § 3127.)

PART 3.—ASCERTAINMENT, COLLECTION, AND RECOVERY OF DUTIES

Cross reference: Valuation of foreign currency for purpose of assessment and collection of duties, see section 372 of title 31.

331. Invoices of imported merchandise; contents; additional requirements.—All invoices of merchandise to be imported into the United States shall set forth—

(1) The port of entry to which the merchandise is destined;

(2) The time when, the place where, and the person by whom and the person to whom the merchandise is sold or agreed to be sold, or if to be imported otherwise than in pursuance of a purchase, the place from which shipped, the time when and the person to whom and the person by whom it is shipped;

(3) A detailed description of the merchandise, including the name by which each item is known, the grade or quality, and the marks, numbers, or symbols under which sold by the seller or manufacturer to the trade in the country of exportation, together with the marks and numbers of the packages in which the merchandise is packed;

(4) The quantities in the weights and measures of the country or place from which the merchandise is shipped, or, in the weights and measures of the United States;

(5) The purchase price of each item in the currency of the purchase, if the merchandise is shipped in pursuance of a purchase or an agreement to purchase;

(6) If the merchandise is shipped otherwise than in pursuance of a purchase or an agreement to purchase, the value for each item, in the currency in which the transactions are usually made, or, in the absence of such value, the price in such currency that the manufacturer, seller, shipper, or owner would have received, or was willing to receive, for such merchandise if sold in the ordinary course of trade and in the usual wholesale quantities in the country of exportation;

(7) The kind of currency, whether gold, silver, or paper;

(8) All charges upon the merchandise, itemized by name and amount when known to the seller or shipper; or all charges by name (including commissions, insurance, freight, cases, containers, coverings, and cost of packing) included in the invoice prices when the amounts for such charges are unknown to the seller or shipper;

(9) All rebates, drawbacks, and bounties, separately itemized, allowed upon the exportation of the merchandise; and

(10) Any other facts deemed necessary to a proper appraisement, examination, and classification of the merchandise that the Secretary of the Treasury may require. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 481(a), 42 Stat. 958.)

332. Same; merchandise shipped by other than manufacturer otherwise than by purchase.—If the merchandise is shipped to a person in the United States by a person other than the manufacturer, otherwise than by purchase, such person shall state on the invoice the time when, the place where, the person from whom such merchandise was purchased, and the price paid therefor in the currency of the purchase, stating whether gold, silver, or paper. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 481(b), 42 Stat. 958.)

333. Same; goods purchased in different consular districts.—When the merchandise has been purchased in different consular districts for shipment to the United States and is assembled for shipment and embraced in a single invoice which is produced for certification under the provisions of paragraph (2) of section 334 of this title, the invoice shall have attached thereto the original bills or invoices received by the shipper or extracts therefrom, showing the actual prices paid or to be paid for such merchandise. The consular officer to whom the invoice is so produced for certification may require that any such original bill or invoice be certified by the consular officer for the district in which the merchandise was purchased. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 481(c), 42 Stat. 958.)

334. Certification of invoices; consular districts.—Every invoice covering merchandise exceeding $100 in value shall, at or before the time of the shipment of the merchandise, or as soon thereafter as the conditions will permit, be produced for certification to the consular officer of the United States—

(1) For the consular district in which the merchandise was manufactured, or purchased, or from which it was to be delivered pursuant to contract;

(2) For the consular district in which the merchandise is assembled and repacked for shipment to the United States, if it has been purchased in different consular districts. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 482(a), 42 Stat. 959.)

335. Declaration indorsed upon invoices.—Such invoices shall have indorsed thereon, when so produced, a verified declaration, in a form prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, stating whether the merchandise is sold or agreed to be sold, or whether it is shipped otherwise than in pursuance of a purchase or an agreement to purchase, that there is no other invoice differing from the invoice so produced, and that all the statements contained in such invoice and in such declaration are true and correct. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 482(b), 42 Stat. 959.)

336. Copies of certified invoices.—Every certified invoice shall be made out in triplicate or in quadruplicate, if desired by the shipper, for merchandise intended for immediate transportation, under the provisions of section 452 of this title, and shall be signed by the seller or shipper, or the agent of either. Where any such invoice is signed by an agent, he shall state thereon the name of his principal. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 482(c), 42 Stat. 959.)

337. Certifying invoices.—Such invoices shall be certified in accordance with the provisions of existing law. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 482(d), 42 Stat. 959.)

338. Indorsement upon invoice; port of entry.—The person producing an invoice for certification shall at the same time declare to the consul or vice consul the port in the United States at which it is intended to make entry of merchandise; whereupon the consul, or vice consul, shall indorse upon each of the triplicates a certificate, under his hand and official seal, stating that the invoice has been produced to him, with the date of such production, and the name of the person by whom the same was produced, and the port in the United States at which it shall be the declared intention to make entry of the merchandise therein mentioned. (R. S. § 2855.)

339. Restriction on consular certificates.—No consular officer of the United States shall grant a certificate for merchandise shipped from countries adjacent to the United States, which have passed a consulate after purchase for shipment. (R. S. § 2861.)

340. Consuls to exact proof of invoice.—All consular officers are authorized to require, before certifying any invoice, satisfactory evidence, either by the oath of the person presenting such invoices or otherwise, that such invoices are correct and true. In the exercise of the discretion hereby given, the consular officers shall be governed by such general or special regulations or instructions as may from time to time be established or given by the Secretary of State. (R. S. § 2862.)

341. Fraudulent practices; consul's report.—All consuls of the United States having any knowledge or belief of any case or practice of any person who obtains verification of any invoice whereby the revenue of the United States is or may be defrauded, shall report the facts to the collector of the port where the revenue is or may be defrauded, or to the Secretary of the Treasury. (R. S. § 2863.)

342. Disposition of original invoice and copies.—The original of the invoice shall be filed in the office of the consular officer by whom it was certified, to be there kept until the Secretary of State authorizes its destruction. The duplicate, and if made, the quadruplicate shall be delivered to the exporter, to be forwarded to the consignee for use in making entry of the merchandise and the triplicate shall be promptly transmitted by the consular officer to the collector of customs at the port of entry named in the invoice. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 482(e), 42 Stat. 959.)

343. Certification of invoices by other than American consular officers; certification in United States possessions.—When merchandise is to be shipped from a place so remote from an American consulate as to render impracticable certification of the invoice by an American consular officer, such invoice may be certified by consular officer of a nation at the time in amity with the United States, or if there be no such consular officer available such invoice shall be executed before a notary public or other officer having authority to administer oaths and having an official seal. Invoices for merchandise shipped to the United States from the Philippine Islands or any of its other possessions may be certified by the collector of customs or the person acting as such, or by his deputy. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 482(f), 42 Stat. 959.)

344. Ownership of merchandise; consignor; consignee.—All merchandise imported into the United States shall, for the purposes of this title, be held to be the property of the person to whom the same is consigned; and the holder of a bill of lading duly indorsed by the consignee therein named, or, if consigned to order, by the consignor, shall be deemed the consignee thereof. The underwriters of abandoned merchandise and the salvors of merchandise saved from a wreck at sea or on or along the coast of the United States may, for such purposes, be regarded as the consignees. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 483, 42 Stat. 959.)

345. Entry of merchandise; by whom made; time for making.—Except as provided in sections 159, 382, 370, 452, and 453 of this title, the consignee of imported merchandise shall make entry therefor either in person or by an agent authorized by him in writing under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. Such entry shall be made at the customhouse within forty-eight hours, exclusive of Sundays and holidays, after the entry of the importing vessel or report of the vehicle, or after the arrival at the port of destination in the case of merchandise transported in bond, unless the collector authorizes in writing a longer time. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 484(a), 42 Stat. 960.)

346. Same; certified invoices to be produced; exceptions.—No merchandise shall be admitted to entry under the provisions of sections 345 to 351 of this title without the production of a certified invoice therefor, except that entry may be permitted if—

(1) The collector is satisfied that the failure to produce such invoice is due to causes beyond the control of the person making entry;

(2) Such person makes a verified declaration in writing that he is unable to produce such invoice and (a) files therewith a seller's or shipper's invoice, or (b) if he is not in possession of a seller's or shipper's invoice files therewith a statement of the value, or the price paid, in the form of an invoice; and

(3) Such person gives a bond in a penal sum to be fixed by the Secretary of the Treasury for the production of such certified invoice within six months, and the payment of the penal sum so fixed as liquidated damages in the event such invoice is not so produced. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 484(b), 42 Stat. 960.)

347. Same; bill of lading to be produced; exceptions.—The consignee shall produce the bill of lading at the time of making entry, except that—

(1) If the collector is satisfied that no bill of lading has been issued, the shipping receipt or other evidence satisfactory to the collector may be accepted in lieu thereof; and

(2) The collector is authorized to permit entry and to release merchandise from customs custody without the production of the bill of lading if the person making such entry gives a bond satisfactory to the collector, in a sum equal to not less than one and one-half times the invoice value of the merchandise, to produce such bill of lading, to relieve the collector of all liability, to indemnify the collector against loss, to defend every action brought upon a claim for loss or damage, by reason of such release from customs custody or a failure to produce such bill of lading and to entitle any person injured by reason of such release from customs custody to sue on such bond in his own name, without making the collector a party thereto. Any person so injured by such release may sue on such bond to recover any damages so sustained by him. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 484(c), 42 Stat. 960.)

348. Same; signature; contents.—Such entry shall be signed by the consignee, or his agent, and shall set forth such facts in regard to the importation as the Secretary of the Treasury may require for the purpose of assessing duties and to secure a proper examination, inspection, appraisement, and liquidation, and shall be accompanied by such invoices, bills of lading, certificates and documents as are required by law and regulations promulgated thereunder. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 484(d), 42 Stat. 960.)

349. Same; enumeration of kinds and quantities of merchandise imported and their value.—The Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of Commerce are authorized and directed to establish from time to time for statistical purposes an enumeration of articles in such detail as in their judgment may be necessary, comprehending all merchandise imported into the United States, and as a part of the entry there shall be attached thereto or included therein an accurate statement specifying, in terms of such detailed enumeration, the kinds and quantities of all merchandise imported and the value of the total quantity of each kind of article. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 484(e), 42 Stat. 960.)

350. Same; subsequent entry of part of merchandise; separate entry of packages contained in packages for delivery to other persons.—If any of the certificates or documents necessary to make entry of any part of merchandise arriving on one vessel or vehicle and consigned to one consignee have not arrived, such part may be entered subsequently, and notation of the packages or cases to be omitted from the original entry shall be made thereon. One or more packages arriving on one vessel or vehicle addressed for delivery to one person and imported in another package containing packages addressed for delivery to other persons may be separately entered, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. All other merchandise arriving on one vessel or vehicle and consigned to one consignee shall be included in one entry. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 484(f), 42 Stat. 961.)

351. Same; statement of cost of production.—Under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, the collector or the appraiser may require a verified statement from the manufacturer or producer showing the cost of production of the imported merchandise, when necessary to the appraisement of such merchandise. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 484(g), 42 Stat. 961.)

352. Declaration by consignee; contents.—Every consignee making an entry under the provisions of sections 345 to 351 of this title shall make and file therewith, in a form to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, a declaration under oath, stating—

(1) Whether the merchandise is imported in pursuance of a purchase or an agreement to purchase, or whether it is imported otherwise than in pursuance of a purchase or agreement to purchase;

(2) That the prices set forth in the invoice are true, in the case of merchandise purchased or agreed to be purchased; or in the case of merchandise secured otherwise than by purchase or agreement to purchase, that the statements in such invoice as to foreign value are true to the best of his knowledge and belief;

(3) That all other statements in the invoice or other documents filed with the entry, or in the entry itself, are true and correct; and

(4) That he will produce at once to the collector any invoice, paper, letter, document, or information received showing that any such prices or statements are not true or correct. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 485(a), 42 Stat. 961.)

353. Same; for books, magazines, etc.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe regulations for one declaration in the case of books, magazines, newspapers, and periodicals published and imported in successive parts, numbers, or volumes, and entitled to free entry. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 485(b), 42 Stat. 961.)

354. Same; bond by agent to produce declaration.—In the event that an entry is made by an agent under the provisions of sections 345 to 351 of this title, and such agent is not in possession of such declaration of the consignee, such agent shall give a bond, in a form and of a penal sum prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, to produce such declaration. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, 485(c), 42 Stat. 961.)

355. Same; when consignee not liable for additional or increased duties.—A consignee shall not be liable for any additional or increased duties if (1) he declares at the time of entry that he is not the actual owner of the merchandise, (2) he furnishes the name and address of such owner, and (3) within ninety days from the date of entry he produces a declaration of such owner conditioned that he will pay all additional and increased duties, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. Such owner shall possess all the rights of a consignee. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 485(d), 42 Stat. 961.)

356. Same; separate forms for declaration.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe separate forms for the declaration in the case of merchandise which is imported in pursuance of a purchase or agreement to purchase and merchandise which is imported otherwise than in pursuance of a purchase or agreement to purchase. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 485(e), 42 Stat. 961.)

357. Same; merchandise consigned to deceased, insolvent, partnership, or corporation.—Whenever such merchandise is consigned to a deceased person, or to an insolvent person who has assigned the same for the benefit of his creditors, the executor or administrator, or the assignee of such person or receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, shall be considered as the consignee; when consigned to a partnership the declaration of one of the partners only shall be required, and when consigned to a corporation such declaration may be made by any officer of such corporation, or by any other person specifically authorized by the board of directors of such corporation to make the same. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 485(f), 42 Stat. 961.)

358. Bond for production of invoices, declarations, etc., where merchandise not sent to public stores.—Upon entry of any merchandise, none of which or a part only of which is sent to the public stores for inspection, examination, or appraisal, the consignee shall give a bond, conditioned that he will produce all invoices, declarations, and other documents or papers required by law or regulations made in pursuance thereof upon the entry of imported merchandise; and that he will comply with all the requirements of the laws or regulations made in pursuance thereof relating to the importation and admission of such merchandise and will return to the collector, when demanded by such collector, not later than ten days after the appraiser's report, such of the merchandise as was not sent to the public stores, and also will return to the collector, on demand by him, any and all merchandise found not to comply with the law and regulations governing its admission into the commerce of the United States. Such bond shall be given in a form and in a penalty to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, the penalty thereof to be paid as liquidated damages. Instead of a bond upon each entry the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe a bond to be taken from any consignee to cover all importations entered by him within a period of one year from the date thereof. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 486, 42 Stat. 962.)

359. Additions to entry; deductions from cost or valuation in invoice.—The consignee, or his agent, may, at the time entry is made or at any time before the invoice or the merchandise has come under the observation of the appraiser for the purpose of appraisement, make such additions in the entry to or such deductions from the cost or value given in the invoice as in his opinion may raise or lower the same to the value of such merchandise. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 487, 42 Stat. 962.)

360. Appraisal.—The collector within whose district any merchandise is entered shall cause such merchandise to be appraised. (Sept 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 488, 42 Stat. 962.)

361. Additional duties where merchandise undervalued; fraudulent undervaluation; assessment of duties upon amount less than entered value.—If the final appraised value of any article of imported merchandise which is subject to an ad valorem rate of duty or to a duty based upon or regulated in any manner by the value thereof shall exceed the entered value, there shall be levied, collected, and paid, in addition to the duties imposed by law on such merchandise, an additional duty of 1 per centum of the total final appraised value thereof for each 1 per centum that such final appraised value exceeds the value declared in the entry. Such additional duty shall apply only to the particular article or articles in each invoice that are so advanced in value upon final appraisement and shall not be imposed upon any article upon which the amount of duty imposed by law on account of the final appraised value does not exceed the amount of duty that would be imposed if the final appraised value did not exceed the entered value, and shall be limited to 75 per centum of the final appraised value of such article or articles. Such additional duties shall not be construed to be penal and shall not be remitted nor payment thereof in any way avoided, except in the case of a manifest clerical error, upon the order of the Secretary of the Treasury, or in any case upon the finding of the Board of General Appraisers, upon a petition filed and supported by satisfactory evidence under such rules as the board may prescribe, that the entry of the merchandise at a less value than that returned upon final appraisement was without any intention to defraud the revenue of the United States or to conceal or misrepresent the facts of the case or to deceive the appraiser as to the value of the merchandise. If the appraised value of any merchandise exceeds the value declared in the entry by more than 100 per centum, such entry shall be presumptively fraudulent, and the collector shall seize the whole case or package containing such merchandise and proceed as in case of forfeiture for violation of the customs laws; and in any legal proceeding other than a criminal prosecution that may result from such seizure, the undervaluation as shown by the appraisal shall be presumptive evidence of fraud, and the burden of proof shall be on the claimant to rebut the same, and forfeiture shall be adjudged unless he rebuts such presumption of fraud by sufficient evidence.

Upon the making of such order or finding, the additional duties shall be remitted or refunded, wholly or in part, and the entry shall be liquidated or reliquidated accordingly. Such additional duties shall not be refunded in case of exportation of the merchandise, nor shall they be subject to the benefit of drawback. All additional duties, penalties, or forfeitures applicable to merchandise entered in connection with a certified invoice shall be alike applicable to merchandise entered in connection with a seller's or shipper's invoice or statement in the form of an invoice. Duties shall not, however, be assessed upon an amount less than the entered value, except in a case where the importer certifies at the time of entry that the entered value is higher than the value as defined in this chapter, and that the goods are so entered in order to meet advances by the appraiser in similar cases then pending on appeal for reappraisement or re-reappraisement, and the importer's contention in said pending cases shall subsequently be sustained, wholly or in part, by a final decision on reappraisement or re-reappraisement, and it shall appear that the action of the importer on entry was so taken in good faith, after due diligence and inquiry on his part, and the collector shall liquidate the entry in accordance with the final appraisement. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 489, 42 Stat. 962.)

362. Incomplete entry; storage of merchandise in bonded warehouse.—Whenever entry of any imported merchandise is not made within the time provided by law or the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, or whenever entry of such merchandise is incomplete because of failure to pay the estimated duties, or whenever, in the opinion of the collector, entry of such merchandise can not be made for want of proper documents or other cause, or whenever the collector believes that any merchandise is not correctly and legally invoiced, he shall take the merchandise into his custody and send it to a bonded warehouse or public store, to be held at the risk and expense of the consignee until entry is made or completed and the proper documents are produced, or a bond given for their production. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 490, 42 Stat. 963.)

363. Unclaimed goods; sale; explosive or perishable articles.—If any merchandise of which possession has been taken by the collector shall remain in bonded warehouse or public store for one year without entry thereof having been made and the duties and charges thereon paid, such merchandise shall be appraised by the appraiser of merchandise and sold by the collector at public auction as abandoned to the Government, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe. All gunpowder and other explosive substances and merchandise liable to depreciation in value by damage, leakage, or other cause to such extent that the proceeds of sale thereof may be insufficient to pay the duties, storage, and other charges, if permitted to remain in public store or bonded warehouse for a period of one year, may be sold forthwith, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 491, 42 Stat. 963.)

364. Destruction of abandoned or forfeited merchandise.—Except as provided in section 774 of Title 26, any merchandise abandoned or forfeited to the Government under section 363 of this title or any other provision of the customs laws, which is subject to internal-revenue tax and which the collector shall be satisfied will not sell for a sufficient amount to pay such taxes, shall be forthwith destroyed under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, instead of being sold at auction. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 492, 42 Stat. 963.)

365. Proceeds of sale of unclaimed goods.—The surplus of the proceeds of sale under section 363 of this title, after the payment of storage charges, expenses, duties, and the satisfaction of any lien for freight, charges, or contribution in general average, shall be deposited by the collector in the Treasury of the United States, if claim therefor shall not be filed with the collector within ten days from the date of sale, and the sale of such merchandise shall exonerate the master of any vessel in which the merchandise was imported from all claims of the owner thereof, who shall, nevertheless, on due proof of his interest, be entitled to receive from the Treasury the amount of any surplus of the proceeds of sale. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 493, 42 Stat. 964.)

366. Expense of ascertaining weight, quantity, or measure of merchandise.—In all cases in which the invoice or entry does not state the weight, quantity, or measure of the merchandise, the expense of ascertaining the same shall be collected from the consignee before its release from customs custody. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 494, 42 Stat. 964.)

367. Partnership bonds.—When any bond is required by law to be executed by any partnership for any purpose connected with the transaction of business at any customhouse, the execution of such bond by any member of such partnership shall bind the other partners in like manner and to the same extent as if such other partners had personally joined in the execution, and an action or suit may be instituted on such bond against all partners as if all had executed the same. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 495, 42 Stat. 964.)

368. Baggage; examination.—The collector may cause an examination to be made of the baggage of any person arriving in the United States in order to ascertain what articles are contained therein and whether subject to duty, free of duty, or prohibited notwithstanding a declaration and entry therefor has been made. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 496, 42 Stat. 964.)

369. Same; forfeiture of articles not included in declaration.—Any article not included in the declaration and entry as made, and, before examination of the baggage was begun, not mentioned in writing by such person, if written declaration and entry was required, or orally if written declaration and entry was not required, shall be subject to forfeiture and such person shall be liable to a penalty equal to the value of such article. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 497, 42 Stat. 964.)

370. Declaration and entry of certain merchandise; household goods, gifts, tools of trade, etc.; rules and regulations.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe rules and regulations for the declaration and entry of—

(1) Merchandise not exceeding $100 in value, including such merchandise imported through the mails;

(2) Merchandise damaged by fire or marine casualty on the voyage of importation;

(3) Merchandise recovered from a wrecked or stranded vessel;

(4) Household effects used abroad and personal effects, not imported in pursuance of a purchase or agreement for purchase and not intended for sale;

(5) Articles sent by persons in foreign countries as gifts to persons in the United States;

(6) Articles carried on the person or contained in the baggage of a person arriving in the United States;

(7) Tools of trade of a person arriving in the United States;

(8) Personal effects of citizens of the United States who have died in a foreign country;

(9) Merchandise within the provisions of sections 257, 258, and 281 of this title, at the first port of arrival;

(10) Merchandise when in the opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury the value thereof can not be declared; and

(11) Merchandise within the provisions of sections 472 to 475 of this title. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 498(a), 42 Stat. 964.)

371. Same.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to include in such rules and regulations any of the provisions of sections 345 to 357 of this title. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 498(b), 42 Stat. 965.)

372. Inspection, examination, or appraisal of merchandise; packages or quantities to be opened and examined; articles not specified in invoice.—Imported merchandise, required by law or regulations made in pursuance thereof to be inspected, examined, or appraised, shall not be delivered from customs custody, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, until it has been inspected, examined, or appraised and is reported by the appraiser to have been truly and correctly invoiced and found to comply with the requirements of the laws of the United States. The collector shall designate the packages or quantities covered by any invoice or entry which are to be opened and examined for the purpose of appraisement or otherwise and shall order such packages or quantities to be sent to the public stores or other places for such purpose. Not less than one package of every invoice and not less than one package of every ten packages of merchandise, shall be so designated unless the Secretary of the Treasury, from the character and description of the merchandise, is of the opinion that the examination of a less proportion of packages will amply protect the revenue and by special regulation permit a less number of packages to be examined. The collector or the appraiser may require such additional packages or quantities as either of them may deem necessary. If any package is found by the appraiser to contain any article not specified in the invoice and he reports to the collector that in his opinion such article was omitted from the invoice with fraudulent intent on the part of the seller, shipper, owner, or agent, the contents of the entire package in which such article is found shall be liable to seizure, but if the appraiser reports that no such fraudulent intent is apparent then the value of said article shall be added to the entry and the duties thereon paid accordingly. If a deficiency is found in quantity, weight, or measure in the examination of any package, report thereof shall be made to the collector, who shall make allowance therefor in the liquidation of duties. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 499, 42 Stat. 965.)

373. Duties of appraisers.—It shall be the duty of the appraiser under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe—

(1) To appraise imported merchandise in the unit of quantity in which the merchandise is usually bought and sold by ascertaining or estimating the value thereof by all reasonable ways and means in his power, any statement of cost or cost of production in any invoice, affidavit, declaration, or other document to the contrary notwithstanding;

(2) To ascertain the number of yards, parcels, or quantities of the merchandise ordered or designated for examination;

(3) To ascertain whether the merchandise has been truly and correctly invoiced;

(4) To describe the merchandise in order that the collector may determine the dutiable classification thereof; and

(5) To report his decisions to the collector. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 500(a), 42 Stat. 965.)

374. Same; review of reports of assistant appraisers.—At ports where there are assistant appraisers provided for by law the appraiser shall have power to review and to revise and correct the reports of such assistant appraisers. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 500(b), 42 Stat. 965.)

375. Duties of assistant appraisers.—It shall be the duty of an assistant appraiser—

(1) To examine and inspect such merchandise as the appraiser may direct, and to report to him the value thereof;

(2) To revise and correct the reports and to supervise and direct the work of such examiners and other employees as the appraiser may designate; and

(3) To assist the appraiser, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury or the appraiser may prescribe. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 500(c), 42 Stat. 965.)

376. Same; port of New York; report deemed appraisement.—Such report by an assistant appraiser at the port of New York, when approved by him shall be transmitted to the collector, and shall be deemed an appraisement by the United States local appraiser of the district of such merchandise required by law. (R. S. § 2615.)

377. Duties of examiners.—It shall be the duty of an examiner to examine and inspect imported merchandise and report the value and such other facts as the appraiser may require in his appraisement or report, and to perform such other duties as may be prescribed by rules and regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury or the appraiser. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 500(d), 42 Stat. 966.)

378. Appraiser as special examiner.—One of the assistant appraisers at the port of New York, to be appointed with special reference to his qualifications for such duties, shall, in addition to the duties that may be required of him by the appraiser, perform the duties of a special examiner of drugs, medicines, chemicals, and so forth. (R. S. § 2938.)

379. Instructions to prevent importation.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall give to the collectors of districts for which an examiner of drugs, medicines, and chemicals is not provided by law, such instructions as he may deem necessary to prevent the importation of adulterated and spurious drugs and medicines. (R. S. § 2612.)

380. Acting appraisers.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to designate an officer of the customs as acting appraiser at a port where there is no appraiser. Such acting appraiser shall take the oath, perform all the duties, and possess all the powers of an appraiser. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 500(e), 42 Stat. 966.)

381. Appeal for reappraisement to Board of General Appraisers.—The decision of the appraiser shall be final and conclusive upon all parties unless a written appeal for a reappraisement is filed with or mailed to the Board of General Appraisers by the collector within sixty days after the date of the appraiser's report, or filed by the consignee, or his agent, with the collector within ten days after the date of personal delivery, or if mailed the date of mailing of written notice of appraisement to the consignee, his agent, or his attorney. No such appeal filed by the consignee, or his agent, shall be deemed valid, unless he has complied with all the provisions of this chapter relating to the entry and appraisement of such merchandise. Every such appeal shall be transmitted with the entry and the accompanying papers by the collector to the Board of General Appraisers and shall be assigned to one of the general appraisers, who shall ascertain and return the value of the merchandise and shall give reasonable notice to the importer and to the person designated to represent the Government in such proceedings of the time and place of the hearing, at which the parties and their attorneys shall have an opportunity to introduce evidence and to hear and cross-examine the witnesses of the other party and to inspect all samples and all papers admitted or offered as evidence. In finding such value affidavits of persons whose attendance can not reasonably be had, price lists, catalogues, reports or depositions of consuls, special agents, collectors, appraisers, assistant appraisers, examiners, and other officers of the Government may be considered. Copies of official documents, when certified by an official duly authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury, may be admitted in evidence with the same force and effect as original documents.

The decision of the general appraiser, after argument on the part of the interested parties if requested by them or by either of them, shall be final and conclusive upon all parties unless within ten days from the date of the filing of the decision with the collector an application for its review shall be filed with or mailed to said board by the collector or other person authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury, and a copy of such application mailed to the consignee, or his agent or attorney, or filed by the consignee, or his agent or attorney, with the collector, by whom the same shall be forthwith forwarded to the Board of General Appraisers. Every such application shall be assigned by the Board of General Appraisers to a board of three general appraisers, who shall consider the case upon the samples of the merchandise, if there be any, and the record made before the general appraiser, and, after argument on the part of the parties if requested by them or either of them, shall affirm, reverse, or modify the decision of the general appraiser or remand the case to the general appraiser for further proceedings, and shall state its action in a written decision, to be forwarded to the collector, setting forth the facts upon which the finding is based and the reasons therefor. The decision of the Board of General Appraisers shall be final and conclusive upon all parties unless an appeal shall be taken by either party to the Court of Customs Appeals upon a question or questions of law only within the time and in the manner provided by section 310 of Title 28. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 501, 42 Stat. 966.)

382. Regulations for appraisal, and classification and assessment of duties; control of appraisers, etc.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall establish and promulgate such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the law, and may disseminate such information as may be necessary to secure a just, impartial, and uniform appraisement of imported merchandise and the classification and assessment of duties thereon at the various ports of entry, and may direct any appraiser, deputy appraiser, assistant appraiser, or examiner of merchandise to go from one port of entry to another for the purpose of appraising or assisting in appraising merchandise imported at such port. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 502(a), 42 Stat. 967.)

383. Reversal or modification of rulings of Secretary of Treasury.—No ruling or decision once made by the Secretary of the Treasury, giving construction to any law imposing customs duties, shall be reversed or modified adversely to the United States, by the same or a succeeding Secretary, except in concurrence with an opinion of the Attorney General recommending the same, or a final decision of the Board of General Appraisers. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 502(b), 42 Stat. 967.)

384. Execution of instructions of Secretary of Treasury; decisions of Secretary binding.—It shall be the duty of all officers of the customs to execute and carry into effect all instructions of the Secretary of the Treasury relative to the execution of the revenue laws; and in case any difficulty arises as to the true construction or meaning of any part of the revenue laws, the decision of the Secretary shall be binding upon all officers of the customs. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 502(c), 42 Stat. 967.)

385. Assessment of ad valorem duties; duties on coverings or containers.—Whenever imported merchandise is subject to an ad valorem rate of duty or to a duty based upon or regulated in any manner by the value thereof, the duty shall be assessed upon the value returned by the appraiser, general appraiser, or Board of General Appraisers, as the case may be. If there shall be used for covering or holding imported merchandise, whether dutiable or free of duty, any unusual material, article, or form designed for use otherwise than in the bona fide transportation of such merchandise to the United States, additional duties shall be levied upon such material, article, or form at the rate or rates to which the same would be subjected if separately imported. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 503, 42 Stat. 967.)

386. Deposit of estimated duty; ascertaining, fixing, and liquidating duties.—The consignee shall deposit with the collector, at the time of making entry, unless the merchandise is entered for warehouse or transportation, or under bond, the amount of duty estimated to be payable thereon. Upon receipt of the appraiser's report and of the various reports of landing, weight, gauge, or measurement, the collector shall ascertain, fix, and liquidate the rate and amount of duties to be paid on such merchandise as provided by law and shall give notice of such liquidation in the form and manner prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, and collect any increased or additional duties due or refund any excess of duties deposited as determined on such liquidation. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 504, 42 Stat. 967.)

387. Allowances on abandonment by importer, and for decay of or injury to merchandise.—Allowance shall be made in the estimation and liquidation of duties under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury in the following cases:

(1) Where the importer abandons, within ten days after entry, to the United States all or any portion amounting to 10 per centum or more of the total value or quantity of merchandise in any invoice, and delivers the portion so abandoned to such place as the collector directs unless the collector is satisfied that it is so far destroyed as to be nondeliverable;

(2) Where, at the time of importation, 5 per centum or more of the total value or quantity of fruit or other perishable merchandise in any invoice is decayed or injured so that its commercial value has been destroyed;

(3) Where fruit or other perishable merchandise has been condemned at the port of entry, within ten days after landing, by the health officers or other legally constituted authorities, and the consignee, within five days after such condemnation, files with the collector written notice thereof, an invoiced description and the location thereof, and the name of the vessel or vehicle in which imported. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 505, 42 Stat. 967.)

388. Tare, draft, or other impurities.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe and issue regulations for the ascertainment of tare upon imported merchandise, including the establishment of reasonable and just schedule tares therefor, but in no case shall there be any allowance for draft or for impurities, other than excessive moisture and impurities not usually found in or upon such or similar merchandise. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 506, 42 Stat. 968.)

389. Duty on commingled merchandise.—Whenever dutiable merchandise and merchandise which is free of duty or merchandise subject to different rates of duty are so packed together or mingled that the quantity or value of each class of such merchandise can not be readily ascertained by the customs officers, the whole of such merchandise shall be subject to the highest rate of duty applicable to any part thereof unless the importer or consignee shall segregate such merchandise at his own risk and expense under customs supervision within ten days after entry thereof, in order that the quantity and value of each part or class thereof may be ascertained. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 507, 42 Stat. 968.)

390. Hydrometers.—The Secretary of the Treasury may, under the direction of the President, adopt such hydrometer as he may deem best calculated to promote the public interest for the purpose of ascertaining the proof of liquors; and, after such adoption, the duties imposed by law upon distilled spirits shall be collected according to proof ascertained by any hydrometer so adopted. (R. S. § 2918.)

391. Ascertainment of duties on grain.—For the purpose of estimating the duties on importations of grain, the number of bushels shall be ascertained by weight, instead of by measuring; and sixty pounds of wheat, fifty-six pounds of corn, fifty-six pounds of rye, forty-eight pounds of barley, thirty-two pounds of oats, sixty pounds of peas, and forty-two pounds of buckwheat, avoirdupois weight, shall respectively be estimated as a bushel. (R. S. § 2919.)

392. Examination of importers, consignees, agents, etc.; production of documents.—Collectors, appraisers, general appraisers, and boards of general appraisers may cite to appear before them or any of them and to examine upon oath, which said officers or any of them are authorized to administer, any owner, importer, consignee, agent, or other person upon any matter or thing which they, or any of them, may deem material respecting any imported merchandise then under consideration or previously imported within one year, in ascertaining the classification or the value thereof or the rate or amount of duty; and they, or any of them, may require the production of any letters, accounts, contracts, invoices, or other documents relating to said merchandise, and may require such testimony to be reduced to writing, and when so taken it shall be filed and preserved, under such rules as the Board of General Appraisers may prescribe, and such evidence may be given consideration in all subsequent proceedings relating to such merchandise. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 508, 42 Stat. 968.)

393. Failure to submit to examination or produce documents; penalty; conclusiveness of appraisement; false swearing.—If any person so cited to appear shall neglect or refuse to attend, or shall decline to answer, or shall refuse to answer in writing any interrogatories, and subscribe his name to his deposition, or to produce such papers when so required by a general appraiser, or a board of general appraisers, or a local appraiser, or a collector, he shall be liable to a penalty of not less than $20 nor more than $500; and if such person be the owner, importer, or consignee, the appraisement last made of such merchandise, whether made by an appraiser, a general appraiser, or a board of general appraisers, shall be final and conclusive against such person; and any person who shall willfully and corruptly swear falsely on an examination before any general appraiser, or board of general appraisers, or local appraiser or collector, shall be deemed guilty of perjury; and if he is the owner, importer, or consignee, the merchandise shall be forfeited or the value thereof may be recovered from him. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 509, 42 Stat. 968.)

394. Inspection of exporter's books; failure to permit; prohibiting importation; withholding delivery of and selling merchandise imported.—If any person manufacturing, producing, selling, shipping, or consigning merchandise exported to the United States fails, at the request of the Secretary of the Treasury, or an appraiser, or person acting as appraiser, or a collector, or a general appraiser, or the Board of General Appraisers, as the case may be, to permit a duly accredited officer of the United States to inspect his books, papers, records, accounts, documents, or correspondence, pertaining to the market value or classification of such merchandise, then while such failure continues the Secretary of the Treasury, under regulations prescribed by him, (1) shall prohibit the importation into the United States of merchandise manufactured, produced, sold, shipped or consigned by such person, and (2) may instruct the collectors to withhold delivery of merchandise manufactured, produced, sold, shipped or consigned by such person. If such failure continues for a period of one year from the date of such instructions the collector shall cause the merchandise, unless previously exported, to be sold at public auction as in the case of forfeited merchandise. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 510, 42 Stat. 968.)

395. Inspection of importer's books; prohibiting importation; withholding delivery of and selling merchandise.—If any person importing merchandise into the United States or dealing in imported merchandise fails, at the request of the Secretary of the Treasury, or an appraiser, or person acting as appraiser, or a collector, or a general appraiser, or the Board of General Appraisers, as the case may be, to permit a duly accredited officer of the United States to inspect his books, papers, records, accounts, documents, or correspondence, pertaining to the value or classification of such merchandise, then while such failure continues the Secretary of the Treasury, under regulations prescribed by him, (1) shall prohibit the importation of merchandise into the United States by or for the account of such person, and (2) shall instruct the collectors to withhold delivery of merchandise imported by or for the account of such person. If such failure continues for a period of one year from the date of such instructions the collector shall cause the merchandise, unless previously exported, to be sold at public auction as in the case of forfeited merchandise. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 511, 42 Stat. 969.)

396. Deposit of moneys paid for unascertained duties or under protest.—All moneys paid to any collector for unascertained duties or for duties paid under protest against the rate or amount of duties charged shall be deposited to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States and shall not be held by the collectors to await any ascertainment of duties or the result of any litigation in relation to the rate or amount of duties legally chargeable and collectible in any case where money is so paid. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 512, 42 Stat. 969.)

397. Immunity of customs officers from liability.—No collector or other customs officer shall be in any way liable to any owner, importer, consignee, or agent or any other person for or on account of any rulings or decisions as to the appraisement or the classification of any imported merchandise or the duties charged thereon, or the collection of any dues, charges, or duties on or on account of said merchandise, or any other matter or thing as to which said owner, importer, consignee, or agent might under this chapter be entitled to protest or appeal from the decision of such collector or other officer. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 513, 42 Stat. 969.)

398. Protests; necessity for; time for filing; contents; amendment.—All decisions of the collector, including the legality of all orders and findings entering into the same, as to the rate and amount of duties chargeable, and as to all exactions of whatever character (within the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Treasury), and his decisions excluding any merchandise from entry or delivery, under any provision of the customs revenue laws, and his liquidation of any entry, or refusal to pay any claim for drawback, or his refusal to reliquidate any entry for a clerical error discovered within one year after the date of entry, or within sixty days after liquidation when liquidation is made more than ten months after the date of entry, shall be final and conclusive upon all persons, unless the importer, consignee, or agent of the person paying such charge or exaction, or filing such claim for drawback, or seeking such entry or delivery, shall, within sixty days after, but not before such liquidation or decision, as well in cases of merchandise entered in bond as for consumption, file a protest in writing with the collector setting forth distinctly and specifically, and in respect to each entry, payment, claim, or decision, the reasons for the objection thereto, and if the merchandise is entered for consumption shall pay the full amount of duties, charges, and exactions ascertained to be due thereon. Under such rules as the Board of General Appraisers may prescribe, and in its discretion, a protest may be amended at any time prior to the first docket call thereof. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 514, 42 Stat. 969.)

399. Same; review of decision by collector; refunds; finality of determination on protest.—Upon the filing of such protest and payment of duties and other charges the collector shall within sixty days thereafter review his decision, and may modify the same in whole or in part and thereafter refund any duties, charge, or exaction found to have been collected in excess, or pay any drawback found due, of which notice shall be given as in the case of the original liquidation, and against which protest may be filed within the same time and in the same manner and under the same conditions as against the original liquidation or decision. If the collector shall, upon such review, affirm his original decision, or, upon the filing of a protest against his modification of any decision, the collector shall forthwith transmit the entry and the accompanying papers, and all the exhibits connected therewith, to the Board of General Appraisers for due assignment and determination as provided by law. Such determination shall be final and conclusive upon all persons, and the papers transmitted shall be returned, with the decision and judgment order thereon, to the collector, who shall take action accordingly, except in cases in which an appeal shall be filed in the United States Court of Customs Appeals within the time and in the manner provided by law. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 515, 42 Stat. 970.)

400. Complaint by American manufacturer, producer, or wholesaler; appraised value of imported merchandise; appeal for reappraisement by Secretary of Treasury, consignee, or American manufacturer, etc.—Whenever an American manufacturer, producer, or wholesaler believes that the appraised value of any imported merchandise of a class or kind manufactured, produced, or sold at wholesale by him is too low, he may file with the Secretary of the Treasury a complaint setting forth the value at which he believes the merchandise should be appraised and the facts upon which he bases his belief. The Secretary shall thereupon transmit a copy of such complaint to the appraiser at each port of entry where the merchandise is usually imported. Until otherwise directed by the Secretary, the appraiser shall report each subsequent importation of the merchandise giving the entry number, the name of the importer, the appraised value, and his reasons for the appraisement. If the Secretary does not agree with the action of the appraiser, he shall instruct the collector to file an appeal for a reappraisement as provided in section 381 of this title, and such manufacturer, producer, or wholesaler shall have the right to appear and to be heard as a party in interest under such rules as the Board of General Appraisers may prescribe. The Secretary shall notify such manufacturer, producer, or wholesaler of the action taken by such appraiser giving the port of entry, the entry number, and the appraised value of such merchandise and the action he has taken thereon. If the appraiser advances the entered value of merchandise upon the information furnished by the American manufacturer, producer, or wholesaler, and an appeal is taken by the consignee, such manufacturer, producer, or wholesaler shall have the right to appear and to be heard as a party in interest, under such rules as the Board of General Appraisers may prescribe. If the American manufacturer, producer, or wholesaler is not satisfied with the action of the Secretary, or the action of the appraiser thereon, he may file, within ten days after the date of the mailing of the Secretary's notice, an appeal for a reappraisement in the same manner and with the same effect as an appeal by a consignee under the provisions of said section 381. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 516(a), 42 Stat. 970.)

401. Same; classification of and rate of duty imposed upon imported merchandise; procedure thereon; protest by American manufacturer, etc.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall, upon written request by an American manufacturer, producer, or wholesaler, furnish the classification of and the rate of duty, if any, imposed upon designated imported merchandise of a class or kind manufactured, produced, or sold at wholesale by him. If such manufacturer, producer, or wholesaler believes that the proper rate of duty is not being assessed, he may file a complaint with the Secretary of the Treasury setting forth a description of the merchandise, the classification, and the rate or rates of duty he believes proper, and the reasons for his belief. If the Secretary believes that the classification of or rate of duty assessed upon the merchandise is not correct, he shall notify the collectors as to the proper classification and rate of duty and shall so inform such manufacturer, producer, or wholesaler, and such rate of duty shall be assessed upon all merchandise imported or withdrawn from warehouse after thirty days after the date of such notice to the collectors. If the Secretary believes that the classification and rate of duty are correct, he shall so inform such manufacturer, producer, or wholesaler. If dissatisfied with the action of the Secretary, such manufacturer, producer, or wholesaler may file with him a notice that he desires to protest the classification or the rate of duty imposed upon the merchandise, and upon receipt of such notice the Secretary shall furnish him with such information as to the entry, the consignee, and the port of entry as will enable him to protest the classification of or the rate of duty imposed upon the merchandise when liquidated at any port of entry. Upon written request therefor by such manufacturer, producer, or wholesaler, the collector of such port of entry shall notify him immediately of the date of liquidation. Such manufacturer, producer, or wholesaler may file, within sixty days after the date of liquidation, with the collector of such port a protest in writing setting forth a description of the merchandise and the classification and the rate of duty he believes proper, with the same effect as a protest of a consignee filed under the provisions of sections 398 and 399 of this title. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 516(b), 42 Stat. 971.)

402. Same; copies of appeals and protests for consignee; appearance by consignee before Board of General Appraisers; appeal to Court of Customs Appeals.—A copy of every appeal and every protest filed by an American manufacturer, producer, or wholesaler under the provisions of this section shall be mailed by the collector to the consignee or his agent within five days after the filing thereof, and such consignee or his agent shall have the right to appear and to be heard as a party in interest before the Board of General Appraisers. The collector shall transmit the entry and all papers and exhibits accompanying or connected therewith to the Board of General Appraisers for due assignment and determination of the proper value or of the proper classification and rate of duty. The decision of the Board of General Appraisers upon any such appeal or protest shall be final and conclusive upon all parties unless an appeal is taken by either party to the Court of Customs Appeals, as provided in sections 381 and 399 of this title. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 516(c), 42 Stat. 971.)

403. Same; inspection of documents, etc., of consignee by American manufacturer, etc.—In proceedings instituted under the provisions of sections 400 to 402 of this title an American manufacturer, producer, or wholesaler shall not have the right to inspect any documents or papers of the consignee or importer disclosing any information which the general appraiser or the Board of General Appraisers shall deem unnecessary or improper to be disclosed to him. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 516(d), 42 Stat. 971.)

404. Frivolous appeals or protests; penalty; filing appeal.—Upon motion of the counsel for the Government, it shall be the duty of the Board of General Appraisers to decide whether any appeal for reappraisement or protest filed under the provisions of sections 381 and 398 to 403 of this title is frivolous, and if said board shall so decide, a penalty of not less than $5 nor more than $250 shall be assessed against the person filing such appeal for reappraisement or protest. All appeals for reappraisement or protests filed by the same person and raising the same issue shall, if held frivolous by said board, be consolidated and deemed one proceeding for the purpose of imposing the penalty provided in this section. The person against whom such penalty is assessed may have a review by the Court of Customs Appeals of the decision of said board by filing an appeal in said court within the time and in the manner provided by section 310 of Title 28. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 517, 42 Stat. 971.)

405. Board of General Appraisers; members; vacancies; salaries; removal; office; powers of board and members thereof; president; expenses; retirement.—The Board of General Appraisers shall consist of nine members and all vacancies in said board shall be filled by appointment by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, not more than five of whom shall be appointed from the same political party and each of whom shall receive a salary of $9,000 a year. They shall not engage in any other business, vocation, or employment, and shall hold their office during good behavior, but may, after due hearing, be removed by the President for the following causes and no other: Neglect of duty, malfeasance in office, or inefficiency. The office of said board shall be at the port of New York, and the board and each member thereof shall have and possess all the powers of a district court of the United States for preserving order, compelling the attendance of witnesses, the production of evidence, and in punishing for contempt. Said board shall have power to establish from time to time such rules of evidence, practice, and procedure, not inconsistent with law, as may be deemed necessary for the conduct of its proceedings, in securing uniformity in its decisions and in the proceedings and decisions of the members thereof, and for the production, care, and custody of samples and of the records of said board. One of the members of said board designated for that purpose by the President of the United States shall act as president of the Board of General Appraisers, and in his absence the member of the board then present who is senior as to the date of his commission shall act as president. The president of the board, or the acting president in his absence, shall have control of the fiscal affairs and of the clerical force of the board, making all recommendations for appointment, promotions, or otherwise affecting such clerical force; he may at any time before trial, under the rules of the said board, assign or reassign any case for hearing or determination, or both, and shall designate a general appraiser or board of three general appraisers and such clerical assistants as may be necessary to proceed to any port within the jurisdiction of the United States for the purpose of hearing or of hearing and determining cases assigned for hearing at such port, and shall cause to be prepared and promulgated dockets therefor. General appraisers, stenographic clerks, and Government counsel shall each be allowed and paid his necessary expenses of travel and his reasonable expenses, not to exceed $10 per day, in the case of general appraisers and Government counsel, and $8 per day in the case of stenographic clerks, actually incurred for maintenance while absent from New York on official business. Said general appraisers shall be divided into three boards of three members each for the purpose of hearing and deciding appeals for the review of reappraisements of merchandise, and of hearing and deciding protests against decisions of collectors. A board of three general appraisers or a general appraiser shall have power to order an analysis of imported merchandise and reports thereon by laboratories or bureaus of the United States. The president of the board shall assign three of the general appraisers to each of the said boards and shall designate which member shall be chairman thereof. The president of the board shall be competent to sit as a member of any board or to assign one or two other members to any of such boards in the absence or disability of any one or two members of such board. A majority of any board shall have full power to hear and decide all cases and questions arising therein or assigned thereto. No member of any of said boards shall sit to hear or decide any case on appeal in the decision of which he may have previously participated. The board of three general appraisers deciding a case or a general appraiser deciding an appeal for a reappraisement may, upon the motion of either party made within thirty days next after such decision, grant a rehearing or retrial of said case when, in the opinion of said board or said general appraiser the ends of justice so require.

The members of the Board of General Appraisers are exempted from so much of section 49 of this title as relates to their salaries.

When any of the general appraisers of merchandise resigns his office, having held his commission as such at least ten years, and having attained the age of seventy years, he shall during the residue of his natural life receive the same salary which was by law payable to him at the time of his resignation. (June 10, 1890, c. 407, § 12, 26 Stat. 136; May 27, 1908, c. 205, § 3, 35 Stat. 406; Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 98; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 518, 42 Stat. 972.)

406. Decisions of general appraisers; filing; inspection; copies for collectors and Secretary of Treasury; publication.—All decisions of the general appraisers shall be preserved and filed and shall be open to inspection, and it shall be the duty of the said Board of General Appraisers to forward a copy of each decision to the collector of customs for the district in which the merchandise affected thereby was imported and to forward an additional copy to the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall cause such decisions as he or the Board of General Appraisers shall deem sufficiently important to be published in full, or, if they shall not deem a full publication thereof necessary, then the board shall cause abstracts of such decisions to be made for publication, and such decisions and abstracts thereof shall be published from time to time and at least once each week for the information of customs officers and the public. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 519, 42 Stat. 973.)

407. Refund of duties and correction of errors in liquidation.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to refund duties and correct errors in liquidation of entries in the following cases:

(1) Whenever it is ascertained on final liquidation or reliquidation of an entry that more money has been deposited or paid than was required by law to be so deposited or paid;

(2) Whenever it is determined in the manner required by law that any fees, charges, or exactions, other than duties, have been erroneously collected;

(3) Whenever a manifest clerical error is discovered in any entry or liquidation within one year after the date of entry, or within sixty days after liquidation when liquidation is made more than ten months after the date of entry; and

(4) Whenever duties have been paid on household or personal effects which by law were not subject to duty, notwithstanding a protest was not filed within the time and in the manner prescribed by law. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 520(a), 42 Stat. 973.)

408. Same; appropriation for.—The necessary moneys to make such refunds are hereby appropriated, and this appropriation shall be deemed a permanent and indefinite appropriation. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 520(b), 42 Stat. 973.)

409. Liquidation of duties; conclusiveness; reliquidation.—Whenever any merchandise has been entered and passed free of duty, and whenever duties upon any imported merchandise have been liquidated and paid, and the merchandise has been delivered to the consignee, or his agent, such entry and passage free of duty and such settlement of duties, shall, after the expiration of one year from the date of entry, or after the expiration of sixty days after the date of liquidation when liquidation is made more than ten months after the date of entry, in the absence of fraud and in the absence of protest by the consignee, or his agent, or by an American manufacturer, producer, or wholesaler, be final and conclusive upon all parties. If the collector finds probable cause to believe there is fraud in the case, he may reliquidate within two years after the date of entry, or after the date of liquidation when liquidation is made more than ten months after the date of entry. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 521, 42 Stat. 973.)

413. Disposal of receipts from reimbursable charges for labor, services, etc.—Receipts from reimbursable charges for labor, services, and other expenses, connected with the customs, shall be deposited as a refund to the appropriation from which paid, instead of being covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts as provided by section 527 of this title. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 524, 42 Stat. 975.)

414. Detail from field force of customs service for duty in Washington.—In connection with the enforcement of the provisions of this chapter, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to use in the District of Columbia not to exceed eight persons detailed from the field force of the Customs Service and paid from the appropriation for the expense of collecting the revenue from customs. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 525, 42 Stat. 975.)

415. Customhouse brokers; license.—The collector or chief officer of the customs at any port of entry shall, upon application, issue to any person of good moral character, being a citizen of the United States a license to transact business as a customhouse broker in the collection district in which such license is issued, and no person shall transact business as a customhouse broker without a license granted in accordance with this provision; but this section shall not be so construed as to prohibit any person from transacting business at a customhouse pertaining to his own importations. (June 10, 1910, c. 283, § 1, 36 Stat. 464.)

416. Same; revocation of license.—The collector or chief officer of the customs may at any time, for good and sufficient reasons, serve notice in writing upon any customhouse broker so licensed to show cause why said license shall not be revoked, which notice shall be in the form of a statement specifically setting forth the grounds of complaint. The collector or chief officer of customs shall within ten days thereafter notify the customhouse broker in writing of a hearing to be held before him within five days upon said charges. At such hearing the customhouse broker may be represented by counsel, and all proceedings, including the proof of the charges and the answer thereto, shall be presented, with right of cross-examination to both parties, and a stenographic record of the same shall be made and a copy thereof shall be delivered to the customhouse broker. At the conclusion of such hearing the collector or chief officer of customs shall forthwith transmit all papers and the stenographic report of the hearing, which shall constitute the record in the case, to the Secretary of the Treasury for his action. Thereupon the said Secretary of the Treasury shall have the right to revoke the license of any customhouse broker, in which case formal notice shall be given such customhouse broker within ten days. (June 10, 1910, c. 283, § 2, 36 Stat. 464.)

417. Same; review of decision by district court.—Any licensed customhouse broker aggrieved by the decision of the Secretary of the Treasury may, within thirty days thereafter, and not afterwards, apply to the United States district court for the district in which the collection district is situated for a review of such decision. Such application shall be made by filing in the office of the clerk of said court a petition praying relief in the premises. Thereupon the court shall immediately give notice in writing of such application to the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall forthwith transmit to said court the record and evidence taken in the case, together with a statement of his decision therein. The filing of such application shall operate as a stay of the revocation of the license. The matter may be brought on to be heard before the said court in the same manner as a motion, by either the United States district attorney or the attorney for the customhouse broker, and the decision of said court shall be upon the merits as disclosed by the record and be final, and the proceedings remanded to the Secretary of the Treasury for further action to be taken in accordance with the terms of the decree. (June 10, 1910, c. 283, § 3, 36 Stat. 465; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 291, 36 Stat. 1167.)

418. Same; regulations.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe regulations necessary or convenient for carrying into effect the provisions of sections 415, 416, and 417 of this title. (June 10, 1910, c. 283, § 4, 36 Stat. 465.)

419. Definition of "person."—The word person wherever used in sections 415 to 417 of this title shall include persons, copartnerships, associations, joint stock associations and corporations. (June 10, 1910, c. 285, § 5, 36 Stat. 465.)

420. Definition of "ton."—Wherever the word "ton" is used in this subtitle, in reference to weight, it shall be construed as meaning twenty-hundred-weight, each hundred-weight being one hundred and twelve pounds avoirdupois. (R. S. § 2951.)

PART 4.—TRANSPORTATION IN BOND AND WAREHOUSING OF MERCHANDISE

451. Carriers of bonded merchandise; designation; bond.—Any common carrier of merchandise owning or operating railroad, steamship, or other transportation lines or routes for the transportation of merchandise in the United States, upon application and the filing of a bond in a form and penalty and with such sureties as may be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, may be designated as a carrier of bonded merchandise for the final release of which from customs custody a permit has not been issued. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 551, 42 Stat. 975.)

452. Merchandise which may be transported in bond to port of destination.—Any merchandise, other than explosives and merchandise the importation of which is prohibited, arriving at a port of entry in the United States may be entered, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, for transportation in bond without appraisement to any other port of entry designated by the consignee, or his agent, and by such bonded carrier as he designates, there to be entered in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 552, 42 Stat. 975.)

453. Merchandise and baggage which may be transported in bond for exportation; regulations.—Any merchandise, other than explosives and merchandise the importation of which is prohibited, shown by the manifest, bill of lading, shipping receipt, or other document to be destined to a foreign country, may be entered for transportation in bond through the United States by a bonded carrier without appraisement or the payment of duties and exported under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe, and any baggage or personal effects not containing merchandise the importation of which is prohibited arriving in the United States destined to a foreign country may, upon the request of the owner or carrier having the same in possession for transportation, be entered for transportation in bond through the United States by a bonded carrier without appraisement or the payment of duty, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 553, 42 Stat. 976.)

454. Transportation through contiguous countries.—With the consent of the proper authorities, imported merchandise, in bond or duty-paid, and products and manufactures of the United States may be transported from one port to another in the United States through contiguous countries, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe, unless such transportation is in violation of sections 290 and 883 of Title 46, or section 490 of this title. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 554, 42 Stat. 976.)

455. Bonded warehouses; designation; private bonded warehouses; public bonded warehouses; bonds of owners; use of warehouses; customs officer in charge of.—Buildings or parts of buildings and other inclosures may be designated by the Secretary of the Treasury as bonded warehouses for the storage of imported merchandise entered for warehousing, or taken possession of by the collector, or under seizure, or for the manufacture of merchandise in bond, or for the repacking, sorting, or cleaning of imported merchandise. Such warehouses may be bonded for the storing of such merchandise only as shall belong or be consigned to the owners or proprietors thereof and be known as private bonded warehouses, or for the storage of imported merchandise generally and be known as public bonded warehouses. Before any imported merchandise not finally released from customs custody shall be stored in any such premises, the owner or lessee thereof shall give a bond in such sum and with such sureties as may be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury to secure the Government against any loss or expense connected with or arising from the deposit, storage, or manipulation of merchandise in such warehouse. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, bonded warehouses shall be used solely for the storage of imported merchandise and shall be placed in charge of a proper officer of the customs, who, together with the proprietor thereof, shall have joint custody of all merchandise stored in the warehouse; and all labor on the merchandise so stored shall be performed by the owner or proprietor of the warehouse, under supervision of the officer of the customs in charge of the same, at the expense of the owner or proprietor. The compensation of such officer of the customs and other customs employees appointed to supervise the receipt of merchandise into any such warehouse and deliveries therefrom shall be reimbursed to the Government by the proprietor of such warehouse. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 555, 42 Stat. 976.)

456. Same; regulations by Secretary of Treasury; landing certificates.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall from time to time establish such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the establishment of bonded warehouses and to protect the interests of the Government in the conduct, management, and operation of such warehouses and in the withdrawal of and accounting for merchandise deposited therein. No landing certificate shall be required for merchandise exported from the United States, except where the Secretary of the Treasury shall have good reasons to believe that such certificate is necessary for the protection of the revenue, and shall specifically order the production of such certificate. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 556, 42 Stat. 976.)

457. Same; merchandise which may be deposited; withdrawal; destruction of merchandise.—Any merchandise subject to duty, with the exception of perishable articles and explosive substances other than firecrackers, may be entered for warehousing and be deposited in a bonded warehouse at the expense and risk of the owner, importer, or consignee. Such merchandise may be withdrawn, at any time within three years from the date of importation, for consumption upon payment of the duties and charges accruing thereon at the rate of duty imposed by law upon such merchandise at the date of withdrawal; or may be withdrawn for exportation to a foreign country or the Philippine Islands or for transportation and exportation without the payment of duties thereon, or for transportation and rewarehousing at another port. The total period of time for which such merchandise may remain in bonded warehouse shall not exceed three years. Merchandise upon which the duties have been paid and which shall have remained continuously in bonded warehouse or otherwise in the custody and under the control of customs officers, may be entered or withdrawn at any time within three years after the date of importation for exportation, or for transportation and exportation, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe, and upon such entry or withdrawal, 99 per centum of the duties thereon shall be refunded.

Merchandise entered under bond, under any provision of law, may be destroyed, at the request and at the expense of the consignee, within the bonded period under customs supervision, in lieu of exportation, and the consignee relieved of the payment of duties thereon. (Mar. 8, 1902, c. 140, § 7, 32 Stat. 55; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 557, 42 Stat. 977.)

458. Exportation of merchandise after release from custody of Government; refunds or drawbacks.—No refund or drawback of duty shall be allowed on the exportation of any merchandise after its release from the custody or control of the Government except in case of the exportation of articles manufactured or produced in whole or in part from imported materials on which a drawback of duties is expressly provided for by law. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 558, 42 Stat. 977.)

459. Abandonment of merchandise in bonded warehouse; sale; disposition of proceeds.—Merchandise remaining in bonded warehouse beyond three years from the date of importation shall be regarded as abandoned to the Government and be sold under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe, and the proceeds of sale paid into the Treasury, as in the case of unclaimed merchandise covered by section 865 of this title, subject to the payment to the owner or consignee of such amount, if any, as shall remain after deduction of duties, charges, and expenses. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 559, 42 Stat. 977.)

460. Same; retention of distilled spirits, wines, etc., in warehouse during prohibitory period.—Under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, any imported distilled spirits, wines or other liquors which may be in any customs bonded warehouse under the customs laws on the date any prohibition of their sale or removal, by any Act of Congress, or proclamation of the President of the United States takes effect shall be permitted to remain therein without payment of any taxes or duties thereon, beyond the three-year period provided by law, during such period of prohibition; and may be exported at any time during such extended period. Any imported spirits, wines or other liquors as to which the three-year bonded period may have expired after February 24, 1919, and prior to the date such prohibition takes effect may at the option of the owner remain in bond during such period of prohibition. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 600(b), 40 Stat. 1106.)

461. Lease of warehouses by Secretary of Treasury; restrictions on use.—The Secretary of the Treasury may cause to be set aside any available space in a building used as a customhouse for the storage of bonded merchandise or may lease premises for the storage of unclaimed merchandise or other imported merchandise required to be stored by the Government, and set aside a portion of such leased premises for the storage of bonded merchandise. No part of any premises owned or leased by the Government may be used for the storage of bonded merchandise at any port at which a public bonded warehouse has been established and is in operation. All the premises so leased shall be leased on public account and the storage and other charges shall be deposited and accounted for as customs receipts, and the rates therefor shall not be less than the charges for storage and similar services made at such port of entry by commercial concerns for the storage and handling of merchandise. No lease of any building to be so used shall be taken for a longer period than three years, nor shall rent for any such premises be paid, in whole or in part, in advance. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 560, 42 Stat. 977.)

462. Public stores.—Any premises owned or leased by the Government and used for the storage of merchandise for the final release of which from customs custody a permit has not been issued shall be known as a "public store." (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 561, 42 Stat. 978.)

463. Manner of withdrawal from bonded warehouse; manipulation in warehouse; scouring or carbonizing wool.—Unless by special authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, no merchandise shall be withdrawn from bonded warehouse in less quantity than an entire bale, cask, box, or other package; or, if in bulk, in the entire quantity imported or in a quantity not less than one ton weight. All merchandise so withdrawn shall be withdrawn in the original packages in which imported unless, upon the application of the importer, it appears to the collector that it is necessary to the safety or preservation of the merchandise to repack or transfer the same. Upon permission therefor being granted by the Secretary of the Treasury, and under customs supervision, at the expense of the proprietor, merchandise may be cleaned, sorted, repacked, or otherwise changed in condition, but not manufactured, in bonded warehouses established for that purpose and be withdrawn therefrom for exportation, without payment of the duties, or for consumption, upon payment of the duties accruing thereon, in its condition at the time of withdrawal from warehouse. The scouring or carbonizing of wool shall not be considered a process of manufacture within the provisions of this section. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 562, 42 Stat. 978.)

464. Deterioration of or injury to merchandise in bonded warehouses; abatement or allowances for; abandonment of merchandise by consignee.—In no case shall there be any abatement or allowance made in the duties for any injury, deterioration, loss, or damage sustained by any merchandise while remaining in a bonded warehouse: Provided, That upon the production of satisfactory proof to the Board of General Appraisers of actual injury or destruction, in whole or in part, of any merchandise, by accidental fire or other casualty, while in bonded warehouse, or in the appraiser's stores undergoing appraisal, or while in transportation under bond from one port to another, or while in the custody of the officers of the customs, although not in bond, or while within the limits of any port of entry, and before the same has been landed from the importing vessel or vehicle, such board is authorized to order an abatement or refund, as the case may be, and the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to pay, out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the amount of duties paid. Notice in writing shall be filed with the collector of the district in which such actual injury or destruction was sustained or occurred, and the collector shall transmit such notice together with all papers and documents to the board for due assignment and determination, and such determination shall be final and conclusive upon all persons interested therein except in cases where an appeal may be filed by either party in the United States Court of Customs Appeals within the time and in the manner provided by law. The consignee may, with the consent of the Secretary of the Treasury, at any time prior to three years from the date of original importation abandon to the Government any merchandise in bonded warehouse and be relieved of the payment of duties thereon: Provided, That the portion so abandoned shall not be less than an entire package and shall be abandoned in the original package without having been repacked while in bonded warehouse. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 563, 42 Stat. 978.)

465. Lien for freight, charges, or general average contribution.—Whenever a collector of customs shall be notified in writing of the existence of a lien for freight, charges, or contribution in general average upon any imported merchandise sent to the appraiser's store for examination, entered for warehousing or taken possession of by him, he shall refuse to permit delivery thereof from public store or bonded warehouse until proof shall be produced that the said lien has been satisfied or discharged. The rights of the United States shall not be prejudiced or affected by the filing of such lien, nor shall the United States or its officers be liable for losses or damages consequent upon such refusal to permit delivery. If merchandise, regarding which such notice of lien has been filed, shall be forfeited or abandoned and sold, the freight, charges, or contribution in general average due thereon shall be paid from the proceeds of such sale in the same manner as other lawful charges and expenses are paid therefrom. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 564, 42 Stat. 978.)

466. Cartage of merchandise.—The cartage of merchandise entered for warehousing shall be done by cartmen to be appointed and licensed by the collector of customs and who shall give a bond, in a penal sum to be fixed by such collector, for the protection of the Government against any loss of, or damage to, such merchandise while being so carted. The cartage of merchandise designated for examination at the appraiser's stores and of merchandise taken into custody by the collector as unclaimed shall be performed by such persons as may be designated, under contract or otherwise, by the Secretary of the Treasury, and under such regulations for the protection of the owners thereof and of the revenue as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 565, 42 Stat. 979.)

467. Deposit of imported liquors in bonded warehouse.—All distilled spirits, wines, and malt liquors, imported in pipes, hogsheads, tierces, barrels, casks, or other similar packages, shall be first placed in public store or bonded warehouse, and shall not be removed therefrom until the same shall have been inspected, marked, and branded by a United States customs-gauger, and a stamp affixed to each package, indicating the date and particulars of such inspection; and the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prescribe the form of, and provide, the requisite stamps, and to make all regulations which he may deem necessary and proper for carrying the foregoing requirements into effect. Any pipe, hogshead, tierce, barrel, cask, or other package withdrawn from public store or bonded warehouse purporting to contain imported liquor, found without having thereon the stamp hereby required, shall be, with its contents, forfeited to the United States; and whenever any cask or package of imported distilled spirits of not less than five wine-gallons is filled for shipment, sale, or delivery on the premises of any wholesale liquor dealer, the same shall be stamped with a special stamp for imported spirits, under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue has prescribed, or may hereafter prescribe, in the case of domestic distilled spirits. (Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 11, 20 Stat. 342.)

468. Stamps and brands effaced on emptying packages of imported liquors.—Every person who empties or draws off, or causes to be emptied or drawn off, the contents of any package of imported liquors stamped as above required, shall, at the time of such emptying, efface, obliterate, and destroy the stamp thereon, and also all other marks or brands which shall have been placed thereon in accordance with the law or regulations concerning imported liquors; every cask or other package from which the stamp for imported liquors required by section 467 of this title to be placed thereon shall not be effaced, obliterated, or destroyed, on emptying such package, shall be forfeited, and the same may be seized by any officer of internal revenue wherever found; and all the provisions and penalties of section 337 of Title 26, relating to empty casks or packages from which the marks, brands, or stamps have not been effaced or obliterated, and relating to the removal of stamps from packages, and to having in possession any stamps so removed, shall apply to the stamps for imported spirits herein provided for, and to the casks or other packages on which such stamps shall have been used. (Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 12, 20 Sat. 342; May 28, 1880, c. 108, § 12, 21 Stat. 148.)

469. Dealing in or using empty stamped imported liquor containers.—If any person shall purchase or sell, with the imported-liquor stamp herein required remaining thereon, or any of the marks or brands which shall have been placed thereon in accordance with the laws or regulations concerning imported liquors remaining thereon, any cask or other package, after the same has been once used to contain imported liquors and has been emptied; or if any person shall use or have in possession such cask or package, with any imitation of such marks or brands, for the purpose of placing domestic distilled spirits therein for sale; every such cask or package, with its contents, if any, shall be forfeited to the United States. And every such person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $200 for every such cask or package so purchased, sold, used, or had in possession. (Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 13, 20 Stat. 343; May 28, 1880, c. 108, § 13, 21 Stat. 148.)

471. Ownership of bonded warehouses by customs officers prohibited; contracts for lease or use of buildings for public use.—No collector or other officer of the customs shall own, in whole or in part, any bonded warehouse or enter into any contract or agreement for the lease or use of any building to be erected as a public store or warehouse. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 560, 42 Stat. 977.)

472. Special delivery and appraisement of imported articles of limited value and weight.—Articles, not merchandise intended for sale, not exceeding $500 in value, imported in packages not exceeding one hundred pounds in weight, in vessels of the United States, may be specially delivered to and appraised at the public stores, and the entry thereof liquidated by the collector under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, and after such appraisement and liquidation may be delivered, upon payment of the liquidated duties under the bond provided for in section 473 of this title, to express companies or other duly incorporated inland carriers bonded for the transportation of appraised or unappraised merchandise between the several ports in the United States. Not more than one such consignment to one ultimate consignee from the same consignor shall be imported in any one vessel. The original appraisement of and liquidation of duties on such importations shall be final against the owner, importer, agent, or consignee, except in the case of manifest clerical errors, as provided for in section 407 of this title. Nothing contained in this section and sections 473 to 475 shall apply to explosives, or any article the importation of which is prohibited by law. (June 8, 1896, c. 371, § 1, 29 Stat. 263.)

473. Carriers responsible under bond; return of unclaimed packages.—Such express companies or other inland carriers shall be responsible to the United States under bond for the safe delivery of such articles to the ultimate consignee. If any package shall not be delivered to the ultimate consignee by the express company or other inland carrier, and shall be returned to the collector of the port where such articles are entered within ninety days from the date of importation intact, the collector shall take charge of such package and dispose of it as unclaimed merchandise, and the duties, including additional duties, if any, under section 361 of this title, paid shall be refunded by the Secretary of the Treasury out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated; and the express company or other inland carriers shall be relieved of any liability therefor under its bond; and before any express company or other inland carrier shall be permitted to receive and transport any such articles they shall become bound to the United States in such bonds, in such form and amount, and with such conditions not inconsistent with law as the Secretary of the Treasury may require. (June 8, 1896, c. 371, § 2, 29 Stat. 263.)

474. Merchandise corded and sealed; record.—Articles transported under the provisions of sections 472 to 475 of this title shall be corded and sealed in such manner as shall from time to time be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury; and the collector of the port of first arrival shall retain in his office a permanent record of such merchandise so forwarded. (June 8, 1896, c. 371, § 3, 29 Stat. 263.)

475. Consignment to carrier; invoice; delivery.—Such packages may be consigned to and entered by the agents of the express company or other inland carrier or steamship company, who shall at the time of entry state the ultimate consignee, and in all cases where a certified or other invoice is required by law such invoice may be attached to or inclosed in the package, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe; and the delivery of such articles to the express company or other inland carrier shall not be delayed because of the nonarrival of the triplicate invoice, but the ultimate consignee shall be liable for any increased duty found due on reliquidation, if any, after receipt of said merchandise from the express company or other inland carrier or steamship company making entry under this section and sections 472 to 474 of this title; and the provisions of section 346 of this title shall not apply to such importations. (June 8, 1896, c. 371, § 4, 29 Stat. 263.)

PART 5.—ENFORCEMENT PROVISIONS

481. Boarding vessels or vehicles; seizure of vessel or merchandise.—Officers of the customs or of the Coast Guard, and agents or other persons authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury, or appointed for that purpose in writing by a collector may at any time go on board of any vessel or vehicle at any place in the United States or within four leagues of the coast of the United States, without as well as within their respective districts, to examine the manifest and to inspect, search, and examine the vessel or vehicle, and every part thereof, and any person, trunk, or package on board, and to this end to hail and stop such vessel or vehicle, if under way, and use all necessary force to compel compliance, and if it shall appear that any breach or violation of the laws of the United States has been committed, whereby or in consequence of which such vessel or vehicle, or the merchandise, or any part thereof, on board of or imported by such vessel or vehicle is liable to forfeiture, it shall be the duty of such officer to make seizure of the same, and to arrest, or, in case of escape or attempted escape, to pursue and arrest any person engaged in such breach or violation. (R. S. § 3061; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 581, 42 Stat. 979.)

482. Search of vehicles and persons.—Any of the officers or persons authorized to board or search vessels may stop, search, and examine, as well without as within their respective districts, any vehicle, beast, or person, on which or whom he or they shall suspect there is merchandise which is subject to duty, or shall have been introduced into the United States in any manner contrary to law, whether by the person in possession or charge, or by, in, or upon such vehicle or beast, or otherwise, and to search any trunk or envelope, wherever found, in which he may have a reasonable cause to suspect there is merchandise which was imported contrary to law; and if any such officer or other person so authorized shall find any merchandise on or about any such vehicle, beast, or person, or in any such trunk or envelope, which he shall have reasonable cause to believe is subject to duty, or to have been unlawfully introduced into the United States, whether by the person in possession or charge, or by, in, or upon such vehicle, beast, or otherwise, he shall seize and secure the same for trial. (R. S. § 3061.)

483. Forfeitures.—Every such vehicle and beast, or either, together with teams or other motive power used in conveying, drawing, or propelling such vehicle or merchandise, and all other appurtenances, including trunks, envelopes, covers, and all means of concealment, and all the equipage, trappings, and other appurtenances of such beast, team, or vehicle, shall be subject to seizure and forfeiture. If any person who may be driving or conducting, or in charge of any such carriage or vehicle or beast, or any person traveling, shall willfully refuse to stop and allow search and examination to be made as herein provided, when required so to do by any authorized person, he shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000, nor less than $50. (R. S. § 3062.)

484. Examination of persons and baggage; female inspectors.—The Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe regulations for the search of persons and baggage and he is authorized to employ female inspectors for the examination and search of persons of their own sex; and all persons coming into the United States from foreign countries shall be liable to detention and search by authorized officers or agents of the Government under such regulations. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 582, 42 Stat. 979.)

485. Production and certification of manifest.—The master of every vessel and the person in charge of every vehicle bound to a port or place in the United States shall deliver to the officer of the customs or Coast Guard who shall first demand it of him, the original and one copy of the manifest of such vessel or vehicle, and such officer shall certify on the back of the original manifest to the inspection thereof and return the same to the master or other person in charge. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 583, 42 Stat. 979.)

486. Failure to produce manifest; penalty; merchandise not included in manifest; penalty and forfeiture; opium for smoking; penalty.—Any master of any vessel and any person in charge of any vehicle bound to the United States, who does not produce the manifest to the officer demanding the same shall be liable to a penalty of $500, and if any merchandise, including sea stores, is found on board of or after unlading from such vessel or vehicle which is not included or described in said manifest or does not agree therewith, the master of such vessel or the person in charge of such vehicle shall be liable to a penalty equal to the value of the merchandise so found or unladen, and any such merchandise belonging or consigned to the master or other officer or to any of the crew of such vessel, or to the owner or person in charge of such vehicle, shall be subject to forfeiture and if any merchandise described in such manifest is not found on board the vessel or vehicle the master or other person in charge shall be subject to a penalty of $500. If the collector shall be satisfied that the manifest was lost or mislaid without intentional fraud, or was defaced by accident, or is incorrect by reason of clerical error or other mistake and that no part of the merchandise not found on board was unshipped or discharged except as specified in the report of the master, said penalties shall not be incurred.

If any of such merchandise so found consists of smoking opium or opium prepared for smoking, the master of such vessel or the person in charge of such vehicle shall be liable to a penalty of $25 for each ounce thereof so found. Such penalty shall constitute a lien upon such vessel which may be enforced by a libel in rem. Clearance of any such vessel may be withheld until such penalty is paid or until a bond, satisfactory to the collector, is given for the payment thereof. The provisions of this paragraph shall not prevent the forfeiture of any such vessel or vehicle under any other provision of law. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 584, 42 Stat. 980.)

487. Departure of vessel or unlading of merchandise before making report or entry; penalty.—If any vessel or vehicle from a foreign port or place arrives within the limits of any collection district and departs or attempts to depart, except from stress of weather or other necessity, without making a report or entry under the provisions of this chapter, or if any merchandise is unladen therefrom before such report or entry, the master of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $5,000, and the person in charge of such vehicle shall be liable to a penalty of $500, and any such vessel or vehicle shall be subject to forfeiture, and any customs or Coast Guard officer may cause such vessel or vehicle to be arrested and brought back to the most convenient port of the United States. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 585, 42 Stat. 980.)

488. Unlawful unlading; penalty; accident, stress of weather, or other necessity.—The master of any vessel from a foreign port or place who allows any merchandise (including sea stores) to be unladen from such vessel at any time after its arrival within four leagues of the coast of the United States and before such vessel has come to the proper place for the discharge of such merchandise, and before he has received a permit to unlade, shall be liable to a penalty equal to twice the value of the merchandise but not less than $1,000, and such vessel and the merchandise shall be subject to seizure and forfeiture. Whenever any part of the cargo or stores of a vessel has been unladen or transshipped because of accident, stress of weather, or other necessity, the master of such vessel shall, as soon as possible thereafter, notify the collector of the district within which such unlading or transshipment has occurred, or the collector within the district at which such vessel shall first arrive thereafter, and shall furnish proof that such unlading or transshipment was made necessary by accident, stress of weather, or other unavoidable cause, and if the collector is satisfied that the unlading or transshipment was in fact due to accident, stress of weather, or other necessity the penalties above described shall not be incurred. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 586, 42 Stat. 980.)

489. Unlawful transshipment; penalty, seizure and forfeiture.—If any merchandise (including sea stores) unladen in violation of the provisions of section 488 of this title is transshipped to or placed in or received on any other vessel, the master of the vessel on which such merchandise is placed, and any person aiding or assisting therein, shall be liable to a penalty equal to twice the value of the merchandise, but not less than $1,000, and such vessel and such merchandise shall be liable to seizure and forfeiture. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 587, 42 Stat. 981.)

490. Evasion of law relating to transportation between ports of United States; seizure and forfeiture; tonnage duty.—If any merchandise is laden at any port or place in the United States upon any vessel belonging wholly or in part to a subject of a foreign country, and is taken thence to a foreign port or place to be reladen and reshipped to any other port in the United States, either by the same or by another vessel, foreign or American, with intent to evade the provisions relating to the transportation of merchandise from one port or place of the United States to another port or place of the United States in a vessel belonging wholly or in part to a subject of any foreign power, the merchandise shall, on its arrival at such last-named port or place, be seized and forfeited to the United States, and the vessel shall pay a tonnage duty of 50 cents per net ton. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 588, 42 Stat. 981.)

491. Unlawful relanding; penalties.—If any merchandise entered or withdrawn for exportation without payment of the duties thereon, or with intent to obtain a drawback of the duties paid, or of any other allowances given by law on the exportation thereof, is relanded at any place in the United States without entry therefor having been made, the same shall be considered and treated as having been imported into the United States contrary to law, and all persons concerned therein and such merchandise shall be liable to the same penalties as are prescribed by sections 496 and 497 of this title. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 589, 42 Stat. 981.)

492. False drawback claims; punishment.—If any person shall knowingly and willfully file any false or fraudulent entry or claim for the payment of drawback, allowance, or refund of duties upon the exportation of merchandise, or shall knowingly and willfully make or file any false affidavit, abstract, record, certificate, or other document, with a view to securing the payment to himself or others of any drawback, allowance, or refund of duties, on the exportation of merchandise, greater than that legally due thereon, such person shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $5,000, or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, and the merchandise or the value thereof to which such false entry or claim, affidavit, abstract, record, certificate, or other document relates shall be subject to forfeiture. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 590, 42 Stat. 981.)

493. False or fraudulent documents, statements, or practices; willful acts or omissions depriving United States of duties; punishment.—If any consignor, seller, owner, importer, consignee, agent, or other person or persons enters or introduces, or attempts to enter or introduce, into the commerce of the United States any imported merchandise by means of any fraudulent or false invoice, declaration, affidavit, letter, paper, or by means of any false statement, written or verbal, or by means of any false or fraudulent practice or appliance whatsoever, or makes any false statement in any declaration under the provisions of sections 352 to 357 of this title without reasonable cause to believe the truth of such statement, or aids or procures the making of any such false statement as to any matter material thereto without reasonable cause to believe the truth of such statement, or is guilty of any willful act or omission by means whereof the United States shall or may be deprived of the lawful duties, or any portion thereof, accruing upon the merchandise, or any portion thereof, embraced or referred to in such invoice, declaration, affidavit, letter, paper, or statement, or affected by such act or omission, such person or persons shall upon conviction be fined for each offense a sum not exceeding $5,000, or be imprisoned for a time not exceeding two years, or both, in the discretion of the court. Nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve imported merchandise from forfeiture by reason of such false statement or for any cause elsewhere provided by law. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 591, 42 Stat. 981.)

494. Same; seizure of merchandise as security for fines; release on bond.—Any merchandise entered by any person or persons violating any of the provisions of section 493 of this title, but not subject to forfeiture under the same section, may, while owned by him or them, or while in his or their possession, to double the amount claimed, be taken by the collector and held as security for the payment of any fine or fines incurred as aforesaid, or may be levied upon and sold on execution to satisfy any judgment recovered for such fine or fines. But nothing herein contained shall prevent any owner or claimant from obtaining a release of such merchandise on giving a bond, with sureties satisfactory to the collector, or, in case of judicial proceedings, satisfactory to the court, or the judge thereof, for the payment of any fine or fines so incurred. Such merchandise shall in no case be released until all accrued duties thereon shall have been paid or secured. (June 22, 1874, c. 391, § 18, 18 Stat. 188.)

495. Same; forfeiture of merchandise.—If any consignor, seller, owner, importer, consignee, agent, or other person or persons enters or introduces, or attempts to enter or introduce, into the commerce of the United States any imported merchandise by means of any fraudulent or false invoice, declaration, affidavit, letter, paper, or by means of any false statement, written or verbal, or by means of any false or fraudulent practice or appliance whatsoever, or makes any false statement in any declaration under the provisions of sections 352 to 357 of this title without reasonable cause to believe the truth of such statement, or aids or procures the making of any such false statement as to any matter material thereto without reasonable cause to believe the truth of such statement, or is guilty of any willful act or omission by means whereof the United States is or may be deprived of the lawful duties or any portion thereof accruing upon the merchandise or any portion thereof, embraced or referred to in such invoice, declaration, affidavit, letter, paper, or statement, or affected by such act or omission, such merchandise, or the value thereof, to be recovered from such person or persons, shall be subject to forfeiture, which forfeiture shall only apply to the whole of the merchandise or the value thereof in the case or package containing the particular article or articles of merchandise to which such fraud or false paper or statement relates. The arrival within the territorial limits of the United States of any merchandise consigned for sale and remaining the property of the shipper or consignor, and the acceptance of a false or fraudulent invoice thereof by the consignee or the agent of the consignor, or the existence of any other facts constituting an attempted fraud, shall be deemed, for the purposes of this paragraph, to be an attempt to enter such merchandise notwithstanding no actual entry has been made or offered. (Oct. 3, 1913, c. 16, § III, H, 38 Stat. 183; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 592, 42 Stat. 982.)

496. Smuggling or clandestine importations; false, forged, or fraudulent invoices; punishment.—If any person knowingly and willfully, with intent to defraud the revenue of the United States, smuggles, or clandestinely introduces, into the United States any merchandise which should have been invoiced, or makes out or passes, or attempts to pass, through the customhouse any false, forged, or fraudulent invoice, every such person, his, her, or their aiders and abettors, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $5,000, or imprisoned for any term of time not exceeding two years, or both, at the discretion of the court. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 593(a), 42 Stat. 982.)

497. Fraudulently or knowingly importing or assisting in importing merchandise; buying, selling, transporting, or concealing unlawfully imported merchandise; punishment.—If any person fraudulently or knowingly imports or brings into the United States, or assists in so doing, any merchandise, contrary to law, or receives, conceals, buys, sells, or in any manner facilitates the transportation, concealment, or sale of such merchandise after importation, knowing the same to have been imported or brought into the United States contrary to law, such merchandise shall be forfeited and the offender shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $5,000 nor less than $50, or be imprisoned for any time not exceeding two years, or both. Whenever, on trial for a violation of this section, the defendant is shown to have or to have had possession of such goods, such possession shall be deemed evidence sufficient to authorize conviction, unless the defendant shall explain the possession to the satisfaction of the jury. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 593(b), 42 Stat. 982.)

498. Seizure or forfeiture of vessels or vehicles.—Whenever a vessel or vehicle, or the owner or master, conductor, driver, or other person in charge thereof, has become subject to a penalty for violation of the customs-revenue laws of the United States, such vessel or vehicle shall be held for the payment of such penalty and may be seized and proceeded against summarily by libel to recover the same. No vessel or vehicle used by any person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as such common carrier shall be so held or subject to seizure or forfeiture under the customs laws, unless it shall appear that the owner or master of such vessel or the conductor, driver, or other person in charge of such vehicle was at the time of the alleged illegal act a consenting party or privy thereto. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 594, 42 Stat. 982.)

499. Search-warrants; houses within ten feet of boundary.—If any collector of customs or other officer or person authorized to make searches and seizures shall have cause to suspect the presence in any dwelling house, store, or other building or place of any merchandise upon which the duties have not been paid, or which has been otherwise brought into the United States contrary to law, he may make application, under oath, to any justice of the peace, to any municipal, county, State, or Federal judge, or to any United States commissioner, and shall thereupon be entitled to a warrant to enter such dwelling house in the daytime only, or such store or other place at night or by day, and to search for and seize such merchandise. If any such house, store, or other building, or place in which such merchandise shall be found, is upon or within ten feet of the boundary line between the United States and a foreign country, such portion thereof as is within the United States may forthwith be taken down or removed. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 595, 42 Stat. 983.)

500. Receiving or depositing merchandise in buildings on boundary line, or carrying merchandise through same unlawfully; punishment.—Any person who receives or deposits in such building upon the boundary line between the United States and any foreign country, or carries any merchandise through the same, or aids therein, in violation of law, shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $5,000, or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 596, 42 Stat. 983.)

501. Fraudulently concealing merchandise in, or removal from, bonded warehouse; repacking; altering, etc., marks or number; punishment.—If any merchandise is fraudulently concealed in, removed from, or repacked in any bonded warehouse, or if any marks or numbers placed upon packages deposited in such a warehouse be fraudulently altered, defaced, or obliterated, such merchandise and packages shall be subject to forfeiture, and all persons convicted of the fraudulent concealment, repacking, or removal of such merchandise, or of altering, defacing, or obliterating such marks and numbers thereon, and all persons aiding and abetting therein shall be liable to the same penalties as are imposed by sections 496 and 497 of this title. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 597, 42 Stat. 983.)

502. Customs seals; affixing by unauthorized persons; false seals; removal, injury to, defacing, etc.; wrongful entry of bonded warehouse, or unlawful removal of merchandise therefrom; punishment.—If any unauthorized person affixes or attaches or in any way willfully assists or encourages the affixing or attaching of a customs seal or other fastening to any vessel or vehicle, or of any seal, fastening, or mark purporting to be a customs seal, fastening, or mark; or if any unauthorized person willfully or maliciously removes, breaks, injures, or defaces any customs seal or other fastening placed upon any vessel, vehicle, warehouse, or package containing merchandise or baggage in bond or in customs custody, or willfully aids, abets, or encourages any other person to remove, break, injure, or deface such seal, fastening, or mark; or if any person maliciously enters any bonded warehouse or any vessel or vehicle laden with or containing bonded merchandise with intent unlawfully to remove or cause to be removed therefrom any merchandise or baggage therein, or unlawfully removes or causes to be removed any merchandise or baggage in such vessel, vehicle, or bonded warehouse or otherwise in customs custody or control, or aids or assists therein; or if any person receives or transports any merchandise or baggage unlawfully removed from any such vessel, vehicle, or warehouse, knowing the same to have been unlawfully removed, he shall be guilty of a felony and liable to the same penalties as are imposed by sections 496 and 497 of this title. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 598, 42 Stat. 983.)

503. Customs officers not to be interested in vessel or cargo, or importation; penalty.—No person employed under the authority of the United States, in the collection of duties on imports or tonnage, shall own, either in whole or in part, any vessel, or act as agent, attorney, or consignee for the owner or owners of any vessel, or of any cargo or lading on board the same; nor shall any such person import, or be concerned directly or indirectly in the imporatation, of any merchandise for sale into the United States. Every person who violates this section shall be liable to a penalty of $500. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 599, 42 Stat. 984.)

504. Receiving gratuities for performance or nonperformance of services.—Any officer or employee of the United States who, except in payment of the duties or exactions fixed by law, solicits, demands, exacts, or receives from any person, directly or indirectly, any gratuity, money, or thing of value, for any service performed under the customs laws, or in consideration of any official act to be performed by him, or of the omission of performance of any such act, in connection with or pertaining to the importation, entry, inspection or examination, or appraisement of merchandise or baggage, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $5,000, or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, and evidence, satisfactory to the court in which the trial is had, of such soliciting, demanding, exacting, or receiving shall be prima facie evidence that the same was contrary to law. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 600, 42 Stat. 984.)

505. Bribery of customs officers.—Any person who gives, or offers to give, or promises to give, any money or thing of value, directly or indirectly, to any officer or employee of the United States in consideration of or for any act or omission contrary to law in connection with or pertaining to the importation, appraisement, entry, examination, or inspection of merchandise or baggage, or of the liquidation of the entry thereof, or by threats or demands or promises of any character attempts to improperly influence or control any such officer or employee of the United States as to the performance of his official duties, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $5,000 or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both, and evidence of such giving, offering, or promising to give, or attempting to influence or control, satisfactory to the court in which such trial is had, shall be prima facie evidence that the same was contrary to law. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 601, 42 Stat. 984.)

506. Seizures.—It shall be the duty of the several officers of the customs to seize and secure any vessel or merchandise which shall become liable to seizure by virtue of any law respecting the revenue, as well without as within their respective districts. (R. S. § 3072.)

507. Officers to make character known.—Every officer or other person authorized to make searches and seizures by this title, shall, at the time of executing any of the powers conferred upon him, make known, upon being questioned, his character as an officer or agent of the customs or Government, and shall have authority to demand of any person within the distance of three miles to assist him in making any arrests, search, or seizure authorized by this title, where such assistance may be necessary; and if such person shall, without reasonable excuse, neglect or refuse so to assist, upon proper demand, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not more than $200, nor less than $5. (R. S. § 3071.)

508. Persons making seizures pleading general issue and proving special matter.—If any officer, or other person, executing or aiding or assisting in the seizure of goods, under any Act providing for or regulating the collection of duties on imports, is sued for anything done in virtue of the powers given thereby, or by virtue of a warrant granted by any judge, or justice, pursuant to law, he may plead the general issue and give such Act and the special matter in evidence. (R. S. § 3073.)

509. Seizures; report and delivery of vessel or property to collector; report of violations.—It shall be the duty of any officer, agent, or other person authorized by law to make seizures of merchandise or baggage subject to seizure for violation of the customs laws, to report every such seizure immediately to the collector for the district in which such violation occurred, and to turn over and deliver to such collector any vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage seized by him, and to report immediately to such collector every violation of the customs laws. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 602, 42 Stat. 984.)

510. Same; reports by collectors to Solicitor of Treasury and district attorneys.—It shall be the duty of the collector whenever a seizure of merchandise has been made for a violation of the customs laws to report the same to the Solicitor of the Treasury, and promptly also to report any such seizure or violation of the customs laws to the United States attorney for the district in which such violation has occurred, or in which such seizure was made, including in such report a statement of all the facts and circumstances of the case within his knowledge, with the names of the witnesses, and citation of the statute or statutes believed to have been violated, and on which reliance may be had for forfeiture or conviction. (R. S. §§ 3083, 3084; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 247; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 603, 42 Stat. 984.)

511. Same; prosecutions by district attorneys.—It shall be the duty of every United States district attorney immediately to inquire into the facts of cases reported to him by collectors and the laws applicable thereto, and, if it appears probable that any fine, penalty, or forfeiture has been incurred by reason of such violation, for the recovery of which the institution of proceedings in the United States district court is necessary, forthwith to cause the proper proceedings to be commenced and prosecuted, without delay, for the recovery of such fine, penalty, or forfeiture in such case provided, unless, upon inquiry and examination, such district attorney decides that such proceedings can not probably be sustained or that the ends of public justice do not require that they should be instituted or prosecuted, in which case he shall report the facts to the Secretary of the Treasury for his direction in the premises. (R. S. § 3085; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 604, 42 Stat. 984.)

512. Same; custody of property seized.—All vessels, vehicles, merchandise, and baggage seized under the provisions of the customs laws, or laws relating to the navigation, registering, enrolling or licensing, or entry or clearance, of vessels, unless otherwise provided by law, shall be placed and remain in the custody of the collector for the district in which the seizure was made to await disposition according to law. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 605, 42 Stat. 985.)

513. Same; appraisement of seized property.—The collector shall require the appraiser to determine the domestic value, at the time and place of appraisement, of any vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage seized under the customs laws. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 606, 42 Stat. 985.)

514. Same; notice of seizure, forfeiture, and sale where value $1,000 or less.—If the value of such vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage returned by the appraiser, under section 513 of this title, does not exceed $1,000, the collector shall cause a notice of the seizure of such articles and the intention to forfeit and sell the same to be published for at least three successive weeks in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury may direct. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 607, 42 Stat. 985.)

515. Same; claims to and condemnation of seized property.—Any person claiming such vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage may at any time within twenty days from the date of the first publication of the notice of seizure file with the collector a claim stating his interest therein. Upon the filing of such claim, and the giving of a bond to the United States in the penal sum of $250, with sureties to be approved by the collector, conditioned that in case of condemnation of the articles so claimed the obligor shall pay all the costs and expenses of the proceedings to obtain such condemnation, the collector shall transmit such claim and bond, with a duplicate list and description of the articles seized, to the United States attorney for the district in which seizure was made, who shall proceed to a condemnation of the merchandise or other property in the manner prescribed by law. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 608, 42 Stat. 985.)

516. Same; sale of unclaimed property.—If no such claim is filed or bond given within the twenty days specified in section 515 of this title, the collector shall declare the vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage forfeited, and shall sell the same at public auction in the same manner as merchandise abandoned to the United States is sold, and shall deposit the proceeds of sale, after deducting the actual expenses of seizure, publication and sale, in the Treasury of the United States. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 609, 42 Stat. 985.)

517. Same; condemnation proceedings where value exceeds $1,000.—If the value returned by the appraisor of any vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage so seized is greater than $1,000, the collector shall transmit a report of the case, with the names of available witnesses, to the United States attorney for the district in which the seizure was made for the institution of the proper proceedings for the condemnation of such property. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 610, 42 Stat. 985.)

518. Same; place of sale; destruction instead of sale; remanufacture in certain cases.—If the sale of any vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage forfeited under the customs laws in the district in which seizure thereof was made be prohibited by the laws of the State in which such district is located, or if a sale may be made more advantageously in any other district, the Secretary of the Treasury may order such vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage to be transferred for sale in any customs district in which the sale thereof may be permitted. And if the Secretary of the Treasury is satisfied that the proceeds of sale will not be sufficient to pay the costs thereof, he may order a destruction by the customs officers. Any merchandise forfeited under the customs laws, the sale or use of which is prohibited under any law of the United States or of any State, may be remanufactured, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, into an article that is not prohibited, the resulting article to be disposed of to the profit of the United States only. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 611 42 Stat. 985.)

519. Same; summary sale of perishable property.—Whenever it appears to the collector that any vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage seized under the customs laws is liable to perish or to waste or to be greatly reduced in value by keeping, or that the expense of keeping the same is disproportionate to the value thereof, and the value of such vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage as determined by the appraiser under section 513 of this title, does not exceed $1,000, and such vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage has not been delivered under bond, the collector shall, within twenty-four hours after the receipt by him of the appraiser's return proceed forthwith to advertise and sell the same at auction under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. If such value of such vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage exceeds $1,000 the collector shall forthwith transmit the appraiser's return and his report of the seizure to the United States district attorney, who shall petition the court to order an immediate sale of such vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage, and if the ends of justice require it the court shall order such immediate sale, the proceeds thereof to be deposited with the court to await the final determination of the condemnation proceedings. Whether such sale be made by the collector or by order of the court, the proceeds thereof shall be held subject to claims of parties in interest to the same extent as the vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage so sold would have been subject to such claim. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 612, 42 Stat. 986.)

520. Same; sale of seized property; disposition of proceeds.—Any person claiming any vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage, or any interest therein, which has been forfeited and sold under the provisions of this chapter, may at any time within three months after the date of sale apply to the Secretary of the Treasury if the forfeiture and sale was under the customs laws, or to the Secretary of Commerce if the forfeiture and sale was under the navigation laws, for a remission of the forfeiture and restoration of the proceeds of such sale, or such part thereof as may be claimed by him. Upon the production of satisfactory proof that the applicant did not know of the seizure prior to the declaration or condemnation of forfeiture, and was in such circumstances as prevented him from knowing of the same, and that such forfeiture was incurred without any willful negligence or intention to defraud on the part of the applicant, the Secretary of the Treasury or the Secretary of Commerce may order the proceeds of the sale, or any part thereof, restored to the applicant, after deducting the cost of seizure and of sale, the duties, if any, accruing on the merchandise or baggage, and any sum due on a lien for freight, charges or contribution in general average that may have been filed. If no application for such remission or restoration is made within three months after such sale, or if the application be denied by the Secretary of the Treasury or the Secretary of Commerce, the proceeds of sale shall be disposed of as follows:

(1) For the payment of all proper expenses of the proceedings of forfeiture and sale, including expenses of seizure, maintaining the custody of the property, advertising and sale, and if condemned by a decree of a district court and a bond for such costs was not given, the costs as taxed by the court;

(2) For the satisfaction of liens for freight, charges, and contributions in general average, notice of which has been filed with the collector according to law;

(3) For the payment of the duties accruing on such merchandise or baggage, if the same is subject to duty; and

(4) The residue shall be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States as a customs or navigation fine. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 613, 42 Stat. 986.)

521. Same; release of seized property on payment of appraised value.—If any person claiming an interest in any vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage seized under the provisions of this chapter offers to pay the value of such vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage, as determined under section 513 of this title, and it appears that such person has in fact a substantial interest therein, the collector may, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury if under the customs laws, or the Secretary of Commerce if under the navigation laws, accept such offer and release the vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage seized upon the payment of such value thereof, which shall be distributed in the order provided in section 520. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 614, 42 Stat. 987.)

522. Vessels or vehicles summarily forfeited; use for enforcement of customs laws or National Prohibition Act.—Any vessel or vehicles summarily forfeited to the United States for violation of the customs laws, may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, under such regulations as he may prescribe, be taken and used for the enforcement of the customs laws or the provisions of Title 27 (the National Prohibition Act), in lieu of the sale thereof under existing law. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 438, § 1, 43 Stat. 1116.)

523. Vessels forfeited by decree; order of court for delivery to Treasury.—Upon application therefor by the Secretary of the Treasury, any vessel or vehicle forfeited to the United States by a decree of any court for violation of the customs laws may be ordered by the court to be delivered to the Treasury Department for use in the enforcement of the customs laws or the provisions of Title 27 in lieu of the sale thereof under existing law. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 438, § 2, 43 Stat. 1116.)

524. Limitation on use; expense of maintenance, etc.; report in Budget; disposition when not needed.—Any vessel or vehicle acquired under the provisions of sections 522 and 523 of this title shall be utilized only for official purposes in the enforcement of the customs laws or the provisions of Title 27. The appropriations available for defraying the expenses of collecting the revenue from customs or for enforcement of the provisions of Title 27 shall be available for the payment of expenses of maintenance, repair, and operation of said vessels and vehicles, including motor-propelled passenger-carrying vehicles. Said appropriations shall also be available for the payment of the actual costs incident to the seizure and forfeiture, and if the seizure is made under any section of law under which liens are recognized, for the payment of the amount of such lien allowed by the court. A report shall be submitted to Congress each year in the Budget, setting forth in detail a description of the vessels or vehicles so acquired, the cost of acquiring, the appraised value thereof, the uses to which they have been put, the appraised value of seizures resulting from their use, and the expense of operating such vessels or vehicles. Any vessel or vehicle so acquired when no longer needed for official use shall be disposed of in the same manner as other surplus property. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 438, § 3, 43 Stat. 1116.)

525. Burden of proof in proceedings for forfeiture of property seized.—In all suits or actions brought for the forfeiture of any vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage seized under the provisions of any law relating to the collection of duties on imports, where the property is claimed by any person, the burden of proof shall lie upon such claimant; and in all suits or actions brought for the recovery of the value of any vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage seized for violation of any such law, the burden of proof shall be upon the defendant, but probable cause shall be first shown for the institution of such suit or action, to be judged of by the court. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 615, 42 Stat. 987.)

526. Costs of prosecution.—Whenever a seizure, condemnation, and sale of merchandise takes place within the United States, and the value thereof is less than $250, that part of the forfeiture which accrues to the United States, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be applied to the payment of the cost of prosecution. (R. S. § 3089.)

527. Sums received from fines and other receipts covered into Treasury.—Except as otherwise provided by law, all sums received from fines, penalties, and forfeitures, connected with the customs, and from fees paid into the Treasury by customs officers, and from storage, cartage, drayage, labor, and services, shall be covered into the Treasury as are other miscellaneous receipts. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, 34 Stat. 1315.)

528. Collector to receive amount recovered.—The collector within whose district any seizure shall be made or forfeiture incurred for any violation of the duty laws is authorized to receive from the court within which trial is had, or from the proper officer thereof, the sum recovered, after deducting all proper charges to be allowed by the court; and on receipt thereof he shall pay and distribute the same without delay, according to law. (R. S. § 3087; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 604, 42 Stat. 984.)

529. Compromise of claims.—It shall not be lawful for any officer of the United States to compromise or abate any claim of the United States arising under the customs laws for any fine, penalty, or forfeiture, and any such officer who compromises or abates any such claim or attempts to make such compromise or abatement, or in any manner relieves or attempts to relieve any person, vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage from any such fine, penalty, or forfeiture shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by imprisonment for a term of not exceeding two years. The Secretary of the Treasury shall have power to remit or mitigate any such fine, penalty, or forfeiture, or to compromise the same in the manner provided by law. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 616, 42 Stat. 987.)

530. Dismissal of proceedings.—Nothing in section 529 of this title shall be construed to affect any authority, power, or right which might otherwise have been lawfully exercised by any court, judge, or district attorney of the United States to obtain the testimony of an accomplice in any crime against, or fraud upon the customs-revenue laws, on any trial or proceeding for a fine, penalty, or forfeiture under said laws, by a discontinuance or dismissal, or by an engagement to discontinue or dismiss any proceedings against such accomplice. (Jan. 22, 1875, c. 22, 18 Stat. 303.)

531. Compromise upon recommendation of Solicitor of the Treasury.—Upon a report by a collector, district attorney, or any special attorney or agent, having charge of any claim arising under the customs laws, showing the facts upon which such claim is based, the probabilities of a recovery and the terms upon which the same may be compromised, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to compromise such claim, if such action shall be recommended by the Solicitor of the Treasury. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 617, 42 Stat. 987.)

532. Remission or mitigation of fines, penalties, or forfeitures.—Whenever any person interested in any vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage seized under the provisions of this title, or who has incurred, or is alleged to have incurred, any fine or penalty thereunder, files with the Secretary of the Treasury if under the customs laws, and with the Secretary of Commerce if under the navigation laws, before the sale of such vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage a petition for the remission or mitigation of such fine, penalty, or forfeiture, the Secretary of the Treasury, or the Secretary of Commerce, if he finds that such fine, penalty, or forfeiture was incurred without willful negligence or without any intention on the part of the petitioner to defraud the revenue or to violate the law, or finds the existence of such mitigating circumstances as to justify the remission or mitigation of such fine, penalty, or forfeiture, may remit or mitigate the same upon such terms and conditions as he deems reasonable and just, or order discontinuance of any prosecution relating thereto. In order to enable him to ascertain the facts, the Secretary of the Treasury may issue a commission to any special agent, collector, member of the Board of United States General Appraisers, or United States commissioner, to take testimony upon such petition. Nothing in this section shall be construed to deprive any person of an award of compensation made before the filing of such petition. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 618, 42 Stat. 987.)

533. Compensation to informers.—Any person not an officer of the United States who detects and seizes any vessel, vehicle, merchandise, or baggage subject to seizure and forfeiture under the customs laws and who reports the same to an officer of the customs, or who furnishes to a district attorney, to the Secretary of the Treasury, or to any customs officer original information concerning any fraud upon the customs revenue, or a violation of the customs laws perpetrated or contemplated, which detection and seizure or information leads to a recovery of any duties withheld, or of any fine, penalty or forfeiture incurred, may be awarded and paid by the Secretary of the Treasury a compensation of 25 per centum of the net amount recovered, but not to exceed $50,000 in any case, which shall be paid out of moneys appropriated for that purpose. For the purposes of this section, an amount recovered under a bail bond shall be deemed a recovery of a fine incurred. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 619, 42 Stat. 988.)

534. Same; United States officers.—Any officer of the United States who directly or indirectly receives, accepts, or contracts for any portion of the money which may accrue to any person making such detection and seizure, or furnishing such information, shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $10,000, or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, and shall be thereafter ineligible to any office of honor, trust, or emolument. Any such person who pays to any such officer, or to any person for the use of such officer, any portion of such money, or anything of value for or because of such money, shall have a right of action against such officer, or his legal representatives, or against such person, or his legal representatives, and shall be entitled to recover the money so paid or the thing of value so given. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 620, 42 Stat. 988.)

535. Compulsory production of books, invoices, or papers.—In all suits and proceedings other than criminal arising under any of the revenue laws of the United States, the attorney representing the Government, whenever, in his belief, any business book, invoice, or paper, belonging to or under the control of the defendant or claimant, will tend to prove any allegation made by the United States, may make a written motion, particularly describing such book, invoice, or paper, and setting forth the allegation which he expects to prove; and thereupon the court in which suit or proceeding is pending may, at its discretion, issue a notice to the defendant or claimant to produce such book, invoice, or paper in court, at a day and hour to be specified in said notice, which, together with a copy of said motion, shall be served formally on the defendant or claimant by the United States marshal by delivering to him a certified copy thereof, or otherwise serving the same as original notices of suit in the same court are served; and if the defendant or claimant shall fail or refuse to produce such book, invoice, or paper in obedience to such notice, the allegations stated in the said motion shall be taken as confessed unless his failure or refusal to produce the same shall be explained to the satisfaction of the court. And if produced, the said attorney shall be permitted, under the direction of the court, to make examination (at which examination the defendant or claimant, or his agent, may be present) of such entries in said book, invoice, or paper as relate to or tend to prove the allegation aforesaid, and may offer the same in evidence on behalf of the United States. But the owner of said books and papers, his agent or attorney, shall have, subject to the order of the court, the custody of them, except pending their examination in court as aforesaid. (June 22, 1874, c. 391, § 5, 18 Stat. 187.)

536. Limitation of actions for penalties or forfeitures.—No suit or action to recover any pecuniary penalty or forfeiture of property accruing under the customs laws shall be instituted unless such suit or action is commenced within five years after the time when such penalty or forfeiture accrued. But the time of the absence from the United States of the person subject to such penalty or forfeiture, or of any concealment or absence of the property, shall not be reckoned within this period of limitation. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 621, 42 Stat. 988.)

537. Officers, informers, and defendants as witnesses.—No officer, or other person entitled to or claiming compensation under any provision of this chapter, shall be thereby disqualified from becoming a witness in any action, suit, or proceeding for the recovery, mitigation, or remission thereof, but shall be subject to examination and cross-examination in like manner with other witnesses, without being thereby deprived of any right, title, share, or interest in any fine, penalty, or forfeiture to which such examination may relate; and in every such case the defendant or defendants may appear and testify and be examined and cross-examined in like manner. (June 22, 1874, c. 391, § 8, 18 Stat. 188.)

538. Extension of time for acts during national emergency of war.—Whenever the President shall by proclamation declare an emergency to exist by reason of a state of war, or otherwise, he may authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to extend during the continuance of such emergency the time prescribed in this chapter for the performance of any act. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 622, 42 Stat. 988.)

539. General rules and regulations.—In addition to the specific powers conferred by this chapter, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 623, 42 Stat. 988.)

540. President may use suitable vessels for enforcing customs laws.—In the execution of laws providing for the collection of duties on imports the President, in addition to the Coast Guard cutters in service, may employ in aid thereof such other suitable vessels as may, in his judgment, be required. (R. S. § 5318.)

541. Small boats for use of customs officials.—The collector of each district may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, provide and employ such small open row and sail boats, and persons to serve in them, as shall be necessary for the use of the surveyors and inspectors in going on board of vessels and otherwise, for the better detection of frauds. (R. S. § 2763.)

542. Motor boat for Corpus Christi; use elsewhere.—The Secretary of the Treasury may use the gasoline motor boat provided for service in the customs collection at Corpus Christi, Texas, elsewhere than at Corpus Christi as the exigencies of the service may require. (Feb. 10, 1913, c. 35, 37 Stat. 665.)

PART 6.—GENERAL PROVISIONS

571. Effect of repeals or modifications upon rights and liabilities.—The repeal of laws in force and effect prior to September 21, 1922, or modifications thereof embraced in this chapter shall not affect any act done, nor any right accruing or accrued, nor any suit or proceeding had or commenced in any civil or criminal case prior to said repeal or modifications, but all liabilities under said laws shall continue and may be enforced in the same manner as if said repeal or modifications had not been made. All offenses committed and all penalties, forfeitures, or liabilities incurred prior to the taking effect hereof, under any statute embraced in, or changed, modified, or repealed by this chapter, may be prosecuted and punished in the same manner and with the same effect as if this chapter had not been passed. No acts of limitation in force on September 21, 1922, whether applicable to civil causes and proceedings, or to the prosecution of offenses or for the recovery of penalties or forfeitures embraced in, modified, changed, or repealed by this chapter shall be affected thereby so far as they affect any suits, proceedings or prosecutions, whether civil or criminal, for causes arising or acts done or committed prior to that date which may be commenced and prosecuted within the same time and with the same effect as if this chapter had not been passed. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 641, 42 Stat. 989.)

572. Treaty with Cuba and law enforcing not affected.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to abrogate or in any manner impair or affect the provisions of the treaty of commercial reciprocity concluded between the United States and the Republic of Cuba on December 11, 1902, or the provisions of sections 124 and 125 of this title. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 320, 42 Stat. 947.)

573. Laws unaffected.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to repeal or in any manner affect sections 128, 130, 131, of this title, section 487 of Title 26 or section 296 of Title 5. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 321, 42 Stat. 947.)

574. Exemption from taking other oaths.—Nothing contained in this title shall be construed to exempt the masters or owners of vessels from making and subscribing any oaths required by any laws of the United States not immediately relating to the collection of the duties on the importation of merchandise into the United States. (R. S. § 3094.)

575. Effect of partial invalidity.—If any clause, sentence, paragraph, or part of this subtitle shall for any reason be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder of this chapter, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 645, 42 Stat. 990.)

576. Citation of chapter.—Act September 21, 1922, chapter 356, Forty-second Statutes, page 990, contained in this chapter may be cited as the "Tariff Act of 1922." (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 647, 42 Stat. 990.)

577. Laws applicable to Philippines.—Except as otherwise provided by law, the provisions of Subtitle IV of this chapter shall apply to all articles coming into the United States from the Philippine Archipelago. (Mar. 8, 1902, c. 140, § 8, 32 Stat. 55.)

Chapter 1.—THE OFFICE OF EDUCATION.

Sec.
1. Established.
2. Commissioner of Education.
3. Bulletin of Bureau of Education.
4. Report of Commissioner.
5. Offices for use of bureau.

Section 1. Established.—There shall be in the Department of the Interior a bureau called the Office of Education, the purpose and duties of which shall be to collect statistics and facts showing the condition and progress of education in the several States and Territories, and to diffuse such information respecting the organization and management of schools and school systems, and methods of teaching, as shall aid the people of the United States in the establishment and maintenance of efficient school systems, and otherwise promote the cause of education throughout the country. (R. S. § 516.)

2. Commissioner of Education.—The management of the Office of Education shall, subject to the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, be intrusted to a Commissioner of Education, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. (R. S. § 517; Mar. 8, 1917, c. 163, § 1, 39 Stat. 1105; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1179.)

3. Bulletin of Bureau of Education.—The Commissioner of Education is authorized to prepare and publish a bulletin of the Bureau of Education as to the condition of higher education, technical and industrial education, facts as to compulsory attendance in the schools, and such other educational topics in the several States of the Union and in foreign countries as may be deemed of value to the educational interests of the States, and there shall be printed one edition of not exceeding twelve thousand five hundred copies of each issue of said bulletin for distribution by the Bureau of Education, the expense of printing and binding such bulletin to be charged to the allotment for printing and binding for the Department of the Interior. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 1, 29 Stat. 171.)

4. Report of Commissioner.—The Commissioner of Education shall present annually to Congress a report embodying the results of his investigations and labors together with a statement of such facts and recommendations as will, in his judgment, subserve the purpose for which the office is established. (R. S. § 518.)

5. Offices for use of bureau.—The Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital shall furnish proper offices for the use of the Office of Education. (R. S. § 519; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 3, 43 Stat. 983.)

Section 11. Annual appropriations.—There is annually appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the amounts hereinafter provided for, to be paid to the respective States for the purpose of cooperating with the States in paying the salaries of teachers, supervisors, and directors of agricultural subjects, and teachers of trade, home economics, and industrial subjects, and in the preparation of teachers of agricultural, trade, industrial, and home economics subjects, and for the use of the Federal Board for Vocational Education for the administration of this chapter and for the purpose of making studies, investigations, and reports to aid in the organization and conduct of vocational education, which sums shall be expended as hereinafter provided. (Feb. 23, 1917, c. 114, § 1, 39 Stat. 929.)

12. Same; paying salaries of teachers of agricultural subjects; amounts; allotment of funds to States.—For the purpose of cooperating with the States in paying the salaries of teachers, supervisors, or directors of agricultural subjects there is annually appropriated for the use of the States, subject to the provisions of this chapter, the sum of $3,000,000. Said appropriation shall be allotted to the States in the proportion which their rural population bears to the total rural population in the United States, not including outlying possessions, according to the last preceding United States census. The allotment of funds to any State shall be not less than a minimum of $10,000 for any fiscal year. There is appropriated for each fiscal year the sum of $27,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, which shall be used for the purpose of providing the minimum allotment to the States provided for in this section. (Feb. 23, 1917, c. 114, § 2, 39 Stat. 930.)

13. Same; paying salaries of teachers of trade, home economics, and industrial subjects; amounts; allotment of funds to States.—For the purpose of cooperating with the States in paying the salaries of teachers of trade, home economics, and industrial subjects there is annually appropriated for the use of the States the sum of $3,000,000. Said appropriation shall be allotted to the States in the proportion which their urban population bears to the total urban population in the United States, not including outlying possessions, according to the last preceding United States census. The allotment of funds to any State shall be not less than a minimum of $10,000 for any fiscal year. There is appropriated the sum of $50,000 annually, or so much thereof as may be needed, which shall be used for the purpose of providing the minimum allotment to the States provided for in this section.

Not more than 20 per centum of the money appropriated under this chapter for the payment of salaries of teachers of trade, home economics, and industrial subjects, for any year, shall be expended for the salaries of teachers of home economics subjects. (Feb. 23, 1917, c. 114, § 3, 39 Stat. 930.)

14. Same; preparing teachers of agricultural subjects; amounts; allotment of funds to States.—For the purpose of cooperating with the States in preparing teachers, supervisors, and directors of agricultural subjects and teachers of trade and industrial and home economics subjects, there is annually appropriated for the use of the States the sum of $1,000,000. Said sum shall be allotted to the States in the proportion which their population bears to the total population of the United States, not including outlying possessions, according to the last preceding United States census. The allotment of funds to any State shall be not less than a minimum of $10,000 for any fiscal year. And there is appropriated the sum of $90,000 annually, or so much thereof as may be needed, which shall be used for the purpose of providing the minimum allotment provided for in this section. (Feb. 23, 1917, c. 114, § 4, 39 Stat. 931.)

15. Same; for Federal board.—There is appropriated to the Federal Board for Vocational Education the sum of $200,000 annually, for the purpose of making or cooperating in making the studies, investigations, and reports provided for in section 17 of this title, and for the purpose of paying the salaries of the officers, the assistants, and such office and other expenses as the board may deem necessary to the execution and administration of this chapter; this appropriation is also made available for printing and binding, law books, books of reference and periodicals, and postage on foreign mail. (Feb. 23, 1917, c. 114, § 7, 39 Stat. 933; Oct. 6, 1917, c. 79, § 1, 40 Stat. 345.)

16. Same; acceptance of benefits of appropriations by States; creation of State boards.—In order to secure the benefits of the appropriations provided for in sections 12, 13, and 14 of this title, any State shall, through the legislative authority thereof, accept the provisions of this chapter and designate or create a State board, consisting of not less than three members, and having all necessary power to cooperate, as herein provided, with the Federal Board for Vocational Education in the administration of the provisions of this chapter. The State board of education, or other board having charge of the administration of public education in the State, or any State board having charge of the administration of any kind of vocational education in the State may, if the State so elect, be designated as the State board, for the purposes of this chapter.

Any State may accept the benefits of any one or more of the respective funds herein appropriated, and it may defer the acceptance of the benefits of any one or more of such funds, and shall be required to meet only the conditions relative to the fund or funds the benefits of which it has accepted, except that no State shall receive any appropriation for salaries of teachers, supervisors, or directors of agricultural subjects, until it shall have taken advantage of at least the minimum amount appropriated for the training of teachers, supervisors, or directors of agricultural subjects, as provided for in this chapter, and no State shall receive any appropriation for the salaries of teachers of trade, home economics, and industrial subjects until it shall have taken advantage of at least the minimum amount appropriated for the training of teachers of trade, home economics, and industrial subjects, as provided for in this chapter. (Feb. 23, 1917, c. 114, § 5, 39 Stat. 931; Oct. 6, 1917, c. 79, § 1, 40 Stat. 345.)

17. Federal board; members; chairman; terms of office; cooperation with State boards; investigations; assistants.—A Federal Board for Vocational Education is created, to consist of the Secretary of Agriculture, the Secretary of Commerce, the Secretary of Labor, the United States Commissioner of Education, and three citizens of the United States to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. One of said three citizens shall be a representative of the manufacturing and commercial interests, one a representative of the agricultural interests, and one a representative of labor. The board shall elect annually one of its members as chairman. In the first instance, one of the citizen members shall be appointed for one year, one for two years, and one for three years, and thereafter for three years each.

The board shall have power to cooperate with State boards in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. It shall be the duty of the Federal Board for Vocational Education to make, or cause to have made studies, investigations, and reports, with particular reference to their use in aiding the States in the establishment of vocational schools and classes and in giving instruction in agriculture, trades and industries, commerce and commercial pursuits, and home economics. Such studies, investigations, and reports shall include agriculture and agricultural processes and requirements upon agricultural workers; trades, industries, and apprenticeships, trade and industrial requirements upon industrial workers, and classification of industrial processes and pursuits; commerce and commercial pursuits and requirements upon commercial workers; home management, domestic science, and the study of related facts and principles; and problems of administration of vocational schools and of courses of study and instruction in vocational subjects.

When the board deems it advisable such studies, investigations, and reports concerning agriculture, for the purposes of agricultural education, may be made in cooperation with or through the Department of Agriculture; such studies, investigations, and reports concerning trades and industries, for the purposes of trade and industrial education, may be made in cooperation with or through the Department of Labor; such studies, investigations, and reports concerning commerce and commercial pursuits, for the purposes of commercial education, may be made in cooperation with or through the Department of Commerce; such studies, investigations, and reports concerning the administration of vocational schools, courses of study and instruction in vocational subjects, may be made in cooperation with or through the Bureau of Education.

The Commissioner of Education may make such recommendations to the board relative to the administration of this chapter as he may from time to time deem advisable. It shall be the duty of the chairman of the board to carry out the rules, regulations, and decisions which the board may adopt. The Federal Board for Vocational Education shall have power to employ such assistants as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. (Feb. 23, 1917, c. 114, § 6, 39 Stat. 932.)

18. Plans and reports by State boards to be submitted to Federal board.—In order to secure the benefits of the appropriation for any purpose specified in this chapter, the State board shall prepare plans, showing the kinds of vocational education for which it is proposed that the appropriation shall be used; the kinds of schools and equipment; courses of study; methods of instruction; qualifications of teachers; and, in the case of agricultural subjects the qualifications of supervisors or directors; plans for the training of teachers; and, in the case of agricultural subjects, plans for the supervision of agricultural education, as provided for in section 20 of this title. Such plans shall be submitted by the State board to the Federal Board for Vocational Education, and if the Federal board finds the same to be in conformity with the provisions and purposes of this chapter, the same shall be approved. The State board shall make an annual report to the Federal Board for Vocational Education, on or before September 1st of each year, on the work done in the State and the receipts and expenditures of money under the provisions of this chapter. (Feb. 23, 1917, c. 114, § 8, 39 Stat. 933.)

19. Expenditure of appropriations; expenses to be borne by States.—The appropriation for the salaries of teachers, supervisors, or directors of agricultural subjects and of teachers of trade, home economics, and industrial subjects shall be devoted exclusively to the payment of salaries of such teachers, supervisors, or directors having the minimum qualifications set up for the State by the State board, with the approval of the Federal Board for Vocational Education. The cost of instruction supplementary to the instruction in agricultural and in trade, home economics, and industrial subjects provided for in this chapter, necessary to build a well-rounded course of training, shall be borne by the State and local communities, and no part of the cost thereof shall be borne out of the appropriations made in this chapter. The moneys expended under the provisions of this chapter, in cooperation with the States, for the salaries of teachers, supervisors, or directors of agricultural subjects, or for the salaries of teachers of trade, home economics, and industrial subjects, shall be conditioned that for each dollar of Federal money expended for such salaries the State or local community, or both, shall expend an equal amount for such salaries; and that appropriations for the training of teachers of vocational subjects, as provided in this chapter shall be conditioned that such money be expended for maintenance of such training and that for each dollar of Federal money so expended for maintenance, the State or local community, or both, shall expend an equal amount for the maintenance of such training. (Feb. 23, 1917, c. 114, § 9, 39 Stat. 933.)

20. Plans by State boards for use of appropriations; for agricultural purposes.—Any State may use the appropriation for agricultural purposes, or any part thereof allotted to it, under the provisions of this chapter, for the salaries of teachers, supervisors, or directors of agricultural subjects, either for the salaries of teachers of such subjects in schools or classes or for the salaries of supervisors or directors of such subjects under a plan of supervision for the State to be set up by the State board, with the approval of the Federal Board for Vocational Education. In order to receive the benefits of such appropriation for the salaries of teachers, supervisors, or directors of agricultural subjects the State board of any State shall provide in its plan for agricultural education that such education shall be that which is under public supervision or control; that the controlling purpose of such education shall be to fit for useful employment; that such education shall be of less than college grade and be designed to meet the needs of persons over fourteen years of age who have entered upon or who are preparing to enter upon the work of the farm or of the farm home; that the State or local community, or both, shall provide the necessary plant and equipment determined upon by the State board, with the approval of the Federal Board for Vocational Education, as the minimum requirement for such education in schools and classes in the State; that the amount expended for the maintenance of such education in any school or class receiving the benefit of such appropriation shall be not less annually than the amount fixed by the State board, with the approval of the Federal board as the minimum for such schools or classes in the State; that such schools shall provide for directed or supervised practice in agriculture, either on a farm provided for by the school or other farm, for at least six months per year; that the teachers, supervisors, or directors of agricultural subjects shall have at least the minimum qualifications determined for the State by the State board, with the approval of the Federal Board for Vocational Education. (Feb. 23, 1917, c. 114, § 10, 39 Stat. 934.)

21. Same; for salaries of teachers of trade, home economics, and industrial subjects.—In order to receive the benefits of the appropriation for the salaries of teachers of trade, home economics, and industrial subjects the State board of any State shall provide in its plan for trade, home economics, and industrial education that such education shall be given in schools or classes under public supervision or control; that the controlling purpose of such education shall be to fit for useful employment; that such education shall be of less than college grade and shall be designed to meet the needs of persons over fourteen years of age who are preparing for a trade or industrial pursuit or who have entered upon the work of a trade or industrial pursuit; that the State or local community, or both, shall provide the necessary plant and equipment determined upon by the State board, with the approval of the Federal Board for Vocational Education, as the minimum requirement in such State for education for any given trade or industrial pursuit; that the total amount expended for the maintenance of such education in any school or class receiving the benefit of such appropriation shall be not less annually than the amount fixed by the State board, with the approval of the Federal board, as the minimum for such schools or classes in the State; that such schools or classes giving instruction to persons who have not entered upon employment shall require that at least half of the time of such instruction be given to practical work on a useful or productive basis, such instruction to extend over not less than nine months per year and not less than thirty hours per week; that at least one-third of the sum appropriated to any State for the salaries of teachers of trade, home economics, and industrial subjects shall, if expended, be applied to part-time schools or classes for workers over fourteen years of age who have entered upon employment, and such subjects in a part-time school or class may mean any subject given to enlarge the civic or vocational intelligence of such workers over fourteen and less than eighteen years of age; that such part-time schools or classes shall provide for not less than one hundred and forty-four hours of class-room instruction per year; that evening industrial schools shall fix the age of sixteen years as a minimum entrance requirement and shall confine instruction to that which is supplemental to the daily employment; that the teachers of any trade or industrial subject in any State shall have at least the minimum qualifications for teachers of such subject determined upon for such State by the State board, with the approval of the Federal Board for Vocational Education. For cities and towns of less than twenty-five thousand population, according to the last preceding United States census, the State board, with the approval of the Federal Board for Vocational Education, may modify the conditions as to the length of course and hours of instruction per week for schools and classes giving instruction to those who have not entered upon employment, in order to meet the particular needs of such cities and towns. (Feb. 23, 1917, c. 114, § 11, 39 Stat. 934.)

22. Same; for training teachers, supervisors, or directors.—In order for any State to receive the benefits of the appropriation in this chapter for the training of teachers, supervisors, or directors of agricultural subjects, or of teachers of trade, industrial or home economics subjects, the State board of such State shall provide in its plan for such training that the same shall be carried out under the supervision of the State board; that such training shall be given in schools or classes under public supervision or control; that such training shall be given only to persons who have had adequate vocational experience or contact in the line of work for which they are preparing themselves as teachers, supervisors, or directors, or who are acquiring such experience or contact as a part of their training; and that the State board, with the approval of the Federal board, shall establish minimum requirements for such experience or contact for teachers, supervisors, or directors of agricultural subjects and for teachers of trade, industrial, and home economics subjects; that not more than 60 per centum nor less than 20 per centum of the money appropriated under this chapter for the training of teachers of vocational subjects to any State for any year shall be expended for any one of the following purposes: For the preparation of teachers, supervisors, or directors of agricultural subjects, or the preparation of teachers of trade and industrial subjects, or the preparation of teachers of home economics subjects. (Feb. 23, 1917, c. 114, § 12, 39 Stat. 935.)

23. State custodians of funds appropriated.—In order to secure the benefits of the appropriations for the salaries of teachers, supervisors, or directors of agricultural subjects, or for the salaries of teachers of trade, home economics, and industrial subjects, or for the training of teachers as provided in this chapter, any State shall, through the legislative authority thereof, appoint as custodian for said appropriations its State treasurer, who shall receive and provide for the proper custody and disbursements of all money paid to the State from said appropriations. (Feb. 23, 1917, c. 114, § 13, 39 Stat. 935.)

24. Supervision of expenditures by States; quarterly payments to States.—The Federal Board for Vocational Education shall annually ascertain whether the several States are using, or are prepared to use, the money received by them in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. On or before the first day of January of each year the Federal Board for Vocational Education shall certify to the Secretary of the Treasury each State which has accepted the provisions of this chapter and complied therewith, certifying the amounts which each State is entitled to receive under the provisions of this chapter. Upon such certification the Secretary of the Treasury shall pay quarterly to the custodian for vocational education of each State the moneys to which it is entitled under the provisions of this chapter. The moneys so received by the custodian for vocational education for any State shall be paid out on the requisition of the State board as reimbursement for expenditures already incurred to such schools as are approved by said State board and are entitled to receive such moneys under the provisions of this chapter. (Feb. 23, 1917, c. 114, § 14, 39 Stat. 935.)

25. Deductions from allotments when preceding allotments have not been expended.—Whenever any portion of the fund annually allotted to any State has not been expended for the purpose provided for in this chapter, a sum equal to such portion shall be deducted by the Federal board from the next succeeding annual allotment from such fund to such State. (Feb. 23, 1917, c. 114, § 15, 39 Stat. 936.)

26. Withholding allotments.—The Federal Board for Vocational Education may withhold the allotment of moneys to any State whenever it shall be determined that such moneys are not being expended for the purposes and under the conditions of this chapter.

If any allotment is withheld from any State, the State board of such State may appeal to the Congress of the United States, and if the Congress shall not direct such sum to be paid it shall be covered into the Treasury. (Feb. 23, 1917, c. 114, § 16, 39 Stat. 936.)

27. Loss of funds; replacing; limitation on use.—If any portion of the moneys received by the custodian for vocational education of any State under this chapter, for any given purpose named in this chapter, shall, by any action or contingency, be diminished or lost, it shall be replaced by such State, and until so replaced no subsequent appropriation for such education shall be paid to such State. No portion of any moneys appropriated under this chapter for the benefit of the States shall be applied, directly or indirectly, to the purchase, erection, preservation, or repair of any building or buildings or equipment, or for the purchase or rental of lands, or for the support of any religious or privately owned or conducted school or college. (Feb. 23, 1917, c. 114, § 17, 39 Stat. 936.)

28. Reports to Congress by Federal board.—The Federal Board for Vocational Education shall make an annual report to Congress, on or before December 1, on the administration of this chapter and shall include in such report the reports made by the State boards on the administration of this chapter by each State and the expenditure of the money allotted to each State. (Feb. 23, 1917, c. 114, § 18, 39 Stat. 936.)

29. Benefits extended to Hawaii.—The Territory of Hawaii shall be entitled to share in the benefits of this chapter and any statute supplementary thereto, upon the same terms and conditions as any of the several States. There is authorized to be appropriated annually out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $30,000, to be available for allotment under this chapter to the Territory. (Mar. 10, 1924, c. 46, § 4, 43 Stat. 18.)

Section 41. Incorporation of institution.—The President, the Vice President, the Chief Justice, and the heads of executive departments are hereby constituted an establishment by the name of the Smithsonian Institution for the increase and diffusion of knowledge among men, and by that name shall be known and have perpetual succession with the powers, limitations, and restrictions hereinafter contained, and no other. (R. S. § 5579; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, 19 Stat. 253; Mar. 12, 1894, c. 36, 28 Stat. 41.)

42. Regents.—The business of the institution shall be conducted at the city of Washington by a Board of Regents, named the Regents of the Smithsonian Institution, to be composed of the Vice President, the Chief Justice of the United States, and three members of the Senate and three members of the House of Representatives; together with six other persons, other than members of Congress, two of whom shall be resident in the city of Washington; and the other four shall be inhabitants of some State, but no two of them of the same State. (R. S. § 5580, Mar. 12, 1894, c. 36, 28 Stat. 41.)

43. Same; appointment; terms of office; vacancies.—The Board of Regents shall be appointed as follows: The Members of the Senate by the President thereof; the Members of the House by the Speaker thereof; and the six other persons by joint resolution of the Senate and House of Representatives. The Members of the House so appointed shall serve for the term of two years; and on every alternate fourth Wednesday of December a like number shall be appointed in the same manner, to serve until the fourth Wednesday in December, in the second year succeeding their appointment. The Senators so appointed shall serve during the term for which they shall hold, without reelection, their office as Senators. Vacancies, occasioned by death, resignation, or otherwise, shall be filled as vacancies in committees are filled. The regular term of service for the other six members shall be six years; and new elections thereof shall be made by joint resolutions of Congress. Vacancies occasioned by death, resignation, or otherwise may be filled in like manner by joint resolution of Congress. (R. S. § 5581.)

44. Same; organization.—The Board of Regents shall meet in the city of Washington and elect one of their number as chancellor, who shall be the presiding officer of the Board of Regents, and called the chancellor of the Smithsonian Institution, and a suitable person as secretary of the institution, who shall also be the secretary of the Board of Regents. The board shall also elect three of their own body as an executive committee, and shall fix the time for the regular meetings of the board; and, on application of any three of the Regents to the secretary of the institution, it shall be his duty to appoint a special meeting of the Board of Regents, of which he shall give notice, by letter, to each of the members; and, at any meeting of the board, five shall constitute a quorum to do business. Each member of the board shall be paid his necessary traveling and other actual expenses, in attending meetings of the board, which shall be audited by the executive committee, and recorded by the secretary of the board; but his service as Regent shall be gratuitous. (R. S. § 5582.)

45. Special meetings of members.—The members of the institution may hold stated and special meetings, for the supervision of the affairs of the institution and the advice and instruction of the Board of Regents, to be called in the manner provided for in the by-laws of the institution, at which the president, and in his absence the vice president, shall preside. (R. S. § 5585.)

46. Duties of secretary.—The secretary of the Board of Regents shall take charge of the building and property of the institution, and shall, under their direction, make a fair and accurate record of all their proceedings, to be preserved in the institution; and shall also discharge the duties of librarian and of keeper of the museum, and may, with the consent of the Board of Regents, employ assistants. (R. S. § 5583.)

47. Acting secretary.—The chancellor of the Smithsonian Institution may, by an instrument in writing filed in the office of the secretary thereof, designate and appoint a suitable person to act as secretary of the institution when there shall be a vacancy in said office, and whenever the secretary shall be unable from illness, absence, or other cause to perform the duties of his office; and in such case the person so appointed may perform all the duties imposed on the secretary by law until the vacancy shall be filled or such inability shall cease. The said chancellor may change such designation and appointment from time to time as the interests of the institution may in his judgment require. (May 13, 1884, c. 44, 23 Stat. 21.)

48. Salary and removal of secretary and assistants.—The secretary and his assistants shall, respectively, receive for their services such sum as may be allowed by the Board of Regents; and shall be removable by the Board of Regents whenever, in their judgment, the interests of the institution require such removal. (R. S. § 5584; June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 6, 34 Stat. 763.)

49. Statement of expenditures.—The secretary shall submit to Congress annually at the beginning of each regular session thereof a detailed statement of the expenditures of the preceding fiscal year, under appropriations for "International Exchanges," "North American Ethnology," and the "National Museum." (Oct. 2, 1888, c. 1069, § 1, 25 Stat. 529.)

50. Reception and arrangement of specimens and objects of art.—Whenever suitable arrangements can be made from time to time for their reception, all objects of art and of foreign and curious research, and all objects of natural history, plants, and geological and mineralogical specimens belonging to the United States, which may be in the city of Washington, in whosesoever custody they may be, shall be delivered to such persons as may be authorized by the Board of Regents to receive them, and shall be so arranged and classified in the building erected for the institution as best to facilitate the examination and study of them; and whenever new specimens in natural history, geology, or mineralogy are obtained for the museum of the institution, by exchanges of duplicate specimens, which the Regents may in their discretion make, or by donation, which they may receive, or otherwise, the Regents shall cause such new specimens to be appropriately classed and arranged. The minerals, books, manuscripts, and other property of James Smithson, which have been received by the Government of the United States, shall be preserved separate and apart from other property of the institution. (R. S. § 5586.)

51. Library.—The Regents shall make, from the interest of the fund, an appropriation, not exceeding an average of $25,000 annually, for the gradual formation of a library composed of valuable works pertaining to all departments of human knowledge. (R. S. § 5587.)

52. Evidence of title to site and buildings.—The site and lands selected for buildings for the Smithsonian Institution shall be deemed appropriated to the institution, and the record of the description of such site and lands, or a copy thereof, certified by the chancellor and secretary of the Board of Regents, shall be received as evidence in all courts of the extent and boundaries of the lands appropriated to the institution. (R. S. § 5588.)

53. Protection of property.—All laws for the protection of public property in the city of Washington shall apply to, and be in force for, the protection of the lands, buildings, and other property of the Smithsonian Institution. All moneys recovered by or accruing to, the institution shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States, to the credit of the Smithsonian bequest, and separately accounted for. (R. S. § 5589.)

54. Appropriation of interest.—So much of the property of James Smithson as has been received in money, and paid into the Treasury of the United States, being the sum of $541,379.63, shall be lent to the United States Treasury, at 6 per centum per annum interest; and 6 per centum interest on the trust-fund and residuary legacy received into the United States Treasury, payable in half-yearly payments, on the first of January and July in each year, is appropriated for the perpetual maintenance and support of the Smithsonian Institution; and all expenditures and appropriations to be made, from time to time, to the purposes of the institution shall be exclusively from the accruing interest, and not from the principal of the fund. All the moneys and stocks which have been, or may hereafter be, received into the Treasury of the United States, on account of the fund bequeathed by James Smithson, are pledged to refund to the Treasury of the United States the sums hereby appropriated. (R. S. § 5590.)

55. Acceptance of other sums.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to receive into the Treasury, on the same terms as the original bequest of James Smithson, such sums as the Regents may, from time to time, see fit to deposit, not exceeding, with the original bequest, the sum of $1,000,000. This shall not operate as a limitation on the power of the Smithsonian Institution to receive money or other property by gift, bequest, or devise, and to hold and dispose of the same in promotion of the purposes thereof. (R. S. § 5591; Mar. 12, 1894, c. 36, 28 Stat. 41.)

56. Disposal of unappropriated money.—The Regents are authorized to make such disposal of any other moneys which have accrued, or shall hereafter accrue, as interest upon the Smithsonian fund, not herein appropriated, or not required for the purposes herein provided, as they shall deem best suited for the promotion of the purpose of the testator. (R. S. § 5592.)

57. Disbursements.—Whenever money is required for the payment of the debts or performance of the contracts of the institution, incurred or entered into in conformity with the provisions of sections 41 to 46, 48, 50 to 57, and 67 of this title, or for making the purchases and executing the objects authorized by said sections, the Board of Regents, or the executive committee thereof, may certify to the chancellor and secretary of the board that such sum of money is required, whereupon they shall examine the same, and, if they shall approve thereof, shall certify the same to the proper officer of the Treasury for payment. The board shall submit to Congress, at each session thereof, a report of the operations, expenditures, and condition of the institution. (R. S. § 5593.)

58. Annual report of salaries.—A report in detail, for the preceding fiscal year, shall be made to Congress annually of the salaries of all officers and employees paid from appropriations under the Smithsonian Institution. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 424, § 1, 30 Stat. 1085.)

59. National Museum; collections of Coast and Interior Survey, and Geological Survey.—All collections of rocks, minerals, soils, fossils, and objects of natural history, archæology, and ethnology, made by the Coast and Interior Survey, the Geological Survey, or by any other parties for the Government of the United States, when no longer needed for investigations in progress shall be deposited in the National Museum. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 182, § 1, 20 Stat. 394.)

60. Same; arms, matériel, equipment, etc., for.—The Secretary of War is authorized to furnish to the National Museum, for exhibition, upon request therefor by the administrative head thereof, such articles of arms, matériel, equipment, or clothing as have been issued from time to time to the United States Army, or which have been or may hereafter be produced for the United States Army, and which are objects of general interest or of foreign or curious research, provided that such articles are surplus or can be spared. (Mar. 4, 1921, c. 166, § 1, 41 Stat. 1438.)

61. Archives relating to Indians, collected by Geographical and Geological Survey.—All the archives, records and materials relating to the Indians of North America, collected by the Geographical and Geological Survey, of the Rocky Mountain region, shall be turned over to the Smithsonian Institution, that the work may be completed and prepared for publication under its direction: Provided, That it shall meet the approval of the Secretary of the Interior and of the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 182, § 1, 20 Stat. 397.)

62. Instruments of Coast and Geodetic Survey; transfer authorized.—The Secretary of Commerce may transfer to the Smithsonian Institution such instruments of the Coast and Geodetic Survey as in his judgment are of historic value but of no further use in the survey's work. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 223, § 1, 38 Stat. 661.)

63. Transfer of instruments to educational institutions and museums.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized to transfer, under such rules and regulations as he may deem advisable, to educational institutions and to museums, such instruments of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey as, in his judgment, are of historical value but of no further use in the work of that survey, except such historical instruments as may be needed by the Smithsonian Institution for exhibit at the National Museum. (June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 930.)

64. Distribution of specimens to schools and colleges.—Duplicate specimens of the National Museum and Bureau of Fisheries may be distributed to colleges, academies, and other institutions of learning upon the payment by the recipients of the cost of preparation for transportation and the transportation thereof. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 143, § 1, 22 Stat. 629.)

65. Report of Director of National Museum.—The Director of the National Museum shall report annually to Congress the progress of the museum during the year and its present condition. (July 7, 1884, c. 332, § 1, 23 Stat. 214.)

66. Exchange of typewriters and adding machines.—The Government branches under the direction of the Smithsonian Institution may exchange typewriters, adding machines, and other labor-saving devices in part payment for like articles. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 75, § 1, 38 Stat. 839.)

67. Right of repeal.—Congress may alter, amend, add to, or repeal any of the provisions of this chapter; but no contract or individual right made or acquired under such provisions shall be thereby divested or impaired. (R. S. § 5594.)

Chapter 4.—NATIONAL ZOOLOGICAL PARK.

Sec.
81. National Zoological Park; administration by Regents of Smithsonian Institution.
82. Same; aid in acquisition of collections.
83. Same; report of expenses.
84. Same; plans for buildings and bridges.

Section 81. National Zoological Park; administration by Regents of Smithsonian Institution.—The National Zoological Park is placed under the direction of the Regents of the Smithsonian Institution, who are authorized to transfer to it any living specimens, whether of animals or plants, in their charge, to accept gifts for the park at their discretion, in the name of the United States, to make exchanges of specimens, and to administer the said Zoological Park for the advancement of science and the instruction and recreation of the people. (Apr. 30, 1890, c. 173, § 2, 26 Stat. 78.)

82. Same; aid in acquisition of collections.—The heads of executive departments of the Government are authorized and directed to cause to be rendered all necessary and practicable aid to the said Regents in the acquisition of collections for the Zoological Park. (Apr. 30, 1890, c. 173, § 3, 26 Stat. 78.)

83. Same; report of expenses.—A report in detail of the expenses on account of the National Zoological Park shall be made to Congress at the beginning of each regular session. (Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, 28 Stat. 384.)

84. Same; plans for buildings and bridges.—All plans and specifications for the construction of buildings in the National Zoological Park shall be prepared under the supervision of the municipal architect of the District of Columbia, and all plans and specifications for bridges in said park shall be prepared under the supervision of the engineer of bridges of the District of Columbia. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 355, § 1, 37 Stat. 437.)

Chapter 5.—GOVERNMENT COLLECTIONS AND INSTITUTIONS FOR RESEARCH, AND MATERIAL FOR EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

Sec.
91. Literary and scientific collections accessible to investigators and students.
92. Admissions to marine biological station for pursuit of investigations.
93. Sale of machine tools to trade, technical, and public schools and universities; conditions.

Section 91. Literary and scientific collections accessible to investigators and students.—The facilities for study research and illustration in the Government departments and in the following and any other governmental collections now existing or hereafter to be established in the city of Washington for the promotion of knowledge shall be accessible, under such rules and restrictions as the officers in charge of each department or collection may prescribe, subject to such authority as is now or may hereafter be permitted by law, to the scientific investigators and to duly qualified individuals, students and graduates of any institution of learning in the several States and Territories and the District of Columbia, to wit:

One. Of the Library of Congress.
Two. Of the National Museum.
Three. Of the Patent Office.
Four. Of the Bureau of Education.
Five. Of the Bureau of Ethnology.
Six. Of the Army Medical Museum.
Seven. Of the Department of Agriculture.
Eight. Of the Bureau of Fisheries.
Nine. Of the Botanic Gardens.
Ten. Of the Coast and Geodetic Survey.
Eleven. Of the Geological Survey.
Twelve. Of the Naval Observatory.
Thirteen. Of the Zoological Park. (Apr. 12, 1892, No. 8, 27 Stat. 395; Mar. 3, 1901, c. 831, 31 Stat. 1039.)

92. Admissions to marine biological station for pursuit of investigations.—The professors, instructors, and students of the several land-grant, agricultural, and mechanical colleges of the United States shall be admitted to the marine biological station on the Gulf of Mexico on the coast of Florida, to pursue such investigation in fish culture and biology as may be practicable, without cost to the Government, under such rules and regulations as may be from time to time prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce. (Mar. 1, 1911, c. 189, §§ 1, 2, 36 Stat. 964; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736; Aug. 1, 1914, c. 223, § 1, 38 Stat. 665.)

93. Sale of machine tools to trade, technical, and public schools and universities; conditions.—The Secretary of War is authorized, under such regulations as he may prescribe, to sell at 15 per centum of their cost to trade, technical, and public schools and universities, and other recognized educational institutions, upon application in writing, such machine tools as are suitable for their use owned by the United States of America and under the control of the War Department and not needed for Government purposes. The money realized from the sale may be used by the Secretary of War to defray expenses, except cost of transportation, incident to distribution of the tools, and the balance shall be turned into the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts. In the event any such material is offered for sale by said institutions without the consent in writing of the Secretary of War, title thereto shall revert to the United States. (Nov. 19, 1919, c. 118, 41 Stat. 360.)

Chapter 6.—AMERICAN PRINTING HOUSE FOR THE BLIND.

Sec.
101. Permanent trust fund; annual appropriation.
102. Same; application of appropriation.
(1) Purposes and method of expenditure.
(2) Buildings.
(3) Sales of books and apparatus at cost.
(4) Income withheld when not properly used.
(5) Bond of treasurer.
(6) Ex officio trustees.
103. Publications for National Library for the Blind.
104. Annual reports by trustees.
105. Books for Library of Congress.

Section 101. Permanent trust fund; annual appropriation.—The sum of $250,000, set apart as a perpetual trust fund for the purpose of aiding the education of the blind in the United States, through the American Printing House for the Blind, shall be credited on the books of the Treasury Department as a perpetual trust fund for that purpose, to be held, invested, and reinvested, by the Secretary of the Treasury in United States interest-bearing bonds; and the sum of $10,000, being equivalent to 4 per centum on the principal of said trust fund, is appropriated, out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and such appropriation shall be deemed a permanent annual appropriation and shall be expended in the manner and for the purposes authorized by this chapter. In addition to the permanent appropriation of $10,000, made in this section, there is authorized to be appropriated annually to the American Printing House for the Blind the sum of $40,000, which sum shall be expended in accordance with the requirements of this chapter. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 186, §§ 1, 2, 20 Stat. 468; June 25, 1906, c. 3536, 34 Stat. 460; Aug. 4, 1919, c. 31, 41 Stat. 272.)

102. Same; application of appropriation.—The Secretary of the Treasury of the United States is hereby authorized to pay over semiannually, to the trustees of the American Printing House for the Blind, located in Louisville, Kentucky, and chartered in 1858 by the Legislature of Kentucky, upon the requisition of their president, countersigned by their treasurer, one-half of such permanent annual appropriation upon the following conditions:

(1) Purposes and method of expenditure.—First. Such appropriation shall be expended by the trustees of the American Printing House for the Blind each year in manufacturing and furnishing embossed books for the blind and tangible apparatus for their instruction; and the total amount of such books and apparatus so manufactured and furnished by such appropriation shall each year be distributed among all the public institutions for the education of the blind in the States and Territories of the United States and the District of Columbia, upon the requisition of the superintendent of each, duly certified by its board of trustees. The basis of such distribution shall be the total number of pupils in all the public institutions for the education of the blind, to be authenticated in such manner and as often as the trustees of the said American Printing House for the Blind shall require; and each institution shall receive, in books and apparatus, that portion of the appropriation as is shown by the ratio between the number of pupils in that institution for the education of the blind and the total number of pupils in all the public institutions for the education of the blind, which ratio shall be computed upon the first Monday in January of each year.

(2) Buildings.—Second. No part of the appropriation shall be expended in the erection or leasing of buildings.

(3) Sales of books and apparatus at cost.—Third. No profit shall be put on any books or tangible apparatus for the instruction of the blind manufactured or furnished by the trustees of said American Printing House for the Blind, located in Louisville, Kentucky; and the price put upon each article so manufactured or furnished shall only be its actual cost.

(4) Income withheld when not properly used.—Fourth. The Secretary of the Treasury of the United States shall have the authority to withhold the appropriation whenever he shall receive satisfactory proof that the trustees of said American Printing House for the Blind, located in Louisville, Kentucky, are not using the appropriation for the benefit of the blind in the public institutions for the education of the blind in the United States.

(5) Bond of treasurer.—Fifth. Before any money be paid to the treasurer of the American Printing House for the Blind by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, the treasurer of the American Printing House for the Blind shall execute a bond, with two approved sureties, to the amount of $20,000, conditioned that the money so received shall be expended according to this law and all amendments thereto, which shall be held by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, and shall be renewed every two years.

(6) Ex officio trustees.—Sixth. The superintendents of the various public institutions for the education of the blind in the United States shall each, ex officio, be a member of the board of trustees of the American Printing House for the Blind, located in the city of Louisville, Kentucky. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 186, § 3, 20 Stat. 468.)

103. Publications for National Library for the Blind.—Two copies of each of the publications printed by the American Printing House for the Blind shall be furnished free of charge to the National Library for the Blind located at 1729 H Street Northwest, Washington, District of Columbia. (Nov. 4, 1919, c. 93, § 1, 41 Stat. 332.)

104. Annual reports by trustees.—The trustees of said American Printing House for the Blind shall annually make to the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States a report of the items of their expenditure of the appropriation aforesaid during the year preceding their report, and shall annually furnish him with a voucher from each public institution for the education of the blind, showing that the amount of books and tangible apparatus due has been received. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 186, § 4, 20 Stat. 469.)

105. Books for Library of Congress.—The distribution of embossed books manufactured by the American Printing House for the Blind at Louisville, Kentucky, out of the income of the fund provided by this chapter, shall include one copy of every book so manufactured to be deposited in the Library of Congress at Washington. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 142, § 1, 37 Stat. 748.)

Chapter 7.—INSTRUCTION AS TO NATURE AND EFFECT OF ALCOHOLIC DRINKS AND NARCOTICS.

Sec.
111. Study in certain schools of effect of alcoholic drinks and narcotics.
112. Enforcement of section 111.
113. Teachers' certificates dependent on passing examination on effect of alcoholic drinks and narcotics.

Section 111. Study in certain schools of effect of alcoholic drinks and narcotics.—The nature of alcoholic drinks and narcotics, and special instruction as to their effects upon the human system, in connection with the several divisions of the subject of physiology and hygiene, shall be included in the branches of study taught in the common or public schools, and in the military and naval schools, and shall be studied and taught as thoroughly and in the same manner as other like required branches are in said schools, by the use of textbooks in the hands of pupils where other branches are thus studied in said schools, and by all pupils in all said schools throughout the Territories, in the Military and Naval Academies of the United States, and in the District of Columbia, and in all Indian and colored schools in the Territories of the United States. (May 20, 1886, c. 362, § 1, 24 Stat. 69.)

112. Enforcement of section 111.—It shall be the duty of the proper officers in control of any school described in section 111 of this title to enforce the provisions of this chapter; and any such officer, school director, committee, superintendent, or teacher who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the requirements of this chapter, or shall neglect or fail to make proper provisions for the instruction required and in the manner specified by section 111 of this title, for all pupils in each and every school under his jurisdiction, shall be removed from office, and the vacancy filled as in other cases. (May 20, 1886, c. 362, § 2, 24 Stat. 69.)

113. Teachers' certificates dependent on passing examination on effect of alcoholic drinks and narcotics.—No certificate shall be granted to any person to teach in the public schools of the District of Columbia or Territories who has not passed a satisfactory examination in physiology and hygiene, with special reference to the nature and the effects of alcoholic drinks and other narcotics upon the human system. (May 20, 1886, c. 362, § 3, 24 Stat. 69.)

Chapter 8.—HOWARD UNIVERSITY.

Sec.
121. Annual report of president and directors.
122. Limitation on use of appropriations.

Section 121. Annual report of president and directors.—The president and directors of Howard University shall report to the Secretary of the Interior the condition of the institution on the 1st of July of each year, embracing therein the number of pupils received and discharged or leaving the same for any cause during the preceding year, and the number remaining; also, the branches of knowledge and industry taught and the progress made therein together with a statement showing the receipts of the institution and from what sources, and its disbursements, and for what objects. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 208, 27 Stat. 595; July 1, 1898, c. 546, 30 Stat. 624.)

122. Limitation on use of appropriations.—No part of the appropriations made by Congress for the Howard University shall be used, directly or indirectly, for the support of the theological department of said university, nor for the support of any sectarian, denominational, or religious instruction therein; and no part thereof shall be paid to said university until it shall accord to the Secretary of the Interior, or to his designated agent or agents, authority to visit and inspect such university and to control and supervise the expenditure therein of all moneys paid under said appropriations. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 424, 30 Stat. 1101.)

Chapter 9.—NATIONAL TRAINING SCHOOL FOR BOYS.

Sec.
131. Designation of school.
132. Board of trustees; appointment; president.

143. Report by officers to Commissioners of District.
144. Disposition of proceeds of farm and shops.
145. Boys committed; commitment by court or judge, or by president of board of trustees.
146. Period of detention.
147. Number of boys limited to number that can be properly accommodated.
148. Enticing boy from school or harboring escaped boy; arrest and return.
149. Employment and instruction of boys; apprenticing; indentures.
150. Release on parole of juvenile offenders committed.
151. Board of trustees authorized to parole.
152. Support of boys sent to school by District.

Section 131. Designation of school.—The Reform School of the District of Columbia shall be known and designated as the National Training School for Boys. (May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 380.)

132. Board of trustees; appointment; president.—The National Training School for Boys shall be in the charge of, and governed and managed by, a board of seven trustees, who shall be appointed by the President of the United States, upon the recommendation of the Attorney General, each for the term of three years, but in such a manner that the terms of not more than three of them shall expire within any one or the same year. One of the trustees shall be elected president of the board, whose duty shall be prescribed by the board. (May 3, 1876, c. 90, § 1, 19 Stat. 49; May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 380.)

133. Same; Commissioner of District to be trustee.—One of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, to be selected by the Board of Commissioners, shall be a trustee, with all the powers, privileges, and duties of other trustees of said school. (June 4, 1880, c. 121, 21 Stat. 156.)

134. Consulting trustees.—Two consulting trustees shall be appointed, namely, one Senator of the United States, by the Presiding Officer of the Senate, for the term of four years, and one Member of the House of Representatives, by the Speaker thereof, for the term of two years. (May 3, 1876, c. 90, § 16, 19 Stat. 52.)

135. Corporate capacity and powers of board.—The board of trustees shall be a corporation by the name of the "Board of Trustees of the National Training School for Boys," for the purpose of taking and holding, in trust for the United States property of every description which has been purchased, appropriated, or set apart for the use of the institution, or which may hereafter be purchased, appropriated, or set apart for its use, or given or bequeathed to it, or to the said board, for its use, with all power necessary to carry this purpose into effect, and to protect and preserve such property, including the land and buildings, fences, stock, fruit, crops, and trees of all kinds. (May 3, 1876, c. 90, § 2, 19 Stat. 49; May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 380.)

136. By-laws, rules, and regulations.—The board of trustees may make such by-laws, rules, and regulations for their own and the government of the institution, its officers, employees, and inmates, as they may deem necessary and proper. (May 3, 1876, c. 90, § 15, 19 Stat. 52.)

137. Contracts and purchases; president of board its executive officer; annual reports.—All contracts and purchases made for or on account of the school shall be made in the name of the board and by whomsoever the board may direct. The president of the board shall be its executive officer, and it shall be his duty to make an annual report to the Attorney General, to be accompanied by the annual report of the superintendent and treasurer. (May 3, 1876, c. 90, § 14, 19 Stat. 51.)

138. Superintendent and other employees.—The board of trustees may appoint a superintendent, two or more teachers or assistants, and a matron whose salaries are fixed by law; they may also employ two or more master mechanics, a farmer, a gardener, and such other persons, as servants and laborers, as may be necessary, and fix their compensation, subject to the approval of the Attorney General. (May 3, 1876, c. 90, § 3, 19 Stat. 49.)

139. Treasurer; bond; duties.—The board of trustees shall appoint a treasurer, who shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give a bond to the United States with two or more sureties, to be approved by the General Accounting Office, in the sum of $20,000, or a larger sum, at the option of the said General Accounting Office, conditioned that he shall faithfully account for all the money received by him as treasurer; and it shall be his duty to keep a clear and full record of his accounts as treasurer, and report an abstract of the same to the board of trustees once in every two months, and shall also make an annual report to the board of trustees. (May 3, 1876, c. 90, § 4, 19 Stat. 49; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

140. Superintendent's bond.—Before entering upon the duties of his office, the superintendent shall give a bond to the board of trustees, with sureties, to be approved by the Attorney General of the United States, in the sum of $3,000, conditioned that he shall faithfully account for all money received by him, and faithfully perform all the duties incumbent on him as superintendent of said school. (May 3, 1876, c. 90, § 5, 19 Stat. 50.)

141. Powers and duties of superintendent and subordinate officers.—The superintendent shall reside at the institution constantly and he, with such subordinate officers as may be appointed in accordance with section 138 of this title, shall have the charge and custody of the boys; shall govern them in accordance with such rules and regulations as the board of trustees may prescribe in its by-laws; shall employ them in agricultural, mechanical or other labor; shall give them instruction in reading, writing, arithmetic, geography, and such other studies and in such arts and trades as the trustees may direct; and shall employ such methods of discipline as will, as far as possible, reform their characters, preserve their health, promote regular improvement in their studies and employments, and secure in them fixed habits of religion, morality, and industry. (May 3, 1876, c. 90, § 6, 19 Stat. 50.)

142. Control of lands and other property; books of account; register of boys; examinations of school and accounts.—The superintendent shall have charge of the lands, buildings, furniture, tools, implements, stock, provisions, and every other species of property pertaining to the institution, within the precincts thereof, under the board of trustees, including the farm in possession of the board where the school was first located; and he shall keep in suitable books, regular and complete accounts of all his receipts and expenditures, and of all the property intrusted to him, so as to show clearly the income and expenses of the institution; and he shall account, in such manner as the trustees may prescribe, for all the money received by him from the proceeds of the institution or otherwise; and he shall keep a register of the names and ages of all boys committed to the institution, with the dates of their admission and discharge, and such particulars of their history before and after leaving the institution as he can obtain.

His books and all documents relating to the school shall at all times, be open to the inspection of the trustees, who shall, once or more in every month, carefully examine his accounts, and the vouchers and documents connected therewith, and make a record of the result of such examination; and, once in every three months, the institution shall be thoroughly examined in all its departments by three or more of the trustees, and a report of such examination shall be made to the board. (May 3, 1876, c. 90, § 7, 19 Stat. 50.)

143. Report by officers to Commissioners of District.—The officers of said school shall at the end of each fiscal year make a report to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, which shall embrace a full and complete inventory of all the personal property in detail, the number of employees, and number of days each is employed during the year and price paid each, and the amount of garden, field, and other products produced, together with the disposition made of said personal property, products, and so forth. (Mar. 3, 1881, c. 134, § 1, 21 Stat. 50.)

144. Disposition of proceeds of farm and shops.—The proceeds of farm and shops shall be covered back into the Treasury, to be divided equally between the District of Columbia and the United States. (Aug. 6, 1890, c. 724, § 1, 26 Stat. 307.)

145. Boys committed; commitment by court or judge, or by president of board of trustees.—Whenever any boy under the age of seventeen years shall be brought before any court of the District of Columbia, or any judge of such court, and shall be convicted of any crime or misdemeanor punishable by fine or imprisonment, other than imprisonment for life, such court or judge, in lieu of sentencing him to imprisonment in the county jail, or fining him, may commit him to said school, to remain until he shall arrive at the age of twenty-one years, unless sooner discharged by the board of trustees. And the judges of the criminal and police courts of the District of Columbia shall have power to commit to said school, first, any boy under seventeen years of age who may be liable to punishment by imprisonment under any existing law of the District of Columbia, or any law that may be enacted and in force in said District; second, any boy under seventeen years of age, with the consent of his parent or guardian, against whom any charge of committing any crime or misdemeanor shall have been made, the punishment of which, on conviction, would be confinement in jail or prison; third, any boy under seventeen years of age who is destitute of a suitable home and adequate means of obtaining an honest living, or who is in danger of being brought up, or is brought up, to lead an idle or vicious life; fourth, any boy under seventeen years of age who is incorrigible, or habitually disregards the commands of his father or mother, or guardian, who leads a vagrant life, or resorts to immoral places or practices, or neglects or refuses to perform labor suitable to his years and condition, or to attend school. And the president of the board of trustees may also commit to said school such boys as are mentioned in the foregoing third and fourth classes upon application or complaint in writing of a parent, or guardian, or relative having charge of such boy, and upon such testimony in regard to the facts stated as shall be satisfactory to him; and for taking testimony in such cases, he is hereby empowered to administer oaths. (May 3, 1876, c. 90, § 8, 19 Stat. 50; June 5, 1900, c. 715, 31 Stat. 266.)

146. Period of detention.—Every boy sent to said school shall remain until he is twenty-one years of age, unless sooner discharged or bound as an apprentice. (May 3, 1876, c. 90, § 9, 19 Stat. 51; June 5, 1900, c. 715, 31 Stat. 267.)

147. Number of boys limited to number that can be properly accommodated.—Whenever there shall be as large a number of boys in the school as can be properly accommodated, it shall be the duty of the president of the board of trustees to give notice to the criminal and police courts of the fact, whereupon no boys shall be sent to the school by said courts until notice shall be given them by the president of the board that more can be received. (May 3, 1876, c. 90, § 10, 19 Stat. 51.)

148. Enticing boy from school or harboring escaped boy; arrest and return.—If any person shall entice, or attempt to entice, away from said school any boy legally committed to the same, or shall harbor, conceal, or aid in harboring or concealing any boy who shall have escaped from said school, such person shall, upon conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall pay a fine of not less than $10 or more than $100, which shall be paid to the treasurer of the board of trustees; and any policeman shall have power, and it is hereby made his duty, to arrest any boy, when in his power so to do, who shall have escaped from said school, and return him thereto. (May 3, 1876, c. 90, § 11, 19 Stat. 51.)

149. Employment and instruction of boys; apprenticing; indentures.—The trustees shall have full power to place any boy committed as herein described, during his minority, at such employment and cause him to be instructed in such branches of useful knowledge, as may be suitable to his years and capacity, as they may see fit; and they may, with the consent of any such boy, bind him out as an apprentice during his minority, or for a shorter period, to learn such trade and employment as in their judgment will tend to his future benefit; and the president of the board shall, for such purpose, have power to execute and deliver, on behalf of the said board, indentures of apprenticeship for any such boy; and such indentures shall have the same force and effect as other indentures of apprenticeship under the laws of the District of Columbia, and be filed and kept among the records in the office of the said school and it shall not be necessary to record or file them elsewhere. (May 3, 1876, c. 90, § 12, 19 Stat. 51.)

150. Release on parole of juvenile offenders committed.—Every male juvenile offender who is now or may hereafter be committed to said school, and who has by his conduct given sufficient evidence that he has reformed, may be released on parole as provided in this chapter. (Feb. 26, 1909, c. 217, § 1, 35 Stat. 657.)

151. Board of trustees authorized to parole.—If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the board of trustees of said school that there is reasonable probability that any boy detained in the said school will, if conditionally released, remain at liberty without violating the laws, then said board of trustees may in its discretion parole such boy under such conditions and regulations as the said board of trustees may deem proper. The parole of all such juvenile offenders committed by courts other than those of the District of Columbia shall be subject to the approval of the Attorney General of the United States. (Feb. 26, 1909, c. 217, § 2, 35 Stat. 657.)

152. Support of boys sent to school by District.—For the support of the boys sent to said school, as hereinbefore mentioned the District of Columbia shall pay to the board of trustees the actual per capita cost of maintenance of such boys; and it shall be the duty of the superintendent to make out and render to the proper officers monthly accounts at the close of each month for the support of the boys in said school, which shall be paid on demand; and, if not paid within ten days from the time the account is presented, shall draw interest at the rate of 1 per centum per month until paid. (May 3, 1876, c. 90, § 13, 19 Stat. 51; Aug. 1, 1914, c. 223, § 1, 38 Stat. 657; Mar. 28, 1918, c. 28, § 1, 40 Stat. 494.)

168. Provisions relating to National Training School for Boys applicable.
169. Girls committed; commitment by court or judge, or by president of board of trustees.
170. Period of detention.
171. Release on parole of juvenile offenders committed.
172. Board of trustees authorized to parole.
173. Appropriations; disbursement.
174. Right to amend or repeal chapter.

Section 161. Designation of school.—The Reform School for Girls of the District of Columbia shall be known and designated as the National Training School for Girls. (June 26, 1912, c. 182, § 1, 37 Stat. 171.)

162. Board of trustees; incorporation.—That Samuel S. Shellabarger, Augustus S. Worthington, Adoniram J. Huntington, William C. Dodge, Mills Dean, Owen G. Staples, James E. Fitch, Thomas P. Morgan, and Alexander Graham Bell, and their successors, are created a body corporate to be known as the Board of Trustees of the National Training School for Girls. Their successors in office shall be appointed in like manner as the trustees of the National Training School for Boys are appointed. (July 9, 1888, c. 595, §§ 1, 7, 25 Stat. 245, 246; June 26, 1912, c. 182, § 1, 37 Stat. 171.)

163. Corporate powers; property.—Said corporation is authorized and empowered to establish and maintain a training school for girls at any place within the District of Columbia, subject to the approval of the commissioners thereof, and for that purpose may take and receive by gift, grant, or devise, such real estate and personal property as may be necessary for the purposes of said corporation. At the dissolution of said corporation, or if it should cease for the space of six months to maintain a training school for girls, all the property, real and personal, of said corporation shall vest in the United States. (July 9, 1888, c. 595, § 2, 25 Stat. 245.)

164. Powers of board of trustees.—The board of trustees shall have the same power and authority in relation to girls as the board of trustees of the National Training School for Boys possess in relation to boys. (July 9, 1888, c. 595, § 3, 25 Stat. 246; May 27, 1908, c. 200 § 1, 35 Stat. 380.)

165. By-laws, rules, and regulations; release of girls.—The board of trustees may make such by-laws, rules, and regulations for their own government and that of the institution, its officers, teachers, employees, and inmates, the employment, discipline, instruction, education, removal, and absolute, temporary, or conditional release of all girls committed to the school as they may deem necessary and proper and as are not contrary to the Constitution and to the laws of the District of Columbia; and may from time to time alter, amend, and change the same. (May 3, 1876, c. 90, § 15, 19 Stat. 52; July 9, 1888, c. 595, § 5, 25 Stat. 246; Feb. 25, 1901, c. 478, 31 Stat. 809.)

166. Officers and employees; appointment; compensation.—The board of trustees shall have authority to appoint such officers, agents, teachers, and other employees as may be necessary, and fix the rate of compensation of the same, subject to the approval of the Commisioners of the District of Columbia. (July 9, 1888, c. 595, § 4, 25 Stat. 246.)

167. Control over inmates.—The board of trustees of said school shall have the same power and authority over such girls during the period of their commitment to the school, or while they are being conducted to or from said school, as they possess over such girls within the limits of the District of Columbia. When the buildings authorized to be constructed shall be in readiness to receive girls committed to said school, it shall not be lawful to keep white and colored girls on the same reservations under the control of the board of trustees of said school. (Feb. 28, 1923, c. 148, § 1, 42 Stat. 1358.)

168. Provisions relating to National Training School for Boys applicable.—All the sections of chapter 9 of this title, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, are hereby made applicable to the National Training School for Girls of the District of Columbia, except the word "girls" shall be understood wherever the word "boys" occurs in said chapter, and the words "eighteen years" wherever the words "sixteen years" occur. (July 9, 1888, c. 595, § 6, 25 Stat. 246; June 26, 1912, c. 182, § 1, 37 Stat 171.)

169. Girls committed; commitment by court or judge, or by president of board of trustees.—Whenever any girl under the age of seventeen years shall be brought before any court of the District of Columbia or any judge of such court, and shall be convicted of any crime or misdemeanor punishable by fine or imprisonment other than imprisonment for life, such court or judge, in lieu of sentencing her to imprisonment in the county jail or fining her, may commit her to said school, to remain until she shall arrive at the age of twenty-one years unless sooner discharged by the board of trustees. And the judges of the criminal and police courts of the District of Columbia shall have power to commit to said school, first, any girl under seventeen years of age who may be liable to punishment by imprisonment under any existing law of the District of Columbia or any law that may be enacted and in force in said District; second, any girl under seventeen years of age, with the consent of her parent or guardian, against whom any charge of crime or misdemeanor shall have been made, upon probable cause shown to the satisfaction of the court; third, any girl under seventeen years of age who is destitute of a suitable home and adequate means of obtaining an honest living or who is in danger of being brought up, or is brought up, to lead an idle or vicious life; fourth, any girl under seventeen years of age who is incorrigible or habitually disregards the commands of her father or mother or guardian, who leads a vagrant life, or resorts to immoral places or practices, or neglects or refuses to perform labor suitable to her years and condition or to attend school. And the president of the board of trustees may also commit to said school such girls as are mentioned in the foregoing third and fourth classes upon application or complaint, in writing, of a parent or guardian or relative having charge of such girl, and upon such testimony in regard to the facts stated as shall be satisfactory to him; and for taking testimony in such cases he is hereby empowered to administer oaths. (May 3, 1876, c. 90, § 8, 19 Stat. 50; Feb. 25, 1901, c. 478, 31 Stat. 809.)

170. Period of detention.—Every girl sent to the National Training School for Girls shall remain until she is twenty-one years of age unless sooner discharged or bound as an apprentice. (May 3, 1876, c. 90, § 9, 19 Stat. 51; Feb. 25, 1901, c. 478, 31 Stat. 809; June 26, 1912, c. 182, § 1, 37 Stat. 171.)

171. Release on parole of juvenile offenders committed.—Every female juvenile offender who is now or may hereafter be committed to said school, and who has by her conduct given sufficient evidence that she has reformed, may be released on parole as hereinafter provided. (Apr. 15, 1910, c. 164, § 1, 36 Stat. 300.)

172. Board of trustees authorized to parole.—If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the board of trustees of said school that there is reasonable probability that any girl detained in the said school will, if conditionally released, remain at liberty without violating the laws, then said board of trustees may, in its discretion, parole such girl under such conditions and regulations as the said board of trustees may deem proper. The parole of all such juvenile offenders committed by courts other than those of the District of Columbia shall be subject to the approval of the Attorney General of the United States. (Apr. 15, 1910, c. 164, § 2, 36 Stat. 300.)

173. Appropriations; disbursement.—Appropriations made for the National Training School for Girls shall be disbursed by the disbursing officer of the District of Columbia in the manner provided by law for expenditure from appropriations for general expenses of the government of said District. (June 5, 1920, c. 234, § 1, 41 Stat. 865.)

174. Right to amend or repeal chapter.—Congress shall have the right to alter, amend, or repeal this chapter at any time. (July 9, 1888, c. 595, § 8, 25 Stat. 246.)

Section 1. Adulterated or misbranded foods or drugs; manufacture in Territories or District of Columbia unlawful; penalty.—It shall be unlawful for any person to manufacture within any Territory or the District of Columbia any article of food or drug which is adulterated or misbranded, within the meaning of sections 1 to 15, inclusive, of this title; and any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and for each offense shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not to exceed $500 or shall be sentenced to one year's imprisonment, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court, and for each subsequent offense and conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $1,000 or sentenced to one year's imprisonment, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. (June 30, 1906, c. 3915, § 1, 34 Stat. 768.)

2. Same; interstate or foreign commerce in prohibited; sale in Territories or District of Columbia; penalty.—The introduction into any State or Territory or the District of Columbia from any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or from any foreign country, or shipment to any foreign country of any article of food or drugs which is adulterated or misbranded, within the meaning of sections 1 to 15, inclusive, of this title, is prohibited; and any person who shall ship or deliver for shipment from any State or Territory or the District of Columbia to any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or to a foreign country, or who shall receive in any State or Territory or the District of Columbia from any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or foreign country, and having so received, shall deliver, in original unbroken packages, for pay or otherwise, or offer to deliver to any other person, any such article so adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of said sections, or any person who shall sell or offer for sale in the District of Columbia or the Territories of the United States any such adulterated or misbranded foods or drugs, or export or offer to export the same to any foreign country, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and for such offense be fined not exceeding $200 for the first offense, and upon conviction for each subsequent offense not exceeding $300 or be imprisoned not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court. No article shall be deemed misbranded or adulterated within the provisions of said sections when intended for export to any foreign country and prepared or packed according to the specifications or directions of the foreign purchaser when no substance is used in the preparation or packing thereof in conflict with the laws of the foreign country to which said article is intended to be shipped; but if said article shall be in fact sold or offered for sale for domestic use or consumption, then this proviso shall not exempt said article from the operation of any of the other provisions of the sections hereinbefore enumerated. (June 30, 1906, c. 3915, § 2, 34 Stat. 768.)

3. Regulations for carrying out food and drug laws.—The Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of Agriculture, and the Secretary of Commerce shall make uniform rules and regulations for carrying out the provisions of sections 1 to 15, inclusive, of this title, including the collection and examination of specimens of foods and drugs manufactured or offered for sale in the District of Columbia, or in any Territory of the United States, or which shall be offered for sale in unbroken packages in any State other than that in which they shall have been respectively manufactured or produced, or which shall be received from any foreign country, or intended for shipment to any foreign country, or which may be submitted for examination by the chief health, food, or drug officer of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or at any domestic or foreign port through which such product is offered for interstate commerce, or for export or import between the United States and any foreign port or country. (June 30, 1906, c. 3915, § 3, 34 Stat. 768; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

4. Act or omission of officer, agent, and so forth, of corporation deemed act or omission of corporation.—When construing and enforcing the provisions of sections 1 to 15, inclusive, of this title, the act, omission, or failure of any officer, agent, or other person acting for or employed by any corporation, company, society, or association, within the scope of his employment or office, shall in every case be also deemed to be the act, omission, or failure of such corporation, company, society, or association as well as that of the person. (June 30, 1906, c. 3915, § 12, 34 Stat. 772.)

5. Definitions—"Territory"; "person."—The term "Territory" as used in this chapter shall include the insular possessions of the United States. The word "person" shall be construed to import both the plural and the singular, as the case demands, and shall include corporations, companies, societies, and associations. (June 30, 1906, c. 3915, § 12, 34 Stat. 772.)

6. Same; "butter."—For the purposes of sections 1 to 15, inclusive, of this title, "butter" shall be understood to mean the food product usually known as butter, and which is made exclusively from milk or cream, or both, with or without common salt, and with or without additional coloring matter, and containing not less than 80 per centum by weight of milk fat, all tolerances having been allowed for. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 268, 42 Stat. 1500.)

7. Same; "drug" and "food."—The term "drug," as used in sections 1 to 15, inclusive, of this title, shall include all medicines and preparations recognized in the United States Pharmacopœia or National Formulary for internal or external use, and any substance or mixture of substances intended to be used for the cure, mitigation, or prevention of disease of either man or other animals. The term "food," as used in said sections, shall include all articles used for food, drink, confectionery, or condiment by man or other animals, whether simple, mixed, or compound. (June 30, 1906, c. 3915, § 6, 34 Stat. 769.)

8. Adulterated articles.—For the purposes of sections 1 to 15, inclusive, of this title, an article shall be deemed to be adulterated;

Drugs.—In case of drugs:

Difference from recognized standards; explanatory statement on or in container.—First. If, when a drug is sold under or by a name recognized in the United States Pharmacopœia or National Formulary, it differs from the standard of strength, quality, or purity, as determined by the test laid down in the United States Pharmacopœia or National Formulary official at the time of investigation. No drug defined in the United States Pharmacopœia or National Formulary shall be deemed to be adulterated under this provision if the standard of strength, quality, or purity be plainly stated upon the bottle, box, or other container thereof although the standard may differ from that determined by the test laid down in the United States Pharmacopœia or National Formulary.

Below professed standard.—Second. If its strength or purity fall below the professed standard or quality under which it is sold.

Confectionery.—In the case of confectionery:

Mineral substances, poisonous color or flavors, other deleterious ingredients, liquors or narcotics.—If it contain terra alba, barytes, talc, chrome yellow, or other mineral substance or poisonous color or flavor, or other ingredient deleterious or detrimental to health, or any vinous, malt or spirituous liquor or compound or narcotic drug.

Food.—In the case of food:

Injurious mixtures.—First. If any substance has been mixed and packed with it so as to reduce or lower or injuriously affect its quality or strength.

Substitutes.—Second. If any substance has been substituted wholly or in part for the article.

Valuable constituents abstracted.—Third. If any valuable constituent of the article has been wholly or in part abstracted.

Damage or inferiority concealed.—Fourth. If it be mixed, colored, powdered, coated, or stained in a manner whereby damage or inferiority is concealed.

Deleterious ingredients; preservatives in shipment conditionally excepted.—Fifth. If it contain any added poisonous or other added deleterious ingredient which may render such article injurious to health. When in the preparation of food products for shipment they are preserved by any external application applied in such manner that the preservative is necessarily removed mechanically, or by maceration in water, or otherwise, and directions for the removal of said preservative shall be printed on the covering or the package, the provisions of sections 1 to 15, inclusive, of this title shall be construed as applying only when said products are ready for consumption.

Animal or vegetable substances unfit for food; products of animals diseased or having died otherwise than by slaughter.—Sixth. If it consists in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed, or putrid animal or vegetable substance, or any portion of an animal unfit for food, whether manufactured or not, or if it is the product of a diseased animal, or one that has died otherwise than by slaughter. (June 30, 1906, c. 3915, § 7, 34 Stat. 769.)

9. Misbranded; meaning and application.—The term "misbranded," as used in sections 1 to 15, inclusive, of this title, shall apply to all drugs, or articles of food, or articles which enter into the composition of food, the package or label of which shall bear any statement, design, or device regarding such article, or the ingredients or substances contained therein which shall be false or misleading in any particular, and to any food or drug product which is falsely branded as to the State, Territory, or country in which it is manufactured or produced. (June 30, 1906, c. 3915, § 8, 34 Stat. 771; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 352, 37 Stat. 416; Mar. 3, 1913, c. 117, 37 Stat. 732.)

10. Misbranded articles.—For the purposes of sections 1 to 15, inclusive, of this title, an article shall be deemed to be misbranded;

Drugs.—In case of drugs:

Imitation or use of name of other article.—First. If it be an imitation of or offered for sale under the name of another article.

Removal and substitution of contents of package, or failure to state on label quantity or proportion of narcotics therein.—Second. If the contents of the package as originally put up shall have been removed, in whole or in part, and other contents shall have been placed in such package, or if the package fail to bear a statement on the label of the quantity or proportion of any alcohol, morphine, opium, cocaine, heroin, alpha or beta eucaine, chloroform, cannabis indica, chloral hydrate, or acetanilide, or any derivative or preparation of any such substances contained therein.

False statement of curative or therapeutic effect.—Third. If its package or label shall bear or contain any statement, design, or device regarding the curative or therapeutic effect of such article or any of the ingredients or substances contained therein, which is false and fraudulent.

Foods.—In the case of food:

Imitation or use of name of other article.—First. If it be an imitation of or offered for sale under the distinctive name of another article.

False label or brand removal and substitution of contents of package, or failure to state on label quantity or proportion of narcotics therein.—Second. If it be labeled or branded so as to deceive or mislead the purchaser, or purport to be a foreign product when not so, or if the contents of the package as originally put up shall have been removed in whole or in part and other contents shall have been placed in such package, or if it fail to bear a statement on the label of the quantity or proportion of any morphine, opium, cocaine, heroin, alpha or beta eucaine, chloroform, cannabis indica, chloral hydrate, or acetanilide, or any derivative or preparation of any of such substances contained therein.

Packages not marked with weight; variations and exemptions permitted.—Third. If in package form, the quantity of the contents be not plainly and conspicuously marked on the outside of the package in terms of weight, measure, or numerical count. Reasonable variations shall be permitted, and tolerances and also exemptions as to small packages shall be established by rules and regulations made in accordance with the provisions of section 3 of this title. The word "package" as used in this paragraph shall include and shall be construed to include wrapped meats inclosed in papers or other materials as prepared by the manufacturers thereof for sale.

False or misleading statements on package or label as to ingredients or substances.—Fourth. If the package containing it or its label shall bear any statement, design, or device regarding the ingredients or the substances contained therein, which statement, design, or device shall be false or misleading in any particular. An article of food which does not contain any added poisonous or deleterious ingredients shall not be deemed to be adulterated or misbranded in the following cases:

Mixtures or compounds under distinctive names.—First. In the case of mixtures or compounds which may be now or from time to time hereafter known as articles of food, under their own distinctive names, and not an imitation of or offered for sale under the distinctive name of another article, if the name be accompanied on the same label or brand with a statement of the place where said article has been manufactured or produced.

Articles labeled, branded as compounds, imitations, or blends; construction of term "blend"; disclosure of trade formulas of proprietary foods.—Second. In the case of articles labeled, branded, or tagged so as to plainly indicate that they are compounds, imitations, or blends, and the word "compound," "imitation," or "blend," as the case may be, is plainly stated on the package in which it is offered for sale. The term blend as used herein shall be construed to mean a mixture of like substances, not excluding harmless coloring or flavoring ingredients used for the purpose of coloring and flavoring only. Nothing in sections 1 to 15, inclusive, of this title shall be construed as requiring or compelling proprietors or manufacturers of proprietary foods which contain no unwholesome added ingredient to disclose their trade formulas, except in so far as the provisions of such sections may require to secure freedom from adulteration or misbranding. (June 30, 1906, c. 3915, § 8, 34 Stat. 771; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 352, 37 Stat. 416; Mar. 3, 1913, c. 117, 37 Stat. 732; July 24, 1919, c. 26, 41 Stat. 271.)

11. Examination of specimens; notice of adulteration or misbranding; hearing; certification of violations to district attorney; notice of judgment.—The examinations of specimens of foods and drugs shall be made in the Bureau of Chemistry of the Department of Agriculture, or under the direction and supervision of such Bureau, for the purpose of determining from such examinations whether such articles are adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of sections 1 to 15, inclusive, of this title; and if it shall appear from any such examination that any of such specimens is adulterated or misbranded, the Secretary of Agriculture shall cause notice thereof to be given to the party from whom such sample was obtained. Any party so notified shall be given an opportunity to be heard, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed as aforesaid, and if it appears that any of the provisions of said sections have been violated by such party, then the Secretary of Agriculture shall at once certify the facts to the proper United States district attorney, with a copy of the results of the analysis or the examination of such article duly authenticated by the analyst or officer making such examination, under the oath of such officer. After judgment of the court, notice shall be given by publication in such manner as may be prescribed by the rules and regulations aforesaid. (June 30, 1906, c. 3915, § 4, 34 Stat. 769; Feb. 10, 1925, c. 200, 43 Stat. 837.)

12. Prosecution by district attorneys.—It shall be the duty of each district attorney to whom the Secretary of Agriculture shall report any violation of sections 1 to 15, inclusive, of this title, or to whom any health or food or drug officer or agent of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia shall present satisfactory evidence of any such violation, to cause appropriate proceedings to be commenced and prosecuted in the proper courts of the United States, without delay, for the enforcement of the penalties as in such case herein provided. (June 30, 1906, c. 3915, § 5, 34 Stat. 769.)

13. Dealers; sellers' guaranty as protection for.—No dealer shall be prosecuted under the provisions of sections 1 to 15, inclusive, of this title when he can establish a guaranty signed by the wholesaler, jobber, manufacturer, or other party residing in the United States, from whom he purchases such articles, to the effect that the same is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of said sections, designating it. Said guaranty, to afford protection, shall contain the name and address of the party or parties making the sale of such articles to such dealer, and in such case said party or parties shall be amenable to the prosecutions, fines, and other penalties which would attach, in due course, to the dealer under the provisions of said sections. (June 30, 1906, c. 3915, § 9, 34 Stat. 771.)

14. Seizure of articles upon discovery for condemnation; disposition; delivery to owner on bond; proceedings.—Any article of food, drug, or liquor that is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of sections 1 to 15, inclusive, of this title, and is being transported from one State, Territory, District, or insular possession to another for sale, or, having been transported, remains unloaded, unsold, or in original unbroken packages, or if it be sold or offered for sale in the District of Columbia or the Territories, or insular possessions of the United States, or if it be imported from a foreign country for sale, or if it is intended for export to a foreign country, shall be liable to be proceeded against in any district court of the United States within the district where the same is found, and seized for confiscation by a process of libel for condemnation. And if such article is condemned as being adulterated or misbranded, or of a poisonous or deleterious character, within the meaning of said sections, the same shall be disposed of by destruction or sale, as the said court may direct, and the proceeds thereof, if sold, less the legal costs and charges, shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States, but such goods shall not be sold in any jurisdiction contrary to the provisions of said sections or the laws of that jurisdiction. Upon the payment of the costs of such libel proceedings and the execution and delivery of a good and sufficient bond to the effect that such articles shall not be sold or otherwise disposed of contrary to the provisions of said sections, or the laws of any State, Territory, District, or insular possession, the court may by order direct that such articles be delivered to the owner thereof. The proceedings of such libel cases shall conform, as near as may be, to the proceedings in admiralty, except that either party may demand trial by jury of any issue of fact joined in any such case, and all such proceedings shall be at the suit of and in the name of the United States. (June 30, 1906, c. 3915, § 10, 34 Stat. 771.)

15. Examination of samples of imports; refusal of admission and delivery to consignee; delivery to consignee pending examination and decision on bond; charges for storage and lien therefor.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall deliver to the Secretary of Agriculture, upon his request from time to time, samples of foods and drugs which are being imported into the United States or offered for import, giving notice thereof to the owner or consignee, who may appear before the Secretary of Agriculture, and have the right to introduce testimony, and if it appear from the examination of such samples that any article of food or drug offered to be imported into the United States is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of sections 1 to 15, inclusive, of this title, or is otherwise dangerous to the health of the people of the United States, or is of a kind forbidden entry into, or forbidden to be sold or restricted in sale in the country in which it is made or from which it is exported, or is otherwise falsely labeled in any respect, the said article shall be refused admission, and the Secretary of the Treasury shall refuse delivery to the consignee and shall cause the destruction of any goods refused delivery which shall not be exported by the consignee within three months from the date of notice of such refusal under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. The Secretary of the Treasury may, however, deliver to the consignee such goods pending examination and decision in the matter on execution of a penal bond for the amount of the full invoice value of such goods, together with the duty thereon, and on refusal to return such goods for any cause to the custody of the Secretary of the Treasury, when demanded, for the purpose of excluding them from the country, or for any other purpose, said consignee shall forfeit the full amount of the bond. All charges for storage, cartage, and labor on goods which are refused admission or delivery shall be paid by the owner or consignee, and in default of such payment shall constitute a lien against any future importation made by such owner or consignee. (June 30, 1906, c. 3915, § 11, 34 Stat. 772.)

16. Introduction into, or sale in, State or Territory or District of Columbia of dairy or food products falsely labeled or branded.—No person or persons, company or corporation, shall introduce into any State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia from any other State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia, or sell in the District of Columbia or in any Territory any dairy or food products which shall be falsely labeled or branded as to the State or Territory in which they are made, produced, or grown, or cause or procure the same to be done by others. (July 1, 1902, c. 1357, § 1, 32 Stat. 632.)

17. Same; penalty; jurisdiction of prosecutions.—If any person or persons violate the provisions of section 16 of this title, either in person or through another, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $2,000. The jurisdiction for the prosecution of said misdemeanor shall be within the district of the United States court in which it is committed. (July 1, 1902, c. 1357, § 2, 32 Stat. 632.)

18. Suspension of importation of adulterated articles.—Whenever the President is satisfied that there is good reason to believe that any importation is being made, or is about to be made, into the United States, from any foreign country, of any article used for human food or drink that is adulterated to an extent dangerous to the health or welfare of the people of the United States, or any of them, he may issue his proclamation suspending the importation of such articles from such country for such period of time as he may think necessary to prevent such importation; and during such period it shall be unlawful to import into the United States from the countries designated in the proclamation of the President any of the articles the importation of which is so suspended. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 839, § 4, 26 Stat. 415.)

19. Report to Congress of expenditures in enforcing food and drug laws.—Any sum used for compensation of or payment of expenses to any officer or other person employed by any State, county, or municipal government, for the purposes of carrying the provisions of sections 1 to 15, inclusive, of this title into effect, shall be reported to Congress in detail, on the first Monday of December of each year. (May 23, 1908, c. 192, 35 Stat. 261.)

20. Apples in interstate commerce; standard grades.—The standard grades for apples when packed in barrels which shall be shipped or delivered for shipment in interstate or foreign commerce, or which shall be sold or offered for sale within the District of Columbia or the Territories of the United States shall be as follows: Apples of one variety, which are well-grown specimens, hand picked, of good color for the variety, normal shape, practically free from insect and fungous injury, bruises, and other defects, except such as are necessarily caused in the operation of packing, or apples of one variety which are not more than 10 per centum below the foregoing specifications shall be "Standard grade minimum size two and one-half inches," if the minimum size of the apples is two and one-half inches in transverse diameter; "Standard grade minimum size two and one-fourth inches," if the minimum size of the apples is two and one-fourth inches in transverse diameter; or "Standard grade minimum size two inches," if the minimum size of the apples is two inches in transverse diameter. (Aug. 3, 1912, c. 273, § 2, 37 Stat. 250.)

21. Same; branding grades on barrels.—The barrels in which apples are packed in accordance with the provisions of sections 20 to 23 of this title may be branded in accordance with the provisions of section 20 of this title. (Aug. 3, 1912, c. 273, § 3, 37 Stat. 251.)

22. Same; barrels misbranded.—Barrels packed with apples shall be deemed to be misbranded within the meaning of section 20 of this title—

First. If the barrel bears any statement, design, or device indicating that the apples contained therein are "Standard" grade and the apples when packed do not conform to the requirements prescribed by section 20.

Second. If the barrel bears any statement, design, or device indicating that the apples contained therein are "Standard" grade and the barrel fails to bear also a statement of the name of the variety, the name of the locality where grown, and the name of the packer or the person by whose authority the apples were packed and the barrel marked. (Aug. 3, 1912, c. 273, § 5, 37 Stat. 251.)

23. Same; penalty for violations.—Any person, firm or corporation, or association who shall knowingly pack or cause to be packed apples in barrels or who shall knowingly sell or offer for sale such barrels in violation of the provisions of sections 20, 21, and 22 of this title shall be liable to a penalty of $1 and costs for each such barrel so sold or offered for sale, to be recovered at the suit of the United States in any court of the United States having jurisdiction. (Aug. 3, 1912, c. 273, § 6, 37 Stat. 251.)

24. Inspection of American food products for export; certificate issued upon payment of actual cost.—In connection with investigating the character of the chemical and physical tests which are applied to American food products in foreign countries, and for inspecting the same before shipment when desired by the shippers or owners of these products intended for countries where chemical and physical tests are required before the said products are allowed to be sold therein, but no certificate of results of any such inspection shall issue unless the owner or his agent shall first pay to the Secretary of Agriculture, at a price to be determined and established by the Secretary, the actual cost of the inspection, the money received to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 144, 38 Stat. 1102; Feb. 10, 1925, c. 200, 43 Stat. 837.)

25. Oleomargarine, butterine, or imitation butter or cheese transported into a State subject to its police powers.—All articles known as oleomargarine, butterine, imitation, process, renovated, or adulterated butter, or imitation cheese, or any substance in the semblance of butter or cheese not the usual product of the dairy and not made exclusively of pure and unadulterated milk or cream, transported into any State or Territory or the District of Columbia, and remaining therein for use, consumption, sale, or storage therein, shall, upon the arrival within the limits of such State or Territory or the District of Columbia, be subject to the operation and effect of the laws of such State or Territory or the District of Columbia, enacted in the exercise of its police powers to the same extent and in the same manner as though such articles or substances had been produced in such State or Territory or the District of Columbia, and shall not be exempt therefrom by reason of being introduced therein in original packages or otherwise. (May 9, 1902, c. 784, § 1, 32 Stat. 193; Feb. 10, 1925, c. 200, 43 Stat. 827.)

Chapter 2.—TEAS.

Sec.
41. Importation of tea inferior to standard; bond of importer; regulation of use of inferior importation.
42. Board of experts; appointment; term; vacancies; compensation.
43. Standards of purity; duplicate samples at customhouses and for importers and dealers.
44. Bonds of importers; examination; importations at ports having no examiner.
45. Permit for delivery; retention of inferior grades; reexamination; partial delivery.
46. Examiners; examination according to usages of trade.
47. United States Board of Tea Appeals; permit for delivery; exportation or destruction of inferior grades.
48. Reexamination; findings by examiner; assistance of experts.
49. Reimporting rejected teas; forfeiture.
50. Regulations.

Section 41. Importation of tea inferior to standard; bond of importer; regulation of use of inferior importation.—It shall be unlawful for any person or persons or corporation to import or bring into the United States any merchandise as tea which is inferior in purity, quality, and fitness for consumption to the standards provided in section 43 of this title, and the importation of all such merchandise is prohibited. Nothing in this chapter shall affect or prevent the importation into the United States, under such regulations as the Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe, of any merchandise as tea which may be inferior in purity, quality, and fitness for consumption to the standards established by the Secretary of Agriculture, or of any tea waste, tea siftings, or tea sweepings, for the sole purpose of manufacturing theine, caffeine, or other chemical products whereby the identity and character of the original material is entirely destroyed or changed; importers and manufacturers who import or bring into the United States such tea, tea waste, tea siftings, or tea sweepings shall give suitable bond, to be subject to the approval only of the collector of customs at the port of entry, conditioned that said imported material shall be only used for the purposes herein provided, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture. (Mar. 2, 1897, c. 358, § 1, 29 Stat. 604; May 16, 1908, c. 170, 35 Stat. 163; May 31, 1920, c. 217, 41 Stat. 712.)

42. Board of experts; appointment; term; vacancies; compensation.—On or before February 15 of each year, the Secretary of Agriculture shall appoint a board, to consist of seven members, each of whom shall be an expert in teas, and who shall prepare and submit to him standard samples of tea. The persons so appointed shall be at all times subject to removal by the said Secretary, and shall serve for the term of one year. Vacancies in the said board occurring by removal, death, resignation, or any other cause shall be forthwith filled by the Secretary of Agriculture by appointment, such appointee to hold for the unexpired term. Said board shall appoint a presiding officer, who shall be the medium of all communications to or from such board. Each member of said board shall receive as compensation the sum of $50 per annum, which, together with all necessary expenses while engaged upon the duty herein provided, shall be paid out of the appropriation for "Expenses of collecting the revenue from customs." (Mar. 2, 1897, c. 358, § 2, 29 Stat. 605; May 31, 1920, c. 217, 41 Stat. 712.)

43. Standards of purity; duplicate samples at customhouses and for importers and dealers.—The Secretary of Agriculture, upon the recommendation of the board of experts provided in section 42 of this title, shall fix and establish uniform standards of purity, quality, and fitness for consumption of all kinds of teas imported into the United States, and shall procure and deposit in the customhouses of the ports of New York, Chicago, San Francisco, and such other ports as he may determine, duplicate samples of such standards. Said Secretary shall procure a sufficient number of other duplicate samples of such standards to supply the importers and dealers in tea at all ports desiring the same at cost. All teas, or merchandise described as tea, of inferior purity, quality, and fitness for consumption to such standards shall be deemed within the prohibition of section 41 of this title. (Mar. 2, 1897, c. 358, § 3, 29 Stat. 605; May 31, 1920, c. 217, 41 Stat. 712.)

44. Bonds of importers; examination; importations at ports having no examiner.—On making entry at the customhouse of all teas, or merchandise described as tea, imported into the United States, the importer or consignee shall give a bond to the collector of the port that such merchandise shall not be removed from the warehouse until released by the collector, after it shall have been duly examined with reference to its purity, quality, and fitness for consumption. For the purpose of such examination samples of each line in every invoice of tea shall be submitted by the importer or consignee to the examiner, together with the sworn statement of such importer or consignee that such samples represent the true quality of each and every part of the invoice and accord with the specifications therein contained; or in the discretion of the Secretary of Agriculture, such samples shall be obtained by the examiner and compared by him with the standards established by this chapter. In cases where said tea, or merchandise described as tea, is entered at ports where there is no qualified examiner as provided in section 46 of this title, the consignee or importer shall in the manner aforesaid furnish under oath a sample of each line of tea to the collector or other revenue officer to whom is committed the collection of duties, and said officer shall also draw or cause to be drawn samples of each line in every invoice and shall forward the same to a duly qualified examiner as provided in said section. The bond above required shall also be conditioned for the payment of all customhouse charges which may attach to such merchandise prior to its being released or destroyed (as the case may be) under the provisions of this chapter. (Mar. 2, 1897, c. 358, § 4, 29 Stat. 605; May 31, 1920, c. 217, 41 Stat. 712.)

45. Permit for delivery; retention of inferior grades; reexamination; partial delivery.—If, after an examination as provided in section 44 of this title, the tea is found by the examiner to be equal in purity, quality, and fitness for consumption to the standards hereinbefore provided, and no reexamination shall be demanded by the collector as provided in section 47 of this title, a permit shall at once be granted to the importer or consignee declaring the tea free from the control of the customs authorities; but if on examination such tea, or merchandise described as tea, is found, in the opinion of the examiner, to be inferior in purity, quality, and fitness for consumption to the said standards the importer or consignee shall be immediately notified, and the tea, or merchandise described as tea, shall not be released by the customhouse, unless on a reexamination called for by the importer or consignee the finding of the examiner shall be found to be erroneous. Should a portion of the invoice be passed by the examiner, a permit shall be granted for that portion and the remainder held for further examination, as provided in said section 47. (Mar. 2, 1897, c. 358, § 5, 29 Stat. 605.)

46. Examiners; examination according to usages of trade.—The examination provided for by this chapter shall be made by a duly qualified examiner at a port where standard samples are established, and where the merchandise is entered at ports where there is no qualified examiner, the examination shall be made at that one of said ports which is nearest the port of entry, and that for this purpose samples of the merchandise, obtained in the manner prescribed by section 44 of this title, shall be forwarded to the proper port by the collector or chief officer at the port of entry. In all cases of examination or reexamination of teas, or merchandise described as tea, by examiners or the United States Board of Tea Appeals under the provisions of this chapter, the purity, quality, and fitness for consumption of the same shall be tested according to the usages and customs of the tea trade, including the testing of an infusion of the same in boiling water, and, if necessary, chemical analysis. (Mar. 2, 1897, c. 358, § 7, 29 Stat. 606; May 31, 1920, c. 217, 41 Stat. 712, 713.)

47. United States Board of Tea Appeals; permit for delivery; exportation or destruction of inferior grades.—In case the collector, importer, or consignee shall protest against the finding of the examiner, the matter in dispute shall be referred for decision to the United States Board of Tea Appeals, to consist of three employees of the Department of Agriculture, to be designated by the Secretary of Agriculture. If such board shall, after due examination, find the tea in question to be equal in purity, quality, and fitness for consumption to the proper standards, a permit shall be issued by the collector for its release and delivery to the importer; but if upon such final reexamination by such board the tea shall be found to be inferior in purity, quality, and fitness for consumption to the said standards, the importer or consignee shall give a bond, with security satisfactory to the collector, to export said tea, or merchandise described as tea, out of the limits of the United States within a period of six months after such final reexamination; and if the same shall not have been exported within the time specified, the collector, at the expiration of that time, shall cause the same to be destroyed. (Mar. 2, 1897, c. 358, § 6, 29 Stat. 606; May 31, 1920, c. 217, 41 Stat. 712, 713.)

48. Reexamination; findings by examiner; assistance of experts.—In cases of reexamination of teas, or merchandise described as teas, by the United States Board of Tea Appeals in pursuance of the provisions hereof, samples of the tea, or merchandise described as tea, in dispute, for transmission to such board for its decision, shall be put up and sealed by the examiner in the presence of the importer or consignee if he so desires, and transmitted to such board, together with a copy of the finding of the examiner, setting forth the cause of condemnation and the claim or ground of the protest of the importer relating to the same, such samples, and the papers therewith, to be distinguished by such mark that the same may be identified. The decision of such board shall be in writing, signed by them, and transmitted, together with the record and samples, within three days after the rendition thereof, to the collector, who shall forthwith furnish the examiner and the importer or consignee with a copy of said decision or finding. The United States Board of Tea Appeals shall be authorized to obtain the advice, when necessary, of persons skilled in the examination of teas, who shall each receive for his services in any particular case a compensation not exceeding $5. (Mar. 2, 1897, c. 358, § 8, 29 Stat. 606; May 31, 1920, c. 217, 41 Stat. 712.)

49. Reimporting rejected teas; forfeiture.—No imported teas which have been rejected by a customs examiner or by the United States Board of Tea Appeals, and exported under the provisions of this chapter, shall be reimported into the United States under the penalty of forfeiture for a violation of this prohibition. (Mar. 2, 1897, c. 358, § 9, 29 Stat. 606; May 31, 1920, c. 217, 41 Stat. 712.)

50. Regulations.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall have the power to enforce the provisions of this chapter by appropriate regulations. (Mar. 2, 1897, c. 358, § 10, 29 Stat. 607; May 31, 1920, c. 217, 41 Stat. 712.)

Chapter 8.—FILLED MILK.

Sec.
61. Filled milk; definitions.
62. Same; manufacture, shipment, or delivery for shipment in interstate or foreign commerce prohibited.
63. Same; penalty for violations of law; acts, omissions, and so forth, of agents.

Section 61. Filled milk; definitions.—Whenever used in sections 62 and 63 of this title—

(a) The term "person" includes an individual, partnership, corporation, or association;

(b) The term "interstate or foreign commerce" means commerce (1) between any State, Territory, or possession, or the District of Columbia, and any place outside thereof; (2) between points within the same State, Territory, or possession, or within the District of Columbia, but through any place outside thereof; or (3) within any Territory or possession, or within the District of Columbia; and

(c) The term "filled milk" means any milk, cream, or skimmed milk, whether or not condensed, evaporated, concentrated, powdered, dried, or desiccated, to which has been added, or which has been blended or compounded with, any fat or oil other than milk fat, so that the resulting product is in imitation or semblance of milk, cream, or skimmed milk, whether or not condensed, evaporated, concentrated, powdered, dried, or desiccated. This definition shall not include any distinctive proprietary food compound not readily mistaken in taste for milk or cream or for evaporated, condensed, or powdered milk, or cream where such compound (1) is prepared and designed for feeding infants and young children and customarily used on the order of a physician; (2) is packed in individual cans containing not more than sixteen and one-half ounces and bearing a label in bold type that the content is to be used only for said purpose; (3) is shipped in interstate or foreign commerce exclusively to physicians, wholesale and retail druggists, orphan asylums, child-welfare associations, hospitals, and similar institutions and generally disposed of by them. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 262, § 1, 42 Stat. 1486.)

62. Same; manufacture, shipment, or delivery for shipment in interstate or foreign commerce prohibited.—It is declared that filled milk, as herein defined, is an adulterated article of food, injurious to the public health, and its sale constitutes a fraud upon the public. It shall be unlawful for any person to manufacture within any Territory or possession, or within the District of Columbia, or to ship or deliver for shipment in interstate or foreign commerce, any filled milk. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 262, § 2, 42 Stat. 1487.)

63. Same; penalty for violations of law; acts, omissions, and so forth, of agents.—Any person violating any provision of sections 61 and 62 of this title shall upon conviction thereof be subject to a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment of not more than one year, or both. When construing and enforcing the provisions of said sections, the act, omission, or failure of any person acting for or employed by any individual, partnership, corporation, or association, within the scope of his employment or office, shall in every case be deemed the act, omission, or failure, of such individual, partnership, corporation, or association, as well as of such person. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 262, § 3, 42 Stat. 1487.)

Chapter 4.—ANIMALS, MEATS, AND MEAT AND DAIRY PRODUCTS.

EXAMINATION OF ANIMALS, MEAT, AND MEAT PRODUCTS USED IN INTERSTATE OR FOREIGN COMMERCE

Sec.
71. Inspection of meat and meat food products; examination of cattle before slaughtering; diseased animals slaughtered separately and carcasses examined.
72. Post-mortem examination of carcasses and marking or labeling; destruction of carcasses condemned; reinspection.
73. Examination of carcasses brought into slaughtering or packing establishments, and of meat food products issued from and returned thereto.
74. Inspectors of meat food products; marks of inspection; destruction of condemned products; products for export.
75. Labeling receptacles or coverings of meat or meat food products inspected and passed; supervision by inspectors; sales under false names; trade names.
76. Sanitary inspection and regulation of slaughtering and packing establishments; rejection of meat or meat food products unfit for food.
77. Examination of cattle and food products thereof, slaughtered and prepared during nighttime.
78. Transportation of carcasses, meat, or meat food products not properly inspected and marked.
79. Forgery, alteration, or unauthorized use of marks, labels, or other identification devices or certificates.
80. Inspection of animals for export.
81. Inspectors of animals for export; certificates of condition.
82. No clearance to vessel carrying cattle for export without inspector's certificate.
83. Inspection of carcasses, meat of which is intended for export.
84. Inspectors of carcasses, and so forth, meat of which is intended for export; certificates of condition.
85. No clearance to vessel carrying meat for export without inspector's certificate.
86. Delivery of inspectors' certificates, and of copies.
87. Transportation or sale of meat or meat food products without complying with provisions of inspection law.
88. Offenses; penalty.
89. Inspectors to make examinations provided for; appointment; duties; regulations.
90. Bribery of or gifts to inspectors or other officers and acceptance of gifts.
91. Inspection requirements not applicable to farmers or retailers.
92. Sale of meat or meat food products unfit for food; penalty.

EXAMINATION OF ANIMALS, MEAT, AND MEAT PRODUCTS USED IN INTERSTATE OR FOREIGN COMMERCE

Section 71. Inspection of meat and meat food products; examination of cattle before slaughtering; diseased animals slaughtered separately and carcasses examined.—For the purpose of preventing the use in interstate or foreign commerce of meat and meat food products which are unsound, unhealthful, unwholesome, or otherwise unfit for human food, the Secretary of Agriculture, at his discretion, may cause to be made, by inspectors appointed for that purpose, an examination and inspection of all cattle, sheep, swine, and goats before they shall be allowed to enter into any slaughtering, packing, meat-canning, rendering, or similar establishment, in which they are to be slaughtered and the meat and meat food products thereof are to be used in interstate or foreign commerce; and all cattle, swine, sheep, and goats found on such inspection to show symptoms of disease shall be set apart and slaughtered separately from all other cattle, sheep, swine, or goats, and when so slaughtered the carcasses of said cattle, sheep, swine, or goats shall be subject to a careful examination and inspection, all as provided by the rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture, as herein provided for. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

72. Post mortem examination of carcasses and marking or labeling; destruction of carcasses condemned; reinspection.—For the purposes hereinbefore set forth the Secretary of Agriculture shall cause to be made by inspectors appointed for that purpose a post mortem examination and inspection of the carcasses and parts thereof of all cattle, sheep, swine, and goats to be prepared for human consumption at any slaughtering, meat-canning, salting, packing, rendering, or similar establishment in any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia for transportation or sale as articles of interstate or foreign commerce; and the carcasses and parts thereof of all such animals found to be sound, healthful, wholesome, and fit for human food shall be marked, stamped, tagged, or labeled as "Inspected and passed"; and said inspectors shall label, mark, stamp, or tag as "Inspected and condemned" all carcasses and parts thereof of animals found to be unsound, unhealthful, unwholesome, or otherwise unfit for human food; and all carcasses and parts thereof thus inspected and condemned shall be destroyed for food purposes by the said establishment in the presence of an inspector, and the Secretary of Agriculture may remove inspectors from any such establishment which fails to so destroy any such condemned carcass or part thereof, and said inspectors, after said first inspection, shall, when they deem it necessary, reinspect said carcasses or parts thereof to determine whether since the first inspection the same have become unsound, unhealthful, unwholesome, or in any way unfit for human food, and if any carcass or any part thereof shall, upon examination and inspection subsequent to the first examination and inspection, be found to be unsound, unhealth-

ful, unwholesome, or otherwise unfit for human food, it shall be destroyed for food purposes by the said establishment in the presence of an inspector, and the Secretary of Agriculture may remove inspectors from any establishment which fails to so destroy any such condemned carcass or part thereof. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

73. Examination of carcasses brought into slaughtering or packing establishments, and of meat food products issued from and returned thereto.—The foregoing provisions shall apply to all carcasses or parts of carcasses of cattle, sheep, swine, and goats, or the meat or meat products thereof which may be brought into any slaughtering, meat-canning, salting, packing, rendering, or similar establishment, and such examination and inspection shall be had before the said carcasses or parts thereof shall be allowed to enter into any department wherein the same are to be treated and prepared for meat food products; and the foregoing provisions shall also apply to all such products, which, after having been issued from any slaughtering, meat-canning, salting, packing, rendering, or similar establishment, shall be returned to the same or to any similar establishment where such inspection is maintained. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

74. Inspectors of meat food products; marks of inspection; destruction of condemned products; products for export.—For the purposes hereinbefore set forth the Secretary of Agriculture shall cause to be made, by inspectors appointed for that purpose, an examination and inspection of all meat food products prepared for interstate or foreign commerce in any slaughtering, meat-canning, salting, packing, rendering, or similar establishment, and for the purposes of any examination and inspection said inspectors shall have access at all times, by day or night, whether the establishment be operated or not, to every part of said establishment; and said inspectors shall mark, stamp, tag, or label as "Inspected and passed" all such products found to be sound, healthful, and wholesome, and which contain no dyes, chemicals, preservatives, or ingredients which render such meat, or meat food products unsound, unhealthful, unwholesome, or unfit for human food; and said inspectors shall label, mark, stamp, or tag as "Inspected and condemned" all such products found unsound, unhealthful, and unwholesome, or which contain dyes, chemicals, preservatives, or ingredients which render such meat or meat food products unsound, unhealthful, unwholesome, or unfit for human food, and all such condemned meat food products shall be destroyed for food purposes, as hereinbefore provided, and the Secretary of Agriculture may remove inspectors from any establishment which fails to so destroy such condemned meat food products: Provided, That subject to the rules and regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture the provisions of this section in regard to preservatives shall not apply to meat food products for export to any foreign country and which are prepared or packed according to the specifications or directions of the foreign purchaser, when no substance is used in the preparation or packing thereof in conflict with the laws of the foreign country to which said article is to be exported; but if said article shall be in fact sold or offered for sale for domestic use or consumption then this proviso shall not exempt said article from the operation of all the other provisions of sections 71 to 94, inclusive, of this title. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

75. Labeling receptacles or coverings of meat or meat food products inspected and passed; supervision by inspectors; sales under false names; trade names.—When any meat or meat food product prepared for interstate or foreign commerce which has been inspected as hereinbefore provided and marked "Inspected and passed" shall be placed or packed in any can, pot, tin, canvas, or other receptacle or covering in any establishment where inspection under the provisions of sections 71 to 94, inclusive, of this title is maintained, the person, firm, or corporation preparing said product shall cause a label to be attached to said can, pot, tin, canvas, or other receptacle or covering, under the supervision of an inspector, which label shall state that the contents thereof have been "inspected and passed" under the provisions of such sections; and no inspection and examination of meat or meat food products deposited or inclosed in cans, tins, pots, canvas, or other receptacle or covering in any establishment where inspection under the provisions of such sections is maintained shall be deemed to be complete until such meat or meat food products have been sealed or inclosed in said can, tin, pot, canvas, or other receptacle or covering under the supervision of an inspector, and no such meat or meat food products shall be sold or offered for sale by any person, firm, or corporation in interstate or foreign commerce under any false or deceptive name; but established trade name or names which are usual to such products and which are not false and deceptive and which shall be approved by the Secretary of Agriculture are permitted. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

76. Sanitary inspection and regulation of slaughtering and packing establishments; rejection of meat or meat food products unfit for food.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall cause to be made, by experts in sanitation or by other competent inspectors, such inspection of all slaughtering, meat canning, salting, packing, rendering, or similar establishments in which cattle, sheep, swine, and goats are slaughtered and the meat and meat food products thereof are prepared for interstate or foreign commerce as may be necessary to inform himself concerning the sanitary conditions of the same, and to prescribe the rules and regulations of sanitation under which such establishments shall be maintained; and where the sanitary conditions of any such establishment are such that the meat or meat food products are rendered unclean, unsound, unhealthful, unwholesome, or otherwise unfit for human food, he shall refuse to allow said meat or meat food products to be labeled, marked, stamped, or tagged as "inspected and passed." (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

77. Examination of cattle and food products thereof, slaughtered and prepared during nighttime.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall cause an examination and inspection of all cattle, sheep, swine, and goats, and the food products thereof, slaughtered and prepared in the establishments hereinbefore described for the purposes of interstate or foreign commerce to be made during the nighttime as well as during the daytime when the slaughtering of said cattle, sheep, swine, and goats, or the preparation of said food products is conducted during the nighttime. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

78. Transportation of carcasses, meat, or meat food products not properly inspected and marked.—No person, firm, or corporation shall transport or offer for transportation, and no carrier of interstate or foreign commerce shall transport or receive for transportation from one State or Territory or the District of Columbia to any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or to any place under the jurisdiction of the United States, or to any foreign country, any carcasses or parts thereof, meat, or meat food products thereof which have not been inspected, examined, and marked as "Inspected and passed," in accordance with the terms of sections 71 to 94, inclusive, of this title, and with the rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

79. Forgery, alteration or unauthorized use of marks, labels, or other identification devices or certificates.—No person, firm, or corporation, or officer, agent, or employee thereof, shall forge, counterfeit, simulate, or falsely represent, or shall without proper authority use, fail to use, or detach, or shall knowingly or wrongfully alter, deface, or destroy, or fail to deface or destroy, any of the marks, stamps, tags, labels, or other identification devices provided for in sections 71 to 94, inclusive, of this title, or in and as directed by the rules and regulations prescribed hereunder by the Secretary of Agriculture, on any carcasses, parts of carcasses, or the food product, or containers thereof, subject to the provisions of such sections or any certificate in relation thereto, authorized or required by such sections or by the said rules and regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

80. Inspection of animals for export.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall cause to be made a careful inspection of all cattle, sheep, swine, and goats intended and offered for export to foreign countries at such times and places, and in such manner as he may deem proper, to ascertain whether such cattle, sheep, swine, and goats are free from disease. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

81. Inspectors of animals for export; certificates of condition.—For the purpose of section 80 of this title he may appoint inspectors who shall be authorized to give an official certificate clearly stating the condition in which such cattle, sheep, swine, and goats are found. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

82. No clearance to vessel carrying cattle for export without inspector's certificate.—No clearance shall be given to any vessel having on board cattle, sheep, swine, or goats for export to a foreign country until the owner or shipper of such cattle, sheep, swine, or goats has a certificate from the inspector authorized to be appointed, stating that the said cattle, sheep, swine, or goats are sound and healthy, or unless the Secretary of Agriculture shall have waived the requirement of such certificate for export to the particular country to which such cattle, sheep, swine, or goats are to be exported. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

83. Inspection of carcasses, meat of which is intended for export.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall also cause to be made a careful inspection of the carcasses and parts thereof of all cattle, sheep, swine, and goats, the meat of which, fresh, salted, canned, corned, packed, cured, or otherwise prepared, is intended and offered for export to any foreign country, at such times and places and in such manner as he may deem proper. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

84. Inspectors of carcasses, and so forth, meat of which is intended for export; certificates of condition.—For the purpose of section 83 of this title he may appoint inspectors who shall be authorized to give an official certificate stating the condition in which said cattle, sheep, swine, or goats, and the meat thereof, are found. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

85. No clearance to vessel carrying meat for export without inspector's certificate.—No clearance shall be given to any vessel having on board any fresh, salted, canned, corned, or packed beef, mutton, pork, or goat meat, being the meat of animals killed except as hereinbefore provided for export to and sale in a foreign country from any port in the United States, until the owner or shipper thereof shall obtain from an inspector appointed under the provisions of sections 71 to 94, inclusive, of this title a certificate that the said cattle, sheep, swine, and goats were sound and healthy at the time of inspection, and that their meat is sound and wholesome, unless the Secretary of Agriculture shall have waived the requirements of such certificate for the country to which said cattle, sheep, swine, and goats or meats are to be exported. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

86. Delivery of inspectors' certificates, and of copies.—The inspectors provided for under sections 71 to 94, inclusive, of this title shall be authorized to give official certificates of the sound and wholesome condition of the cattle, sheep, swine, and goats, their carcasses and products as described in said sections; and one copy of every certificate granted under the provisions of said sections shall be filed in the Department of Agriculture, another copy shall be delivered to the owner or shipper, and when the cattle, sheep, swine, and goats or their carcasses and products are sent abroad, a third copy shall be delivered to the chief officer of the vessel on which the shipment shall be made. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

87. Transportation or sale of meat or meat food products without complying with provisions of inspection law.—No person, firm, or corporation engaged in the interstate commerce of meat or meat food products shall transport or offer for transportation, sell or offer to sell, any such meat or meat food products in any State or Territory or in the District of Columbia or any place under the jurisdiction of the United States, other than in the State or Territory or in the District of Columbia or any place under the jurisdiction of the United States in which the slaughtering, packing, canning, rendering, or other similar establishment owned, leased, or operated by said firm, person, or corporation is located unless and until said person, firm, or corporation shall have complied with all of the provisions of sections 71 to 94, inclusive, of this title. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

88. Offenses; penalty.—Any person, firm, or corporation, or any officer or agent of any such person, firm, or corporation, who shall violate any of the provisions of sections 71 to 94, inclusive, of this title shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished on conviction thereof by a fine of not exceeding $10,000 or imprisonment for a period of not more than two years, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

89. Inspectors to make examinations provided for; appointment; duties; regulations.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall appoint from time to time inspectors to make examination and inspection of all cattle, sheep, swine, and goats, the inspection of which is provided for under the provisions of sections 71 to 94, inclusive, of this title, and of all carcasses and parts thereof, and of all meats and meat food products thereof, and of the sanitary conditions of all establishments in which such meat and meat food products hereinbefore described are prepared; and said inspectors shall refuse to stamp, mark, tag, or label any carcass or any part thereof, or meat food product therefrom, prepared in any establishment hereinbefore mentioned, until the same shall have actually been inspected and found to be sound, healthful, wholesome, and fit for human food, and to contain no dyes, chemicals, preservatives, or ingredients which render such meat food product unsound, unhealthful, unwholesome, or unfit for human food; and to have been prepared under proper sanitary conditions, hereinbefore provided for; and shall perform such other duties as are provided by said sections and by the rules and regulations to be prescribed by said Secretary of Agriculture; and said Secretary of Agriculture shall, from time to time, make such rules and regulations as are necessary for the efficient execution of the provisions of said sections, and all inspections and examinations made under said sections shall be such and made in such manner as described in the rules and regulations prescribed by said Secretary of Agriculture not inconsistent with provisions thereof. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

90. Bribery of or gifts to inspectors or other officers and acceptance of gifts.—Any person, firm, or corporation, or any agent or employee of any person, firm, or corporation, who shall give, pay, or offer, directly or indirectly, to any inspector, deputy inspector, chief inspector, or any other officer or employee of the United States authorized to perform any of the duties prescribed by sections 71 to 94, inclusive, of this title or by the rules and regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture any money or other thing of value, with intent to influence said inspector, deputy inspector, chief inspector, or other officer or employee of the United States in the discharge of any duty provided for in said sections, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not less than $5,000 nor more than $10,000 and by imprisonment not less than one year nor more than three years; and any inspector, deputy inspector, chief inspector, or other officer or employee of the United States authorized to perform any of the duties prescribed by said sections who shall accept any money, gift, or other thing of value from any person, firm, or corporation, or officers, agents, or employees thereof, given with intent to influence his official action, or who shall receive or accept from any person, firm, or corporation engaged in interstate or foreign commerce any gift, money, or other thing of value, given with any purpose or intent whatsoever, shall be deemed guilty of a felony and shall, upon conviction thereof, be summarily discharged from office and shall be punished by a fine not less than $1,000 nor more than $10,000 and by imprisonment not less than one year nor more than three years. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

91. Inspection requirements not applicable to farmers or retailers.—The provisions of sections 71 to 94, inclusive, of this title requiring inspection to be made by the Secretary of Agriculture shall not apply to animals slaughtered by any farmer on the farm and sold and transported as interstate or foreign commerce, nor to retail butchers and retail dealers in meat and meat food products, supplying their customers. The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to maintain the inspection in said sections provided for at any slaughtering, meat-canning, salting, packing, rendering, or similar establishment notwithstanding this exception, and that the persons operating the same may be retail butchers and retail dealers or farmers; and where the Secretary of Agriculture shall establish such inspection then the provisions of said sections shall apply notwithstanding this exception. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

92. Sale of meat or meat food products unfit for food; penalty.—If any person shall sell or offer for sale or transportation for interstate or foreign commerce any meat or meat food products which are diseased, unsound, unhealthful, unwholesome, or otherwise unfit for human food, knowing that such meat food products are intended for human consumption, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment for a period of not exceeding one year or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

93. Statement in annual estimates as to persons employed, their compensation and expenses.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall, in his annual estimates made to Congress, submit a statement in detail, showing the number of persons employed in inspections provided for under sections 71 to 94, inclusive, of this title and the salary or per diem paid to each, together with the contingent expenses of such inspectors and where they have been and are employed. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

94. Inspection extended to reindeer.—The provisions of sections 71 to 93, inclusive, of this title may be extended to the inspection of reindeer. (June 30, 1914, c. 131, 38 Stat. 420.)

95. Permanent appropriation for expenses of inspection; statement in annual estimate as to persons employed, their compensation and expenses.—There is permanently appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $3,000,000, for the expenses of the inspection of cattle, sheep, swine, and goats and the meat and meat food products thereof which enter into interstate or foreign commerce and for all expenses necessary to carry into effect the provisions of sections 71 to 94 of this title, including rent and the employment of labor in Washington and elsewhere, for each year. (June 30, 1906, c. 3913, 34 Stat. 679; Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2907, 34 Stat. 1260.)

96. Marking horse meat transported in interstate commerce.—No person, firm, or corporation or officer, agent, or employee thereof shall transport or offer for transportation, and no carrier of interstate or foreign commerce shall transport or receive for transportation from one State or Territory or the District of Columbia to any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia or to any place under the jurisdiction of the United States or to any foreign country, any equine meat or food products thereof unless plainly and conspicuously labeled, marked, branded or tagged "Horse meat" or "Horse-meat Product," as the case may be, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture. All the penalties, terms and provisions in sections 71 to 94 of this title, except the exemption therein applying to animals slaughtered by any farmer on a farm, to retail butchers and retail dealers in meat food products supplying their customers, shall be applicable to horses, their carcasses, parts of carcasses, and meat food products thereof, and the establishments and other places where such animals are slaughtered or the meat or meat food products thereof are prepared or packed for the interstate or foreign commerce, and to all persons, firms, corporations and officers, agents and employees thereof who slaughter such animals or prepare or handle such meat or meat food products for interstate or foreign commerce. (July 24, 1919, c. 26, 41 Stat. 241.)

IMPORTATION OF CATTLE AND QUARANTINE

101. Suspension of importation of all animals.—Whenever, in the opinion of the President, it shall be necessary for the protection of animals in the United States against infectious or contagious diseases, he may, by proclamation, suspend the importation of all or any class of animals for a limited time, and may change, modify, revoke, or renew such proclamation, as the public good may require; and during the time of such suspension the importation of any such animals shall be unlawful. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 839, § 9, 26 Stat. 416.)

102. Quarantine of imported animals.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized, at the expense of the owner, to place and retain in quarantine all neat cattle, sheep, and other ruminants, and all swine, imported into the United States, at such ports as he may designate for such purpose, and under such conditions as he may by regulation prescribe, respectively, for the several classes of animals above described. For this purpose he may have and maintain possession of all lands, buildings, animals, tools, fixtures, and appurtenances in use on August 3, 1890, for the quarantine of neat cattle, and purchase, construct, or rent as may be necessary, and he may appoint veterinary surgeons, inspectors, officers, and employees by him deemed necessary to maintain such quarantine, and provide for the execution of the other provisions of sections 101 to 105, inclusive, of this title and section 181 of Title 19. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 839, § 7, 26 Stat. 416.)

103. Importation, except at quarantine ports, prohibited; slaughter of infected animals; appraisal; payment.—The importation of all animals described in sections 101 to 105, inclusive, of this title into any port in the United States, except such as may be designated by the Secretary of Agriculture, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, as quarantine stations, is prohibited. The Secretary of Agriculture may cause to be slaughtered such of the animals named in said sections as may be, under regulations prescribed by him, adjudged to be infected with any contagious disease, or to have been exposed to infection so as to be dangerous to other animals. The value of animals so slaughtered as being so exposed to infection but not infected may be ascertained by agreement of the Secretary of Agriculture and the owners thereof, if practicable; otherwise, by the appraisal by two persons familiar with the character and value of such property, to be appointed by the Secretary of Agriculture, whose decision, if they agree, shall be final; otherwise, the Secretary of Agriculture shall decide between them, and his decision shall be final. The amount of the value thus ascertained shall be paid to the owner thereof out of money in the Treasury appropriated for the use of the Bureau of Animal Industry; but no payment shall be made for any animal imported in violation of the provisions of the sections hereinbefore enumerated. If any animal subject to quarantine according to the provisions of said sections are brought into any port of the United States where no quarantine station is established the collector of such port shall require the same to be conveyed by the vessel on which they are imported or are found to the nearest quarantine station, at the expense of the owner. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 839, § 8, 26 Stat. 416.)

104. Importation of diseased animals prohibited.—The importation of neat cattle, sheep, and other ruminants, and swine which are diseased or infected with any disease, or which shall have been exposed to such infection within sixty days next before their exportation, is prohibited. Any person who shall knowingly violate the foregoing provision shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding $5,000, or by imprisonment not exceeding three years, and any vessel or vehicle used in such unlawful importation with the knowledge of the master or owner of said vessel or vehicle that such importation is diseased or has been exposed to infection, as herein described, shall be forfeited to the United States. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 839, § 6, 26 Stat. 416.)

105. Inspection of animals imported or intended for export.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall cause careful inspection to be made by a suitable officer of all imported animals described in sections 101 to 104, inclusive, of this title, to ascertain whether such animals are infected with contagious diseases or have been exposed to infection so as to be dangerous to other animals, which shall then either be placed in quarantine or dealt with according to the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture. All food, litter, manure, clothing, utensils, and other appliances that have been so related to such animals on board ship as to be judged liable to convey infection shall be dealt with according to the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture. The Secretary of Agriculture may cause inspection to be made of all animals described in such sections intended for exportation, and provide for the disinfection of all vessels engaged in the transportation thereof, and of all barges or other vessels used in the conveyance of such animals intended for export to the ocean steamer or other vessels, and of all attendants and their clothing, and of all headropes and other appliances used in such exportation, by such orders and regulations as he may prescribe; and if, upon such inspection, any such animals shall be adjudged, under the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture, to be infected or to have been exposed to infection so as to be dangerous to other animals, they shall not be allowed to be placed upon any vessel for exportation; the expense of all the inspection and disinfection provided for in this section to be borne by the owners of the vessels on which such animals are exported. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 839, § 10, 26 Stat. 417.)

106. Admission for immediate slaughter at ports of entry of tick-infested cattle; regulations; slaughtering.—The Secretary of Agriculture, within his discretion and under such joint regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of the Treasury, is authorized to permit the admission into the United States for immediate slaughter, at ports of entry to be designated in said joint regulations, of tick-infested cattle which are otherwise free from disease and which have not been exposed to the infection of any other disease within sixty days next before their exportation from Mexico, South and Central America, the islands of the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean Sea, subject to the provisions of sections 101, 102, 103 and 105 of this title. The importation of tick-infested cattle from any country referred to in this section in which foot-and-mouth disease exists, which existence shall be determined by the Secretary of Agriculture, is prohibited. All cattle imported under the provisions of this section shall be slaughtered in accordance with the provisions of sections 71 to 94 of this title and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder by the Secretary of Agriculture, and that their hides shall be disposed of under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture. (Aug. 10, 1917, c. 52, § 9, 40 Stat. 275; Nov. 21, 1918, c. 212, § 3, 40 Stat. 1048.)

107. Same; Porto Rico; exportation from the Virgin Islands.—The slaughter of all cattle mentioned in the preceding section, imported into the Territory of Porto Rico may be deferred for such time and under such restrictions as the Secretary of Agriculture may by regulation prescribe and the Secretary of Agriculture within his discretion and under such joint regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of the Treasury, may permit the exportation of tick-infested cattle from the Virgin Islands to Porto Rico when said cattle are otherwise free from disease. (Aug. 10, 1917, c. 52, § 9, 40 Stat. 275; Nov. 21, 1918, c. 212, § 3, 40 Stat. 1048.)

PREVENTION OF INTRODUCTION AND SPREAD OF CONTAGION

111. Regulations to prevent contagious diseases.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall have authority to make such regulations and take such measures as he may deem proper to prevent the introduction or dissemination of the contagion of any contagious, infectious, or communicable disease of animals from a foreign country into the United States or from one State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia to another, and to seize, quarantine, and dispose of any hay, straw, forage, or similar material, or any meats, hides, or other animal products coming from an infected foreign country to the United States, or from one State or Territory or the District of Columbia in transit to another State or Territory or the District of Columbia whenever in his judgment such action is advisable in order to guard against the introduction or spread of such contagion. (Feb. 2, 1903, c. 349, § 2, 32 Stat. 792.)

112. Investigations as to pleuropneumonia, and other diseases; regulations.—In order to promote the exportation of livestock from the United States the Secretary of Agriculture shall make special investigation as to the existence of pleuropneumonia, or any contagious, infectious, or communicable disease, along the dividing lines between the United States and foreign countries, and along the lines of transportation from all parts of the United States to ports from which livestock are exported, and shall, from time to time, establish such regulations concerning the exportation and transportation of livestock as the results of said investigations may require. (May 29, 1884, c. 60 § 4, 23 Stat. 32; Feb. 2, 1903, c. 349, § 1, 32 Stat. 791.)

113. Measures to prevent exportation of diseased livestock.—In order to prevent the exportation from any port of the United States to any port in a foreign country of livestock affected with any contagious, infectious, or communicable disease, and especially pleuropneumonia, the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to take such steps and adopt such measures, not inconsistent with the provisions of sections 111 to 119 of this title, as he may deem necessary. (May 29, 1884, c. 60, § 5, 23 Stat. 32; Feb. 2, 1903, c. 349, § 1, 32 Stat. 791.)

114. Regulations for suppression of diseases; cooperation of States and Territories.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of Agriculture to prepare such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary for the speedy and effectual suppression and extirpation of pleuropneumonia and other dangerous, contagious, infectious, and communicable diseases, and to certify such rules and regulations to the executive authority of each State and Territory, and invite said authorities to cooperate in the execution and enforcement of the provisions of sections 111 to 119, inclusive, of this title. Whenever the plans and methods of the Secretary of Agriculture shall be accepted by any State or Territory in which pleuropneumonia or other contagious, infectious, or communicable disease is declared to exist, or such State or Territory shall have adopted plans and methods for the suppression and extirpation of said diseases, and such plans and methods shall be accepted by the Secretary of Agriculture, and whenever the governor of a State or other properly constituted authorities signify their readiness to cooperate for the extinction of any contagious, infectious, or communicable disease in conformity with the provisions of the sections hereinbefore enumerated, the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to expend so much of the money appropriated for carrying out the provisions of said sections as may be necessary in such investigations, and in such disinfection and quarantine measures as may be necessary to prevent the spread of the disease from one State or Territory into another. (May 29, 1884, c. 60, § 8, 23 Stat. 32.)

115. Transportation of diseased livestock prohibited; splenetic fever.—Subject to the provisions of section 116, of this title, no railroad company within the United States, or the owners or masters of any steam or sailing vessel or other vessel or boat, shall receive for transportation or transport, from one State or Territory to another, or from any State into the District of Columbia, or from the District into any State, any livestock affected with any contagious, infectious, or communicable disease, and especially the disease known as pleuropneumonia; nor shall any person, company, or corporation deliver for such transportation to any railroad company, or master or owner of any boat or vessel, any livestock, knowing them to be affected with any contagious, infectious, or communicable disease; nor shall any person, company, or corporation drive on foot or transport in private conveyance from one State or Territory to another, or from any State into the District of Columbia, or from the District into any State, any livestock, knowing them to be affected with any contagious, infectious, or communicable disease, and especially the disease known as pleuropneumonia. The so-called splenetic or Texas fever shall not be considered a contagious, infectious, or communicable disease within the meaning of sections 112, 113, 115 and 117 of this title, as to cattle being transported by rail to market for slaughter, when the same are unloaded only to be fed and watered in lots on the way thereto. (May 29, 1884, c. 60, § 6, 23 Stat. 32.)

116. Same; shipment of certain cattle excepted.—Cattle which have reacted to the tuberculin test may be shipped, transported, or moved from one State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, to any other State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, for immediate slaughter, in accordance with such rules and regulations as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture. The said Secretary of Agriculture may, in his discretion, and under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, permit cattle which have been shipped for breeding or feeding purposes from one State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, to another State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, and which have reacted to the tuberculin test subsequent to such shipment, to be reshipped in interstate commerce to the original owner. (May 31, 1920, c. 217, 41 Stat. 699.)

117. Notice of existence of contagion to railroads; transportation of diseased stock; penalty.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of Agriculture to notify, in writing, the proper officials or agents of any railroad, steamboat, or other transportation company doing business in or through any infected locality, and by publication in such newspapers as he may select, of the existence of said contagion; and any person or persons operating any such railroad, or master or owner of any boat or vessel, or owner or custodian of or person having control over such cattle or other livestock within such infected district, who shall knowingly violate the provisions of section 115 of this title shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $5,000, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (May 29, 1884, c. 60, § 7, 23 Stat. 32.)

118. Duty of district attorneys.—It shall be the duty of the several United States district attorneys to prosecute all violations of sections 111 to 115 and 117 to 119 of this title which shall be brought to their notice or knowledge by any person making the complaint under oath; and the same shall be heard before any district court of the United States or Territorial court holden within the district in which such violation has been committed. (May 29, 1884, c. 60, § 9, 23 Stat. 33.)

119. Agents to examine and report on methods of treatment of animals, and means for suppression of diseases.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to appoint two competent agents, who shall be practical stock raisers or experienced business men familiar with questions pertaining to commercial transactions in livestock, whose duty it shall be, under the instructions of the said Secretary of Agriculture, to examine and report upon the best methods of treating, transporting, and caring for animals, and the means to be adopted for the suppression and extirpation of contagious pleuropneumonia, and to provide against the spread of other dangerous contagious, infectious, and communicable diseases. The compensation of said agents shall be at the rate of $10 per diem, with all necessary expenses, while engaged in the actual performance of their duties under sections 111 to 115, 117 and 118 of this title, when absent from their usual place of business or residence as such agent. (May 29, 1884, c. 60, § 2, 23 Stat. 31; Feb. 9, 1889, c. 122, § 1, 25 Stat. 659; July 14, 1890, c. 707, 26 Stat. 288.)

120. Regulation of exportation and transportation of infected livestock.—In order to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to effectually suppress and extirpate contagious pleuropneumonia, foot-and-mouth disease, and other dangerous contagious, infectious, and communicable diseases in cattle and other livestock, and to prevent the spread of such diseases, he is authorized and directed from time to time to establish such rules and regulations concerning the exportation and transportation of livestock from any place within the United States where he may have reason to believe such diseases may exist into and through any State or Territory, and into and through the District of Columbia and to foreign countries as he may deem necessary and all such rules and regulations shall have the force of law. (Feb. 2, 1903, c. 349, § 1, 32 Stat. 791.)

121. Shipments from areas suspected infected; control of such animals.—Whenever any inspector or assistant inspector of the Bureau of Animal Industry shall issue a certificate showing that such officer had inspected any cattle or other livestock which were about to be shipped, driven, or transported from such locality to another as stated in section 120 preceding, and had found them free from Texas or splenetic fever infection, pleuropneumonia, foot-and-mouth disease, or any other infectious, contagious, or communicable disease, such animals, so inspected and certified, may be shipped, driven, or transported from such place into and through any State or Territory, and into and through the District of Columbia, or they may be exported from the United States without further inspection or the exaction of fees of any kind, except such as may at any time be ordered or exacted by the Secretary of Agriculture; and all such animals shall at all times be under the control and supervision of the Bureau of Animal Industry of the Agricultural Department for the purposes of such inspection. (Feb. 2, 1903, c. 349, § 1, 32 Stat. 791.)

122. Offenses; penalty.—Any person, company, or corporation knowingly violating the provisions of sections 111, 120, or 121 of this title or the orders or regulations made in pursuance thereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, or by imprisonment not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Feb. 2, 1903, c. 349, § 3, 32 Stat. 792.)

123. Quarantine.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized and directed to quarantine any State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or any portion of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia, when he shall determine the fact that cattle or other livestock in such State or Territory or District of Columbia are affected with any contagious, infectious, or communicable disease; and the Secretary of Agriculture is directed to give written or printed notice of the establishment of quarantine to the proper officers of railroad, steamboat, or other transportation companies doing business in or through any quarantined State or Territory or the District of Columbia, and to publish in such newspapers in the quarantined State or Territory or the District of Columbia, as the Secretary of Agriculture may select, notice of the establishment of quarantine. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1496, § 1, 33 Stat. 1264.)

124. Transportation or delivery therefor from quarantined State or Territory or portion thereof, of livestock, forbidden.—No railroad company or the owners or masters of any steam or sailing or other vessel or boat shall receive for transportation or transport from any quarantined State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or from the quarantined portion of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia, into any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia, any cattle or other livestock, except as hereinafter provided; nor shall any person, company, or corporation deliver for such transportation to any railroad company, or to the master or owner of any boat or vessel, any cattle or other livestock, except as hereinafter provided; nor shall any person, company, or corporation drive on foot, or cause to be driven on foot, or transport in private conveyance or cause to be transported in private conveyance, from a quarantined State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or from the quarantined portion of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia, into any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia, any cattle or other livestock, except as hereinafter provided. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1496, § 2, 33 Stat. 1264.)

125. Regulations for inspection, disinfection, and certification, and delivery and shipment of livestock from quarantined State or Territory.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of Agriculture, and he is authorized and directed, when the public safety will permit, to make and promulgate rules and regulations which shall permit and govern the inspection, disinfection, certification, treatment, handling, and method and manner of delivery and shipment of cattle or other livestock from a quarantined State or Territory or the District of Columbia, and from the quarantined portion of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia, into any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia; and the Secretary of Agriculture shall give notice of such rules and regulations in the manner provided in section 124 of this title for notice of establishment of quarantine. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1496, § 3, 33 Stat. 1265.)

126. Moving livestock from quarantined State or Territory, under regulations.—Cattle or other livestock may be moved from a quarantined State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or from the quarantined portion of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia, into any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia, under and in compliance with the rules and regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture, made and promulgated in pursuance of the provisions of section 125 of this title; but it shall be unlawful to move, or to allow to be moved, any cattle or other livestock from any quarantined State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or from the quarantined portion of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia, into any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia, in manner or method or under conditions other than those prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1496, § 4, 33 Stat. 1265.)

127. Transportation from quarantined State, Territory, and so forth; penalty.—Any person, company, or corporation violating the provisions of sections 124 or 126 of this title shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, or by imprisonment not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1496, § 6, 33 Stat. 1265.)

128. Extension of quarantine law to carriers in interstate commerce.—The provisions of sections 123 to 127 of this title and of section 118 of Title 18 shall apply to any railroad company or other common carrier, whose road or line forms any part of a route over which cattle or other livestock are transported in the course of shipment from any quarantined State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or from the quarantined portion of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia, into any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia. (June 30, 1914, c. 131, 38 Stat. 419.)

129. Payment for animals purchased; computation of value, and amount paid.—In case of an emergency arising out of the existence of foot-and-mouth disease, rinderpest, contagious pleuropneumonia, or other contagious or infectious disease of animals which, in the opinion of the Secretary of Agriculture, threatens the livestock industry of the country, he may expend, in the city of Washington or elsewhere, the sum of $10,980, together with any unexpended balances of appropriations made prior to February 10, 1925, for this purpose in the arrest and eradication of any such disease, including the payment of claims growing out of past and future purchases and destruction, in cooperation with the States, of animals affected by or exposed to, or of materials contaminated by or exposed to, any such disease, wherever found and irrespective of ownership, under like or substantially similar circumstances, when such owner has complied with all lawful quarantine regulations. The payment for animals purchased may be made on appraisement based on the meat, dairy, or breeding value, but in case of appraisement based on breeding value no appraisement of any animal shall exceed three times its meat or dairy value, and except in case of an extraordinary emergency, to be determined by the Secretary of Agriculture, the payment by the United States Government for any animal shall not exceed one-half of any such appraisements. (Mar. 4, 1917, c. 179, 39 Stat. 1167; May 11, 1922, c. 185, 42 Stat. 536; Feb. 26, 1923, c. 119, 42 Stat. 1318; Apr. 2, 1924, c. 81, § 1, 43 Stat. 40; June 5, 1924, c. 266, 43 Stat. 458; Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 1, 43 Stat. 683; Feb. 10, 1925, c. 200, 43 Stat. 851.)

130. Pleuropneumonia in District of Columbia; duties of commissioners.—Whenever any contagious, infectious, or communicable disease affecting domestic animals, and especially the disease known as pleuropneumonia, shall be brought into or shall break out in the District of Columbia, it shall be the duty of the commissioners of said District to take measures to suppress the same promptly and to prevent the same from spreading; and for this purpose the said commissioners are empowered to order and require that any premises, farm, or farms where such disease exists, or has existed, be put in quarantine; to order all or any animals coming into the District to be detained at any place or places for the purpose of inspection and examination; to prescribe regulations for and to require the destruction of animals affected with contagious, infectious, or communicable disease, and for the proper disposition of their hides and carcasses; to prescribe regulations for disinfection, and such other regulations as they may deem necessary to prevent infection or contagion being communicated, and shall report to the Secretary of Agriculture whatever they may do in pursuance of the provisions of this section. (May 29, 1884, c. 60, § 8, 23 Stat. 33.)

131. Fences along international boundary lines to keep out diseased animals.—The Secretary of Agriculture may permit the erection of fences along international boundary lines, but entirely within the territory of the United States, for the purpose of keeping out diseased animals. (May 26, 1910, c. 256, 36 Stat. 440.)

132. Inspection of dairy products for export.—Sections 71 to 94 of this title shall be deemed to include dairy products intended for exportation to any foreign country, and the Secretary of Agriculture may apply, under rules and regulations to be prescribed by him, the provisions of said sections for inspection and certification appropriate for ascertaining the purity and quality of such products, and may cause the same to be so marked, stamped, or labeled as to secure their identity and make known in the markets of foreign countries to which they may be sent from the United States their purity, quality, and grade; and all the provisions of said sections relating to live cattle and products thereof for export shall apply to dairy products so inspected and certified. (May 23, 1908, c. 192, 35 Stat. 254.)

Chapter 5.—VIRUSES, SERUMS, TOXINS, ANTITOXINS, AND ANALOGOUS PRODUCTS.

151. Preparation and sale of worthless or harmful products for domestic animals prohibited; preparation to be in compliance with rules at licensed establishments.
152. Importation regulated and prohibited.
153. Inspection of imports; denial of entry and destruction.
154. Regulations for preparation and sale; licenses.
155. Permits for importation.
156. Licenses conditioned on permitting inspection; suspension of licenses.
157. Same; inspection daytime or nighttime.
158. Offenses; punishment.

Section 151. Preparation and sale of worthless or harmful products for domestic animals prohibited; preparation to be in compliance with rules at licensed establishments.—It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to prepare, sell, barter, or exchange in the District of Columbia, or in the Territories, or in any place under the jurisdiction of the United States, or to ship or deliver for shipment from one State or Territory or the District of Columbia to any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia, any worthless, contaminated, dangerous, or harmful virus, serum, toxin, or analogous product intended for use in the treatment of domestic animals, and no person, firm, or corporation shall prepare, sell, barter, exchange, or ship as aforesaid any virus, serum, toxin, or analogous product manufactured within the United States and intended for use in the treatment of domestic animals, unless and until the said virus, serum, toxin, or analogous product shall have been prepared, under and in compliance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture, at an establishment holding an unsuspended and unrevoked license issued by the Secretary of Agriculture as hereinafter authorized. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 145, 37 Stat. 832.)

152. Importation regulated and prohibited.—The importation into the United States, without a permit from the Secretary of Agriculture, of any virus, serum, toxin, or analogous product for use in the treatment of domestic animals, and the importation of any worthless, contaminated, dangerous, or harmful virus, serum, toxin, or analogous product for use in the treatment of domestic animals, are prohibited. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 145, 37 Stat. 832.)

153. Inspection of imports; denial of entry and destruction.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to cause the Bureau of Animal Industry to examine and inspect all viruses, serums, toxins, and analogous products, for use in the treatment of domestic animals, which are being imported or offered for importation into the United States, to determine whether such viruses, serums, toxins, and analogous products are worthless, contaminated, dangerous, or harmful, and if it shall appear that any such virus, serum, toxin, or analogous product, for use in the treatment of domestic animals, is worthless, contaminated, dangerous, or harmful, the same shall be denied entry and shall be destroyed or returned at the expense of the owner or importer. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 145, 37 Stat. 832.)

154. Regulations for preparation and sale; licenses.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to make and promulgate from time to time such rules and regulations as may be necessary to prevent the preparation, sale, barter, exchange, or shipment as aforesaid of any worthless, contaminated, dangerous, or harmful virus, serum, toxin, or analogous product for use in the treatment of domestic animals, and to issue, suspend, and revoke licenses for the maintenance of establishments for the preparation of viruses, serums, toxins, and analogous products, for use in the treatment of domestic animals, intended for sale, barter, exchange, or shipment as aforesaid. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 145, 37 Stat. 832.)

155. Permits for importation.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to issue permits for the importation into the United States of viruses, serums, toxins, and analogous products, for use in the treatment of domestic animals, which are not worthless, contaminated, dangerous, or harmful. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 145, 37 Stat. 832.)

156. Licenses conditioned on permitting inspection; suspension of licenses.—All licenses issued under authority of this chapter to establishments where such viruses, serums, toxins, or analogous products are prepared for sale, barter, exchange, or shipment as aforesaid, shall be issued on condition that the licensee shall permit the inspection of such establishments and of such products and their preparation; and the Secretary of Agriculture may suspend or revoke any permit or license issued under authority of said chapter, after opportunity for hearing has been granted the licensee or importer, when the Secretary of Agriculture is satisfied that such license or permit is being used to facilitate or effect the preparation, sale, barter, exchange, or shipment as aforesaid, or the importation into the United States of any worthless, contaminated, dangerous, or harmful virus, serum, toxin, or analogous product for use in the treatment of domestic animals. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 145, 37 Stat. 832.)

157. Same; inspection daytime or nighttime.—Any officer, agent, or employee of the Department of Agriculture duly authorized by the Secretary of Agriculture for the purpose may, at any hour during the daytime or nighttime, enter and inspect any establishment licensed under the provisions of this chapter where any virus, serum, toxin, or analogous product for use in the treatment of domestic animals is prepared for sale, barter, exchange, or shipment as aforesaid. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 145, 37 Stat. 832.)

158. Offenses; punishment.—Any person, firm, or corporation who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 145, 37 Stat. 832.)

IMPORTATION OR EXPORTATION

Section 171. Narcotic drugs; definitions.—When used in sections 172 to 185 of this title—

(a) The term "narcotic drug" means opium, coca leaves, cocaine, or any salt, derivative, or preparation of opium, coca leaves, or cocaine;

(b) The term "United States," when used in a geographical sense, includes the several States and Territories, and the District of Columbia;

(c) The term "board" means the Federal Narcotics Control Board established by section 172 of this title; and

(d) The term "person" means individual, partnership, corporation, or association. (Feb. 9, 1909, c. 100, § 1, 35 Stat. 614, Jan. 17, 1914, c. 9, 38 Stat. 275; May 26, 1922, c. 202, § 1, 42 Stat. 596.)

172. Federal Narcotics Control Board; composition of.—The Federal Narcotics Control Board is established and shall be composed of the Secretary of State, the Secretary of the Treasury, and the Secretary of Commerce. (Feb. 9, 1909, c. 100, § 2, 35 Stat. 614; Jan. 17, 1914, c. 9, 38 Stat. 275; May 26, 1922, c. 202, § 1, 42 Stat. 596; June 7, 1924, c. 352, 43 Stat. 657.)

173. Importation of narcotic drugs prohibited; exceptions; crude opium for manufacture of heroin; forfeitures.—It is unlawful to import or bring any narcotic drug into the United States or any territory under its control or jurisdiction; except that such amounts of crude opium and coca leaves as the board finds to be necessary to provide for medical and legitimate uses only, may be imported and brought into the United States or such territory under such regulations as the board shall prescribe, but no crude opium may be imported or brought in for the purpose of manufacturing heroin. All narcotic drugs imported under such regulations shall be subject to the duties which are now or may hereafter be imposed upon such drugs when imported.

Any narcotic drug imported or brought into the United States or any territory under its control or jurisdiction, contrary to law, shall (1) if smoking opium or opium prepared for smoking, be seized and summarily forfeited to the United States Government without the necessity of instituting forfeiture proceedings of any character; or (2), if any other narcotic drug, be seized and forfeited to the United States Government, without regard to its value, in the manner provided by sections 514 and 515 of Title 19, or the provisions of law hereafter enacted which are amendatory of, or in substitution for, such sections. Any narcotic drug which is forfeited in a proceeding for condemnation or not claimed under such sections, or which is summarily forfeited as provided in this subdivision, shall be placed in the custody of the board and in its discretion be destroyed or delivered to some agency of the United States Government for use for medical or scientific purposes. (Feb. 9, 1909, c. 100, § 2, 35 Stat. 614; Jan. 17, 1914, c. 9, 38 Stat. 275; May 26, 1922, c. 202, § 1, 42 Stat. 596; June 7, 1924, c. 352, 43 Stat. 657.)

174. Same; penalty; evidence.—If any person fraudulently or knowingly imports or brings any narcotic drug into the United States or any territory under its control or jurisdiction, contrary to law, or assists in so doing or receives, conceals, buys, sells, or in any manner facilitates the transportation, concealment, or sale of any such narcotic drug after being imported or brought in, knowing the same to have been imported contrary to law, such person shall upon conviction be fined not more than $5,000 and imprisoned for not more than ten years. Whenever on trial for a violation of this section the defendant is shown to have or to have had possession of the narcotic drug, such possession shall be deemed sufficient evidence to authorize conviction unless the defendant explains the possession to the satisfaction of the jury. (June 9, 1909, c. 100, § 2, 35 Stat. 614; Jan. 17, 1914, c. 9, 38 Stat. 275; May 26, 1922, c. 202, § 1, 42 Stat. 596; June 7, 1924, c. 352, 43 Stat. 657.)

175. Same; deportation of convicted aliens.—Any alien who at any time after his entry is convicted under section 174 of this title shall upon the termination of the imprisonment imposed by the court upon such conviction and upon warrant issued by the Secretary of Labor be taken into custody and deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 155 and 156 of Title 8 or provisions of law hereafter enacted which are amendatory of or in substitution for such sections. (Feb. 9, 1909, c. 100, § 2, 35 Stat. 614; Jan. 17, 1914, c. 9, 38 Stat. 275; May 26, 1922, c. 202, § 1, 42 Stat. 596; June 7, 1924, c. 352, 43 Stat. 657.)

176. Same; masters of vessels; persons in charge of railroad cars, etc.; liability of.—The master of any vessel or other water craft, or a person in charge of a railroad car or other vehicle, shall not be liable under section 174 of this title, if he satisfies the jury that he had no knowledge of and used due diligence to prevent the presence of the narcotic drug in or on such vessel, water craft, railroad car, or other vehicle; but the narcotic drug shall be seized, forfeited, and disposed of as provided in the second paragraph of section 173 of this title. (Feb. 9, 1909, c. 100, § 2, 35 Stat. 614; Jan. 17, 1914, c. 9, 38 Stat. 275; May 26, 1922, c. 202, § 1, 42 Stat. 596; June 7, 1924, c. 352, 43 Stat. 657.)

177. Administration of law.—Except as otherwise provided by law, the administration of sections 171 to 185 of this title is vested in the Department of the Treasury. (Feb. 9, 1909, c. 100, § 2, 35 Stat. 614; Jan. 17, 1914, c. 9, 38 Stat. 275; Mar. 26, 1922, c. 202, § 1, 42 Stat. 596; June 7, 1924, c. 352, 43 Stat. 657.)

178. Smoking opium; possession in transit; evidence.—Any person subject to the jurisdiction of the United States who shall, either as principal or as accessory, receive or have in his possession, or conceal on board of or transport on any foreign or domestic vessel or other water craft or railroad car or other vehicle destined to or bound from the United States or any possession thereof, any smoking opium or opium prepared for smoking, or who, having knowledge of the presence in or on any such vessel, water craft, or vehicle of such article, shall not report the same to the principal officer thereof, shall be subject to the penalty provided in section 174 of this title. Whenever on trial for violation of this section the defendant is shown to have or to have had possession of such opium, such possession shall be deemed sufficient evidence to authorize conviction, unless the defendant shall explain the possession to the satisfaction of the jury. (Jan. 17, 1914, c. 9, § 4, 38 Stat. 275.)

179. Same; masters of vessels; persons in charge of railroad cars, and so forth; liability of; forfeiture.—Any master of a vessel or other water craft or person in charge of a railroad car or other vehicle shall not be liable under section 178 of this title if he shall satisfy the jury that he had no knowledge and used due diligence to prevent the presence of such article in or on such vessel, water craft, car, or other vessel, and any such article shall be forfeited and shall be destroyed. (Jan. 17, 1914, c. 9, § 4, 38 Stat. 275.)

180. Smoking opium not admitted for transportation to another country nor transferred from one vessel to another; other narcotic drugs.—No smoking opium or opium prepared for smoking shall be admitted into the United States or into any territory under its control or jurisdiction for transportation to another country, or be transferred or transshipped from one vessel to another vessel within any waters of the United States for immediate exportation or for any other purpose; and except with the approval of the board, no other narcotic drug may be so admitted, transferred, or transshipped. (Feb. 9, 1909, c. 100, § 5; Jan. 17, 1914, c. 9, 38 Stat. 275; May 26, 1922, c. 202, § 2, 42 Stat. 597.)

181. Presumption and burden of proof as to importation of smoking opium.—All smoking opium or opium prepared for smoking found within the United States shall be presumed to have been imported contrary to law, and the burden of proof shall be on the claimant or the accused to rebut such presumption. (Jan. 17, 1914, c. 9, § 3, 38 Stat. 275.)

182. Exportation of narcotic drugs prohibited; exception; requests for copies of laws of foreign governments; rules and regulations by board.—(a) It shall be unlawful for any person subject to the jurisdiction of the United States Government to export or cause to be exported from the United States, or from territory under its control or jurisdiction, or from countries in which the United States exercises extraterritorial jurisdiction, any narcotic drug to any other country. Narcotic drugs (except smoking opium and opium prepared for smoking, the exportation of which is absolutely prohibited) may be exported to a country only which has ratified and become a party to the convention and final protocol between the United States Government and other powers for the suppression of the abuses of opium and other drugs, commonly known as the International Opium Convention of 1912, and then only if (1) such country has instituted and maintains, in conformity with that convention, a system, which the board deems adequate, of permits or licenses for the control of imports of such narcotic drugs; (2) the narcotic drug is consigned to an authorized permittee; and (3) there is furnished to the board proof deemed adequate by it, that the narcotic drug is to be applied exclusively to medical and legitimate uses within the country to which exported, that it will not be reexported from such country, and that there is an actual shortage of and a demand for the narcotic drug for medical and legitimate uses within such country.

(b) The Secretary of State shall request all foreign governments to communicate through the diplomatic channels copies of the laws and regulations promulgated in their respective countries which prohibit or regulate the importation and shipment in transit of any narcotic drug and, when received, advise the board thereof.

(c) The board shall make and publish all proper regulations to carry into effect the authority vested in it by this subchapter. (Feb. 9, 1909, c. 100, § 6; Jan. 17, 1914, c. 9, 38 Stat. 275; May 26, 1922, c. 202, § 2, 42 Stat. 597.)

183. Same; punishment; share of fine to informer.—Any person who exports or causes to be exported any narcotic drugs in violation of the preceding section shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $5,000 nor less than $50 or by imprisonment for any time not exceeding two years, or both. And one-half of any fine recovered from any person or persons convicted of an offense under any section of this subchapter may be paid to the person or persons giving information leading to such recovery, and one-half of any bail forfeited and collected in any proceedings brought thereunder may be paid to the person or persons giving the information which led to the institution of such proceedings, if so directed by the court exercising jurisdiction in the case. No payment for giving information shall be made to any officer or employee of the United States. (Jan. 17, 1914, c. 9, § 7, 38 Stat. 277.)

184. Seizure and forfeiture of narcotic drugs found on vessel and not shown on manifest or landed from vessel without permit; penalty against master of vessel; withholding clearance papers; mitigation and remission of forfeitures and penalties.—A narcotic drug that is found upon a vessel arriving at a port of the United States or territory under its control or jurisdiction and is not shown upon the vessel's manifest, or that is landed from any such vessel without a permit first obtained from the collector of customs for that purpose, shall be seized, forfeited, and disposed of in the manner provided in the second paragraph of section 173 of this title, and the master of the vessel shall be liable (1) if the narcotic drug is smoking opium, to a penalty of $25 an ounce, and (2) if any other narcotic drug, to a penalty equal to the value of the narcotic drug.

Such penalty shall constitute a lien upon the vessel which may be enforced by proceedings by libel in rem. Clearance of the vessel from a port of the United States may be withheld until the penalty is paid, or until there is deposited with the collector of customs at the port, a bond in a penal sum double the amount of the penalty, with sureties approved by the collector, and conditioned on the payment of the penalty (or so much thereof as is not remitted by the Secretary of the Treasury) and of all costs and other expenses to the Government in proceedings for the recovery of the penalty, in case the master's application for remission of the penalty is denied in whole or in part by the Secretary of the Treasury.

The provisions of law for the mitigation and remission of penalties and forfeitures incurred for violations of the customs laws, shall apply to penalties incurred for a violation of the provisions of this section. (Feb. 9, 1909, c. 100, § 8; Jan. 17, 1914, c. 9, 38 Stat. 277; May 26, 1922, c. 202, § 3, 42 Stat. 598.)

185. Citation.—Sections 171 to 184 of this title may be cited as the "Narcotic Drugs Import and Export Act." (Feb. 9, 1909, c. 100, § 9; May 26, 1922, c. 202, § 4, 42 Stat. 598.)

IMPORTATION BY CHINESE SUBJECTS OR TRAFFICKING IN, IN CHINA, BY UNITED STATES CITIZENS

191. Opium importation by Chinese prohibited; penalty.—The importation of opium into any of the ports of the United States by any subject of the Emperor of China is prohibited.

Every person guilty of a violation of the preceding provision shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 nor less than $50, or by imprisonment for a period of not more than six months nor less than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. (Feb. 23, 1887, c. 210, § 1, 24 Stat. 409.)

192. Same; forfeiture.—Every package containing opium, either in whole or in part, imported into the United States by any subject of the Emperor of China, shall be deemed forfeited to the United States; and proceedings for the declaration and consequences of such forfeiture may be instituted in the courts of the United States as in other cases of the violation of the laws relating to other illegal importations. (Feb. 23, 1887, c. 210, § 2, 24 Stat. 409.)

193. Importation, transportation, and trafficking in, in China, by citizens prohibited.—No citizen of the United States shall import opium into any of the open ports of China, nor transport the same from one open port to any other open port, or buy or sell opium in any of such open ports of China, nor shall any vessel owned by citizens of the United States, or any vessel, whether foreign or otherwise, employed by any citizen of the United States, or owned by any citizen of the United States, either in whole or in part, and employed by persons not citizens of the United States, take or carry opium into any of such open ports of China, or transport the same from one open port to any other open port, or be engaged in any traffic therein between or in such open ports or any of them. Citizens of the United States offending against the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500 nor less than $50, or by both such punishments, in the discretion of the court. The consular courts of the United States in China, concurrently with any district court of the United States in the district in which any offender may be found, shall have jurisdiction to hear, try, and determine all cases arising under the foregoing provisions of this section, subject to the general regulations provided by law. Every package of opium or package containing opium, either in whole or in part, brought, taken, or transported, trafficked, or dealt in contrary to the provisions of this section, shall be forfeited to the United States, for the benefit of China; and such forfeiture, and the declaration and consequences thereof, shall be made, had, determined, and executed by the proper authorities of the United States exercising judicial powers within China. (Feb. 23, 1887, c. 210, § 3, 24 Stat. 409.)

Section 201. Doing business without a license unlawful; employment of Chinese subjects.—It shall be unlawful in the consular districts of the United States in China for any person whose permanent allegiance is due to the United States not licensed as a pharmacist within the meaning of this chapter to conduct or manage any pharmacy, drug or chemical store, apothecary shop, or other place of business for the retailing, compounding, or dispensing of any drugs, chemicals, or poisons, or for the compounding of physicians' prescriptions, or to keep exposed for sale at retail, any drugs, chemicals, or poisons, except as hereinafter provided, or, except as hereinafter provided, for any person whose permanent allegiance is due to the United States not licensed as a pharmacist within the meaning of this chapter to compound, dispense, or sell, at retail, any drug, chemical, poison, or pharmaceutical preparation upon the prescription of a physician, or otherwise, or to compound physicians' prescriptions, except as an aid to and under the proper supervision of a pharmacist licensed under this chapter. And it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation owing permanent allegiance to the United States owning partly or wholly or managing a pharmacy, drug store, or other place of business to cause or permit any person other than a licensed pharmacist to compound, dispense, or sell at retail any drug, medicine, or poison, except as an aid to and under the proper supervision of a licensed pharmacist. Where it is necessary for a person, firm, or corporation whose permanent allegiance is due to the United States and owning partly or wholly or managing a pharmacy, drug store, or other place of business to employ Chinese subjects to compound, dispense, or sell at retail any drug, medicine, or poison, such person, firm, or corporation, owner, part owner, or manager of a pharmacy, drug store, or other place of business may employ such Chinese subjects when their character, ability, and age of twenty-one years or over have been certified to by at least two recognized and reputable practitioners of medicine, or two pharmacists licensed under this chapter whose permanent allegiance is due to the United States. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 74, § 1, 38 Stat. 817.)

202. Same; certain classes of persons and corporations excepted; insecticides.—Nothing in section 201 of this title shall be construed to interfere with any recognized and reputable practitioner of medicine, dentistry, or veterinary surgery in the compounding of his own prescriptions, or to prevent him from supplying to his patients such medicines as he may deem proper, except as hereinafter provided; nor with the exclusively wholesale business of any person, firm, or corporation whose permanent allegiance is due to the United States dealing and licensed as pharmacists, or having in their employ at least one person who is so licensed, except as hereinafter provided; nor with the sale by persons, firms, or corporations whose permanent allegiance is due to the United States other than pharmacists of poisonous substances sold exclusively for use in the arts, or as insecticides, when such substances are sold in unbroken packages bearing labels having plainly printed upon them the name of the contents, the word "Poison," when practicable the name of at least one suitable antidote, and the name and address of the vender. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 74, § 1, 38 Stat. 817.)

203. Same; application for license; requirements; qualifications for license.—Every person whose permanent allegiance is due to the United States desiring to practice as a pharmacist in the consular districts in China shall file with the consul an application, duly verified under oath, setting forth the name and age of the applicant, the place or places at which he pursued and the time spent in the study of pharmacy, the experience which the applicant has had in compounding physicians' prescriptions under the direction of a licensed pharmacist, and the name and location of the school or college of pharmacy, if any, of which he is a graduate, and shall submit evidence sufficient to show to the satisfaction of said consul that he is of good moral character and not addicted to the use of alcoholic liquors or narcotic drugs so as to render him unfit to practice pharmacy. Applicants shall be not less than twenty-one years of age and shall have had at least four years' experience in the practice of pharmacy or shall have served three years under the instruction of a regularly licensed pharmacist, and any applicant who has been graduated from a school or college of pharmacy recognized by the proper board of his State, Territory, District of Columbia, or other possession of the United States as in good standing shall be entitled to practice upon presentation of his diploma. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 74, § 2, 38 Stat. 818.)

204. Same; issue of license.—If the applicant for license as a pharmacist has complied with the requirements of section 203 of this title, the consul shall issue to him a license which shall entitle him to practice pharmacy in the consular districts of the United States in China, subject to the provisions of this chapter. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 74, § 3, 38 Stat. 819.)

205. Display of license in pharmacy.—Every license to practice pharmacy shall be conspicuously displayed by the person to whom the same has been issued in the pharmacy, drug store, or place of business, if any, of which the said person is the owner or part owner or manager. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 74, § 5, 38 Stat. 819.)

206. Revocation of license.—The license of any person whose permanent allegiance is due to the United States to practice pharmacy in the consular districts of the United States in China may be revoked by the consul if such person be found to have obtained such license by fraud, or be addicted to the use of any narcotic or stimulant, or to be suffering from physical or mental disease, in such manner and to such extent as to render it expedient that in the interests of the public his license be canceled; or to be of an immoral character; or if such person be convicted in any court of competent jurisdiction of any offense involving moral turpitude. It shall be the duty of the consul to investigate any case in which it is discovered by him or made to appear to his satisfaction that any license issued under the provisions of this chapter is revocable and shall, after full hearing, if in his judgment the facts warrant it, revoke such license. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 74, § 4, 38 Stat. 819.)

207. Restrictions on sales; written orders or prescriptions.—It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation whose permanent allegiance is due to the United States, either personally or by servant or agent or as the servant or agent of any other person or of any firm or corporation, to sell, furnish, or give away any cocaine, salts of cocaine, or preparation containing cocaine or salts of cocaine, or morphine or preparation containing morphine or salts of morphine, or any opium or preparation containing opium, or any chloral hydrate or preparation containing chloral hydrate, except upon the original written order or prescription of a recognized and reputable practitioner of medicine, dentistry, or veterinary medicine, which order or prescription shall be dated and shall contain the name of the person for whom prescribed, or, if ordered by a practitioner of veterinary medicine, shall state the kind of animal for which ordered and shall be signed by the person giving the order or prescription. Such order or prescription shall be, for a period of three years, retained on file by the person, firm, or corporation who compounds or dispenses the article ordered or prescribed, and it shall not be compounded or dispensed after the first time except upon the written order of the original prescriber. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 74, § 6, 38 Stat. 819.)

208. Same; certain preparations and sales excepted.—The provisions of the preceding section shall not apply to preparations containing not more than two grains of opium or not more than one-quarter grain of morphine, or not more than one-quarter grain of cocaine, or not more than two grains of chloral hydrate in the fluid ounce, or, if a solid preparation, in one avoirdupois ounce, nor shall they apply to preparations sold in good faith for diarrhea and cholera, each bottle or package of which is accompanied by specific directions for use and caution against habitual use, nor to liniments or ointments sold in good faith as such when plainly labeled "for external use only," nor to powder of ipecac and opium, commonly known as Dover's powder, when sold in quantities not exceeding twenty grains. The provisions of this section or section 207 of this title shall not be construed to permit the selling, furnishing, giving away, or prescribing for the use of any habitual users of the same any cocaine, salts of cocaine, or preparation containing cocaine or salts of cocaine, or morphine or salts of morphine, or preparations containing morphine or salts of morphine, or any opium or preparation containing opium, or any chloral hydrate or preparation containing chloral hydrate. But the preceding sentence shall not be construed to prevent any recognized or reputable practitioner of medicine whose permanent allegiance is due to the United States from furnishing in good faith for the use of any habitual user of narcotic drugs who is under his professional care such substances as he may deem necessary for their treatment, when such prescriptions are not given or substances furnished for the purpose of evading the provisions of this section. But the provisions of this section or said section 207 shall not apply to sales at wholesale between jobbers, manufacturers, and retail druggists, hospitals, and scientific or public institutions. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 74, § 6, 38 Stat. 819.)

209. Same; poisons; book entry of sale; labels.—It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation whose permanent allegiance is due to the United States to sell or deliver to any other person any of the following-described substances, or any poisonous compound, combination, or preparation thereof, to wit: The compounds of and salts of antimony, arsenic, barium, chromium, copper, gold, lead, mercury, silver, and zinc, the caustic hydrates of sodium and potassium, solution or water of ammonia, methyl alcohol, paregoric, the concentrated mineral acids, oxalic and hydrocyanic acids and their salts, yellow phosphorus, Paris green, carbolic acid, the essential oils of almonds, pennyroyal, tansy, rue, and savin; croton oil, creosote, chloroform, cantharides, or aconite, belladonna, bitter almonds, colchicum, cotton root, cocculus indicus, conium, cannabis indica, digatalis, ergot, hyoscyamus, ignatia, lobelia, nux vomica, physostigma, phytolacca, strophanthus, stramonium, veratrum viride, or any of the poisonous alkaloids or alkaloidal salts derived from the foregoing, or any other poisonous alkaloids or their salts, or any other virulent poison, except in the manner following, and, moreover, if the applicant be less than eighteen years of age, except upon the written order of a person known or believed to be an adult.

It shall first be learned, by due inquiry, that the person to whom delivery is about to be made is aware of the poisonous character of the substance and that it is desired for a lawful purpose, and the box, bottle, or other package shall be plainly labeled with the name of the substance, the word "Poison," the name of at least one suitable antidote, when practicable, and the name and address of the person, firm, or corporation dispensing the substance. And before delivery be made of any of the foregoing substances, excepting solution or water of ammonia and sulphate of copper, there shall be recorded in a book kept for that purpose the name of the article, the quantity delivered, the purpose for which it is to be used, the date of delivery, the name and address of the person for whom it is procured, and the name of the individual personally dispensing the same; and said book shall be preserved by the owner thereof for at least three years after the date of the last entry therein. The foregoing provisions shall not apply to articles dispensed upon the order of persons believed by the dispenser to be recognized and reputable practitioners of medicine, dentistry, or veterinary surgery. When a physician writes upon his prescription a request that it be marked or labeled "Poison" the pharmacist shall, in the case of liquids, place the same in a colored glass, roughened bottle, of the kind commonly known in trade as a "poison bottle," and, in the case of dry substances, he shall place a poison label upon the container. The record of sale and delivery above mentioned shall not be required of manufacturers and wholesalers who shall sell any of the foregoing substances at wholesale to licensed pharmacists, but the box, bottle, or other package containing such substance, when sold at wholesale, shall be properly labeled with the name of the substance, the word "poison," and the name and address of the manufacturer or wholesaler. It shall not be necessary, in sales either at wholesale or at retail, to place a poison label upon, nor to record the delivery of, the sulphide of antimony, or the oxide or carbonate of zinc, or of colors ground in oil and intended for use as paints, or calomel; nor in the case of preparations containing any of the substances named in this section, when a single box, bottle, or other package, or when the bulk of one-half fluid ounce or the weight of one-half avoirdupois ounce does not contain more than an adult medicinal dose of such substance; nor, in the case of liniments or ointments sold in good faith as such, when plainly labeled "For external use only"; nor, in the case of preparations put up and sold in the form of pills, tablets, or lozenges, containing any of the substances enumerated in this section and intended for internal use, when the dose recommended does not contain more than one-fourth of an adult medicinal dose of such substance.

For the purpose of this and of every other section of this chapter no box, bottle, or other package shall be regarded as having been labeled "Poison" unless the word "Poison" appears conspicuously thereon, printed in plain, uncondensed gothic letters in red ink. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 74, § 7, 38 Stat. 820.)

210. Pharmacist; unauthorized use of title.—It shall be unlawful for any person whose permanent allegiance is due to the United States, not legally licensed as a pharmacist, to take, use, or exhibit the title of pharmacist, or licensed or registered pharmacist, or the title of druggist or apothecary, or any other title or description of like import. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 74, § 10, 38 Stat. 821.)

211. Preservation of originals of prescriptions compounded and copies thereof; inspection of prescriptions by consular officers; marking containers of drugs.—Every person, firm, or corporation whose permanent allegiance is due to the United States owning, partly owning, or managing a drug store or pharmacy shall keep in his place of business a suitable book or file, in which shall be preserved for a period of not less than three years the original of every prescription compounded or dispensed at such store or pharmacy, or a copy of such prescription, except when the preservation of the original is required by section 207 or 208 of this title. Upon request the owner, part owner, or manager of such store shall furnish to the prescribing physician, or to the person for whom such prescription was compounded or dispensed, a true and correct copy thereof. Any prescription required by said section 207 or 208 of this title, and any prescription for, or register of sales of, substances mentioned in such sections shall at all times be open to inspection by duly authorized consular officers in the consular districts of the United States in China. No person, firm, or corporation whose permanent allegiance is due to the United States shall, in a consular district, compound or dispense any drug or drugs or deliver the same to any other person without marking on the container thereof the name of the drug or drugs contained therein and directions for using the same. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 74, § 9, 38 Stat. 821.)

212. Offenses; punishment; duty to enforce provisions.—Any person, firm, or corporation, whose permanent allegiance is due to the United States, violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50 and not more than $100 or by imprisonment for not less than one month and not more than sixty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court, and if the offense be continuing in its character each week or part of a week during which it continues shall constitute a separate and distinct offense. And it shall be the duty of the consular and judicial officers of the United States in China to enforce the provisions of this chapter. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 74, § 11, 38 Stat. 821.)

213. Fraudulent representations to evade or defeat restrictions.—No person, firm, or corporation whose permanent allegiance is due to the United States seeking to procure in the consular districts of the United States in China any substance the sale of which is regulated by the provisions of this chapter shall make any fraudulent representations so as to evade or defeat the restrictions herein imposed. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 74, § 8, 38 Stat. 821.)

214. Previous laws unaffected.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as modifying or revoking any of the provisions of sections 191 to 193 of this title. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 74, § 13, 38 Stat. 822.)

215. "Consul" defined.—The word "consul" as used in this chapter shall mean the consular officer in charge of the district concerned. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 74, § 12, 38 Stat. 822.)

ORGANIZATION OF "FOREIGN SERVICE OF UNITED STATES"

Section 1. Establishment of "Foreign Service."—The Diplomatic and Consular Service of the United States shall be known as the Foreign Service of the United States. (May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 1, 43 Stat. 140.)

2. "Foreign Service officer" defined; assignment to duty generally.—The official designation "Foreign Service officer" as employed throughout sections 3 to 23, inclusive, of this chapter shall be deemed to denote permanent officers in the Foreign Service below the grade of minister, all of whom are subject to promotion on merit, and who may be assigned to duty in either the diplomatic or the consular branch of the Foreign Service at the discretion of the President. (May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 2, 43 Stat. 140.)

3. Grading, classification, and salaries; details for purpose of inspection.—The officers in the Foreign Service shall be graded and classified as follows, with the salaries of each class herein affixed thereto, but not exceeding in number for each class a proportion to the total number of officers in the service represented in the following percentage limitations: Ambassadors and ministers as now or hereafter provided; Foreign Service officers as follows: Class 1, 6 per centum, $9,000; class 2, 7 per centum, $8,000; class 3, 8 per centum, $7,000; class 4, 9 per centum, $6,000; class 5, 10 per centum, $5,000; class 6, 14 per centum, $4,500; class 7, $4,000; class 8, $3,500; class 9, $3,000; unclassified, $3,000 to $1,500: Provided, That as many Foreign Service officers above class 6 as may be required for the purpose of inspection may be detailed by the Secretary of State for that purpose. (May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 3, 43 Stat. 140.)

4. Appointment of Foreign Service officers as diplomatic secretaries or as consular officers; official acts under respective commissions.—Foreign Service officers may be appointed as secretaries in the Diplomatic Service or as consular officers or both: Provided, That all such appointments shall be made by and with the advice and consent of the Senate: Provided further, That all official acts of such officers while on duty in either the diplomatic or the consular branch of the Foreign Service shall be performed under their respective commissions as secretaries or as consular officers. (May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 4, 43 Stat. 140.)

5. Appointment of Foreign Service officers; examination and probation; transfers from State Department; citizenship requirement; reinstatement.—Appointments to the position of Foreign Service officer shall be made after examination and a suitable period of probation in an unclassified grade or, after five years of continuous service in the Department of State, by transfer therefrom under such rules and regulations as the President may prescribe: Provided, That no candidate shall be eligible for examination for Foreign Service officer who is not an American citizen: Provided further, That reinstatement of Foreign Service officers separated from the classified service by reason of appointment to some other position in the Government service may be made by Executive order of the President under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe. (May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 5, 43 Stat. 141.)

6. Appointment to class, assignment to post; classification as diplomatic secretaries and as consular officers abolished.—All appointments of Foreign Service officers shall be by commission to a class and not by commission to any particular post, and such officers shall be assigned to posts and may be transferred from one post to another by order of the President as the interests of the service may require: Provided, That the classification of secretaries in the Diplomatic Service and of consular officers existing on July 1, 1924, is abolished as of that date, without, however, in anywise impairing the validity of the then existing commissions of secretaries and consular officers. (May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 5, 43 Stat. 141.)

7. Reports and recommendations for promotions and appointments.—The Secretary of State is directed to report from time to time to the President, along with his recommendations, the names of those Foreign Service officers who by reason of efficient service have demonstrated special capacity for promotion to the grade of minister and the names of those Foreign Service officers and employees and officers and employees in the Department of State who by reason of efficient service, an accurate record of which shall be kept in the Department of State, have demonstrated special efficiency, and also the names of persons found upon taking the prescribed examination to have fitness for appointment to the lower grades of the service. (Feb. 5, 1915, c. 23, § 5, 38 Stat. 806; May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 6, 43 Stat. 141.)

8. Recommissioning diplomatic and consular officers.—On July 1, 1924, the Secretary of State shall certify to the President, with his recommendation in each case, the record of efficiency of the several secretaries in the Diplomatic Service, cousuls general, consuls, vice consuls of career, consular assistants, interpreters, and student interpreters then in office and shall, except in cases of persons found to merit reduction in rank or dismissal from the service, recommend to the President the recommissioning, without further examination, of those then in office as follows:

Secretaries of class 1 designated as counselors of embassy, and consuls general of classes 1 and 2 as Foreign Service officers of class 1.

Secretaries of class 1 designated as counselors of legation and consuls general of class 3 as Foreign Service officers of class 2.

Secretaries of class 1 not designated as counselors, consuls general of class 4, and consuls general at large as Foreign Service officers of class 3.

Secretaries of class 2, consuls general of class 5, consuls of classes 1, 2, and 3, and Chinese, Japanese, and Turkish secretaries as Foreign Service officers of class 4.

Consuls of class 4 as Foreign Service officers of class 5.

Secretaries of class 3, consuls of class 5, and Chinese, Japanese, and Turkish assistant secretaries as Foreign Service officers of class 6.

Consuls of class 6 as Foreign Service officers of class 7.

Secretaries of class 4 and consuls of class 7 as Foreign Service officers of class 8.

Consuls of classes 8 and 9 as Foreign Service officers of class 9.

Vice consuls of career, consular assistants, interpreters, and student interpreters as Foreign Service officers, unclassified. (May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 7, 43 Stat. 141.)

9. Inspection of diplomatic and consular offices; expenses of inspector; suspension of consuls, etc.; penal liability of inspectors.—Foreign Service officers detailed for the purpose of inspection, shall, under the direction of the Secretary of State, inspect the work of offices in the Foreign Service, both in the diplomatic and the consular branches. Each office shall be inspected at least once in every two years. Whenever the President has reason to believe that the business of a consulate or a consulate general is not being properly conducted and that it is necessary for the public interest, he may authorize any Foreign Service officer detailed for the purpose of inspection to suspend the consul or consul general, and administer the office in his stead for a period not exceeding ninety days. In such case the Foreign Service officer so authorized shall have power to suspend any vice consular officer or clerk in said office during the period aforesaid. The provisions of section 103 of this chapter shall apply to Foreign Service officers detailed for the purpose of inspection. (Apr. 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 4, 34 Stat. 100; May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 10, 43 Stat. 142.)

10. Abolition of grade of consular assistants; recommissioning as Foreign Service officers.—The grade of consular assistant is abolished, as of July 1, 1924, and all consular assistants as of that date in the service are recommissioned as Foreign Service officers unclassified. (May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 8, 43 Stat. 142.)

11. Bonds of officers of the Foreign Service.—Every secretary, consul general, consul, vice consul of career, or Foreign Service officer, before he receives his commission or enters upon the duties of his office, shall give to the United States a bond, in such form as the President shall prescribe, with such sureties, who shall be permanent residents of the United States, as the Secretary of State shall approve, in a penal sum not less than the annual compensation allowed to such officer, conditioned for the true and faithful accounting for, paying over, and delivering up of all fees, moneys, goods, effects, books, records, papers, and other property which shall come to his hands or to the hands of any other person to his use as such officer under any law now or hereafter enacted, and for the true and faithful performance of all other duties now or hereafter lawfully imposed upon him as such officer: Provided, That the operation of no bond existing July 1, 1924, shall in any wise be impaired by the provisions of sections 1 to 23, inclusive, of this chapter: Provided further, That such bond shall cover by its stipulations all official acts of such officer, whether as Foreign Service officer or as secretary in the Diplomatic Service, consul general, consul, or vice consul of career. The bonds herein mentioned shall be deposited with the Secretary of the Treasury. (R. S. § 1697; May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 9, 43 Stat. 142.)

12. Representation allowances to diplomatic missions and consulates.—The President is hereby authorized to grant to diplomatic missions and to consular offices at capitals of countries where there is no diplomatic mission of the United States representation allowances out of any money which may be appropriated for such purpose from time to time by Congress, the expenditure of such representation allowance to be accounted for in detail to the Department of State quarterly under such rules and regulations as the President may prescribe. (May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 12, 43 Stat. 142.)

13. Fees; accounting; stamps.—The provisions of sections 99 and 100 of this chapter relative to official fees and the method of accounting therefor shall include both branches of the Foreign Service. (May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 11, 43 Stat. 142.)

14. Private secretaries to ambassadors; appointment; salaries.—Appropriations are authorized for the salary of a private secretary to each ambassador who shall be appointed by the ambassador and hold office at his pleasure. (May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 13, 43 Stat. 143.)

15. Assignment for duty in State Department.—Any Foreign Service officer may be assigned for duty in the Department of State without loss of class or salary, such assignment to be for a period of not more than three years, unless the public interests demand further service, when such assignment may be extended for a period not to exceed one year. (May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 14, 43 Stat. 143.)

16. Special details and inspectors; allowance for expenses.—Any Foreign Service officer of whatever class detailed for special duty not at his post or in the Department of State shall be paid his actual and necessary expenses for travel and not exceeding an average of $8 per day for subsistence during such special detail: Provided, That such special duty shall not continue for more than sixty days, unless in the case of trade conferences or international gatherings, congresses, or conferences, when such subsistence expenses shall run only during the period thereof and the necessary period of transit to and from the place of gathering: Provided further, That the Secretary of State is authorized to prescribe a per diem allowance not exceeding $6, in lieu of subsistence for Foreign Service officers on special duty or Foreign Service inspectors. (May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 14, 43 Stat. 143.)

17. Ordering officers to United States on statutory leave of absence; traveling expenses; duty while on leave.—The Secretary of State is authorized, whenever he deems it to be in the public interest, to order to the United States on his statutory leave of absence any Foreign Service officer who has performed three years or more of continuous service abroad: Provided, That the expenses of transportation and subsistence of such officers and their immediate families, in traveling from their post to their homes in the United States and return, shall be paid under the same rules and regulations applicable in the case of officers going to and returning from their posts under orders of the Secretary of State when not on leave: Provided further, That while in the United States the services of such officers shall be available for trade conference work or for such duties in the Department of State as the Secretary of State may prescribe. (May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 15, 43 Stat. 143.)

18. Counselor of embassy or legation.—The President may, whenever he considers it advisable so to do, designate and assign any Foreign Service officer as counselor of embassy or legation. (May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 16, 43 Stat. 143.)

19. Commissioner, chargé d'affaires; minister resident and diplomatic agent; appointment and salary.—Within the discretion of the President, any Foreign Service officer may be appointed to act as commissioner, chargé d'affaires, minister resident, or diplomatic agent for such period as the public interests may require without loss of grade, class, or salary: Provided, however, That no such officer shall receive more than one salary. (May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 17, 43 Stat. 143.)

20. Compensation of Foreign Service officer acting as chargé d'affaires ad interim or in charge of consulate.—For such time as any Foreign Service officer shall be lawfully authorized to act as chargé d'affaires ad interim or to assume charge of a consulate general or consulate during the absence of the principal officer at the post to which he shall have been assigned, he shall, if his salary is less than one-half that of such principal officer, receive in addition to his salary as Foreign Service officer compensation equal to the difference between such salary and one-half of the salary provided by law for the ambassador, minister, or principal consular officer, as the case may be. Vice consuls while in charge of a consulate general or consulate during the absence of the principal officer shall be entitled to additional compensation in the same manner and under the same conditions as Foreign Service officers as provided above in this section. (May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 17, 43 Stat. 143; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title I, 43 Stat. 1016.)

21. Retirement and disability system; establishment; rules and regulations.—The President is authorized to prescribe rules and regulations for the establishment of a Foreign Service retirement and disability system to be administered under the direction of the Secretary of State and in accordance with the following principles, to wit:

(a) Reports; appropriations.—The Secretary of State shall submit annually a comparative report showing all receipts and disbursements on account of refunds, allowances, and annuities, together with the total number of persons receiving annuities and the amounts paid them, and shall submit annually estimates of appropriations necessary to continue this section in full force and such appropriations are hereby authorized: Provided, That in no event shall the aggregate total appropriations exceed the aggregate total of the contributions of the Foreign Service officers theretofore made, and accumulated interest thereon.

(b) Foreign Service retirement and disability fund.—There is hereby created a special fund to be known as the Foreign Service retirement and disability fund.

(c) Deductions from salaries of Foreign Service officers.—Five per centum of the basic salary of all Foreign Service officers eligible to retirement shall be contributed to the Foreign Service retirement and disability fund and the Secretary of the Treasury is directed on July 1, 1924, to cause such deductions to be made and the sums transferred on the books of the Treasury Department to the credit of the Foreign Service retirement and disability fund for the payment of annuities, refunds, and allowances: Provided, That all basic salaries in excess of $9,000 per annum shall be treated as $9,000.

(d) Age and period of service for retirement.—When any Foreign Service officer has reached the age of sixty-five years and rendered at least fifteen years of service he shall be retired: Provided, That the President may in his discretion retain any such officer on active duty for such period not exceeding five years as he may deem for the interest of the United States.

(e) Annuities; amounts.—Annuities shall be paid to retired Foreign Service officers under the following classification, based upon length of service and at the following percentages of the average annual basic salary for the ten years next preceding the date of retirement: Class A, thirty years or more, 60 per centum; class B, from twenty-seven to thirty years, 54 per centum; class C, from twenty-four to twenty-seven years, 48 per centum; class D, from twenty-one to twenty-four years, 42 per centum; class E, from eighteen to twenty-one years, 36 per centum; class F, from fifteen to eighteen years, 30 per centum.

(f) Deductions from annuities.—Those officers who retire before having contributed for each year of service shall have withheld from their annuities to the credit of the Foreign Service retirement and disability fund such proportion of 5 per centum as the number of years in which they did not contribute bears to the total length of service.

(g) Investment of fund.—The Secretary of the Treasury is directed to invest from time to time in interest-bearing securities of the United States such portions of the Foreign Service retirement and disability fund as in his judgment may not be immediately required for the payment of annuities, refunds, and allowances, and the income derived from such investments shall constitute a part of said fund.

(h) Annuities; nonassignable; exemption from legal process.—None of the moneys mentioned in this section shall be assignable, either in law or equity, or be subject to execution, levy, or attachment, garnishment, or other legal process.

(i) Distribution of excess of accumulated contributions of annuitants without having received annuities equal to amounts contributed.—In case an annuitant dies without having received in annuities an amount equal to the total amount of his contributions from salary with interest thereon at 4 per centum per annum compounded annually up to the time of his death, the excess of the said accumulated contributions over the said annuity payments shall be paid to his or her legal representatives; and in case a Foreign Service officer shall die without having reached the retirement age the total amount of his contributions with accrued interest shall be paid to his legal representatives.

(j) Retirement for disability.—Any Foreign Service officer who before reaching the age of retirement becomes totally disabled for useful and efficient service by reason of disease or injury not due to vicious habits, intemperance, or willful misconduct on his part, shall, upon his own application or upon order of the President, be retired on an annuity under paragraph (e) of this section: Provided, however, That in each case such disability shall be determined by the report of a duly qualified physician or surgeon designated by the Secretary of State to conduct the examination: Provided further, That unless the disability be permanent, a like examination shall be made annually in order to determine the degree of disability, and the payment of annuity shall cease from the date of the medical examination showing recovery.

Fees for examinations under this provision, together with reasonable traveling and other expenses incurred in order to submit to examination, shall be paid out of the Foreign Service retirement and disability fund.

When the annuity is discontinued under this provision, before the annuitant has received a sum equal to the total amount of his contributions with accrued interest, the difference shall be paid to him or to his legal representatives.

(k) Residence at unhealthful tropical posts.—The President is authorized from time to time to establish, by Executive order, a list of places in tropical countries which by reason of climatic or other extreme conditions are to be classed as unhealthful posts, and each year of duty at such posts, while so classed, inclusive of regular leaves of absence, shall be counted as one year and a half, and so on in like proportion in reckoning the length of service for the purposes of retirement.

(l) Return of contributions on separation from service before retirement.—Whenever a Foreign Service officer becomes separated from the service except for disability before reaching the age of retirement, 75 per centum of the total amount of contribution from his salary without interest shall be returned to him.

(m) Reduction of annuity of retired Foreign Service officers accepting other employment.—Whenever any Foreign Service officer, after the date of his retirement, accepts a position of employment the emoluments of which are greater than the annuity received by him from the United States Government by virtue of his retirement under this section, the amount of the said annuity during the continuance of such employment shall be reduced by an equal amount: Provided, That all retired Foreign Service officers shall notify the Secretary of State once a year of any positions of employment accepted by them stating the amount of compensation received therefrom and whenever any such officer fails to so report it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to order the payment of the annuity to be suspended until such report is received.

(n) Expense of administering retirement system.—The Secretary of State is authorized to expend from surplus money to the credit of the Foreign Service retirement and disability fund an amount not exceeding $5,000 for the expenses necessary in carrying out the provisions of this section, including actuarial advice.

(o) Rights of diplomatic secretaries or consular officers promoted to grade of ambassador or minister or appointed to position in State Department.—Any diplomatic secretary or consular officer who has been or any Foreign Service officer who may hereafter be promoted from the classified service to the grade of ambassador or minister, or appointed to a position in the Department of State shall be entitled to all the benefits of this section in the same manner and under the same conditions as Foreign Service officers.

(p) Computation of period of service.—For the purposes of this section the period of service shall be computed from the date of original oath of office as secretary in the Diplomatic Service, consul general, consul, vice consul, deputy consul, consular assistant, consular agent, commercial agent, interpreter, or student interpreter, and shall include periods of service at different times in either the Diplomatic or Consular Service, or while on assignment to the Department of State, or on special duty, but all periods of separation from the service and so much of any period of leave of absence as may exceed six months shall be excluded: Provided, That service in the Department of State prior to appointment as a Foreign Service officer may be included in the period of service, in which case the officer shall pay into the Foreign Service retirement and disability fund a special contribution equal to 5 per centum of his annual salary for each year of such employment, with interest thereon to date of payment compounded annually at 4 per centum. (May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 18, 43 Stat. 144.)

22. Recall of retired officer to active duty; compensation.—In the event of public emergency any retired Foreign Service officer may be recalled temporarily to active service by the President and while so serving he shall be entitled in lieu of his retirement allowance to the full pay of the class in which he is temporarily serving. (May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 19, 43 Stat. 146.)

23. Other laws applicable to Foreign Service officers.—All provisions of law enacted prior to July 1, 1924, relating to secretaries in the Diplomatic Service and to consular officers, which are not inconsistent with the foregoing provisions of this chapter, are hereby made applicable to Foreign Service officers when they are designated for service as diplomatic or as consular officers, and all Acts or parts of Acts, then in force, inconsistent with sections 1 to 23 inclusive of this chapter are repealed. (May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 20, 43 Stat. 146.)

DIPLOMATIC OFFICERS GENERALLY

31. Restriction against creation of new ambassadorships.—No new ambassadorship shall be created unless the same shall be provided for by Act of Congress. (March 2, 1909, c. 235, 35 Stat. 672.)

32. Appointment and salaries of ambassadors, ministers, etc.—Ambassadors, envoys extraordinary and ministers plenipotentiary, ministers resident, and agents shall be entitled to compensation at the rates following, per annum, namely:

Ambassadors extraordinary and plenipotentiary to Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Cuba, France, Germany, Great Britain, Italy, Japan, Mexico, Peru, Spain, and Turkey, $17,500: Provided, That the salary of an envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Turkey, in the event that the President should appoint a diplomatic representative of that grade, shall be $12.000;

Ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary to Belgium and envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Luxemburg, $17,500;

Envoys extraordinary and ministers plenipotentiary to China, and the Netherlands, $12,000;

Envoys extraordinary and ministers plenipotentiary to Albania, Austria, Bolivia, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Colombia, Costa Rica, Denmark, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Egypt, Finland, Greece, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Hungary, Nicaragua, Norway, Panama, Paraguay, Persia, Poland, Portugal, Rumania, Salvador, Siam, Sweden, Switzerland, Uruguay, and Venezula, $10,000, and to the Serbs, Croats, and Slovenes, $10,000;

Envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Esthonia, Latvia, and Lithuania, $10,000;

Minister resident and consul general to Liberia, $5,000;

Agent and consul general at Tangier, $7,500;

Provided, That no salary herein appropriated shall be paid to any official receiving any other salary from the United States Government.

Ambassadors, and envoys extraordinary and ministers plenipotentiary to all other countries, unless where a different compensation is prescribed by law, shall be entitled to compensation each, at the rate of $10,000 per annum.

And, unless when otherwise provided by law, ministers resident and commissioners shall be entitled to compensation at the rate of 75 per centum, and chargés d'affaires at the rate of 50 per centum, of the amounts allowed to ambassadors, envoys extraordinary, and ministers plenipotentiary to the said countries, respectively. (R. S. § 1675; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, 43 Stat. 1015.)

33. Citizenship as requisite to compensation.—No compensation provided for any officer mentioned in the preceding section, or any appropriation therefor, shall be applicable to the payment of the compensation of any person appointed to or holding any such office who shall not be a citizen of the United States; nor shall any other compensation be allowed in any such case. (R. S. § 1744.)

34. Ambassador to Belgium.—The President is authorized to appoint, as the representative of the United States, an ambassador to the Kingdom of Belgium, who shall receive as compensation the sum of $17,500 per annum. (Sept. 29, 1919, c. 72, 41 Stat. 291.)

35. Clerks at embassies and legations.—Clerks at the embassies and legations, whenever appointed, shall be citizens of the United States, and so far as practicable shall be appointed under civil-service rules and regulations. (Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title I, 43 Stat. 1016.)

36. Compensation of persons filling two offices.—When to any diplomatic office held by any person there is superadded another, such person shall be allowed additional compensation for his services in such superadded office, at the rate of 50 per centum of the amount allowed by law for such superadded office, and for such time as shall be actually and necessarily occupied in making the transit between the two posts of duty, at the commencement and termination of the period of such superadded office, and no longer; and such superadded office shall be deemed to continue during the time to which it is limited by the terms thereof. (R. S. § 1686.)

37. Special allowance to messenger of embassy at Paris.—The Secretary of State is authorized to allow and pay to the messenger of the embassy in Paris, from the moneys collected at the embassy for the transmission of consular invoices, an amount not to exceed in the aggregate $160 in any one year, provided that the surplus receipts are sufficient for that purpose. (June 11, 1874, c. 275, § 1, 18 Stat. 67.)

38. Restriction against transaction of business by diplomatic officers.—No ambassador, minister, minister resident, diplomatic agent, or secretary in the Diplomatic Service of any grade or class shall, while he holds his office, be interested in or transact any business as a merchant, factor, broker, or other trader, or as an agent for any such person to, from, or within the country or countries to which he or the chief of his mission, as the case may be, is accredited, either in his own name or in the name or through the agency of any other person, nor shall he, in such country or countries, practice as a lawyer for compensation or be interested in the fees or compensation of any lawyer so practicing. (Feb. 5, 1915, c. 23, § 7, 38 Stat., 807.)

39. Uniforms and official costumes prohibited.—No person in the Diplomatic Service of the United States shall wear any uniform or official costume not previously authorized by Congress. (R. S. § 1688.)

40. "Diplomatic officer" defined.—"Diplomatic officer" shall be deemed to include ambassadors, envoys extraordinary, ministers plenipotentiary, and ministers resident, and none others. (Feb. 5, 1915, c. 23, § 6, 38 Stat. 806; July 1, 1916, c. 208, 39 Stat. 252; May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 2, 43 Stat. 140.)

CONSULAR OFFICERS GENERALLY

51. Official designations in consular service.—The official designations employed throughout this chapter shall be deemed to have the following meanings, respectively:

First. "Consul general" and "consul" shall be deemed to denote full, principal, and permanent consular officers as distinguished from subordinates and substitutes.

Second. "Consular agent" shall be deemed to denote consular officers subordinate to such principals exercising the powers vested in them and performing the duties prescribed for them by regulation of the President at posts or places different from those at which such principals are located, respectively.

Third. "Vice consuls" shall be deemed to denote consular officers subordinate to such principals exercising and performing the duties within the limits of their consulates at the same or at different points and places from those at which the principals are located, except that when vice consuls take charge of consulates general or consulates when the principal officers shall be temporarily absent or relieved from duty they shall be deemed to denote consular officers who shall be substituted, temporarily, to fill the places of said consuls general or consuls.

Fourth. "Consular officer" shall be deemed to include consuls general, consuls, vice consuls, interpreters in consular offices, student interpreters, and consular agents, and none others. (Feb. 5, 1915, c. 23, § 6, 38 Stat. 806.)

52. Abolition of certain consular offices.—The offices of vice consul general, deputy consul general, and deputy consul are abolished. (Feb. 5, 1915, c. 23, § 6, 38 Stat. 806.)

53. General application of provisions to consular officers.—The various provisions of this chapter which are expressed in terms of general application to any particular classes of consular officers, shall be deemed to apply as well to all other classes of such officers, so far as may be consistent with the subject matter of the same and with the treaties of the United States. (R. S. § 1689.)

54. Commercial agents abolished.—The grade of commercial agent is abolished. (Apr. 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 3, 34 Stat. 100.)

55. Extent of consulates.—The President is authorized to define the extent of country to be embraced within any consulate. (R. S. § 1695.)

56. Consular clerks; appointment.—Consular clerks, whenever appointed, shall, so far as practicable, be appointed under civil-service rules and regulations. (Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, 43 Stat. 1017.)

57. Citizenship requirement as to consular clerks.—No person who is not an American citizen shall be appointed in any consulate general or consulate to any clerical position the salary of which is $1,000 a year or more. (Apr. 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 5, 34 Stat. 101.)

58. Expense allowance to vice consulate or consular agency.—The only allowance to any vice consulate or consular agency for expenses shall be an amount sufficient to pay for stationery and postage on official letters. (R. S. § 1696.)

POWERS, DUTIES AND LIABILITIES OF CONSULAR OFFICERS GENERALLY

71. General construction as to powers and duties.—The specification in sections 72 to 109, inclusive, of this chapter of certain powers to be exercised and duties to be performed by consuls and vice consuls, shall not be construed as implying the exclusion of others resulting from the nature of their appointments, or prescribed by any treaty or convention under which they may act. (R. S. § 1714.)

72. Solemnization of marriages.—Marriages in presence of any consular officer of the United States in a foreign country, between persons who would be authorized to marry if residing in the District of Columbia, shall be valid to all intents and purposes, and shall have the same effect as if solemnized within the United States. And such consular officer shall, in all cases, give to the parties married before them a certificate of such marriage, and shall send another certificate thereof to the Department of State, there to be kept; such certificate shall specify the names of the parties, their ages, places of birth, and residence. (R. S. § 4082.)

73. Protests.—Consuls and vice consuls shall have the right, in the ports or places to which they are severally appointed, of receiving the protests or declarations which captains, masters, crews, passengers, or merchants, who are citizens of the United States, may respectively choose to make there; and also such as any foreigner may choose to make before them relative to the personal interest of any citizen of the United States. Copies of such acts duly authenticated by consuls or vice consuls, under the seal of their consulates, respectively, shall be received in evidence equally with their originals in all courts in the United States. (R. S. § 1707.)

74. Lists and returns of seamen and vessels, etc.—Every consular officer shall keep a detailed list of all seamen and mariners shipped and discharged by him, specifying their names and the names of the vessels on which they are shipped and from which they are discharged, and the payments, if any, made on account of each so discharged; also of the number of the vessels arrived and departed, the amounts of their registered tonnage, and the number of their seamen and mariners, and of those who are protected, and whether citizens of the United States or not, and as nearly as possible the nature and value of their cargoes, and where produced, and shall make returns of the same, with their accounts and other returns, to the Secretary of the Treasury. (R. S. § 1708.)

75. Estates of decedents generally; General Accounting Office as conservator.—It shall be the duty of consuls and vice consuls, where the laws of the country permit—

First. To take possession of the personal estate left by any citizen of the United States, other than seamen belonging to any vessel, who shall die within their consulate, leaving there no legal representative, partner in trade, or trustee by him appointed to take care of his effects.

Second. To inventory the same with the assistance of two merchants of the United States, or, for want of them, of any others at their choice.

Third. To collect the debts due the deceased in the country where he died, and pay the debts due from his estate which he shall have there contracted.

Fourth. To sell at auction, after reasonable public notice, such part of the estate as shall be of a perishable nature, and such further part, if any, as shall be necessary for the payment of his debts, and, at the expiration of one year from his decease, the residue.

Fifth. To transmit the balance of the estate to the Treasury of the United States, to be holden in trust for the legal claimant; except that if at any time before such transmission the legal representative of the deceased shall appear and demand his effects in their hands they shall deliver them up, being paid their fees, and shall cease their proceedings.

Sixth. The General Accounting Office shall act as conservator of such part of these estates as may be received at the Treasury, and for its protection the Secretary of the Treasury may order such effects to be sold as may consist of jewelry or other articles which have heretofore or may hereafter be received at the Treasury, and pay the expenses of such sale out of the proceeds, provided application for these effects shall not have been made by the legal claimant within two years after their receipt. The General Accounting Office is authorized to indorse all bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other evidences of indebtedness due to such estates, and to take such steps as may be necessary for their collection. The proceeds of such sales, together with such other moneys as may be collected by it, shall be deposited into the Treasury in trust for the legal claimant, and be reported to the Secretary of State. (R. S. § 1709; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 223, 36 Stat. 1083; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

76. Notification of death of decedent; transmission of inventory of effects.—For the information of the representative of the deceased, the consul or vice consul, in the settlement of his estate shall immediately notify his death in one of the gazettes published in the consulate, and also to the Secretary of State, that the same may be notified in the State to which the deceased belonged; and he shall, as soon as may be, transmit to the Secretary of State an inventory of the effects of the deceased taken as before directed. (R. S. § 1710.)

77. Following testamentary directions; assistance to testamentary appointee.—When any citizen of the United States, dying abroad, leaves, by any lawful testamentary disposition, special directions for the custody and management, by the consular officer of the port or place where he dies, of the personal property of which he dies possessed in such country, such officer shall, so far as the laws of the country permit, strictly observe such directions. When any such citizen so dying, appoints, by any lawful testamentary disposition, any other person than such officer to take charge of and manage such property, it shall be the duty of the officer, whenever required by the person so appointed, to give his official aid in whatever way may be necessary to facilitate the proceedings of such person in the lawful execution of his trust, and, so far as the laws of the country permit, to protect the property of the deceased from any interference of the local authorities of the country where such citizen dies; and to this end it shall be the duty of such consular officer to place his official seal upon all of the personal property or effects of the deceased, and to break and remove such seal as may be required by such person, and not otherwise. (R. S. § 1711.)

78. Bond as administrator or guardian; action on bond.—No consular officer of the United States shall accept an appointment from any foreign state as administrator, guardian, or to any other office of trust for the settlement or conservation of estates of deceased persons or of their heirs or of persons under legal disabilities, without executing a bond, with security, to be approved by the Secretary of State, and in a penal sum to be fixed by him and in such form as he may prescribe, conditioned for the true and faithful performance of all his duties according to law and for the true and faithful accounting for, delivering, and paying over to the persons thereto entitled of all moneys, goods, effects, and other property which shall come to his hands or to the hands of any other person to his use as such administrator, guardian, or in other fiduciary capacity. Said bond shall be deposited with the Secretary of the Treasury. In case of a breach of any such bond, any person injured by the failure of such officer faithfully to discharge the duties of his said trust according to law, may institute, in his own name and for his sole use, a suit upon said bond and thereupon recover such damages as shall be legally assessed, with costs of suit, for which execution may issue in due form; but if such party fails to recover in the suit, judgment shall be rendered and execution may issue against him for costs in favor of the defendant; and the United States shall in no case be liable for the same. The said bond shall remain, after any judgment rendered thereon, as a security for the benefit of any person injured by a breach of the condition of the same until the whole penalty has been recovered. (June 30, 1902, c. 1331, § 1, 32 Stat. 546.)

79. Penalty for failure to give bond and for embezzlement.—Every consular officer who accepts any appointment to any office of trust mentioned in the preceding section without first having complied with the provisions thereof by due execution of a bond as therein required, or who shall willfully fail or neglect to account for, pay over, and deliver any money, property, or effects so received to any person lawfully entitled thereto, after having been requested by the latter, his representative or agent so to do, shall be deemed guilty of embezzlement and shall be punishable by imprisonment for not more than five years and by a fine of not more than $5,000. (June 30, 1902, c. 1331, § 2, 32 Stat. 547.)

80. Commercial and agricultural reports.—Consuls of the United States in foreign countries shall procure and transmit to the Department of State authentic commercial information respecting such countries of such character and in such manner and form and at such times as the department may from time to time prescribe. And they shall also procure and transmit to the Department of State, for the use of the Agricultural Department, monthly reports relative to the character, condition, and prospective yields of the agricultural and horticultural industries and other fruiteries of the country in which they are respectively stationed; and the Secretary of Agriculture is hereby required and directed to embody the information thus obtained, or so much thereof as he may deem material and important, in his monthly bulletin of crop reports. (June 18, 1888, c. 393, 25 Stat. 186.)

81. Reports as to exports, imports, and wages.—It shall be the duty of consuls to make to the Secretary of State a quarterly statement of exports from, and imports to, the different places to which they are accredited, giving, as near as may be, the market price of the various articles of exports and imports, the duty and port charges, if any, on articles imported and exported, together with such general information as they may be able to obtain as to how, where, and through what channels a market may be opened for American products and manufactures. In addition to the duties now imposed by law, it shall be the duty of consuls of the United States, annually, to procure and transmit to the Department of State, as far as practicable, information respecting the rate of wages paid for skilled and unskilled labor within their respective jurisdictions. (Jan. 27, 1879, c. 28 § 1, 20 Stat. 267.)

82. Reports as to current prices of merchandise, etc., and as to agricultural conditions.—Every consular officer shall furnish to the Secretary of the Treasury, as often as shall be required, the prices current of all articles of merchandise usually exported to the United States from the port or place in which he is situated; and he shall also furnish to the Secretary of the Treasury, at least once in twelve months, the prices current of all articles of merchandise, including those of the farm, the garden, and the orchard, that are imported through the port or place in which he is stationed. And he shall also report as to the character of agricultural implements in use, and whether they are imported to or manufactured in that country; as to the character and extent of agricultural and horticultural pursuits there. That part of the information thus obtained which pertains to agriculture shall be transmitted by the Secretary of the Treasury, as soon as the same shall have been received by him, to the Secretary of Agriculture, who shall include the same, or so much thereof as he may deem material and important, in his annual reports, stating the said prices in dollars and cents, and rendering tables of foreign weights and measures into their American equivalents. (June 18, 1888, c. 393, 25 Stat. 186.)

83. Certification of invoices generally.—No consular officer shall certify any invoice unless he is satisfied that the person making oath thereto is the person he represents himself to be, that he is a credible person, and that the statements made under such oath are true; and he shall, thereupon, by his certificate, state that he was so satisfied. (R. S. § 1715.)

84. Fees for certification of invoices.—Fees for the consular certification of invoices shall be, and they hereby are, included with the fees for official services for which the President is authorized by section 127 of this chapter to prescribe rates or tariffs. (Apr. 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 9, 34 Stat. 101.)

85. Exaction of excessive fees for verification of invoices; penalty.—The fee provided by law for the verification of invoices by consular officers shall, when paid, be held to a full payment for furnishing blank forms of declaration to be signed by the shipper, and for making, signing, and sealing the certificate of the consular officer thereto; and any consular officer who, under pretense of charging for blank forms, advice, or clerical services in the preparation of such declaration or certificate, charges or receives any fee greater in amount than that provided by law for the verification of invoices, or who demands or receives for any official services, or who allows any clerk or subordinate to receive for any such service any fee or reward other than the fee provided by law for such service, shall be punishable by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than $2,000; and shall be removed from his office. (R. S. § 1716.)

86. Destruction of old invoices.—The Secretary of State is authorized to cause, from time to time, the destruction of invoices that have been filed in the consular offices for a period of more than five years. (Feb. 24, 1903, c. 753, 32 Stat. 854.)

87. Restriction as to certificate for goods from countries adjacent to United States.—No consular officer of the United States shall grant a certificate for goods, wares, or merchandise shipped from countries adjacent to the United States, which have passed a consulate after purchase for shipment. (R. S. § 1717.)

88. Retention of papers of American vessels until payment of demands and wages.—All consular officers are authorized and required to retain in their possession all the papers of vessels of the United States, which shall be deposited with them as directed by law, till payment shall be made of all demands and wages on account of such vessels. (R. S. § 1718.)

89. Fees for services to American vessels or seamen prohibited.—No fees named in the tariff of consular fees prescribed by order of the President shall be charged or collected by consular officers for the official services to American vessels and seamen. Consular officers shall furnish the master of every such vessel with an itemized statement of such services performed on account of said vessel, with the fee so prescribed for each service, and make a detailed report to the Secretary of the Treasury of such services and fees, under such regulations as the Secretary of State may prescribe; and the Secretary of the Treasury shall allow consular officers who are paid in whole or in part by fees such compensation for said services as they would have received but for the above prohibition: Provided, That such services, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury have been necessarily rendered. (June 26, 1884, c. 121, § 12, 23 Stat. 56.)

90. Profits from dealings with discharged seamen; prohibition.—No consular officer, nor any person under any consular officer shall make any charge or receive, directly or indirectly, any compensation, by way of commission or otherwise, for receiving or disbursing the wages or extra wages to which any seaman or mariner is entitled who is discharged in any foreign country, or for any money advanced to any such seaman or mariner who seeks relief from any consulate; nor shall any consular officer, or any person under any consular officer, be interested, directly or indirectly, in any profit derived from clothing, boarding, or otherwise supplying or sending home any such seaman or mariner. Such prohibition as to profit, however, shall not be construed to relieve or prevent any such officer who is the owner of or otherwise interested in any vessel of the United States, from transporting in such vessel any such seaman or mariner, or from receiving or being interested in such reasonable allowance as may be made for such transportation by law. (R. S. § 1719.)

91. Valuation of foreign coins in payment of fees.—Consuls, vice consuls, and consular agents in the Dominion of Canada, in the collection of official fees shall receive foreign moneys at the rate given in the Treasury schedule of the value of foreign coins. (R. S. § 1722.)

92. Exaction of excessive fees generally; penalty of treble amount.—Whenever any consular officer collects, or knowingly allows to be collected for any service, any other or greater fees than are allowed by law for such service, he shall, besides his liability to refund the same, be liable to pay to the person by whom or in whose behalf the same are paid, treble the amount of the unlawful charge so collected, as a penalty, to be recovered with costs, in any proper form of action, by such person for his own use. And in any such case the Secretary of the Treasury may retain out of the compensation of such officer, the amount of such overcharge, and of such penalty, and charge the same to such officer in account, and may thereupon refund such unlawful charge, and pay such penalty to the person entitled to the same if he shall think proper so to do. (R. S. § 1723.)

93. Liability for uncollected fees.—Every consul general, consul, or vice consul appointed to perform the duty of any such officer, who omits to collect any fees which he is entitled to charge for any official service, shall be liable to the United States therefor, as if he had collected the same; unless, upon good cause shown therefor, the Secretary of the Treasury shall think proper to remit the same. (R. S. § 1724.)

94. Returns as to fees by officers compensated by fees.—All consular agents, as are allowed for their compensation the whole or any part of the fees which they may collect, shall make returns in such manner as the Comptroller General of the United States shall prescribe, of all such fees as they or any person in their behalf so collect. (R. S. § 1725; July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 5, 28 Stat. 206.)

95. Receipt for fees; numbering receipts.—Every consular officer shall give receipts for all fees collected for his official services, expressing the particular services for which the same were collected. He shall number all receipts given by him for fees received for official services, in the order of their dates, beginning with number one at the commencement of the period of his service, and on the first day of January in every year thereafter. (R. S. §§ 1726, 1727.)

96. Registry of fees.—Every consular officer shall also register in a book to be kept by him for that purpose all fees so received by him, in the order in which they are received, specifying each item of service and the amount received therefor, from whom, and the dates when received, and if for any service connected with any vessel, the name thereof, and indicating what items and amounts are embraced in each receipt given by him therefor, and numbering the same according to the number of the receipts, respectively, so that the receipts and register shall correspond with each other; and he shall, in such register, specify the name of the person for whom, and the date when he shall grant, issue, or verify any passport, certify any invoice, or perform any other official service in the entry of the receipt of the fees therefor, and also number each consular act so receipted for with the number of such receipt, and as shown by such register. (R. S. § 1727.)

97. Account of fees; verification; perjury.—Every consular officer, in rendering his account of fees received, shall furnish a full transcript of the register which he is required to keep, and make oath that, to the best of his knowledge, the same is true, and contains a full and accurate statement of all fees received by him, or for his use, for his official services as such consular officer, during the period for which it purports to be rendered. Such oath may be taken before any person having authority to administer oaths at the port or place where the consular officer is located. If any such consular officer willfully and corruptly commits perjury, in any such oath, within the intent and meaning of any Act of Congress now or hereafter made, he may be charged, proceeded against, tried, and convicted, and dealt with in the same manner, in all respects, as if such offense had been committed in the United States, before any officer duly authorized therein to administer or take such oath, and shall be subject to the same punishment and disability therefor as are or shall be prescribed for such offense. (R. S. § 1728.)

98. Notarial acts, oaths, affirmations, affidavits, and depositions; fees.—Every consular officer of the United States is hereby required, whenever application is made to him therefor, within the limits of his consulate, to administer to or take from any person any oath, affirmation, affidavit, or deposition, and to perform any other notarial act which any notary public is required or authorized by law to do within the United States; and for every such notarial act performed he shall charge in each instance the appropriate fee prescribed by the President under section 127 of this chapter. (Apr. 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 7, 34 Stat. 101.)

99. General duty to account for fees.—All fees, official or unofficial, received by any officer in the Consular Service for services rendered in connection with the duties of his office or as a consular officer, including fees for notarial services, and fees for taking depositions, executing commissions or letters rogatory, settling estates, receiving or paying out moneys, caring for or disposing of property, shall be accounted for and paid into the Treasury of the United States, and the sole and only compensation of such officers shall be by salaries fixed by law; but this shall not apply to consular agents, who shall be paid by one half of the fees received in their offices, up to a maximum sum of $1,000 in any one year, the other half being accounted for and paid into the Treasury of the United States. (Apr. 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 8, 34 Stat. 101; May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 11, 43 Stat. 142.)

100. Stamps for fees; effect of failure to affix stamps to documents.—Every consular officer shall be provided and kept supplied with adhesive official stamps, on which shall be printed the equivalent money value of denominations and to amounts to be determined by the Department of State, and shall account quarterly to the Department of State for the use of such stamps and for such of them as shall remain in his hands.

Whenever a consular officer is required or finds it necessary to perform any consular or notarial act he shall prepare and deliver to the party or parties at whose instance such act is performed a suitable and appropriate document as prescribed in the consular regulations and affix thereto and duly cancel an adhesive stamp or stamps of the denomination or denominations equivalent to the fee prescribed for such consular or notarial act, and no such act shall be legally valid within the jurisdiction of the Government of the United States unless such stamp or stamps is or are affixed and canceled. (Apr. 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 10, 34 Stat. 102; May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 11, 43 Stat. 142.)

101. Posting rates of fees.—It shall be the duty of all consular officers at all times to keep posted up in their offices, respectively, in a conspicuous place, and subject to the examination of all persons interested therein, a copy of such rates or tariffs as shall be in force. (R. S. § 1781.)

102. Embezzlement of fees or of effects of American citizens.—Every consular officer who willfully neglects to render true and just quarterly accounts and returns of the business of his office, and of moneys received by him for the use of the United States, or who neglects to pay over any balance of said moneys due to the United States at the expiration of any quarter, before the expiration of the next succeeding quarter, or who shall receive money, property, or effects belonging to a citizen of the United States and shall not within a reasonable time after demand made upon him by the Secretary of State or by such citizen, his executor, administrator, or legal representative, account for and pay over all moneys, property, and effects, less his lawful fees, due to such citizen, shall be deemed guilty of embezzlement, and shall be punishable by imprisonment for not more than five years, and by a fine of not more than $2,000. (R. S. § 1784; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 86, § 3, 30 Stat. 771.)

103. Liability for neglect of duty or for malfeasance generally; action on bond; penalty.—Whenever any consular officer willfully neglects or omits to perform seasonably any duty imposed upon him by law, or by any order or instruction made or given in pursuance of law, or is guilty of any willful malfeasance or abuse of power, or of any corrupt conduct in his office, he shall be liable to all persons injured by any such neglect, or omission, malfeasance, abuse, or corrupt conduct, for all damages occasioned thereby; and for all such damages, he and his sureties upon his official bond shall be responsible thereon to the full amount of the penalty thereof to be sued in the name of the United States for the use of the person injured. Such suit, however, shall in no case prejudice, but shall be held in entire subordination to the interests, claims, and demands of the United States, as against any officer, under such bond, for every willful act of malfeasance or corrupt conduct in his office. If any consul neglects or omits to perform seasonably the duties imposed upon him by the laws regulating the shipment and discharge of seamen, or is guilty of any malversation or abuse of power, he shall be liable to any injured person for all damage occasioned thereby; and for all malversation and corrupt conduct in office, he shall be punishable by imprisonment for not more than five years and not less than one, and by a fine of not more than $10,000 and not less than $1,000. (R. S. § § 1735, 1736.)

104. False certificate as to ownership of property.—If any consul or vice consul falsely and knowingly certifies that property belonging to foreigners is property belonging to citizens of the United States, he shall be punishable by imprisonment for not more than three years and by a fine of not more than $10,000. (R. S. § 1737.)

105. Performance of diplomatic functions restricted.—No consular officers shall exercise diplomatic functions, or hold any diplomatic correspondence or relation on the part of the United States, in, with, or to the government or country to which he is appointed, or any other country or government, when there is in such country any officer of the United States authorized to perform diplomatic functions therein; nor in any case, unless expressly authorized by the President so to do. (R. S. § 1738.)

106. Restriction as to transaction of private business by consular officer generally.—No consul general, consul, or consular agent receiving a salary of more than $1,000 a year shall, while he holds his office, be interested in or transact any business as a merchant, factor, broker, or other trader, or as a clerk or other agent for any such person to, from, or within the port, place, or limits of his jurisdiction, directly or indirectly, either in his own name or in the name or through the agency of any other person; nor shall he practice as a lawyer for compensation or be interested in the fees or compensation of any lawyer; and he shall in his official bond stipulate as a condition thereof not to violate this prohibition. (Apr. 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 6, 34 Stat. 101.)

107. Extension of restriction as to transaction of business; action on bond.—All consular officers whose respective salaries exceed $1,000 a year shall be subject to the prohibition against transacting business, practicing as a lawyer, or being interested in the fees or compensation of any lawyer contained in the preceding section. And the President may extend the prohibition to any consular agent whose salary does not exceed $1,000 a year or who may be compensated by fees, and may require such officer to give a bond not to violate the prohibition. (Apr. 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 6, 34 Stat. 101.)

108. Penalty for violation of restriction as to transaction of business; action on bond.—Every consul general or consul who violates the prohibition against transacting business, required to be inserted in his official bond, shall be liable to a penalty therefor, for the use of the United States, equal in amount to the annual compensation specified for him, which may be recovered in an action of debt at the suit of the United States, either directly for the penalty, as such, against such consul general or consul, or upon his official bond, as liquidated damages, for the breach of such condition against such consul general or consul, and his sureties, or any one or more of them; and in every such case all such actions shall be open to the United States for the collection of such penalty till the same shall be collected in some one of such actions; and every such penalty, when collected, shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States. (R. S. § 1701.)

109. Allowance for office rent of consulates.—The President may allow consuls general and consuls, who are not allowed to trade, actual expenses of office rent, not to exceed, in any case, 20 per centum of the amount of the annual compensation allowed to such officer, whenever he shall think there is sufficient reason therefor. (R. S. § 1706.)

GENERAL PROVISIONS COMMON TO DIPLOMATIC AND TO CONSULAR OFFICERS

121. When salary commences.—No ambassador, envoy extraordinary, minister plenipotentiary, minister resident, commissioner, chargé d'affaires, secretary of legation, assistant secretary of legation, interpreter to any legation or consulate, or consul general, consul, or vice consul shall be entitled to compensation for his services, except from the time when he reaches his post and enters upon his official duties to the time when he ceases to hold such office, and for such time as is actually and necessarily occupied in receiving his instructions, not to exceed thirty days, and in making the direct transit between the place of his residence, when appointed, and his post of duty, at the commencement and termination of the period of his official service, for which he shall in all cases be allowed and paid, except as hereinafter mentioned. And no person shall be deemed to hold any such office after his successor is appointed and actually enters upon the duties of his office at his post of duty, nor after his official residence at such post has terminated if not so relieved. But no such officer as is referred to in this section shall be allowed compensation for the time so occupied in such transit, at the termination of the period of his official service, if he has resigned or been recalled therefrom for any malfeasance in his office. (R. S. § 1740; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, 43 Stat. 1017.)

122. Fixing time allowance for travel to and from post.—The Secretary of State shall, as soon as practicable, establish and determine the maximum amount of time actually necessary to make the transit between each diplomatic and consular post and the city of Washington, and vice versa, and shall make the same public. He may also, from time to time, revise his decision in this respect; but in each case the decision is to be in like manner made public. And the allowance for time actually and necessarily occupied by each diplomatic and consular officer who may be entitled to such allowance shall in no case exceed that for the time thus established and determined, with the addition of the time usually occupied by the shortest and most direct mode of conveyance from Washington to the place of residence in the United States of such officer. (June 11, 1874, c. 275, § 4, 18 Stat. 70.)

123. Salary during absence generally; leave of absence.—No diplomatic or consular officer shall receive salary for the time during which he may be absent from his post, by leave or otherwise, beyond the term of sixty days in any one year; but the time equal to that usually occupied in going to and from the United States in case of the return, on leave, of such diplomatic or consular officer to the United States may be allowed in addition to such sixty days. (R. S. § 1742.)

124. Absence without leave; compensation withheld; sickness.—No ambassador, envoy extraordinary, minister plenipotentiary, minister resident, commissioner to any foreign country, chargé d'affaires, secretary, interpreter to any legation in any foreign country, consul general, consul, consular pupils, or consular agent shall be absent from his post or the performance of his duties for a longer period than ten days at any one time, without the permission previously obtained of the President. And no compensation shall be allowed for the time of any such absence in any case except in cases of sickness. (June 17, 1874, c. 294, 18 Stat. 77.)

125. Extra compensation prohibited.—The compensation allowed by law to the various diplomatic and consular officers shall be in full for all the services rendered and personal expenses incurred by the persons respectively for whom such compensation is provided, of whatever kind such services or personal expenses may be, or by whatever treaty, law, or instructions they are required; and no allowance, other than such as is so provided, shall be made in any case for the outfit or return home of any such officer or person. (R. S. § 1743.)

126. Correspondence on affairs of foreign governments; recommendation for employment and acceptance of presents, etc.—No diplomatic or consular officer shall correspond in regard to the public affairs of any foreign government with any private person, newspaper, or other periodical, or otherwise than with the proper officers of the United States; nor without the consent of the Secretary of State previously obtained, recommend any person at home or abroad for any employment of trust or profit under the Government of the country in which he is located; nor ask or accept, for himself or any other person, any present, emolument, pecuniary favor, office, or title of any kind from any such government. (June 17, 1874, c. 294, 18 Stat. 77.)

127. Regulation of fees by President.—The President is authorized to prescribe, from time to time, the rates or tariffs of fees to be charged for official services, and to designate what shall be regarded as official services, besides such as are expressly declared by law, in the business of the several embassies, legations, and consulates, and to adapt the same, by such differences as may be necessary or proper, to each embassy, legation, or consulate; and it shall be the duty of all officers and persons connected with such embassies, legations, and consulates to collect for such official services such and only such fees as may be prescribed for their respective embassies, legations, and consulates, and such rates or tariffs shall be reported annually to Congress. (R. S. § 1745.)

128. Medium for payment of fees.—All fees collected by diplomatic and consular officers for and in behalf of the United States shall be collected in the coin of the United States, or at its representative value in exchange. (R. S. § 1746.)

129. Office paraphernalia.—The President is authorized to provide at the public expense all such stationery, blanks, record and other books, seals, presses, flags, and signs as he shall think necessary for the several embassies, legations, and consulates in the transaction of their business. (R. S. § 1748.)

130. Allowance to widow of deceased officer.—Whenever any diplomatic or consular officer of the United States dies in a foreign country in the discharge of his duty, there shall be paid to his widow, or, if no widow survive him, then to his heirs at law, a sum of money equal to the allowance made to such officer for the time necessarily occupied in making the transit from his post of duty to his residence in the United States. (R. S. § 1749.)

131. Depositions and notarial acts; perjury.—Every secretary of embassy or legation and consular officer is hereby authorized, whenever he is required or deems it necessary or proper so to do, at the post, port, place, or within the limits of his embassy, legation, or consulate, to administer to or take from any person an oath, affirmation, affidavit, or deposition, and to perform any notarial act which any notary public is required or authorized by law to do within the United States. Every such oath, affirmation, affidavit, deposition, and notarial act administered, sworn, affirmed, taken, had, or done, by or before any such officer, when certified under his hand and seal of office, shall be as valid, and of like force and effect within the United States, to all intents and purposes, as if administered, sworn, affirmed, taken, had, or done, by or before any other person within the United States duly authorized and competent thereto. If any person shall willfully and corruptly commit perjury, or by any means procure any person to commit perjury in any such oath, affirmation, affidavit, or deposition, within the intent and meaning of any Act of Congress now or hereafter made, such offender may be charged, proceeded against, tried, convicted, and dealt with in any district of the United States, in the same manner, in all respects, as if such offense had been committed in the United States, before any officer duly authorized therein to administer or take such oath, affirmation, affidavit, or deposition, and shall be subject to the same punishment and disability therefor as are or shall be prescribed by any such act for such offense; and any document purporting to have affixed, impressed, or subscribed thereto or thereon the seal and signature of the officer administering or taking the same in testimony thereof, shall be admitted in evidence without proof of any such seal or signature being genuine or of the official character of such person; and if any person shall forge any such seal or signature, or shall tender in evidence any such document with a false or counterfeit seal or signature thereto, knowing the same to be false or counterfeit he shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be imprisoned not exceeding three years nor less than one year, and fined in a sum not to exceed $3,000, and may be charged, proceeded against, tried, convicted, and dealt with, therefor, in the district where he may be arrested or in custody. (R. S. § 1750.)

132. General regulations by President for Diplomatic and Consular Service.—The President is authorized to prescribe such regulations, and make and issue such orders and instructions, not inconsistent with the Constitution or any law of the United States, in relation to the duties of all diplomatic and consular officers, the transaction of their business, the rendering of accounts and returns, the payment of compensation, the safe-keeping of the archives and public property in the hands of all such officers, the communication of information, and the procurement and transmission of the products of the arts, sciences, manufactures, agriculture, and commerce, from time to time, as he may think conducive to the public interest. It shall be the duty of all such officers to conform to such regulations, orders, and instructions. (R. S. § 1752.)

133. Purchase of buildings for Diplomatic and Consular Service.—The Secretary of State is hereby authorized to acquire in foreign countries such sites and buildings as may be appropriated for by Congress for the use of the diplomatic and consular establishments of the United States, and to alter, repair, and furnish the said buildings; suitable buildings for this purpose to be either purchased or erected, as to the Secretary of State may seem best, and all buildings so acquired for the diplomatic service shall be used both as the residences of diplomatic officials and for the offices of the diplomatic establishment: Provided, however, That not more than the sum of $500,000 shall be expended in any fiscal year under the authorization herein made: And provided further, That in submitting estimates of appropriation to the Secretary of the Treasury for transmission to the House of Representatives, the Secretary of State shall set forth a limit of cost for the acquisition of sites and buildings and for the construction, alteration, repair, and furnishing of buildings at each place in which the expenditure is proposed (which limit of cost shall not exceed the sum of $150,000 at any one place) and which limit shall not thereafter be exceeded in any case, except by new and express authorization of Congress. (Feb. 17, 1911, c. 105, 36 Stat. 917.)

134. Gifts of buildings, etc., for Diplomatic and Consular Service.—The President is authorized in his discretion to accept on behalf of the United States unconditional gifts of land, buildings, furniture, and furnishings, or any of them, for the use of diplomatic and consular offices and residences. (Mar. 2, 1921, c. 113, § 1, 41 Stat. 1214.)

Section 141. Judicial authority generally.—To carry into full effect the provisions of the treaties of the United States with certain foreign countries, the ministers and consuls of the United States in China, Siam, Turkey, Morocco, Muscat, Abyssinia, Persia, and the territories formerly a part of the former Ottoman Empire including Egypt, duly appointed to reside therein, shall, in addition to other powers and duties imposed upon them, respectively, by the provisions of such treaties, respectively, be invested with judicial authority described in this chapter, which shall appertain to the office of minister and consul, and be a part of the duties belonging thereto, wherein, and so far as, the same is allowed by treaty, and in accordance with the usages of the countries in their intercourse with the Franks or other foreign Christian nations. (R. S. §§ 4083, 4125, 4126; June 14, 1878, c. 193, 20 Stat. 131.)

142. General jurisdiction in criminal cases.—The officers mentioned in the preceding section are fully empowered to arraign and try, in the manner provided in this chapter, all citizens of the United States charged with offenses against law, committed in such countries, respectively, and to sentence such offenders in the manner in this chapter authorized; and each of them is authorized to issue all such processes as are suitable and necessary to carry this authority into execution. (R. S. § 4084.)

143. General jurisdiction in civil cases; venue.—Such officers are also invested with all the judicial authority necessary to execute the provisions of such treaties, respectively, in regard to civil rights, whether of property or person; and they shall entertain jurisdiction in matters of contract, at the port where, or nearest to which, the contract was made, or at the port at which, or nearest to which, it was to be executed, and in all other matters, at the port where, or nearest to which, the cause of controversy arose, or at the port where, or nearest to which, the damage complained of was sustained, provided such port be one of the ports at which the United States are represented by consuls. Such jurisdiction shall embrace all controversies between citizens of the United States, or others, provided for by such treaties, respectively. (R. S. § 4085.)

144. Vice consul at Shanghai to exercise judicial functions of consul general.—The judicial authority and jurisdiction in civil and criminal cases vested in and reserved to the consul general of the United States at Shanghai, China, under section 192 of chapter 3 of this title, shall be vested in and exercised by a vice consul of the United States at Shanghai, China. (Mar. 2, 1909, c. 235, 35 Stat. 679; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 145, 38 Stat. 1122.)

145. System of laws to be applied.—Jurisdiction in both criminal and civil matters shall, in all cases, be exercised and enforced in conformity with the laws of the United States, which are hereby, so far as is necessary to execute such treaties, respectively, and so far as they are suitable to carry the same into effect, extended over all citizens of the United States in those countries, and over all others to the extent that the terms of the treaties, respectively, justify or require. But in all cases where such laws are not adapted to the object, or are deficient in the provisions necessary to furnish suitable remedies, the common law and the law of equity and admiralty shall be extended in like manner over such citizens and others in those countries; and if neither the common law, nor the law of equity or admiralty, nor the statutes of the United States, furnish appropriate and sufficient remedies, the ministers in those countries, respectively, shall, by decrees and regulations which shall have the force of law, supply such defects and deficiencies. (R. S. § 4086.)

146. Rules and regulations for consular court generally.—In order to organize and carry into effect the system of jurisprudence demanded by such treaties, respectively, the ministers, with the advice of the several consuls in each of the countries, respectively, or of so many of them as can be conveniently assembled, shall prescribe the forms of all processes to be issued by any of the consuls; the mode of executing and the time of returning the same; the manner in which trials shall be conducted and how the records thereof shall be kept; the form of oaths for Christian witnesses, and the mode of examining all other witnesses; the costs to be allowed to the prevailing party, and the fees to be paid for judicial services; the manner in which all officers and agents to execute process, and to carry this chapter into effect, shall be appointed and compensated; the form of bail bonds, and the security which shall be required of the party who appeals from the decision of a consul; and shall make all such further decrees and regulations from time to time, under the provisions of this chapter, as the exigency may demand. (R. S. § 4117.)

147. Dissent of consuls to and publication of rules, etc.—All such regulations, decrees, and orders shall be plainly drawn up in writing, and submitted, as in the preceding section provided, for the advice of the consuls, or as many of them as can be consulted without prejudicial delay or inconvenience, and such consul shall signify his assent or dissent in writing, with his name subscribed thereto. After taking such advice, and considering the same, the minister in each of those countries may, nevertheless, by causing the decree, order, or regulation to be published with his signature thereto, and the opinions of his advisers inscribed thereon, make it binding and obligatory, until annulled or modified by Congress; and it shall take effect from the publication or any subsequent day thereto named in the act. (R. S. § 4118.)

148. Transmission of rules, etc., to Secretary of State.—All such regulations, orders, and decrees shall, as speedily as may be after publication, be transmitted by the ministers, with the opinions of their advisers, as drawn up by them severally, to the Secretary of State, to be laid before Congress for revision. (R. S. § 4119.)

149. Warrant, arrest, trial, and sentence by consul generally.—Each of the consuls mentioned in section 141 of this chapter, at the port for which he is appointed, is authorized upon facts within his own knowledge, or which he has good reason to believe true, or upon complaint made or information filed in writing and authenticated in such way as shall be prescribed by the minister, to issue his warrant for the arrest of any citizen of the United States charged with committing in the country an offense against law; and to arraign and try any such offender; and to sentence him to punishment in the manner prescribed in this chapter. (R. S. § 4087.)

150. Jurisdiction of consul in criminal cases when sitting alone; when decision final.—Any consul, when sitting alone for the trial of offenses or misdemeanors, shall decide finally all cases where the fine imposed does not exceed $100, or the term of imprisonment does not exceeed sixty days (R. S. § 4105.)

151. Jurisdiction of consul in criminal cases when sitting alone; when appeal to minister lies.—Any consul when sitting alone may also decide all cases in which the fine imposed does not exceed $500, or the term of imprisonment does not exceed ninety days; but in all such cases, if the fine exceeds $100, or the term of imprisonment for misdemeanor exceeds sixty days, the defendants or any of them, if there be more than one, may take the case, by appeal, before the minister, if allowed jurisdiction, either upon errors of law or matters of fact, under such rules as may be prescribed by the minister for the prosecution of appeals in such cases. (R. S. § 4089.)

152. Calling in associates in criminal cases; reference to minister on disagreement.—Whenever, in any case, the consul is of opinion that, by reason of the legal questions which may arise therein, assistance will be useful to him, or whenever he is of opinion that severer punishments than those specified in the preceding sections will be required, he shall summon, to sit with him on the trial, one or more citizens of the United States, not exceeding four, and in capital cases not less than four, who shall be taken by lot from a list which had previously been submitted to and approved by the minister, and shall be persons of good repute and competent for the duty. Every such associate shall enter upon the record his judgment and opinion, and shall sign the same; but the consul shall give judgment in the case. If the consul and his associates concur in opinion, the decision shall, in all cases, except of capital offenses and except as provided in the preceding section, be final. If any of the associates differ in opinion from the consul, the case, without further proceedings, together with the evidence and opinions, shall be referred to the minister for his adjudication, either by entering up judgment therein, or by remitting the same to the consul with instructions how to proceed therewith. (R. S. § 4106.)

153. Jurisdiction of consuls in civil cases; finality; associates in civil cases; reference to minister on disagreement.—Each of the consuls mentioned in section 141 of this chapter shall have at the port for which he is appointed, jurisdiction as herein provided, in all civil cases arising under such treaties, respectively, wherein the damages demanded do not exceed the sum of $500; and, if he sees fit to decide the same without aid, his decision thereon shall be final. But whenever he is of opinion that any such case involves legal perplexities, and that assistance will be useful to him, or whenever the damages demanded exceed $500, he shall summon, to sit with him on the hearing of the case, not less than two nor more than three citizens of the United States, if such are residing at the port, who shall be taken from a list which had previously been submitted to and approved by the minister, and shall be of good repute and competent for the duty. Every such associate shall note upon the record his opinion, and also, in case he dissents from the consul, such reasons therefor as he thinks proper to assign; but the consul shall give judgment in the case. If the consul and his associates concur in opinion, the judgment shall be final. If any of the associates differ in opinion from the consul, either party may appeal to the minister, under such regulations as may exist; but if no appeal is lawfully claimed, the decision of the consul shall be final. (R. S. § 4107.)

154. Evidence; how taken.—In all cases, criminal and civil, the evidence shall be taken down in writing in open court, under such regulations as may be made for that purpose: and all objections to the competency or character of testimony shall be noted, with the ruling in all such cases, and the evidence shall be part of the case. (R. S. § 4097.)

155. Punishment generally; contempt.—In all cases, except as, in this chapter, otherwise provided, the punishment of crime provided for by this chapter shall be by fine or imprisonment, or both, at the discretion of the officer who decides the case, but subject to the regulations in this chapter contained, and such as may hereafter be made. It shall, however, be the duty of such officer to award punishment according to the magnitude and aggravation of the offense. Every person who refuses or neglects to comply with the sentence passed upon him shall stand committed until he does comply, or is discharged by order of the consul, with the consent of the minister in the country. (R. S. § 4101.)

156. Capital offenses; requisites for convictions; conviction of lesser offense.—Insurrection or rebellion against the government of either of the countries mentioned in section 141 of this chapter, with intent to subvert the same, and murder, shall be capital offenses, punishable with death; but no person shall be convicted of either of those crimes, unless the consul and his associates in the trial all concur in opinion, and the minister also approves of the conviction. But it shall be lawful to convict one put upon trial for either of these crimes, of a less offense of a similar character, if the evidence justifies it, and to punish, as for other offenses, by fine or imprisonment, or both. (R. S. § 4102.)

157. Punishment for contempt of court.—No fine imposed by a consul for a contempt committed in presence of the court, or for failing to obey a summons from the same, shall exceed $50; nor shall the imprisonment exceed twenty-four hours for the same contempt. (R. S. § 4104.)

158. Execution of criminals; pardons.—Whenever any person is convicted of either of the crimes punishable with death, in either of the countries mentioned in section 141 of this chapter, it shall be the duty of the minister to issue his warrant for the execution of the convict, appointing the time, place, and manner; but if the minister is satisfied that the ends of public justice demand it, he may from time to time postpone such execution; and if he finds mitigating circumstances which authorize it, he may submit the case to the President for pardon. (R. S. § 4103.)

159. Fees for judicial services; application of moneys; rendition of accounts.—It shall be the duty of the minister in each of the countries mentioned in section 141 of this chapter to establish a tariff of fees for judicial services, which shall be paid by such parties, and to such persons, as the minister shall direct; and the proceeds shall, as far as is necessary, be applied to defray the expenses incident to the execution of this chapter; and regular accounts, both of receipts and expenditures, shall be kept by the minister and consuls and transmitted annually to the Secretary of State. (R. S. § 4120.)

160. Settlement of criminal cases.—In all criminal cases which are not of a heinous character, it shall be lawful for the parties aggrieved or concerned therein, with the assent of the minister in the country, or consul, to adjust and settle the same among themselves, upon pecuniary or other considerations. (R. S. § 4099.)

161. Arbitration, reference, and compromise of civil cases.—It shall be the duty of the ministers and the consuls in the countries mentioned in section 141 of this chapter to encourage the settlement of controversies of a civil character, by mutual agreement, or to submit them to the decision of referees agreed upon by the parties; and the minister in each country shall prepare a form of submission for such cases, to be signed by the parties, and acknowledged before the consul. When parties have so agreed to refer, the referees may, after suitable notice of the time and place of meeting for the trial, proceed to hear the case, and a majority of them shall have power to decide the matter. If either party refuses or neglects to appear, the referees may proceed ex parte. After hearing any case such referees may deliver their award, sealed, to the consul, who, in court, shall open the same; and if he accepts it, he shall indorse the fact, and judgment shall be rendered thereon, and execution issue in compliance with the terms thereof. The parties, however, may always settle the same before return thereof is made to the consul. (R. S. § 4098.)

162. Aid of local authorities invoked.—The ministers and consuls shall be fully authorized to call upon the local authorities to sustain and support them in the execution of the powers confided to them by treaty, and on their part to do and perform whatever is necessary to carry the provisions of the treaties into full effect, so far as they are to be executed in the countries, respectively. (R. S. § 4100.)

163. Where jurisdiction of minister exercised.—The jurisdiction allowed by treaty to the ministers, respectively, in the countries named in section 141 of this chapter shall be exercised by them in those countries, respectively, wherever they may be. (R. S. § 4108.)

164. Jurisdiction of minister; when appellate and when original.—The jurisdiction of such ministers in all matters of civil redress, or of crimes, except in capital cases for murder or insurrection against the governments of such countries, respectively, or for offenses against the public peace amounting to felony under the laws of the United States, shall be appellate only: Provided, That in cases where a consular officer is interested, either as party or witness, such minister shall have original jurisdiction. (R. S. § 4109.)

165. Appellate jurisdiction of minister; new trials.—Each of the ministers mentioned in section 141 of this chapter shall, in the country to which he is appointed, be fully authorized to hear and decide all cases, criminal and civil, which may come before him, by appeal, under the provisions of this chapter, and to issue all processes necessary to execute the power conferred upon him; and he is fully empowered to decide finally any case upon the evidence which comes up with it, or to hear the parties further, if he thinks justice will be promoted thereby; and he may also prescribe the rules upon which new trials may be granted, either by the consuls or by himself, if asked for upon sufficient grounds. (R. S. § 4091.)

166. Jurisdiction of minister to try capital and felony cases.—Capital cases for murder or insurrection against the government of either of the countries hereinbefore mentioned in this chapter, by citizens of the United States, or for offenses against the public peace amounting to felony under the laws of the United States, may be tried before the minister of the United States in the country where the offense is committed if allowed jurisdiction. (R. S. § 4090.)

167. Prevention of American citizens from enlisting with foreign countries.—Each such minister mentioned in the preceding section may issue all manner of writs, to prevent the citizens of the United States from enlisting in the military or naval service of either of the countries mentioned in section 141 of this chapter, to make war upon any foreign power with whom the United States are at peace, or in the service of one portion of the people against any other portion of the same people; and he may carry out this power by a resort to such force belonging to the United States as may at the time be within his reach. (R. S. § 4090.)

168. Marshals of consular courts; appointment and salary.—The President is authorized to appoint marshals for such of the consular courts as he may think proper, not to exceed two in number, namely: One in Siam and one in Turkey, each of whom shall receive a salary of $1,000 a year, in addition to the fees allowed by the regulations of the ministers, respectively, in those countries: Provided, That no salary shall be allowed the marshal at the consulate in Siam. (R. S. §§ 1693, 4111.)

169. Execution and return of process by marshal.—It shall be the duty of the marshals, respectively, to execute all process issued by the minister of the United States in those countries, respectively, or by the consul at the port at which they reside, and to make due return thereof to the officer by whom it was issued, and to conform in all respects to the regulations prescribed by the ministers, respectively, in regard to their duties. (R. S. § 4112.)

170. Bond of marshal.—Each marshal, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall give bond for the faithful performance thereof in a penal sum not to exceed $10,000, with two sureties to be approved by the Secretary of State. Such bond shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Treasury, and a certified copy thereof be lodged in the office of the minister. (R. S. § 4113.)

171. Suit on bond of marshal.—Whenever any person desires to bring suit upon the bond of any such marshal, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury, or of the minister having custody of a copy of the same, to give to the person so applying a certified copy thereof, upon which suit may be brought and prosecuted with the same effect as could be done upon the original: Provided, The Secretary of the Treasury, or the minister to whom the application is made, is satisfied that there is probable cause of action against the marshal. (R. S. § 4114.)

172. Necessity for production of original bond.—Upon a plea of non est factum, verified upon oath, or any other good cause shown, the court or the consul or minister trying the cause may require the original bond of the marshal to be produced; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to forward the original bond to the court, or consul, or minister requiring the same. (R. S. § 4115.)

173. Service of process, etc., in suit on bond of marshal.—All rules, orders, writs, and processes of every kind which are intended to operate or be enforced against any of the marshals, in any of the countries named in section 141 of this chapter, shall be directed to and executed by such persons as may be appointed for that purpose by the minister or consul issuing the same. (R. S. § 4116.)

174. Expenses of prisons in foreign countries.—The President, when provision is not otherwise made, is authorized to allow, in the adjustment of the accounts of each of the ministers or consuls, the actual expenses of the rent of suitable buildings or parts of buildings to be used as prisons for American convicts in the countries mentioned in section 141 of this chapter, not to exceed in any case the rate of $600 a year; and also the wages of the keepers of the same, and for the care of offenders, not to exceed, in any case, the sum of $800 per annum. But no more than four prisons shall be hired in China, one in Turkey, and one in Siam, at such port or ports as the minister, with the sanction of the President, may designate, and the entire expense of prison and prison keepers at the consulate of Bangkok, in Siam, shall not exceed the sum of $1,000 a year.

The President is authorized to allow, in the adjustment of the accounts of the consul general at Shanghai, the actual expense of the rent of a suitable building, to be used as a prison for American convicts in China, not to exceed $1,500 a year; and also the wages of the keepers of the same, and for the care of offenders, not to exceed $5,000 a year; and to allow, in the adjustment of the accounts of the consuls at other ports in China, the actual expense of the hire of constables and the care of offenders, not to exceed in all $5,000 a year. (R. S. §§ 4121, 4122.)

175. Allowance for keeping and feeding prisoners.—No more than 50 cents per day for the keeping and feeding of each prisoner while actually confined shall be allowed or paid for any such keeping and feeding. This is not to be understood as covering cost of medical attendance and medicines when required by such prisoners. (Mar. 2, 1901, c. 802, 31 Stat. 893.)

176. Secretary of State to exercise judicial duties when no minister.—If at any time there be no minister in either of the countries mentioned in section 141 of this chapter, the judicial duties which are imposed by this chapter upon the minister shall devolve upon the Secretary of State, who is authorized and required to discharge the same. (R. S. § 4128.)

177. General extension of chapter to unnamed countries.—The provisions of this chapter relating to the jurisdiction of consular and diplomatic officers over civil and criminal cases in the countries mentioned in section 141 of this chapter, shall extend to any country of like character with which the United States may after July 1, 1870, enter into treaty relations. And whenever the United States shall negotiate a treaty with any foreign government, in which the American consul general or consul shall be clothed with judicial authority, and securing the right of trial to American citizens residing therein before such consul general or consul, and containing provisions similar to or like those contained in the treaties with the governments named in section 141 of this chapter, then this chapter, so far as the same may be applicable, shall have full force in reference to said treaty, and shall extend to the country of the government negotiating the same. (R. S. § 4129; June 14, 1878, c. 193, 20 Stat. 131.)

178. "Minister" and "consul" defined.—The word "minister," when used in this chapter shall be understood to mean the person invested with, and exercising, the principal diplomatic functions. The word "consul" shall be understood to mean any person invested by the United States with, and exercising, the functions of consul general, consul, or vice consul. (Feb. 1, 1876, c. 6, 19 Stat. 2.)

179. Responsibility as judicial officers.—All such officers shall be responsible for their conduct to the United States, and to the laws thereof, not only as diplomatic or consular officers, but as judicial officers, when they perform judicial duties, and shall be held liable for all negligences and misconduct as public officers. (R. S. § 4110.)

180. Power of consuls in uncivilized countries or countries not recognized by treaties.—The consuls of the United States at islands or in countries not inhabited by any civilized people, or recognized by any treaty with the United States, are authorized to try, hear, and determine all cases in regard to civil rights, whether of person or property, where the real debt or damages do not exceed the sum of $1,000, exclusive of costs, and upon full hearing of the allegations and evidence of both parties, to give judgment according to the laws of the United States, and according to the equity and right of the matter, in the same manner as justices of the peace are, prior to June 22, 1860, authorized and empowered where the United States have exclusive jurisdiction. They are also invested with the powers conferred by the provisions of sections 145 and 149 of this chapter for trial of offenses or misdemeanors. (R. S. § 4088.)

181. Provisions of chapter extended to Turkey.—The provisions of this chapter, so far as the same relate to crimes and offenses committed by citizens of the United States, shall extend to Turkey, under the treaty with the Sublime Porte of May 7, 1830, and shall be executed in the Ottoman dominions in conformity with the provisions of the treaty, and of this chapter, by the minister and the consuls appointed to reside therein, who are hereby ex-officio vested with the powers in this chapter conferred upon ministers and consuls in China, for the purposes above expressed, so far as regards the punishment of crime, and also for the exercise of jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the same is permitted by the laws of Turkey, or its usages in its intercourse with the Franks, or other foreign Christian nations. (R. S. § 4125.)

182. Suspension by President of consular courts in Turkey and in Egypt.—Whenever the President of the United States shall receive satisfactory information that the Ottoman Government, or that of Egypt, has organized other tribunals on a basis likely to secure to citizens of the United States, in their dominions, the same impartial justice which they now enjoy there under the judicial functions exercised by the minister, consuls, and other functionaries of the United States, pursuant to this chapter, he is hereby authorized to suspend the operations of this chapter as to the dominions in which such tribunals may be organized, so far as the jurisdiction of said tribunals may embrace matters now cognizable by the minister, consuls, or other functionaries of the United States in said dominions, and to notify the Government of the Sublime Porte, or that of Egypt, or either of them, that the United States, during such suspension will, as aforesaid, accept for their citizens the jurisdiction of the tribunals aforesaid over citizens of the United States which has heretofore been exercised by the minister, consuls, or other functionaries of the United States. (Mar. 23, 1874, c. 62, § 1, 18 Stat. 23.)

183. Extension of provisions of chapter to Persia; suits between American citizens and subjects of Persia and other countries.—The provisions of this chapter shall extend to Persia, in respect to all suits and disputes which may arise between citizens of the United States therein; and the minister and consuls who may be appointed to reside in Persia are hereby invested, in relation to such suits and disputes, with such powers as are by this chapter conferred upon ministers and consuls in China. All suits and disputes arising in Persia between Persian subjects and citizens of the United States shall be carried before the Persian tribunal to which such matters are usually referred, at the place where a consul or agent of the United States may reside, and shall be discussed and decided according to equity, in the presence of an employee of the consul or agent of the United States; and it shall be the duty of the consular officer to attend the trial in person, and see that justice is administered. All suits and disputes occurring in Persia between the citizens of the United States and the subjects of other foreign powers, shall be tried and adjudicated by the intermediation of their respective ministers or consuls, in accordance with such regulations as shall be mutually agreed upon by the minister of the United States for the time being, and the ministers of such foreign powers, respectively, which regulations shall from time to time be submitted to the Secretary of State. (R. S. § 4126.)

Chapter 8.—UNITED STATES COURT FOR CHINA.

Sec.
191. Establishment of court; sessions; seal; writs, processes, etc.
192. Jurisdiction of consular courts restricted; appeal from consular courts.
193. Administration of estates of decedents.
194. Appeals and writs of error for review of judgments, etc., of court.
195. Law applicable to determination of cases.
196. Procedure generally; exclusion of associate aids.
197. Officers of court; appointment and salaries.
198. Commissioner for court; appointment; powers and compensation; district of Shanghai.
199. Tenure of office of judge; removal of other officers by President.
200. Bond of marshal and clerk; deputies; bond and compensation of deputies.
201. Expenses of judge and of district attorney in attendance or sessions in other cities than Shanghai.
202. Fees of marshal and clerk; payment into Treasury.

Section 191. Establishment of court; sessions; seal; writs, processes, etc.—A court is hereby established, to be called the United States Court for China, which shall have exclusive jurisdiction in all cases and judicial proceedings whereof jurisdiction may have been exercised, prior to June 30, 1906, by United States consuls and ministers by law and by virtue of treaties between the United States and China, except in so far as the said jurisdiction is qualified by sections 192 and 193 of this chapter. The said court shall hold sessions at Shanghai, China, and shall also hold sessions at the cities of Canton, Tientsin, and Hankau at stated periods, the dates of such sessions at each city to be announced in such manner as the court shall direct, and a session of the court shall be held in each of these cities at least once annually. It shall be within the power of the judge, upon due notice to the parties in litigation, to open and hold court for the hearing of a special cause at any place permitted by the treaties, and where there is a United States consulate, when, in his judgment, it shall be required by the convenience of witnesses, or by some public interest. The place of sitting of the court shall be in the United States consulate at each of the cities, respectively.

That the seal of the said United States Court for China shall be the arms of the United States, engraved on a circular piece of steel of the size of a half dollar, with these words on the margin, "The Seal of the United States Court for China."

The seal of said court shall be provided at the expense of the United States.

All writs and processes issuing from the said court, and all transcripts, records, copies, jurats, acknowledgments, and other papers requiring certification or to be under seal, may be authenticated by said seal, and shall be signed by the clerk of said court. All processes issued from the said court shall bear test from the day of such issue. (June 30, 1906, c. 3934, § 1, 34 Stat. 814.)

192. Jurisdiction of consular courts restricted; appeal from consular courts.—Consuls of the United States in the cities of China to which they are respectively accredited shall have the same jurisdiction as they, prior to June 30, 1906, possessed in civil cases where the sum or value of the property involved in the controversy does not exceed $500 United States money and in criminal cases where the punishment for the offense charged can not exceed by law $100 fine or sixty days' imprisonment, or both, and shall have power to arrest, examine, and discharge accused persons or commit them to the said court. From all final judgments of the consular court either party shall have the right of appeal to the United States Court for China. (June 30, 1906, c. 3934, § 2, 34 Stat. 814.)

193. Administration of estates of decedents.—The United States Court for China shall have and exercise supervisory control over the discharge by consuls and vice consuls of the duties prescribed by the laws of the United States relating to the estates of decedents in China. Within sixty days after the death in China of any citizen of the United States, or any citizen of any territory belonging to the United States, the consul or vice consul whose duty it becomes to take possession of the effects of such deceased person under the laws of the United States shall file with the clerk of said court a sworn inventory of such effects, and shall as additional effects come from time to time into his possession immediately file a supplemental inventory or inventories of the same. He shall also file with the clerk of said court within said sixty days a schedule under oath of the debts of said decedent, so far as known, and a schedule or statement of all additional debts thereafter discovered. Such consul or vice consul shall pay no claims against the estate without the written approval of the judge of said court, nor shall he make sale of any of the assets of said estate without first reporting the same to said judge and obtaining a written approval of said sale, and he shall likewise within ten days after any such sale report the fact of such sale to said court, and the amount derived therefrom. The said judge shall have power to require at any time reports from consuls or vice consuls in respect of all their acts and doings relating to the estate of any such deceased person. The said court shall have power to require where it may be necessary a special bond for the faithful performance of his duty to be given by any consul or vice consul into whose possession the estate of any such deceased citizen shall have come in such amount and with such sureties as may be deemed necessary, and for failure to give such bond when required, or for failure to properly perform his duties in the premises, the court may appoint some other person to take charge of said estate, such person having first given bond as aforesaid. A record shall be kept by the clerk of said court of all proceedings in respect of any such estate under the provisions hereof. (June 30, 1906, c. 3934, § 2, 34 Stat. 814.)

194. Appeals and writs of error for review of judgments, etc., of court.—Appeals shall lie from all final judgments or decrees of the United States Court for China to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals of the Ninth Judicial Circuit, and thence appeals and writs of error may be taken from the judgments or decrees of the said circuit court of appeals to the Supreme Court of the United States in the same class of cases as those in which appeals and writs of error are permitted to judgments of said court of appeals in cases coming from district courts of the United States. Said appeals or writs of error shall be regulated by the procedure governing appeals within the United States from the district courts to the circuit courts of appeal, and from the circuit courts of appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States, respectively, so far as the same shall be applicable; and said courts are hereby empowered to hear and determine appeals and writs of error so taken. (June 30, 1906, c. 3934, § 3, 34 Stat. 815.)

195. Law applicable to determination of cases.—Jurisdiction of the United States Court for China, both original and on appeal, in civil and criminal matters, and also the jurisdiction of the consular courts in China, shall in all cases be exercised in conformity with the treaties and the laws of the United States now in force in reference to the American consular courts in China, and all judgments and decisions of said consular courts, and all decisions, judgments, and decrees of said United States court, shall be enforced in accordance with said treaties and laws. But in all such cases when such laws are deficient in the provisions necessary to give jurisdiction or to furnish suitable remedies, the common law and the law as established by the decisions of the courts of the United States shall be applied by said court in its decisions and shall govern the same subject to the terms of any treaties between the United States and China. (June 30, 1906, c. 3934, § 4, 34 Stat. 815.)

196. Procedure generally; exclusion of associate aids.—The procedure of the United States Court for China shall be in accordance, so far as practicable, with the procedure prescribed for consular courts in China in accordance with chapter 2 of this title: Provided, however, That the judge of the said United States Court for China shall have authority from time to time to modify and supplement said rules of procedure. The provisions of sections 152 and 153 of chapter 2 of this title allowing consuls in certain cases to summon associates shall have no application to said court. (June 30, 1906, c. 3934, § 5, 34 Stat. 816.)

197. Officers of court; appointment and salaries.—There shall be a district attorney, a marshal, and a clerk of the United States Court for China, with authority possessed by the corresponding officers of the district courts in the United States as far as may be consistent with the conditions of the laws of the United States and the treaties between the United States and China. The judge of said court and the district attorney, who shall be lawyers of good standing and experience, marshal, and clerk shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall receive as salary, respectively, the sums of $8,000 per annum for said judge, $4,000 per annum for said district attorney, $3,000 per annum for said marshal, and $3,000 per annum for said clerk. (June 30, 1906, c. 3934, § 6, 34 Stat. 816.)

198. Commissioner for court; appointment; powers and compensation; district of Shanghai.—The judge of the United States Court for China is authorized to appoint, as in the district courts of the United States and with similar powers and tenure of office, a United States commissioner who shall be an attorney regularly admitted to practice before the said United States Court for China and who, when appointed, shall be an attorney regularly admitted to practice before the said district of Shanghai, with all of the authority and jurisdiction exercised by the vice consul acting in pursuance of section 144 of chapter 2 of this title, which authority and jurisdiction are hereby transferred: Provided, That at the discretion of the judge of said court, he may appoint the clerk of the court to perform the duties of commissioner without additional compensation therefor. In the event that it is not practicable or desirable so to appoint the clerk to act as commissioner, the judge may, with approval of the Secretary of State, appoint some qualified attorney to act as commissioner who shall, if not an officer of the court, receive such compensation as may be fixed by the Secretary of State not exceeding $5 for each day of service actually rendered. (June 4, 1920, c. 223, 41 Stat. 746.)

199. Tenure of office of judge; removal of other officers by President.—The tenure of office of the judge of the United States Court for China shall be ten years, unless sooner removed by the President for cause; the tenure of office of the other officials of the court shall be at the pleasure of the President. (June 30, 1906, c. 3934, § 7, 34 Stat. 815.)

200. Bond of marshal and clerk; deputies; bond and compensation of deputies.—The marshal and the clerk of the United States Court for China shall be required to furnish bond for the faithful performance of their duties, in sums and with sureties to be fixed and approved by the judge of the court. They shall each appoint, with the written approval of said judge, deputies at Canton and Tientsin, who shall also be required to furnish bonds for the faithful performance of their duties, which bonds shall be subject, both as to form and sufficiency of the sureties, to the approval of the said judge. Such deputies shall receive compensation at the rate of $5 for each day the sessions of the court are held at their respective cities. (June 30, 1906, c. 3934, § 8, 34 Stat. 816.)

201. Expenses of judge and of district attorney in attendance on sessions in other cities than Shanghai.—The judge of the United States Court for China and the district attorney shall, when the sessions of the court are held at other cities than Shanghai, receive in addition to their salaries their necessary actual expenses during such sessions, not to exceed $8 per day each. (Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title I, 43 Stat. 1025.)

202. Fees of marshal and clerk; payment into Treasury.—The tariff of fees of the marshal and clerk of the United States Court for China shall be the same as the tariff fixed prior to July 30, 1906, for the consular courts in China, subject to amendment from time to time by order of the President, and all fees taxed and received shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States. (June 30, 1906, c. 3934, § 9, 34 Stat. 816.)

Chapter 4.—PASSPORTS.

Sec.
211. Issuance of passports authorized; manner of issuing.
212. Who entitled to passport.
213. Application for passport; fees for taking.
214. Fees for passport; persons excused from payment.
215. Fees for visa of alien's passport.
216. Return of fees on refusal to visa.
217. Time limitation as to validity of passport or visa.
218. Returns as to passports issued, etc.
219. Issuance of false passport; penalty.
220. False statement in application; use of passport obtained by false statement; penalty.
221. Unlawful use of passport; penalty.
222. Forging, alteration, etc., of passport; penalty.
223. War-time restrictions generally.
224. Passport required of citizens.
225. Penalty for violation of war-time restrictions.
226. "United States" and "person" as used in war-time restriction defined.
227. Regulations as to alien passport requirements continued.

Section 211. Issuance of passports authorized; manner of issuing.—The Secretary of State may grant and issue passports, and cause passports to be granted, issued, and verified in foreign countries by such diplomatic or consular officers of the United States, and by such chief or other executive officer of the insular possessions of the United States, and under such rules as the President shall designate and prescribe for and on behalf of the United States; and no other person shall grant, issue, or verify any such passport. Where an embassy or a legation of the United States is established in any country, no person other than the diplomatic representative of the United States at such place shall be permitted to grant or issue any passport, except in the absence therefrom of such representative. (R. S. § 4075; June 14, 1902, c. 1088, § 1, 32 Stat. 386.)

212. Who entitled to passport.—No passport shall be granted or issued to or verified for any other persons than those owing allegiance, whether citizens or not, to the United States. (June 14, 1902, c. 1088, § 2, 32 Stat. 386.)

213. Application for passport; fees for taking.—Before a passport is issued to any person by or under authority of the United States such person shall subscribe to and submit a written application duly verified by his oath before a person authorized and empowered to administer oaths, which said application shall contain a true recital of each and every matter of fact which may be required by law or by any rules authorized by law to be stated as a prerequisite to the issuance of any such passport. Clerks of United States courts, agents of the Department of State, or other Federal officials authorized, or who may be authorized, to take passport applications and administer oaths thereon, shall collect, for all services in connection therewith, a fee of $1, and no more, in lieu of all fees prescribed by any statute of the United States, whether the application is executed singly, in duplicate, or in triplicate. (June 15, 1917, c. 30, Title IX, § 1, 40 Stat. 227.)

214. Fees for passport; persons excused from payment.—There shall be collected and paid into the Treasury of the United States quarterly a fee of $1 for executing each application for a passport and $9 for each passport issued to a citizen or person owing allegiance to or entitled to the protection of the United States: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit the right of the Secretary of State by regulation to authorize the retention by State officials of the fee of $1 for executing an application for a passport: And provided further, That no fee shall be collected for passports issued to officers or employees of the United States proceeding abroad in the discharge of their official duties, or to members of their immediate families, or to seamen, or to widows, children, parents, brothers, and sisters of American soldiers, sailors, or marines, buried abroad whose journey is undertaken for the purpose and with the intent of visiting the graves of such soldiers, sailors, or marines, which facts shall be made a part of the application for the passport. (June 4, 1920, c. 223, 41 Stat. 750.)

215. Fees for visa of alien's passport.—There shall be collected and paid into the Treasury of the United States quarterly a fee of $1 for executing each application of an alien for a visa and $9 for each visa of the passport of an alien: Provided, That no fee shall be collected from any officer of any foreign Government, or members of his immediate family, its armed forces, or of any State, district, or municipality thereof, traveling to or through the United States. (June 4, 1920, c. 223, 41 Stat. 750.)

216. Return of fees on refusal to visa.—Whenever the appropriate officer within the United States of any foreign country refuses to visa a passport issued by the United States, the Department of State is hereby authorized upon request in writing and the return of the unused passport within six months from the date of issue to refund to the person to whom the passport was issued the fees which have been paid to Federal officials, and the money for that purpose is hereby appropriated and directed to be paid upon the order of the Secretary of State. (June 4, 1920, c. 223, 41 Stat. 751.)

217. Time limitation as to validity of passport or visa.—The validity of a passport or visa shall be limited to two years, unless the Secretary of State shall by regulation limit the validity of such passport or visa to a shorter period. (June 4, 1920, c. 223, 41 Stat. 751.)

218. Returns as to passports issued, etc.—All persons who shall be authorized to grant, issue, or verify passports, shall make return of the same to the Secretary of State, in such manner and as often as he shall require; and such returns shall specify the names and all other particulars of the persons to whom the same shall be granted, issued, or verified, as embraced in such passport. (R. S. § 4077.)

219. Issuance of false passport; penalty.—If any person acting or claiming to act in any office or capacity under the United States, its possessions, or any of the States of the United States, who shall not be lawfully authorized so to do, shall grant, issue, or verify any passport or other instrument in the nature of a passport to or for any person whomsoever, or if any consular officer who shall be authorized to grant, issue, or verify passports shall knowingly and willfully grant, issue, or verify any such passport to or for any person not owing allegiance, whether a citizen or not, to the United States, he shall be imprisoned for not more than one year or fined not more than $500, or both; and may be charged, proceeded against, tried, convicted, and dealt with therefor in the district where he may be arrested or in custody. (June 14, 1902, c. 1088, § 3, 32 Stat. 386.)

220. False statement in application; use of passport obtained by false statement; penalty.—Whoever shall willfully and knowingly make any false statement in an application for passport with intent to induce or secure the issuance of a passport under the authority of the United States, either for his own use or the use of another, contrary to the laws regulating the issuance of passports or the rules prescribed pursuant to such laws, or whoever shall willfully and knowingly use or attempt to use, or furnish to another for use, any passport the issue of which was secured in any way by reason of any false statement, shall be fined not more than $2,000 or imprisoned not more than five years or both. (June 15, 1917, c. 30, Title IX, § 2, 40 Stat. 227.)

221. Unlawful use of passport; penalty.—Whoever shall willfully and knowingly use, or attempt to use, any passport issued or designed for the use of another than himself, or whoever shall willfully and knowingly use or attempt to use any passport in violation of the conditions or restrictions therein contained, or of the rules prescribed pursuant to the laws regulating the issuance of passports, which said rules shall be printed on the passport; or whoever shall willfully and knowingly furnish, dispose of, or deliver a passport to any person, for use by another than the person for whose use it was originally issued and designed, shall be fined not more than $2,000 or imprisoned not more than five years, or both. (June 15, 1917, c. 30, Title IX, § 3, 40 Stat. 227.)

222. Forging, alteration, etc., of passport; penalty.—Whoever shall falsely make, forge, counterfeit, mutilate, or alter, or cause or procure to be falsely made, forged, counterfeited, mutilated, or altered any passport or instrument purporting to be a passport, with intent to use the same, or with intent that the same may be used by another; or whoever shall willfully or knowingly use, or attempt to use, or furnish to another for use any such false, forged, counterfeited, mutilated, or altered passport or instrument purporting to be a passport, or any passport validly issued which has become void by the occurrence of any condition therein prescribed invalidating the same, shall be fined not more than $2,000 or imprisoned not more than five years, or both. (June 15, 1917, c. 30, Title IX, § 4, 40 Stat. 227.)

223. War-time restrictions generally.—When the United States is at war, if the President shall find that the public safety requires that restrictions and prohibitions in addition to those provided otherwise than by this section, and the three following, be imposed upon the departure of persons from and their entry into the United States, and shall make public proclamation thereof, it shall, until otherwise ordered by the President or Congress, be unlawful—

(a) For any alien to depart from or enter or attempt to depart from or enter the United States except under such reasonable rules, regulations, and orders, and subject to such limitations and exceptions as the President shall prescribe;

(b) For any person to transport or attempt to transport from or into the United States another person with knowledge or reasonable cause to believe that the departure or entry of such other person is forbidden by this section and the three following;

(c) For any person knowingly to make any false statement in an application for permission to depart from or enter the United States with intent to induce or secure the granting of such permission either for himself or for another;

(d) For any person knowingly to furnish or attempt to furnish or assist in furnishing to another a permit or evidence of permission to depart or enter not issued and designed for such other person's use;

(e) For any person knowingly to use or attempt to use any permit or evidence of permission to depart or enter not issued and designed for his use;

(f) For any person to forge, counterfeit, mutilate, or alter, or cause or procure to be forged, counterfeited, mutilated, or altered, any permit or evidence of permission to depart from or enter the United States;

(g) For any person knowingly to use or attempt to use or furnish to another for use any false, forged, counterfeited, mutilated, or altered permit, or evidence of permission, or any permit or evidence of permission which, though originally valid, has become or been made void or invalid. (May 22, 1918, c. 81, § 1, 40 Stat. 559.)

224. Passport required of citizens.—After such proclamation as is provided for by the preceding section has been made and published and while said proclamation is in force, it shall, except as otherwise provided by the President, and subject to such limitations and exceptions as the President may authorize and prescribe, be unlawful for any citizen of the United States to depart from or enter or attempt to depart from or enter the United States unless he bears a valid passport. (May 22, 1918, c. 81, § 2, 40 Stat. 559.)

225. Penalty for violation of war-time restrictions.—Any person who shall willfully violate any of the provisions of the two preceding sections, or of any order or proclamation of the President promulgated, or of any permit, rule, or regulation issued thereunder, shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than $10,000, or, if a natural person, imprisoned for not more than twenty years, or both; and the officer, director, or agent of any corporation who knowingly participates in such violation shall be punished by like fine or imprisonment, or both; and any vehicle or any vessel, together with its or her appurtenances, equipment, tackle, apparel, and furniture, concerned in any such violation, shall be forfeited to the United States. (May 22, 1918, c. 81, § 3, 40 Stat. 559.)

226. "United States" and "person" as used in war-time restriction defined.—The term "United States" as used in the three preceding sections includes the Canal Zone and all territory and waters, continental or insular, subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

The word "person" as used herein shall be deemed to mean any individual, partnership, association, company, or other unincorporated body of individuals, or corporation, or body politic. (May 22, 1918, c. 81, § 4, 40 Stat. 559.)

227. Regulations as to alien passport requirements continued.—The provisions of the Act approved May 22, 1918, being the four preceding sections, shall, in so far as they relate to requiring passports and visas from aliens seeking to come to the United States, continue in force and effect until otherwise provided by law. (Mar. 2, 1921, c. 113, § 1, 41 Stat. 1217.)

Chapter 5.—PRESERVATION OF FRIENDLY FOREIGN RELATIONS GENERALLY.

Sec.

243. General extent of interference with foreign trade.
244. Discretion of President in ordering release of property seized.
245. Use of land and naval forces to prevent exportation.
246. Wearing without authority uniform, etc., of friendly nation; punishment.
247. Facilitating work of foreign traveling salesmen; licenses and certificates of identification.

Section 231. Making false statement to influence conduct of foreign government toward United States.—Whoever, in relation to any dispute or controversy between a foreign government and the United States, shall willfully and knowingly make any untrue statement, either orally or in writing, under oath before any person authorized and empowered to administer oaths, which the affiant has knowledge or reason to believe will, or may be used to influence the measures or conduct of any foreign government, or of any officer or agent of any foreign government, to the injury of the United States, or with a view or intent to influence any measure of or action by the Government of the United States, or any branch thereof, to the injury of the United States, shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned not more than five years, or both. (June 15, 1917, c. 30, Title VIII, § 1, 40 Stat. 226.)

232. Wrongful assumption of character of diplomatic or consular officer.—Whoever within the jurisdiction of the United States shall falsely assume or pretend to be a diplomatic or consular, or other official of a foreign government duly accredited as such to the Government of the United States with intent to defraud such foreign government or any person, and shall take upon himself to act as such, or in such pretended character shall demand or obtain, or attempt to obtain from any person or from said foreign government, or from any officer thereof, any money, paper, document, or other thing of value, shall be fined not more than $5,000, or imprisoned not more than five years, or both. (June 15, 1917, c. 30, Title VIII, § 2, 40 Stat. 226.)

233. Acting as foreign governmental agent without notice to Secretary of State.—Whoever, other than a diplomatic or consular officer or attaché, shall act in the United States as an agent of a foreign government without prior notification to the Secretary of State shall be fined not more than $5,000, or imprisoned not more than five years, or both. (June 15, 1917, c. 30, Title VIII, § 3, 40 Stat. 226.)

234. Conspiracy to injure property of foreign government; indictment.—If two or more persons within the jurisdiction of the United States conspire to injure or destroy specific property situated within a foreign country and belonging to a foreign government or to any political subdivision thereof with which the United States is at peace, or any railroad, canal, bridge, or other public utility so situated, and if one or more such persons commits an act within the jurisdiction of the United States to effect the object of the conspiracy, each of the parties to the conspiracy shall be fined not more than $5,000, or imprisoned not more than three years, or both. Any indictment or information under this section shall describe the specific property which it was the object of the conspiracy to injure or destroy. (June 15, 1917, c. 30, Title VIII, § 5, 40 Stat. 226.)

235. "Foreign government" defined.—The words "foreign government," as used in the four preceding sections, shall be deemed to include any government, faction, or body of insurgents within a country with which the United States is at peace, which government, faction, or body of insurgents may or may not have been recognized by the United States as a government. (June 15, 1917, c. 30, Title VIII, § 4, 40 Stat. 226.)

236. Exportations of munitions of war restricted.—Whenever the President finds that in any American country, or in any country in which the United States exercises extraterritorial jurisdiction, conditions of domestic violence exist, which are or may be promoted by the use of arms or munitions of war procured from the United States, and makes proclamation thereof, it shall be unlawful to export, except under such limitations and exceptions as the President prescribes, any arms or munitions of war from any place in the United States to such country until otherwise ordered by the President or by Congress. (Jan. 31, 1922, c. 44, § 1, 42 Stat. 361.)

237. Penalty for exportation of munitions of war.—Whoever exports any arms or munitions of war in violation of the preceding section shall, on conviction, be punished by fine not exceeding $10,000, or by imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both. (Jan. 31, 1922, c. 44, § 2, 42 Stat. 361.)

238. Seizure of munitions of war, etc., intended for export generally; forfeiture.—Whenever an attempt is made to export or ship from or take out of the United States any arms or munitions of war, or other articles, in violation of law, or whenever there shall be known or probable cause to believe that any such arms or munitions of war, or other articles, are being or are intended to be exported, or shipped from, or taken out of the United States, in violation of law, the several collectors, naval officers, surveyors, inspectors of customs, and marshals, and deputy marshals of the United States, and every other person duly authorized for the purpose by the President, may seize and detain any articles or munitions of war about to be exported or shipped from, or taken out of the United States, in violation of law, and the vessels or vehicles containing the same, and retain possession thereof until released or disposed of as hereinafter in this chapter directed. If upon due inquiry as hereinafter in this chapter provided the property seized shall appear to have been about to be so unlawfully exported, shipped from, or taken out of the United States, the same shall be forfeited to the United States. (June 15, 1917, c. 30, Title VI, § 1, 40 Stat. 223.)

239. Warrant for detention of property seized.—It shall be the duty of the person making any seizure under sections 238 to 245, inclusive, of this chapter to apply, with due diligence, to the judge of the district court of the United States, or to the judge of the United States district court of the Canal Zone, or to the judge of a court of first instance in the Philippine Islands, having jurisdiction over the place within which the seizure is made, for a warrant to justify the further detention of the property so seized, which warrant shall be granted only on oath or affirmation showing that there is known or probable cause to believe that the property seized is being or is intended to be exported or shipped from or taken out of the United States in violation of law; and if the judge refuses to issue the warrant, or application therefor is not made by the person making the seizure within a reasonable time, not exceeding ten days after the seizure, the property shall forthwith be restored to the owner or person from whom seized. If the judge is satisfied that the seizure was justified under the provisions of sections 238 to 245, inclusive, of this chapter, and issues his warrant accordingly, then the property shall be detained by the person seizing it until the President, who is hereby expressly authorized so to do, orders it to be restored to the owner or claimant, or until it is discharged in due course of law on petition of the claimant, or on trial of condemnation proceedings, as provided in the following sections. (June 15, 1917, c. 30, Title VI, § 2, 40 Stat. 224.)

240. Petition for restoration of property seized.—The owner or claimant of any property seized under sections 238 to 245, inclusive, of this chapter may, at any time before condemnation proceedings have been instituted, as provided in the following sections, file his petition for its restoration in the district court of the United States, or the district court of the Canal Zone, or the court of first instance in the Philippine Islands, having jurisdiction over the place in which the seizure was made, whereupon the court shall advance the cause for hearing and determination with all possible dispatch, and, after causing notice to be given to the United States attorney for the district and to the person making the seizure, shall proceed to hear and decide whether the property seized shall be restored to the petitioner or forfeited to the United States. (June 15, 1917, c. 30, Title VI, § 3, 40 Stat. 224.)

241. Libel and sale of property seized.—Whenever the person making any seizure under sections 238 to 245, inclusive, of this chapter applies for and obtains a warrant for the detention of the property, and (a) upon the hearing and determination of the petition of the owner or claimant restoration is denied, or (b) the owner or claimant fails to file a petition for restoration within thirty days after the seizure, the United States attorney for the district wherein it was seized, upon direction of the Attorney General, shall institute libel proceedings in the United States district court or the district court of the Canal Zone or the court of first instance of the Philippine Islands having jurisdiction over the place wherein the seizure was made, against the property for condemnation; and if, after trial and hearing of the issues involved, the property is condemned, it shall be disposed of by sale, and the proceeds thereof, less the legal costs and charges, paid into the Treasury. (June 15, 1917, c. 30, Title VI, § 4, 40 Stat. 224.)

242. Method of trial; right to jury trial; bond for redelivery.—The proceedings in such summary trials upon the petition of the owner or claimant of the property seized, as well as in the libel cases in the preceding sections provided for, shall conform, as near as may be, to the proceedings in admiralty, except that either party may demand trial by jury of any issue of fact joined in such libel cases, and all such proceedings shall be at the suit of and in the name of the United States: Provided, That upon the payment of the costs and legal expenses of both the summary trials and the libel proceedings in the preceding sections provided for, and the execution and delivery of a good and sufficient bond in an amount double the value of the property seized, conditioned that it will not be exported or used or employed contrary to the provisions of sections 238 to 245, inclusive, of this chapter, the court, in its discretion, may direct that it be delivered to the owners thereof or to the claimants thereof. (June 15, 1917, c. 30, Title VI, § 5, 40 Stat. 224.)

243. General extent of interference with foreign trade.—Except in those cases in which the exportation of arms and munitions of war or other articles is forbidden by proclamation or otherwise by the President, as provided in section 238 of this chapter, nothing contained in sections 238 to 245, inclusive, of this chapter shall be construed to extend to, or interfere with any trade in such commodities, conducted with any foreign port or place wheresoever, or with any other trade which might have been lawfully carried on before June 15, 1917, under the law of nations, or under the treaties or conventions entered into by the United States, or under the laws thereof. (June 15, 1917, c. 30, Title VI, § 6, 40 Stat. 225.)

244. Discretion of President in ordering release of property seized.—Upon payment of the costs and legal expenses incurred in the summary trial provided for in the preceding sections for possession or libel proceedings, the President is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to order the release and restoration to the owner or claimant, as the case may be, of any property seized or condemned under the provisions of sections 238 to 245, inclusive, of this chapter. (June 15, 1917, c. 30, Title VI, § 7, 40 Stat. 225.)

245. Use of land and naval forces to prevent exportation.—The President may employ such part of the land or naval forces of the United States as he may deem necessary to carry out the purposes of the preceding seven sections. (June 15, 1917, c. 30, Title VI, § 8, 40 Stat. 225.)

246. Wearing without authority uniform, etc., of friendly nation; punishment.—It shall be unlawful for any person, with intent to deceive or mislead, within the United States or Territories, possessions, waters, or places subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, to wear any naval, military, police, or other official uniform, decoration, or regalia of any foreign state, nation, or government with which the United States is at peace, or any uniform, decoration, or regalia so nearly resembling the same as to be calculated to deceive, unless such wearing thereof be authorized by such state, nation, or government.

Any person who violates the provisions of this section shall upon conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding $300 or imprisonment for not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (July 8, 1918, c. 138, 40 Stat. 821.)

247. Facilitating work of foreign traveling salesmen; licenses and certificates of identification.—

Whereas the United States has entered into conventions with the Governments of Uruguay, Guatemala, Salvador, Panama, and Venezuela which were signed on August 27, 1918, December 8, 1918, January 28, 1919, February 8, 1919, and July 8, 1919, respectively, for facilitating the work of traveling salesmen; and

Whereas Articles I and II of each of said conventions read as follows:

"ARTICLE I. Manufacturers, merchants, and traders domiciled within the jurisdiction of one of the high contracting parties may operate as commercial travelers either personally or by means of agents or employees within the jurisdiction of the other high contracting party on obtaining from the latter, upon payment of a single fee, a license which shall be valid throughout its entire territorial jurisdiction.

"In case either of the high contracting parties shall be engaged in war, it reserves to itself the right to prevent from operating within its jurisdiction under the provisions of this treaty, or otherwise, enemy nationals or other aliens whose presence it may consider prejudicial to public order and national safety.

"ART. II. In order to secure the license above mentioned the applicant must obtain from the country of domicile of the manufacturers, merchants, and traders represented a certificate attesting his character as commercial traveler. This certificate, which shall be issued by the authority to be designated in each country for the purpose, shall be visaed by the consul of the country in which the applicant proposes to operate, and the authorities of the latter shall, upon the presentation of such certificate, issue to the applicant the national license as provided in Article I."

Now, therefore, the Secretary of Commerce, or any person in the Department of Commerce designated by him, is hereby authorized to issue the licenses and certificates of identification which are provided for by the said Articles I and II, respectively, of the said conventions, or which may be provided for by similar articles in any convention or treaty that may, after September 22, 1922, be concluded by the United States with a foreign government, and is further authorized to collect a reasonable fee for each license and certificate of identification issued. The amount of such fee shall be fixed by regulations made by the Secretary of Commerce and shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States quarterly. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 414, 42 Stat. 1028.)

Chapter 6.—FOREIGN DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR OFFICERS.

Sec.
251. Violation of safe conduct; penalty.
252. Suits against ministers and their domestics prohibited.
253. Penalty for wrongful suit.
254. Exceptions as to suits against servants, etc., of minister; listing servants.
255. Assaulting, etc., foreign minister.
256. Jurisdiction of consular officers in disputes between seamen.
257. Arrest of seamen; procedure generally.
258. Commitment and discharge.

Section 251. Violation of safe conduct; penalty.—Every person who violates any safe conduct or passport duly obtained and issued under authority of the United States, shall be imprisoned for not more than three years, and fined, at the discretion of the court. (R. S. § 4062.)

252. Suits against ministers and their domestics prohibited.—Whenever any writ or process is sued out or prosecuted by any person in any court of the United States, or of a State, or by any judge or justice, whereby the person of any ambassador or public minister of any foreign prince or State, authorized and received as such by the President, or any domestic or domestic servant of any such minister, is arrested or imprisoned, or his goods or chattels are distrained, seized, or attached, such writ or process shall be deemed void. (R. S. § 4063.)

253. Penalty for wrongful suit.—Whenever any writ or process is sued out in violation of the preceding section, every person by whom the same is obtained or prosecuted, whether as party or as attorney or solicitor, and every officer concerned in executing it, shall be deemed a violator of the laws of nations and a disturber of the public repose, and shall be imprisoned for not more than three years, and fined at the discretion of the court. (R. S. § 4064.)

254. Exceptions as to suits against servants, etc., of minister; listing servants.—The two preceding sections shall not apply to any case where the person against whom the process is issued is a citizen or inhabitant of the United States, in the service of an ambassador or a public minister, and the process is founded upon a debt contracted before he entered upon such service; nor shall the preceding section apply to any case where the person against whom the process is issued is a domestic servant of an ambassador or a public minister, unless the name of the servant has, before the issuing thereof, been registered in the Department of State, and transmitted by the Secretary of State to the marshal of the District of Columbia, who shall upon receipt thereof post the same in some public place in his office. All persons shall have resort to the list of names so posted in the marshal's office, and may take copies without fee. (R. S. §§ 4065, 4066.)

255. Assaulting, etc., foreign minister.—Every person who assaults, strikes, wounds, imprisons, or in any other manner offers violence to the person of an ambassador or a public minister, in violation of the law of nations, shall be imprisoned for not more than three years, and fined, at the discretion of the court. (R. S. § 4062.)

256. Jurisdiction of consular officers in disputes between seamen.—Whenever it is stipulated by treaty or convention between the United States and any foreign nation that the consul general, consuls, vice consuls, or consular or commercial agents of each nation, shall have exclusive jurisdiction of controversies, difficulties, or disorders arising at sea or in the waters or ports of the other nation, between the master or officers and any of the crew, or between any of the crew themselves, of any vessel belonging to the nation represented by such consular officer, such stipulations shall be executed and enforced within the jurisdiction of the United States as in the two following sections declared. But before this section shall take effect as to the vessels of any particular nation having such treaty with the United States, the President shall be satisfied that similar provisions have been made for the execution of such treaty by the other contracting party, and shall issue his proclamation to that effect, declaring this section to be in force as to such nation. (R. S. § 4079.)

257. Arrest of seamen; procedure generally.—In all cases within the purview of the preceding section the consul general, consul, or other consular or commercial authority of such foreign nation charged with the appropriate duty in the particular case, may make application to any court of record of the United States, or to any judge thereof, or to any commissioner of a district court, setting forth that such controversy, difficulty, or disorder has arisen, briefly stating the nature thereof, and when and where the same occurred, and exhibiting a certified copy or extract of the shipping articles, roll, or other proper paper of the vessel, to the effect that the person in question is of the crew or ship's company of such vessel; and further stating and certifying that such person has withdrawn himself, or is believed to be about to withdraw himself, from the control and discipline of the master and officers of the vessel, or that he has refused, or is about to refuse, to submit to and obey the lawful jurisdiction of such consular or commercial authority in the premises; and further stating and certifying that, to the best of the knowledge and belief of the officer certifying, such person is not a citizen of the United States. Such application shall be in writing and duly authenticated by the consular or other sufficient official seal. Thereupon such court, judge, or commissioner shall issue his warrant for the arrest of the person so complained of, directed to the marshal of the United States for the appropriate district, or in his discretion to any person, being a citizen of the United States, whom he may specially depute for the purpose, requiring such person to be brought before him for examination at a certain time and place. (R. S. § 4080.)

258. Commitment and discharge.—If, on such examination, it is made to appear that the person so arrested is a citizen of the United States, he shall be forthwith discharged from arrest, and shall be left to the ordinary course of law. But if this is not made to appear, and such court, judge, or commissioner finds, upon the papers in the preceding section referred to, a sufficient prima facie case that the matter concerns only the internal order and discipline of such foreign vessel, or, whether in its nature civil or criminal, does not affect directly the execution of the laws of the United States, or the rights and duties of any citizen of the United States, he shall forthwith, by his warrant, commit such person to prison, where prisoners under sentence of a court of the United States may be lawfully committed, or, in his discretion, to the master or chief officer of such foreign vessel, to be subject to the lawful orders, control, and discipline of such master or chief officer, and to the jurisdiction of the consular or commercial authority of the nation to which such vessel belongs, to the exclusion of any authority or jurisdiction in the premises of the United States or any State thereof. No person shall be detained more than two months after his arrest, but at the end of that time shall be set at liberty and shall not again be arrested for the same cause. The expenses of the arrest and the detention of the person so arrested shall be paid by the consular officers making the application: Provided, That nothing in this or the preceding section shall authorize the arrest or imprisonment of officers and seamen deserting or charged with desertion from merchant vessels of foreign nations in the United States and Territories and possessions thereof, and the cooperation, aid, and protection of competent legal authorities in effecting such arrest or imprisonment. (R. S. § 4081; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 153, §§ 16, 17, 38 Stat. 1184.)

Chapter 7.—INTERNATIONAL BUREAUS, CONGRESSES, ETC.

Sec.
261. Policy as to settlement of disputes and disarmament.
262. President's participation in international congresses restricted.
263. International prison commission.
264. Pan American Union; direction of Secretary of State.
265. Disposition of receipts for support of Pan American Union.
266. International commission of congresses of navigation; appropriation for expenses.
267. Permanent commission of International Geodetic Association; representative of United States.
268. International Joint Commission; salaries; powers.

Section 261. Policy as to settlement of disputes and disarmament.—It is hereby declared to be the policy of the United States to adjust and settle its international disputes through mediation or arbitration, to the end that war may be honorably avoided. It looks with apprehension and disfavor upon a general increase of armament throughout the world, but it realizes that no single nation can disarm, and that without a common agreement upon the subject every considerable power must maintain a relative standing in military strength. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 618.)

262. President's participation in international congresses restricted.—The Executive shall not extend or accept any invitation to participate in any international congress, conference, or like event, without first having specific authority of law to do so. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 149, 37 Stat. 913.)

263. International Prison Commission.—The United States shall continue as an adhering member of the International Prison Commission and participate in the work of said commission.

The Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized annually to pay the pro rata share of the United States in the administration expenses of the International Prison Commission and the necessary expenses of a commissioner to represent the United States on said commission at its annual meetings, together with necessary clerical and other expenses, out of any money which shall be appropriated for such purposes from time to time by Congress. (Feb. 28, 1913, c. 86, 37 Stat. 692.)

264. Pan American Union; direction of Secretary of State.—The Pan American Union shall be placed under the control and direction of the Secretary of State. (Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, 28 Stat. 418.)

265. Disposition of receipts for support of Pan American Union.—Any moneys received from other American Republics for the support of the Pan American Union shall be paid into the Treasury as a credit, in addition to any appropriation, and may be drawn therefrom upon requisitions of the chairman of the governing board of the union for the purpose of meeting the expenses of the union and of carrying out the orders of the said governing board. (Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title I, 43 Stat. 1020.)

266. International commission of congresses of navigation; appropriation for expenses.—The sum of $3,000 a year is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the support and maintenance of the permanent international commission of the congresses of navigation and for the payment of the actual expenses of the properly accredited national delegates of the United States to the meetings of the congresses and of the commission; and the Secretary of War is authorized to draw his warrant each year upon the Secretary of the Treasury for such sum, not to exceed $3,000, as may in his opinion be proper to apply to the purposes above mentioned, and the said sum shall be disbursed under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War.

The national delegates aforesaid from the United States shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for their actual expenses incurred while traveling to and from the meetings, and while in attendance thereon, from the funds herein appropriated and authorized to be expended. (June 28, 1902, c. 1306, 32 Stat. 485.)

267. Permanent Commission of International Geodetic Association; representative of United States.—The duly appointed representative of the United States on the permanent commission of the International Geodetic Association is hereby granted authority to vote with the representatives on the permanent commission from other nations on all matters coming before the association, including the extension of its existence, subject to the approval of Congress. (Mar. 3, 1917, c. 161, 39 Stat. 1055.)

268. International Joint Commission; salaries; powers.—The salaries of the members of the International Joint Commission on the part of the United States shall be fixed by the President. Said commission or any member thereof shall have power to administer oaths and to take evidence on oath whenever deemed necessary in any proceeding or inquiry or matter within its jurisdiction under said treaty, and said commission shall be authorized to compel the attendance of witnesses in any proceedings before it or the production of books and papers when necessary by application to the district court of the United States for the district within which such session is held, which court is hereby empowered and directed to make all orders and issue all processes necessary and appropriate for that purpose. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, 36 Stat. 1364.)

21. Deduction for administration and research; apportionment of remainder among States.
22. Certification of disposition of appropriation.
23. Forest roads and trails; appropriation; manner of expenditure.
24. Approval of projects in States not permitted to provide for highways.
25. Effect of partial invalidity.

Section 1. Citation.—This chapter may be cited as the Federal Highway Act. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 1, 42 Stat. 212.)

2. Definitions.—When used in this chapter, unless the context indicates otherwise—

The term "highway" includes rights of way, bridges, drainage structures, signs, guard rails, and protective structures in connection with highways, but shall not include any highway or street in a municipality having a population of two thousand five hundred or more as shown by the last available census, except that portion of any such highway or street along which within a distance of one mile the houses average more than two hundred feet apart.

The term "State highway department" includes any State department, commission, board, or official having adequate powers and suitably equipped and organized to discharge to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Agriculture the duties herein required.

The term "maintenance" means the constant making of needed repairs to preserve a smooth surfaced highway.

The term "construction" means the supervising, inspecting, actual building, and all expenses incidental to the construction of a highway, except locating, surveying, mapping, and costs of rights of way.

The term "reconstruction" means a widening or a rebuilding of the highway or any portion thereof to make it a continuous road, and of sufficient width and strength to care adequately for traffic needs.

The term "forest roads" means roads wholly or partly within or adjacent to and serving the national forests.

The term "State funds" includes for the purposes of this chapter funds raised under the authority of the State, or any political or other subdivision thereof, and made available for expenditure under the direct control of the State highway department.

The term "bridges" includes railroad grade separations, whether by means of overhead or underpass crossings. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 2, 42 Stat. 212; June 19, 1922, c. 227, § 4, par. 3, 42 Stat. 660.)

3. Powers and duties as to highways reposed in Secretary of Agriculture and others.—All powers and duties of the Council of National Defense under section 3 of Title 50, WAR, in relation to highway or highway transport are transferred to the Secretary of Agriculture. The powers and duties of agencies dealing with highways in the national parks or in military or naval reservations under the control of the United States Army or Navy, or with highways used principally for military or naval purposes, shall not be taken over by the Secretary of Agriculture, but such highways shall remain under the control and jurisdiction of such agencies.

The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to cooperate with the State highway departments, and with the Department of the Interior in the construction of public highways within Indian reservations, and to pay the amount assumed therefor from the funds allotted or apportioned under this chapter to the State wherein the reservation is located. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 3, 42 Stat. 212.)

4. Establishment of accounting division.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall establish an accounting division which shall devise and install a proper method of keeping the accounts. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 4, 42 Stat. 213.)

5. Transfer of war material suitable for highways; distribution.—The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to transfer to the Secretary of Agriculture, upon his request, all war material, equipment, and supplies declared surplus from stock on hand as of November 9, 1921, and not needed for the purposes of the War Department but suitable for use in the improvement of highways, and the same shall be distributed among the highway departments of the several States to be used in the construction, reconstruction, and maintenance of highways, such distribution to be upon the same basis as that provided for in this chapter in the distribution of Federal aid fund: Provided, That the Secretary of Agriculture, in his discretion, may reserve from such distribution not to exceed 10 per centum of such material, equipment, and supplies for use in the construction, reconstruction, and maintenance of national forest roads or other roads constructed, reconstructed, or maintained under his direct supervision: Provided further, That the Secretary of Agriculture may also reserve from such distribution not exceeding 5 per centum of the material, equipment, and supplies received from the Secretary of War and transfer said material, equipment and supplies to the Secretary of the Interior for use in constructing, reconstructing, improving and maintaining roads and trails in the national parks and monuments. (Feb. 28, 1919, c. 69, § 7, 40 Stat. 1201; Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 5, 42 Stat. 213; Apr. 9, 1924, c. 86, § 3, 43 Stat. 90.)

6. Projects to receive Federal aid; approval by Secretary of Agriculture; two classes of highways.—In approving projects to receive Federal aid under the provisions of this chapter the Secretary of Agriculture shall give preference to such projects as will expedite the completion of an adequate and connected system of highways, interstate in character.

Before any projects are approved in any State, such State, through its State highway department, shall select or designate a system of highways not to exceed 7 per centum of the total highway mileage of such State as shown by the records of the State highway department on November 9, 1921.

Upon this system all Federal-aid apportionments shall be expended.

Highways which may receive Federal aid shall be divided into two classes, one of which shall be known as primary or interstate highways, and shall not exceed three-sevenths of the total mileage which may receive Federal aid, and the other which shall connect or correlate therewith and be known as secondary or intercounty highways, and shall consist of the remainder of the mileage which may receive Federal aid.

The Secretary of Agriculture shall have authority to approve in whole or in part the systems as designated or to require modifications or revisions thereof: Provided, That the States shall submit to the Secretary of Agriculture for his approval any proposed revisions of the designated systems of highways above provided for.

Not more than 60 per centum of all Federal aid allotted to any State shall be expended upon the primary or interstate highways until provision has been made for the improvement of the entire system of such highways: Provided, That with the approval of any State highway department the Secretary of Agriculture may approve the expenditure of more than 60 per centum of the Federal aid apportioned to such State upon the primary or interstate highways in such State.

The Secretary of Agriculture may approve projects submitted by the State highway departments prior to the selection, designation, and approval of the system of Federal-aid highways herein provided for if he may reasonably anticipate that such projects will become a part of such system.

Whenever provision has been made by any State for the completion and maintenance of a system of primary or interstate and secondary or intercounty highways equal to 7 per centum of the total mileage of such State, as required by this chapter, said State, through its State highway department, by and with the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture, is authorized to add to the mileage of primary or interstate and secondary or intercounty systems as funds become available for the construction and maintenance of such additional mileage. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 6, 42 Stat. 213.)

7. State funds to be provided.—Before any project shall be approved by the Secretary of Agriculture for any State such State shall make provisions for State funds required each year of such States by this chapter for construction, reconstruction, and maintenance of all Federal-aid highways within the State, which funds shall be under the direct control of the State highway department. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 7, 42 Stat. 214.)

8. Character of construction, etc., required; approval of Secretary of Agriculture.—Only such durable types of surface and kinds of materials shall be adopted for the construction and reconstruction of any highway which is a part of the primary or interstate and secondary or intercounty systems as will adequately meet the existing and probable future traffic needs and conditions thereon. The Secretary of Agriculture shall approve the types and width of construction and reconstruction and the character of improvement, repair, and maintenance in each case, consideration being given to the type and character which shall be best suited for each locality and to the probable character and extent of the future traffic. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 8, 42 Stat. 214.)

9. Freedom from tolls.—All highways constructed or reconstructed under the provisions of this chapter shall be free from tolls of all kinds. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 9, 42 Stat. 214.)

10. Width of right of way and wearing surface.—All highways in the primary or interstate system constructed after November 9, 1921, shall have a right of way of ample width and a wearing surface of an adequate width which shall not be less than eighteen feet, unless, in the opinion of the Secretary of Agriculture, it is rendered impracticable by physical conditions, excessive costs, probable traffic requirements, or legal obstacles. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 9, 42 Stat. 214.)

11. Funds apportioned to States; when payable.—When any State shall have met the requirements of this chapter, the Secretary of the Treasury, upon receipt of certification from the governor of such State to such effect, approved by the Secretary of Agriculture, shall immediately make available to such State, for the purpose set forth in this chapter, the sum apportioned to such State as herein provided. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 10, 42 Stat. 214.)

12. Submission of project statements; approval; setting aside share of Federal aid.—Any State having complied with the provisions of this chapter, and desiring to avail itself of the benefits thereof, shall by its State highway department submit to the Secretary of Agriculture project statements setting forth proposed construction or reconstruction of any primary or interstate or secondary or intercounty highway therein. If the Secretary of Agriculture approve the project, the State highway department shall furnish to him such surveys, plans, specifications, and estimates therefor as he may require; items included for engineering, inspection, and unforeseen contingencies shall not exceed 10 per centum of the total estimated cost of its construction.

When the Secretary of Agriculture approves such surveys, plans, specifications, and estimates, he shall notify the State highway department and immediately certify the fact to the Secretary of the Treasury. The Secretary of the Treasury shall thereupon set aside the share of the United States payable under this chapter on account of such projects, which shall not exceed 50 per centum of the total estimated cost thereof, except that in the case of any State containing unappropriated public lands, and nontaxable Indian lands, individual and tribal, exceeding 5 per centum of the total area of all lands in the State, the share of the United States payable under this chapter on account of such projects shall not exceed 50 per centum of the total estimated cost thereof plus a percentage of such estimated cost equal to one-half of the percentage which the area of the unappropriated public lands, and nontaxable Indian lands, individual and tribal, in such State bears to the total area of such State: Provided, That the limitation of payments not to exceed $15,000 per mile, under existing law, which the Secretary of Agriculture may make, is increased in proportion to the increased percentage of Federal aid authorized by this section. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 11, 42 Stat. 214; June 19, 1922, c. 227, § 4, par. 4, 42 Stat. 660; Feb. 12, 1925, c. 219, § 4, 43 Stat. 890.)

13. Construction and reconstruction work; how conducted.—The construction and reconstruction of the highways or parts of highways under the provisions of this chapter, and all contracts, plans, specifications, and estimates relating thereto, shall be undertaken by the State highway departments subject to the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture. The construction and reconstruction work and labor in each State shall be done in accordance with its laws and under the direct supervision of the State highway department, subject to the inspection and approval of the Secretary of Agriculture and in accordance with the rules and regulations pursuant to this chapter. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 12, 42 Stat. 215.)

14. Payment to States of Federal aid; time and manner of making.—When the Secretary of Agriculture shall find that any project approved by him has been constructed or reconstructed in compliance with said plans and specifications, he shall cause to be paid to the proper authorities of said State the amount set aside for said project.

The Secretary of Agriculture may, in his discretion, from time to time, make payments on such construction or reconstruction as the work progresses, but these payments, including previous payments, if any, shall not be more than the United States pro rata part of the value of the labor and materials which have been actually put into such construction or reconstruction in conformity to said plans and specifications. The Secretary of Agriculture and the State highway department of each State may jointly determine at what time and in what amounts payments as work progresses shall be made under this chapter.

Such payments shall be made by the Secretary of the Treasury, on warrants drawn by the Secretary of Agriculture, to such official or officials or depository as may be designated by the State highway department and authorized under the laws of the State to receive public funds of the State. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 13, 42 Stat. 215.)

15. Failure of State to maintain Federal-aid road; duty of Secretary of Agriculture.—Should any State fail to maintain any highway within its boundaries after construction or reconstruction under the provisions of this chapter, the Secretary of Agriculture shall then serve notice upon the State highway department of that fact, and if within ninety days after receipt of such notice said highway has not been placed in proper condition of maintenance, the Secretary of Agriculture shall proceed immediately to have such highway placed in a proper condition of maintenance and charge the cost thereof against the Federal funds allotted to such State, and shall refuse to approve any other project in such State, except as hereinafter provided.

Upon the reimbursement by the State of the amount expended by the Federal Government for such maintenance, said amount shall be paid into the Federal highway fund for reapportionment among all the States for the construction of roads under this chapter, and the Secretary of Agriculture shall then approve further projects submitted by the State as in this chapter provided.

Whenever it shall become necessary for the Secretary of Agriculture under the provisions of this chapter to place any highway in a proper condition of maintenance the Secretary of Agriculture shall contract with some responsible party or parties for doing such work: Provided, however, That in case he is not able to secure a satisfactory contract he may purchase, lease, hire, or otherwise obtain all necessary supplies, equipment, and labor, and may operate and maintain such motor and other equipment and facilities as in his judgment are necessary for the proper and efficient performance of his functions. (July 11, 1916, c. 241, § 7, 39 Stat. 358; Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 14, 42 Stat. 215.)

16. Maps of Federal-aid roads.—At least once a year the Secretary of Agriculture shall publish maps supplementary to those of selected and approved highways and forest roads already in existence and showing his program and the progress made in selection, construction and reconstruction. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 15, 42 Stat. 216.)

17. Consent by United States to conveyance of property acquired therefrom.—For the purpose of this chapter the consent of the United States is given to any railroad or canal company to convey to the highway department of any State any part of its right of way or other property in that State acquired by grant from the United States. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 16, 42 Stat. 216.)

18. Appropriation of public lands for highway purposes; reversion.—If the Secretary of Agriculture determines that any part of the public lands or reservations of the United States is reasonably necessary for the right of way of any highway or forest road or as a source of materials for the construction or maintenance of any such highway or forest road adjacent to such lands or reservations, the Secretary of Agriculture shall file with the Secretary of the department supervising the administration of such land or reservation a map showing the portion of such lands or reservations which it is desired to appropriate.

If within a period of four months after such filing the said Secretary shall not have certified to the Secretary of Agriculture that the proposed appropriation of such land or material is contrary to the public interest or inconsistent with the purposes for which such land or materials have been reserved, or shall have agreed to the appropriation and transfer under conditions which he deems necessary for the adequate protection and utilization of the reserve, then such land and materials may be appropriated and transferred to the State highway department for such purposes and subject to the conditions so specified.

If at any time the need for any such lands or materials for such purposes shall no longer exist, notice of the fact shall be given by the State highway department to the Secretary of Agriculture, and such lands or materials shall immediately revert to the control of the Secretary of the department from which they had been appropriated. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 17, 42 Stat. 216.)

19. Prescription of rules and regulations by Secretary of Agriculture.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall prescribe and promulgate all needful rules and regulations for the carrying out of the provisions of this chapter, including such recommendations to the Congress and the State highway departments as he may deem necessary for preserving and protecting the highways and insuring the safety of traffic thereon. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 18, 42 Stat. 216.)

20. Reports to Congress by Secretary of Agriculture.—On or before the first Monday in December of each year the Secretary of Agriculture shall make a report to Congress, which shall include a detailed statement of the work done, the status of each project undertaken, the allocation of appropriations, an itemized statement of the expenditures and receipts during the preceding fiscal year under this chapter, an itemized statement of the traveling and other expenses, including a list of employees, their duties, salaries, and traveling expenses, if any, and his recommendations, if any, for new legislation amending or supplementing this chapter. The Secretary of Agriculture shall also make special reports as Congress may request. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 19, 42 Stat. 216.)

21. Deduction for administration and research; apportionment of remainder among States.—So much, not to exceed 2½ per centum, of all moneys appropriated for expenditure under the provisions of this chapter, as the Secretary of Agriculture may deem necessary for administering the provisions of this chapter and for carrying on necessary highway research and investigational studies independently or in cooperation with the State highway departments and other research agencies, and for publishing the results thereof, shall be deducted for such purposes, available until expended.

Within sixty days after the close of each fiscal year the Secretary of Agriculture shall determine what part, if any, of the sums theretofore deducted for such purposes will not be needed and apportion such part, if any, for the fiscal year then current in the same manner and on the same basis as are other amounts authorized by this chapter apportioned among all the States, and shall certify such apportionment to the Secretary of the Treasury and to the State highway departments.

The Secretary of Agriculture, after making the deduction authorized by this section, shall apportion the remainder of the appropriation made for expenditure under the provision of the chapter for the fiscal year among the several States in the following manner: One-third in the ratio which the area of each State bears to the total area of all the States; one-third in the ratio which the population of each State bears to the total population of all the States, as shown by the latest available Federal census; one-third in the ratio which the mileage of rural delivery routes and star routes in each State bears to the total mileage of rural delivery and star routes in all the States at the close of the next preceding fiscal year, as shown by certificate of the Postmaster General, which he is directed to make and furnish annually to the Secretary of Agriculture: Provided, That no State shall receive less than one-half of 1 per centum of each year's allotment. All moneys appropriated for expenditure under the provisions of this chapter shall be available until the close of the second succeeding fiscal year for which apportionment was made: Provided further, That any amount apportioned under the provisions of this chapter unexpended at the end of the period during which it is available for expenditure under the terms of this section shall be reapportioned within sixty days thereafter to all the States in the same manner and on the same basis, and certified to the Secretary of the Treasury and the State highway departments in the same way as if it were being apportioned under this chapter for the first time. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 21, 42 Stat. 217.)

22. Certification of disposition of appropriation.—On or before January 20 preceding the commencement of each fiscal year, the Secretary of Agriculture shall certify to the Secretary of the Treasury and to each of the State highway departments the sum he has estimated to be deducted for administering the provisions of this chapter and the sums which he has apportioned to each State for the fiscal year ending June 30. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 22, 42 Stat. 217.)

23. Forest roads and trails; appropriation; manner of expenditure.—(a) Fifty per centum, but not to exceed $3,000,000 for any one fiscal year, of the appropriation made or that may hereafter be made for the survey, construction, reconstruction and maintenance of forest roads and trails shall be expended under the direct supervision of the Secretary of Agriculture in the survey, construction, reconstruction, and maintenance of roads and trails of primary importance for the protection, administration, and utilization of the national forests, or when necessary, for the use and development of the resources upon which communities within or adjacent to the national forests are dependent, and shall be apportioned among the several States, Alaska, and Porto Rico by the Secretary of Agriculture, according to the relative needs of the various national forests, taking into consideration the existing transportation facilities, value of timber, or other resources served, relative fire danger, and comparative difficulties of road and trail construction.

The balance of such appropriations shall be expended by the Secretary of Agriculture in the survey, construction, reconstruction, and maintenance of forest roads of primary importance to the State, counties, or communities within, adjoining, or adjacent to the national forests, and shall be prorated and apportioned by the Secretary of Agriculture for expenditures in the several States, Alaska, and Porto Rico, according to the area and value of the land owned by the Government within the national forests therein as determined by the Secretary of Agriculture from such information, investigation, sources, and departments as the Secretary of Agriculture may deem most accurate.

(b) Cooperation of Territories, States, and civil subdivisions thereof may be accepted but shall not be required by the Secretary of Agriculture.

(c) The Secretary of Agriculture may enter into contracts with any Territory, State, or civil subdivision thereof for the construction, reconstruction, or maintenance of any forest road or trail or part thereof.

(d) Construction work on forest roads or trails estimated to cost $5,000 or more per mile, exclusive of bridges, shall be advertised and let to contract.

If such estimated cost is less than $5,000 per mile, or if, after proper advertising, no acceptable bid is received, or the bids are deemed excessive, the work may be done by the Secretary of Agriculture on his own account; and for such purpose the Secretary of Agriculture may purchase, lease, hire, rent, or otherwise obtain all necessary supplies, materials, tools, equipment, and facilities required to perform the work.

Any appropriation that may be made for expenditure under the provisions of this section may be expended for the purpose authorized in this section and for the payment of wages, salaries, and other expenses for help employed in connection with such work. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 23, 42 Stat. 218.)

24. Approval of projects in States not permitted to provide for highways.—In any State where the existing constitution or laws will not permit the State to provide revenues for the construction, reconstruction, or maintenance of highways, the Secretary of Agriculture shall continue to approve projects for said State until three years after February 12, 1925, if he shall find that said State has complied with the provisions of this chapter in so far as its existing constitution and laws will permit. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 24, 42 Stat. 218; June 19, 1922, c. 227, § 4, par. 5, 42 Stat. 661; Feb. 12, 1925, c. 219, § 5, 43 Stat. 890.)

25. Effect of partial invalidity.—If any provision of this chapter, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, shall be held invalid, the validity of the remainder of the chapter and of the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby. (Nov. 9, 1921, c. 119, § 25, 42 Stat. 219.)

Chapter 2.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

Sec.
41. Federal aid extended to Hawaii.
42. Limitation of payments per mile.
43. Time of apportionment.
44. Approval of project as creating obligation.
45. Appropriations as discharging obligations.
46. False statements, etc., as to highway projects; penalty.
47. Consent as requisite for employment on roads of soldiers, sailors, or marines.
48. Maintenance of roads constructed.
49. Exchange, reclamation, and disposition of explosives.
50. Loan of tractors.
51. Transfer of motor-propelled vehicles and equipment belonging to Military Establishment to Department of Agriculture; purposes of.
52. Transfer of certain war material, equipment, and supplies for improvement of highways and roads.
53. Title to property transferred to States.

Section 41. Federal aid extended to Hawaii.—Beginning with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1925, the Territory of Hawaii shall be entitled to share in appropriations now or which may hereafter become available for apportionment under chapter 1 of this title and any statute amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto upon the same terms and conditions as any of the several States, and such Territory shall be included in the calculations to determine the basis of apportionment of such funds: Provided, That in approving road projects in such Territory to receive Federal aid, the Secretary of Agriculture shall give preference to such projects as will expedite the completion of an adequate system of highways for the national defense or which will connect seaports with units of the national parks. (Mar. 10, 1924, c. 46, § 1, 43 Stat. 17.)

42. Limitation of payments per mile.—The payments which the Secretary of Agriculture may make from any sums appropriated under the provisions of chapter 1 of this title, after the fiscal year ending June 30, 1923, shall not exceed $15,000 per mile exclusive of the cost of bridges of more than twenty feet of clear span: Provided, That the limitation of payments herein provided shall apply to the public-land States, except that the same is increased in proportion to the increased percentage of Federal aid authorized by section 12. (Feb. 28, 1919, c. 69, § 5, 40 Stat. 1201; June 19, 1922, c. 227, § 4, par. 4, 42 Stat. 660.)

43. Time of apportionment.—On or before January 1, preceding the commencement of each fiscal year ending June 30, the Secretary of Agriculture shall apportion among the several States, as provided in section 21, the appropriation authorized for each fiscal year. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 219, 43 Stat. 889.)

44. Approval of project as creating obligation.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall act upon projects submitted to him under his apportionment of the appropriations authorized by section 1 of the Act of February 12, 1925 (chapter 219, Forty-third Statutes, page 889), and his approval of any such project within three years shall be deemed a contractual obligation of the Federal Government for the payment of its proportional contribution thereto. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 219, § 1, 43 Stat. 889.)

45. Appropriations as discharging obligations.—The appropriations now or hereafter made for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of section 23 of chapter 1 and statutes amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto shall be considered available for the purpose of discharging the obligations created by the approval of projects. (Jan. 22, 1923, c. 29, 42 Stat. 1157.)

46. False statements, etc., as to highway projects; penalty.—If any officer, agent, or employee of the United States, or any officer, agent, or employee of any State or Territory, or any person, association, firm, or corporation or any officer or agent of any person, association, firm, or corporation shall knowingly make any false statement, false representation, or false report as to the character, quality, quantity, or cost of the material used or to be used, or the quantity or quality of the work performed or to be performed, or the costs thereof in connection with the submission of plans, maps, specifications, contracts, or costs of construction of any project submitted for approval to the Secretary of Agriculture under the provisions of chapter 1 of this title, or shall knowingly make any false statement, false representation, or false report or claim for work or materials for the construction of any project approved by the Secretary of Agriculture under chapter 1 of this title, and all amendments thereto, or shall knowingly make any false statement or false representation in any report required to be made under chapter 1 of this title or statutes supplementary thereto with the intent to defraud the United States, he shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment not to exceed five years or by a fine not to exceed $10,000, or by both fine and imprisonment within said limits. (June 19, 1922, c. 227, § 4, par. 6, 42 Stat. 661.)

47. Consent as requisite for employment on roads of soldiers, sailors, or marines.—No officer or enlisted man of the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps shall be detailed for work on the roads which come within the provisions of the Act of February 28, 1919, chapter 69, Fortieth Statutes 1202, except by his own consent. (Feb. 28, 1919, c. 69, § 9, 40 Stat. 1202.)

48. Maintenance of roads constructed.—To maintain the roads constructed under the provisions of the Act of July 11, 1916 (chapter 241, Thirty-ninth Statutes, page 355), shall be the duty of the States, or their civil subdivisions, according to the laws of the several States. If at any time the Secretary of Agriculture shall find that any road in any State constructed under the provisions of said Act is not being properly maintained he shall give notice of such fact to the highway department of such State and if within four months from the receipt of said notice said road has not been put in a proper condition of maintenance then the Secretary of Agriculture shall thereafter refuse to approve any project for road construction in said State, or the civil subdivision thereof, as the fact may be, whose duty it is to maintain said road until it has been put in a condition of proper maintenance. (July 11, 1916, c. 241, § 7, 39 Stat. 358.)

49. Exchange, reclamation and disposition of explosives.—The Secretary of Agriculture may exchange deteriorated explosives or explosive components, obtained by transfer from the Secretary of War for distribution among the States and for use in the improvement of roads under his direct supervision, for explosives or explosive products in condition for immediate use. The Secretary of Agriculture is further authorized, by contract or otherwise, to reclaim by reworking, reconditioning, cartridging, or otherwise converting into usable form such deteriorated explosives or explosive components as can not be so exchanged, and to pay the cost thereof out of available administrative funds authorized by chapter 1 of this title and statutes amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto. The Secretary of Agriculture, in his discretion, may transfer to any department or agency of the Federal Government such of the materials acquired from such exchanges, and also such of the explosives or explosive components as may be reworked, reconditioned, cartridged, or otherwise converted hereunder, as may be required by any such department or agency for use in its authorized activities: Provided, That the charges incident to the storage, handling, protection, exchange, reworking, reconditioning, cartridging, or conversion of such explosives or explosive components as may be certified by the Secretary of Agriculture to have been incurred against said administrative funds shall be reimbursed, said funds pro rata by the department or agency of the Federal Government, the State, or other agency receiving such explosives or explosive products. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 219, § 3, 43 Stat. 890.)

50. Loan of tractors.—The Secretary of War is authorized and empowered, at his discretion, and under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, to loan to any State of the Union, when so requested by the highway department of the State, such tractors as are retained and not distributed under sections 51, 52, or 53 for use in highway construction by the highway department of such State: Provided, That all expenses for repairs and upkeep of tractors so loaned and the expenses of loading and freight shall be paid by the State, both in transfer to the State and the return to the Army. (Mar. 1, 1921, c. 88, § 2, 41 Stat. 1155.)

51. Transfer of motor-propelled vehicles and equipment belonging to Military Establishment to Department of Agriculture; purposes of.—The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to transfer such motor-propelled vehicles and motor equipment, including spare parts, pertaining to the Military Establishment as are or may hereafter be found to be surplus and no longer required for military purposes, to the Department of Agriculture, for use in the improvement of highways and roads under the provisions of section 7 of the Act approved February 28, 1919, entitled "An Act making appropriations for the service of the Post Office Department, for the fiscal year 1920, and for other purposes": Provided, however, That no more motor-propelled vehicles, motor equipment, and other war material, equipment, and supplies, the transfer of which is authorized in section 51 or 52 shall be transferred to the Department of Agriculture for the purposes named in section 7 of said Act than said Department of Agriculture shall certify can be efficiently used for such purposes within a reasonable time after such transfer. (Mar. 15, 1920, c. 100, § 1, 41 Stat. 530.)

52. Transfer of certain war material, equipment, and supplies for improvement of highways and roads.—The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to transfer to the Department of Agriculture, under the provisions of section 7 of the Act approved February 28, 1919, entitled "An Act making appropriations for the service of the Post Office Department for the fiscal year 1920, and for other purposes," for use in the improvement of highways and roads, as therein provided, following war material, equipment, and supplies pertaining to the Military Establishment as are or may hereafter be found to be surplus and not required for military purposes, to wit, road rollers, graders, and oilers; sprinkling wagons; concrete mixers; derricks; pile-driver outfits complete; air and steam drill outfits; centrifugal and diaphragm pumps with power; rock crushers; clamshell and orange-peel buckets; road scarifiers; caterpillar and drag-line excavators; plows; cranes; trailers; rubber and steam hose; asphalt plants; steam shovels; dump wagons; hoisting engines; air-compressor outfits with power; boilers; drag, Fresno, and wheel scrapers; stump pullers; wheelbarrows; screening plants; wagon loaders; blasting machines; hoisting cable; air hose; corrugated-metal culverts; explosives and exploders; engineers' transits, levels, tapes, and similar supplies and equipment; drafting machines; planimeters; fabricated bridge materials; industrial railway equipment; conveyors, gravity and power; donkey engines; corrugated-metal roofing; steel and iron pipe; wagons and similar equipment and supplies such as are used directly for road-building purposes. (Mar. 15, 1920, c. 100, § 2, 41 Stat. 530.)

53. Title to property transferred to States.—The title to vehicles and equipment mentioned in sections 51 and 52 shall be and remain vested in the State for use in the improvement of the public highways, and no such vehicles and equipment in serviceable condition shall be sold or the title to the same transferred to any individual, company, or corporation: Provided, That any State highway department to which is assigned motor-propelled vehicles and other equipment and supplies, transferred by said sections to the Department of Agriculture, may, in its discretion, arrange for the use of such vehicles and equipment, for the purpose of constructing or maintaining public highways, with any State agency or municipal corporation at a fair rental which shall not be less than the cost of maintenance and repair of said vehicles and equipment. (Mar. 15, 1920, c. 100, § 5, 41 Stat. 531.)

Section 1. Word "seaman" defined.—The term "seaman," wherever employed in legislation relating to the Public Health Service, shall be held to include any person employed on board in the care, preservation, or navigation of any vessel, or in the service, on board, of those engaged in such care, preservation, or navigation. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 156, § 3, 18 Stat. 485; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, 37 Stat. 309.)

2. Gifts in aid of marine hospitals.—The President is authorized to receive donations of real or personal property, in the name of the United States, for the erection or support of hospitals for sick and disabled seamen. (R. S. § 4801.)

3. Deduction from pay of seamen for Navy hospital fund.—The Secretary of the Navy shall deduct from the pay due each officer, seaman, and marine, in the Navy, at the rate of 20 cents per month for each person, to be applied to the fund for Navy hospitals. (R. S. § 4808.)

4. Fines on seamen appropriated for Navy hospitals.—All fines imposed on Navy officers, seamen, and marines shall be paid to the Secretary of the Navy, for the maintenance of Navy hospitals. (R. S. § 4809.)

5. Forfeitures from desertion for naval hospital fund.—All forfeitures on account of desertion shall be passed to the credit of the naval hospital fund. (June 7, 1900, c. 859, 31 Stat. 697.)

6. Pension paid to fund for benefit of naval hospital.—Whenever any officer, seaman, or marine entitled to a pension is admitted to a naval hospital, his pension, while he remains there, shall be deducted from his accounts and paid to the Secretary of the Navy for the benefit of the fund from which such hospital is maintained. (R. S. § 4813; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 421, 30 Stat. 1027; June 30, 1914, c. 130, 38 Stat. 398.)

7. Lease or sale of marine hospitals.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to lease, or to sell at public auction, to the highest and best bidder, for cash, after due notice in the public newspapers, such marine hospital buildings and lands appertaining thereto as he may deem advisable in the interests of the Public Health Service, and to make, execute, and deliver all needful conveyances to the lessees or purchasers thereof respectively; and the proceeds of such leases and sales are appropriated for the marine hospital establishment. But the hospitals at Cleveland in Ohio, and Portland in Maine, shall not be sold or leased. And this section shall not be construed to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to lease or sell any such hospital where the relief furnished to sick mariners shall show an extent of relief equal to twenty cases a day on an average for the last preceding four years, or where no other suitable and sufficient hospital accommodations can be procured upon reasonable terms for the comfort and convenience of the patients. (R. S. § 4806; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 156, § 4, 18 Stat. 485; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, 37 Stat. 309.)

8. Coast guard admitted to hospitals.—The privilege of admission to and temporary treatment in the marine hospitals under the control of the Government of the United States is extended to the officers and men of the Coast Guard under the same rules and regulations as those governing sailors and seamen, and for the purposes of this section members of the Coast Guard shall be received in said hospitals and treated therein, and at the dispensaries thereof, as are seamen of American registered vessels; but this section shall not be so construed as to compel the establishment of hospitals or dispensaries for the benefit of said officers and men, nor as establishing a home for the same when permanently disabled. (Aug. 4, 1894, c. 213, 28 Stat. 229; Jan. 28, 1915, c. 20, § 2, 38 Stat. 801.)

9. Officers and employees of Public Health Service entitled to hospital relief.—Commissioned officers and pharmacists, and those employees of the Public Health Service devoting all their time to field work, shall be entitled to hospital relief when taken sick or injured in line of duty. (June 23, 1913, c. 3, § 1, 38 Stat. 24.)

10. Officers and crews of vessels of Bureau of Fisheries admitted to benefits of Public Health Service.—Officers and crews of the several vessels belonging to the Bureau of Fisheries may be admitted to the benefits of the Public Health Service without charge upon the application of their respective commanding officers. (July 1, 1918, c. 113, § 1, 40 Stat. 694.)

11. Care of foreign seamen.—Sick and disabled seamen of foreign vessels and of vessels not subject to hospital dues may be cared for by the Public Health Service at such rates and under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 156, § 6, 18 Stat. 486; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, 37 Stat. 309.)

12. Employees on canal boats in coasting trade excluded.—No person employed in or connected with the navigation, management, or use of canal boats engaged in the coasting trade shall by reason thereof be entitled to any benefit or relief from the marine-hospital fund. (R. S. § 4804.)

13. Admission of cases for study.—There may be admitted into marine hospitals for study persons with infectious or other diseases affecting the public health, and not to exceed ten cases in any one hospital at one time. (June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 884.)

14. Establishment of Navy hospitals.—The Secretary of the Navy shall procure at suitable places proper sites for Navy hospitals, and if the necessary buildings are not procured with the site, shall cause such to be erected, having due regard to economy, and giving preference to such plans as with most convenience and least cost will admit of subsequent additions, when the funds permit and circumstances require; and shall provide, at one of the establishments, a permanent asylum for disabled and decrepit Navy officers, seamen, and marines: Provided, That no sites shall be procured or hospital buildings erected or extensions to existing hospitals made unless authorized by Congress. (R. S. § 4810; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 148, 37 Stat. 902.)

15. Superintendence of Navy hospitals.—The Secretary of the Navy shall have the general charge and superintendence of Navy hospitals. (R. S. § 4807.)

16. Allowance of rations to Navy hospitals.—For every Navy officer, seaman, or marine admitted into a Navy hospital, the institution shall be allowed one ration per day during his continuance therein, to be deducted from the account of the United States with such officer, seaman, or marine. (R. S. § 4812.)

17. Government of Naval Asylum.—The asylum for disabled and decrepit Navy officers, seamen, and marines shall be governed in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy. (R. S. § 4811.)

18. Rules and regulations for Army and Navy hospital.—The Army and Navy hospital at Hot Springs, Arkansas, shall be subject to such rules, regulations, and restrictions as shall be provided by the President of the United States. (June 30, 1882, c. 254, § 1, 22 Stat. 121.)

19. Tubercular hospital at Fort Bayard.—The hospital at Fort Bayard, New Mexico, for the treatment of tuberculosis, shall be opened to the treatment of the officers and men of the Navy and Marine Corps. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1172.)

20. Discipline of patients at Army and Navy Hospital and tubercular hospital at Fort Bayard.—All persons admitted to treatment in the Army and Navy General Hospital at Hot Springs, Arkansas, or the general hospital at Fort Bayard, New Mexico, shall, while patients in said hospital, be subject to the rules and articles for the government of the armies of the United States. (June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 255; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 252, 35 Stat. 748.)

21. Limitation on cost of Army hospital buildings.—No building or structure of a permanent nature, the cost of which shall exceed $30,000, shall be erected for use as an Army hospital unless by special authority of Congress. (May 12, 1917, c. 12, 40 Stat. 58.)

22. Disposition of moneys of deceased inmates of Naval Home.—All moneys belonging to a deceased beneficiary of the Naval Home or derived from the sale of his personal effects, not claimed by his legal heirs or next of kin, shall be deposited with the pay officer of the Naval Home, and if any sum so deposited shall be unclaimed for a period of two years from the death of such beneficiary it shall be deposited in the Treasury to the credit of the naval pension fund: Provided, That the governor of the Naval Home is authorized and directed, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, to make diligent inquiry in every instance after the death of an inmate to ascertain the whereabouts of his heirs or next of kin: Provided further, That claims may be presented at any time within five years after moneys have been so deposited in the Treasury, and, when supported by competent proof in any case after such deposit in the Treasury, shall be certified to Congress for consideration. (June 30, 1914, c. 130, 38 Stat. 398.)

23. Disposition of pension of beneficiary in Naval Home.—The pensions of beneficiaries of the Naval Home shall be disposed of in the same manner as prescribed for inmates of the Soldiers' Home, as provided for in section 52, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe, except that in the case of death of any beneficiary leaving no heirs at law nor next of kin any pension due him shall, subject to the foregoing provisions, escheat to the naval pension fund. (June 30, 1914, c. 130, 38 Stat. 398.)

24. Moneys derived from Naval Home turned into pension fund.—All moneys derived from the sale of material at the Naval Home, which was originally purchased from moneys appropriated from the income from the naval pension fund, and all moneys derived from the rental of Naval Home property, shall be turned into the naval pension fund. (Mar. 4, 1917, c. 180, 39 Stat. 1175.)

25. Employment of beneficiaries in service of Naval Home.—For the performance of such additional services in and about the Naval Home as may be necessary the Secretary of the Navy is authorized to employ, on the recommendation of the governor, beneficiaries in said home whose compensation shall be fixed by the Secretary and paid from the appropriation for the support of the home. (Aug. 22, 1912, c. 335, 37 Stat. 334.)

26. Additional hospital and sanatorium facilities for various groups authorized.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to provide immediate additional hospital and sanatorium facilities for the care and treatment of discharged sick and disabled soldiers, sailors, and marines, Army and Navy nurses (male and female), and the following persons only: Merchant marine seamen, seamen on boats of the Mississippi River Commission, officers and enlisted men of the United States Coast Guard, officers and employees of the Public Health Service, certain keepers and assistant keepers of the United States Lighthouse Service, seamen of the Engineer Corps of the United States Army, officers and enlisted men of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, civilian employees entitled to treatment under sections 549 to 589, inclusive, and section 591 of Title 5, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND GOVERNMENT OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES, and employees on Army transports not officers or enlisted men of the Army, entitled by law on March 3, 1919, to treatment by the Public Health Service. (Mar. 3, 1919, c. 98, § 1, 40 Stat. 1302; Aug. 9, 1921, c. 57, § 7, 42 Stat. 149.)

27. Hospital properties transferred to Treasury Department for Public Health Service.—There are permanently transferred to the Treasury Department for the use of the Public Health Service for hospital or sanatoria or other uses the following properties, with their equipment, including sites and leases, or so much thereof as may be required by the Public Health Service, including mechanical equipment in connection therewith, and approaches thereto, with authority to lease or purchase sites not owned by the Government, as follows: Hospitals, with such other buildings and land as may be required, at Camp Cody (New Mexico), Camp Hancock (Georgia), Camp Joseph E. Johnston (Florida), Camp Beauregard (Louisiana), Camp Logan (Texas), Camp Fremont

(California), and nitrate plant, Perryville (Maryland), and such hospitals, with other necessary buildings, vacated by the War Department, as may be required and found suitable for the needs of the Public Health Service for hospital or sanatoria purposes. (Mar. 3, 1919, c. 98, § 2, 40 Stat. 1302.)

28. Transfer of other property and equipment for use of Public Health Service.—The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to transfer without charge to the Secretary of the Treasury for the use of the Public Health Service such mechanical, construction, and miscellaneous material, hospital furniture and equipment, including hospital and medical supplies, motor trucks, and other motor-driven vehicles, in good condition, not required by the War Department, as may be required by the Public Health Service for its hospitals, and the President is authorized to direct the transfer to the Treasury Department of the use of such lands or parts of lands, buildings, fixtures, appliances, furnishings, or furniture under the control of any other department of the Government not required for the purposes of such department and suitable for the uses of the Public Health Service. (Mar. 3, 1919, c. 98, § 3, 40 Stat. 1303; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 156, 41 Stat. 1365.)

29. Transfer of motor-propelled vehicles to Treasury Department.—The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to transfer such motor-propelled vehicles and motor equipment, including spare parts, pertaining to the Military Establishment as may be found to be surplus and no longer required for military purposes to the Treasury Department, for the use of the Public Health Service under the provisions of section 28. (Mar. 15, 1920, c. 100, § 1, 41 Stat. 530.)

Section 41. Board of commissioners; president.—The Surgeon General, the Adjutant General, the Quartermaster General, the Chief of Engineers, the Judge Advocate General, and the Governor of the Soldiers' Home shall constitute a board of commissioners for the Soldiers' Home, and the senior in rank of the members thereof shall be the president of said board of commissioners any four of whom shall be a quorum for the transaction of business, whose duty it shall be to examine and audit the accounts of the treasurer quarter-yearly, and to visit and inspect the Soldiers' Home at least once in every month. The majority shall also have power to establish, from time to time, regulations for the general and internal direction of the institution, to be submitted to the Secretary of War for approval; and may do any other acts necessary for the government and interests of the same, as authorized by this chapter. (R. S. § 4815; March 3, 1883, c. 130, § 10, 22 Stat. 565; March 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 1004.)

42. Report of president.—The president of the board of commissioners shall submit annually to the Secretary of War, for transmission to Congress, a full statement of the financial and other affairs of the home for the preceding fiscal year. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 1004.)

43. Officers.—The officers of the Soldiers' Home shall consist of a governor, a deputy governor, and a secretary, for each separate site of the home, the latter to be also treasurer; and the officers shall be taken from the Army, and appointed or removed, from time to time, as the interests of the institution may require. The governor and all other officers of the home shall be selected by the President of the United States, and the treasurer of the home shall be required to give a bond in the penal sum of $20,000 for the faithful performance of his duty. (R. S. § 4816; Mar. 3, 1883, c. 130, §7, 22 Stat. 565.)

44. Funds.—For the support of the Soldiers' Home the following funds are set apart and appropriated: All stoppages or fines adjudged against soldiers by sentence of courts-martial, over and above any amount that may be due for the reimbursement of Government, or of individuals; all forfeitures on account of desertion; and all moneys belonging to the estates of deceased soldiers, which may be unclaimed for the period of three years subsequent to the death of such soldiers, to be repaid by the commissioners of the institution, upon the demand of the heirs or legal representatives of the deceased. (R. S. § 4818.)

45. Donations.—The commissioners are authorized to receive all donations of money or property made by any person for the benefit of the institution, and hold the same for its sole and exclusive use. (R. S. § 4819; June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 242; May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 110.)

46. Deposit of funds; interest; principal.—All funds of the home not needed for current use, and not on March 3, 1883, invested in United States registered bonds, shall, as soon as received, or as soon as investments of that date can be converted into money without loss, be deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the home, as a permanent fund, and shall draw interest at the rate of 3 per centum per annum, which shall be paid quarterly to the treasurer of the home; and the proceeds of such registered bonds, as they are paid, shall be deposited in like manner. No part of the principal sum so deposited shall be withdrawn for use except upon a resolution of the board of commissioners stating the necessity and approved by the Secretary of War. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 130, § 8, 22 Stat. 565.)

47. Custodian of funds; transfer of funds for outdoor relief.—The Treasurer of the United States is authorized and directed to receive and keep on deposit, subject to the checks or drafts of the treasurer of the Soldiers' Home in the District of Columbia, all funds which may be furnished the said treasurer of the Soldiers' Home or in any manner come into his possession for use in defraying the current expenses of maintaining the said Soldiers' Home, and, upon the request of said treasurer of the Soldiers' Home, there shall be transferred, from funds to his credit with the United States Treasurer, and placed to his credit with the designated depository of the United States in New York City, New York, such sums as he may require monthly or quarterly for payments on account of "outdoor relief" to members of said Soldiers' Home residing at a distance therefrom. (Jan. 16, 1891, c. 74, 26 Stat. 718; May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 655.)

48. Borrowing money on credit of home.—No officers of the home shall borrow any money on the credit of the home for any purpose, nor shall any pledge of any of its property or securities for any purpose be valid. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 130, § 9, 22 Stat. 565.)

49. Persons entitled to membership in and benefits of home.—The following persons shall be members of the Soldiers'

Home, and entitled to the rights and benefits conferred, in this chapter and no others:

First. Every soldier of the Army of the United States who has served, or may serve, honestly and faithfully twenty years in the same.

Second. Every soldier and every discharged soldier, whether regular or volunteer, who has suffered, or may suffer, by reason of disease or wounds incurred in the service and in the line of his duty, rendering him incapable of further military service, if such disability was not occasioned by his own misconduct.

Third. The invalid and disabled soldiers, whether regulars or volunteers, of all wars. (R. S. §§ 4814, 4821.)

50. Who are excluded.—The benefits of the Soldiers' Home shall not be extended to any soldier in the regular or volunteer service, convicted of felony or other disgraceful or infamous crimes of a civil nature after his admission into the service of the United States; nor shall any one who has been a deserter, mutineer, or habitual drunkard be received, without such evidence of subsequent service, good conduct, and reformation of character, as is satisfactory to the commissioners. (R. S. § 4822.)

51. Rights of pensioners and surrender of pensions.—The fact that one to whom a pension has been granted for wounds or disability received in the military service has not contributed to the funds of the Soldiers' Home shall not preclude him from admission thereto. But all such pensioners shall surrender their pensions to the Soldiers' Home during the time they remain therein and voluntarily receive its benefits. (R. S. § 4820.)

52. Allotment of pensions.—Any inmate of the home who is receiving a pension from the Government, and who has a child, wife, or parent living, shall be entitled, by filing with the Bureau of Pensions a written direction to that effect, to have his pension, or any part of it, paid to such child, wife, or parent. The pensions of all inmates of the home, except such as shall be assigned as aforesaid, shall be paid to the treasurer of the home. The money thus derived shall not become a part of the funds of the home, but shall be held by the treasurer in trust for the pensioner to whom it would otherwise have been paid, and such part of it as shall not sooner have been paid to him shall be paid to him on his discharge from the institution. The board of commissioners may from time to time pay over to any inmate such part of his pension money as they think best for his interest and consistent with the discipline and good order of the home, but such pensioner shall not be entitled to demand or have the same so long as he remains an inmate of the home. In case of the death of any pensioner, any pension money due him and remaining in the hands of the treasurer shall be paid to his legal heirs, if demand is made within three years; otherwise the same shall escheat to the home. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 130, § 4, 22 Stat. 564; Aug. 17, 1912, c. 301, § 1, 37 Stat. 312.)

53. Discharge.—Any soldier admitted into the Soldiers' Home for disability who recovers his health, so as to become fit again for military service, if under fifty years of age, shall be discharged. (R. S. § 4823.)

54. Inmates subject to Articles of War.—All persons admitted into the Soldiers' Home shall be subject to the Rules and Articles of War in the same manner as soldiers in the Army. (R. S. § 4824.)

55. Uniform for inmates.—A suitable uniform shall be furnished to every inmate of the home, without cost to him. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 130, § 5, 22 Stat. 565.)

56. Outdoor relief to persons entitled to admission.—The board of commissioners are authorized to aid persons who are entitled to admission to the home, by outdoor relief, in such manner and to such an extent as they may deem proper; but such relief shall not exceed the average cost of maintaining an inmate of the home. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 130, § 6, 22 Stat. 565.)

57. Limitation of expenditures; purchase of supplies.—No new building shall be erected or new grounds purchased, nor shall any expenditure of more than $5,000 be made, until the action of the board thereon shall be approved by the Secretary of War. All supplies that can be purchased upon contract shall be so purchased, after due notice by advertisement, of the lowest responsible bidder. Such bidder shall give bond, with proper security, for the performance of his contract. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 130, § 3, 22 Stat. 564.)

58. Medical supplies.—Upon proper application therefor, the Medical Department of the Army is authorized to sell medical and hospital supplies at its contract prices to the Soldiers' Home in the District of Columbia. (June 4, 1897, c. 2, § 1, 30 Stat. 54.)

59. Annual report of board; transmission to Congress.—The board of commissioners of the Soldiers' Home shall every year report in writing to the Secretary of War, giving a full statement of all receipts and disbursements of money, of the manner in which the funds are invested of any changes in the investments, and the reasons therefor, of all admissions and discharges, and generally of all facts that may be necessary to a full understanding of the condition and management of the home. The Secretary of War shall have power to call for and require any omitted facts which in his judgment should be stated to be added. This annual report shall be, by the Secretary of War, together with the report of the inspecting officer provided for in the following section, transmitted to Congress at the first session thereafter, and he shall also cause the same to be published in orders to the Army, a copy thereof to be deposited in each garrison and post library. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 130, § 1, 22 Stat. 564.)

60. Inspection; report.—The Inspector General of the Army shall, in person, once in each year thoroughly inspect the home, its records, accounts, management, discipline, and sanitary condition, and shall report thereon in writing, together with such suggestions as he desires to make. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 130, § 2, 22 Stat. 564.)

ESTABLISHMENT AND MANAGEMENT

Section 71. Organization of home.—The President, Secretary of War, Chief Justice, and such other persons as from time to time may be associated with them, shall constitute a Board of Managers of an establishment for the care and relief of the disabled volunteers of the United States Army, to be known by the name and style of "The National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers," and have perpetual succession, with powers to take, hold, and convey real and personal property, establish a common seal, and to sue and be sued in courts of law and equity; and to make by-laws, rules, and regulations, not inconsistent with law, for carrying on the business and government of the home, and to affix penalties thereto. (R. S. § 4825.)

72. Headquarters of home.—The headquarters of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers shall be established and maintained at the central branch, National Military Home, Ohio, and shall occupy for offices, without expenditure for rent, any general or post fund building. (July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 297.)

73. Election of citizen managers.—Seven managers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers shall be elected from time to time, as vacancies occur, by joint resolution of Congress. They shall all be citizens of the United States and no two of them shall be residents of the same State. The terms of office of these managers shall be for six years and until a successor is elected. (R. S. § 4826; June 7, 1924, c. 291, Title II, 43 Stat. 518.)

74. Election of officers of Board of Managers.—The ten managers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers shall elect from their own number a president, who shall be the chief executive officer of the board, two vice presidents, and a secretary. Six of the board, of whom the president or one of the vice presidents shall be one, shall form a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the board. (R. S. § 4827; June 7, 1924, c. 291, Title II, 43 Stat. 518.)

75. Expenses and salaries of managers and officers.—No member of the Board of Managers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers shall receive any compensation or pay for any services or duties connected with the home; but the traveling and other actual expenses of a member, incurred while upon the business of the home, may be reimbursable to such member: Provided, That the president and secretary of the Board of Managers may receive a reasonable compensation for their services as such officers, not exceeding $4,000 and $2,000, respectively, per annum. (Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, 28 Stat. 412.)

76. Duties of Board of Managers.—The Board of Managers shall make an annual report of the condition of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers to Congress on the first Monday of every January, which shall include a detailed statement of the expenses of the board; and the board shall examine and audit the accounts of the treasurer and visit the home quarterly. (R. S. § 4834; Mar. 3, 1885, c. 360, 23 Stat. 510; Mar. 3, 1887, c. 362, 24 Stat. 539.)

77. Sites for homes; purchase and erection of buildings.—The Board of Managers shall have authority to procure from time to time, at suitable places, sites for military homes for all persons serving in the Army of the United States at any time in the War of the Rebellion, not otherwise provided for, who have been or may be disqualified for procuring their own support by reason of wounds received or sickness contracted while in the line of their duty during the rebellion; and to have the necessary buildings erected, having due regard to the health of location, facility of access, and capacity to accommodate the persons entitled to the benefits thereof. (R. S. § 4830.)

78. Condemnation of land.—The provisions of sections 257 and 258 of Title 40, shall be construed to apply to the Board of Managers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers. (July 19, 1897, c. 9, 30 Stat. 121.)

79. Jurisdiction over sites of branch homes ceded to States.—The jurisdiction over the places purchased and used for the location of the branches of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, in Milwaukee County, State of Wisconsin, and in the county of Leavenworth, State of Kansas, and upon which said branch homes are located, is ceded to the respective States in which said branches are located and relinquished by the United States, and the United States shall claim or exercise no jurisdiction over said places after March 3, 1901: Provided, That nothing contained in this section shall be construed to impair the powers or rights heretofore conferred upon or exercised by the Board of Managers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers in and on said places. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 853, § 1, 31 Stat. 1175.)

80. Purchase of supplies and expenditures for new buildings.—All purchases of supplies exceeding the sum of $1,000 at any one time shall be made upon public tender after due advertisement, and the expenditure for new buildings shall be expressly authorized in writing. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 182, § 1, 20 Stat. 390.)

81. Supplies.—All supplies for the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers shall be purchased, shipped, and distributed as may be directed by the Board of Managers. (July 1, 1898, c. 546, § 1, 30 Stat. 640.)

82. Medical supplies.—Upon proper application therefor, the Medical Department of the Army is authorized to sell medical and hospital supplies at its contract prices to the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers. (June 11, 1896, c. 420, 29 Stat. 445.)

83. Issue of obsolete cannon or ordnance.—The Secretary of War is authorized and directed, subject to such regulations as he may prescribe, to deliver to any of the "National Homes for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers" and to any of the State homes for soldiers and sailors, or either, now or hereafter duly established and maintained under State authority, such obsolete serviceable cannon, bronze or iron, suitable for firing salutes, as may be on hand undisposed of, not exceeding two to any one home. The Chief of Ordnance is authorized to issue such obsolete or condemned ordnance, gun carriages, and ordnance stores as may be needed for ornamental purposes to the Homes for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, the homes to pay for transportation out of any appropriation for current expenses. (Feb. 8, 1889, c. 116, 25 Stat. 657; May 26, 1900, c. 586, 31 Stat. 216.)

84. Annual inspection; report.—Once in each fiscal year, the Secretary of War shall cause a thorough inspection to be made of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, its records, disbursements, management, discipline, and condition, such inspection to be made by an officer of the Inspector General's Department, who shall report thereon in writing, and said report shall be transmitted to Congress at the first session thereafter. (Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, 28 Stat. 412.)

OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

91. Officers of home; medical officers.—The officers of the national home shall consist of a governor, a deputy governor, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers as the managers may deem necessary. They shall be appointed from honorably discharged soldiers who served as mentioned in section 77 of this title and they may be appointed and removed, from time to time, as the interests of the institution may require, by the Board of Managers: Provided, That surgeons, assistant surgeons, and other medical officers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, and the several branches thereof, may be appointed from others than those who have been disabled in the military service of the United States. (R. S. § 4829; Apr. 11, 1892, c. 40, 27 Stat. 15; Feb. 9, 1897, c. 205, 29 Stat. 517.)

92. Qualifications of officers.—The officers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, and officers under the Board of Managers thereof, shall be appointed, so far as may be practicable, from persons whose military or naval service would render them eligible, if disabled and not otherwise provided for, for admission to the home, and they may be appointed, removed, and transferred, from time to time, as the interests of the institution may require, by the Board of Managers. (June 28, 1902, c. 1301, § 1, 32 Stat. 472.)

93. Classification and compensation of officers and employees; traveling expenses.—The Board of Managers shall classify all the officers and employees of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers and establish a rate of pay and allowance for each class, and the rate so established shall not be increased by fees, perquisites, allowances, or advantages under any pretense whatever; and no employee shall be borne on more than one pay roll or voucher.

When an officer of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, not a member of the Board of Managers thereof, travels under orders on business for the home he shall be allowed 7 cents in lieu of all other expenses for each mile actually traveled, distance to be computed by the most direct through route. (Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, 28 Stat. 412.)

94. Bonds of general treasurer and treasurers of branch homes.—The general treasurer shall give good and sufficient bond to the United States in a sum not less than $100,000, as the Secretary of War may direct, and to be approved by him, faithfully to account for all public moneys and property which he may receive, and the treasurers of the several branch homes shall give good and sufficient bonds to the general treasurer in such sums as he may require, and to be approved by him, faithfully to account for all public moneys and property which they may receive. (Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, 28 Stat. 412.)

95. General treasurer; performance of duties by assistant treasurer and assistant inspector general; bond; liability.—The assistant general treasurer and assistant inspector general shall, in the necessary absence or inability of the general treasurer, from any cause whatever, perform his duties and give bond to the general treasurer for the faithful performance of such duties, but the general treasurer shall in every respect be responsible, on his bond, to the United States for any default on the part of such assistant general treasurer and assistant inspector general. (June 6, 1900, c. 791, § 1, 31 Stat. 636.)

96. Officer to act in absence of treasurer or quartermaster at branch homes; bond.—The Board of Managers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers may, in their discretion, designate and authorize an officer at each or any of the several branches of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers to perform such duties in connection with the offices of the treasurer and quartermaster at any such branch as they may direct, and in the necessary absence or inability of either of said officers from any cause whatever to have power to act in their places and perform all of the duties connected with the said respective offices. All officers so designated and authorized to act as provided in this section shall give bond to the general treasurer of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers in such amount as he may require, and to be approved by him, faithfully to account for all public moneys and property which they may receive. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 853, § 1, 31 Stat. 1178.)

FUNDS AND ACCOUNTS

111. Donations for home.—The Board of Managers are authorized to receive all donations of money or property made by any person or persons for the benefit of the home, and to hold or dispose of the same for its sole and exclusive use. (R. S. § 4831.)

112. Receipts from sales.—All sums received from sales of subsistence stores or other property of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers shall be taken up by the disbursing officer under the proper current appropriation and be available for disbursement on account of that appropriation. (Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, 28 Stat. 412.)

113. Money allotted by Veterans' Bureau for support, etc., of World War veterans not to be used for support of home.—Moneys allotted to the Board of Managers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers by the Veterans' Bureau for support, maintenance, and care of World War veterans shall not be used to augment or reimburse the appropriations made for the support of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, but shall be covered into the surplus fund of the Treasury, and the Budget shall contain annual itemized estimates covering the entire cost of the operation and maintenance of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, including the cost of the maintenance, support, and care of beneficiaries of the United States Veterans' Bureau in such homes. (Mar. 2, 1923, c. 178, Title II, 42 Stat. 1424.)

114. Appropriations for buildings; available until expended.—Appropriations made for the construction of buildings at any of the branches of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers shall continue available until expended. (June 6, 1900, c. 785, § 1, 31 Stat. 294.)

115. Appropriations for branch homes immediately available.—Appropriations made for construction of buildings and appurtenances at any of the branches of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, shall be available immediately after the approval of the Act containing the same. (Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1007, § 1, 32 Stat. 1137.)

116. Appropriations for repairs of branch homes not used for new building.—No part of the appropriation for repairs for any of the branch homes shall be used for the construction of any new building. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 75, § 1, 38 Stat. 850.)

117. Security for deposits.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to require from the president and cashier of all banks used as depositories by the treasurer of the home a deposit of bonds sufficient in amount to fully secure all moneys pertaining to said home left on deposit with any such bank. (July 9, 1886, c. 756, § 2, 24 Stat. 129.)

118. Supervision of accounts.—The Secretary of War shall exercise the same supervision over all receipts and disbursements on account of the volunteer soldiers' homes as he is required by law to apply to the accounts of disbursing officers of the Army. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 210, 27 Stat. 653.)

119. Disbursements; accounts; supplies; posthumous fund.—All amounts disbursed from the appropriation of a branch home shall be disbursed and accounted for monthly to the general treasurer by the treasurer of that branch, except such expenditures for services, stationery, tableware, clothing and bedding as may be required by the Board of Managers to be legally made by the general treasurer, and all such stationery, tableware, clothing and bedding as may be required for each branch home shall be shipped directly from the place of purchase or manufacture to such branch home; and all disbursements shall be made in conformity with sections 628 and 665 of Title 31. All receipts on account of the effects of deceased members shall be credited to the appropriation for "current expenses" of the fiscal year during which such amounts were received, and all repayments of such amounts shall be made from and charged to the like appropriation for the fiscal year in which such repayments shall be made. (Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, 28 Stat. 411.)

120. Expenditures subject to laws on disbursements; audit.—All of the expenditures of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, including the expenses of the Board of Managers, shall be made subject to the general laws governing the disbursement of public moneys, so far as the same can be made applicable thereto, and shall be audited by the General Accounting Office. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 362, 24 Stat. 539; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

121. Auditing and settlement of accounts.—The accounts relating to the expenditure of all public moneys appropriated for the support and maintenance of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers shall be audited by the Board of Managers of said home in the same manner as is provided for the accounts of the various departments of the United States Government, and thereupon immediately transmitted directly to the General Accounting Office for final audit and settlement. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 853, § 1, 31 Stat. 1178; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

122. Employment of clerks; appropriations; estimates; requisitions; accounts.—No clerk shall be employed or paid in any department of the Government for services rendered under any provision of this chapter. No money shall be appropriated or drawn for the support and maintenance of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, except by direct and specific annual appropriations by law and except as provided in section 112. And no moneys shall be drawn from the Treasury for the use of said home, except in pursuance of quarterly estimates, and upon quarterly requisitions by the managers thereof upon the Secretary of War, based upon such quarterly estimates, for the support of said home for not more than three months next succeeding such requisition. And no money shall be drawn or paid upon any such requisition while any balance drawn or received by said home, or for its use, from the Treasury, and held under investment or otherwise, shall remain unexpended. And the managers of said home shall, at the commencement of each quarter of the year, render to the Secretary of War an account of all their receipts and expenditures for the quarter immediately preceding, with the vouchers for such expenditures; and all such accounts and vouchers shall be authenticated by the officers of said home thereunto duly appointed by said managers, and audited, and allowed, as required by law for the general appropriations and expenditures of the War Department. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 129, § 1, 18 Stat. 359.)

123. Statement of expenses in Budget.—The statement of expenses of the Board of Managers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers shall each year be submitted in the annual Budget and shall be made to show the amount of salary or compensation paid to each of the officers and employees of said board, and there shall also be submitted therewith a statement showing the number of officers appointed at each of the branch homes under section 91 of this title, the amount of salary or compensation paid to each, and the amount of allowance to each, if any, for contingent or other expenses. (Aug. 5, 1892, c. 380, § 1, 27 Stat. 384; June 10, 1921, c. 18, 42 Stat. 20.)

BENEFICIARIES AND PENSIONS

131. Persons entitled to benefits of home.—The following persons shall be entitled to the benefits of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, and may be admitted thereto upon the order of a member of the Board of Managers, namely: Honorably discharged officers, soldiers, sailors, or marines who served in the Regular, Volunteer, or other forces of the United States, or in the Organized Militia or National Guard when called into Federal service, and who are disabled by diseases or wounds and who have no adequate means of support and by reason of such disability are either temporarily or permanently incapacitated from earning a living. (June 7, 1924, c. 291, Title II, 43 Stat. 519.)

132. Assignment to different branches of classes eligible to admission.—To increase the comfort of the members, the Board of Managers, National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, is authorized to make such rules governing the assignment to the different branches of the various classes of those eligible to admission to the home as it deems advisable and best for the public service. (June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 905.)

133. Outdoor relief; transfers from branch homes.—The managers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers are authorized to aid persons who are entitled to its benefits by outdoor relief, in such manner and to such extent as they may deem proper, but such relief shall not exceed the average cost of maintaining an inmate of the home. In the event that buildings at any branch of the home shall be destroyed by fire or rendered unfit for habitation because of pestilence or by the elements, then and in that event the Board of Managers shall have authority to remove the members of said branch so afflicted or destroyed to any other branch not so affected, and to do this they may use any funds appropriated for the home, notwithstanding they may have been specifically appropriated for other purposes, to the extent that such funds shall be necessary to effect such a transfer and the maintenance and support thereafter of said members so transferred, and shall report their doings therein to the Congress and their expenditures as in other cases of expenditures: Provided, That the appropriations for any fiscal year shall not be exceeded. (R. S. § 4833; Aug. 23, 1894, c. 316, 28 Stat. 492.)

134. Aid to State or Territorial home.—All States or Territories which have established, or which shall establish, State homes for disabled soldiers and sailors of the United States who served in the Civil War or in any previous or subsequent war who are disabled by age, disease, or otherwise, and by reason of such disability are incapable of earning a living, provided such disability was not incurred in service against the United States, shall be paid for every such disabled soldier or sailor who may be admitted and cared for in such home at the rate of $120 per annum.

The number of such persons for whose care any State or Territory shall receive the said payment under this section shall be ascertained by the Board of Managers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers under such regulations as it may prescribe, but the said State or Territorial homes shall be exclusively under the control of the respective State or Territorial authorities, and the Board of Managers shall not have nor assume any management or control of said State or Territorial homes.

The Board of Managers of the national home shall, however, have power to have the said State or Territorial homes inspected at such times as it may consider necessary, and shall report the result of such inspections to Congress in its annual report: Provided, That no State shall be paid a sum exceeding one-half the cost of maintenance of each soldier or sailor by such State: Provided further, That one-half of any sum or sums retained by State homes on account of pensions received from inmates shall be deducted from the aid provided for in this section: Provided further, That for any sum or sums collected in any manner from inmates of such State or Territorial homes to be used for the support of said homes a like amount shall be deducted from the aid provided for in this section, but this proviso shall not apply to any State or Territorial home into which the wives or widows of soldiers are admitted and maintained. (Aug. 27, 1888, c. 914, § 1, 25 Stat. 450; Mar. 2, 1889, c. 411, 25 Stat. 975; Jan. 27, 1920, c. 56, 41 Stat. 399.)

135. Persons entitled to admission to hospital at Pacific branch.—The persons who shall be entitled to the privileges of treatment in the hospital erected at the Pacific branch of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers at Santa Monica, California, and who may be admitted thereto upon the order of a member of the Board of Managers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, shall be the following: Honorably discharged officers, soldiers, sailors, and marines who served in the Regular, Volunteer, or other forces of the United States in the War with Mexico, the Civil War, the War with Spain, and the World War, or in any war in which the country has been engaged, in campaigns against hostile Indians, or who served in any of the extraterritorial possessions of the United States in foreign countries, including Mexican border service, or in the Organized Militia or National Guard when called into the Federal service, and who are disabled by diseases or wounds and by reason of such disability are either temporarily or permanently incapacitated from earning a living. (June 7, 1924, c. 295, § 2, 43 Stat. 534.)

136. Disposition of personal property of deceased members.—The application of any person for membership in the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers and the admission of the applicant thereunder shall be and constitute a valid and binding contract between such applicant and the Board of Managers of said home that on the death of said applicant while a member of such home, leaving no heirs at law nor next of kin, all personal property owned by said applicant at the time of his death, including money or choses in action held by him and not disposed of by will, whether such property be the proceeds of pensions or otherwise derived, shall vest in and become the property of said Board of Managers for the sole use and benefit of the post fund of said home, the proceeds to be disposed of and distributed among the several branches as may be ordered by said Board of Managers, and that all personal property of said applicant shall, upon his death, while a member, at once pass to and vest in said Board of Managers, subject to be reclaimed by any legatee or person entitled to take the same by inheritance at any time within five years after the death of such member. The Board of Managers is directed to so change the form of application for membership as to give reasonable notice of this provision to each applicant, and as to contain the consent of the applicant to accept membership upon the conditions provided in this section. (June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 1, 36 Stat. 736.)

137. Inmates subject to Articles of War.—All inmates of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers shall be subject to the Articles of War, and in the same manner as if they were in the Army. (R. S. § 4835.)

138. Payment of pension of inmates of home.—All pensions and arrears of pensions payable or to be paid to pensioners who are or may become inmates of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers shall be paid to the treasurers of said home, to be disbursed for the benefit of the pensioners without deduction for fines or penalties, under the rules and regulations of said home. Said payments shall be made by the Bureau of Pensions upon a certificate of the proper officer of the home that the pensioner is an inmate thereof on the day to which said pension is drawn. The treasurers of said home, respectively, shall give security, to the satisfaction of the managers of said home, for the payment and application by them of all arrears of pension and pension moneys they may receive under the aforesaid provision. Any balance of the pension which may remain at the date of the pensioner's discharge shall be paid over to him. (Feb. 26, 1881, c. 80, § 2, 21 Stat. 350; Aug. 7, 1882, c. 433, § 1, 22 Stat. 322; Aug. 17, 1912, c. 301, § 1, 37 Stat. 312.)

139. Disposition of balance of pension money due deceased inmate.—Any balance of pension money due a member of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers at the time of his death shall be paid to his widow, minor children or dependent mother or father in the order named, and should no widow, minor child, or dependent parent be discovered within one year from the time of the death of the pensioner, said balance shall be paid to the post fund of the branch of said national home of which the pensioner was a member at the time of his death, to be used for the common benefit of the members of the home under the direction of the Board of Managers, subject to future reclamation by the relatives designated in this section upon application filed with the Board of Managers within five years after the pensioner's death. (July 1, 1902, c. 1351, 32 Stat. 564.)

BATTLE MOUNTAIN SANITARIUM RESERVE

151. Battle Mountain Sanitarium Reserve; establishment; rights to lands, not affected.—There are reserved from settlement, entry, sale, or other disposal all those certain tracts, pieces, or parcels of land lying and being situate in the State of South Dakota and within the boundaries particularly described as follows: Beginning at the southwest corner of section 18, township 7 south, range 6 east, Black Hills meridian; thence east to the southeast corner of said section 18; thence south to the southwest corner of the northwest quarter of section 20; thence east to the southeast corner of the northeast quarter of section 21; thence north to the northeast corner of the southeast quarter of section 9; thence west to the center of section 7; thence south to the southwest corner of the southeast quarter of section 7; thence west to the northwest corner of section 18; thence south to the place of beginning, all in township 7 south, range 6 east, Black Hills meridian, in Fall River County, South Dakota: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect any valid rights acquired in connection with any of the lands embraced within the limits of said reserve. (Mar. 22, 1906, c. 1127, § 1, 34 Stat. 83.)

152. Name; control, rules and regulations.—Said reserve shall be known as the Battle Mountain Sanitarium Reserve, and shall be under the exclusive control of the Board of Managers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers in connection with the Battle Mountain Sanitarium at Hot Springs, South Dakota, whose duty it shall be to prescribe such rules and regulations and establish such service as they may deem necessary for the care and management of the same. (Mar. 22, 1906, c. 1127, § 2, 34 Stat. 83.)

153. Perfecting bona fide claims to lands; exchange of private lands.—In all cases of unperfected bona fide claims lying within the said boundaries of said reserve, which claims have been properly initiated prior to September 2, 1902, said claims may be perfected upon compliance with the requirements of the laws respecting settlement, residence, improvements, and so forth, in the same manner in all respects as claims are perfected to other Government lands: Provided, That to the extent that the lands within said reserve are held in private ownership the Secretary of the Interior is authorized in his discretion to exchange therefor public lands of like area and value, which are surveyed, vacant, unappropriated, not mineral, not timbered, and not required for reservoir sites or other public uses or purposes. The private owners must, at their expense and by appropriate instruments of conveyance, surrender to the Government a full and unencumbered right and title to the private lands included in any exchange before patents are issued for or any rights attached to the public lands included therein, and no charge of any kind shall be made for issuing such patents. Upon completion of any exchange the lands surrendered to the Government shall become a part of said reserve in a like manner as if they had been public lands at the time of the establishment of said reserve. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to authorize the issuance of any land scrip, and the State of South Dakota is granted the privilege of selecting from the public lands in said State an equal quantity of land in lieu of such portions of section 16 included within said reserve as have not been sold or disposed of by said State and are not covered by an unperfected bona fide claim as above mentioned. (Mar. 22, 1906, c. 1127, § 3, 34 Stat. 83.)

154. Unlawful intrusion, or violation of rules and regulations.—All persons who shall unlawfully intrude upon said reserve, or who shall without permission appropriate any object therein or commit unauthorized injury or waste in any form whatever upon the lands or other public property therein, or who shall violate any of the rules and regulations prescribed hereunder, shall, upon conviction, be fined in a sum not more than $1,000, or be imprisoned for a period not more than twelve months, or shall suffer both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. (Mar. 22, 1906, c. 1127, § 4, 34 Stat. 83.)

ESTABLISHMENT AND MANAGEMENT; PENSIONS, MONEYS, AND APPROPRIATIONS

Section 161. Establishment.—There shall be in the District of Columbia a Government hospital for the insane, which shall be known and designated as Saint Elizabeths Hospital, and its objects shall be the most humane care and enlightened curative treatment of the insane of the Army and Navy of the United States and of the District of Columbia. (R. S. § 4838; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

162. Board of Visitors.—Nine citizens of the District of Columbia, to be appointed by the President, shall constitute a Board of Visitors of Saint Elizabeths Hospital. The term of office of three visitors shall expire biennially on the 30th day of June in every alternate odd numbered year. Should any vacancy occur by death, resignation, or otherwise, it shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term of such visitor. The office of visitor shall be honorary and without compensation. (R. S. § 4840; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

163. President of Board of Visitors.—The Board of Visitors shall select from their number a president, to preside at their meetings for one year, or until a successor is elected. (R. S. § 4841.)

164. Powers and duties of Board of Visitors.—The Board of Visitors, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, may make any needful by-laws for the government of themselves, and of the superintendent and his employees, and of the patients, not inconsistent with law; they shall visit the hospital at stated periods, and exercise so careful a supervision over its expenditures and general operations that the Government and community may have confidence in the correctness of its management; they shall make annually to the Secretary of the Interior a report for the preceding fiscal year setting forth the condition and wants of the institution. (R. S. § 4842.)

165. Superintendent; disbursing agent; pension money of inmates.—The chief executive officer of Saint Elizabeths Hospital shall be a superintendent, who shall be appointed by the Secretary of the Interior, and shall give bond for the faithful performance of his duties in such sum and with such securities as may be required by the Secretary of the Interior. The superintendent shall be a well-educated physician, possessing competent experience in the care and treatment of the insane; he shall reside on the premises and devote his whole time to the welfare of the institution; he shall, subject to the approval of the board of visitors, appoint a responsible disbursing agent for the institution, who shall give a bond satisfactory to the Secretary of the Interior, and the said superintendent shall engage and discharge all needful and useful employees in the care of the insane and all laborers on the farm and determine their wages and duties; he shall also be an ex officio secretary of the Board of Visitors. The said disbursing agent, under the direction of the superintendent, shall have the custody of and pay out all moneys appropriated by Congress for Saint Elizabeths Hospital, or otherwise received for the purposes of the hospital, and all moneys received by the superintendent in behalf of the hospital or its patients, and keep an accurate account or accounts thereof. The said disbursing agent shall deposit in the Treasury of the United States, under the direction of the superintendent, all funds which may be intrusted to the latter by or for the use of patients, which shall be kept in a separate account; and the said disbursing agent is authorized to draw therefrom, under the direction of the said superintendent, from time to time, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe, for the use of such patients, but not to exceed for any one patient the amount intrusted to the superintendent on account of such patient. During the time that any pensioner shall be an inmate of Saint Elizabeths Hospital, all money due or becoming due upon his or her pension shall be paid by the Bureau of Pensions to the superintendent or disbursing agent of the hospital, upon a certificate by such superintendent that the pensioner is an inmate of the hospital and is living, and such pension money shall be by said superintendent or disbursing agent disbursed and used, under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, for the benefit of the pensioner, and, in case of a male pensioner, his wife, minor children, and dependent parents, or, if a female pensioner, her minor children, if any, in the order named, and to pay his or her board and maintenance in the hospital, the remainder of such pension money, if any, to be placed to the credit of the pensioner and to be paid to the pensioner or the guardian of the pensioner in the event of his or her discharge from the hospital; or, in the event of the death of said pensioner while an inmate of said hospital, shall, if a female pensioner, be paid to her minor children, and, in the case of a male pensioner, be paid to his wife, if living; if no wife survives him, then to his minor children; and in case there is no wife nor minor children, then the said unexpended balance to his or her credit shall be applied to the general uses of said hospital: Provided, That in the case of any pensioner transferred to the hospital from the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers any pension money to his credit at said home at the time of his said transfer shall be transferred with him to said hospital and placed to his credit therein, to be expended as provided in this section, and in case of his return from said hospital to the home any balance to his credit at said hospital shall in like manner be transferred to said home, to be expended in accordance with the rules established in regard thereto. (R. S. § 4839; Feb. 2, 1909, c. 58, § 1, 35 Stat. 592; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1422; Aug. 17, 1912, c. 301, § 1, 37 Stat. 312; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

166. Deputy disbursing agent; appointment; bond; powers.—Authority is granted to appoint a deputy disbursing agent who shall give a bond satisfactory to the Secretary of the Interior, and who shall have the same power as the disbursing agent during the absence of that officer. (June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 920.)

167. Adjustment of compensation of officers and employees.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, as of July 19, 1919, to adjust the compensation of officers and employees at Saint Elizabeths Hospital. (July 19, 1919, c. 24, § 1, 41 Stat. 205.)

168. Readjustment of salaries; credit to accounts of disbursing agent.—The General Accounting Office is authorized to credit the accounts of the special disbursing agent of Saint Elizabeths Hospital with such amounts as he may pay in carrying out the provision of the preceding section relating to the readjustment of salaries at the hospital, and the schedule of salaries and allowances for maintenance, where the latter is not provided by the hospital, approved by the Secretary of the Interior August 1 and November 25, 1919, respectively, or as may be modified by him, notwithstanding the provisions of section 55 of Title 5 or section 165 of this title. (Mar. 6, 1920, c. 94, § 1, 41 Stat. 513; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

169. Disposition of money paid for care of patients.—All sums paid to the Superintendent of Saint Elizabeths Hospital for the care of patients that he is authorized by law to receive, shall be deposited to the credit on the books of the Treasury Department, of the appropriation made for the care and maintenance of the patients at Saint Elizabeths Hospital for the year in which the support, clothing, and treatment is provided, and be subject to requisition by the disbursing agent of Saint Elizabeths Hospital, upon the approval of the Secretary of the Interior. (June 5, 1924, c. 264, 43 Stat. 429; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1182.)

170. Disbursement of appropriations for insane.—All appropriations of money by Congress for the support of Saint Elizabeths Hospital shall be drawn from the Treasury on the requisition of the Secretary of the Interior, and shall be disbursed and accounted for in all respects according to the laws regulating ordinary disbursements of public money. (R. S. § 4858; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

171. Determining per capita cost of patients.—In determining the per capita cost of maintenance and treatment of patients in Saint Elizabeths Hospital the expenditures for repair of buildings, roadways, and walks shall be included. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 355, § 1, 37 Stat. 461; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

172. Sale of surplus products and waste materials.—The surplus products and waste material of the hospital may be sold or exchanged for the benefit of the hospital, and proceeds to be used and accounted for the same as its other funds. (Aug. 7, 1882, c. 433, § 1, 22 Stat. 330.)

173. Sale or exchange of typewriting machines and other equipment.—Authority is granted to sell or exchange condemned typewriting machines, laundry machinery, and other equipment, applying the proceeds therefrom to replacing new equipment for Saint Elizabeths Hospital. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 223, § 1, 38 Stat. 649.)

174. Exchange of laundry machines and other equipment.—Authority is granted to exchange laundry machinery and other equipment in purchasing new equipment of the same or like character. (June 12, 1917, c. 27, § 1, 40 Stat. 153.)

175. Telephone system.—Rental for a system of telephones connecting the superintendent's, physicians', and employees' quarters at the hospital with other locations on the hospital grounds may be paid from the appropriations for the support of the hospital. (Apr. 17, 1917, c. 3, § 1, 40 Stat. 19.)

176. Disposition of articles made by patients.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to make regulations governing the disposal of articles produced by patients of Saint Elizabeths Hospital in the course of their curative treatment, either by allowing the patient to retain same or by selling the articles and depositing the money received to the credit of the appropriation from which the materials for making the articles were purchased. (Mar. 6, 1920, c. 94, § 1, 41 Stat. 513.)

177. Disposition of moneys belonging to deceased inmates; claims thereto.—All moneys belonging to deceased inmates of Saint Elizabeths Hospital and deposited in the Treasury by the disbursing agent as agent, shall be covered into the Treasury unless claimed by his or her legal heirs within five years from the death of the inmate. And the Superintendent of Saint Elizabeths Hospital is authorized and directed, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, to make diligent inquiry in every instance after the death of an inmate to ascertain the whereabouts of his or her legal heirs. Claims may be presented at any time, and when established by competent proof in any case more than five years after the death of an inmate shall be certified to Congress for consideration. (June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 1, 34 Stat. 780; Feb. 2, 1909, c. 58, § 1, 35 Stat. 592; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

178. Revocable permit to hospital to use certain lands.—The Secretary of War is authorized to grant a revocable permit to the Saint Elizabeths Hospital for the use of such portions of land as were on October 6, 1917, not under lease and such other portions thereof as leases thereof expire, of that portion of land lying along Anacostia Flats which has been reclaimed by the War Department and is valuable for farming purposes. (Oct. 6, 1917, c. 79, § 1, 40 Stat. 373.)

179. Report of superintendent.—The Superintendent of Saint Elizabeths Hospital shall make a report to Congress annually at the beginning of each regular session, which shall show in detail the receipts and expenditures for all purposes connected with the hospital for the fiscal year preceding such session. (June 4, 1880, c. 121, § 1, 21 Stat. 156; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

INMATES; BURDEN OF EXPENSES THEREOF; DETENTION OF INSANE

191. Admission; insane persons of Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard.—The superintendent, upon the order of the Secretary of War, of the Secretary of the Navy, and of the Secretary of the Treasury, respectively, shall receive, and keep in custody until they are cured, or removed by the same authority which ordered their reception, insane persons of the following descriptions:

First. Insane persons belonging to the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard.

Second. Civilians employed in the Quartermaster Corps of the Army who may become insane while in such employment.

Third. Men who, while in the service of the United States, in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, have been admitted to the hospital, and have been thereafter discharged from it on the supposition that they have recovered their reason, and have, within three years after such discharge, become again insane from causes existing at the time of such discharge, and have no adequate means of support.

Fourth. Indigent insane persons who have been in either of the said services and been discharged therefrom on account of disability arising from such insanity.

Fifth. Indigent insane persons who have become insane within three years after their discharge from such service, from causes which arose during and were produced by said service. (R. S. § 4843; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 391, § 3, 37 Stat. 591; Jan. 28, 1915, c. 20, § 2, 38 Stat. 801.)

192. Admission; insane prisoners of war and interned persons.—Interned persons and prisoners of war, under the jurisdiction of the Navy Department, or the War Department, who are or may become insane, shall be entitled to admission for treatment to Saint Elizabeths Hospital. (July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 558; Oct. 6, 1917, c. 79, § 1, 40 Stat. 373.)

193. Admission; insane patients of Public Health Service.—Insane patients of the Public Health Service shall be admitted into Saint Elizabeths Hospital upon the order of the Secretary of the Treasury, and shall be cared for therein until cured or until removed by the same authority. The Public Health Service shall pay to Saint Elizabeths Hospital the actual per capita cost of maintenance in the said hospital of patients committed by that service. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 156, § 5, 18 Stat. 486; July 1, 1902, c. 1370, § 1, 32 Stat. 712; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 1, 37 Stat. 309; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309; July 1, 1918, c. 113, § 1, 40 Stat. 644.)

194. Admission; insane inmates of Soldiers' Home.—Any inmate of the Soldiers' Home who may become insane shall, upon an order of the president of the Board of Commissioners of the Soldiers' Home, be admitted to Saint Elizabeths Hospital and treated therein; and the expenses of maintaining any such person shall be paid from the Soldiers' Home fund. (July 7, 1884, c. 332, 23 Stat. 213; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

195. Admission; insane inmates of National Home for Disabled Volunteers.—Any inmate of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers who may become insane shall, upon an order of the president of the Board of Managers of the said National Home, be admitted to Saint Elizabeths Hospital and treated therein. (Aug. 7, 1882, c. 433, § 1, 22 Stat. 330; Feb. 20, 1905, c. 593, 33 Stat. 731; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

196. Transfer of American citizens adjudged insane in Canal Zone.—Upon the application of the Governor of the Panama Canal the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to transfer to Saint Elizabeths Hospital, in the District of Columbia, for treatment, all American citizens legally adjudged insane in the Canal Zone whose legal residence in one of the States and Territories or the District of Columbia it has been impossible to establish. Upon the ascerfainment of the legal residence of persons so transferred to the hospital, the superintendent of the hospital shall thereupon transfer such persons to their respective places of residence, and the expenses attendant thereon shall be paid from the appropriation for the support of the hospital. (June 12, 1917, c. 27, § 1, 40 Stat. 179.)

197. Care of Army insane and of inmates of National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers on Pacific coast.—The Secretary of War may, in his discretion, contract for the care, maintenance, and treatment of the insane of the Army, and inmates of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers on the Pacific coast at any State asylum in California, in all cases which he was, on March 3, 1901, authorized by law to cause to be sent to Saint Elizabeths Hospital in the District of Columbia. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 853, § 1, 31 Stat. 1163; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

198. Care of insane natives of Philippine Islands serving in Army.—The Secretary of War may, in his discretion, contract for the care, maintenance, and treatment of the insane natives of the Philippine Islands serving in the Army of the United States at any asylum in the Philippine Islands in all cases which he was, on May 11, 1908, authorized by law to cause to be sent to Saint Elizabeths Hospital in the District of Columbia. (May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 122; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

199. Transfer of insane from military hospitals to nearest public hospitals.—The Secretary of War is authorized to transfer from any military hospital to the nearest available public hospital for the care of the insane any insane patient who is in need of treatment, preference being given to the hospital nearest to the place of the patient's enlistment. The superintendent of such public hospital shall possess the right to retain the aforementioned class of patients in his hospital in the same manner and to the same extent as was, on October 6, 1917, possessed by the superintendent of Saint Elizabeths Hospital. (Oct. 6, 1917, c. 79, § 1, 40 Stat. 373.)

200. Transfer of part of appropriations to public hospitals for support of patients.—The superintendent of Saint Elizabeths Hospital, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, shall transfer to the various public hospitals out of the various appropriations made by Congress for the support and treatment of patients in Saint Elizabeths Hospital a sum sufficient to pay for the support and treatment of patients sent to public hospitals as provided in the preceding section, based upon the per capita cost of maintenance in Saint Elizabeths Hospital, said payment not to exceed at any time the exact cost of support and treatment of such patients. (Oct. 6, 1917, c. 79, § 1, 40 Stat. 373.)

201. Admission of indigent insane of District of Columbia.—All indigent insane persons residing in the District of Columbia at the time they became insane shall be entitled to the benefits of Saint Elizabeths Hospital. An indigent insane person within the meaning of this section shall be one who is insane and unable to support himself and family, or himself, if he has no family, under the visitation of insanity. (R. S. § 4844; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

202. Expense of indigent insane admitted from District of Columbia.—One half of the expense of the indigent persons who may be admitted to Saint Elizabeths Hospital from the District of Columbia shall be paid from the treasury of said District. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 105, 19 Stat. 347; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

203. Payment of part of expense from appropriations for District.—One half of the expense of the indigent patients admitted to Saint Elizabeths Hospital from the District of Columbia shall be reported to the Treasury Department, and charged against the appropriations to be paid toward the expenses of the District by the General Government, without regard to the date of their admission. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 182, § 1, 20 Stat. 395; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

204. Private patients.—Whenever there are vacancies, private patients from the District may be received at a rate of board to be determined by the visitors, to be in no case less than the actual cost of their support, and may remain until restored to reason.

The friends of the patient shall comply with the regulations of the hospital in respect to payment of board and in all other respects. (R. S. §§ 4853, 4854.)

205. Insane persons having property.—Whenever it appears in the case of any insane person whose insanity commenced while he was a resident of the District of Columbia that he is able to defray a portion, but not the whole of the expenses of his support and treatment in Saint Elizabeths Hospital, the board of visitors of the hospital is authorized to inquire into the facts of the case; and if it appears to the board, upon such inquiry, that such insane person has property and no family, or has more property than is required for the support of his family, then, as a condition upon which such insane person, admitted or to be admitted as provided in this chapter, shall receive or continue to receive the benefits of the hospital, there shall be paid to the superintendent from the income, property, or estate of such insane person such portion of his expenses in the hospital as a majority of the board shall determine to be just and reasonable, under all the circumstances. (R. S. § 4849; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39, Stat. 309.)

206. Admission of nonresidents of District.—Any indigent insane person who did not reside in the District at the time he became insane may be admitted into the hospital at the expense of the District during the continuance of such insane person therein. (R. S. § 4850.)

207. Return of nonresident indigent insane.—It shall be the duty of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, so soon as practicable, to return to their places of residence or to their friends all indigent insane persons not residing in the District at the time they became insane who shall be committed to Saint Elizabeths Hospital to be temporarily cared for, as provided in this chapter, and all necessary expenses incurred by the Commissioners in ascertaining the locality where such persons or their friends belong and in returning them to such locality shall be defrayed by the District of Columbia. (Jan. 31, 1899, c. 78, § 7, 30 Stat. 811; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

208. Proceedings to determine mental conditions.—Proceedings to determine the mental condition of alleged indigent insane persons and persons alleged to be insane, with homicidal or otherwise dangerous tendencies shall be instituted upon petition of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, shall be in the equity court of said District and shall be according to the provisions of the code of law for the said District relating to lunacy proceedings. (Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1006, § 1, 32 Stat. 1043; Feb. 23, 1905, c. 783, § 1, 33 Stat. 740.)

209. Jury in lunacy proceedings; costs.—The jury to be used in case the Commissioners of the District of Columbia are the petitioners shall be impaneled by the United States marshal for said District, upon order of the court, from the jurors in attendance upon the criminal courts of said District, who shall perform such services in addition to and as part of their duties in said criminal courts: Provided, That during such time as jurors are not in attendance upon said criminal courts the court may direct the said marshal to impanel the jurors in attendance upon the police court of said District, who shall perform such duties in addition to and as part of their duties in said police court; or the said court may direct a special jury to be summoned for such inquisitions. In case any such person adjudged to be of unsound mind has property, real or personal, the equity court of said District shall have full power in the same cause to appoint a committee or trustee of the person and estate of such person, according to the provisions of the code of law for the District of Columbia relating to lunacy proceedings, and such committee or trustee shall reimburse, out of the funds of the lunatic, the District of Columbia for all court costs expended or incurred by it and for all moneys by it expended or costs incurred in caring for and treating such insane person up to the time of such appointment. (Feb. 23, 1905, c. 738, § 1, 33 Stat. 740.)

210. Discharge as cured.—In case any person adjudged to be of unsound mind in the District of Columbia who is committed to Saint Elizabeths Hospital, or any other institution, recovers his or her reason, and who is discharged from such institutions as cured, the superintendent of said Saint Elizabeths Hospital, or the official in charge of any such other institution where such person has been under treatment and has been so discharged, shall immediately thereafter file with the clerk of the supreme court of the District of Columbia his sworn statement that such person, in his opinion, was at the time of his discharge of sound mind, and such statement shall be sufficient to authorize the court to pass an order declaring such person to be restored to his or her former legal status as a person of sound mind. (Feb. 23, 1905, c. 738, § 2, 33 Stat. 740; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

211. Admission of insane persons accused of crime.—If any person, charged with crime, be found, in the court before which he is so charged, to be an insane person, such court shall certify the same to the Secretary of the Interior, who may order such person to be confined in Saint Elizabeths Hospital, and, if he be not indigent, he and his estate shall be charged with expenses of his support in the hospital. (R. S. § 4851; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

212. Transfer of insane convicts.—Upon the application of the Attorney General the Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to transfer to Saint Elizabeths Hospital in the District of Columbia all persons who, having been charged with offenses against the United States, are in the actual custody of its officers, and all persons who have been or shall be convicted of any offense in a court of the United States and are imprisoned in any State prison or penitentiary of any State or Territory, and who during the term of their imprisonment have or shall become and be insane. (June 23, 1874, c. 465, § 1, 18 Stat. 251; Aug. 7, 1882, c. 433, § 1, 22 Stat. 330; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

213. Accommodation of insane convict in State asylums; compensation.—In all cases where any person convicted in a court of the United States shall, while imprisoned under such conviction in any State prison or penitentiary, become and be insane, and there shall not be accommodation for such insane person at Saint Elizabeths Hospital, or if for other reasons the Attorney General is of opinion that such insane person should be placed at a State insane asylum rather than at said hospital, then the Attorney General shall have power in his discretion to contract with any State insane or lunatic asylum, within the State in which such convict is imprisoned, for his care and custody while remaining so insane; and in all cases where such convicts shall be transferred to a State asylum for insane convicts, in accordance with the laws of such State, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to compensate the said asylum, or the proper authorities controlling the same, for the care and custody of such insane convicts, until their removal or discharge, in such amounts as he shall deem just and reasonable; but no contract shall be made or compensation paid for the care of such insane person beyond their respective terms of imprisonment. (June 23, 1874, c. 465, § 2, 18 Stat. 251; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

214. Return to prison on restoration to sanity.—Whenever such insane convict shall be restored to sanity, after he or she shall have been transferred under the provisions of the two preceding sections, he or she shall be returned to the prison or penitentiary from which the transfer was made, provided the term of imprisonment shall not have expired. The questions of sanity in all cases arising under this section and the two preceding sections shall be determined in accordance with the rules and regulations of existing laws, State or national, on that subject, applicable to the prison, penitentiary, or asylum where such convict shall be confined. (June 23, 1874, c. 465, § 8, 18 Stat. 252.)

215. Apprehension and detention of certain insane persons; in District of Columbia.—Any member of the Metropolitan police of the District of Columbia or any other officer in said District authorized to make arrests is authorized and empowered to apprehend and detain, without warrant, any insane person or person of unsound mind found on any street, avenue, alley, or other public highway, or found in any public building or other public place within the District of Columbia; and it shall be the duty of the policeman or officer so apprehending or detaining any such person to immediately file his affidavit with the major and superintendent of said Metropolitan police that he believes said person to be insane or of unsound mind, incapable of taking care of himself or herself or his or her property, and if permitted to remain at large or to go unrestrained in the District of Columbia the rights of persons and of property will be jeopardized or the preservation of public peace imperiled and the commission of crime rendered probable: Provided, however, That it shall be the duty of the major and superintendent of the said Metropolitan police to forthwith notify the husband or wife or some near relative or friend of the person so apprehended and detained whose address may be known to the said major and superintendent or whose address can by reasonable inquiry be ascertained by him. (Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1618, § 1, 33 Stat. 316.)

216. Arrest at other than public places.—The major and superintendent of said Metropolitan police is authorized to order the apprehension and detention, without warrant, of any indigent person alleged to be insane or of unsound mind or any alleged insane person of homicidal or otherwise dangerous tendencies found elsewhere in the District of Columbia than in the places mentioned in the preceding section whenever two or more responsible residents of the District of Columbia shall make and file affidavits with said major and superintendent of the Metropolitan police setting forth that they believe the person therein named to be insane or of unsound mind, the length of time they have known such person, that they believe such person to be incapable of managing his or her own affairs, and that such person is not fit to be at large or to go unrestrained, and if such person is permitted to remain at liberty in the District of Columbia the rights of persons and of property will be jeopardized or the preservation of public peace imperiled and the commission of crime rendered probable, and that such person is a fit subject for treatment on account of his or her mental condition: Provided, however, That before the major and superintendent of the said Metropolitan police shall order the apprehension and detention of any person upon the affidavits of the aforesaid residents or in case of arrest as provided in the preceding section, he shall, in addition thereto, require the certificate of at least two physicians who shall certify that they have examined the person alleged to be insane or of unsound mind, and that such person should not be allowed to remain at liberty and go unrestrained, and that such person is a fit subject for treatment on account of his or her mental condition. (Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1618, § 2, 33 Stat. 317.)

217. Temporary detention of alleged insane persons.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized to place in Saint Elizabeths Hospital in said District, and the superintendent of said hospital is authorized to receive, upon the written request of the said commissioners, for a period of time not exceeding thirty days, indigent persons alleged to be insane or of unsound mind, residents of or found within the District of Columbia, and alleged insane persons of homicidal or otherwise dangerous tendencies, residents of or found within the said District, so apprehended and detained as provided in the two preceding sections, pending the formal commitment of such persons to said hospital as provided by law, or their transportation to their homes when their places of residence are ascertained by the proper officials charged by law with that duty. (Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1618, § 3, 33 Stat. 317; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

218. Temporary commitment of persons to other hospital, or detention in police station; discharge of person certified not insane.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia may authorize the temporary commitment of any of the insane persons or persons of unsound mind mentioned in the three preceding sections and apprehended and detained as provided in sections 215 and 216 (for a period of time not exceeding thirty days) in any other hospital in said District which, in the judgment of the health officer of said District, is properly constructed and equipped for the reception and care of such persons, and the official in charge of which, for the time being, is willing to receive such persons pending the temporary commitment or the formal commitment of such persons, as provided by law, to Saint Elizabeths Hospital or to any other hospital or insane asylum; or any such alleged insane person or person of unsound mind apprehended under sections 215 and 216 may be detained in any police station or house of detention in said District pending the completion of arrangements for his or her temporary detention in Saint Elizabeths Hospital or any other hospital or insane asylum; and such persons may be detained in any police station or house of detention in said District until formally committed to Saint Elizabeths Hospital or any other hospital or asylum, in the manner provided by law, in case he or she can not be provided for by the said Saint Elizabeths Hospital and no arrangement can be made for his or her temporary detention in any other hospital or asylum: Provided, however, That if, pending the formal commitment of such alleged insane person or person of unsound mind to Saint Elizabeths Hospital or to any other hospital or asylum, the superintendent of said Saint Elizabeths Hospital, in the case of the commitment of a person to said hospital under the provisions of sections 215 to 220, inclusive, or if two or more physicians in regular attendance at any other hospital or asylum where any person is committed under the provisions of sections 215 to 220, inclusive, or if two or more surgeons of the police and fire departments, in the case of any person detained at any police station house or house of dentention under the provisions of sections 215 to 220, inclusive, shall certify in writing to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia that such person is not insane or that he or she has recovered his or her reason, the official in charge of Saint Elizabeths Hospital, or the hospital or asylum in which such person is confined, or the major and superintendent of said Metropolitan police, if such person be confined in a police station house or in a house of detention, shall discharge such alleged insane person or person of unsound mind forthwith and immediately report such action to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. (Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1618, § 4, 33 Stat. 317.)

219. Certificate by physician as to sanity or insanity; qualifications of physician.—For the purposes of sections 215 to 220, inclusive, no certificate as to the sanity or the insanity of any person shall be valid which has been issued (a) by a physician who has not been regularly licensed to practice medicine in the District of Columbia, unless he be a commissioned surgeon of the United States Army, Navy, or Public Health Service; or (b) by a physician who is not a permanent resident of the District of Columbia; or (c) by a physician who has not been actively engaged in the practice of his profession for at least three years; or (d) by a physician who is related by blood or by marriage to the person whose mental condition is in question. Nor shall any certificate alleging the insanity of any person be valid which has been issued by a physician who is financially interested in the hospital or asylum in which the alleged insane person is to be confined, or who is professionally or officially connected therewith. (Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1618, § 5, 33 Stat. 318; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 1, 37 Stat. 309.)

220. Making false affidavit or certificate; penalty.—Any person who makes an affidavit, as required by sections 215 and 216, by which he or she secures or attempts to secure the apprehension, detention, or restraint of any other person in the District of Columbia without probable cause for believing such person to be insane or of unsound mind, or any physician who knowingly makes any false certificate as to the sanity or insanity of any other person shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned not more than three years, or both. (Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1618, § 6, 33 Stat. 318.)

221. Discharge of patients on bond.—If any person will give bond with sufficient security, to be approved by the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, or by any judge thereof in vacation, payable to the United States, with condition to restrain and take care of any independent or indigent insane person not charged with a breach of the peace, whether in the hospital or not, until the insane person is restored to sanity, such court or judge thereof may deliver such insane person to the party giving such bond. (R. S. § 4856.)

222. Insane persons not to be confined in jail.—No insane person not charged with any breach of the peace shall ever be confined in the United States jail in the District of Columbia. (R. S. § 4857.)

245. Judges of the municipal court to report deaf and dumb persons in District.
246. Report of superintendent.
247. Annual report of president and directors.
248. Itemized report of expenses.
249. Education of indigent blind persons.
250. Manner of paying for instruction of indigent blind from District.

Section 231. Establishment and powers.—The corporation created by the Act of February 16, 1857, under the name of the "Columbia Institution for the Instruction of the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind," shall have perpetual succession, and be capable to take, hold, and enjoy lands, tenements, hereditaments, and personal property, to use a common seal, and to alter the same at pleasure. But no real or personal property shall be held by the corporation, except such as may be necessary to the maintenance and efficient management of the institution. (R. S. § 4859; Feb. 16, 1857, c. 46, § 1, 11 Stat. 161.)

232. Power to confer degrees.—The board of directors of the Columbia Institution for the Deaf are authorized and empowered to grant and confirm such degrees in the liberal arts and sciences to such pupils of the institution, or others, who, by their proficiency in learning or other meritorious distinction they shall think entitled to them, as are usually granted and conferred in colleges; and to grant to such graduates diplomas or certificates, sealed and signed in such manner as said board of directors may determine, to authenticate and perpetuate the memory of such graduation. (Apr. 8, 1864, c. 52, 13 Stat. 45; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1422.)

233. Terms of deed part of charter.—The terms and conditions of the deed of transfer of the funds and property of Washington's Manual Labor School and Male Orphan Asylum Society of the District of Columbia shall be as obligatory upon the Columbia Institution for the Deaf as if they formed a part of its charter. (R. S. § 4860; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1422.)

234. Disposal of property.—No part of the real or personal property held or acquired by the Columbia Institution for the Deaf shall be devoted to any other purpose than the education of the deaf and dumb, nor shall any portion of the real estate be aliened, sold, or conveyed, except under the authority of a special act of Congress. (R. S. § 4861; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1422.)

235. Election of officers; alteration of constitution.—The Columbia Institution for the Deaf shall be managed as provided for in its constitution, and such additional regulations as may from time to time be found necessary. The constitution may be altered consistently with law, in the manner therein provided. (R. S. § 4862; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1422.)

236. Government directors; appointment.—In addition to the directors whose appointment has been provided for by law, there shall be three other directors of the Columbia Institution for the Deaf, appointed in the following manner: One Senator by the President of the Senate, and two Representatives by the Speaker of the House. These directors shall hold their offices for the term of a single Congress, and be eligible to a reappointment. (R. S. § 4863; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1422.)

237. Government directors; term of office; control of disbursements; accounts.—Directors appointed under the provisions of the preceding section shall remain in office until the appointment and acceptance of office of their successors; and the directors of the institution shall have control of the disbursements of all moneys appropriated by Congress for the benefit of said institution, accounts for which shall be settled and adjusted at the General Accounting Office as required by the provisions of section 71 of Title 31, MONEY AND FINANCE. (July 1, 1898, c. 546, § 1, 30 Stat. 624; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 305, 42 Stat. 24.)

238. Admission of deaf mutes from District.—All deaf mutes of teachable age, of good mental capacity, and properly belonging to the District of Columbia shall be received and instructed in the Columbia Institution for the Deaf their admission thereto being subject to the approval of the superintendent of public schools in the District of Columbia. And said institution shall not be regarded nor classified as an institution of charity. (Mar. 1, 1901, c. 670, § 1, 31 Stat. 844; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1422.)

239. Instruction for feeble-minded residing in District; annual estimates.—When any indigent applicant for admission to the Columbia Institution for the Deaf, belonging to the District of Columbia, and being of teachable age, is found on examination by the president of the institution to be of feeble mind, and hence incapable of receiving instruction among children of sound mind, the Secretary of the Interior may cause such person to be instructed in some institution for the education of feeble-minded children in Pennsylvania, or some other State, at a cost not greater for each pupil than is, or may be for the time being, paid by such State for similar instruction.

The estimates for this expense shall each year be submitted in the annual estimates for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia. (June 16, 1880, c. 235, 21 Stat. 275; Aug. 30, 1890, c. 837, § 1, 26 Stat. 398; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1422.)

240. Manner of paying expenses; pupils from District.—One-half of all expenses attending the instruction of deaf and dumb persons admitted to the Columbia Institution for the Deaf from the District of Columbia, under section 238, shall be paid from the revenues of the District of Columbia and one-half out of the Treasury of the United States, and estimates for such expenses shall each year be submitted in the regular estimates for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 411, § 1, 25 Stat. 962; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1422.)

241. Education of colored deaf-mute children of District.—The directors of the Columbia Institution for the Deaf are authorized to provide for the education of colored deaf-mute children properly belonging to the District of Columbia, in the Maryland School for Colored Deaf-Mutes, or some other suitable school, at a cost not exceeding the per capita expense of educating the State pupils in such school. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1406, § 1, 33 Stat. 901; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1422.)

242. Admission of pupils from States and Territories.—Deaf-mutes, not exceeding one hundred and twenty-five in number, residing in the several States and Territories, applying for admission to the collegiate department of the Columbia Institution for the Deaf, shall be received on the same terms and conditions as those prescribed by law for residents of the District of Columbia, at the discretion of the president of the institution; but no student coming from either of the States shall be supported by the United States during any portion of the time he remains therein. (R. S. § 4865; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1422; July 1, 1918, c. 113, § 1, 40 Stat. 680.)

243. Limitation on number of pupils from one State.—There shall not be admitted to the Columbia Institution for the Deaf under the preceding section, nor shall there be maintained after such admission, at any one time from any State or Territory exceeding three deaf-mutes while there are applications pending from deaf-mutes, citizens of States or Territories having less than three pupils in said institution. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 837, § 1, 26 Stat. 392; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1422.)

244. Number and compensation of employees included in annual Budget.—There shall be included in the annual Budget a statement showing the number of persons employed each year in the Columbia Institution for the Deaf and the compensation paid to each. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 837, § 1, 26 Stat. 392; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1422; June 10, 1921, c. 18, 42 Stat. 20.)

245. Judges of the municipal court to report deaf and dumb persons in District.—It shall be the duty of the judges of the Municipal Court of the District of Columbia to ascertain the names and residences of all deaf and dumb persons within their respective districts; who of them are of teachable age, and also who of them are in indigent circumstances; and to report the same to the president of the Columbia Institution for the Deaf. (R. S. § 4866; Feb. 17, 1909, c. 134, 35 Stat. 623; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1422.)

246. Report of superintendent.—The superintendent of the Columbia Institution for the Deaf shall, at the commencement of every December session of Congress, make a full and complete statement of all the expenditures made by virtue of any appropriations by Congress, including the amounts and the rates paid to the superintendent, and for teachers. (R. S. § 4867; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1422.)

247. Annual report of president and directors.—It shall be the duty of the president and directors of the Columbia Institution for the Deaf to report to the Secretary of the Interior the condition of the institution on the 1st day of July in each year, embracing in the report the number of pupils of each description received and discharged during the preceding year, and the number remaining in the institution; also the branches of knowledge and industry taught, and the progress made therein; also a statement showing the receipts of the institution, and from what sources, and its disbursements, and for what objects. (R. S. § 4868; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1422.)

248. Itemized report of expenses.—The report of the Columbia Institution for the Deaf shall contain an itemized statement of all employees, the salaries or wages, respectively, of each of them, and also of all other expenses of said institution. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 143, § 1, 22 Stat. 625; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1422.)

249. Education of indigent blind persons.—Whenever the Secretary of the Interior is satisfied, by evidence produced by the president of the Columbia Institution for the Deaf, that any blind person of teachable age can not command the means to secure an education, he may cause such person to be instructed in some institution for the education of the blind, in Maryland, or some other State, at a cost not greater for each pupil than is, or may be for the time being, paid by such State, and to cause the same to be paid out of the Treasury of the United States. (R. S. § 4869; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1422.)

250. Manner of paying for instruction of indigent blind from District.—One-half of the indefinite appropriation to pay for the instruction of the indigent blind children of the District of Columbia, formerly instructed in the Columbia Institution for the Deaf, shall be paid out of the revenues of the District of Columbia and the other half out of the Treasury of the United States. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 424, § 1, 30 Stat. 1101; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1422.)

Chapter 6.—THE FREEDMEN'S HOSPITAL.

Sec.
261. Direction; expenditures; limitation on appropriations.
262. Admission of patients; charges for.
263. Care and treatment of persons from District of Columbia.
264. Unclaimed money of deceased patients.

Section 261. Direction; expenditures; limitation on appropriations.—The Freedmen's Hospital in the District of Columbia shall, until otherwise ordered by Congress, be continued under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior who shall submit estimates for expenses and maintenance. No part of any appropriation shall be used in support of, or to pay the expenses on account of any person to be admitted to such hospital, unless of persons removed thither from some other Government hospital. (R. S. § 2038; June 23, 1874, c. 455, § 1, 18 Stat. 223; Mar. 3, 1893, c. 199, § 1, 27 Stat. 551; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, 33 Stat. 1190.)

262. Admission of patients; charges for.—Patients may be admitted to Freedmen's Hospital for care and treatment on the payment of such reasonable charges therefor as the Secretary of the Interior shall prescribe. All moneys so collected shall be paid into the Treasury to the credit of Freedmen's Hospital, to be disbursed under the supervision of the Secretary of the Interior for subsistence, fuel and light, clothing, bedding, forage, medicine, medical and surgical supplies, surgical instruments, repairs, furniture, and other absolutely necessary expenses incident to the management of the hospital. A report as to the expenditure thereof shall be made annually to Congress. (June 26, 1912, c. 182, § 1, 37 Stat. 172.)

263. Care and treatment of persons from District of Columbia.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to enter into contract with the Board of Charities of the District of Columbia for the care and treatment of persons from the District of Columbia admitted to the Freedmen's Hospital; and any money that may be received, from this source, shall be paid to the Secretary of the Interior, to be applied to the uses and purposes of the hospital. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, 33 Stat. 1190.)

264. Unclaimed money of deceased patients.—All unclaimed money left at the Freedmen's Hospital by deceased patients shall, after a period of three years, be deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of miscellaneous receipts. (July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 311.)

293. Specific authorization from Congress for inscriptions, entombments, etc.
294. Restrictions on inscriptions, entombments, etc.
295. Character of inscriptions, etc.

Section 271. Manner of acquisition of lands.—The Secretary of War shall purchase from the owners thereof, at such price as may be mutually agreed upon between the Secretary and such owners, such real estate as in his judgment is suitable and necessary for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions for national cemeteries, and obtain from such owners the title in fee simple for the same. And in case the Secretary of War is not able to agree with any owner upon the price to be paid for any real estate needed for such purpose, or to obtain from such owner title in fee simple for the same, the Secretary is authorized to enter upon and appropriate any real estate which, in his judgment, is suitable and necessary for such purposes. (R. S. § 4870.)

272. Appraisement of real estate.—The Secretary of War or the owners of any real estate thus entered upon and appropriated, are authorized to make application for an appraisement of real estate thus entered upon and appropriated, to any district court within any State or district where such real estate is situated; and such court shall, upon such application, and in such mode and under such rules and regulations as it may adopt, make a just and equitable appraisement of the cash value of the several interests of each and every owner of such real estate and improvements thereon. (R. S. § 4871; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 291, 36 Stat. 1167.)

273. Payment of appraised value.—When appraisement of the real estate thus entered upon and appropriated has been made under the order and direction of the court, the fee simple thereof shall, upon payment to the owner of the appraised value, or in case such owner refuses or neglects for thirty days after the appraisement of the cash value of the real estate or improvements as aforesaid, to demand the same from the Secretary of War, upon depositing the appraised value in the court making such appraisement, to the credit of such owner, be vested in the United States, and its jurisdiction over such real estate shall be exclusive and the same as its jurisdiction over real estate purchased, ceded, or appropriated for the purposes of navy yards, forts, and arsenals. The Secretary of War is authorized and required to pay to the several owner or owners, respectively, the appraised value of the several pieces or parcels of real estate, as specified in the appraisement of any of such courts, or to pay into any of such courts by deposit, as provided in this section, the appraised value; and the sum necessary for such purpose may be taken from any moneys appropriated for the purposes of national cemeteries. (R. S. § 4872.)

274. Superintendents of cemeteries.—The Secretary of War shall cause to be erected at the principal entrance of each national cemetery a suitable building to be occupied as a porter's lodge; and shall appoint a meritorious and trustworthy superintendent to reside therein, for the purpose of guarding and protecting the cemetery and giving information to parties visiting the same. (R. S. § 4873.)

275. Selection of superintendents.—The superintendents of the national cemeteries shall be selected from meritorious and trustworthy soldiers, either commissioned officers or enlisted men of the Volunteer or Regular Army, who have been honorably mustered out or discharged from the service of the United States, and who may have been disabled for active field service in the line of duty. (R. S. § 4874.)

276. Fuel and quarters for superintendents.—The superintendents of the national cemeteries, together with the superintendent of the Arlington, Virginia, Cemetery, shall be furnished with quarters and fuel at the several cemeteries. (R. S. § 4875; July 30, 1912, c. 258, 37 Stat. 240.)

277. Superintendent of Antietam battle field.—The superintendent of Antietam battle field shall be selected and appointed by the Secretary of War at his discretion; the person selected for the position shall be an honorably discharged Union soldier and he shall perform his duties under the direction of the Quartermaster Corps. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title II, 43 Stat. 926.)

278. Care and maintenance of cemeteries.—The Secretary of War shall provide for the care and maintenance of the national military cemeteries and for this purpose shall submit an estimate with his annual estimates to Congress. (July 24, 1876, c. 226, § 1, 19 Stat. 99.)

279. Inclosure, headstones, and registers.—In the arrangement of the national cemeteries established for the burial of deceased soldiers and sailors, the Secretary of War is directed to have the same inclosed with a good and substantial stone or iron fence; and to cause each grave to be marked with a small headstone or block, which shall be of durable stone, and of such design and weight as shall keep it in place when set, and shall bear the name of the soldier and the name of his State inscribed thereon, when the same are known, and also with the number of the grave inscribed thereon, corresponding with the number opposite to the name of the party in a register of burials to be kept at each cemetery and at the office of the Quartermaster General, which shall set forth the name, rank, company, regiment, and date of death of the officer or soldier; or if these are unknown, it shall be so recorded. (R. S. § 4877.)

280. Headstones in private cemeteries; records.—The Secretary of War is authorized to erect headstones over the graves of soldiers who served in the Regular or Volunteer Army of the United States during the war for the Union, and who have been buried in private village or city cemeteries, in the same manner as provided by the preceding section for those interred in national military cemeteries.

The Secretary of War shall cause to be preserved in the records of his department the names and places of burial of all soldiers for whom such headstones shall have been erected by authority of this section or any statutory provisions prior to February 3, 1879. (Feb. 3, 1879, c. 44, 20 Stat. 281.)

281. Who may be buried in national cemetery; evidence of right.—All soldiers, sailors, or marines and all officers or men of the Coast Guard dying in the service of the United States, or dying in a destitute condition after having been honorably discharged from the service, and all soldiers, sailors, or marines who served, or may serve, during any war in which the United States has been, or may be, engaged, and, with the consent of the Secretary of War, any citizen of the United States who served in the army or navy of any government at war with Germany or Austria during the World War and who died while in such service or after honorable discharge therefrom, may be buried in any national cemetery free of cost. The production of the honorable discharge of a deceased man in the first or second case, and a duly executed permit of the Secretary of War in the last case, shall be sufficient authority for the superintendent of any cemetery to permit the interment. Army nurses honorably discharged from their service as such may be buried in any national cemetery, and, if in a destitute condition, free of cost. The Secretary of War is authorized to issue certificates to those Army nurses entitled to such burial. (R. S. § 4878; Mar. 3, 1897, c. 378, 29 Stat. 625; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1389; Jan. 28, 1915, c. 20, § 1, 38 Stat. 800; Apr. 15, 1920, c. 140, 41 Stat. 552.)

282. Burial of Confederate veterans.—Persons dying in the District of Columbia or in the immediate vicinity thereof who have served in the Confederate armies during the Civil War may be buried in the Confederate section of the Arlington National Cemetery without additional expense to the United States upon the certificate of Camp Numbered 171, United Confederate Veterans of the District of Columbia, that such persons are entitled to burial under the authority given in this section: Provided, That all such interments shall be under the supervision and subject to the approval of the Secretary of War. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 355, § 1, 37 Stat. 440.)

283. Cemetery near City of Mexico.—The President is authorized to provide, out of the ordinary annual appropriations for establishing and maintaining United States military cemeteries, for the proper care and preservation and maintenance of the cemetery or burial ground near the City of Mexico, in which are interred the remains of officers and soldiers of the United States, and of citizens of the United States, who fell in battle, or died in and around said city. (R. S. § 4879.)

284. Regulations for cemetery in Mexico.—The cemetery in Mexico shall be subject to the rules and regulations affecting United States national military cemeteries within the limits of the United States, so far as they may, in the opinion of the President, be applicable thereto. (R. S. § 4880.)

285. Burial ground of Zachary Taylor as national cemetery.—The Secretary of War is authorized to accept, free of cost to the United States Government, from the State of Kentucky, and from any others having authority to convey same, the land [approximately five acres] comprising the burial grounds containing the remains of Zachary Taylor, former President of the United States, and located on the Brownsboro Road in Jefferson County, Kentucky, and upon the presentation of good and perfect title to said land the Secretary of War is authorized and directed to establish thereon a national cemetery. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 306, § 2, 43 Stat. 970.)

286. Penalty for defacing cemeteries.—Every person who willfully destroys, mutilates, defaces, injures, or removes any monument, gravestone, or other structure, or who willfully destroys, cuts, breaks, injures, or removes any tree, shrub, or plant within the limits of any national cemetery, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not less than $25, and not more than $100, or by imprisonment for not less than fifteen days, and not more than sixty. The superintendent in charge of any national cemetery is authorized to arrest forthwith any person engaged in committing any misdemeanor prohibited in this section, and to bring such person before any United States commissioner or judge of any district court of the United States within any State or district where any of the cemeteries are situated, for the purpose of holding such person to answer for such misdemeanor, and then and there shall make complaint in due form. (R. S. § 4881; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 291, 36 Stat. 1167.)

287. Jurisdiction of United States.—From the time any State legislature shall give the consent of such State to the purchase by the United States of any national cemetery, the jurisdiction and power of legislation of the United States over such cemetery shall in all courts and places be held to be the same as is granted by section 8, Article I, of the Constitution of the United States; and all provisions relating to national cemeteries shall be applicable to the same. (R. S. § 4882.)

288. Single approach to cemeteries authorized.—No part of any appropriation for national cemeteries or the repair of roadways thereto shall be expended in the maintenance of more than a single approach to any national cemetery. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title II, 43 Stat. 926.)

289. Conveyance to State or municipality of approach road to national cemetery.—The Secretary of War is authorized in his discretion, subject to such conditions as may seem to him proper, to convey by proper quitclaim deed to any State, county, municipality, or proper agency thereof, in which the same is located, all the right, title, and interest of the United States in and to any Government owned or controlled approach road to any national cemetery: Provided, That prior to the delivery of any conveyance under this section the State, county, or municipality to which the conveyance authorized in this section is to be made shall notify the Secretary of War in writing of its willingness to accept and maintain the road or roads included in such conveyance: Provided further, That upon the execution and delivery of any conveyance authorized in this section, the jurisdiction of the United States of America, which has been heretofore ceded to the United States by a State over the roads conveyed, shall thereby cease and determine and shall thereafter vest and be in the particular State in which such roads are located. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 418, 43 Stat. 1104.)

290. Encroachment by railroads on rights of way.—No railroads shall be permitted upon the right of way which may have been acquired by the United States to a national cemetery, or to encroach upon any roads or walks constructed thereon and maintained by the United States. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title II, 43 Stat. 926.)

291. Arlington Memorial Amphitheater; commission to make recommendations for inscriptions, entombments, etc.—A commission is created, to be composed of the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy, which shall submit annually to the President, who shall transmit the same to Congress by the first Monday in December, recommendations as to what, if any, inscriptions, tablets, busts, or other memorials shall be erected, and what, if any, bodies of deceased members of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps shall be entombed during the next ensuing year within the Arlington Memorial Amphitheater, in the Arlington National Cemetery, Virginia: Provided, That no memorial shall be placed and no body shall be interred in the grounds about the Arlington Memorial Amphitheater within a distance of two hundred and fifty feet from the said memorial. (Mar. 4, 1921, c. 169, § 1, 41 Stat. 1440.)

292. Chairman and executive and disbursing officer of commission.—The Secretary of War shall be the chairman of the commission created in the preceding section and the depot quartermaster of the Army in Washington shall be its executive and disbursing officer. (Mar. 4, 1921, c. 169, § 2, 41 Stat. 1440.)

293. Specific authorization from Congress for inscriptions, entombments, etc.—No inscription, tablet, bust, or other memorial shall be erected nor shall any body be entombed within the Arlington Memorial Amphitheater unless specifically authorized in each case by Act of the Congress. (Mar. 4, 1921, c. 169, § 3, 41 Stat. 1440.)

294. Restrictions on inscriptions, entombments, etc.—No inscription, tablet, bust, or other memorial as provided for in sections 291, 293, 294, and 295 shall be erected to commemorate any person who shall not have rendered conspicuously distinguished service in the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, nor shall the body of any such person be entombed in the Arlington Memorial Amphitheater; nor shall any such memorial be erected or any body be entombed therein within ten years after the date of the death of the person so to be commemorated, except as authorized by Congress. (Mar. 4, 1921, c. 169, § 4, 41 Stat. 1440.)

295. Character of inscriptions, etc.—The character, design, and location of any such inscriptions, tablets, busts, or other memorials when authorized as provided for in sections 293 and 294 shall be subject to the approval of the commission created in section 291, which shall in each case obtain the advice of the Commission of Fine Arts. (Mar. 4, 1921, c. 169, § 5, 41 Stat. 1440.)

9. Regulations by President.
10. Employee to sign letters.
11. Employee or employees to sign approval of tribal deeds.
12. Agent to negotiate commutation of annuities.
13. Expenditure of appropriations by Bureau of Indian Affairs.

Section 1. Commissioner of Indian Affairs.—There shall be in the Department of the Interior a Commissioner of Indian Affairs, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. (R. S. § 462; Jan. 24, 1923, c. 42, 42 Stat. 1180.)

2. Duties of commissioner.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs shall, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, and agreeably to such regulations as the President may prescribe, have the management of all Indian affairs and of all matters arising out of Indian relations. (R. S. § 463.)

3. Compilation of statutes regulating duties of Indian agents and inspectors.—It shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to cause to be compiled and printed for the use of Indian agents and inspectors the provisions of the statutes regulating the performance of their respective duties, and also to furnish said officers from time to time information of new enactments upon the same subject. (May 17, 1882, c. 163, § 7, 22 Stat. 88.)

4. Defective record of deeds and papers legalized.—The recording of all deeds and papers prior to July 26, 1892, in the office of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs is confirmed, approved, and legalized; and said record heretofore made shall be deemed, taken, and held to be good and valid and shall have all the force and effect and be entitled to the same credit as if it had been made in pursuance of and in conformity to law. But shall have no effect whatever upon the validity or invalidity of the deed or paper so recorded, and shall be no evidence of constructive notice to any persons not actually knowing the contents. (July 26, 1892, c. 256. § 1, 27 Stat. 272.)

5. Record of deeds by Indians requiring approval.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs is hereby empowered and directed to continue to make and keep a record of every deed executed by any Indian, his heirs, representatives, or assigns, which may require the approval of the President of the United States or of the Secretary of the Interior, whenever such approval shall have been given, and the deed so approved returned to said office. (July 26, 1892, c. 256, § 2, 27 Stat. 273.)

6. Seal; authenticated and certified documents; evidence.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs shall cause a seal to be made and provided for the said office, with such device as the President of the United States shall approve, and copies of any public documents, records, books, maps, or papers belonging to or on the files of said office, authenticated by the seal and certified by the commissioner thereof, or by such officer as may, for the time being, be acting as or for such commissioner, shall be evidence equally with the originals thereof. (July 26, 1892, c. 256, § 3, 27 Stat. 273.)

7. Fees for furnishing certified copies of records.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs shall have the custody of said seal, and shall furnish certified copies of any such records, books, maps, or papers belonging to or on the files of said office, to any person applying therefor who shall comply with the requirements of said office, upon the payment by such parties at the rate of 10 cents per hundred words, and $1 for copies of maps or plats, and the additional sum of 25 cents for the commissioner's certificate of verification, with the seal of said office; and one of the employees of said office shall be designated by the commissioner as the receiving clerk, who shall give bond in the sum of $1,000, and the amounts so received shall, under the direction of the commissioner, be paid into the Treasury of the United States; but fees shall not be demanded for such authenticated copies as may be required by the officers of any branch of the Government or by any Indian who shall satisfy the commissioner by satisfactory legal evidence that he or she is not able, by reason of poverty, to pay such fees, nor for such unverified copies as the commissioner in his discretion may deem proper to furnish. (July 26, 1892, c. 256, § 4, 27 Stat. 273.)

8. Accounts for claims and disbursements.—All accounts and vouchers for claims and disbursements connected with Indian affairs shall be transmitted to the commissioner for administrative examination, and by him passed to the General Accounting Office for settlement. (R. S. § 464; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

9. Regulations by President.—The President may prescribe such regulations as he may think fit for carrying into effect the various provisions of any act relating to Indian affairs, and for the settlement of the accounts of Indian affairs. (R. S. § 465.)

10. Employee to sign letters.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, may designate an employee of the Indian Office to sign letters of that office requiring the signature of the commissioner or assistant commissioner, and all signatures of such employee while acting under such designation shall have the same force and effect as if made by said commissioner or assistant commissioner. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 263, 35 Stat. 788.)

11. Employee or employees to sign approval of tribal deeds.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to designate an employee or employees of the Department of the Interior to sign, under the direction of the Secretary, in his name and for him, his approval of tribal deeds to allottees, to purchasers of town lots, to purchasers of unallotted lands, to persons, corporations, or organizations for lands reserved to them under the law for their use and benefit, and to any tribal deeds made and executed according to law for any of the Five Civilized Tribes of Indians in Oklahoma. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 210, § 17, 36 Stat. 1069.)

12. Agent to negotiate commutation of annuities.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs is authorized to send a special

Indian agent, or other representative of his office, to visit any Indian tribe for the purpose of negotiating and entering into a written agreement with such tribe for the commutation of the perpetual annuities due under treaty stipulations, to be subject to the approval of Congress; and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs shall transmit to Congress said agreements with such recommendations as he may deem proper. (Apr. 30, 1908, c. 153, 35 Stat. 73.)

13. Expenditure of appropriations by Bureau of Indian Affairs.—The Bureau of Indian Affairs, under the supervision of the Secretary of the Interior, shall direct, supervise, and expend such moneys as Congress may from time to time appropriate, for the benefit, care, and assistance of the Indians throughout the United States for the following purposes:

General support and civilization, including education.

For relief of distress and conservation of health.

For industrial assistance and advancement and general administration of Indian property.

For extension, improvement, operation, and maintenance of existing Indian irrigation systems and for development of water supplies.

For the enlargement, extension, improvement, and repair of the buildings and grounds of existing plants and projects.

For the employment of inspectors, supervisors, superintendents, clerks, field matrons, farmers, physicians, Indian police, Indian judges, and other employees.

For the suppression of traffic in intoxicating liquor and deleterious drugs.

For the purchase of horse-drawn and motor-propelled passenger-carrying vehicles for official use.

And for general and incidental expenses in connection with the administration of Indian affairs. (Nov. 2, 1921, c. 115, 42 Stat. 208.)

Section 21. Board of Indian commissioners.—There shall be a board of Indian commissioners, composed of not more than ten persons, appointed by the President solely, from men eminent for intelligence and philanthropy, and who shall serve without pecuniary compensation. (R. S. § 2039.)

22. Secretary of board.—The board of Indian commissioners is authorized to employ a secretary, not a member of said board, and pay his salary out of the appropriation which shall be made for said board. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 388, 37 Stat. 521.)

23. Powers and duties of board.—The commission shall only have power to visit and inspect agencies and other branches of the Indian Service, and to inspect goods purchased for said service, and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs shall consult with the commission in the purchase of supplies. The commission shall report their doings to the Secretary of the Interior. (May 17, 1882, c. 163, § 1, 22 Stat. 70.)

24. Investigations by member of board.—Any member of the board of Indian commissioners is empowered to investigate all contracts, expenditures, and accounts in connection with the Indian Service, and shall have access to all books and papers relating thereto in any Government office; but the examination of vouchers and accounts by the executive committee of said board shall not be a prerequisite of payment. (R. S. § 2042.)

25. Superintendent for Five Civilized Tribes.—The offices of the Commissioner of the Five Civilized Tribes and superintendent of Union Agency, in Oklahoma, are abolished as of September 1, 1914, and in lieu thereof there shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a Superintendent for the Five Civilized Tribes, with his office located in the State of Oklahoma, at a salary of $5,000 per annum, and said superintendent shall exercise the authority and perform the duties exercised prior to September 1, 1914, by the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes and the superintendent of the Union Agency, with authority to reorganize the department and to eliminate all unnecessary clerks, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 222, § 17, 38 Stat. 598.)

26. Appointment of agents by President.—The President is authorized to appoint from time to time by and with the advice and consent of the Senate certain Indian agents. (R. S. § 2052.)

27. Detail of Army officers.—The President may detail officers of the United States Army to act as Indian agents at such agencies as in the opinion of the President may require the presence of any Army officer, and while acting as Indian agents such officers shall be under the orders and direction of the Secretary of the Interior. (July 13, 1892, c. 164, 27 Stat. 120; July 1, 1898, c. 545, § 1, 30 Stat. 573.)

28. Term of office of agent.—Each Indian agent shall hold his office for the term of four years, and until his successor is duly appointed and qualified. (R. S. § 2056; May 17, 1882, c. 163, § 1, 22 Stat. 87.)

29. Bond of agent.—Each Indian agent, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall give bond in such penalties and with such security as the President or the Secretary of the Interior may require. (R. S. § 2057.)

30. Residence of agent.—Every Indian agent shall reside and keep his agency within or near the territory of the tribe for which he may be agent, and at such place as the President may designate, and shall not depart from the limits of his agency without permission. (R. S. § 2060.)

31. Duties of agent.—Each Indian agent shall, within his agency, manage and superintend the intercourse with the Indians, agreeably to law; and execute and perform such regulations and duties, not inconsistent with law, as may be prescribed by the President, the Secretary of the Interior, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or the Superintendent of Indian Affairs. (R. S. § 2058.)

32. Accounting for funds.—Indian agents shall account for all funds coming into their hands as custodians from any source whatever, and be responsible therefor under their official bonds. (July 1, 1898, c. 545, § 1, 30 Stat. 595.)

33. Superintendents in charge of reservations; administration of oath of office.—Superintendents and acting superintendents in charge of Indian reservations, schools, irrigation and allotment projects are hereby authorized and empowered to administer the oath of office required of employees placed under their jurisdiction. (June 30, 1913, c. 4, § 1, 38 Stat. 80.)

34. Oaths to expense accounts.—The superintendent, acting superintendents, and principal clerks of the different Indian superintendencies or Indian agencies, are required, empowered, and authorized, when requested, to administer oaths, required by law or otherwise, to account for travel or other expenses against the United States, with like force and effect as officers having a seal; for such services when so rendered, or when rendered on demand by notaries public, who at the time are also salaried officers or employees of the United States, no charge shall be made; and no fee or money paid for the services herein described shall be paid or reimbursed by the United States. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 355, § 8, 37 Stat. 487.)

35. Acknowledgments of deeds and administration of oaths by Indian agents.—Indian agents are authorized to take acknowledgments of deeds, and other instruments of writing, and to administer oaths in investigations committed to them in Indian country, pursuant to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed for that purpose, by the Secretary of the Interior; and acknowledgments so taken shall have the same effect as if taken before a justice of the peace. (R. S. § 2064.)

36. Special agents and other officers to administer oaths.—Each special agent, supervisor of schools, or other official charged with the investigation of Indian agencies and schools, in the pursuit of his official duties shall have power to administer oaths and to examine on oath all officers and persons employed in the Indian Service, and all such other persons as may be deemed necessary and proper. (Mar. 1, 1899, c. 324, § 1, 30 Stat. 927.)

37. Books of expenditures; acts of agents as misdemeanor.—Each Indian agent shall keep a book of itemized expenditures of every kind, with a record of all contracts, together with the receipts of moneys from all sources, and the books thus kept shall always be open to inspection; and the said books shall remain in the office at the respective reservations, not to be removed from said reservation by said agent, but shall be safely kept and handed over to his successor and he shall report annually to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs all material on hand not required for his use: Provided, That should any agent knowingly make any false entry in said books, or knowingly fail to keep a perfect entry in said books as herein prescribed, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction before any United States court having jurisdiction of such offense, shall be fined in a sum not less than $500 nor more than $1,000, at the discretion of the court, and shall be rendered incompetent to hold said office of Indian agent after conviction. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 132, § 10, 18 Stat. 450; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 263, 35 Stat. 784.)

38. Visits to Washington by agents in California.—All Indian agents appointed for California shall reside at their respective agencies, and shall in no case be permitted to visit the city of Washington except when ordered to do so by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. The commissioner shall report all cases of the violation of this section to the President, with the request that the agents offending be at once removed from office. (R. S. § 2061.)

39. Compensation for extra services.—No compensation beyond their actual expenses for extra services shall be allowed any Indian agent or subagent for services when doing duty under the order of the Government, detached from their agency and the boundary of the tribe to which they are agents or subagents. (R. S. § 2063.)

40. Limits of superintendencies, agencies, and subagencies.—The limits of each superintendency, agency, and subagency shall be established by the Secretary of the Interior, either by tribes or geographical boundaries. (R. S. § 2066.)

41. Special agents and commissioners.—All special agents and commissioners not appointed by the President shall be appointed by the Secretary of the Interior. (R. S. § 2067.)

42. Interpreters.—An interpreter shall be allowed to each agency. Where there are different tribes in the same agency, speaking different languages, one interpreter may be allowed, at the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, for each of such tribes. Interpreters shall be nominated, by the proper agents, to the Department of the Interior for approval, and may be suspended by the agent from pay and duty, and the circumstances reported to the Department of the Interior for final action. (R. S. § 2068.)

43. Persons paid for other services not paid for interpreting.—No person employed by the United States and paid for any other service shall be paid for interpreting. (Apr. 4, 1910, c. 140, § 2, 36 Stat. 272.)

44. Employment of Indians.—In the Indian Service Indians shall be employed as herders, teamsters, and laborers, and where practicable in all other employments in connection with the agencies and the Indian Service. And it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to enforce this provision. (Aug. 15, 1894, c. 290, § 10, 28 Stat. 312.)

45. Preference to Indians qualified for duties.—In all cases of the appointments of interpreters or other persons employed for the benefit of the Indians, a preference shall be given to persons of Indian descent, if such can be found, who are properly qualified for the execution of the duties. (R. S. § 2069.)

46. Preference to Indians in employment of clerical, mechanical, and other help.—Preference shall at all times, as far as practicable, be given to Indians in the employment of clerical, mechanical, and other help on reservations and about agencies. (May 17, 1882, c. 163, § 6, 22 Stat. 88; July 4, 1884, c. 180, § 6, 23 Stat. 97.)

47. Employment of Indian labor and purchase of products of Indian industry.—So far as may be practicable Indian labor shall be employed, and purchases of the products of Indian industry may be made in open market in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior. (Apr. 30, 1908, c. 153, § 1, 35 Stat. 71; June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 23, 36 Stat. 861.)

48. Right of tribes to direct employment of persons engaged for them.—Where any of the tribes are, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Interior, competent to direct the employment of their blacksmiths, mechanics, teachers, farmers, or other persons engaged for them, the direction of such persons may be given to the proper authority of the tribe. (R. S. § 2072.)

49. Qualifications of farmers.—No money shall be expended for the employment of any farmer or expert farmer at a salary of or in excess of $50 per month, unless he shall first have procured and filed with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs a certificate of competency showing that he is a farmer of actual experience and qualified to instruct others in the art of practical agriculture, such certificate to be certified and issued to him by the president or dean of the State agricultural college of the State in which his services are to be rendered, or by the president or dean of the State agricultural college of an adjoining State: Provided, That this provision shall not apply to persons employed in the Indian Service as farmer or expert farmer prior to January 1, 1917: And provided further, That this shall not apply to Indians employed or to be employed as assistant farmer. (May 25, 1918, c. 86, § 1, 40 Stat. 565.)

50. Holding two offices; leave of absence.—No person shall hold more than one office at the same time under this title, except as otherwise provided therein, nor shall any agent, subagent, interpreter, or person employed under this title, receive his salary while absent from his agency or employment, without leave of the superintendent or Secretary of the Interior; but such absence shall at no time exceed sixty days. (R. S. § 2074.)

51. Additional security from persons charged with disbursement of money or goods.—The President may, from time to time, require additional security, and in larger amounts, from all persons charged or trusted, under the laws of the United States, with the disbursement or application of money, goods, or effects of any kind, on account of Indian affairs. (R. S. § 2075.)

52. New bond for disbursing officer.—When the Secretary of the Interior deems a new bond necessary he may, in his discretion, require any disbursing officer under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to execute a new bond, with approved sureties, in such amount as he may deem necessary, and when accepted and approved by the Secretary of the Interior the new bond shall be valid and the surety or sureties of the prior bond shall be released from liability for all acts or defaults of the principal which may be done or committed from and after the day on which the new bond was approved. (Apr. 30, 1908, c. 153, 35 Stat. 71.)

53. Disbursing officers; designation of clerk to act for.—Any disbursing agent of the Indian Service, with the approval of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, may authorize a clerk employed in his office to act in his place and discharge all the duties devolved upon him by law or regulations during such time as he may be unable to perform the duties of his position because of absence, physical disability, or other disqualifying circumstances: Provided, That the official bond given by the disbursing agent to the United States shall be held to cover and apply to the acts of the employee authorized to act in his place, who shall give bond to the disbursing agent in such sums as the latter may require, and with respect to any and all acts performed by him while acting for his principal, shall be subject to all the liabilities and penalties prescribed by law for official misconduct of disbursing agents. (Feb. 14, 1920, c. 75, § 1, 41 Stat. 414.)

54. Traveling expenses.—Where persons are required, in the performance of their duties, under this title, to travel from one place to another, their actual expenses, or a reasonable sum in lieu thereof, may be allowed them, except that no allowance shall be made to any person for travel or expenses in coming to the seat of government to settle his accounts, unless thereto required by the Secretary of the Interior. (R. S. § 2077.)

55. Expenses of clerks detailed on special duty.—When it becomes necessary to detail clerks and other employees of the Indian Service outside of Washington to assist in the opening of bids, making contracts, and shipping goods, they may be allowed a per diem of not exceeding $4 per day for hotel and other expenses, which per diem shall be in lieu of all expenses authorized by law, exclusive of railway transportation and sleeping-car fare. (May 17, 1882, c. 163, § 1, 22 Stat. 86.)

56. Quarters, fuel, and light for employees.—The Secretary of the Interior, in his discretion, may allow quarters, fuel, and light to employees of the Indian Service whose compensation is not prescribed by law, the salaries of such employees to be fixed on this basis and the cost of providing quarters, fuel, and light to be paid from any funds which are applicable and available therefor: Provided, That this authorization shall be retroactive to the extent of approving any expenditures for such purposes authorized by the Secretary of the Interior prior to June 7, 1924. (June 7, 1924, c. 328, 43 Stat. 634.)

57. Heat and light for employees' quarters.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to allow employees in the Indian Service who are furnished quarters necessary heat and light for such quarters without charge, such heat and light to be paid for out of the fund chargeable with the cost of heating and lighting other buildings at the same place: And provided further, That the amount so expended for agency purposes shall not be included in the maximum amounts for compensation of employees prescribed by the following section. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 222, 38 Stat. 584; May 25, 1918, c. 86, § 1, 40 Stat. 564; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1147.)

58. Limitation on expenditure for compensation of employees.—Not more than $15,000 shall be paid in any one year for salaries or compensation of employees regularly employed at any one agency, except the Osage, for its conduct and management, and the number and kind of employees at each agency shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior and none other shall be employed: Provided, That where two or more Indian agencies have been or may be consolidated, the expenditure of such consolidated agencies for regular employees shall not exceed $20,000: Provided further, That salaries or compensation of agents, Indians, school employees of every description, and persons temporarily employed, in case of emergency, to prevent loss of life and property, in the erection of buildings, the work of irrigation, and making other permanent improvements, shall not be construed as coming within the limitations fixed by the foregoing paragraphs. (June 7, 1897, c 3, § 1, 30 Stat. 90; Apr. 18, 1912, c. 83, § 10, 37 Stat. 88; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 388, 37 Stat. 521; May 25, 1918, c. 86, 40 Stat. 578.)

59. Transfer of funds for payment of employees; details for other service.—When not required for the purpose for which appropriated, the funds provided for the pay of specified employees at any Indian agency may be used by the Secretary of the Interior for the pay of other employees at such agency, but no deficiency shall be thereby created; and, when necessary, specified employees may be detailed for other service when not required for the duty for which they were engaged. (Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2285, 34 Stat. 1016.)

60. Compensation prescribed to be in full.—The several compensations prescribed by this title shall be in full of all emoluments or allowances whatsoever. But where necessary, a reasonable allowance or provision may be made for offices and office contingencies. (R. S. § 2076.)

61. Estimates for personal services in Indian Office.—Annual estimates in detail shall be submitted for all personal services required in the Indian Office, and it shall not be lawful to employ in said office any personal services other than those specifically appropriated for in the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation Acts, except temporary details of field employees for service connected solely with their respective employments. (Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, 37 Stat. 396.)

62. Discontinuance and transfer of agencies.—The President shall, whenever he may judge it expedient, discontinue any Indian agency, or transfer the same, from the place or tribe designated by law, to such other place or tribe as the public service may require. (R. S. § 2059.)

63. Consolidation of agencies.—The President may, in his discretion, consolidate two or more agencies into one, and where Indians are located on reservations created by Executive order he may, with the consent of the tribes to be affected thereby, expressed in the usual manner, consolidate one or more tribes, and abolish such agencies as are thereby rendered unnecessary. (May 17, 1882, c. 163, § 6, 22 Stat. 88; July 4, 1884, c. 180, § 6, 23 Stat. 97.)

64. Services of agents dispensed with.—It shall be the duty of the President to dispense with the services of such Indian agents and superintendents as may be practicable; and where it is practicable he shall require the same person to perform the duties of two agencies or superintendencies for one salary. (R. S. § 2053; June 22, 1874, c. 389, 18 Stat. 147; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 132, 18 Stat. 420.)

65. Discontinuance of agents, subagents, and interpreters.—The Secretary of the Interior shall, under the direction of the President, cause to be discontinued the services of such agents, subagents, interpreters, and mechanics, as may from time to time become unnecessary, in consequence of the emigration of the Indians, or other causes. (R. S. § 2073; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 244.)

66. Duties of agency devolved on superintendent of Indian school.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, may devolve the duties of any Indian agency or part thereof upon the superintendent of the Indian school located at such agency or part thereof whenever in his judgment such superintendent can properly perform the duties of such agency. And the superintendent upon whom such duties devolve shall give bond as other Indian agents.

The pay of any superintendent who performs agency duties in addition to those of his superintendency may be increased by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, in his discretion, to an extent not exceeding $300 per annum. (Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2285, 34 Stat. 1020.)

67. Superintendent of training school at Cherokee Agency to act as agent.—The superintendent of the Indian training school at Cherokee, North Carolina, shall, in addition to his duties as superintendent, perform the duties required prior to March 3, 1893, of the agent at said Cherokee Agency, and receive in addition to his salary as superintendent $200 per annum, and shall give bond as other Indian agents, and the office of agent is abolished at that place. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 209, § 1, 27 Stat. 614.)

68. Employees not to trade with Indians.—No person employed in Indian affairs shall have any interest or concern in any trade with the Indians, except for, and on account of, the United States; and any person offending herein, shall be liable to a penalty of $5,000, and shall be removed from his office. (R. S. § 2078.)

88. False vouchers, accounts, or claims.

TREATIES

Section 71. Future treaties with Indian tribes.—No Indian nation or tribe within the territory of the United States shall be acknowledged or recognized as an independent nation, tribe, or power with whom the United States may contract by treaty; but no obligation of any treaty lawfully made and ratified with any such Indian nation or tribe prior to March 3, 1871, shall be hereby invalidated or impaired. (R. S. § 2079.)

72. Abrogation of treaties.—Whenever the tribal organization of any Indian tribe is in actual hostility to the United States, the President is authorized, by proclamation, to declare all treaties with such tribe abrogated by such tribe if in his opinion the same can be done consistently with good faith and legal and national obligations. (R. S. § 2080.)

CONTRACTS WITH INDIANS

81. Contracts with Indian tribes or Indians.—No agreement shall be made by any person with any tribe of Indians, or individual Indians not citizens of the United States, for the payment or delivery of any money or other thing of value, in present or in prospective, or for the granting or procuring any privilege to him, or any other person in consideration of services for said Indians relative to their lands, or to any claims growing out of, or in reference to, annuities, installments, or other moneys, claims, demands, or thing, under laws or treaties with the United States, or official acts of any officers thereof, or in any way connected with or due from the United States, unless such contract or agreement be executed and approved as follows:

First. Such agreement shall be in writing, and a duplicate of it delivered to each party.

Second. It shall be executed before a judge of a court of record, and bear the approval of the Secretary of the Interior and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs indorsed upon it.

Third. It shall contain the names of all parties in interest, their residence and occupation; and if made with a tribe, by their tribal authorities, the scope of authority and the reason for exercising that authority, shall be given specifically.

Fourth. It shall state the time when and place where made, the particular purpose for which made, the special thing or things to be done under it, and, if for the collection of money, the basis of the claim, the source from which it is to be collected, the disposition to be made of it when collected, the amount or rate per centum of the fee in all cases; and if any contingent matter or condition constitutes a part of the contract or agreement, it shall be specifically set forth.

Fifth. It shall have a fixed limited time to run, which shall be distinctly stated.

Sixth. The judge before whom such contract or agreement is executed shall certify officially the time when and place where such contract or agreement was executed, and that it was in his presence, and who are the interested parties thereto, as stated to him at the time; the parties present making the same; the source and extent of authority claimed at the time by the contracting parties to make the contract or agreement, and whether made in person or by agent or attorney of either party or parties.

All contracts or agreements made in violation of this section shall be null and void, and all money or other thing of value paid to any person by any Indian or tribe, or any one else, for or on his or their behalf, on account of such services, in excess of the amount approved by the commissioner and secretary for such services, may be recovered by suit in the name of the United States in any court of the United States, regardless of the amount in controversy; and one half thereof shall be paid to the person suing for the same, and the other half shall be paid into the Treasury for the use of the Indian or tribe by or for whom it was so paid. (R. S. § 2103.)

82. Payments under contracts restricted.—No money shall be paid to any agent or attorney by an officer of the United States under any such contract or agreement, other than the fees due him for services rendered thereunder; but the moneys due the tribe, Indian, or Indians, as the case may be, shall be paid by the United States, through its own officers or agents, to the party or parties entitled thereto; and no money or thing shall be paid to any person for services under such contract or agreement, until such person shall have first filed with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs a sworn statement, showing each particular act of service under the contract, giving date and fact in detail, and the Secretary of the Interior and Commissioner of Indian Affairs shall determine therefrom whether, in their judgment, such contract or agreement has been complied with or fulfilled; if so, the same may be paid, and, if not, it shall be paid in proportion to the services rendered under the contract. (R. S. § 2104.)

83. Payments under prohibited contracts; aiding in making prohibited contracts.—The person so receiving such money contrary to the provisions of the two preceding sections, and his aiders and abettors, shall, in addition to the forfeiture of such sum, be punishable by imprisonment for not less than six months, and by a fine of not less than $1,000. And it shall be the duty of all district attorneys to prosecute such cases when applied to do so, and their failure and refusal shall be ground for their removal from office. Any Indian agent, or other person in the employment of the United States, who shall, in violation of the provisions of the preceding section, advise, sanction, or in any way aid in the making of such contracts or agreements, or in making such payments as are here prohibited, shall, in addition to the punishment herein imposed on the person making such contract, or receiving such money, be, on conviction, dismissed from the service of the United States, and be forever disqualified from holding any office of profit or trust under the same. (R. S. § 2105.)

84. Assignments of contracts restricted.—No assignment of any contracts embraced by section 81, or of any part of one shall be valid, unless the names of the assignees and their residences and occupations be entered in writing upon the contract, and the consent of the Secretary of the Interior and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to such assignment be also indorsed thereon. (R. S. § 2106.)

85. Contracts relating to tribal funds or property.—No contract made with any Indian, where such contract relates to the tribal funds or property in the hands of the United States, shall be valid, nor shall any payment for services rendered in relation thereto be made unless the consent of the United States has previously been given. (June 30, 1913, c. 4, § 18, 38 Stat. 97.)

86. Contracts for compensation for services in relation to enrollment in Five Civilized Tribes.—Unless the consent of the United States shall have previously been given, all contracts made with any person, or persons, applicants for enrollment as citizens in the Five Civilized Tribes for compensation for services in relation thereto, are declared to be void and of no effect, and the collection or receipt of any moneys from any such applicants for citizenship shall constitute an offense against the laws of the United States, punishable by a fine of not exceeding $500 or imprisonment for not exceeding six months, or both, and lands allotted to such applicants whether Indians or freedmen shall not be affected or encumbered by any deed, debt, or obligation of any character contracted prior to the time at which said land may be alienated under the laws of the United States. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 222, § 17, 38 Stat. 601.)

87. Interest of agents and employees in Indian contracts.—No agent or employee of the United States Government or of any of the departments thereof, while in the service of the Government, shall have any interest, directly or indirectly, contingent or absolute, near or remote, in any contract made, or under negotiation, with the Government or with the Indians, for the purchase or transportation or delivery of goods or supplies for the Indians, or for the removal of the Indians; nor shall any such agent or employee collude with any person who may attempt to obtain any such contract for the purpose of enabling such person to obtain the same. The violation of any of the provisions of this section shall be a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and by removal from office; and, in addition thereto, the court shall, in its discretion, have the power to punish by imprisonment of not more than six months. (June 22, 1874, c. 389, § 10, 18 Stat. 177.)

88. False vouchers, accounts, or claims.—Any disbursing or other officer of the United States, or other person, who shall knowingly present, or cause to be presented, any voucher, account, or claim to any officer of the United States, for approval or payment, or for the purpose of securing a credit in any account with the United States, relating to any matter pertaining to the Indian Service, which shall contain any material misrepresentation of fact in regard to the amount due or paid, the name or character of the article furnished or received; or of the service rendered, or to the date of purchase, delivery, or performance of service, or in any other particular, shall not be entitled to payment or credit for any part of said voucher, account, or claim; and if any such credit shall be given or received, or payment made, the United States may recharge the same to the officer or person receiving the credit or payment, and recover the amount from either or from both, in the same manner as other debts due the United States are collected: Provided, That where an account contains more than one voucher the foregoing shall apply only to such vouchers as contain the misrepresentation: And provided further, That the officers and persons by and between whom the business is transacted shall, in all civil actions in settlement of accounts, be presumed to know the facts in relation to the matter set forth in the voucher, account, or claim: And provided further, That the foregoing shall be in addition to the penalties prescribed by law, and in no way affect proceedings under existing law for like offenses. Where practicable this section shall be printed on the blank forms of vouchers provided for general use. (July 4, 1884, c. 180, § 8, 23 Stat. 97.)

PURCHASE OF SUPPLIES

Section 91. Purchase of goods for Indians.—All merchandise required by any Indian treaty for the Indians, payable after making of such treaty, shall be purchased under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, upon proposals to be received, to be based on notices previously to be given; and all merchandise required at the making of any Indian treaty shall be purchased under the order of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs by such person as he shall appoint. All other purchases on account of the Indians, and all payments to them of money or goods, shall be made by such person as the President shall designate for that purpose. (R. S. § 2083.)

92. Manner of purchase of goods for Indians.—No goods shall be purchased by the Office of Indian Affairs, or its agents, for any tribe, except upon the written requisition of the superintendent in charge of the tribe, and only upon public bids in the mode prescribed by the preceding section. (R. S. § 2084.)

93. Purchases or services for Indian field service.—The purchase of Indian supplies shall be made in conformity with the requirements of section 5 of Title 41. In so far as that section requires that advertisement be made, it shall apply only to those purchases and contracts for supplies or services, except personal services, for the Indian field service, which exceed in amount the sum of $50 each. (June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 23, 36 Stat. 861; May 18, 1916, c. 125, § 1, 39 Stat. 126.)

94. Purchase of supplies; advertisement; supplies for irrigation works.—No purchase of supplies for which appropriations are made for the Indian Service, exceeding in the aggregate $500 in value at any one time, shall be made without first giving at least three weeks' public notice by advertisement, except in case of exigency, when, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, who shall make official record of the facts constituting the exigency, and shall report the same to Congress at its next session, he may direct that purchases may be made in open market in amount not exceeding $3,000 at any one purchase: Provided, That supplies may be purchased, contracts let, and labor employed for the construction of artesian wells, ditches, and other works for irrigation, not to exceed the sum of $5,000 in any one purchase or contract, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, without advertising as hereinbefore provided. (Apr. 30, 1908, c. 153, § 1, 35 Stat. 71.)

95. Bids under advertisements for goods or supplies.—All bidders under any advertisement published by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs for proposals for goods, supplies, transportation, and so forth, for and on account of the Indian Service, whenever the value of the goods, supplies, and so forth, to be furnished, or the transportation to be performed, shall exceed the sum of $5,000, shall accompany their bids with a certified check, draft, or cashier's check, payable to the order of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, upon some United States depository or some one of such solvent national banks as the Secretary of the Interior may designate, or by an acceptable bond in favor of the United States, which check, draft, or bond shall be for 5 per centum of the amount of the goods, supplies, transportation, and so forth, as aforesaid; and in case any such bidder, on being awarded a contract, shall fail to execute the same with good and sufficient sureties according to the terms on which such bid was made and accepted, such bidder, or the sureties on his bond, shall forfeit the amount so deposited or guaranteed to the United States, and the same shall forthwith be paid into the Treasury of the United States; but if such contract shall be duly executed, as aforesaid, such draft, check, or bond so deposited shall be returned to the bidder. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 132, § 9, 18 Stat. 450; May 18, 1916, c. 125, § 1, 39 Stat. 129.)

96. Copies of contracts furnished to General Accounting Office before payment.—Copies of all contracts made by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or any other officer of the Government, for the Indian Service, shall be furnished to the General Accounting Office before any payment shall be made thereon. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 132, § 7, 18 Stat. 450; July 31, 1894, c. 174, §§ 3, 7, 28 Stat. 205, 206; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

97. Proposals or bids for contracts to be preserved.—In all lettings of contracts in connection with the Indian Service, the proposals or bids received shall be filed and preserved; and an abstract of all bids or proposals received for the supplies or services embraced in any contract shall be attached to, and filed with, the said contract when the same is filed in the General Accounting Office. (Aug. 15, 1876, c. 289, § 3, 19 Stat. 199; July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 4, 28 Stat. 205; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

98. Purchase of supplies without authority.—No claims for supplies for Indians, purchased without authority of law, shall be paid out of any appropriation for expenses of the Office of Indian Affairs, or for Indians. (R. S. § 2085.)

99. Contracts for supplies in advance of appropriations.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs is authorized to advertise in the spring of each year for bids, and enter into contracts, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, for goods and supplies for the Indian Service required for the ensuing fiscal year, notwithstanding the fact that the appropriations for such fiscal year have not been made, and the contracts so made shall be on the basis of the appropriations for the preceding fiscal year, and shall contain a clause that no deliveries shall be made under the same and no liability attach to the United States in consequence of such execution if Congress fails to make an appropriation for such contract for the fiscal year for which those supplies are required. (Aug. 15, 1894, c. 290, § 4, 28 Stat. 312.)

100. Transportation of supplies under contract or by common carrier.—Indian goods and supplies shall be transported by contract, the contracts if involving an expenditure of more than $2,000 being advertised and let to the lowest responsible bidder, or in open market by common carriers, as the Secretary of the Interior in his discretion shall determine. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 101, 19 Stat. 291; July 7, 1898, c. 571, 30 Stat. 676.)

101. Payment for wagon transportation.—All wagon transportation from the point where delivery is made by the last common carrier to the agency, school, or elsewhere, and between points on the reservation or elsewhere, shall be paid from the funds appropriated or otherwise available for the support of the school, agency, or other project for which the supplies to be transported are purchased. (June 30, 1913, c. 4, § 1, 38 Stat. 79.)

102. Payment of costs for furnishing coal for Indian service.—The cost of inspection, storage, transportation, and so forth, of coal for the Indian Service shall be paid from the support fund of the school or agency for which the coal is purchased. (Feb. 14, 1920, c. 75, § 1, 41 Stat. 412.)

103. Warehouses for goods.—Warehouses for the receipt, storage, and shipment of goods for the Indian Service shall be maintained at the following places: New York, Chicago, Omaha, Saint Louis, and San Francisco. (Apr. 30, 1908, c. 153, 35 Stat. 73.)

104. Purchase of articles manufactured at schools.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, whenever it can be done advantageously, to purchase for use in the Indian Service, from Indian manual and training schools, in the manner customary among individuals such articles as may be manufactured at such schools, and which are used in the Indian Service. Accounts of such transactions shall be kept in the Indian Bureau and in the training schools, and reports thereof made from time to time. (May 11, 1880, c. 85, § 1, 21 Stat. 131.)

DISBURSEMENT OF MONEYS AND SUPPLIES

111. Payment of annuities and distribution of goods.—The payment of all moneys and the distribution of all goods stipulated to be furnished to any Indians, or tribe of Indians, shall be made in one of the following ways, as the President or the Secretary of the Interior may direct:

First. To the chiefs of a tribe, for the tribe.

Second. In cases where the imperious interest of the tribe or the individuals intended to be benefited, or any treaty stipulation, requires the intervention of an agency, then to such person as the tribe shall appoint to receive such moneys or goods; or if several persons be appointed, then upon the joint order or receipt of such persons.

Third. To the heads of the families and to the individuals entitled to participate in the moneys or goods.

Fourth. By consent of the tribe, such moneys or goods may be applied directly, under such regulations, not inconsistent with treaty stipulations, as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, to such purposes as will best promote the happiness and prosperity of the members of the tribe, and will encourage able-bodied Indians in the habits of industry and peace. (R. S. § 2086.)

112. Persons present at delivery of goods and money.—The superintendent, agent, or subagent, together with such military officer as the President may direct, shall be present, and certify to the delivery of all goods and money required to be paid or delivered to the Indians. (R. S. § 2088.)

113. Mode of disbursements.—At the discretion of the President all disbursements of moneys, whether for annuities or otherwise, to fulfill treaty stipulations with individual Indians or Indian tribes, shall be made in person by the superintendents of Indian affairs, where superintendencies exist, to all Indians or tribes within the limits of their respective superintendencies, in the presence of the local agents and interpreters, who shall witness the same, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may direct. (R. S. § 2089.)

114. Payment of annuities in coin.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to pay in coin such of the annuities as by the terms of any treaty of the United States with any Indian tribe are required to be paid in coin. (R. S. § 2081.)

115. Payment of annuities in goods.—The President may, at the request of any Indian tribe, to which an annuity is payable in money, cause the same to be paid in goods, purchased as provided in section 91. (R. S. § 2082.)

116. Indians eighteen years of age to have right to receipt for annuity.—All Indians, when they shall arrive at the age of eighteen years, shall have the right to receive and receipt for all annuity money that may be due or become due to them, if not otherwise incapacitated under the regulations of the Indian Office. (Mar. 1, 1899, c. 324, § 8, 30 Stat. 947.)

117. Payments per capita to individual Indians.—Any sums of money to be paid per capita to individual Indians shall be paid to said Indians by an officer of the Government designated by the Secretary of the Interior. (June 10, 1896, c. 398, § 1, 29 Stat. 336.)

118. Payments in satisfaction of judgments.—Payments to Indians made from moneys appropriated by Congress in satisfaction of the judgment of any court shall be made under the direction of the officers of the Interior Department charged by law with the supervision of Indian affairs, and all such payments shall be accounted for to the Treasury in conformity with law. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 210, § 28, 36 Stat. 1077.)

119. Allotment of tribal funds to individual Indians.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, in his discretion, from time to time, to designate any individual Indian belonging to any tribe or tribes whom he may deem to be capable of managing his or her affairs, and he may cause to be apportioned and allotted to any such Indian his or her pro rata share of any tribal or trust funds on deposit in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the tribe or tribes of which said Indian is a member, and the amount so apportioned and allotted shall be placed to the credit of such Indian upon the books of the Treasury, and the same shall thereupon be subject to the order of such Indian: Provided, That no apportionment or allotment shall be made to any Indian until such Indian has first made an application therefor: Provided further, That the Secretaries of the Interior and of the Treasury are directed to withhold from such apportionment and allotment a sufficient sum of the said Indian funds as may be necessary or required to pay any existing claims against said Indians that may be pending for settlement by judicial determination in the Court of Claims or in the Executive Departments of the Government, at time of such apportionment and allotment. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2523, § 1, 34 Stat. 1221.)

120. Per capita payments to enrolled members of Choctaw and Chickasaw Tribes.—The Secretary of the Interior, under rules and regulations to be prescribed by him, is authorized to make per capita payments of not to exceed $200 annually to the enrolled members of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Tribes of Indians of Oklahoma, entitled under existing law to share in the funds of said tribes, or to their lawful heirs, of all the available money held by the Government of the United States for the benefit of said tribes in excess of that required for expenditures authorized by annual appropriations made therefrom or by existing law. (Feb. 14, 1920, c. 75, § 18, 41 Stat. 426.)

121. Payment of share of tribal funds to helpless Indians.—The pro rata share of any Indian who is mentally or physically incapable of managing his or her own affairs may be withdrawn from the Treasury in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior and expended for the benefit of such Indian under such rules, regulations, and conditions as the said Secretary may prescribe: Provided, That said funds of any Indian shall not be withdrawn from the Treasury until needed by the Indian and upon his application and when approved by the Secretary of the Interior. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2523, § 2, 34 Stat. 1221; May 18, 1916, c. 125, § 1, 39 Stat. 128.)

122. Limitation on application of tribal funds.—No funds belonging to any Indian tribe with which treaty relations exist shall be applied in any manner not authorized by such treaty, or by express provisions of law; nor shall money appropriated to execute a treaty be transferred or applied to any other purpose, unless expressly authorized by law. (R. S. § 2097.)

123. Expenditure from tribal funds without specific appropriations.—No money shall be expended from Indian tribal funds without specific appropriation by Congress. (May 18, 1916, c. 125, § 27, 39 Stat. 150.)

124. Expenditures from tribal funds of Five Civilized Tribes without specific appropriations.—No money shall be expended from tribal funds belonging to the Five Civilized Tribes without specific appropriation by Congress. (May 24, 1922, c. 199, 42 Stat. 575.)

125. Expenditure of moneys of tribes of Quapaw Agency.—No moneys shall be expended from tribal or individual funds belonging to the Quapaw or other tribes of Indians of the Quapaw Agency in the State of Oklahoma without specific authority of law. (June 30, 1919, c. 4, 41 Stat. 20.)

126. Payment of claims for Indian depredations.—No part of the moneys which may be appropriated in any general act or deficiency bill making appropriations for the current and contingent expenses incurred in Indian affairs, to pay annuities due to or to be used and expended for the care and benefit of any tribe or tribes of Indians, shall be applied to the payment of any claim for depredations that may have been or may be committed by such tribe or tribes, or any member or members thereof. No claims for Indian depredations shall be paid until Congress shall make special appropriation therefor. (R. S. § 2098.)

127. Moneys or annuities of hostile Indians.—No moneys or annuities stipulated by any treaty with an Indian tribe for which appropriations are made shall be expended for, or paid, or delivered to any tribe which, since the next preceding payment under such treaty, has engaged in hostilities against the United States, or against its citizens peacefully or lawfully sojourning or traveling within its jurisdiction at the time of such hostilities; nor in such case shall such stipulated payments or deliveries be resumed until new appropriations shall have been made therefor by Congress. And the Commissioner of Indian Affairs shall report to Congress, at each session, any case of hostilities, by any tribe with which the United States has treaty stipulations, which has occurred since his next preceding report. (R. S. § 2100.)

128. Appropriations not paid to Indians at war with United States.—None of the appropriations made for the Indian Service shall be paid to any band of Indians or any portion of any band while at war with the United States or with the white citizens of any of the States or Territories. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 132, § 2, 18 Stat. 449.)

129. Moneys due Indians holding captives other than Indians withheld.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to withhold, from any tribe of Indians who may hold any captives other than Indians, any moneys due them from the United States until said captives shall be surrendered to the lawful authorities of the United States. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 132, § 1, 18 Stat. 424.)

130. Withholding of moneys or goods on account of intoxicating liquors.—No annuities, or moneys, or goods, shall be paid or distributed to Indians while they are under the influence of any description of intoxicating liquor, nor while there are good and sufficient reasons leading the officers or agents, whose duty it may be to make such payments or distribution, to believe that there is any species of intoxicating liquor within convenient reach of the Indians, nor until the chiefs and headmen of the tribe shall have pledged themselves to use all their influence and to make all proper exertions to prevent the introduction and sale of such liquor in their country. (R. S. § 2087.)

131. Advances to disbursing officers.—No superintendent of Indian affairs, or Indian agent, or other disbursing officer in such service, shall have advanced to him, on Indian or public account, any money to be disbursed in future, until such superintendent, agent, or officer in such service has settled his accounts of the preceding year, and has satisfactorily shown that all balances in favor of the Government, which may appear to be in his hands, are ready to be paid over on the order of the Secretary of the Interior. (R. S. § 2092.)

132. Mode of distribution of goods.—Whenever goods and merchandise are delivered to the chiefs of a tribe, for the tribe, such goods and merchandise shall be turned over by the agent or superintendent of such tribe to the chiefs in bulk, and in the original package, as nearly as practicable, and in the presence of the headmen of the tribe, if practicable, to be distributed to the tribe by the chiefs in such manner as the chiefs may deem best, in the presence of the agent or superintendent. (R. S. § 2090.)

133. Rolls of Indians entitled to supplies.—For the purpose of properly distributing the supplies appropriated for the Indian Service, it is made the duty of each agent in charge of Indians and having supplies to distribute, to make out, at the commencement of each fiscal year, rolls of the Indians entitled to supplies at the agency, with the names of the Indians and of the heads of families or lodges, with the number in each family or lodge, and to give out supplies to the heads of families, and not to the heads of tribes or bands, and not to give out supplies for a greater length of time than one week in advance. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 132, § 4, 18 Stat. 449.)

134. Appropriations for supplies available immediately; time for distribution.—So much of the appropriations of any annual Indian Appropriation Act as may be required to pay for goods and supplies, for expenses incident to their purchase, and for transportation of the same, for the fiscal year for which such appropriations are made, shall be immediately available, upon the approval of such Act, but no such goods or supplies shall be distributed or delivered to any of said Indians prior to the beginning of such fiscal year. (Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2285, 34 Stat. 1016.)

135. Supplies distributed so as to prevent deficiencies.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior, and the officers charged by law with the distribution of supplies to the Indians, under appropriations made by law, to distribute them and pay them out to the Indians entitled to them, in such proper proportions as that the amount of appropriation made for the current year shall not be expended before the end of such current year, so as to prevent deficiencies; and no expenditure shall be made or liability incurred on the part of the Government on account of the Indian Service for any fiscal year (unless in compliance with existing law) beyond the amount of money previously appropriated for said service during such year. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 132, § 6, 18 Stat. 450.)

136. Commutation of rations and other supplies; payment per capita.—When, in the judgment of the Secretary of the Interior, any Indian tribe, or part thereof, who are receiving rations and clothing and other supplies under this chapter, are sufficiently advanced in civilization to purchase such rations and clothing and other supplies judiciously, they may commute the same and pay the value thereof in money per capita to such tribe or part thereof, the manner of such payment to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior. (July 1, 1898, c. 545, § 7, 30 Stat. 596.)

137. Supplies distributed to able-bodied males on condition.—For the purpose of inducing Indians to labor and become self-supporting, it is provided that, in distributing the supplies and annuities to the Indians for whom the same are appropriated, the agent distributing the same shall require all able-bodied male Indians between the ages of eighteen and forty-five to perform service upon the reservation, for the benefit of themselves or of the tribe, at a reasonable rate, to be fixed by the agent in charge, and to an amount equal in value to the supplies to be delivered; and the allowances provided for such Indians shall be distributed to them only upon condition of the performance of such labor, under such rules and regulations as the agent may prescribe: Provided, That the Secretary of the Interior may, by written order, except any particular tribe, or portion of tribe, from the operation of this provision where he deems it proper and expedient. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 132, § 3, 18 Stat. 449.)

138. Goods withheld from chiefs violating treaty stipulations.—No delivery of goods or merchandise shall be made to the chiefs of any tribe, by authority of any treaty, if such chiefs have violated the stipulations contained in such treaty upon their part. (R. S. § 2101.)

139. Appropriations for subsistence.—The Secretary of the Interior, under the direction of the President, may use any surplus that may remain in any of the appropriations for the purchase of subsistence for the several Indian tribes, to an amount not exceeding $25,000 in the aggregate, to supply any subsistence deficiency that may occur: Provided, That any diversions which shall be made under authority of this section shall be reported in detail, and the reason therefor, to Congress, at the session of Congress next succeeding such diversion. (Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2285, 34 Stat. 1016.)

140. Diversion of appropriations for employees and supplies.—The several appropriations made for millers, blacksmiths, engineers, carpenters, physicians, and other persons, and for various articles provided for by treaty stipulation for the several Indian tribes, may be diverted to other uses for the benefit of said tribes, respectively, within the discretion of the President, and with the consent of said tribes, expressed in the usual manner; and he shall cause report to be made to Congress, at its next session thereafter, of his action under this provision. (Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2285, 34 Stat. 1016.)

141. Rations.—The President is authorized to cause such rations as he deems proper, and as can be spared from the Army provisions without injury to the service, to be issued, under such regulations as he shall think fit to establish, to Indians who may visit the military posts or agencies of the United States on the frontiers, or in their respective nations; and a special account of these issues shall be kept and rendered. (R. S. § 2110.)

142. Estimates of tribal funds of Indians.—Annually, on the first Monday in December, the Secretary of the Treasury shall transmit to the Speaker of the House of Representatives estimates of the amounts of the receipts to, and expenditures which the Secretary of the Interior recommends to be made for the benefit of the Indians from, all tribal funds of Indians for the ensuing fiscal year; and such statement shall show (first) the total amounts estimated to be received from any and all sources whatsoever, which will be placed to the credit of each tribe of Indians, in trust or otherwise, at the close of the ensuing fiscal year, (second) an analysis showing the amounts which the Federal Government is directed and required by treaty stipulations and agreements to expend from each of said funds or from the Federal Treasury, giving references to the existing treaty or agreement or statute, (third) the amounts which the Secretary of the Interior recommends to be spent from each of the tribal funds held in trust or otherwise, and the purpose for which said amounts are to be expended, and said statement shall show the amounts which he recommends to be disbursed (a) for per capita payments in money to the Indians, (b) for salaries or compensation of officers and employees, (c) for compensation of counsel and attorney fees, and (d) for support and civilization. (May 18, 1916, c. 125, § 27, 39 Stat. 158.)

143. Statement of fiscal affairs of Indian tribes.—Annually, on the first Monday in December, the Secretary of the Interior shall transmit to the Speaker of the House of Representatives a statement of the fiscal affairs of all Indian tribes for whose benefit expenditures from either public or tribal funds shall have been made by any officer, clerk, or employee in the Interior Department during the preceding fiscal year; and such statement shall show (1) the total amount of all moneys, from whatever source derived, standing to the credit of each tribe of Indians, in trust or otherwise, at the close of such fiscal year; (2) an analysis of such credits, by funds, showing how and when they were created, whether by treaty stipulation, agreement, or otherwise; (3) the total amount of disbursements from public or trust funds made on account of each tribe of Indians for such fiscal year; and (4) an analysis of such disbursements showing the amounts disbursed (a) for per capita payments in money to Indians, (b) for salaries or compensation of officers and employees, (c) for compensation of counsel and attorney's fees, and (d) for support and civilization. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 210, § 27, 36 Stat. 1077.)

144. Report as to moneys appropriated for encouragement of industry.—The Secretary of the Interior shall submit to Congress annually on the first Monday in December a detailed report of all moneys appropriated for the purpose of encouraging industry among Indians. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 222, § 1, 38 Stat. 587.)

145. Accounts between United States and tribes under reimbursable appropriations.—The Secretary of the Interior shall cause to be stated annual accounts between the United States and each tribe of Indians arising under appropriations made, which by law are required to be reimbursed to the United States, crediting in said accounts the sums so reimbursed, if any; and the Secretary of the Interior shall pay, out of any fund or funds belonging to such tribe or tribes of Indians applicable thereto and held by the United States in trust or otherwise, all balances of accounts due to the United States and not already reimbursed to the Treasury, and deposit such sums in the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts; and such accounts shall be received and examined by the General Accounting Office and the balances arising thereon certified to the Secretary of the Treasury. (Apr. 4, 1910, c. 140, § 1, 36 Stat. 270; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

146. Report of Indians present and receiving food.—Whenever the issue of food, clothing, or supplies of any kind to Indians is provided for, it shall be the duty of the agent or commissioner issuing the same, at such issue thereof, whether it be both of food and clothing, or either of them, or of any kind of supplies, to report to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs the number of Indians present and actually receiving the same. (R. S. § 2109.)

DEPOSIT, CARE, AND INVESTMENT OF INDIAN MONEYS

151. Deposits in bank by disbursing agents.—Any United States Indian agent, superintendent, or other disbursing agent of the Indian Service may deposit Indian moneys, individual or tribal, coming into his hands as custodian, in such national bank or banks as he may select: Provided, That the bank or banks so selected by him shall first execute to said disbursing agent a bond, with approved surety, in such an amount as will properly safeguard the funds to be deposited. Such bond shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior. (Apr. 30, 1908, c. 153, 35 Stat. 73.)

152. Proceeds of sales of Indian lands.—All moneys received from the sales of lands that have been, or may be, ceded to the United States by Indian tribes, by treaties providing for the investment or payment to the Indians, parties thereto, of the proceeds of the lands ceded by them, respectively, after deducting the expenses of survey and sale, any sums stipulated to be advanced, and the expenses of fulfilling any engagements contained therein, shall be paid into the Treasury in the same manner that moneys received from the sales of public lands are paid into the Treasury. (R. S. § 2093.)

153. Appropriation to carry out treaties.—All sums that are or may be required to be paid, and all moneys that are or may be required to be invested by the treaties mentioned in the preceding section, are appropriated in conformity to them, and shall be drawn from the Treasury as other public moneys are drawn therefrom, under such instructions as may from time to time be given by the President. (R. S. § 2094.)

154. Proceeds of sales of lands not subject to certain deductions.—No part of the expenses of the public lands service shall be deducted from the proceeds of Indian lands sold through the General Land Office, except as authorized by the treaty or agreement providing for the disposition of the lands. (July 4, 1884, c. 180, § 10, 23 Stat. 98.)

155. Disposal of proceeds of pasturage, sales of timber, coal, or other product.—The proceeds of all pasturage and sales of timber, coal, or other product of any Indian reservation, except those of the Five Civilized Tribes, and not the result of the labor of any member of such tribe, shall be covered into the Treasury for the benefit of such tribe under such regulations as the Secretary of the Interior shall prescribe; and the Secretary shall report his action in detail to Congress at its next session. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 141, § 1, 22 Stat. 590.)

156. Deposit of funds from sales of lands and property of Five Civilized Tribes.—The net receipts from the sales of surplus and unallotted lands and other tribal property belonging to any of the Five Civilized Tribes, after deducting the necessary expense of advertising and sale, may be deposited in national or State banks in the State of Oklahoma in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, such depositories to be designated by him under such rules and regulations governing the rate of interest thereon, the time of deposit and withdrawal thereof, and the security therefor, as he may prescribe. The interest accruing on such funds may be used to defray the expense of the per capita payments of such funds. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 210, § 17, 36 Stat. 1070.)

157. Investments of stock required by treaties.—All investments of stock, that are or may be required by treaties with the Indians, shall be made under the direction of the President; and special accounts of the funds under such treaties shall be kept at the Treasury, and statements thereof be annually laid before Congress. (R. S. § 2095.)

158. Investment of proceeds of lands.—The Secretary of the Interior shall invest in a manner which shall be in his judgment most safe, and beneficial for the fund, all moneys that may be received under treaties containing stipulations for the payment to the Indians, annually, of interest upon the proceeds of the lands ceded by them; and he shall make no investment of such moneys, or of any portion, at a lower rate of interest than 5 per centum per annum. (R. S. § 2096.)

159. Moneys due incompetents or orphans.—The Secretary of the Interior is directed to cause settlements to be made with all persons appointed by the Indian councils to receive moneys due to incompetent or orphan Indians, and to require all moneys found due to such incompetent or orphan Indians to be returned to the Treasury; and all moneys so returned shall bear interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum, until paid by order of the Secretary of the Interior to those entitled to the same. No money shall be paid to any person appointed by any Indian council to receive moneys due to incompetent or orphan Indians, but the same shall remain in the Treasury of the United States until ordered to be paid by the Secretary to those entitled to receive the same, and shall bear 6 per centum interest until so paid. (R. S. § 2108.)

160. Custody of stocks or bonds held in trust for tribes.—All stocks, bonds, or other securities or evidences of indebtedness held by the Secretary of the Interior on June 10, 1876, in trust for the benefit of certain Indian tribes shall, within thirty days from that date, be transferred to the Treasurer of the United States, who shall become the custodian thereof; and it shall be the duty of said Treasurer to collect all interest falling due on said bonds, stocks, and so forth, and deposit the same in the Treasury of the United States, and to issue certificates of deposit therefor, in favor of the Secretary of the Interior, as trustees for various Indian tribes. And the Treasurer of the United States shall also become the custodian of all bonds and stocks which may be purchased for the benefit of any Indian tribe or tribes after the transfer of funds herein authorized, and shall make all purchases and sales of bonds and stocks authorized by treaty stipulations or by acts of Congress when requested so to do by the Secretary of the Interior: Provided, That nothing in this section shall in any manner impair or affect the supervisory and appellate powers and duties in regard to Indian affairs which may be vested in the Secretary of the Interior as trustee for various Indian tribes, except as to the custody of said bonds and the collection of interest thereon as hereinbefore mentioned. (June 10, 1876, c. 122, 19 Stat. 58.)

161. Deposit in Treasury of trust funds.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to deposit, in the Treasury of the United States, any and all sums held by him on April 1, 1880, or which may be received by him, as Secretary of the Interior and trustee of various Indian tribes, on account of the redemption of United States bonds, or other stocks and securities belonging to the Indian trust fund, and all sums received on account of sales of Indian trust lands, and the sales of stocks lately purchased for temporary investment, whenever he is of the opinion that the best interests of the Indians will be promoted by such deposits, in lieu of investments; and the United States shall pay interest semiannually, from the date of deposit of any and all such sums in the United States Treasury, at the rate per annum stipulated by treaties or prescribed by law, and such payments shall be made in the usual manner, as each may become due, without further appropriation by Congress. (Apr. 1, 1880, c. 41, 21 Stat. 70.)

162. Segregation, deposit, and investment of tribal funds.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, to withdraw from the United States Treasury and segregate the common, or community funds of any Indian tribe which are, or may hereafter be, held in trust by the United States, and which are susceptible of segregation, so as to credit an equal share to each and every recognized member of the tribe except those whose pro rata shares have already been withdrawn under existing law, and to deposit the funds so segregated in banks to be selected by him, in the State or States in which the tribe is located, subject to withdrawal for payment to the individual owners or expenditure for their benefit under the regulations governing the use of other individual Indian moneys. The said Secretary is also authorized, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, to withdraw from the Treasury and deposit in banks in the State or States in which the tribe is located to the credit of the respective tribes, such common, or community, trust funds as are not susceptible of segregation as aforesaid, and on which the United States is not obligated by law to pay interest at higher rates than can be procured from the banks: Provided, That no tribal or individual Indian money shall be deposited in any bank until the bank shall have agreed to pay interest thereon at a reasonable rate and shall have furnished an acceptable bond or collateral security therefor, and United States bonds may be furnished as collateral security for either tribal or individual funds so deposited, in lieu of surety bonds: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Interior, if he deems it advisable and for the best interest of the Indians, may invest the trust funds of any tribe or individual Indian in United States Government bonds: And provided further, That any part of tribal funds required for support of schools or pay of tribal officers shall be excepted from segregation or deposit as herein authorized and the same shall be expended for the purposes aforesaid: Provided, however, That the funds of any tribe shall not be segregated until the final rolls of said tribe are complete: And provided further, That the foregoing shall not apply to the funds of the Five Civilized Tribes, or the Osage Tribe of Indians, in the State of Oklahoma, but the funds of such tribes and individual members thereof shall be deposited in the banks of Oklahoma or in the United States Treasury and may be secured by the deposit of United States bonds. (May 25, 1918, c. 86, § 28, 40 Stat. 591.)

163. Roll of membership of Indian tribes.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, wherever in his discretion such action would be for the best interest of the Indians, to cause a final roll to be made of the membership of any Indian tribe; such rolls shall contain the ages and quantum of Indian blood, and when approved by the said Secretary are declared to constitute the legal membership of the respective tribes for the purpose of segregating the tribal funds as provided in the preceding section, and shall be conclusive both as to ages and quantum of Indian blood: Provided, That the foregoing shall not apply to the Five Civilized Tribes or to the Osage Tribe of Indians, or to the Chippewa Indians of Minnesota, or the Menominee Indians of Wisconsin. (June 30, 1919, c. 4, § 1, 41 Stat. 9.)

Section 171. Sending of seditious messages.—Every person who sends any talk, message, or letter to any Indian nation, tribe, chief, or individual, with an intent to produce a contravention or infraction of any treaty or law of the United States, or to disturb the peace and tranquility of the United States, is liable to a penalty of $2,000. (R. S. § 2111.)

172. Carrying of seditious messages.—Every person who carries or delivers any talk, message, speech, or letter, intended to produce a contravention or infraction of any treaty or law of the United States, or to disturb the peace or tranquility of the United States, knowing the contents thereof, to or from any Indian nation, tribe, chief, or individual, from or to any person or persons whatever, residing within the United States, or from or to any subject, citizen, or agent of any foreign power or state, is liable to a penalty of $1,000. (R. S. § 2112.)

173. Correspondence with foreign nations to excite Indians to war.—Every person who carries on a correspondence, by letter or otherwise, with any foreign nation or power, with an intent to induce such foreign nation or power to excite any Indian nation, tribe, chief, or individual, to war against the United States, or to the violation of any existing treaty; or who alienates, or attempts to alienate, the confidence of any Indian or Indians from the Government of the United States, is liable to a penalty of $1,000. (R. S. § 2113.)

174. Superintendence by President over tribes west of Mississippi.—The President is authorized to exercise general superintendence and care over any tribe or nation which was removed upon an exchange of territory under authority of the act of May 28, 1830, "to provide for an exchange of lands with the Indians residing in any of the States or Territories, and for their removal west of the Mississippi;" and to cause such tribe or nation to be protected, at their new residence, against all interruption or disturbance from any other tribe or nation of Indians, or from any other person or persons whatever. (R. S. § 2114.)

175. District attorneys to represent Indians.—In all States and Territories where there are reservations or allotted Indians the United States district attorney shall represent them in all suits at law and in equity. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 209, § 1, 27 Stat. 631.)

176. Survey of reservations.—Whenever it becomes necessary to survey any Indian or other reservations, or any lands, the same shall be surveyed under the direction and control of the General Land Office, and as nearly as may be in conformity to the rules and regulations under which other public lands are surveyed. (R. S. § 2115.)

177. Purchases or grants of lands from Indians.—No purchase, grant, lease, or other conveyance of lands, or of any title or claim thereto, from any Indian nation or tribe of Indians, shall be of any validity in law or equity, unless the same be made by treaty or convention entered into pursuant to the Constitution. Every person who, not being employed under the authority of the United States, attempts to negotiate such treaty or convention, directly or indirectly, or to treat with any such nation or tribe of Indians for the title or purchase of any lands by them held or claimed, is liable to a penalty of $1,000. The agent of any State who may be present at any treaty held with Indians under the authority of the United States, in the presence and with the approbation of the commissioner of the United States appointed to hold the same, may, however, propose to, and adjust with, the Indians the compensation to be made for their claim to lands within such State, which shall be extinguished by treaty. (R. S. § 2116.)

178. Fees on behalf of Indian parties in contests under public land laws.—In contests initiated by or against Indians, to an entry, filing or other claims, under the laws of Congress relating to public lands for any sufficient cause affecting the legality or validity of the entry, filing or claim, the fees to be paid by and on behalf of the Indian party in any case shall be one-half of the fees provided by law in such cases, and said fees shall be paid by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, on an account stated by the proper land officers through the Commissioner of the General Land Office. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 209, § 1, 27 Stat. 631.)

179. Driving stock to feed on lands.—Every person who drives or otherwise conveys any stock of horses, mules, or cattle, to range and feed on any land belonging to any Indian or Indian tribe, without the consent of such tribe, is liable to a penalty of $1 for each animal of such stock. This section shall not apply to Creek lands. (R. S. § 2117; Mar. 1, 1901, c. 676, 31 Stat. 871.)

180. Settling on or surveying lands belonging to Indians by treaty.—Every person who makes a settlement on any lands belonging, secured, or granted by treaty with the United States to any Indian tribe, or surveys or attempts to survey such lands, or to designate any of the boundaries by marking trees, or otherwise, is liable to a penalty of $1,000. The President may, moreover, take such measures and employ such military force as he may judge necessary to remove any such person from the lands. (R. S. § 2118.)

181. Rights of white men marrying Indian women; tribal property.—No white man, not otherwise a member of any tribe of Indians, who may after August 9, 1888, marry an Indian woman, member of any Indian tribe in the United States, or any of its Territories except the Five Civilized Tribes in the Indian Territory, shall by such marriage acquire any right to any tribal property, privilege, or interest whatever to which any member of such tribe is entitled. (Aug. 9, 1888, c. 818, § 1, 25 Stat. 392.)

182. Rights of Indian women marrying white men; tribal property.—Every Indian woman, member of any such tribe of Indians, who may be married after August 9, 1888, to any citizen of the United States, is declared to become by such marriage a citizen of the United States, with all the rights, privileges, and immunities of any such citizen, being a married woman: Provided, That nothing in this section contained shall impair or in any way affect the right or title of such married woman to any tribal property or any interest therein. (Aug. 9, 1888, c. 818, § 2, 25 Stat. 392.)

183. Marriage of white men to Indian women; evidence.—Whenever the marriage of any white man with any Indian woman, a member of any such tribe of Indians, is required or offered to be proved in any judicial proceeding, evidence of the admission of such fact by the party against whom the proceeding is had, or evidence of general repute, or of cohabitation as married persons, or any other circumstantial or presumptive evidence from which the fact may be inferred, shall be competent. (Aug. 9, 1888, c. 818, § 3, 25 Stat. 392.)

184. Rights of children born of marriages between white men and Indian women.—All children born of a marriage solemnized prior to June 7, 1897, between a white man and an Indian woman by blood and not by adoption, where said Indian woman was on that date, or was at the time of her death, recognized by the tribe, shall have the same rights and privileges to the property of the tribe to which the mother belongs, or belonged at the time of her death, by blood, as any other member of the tribe, and no prior Act of Congress shall be construed as to debar such child of such right. (June 7, 1897, c. 3, § 1, 30 Stat. 90.)

185. Protection of Indians desiring civilized life.—Whenever any Indian, being a member of any band or tribe with whom the Government has or shall have entered into treaty stipulations, being desirous to adopt the habits of civilized life, has had a portion of the lands belonging to his tribe allotted to him in severalty, in pursuance of such treaty stipulations, the agent and superintendent of such tribe shall take such measures, not inconsistent with law, as may be necessary to protect such Indian in the quiet enjoyment of the lands so allotted to him. (R. S. § 2119.)

186. Trespassing on lands of civilized Indians.—Whenever any person of Indian blood belonging to a band or tribe which receives or is entitled to receive annuities from the United States, and who has not adopted the habits and customs of civilized life, and received his lands in severalty by allotment, as mentioned in the preceding section, commits any trespass upon the lands or premises of any Indian who has so received his lands by allotment, the superintendent and agent of such band or tribe shall ascertain the damages resulting from such trespass, and the sum so ascertained shall be withheld from the payment next thereafter to be made, either to the band or tribe to which the party committing such trespass shall belong, as in the discretion of the superintendent he shall deem proper; and the sum so withheld shall, if the Secretary of the Interior approves, be paid over by the agent or superintendent to the party injured. (R. S. § 2120.)

187. Suspension of chief for trespass.—Whenever such trespasser as is mentioned in the preceding section is the chief or headman of a band or tribe, the superintendent of Indian affairs in his district shall also suspend the trespasser from his office for three months, and shall during that time deprive him of all the benefits and emoluments connected therewith; but the chief or headman may be sooner restored to his former standing if the superintendent shall so direct. (R. S. § 2121.)

188. Sale of buildings belonging to United States.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to cause all such buildings belonging to the United States, as have been, or hereafter shall be, erected for the use of their agents, teachers, farmers, mechanics, and other persons employed amongst the Indians, to be sold whenever the lands on which the same are erected have become the property of the United States, and are no longer necessary for such purposes. (R. S. § 2122.)

189. Sale of lands with buildings.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to cause to be sold, at his discretion, with each of such buildings as are mentioned in the preceding section, a quantity of land not exceeding one section; and on the payment of the consideration agreed for into the Treasury of the United States by the purchaser, the Secretary shall make, execute, and deliver to the purchaser a title in fee simple for such lands and tenements. (R. S. § 2123.)

190. Sale of plants or tracts not needed for administrative or allotment purposes.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized in his discretion to sell and convey by deed or patent, under such terms and conditions as he may prescribe, at not less than their appraised value, nonreservation Government tracts or plants or tribal administrative plants or reserves, or parts thereof, not exceeding forty acres in area and not exceeding $2,000 in value, not longer needed for Indian administrative or allotment purposes, and small unallotted tracts not exceeding forty acres, where a sale will serve the tribal interests. All sales made under this section shall be at public auction, to the highest and best bidder.

And the Secretary of the Interior is further authorized, where a tract to be disposed of under this section or any other Act authorizing the disposition of tribal lands requires survey as basis for a deed or patent, to accept from the grantee, in addition to the purchase price, an amount sufficient to cover the survey costs.

The net proceeds of sale of any tribal site, plant, or tract shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the Indians owning the same, to be disposed of for their benefit in accordance with existing law; and the net proceeds of sales of Government-owned nontribal plants or lands shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States. (Apr. 12, 1924, c. 93, 43 Stat. 93.)

191. Transfer or sale of Government property at reservations.—Whenever there is on hand at any of the Indian reservations Government property not required for the use and benefit of the Indians on such reservations, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to cause any such property to be transferred to any other Indian reservation where it may be used advantageously, or to cause it to be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited and covered into the Treasury in conformity with section 487 of Title 31. (July 1, 1898, c. 545, § 6, 30 Stat. 596; June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 22, 36 Stat. 861.)

192. Sale by agents of cattle or horses not required.—The agent of each tribe of Indians, lawfully residing in the Indian country, is authorized to sell for the benefit of such Indians any cattle, horses, or other livestock belonging to the Indians, and not required for their use and subsistence, under such regulations as shall be established by the Secretary of the Interior. But no such sale shall be made so as to interfere with the execution of any order lawfully issued by the Secretary of War, connected with the movement or subsistence of troops. (R. S. § 2127.)

193. Proceedings against goods seized for violation of title.—When goods or other property shall be seized for any violation of this title it shall be lawful for the person prosecuting on behalf of the United States to proceed against such goods, or other property, in the manner directed to be observed in the case of goods, wares, or merchandise brought into the United States in violation of the revenue laws. (R. S. § 2125.)

194. Trial of right of property; burden of proof.—In all trials about the right of property in which an Indian may be a party on one side, and a white person on the other, the burden of proof shall rest upon the white person, whenever the Indian shall make out a presumption of title in himself from the fact of previous possession or ownership. (R. S. § 2126.)

195. Sale of cattle purchased by Government to nontribal members.—Where Indians are in possession or control of cattle or their increase which have been purchased by the Government such cattle shall not be sold to any person not a member of the tribe to which the owners of the cattle belong or to any citizen of the United States whether intermarried with the Indians or not except with the consent in writing of the agent of the tribe to which the owner or possessor of the cattle belongs. And all sales made in violation of this provision shall be void and the offending purchaser on conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $500 and imprisoned no less than six months. (July 4, 1884, c. 180, § 1, 23 Stat. 94.)

196. Sale or other disposition of dead timber.—The President of the United States may from year to year in his discretion under such regulations as he may prescribe authorize the Indians residing on reservations or allotments, the fee to which remains in the United States, to fell, cut, remove, sell, except as provided in the following section, or otherwise dispose of the dead timber standing, or fallen, on such reservation or allotment for the sole benefit of such Indian or Indians. But whenever there is reasonable cause to believe that such timber has been killed, burned, girdled, or otherwise injured for the purpose of securing its sale under this section then in that case such authority shall not be granted. (Feb. 16, 1889, c. 172, 25 Stat. 673.)

197. Disposition of dead timber on reservations in Minnesota.—The Secretary of the Interior may in his discretion, from year to year, under such regulations as he may prescribe, authorize the Indians residing on any Indian reservation in the State of Minnesota, whether the same has been allotted in severalty or is still unallotted, to fell, cut, remove, sell or otherwise dispose of the dead timber, standing or fallen on such reservation or any part thereof, for the sole benefit of such Indians; and he may also in like manner authorize the Chippewa Indians of Minnesota who have any interest or right in the proceeds derived from the sales of ceded Indian lands or the timber growing thereon, whereof the fee is still in the United States, to fell, cut, remove, or dispose of the dead timber, otherwise than by sale, standing or fallen, on such ceded land. But whenever there is reason to believe that such dead timber in either case has been killed, burned, girdled, or otherwise injured for the purpose of securing its sale under this section, then in that case authority shall not be granted. (June 7, 1897, c. 3, § 1, 30 Stat. 90; June 27, 1902, c. 1157, § 4, 32 Stat. 404.)

198. Contagious and infectious diseases; quarantine.—Whenever the Secretary of the Interior shall find any Indian afflicted with tuberculosis, trachoma, or other contagious or infectious diseases, he may, if in his judgment the health of the afflicted Indian or that of other persons require it, isolate, or quarantine such afflicted Indian in a hospital or other place for treatment. The Secretary of the Interior may employ such means as may be necessary in the isolation, or quarantine of such Indian, and it shall be the duty of such Indian so afflicted to obey any order or regulation made by the Secretary of the Interior in carrying out this provision. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 222, § 1, 38 Stat. 584.)

199. Access to records of Five Civilized Tribes.—The Secretary of the Interior, or his accredited representative, shall at all times have access to any books and records of the Choctaw, Chickasaw, Cherokee, Creek, and Seminole Tribes, whether in possession of any of the officers of either of said tribes or any officer or custodian thereof, of the State of Oklahoma. (Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2285, 34 Stat. 1027.)

200. Report of offense or case of Indian incarcerated in agency jail.—Whenever an Indian shall be incarcerated in an agency jail, or any other place of confinement, on an Indian reservation or at an Indian school, a report or record of the offense or case shall be immediately submitted to the superintendent of the reservation or such official or officials as he may designate, and such report shall be made a part of the records of the agency office. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 222, § 1, 38 Stat. 586.)

201. Penalties under title; how recovered.—All penalties which shall accrue under this title shall be sued for and recovered in an action in the nature of an action of debt, in the name of the United States, before any court having jurisdiction of the same, in any State or Territory in which the defendant shall be arrested or found, the one half to the use of the informer and the other half to the use of the United States, except when the prosecution shall be first instituted on behalf of the United States, in which case the whole shall be to their use. (R. S. § 2124.)

266. Sale of arms in district occupied by uncivilized or hostile Indians.

GENERALLY

Section 211. Creation of Indian reservations.—No Indian reservation shall be created, nor shall any additions be made to one heretofore created, within the limits of the States of New Mexico and Arizona, except by Act of Congress. (May 25, 1918, c. 86, § 2, 40 Stat. 570.)

212. Arson.—Every white person who shall set fire, or attempt to set fire, to any house, outhouse, cabin, stable, or other building, in the Indian country, to whomsoever belonging; and every Indian who shall set fire to any house, outhouse, cabin, stable, or other building, in the Indian country, in whole or in part belonging to or in lawful possession of a white person, and whether the same be consumed or not, shall be punishable by imprisonment at hard labor for not more than twenty-one years, nor less than two years. (R. S. § 2143.)

213. Assault.—Every white person who shall make an assault upon an Indian, or other person, and every Indian who shall make an assault upon a white person, within the Indian country, with a gun, rifle, sword, pistol, knife, or any other deadly weapon, with intent to kill or maim the person so assaulted, shall be punishable by imprisonment, at hard labor, for not more than five years, nor less than one year. (R. S. § 2142.)

214. Disposing of, or removing, cattle from Indian country.—Where restricted Indians are in possession or control of livestock purchased for or issued to them by the Government, or the increase therefrom, such stock shall not be sold, transferred, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of, except with the consent in writing of the superintendent or other officer in charge of the tribe to which the owner or possessor of the livestock belongs, and all transactions in violation of this provision shall be void. All such livestock so purchased or issued and the increase therefrom belonging to restricted Indians and grazed in the Indian country shall be branded with the I D or reservation brand of the jurisdiction to which the owners of such stock belong, and shall not be removed from the Indian country except with the consent in writing of the superintendent or other officer in charge of the tribe to which the owner or possessor of such livestock belongs, or by order of the Secretary of War, in connection with the movement of troops. Every person who violates the provisions of this section by selling or otherwise disposing of such stock, purchasing, or otherwise acquiring an interest therein, or by removing such stock from the Indian country, shall be fined in any sum not more than $1,000, or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both such fine and imprisonment. (R. S. § 2138; June 30, 1919, c. 4, § 1, 41 Stat. 9.)

215. Forgery and depredations on mails.—The general laws of the United States defining and prescribing punishments for forgery and for depredations upon the mails, shall extend to the Indian country. (R. S. § 2144.)

216. Hunting on Indian lands.—Every person, other than an Indian, who, within the limits of any tribe with whom the United States has existing treaties, hunts, or traps, or takes and destroys any peltries or game, except for subsistence in the Indian country, shall forfeit all the traps, guns, and ammunition in his possession, used or procured to be used for that purpose, and all peltries so taken; and shall be liable in addition to a penalty of $500. (R. S. § 2137.)

217. General laws as to punishment extended to Indian country.—Except as to crimes the punishment of which is expressly provided for in this title, the general laws of the United States as to the punishment of crimes committed in any place within the sole and exclusive jurisdiction of the United States, except the District of Columbia, shall extend to the Indian country. (R. S. § 2145.)

218. Exceptions as to extension of general laws.—The preceding section shall not be construed to extend to crimes committed by one Indian against the person or property of another Indian, nor to any Indian committing any offense in the Indian country who has been punished by the local law of the tribe, or to any case where, by treaty stipulations, the exclusive jurisdiction over such offenses is or may be secured to the Indian tribes respectively. (R. S. § 2146; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 318.)

219. Foreigners entering country without passports.—Every foreigner who shall go into the Indian country without a passport from the Department of the Interior, superintendent, agent, or subagent of Indian affairs, or officer of the United States commanding the nearest military post on the frontiers, or who shall remain intentionally therein after the expiration of such passport, shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000. Every such passport shall express the object of such person, the time he is allowed to remain, and the route he is to travel. (R. S. § 2134.)

220. Authority to remove person from Indian country.—The superintendent of Indian affairs, and the Indian agents and subagents, shall have authority to remove from the Indian country all persons found therein contrary to law; and the President is authorized to direct the military force to be employed in such removal. (R. S. § 2147.)

221. Person returning after removal from Indian country.—If any person who has been removed from the Indian country shall thereafter at any time return or be found within the Indian country, he shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000. (R. S. § 2148.)

222. Authority to remove person from reservation.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs is authorized and required, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, to remove from any tribal reservation any person being therein without authority of law, or whose presence within the limits of the reservation may, in the judgment of the commissioner, be detrimental to the peace and welfare of the Indians; and may employ for the purpose such force as may be necessary to enable the agent to effect the removal of such person. (R. S. § 2149.)

223. Employment of military; purposes.—The military forces of the United States may be employed in such manner and under such regulations as the President may direct—

First. In the apprehension of every person who may be in the Indian country in violation of law; and in conveying him immediately from the Indian country, by the nearest convenient and safe route, to the civil authority of the Territory or judicial district in which such person shall be found, to be proceeded against in due course of law;

Second. In the examination and seizure of stores, packages, and boats, authorized by law;

Third. In preventing the introduction of persons and property into the Indian country contrary to law; which persons and property shall be proceeded against according to law;

Fourth. And also in destroying and breaking up any distillery for manufacturing ardent spirits set up or continued within the Indian country. (R. S. § 2150.)

224. Detention and treatment of persons apprehended by military.—No person apprehended by military force under the preceding section shall be detained longer than five days after arrest and before removal. All officers and soldiers who may have any such person in custody shall treat him with all the humanity which the circumstances will permit. (R. S. § 2151.)

225. Arrest of absconding Indians.—The superintendents, agents, and subagents shall endeavor to procure the arrest and trial of all Indians accused of committing any crime, offense, or misdemeanor, and of all other persons who may have committed crimes or offenses within any State or Territory, and have fled into the Indian country, either by demanding the same of the chiefs of the proper tribe, or by such other means as the President may authorize. The President may direct the military force of the United States to be employed in the apprehension of such Indians, and also in preventing or terminating hostilities between any of the Indian tribes. (R. S. § 2152.)

226. Posse comitatus in executing process.—In executing process in the Indian country, the marshal may employ a posse comitatus, not exceeding three persons in any of the States respectively, to assist in executing process by arresting and bringing in prisoners from the Indian country, and allow them $3 for each day in lieu of all expenses and services. (R. S. § 2153.)

227. Reparation for injuries to property of Indians.—Whenever, in the commission, by a white person, of any crime, offense, or misdemeanor, within the Indian country, the property of any friendly Indian is taken, injured, or destroyed, and a conviction is had for such crime, offense, or misdemeanor, the person so convicted shall be sentenced to pay to such friendly Indian to whom the property may belong, or whose person may be injured, a sum equal to twice the just value of the property so taken, injured, or destroyed. (R. S. § 2154.)

228. Payment of reparation where offender unable.—If such offender shall be unable to pay a sum at least equal to the just value or amount, whatever such payment shall fall short of the same shall be paid out of the Treasury of the United States. If such offender can not be apprehended and brought to trial, the amount of such property shall be paid out of the Treasury. But no Indian shall be entitled to any payment out of the Treasury of the United States, for any such property, if he, or any of the nation to which he belongs, have sought private revenge, or have attempted to obtain satisfaction by any force or violence. (R. S. § 2155.)

229. Injuries to property by Indians.—If any Indian, belonging to any tribe in amity with the United States, shall, within the Indian country, take or destroy the property of any person lawfully within such country, or shall pass from Indian country into any State or Territory inhabited by citizens of the United States, and there take, steal, or destroy, any horse, or other property belonging to any citizen or inhabitant of the United States, such citizen or inhabitant, his representative, attorney, or agent, may make application to the proper superintendent, agent, or subagent, who, upon being furnished with the necessary documents and proofs, shall, under the direction of the President, make application to the nation or tribe to which such Indian shall belong, for satisfaction; and if such nation or tribe shall neglect or refuse to make satisfaction, in a reasonable time not exceeding twelve months, such superintendent, agent, or subagent shall make return of his doings to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, that such further steps may be taken as shall be proper, in the opinion of the President, to obtain satisfaction for the injury. (R. S. § 2156.)

230. Depositions by agents touching depredations.—The superintendents, agents, and subagents within their respective districts are authorized and empowered to take depositions of witnesses touching any depredations, within the purview of the three preceding sections, and to administer oaths to the deponents. (R. S. § 2157.)

TRAFFIC IN INTOXICATING LIQUORS

241. Intoxicating liquors; sale to Indians or introducing into Indian country.—No ardent spirits, ale, beer, wine, or intoxicating liquor or liquors of whatever kind shall be introduced, under any pretense, into the Indian country. Every person who sells, exchanges, gives, barters, or disposes of any ardent spirits, ale, beer, wine, or intoxicating liquors of any kind to any Indian under charge of any Indian superintendent or agent, or introduces or attempts to introduce any ardent spirits, ale, wine, beer, or intoxicating liquor of any kind into the Indian country shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than two years, and by fine of not more than $300 for each offense.

Any person who shall sell, give away, dispose of, exchange, or barter any malt, spirituous, or vinous liquor including beer, ale, and wine, or any ardent or other intoxicating liquor of any kind whatsoever, or any essence, extract, bitters, preparation, compound, composition, or any article whatsoever, under any name, label, or brand, which produces intoxication, to any Indian a ward of the Government under charge of any Indian superintendent or agent, or any Indian, including mixed bloods, over whom the Government, through its departments, exercises guardianship, and any person who shall introduce or attempt to introduce any malt, spirituous, or vinous liquor, including beer, ale, and wine, or any ardent or intoxicating liquor of any kind whatsoever into the Indian country, shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than sixty days, and by a fine of not less than $100 for the first offense and not less than $200 for each offense thereafter: Provided, however, That the person convicted shall be committed until fine and costs are paid. But it shall be a sufficient defense to any charge of introducing or attempting to introduce ardent spirits, ale, beer, wine, or intoxicating liquors into the Indian country that the acts charged were done under authority, in writing, from the War Department or any officer duly authorized thereunto by the War Department. (R. S. § 2139; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 244; July 23, 1892, c. 234, 27 Stat. 260; Jan. 30, 1897, c. 109, § 1, 29 Stat. 506.)

242. Osage County, Oklahoma, part of Indian country.—All of Osage County, Oklahoma, shall be deemed to be Indian country within the meaning of the Acts of Congress making it unlawful to introduce intoxicating liquors into the Indian country. (Mar. 2, 1917, c. 146, § 17, 39 Stat. 983.)

243. Complaints; arrests and examinations.—All complaints for the arrest of any person or persons made for violation of the first paragraph of section 241 shall be made in the county where the offense shall have been committed, or if committed upon or within any reservation not included in any county, then in any county adjoining such reservation; but in all cases such arrests shall be made before any United States court commissioner residing in such adjoining county, or before any magistrate or judicial officer authorized by the laws of the State in which such reservation is located to issue warrants for the arrest and examination of offenders by section 591 of Title 18. And all persons so arrested shall, unless discharged upon examination, be held to answer and stand trial before the court of the United States having jurisdiction of the offense. (July 23, 1892, c. 234, 27 Stat. 261.)

244. Possession of intoxicating liquors in Indian country.—Possession by a person of intoxicating liquors in the Indian country where the introduction is or was prohibited by treaty or Federal statute shall be an offense and punished in accordance with the provisions of section 241. (May 25, 1918, c. 86, § 1, 40 Stat. 563; June 30, 1919, c. 4, § 1, 41 Stat. 4.)

245. Possession of intoxicating liquor prima facie evidence of unlawful introduction.—The possession by a person of intoxicating liquors in the country where the introduction is prohibited by treaty or Federal statute shall be prima facie evidence of unlawful introduction. (May 18, 1916, c. 125, § 1, 39 Stat. 124.)

246. Searches and seizures.—If any superintendent of Indian affairs, Indian agent, or subagent, or commanding officer of a military post, has reason to suspect or is informed that any white person or Indian is about to introduce or has introduced any spirituous liquor or wine into the Indian country in violation of law, such superintendent, agent, subagent, or commanding officer, may cause the boats, stores, packages, wagons, sleds, and places of deposit of such person to be searched; and if any such liquor is found therein, the same, together with the boats, teams, wagons, and sleds used in conveying the same, and also the goods, packages, and peltries of such person, shall be seized and delivered to the proper officer, and shall be proceeded against by libel in the proper court, and forfeited, one-half to the informer and the other half to the use of the United States; and if such person be a trader, his license shall be revoked and his bond put in suit. It shall moreover be the duty of any person in the service of the United States, or of any Indian, to take and destroy any ardent spirits or wine found in the Indian country, except such as may be introduced therein by the War Department. In all cases arising under this section and section 241, Indians shall be competent witnesses. (R. S. § 2140.)

247.—Vehicles subject to seizure whether used by owner or other persons.—Automobiles or any other vehicles or conveyances used in introducing, or attempting to introduce, intoxicants into the Indian country, or where the introduction is prohibited by treaty or Federal statute, whether used by the owner thereof or other person, shall be subject to the seizure, libel, and forfeiture provided in the preceding section. (Mar. 2, 1917, c. 146, § 1, 39 Stat. 970.)

86270°—26——45

248. Powers of agent and deputies to suppress liquor traffic.—The powers conferred by section 246 upon Indian agents, and subagents, and commanding officers of military posts are hereby conferred upon the special agent of the Indian Bureau for the suppression of the liquor traffic among Indians and in the Indian country and duly authorized deputies working under his supervision. (Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2285, 34 Stat. 1017.)

249. Officers, soldiers, or employees of Army furnishing liquor to Indians.—No part of section 241 or of section 246 shall be a bar to the prosecution of any officer, soldier, sutler or storekeeper, attaché, or employee of the Army of the United States who shall barter, donate, or furnish in any manner whatsoever liquors, beer, or any intoxicating beverage whatsoever to any Indian. (July 4, 1884, c. 180, § 1, 23 Stat. 94.)

250. Powers of chief special officer and deputies to suppress liquor traffic.—The powers conferred by section 504 of Title 28 upon marshals and their deputies are conferred upon the chief special officer for the suppression of the liquor traffic among Indians and duly authorized officers working under his supervision whose appointments are made or affirmed by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs or the Secretary of the Interior. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 388, § 1, 37 Stat. 519.)

251. Setting up distillery.—Every person who shall, within the Indian country, set up or continue any distillery for manufacturing ardent spirits, shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000; and the superintendent of Indian affairs, Indian agent, or subagent, within the limits of whose agency any distillery of ardent spirits is set up or continued, shall forthwith destroy and break up the same. (R. S. § 2141.)

252. Application of provisions as to search and seizure and setting up distillery.—The provisions of sections 246 and 251 shall also apply to beer and other intoxicating liquors named in section 241. (May 18, 1916, c. 125, § 1, 39 Stat. 124.)

253. Wines for sacramental purposes.—It shall not be unlawful to introduce and use wines solely for sacramental purposes, under church authority, at any place within the Indian country or any Indian reservation, including the Pueblo Reservations in New Mexico. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 388, § 1, 37 Stat. 519.)

TRADERS WITH INDIANS

261. Power to appoint traders with Indians.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs shall have the sole power and authority to appoint traders to the Indian tribes and to make such rules and regulations as he may deem just and proper specifying the kind and quantity of goods and the prices at which such goods shall be sold to the Indians. (Aug. 15, 1876, c. 289, § 5, 19 Stat. 200.)

262. Persons permitted to trade with Indians.—Any person desiring to trade with the Indians on any Indian reservation shall, upon establishing the fact, to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, that he is a proper person to engage in such trade, be permitted to do so under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Indian Affairs may prescribe for the protection of said Indians. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 832, § 1, 31 Stat. 1066; Mar. 3, 1903, c. 994, § 10, 32 Stat. 1009.)

263. Prohibition of trade by President.—The President is authorized, whenever in his opinion the public interest may rquire the same, to prohibit the introduction of goods, or of any particular article, into the country belonging to any Indian tribe, and to direct all licenses to trade with such tribe to be revoked, and all applications therefor to be rejected. No trader to any other tribe shall, so long as such prohibition may continue, trade with any Indians of or for the tribe against which such prohibition is issued. (R. S. § 2132.)

264. Trading without license; white persons as clerks.—Any person other than an Indian of the full blood who shall attempt to reside in the Indian country, or on any Indian reservation, as a trader, or to introduce goods, or to trade therein, without such license, shall forfeit all merchandise offered for sale to the Indians or found in his possession, and shall moreover be liable to a penalty of $500: Provided, That this section shall not apply to any person residing among or trading with the Choctaws, Cherokees, Chickasaws, Creeks, or Seminoles, commonly called the Five Civilized Tribes, residing in said Indian country, and belonging to the Union Agency therein: And provided further, That no white person shall be employed as a clerk by any Indian trader, except such as trade with said Five Civilized Tribes, unless first licensed so to do by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, under and in conformity to regulations to be established by the Secretary of the Interior. (R. S. § 2133; July 31, 1882, c. 360, 22 Stat. 179.)

265. Prohibited purchases and sales.—Every person, other than an Indian, who, within the Indian country, purchases or receives of any Indian, in the way of barter, trade, or pledge, a gun, trap, or other article commonly used in hunting, any instrument of husbandry, or cooking utensils of the kind commonly obtained by the Indians in their intercourse with the white people, or any article of clothing, except skins or furs, shall be liable to a penalty of $50. (R. S. § 2135.)

266. Sale of arms in district occupied by uncivilized or hostile Indians.—The Secretary of the Interior shall adopt such rules as may be necessary to prohibit the sale of arms or ammunition within any district or country occupied by uncivilized or hostile Indians, and shall enforce the same. If any trader, his agent, or any person acting for or under him, shall sell any arms or ammunition at his trading post or other place within any district or country occupied by uncivilized or hostile Indians, contrary to the rules and regulations of the Secretary of the Interior, such trader shall forfeit his right to trade with the Indians, and the Secretary shall exclude such trader, and the agent, or other person so offending, from the district or country so occupied. (R. S. §§ 467, 2136.)

302. Consent of parents to placing youth in reform school.

Section 271. Employment of instructors for Indians.—The President may, in every case where he shall judge improvement in the habits and condition of such Indians practicable, and that the means of instruction can be introduced with their own consent, employ capable persons of good moral character to instruct them in the mode of agriculture suited to their situation; and for teaching their children in reading, writing, and arithmetic, and performing such other duties as may be enjoined according to such instructions and rules as the President may give and prescribe for the regulation of their conduct, in the discharge of their duties. A report of the proceedings adopted in the execution of this provision shall be annually laid before Congress. (R. S. § 2071.)

272. Superintendent of Indian schools.—There shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a person of knowledge and experience in the management, training, and practical education of children, to be Superintendent of Indian Schools, whose duty it shall be to visit and inspect the schools in which Indians are taught in whole or in part from appropriations from the United States Treasury, and report to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, what, in his judgment, are the defects, if any, in any of them, in system, in administration, or in means for the most effective advancement of the pupils therein toward civilization and self-support, and what changes are needed to remedy such defects as may exist, and to perform such other duties in connection with Indian schools as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 412, § 10, 25 Stat. 1003.)

273. Detail of Army officer.—The Secretary of War shall be authorized to detail an officer of the Army, not above the rank of captain, for special duty with reference to Indian education. (June 23, 1879, c. 35, § 7, 21 Stat. 35.)

274. Employment of Indian girls and boys as assistants.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs shall employ Indian girls as assistant matrons and Indian boys as farmers and industrial teachers in all Indian schools when it is practicable to do so. (June 7, 1897, c. 3, § 1, 30 Stat. 83.)

275. Leaves of absence to employees.—Employees of the Indian schools may be allowed, in addition to annual leave, educational leave not to exceed thirty days per calendar year for attendance at educational gatherings, conventions, institutions, or training schools, if the interest of the service require, and under such regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe, and no additional salary or expense on account of this leave of absence shall be incurred. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 388, § 1, 37 Stat. 519; Aug. 24, 1922, c. 286, 42 Stat. 829.)

276. Vacant military posts or barracks for schools; detail of Army officers.—The Secretary of War is authorized to set aside, for use in the establishment of normal and industrial training schools for Indian youth from the nomadic tribes having educational treaty claims upon the United States, any vacant posts or barracks, so long as they may not be required for military occupation, and to detail one or more officers of the Army for duty in connection with Indian education, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, at each such school so established: Provided, That moneys appropriated or to be appropriated for general purposes of education among the Indians may be expended, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, for the education of Indian youth at such posts, institutions, and schools as he may consider advantageous, or as Congress from time to time may authorize and provide. (July 31, 1882, c. 363, 22 Stat. 181.)

277. Former Apache military post established as Theodore Roosevelt Indian School.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to establish and maintain the former Fort Apache military post as an Indian boarding school for the purpose of carrying out treaty obligations, to be known as the Theodore Roosevelt Indian School: Provided, That the Fort Apache military post, and land appurtenant thereto, shall remain in the possession and custody of the Secretary of the Interior so long as they shall be required for Indian school purposes. (Jan. 24, 1923, c. 42, 42 Stat. 1187.)

278. No appropriation for sectarian school.—It is declared to be the settled policy of the Government to make no appropriation whatever out of the Treasury of the United States for education of Indian children in any sectarian school. (June 7, 1897, c. 3, 30 Stat. 79; Mar. 2, 1917, c. 146, § 21, 39 Stat. 988.)

279. Rations to mission schools.—Mission schools on an Indian reservation may, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, receive for such Indian children duly enrolled therein, the rations of food and clothing to which said children would be entitled under treaty stipulations if such children were living with their parents. (June 21, 1906, c. 3504, 34 Stat. 326.)

280. Patents of lands to missionary boards or religious organizations.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to issue a patent to the duly authorized missionary board, or other proper authority, of any religious organization engaged in mission or school work on any Indian reservation for such lands thereon as were prior to September 21, 1922, set apart to and were on that date being actually and beneficially used and occupied by such organization solely for mission or school purposes, the area so patented to not exceed one hundred and sixty acres to any one organization at any station: Provided, That such patent shall provide that when no longer used for mission or school purposes said lands shall revert to the Indian owners. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 367, § 3, 42 Stat. 995.)

281. Children taking lands in severalty not excluded.—In the expenditure of money appropriated for any of the purposes of education of Indian children, those children of Indians who have taken or may take lands in severalty under any existing law shall not, by reason thereof, be excluded from the benefits of such appropriation. (Aug. 15, 1894, c. 290, § 1, 28 Stat. 311.)

282. Regulations by Secretary of Interior to secure attendance at school.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to make and enforce such rules and regulations as may be necessary to secure the enrollment and regular attendance of eligible Indian children who are wards of the Government in schools maintained for their benefit by the United States or in public schools. (Feb. 14, 1920, c. 75, § 1, 41 Stat. 410.)

283. Regulations for withholding rations for nonattendance at schools.—The Secretary of the Interior may in his discretion, establish such regulations as will prevent the issuing of rations or the furnishing of subsistence either in money or in kind to the head of any Indian family for or on account of any Indian child or children between the ages of eight and twenty-one years who shall not have attended school during the preceding year in accordance with such regulations. This provision shall not apply to reservations or part of reservations where sufficient school facilities have not been furnished nor until full notice of such regulations shall have been given to the Indians to be affected thereby.

The amount and value of subsistence so withheld shall be credited to the tribe or tribes from whom the same is withheld, to be issued and paid when in the judgment of the Secretary of the Interior they shall have fully complied with such regulations. The Secretary of the Interior may in his discretion withhold rations, clothing and other annuities from Indian parents or guardians who refuse or neglect to send and keep their children of proper school age in some school a reasonable portion of the year. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 209, § 1, 27 Stat. 628, 635.)

284. Regulations by Commissioner of Indian Affairs for attendance at schools.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs, subject to the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, is authorized and directed to make and enforce by proper means such rules and regulations as will secure the attendance of Indian children of suitable age and health at schools established and maintained for their benefit. (July 13, 1892, c. 164, § 1, 27 Stat. 143.)

285. Withholding annuities from Osage Indians for nonattendance at schools.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs is authorized in his discretion to withhold any annuities or other payments due to Osage Indian minors, above six years of age, whose parents fail, neglect, or refuse to place such minors in some established school for a reasonable portion of each year and to keep such children in regular attendance thereof. The Commissioner of Indian Affairs is authorized to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary to put this provision into force and effect. (June 30, 1913, c. 4, § 18, 38 Stat. 96.)

286. Sending child to school out of State without consent.—No Indian child shall be sent from any Indian reservation to a school beyond the State or Territory in which said reservation is situated without the voluntary consent of the father or mother of such child if either of them is living, and if neither of them is living without the voluntary consent of the next of kin of such child. Such consent shall be made before the agent of the reservation, and he shall send to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs his certificate that such consent has been voluntarily given before such child shall be removed from such reservation. And it shall be unlawful for any Indian agent or other employee of the Government to induce, or seek to induce, by withholding rations or by other improper means, the parents or next of kin of any Indian to consent to the removal of any Indian child beyond the limits of any reservation. (Aug. 15, 1894, c. 290, § 11, 28 Stat. 313; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 188, § 1, 28 Stat. 906.)

287. Taking child to school in another State without written consent.—No Indian child shall be taken from any school in any State or Territory to a school in any other State against its will or without the written consent of its parents. (June 10, 1896, c. 398, § 1, 29 Stat. 348.)

288. White children in Indian day schools.—White children may, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, be admitted to any Indian day school: Provided, That the tuition fees charged for such children shall in no case exceed the tuition fees allowed or charged by the State or county in which such school is situated for the children admitted in the common schools of such State or county: And provided further, That all tuition fees paid for white children enrolled in Indian day schools shall be deposited in the United States Treasury to reimburse the funds out of which the schools last mentioned are maintained. (Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2285, 34 Stat. 1018.)

289. White children in Indian boarding schools.—White children may, under rules prescribed by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, be admitted to Indian boarding schools on the payment of tuition fees at a rate to be fixed in said rules: Provided further, That all tuition fees paid for white children so enrolled shall be deposited in the United States Treasury to reimburse the fund out of which the school is supported. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 263, 35 Stat. 783.)

290. Transportation of pupils under fourteen at Government expense.—No Indian pupil under the age of fourteen years shall be transported at Government expense to any Indian school beyond the limits of the State or Territory in which the parents of such child reside or of the adjoining State or Territory. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 263, 35 Stat. 783.)

291. Removal of Government property at schools.—Where there is Government property on hand at any of the Indian schools not required for the use or benefit of the Indians of said schools, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to move such property to other Indian schools where it may be required. (Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2285, 34 Stat. 1016.)

292. Suspension or discontinuance of schools.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs may, when in his judgment the good of the service will be promoted thereby, suspend or discontinue any reservation Indian school, and, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, may sell any reservation school building or plant that is no longer desirable as an Indian school upon any reservation and invest the proceeds in other school buildings and plants, as the needs of the service may demand, under such rules and regulations as he may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, prescribe. (Apr. 21, 1904, c. 1402, § 1, 33 Stat. 211.)

293. Sale of lands purchased for day school or other Indian administrative uses.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to cause to be sold, to the highest bidder, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, any tract or part of a tract of land purchased by the United States for day school or other Indian administrative uses, not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres in any one tract, when said land or a part thereof is no longer needed for the original purpose; the net proceeds therefrom in all cases to be paid into the Treasury of the United States; title to be evidenced by a patent in fee simple for such lands as can be described in terms of the legal survey, or by deed duly executed by the Secretary of the Interior containing such metes-and-bounds description as will identify the land so conveyed as the land which had been purchased: Provided, That where the purchase price was paid from tribal funds, such proceeds shall be placed in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the respective tribes of Indians. (Mar. 2, 1917, c. 146, § 1, 39 Stat. 973.)

294. Sale of certain abandoned buildings on lands belonging to Indian tribes.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to sell and convey at public sale, to the highest bidder, under such regulations and under such terms and conditions as he may prescribe, at not less than the appraised value thereof, any abandoned day or boarding school plant, or any abandoned agency buildings, situated on lands belonging to any Indian tribe and not longer needed for Indian or administrative purposes, and to sell therewith not to exceed one hundred and sixty acres of land on which such plant or buildings may stand. Title to all lands disposed of under the provisions of this section shall pass to the purchaser by deed or by patent in fee, with such reservations or conditions as the said Secretary may deem just and proper, no purchaser to acquire more than one hundred and sixty acres in any one tract: Provided, That the proceeds of all such sales shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the Indians to whom said lands belong, to be disposed of in accordance with existing law. (Feb. 14, 1920, c. 75, § 1, 41 Stat. 415.)

295. Supervision of expenditure of appropriations for school purposes.—All expenditure of money appropriated for school purposes among the Indians, shall be at all times under the supervision and direction of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and in all respects in conformity with such conditions, rules, and regulations as to the conduct and methods of instruction and expenditure of money as may be from time to time prescribed by him, subject to the supervision of the Secretary of the Interior. (Apr. 30, 1908, c. 153, § 1, 35 Stat. 72.)

296. Limitation on per capita expenditure for school purposes.—Except for pay of superintendents and for transportation of goods and supplies and transportation of pupils, not more than $270 shall be expended from appropriations made for the annual support and education of any one pupil in any Indian school, unless the attendance in any school shall be less than two hundred pupils, in which case the Secretary of the Interior may authorize a per capita expenditure of not to exceed $300: Provided, That the total amount appropriated for the support of such school shall not be exceeded: Provided further, That the number of pupils in any school entitled to the per capita allowance hereby provided for shall be based upon average attendance, determined by dividing the total daily attendance by the number of days the school is in session. (June 30, 1919, c. 4, § 1, 41 Stat. 6; Feb. 21, 1925, c. 280, 43 Stat. 958.)

297. Expenditure for children with less than one-fourth Indian blood.—No appropriation, except appropriations made pursuant to treaties, shall be used to educate children of less than one-fourth Indian blood whose parents are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they live and where there are adequate free school facilities provided. (May 25, 1918, c. 86, § 1, 40 Stat. 564.)

298. Census of Indians and report of numbers of school children.—Each Indian agent shall be required, in his annual report, to submit a census of the Indians at his agency or upon the reservation under his charge, the number of males above eighteen years of age, the number of females above fourteen years of age, the number of school children between the ages of six and sixteen years, the number of schoolhouses at his agency, the number of schools in operation and the attendance at each, and the names of teachers employed and salaries paid such teachers. (July 4, 1884, c. 180, § 9, 23 Stat. 98.)

299. Report of expenditure of Indian education fund.—The Secretary of the Interior shall report annually, on or before the first Monday of December of each year, in what manner and for what purposes the general education fund for the preceding fiscal year has been expended; and said report shall embrace the number and kind of schoolhouses erected, and their cost, as well as cost of repairs, names of every teacher employed, and compensation allowed, the location of each school, and the average attendance at each school. (Mar. 2, 1887, c. 320, § 1, 24 Stat. 465.)

300. Report of expenditure for Indian school and agency.—The Secretary of the Interior shall report annually to Congress the amount expended at each school and agency for construction, lease, purchase, repairs, and improvements of school and agency buildings, and for sewerage, water supply, and lighting plants, and for purchase of school sites. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 210, § 1, 36 Stat. 1060.)

301. Appropriations for experiments on Indian schools or agency farms.—The Secretary of the Interior shall transmit to Congress annually on the first Monday in December a cost account for the preceding fiscal year relating to the use of appropriations made to conduct experiments on Indian school or agency farms designed to test the possibilities of soil and climate in the cultivation of trees, grains, vegetables, and fruits, for the purposes of preserving living and growing timber on Indian reservations and allotments, and to advise the Indians as to the proper care of forests. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 210, § 1, 36 Stat. 1060.)

302. Consent of parents to placing youth in reform school.—The consent of parents, guardians, or next of kin shall not be required to place Indian youth in an "Indian Reform School." (June 21, 1906, c. 3504, 34 Stat. 328.)

Chapter 8.—RIGHTS OF WAY THROUGH INDIAN LANDS.

Sec.

311. Opening highways.
312. Rights of way for railway, telegraph and telephone lines; townsite stations.
313. Width of right of way.
314. Survey; maps; compensation.
315. Time for completion of road; forfeiture.
316. Rights of several roads through canyons.

Sec.
317. Regulations.
318. Amendment or repeal of sections.
319. Rights of way for telephone and telegraph lines.
320. Acquisition of lands for reservoirs or materials.
321. Rights of way for pipe lines.

Section 311. Opening highways.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to grant permission, upon compliance with such requirements as he may deem necessary, to the proper State or local authorities for the opening and establishment of public highways, in accordance with the laws of the State or Territory in which the lands are situated, through any Indian reservation or through any lands which have been allotted in severalty to any individual Indian under any laws or treaties but which have not been conveyed to the allottee with full power of alienation. (Mar. 8, 1901, c. 832, § 4, 31 Stat. 1084.)

312. Rights of way for railway, telegraph and telephone lines; town-site stations.—A right of way for a railway, telegraph and telephone line through any Indian reservation in any State or Territory, except Oklahoma, or through any lands reserved for an Indian agency or for other purposes in connection with the Indian service, or through any lands which have been allotted in severalty to any individual Indian under any law or treaty, but which have not been conveyed to the allottee with full power of alienation, is granted to any railroad company organized under the laws of the United States, or of any State or Territory, which shall comply with the provisions of sections 312 to 318 inclusive and such rules and regulations as may be prescribed thereunder: Provided, That no right of way shall be granted under said sections until the Secretary of the Interior is satisfied that the company applying has made said application in good faith and with intent and ability to construct said road, and in case objection to the granting of such right of way shall be made, said Secretary shall afford the parties so objecting a full opportunity to be heard: Provided further, That where a railroad has heretofore been constructed, or is in actual course of construction, no parallel right of way within ten miles on either side shall be granted by the Secretary of the Interior unless, in his opinion, public interest will be promoted thereby: Provided also, That as a condition precedent to each and every grant of a right of way under authority of said sections, each and every railway company applying for such grant shall stipulate that it will construct and permanently maintain suitable passenger and freight stations for the convenience of each and every town site established by the Government along said right of way. (Mar. 2, 1899, c. 374, § 1, 30 Stat. 990; Feb. 28, 1902, c. 134, § 23, 32 Stat. 50; June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 16, 36 Stat. 859.)

313. Width of right of way.—Such right of way shall not exceed fifty feet in width on each side of the center line of the road, except where there are heavy cuts and fills, when it shall not exceed one hundred feet in width on each side of the road, and may include grounds adjacent thereto for station buildings, depots, machine shops, side tracks, turnouts, and water stations, not to exceed two hundred feet in width by a length of three thousand feet, and not more than one station to be located within any one continuous length of ten miles of road. (Mar. 2, 1899, c. 374, § 2, 30 Stat. 990; June 21, 1906, c. 3504, 34 Stat. 330.)

314. Survey; maps; compensation.—The line of route of said road may be surveyed and located through and across any of said lands at any time, upon permission therefor being obtained from the Secretary of the Interior; but before the grant of such right of way shall become effective a map of the survey of the line or route of said road must be filed with and approved by the Secretary of the Interior, and the company must make payment to the Secretary of the Interior for the benefit of the tribe or nation, of full compensation for such right of way, including all damage to improvements and adjacent lands, which compensation shall be determined and paid under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, in such manner as he may prescribe. Before any such railroad shall be constructed through any land, claim, or improvement, held by individual occupants or allottees in pursuance of any treaties or laws of the United States, compensation shall be made to such occupant or allottee for all property to be taken, or damage done, by reason of the construction of such railroad. In case of failure to make amicable settlement with any such occupant or allottee, such compensation shall be determined by the appraisement of three disinterested referees, to be appointed by the Secretary of the Interior, who, before entering upon the duties of their appointment, shall take and subscribe before competent authority an oath that they will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of their appointment, which oath, duly certified, shall be returned with their award to the Secretary of the Interior. If the referees can not agree, then any two of them are authorized to make the award. Either party being dissatisfied with the finding of the referees shall have the right within sixty days after the making of the award and notice of the same, to appeal, if said land is situated in any State or Territory other than Oklahoma, to the United States district court for such State or Territory, where the case shall be tried de novo and the judgment for damages rendered by the court shall be final and conclusive.

When proceedings are commenced in court as aforesaid, the railroad company shall deposit the amount of the award made by the referees with the court to abide the judgment thereof, and then have the right to enter upon the property sought to be condemned and proceed with the construction of the railway. Each of the referees shall receive for his compensation the sum of $4 per day while engaged in the hearing of any case submitted to them under sections 312 to 318 inclusive. Witnesses shall receive the fees usually allowed by courts within the district where such land is located. Costs, including compensation of the referees, shall be made part of the award or judgment, and be paid by such railroad company. (Mar. 2, 1899, c. 374, § 3, 30 Stat. 991; Feb. 28, 1902, c. 134, § 23, 32 Stat. 50.)

315. Time for completion of road; forfeiture.—If any such company shall fail to construct and put in operation one-tenth of its entire line in one year, or to complete its road within three years after the approval of its map of location by the Secretary of the Interior, the right of way hereby granted shall be deemed forfeited and abandoned ipso facto as to that portion of the road not then constructed and in operation: Provided, That the Secretary may, when he deems proper, extend, for a period not exceeding two years, the time for the completion of any road for which right of way has been granted and a part of which shall have been built. (Mar. 2, 1899, c. 374, § 4, 30 Stat. 991.)

316. Rights of several roads through canyons.—The provisions of section 933 of Title 43 relating to the rights of several railroads through any canyon, pass, or defile are extended and made applicable to rights of way granted under sections 312 to 318, inclusive, and to railroad companies obtaining such rights of way. (Mar. 2, 1899, c. 374, § 6, 30 Stat. 992.)

317. Regulations.—The Secretary of the Interior shall make all needful rules and regulations, not inconsistent herewith, for the proper execution and carrying into effect of all the provisions of sections 312 to 318, inclusive, of this chapter. (Mar. 2, 1899, c. 374, § 7, 30 Stat. 992.)

318. Amendment or repeal of sections.—Congress hereby reserves the right at any time to alter, amend, or repeal the six preceding sections or any portion thereof. (Mar. 2, 1899, c. 374, § 8, 30 Stat. 992.)

319. Rights of way for telephone and telegraph lines.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and empowered to grant a right of way, in the nature of an easement, for the construction, operation, and maintenance of telephone and telegraph lines and offices for general telephone and telegraph business through any Indian reservation, through any lands held by an Indian tribe or nation in the former Indian Territory, through any lands reserved for an Indian agency or Indian school, or for other purpose in connection with the Indian service, or through any lands which have been allotted in severalty to any individual Indian under any law or treaty, but which have not been conveyed to the allottee with full power of alienation, upon the terms and conditions herein expressed. No such lines shall be constructed across Indian lands, as above mentioned, until authority therefor has first been obtained from the Secretary of the Interior, and the maps of definite location of the lines shall be subject to his approval. The compensation to be paid the tribes in their tribal capacity and the individual allottees for such right of way through their lands shall be determined in such manner as the Secretary of the Interior may direct, and shall be subject to his final approval; and where such lines are not subject to State or Territorial taxation the company or owner of the line shall pay to the Secretary of the Interior, for the use and benefit of the Indians, such annual tax as he may designate, not exceeding $5 for each ten miles of line so constructed and maintained; and all such lines shall be constructed and maintained under such rules and regulations as said Secretary may prescribe. But nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to exempt the owners of such lines from the payment of any tax that may be lawfully assessed against them by either State, Territorial, or municipal authority; and Congress hereby expressly reserves the right to regulate the tolls or charges for the transmission of messages over any lines constructed under the provisions of this section: Provided, That incorporated cities and towns into or through which such telephone or telegraphic lines may be constructed shall have the power to regulate the manner of construction therein, and nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to deny the right of municipal taxation in such towns and cities. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 832, § 3, 31 Stat. 1083.)

320. Acquisition of lands for reservoirs or materials.—When, in the judgment of the Secretary of the Interior, it is necessary for any railway company owning or operating a line of railway in any Indian reservation to acquire lands in such Indian reservation for reservoirs, material, or ballast pits for the construction, repair, and maintenance of its railway, or for the purpose of planting and growing thereon trees to protect its line of railway, the said Secretary is authorized to grant such lands to any such railway company under such terms and conditions and such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the said Secretary.

When any railway company desiring to secure the benefits of this provision shall file with the Secretary of the Interior an application describing the lands which it desires to purchase, upon the payment of the price agreed upon the said Secretary shall cause such lands to be conveyed to the railway company applying therefor upon such terms and conditions as he may deem proper: Provided, That no lands shall be acquired under the terms of this provision in greater quantities than forty acres for any one reservoir, and one hundred and sixty acres for any material or ballast pit, to the extent of not more than one reservoir and one material or gravel pit in any one section of ten miles of any such railway in any Indian reservation: And provided further, That the lands acquired for tree planting shall be taken only at such places along the line of the railway company applying therefor as in the judgment of the said Secretary may be necessary, and shall be taken in strips adjoining and parallel with the right of way of the railway company taking the same, and shall not exceed one hundred and fifty feet in width.

All moneys paid for such lands shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the tribe or tribes, and the moneys received by said Secretary as damages sustained by individual members of the Indian tribe, which damages shall be ascertained by the Secretary of the Interior and paid by the railway company taking such lands, shall be paid by said Secretary to the Indian or Indians sustaining such damages. The provisions of this section are extended and made applicable to any lands which have been allotted in severalty to any individual Indian under any law or treaty, but which have not been conveyed to the allottee with full power of alienation; the damages and compensation to be paid to any Indian allottee shall be ascertained and fixed in such manner as the Secretary of the Interior may direct and shall be paid by the railway company to said Secretary; the damages and compensation paid to the Secretary of the Interior by the railway company taking any such land shall be paid by said Secretary to the allottee sustaining such damages. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 263, 35 Stat. 781; May 6, 1910, c. 204, 36 Stat. 349.)

321. Rights of way for pipe lines.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and empowered to grant a right of way in the nature of an easement for the construction, operation, and maintenance of pipe lines for the conveyance of oil and gas through any Indian reservation, through any lands held by an Indian tribe or nation in the former Indian Territory, through any lands reserved for an Indian agency or Indian school, or for other purpose in connection with the Indian Service, or through any lands which have been allotted in severalty to any individual Indian under any law or treaty, but which have not been conveyed to the allottee with full power of alienation upon the terms and conditions herein expressed. Before title to rights of way applied for hereunder shall vest, maps of definite location shall be filed with and approved by the Secretary of the Interior: Provided, That before such approval the Secretary of the Interior may, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, grant temporary permits revocable in his discretion for the construction of such lines: Provided, That the construction of lateral lines from the main pipe line establishing connection with oil and gas wells on the individual allotments of citizens may be constructed without securing authority from the Secretary of the Interior and without filing maps of definite location, when the consent of the allottee upon whose lands oil or gas wells may be located and of all other allottees through whose lands said lateral pipe lines may pass has been obtained by the pipe line company: Provided further, That in case it is desired to run a pipe line under the line of any railroad, and satisfactory arrangements can not be made with the railroad company, then the question shall be referred to the Secretary of the Interior, who shall prescribe the terms and conditions under which the pipe line company shall be permitted to lay its lines under said railroad. The compensation to be paid the tribes in their tribal capacity and the individual allottees for such right of way through their lands shall be determined in such manner as the Secretary of the Interior may direct, and shall be subject to his final approval. And where such lines are not subject to State or Territorial taxation the company or owner of the line shall pay to the Secretary of the Interior, for the use and benefit of the Indians, such annual tax as he may designate, not exceeding $5 for each ten miles of line so constructed and maintained under such rules and regulations as said Secretary may prescribe. But nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to exempt the owners of such lines from the payment of any tax that may be lawfully assessed against them by either State, Territorial, or municipal authority. And incorporated cities and towns into and through which such pipe lines may be constructed shall have the power to regulate the manner of construction therein, and nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to deny the right of municipal taxation in such towns and cities, and nothing herein shall authorize the use of such right of way except for pipe line, and then only so far as may be necessary for its construction, maintenance, and care: Provided, That the rights herein granted shall not extend beyond a period of twenty years: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Interior, at the expiration of said twenty years, may extend the right to maintain any pipe line constructed under this section for another period not to exceed twenty years from the expiration of the first right, upon such terms and conditions as he may deem proper. The right to alter, amend, or repeal this section is expressly reserved. (Mar. 11, 1904, c. 505, § 2, 33 Stat. 65; Mar. 2, 1917, c. 146, § 1, 39 Stat. 973.)

Chapter 9.—ALLOTMENT OF INDIAN LANDS.

Sec.
331. Allotments on reservations; irrigable and nonirrigable lands.
332. Selection of allotments.
333. Making of allotments by agents.
334. Allotments to Indians not residing on reservations.
335. Extension of provisions as to allotments.
336. Allotments to Indians making settlement.
337. Allotments in national forests.
338. Survey and allotment work on Indian reservations.
339. Tribes excepted from certain provisions.
340. Extension of certain provisions.
341. Power to grant rights of way not affected.
342. Removal of Southern Utes to new reservation.
343. Correction of errors in allotments and patents.
344. Cancellation of allotment of unsuitable land.
345. Actions for allotments.
346. Proceedings in actions for allotments.
347. Limitations of actions for lands patented in severalty under treaties.
348. Patents to be held in trust; descent and partition.
349. Patents in fee to allottees.
350. Surrender of patent and selection of other land.
351. Patents with restrictions for lots in villages in Washington.
352. Cancellation of trust patents within power or reservoir sites.
353. Sections inapplicable to certain tribes.
354. Lands not liable for debts prior to final patent.
355. Laws applicable to lands of full-blooded members of Five Civilized Tribes.
356. Allowance of undisputed claims of restricted allottees of Five Civilized Tribes.
357. Condemnation of lands under laws of States.

Section 331. Allotments on reservations; irrigable and nonirrigable lands.—In all cases where any tribe or band of Indians has been or shall be located upon any reservation created for their use by treaty stipulation, Act of Congress, or Executive order, the President shall be authorized to cause the same or any part thereof to be surveyed or resurveyed whenever in his opinion such reservation or any part may be advantageously utilized for agricultural or grazing purposes by such Indians, and to cause allotment to each Indian located thereon to be made in such areas as in his opinion may be for their best interest not to exceed eighty acres of agricultural or one hundred and sixty acres of grazing land to any one Indian. And whenever it shall appear to the President that lands on any Indian reservation subject to allotment by authority of law have been or may be brought within any irrigation project, he may cause allotments of such irrigable lands to be made to the Indians entitled thereto in such areas as may be for their best interest not to exceed, however, forty acres to any one Indian, and such irrigable land shall be held to be equal in quantity to twice the number of acres of nonirrigable agricultural land and four times the number of acres of nonirrigable grazing land: Provided, That the remaining area to which any Indian may be entitled under existing law after he shall have received his proportion of irrigable land on the basis of equalization herein established may be allotted to him from nonirrigable agricultural or grazing lands: Provided further, That where a treaty or Act of Congress setting apart such reservation provides for allotments in severalty in quantity greater or less than that herein authorized, the President shall cause allotments on such reservations to be made in quantity as specified in such treaty or Act subject, however, to the basis of equalization between irrigable and nonirrigable lands established herein, but in such cases allotments may be made in quantity as specified herein, with the consent of the Indians expressed in such manner as the President in his discretion may require. (Feb. 8, 1887, c. 119, § 1, 24 Stat. 388; Feb. 28, 1891, c. 383, § 1, 26 Stat. 794; June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 17, 36 Stat. 859.)

332. Selection of allotments.—All allotments set apart under the provisions of sections 331 to 334, inclusive, and 336 shall be selected by the Indians, heads of families selecting for their minor children, and the agents shall select for each orphan child, and in such manner as to embrace the improvements of the Indians making the selection. Where the improvements of two or more Indians have been made on the same legal subdivision of land, unless they shall otherwise agree, a provisional line may be run dividing said lands between them, and the amount to which each is entitled shall be equalized in the assignment of the remainder of the land to which they are entitled under said sections: Provided, That if any one entitled to an allotment shall fail to make a selection within four years after the President shall direct that allotments may be made on a particular reservation, the Secretary of the Interior may direct the agent of such tribe or band, if such there be, and if there be no agent, then a special agent appointed for that purpose, to make a selection for such Indian, which selection shall be allotted as in cases where selections are made by the Indians, and patents shall issue in like manner. (Feb. 8, 1887, c. 119, § 2, 24 Stat. 388.)

333. Making of allotments by agents.—The allotments provided for in sections 331 to 334, inclusive, and 336 shall be made by special agents appointed by the President for such purpose, and the superintendents or agents in charge of the respective reservations on which the allotments are directed to be made, or, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, such allotments may be made by the superintendent or agent in charge of such reservation, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may from time to time prescribe, and shall be certified by such special allotting agents, superintendents, or agents to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, in duplicate, one copy to be retained in the Indian Office and the other to be transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his action, and to be deposited in the General Land Office. (Feb. 8, 1887, c. 119, § 3, 24 Stat. 389; June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 9, 36 Stat. 858.)

334. Allotments to Indians not residing on reservations.—Where any Indian not residing upon a reservation, or for whose tribe no reservation has been provided by treaty, Act of Congress, or Executive order, shall make settlement upon any surveyed or unsurveyed lands of the United States not otherwise appropriated, he or she shall be entitled, upon application to the local land office for the district in which the lands are located, to have the same allotted to him or her, and to his or her children, in quantities and manner as provided in section 331 for Indians residing upon reservations; and when such settlement is made upon unsurveyed lands the grant to such Indians shall be adjusted upon the survey of the lands so as to conform thereto; and patents shall be issued to them for such lands in the manner and with the restrictions as provided in sections 348 and 349. And the fees to which the officers of such local land office would have been entitled had such lands been entered under the general laws for the disposition of the public lands shall be paid to them, from any moneys in the Treasury of the United States not otherwise appropriated, upon a statement of an account in their behalf for such fees by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and a certification of such account to the Secretary of the Treasury by the Secretary of the Interior. (Feb. 8, 1887, c. 119, § 4, 24 Stat. 389.)

335. Extension of provisions as to allotments.—Unless otherwise specifically provided, the provisions of sections 331 to 334, inclusive, and 336, 341, 348 to 350, inclusive, and 381 are extended to all lands heretofore purchased or which may be purchased by authority of Congress for the use or benefit of any individual Indian or band or tribe of Indians. (Feb. 14, 1923, c. 76, 42 Stat. 1246.)

336. Allotments to Indians making settlement.—Where any Indian entitled to allotment under existing laws shall make settlement upon any surveyed or unsurveyed lands of the United States not otherwise appropriated, he or she shall be entitled, upon application to the local land office for the district in which the lands are located, to have the same allotted to him or her and to his or her children in manner as provided by law for allotments to Indians residing upon reservations, and such allotments to Indians on the public domain as herein provided shall be made in such areas as the President may deem proper, not to exceed, however, forty acres of irrigable land or eighty acres of nonirrigable agricultural land or one hundred sixty acres of nonirrigable grazing land to any one Indian; and when such settlement is made upon unsurveyed lands the grant to such Indians shall be adjusted upon the survey of the lands so as to conform thereto, and patent shall be issued to them for such lands in the manner and with the restrictions provided in sections 348 and 349. And the fees to which the officers of such local land office would have been entitled had such lands been entered under the general laws for the disposition of the public lands shall be paid to them from any moneys in the Treasury of the United States not otherwise appropriated, upon a statement of an account in their behalf for such fees by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and a certification of such account to the Secretary of the Treasury by the Secretary of the Interior. (Feb. 8, 1887, c. 119, 24 Stat. 388; Feb. 28, 1891, c. 383, § 4, 26 Stat. 795; June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 17, 36 Stat. 860.)

337. Allotments in national forests.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, in his discretion, to make allotments within the national forests in conformity with the general allotment laws, to any Indian occupying, living on, or having improvements on land included within any such national forest who is not entitled to an allotment on any existing Indian reservation, or for whose tribe no reservation has been provided, or whose reservation was not sufficient to afford an allotment to each member thereof. All applications for allotments under the provisions of this section shall be submitted to the Secretary of Agriculture who shall determine whether the lands applied for are more valuable for agricultural or grazing purposes than for the timber found thereon; and if it be found that the lands applied for are more valuable for agricultural or grazing purposes, then the Secretary of the Interior shall cause allotment to be made as herein provided. (June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 31, 36 Stat. 863.)

338. Survey and allotment work on Indian reservations.—The Secretary of the Interior shall transmit to Congress annually on the first Monday in December a cost account for the preceding fiscal year of all survey and allotment work on Indian reservations. (Apr. 4, 1910, c. 140, § 1, 36 Stat. 270.)

339. Tribes excepted from certain provisions.—The provision of sections 331 to 334, inclusive, 336, 341, 348 to 350, inclusive, and 381 shall not extend to the territory occupied by the Cherokees, Creeks, Choctaws, Chickasaws, Seminoles, and Osage, Miamies and Peorias, and Sacs and Foxes, in Oklahoma, nor to any of the reservations of the Seneca Nation of New York Indians in the State of New York, nor to that strip of territory in the State of Nebraska adjoining the Sioux Nation on the south added by Executive order. (Feb. 8, 1887, c. 119, § 8, 24 Stat. 391.)

340. Extension of certain provisions.—The provisions of sections 331 to 334, inclusive, 336, 341, 348, 350, and 381, are declared to extend to and are made applicable to the Confederated Wea, Peoria, Kaskaskia, and Piankeshaw tribes of Indians, and the Western Miami tribe of Indians, located in the northeastern part of the former Indian Territory and to their reservation, in the same manner and to the same extent as if said tribes had not been excepted from the provisions of said sections, except and as otherwise hereinafter provided. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 422, § 1, 25, Stat. 1013.)

341. Power to grant rights of way not affected.—Nothing in sections 331 to 334, inclusive, 336, 348 to 350, inclusive, and 381 shall be so construed as to affect the right and power of Congress to grant the right of way through any lands granted to an Indian, or a tribe of Indians, for railroads or other highways, or telegraph lines, for the public use, or to condemn such lands to public uses, upon making just compensation. (Feb. 8, 1887, c. 119, § 10, 24 Stat. 391.)

342. Removal of Southern Utes to new reservation.—Nothing in sections 331 to 334, inclusive, 336, 341, 348 to 350, inclusive, and 381 shall be so construed as to prevent the removal of the Southern Ute Indians from their present reservation in southwestern Colorado to a new reservation by and with the consent of a majority of the adult male members of said tribe. (Feb. 8, 1887, c. 119, § 11, 24 Stat. 391.)

343. Correction of errors in allotments and patents.—In all cases where it shall appear that a double allotment of land has been wrongfully or erroneously made by the Secretary of the Interior to any Indian by an assumed name or otherwise, or where a mistake has been made in the description of the land inserted in any patent, said Secretary is authorized and directed, during the time that the United States may hold the title to the land in trust for any such Indian, and for which a conditional patent may have been issued, to rectify and correct such mistakes and cancel any patent which may have been thus erroneously and wrongfully issued whenever in his opinion the same ought to be canceled for error in the issue thereof, and if possession of the original patent can not be obtained, such cancellation shall be effective if made upon the records of the General Land Office; and no proclamation shall be necessary to open to settlement the lands to which such an erroneous allotment patent has been canceled, provided such lands would otherwise be subject to entry: And provided, That such lands shall not be open to settlement for sixty days after such cancellation: And further provided, That no conditional patent that has been or that may be executed in favor of any Indian allottee, excepting in cases hereinbefore authorized, and excepting in cases where the conditional patent is relinquished by the patentee or his heirs to take another allotment, shall be subject to cancellation without authority of Congress. (Jan. 26, 1895, c. 50, 28 Stat. 641; Apr. 23, 1904, c. 1489, 33 Stat. 297.)

344. Cancellation of allotment of unsuitable land.—If any Indian of a tribe whose surplus lands have been ceded or opened to disposal has received an allotment embracing lands unsuitable for allotment purposes, such allotment may be canceled and other unappropriated, unoccupied, and unreserved land of equal area, within the ceded portions of the reservation upon which such Indian belongs, allotted to him upon the same terms and with the same restrictions as the original allotment, and lands described in any such canceled allotment shall be disposed of as other ceded lands of such reservation. This provision shall not apply to the lands formerly comprising Indian Territory. The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to prescribe rules and regulations to carry this law into effect. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 263, 35 Stat. 784.)

345. Actions for allotments.—All persons who are in whole or in part of Indian blood or descent who are entitled to an allotment of land under any law of Congress, or who claim to be so entitled to land under any allotment Act or under any grant made by Congress, or who claim to have been unlawfully denied or excluded from any allotment or any parcel of land to which they claim to be lawfully entitled by virtue of any Act of Congress, may commence and prosecute or defend any action, suit, or proceeding in relation to their right thereto in the proper district court of the United States; and said district courts are given jurisdiction to try and determine any action, suit, or proceeding arising within their respective jurisdictions involving the right of any person, in whole or in part of Indian blood or descent, to any allotment of land under any law or treaty (and in said suit the parties thereto shall be the claimant as plaintiff and the United States as party defendant); and the judgment or decree of any such court in favor of any claimant to an allotment of land shall have the same effect, when properly certified to the Secretary of the Interior, as if such allotment had been allowed and approved by him, but this provision shall not apply to any lands held August 15, 1894, by either of the Five Civilized Tribes, nor to any of the lands within the Quapaw Indian Agency: Provided, That the right of appeal shall be allowed to either party as in other cases. (Aug. 15, 1894, c. 290, § 1, 28 Stat. 305; Feb. 6, 1901, c. 217, § 1, 31 Stat. 760; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, 36 Stat. 1167.)

346. Proceedings in actions for allotments.—The plaintiff shall cause a copy of his petition filed under the preceding section to be served upon the district attorney of the United States in the district wherein suit is brought, and shall mail a copy of same, by registered letter, to the Attorney General of the United States, and shall thereupon cause to be filed with the clerk of the court wherein suit is instituted an affidavit of such service and the mailing of such letter. It shall be the duty of the district attorney upon whom service of petition is made as aforesaid to appear and defend the interests of the Government in the suit, and within sixty days after the service of petition upon him, unless the time should be extended by order of the court made in the case to file a plea, answer, or demurrer on the part of the Government, and to file a notice of any counterclaim, set-off, claim for damages, or other demand or defense whatsoever of the Government in the premises: Provided, That should the district attorney neglect or refuse to file the plea, answer, demurrer, or defense, as required, the plaintiff may proceed with the case under such rules as the court may adopt in the premises; but the plaintiff shall not have judgment or decree for his claim, or any part thereof, unless he shall establish the same by proof satisfactory to the court. (Feb. 6, 1901, c. 217, § 2, 31 Stat. 760.)

347. Limitations of actions for lands patented in severalty under treaties.—In all actions brought in any State court or United States court by any patentee, his heirs, grantees, or any person claiming under such patentee, for the possession or rents or profits of lands patented in severalty to the members of any tribe of Indians under any treaty between it and the United States of America, where a deed has been approved by the Secretary of the Interior to the land sought to be recovered, the statutes of limitations of the States in which said land is situate shall be held to apply, and it shall be a complete defense to such action that the same has not been brought within the time prescribed by the statutes of said State the same as if such action had been brought for the recovery of land patented to others than members of any tribe of Indians. (May 31, 1902, c. 946, 32 Stat. 284.)

348. Patents to be held in trust; descent and partition.—Upon the approval of the allotments provided for in sections 331 to 334, inclusive, and 336 by the Secretary of the Interior, he shall cause patents to issue therefor in the name of the allottees, which patents shall be of the legal effect, and declare that the United States does and will hold the land thus allotted, for the period of twenty-five years, in trust for the sole use and benefit of the Indian to whom such allotment shall have been made, or, in case of his decease, of his heirs according to the laws of the State or Territory where such land is located, and that at the expiration of said period the United States will convey the same by patent to said Indian, or his heirs as aforesaid, in fee, discharged of said trust and free of all charge or incumbrance whatsoever: Provided, That the President of the United States may in any case in his discretion extend the period. And if any conveyance shall be made of the lands set apart and allotted as herein provided, or any contract made touching the same, before the expiration of the time above mentioned, such conveyance or contract shall be absolutely null and void: Provided, That the law of descent and partition in force in the State or Territory where such lands are situate shall apply thereto after patents therefor have been executed and delivered, except as herein otherwise provided: And provided further, That at any time after lands have been allotted to all the Indians of any tribe as herein provided, or sooner if in the opinion of the President it shall be for the best interests of said tribe, it shall be lawful for the Secretary of the Interior to negotiate with such Indian tribe for the purchase and release by said tribe, in conformity with the treaty or statute under which such reservation is held, of such portions of its reservation not allotted as such tribe shall, from time to time, consent to sell, on such terms and conditions as shall be considered just and equitable between the United States and said tribe of Indians, which purchase shall not be complete until ratified by Congress, and the form and manner of executing such release shall also be prescribed by Congress: Provided, however, That all lands adapted to agriculture, with or without irrigation so sold or released to the United States by any Indian tribe shall be held by the United States for the sole purpose of securing homes to actual settlers and shall be disposed of by the United States to actual and bona fide settlers only in tracts not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres to any one person, on such terms as Congress shall prescribe, subject to grants which Congress may make in aid of education: And provided further, That no patents shall issue therefor except to the person so taking the same as and for a homestead, or his heirs, and after the expiration of five years occupancy thereof as such homestead; and any conveyance of said lands so taken as a homestead, or any contract touching the same, or lien thereon, created prior to the date of such patent, shall be null and void. And the sums agreed to be paid by the United States as purchase money for any portion of any such reservation shall be held in the Treasury of the United States for the sole use of the tribe or tribes of Indians; to whom such reservations belonged; and the same, with interest thereon at 3 per centum per annum, shall be at all times subject to appropriation by Congress for the education and civilization of such tribe or tribes of Indians or the members thereof. The patents aforesaid shall be recorded in the General Land Office, and afterwards delivered, free of charge, to the allottee entitled thereto. And if any religious society or other organization is occupying on February 8, 1887, any of the public lands to which sections 331 to 334, inclusive, 336, 341, 348 to 350, inclusive, and 351 are applicable, for religious or educational work among the Indians, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to confirm such occupation to such society or organization, in quantity not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres in any one tract, so long as the same shall be so occupied, on such terms as he shall deem just; but nothing herein contained shall change or alter any claim of such society for religious or educational purposes heretofore granted by law. And in the employment of Indian police, or any other employees in the public service among any of the Indian tribes or bands affected by sections 331 to 334, inclusive, 336, 341, 348 to 350, inclusive, and 381, and where Indians can perform the duties required, those Indians who have availed themselves of the provisions of the said sections and become citizens of the United States shall be preferred.

Provided further, That whenever the Secretary of the Interior shall be satisfied that any of the Indians of the Siletz Indian Reservation, in the State of Oregon, fully capable of managing their own business affairs, and being of the age of twenty-one years or upward, shall, through inheritance or otherwise, become the owner of more than eighty acres of land upon said reservation, he shall cause patents to be issued to such Indian or Indians for all of such lands over and above the eighty acres thereof. Said patent or patents shall be issued for the least valuable portions of said lands, and the same shall be discharged of any trust and free of all charge, incumbrance, or restriction whatsoever; and the Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to ascertain, as soon as shall be practicable, whether any of said Indians of the Siletz Reservation should receive patents conveying in fee lands to them under the provisions of this Act. (Feb. 8, 1887, c. 119, § 5, 24 Stat. 389; Mar. 3, 1901, c. 832, § 9, 31 Stat. 1085.)

349. Patents in fee to allottees.—At the expiration of the trust period and when the lands have been conveyed to the Indians by patent in fee, as provided in section 348, then each and every allottee shall have the benefit of and be subject to the laws, both civil and criminal, of the State or Territory in which they may reside; and no Territory shall pass or enforce any law denying any such Indian within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the law: Provided, That the Secretary of the Interior may, in his discretion, and he is authorized, whenever he shall be satisfied that any Indian allottee is competent and capable of managing his or her affairs at any time to cause to be issued to such allottee a patent in fee simple, and thereafter all restrictions as to sale, incumbrance, or taxation of said land shall be removed and said land shall not be liable to the satisfaction of any debt contracted prior to the issuing of such patent: Provided further, That until the issuance of fee-simple patents all allottees to whom trust patents shall be issued shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the United States: And provided further, That the provisions of sections 331 to 334, inclusive, 336, 341, 348 to 350, inclusive, and 381 shall not extend to any Indians in the former Indian Territory. (Feb. 8, 1887, c. 119, § 6, 24 Stat. 390; May 8, 1906, c. 2348, 34 Stat. 182.)

350. Surrender of patent, and selection of other land.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, in his discretion, and whenever for good and sufficient reason he shall consider it to be for the best interest of the Indians, in making allotments under sections 331 to 334, inclusive, and 336, to permit any Indian to whom a patent has been issued for land on the reservation to which such Indian belongs, under treaty or existing law, to surrender such patent with formal relinquishment by such Indian to the United States of all his or her right, title, and interest in the land conveyed thereby, properly indorsed thereon, and to cancel such surrendered patent: Provided, That the Indian so surrendering the same shall make a selection, in lieu thereof, of other land and receive patent therefor, under the provisions of said sections and sections 348 and 349. (Oct. 19, 1888, c. 1214, § 2, 25 Stat. 612.)

351. Patents with restrictions for lots in villages in Washington.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, whenever in his opinion it shall be conducive to the best welfare and interest of the Indians living within any Indian village on any of the Indian reservations in the State of Washington, to issue a patent to each of said Indians for the village or town lot occupied by him, which patent shall contain restrictions against the alienation of the lot described therein to persons other than members of the tribe, except on approval of the Secretary of the Interior; and if any such Indian shall die subsequent to June 25, 1910, and before receiving patent to the lot occupied by him, the lot to which such Indian would have been entitled if living shall be patented to his name and shall be disposed of as provided for in section 372. (June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 10, 36 Stat. 858.)

352. Cancellation of trust patents within power or reservoir sites.—The Secretary of the Interior, after notice and hearing, is authorized to cancel trust patents issued to Indian allottees for allotments within any power or reservoir site and for allotments or such portions of allotments as are located upon or include lands set aside, reserved, or required within any Indian reservation for irrigation purposes under authority of Congress: Provided, That any Indian allottee whose allotment shall be so canceled shall be reimbursed for all improvements on his canceled allotment, out of any moneys available for the construction of the irrigation project for which the said power or reservoir site may be set aside: Provided further, That any Indian allottee whose allotment, or part thereof, is so canceled shall be allotted land of equal value within the area subject to irrigation by any such project. (June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 14, 36 Stat. 859.)

353. Sections inapplicable to certain tribes.—The provisions of sections 337, 351, 352, 372, 373, 403, 406, 407, and 408 shall not apply to the Osage Indians, nor to the Five Civilized Tribes, in Oklahoma, except that where deeds to tribal lands in the Five Civilized Tribes have been or may be issued, in pursuance of any tribal agreement or Act of Congress, to a person who had died, or who dies before the approval of such deed, the title to the land designated therein shall inure to and become vested in the heirs, devisees, or assigns of such deceased grantee as if the deed had issued to the deceased grantee during life. (June 25, 1910, c. 431, §§ 32, 33, 36 Stat. 863.)

354. Lands not liable for debts prior to final patent.—No lands acquired under the provisions of sections 331 to 334, inclusive, and 336 shall, in any event, become liable to the satisfaction of any debt contracted prior to the issuing of the final patent in fee therefor. (June 21, 1906, c. 3504, 34 Stat. 327.)

355. Laws applicable to lands of full-blooded members of Five Civilized Tribes.—The lands of full-blooded members of any of the Five Civilized Tribes are made subject to the laws of the State of Oklahoma, providing for the partition of real estate. Any land allotted in such proceedings to a full-blood Indian, or conveyed to him upon his election to take the same at the appraisement, shall remain subject to all restrictions upon alienation and taxation obtaining prior to such partition. In case of a sale under any decree, or partition, the conveyance thereunder shall operate to relieve the land described of all restrictions of every character. (June 14, 1918, c. 101, § 2, 40 Stat. 606.)

356. Allowance of undisputed claims of restricted allottees of Five Civilized Tribes.—No undisputed claims to be paid from individual moneys of restricted allottees, or their heirs, or uncontested agricultural and mineral leases (excluding oil and gas leases) made by individual restricted Indian allottees, or their heirs, shall be forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for approval, but all such undisputed claims or uncontested leases (except oil and gas leases) shall be paid, approved, rejected, or disapproved by the Superintendent for the Five Civilized Tribes of Oklahoma: Provided, however, That any party aggrieved by any decision or order of the Superintendent for the Five Civilized Tribes of Oklahoma may appeal from the same to the Secretary of the Interior within thirty days from the date of said decision or order. (Feb. 14, 1920, c. 75, § 18, 41 Stat. 426.)

357. Condemnation of lands under laws of States.—Lands allotted in severalty to Indians may be condemned for any public purpose under the laws of the State or Territory where located in the same manner as land owned in fee may be condemned, and the money awarded as damages shall be paid to the allottee. (Mar. 8, 1901, c. 832, § 8, 31 Stat. 1084.)

Chapter 10.—DESCENT AND DISTRIBUTION; HEIRS OF ALLOTTEE.

Sec.
371. Descent of land.
372. Ascertainment of heirs of deceased allottees.
373. Disposal by will of allotments held under trust.
374. Attendance of witnesses.
375. Determination of heirship of deceased members of Five Civilized Tribes.
376. Oaths in investigations; witnesses.
377. Payment or deduction of cost of determining heirs.
378. Partition of allotment among heirs; patents.
379. Sale of allotted lands by heirs.

Section 371. Descent of land.—For the purpose of determining the descent of land to the heirs of any deceased Indian under the provisions of section 348, whenever any male and female Indian shall have cohabited together as husband and wife according to the custom and manner of Indian life the issue of such cohabitation shall be, for the purpose aforesaid, taken and deemed to be the legitimate issue of the Indians so living together, and every Indian child, otherwise illegitimate, shall for such purpose be taken and deemed to be the legitimate issue of the father of such child: Provided, That the provisions of this section and sections 331, 336, and 397 shall not be held or construed as to apply to the lands commonly called and known as the "Cherokee Outlet." (Feb. 28, 1891, c. 383, § 5, 26 Stat. 795.)

372. Ascertainment of heirs of deceased allottees.—When any Indian to whom an allotment of land has been made, dies before the expiration of the trust period and before the issuance of a fee simple patent, without having made a will disposing of said allotment as hereinafter provided, the Secretary of the Interior, upon notice and hearing, under such rules as he may prescribe, shall ascertain the legal heirs of such decedent, and his decision thereon shall be final and conclusive. If the Secretary of the Interior decides the heir or heirs of such decedent competent to manage their own affairs, he shall issue to such heir or heirs a patent in fee for the allotment of such decedent; if he shall decide one or more of the heirs to be incompetent he may, in his discretion, cause such lands to be sold: Provided, That if the Secretary of the Interior shall find that the lands of the decedent are capable of partition to the advantage of the heirs, he may cause the shares of such as are competent, upon their petition, to be set aside and patents in fee to be issued to them therefor. All sales of lands alloted to Indians authorized by any Act shall be made under such rules and regulations and upon such terms as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe, and he shall require a deposit of 10 per centum of the purchase price at the time of the sale. Should the purchaser fail to comply with the terms of sale prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, the amount so paid shall be forfeited; in case the balance of the purchase price is to be paid in deferred payments, a further amount, not exceeding 15 per centum of the purchase price may be so forfeited for failure to comply with the terms of the sale. All forfeitures shall inure to the benefit of the heirs. Upon payment of the purchase price in full, the Secretary of the Interior shall cause to be issued to the purchaser patent in fee for such land: Provided, That the proceeds of the sale of inherited lands shall be paid to such heir or heirs as may be competent and held in trust subject to use and expenditure during the trust period for such heir or heirs as may be incompetent, as their respective interests shall appear: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Interior is authorized in his discretion to issue a certificate of competency, upon application therefor, to any Indian, or in case of his death, to his heirs, to whom a patent in fee containing restrictions on alienation has been issued, and such certificate shall have the effect of removing the restrictions on alienation contained in such patent. Provided further, That any United States Indian agent, superintendent, or other disbursing agent of the Indian Service may deposit Indian moneys, individual or tribal, coming into his hands as custodian, in such bank or banks as he may select: Provided, That the bank or banks so selected by him shall first execute to the said disbursing agent a bond, with approved surety, in such amount as will properly safeguard the funds to be deposited. Such bonds shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior. (June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 1, 36 Stat. 855.)

373. Disposal by will of allotments held under trust.—Any persons of the age of twenty-one years having any right, title, or interest in any allotment held under trust or other patent containing restrictions on alienation or individual Indian moneys or other property held in trust by the United States shall have the right prior to the expiration of the trust or restrictive period, and before the issuance of a fee simple patent or the removal of restrictions, to dispose of such property by will, in accordance with regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior: Provided, however, That no will so executed shall be valid or have any force or effect unless and until it shall have been approved by the Secretary of the Interior: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Interior may approve or disapprove the will either before or after the death of the testator, and in case where a will has been approved and it is subsequently discovered that there has been fraud in connection with the execution or procurement of the will the Secretary of the Interior is authorized within one year after the death of the testator to cancel the approval of the will, and the property of the testator shall thereupon descend or be distributed in accordance with the laws of the State wherein the property is located: Provided further, That the approval of the will and the death of the testator shall not operate to terminate the trust or restrictive period, but the Secretary of the Interior may, in his discretion, cause the lands to be sold and the money derived therefrom, or so much thereof as may be necessary, used for the benefit of the heir or heirs entitled thereto, remove the restrictions, or cause patent in fee to be issued to the devisee or devisees, and pay the moneys to the legatee or legatees either in whole or in part from time to time as he may deem advisable, or use it for their benefit: Provided also, That this and the preceding section shall not apply to the Five Civilized Tribes or the Osage Indians. (June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 2, 36 Stat. 856; Feb. 14, 1913, c. 55, 37 Stat. 678.)

374. Attendance of witnesses.—The authority delegated to judges of the United States courts by section 56 of Title 35 is conferred upon the Secretary of the Interior to require the attendance of witnesses at hearings, upon proper showing by any of the parties to determine the heirs of decedents, held in accordance with the two preceding sections under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 222, § 1, 38 Stat. 586.)

375. Determination of heirship of deceased members of Five Civilized Tribes.—A determination of the question of fact as to who are the heirs of any deceased citizen allottee of the Five Civilized Tribes of Indians who may die or may have heretofore died, leaving restricted heirs, by the probate court of the State of Oklahoma having jurisdiction to settle the estate of said deceased, conducted in the manner provided by the laws of said State for the determination of heirship in closing up the estates of deceased persons, shall be conclusive of said question: Provided, That an appeal may be taken in the manner and to the court provided by law, in cases of appeal in probate matters generally: Provided further, That where the time limited by the laws of said State for the institution of administration proceedings has elapsed without their institution, as well as in cases where there exists no lawful ground for the institution of administration proceedings in said courts, a petition may be filed therein having for its object a determination of such heirship and the case shall proceed in all respects as if administration proceedings upon other proper grounds had been regularly begun, but this proviso shall not be construed to reopen the question of the determination of an heirship already ascertained by competent legal authority under existing laws: Provided further, That said petition shall be verified, and in all cases arising hereunder service by publication may be had on all unknown heirs, the service to be in accordance with the method of serving nonresident defendants in civil suits in the district courts of said State; and if any person so served by publication does not appear and move to be heard within six months from the date of the final order, he shall be concluded equally with parties personally served or voluntarily appearing. (June 14, 1918, c. 101, § 1, 40 Stat. 606.)

376. Oaths in investigations; witnesses.—Any officer or employee appointed or designated by the Secretary of the Interior or the Commissioner of Indian Affairs as special examiner in heirship cases shall be authorized to administer oaths in investigations committed to him: Provided further, That the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to the Osage Indians nor to the Five Civilized Tribes of Indians in Oklahoma. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 222, § 1, 38 Stat. 586.)

377. Payment or deduction of cost of determining heirs.—Upon a determination of the heirs to any trust or restricted Indian property of the value of $250 or more, or to any allotment, or, after approval by the Secretary of the Interior, of any will covering such trust or restricted property, there shall be paid by such heirs, or by the beneficiaries under such will, or from the estate of the decedent, or from the proceeds of sale of the allotment, or from any trust funds belonging to the estate of the decedent, the sum of $20 where the appraised value of the estate of the decedent is $250 or more and does not exceed $1,000. Where the appraised value of the estate of the decedent is more than $1,000 and less than $2,000, $25; where the appraised value of the estate of the decedent is $2,000 or more and does not exceed $3,000, $30; where the appraised value of the estate of the decedent is more than $3,000 but does not exceed $5,000, $50; where the appraised value of the estate of the decedent is more than $5,000 but does not exceed $7,500, $65; and where the appraised value of the estate of the decedent is more than $7,500, $75; which amount shall be accounted for and paid into the Treasury of the United States, and a report shall be made annually to Congress by the Secretary of the Interior on or before the first Monday in December of all moneys collected and deposited as herein provided: Provided further, That the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to the Osage Indians nor to the Five Civilized Tribes of Oklahoma. (Jan. 24, 1923, c. 42, 42 Stat. 1185.)

378. Partition of allotment among heirs; patents.—If the Secretary of the Interior shall find that any inherited trust allotment or allotments are capable of partition to the advantage of the heirs, he may cause such lands to be partitioned among them, regardless of their competency, patents in fee to be issued to the competent heirs for their shares and trust patents to be issued to the incompetent heirs for the lands respectively or jointly set apart to them, the trust period to terminate in accordance with the terms of the original patent or order of extension of the trust period set out in said patent. (May 18, 1916, c. 125, § 1, 39 Stat. 127.)

379. Sale of allotted lands by heirs.—The adult heirs of any deceased Indian to whom a trust or other patent containing restrictions upon alienation has been or shall be issued for lands allotted to him may sell and convey the lands inherited from such decedent, but in case of minor heirs their interests shall be sold only by a guardian duly appointed by the proper court upon the order of such court, made upon petition filed by the guardian, but all such conveyances shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, and when so approved shall convey a full title to the purchaser, the same as if a final patent without restriction upon the alienation had been issued to the allottee. All allotted land so alienated by the heirs of an Indian allottee and all land so patented to a white allottee shall thereupon be subject to taxation under the laws of the State or Territory where the same is situate: Provided, That the sale herein provided for shall not apply to the homestead during the life of the father, mother or the minority of any child or children. (May 27, 1902, c. 888, § 7, 32 Stat. 275.)

Chapter 11.—IRRIGATION OF ALLOTTED LANDS.

Sec.
381. Irrigation lands; regulation of use of water.
382. Irrigation projects under Reclamation Act.
383. Estimates of cost; limitation as to.
384. Employment of superintendents of irrigation.
385. Expenditure of appropriation for irrigation.
386. Reimbursement of construction charges.

Section 381. Irrigation lands; regulation of use of water.—In cases where the use of water for irrigation is necessary to render the lands within any Indian reservation available for agricultural purposes, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to prescribe such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary to secure a just and equal distribution thereof among the Indians residing upon any such reservations; and no other appropriation or grant of water by any riparian proprietor shall be authorized or permitted to the damage of any other riparian proprietor. (Feb. 8, 1887, c. 119, § 7, 24 Stat. 390.)

382. Irrigation projects under Reclamation Act.—In carrying out any irrigation project which may be undertaken under the provisions of sections 372, 373, 381, 383, 391, 392, 411, 416, 419, 421, 431, 432, 434, 439, 461, 476, 491, and 498 of Title 43, Public Lands, and which may make possible, and provide for in connection with the reclamation of other lands, the irrigation of all or any part of the irrigable lands heretofore included in allotments made to Indians under section 334 of this title, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to make such arrangement and agreement in reference thereto as said Secretary deems for the best interest of the Indians: Provided, That no lien or charge for construction, operation, or maintenance shall thereby be created against any such lands. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 263, 35 Stat. 798.)

383. Estimates of cost; limitations as to.—No new irrigation project on any Indian reservation, allotments or lands, shall be undertaken until it shall have been estimated for and a maximum limit of cost ascertained from surveys, plans, and reports submitted by the chief irrigation engineer in the Indian Service and approved by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and the Secretary of the Interior, and such limit of cost shall in no case be exceeded without express authorization of Congress, and no project to cost in the aggregate to exceed $35,000 shall be undertaken on any Indian reservation or allotment, without specific authority of Congress. (Apr. 4, 1910, c. 140, § 1, 36 Stat. 270.)

384. Employment of superintendents of irrigation.—The Commissioner of Indian Affairs, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, may employ superintendents of irrigation who shall be skilled irrigation engineers, not to exceed seven in number. (Apr. 4, 1910, c. 140, § 1, 36 Stat. 271.)

385. Expenditure of appropriation for irrigation.—The Secretary of the Interior may fix maintenance charges which shall be paid as he may direct, such payments to be available for use in maintaining the project or system for which collected: Provided further, That all moneys expended under this provision shall be reimbursable where the Indians have adequate funds to repay the Government, such reimbursements to be made under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to apportion the cost of any irrigation project constructed for Indians and made reimbursable out of tribal funds of said Indians in accordance with the benefits received by each individual Indian so far as practicable from said irrigation project, said cost to be apportioned against such individual Indian under such rules, regulations, and conditions as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe, and annually thereafter the Secretary of the Interior shall transmit to Congress a cost account in detail of all moneys, from whatever source derived, expended on each such irrigation project for the preceding fiscal year, including a résumé of previous expenditures, which shall show the number of Indians on the reservation where the land is irrigated, irrigable area under ditch, irrigable area under project (approximate), irrigable area cultivated by Indians, irrigable area cultivated by lessees, amount expended on construction to June 30 of the preceding fiscal year, amount necessary to complete, and cost per acre when completed (estimated); value of land when irrigated, and such other detailed information as may be requisite for a thorough understanding of the conditions on each system or project. (Apr. 4, 1910, c. 140, §§ 1, 3, 36 Stat. 270, 272; Aug. 1, 1914, c. 222, § 1, 38 Stat. 583.)

386. Reimbursement of construction charges.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to require the owners of irrigable land under any irrigation system constructed for the benefit of Indians and to which water for irrigation purposes can be delivered to begin partial reimbursement of the construction charges, where reimbursement is required by law, at such times and in such amounts as he may deem best; all payments hereunder to be credited on a per acre basis in favor of the land in behalf of which such payments shall have been made and to be deducted from the total per acre charge assessable against said land. (Feb. 14, 1920, c. 75, § 1, 41 Stat. 409.)

Chapter 12.—LEASE, SALE, OR SURRENDER OF ALLOTTED OR UNALLOTTED LANDS.

Sec.
391. Continuance of restrictions on alienation in patent.
392. Consent to or approval of alienation of allotments by Secretary of Interior.
393. Leases of restricted allotments.
394. Leases of arid allotted lands.
395. Leases of allotted lands where allottee is incapacitated.
396. Leases of allotted lands for mining purposes.
397. Leases of lands for grazing or mining.
398. Leases of unallotted lands for oil and gas mining purposes.
399. Leases of unallotted mineral lands withdrawn from entry under mining laws.
400. Leases for mining purposes of reserved and unallotted lands in Fort Peck and Blackfeet Indian Reservations.
401. Leases for mining purposes of unallotted lands in Kaw Reservation.
402. Leases of surplus lands.
403. Leases of lands held in trust.
404. Sale on petition of allottee or heirs.
405. Sale of allotment of noncompetent Indian.
406. Sale of timber on allotments held under trust.
407. Sale of timber on unallotted lands.
408. Surrender of allotments by relinquishment for benefit of children.
409. Sale of lands within reclamation projects.
410. Moneys from lease or sale of trust lands not liable for certain debts.
411. Interest on moneys from proceeds of sale.
412. Payment of taxes from share of allottee in tribal funds.
413. Fee to cover expense of sale of allotments or leases of tribal or allotted lands.

Section 391. Continuance of restrictions on alienation in patent.—Prior to the expiration of the trust period of any Indian allottee to whom a trust or other patent containing restrictions upon alienation has been or shall be issued under any law or treaty the President may in his discretion continue such restrictions on alienation for such period as he may deem best: Provided, however, That this shall not apply to lands in the former Indian Territory. (June 21, 1906, c. 3504, 34 Stat. 326.)

392. Consent to or approval of alienation of allotments by Secretary of Interior.—Whenever, in any law or treaty or in any patent issued to Indian allottees for lands in severalty pursuant to such law or treaty, there appears a provision to the effect that the lands so allotted can not be alienated without the consent of the President of the United States, the Secretary of the Interior shall have full power and authority to consent to or approve of the alienation of such allotments, in whole or in part, in his discretion, by deed, will, lease, or any other form of conveyance, and such consent or approval by the Secretary of the Interior had in all such cases shall have the same force and legal effect as though the consent or approval of the President had previously been obtained: Provided, however, That the approval by the Secretary of the Interior of wills by Indian allottees or their heirs involving lands held under such patents shall not operate to remove the restrictions against alienation unless such order of approval by said Secretary shall specifically so direct. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 367, § 6, 42 Stat. 995.)

393. Leases of restricted allotments.—The restricted allotment of any Indian may be leased for farming and grazing purposes by the allottee or his heirs, subject only to the approval of the superintendent or other officer in charge of the reservation where the land is located, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe: Provided, That this provision shall not apply to the Five Civilized Tribes. (Mar. 3, 1921, c. 119, § 1, 41 Stat. 1232.)

394. Leases of arid allotted lands.—Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Interior that the allotted lands of any Indian are arid but susceptible of irrigation and that the allottee, by reason of old age or other disability, can not personally occupy or improve his allotment or any portion thereof, such lands or such portion thereof, may be leased for a period not exceeding ten years, under such terms, rules, and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior. (May 18, 1916, c. 125, § 1, 39 Stat. 128.)

395. Leases of allotted lands where allottee is incapacitated.—Whenever it shall be made to appear to the Secretary of the Interior that, by reason of age, disability, or inability, any allottee of Indian lands can not personally, and with benefit to himself, occupy or improve his allotment or any part thereof, the same may be leased upon such terms, regulations, and conditions as shall be prescribed by the Secretary for a term not exceeding five years, for farming purposes only. (May 31, 1900, c. 598, § 1, 31 Stat. 229.)

396. Leases of allotted lands for mining purposes.—All lands allotted to Indians in severalty, except allotments made to members of the Five Civilized Tribes and Osage Indians in Oklahoma, may by said allottee be leased for mining purposes for any term of years as may be deemed advisable by the Secretary of the Interior; and the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to perform any and all acts and make such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the purpose of carrying the provisions of this paragraph into full force and effect. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 263, 35 Stat. 783.)

397. Leases of lands for grazing or mining.—Where lands are occupied by Indians who have bought and paid for the same, and which lands are not needed for farming or agricultural purposes, and are not desired for individual allotments, the same may be leased by authority of the council speaking for such Indians, for a period not to exceed five years for grazing, or ten years for mining purposes in such quantities and upon such terms and conditions as the agent in charge of such reservation may recommend, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior. (Feb. 28, 1891, c. 383, § 3, 26 Stat. 795.)

398. Leases of unallotted lands for oil and gas mining purposes.—Unallotted land on Indian reservations other than lands of the Five Civilized Tribes and the Osage Reservation subject to lease for mining purposes for a period of ten years under the preceding section may be leased at public auction by the Secretary of the Interior, with the consent of the council speaking for such Indians, for oil and gas mining purposes for a period of not to exceed ten years, and as much longer as oil or gas shall be found in paying quantities, and the terms of any existing oil and gas mining lease may in like manner be amended by extending the term thereof for as long as oil or gas shall be found in paying quantities: Provided, That the production of oil and gas and other minerals on such lands may be taxed by the State in which said lands are located in all respects the same as production on unrestricted lands, and the Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to cause to be paid the tax so assessed against the royalty interests on said lands: Provided, however, That such tax shall not become a lien or charge of any kind or character against the land or the property of the Indian owner. (May 29, 1924, c. 210, 43 Stat. 244.)

399. Leases of unallotted mineral lands withdrawn from entry under mining laws.—Authority of Secretary of Interior to lease.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and empowered, under general regulations to be fixed by him and under such terms and conditions as he may prescribe, not inconsistent with the terms of this section, to lease to citizens of the United States or to any association of such persons or to any corporation organized under the laws of the United States or of any State or Territory thereof, any part of the unallotted lands within any Indian reservation within the States of Arizona, California, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oregon, Washington, or Wyoming withdrawn prior to June 30, 1919, from entry under the mining laws for the purpose of mining for deposits of gold, silver, copper, and other valuable metalliferous minerals, which leases shall be irrevocable, except as herein provided, but which may be declared null and void upon breach of any of their terms.

Location of mining claims.—Unallotted lands, or such portion thereof as the Secretary of the Interior shall determine, within Indian reservations withheld prior to June 30, 1919, from disposition under the mining laws may be declared by the Secretary of the Interior to be subject to exploration for the discovery of deposits of gold, silver, copper, and other valuable metalliferous minerals by citizens of the United States, and after such declaration mining claims may be located by such citizens in the same manner as mining claims are located under the mining laws of the United States.

Preference right of locators of claims to lease of lands.—The locators of all such mining claims, or their heirs, successors, or assigns, shall have a preference right to apply to the Secretary of the Interior for a lease, under the terms and conditions of this section, within one year after the date of the location of any mining claim, and any such locator who shall fail to apply for a lease within one year from the date of location shall forfeit all rights to such mining claim.

Filing copies of location notices.—Duplicate copies of the location notice shall be filed within sixty days with the superintendent in charge of the reservation on which the mining claim is located, and application for a lease under this section may be filed with such superintendent for transmission, through official channels to the Secretary of the Interior.

Lands excepted from entry as mining claims.—Lands containing springs, water holes, or other bodies of water needed or used by the Indians for watering livestock, irrigation, or water-power purposes shall not be designated by the Secretary of the Interior as subject to entry under this section.

Term of lease; renewal.—Leases under this section shall be for a period of twenty years with the preferential right in the lessee to renew the same for successive periods of ten years upon such reasonable terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, unless otherwise provided by law at the time of the expiration of such periods.

Relinquishment of rights by lessee.—The lessee may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, be permitted at any time to make written relinquishment of all rights under such a lease and upon acceptance thereof be thereby relieved of all future obligations under said lease.

Lease of additional land for camp sites and other purposes.—In addition to areas of mineral land to be included in leases under this section the Secretary of the Interior, in his discretion, may grant to the lessee the right to use, during the life of the lease, subject to the payment of an annual rental of not less than $1 per acre, a tract of unoccupied land, not exceeding forty acres in area, for camp sites, milling, smelting, and refining works, and for other purposes connected with and necessary to the proper development and use of the deposits covered by the lease.

Reservation of surface of leased land to United States; easements.—The Secretary of the Interior, in his discretion, in making any lease under this section, may reserve to the United States the right to lease for a term not exceeding that of the mineral lease, the surface of the lands embraced within such lease under existing law or laws hereafter enacted, in so far as said surface is not necessary for use of the lessee in extracting and removing the deposits therein: Provided, That the said Secretary, during the life of the lease, is hereby authorized to issue such permits for easements herein provided to be reserved.

Rights and duties of successors to lessees.—Any successor in interest or assignee of any lease granted under this section, whether by voluntary transfer, judicial sale, foreclosure sale, or otherwise, shall be subject to all the conditions of the lease under which such rights are held and also subject to all the provisions and conditions of this section to the same extent as though such successor or assign were the original lessee hereunder.

Forfeiture of leases; notice.—Any lease granted under this section may be forfeited and canceled by appropriate proceedings in the United States district court for the district in which said property or some part thereof is situated whenever the lessee, after reasonable notice in writing, as prescribed in the lease, shall fail to comply with the terms of this section or with such conditions not inconsistent herewith as may be specifically recited in the lease.

Royalties payable by lessees—For the privilege of mining or extracting the mineral deposits in the ground covered by the lease the lessee shall pay to the United States, for the benefit of the Indians, a royalty which shall not be less than 5 per centum of the net value of the output of the minerals at the mine, due and payable at the end of each month succeeding that of the extraction of the minerals from the mine, and an annual rental, payable at the date of such lease and annually thereafter on the area covered by such lease, at the rate of not less than 25 cents per acre for the first calendar year thereafter; not less than 50 cents per acre for the second, third, fourth, and fifth years, respectively; and not less than $1 per acre for each and every year thereafter during the continuance of the lease, except that such rental for any year shall be credited against the royalties as they accrue for that year.

Development work by locators or lessees; damage to land.—In addition to the payment of the royalties and rentals as herein provided the lessee shall expend annually not less than $100 in development work for each mining claim located or leased in the same manner as an annual expenditure for labor or improvements is required to be made under the mining laws of the United States: Provided, That the lessee shall also agree to pay all damages occasioned by reason of his mining operations to the land or allotment of any Indian or to the crops or improvements thereon.

Cutting timber by lessees.—No timber shall be cut upon the reservation by the lessee except for mining purposes and then only after first obtaining a permit from the superintendent of the reservation and upon payment of the fair value thereof.

Examination of books and accounts of lessees.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to examine the books and accounts of lessees, and to require them to submit statements, representations, or reports, including information as to cost of mining, all of which statements, representations, or reports so required shall be upon oath, unless otherwise specified, and in such form and upon such blanks as the Secretary of the Interior may require; and any person making any false statement, representation, or report under oath shall be subject to punishment as for perjury.

Disposition of rentals and royalties.—All moneys received from royalties and rentals under the provisions of this section shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the Indians belonging and having tribal rights on the reservation where the leased land is located, which moneys shall be at all times subject to appropriation by Congress for their benefit, unless otherwise provided by treaty or agreement ratified by Congress: Provided, That such moneys shall be subject to the laws authorizing the pro rata distribution of Indian tribal funds.

Protection of interests of Indians.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to perform any and all acts and to make such rules and regulations not inconsistent with this section as may be necessary and proper for the protection of the interests of the Indians and for the purpose of carrying the provisions of this section into full force and effect: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed or held to affect the right of the States or other local authority to exercise any rights which they may have to levy and collect taxes upon improvements, output of mines, or other rights, property, or assets of any lessee.

Mining locations by and leases to Indians declared competent.—Mining locations, under the terms of this section, may be made on unallotted lands within Indian reservations by Indians who have heretofore or may hereafter be declared by the Secretary of the Interior to be competent to manage their own affairs; and the said Secretary is authorized and empowered to lease such lands to such Indians in accordance with the provisions of this section.

Mining locations by and leases to other Indians.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to permit other Indians to make locations and obtain leases under the provisions of this section, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe in regard to the working, developing, disposition, and selling of the products, and the disposition of the proceeds thereof of any such mine by such Indians.

"Metalliferous" defined.—Wherever the term "metalliferous" is used in this section it shall be defined and construed by the Secretary of the Interior to include magnesite, gypsum, limestone, and asbestos. (June 30, 1919, c. 4, § 26, 41 Stat. 31; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 119, § 1, 41 Stat. 1231.)

400. Leases for mining purposes of reserved and unallotted lands in Fort Peck and Blackfeet Indian Reservations.—Lands reserved for school and agency purposes and all other unallotted lands on the Fort Peck and Blackfeet Indian Reservations, in the State of Montana, reserved from allotment or other disposition, may be leased for mining purposes under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior. (Sept. 20, 1922, c. 347, 42 Stat. 857.)

401. Leases for mining purposes of unallotted lands in Kaw Reservation.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to lease for mining purposes lands reserved from allotment to be used as a cemetery and not needed for that purpose, and lands reserved for school and agency purposes in the Kaw Reservation in the State of Oklahoma, and for the use and benefit of the members of the Kansas or Kaw Tribe of Indians, at public auction, upon such terms and conditions and under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe: Provided, That the production of oil and gas and other minerals on such lands may be taxed by the State in which said lands are located in all respects the same as production on unrestricted lands, and the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized and directed to cause to be paid the tax so assessed against the royalty interests on said lands: Provided, however, That such tax shall not become a lien or charge of any kind or character against the land or the property of the Indian owner. (Apr. 28, 1924, c. 135, 43 Stat. 111.)

402. Leases of surplus lands.—The surplus lands of any tribe may be leased for farming purposes by the council of such tribe under the same rules and regulations and for the same term of years as is now allowed in the case of leases for grazing purposes. (Aug. 15, 1894, c. 290, § 1, 28 Stat. 305.)

403. Leases of lands held in trust.—Any Indian allotment held under a trust patent may be leased by the allottee for a period not to exceed five years, subject to and in conformity with such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe, and the proceeds of any such lease shall be paid to the allottee or his heirs, or expended for his or their benefit, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior. (June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 4, 36 Stat. 856.)

404. Sale on petition of allottee or heirs.—The lands, or any part thereof, allotted to any Indian, or any inherited interest therein, which can be sold under existing law by authority of the Secretary of the Interior, except the lands in Oklahoma, and the States of Minnesota and South Dakota may be sold on the petition of the allottee, or his heirs, on such terms and conditions and under such regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe; and the lands of a minor, or of a person deemed incompetent by the Secretary of the Interior to petition for himself, may be sold in the same manner, on the petition of the natural guardian in the case of infants, and in the case of Indians deemed incompetent as aforesaid, and of orphans without a natural guardian, on petition of a person designated for the purpose by the Secretary of the Interior. When any Indian who has received an allotment of land dies before the expiration of the trust period, the Secretary of the Interior shall ascertain the legal heirs of such Indian, and if satisfied of their ability to manage their own affairs shall cause to be issued in their names a patent in fee simple for said lands; but if he finds them incapable of managing their own affairs, the land may be sold as hereinbefore provided: Provided, That the proceeds derived from all sales hereunder shall be used, during the trust period, for the benefit of the allottee, or heir, so disposing of his interest, under the supervision of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs: And provided further, That upon the approval of any sale hereunder by the Secretary of the Interior he shall cause a patent in fee to issue in the name of the purchaser for the lands so sold: And provided further, That nothing in this section herein contained shall apply to the States of Minnesota and South Dakota. (May 29, 1908, c. 216, § 1, 35 Stat. 444.)

405. Sale of allotment of noncompetent Indian.—Any noncompetent Indian to whom a patent containing restrictions against alienation has been issued for an allotment of land in severalty, under any law or treaty, or who may have an interest in any allotment by inheritance, may sell or convey all or any part of such allotment or such inherited interest on such terms and conditions and under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe, and the proceeds derived therefrom shall be used for the benefit of the allottee or heir so disposing of his land or interest, under the supervision of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; and any conveyance made hereunder and approved by the Secretary of the Interior shall convey full title to the land or interest so sold, the same as if fee-simple patent had been issued to the allottee. (Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2285, 34 Stat. 1018.)

406. Sale of timber on allotments held under trust.—The timber on any Indian allotment held under a trust or other patent containing restrictions on alienations, may be sold by the allottee with the consent of the Secretary of the Interior and the proceeds thereof shall be paid to the allottee or disposed of for his benefit under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior. (June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 8, 36 Stat. 857.)

407. Sale of timber on unallotted lands.—The mature living and dead and down timber on unallotted lands of any Indian reservation may be sold under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, and the proceeds from such sales shall be used for the benefit of the Indians of the reservation in such manner as he may direct: Provided, That this section shall not apply to the States of Minnesota and Wisconsin. (June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 7, 36 Stat. 857.)

408. Surrender of allotments by relinquishment for benefit of children.—In any case where an Indian has an allotment of land, or any right, title, or interest in such an allotment, the Secretary of the Interior, in his discretion, may permit such Indian to surrender such allotment, or any right, title, or interest therein, by such formal relinquishment as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, for the benefit of any of his or her children to whom no allotment of land shall have been made; and thereupon the Secretary of the Interior shall cause the estate so relinquished to be allotted to such child or children subject to all conditions which attached to it before such relinquishment. (June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 3, 36 Stat. 856.)

409. Sale of lands within reclamation projects.—Any Indian allotted lands under any law or treaty without the power of alienation, and within a reclamation project approved by the Secretary of the Interior, may sell and convey any part thereof, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, but such conveyance shall be subject to his approval, and when so approved shall convey full title to the purchaser the same as if final patent without restrictions had been issued to the allottee: Provided, That the consideration shall be placed in the Treasury of the United States, and used by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to pay the construction charges that may be assessed against the unsold part of the allotment, and to pay the maintenance charges thereon during the trust period, and any surplus shall be a benefit running with the water right to be paid to the holder thereof. (June 21, 1906, c. 3504, 34 Stat. 327.)

410. Moneys from lease or sale of trust lands not liable for certain debts.—No money accruing from any lease or sale of lands held in trust by the United States for any Indian shall become liable for the payment of any debt of, or claim against, such Indian contracted or arising during such trust period, or, in case of a minor, during his minority, except with the approval and consent of the Secretary of the Interior. (June 21, 1906, c. 3504, 34 Stat. 327.)

411. Interest on moneys from proceeds of sale.—The shares of money due minor Indians as their proportion of the proceeds from the sale of ceded or tribal Indian lands, whenever such shares have been withheld from their parents, legal guardians, or others, and retained in the United States Treasury by direction of the Secretary of the Interior, shall draw interest at the rate of 3 per centum per annum, unless otherwise provided for, from the period when such proceeds have been or shall be distributed per capita among the members of the tribe of which such minor is a member; and the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to allow interest on such unpaid amounts belonging to said minors as shall be certified by the Secretary of the Interior as entitled to draw interest under this section. (June 21, 1906, c. 3504, 34 Stat. 327.)

412. Payment of taxes from share of allottee in tribal funds.—In any case where the restrictions as to alienation have been removed with respect to any Indian allottee, or as to any portion of the lands of any Indian allottee, and such allottee as an individual, or as a member of any tribe, has an interest in any fund held by the United States beyond the amount by law chargeable to such Indian or tribe on account of advances, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs is authorized, prior to the date at which any penalties for the nonpayment of taxes would accrue under the laws of the State or Territory in which such land is situated, to pay such taxes and charge the amount thereof to such allottee, to be deducted from the share of such allottee in the final distribution or payment to him from such fund: Provided, That no such payment shall be made by said commissioner where it is in excess of the amount which will ultimately be due said allottee. (Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2285, 34 Stat. 1016.)

413. Fee to cover expense of sale of allotments or leases of tribal or allotted lands.—In the sale of all Indian allotments, or in leases, or assignment of leases, covering tribal or allotted lands for mineral, farming, grazing, business or other purposes, or in the sale of timber thereon, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed, under such regulations as he may prescribe, to charge a reasonable fee for the work incident to the sale, leasing, or assigning of such lands, or in the sale of the timber, or in the administration of Indian forests, to be paid by vendees, lessees, or assignees, or from the proceeds of sales, the amounts collected to be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts. (Feb. 14, 1920, c. 75, § 1, 41 Stat. 415.)

Chapter 13.—CEDED INDIAN LANDS.

Sec.

421. Free homesteads to settlers; commutation rights; payments to Indians.
422. Extension of right of settlers to commute entry.
423. Second homestead entry by certain settlers.
424. Negotiations for cession of lands.
425. Classification and appraisement of unallotted and unreserved lands.
426. Agreements with Indians not affected.
427. Town-site laws extended to ceded lands in Minnesota.

Section 421. Free homesteads to settlers; commutation rights; payments to Indians.—All settlers under the homestead laws of the United States upon the agricultural public lands, which were prior to May 17, 1900, opened to settlement, acquired prior to May 17, 1900, by treaty or agreement from the various Indian tribes, who have resided or shall reside upon the tract entered in good faith for the period required by existing law, shall be entitled to a patent for the land so entered upon the payment to the local land officers of the usual and customary fees, and no other or further charge of any kind whatsoever shall be required from such settler to entitle him to a patent for the land covered by his entry: Provided, That the right to commute any such entry and pay for said lands in the option of any such settler and in the time and at the prices fixed by existing laws on May 17, 1900, shall remain in full force and effect: Provided, however, That all sums of money so released which if not released would belong to any Indian tribe shall be paid to such Indian tribe by the United States, and that in the event that the proceeds of the annual sales of the public lands shall not be sufficient to meet the payments provided for agricultural colleges and experimental stations by sections 323 to 328 of Title 7, for the more complete endowment and support of the colleges for the benefit of agricultural and mechanic arts, established under section 304 of Title 7, such deficiency shall be paid by the United States: And provided further, That no lands shall be herein included on which the United States Government had made valuable improvements, or lands that have been sold at public auction by said Government. (May 17, 1900, c. 479, § 1, 31 Stat. 179.)

422. Extension of right of settlers to commute entry.—The provisions of section 173 of Title 43, Public Lands, allowing homestead settlers to commute their homestead entries are extended to all homestead settlers affected by or entitled to the benefits of the provisions of the preceding section: Provided, however, That in commuting such entries the entryman shall pay the price provided in the law under which original entry was made. (Jan. 26, 1901, c. 180, 31 Stat. 740.)

423. Second homestead entry by certain settlers.—Any person who, prior to May 17, 1900, having made a homestead entry and perfected the same and acquired title to the land by final entry by having paid the price provided in the law opening the land to settlement, and who would have been entitled to the provisions of section 421 had final entry not been made prior to May 17, 1900, may make another homestead entry of not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres of any of the public lands in any State or Territory subject to homestead entry: Provided, That any person desiring to make another entry under this section will be required to make affidavit, to be transmitted with the other filing papers required by law, giving the description of the tract formerly entered, date and number of entry, and name of the land office where made, or other sufficient data to admit of readily identifying it on the official records: And provided further, That said person has all the other proper qualifications of a homestead entryman: And provided also, That commutation under section 173 of Title 43, Public Lands, or any similar statute, shall not be permitted of an entry made under this section, excepting where the final proof, submitted on the former entry hereinbefore described, shows a residence upon the land covered thereby for the full period of five years, or such term of residence thereon as added to any properly credited military or naval service shall equal such period of five years. (May 22, 1902, c. 821, § 2, 32 Stat. 203.)

424. Negotiations for cession of lands.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, in his discretion, to negotiate, through any United States Indian inspector, agreements with any Indians for the cession to the United States of portions of their respective reservations or surplus unallotted lands, any agreements thus negotiated to be subject to subsequent ratification by Congress. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 832, § 1, 31 Stat. 1077.)

425. Classification and appraisement of unallotted and unreserved lands.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to cause to be classified or reclassified and appraised or reappraised, in such manner as he may deem advisable, the unallotted or otherwise unreserved lands within any Indian reservation opened to settlement and entry but not classified and appraised in the manner provided for in the Act or Acts opening such reservations to settlement and entry, or where the existing classification or appraisement is, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Interior, erroneous. (June 6, 1912, c. 155, 37 Stat. 125.)

426. Agreements with Indians not affected.—Nothing in the Act of March 3, 1891, chapter 561, shall change, repeal, or modify any agreements or treaties made with any Indian tribes for the disposal of their lands, or of land ceded to the United States to be disposed of for the benefit of such tribes, and the proceeds thereof to be placed in the Treasury of the United States; and the disposition of such lands shall continue in accordance with the provisions of such treaties or agreements; except as provided in section 162 of Title 43, Public Lands. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 10, 26 Stat. 1099.)

427. Town-site laws extended to ceded lands in Minnesota.—The provisions of chapter 17, of Title 43, Public Lands, are extended to and declared to be applicable to ceded Indian lands within the State of Minnesota. (Feb. 9, 1903, c. 531, 32 Stat. 820.)

3. Deputy commissioners and assistant to commissioner.
4. Deputies; duties; designation to act as commissioner.
5. Duties of assistant to commissioner.
6. Chief clerk.
7. Detail of revenue agent to office of commissioner.

Section 1. Commissioner.—There shall be in the Department of the Treasury a Commissioner of Internal Revenue, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall be entitled to a salary of $10,000 a year. (R. S. § 319; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1300, 40 Stat. 1140; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, 43 Stat. 770.)

2. Same; duties.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall have general superintendence of the assessment and collection of all duties and taxes imposed by any law providing internal revenue; and shall prepare and distribute all the instructions, regulations, directions, forms, blanks, stamps, and other matters pertaining to the assessment and collection of internal revenue; and shall provide hydrometers, and proper and sufficient adhesive stamps and stamps or dies for expressing and denoting the several stamp duties, or, in the case of percentage duties, the amount thereof; and alter and renew or replace such stamps from time to time, as occasion may require. He may also procure the printing of requisite forms, decisions and regulations, but the printing of such forms, decisions and regulations shall be done at the Government Printing Office, unless permitted by the Joint Committee on Printing to be done elsewhere under section 111 of Title 44. Except as otherwise provided in section 111 of Title 44, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may, under such regulations as may be established by the Secretary of the Treasury, after due public notice, receive bids and make contracts for supplying stationery, blank books and blanks to the collectors in the several collection districts; and the said commissioner shall estimate in detail by collection districts the expense of assessing and the expense of the collection of internal revenue. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall make a detailed statement to Congress once in each year of all miscellaneous expenditures in the Bureau of Internal Revenue. (R. S. § 321; Apr. 1, 1914, c. 223, 38 Stat. 621; Mar. 1, 1919, c. 86, § 11, 40 Stat. 1270.)

3. Deputy commissioners and assistant to commissioner.—There may be employed in the Bureau of Internal Revenue, five deputy commissioners and an assistant to the commissioner. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1301(a), 40 Stat. 1140.)

4. Deputies; duties; designation to act as commissioner.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue may assign to deputy commissioners such duties as he may prescribe, and the Secretary of the Treasury may designate any one of them to act as Commissioner of Internal Revenue during the commissioner's absence. (Oct. 6, 1917, c. 79, § 1, 40 Stat. 348.)

5. Duties of assistant to commissioner.—The assistant to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may be authorized by said commissioner to perform any duties which a deputy commissioner may perform. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1301(a), 40 Stat. 1140.)

6. Chief clerk.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue is authorized to designate one of the heads of division as chief clerk of the bureau without additional compensation. (R. S. § 320.)

7. Detail of revenue agent to office of commissioner.—Nothing in section 39 of Title 5 shall be construed to prevent the Commissioner of Internal Revenue from detailing one revenue agent for duty in his office. (Aug. 5, 1882, c. 389, § 1, 22 Stat. 229.)

73. Use of appropriation for salaries in payment of expenses of collectors, deputy collectors, etc., when attending trial or examination.

Section 11. "State" and "person" defined.—The word "State," when used in this title, shall be construed to include the Territories and the District of Columbia, where such construction is necessary to carry out its provisions. And where not otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent thereof, the word "person," as used in this title, shall be construed to mean and include a partnership, association, company, or corporation, as well as a natural person. (R. S. § 3140; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 248.)

12. Collection districts; number.—For the purpose of assessing, levying, and collecting the taxes provided by the internal revenue laws, the President may establish convenient collection districts, and for that purpose he may subdivide any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or may unite two or more States or Territories into one district, and may from time to time alter said districts. The whole number of collection districts for the collection of internal revenue shall not exceed sixty-five. (R. S. § 3141; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 248; July 16, 1914, c. 141, § 1, 38 Stat. 475; Mar. 4, 1923, c. 244, 42 Stat. 1444.)

13. Hawaii; collection district; collector.—The Territory of Hawaii shall constitute a district for the collection of the internal revenue of the United States, with a collector, whose office shall be at Honolulu, and deputy collectors at such other places in the several islands as the Secretary of the Treasury shall direct. (Apr. 30, 1900, c. 339, § 87, 31 Stat. 158.)

14. Collectors; appointment and number.—The President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint for each collection district a collector, who shall be a resident of the same. When two or more collection districts are united by him, he may designate from among the existing officers of such districts one collector for the new district, or, at his discretion, he may make a new appointment of such officer for said district.

The whole number of collectors of internal revenue shall not exceed sixty-five. (R. S. § 3142; Mar. 4, 1923, c. 244, 42 Stat. 1444.)

15. Same; bonds.—Every collector, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall execute a bond for such amount as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, with not less than five sureties, to be approved by the Solicitor of the Treasury, conditioned that said collector shall faithfully perform the duties of his office according to law, and shall justly and faithfully account for and pay over to the United States, in compliance with the order or regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, all public moneys which may come into his hands or possession; and he shall, from time to time, renew, strengthen, and increase his official bond, as the Secretary of the Treasury may direct, with such further conditions as the said commissioner shall prescribe; and he shall execute a new bond whenever required so to do by the Secretary of the Treasury, with such conditions as may be required by law or prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with not less than five sureties; which new bond shall be in lieu of any former bond or bonds of such collector in respect to all liabilities accruing after the date of its approval by the Solicitor of the Treasury. Said bonds shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Treasury, and filed as he may direct. (R. S. § 3143; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 2, 20 Stat. 327; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 5, 28 Stat. 807.)

16. Same; disbursing agents.—It shall be the duty of collectors of internal revenue to act as disbursing agents of the Treasury for the payment of all expenses of collection of taxes and other expenditures for the Internal Revenue Service within their respective districts, under regulations and instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury, on giving good and sufficient bond, with such sureties, in such form, and in such penal sum, as shall be prescribed and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, for the faithful performance of their duties as such disbursing agents; but no additional compensation shall be paid to collectors for such services. (R. S. § 3144; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 2, 20 Stat. 328; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 5, 28 Stat. 807.)

17. Same; allowances for salaries and expenses.—Allowances shall be made by the Secretary of the Treasury upon the recommendation of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for salary and office expenses of collectors of internal revenue, all of which shall be in lieu of the salary and commissions formerly provided by law. (Feb. 8, 1875, c. 36, § 12, 18 Stat. 309; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 2, 20 Stat. 329.)

18. Same; adjustment of salaries.—The salaries of collectors may be readjusted and increased under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, but no collector shall receive a salary in excess of $6,000 a year. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1301 (b), 40 Stat. 1140; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title I, 43 Stat. 764.)

19. Same; allowances for expenses.—There shall be paid, after the account thereof has been rendered to and approved by the proper officers of the Treasury, to each collector, his necessary and reasonable charges for advertising, stationery, and blank books used in the performance of his official duties, and for postage actually paid on letters and documents received or sent and exclusively relating to official business, but no such account shall be approved or allowed unless it states the date and the particular items of every such expenditure, and shall be verified by the oath of the collector. The Secretary of the Treasury, on the recommendation of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, shall make such further allowances, from time to time, as may be reasonable, in cases in which, from the territorial extent of the district, or from the amount of internal duties collected, it may seem just to make such allowances; but no such allowance shall be made if more than one year has elapsed since the close of the fiscal year in which the services were rendered. (Feb. 8, 1875, c. 36, § 13, 18 Stat. 309; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 2, 20 Stat. 330; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1301 (b), 40 Stat. 1140.)

20. Same; adjustment of accounts; fiscal year.—In adjusting the accounts of collectors, and in the payment of their compensation for services, the fiscal year of the Treasury shall be observed. (R. S. § 3146.)

21. Same; confirmation of appointment by Senate; vacancies during recess.—No collector of internal revenue shall be entitled to any portion of the salary pertaining to the office unless such collector shall have been confirmed by the Senate, except in cases of commissions to fill vacancies occurring during the recess of the Senate. (Feb. 8, 1875, c. 36, § 18, 18 Stat. 309; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 2, 20 Stat. 330.)

22. Same; quarterly accounts.—Collectors of internal revenue shall render their revenue accounts quarterly. (May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 325.)

23. Same; certificate as to reports before payment to.—No payment shall be made to collectors, on account of salaries or expenses, without the certificate of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue that all reports required by law or regulation have been received, or that a satisfactory explanation has been rendered to him of the cause of delay. (R. S. § 3147; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 2, 20 Stat. 329.)

24. Same; administration of oaths by.—Every collector of internal revenue is authorized to administer such oaths and to certify to such papers as may be necessary under any regulation prescribed under the authority of the internal-revenue laws. (R. S. § 3162.)

25. Same; oaths to expense accounts.—Collectors of internal revenue are required, empowered, and authorized, when requested, to administer oaths, required by law or otherwise, to accounts for travel or other expenses against the United States, with like force and effect as officers having a seal; for such services when so rendered no charge shall be made; and no fee or money paid for the services herein described shall be paid or reimbursed by the United States. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 355, § 8, 37 Stat. 487.)

26. Duties of collectors; reports of violations of law.—It shall be the duty of every collector of internal revenue having knowledge of any willful violation of any law of the United States relating to the revenue, within thirty days after coming into possession of such knowledge, to file with the district attorney of the district in which any fine, penalty, or forfeiture may be incurred, a statement of all the facts and circumstances of the case within his knowledge, together with the names of the witnesses, setting forth the provisions of law believed to be so violated on which reliance may be had for condemnation or conviction. (R. S. § 3164; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1317, 40 Stat. 1146; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1311, 42 Stat. 311; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1018, 43 Stat. 344.)

27. Same; discharging duty imposed upon other collector prohibited.—No collector shall be detailed or authorized to discharge any duty imposed by law upon any other collector. (R. S. § 3166.)

28. Same; monthly account of articles in bonded warehouses, and exported.—Every collector who has charge of any warehouse in which distilled spirits, or other articles, are stored in bond, shall render a monthly account of all such articles to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, by whom such account shall be examined and adjusted monthly, so as to exhibit a true statement of the responsibility of such collector thereon. In adjusting such account, the collector shall be charged with all the articles which may have been deposited or received under the provisions of law, in any warehouse in his district and under his control, and shall be credited with all such articles shown to have been removed therefrom according to law, including transfers to other collectors and to his successor in office, and also whatever allowances may have been made in accordance with law to any owner of such goods or articles for leakage or other losses. And every collector from whose district any distilled spirits, tobacco, snuff, or cigars are shipped in bond, under the provisions of this title, shall render a monthly account of the same to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, showing the amount of each article produced and shipped in bond, the amounts of which the exportation is completed according to law, and the amount remaining unaccounted for at the end of each month; also any excesses or deficiencies on the amounts originally reported as shipped. (R. S. § 3444.)

29. Deputies; appointment and revocation; compensation; bond.—Each collector of internal revenue shall be authorized to appoint, subject to the limitation contained in section 55 of this title, by an instrument in writing under his hand, as many deputies as he may think proper, to be compensated for their services by such allowances as shall be made by the Secretary of the Treasury, upon the recommendation of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue; and the collector shall have power to revoke the appointment of any such deputy, giving such notice thereof as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe, and to require and accept bonds or other securities from any deputy; and actions upon such bonds may be brought in any appropriate district court of the United States; which courts shall have jurisdiction of such actions concurrently with the courts of the several States. Each such deputy shall have the like authority in every respect to collect the taxes levied or assessed within the portion of the district assigned to him which is by law vested in the collector himself; but each collector shall, in every respect, be responsible, both to the United States and to individuals, as the case may be, for all moneys collected, and for every act done or neglected to be done, by any of his deputies while acting as such. (Feb. 8, 1875, c. 36, § 12, 18 Stat. 309; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 2, 20 Stat. 329; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1301(b), 40 Stat. 1140.)

30. Same; detail of deputies for special duty.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue is authorized to detail deputy collectors of internal revenue in one district for special duty in other districts, and the deputy collectors so detailed shall be paid by the collector of internal revenue and disbursing agent for the district for which they are appointed and for which the allowance for their salary and expenses is made, the same as if all their services had been performed and expenses incurred in that district. (Apr. 17, 1900, c. 192, § 1, 31 Stat. 107.)

31. Same; disability or vacancy in office of collector.—In case of the sickness or absence of a collector, or in case of his temporary disability to discharge his duties, they shall devolve upon his senior deputy, unless he shall have devolved them upon another of his deputies; and for the official acts or defaults of such deputies the collector and his sureties shall be held responsible to the United States.

In case of a vacancy occurring in the office of collector, the deputies of such collector shall continue to act until his successor is appointed; and until a successor is appointed, the deputy of such collector senior in service shall discharge all the duties of collector, and also the duties of disbursing agent; and of two or more deputies appointed on the same day, the one residing nearest the residence of the collector when the vacancy occurred shall discharge the said duties until another collector is appointed. When it appears to the Secretary of the Treasury that the interest of the Government so requires, he may, by his order, direct the said duties to be performed by such other one of the said deputies as he may designate. For the official acts and defaults of the deputy upon whom said duties are devolved, remedy shall be had on the official bond of the collector, as in other cases; and for the official acts and defaults of such deputy as acting disbursing agent, remedy shall be had on the official bond of the collector as disbursing agent. And any bond or security taken from a deputy by a collector, pursuant to section 29 of this title shall be available to his legal representatives and sureties to indemnify them for loss or damage accruing from any act or omission of duty by the deputy so continuing or succeeding to the duties of such collector. (R. S. § 3149; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 2, 20 Stat. 328.)

32. Same; when deputy entitled to collector's salary.—Any deputy collector who has performed or may perform, under authority of law, the duties of any collector in consequence of a vacancy in the office of said collector, shall be entitled to receive the salary and expenses allowed by law to such collector, and the Secretary of the Treasury may make to such deputy collector such allowance in lieu of salary and expenses as he might lawfully make to such collector. And such deputy shall not be debarred from receiving such salary and expenses, or allowances in lieu thereof, by reason of the holding of another Federal office by said collector during the time for which such deputy acts as collector. But all payments to such deputy collector shall be upon duly audited vouchers. (R. S. § 3150; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 2, 20 Stat. 329.)

33. Internal-revenue agents.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue may, whenever in his judgment the necessities of the service so require, employ competent agents, who shall be known and designated as internal-revenue agents, in such number and at such compensation as may be appropriated for by Congress; and he may, at his discretion, assign any such agent to duty under the direction of any officer of internal revenue, or to such other special duty as he may deem necessary.

The agents whose employment is authorized by this section shall have all the powers of entry and examination conferred upon any officer of internal revenue, by sections 92, 300, 312, and 329 of this title; and all the provisions of said sections, including those imposing fines, forfeitures, penalties, or other punishments for the enforcement thereof, shall be applicable to the action of internal-revenue agents, in the same manner as if such agents were specially named in each of said sections. (R. S. § 3152; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 2, 20 Stat. 329; July 7, 1884, c. 331, § 1, 23 Stat. 172; June 13, 1898, c. 448, §§ 3, 47, 30 Stat. 450, 469; Feb. 25, 1903, c. 1775, § 1, 32 Stat. 877; Mar. 18, 1904, c. 716, § 1, 33 Stat. 106; Mar. 3, 1917, c. 163, § 1, 39 Stat. 1090, 1091; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title I, 43 Stat. 770, 771; Feb. 10, 1925, c. 200, 43 Stat. 845.)

34. Duties of collectors and agents.—Every collector within his collection district and every internal-revenue agent shall see that all laws and regulations relating to the collection of internal taxes are faithfully executed and complied with, and shall aid in the prevention, detection, and punishment of any frauds in relation thereto. And it shall be the duty of every collector and of every internal-revenue agent to report to the commissioner in writing any neglect of duty, incompetency, delinquency, or malfeasance in office of any internal-revenue officer or agent of which he may obtain knowledge, with a statement of all the facts in each case, and any evidence sustaining the same. (R. S. § 3163; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 2, 20 Stat. 328.)

35. Storekeepers.—There shall be appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury such number of internal-revenue storekeepers as may be necessary, who shall each receive compensation in accordance with the provisions of section 676 of Title 5. No storekeeper shall be engaged in any other business while in the service of the United States, without the written permission of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Every storekeeper shall take an oath faithfully to perform the duties of his office, and shall give a bond, to be approved by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, for the faithful discharge of his duties, in such form and for such amount as the commissioner may prescribe. (R. S. § 3153; Aug. 15, 1876, c. 287, § 1, 19 Stat. 152; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title I, 43 Stat. 764.)

36. Same.—Storekeepers shall only receive compensation when rendering actual service. (Aug. 15, 1876, c. 287, § 1, 19 Stat. 152.)

37. Same; assignment to warehouses.—Except as provided in section 45 of this title, one or more storekeepers shall be assigned by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to every bonded or distillery warehouse established by law. (R. S. § 3154.)

38. Same; temporary storekeeper.—In case of the absence of any internal-revenue storekeeper by reason of sickness or other cause, the collector having control of the warehouse may designate a person to have temporary charge thereof, who shall, during such absence, perform the duties and receive the pay of the storekeeper for the time he may be so employed, and shall for any violation of the law be subject to the same punishment as storekeepers. (R. S. § 3155.)

39. Gaugers.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall appoint in every collection district where they may be necessary, one or more internal-revenue gaugers, who shall each take an oath faithfully to perform his duties, and shall give bond, with one or more sureties, satisfactory to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, for the faithful discharge of the duties assigned to him by law or regulations; and the penal sum of said bond shall not be less than $5,000, and said bond shall be renewed or strengthened as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may require. The duties of every such gauger shall be performed under the supervision and direction of the collector of the district to which he may be assigned, or of the collector in charge of exports at any port of entry to which he may be assigned. Gaugers shall receive compensation only when rendering actual service. (R. S. § 3156; Aug. 15, 1876, c. 287, § 1, 19 Stat. 152.)

40. Same; fees and expenses.—Gaugers shall be entitled to receive such fees, to be determined by the quantity gauged, as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue; and said fees, together with their actual and necessary traveling expenses, shall be verified by their oaths, and shall be paid by the United States monthly. (R. S. § 3157.)

41. Same; assignment to distilleries, and so forth.—Gaugers may be assigned to duty at distilleries, rectifying houses, or wherever gauging is required to be done. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 65, 28 Stat. 567.)

42. Same; compensation for gauging fruit brandy, or when detailed for special duty.—Gaugers employed in gauging fruit brandy, and gaugers specially detailed for special duty under the direction of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, may be paid, at the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, either by fees to be determined by the quantity gauged, or by a daily compensation while actually employed; and in calculating the daily compensation of all gaugers paid by fees, the quantity gauged for which fees are paid may be determined by dividing the aggregate gallons of spirits gauged by the number of days on which the gauger was actually employed during the month. (July 7, 1898, c. 571, § 1, 30 Stat. 656; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title I, 43 Stat. 764.)

43. Gauger's returns.—Every gauger shall, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, make a daily return to the collector of his district, giving a true account, in detail, of all articles gauged and proved or inspected by him, and for whom, and the number and kind of stamps used by him. (R. S. § 3291.)

44. Storekeepers and gaugers; performance of duties by one officer; designation; commission.—The Secretary of the Treasury may, upon the recommendation of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, impose the duties of storekeeper and gauger upon one officer, who shall be known and denominated as a storekeeper-gauger, where the amount of spirits produced at the distillery, to which such officer may be assigned, is not sufficient, in the judgment of the commissioner, to warrant the employment of two officers to perform the separate duties of storekeeper and gauger. The Secretary of the Treasury may issue a commission to such officer as storekeeper-gauger. (Aug. 15, 1876, c. 287, § 1, 19 Stat. 152.)

45. Storekeeper-gauger; duties; bond.—A storekeeper-gauger may be assigned by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to perform the separate duties of a storekeeper at any distillery, or at any general or special bonded warehouse, or to perform any of the duties of a gauger under the internal revenue laws. And the said officer, before entering upon the discharge of such separate duties, shall give a bond to be approved by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for the faithful discharge of his duties in such form and for such amount as the commissioner may prescribe. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 64, 28 Stat. 567.)

46. Same; compensation.—A storekeeper-gauger when performing the combined duties of storekeeper-gauger, or when assigned by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to perform the duties of a storekeeper only at any distillery, or at any general or special bonded warehouse, shall receive for his services the compensation of storekeeper only; but when assigned by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to perform the duties of gauger only, under the internal-revenue laws, as provided by those laws, he shall receive only the compensation for his services and the traveling expenses which are allowed by law to United States gaugers. (June 21, 1879, c. 34, § 2, 21 Stat. 27; June 28, 1902, c. 1312, 32 Stat. 492.)

47. Storekeepers, gaugers, and storekeeper-gaugers; compensation at small distilleries.—Storekeepers, gaugers, and storekeeper-gaugers who are assigned to distilleries with a registered capacity of twenty bushels or less, or who are assigned to other places where the compensation would otherwise be less than $3 a day, shall receive $3 a day for services. (Mar. 3, 1885, c. 343, § 1, 23 Stat. 404; Feb. 24, 1911, c. 149, 36 Stat. 928.)

48. Same; when traveling.—Storekeepers, storekeeper-gaugers, and gaugers, when traveling to or from assignments, or when transferred from one assignment to another, either in the same district or in different districts, shall receive the same compensation per day during the time necessarily occupied in traveling that they would be entitled to if on duty at the place to which assigned or transferred, or from which relieved, together with actual and necessary traveling expenses. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 63, 28 Stat. 567; May 13, 1910, c. 236, 36 Stat. 369.)

49. Same; transfer to other places of duty.—The commissioner may transfer any gauger, storekeeper, or storekeeper-gauger from one distillery or other place of duty or from one collection district to another. (R. S. § 3163; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 2, 20 Stat. 328; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 65, 28 Stat. 567.)

50. Same; detail for duty in other districts; accounts.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue is authorized to detail gaugers, storekeeper-gaugers, and storekeepers, appointed in one district, for special or regular duty in other districts, and the accounts of gaugers, storekeeper-gaugers, and storekeepers so detailed shall be adjusted and paid in the district where they are appointed the same as if assigned to regular duty, without regard to the number of districts in which they may have been employed in any one month, the same as if all their services had been performed and expenses incurred in the district in which appointed, and the order of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue transferring gaugers, storekeeper-gaugers, or storekeepers to special work shall be accepted by the General Accounting Office as full authority for proper expenses incurred by said gaugers, storekeeper-guagers, or storekeepers, while so assigned. (Apr. 17, 1900, c. 192, § 1, 31 Stat. 107; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

51. Leaves of absence; storekeepers, gaugers, and storekeeper-gaugers.—Storekeepers, gaugers, and storekeeper-gaugers shall have a cumulative annual leave of absence, with pay, not to exceed in the aggregate fifteen days for any one year. Said leave of absence shall be computed as not to exceed one and one-quarter days for each twenty-six days said storekeepers, gaugers, and storekeeper-gaugers are actually assigned to duty. Such leave shall be operative under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe. (June 23, 1910, c. 356, 36 Stat. 592.)

52. Same; revenue agents and inspectors.—All internal-revenue agents and inspectors shall be granted leave of absence with pay, which shall not be cumulative, not to exceed thirty days in any calendar year, under such regulations as the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1302, 40 Stat. 1141.)

53. Superintendent of exports and drawbacks.—In any port of the United States where there is more than one collector of internal revenue, the Secretary of the Treasury may designate one of them to have charge of all matters relating to the exportation of articles subject to tax under the internal-revenue laws; and at any port where he may deem it necessary, there shall be appointed by him an officer to superintend all matters of exportation and drawback, under the direction of the collector. The compensation of the officers last named shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, but unless increased under the provisions of section 676 of Title 5 shall not exceed, in any case, an annual rate of $2,000, excepting at New York, where such compensation shall be at the annual rate of $3,000. At any port where there is no superintendent of exports, all the duties and services required of such officers shall be performed by the collector of internal revenue designated to have charge of exportation. All the books, papers, and documents in the bureau of drawbacks in the respective ports, relating to the drawback of taxes paid under the internal-revenue law, shall be delivered to the collector of internal revenue in charge of exportation. (R. S. § 3161.)

54. Same; administration of oaths by.—Every superintendent of exports and drawbacks is authorized to administer such oaths and to certify to such papers as may be necessary under any regulation prescribed under the authority of the internal-revenue laws. (R. S. § 3162.)

55. Limit of number of revenue officers.—No collector in any district shall recommend, nor shall there be appointed or commissioned, more deputy collectors, storekeepers, storekeeper-gaugers, gaugers, inspectors, or other officers, or allowed to remain in commission more of any of said officers, at any one time, than 15 per centum in excess of the number actually engaged in performing duty at the time and indispensably necessary for the performance of said duty. (Mar. 3, 1885, c. 343, § 1, 23 Stat. 404.)

56. Statement under oath of fees; penalty.—Every internal-revenue officer, whose payment, charges, salary, or compensation are composed, wholly or in part, of fees, commissions, allowances, or rewards, from whatever source derived, shall be required to render to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, under regulations to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, a statement under oath setting forth the entire amount of such fees, commissions, emoluments, or rewards of whatever nature, or from whatever source received, during the time for which said statement is rendered; and any false statement knowingly and willfully rendered under the requirements of this section, or regulations established in accordance therewith, shall be deemed willful perjury, and punished in the manner provided by law for the crime of perjury. And any neglect or omission to render such statement when required shall be punished by a fine of not less than $200, nor more than $500, in the discretion of the court. (R. S. § 3158; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 319.)

57. Employees engaged in field work; posts of duty; per diem.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall determine and designate the posts of duty of all employees of the Internal Revenue Service engaged in field work or traveling on official business outside of the District of Columbia, and when ordered from their designated posts of duty all internal-revenue agents appointed under section 83 of this title may be granted per diem in lieu of subsistence not exceeding $4, and, when ordered from their designated posts of duty, income-tax agents and inspectors, special gaugers, and special employees may be granted a per diem in lieu of subsistence not exceeding $3, the per diem in lieu of subsistence to be fixed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. (Apr. 7, 1900, c. 192, § 1, 31 Stat. 107; May 10, 1916, c. 117, § 1, 39 Stat. 87.)

58. Administering oaths and taking evidence.—Every collector, deputy collector, internal-revenue agent, and internal-revenue officer assigned to duty under an internal-revenue agent, is authorized to administer oaths and to take evidence touching any part of the administration of the internal revenue laws with which he is charged, or where such oaths and evidence are authorized by law or regulation authorized by law to be taken. (R. S. § 3165; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 2, 20 Stat. 329; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1317, 40 Stat. 1146; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1311, 42 Stat. 311; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1018, 43 Stat. 344.)

60. Same; transfer of inspectors.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue may transfer any inspector from one distillery or other place of duty or from one collection district to another. (R. S. § 3163; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 2, 20 Stat. 328.)

61. Seizures by internal-revenue officers.—Any officer of internal revenue may be specially authorized by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to seize any property which may by law be subject to seizure, and for that purpose such officer shall have all the power conferred by law upon collectors; and such special authority shall be limited in respect of time, place, and kind and class of property, as the commissioner may specify. (R. S. § 3166.)

62. Disclosing operations of manufacturers.—It shall be unlawful for any collector, deputy collector, agent, or clerk, to divulge or to make known in any manner whatever not provided by law to any person the operations, style of work, or apparatus of any manufacturer or producer visited by him in the discharge of his official duties. The provisions of this section shall apply to internal-revenue agents as fully as to internal-revenue officers, and any offense against the foregoing provision shall be a misdemeanor and be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of the court; and if the offender be an officer or employee of the United States he shall be dismissed from office or discharged from employment. (R. S. §§ 3152, 3167; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 2, 20 Stat. 329; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 34, 28 Stat. 557; Oct. 3, 1913, c. 16, § II, I, 38 Stat. 177; Sept. 8, 1916, c. 463, § 16, 39 Stat. 773; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1317, 40 Stat. 1146; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1311, 42 Stat. 311; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1018, 43 Stat. 345.)

63. Interest in certain manufactures or production of liquors by revenue officers prohibited.—Any internal-revenue officer who is or shall become interested, directly or indirectly, in the manufacture of tobacco, snuff, or cigars, or in the production, rectification, or redistillation of distilled spirits, shall be dismissed from office; and every officer who becomes so interested in any such manufacture or production, rectification, or redistillation, or in the production of fermented liquors, shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $5,000. The provisions of this section shall apply to internal-revenue agents as fully as to internal-revenue officers. (R. S. §§ 3152, 3168; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 248; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, 20 Stat. 329.)

64. Same; extortion, receiving unlawful fees, and other unlawful acts.—Every officer or agent appointed and acting under the authority of any revenue law of the United States—

First. Who is guilty of any extortion or willful oppression under color of law; or,

Second. Who knowingly demands other or greater sums than are authorized by law, or receives any fee, compensation, or reward, except as by law prescribed, for the performance of any duty; or,

Third. Who willfully neglects to perform any of the duties enjoined on him by law; or,

Fourth. Who conspires or colludes with any other person to defraud the United States; or,

Fifth. Who makes opportunity for any person to defraud the United States; or,

Sixth. Who does or omits to do any act with intent to enable any other person to defraud the United States; or,

Seventh. Who negligently or designedly permits any violation of the law by any other person; or,

Eighth. Who makes or signs any false entry in any book, or makes or signs any false certificate or return, in any case where he is by law or regulation required to make any entry, certificate, or return; or,

Ninth. Who, having knowledge or information of the violation of any revenue law by any person, or of fraud committed by any person against the United States under any revenue law, fails to report, in writing, such knowledge or information to his next superior officer and to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue; or,

Tenth. Who demands, or accepts, or attempts to collect, directly or indirectly, as payment or gift, or otherwise, any sum of money or other thing of value for the compromise, adjustment, or settlement of any charge or complaint for any violation or alleged violation of law, except as expressly authorized by law so to do, shall be dismissed from office, and shall be held to be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than three years. The court shall also render judgment against the said officer or agent for the amount of damages sustained in favor of the party injured, to be collected by execution. One half of the fine so imposed shall be for the use of the United States, and the other half for the use of the informer, who shall be ascertained by the judgment of the court. The provisions of this section shall apply to internal-revenue agents as fully as to internal-revenue officers. (R. S. §§ 3152, 3169; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 2, 20 Stat. 329.)

65. Issuing stamps before payment.—Any collector of internal revenue, or any deputy collector or other employee of, or person acting for, such collector, who shall issue any stamp or stamps indicating the payment of any internal-revenue tax, before payment in full therefor has been made to the officer or person issuing the same, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined for each stamp thus issued an amount equal to the face value thereof, in addition to the liability of the collector on his official bond on account of such stamp; and such collector, deputy collector, or employee shall be dismissed from office. (Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 1, 20 Stat. 327.)

66. Gauger employing others to use brands or perform duties; penalty.—Whenever any gauger employs any owner, agent, or superintendent of any distillery or distillery warehouse, or any person in the service of such owner, agent, or superintendent, or any rectifier or wholesale liquor dealer, or any person in the service of such rectifier or wholesale liquor dealer, to use his brands, or to discharge any of the duties imposed upon him by law, he shall, for each offense so committed, pay a fine not exceeding $1,000, in the discretion of the court. (R. S. § 3290.)

67. Fraudulent inspection, gauging or proof.—Every gauger who makes any false or fraudulent inspection, gauging, or proof shall pay a penalty of $1,000, and be fined not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than three months nor more than three years. (R. S. § 3292.)

68. Same; laws imposing fines applicable to.—All sections of this Code and parts of sections imposing fines, penalties, or other punishment for offenses committed by an internal-revenue officer or other officer of the Department of the Treasury of the United States, or under any bureau thereof, shall apply to all persons whomsoever, employed, appointed, or acting under the authority of any internal-revenue law, or any revenue provision of any law of the United States, when such persons are designated or acting as officers or deputies, or persons having the custody or disposition of any public money. (Feb. 8, 1875, c. 36, § 23, 18 Stat. 312.)

69. Injuries to internal-revenue officers or agents; suits for damages.—If any officer appointed under and by virtue of any internal-revenue law or any person acting under or by authority of any such officer, shall receive any injury to his person or property, in the discharge of his duty, under any law of the United States for the collection of taxes, he shall be entitled to maintain suit for damage therefor, in the district court of the United States, in the district wherein the party doing the injury may reside or shall be found. The provisions of this section shall apply to internal-revenue agents as fully as to internal-revenue officers. (R. S. §§ 3152, 3171; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 2, 20 Stat. 329; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 291, 36 Stat. 1167.)

70. Restriction on payment for services.—No officer or clerk whose duty it is to make payments on account of the salary or wages of any officer or person employed in connection with the internal-revenue service, shall make any payment to any officer or person so employed on account of services rendered, or of salary, unless such officer or person so to be paid has made and subscribed an oath that, during the period for which he is to receive pay, neither he, nor any member of his family, has received, either personally or by the intervention of another party, any money or compensation of any description whatever, nor any promises for the same, either directly or indirectly, for services rendered or to be rendered, or acts performed or to be performed, in connection with the internal revenue; or has purchased, for like services or acts, from any manufacturer, consignee, agent, or other person whomsoever, any merchandise at less than regular retail market prices therefor. (R. S. § 1790.)

71. Accepting or demanding anything for compromise of violation of laws by district attorneys or marshals.—Every district attorney or marshal who demands, or accepts, or attempts to collect, directly or indirectly, as payment or gift or otherwise, any sum of money or other property of value for the compromise, adjustment, or settlement of any charge or complaint for any violation or alleged violation of any provision of the internal-revenue laws, except as expressly authorized by law to do so, shall be held to be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined in double the sum or value of the money or property received or demanded, and be imprisoned for not less than one nor more than ten years. (R. S. § 3170.)

72. Rules, regulations, and forms.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe forms of entries, oaths, bonds, and other papers, and rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, to be used under and in the execution and enforcement of the various provisions of the internal-revenue laws; and he shall give such directions to collectors and prescribe such rules and forms to be observed by them as may be necessary for the proper execution of the law. (R. S. § 251.)

73. Use of appropriation for salaries in payment of expenses of collectors, deputy collectors, and so forth, when attending trial or examination.—No part of the appropriation for salaries and expenses of collectors of internal revenue, deputy collectors, gaugers, storekeepers, storekeeper-gaugers, clerks, messengers, and janitors in internal-revenue offices, and other necessary miscellaneous expenses in collecting internal-revenue taxes shall be used in defraying the expenses of any officer, designated above, subpœnaed by the United States court to attend any trial before a United States court or preliminary examination before any United States commissioner, which expenses shall be paid from the appropriation for "Fees of witnesses, United States courts." (Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title I, 43 Stat. 770.)

Section 91. Canvass for objects of taxation.—Every collector shall, from time to time, cause his deputies to proceed through every part of his district and inquire after and concerning all persons therein who are liable to pay any internal-revenue tax, and all persons owning or having the care and management of any objects liable to pay any tax, and to make a list of such persons and enumerate said objects. (R. S. § 3172; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 34, 28 Stat. 558; Oct. 3, 1913, c. 16, § II, I, 38 Stat. 178; Sept. 8, 1916, c. 463, § 16, 39 Stat. 773; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1317, 40 Stat. 1146; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1311, 42 Stat. 311; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1018, 43 Stat. 345.)

92. Entering premises where taxable articles are kept.—Any collector, deputy collector, internal-revenue agent, or inspector may enter, in the daytime, any building or place where any articles or objects subject to tax are made, produced, or kept, within his district, so far as it may be necessary, for the purpose of examining said articles or objects. And any owner of such building or place, or person having the agency or superintendence of the same, who refuses to admit such officer, or to suffer him to examine such article or articles, shall, for every such refusal, forfeit $500. And when such premises are open at night, such officers may enter them while so open, in the performance of their official duties. And if any person shall forcibly obstruct or hinder any collector, deputy collector, or inspector, in the execution of any power and authority vested in him by law, or shall forcibly rescue or cause to be rescued any property, articles, or objects after the same shall have been seized by him, or shall attempt or endeavor so to do, the person so offending, excepting in cases otherwise provided for, shall, for every such offense, forfeit and pay the sum of $500, or double the value of the property so rescued, or be imprisoned for a term not exceeding two years, at the discretion of the court. (R. S. §§ 3152, 3177; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 2, 20 Stat. 329.)

93. Returns of persons liable to tax.—It shall be the duty of any person, partnership, firm, association, or corporation, made liable to any duty, special tax, or other tax imposed by law, when not otherwise provided for, (1) in case of a special tax, on or before the 31st day of July in each year, and (2) in other cases before the day on which the taxes accrue, to make a list or return, verified by oath, to the collector or a deputy collector of the district where located, of the articles or objects, including the quantity of goods, wares, and merchandise, made or sold and charged with a tax, the several rates and aggregate amount, according to the forms and regulations to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, for which such person, partnership, firm, association, or corporation is liable. If any person liable to pay any duty or tax, or owning, possessing, or having the care or management of property, goods, wares, and merchandise, article or objects liable to pay any duty, tax, or license, shall fail to make and exhibit a list or return required by law, but shall consent to disclose the particulars of any and all the property, goods, wares, and merchandise, articles, and objects liable to pay any duty or tax, or any business or occupation liable to pay any tax as aforesaid, then, and in that case, it shall be the duty of the collector or deputy collector to make such list or return, which, being distinctly read, consented to, and signed and verified by oath by the person so owning, possessing, or having the care and management as aforesaid may be received as the list of such person. (R. S. § 3173; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 3, 20 Stat. 330; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 34, 28 Stat. 558; Oct. 3, 1913, c. 16, § II, I, 38 Stat. 178; Sept. 8, 1916, c. 463, § 16, 39 Stat. 773; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1317, 40 Stat. 1146; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1311, 42 Stat. 312; June 21, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1018, 43 Stat. 345.)

94. Notice to file return by collector; summons.—In case no annual list or return has been rendered by such person to the collector or deputy collector as required by law, and the person shall be absent from his or her residence or place of business at the time the collector or a deputy collector shall call for the annual list or return, it shall be the duty of such collector or deputy collector to leave at such place of residence or business, with some one of suitable age and discretion, if such be present, otherwise to deposit in the nearest post office, a note or memorandum addressed to such person, requiring him or her to render to such collector or deputy collector the list or return required by law within ten days from the date of such note or memorandum verified by oath. And if any person, on being notified or required as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect to render such list or return within the time required as aforesaid, or whenever any person who is required to deliver a monthly or other return of objects subject to tax fails to do so at the time required, or delivers any return which, in the opinion of the collector, is erroneous, false, or fraudulent, or contains any undervaluation or understatement, or refuses to allow any regularly authorized Government officer to examine the books of such person, firm, or corporation, it shall be lawful for the collector to summon such person, or any other person having possession, custody, or care of books of account containing entries relating to the business of such person or any other person he may deem proper, to appear before him and produce such books at a time and place named in the summons, and to give testimony or answer interrogatories, under oath, respecting any objects or income liable to tax or the returns thereof. The collector may summon any person residing or found within the State or Territory in which his district lies; and when the person intended to be summoned does not reside and can not be found within such State or Territory, he may enter any collection district where such person may be found and there make the examination herein authorized. And to this end he may there exercise all the authority which he might lawfully exercise in the district for which he was commissioned. "Person," as used in this section and section 93 of this title, shall be construed to include any corporation, joint-stock company or association, or insurance company when such construction is necessary to carry out their provisions. (R. S. § 3173; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 3, 20 Stat. 330; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 34, 28 Stat. 558; Oct. 3, 1913, c. 16, § II, I, 38 Stat. 178; Sept. 8, 1916, c. 463, § 16, 39 Stat. 773; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1317, 40 Stat. 1146; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1311, 42 Stat. 312; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1018, 43 Stat. 345.)

95. Same; service of summons.—Such summons shall in all cases be served by a deputy collector of the district where the person to whom it is directed may be found, by an attested copy delivered to such person in hand, or left at his last and usual place of abode, allowing such person one day for each twenty-five miles he may be required to travel, computed from the place of service to the place of examination; and the certificate of service signed by such deputy shall be evidence of the facts it states on the hearing of an application for an attachment. When the summons requires the production of books, it shall be sufficient if such books are described with reasonable certainty. (R. S. § 3174.)

96. Same; failure to obey summons.—Whenever any person summoned under sections 94 and 95 of this chapter neglects or refuses to obey such summons, or to give testimony, or to answer interrogatories as required, the collectors may apply to the judge of the district court or to a United States commissioner for the district within which the person so summoned resides for an attachment against him as for a contempt. It shall be the duty of the judge or commissioner to hear the application, and, if satisfactory proof is made, to issue an attachment, directed to some proper officer, for the arrest of such person, and upon his being brought before him to proceed to a hearing of the case; and upon such hearing the judge or commissioner shall have power to make such order as he shall deem proper not inconsistent with existing laws for the punishment of contempts, to enforce obedience to the requirements of the summons and to punish such person for his default or disobedience. (R. S. § 3175; May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 19, 29 Stat. 184; Mar. 2, 1901, c. 814, 31 Stat. 956.)

97. Failure to make return; returns by collectors; making or amending returns by commissioner; extension of time for filing; assessment.—If any person, corporation, company, or association fails to make and file a return or list at the time prescribed by law or by regulation made under authority of law, or makes, willfully or otherwise, a false or fraudulent return or list, the collector or deputy collector shall make the return or list from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony or otherwise. In any such case the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may, from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony or otherwise, make a return or amend any return made by a collector or deputy collector. Any return or list so made and subscribed by the commissioner, or by a collector or deputy collector and approved by the commissioner, shall be prima facie good and sufficient for all legal purposes.

If the failure to file a return (other than a return under chapter 19 of this title) or a list is due to sickness or absence, the collector may allow such further time, not exceeding thirty days, for making and filing the return or list as he deems proper.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall determine and assess all taxes, other than stamp taxes, as to which returns or lists are so made under the provisions of this section. (R. S. § 3176; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 3, 20 Stat. 331; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 34, 28 Stat. 559; Oct. 3, 1913, c. 16, § II, I, 38 Stat. 179; Sept. 8, 1916, c. 465, § 16, 39 Stat. 773; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1317, 40 Stat. 1147; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1311, 42 Stat. 313; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1003, 43 Stat. 339.)

98. Same; addition to tax for failure to file; addition in case of fraud; collection.—In case of any failure to make and file a return or list within the time prescribed by law, or prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue or the collector in pursuance of law, the commissioner shall add to the tax 25 per centum of its amount, except that when a return is filed after such time and it is shown that the failure to file it was due to a reasonable cause and not to willful neglect, no such addition shall be made to the tax. In case a false or fraudulent return or list is willfully made, the commissioner shall add to the tax 50 per centum of its amount.

The amount so added to any tax shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner and as a part of the tax unless the tax has been paid before the discovery of the neglect, falsity, or fraud, in which case the amount so added shall be collected in the same manner as the tax. (R. S. § 3176; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 3, 20 Stat. 331; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 34, 28 Stat. 559; Oct. 3, 1913, c. 16, § II, I, 38 Stat. 179; Sept. 8, 1916, c. 463, § 16, 39 Stat. 773; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1317, 40 Stat. 1147; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1311, 42 Stat. 313; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1003, 43 Stat. 339.)

99. False return, or refusing to produce books.—Whenever any person delivers or discloses to the collector or deputy any false or fraudulent list, return, account, or statement, with intent to defeat or evade the valuation, enumeration, or assessment intended to be made, or, being duly summoned to appear to testify, or to appear and produce such books as aforesaid, neglects to appear or to produce said books, he shall be fined not exceeding $1,000, or be imprisoned not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of the court, with costs of prosecution. (R. S. § 3179.)

100. Taxable property owned by nonresidents.—Whenever there are in any district any articles not owned or possessed by or under the care or control of any person within such district, and liable to be taxed, and of which no list has been transmitted to the collector, as required by law, the collector or one of his deputies shall enter the premises where such articles are situated and shall take such view thereof as may be necessary, and make lists of the same, according to the form prescribed. Said lists, being subscribed by such collector or deputy, shall be taken as sufficient lists of such articles for all purposes. (R. S. § 3180.)

101. Lists, when taken and how denominated.—The lists or returns aforesaid shall, where not otherwise specially provided for, be taken with reference to the day fixed for that purpose by this title as aforesaid; and where duties accrue at other and different times, the list shall be taken with reference to the time when said taxes become due, and shall be denominated annual, monthly, and special lists or returns. (R. S. § 3181; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 319.)

102. Assessments by commissioner; correction of lists.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall make the inquiries, determinations, and assessments of all taxes and penalties imposed by this title, or accruing under any former internal revenue law, where such taxes have not been duly paid by stamp at the time and in the manner provided by law, and shall certify a list of such assessments when made to the proper collectors respectively, who shall proceed to collect and account for the taxes and penalties so certified. Whenever it is ascertained that any list which has been or shall be delivered to any collector, is imperfect or incomplete in consequence of the omission of the name of any person liable to tax, or in consequence of any omission, or understatement, or undervaluation, or false or fraudulent statement contained in any return made by any person liable to tax, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may, at any time, within fifteen months from the time of the delivery of the list to the collector as aforesaid, enter on any monthly or special list the name of such person so omitted, together with the amount of tax for which he may have been or shall become liable, and also the name of any such person in respect to whose return, as aforesaid, there has been or shall be any omission, undervaluation, understatement, or false or fraudulent statement, together with the amount for which such person may be liable, above the amount for which he may have been or shall be assessed upon any return made as aforesaid; and he shall certify and return such list to the collector as required by law. And all provisions of law for the ascertainment of liability to any tax, or the assessment or collection thereof, shall be held to apply, so far as may be necessary, to the proceedings herein authorized and directed. (R. S. § 3182.)

103. Collectors and deputies to collect all taxes.—It shall be the duty of the collectors, or their deputies, in their respective districts, and they are authorized, to collect all the taxes imposed by law, however the same may be designated. (R. S. § 3183; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 3, 20 Stat. 331.)

104. Notice and demand.—Where it is not otherwise provided, the collector shall in person or by deputy, within ten days after receiving any list of taxes from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, give notice to each person liable to pay any taxes stated therein, to be left at his dwelling or usual place of business, or to be sent by mail, stating the amount of such taxes and demanding payment thereof. If such person does not pay the taxes, within ten days after the service or the sending by mail of such notice, it shall be the duty of the collector or his deputy to collect the said taxes with a penalty of 5 per centum additional upon the amount of taxes, and interest at the rate of 1 per centum a month. (R. S. § 3184.)

105. Limitation on time for assessment or collection of internal revenue taxes.—Except as provided in sections 106, 107, 1057 to 1062, 1110, and 1111 of this title, all internal revenue taxes shall, notwithstanding the provisions of section 102 of this chapter or any other provision of law, be assessed within four years after such taxes became due, and no proceeding in court for the collection of such taxes shall be begun after the expiration of five years after such taxes became due. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1009 (a), 43 Stat. 341.)

106. Same; evading tax by fraud or otherwise.—In case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax, of a failure to file a required return, or of a willful attempt in any manner to defeat or evade tax, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1009 (b), 43 Stat. 341.)

107. Collection of tax by distraint or proceeding in court; proceedings for collection of tax without assessment.—Where the assessment of the tax is made within the period prescribed in sections 105 and 106 of this chapter such tax may be collected by distraint or by a proceeding in court, begun within six years after the assessment of the tax. Nothing in this title shall be construed as preventing the beginning, without assessment, of a proceeding in court for the collection of the tax at any time before the expiration of the period provided in section 105 for the beginning of such proceeding. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1009 (c), 43 Stat. 341.)

108. Effect of existing limitations.—Sections 105 to 107 of this chapter shall not (1) authorize the assessment of a tax or the collection thereof by distraint or by a proceeding in court if on June 2, 1924, such assessment, distraint, or proceeding was barred by the period of limitation then in existence, or (2) affect any assessment made, or distraint or proceeding in court begun, before such date. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1009 (d), 43 Stat. 341.)

109. Payment of taxes; certified checks; ultimate payment.—It shall be lawful for collectors of internal revenue to receive for internal taxes and all public dues certified checks drawn on national and State banks, and trust companies during such time and under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. No person, however, who may be indebted to the United States on account of internal taxes who shall have tendered a certified check or checks as provisional payment for such duties or taxes, in accordance with the terms of this section, shall be released from the obligation to make ultimate payment thereof until such certified check so received has been duly paid; and if any such check so received is not duly paid by the bank on which it is drawn and so certifying, the United States shall, in addition to its right to exact payment from the party originally indebted therefor, have a lien for the amount of such check upon all the assets of such bank; and such amount shall be paid out of its assets in preference to any or all other claims whatsoever against said bank, except the necessary costs and expenses of administration and the reimbursement of the United States for the amount expended in the redemption of the circulating notes of such bank. (Mar. 2, 1911, c. 191, § 1, 36 Stat. 965; Mar. 3, 1913, c. 119, 37 Stat. 733.)

110. Same; United States certificates of indebtedness and uncertified checks.—Collectors may receive, at par with an adjustment for accrued interest, notes or certificates of indebtedness issued by the United States and uncertified checks in payment of income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes and any other taxes payable other than by stamp, during such time and under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe; but if a check so received is not paid by the bank on which it is drawn the person by whom such check has been tendered shall remain liable for the payment of the tax and for all legal penalties and additions to the same extent as if such check had not been tendered. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1021 (a), 43 Stat. 347.)

111. Same; fractional parts of a cent disregarded.—In the payment of any tax under this title not payable by stamp a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to 1 cent. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1313, 40 Stat. 1145; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1306, 42 Stat. 310; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1021, 43 Stat. 347.)

112. Receipts for taxes.—Every collector and deputy collector shall give receipts for all sums collected by him excepting only when the same are in payment for stamps sold and delivered; but no collector or deputy collector shall issue a receipt in lieu of a stamp representing a tax. (R. S. § 3183; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 3, 20 Stat. 331.)

113. Same; income tax.—Every collector to whom any payment of any income tax is made shall upon request give to the person making such payment a full written or printed receipt, stating the amount paid and the particular account for which such payment was made; and whenever any debtor pays taxes on account of payments made or to be made by him to separate creditors the collector shall, if requested by such debtor, give a separate receipt for the tax paid on account of each creditor in such form that the debtor can conveniently produce such receipts separately to his several creditors in satisfaction of their respective demands up to the amounts stated in the receipts; and such receipt shall be sufficient evidence in favor of such debtor to justify him in withholding from his next payment to his creditor the amount therein stated; but the creditor may, upon giving to his debtor a full written receipt acknowledging the payment to him of any sum actually paid and accepting the amount of tax paid as aforesaid (specifying the same) as a further satisfaction of the debt to that amount, require the surrender to him of such collector's receipt. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1021 (b), 43 Stat. 347.)

114. Monthly returns and special returns; when tax payable.—All returns required to be made monthly by any person liable to tax shall be made on or before the 10th day of each month, and the tax assessed or due thereon shall be returned by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to the collector on or before the last day of each month. All returns for which no provision is otherwise made shall be made on or before the 10th day of the month succeeding the time when the tax is due and liable to be assessed, and the tax thereon shall be returned as herein provided for monthly returns, and shall be due and payable on or before the last day of the month in which the assessment is so made. When the said tax is not paid on or before the last day of the month, as aforesaid, the collector shall add a penalty of 5 per centum, together with interest at the rate of 1 per centum per month, upon such tax from the time the same became due; but no interest for a fraction of a month shall be demanded: Provided, That notice of the time when such tax becomes due and payable is given in such manner as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. It shall then be the duty of the collector, in case of the nonpayment of said tax on or before the last day of the month, as aforesaid, to demand payment thereof, with 5 per centum added thereto, and interest at the rate of 1 per centum per month, as aforesaid, in the manner prescribed by law; and if said tax, penalty, and interest, are not paid within ten days after such demand, it shall be lawful for the collector or his deputy to make distraint therefor, as provided by law. (R. S. § 3185.)

115. Lien for taxes.—If any person liable to pay any tax neglects or refuses to pay the same after demand, the amount shall be a lien in favor of the United States from the time when the assessment list was received by the collector, except when otherwise provided, until paid, with the interest, penalties, and costs that may accrue in addition thereto upon all property and rights to property belonging to such person; but such lien shall not be valid as against any mortgagee, purchaser, or judgment creditor until notice of such lien shall be filed by the collector in the office of the clerk of the district court of the district within which the property subject to such lien is situated. Whenever any State by appropriate legislation authorizes the filing of such notice in the office of the registrar or recorder of deeds of the counties of that State, and in the State of Louisiana in the parishes thereof, and in the States of Connecticut, Rhode Island, and Vermont in the office of the registrar or recorder of deeds or town or city clerk having custody of the land records of the towns and cities, then such lien shall not be valid in that State against any mortgagee, purchaser, or judgment creditor until such notice shall be filed in the office of the registrar or recorder of deeds of the county or counties, or parish or parishes in the State of Louisiana, or in the office of the registrar or recorder of deeds or town or city clerk having custody of the land records in the States of Connecticut, Rhode Island, and Vermont of the towns or cities within which the property subject to the lien is situated. (R. S. § 3186; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 3, 20 Stat. 331; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 166, 37 Stat. 1016; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 344, 43 Stat. 994.)

116. Distraint for taxes.—If any person liable to pay any taxes neglects or refuses to pay the same within ten days after notice and demand, it shall be lawful for the collector or his deputy to collect the said taxes, with 5 per centum additional thereto, and interest as aforesaid, by distraint and sale, in the manner hereafter provided, of the goods, chattels, or effects, including stocks, securities, bank accounts, and evidences of debt, of the person delinquent as aforesaid, except there shall be exempt from distraint and sale, if belonging to the head of a family, the schoolbooks and wearing apparel necessary for such family; also arms for personal use, one cow, two hogs, five sheep and the wool thereof, provided the aggregate market value of said sheep shall not exceed $50; the necessary food for such cow, hogs, and sheep, for a period not exceeding thirty days; fuel to an amount not greater in value than $25; provisions to an amount not greater than $50; household furniture kept for use to an amount not greater than $300; and the books, tools, or implements, of a trade or profession, to an amount not greater than $100 shall also be exempt; and the officer making the distraint shall summon three disinterested householders of the vicinity, who shall appraise and set apart to the owner the amount of property herein declared to be exempt. (R. S. § 3187; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1016, 43 Stat. 343.)

117. Same; levy.—In such case of neglect or refusal, the collector may levy, or by warrant may authorize a deputy collector to levy, upon all property and rights to property, except such as are exempt by section 116 of this title, belonging to such person, or on which the said lien exists, for the payment of the sum due as aforesaid, with interest and penalty for nonpayment, and also of such further sum as shall be sufficient for the fees, costs, and expenses of such levy. (R. S. § 3188.)

118. Same; exhibit of evidences relating to property.—All persons, and officers of companies or corporations, are required, on demand of a collector or deputy collector about to distrain or having distrained on any property, or rights of property, to exhibit all books containing evidence or statements relating to the subject of distraint, or the property or rights of property liable to distraint for the tax due as aforesaid. (R. S. § 3189.)

119. Same; proceedings on.—When distraint is made, as aforesaid, the officer charged with the collection shall make or cause to be made an account of the goods or effects distrained, a copy of which, signed by the officer making such distraint, shall be left with the owner or possessor of such goods or effects, or at his dwelling or usual place of business, with some person of suitable age and discretion, if any such can be found, with a note of the sum demanded, and the time and place of sale; and the said officer shall forthwith cause a notification to be published in some newspaper within the county wherein said distraint is made, if a newspaper is published in said county, or to be publicly posted at the post office, if there be one within five miles nearest to the residence of the person whose property shall be destrained, and in not less than two other public places. Such notice shall specify the articles distrained, and the time and place for the sale thereof. Such time shall not be less than ten nor more than twenty days from the date of such notification to the owner or possessor of the property and the publication or posting of such notice as herein provided, and the place proposed for the sale shall not be more than five miles distant from the place of making such distraint. Said sale may be adjourned from time to time by said officer, if he deems it advisable, but not for a time to exceed in all thirty days. (R. S. § 3190.)

120. Same; sale of property subject to tax.—When property subject to tax, but upon which the tax has not been paid, is seized upon distraint and sold, the amount of such tax shall, after deducting the expenses of such sale, be first appropriated out of the proceeds thereof to the payment of the tax. And if no assessment of such tax has been made upon such property, the collector shall make a return thereof in the form required by law, and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall assess the tax thereon. (R. S. § 3191.)

121. Same; sale of property; purchase for United States.—When any property advertised for sale under distraint, as aforesaid, is of a kind subject to tax, and the tax has not been paid, and the amount bid for such property is not equal to the amount of the tax, the collector may purchase the same in behalf of the United States for an amount not exceeding the said tax. All property so purchased may be sold by the collector, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. The collector shall render to the commissioner a distinct account of all charges incurred in such sales, and, in case of sale, shall pay into the Treasury the surplus, if any there be, after defraying all lawful charges and fees. (R. S. § 3192.)

122. Same; restoration of property on payment before sale.—In any case of distraint for the payment of the taxes aforesaid, the goods, chattels, or effects so distrained shall be restored to the owner or possessor, if, prior to the sale, payment of the amount due is made to the proper officer charged with the collection, together with the fees and other charges; but in case of nonpayment as aforesaid, the said officers shall proceed to sell the said goods, chattels, or effects at public auction, and shall retain from the proceeds of such sale the amount demandable for the use of the United States, and a commission of 5 per centum thereon for his own use, with the fees and charges for distraint and sale, rendering the overplus, if any there be, to the person who may be entitled to receive the same. (R. S. § 3193.)

123. Same; effect of certificate of sale.—In all cases of sale, as aforesaid, the certificate of such sale shall be prima-facie evidence of the right of the officer to make such sale, and conclusive evidence of the regularity of his proceedings in making the sale, and shall transfer to the purchaser all right, title, and interest of such delinquent in and to the property sold; and where such property consists of stocks, said certificate shall be notice, when received, to any corporation, company, or association of said transfer, and shall be authority to such corporation, company, or association to record the same on their books and records in the same manner as if transferred or assigned by the party holding the same, in lieu of any original or prior certificates, which shall be void, whether canceled or not. And said certificates, where the subject of sale is securities or other evidences of debt, shall be good and valid receipts to the person holding the same, as against any person holding, or claiming to hold, possession of such securities or other evidences of dept. (R. S. § 3194.)

124. Same; when property not divisible.—When any property liable to distraint for taxes is not divisible, so as to enable the collector by sale of a part thereof to raise the whole amount of the tax, with all costs and charges, the whole of such property shall be sold, and the surplus of the proceeds of the sale, after making allowance for the amount of the tax, interest, penalties, and additions thereto, and for the costs and charges of the distraint and sale, shall be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States as provided in subdivision (b) of section 140 of this title. (R. S. § 3195; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1031 (a), 43 Stat. 351.)

125. Real estate; sale to satisfy taxes.—When goods chattels, or effects sufficient to satisfy the taxes imposed upon any person are not found by the collector or deputy collector, he is authorized to collect the same by seizure and sale of real estate. (R. S. § 3196.)

126. Same; proceedings.—The officer making the seizure mentioned in section 125 of this title shall give notice to the person whose estate it is proposed to sell by giving him in hand, or leaving at his last or usual place of abode, if he has any such within the collection district where said estate is situated, a notice, in writing, stating what particular estate is to be sold, describing the same with reasonable certainty, and the time when and place where said officer proposes to sell the same; which time shall not be less than twenty nor more than forty days from the time of giving said notice. The said officer shall also cause a notification to the same effect to be published in some newspaper within the county where such seizure is made, if any such there be, and shall also cause a like notice to be posted at the post office nearest to the estate seized, and in two other public places within the county; and the place of said sale shall not be more than five miles distant from the estate seized, except by special order of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. At the time and place appointed, the officer making such seizure shall proceed to sell the said estate at public auction, offering the same at a minimum price, including the expense of making such levy, and all charges for advertising and an officer's fee of $10. When the real estate so seized consists of several distinct tracts or parcels, the officer making sale thereof shall offer each tract or parcel for sale separately, and shall, if he deem it advisable, apportion the expenses, charges, and fees aforesaid to such several tracts or parcels, or to any of them, in estimating the minimum price aforesaid. If no person offers for said estate the amount of said minimum price, the officer shall declare the same to be purchased by him for the United States; otherwise the same shall be declared to be sold to the highest bidder. And in case the same shall be declared to be purchased for the United States, the officer shall immediately transmit a certificate of the purchase to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and, at the proper time, as hereafter provided, shall execute a deed therefor, after its preparation and the indorsement of approval as to its form by the United States district attorney for the district in which the property is situate, and shall without delay, cause the same to be duly recorded in the proper registry of deeds, and immediately thereafter shall transmit such deed to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. And said sale may be adjourned from time to time by said officer for not exceeding thirty days in all, if he shall think it advisable so to do. If the amount bid shall not be then and there paid, the officer shall forthwith proceed to again sell said estate in the same manner. And it is hereby provided, That all certificates of purchase, and deeds of property purchased by the United States under the internal-revenue laws, on sales for taxes, or under executions issued from United States courts, which now are, or hereafter may be, found in the office of any collector, United States marshal, or United States district attorney, shall be immediately transmitted by such officers respectively to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. (R. S. § 3197; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 248; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 3, 20 Stat. 331; May 28, 1896, c. 252, 29 Stat. 179; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, 33 Stat. 1207; July 19, 1919, c. 24, § 1, 41 Stat. 209.)

127. Same; certificate of purchase; deed.—Upon any sale of real estate, as provided in section 126 of this title, and the payment of the purchase-money, the officer making the seizure and sale shall give to the purchaser a certificate of purchase, which shall set forth the real estate purchased, for whose taxes the same was sold, the name of the purchaser, and the price paid therefor; and if the said real estate be not redeemed in the manner and within the time hereafter provided, the said collector or deputy collector shall execute to the said purchaser, upon his surrender of said certificate, a deed of the real estate purchased by him as aforesaid, reciting the facts set forth in said certificate, and in accordance with the laws of the State in which such real estate is situate upon the subject of sales of real estate under execution. (R. S. § 3198.)

128. Same; deed prima-facie evidence.—The deed of sale given in pursuance of section 127 of this title shall be prima-facie evidence of the facts therein stated; and if the proceedings of the officer as set forth have been substantially in accordance with the provisions of law, shall be considered and operate as a conveyance of all the right, title, and interest the party delinquent had in and to the real estate thus sold at the time the lien of the United States attached thereto. (R. S. § 3199.)

129. Same; place of seizure.—Any collector or deputy collector may, for the collection of taxes imposed upon any person, and committed to him for collection, seize and sell the lands of such person situated in any other collection district within the State in which such officer resides; and his proceedings in relation thereto shall have the same effect as if the same were had in his proper collection district. (R. S. § 3200.)

130. Same; redemption prior to sale.—Any person whose estate may be proceeded against as aforesaid shall have the right to pay the amount due, together with the costs and charges thereon, to the collector or deputy collector at any time prior to the sale thereof, and all further proceedings shall cease from the time of such payment. (R. S. § 3201.)

131. Same; redemption after sale.—The owners of any real estate sold as aforesaid, their heirs, executors, or administrators, or any person having any interest therein, or a lien thereon, or any person in their behalf, shall be permitted to redeem the land sold, or any particular tract thereof, at any time within one year after the sale thereof, upon payment to the purchaser, or, in case he can not be found in the county in which the land to be redeemed is situate, then to the collector of the district in which the land is situate, for the use of the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, the amount paid by the said purchaser and interest thereon at the rate of 20 per centum per annum. (R. S. § 3202.)

132. Same; record of sales; evidence.—It shall be the duty of every collector to keep a record of all sales of land made in his collection district, whether by himself or his deputies, or by another collector, in which shall be set forth the tax for which any such sale was made, the dates of seizure and sale, the name of the party assessed and all proceedings in making said sale, amount of fees and expenses, the name of the purchaser and the date of the deed; and said record shall be certified by the officer making the sale. And on or before the 5th day of each succeeding month he shall transmit a copy of such record of the preceding month to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. And it shall be the duty of every deputy making sale, as aforesaid, to return a statement of all his proceedings to the collector, and to certify the record thereof. In case of the death or removal of the collector, or the expiration of his term of office from any other cause, said record shall be delivered to his successor in office; and a copy of every such record, certified by the collector, shall be evidence in any court of the truth of the facts therein stated. (R. S. § 3203; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 3, 20 Stat. 332.)

133. Same; record of redemptions.—When any lands sold, as aforesaid, are redeemed as heretofore provided, the collector shall make entry of the fact upon the record mentioned in section 132 of this title, and the said entry shall be evidence of such redemption. (R. S. § 3204.)

134. Successive seizures.—Whenever any property, personal or real, which is seized and sold by virtue of the foregoing provisions, is not sufficient to satisfy the claim of the United States for which distraint or seizure is made, the collector may, thereafter, and as often as the same may be necessary, proceed to seize and sell, in like manner, any other property liable to seizure of the person against whom such claim exists, until the amount due from him, together with all expenses, is fully paid. (R. S. § 3205.)

135. Fees and charges in seizure cases.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall by regulation determine the fees and charges to be allowed in all cases of distraint and other seizures; and shall have power to determine whether any expense incurred in making any distraint or seizure was necessary. (R. S. § 3206.)

136. Chancery proceedings against real estate.—(a) In any case where there has been a refusal or neglect to pay any tax, and it has become necessary to seize and sell real estate to satisfy the same, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may direct a bill in chancery to be filed, in a district court of the United States, to enforce the lien of the United States for tax upon any real estate, or to subject any real estate owned by the delinquent, or in which he has any right, title, or interest, to the payment of such tax. All persons having liens upon or claiming any interest in the real estate sought to be subjected as aforesaid, shall be made parties to such proceedings, and be brought into court as provided in other suits in chancery therein. And the said court shall, at the term next after the parties have been duly notified of the proceedings, unless otherwise ordered by the court, proceed to adjudicate all matters involved therein, and finally determine the merits of all claims to and liens upon the real estate in question, and, in all cases where a claim or interest of the United States therein is established, shall decree a sale of such real estate, by the proper officer of the court, and a distribution of the proceeds of such sale according to the findings of the court in respect to the interests of the parties and of the United States.

(b) Any person having a lien upon or any interest in such real estate, notice of which has been duly filed of record in the jurisdiction in which the real estate is located, prior to the filing of notice of the lien of the United States as provided by section 115 of this title, or any person purchasing the real estate at a sale to satisfy such prior lien or interest, may make written request to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to direct the filing of a bill in chancery as provided in subdivision (a), and if the commissioner fails to direct the filing of such bill within six months after receipt of such written request, such person or purchaser may, after giving notice to the commissioner, file a petition in the district court of the United States for the district in which the real estate is located, praying leave to file a bill for a final determination of all claims to or liens upon the real estate in question. After a full hearing in open court, the district court may in its discretion enter an order granting leave to file such bill, in which the United States and all persons having liens upon or claiming any interest in the real estate shall be made parties. Service on the United States shall be had in the manner provided by sections 762 and 763 of Title 28. Upon the filing of such bill the district court shall proceed to adjudicate the matters involved therein, in the same manner as in the case of bills filed under subdivision (a) of this section. For the purpose of such adjudication, the assessment of the tax upon which the lien of the United States is based shall be conclusively presumed to be valid, and all costs of the proceedings on the petition and the bill shall be borne by the person filing the bill. (R. S. § 3207; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1030, 43 Stat. 350.)

137. Charge of real estate acquired by United States.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall have charge of all real estate which is or shall become the property of the United States by judgment of forfeiture under the internal revenue laws, or which has been or shall be assigned, set off, or conveyed by purchase or otherwise to the United States in payment of debts or penalties arising under the laws relating to internal revenue, or which has been or shall be vested in the United States by mortgage or other security for the payment of such debts, and of all trusts created for the use of the United States in payment of such debts due them; and, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may, at public vendue, and upon not less than twenty days' notice, sell and dispose of all real estate owned or held by the United States aforesaid; and until such sale the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may lease such real estate owned as aforesaid on such terms and for such period as they shall deem expedient. And in cases where real estate has or may become the property of the United States by conveyance or otherwise, in payment of or as security for a debt arising under the laws relating to internal revenue, and such debt shall have been paid, together with the interest thereon, at the rate of 1 per centum per month, to the United States, within two years from the date of the acquisition of such real estate, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury to release by deed, or otherwise convey such real estate to the debtor from whom it was taken, or to his heirs or other legal representatives. (R. S. § 3208; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 3, 20 Stat. 332.)

138. Lists sent to district where party taxed resides or has property.—Whenever a collector has on any list duly returned to him the name of any person not within his collection district who is liable to tax, or of any person so liable who has, in the collection district in which he resides, no sufficient property subject to seizure or distraint, from which the money due for tax can be collected, such collector shall transmit a statement containing the name of the person liable to such tax, with the amount and nature thereof, duly certified under his hand, to the collector of any district to which said person shall have removed, or in which he shall have property, real or personal, liable to be seized and sold for tax. And the collector to whom the said certified statement is transmitted shall proceed to collect the said tax in the same way as if the name of the person and objects of tax contained in the said certified statement were on any list of his own collection district; and he shall, upon receiving said certified statement as aforesaid, transmit his receipt for it to the collector sending the same to him. (R. S. § 3209.)

139. Depositories for internal-revenue moneys.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to designate one or more depositories in each State, for the deposit and safe-keeping of the money collected by virtue of the internal revenue laws; and the receipt of the proper officer of such depository to a collector for the money deposited by him shall be a sufficient voucher for such collector in the settlement of his accounts at the Treasury Department. (R. S. § 3211.)

140. Collections paid into Treasury daily; exception.—(a) Except as provided in subdivision (b) the gross amount of all taxes and revenues received under the provisions of this title and collections of whatever nature received or collected by authority of any internal revenue law, shall be paid daily into the Treasury of the United States under instructions of the Secretary of the Treasury as internal-revenue collections, by the officer receiving or collecting the same, without any abatement or deduction on account of salary, compensation, fees, costs, charges, expenses, or claims of any description. A certificate of such payment, stating the name of the depositor and the specific account on which the deposit was made, signed by the treasurer, designated depositary, or proper officer of a deposit bank, shall be transmitted to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

(b) Sums offered in compromise under the provisions of section 158 of this title and section 52 of Title 27, sums offered for the purchase of real estate under the provisions of section 137 of this title, and surplus proceeds in any distraint sale, after making allowance for the amount of the tax, interest, penalties, and additions thereto, and for costs and charges of the distraint and sale, shall be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States in a special deposit account in the name of the collector making the deposit. Upon acceptance of such offer in compromise or offer for the purchase of such real estate, the amount so accepted shall be withdrawn by the collector from his special deposit account with the Treasurer of the United States and deposited in the Treasury of the United States as internal-revenue collections. Upon the rejection of any such offer, the commissioner shall authorize the collector, through whom the amount of such offer was submitted, to refund to the maker of such offer the amount thereof. In the case of surplus proceeds from distraint sales the commissioner shall, upon application and satisfactory proof in support thereof, authorize the collector through whom the amount was received to refund the same to the person or persons legally entitled thereto. (R. S. § 3210; May 10, 1916, c. 117, § 1, 39 Stat. 86; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1081(b), 43 Stat. 351.)

141. Collector's monthly statement.—Every collector shall, at the expiration of each month after he commences his collections, transmit to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue a statement of the collections made by him within the month. And every collector shall complete the collection of all sums assigned to him for collection, and shall pay over the same into the Treasury, as often as required by law. (R. S. § 3212; May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 325.)

142. Suits for fines, penalties, and forfeitures, and taxes.—It shall be the duty of the collectors, in their respective districts, subject to the provisions of this title, to prosecute for the recovery of any sums which may be forfeited by law. All suits for fines, penalties, and forfeitures, where not otherwise provided for, shall be brought in the name of the United States, in any proper form of action, or by any appropriate form of proceeding, qui tam or otherwise, before any district court of the United States, for the district within which said fine, penalty, or forfeiture may have been incurred, or before any other court of competent jurisdiction; and taxes may be sued for and recovered in the name of the United States, in any proper form of action, before any district court of the United States for the district within which the liability to such tax is incurred, or where the party from whom such tax is due resides at the time of the commencement of the said action. (R. S. § 3213; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 289, 36 Stat. 1167.)

143. Same; sanction of commissioner.—No suit for the recovery of taxes, or of any fine, penalty, or forfeiture, shall be commenced unless the Commissioner of Internal Revenue authorizes or sanctions the proceedings. In case of any suit for penalties or forfeitures brought upon information received from any person, other than a collector or deputy collector, the United States shall not be subject to any costs of suit. (R. S. § 3214.)

144. Same; regulations.—It shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, to establish such regulations, not inconsistent with law, for the observance of revenue officers, district attorneys, and marshals, respecting suits arising under the internal-revenue laws in which the United States is a party, as may be deemed necessary for the just responsibility of those officers and the prompt collection of all revenues and debts due and accruing to the United States under such laws. (R. S. § 3215.)

145. Same; moneys recovered paid to collectors.—All judgments and moneys recovered or received for taxes, costs, forfeitures, and penalties, shall be paid to collectors as internal taxes are required to be paid. (R. S. § 3216.)

146. Collection of dues from delinquent collector.—When any collector fails either to collect or to render his account, or to pay over in the manner or within the times provided by law, the General Accounting Office shall, immediately after evidence of such delinquency, report the same to the Solicitor of the Treasury, who shall issue a warrant of distress against such delinquent collector, directed to the marshal of the district, expressing therein the amount with which the said collector is chargeable, and the sums, if any, which have been paid over by him, so far as the same are ascertainable. And the said marshal shall, himself, or by his deputy, immediately proceed to levy and collect the sum which may remain due, with 5 per centum thereon, and all the expenses and charges of collection, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels, or any personal effects of the delinquent collector, giving at least five days' notice of the time and place of sale, in the manner provided by law for advertising sales of personal property on execution in the State wherein such collector resides. And the bill of sale of the officer of any goods, chattels, or other personal property, distrained and sold as aforesaid, shall be conclusive evidence of title to the purchaser, and prima facie evidence of the right of the officer to make such sale, and of the correctness of his proceedings in selling the same. And for want of goods and chattels, or other personal effects of such collector, sufficient to satisfy any warrant of distress, issued as aforesaid, the real estate of such collector, or so much thereof as may be necessary for satisfying the said warrant, after being advertised for at least three weeks next before the time of sale, in not less than three public places in the collection district, and in one newspaper printed in the county or district, if any there be, shall be sold at public auction by the marshal or his deputy. Upon such sale, the marshal shall make and deliver to the purchaser of the premises sold a deed of conveyance thereof, to be executed and acknowledged in the manner and form prescribed by the laws of the State in which said lands are situated, and said deed so made shall invest the purchaser with all the title and interest of the defendant named in said warrant, existing at the time of the seizure thereof. And all moneys that may remain of the proceeds of such sale of personal or real property, after satisfying the said warrant of distress, and paying the reasonable costs and charges of sale, shall be returned to the proprietor of the property sold as aforesaid. (R. S. § 3217; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

147. Collectors' accounts; charges; credits.—Every collector shall be charged with the whole amount of taxes, whether contained in lists transmitted to him by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, or by other collectors, or delivered to him by his predecessor in office, and with the additions thereto, with the par value of all stamps deposited with him, and with all moneys collected for penalties, forfeitures, fees, or costs; and he shall be credited with all payments into the Treasury made as provided by law, with all stamps returned by him uncanceled to the Treasury, and with the amount of taxes contained in the lists transmitted in the manner heretofore provided to other collectors, and by them receipted as aforesaid; also with the amount of the taxes of such persons as may have absconded, or become insolvent, prior to the day when the tax ought, according to the provisions of law, to have been collected, and with all uncollected taxes transferred by him or by his deputy acting as collector to his successor in office, if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, who shall certify the facts to the General Accounting Office, that due diligence was used by the collector. And each collector shall also be credited with the amount of all property purchased by him for the use of the United States, provided he faithfully account for and pay over the proceeds thereof upon a resale of the same as required by law. (R. S. § 3218; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

148. Death of collector; uncollected balances.—In case of the death, resignation, or removal of any collector, all lists and accounts of taxes uncollected shall be transferred to his successor in office as soon as such successor is appointed and qualified, and it shall be the duty of such successor to collect the same. (R. S. § 3219.)

149. Refundments; taxes or penalties.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, subject to regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, is authorized to remit, refund, and pay back all taxes erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, all penalties collected without authority, and all taxes that appear to be unjustly assessed or excessive in amount, or in any manner wrongfully collected; also to repay to any collector or deputy collector the full amount of such sums of money as may be recovered against him in any court, for any internal revenue taxes collected by him, with the cost and expenses of suit; also all damages and costs recovered against any assessor, assistant assessor, collector, deputy collector, agent, or inspector, in any suit brought against him by reason of anything done in the due performance of his official duty, and shall make report to Congress at the beginning of each regular session of Congress of all transactions under this section. (R. S. § 3220; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1316(a), 40 Stat. 1145; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1315, 42 Stat. 314; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1011, 43 Stat. 342.)

150. Same; taxes on distilled spirits.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue may, pursuant to the provisions of section 149 of this chapter, allow the claim of any distiller for the refund of taxes paid in excess of $2.20 per proof gallon on any distilled spirits produced and owned by him on February 11, 1925, and stored on the premises of the distillery where produced, but no refund shall be allowed unless such spirits are contained in the distiller's original packages in which they were taxpaid, or in regularly stamped bottles and cases in which they were placed when bottled in bond, or in stamped or unstamped bottles into which they have been placed while on and without removal from the distillery premises. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue may direct that any spirits on which refund of tax is claimed under this section shall be removed to and stored in a warehouse designated by him. (Feb. 11, 1925, c. 208, 43 Stat. 860.)

151. Same; spirits accidentally destroyed.—The Secretary of the Treasury, upon the production to him of satisfactory proof of the actual destruction by accidental fire or other casualty, and without any fraud, collusion, or negligence of the owner thereof, of any distilled spirits, while the same remained in the custody of any officer of internal revenue in any distillery warehouse, or bonded warehouse of the United States, or of any grape brandy withdrawn for use in the fortification of sweet wines while stored in the fortifying room on the winery premises and before the tax thereon has been paid, may abate the amount of internal taxes accruing thereon, and may cancel any warehouse bond, or enter satisfaction thereon, in whole or in part, as the case may be. And if such taxes have been collected since the destruction of said spirits, or said grape brandy, the said Secretary shall refund the same to the owners thereof out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated. And when any distilled spirits are destroyed by accidental fire or other casualty, without any fraud, collusion, or negligence of the owner thereof, after the time when the same should have been drawn off by the gauger and placed in the distillery warehouse provided by law, no tax shall be collected on such spirits so destroyed, or, if collected, it shall be refunded upon the production of satisfactory proof that the spirits were destroyed as herein specified. (R. S. § 3221; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 6, 20 Stat. 341; June 7, 1906, c. 3046, § 5, 34 Stat. 216.)

152. Same; tax on lost spirits indemnified by insurance.—When the owners of distilled spirits or grape brandy in the cases provided for by section 151 of this title may be indemnified against such tax by a valid claim of insurance, for a sum greater than the actual value of the distilled spirits or grape brandy before and without the tax being paid, the tax shall not be remitted to the extent of such insurance. (R. S. § 3223; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 3, 20 Stat. 333; June 7, 1906, c. 3046, § 5, 34 Stat. 216.)

153. Interest on claims for refunds or credits.—Upon the allowance of a credit or refund of any internal revenue tax erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, or of any penalty collected without authority, or of any sum which was excessive or in any manner wrongfully collected, interest shall be allowed and paid on the amount of such credit or refund at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date such tax, penalty, or sum was paid to the date of the allowance of the refund, or in case of a credit, to the due date of the amount against which the credit it taken, but if the amount against which the credit is taken is an additional assessment, then to the date of the assessment of that amount. The term "additional assessment" as used in this section means a further assessment for a tax of the same character previously paid in part. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1019, 43 Stat. 346.)

154. Restraining assessments or collection of taxes.—No suit for the purpose of restraining the assessment or collection of any tax shall be maintained in any court. (R. S. § 3224.)

155. Reopening of claims for credits or refunds of taxes imposed by prior laws.—Unless otherwise provided by law any claim for credit or refund of taxes imposed by the Revenue Act of 1916, the Revenue Act of 1917, the Revenue Act of 1918, the Revenue Act of 1921, or any such Act as amended, prior to June 2, 1924, denied in whole or in part because of the provisions of Revised Statutes, section 3225, amended, which, prior to its repeal on June 2, 1924, provided that: "When a second assessment is made, in case of any list, statement or return, which in the opinion of the collector or deputy collector was false or fradulent, or contained any understatement or undervaluation, such assessment shall not be remitted, nor shall taxes collected under such assessment be refunded, or paid back or recovered by any suit unless it is proved that such list, statement or return, was not willfully false or fraudulent, and did not contain any willful understatement or undervaluation," may be reopened and decided without reference to said provisions. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1015, 43 Stat. 343.)

156. Suits for recovery of taxes wrongfully collected.—No suit or proceeding shall be maintained in any court for the recovery of any internal revenue tax alleged to have been erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, or of any penalty claimed to have been collected without authority, or of any sum alleged to have been excessive or in any manner wrongfully collected until a claim for refund or credit has been duly filed with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, according to the provisions of law in that regard, and the regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury established in pursuance thereof; but such suit or proceeding may be maintained, whether or not such tax, penalty, or sum has been paid under protest or duress. No such suit or proceeding shall be begun before the expiration of six months from the date of filing such claim unless the commissioner renders a decision thereon within that time, nor after the expiration of five years from the date of the payment of such tax, penalty, or sum, unless such suit or proceeding is begun within two years after the disallowance of the part of such claim to which such suit or proceeding relates. The commissioner shall within 90 days after any such disallowance notify the taxpayer thereof by mail. (R. S. § 3226; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 248; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1318, 42 Stat. 315; Mar. 4, 1923, c. 276, § 2, 42 Stat. 1505; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1014(a), 43 Stat. 343.)

157. Claims for refundment; limitations.—(a) All claims for the refunding or crediting of any internal-revenue tax alleged to have been erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, or of any penalty alleged to have been collected without authority, or of any sum alleged to have been excessive or in any manner wrongfully collected must, except as provided in section 1065 of this title, be presented to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue within four years next after the payment of such tax, penalty, or sum.

(b) Except as provided in said section 1065 of this title, claims for credit or refund (other than claims in respect of taxes imposed by the Revenue Act of 1916, the Revenue Act of 1917, or the Revenue Act of 1918) which at the time of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1921 were barred from allowance by the period of limitation then in existence, shall not be allowed. (R. S. § 3228; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1316, 42 Stat. 314; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1012, 43 Stat. 342.)

158. Compromises.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the advice and consent of the Secretary of the Treasury, may compromise any civil or criminal case arising under the internal-revenue laws instead of commencing suit thereon; and, with the advice and consent of the said Secretary and the recommendation of the Attorney General, he may compromise any such case after a suit thereon has been commenced. Whenever a compromise is made in any case there shall be placed on file in the office of the commissioner the opinion of the Solicitor of Internal Revenue, or of the officer acting as such, with his reasons therefor, with a statement of the amount of tax assessed, the amount of additional tax or penalty imposed by law in consequence of the neglect or delinquency of the person against whom the tax is assessed, and the amount actually paid in accordance with the terms of the compromise. (R. S. § 3229.)

159. Continuances of internal-revenue cases.—It shall be lawful for any court in which any suit or criminal proceeding arising under the internal-revenue laws may be pending, to continue the same at any stage thereof, for good cause shown on motion by the district attorney. (R. S. § 3231.)

160. Discontinuances of criminal prosecutions.—No discontinuance or nolle prosequi of any prosecution under section 261 of this title shall be allowed without the permission in writing of the Secretary of the Treasury and the Attorney General. (R. S. § 3230.)

Section 181. Trade or business prohibited until special tax paid.—No person shall be eflgaged in or carry on any trade or business hereinafter mentioned until he has paid a special tax therefor in the manner hereinafter provided. (R. S. § 3232.)

182. Trade or business to be registered.—Every person engaged in any trade or business on which a special tax is imposed by law shall register with the collector of the district his name or style, place of residence, trade or business, and the place where such trade or business is to be carried on. In case of a firm or company, the names of the several persons constituting the same, and their places of residence, shall be so registered. (R. S. § 3233.)

183. Partners at same place liable for only one tax.—Any number of persons doing business in copartnership at any one place shall be required to pay but one special tax. (R. S. § 3234.)

184. Payment of one tax covering several places of business.—The payment of the special tax imposed shall not exempt from an additional special tax the person carrying on a trade or business in any other place than that stated in the collector's register; but nothing herein contained shall require a special tax for the storage of goods, wares, or merchandise in other places than the place of business, nor, except as hereinafter provided, for the sale by manufacturers or producers of their own goods, wares, and merchandise, at the place of production or manufacture, and at their principal office or place of business, provided no goods, wares, or merchandise shall be kept except as samples at said office or place of business. (R. S. § 3235.)

185. More than one pursuit carried on in same place by same person at same time.—Whenever more than one of the pursuits or occupations hereinafter described are carried on in the same place by the same person at the same time, except as hereinafter provided, the tax shall be paid for each according to the rates severally prescribed. (R. S. § 3236.)

186. When due; returns.—All special taxes shall become due on the 1st day of July in each year, or on commencing any trade or business on which such tax is imposed. In the former case the tax shall be reckoned for one year; and in the latter case it shall be reckoned proportionately, from the 1st day of the month in which the liability to a special tax commenced to the 1st day of July following. It shall be the duty of special taxpayers to render their returns to the deputy collector at such times within the calendar month in which the special tax liability commenced as shall enable him to receive such returns, duly signed and verified, not later than the last day of the month, except in cases of sickness or absence, as provided for in section 97 of this title. (Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1244, § 53, 26 Stat. 624.)

187. Stamps.—All special taxes imposed by law, including the tax on stills or worms, shall be paid by stamps denoting the tax, and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue is required to procure appropriate stamps for the payment of such taxes; and the provisions of sections 247 and 1170 of this title, and all other provisions of law relating to the preparation and issue of stamps for distilled spirits, fermented liquors, tobacco, and cigars, shall, so far as applicable, extend to and include such stamps for special taxes; and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall have authority to make all needful regulations relative thereto. (R. S. § 3238; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 319.)

188. Same; exhibition.—Every person engaged in any business, avocation, or employment, who is thereby made liable to a special tax, shall place and keep conspicuously in his establishment or place of business all stamps denoting the payment of said special tax; and any person who shall, through negligence, fail to so place and keep said stamps shall be liable to a penalty equal to the special tax for which his business rendered him liable, and the costs of prosecution; but in no case shall said penalty be less than $10. And where the failure to comply with the foregoing provision of law shall be through willful neglect or refusal, then the penalty shall be double the amount above prescribed; but nothing in this section shall in any way affect the liability of any person for exercising or carrying on any trade, business, or profession, or doing any act for the exercising, carrying on, or doing of which a special tax is imposed by law, without the payment thereof. (R. S. § 3239; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 248; Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1244, § 26, 26 Stat. 618.)

189. List of taxpayers; exhibition; certified copy.—Each collector of internal revenue shall, under regulations of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, place and keep conspicuously in his office, for public inspection, an alphabetical list of the names of all persons who shall have paid special taxes within his district, and shall state thereon the time, place, and business for which such special taxes have been paid, and upon application of any prosecuting officer of any State, county, or municipality he shall furnish a certified copy thereof, as a public record, for which a fee of $1 for each one hundred words or fraction thereof in the copy or copies so requested may be charged. (R. S. § 3240; June 21, 1906, c. 3509, 34 Stat. 387.)

190. Death or removal after paying tax.—When any person who has paid the special tax for any trade or business dies, his wife or child, or executors or administrators or other legal representatives, may occupy the house or premises, and in like manner carry on, for the residue of the term for which the tax is paid, the same trade or business as the deceased before carried on, in the same house and upon the same premises, without the payment of any additional tax. And when any person removes from the house or premises for which any trade or business was taxed to any other place, he may carry on the trade or business specified in the collector's register at the place to which he removes, without the payment of any additional tax: Provided, That all cases of death, change, or removal, as aforesaid, with the name of the successor to any person deceased, or of the person making such change or removal, shall be registered with the collector, under regulations to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. (R. S. § 3241.)

191. Carrying on business without payment; brewers; penalty.—Every person who carries on the business of a brewer, without having paid a special tax therefor, as required by law, shall, besides being liable to the payment of the tax, be fined not less than $10 nor more than $500. (R. S. § 3242; Feb. 8, 1875, c. 36, § 16, 18 Stat. 310; Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1244, § 26, 26 Stat. 618.)

192. Same; corporations, tobacco manufacturers, brokers, and so forth.—Any person who carries on any business or occupation for which a special tax is imposed by sections 206, 212 to 220, inclusive, and 223 of this title, without having paid the special tax therein provided, shall, besides being liable for the payment of such special tax, be subject to a penalty of not more than $1,000 or to imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 704, 43 Stat. 328.)

193. Same; forfeitures; rectifiers; wholesale liquor dealers, and so forth.—Any person who shall carry on the business of a rectifier, wholesale liquor dealer, retail liquor dealer, wholesale dealer in malt liquors, retail dealer in malt liquors, or manufacturer of stills, without having paid the special tax as required by law, shall, for every such offense be fined not less than $100 nor more than $5,000 and imprisoned not less than thirty days nor more than two years. And all distilled spirits or wines, and all stills or other apparatus, fit or intending to be used for the distillation or rectification of spirits, or for the compounding of liquors, owned by such person, wherever found, and all distilled spirits or wines and personal property found in the rectifying establishment, or in any building, room, yard, inclosures connected therewith, and used with or constituting a part of the premises shall be forfeited to the United States. (R. S. § 3281; Feb. 8, 1875, c. 36, § 16, 18 Stat. 310.)

194. Same; manufacturers and dealers in oleomargarine; penalty.—Every person who carries on the business of a manufacturer of oleomargarine without having paid the special tax therefor, as required by law, shall, besides being liable to the payment of the tax, be fined not less than $1,000 and not more than $5,000; and every person who carries on the business of a wholesale dealer in oleomargarine without having paid the special tax therefor, as required by law, shall, besides being liable to the payment of the tax, be fined not less than $500 nor more than $2,000; and every person who carries on the business of a retail dealer in oleomargarine without having paid the special tax therefor, as required by law, shall, besides being liable to the payment of the tax, be fined not less than $50 nor more than $500 for each and every offense. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 4, 24 Stat. 209.)

195. Same; manufacturer of, or dealer in, process or renovated, or adulterated butter; penalty.—Every person who carries on the business of a manufacturer of process or renovated butter or adulterated butter without having paid the special tax therefor, as required by law, shall, besides being liable to the payment of the tax, be fined not less than $1,000 and not more than $5,000; and every person who carries on the business of a dealer in adulterated butter without having paid the special tax therefor, as required by law, shall, besides being liable to the payment of the tax, be fined not less than $50 nor more than $500 for each offense. (May 9, 1902, c. 784, § 4, 32 Stat. 194.)

196. Same; manufacturer of, or dealer in, filled cheese.—Every person, firm, or corporation who carries on the business of a manufacturer of filled cheese without having paid the special tax therefor, as required by law, shall, besides being liable to the payment of the tax, be fined not less than $400 and not more than $3,000; and every person, firm, or corporation who carries on the business of a wholesale dealer in filled cheese without having paid the special tax therefor, as required by law, shall, besides being liable to the payment of the tax, be fined not less than $250 nor more than $1,000; and every person, firm, or corporation who carries on the business of a retail dealer in filled cheese without having paid the special tax therefor, as required by law, shall, besides being liable for the payment of the tax, be fined not less than $40 nor more than $500 for each and every offense. (June 6, 1896, c. 337, § 4, 29 Stat. 254.)

197. Removing tobacco unlawfully, or selling without payment of tax.—Every manufacturer of tobacco or snuff who removes, otherwise than as provided by law, or sells, without having paid the special tax, any tobacco or snuff, shall, in addition to the penalties elsewhere provided by law for such offenses, forfeit to the United States all the raw material and manufactured or partly manufactured tobacco and snuff, and all machinery, tools, implements, apparatus, fixtures, boxes, and barrels, and all other materials which may be found in his possession, in his manufactory, or elsewhere. (R. S. § 3372.)

198. Buying tobacco from a manufacturer who has not paid tax.—Every person who purchases, or receives for sale, any manufactured tobacco or snuff from any manufacturer who has not paid the special tax, shall be liable for each offense to a penalty of $100, and to a forfeiture of all the articles aforesaid so purchased or received, or of the full value thereof. (R. S. § 3367.)

199. Removal or sale of cigars without paying special tax.—Every manufacturer of cigars who removes or sells any cigars without payment of the special tax as a cigar manufacturer, shall, in addition to the penalties elsewhere provided in this title for such offenses, forfeit to the United States all raw material and manufactured or partly manufactured tobacco and cigars, and all machinery, tools, implements, apparatus, fixtures, boxes, barrels, and all other materials which shall be found in his possession, or in his manufactory, and used in his business as such manufacturer, together with his estate or interest in the building or factory, and the lot or tract of ground on which such building or factory is located, and all appurtenances thereunto belonging. (R. S. § 3400.)

200. Buying cigars from manufacturer who has not paid tax.—Every person who purchases or receives for sale any cigars from any manufacturer who has not paid the special tax shall be liable for each offense to a penalty of $100, and to a forfeiture of all the said articles so purchased or received, or of the full value thereof. (R. S. § 3405.)

201. Payment of tax; effect on violation of State laws and State taxation.—The payment of any tax imposed by the internal-revenue laws for carrying on any trade or business shall not be held to exempt any person from any penalty or punishment provided by the laws of any State for carrying on the same within such State, or in any manner to authorize the commencement or continuance of such trade or business contrary to the laws of such State or in places prohibited by municipal law; nor shall the payment of any such tax be held to prohibit any State from placing a duty or tax on the same trade or business, for State or other purposes. (R. S. § 3243.)

202. Special taxes; brewers.—Special taxes are imposed as provided in sections 202 to 224, inclusive, of this title.

Brewers shall pay $100. Every person who manufactures fermented liquors of any name or description for sale, from malt, wholly or in part, or from any substitute therefor, shall be deemed a brewer: Provided, That any person who manufactures less than five hundred barrels a year shall pay the sum of $50. (R. S. § 3244; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 319; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, §§ 4, 10, 20 Stat. 333, 342.)

203. Same; manufacturers of stills; drawback.—Manufactures of stills shall each pay $50, and $20 for each still or worm for distilling made by him. Any person who manufactures any still or worm to be used in distilling, except distillers in registered distilleries who manufacture wooden stills for their own use, shall be deemed a manufacturer of stills. Each of said distillers shall give notice to the collector of the district in which his distillery is located of each still manufactured before the same is used. Upon all stills manufactured for export, and actually exported, there shall be allowed a drawback, where the tax thereon has been paid, under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe. (R. S. § 3244; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 319; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, §§ 4, 10, 20 Stat. 333, 342; May 28, 1880, c. 108, § 18, 21 Stat. 149.)

204. Same; rectifiers.—Rectifiers of distilled spirits shall pay $200. Every person who rectifies, purifies, or refines distilled spirits or wines by any process other than by original and continuous distillation from mash, wort, or wash, through continuous closed vessels and pipes, until the manufacture thereof is complete, and every wholesale or retail liquor dealer who has in his possession any still or leach tub, or who keeps any other apparatus for the purpose of refining in any manner distilled spirits, and every person who, without rectifying, purifying, or refining distilled spirits, shall, by mixing such spirits, wine, or other liquor with any materials, manufacture any spurious, imitation, or compound liquors for sale, under the name of whisky, brandy, gin, rum, wine, spirits, cordials, or wine bitters, or any other name, shall be regarded as a rectifier, and as being engaged in the business of rectifying. Any person who rectifies, purifies, refines, or manufactures as aforesaid less than five hundred barrels a year, counting forty gallons of proof spirits to the barrel, shall pay $100. Nothing in this section shall be held to prohibit the purifying or refining of spirits in the course of original and continuous distillation through any material which will not remain incorporated with such spirits when the manufacture thereof is complete. No officer shall collect any special tax for rectifying distilled spirits on any premises distant less than six hundred feet in a direct line from any distillery. And every officer who collects any special tax in violation of this proviso shall be liable to a penalty of $5,000 for each offense. (R. S. § 3244; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 319; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, §§ 4, 10, 20 Stat. 333, 342.)

205. Same; retail and wholesale liquor dealers; retail and wholesale dealers in malt liquors.—(a) Retail liquor dealers.—Retail dealers in liquor shall pay $25. Every person who sells or offers for sale foreign or domestic distilled spirits, wines or malt liquors otherwise than as hereinafter provided in less quantities than five wine gallons at the same time shall be regarded as a retail dealer in liquors.

(b) Wholesale liquor dealers.—Wholesale liquor dealers shall each pay $100. Every person who sells, or offers for sale foreign or domestic distilled spirits, wines or malt liquors, otherwise than as hereinafter provided in quantities of not less than five wine gallons at the same time shall be regarded as a wholesale liquor dealer.

(c) Retail dealers in malt liquors.—Retail dealers in malt liquors shall pay $20. Every person who sells or offers for sale malt liquors in less quantities than five gallons at one time, but who does not deal in spirituous liquors, shall be regarded as a retail dealer in malt liquors.

(d) Wholesale dealers in malt liquors.—Wholesale dealers in malt liquors shall pay $50. Every person who sells or offers for sale malt liquors in quantities of not less than five gallons at one time, but who does not deal in spirituous liquors at wholesale shall be regarded as a wholesale dealer in malt liquors.

No special tax shall be held to accrue on a sale of distilled spirits, wines, or malt liquors made by a person who is not otherwise a dealer in liquors, where such spirits, wines, or liquors have been received by the person so selling as security for or in payment of a debt, or as executor, administrator, or other fiduciary, or have been levied on by any officer, under order or process of any court of magistrate, and where such spirits are sold by such person in one parcel only, or at public auction in parcels not less than twenty wine gallons, nor shall such tax be held to accrue on a sale made by a retiring partner, or the representatives of a deceased partner to the incoming remaining, or surviving partner or partners of a firm; nor shall the special tax of a wholesale liquor dealer or wholesale dealer in malt liquors be held to apply to a retail dealer in liquors or a retail dealer in malt liquors, because of such retail dealer selling out his entire stock of liquors in one parcel, or in parcels embracing not less than his entire stock of distilled spirits, of wines, or of malt liquors; and section 331 of this title shall not be held to prohibit a rectifier or liquor dealer from purchasing, in quantities greater than twenty wine gallons, the distilled spirits sold in one parcel as aforesaid. (R. S. § 3244; Feb. 8, 1875, c. 36, § 18, 18 Stat. 311; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 319; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, §§ 4, 10, 20 Stat. 333, 342.)

206. Same; brewers, distillers, and so forth; where business prohibited.—Every person carrying on the business of a brewer, distiller, wholesale liquor dealer, retail liquor dealer, wholesale dealer in malt liquor, retail dealer in malt liquor, or manufacturer of stills, as defined in sections 202 to 205, inclusive, and section 241, of this title, in any State, Territory, or District of the United States contrary to the laws of such State, Territory, or District, or in any place therein in which carrying on such busines is prohibited by local or municipal law, shall pay, in addition to all other taxes, special or otherwise, imposed by this title or other existing law, $1,000. The payment of the tax imposed by this section shall not be held to exempt any person from any penalty or punishment provided for by the laws of any State, Territory, or District for carrying on such business in such State, Territory, or District, or in any manner to authorize the commencement or continuance of such business contrary to the laws of such State, Territory, or District, or in places prohibited by local or municipal law. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 701, 43 Stat. 326.)

207. Manufacturers of, or dealers in, oleomargarine.—Manufacturers of oleomargarine shall pay $600. Every person who manufactures oleomargarine for sale shall be deemed a manufacturer of oleomargarine.

And any person that sells, vends, or furnishes oleomargarine for the use and consumption of others, except to his own family table without compensation, who shall add to or mix with such oleomargarine any artificial coloration that causes it to look like butter of any shade of yellow shall also be held to be a manufacturer of oleomargarine within the meaning of this section and sections 541 to 558 of this title, and subject to the provisions thereof.

In case any manufacturer of oleomargarine commences business subsequent to the 30th day of June in any year, the special tax shall be reckoned from the 1st day of July in that year, and shall be $500.

Wholesale dealers in oleomargarine shall pay $480. Every person who sells or offers for sale oleomargarine in the original manufacturer's packages shall be deemed a wholesale dealer in oleomargarine. But any manufacturer of oleomargarine who has given the required bond and paid the required special tax, and who sells only oleomargarine of his own production, at the place of manufacture, in the original packages to which the tax-paid stamps are affixed, shall not be required to pay the special tax of a wholesale dealer in oleomargarine on account of such sales: Provided, That wholesale dealers who vend no other oleomargarine or butterine except that upon which a tax of one-fourth of 1 per cent is imposed by section 546 of this title shall pay $200.

Retail dealers in oleomargarine shall pay $48. Every person who sells oleomargarine in less quantities than ten pounds at one time shall be regarded as a retail dealer in oleomargarine: Provided, That such retail dealers as vend no other oleomargarine or butterine except that upon which is imposed by section 546 of this title a tax of one-fourth of 1 per cent per pound shall pay $6.

And sections 181 to 190 and 201 of this title are, so far as applicable, made to extend to and include and apply to the special taxes imposed by this section, and to the persons upon whom they are imposed. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 3, 24 Stat. 209; May 9, 1902, c. 784, § 2, 32 Stat. 194.)

208. Manufacturers of, or dealers in, process, renovated, or adulterated butter; tax.—Manufacturers of process or renovated butter shall pay $50 per year and manufacturers of adulterated butter shall pay $600 per year. Every person who engages in the production of process or renovated butter or adulterated butter as a business shall be considered to be a manufacturer thereof.

Wholesale dealers in adulterated butter shall pay a tax of $480 per annum, and retail dealers in adulterated butter shall pay a tax of $48 per annum. Every person who sells adulterated butter in less quantities than ten pounds at one time shall be regarded as a retail dealer in adulterated butter.

Every person who sells adulterated butter shall be regarded as a dealer in adulterated butter. And sections 181 to 190 and 201 of this title are, so far as applicable, made to extend to and include and apply to the special taxes imposed by this section and to the person upon whom they are imposed. (May 9, 1902, c. 784, § 4, 32 Stat. 194.)

209. Manufacturers of, or dealers in, filled cheese.—Manufacturers of filled cheese shall pay $400 for each and every factory per annum. Every person, firm, or corporation who manufactures filled cheese for sale shall be deemed a manufacturer of filled cheese.

Wholesale dealers in filled cheese shall pay $250 per annum. Every person, firm, or corporation who sells or offers for sale filled cheese in the original manufacturer's packages for resale, or to retail dealers as hereinafter defined, shall be deemed a wholesale dealer in filled cheese.

But any manufacturer of filled cheese who has given the required bond and paid the required special tax, and who sells only filled cheese of his own production, at the place of manufacture, in the original packages, to which the tax-paid stamps are affixed, shall not be required to pay the special tax of a wholesale dealer in filled cheese on account of such sales.

Retail dealers in filled cheese shall pay $12 per annum. Every person who sells filled cheese at retail, not for resale, and for actual consumption, shall be regarded as a retail dealer in filled cheese, and sections 181 to 190 and 201 of this title are, so far as applicable, made to extend to and include and apply to the special taxes imposed by this section and to the persons, firms, or corporations upon whom they are imposed. All special taxes under this section shall become due on the 1st day of July in every year, or on commencing any manufacture, trade, or business on which said tax is imposed. In the latter case the tax shall be reckoned proportionately from the 1st day of the month in which the liability to the special tax commences to the 1st day of July following. (June 6, 1896, c. 337, § 3, 29 Stat. 253.)

210. Manufacturers or packers of mixed flour.—Every person, firm, or corporation, before engaging in the business of making, packing, or repacking mixed flour, shall pay a special tax at the rate of $12 per annum, the same to be paid and posted in accordance with the provisions of sections 188 and 191 of this title, and subject to the fines and penalties therein imposed for any violation thereof. (June 13, 1898, c. 448, § 36, 30 Stat. 467.)

211. Manufacturers, importers, producers, and so forth of opium, coca leaves, and so forth.—On or before July 1 of each year every person who imports, manufactures, produces, compounds, sells, deals in, dispenses, or gives away opium or coca leaves, or any compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, or preparation thereof, shall register with the collector of internal revenue of the district his name or style, place of business and place or places where such business is to be carried on, and pay the special taxes hereinafter provided.

Every person who first engages in any of such activities shall immediately make like registration and pay the proportionate part of the tax for the period ending on the following June 30th;

Importers, manufacturers, producers or compounders, $24 per annum; wholesale dealers, $12 per annum; retail dealers, $6 per annum; physicians, dentists, veterinary surgeons, and other practitioners lawfully entitled to distribute, dispense, give away, or administer any of the aforesaid drugs to patients upon whom they in the course of their professional practice are in attendance, shall pay $3 per annum.

Every person who imports, manufactures, compounds, or otherwise produces for sale or distribution any of the aforesaid drugs shall be deemed to be an importer, manufacturer, or producer.

Every person who sells or offers for sale any of said drugs in the original stamped packages, as hereinafter provided, shall be deemed a wholesale dealer.

Every person who sells or dispenses from original stamped packages, as provided in section 692 of this title, shall be deemed a retail dealer. The office, or if none, the residence, of any person shall be considered for the purpose of this section and sections 691 to 708 of this title his place of business; but no employee of any person who has registered and paid special tax as herein required, acting within the scope of his employment, shall be required to register and pay special tax provided by this section. Officials of the United States, Territorial, District of Columbia, or insular possessions, State or municipal governments, who in the exercise of their official duties engage in any of the business herein described, shall not be required to register, nor pay special tax, nor stamp the aforesaid drugs as prescribed in chapter 11 of this title, but their right to this exemption shall be evidenced in such manner as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may by regulations prescribe.

It shall be unlawful for any person required to register under the provisions of this section to import, manufacture, produce, compound, sell, deal in, dispense, distribute, administer, or give away any of the aforesaid drugs without having registered and paid the special tax as imposed by this section.

The word "person" as used in this section shall be construed to mean and include a partnership, association, company, or corporation, as well as a natural person; and all provisions of existing law relating to special taxes, as far as necessary, are extended and made applicable to this section. (Dec. 17, 1914, c. 1, § 1, 38 Stat. 785; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1006, 40 Stat. 1130; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 36, § 1005, 42 Stat. 298; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 705, 43 Stat. 328.)

212. Same; manufacturers of tobacco, cigars, and so forth.—Manufacturers of tobacco whose annual sales do not exceed fifty thousand pounds shall each pay $6;

Manufacturers of tobacco whose annual sales exceed fifty thousand and do not exceed one hundred thousand pounds shall each pay $12;

Manufacturers of tobacco whose annual sales exceed one hundred thousand and do not exceed two hundred thousand pounds shall each pay $24;

Manufacturers of tobacco whose annual sales exceed two hundred thousand pounds shall each pay $24, and at the rate of 16 cents per thousand pounds, or fraction thereof, in respect to the excess over two hundred thousand pounds;

Manufacturers of cigars whose annual sales do not exceed fifty thousand cigars shall each pay $4;

Manufacturers of cigars whose annual sales exceed fifty thousand and do not exceed one hundred thousand cigars shall each pay $6;

Manufacturers of cigars whose annual sales exceed one hundred thousand and do not exceed two hundred thousand cigars shall each pay $12;

Manufacturers of cigars whose annual sales exceed two hundred thousand and do not exceed four hundred thousand cigars shall each pay $24;

Manufacturers of cigars whose annual sales exceed four hundred thousand cigars shall each pay $24, and at the rate of 10 cents per thousand cigars, or fraction thereof, in respect to the excess over four hundred thousand cigars;

Manufacturers of cigarettes, including small cigars, weighing not more than three pounds per thousand, shall each pay at the rate of 6 cents for every ten thousand cigarettes, or fraction thereof.

The amount of taxes enumerated in this section shall be computed on the basis of the sales for the preceding year ending June 30.

In arriving at the amount of special tax to be paid under this section, and in the levy and collection of such tax, each person engaged in the manufacture of more than one of the classes of articles specified in this section shall be considered and deemed a manufacturer of each class separately.

In computing under this section the amount of annual sales no account shall be taken of tobacco, cigars, or cigarettes sold for export and in due course so exported. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 702, 43 Stat. 327.)

213. Same; brokers.—Brokers, except brokers exclusively negotiating purchases or sales of produce or merchandise, shall pay $50. Every person whose business it is to negotiate purchases or sales of stock, bonds, exchange, bullion, coined money, bank notes, promissory notes, other securities, produce or merchandise, for others, shall be regarded as a broker. If any broker is a member of a stock exchange, or if he is a member of any produce exchange, board of trade, or similar organization, where produce or merchandise is sold, he shall (whether or not he is liable to any tax under the first sentence of this paragraph, and in addition to such tax, if any) pay an amount as follows: If the average value, during the preceding year ending June 30, of a seat or membership in such exchange or organization was $2,000 or more but not more than $5,000, $100; if such value was more than $5,000 but not more than $10,000, $150; if such value was more than $10,000, $250. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 701, 43 Stat. 326.)

214. Same; pawnbrokers.—Pawnbrokers shall pay $100. Every person whose business or occupation it is to take or receive, by way of pledge, pawn, or exchange, any goods, wares, or merchandise, or any kind of personal property whatever, as security for the repayment of money loaned thereon, shall be regarded as a pawnbroker. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 701, 43 Stat. 326.)

215. Same; ship brokers.—Ship brokers shall pay $50. Every person whose business it is as a broker to negotiate freights and other business for the owners of vessels or for the shippers or consignors or consignees of freight carried by vessels, shall be regarded as a ship broker. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 701, 43 Stat. 326.)

216. Same; customhouse brokers.—Customhouse brokers shall pay $50. Every person whose occupation it is, as the agent of others, to arrange entries and other customhouse papers, or transact business at any port of entry relating to the importation or exportation of goods, wares, or merchandise, shall be regarded as a customhouse broker. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 701, 43 Stat. 326.)

217. Same; bowling-alley and billiard room proprietors.—Proprietors of bowling alleys and billiard rooms shall pay $10 for each alley or table. Every building or place where bowls are thrown or where games of billiards or pool are played, shall be regarded as a bowling alley or a billiard room, respectively, unless no charge is made for the use of the alleys or tables. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 701, 43 Stat. 326.)

218. Same; shooting gallery proprietors.—Proprietors of shooting galleries shall pay $20. Every building, space, tent, or area, where a charge is made for the discharge of firearms at any form of target shall be regarded as a shooting gallery. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 701, 43 Stat. 326.)

219. Same; riding academy proprietors.—Proprietors of riding academies shall pay $100. Every building, space, tent, or area, where a charge is made for instruction in horsemanship or for facilities for the practice of horsemanship shall be regarded as a riding academy: Provided, That this tax shall not be collected from associations composed exclusively of members of units of the Federalized National Guard or the Organized Reserve and whose receipts are used exclusively for the benefit of such units. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 701, 43 Stat. 326.)

220. Same; passenger automobiles for hire.—Persons carrying on the business of operating or renting passenger automobiles for hire shall pay $10 for each such automobile having a seating capacity of more than two and not more than seven, and $20 for each such automobile having a seating capacity of more than seven. The tax imposed by this section shall not be collected in respect of automobiles used exclusively for conveying school children to and from school. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 701, 43 Stat. 326.)

221. Distillers selling own product exempt from special tax.—No distiller who has given the required bond and who sells only distilled spirits of his own production at the place of manufacture, or at the place of storage in bond, in the original packages to which the tax-paid stamps are affixed, shall be required to pay the special tax of a wholesale liquor dealer on account of such sales. (Feb. 8, 1875, c. 36, § 18, 18 Stat. 311; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 4, 20 Stat. 333; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 62, 28 Stat. 567.)

222. Brewers exempt from special tax as dealers in malt liquor.—No brewer shall be required to pay a special tax as a dealer by reason of selling in the original stamped packages whether at the place of manufacture or elsewhere, malt liquors manufactured by him, or purchased and procured by him in his own casks or vessels, under the provisions of section 520 of this title; but the quantity of malt liquors so purchased shall be included in calculating the liability to brewer's special tax of both the brewer who manufactures and sells the same and the brewer who purchases the same. No further collection of special tax as retail dealers in malt liquors shall be made from brewers for selling malt liquors of their own manufacture in the original stamped eight-barrel package. (Feb. 8, 1875, c. 36, § 18, 18 Stat. 311; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 4, 20 Stat. 333.)

223. Capital stock tax; domestic and foreign corporations.—(1) Every domestic corporation shall pay annually a special excise tax with respect to carrying on or doing business, equivalent to $1 for each $1,000 of so much of the fair average value of its capital stock for the preceding year ending June 30 as is in excess of $5,000. In estimating the value of capital stock the surplus and undivided profits shall be included.

(2) Every foreign corporation shall pay annually a special excise tax with respect to carrying on or doing business in the United States, equivalent to $1 for each $1,000 of the average amount of capital employed in the transaction of its business in the United States during the preceding year ending June 30.

(3) The taxes imposed by this section shall not apply in any year to any corporation which was not engaged in business (or, in the case of a foreign corporation, not engaged in business in the United States) during the preceding year ending June 30, nor to any corporation enumerated in section 982 of this title, nor to any insurance company subject to the tax imposed by sections 1001 and 1006 of this title.

(4) Section 1024 of this title shall apply to all returns filed with the commissioner for purposes of the tax imposed by this section. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 700, 43 Stat. 325.)

224. Yachts, motor boats, and so forth, with fixed engines; sailing boats; where tax inapplicable.—On July 1, in each year, and also at the time of the original purchase of a new boat by a user, if on any other date than July 1, there shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid, upon the use of yachts, pleasure boats, power boats, sailing boats, and motor boats with fixed engines, of over five net tons and over thirty-two feet in length, not used exclusively for trade, fishing, or national defense, or not built according to plans and specifications approved by the Navy Department, a special excise tax to be based on each yacht or boat, at rates as follows: Yachts, pleasure boats, power boats, motor boats with fixed engines, and sailing boats, of over five net tons, length over thirty-two feet and not over fifty feet, $1 for each foot; length over fifty feet, and not over one hundred feet, $2 for each foot; length over one hundred feet, $4 for each foot.

In determining the length of such yachts, pleasure boats, power boats, motor boats with fixed engines, and sailing boats, the measurement of over-all length shall govern.

In the case of a tax imposed at the time of the original purchase of a new boat on any other date than July 1, the amount to be paid shall be the same number of twelfths of the amount of the tax as the number of calendar months (including the month of sale) remaining prior to the following July 1.

This section shall not apply to vessels or boats used without profit by any benevolent, charitable, or religious organizations, exclusively for furnishing aid, comfort, or relief to seamen. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 703, 43 Stat. 328.)

225. Vintners, apothecaries, manufacturing chemists, and flavoring extract manufacturers.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to impose a special tax upon vintners who sell wine of their own growth, or manufacturers who sell wine produced from grapes grown by others, at the place where the same is made or at the general business office of such vintner or manufacturer: Provided, That no vintner or manufacturer shall have more than one office for the sale of such wine that shall be exempt from special tax under this section; nor shall any special tax be imposed upon apothecaries as to wines or spirituous liquors which they use exclusively in the preparation or making-up of medicines.

Nor shall any special tax be imposed upon manufacturing chemists or flavoring extract manufacturers for recovering tax-paid alcohol or spirituous liquors from dregs or marc of percolation or extraction if said recovered alcohol or spirituous liquors be again used in the manufacture of flavoring extracts. (R. S. § 3246; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 5, 20 Stat. 334; Mar. 3, 1915, c. 78, 38 Stat. 893.)

226. Retail liquor dealers, on passenger trains, steamboats, or other vessels.—Nothing contained in this chapter shall prevent the issue, under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe, of special-tax stamps to persons carrying on the business of retail dealers in liquors or retail dealers in malt liquors, upon passenger railroad trains or upon steamboats or other vessels engaged in the business of carrying passengers. (May 8, 1876, No. 10, 19 Stat. 213; Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1244, § 26, 26 Stat. 618.)

DISTILLED SPIRITS; TAX ON DISTILLED SPIRITS AND GENERAL REGULATIONS

Section 241. Distiller defined.—Every person who produces distilled spirits, or who brews or makes mash, wort, or wash, fit for distillation or for the production of spirits, or who, by any process of evaporization, separates alcoholic spirit from any fermented substance, or who, making or keeping mash, wort, or wash, has also in his possession or use a still, shall be regarded as a distiller. (R. S. § 3247.)

242. Distilled spirits defined.—Distilled spirits, spirits, alcohol, and alcoholic spirit, within the true intent and meaning of this chapter, is that substance known as ethyl alcohol, hydrated oxide of ethyl, or spirit of wine, which is commonly produced by the fermentation of grain, starch, molasses, or sugar, including all dilutions and mixtures of this substance; and the tax shall attach to this substance as soon as it is in existence as such, whether it be subsequently separated as pure or impure spirit, or be immediately, or at any subsequent time, transferred into any other substance, either in the process of original production or by any subsequent process. (R. S. § 3248.)

243. Standard of proof spirits; prevention of frauds.—Proof spirit shall be held to be that alcoholic liquor which contains one-half its volume of alcohol of a specific gravity of seven thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine ten thousandths (.7939) at sixty degrees Fahrenheit. And for the prevention and detection of frauds by distillers of spirits, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe for use such hydrometers, saccharometers, weighing and gauging instruments, or other means for ascertaining the quantity, gravity, and producing capacity of any mash, wort, or beer used, or to be used, in the production of distilled spirits, and the strength and quantity of spirits subject to tax, as he may deem necessary; and he may prescribe rules and regulations to secure a uniform and correct system of inspection, weighing, marking, and gauging of spirits. (R.. S. § 3249.)

244. Gallon defined.—In all sales of spirits a gallon shall be held to be a gallon of proof spirit, according to the standard prescribed in section 243 of this title, set forth and declared for the inspection and gauging of spirits throughout the United States. (R. S. § 3250.)

245. Tax on distilled spirits.—There shall be levied and collected on all distilled spirits in bond on February 24, 1919, or that had been or may be thereafter produced in or imported into the United States, except such distilled spirits as are subject to the tax provided in section 253 of this title, a tax of $2.20 (or, if withdrawn for beverage purposes or for use in the manufacture or production of any article used or intended for use as a beverage, a tax of $6.40) on each proof gallon, or wine gallon when below proof, and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of such proof or wine gallon, to be paid by the distiller or importer when withdrawn, and collected under the provisions of existing law. On all distilled spirits on which tax is paid at the nonbeverage rate of $2.20 per proof gallon and which are diverted to beverage purposes or for use in the manufacture or production of any article used or intended for use as a beverage, there shall be levied and collected an additional tax of $4.20 on each proof gallon, and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of such proof gallon, to be paid by the person responsible for such diversion. (R. S. § 3251; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 600 (a), 40 Stat. 1105; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 600, 42 Stat. 285.)

246. Same; stamps; time for payment; deposit in warehouse.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe and furnish suitable stamps denoting the payment of the internal-revenue tax imposed by section 245 of this title; and shall, by assessment or otherwise, cause to be collected the tax on any fractional gallon contained in each package containing distilled spirits as ascertained by the original gauge, or regauge when made, before or at the time of removal of such packages from warehouse or other place of storage; and all provisions of existing laws relating to stamps denoting the payment of internal-revenue tax on distilled spirits, so far as applicable, are extended to the stamps provided for in this section. The tax herein imposed shall be paid by the distiller of the spirits, on or before their removal from the distillery or place of storage, except in case the removal therefrom without payment of tax is authorized by law; and (upon spirits lawfully deposited in any distillery warehouse, or other bonded warehouse, established under internal revenue laws) within eight years from the date of the original entry for deposit in any distillery warehouse, or from the date of original gauge of fruit brandy deposited in special bonded warehouse, except in case of withdrawal therefrom without payment of tax as authorized by law and except as provided in section 248 of this title. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 48, 28 Stat. 563.)

247. Same; preparation and issue of stamps.—All stamps required for distilled spirits shall be engraved in their several kinds in book form, and shall be issued by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to any collector, upon his requisition, in such numbers as may be necessary in the several districts. Each stamp shall have an engraved stub attached thereto, with a number thereon corresponding with an engraved number on the stamp, and the stub shall not be removed from the book. And there shall be entered on each stub such memoranda of the contents of its corresponding stamp as shall be necessary to preserve a perfect record of the use of such stamp when detached. (R. S. § 3312.)

248. Same; spirits in bonded warehouses during prohibition period.—The tax imposed by section 245 of this title on distilled spirits intended for beverage purposes shall not be due or payable on such spirits while stored in any distillery, bonded warehouse, or special or general bonded warehouse, and which, pursuant to any Act of Congress or proclamation of the President of the United States, can not be lawfully sold or removed from any such warehouse during the period of prohibition fixed by such Act or proclamation. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 600 (b), 40 Stat. 1105.)

249. Same; liability for tax; lien.—Every proprietor or possessor of, and every person in any manner interested in the use of, any still, distillery, or distilling apparatus, shall be jointly and severally liable for the taxes imposed by law on the distilled spirits produced therefrom, and the tax shall be a first lien on the spirits distilled, the distillery used for distilling the same, the stills, vessels, fixtures, and tools therein, the lot or tract of land whereon the said distillery is situated, and on any building thereon from the time said spirits are in existence as such until the said tax is paid. (R. S. § 3251.)

250. Same; products of distillation containing spirits.—All products of distillation, by whatever name known, which contain distilled spirits or alcohol, on which the tax imposed by law has not been paid, shall be considered and taxed as distilled spirits. (R. S. § 3254.)

251. Same; tax on spirits removed without deposit in warehouse.—The tax upon any distilled spirits removed from the place where they were distilled and not deposited in bonded warehouse as required by law, shall, at any time, when knowledge of such fact is obtained by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, be assessed by him upon the distiller of the same, and returned to the collector, who shall immediately demand payment of such tax, and, upon the neglect or refusal of payment by the distiller, shall proceed to collect the same by distraint. But this provision shall not exclude any other remedy or proceeding provided by law. (R. S. § 3253.)

252. Same; imported perfumes containing distilled spirits.—There shall be levied and collected upon all perfumes imported into the United States containing distilled spirits, a tax of $1.10 per wine gallon, and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of such wine gallon. Such tax shall be collected by the collector of customs and deposited as internal-revenue collections, under such rules and regulations as the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 600(c), 40 Stat. 1106.)

253. Same; floor tax.—Upon all distilled spirits produced in or imported into the United States upon which the internal-revenue tax imposed by law prior to February 24, 1919, has been paid, and which, on February 25, 1919, were held by any person and intended for sale or for use in the manufacture or production of any article intended for sale, there shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid a floor tax of $3.20 (if intended for sale for beverage purposes or for use in the manufacture or production of any article used or intended for use as a beverage) on each proof gallon, and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of such proof gallon. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 604, 40 Stat. 1107.)

254. Same; additional tax on rectified, purified, or refined distilled spirits or wines; floor tax.—In addition to the tax imposed by this chapter on distilled spirits and wines, there shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid a tax of 30 cents on each proof gallon and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of such proof gallon on all distilled spirits or wines rectified, purified, or refined after February 24, 1919, in such manner, and on all mixtures produced after February 24, 1919, in such manner, that the person so rectifying, purifying, refining, or mixing the same is a rectifier within the meaning of section 204 of this title: Provided, That this tax shall not apply to gin produced by the redistillation of a pure spirit over juniper berries and other aromatics.

Upon all such articles produced prior to February 24, 1919, and which on February 25, 1919, were held by any person and intended for sale, there shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid a floor tax of 15 cents on each proof gallon, and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of each proof gallon; and all such distilled spirits so held and not contained in the distillers' original stamped packages, or in bottles or other containers bearing the distillers' original labels, shall for the purpose of this section be regarded as rectified spirits.

When the process of rectification is completed and the taxes prescribed by this section have been paid, it shall be unlawful for the rectifier or other dealer to reduce in proof or increase in volume such spirits or wine by the addition of water or other substance; nothing herein contained shall, however, prevent a rectifier from using again in the process of rectification spirits already rectified and upon which the taxes have theretofore been paid.

The taxes imposed by this section shall not attach to cordials or liqueurs on which a tax is imposed and paid under section 442 or 450 of this title, nor to the mixing and blending of wines, where such blending is for the sole purpose of perfecting such wines according to commercial standards, nor to blends made exclusively of two or more pure straight whiskies aged in wood for a period not less than four years and without the addition of coloring or flavoring matter or any other substance than pure water and if not reduced below ninety proof: Provided, That such blended whiskies shall be exempt from tax under this section only when compounded under the immediate supervision of a revenue officer, in such tanks and under such conditions and supervision as the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe.

All distilled spirits or wines taxable under this section, shall be subject to uniform regulations concerning the use thereof in the manufacture, blending, compounding, mixing, marking, branding, and sale of whisky and rectified spirits, and no discrimination whatsoever shall be made by reason of a difference in the character of the material from which same may have been produced.

Whoever violates any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than two years, and shall, in addition, be liable to double the tax evaded, together with the tax, to be collected by assessment or on any bond given.

The process of extraction of water from high-proof spirits for the production of absolute alcohol shall not be deemed to be rectification within the meaning of section 204, and absolute alcohol shall not be subject to the tax imposed by this section, but the production of such absolute alcohol shall be under such regulations as the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 605, 40 Stat. 1108; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 601, 42 Stat. 285.)

255. Rectifier of spirits; business regulated; payment of tax.—The business of a rectifier of spirits shall be carried on and the tax on rectified spirits shall be paid under such rules, regulations, and bonds as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 605, 40 Stat. 1108; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 601, 42 Stat. 285.)

256. Tax on alcoholic compounds from Porto Rico.—Upon bay rum, or any article containing alcohol, brought from Porto Rico into the United States for consumption or sale there shall be paid a tax on the spirits contained therein of $1.10 per proof gallon, to be collected at the port of entry by the collector of internal revenue of the district in which the port is located. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, is authorized to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry this section into effect. (Feb. 4, 1909, c. 65, 35 Stat. 594.)

257. Tax-paid spirits not to remain on distillery premises.—No distilled spirits on which the tax has been paid shall be stored or allowed to remain on any distillery premises, under the penalty of a forfeiture of all spirits so found. (R. S. § 3288.)

258. Detaining packages on suspicion.—It shall be lawful for any internal-revenue officer to detain any cask or package containing, or supposed to contain, distilled spirits, when he has reason to believe that the tax imposed by law upon the same has not been paid, or that the same is being removed in violation of law; and every such cask or package may be held by him at a safe place until it shall be determined whether the property so detained is liable by law to be proceeded against for forfeiture; but such summary detention shall not continue in any case longer than forty-eight hours without process of law or intervention of the officer to whom such detention is to be reported. (R. S. § 3298.)

259. Adding substances to create fictitious proof; penalty.—Every person who adds or causes to be added any ingredient or substance to any distilled spirits before the tax is paid thereon, for the purpose of creating a fictitious proof, shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 for each cask or package so adulterated, and imprisoned not less than three months nor more than two years; and every such cask or package, with its contents, shall be forfeited to the United States. (R. S. § 3252.)

260. Evading tax; forfeiture.—Whenever any person evades, or attempts to evade, the payment of the tax on any distilled spirits, in any manner whatever, he shall forfeit and pay double the amount of the tax so evaded or attempted to be evaded. (R. S. § 3256.)

261. Distiller defrauding or attempting to defraud United States of tax.—Whenever any person engaged in carrying on the business of a distiller defrauds or attempts to defraud the United States of the tax on the spirits distilled by him, or of any part thereof, he shall forfeit the distillery and distilling apparatus used by him, and all distilled spirits and all raw materials for the production of distilled spirits found in the distillery and on the distillery premises, and shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than three years. (R. S. § 3257.)

262. Spirits sold under judicial process subject to tax; sale of spirits for taxes.—All distilled spirits forfeited to the United States, sold by order of court, or under process of distraint, shall be sold subject to tax; and the purchaser shall immediately, and before he takes possession of said spirits, pay the tax thereon. If any tax-paid stamps are affixed to any cask or package so condemned, such stamps shall be obliterated and destroyed by the collector or marshal after forfeiture, and before such sale. In all cases wherein it shall appear that any distilled spirits offered for sale on distraint for taxes, where the taxes on such spirits have not been paid, or offered for sale for the benefit of the United States as forfeited spirits under order of court or under proceeding pursuant to section 1193 of this title, will not, by reason of such spirits being below proof, bring a price equal to the tax due and payable thereon, but will bring a price equal to, or greater than, the tax on said spirits, computed only upon the proof gallons contained in the packages, without regard to the greater number of wine gallons contained therein, then, and in such case, upon sale being so made, tax-paid stamps to the amount required to stamp such spirits as if the tax thereon were only on the proof gallons thereof, may, under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall prescribe, be used by the collector making such sale, or furnished by a collector to a United States marshal, or to any other Government officer making such sale for the benefit of the United States, without making payment for said stamps so used or delivered. Any collector using or furnishing stamps in manner aforesaid, on presenting vouchers satisfactory to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, shall be allowed credit for the same in settling his stamp account with the department. In such cases, the officer selling the distilled spirits shall affix, or cause to be affixed, to the same, the tax-paid stamps so provided, and shall write across the face of such stamps the true number of proof and wine gallons contained in the package, the amount of tax actually paid thereon, and also the words "Affixed under provisions of section 262 of Title 26 of the Code of the Laws of the United States of America." (R. S. § 3334; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 5, 20 Stat. 340.)

263. Accountability for stamp books; export stamps.—The books of tax-paid stamps issued to any collector shall be charged to his account at the full value of the tax on the number of gallons represented on the stamps and coupons contained in said books; and every collector shall make a monthly return to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue of all tax-paid stamps issued by him to be affixed to any cask or package containing distilled spirits on which the tax has been paid, and account for the amount of the tax collected; and when the said collector returns to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue any book of marginal stubs, which it shall be his duty to do as soon as all the stamps contained in the book when issued to him have been used, and accounts for the tax on the number of gallons represented on the stamps and coupons that were contained in said book, there shall be allowed to the collector a commission of one-half of 1 per centum on the amount of such tax, in addition to any other commission by law allowed: Provided, That the total net compensation of collectors as fixed by this title shall not be thereby increased. All stamps relating to distilled spirits, other than the tax-paid stamps, shall be charged to collectors; and the books containing such stamps may be intrusted by any collector to the gauger of the district, who shall make a daily report to the collector of all such stamps used by him and for whom used; and when all the stamps contained in any such book have been issued, the gauger of the district shall return the book to the collector, with all the marginal stubs therein. All export stamps issued to collectors shall be charged to them as representing the value of 10 cents for each stamp, and they shall collect the amount due for such stamps at the rate of 10 cents for each stamp issued in such manner and at such time as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe, and the commissioner may, in his discretion, make assessment therefor. (R. S. § 3314; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 5, 20 Stat. 339; May 28, 1880, c. 108, § 16, 21 Stat. 148; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, 43 Stat. 770.)

264. Wholesale liquor dealers' stamps in exchange for stamps for rectified spirits; discontinued stamps.—Collectors shall not furnish wholesale liquor dealers' stamps in lieu of and in exchange for stamps for rectified spirits unless the package covered by stamp for rectified spirits is to be broken into smaller packages.

The commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, is authorized to discontinue the use of the following stamps whenever in his judgment the interests of the Government will be subserved thereby:

Distillery warehouse, special bonded warehouse, special bonded rewarehouse, general bonded warehouse, general bonded retransfer, transfer brandy, export tobacco, export cigars, export oleomargarine, and export fermented-liquor stamps. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 606, 40 Stat. 1108.)

265. Using, issuing, or permitting use of stamps contrary to law.—Whenever any revenue officer affixes or cancels, or causes or permits to be affixed or canceled, any stamp relating to distilled spirits provided for by law, in any other manner or in any other place, or issues the same to any other person than as provided by law, or by regulation made in pursuance thereof, or knowingly affixes, or permits to be affixed, any such stamp to any cask or package of spirits of which the whole or any part has been distilled, rectified, compounded, removed, or sold, in violation of law, or which has in any manner escaped payment of tax due thereon, he shall, for every such offense, be fined not less than $500 nor more than $3,000, and be imprisoned for not less than six months nor more than three years. (R. S. § 3316.)

266. Forfeiture of unstamped packages.—All distilled spirits found in any cask or package containing five gallons or more, without having thereon each mark and stamp required therefor by law, shall be forfeited to the United States. (R. S. § 3289.)

DISTILLERIES AND DISTILLING REGULATIONS, RECTIFIERS

281. Registry of stills and apparatus.—Every person having in his possession or custody, or under his control, any still or distilling apparatus set up, shall register the same with the collector of the district in which it is, by subscribing and filing with him duplicate statements, in writing, setting forth the particular place where such still or distilling apparatus is set up, the kind of still and its cubic contents, the owner thereof, his place of residence, and the purpose for which said still or distilling apparatus has been or is intended to be used; one of which statements shall be retained and preserved by the collector, and the other transmitted by him to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Stills and distilling apparatus shall be registered immediately upon their being set up. Every still or distilling apparatus not so registered, together with all personal property in the possession or custody, or under the control of such person, and found in the building, or in any yard or inclosure connected with the building in which the same may be set up, shall be forfeited. And every person having in his possession or custody, or under his control, any still or distilling apparatus set up which is not so registered, shall pay a penalty of $500, and shall be fined not less than $100, nor more than $1,000, and imprisoned for not less than one month, nor more than two years. (R. S. § 3258.)

282. Notice of intention to carry on business of distiller or rectifier.—Every person engaged in, or intending to be engaged in, the business of a distiller or rectifier, shall give notice in writing, subscribed by him, to the collector of the district wherein such business is to be carried on, stating his name and residence, and if a company or firm, the name and residence of each member thereof, the name and residence of every person interested or to be interested in the business, the precise place where said business is to be carried on, and whether of distilling or rectifying; and if such business is carried on in a city, the residence and place of business shall be indicated by the name of the street and number of the building. In case of a distiller, the notice shall also state the kind of stills and the cubic contents thereof, the number and kind of boilers, the number of mash tubs and fermenting tubs, the cubic contents of each tub, the number of receiving cisterns, the cubic contents of each cistern, the number of hours in which the distillery will ferment each tub of mash or beer, the estimated quantity of distilled spirits which the apparatus is capable of distilling every twenty-four hours, a particular description of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, and of the buildings thereon, including their size, material, and construction; and that said distillery premises are not within six hundred feet, in a direct line, of any premises authorized to be used for rectifying or refining distilled spirits by any process.

In case of a rectifier, the notice shall state the precise place where such business is to be carried on, the name and residence of every person interested or to be interested in the business, the process by which the applicant intends to rectify, purify, or refine distilled spirits, the kind and cubic contents of any still used or to be used for such purpose, the estimated quantity of spirits which can be rectified, purified, or refined every twenty-four hours in such establishment, and that said rectifying establishment is not within six hundred feet, in a direct line, of the premises of any distillery registered for the distillation of spirits. In case of any change in the location, form, capacity, ownership, agency, superintendency, or in the persons interested in the business of such distillery or rectifying establishment, or in the time of fermenting the mash or beer, notice thereof, in writing, shall be given to the said collector or proper deputy collector, of the district within twenty-four hours after such change; and any deputy collector receiving such notice shall immediately transmit the same to the collector of the district. Every notice required by this section shall be in such form, and shall contain such additional particulars, as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may, from time to time, prescribe. Every person who fails or refuses to give such notice shall pay a penalty of $1,000, and shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $2,000; and every person who gives a false or fraudulent notice shall, in addition to such penalty or fine, be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years. (R. S. § 3259.)

283. Notice of intention to rectify.—When any rectifier intends to rectify or compound any distilled spirits he shall, before emptying any package of distilled spirits for that purpose, give notice in duplicate to the collector of internal revenue for the district of his intention so to rectify, and submit such package for the inspection of a United States gauger, who shall duly weigh or gauge such package and its contents and make due return thereof, and such spirits shall not be emptied for rectification, nor rectified or compounded in the package, until gauged or weighed as herein above provided. And such notice and return shall be made in such form and contain such particulars as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may from time to time prescribe. (Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 8, 20 Stat. 341; July 16, 1892, c. 196, § 1, 27 Stat. 200.)

284. Bond of distiller.—Every person intending to commence or to continue the business of a distiller shall, on filing with the collector his notice of such intention, and before proceeding with such business, and on the 1st day of May of each succeeding year, execute a bond in the form prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, conditioned that he shall faithfully comply with all the provisions of law relating to the duties and business of distillers, and shall pay all penalties incurred or fines imposed on him for a violation of any of the said provisions; and that he shall not suffer the lot or tract of land on which the distillery stands, or any part thereof, or any of the distilling apparatus, to be incumbered by mortgage, judgment, or other lien, during the time in which he shall carry on said business. Said bond shall be with at least two sureties, approved by the collector of the district, and for a penal sum not less than the amount of tax on the spirits that can be distilled in his distillery during a period of fifteen days. But in no case shall the bond exceed the sum of $100,000. The collector may refuse to approve said bond when, in his judgment, the situation of the distillery is such as would enable the distiller to defraud the United States; and in case of such refusal the distiller may appeal to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, whose decision in the matter shall be final. A new bond shall be required in case of the death, insolvency, or removal of either of the sureties, and may be required in any other contingency at the discretion of the collector or Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Every person who fails or refuses to give the bond hereinbefore required, or to renew the same, or who gives any false, forged, or fraudulent bond, shall forfeit the distillery, distilling apparatus, and all real estate and premises connected therewith, and shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $5,000 and imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years. (R. S. § 3260; May 28, 1880, c. 108, § 1, 21 Stat. 145.)

285. Same; approval.—No collector shall approve the bond of any distiller until all the requirements of the law and all regulations made by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue in relation to distilleries, in pursuance thereof, have been complied with. Every collector who violates this provision shall forfeit and pay $2,000, and be dismissed from office. (R. S. § 3261.)

286. Same; distiller to be owner in fee simple, or have written consent of owner.—No bond of a distiller shall be approved, unless he is the owner in fee, unincumbered by any mortgage, judgment, or other lien, of the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, or unless he files with the collector, in connection with his notice, the written consent of the owner of the fee, and of any mortgagee, judgment creditor, or other person having a lien thereon, duly acknowledged, that the premises may be used for the purpose of distilling spirits, subject to the provisions of law, and expressly stipulating that the lien of the United States for taxes and penalties shall have priority of such mortgage, judgment, or other incumbrance, and that in case of the forfeiture of the distillery premises, or of any part thereof, the title of the same shall vest in the United States, discharged from such mortgage, judgment, or other incumbrance. In any case where the owner of a distillery or distilling apparatus, erected prior to the 20th day of July, 1868, has only an estate for a term of years or other estate less than fee simple in the lot or tract of land on which the distillery is situated, the evidence of title to which shall have been duly recorded prior to that date; or in like case, where the lease or other evidence of title is held but was not required by the laws of the State to be recorded in order to be valid at the time of its execution; or in any case of such prior erection where the title was then, and has continued to be, in litigation; or in any case of such prior erection where such owner is possessed of the fee, but incumbered with a mortgage executed and duly recorded prior to said 20th of July, 1868, and not due, or in any case of such prior erection where the fee is held by a feme covert, minor, person of unsound mind, or other person incapable of giving consent, as hereinbefore required, the value of such lot or tract of land, together with the building and distilling apparatus, shall be appraised in the manner to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue; and the collector may, at the discretion of the commissioner, be authorized to accept, in lieu of the said written consent of the owner of the fee, the bond of such distiller, in such form as the commissioner may prescribe, with not less than two sureties, conditioned that in case the distillery, distilling apparatus, or any part thereof, shall by final judgment be forfeited for the violation of any of the provisions of law, the obligors shall pay the amount stated in said bond. Said sureties shall be residents of the collection district or county, or of an adjoining county in the same State in which the distillery is situated, and owners of unincumbered real estate in said district or county, or adjoining county, equal to such appraised value, and the penal sum of said bond shall be equal to the appraised value of said lot or tract of land together with the buildings and distilling apparatus. In case of any distillery sold at judicial or other sale in favor of the United States, a bond may be taken at the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, in lieu of the written consent required by this section, and the person giving such bond may be allowed to operate such a distillery during the existence of the right of redemption from such sale, on complying with all the other provisions of law. The collector may at any time, at the discretion of the commissioner, accept such bond as is authorized to be given by the distiller in lieu of the written consent of the owner of the fee in the case of a distillery erected prior to July 20, 1868, notwithstanding such distillery has since then been increased by the addition of land or buildings adjacent or contiguous thereto, not owned by the distiller himself in fee; such bond to be for and in respect of such addition only, if the distillery be one which the distiller owns in fee or in respect to which he has procured the written consent of the owner of the fee or other incumbrance, otherwise to be for and in respect of the entire distillery as increased by such addition. (R. S. § 3262; May 28, 1880, c. 108, § 2, 21 Stat. 145.)

287. Refusal of bond from person convicted.—Whenever any person intending to commence or to continue the business of a distiller shall execute a bond under the provisions of section 284 of this title, and file the same with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which he proposes to distill, the collector may refuse to approve said bond if the person offering the same shall have been previously convicted, in a court of competent jurisdiction, of any fraudulent noncompliance with any of the provisions of law relating to the duties and business of distillers, or if the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall have compromised such an offense with the person upon the payment of penalties or otherwise, and, in case of such refusal, the person so proposing to distill may appeal to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, whose decision in the matter shall be final. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 67, 28 Stat. 568.)

288. Plan of distillery.—Every distiller and person intending to engage in the business of a distiller shall, previous to the approval of his bond, cause to be made, under the direction of the collector of the district, an accurate plan and description, in triplicate, of the distillery and distilling apparatus, distinctly showing the location of every still, boiler, doubler, worm tub, and receiving cistern, the course and construction of all fixed pipes used or to be used in the distillery, and of every branch and every cock or joint thereof, and of every valve therein, together with every place, vessel, tub, or utensil from and to which any such pipe leads, or with which it communicates; also the number and location and cubic contents of every still, mash tub, and fermenting tub, the cubic contents of every receiving cistern, and the color of each fixed pipe, as required in this title. One copy of said plan and description shall be kept displayed in some conspicuous place in the distillery, and two copies shall be furnished to the collector of the district, one of which shall be kept by him, and the other transmitted to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. The accuracy of every such plan and description shall be verified by the collector, the draughtsman, and the distiller; and no alteration shall be made in such distillery without the consent, in writing, of the collector. Any alteration so made shall be shown on the original, or by a supplemental plan and description, and a reference thereto noted on the original, as the collector may direct; and any supplemental plan and description shall be executed and preserved in the same manner as the original. (R. S. § 3263.)

289. Surveys of distilleries.—On receipt of notice that any person, firm, or corporation wishes to commence the business of distilling, the collector, or a deputy collector, to be designated by him, shall proceed in person, at the expense of the United States, with the aid of an assistant designated by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for the purpose of making surveys of distilleries in that district, to make a survey of such distillery for the purpose of estimating and determining its true spirit-producing capacity for a day of twenty-four hours.

In all surveys forty-five gallons of mash or beer brewed or fermented from grain shall represent not less than one bushel of grain, and seven gallons of mash or beer brewed or fermented from molasses shall represent not less than one gallon of molasses, except in distilleries operated on the sour-mash principle, in which distilleries sixty gallons of beer brewed or fermented from grain shall represent not less than one bushel of grain, and except that in distilleries where the filtration-aeration process is used, with the approval of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue; that is, where the mash after it leaves the mash tub is passed through a filtering machine before it is run into the fermenting tub, and only the filtered liquid passes into the fermenting tub, there shall be no limitation upon the number of gallons of water which may be used in the process of mashing or filtration for fermentation; but the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, in order to protect the revenue, shall be authorized to prescribe by regulation, to be made by him, such character of survey as he may find suitable for distilleries using such filtration-aeration process. The provisions hereof relating to filtration-aeration process shall apply only to sweet-mash distilleries.

A written report of such survey shall be made in triplicate, of which one copy shall be delivered to the distiller, one copy shall be retained by the collector, and one copy shall be transmitted to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and the survey shall take effect upon the delivery of such copy to the distiller. Whenever the commissioner is satisfied that any report of the capacity of a distillery is incorrect or needs revision, he shall direct the collector to make in like manner another survey of said distillery, and the report thereof shall be made and deposited as hereinbefore required. The survey of any distillery estimated and stated by the distiller, in his notice of intention to distill, as capable of distilling not more than one hundred and fifty proof-gallons of distilled spirits every twenty-four hours may be made by the collector or by a deputy collector without the aid of an assistant; and that all surveys made for the purpose of correcting clerical errors or errors of computation existing in the report of a previous survey, and all surveys made for the purpose of changing the true spirit-producing capacity of any distillery for a day of twenty-four hours as estimated and determined by a previous survey but which surveys do not require the remeasuring of the fermenting tubs in a grain or molasses distillery or the still or stills in a distillery of apples, peaches, or grapes exclusively, may be made without taking the measurements of the fermenting tubs or stills, as the case may be, and without revisiting the distillery. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue may, whenever he shall deem it proper, designate an officer, agent, or person other than the collector or deputy collector, to make, with or without the aid of a designated assistant, the surveys and resurveys hereinabove provided for. (R. S. § 3264; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 5, 20 Stat. 334; June 22, 1910, c. 329, § 1, 36 Stat. 590; Sept. 8, 1916, c. 463, § 402(1), 39 Stat. 787; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 623, 40 Stat. 1114.)

290. Notice by manufacturer of still; setting up still without permit.—Any person who manufactures any still, boiler, or other vessel to be used for the purpose of distilling, shall, before the same is removed from the place of manufacture, notify in writing the collector of the district in which such still, boiler, or other vessel is to be used or set up, by whom it is to be used, its capacity, and the time when the same is to be removed from the place of manufacture; and no such still, boiler, or other vessel shall be set up without the permit in writing of the said collector for that purpose; and any person who sets up any such still, boiler, or other vessel, without first obtaining a permit from the said collector of the district in which such still, boiler, or other vessel is intended to be used, or who fails to give such notice, shall pay in either case the sum of $500, and shall forfeit the distilling apparatus thus removed or set up in violation of law. (R. S. § 3265.)

291. Distilling on certain premises prohibited.—No person shall use any still, boiler, or other vessel, for the purpose of distilling, in any dwelling house, or in any shed, yard, or inclosure connected with any dwelling house, or on board of any vessel or boat, or in any building, or on any premises where beer, lager beer, ale, porter, or other fermented liquors, vinegar, or ether, are manufactured or produced, or where sugars or sirups are refined, or where liquors of any description are retailed, or where any other business is carried on; or within six hundred feet in a direct line of any premises authorized to be used for rectifying; and every person who does any of the acts prohibited by this section, or aids or assists therein, or causes or procures the same to be done, shall be fined $1,000 and imprisoned for not less than six months nor more than two years, in the discretion of the court, for each such offense. Saleratus may be manufactured, or meal or flour ground from grain, in any building or on any premises where spirits are distilled; but such meal or flour shall be used only for distillation on the premises. Any boiler used in generating steam or heating water to be used in any distillery, may be located in any other building or on any other premises to be connected with such still or boiling tubs, by suitable pipes or other apparatus, or the steam from such boiler in the distillery may be conveyed to other premises to be used for manufacturing or other purposes. (R. S. § 3266.)

292. Receiving cisterns.—The owner, agent, or superintendent of any distillery established as hereinbefore provided, shall erect, in a room or building to be provided and used for that purpose, and for no other, and to be constructed in the manner to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, two or more receiving cisterns, each to be at least of sufficient capacity to hold all the spirits distilled during the day of twenty-four hours, into which shall be conveyed all the spirits produced in said distillery; and each of said cisterns shall be so constructed as to leave an open space of at least three feet between the top thereof and the floor or roof above, and of not less than eighteen inches between the bottom thereof and the floor below, and shall be so situated that the officer can pass around the same, and shall be connected with the outlet of the worm or condenser by suitable pipes or other apparatus, so constructed as always to be exposed to the view of the officer, and so connected and constructed as to prevent the abstraction of spirits while passing from the outlet of the worm or condenser back to the still or doubler, or forward to the receiving cistern. Such cisterns and the room in which they are contained shall be in charge and under the lock and seal of the internal-revenue gauger designated for that duty; and all locks and seals required by law shall be provided by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, at the expense of the United States; and the keys shall be in charge of the collector or such gauger as he may designate. On the third day after the spirits are conveyed into such cistern they shall be drawn off into casks, under the supervision of such gauger, in the presence of the storekeeper, and be removed directly to the distillery warehouse; but on special application to the collector by the owner, agent, or superintendent of any distillery, the spirits may be drawn off from the said cisterns, under the supervision of the gauger, at any time previous to the third day. (R. S. § 3267.)

293. Breaking locks or gaining access to cistern or building.—Every person who destroys, breaks, injures, or tampers with any lock or seal which may be placed on any cistern room or building by the duly authorized officers of the revenue, or opens said lock or seal, or the door to said cistern room or building, or in any manner gains access to the contents therein, in the absence of the proper officer, shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than one year nor more than three years. (R. S. § 3268.)

294. Furnaces, tubs, doublers, worm tanks.—The door of the furnace of every still or boiler used in any distillery shall be so constructed that it may be securely fastened and locked. The fermenting tubs shall be so placed as to be easily accessible to any revenue officer, and each tub shall have distinctly painted thereon in oil colors its cubic contents in gallons and the number of the tub. There shall be a clear space of not less than one foot around every wood still, and not less than two feet around every doubler and worm tank. The doubler and worm tanks shall be elevated not less than one foot from the floor; and every fixed pipe to be used by the distiller, except for conveyance of water, or of spent mash or beer only, shall be so fixed and placed as to be capable of being examined by the officer for the whole of its length or course, and shall be painted, and kept painted, as follows, that is to say: Every pipe for the conveyance of mash or beer shall be painted of a red color; every pipe for the conveyance of low wines back into the still or doubler shall be painted blue; every pipe for the conveyance of spirits shall be painted black, and every pipe for the conveyance of water shall be painted white. Whenever any fixed pipe is used by any distiller which is not painted or kept painted as herein directed, or which is painted otherwise than as herein directed, he shall forfeit the sum of $1,000. (R. S. § 3269.)

295. Apparatus and fastenings.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue is authorized to order and require such changes of or additions to distilling apparatus, connecting pipes, pumps, or cisterns, or any machinery connected with or used in or on the distillery premises, or may require to be put on any of the stills, tubs, cisterns, pipes, or other vessels, such fastenings, locks, or seals as he may deem necessary. (R. S. § 3270.)

296. Small distilleries exempted from certain requirements.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may exempt distillers whose distilleries have a daily spirit-producing capacity of thirty gallons of proof spirits, or less, from such of the provisions of existing law in regard to grain distilleries which require the processes of distillation to be carried on through continuous closed vessels and pipes, or which require the cisterns to be connected with the outlet of the worm or condenser by suitable pipes or other apparatus or which require certain clear spaces about the cisterns and other vessels of the distillery, or which require the distillers to have or furnish a plan of the distillery, as he may deem proper. (Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 5, 20 Stat. 336.)

297. Brandy made from apples and other fruits; exemption from requirements.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may exempt distillers of brandy made exclusively from apples, peaches, grapes, pears, pineapples, oranges, apricots, berries, plums, pawpaws, persimmons, prunes, figs, or cherries from any provision of this title relating to the manufacture of spirits, except as to the tax thereon when in his judgment it may seem expedient to do so. Where, in the manufacture of wine, artificial sweetening has been used the wine or the fruit pomace residuum may be used in the distillation of brandy, and such use shall not prevent the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, from exempting such distiller from any provision of this title relating to the manufacture of spirits, except as to the tax thereon, when in his judgment it may seem expedient to do so. The distillers mentioned in this section may add to not less than five hundred gallons (or ten barrels) of grape cheese not more than five hundred gallons of a sugar solution made from cane, beet, starch, or corn sugar, 95 per centum pure, such solution to have a saccharine strength of not to exceed 10 per centum, and may ferment the resultant mixture on a winery or distillery premises, and such fermented product shall be regarded as distilling material. (R. S. § 3255; June 3, 1896, c. 309, 29 Stat. 195; Feb 4, 1901, c. 195, 31 Stat. 759; Mar. 2, 1911, c. 198, 36 Stat. 1014; Sept. 8, 1916, c. 463, § 404, 39 Stat. 788; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 625, 40 Stat. 1114.)

298. Distillery kept accessible.—No fence or wall of a height greater than five feet shall be erected or maintained around the premises of any distillery, so as to prevent easy and immediate access to such distillery. And every distiller shall furnish to the collector of the district as many keys of the gates and doors of the distillery as may be required by the collector, from time to time, for any revenue officer or other person who may be authorized to make survey or inspection of the premises, or of the contents thereof; and said distillery shall be kept always accessible to any officer or other person having any such key. Every person who violates any of the foregoing provisions of this section by negligence or refusal, or otherwise, shall pay a penalty of $500. (R. S. § 3275.)

299. Entry and examination of distilleries; obstructing officer; forfeiture.—It shall be lawful for any revenue officer at all times, as well by night as by day, to enter into any distillery or building or place used for the business of distilling, or used in connection therewith for storage or other purposes, and to examine, gauge, measure, and take an account of every still or other vessel or utensil of any kind and of all low wines, and of the quantity and gravity of all mash, wort, or beer, and of all yeast, or other compositions for exciting or producing fermentation in any mash or beer, of all spirits and of all materials for making or distilling spirits, which may be in any such distillery or premises, or in possession of the distiller. And whenever any internal-revenue officer, or any person called by him to his aid, is hindered, obstructed, or prevented by any distiller or by any workman, or other person acting for such distiller, or in his employ, from entering into any such distillery or building or place as aforesaid; or any such officer is by the distiller, or his workman or any person in his employ, prevented or hindered from, or opposed or obstructed, or molested in the performance of his duty under the internal-revenue laws, in any respect, the distiller shall forfeit the sum of not exceeding $1,000. And whenever any officer, having demanded admittance into a distillery or distillery premises, and having declared his name and office, is not admitted into such distillery or premises by the distiller or other person having charge thereof, it shall be lawful for such officer at all times, as well by night as by day, to break open by force any of the doors or windows, or to break through any of the walls of such distillery or premises necessary to be broken open or through, to enable him to enter the said distillery or premises; and the distiller shall forfeit the sum of not exceeding $1,000. (R. S. § 3276; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 5, 20 Stat. 335.)

300. Same; facilities for examination; penalty for neglect.—On the demand of any internal-revenue officer, every distiller or rectifier shall furnish strong, safe, and convenient ladders of sufficient length to enable the officer to examine and gauge any vessel or utensil in such distillery or premises; and shall, at all times when required, supply all assistance, lights, ladders, tools, staging, or other things necessary for inspecting the premises, stocks, tools, and apparatus belonging to such person, and shall open all doors, and open for examination all boxes, packages, and all casks, barrels, and other vessels not under the control of the revenue officer in charge, under a penalty of $500 for every refusal or neglect so to do. (R. S. § 3277.)

301. Installation of meters, tanks, and other apparatus.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, is authorized to require at distilleries, breweries, rectifying houses, and wherever else in his judgment such action may be deemed advisable, the installation of meters, tanks, pipes, or any other apparatus for the purpose of protecting the revenue, and such meters, tanks, and pipes and all necessary labor incident thereto shall be at the expense of the person on whose premises the installation is required. Any such person refusing or neglecting to install such apparatus when so required by the commissioner shall not be permitted to conduct business on such premises. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 607, 40 Stat. 1109.)

302. Examination of distilleries; destruction of pipes unlawfully concealed.—It shall be lawful for any revenue officer, and any person acting in his aid, to break up the ground on any part of a distillery, or premises of a distiller or rectifier, or any ground adjoining or near to such distillery or premises, or any wall or partition thereof, or belonging thereto, or other place, to search for any pipe, cock, private conveyance, or utensil; and, upon finding any such pipe or conveyance leading therefrom or thereto, to break up any ground, house, wall, or other place through or into which such pipe or other conveyance leads, and to break or cut away such pipe or other conveyance, and turn any cock, or to examine whether such pipe or other conveyance conveys or conceals any mash, wort, or beer, or other liquor, which may be used for the distillation of low wines or spirits, from the sight or view of the officer, so as to prevent or hinder him from taking a true account thereof. (R. S. § 3278.)

303. Signs put up by distillers, rectifiers, and wholesale liquor dealers; penalty for noncompliance.—Every person engaged in distilling or rectifying spirits and every wholesale liquor dealer shall place and keep conspicuously on the outside of the place of such business a sign, exhibiting in plain and legible letters not less than three inches in length, painted in oil colors or gilded and of a proper and proportionate width, the name or firm of the distiller, rectifier, or wholesale dealer with the words "Registered distillery," "Rectifier of spirits," or "Wholesale liquor dealer," as the case may be. Every person who violates the foregoing provision by negligence or refusal or otherwise shall pay a penalty of $500. (R. S. § 3279.)

304. Same; penalty for unlawful use.—Every person, other than a rectifier or wholesale liquor dealer who has paid the special tax, or a distiller who has given bond as required by law, who puts up or keeps up the sign required by section 303, of this title, or any sign indicating that he may lawfully carry on the business of a distiller, rectifier, or wholesale liquor dealer, shall forfeit and pay $1,000, and shall be imprisoned not less than one month nor more than six months. And every person who works in any distillery, rectifying establishment, or wholesale liquor store, on which no sign is placed and kept, as hereinbefore provided; and every person who knowingly receives at, carries or conveys any distilled spirits to or from, any such distillery, rectifying establishment, warehouse, or store, or who knowingly carries and delivers any grain, molasses, or other raw material to any distillery on which such sign is not placed and kept, shall forfeit all horses, carts, drays, wagons, or other vehicle or animal used in carrying or conveying such property aforesaid, and shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, or be imprisoned not less than one month nor more than six months. (R. S. § 3279.)

305. Distillers carrying on business without compliance with law.—It shall not be lawful for any distiller to commence or to continue the business of distilling, until he has given the bond required by law, and complied with the provisions of law relating to the registration and survey of distilleries, and the arrangement and construction of distilleries and the premises connected therewith; nor shall it be lawful for any person to engage in the business of distilling on any premises distant less than six hundred feet in a direct line from any premises used for rectifying; nor shall the processes of distillation and rectification both be carried on within the distance of six hundred feet in a direct line. (R. S. § 3280.)

306. Carrying on distillery without giving bond, and so forth; penalty; forfeitures.—Any person who shall carry on the business of a distiller without having given bond as required by law, or who shall engage in or carry on the business of a distiller with intent to defraud the United States of the tax on the spirits distilled by him, or any part thereof, shall, for every such offense be fined not less than $100 nor more than $5,000 and imprisoned not less than thirty days nor more than two years. And all distilled spirits or wines, and all stills or other apparatus, fit or intending to be used for the distillation of spirits, or for the compounding of liquors, owned by such person, wherever found, and all distilled spirits or wines and personal property found in the distillery or in any building, room, yard, or inclosures connected therewith, and used with or constituting a part of the premises; and all the right, title, and interest of such person in the lot or tract of land on which such distillery is situated, and all right, title, and interest therein of every person who knowingly has suffered or permitted the business of a distiller to be there carried on, or has connived at the same; and all personal property owned by or in possession of any person who has permitted or suffered any building, yard, or inclosure, or any part thereof, to be used for purposes of ingress or egress to or from such distillery which shall be found in any such building, yard, or inclosure, and all the right, title, and interest of every person in any premises used for ingress or egrees to or from such distillery, who has knowingly suffered or permitted such premises to be used for such ingress or egress, shall be forfeited to the United States. (R. S. § 3281; Feb. 8, 1875, c. 36, § 16, 18 Stat. 310.)

307. Mash, wort, and vinegar; vinegar factories.—No mash, wort, or wash, fit for distillation or for the production of spirits or alcohol, shall be made or fermented in any building or on any premises other than a distillery duly authorized according to law; and no mash, wort, or wash so made and fermented shall be sold or removed from any distillery before being distilled; and no person, other than an authorized distiller, shall, by distillation, or by any other process, separate the alcoholic spirits from any fermented mash, wort, or wash; and no person shall use spirits or alcohol, in manufacturing vinegar or any other article, or in any process of manufacture whatever, unless the spirits or alcohol so used shall have been produced in an authorized distillery and the tax thereon paid. Every person who violates any provision of this section shall be fined for each offense not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years. Nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to fermented liquors, or to fermented liquids used for the manufacture of vinegar exclusively. But no worm, goose-neck, pipe, conductor, or contrivance of any description whatsoever whereby vapor might in any manner be conveyed away and converted into distilled spirits, shall be used or employed or be fastened to or connected with any vaporizing apparatus used for the manufacture of vinegar; nor shall any worm be permitted on or near the premises where such vaporizing process is carried on. Nor shall any vinegar factory, except as provided in section 308 of this title, for the manufacture of vinegar as aforesaid, be permitted within six hundred feet of any distillery or rectifying house. But it shall be lawful for manufacturers of vinegar to separate, by a vaporizing process, the alcoholic property from the mash produced by them, and condense the same by introducing it into the water or other liquid used in making vinegar. No person, however, shall remove, or cause to be removed, from any vinegar factory or place where vinegar is made, any vinegar or other fluid or material containing a greater proportion than 2 per centum of proof spirits. Any violation of this provision shall incur a forfeiture of the vinegar, fluid, or material containing such proof spirits, and shall subject the person or persons guilty of removing the same to the punishment provided for any violation of this section. And all the provisions of sections 299, 300, and 302 of this title shall apply to all premises whereon vinegar is manufactured, to all manufacturers of vinegar and their workmen or other persons employed by them. (R. S. § 3282; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 5, 20 Stat. 335.)

308. Vinegar factories opened prior to March 1, 1879.—Any vinegar factory for the manufacture of vinegar, established and operated as a vinegar factory prior to March 1, 1879, may be operated for the manufacture of vinegar by the use of alcoholic vapor within less than six hundred feet of any distillery or rectifying house under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. (June 14, 1879, c. 23, 21 Stat. 20.)

309. Distilling between 11 p. m. of Saturday and 1 a. m. of Monday prohibited.—No malt, corn, grain, or other material shall be mashed, nor any mash, wort, or beer brewed or made, nor any still used by a distiller, at any time between the hour of eleven in the afternoon of any Saturday and the hour of one in the forenoon of the next succeeding Monday; and every person who violates the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000. (R. S. § 3283.)

310. Same; exception.—Under such regulations as the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe, the manufacture, warehousing, withdrawal, and shipment, under the provisions of existing law, of ethyl alcohol for other than (1) beverage purposes or (2) use in the manufacture or production of any article used or intended for use as a beverage, and denatured alcohol, may be exempted from the provisions of section 309 of this chapter. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 602, 40 Stat. 1107.)

311. Using material or removing spirits in absence of storekeeper.—Every distiller or person employed in any distillery who, in the absence of the storekeeper, or person designated to act as storekeeper, uses, or causes or permits to be used, any material for the purpose of making mash, wort, or beer, or for the production of spirits, or removes any spirits, shall forfeit and pay double the amount of taxes on the spirits so produced, distilled, or removed, and in addition thereto be liable to a penalty of $1,000. (R. S. § 3284.)

312. Drawing off water and cleansing worm tub.—Whenever any officer requires the water contained in any worm tub in a distillery, at any time when the still is not at work, to be drawn off, and the tub and worm cleansed, the water shall forthwith be drawn off, and the tub and worm cleansed by the distiller, or his workmen, accordingly; and the water shall be kept and continued out of such worm tub for the period of two hours, or until the officer has finished his examination thereof. For any refusal or neglect to comply with any provision of this section, the distiller shall forfeit the sum of not exceeding $1,000; and it shall be lawful for the officer to draw off such water, or any portion of it, and to keep the same drawn off for so long a time as he shall think necessary. (R. S. § 3286; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 5, 20 Stat. 335.)

313. Fermenting tubs; emptying and filling.—Every fermenting tub shall be emptied at or before the end of the fermenting period; no fermenting tub in a sweet-mash distillery shall be filled oftener than once in seventy-two hours, nor in a sour-mash distillery oftener than once in ninety-six hours, nor in a rum distillery oftener than once in one hundred and forty-four hours, nor in a distillery where the filtration-aeration process is employed, that is, where the mash after it leaves the mash tub is passed through a filtering machine, before it is run into the fermenting tub, and only the filtered liquor passes into the fermenting tub, and the approval of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue being secured, oftener than once in twenty-four hours. The provisions hereof relating to filtration-aeration process shall apply only to sweet-mash distilleries. (R. S. § 3285; May 28, 1880, c. 108, § 3, 21 Stat. 145; June 22, 1910, c. 329, § 2, 36 Stat. 590.)

314. Distillers' books; entries to be made.—Every person who makes or distills spirits, or owns any still, boiler, or other vessel used for the purpose of distilling spirits, or who has such still, boiler, or other vessel so used under his superintendence, either as agent or owner, or who uses any such still, boiler, or other vessel, shall from day to day make, or cause to be made, in a book or books, to be kept by him in such form as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe, a true and exact entry of the kind of materials, and the quantity in pounds, bushels, or gallons purchased by him for the production of spirits, from whom and when purchased, and by what conveyance delivered at said distillery, the amount paid therefor, the kind and quantity of fuel purchased for use in the distillery, and from whom purchased, the amount paid for ice or water for use in the distillery, the repairs placed on said distillery or distilling apparatus, the cost thereof, and by whom and when made, and of the name and residence of each person employed in or about the distillery, and in what capacity employed. And in another book he shall make like entry of the quantity of grain or other material used for the production of spirits, the time of day when any yeast or other composition is put into any mash or beer for the purpose of exciting fermentation, the quantity of mash in each tub, designating the same by the number of the tub, the number of dry inches, that is to say, the number of inches between the top of each tub and the surface of the mash or beer therein at the time of yeasting, the gravity and temperature of the beer at the time of yeasting, and on every day thereafter its quantity, gravity, and temperature at the hour of twelve meridian; also, of the time when any fermenting tub is emptied of ripe mash or beer, the number of gallons of spirits distilled, the number of gallons placed in the warehouse, and the proof thereof, the number of gallons sold or removed, with the proof thereof, and the name, place of business, and residence of the person to whom sold. (R. S. § 3303.)

315. Same; maintaining at distillery; inspection and preservation.—The books of every distiller hereinbefore required shall always be kept at the distillery and be always open to the inspection of any revenue officer, and, when filled up, shall be preserved by the distiller for a period of not less than two years thereafter, and whenever required shall be produced for the inspection of any revenue officer. (R. S. § 3304.)

316. Same; false entries, or omitting to keep or produce.—Whenever any false entry is made in, or any entry required to be made is omitted from, either of the said books mentioned in sections 314 and 315 of this title with intent to defraud or to conceal from the revenue officers any fact or particular required to be stated and entered in either of said books, or to mislead in reference thereto; or any distiller as aforesaid omits or refuses to provide either of said books, or cancels, obliterates, or destroys any part of either of such books, or any entry therein, with intent to defraud, or permits the same to be done, or such books, or either of them, are not produced when required by any revenue officer, the distillery, distilling apparatus, and the lot or tract of land on which it stands, and all personal property on said premises used in the business there carried on, shall be forfeited to the United States. And every person who makes such false entry, or omits to make any entry hereinbefore required to be made, with the intent aforesaid, or who causes or procures the same to be done, or fraudulently cancels, obliterates, or destroys, any part of said books, or any entry therein, or willfully fails to produce such books, or either of them, shall be fined not less than $500, nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than six months, nor more than two years. (R. S. § 3305.)

317. Using false weights or measures, or unregistered materials.—Every person who knowingly uses any false weights or measures in ascertaining, weighing, or measuring the quantities of grain, meal, or vegetable materials, molasses, beer, or other substances to be used for distillation, shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than one year nor more than three years. Any person who uses any molasses, beer, or other substance, whether fermented on the premises or elsewhere, for the purpose of producing spirits, before an account of the same is registered in the proper book provided for that purpose, shall forfeit and pay the sum of $1,000 for each offense so committed. (R. S. § 3306.)

318. Distillers' returns; production to collector.—On the 1st day of each month, or within five days thereafter, every distiller shall render to the collector of the district an account in duplicate, taken from his books, stating the quantity and kind of materials used for the production of spirits each day, and the number of wine gallons and of proof gallons of spirits produced and placed in warehouse. And the distiller or the principal manager of the distillery shall make and subscribe the following oath, to be attached to said return: "I, ———— ————, distiller (or principal manager, as the case may be) of the distillery at ————, do solemnly swear that, since the date of the last return of the business of said distillery, dated ———— day of ———— to ———— day of ————, both inclusive, there was produced in said distillery, and withdrawn and placed in warehouse, the number of wine gallons and proof gallons of spirits; and there were actually mashed and used in said distillery, and consumed in the production of spirits therein, the several quantities of grain, sugar, molasses, and other materials respectively hereinbefore specified, and no more." One of the said duplicate returns shall be transmitted by the collector to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. (R. S. § 3307.)

319. Same; number of barrels distilled.—Every distiller shall make a return of the number of barrels of spirits distilled by him, counting forty gallons of proof spirits to the barrel, whenever such return is demanded by the collector of the district. (R. S. § 3308.)

320. Same; monthly examination; assessment.—On the receipt of the distiller's return in each month, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall inquire and determine whether the distiller has accounted for all the grain or molasses used, and all the spirits produced by him in the preceding month. If he is satisfied that the distiller has reported all the spirits produced by him, and the quantity so reported is found to be less than 80 per centum of the producing capacity of the distillery as estimated according to law, he shall make an assessment for such deficiency at the rate of tax imposed by law for every proof gallon. In determining the quantity of grain used, fifty-six pounds shall be accounted as a bushel; and if the commissioner finds that the distiller has used any grain or molasses in excess of the capacity of his distillery as estimated according to law, he shall make an assessment against the distiller at the rate so imposed for every proof gallon of spirits that should have been produced from the grain or molasses so used in excess, which assessment shall be made whether the quantity of spirits reported is equal to or exceeds 80 per centum of the producing capacity of the distillery. If the commissioner finds that the distiller has not accounted for all the spirits produced by him, he shall, from all the evidence he can obtain, determine what quantity of spirits was actually produced by such distiller, and an assessment shall be made for the difference between the quantity reported and the quantity shown to have been actually produced, at the rate so imposed for every proof gallon: Provided, That the actual product shall be assumed to be in no case less than 80 per centum of the producing capacity of the distillery as estimated according to law. All assessments made under this section shall be a lien on all distilled spirits on the distillery premises, the distillery used for distilling the same, the stills, vessels, fixtures, and tools therein, the tract of land whereon the said distillery is located, and any building thereon, from the time such assessment is made until the same shall have been paid. (R. S. § 3309; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 31, § 12, 18 Stat. 419; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 60, 28 Stat. 566.)

321. Same; remission and refunding tax on deficiency in production; notification to fruit distillers.—Whenever, under the provisions of section 320 of this title, an assessment shall have been made against a distiller for a deficiency in not producing 80 per centum of the producing capacity of his distillery as established by law, or for the tax upon the spirits that should have been produced from the grain, or fruit, or molasses found to have been used in excess of the capacity of his distillery for any month, as estimated according to law, such excessive use of grain, or fruit, or molasses having arisen from a failure on the part of the distiller to maintain the capacity required by law to enable him to use such grain, or fruit, or molasses without incurring liability to such assessment, and it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue that said deficiency, or that said failure, whereby such excessive use of grain, molasses, or fruit arose, was not occasioned by any want of diligence or by any fraudulent purpose, on the part of the distiller, but from misunderstanding as to the requirements of the law and regulations in that respect or by reason of unavoidable accidents, then, and in such case, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, subject to regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized, on appeal made to him, to remit or refund such tax, or such part thereof as shall appear to him to be equitable and just in the premises: And the Commissioner of Internal Revenue upon the production to him of satisfactory proof of the actual destruction, by accidental fire or other casualty, and without any fraud, collusion, or negligence of the distiller of any spirits in process of manufacture or distillation, or before removal to the distillery warehouse, shall not assess the distiller for a deficiency in not producing 80 per centum of the producing capacity of his distillery as established by law when the deficiency is occasioned by such destruction, nor shall he, in such case, assess the tax on the spirits so destroyed. No assessments shall be charged againt any distiller of fruit for any failure to maintain the required capacity, unless the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall, within six months after his receipt of each monthly report notify such distiller of such failure so to maintain the required capacity. (Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 6, 20 Stat. 340; May 28, 1880, c. 108, § 8, 21 Stat. 147.)

322. Exemption of distillers of ethyl alcohol from certain provisions.—The commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may by regulations exempt distillers of ethyl alcohol, for use in the production of munitions of war, or for other nonbeverage purposes, from so much of the provisions of sections 289, 313, and 320 of this title, respecting the survey of distilleries, the period of fermentation, the filling and emptying of fermenting tubs, and assessments, as, in his judgment, may be expedient: Provided, That the bond prescribed in section 284 of this title shall, in the cases herein provided, be in such sum and contain such further conditions as the said commissioner may require. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 602, 40 Stat. 1107.)

323. Commencement of distilling; suspension of work; notice.—The first fermenting period of every distiller shall be taken to begin on the day the distiller's bond is approved; and every distiller at the hour of twelve meridian on the last day of such first fermenting period, or at the same hour on any previous day of such fermenting period on which spirits are distilled, shall be deemed to have commenced, and thereafter to be continuously engaged in, the production of distilled spirits in his distillery, except in the intervals when he shall suspend work as hereinafter provided. Any distiller desiring to suspend work in his distillery may give notice in writing to the collector of the district, stating when he will suspend work; and on the day mentioned in said notice said collector or one of his deputies shall, at the expense of the distiller, proceed to fasten securely the door of every furnace of every still or boiler in said distillery, by locks and otherwise, and shall adopt such other means as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe to prevent the lighting of any fire in such furnace or under such stills or boilers. The locks and seals, and other materials required for such purpose, shall be furnished to the collector by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, to be duly accounted for by said collector. Such notice by any distiller, and the action taken by the collector in pursuance thereof, shall be immediately transmitted to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. No distiller, after having given such notice, shall, after the time stated therein, carry on the business of a distiller on said premises until he gives another notice in writing to said collector, stating the time when he will resume work; and at the time so stated for resuming work the collector or one of his deputies shall attend at the distillery to remove said locks and other fastenings; and thereupon, and not before, work may be resumed in said distillery, which fact shall be immediately reported to the collector of the district, and by him transmitted to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Every distiller who, after the time fixed in said notice declaring his intention to suspend work, carries on the business of a distiller on said premises, or has mash, wort, or beer in his distillery, or on any premises connected therewith, or has in his possession or under his control any mash, wort, or beer, with intent to distill the same on said premises, shall incur the forfeitures and be subject to the same punishment as provided for persons who carry on the business of a distiller without having given the bonds required by law. But nothing in this section shall be held to apply to suspensions caused by unavoidable accident; and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall prescribe regulations to govern such cases of involuntary suspension. (R. S. § 3310; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 248; May 28, 1880, c. 108, § 7, 21 Stat. 147.)

324. Reduction of capacity.—Whenever any distiller desires to reduce the producing capacity of his distillery, he shall give notice of such intention in writing, to the collector, stating the quantity of spirits which he desires thereafter to manufacture or produce every twenty-four hours, and thereupon said collector shall proceed, at the expense of the distiller, to reduce and limit the producing capacity of the distillery to the quantity stated in said notice by placing upon a sufficient number of the fermenting tubs close-fitting covers, which shall be securely fastened by nails, seals, and otherwise, and in such manner as to prevent the use of such tubs without removing said covers or breaking said seals, and shall adopt such other precautions as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to reduce the capacity of said distillery. And every person who breaks, injures, or in any manner tampers with any lock, seal, or other fastening applied to any furnace, still, or fermenting tub, or other vessel, in pursuance of the provisions of law, or who opens or attempts to open any door, tub, or other vessel, which is locked or sealed, or otherwise closed or fastened as herein provided, or who uses any furnace, still, or fermenting tub, or other vessel, which is so locked, sealed, or fastened, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be fined not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned for not less than one year nor more than three years. (R. S. § 3311.)

325. Release of distillery before judgment.—No distillery nor distilling apparatus seized for any violation of law shall be released to the claimant or to any intervening party before judgment, except in case of a distillery for which bond has been given and which has a registered producing capacity of one hundred and fifty proof gallons or more per day, on showing, by sufficient affidavits, that there are hogs or other livestock, not less than fifty head in number, depending for their feed on the products of said distillery, which would suffer injury if the business of such distillery is stopped. Such distillery, in that case, may be released to the claimant, or to any other intervening party, at the discretion of the court, on a bond to be given and approved in open court, with two or more sureties, for the full appraised value of all the property seized, to be ascertained by three competent appraisers designated and appointed by the court. (R. S. § 3331.)

326. Destruction of distillery; witnesses; reimbursement.—When a judgment of forfeiture, in any case of seizure, is recovered against any distillery used or fit for use in the production of distilled spirits, because no bond has been given, or against any distillery used or fit for use in the production of spirits, having a registered producing capacity of less than one hundred and fifty gallons a day, for any violation of law, of whatever nature, every still, doubler, worm, worm tub, mash tub, and fermenting tub therein shall be so destroyed as to prevent the use of the same or of any part thereof for the purpose of distilling; and the materials shall be sold as in case of other forfeited property. And in case of seizure of a still, doubler, worm, worm tub, mash tub, fermenting tub, or other distilling apparatus, having a less producing capacity than one hundred and fifty gallons per day, for any offense involving forfeiture of the same, where said apparatus shall be of less than $500 value, and where it shall be impracticable to remove the same to a place of safe storage from the place where seized, the seizing officer is authorized to destroy the same only so far as to prevent the use thereof, or any part thereof, for the purpose of distilling. Such destruction shall be in the presence of at least one credible witness, and that such witness shall unite with the said officer in a duly sworn report of said seizure and destruction, to be made to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, in which report they shall set forth the grounds of the claim of forfeiture, the reasons for such seizure and destruction, their estimate of the fair cash value of the apparatus destroyed, and also of the materials remaining after such destruction, and a statement that, from facts within their own knowledge, they have no doubt whatever that said distilling apparatus was set up for use and not registered, or had been used in the unlawful distillation of spirits, and that it was impracticable to remove the same to a place of safe storage. Within one year after such destruction the owner of the apparatus so destroyed may make application to the Secretary of the Treasury, through the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, for reimbursement of the value of the same; and unless it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary and the Commissioner that said apparatus had been used in the unlawful distillation of spirits, the Secretary shall make an allowance to said owner, not exceeding the value of said apparatus, less the value of said materials as estimated in said report; and if the claimant shall thereupon satisfy said Secretary and Commissioner that said unlawful use of the apparatus had been without his consent or knowledge, he shall still be entitled to such compensation, but not otherwise. And in case of a wrongful seizure and destruction of property under the foregoing provisions, the owner thereof shall have right of action on the official bond of the officer who occasioned the destruction for all damages caused thereby. (R. S. § 3332; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 5, 20 Stat. 339.)

327. Burden of proof on claimant of spirits seized.—Whenever seizure is made of any distilled spirits found elsewhere than in a distillery or distillery warehouse, or other warehouse for distilled spirits authorized by law, or than in the store or place of business of a rectifier, or of a wholesale liquor dealer, or than in transit from any one of said places; or of any distilled spirits found in any one of the places aforesaid, or in transit therefrom, which have not been received into or sent out therefrom in conformity to law, or in regard to which any of the entries required by law to be made in the books of the owner of such spirits, or of the storekeeper, wholesale dealer, or rectifier, have not been made at the time or in the manner required, or in respect to which the owner or person having possession, control, or charge of said spirits, has omitted to do any act required to be done, or has done or committed any act prohibited in regard to said spirits, the burden of proof shall be upon the claimant of said spirits to show that no fraud has been committed, and that all the requirements of the law in relation to the payment of the tax have been complied with. (R. S. § 3333.)

328. Rectifier's returns; unlawfully rectifying.—On or before the 10th day of each month every person engaged in rectifying or compounding distilled spirits shall make, in such form as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, a return to the collector of the district, showing the quantity of spirits received for rectification, and from whom received, the quantity dumped for rectification, the quantity rectified, the quantity removed after rectification during the preceding month, and giving such other information as may be required by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, such return to be made in duplicate and sworn to by the rectifier; and the collector shall forward one of such returns to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Every person who engages in, or carries on, the business of a rectifier with intent to defraud the United States of the tax on the spirits rectified by him, or any part thereof, or with intent to aid, abet, or assist any person or persons in defrauding the United States of the tax on any distilled spirits, or who shall purchase or receive or rectify any distilled spirits which have been removed from a distillery to a place other than the distillery warehouse provided by law, knowing or having reasonable grounds to believe that the tax on said spirits, required by law, has not been paid, shall, for every such offense, be fined not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years. (R. S. § 3317; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 5, 20 Stat. 339.)

329. Books of rectifiers and wholesale dealers; monthly transcript.—Every rectifier and wholesale liquor dealer shall provide a book, to be prepared and kept in such form as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and shall, on the same day on which he receives any foreign or domestic spirits, and before he draws off any part thereof, or adds water or anything thereto, or in any respect alters the same, enter in such book, and in the proper columns respectively prepared for the purpose, the date when, the name of the person or firm from whom, and the place whence the spirits were received, by whom distilled, rectified, or compounded, and when and by whom inspected, and, if in the original package, the serial number of each package, the number of wine gallons and proof gallons, the kind of spirit, and the number and kind of adhesive stamps thereon. And every such rectifier and wholesale dealer shall, at the time of sending out of his stock or possession any spirits, and before the same are removed from his premises, enter in like manner in the said book the day when and the name and place of business of the person or firm to whom such spirits are to be sent, the quantity and kind or quantity of such spirits, the number of gallons and fractions of a gallon at proof, and, if in the original packages in which they were received, the name of the distiller and the serial number of the package. Every such book shall be at all times kept in some public or open place on the premises of such rectifier or wholesale dealer for inspection, and any revenue officer may examine it and take an abstract therefrom; and when it has been filled up as aforesaid, it shall be preserved by such rectifier or wholesale liquor dealer for a period not less than two years; and during such time it shall be produced by him to every revenue officer demanding it. And whenever any rectifier or wholesale liquor dealer refuses or neglects to provide such book, or to make entries therein as aforesaid, or cancels, alters, obliterates, or destroys any part of such book, or any entry therein, or makes any false entry therein, or hinders or obstructs any revenue officer from examining such book, or making any entry therein, or taking any abstract therefrom; or whenever such book is not preserved or is not produced by any rectifier or wholesale liquor dealer as hereinbefore directed, he shall pay a penalty of $100, and shall on conviction be fined not less than $100 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than three months nor more than three years. Every person required to keep the books prescribed by this section shall, on or before the 10th day of each month, make a full and correct transcript of all entries made in such book during the month preceding, and, after verifying the same by oath, shall forward the same to the collector of the district in which he resides. Any failure by reason of refusal or neglect to make said transcripts shall subject the person so offending to a fine of $100 for each neglect or refusal. (R. S. § 3318; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, 19 Stat. 248; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 5, 20 Stat. 339.)

330. Distillers selling own product; record of sales; transcript; forfeiture.—Distillers who have given the required bond and who sell only distilled spirits of their own production at the place of manufacture, or at the place of storage in bond, in the original packages to which the tax-paid stamps are affixed, and who are exempted by section 221 of this title from paying the tax as a wholesale liquor dealer, shall be required to keep the book prescribed by section 329 of this title, or so much as shall show the date when they sent out any spirits, the serial numbers of the packages containing same, the kind and quality of the spirits in wine gallons and taxable gallons, the serial numbers of the stamps on the packages, and the name and residence of the person to whom sent; and the provisions of said section as to transcripts, shall apply to such books. Any failure, by reason of refusal or willful neglect, to furnish the transcript by any such distiller shall subject the spirits owned or distilled to forfeiture. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 62, 28 Stat. 567.)

331. Purchase of quantities greater than twenty gallons from one person.—It shall not be lawful for any rectifier of distilled spirits, or wholesale or retail liquor dealer, to purchase or receive any distilled spirits in quantities greater than twenty gallons from any person other than an authorized rectifier of distilled spirits, distiller, or wholesale liquor dealer. Every person who violates this section shall forfeit and pay $1,000; except that this provision shall not be held to apply to judicial sales, or to sales at public auction made by an auctioneer. (R. S. § 3319.)

332. Gauging, inspection, and stamping of rectified spirits.—Whenever any cask or package, containing five wine gallons or more, is filled for shipment, sale, or delivery on the premises of any rectifier who has paid the special tax required by law, it shall be inspected and gauged by a United States gauger whose duty it shall be to mark and brand the same and place thereon an engraved stamp, which shall state the date when affixed and the number of proof gallons, and shall be in such form as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. When such cask or package is filled on the premises of a rectifier rectifying less than five hundred barrels a year, counting forty gallons of proof spirits to the barrel, it may be gauged, marked, branded, and stamped by a United States gauger, or it may be gauged, marked, branded, and stamped by the rectifier, as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may by regulations prescribe. (R. S. § 3320; July 16, 1892, c. 196, § 1, 27 Stat. 200; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 66, 28 Stat. 567.)

333. Same; casks or packages dumped for or received from rectification, to be gauged and marked.—Whenever any cask or package of distilled spirits containing five wine gallons or more is dumped by a rectifier for rectification or filled and received from rectification for sale, shipment, or delivery the same shall be gauged, marked, branded and stamped by a United States gauger; but the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may by regulations, approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, provide that the gauging, marking, stamping, and branding of such packages so dumped for rectification, or received therefrom, be done by the rectifier instead of by a United States gauger. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 141, § 1, 38 Stat. 1017.)

334. Filling blanks, and affixing and protecting stamps.—All blanks in any of the forms prescribed in this chapter shall be duly filled in accordance with the facts in each case. And the stamps therein designated shall in every case be affixed to a smooth surface of the cask or other package, which surface shall not have been previously painted or covered with any substance, and so as to fasten the same securely to the cask or package, and shall be duly canceled, and shall then be immediately covered with a coating of transparent varnish or other substance, so as to protect them from removal or damage by exposure; and such affixing, cancellation, and covering shall be done in such manner as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may by regulation prescribe. (R. S. § 3322.)

335. Spirits drawn into new packages to be gauged and branded; returns.—Every package of distilled spirits containing five wine gallons or more, filled on the premises of a wholesale liquor dealer, who has paid the special tax required by law, shall be marked, branded, and stamped by such wholesale liquor dealer in such manner and under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe; and on or before the 10th day of each month every wholesale liquor dealer shall make return, under oath, to the collector of internal revenue for the district of the various kinds and quantities of each kind and of the total quantities of distilled spirits received on his premises and of the various kinds and quantities of each kind and of the total quantity of distilled spirits sent out from his stock or possession during the preceding month, and of the quantity of each kind and the total quantity remaining on hand at the end of the month; and such return shall be made in such form and contain such other particulars as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe. (R. S. § 3323; July 16, 1892, c. 196, § 1, 27 Stat. 200.)

336. Failure to notify intention to rectify; failure to comply with requirements for marking, branding and stamping casks or packages; penalty.—Every rectifier or wholesale liquor dealer who refuses or willfully neglects to comply with the requirements of sections 283, 332 and 335 of this title as to giving the notice or the return therein required, and as to marking, branding, and stamping, in accordance with the law and the regulations made in pursuance thereof, the packages of spirits filled on his premises as aforesaid, shall, for each such offense, be fined not less than $200 nor more than $1,000. (R. S. § 3323; July 16, 1892, c. 196, § 1, 27 Stat. 200.)

337. Effacing stamps and brands from empty casks; omission to efface, and transporting in violation of law; penalty; forfeiture.—Every person who empties or draws off, or causes to be emptied or drawn off, any distilled spirits from a cask or package bearing any mark, brand, or stamp required by law, shall, at the time of emptying such cask or package, efface and obliterate said mark, stamp, or brand. Every such cask or package from which said mark, brand, or stamp is not effaced and obliterated as herein required, shall be forfeited to the United States, and may be seized by any officer of internal revenue wherever found. And every railroad company or other transportation company, or person who receives or transports, or has in possession with intent to transport, or with intent to cause or procure to be transported, any such empty cask or package, or any part thereof, having thereon any brand, mark, or stamp, required by law to be placed on any cask or package containing distilled spirits, shall forfeit $300 for each such cask or package, or any part thereof, so received or transported, or had in possession with the intent aforesaid; and every boat, railroad car, cart, dray, wagon, or other vehicle, and all horses and other animals used in carrying or transporting the same, shall be forfeited to the United States. Every person who fails to efface and obliterate said mark, stamp, or brand, at the time of emptying such cask or package, or who receives any such cask or package, or any part thereof, with the intent aforesaid, or who transports the same, or knowingly aids or assists therein, or who removes any stamp provided by law from any cask or package containing, or which had contained, distilled spirits, without defacing and destroying the same at the time of such removal, or who aids or assists therein, or who has in his possession any such stamp so removed as aforesaid, or has in his possession any canceled stamp, or any stamp which has been used, or which purports to have been used, upon any cask or package of distilled spirits, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $10,000, and imprisoned not less than one year nor more than five years. (R. S. § 3324.)

338. Buying or selling spirit casks having inspection marks.—Whenever any person knowingly purchases or sells, with inspection marks thereon, any cask or package, after the same has been used for distilled spirits, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of $200 for every such cask so purchased or sold. (R. S. § 3325.)

339. Changing stamps and shifting spirits.—Whenever any person changes or alters any stamp, mark, or brand on any cask or package containing distilled spirits, or puts into any cask or package spirits of greater strength than is indicated by the inspection mark thereon, or fraudulently uses any cask or package having any inspection mark or stamp thereon, for the purpose of selling other spirits, or spirits of quantity or quality different from the spirits previously inspected therein, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of $200 for every cask or package on which the stamp or mark is so changed or altered, or which is so fraudulently used, and shall be fined for each such offense not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, and imprisoned not less than one month nor more than one year. (R. S. § 3326.)

340. Affixing imitation stamps on packages; penalty.—If any person shall affix, or cause to be affixed, to or upon any cask or package containing, or intended to contain, distilled spirits, any imitation stamp, or other engraved, printed, stamped, or photographed label, device, or token, whether the same be designed as a trade-mark, caution notice, caution, or otherwise, and which shall be in the similitude or likeness of, or shall have the resemblance or general appearance of, any internal-revenue stamp required by law to be affixed to or upon any cask or package containing distilled spirits, he shall, for each offense, be liable to a penalty of $100, and, on conviction, shall be fined not more than $1,000, and imprisoned not more than three years, and the cask or package with its contents shall be forfeited to the United States. (Feb. 8, 1875, c. 36, § 17, 18 Stat. 311.)

341. Removal within certain hours from distillery or rectifier's premises.—No person shall remove any distilled spirits at any other time than after sunrising and before sunsetting in any cask or package containing more than ten gallons from any premises or building in which the same may have been distilled, redistilled, rectified, compounded, manufactured, or stored; and every person who violates this provision shall be liable to a penalty of $100 for each cask, barrel, or package of spirits so removed; and said spirits, together with any vessel containing the same, and any horse, cart, boat, or other conveyance used in the removal thereof, shall be forfeited to the United States. (R. S. § 3327.)

BONDED WAREHOUSES, INCLUDING DISTILLERY WAREHOUSES, SPECIAL WAREHOUSES FOR FRUIT BRANDY, AND GENERAL BONDED WAREHOUSES

Section 361. Distillery warehouse.—Every distiller shall provide, at his own expense, a warehouse, to be situated on and to constitute a part of his distillery premises, and to be used only for the storage of distilled spirits of his own manufacture until the tax thereon shall have been paid; but no dwelling house shall be used for such purpose, and no door, window, or other opening shall be made or permitted in the walls of such warehouse leading into the distillery or into any other room or building; and such warehouse, when approved by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, on report of the collector, shall be a bonded warehouse of the United States, to be known as a distillery warehouse, and shall be under the direction and control of the collector of the district, and in charge of an internal-revenue storekeeper, assigned thereto by the commissioner. (R. S. § 3271.)

362. Same; use by successor in business.—When from death or from any other cause there shall be a change in the person, firm or company engaged in the business of distilling at any distillery, and the person, firm or company that by reason of such change ceases to carry on said business at such distillery has at the time of such change spirits in the distillery warehouse, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, upon the written consent of the surviving principals and sureties interested, and under such rules and regulations, and upon such other conditions, as he may prescribe, to permit the succeeding person, firm or company to use the distillery warehouse on the premises in the same manner as if it did not contain distilled spirits belonging to the original person, firm, or company after setting apart and separating, by a secure and unbroken partition such portion of it as may be necessary for the storage and safe-keeping of the spirits distilled by the original person, firm or company, during the period allowed by law for the removal of distilled spirits from distillery warehouses, or until said spirits are removed, and the tax paid thereon within that time. Nothing contained in this section shall impair or in any way affect the lien existing at the time of such change under section 249 of this title, or other liabilities under any internal-revenue law, but the existence of such lien shall be no ground for refusing to approve the bond of the succeeding person, firm or company, anything in section 286 of this title to the contrary notwithstanding. (Jan. 8, 1874, c. 7, 18 Stat. 2.)

363. Same; discontinuance and transfer of merchandise.—Whenever distilling shall have been suspended at any distillery for a period or periods aggregating six months during any calendar year and the quantity of spirits remaining in the distillery warehouse does not exceed 5,000 proof gallons, or whenever, in the opinion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, any distillery warehouse, general bonded warehouse, or other warehouse, is unsafe or unfit for use, or the merchandise therein is liable to loss or great wastage, he may in either such case discontinue such warehouse and require the merchandise therein to be transferred to such other warehouse as he may designate, and within such time as he may prescribe. Such transfer shall be made under the supervision of the collector, or of such other officer as may be designated by the commissioner, and the expense thereof shall be paid by the owner of the merchandise. Whenever the owner of such merchandise fails to make such transfer within the time prescribed, or to pay the just and proper expense of such transfer, as ascertained and determined by the commissioner, such merchandise may be seized and sold by the collector in the same manner as goods are sold upon distraint for taxes, and the proceeds of such sale shall be applied to the payment of the taxes due thereon and the costs and expenses of such sale and removal, and the balance paid over to the owner of such merchandise. (R. S. § 3272; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 57, 28 Stat. 566.)

364. Same; storekeepers in charge of distillery and warehouse.—The storekeeper assigned to any distillery warehouse shall also have charge of the distillery connected therewith; and every storekeeper shall have charge of the warehouse to which he is assigned, and of such distillery, under the direction of the collector controlling the same. (R. S. § 3273.)

365. Same; storekeeper to keep certain records of distillery.—The storekeeper assigned to any distillery warehouse shall, in addition to the duties required of him as storekeeper in charge of a warehouse, keep in a book to be provided for that purpose, and in the manner prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, a daily account of all the meal and vegetable productions or other substances brought into said distillery, or on said premises, to be used for the purpose of producing spirits, from whom purchased, and when delivered at said distillery; of the kind and quantity of all fuel used, and from whom purchased; of all repairs made on said distillery, and by whom and when made; of the names and places of residence of all persons employed in or about the distillery; of the materials put into the mash tub or otherwise used for the production of spirits; of the time when any fermenting tub is emptied of ripe mash or beer, recording the same by the number painted on said tub; and of all spirits drawn off from the receiving cistern, and the time when the same were drawn off. (R. S. § 3302.)

366. Custody and management of warehouse.—Every distillery warehouse shall be in the joint custody of the storekeeper and the proprietor thereof. It shall be kept securely locked, and shall at no time be unlocked, or opened, or remain open, unless in the presence of such storekeeper, or other person who may be designated to act for him, as provided by law; and no articles shall be received in or delivered from such warehouse except on an order or permit addressed to the storekeeper and signed by the collector having control of the warehouse. (R. S. § 3274.)

367. Drawing off, gauging, and removal of spirits to warehouse.—Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, all distilled spirits shall be drawn from the receiving cisterns into casks or packages, each of not less capacity than ten gallons wine measure, and shall thereupon be gauged, proved, and marked by an internal-revenue gauger, who shall cut on the cask or package containing such spirits, in a manner to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, the quantity in wine gallons and in proof gallons of the contents of such casks or packages, and the particular name of such distilled spirits as known to the trade, that is to say, high wines, alcohol, or spirits, as the case may be, shall be marked or branded on the head of such cask or package in letters of not less than one inch in length; and the spirits shall be immediately removed into the distillery warehouse, and the gauger shall, in the presence of the storekeeper of the warehouse, place upon the head of the cask or package an engraved stamp, which shall be signed by the collector of the district and the storekeeper and gauger; and shall have written thereon the number of proof gallons contained therein, the name of the distiller, the date of the receipt in the warehouse, and the serial number of each cask or package, in progressive order, as the same are received from the distillery. Such serial number for every distillery shall be in regular sequence of the serial number thereof, beginning with number one (No. 1) with the first cask or package deposited therein after July 20, 1868, and no two or more casks or packages warehoused at the same distillery shall be marked with the same number. The said stamp shall be as follows:

Distillery-warehouse stamp number —. Issued by ——— ———, collector, ——— district, State of ———, distillery warehouse of ——— ———; 19—, Cask number —; contents ——— gallons proof spirits.

——— ———,
United States Storekeeper.

Attest:

——— ———,
United States Gauger.

Upon the application of the distiller, and under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe, distilled spirits may be drawn into wooden packages, each containing two or more metallic cans, which cans shall have each a capacity of not less than five gallons, wine measure, such packages to be filled and used only for exportation from the United States. And there shall be charged for each of said packages or cases for the expense of providing and affixing stamps, the sum of 5 cents.

Alcohol or high-proof spirits withdrawn free of tax for the use of the United States, as authorized by section 1196 of this title may be drawn off for transfer by pipes direct from the receiving cisterns in the cistern room of any distillery to closed metal storage tanks situated in the distillery bonded warehouse and transferred from such storage tanks to tanks or tank cars for shipment, upon the execution of such bonds and under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. (R. S. § 3287; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 5, 20 Stat. 336; May 28, 1880, c. 108, § 6, 21 Stat. 147; Feb. 21, 1899, c. 177, 30 Stat. 843; Mar. 2, 1911, c. 199, 36 Stat. 1014.)

368. Tax on distilled spirits entered for deposit in distillery warehouses; when payable.—The tax on all distilled spirits entered for deposit in distillery warehouses shall be due and payable before and at the time the same are withdrawn therefrom and except as provided in section 248 of this title, within eight years from the date of the entry for deposit therein. (May 28, 1880, c. 108, § 4, 21 Stat. 146.)

369. Filling packages from receiving cisterns and payment of tax without entry into bonded warehouses.—At registered distilleries producing alcohol, or other high-proof spirits, packages may be filled with such spirits reduced to not less than one hundred proof from the receiving cisterns and tax paid without being entered into bonded warehouse. Such spirits may be also transferred from the receiving cisterns at such distilleries, by means of pipe lines, direct to storage tanks in the bonded warehouse and may be warehoused in such storage tanks. Such spirits may be also transferred in tanks or tank cars to general bonded warehouses for storage therein, either in storage tanks in such warehouses or in the tanks in which they were transferred. Such spirits may also be transferred from receiving cisterns or warehouse storage tanks to barrels, drums, tanks, tank cars, or other approved containers, and may be transported in such containers for exportation or other lawful purposes. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, is hereby empowered to prescribe all necessary regulations relating to the drawing off, transferring, gauging, storing, and transporting of such spirits; the records to be kept and returns to be made; the size and kind of packages and tanks to be used; the marking, branding, numbering, and stamping of such packages and tanks; the kinds of stamps, if any, to be used; and the time and manner of paying the tax; the kind of bond and the penal sum of same. The tax prescribed by law must be paid before such spirits are removed from the distillery premises, or from general bonded warehouse in the case of spirits transferred thereto, except as otherwise provided by law. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 602, 40 Stat. 1106.)

370. Deposit in distillery warehouse without warehouse stamps; withdrawal on original gauge.—Under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe, distilled spirits may be drawn from receiving cisterns and deposited in distillery warehouses without having affixed to the packages containing the same distillery warehouse stamps, and such packages, when so deposited in warehouse, may be withdrawn therefrom on the original gauge where the same have remained in such warehouse for a period not exceeding thirty days from the date of deposit. (Oct. 3, 1917, c. 63, § 302, 40 Stat. 309; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 602, 40 Stat. 1107.)

371. Distiller's entry of deposit in warehouse; bond for and collection of taxes.—The distiller or owner of all spirits removed as aforesaid to the distillery warehouse shall, on the first day of each month, or within five days thereafter, enter the same for deposit in such warehouse, under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe. Said entry shall be in triplicate, and shall contain the name of the person making the entry, the designation of the warehouse in which the deposit is made, and the date thereof, and shall be in the following form:

Entry for Deposit in Distillery Warehouse

Entry of distilled spirits deposited by ——— ———, in distillery warehouse ———, in the ——— district, State of ———, during the month ending on the ——— day of ———, anno Domini ———.

And the entry shall specify the kind of spirits, the whole number of packages, the marks and serial numbers thereon, the number of gauge or wine gallons, proof gallons, and taxable gallons, and the amount of tax on the spirits contained in them; all of which shall be verified by the oath of the distiller or owner of the same attached to the entry. The said distiller or owner shall at the time of making said entry give his bond in duplicate, with one or more sureties, satisfactory to the collector of the district, conditioned that the principal named in said bond shall pay the tax on the spirits as specified in the entry, or cause the same to be paid, before removal from said distillery warehouse, and within eight years from the date of said entry except as provided in section 248 of this title; and the penal sum of such bond shall not be less than the amount of the tax on such distilled spirits. One of said entries shall be retained in the office of the collector of the district, one sent to the storekeeper in charge of the warehouse, to be retained and filed in the warehouse, and one sent with duplicate of the bond to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, to be filed in his office. A new bond shall be required in case of the death, insolvency, or removal of either of the sureties, and may be required in any other contingency affecting its validity or impairing its efficiency, at the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. And in case the distiller or owner fails or refuses to give the bond hereinbefore required, or to renew the same, or neglects to immediately withdraw the spirits and pay the tax thereon, or if he neglects to withdraw any bonded spirits and pay the tax thereon before the expiration of the time limited in the bond, the collector shall proceed to collect the tax by distraint, issuing his warrant of distraint for the amount of tax found to be due, as ascertained by him from the report of the gauger if no bond was given, or from the terms of the bond if a bond was given. But this provision shall not exclude any other remedy or proceeding provided by law. If it shall appear at any time that there has been a loss of distilled spirits from any cask or other package hereafter deposited in a distillery warehouse, other than the loss provided for in section 151 of this title, which, in the opinion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, is excessive, he may instruct the collector of the district in which the loss has occurred to require the withdrawal from warehouse of such distilled spirits, and to collect the tax accrued upon the original quantity of distilled spirits entered into the warehouse in such cask or package, notwithstanding that the time specified in any bond given for the withdrawal of the spirits entered into warehouse in such cask or package has not expired. If the said tax is not paid on demand, the collector shall report the amount due upon his next monthly list, and it shall be assessed and collected as other taxes are assessed and collected. (R. S. § 3293; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 5, 20 Stat. 336; May 28, 1880, c. 108, § 4, 21 Stat. 145; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 49, 28 Stat. 563.)

372. Distiller's bond for taxes on spirits deposited in warehouses.—Warehousing bonds and transportation and warehousing bonds, conditioned for the payment of the taxes on all distilled spirits entered for deposit into distillery or special bonded warehouses shall be given by the distiller of said spirits as required by existing laws, conditioned, however, for payment of taxes at the rate imposed by law and before removal from warehouse and within eight years; as to fruit brandy, from the date of the original gauge, and as to all other spirits from the date of the original entry for deposit. The distiller may, at his option and under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe, execute an annual bond for the spirits so deposited in lieu of the bonds herein provided. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 49, 28 Stat. 563.)

373. Withdrawal from warehouse, entry for.—Any distilled spirits may, on payment of the tax thereon, be withdrawn from the warehouse on application to the collector of the district in charge of such warehouse, on making a withdrawal entry in duplicate and in the following form:

Entry for Withdrawal of Distilled Spirits from Warehouse Tax Paid

Entry of distilled spirits to be withdrawn, on payment of the tax, from warehouse of distillery number ———, situated in the ——— district of ———, by ——— deposited on the ——— day of ———, anno Domini ———, by ———, in said warehouse.

And the entry shall specify the whole number of casks, or packages with the marks and serial numbers thereon, the number of gauge or wine gallons, and of proof gallons and taxable gallons, and the amount of the tax on the distilled spirits contained in them at the time they were deposited in the distillery warehouse; and said entry shall also specify the number of gauge or wine gallons, and of proof gallons and taxable gallons contained in said casks or packages at the time application shall be made for the withdrawal thereof; and on payment of the tax the collector shall issue his order to the storekeeper in charge of the warehouse for the delivery. One of said entries shall be filed in the office of the collector, and the other transmitted by him to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. (R. S. § 3294; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 5, 20 Stat. 337; May 28, 1880, c. 108, § 5, 21 Stat. 146.)

374. Gauging, stamping, and branding spirits removed from warehouse.—Whenever an order is received from the collector for the removal from any distillery warehouse of any cask of distilled spirits on which tax has been paid, the gauger by whom the same is gauged and inspected shall, in presence of the storekeeper and before such cask has left the warehouse, place upon the head thereof, in such manner as to cover no portion of any brand or mark prescribed by law already placed thereon, a stamp, on which shall be engraved the number of proof gallons contained in said cask on which the tax has been paid, and which shall state the serial number of the cask, the name of the person by whom the tax was paid, and the person to whom and the place where it is to be delivered. Said stamp shall be signed by the collector of the district, the storekeeper, and gauger, and shall be as follows:

Tax-Paid Stamp, Number —.

Received ——— ———, 19—, from ——— ——— tax on ——— gallons proof spirit, cask number ———, ——— warehouse at ———, for delivery to ———, at ———.

———— ————,

Collector ——— District, State of ———.

Attest:

———— ————,

United States Storekeeper.

———— ————,

United States Gauger.

And at the time of affixing the tax-paid stamp the gauger shall, in the presence of the storekeeper, cut or burn upon each cask the name of the distiller, the district, the date of the payment of the tax, the number of proof gallons, and the number of the stamp, which cutting or burning shall be erased when such cask is emptied. (R. S. § 3295; July 16, 1892, c. 196, § 1, 27 Stat. 200.)

375. Exportation of distilled spirits withdrawn from bonded warehouses; relanding; forfeiture.—Distilled spirits may be withdrawn from distillery bonded warehouses, at the instance of the owner of the spirits, for exportation in the original casks, or packages, without the payment of tax, under such regulations, and after making such entries and executing and filing with the collector of the district from which the removal is to be made such bonds and bills of lading, and giving such other additional security as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury and bonds given under this section shall be canceled under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe. The bonds required to be given for the exportation of distilled spirits shall be canceled upon the presentation of satisfactory proof and certificates that said distilled spirits have been landed at the port of destination named in the bill of lading or upon satisfactory proof that after shipment the same were lost at sea without fault or neglect of the owner or shipper thereof.

All distilled spirits intended for export, as aforesaid, before being removed from the distillery warehouse, shall be marked as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe, and shall have affixed to each cask an engraved stamp indicative of such intention, to be provided and furnished by the several collectors as in the case of other stamps, and to be charged to them and accounted for in the same manner, and for the expense attending the providing and affixing such stamps 10 cents for each package so stamped shall be paid to the collector on making the entry for such transportation. When the owner of the spirits shall have made the proper entries, filed the bonds, and otherwise complied with all the requirements of the law and regulations as herein provided, the collector shall issue to him a permit for the removal and transportation of said spirits to the collector of the port from which the same are to be exported, accurately describing the spirits to be shipped, the amount of tax thereon, the State and district from which the same is to be shipped, the name of the distiller by whom distilled, the port to which the same are to be transported, the name of the collector of the port to whom the spirits are to be consigned, and the routes over which they are to be sent to the port of shipment. Such shipment shall be made over bonded routes whenever practicable. The collector of the port shall receive such spirits, and permit the exportation thereof, under the same rules and regulations as are prescribed for the exportation of spirits upon which the tax has been paid. And every person who fraudulently claims, or seeks, or obtains an allowance of drawback on any distilled spirits, or fraudulently claims any greater allowance or drawback than the tax actually paid thereon, shall forfeit and pay to the Government of the United States triple the amount wrongfully and fraudulently sought to be obtained, and shall be imprisoned not more than ten years; and every owner, agent, or master of any vessel or other person who knowingly aids or abets in the fraudulent collection or fraudulent attempts to collect any drawback upon, or knowingly aids or permits any fraudulent change in the spirits so shipped, shall be fined not exceeding $5,000 and imprisoned not more than one year, and the ship or vessel on board of which such shipment was made or pretended to be made shall be forfeited to the United States, whether a conviction of the master or owner be had or otherwise, and proceedings may be had in admiralty by libel for such forfeiture.

Every person who intentionally relands within the jurisdiction of the United States any distilled spirits which have been shipped for exportation under the provisions of this section and section 377 of this title, or who receives such relanded distilled spirits, and every person who aids or abets in such relanding or receiving of such spirits, shall be fined not exceeding $5,000, and imprisoned not more than three years; and all distilled spirits so relanded, together with the vessel from which the same were relanded within the jurisdiction of the United States, and all boats, vehicles, horses, or other animals used in relanding and removing such distilled spirits, shall be forfeited to the United States. (R. S. § 3330; May 28, 1880, c. 108, § 11, 21 Stat. 148.)

376. Transportation bond on withdrawal of distilled spirits for export.—Whenever the owner or owners of distilled spirits shall desire to withdraw the same from any distillery bonded warehouse for exportation, such owner or owners may at their option, in lieu of executing an export bond as now provided by law, give a transportation bond with sureties satisfactory to the collector of internal revenue, and under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, conditioned for the due delivery thereof on board ship at a port of exportation to be named therein; and for the due performance on the part of the exporter or owner at the port of export of all the requirements in regard to notice of export, entry, and the giving of bond hereinafter specified; and in such case, on arrival of the spirits at the port of export, the exporter or owner at that port shall immediately notify the collector of the port of the fact, setting forth his intention to export the same, and the name of the vessel upon which the same are to be laden, and the port to which they are intended to be exported. He shall, after the quantity of spirits has been determined by the gauger and inspector, file with the collector of the port an export entry verified by his oath or affirmation. He shall also give bond to the United States, with at least two sureties, satisfactory to the collector of customs, conditioned that the principal named in said bond will export the spirits as specified in said entry to the port designated in said entry, or to some other port without the jurisdiction of the United States. And upon the lading of such spirits, the collector of the port, after proper bonds for the exportation of the same have been completed by the exporter or owner at the port of shipment thereof, shall transmit to the collector of internal revenue of the district from which the said spirits were withdrawn for exportation, a clearance certificate and a detailed report of the guager, which report shall show the capacity of each cask in wine gallons, and the contents thereof in wine gallons, proof gallons and taxable gallons. Upon receipt of the certificate and report, and upon payment of tax on deficiency, if any, the collector of internal revenue shall cancel the transportation bond. The bond required to be given for the landing at a foreign port of distilled spirits shall be canceled upon the presentation of satisfactory proof and certificates that said distilled spirits have been landed at the port of destination named in the bill of lading or any other port without the jurisdiction of the United States or upon satisfactory proof that after shipment the same were lost at sea without fault or neglect of the owner or shipper thereof. And whenever a distiller of spirits in bond shall desire to change the packages in which the same is contained in order to export them, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall be authorized, under regulations to be prescribed by him, and upon the execution of proper bonds with sufficient sureties to permit the withdrawal of so much spirits from bond and in new packages as the distiller shall desire to export as aforesaid. (June 9, 1874, c. 259, § 1, 18 Stat. 64; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 10, 20 Stat. 342.)

377. Drawback on distilled spirits.—Distilled spirits upon which all taxes have been paid may be exported, with the privilege of drawback, and in distillers' original casks, packages containing not less than twenty wine gallons each, on application of the owner thereof to the collector of customs at any port of entry, and under such rules and regulations, and after making such entry as may be prescribed by law and by the Secretary of the Treasury. The entry for such exportation shall be in triplicate, and shall contain the name of the person applying to export, the name of the distiller, the name of the district in which the spirits were distilled, the name of the vessel by which, and the name of the port to which, they are to be exported; and the form of the entry shall be as follows:

Export Entry of Distilled Spirits Entitled to Drawback

Entry of spirits distilled by ———— ————, in ———— district, State of ————, to be exported by ———— ————, in the ————, whereof ———— ———— is master, bound to ————.

And the entry shall specify the whole number of casks or packages the marks and serial numbers thereon, the quality or kind of spirits as known in commerce, the number of gauge or wine gallons and of proof gallons; and the amount of the tax on such spirits shall be verified by the oath of the owner of the spirits, and that the tax has been paid thereon, and that they are truly intended to be exported to the port of ————, and not to be relanded within the limits of the United States. One bill of lading, duly signed by the master of the vessel, shall be deposited with said collector, to be filed at his office with the entry retained by him. One of said entries shall be, when the shipment is completed, transmitted to the Secretary of the Treasury, to be recorded and filed in his office. The lading on board said vessel shall be only after the receipt of an order or permit signed by the collector of customs and directed to a customs gauger, and after each cask or package shall have been distinctly marked or branded by said gauger as follows: "For export from U. S. A." and the tax-paid stamps thereon obliterated. The casks or packages shall be inspected and gauged alongside of or on the vessel by the gauger designated by said collector, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe; and on application of the said collector it shall be the duty of the surveyor of the port to designate and direct one of the customhouse inspectors to superintend such shipment. And the gauger aforesaid shall make a full return of such inspection and gauging in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, showing by whom each cask of such spirits was distilled, the serial number of the cask, and of the tax-paid stamp attached thereto, the proof and quantity of such spirits as per the original gauge mark on each cask, and the quantity in proof and wine gallons as per the gauge then made by him. And said gauger shall certify on such return that the shipment has been made in his presence, on board the vessel named in the entry for export, which return shall be indorsed by said customhouse inspector certifying that the casks or packages have been shipped under his supervision on board said vessel, and the tax-paid stamps obliterated and the said inspector shall make a similar certificate to the surveyor of the port, indorsed on or to be attached to the entry in possession of the customhouse. A drawback shall be allowed upon distilled spirits on which the tax has been paid and exported to foreign countries, under the provisions of this section, when exported as herein provided for. The drawback allowed shall include the taxes levied and paid upon the distilled spirits exported, as per last gauge of said spirits prior to exportation and shall be due and payable only after the proper entries have been made and filed, and all other conditions complied with as hereinbefore required, and on filing with the Secretary of the Treasury the proper claim, accompanied by the certificate of the collector of customs at the port of entry where the spirits are entered for export, that such spirits have been received into his custody and the tax-paid stamps thereon obliterated; and the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe such rules and regulations in relation thereto as may be necessary to secure the Treasury of the United States against frauds. (R. S. § 3329; May 28, 1880, c. 108, § 10, 21 Stat. 148.)

378. Transfer in tanks or tank cars for export.—Under such regulations as the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe, alcohol or other distilled spirits of a proof strength of not less than one hundred and eighty degrees intended for export free of tax may be drawn from receiving cisterns at any distillery or from storage tanks in any distillery warehouse, for transfer to tanks or tank cars for export from the United States, and all provisions of law relating to the exportation of distilled spirits not inconsistent herewith shall apply to spirits removed for export under the provisions of this chapter. (Sept. 8, 1916, c. 463, § 403, 39 Stat. 788; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 624, 40 Stat. 1114.)

379. Allowance for leakage or loss; withdrawal from distillery warehouse for exportation.—Where spirits are withdrawn from distillery warehouses for exportation according to law, it shall be lawful, under such rules and regulations and limitations as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, for an allowance to be made for leakage or loss by any unavoidable accident, and without any fraud or negligence of the distiller, owner, exporter, carrier, or their agents or employees, occurring during transportation from a distillery warehouse to the port of export. (Dec. 20, 1879, c. 1, § 1, 21 Stat. 59.)

380. Same; remission of tax on lost spirits covered by insurance.—Where the spirits provided for in section 379 of this title are covered by a valid claim of insurance in excess of the market value thereof, exclusive of the tax, the tax upon such spirits shall not be remitted to the extent of such excessive insurance. (Dec. 20, 1879, c. 1, § 2, 21 Stat. 59.)

381. Same; withdrawal to manufacturing warehouse.—Where spirits are withdrawn from distillery warehouses for transfer to manufacturing warehouses, under the provisions of this chapter, it shall be lawful, under such rules and regulations and limitations as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, for an allowance to be made for leakage or loss by any unavoidable accident, and without any fraud or negligence of the distiller, owner, exporter, carrier, or their agents or employees, occurring during transportation from a distillery warehouse to a manufacturing warehouse. (May 28, 1880, c. 108, § 15, 21 Stat. 148.)

382. Fruit brandy; special bonded warehouses for.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue is authorized in his discretion, and upon the execution of such bonds as he may prescribe, to establish warehouses, to be known as special bonded warehouses, not exceeding ten in numbers in any one collection district, exclusively for the storage of brandy made from grapes, apples, peaches, or other fruit, the brandy distilled from which is not, or shall not be, required to be deposited in a distillery warehouse, each of which warehouses shall be in the charge of a storekeeper, or a storekeeper gauger at the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, to be appointed, assigned, transferred, and paid in the same manner that storekeepers for distillery warehouses are now appointed, assigned, transferred, and paid. Every such warehouse shall be under the control of the collector of internal revenue of the district in which such warehouse is located, and shall be in the joint custody of the storekeeper or storekeeper gauger and the proprietor thereof and kept securely locked, and shall at no time be unlocked or opened or remain open except in the presence of such storekeeper or other person who may be designated to act for him, as provided in the case of distillery warehouses. And such warehouses shall be under such further regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 114, § 1, 19 Stat. 393; Oct. 18, 1888, c. 1194, 25 Stat. 560.)

383. Same; payment of tax on; removal to warehouse.—Every distiller of brandy from grapes, or other fruits within the provisions of section 382 of this title, upon rendering his monthly return of materials used and spirits produced by him, shall immediately pay the tax upon such spirits, or may, after they have been properly gauged, marked, and branded, under regulations to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, and also stamped as hereinafter provided, cause them to be removed in bond from the place of manufacture to a special bonded warehouse, under such regulations, and after making such entries, and executing and filing with the collector of the district in which such spirits were manufactured such bonds and bills of lading, and giving such other additional security as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 114, § 2, 19 Stat. 393; Oct. 18, 1888, c. 1194, 25 Stat. 560.)

384. Same; special stamp on removal to warehouse.—All brandy intended for deposit in a special bonded warehouse, before being removed from the distillery, shall have affixed to each package an engraved stamp indicative of such intention, to be provided and furnished to the several collectors as in the case of other stamps, and to be charged to them and accounted for in the same manner; and for the expense attending, providing, and affixing such stamps 10 cents for each stamp shall be paid the collector on making the entry for such transportation. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 114, § 3, 19 Stat. 393.)

385. Same; deposit in warehouse; bond.—Any brandy made from grapes or other fruits within the provisions of section 382 of this title, removed in bond according to law may, upon its arrival at a special bonded warehouse, be deposited therein upon making such entries, filing such bonds and other securities, and under such regulations as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. It shall be one of the conditions of the warehousing bond covering such spirits that the principal named in said bond shall pay the tax on the spirits as specified in the entry, or cause the same to be paid within eight years from the date of the original gauging of the same, and before withdrawal, except as hereinafter provided. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 114, § 4, 19 Stat. 393; Oct. 18, 1888, c. 1194, 25 Stat. 560; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 49, 28 Stat. 563.)

386. Same; withdrawal from warehouse for transfer or exportation.—Any such brandy may be withdrawn once and no more from one special bonded warehouse for transportation to another special bonded warehouse; and such brandy shall, on its arrival at the second special bonded warehouse, be immediately entered therein, from which warehouse it shall be withdrawn only on payment of the tax or for immediate exportation. In case the brandy withdrawn is intended for deposit in another special bonded warehouse, an additional stamp, indicative of such intention, shall be affixed to each package withdrawn, as in the case of brandy withdrawn from a distillery intended to be so deposited. And in case the brandy is intended for exportation, an engraved stamp indicative of such intention, shall be affixed to each package so removed, as in the case of spirits withdrawn from a distillery bonded warehouse for exportation, under the provisions of section 375 of this title; all the provisions of which section not inconsistent with sections 382 to 392, inclusive, of this title, shall be applicable to such withdrawals. And all withdrawals authorized by law of fruit brandy from any special bonded warehouse shall be upon making such withdrawal entries, and under such regulations, and unless the withdrawal is upon payment of tax, upon the execution of such bonds and bills of lading as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe. Export bonds given under the provisions of said sections shall be canceled upon the production of such certificates of landing as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe, or upon proof of loss at sea satisfactory to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. And the provisions of law relative to an allowance of loss by casualty in a distillery bonded warehouse are applicable to brandy stored in special bonded warehouses, in accordance with the provisions of said sections. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 114, § 5, 19 Stat. 394.)

387. Same; exportation.—Brandy authorized to be deposited in special bonded warehouses by section 382 of this title may be exported from such warehouses free of tax in any original cask containing not less than twenty gallons, and such brandy upon which all taxes have been paid, may be exported with the privilege of drawback in quantities of not less than 100 gallons, and in the distillers' original cask, containing not less than 29 gallons each. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 114, § 6, 19 Stat. 394; Oct. 18, 1888, c. 1194, 25 Stat. 560.)

388. Same; discontinuance of warehouse and transfer of merchandise.—Whenever, in the opinion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, any special bonded warehouse is unsafe or unfit for use, or the merchandise therein is liable to loss or great wastage, he may discontinue such warehouse, and require the merchandise therein to be transferred to such other warehouse as he may designate, and within such time as he may prescribe; and all the provisions of section 363 of this title, relating to transfers of spirits from warehouses, including those imposing penalties, shall be applicable to transfers from special bonded warehouses. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 114, § 7, 19 Stat. 394.)

389. Same; removal without compliance with law; assessment and collection of tax.—The tax upon any brandy distilled from grapes or other fruits specified in section 382 of this title, removed from the place where it was distilled, and in respect of which any requirement of sections 382 to 392, inclusive, of this title is not complied with, shall at any time when knowledge of such fact is obtained by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, be assessed by him upon the distiller of the same, and returned to the collector, who shall immediately demand payment of such tax, and, upon the neglect or refusal of payment by the distiller, shall proceed to collect the same by distraint. But this provision shall not exclude any other remedy or proceeding provided by law. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 114, § 8, 19 Stat. 394; Oct. 18, 1888, c. 1194, 25 Stat. 560.)

390. Same; time for payment of tax; forfeitures.—Nothing in sections 382 to 392, inclusive, of this title shall be construed as extending the time in which the tax on brandy made from grapes or other such fruits specified in section 382 of this title, shall be paid beyond eight years from the day on which the taxable quantity is ascertained by the gauger; and all brandy so made found elsewhere than in a distillery or special bonded warehouse, not having been removed therefrom according to law, and all brandy on which the tax has not been paid within eight years of the date of the original gauging shall be forfeited to the United States. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 114, § 9, 19 Stat. 394; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 49, 28 Stat. 563.)

391. Same; rules and regulations.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may make all needful rules and regulations for carrying into effect the provisions of sections 382 to 392, inclusive, of this title, and such regulations when made shall have all the force and effect of law. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 114, § 10, 19 Stat. 395.)

392. Same; failure to deposit in warehouse or comply with other provisions.—In case any brandy specified in section 382 of this title removed from the distillery for deposit in a special warehouse, shall fail to be deposited in such warehouse within ten days thereafter, or within the time specified in any bond given on such removal, or if any such brandy deposited in any special warehouse shall be taken therefrom for deposit in another warehouse, or for export, or otherwise, without full compliance with the provisions of sections 382 to 392, inclusive, of this title, and with the requirements of any regulations made thereunder, and with the terms of any bond given on such removal, then any person who shall be guilty of such failure, and any person who shall in any manner violate any provisions of said sections, or of the regulations made in pursuance thereof, shall be subject, on conviction to a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $5,000, and to imprisonment for not less than three months nor more than three years, for every such failure or violation; and the spirits as to which such failure or violation shall take place shall be forfeited to the United States. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 114, § 11, 19 Stat. 395.)

393. General bonded warehouses.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue is authorized, in his discretion and upon the execution of such bond as he may prescribe, to establish one or more warehouses, not exceeding ten in number in any one collection district, to be known and designated as general bonded warehouses, and to be used exclusively for the storage of spirits distilled from materials other than fruit, each of which warehouses shall be in the charge of a storekeeper or storekeeper gauger to be appointed, assigned, transferred, and paid in the same manner as such officers for distillery warehouses are appointed, assigned, transferred, and paid. Every such warehouse shall be under the control of the collector of internal revenue of the district in which such warehouse is located, and shall be in the joint custody of the storekeeper and proprietor thereof, and kept securely locked, and shall at no time be unlocked or opened or remain open except in the presence of such storekeeper or other person who may be designated to act for him, as provided in the case of distillery warehouses; and such warehouses shall be under such further regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 51, 28 Stat. 564.)

394. Same; removal of certain spirits to.—Any distilled spirits made from materials other than fruit, and lawfully deposited in a distillery warehouse, may, upon application of the distiller thereof, be removed from such distillery warehouse to any general bonded warehouse established under the provisions of the preceding section; and the removal of said spirits to said general bonded warehouse shall be under such regulations, and after making such entries and executing and filing with the collector of the district in which the spirits were manufactured, such bonds and bills of lading, and the giving of such other additional security, as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 52, 28 Stat. 565.)

395. Same; stamp on removal to.—All spirits intended for deposit in a general bonded warehouse, before being removed from the distillery warehouse, shall have affixed to each package an engraved stamp indicative of such intention, to be provided and furnished to the several collectors as in the case of other stamps, and to be charged to them and accounted for in the same manner. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 53, 28 Stat. 565.)

396. Same; warehousing bonds.—Any spirits removed in bond as aforesaid may, upon its arrival at a general bonded warehouse, be deposited therein upon making such entries, filing such bonds and other securities, and under such regulations as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. It shall be one of the conditions of the warehousing bond covering such spirits that the principal named in said bond shall pay the tax on the spirits as specified in the entry or cause the same to be paid within eight years from the date of the original entry of the same into the distillery warehouse, and before withdrawal, except as hereinafter provided. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 54, 28 Stat. 565.)

397. Same; given by distillers; renewal of.—The bonds covering spirits in general bonded warehouses shall be given by distillers of the spirits and shall be renewed at such times as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may by regulations require. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 55, 28 Stat. 565.)

398. Same; withdrawal.—Any spirits may be withdrawn once and no more from one general bonded warehouse for transportation to another general bonded warehouse, and when intended to be so withdrawn, shall have affixed thereto another general bonded warehouse stamp indicative of such intention; and the withdrawal of such spirits, and their transfer to and entry into such general bonded warehouse shall be under such regulations and upon the filing of such notices, entries, bonds, and bills of lading as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may, from time to time, prescribe. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 55, 28 Stat. 565.)

399. Same; provisions applicable to spirits deposited in.—The provisions of law in regard to the withdrawal of distilled spirits from warehouses upon payment of tax, or for exportation, or for transfer to a manufacturing warehouse, and as to the gauging, marking, branding, and stamping of the spirits upon such withdrawals, and in regard to withdrawals for the use of the United States or scientific institutions or colleges of learning, including the provisions for allowance for loss by accidental fire or other unavoidable accident, shall be applicable to spirits deposited in general bonded warehouses. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 56, 28 Stat. 565.)

400. Same; tax on spirits unlawfully removed from distillery warehouse to general bonded warehouse; excessive loss.—The tax upon any distilled spirits removed from a distillery warehouse for deposit in a general bonded warehouse, and in respect of which any applicable requirement of this chapter is not complied with, shall, at any time when knowledge of such fact is obtained by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, be assessed by him upon the distiller of the same, and returned to the collector, who shall immediately demand payment of such tax, and upon the neglect of payment by the distiller shall proceed to collect the same by distraint. But this provision shall not exclude any other remedy or proceeding provided by law to enforce the payment of the tax. If it shall appear at any time that there has been a loss of distilled spirits from any cask or package deposited in a general bonded warehouse or special bonded warehouse, other than the loss provided for in section 151 of this title, which, in the opinion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, is excessive, he may instruct the collector of the district in which the loss has occurred to require the withdrawal from warehouse of such cask or package of distilled spirits and to collect the tax accrued upon the original quantity of distilled spirits entered into the warehouse in such cask or package, less only the allowance for loss provided by law. If the said tax is not paid on demand the collector shall report the amount due, as shown by the original gauge, upon his next monthly list, and it shall be assessed and collected as other taxes are assessed and collected. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 58, 28 Stat. 566.)

401. Same; failure to deposit in warehouse in time, or removal without compliance with law.—In case any distilled spirits removed from a distillery warehouse for deposit in a general bonded warehouse shall fail to be deposited in such general bonded warehouse within ten days after such removal, or within the time specified in any bond given on such removal, or if any distilled spirits deposited in any general bonded warehouse shall be taken therefrom, for export or otherwise, without full compliance with the provisions of this chapter, and with the requirements of any regulations made thereunder, and with the terms of any bond given on such removal, or if any distilled spirits which have been deposited in a general bonded warehouse shall be found elsewhere, not having been removed therefrom according to law, any person who shall be guilty of such failure, or any person who shall in any manner violate any provision of sections 246, 363, 371, 372, 393 to 400, and 407 of this title, shall be subject, on conviction, to a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $5,000, or to imprisonment for not less than three months nor more than three years for every such failure or violation; and the spirits as to which such failure or violation, or unlawful removal shall take place shall be forfeited to the United States. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 59, 28 Stat. 566.)

402. Bonds; spirits in bonded warehouses during prohibition period.—When any distilled spirits intended for beverage purposes shall be stored in any distillery, bonded warehouse, or special or general bonded warehouse, and, pursuant to any Act of Congress or proclamation of the President of the United States, can not be lawfully sold or removed from any such warehouse during the period of prohibition fixed by such Act or proclamation, all warehousing bonds or transportation and warehousing bonds conditioned for the payment of tax on any such spirits so stored on the date such prohibition takes effect shall as to all such spirits actually so stored be canceled and discharged, provided the distiller of such spirits shall in lieu of such bonds and prior to their cancellation execute a bond in a penal sum of not less than $10,000, with sureties satisfactory to the collector of the district, conditioned that the principal shall, during the period of such prohibition, safely keep or cause to be kept in good condition all such spirits and the warehouse in which the same are stored, and shall not remove or suffer to be removed from warehouse, contrary to law, any such spirits during the period of such prohibition; and the bond herein prescribed shall be in such further sum and shall contain such further conditions as the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may by regulations require. The distiller may, subject to the provisions of this section, be permitted to retain in any such bonded warehouse distilled spirits on which, under the terms of any existing bond, the tax imposed thereon becomes due and payable prior to the date such prohibition takes effect. On the removal of such prohibition the distiller shall, as to all spirits as to which the bonded period fixed by law has not expired and which remain stored in warehouse, execute new and satisfactory bond in the form required by law, conditioned for the payment of the tax on all such spirits; and all provisions of law relating to such bonded warehouses, or the storage of spirits therein, or to the execution of new or additional bonds, so far as applicable, shall continue in force as to all distilled spirits rebonded under the provisions of this section. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 600 (b), 40 Stat. 1105.)

403. Forfeiture of spirits unlawfully removed from distillery.—All distilled spirits found elsewhere than in a distillery, distillery warehouse, or other bonded warehouse, not having been removed therefrom according to law, shall be forfeited to the United States. (R. S. § 3299; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 319; Mar. 3, 1877, c. 114, § 1, 19, Stat. 393; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 51, 28 Stat. 564.)

404. Removal or concealment of spirits contrary to law.—Whenever any person removes, or aids or abets in the removal of any distilled spirits on which the tax has not been paid, to a place other than the bonded warehouse provided by law, or conceals or aids in the concealment of any spirits so removed, or removes, or aids or abets in the removal of any distilled spirits from any distillery warehouse, or other warehouse for distilled spirits authorized by law, in any manner other than is provided by law, or conceals or aids in the concealment of any spirits so removed he shall be liable to a penalty of double the tax imposed on such distilled spirits so removed or concealed, and shall be fined not less than $200 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than three months nor more than three years. (R. S. § 3296; Mar. 3, 1877, c. 114, §§ 1, 2, 19 Stat. 393; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 52, 28 Stat. 565.)

405. Storekeeper unlawfully removing or allowing to be removed.—Whenever any storekeeper or other person in the employment of the United States, having charge of a bonded warehouse, removes or allows to be removed therefrom any cask or other package, without an order or permit of the collector, or which has not been marked or stamped in the manner required by law; or removes or allows to be removed any part of the contents of any cask or package deposited therein, he shall be immediately dismissed from office or employment, and be fined not less than $500 nor more than $2,000, and imprisoned not less than three months nor more than two years. (R. S. § 3300.)

406. Storekeepers; warehouse books and returns.—Every storekeeper shall keep a warehouse book, which shall at all times be open to the examination of any revenue officer, and shall enter therein an account of all articles deposited in the warehouse to which he is assigned, indicating in each case the date of deposit, by whom manufactured or produced, the number and description of the package and contents, the quantities therein, the marks and serial numbers thereon, and by whom gauged, inspected, or weighed, and, if distilled spirits, the number of gauge or wine gallons, of proof gallons, and of taxable gallons; and before delivering any article from the warehouse he shall enter in said book the date of the permit or order of the collector for the delivery of such articles, the number and description of the packages, the marks and serial numbers thereon, the date of delivery, to whom delivered, and for what purpose, which purpose shall be specified in the permit or order for delivery; and in case of delivery of any distilled spirits the number of gauge or wine gallons, of proof gallons, and of taxable gallons, shall also be stated; and such further particulars shall be entered in the warehouse books as may be prescribed or found necessary for the identification of the packages, to insure the correct delivery thereof and proper accountability therefor. And every storekeeper shall furnish daily to the collector of the district a return of all articles received in and delivered from the warehouse during the day preceding that on which the return is made, and mail at the same time a copy thereof to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and shall, on the first Monday of every month, make a report in duplicate of the number of packages of all articles, with the respective descriptions thereof, as above provided, which remained in the warehouse at the date of his last report, of all articles received therein and delivered therefrom during the preceding month, and of articles remaining therein at the end of said month. He shall deliver one of these reports to the collector having control of the warehouse, to be recorded and filed in his office, and transmit one to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, to be recorded and filed in his office. (R. S. § 3301; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 5, 20 Stat. 337.)

407. Regauging at warehouse; allowance for loss.—The distiller of any distilled spirits deposited in any distillery warehouse, or special bonded warehouse, or in any general bonded warehouse may file with the collector a notice giving a description of the packages containing the spirits, and request a regauge of the same, and thereupon the collector shall direct a gauger to regauge the spirits, and to mark upon each such package the number of gauge or wine gallons and proof gallons therein contained. If upon such regauging it shall appear that there has been a loss by leakage or evaporation of distilled spirits from any cask or package, without the fault or negligence of the distiller thereof, taxes shall be collected only on the quantity of distilled spirits contained in such cask or package at the time of the withdrawal thereof from the distillery warehouse or other bonded warehouse: Provided, however, That the allowance which shall be made for such loss of spirits as aforesaid shall not exceed one proof gallon for two months or part thereof from the date of the original gauge of fruit brandy or original entry of other spirits; one and one-half gallons for three and four months; two gallons for five and six months; two and one-half gallons for seven and eight months; three gallons for nine and ten months; three and one-half gallons for eleven and twelve months; four gallons for thirteen, fourteen, and fifteen months; four and one-half gallons for sixteen, seventeen, and eighteen months; five gallons for nineteen, twenty, and twenty-one months; five and one-half gallons for twenty-two, twenty-three, and twenty-four months; six gallons for twenty-five, twenty-six, and twenty-seven months; six and one-half gallons for twenty-eight, twenty-nine, and thirty months; seven gallons for thirty-one, thirty-two, and thirty-three months; seven and one-half gallons for thirty-four, thirty-five, and thirty-six months; eight gallons for thirty-seven, thirty-eight, thirty-nine, and forty months; eight and one-half gallons for forty-one, forty-two, forty-three, and forty-four months; nine gallons for forty-five, forty-six, forty-seven, and forty-eight months; nine and one-half gallons for forty-nine, fifty, fifty-one, and fifty-two months; ten gallons for fifty-three, fifty-four, fifty-five, and fifty-six months; ten and one-half gallons for fifty-seven, fifty-eight, fifty-nine, and sixty months; eleven gallons for sixty-one, sixty-two, sixty-three, and sixty-four months; eleven and one-half gallons for sixty-five, sixty-six, sixty-seven, and sixty-eight months; twelve gallons for sixty-nine, seventy, seventy-one, and seventy-two months; twelve and one-half gallons for seventy-three, seventy-four, seventy-five, and seventy-six months; thirteen gallons for seventy-seven, seventy-eight, seventy-nine, and eighty months; and thirteen and one-half gallons for eighty-one, eighty-two, eighty-three, and eighty-four months: And provided further, That in case such spirits shall remain in warehouse after the same have been regauged, the packages containing the spirits shall, at the time of withdrawal from warehouse and at such other times as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may direct, be again regauged or inspected; and if found to contain a larger quantity than shown by the first regauge, the tax shall be collected and paid on the quantity contained in each such package as shown by the original gauge: And provided further, That taxes shall be collected on the quantity contained in each cask or package as shown by the original gauge, where the distiller does not request a regauge: Provided, also, That the foregoing allowance of loss shall apply only to casks or packages of a capacity of forty or more wine gallons, and that the allowance for loss on casks or packages of less capacity than forty gallons shall not exceed one-half the amount allowed on said forty-gallon cask or package; but no allowance shall be made on casks or packages of less capacity than twenty gallons: And provided further, That the proof of such distilled spirits shall not in any case be computed at the time of withdrawal at less than 100 per centum. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 50, 28 Stat. 564; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 435, §§ 1, 2, 30 Stat. 1349; Jan. 13, 1903, c. 134, 32 Stat. 770; Feb. 6, 1925, c. 143, § 1, 43 Stat. 808.)

408. Same; additional allowance.—Upon withdrawal of distilled spirits from any internal revenue bonded warehouse, an allowance for loss by leakage or evaporation not exceeding one proof gallon as to casks or packages of a capacity of not less than forty wine gallons and one-half proof gallon as to casks or packages of a capacity of less than forty wine gallons and not less than twenty wine gallons, for each period of six months, or fraction thereof, after the expiration of seven years from the date of original entry or gauge, may be made in addition to, and under the conditions imposed by, section 407 of this chapter. (Feb. 6, 1925, c. 143, § 1, 43 Stat. 808.)

409. Same; regauges.—The allowance for loss by leakage or evaporation under sections 407 and 408 of this title, shall be made without regard to any regauge made prior to February 26, 1925, and a regauge within seven years from the date of the original gauge shall not be necessary. (Feb. 6, 1925, c. 143, § 2, 43 Stat. 809.)

410. Same; exception.—Sections 408 and 409 of this title shall not apply to distilled spirits withdrawn prior to February 6, 1925. (Feb. 6, 1925, c. 143, § 3, 43 Stat. 809.)

411. Bottling of spirits in bond; bottling fruit brandy.—Whenever any distilled spirits deposited in the warehouse of a distillery having a surveyed daily capacity of not less than twenty bushels of grain, which capacity or not less than twenty bushels thereof is commonly used by the distiller, have been duly entered for withdrawal upon payment of tax, or for export in bond, and have been gauged and the required marks, brands, and tax-paid stamps or export stamps, as the case may be, have been affixed to the package or packages containing the same, the distiller or owner of said distilled spirits, if he has declared his purpose so to do in the entry for withdrawal, which entry for bottling purposes may be made by the owner as well as the distiller, may remove such spirits to a separate portion of said warehouse which shall be set apart and used exclusively for that purpose, and there, under the supervision of a United States storekeeper, or storekeeper-gauger in charge of such warehouse, may immediately draw off such spirits, bottle, pack, and case the same. For convenience in such process any number of packages of spirits of the same kind, differing only in proof, but produced at the same distillery by the same distiller, may be mingled together in a cistern provided for that purpose, but nothing herein shall authorize or permit any mingling of different products, or of the same products of different distilling seasons, or the addition or the subtraction of any substance or material or the application of any method or process to alter or change in any way the original condition or character of the product except as herein authorized; nor shall there be at the same time in the bottling room of any bonded warehouse any spirits entered for withdrawal upon payment of the tax and any spirits entered for export. Under such regulations and limitations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe, the provisions of this section and sections 412 to 418 of this title may be made to apply to the bottling and casing of fruit brandy in special bonded warehouses. Every bottle when filled shall have affixed thereto and passing over the mouth of the same such suitable adhesive engraved strip stamp as may be prescribed, as hereinafter provided, and shall be packed into cases to contain six bottles or multiples thereof, and in the aggregate not less than two nor more than five gallons in each case, which shall be immediately removed from the distillery premises. Each of such cases shall have affixed thereto a stamp denoting the number of gallons therein contained, such stamp to be affixed to the case before its removal from the warehouse, and such stamps shall have a cash value of 10 cents each, and shall be charged at that rate to the collectors to whom issued, and shall be paid for at that rate by the distiller or owner using the same. And there shall be plainly burned on the side of each case, to be known as the Government side, the proof of the spirits, the registered distillery number, the State and district in which the distillery is located, the real name of the actual bona fide distiller, the year and distilling season, whether spring or fall, of original inspection or entry into bond, and the date of bottling, and the same wording shall be placed upon the adhesive engraved strip stamp over the mouth of the bottle. It being understood that the spring season shall include the months from January to July, and the fall season the months from July to January. And no trade-marks shall be put upon any bottle unless the real name of the actual bona fide distiller shall also be placed conspicuously on said bottle. (Mar. 3, 1897, c. 379, § 1, 29 Stat. 626.)

412. Same; regulations.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may, by regulations, prescribe the mode of separating and securing the additional warehouse, or portion of the warehouse hereinbefore required to be set apart, the manner in which the business of bottling spirits in bond shall be carried on, the notices, bonds, and returns to be given and accounts and records to be kept by the persons conducting such business, the mode and time of inspection of such spirits, the accounts and records to be kept and returns made by the Government officers, and all such other matters and things, as in his discretion, he may deem requisite for a secure and orderly supervision of said business; and he may also, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, prescribe and issue the stamps required. The distiller may, in the presence of the United States storekeeper or storekeeper-gauger, remove by straining through cloth, felt, or other like material any charcoal, sediment, or other like substance found therein, and may whenever necessary reduce such spirits as are withdrawn for bottling purposes by the addition of pure water only to 100 per centum proof for spirits for domestic use, or to not less than 80 per centum proof for spirits for export purposes, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. (Mar. 3, 1897, c. 379, § 2, 29 Stat. 627; Feb. 6, 1925, c. 143, § 2, 43 Stat. 809.)

413. Same; inspection and other requirements as to spirits bottled for export; drawback.—All distilled spirits intended for export under the provisions of sections 411 to 418, inclusive, of this title shall be inspected, bottled, cased, weighed, marked, labeled, stamped, or sealed in such manner and at such time as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe; and the said commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may provide such regulations for the transportation, entry, reinspection, and lading of such spirits for export as may from time to time be deemed necessary; and all provisions of law relating to the exportation of distilled spirits in bond, so far as applicable, and all penalties therein imposed, are hereby extended and made applicable to distilled spirits bottled for export under the provisions of said sections, but no drawbacks shall be allowed or paid upon any spirits bottled under the provisions of said sections. (Mar. 3, 1897, c. 379, § 3, 29 Stat. 627.)

414. Same; deficiency tax.—Where, upon inspection at the bonded warehouse in which the spirits are bottled as aforesaid, the quantity so bottled and cased for export is less than the quantity actually contained in the distiller's original casks or packages at the time of withdrawal for that purpose the tax on the loss or deficiency so ascertained shall be paid before the removal of the spirits from such warehouse, and the tax so paid shall be receipted and accounted for by the collector in such manner as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe. (Mar. 3, 1897, c. 379, § 4, 29 Stat. 627.)

415. Tax on spirits entered for export if case opened, or marks removed or changed.—Where, upon reinspection at the port of entry, any case containing or purporting to contain distilled spirits for export is found to have been opened or tampered with, or where any mark, brand, stamp, label, or seal placed thereon or upon any bottle contained therein has been removed, changed, or willfully defaced, or where upon such reinspection any loss or discrepancy is found to exist as to the contents of any case so entered for export, the tax on the spirits contained in each such case at the time of its removal from warehouse shall be collected and paid. (Mar. 3, 1897, c. 379, § 5, 29 Stat. 627.)

416. Offenses; reusing stamp or bottle; penalty.—Any person who shall reuse any stamp provided under sections 411 to 418 of this title after the same shall have been once affixed to a bottle as provided herein, or who shall reuse a bottle for the purpose of containing distilled spirits which has once been filled and stamped under the provisions of said sections without removing and destroying the stamp so previously affixed to such bottle, or who shall, contrary to the provisions of said sections or of the regulations issued thereunder remove or cause to be removed from any bonded warehouse any distilled spirits inspected or bottled under the provisions of said sections, or who shall bottle or case any such spirits in violation of said sections or of any regulation issued thereunder, or who shall, during the transportation and before the exportation of any such spirits, open or cause to be opened any case or bottle containing such spirits, or who shall willfully remove, change, or deface any stamp, brand, label, or seal affixed to any such case or to any bottle contained therein, shall for each such offense be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, and be imprisoned not more than two years, in the discretion of the court, and such spirits shall be forfeited to the United States. (Mar. 3, 1897, c. 379, § 6, 29 Stat. 627.)

417. Same; forging stamps.—Every person who, with intent to defraud, falsely makes, forges, alters, or counterfeits any stamp made or used under any provision of sections 411 to 418 of this title, or who uses, sells, or has in his possession any such forged, altered, or counterfeited stamp, or any plate or die used or which may be used in the manufacture thereof, or who shall make, use, sell, or have in his possession any paper in imitation of the paper used in the manufacture of any stamp required by said sections, shall on conviction be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 and by imprisonment at hard labor not exceeding five years. (Mar. 3, 1897, c. 379, § 7, 29 Stat. 628.)

419. Bottling of gin in bond for export without payment of tax.—Distilled spirits known commercially as gin of not less than 80 per centum proof may at any time within eight years after entry in bond at any distillery be bottled in bond at such distillery for export without the payment of tax, under such rules and regulations as the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe. (Sept. 8, 1916, c. 463, § 405, 39 Stat. 788; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 626, 40 Stat. 1115.)

420. Removal of distilled spirits to another warehouse for concentration; bottling in bond in warehouse to which removed.—For purpose of concentration, upon the initiation of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and under regulations prescribed by him, distilled spirits may be removed from any internal revenue bonded warehouse to any other such warehouse, and may be bottled in bond in any such warehouse before or after payment of the tax, and the commissioner shall prescribe the form and penal sums of bond covering distilled spirits in internal revenue bonded warehouses, and in transit between such warehouses. (Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title I, 43 Stat. 770.)

421. Alcohol withdrawn for scientific purposes.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to grant permits to any incorporated or chartered scientific institution or college of learning to withdraw alcohol in specified quantities from bond without payment of the internal revenue tax on the same, or on the spirits from which the alcohol has been distilled, for the sole purpose of preserving specimens of anatomy, physiology, or natural history belonging to such institution, or for use in its chemical laboratory. Application for permits shall be made by the president or curator of such institution, who shall file a bond for double the amount of the tax on the alcohol to be withdrawn, with two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and conditioned that the whole quantity of alcohol so withdrawn from bond shall be used for the purposes above specified, and for no other, and that the said president or curator shall comply with such other requirements and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. And if any alcohol so obtained is used by any officer, as aforesaid, of such institution for any purposes other than that above specified, then the said officer or sureties shall pay the tax on the whole amount of alcohol withdrawn from bond, together with a like amount as a penalty in addition thereto. (R. S. § 3297.)

422. Same; by unincorporated institutions and hospitals.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to grant permits, as provided for in section 421 of this chapter, for the withdrawal of alcohol from bond, free of tax to any scientific university or college of learning created and constituted as such by any State or Territory under its laws, though not incorporated or chartered, and to any hospital maintained by endowment or otherwise, and not conducted for profit, upon the same terms and subject to the same restrictions and penalties provided by said section; but alcohol so obtained by hospitals may be used in surgical operations and, except as a beverage, in the treatment of patients, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. The bond required by said section may be executed by an officer of such hospital or institution or by any other person for it, and on its behalf, with two good and sufficient sureties, upon like conditions, and to be approved as by said section is provided. (May 8, 1878, c. 88, 20 Stat. 48; July 8, 1916, c. 236, 39 Stat. 354.)

423. Withdrawal of spirits for medicinal and other preparations manufactured in bonded warehouse for export.—Under such regulations and requirements as to stamps, bonds, and other security as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, any manufacturer of medicines, preparations, compositions, perfumeries, cosmetics, cordials, and other liquors, for export, manufacturing the same in a duly constituted manufacturing warehouse, shall be authorized to withdraw, in original packages, from any distillery warehouse, so much distilled spirits as he may require for the said purpose, without the payment of the internal revenue tax thereon. (Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 20, 20 Stat. 351; May 28, 1880, c. 108, § 14, 21 Stat. 148.)

424. Withdrawal of spirits from distillery warehouses for making sorghum sugar.—Any manufacturer of sugar from sorghum may remove from distillery warehouses to factories used solely for the manufacture of such sugar from sorghum distilled spirits in bond free of tax, to be used solely in such manufacture of sugar from sorghum. All distilled spirits removed as herein authorized shall be of an alcoholic strength of not less than 160 per centum proof, and may be removed, stored, and used in the manufacture of sugar from sorghum, and when so used may be recovered by redistillation in the sugar factory of such sugar manufacturer under such bonds, rules, and regulations for the protection of the revenue and the accomplishment of the purposes herein expressed as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe. Any person who removes or uses distilled spirits in violation of this provision, as the regulations issued pursuant thereof, shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, for each offense, and the spirits and the premises on which such spirits are used shall be forfeited to the United States. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 544, § 1, 26 Stat. 1050.)

WINES; TAX AND REGULATIONS

441. Natural wine and wine defined; sweetening wine.—Natural wine within the meaning of sections 442 to 456 of this title shall be deemed to be the product made from the normal alcoholic fermentation of the juice of sound, ripe grapes, without addition or abstraction, except such as may occur in the usual cellar treatment of clarifying and aging. The product made from the juice of sound, ripe grapes by complete fermentation of the must under proper cellar treatment and corrected by the addition (under the supervision of a gauger or storekeeper-gauger in the capacity of gauger) of a solution of water and pure cane, beet, or dextrose sugar (containing, respectively, not less than 95 per centum of actual sugar, calculated on a dry basis) to the must or to the wine, to correct natural deficiencies, when such addition shall not increase the volume of the resultant product more than 35 per centum, and the resultant product does not contain less than five parts per thousand of acid before fermentation and not more than 13 per centum of alcohol after complete fermentation, shall be deemed to be wine within the meaning of said sections, and may be labeled, transported, and sold as "wine," qualified by the name of the locality where produced, and may be further qualified by the name of its own particular type or variety. Wine as defined in this section may be sweetened with cane sugar or beet sugar or pure condensed grape must and fortified under the provisions of said sections, and wines so sweetened or fortified shall be considered sweet wine within the meaning of said sections. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 610, 40 Stat. 1109.)

442. Tax on still wines and compounds sold as still wines.—Upon all still wines, including vermuth, and all artificial or imitation wines or compounds sold as still wine, produced in or imported into the United States after February 24, 1919, or which on February 25, 1919, were on any winery premises or other bonded premises or in transit thereto or at any customhouse, there shall be levied, collected, and paid, taxes at rates as follows, when sold, or removed for consumption or sale:

On wines containing not more than 14 per centum of absolute alcohol, 16 cents per wine gallon, the per centum of alcohol taxable under this section to be reckoned by volume and not by weight;

On wines containing more than 14 per centum and not exceeding 21 per centum of absolute alcohol, 40 cents per wine gallon;

On wines containing more than 21 per centum and not exceeding 24 per centum of absolute alcohol, $1 per wine gallon;

All such wines containing more than 24 per centum of absolute alcohol by volume shall be classed as distilled spirits and shall pay tax accordingly. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 611, 40 Stat. 1110.)

443. Withdrawal for fortification of grape brandy or wine spirits from fruit distillery or special bonded warehouse.—Under such regulations and official supervision and upon the giving of such notices, entries, bonds, and other security as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe, any producer of wines defined under the provisions of this chapter, may withdraw from any fruit distillery or special bonded warehouse grape brandy, or wine spirits, for the fortification of such wines on the premises where actually made. There shall be levied and assessed against the producer of such wines a tax of 60 cents per proof gallon of grape brandy or wine spirits whenever withdrawn and so used by him after February 24, 1919, in the fortification of such wines during the preceding month, which assessment shall be paid by him within ten months from the date of notice thereof. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as exempting any wines, cordials, liqueurs, or similar compounds from the payment of any tax provided for in this chapter. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 612, 40 Stat. 1110.)

444. Same; wine spirits and sweet wine defined.—The wine spirits mentioned in section 445 of this title is the product resulting from the distillation of fermented grape juice, to which water may have been added prior to, during, or after fermentation, for the sole purpose of facilitating the fermentation and economical distillation thereof, and shall be held to include the product from grapes or their residues commonly known as grape brandy, and shall include commercial grape brandy which may have been colored with burnt sugar or caramel; and the pure sweet wine which may be fortified with wine spirits under the provisions of this chapter is fermented or partially fermented grape juice only, with the usual cellar treatment, and shall contain no other substance whatever introduced before, at the time of, or after fermentation, except as herein expressly provided: Provided, That the addition of pure boiled or condensed grape must or pure crystallized cane or beet sugar, or pure dextrose sugar containing, respectively, not less than 95 per centum of actual sugar, calculated on a dry basis, or water, or any or all of them, to the pure grape juice before fermentation, or to the fermented product of such grape juice, or to both, prior to the fortification herein provided for, either for the purpose of perfecting sweet wines according to commercial standards or for mechanical purposes, shall not be excluded by the definition of pure sweet wine aforesaid: Provided, however, That the cane or beet sugar, or pure dextrose sugar added for sweetening purposes shall not be in excess of 11 per centum of the weight of the wine to be fortified: And provided further, That the addition of water herein authorized shall be under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may from time to time prescribe: Provided, however, That records kept in accordance with such regulations as to the percentage of saccharine, acid, alcoholic, and added water content of the wine offered for fortification shall be open to inspection by any official of the Department of Agriculture thereto duly authorized by the Secretary of Agriculture; but in no case shall such wines to which water has been added be eligible for fortification under the provisions of this chapter, where the same, after fermentation and before fortification, have an alcoholic strength of less than 5 per centum of their volume. (Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1244, § 43, 26 Stat. 621; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 68, 28 Stat. 568; June 7, 1906, c. 3046, § 1, 34 Stat. 215; Oct. 22, 1914, c. 331, § 2, 38 Stat. 747; Sept. 8, 1916, c. 463, § 402(c), 39 Stat. 785; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 617, 40 Stat. 1111.)

445. Fortifying pure sweet wines with wine spirits.—Any producer of pure sweet wines may use in the preparation of such sweet wines, under such regulations and after the filing of such notices and bonds, together with the keeping of such records and the rendition of such reports as to materials and products as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe, wine spirits produced by any duly authorized distiller, and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, in determining the liability of any distiller of wine spirits to assessment under section 320 of this title, is authorized to allow such distiller credit in his computations for the wine spirits withdrawn to be used in fortifying sweet wines under this chapter. (Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1244, § 42, 26 Stat. 621; Oct. 22, 1914, c. 331, § 2, 38 Stat. 747; Sept. 8, 1916, c. 463, § 402(c), 39 Stat. 784; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 617, 40 Stat. 1111.)

446. Same; floor tax on grape brandy or wine spirits for fortification of sweet wines.—Upon all sweet wines held for sale by the producer thereof on February 25, 1919, there shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid a floor tax equivalent to 80 cents per proof gallon upon the grape brandy or wine spirits used in the fortification of such wine. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 615, 40 Stat. 1111.)

447. Same; withdrawal of wine spirits.—Under such regulations and official supervision, and upon the execution of such entries and the giving of such bonds, bills of lading, and other security as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe, any producer of pure sweet wines as defined by this chapter may withdraw wine spirits from any special bonded warehouse in original packages or from any registered distillery in any quantity not less than eighty wine gallons, and may use so much of the same as may be required by him under such regulations, and after the filing of such notices and bonds and the keeping of such records and the rendition of such reports as to materials and products and the disposition of the same as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe, in fortifying the pure sweet wines made by him, and for no other purpose, in accordance with the foregoing limitations and provisions; and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, is authorized whenever he shall deem it to be necessary for the prevention of violations of this law to prescribe that wine spirits withdrawn under this section shall not be used to fortify wines except at a certain distance prescribed by him from any distillery, rectifying house, winery, or other establishment used for producing or storing distilled spirits, or for making or storing wines other than wines which are so fortified, and that in the building in which such fortification of wines is practiced no wines or spirits other than those permitted by this regulation shall be stored in any room or part of the building in which fortification of wines is practiced. The use of wine spirits for the fortification of sweet wines under this chapter shall be under the immediate supervision of an officer of internal revenue, who shall make returns describing the kinds and quantities of wine so fortified, and shall affix such stamps and seals to the packages containing such wines as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury; and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall provide by regulations the time within which wines so fortified with the wine spirits so withdrawn may be subject to inspection, and for final accounting for the use of such wine spirits and for rewarehousing or for payment of the tax on any portion of such wine spirits which remain not used in fortifying pure sweet wines. (Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1244, § 45, 26 Stat. 622; Oct. 22, 1914, c. 331, § 2, 38 Stat. 747; Sept. 8, 1916, c. 463, § 402(c), 39 Stat. 785; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 617, 40 Stat. 1112.)

448. Removal of domestic wines to bonded premises; tax on product of wines used as material.—Under such regulations and upon the execution of such notices, entries, bonds, and other security as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe, domestic wines subject to the tax imposed by section 442 of this title may be removed from the winery where produced, free of tax, for storage on other bonded premises or from such premises to other bonded premises (but not more than one such additional removal shall be allowed), or for exportation from the United States or for use as distilling material at any regularly registered distillery; but the distiller using any such wine as material shall, subject to the provisions of section 320 of this title, be held to pay the tax on the product of such wines as will include both the alcoholic strength therein produced by fermentation and that obtained from the brandy or wine spirits added to such wines at the time of fortification. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 618(a), 40 Stat. 1113.)

449. Production of grape wine on bonded premises and transportation for distilling material for nonalcoholic wines.—Under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, it shall be lawful to produce grape wines on bonded winery premises by the usual method, and to transport and use the same, and like wines produced and stored on bonded winery premises, on February 24, 1919, as distilling material for the production of nonbeverage spirits in the production of nonalcoholic wines, containing less than one-half of 1 per centum of alcohol by volume, in any fruit brandy or industrial distillery. All alcoholic spirits so obtained at any industrial distillery shall be denatured, and all spirits so obtained at any fruit distillery shall be removed and used only for nonbeverage purposes or for denaturation. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 618(b), 40 Stat. 1113.)

450. Tax on domestic and imported sparkling wines.—Upon the following articles produced in or imported into the United States after February 24, 1919, or which on February 25, 1919, were on any winery premises or other bonded premises or in transit thereto or at any customhouse, there shall be levied, collected, and paid taxes at rates as follows, when sold, or removed for consumption or sale:

On each bottle or other container of champagne or sparkling wine, 12 cents on each one-half pint or fraction thereof;

On each bottle or other container of artificially carbonated wine, 6 cents on each one-half pint or fraction thereof;

On each bottle or other container of liqueurs, cordials, or similar compounds, by whatever name sold or offered for sale, containing sweet wine fortified with grape brandy, 6 cents on each one-half pint or fraction thereof.

The tax imposed by this section shall, in the case of any article upon which a corresponding internal-revenue tax is otherwise imposed by law, be in lieu of such tax. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 613, 40 Stat. 1110.)

451. Floor tax on still and sparkling wines.—Upon all articles specified in section 442 or 450 of this title, upon which the internal-revenue tax imposed by law prior to February 24, 1919, had been paid and which were held on February 25, 1919, by any person and intended for sale, there shall be levied, collected, and paid a floor tax equal to the difference between the tax imposed by this chapter and the tax so paid. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 614, 40 Stat. 1111.)

452. Payment of tax by affixing stamp; notice, bond, and inventories; wines held by retailers or produced for family use.—The taxes imposed by section 442 or 450 of this title, shall be paid by stamp on removal of the wines from the customhouse, winery, or other bonded place of storage for consumption or sale, and every person producing, or having in his possession or under his control on February 24, 1919, any wines subject to the tax imposed in section 442 or 450, shall file such notice, describing the premises on which such wines are produced or stored; shall execute a bond in such form; shall make such inventories under oath; and shall, prior to sale or removal for consumption, affix to each cask or vessel containing such wine such marks, labels, or stamps as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may from time to time prescribe; and the premises described in such notice shall, for the purpose of this chapter be regarded as bonded premises. But the provisions of this section, except as to payment of tax and the affixing of the required stamps or labels, shall not apply to wines held by retail dealers, as defined in sections 202 to 205 of this title, nor, subject to regulations prescribed by the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall the tax imposed by section 442 apply to wines produced for the family use of the duly registered producer thereof and not sold or otherwise removed from the place of manufacture and not exceeding in any case two hundred gallons per year. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 616, 40 Stat. 1111.)

453. Collection of tax on imported still wines, sparkling wines, and imported liqueurs by assessment.—The collection of the tax on imported still wines, including vermuth, and sparkling wines, including champagne, and on imported liqueurs, cordials, and similar compounds, may be made within the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, by assessment instead of by stamps. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 619, 40 Stat. 1113.)

454. Offenses; evading tax; recovering spirits from wine; penalty; mixing or blending; use of tax-paid grains for fortification.—Whoever evades or attempts to evade any tax imposed by sections 442, 443, 446, 450, or 451 of this title, or any requirement of sections 441 to 455 of this title, both inclusive, or regulation issued pursuant thereto, or whoever, otherwise than as provided in such sections, recovers or attempts to recover any spirits from domestic or imported wine, or whoever rectifies, mixes, or compounds with distilled spirits any domestic wines, other than in the manufacture of liqueurs, cordials, or similar compounds, shall, on conviction, be punished for each such offense by a fine of not exceeding $5,000, or imprisonment for not more than five years, or both, and in addition thereto by a penalty of double the tax evaded, or attempted to be evaded, to be assessed and collected in the same manner as taxes are assessed and collected, and all wines, spirits, liqueurs, cordials, or similar compounds as to which such violation occurs shall be forfeited to the United States. But the provisions of this section and the provisions of sections 202 to 205 of this title relating to rectification, or other internal-revenue laws of the United States, shall not be held to apply to or prohibit the mixing or blending of wines subject to tax under the provisions of sections 442, 443, 446, 450 and 451, with each other or with other wines for the sole purpose of perfecting such wines according to commercial standards. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as prohibiting the use of tax-paid grain or other ethyl alcohol in the fortification of sweet wines as defined in sections 441 and 444 of this title. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 620, 40 Stat. 1113.)

455. Spirit meters, locks, seals; gaugers or storekeeper-gaugers.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, by regulations to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, may require the use at each fruit distillery of such spirit meters, and such locks and seals to be fixed to fermenters, tanks, or other vessels and to such pipe connections as may in his judgment be necessary or expedient, and is authorized to assign to any such distillery and to each winery where wines are to be fortified such number of gaugers or storekeeper-gaugers in capacity of gaugers as may be necessary for the proper supervision of the manufacture of brandy or the making or fortifying of wines subject to tax imposed by this section; and the compensation of such officers shall not exceed $5 per diem while so assigned, together with their actual and necessary traveling expenses, and also a reasonable allowance for their board bills, to be fixed by the said commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, but not to exceed $2.50 per diem for such board bills. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 621, 40 Stat. 1114.)

456. Allowance for unavoidable loss of wines during cellar treatment.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, is authorized to make such allowances for unavoidable loss of wines while on storage or during cellar treatment as in his judgment may be just and proper. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 622, 40 Stat. 1114.)

457. Rules and regulations.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, is authorized to make all necessary regulations to make effective the provisions of sections 442 to 456 of this title. (Oct. 22, 1914, c. 331, § 2, 38 Stat. 747.)

458. Reimportation of domestic wines.—All provisions of law relating to the reimportation of any goods of domestic growth or manufacture which were originally liable to an internal-revenue tax shall be, as far as applicable, enforced against any domestic wines sought to be reimported; and duty shall be levied and collected upon the same when reimported, as an original importation. (Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1244, § 47, 26 Stat. 623.)

459. Unlawful use of wine spirits not tax paid.—Any person using wine spirits or other spirits which have not been tax paid in fortifying wine otherwise than as provided for in this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction thereof, be punished for each offense by a fine of not more than $2,000, and for every offense other than the first also by imprisonment for not more than one year. (Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1244, § 48, 26 Stat. 623.)

460. Bonds for payment of tax.—Bonds given under the provisions of section 447 of this title shall be conditioned for the payment of the tax on all brandy removed thereunder and not used and accounted for within the time and in the manner required by law and regulations, and for the payment of all taxes imposed on the brandy so withdrawn and used for fortifications; and the said bonds shall contain such other conditions as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may by regulation prescribe. (June 7, 1906, c. 3046, § 3, 34 Stat. 216; Oct. 22, 1914, c. 331, § 2, 38 Stat. 750.)

461. Fermenting vats for manufacture of wines, or of brandy for fortification.—Where brandy to be used in the fortification of wine is distilled on premises adjacent to the winery premises the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may, in his discretion, authorize the erection on either of said premises of fermenting vats for material to be used either in the manufacture of such wines or the brandy to be used in the fortification thereof; and all such materials used or received on either of said premises shall be under the supervision of the officer assigned to such winery, and shall be accounted for at such times and in such manner as the commissioner may direct. (June 7, 1906, c. 3046, § 4, 34 Stat. 216.)

462. Unlawful recovery of spirits from fortified wines; blending fortified wines.—Any person who by any process recovers from wines fortified under the provisions of this chapter, any brandy or wine spirits used in the manufacture or fortification of said wine, otherwise than is provided for in this chapter, or who shall rectify, mix, or compound with distilled spirits or other materials, except as provided in this chapter, such grape brandy, fortified wines or wine spirits unlawfully recovered therefrom, shall, on conviction, be punished for each such offense by a fine of not less than $200 nor more than $1,000. But the provisions of this section and the provisions of section 204 of this title, relating to rectification, or other internal revenue laws of the United States, shall not be held to apply to or prohibit the mixing or blending of pure sweet wines fortified under the provisions of this chapter with each other or with other wines. The pure sweet wines fortified under the provisions of this chapter may be used in the manufacture of cordials, liqueurs, and similar compounds on which an internal-revenue tax of 6 cents on each half pint or fraction thereof is imposed, and otherwise the provision of section 204 shall remain in full force and effect. (June 7, 1906, c. 3046, § 6, 34 Stat. 216; Oct. 22, 1914, c. 331, § 2, 38 Stat. 750; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 613, 40 Stat. 1110.)

DENATURED ALCOHOL

481. Denatured alcohol; withdrawal from bond free of tax.—Domestic alcohol of such degree of proof as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, may be withdrawn from bond without the payment of internal-revenue tax, for use in the arts and industries, and for fuel, light, and power, provided said alcohol shall have been mixed in the presence and under the direction of an authorized Government officer, after withdrawal from the distillery warehouse, with methyl alcohol or other denaturing material or materials, or admixture of the same, suitable to the use for which the alcohol is withdrawn, but which destroys its character as a beverage and renders it unfit for liquid medicinal purposes; such denaturing to be done upon the application of any registered distillery in denaturing bonded warehouses specially designated or set apart for denaturing purposes only, and under conditions prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

The character and quantity of the said denaturing material and the conditions upon which said alcohol may be withdrawn free of tax shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, who shall, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, make all necessary regulations for carrying into effect the provisions of this section.

Distillers, manufacturers, dealers and all other persons furnishing, handling or using alcohol withdrawn from bond under the provisions of this section shall keep such books and records, execute such bonds and render such returns as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may by regulation require. Such books and records shall be open at all times to the inspection of any internal-revenue officer or agent. (June 7, 1906, c. 3047, § 1, 34 Stat. 217.)

482. Same; withdrawal for manufacture of ether and chloroform; rum.—Domestic alcohol when suitably denatured may be withdrawn from bond without the payment of internal-revenue tax and used in the manufacture of ether and chloroform and other definite chemical substances where said alcohol is changed into some other chemical substance and does not appear in the finished product as alcohol. Rum of not less than one hundred and fifty degrees proof may be withdrawn, for denaturation only, in accordance with the provisions of sections 481 to 486, inclusive, of this title. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2571, § 1, 34 Stat. 1250.)

483. Central denaturing bonded warehouses.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may authorize the establishment of central denaturing bonded warehouses, other than those at distilleries, to which alcohol of the required proof may be transferred from distilleries or distillery bonded warehouses without the payment of internal-revenue tax, and in which such alcohol may be stored and denatured. The establishment, operation, and custody of such warehouses shall be under such regulations and upon the execution of such bonds as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2571, § 2, 34 Stat. 1250.)

484. Transfer of alcohol for denaturation; allowance for loss or leakage during transportation.—Alcohol of the required proof may be drawn off, for denaturation only, from receiving cisterns in the cistern room of any distillery for transfer by pipes direct to any denaturing bonded warehouse on the distillery premises or to closed metal storage tanks situated in the distillery bonded warehouse, or from such storage tanks to any denaturing bonded warehouse on the distillery premises, and denatured alcohol may also be transported from the denaturing bonded warehouse, in such manner and by means of such packages, tanks or tank cars, and on the execution of such bonds, and under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe. And further, alcohol to be denatured may be withdrawn without the payment of internal-revenue tax from the distillery bonded warehouse for shipment to central denaturing plants in such packages, tanks and tank cars, under such regulations, and on the execution of such bonds as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

Where alcohol is withdrawn from a distillery warehouse for shipment to a central denaturing bonded warehouse under the provisions of this section and section 483 of this title it shall be lawful under such rules, regulations, and limitations as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, for an allowance to be made for leakage or loss by any accident, and without any fraud or negligence of the distiller, owner, carrier, or their agents or employees, occurring during transportation from a distillery warehouse to a central denaturing bonded warehouse. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2571, § 3, 34 Stat. 1250; June 22, 1916, c. 163, 39 Stat. 233.)

485. Unlawful use of alcohol withdrawn.—Any person who withdraws alcohol free of tax under the provisions of section 481 of this title and regulations made in pursuance thereof, and who removes or conceals same, or is concerned in removing, depositing or concealing same for the purpose of preventing the same from being denatured under governmental supervision, and any person who uses alcohol withdrawn from bond under the provisions of said section for manufacturing any beverage or liquid medicinal preparation, or knowingly sells any beverage or liquid medicinal preparation made in whole or in part from such alcohol, or knowingly violates any of the provisions of said section, or who shall recover or attempt to recover by redistillation or by any other process or means, any alcohol rendered unfit for beverage or liquid medicinal purposes under the provisions of said section, or who knowingly uses, sells, conceals, or otherwise disposes of alcohol so recovered or redistilled, shall on conviction of each offense be fined not more than $5,000, or be imprisoned not more than five years, or both, and shall, in addition, forfeit to the United States all personal property used in connection with his business, together with the buildings and lots or parcels of ground constituting the premises on which said unlawful acts are performed or permitted to be performed. (June 7, 1906, c. 3047, § 2, 34 Stat. 217.)

486. Recovery of alcohol evaporated from manufactured articles.—Manufacturers employing processes in which alcohol, used free of tax under the provisions of section 481 of this title, is expressed or evaporated from the articles manufactured, shall be permitted to recover such alcohol and to have such alcohol restored to a condition solely for reuse in manufacturing processes under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe. (June 7, 1906, c. 3047, § 2, 34 Stat. 217.)

487. Manufacture of alcohol free of tax for denaturation.—Under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, any farmer or association of farmers, any fruit grower or association of fruit growers, or other person or persons may manufacture alcohol free of tax for denaturization only, out of any of the products of farms, fruit orchards, or any substance whatever, on condition that such alcohol shall be directly conveyed from the still by continuous closed pipes to locked and sealed receptacles in which the same may be rendered unfit for use as an intoxicating beverage by an admixture of such denaturing materials as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe, or where such alcohol is of insufficient proof to be denatured, the same may be transferred in bond from such locked and sealed receptacles to a central distilling and denaturing plant as hereinafter provided.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may authorize the establishment of central distilling and denaturing plants to which alcohol produced under the provisions of this section, free of tax, may be transferred, redistilled and denatured under such regulations, and upon the execution of such notices and bonds as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe.

Any central distilling and denaturing plant provided for in this section may, in addition to the spirits produced under this section, use any of the products of farms, fruit orchards, or any substance whatever, for the manufacture of alcohol for denaturation only. At such distilleries the use of cisterns or tanks of such size and construction as may be deemed expedient shall be permitted in lieu of distillery bonded warehouses under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe.

Section 208 of this title shall not apply to stills and worms manufactured for use in distilling, provided for in this section, but the manufacturer or owner of such distilling apparatus shall give notice to the collector of internal revenue of the district in which the said apparatus is made or to which it is removed, of each still, or worm, manufactured, sold, used, or exchanged under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall exempt distillers operating under this section from the provisions of sections 309 and 320 of this title, and from such other provisions of laws relating to distilleries, including the giving of bonds, as may be deemed expedient by said officials; but the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall assess and collect the tax on any spirits unlawfully produced or produced and not accounted for by any such distiller. (Oct. 3, 1913, c. 16, § IV, N, subsec. 2, 38 Stat. 199.)

488. Same; failure to register apparatus; false registration; penalty.—Any person who under the provisions of section 487 of this title shall fail to register, or shall falsely register, any still or distilling apparatus used by him, or who shall fraudulently remove or conceal any distilled spirits produced by him, or who shall fail to comply with all the requirements of said section, or any regulations issued pursuant thereto, respecting the production and denaturization of distilled spirits; and any person who shall recover or attempt to recover by redistillization or by any other process or means, any distilled spirits after the same has been denatured, shall, on conviction, for each offense, be fined not more than $5,000 or be imprisoned for not more than five years, or both, and shall in addition thereto forfeit to the United States all real and personal property used in connection therewith. (Oct. 3, 1913, c. 16, § IV, N, subsec. 2, 38 Stat. 199.)

489. Removal of ethyl alcohol to central denaturing bonded warehouse for denaturing; removal free of tax for use of United States.—Under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe, ethyl alcohol of not less than 180 degrees proof, produced at any central distilling and denaturing plant established under the provisions of section 487 of this title, may be removed from such plant to any central denaturing bonded warehouse for denaturation, or may, before or after denaturation, be removed from such plant or from such denaturing bonded warehouse, free of tax, for use of the United States, and the removal herein authorized may be made in such tank vessels, tank cars, drums, casks, or other containers as may be approved by the commissioner. It shall be lawful, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, for an allowance to be made for leakage or loss by unavoidable accident and without fault or negligence of the distiller, owner, carrier, or his agents or employees, which may occur during the transportation of such spirits or while the same are lawfully stored on either of the premises herein described. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 603, 40 Stat. 1107.)

Section 501. Gallon defined.—The word "gallon," wherever used in the internal revenue law, relating to beer, lager beer, ale, porter, and other similar fermented liquors, shall be held and taken to mean a wine gallon, the liquid measure containing two hundred and thirty-one cubic inches. (Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 21, 20 Stat. 351.)

502. Brewer's notice of business.—Every brewer shall, before commencing or continuing business, file with the collector, or proper deputy collector, of the district in which he designs to carry it on a notice in writing, stating the name of the person, company, corporation, or firm, the names of the members of any such company or firm, the places of residence of such persons, a description of the premises on which the brewery is situated, and of his or their title thereto, and the name of the owner thereof. (R. S. § 3335.)

503. Brewer's bond; renewals.—Every brewer, on filing notice as aforesaid of his intention to commence or continue business, shall execute a bond to the United States, to be approved by the collector of the district, in a sum equal to three times the amount of the tax which, in the opinion of the collector, said brewer will be liable to pay during any one month, and conditioned that he shall pay, or cause to be paid, as herein provided, the tax required by law on all beer, lager beer, ale, porter, and other fermented liquors made by or for him, before the same is sold or removed for consumption or sale, except as hereinafter provided; and that he shall keep, or cause to be kept, a book, in the manner and for the purposes hereinafter specified, which shall be open to inspection by the proper officers, as by law required; and that he shall in all respects faithfully comply, without fraud or evasion, with all requirements of law relating to the manufacture and sale of any malt liquors aforesaid; and he shall execute a new bond once in four years and whenever required so to do by said collector, in the amount above named and conditioned as above provided, which bond shall be in lieu of any former bond or bonds of such brewer in respect to all liabilities accruing after its approval by said collector. (R. S. § 3336; Apr. 29, 1886, c. 64, 24 Stat. 15.)

504. Brewer's books and monthly statement.—Every person who owns or occupies any brewery, or premises used or intended to be used for the purpose of brewing or making such fermented liquors, or who has such premises under his control or superintendence as agent for the owner or occupant, or has in his possession or custody any brewing materials, utensils, or apparatus, used or intended to be used on said premises in the manufacture of beer, lager beer, ale, porter, or other similar fermented liquors, either as owner, agent, or superintendent, shall, from day to day, enter, or cause to be entered, in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, the kind of such malt liquors, the estimated quantity produced in barrels, and the actual quantity sold or removed for consumption or sale in barrels or fractional parts of barrels. He shall also, from day to day, enter, or cause to be entered, in a separate book to be kept by him for that purpose, an account of all materials by him purchased for the purpose of producing such fermented liquors, including grain and malt. And he shall render to the collector, or the proper deputy collector, on or before the 10th day of each month, a true statement, in writing, in duplicate, taken from his books, of the estimated quantity in barrels of such malt liquors brewed, and the actual quantity sold or removed for consumption or sale during the preceding month; and shall verify, or cause to be verified, the said statement, and the facts therein set forth, by oath, to be taken before the collector of the district, or proper deputy collector, according to the form required by law. Said books shall be open at all times for the inspection of any collector, deputy collector, inspector, or revenue agent, who may take memorandums and transcripts therefrom. (R. S. § 3337.)

505. Same; monthly verification of entries.—The entries made in such books shall, on or before the 10th day of each month, be verified by the oath of the person by whom they are made. The said oath shall be written in the book at the end of such entries, and be certified by the officer administering the same, and shall be in form as follows: "I do swear (or affirm) that the foregoing entries were made by me; and that they state truly, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the estimated quantity of the whole amount of such malt liquors brewed, and the actual quantity sold, and the actual quantity removed, from the brewery owned by ———, in the county of ———; and, further, that I have no knowledge of any matter or thing required by law to be stated in said entries which has been omitted therefrom." And the owner, agent, or superintendent aforesaid shall also, in case the original entries made in his book were not made by himself, subjoin thereto the following oath, to be taken in manner as aforesaid: "I do swear (or affirm) that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the foregoing entries fully set forth all the matters therein required by law; and that the same are just and true; and that I have taken all the means in my power to make them so." (R. S. § 3338.)

506. Tax on fermented liquor.—There shall be levied and collected on all beer, lager beer, ale, porter, and other similar fermented liquor, containing one-half of 1 per centum, or more, of alcohol, brewed or manufactured and sold, or removed for consumption or sale, within the United States, by whatever name such liquors may be called, a tax of $6 for every barrel containing not more than thirty-one gallons, and at a like rate for any other quantity or for the fractional parts of a barrel authorized and defined by law, to be collected under the provisions of law. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 608, 40 Stat. 1109.)

507. Estimating and computing tax; payment.—In estimating and computing such tax, the fractional parts of a barrel shall be halves, thirds, quarters, sixths, and eighths; and any fractional part of a barrel containing less than one-eighth shall be accounted one-eighth; more than one-eighth, and not more than one-sixth, shall be accounted one-sixth; more than one-sixth, and not more than one-fourth, shall be accounted one-fourth; more than one-fourth, and not more than one-third, shall be accounted one-third; more than one-third, and not more than one-half, shall be accounted one-half; more than one-half, and not more than one barrel, shall be accounted one barrel; and more than one barrel, and not more than sixty-three gallons, shall be accounted two barrels, or a hogshead. The said tax shall be paid by the owner, agent, or superintendent of the brewery or premises in which such fermented liquors are made, and in the manner and at the time hereinafter specified. (R. S. § 3339; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 608, 40 Stat. 1109.)

508. Materials used not assessed; fraud; evidence.—Nothing contained in section 504 of this chapter shall be so construed as to authorize an assessment upon the quantity of materials used in producing or purchased for the purpose of producing, fermented or malt liquors, nor shall the quantity of materials so used or purchased be evidence, for the purpose of taxation, of the quantity of liquor produced; but the tax on all beer, lager beer, ale, porter, or other similar fermented liquor, brewed or manufactured, and sold or removed for consumption or sale, shall be paid as provided in sections 506 and 507 of this chapter, and not otherwise: Provided, That this section shall not apply to cases of fraud. And nothing in this section shall have the effect to change the rules of law respecting evidence in any prosecution or suit. (May 13, 1876, c. 95, 19 Stat. 53.)

509. Evading tax; false entries; failure to keep proper accounts; refusing to permit inspection; forfeitures and penalty.—Every owner, agent, or superintendent of any brewery, vessels, or utensils used in making fermented liquors, who evades, or attempts to evade, the payment of the tax thereon, or fraudulently neglects or refuses to make true and exact entry and report of the same in the manner required by law, or to do, or cause to be done, any of the things by law required to be done by him, or who intentionally makes false entry in said book or in said statement, or knowingly allows or procures the same to be done, shall forfeit, for every such offense, all the liquors made by him or for him, and all the vessels, utensils, and apparatus used in making the same, and be liable to a penalty of not less than $500 nor more than $1,000, to be recovered with costs of suit, and shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be imprisoned for a term not exceeding one year. And every brewer who neglects to keep books, or refuses to furnish the account and duplicate thereof as provided by law, or refuses to permit the proper officer to examine the books in the manner provided, shall, for every such refusal or neglect, forfeit and pay the sum of $300. (R. S. § 3340; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 10, 20 Stat. 342.)

510. Stamps and permits; supply and sale.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall cause to be prepared, for the payment of such tax, suitable stamps denoting the amount of tax required to be paid on the hogsheads, barrels, and halves, thirds, quarters, sixths, and eighths of a barrel of such fermented liquors (and shall also cause to be prepared suitable permits for the purpose hereinafter mentioned), and shall furnish the same to the collectors of internal revenue, who shall each be required to keep on hand at all times a sufficient supply of permits and a supply of stamps equal in amount to two months' sales thereof, if there be any brewery or brewery warehouse in his district; and such stamps shall be sold, and permits granted and delivered by such collectors, only to the brewers of their district, respectively. Such collectors shall keep an account of the number of permits delivered and of the number and value of the stamps sold by them to each brewer. (R. S. § 3341; July 24, 1897, c. 11, § 9, 30 Stat. 206.)

511. Same; procuring, affixing, and canceling; fraud or neglect.—Every brewer shall obtain, from the collector of the district in which his brewery or brewery warehouse is situated, and not otherwise unless such collector shall fail to furnish the same upon application to him, the proper stamps, and shall affix, upon the spigot hole in the head of every hogshead, barrel, keg, or other receptacle in which any fermented liquor is contained, when sold or removed from such brewery or warehouse (except in case of removal under permit, as hereinafter provided), a stamp denoting the amount of the tax required upon such fermented liquor, which stamp shall be destroyed by driving through the same the faucet through which the liquor is to be withdrawn, or an air faucet of equal size, at the time the vessel is tapped, in case the vessel is tapped through the other spigot hole (of which there shall be but two, one in the head and one in the side), and shall, also, at the time of affixing such stamp cancel the same by writing or imprinting thereon the name of the person, firm, or corporation by whom such liquor was made, or the initial letters thereof, and the date when canceled. Every brewer who refuses or neglects to affix and cancel the stamps required by law in the manner aforesaid, or who affixes a false or fraudulent stamp thereto, or knowingly permits the same to be done, shall pay a penalty of $100 for each barrel or package on which such omission or fraud occurs, and be imprisoned not more than one year. (R. S. § 3342; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 154, 18 Stat. 484.)

512. Selling, removing, or buying liquors without stamp, or with false stamp, or twice-used stamp.—Whenever any brewer, cartman, agent for transportation, or other person, sells, removes, receives, or purchases, or in any way aids in the sale, removal, receipt, or purchase, of any fermented liquor contained in any hogshead, barrel, keg, or other vessel from any brewery or brewery warehouse upon which the stamp, or permit, in case of removal, required by law, has not been affixed, or on which a false or fraudulent stamp, or permit, in case of removal, is affixed, with knowledge that it is such, or on which a stamp, or permit, in case of removal, once canceled, is used a second time, he shall be fined $100 and imprisoned for not more than one year. (R. S. § 3343.)

513. Drawing from container without stamp, or with false stamp, or without defacing.—Whenever any retail dealer, or other person, withdraws or aids in the withdrawal of any fermented liquor from any hogshead, barrel, keg, or other vessel containing the same, without destroying or defacing the stamp affixed thereon, or withdraws or aids in the withdrawal of any fermented liquor from any hogshead, barrel, keg, or other vessel, upon which the proper stamp has not been affixed or on which a false or fraudulent stamp is affixed, he shall be fined $100 and imprisoned not more than one year. (R. S. § 3344.)

514. Removal of lager beer for storage without stamps.—Any brewer may remove or transport, or cause to be removed or transported, from his brewery or other place of manufacture to a depot, warehouse, or other place used exclusively for storage or sale in bulk, and occupied by him, in another part of the same collection district, or in another collection district, but to no other place, malt liquor of his own manufacture, known as lager beer, in quantities of not less than six barrels in one vessel, and malt liquor of his own manufacture, known as ale or porter, or any other malt liquor of his own manufacture not heretofore mentioned, in quantities not less than fifty barrels at a time, without affixing the proper stamps on said vessels of lager beer, ale, porter, or other malt liquor, at the brewery or place of manufacture, under a permit, which shall be granted, upon application, by the collector of the district in which said malt liquor is manufactured, and under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe; and thereafter the manufacturer of said malt liquor shall stamp the same, when it leaves such depot or warehouse, in the same manner and under the same penalties and liabilities as when stamped at the brewery as herein provided. And the collector of the district in which such depot or warehouse is situated shall furnish the manufacturer with the stamps for stamping the same, as if the said malt liquor had been manufactured in his district. And said permit must be affixed to every such vessel or cask so removed, and canceled or destroyed in such manner as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe, and under the same penalties and liabilities as provided herein as to stamps. (R. S. § 3345.)

515. Removal to contiguous industrial distillery without payment of tax.—Taxable fermented liquors may be conveyed without payment of tax from the brewery premises where produced to a contiguous industrial distillery of either class established under section 487 of this title, to be used as distilling material, and the residue from such distillation, containing less than one-half of 1 per centum of alcohol by volume, which is to be used in making beverages, may be manipulated by cooling, flavoring, carbonating, settling, and filtering on the distillery premises or elsewhere.

The removal of the taxable fermented liquor from the brewery to the distillery and the operation of the distillery and removal of the residue therefrom shall be under the supervision of such officer or officers as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall deem proper, and the said commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, is authorized to make such regulations from time to time as may be necessary to give force and effect to this section and to safeguard the revenue. (Oct. 3, 1917, c. 63, § 308, 40 Stat. 311; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 609, 40 Stat. 1109.)

516. Exportation in bond; drawback.—Fermented liquor may be removed from the place of manufacture, or storage, for export to a foreign country, without payment of tax, in such packages and under such regulations, and upon the giving of such notices, entries, bonds, and other security, as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury may from time to time prescribe; and no drawback of tax shall be allowed on fermented liquor exported. (June 18, 1890, c. 432, 26 Stat. 162.)

517. Making, selling, or using false stamps or dies; removing stamps, and using removed stamps.—Every person who makes, sells, or uses any false or counterfeit stamp or permit, or die for printing or making stamps or permits, which is in imitation of or purports to be a lawful stamp, permit, or die of the kind before mentioned in this chapter, or who procures the same to be done, and every person who shall remove, or cause to be removed, from any cask or package of fermented liquors, any stamp denoting the tax thereon, with intent to reuse such stamp, or who, with intent to defraud the revenue, knowingly uses, or permits to be used, any stamp removed from another cask or package, or receives, buys, sells, gives away, or has in his possession, any stamp so removed, or makes any fraudulent use of any stamp for fermented liquors, shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, and imprisoned not less than six months nor more than three years. (R. S. § 3346; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 5, 20 Stat. 340.)

518. Sour malt liquors, removable in distinctive packages, without stamps.—When fermented liquor has become sour or damaged, so as to be incapable of use as such, brewers may sell the same for manufacturing purposes, and may remove the same to places where it may be used for such purposes, in casks, or other vessels, unlike those ordinarily used for fermented liquors, containing respectively not less than one barrel each, and having the nature of their contents marked upon them, without affixing thereon the permit, stamp or stamps required. (R. S. § 3347.)

519. Retailing at brewery, affixing stamps, and keeping account.—Every brewer who sells fermented liquor at retail at the brewery or other place where the same is made, shall affix and cancel the proper stamps upon the hogsheads, barrels, kegs, or other vessels in which the same is contained, and shall keep an account of the quantity so sold by him, and of the number and size of the hogsheads, barrels, kegs, or other vessels in which the same has been contained, and shall make a report thereof, verified by oath, monthly to the collector. (R. S. § 3348.)

520. Marking name of manufacturer on packages; removing marks.—Every brewer shall, by branding, mark or cause to be marked upon every hogshead, barrel, keg, or other vessel containing the fermented liquor made by him, before it is sold or removed from the brewery or brewery warehouse, or other place of manufacture, the name of the person, firm, or corporation by whom such liquor was manufactured, and the place of manufacture; and every person other than the owner thereof, or his agent authorized so to do, who intentionally removes or defaces such marks therefrom, shall be liable to a penalty of $50 for each cask or other vessel from which the mark is so removed or defaced. When a brewer purchases fermented liquor finished and ready for sale from another brewer, in order to supply the customers of such purchaser, the purchaser may, upon written notice to the collector of his intention so to do, and under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe, furnish his own vessels, branded with his name and the place where his brewery is situated, to be filled with the fermented liquor so purchased, and to be so removed; the proper stamps to be affixed and canceled, as aforesaid, by the manufacturer before removal. (R. S. § 3349.)

521. Permit for business at another place.—Whenever, in the opinion of the collector of any district, it becomes requisite or proper, by reason of an accident to any brewery therein, by fire or flood, or of such brewery undergoing repairs, or of other circumstances, that the brewer carrying on the same shall be permitted to conduct his business wholly or in part at some other place within such district or an adjoining district for a temporary period, it shall be lawful for such collector, under such regulations and subject to such limitation of time as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe, to issue a permit to such brewer, authorizing him to conduct his business wholly or in part, according to the circumstances, at such other place, for a period to be stated in such permit; and such brewer shall not be required to pay another special tax for the purpose. (R. S. § 3350.)

522. Unfermented worts sold to other brewers.—When malt liquor or tun liquor, in the first stages of fermentation, known as unfermented worts, of whatever kind, is sold by one brewer to another for the purpose of producing fermentation or enlivening old or stale ale, porter, lager beer, or other fermented liquors, it shall not be liable to a tax to be paid by the seller thereof, but the tax on the same shall be paid by the purchaser thereof, when the same, having been mixed with the old or stale beer, is sold by him as provided by law, and such sale or transfer shall be subject to such restrictions and regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe. (R. S. § 3351.)

523. Possession of liquor after removal from warehouse, when tax not paid; forfeiture.—The ownership or possession by any person of any fermented liquor after its sale or removal from the brewery or warehouse, or other place where it was made, upon which the tax required has not been paid, shall render such liquor liable to seizure wherever found, and to forfeiture, removal under said permits excepted. And the absence of the proper stamps from any hogshead, barrel, keg, or other vessel containing fermented liquor, after its sale or removal from the brewery where it was made, or warehouse as aforesaid, shall be notice to all persons that the tax has not been paid thereon, and shall be prima-facie evidence of the nonpayment thereof. (R. S. § 3352.)

524. Removal or defacement of stamps by others than owner.—Every person, other than the purchaser or owner of any fermented liquor, or person acting on his behalf, or as his agent, who intentionally removes or defaces the stamp or permit affixed upon the hogshead, barrel, keg, or other vessel, in which the same is contained, shall be liable to a fine of $50 for each such vessel from which the stamp or permit is so removed or defaced, and to render compensation to such purchaser or owner for all damages sustained by him therefrom. (R. S. § 3353.)

525. Withdrawing from unstamped containers for bottling or bottling on brewery premises; withdrawal by pipe line; regulations; penalties; forfeitures.—Every person who withdraws any fermented liquor from any hogshead, barrel, keg, or other vessel upon which the proper stamp has not been affixed for the purpose of bottling the same, or who carries on or attempts to carry on the business of bottling fermented liquor in any brewery or other place in which fermented liquor is made, or upon any premises having communication with such brewery, or any warehouse, shall be liable to a fine of $500, and the property used in such bottling or business shall be liable to forfeiture. This section shall not be construed to prevent the withdrawal and transfer of unfermented, partially fermented, or fermented liquors from any of the vats in any brewery by way of a pipe line or other conduit to another building or place for the sole purpose of bottling the same, such pipe line or conduit to be constructed and operated in such manner and with such cisterns, vats, tanks, valves, cocks, faucets, and gauges, or other utensils or apparatus, either on the premises of the brewery or the bottling house, and with such changes of or additions thereto, and such locks, seals, or other fastenings, and under such rules and regulations as shall be from time to time prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, and all locks and seals prescribed shall be provided by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue at the expense of the United States. The tax imposed in section 506 of this title shall be paid on all fermented liquor removed from a brewery to a bottling house by means of a pipe or conduit, at the time of such removal, by the cancellation and defacement, by the collector of the district or his deputy, in the presence of the brewer, of the number of stamps denoting the tax on the fermented liquor thus removed. The stamps thus canceled and defaced shall be disposed of and accounted for in the manner directed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. And any violation of the rules and regulations hereafter prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, in pursuance of these provisions, shall be subject to the penalties above provided by this section. Every owner, agent, or superintendent of any brewery or bottling house who removes, or connives at the removal of, any fermented liquor through a pipe line or conduit, without payment of the tax thereon, or who attempts in any manner to defraud the revenue as above, shall forfeit all the liquors made by and for him, and all the vessels, utensils, and apparatus used in making the same. (R. S. § 3354; June 18, 1890, c. 431, 26 Stat. 161; Sept. 8, 1916, c. 463, § 406, 39 Stat. 789; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 627, 40 Stat. 1115.)

A. OLEOMARGARINE

Section 541. Oleomargarine; definition.—For the purposes of this chapter certain manufactured substances, certain extracts, and certain mixtures and compounds, including such mixtures and compounds with butter, shall be known and designated as "oleomargarine," namely: All substances known prior to August 2, 1886, as oleomargarine, oleo, oleomargarine oil, butterine, lardine, suine, and neutral; all mixtures and compounds of oleomargarine, oleo, oleomargarine oil, butterine, lardine, suine, and neutral; all lard extracts and tallow extracts; and all mixtures and compounds of tallow, beef fat, suet, lard, lard oil, vegetable oil annotto, and other coloring matter, intestinal fat, and offal fat made in imitation or semblance of butter, or when so made, calculated or intended to be sold as butter or for butter. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 2, 24 Stat. 209.)

542. Same; manufacturer's statement of business, inventories, bonds, books, returns.—Every manufacturer of oleomargarine shall file with the collector of internal revenue of the district in which his manufactory is located such notices, inventories, and bonds, shall keep such books and render such returns of materials and products, shall put up such signs and affix such number of his factory, and conduct his business under such surveillance of officers and agents as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may, by regulation, require. But the bond required of such manufacturer shall be with sureties satisfactory to the collector of internal revenue, and in a penal sum of not less than $5,000; and the sum of said bond may be increased from time to time, and additional sureties required at the discretion of the collector, or under instructions of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 5, 24 Stat. 210.)

543. Same; packing; retailing.—All oleomargarine shall be packed by the manufacturer thereof in firkins, tubs, or other wooden or paper packages not before used for that purpose, each containing not less than ten pounds, and marked, stamped, and branded as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe; and all sales made by the manufacturers of oleomargarine, and wholesale dealers in oleomargarine shall be in original stamped packages.

Retail dealers in oleomargarine must sell only from original stamped packages, in quantities not exceeding ten pounds, and shall pack the oleomargarine sold by them in suitable wooden or paper packages, which shall be marked and branded as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 6, 24 Stat. 210; Oct. 1, 1918, c. 178, 40 Stat. 1008.)

544. Same; penalty for violations of law.—Every person who knowingly sells or offers for sale, or delivers or offers to deliver, any oleomargarine in any other form than in new wooden or paper packages as described in section 543 of this title, or who packs in any package any oleomargarine in any manner contrary to law, or who falsely brands any packages or affixes a stamp on any package denoting a less amount of tax than that required by law, shall be fined for each offense not more than $1,000, and be imprisoned not more than two years. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 6, 24 Stat. 210; Oct. 1, 1918, c. 178, 40 Stat. 1008.)

545. Same; label and notice on packages.—Every manufacturer of oleomargarine shall securely affix, by pasting, on each package containing oleomargine manufactured by him, a label on which shall be printed, besides the number of the manufactory and the district and State in which it is situated, these words:

"Notice.—The manufacturer of the oleomargarine herein contained has complied with all the requirements of law. Every person is cautioned not to use either this package again or the stamp thereon again, nor to remove the contents of this package without destroying said stamp, under the penalty provided by law in such cases."

Every manufacturer of oleomargarine who neglects to affix such label to any package containing oleomargarine made by him, or sold or offered for sale by or for him, and every person who removes any such label so affixed from any such package, shall be fined $50 for each package in respect to which such offense is committed. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 7, 24 Stat. 210.)

546. Same; manufacturer's tax.—Upon oleomargarine which shall be manufactured and sold, or removed for consumption or use, there shall be assessed and collected a tax of 10 cents per pound, to be paid by the manufacturer thereof; and any fractional part of a pound in a package shall be taxed as a pound. When oleomargarine is free from artificial coloration that causes it to look like butter of any shade of yellow said tax shall be one-fourth of 1 cent per pound. The tax levied by this section shall be represented by coupon stamps; and the provisions of laws governing the engraving, issue, sale, accountability, effacement, and destruction of stamps relating to tobacco and snuff, as far as applicable, are hereby made to apply to stamps provided for by this section. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 8, 24 Stat. 210; May 9, 1902, c. 784, § 3, 32 Stat. 194.)

547. Same; assessment of tax when sold without stamps.—Whenever any manufacturer of oleomargarine sells, or removes for sale or consumption, any oleomargarine upon which the tax is required to be paid by stamps, without the use of the proper stamps, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, within a period of not more than two years after such sale or removal, upon satisfactory proof, to estimate the amount of tax which has been omitted to be paid, and to make an assessment therefor and certify the same to the collector. The tax so assessed shall be in addition to the penalties imposed by law for such sale or removal. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 9, 24 Stat. 211.)

548. Wholesale dealers; books and returns; penalty.—Wholesale dealers in oleomargarine shall keep such books and render such returns in relation thereto as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may, by regulation, require; and such books shall be open at all times to the inspection of any internal-revenue officer or agent. Any person who willfully violates any of the provisions of this section shall for each such offense be fined not less than $50 and not exceeding $500, and imprisoned not less than thirty days nor more than six months. (May 9, 1902, c. 784, § 6, 32 Stat. 197.)

549. Imported oleomargarine.—All oleomargarine imported from foreign countries shall, in addition to any import duty imposed on the same, pay an internal-revenue tax of 15 cents per pound, such tax to be represented by coupon stamps as in the case of oleomargarine manufactured in the United States. The stamps shall be affixed and canceled by the owner or importer of the oleomargarine while it is in the custody of the proper customhouse officers; and the oleomargarine shall not pass out of the custody of said officers until the stamps have been so affixed and canceled, but shall be put up in wooden packages, each containing not less than ten pounds, as prescribed in this chapter for oleomargarine manufactured in the United States, before the stamps are affixed; and the owner or importer of such oleomargarine shall be liable to all the penal provisions of this chapter prescribed for manufacturers of oleomargarine manufactured in the United States. Whenever it is necessary to take any oleomargarine so imported to any place other than the public stores of the United States for the purpose of affixing and canceling such stamps, the collector of customs of the port where such oleomargarine is entered shall designate a bonded warehouse to which it shall be taken, under the control of such customs officer as such collector may direct; and every officer of customs who permits any such oleomargarine to pass out of his custody or control without compliance by the owner or importer thereof with the provisions of this section relating thereto, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than six months nor more than three years. Every person who sells or offers for sale any imported oleomargarine, or oleomargarine purporting or claimed to have been imported, not put up in packages and stamped as provided by this chapter, shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 10, 24 Stat. 211.)

550. Purchasing oleomargarine when not branded or stamped.—Every person who knowingly purchases or receives for sale any oleomargarine which has not been branded or stamped according to law shall be liable to a penalty of $50 for each such offense. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 11, 24 Stat. 211.)

551. Purchasing from manufacturer who has not paid tax.—Every person who knowingly purchases or receives for sale any oleomargarine from any manufacturer who has not paid the special tax shall be liable for each offense to a penalty of $100, and to a forfeiture of all articles so purchased or received, or of the full value thereof. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 12, 24 Stat. 211.)

552. Destruction of stamps on emptied packages.—Whenever any stamped package containing oleomargarine is emptied, it shall be the duty of the person in whose hands the same is to destroy utterly the stamps thereon; and any person who willfully neglects or refuses so to do shall for each such offense be fined not exceeding $50, and imprisoned not less than ten days nor more than six months. And any person who fraudulently gives away or accepts from another, or who sells, buys, or uses for packing oleomargarine, any such stamped package, shall for each such offense be fined not exceeding $100, and be imprisoned not more than one year. Any revenue officer may destroy any emptied oleomargarine package upon which the tax-paid stamp is found. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 13, 24 Stat. 211.)

553. Oleomargarine; forfeiture; removal of stamp.—All packages of oleomargarine subject to tax under this chapter, that shall be found without stamps or marks as herein provided, and all oleomargarine intended for human consumption which contains ingredients adjudged, as hereinbefore provided, to be deleterious to the public health, shall be forfeited to the United States. Any person who shall willfully remove or deface the stamps, marks, or brands on package containing oleomargarine taxed as provided herein shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $2,000, and by imprisonment for not less than thirty days nor more than six months. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 15, 24 Stat. 212.)

554. Same; exportation; regulations.—Oleomargarine may be removed from the place of manufacture for export to a foreign country without payment of tax or affixing stamps thereto, under such regulations and the filing of such bonds and other security as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe. Every person who shall export oleomargarine shall brand upon every tub, firkin, or other package containing such article the word "oleomargarine," in plain Roman letters not less than one-half inch square. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 16, 24 Stat. 212.)

555. Same; fraud by manufacturer.—Whenever any person engaged in carrying on the business of manufacturing oleomargarine defrauds, or attempts to defraud, the United States of the tax on the oleomargarine produced by him, or any part thereof, he shall forfeit the factory and manufacturing apparatus used by him, and all oleomargarine and all raw material for the production of oleomargarine found in the factory and on the factory premises, and shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than three years. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 17, 24 Stat. 212.)

556. Same; failure to comply with law.—If any manufacturer of oleomargarine, any dealer therein or any importer or exporter thereof shall knowingly or willfully omit, neglect, or refuse to do, or cause to be done, any of the things required by law in the carrying on or conducting of his business, or shall do anything by this chapter or section 207 of this title prohibited, if there be no specific penalty or punishment imposed by any other section of this chapter for the neglecting, omitting, or refusing to do, or for the doing or causing to be done, the thing required or prohibited, he shall pay a penalty of $1,000; and if the person so offending be the manufacturer of or a wholesale dealer in oleomargarine, all the oleomargarine owned by him, or in which he has any interest as owner, shall be forfeited to the United States. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 18, 24 Stat. 212.)

557. Same; regulations.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may make all needful regulations for the carrying into effect the provisions of this subchapter. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 20, 24 Stat. 212.)

558. Same; recovery of fines.—All fines, penalties, and forfeitures imposed by this chapter and sections 194 and 207 of this title may be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 19, 24 Stat. 212.)

B. ADULTERATED AND PROCESS OR RENOVATED BUTTER

571. Butter, adulterated butter, and process or renovated butter; definition.—For the purpose of this chapter, the word butter shall be understood to mean the food product usually known as butter, and which is made exclusively from milk or cream, or both, with or without common salt, and with or without additional coloring matter; "adulterated butter" is defined to mean a grade of butter produced by mixing, reworking, rechurning in milk or cream, refining, or in any way producing a uniform, purified, or improved product from different lots or parcels of melted or unmelted butter or butterfat, in which any acid, alkali, chemical, or any substance whatever is introduced or used for the purpose or with the effect of deodorizing or removing therefrom rancidity, or any butter or butterfat with which there is mixed any substance foreign to butter as herein defined, with intent or effect of cheapening in cost the product or any butter in the manufacture or manipulation of which any process or material is used with intent or effect of causing the absorption of abnormal quantities of water, milk, or cream; "process butter" or "renovated butter" is defined to mean butter which has been subjected to any process by which it is melted, clarified or refined and made to resemble genuine butter, always excepting "adulterated butter" as defined by this section. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 1, 24 Stat. 209; May 9, 1902, c. 784, § 4, 32 Stat. 194.)

572. Same; manufacturer's statement of business, inventories, books, returns, and signs.—Every manufacturer of process or renovated butter or adulterated butter shall file with the collector of internal revenue of the district in which his manufactory is located such notices, inventories, and bonds, shall keep such books and render such returns of material and products, shall put up such signs and affix such number of his factory, and conduct his business under such surveillance of officers and agents as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may by regulation require. But the bond required of such manufacturer shall be with sureties satisfactory to the collector of internal revenue, and in a penal sum of not less than $500; and the sum of said bond may be increased from time to time and additional sureties required at the discretion of the collector or under instructions of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. (May 9, 1902, c. 784, § 4, 32 Stat. 194.)

573. Adulterated butter; packing and sale.—All adulterated butter shall be packed by the manufacturer thereof in firkins, tubs, or other wooden packages not before used for that purpose, each containing not less than ten pounds, and marked, stamped, and branded as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe; and all sales made by manufacturers of adulterated butter shall be in original stamped packages.

Dealers in adulterated butter must sell only original or from original stamped packages, and when such original stamped packages are broken the adulterated butter sold from same shall be placed in suitable wooden or paper packages, which shall be marked and branded as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe. (May 9, 1902, c. 784, § 4, 32 Stat. 194.)

574. Same; penalties for violations of law.—Every person who knowingly sells or offers for sale, or delivers or offers to deliver, any adulterated butter in any other form than in new wooden or paper packages as described in section 573 of this title or who packs in any package any adulterated butter in any manner contrary to law or who falsely brands any package or affixes a stamp on any package denoting a less amount of tax than that required by law shall be fined for each offense not more than $1,000 and be imprisoned not more than two years. (May 9, 1902, c. 784, § 4, 32 Stat. 194.)

575. Same; label and notice on package; penalty.—Every manufacturer of adulterated butter shall securely affix by pasting, on each package containing adulterated butter manufactured by him a label on which shall be printed, besides the number of the manufactory and the district and State in which it is situated, these words: "Notice.—That the manufacturer of the adulterated butter herein contained has complied with all the requirements of law. Every person is cautioned not to use either this package again or the stamp thereon, nor to remove the contents of this package without destroying said stamp, under the penalty provided by law in such cases." Every manufacturer of adulterated butter who neglects to affix such label to any package containing adulterated butter made by him, or sold or offered for sale for or by him, and every person who removes any such label so affixed from any such package shall be fined $50 for each package in respect to which such offense is committed. (May 9, 1902, c. 784, § 4, 32 Stat. 194.)

576. Tax on adulterated or renovated butter; stamps.—Upon adulterated butter, when manufactured or sold or removed for consumption or use, there shall be assessed and collected a tax of 10 cents per pound, to be paid by the manufacturer thereof, and any fractional part of a pound shall be taxed as a pound, and that upon process or renovated butter, when manufactured or sold or removed for consumption or use, there shall be assessed and collected a tax of one-fourth of 1 cent per pound, to be paid by the manufacturer thereof, and any fractional part of a pound shall be taxed as a pound. The tax to be levied by this section shall be represented by coupon stamps, and the provisions of laws governing engraving, issuing, sale, accountability, effacement, and destruction of stamps relating to tobacco and snuff, as far as applicable, are hereby made to apply to the stamps provided by this section. (May 9, 1902, c. 784, § 4, 32 Stat. 194.)

577. Law as to oleomargarine applicable to adulterated butter.—The provisions of sections 547, 549 to 558, and 582 of this title shall apply to manufacturers of "adulterated butter" to an extent necessary to enforce the marking, branding, identification, and regulation of the exportation and importation of adulterated butter. (May 9, 1902, c. 784, § 4, 32 Stat. 194.)

578. Inspection of process or renovated butter; marks.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized and required to cause a rigid sanitary inspection to be made, at such times as he may deem proper or necessary, of all factories and storehouses where process or renovated butter is manufactured, packed, or prepared for market, and of the products thereof and materials going into the manufacture of the same. All process or renovated butter and the packages containing the same shall be marked with the words "Renovated butter" or "Process butter" and by such other marks, labels, or brands and in such manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture, and no process or renovated butter shall be shipped or transported from its place of manufacture into any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or to any foreign country, until it has been marked as provided in this section. The Secretary of Agriculture shall make all needful regulations for carrying this section into effect, and shall cause to be ascertained and reported from time to time the quantity and quality of process or renovated butter manufactured, and the character and the condition of the material from which it is made. And he shall also have power to ascertain whether or not materials used in the manufacture of said process or renovated butter are deleterious to health or unwholesome in the finished product, and in case such deleterious or unwholesome materials are found to be used in product intended for exportation or shipment into other States or in course of exportation or shipment he shall have power to confiscate the same. Any person, firm, or corporation violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $500 or by imprisonment not less than one month nor more than six months, or by both said punishments, in the discretion of the court. (May 9, 1902, c. 784, § 5, 32 Stat. 196.)

579. Law as to inspection of live cattle and meat applicable to process or renovated butter.—All parts of sections 71 to 94, 103 to 105 of Title 21 and section 181 of Title 19 which are applicable to the subjects and purposes described in section 578 of this title shall apply to process or renovated butter. (May 9, 1902, c. 784, § 5, 32 Stat. 196.)

580. Sanitary regulation of renovated butter factories.—The sanitary provisions for slaughtering, meat canning, or similar establishments, as set forth in sections 71 to 93 of Title 21, are extended to cover renovated butter factories as defined in sections 571 to 578 of this title, under such regulations as the Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe. (Aug. 10, 1912, c. 284, 37 Stat. 273.)

581. Wholesale dealers; books and returns.—Wholesale dealers in process, renovated, or adulterated butter shall keep such books and render such returns in relation thereto as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may, by regulation, require; and such books shall be open at all times to the inspection of any internal-revenue officer or agent. And any person who willfully violates any of the provisions of this section shall for each such offense be fined not less than $50 and not exceeding $500, and imprisoned not less than thirty days nor more than six months. (May 9, 1902, c. 784, § 6, 32 Stat. 197.)

582. Chemists and microscopists; salary; decisions.—There shall be in the office of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue an analytical chemist and a microscopist, who shall each be appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue may, whenever in his judgment the necessities of the service so require, employ chemists and microscopists, to be paid such compensation as he may deem proper, not exceeding in the aggregate any appropriation made for that purpose. And such commissioner is authorized to decide what substances, extracts, mixtures, or compounds which may be submitted for his inspection in contested cases are to be taxed under sections 541 to 547 and 549 to 556 of this title, and his decision in matters of taxation under such sections shall be final. The commissioner may also decide whether any substance made in imitation or semblance of butter, and intended for human consumption, contains ingredients deleterious to the public health; but in case of doubt or contest his decisions in this class of cases may be appealed from to a board constituted for the purpose, and composed of the Surgeon General of the Army, the Surgeon General of the Navy, and the Secretary of Agriculture; and the decisions of this board shall be final in the premises. (Aug. 2, 1886, c. 840, § 14, 24 Stat. 212; Feb. 9, 1889, c. 122, 25 Stat. 659; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, 43 Stat. 770.)

Chapter 8.—FILLED CHEESE.

Sec.
601. Cheese defined.
602. Filled cheese; definition.
603. Same; conduct of business by manufacturer; bond; penalties.
604. Same; packing and retailing.
605. Same; penalty for violations of law.
606. Same; dealers to display signs; penalty.
607. Same; label and notice on packages.
608. Same; tax upon manufacturers.
609. Same; assessment of tax on cheese sold without stamps.
610. Imported cheese; imposition of duty and tax.
611. Purchasing cheese not branded or stamped; penalty.
612. Purchasing from manufacturer who has not paid tax; penalty.
613. Destruction of stamps on emptied packages.
614. Scientific tests of ingredients.
615. Forfeiture of unstamped or deleterious cheese.
616. Recovery of fines.
617. Regulations.

Section 601. Cheese defined.—For the purposes of this chapter and sections 196 and 209 of this title, the word "cheese" shall be understood to mean the food product known as cheese, and which is made from milk or cream and without the addition of butter, or any animal, vegetable, or other oils or fats foreign to such milk or cream, with or without additional coloring matter. (June 6, 1896, c. 337, § 1, 29 Stat. 253.)

602. Filled cheese; definition.—For the purposes of this chapter and sections 196 and 209 of this title certain substances and compounds shall be known and designated as "filled cheese," namely: All substances made of milk or skimmed milk, with the admixture of butter, animal oils or fats, vegetable or any other oils, or compounds foreign to such milk, and made in imitation or semblance of cheese. (June 6, 1896, c. 337, § 2, 29 Stat. 253.)

603. Same; conduct of business by manufacturer; bond; penalties.—Every manufacturer of filled cheese shall file with the collector of internal revenue of the district in which his manufactory is located such notices, inventories, and bonds, shall keep such books and render such returns of materials and products, shall put up such signs and affix such number to his factory, and conduct his business under such surveillance of officers and agents as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may by regulation require. But the bond required of such manufacturer shall be with sureties satisfactory to the collector of internal revenue, and in a penal sum of not less than $5,000; and the amount of said bond may be increased from time to time, and additional sureties required, at the discretion of the collector or under instructions of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Any manufacturer of filled cheese who fails to comply with the provisions of this section or with the regulations herein authorized, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $1,000. (June 6, 1896, c. 337, § 5, 29 Stat. 254.)

604. Same; packing and retailing.—Filled cheese shall be packed by the manufacturers in wooden packages only, not before used for that purpose, and marked, stamped, and branded with the words "filled cheese" in black-faced letters not less than two inches in length, in a circle in the center of the top and bottom of the cheese; and in black-faced letters of not less than two inches in length in line from the top to the bottom of the cheese, on the side in four places equidistant from each other; and the package containing such cheese shall be marked in the same manner, and in the same number of places, and in the same description of letters as above provided for the marking of the cheese; and all sales or consignments made by manufacturers of filled cheese to wholesale dealers in filled cheese or to exporters of filled cheese shall be in original stamped packages. Retail dealers in filled cheese shall sell only from original stamped packages, and shall pack the filled cheese when sold in suitable wooden or paper packages, which shall be marked and branded in accordance with rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. (June 6, 1896, c. 337, § 6, 29 Stat. 254.)

605. Same; penalty for violations of law.—Every person who knowingly sells or offers to sell or delivers or offers to deliver filled cheese in any other form than in new wooden or paper packages marked and branded as provided in the preceding section and as described therein or who packs in any package or packages filled cheese in any manner contrary to law or who falsely brands any package or affixes a stamp on any package denoting a less amount of tax than that required by law shall upon conviction thereof be fined for each and every offense not less than $50 and not more than $500 or be imprisoned not less than thirty days nor more than one year. (June 6, 1896, c. 337, § 6, 29 Stat. 254.)

606. Same; dealers to display signs; penalty.—All retail and wholesale dealers in filled cheese shall display in a conspicuous place in his or their salesroom a sign bearing the words "Filled cheese sold here" in black-faced letters not less than six inches in length, upon a white ground, with the name and number of the revenue district in which his or their business is conducted; and any wholesale or retail dealer in filled cheese who fails or neglects to comply with the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall on conviction thereof be fined for each and every offense not less than $50 and not more than $200. (June 6, 1896, c. 337, § 7, 29 Stat. 255.)

607. Same; label and notice on packages.—Every manufacturer of filled cheese shall securely affix, by pasting on each package containing filled cheese manufactured by him, a label on which shall be printed, besides the number of the manufactory and the district and State in which it is situated, these words:

"Notice.—The manufacturer of the filled cheese herein contained has complied with all the requirements of the law. Every person is cautioned not to use either this package again or the stamp thereon again, nor to remove the contents of this package without destroying said stamp, under the penalty provided by law in such cases."

Every manufacturer of filled cheese who neglects to affix such label to any package containing filled cheese made by him or sold or offered for sale by or for him, and every person who removes any such label so affixed from any such package, shall be fined $50 for each package in respect to which such offense is committed. (June 6, 1896, c. 337, § 8, 29 Stat. 255.)

608. Same; tax upon manufacturers.—Upon all filled cheese which shall be manufactured there shall be assessed and collected a tax of 1 cent per pound, to be paid by the manufacturer thereof; and any fractional part of a pound in a package shall be taxed as a pound. The tax levied by this section shall be represented by coupon stamps; and the provisions of laws governing the engraving, issue, sale, accountability, effacement, and destruction of stamps relating to tobacco and snuff, as far as applicable, are made to apply to stamps provided for by this section. (June 6, 1896, c. 337, § 9, 29 Stat. 255.)

609. Same; assessment of tax on cheese sold without stamps.—Whenever any manufacturer of filled cheese sells or removes for sale or consumption any filled cheese upon which the tax is required to be paid by stamps, without paying such tax, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, within a period of not more than two years after such sale or removal, upon satisfactory proof, to estimate the amount of tax which has been omitted to be paid and to make an assessment therefor and certify the same to the collector. The tax so assessed shall be in addition to the penalties imposed by law for such sale or removal. (June 6, 1896, c. 337, § 10, 29 Stat. 255.)

610. Imported cheese; imposition of duty and tax.—All filled cheese as herein defined imported from foreign countries shall, in addition to any import duty imposed on the same, pay an internal-revenue tax of 8 cents per pound, such tax to be represented by coupon stamps; and such imported filled cheese and the packages containing the same shall be stamped, marked, and branded, as in the case of filled cheese manufactured in the United States. (June 6, 1896, c. 337, § 11, 29 Stat. 255.)

611. Purchasing cheese not branded or stamped; penalty.—Any person who knowingly purchases or receives for sale any filled cheese which has not been branded or stamped according to law, or which is contained in packages not branded or marked according to law, shall be liable to a penalty of $50 for each such offense. (June 6, 1896, c. 337, § 12, 29 Stat. 256.)

612. Purchasing from manufacturer who has not paid tax; penalty.—Every person who knowingly purchases or receives for sale any filled cheese from any manufacturer or importer who has not paid the special tax provided for under section 209 of this title shall be liable, for each offense, to a penalty of $100 and to a forfeiture of all articles so purchased or received, or of the full value thereof. (June 6, 1896, c. 337, § 13, 29 Stat. 256.)

613. Destruction of stamps on emptied packages.—Whenever any stamped package containing filled cheese is emptied it shall be the duty of the person in whose hands the same is to destroy the stamps thereon; and any person who willfully neglects or refuses so to do shall, for each such offense, be fined not exceeding $50 or imprisoned not less than ten days nor more than six months. (June 6, 1896, c. 337, § 14, 29 Stat. 256.)

614. Scientific tests of ingredients.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue is authorized to have applied scientific tests, and to decide whether any substances used in the manufacture of filled cheese contain ingredients deleterious to health. But in case of doubt or contest his decision in this class of cases may be appealed from to a board constituted for the purpose, and composed of the Surgeon General of the Army, the Surgeon General of the Navy, and the Secretary of Agriculture, and the decision of this board shall be final in the premises. (June 6, 1896, c. 337, § 15, 29 Stat. 256.)

615. Forfeiture of unstamped or deleterious cheese.—All packages of filled cheese subject to tax under this chapter that shall be found without stamps or marks as herein provided, and all filled cheese intended for human consumption which contains ingredients adjudged as provided hereinbefore to be deleterious to the public health, shall be forfeited to the United States. (June 6, 1896, c. 337, § 16, 29 Stat. 256.)

616. Recovery of fines.—All fines, penalties, and forfeitures imposed by this chapter and sections 196 and 209 of this title may be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction. (June 6, 1896, c. 337, § 17, 29 Stat. 256.)

617. Regulations.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall make all needful regulations for the carrying into effect, the provisions of this chapter and of section 209 of this title. (June 6, 1896, c. 337, § 18, 29 Stat. 256.)

Chapter 9.—MIXED FLOUR.

Sec.
631. Mixed flour; definition.
632. Same; branding packages; inserting card showing contents.
633. Sale and consignments in unused packages.
634. Same; label and notice on packages.
635. Same; penalty for violation of law.
636. Tax.
637. Same; repacked flour; label; penalty.
638. Assessment of tax on flour sold without stamps.
639. Imported mixed flour; imposition of duty and tax.
640. Purchasing mixed flour from manufacturer who has not paid tax; penalty.
641. Exportation under regulations; marking packages.
642. Destruction of stamps on emptied packages.
643. Penalty for second offense.
644. Recovery of fines.
645. Regulations; employment of additional clerks and agents.

Section 631. Mixed flour; definition.—For the purposes of this chapter and section 210 of this title, the words "mixed flour" shall be taken and construed to mean the food product resulting from the grinding or mixing together of wheat, or wheat flour, as the principal constituent in quantity, with any other grain, or the product of any other grain, or other material, except such material, and not the product of any grain, as is commonly used for baking purposes. When the product resulting from the grinding or mixing together of wheat or wheat flour with any other grain, or the product of any other grain, of which wheat or wheat flour is not the principal constituent as specified in the foregoing definition, is intended for sale, or is sold, or offered for sale as wheat flour, such product shall be held to be mixed flour within the meaning of this chapter and said section 210. (June 13, 1898, c. 448, § 35, 30 Stat. 467; Mar. 2, 1901, c. 806, § 13, 31 Stat. 949; Apr. 12, 1902, c. 500, § 9, 32 Stat. 99.)

632. Same; branding packages; inserting card showing contents.—Every person, firm, or corporation making, packing, or repacking mixed flour shall plainly mark or brand each package containing the same with the words "mixed flour" in plain black letters not less than two inches in length, together with the true weight of such package, the names of the ingredients composing the same, the name of the maker or packer, and the place where made or packed. In addition thereto, such maker or packer shall place in each package a card not smaller than two inches in width by three inches in length, upon which shall be printed the words "mixed flour," together with the names of the ingredients composing the same, and the name of the maker or packer, and the place where made or packed. Any person, firm, or corporation making, packing, or repacking mixed flour hereunder, failing to comply with the provisions of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than $250 and not more than $500, or be imprisoned not less than sixty days nor more than one year. (June 13, 1898, c. 448, § 37, 30 Stat. 467.)

633. Sale and consignments in unused packages.—All sales and consignments of mixed flour shall be in packages not before used for that purpose. (June 13, 1898, c. 448, § 38, 30 Stat. 468.)

634. Same; label and notice on packages.—In addition to the branding and marking of mixed flour as provided in this chapter, there shall be affixed to the packages containing the same a label in the following words:

"Notice.—The (manufacturer or packer, as the case may be) of the mixed flour herein contained has complied with all the requirements of law. Every person is cautioned not to use this package or label again or to remove the contents without destroying the revenue stamp thereon, under the penalty prescribed by law in such cases."

Every person, firm, or corporation failing or neglecting to affix such label to any package containing mixed flour made or packed by him or them, or who removes from any such package any label so affixed, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than $50 for each label so removed. (June 13, 1898, c. 448, § 39, 30 Stat. 468.)

635. Same; penalty for violation of law.—Every person, firm, or corporation knowingly selling or offering for sale any mixed flour in other than marked and branded packages, as required by the provisions of this chapter relating to the manufacture and sale of mixed flour, or who packs in any package or packages any mixed flour in any manner contrary to the provisions relating to the manufacture and sale of mixed flour of this chapter, or who falsely marks or brands any package or packages containing mixed flour, or unlawfully removes such marks or brands, shall, for each such offense, be punished by a fine of not less than $250 and not more than $500, or by imprisonment not less than thirty days nor more than one year. (June 13, 1898, c. 448, § 38, 30 Stat. 468.)

636. Tax.—Barrels or other packages in which mixed flour may be packed shall contain not to exceed one hundred and ninety-six pounds; and upon the manufacture and sale of mixed flour there shall be levied a tax of 4 cents per barrel or other package containing one hundred and ninety-six pounds or more than ninety-eight pounds; 2 cents on every half barrel or other package containing ninety-eight pounds or more than forty-nine pounds; 1 cent on every quarter barrel or other package containing forty-nine pounds or more than twenty-four and one-half pounds; and one-half cent on every one-eighth barrel or other package containing twenty-four and a half pounds or less, to be paid by the person, firm, or corporation making or packing said flour. The tax levied by this section shall be represented by coupon stamps, and the provisions of laws governing the engraving, issue, sale, accountability, effacement, and destruction of stamps relating to tobacco and snuff shall, so far as applicable, be made to apply to stamps provided in this section. (June 13, 1898, c. 448, § 40, 30 Stat. 468.)

637. Same; repacked flour; label; penalty.—When mixed flour, on the manufacture and sale of which the tax imposed by this chapter has been paid, is sold and then repacked without the addition of any other material, such repacked flour shall not be liable to any additional tax; but the packages containing such repacked flour shall be branded or marked as required by section 632 of this title, and shall contain the card provided for in said section; and in addition thereto the person, firm, or corporation repacking mixed flour shall place on the packages containing the same a label in the following words:

"Notice.—The contents of this package have been taken from a regular statutory package, upon which the tax has been duly paid."

Any person violating the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than $250 and not more than $500, or by imprisonment not to exceed one year. (June 13, 1898, c. 448, § 40, 30 Stat. 468.)

638. Assessment of tax on flour sold without stamps.—Whenever any person, firm, or corporation sells, consigns, or removes for sale, consignment, or consumption any mixed flour upon which the tax required by this chapter has not been paid, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, for a period of not more than one year after such sale, consignment, or removal, upon satisfactory proof, to estimate the amount of tax which should have been paid, and to make an assessment therefor and certify the same to the collector of the proper district. The tax so assessed shall be in addition to the penalties imposed by this chapter for an unauthorized sale or removal. (June 13, 1898, c. 448, § 41, 30 Stat. 469.)

639. Imported mixed flour; imposition of duty and tax.—All mixed flours, imported from foreign countries, shall, in addition to any import duties imposed thereon, pay an internal revenue tax equal in amount to the tax imposed under section 636 of this title, such tax to be represented by coupon stamps, and the packages containing such imported mixed flour shall be marked, branded, labeled, and stamped as in the case of mixed flour made or packed in the United States. Any person, firm, or corporation purchasing or receiving for sale or repacking any such mixed flour which has not been branded, labeled, or stamped, as required by this chapter, or which is contained in packages which have not been marked, branded, labeled, or stamped, as required by this chapter, shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than $50 nor more than $500. (June 13, 1898, c. 448, § 42, 30 Stat. 469.)

640. Purchasing mixed flour from manufacturer who has not paid tax; penalty.—Any person, firm, or corporation knowingly purchasing or receiving for sale or for repacking and resale any mixed flour from any maker, packer, or importer, who has not paid the tax provided, under this chapter shall, for each offense, be fined not less than $50, and forfeit to the United States all the articles so purchased or received, or the full value thereof. (June 13, 1898, c. 448, § 43, 30 Stat. 469.)

641. Exportation under regulations; marking packages.—Mixed flour may be removed from the place of manufacture or from the place where packed for export to a foreign country without payment of tax or affixing stamps or label thereto, under such regulation and the filing of such bond and other security as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe. Every person, firm, or corporation who shall export mixed flour shall plainly mark on each package containing the same the words "mixed flour," and the names of the ingredients composing the same, the name of the maker or packer, and the place where made or packed, in accordance with the provisions of sections 210, and 632 to 642, inclusive, of this title. (June 13, 1898, c. 448, § 44, 30 Stat. 469.)

642. Destruction of stamps on emptied packages.—Whenever any package containing mixed flour is emptied it shall be the duty of the person in whose possession it is to destroy the stamp thereon. Any person disposing of such package without first having destroyed the stamp or mark or marks thereon shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding the sum of $25. (June 13, 1898, c. 448, § 45, 30 Stat. 469.)

643. Penalty for second offense.—Any person, firm, or corporation found guilty of a second or any subsequent violation of any of the provisions of sections 210 and 632 to 642, inclusive, of this title, relating to the manufacture and sale of mixed flour as aforesaid, shall, in addition to the penalties herein imposed, be imprisoned not less than thirty days nor more than ninety days. (June 13, 1898, c. 448, § 48, 30 Stat. 470.)

644. Recovery of fines.—All fines, penalties, and forfeitures imposed by sections 210 and 632 to 642, inclusive, of this title, may be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction. (June 13, 1898, c. 448, § 46, 30 Stat. 469.)

645. Regulations; employment of additional clerks and agents.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall make all needful rules and regulations for carrying into effect the provisions of this chapter and of section 210 of this title. (June 13, 1898, c. 448, § 47, 30 Stat. 469.)

673. Penalty for omissions and for acts forbidden.
674. Recovery of fines.
675. Regulations.
676. Laws applicable.

Section 661. White phosphorus defined.—For the purposes of this chapter the words "white phosphorus" shall be understood to mean the common poisonous white or yellow phosphorus used in the manufacture of matches and not to include the nonpoisonous forms or the nonpoisonous compounds of white or yellow phosphorus. (Apr. 9, 1912, c. 75, § 1, 37 Stat. 81.)

662. Manufacturer to register; books; returns; bond.—Every manufacturer of white phosphorus matches shall register with the collector of internal revenue of the district his name or style, place of manufactory, and the place where such business is to be carried on; and a failure to register as herein provided and required shall subject such person to a penalty of not more than $500. Every manufacturer of white phosphorus matches shall file with the collector of internal revenue of the district in which his manufactory is located such notices, inventories, and bonds, shall keep such books and render such returns in relation to the business, shall put up such signs and affix such number to his factory, and conduct his business under such surveillance of officers and agents as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may, by regulation, require. The bond required of such manufacturer shall be with sureties satisfactory to the collector of internal revenue and in the penal sum of not less than $1,000; and the sum of said bond may be increased from time to time and additional sureties required at the discretion of the collector or under instructions of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. (Apr. 9, 1912, c. 75, § 2, 37 Stat 81.)

663. Packages and tax; stamps; penalty.—All white phosphorus matches shall be packed by the manufacturer thereof in packages containing one hundred, two hundred, five hundred, one thousand, or one thousand five hundred matches each, which shall then be packed by the manufacturer in packages containing not less than fourteen thousand four hundred matches, and upon white phosphorus matches manufactured, sold, or removed there shall be levied and collected a tax at the rate of 2 cents per one hundred matches, which shall be represented by adhesive stamps, and this tax shall be paid by the manufacturer thereof, who shall affix to every package containing one hundred, two hundred, five hundred, one thousand, or one thousand five hundred matches such stamp of the required value and shall place thereon the initials of his name and the date on which such stamp is affixed, so that the same may not again be used. Every person who fraudulently makes use of an adhesive stamp to denote any tax imposed by this section without so effectually cancelling such stamp shall forfeit the sum of $50 for every stamp in respect to which such offense is committed. (Apr. 9, 1912, c. 75, § 3, 37 Stat. 81.)

664. Selling or removing unstamped matches.—Every manufacturer of matches who manufactures, sells, removes, distributes, or offers to sell or distribute white phosphorus matches without there being affixed thereto an adhesive stamp, denoting the tax required by this chapter, effectually canceled as provided by section 663 of this title, shall for each offense be fined not more than $1,000 and be imprisoned not more than two years. Every manufacturer of matches who, to evade the tax chargeable thereon or any part thereof, hides or conceals, or causes to be hidden or concealed, or removes or conveys away, or deposits or causes to be removed or conveyed away from or deposited in any place any white phosphorus matches, shall for each offense be fined not more than $1,000 and be imprisoned not more than two years, or both, and all such matches shall be forfeited. (Apr. 9, 1912, c. 75, § 4, 37 Stat. 82.)

665. Affixing insufficient stamp.—Every person who affixes a stamp on any package of white phosphorus matches denoting a less amount of tax than that required by law shall for each offense be fined not more than $1,000 or be imprisoned not more than two years, or both. (Apr. 9, 1912, c. 75, § 5, 37 Stat. 82.)

666. Removal, defacement, or reuse of stamps.—Every person who removes, defaces, or causes or permits or suffers the removal or defacement of any such stamp, or who uses any stamp or any package to which any stamp is affixed to cover any other white phosphorus matches than those originally contained in such package with such stamp when first used, to evade the tax imposed by this chapter, shall for every such package in respect to which any such offense is committed be fined $50, and all such matches shall also be forfeited. (Apr. 9, 1912, c. 75, § 6, 37 Stat. 82.)

667. Fraud; forfeiture.—Every manufacturer of white phosphorus matches who defrauds or attempts to defraud the United States of the tax imposed by this chapter, or any part thereof, shall forfeit the factory and manufacturing apparatus used by him and all the white phosphorus matches and all raw material for the production of white phosphorus matches found in the factory and on the factory premises, or owned by him, and shall be fined not more than $5,000 or be imprisoned not more than three years, or both. All packages of white phosphorus matches subject to tax under this chapter that shall be found without stamps as herein provided shall be forfeited to the United States. (Apr. 9, 1912, c. 75, § 7, 37 Stat. 82.)

668. Stamps; preparation, furnishing, and accounting for.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall cause to be prepared suitable and special stamps for payment of the tax on white phosphorus matches provided for by this chapter. Such stamps shall be furnished to collectors, who shall sell the same only to duly qualified manufacturers. Every collector shall keep an account of the number and denominate values of the stamps sold by him to each manufacturer. All the provisions and penalties of laws governing the engraving, issuing, sale, affixing, cancellation, accountability, effacement, destruction, and forgery of stamps provided for internal revenue are hereby made to apply to stamps provided for by this chapter. (Apr. 9, 1912, c. 75, § 8, 37 Stat. 82.)

669. Assessment of tax on matches sold without stamps.—Whenever any manufacturer of white phosphorus matches sells or removes any white phosphorus matches without the use of the stamps required by this chapter, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, within a period of not more than two years after such sale or removal, upon satisfactory proof, to estimate the amount of tax which has been omitted to be paid, and to make an assessment therefor and certify the same to the collector, who shall collect the same according to law. The tax so assessed shall be in addition to the penalties imposed by law for such sale or removal. (Apr. 9, 1912, c. 75, § 9, 37 Stat. 82.)

670. Importation of matches.—White phosphorus matches, manufactured wholly or in part in any foreign country, shall not be entitled to entry at any of the ports of the United States, and the importation thereof is hereby prohibited. All matches imported into the United States shall be accompanied by such certificate of official inspection by the government of the country in which such matches were manufactured as shall satisfy the Secretary of the Treasury that they are not white phosphorus matches. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to prescribe such regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of the provisions of this section. (Apr. 9, 1912, c. 75, § 10, 37 Stat. 83.)

671. Exportation of matches.—It shall be unlawful to export from the United States any white phosphorus matches. Any person guilty of violation of this section shall be fined not less than $1,000 and not more than $5,000, and any white phosphorus matches exported or attempted to be exported shall be confiscated to the United States and destroyed in such manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall have power to issue such regulations to customs officers as are necessary to the enforcement of this section. (Apr. 9, 1912, c. 75, § 11, 37 Stat. 83.)

672. Factory number, label, and notice on packages.—Every manufacturer of matches shall mark, brand, affix, stamp, or print, in such manner as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall prescribe, on every package of white phosphorus matches manufactured, sold, or removed by him, the factory number required under section 662 of this title. Every such manufacturer who omits to mark, brand, affix, stamp, or print such factory number on such package shall be fined not more than $50 for each package in respect of which such offense is committed. Every manufacturer of white phosphorus matches shall securely affix by pasting on each original package containing stamped packages of white phosphorus matches manufactured by him a label, on which shall be printed, besides the number of the manufactory and the district in which it is situated, these words: "Notice.—The manufacturer of the white phosphorus matches herein contained has complied with all the requirements of law. Every person is cautioned not to use again the stamps on the packages herein contained under the penalty provided by law in such cases." Every manufacturer of white phosphorus matches who neglects to affix such label to any original package containing stamped packages of white phosphorus matches made by him or sold or removed by or for him, and every person who removes any such label so affixed from any such original package, shall be fined not more than $50 for each package in respect of which such offense is committed. (Apr. 9, 1912, c. 75, § 12, 37 Stat. 83.)

673. Penalty for omissions and for acts forbidden.—If any manufacturer of white phosphorus matches, or any importer or exporter of matches, shall omit, neglect, or refuse to do or cause to be done any of the things required by law in carrying on or conducting his business, or shall do anything by this chapter prohibited, if there be no specific penalty or punishment imposed by any other section of this chapter for the neglecting, omitting, or refusing to do, or for the doing or causing to be done, the thing required or prohibited, he shall be fined $1,000 for each offense, and all the white phosphorus matches owned by him or in which he has any interest as owner shall be forfeited to the United States. (Apr. 9, 1912, c. 75, § 13, 37 Stat. 83.)

674. Recovery of fines.—All fines, penalties, and forfeitures imposed by this chapter may be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction. (Apr. 9, 1912, c. 75, § 14, 37 Stat. 83.)

675. Regulations.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may make all needful regulations for the carrying into effect of this chapter. (Apr. 9, 1912, c. 75, § 15, 37 Stat. 83.)

676. Laws applicable.—Sections 26, 27, 58, 61 to 64, 69, 71, 91 to 104, 112, 114 to 149, 151, 152, 154, 156 to 160, 181 to 191, 201, 517, 1170, 1171, 1178, 1180 to 1186, 1188 to 1195, 1242, 1245, and 1246 of this title, all inclusive, and all other provisions and penalties of law relating to internal revenue so far as applicable, are hereby made to extend to and include and apply to the taxes imposed by this chapter and to the articles upon which and to the persons upon whom they are imposed. (Apr. 9, 1912, c. 75, § 16, 37 Stat. 83.)

Chapter 11.—OPIUM, COCA LEAVES, AND COMPOUNDS; MANUFACTURERS, AND SO FORTH, THEREOF.

Sec.

691. Tax on opium, coca leaves, and so forth, in addition to import duty.
692. Selling or dispensing in or from original stamped packages; prescriptions.
693. Internal-revenue stamp law applicable; seizure and forfeiture of unstamped packages.
694. Books and records of importers, manufacturers, and wholesale dealers.
695. Definition; "person."
696. Written order on blank forms for sale of drugs; orders and duplicates preserved for inspection.
697. Application of law; jurisdiction in the Philippines; regulations in Canal Zone.
698. Statements by person registered as to drugs received.
699. Sending, shipping, and carrying of drugs by person not registered.
700. Possession or control of drugs by person not registered; pleading and proof of exemptions.
701. Duplicate order forms and statements open to inspection and certified copies of statements furnished officers; disclosure of information contained therein; certified copies of names of taxpayers.
702. Certain preparations and remedies excepted; decocainized coca leaves, and so forth.
703. Internal revenue laws applicable.
704. Rules and regulations.
705. Offenses; punishment.
706. Appointment of agents and officers to enfore law.
707. Laws unaffected.
708. Forfeitures and disposition of opium, and so forth, seized.

Section 691. Tax on opium, coca leaves, and so forth, in addition to import duty.—There shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid upon opium, coca leaves, any compound, salt, derivative, or preparation thereof, produced in or imported into the United States, and sold, or removed for consumption or sale, an internal-revenue tax at the rate of 1 cent per ounce, and any fraction of an ounce in a package shall be taxed as an ounce, such tax to be paid by the importer, manufacturer, producer, or compounder thereof, and to be represented by appropriate stamps, to be provided by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury; and the stamps herein provided shall be so affixed to the bottle or other container as to securely seal the stopper, covering, or wrapper thereof.

The tax imposed by this section shall be in addition to any import duty imposed on the aforesaid drugs. (Dec. 17, 1914,

c. 1, § 1, 38 Stat. 785; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1006, 40 Stat. 1130; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1005, 42 Stat. 298; June 2, 1921, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 705, 43 Stat. 328.)

692. Selling or dispensing in or from original stamped packages; prescriptions.—It shall be unlawful for any person to purchase, sell, dispense, or distribute any of the aforesaid drugs except in the original stamped package or from the original stamped package; and the absence of appropriate tax-paid stamps from any of the aforesaid drugs shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this section by the person in whose possession same may be found; and the possession of any original stamped package containing any of the aforesaid drugs by any person who has not registered and paid special taxes as required by section 211 of this title shall be prima facie evidence of liability to such special tax. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any person having in his or her possession any of the aforesaid drugs which have been obtained from a registered dealer in pursuance of a prescription, written for legitimate medical uses, issued by a physician, dentist, veterinary surgeon, or other practitioner registered under this chapter; and where the bottle or other container in which such drug may be put up by the dealer upon said prescription bears the name and registry number of the druggist, serial number of prescription, name and address of the patient, and name, address, and registry number of the person writing said prescription; or to the dispensing, or administration, or giving away of any of the aforesaid drugs to a patient by a registered physician, dentist, veterinary surgeon, or other practitioner in the course of his professional practice, and where said drugs are dispensed or administered to the patient for legitimate medical purposes, and the record kept as required by this chapter of the drugs so dispensed, administered, distributed, or given away. (Dec. 17, 1914, c. 1, § 1, 38 Stat. 785; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1006, 40 Stat. 1130; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1005, 42 Stat. 298; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 705, 43 Stat. 328.)

693. Internal-revenue stamp law applicable; seizure and forfeiture of unstamped packages.—All the provisions of laws relating to the engraving, issuance, sale, accountability, cancellation, and destruction of tax-paid stamps provided for in the internal-revenue laws are, in so far as necessary, extended and made to apply to stamps provided by section 691 of this title.

All unstamped packages of the aforesaid drugs found in the possession of any person, except as provided in sections 691 to 695, inclusive, shall be subject to seizure and forfeiture, and all the provisions of internal-revenue laws relating to searches, seizures, and forfeitures of unstamped articles are extended to and made to apply to the articles taxed under this chapter and the persons upon whom these taxes are imposed. (Dec. 7, 1914, c. 1, § 1, 38 Stat. 785; Feb. 21, 1919, c. 18, § 1006, 40 Stat. 1130; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1005, 42 Stat. 298; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 705, 43 Stat. 328.)

694. Books and records of importers, manufacturers, and wholesale dealers.—Importers, manufacturers, and wholesale dealers shall keep such books and records and render such monthly returns in relation to the transactions in the drugs specified under section 691 of this title, as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may by regulations require. (Dec. 17, 1914, c. 1, § 1, 38 Stat. 785; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1006, 40 Stat. 1130; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1005, 42 Stat. 298; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 705, 43 Stat. 328.)

695. Definition; "person."—The word "person" as used in sections 691 to 695 of this title, shall be construed to mean and include a partnership, association, company, or corporation, as well as a material person. (Dec. 17, 1914, c. 1, § 1, 38 Stat. 785; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1006, 40 Stat. 1130; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1005, 42 Stat. 298; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 705, 43 Stat. 328.)

696. Written order on blank forms for sale of drugs; orders and duplicates preserved for inspection.—It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, barter, exchange, or give away any of the drugs specified in section 691 of this title, except in pursuance of a written order of the person to whom such article is sold, bartered, exchanged, or given, on a form to be issued in blank for that purpose by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Every person who shall accept any such order, and in pursuance thereof shall sell, barter, exchange, or give away any of the aforesaid drugs, shall preserve such order for a period of two years in such a way as to be readily accessible to inspection by any officer, agent, or employee of the Treasury Department duly authorized for that purpose, and the State, Territorial, District, municipal, and insular officials named in section 701 of this title. Every person who shall give an order as herein provided to any other person for any of the aforesaid drugs shall, at or before the time of giving such order, make or cause to be made a duplicate thereof on a form to be issued in blank for that purpose by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and in case of the acceptance of such order, shall preserve such duplicate for said period of two years in such a way as to be readily accessible to inspection by the officers, agents, employees, and officials hereinbefore mentioned. Nothing contained in this section shall apply—

(a) To the dispensing or distribution of any of the aforesaid drugs to a patient by a physician, dentist, or veterinary surgeon registered under this chapter in the course of his professional practice only: Provided, That such physician, dentist, or veterinary surgeon shall keep a record of all such drugs dispensed or distributed, showing the amount dispensed or distributed, the date, and the name and address of the patient to whom such drugs are dispensed or distributed, except such as may be dispensed or distributed to a patient upon whom such physician, dentist or veterinary surgeon shall personally attend; and such record shall be kept for a period of two years from the date of dispensing or distributing such drugs, subject to inspection, as provided in this chapter.

(b) To the sale, dispensing, or distribution of any of the aforesaid drugs by a dealer to a consumer under and in pursuance of a written prescription issued by a physician, dentist, or veterinary surgeon registered under this chapter. Provided, however, That such prescription shall be dated as of the day on which signed and shall be signed by the physician, dentist, or veterinary surgeon who shall have issued the same: And provided further, That such dealer shall preserve such prescription for a period of two years from the day on which such prescription is filled in such a way as to be readily accessible to inspection by the officers, agents, employees, and officials hereinbefore mentioned.

(c) To the sale, exportation, shipment, or delivery of any of the aforesaid drugs by any person within the United States or any Territory or the District of Columbia or any of the insular possessions of the United States to any person in any foreign country, regulating their entry in accordance with such regulations for importation thereof into such foreign country as are prescribed by said country, such regulations to be promulgated from time to time by the Secretary of State of the United States.

(d) To the sale, barter, exchange, or giving away of any of the aforesaid drugs to any officer of the United States Government or of any State, Territorial, District, county, or municipal or insular government lawfully engaged in making purchases thereof for the various departments of the Army and Navy, the Public Health Service, and for Government, State, territorial district, county, or municipal or insular hospitals or prisons.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall cause suitable forms to be prepared for the purposes above mentioned, and shall cause the same to be distributed to collectors of internal revenue for sale by them to those persons who shall have registered and paid the special tax as required by section 211 of this title in their districts, respectively; and no collector shall sell any of such forms to any persons other than a person who has registered and paid the special tax as required by said section in his district. The price at which such forms shall be sold by said collectors shall be fixed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, but shall not exceed the sum of $1 per hundred. Every collector shall keep an account of the number of such forms sold by him, the names of the purchasers, and the number of such forms sold to each of such purchasers. Whenever any collector shall sell any of such forms, he shall cause the name of the purchaser thereof to be plainly written or stamped thereon before delivering the same; and no person other than such purchaser shall use any of said forms bearing the name of such purchaser for the purpose of procuring any of the aforesaid drugs, or furnish any of the forms bearing the name of such purchaser to any person with intent thereby to procure the shipment or delivery of any of the aforesaid drugs. It shall be unlawful for any person to obtain by means of said order forms any of the aforesaid drugs for any purpose other than the use, sale, or distribution thereof by him in the conduct of a lawful business in said drugs or in the legitimate practice of his profession. (Dec. 17, 1914, c. 1, § 2, 38 Stat. 786.)

697. Application of law; jurisdiction in the Philippines; regulations in Canal Zone.—Sections 211 and 691 to 707, inclusive, of this title shall apply to the United States, the District of Columbia, the Territory of Alaska, the Territory of Hawaii, the insular possessions of the United States, and the Canal Zone. In Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands the administration of said sections, the collection of the said special tax, and the issuance of the order forms specified in section 696 of this title shall be performed by the appropriate internal-revenue officers of those governments, and all revenues collected hereunder in Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands shall accrue intact to the general governments thereof, respectively. The courts of first instance in the Philippine Islands shall possess and exercise jurisdiction in all cases arising under said sections in said islands. The President is authorized and directed to issue such Executive orders as will carry into effect in the Canal Zone the intent and purpose of said sections by providing for the registration and the imposition of a special tax upon all persons in the Canal Zone who produce, import, compound, deal in, dispense, sell, distribute, or give away opium or coca leaves, their salts, derivatives, or preparations. (Dec. 17, 1914, c. 1, § 2, 38 Stat. 786.)

698. Statements by person registered as to drugs received.—Any person who shall be registered in any internal-revenue district under the provisions of section 211 of this title shall, whenever required so to do by the collector of the district, render to the said collector a true and correct statement or return, verified by affidavit, setting forth the quantity of the aforesaid drugs received by him in said internal-revenue district during such period immediately preceding the demand of the collector, not exceeding three months, as the said collector may fix and determine; the names of the persons from whom the said drugs were received; the quantity in each instance received from each of such persons, and the date when received. (Dec. 17, 1914, c. 1, § 3, 38 Stat. 787.)

699. Sending, shipping, and carrying of drugs by person not registered.—It shall be unlawful for any person who shall not have registered and paid the special tax as required by section 211 of this title to send, ship, carry, or deliver any of the aforesaid drugs from any State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or any insular possession of the United States, to any person in any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia or any insular possession of the United States. Nothing contained in this section shall apply to common carriers engaged in transporting the aforesaid drugs, or to any employee acting within the scope of his employment, of any person who shall have registered and paid the special tax as required by section 211, or to any person who shall deliver any such drug which has been prescribed or dispensed by a physician, dentist, or veterinarian required to register under the terms of this chapter and section 211, who has been employed to prescribe for the particular patient receiving such drug or to any United States, State, county, municipal, District, Territorial, or insular officer or official acting within the scope of his official duties. (Dec. 17, 1914, c. 1, § 4, 38 Stat. 788.)

700. Possession or control of drugs by person not registered; pleading and proof of exemptions.—It shall be unlawful for any person not registered under the provisions of sections 211 and 691 to 708 of this title, and who has not paid the special tax provided for by said sections, to have in his possession or under his control any of the aforesaid drugs; and such possession or control shall be presumptive evidence of a violation of this section, and also of a violation of the provisions of section 211. This section shall not apply to any employee of a registered person, or to a nurse under the supervision of a physician, dentist, or veterinary surgeon registered under said sections, having such possession or control by virtue of his employment or occupation and not on his own account; or to the possession of any of the aforesaid drugs which has or have been prescribed in good faith by a physician, dentist, or veterinary surgeon registered under said section; or to any United States, State, county, municipal, District, Territorial, or insular officer or official who has possession of any said drugs, by reason of his official duties, or to a warehouseman holding possession for a person registered and who has paid the taxes under said sections; or to common carriers engaged in transporting such drugs. It shall not be necessary to negative any of the aforesaid exemptions in any complaint, information, indictment, or other writ or proceeding laid or brought under said sections; and the burden of proof of any such exemption shall be upon the defendant. (Dec. 17, 1914, c. 1, § 8, 38 Stat. 789.)

701. Duplicate order forms and statements open to inspection and certified copies of statements furnished officers; disclosure of information contained therein; certified copies of names of taxpayers.—The duplicate-order forms and the prescriptions required to be preserved under the provisions of section 696 of this title, and the statements or returns filed in the office of the collector of the district, under the provisions of section 698, shall be open to inspection by officers, agents, and employees of the Treasury Department duly authorized for that purpose; and such officials of any State or Territory, or of any organized municipality therein, or of the District of Columbia, or any insular possession of the United States, as shall be charged with the enforcement of any law or municipal ordinance regulating the sale, prescribing, dispensing, dealing in, or distribution of the aforesaid drugs. Each collector of internal revenue is authorized to furnish, upon written request, certified copies of any of the said statements or returns filed in his office to any of such officials of any State or Territory or organized municipality therein, or the District of Columbia, or any insular possession of the United States, as shall be entitled to inspect the said statements or returns filed in the office of the said collector, upon the payment of a fee of $1 for each one hundred words or fraction thereof in the copy or copies so requested. Any person who shall disclose the information contained in the said statements or returns or in the said duplicate-order forms, except as herein expressly provided, and except for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter and section 211, or for the purpose of enforcing any law of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or any insular possession of the United States, or ordinance of any organized municipality therein, regulating the sale, prescribing, dispensing, dealing in, or distribution of the aforesaid drugs, shall, on conviction, be fined or imprisoned as provided by section 705. And collectors of internal revenue are authorized to furnish upon written request, to any persons, a certified copy of the names of any or all persons who may be listed in their respective collection districts as special-tax payers under the provisions of this chapter and section 211, upon payment of a fee of $1 for each one hundred names or fraction thereof in the copy so requested. (Dec. 17, 1914, c. 1, § 5, 38 Stat. 788.)

702. Certain preparations and remedies excepted; decocainized coca leaves, and so forth.—The provisions of sections 211 and 691 to 708 inclusive of this title shall not be construed to apply to the manufacture, sale, distribution, giving away, dispensing, or possession of preparations and remedies which do not contain more than two grains of opium, or more than one-fourth of a grain of morphine, or more than one-eighth of a grain of heroin, or more than one grain of codeine, or any salt or derivative of any of them in one fluid ounce, or, if a solid or semisolid preparation, in one avoirdupois ounce; or to liniments, ointments, or other preparations which are prepared for external use, only, except liniments, ointments, and other preparations which contain cocaine or any of its salts or alpha or beta eucaine or any of their salts or any synthetic substitute for them: Provided, That such remedies and preparations are manufactured, sold, distributed, given away, dispensed, or possessed as medicines and not for the purpose of evading the intentions and provisions of said sections. Any manufacturer, producer, compounder, or vendor (including dispensing physicians) of the preparations and remedies mentioned in this section shall keep a record of all sales, exchanges, or gifts of such preparations and remedies in such manner as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall direct. Such record shall be preserved for a period of two years in such a way as to be readily accessible to inspection by any officer, agent or employee of the Treasury Department duly authorized for that purpose, and the State, Territorial, District, municipal, and insular officers named in section 701, and every such person so possessing or disposing of such preparations and remedies shall register as required in section 211 and, if he is not paying a tax under sections 211 and 691 to 708, inclusive, he shall pay a special tax of $1 for each year, or fractional part thereof, in which he is engaged in such occupation, to the collector of internal revenue of the district in which he carries on such occupation as provided in said sections. The provisions of said sections shall not apply to decocainized coca leaves or preparations made therefrom, or to other preparations of coca leaves which do not contain cocaine. (Dec. 17, 1914, c. 1 § 6, 38 Stat. 789; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1007, 40 Stat. 1132; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1006, 42 Stat. 300; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 706, 43 Stat. 330.)

703. Internal revenue laws applicable.—All laws relating to the assessment, collection, remission, and refund of internal-revenue taxes, including section 158 of this title, so far as applicable to and not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter and section 211, are extended and made applicable to the special taxes imposed thereby. (Dec. 17, 1914, c. 1, § 7, 38 Stat. 789.)

704. Rules and regulations.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall make all needful rules and regulations for carrying the provisions of sections 211 and 691 to 708, inclusive, of this title into effect. (Dec. 17, 1914, c. 1, § 1, 38 Stat. 785; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1006, 40 Stat. 1130; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1005, 42 Stat. 298; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 705, 43 Stat. 328.)

705. Offenses; punishment.—Any person who violates or fails to comply with any of the requirements of sections 211 and 691 to 707 of this title shall, on conviction, be fined not more than $2,000 or be imprisoned not more than five years, or both, in the discretion of the court. (Dec. 17, 1914, c. 1, § 9, 38 Stat. 789.)

706. Appointment of agents and officers to enforce law.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, is authorized to appoint such agents, deputy collectors, inspectors, chemists, assistant chemists, clerks, and messengers in the field, and in the Bureau of Internal Revenue in the District of Columbia as may be necessary to enforce the provisions of sections 211 and 691 to 708 of this title. (Dec. 17, 1914, c. 1, § 10, 38 Stat. 789.)

707. Laws unaffected.—Nothing contained in sections 211 or 691 to 708 of this title shall be construed to impair, alter, amend, or repeal any of the provisions of sections 1 to 15, and 171 to 185 of Title 21. (Dec. 17, 1914, c. 1, § 12, 38 Stat. 790.)

708. Forfeitures and disposition of opium, and so forth, seized.—All opium, its salts, derivatives, and compounds, and coca leaves, salts, derivatives, and compounds thereof, seized by the United States Government from any person or persons charged with any violation of this chapter or of section 211 of this title, or of sections 171 to 185 of Title 21, shall upon conviction of the person or persons from whom seized be confiscated by and forfeited to the United States; and the Secretary is authorized to deliver for medical or scientific purposes to any department, bureau, or other agency of the United States Government, upon proper application therefor under such regulation as may be prescribed by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, any of the drugs so seized, confiscated, and forfeited to the United States.

The provisions of this section shall also apply to any of the aforesaid drugs seized or coming into the possession of the United States in the enforcement of any of the above-mentioned sections where the owner or owners thereof are unknown. None of the aforesaid drugs coming into possession of the United States under the operation of said sections, or the provisions of this section, shall be destroyed without certification by a committee appointed by the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, that they are of no value for medical or scientific purposes. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 707, 43 Stat. 331.)

Chapter 12.—OPIUM FOR SMOKING.

Sec.

721. Tax on opium manufactured for smoking; manufacturer to be citizen and give bond; manufacturer defined.
722. Manufacturer to file notices; books and returns; signs; surveillance of officers; bond.
723. Stamps.
724. Same; laws relating to tobacco and snuff applicable.
725. Penalty for violations of law; forfeiture.

Section 721. Tax on opium manufactured for smoking; manufacturer to be citizen and give bond; manufacturer defined.—An internal-revenue tax of $300 per pound shall be levied and collected upon all opium manufactured in the United States for smoking purposes; and no person shall engage in such manufacture who is not a citizen of the United States and who has not given the bond required by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Every person who prepares opium suitable for smoking purposes from crude gum opium, or from any preparation thereof, or from the residue of smoked or partially smoked opium, commonly known as yen shee, or from any mixture of the above, or any of them, shall be regarded as a manufacturer of smoking opium within the meaning of sections 721 to 725 of this title. (Jan. 17, 1914, c. 10, § 1, 38 Stat. 277.)

722. Manufacturer to file notices; books and returns; signs; surveillance of officers; bond.—Every manufacturer of opium suitable for smoking shall file with the collector of internal revenue of the district in which his manufactory is located such notices, inventories, and bonds, shall keep such books and render such returns of material and products, shall put up such signs and affix such number to his factory, and conduct his business under such surveillance of officers and agents as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may by regulation require. But the bond required of such manufacturer shall be with sureties satisfactory to the collector of internal revenue, and in a penal sum of not less than $100,000; and the sum of said bond may be increased from time to time and additional sureties required, at the discretion of the collector or under instructions of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. (Jan. 17, 1914, c. 10, § 2, 38 Stat. 277.)

723. Stamps.—All opium prepared for smoking manufactured in the United States shall be duly stamped in such a permanent manner as to denote the payment of the internal-revenue tax thereon. (Jan. 17, 1914, c. 10, § 3, 38 Stat. 278.)

724. Same; laws relating to tobacco and snuff applicable.—The provisions of laws covering the engraving, issue, sale, accountability, effacement, cancellation, and the destruction of stamps relating to tobacco and snuff, as far as applicable, shall apply to stamps provided for by section 723 of this title. (Jan. 17, 1914, c. 10, § 4, 38 Stat. 278.)

725. Penalty for violations of law; forfeiture.—A penalty of not less than $10,000 or imprisonment for not less than five years, or both, in the discretion of the court, shall be imposed for each and every violation of sections 721 to 725 of this title by any person or persons; and all opium prepared for smoking wherever found within the United States without the stamps required by section 723 shall be forfeited and destroyed. (Jan. 17, 1914, c. 10, § 5, 38 Stat. 278.)

Chapter 18.—COTTON FUTURES.

Sec.
731. Short title of chapter.
732. Definitions; "contract of sale"; "person"; liability of principal for act of agent.
733. Tax imposed on contracts of sale for future delivery.
734. Contract to be in writing; weight of "bale."
735. Exemption from tax on compliance with conditions prescribed.
736. Determination of allowances on deliveries differing from basis grade.
737. Exemption of "section 6 A contracts" from tax.
738. Bona fide spot markets defined.
739. Method of determining bona fide spot markets; penalty for false testimony, and so forth.
740. Cotton standards fixed by Secretary; moneys collected for furnishing forms of standards to be covered into Treasury.
741. Exemption from tax of "section 10 contracts" and spot cotton sales.
742. Payment of tax; affixing stamps to contract or memoranda; cancelling stamps.
743. Contracts not conforming to requirements unenforceable.
744. Regulations for collection of tax; records and returns of sales; internal revenue laws applicable.
745. Offenses; punishment.
746. Additional penalty recoverable by action; informers; prosecutions by United States attorneys.
747. Immunity of witnesses.
748. State laws and taxation unaffected.
749. Publication of results of investigations.
750. Contracts made prior to September 1, 1916, unaffected.
751. Expenses of Government attorneys; per diem allowance.
752. Effect of partial invalidity.

Section 731. [Section 1.] Short title of chapter.—This chapter shall be known by the short title of the "United States Cotton Futures Act." (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 476.)

732. [Section 2.] Definitions; "contract of sale"; "person"; liability of principal for act of agent.—For the purposes of this chapter, the term "contract of sale" shall be held to include sales, agreements of sale, and agreements to sell. The word "person," wherever used in this chapter, shall be construed to import the plural or singular, as the case demands, and shall include individuals, associations, partnerships, and corporations. When construing and enforcing the provisions of this chapter, the act, omission, or failure of any official, agent, or other person acting for or employed by any association, partnership, or corporation within the scope of his employment or office, shall, in every case, also be deemed the act, omission, or failure of such association, partnership, or corporation as well as that of the person. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 476.)

733. [Section 3.] Tax imposed on contracts of sale for future delivery.—Upon each contract of sale of any cotton for future delivery made at, on, or in any exchange, board of trade, or similar institution or place of business, there is hereby levied a tax in the nature of an excise of 2 cents for each pound of the cotton involved in any such contract. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 476.)

734. [Section 4.] Contract to be in writing; weight of "bale."—Each contract of sale of cotton for future delivery mentioned in section 733 of this title shall be in writing plainly stating, or evidenced by written memorandum showing, the terms of such contract, including the quantity of the cotton involved and the names and addresses of the seller and buyer in such contract, and shall be signed by the party to be charged, or by his agent in his behalf. If the contract or memorandum specify in bales the quantity of the cotton involved, without giving the weight, each bale shall, for the purposes of this chapter, be deemed to weigh five hundred pounds. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 476.)

735. [Section 5.] Exemption from tax on compliance with conditions prescribed.—No tax shall be levied under this chapter on any contract of sale mentioned in section 733 hereof if the contract comply with each of the following conditions:

First. Conform to the requirements of section 734 of this title, and the rules and regulations made pursuant to this chapter.

Second. Specify the basis grade for the cotton involved in the contract, which shall be one of the grades for which standards are established by the Secretary of Agriculture, except grades prohibited from being delivered on a contract made under this section by the fifth subdivision of this section, the price per pound at which the cotton of such basis grade is contracted to be bought or sold, the date when the purchase or sale was made, and the month or months in which the contract is to be fulfilled or settled: Provided, That middling shall be deemed the basis grade incorporated into the contract if no other basis grade be specified either in the contract or in the memorandum evidencing the same.

Third. Provide that the cotton dealt with therein or delivered thereunder shall be of or within the grades for which standards are established by the Secretary of Agriculture except grades prohibited from being delivered on a contract made under this section by the fifth subdivision of this section and no other grade or grades.

Fourth. Provide that in case cotton of grade other than the basis grade be tendered or delivered in settlement of such contract, the differences above or below the contract price which the receiver shall pay for such grades other than the basis grade shall be the actual commercial differences, determined as hereinafter provided.

Fifth. Provide that cotton that, because of the presence of extraneous matter of any character, or irregularities or defects, is reduced in value below that of low middling, or cotton that is below the grade of low middling, or, if tinged, cotton that is below the grade of strict middling, or, if yellow stained, cotton that is below the grade of good middling, the grades mentioned being of the official cotton standards of the United States, or cotton that is less than seven-eighths of an inch in length of staple, or cotton of perished staple or of immature staple, or cotton that is "gin cut" or reginned, or cotton that is "repacked" or "false packed" or "mixed packed" or "water packed," shall not be delivered on, under, or in settlement of such contract.

Sixth. Provide that all tenders of cotton under such contract shall be the full number of bales involved therein, except that such variations of the number of bales may be permitted as is necessary to bring the total weight of the cotton tendered within the provisions of the contract as to weight; that, on the fifth business day prior to delivery, the person making the tender shall give to the person receiving the same written notice of the date of delivery, and that, on or prior to the date so fixed for delivery, and in advance of final settlement of the contract, the person making the tender shall furnish to the person receiving the same a written notice or certificate stating the grade of each individual bale to be delivered and, by means of marks or numbers, identifying each bale with its grade.

Seventh. Provide that all tenders of cotton and settlements therefor under such contract shall be in accordance with the classification thereof made under the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture by such officer or officers of the Government as shall be designated for the purpose, and the costs of such classification shall be fixed, assessed, collected, and paid as provided in such regulations. All moneys collected as such costs may be used as a revolving fund for carrying out the purposes of this subdivision.

The provisions of the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, and seventh subdivisions of this section shall be deemed fully incorporated into any such contract if there be written or printed thereon, or on the memorandum evidencing the same, at or prior to the time the same is signed, the phrase "Subject to United States cotton futures Act, section 5."

The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to prescribe regulations for carrying out the purposes of the seventh subdivision of this section, and the certificates of the officers of the Government as to the classification of any cotton for the purposes of said subdivision shall be accepted in the courts of the United States in all suits between the parties to such contract, or their privies, as prima facie evidence of the true classification of the cotton involved. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 476; Mar. 4, 1919, c. 125, § 6, 40 Stat. 1351.)

736. [Section 6.] Determination of allowances on deliveries differing from basis grade.—For the purposes of section 735 of this chapter the differences above or below the contract price which the receiver shall pay for cotton of grades above or below the basis grade in the settlement of a contract of sale for the future delivery of cotton shall be determined by the actual commercial differences in value thereof upon the sixth business day prior to the day fixed, in accordance with the sixth subdivision of section 735 for the delivery of cotton on the contract, established by the sale of spot cotton in the market where the future transaction involved occurs and is consummated if such market be a bona fide spot market; and in the event there be no bona fide spot market at or in the place in which such future transaction occurs, then, and in that case, the said differences above or below the contract price which the receiver shall pay for cotton above or below the basis grade shall be determined by the average actual commercial differences in value thereof, upon the sixth business day prior to the day fixed, in accordance with the sixth subdivision of section 735 for the delivery of cotton on the contract, in the spot markets of not less than five places designated for the purpose from time to time by the Secretary of Agriculture, as such values were established by the sales of spot cotton, in such designated five or more markets: Provided, That for the purposes of this section such values in the said spot markets be based upon the standards for grades of cotton established by the Secretary of Agriculture: And provided further, That whenever the value of one grade is to be determined from the sale or sales of spot cotton of another grade or grades, such value shall be fixed in accordance with rules and regulations which shall be prescribed for the purpose by the Secretary of Agriculture. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 478.)

737. [Section 6 A.] Exemption of "section 6 A contracts" from tax.—No tax shall be levied under this chapter on any contract of sale mentioned in section 733 hereof if the contract provide that, in case cotton of grade or grades other than the basis grade specified in the contract shall be tendered in performance of the contract, the parties to such contract may agree, at the time of the tender, as to the price of the grade or grades so tendered, and that if they shall not then agree as to such price, then, and in that event, the buyer of said contract shall have the right to demand the specific fulfillment of such contract by the actual delivery of cotton of the basis grade named therein and at the price specified for such basis grade in said contract, and if the contract also comply with all the terms and conditions of section 735 hereof not inconsistent with this section: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be so construed as to relieve from the tax levied by section 733 of this title any contract in which, or in the settlement of or in respect to which, any device or arrangement whatever is resorted to, or any agreement is made, for the determination or adjustment of the price of the grade or grades tendered other than the basis grade specified in the contract by any "fixed difference" system, or by arbitration, or by any other method not provided for by this chapter.

Contracts made in compliance with this section shall be known as "Section 6 A Contracts." The provisions of this section shall be deemed fully incorporated into any such contract if there be written or printed thereon, or on the memorandum evidencing the same, at or prior to the time the same is signed, the phrase "Subject to United States cotton futures Act, section 6 A."

Section 741 of this chapter shall not be construed to apply to any contract of sale made in compliance with this section. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 478.)

738. [Section 7.] Bona fide spot markets defined.—For the purposes of this chapter the only markets which shall be considered bona fide spot markets shall be those which the Secretary of Agriculture shall, from time to time, after investigation, determine and designate to be such, and of which he shall give public notice. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 478.)

739. [Section 8.] Method of determining bona fide spot markets; penalty for false testimony, and so forth.—In determining, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, what markets are bona fide spot markets, the Secretary of Agriculture is directed to consider only markets in which spot cotton is sold in such volume and under such conditions as customarily to reflect accurately the value of middling cotton and the differences between the prices or values of middling cotton and of other grades of cotton for which standards shall have been established by the Secretary of Agriculture: Provided, That if there be not sufficient places, in the markets of which are made bona fide sales of spot cotton of grades for which standards are established by the Secretary of Agriculture, to enable him to designate at least five spot markets in accordance with section 736 of this chapter, he shall, from data as to spot sales collected by him, make rules and regulations for determining the actual commercial differences in the value of spot cotton of the grades established by him as reflected by bona fide sales of spot cotton, of the same or different grades, in the markets selected and designated by him, from time to time, for that purpose, and in that event, differences in value of cotton of various grades involved in contracts made pursuant to section 735 of this chapter shall be determined in compliance with such rules and regulations: Provided further, That it shall be the duty of any person engaged in the business of dealing in cotton, when requested by the Secretary of Agriculture or any agent acting under his instructions, to answer correctly to the best of his knowledge, under oath or otherwise, all questions touching his knowledge of the number of bales, the classification, the price or bona fide price offered, and other terms of purchase or sale, of any cotton involved in any transaction participated in by him, or to produce all books, letters, papers, or documents in his possession or under his control relating to such matter. Any such person who shall, within a reasonable time prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture or such agent, willfully fail or refuse to answer such questions or to produce such books, letters, papers, or documents, or who shall willfully give any answer that is false or misleading, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 479; Mar. 4, 1919, c. 125, § 6, 40 Stat. 1352.)

740. [Section 9.] Cotton standards fixed by Secretary; moneys collected for furnishing forms of standards to be covered into Treasury.—Subject to the provisions of section 56 of Title 7 the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized, from time to time, to establish and promulgate standards of cotton by which its quality or value may be judged or determined, including its grade, length of staple, strength of staple, color, and such other qualities, properties, and conditions as may be standardized in practical form, which, for the purposes of this chapter, shall be known as the "Official cotton standards of the United States": Provided, That any standard of any cotton established and promulgated under this chapter by the Secretary of Agriculture shall not be changed or replaced within a period less than one year from and after the date of the promulgation thereof by the Secretary of Agriculture: Provided further, That no change or replacement of any standard of any cotton established and promulgated under this chapter by the Secretary of Agriculture shall become effective until after one year's public notice thereof, which notice shall specify the date when the same is to become effective. The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized and directed to prepare practical forms of the official cotton standards which shall be established by him, and to furnish such practical forms from time to time, upon request, to any person, the cost thereof, as determined by the Secretary of Agriculture, to be paid by the person requesting the same, and to certify such practical forms under the seal of the Department of Agriculture and under the signature of the said Secretary, thereto affixed by himself or by some official or employee of the Department of Agriculture thereunto duly authorized by the said Secretary. All sums collected by the Secretary of Agriculture for furnishing practical forms under this section shall be deposited and covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 479, 481.)

741. [Section 10.] Exemption from tax of "section 10 contracts" and spot cotton sales.—No tax shall be levied under this chapter on any contract of sale mentioned in section 733 hereof, if the contract comply with each of the following conditions:

First. Conform to the rules and regulations made pursuant to this chapter.

Second. Specify the grade, type, sample, or description of the cotton involved in the contract, the price per pound at which such cotton is contracted to be bought or sold, the date of the purchase or sale, and the time when shipment or delivery of such cotton is to be made.

Third. Provide that cotton of or within the grade or of the type, or according to the sample or description, specified in the contract shall be delivered thereunder, and that no cotton which does not conform to the type, sample, or description, or which is not of or within the grade specified in the contract shall be tendered or delivered thereunder.

Fourth. Provide that the delivery of cotton under the contract shall not be effected by means of "set-off" or "ring" settlement, but only by the actual transfer of the specified cotton mentioned in the contract.

The provisions of the first, third, and fourth subdivisions of this section shall be deemed fully incorporated into any such contract if there be written or printed thereon, or on the document or memorandum evidencing the same, at or prior to the time the same is entered into, the words "Subject to United States cotton futures Act, section 10."

This chapter shall not be construed to impose a tax on any sale of spot cotton.

This section shall not be construed to apply to any contract of sale made in compliance with section 735 of this chapter. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 479.)

742. [Section 11.] Payment of tax; affixing stamps to contract or memoranda; cancelling stamps.—The tax imposed by section 733 of this chapter shall be paid by the seller of the cotton involved in the contract of sale, by means of stamps which shall be affixed to such contracts, or to the memoranda evidencing the same, and canceled in compliance with rules and regulations which shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 480.)

743. [Section 12.] Contracts not conforming to requirements unenforceable.—No contract of sale of cotton for future delivery mentioned in section 733 of this chapter which does not conform to the requirements of section 734 hereof and has not the necessary stamps affixed thereto as required by section 742 hereof shall be enforceable in any court of the United States by, or on behalf of, any party to such contract or his privies. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 480.)

744. [Section 13.] Regulations for collection of tax; records and returns of sales; internal revenue laws applicable.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to make and promulgate such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary to collect the tax imposed by this chapter and otherwise to enforce its provisions. Further to effect this purpose, he shall require all persons coming within its provisions to keep such records and statements of account, and may require such persons to make such returns verified under oath or otherwise, as will fully and correctly disclose all transactions mentioned in section 733 of this title, including the making, execution, settlement, and fulfillment thereof; he may require all persons who act in the capacity of a clearing house, clearing association, or similar institution for the purpose of clearing, settling, or adjusting transactions mentioned in said section 733 of this title to keep such records and to make such returns as will fully and correctly disclose all facts in their possession relating to such transactions; and he may appoint agents to conduct the inspection necessary to collect said tax and otherwise to enforce this chapter and all rules and regulations made by him in pursuance hereof, and may fix the compensation of such agents. The provisions of the internal revenue laws of the United States, so far as applicable, including sections 93 to 96 of this title, shall apply to this chapter. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 480.)

745. [Section 14.] Offenses; punishment.—Any person liable to the payment of any tax imposed by this chapter who fails to pay, or evades or attempts to evade the payment of such tax, and any person who otherwise violates any provision of this chapter, or any rule or regulation made in pursuance hereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $20,000, in the discretion of the court; and, in case of natural persons, may, in addition, be punished by imprisonment for not less than sixty days nor more than three years, in the discretion of the court. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 480.)

746. [Section 15.] Additional penalty recoverable by action; informers; prosecutions by United States attorneys.—In addition to the foregoing punishment there is imposed, on account of each violation of this chapter, a penalty of $2,000, to be recovered in an action founded on this chapter in the name of the United States as plaintiff, and when so recovered one-half of said amount shall be paid over to the person giving the information upon which such recovery was based. It shall be the duty of United States attorneys, to whom satisfactory evidence of violations of this chapter is furnished, to institute and prosecute actions for the recovery of the penalties prescribed by this section. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 481.)

747. [Section 16.] Immunity of witnesses.—No person whose evidence is deemed material by the officer prosecuting on behalf of the United States in any case brought under any provision of this chapter shall withhold his testimony because of complicity by him in any violation of this chapter or of any regulation made pursuant to this chapter, but any such person called by such officer who testifies in such case shall be exempt from prosecution for any offense to which his testimony relates. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 481.)

748. [Section 17.] State laws and taxation unaffected.—The payment of any tax levied by this chapter shall not exempt any person from any penalty or punishment now or hereafter provided by the laws of any State for entering into contracts of sale of cotton for future delivery, nor shall the payment of any tax imposed by this chapter be held to prohibit any State or municipality from imposing a tax on the same transaction. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 481.)

749. [Section 19.] Publication of results of investigations.—The Secretary of Agriculture is hereby directed to publish from time to time the results of investigations made in pursuance of this chapter. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 481.)

750. [Section 20.] Contracts made prior to September 1, 1916, unaffected.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to apply to any contract of sale of any cotton for future delivery mentioned in section 733 of this chapter which shall have been made prior to September 1, 1916. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 481.)

751. Expenses of Government attorneys; per diem allowance.—When ordered from their designated posts of duty cotton-futures attorneys, may be granted per diem in lieu of subsistence not exceeding $4. (May 10, 1916, c. 117, § 1, 39 Stat. 87.)

752. [Section 22.] Effect of partial invalidity.—If any clause, sentence, paragraph, or part of this chapter shall for any reason be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 482.)

Chapter 14.—TOBACCO AND SNUFF.

Sec.
761. Tax on tobacco and snuff; snuff flour.
762. Registration of dealers in leaf tobacco; manufacturers and peddlers.

Section 761. Tax on tobacco and snuff; snuff flour.—Upon all tobacco and snuff manufactured in or imported into the United States, and sold by the manufacturer or importer, or removed for consumption or sale, there shall be levied, collected, and paid a tax of 18 cents per pound, to be paid by the manufacturer or importer thereof. Snuff flour when sold or removed for use or consumption shall be taxed as snuff and shall be put up in packages and stamped in the same manner as snuff. (R. S. § 3368; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 127, § 2, 18 Stat. 3368; Mar. 3, 1883, c. 121, § 4, 22 Stat. 489; Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1244, § 30, 26 Stat. 619; June 13, 1898, c. 448, § 3, 30 Stat. 449; Apr. 12, 1902, c. 500, § 3, 32 Stat. 96; Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 31, 36 Stat. 109; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 401 (a), 43 Stat. 317.)

762. Registration of dealers in leaf tobacco; manufacturers and peddlers.—Every dealer in leaf tobacco, retail dealer in leaf tobacco, manufacturer, and peddler shall register with the collector of the district his name, or style, place of residence, trade or business, and the place where such trade or business is to be carried on, and a failure to register as herein required shall subject such person to a penalty of $50. (Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1244, § 26, 26 Stat. 618.)

763. "Tobacco manufacturer" defined.—Every person whose business it is to manufacture tobacco or snuff for himself, or who employs others to manufacture tobacco or snuff, whether such manufacture be by cutting, pressing, grinding, crushing, or rubbing of any raw or leaf tobacco, or otherwise preparing raw or leaf tobacco, or manufactured or partially manufactured tobacco or snuff, or the putting up for use or consumption of scraps, waste, clippings, stems, or deposits of tobacco resulting from any process of handling tobacco, or by the working or preparation of leaf tobacco, tobacco stems, scraps, clippings, or waste, by sifting, twisting, screening, or any other process, shall be regarded as a manufacturer of tobacco. And all tobacco so sold by such person shall be regarded as manufactured tobacco; and such manufactured tobacco shall be put up and prepared by such manufacturer in such packages only as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 69, 28 Stat. 568; Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 35, 36 Stat. 111; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, Title VII, § 704, 40 Stat. 1118.)

764. Farmers and growers of tobacco not regarded as manufacturers.—Farmers and growers of tobacco who sell leaf tobacco of their own growth and raising shall not be regarded as manufacturers of tobacco. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 69, 28 Stat. 568; Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 35, 36 Stat. 110.)

765. Manufacturer's statement of business; bond and certificate.—Every person, before commencing, or, if he has already commenced, before continuing, the manufacture of tobacco or snuff, shall furnish, without previous demand therefor, to the collector of the district where the manufacture is to be carried on, a statement in duplicate, subscribed under oath, setting forth the place, and if in a city, the street and number of the street, where the manufacture is to be carried on; the number of cutting machines, presses, snuff mills, hand mills, or other machines; the name, kind, and quality of the article manufactured or proposed to be manufactured; and when the same is manufactured by him as agent for any other person, or to be sold and delivered to any other person under a special contract, the name and residence and business or occupation of the person for whom the said article is to be manufactured, or to whom it is to be delivered; and he shall give a bond, to be approved by the collector of the district, in the sum of not less than $2,000 nor more than $20,000, to be fixed by the collector of the district, according to the quantum of business proposed to be done by the manufacturer, with right of appeal by the manufacturer to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue in respect to the amount of said bond, conditioned that he shall not engage in any attempt, by himself or by collusion with others, to defraud the Government of any tax on his manufactures; that he shall render truly and completely all the returns, statements, and inventories prescribed by law or regulations; that whenever he adds to the number of cutting machines, presses, snuff mills, hand mills, or other mills or machines as aforesaid, he shall immediately give notice thereof to the collector of the district; that he shall stamp, in accordance with law, all tobacco and snuff manufactured by him before he removes any part thereof from the place of manufacture; that he shall not knowingly sell, purchase, expose, or receive for sale, any manufactured tobacco or snuff which has not been stamped as required by law; and that he shall comply with all the requirements of law relating to the manufacture of tobacco or snuff. Additional sureties may be required by the collector from time to time. And every manufacturer shall obtain a certificate from the collector of the district, who is directed to issue the same, setting forth the kind and number of machines, presses, snuff mills, hand mills, or other mills and machines as aforesaid; which certificate shall be posted in a conspicuous place within the manufactory. And every tobacco manufacturer who neglects or refuses to obtain such certificate, or to keep the same posted as hereinbefore provided, shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500. Any every person who manufactures tobacco or snuff of any description without first giving bond, as herein required, shall be fined not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned for not less than one nor more than five years. (R. S. § 3355; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 248; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 14, 20 Stat. 344.)

766. Sign put up by manufacturer.—Every manufacturer of tobacco and snuff shall place and keep on the side or end of the building wherein his business is carried on, so that it can be distinctly seen, a sign, with letters thereon not less than three inches in length, painted in oil colors or gilded, giving his full name and business. And every person who neglects to comply with the requirements of this section shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500. (R. S. § 3356.)

767. Record of manufacturers kept by collector.—Every collector shall keep a record, in a book or books provided for that purpose, to be open to the inspection of only the proper officers of internal revenue, including deputy collectors and internal-revenue agents, of the name and residence of every person engaged in the manufacture of tobacco or snuff in his district, the place where such manufacture is carried on, and the number of the manufactory; and he shall enter in said record, under the name of each manufacturer, a copy of every inventory required by law to be made by such manufacturer, and an abstract of his monthly returns; and he shall cause the several manufactories of tobacco or snuff in his district to be numbered consecutively, which numbers shall not be thereafter changed, except for reasons satisfactory to himself and approved by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. (R. S. § 3357; June 9, 1880, c. 161, § 2, 21 Stat. 168; Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1244, § 33, 26 Stat. 620.)

768. Annual inventory of manufacturer; books and monthly abstracts.—Every person engaged in the manufacture of tobacco or snuff shall make and deliver to the collector of the district a true inventory, in such form as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and verified by his own oath, of the quantity of each of the different kinds of tobacco, snuff flour, snuff, stems, scraps, clippings, waste, tin foil, licorice, sugar, gum, and other materials held or owned by him on the first day of January of each year, or at the time of commencing and at the time of concluding business, if before or after the 1st of January; setting forth what portion of said goods and materials, and what kinds were manufactured and produced by him, and what was purchased from others. The collector shall make personal examination of the stock sufficient to satisfy himself as to the correctness of the inventory, and shall verify the fact of such examination by oath, to be indorsed on or affixed to the inventory. And every such person shall keep a book or books, the forms of which shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and enter therein daily an accurate account of all the articles aforesaid purchased by him, the quantity of tobacco, snuff, and snuff flour, stems, scraps, clippings, waste, tin foil, licorice, sugar, gum, and other material, of whatever description, manufactured, sold, consumed, or removed for consumption or sale, or removed from the place of manufacture in bond, and to what district removed; also the number of net pounds of lumps of plug tobacco made in the lump room, and the number of packages and pounds thereof produced in the pressroom each day. And he shall, on or before the tenth day of each month, furnish to the collector a true and complete abstract from such book, verifying the same by his oath, of all such purchases, sales, and removals made during the month next preceding. And whenever any such person refuses or willfully neglects to deliver the inventory, or keep the account, or furnish the abstract aforesaid, he shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than six months nor more than three years. (R. S. § 3358.)

769. Packages of tobacco and snuff.—All manufactured tobacco shall be put up and prepared by the manufacturer for sale, or removal for sale or consumption, in packages of the following description and in no other manner:

All smoking tobacco, snuff, fine-cut chewing tobacco, all cut and granulated tobacco, all shorts, the refuse of fine-cut chewing, which has passed through a riddle of thirty-six meshes to the square inch, and all refuse scraps, clippings, cuttings, and sweepings of tobacco, and all other kinds of tobacco not otherwise provided for, in packages containing one-eighth of an ounce, three-eighths of an ounce, and further packages with a difference between each package and the one next smaller of one-eighth of an ounce up to and including two ounces, and further packages with a difference between each package and the one next smaller of one-fourth of an ounce up to and including four ounces, and packages of five ounces, six ounces, seven ounces, eight ounces, ten ounces, twelve ounces, fourteen ounces, and sixteen ounces. Snuff may, at the option of the manufacturer, be put up in bladders and in jars containing not exceeding twenty pounds.

All cavendish, plug, and twist tobacco, in wooden packages not exceeding 200 pounds net weight.

And every such wooden package shall have printed or marked thereon the manufacturer's name and place of manufacture, the registered number of the manufactory, and the gross weight, the tare, and the net weight of the tobacco in each package. These limitations and descriptions of packages shall not apply to tobacco and snuff transported in bond for exportation and actually exported. Wood, metal, paper, or other materials may be used separately or in combination for packing tobacco, snuff, and cigars, under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may establish. (R. S. § 3362; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 248; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 14, 20 Stat. 345; Jan. 9, 1883, c. 16, 22 Stat. 401; July 1, 1902, c. 1371, § 1, 32 Stat. 714; Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 30, 36 Stat. 108; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 701(b), 40 Stat. 1117; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 701(b), 42 Stat. 287; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 401(b), 43 Stat. 317.)

770. Perique tobacco, refuse, cuttings, sweepings, and so forth; sale between manufacturers or for export.—Perique tobacco, snuff flour, fine-cut shorts, the refuse of fine-cut chewing tobacco, refuse scraps, clippings, cuttings, and sweepings of tobacco, may be sold in bulk as material, and without the payment of tax, by one manufacturer directly to another manufacturer or for export under such restrictions, rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe. (R. S. § 3362; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 248; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 14, 20 Stat. 345; Jan. 9, 1883, c. 16, 22 Stat. 401; July 1, 1902, c. 1371, § 1, 32 Stat. 714; Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 30, 36 Stat. 108; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 701 (b), 40 Stat. 1117; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 701 (b), 42 Stat. 287; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 401 (b), 43 Stat. 317.)

771. Sale only in prescribed packages.—No manufactured tobacco shall be sold or offered for sale unless put up in packages and stamped as prescribed in this chapter, except at retail by retail dealers from packages authorized by section 769 of this chapter; and every person who sells or offers for sale any snuff or any kind of manufactured tobacco not so put up in packages and stamped shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years. (R. S. § 3363; Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1244, § 31, 26 Stat. 619.)

772. Label and notice on packages.—Every manufacturer of tobacco or snuff shall, in addition to all other requirements of law, print on each package, or securely affix, by pasting, on each package containing tobacco or snuff manufactured by or for him, a label, on which shall be printed the proprietor's or manufacturer's name, the number of the manufactory, the district and State in which it is situated, and these words:

"Notice.—The manufacturer of this tobacco has complied with all requirements of law. Every person is cautioned, under the penalties of law, not to use this package for tobacco again."

Every manufacturer of tobacco who neglects to print on or affix such label to any package containing tobacco made by or for him, or sold or offered for sale by or for him, and every person who removes any such label so affixed from any such package, shall be fined $50 for each package in respect to which such offense shall be committed. (R. S. § 3304; Mar. 3, 1883, c. 121, § 5, 22 Stat. 489.)

773. Lottery tickets, immoral pictures, and so forth, prohibited.—No packages of manufactured tobacco or snuff, prescribed by law, shall be permitted to have packed in, or attached to, or connected with them, nor affixed to, branded, stamped, marked, written, or printed upon them, any paper, certificate, or instrument purporting to be or represent a ticket, chance, share or interest in, or dependent upon, the event of a lottery, nor any indecent or immoral picture, representation, print, or words; and any violation of the provisions of this section shall subject the offender to the penalties and punishments provided by section 1189 of this title. (R. S. § 3394; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 127, § 2, 18 Stat. 339; July 24, 1897, c. 11, § 10, 30 Stat. 206; July 1, 1902, c. 1371, § 2, 32 Stat. 715; Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 33, 36 Stat. 110.)

774. Stamps; preparation and sale; tobacco sold under distraint; tobacco abandoned or forfeited.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall cause to be prepared suitable and special stamps for the payment of the tax on tobacco and snuff, which shall indicate the weight and class of the article on which payment is to be made, and shall be affixed and canceled in the mode prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and stamps when used on any wooden package shall be canceled by sinking a portion of the same into the wood with a steel die, and also such export stamps as are required by law. Such stamps shall be furnished to the collectors requiring them, and each collector shall keep at all times a supply equal in amount to three months' sale thereof, and shall sell the same only to the manufacturers of tobacco and snuff in their respective districts who have given bonds as required by law, and to owners or consignees of tobacco or snuff, upon the requisition of the proper customhouse officer having the custody of such tobacco or snuff. And every collector shall keep an account of the number, amount, and denominate values of stamps sold by him to each manufacturer or other person aforesaid. Such stamps as may be required to stamp tobacco or snuff, sold under distraint by any collector of internal revenue, or for stamping any tobacco or snuff, which may have been abandoned, condemned, or forfeited, and sold by order of court or of any Government officer for the benefit of the United States, may, under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall prescribe, be used by the collector making such sale, or furnished by a collector to a United States marshal, or to any other Government officer making such sale for the benefit of the United States, without making payment for said stamps so used or delivered; and any revenue collector using or furnishing stamps in manner as aforesaid, on presenting vouchers satisfactory to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, shall be allowed credit for the same in settling his stamp account with the department. In case it shall appear that any abandoned, condemned, or forfeited tobacco or snuff, when offered for sale, will not bring a price equal to the tax due and payable thereon, such goods shall not be sold for consumption in the United States; and upon application made to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, he is authorized to order the destruction of such tobacco or snuff, by the officer in whose custody and control the same may be at the time, and in such manner and under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe, or he may, under such regulations, order delivery of such tobacco or snuff, without payment of any tax, to any hospital maintained by the United States for the use of present or former members of the military or naval forces of the United States. (R. S. § 3369; Oct. 14, 1921, c. 107, 42 Stat. 205.)

775. Tobacco manufactured by one person for another or on shares; stamps; fraud.—Whenever tobacco or snuff of any description is manufactured, in whole or in part, upon commission or shares, or the material from which any such articles are made, or are to be made, is furnished by one person and made or manufactured by another, or the material is furnished or sold by one person with an understanding or agreement with another that the manufactured article is to be received in payment therefor or for any part thereof, the stamps required by law shall be affixed by the actual maker or manufacturer before the article passes from the place of making or manufacturing. And in case of fraud on the part of either of said persons in respect to said manufacture, or of any collusion on their part with intent to defraud the revenue, such material and manufactured articles shall be forfeited to the United States; and each party to such fraud or collusion shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be fined not less than $100 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned for not less than six months nor more than three years. (R. S. § 3370.)

776. Estimated tax on tobacco sold without stamps; notice of assessment.—Whenever any manufacturer of tobacco or snuff, sells, or removes for sale or consumption, any tobacco or snuff, upon which a tax is required to be paid by stamps, without the use of the proper stamps, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, within a period of not more than two years after such sale or removal, upon satisfactory proof, to estimate the amount of tax which has been omitted to be paid, and to make an assessment therefor, and certify the same to the collector. The tax so assessed shall be in addition to the penalties imposed by law for such sale or removal: Providing, however, That no such assessment shall be made until and after notice to the manufacturer of the alleged sale and removal to show cause against said assessment; and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall, upon a full hearing of all the evidence, determine what assessment, if any should be made. (R. S. § 3371; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 14, 20 Stat. 346.)

777. Removing unlawfully, selling without stamps, or giving bond, making false entries.—Every manufacturer of tobacco or snuff who removes, otherwise than as provided by law, or sells, without the proper stamps denoting the tax thereon, or without giving bond as required by law, any tobacco or snuff, or who makes false and fraudulent entries of manufactures or sales of tobacco or snuff, or makes false or fraudulent entries of the purchase or sales of leaf tobacco, tobacco stems, or other material; or who affixes any false, forged, fraudulent, spurious, or counterfeit stamp, or imitation of any stamp, required by law, or any stamp required by law which has been previously used, to any box or package containing any tobacco or snuff, shall, in addition to the penalties elsewhere provided by law for such offenses, forfeit to the United States all the raw material and manufactured or partly manufactured tobacco and snuff, and all machinery, tools, implements, apparatus, fixtures, boxes, and barrels, and all other materials which may be found in his possession, in his manufactory, or elsewhere. (R. S. § 3372.)

778. Absence of stamp evidence of nonpayment; forfeiture.—The absence of the proper stamp on any package of manufactured tobacco or snuff shall be notice to all persons that the tax has not been paid thereon, and shall be prima facie evidence of the nonpayment thereof. And such tobacco or snuff shall be forfeited to the United States. (R. S. § 3373.)

779. Purchasing tobacco not branded or marked.—Every person who purchases, or receives for sale, any manufactured tobacco or snuff which has not been branded or stamped according to law, shall be liable to a penalty of $50 for each offense. (R. S. § 3366.)

780. Unlawful removal from manufactory; penalty.—Every person who removes from any manufactory, or from any place where tobacco or snuff is made, any manufactured tobacco or snuff without the same being put up in proper packages, or without the proper stamp for the amount of tax thereon being affixed and canceled, as required by law; or, if the same be intended for export, without the proper export stamp being affixed; or who uses, sells, or offers for sale, or has in possession, except in the manufactory, or while in transfer under bond or a collector's permit, from any manufactory, store, or warehouse, to a vessel for exportation to a foreign country, any manufactured tobacco or snuff, without proper stamps for the amount of tax thereon being affixed and canceled; or who sells, or offers for sale, for consumption in the United States, or uses, or has in possession, except in the manufactory, or while in transfer under bond or a collector's permit, from any manufactory, store, or warehouse, to a vessel for exportation to a foreign country, any manufactured tobacco or snuff on which only the stamp marking the same for export has been affixed, shall for each such offense, respectively, be fined not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000 and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years. (R. S. § 3374.)

781. Affixing false stamps or used stamps.—Every person who affixes to any package containing tobacco or snuff, any false, forged, fraudulent, spurious, or counterfeit stamp, or a stamp which has been before used, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be fined not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than two years nor more than five years. (R. S. § 3375.)

782. Stamped portion of emptied packages to be destroyed; buying, selling, or using same.—Whenever any stamped box, bag, vessel, wrapper, or envelope of any kind, containing tobacco or snuff, is emptied, the stamp or stamps thereon shall be destroyed by the person in whose hands the same may be. And every person who willfully neglects or refuses so to do shall, for each such offense, be fined $50, and imprisoned not less than ten days nor more than six months. And every person who sells or gives away, or who buys or accepts from another any such empty stamped box, bag, vessel, wrapper, or envelope of any kind, or the stamp or stamps taken from any such empty box, bag, vessel, wrapper, or envelope of any kind, shall, for each such offense, be fined $100 and imprisoned for not less than twenty days, and not more than one year. And every manufacturer or other person who puts tobacco or snuff into any such box, bag, vessel, wrapper, or envelope, the same having been either emptied or partially emptied, or who has in his possession, or affixes to any box or other package, any stamp which has been previously used, or who sells, or offers for sale, any box or other package of tobacco, snuff, or cigars, having affixed thereto any fraudulent, spurious, imitation, or counterfeit stamp, or stamp that has been previously used, or sells from any such fraudulently stamped box or package, or has in his possession any box or package as aforesaid, knowing the same to be fraudulently stamped, shall, for each such offense, be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500, and imprisoned for not less than one year nor more than three years. (R. S. § 3376.)
