161. Interstate quarantine; shipments or removals from quarantined localities forbidden; regulations by Secretary for shipment, etc., from quarantined localities; notice and hearings; promulgation.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized and directed to quarantine any State, Territory, or District of the United States, or any portion thereof, when he shall determine that such quarantine is necessary to prevent the spread of a dangerous plant disease or insect infestation, new to or not theretofore widely prevalent or distributed within and throughout the United States; and the Secretary of Agriculture is directed to give notice of the establishment of such quarantine to common carriers doing business in or through such quarantined area, and shall publish in such newspapers in the quarantined area as he shall select notice of the establishment of quarantine. No person shall ship or offer for shipment to any common carrier, nor shall any common carrier receive for transportation or transport, nor shall any person carry or transport from any quarantined State or Territory or District of the United States, or from any quarantined portion thereof, into or through any other State or Territory or District, any class of nursery stock or any other class of plants, fruits, vegetables, roots, bulbs, seeds, or other plant products, or any class of stone or quarry products, or any other article of any character whatsoever, capable of carrying any dangerous plant disease or insect infestation, specified in the notice of quarantine except as hereinafter provided. It shall be unlawful to move, or allow to be moved, any class of nursery stock or any other class of plants, fruits, vegetables, roots, bulbs, seeds, or other plant products, or any class of stone or quarry products or any other article of any character whatsoever, capable of carrying any dangerous plant disease or insect infestation, specified in the notice of quarantine hereinbefore provided, and regardless of the use for which the same is intended, from any quarantined State or Territory or District of the United States or quarantined portion thereof, into or through any other State or Territory or District, in manner or method or under conditions other than those prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of Agriculture, when the public interests will permit, to make and promulgate rules and regulations which shall permit and govern the inspection, disinfection, certification, and method and manner of delivery and shipment of the class of nursery stock or of any other class of plants, fruits, vegetables, roots, bulbs, seeds, or other plant products, or any class of stone or quarry products, or any other article of any character whatsoever, capable of carrying any dangerous plant disease or insect infestation, specified in the notice of quarantine hereinbefore provided, and regardless of the use for which the same is intended, from a quarantined State or Territory or District of the United States, or quarantined portion thereof, into or through any other State or Territory or District; and the Secretary of Agriculture shall give notice of such rules and regulations as hereinbefore provided in this section for the notice of the establishment of quarantine: Provided, That before the Secretary of Agriculture shall promulgate his determination that it is necessary to quarantine any State, Territory, or District of the United States, or portion thereof, under the authority given in this section, he shall, after due notice to interested parties, give a public hearing under such rules and regulations as he shall prescribe, at which hearing any interested party may appear and be heard, either in person or by attorney: Provided further, That until the Secretary of Agriculture shall have made a determination that such a quarantine is necessary and has duly established the same with reference to any dangerous plant disease or insect infestation, as herein above provided, nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent any State, Territory, Insular Possession, or District from promulgating, enacting, and enforcing any quarantine, prohibiting or restricting the transportation of any class of nursery stock, plant, fruit, seed, or other product or article subject to the restrictions of this section, into or through such State, Territory, District, or portion thereof, from any other State, Territory, District, or portion thereof, when it shall be found, by the State, Territory, or District promulgating or enacting the same, that such dangerous plant disease or insect infestation exists in such other State, Territory, District, or portion thereof: Provided further, That the Secretary of Agriculture is hereby authorized, whenever he deems such action advisable and necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act,[3] to cooperate with any State, Territory, or District, in connection with any quarantine, enacted or promulgated by such State, Territory, or District, as specified in the preceding proviso: Provided further, That any nursery stock, plant, fruit, seed, or other product or article, subject to the restrictions of this section, a quarantine with respect to which shall have been established by the Secretary of Agriculture under the provisions of this Act shall, when transported to, into, or through any State, Territory, or District, in violation of such quarantine, be subject to the operation and effect of the laws of such State, Territory, or District, enacted in the exercise of its police powers, to the same extent and in the same manner as though such nursery stock, plant, fruit, seed, or other product or article had been produced in such State, Territory, or District, and shall not be exempt therefrom by reason of being introduced therein in original packages or otherwise. (Mar. 4, 1917, c. 179, 39 Stat. 1165; Apr. 13, 1926, c. 135, 44 Stat. 250.)

Section 161 of Title 7 amended.—The provision of Act of Aug. 20, 1912, c. 308, § 8, 37 Stat. 318, as amended by Act of Mar. 4, 1917, c. 179, 39 Stat. 1165, constituting § 161 of Title 7 of the Code, has been amended by Resolution of Apr. 13, c. 135, 44 Stat. 250, to read as above. The amendment added the three provisos at end of section.

455. Dissemination of crop, market, etc., information by cooperative marketing associations.
456. Rules and regulations; appointment, removal, and compensation of employees; expenditures; appropriations.
457. Partial invalidity of Act.

New chapter. Derived from Act of July 2, 1926, c. 725, 44 Stat. 802, the Act being entitled "An Act to create a division of cooperative marketing in the Department of Agriculture; to provide for the acquisition and dissemination of information pertaining to cooperation; to provide for calling advisers to counsel with the Secretary of Agriculture on cooperative activities; to authorize cooperative associations to acquire, interpret, and disseminate crop and market information, and for other purposes."

451. Division of cooperative marketing in Bureau of Agricultural Economics; definitions.—When used in this Act[1a] the term "agricultural products" means agricultural, horticultural, viticultural, and dairy products, livestock and the products thereof, the products of poultry and bee raising, the edible products of forestry, and any and all products raised or produced on farms and processed or manufactured products thereof, transported or intended to be transported in interstate and/or foreign commerce. (July 2, 1926, c. 725, § 1, 44 Stat. 802.)

New section.

452. Establishment of division.—The Secretary of Agriculture is hereby authorized and directed to establish a division of cooperative marketing with suitable personnel in the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the Department of Agriculture or in such bureau in the Department of Agriculture as may hereafter be concerned with the marketing and distribution of farm products. Such division shall be under the direction and supervision of the Secretary of Agriculture. (July 2, 1926, c. 725, § 2, 44 Stat. 802.)

New section.

453. Authority and duties of division.—(a) The division shall render service to associations of producers of agricultural products, and federations and subsidiaries thereof, engaged in the cooperative marketing of agricultural products, including processing, warehousing, manufacturing, storage, the cooperative purchasing of farm supplies, credit, financing, insurance, and other cooperative activities.

(b) The division is authorized—

(1) To acquire, analyze, and disseminate economic, statistical, and historical information regarding the progress, organization, and business methods of cooperative associations in the United States and foreign countries.

(2) To conduct studies of the economic, legal, financial, social, and other phases of cooperation, and publish the results thereof. Such studies shall include the analyses of the organization, operation, financial, and merchandising problems of cooperative associations.

(3) To make surveys and analyses if deemed advisable of the accounts and business practices of representative cooperative associations upon their request; to report to the association so surveyed the results thereof; and with the consent of the association so surveyed to publish summaries of the results of such surveys, together with similar facts, for the guidance of cooperative associations and for the purpose of assisting cooperative associations in developing methods of business and market analysis.

(4) To confer and advise with committees or groups of producers, if deemed advisable, that may be desirous of forming a cooperative association and to make an economic survey and analysis of the facts surrounding the production and marketing of the agricultural product or products which the association, if formed, would handle or market.

(5) To acquire from all available sources information concerning crop prospects, supply, demand, current receipts, exports, imports, and prices of the agricultural products handled or marketed by cooperative associations, and to employ qualified commodity marketing specialists to summarize and analyze this information and disseminate the same among cooperative associations and others.

(6) To promote the knowledge of cooperative principles and practices and to cooperate, in promoting such knowledge, with educational and marketing agencies, cooperative associations, and others.

(7) To make such special studies, in the United States and foreign countries, and to acquire and disseminate such information and findings as may be useful in the development and practice of cooperation. (July 2, 1926, c. 725, § 3, 44 Stat. 802.)

New section.

454. Advisers to counsel with Secretary of Agriculture; expenses and subsistence.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized, in his discretion, to call advisers to counsel with him and/or his representatives relative to specific problems of cooperative marketing of farm products or any other cooperative activity. Any person, other than an officer, agent, or employee of the United States, called into conference, as provided for in this section, may be paid actual transportation expenses and not to exceed $10 per diem to cover subsistence and other expenses while in conference and en route from and to his home. (July 2, 1926, c. 725, § 4, 44 Stat. 803.)

New section.

455. Dissemination of crop, market, etc., information by cooperative marketing associations.—Persons engaged, as original producers of agricultural products, such as farmers, planters, ranchmen, dairymen, nut or fruit growers, acting together in associations, corporate or otherwise, in collectively processing, preparing for market, handling, and marketing in interstate and/or foreign commerce such products of persons so engaged, may acquire, exchange, interpret, and disseminate past, present, and prospective crop, market, statistical, economic, and other similar information by direct exchange between such persons, and/or such associations or federations thereof, and/or by and through a common agent created or selected by them. (July 2, 1926, c. 725 § 5, 44 Stat. 803.)

New section.

456. Rules and regulations; appointment, removal, and compensation of employees; expenditures; appropriations.—The Secretary of Agriculture may make such rules and regulations as may be deemed advisable to carry out the provisions of this Act[1b] and may cooperate with any department or agency of the Government, any State, Territory, District, or possession, or department, agency, or political subdivision thereof, or any person; and may call upon any other Federal department, board, or commission for assistance in carrying out the purposes of this Act[1b]; and shall have the power to appoint, remove, and fix the compensation of such officers and employees not in conflict with existing law and make such expenditure for rent, outside the District of Columbia, printing, telegrams, telephones, books of reference, books of law, periodicals, newspapers, furniture, stationery, office equipment, travel, and other supplies and expenses as shall be necessary to the administration of this Act[1b] in the District of Columbia and elsewhere, and there is hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $225,000 to be available for expenditure during the fiscal years 1926 and 1927, and the appropriation of such additional sums as may be necessary thereafter for carrying out the purposes of this Act[1b] is hereby authorized. (July 2, 1926, c. 725, § 6, 44 Stat. 803.)

New section.

457. Partial invalidity of Act.—If any provision of this Act[1b] is declared unconstitutional or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of the Act[1b] and the applicability of such provision to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby, and nothing contained in this Act[1b] is intended, nor shall be construed, to modify or repeal any of the provisions of the Act of February 18, 1922[2] (chapter 57, Forty-second Statutes at Large, page 388). (July 2, 1926, c. 725, § 7, 44 Stat. 803.)

New section.

QUOTA AND NONQUOTA IMMIGRANTS

204. "Nonquota immigrant" defined.—When used in this Act the term "nonquota immigrant" means—

(a) An immigrant who is the unmarried child under eighteen years of age, or the wife, of a citizen of the United States who resides therein at the time of the filing of a petition under section 9;

(b) An immigrant previously lawfully admitted to the United States, who is returning from a temporary visit abroad;

(c) An immigrant who was born in the Dominion of Canada, Newfoundland, the Republic of Mexico, the Republic of Cuba, the Republic of Haiti, the Dominican Republic, the Canal Zone, or an independent country of Central or South America, and his wife, and his unmarried children under eighteen years of age, if accompanying or following to join him;

(d) An immigrant who continuously for at least two years immediately preceding the time of his application for admission to the United States has been, and who seeks to enter the United States solely for the purpose of, carrying on the vocation of minister of any religious denomination, or professor of a college, academy, seminary, or university; and his wife, and his unmarried children under eighteen years of age, if accompanying or following to join him; or an immigrant arriving in the United States before July 1, 1927, who is the wife, or the unmarried child under eighteen years of age, of an alien resident of the United States who entered the United States prior to July 1, 1924, and who continuously for at least two years immediately preceding the time of his admission to the United States for permanent residence was, and who entered the United States solely for the purpose of carrying on the vocation of minister of any religious denomination or professor of a college, academy, seminary, or university, if such immigrant is following to join such alien; or

(e) An immigrant who is a bona fide student at least fifteen years of age and who seeks to enter the United States solely for the purpose of study at an accredited school, college, academy, seminary, or university, particularly designated by him and approved by the Secretary of Labor, which shall have agreed to report to the Secretary of Labor the termination of attendance of each immigrant student, and if any such institution of learning fails to make such reports promptly the approval shall be withdrawn. (May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 4, 43 Stat. 155; July 3, 1926, c. 738, § 1, 44 Stat. 812.)

Section 204 of Title 8 amended.—The provision of Act of May 26, 1924, c. 190, § 4, 43 Stat. 155, constituting § 204 of Title 8 of the Code, has been amended by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 738, § 1, 44 Stat. 812, to read as above. The amendment added the second provision of par. (d) beginning "or an immigrant."

Section 2 of the above amending Act provided as follows:

"SEC. 2. Despite the provisions of the Immigration Act of 1924, the Secretary of Labor is authorized to admit to the United States for permanent residence any otherwise admissible alien who (1) is the wife or the unmarried child under eighteen years of age of an alien resident of the United States who entered the United States prior to July 1, 1924, and who continuously for at least two years immediately preceding the time of his admission to the United States for permanent residence was, and who entered the United States solely for the purpose of, carrying on the vocation of minister of any religious denomination or professor of a college, academy, seminary, or university, and (2) who arrived at a United States port of entry between May 26, 1924, and July 1, 1924, and were thereafter temporarily admitted."

231. Admission into Porto Rico of certain resident Spanish subjects.—That all Spanish subjects who on April 11, 1899 (whether adults or minors), were bona fide residents of Porto Rico or adjacent islands which comprised the Province of Puerto Rico and who, in conformity with Article IX of the treaty between the United States and Spain of April 11, 1899, have preserved their allegiance to the Crown of Spain, may be admitted into Porto Rico without regard to the provisions of the Immigration Act of 1924, except section 23.[1] (May 26, 1926, c. 400, 44 Stat. 657.)

New section. It is derived from an Act entitled "An Act exempting from the provisions of the Immigration Act of 1924 certain Spanish subjects residents of Porto Rico on April 11, 1899," cited to the text.

ALIEN VETERANS OF THE WORLD WAR[2] [NEW]

241. "Alien veteran" defined; definitions of Immigration Act of 1924 adopted.—That (a) as used in this Act, the term "alien veteran" means an individual, a member of the military or naval forces of the United States at any time after April 5, 1917, and before November 12, 1918, who is now an alien not ineligible to citizenship; but does not include (1) any individual at any time during such period or thereafter separated from such forces under other than honorable conditions, (2) any conscientious objector who performed no military duty whatever or refused to wear the uniform, or (3) any alien at any time during such period or thereafter discharged from the military or naval forces on account of his alienage.

[1] Sec. 23 of the Immigration Act of 1924, referred to above, constitutes § 221 of Title 8 of the Code.

[2] Secs. 241–247 which follow are §§ 1–6 of Act of March 26, 1926, c. 398, 44 Stat. 654. Sec. 7 of the act is § 392a of this title of the appendix. The Act was entitled "An Act to admit to the United States, and to extend naturalization privileges to, alien veterans of the World War."

(b) Terms defined in the Immigration Act of 1924[3] shall, when used in this Act,[7] have the meaning assigned to such terms in that Act. (May 26, 1926, c. 398, § 1, 44 Stat. 654.)

New section. See footnote to this subdivision of chapter 6.

242. Alien veteran as nonquota immigrant; head tax or fees; grounds for exclusion.—An alien veteran shall for the purposes of the Immigration Act of 1924 be considered as a nonquota immigrant, but shall be subject to all the other provisions of that Act and of the immigration laws, except that—

(a) He shall not be subject to the head tax imposed by section 2 of the Immigration Act of 1917;[3a]

(b) He shall not be required to pay any fee under section 2 or section 7 of the Immigration Act of 1924;[4]

(c) If otherwise admissible, he shall not be excluded under section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1917,[5] unless excluded under the provisions of that section relating to—

(1) Persons afflicted with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, except tuberculosis in any form;

(2) Polygamy;

(3) Prostitutes, procurers, or other like immoral persons;

(4) Contract laborers;

(5) Persons previously deported;

(6) Persons convicted of crime. (May 26, 1926, c. 398, § 2, 44 Stat. 654.)

New section. See footnote to this subdivision of chapter 6.

243. Status of child or spouse of "alien veteran."—The unmarried child under eighteen years of age, the wife, or the husband, of an alien veteran shall, for the purposes of the Immigration Act of 1924,[5] be considered as a nonquota immigrant when accompanying or following within six months to join him, but shall be subject to all the other provisions of that Act and of the immigration laws. (May 26, 1926, c. 398, § 3, 44 Stat. 655.)

New section. See footnote to this subdivision of chapter 6.

244. Immigration visa; issuance within one year.—The foregoing provisions of this Act[6] shall not apply to any alien unless the immigration visa is issued to him before the expiration of one year after the enactment of this Act.[7] (May 26, 1926, c. 398, § 4, 44 Stat. 655.)

New section. See footnote to this subdivision of chapter 6.

245. Deportation as public charge; prohibition.—An alien veteran admitted to the United States under this Act[7] shall not be subject to deportation on the ground that he has become a public charge. (May 26, 1926, c. 398, § 5, 44 Stat. 655.)

New section. See footnote to this subdivision of chapter 6.

246. Person bringing admissible alien veteran to port not subject to fine.—Nothing in the immigration laws shall be construed as subjecting any person to a fine for bringing to a port of the United States an alien veteran who is admissible under the terms of this Act,[8] even though such alien would be subject to exclusion if this Act[8] had not been enacted. (May 26, 1926, c. 398, § 6, 44 Stat. 655.)

New section. See footnote to this subdivision of chapter 6.

NATURALIZATION PROCEEDINGS IN GENERAL

374. Same; not to be made on election day, etc.—[Repealed.]

Section 374 of Title 8 repealed.—The statutory provision constituting this section has been repealed by § 1 of Act of May 25, 1926, c. 388, 44 Stat. 652.

Section 2 of the Act provides that no declaration of intention heretofore filed in disregard of the repealed provision "shall be held invalid for such cause."

392a. Alien veterans of World War; naturalization proceedings within two years.—An alien veteran shall, if residing in the United States, be entitled, at any time within two years after the enactment of this Act, to naturalization upon the same terms, conditions, and exemptions which would have been accorded to such alien if he had petitioned before the armistice of the World War, except that such alien shall be required to appear and file his petition in person and to take the prescribed oath of allegiance in open court. (May 26, 1926, c. 398, § 7, 44 Stat. 655.)

New section. See footnote to chapter 6, subdivision ALIEN VETERANS OF THE WORLD WAR, p. 1897 of this appendix.

399a. Preliminary hearings upon petitions for naturalization; examiners; powers, etc.—(a) The judge of any United States district court, or the senior judge of such court if there are more judges than one, is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to designate one or more examiners or officers of the Bureau of Naturalization (including the Naturalization Service) serving as such examiner or officer within the territorial jurisdiction of such court, to conduct preliminary hearings upon petitions for naturalization to such court, and to make findings and recommendations thereon. For such purposes any such designated examiner or officer is hereby authorized to take testimony concerning any matter touching or in any way affecting the admissibility of any petitioner for naturalization, to subpœna witnesses, and to administer oaths, including the oath of the petitioner to his petition and the oath of his witnesses.

(b) The findings of any such designated examiner or officer upon any such preliminary hearing shall be submitted to the court at the final hearing upon the petition required by section 9,[9] with a recommendation that the petition be granted or denied or continued, with the reasons therefor. Such findings and recommendations shall be accompanied by duplicate lists containing the names of the petitioners, classified according to the character of the recommendations, and signed by the designated examiner or officer. The judge to whom such findings and recommendations are submitted shall by written order approve such recommendations with such exceptions as he may deem proper, by subscribing his name to each such list

New section. The matter constituting this section came from Act of June 8, 1926, cited to the text and contained the following introductory language:

"That section 4 of the Act entitled 'An Act to establish a Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization, and to provide for a uniform rule for the naturalization of aliens throughout the United States,' approved June 29, 1906, as amended, is amended by adding at the end thereof a new subdivision, to read as follows:"

The Act of June 29, 1906, mentioned in the introductory language just quoted, constitutes §§ 372–399 of Title 8 of the Code.

TITLE 10.—ARMY

Chapter 1.—COMPOSITION, ORGANIZATION, AND GOVERNMENT OF THE ARMY GENERALLY.

Sec.
6. Appointment of chiefs and assistant chiefs; term of office.
11. Army Band leader.

6. Appointment of chiefs and assistant chiefs; term of office.—Except as otherwise herein prescribed, chiefs and assistants to the chiefs of the several branches shall hereafter be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for a period of four years, and such appointments shall not create vacancies. Appointment as chief of any branch shall be made from among officers commissioned in grades not below that of colonel, and as assistant from among officers of not less than fifteen years' commissioned service, who have demonstrated by actual and extended service in such branch or on similar duty that they are qualified for such appointment: Provided, That the chiefs of the several branches shall make recommendations to the Secretary of War for the appointment of their assistants: Provided further, That in making the first appointment to any such office created by this title, the chief of a branch may be selected from among officers of not less than twenty-two years' commissioned service. And provided further, That during the period of seven years immediately following July 1, 1926, any appointment as Chief of the Air Corps shall be made from among officers of any grade of not less than fifteen years' commissioned service, and from those who have demonstrated by actual and extended service in such corps that they are qualified for such appointment; and as assistants from among officers of not less than fifteen years' commissioned service of similar qualifications: Provided, That the Chief of the Air Corps shall make recommendations to the Secretary of War for the appointment of his assistants. Any officer who shall have served four years as chief of a branch, and who may subsequently be retired, shall be retired with the rank, pay and allowances authorized by law for the grade held by him as such chief. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 4[4c]; June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 4, 41 Stat. 762; July 2, 1926, c. 721, § 7, 44 Stat. 783.)

Section 6 of Title 10 amended.—Section 4 of Act of June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, 41 Stat. 762, constituting section 6 of Title 10 of the Code, has been amended by Act of July 2, 1926, c. 721, § 7, 44 Stat. 783. The amendment added the latter part of the section, beginning with the words "And provided further."

11. Army Band leader.

By the Appropriation Act of Apr. 15, 1926, c. 146, Title I [44 Stat. 257] in a provision amending section 19 of Title 37 of the Code "members of the United States Band" were included in a provision for allowances for quarters and subsistence. See that section and title in the appendix.

Chapter 2.—GENERAL STAFF CORPS.

23a. Air Section of War Department General Staff.—For the period of three years immediately following July 1, 1926, there is hereby created in each of the divisions of the War Department General Staff an air section to be headed by an officer of the Air Corps, the duties of which shall be to consider and recommend proper action on such air matters as may be referred to such division. (July 2, 1926, c. 721, § 5, 44 Stat. 782.)

Air Service now Air Corps.—Act of July 2, 1926, c. 721, § 1, 44 Stat. 780, provided as follows: "The Act entitled 'An Act for making further and more effectual provision for the national defense, and for other purposes,' approved June 3, 1916, as amended, be, and the same is hereby, amended so that the Air Service referred to in that Act and in all subsequent Acts of Congress shall be known as the Air Corps."

The Air Corps Act of July 2, 1926, consisted of 14 sections which are placed in the appendix as follows:

Section 1 is quoted above.

Section 2 appears as section 291 of this Title in the appendix.

Section 3 appears as section 292a of this Title in the appendix.

Section 4 appears as section 553a of this Title in the appendix.

Section 5 appears as section 23a of this Title in the appendix.

Section 6 appears as section 29 of Title 37 in the appendix.

Section 7 amended section 6 of this Title and appears as part of that section in the appendix.

Section 8 appears as section 292b of this Title in the appendix.

Section 9 authorized an additional Assistant Secretary of State and appears in Title 5, chapter 3, in the appendix.

Section 10 appears as section 310 of this Title in the appendix.

Sections 11, 12, and 13 appears as sections 1428, 1429, and 1430 of this Title in the appendix.

Section 14 provided as follows: "That if any section or provision of this Act shall be held to be invalid, it is hereby provided that all other sections and provisions of this Act not expressly held to be invalid shall continue in full force and effect. No provision of this Act shall be retroactive and the provisions hereof shall take effect upon date of approval thereof, except as otherwise provided for herein, and all Acts or parts of Acts contrary to the provisions of this Act or inconsistent therewith be, and the same are hereby, repealed."

291. Establishment and composition of Air Corps.—There is hereby created an Air Corps. The Air Corps shall consist of one Chief of the Air Corps, with the rank of major general; three assistants, with the rank of brigadier general; one thousand five hundred and fourteen officers in grades from colonel to second lieutenant, inclusive; and sixteen thousand enlisted men, including not to exceed two thousand five hundred flying cadets, such part of whom as the President may direct being formed into tactical units or bands, organized as he may prescribe: Provided, That the Chief of the Air Corps, at least two brigadier generals, and at least 90 per centum of the officers in each grade below that of the brigadier general shall be flying officers: Provided further, That in time of war 10 per centum of the total number of officers that may be authorized for the Air Corps for such war may be immediately commissioned as nonflying officers: Provided further, That as soon as a sufficient number can be trained, at least 90 per centum of the total number of officers authorized for the Air Corps for such war shall be flying officers: Provided further, That hereafter in time of peace in order to insure that the commissioned officers of the Air Corps shall be properly qualified flying officers and, for the purpose of giving officers of the Army an opportunity to so qualify, the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to detail to the Air Corps officers of all grades and such officers shall start flying training immediately upon being so detailed, but hereafter such officers shall not remain detailed to the Air Corps for a period in excess of one year or be permanently commissioned therein unless they qualify as flying officers: Provided further, That any officer who is specifically recommended by the Secretary of War because of special qualifications other than as a flyer may be detailed to the Air Corps for a period longer than one year, or may be permanently commissioned in the Air Corps, but such officers, together with those flying officers who shall have become disqualified for flying shall not be included among the 90 per centum of flying officers: And provided further, That nothing in this Act[1] shall be construed to limit the number of officers in each grade that may be detailed to the Air Corps for training as flying officers except that the total number of officers allotted to the Air Corps shall not be exceeded. Flying units shall in all cases be commanded by flying officers. Wherever used in this Act a flying officer in time of peace is defined as one who has received an aeronautical rating as a pilot of service types of aircraft: Provided, That all officers of the Air Corps now holding any rating as a pilot shall be considered as flying officers within the meaning of this Act[1]: Provided further, That hereafter in order to receive a rating as a pilot in time of peace an officer or an enlisted man must fly in heavier-than-air craft at least two hundred hours while acting as a pilot, seventy-five of which must be alone, and must successfully complete the course prescribed by competent authority: And provided further, That in time of war a flying officer may include any officer who has received an aeronautical rating as a pilot of service types of air craft and also in time of war may include any officer who has received an aeronautical rating as observer. Officers and enlisted men of the Army shall receive an increase of 50 per centum of their pay when by orders of competent authority they are required to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flights, and when in consequence of such orders they do participate in regular and frequent aerial flights as defined by such Executive orders as have heretofore been, or may hereafter be, promulgated by the President: Provided, That nothing in this Act[1] shall be construed as amending existing provisions of law relating to flying cadets. On and after July 1, 1929, and in time of peace, not less than 20 per centum of the total number of pilots employed in tactical units of the Air Corps shall be enlisted men, except when the Secretary of War shall determine that it is impractical to secure that number of enlisted pilots.

Enlisted men of the fourth, fifth, sixth, and seventh grades in the Air Corps who have demonstrated their fitness and shown that they possess the necessary technical qualifications therefor and are engaged upon the duties pertaining thereto may be rated as air mechanics, first class, or air mechanics, second class, under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe. Each enlisted man while holding the rating of air mechanic, first class, and performing the duties as such shall receive the pay of the second grade, and each enlisted man while holding the rating of air mechanic, second class, and performing the duties as such shall receive the pay of the third grade: Provided, That such number as the Secretary of War may determine as necessary, not to exceed 14 per centum of the total authorized enlisted strength of the Air Corps, shall be rated as air mechanics, first class, or air mechanics, second class. (July 2, 1926, c. 721, § 2, 44 Stat. 780.)

Section 2 of the Act of July 2, 1926, struck out section 291 of this Title in the Code, and substituted the text in lieu thereof.

292a. Temporary rank for Air Corps officers.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to assign, under such regulations as he may prescribe, officers of the Air Corps to flying commands, including wings, groups, squadrons, flights, schools, important air stations, and to the staffs of commanders of troops, which assignment shall carry with it temporary rank, including pay and allowances appropriate to such rank, as determined by the Secretary of War, for the period of such assignment: Provided, That such temporary rank is limited to two grades above the permanent rank of the officer appointed: Provided further, That no officers shall be temporarily advanced in rank as contemplated in this section unless the Chief of the Air Corps certifies that no officers of suitable permanent rank are available for the duty requiring the increased rank: And provided further, That no officer holding temporary rank under the provisions of this section shall be eligible to command outside of his own corps except by seniority under his permanent commission. (July 2, 1926, c. 721, § 3, 44 Stat. 782.)

New section.

292b. Five-year Air Corps program.—For the purpose of increasing the efficiency of the Air Corps of the Army and for its further development the following five-year program is authorized:

Personnel.—The number of promotion-list officers now authorized by law in the grade of second lieutenant of the Regular Army is hereby increased by four hundred and three, and the number of enlisted men now authorized by law for the Regular Army is hereby authorized to be increased by six thousand two hundred and forty: Provided, That the increase in the number of officers and enlisted men herein authorized shall be allotted as hereinafter provided. The present allotment of officers to the Air Corps is hereby authorized to be increased by four hundred and three officers distributed in grades from colonel to second lieutenant, inclusive, and the present allotment of enlisted men to the Air Corps is hereby authorized to be increased by six thousand two hundred and forty enlisted men. The President is authorized to call to active service, with their consent, such number of Air Corps reserve officers as he may deem necessary, not to exceed five hundred and fifty, 90 per centum of whom shall serve for periods of not more than one year, and 10 per centum for periods of not more than two years: Provided, That nothing contained in this section shall affect the number of reserve officers that may be called to active duty for periods of less than six months under existing law.

Equipment.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to equip and maintain the Air Corps with not to exceed one thousand eight hundred serviceable airplanes, and such number of airships and free and captive balloons as he may determine to be necessary for training purposes, together with spare parts, equipment, supplies, hangars, and installations necessary for the operation and maintenance thereof. In order to maintain the number specified above, the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to replace obsolete or unserviceable aircraft from time to time: Provided, That the necessary replacement of airplanes shall not exceed approximately four hundred annually: Provided, That the total number of airplanes and airships herein authorized shall be exclusive of those waiting salvage or undergoing experiment or service tests, those authorized by the Secretary of War to be placed in museums and those classified by the Secretary of War as obsolete: And provided further, That the total number of planes authorized in this section shall include the number necessary for the training and equipment of the National Guard and the training of the Organized Reserves as may be determined by the Secretary of War.

Method of increase.—The total increase in personnel and equipment authorized herein shall be distributed over a five-year period beginning July 1, 1926. Not to exceed one-fifth of the total increase shall be made during the first year and the remainder in four approximately equal increments. The President is hereby authorized to submit to Congress annually estimates of the cost of carrying out the five-year program authorized herein: Provided, That a supplemental estimate for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1927, may be submitted to cover the cost of the first annual increment. (July 2, 1926, c. 721, § 8, 44 Stat. 783.)

New section.

292c. Detail in Aid of Civil Aviation.—The President of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized in his discretion to detail officers of the Air Corps of the Army of the United States to duty under the Secretary of Commerce in connection with the work of promoting civil aviation as provided for in the Air Commerce Act of 1926: Provided, That such detail shall not be for a period of more than one year. (July 3, 1926, c. 807, 14 Stat. 915.)

New section.

The text is a resolution entitled "Joint resolution authorizing the detail of officers of the Army Air Corps to duty with the Commerce Department in connection with the development of civil aviation." The "Air Commerce Act of 1926" referred to in the text is chapter 6 of Title 49 in the appendix.

300. Additional pay for flying duty.

The appropriation act for 1927 in appropriating money for the additional pay allowed by this section added a proviso that "this appropriation shall not be available for increased pay on flying status to more than seven hundred enlisted men. Act April 15, 1926, c. 146, Title I, 44 Stat. 257.

307. Bond for indemnity against injuries caused by exhibition flights.

Section 307 of Title 10 repeated.—The statutory provision constituting section 307 of Title 10 of the Code, has been repeated in Act of Apr. 15, 1926, c. 146, Title I, 44 Stat. 269.

309. Employment of draftsmen and engineers in Air Service.

Section 309 of Title 10 repeated.—The statutory provision constituting section 309 of Title 10 of the Code, has been repeated in the Act of Apr. 15, 1926, c. 146, Title I, 44 Stat. 270, the words "the entire expenditure for this purpose for the fiscal year 1927 shall not exceed $70,000," being interpolated after the word "Provided."

310. Encouragement of aviation.—(a) Submission in competition of designs of aircraft, parts and accessories to be invited—Advertisement. That in order to encourage the development of aviation and improve the efficiency of the Army and Navy aeronautical matériel the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy prior to the procurement of new designs of aircraft or aircraft parts or aeronautical accessories, shall, by advertisement for a period of thirty days in at least three of the leading aeronautical journals and in such other manner as he may deem advisable, invite the submission in competition, by sealed communications, of such designs of aircraft, aircraft parts, and aeronautical accessories, together with a statement of the price for which such designs in whole or in part will be sold to the Government.

(b) Advertisement—Specifications—Information of competition for applicants—Reference of designs to board—Appraisal—Report—Announcement of results. The aforesaid advertisement shall specify a sufficient time, not less than sixty days from the expiration of the advertising period, within which all such communications containing designs and prices therefor must be submitted, and all such communications received shall be carefully kept sealed in the War Department or the Navy Department, as the case may be, until the expiration of said specified time, and no designs mailed after that time shall be received or considered. Said advertisement shall state in general terms the kind of aircraft, parts, or accessories to be developed and the approximate number or quantity required, and the department concerned shall furnish to each applicant identical specific detailed information as to the conditions and requirements of the competition and as to the various features and characteristics to be developed, listing specifically the respective measures of merit, expressed in rates per centum, that shall be applied in determining the merits of the designs, and said measures of merit shall be adhered to throughout such competition. All designs received up to the time specified for submitting them shall then be referred to a board appointed for that purpose by the Secretary of the department concerned and shall be appraised by it as soon as practicable and report made to the Secretary as to the winner or winners of such competition. When said Secretary shall have approved the report of said board, he shall then fix a time and place for a public announcement of the results and notify each competitor thereof; but if said report shall be disapproved by said Secretary, the papers shall be returned to the board for revision or the competition be decided by the Secretary, in his discretion, and in any case the decision of the Secretary shall be final and conclusive. Such announcement shall include the percentages awarded to each of the several features or characteristics of the designs submitted by each competitor and the prices named by the competitors for their designs and the several features thereof if separable.

(c) Contract with winner for furnishing items authorized—Purchase of winning designs. Thereupon the said Secretary is authorized to contract with the winner or winners in such competition on such terms and conditions as he may deem most advantageous to the Government for furnishing or constructing all or each of the items, or all of any one or more of the several items of the aircraft, or parts, or accessories indicated in the advertisement, as the said Secretary shall find that in his judgment a winner is, or can within a reasonable time become, able and equipped to furnish or construct satisfactorily all or part, provided said Secretary and the winner shall be able to agree on a reasonable price. If the Secretary shall decide that a winner can not reasonably carry out and perform a contract for all or part of such aircraft, parts, or accessories, as above provided, then he is authorized to purchase the winning designs or any separable parts thereof if a fair and reasonable price can be agreed on with the winner, but not in excess of the price submitted with the designs.

(d) Rights of Government under contract or purchase of designs—Right of designer to patent. After contract is made, as authorized by any provision of this section, with a winner in such design competition, for furnishing or constructing aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories in accordance with his designs and payment is completed under said contract, and after the purchase of and payment for the designs or separable parts thereof of a winner, as authorized herein, with whom a contract shall not have been made for furnishing or constructing aircraft, aircraft parts or aeronautical accessories in accordance with his designs, then in either case any department of the Government shall have the right without further compensation to the winner to construct or have constructed according to said designs and use any number of aircraft or parts or accessories, and sell said aircraft or parts or accessories according to law as condemned material: Provided, That such winner shall, nevertheless, be at liberty to apply for a patent on any features originated by him, and shall be entitled to enjoy the exclusive rights under such patent as he may obtain as against all other persons except the United States Government or its assignee as aforesaid.

(e) Submission of graduated scale of prices—Effect on contract. The competitors in design competition mentioned in this section shall submit with their designs a graduated scale of prices for which they are willing to construct any or all or each of the aircraft, aircraft parts, and aeronautical accessories for which designs are submitted and such stated prices shall not be exceeded in the awarding of contracts contemplated by this section.

(f) Rejection of all designs—Division of contracts. If the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy shall find that in his judgment none of the designs submitted in said competition is of sufficient merit to justify the procurement of aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories in accordance therewith, then he shall not be obligated to accept any of such designs or to make any payment on account of any of them. If the Secretary of the department concerned shall decide that the designs submitted by two or more competitors possess equal merit, or that certain features embodied in the designs of any competitor are superior to corresponding features embodied in the designs of any other competitor and such features of one design may be substituted in another design, the said Secretary shall in his discretion divide the contracts for furnishing and manufacturing the aircraft, parts, or accessories required, equitably among those competitors that have submitted designs of equal merit, or he may select and combine features of superior excellence in different designs in such manner as may in his judgment best serve the Government's interests and make payment accordingly to the several competitors concerned at fair and reasonable prices, awarding the contract for furnishing or constructing the aircraft, parts, or accessories to the competitor or competitors concerned that have the highest figures of merit in said competition.

(g) Inability to contract with or purchase from winner of competition—Advertisement for bids—Contract—Rejection of bids. In case the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy shall be unable to make contract as above authorized with a winner in said competition for furnishing or constructing aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories covered by the whole or part of the designs of such winner, or shall be unable to agree with a winner in the competition on a reasonable purchase price for the design of such winner with whom a contract may not be made, as aforesaid, he may retain such designs and shall advertise according to law for proposals for furnishing or constructing aircraft, or parts or accessories, in accordance with such designs or combinations thereof as aforesaid and, after all proposals are submitted, make contract on such terms and conditions as he may consider the best in the Government's interests, with the bidder that he shall find to be the lowest responsible bidder for furnishing or constructing the aircraft, parts, or accessories required, but the said Secretary shall have the right to reject all bids and to advertise for other bids with such other and different specifications as he may deem proper.

(h) Showing of error in award—Reference to board of arbitration—Composition of board. If, within ten days after the announcement of the result of said competition, any participant in the competition shall make to the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy a reasonable showing in writing that error was made in determining the merits of designs submitted whereby such claimant was unjustly deprived of an award, the matter shall at once be referred by the Secretary of the department concerned to a board of arbitration for determination and the finding of such board shall, with the approval of the said Secretary, be conclusive on both parties. Such board of arbitration shall be composed of three skilled aeronautical engineers, one selected by the said Secretary, one by the claimant, and the third by those two, no one of whom shall have been a member of the board of appraisal in that competition.

(i) Use of designs without just compensation—Right to sue Government—Limitation. Any person, firm, or corporation that shall complain that his, their, or its designs hereafter developed relating to aircraft or any components thereof are used or manufactured by or for any department of the Government without just compensation from either the Government or any other source, may within four years from the date of such use file suit in the Court of Claims for the recovery of his reasonable and entire compensation for such use and manufacture after the date of this Act.[1]

(j) Eligibility for award of contract restricted to citizens—Employment of aliens. Only citizens of the United States, and corporations of which not less than three-fourths of the capital stock is owned by citizens of the United States, and of which the members of the boards of directors are citizens of the United States, and having manufacturing plants located within the continental limits of the United States shall be eligible to be awarded any contract under this section to furnish or construct aircraft, aircraft parts or aeronautical accessories for the United States Government, except that a domestic corporation whose stock shall be listed on a stock exchange shall not be barred by the provisions of this section unless and until foreign ownership or control of a majority of its stock shall be known to the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, as the case may be, and no aliens employed by a contractor for furnishing or constructing aircraft, or aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories for the United States shall be permitted to have access to the plans or specifications or the work under construction or to participate in the contract trials without the written consent beforehand of the Secretary of the department concerned.

(k) Purchase abroad of designs, aircraft, etc., for experimental purposes—Procurement in quantity. The Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy may at his discretion purchase abroad or in the United States with or without competition, by contract, or otherwise, such designs, aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories as may be necessary in his judgment for experimental purposes in the development of aircraft or aircraft parts or aeronautical accessories of the best kind for the Army or the Navy, as the case may be, and if as a result of such procurement, new and suitable designs considered to be the best kind for the Army or the Navy are developed, he may enter into contract, subject to the requirements of paragraph (j) of this section, for the procurement in quantity of such aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories without regard to the provisions of paragraphs (a) to (e), inclusive, hereof.

(l) Plant and books of contractor furnishing aircraft or parts—Right of Government to inspect and audit. The manufacturing plant, and books, of any contractor for furnishing or constructing aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories, for the War Department or the Navy Department, or such part of any manufacturing plant as may be so engaged, shall at all times be subject to inspection and audit by any person designated by the head of any executive department of the Government.

(m) Preservation of audits and reports of inspection—Report to Congress of operations. All audits and reports of inspection, made under the provisions of this section, shall be preserved by the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, as the case may be, for a period of ten years, and shall be subject to inspection by any committee of Congress, and the said Secretaries shall annually make a detailed and itemized report to Congress of all the departments' operations under this section, the names and addresses of all competitors, and of all persons having been awarded contracts and the prices paid for aircraft purchased and the grounds and reasons for having awarded such contracts to the particular persons, firms, or corporations, and all such reports shall be printed and held subject to public distribution.

(n) Release of claims—Delivery to Secretary of War or Secretary of Navy by vendor or contractor. Every vendor of designs to the War Department or the Navy Department under the provisions of this section, and every contractor for furnishing or constructing for the War Department or the Navy Department, or both, aircraft or aircraft parts or aeronautical accessories, shall deliver to the Secretary of War or Secretary of the Navy, or both, when required by either or both, a release in such form and containing such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, or both, of claims on the part of such vendor or contractor against the United States arising out of such sale or contract, or both.

(o) Appropriations—Availability. All or any appropriations available for the procurement of aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories, for the War Department or the Navy Department shall be available for payment of the purchase price of designs and the costs of arbitration as authorized by this section.

(p) Collusion, etc., affecting competition or audit declared unlawful—Penalty. Any collusion, understanding, or arrangement to deprive the United States Government of the benefit of full and free competition in any competition authorized by this section, or to deprive the United States Government of the benefit of a full and free audit of the books of any person, firm, or corporation engaged in carrying out any contract authorized by this section, so far as may be necessary to disclose the exact cost of executing such contract, shall be unlawful, and any person, firm, or corporation that shall, upon indictment and trial, be found guilty of violating any of the provisions of this section shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not exceeding $20,000, or to be imprisoned not exceeding five years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

(q) Contract for procurement of aircraft, etc., of earlier design. In the procurement of aircraft constructed according to designs presented by any individual, firm, or corporation prior to the passage of this Act, which designs have been reduced to practice and found to be suitable for the purpose intended, or according to such designs with minor modifications thereof, the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, when in his opinion the interests of the United States will be best served thereby, may contract with said individual, firm, or corporation, at reasonable prices for such quantities of said aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories as he may deem necessary: Provided, That the action of the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, in each such case shall be final and conclusive.

(r) Patents and design board created—Submission to board of designs for aircraft, etc.—Evaluation—Purchase of ownership or right to use. A board to be known as the patents and design board is hereby created, the three members of which shall be an Assistant Secretary of War, an Assistant Secretary of the Navy, and an Assistant Secretary of Commerce. To this board any individual, firm, or corporation may submit a design for aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories, and whether patented or unpatentable, the said board upon the recommendation of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics shall determine whether the use of such designs by the Government is desirable or necessary, and evaluate the designs so submitted and fix the worth to the United States of said design, not to exceed $75,000. The said designer, individual, firm, or corporation, may then be offered the sum fixed by the board for the ownership or a nonexclusive right of the United States to the use of the design in aircraft, aircraft parts or aeronautical accessories and upon the acceptance thereof shall execute complete assignment or nonexclusive license to the United States: Provided, That no sum in excess of $75,000 shall be paid for any one design.

(s) "Winner" or "winners" construed. The terms "winner" or "winners" as used in this section shall be construed to include not more than three competitors having the highest figures of merit in any one competition.

(t) Contract for aircraft, etc.—Award to lowest responsible bidder—Review of decision of Secretary of War or Secretary of Navy. Hereafter whenever the Secretary of War, or the Secretary of the Navy, shall enter into a contract for or on behalf of the United States, for aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories, said Secretary is hereby authorized to award such contract to the bidder that said Secretary shall find to be the lowest responsible bidder that can satisfactorily perform the work or the service required to the best advantage of the Government; and the decision of the Secretary of the department concerned as to the award of such contract, the interpretation of the provisions of the contract, and the application and administration of the contract shall not be reviewable, otherwise than as may be therein provided for, by any officer or tribunal of the United States except the President and the Federal courts. (July 2, 1926, c. 721, § 10, 44 Stat. 784.)

Chapter 19.—PHILIPPINE SCOUTS.

334. Pay and allowances of enlisted men.—The pay and allowances of whatever nature and kind to be authorized for the enlisted men of the Philippine Scouts shall be fixed by the Secretary of War and shall not exceed or be of other classes than those now or which may hereafter be authorized by law for enlisted men of the Regular Army: Provided, That payments of travel pay and of commutation of quarters, heat, and light heretofore made to enlisted men of the Philippine Scouts, if not in excess of those authorized at the time for enlisted men of the Regular Army, be, and the same are hereby, validated: And provided further, That any such payments of travel pay and commutation of quarters, heat, and light which have been collected back from enlisted men of the Philippine Scouts to whom originally paid shall be refunded to them. (Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 36, 31 Stat. 757; May 10, 1926, c. 279, 44 Stat. 496.)

Section 334 of Title 10 amended.—The provision of Act of Feb. 2, 1901, c. 192, § 36, 31 Stat. 757, constituting § 334 of Title 10 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 10, 1926, c. 279, 44 Stat. 496, to read as above.

The amendments added the two provisos.

367. Mileage allowance limited.

Section 367 of Title 10 repeated.—The statutory provision constituting § 367 of Title 10 of the Code, has been repeated in the Act of Apr. 15, 1926, c. 146, Title I, 44 Stat. 282.

367a. Travel on Government-owned vessel.—Hereafter officers performing travel on Government-owned vessels for which no transportation fare is charged shall be entitled only to reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred. (Apr. 15, 1926, c. 146, Title I, 44 Stat. 283.)

New section. This section is derived from the War Department Appropriation Act for 1927, and was part of a provision applicable solely to the Officers' Reserve Corps.

RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS

389. Equipment and supplies.

The War Department Appropriation Act for 1927 contained the following provision: "Uniforms and other equipment or material issued to the Reserve Officers' Training Corps in accordance with law shall be furnished from surplus or reserve stocks of the War Department without payment from this appropriation, except for actual expense incurred in the manufacture or issue: Provided further, That in no case shall the amount paid from this appropriation for uniforms, equipment, or material furnished to the Reserve Officers' Training Corps from stocks under the control of the War Department be in excess of the price current at the time the issue is made." (Apr. 15, 1926, c. 146, Title I, 44 Stat. 285.)

ENLISTED RESERVE CORPS

423. Persons eligible for enlistment.—Enlistment shall be limited to persons eligible for enlistment in the Regular Army who have had such military or technical training as may be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of War, except that for original enlistments in railway operating units the maximum age limit shall be forty-five years. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, § 35, 41 Stat. 780; June 8, 1926, c. 494, 44 Stat. 705.)

Section 423 of Title 10 amended.—The provision of Act of June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 35, 41 Stat. 780, constituting § 423 of Title 10 of the Code, has been amended by Act of June 8, 1926, c. 494, 44 Stat. 705, to read as above.

The amendment added the words following the words "Secretary of War."

501. Length of service; time spent as cadet at Military or Naval Academy.

Section 501 of Title 10 repeated.—The statutory provision constituting § 501 of Title 10 of the Code, has been repeated in Act of Apr. 15, 1926, c. 146, Title I, 44 Stat. 257.

DETACHED DUTY

535. Detail of officers [and enlisted men] as students, observers, and investigators.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to detail not to exceed 2 per centum of the commissioned officers and one-half of 1 per centum of the enlisted men of the Regular Army in any fiscal year as students at such technical, professional, and other educational institutions, or as students, observers, or investigators at such industrial plants, hospitals, and other places as shall be best suited to enable such officers or enlisted men to acquire a knowledge of or experience in the specialties in which it is deemed necessary that such officers or enlisted men shall perfect themselves. The number of officers so detailed shall, as far as practicable, be distributed proportionately among the various branches: Provided, That no expense shall be incurred by the United States in addition to pay and allowances of the officers or enlisted men so detailed, except for the cost of tuition at such technical, professional, and other educational institutions: And provided further, That the allowances and tuition for enlisted men during the period of such detail may be paid from any funds appropriated for or allotted to the procurement branches: And provided further, That the Secretary of War may fix the length of enlistments for this purpose at three years or less, and the total length of detail of an enlisted man shall not exceed 50 per centum of his enlistment period. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 127a; June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 51, 41 Stat. 786; June 8, 1926, c. 495, 44 Stat. 705.)

Section 535 of Title 10 amended.—The provision of Act of June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 51, 41 Stat. 786, constituting § 535 of Title 10 of the Code, has been amended to read as above.

The amendment added the words "and one-half of 1 per centum of the enlisted men" in the first sentence and the second and third provisos.

540. Detail of officers and men to assist foreign governments.—The President of the United States be, and hereby is, authorized, upon application from the foreign governments concerned, and whenever in his discretion the public interests render such a course advisable, to detail officers and enlisted men of the United States Army, Navy, and Marine Corps to assist the governments of the Republics of North America, Central America, and South America and of the Republics of Cuba, Haiti, and Santo Domingo, in military and naval matters: Provided, That the officers and enlisted men so detailed be, and they are hereby, authorized to accept from the government to which detailed offices and such compensation and emoluments thereunto appertaining as may be first approved by the Secretary of War or by the Secretary of the Navy, as the case may be: Provided further, That while so detailed such officers and enlisted men shall receive, in addition to the compensation and emoluments allowed them by such governments, the pay and allowances whereto entitled in the United States Army, Navy, and Marine Corps and shall be allowed the same credit for longevity, retirement, and for all other purposes that they would receive if they were serving with the forces of the United States. New section.

CLOTHING FOR TROOPS

832. Commutation in lieu of uniforms.

Section 832 of Title 10 repeated.—The statutory provision constituting § 832 of Title 10 of the Code, has been repeated in Act of Apr. 15, 1927, c. 146, Title I, 44 Stat. 284.

ABSENCE FROM DUTY AS AFFECTING RIGHT TO PAY

847. Pay during sickness due to misconduct. [Repealed.]

Section 847 of Title 10 repealed.—Section 847 of Title 10 of the Code was expressly repealed by section 5 of the Act of May 17, 1926, c. 302, 44 Stat. 557. The four preceding sections of that Act follow as sections 847a, 847b, 847c, and 847d of this title in the appendix.

847a. Pay during absence due to use of alcohol or drugs.—Hereafter no person in active service in the military or naval service who shall be absent from his regular duties for more than one day at any one time on account of the effects of a disease, as distinguished from injury, which is directly attributable to and immediately follows his own intemperate use of alcoholic liquor or habit-forming drugs, shall, except as hereinafter provided, be entitled to any pay, as distinguished from allowances, for the period of such absence. (May 17, 1926, c. 302, § 1, 44 Stat. 557.)

New section.

847b. Pay during absence due to venereal disease.—Hereafter no person in active service in the military or naval service who shall be absent from his regular duties for more than one day at any one time on account of the direct effects of a venereal disease due to his own misconduct, shall, except as hereafter provided, be entitled to any pay, as distinguished from allowances, for the period of such absence: Provided, That such absence is within a period of one year following the appearance of the initial symptoms of such venereal disease and regardless of whether the appearance of the initial symptoms occurs prior or subsequent to the date of entry into the service. (May 17, 1926, c. 302, § 2, 44 Stat. 557.)

New section.

847c. Determination of period and cause of absence.—For all purposes within the scope of this Act[2a] the period of absence and the cause thereof shall be determined under such procedure and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, and such determination shall be final and conclusive for all purposes. (May 17, 1926, c. 302, § 1, 44 Stat. 557.)

New section.

847d. Expenses allowed in case of forfeiture of pay.—Each person whose pay, as distinguished from allowance, is forfeited for a period in excess of one month at any one time pursuant to the provisions of this Act[2a] shall be paid for necessary personal expenses the sum of $5 for each full month during which his pay is so forfeited. (May 17, 1926, c. 302, § 4, 44 Stat. 557.)

New section.

MISCELLANEOUS

914. Free tuition in schools for children of officers and men.

SERVICE COUNTED IN DETERMINING RIGHT TO RETIREMENT

952. Period of cadetship at Military or Naval Academy.

Section 952 of Title 10 repeated.—The statutory provision constituting § 952 of Title 10 of the Code has been repeated in Act of Apr. 15, 1926, c. 146, Title I, 44 Stat. 257.

RETIRED PAY

971a. Retired pay of officers appointed by virtue of service in World War.—Any person originally appointed under the provisions of this Act[3] at an age greater than forty-five years shall, when retired, receive retired pay at the rate of 4 per centum of active pay for each complete year of commissioned service in the United States Army, the total not to be more than 75 per centum: Provided, That any officer so appointed, who has been or may hereafter be retired in accordance with law on account of physical disability incident to the service, shall receive, from the date of such retirement, retired pay at the rate of 75 per centum of his active pay at the time of such retirement. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, § 24, 41 Stat. 771; May 19, 1926, c. 333, 44 Stat. 564.)

New section.

[2] This section is derived from the War Department Appropriation Act of April 15, 1926. and the reference is to a provision appropriating money for the cost of travel during 1927 by certain specified officers.

[2a] "Act" should be translated "sections 847a–847d of this title of the appendix."

[3] The Act from which the foregoing down to the word "Provided" was derived was chiefly of a temporary character, requiring not less than one-half of the vacancies then existing in the Regular Army to be filled by the appointment of persons other than officers of the Regular Army who had served as officers between Apr. 6, 1917, and June 4, 1920.

972a. Retired pay of officers and warrant officers retired prior to July 1, 1922.—Hereafter the retired pay of the officers and warrant officers of the Army, * * * who were retired on or before June 30, 1922, shall not be less than that provided for the officers and warrant officers of these services of equal rank and length of service retired subsequent to that date: Provided, That nothing in this Act[4] shall operate to reduce the pay of any officer or warrant officer now on the retired list. (May 8, 1926, c. 274, § 1, 44 Stat. 417.)

New section. Section 2 of this Act read as follows: "That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed."

ARMY NURSE CORPS. [New.]

1029. Retirement of Army nurses.—When a member of the Army Nurse Corps or the Navy Nurse Corps shall have served thirty years, or shall have reached the age of fifty years, having served twenty years, she may, in the discretion of the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, respectively, be retired from active service and placed on a list, hereby created in each of the aforementioned services and designated the "Nurse Corps Retired List," in the grade to which she belonged at the time of her retirement. (May 13, 1926, c. 289, § 1, 44 Stat. 531.)

New section.

1030. Pay of retired nurse.—The annual pay of a retired member of the Army Nurse Corps or the Navy Nurse Corps shall be 3 per centum of the annual active base pay which she is receiving at the time of retirement multiplied by the number of complete years of service rendered prior to retirement, but not exceeding 75 per centum of such annual active base pay; and, in addition, supplemental annual retired pay for each complete year of active service rendered prior to retirement in each of the grades hereafter named, as follows: Chief nurse, $18; assistant superintendent, $45; director, $45; assistant director, $45; superintendent, $75: Provided, That in computing the period of service in any grade for such supplemental retired pay any period less than a year served in any higher grade may be included. (May 13, 1926, c. 289, § 2, 44 Stat. 532.)

New section.

1031. occasions of ceremony, the uniform of the highest grade they have held by brevet or other commission in such Regular or Volunteer service; nor to prevent any person who has been honorably discharged from the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, Regular or Volunteer, from wearing his uniform from the place of his discharge to his home, within three months after the date of such discharge; nor to prevent the members of military societies composed entirely of honorably discharged officers or enlisted men, or both, of the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, Regular or Volunteer, from wearing, upon occasions of ceremony, the uniform duly prescribed by such societies to be worn by the members thereof; nor to prevent the instructors and members of the duly organized cadet corps of a State university, State college, or public high school offering a regular course in military instruction from wearing the uniform duly prescribed by the authorities of such university, college, or public high school for wear by the instructors and members of such cadet corps; nor to prevent the instructors and members of the duly organized cadet corps of any other institution of learning offering a regular course in military instruction, and at which an officer or enlisted man of the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps is lawfully detailed for duty as instructor in military science and tactics, from wearing the uniform duly prescribed by the authorities of such institution of learning for wear by the instructors and members of such cadet corps; nor to prevent civilians attendant upon a course of military or naval instruction authorized and conducted by the military or naval authorities of the United States from wearing, while in attendance upon such course of instruction, the uniform authorized and prescribed by such military or naval authorities for wear during such course of instruction; nor to prevent any person from wearing the uniform of the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps in any playhouse or theater or in moving-picture films while actually engaged in representing therein a military or naval character not tending to bring discredit or reproach upon the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps: Provided further, That the uniforms worn by officers or enlisted men of the National Guard, or by the members of the military societies or the instructors and members of the cadet corps referred to in the preceding proviso shall include some distinctive mark or insignia to be prescribed by the Secretary of War to distinguish such uniforms from the uniforms of the United States Army, Navy, and Marine Corps: And provided further, That the members of the military societies and the instructors and members of the cadet corps hereinbefore mentioned shall not wear the insignia of rank prescribed to be worn by officers of the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, or any insignia of rank similar thereto.

Any person who offends against the provisions of this section shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding $300, or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment: Provided, That hereafter, upon the discharge or furlough to the reserve of an enlisted man, all uniform outer clothing then in his possession, except such articles as he may be permitted to wear from the place of termination of his active service to his home, as authorized by this section, will be retained for military use: Provided further, That upon the release from Federal service of an enlisted man of the National Guard called as such into the service of the United States, all uniform outer clothing then in his possession shall be taken up and accounted for as property issued to the National Guard of the State to which the enlisted man belongs, in the manner prescribed by section 67 of said Act:[48a] And provided further, That when an enlisted man is discharged otherwise than honorably, all uniform outer clothing in his possession shall be retained for military use, and, when authorized by regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War, a suit of citizen's outer clothing to cost not exceeding $15 may be issued to such enlisted man: And provided further, That officers and members of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers may, regardless of the preceding provisions of said Act, wear such uniforms as the Secretary of War may authorize. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 125, 39 Stat. 216; July 9, 1918, c. 143, Subchapter XVII, § 10, 40 Stat. 891; July 3, 1926, c. 781, 44 Stat. 891.)

Section 1393 of Title 10 amended.—The provisions constituting § 1393 of Title 10 of the Code have been amended by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 781, 44 Stat. 891, to read as above.

All of the text down to and including the first sentence of the last paragraph is derived from the Act of June 3, 1916. The Act of July 9, 1918, added the four provisos which conclude the last paragraph. The Act of July 3, 1926, struck from the first of these provisos the following words which were contained therein as it was enacted in 1918: "and within four months after such termination of his active service he shall return all uniform clothing, which he was so permitted to retain for wear to his home, by mail, under a franked label which shall be furnished him for the purpose and in conformity with the instructions given him at the time of such termination of his active service; and in case he shall fail to return the same within such period, and in accordance with such instructions, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, suffer the punishment prescribed by this section."

In connection with the next to the last proviso in the text it is noted that the War Department Appropriation Act for 1927 appropriates money "for a suit of citizen's outer clothing and when necessary an overcoat, the cost of all not to exceed $30, to be issued to each soldier discharged otherwise than honorably." (Apr. 15, 1926, c. 146, Title 1, 44 Stat. 262.)

Sec.
1428. Soldier's medal authorized. [New.]
1429. Distinguished flying cross authorized. [New.]
1430. Additional pay for holder of soldier's medal or distinguished flying cross. [New.]

1428. Soldier's medal authorized.—Under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe the President is hereby authorized to present, but not in the name of Congress, a medal to be known as the soldier's medal, of appropriate design, with accompanying ribbon, to any person who, while serving in any capacity with the Army of the United States, including the National Guard and the Organized Reserves, shall hereafter distinguish himself, or herself, by heroism not involving actual conflict with an enemy.

No more than one soldier's medal shall be issued to any one person; but for each succeeding deed or act sufficient to justify the award of the soldier's medal the President may award a suitable bar, or other suitable device, to be worn as he shall direct. (July 2, 1926, c. 721, § 11, 44 Stat. 789.)

New section.

1429. Distinguished flying cross authorized.—Under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, and notwithstanding the provisions of section 14 of this Act,[48b] the President is hereby authorized to present, but not in the name of Congress, a distinguished flying cross of appropriate design, with accompanying ribbon, to any person who, while serving in any capacity with the Air Corps of the Army of the United States, including the National Guard and the Organized Reserves, or with the United States Navy, since the 6th day of April, 1917, has distinguished, or who, after the approval of this Act, distinguishes himself by heroism or extraordinary achievement while participating in an aerial flight: Provided, That no person shall be eligible for the award of the distinguished flying cross for any act performed prior to November 11, 1918, except officers or enlisted men who have heretofore been recommended for but have not received the congressional medal of honor, the distinguished service cross, or the distinguished service medal and except those officers or enlisted men who displayed heroism while serving as instructors or students at flying schools. No more than one distinguished flying cross shall be issued to any one person, but for each succeeding act or achievement sufficient to justify the award of a distinguished flying cross the President may award a suitable bar or other suitable device to be worn as he shall direct. In case an individual who distinguishes himself shall have died before the making of the award to which he may be entitled, the award may nevertheless be made and the cross or the bar or other device presented to such representative of the deceased as the President may designate, but no cross, bar, or other device hereinbefore authorized shall be awarded or presented to any individual whose entire service subsequent to the time he distinguishes himself has not been honorable. (July 2, 1926, c. 721, § 12, 44 Stat. 789.)

New section.

1430. Additional pay for holder of soldier's medal or distinguished flying cross.—Each enlisted or enrolled man to whom there shall be awarded the distinguished flying cross or the soldier's medal shall be entitled to additional pay at the rate of $2 per month from the date of the act of heroism or extraordinary achievement on which the award is based, and each bar, or other suitable device, in lieu of the distinguished flying cross or the soldier's medal, as hereinbefore provided for, shall entitle him to further additional pay at the rate of $2 per month from the date of the act of heroism or extraordinary achievement for which the bar or other device is awarded, and said additional pay shall continue throughout his active service, whether such service shall or shall not be continuous. (July 2, 1926, c. 721, § 13, 44 Stat. 789.)

revert to the United States without notice, demand, or action brought: And provided further, That if the proper official or board of any such State, county, or municipality shall within such time limit, notify the Secretary of War that said State, county, or municipality desires to exercise such option but has not the money available with which to make the payment then said land or such part thereof as may have been separately designated shall be held for sale to such State, county, or municipality for a period not to exceed two years from the date of such notification: Provided further, That where any of the lands referred to in section 1 are now under lease or license to any State for National Guard purposes, the State shall have the right to purchase said lands at their appraised value, and after purchase may sell any part of such lands as in the opinion of the Secretary of War may not be needed for the use of the National Guard of such State: And provided further, That the sale of Fort Gaines, Alabama, authorized to be sold under the Act of June 4, 1924,[9] may be consummated under the provisions of this section at any time prior to the public sale thereof as provided in said Act. (Mar. 12, 1926, c. 54, § 7, 44 Stat. 206.)

New section.

1601. Public sale.—Six months after the date of the notification of said appraisal, if the option given in section 7[10] hereof shall not have been exercised in the manner herein specified, or after receipt by the Secretary of War of notice that the State, county, and municipality do not desire to exercise the option herein granted, the Secretary of War may sell or cause to be sold each of said properties at public sale at not less than the appraised value thereof, after advertisement in such manner as he may direct. (Mar. 12, 1926, C. 54, § 8, 44 Stat. 207.)

New section.

1602. Expenses payable from proceeds of sale; fee of auctioneer.—The expenses of appraisal, survey, advertising, and all expenses incident to the sale of the property hereinbefore authorized for disposition shall be paid from the proceeds of the sale of any of the properties sold under this Act:[11] Provided, That no auctioneer or person acting in said capacity shall be paid a fee for the sale of said property in excess of $100 a day. (Mar. 12, 1926, c. 54, § 9, 44 Stat. 207.)

New section.

1603. Report of sales.—A full report of all transfers and sales made under the provisions of this Act[11] shall be submitted to Congress by the Secretary of War upon the consummation thereof. (Mar. 12, 1926, c. 54, § 10, 44 Stat. 207.)

New section.

1604. Report as to reservations becoming useless.—Hereafter if any real property acquired for military purposes becomes useless for such purposes, the Secretary of War is directed to report such fact to Congress in order that authorization for its disposition in accordance with this Act[11] may be granted. (Mar. 12, 1926, c. 54, § 11, 44 Stat. 207.)

New section.

1605. Effect on prior legislation.—The authority granted by this Act repeals all prior legislative authority granted to the Secretary of War to sell or transfer any of the reservations herein designated. Mar. 12, 1926, c. 54, § 12, 44 Stat. 207.)

(20) "petition" shall mean a paper filed in a court of bankruptcy or with a clerk or deputy clerk by a debtor praying for the benefits of this title, or by creditors, alleging the commission of an act of bankruptcy by a debtor therein named; (21) "referee" shall mean the referee who has jurisdiction of the case or to whom the case has been referred, or anyone acting in his stead; (22) "conceal" shall include secrete, falsify, and mutilate; (23) "secured creditor" shall include a creditor who has security for his debt upon the property of the bankrupt of a nature to be assignable under this title, or who owns such a debt for which some indorser, surety, or other persons secondarily liable for the bankrupt has such security upon the bankrupt's assets; (24) States shall include the Territories and possessions to which this Act is, or may hereafter be, applicable, Alaska, and the District of Columbia; (25) "transfer" shall include the sale and every other and different mode of disposing of or parting with property, or the possession of property, absolutely or conditionally, as a payment, pledge, mortgage, gift, or security; (26) "trustee" shall include all of the trustees of an estate; (27) "wage earner" shall mean an individual who works for wages, salary, or hire, at a rate of compensation not exceeding $1,500 per year; (28) words importing the masculine gender may be applied to and include corporations, partnerships, and women; (29) words importing the plural number may be applied to and mean only a single person or thing; (30) words importing the singular number may be applied to and mean several persons or things. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 1, 30 Stat. 544; Apr. 12, 1900, c. 191, § 34, 31 Stat. 85; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 269, § 1, 35 Stat. 838; May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 1, 44 Stat. 662.)

Section 1 of Title 11 amended.—Section 1 of Act of July 1, 1898, c. 541, 30 Stat. 544, and Acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, constituting § 1 of title 11 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 1, 44 Stat. 662. The amendment relates to subd. (6), (8), and (24), and the changes are incorporated in the text.

Chapter 2.—CREATION OF COURTS OF BANKRUPTCY AND THEIR JURISDICTION.

11. Courts; jurisdiction and powers.—That the courts of bankruptcy as hereinbefore defined, namely, the district courts of the United States in the several States, the Supreme Court

[1] This title of the appendix contains Act of May 27, 1926, c. 406, 44 Stat. 662, entitled "An Act to amend an Act entitled an Act to establish a uniform system of bankruptcy throughout the United States, approved July 1, 1898, and Acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto."

This Act of May 27, 1926, has twenty sections, the last four of which read as follows:

"SEC. 17. Nothing herein contained shall have the effect to release or extinguish any penalty, forfeiture, or liability incurred under any Act or Acts of which this Act is amendatory.

"SEC. 18. The provisions of this amendatory Act shall govern proceedings, so far as practicable and applicable, in bankruptcy cases pending when it takes effect; but as to proceedings in cases pending when this Act takes effect, to which the provisions of this amendatory Act are not applicable, such proceedings shall be disposed of conformably to the provisions of said Act approved July 1, 1898, and the Acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto.

"SEC. 19. All Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with any provisions of this Act are hereby repealed.

"SEC. 20. This Act shall take effect and be in force on and after three months from the date of its approval."

of the District of Columbia, the district courts of the several Territories and possessions to which this Act is, or may hereafter be, applicable, and the United States Court in the District of Alaska, are hereby made courts of bankruptcy, and are hereby invested, within their respective territorial limits as now established, or as they may be hereafter changed, with such jurisdiction at law and in equity as will enable them to exercise original jurisdiction in bankruptcy proceedings, in vacation in chambers and during their respective terms, as they are now or may be hereafter held, to (1) adjudge persons bankrupt who have had their principal place of business, resided, or had their domicile within their respective territorial jurisdictions for the preceding six months, or the greater portion thereof, or who do not have their principal place of business, reside, or have their domicile within the United States, but have property within their jurisdictions, or who have been adjudged bankrupts by courts of competent jurisdiction without the United States and have property within their jurisdictions; (2) allow claims, disallow claims, reconsider allowed or disallowed claims, and allow or disallow them against bankrupt estates; (3) appoint receivers or the marshals, upon application of parties in interest, in case the courts shall find it absolutely necessary, for the preservation of estates, to take charge of the property of bankrupts after the filing of the petition and until it is dismissed or the trustee is qualified; (4) arraign, try, and punish bankrupts, officers, and other persons, and the agents, officers, members of the board of directors or trustees, or other similar controlling bodies, of corporations for violations of the provisions contained in this title, in accordance with the laws of procedure of the United States in force on July 1, 1898, or such as may be thereafter enacted, regulating trials for the alleged violation of laws of the United States; (5) authorize the business of bankrupts to be conducted for limited periods by receivers, the marshals, or trustees, if necessary in the best interests of the estates, and allow such officers additional compensation for such services, as provided in section 76 of this title; (6) bring in and substitute additional persons or parties in proceedings in bankruptcy when necessary for the complete determination of a matter in controversy; (7) cause the estates of bankrupts to be collected, reduced to money and distributed, and determine controversies in relation thereto, except as herein otherwise provided; (8) close estates, whenever it appears that they have been fully administered, by approving the final accounts and discharging the trustees, and reopen them whenever it appears they were closed before being fully administered; (9) confirm or reject compositions between debtors and their creditors, and set aside compositions and reinstate the cases; (10) consider and confirm, modify or overrule, or return, with instructions for further proceedings, records and findings certified to them by referees; (11) determine all claims of bankrupts to their exemptions; (12) discharge or refuse to discharge bankrupts and set aside discharges and reinstate the cases; (13) enforce obedience by bankrupts, officers, and other persons to all lawful orders, by fine or imprisonment or fine and imprisonment; (14) extradite bankrupts from their respective districts to other districts; (15) make such orders, issue such process, and enter such judgments in addition to those specifically provided for as may be necessary for the enforcement of the provisions of this title; (16) punish persons for contempts committed before referees; (17) pursuant to the recommendation of creditors, or when they neglect to recommend the appointment of trustees, appoint trustees, and upon complaints of creditors, remove trustees for cause upon hearings and after notices to them; (18) tax costs, whenever they are allowed by law, and render judgments therefor against the unsuccessful party, or the successful party for cause, or in part against each of the parties, and against estates, in proceedings in bankruptcy; (19) transfer cases to other courts of bankruptcy and (20) exercise ancillary jurisdiction over persons or property within their respective territorial limits in aid of a receiver or trustee appointed in any bankruptcy proceedings pending in any other court of bankruptcy.

Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to deprive a court of bankruptcy of any power it would possess were certain specific powers not herein enumerated. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 2, 30 Stat. 545; Apr. 12, 1900, c. 191, § 34, 31 Stat. 85; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 1, 32 Stat. 797; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 269, § 1, 35 Stat. 838; June 25, 1910, c. 412, §§ 1, 2, 36 Stat. 838, 839; May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 2, 44 Stat. 662.)

Section 11 of Title 11 amended.—Section 2 of Act of July 1, 1898, c. 541, 30 Stat. 545, and Acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, constituting § 11 of Title 11 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 2, 44 Stat. 662, to read as above. The amendment relates to the introductory provision preceding subd. (1).

Chapter 3.—BANKRUPT.

Sec.
21. Acts of bankruptcy.
25. Same; duties.
30. Compositions; when confirmed.
32. Discharges; when granted.

21. Acts of bankruptcy.—(a) Acts of bankruptcy by a person shall consist of his having

(1) Conveyed, transferred, concealed, or removed, or permitted to be concealed or removed, any part of his property with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud his creditors, or any of them; or

(2) Transferred, while insolvent, any portion of his property to one or more of his creditors with intent to prefer such creditors over his other creditors; or

(3) Suffered or permitted, while insolvent, any creditor to obtain a preference through legal proceedings, and not having at least five days before a sale or other disposition of any property affected by such preference vacated or discharged such preference; or

(4) Suffered, or permitted, while insolvent, any creditor to obtain through legal proceedings any levy, attachment, judgment, or other lien, and not having vacated or discharged the same within thirty days from the date such levy, attachment, judgment, or other lien was obtained; or

(5) Made a general assignment for the benefit of his creditors; or, while insolvent, a receiver or a trustee has been appointed, or put in charge of his property; or

(6) Admitted in writing his inability to pay his debts and his willingness to be adjudged a bankrupt on that ground.

(b) A petition may be filed against a person who is insolvent and who has committed an act of bankruptcy within four months after the commission of such act. Such time shall not expire until four months after (1) the date of the recording or registering of the transfer or assignment when the act consists in having made a transfer of any of his property with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud his creditors or for the purpose of giving a preference as hereinbefore provided, or a general assignment for the benefit of his creditors, if by law such recording or registering is required or permitted, or, if it is not, from the date when the beneficiary takes notorious, exclusive, or continuous possession of the property unless the petitioning creditors have received actual notice of such transfer or assignment.

(c) It shall be a complete defense to any proceedings in bankruptcy instituted under the first subdivision of this section to allege and prove that the party proceeded against was not insolvent as defined in this title at the time of the filing the petition against him, and if solvency at such date is proved by the alleged bankruptcy the proceedings shall be dismissed, and under said subdivision one the burden of proving solvency shall be on the alleged bankrupt.

(d) Whenever a person against whom a petition has been filed as hereinbefore provided under the second and third subdivisions of this section takes issue with and denies the allegation of his insolvency, it shall be his duty to appear in court on the hearing, with his books, papers, and accounts, and submit to an examination, and give testimony as to all matters tending to establish solvency or insolvency, and in case of his failure to so attend and submit to examination the burden of proving his solvency shall rest upon him.

(e) Whenever a petition is filed by any person for the purpose of having another adjudged a bankrupt, and an application is made to take charge of and hold the property of the alleged bankrupt, or any part of the same, prior to the adjudication and pending a hearing on the petition, the petitioner or applicant shall file in the same court a bond with at least two good and sufficient sureties who shall reside within the jurisdiction of said court, to be approved by the court or a judge thereof, in such sum as the court shall direct, conditioned for the payment, in case such petition is dismissed, to the respondent, his or her personal representatives, all costs, expenses, and damages occasioned by such seizure, taking, and detention of the property of the alleged bankrupt.

If such petition be dismissed by the court or withdrawn by the petitioner, the respondent or respondents shall be allowed all costs, counsel fees, expenses, and damages occasioned by such seizure, taking, or detention of such property. Counsel fees, costs, expenses, and damages shall be fixed and allowed by the court, and paid by the obligors in such bond. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 3, 30 Stat. 546; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 2, 32 Stat. 797; May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 3, 44 Stat. 662.)

Section 21 of Title 11 amended.—Section 3 of Act of July 1, 1898, c. 541, 30 Stat. 546, and Acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, constituting § 21 of Title 11 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 3, 44 Stat. 662, to read as above. The amendment relates to par. (a).

25. Same; duties.—The bankrupt shall (1) attend the first meeting of his creditors, if directed by the court or a judge thereof to do so, and the hearing upon his application for a discharge, if filed; (2) comply with all lawful orders of the court; (3) examine the correctness of all proofs of claims filed against his estate; (4) execute and deliver such papers as shall be ordered by the court; (5) execute to his trustee transfers of all his property in foreign countries; (6) immediately inform his trustee of any attempt, by his creditors or other persons, to evade the provisions of this title, coming to his knowledge; (7) in case of any person having to his knowledge proved a false claim against his estate, disclose that fact immediately to his trustee; (8) prepare, make oath to, and file in court within ten days after adjudication, if an involuntary bankrupt, and within ten days after the filing of a petition, if a voluntary bankrupt (unless in either case further time is granted), a schedule of his property showing the amount and kind of property, the location thereof, its money value in detail, and a list of his creditors showing their residence, if known; if unknown, that fact to be stated, the amounts due each of them, the consideration thereof, the security held by them, if any, and a claim for such exemptions, as he may be entitled to, all in triplicate, one copy of each for the clerk, one for the referee, and one for the trustee; and (9) when present at the first meeting of his creditors, and at such other times as the court shall order, submit to an examination concerning the conducting of his business, the cause of his bankruptcy, his dealings with his creditors and other persons, the amount, kind, and whereabouts of his property, and, in addition, all matters which may affect the administration and settlement of his estate; but no testimony given by him shall be offered in evidence against him in any criminal proceeding.

He shall not be required to attend a meeting of his creditors, or at or for an examination at a place more than one hundred and fifty miles distant from his home or principal place of business, or to examine claims except when presented to him, unless ordered by the court, or a judge thereof, for cause shown, and the bankrupt shall be paid his actual expenses from the estate when examined or required to attend at any place other than the city, town, or village of his residence. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 7, 30 Stat. 548; May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 4, 44 Stat. 663.)

Section 25 of Title 11 amended.—Section 7 of Act of July 1, 1898, c. 541, 30 Stat. 548, constituting § 25 of Title 11 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 4, 44 Stat. 663, to read as above. The amendment relates to subd. (8).

30. Compositions; when confirmed.—(a) A bankrupt may offer, either before or after adjudication, terms of composition to his creditors, after, but not before, he has been examined in open court, or at a meeting of his creditors, and has filed in court the schedule of his property and the list of his creditors required to be filed by bankrupts. In compositions before adjudication the bankrupt shall file the required schedules, and thereupon the court shall call a meeting of creditors for the allowance of claims, examination of the bankrupt, and preservation or conduct of the estate, at which meeting the judge or referee shall preside; but action upon the petition for adjudication shall not be delayed, except that the court, for good cause shown, may in its discretion delay such action upon such terms and conditions for the protection of and indemnity against loss by the bankrupt estate as may be proper.

(b) An application for the confirmation of a composition may be filed in the court of bankruptcy after, but not before, it has been accepted in writing by a majority in number of all creditors whose claims have been allowed, which number must represent a majority in amount of such claims, and the consideration to be paid by the bankrupt to his creditors, and the money necessary to pay all debts which have priority and the cost of the proceedings, have been deposited in such place as shall be designated by and subject to the order of the judge.

(c) A date and place, with reference to the convenience of the parties in interest, shall be fixed for the hearing upon each application for the confirmation of a composition, and such objections as may be made to its confirmation.

(d) The judge shall confirm a composition if satisfied that (1) it is for the best interests of the creditors; (2) the bankrupt has not been guilty of any of the acts or failed to perform any of the duties which would be a bar to his discharge; and (3) the offer and its acceptance are in good faith and have not been made or procured except as herein provided, or by any means, promises, or acts herein forbidden.

(e) Upon the confirmation of a composition, the consideration shall be distributed as the judge shall direct, and the case dismissed. Whenever a composition is not confirmed, the estate shall be administered in bankruptcy as herein provided. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 12, 30 Stat. 549; June 25, 1910, c. 412, § 5, 36 Stat. 839; May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 5, 44 Stat. 663.)

Section 30 of Title 11 amended.—Section 12 of Act of July 1, 1898, c. 541, 30 Stat. 549, and Acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, constituting § 30 of Title 11 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 5, 44 Stat. 663, to read as above. The amendment relates to par. (a).

32. Discharges; when granted.—(a) Any person may, after the expiration of one month and within twelve months, subsequent to being adjudged a bankrupt, file an application for a discharge in the court of bankruptcy in which the proceedings are pending, if it shall be made to appear to the judge that the bankrupt was unavoidably prevented from filing it within such time, it may be filed within but not after the expiration of the next six months.

(b) The judge shall hear the application for a discharge and such proofs and pleas as may be made in opposition thereto by the trustee or other parties in interest, at such time as will give the trustee or parties in interest a reasonable opportunity to be fully heard; and investigate the merits of the application and discharge the applicant, unless he has

(1) Committed an offense punishable by imprisonment as herein provided; or

(2) Destroyed, mutilated, falsified, concealed, or failed to keep books of account, or records, from which his financial condition and business transactions might be ascertained; unless the court deem such failure or acts to have been justified, under all the circumstances of the case; or

(3) Obtained money or property on credit, or obtained an extension or renewal of credit, by making or publishing, or causing to be made or published, in any manner whatsoever, a materially false statement in writing respecting his financial condition; or

(4) At any time subsequent to the first day of the twelve months immediately preceding the filing of the petition, transferred, removed, destroyed, or concealed or permitted to be removed, destroyed, or concealed any of his property, with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud his creditors; or

(5) Has been granted a discharge in bankruptcy within six years; or

(6) In the course of proceedings in bankruptcy, refused to obey any lawful order of or to answer any material question approved by the court; or

(7) Has failed to explain satisfactorily any losses of assets or deficiency of assets to meet his liabilities;

Provided, That if, upon the hearing of an objection to a discharge, the objector shall show to the satisfaction of the court that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the bankrupt has committed any of the acts which, under this paragraph (b), would prevent his discharge in bankruptcy, then the burden of proving that he has not committed any of such acts shall be upon the bankrupt:

And provided further, That the trustee shall not interpose objections to a bankrupt's discharge until he shall be authorized so to do by the creditors at a meeting of creditors called for that purpose on the application of any creditor.

(c) The confirmation of a composition shall discharge the bankrupt from his debts, other than those agreed to be paid by the terms of the composition and those not affected by a discharge. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 14, 30 Stat. 550; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 4, 32 Stat. 797; June 25, 1910, c. 412, § 6, 36 Stat. 839; May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 6, 44 Stat. 663.)

Section 32 of Title 11 amended.—Section 14 of Act of July 1, 1898, c. 541, 30 Stat. 550, and Acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, constituting § 32 of Title 11 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 6, 44 Stat. 663, to read as above. The amendment relates to paragraphs (a) and (b).

Chapter 4.—COURTS AND PROCEDURE THEREIN.

Sec.
44. Evidence.
46. Jurisdiction; United States and State courts.
47. Same; appellate jurisdiction.
48. Appeals and writs of error.
52. Offenses.

44. Evidence.—(a) A court of bankruptcy may, upon application of any officer, bankrupt, or creditor, by order require any designated person, including the bankrupt and his wife, to appear in court or before a referee or the judge of any State court, to be examined concerning the acts, conduct, or property of a bankrupt whose estate is in process of administration under the provisions of this title. The wife may be examined only touching business transacted by her or to which she is a party, and to determine the fact whether she has transacted or been a party to any business of the bankrupt.

(b) The right to take depositions in proceedings under this title shall be determined and enjoyed according to the United States laws in force relating to the taking of depositions, except as herein provided.

(c) Notice of the taking of depositions shall be filed with the referee in every case. When depositions are to be taken in opposition to the allowance of a claim notice shall also be served upon the claimant, and when in opposition to a discharge notice shall also be served upon the bankrupt.

(d) Certified copies of proceedings before a referee, or of papers, when issued by the clerk or referee, shall be admitted as evidence with like force and effect as certified copies of the records of district courts of the United States are admitted as evidence.

(e) A certified copy of the order approving the bond of a trustee shall constitute conclusive evidence of the vesting in him of the title to the property of the bankrupt, and if recorded shall impart the same notice that a deed from the bankrupt to the trustee if recorded would have imparted had not bankruptcy proceedings intervened.

(f) A certified copy of an order confirming or setting aside a composition, or granting or setting aside a discharge, not revoked, shall be evidence of the jurisdiction of the court, the regularity of the proceedings, and of the fact that the order was made.

(g) A certified copy of an order confirming a composition shall constitute evidence of the revesting of the title of his property in the bankrupt, and if recorded shall impart the same notice that a deed from the trustee to the bankrupt if recorded would impart.

(h) A communication by a creditor, receiver, or trustee of one by or against whom a bankruptcy petition is filed, or who has been adjudicated a bankrupt, to another creditor, uttered in good faith and with reasonable grounds for belief in its truth, concerning the conduct, acts, or property of such bankrupt, shall be privileged, and the creditor receiver, or trustee so uttering the same shall not be held liable therefor. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 21, 30 Stat. 551; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 7, 32 Stat. 798; May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 7, 44 Stat. 664.)

Section 44 of Title 11 amended.—Section 21 of Act of July 1, 1898, c. 541, 30 Stat. 544, and Acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, constituting § 44 of Title 11 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 7, 44 Stat. 664, to read as above. The amendment added a new paragraph (h) after par. (g).

46. Jurisdiction; United States and State courts.—(a) The United States district courts shall have jurisdiction of all controversies at law and in equity, as distinguished from proceedings in bankruptcy, between trustees as such and adverse claimants concerning the property acquired or claimed by the trustees, in the same manner and to the same extent only as though bankruptcy proceedings had not been instituted and such controversies had been between the bankrupts and such adverse claimants.

(b) Suits by the trustee shall be brought or prosecuted only in the courts where the bankrupt, whose estate is being administered by such trustee, might have brought or prosecuted them if proceedings in bankruptcy had not been instituted, unless by consent of the proposed defendant, except suits for the recovery of property under section 60, subdivision b; section 67, subdivision e; and section 70, subdivision e.

Section 46 of Title 11 amended.—Section 23 of Act of July 1, 1898, c. 541, 30 Stat. 552, and Acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, constituting § 46 of Title 11 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 8, 44 Stat. 664, to read as above.

47. Same; appellate jurisdiction.—(a) The Supreme Court of the United States, the circuit courts of appeal of the United States, the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, and the supreme courts of the Territories, in vacation, in chambers, and during their respective terms, as now or as they may be hereafter held, are hereby invested with appellate jurisdiction of controversies arising in bankruptcy proceedings from the courts of bankruptcy from which they have appellate jurisdiction in other cases.

(b) The several circuit courts of appeal and the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia shall have jurisdiction in equity, either interlocutory or final, to superintend and revise in matter of law (and in matter of law and fact the matters specified in section 25[2]) the proceedings of the several inferior courts of bankruptcy within their jurisdiction. Such power shall be exercised by appeal and in the form and manner of an appeal, except in the cases mentioned in said section 25[2] to be allowed in the discretion of the appellate court.

(c) All appeals under this section shall be taken within thirty days after the judgment, or order, or other matter complained of, has been rendered or entered.

Section 47 of Title 11 amended.—Section 24 of Act of July 1, 1898, c. 541, 30 Stat. 553, and Acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, constituting § 47 of Title 11 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 9, 44 Stat. 664, to read as above.

48. Appeals and writs of error.—(a) That appeals, as in equity cases, may be taken in bankruptcy proceedings from the courts of bankruptcy to the circuit courts of appeal of the United States and the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia and to the supreme courts of the Territories in the following cases, to wit:

(1) From a judgment adjudging or refusing to adjudge the defendant a bankrupt;

(2) From a judgment granting or denying a discharge; and

(3) From a judgment allowing or rejecting a debt or claim of $500 or over.

Such appeal shall be taken within thirty days after the judgment appealed from has been rendered, and may be heard and determined by the appellate court in term or vacation, as the case may be.

(b) Trustees shall not be required to give bond when they take appeals or sue out writs of error.

(c) Controversies may be certified to the Supreme Court of the United States from other courts of the United States, and the former court may exercise jurisdiction thereof and issue writs of certiorari pursuant to the provisions of the United States laws in force on July 1, 1898, or such as may be thereafter enacted. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 25, 30 Stat. 553; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, §§ 1, 13, 43 Stat. 936, 941; May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 10, 44 Stat. 665.)

Section 48 of Title 11 amended.—Section 25 of Act of July 1, 1898, c. 541, 30 Stat. 553, and Acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, constituting § 48 of Title 11 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 10, 44 Stat. 665, to read as above. The amendment relates to par. (a).

52. Offenses.—(a) A person shall be punished by imprisonment for a period of not to exceed five years upon conviction of the offense of having knowingly and fraudulently appropriated to his own use, embezzled, spent, or unlawfully transferred any property or secreted or destroyed any document belonging to a bankrupt estate which came into his charge as trustee, receiver, custodian, or other officer of the court.

(b) A person shall be punished by imprisonment for a period of not to exceed five years upon conviction of the offense of having knowingly and fraudulently

(1) Concealed from the receiver, trustee, United States marshal, or other officer of the court charged with the control or custody of property, or from creditors in composition cases, any property belonging to the estate of a bankrupt; or

(2) Made a false oath or account in, or in relation to any proceeding in bankruptcy; or

(3) Presented under oath any false claim for proof against the estate of a bankrupt, or used any such claim in composition, personally, or by agent, proxy, or attorney, or as agent, proxy, or attorney; or

(4) Received any material amount of property from a bankrupt after the filing of the petition with intent to defeat this Act; or

(5) Received or attempted to obtain any money or property, remuneration, compensation, reward, advantage, or promise thereof from any person, for acting or forbearing to act in bankruptcy proceedings; or

(6) Having been an officer or agent of any person or corporation, and in contemplation of the bankruptcy of such person or corporation, or with intent to defeat the operation of this Act, concealed or transferred any of the property of the debtor; or

(7) After the filing of the petition, or, in contemplation of bankruptcy, concealed, destroyed, mutilated, or falsified any book, document, or record affecting or relating to the property or affairs of a bankrupt; or

(8) After the filing of the petition, withheld from the receiver or trustee any book, document, or paper affecting or relating to the property or affairs of a bankrupt, to the possession of which he is entitled.

(c) A person shall be punished by fine, not to exceed $500, and forfeit his office, and the same shall thereupon become vacant, upon conviction of the offense of having knowingly (1) acted as a referee in a case in which he is directly or indirectly interested; or (2) purchased, while a referee, directly or indirectly, any property of the estate in bankruptcy of which he is referee; or (3) refused, while a referee or trustee, to permit a reasonable opportunity for the inspection of the accounts relating to the affairs of, and the papers and records of, estates in his charge by parties in interest when directed by the court so to do.

(d) A person shall not be prosecuted for any offense arising under this Act unless the indictment is found or the information is filed in court within three years after the commission of the offense.

(e) (1) Whenever any referee, receiver, or trustee shall have grounds for believing that any offense under this Act[3] has been committed, or from facts or circumstances brought out in the course of administration or otherwise brought to his attention, that there is reasonable ground to believe that such an offense has been committed, or for special reason, an investigation should be had in connection therewith, it shall be the duty of such referee, receiver, or trustee to report such matter to the United States attorney for the district in which it is believed such an offense has been committed, including in such report a statement of all the facts and circumstances of the case within his knowledge, with the names of the witnesses, and a statement as to the offense or offenses believed to have been committed.

(2) It shall be the duty of every United States attorney immediately to inquire into the fact so reported to him by any referee, receiver, or trustee, and the law applicable thereto, and if it appears probable that any offense under this Act has been committed, in a proper case and without delay, to present the matter to the grand jury, unless upon inquiry and examination such district attorney decides that the ends of public justice do not require that the alleged offense should be investigated or prosecuted, in which case he shall report the facts to the Attorney General for his direction in the premises. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 29, 30 Stat. 554; May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 11, 44 Stat. 665.)

[3] "Act" should be translated "title."

Section 52 of Title 11 amended.—Section 29 of Act of July 1, 1898, c. 541, 30 Stat. 554, constituting § 52 of Title 11 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 11, 44 Stat. 665, to read as above. The amendment relates to paragraphs (a), (b), (d), and (e), adding (e) as new paragraph.

Chapter 5.—OFFICERS, THEIR DUTIES AND COMPENSATION.

66. Same; jurisdiction.—Referees respectively are invested, subject always to a review by the judge, within the limits of their districts as established from time to time, with jurisdiction to (1) consider all petitions referred to them by the clerks and make the adjudications or dismiss the petitions; (2) exercise the powers vested in courts of bankruptcy for the administering of oaths to and the examination of persons as witnesses and for requiring the production of documents in proceedings before them, except the power of commitment; (3) exercise the powers of the judge for the taking possession and releasing of the property of the bankrupt in the event of the issuance by the clerk of a certificate showing the absence of a judge from the judicial district, or the division of the district, or his sickness, or inability to act; (4) perform such part of the duties, except as to questions arising out of the applications of bankrupts for compositions or discharges, as are by this title conferred on courts of bankruptcy and as shall be prescribed by rules or orders of the courts of bankruptcy of their respective districts, except as herein otherwise provided; and (5) during the examination of the bankrupt, or other proceedings, authorize the employment of stenographers for reporting and transcribing the proceedings at such reasonable expense to the estate as the court may fix. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 38, 30 Stat. 555; May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 12, 44 Stat. 666.)

Section 66 of Title 11 amended.—Section 38 of Act of July 1, 1898, c. 541, 30 Stat. 555, constituting § 66 of Title 11 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 12, 44 Stat. 666, to read as above. The amendment relates to subd. (5).

Chapter 6.—CREDITS.

Sec.
93. Proof and allowance of claims.
96. Preferred creditors.

93. Proof and allowance of claims.—(a) Proof of claims shall consist of a statement under oath, in writing, signed by a creditor setting forth the claim, the consideration therefor, and whether any, and, if so what, securities are held therefor, and whether any, and, if so what, payments have been made thereon, and that the sum claimed is justly owing from the bankrupt to the creditor.

(b) Whenever a claim is founded upon an instrument of writing, such instrument, unless lost or destroyed, shall be filed with the proof of claim. If such instrument is lost or destroyed, a statement of such fact and of the circumstances of such loss or destruction shall be filed under oath with the claim. After the claim is allowed or disallowed, such instrument may be withdrawn by permission of the court, upon leaving a copy thereof on file with the claim.

(c) Claims after being proved may, for the purpose of allowance, be filed by the claimants in the court where the proceedings are pending or before the referee if the case has been referred.

(d) Claims which have been duly proved shall be allowed, upon receipt by or upon presentation to the court, unless objection to their allowance shall be made by parties in interest, or their consideration be continued for cause by the court upon its own motion.

(e) Claims of secured creditors and those who have priority may be allowed to enable such creditors to participate in the proceedings at creditors' meetings held prior to the determination of the value of their securities or priorities, but shall be allowed for such sums only as to the courts seem to be owing over and above the value of their securities or priorities.

(f) Objections to claims shall be heard and determined as soon as the convenience of the court and the best interests of the estates and the claimants will permit.

(g) The claims of creditors who have received preferences, voidable under section 96, subdivision (b), of this title, or to whom conveyances, transfers, assignments, or incumbrances, void or voidable under section 107, subdivision (e), of this title, have been made or given, shall not be allowed unless such creditors shall surrender such preferences, conveyances, transfers, assignments, or incumbrances.

(h) The value of securities held by secured creditors shall be determined by converting the same into money according to the terms of the agreement pursuant to which such securities were delivered to such creditors or by such creditors and the trustee, by agreement, arbitration, compromise, or litigation, as the court may direct, and the amount of such value shall be credited upon such claims, and a dividend shall be paid only on the unpaid balance.

(i) Whenever a creditor whose claim against a bankrupt estate is secured by the individual undertaking of any person fails to prove such claim, such person may do so in the creditor's name, and if he discharge such undertaking in whole or in part he shall be subrogated to that extent to the rights of the creditor.

(j) Debts owing to the United States, a State, a county, a district, or a municipality as a penalty or forfeiture shall not be allowed, except for the amount of the pecuniary loss sustained by the act, transaction, or proceeding out of which the penalty or forfeiture arose, with reasonable and actual costs occasioned thereby and such interest as may have accrued thereon according to law.

(k) Claims which have been allowed may be reconsidered for cause and reallowed or rejected in whole or in part, according to the equities of the case, before but not after the estate has been closed.

(l) Whenever a claim shall have been reconsidered and rejected, in whole or in part, upon which a dividend has been paid, the trustee may recover from the creditor the amount of the dividend received upon the claim if rejected in whole, or the proportional part thereof if rejected only in part.

(m) The claim of any estate which is being administered in bankruptcy against any like estate may be proved by the trustee and allowed by the court in the same manner and upon like terms as the claims of other creditors.

(n) Claims shall not be proved against a bankrupt estate subsequent to six months after the adjudication; or if they are liquidated by litigation and the final judgment therein is rendered within thirty days before or after the expiration of such time, then within sixty days after the rendition of such judgment: Provided, That the right of infants and insane persons without guardians, without notice of the proceedings, may continue six months longer. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 57, 30 Stat. 560; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 12, 32 Stat. 799; May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 13, 44 Stat. 666.)

Section 93 of Title 11 amended.—Section 57 of Act of July 1, 1898, c. 541, 30 Stat. 560, and act amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, constituting § 93 of Title 11 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 13, 44 Stat. 666, to read as above. The amendment relates to paragraph (n).

96. Preferred creditors.—(a) A person shall be deemed to have given a preference if, being insolvent, he has, within four months before the filing of the petition, or after the filing of the petition and before the adjudication, procured or suffered a judgment to be entered against himself in favor of any person, or made a transfer to [of] any of his property, and the effect of the enforcement of such judgment or transfer will be to enable any one of his creditors to obtain a greater percentage of his debt than any other of such creditors of the same class. Where the preference consists in a transfer, such period of four months shall not expire until four months after the date of recording or registering of the transfer, if by law such recording or registering is required or permitted.

(b) If a bankrupt shall have procured or suffered a judgment to be entered against him in favor of any person or have made a transfer of any of his property, and if, at the time of the transfer, or of the entry of the judgment, or of the recording or registering of the transfer if by law recording or registering thereof is required, and being within four months before the filing of the petition in bankruptcy or after the filing thereof and before the adjudication, the bankrupt be insolvent and the judgment or transfer then operate as a preference, and the person receiving it or to be benefited thereby, or his agent acting therein, shall then have reasonable cause to believe that the enforcement of such judgment or transfer would effect a preference, it shall be voidable by the trustee and he may recover the property or its value from such person. And for the purpose of such recovery any court of bankruptcy, as hereinbefore defined, and any State court which would have had jurisdiction if bankruptcy had not intervened, shall have concurrent jurisdiction.

(c) If a creditor has been preferred, and afterwards in good faith gives the debtor further credit without security of any kind for property which becomes a part of the debtor's estates, the amount of such new credit remaining unpaid at the time of the adjudication in bankruptcy may be set off against the amount which would otherwise be recoverable from him.

(d) If a debtor shall, directly or indirectly, in contemplation of the filing of a petition by or against him, pay money or transfer property to an attorney and counselor at law, solicitor in equity, or proctor in admiralty for services to be rendered, the transaction shall be reexamined by the court on petition of the trustee or any creditor and shall only be held valid to the extent of a reasonable amount to be determined by the court, and the excess may be recovered by the trustee for the benefit of the estate. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 60, 30 Stat. 562; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 13, 32 Stat. 799; June 25, 1910, c. 412, § 11, 36 Stat. 842; May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 14, 44 Stat. 666.)

Section 96 of Title 11 amended.—Section 60 of Act of July 1, 1898, c. 541, 30 Stat. 562, and Acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, constituting § 96 of Title 11 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 14, 44 Stat. 666, to read as above. The amendment relates to paragraph (a).

Chapter 7.—ESTATES.

Sec.
104. Debts which have priority.
110. Same; title.

104. Debts which have priority.—(a) The court shall order the trustee to pay all taxes legally due and owing by the bankrupt to the United States, State, county, district, or municipality, in the order of priority as set forth in paragraph (b) hereof: Provided, That no order shall be made for the payment of a tax assessed against real estate of a bankrupt in excess of the value of the interest of the bankrupt estate therein as determined by the court. Upon filing the receipts of the proper public officers for such payments the trustee shall be credited with the amounts thereof, and in case any question arises as to the amount or legality of any such tax the same shall be heard and determined by the court.

(b) The debts to have priority, in advance of the payment of dividends to creditors, and to be paid in full out of bankrupt estates, and the order of payment shall be

(1) The actual and necessary cost of preserving the estate subsequent to filing the petition;

(2) The filing fees paid by creditors in involuntary cases, and, where property of the bankrupt, transferred or concealed by him either before or after the filing of the petition, shall have been recovered for the benefit of the estate of the bankrupt by the efforts and at the expense of one or more creditors, the reasonable expense of such recovery;

(3) The cost of administration, including the fees and mileage payable to witnesses as now or hereafter provided by the laws of the United States, and one reasonable attorney's fee, for the professional services actually rendered, irrespective of the number of attorneys employed, to the petitioning creditors in involuntary cases while performing the duties herein prescribed, and to the bankrupt in voluntary and involuntary cases, as the court may allow;

(4) Where the confirmation of composition terms has been refused or set aside upon the objection and through the efforts and at the expense of one or more creditors, in the discretion of the court, the reasonable expenses of such creditors in opposing such composition;

(5) Wages due to workmen, clerks, traveling or city salesmen, or servants, which have been earned within three months before the date of the commencement of the proceeding, not to exceed $600 to each claimant;

(6) Taxes payable under paragraph (a) hereof and

(7) Debts owing to any person who by the laws of the States or the United States is entitled to priority:

Provided, That the term "person" as used in this section shall include corporations, the United States, and the several States and Territories of the United States.

(c) In the event of the confirmation of a composition being set aside, or a discharge revoked, the property acquired by the bankrupt in addition to his estate at the time the composition was confirmed or the adjudication was made shall be applied to the payment in full of the claims of creditors for property sold to him on credit, in good faith, while such composition or discharge was in force, and the residue, if any, shall be applied to the payment of the debts which were owing at the time of adjudication. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 64, 30 Stat. 563; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 14, 32 Stat. 800; June 15, 1906, c. 3333, 34 Stat. 267; May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 15, 44 Stat. 666.)

Section 104 of Title 11 amended.—Section 64 of Act of July 1, 1898, c. 531, 30 Stat. 563, and Acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, constituting § 104 of Title 11 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 15, 44 Stat. 666, to read as above. The amendment relates to subdivisions (a) and (b).

110. Same; title.—(a) The trustee of the estate of a bankrupt, upon his appointment and qualification, and his successor or successors, if he shall have one or more, upon his or their appointment and qualification, shall in turn be vested by operation of law with the title of the bankrupt, as of the date he was adjudged a bankrupt, except in so far as it is to property which is exempt, to all (1) documents relating to his property; (2) interests in patents, patent rights, copyrights, and trademarks, and in applications for patents, copyrights, and trademarks: Provided, That in case the trustee, within thirty days after appointment, does not notify the applicant for a patent, copyright, or trade-mark of his election to prosecute the application to allowance or rejection, the bankrupt may apply to the court for an order revesting him with the title thereto, which petition shall be granted, unless, for cause shown by the trustee, the court grants further time to the trustee for making such selection; and such applicant may, in any event, at any time petition the court to be revested with such title in case the trustee shall fail to prosecute such application with reasonable diligence; and the court, upon revesting the bankrupt with such title, shall direct the trustee to execute proper instruments of transfer to make the same effective in law and upon the records; (3) powers which he might have exercised for his own benefit, but not those which he might have exercised for some other persons; (4) property transferred by him in fraud of his creditors; (5) property which prior to the filing of the petition he could by any means have transferred or which might have been levied upon and sold under judicial process against him. When any bankrupt shall have any insurance policy which has a cash surrender value payable to himself, his estate, or personal representatives, he may, within thirty days after the cash surrender value has been ascertained and stated to the trustee by the company issuing the same, pay or secure to the trustee the sum so ascertained and stated, and continue to hold, own, and carry such policy free from the claims of the creditors participating in the distribution of his estate under the bankruptcy proceedings, otherwise the policy shall pass to the trustee as assets; and (6) rights of action arising upon contracts or from the unlawful taking or detention of, or injury to, his property.

(b) All real and personal property belonging to bankrupt estates shall be appraised by three disinterested appraisers; they shall be appointed by, and report to, the court. Real and personal property shall, when practicable, be sold subject to the approval of the court; it shall not be sold otherwise than subject to the approval of the court for less than 75 per centum of its appraised value.

(c) The title to property of a bankrupt estate which has been sold, as provided in this title, shall be conveyed to the purchaser by the trustee.

(d) Whenever a composition shall be set aside, or discharge revoked, the trustee shall, upon his appointment and qualification, be vested as provided in this title with the title to all of the property of the bankrupt as of the date of the final decree setting aside the composition or revoking the discharge.

(e) The trustee may avoid any transfer by the bankrupt of his property which any creditor of such bankrupt might have avoided, and may recover the property so transferred, or its value, from the person to whom it was transferred, unless he was a bona fide holder for value prior to the date of the adjudication. Such property may be recovered or its value collected from whoever may have received it, except a bona fide holder for value. For the purpose of such recovery any court of bankruptcy as defined in this title, and any State court which would have had jurisdiction if bankruptcy had not intervened, shall have concurrent jurisdiction.

(f) Upon the confirmation of a composition offered by a bankrupt, the title to his property shall thereupon revest in him. (July 1, 1898, c. 541, § 70, 30 Stat. 565; Feb. 5, 1903, c. 487, § 16, 32 Stat. 800; May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 16, 44 Stat. 667.)

Section 110 of Title 11 amended.—Section 70 of Act of July 1, 1898, c. 541, 30 Stat. 565, and Acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, constituting § 110 of Title 11 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 27, 1926, c. 406, § 16, 44 Stat. 667, to read as above. The amendment relates to paragraph (a), subdivision (2).

TITLE 12.—BANKS AND BANKING

Chapter 4.—TAXATION.

NATIONAL BANK SHARES

548. State taxation.—The legislature of each State may determine and direct, subject to the provisions of this section, the manner and place of taxing all the shares of national banking associations located within its limits. The several States may (1) tax said shares, or (2) include dividends derived therefrom in the taxable income of an owner or holder thereof, or (3) tax such associations on their net income, or (4) according to or measured by their net income, provided the following conditions are complied with:

1. (a) The imposition by any State of any one of the above four forms of taxation shall be in lieu of the others, except as hereinafter provided in subdivision (c) of this clause.

(b) In the case of a tax on said shares the tax imposed shall not be at a greater rate than is assessed upon other moneyed capital in the hands of individual citizens of such State coming into competition with the business of national banks: Provided, That bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness in the hands of individual citizens not employed or engaged in the banking or investment business and representing merely personal investments not made in competition with such business, shall not be deemed moneyed capital within the meaning of this section.

(c) In case of a tax on or according to or measured by the net income of an association, the taxing State may, except in case of a tax on net income, include the entire net income received from all sources, but the rate shall not be higher than the rate assessed upon other financial corporations nor higher than the highest of the rates assessed by the taxing State upon mercantile, manufacturing, and business corporations doing business within its limits: Provided, however, That a State which imposes a tax on or according to or measured by the net income of, or a franchise or excise tax on, financial, mercantile, manufacturing, and business corporations organized under its own laws or laws of other States and also imposes a tax upon the income of individuals, may include in such individual income dividends from national banking associations located within the State on condition that it also includes dividends from domestic corporations and may likewise include dividends from national banking associations located without the State on condition that it also includes dividends from foreign corporations, but at no higher rate than is imposed on dividends from such other corporations.

(d) In case the dividends derived from the said shares are taxed, the tax shall not be at a greater rate than is assessed upon the net income from other moneyed capital.

2. The shares of any national banking association owned by nonresidents of any State, shall be taxed by the taxing district or by the State where the association is located and not elsewhere; and such association shall make return of such shares and pay the tax thereon as agent of such nonresident shareholders.

3. Nothing herein shall be construed to exempt the real property of associations from taxation in any State or in any subdivision thereof, to the same extent, according to its value, as other real property is taxed.

4. The provisions of section 5219 of the Revised Statutes of the United States[1] as heretofore in force shall not prevent the legalizing, ratifying, or confirming by the States of any tax heretofore paid, levied, or assessed upon the shares of national banks, or the collecting thereof, to the extent that such tax would be valid under said section. (R. S. § 5219; Mar. 4, 1923, c. 267, 42 Stat. 1499; Mar. 25, 1926, c. 88, 44 Stat. 223.)

Section 548 of Title 12 amended.—Section 5219 of the Revised Statutes, as amended by Act of Mar. 4, 1923, c. 267, 42 Stat. 1499, constituting § 548 of Title 12 of the Code, has been again amended to read as above.

[1] The words "section 5219 of the Revised Statutes of the United States as heretofore in force" relate to this section before its amendment by the Act of Mar. 25, 1926, cited in the text.

Chapter 5.—CRIMES AND OFFENSES.

IN GENERAL

Sec.
584. Spurious advertising or representations as to Federal farm loans and bonds; use of words "Federal," "United States," etc. [New.]
585. Use of words "Federal," "United States," and "reserve" as part of business name. [New.]

587. Violation of sections 584–586; penalties; injunctions. [New.]
588. Partial invalidity of sections 584–587; effect on remainder. [New.]

IN GENERAL

584. Spurious advertising or representations as to Federal farm loans and bonds; use of words "Federal," "United States," etc.—That no bank, banking association, trust company, corporation, association, firm, partnership, or person not organized under the provisions of the Act of July 17, 1916, known as the Federal Farm Loan Act,[2] as amended, shall advertise or represent that it makes Federal farm loans or advertise of [or] offer for sale as Federal farm loan bonds any bond not issued under the provisions of the Federal Farm Loan Act, or make use of the word "Federal" or the words "United States" or any other word or words implying Government ownership, obligation, or supervision in advertising or offering for sale any bond, note, mortgage, or other security not issued by the Government of the United States or under the provisions of the said Federal Farm Loan Act or some other Act of Congress. (May 24, 1926, c. 377, § 1, 44 Stat. 628.)

New section. This section and sections 585–588 came from an Act entitled "An Act to prohibit the offering for sale as Federal farm loan bonds any securities not issued under the terms of the Farm Loan Act, to limit the use of the words 'Federal,' 'United States,' or 'reserve' or any combination of such words, to prohibit false advertising, and for other purposes," cited to the text.

585. Use of words "Federal," "United States," and "reserve" as part of business name.—No bank, banking association, trust company, corporation, association, firm, partnership, or person engaged in the banking, loan, building and loan, brokerage, factorage, insurance, indemnity, or trust business shall use the word "Federal," the words "United States," or the word "reserve," or any combination of such words, as a portion of its corporate, firm, or trade name or title or of the name under which it does business: Provided, however, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to the Federal Reserve Board, the Federal Farm Loan Board, the Federal Trade Commission, or any other department, bureau, or independent establishment of the Government of the United States, nor to any Federal reserve bank, Federal land bank, or Federal reserve agent, nor to the Federal Advisory Council, nor to any corporation organized under the laws of the United States, nor to any bank, banking association, trust company, corporation, association, firm, partnership, or person actually engaged in business under such name or title prior to the passage of this Act. (May 24, 1926, c. 377, § 2, 44 Stat. 628.)

New section. See note to § 584.

586. False advertising or representation as to membership in Federal reserve system.—That no bank, banking association, or trust company which is not a member of the Federal reserve system shall advertise or represent in any way that it is a member of such system or publish or display any sign, symbol, or advertisement reasonably calculated to convey the impression that it is a member of such system. (May 24, 1926, c. 377, § 3, 44 Stat. 628.)

New section. See note to § 584.

587. Violation of sections 584–586; penalties; injunctions.—That any bank, banking association, trust company, corporation, association, firm, or partnership violating any of the provisions of this Act[3] shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a fine of not exceeding $1,000. Any person violating any of the provisions of this Act,[3] or any officer of any bank, banking association, trust company, corporation, or association, or member of any firm or partnership violating any of the provisions of this Act[3] who participates in, or knowingly acquiesces in, such violations shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to a fine of not exceeding $1,000 or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both. Any such illegal use of such word or words, or any combination of such words, or any other violation of any of the provisions of this Act,[3] may be enjoined by the United States district court having jurisdiction, at the instance of any United States district attorney, any Federal land bank, joint-stock land bank, Federal reserve bank, or the Federal Farm Loan Board or the Federal Reserve Board. (May 24, 1926, c. 377, § 4, 44 Stat. 628.)

New section. See note to § 584.

588. Partial invalidity of sections 584–587; effect on remainder.—That if any clause, sentence, paragraph, or part of this Act shall for any reason be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder of this Act, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered. (May 24, 1926, c. 377, § 5, 44 Stat. 629.)

New section. See note to § 584.

[3] "This Act" should be translated "sections 584–588."

TITLE 14.—COAST GUARD

Chapter 1.—GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Sec.
2a. Computation of length of service of officers; time spent at Naval or Military Academy. [New.]
5a. "District superintendent" title changed to "district commander"; rank, pay, and allowances; appointment. [New.]
10. Distribution in grades of permanent commissioned officers.
15. Cadets; number; qualifications; examinations; obligations; dismissal.
18. Promotion of commissioned officers generally; examinations.
19. Constructor; appointment; rank.
24. Promotion of ensigns and district superintendents; service requirement; necessity for vacancies in higher grade.

2a. Computation of length of service of officers; time spent at Naval or Military Academy.—In computing for any purpose the length of service of any officer of the Navy, of the Marine Corps, of the Coast Guard, of the Coast and Geodetic Surveys, or of the Public Health Service, who was appointed to the United States Naval Academy or to the United States Military Academy after March 4, 1913, the time spent at either academy shall not be counted. (May 21, 1926, c. 355, 44 Stat. 604.)

New section. This provision is from the Navy Department and naval service appropriation act for the year 1927, cited to the text.

5a. "District superintendent;" title changed to "district commander;" rank, pay, and allowances; appointment.—That the title "district superintendent" is hereby changed to "district commander," and all laws applicable to district superintendents shall apply to district commanders except as modified by the provisions of this section. A district commander of less than ten years' commissioned service shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of a lieutenant, and, after ten years' commissioned service, shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of a lieutenant commander. An original appointment as district commander shall be made under regulations prescribed by the President from the warrant or chief petty officers of the Coast Guard: Provided, That the proviso "That the district superintendents shall be chief officers and first in authority in their respective districts, subject to the authority of the captain commandant," contained in section 4 of the Act approved January 28, 1915,[1] is hereby repealed. (July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 9, 44 Stat. 817.)

New section.

The Act of July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 9, 44 Stat. 817, cited to the text, was entitled "An Act to readjust the commissioned personnel of the Coast Guard, and for other purposes."

This Act contains 14 sections, the balance of which constitute c. 9 of this title of the Appendix.

10. Distribution in grades of permanent commissioned officers.

Section 10 of Title 14 affected.—See § 211 in c. 9 of this title of the appendix.

15. Cadets; number; qualifications; examinations; obligations; dismissal.

Section 15 of Title 14 affected.—See § 216 in c. 9 of this title of the appendix.

18. Promotion of commissioned officers generally; examinations.

Section 18 of Title 14 affected.—See § 217 in c. 9 of this title of the appendix.

19. Constructor; appointment; rank.

Section 19 of Title 14 affected.—See § 218 in c. 9 of this title of the appendix.

[1] The proviso of sec. 4 of Act of Jan. 28, 1915, repealed by the text, constitutes § 100 of Title 14 of the Code.

24. Promotion of ensigns and district superintendents; service requirement; necessity for vacancies in higher grade.

The title "district superintendent" was changed to "district commander" by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 9, 44 Stat. 817, constituting § 5a of this title of the appendix.

Chapter 3.—COAST GUARD STATIONS.

Sec.
100. District superintendent as chief officer of district.
101. District superintendents as disbursing and customs officers; bond.
102. Promotion to fill vacancy of district superintendent and of keeper.
105. Appointments made only for fitness.

100. District superintendent as chief officer of district.—[Repealed.]

The proviso in § 4 of Jan. 28, 1915, c. 20, 38 Stat. 802, which constitutes § 100 of Title 14 of the Code, was repealed by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 9, 44 Stat. 817.

101. District superintendents as disbursing and customs officers; bond.

The title "district superintendent" was changed to "district commander" by Act July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 9, 44 Stat. 817, constituting § 5a of this title of the appendix.

102. Promotion to fill vacancy of district superintendent and of keeper.

The title "district superintendent" was changed to "district commander" by Act July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 9, 44 Stat. 817, constituting § 5a of this title of the appendix.

105. Appointments made only for fitness.

The title "district superintendent" was changed to "district commander" by Act July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 9, 44 Stat. 817, constituting § 5a of this title of the appendix.

Chapter 4.—PAY AND ALLOWANCES.

Sec.
121a. Pay of surfmen; repeal of provision in Act May 27, 1908. [New.]
123. District superintendents; pay and allowances.
126. Travel on Government-owned vessels.

121a. Pay of surfmen; repeal of provision in Act May 27, 1908.—That the provision contained in the Act making appropriations for the sundry civil expenses of the Government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, and for other purposes, approved May 27, 1908 (Thirty-fifth Statutes at Large, page 321), which reads "Hereafter the pay of surfmen in the Life Saving Service shall be computed according to the number of days in each month, respectively, and not as required by section 6 of the Act of June 30, 1906, making appropriations for the sundry civil expenses of the Government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1907," be, and the same is hereby, repealed. (July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 12, 44 Stat. 817.)

New section. See footnote to chapter 9 of this title of the appendix.

The statutory provision here repealed does not appear in the Code.

123. District superintendents; pay and allowances.

The title "district superintendent" was changed to "district commander" by Act July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 9, 44 Stat. 817, constituting § 5a of this title of the appendix.

126. Travel on Government-owned vessels.

Section 126 of Title 14 repealed.—The statutory provision constituting § 126 of Title 14 of the Code, was repeated in Act of Mar. 2, 1926, c. 43, § 1, 43 Stat. 144.

Chapter 6.—RETIREMENT AND DISABILITY; ALLOWANCE TO DEPENDENTS.

167a. Retired pay; officers and warrant officers; amounts to persons retired on or before June 30, 1922.—Hereafter the retired pay of the officers and warrant officers of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Coast and Geodetic Survey, and Public Health Service, who were retired on or before June 30, 1922, shall not be less than that provided for the officers and warrant officers of these services of equal rank and length of service retired subsequent to that date: Provided, That nothing in this Act shall operate to reduce the pay of any officer or warrant officer now on the retired list. (May 8, 1926, c. 274, § 1, 44 Stat. 417.)

New section. This section is section 1 of an Act entitled "An Act to equalize the pay of retired officers of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Coast and Geodetic Survey, and Public Health Service," cited to the text. Section 2 of this Act repeals all inconsistent Acts and parts of Acts.

Chapter 9.[2]—READJUSTMENT OF COMMISSIONED PERSONNEL.

Sec.
203. Appointment of temporary officers authorized; pay and allowances; retirement rights.
211. Regular commissioned officers, other than chief warrant officers; number; distribution in grades.
212. Temporary commissioned officers; number; distribution in grades.
213. Engineer officers; transfer to line; precedence; cadet engineers.
214. Commissioned engineer officers; vacancies at bottom of list; when and how filled.
215. Temporary commissioned officers; appointment as regular commissioned officers; rank.
216. Cadets; number; appointment; term of service.
217. Promotions.
218. Constructor; rank, pay, and allowances; appointment.
219. Chief warrant officers; temporary officers made permanent; appointment; rank, pay, and allowances.
220. Coast Guard personnel, where trained; cost.
221. Existing rank, pay, and allowances of commissioned officers as affected by chapter.
222. Repeal of inconsistent laws.

203. Appointment of temporary officers authorized; pay and allowances; retirement rights.

Section 203 of Title 14 affected.—See § 212 in c. 9 of this title of the appendix.

211. Regular commissioned officers, other than chief warrant officers; number; distribution in grades.—On and after July 1, 1926, the number of regular commissioned officers, other than chief warrant officers, authorized in the Coast Guard shall be three hundred and forty, distributed in grades as follows: One commandant, fifteen captains, thirty-five commanders, seventy-one lieutenant commanders, sixty-six lieutenants, and eighty-five lieutenants (junior grade) and ensigns, one engineer in chief, eight captains (engineering), eleven commanders (engineering), and twenty-eight lieutenant commanders (engineering), five constructors, and fourteen district commanders. (July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 1, 44 Stat. 815.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

212. Temporary commissioned officers; number; distribution in grades.—On and after July 1, 1926, the number of temporary commissioned officers authorized in the Coast Guard shall be one hundred and fifteen, distributed in grades as follows: Fifty lieutenants and sixty-five lieutenants (junior grade) and ensigns of the line, and after that date no more temporary officers shall be appointed in the grade of lieutenant commander or above. (July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 2, 44 Stat. 815.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

213. Engineer officers; transfer to line; precedence; cadet engineers.—That all lieutenants (engineering) not holding temporary appointments as lieutenant commanders (engineering), all lieutenants (junior grade) (engineering) and all ensigns (engineering), both regular and temporary, who are in the Coast Guard on July 1, 1926, shall be transferred to the line of the Coast Guard and shall be commissioned accordingly, the regular engineer officers to become regular line officers and temporary engineer officers to become temporary line officers, respectively. Engineer officers thus transferred shall take precedence with line officers in the grades to which transferred in accordance with total lengths of continuous commissioned service in the Coast Guard. All cadet engineers who are in the service on July 1, 1926, shall be appointed cadets of the line as of that date and service as cadet engineer shall be counted as cadet service. (July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 3, 44 Stat. 815.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

214. Commissioned engineer officers; vacancies at bottom of list; when and how filled.—A vacancy occurring at the bottom of the list of commissioned engineer officers after July 1, 1926, may or may not be filled, in the discretion of the President, in accordance with the existing needs of the service for engineer officers. If such a vacancy is filled, it shall be filled by promotion of the senior regular officer of the next lower grade of the line who applies for such promotion and who demonstrates his entire fitness therefor in the manner provided in section 3 of the Act approved January 12, 1923.[3] If such a vacancy is not filled within a period of six months after its occurrence, it shall accrue to the corresponding grade of the line and shall increase the number of officers of such corresponding grade of the line as authorized in section 1 of this Act[4] accordingly, but shall not increase the total number of commissioned line and engineer officers combined as authorized by this Act.[5] (July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 4, 44 Stat. 816.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

215. Temporary commissioned officers; appointment as regular commissioned officers; rank.—That the President is authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, temporary commissioned officers to be commissioned officers in the regular Coast Guard in grades not above lieutenant: Provided, That no temporary officer shall be appointed a regular commissioned officer until his entire fitness for such appointment has been established to the satisfaction of a board of commissioned officers of the Coast Guard appointed by the President, and until he has been pronounced physically qualified by a board of medical officers: Provided further, That temporary officers who may be thus commissioned in the regular Coast Guard shall take rank in the grades in which they are appointed in accordance with the dates of their commissions as regular officers. (July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 5, 44 Stat. 816.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

216. Cadets; number; appointment; term of service.—That on and after the date of the passage of this Act the number of cadets in the Coast Guard shall be such as the Secretary of the Treasury may from time to time determine as necessary for the needs of the service. Appointments to cadetships shall be made under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall determine age limits, methods of selection of applicants, and all other matters affecting such appointments. Cadets shall serve two years, three years, or four years, as the Secretary of the Treasury may determine from time to time in accordance with the needs of the service, before being eligible

[2] New chapter. Derived from Act of July 3, 1926, c. 742, 44 Stat. 815, entitled "An Act to readjust the commissioned personnel of the Coast Guard, and for other purposes."

This Act contains 14 sections, sections 9 and 12 of which constitute §§ 5a and 121a of this title of the appendix.

to be commissioned as ensigns. (July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 6, 44 Stat. 816.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

217. Promotions.—That hereafter no officer shall be promoted to lieutenant commander or to lieutenant commander (engineering) who has had less than eight years' commissioned service, regular or temporary, in the Coast Guard. On and after September 1, 1926, no officer shall be promoted in the regular Coast Guard from lieutenant (junior grade) to lieutenant until he shall have served at least two years as a lieutenant (junior grade) in the regular service. Subsequent to the passage of this Act[5] and continuing until June 30, 1931, an ensign may be promoted to lieutenant (junior grade) after two years' service as an ensign; on and after July 1, 1931, an ensign shall be required to complete three years' service in his grade, after which he shall be eligible for promotion to the next higher grade, without regard to the number already in that higher grade. (July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 7, 44 Stat. 816.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

218. Constructor; rank, pay and allowances; appointment.—That a constructor, upon original appointment as such, shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of a lieutenant. An original appointment as constructor shall be made under regulations prescribed by the President from the list of commissioned officers of the Coast Guard or from civil life and shall be for a probationary period of two years, and, prior to the expiration of such probationary period of service, the fitness of the officer who has thus served shall be passed upon by a board of commissioned officers of the Coast Guard appointed by the President. If the board finds that the officer is in all respects fitted to be a constructor in the Coast Guard, he may be regularly appointed a constructor to rank from the date of his original probationary appointment: Provided, That no person shall receive an original probationary appointment as constructor who is more than thirty years of age. (July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 8, 44 Stat. 817.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

[5] "Act" should be translated "chapter."

219. Chief warrant officers; temporary officers made permanent; appointment; rank, pay and allowances.—That all temporary chief warrant officers who are in the Coast Guard on July 1, 1926, shall be transferred to the regular Coast Guard as chief warrant officers as of that date and shall be commissioned accordingly. Under such regulations as he may prescribe the President is authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, chief warrant officers of the Coast Guard from the permanent list of warrant officers of the Coast Guard as the needs of the service may require, and such chief warrant officers shall receive the same pay, allowances, and benefits as commissioned warrant officers of the Navy of like length of service: Provided, That no warrant officer shall suffer a reduction in pay or allowances on account of his appointment as a chief warrant officer under the provisions of this section. (July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 10, 44 Stat. 817.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

220. Coast Guard personnel where trained; cost.—That Coast Guard personnel may be trained at naval training stations and instructed at schools maintained by the Navy, and the pro rata cost of such training or instruction may be borne by Coast Guard appropriations, and the proper Navy appropriations may be credited accordingly. (July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 11, 44 Stat. 817.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

222. Existing rank, pay and allowances of commissioned officers as affected by chapter.—That nothing contained in this Act[5] shall be construed to reduce the rank, pay, or allowances of any commissioned officer of the Coast Guard as now provided by law. (July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 13, 44 Stat. 818.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

223. Repeal of inconsistent laws.—That all Acts and parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of this Act[5] are hereby repealed. (July 3, 1926, c. 742, § 14, 44 Stat. 818.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

211. Standardization of screw threads; Commission; creation.
212. Duties of commission; standards; adoption; use.
213. Promulgation of standards; publication.
214. Commission; pay.
215. Commission; rules and regulations.

WEIGHTS, MEASURES, AND STANDARDS GENERALLY

209. Standards for screw threads to be adopted.

Section 209 of Title 15 amended.—See secs. 211–215 in this chapter of Title 15 of the appendix.

210. Promulgation for use by public.

Section 210 of Title 15 amended.—See secs. 211–215 in this chapter of Title 15 of the appendix.

SCREW THREADS

211. Standardization of screw threads; Commission; creation.—That a commission is hereby created, to be known as the Commission for the Standardization of Screw Threads, hereinafter referred to as the commission, which shall be composed of nine commissioners, one of whom shall be the Director of the Bureau of Standards, who shall be chairman of the commission; two representatives of the Army, to be appointed by the Secretary of War; two representatives of the Navy, to be appointed by the Secretary of the Navy; and four to be appointed by the Secretary of Commerce, two of whom shall be chosen from nominations made by the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and two from nominations made by the Society of Automotive Engineers. (July 18, 1918, c. 156, § 2, 40 Stat. 913; Mar. 3, 1919, c. 96, 40 Stat. 1291; Apr. 16, 1926, c. 148, § 1, 44 Stat. 297.)

New section.

212. Duties of commission; standards; adoption; use.—That it shall be the duty of said commission to ascertain and establish standards for screw threads, which shall be submitted to the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, and the Secretary of Commerce for their acceptance and approval. Such standards, when thus accepted and approved, shall be adopted and used in the several manufacturing plants under the control of the War and Navy Departments, and, so far as practicable, in all specifications for screw threads in proposals for manufactured articles, parts, or materials to be used under the direction of these departments. (July 18, 1918, c. 156, § 2, 40 Stat. 913; Mar. 3, 1919, c. 96, 40 Stat. 1291; Apr. 16, 1926, c. 148, § 2, 44 Stat. 297.)

New section.

213. Promulgation of standards; publication.—That the Secretary of Commerce shall promulgate such standards for use by the public and cause the same to be published as a public document. (July 18, 1918, c. 156, § 2, 40 Stat. 913; Mar. 3, 1919, c. 96, 40 Stat. 1291; Apr. 16, 1926, c. 148, § 3, 44 Stat. 297.)

New section.

214. Commission; pay.—That the commission shall serve without compensation but nothing herein shall be held to affect the pay of the commissioners appointed from the Army and Navy or of the Director of the Bureau of Standards. (July 18, 1918, c. 156, § 2, 40 Stat. 913; Mar. 3, 1919, c. 96, 40 Stat. 1291; Apr. 16, 1926, c. 148, § 4, 44 Stat. 297.)

New section.

215. Commission; rules and regulations.—That the commission may adopt rules and regulations in regard to its procedure and the conduct of its business. (July 18, 1918, c. 156, § 2, 40 Stat. 913; Mar. 3, 1919, c. 96, 40 Stat. 1291; Apr. 16, 1926, c. 148, § 5, 44 Stat. 297.)

New section.

Chapter 9.—THE WEATHER BUREAU.

Sec.
313. Duties of chief of bureau.
319. Printing.

313. Duties of chief of bureau.—The Chief of the Weather Bureau, under the direction of the Secretary of Agriculture, shall have charge of the forecasting of weather, the issue of storm warnings, the display of weather and flood signals for the benefit of agriculture, commerce, and navigation, the gauging and reporting of rivers, the maintenance and operation of seacoast telegraph lines and the collection and transmission of marine intelligence for the benefit of commerce and navigation, the reporting of temperature and rain-fall conditions for the cotton interests, the display of frost and cold-wave signals, the distribution of meteorological information in the interests of agriculture and commerce, and the taking of such meteorological observations as may be necessary to establish and record the climatic conditions of the United States, or as are essential for the proper execution of the foregoing duties.

Within the limits of the appropriations which may be made for such purpose, it shall be the duty of the Chief of the Weather Bureau, under the direction of the Secretary of Agriculture, (a) to furnish such weather reports, forecasts, warnings, and advices as may be required to promote the safety and efficiency of air navigation in the United States and above the high seas, particularly upon civil airways designated by the Secretary of Commerce under authority of law as routes suitable for air commerce, and (b) for such purposes to observe, measure, and investigate atmospheric phenomena, and establish meteorological offices and stations. (Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1266, § 3, 26 Stat. 653; May 20, 1926, c. 344, § 5 (e), 44 Stat. 571.)

Section 313 of Title 15 amended.—The provision of Act of Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1266, § 3, 26 Stat. 653, constituting § 313 of Title 15 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 20, 1926, c. 344, § 5 (e), 44 Stat. 571, to read as above. The amendment added a new paragraph at the end of section.

319. Printing.

Section 319 of Title 15 repeated.—The statutory provision constituting § 319 of Title 15 of the Code was repeated in Act of May 11, 1926, c. 286, 44 Stat. 504.

1. Service created; director; other employees.

Application to added territory in Mount Ranier National Park of this section and sections 2, 3, and 4 of this title of the Code, see § 108 of this title in the appendix.

Application to added territory in Rocky Mountain National Park see § 197 of this title in the appendix.

Application to Shenandoah National Park and Great Smoky Mountain National Park, see § 403b of this title in the appendix.

To Mammoth Cave National Park see § 404b of this title in the appendix.

11. Medical attention for employees.—Hereafter the Secretary of the Interior in his administration of the National Park Service is authorized to contract for medical attention and service for employees and to make necessary pay-roll deductions agreed to by the employees therefor. (May 10, 1926, c. 277, § 1, 44 Stat. 491.)

New section.

12. Medical attention to employees at isolated places; removal of bodies for burial.—The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to aid and assist visitors within the national parks or national monuments in emergencies and when no other source is available for the procurement of food or supplies, by the sale, at cost, of food or supplies in quantities sufficient to enable them to reach safely a point where such food or supplies can be purchased: Provided, That the receipts from such sales shall be deposited as a refund to the appropriation or appropriations current at the date of covering in of such deposit and shall be available for the purchase of similar food or supplies. (July 3, 1926, c. 792, § 1, 44 Stat. 900.)

New section.

13. Aid to visitors in emergencies.—The Secretary of the Interior, in his discretion, is authorized to provide, out of moneys appropriated for the general expense of the several national parks and national monuments, medical attention for employees of the National Park Service located at isolated situations, including the moving of such employees to hospitals or others places where medical assistance is available, and in case of death to remove the bodies of deceased employees to the nearest place where they can be prepared for shipment or for burial. (July 3, 1926, c. 792, § 2, 44 Stat. 900.)

New section.

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK

37. Provision of feed and range facilities for game animals.—As a means of providing within township 8 south, ranges 7 and 8 east, and township 9 south, ranges 7, 8, and 9 east, Montana principal meridian, the winter range and winter feed facilities indispensable for the adequate and proper protection, preservation, and propagation of the elk, antelope, and other game animals of the Yellowstone National Park and adjacent lands, the Secretary of the Interior, in his discretion, and subject to the limitation hereinafter prescribed may, and is hereby, authorized to perform the following acts:

(a) Accept and deposit in a special fund in the Treasury, and expend for the acquisition of lands as herein authorized, private funds donated for such purpose.

(b) Acquire by purchase, or by acceptance of donations or bequests, such lands in private or State ownership within the townships above described as he may deem necessary to carry out the purpose of this Act.[1] (May 26, 1926, c. 399, § 1, 44 Stat. 655.)

New section.

38. Exchange for State or private lands authorized.—The Secretary of the Interior be, and is hereby, authorized in his discretion to accept, on behalf of the United States, title to any lands held in private or State ownership within the townships herein above described, and in exchange therefor may patent not to exceed an equal value of national forest land in the State of Montana, surveyed and nonmineral in character, or the Secretary of Agriculture may authorize the grantor to cut and remove not to exceed an equal value of timber within the national forests of said State, the values in each case to be determined by the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Agriculture jointly: Provided, That before any such exchange is effected, notice of the contemplated exchange reciting the lands involved shall be published once each week for four successive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation in the county or counties in which may be situated the lands to be accepted and in some like newspaper published in any county in which may be situated any lands or timber to be given in such exchange. Timber given in exchange shall be cut and removed from national forests under the laws and regulations relating to the national forests and under the direction and supervision and in accordance with the requirements of the Secretary of Agriculture. (May 26, 1926, c. 399, § 2, 44 Stat. 655.)

New section.

39. Reservation of timber, minerals, or easements by owners on exchange.—Reservations of timber, minerals, or easements, the values of which shall be duly considered in determining the values of the lands conveyed, may be made by the owner or owners thereof in lands conveyed to the United States under the provisions of this Act.[1] Where such reservations are made, the right to enjoy them shall be subject to such reasonable conditions respecting ingress and egress and the use of the surface of the land as may be deemed necessary by the Secretary of the Interior or the Secretary of Agriculture, whichever may be responsible for the handling and use of the land as provided in this Act[1]: Provided, That all property, rights, easements, and benefits authorized by this section to be retained by or reserved to owners of land conveyed to the United States shall be subject to the tax laws of the States where such lands are located. (May 26, 1926, c. 399, § 3, 44 Stat. 656.)

New section.

40. Additions to park; entry under other Acts.—The President of the United States is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to add by Executive proclamation to Yellowstone National Park any or all of the lands within a certain territory or tract in township 9 south, ranges 7 and 8 east, Montana principal meridian, to wit: Beginning at a point on the north line of said Yellowstone National Park where said line crosses the divide between Reese Creek and Mol Heron Creek, thence northeasterly along said divide to the junction of said divide with the branch divide north and west of Reese Creek; thence along said branch divide in a northeasterly and easterly direction around the drainage of Reese Creek, to the Yellowstone River; thence southerly and southeasterly along the west bank of the Yellowstone River to the line marking the western limits of the town of Gardiner, Montana; thence south on said town limits line to the northern boundary of Yellowstone National Park; thence west along the north boundary of Yellowstone National Park to the point of beginning, which are unappropriated lands of the United States or which may be acquired by the United States under the provisions of this Act,[1] within the territory described in this section, subject, however, to all valid existing claims and to reservations such as are authorized by section 3 of this Act[1a]; but, with the exception of valid existing claims, no land so added to Yellowstone National Park shall be subject to entry under the mining laws of the United States: Provided, That the Secretary of the Interior for such lands as are added to Yellowstone National Park may provide by rules and regulations for the management and use of the added lands as may in his discretion be necessary to accomplish the purposes of this Act[1]: And provided further, That the lands of the United States acquired by donation or purchase within the area described in section 1 of this Act[2] shall not be subject to location and entry under the mining laws of the United States nor the Act of June 11, 1906,[3] authorizing homestead entries in national forests. (May 26, 1926, c. 399, § 6, 44 Stat. 656.)

(July 3, 1926, c. 744, § 1, 44 Stat. 818.)

New section.

45b. Rules and regulations; leases; fish and game.—That said park shall be under the exclusive control of the Secretary of the Interior, whose duty it shall be, as soon as practicable, to make and publish such reasonable rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the laws of the United States, as he may deem necessary or proper for the care, protection, management, and improvement of the same, such regulations being primarily aimed at the freest use of said park for recreation purposes by the public and for the preservation from injury or spoliation of all timber, natural curiosities, or wonders within said park and their retention in their natural condition as far as practicable, and for the preservation of said park in a state of nature so far as is consistent with the purposes of this Act.[4] Such rules and regulations shall permit the taking of fish by hook and line from the streams or lakes in said park, but at such seasons, during such times, and in such manner as may be directed by the Secretary of the Interior. Such rules and regulations however, shall provide against the destruction of the wild life within said park, and the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to take all such measures as shall be necessary to fully carry out the objects and purposes of this Act.[4] Said Secretary may, in his discretion, execute leases to parcels of ground not exceeding ten acres in extent at any one place to any one person or persons or company for not to exceed twenty years, when such ground is necessary for the erection of buildings for the accommodation of visitors. Such leases or privileges may be renewed or extended at the expiration of the terms thereof: Provided, That existing leases from the Department of Agriculture may be continued, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, for so long as such extension is not detrimental to the public purposes for which the park is created. (July 3, 1926, c. 744, § 2, 44 Stat. 820.)

New section.

45c. Prior claims, locations, and entries; permits for use of natural resources.—Nothing herein contained shall affect any valid existing claim, location, or entry heretofore established under the land laws of the United States, whether for homestead, mineral, right of way, or any other purpose whatsoever, or shall affect the rights of any such claimant, locator, or entryman to the full use and enjoyment of his land: Provided, That under rules and regulations to be prescribed by him the Secretary of the Interior may issue permits to any bona fide claimant, entrymen, landowner, or lessee of land within the boundaries herein established to secure timber for use on and for the improvement of his land; and he shall also have authority to issue, under rules and regulations to be prescribed by him, grazing permits and authorize the grazing of livestock on the lands within said park at fees not to exceed those charged by the Forest Service on adjacent areas, so long as such timber cutting and grazing are not detrimental to the primary purpose for which such park is created: Provided, That no permit, license, lease, or authorization for dams, conduits, reservoirs, power houses, transmission lines, or other works for storage or carriage of water, or for the development, transmission, or utilization of power within the limits of said park as herein constituted, shall be granted or made without specific authority of Congress. (July 3, 1926, c. 744. § 3, 44 Stat. 820.)

New section.

45d. Exclusive privileges prohibited.—No exclusive privilege shall be granted within said park, or on or over the roads and trails therein, except upon ground leased for the erection of buildings or camps thereon. (July 3, 1926, c. 744, § 4, 44 Stat. 820.)

New section.

45e. Violations; penalty.—Any person found guilty of violating any of the provisions of this Act[4] or any rule or regulation that may be promulgated by the Secretary of the Interior with reference to the management and care of the park, or for the protection of the property therein, for the preservation from injury or spoilation of timber, natural curiosities, or other objects within said park or for the protection of the animals, birds, and fish in said park, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be subjected to a fine of not more than $500 or imprisonment not exceeding six months or both. (July 3, 1926, c. 744, § 5, 44 Stat. 820.)

New section.

45f. Game refuge established; penalties.

For § 6 of the Act of July 3, 1926, establishing a game preserve, see § 688 of this title in the appendix.

MOUNT RAINIER NATIONAL PARK

91. Mount Rainier National Park; establishment; trespassers.

Boundaries changed.—See § 107 of this title in the appendix.

Application to added territory.—See § 108 of this title in the appendix.

95. Same; jurisdiction by the United States; fugitives from Justice.

Application to added territory of this and the nine following sections in the Code, see § 108 of this title in the appendix.

107. Boundary changed.—The boundary of the Mount Rainier National Park is hereby changed so as to read as follows: Beginning at park boundary monument numbered 1, established on the east line of section 4, township 17 north, range 7 east, Willamette meridian, by a survey of the boundaries of Mount Rainier National Park, Washington, by the General Land Office, plat dated April 17, 1909; thence southerly along the present west park boundary line as established by said survey, being the midtownship line of range 7 east, to its intersection with the south bank of Nisqually River; thence easterly along said bank to its intersection with the present south park boundary line at a point east of park boundary monument numbered 28, as established by said survey, being the township line between townships 14 and 15 north; thence easterly along said south park boundary line to the southeast corner of the present park boundary; thence northerly along the present east park boundary line to park boundary monument numbered 59, as established by said survey, being the midtownship line of range 10 east; thence due north to the south bank of White River; thence northeasterly along said bank to a point due east of park boundary monument numbered 67, thence due west to said monument numbered 67; thence westerly along the present north park boundary line, as established by said survey, being the township line between townships 17 and 18 north, to its intersection with the north bank of Carbon River; thence westerly along said bank to a point due north of park boundary monument numbered 1; thence due south to place of beginning; and all of those lands lying within the boundary above described are hereby included in and made a part of the Mount Rainier National Park; and all of those lands of the present Mount Rainier National Park excluded from the park are hereby included in and made a part of the Rainier National Forest, subject to all national forest laws and regulations. (May 28, 1926, c. 410, § 1, 44 Stat. 668.)

New section.

108. Other laws extended to added lands.—The provisions of the Act of March 2, 1899, entitled, "An Act to set aside a portion of certain lands in the State of Washington, now known as the 'Pacific Forest Reserve,' as a public park, to be known as the 'Mount Rainier National Park,'"[5] the Act of June 10, 1916, entitled "An Act to accept the cession by the State of Washington of exclusive jurisdiction over the lands embraced within the Mount Rainier National Park, and for other purposes,"[6] the Act of August 25, 1916, entitled "An Act to establish a national park service, and for other purposes," and all Acts supplementary to and amendatory of said Acts[7] are made applicable to and extended over the lands hereby added to the park: Provided, That the provisions of the Act of June 10, 1920, entitled "An Act to create a Federal power commission; to provide for the improvement of navigation; the development of water power; the use of the public lands in relation thereto; and to repeal section 18 of the River and Harbor Appropriation Act, approved August 8, 1917, and for other purposes,"[8] shall not apply to or extend over such lands. (May 28, 1926, c. 410, § 2, 44 Stat. 669.)

New section.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN NATIONAL PARK

191. Rocky Mountain National Park; establishment; reclamation project.

Boundaries revised.—See § 195 of this title in the appendix.

193. Same; claims and rights under land laws, etc.

Application to added territory of this and the two following sections, see § 197 of this title in the appendix.

195. Boundaries revised; excluded lands transferred.—Portions of the north and east boundary of the Rocky Mountain National Park are hereby revised as follows:

North boundary, beginning at the northwest corner of the northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 33, township 7 north, range 74 west, being a point on the present north boundary line of the Rocky Mountain National Park; thence southerly to the southwest corner of the northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of said section; thence westerly to the southeast corner of the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of said section; thence northerly to the northeast corner of the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of said section, being a point on the present north boundary line of the Rocky Mountain National Park and the end of the above-described change of said boundary; and

THE NATIONAL MILITARY PARKS

422. Moores Creek National Military Park; establishment.—In order to preserve for historical and professional military study one of the most memorable battles of the Revolutionary War, the battle field of Moores Creek, in the State of North Carolina, is hereby declared to be a national military park whenever the title to the same shall have been acquired by the United States; that is to say, the area inclosed by the following lines:

Those tracts or parcels of land in the county of Pender, and State of North Carolina, more particularly described as follows:

First tract: Beginning at a stone at the run of Moores Creek, on the east bank of same, about twenty poles (in a straight line) above the new iron bridge, and running thence parallel to William Walker's line, south sixty-two and one-half degrees west eleven chains to a stake; thence south seven and one-half degrees east three and six-tenths chains to a stone at the south edge of the old stage road; thence along the south edge of said road south forty-six degrees east about five chains and eighty links to a stone; thence south thirty-seven and one-fourth degrees west fourteen chains and twelve links to a stone; thence north sixty-two and one-half degrees west ten chains and seventy-five links to a stone, a corner (4) of an eight-acre tract which the parties of the first part conveyed to Governor D. L. Russell, for the purposes aforesaid, by a deed dated January, 1898, and recorded in Pender County; thence with the lines of said tract north thirty-nine and one-half degrees east thirteen chains and twenty-seven links to a stake, the third corner of the said eight-acre tract; thence north fifty-one degrees west four chains to a stake about twenty feet from the old entrenchment (the second corner of the eight-acre tract); thence with the first line reversed north forty-four degrees west two chains to a sweet gum at the run of Moores Creek (the first corner of the eight-acre tract); thence up and with the run of said creek to the first station, containing twenty acres.

Second tract: Beginning at a sweet gum on the eastern edge of Moores Creek, running thence south forty-four degrees east two poles to a stake; thence south fifty-one degrees east four poles five links to a stake; thence south thirty-nine degrees west thirteen poles twenty-seven links to a stake; thence north fifty-one degrees west nine poles thirty-one links to a stake in the edge of Moores Creek; thence northerly with the creek to the beginning, containing eight acres, more or less.

Third tract: Beginning at a cypress on the edge of the run of Moores Creek about twenty feet from the west end of the old entrenchments and running thence in a line parallel to and ten feet distance from the outside or east edge of the old line of entrenchments in all the various courses of the same to a stake ten feet distant on the east side of the north end of said entrenchments; thence a direct line to the run of said Moores Creek; thence down said creek to the beginning, containing two acres, be the same more or less (the intention is to include all lands now known and designated as Moores Creek battlefield and now so recognized as such and owned by the State of North Carolina), together with all the privileges and appurtenances thereunto belonging.

The aforesaid tracts of land containing in the aggregate thirty acres, more or less, and being the property of the State of North Carolina, and the area thus inclosed shall be known as the Moores Creek National Military Park. (June 2, 1926, c. 448, § 1, 44 Stat. 684.)

New section.

422a. Control by Secretary of War; acceptance of lands.—The establishment of the Moores Creek National Military Park shall be carried forward under the control and direction of the Secretary of War, who is hereby authorized to receive from the State of North Carolina a deed of conveyance to the United States of all the lands belonging to the said State, embracing thirty acres, more or less, and described more particularly in the preceding section. (June 2, 1926, c. 448, § 2, 44 Stat. 685.)

New section.

422b. Duties of Secretary of War.—The affairs of the Moores Creek National Military Park shall be subject to the supervision and direction of the Secretary of War, and it shall be the duty of the War Department, under the direction of the Secretary of War, to open or repair such roads as may be necessary to the purposes of the park, and to ascertain and mark with historical tablets or otherwise, as the Secretary of War may determine, all lines of battle of the troops engaged in the Battle of Moores Creek, and other historical points of interest pertaining to the battle within the park or its vicinity;

[11] The Act of June 10, 1920, referred to in the text, constitutes §§ 791 to 823 of this title in the Code.

[12] A temporary Act (43 Stat. 856) not carried into the Code, providing for a commission to inspect the battle ground of the siege of Petersburg, Va.

and the Secretary of War in establishing this military park is authorized to employ such labor and services and to obtain such supplies and material as may be considered best for the interest of the Government, and the Secretary of War shall make and enforce all needed regulations for the care of the park. (June 2, 1926, c. 448, § 3, 44 Stat. 685.)

New section.

422c. Ascertaining and marking of lines of battle.—It shall be lawful for any State that had troops engaged in the battle of the Moores Creek National Military Park, to enter upon the same for the purpose of ascertaining and marking the lines of battle of its troops engaged therein: Provided, That before any such lines are permanently designated the position of the lines and the proposed methods of marking them by monuments, tablets, or otherwise, shall be submitted to and approved by the Secretary of War; and all such lines, designs, and inscriptions for the same shall first receive the written approval of the Secretary of War. (June 2, 1926, c. 448, § 4, 44 Stat. 686.)

New section.

422d. Monuments, etc., protected.—If any person shall, except by permission of the Secretary of War, destroy, deface, injure, or remove any monument, column, statues, memorial structures, or work of art, which shall be placed upon the grounds of the park by lawful authority, or shall destroy or remove any fence, railing, inclosure, or other mark for the protection or ornamentation of said park, or any portion thereof, or shall destroy, cut, hack, bark, break down, or otherwise injure any tree, brush, or shrubbery that may be growing upon said park, or shall cut down or remove or fell any timber, battle relic, tree, or tree growing upon said park, or hunt within the limits of the park, any person so offending and found guilty thereof before any justice of the peace of the county of Pender, State of North Carolina, shall, for each and every offense, forfeit and pay a fine, in the discretion of the justice, according to the aggravation of the offense, of not less than $5 nor more than $50, one half for the use of the park and the other half to the informer, to be enforced and recovered before such justice in like manner as fines of like nature are now by law recoverable in the said county of Pender, State of North Carolina. (June 2, 1926, c. 448, § 5, 44 Stat. 686.)

New section.

423. Petersburg National Military Park; establishment.—In order to commemorate the campaign and siege and defense of Petersburg, Virginia, in 1864 and 1865 and to preserve for historical purposes the breastworks, earthworks, walls, or other defenses or shelters used by the armies therein the battle fields at Petersburg, in the State of Virginia, are hereby declared a national military park whenever the title to the same shall have been acquired by the United States by donation and the usual jurisdiction over the lands and roads of the same shall have been granted to the United States by the State of Virginia—that is to say, one hundred and eighty-five acres or so much thereof as the Secretary of War may deem necessary in and about the city of Petersburg, State of Virginia. (July 3, 1926, c. 746, § 1, 44 Stat 822.)

New section.

423a. Acceptance of donations of lands.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to accept, on behalf of the United States, donations of lands, interests therein, or rights pertaining thereto required for the Petersburg National Military Park. (July 3, 1926, c. 746, § 2, 44 Stat. 822.)

New section.

423b. Commission; organization.—The affairs of the Petersburg National Military Park shall, subject to the supervision and direction of the Secretary of War, be in charge of three commissioners, consisting of Army officers, civilians, or both, to be appointed by the Secretary of War, one of whom shall be designated as chairman and another as secretary of the commission. (July 3, 1926, c. 746, § 3, 44 Stat. 822.)

New section.

423c. Duties of commission.—It shall be the duties of the commissioners, under the direction of the Secretary of War, to superintend the opening or repair of such roads as may be necessary to the purposes of the park, and to ascertain and mark with historical tablets or otherwise, as the Secretary of War may determine, all breastworks, earthworks, walls, or other defenses or shelters, lines of battle, location of troops, buildings, and other historical points of interest within the park, or in its vicinity, and the said commission in establishing the park shall have authority, under the direction of the Secretary of War, to employ such labor and service at rates to be fixed by the Secretary of War, and to obtain such supplies and materials as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act. (July 3, 1926, c. 746, § 4, 44 Stat. 822.)

New section.

423d. Acceptance and disposition of gifts.—The commission, acting through the Secretary of War, is authorized to receive gifts and contributions from States, Territories, societies, organizations, and individuals for the Petersburg National Military Park: Provided, That all contributions of money received shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States and credited to a fund to be designated "Petersburg National Military Park Fund," which fund shall be applied to and expended under the direction of the Secretary of War, for carrying out the provisions of this Act.[12a] (July 3, 1926, c. 746, § 5, 44 Stat. 822.)

New section.

423e. Ascertaining and marking lines of battle.—It shall be lawful for the authorities of any State having had troops engaged at Petersburg, to enter upon the lands and approaches of the Petersburg National Military Park for the purpose of ascertaining and marking the lines of battle of troops engaged therein: Provided, That before any such lines are permanently designated, the position of the lines and the proposed methods of marking them by monuments, tablets, or otherwise, including the design and inscription for the same, shall be submitted to the Secretary of War and shall first receive written approval of the Secretary, which approval shall be based upon formal written reports to be made to him in each case by the commissioners of the park: Provided, That no discrimination shall be made against any State as to the manner of designating lines, but any grant made to any State by the Secretary of War may be used by any other State. (July 3, 1926, c. 746, § 6, 44 Stat. 823.)

New section.

423f. Protection of monuments, etc.—If any person shall, except by permission of the Secretary of War, destroy, mutilate, deface, injure, or remove any monument, column, statues, memorial structures, or work of art that shall be erected or placed upon the grounds of the park by lawful authority, or shall destroy or remove any fence, railing, inclosure, or other work for the protection or ornament of said park, or any portion thereof, or shall destroy, cut, hack, bark, break down, or otherwise injure any tree, bush, or shrubbery that may be growing upon said park, or shall cut down or fell or remove any timber, battle relic, tree or trees growing or being upon said park, or hunt within the limits of the park, or shall remove or destroy any breastworks, earthworks, walls, or other defenses or shelter or any part thereof constructed by the armies formerly engaged in the battles on the lands or approaches to the park, any person so offending and found guilty thereof, before any United States commissioner or court, justice of the peace of the county in which the offense may be committed, or any other court of competent jurisdiction, shall for each and every such offense forfeit and pay a fine, in the discretion of the said United States commissioner or court, justice of the peace or other court, according to the aggravation of the offense, of not less than $5 nor more than $500, one half for the use of the park and the other half to the informant, to be enforced and recovered before such United States commissioner or court, justice of the peace or other court, in like manner as debt of like nature are now by law recoverable in the several counties where the offense may be committed. (July 3, 1926, c. 746, § 7, 44 Stat. 823.)

New section.

423g. Rules and regulations.—The Secretary of War, subject to the approval of the President, shall have the power to make and shall make all needful rules and regulations for the care of the park, and for the establishment and marking of lines of battle and other historical features of the park. (July 3, 1926, c. 746, § 8, 44 Stat. 823.)

New section.

423h. Report of completion; superintendent of park.—Upon completion of the acquisition of the land and the work of the commission, the Secretary of War shall render a report thereon to Congress, and thereafter the park shall be placed in charge of a superintendent at a salary to be fixed by the Secretary of War and paid out of the appropriation available for the maintenance of the park. (July 3, 1926, c. 746, § 9, 44 Stat. 823.)

New section.

423i. Appropriation.—To enable the Secretary of War to begin to carry out the provisions of this Act,[13] there is hereby authorized to be appropriated not more than the sum of $15,000, out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be available until expended, after the United States has acquired title, and disbursements under this Act[13] shall be annually reported by the Secretary of War to Congress. (July 3, 1926, c. 746, § 10, 44 Stat. 823.)

New section.

424. Purchase of real estate for future military parks.

See § 455c of this title in the appendix.

NATIONAL MONUMENTS

431. National monuments; reservation of land; relinquishment of private claims.

Site of Battle of Little Big Horn.—Act Apr. 14, 1926, c. 138, 44 Stat. 251, reads as follows:

"The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized and directed to acquire, by condemnation or otherwise, such land as may be deemed appropriate, not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres, on the site of the battle with the Sioux Indians in which the commands of Major Marcus A. Reno and Major Frederick W. Benteen were engaged, and to erect thereon a suitable monument and historical tablet.

"Sec. 2. That there is hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $2,500, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the provisions of this Act."

MISCELLANEOUS

455. Study of battle fields for commemorative purposes.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to have made studies and investigations and, where necessary, surveys of all battle fields within the continental limits of the United States whereon troops of the United States or of the original thirteen colonies have been engaged against a common enemy, with a view to preparing a general plan and such detailed projects as may be required for properly commemorating such battle fields or other adjacent points of historic and military interest. (June 11, 1926, c. 555, § 1, 44 Stat. 726.)

New section.

455a. Reports to Congress.—On or before December 1, 1926, the Secretary of War shall submit through the President to Congress a preliminary plan by which the purpose of this Act[14] can, in his opinion, be most economically carried out; and annually thereafter he shall submit through the President to Congress a detailed report of progress made under this Act[14] together with his recommendations for further operations. (June 11, 1926, c. 555, § 2, 44 Stat. 727.)

New section.

455b. Estimate of cost.—That the Secretary of War shall include annually in his War Department appropriation estimates a list of the battle fields for which surveys or other field investigations are planned for the fiscal year in question, together with the estimated cost of making each survey or other field investigation. (June 11, 1926, c. 555, § 3, 44 Stat. 727.)

New section.

455c. Purchase of real estate for military park.—That hereafter no real estate shall be purchased for military park purposes by the Government unless report thereon shall have been made by the Secretary of War through the President to Congress under the provisions of this Act.[14] (June 11, 1926, c. 555, § 4, 44 Stat. 727.)

New section.

456. Expense of depositing money payable from appropriations.—Hereafter appropriations made for the administration, protection, and maintenance of the national parks and national monuments under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Interior shall be available for the expense of depositing public money. (May 10, 1926, c. 277, § 1, 44 Stat. 491.)

471a. Colorado National Forest; transfer of park land to forest.

See § 195 of this title in the appendix.

471b. Forest reserves in New Mexico and Arizona restricted.—Hereafter no forest reservation shall be created, nor shall any additions be made to one heretofore created, within the limits of the States of New Mexico and Arizona except by Act of Congress. (June 15, 1926, c. 587, 44 Stat. 745.)

New section.

485. Exchange of lands in national forests.

Act Apr. 13, 1926, c. 131, 44 Stat. 248, authorizes the exchange of lands within the Medicine Bow National Forest, Wyoming.

Act Apr. 21, 1926, c. 167, 44 Stat. 303, provides for the acquirement by the United States of privately owned lands in New Mexico, within the Mora grant, and adjoining one or more national forests, and to exchange therefor land or timber in national forests in either New Mexico or Arizona, and requires that land thus acquired become part of the Carson National Forest or Santa Fe National Forest.

491. Export of timber and other products.

Section 491 of Title 16 repeated.—The statutory provision constituting § 491 of this title in the Code has been repeated in the Agriculture Department Appropriation Act for 1927. (Act May 11, 1926, c. 286, 44 Stat. 512.)

[13] "This Act" should be translated "sections 423 to 423i of this title in the appendix."

Chapter 3.—FOREST PROTECTION; FOREST SERVICE; REFORESTATION.

Sec.

562a. Forest experiment station in Ohio and Mississippi Valleys. [New.]
562b. Forest experiment station in Pennsylvania. [New.]
565. Cooperation by Secretary of Agriculture with State officials in protection of timbered and forest-producing lands from fire; limitation on amount of expenditures by United States.
566. Expenditure by Secretary of Agriculture for study of effects of tax laws, etc., upon forest perpetuation, etc.; appropriation.
567. Cooperation by Secretary of Agriculture with States in procuring, etc., forest-tree seeds and plants; limitation on expenditure; appropriation.
568. Cooperation by Secretary of Agriculture with States in establishing, etc., wood lots, shelter belts, windbreaks, etc.; limitation on expenditure; appropriation.
568a. Cooperation by Secretary of Agriculture with Territories and other possessions. [New.]

562a. Forest experiment station in Ohio and Mississippi Valleys.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to establish and maintain a forest experiment station in the States of the Ohio Valley and central Mississippi Valley, at such a place or places as may be selected by him, and he is hereby authorized and directed to conduct silvicultural, forest-fire, dendrological, and other experiments and investigations, independently or in cooperation with other branches of the Federal Government, and with States, universities, colleges, county and municipal agencies, associations, and individuals, to determine the best methods for the growing, management, and protection of timber crops on forest lands and farm wood lots. (July 3, 1926, c. 767, § 1, 44 Stat. 838.)

New section.

Section 2 of the Act cited to the text was as follows:

"An appropriation of $30,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1927, for the establishment of the station provided by this Act and such annual appropriations as may thereafter be necessary for its maintenance and operation are hereby authorized."

562b. Forest experiment station in Pennsylvania.—In order to determine and demonstrate the best methods for the growing, management, and protection of timber crops on forest lands and farm wood lots, the Secretary of Agriculture is hereby authorized and directed to establish and maintain a forest experiment station at such place or places as may be determined as most suitable by him, in cooperation with the State of Pennsylvania and with the neighboring States, and to conduct such silvicultural and other forest experiments and investigations as may be necessary, either independently or in cooperation with other organizations, institutions, or individuals, and that to carry out the purposes of this Act[14a] an appropriation in the amount of $30,000 is hereby authorized. (July 3, 1926, c. 770, 44 Stat. 840.)

New section.

565. Cooperation by Secretary of Agriculture with State officials in protection of timbered and forest-producing lands from fire; limitation on amount of expenditures by United States.—If the Secretary of Agriculture shall find that the system and practice of forest-fire prevention and suppression provided by any State substantially promotes the objects described in the foregoing section he is hereby authorized and directed, under such conditions as he may determine to be fair and equitable in each State, to cooperate with appropriate officials of each State, and through them with private and other agencies therein, in the protection of timbered and forest-producing lands from fire. In no case other than for preliminary investigation shall the amount expended by the Federal Government in any State during any fiscal year, under this section, exceed the amount expended by the State for the same purpose during the same fiscal year, including the expenditures of forest owners or operators which are required by State law or which are made in pursuance of the forest-protection system of the State under State supervision, and the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to make expenditures on the certificate of the State forester, the State director of extension, or similar State official having charge of the cooperative work for the State that State and private expenditures as provided for in this Act[14b] have been made. In the cooperation extended to the several States due consideration shall be given to the protection of watersheds of navigable streams, but such cooperation may, in the discretion of the Secretary of Agriculture, be extended to any timbered or forest-producing lands or watersheds from which water is secured for domestic use or irrigation within the cooperative States. (June 7, 1924, c. 348, § 2, 43 Stat. 653; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 447, 43 Stat. 1127; Apr. 13, 1926, c. 119, 44 Stat 242.)

Section 565 of Title 16 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 565 of Title 16 of the Code has been amended by Act of Apr. 13, 1926, c. 119, 44 Stat. 242, to read as above. The amendment related to the second sentence.

566. Expenditure by Secretary of Agriculture for study of effects of tax laws, etc., upon forest perpetuation, etc.; appropriation.

Section 567 of Title 16 affected.—This section is affected by § 568a of this chapter of the appendix.

567. Cooperation by Secretary of Agriculture with States in procuring, etc., forest-tree seeds and plants; limitation on expenditure; appropriation.

Section 567 of Title 16 affected.—This section is affected by § 568a of this chapter of the appendix.

568. Cooperation by Secretary of Agriculture with States in establishing, etc., wood lots, shelter belts, windbreaks, etc.; limitation on expenditure; appropriation.

Section 568 of Title 16 affected.—This section is affected by § 568a of this chapter of the appendix.

568a. Cooperation by Secretary of Agriculture with Territories and other possessions.—The Secretary of Agriculture is hereby authorized to cooperate with Territories and other possessions of the United States on the same terms and conditions as with States under sections 3, 4, and 5 of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for the protection of forest lands, for the reforestation of denuded areas, for the extension of national forests, and for other purposes, in order to promote the continuous production of timber on lands chiefly suitable therefor," approved June 7, 1924.[15] (Apr. 13, 1926, c. 134, 44 Stat. 250.)

boundaries of national forests, including those embraced in unperfected claims under any of the public land laws, also upon the ceded Indian lands, the proceeds of all such sales to be covered into the Treasury of the United States: Provided, That such dead, down, or damaged timber upon any lands embraced in an existing claim shall be disposed of only upon the application or with the written consent of such claimant, and the money received from the sale of such timber on any such lands shall be kept in a special fund to await the final determination of the claim. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 165, § 1, 37 Stat. 1015; July 3, 1926, c. 779, § 1, 44 Stat. 890.)

Section 614 of Title 16 amended.—The provision of Act of March 4, 1913, c. 165, § 1, 37 Stat. 1015, constituting § 614 of Title 16 of the Code, has been amended by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 779, § 1, 44 Stat. 890, to read as above.

615. Disposal of proceeds of sale of burnt timber on existing claim.—Upon the certification of the Secretary of the Interior that any such claim has been finally approved and patented, the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay to such claimant, his heirs, or legal representatives, the money received from the sale of such timber upon his land, after deducting therefrom the expenses of the sale; and upon the certification of the Secretary of the Interior that any such claim has been finally rejected and canceled, the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to transfer the money derived from the sale of such timber upon the lands embraced in such claim to the general fund in the Treasury derived from the sale of public lands, unless by legislation the lands from which the timber had been removed had been theretofore appropriated to the benefit of an Indian tribe or otherwise, in which event the net proceeds derived from the sale of the timber shall be transferred to the fund of such tribe or otherwise credited or distributed as by law provided. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 165, § 2, 37 Stat. 1016; July 3, 1926, c. 779, § 2, 44 Stat. 891.)

Section 615 of Title 16 amended.—The provision of Act of March 4, 1913, c. 165, § 2, 37 Stat. 1016, constituting § 615 of Title 16 of the Code, has been amended by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 779, § 2, 44 Stat. 891, to read as above.

616. Exportation of timber cut on national forest or public land in Alaska.—Timber lawfully cut on any national forest, or on the public lands in Alaska, may be exported from the State or Territory where grown if, in the judgment of the Secretary of the department administering the national forests, or the public lands in Alaska, the supply of timber for local use will not be endangered thereby, and the respective Secretaries concerned are hereby authorized to issue rules and regulations to carry out the purposes of this Act.[15a] (Apr. 12, 1926, c. 117, 44 Stat. 242.)

689b. Hunting, etc., prohibited; penalties. [New.]
689c. Rules and regulations; predatory animals. [New.]
689d. Acceptance of title to privately owned lands. [New.]

688. Sequoia National Game Preserve.—All parts of township 17 south, ranges 31 and 32 east, and township 18 south, range 31 east, Mount Diablo base and meridian, which are north of the hydrographic divide passing through Farewell Gap, and which are not added to and made part of the Sequoia National Park by the provisions of this Act,[15b] are hereby designated as the Sequoia National Game Refuge, and the hunting, trapping, killing, or capturing of birds and game or other wild animals upon the lands of the United States within the limits of the said area shall be unlawful, except under such regulations as may be prescribed from time to time by the Secretary of Agriculture; and any persons violating such regulations or the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction in any United States court of competent jurisdiction, be fined in a sum not exceeding $1,000, or by imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year, or shall suffer both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That it is the purpose of this section to protect from trespass the public lands of the United States and the game animals which may be thereon, and not to interfere with the operation of the local game laws as affecting private or State lands: Provided further, That the lands included in said game refuge shall continue to be parts of the Sequoia National Forest and nothing contained in this section shall prevent the Secretary of Agriculture from permitting other uses of said lands under and in conformity with the laws and the rules and regulations applicable thereto so far as may be consistent with the purposes for which said game refuge is established. (July 3, 1926, c. 744, § 6, 44 Stat. 821.)

New section.

689. Tahquitz National Game Preserve.—There is hereby created within the San Bernardino National Forest in Riverside County, California, for the protection of game animals, and as the recognized breeding place therefore, the Tahquitz National Game Preserve, which shall include the following lands: Sections 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, and 35, township 3 south, range 3 east, San Bernardino meridian; sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 33, 34, 35, and 36, township 4 south, range 3 east, San Bernardino meridian; and sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, and 24, township 5 south, range 3 east, San Bernardino meridian; but the establishment of this reservation shall not interfere with any existing right or withdrawals made prior to passage of this Act:[15c] Provided, That all the land with the exterior boundary of the aforesaid tract shall first become the property of the United States.

That where the Government survey has not been completed the aforesaid description shall be deemed to refer to and be determined by lines projected from the official survey. (July 3, 1926, c. 776, § 1, 44 Stat. 889.)

New section.

689a. Other uses of land permitted.—The lands included in said game preserve shall continue to be parts of the national forest and nothing contained in this Act[15c] shall prevent the Secretary of Agriculture from permitting other uses of said lands under and in conformity with the laws and rules and regulations applicable thereto so far as any such use may be consistent with the purposes for which said game preserve is established. (July 3, 1926, c. 776, § 2, 44 Stat. 889.)

New section.

689b. Hunting, etc., prohibited; penalties.—On lands within the game preserve established in section 2[16] of this Act, hunting, pursuing, poisoning, killing, or capturing by trapping, netting, or any other means, or attempting to hunt, pursue, kill, or capture any wild animals or birds for any purpose whatever upon the lands of the United States within the limits of said game preserve shall be unlawful except as hereinafter provided, and any person violating any provision of this section or any of the rules and regulations made under the provisions of this Act[15c] shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction in any United States court, be fined in a sum not exceeding $500, or be imprisoned for a period not exceeding six months, or shall suffer both the fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. (July 3, 1926, c. 776, § 3, 44 Stat. 889.)

New section.

[15b] "This Act" should be translated "section 45a of this title in the appendix."

[15c] "This Act" should be translated "sections 689 to 689d of this title in the appendix."

[16] The reference in the text to "section 2" is an obvious error, "section 1" (§ 689 of this title in the appendix) being intended.

689c. Rules and regulations; predatory animals.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall execute the provision of this Act,[17] and he is hereby authorized to make all needful rules and regulations for the administration of such game preserves in accordance with the purposes of this Act,[17] including regulations for hunting, capturing, or killing predatory animals, such as wolves, coyotes, cougar, and other species destructive to livestock or wild life within the limits of said game preserve. (July 3, 1926, c. 776, § 4, 44 Stat. 889.)

New section.

689d. Acceptance of title to privately owned lands.—Upon the recommendation of the Secretary of Agriculture the Secretary of the Interior be, and hereby is, authorized in his discretion to accept, on behalf of the United States, title to any lands in private ownership within the boundaries of the game preserve established hereby, and make exchange therefor under the provisions of the Act approved March 20, 1922 (Forty-second Statutes, page 465).[18] (July 3, 1926, c. 776, § 5, 44 Stat. 889.)

New section.

852. Transportation forbidden where law has been violated.—It shall be unlawful for any person to deliver to any common carrier for transportation, or for any common carrier or for any person knowingly to transport or carry, by any means whatsoever, from the State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, to or through any other State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or to or through any foreign country, any large-mouth black bass (Micropterus salmoides) or any small-mouth black bass (Micropterus dolomieu) which has either been caught, sold, purchased, or possessed in violation of the law of the State, Territory, or the District of Columbia wherein the delivery of such black bass for transportation is made or the transaction or the carrying thereof begins. (May 20, 1926, c. 346, § 2, 44 Stat. 576.)

New section.

853. Penalty.—Any person violating the provisions of this Act[19] shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by fine not exceeding $200, or imprisonment for a term of not more than three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. (May 20, 1926, c. 346, § 3, 44 Stat. 576.)

New section.

854. Effect on power of States.—Nothing in this Act[19] shall be construed to prevent the several States and Territories from making or enforcing laws or regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act,[19] or from making or enforcing laws or regulations which shall give further protection to large and small mouth black bass. (May 20, 1926, c. 346, § 4, 44 Stat. 576.)

New section.

855. Effect on shipments for breeding or stocking.—Nothing in this Act[19] shall be construed to prevent the shipment in interstate commerce of live fish and eggs for breeding or stocking purposes. (May 20, 1926, c. 346, § 5, 44 Stat. 576.)

New section.

856. Time of taking effect.—This Act[19] shall become effective immediately upon its passage and approval. (May 20, 1926, c. 346, § 6, 44 Stat. 576.)

New section.

[17] "This Act" should be translated "sections 689 to 689d of this title in the appendix."

[18] The Act of Mar. 20, 1922, referred to in the text, constitutes § 485 of this title in the Code.

[19] "This Act" should be translated "sections 851 to 856 of this title in the appendix."

TITLE 17.—COPYRIGHTS.

15. Mechanical work to be done in United States.—Of the printed book or periodical specified in section 5, subsections (a) and (b) of this Act,[1] except the original text of a book of foreign origin in a language or languages other than English, the text of all copies accorded protection under this Act, except as below provided, shall be printed from type set within the limits of the United States, either by hand or by the aid of any kind of typesetting machine, or from plates made within the limits of the United States from type set therein, or, if the text be produced by lithographic process, or photo-engraving process, then by a process wholly performed within the limits of the United States, and the printing of the text and binding of the said book shall be performed within the limits of the United States; which requirements shall extend also to the illustrations within a book consisting of printed text and illustrations produced by lithographic process, or photo-engraving process, and also to separate lithographs or photo-engraving, except where in either case the subjects represented are located in a foreign country and illustrate a scientific work or reproduce a work of art: Provided, however, That said requirements shall not apply to works in raised characters for the use of the blind, or to books of foreign origin in a language or languages other than English, or to books published abroad in the English language seeking ad interim protection under this Act,[2] or to works printed or produced in the United States by any other process than those above specified in this section. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 320, § 15, 35 Stat. 1078; July 3, 1926, c. 743, 44 Stat. 818.)

Section 15 of Title 17 amended.—Sec. 15 of Act of Mar. 4, 1909, c. 320, 34 Stat. 1078, constituting sec. 15 of the Code, has been amended by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 743, 44 Stat. 818, to read as above. The amendment added the words beginning with "or to works printed," etc., at end of section.

[1] "Section 5, subsections (a) and (b) of this Act" mentioned in the text, constitutes a part of § 5 of this title of the Code.

[2] "Act" should be translated "this title of the Code."

TITLE 18.—CRIMINAL CODE AND CRIMINAL PROCEDURE.

PART 1.—CRIMES.

Chapter 4.—OFFENSES AGAINST OPERATIONS OF GOVERNMENT.

Sec.

103a. Coal land of United States; trespass; penalty. [New.]
103b. Existing rights; no interference. [New.]

103a. Coal land of United States; trespass; penalty.—That it shall be unlawful to mine and remove coal of any character, whether anthracite, bituminous, or lignite, from beds or deposits in lands of the United States, or in deposits or beds reserved to the United States, with the intent wrongfully to appropriate, sell, or dispose of the same, and every person who shall violate any of the provisions of this Act[1] shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor and fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. (July 3, 1926, c. 780, § 1, 44 Stat. 891.)

New section.

The Act of July 3, 1926, c. 780, 44 Stat. 891, cited to the text, was entitled, "An Act to define trespass on coal lands of the United States and to provide a penalty therefor." It contained two sections which constitute §§ 103a, 103b of this title of the appendix.

103b. Existing rights; no interference.—Nothing in this Act,[2] however, shall interfere with any right or privilege conferred by existing laws of the United States. (July 3, 1926, c. 780, § 2, 44 Stat. 891.)

New section.

See note to § 103a of this title of the appendix.

Chapter 5.—OFFENSES RELATING TO OFFICIAL DUTIES.

216. Disclosing operations of manufacturers, and income-tax returns.—It shall be unlawful for any collector, deputy collector, agent, clerk, or other officer or employee of the United States to divulge or to make known in any manner whatever not provided by law to any person the operations, style of work, or apparatus of any manufacturer or producer visited by him in the discharge of his official duties, or the amount or source of income, profits, losses, expenditures, or any particular thereof, set forth or disclosed in any income return, or to permit any income return or copy thereof or any book containing any abstract or particulars thereof to be seen or examined by any person except as provided by law; and it shall be unlawful for any person to print or publish in any manner whatever not provided by law any income return, or any part thereof or source of income, profits, losses, or expenditures appearing in any income return; and any offense against the foregoing provision shall be a misdemeanor and be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of the court; and if the offender be an officer or employee of the United States he shall be dismissed from office or discharged from employment. (R. S. § 3167, amended, Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 34, 28 Stat. 557, Oct. 3, 1913, c. 16, § II, I, 38 Stat. 177, Sept. 8, 1916, c. 463, § 16, 39 Stat. 773, Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1317, 40 Stat. 1146, reenacted, Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1311, 42 Stat. 311, June 2, 1924, 4:01 p. m., c. 234, § 1018, 43 Stat. 345, and Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1115, 44 Stat. 117.)

Section 216 of Title 18 repealed and reenacted.—The statute constituting section 216 of Title 18, "Criminal Code and Criminal Procedure," was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. The subject matter of the repealed statute was reenacted in section 1115 of said Act and constitutes the text. This provision is also set out again in section 1025 of Title 26, in the appendix.

Chapter 8.—OFFENSES AGAINST POSTAL SERVICES.

349. (Criminal Code, section 220.) Counterfeiting foreign stamps.—Whoever shall forge, or counterfeit, or knowingly utter or use any forged or counterfeit postage stamp or revenue stamp of any foreign government shall be fined not more than $500, or imprisoned not more than five years, or both: Provided, however, That nothing in this Act[3] shall be held to repeal or modify an Act[4] entitled "An Act to allow the printing and publishing of illustrations of foreign postage and revenue stamps from defaced plates," approved March 3, 1923. (R. S. § 5465; March 4, 1909, c. 321, § 220, 35 Stat. 1132; May 26, 1926, c. 396, 44 Stat. 653.)

Section 349 of Title 18 amended.—The provisions of Act of Mar. 4, 1909, c. 321, § 220, 35 Stat. 1132, constituting § 349 of Title 18 of the Code, have been amended by Act of May 26, 1926, c. 396, 44 Stat. 653, to read as above. The amendment inserted the words "or revenue stamp" in the first paragraph, and added the proviso at the end thereof.

Act of Mar. 3, 1923, mentioned in the text constitutes § 350 of Title 18 of the Code.

TITLE 21.—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter 4.—ANIMALS, MEATS, AND MEAT AND DAIRY PRODUCTS.

Sec. IMPORTATION OF CATTLE AND QUARANTINE
104. Importation of diseased animals prohibited.

PREVENTION OF INTRODUCTION AND SPREAD OF CONTAGION
115. Transportation of diseased livestock prohibited; splenetic fever.
129. Payment for animals purchased; computation of value, and amount paid.

IMPORTATION OF CATTLE AND QUARANTINE

104. Importation of diseased animals prohibited.—The importation of meat,[1] cattle, sheep, and other ruminants, and swine, which are diseased or infected with any disease, or which shall have been exposed to such infection within sixty days next before their importation, is hereby prohibited: Provided, That the Secretary of Agriculture within his discretion and under such regulations as he may prescribe, is authorized to permit the admission from Mexico into the State of Texas of cattle which have been infested with or exposed to ticks upon being freed therefrom. Any person who shall knowingly violate the foregoing provision shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding $5,000, or by imprisonment not exceeding three years, and any vessel or vehicle used in such unlawful importation within the knowledge of the master or owner of such vessel or vehicle that such importation is diseased or has been exposed to infection as herein described, shall be forfeited to the United States. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 839, § 6, 26 Stat. 416; June 28, 1926, c. 700, § 2, 44 Stat. 775.)

Section 104 of Title 21 amended.—The provision of Act of Aug. 30, 1890, c. 839, § 6, 26 Stat. 416, constituting § 104 of Title 21 of the Code, has been amended by Act of June 28, 1926, c. 700, § 2, 44 Stat. 775, to read as above. The introductory part of § 2 provided as follows: "That section 6, chapter 839, 'An Act providing for the inspection of meats for exportation, prohibiting the importation of adulterated articles of food and drink, and authorizing the President to make proclamation in certain cases, and for other purposes,' approved August 30, 1890, be amended to hereafter read as follows:"

Section 1 of the Act of June 28, 1926, c. 700, 44 Stat. 774, constitutes § 115 of this title of the appendix.

Section 3 of the Act of June 28, 1926, c. 700, 44 Stat. 775, provided as follows: "That all laws or parts of laws in conflict with this Act be, and they are hereby, expressly repealed."

[1] Sec. 6 of Act of Aug. 3, 1890, constituting § 104 of Title 21 of the Code, here amended, contained the words "neat cattle," instead of "meat, cattle," contained in the amending statute. It is probable that "meat, cattle," is an error.

PREVENTION OF INTRODUCTION AND SPREAD OF CONTAGION

115. Transportation of diseased livestock prohibited; splenetic fever.—No railroad company within the United States, or the owners or masters of any steam or sailing or other vessel or boat, shall receive for transportation or transport from one State or Territory to another, or from any State into the District of Columbia, or from the District into any State, any livestock affected with any contagious, infectious, or communicable disease, and especially the disease known as pleuropneumonia; nor shall any person, company, or corporation deliver for such transportation to any railroad company, or master or owner of any boat or vessel, any livestock, knowing them to be affected with any contagious, infectious, or communicable disease; nor shall any person, company, or corporation drive on foot, or transport in private conveyance from one State or Territory to another, or from any State into the District of Columbia, or from the District into any State, any livestock, knowing them to be affected with any contagious, infectious, or communicable disease, and especially the disease known as pleuropneumonia: Provided, That until May 1, 1928, cattle infested with or exposed to cattle fever ticks may be shipped in interstate commerce for immediate slaughter after one dipping in accordance with such regulations as the Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe. (May 29, 1884, c. 60, § 6, 23 Stat. 32; June 28, 1926, c. 700, § 1, 44 Stat. 774.)

Section 115 of Title 21 amended.—The provisions of Act of May 29, 1884, c. 60, § 6, 23 Stat. 32, constituting § 115 of Title 21 of the Code, have been amended by Act of June 28, 1926, c. 700, § 1, 44 Stat. 774, entitled "An Act to amend section 6 of the Act of May 29, 1884, creating the Bureau of Animal Industry, by striking out the proviso in section 6 of said Act."

The introductory part of § 1 of the Act of June 28, 1926, provided as follows: "That the proviso in section 6 of the Act of May 29, 1884, entitled 'An Act for the establishment of a Bureau of Animal Industry, and so forth,' be, and the same is hereby, repealed so that section 6, as amended, will read as follows:"

Section 2 of Act of June 28, 1926, c. 700, 44 Stat. 774, constitutes § 104 of this title of the appendix.

Section 3 of the Act of June 28, 1926, c. 700, 44 Stat. 775, provided as follows: "That all laws or parts of laws in conflict with this Act be, and they are hereby, expressly repealed."

129. Payment for animals purchased; computation of value, and amount paid.

Section 129 of Title 21 repealed.—The statutory provision constituting § 129 of Title 21 of the Code, has been repealed in Act of May 11, 1926, c. 286, 44 Stat. 529.

and on behalf of the United States, and no other person shall grant, issue, or verify such passports. (July 3, 1926, c. 772, 44 Stat. 887.)

New section. See note to § 211.

214a. Fees erroneously charged and paid; refund.—That whenever a fee is erroneously charged and paid for the issue of a passport to a person who is exempted from the payment of such a fee by section 1 of "An Act making appropriations for the Diplomatic and Consular Service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1921," approved June 4, 1920 (Forty-first Statutes, p. 750),[3] the Department of State is hereby authorized to refund to the person who paid such fee the amount thereof, and the money for that purpose is hereby authorized to be appropriated. (July 3, 1926, c. 772, § 3, 44 Stat. 887.)

New section. See note to § 211.

217. Time limitation as to validity of passport or visa. [Repealed.]

Act of June 4, 1920, c. 223, § 3,, 41 Stat. 751, constituting § 217 of Title 22 of the Code, was repealed by § 4 of the Act July 3, 1926, c. 772, 44 Stat. 887. The subject matter of this section was reenacted as a part of § 217a immediately following.

217a. Validity of passport or visa; limitation of time; renewal.—The validity of a passport or visa shall be limited to a period of two years: Provided, That the Secretary of State may limit the validity of a passport or visa to a shorter period and that no immigration visa shall be issued for a longer period than that specified in the Immigration Act of 1924[4] or amendments thereto: And provided further, That a passport may be renewed without any additional charge under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of State, and at his discretion to bona fide teachers, but the final date of expiration shall not be more than four years from the original date of issue. (July 3, 1926, c. 772, § 2, 44 Stat. 887.)

New section. See note to § 211.

297. Acquisition of property by lease. [New.]
298. Repeal of prior Act; effect. [New.]
299. Title of Act. [New.]

291. Lease of buildings, etc., for offices, living quarters, heat, light, and equipment.—The Secretary of State may lease or rent, for periods not exceeding ten years, such buildings and grounds for offices for the Foreign Service as may be necessary; and he may, in accordance with existing practice without cost to them, and within the limit of any appropriation made by Congress, continue to furnish the chief diplomatic representatives and their minor employees in foreign countries and officers and employees in the Foreign Service in China, Japan, and Turkey with living quarters, heat, light, and household equipment in Government-owned buildings and in buildings rented for use as offices at places where, in his judgment, it would be in the public interest to do so, notwithstanding the provisions of section 1765[5] of the Revised Statutes, and appropriations for "Contingent Expenses, Foreign Missions," and "Contingent Expenses, Consulates," are hereby made available for such purposes; and he is also authorized, in his discretion, to furnish living quarters in such buildings to other officers and employees not herein provided for, at rates to be determined by him. (Apr. 29, 1926, c. 195, Title I, 44 Stat. 333.)

New section.

292. Acquisition of sites and buildings for diplomatic and consular establishments; allotment of space.—That the Secretary of State is empowered, subject to the direction of the commission hereinafter established, to acquire by purchase or construction in the manner hereinafter provided, within the limits of appropriations made pursuant to this Act,[4a] in foreign capitals and in other foreign cities, sites and buildings, and to alter, repair, and furnish such buildings, for the use of the diplomatic and consular establishments of the United States, or for the purpose of consolidating, to the extent deemed advisable by the commission, within one or more buildings, the embassies, legations, consulates, and other agencies of the United States Government there maintained, which buildings shall be appropriately designated by the commission, and the space in which shall be allotted by the Secretary of State under the direction of the commission among the several agencies of the United States Government. (May 7, 1926, c. 250 § 1, 44 Stat. 403.)

New section. This section and §§ 293–299 immediately following are §§ 1–8 of an Act entitled "An Act for the acquisition of buildings and grounds in foreign countries for the use of the Government of the United States of America," cited to the text.

293. Foreign Service Buildings Commission established; composition; duties; prior commission abolished; rules and reports.—(a) There is hereby established a joint commission, to be known as the Foreign Service Buildings Commission, and to be composed of the Secretary of State, the Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of Commerce, the chairman and the ranking minority member of the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate, and the chairman and the ranking minority member of the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives. A member of the commission may continue to serve as a member thereof until his successor has qualified.

(b) It shall be the duty of the commission to consider, formulate, and to approve plans and proposals for the acquisition and utilization of the sites and buildings authorized by section 1, and of sites and buildings heretofore acquired or authorized for the use of the diplomatic and consular establishments in foreign countries, including the initial furnishings of such buildings and the initial alteration and repair of purchased buildings and grounds. The commission established by the Act entitled "An Act making appropriations for the Diplomatic and Consular Service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1922," approved March 2, 1921, is hereby abolished.

(c) The commission shall prescribe rules and regulations for carrying into effect the provisions of this Act,[4a] and shall make an annual report to the Congress. (May 7, 1926, c. 250, § 2, 44 Stat. 404.)

New section. See note to § 292.

[3] Sec. 1 of the Act of June 4, 1920, 41 Stat. 750, mentioned in the text constitutes § 214 of this title of the Code.

[4] The provision of the Immigration Act of 1924 relating to limitation on immigrant visas, mentioned in the text, constitutes subdivision (c) of § 202 of Title 8 of the Code.

[4a] "This Act" should be translated "sections 292 to 299 of this title of the appendix."

[5] R. S. § 1765 mentioned in the text constitutes § 70 of Title 5 of the Code.

294. Manner of use of buildings; contracts for construction, etc.—Buildings and grounds acquired under this Act [5a] or heretofore acquired or authorized for the use of the diplomatic and consular establishments in foreign countries may, subject to the direction of the commission, be used, in the case of buildings and grounds for the diplomatic establishment, as Government offices or residences or as such offices and residences; or, in the case of other buildings and grounds, as such offices or such offices and residences. The contracts for all work of construction, alteration, and repair under this Act [5a] are authorized to be negotiated, the terms of the contracts to be prescribed, and the work to be performed, where necessary, in the judgment of the commission, without regard to such statutory provisions as relate to the negotiation, making, and performance of contracts and performance of work in the United States. (May 7, 1926, c. 250, § 3, 44 Stat. 404.)

New section. See note to § 292.

295. Appropriation; Foreign Service Building Fund; expenditures.—For the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act [5a] there is hereby authorized to be appropriated an amount not exceeding $10,000,000, and the appropriations made pursuant to this authorization shall constitute a fund to be known as the Foreign Service Building Fund, to remain available until expended. Under this authorization not more than $2,000,000 shall be appropriated for any one year, but within the total authorization provided in this Act [5a] the Secretary of State, subject to the direction of the commission, may enter into contracts for the acquisition of the buildings and grounds authorized by this Act.[5a] In the case of the buildings and grounds authorized by this Act,[5a] after the initial alterations, repairs, and furnishing have been completed, subsequent expenditures for such purposes shall not be made out of the appropriations authorized by this Act.[5a] (May 7, 1926, c. 250, § 4, 44 Stat. 404.)

New section. See note to § 292.

296. Duties of Secretary of State with respect to commission and properties.—The Secretary of State is empowered, subject to the direction of the commission, to collect information and to formulate plans for the use of the commission and to supervise and preserve the diplomatic and consular properties of the United States in foreign countries and the properties acquired under this Act.[5a] In the collection of such information and in the formulation of such plans he may, subject to the direction of the commission, obtain such special architectural or other expert technical services as may be necessary and pay therefor, not exceeding in any case 5 per centum of the cost of construction or remodeling of the properties in respect to which said special services are rendered, from such appropriations as Congress may make under this Act,[5a] without regard to civil service laws or regulations and the provisions of the Classification Act of 1923. (May 7, 1926, c. 250, § 5, 44 Stat. 404.)

New section. See note to § 292.

297. Acquisition of property by lease.—The authority granted to acquire sites and buildings by purchase shall, in cases where it is impossible to acquire title, be construed as authority to acquire the property by lease for a term sufficiently long, in the judgment of the commission, to be practically equivalent to the acquisition of title. (May 7, 1926, c. 250, § 6, 44 Stat. 405.)

New section. See note to § 292.

298. Repeal of prior Act; effect.—The Act entitled "An Act providing for the purchase or erection, within certain limits of cost, of embassy, legation, and consular buildings abroad," approved February 17, 1911,[6] is repealed, but such repeal shall not invalidate appropriations already made under the authority of such Act. (May 7, 1926, c. 250, § 7, 44 Stat. 405.)

New section. See note to § 292.

299. Title of Act.—This Act [5a] may be cited as the "Foreign Service Buildings Act, 1926." (May 7, 1926, c. 250, § 8, 44 Stat. 405.)

New section. See note to § 292.

[5a] "This Act" should be translated "sections 292 to 299 of this title of the appendix."

[6] The Act of Feb. 17, 1911, c. 105, 36 Stat. 917, repealed by this section constituted § 133 of Title 22 of the Code.

(July 3, 1926, c. 787, 44 Stat. 894.)

New section. This section is an Act entitled "An Act to authorize the leasing of unallotted irrigable land on Indian reservations," cited to the text.

TITLE 26.—INTERNAL REVENUE [1]

Chapter 1.—THE COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE.

Sec.
1a. Bureau of Internal Revenue; general counsel and assistants; assistant to commissioner; special deputy commissioner. [New.]
3. Deputy commissioners and assistants to commissioner.
5. Duties of assistant to commissioner.

1a. Bureau of Internal Revenue; general counsel and assistants; assistant to commissioner; special deputy commissioner.—(a) There is hereby created in the Department of the Treasury the office of general counsel for the Bureau of Internal Revenue. The general counsel shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall receive a salary at the rate of $10,000 per annum payable out of any appropriation available for the payment of expenses of assessing and collecting the internal-revenue taxes. He shall perform such duties as are now required under the internal revenue laws to be performed by the solicitor of internal revenue, or as may be prescribed by the Secretary or required by law. Commencing at such time as the general counsel first appointed under this section qualifies and takes office, the office of solicitor of internal revenue in the Department of Justice shall cease to exist.

(b) There shall be in the Bureau of Internal Revenue the following officers who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and who shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by the commissioner or required by law;

(1) Four assistant general counsel each of whom shall receive a salary at the rate of $8,000 per annum.

(2) One assistant to the commissioner who shall receive a salary at the rate of $8,000 per annum. The office of assistant to the commissioner provided by existing law is abolished to take effect at such time as the assistant to the commissioner first appointed under this section takes office.

(3) One special deputy commissioner who shall receive a salary at the rate of $7,500 per annum. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1201, 44 Stat. 126.)

New section.

3. Deputy commissioners and assistant to commissioner.

Section 3 of Title 26 partly superseded by § 1a in this chapter of appendix.

5. Duties of assistant to commissioner.

Section 5 of Title 26 superseded by § 1a in this chapter of appendix.

Chapter 2.—OFFICERS OF INTERNAL REVENUE.

Section 91 of Title 26 repealed and reenacted.—The provision of § 1018 of the Revenue Act of 1924, constituting § 91 of Title 26 of the Code, was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. The subject matter of the repealed statute was reenacted without change in § 1115 of said Act of 1926 (44 Stat. 117), to take effect as of the above date.

93. Returns of persons liable to tax.

Section 93 of Title 26 repealed and reenacted.—The provision of § 1018 of the Revenue Act of 1924, constituting § 93 of Title 26 of the Code, was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. The subject matter of the repealed statute was reenacted without change in § 1115 of said Act of 1926 (44 Stat. 117), to take effect as of the above date.

[1] This title of the Code has been radically affected by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, 44 Stat. 9, entitled "An Act to reduce and equalize taxation, to provide revenue, and for other purposes."

94. Notice to file return by collector; summons.

Section 94 of Title 26 repealed and reenacted.—The provision of § 1018 of the Revenue Act of 1924, constituting § 94 of Title 26 of the Code, was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. The subject matter of the repealed statute was reenacted without change in § 1115 of said Act of 1926 (44 Stat. 117), to take effect as of the above date.

97. Failure to make return; returns by collectors; making or amending returns by commissioner; extension of time for filing; assessment.—If any person, corporation, company, or association fails to make and file a return or list at the time prescribed by law or by regulation made under authority of law, or makes, willfully or otherwise, a false or fraudulent return or list, the collector or deputy collector shall make the return or list from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony or otherwise. In any such case the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may, from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony or otherwise, make a return or amend any return made by a collector or deputy collector. Any return or list so made and subscribed by the commissioner, or by a collector or deputy collector and approved by the commissioner, shall be prima facie good and sufficient for all legal purposes.

If the failure to file a return (other than a return under Title II of the Revenue Act of 1924[2] or Title II of the Revenue Act of 1926[3]) or a list is due to sickness or absence, the collector may allow such further time, not exceeding 30 days, for making and filing the return or list as he deems proper.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall determine and assess all taxes, other than stamp taxes, as to which returns or lists are so made under the provisions of this section. (R. S. § 3176; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 3, 20 Stat. 331; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 34, 28 Stat. 559; Oct. 3, 1913, c. 16, § II, I, 38 Stat. 179; Sept. 8, 1916, c. 465, § 16, 39 Stat. 773; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1317, 40 Stat. 1147; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1311, 42 Stat. 313; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1003, 43 Stat. 339; Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1103, 44 Stat. 112.)

Section 97 of Title 26 amended.—That part of § 3176 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, constituting § 97 of the Code, is again amended by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1103, 44 Stat. 112 ("Revenue Act of 1926"), to read as above.

98. Same; addition to tax for failure to file; addition in case of fraud; collection.—In case of any failure to make and file a return or list within the time prescribed by law, or prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue or the collector in pursuance of law, the commissioner shall add to the tax 25 per centum of its amount, except that when a return is filed after such time and it is shown that the failure to file it was due to a reasonable cause and not to willful neglect, no such addition shall be made to the tax. In case a false or fraudulent return or list is willfully made, the commissioner shall add to the tax 50 per centum of its amount.

The amount so added to any tax shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner and as a part of the tax unless the tax has been paid before the discovery of the neglect, falsity, or fraud, in which case the amount so added shall be collected in the same manner as the tax. (R. S. § 3176; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 3, 20 Stat. 331; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 34, 28 Stat. 559; Oct. 3, 1913, c. 16, § II, I, 38 Stat. 179; Sept. 8, 1916, c. 463, § 16, 39 Stat. 773; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1317, 40 Stat. 1147; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1311, 42 Stat. 313; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1003, 43 Stat. 339; Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1103, 44 Stat. 112.)

Section 97 of Title 26 amended.—That part of § 3176 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, constituting § 98 of the Code, has been again amended by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1103, 44 Stat. 112 ("Revenue Act of 1926"), to read as above.

105. Limitation on time for assessment or collection of internal revenue taxes.—Except as provided in sections 277, 278, 310, and 311.[4]

Notwithstanding the provision of section 3182[5] of the Revised Statutes or any other provision of law, all internal-revenue taxes shall (except as provided in paragraph (2) or (3) of this subdivision[6]) be assessed within four years after such taxes became due, and no proceeding in court without assessment for the collection of such taxes shall be begun after the expiration of five years after such taxes became due. (Feb. 26, 1926, § 1109 (a) (1), 44 Stat. 114.)

Section 105 of Title 26 repealed and reenacted.—The statutory provision constituting § 105 of Title 26 of the Code was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. But the subject matter of the repealed provision was substantially reenacted to read as above by § 1109 (a) (1) of said Act.

106. Same; evading tax by fraud or otherwise.—In case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax, of a failure to file a return within the time required by law, or of a willful attempt in any manner to defeat or evade tax, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1109 (a) (2) 44 Stat. 114.)

Section 106 of Title 26 repealed and reenacted.—The statutory provision constituting § 106 of Title 26 of the Code was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. But the subject matter of the repealed provision was substantially reenacted by § 1109 (a) (2) of said Act to read as above.

107. Collection of tax by distraint or proceeding in court; proceedings for collection of tax without assessment.—Where the assessment of any tax imposed by this Act[7] or by prior Act of Congress has been made (whether before or after the enactment of this Act) within the statutory period of limitation properly applicable thereto, such tax may be collected by distraint or by a proceeding in court (begun before or after the enactment of this Act[7]), but only if begun (A) within six years after the assessment of the tax, or (B) prior to the expiration of any period for collection agreed upon in writing by the commissioner and the taxpayer. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1109 (a) (3) 44 Stat. 114.)

Section 107 of Title 26 superseded.—The statutory provision constituting § 107 of Title 26 of the Code was repealed by Act Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. But the subject matter of the repealed statute was carried into § 1109 of said Act and is set out above.

107a. Date on which distraint is begun.—In determining the running of any period of limitation in respect of distraint, the distraint shall be held to have been begun (a) in the case of personal property, on the date on which the levy upon such property is made, or (b) in the case of real property, on the date on which notice of the time and place of sale is given to the person whose estate it is proposed to sell. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1130, 44 Stat. 125.)

[5] "Section 3182 of the Revised Statutes" should be translated "section 102."

[6] "Paragraph (2) or (3) of this subdivision" should be translated "sections 106 and 107."

[7] "Act" has reference to Act Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, 44 Stat. 9.

108. Effect of existing limitations.—This section[8] shall not bar a distraint or proceeding in court begun before the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1924;[9] nor shall it authorize the assessment of a tax or the collection thereof by distraint or by proceeding in court if at the time of the enactment of this Act[10] such assessment, distraint, or proceeding was barred by the statutory period of limitation properly applicable thereto, unless prior to the enactment of this Act[10] the commissioner and the taxpayer agreed in writing thereto. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1109, (a) (3) 44 Stat. 114.)

Section 108 of Title 26 repealed and in part reenacted.—The statute constituting § 108 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. The subject matter of the repealed statute was in part carried into § 1109 of said Act and is herein set out.

110. Same; United States certificates of indebtedness and uncertified checks.—Collectors may receive, at part with an adjustment for accrued interest, notes or certificates of indebtedness issued by the United States and uncertified checks in payment of income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes and any other taxes payable other than by stamp, during such time and under such rules and regulations as the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe; but if a check so received is not paid by the bank on which it is drawn the person by whom such check has been tendered shall remain liable for the payment of the tax and for all legal penalties and additions to the same extent as if such check had not been tendered.—(Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1118 (a), 44 Stat. 120.)

Section 110 of Title 26 repealed and reenacted.—The statute constituting § 110 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. The subject matter of the repealed statute was in substance reenacted by § 1118 (a) of said Act and is herein set out.

111. Same; fractional parts of a cent disregarded.

Section 111 of Title 26 repealed and reenacted.—The statutory provision § 111 of Title 26 of the Code was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 120, but has been reenacted without change by § 1118 (c) of that Act.

113. Same; income tax.

Section 113 of Title 26 repealed and reenacted.—Section 1021 (b) of Act of June 2, 1924, c. 234, 43 Stat. 347, constituting § 113 of Title 26 of the Code, was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 120, but has been reenacted without change by § 1118 (b) of that Act.

116. Distraint for taxes.

See section 1268b of this title of the appendix.

124. Same; when property not divisible.

Section 124 of Title 26 repealed and reenacted.—The statute (§ 1031 of the Revenue Act of 1924) constituting § 124 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. The subject matter of the repealed statute was reenacted without change in § 1128 of said Act of 1926 (44 Stat. 124) to take effect as of the above date.

129. Same; place of seizure.—Any collector or deputy collector may, for the collection of taxes imposed upon any person, and committed to him for collection, seize and sell any of the property, real or personal (except property exempt from distraint and sale, under section 3187 of the Revised Statutes), or any right or interest therein, of such person situated in any other collection district within the State in which such officer resides, notwithstanding the provisions of section 3209 of the Revised Statutes; and his proceedings in relation thereto shall have the same effect as if the same were had in his proper collection district. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1129, 44 Stat. 125.)

Section 129 of Title 26 amended.—R. S. § 3200, constituting § 129 of Title 26 of the Code, was amended to read as above by the statute cited thereto.

Sections 3187 and 3209 of the Revised Statutes, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 116 and 138, respectively, of Title 26 of the Code.

136. Chancery proceedings against real estate.

Section 136 of Title 26 repealed and reenacted.—The statute (§ 1030 of the Revenue Act of 1926) constituting § 136 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. The subject matter of the repealed statute was reenacted without change in § 1127 of said Act of 1926 (44 Stat. 123) to take effect as of the above date.

140. Collections paid into Treasury daily; exception.

Section 140 of Title 26 repealed and reenacted.—The statute (§ 1031 of the Revenue Act of 1926) constituting § 140 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. The subject matter of the repealed statute was reenacted without change in § 1128 of said Act of 1926 (44 Stat. 124), to take effect as of the above date.

149. Refundments; taxes or penalties.—Except as otherwise provided in sections 284 and 319 of the Revenue Act of 1926 the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, subject to regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, is authorized to remit, refund, and pay back all taxes erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, all penalties collected without authority, and all taxes that appear to be unjustly assessed or excessive in amount, or in any manner wrongfully collected; also to repay to any collector or deputy collector the full amount of such sums of money as may be recovered against him in any court, for any internal-revenue taxes collected by him, with the cost and expenses of suit; also all damages and costs recovered against any assessor, assistant assessor, collector, deputy collector, agent, or inspector, in any suit brought against him by reason of anything done in the due performance of his official duty, and shall make report to Congress at the beginning of each regular session of Congress of all transactions under this section. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1111, 44 Stat. 115.)

Section 149 of Title 26 amended.—R. S., § 3220, as amended, constituting § 149 of Title 26 of the Code, was amended to read as above by the statute cited thereto.

Sections 284 and 319, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 1065a and 1120 of this title in the appendix.

153. Interest on claims for refunds or credits.—(a) Upon the allowance of a credit or refund of any internal-revenue tax erroneously or illegaly assessed or collected, or of any penalty collected without authority, or of any sum which was excessive or in any manner wrongfully collected, interest shall be allowed and paid on the amount of such credit or refund at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date such tax, penalty, or sum was paid to the date of the allowance of the refund, or in the case of a credit, to the due date of the amount against which the credit is taken, but if the amount against which the credit is taken is an additional assessment made under the Revenue Act of 1921, the Revenue Act of 1924, or this Act, then to the date of the assessment of that amount.

(b) As used in this section—

(1) The term "additional assessment" means a further assessment for a tax of the same character previously paid in part, and includes the assessment of a deficiency under Title II or Title III of the Revenue Act of 1924 or of this Act;

(2) The term "date of the allowance of the refund" means, in the case of any income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax, the first date on which the Commissioner signs the schedule of overassessments in respect thereof.

(c) This section shall be applicable to any refund paid, and to any credit taken, on or after the date of the enactment of this Act, even though such refund or credit was allowed prior to such date. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1116, 44 Stat. 119.)

Section 153 of Title 26 repealed and subject reenacted.—The statute constituting § 153 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. The subject matter of the repealed statute was carried into § 1116 of said Act and is herein set out.

[8] "This section" should be translated "sections 105 to 107."

[10] Feb. 26, 1926, is the time of the enactment of the Act mentioned in the text.

The Revenue Act of 1924, mentioned in the text, is set out in Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, and "this Act," similarly mentioned, constitutes this title of the appendix. Title II and Title III of the Revenue Act of 1924 or this Act constitute chapters 19 and 20 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, and this title of the appendix.

156. Suits for recovery of taxes wrongfully collected.

Section 156 of Title 26 repealed and reenacted.—The statute (§ 1014(a) of the Revenue Act of 1924) constituting § 156 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. The subject matter of the repealed statute was reenacted, without change, in § 1113 of said Act of 1926 (44 Stat. 116), to take effect as of the above date.

Subdivision (b) of said § 1113 provides that "This section shall not affect any proceeding in court instituted prior to the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1924."

157. Claims for refundment; limitations.—(a) All claims for the refunding or crediting of any internal-revenue tax alleged to have been erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, or of any penalty alleged to have been collected without authority, or of any sum alleged to have been excessive or in any manner wrongfully collected must, except as provided in sections 284 and 319 of the Revenue Act of 1926, be presented to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue within four years next after the payment of such tax, penalty, or sum.

(b) Except as provided in section 284 of the Revenue Act of 1926, claims for credit or refund (other than claims in respect of taxes imposed by the Revenue Act of 1916, the Revenue Act of 1917, or the Revenue Act of 1918) which at the time of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1921 were barred from allowance by the period of limitation then in existence, shall not be allowed. (R. S. § 3228; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1316, 42 Stat. 314; June 2, 1924, 4:01 p. m., c. 234, § 1012, 43 Stat. 342; Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1112, 44 Stat. 115.)

Section 157 of Title 26 amended.—R. S. § 3228, as amended, constituting § 157 of Title 26 of the Code, was amended by the statute cited thereto.

Section 3228 of the Revised Statutes, mentioned in the text, constitutes § 157 of said Title 26. Sections 284 and 319, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 1065a and 1120 of this supplemental title.

206. Same; brewers, distillers, and so forth; where business prohibited.—On and after July 1, 1926, there shall be levied, collected, and paid annually, in lieu of the tax imposed by section 701 of the Revenue Act of 1924,[11] a special excise tax of $1,000, in the case of every person carrying on the business of a brewer, distiller, wholesale liquor dealer, retail liquor dealer, wholesale dealer in malt liquor, retail dealer in malt liquor, or manufacturer of stills, as defined in section 3244 as amended and section 3247 of the Revised Statutes,[12] in any State, Territory, or District of the United States contrary to the laws of such State, Territory, or District, or in any place therein in which carrying on such business is prohibited by local or municipal law. The payment of the tax imposed by this section shall not be held to exempt any person from any penalty or punishment provided for by the laws of any State, Territory, or District for carrying on such business in such State, Territory, or District, or in any manner to authorize the commencement or continuance of such business contrary to the laws of such State, Territory, or District, or in places prohibited by local or municipal law.

Any person who carries on any business or occupation for which a special tax is imposed by this section, without having paid such special tax, shall, besides being liable for the payment of such special tax, be subject to a penalty of not more than $1,000 or to imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 701, 44 Stat. 95.)

Section 206 of Title 26 superceded.—The statute constituting section 206 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect June 30, 1926. The subject matter of said statute has been carried into this section.

211. Manufacturers, importers, producers, and so forth, of opium, coca leaves, and so forth.—On or before July 1 of each year every person who imports, manufactures, produces, compounds, sells, deals in, dispenses, or gives away opium or coca leaves, or any compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, or preparation thereof, shall register with the collector of internal revenue of the district his name or style, place of business and place or places where such business is to be carried on, and pay the special taxes hereinafter provided;

Every person who on January 1, 1919, is engaged in any of the activities above numerated or who between such date and the passage of this Act[13] first engaged in any of such activities, shall within thirty days after the passage of this Act[13] make like registration; and shall pay the proportionate part of the tax for the period ending June 30, 1919; and

Every person who first engages in any such activities after the passage of this Act[13] shall immediately make like registration and pay the proportionate part of the tax for the period ending on the following June 30th;

Importers, manufacturers, producers, or compounders, $24 per annum; wholesale dealers, $12 per annum; retail dealers, $6 per annum; physicians, dentists, veterinary surgeons, and other practitioners lawfully entitled to distribute, dispense, give away, or administer any of the aforesaid drugs to patients upon whom they in the course of their professional practice are in attendance, shall pay $1 per annum.

Every person who imports, manufactures, compounds, or otherwise produces for sale or distribution any of the aforesaid drugs shall be deemed to be an importer, manufacturer, or producer.

Every person who sells or offers for sale any of said drugs in the original stamped packages, as hereinafter provided,[14] shall be deemed a wholesale dealer.

Every person who sells or dispenses from original stamped packages, as hereinafter provided, shall be deemed a retail dealer: Provided, That the office, or if none, the residence of any person shall be considered for the purpose of this Act[15] his place of business; but no employee of any person who has registered and paid special tax as herein required, acting within the scope of his employment, shall be required to register and pay special tax provided by this section: Provided further, That officials of the United States, Territorial, District of Columbia, or insular possessions, State or municipal governments, who in the exercise of their official duties engage in any of the

224. Yachts, motor boats, and so forth, with fixed engines; sailing boats; where tax inapplicable.—On and after July 1, 1926, and thereafter on July 1 in each year, and also at the time of the original purchase of a new yacht or other boat by a user, if on any other date than July 1, there shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid, in lieu of the tax imposed by section 703 of the Revenue Act of 1924,[18] upon the use of yachts, pleasure boats, power boats, sailing boats, and motor boats with fixed engines, if foreign built and if of over five net tons and over thirty-two feet in length, not used exclusively for trade, fishing, or national defense, a special excise tax to be based on each such yacht or other boat, at rates as follows: Yachts, pleasure boats, power boats, motor boats with fixed engines, and sailing boats, of over five net tons, length over thirty-two feet and not over fifty feet, $2 for each foot; length over fifty feet, and not over one hundred feet, $4 for each foot; length over one hundred feet, $8 for each foot.

In determining the length of such yachts, pleasure boats, power boats, motor boats with fixed engines, and sailing boats, the measurement of over-all length shall govern.

In the case of a tax imposed at the time of the original purchase of a new yacht or boat on any other date than July 1, the amount to be paid shall be the same number of twelfths of the amount of the tax as the number of calendar months (including the month of sale) remaining prior to the following July 1.

This section shall not apply to any yacht or other boat (1) which is used without profit by any benevolent, charitable, or religious organization, exclusively for furnishing aid, comfort, or relief to seamen, or (2) which was owned on January 1, 1926, by a citizen of the United States or by a domestic partnership or corporation. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 702, 44 Stat. 95.)

Section 224 of Title 26 superseded.—The statute constituting § 224 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125. The subject matter contained in the repealed statute is carried into this section.

rates, to be paid by the distiller or importer when withdrawn, and collected under the provisions of existing law.

(1) Until January 1, 1927, $2.20 on each proof gallon or wine gallon when below proof and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of such proof or wine gallon;

(2) On and after January 1, 1927, and until January 1, 1928, $1.65 on each proof gallon or wine gallon when below proof and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of such proof or wine gallon; and

(3) On and after January 1, 1928, $1.10 on each proof gallon or wine gallon when below proof and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of such proof or wine gallon.

(4) On and after the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1926,[19] on all distilled spirits which are diverted to beverage purposes or for use in the manufacture or production of any article used or intended for use as a beverage there shall be levied and collected a tax of $6.40 on each proof gallon or wine gallon when below proof, and a proportionate tax at a like rate on all fractional parts of such proof or wine gallon, to be paid by the person responsible for such diversion. If a tax at the rate of $2.20, $1.65, or $1.10 per proof or wine gallon has been paid upon such distilled spirits a credit of the tax so paid shall be allowed in computing the tax imposed by this paragraph.

(5) The internal revenue tax imposed by this subdivision upon distilled spirits heretofore or hereafter imported into the United States shall, under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, be collected and deposited in the same manner as other internal revenue taxes, except that such collection and depositing shall be by the collector of customs instead of by the collector of internal revenue. Such tax shall be in addition to any customs duty imposed under the Tariff Act of 1922[20] or any subsequent Act.

(6) Distilled spirits smuggled or brought into the United States unlawfully shall, for the purpose of this subdivision, be held to be imported into the United States, and section 3334[21] of the Revised Statutes, as amended, shall be applicable to any sale thereof.

(7) When any distilled spirits exported free of tax and reimported in the original packages prior to January 1, 1926, are after the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1926[19] withdrawn from any internal-revenue bonded warehouse for tax payment or for bottling in bond, an allowance may be made for actual loss by leakage or evaporation not exceeding one proof gallon as to each cask or package of a capacity of not less than 40 wine gallons for each period of six months or fraction thereof from the date of official regauge after reimportation, and such distilled spirits may be bottled in accordance with the provisions of the Act of March 3, 1897,[22] entitled "An Act to allow the bottling of distilled spirits in bond," as amended. The allowance for losses provided in this paragraph shall be made subject to the conditions of section 50 of the Act of August 27, 1894,[a] entitled "An Act to reduce taxation, to provide revenue for the government, and for other purposes," as amended. (R. S. § 3251; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 600 (a), 40 Stat. 1105; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 600, 42 Stat. 285; Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 900, 44 Stat. 104.)

Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect 30 days thereafter. The subject matter thereof was in substance reenacted to take effect as of the same date, by virtue of subdivision (f) of section 400 of said Act.

834. Cigarette paper; tax; bond of manufacturers.

Section 834 of Title 26 repealed and reenacted.—The statute constituting § 834 was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect on the enactment thereof. The subject matter therein contained was, however, reenacted without change.

In line 8 of § 834 a comma should be inserted after "package."

853. Refund on cigar tax; time for making claim; minimum amount; rules and forms.—(a) In the case of all cigars and little cigars in original and unbroken statutory packages held and intended for sale by any person on the effective date of the repeal of section 400 of the Revenue Act of 1924, including those in customs custody or in transit from the insular possessions of the United States, which on such date have affixed thereto stamps purchased at the rates of tax imposed by section 400 of the Revenue Act of 1924, there shall be allowed a refund equal to the difference between the tax imposed by such section and the tax imposed by section 400 of this Act.

(b) No refund shall be allowed under this section unless claim therefor is presented within sixty days after the effective date of the repeal of section 400 of the Revenue Act of 1924. No refund shall be made to any person if the claim is for an amount less than $10.

(c) The commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall adopt such rules and regulations and shall prescribe and furnish such blank forms as may be necessary to carry this section into effect. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1205, 44 Stat. 129.)

New section.

Section 400 of the Revenue Act of 1924, mentioned in the text, is set out in §§ 828, 829, 831 to 833, inclusive, and § 845 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE. Section 400 of this Act, similarly mentioned, is set out in §§ 828a, 829a, and 831a, to 833a, inclusive, of this supplemental title.

Chapter 16.[33]—TAX ON ADMISSION AND DUES.

Sec.
871. Tax on admissions to places of amusement; amount; exemptions.
872. Tax on club dues or fees; amount; exemptions.
873. Collection of taxes imposed; returns; penalty.

871. Tax on admissions to places of amusement; amount; exemptions.—(a) On and after the date this title[34] takes effect, there shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid, in lieu of taxes imposed by section 500 of the Revenue Act of 1924[35]—

(1) A tax of 1 cent for each 10 cents or fraction thereof of the amount paid for admission to any place on or after such date, including admission by season ticket or subscription, to be paid by the person paying for such admission; but where the amount paid for admission is 75 cents or less, no tax shall be imposed;

(2) Upon tickets or cards of admission to theaters, operas, and other places of amusement, sold at news stands, hotels, and places other than the ticket offices of such theaters, operas, or other places of amusement, at not to exceed 50 cents in excess of the sum of the established price therefor at such ticket offices plus the amount of any tax imposed under paragraph (1), a tax equivalent to 5 per centum of the amount of such excess; and if sold for more than 50 cents in excess of the sum of such established price plus the amount of any tax imposed under paragraph (1), a tax equivalent to 50 per centum of the whole amount of such excess, such taxes to be returned and paid, in the manner and subject to the interest provided in section 602, by the person selling such tickets;

(3) A tax equivalent to 50 per centum of the amount for which the proprietors, managers, or employees of any opera house, theater, or other place of amusement sell or dispose of tickets or cards of admission in excess of the regular or established price or charge therefor, such tax to be returned and paid, in the manner and subject to the interest provided in section 602,[36] by the person selling such tickets;

(4) In the case of persons having the permanent use of boxes or seats in an opera house or any place of amusement or a lease for the use of such box or seat in such opera house or place of amusement (in lieu of the tax imposed by paragraph (1)), a tax equivalent to 10 per centum of the amount for which a similar box or seat is sold for each performance or exhibition at which the box or seat is used or reserved by or for the lessee or holder, such tax to be paid by the lessee or holder; and

(5) A tax of 1½ cents for each 10 cents or fraction thereof of the amount paid for admission to any public performance for profit at any roof garden, cabaret, or other similar entertainment, to which the charge for admission is wholly or in part included in the price paid for refreshment, service, or merchandise; the amount paid for such admission to be deemed to be 20 per centum of the amount paid for refreshment, service, and merchandise; such tax to be paid by the person paying for such refreshment, service, or merchandise. Where the amount paid for admission is 50 cents or less, no tax shall be imposed.

(b) No tax shall be levied under this title in respect of—

(1) Any admissions all the proceeds of which inure (A) exclusively to the benefit of religious, educational, or charitable institutions, societies, or organizations, societies for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, or societies or organizations conducted for the sole purpose of maintaining symphony orchestras and receiving substantial support from voluntary contributions, or of improving any city, town, village, or other municipality, or of maintaining a cooperative or community center moving-picture theater—if no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual; or (B) exclusively to the benefit of persons in the military or naval forces of the United States; or (C) exclusively to the benefit of persons who have served in such forces and are in need; or (D) exclusively to the benefit of National Guard organizations, Reserve Officers' associations or organizations, posts or organizations of war veterans, or auxiliary units or societies of any such posts or organizations, if such posts, organizations, units, or societies are organized in the United States or any of its possessions, and if no part of their net earnings inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual; or (E) exclusively to the benefit of members of the police or fire department of any city, town, village, or other municipality, or the dependents or heirs of such members; or

(2) Any admissions to agricultural fairs if no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any stockholders or members of the association conducting the same, or admissions to any exhibit, entertainment, or other pay feature conducted by such association as part of any such fair—if the proceeds therefrom are used exclusively for the improvement, maintenance, and operation of such agricultural fairs.

(c) The term "admission" as used in this title includes seats and tables, reserved or otherwise, and other similar accommodations, and the charges made therefor.

[33] The Statutes constituting §§ 871 to 873, inclusive, of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, were repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect 30 days after that date. The subject matter contained in the repealed statutes is carried into the Act of Feb. 26, 1926, Title V, §§ 500 to 503, and is herein set out, except § 502, which makes no change in the former statute constituting § 873 of Title 26 of the Code.

Section 503 provides that "This title shall take effect on the expiration of thirty days after the enactment of this Act."

[34] Section 500 of the Revenue Act of 1924, is set out in § 871 of Title 26, of the Code.

[35] "This title," herein referred to, constitutes chapter 16 of this title of the appendix.

[36] "Section 602" constitutes § 885 of this title of the appendix.

(d) The price (exclusive of the tax to be paid by the person paying for admission) at which every admission ticket or card is sold shall be conspicuously and indelibly printed, stamped, or written on the face or back of that part of the ticket which is to be taken up by the management of the theater, opera, or other place of amusement, together with the name of the vendor if sold other than at the ticket office of the theater, opera, or other place of amusement. Whoever sells an admission ticket or card on which the name of the vendor and price is not so printed, stamped, or written, or at a price in excess of the price so printed, stamped, or written thereon, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than $100. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 500, 44 Stat. 91.)

Section 871 repealed and reenacted.—See footnote to this chapter.

872. Tax on club dues or fees; amount; exemptions.—On and after the date this title[37] takes effect there shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid, in lieu of the taxes imposed by section 501 of the Revenue Act of 1924,[38] a tax equivalent to 10 per centum of any amount paid on or after such date, for any period after such date, (a) as dues or membership fees (where the dues or fees of an active resident annual member are in excess of $10 per year) to any social, athletic, or sporting club or organization; or (b) as initiation fees to such a club or organization, if such fees amount to more than $10, or if the dues or membership fees (not including initiation fees) of an active resident annual member are in excess of $10 per year; such taxes to be paid by the person paying such dues or fees: Provided, That there shall be exempted from the provisions of this section all amounts paid as dues or fees to a fraternal society, order, or association, operating under the lodge system, or to any local fraternal organization among the students of a college or university. In the case of life memberships a life member shall pay annually, at the time for the payment of dues by active resident annual members, a tax equivalent to the tax upon the amount paid by such a member, but shall pay no tax upon the amount paid for life membership. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 501, 44 Stat. 92.)

Section 872 repealed and reenacted.—See footnote to this chapter of the appendix.

873. Collection of taxes imposed; returns; penalty.

Section 873 of Title 26 repealed and reenacted.—See footnote to this chapter.

Chapter 17.[39]—EXCISE TAXES.

Sec.
881. Tax on certain articles sold or leased.
882. Sale at wholesale and retail; computation of tax.
883. Same; sales or leases to affiliated corporations; sales or leases at less than fair market price.
885. Same; returns; time for payment.
886. Tax on jewelry, etc.; amount; returns; time for payment; interest. [Repealed.]
887. Refunds to vendee or lessee; damages for failure to refund.
888. Refund of automobile tax; application; remission by manufacturer to dealer; damages for failure to remit.

881. Tax on certain articles sold or leased.—There shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid upon the following articles sold or leased by the manufacturer, producer, or importer, a tax equivalent to the following percentage of the price for which so sold or leased—

(1) Automobile chassis and bodies and motor cycles.—Automobile chassis and bodies and motor cycles (including tires, inner tubes, parts, and accessories therefor sold on or in connection therewith or with the sale thereof), except automobile truck chassis and bodies, automobile wagon chassis and bodies, and tractors, 3 per centum. A sale or lease of an automobile shall, for the purposes of this subdivision, be considered to be a sale of the chassis and of the body. This subdivision shall take effect on the expiration of 30 days after the enactment of this Act:

(2) Firearms, shells and cartridges.—Pistols and revolvers, except those sold for the use of the United States, any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, 10 per centum.

(10) Construction of tax imposed.—The taxes imposed by this section[40] shall, in the case of any article in respect of which a corresponding tax is imposed by section 600 of the Revenue Act of 1924,[41] be in lieu of such tax. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 600, 44 Stat. 93.)

Section 881 of Title 26 repealed and reenacted with changes.—See footnote to this chapter.

882. Sales at wholesale and retail; computation of tax.

Section 882 of Title 26 repealed and reenacted without change.—See footnote to this chapter.

883. Same; sales or leases to affiliated corporations; sales or leases at less than fair market price.

Section 883 repealed and reenacted without change.—See footnote to this chapter.

884. Same; sculpture; paintings, statuary, and so forth. [Repealed.]

Section 884 of Title 26 of the Code repealed.—See footnote to this chapter.

885. Same; returns; time for payment.

Section 885 repealed and reenacted without change.—See footnote to this chapter.

886. Tax on jewelry, and so forth; amount; returns; time for payment; interest. [Repealed.]

Section 886 of Title 26 repealed.—See footnote to this chapter.

887. Refunds to vendee or lessee; damages for failure to refund.—(a) If (1) any person has, prior to January 1, 1926, made a bona fide contract with any other person for the sale or lease, after the tax takes effect, of any article in respect of which a tax is imposed by section 600 of this Act,[42] and in respect of which a corresponding but greater tax was imposed by section 600 of the Revenue Act of 1924,[43] (2) the contract price includes the amount of the tax imposed by section 600 of the Revenue Act of 1924, and (3) such contract does not permit the deduction, from the amount to be paid thereunder, of the whole of the difference between the corresponding tax imposed by section 600 of the Revenue Act of 1924[43] and the tax imposed by section 600 of this Act,[42] then the vendor or lessor shall refund to the vendee or lessee so much of the amount of such difference as is not so permitted to be deducted from the contract price.

(b) If (1) any person has, prior to January 1, 1926, made a bona fide contract with any other person for the sale or lease,

[38] "Section 501 of the Revenue Act of 1924" is set out in § 872 of this title of the appendix.

[39] The statutes constituting §§ 881 to 887, inclusive, of Title 26, Internal Revenue, were repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date, with the exception of subdivision 2 of § 881, the repeal of which became effective 30 days thereafter. The subject matter contained in the repealed statutes is carried into the Act of Feb. 26, 1926, Title VI, §§ 600 to 603, inclusive, herein set out, except §§ 600 (next to last paragraph), 601, and 602. These sections, constituting §§ 882, 883, and 885 of Title 26 of the Code, were reenacted without change and so are not repeated in this chapter of the appendix.

[42] "Section 600 of this Act" constitutes §§ 881 and 882 of this title of the Code and appendix.

after the date of the enactment of this Act,[41] of any article in respect of which a tax was imposed by section 600 of the Revenue Act of 1924,[42] and in respect of which no corresponding tax is imposed by section 600 of this Act,[42] (2) the contract price includes the amount of the tax imposed by section 600 of the Revenue Act of 1924,[43] and (3) such contract does not permit deduction, from the amount to be paid thereunder, of the tax imposed by section 600 of the Revenue Act of 1924,[43] then the vendor or lessor shall refund to the vendee or lessee so much of the amount of such tax as is not so permitted to be deducted from the contract price.

(c) Any refund by the vendor or lessor under subdivision (a) or (b) shall be made at the time the sale or lease is consummated. Upon the failure of the vendor or lessor so to refund, he shall be liable to the vendee or lessee for damages in the amount of three times the amount of such refund, and the court shall include in any judgment in favor of the vendee or lessee in any suit for the recovery of such damages, costs of the suit and a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 603, 44 Stat. 94.)

Section 887 of Title 26 repealed and reenacted in part.—See footnote to this chapter.

888. Refund of automobile tax; application; remission by manufacturer to dealer; damages for failure to remit.—(a) Where prior to the effective date of the repeal of subdivision (2) of section 600 of the Revenue Act of 1924[45] any article subject to the tax imposed by such subdivision has been sold by the manufacturer, producer, or importer, and is on such date held by a dealer and intended for sale, there shall be refunded to the manufacturer, producer, or importer an amount equal to 2 per centum of the price for which such article was sold by him, or, if the tax has not been paid, an amount equal to such 2 per centum shall be credited against the tax in respect of such article.

(b) As used in this section the term "dealer" includes a wholesaler, jobber, or distributor. For the purposes of this section, an article shall be considered as "held by a dealer" if title thereto has passed to such dealer (whether or not delivery to him has been made), and if for purposes of consumption title to such article or possession thereof has not at any time been transferred to any person other than a dealer.

(c) Under regulations prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, the refund provided by this section (1) may be applied as a credit against the tax shown by subsequent returns of the manufacturer, producer, or importer, and (2) may be made to the dealer instead of to the manufacturer, producer or importer, if the manufacturer, producer or importer waives any claim for the amount so to be refunded.

(d) When the refund or credit provided for in this section has been allowed to the manufacturer, producer, or importer, he shall remit to the dealer to whom was sold the article in respect of which the refund or credit was allowed, so much of that amount of the tax corresponding to the refund or credit, as was paid or agreed to be paid by the dealer. Upon the failure of the manufacturer, producer or importer to make such remission he shall be liable to the dealer for damages in the amount of three times the amount thereof, and the court shall include in any judgment in favor of the dealer in any suit for the recovery of such damages, costs of the suit and a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1204, 44 Stat. 128.)

[45] "Subdivision (2) of section 600 of the Revenue Act of 1924" is set out in § 881 (2) of Title 26 of the Code.

Chapter 18.—STAMP TAXES ON SPECIFIC OBJECTS.

Sec.

901. Tax on certain enumerated documents and instruments.
902. Same; exemptions.
903. Same; stamps; preparation and distribution.
904. Same; cancellation of stamps.
905. Same; collection of omitted taxes.
906. Same; stamps for Postmaster General; distribution and sale. [Repealed.]
907. Same; stamps for designated depositaries or State agents; bonds; regulations.
908. Same; offenses.
909. Same; other offenses.

The statutes constituting §§ 901 to 909, inclusive, of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, were repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, §1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect 30 days thereafter.

The subject matter of the repealed statutes was in substance carried into the said Act in Title VIII, herein set out in corresponding sections.

901. Tax on certain enumerated documents and instruments.—On and after the expiration of thirty days after the enactment of this Act there shall be levied, collected, and paid, for and in respect of the several bonds, debentures, or certificates of stock and of indebtedness, and other documents, instruments, matters, and things mentioned and described in Schedule A of this title, or for or in respect of the vellum, parchment, or paper upon which such instruments, matters, or things, or any of them, are written or printed, by any person who makes, signs, issues, sells, removes, consigns, or ships the same, or for whose use or benefit the same are made, signed, issued, sold, removed, consigned, or shipped, the several taxes specified in such schedule. The taxes imposed by this section shall, in the case of any article upon which a corresponding stamp tax is now imposed by law, be in lieu of such tax.

SCHEDULE A.—STAMP TAXES

(1) Bonds, debentures, certificates of indebtedness, and other corporate securities.—Bonds of indebtedness: On all bonds, debentures, or certificates of indebtedness issued by any corporation, and all instruments, however termed, issued by any corporation with interest coupons or in registered form, known generally as corporate securities, on each $100 of face value or fraction thereof, 5 cents: Provided, That every renewal of the foregoing shall be taxed as a new issue: Provided further, That when a bond conditioned for the repayment or payment of money is given in a penal sum greater than the debt secured, the tax shall be based upon the amount secured.

(2) Issues of capital stock.—Capital stock, issue: On each original issue, whether on organization or reorganization, of certificates of stock, or of profits, or of interest in property or accumulations, by any corporation, on each $100 of face value or fraction thereof, 5 cents: Provided, That where a certificate is issued without face value, the tax shall be 5 cents per share, unless the actual value is in excess of $100 per share, in which case the tax shall be 5 cents on each $100 of actual value or fraction thereof, or unless the actual value is less than $100 per share, in which case the tax shall be 1 cent on each $20 of actual value, or fraction thereof.

The stamps representing the tax imposed by this subdivision shall be attached to the stock books and not to the certificates issued.

(3) Sales or transfers of capital stock.—Capital stock, sales or transfers: On all sales, or agreements to sell, or memoranda of sales or deliveries of, or transfers of legal title to shares or certificates of stock or of profits or of interest in property or accumulations in any corporation, or to rights to subscribe for or to receive such shares or certificates, whether made upon or shown by the books of the corporation, or by any assignment in blank, or by any delivery, or by any paper or agreement or memorandum or other evidence of transfer or sale, whether entitling the holder in any manner to the benefit of such stock, interest, or rights, or not, on each $100 of face value or fraction thereof, 2 cents, and where such shares are without par or face value, the tax shall be 2 cents on the transfer or sale or agrement to sell on each share: Provided, That it is not intended by this title[46] to impose a tax upon an agreement evidencing a deposit of certificates as collateral security for money loaned thereon, which certificates are not actually sold, nor upon the delivery or transfer for such purpose of certificates so deposited, nor upon mere loans of stock nor upon the return of stock so loaned: Provided further, That the tax shall not be imposed upon deliveries or transfers to a broker for sale, nor upon deliveries or transfers by a broker to a customer for whom and upon whose order he has purchased same, but such deliveries or transfers shall be accompanied by a certificate setting forth the facts: Provided further, That in case of sale where the evidence of transfer is shown only by the books of the corporation the stamp shall be placed upon such books; and where the change of ownership is by transfer of the certificate the stamp shall be placed upon the certificate; and in cases of an agreement to sell or where the transfer is by delivery of the certificate assigned in blank there shall be made and delivered by the seller to the buyer a bill or memorandum of such sale, to which the stamp shall be affixed; and every bill or memorandum of sale or agreement to sell before mentioned shall show the date thereof, the name of the seller, the amount of the sale, and the matter or thing to which it refers. Any person liable to pay the tax as herein provided, or anyone who acts in the matter as agent or broker for such person, who makes any such sale, or who in pursuance of any such sale delivers any certificate or evidence of the sale of any stock, interest or right, or bill or memorandum thereof, as herein required, without having the proper stamps affixed thereto, with intent to evade the foregoing provisions shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine of not exceeding $1,000, or be imprisoned not more than six months, or both.

(4) Sales on exchange for future delivery.—Produce, sales of, on exchange: Upon each sale, agreement of sale, or agreement to sell (not including so-called transferred or scratch sales), any products or merchandise at, or under the rules of usages of, any exchange, or board of trade, or other similar place, for future delivery, for each $100 in value of the merchandise covered by said sale or agreement of sale or agreement to sell, 1 cent, and for each additional $100 or fractional part thereof in excess of $100, 1 cent: Provided, That on every sale or agreement of sale or agreement to sell as aforesaid there shall be made and delivered by the seller to the buyer a bill, memorandum, agreement, or other evidence of such sale, agreement of sale, or agreement to sell, to which there shall be affixed a lawful stamp or stamps in value equal to the amount of the tax on such sale: Provided further, That sellers of commodities described herein, having paid the tax provided by this subdivision, may transfer such contracts to a clearing-house corporation or association, and such transfer shall not be deemed to be a sale, or agreement of sale, or an agreement to sell within the provisions of this Act,[47] provided that such transfer shall not vest any beneficial interest in such clearing house association but shall be made for the sole purpose of enabling such clearing-house association to adjust and balance the accounts of the members of such clearing-house association on their several contracts. Every such bill, memorandum, or other evidence of sale or agreement to sell shall show the date thereof, the name of the seller, the amount of the sale, and the matter or thing to which it refers: and any person liable to pay the tax as herein provided, or anyone who acts in the matter as agent or broker for such person, who makes any such sale or agreement of sale, or agreement to sell, or who, in pursuance of any such sale, agreement of sale, or agreement to sell, delivers any such products or merchandise without a bill, memorandum, or other evidence thereof as herein required, or who delivers such bill, memorandum, or other evidence of sale, or agreement to sell, without having the proper stamps affixed thereto, with intent to evade the foregoing provisions, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine of not exceeding $1,000 or be imprisoned not more than six months, or both.

No bill, memorandum, agreement, or other evidence of such sale, or agreement of sale, or agreement to sell, in case of cash sales of products or merchandise for immediate or prompt delivery which in good faith are actually intended to be delivered shall be subject to this tax.

This subdivision shall not affect but shall be in addition to the provisions of the "United States cotton futures Act,"[48] approved August 11, 1916, as amended, and "The Future Trading Act,"[49] approved August 24, 1921.

(8) Passage tickets to ports not in United States, Canada, or Mexico.—5. Passage ticket, one way or round trip, for each passenger, sold or issued in the United States for passage by any vessel to a port or place not in the United States, Canada, or Mexico, if costing not exceeding $30, $1; costing more than $30 and not exceeding $60, $3; costing more than $60, $5. This subdivision shall not apply to passage tickets costing $10 or less.

(11) Playing cards.—6. Playing cards: Upon every pack of playing cards containing not more than fifty-four cards, manufactured or imported, and sold, or removed for consumption or sale, a tax of 10 cents per pack.

(12) Insurance policies.—7. On each policy of insurance, or certificate, binder, covering note, memorandum, cablegram, letter, or other instrument by whatever name called whereby insurance is made or renewed upon property within the United States (including rents and profits) against peril by sea or on inland waters or in transit on land (including transshipments and storage at termini or way points) or by fire, lightning, tornado, windstorm, bombardment, invasion, insurrection or riot, issued to or for or in the name of a domestic corporation or partnership or an individual resident of the United States by any foreign corporation or partnership or any individual not a resident of the United States, when such policy or other instrument is not signed or countersigned by an officer or agent of the insurer in a State, Territory, or District of the United States within which such insurer is authorized to do business, a tax of 3 cents on each dollar, or fractional part thereof of the premium charged: Provided, That policies of reinsurance shall be exempt from the tax imposed by this subdivision.

Any person to or for whom or in whose name any such policy or other instrument is issued, or any solicitor or broker acting for or on behalf of such person in the procurement of any such policy or other instrument, shall affix the proper stamps to such policy or other instrument, and for failure to affix such stamps with intent to evade the tax shall, in addition to other penalties provided therefor, pay a fine of double the amount of the tax. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 800, Sched. A, 44 Stat. 99, 101.)

[46] "This title" constitutes chapter 18 of this supplemental title.

[47] "This Act," is set out throughout this supplemental title.

[48] The United States Cotton Futures Act, constitutes §§ 731 to 752, inclusive, of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE.

[49] The Future Trading Act was held unconstitutional in Hill v. Wallace, 259 U. S. 44, S. Ct. 168 mem.; 66 U. S. (6 ed.). A new Act known as the Grain Futures Act (Act of Sept. 21, 1922, c. 369) constitutes Chapter 1 of Title 7, AGRICULTURE.

902. Same; exemptions.—There shall not be taxed under this title[46] any bond, note, or other instrument, issued by the United States, or by any foreign Government, or by any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or local subdivision thereof, or municipal or other corporation exercising the taxing power; or any bond of indemnity required to be filed by any person to secure payment of any pension, allowance, allotment, relief, or insurance by the United States, or to secure a duplicate for, or the payment of, any bond, note, certificate of indebtedness, war-savings certificate, warrant or check, issued by the United States; or stocks and bonds issued by domestic building and loan associations substantially all the business of which is confined to making loans to members, or by mutual ditch or irrigation companies. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 801, 44 Stat. 99.)

903. Same; stamps; preparation and distribution.—The commissioner shall cause to be prepared and distributed for the payment of the taxes prescribed in this title[46] suitable stamps denoting the tax on the document, articles, or thing to which the same may be affixed, and shall prescribe such method for the affixing of said stamps in substitution for or in addition to the method provided in this title,[46] as he may deem expedient. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 805 (a), 44 Stat. 100.)

This section repealed and reenacted; see note at beginning of chapter.

904. Same; cancellation of stamps.—Whenever an adhesive stamp is used for denoting any tax imposed by this title,[46] except as hereinafter provided, the person using or affixing the same shall write or stamp or cause to be written or stamped thereupon the initials of his or its name and the date upon which the same is attached or used, so that the same may not again be used: Provided, That the commissioner may prescribe such other method for the cancellation of such stamps as he may deem expedient. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 804, 44 Stat. 100.)

This section repealed and reenacted; see note at beginning of this chapter.

905. Same; collection of omitted taxes.—All internal revenue laws relating to the assessment and collection of taxes are hereby extended to and made a part of this title,[46] so far as applicable, for the purpose of collecting stamp taxes omitted through mistake or fraud from any instrument, document, paper, writing, parcel, package, or article named herein. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 805 (b), 44 Stat. 100.)

This section repealed and reenacted; see note at beginning of this chapter.

906. Same; stamps for Postmaster General; distribution and sale.—[Repealed.]

Section 806 of the Revenue Act of 1926, which in effect reenacted § 806 of the Revenue Act of 1924, was repealed by Act of May 14, 1926, which read as follows: "That § 806 of the Revenue Act of 1926 be, and is hereby, repealed." (May 14, 1926, c. 299, 44 Stat. 554.) The repealed section (44 Stat. 101) read exactly the same as § 906 of Title 26 of the Code.

And see note at the beginning of this chapter.

907. Same; stamps for designated depositaries or State agents; bonds; regulations.—(a) Each collector shall furnish, without prepayment, to any designated depositary of the United States, located in the district of such collector, a suitable quantity of adhesive stamps to be kept on sale by such designated depositary.

(b) Each collector shall furnish, without prepayment, to any person who is (1) located in the district of such collector, (2) duly appointed and acting as agent of any State for the sale of stock transfer stamps of such State, and (3) designated by the commissioner for the purpose, a suitable quantity of such adhesive stamps as are required by subdivisions 2, 3, and 4 of Schedule A[50] of this title, to be kept on sale by such person.

(c) In such cases the collector may require a bond, with sufficient sureties, in a sum to be fixed by the commissioner, conditioned for the faithful return, whenever so required, of all quantities or amounts undisposed of, and for the payment monthly of all quantities or amounts sold or not remaining on hand. The Secretary may from time to time make such regulations as he may find necessary to insure the safe-keeping or prevent the illegal use of all such adhesive stamps. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 807, 44 Stat. 101.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

908. Same; offenses.—Whoever—

(a) Makes, signs, issues, or accepts, or causes to be made, signed, issued, or accepted, any instrument, document, or paper of any kind or description whatsoever without the full amount of tax thereon being duly paid;

(b) Manufacturers or imports and sells, or offers for sale, or causes to be manufactured or imported and sold, or offered for sale, any playing cards, package, or other article without the full amount of tax being duly paid;

(c) Makes use of any adhesive stamp to denote any tax imposed by this title[46] without canceling or obliterating such stamp as prescribed in section 804;[51]

Is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine of not more than $100 for each offense. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 802, 44 Stat. 99.)

This section repealed and reenacted; see note at the beginning of this chapter.

909. Same; other offenses.—Whoever—

(a) Fraudulently cuts, tears, or removes from any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, package, or article, upon which any tax is imposed by this title, any adhesive stamp or the impression of any stamp, die, plate, or other article provided, made, or used in pursuance of this title;[53]

(b) Fraudulently uses, joins, fixes, or places to, with, or upon any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, package, or article, upon which any tax is imposed by this title,[53] (1) any adhesive stamp, or the impression of any stamp, die, plate, or other article, which has been cut, torn, or removed from any other vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, package, or article, upon which any tax is imposed by this title;[53] or (2) any adhesive stamp or the impression of any stamp, die, plate, or other article of insufficient value; or (3) any forged or counterfeited stamp, or the impression of any forged or counterfeited stamp, die, plate, or other article;

(c) Willfully removes, or alters the cancellation or defacing marks of, or otherwise prepares, any adhesive stamp, with intent to use, or cause the same to be used, after it has been already used, or knowingly or willfully buys, sells, offers for sale, or gives away, any such washed or restored stamp to any person for use, or knowingly uses the same;

(d) Knowingly and without lawful excuse (the burden of proof of such excuse being on the accused) has in possession any washed, restored, or altered stamp, which has been removed from any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, package, or article;

Is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000, or by imprisonment for not more than five years, or both, and any such reused,

[46] This title constitutes chapter 18 of this supplemental title.

[50] Schedule A is set out under § 901 of this supplemental title.

[51] Section 804 is set out in § 904 of this supplemental title.

[53] "This title," herein referred to, constitutes chapter 18 of this supplemental title.

canceled, or counterfeit stamp and the vellum, parchment, document, paper, package, or article upon which it is placed or impressed shall be forfeited to the United States. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 803, 44 Stat. 100.)

This section repealed and reenacted; see note at beginning of this chapter.

The Statutes constituting Chapter 19, of Title 26 of the Code, with the exception of §§ 983, 1025, 1067, and 1068 were repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125. The repeal, except as to §§ 1024 and 1045 to 1066, inclusive, was to take effect as of Jan. 1, 1925; in the case of the said excepted sections the repeal was to take effect as of the date of the enactment of the said Act.

The subject matter contained in the repealed statutes is substantially carried into the Act of Feb. 26, 1926, Title II, §§ 200 to 286, inclusive, herein set out in sections corresponding to those of the Code.

PART I.—GENERAL PROVISIONS

931. Definitions.—When used in this title—

(a) The term "taxable year" means the calendar year, or the fiscal year ending during such calendar year, upon the basis of which the net income is computed under section 212 or 232. The term "fiscal year" means an accounting period of twelve months ending on the last day of any month other than December. The term "taxable year" includes, in the case of a return made for a fractional part of a year under the provisions of this title or under regulations prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, the period for which such return is made. The first taxable year, to be called the taxable year 1925, shall be the calendar year 1925 or any fiscal year ending during the calendar year 1925.

(b) The term "fiduciary" means a guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, conservator, or any person acting in any fiduciary capacity for any person.

(c) The term "withholding agent" means any person required to deduct and withhold any tax under the provisions of section 221 or 237.

(d) The terms "paid or incurred" and "paid or accrued" shall be construed according to the method of accounting upon the basis of which the net income is computed under section 212 or 232. The deductions and credits provided for in this title shall be taken for the taxable year in which "paid or accrued" or "paid or incurred," dependent upon the method of accounting upon the basis of which the net income is computed under section 212 or 232, unless in order to clearly reflect the income the deductions or credits should be taken as of a different period.

(e) The term "stock" includes the share in an association, joint-stock company, or insurance company.

(f) The term "shareholder" includes a member in an association, joint-stock company, or insurance company. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 200, 44 Stat. 10.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Sections 212 and 232 herein referred to are set out as §§ 953 and 984, respectively, of this supplemental title.

Sections 221 and 237, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 962 and 989, respectively, of this supplemental title.

932. Dividends and distributions.—(a) The term "dividend" when used in this title (except in paragraph (9) of subdivision (a) of section 234 and paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of section 245) means any distribution made by a corporation to its shareholders, whether in money or in other property, out of its earnings or profits accumulated after February 28, 1913.

(b) For the purposes of this Act every distribution is made out of earnings or profits to the extent thereof, and from the most recently accumulated earnings or profits. Any earnings or profits accumulated, or increase in value of property accrued, before March 1, 1913, may be distributed exempt from tax, after the earnings and profits accumulated after February 28, 1913, have been distributed, but any such tax-free distribution shall be applied against and reduce the basis of the stock provided in section 204.

(c) Amounts distributed in complete liquidation of a corporation shall be treated as in full payment in exchange for the stock, and amounts distributed in partial liquidation of a corporation shall be treated as in part or full payment in exchange for the stock. The gain or loss to the distributee resulting from such exchange shall be determined under section 202, but shall be recognized only to the extent provided in section 203. In the case of amounts distributed in partial liquidation (other than a distribution within the provisions of subdivision (g) of section 203 of stock or securities in connection with a reorganization) the part of such distribution which is properly chargeable to capital account shall not be considered a distribution of earnings or profits within the meaning of subdivision (b) of this section for the purpose of determining the taxability of subsequent distributions by the corporation.

(d) If any distribution (not in partial or complete liquidation) made by a corporation to its shareholders is not out of increase in value of property accrued before March 1, 1913, and is not out of earnings or profits, then the amount of such distribution shall be applied against and reduce the basis of the stock provided in section 204, and if in excess of such basis, such excess shall be taxable in the same manner as a gain from the sale or exchange of property. The provisions of this paragraph shall also apply to distributions from depletion reserves based on the discovery value of mines.

(e) Any distribution made by a corporation, which was classified as a personal service corporation under the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1918 or the Revenue Act of 1921, out of its earnings or profits which were taxable in accordance with the provisions of section 218 of the Revenue Act of 1918 or section 218 of the Revenue Act of 1921, shall be exempt from tax to the distributees.

(f) A stock dividend shall not be subject to tax.

(g) If a corporation cancels or redeems its stock (whether or not such stock was issued as a stock dividend) at such time and in such manner as to make the distribution and cancellation or redemption in whole or in part essentially equivalent to the distribution of a taxable dividend, the amount so distributed in redemption or cancellation of the stock, to the extent that it represents a distribution of earnings or profits accumulated after February 28, 1913, shall be treated as a taxable dividend. In the case of the cancellation or redemption of stock not issued as a stock dividend this subdivision shall apply only if the cancellation or redemption is made after January 1, 1926.

(h) As used in this section the term "amounts distributed in partial liquidation" means a distribution by a corporation in complete cancellation or redemption of a part of its stock, or one of a series of distributions in complete cancellation or redemption of all or a portion of its stock. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 201, 44 Stat. 10.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Sections 202, 203, 204, and 234 herein referred to are set out in §§ 933, 934, 935, and 986, respectively, of this supplemental title. Subdivision (a) of section 245, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1004 of said title.

933. Amount of gain derived or loss sustained from sale or other disposition of property.—(a) Except as hereinafter provided in this section, the gain from the sale or other disposition of property shall be the excess of the amount realized therefrom over the basis provided in subdivision (a) or (b) of section 204, and the loss shall be the excess of such basis over the amount realized.

(b) In computing the amount of gain or loss under subdivision (a)—

(1) Proper adjustment shall be made for any expenditure or item of loss properly chargeable to capital account, and

(2) The basis shall be diminished by the amount of the deductions for exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, amortization, and depletion which have since the acquisition of the property been allowable in respect of such property under this Act or prior income tax laws; but in no case shall the amount of the diminution in respect of depletion exceed a depletion deduction computed without reference to discovery value or to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of section 204. In addition, if the property was acquired before March 1, 1913, the basis (if other than the fair market value as of March 1, 1913) shall be diminished in the amount of exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, and depletion actually sustained before such date.

(c) The amount realized from the sale or other disposition of property shall be the sum of any money received plus the fair market value of the property (other than money) received.

(d) In the case of a sale or exchange, the extent to which the gain or loss determined under this section shall be recognized for the purposes of this title, shall be determined under the provisions of section 203.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent (in the case of property sold under contract providing for payment in installments) the taxation of that portion of any installment payment representing gain or profit in the year in which such payment is received. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 202, 44 Stat. 11.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Sections 203 and 204 herein referred to are set out in §§ 934 and 935, respectively, of this supplemental title, "This Act," herein referred to is set forth throughout this supplemental title.

934. Gains or losses not recognized.—(a) Upon the sale or exchange of property the entire amount of the gain or loss, determined under section 202, shall be recognized, except as hereinafter provided in this section.

(b) (1) No gain or loss shall be recognized if property held for productive use in trade or business or for investment (not including stock in trade or other property held primarily for sale, nor stocks, bonds, notes, choses in action, certificates of trust or beneficial interest, or other securities or evidences of indebtedness or interest) is exchanged solely for property of a like kind to be held either for productive use in trade or business or for investment, or if common stock in a corporation is exchanged solely for common stock in the same corporation, or if preferred stock in a corporation is exchanged solely for preferred stock in the same corporation.

(2) No gain or loss shall be recognized if stock or securities in a corporation a party to a reorganization are in pursuance of the plan of reorganization, exchanged solely for stock or securities in such corporation or in another corporation a party to the reorganization.

(3) No gain or loss shall be recognized if a corporation a party to a reorganization exchanges property, in pursuance of the plan of reorganization, solely for stock or securities in another corporation a party to the reorganization.

(4) No gain or loss shall be recognized if property is transferred to a corporation by one or more persons solely in exchange for stock or securities in such corporation, and immediately after the exchange such person or persons are in control of the corporation; but in the case of an exchange by two or more persons this paragraph shall apply only if the amount of the stock and securities received by each is substantially in proportion to his interest in the property prior to the exchange.

(5) If property (as a result of its destruction in whole or in part, theft or seizure, or an exercise of the power of requisition or condemnation, or the threat or imminence thereof) is compulsorily or involuntarily converted into property similar or related in service or use to the property so converted, or into money which is forthwith in good faith, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, expended in the acquisition of other property similar or related in service or use to the property so converted, or in the acquisition of control of a corporation owning such other property, or in the establishment of a replacement fund, no gain or loss shall be recognized. If any part of the money is not so expended, the gain, if any, shall be recognized, but in an amount not in excess of the money which is not so expended.

(c) If there is distributed, in pursuance of a plan of reorganization, to a shareholder in a corporation a party to the reorganization, stock or securities in such corporation or in another corporation a party to the reorganization, without the surrender by such shareholder of stock or securities in such a corporation, no gain to the distributee from the receipt of such stock or securities shall be recognized.

(d) (1) If an exchange would be within the provisions of paragraph (1), (2), or (4) of subdivision (b) if it were not for the fact that the property received in exchange consists not only of property permitted by such paragraph to be received without the recognition of gain, but also of other property or money, then the gain, if any, to the recipient shall be recognized, but in an amount not in excess of the sum of such money and the fair market value of such other property.

(2) If a distribution made in pursuance of a plan of reorganization is within the provisions of paragraph (1) but has the effect of the distribution of a taxable dividend, then there shall be taxed as a dividend to each distributee such an amount of the gain recognized under paragraph (1) as is not in excess of his ratable share of the undistributed earnings and profits of the corporation accumulated after February 28, 1913. The remainder, if any, of the gain recognized under paragraph (1) shall be taxed as a gain from the exchange of property.

(e) If an exchange would be within the provisions of paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) if it were not for the fact that the property received in exchange consists not only of stock or securities permitted by such paragraph to be received without the recognition of gain, but also of other property or money, then—

(1) If the corporation receiving such other property or money distributes it in pursuance of the plan of reorganization, no gain to the corporation shall be recognized from the exchange, but

(2) If the corporation receiving such other property or money does not distribute it in pursuance of the plan of reorganization, the gain, if any, to the corporation shall be recognized, but in an amount not in excess of the sum of such money and the fair market value of such other property so received, which is not so distributed.

(f) If an exchange would be within the provisions of paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4) of subdivision (b) if it were not for the fact that the property received in exchange consists not only of property permitted by such paragraph to be received without the recognition of gain or loss, but also of other property or money, then no loss from the exchange shall be recognized.

(g) The distribution, in pursuance of a plan of reorganization, by or on behalf of a corporation a party to the reorganization, of its stock or securities or stock or securities in a corporation a party to the reorganization, shall not be considered a distribution of earnings or profits within the meaning of subdivision (b) of section 201 for the purpose of determining the taxability of subsequent distributions by the corporation.

(h) As used in this section and sections 201 and 204—

(1) The term "reorganization" means (A) a merger or consolidation (including the acquisition by one corporation of at least a majority of the voting stock and at least a majority of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of another corporation, or substantially all the properties of another corporation), or (B) a transfer by a corporation of all or a part of its assets to another corporation if immediately after the transfer the transferor or its stockholders or both are in control of the corporation to which the assets are transferred, or (C) a recapitalization, or (D) a mere change in identity, form, or place of organization, however effected.

(2) The term "a party to a reorganization" includes a corporation resulting from a reorganization and includes both corporations in the case of an acquisition by one corporation of at least a majority of the voting stock and at least a majority of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of another corporation.

(i) As used in this section the term "control" means the ownership of at least 80 per centum of the voting stock and at least 80 per centum of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of the corporation. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 203, 44 Stat. 12.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Sections 201, 202, and 204 herein referred to are set out in §§ 932, 933, and 935, respectively, of this supplemental title.

935. Basis of determining gain or loss, and so forth.—(a) The basis for determining the gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of property acquired after February 28, 1913, shall be the cost of such property; except that—

(1) If the property should have been included in the last inventory, the basis shall be the last inventory value thereof.

(2) If the property was acquired by gift after December 31, 1920, the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the donor or the last preceding owner by whom it was not acquired by gift. If the facts necessary to determine such basis are unknown to the donee, the commissioner shall, if possible, obtain such facts from such donor or last preceding owner, or any other person cognizant thereof. If the commissioner finds it impossible to obtain such facts, the basis shall be the fair market value of such property as found by the commissioner as of the date or approximate date at which, according to the best information that the commissioner is able to obtain, such property was acquired by such donor or last preceding owner;

(3) If the property was acquired after December 31, 1920, by a transfer in trust (other than by a transfer in trust by bequest or devise) the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the grantor, increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss recognized to the grantor upon such transfer under the law applicable to the year in which the transfer was made. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to the acquisition of such property interests as are specified in subdivision (c) or (e) of section 402 of the Revenue Act of 1921, or in subdivision (c) or (f) of section 302 of the Revenue Act of 1924 or in subdivision (c) or (f) of section 302 of this Act;

(4) If the property was acquired by gift or transfer in trust on or before December 31, 1920, the basis shall be the fair market value of such property at the time of such acquisition;

(5) If the property was acquired by bequest, devise, or inheritance, the basis shall be the fair market value of such property at the time of such acquisition. The provisions of this paragraph shall apply to the acquisition of such property interests as are specified in subdivision (c) or (e) of section 402 of the Revenue Act of 1921, or in subdivision (c) or (f) of section 302 of the Revenue Act of 1924 or in subdivision (c) or (f) of section 302 of this Act;

(6) If the property was acquired upon an exchange described in subdivision (b), (d), (e), or (f) of section 203, the basis shall be the same as in the case of the property exchanged, decreased in the amount of any money received by the taxpayer and increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss to the taxpayer that was recognized upon such exchange under the law applicable to the year in which the exchange was made. If the property so acquired consisted in part of the type of property permitted by paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4) of subdivision (b) of section 203 to be received without the recognition of gain or loss, and in part of other property, the basis provided in this paragraph shall be allocated between the properties (other than money) received, and for the purpose of the allocation there shall be assigned to such other property an amount equivalent to its fair market value at the date of the exchange. This paragraph shall not apply to property acquired by a corporation by the issuance of its stock or securities as the consideration in whole or in part for the transfer of the property to it;

(7) If the property (other than stock or securities in a corporation a party to the reorganization) was acquired after December 31, 1917, by a corporation in connection with a reorganization, and immediately after the transfer an interest or control in such property of 80 per centum or more remained in the same persons or any of them, then the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the transferor, increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss recognized to the transferor upon such transfer under the law applicable to the year in which the transfer was made;

(8) If the property (other than stock or securities in a corporation a party to a reorganization) was acquired after December 31, 1920, by a corporation by the issuance of its stock or securities in connection with a transaction described in paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of section 203 (including, also, cases where part of the consideration for the transfer of such property to the corporation was property or money in addition to such stock or securities), then the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the transferor, increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss recognized to the transferor upon such transfer under the law applicable to the year in which the transfer was made;

(9) If the property consists of stock or securities distributed after December 31, 1923, to a taxpayer in connection with a transaction described in subdivision (c) of section 203, the basis in the case of the stock in respect of which the distribution was made shall be apportioned, under rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, between such stock and the stock or securities distributed;

(10) If the property was acquired as the result of a compulsory or involuntary conversion described in paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of section 203, the basis shall be the same as in the case of the property so converted, decreased in the amount of any money received by the taxpayer which was not expended in accordance with the provisions of law (applicable to the year in which such conversion was made) determining the taxable status of the gain or loss upon such conversion, and increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss to the taxpayer recognized upon such conversion under the law applicable to the year in which such conversion was made;

(11) If substantially identical property was acquired after December 31, 1920, in place of stock or securities which were sold or disposed of and in respect of which loss was not allowed as a deduction under paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) of section 214 or paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of section 234 of this Act, the Revenue Act of 1921, or the Revenue Act of 1924, the basis in the case of the property so acquired shall be the basis in the case of the stock or securities so sold or disposed of, except that if the repurchase price was in excess of the sale price such basis shall be increased in the amount of the difference, or if the repurchase price was less than the sale price such basis shall be decreased in the amount of the difference.

(b) The basis for determining the gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of property acquired before March 1, 1913, shall be (A) the cost of such property (or, in the case of such property as is described in paragraph (1), (4), or (5), of subdivision (a), the basis as therein provided), or (B) the fair market value of such property as of March 1, 1913, whichever is greater. In determining the fair market value of stock in a corporation as of March 1, 1913, due regard shall be given to the fair market value of the assets of the corporation as of that date.

(c) The basis upon which depletion, exhaustion, wear and tear, and obsolescence are to be allowed in respect of any property shall be the same as is provided in subdivision (a) or (b) for the purpose of determining the gain or loss upon the sale or other disposition of such property, except that—

(1) In the case of mines discovered by the taxpayer after February 28, 1913, the basis for depletion shall be the fair market value of the property at the date of discovery or within thirty days thereafter, if such mines were not acquired as the result of purchase of a proven tract or lease, and if the fair market value of the property is materially disproportionate to the cost. The depletion allowance based on discovery value provided in this paragraph shall not exceed 50 per centum of the net income of the taxpayer (computed without allowance for depletion) from the property upon which the discovery was made, except that in no case shall the depletion allowance be less than it would be if computed without reference to discovery value. Discoveries shall include minerals in commercial quantities contained within a vein or deposit discovered in an existing mine or mining tract by the taxpayer after February 28, 1913, if the vein or deposit thus discovered was not merely the uninterrupted extension of a continuing commercial vein or deposit already known to exist, and if the discovered minerals are of sufficient value and quantity that they could be separately mined and marketed at a profit.

(2) In the case of oil and gas wells the allowance for depletion shall be 27½ per centum of the gross income from the property during the taxable year. Such allowance shall not exceed 50 per centum of the net income of the taxpayer (computed without allowance for depletion) from the property, except that in no case shall the depletion allowance be less than it would be if computed without reference to this paragraph. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 204, 44 Stat. 14.)

Sections 214, 234, and 302 of the Revenue Act of 1924 herein referred to are set out in §§ 955, 986, and 1094, respectively, of Title 26 (INTERNAL REVENUE) of the Code.

Sections 203, 214, 234, and 302 of this Act herein referred to are set out in §§ 934, 955, 986, and 1094, respectively, of this supplemental title.

936. Requirement of inventories.—Whenever in the opinion of the commissioner the use of inventories is necessary in order clearly to determine the income of any taxpayer, inventories shall be taken by such taxpayer upon such basis as the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe as conforming as nearly as may be to the best accounting practice in the trade or business and as most clearly reflecting the income. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 205, 44 Stat. 16.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Except for the omission of the words "of Internal Revenue" after "commissioner" and of the words "of the Treasury" after "Secretary," § 205 of the Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, reenacts without change § 205 of the Revenue Act of 1924 repealed by the former Act.

937. Net losses; determination of.—(a) As used in this section the term "net loss" means the excess of the deductions allowed by section 214 or 234 over the gross income, with the following exceptions and limitations:

(1) Deductions otherwise allowed by law not attributable to the operation of a trade or business regularly carried on by the taxpayer shall be allowed only to the extent of the amount of the gross income not derived from such trade or business;

(2) In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, deductions for capital losses otherwise allowed by law shall be allowed only to the extent of the capital gains;

(3) The deduction for depletion shall not exceed the amount which would be allowable if computed without reference to discovery value, or to paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of section 204;

(4) The deduction provided for in paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of section 234 of amounts received as dividends shall not be allowed;

(5) There shall be included in computing gross income the amount of interest received free from tax under this title, decreased by the amount of interest paid or accrued which is not allowed as a deduction by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of section 214 or by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of section 234.

(b) If, for any taxable year, it appears upon the production of evidence satisfactory to the commissioner that any taxpayer has sustained a net loss, the amount thereof shall be allowed as a deduction in computing the net income of the taxpayer for the succeeding taxable year (hereinafter in this section called "second"), and if such net loss is in excess of such net income (computed without such deduction), the amount of such excess shall be allowed as a deduction in computing the net income for the next succeeding taxable year (hereinafter in this section called "third year"); the deduction in all cases to be made under regulations prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary.

(c) (1) If in the second year the taxpayer (other than a corporation) sustains a capital net loss, the deduction allowed by subdivision (b) of this section shall first be applied as a deduction in computing the ordinary net income for such year. If the deduction is in excess of the ordinary net income (computed without such deduction) then the amount of such excess shall be allowed as a deduction in computing net income for the third year.

(2) If in the second year the taxpayer (other than a corporation) has a capital net gain, the deduction allowed by subdivision (b) of this section shall first be applied as a deduction in computing the ordinary net income for such year. If the deduction is in excess of the ordinary net income (computed without such deduction) the amount of such excess shall next be applied against the capital net gain for such year, and if in excess of the capital net gain the amount of that excess shall be allowed as a deduction in computing net income for the third year.

(d) If any portion of a net loss is allowed as a deduction in computing net income for the third year, under the provisions of either subdivision (b) or (c), and the taxpayer (other than a corporation) has in such year a capital net gain or a capital net loss, then the method of allowing such deduction in such third year shall be the same as provided in subdivision (c).

(e) If for the taxable year 1923 a taxpayer sustained a net loss within the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1921, or if for the taxable year 1924 a taxpayer sustained a net loss within the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1924, the amount of such net loss shall be allowed as a deduction in computing net income for the two succeeding taxable years to the same extent and in the same manner as a net loss sustained for one taxable year is, under this Act, allowed as a deduction for the two succeeding taxable years.

(f) If a taxpayer makes return for a period beginning in one calendar year (hereinafter in this subdivision called "first calendar year") and ending in the following calendar year (hereinafter in this subdivision called "second calendar year") and the law applicable to the second calendar year is different from the law applicable to the first calendar year, then his net loss for the period ending during the second calendar year shall be the sum of: (1) the same proportion of a net loss for the entire period, determined under the law applicable to the first calendar year, which the portion of such period falling within such calendar year is of the entire period; and (2) the same proportion of a net loss for the entire period, determined under the law applicable to the second calendar year, which the portion of such period falling within such calendar year is of the entire period.

(g) The benefit of this section shall be allowed to the members of a partnership, to an estate or trust, and to insurance companies subject to the tax imposed by section 243 or 246, under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 206, 44 Stat. 17.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

The Revenue Act of 1924 herein referred to is set out in Title 26 (INTERNAL REVENUE) of the Code.

Sections 204, 214, 234, 243, and 246 herein referred to are set out in §§ 935, 955, 986, 1001, and 1006, respectively, of this supplemental title.

938. Amount of tax for fiscal year with different rates.—(a) If the taxpayer makes return for a period beginning in one calendar year (hereinafter in this subdivision called "first calendar year") and ending in the following calendar year (hereinafter in this subdivision called "second calendar year") and the law applicable to the second calendar year is different from the law applicable to the first calendar year, then his tax under this title for the period ending during the second calendar year shall be the sum of: (1) the same proportion of a tax for the entire period, determined under the law applicable to the first calendar year and at the rates for such year, which the portion of such period falling within the first calendar year is of the entire period; and (2) the same proportion of a tax for the entire period, determined under the law applicable to the second calendar year and at the rates for such year, which the portion of such period falling within the second calendar year is of the entire period.

(b) If a fiscal year of a partnership begins in one calendar year and ends in another calendar year, and the law applicable to the second calendar year is different from the law applicable to the first calendar year, then (1) the rates for the calendar year during which such fiscal year begins shall apply to an amount of each partner's share of such partnership net income (determined under the law applicable to such calendar year) equal to the proportion which the part of such fiscal year falling within such calendar year bears to the full fiscal year, and (2) the rates for the calendar year during which such fiscal year ends shall apply to an amount of each partner's share of such partnership net income (determined under the law applicable to such calendar year) equal to the proportion which the part of such fiscal year falling within such calendar year bears to the full fiscal year. In such cases the part of such income subject to the rates in effect for the most recent calendar year shall be added to the other income of the taxpayer subject to such rates and the resulting amount shall be placed in the lower brackets of the rate schedule applicable to such year, and the part of such income subject to the rates in effect for the next preceding calendar year shall be placed in the next higher brackets of the rate schedule applicable to such year.

(c) Any amount paid before or after the enactment of this Act on account of the tax imposed for a fiscal year beginning in 1924 and ending in 1925 by Title II of the Revenue Act of 1924 shall be credited toward the payment of the tax imposed for such fiscal year by this Act, and if the amount so paid exceeds the amount of such tax imposed by this Act, the excess shall be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section 284. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 207, 44 Stat. 18.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Title II of the Revenue Act of 1924, herein referred to, is set out in c. 19 of Title 26 (INTERNAL REVENUE) of the Code. This Act herein referred to is set out throughout this supplemental title. Section 284 herein referred to is set out in § 1065 of this supplemental title.

939. Capital gain; capital loss; capital deductions; ordinary deductions; capital net gain; capital net loss; ordinary net income; capital assets; tax in lieu of taxes imposed by sections 951, 952; members of partnerships.—(a) For the purposes of this title—

(1) The term "capital gain" means taxable gain from the sale or exchange of capital assets consummated after December 31, 1921;

(2) The term "capital loss" means deductible loss resulting from the sale or exchange of capital assets;

(3) The term "capital deductions" means such deductions as are allowed by section 214 for the purpose of computing net income, and are properly allocable to or chargeable against capital assets sold or exchanged during the taxable year;

(4) The term "ordinary deductions" means the deductions allowed by section 214 other than capital losses and capital deductions;

(5) The term "capital net gain" means the excess of the total amount of capital gain over the sum of (A) the capital deductions and capital losses, plus (B) the amount, if any, by which the ordinary deductions exceed the gross income computed without including capital gain;

(6) The term "capital net loss" means the excess of the sum of the capital losses plus the capital deductions over the total amount of capital gain;

(7) The term "ordinary net income" means the net income, computed in accordance with the provisions of this title, after excluding all items of capital gain, capital loss, and capital deductions; and

(8) The term "capital assets" means property held by the taxpayer for more than two years (whether or not connected with his trade or business), but does not include stock in trade of the taxpayer or other property of a kind which would properly be included in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year, or property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale in the course of his trade or business. In determining the period for which the taxpayer has held property received on an exchange there shall be included the period for which he held the property exchanged, if under the provisions of section 204 the property received has, for the purpose of determining gain or loss from a sale or exchange, the same basis in whole or in part in his hands as the property exchanged. In determining the period for which the taxpayer has held property however acquired there shall be included the period for which such property was held by any other person, if under the provisions of section 204 such property has, for the purpose of determining gain or loss from a sale or exchange, the same basis in whole or in part in his hands as it would have in the hands of such other person. In determining the period for which the taxpayer has held stock or securities received upon a distribution where no gain is recognized to the distributee under the provisions of subdivision (c) of section 203 of this Act or of the Revenue Act of 1924, there shall be included the period for which he held the stock or securities in the distributing corporation prior to the receipt of the stock or securities upon such distribution.

(b) In the case of any taxpayer (other than a corporation) who for any taxable year derives a capital net gain, there shall (at the election of the taxpayer) be levied, collected and paid, in lieu of the taxes imposed by sections 210 and 211 of this title, a tax determined as follows:

A partial tax shall first be computed upon the basis of the ordinary net income at the rates and in the manner provided in sections 210 and 211, and the total tax shall be this amount plus 12½ per centum of the capital net gain.

(c) In the case of any taxpayer (other than a corporation) who for any taxable year sustains a capital net loss, there shall be levied, collected, and paid, in lieu of the taxes imposed by sections 210 and 211 of this title, a tax determined as follows:

A partial tax shall first be computed upon the basis of the ordinary net income at the rates and in the manner provided in sections 210 and 211, and the total tax shall be this amount minus 12½ per centum of the capital net loss; but in no case shall the tax under this subdivision be less than the taxes imposed by sections 210 and 211 computed without regard to the provisions of this section.

(d) The total tax determined under subdivision (b) or (c) shall be collected and paid in the same manner, at the same time, and subject to the same provisions of law, including penalties, as other taxes under this title.

(e) In the case of the members of a partnership, of an estate or trust, or of the beneficiary of an estate or trust, the proper part of each share of the net income, which consists, respectively, of ordinary net income, capital net gain, or capital net loss, shall be determined under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, and shall be separately shown in the return of the partnership or estate or trust, and shall be taxed to the member or beneficiary or to the estate or trust as provided in sections 218 and 219, but at the rates and in the manner provided in subdivision (b) or (c) of this section. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 208, 44 Stat. 19.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Section 203 of the Revenue Act of 1924, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 934 of Title 26, Internal Revenue. Sections 203, 204, 210, 211, 214, 218, and 219, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 934, 935, 951, 952, 955, 959, and 960, respectively, of this supplemental title.

940. Earned income, and so forth, defined; additional credit on account of earned income; members of partnerships.—(a) For the purposes of this section—

(1) The term "earned income" means wages, salaries, professional fees, and other amounts received as compensation for personal services actually rendered, but does not include that part of the compensation derived by the taxpayer for personal services rendered by him to a corporation which represents a distribution of earnings or profits rather than a reasonable allowance as compensation for the personal services actually rendered. In the case of a taxpayer engaged in a trade or business in which both personal services and capital are material income producing factors, a reasonable allowance as compensation for the personal services actually rendered by the taxpayer, not in excess of 20 per centum of his share of the net profits of such trade or business, shall be considered as earned income.

(2) The term "earned income deductions" means such deductions as are allowed by section 214 for the purpose of computing net income, and are properly allocable to or chargeable against earned income.

(3) The term "earned net income" means the excess of the amount of the earned income over the sum of the earned income deductions. If the taxpayer's net income is not more than $5,000, his entire net income shall be considered to be earned net income, and if his net income is more than $5,000, his earned net income shall not be considered to be less than $5,000. In no case shall the earned net income be considered to be more than $20,000.

(b) In the case of an individual the tax shall, in addition to the credits provided in section 222, be credited with 25 per centum of the amount of tax which would be payable if his earned net income constituted his entire net income; but in no case shall the credit allowed under this subdivision exceed 25 per centum of his tax under section 210 plus 25 per centum of the tax which would be payable under section 211 if his earned net income constituted his entire net income.

(c) In the case of the members of a partnership the proper part of each share of the net income which consists of earned income shall be determined under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary and shall be separately shown in the return of the partnership and shall be taxed to the member as provided in section 218. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 209, 44 Stat. 20.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Sections 210, 211, 214, 218, and 222, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 951, 952, 955, 959, and 963, respectively, of this supplemental title.

941. Effective date of title.—This title shall take effect as of January 1, 1925, except that section 257 and sections 271 to 285, inclusive, and this section, shall take effect on the enactment of this Act. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 286, 44 Stat. 69.)

New section. "This title" herein referred to constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title. Section 257 and §§ 271 to 285, inclusive, mentioned in the text, are set out in § 1024a and §§ 1045a to 1071, inclusive, respectively, of this supplemental title. "This Act" herein referred to is set out throughout this supplemental title.

PART II.—INDIVIDUALS

951. Normal tax rates; aliens residents of contiguous countries.—(a) In lieu of the tax imposed by section [53] 210 of the Revenue Act of 1924, there shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon the net income of every individual (except as provided in subdivision (b) of this section) a normal tax of 5 per centum of the amount of the net income in excess of the credits provided in section 216, except that in the case of a citizen or resident of the United States the rate upon the first $4,000 of such excess amount shall be 1½ per centum, and upon the next $4,000 of such excess amount shall be 3 per centum;

(b) In lieu of the tax imposed by subdivision (a), there shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon the net income of every nonresident alien individual, a resident of a contiguous country, a normal tax equal to the sum of the following:

(1) 1½ per centum of the amount by which the part of the net income attributable to wages, salaries, professional fees, or other amounts received as compensation for personal services actually performed in the United States, exceeds the credits provided in subdivisions (d) and (e) of section 216; but the amount taxable at such 1½ per centum rate shall not exceed $4,000;

(2) 3 per centum of the amount by which such part of the net income exceeds the sum of (A) the credits provided in subdivisions (d) and (e) of section 216, plus (B) $4,000; but the amount taxable at such 3 per centum rate shall not exceed $4,000; and

(3) 5 per centum of the amount of the net income in excess of the sum of (A) the amount taxed under paragraphs (1) and (2), plus (B) the credits provided in section 216. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 210, 44 Stat. 21.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

952. Surtax; rates; bona fide sales of mines, oil, or gas wells.—(a) In lieu of the tax imposed by section 211 of the Revenue Act of 1924, but in addition to the normal tax imposed by section 210 of this Act, there shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon the net income of every individual a surtax as follows:

Upon a net income of $10,000 there shall be no surtax; upon net incomes in excess of $10,000 and not in excess of $14,000, 1 per centum of such excess.

[53] Section 210 of the Revenue Act of 1924, mentioned in this text, is set out in § 951 of Title 26 (INTERNAL REVENUE) of the Code. Section 216 mentioned herein is set out in § 957 of this supplemental title.

$40 upon net incomes of $14,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $14,000 and not in excess of $16,000, 2 per centum in addition of such excess.

$80 upon net incomes of $16,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $16,000 and not in excess of $18,000, 3 per centum in addition of such excess.

$140 upon net incomes of $18,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $18,000 and not in excess of $20,000, 4 per centum in addition of such excess.

$220 upon net incomes of $20,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $20,000 and not in excess of $22,000, 5 per centum in addition of such excess.

$320 upon net incomes of $22,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $22,000 and not in excess of $24,000, 6 per centum in addition of such excess.

$440 upon net incomes of $24,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $24,000 and not in excess of $28,000, 7 per centum in addition of such excess.

$720 upon net incomes of $28,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $28,000 and not in excess of $32,000, 8 per centum in addition of such excess.

$1,040 upon net incomes of $32,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $32,000 and not in excess of $36,000, 9 per centum in addition of such excess.

$1,400 upon net incomes of $36,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $36,000 and not in excess of $40,000, 10 per centum in addition of such excess.

$1,800 upon net incomes of $40,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $40,000 and not in excess of $44,000, 11 per centum in addition of such excess.

$2,240 upon net incomes of $44,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $44,000 and not in excess of $48,000, 12 per centum in addition of such excess.

$2,720 upon net incomes of $48,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $48,000 and not in excess of $52,000, 13 per centum in addition of such excess.

$3,240 upon net incomes of $52,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $52,000 and not in excess of $56,000, 14 per centum in addition of such excess.

$3,800 upon net incomes of $56,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $56,000 and not in excess of $60,000, 15 per centum in addition of such excess.

$4,400 upon net incomes of $60,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $60,000 and not in excess of $64,000, 16 per centum in addition of such excess.

$5,040 upon net incomes of $64,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $64,000 and not in excess of $70,000, 17 per centum in addition of such excess.

$6,060 upon net incomes of $70,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $70,000 and not in excess of $80,000, 18 per centum in addition of such excess.

$7,860 upon net incomes of $80,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $80,000 and not in excess of $100,000, 19 per centum in addition of such excess.

$11,660 upon net incomes of $100,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $100,000, in addition 20 per centum of such excess.

(b) In the case of a bona fide sale of mines, oil or gas wells, or any interest therein, where the principal value of the property has been demonstrated by prospecting or exploration and discovery work done by the taxpayer, the portion of the tax imposed by this section attributable to such sale shall not exceed 16 per centum of the selling price of such property or interest. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 211, 44 Stat. 21.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Section 211 of the Revenue Act of 1924 mentioned herein is set out in § 952 of Title 26 (INTERNAL REVENUE) of the Code. Section 210 herein referred to is set out in § 951 of this supplemental title.

953. Net income; computation; change of accounting period [installment sales].—(a) In the case of an individual the term "net income" means the gross income as defined in section 213, less the deductions allowed by sections 214 and 206.

(b) The net income shall be computed upon the basis of the taxpayer's annual accounting period (fiscal year or calendar year, as the case may be) in accordance with the method of accounting regularly employed in keeping the books of such taxpayer; but if no such method of accounting has been so employed, or if the method employed does not clearly reflect the income, the computation shall be made in accordance with such method as in the opinion of the commissioner does clearly reflect the income. If the taxpayer's annual accounting period is other than a fiscal year as defined in section 200 or if the taxpayer has no annual accounting period or does not keep books, the net income shall be computed on the basis of the calendar year.

(c) If a taxpayer changes his accounting period from fiscal year to calendar year, from calendar year to fiscal year, or from one fiscal year to another, the net income shall, with the approval of the commissioner, be computed on the basis of such new accounting period, subject to the provisions of section 226.

(d) Under regulations prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, a person who regularly sells or otherwise disposes of personal property on the installment plan may return as income therefrom in any taxable year that proportion of the installment payments actually received in that year which the total profit realized or to be realized when the payment is completed, bears to the total contract price. In the case (1) of a casual sale or other casual disposition of personal property for a price exceeding $1,000, or (2) of a sale or other disposition of real property, if in either case the initial payments do not exceed one-fourth of the purchase price, the income may, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, be returned on the basis and in the manner above prescribed in this subdivision. As used in this subdivision the term "initial payments" means the payments received in cash or property other than evidences of indebtedness of the purchaser during the taxable period in which the sale or other disposition is made. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 212, 44 Stat. 23.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Sections 200, 206, 213, 214, and 226, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 931, 937, 954, 955, and 968, respectively, of this supplemental title.

953a. Retroactive application of section 953; credits and refunds.—The provisions of subdivision (d) of section 212 shall be retroactively applied in computing income under the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1916, the Revenue Act of 1917, the Revenue Act of 1918, the Revenue Act of 1921, or the Revenue Act of 1924, or any of such Acts as amended. Any tax that has been paid under such Acts prior to the enactment of this Act, if in excess of the tax imposed by such Acts as retroactively modified by this section, shall, subject to the statutory period of limitations properly applicable thereto, be credited or refunded to the taxpayer as provided in section 284. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1208, 44 Stat. 130.)

New section. Sections 212 and 284, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 953 and 1065, respectively, of this supplemental title. The Revenue Act of 1924, similarly mentioned, is set out in Title 26 (INTERNAL REVENUE) of the Code.

954. Gross income; what included; what not included.—For the purposes of this title, except as otherwise provided in section 233—

(a) The term "gross income" includes gains, profits, and income derived from salaries, wages, or compensation for personal service (including in the case of the President of the United States, the judges of the Supreme and inferior courts of the United States, and all other officers and employees, whether elected or appointed, of the United States, Alaska, Hawaii, or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, the compensation received as such), of whatever kind and in whatever form paid, or from professions, vocations, trades, businesses, commerce, or sales, or dealings in property, whether real or personal, growing out of the ownership or use of or interest in such property; also from interest, rent, dividends, securities, or the transaction of any business carried on for gain or profit, or gains or profits and income derived from any source whatever. The amount of all such items shall be included in the gross income for the taxable year in which received by the taxpayer, unless, under methods of accounting permitted under subdivision (b) of section 212, any such amounts are to be properly accounted for as of a different period.

(b) The term "gross income" does not include the following items; which shall be exempt from taxation under this title:

(1) Amounts received under a life insurance contract paid by reason of the death of the insured, whether in a single sum or in installments (but if such amounts are held by the insurer under an agreement to pay interest thereon, the interest payments shall be included in gross income);

(2) Amounts received (other than amounts paid by reason of the death of the insured and interest payments on such amounts) under a life insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, but if such amounts (when added to amounts received before the taxable year under such contract) exceed the aggregate premiums or consideration paid (whether or not paid during the taxable year) then the excess shall be included in gross income. In the case of a transfer for a valuable consideration, by assignment or otherwise, of a life insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, or any interest therein, only the actual value of such consideration and the amount of the premiums and other sums subsequently paid by the transferee shall be exempt from taxation under paragraph (1) or this paragraph;

(3) The value of property acquired by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance (but the income from such property shall be included in gross income);

(4) Interest upon (A) the obligations of a State, Territory, or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia; or (B) securities issued under the provisions of the Federal Farm Loan Act, or under the provisions of such Act as amended; or (C) the obligations of the United States or its possessions. Every person owning any of the obligations or securities enumerated in clause (A), (B), or (C) shall, in the return required by this title, submit a statement showing the number and amount of such obligations and securities owned by him and the income received therefrom, in such form and with such information as the Commissioner may require. In the case of obligations of the United States issued after September 1, 1917 (other than postal savings certificates of deposit), the interest shall be exempt only if and to the extent provided in the respective Acts authorizing the issue thereof as amended and supplemented, and shall be excluded from gross income only if and to the extent it is wholly exempt to the taxpayer from income taxes;

(5) The income of foreign governments received from investments in the United States in stocks, bonds, or other domestic securities, owned by such foreign governments, or from interest on deposits in banks in the United States of moneys belonging to such foreign governments, or from any other source within the United States;

(6) Amounts received, through accident or health insurance or under workmen's compensation acts, as compensation for personal injuries or sickness, plus the amount of any damages received whether by suit or agreement on account of such injuries or sickness;

(7) Income derived from any public utility or the exercise of any essential governmental function and accruing to any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or any political subdivision of a State or Territory, or income accruing to the Government of any possession of the United States, or any political subdivision thereof.

Whenever any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or any political subdivision of a State or Territory, prior to September 8, 1916, entered in good faith into a contract with any person, the object and purpose of which is to acquire, construct, operate, or maintain a public utility—

(A) If by the terms of such contract the tax imposed by this title is to be paid out of the proceeds from the operation of such public utility, prior to any division of such proceeds between the person and the State, Territory, political subdivision, or the District of Columbia, and if, but for the imposition of the tax imposed by this title, a part of such proceeds for the taxable year would accrue directly to or for the use of such State, Territory, political subdivision, or the District of Columbia, then a tax upon the net income from the operation of such public utility shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid in the manner and at the rates prescribed in this title, but there shall be refunded to such State, Territory, political subdivision, or the District of Columbia (under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary) an amount which bears the same relation to the amount of the tax as the amount which (but for the imposition of the tax imposed by this title) would have accrued directly to or for the use of such State, Territory, political subdivision, or the District of Columbia, bears to the amount of the net income from the operation of such public utility for such taxable year.

(B) If by the terms of such contract no part of the proceeds from the operation of the public utility for the taxable year would, irrespective of the tax imposed by this title, accrue directly to or for the use of such State, Territory, political subdivision, or the District of Columbia, then the tax upon the net income of such person from the operation of such public utility shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid in the manner and at the rates prescribed in this title;

(8) The income of a nonresident alien or foreign corporation which consists exclusively of earnings derived from the operation of a ship or ships documented under the laws of a foreign country which grants an equivalent exemption to citizens of the United States and to corporations organized in the United States;

(9) Amounts received as compensation, family allotments and allowances under the provisions of the War Risk Insurance and the Vocational Rehabilitation Acts or the World War Veterans' Act, 1924, or as pensions from the United States for service of the beneficiary or another in the military or naval forces of the United States in time of war, or as a State pension for services rendered by the beneficiary or another for which the State is paying a pension;

(10) The amount received by an individual as dividends or interest from domestic building and loan associations, substantially all the business of which is confined to making loans to members, but the amount excluded from gross income under this paragraph in any taxable year shall not exceed $300;

(11) The rental value of a dwelling house and appurtenances thereof furnished to a minister of the gospel as part of his compensation;

(12) The receipts of shipowners' mutual protection and indemnity associations, not organized for profit, and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder; but such corporations shall be subject as other persons to the tax upon their net income from interest, dividends, and rents;

(13) In the case of a person, amounts distributed as dividends to or for his benefit by a corporation organized under the China Trade Act, 1922, if, at the time of such distribution, he is a resident of China, and the equitable right to the income of the shares of stock of the corporation is in good faith vested in him;

(14) In the case of an individual citizen of the United States, a bona fide nonresident of the United States for more than six months during the taxable year, amounts received from sources without the United States if such amounts constitute earned income as defined in section 209; but such individual shall not be allowed as a deduction from his gross income any deductions properly allocable to or chargeable against amounts excluded from gross income under this paragraph.

(c) In the case of a nonresident alien individual, gross income means only the gross income from sources within the United States, determined under the provisions of section 217. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 213, 44 Stat. 23.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This title" mentioned in the text constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title. Sections 209, 212, 217, and 233, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 940, 953, 958, and 985, respectively, of this supplemental title. The Federal Farm Loan Act as amended, referred to herein, is set out in chs. 7, 8, and 9 of title 12, BANKS AND BANKING. The World War Veterans' Act, 1924, mentioned in the text, is set out in c. 10 of Title 38, PENSIONS, BONUSES AND VETERANS' RELIEF. The China Trade Act of 1922, mentioned in the text, is set out in c. 4 of Title 15, COMMERCE AND TRADE.

955. Computation of net income; deductions allowed.—(a) In computing net income there shall be allowed as deductions:

Ordinary expenses incurred during taxable year; salaries; traveling expenses.—(1) All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year in carrying on any trade or business, including a reasonable allowance for salaries or other compensation for personal services actually rendered; traveling expenses (including the entire amount expended for meals and lodging) while away from home in the pursuit of a trade or business; and rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition to the continued use or possession, for purposes of the trade or business, of property to which the taxpayer has not taken or is not taking title or in which he has no equity;

Interest paid or accrued during taxable year; exception.—(2) All interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness, except on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or securities (other than obligations of the United States issued after September 24, 1917, and originally subscribed for by the taxpayer) the interest upon which is wholly exempt from taxation under this title;

Taxes paid or accrued during taxable year.—(3) Taxes paid or accrued within the taxable year except (A) income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes imposed by the authority of the United States, (B) so much of the income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes, imposed by the authority of any foreign country or possession of the United States, as is allowed as a credit under section 222, (C) taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed, and (D) taxes imposed upon the taxpayer upon his interest as shareholder of a corporation, which are paid by the corporation without reimbursement from the taxpayer. For the purpose of this paragraph, estate, inheritance, legacy, and succession taxes accrue on the due date thereof except as otherwise provided by the law of the jurisdiction imposing such taxes;

Losses sustained during taxable year and not compensated.—(4) Losses sustained during the taxable year and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise, if incurred in trade or business;

Same.—(5) Losses sustained during the taxable year and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise, if incurred in any transaction entered into for profit, though not connected with the trade or business; but in the case of a nonresident alien individual only if the profit, if such transaction had resulted in a profit, would be taxable under this title. No deduction shall be allowed under this paragraph for any loss claimed to have been sustained in any sale or other disposition of shares of stock or securities where it appears that within thirty days before or after the date of such sale or other disposition the taxpayer has acquired (otherwise than by bequest or inheritance) or has entered into a contract or option to acquire substantially identical property, and the property so acquired is held by the taxpayer for any period after such sale or other disposition. If such acquisition or the contract or option to acquire is to the extent of part only of substantially identical property, then only a proportionate part of the loss shall be disallowed;

Losses from fires, storms, shipwrecks, and so forth.—(6) Losses sustained during the taxable year of property not connected with the trade or business (but in the case of a nonresident alien individual only property within the United States) if arising from fires, storms, shipwreck, or other casualty, or from theft, and if not compensated for by insurance or otherwise. The basis for determining the amount of the deduction under this paragraph, or paragraph (4) or (5), shall be the same as is provided in section 204 for determining the gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of property;

Worthless debts charged off within taxable year; debts recoverable in part.—(7) Debts ascertained to be worthless and charged off within the taxable year (or, in the discretion of the commissioner, a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts); and when satisfied that a debt is recoverable only in part, the commissioner may allow such debt to be charged off in part;

Exhaustion; wear and tear; obsolescence [apportionment].—(8) A reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear of property used in the trade or business, including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence. In the case of improved real estate held by one person for life with remainder to another person, the deduction provided for in this paragraph shall be equitably apportioned between the life tenant and the remainderman under rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary;

Mines, oil and gas wells; depletion and depreciation.—(9) In the case of mines, oil and gas wells, other natural deposits, and timber, a reasonable allowance for depletion and for depreciation of improvements, according to the peculiar conditions in each case; such reasonable allowance in all cases to be made under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary. In the case of leases the deduction allowed by this paragraph shall be equitably apportioned between the lessor and lessee;

Contributions or gifts.—(10) Contributions or gifts made within the taxable year to or for the use of: (A) The United States, any State, Territory, or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, for exclusively public purposes; (B) any corporation, or trust, or community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual; (C) the special fund for vocational rehabilitation authorized by section 7 of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act; (D) posts or organizations of war veterans, or auxiliary units or societies of any such posts or organizations, if such posts, organizations, units, or societies are organized in the United States or any of its possessions, and if no part of their net earnings inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual; or (E) a fraternal society, order, or association, operating under the lodge system, but only if such contributions or gifts are to be used exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals; to an amount which in all the above cases combined does not exceed 15 per centum of the taxpayer's net income as computed without the benefit of this paragraph, except that if in the taxable year and in each of the ten preceding taxable years the amount in all the above cases combined exceeds 90 per centum of the taxpayer's net income for each such year, as computed without the benefit of this paragraph, then to the full amount of such contributions and gifts made within the taxable year. In case of a nonresident alien individual this deduction shall be allowed only as to contributions or gifts made to domestic corporations, or to community chests, funds, or foundations, created in the United States, or to such vocational rehabilitation fund. Such contributions or gifts shall be allowable as deductions only if verified under rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary.

Casual sale of real property; allowance for future expense liabilities.—(11) In the case of a casual sale or other casual disposition of real property, a reasonable allowance for future expense liabilities, incurred under the provisions of the contract under which such sale or other disposition was made, under such regulations as the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe, including the giving of a bond, with such sureties and in such sum (not less than the estimated tax liability computed without the benefit of this paragraph) as the commissioner may require, conditioned upon the payment (notwithstanding any statute of limitations) of the tax, computed without the benefit of this paragraph, in respect of any amounts allowed as a deduction under this paragraph and not actually expended in carrying out the provisions of such contract.

Nonresident aliens.—(b) In the case of a nonresident alien individual, the deductions allowed in subdivision (a), except those allowed in paragraphs (5), (6), and (10), shall be allowed only if and to the extent that they are connected with income from sources within the United States; and the proper apportionment and allocation of the deductions with respect to sources of income within and without the United States shall be determined as provided in section 217 under rules and regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary. In the case of a citizen entitled to the benefits of section 262 the deductions shall be the same and shall be determined in the same manner as in the case of a nonresident alien individual. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 214, 44 Stat. 26.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This title" herein referred to constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title. Sections 204, 217, 222, and 262 mentioned in the text are set out in §§ 935, 958, 963, and 1030, respectively, of this supplemental title.

956. Same; deductions not allowed.—(a) In computing net income no deduction shall in any case be allowed in respect of—

(1) Personal, living, or family expenses:

(2) Any amount paid out for new buildings or for permanent improvements or betterments made to increase the value of any property or estate;

(3) Any amount expended in restoring property or in making good the exhaustion thereof for which an allowance is or has been made; or

(4) Premiums paid on any life insurance policy covering the life of any officer or employee, or of any person financially interested in any trade or business carried on by the taxpayer, when the taxpayer is directly or indirectly a beneficiary under such policy.

(b) Amounts paid under the laws of any State, Territory, District of Columbia, possession of the United States, or foreign country as income to the holder of a life or terminable interest acquired by gift, bequest, or inheritance shall not be reduced or diminished by any deduction for shrinkage (by whatever name called) in the value of such interest due to the lapse of time, nor by any deduction allowed by this Act for the purpose of computing the net income of an estate or trust but not allowed under the laws of such State, Territory, District of Columbia, possession of the United States, or foreign country for the purpose of computing the income to which such holder is entitled. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 215, 44 Stat. 28.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This Act," herein referred to, constitutes this supplemental title.

957. Credits allowed for purpose of normal tax.—For the purpose of the normal tax only there shall be allowed the following credits:

(a) The amount received as dividends (1) from a domestic corporation other than a corporation entitled to the benefits of section 262, and other than a corporation organized under the China Trade Act, 1922, or (2) from a foreign corporation when it is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that more than 50 per centum of the gross income of such foreign corporation for the three-year period ending with the close of its taxable year preceding the declaration of such dividends (or for such part of such period as the corporation has been in existence) was derived from sources within the United States as determined under the provisions of section 217;

(b) The amount received as interest upon obligations of the United States which is included in gross income under section 213;

(c) In the case of a single person, a personal exemption of $1,500; or in the case of the head of a family or a married person living with husband or wife, a personal exemption of $3,500. A husband and wife living together shall receive but one personal exemption. The amount of such personal exemption shall be $3,500. If such husband and wife make separate returns, the personal exemption may be taken by either or divided between them.

(d) $400 for each person (other than husband or wife) dependent upon and receiving his chief support from the taxpayer if such dependent person is under eighteen years of age or is incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective.

(e) In the case of a nonresident alien individual or of a citizen entitled to the benefits of section 262, the personal exemption shall be only $1,500. The credit provided in subdivision (d) shall not be allowed in the case of a nonresident alien individual unless he is a resident of a contiguous country, nor in the case of a citizen entitled to the benefits of section 262.

(f) (1) The credits allowed by subdivisions (d) and (e) of this section shall be determined by the status of the taxpayer on the last day of his taxable year.

(2) The credit allowed by subdivision (c) of this section shall, in case the status of the taxpayer changes during his taxable year, be the sum of (A) an amount which bears the same ratio to $1,500 as the number of months during which the taxpayer was single bears to twelve months, plus (B) an amount which bears the same ratio to $3,500 as the number of months during which the taxpayer was a married person living with husband or wife or was the head of a family bears to twelve months. For the purposes of this paragraph a fractional part of a month shall be disregarded unless it amounts to more than half a month, in which case it shall be considered as a month.

(3) In the case of an individual who dies during the taxable year, the credits allowed by subdivisions (c), (d), and (e) shall be determined by his status at the time of his death, and in such case full credits shall be allowed to the surviving spouse, if any, according to his or her status at the close of the taxable year. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 216, 44 Stat. 29.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Sections 213, 217, and 262, mentioned in the text are set out in §§ 954, 958, and 1030, respectively, of this supplemental title. The China Trade Act of 1922, herein referred to is set out in c. 4 of Title 15, COMMERCE AND TRADE.

958. Nonresident aliens; gross income from sources within and without United States; deductions; allocation of items; definitions; returns; claims for credits.—(a) In the case of a nonresident alien individual or of a citizen entitled to the benefits of section 262, the following items of gross income shall be treated as income from sources within the United States:

(1) Interest on bonds, notes, or other interest-bearing obligations of residents, corporate or otherwise, not including (A) interest on deposits with persons carrying on the banking business paid to persons not engaged in business within the United States and not having an office or place of business therein, or (B) interest received from a resident alien individual, a resident foreign corporation, or a domestic corporation, when it is shown to the satisfaction of the commissioner that less than 20 per centum of the gross income of such resident payor or domestic corporation has been derived from sources within the United States, as determined under the provisions of this section, for the three-year period ending with the close of the taxable year of such payor preceding the payment of such interest, or for such part of such period as may be applicable;

(2) The amount received as dividends (A) from a domestic corporation other than a corporation entitled to the benefits of section 262, and other than a corporation less than 20 per centum of whose gross income is shown to the satisfaction of the commissioner to have been derived from sources within the United States, as determined under the provisions of this section, for the three-year period ending with the close of the taxable year of such corporation preceding the declaration of such dividends (or for such part of such period as the corporation has been in existence), or (B) from a foreign corporation unless less than 50 per centum of the gross income of such foreign corporation for the three-year period ending with the close of its taxable year preceding the declaration of such dividends (or for such part of such period as the corporation has been in existence) was derived from sources within the United States as determined under the provisions of this section;

(3) Compensation for labor or personal services performed in the United States;

(4) Rentals or royalties from property located in the United States or from any interest in such property, including rentals or royalties for the use of or for the privilege of using in the United States, patents, copyrights, secret processes and formulas, good will, trade-marks, trade brands, franchises, and other like property; and

(5) Gains, profits, and income from the sale of real property located in the United States.

(b) From the items of gross income specified in subdivision (a) there shall be deducted the expenses, losses, and other deductions properly apportioned or allocated thereto and a ratable part of any expenses, losses, or other deductions which can not definitely be allocated to some item or class of gross income. The remainder, if any, shall be included in full as net income from sources within the United States.

(c) The following items of gross income shall be treated as income from sources without the United States:

(1) Interest other than that derived from sources within the United States as provided in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a);

(2) Dividends other than those derived from sources within the United States as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a);

(3) Compensation for labor or personal services performed without the United States;

(4) Rentals or royalties from property located without the United States or from any interest in such property, including rentals or royalties for the use of or for the privilege of using without the United States, patents, copyrights, secret processes and formulas, good will, trade-marks, trade brands, franchises, and other like properties; and

(5) Gains, profits, and income from the sale of real property located without the United States.

(d) From the items of gross income specified in subdivision (c) there shall be deducted the expenses, losses, and other deductions properly apportioned or allocated thereto, and a ratable part of any expenses, losses, or other deductions which can not definitely be allocated to some item or class of gross income. The remainder, if any, shall be treated in full as net income from sources without the United States.

(e) Items of gross income, expenses, losses and deductions, other than those specified in subdivisions (a) and (c), shall be allocated or apportioned to sources within or without the United States under rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary. Where items of gross income are separately allocated to sources within the United States, there shall be deducted (for the purpose of computing the net income therefrom) the expenses, losses and other deductions properly apportioned or allocated thereto and a ratable part of other expenses, losses or other deductions which can not definitely be allocated to some item or class of gross income. The remainder, if any, shall be included in full as net income from sources within the United States. In the case of gross income derived from sources partly within and partly without the United States, the net income may first be computed by deducting the expenses, losses or other deductions apportioned or allocated thereto and a ratable part of any expenses, losses or other deductions which can not definitely be allocated to some items or class of gross income; and the portion of such net income attributable to sources within the United States may be determined by processes or formulas of general apportionment prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary. Gains, profits and income from (1) transportation or other services rendered partly within and partly without the United States, or (2) from the sale of personal property produced (in whole or in part) by the taxpayer within and sold without the United States, or produced (in whole or in part) by the taxpayer without and sold within the United States, shall be treated as derived partly from sources within and partly from sources without the United States. Gains, profits and income derived from the purchase of personal property within and its sale without the United States or from the purchase of personal property without and its sale within the United States, shall be treated as derived entirely from sources within the country in which sold, except that gains, profits and income derived from the purchase of personal property within the United States and its sale within a possession of the United States or from the purchase of personal property within a possession of the United States and its sale within the United States shall be treated as derived partly from sources within and partly from sources without the United States.

(f) As used in this section the words "sale" or "sold" include "exchange" or "exchanged"; and the word "produced" includes "created," "fabricated," "manufactured," "extracted," "processed," "cured," or "aged."

(g) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) a nonresident alien individual or a citizen entitled to the benefits of section

262 shall receive the benefit of the deductions and credits allowed in this title only by filing or causing to be filed with the collector a true and accurate return of his total income received from all sources in the United States, in the manner prescribed in this title; including therein all the information which the commissioner may deem necessary for the calculation of such deductions and credits.

(2) The benefit of the credits allowed in subdivisions (d) and (e) of section 216, and of the reduced rate of tax provided for in subdivision (b) of section 210, may, in the discretion of the commissioner and under regulations prescribed by him with the approval of the Secretary, be received by a nonresident alien individual entitled thereto, by filing a claim therefor with the withholding agent. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 217, 44 Stat. 30.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This title," mentioned in the text constitutes this chapter of this supplemental title. Sections 210, 216, and 262 mentioned in the text are set out in §§ 951, 957, and 1030, respectively, of this supplemental title.

959. Partnerships; credits; net income.—(a) Individuals carrying on business in partnership shall be liable for income tax only in their individual capacity. There shall be included in computing the net income of each partner his distributive share, whether distributed or not, of the net income of the partnership for the taxable year, or, if his net income for such taxable year is computed upon the basis of a period different from that upon the basis of which the net income of the partnership is computed, then his distributive share of the net income of the partnership for any accounting period of the partnership ending within the taxable year upon the basis of which the partner's net income is computed.

(b) The partner shall, for the purpose of the normal tax, be allowed as credits, in addition to the credits allowed to him under section 216, his proportionate share of such amounts specified in subdivisions (a) and (b) of section 216 as are received by the partnership.

(c) The net income of the partnership shall be computed in the same manner and on the same basis as provided in section 212 except that the deduction provided in paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) of section 214 shall not be allowed. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 218, 44 Stat. 32.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Sections 212, 214, and 216 mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 953, 955, and 957, respectively, of this supplemental title.

960. Estates or property held in trust; net incomes; stock bonus or profit sharing plan; revesting or distribution of trusts.—(a) The tax imposed by Parts I and II of this title shall apply to the income of estates or of any kind of property held in trust, including—

(1) Income accumulated in trust for the benefit of unborn or unascertained persons or persons with contingent interests, and income accumulated or held for future distribution under the terms of the will or trust;

(2) Income which is to be distributed currently by the fiduciary to the beneficiaries, and income collected by a guardian of an infant which is to be held or distributed as the court may direct;

(3) Income received by estates of deceased persons during the period of administration or settlement of the estate; and

(4) Income which, in the discretion of the fiduciary, may be either distributed to the beneficiaries or accumulated.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (g) and (h), the tax shall be computed upon the net income of the estate or trust, and shall be paid by the fiduciary. The net income of the estate or trust shall be computed in the same manner and on the same basis as provided in section 212, except that—

(1) There shall be allowed as a deduction (in lieu of the deduction authorized by paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) of section 214) any part of the gross income, without limitation, which pursuant to the terms of the will or deed creating the trust, is during the taxable year paid or permanently set aside for the purposes and in the manner specified in paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) of section 214, or is to be used exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, or for the establishment, acquisition, maintenance or operation of a public cemetery not operated for profit;

(2) There shall be allowed as an additional deduction in computing the net income of the estate or trust the amount of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year which is to be distributed currently by the fiduciary to the beneficiaries, and the amount of the income collected by a guardian of an infant which is to be held or distributed as the court may direct, but the amount so allowed as a deduction shall be included in computing the net income of the beneficiaries whether distributed to them or not. Any amount allowed as a deduction under this paragraph shall not be allowed as a deduction under paragraph (3) in the same or any succeeding taxable year;

(3) In the case of income received by estates of deceased persons during the period of administration or settlement of the estate, and in the case of income which, in the discretion of the fiduciary, may be either distributed to the beneficiary or accumulated, there shall be allowed as an additional deduction in computing the net income of the estate or trust the amount of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year which is properly paid or credited during such year to any legatee, heir, or beneficiary, but the amount so allowed as a deduction shall be included in computing the net income of the legatee, heir, or beneficiary.

(c) For the purpose of the normal tax the estate or trust shall be allowed the same credit as is allowed to a single person under subdivision (c) of section 216, and, if no part of the income of the estate or trust is included in computing the net income of any legatee, heir, or beneficiary, then in addition the same credits as are allowed by subdivisions (a) and (b) of section 216.

(d) If any part of the income of an estate or trust is included in computing the net income of any legatee, heir, or beneficiary, such legatee, heir, or beneficiary shall, for the purpose of the normal tax, be allowed as credits, in addition to the credits allowed to him under section 216, his proportionate share of such amounts specified in subdivisions (a) and (b) of section 216 as are, under this section, required to be included in computing his net income. Any remaining portion of such amounts specified in subdivisions (a) and (b) of section 216 shall, for the purpose of the normal tax, be allowed as credits to the estate or trust.

(e) If the taxable year of a beneficiary is different from that of the estate or trust, the amount which he is required, under paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of this section, to include in computing his net income, shall be based upon the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year ending within his taxable year.

(f) A trust created by an employer as a part of a stock bonus, pension, or profit-sharing plan for the exclusive benefit of some or all of his employees, to which contributions are made by such employer, or employees, or both, for the purpose of distributing to such employees the earnings and principal of the fund accumulated by the trust in accordance with such plan, shall not be taxable under this section, but the amount actually distributed or made available to any distributee shall be taxable to him in the year in which so distributed or made available to the extent that it exceeds the amounts paid in by him. Such distributees shall for the purpose of the normal tax be allowed as credits such part of the amount so distributed or made available as represents the items specified in subdivisions (a) and (b) of section 216.

(g) Where the grantor of a trust has, at any time during the taxable year, either alone or in conjunction with any person not a beneficiary of the trust, the power to revest in himself title to any part of the corpus of the trust, then the income of such part of the trust for such taxable year shall be included in computing the net income of the grantor.

(h) Where any part of the income of a trust may, in the discretion of the grantor of the trust, either alone or in conjunction with any person not a beneficiary of the trust, be distributed to the grantor or be held or accumulated for future distribution to him, or where any part of the income of a trust is or may be applied to the payment of premiums upon policies of insurance on the life of the grantor (except policies of insurance irrevocably payable for the purposes and in the manner specified in paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) of section 214), such part of the income of the trust shall be included in computing the net income of the grantor. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 219, 44 Stat. 32.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"Parts I and II of this title," mentioned in the text, constitute Parts I and II of chapter 19 of this supplemental title.

Sections 212, 214, and 216 mentioned in the text are set out in §§ 953, 955, and 957, respectively, of this supplemental title.

961. Evasion of surtax; accumulated profits of corporations; statements of gains and profits; net income.—(a) If any corporation, however created or organized, is formed or availed of for the purpose of preventing the imposition of the surtax upon its shareholders through the medium of permitting its gains and profits to accumulate instead of being divided or distributed, there shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon the net income of such corporation a tax equal to 50 per centum of the amount thereof, which shall be in addition to the tax imposed by section 230 of this title and shall (except as provided in subdivision (d) of this section) be computed, collected, and paid upon the same basis and in the same manner and subject to the same provisions of law, including penalties, as that tax.

(b) The fact that any corporation is a mere holding or investment company, or that the gains or profits are permitted to accumulate beyond the reasonable needs of the business, shall be prima facie evidence of a purpose to escape the surtax.

(c) When required by the commissioner, or any collector, every corporation shall forward to him a correct statement of such gains and profits and the names and addresses of the individuals or shareholders who would be entitled to the same if divided or distributed, and of the amounts that would be payable to each.

(d) As used in this section the term "net income" means the net income as defined in section 232, increased by the sum of the amount of the deduction allowed under paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of section 234, and the amount of the interest on obligations of the United States issued after September 1, 1917, which would be subject to tax in whole or in part in the hands of an individual owner.

(e) The tax imposed by subdivision (a) of this section shall not apply in respect of any taxable year if all the shareholders of the corporation include (at the time of filing their returns) in their gross income their entire distributive share, whether distributed or not, of the net income of the corporation for such year. Any amount so included in the gross income of a shareholder shall be treated as a dividend received. Any subsequent distribution made by the corporation out of the earnings or profits for such taxable year shall, if distributed to any shareholder who has so included in his gross income his distributive share, be exempt from tax in the amount of the share so included. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 220, 44 Stat. 34.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Sections 230, 232, and 234, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 981, 984, and 986, respectively, of this supplemental title.

962. Taxes to be deducted and withheld at source; returns.—(a) All persons, in whatever capacity acting, including lessees or mortgagors of real or personal property, fiduciaries, employers, and all officers and employees of the United States, having the control, receipt, custody, disposal, or payment of interest (except interest on deposits with persons carrying on the banking business paid to persons not engaged in business in the United States and not having an office or place of business therein), rent, salaries, wages, premiums, annuities, compensations, remunerations, emoluments, or other fixed or determinable annual or periodical gains, profits, and income, of any nonresident alien individual, or of any partnership not engaged in trade or business within the United States and not having any office or place of business therein and composed in whole or in part of nonresident aliens (other than income received as dividends of the class allowed as a credit by subdivision (a) of section 216) shall (except in the cases provided for in subdivision (b) and except as otherwise provided in regulations prescribed by the commissioner under section 217) deduct and withhold from such annual or periodical gains, profits, and income a tax equal to 5 per centum thereof: Provided, That the commissioner may authorize such tax to be deducted and withheld from the interest upon any securities the owners of which are not known to the withholding agent.

(b) In any case where bonds, mortgages, or deeds of trust, or other similar obligations of a corporation contain a contract or provision by which the obligor agrees to pay any portion of the tax imposed by this title upon the obligee, or to reimburse the obligee for any portion of the tax, or to pay the interest without deduction for any tax which the obligor may be required or permitted to pay thereon, or to retain therefrom under any law of the United States, the obligor shall deduct and withhold a tax equal to 2 per centum of the interest upon such bonds, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other obligations, whether such interest is payable annually or at shorter or longer periods and whether payable to a nonresident alien individual or to an individual citizen or resident of the United States or to a partnership: Provided, That the commissioner may authorize such tax to be deducted and withheld in the case of interest upon any such bonds, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other obligations, the owners of which are not known to the withholding agent. Such deduction and withholding shall not be required in the case of a citizen or resident entitled to receive such interest, if he files with the withholding agent on or before February 1 a signed notice in writing claiming the benefit of the credits provided in subdivisions (c) and (d) of section 216; nor in the case of a nonresident alien individual if so provided for in regulations prescribed by the commissioner under subdivision (g) of section 217. Such deduction and withholding shall be at the rate of 1½ per centum instead of at the rate of 2 per centum in the case of a citizen or resident entitled to receive such interest if he files with the withholding agent on or before February 1 a signed notice in writing that his net income in excess of the credits provided in section 216 does not exceed $4,000.

(c) Every person required to deduct and withhold any tax under this section shall make return thereof on or before March 15 of each year and shall on or before June 15 pay the tax to the official of the United States Government authorized to receive it. Every such person is hereby made liable for such tax and is hereby indemnified against the claims and demands of any person for the amount of any payments made in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(d) Income upon which any tax is required to be withheld at the source under this section shall be included in the return of the recipient of such income, but any amount of tax so withheld shall be credited against the amount of income tax as computed in such return.

(e) If any tax required under this section to be deducted and withheld is paid by the recipient of the income, it shall not be re-collected from the withholding agent; nor in cases in which the tax is so paid shall any penalty be imposed upon or collected from the recipient of the income or the withholding agent for failure to return or pay the same, unless such failure was fraudulent and for the purpose of evading payment. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 221, 44 Stat. 35.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This title" mentioned in the text constitutes chapter 19 of this supplemental title. Sections 216 and 217, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 957 and 958, respectively, of this supplemental title.

963. Credits.—(a) The tax computed under Parts I and II of this title shall be credited with:

(1) In the case of a citizen of the United States the amount of any income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year to any foreign country or to any possession of the United States; and

(2) In the case of a resident of the United States, the amount of any such taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year to any possession of the United States; and

(3) In the case of an alien resident of the United States, the amount of any such taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year to any foreign country, if the foreign country of which such alien resident is a citizen or subject, in imposing such taxes, allows a similar credit to citizens of the United States residing in such country; and

(4) In the case of any such individual who is a member of a partnership or a beneficiary of an estate or trust, his proportionate share of such taxes of the partnership or the estate or trust paid or accrued during the taxable year to a foreign country or to any possession of the United States, as the case may be.

(5) The above credits shall not be allowed in the case of a citizen entitled to the benefits of section 262; and in no other case shall the amount of credit taken under this subdivision exceed the same proportion of the tax (computed on the basis of the taxpayer's net income without the deduction of any income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax any part of which may be allowed to him as a credit by this section), against which such credit is taken, which the taxpayer's net income (computed without the deduction of any such income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax) from sources without the United States bears to his entire net income (computed without such deduction) for the same taxable year.

(b) If accrued taxes when paid differ from the amounts claimed as credits by the taxpayer, or if any tax paid is refunded in whole or in part, the taxpayer shall notify the commissioner, who shall redetermine the amount of the tax due under Parts I and II of this title for the year or years affected, and the amount of tax due upon such redetermination, if any, shall be paid by the taxpayer upon notice and demand by the collector, or the amount of tax overpaid, if any, shall be credited or refunded to the taxpayer in accordance with the provisions of section 284. In the case of such a tax accrued but not paid, the commissioner as a condition precedent to the allowance of this credit may require the taxpayer to give a bond with sureties satisfactory to and to be approved by the commissioner in such sum as the commissioner may require, conditioned upon the payment by the taxpayer of any amount of tax found due upon any such redetermination; and the bond herein prescribed shall contain such further conditions as the commissioner may require.

(c) The credits provided for in subdivision (a) of this section may, at the option of the taxpayer and irrespective of the method of accounting employed in keeping his books, be taken in the year in which the taxes of the foreign country or the possession of the United States accrued, subject, however, to the conditions prescribed in subdivision (b) of this section. If the taxpayer elects to take such credits in the year in which the taxes of the foreign country or the possesion of the United States accrued, the credits for all subsequent years shall be taken upon the same basis.

(d) These credits shall be allowed only if the taxpayer furnishes evidence satisfactory to the commissioner showing the amount of income derived from sources without the United States, and all other information necessary for the verification and computation of such cerdits. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 222, 44 Stat. 36.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Parts I and II of this title mentioned in the text constitute Parts I and II of chapter 19 of this supplemental title. Sections 262 and 284, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 1030 and 1065, respectively, of this supplemental title.

964. Returns; persons required to make.—(a) The following individuals shall each make under oath a return stating specifically the items of his gross income and the deductions and credits allowed under this title—

(1) Every individual having a net income for the taxable year of $1,500 or over, if single, or if married and not living with husband or wife;

(2) Every individual having a net income for the taxable year of $3,500 or over, if married and living with husband or wife; and

(3) Every individual having a gross income for the taxable year of $5,000 or over, regardless of the amount of his net income.

(b) If a husband and wife living together have an aggregate net income for the taxable year of $3,500 or over, or an aggregate gross income for such year of $5,000 or over—

(1) Each shall make such a return, or

(2) The income of each shall be included in a single joint return, in which case the tax shall be computed on the aggregate income.

(c) If the taxpayer is unable to make his own return, the return shall be made by a duly authorized agent or by the guardian or other person charged with the care of the person or property of such taxpayers. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 223, 44 Stat. 37.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This title" referred to herein constitutes chapter 19 of this supplemental title.

964a. Same; community property; credit or refund.—Income for any period before January 1, 1925, of a marital community in the income of which the wife has a vested interest as distinguished from an expectancy, shall be held to be correctly returned if returned by the spouse to whom the income belonged under the State law applicable to such marital community for such period. Any spouse who elected so to return such income shall not be entitled to any credit or refund on the ground that such income should have been returned by the other spouse. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1212, 44 Stat. 130.)

New section.

965. Same; partnerships.—Every partnership shall make a return for each taxable year, stating specifically the items of its gross income and the deductions allowed by this title, and shall include in the return the names and addresses of the individuals who would be entitled to share in the net income if distributed and the amount of the distributive share of each individual. The return shall be sworn to by any one of the partners. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 224, 44 Stat. 37.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This title," referred to herein, constitutes chapter 19 of this supplemental title.

966. Same; fiduciaries; when required; contents; verification.—(a) Every fiduciary (except a receiver appointed by authority of law in possession of part only of the property of an individual) shall make under oath a return for any of the following individuals, estates, or trusts for which he acts, stating specifically the items of gross income thereof and the deductions and credits allowed under this title—

(1) Every individual having a net income for the taxable year of $1,500 or over, if single, or if married and not living with husband or wife;

(2) Every individual having a net income for the taxable year of $3,500 or over, if married and living with husband or wife;

(3) Every individual having a gross income for the taxable year of $5,000 or over, regardless of the amount of his net income;

(4) Every estate or trust the net income of which for the taxable year is $1,500 or over;

(5) Every estate or trust the gross income of which for the taxable year is $5,000 or over, regardless of the amount of the net income; and

(6) Every estate or trust of which any beneficiary is a nonresident alien.

(b) Under such regulations as the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary may prescribe a return made by one of two or more joint fiduciaries and filed in the office of the collector of the district where such fiduciary resides shall be sufficient compliance with the above requirement. Such fiduciary shall make oath (1) that he has sufficient knowledge of the affairs of the individual, estate or trust for which the return is made, to enable him to make the return, and (2) that the return is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, true and correct. Any fiduciary required to make a return under this Act shall be subject to all the provisions of this Act which apply to individuals. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 225, 44 Stat. 37.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This title," referred to herein, constitutes chapter 19 of this supplemental title. "This Act," mentioned in the text, constitutes this supplemental title.

967. Same; time for making; to whom made.—(a) Returns (except in the case of nonresident aliens) shall be made on or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the fiscal year, or, if the return is made on the basis of the calendar year, then the return shall be made on or before the 15th day of March. In the case of a nonresident alien individual returns shall be made on or before the fifteenth day of the sixth month following the close of the fiscal year, or, if the return is made on the basis of the calendar year, then the return shall be made on or before the 15th day of June. The commissioner may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing returns, under such rules and regulations as he shall prescribe with the approval of the Secretary. Except in the case of taxpayers who are abroad, no such extension shall be for more than six months.

(b) Returns shall be made to the collector for the district in which is located the legal residence or principal place of business of the person making the return, or, if he has no legal residence or principal place of business in the United States, then to the collector at Baltimore, Maryland. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 227, 44 Stat. 39.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

968. Returns on change from fiscal to calendar year, or vice versa; computation of net income.—(a) If a taxpayer, with the approval of the commissioner, changes the basis of computing net income from fiscal year to calendar year a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the last fiscal year for which return was made and the following December 31. If the change is from calendar year to fiscal year, a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the last calendar year for which return was made and the date designated as the close of the fiscal year. If the change is from one fiscal year to another fiscal year a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the former fiscal year and the date designated as the close of the new fiscal year.

(b) Where a separate return is so made, and in all other cases where a separate return is required or permitted, by regulations prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, to be made for a fractional part of a year, then the income shall be computed on the basis of the period for which separate return is made.

(c) If a separate return is made under subdivision (a) the net income, computed in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (b), shall be placed on an annual basis by multiplying the amount thereof by twelve and dividing by the number of months included in the period for which the separate return is made. The tax shall be such part of the tax computed on such annual basis as the number of months in such period is of twelve months.

(d) The commissioner with the approval of the Secretary shall by regulations prescribe the method of applying the provisions of subdivisions (b) and (c) to cases where the taxpayer makes a separate return under subdivision (a) and it appears that for the period for which the return is so made he has derived a capital net gain, or sustained a capital net loss, or received earned income.

(e) In the case of a return made for a fractional part of a year, except a return made under subdivision (a), the credits provided in subdivisions (c), (d), and (e) of section 216 shall be reduced respectively to amounts which bear the same ratio to the full credits provided in such subdivisions as the number of months in the period for which return is made bears to twelve months. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 226, 44 Stat. 38.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Section 216 mentioned in the text is set out in § 957 of this supplemental title.

PART III. CORPORATIONS

981. Rate [installment payments].—(a) In lieu of the tax imposed by section 230 of the Revenue Act of 1924, there shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon the net income of every corporation, a tax at the following rates:

(1) For the calendar year 1925, 13 per centum of the amount of the net income in excess of the credits provided in sections 236 and 263; and

(2) For each calendar year thereafter 13½ per centum of such excess amount.

(b) A taxpayer whose taxable year is the calendar year and who elects for the calendar year 1925 to pay the tax imposed by this section in four installments as provided in section 270, shall pay such installments in amounts as follows:

(1) The amount of the first and second installments shall each equal 24 per centum of the tax; and

(2) The amount of the third and fourth installments shall each equal 26 per centum of the tax. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 230, 44 Stat. 39.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Section 230 of the Revenue Act of 1924, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 981 of Title 26 (INTERNAL REVENUE) of the Code. Sections 236 and 263, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 988 and 1031, respectively, of this supplemental title. Section 270, herein referred to, is set out in §§ 1041 to 1044, inclusive, of this supplemental title.

982. Organizations exempted.—The following organizations shall be exempt from taxation under this title—

Labor, agricultural, or horticultural organizations.—(1) Labor, agricultural, or horticultural organizations;

Mutual savings banks.—(2) Mutual savings banks not having a capital stock represented by shares;

Fraternal beneficiary societies, orders and so forth.—(3) Fraternal beneficiary societies, orders, or associations, (a) operating under the lodge system or for the exclusive benefit of the members of a fraternity itself operating under the lodge system; and (b) providing for the payment of life, sick, accident, or other benefits to the members of such society, order, or association or their dependents;

Domestic building and loan associations; cooperative banks operated without profit.—(4) Domestic building and loan associations substantially all the business of which is confined to making loans to members; and cooperative banks without capital stock organized and operated for mutual purposes and without profit;

Cemetery companies for benefit of members.—(5) Cemetery companies owned and operated exclusively for the benefit of their members or which are not operated for profit; and any corporation chartered solely for burial purposes as a cemetery corporation and not permitted by its charter to engage in any business not necessarily incident to that purpose, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual;

Corporations, community chest, foundations, and so forth, for religious and charitable purposes.—(6) Corporations, and any community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual;

Business leagues, chambers of commerce, and so forth.—(7) Business leagues, chambers of commerce, or boards of trade, not organized for profit and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual;

Civic leagues or organizations for promotion of social welfare; associations of employees.—(8) Civic leagues or organizations not organized for profit but operated exclusively for the promotion of social welfare, or local associations of employees, the membership of which is limited to the employees of a designated person or persons in a particular municipality, and the net earnings of which are devoted exclusively to charitable, educational, or recreational purposes;

Clubs for nonprofitable purposes.—(9) Clubs organized and operated exclusively for pleasure, recreation, and other nonprofitable purposes, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder;

Benevolent life insurance associations [other mutual companies]; conditions.—(10) Benevolent life insurance associations of a purely local character, mutual ditch or irrigation companies, mutual or cooperative telephone companies, or like organizations; but only if 85 per centum or more of the income consists of amounts collected from members for the sole purpose of meeting losses and expenses;

Mutual hail, cyclone, and insurance companies.—(11) Farmers' or other mutual hail, cyclone, casualty, or fire insurance companies or associations (including interinsurers and reciprocal underwriters) the income of which is used or held for the purpose of paying losses or expenses;

Associations for marketing produce of members.—(12) Farmers', fruit growers', or like associations organized and operated on a cooperative basis (a) for the purpose of marketing the products of members or other producers, and turning back to them the proceeds of sales, less the necessary marketing expenses, on the basis of either the quantity or the value of the products furnished by them, or (b) for the purpose of purchasing supplies and equipment for the use of members or other persons, and turning over such supplies and equipment to them at actual cost, plus necessary expenses. Exemption shall not be denied any such association because it has capital stock, if the dividend rate of such stock is fixed at not to exceed the legal rate of interest in the State of incorporation or 8 per centum per annum, whichever is greater, on the value of the consideration for which the stock was issued, and if substantially all such stock (other than nonvoting preferred stock, the owners of which are not entitled or permitted to participate, directly or indirectly, in the profits of the association, upon dissolution or otherwise, beyond the fixed dividends) is owned by producers who market their products or purchase their supplies and equipment through the association; nor shall exemption be denied any such association because there is accumulated and maintained by it a reserve required by State law or a reasonable reserve for any necessary purpose.

Such an association may market the products of nonmembers in an amount the value of which does not exceed the value of the products marketed for members, and may purchase supplies and equipment for nonmembers in an amount the value of which does not exceed the value of the supplies and equipment purchased for members, provided the value of the purchases made for persons who are neither members nor producers does not exceed 15 per centum of the value of all its purchases;

Corporations for holding title to property, and so forth.—(13) Corporations organized for the exclusive purpose of holding title to property, collecting income therefrom, and turning over the entire amount thereof, less expenses, to an organization which itself is exempt from the tax imposed by this title; and

Federal land banks; national farm loan associations, and so forth.—(14) Federal land banks, national farm-loan associations, and Federal intermediate credit banks, as provided in the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 231, 44 Stat. 39.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title. The Federal Farm Loan Act, mentioned in the text, is set out in chs. 7, 8, and 9 of Title 12, Banks and Banking.

984. Computation of net income.—In the case of a corporation subject to the tax imposed by section 230 the term "net income" means the gross income as defined in section 233 less the deductions allowed by sections 234 and 206, and the net income shall be computed on the same basis as is provided in subdivisions (b) and (d) of section 212 or in section 226. In the case of a foreign corporation or of a corporation entitled to the benefits of section 262 the computation shall also be made in the manner provided in section 217. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 232, 44 Stat. 41.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Sections 206, 212, 217, 226, 230, 233, 234, and 262, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 937, 953, 958, 968, 981, 985, 986, and 1030, respectively, of this supplemental title.

985. Gross income.—(a) In the case of a corporation subject to the tax imposed by section 230 the term "gross income" means the gross income as defined in sections 213 and 217, except that mutual marine insurance companies shall include in gross income the gross premiums collected and received by them less amounts paid for reinsurance.

(b) In the case of a foreign corporation, gross income means only gross income from sources within the United States, determined (except in the case of insurance companies subject to the tax imposed by sections 243 or 246) in the manner provided in section 217. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 233, 44 Stat. 41.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Sections 213, 217, 230, 243, and 246, herein referred to, are set out in §§ 954, 958, 981, 1001, and 1006, respectively, of this supplemental title.

986. Deductions allowable in computing net income.—(a) In computing the net income of a corporation subject to the tax imposed by section 230 there shall be allowed as deductions:

Ordinary and necessary expenditure incurred during taxable year; salaries; rentals.—(1) All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year in carrying on any trade or business, including a reasonable allowance for salaries or other compensation for personal services actually rendered, and including rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition to the continued use or possession of property to which the corporation has not taken or is not taking title, or in which it has no equity.

Interest paid or accrued within taxable year.—(2) All interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on its indebtedness, except on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or securities (other than obligations of the United States issued after September 24, 1917, and originally subscribed for by the taxpayer) the interest upon which is wholly exempt from taxation under this title;

Taxes paid or accrued within taxable year.—(3) Taxes paid or accrued within the taxable year except (A) income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes imposed by the authority of the United States, (B) so much of the income, war-profits and excess-profits taxes imposed by the authority of any foreign country or possession of the United States as is allowed as a credit under section 238, and (C) taxes assesed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed. In the case of obligors specified in subdivision (b) of section 221 no deduction for the payment of the tax imposed by this title, or any other tax paid pursuant to the tax-free covenant clause, shall be allowed, nor shall such tax be included in the gross income of the obligee. The deduction allowed by this paragraph shall be allowed in the case of taxes imposed upon a shareholder of a corporation upon his interest as shareholder, which are paid by the corporation without reimbursement from the shareholder, but in such cases no deduction shall be allowed the shareholder for the amount of such taxes. For the purpose of this paragraph, estate, inheritance, legacy, and succession taxes accrue on the due date thereof except as otherwise provided by law of the jurisdiction imposing such taxes;

Losses sustained during taxable year without compensation.—(4) Losses sustained during the taxable year and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise. No deduction shall be allowed under this paragraph for any loss claimed to have been sustained in any sale or other disposition of shares of stock or securities where it appears that within thirty days before or after the date of such sale or other disposition the taxpayer has acquired (otherwise than by bequest or inheritance) or has entered into a contract or option to acquire substantially identical property, and the property so acquired is held by the taxpayer for any period after such sale or other disposition, unless such claim is made by a dealer in stock or securities and with respect to a transaction made in the ordinary course of its business. If such acquisition or the contract or option to acquire is to the extent of part only of substantially identical property, then only a proportionate part of the loss shall be disallowed. The basis for determining the amount of the deduction for losses sustained shall be the same as is provided in section 204 for determining the gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of property;

Worthless debts charged off within taxable year; reserve for bad debts; debts recoverable in part.—(5) Debts ascertained to be worthless and charged off within the taxable year (or in the discretion of the commissioner, a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts); and when satisfied that a debt is recoverable only in part, the commissioner may allow such debt to be charged off in part;

Dividends received.—(6) The amount received as dividends (A) from a domestic corporation other than a corporation entitled to the benefits of section 262, and other than a corporation organized under the China Trade Act, 1922, or (B) from any foreign corporation when it is shown to the satisfaction of the commissioner that more than 50 per centum of the gross income of such foreign corporation for the three-year period ending with the close of its taxable year preceding the declaration of such dividends (or for such part of such period as the foreign corporation has been in existence) was derived from sources within the United States as determined under section 217;

Exhaustion, wear and tear of property; obsolescence.—(7) A reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear of property used in the trade or business, including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence;

Mines, oil and gas wells; depletion and depreciation.—(8) In the case of mines, oil and gas wells, other natural deposits, and timber, a reasonable allowance for depletion and for depreciation of improvements, according to the peculiar conditions in each case; such reasonable allowance in all cases to be made under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary. In the case of leases the deductions allowed by this paragraph shall be equitably apportioned between the lessor and lessee;

Insurance companies (other than life insurance companies); additional deductions.—(9) In the case of insurance companies (other than life insurance companies), in addition to the above (unless otherwise allowed): (A) The net addition required by law to be made within the taxable year to reserve funds (including in the case of assessment insurance companies the actual deposit of sums with State or Territorial officers pursuant to law as additions to guarantee or reserve funds); and (B) the sums other than dividends paid within the taxable year on policy and annuity contracts. This paragraph shall apply only to mutual insurance companies other than life insurance companies;

Mutual marine insurance companies; additional deductions.—(10) In the case of mutual marine insurance companies, there shall be allowed, in addition to the deductions allowed in paragraphs (1) to (9), inclusive, unless otherwise allowed, amounts repaid to policyholders on account of premiums previously paid by them, and interest paid upon such amounts between the ascertainment and the payment thereof;

Mutual insurance companies requiring premium deposits.—(11) In the case of mutual insurance companies (including interinsurers and reciprocal underwriters, but not including mutual life or mutual marine insurance companies) requiring their members to make premium deposits to provide for losses and expenses, there shall be allowed, in addition to the deductions allowed in paragraphs (1) to (9), inclusive, unless otherwise allowed, the amount of premium deposits returned to their policyholders and the amount of premium deposits retained for the payment of losses, expenses, and reinsurance reserves.

Deductions allowable only to extent of income within United States.—(b) In the case of a foreign corporation or of a corporation entitled to the benefits of section 262 the deductions allowed in subdivision (a) shall be allowed only if and to the extent that they are connected with income from sources within the United States; and the proper apportionment and allocation of the deductions with respect to sources within and without the United States shall be determined as provided in section 217 under rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 234, 44 Stat. 41.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title. The China Trade Act of 1922, mentioned in the text, constitutes c. 4 of Title 15, COMMERCE AND TRADE. Sections 204, 217, 221, 230, 238, and 262, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 935, 958, 962, 981, 990, and 1030, respectively, of this supplemental title.

987. Same; items not allowed.—In computing net income no deduction shall in any case be allowed in respect of any of the items specified in section 215. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 235, 44 Stat. 43.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.
Section 215, herein referred to, is set out in § 956 of this supplemental title.

988. Credits allowed.—For the purpose only of the tax imposed by section 230 there shall be allowed the following credits:

(a) The amount received as interest upon obligations of the United States which is included in gross income under section 233; and

(b) In the case of a domestic corporation the net income of which is $25,000 or less, a specific credit of $2,000; but if the net income is more than $25,000 the tax imposed by section 230 shall not exceed the tax which would be payable if the $2,000 credit were allowed, plus the amount of the net income in excess of $25,000. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 236, 44 Stat. 43.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.
Sections 230 and 233, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 981 and 985, respectively, of this supplemental title.

989. Foreign corporations; deduction and withholding of tax at source.—In the case of foreign corporations subject to taxation under this title not engaged in trade or business within the United States and not having any office or place of business therein, there shall be deducted and withheld at the source in the same manner and upon the same items of income as is provided in section 221 a tax equal to 12½ per centum thereof in respect of all payments of income made before the enactment of this Act, and equal to 13½ per centum thereof in respect of all payments of income made after the enactment of this Act, and such tax shall be returned and paid in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as provided in that section: Provided, That in the case of interest described in subdivision (b) of that section the deduction and withholding shall be at the rate of 2 per centum. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 237, 44 Stat. 43.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.
"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title. Section 221, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 962 of this supplemental title.

990. Credit for other taxes paid.—(a) In the case of a domestic corporation the tax imposed by this title shall be credited with the amount of any income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes paid or accrued during the same taxable year to any foreign country, or to any possession of the United States: Provided, That the amount of such credit shall in no case exceed the same proportion of the tax (computed on the basis of the taxpayer's net income without the deduction of any income, war-profits, or excess-profits taxes imposed by any foreign country or possession of the United States), against which such credit is taken, which the taxpayer's net income (computed without the deduction of any such income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax) from sources without the United States bear to its entire net income (computed without such deduction) for the same taxable year. In the case of domestic insurance companies subject to the tax imposed by section 243 or 246, the term "net income" as used in this subdivision means net income as defined in sections 245 and 246, respectively.

(b) If accrued taxes when paid differ from the amounts claimed as credits by the corporation, or if any tax paid is refunded in whole or in part, the corporation shall at once notify the commissioner, who shall redetermine the amount of the taxes for the year or years affected, and the amount of taxes due upon such redetermination, if any, shall be paid by the corporation upon notice and demand by the collector, or the amount of taxes overpaid, if any, shall be credited, or refunded to the corporation in accordance with the provisions of section 284. In the case of such a tax accrued but not paid, the commissioner as a condition precedent to the allowance of this credit may require the corporation to give a bond with sureties satisfactory to and to be approved by him in such sum as he may require, conditioned upon the payment by the taxpayer of any amount of taxes found due upon any such redetermination; and the bond herein prescribed shall contain such further conditions as the commissioner may require.

(c) The credits provided for in subdivision (a) of this section may, at the option of the taxpayer and irrespective of the method of accounting employed in keeping its books, be taken in the year in which the taxes of the foreign country or the possession of the United States accrued, subject, however, to the conditions prescribed in subdivision (b) of this section. If the taxpayer elects to take such credits in the year in which the taxes of the foreign country or the possession of the United States accrued, the credits for all subsequent years shall be taken upon the same basis.

(d) These credits shall be allowed only if the taxpayer furnishes evidence satisfactory to the commissioner showing the amount of income derived from sources without the United States, and all other information necessary for the verification and computation of such credit.

(e) For the purposes of this section a domestic corporation which owns a majority of the voting stock of a foreign corporation from which it receives dividends (not deductible under section 234) in any taxable year shall be deemed to have paid the same proportion of any income, war-profits, or excess-profits taxes paid by such foreign corporation to any foreign country or to any possession of the United States, upon or with respect to the accumulated profits of such foreign corporation from which such dividends were paid, which the amount of such dividends bears to the amount of such accumulated profits: Provided, That the credit allowed to any domestic corporation under this subdivision shall in no case exceed the same proportion of the taxes against which it is credited, which the amount of such dividends bears to the amount of the entire net income of the domestic corporation in which such dividends are included. The term "accumulated profits" when used in this subdivision in reference to a foreign corporation, means the amount of its gains, profits, or income in excess of the income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes imposed upon or with respect to such profits or income; and the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary shall have full power to determine from the accumulated profits of what year or years such dividends were paid; treating dividends paid in the first sixty days of any year as having been paid from the accumulated profits of the preceding year or years (unless to his satisfaction shown otherwise), and in other respects treating dividends as having been paid from the most recently accumulated gains, profits, or earnings. In the case of a foreign corporation, the income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes of which are determined on the basis of an accounting period of less than one year, the word "year" as used in this subdivision shall be construed to mean such accounting period.

(f) For the purposes of this section a corporation entitled to the benefits of section 262 or 263 shall be treated as a foreign corporation. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 238, 44 Stat. 44.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.
"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title. Sections 234, 243, 246, 262, and 263, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 980, 1001, 1006, 1030, and 1031, respectively, of this supplemental title. Section 245, mentioned in the text, is set out in §§ 1004 and 1005 of said title.

991. Tax returns; form and contents; verification.—(a) Every corporation subject to taxation under this title shall make a return, stating specifically the items of its gross income and the deductions and credits allowed by this title. The return shall be sworn to by the president, vice president, or other principal officer and by the treasurer or assistant treasurer. If any foreign corporation has no office or place of business in the United States but has an agent in the United States, the return shall be made by the agent. In cases where receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, or assignees are operating the property or business of corporations, such receivers, trustees, or assignees shall make returns for such corporations in the same manner and form as corporations are required to make returns. Any tax due on the basis of such returns made by receivers, trustees, or assignees shall be collected in the same manner as if collected from the corporations of whose business or property they have custody and control.

(b) Returns made under this section shall be subject to the provisions of section 226. In the case of a return made for a fractional part of a year, except a return made under subdivision (a) of section 226, the credit provided in subdivision (b) of section 236 shall be reduced to an amount which bears the same ratio to the full credit therein provided as the number of months in the period for which the return is made bears to twelve months.

(c) There shall be included in the return or appended thereto a statement of such facts as will enable the commissioner to determine the portion of the earnings or profits of the corporation (including gains, profits and income not taxed) accumulated during the taxable year for which the return is made, which have been distributed or ordered to be distributed, respectively, to its shareholders during such year. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 239, 44 Stat. 45.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title. Sections 226 and 236 mentioned in the text are set out in §§ 968 and 988, respectively, of this supplemental title.

992. Same; time for making; to whom made.—(a) Returns of corporations shall be made at the same time as is provided in subdivision (a) of section 227, except that in the case of foreign corporations not having any office or place of business in the United States returns shall be made at the same time as provided in section 227 in the case of a nonresident alien individual.

(b) Returns shall be made to the collector of the district in which is located the principal place of business or principal office or agency of the corporation, or, if it has no principal place of business or principal office or agency in the United States, then to the collector at Baltimore, Maryland. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 241, 44 Stat. 46.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Section 227, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 967 of this supplemental title.

993. Affiliated corporations; separate or consolidated returns; foreign corporations.—(a) Corporations which are affiliated within the meaning of this section may, for any taxable year, make separate returns or, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, make a consolidated return of net income for the purpose of this title, in which case the taxes thereunder shall be computed and determined upon the basis of such return. If return is made on either of such bases, all returns thereafter made shall be upon the same basis unless permission to change the basis is granted by the commissioner.

(b) In any case in which a tax is assessed upon the basis of a consolidated return, the total tax shall be computed in the first instance as a unit and shall then be assessed upon the respective affiliated corporations in such proportions as may be agreed upon among them, or, in the absence of any such agreement, then on the basis of the net income properly assignable to each. There shall be allowed in computing the income tax only one specific credit computed as provided in subdivision (b) of section 236.

(c) For the purpose of this section two or more domestic corporations shall be deemed to be affiliated (1) if one corporation owns at least 95 per centum of the voting stock of the other or others, or (2) if at least 95 per centum of the voting stock of two or more corporations is owned by the same interests. This subdivision shall be applicable to the determination of affiliation for the taxable year 1925.

(d) For the purpose of this section two or more domestic corporations shall be deemed to be affiliated (1) if one corporation owns at least 95 per centum of the stock of the other or others, or (2) if at least 95 per centum of the stock of two or more corporations is owned by the same interests. As used in this subdivision the term "stock" does not include nonvoting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends. This subdivision shall be applicable to the determination of affiliation for the taxable year 1926 and each taxable year thereafter.

(e) A corporation organized under the China Trade Act, 1922, shall not be deemed to be affiliated with any other corporation within the meaning of this section.

(f) In any case of two or more related trades or businesses (whether unincorporated or incorporated and whether organized in the United States or not) owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the same interests, the commissioner may and at the request of the taxpayer shall, if necessary in order to make an accurate distribution or apportionment of gains, profits, income, deductions, or capital between or among such related trades or businesses, consolidate the accounts of such related trades or businesses.

(g) For the purposes of this section a corporation entitled to the benefits of section 262 shall be treated as a foreign corporation. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 240, 44 Stat. 46.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title. China Trade Act, 1922, mentioned in the text, constitutes c. 4 of Title 15, COMMERCE AND TRADE. Sections 236 and 262 mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 988 and 1030, respectively, of this supplemental title.

INSURANCE COMPANIES

1001. Same; taxes imposed in lieu of other taxes.—In lieu of the tax imposed by section 230, there shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon the net income of every life insurance company a tax as follows:

(1) In the case of a domestic life insurance company, 12½ per centum of its net income.

(2) In the case of a foreign life insurance company, 12½ per centum of its net income from sources within the United States. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 243, 44 Stat. 47.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Section 230 is set out in § 981 of this supplemental title.

1002. Life insurance companies; definition of.—When used in this title the term "life insurance company" means an insurance company engaged in the business of issuing life insurance and annuity contracts (including contracts of combined life, health, and accident insurance), the reserve funds of which held for the fulfillment of such contracts comprise more than 50 per centum of its total reserve funds. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 242, 44 Stat. 47.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title.

1003. Same; gross income; reserve fund required by law.—(a) In the case of a life insurance company the term "gross income" means the gross amount of income received during the taxable year from interest, dividends, and rents.

(b) The term "reserve funds required by law" includes, in the case of assessment insurance, sums actually deposited by any company or association with State or Territorial officers pursuant to law as guaranty or reserve funds, and any funds maintained under the charter or articles of incorporation of the company or association exclusively for the payment of claims arising under certificates of membership or policies issued upon the assessment plan and not subject to any other use. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 244, 44 Stat. 47.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

1004. Same; net income; computation; credits; deductions.—(a) In the case of a life insurance company the term "net income" means the gross income less—

(1) The amount of interest received during the taxable year which under paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of section 213 is exempt from taxation under this title:

(2) An amount equal to the excess, if any, over the deduction specified in paragraph (1) of this subdivision, of 4 per centum of the mean of the reserve funds required by law and held at the beginning and end of the taxable year, plus (in case of life insurance companies issuing policies covering life, health, and accident insurance combined in one policy issued on the weekly premium payment plan, continuing for life and not subject to cancellation) 4 per centum of the mean of such reserve funds (not required by law) held at the beginning and end of the taxable year, as the commissioner finds to be necessary for the protection of the holders of such policies only;

(3) The amount received as dividends (A) from a domestic corporation other than a corporation entitled to the benefits of section 262, and other than a corporation organized under the China Trade Act, 1922, or (B) from any foreign corporation when it is shown to the satisfaction of the commissioner that more than 50 per centum of the gross income of such foreign corporation for the three-year period ending with the close of its taxable year preceding the declaration of such dividends (or for such part of such period as the foreign corporation has been in existence) was derived from sources within the United States as determined under section 217;

(4) An amount equal to 2 per centum of any sums held at the end of the taxable year as a reserve for dividends (other than dividends payable during the year following the taxable year) the payment of which is deferred for a period of not less than five years from the date of the policy contract;

(5) Investment expenses paid during the taxable year: Provided, That if any general expenses are in part assigned to or included in the investment expenses, the total deduction under this paragraph shall not exceed one-fourth of 1 per centum of the book value of the mean of the invested assets held at the beginning and end of the taxable year;

(6) Taxes and other expenses paid during the taxable year exclusively upon or with respect to the real estate owned by the company, not including taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed, and not including any amount paid out for new buildings, or for permanent improvements or betterments made to increase the value of any property. The deduction allowed by this paragraph shall be allowed in the case of taxes imposed upon a shareholder of a company upon his interest as shareholder, which are paid by the company without reimbursement from the shareholder, but in such cases no deduction shall be allowed the shareholder for the amount of such taxes:

(7) A reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear of property, including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence;

(8) All interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on its indebtedness, except on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or securities (other than obligations of the United States issued after September 24, 1917, and originally subscribed for by the taxpayer) the interest upon which is wholly exempt from taxation under this title; and

(9) In the case of a domestic life insurance company, the net income of which (computed without the benefit of this paragraph) is $25,000 or less, the sum of $2,000; but if the net income is more than $25,000 the tax imposed by section 243 shall not exceed the tax which would be payable if the $2,000 credit were allowed, plus the amount of the net income in excess of $25,000.

(b) No deduction shall be made under paragraphs (6) and (7) of subdivision (a) on account of any real estate owned and occupied in whole or in part by a life insurance company unless there is included in the return of gross income the rental value of the space so occupied. Such rental value shall be not less than a sum which in addition to any rents received from other tenants shall provide a net income (after deducting taxes, depreciation, and all other expenses) at the rate of 4 per centum per annum of the book value at the end of the taxable year of the real estate so owned or occupied. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 245 (a), (b), 44 Stat. 47.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title. The China Trade Act, 1922, mentioned in the text, constitutes c. 4 of Title 15, COMMERCE AND TRADE. Sections 213, 217, and 262, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 954, 958, and 1030, respectively, of this supplemental title.

1005. Same; foreign corporations; net income.—In the case of a foreign life insurance company the amount of its net income for any taxable year from sources within the United States shall be the same proportion of its net income for the taxable year from sources within and without the United States, which the reserve funds required by law and held by it at the end of the taxable year upon business transacted within the United States is of the reserve funds held by it at the end of the taxable year upon all business transacted. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 245 (c), 44 Stat. 47.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

1006. Other insurance companies; taxes imposed; gross income; net income; investment income; underwriting income; premiums earned on insurance contracts during taxable year; losses incurred; expenses incurred.—(a) In lieu of the tax imposed by section 230, there shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon the net income of every insurance company (other than a life or mutual insurance company) a tax as follows:

(1) In the case of such domestic insurance company, 12½ per centum of its net income;

(2) In the case of such a foreign insurance company, 12½ per centum of its net income from sources within the United States.

(b) In the case of an insurance company subject to the tax imposed by this section—

(1) The term "gross income" means the combined gross amount earned during the taxable year, from investment income and from underwriting income as provided in this subdivision, computed on the basis of the underwriting and investment exhibit of the annual statement approved by the National Convention of Insurance Commissioners;

(2) The term "net income" means the gross income as defined in paragraph (1) of this subdivision less the deductions allowed by section 247;

(3) The term "investment income" means the gross amount of income earned during the taxable year from interest, dividends, and rents, computed as follows:

To all interest, dividends and rents received during the taxable year, add interest, dividends and rents due and accrued at the end of the taxable year, and deduct all interest, dividends and rents due and accrued at the end of the preceding taxable year;

(4) The term "underwriting income" means the premiums earned on insurance contracts during the taxable year less losses incurred and expenses incurred;

(5) The term "premiums earned on insurance contracts during the taxable year" means an amount computed as follows:

From the amount of gross premiums written on insurance contracts during the taxable year, deduct return premiums and premiums paid for reinsurance. To the result so obtained add unearned premiums on outstanding business at the end of the preceding taxable year and deduct unearned premiums on outstanding business at the end of the taxable year;

(6) The term "losses incurred" means losses incurred during the taxable year on insurance contracts, computed as follows:

To losses paid during the taxable year, add salvage and reinsurance recoverable outstanding at the end of the preceding taxable year, and deduct salvage and reinsurance recoverable outstanding at the end of the taxable year. To the result so obtained add all unpaid losses outstanding at the end of the taxable year and deduct unpaid losses outstanding at the end of the preceding taxable year;

(7) The term "expenses incurred" means all expenses shown on the annual statement approved by the National Convention of Insurance Commissioners, and shall be computed as follows:

To all expenses paid during the taxable year add expenses unpaid at the end of the taxable year and deduct expenses unpaid at the end of the preceding taxable year. For the purpose of computing the net income subject to the tax imposed by this section there shall be deducted from expenses incurred as defined in this paragraph all expenses incurred which are not allowed as deductions by section 247. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 246, 44 Stat. 48.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Sections 230 and 247, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 981 and 1007, respectively, of this supplemental title.

1007. Same; net income; computation; deductions.—(a) In computing the net income of an insurance company subject to the tax imposed by section 246 there shall be allowed as deductions:

(1) All ordinary and necessary expenses incurred, as provided in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of section 234;

(2) All interest as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of section 234;

(3) Taxes as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of section 234;

(4) Losses incurred;

(5) Bad debts in the nature of agency balances and bills receivable ascertained to be worthless and charged off within the taxable year;

(6) The amount received as dividends from corporations as provided in paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of section 234;

(7) The amount of interest earned during the taxable year which under paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of section 213 is exempt from taxation under this title, and the amount of interest allowed as a credit under section 236;

(8) A reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear of property, as provided in paragraph (7) of subdivision (a) of section 234;

(9) In the case of such a domestic insurance company, the net income of which (computed without the benefit of this paragraph) is $25,000 or less, the sum of $2,000; but if the net income is more than $25,000 the tax imposed by section 246 shall not exceed the tax which would be payable if the $2,000 credit were allowed, plus the amount of the net income in excess of $25,000.

(b) In the case of a foreign corporation the deductions allowed in this section shall be allowed to the extent provided in subdivision (b) of section 234.

(c) Nothing in this section or in section 246 shall be construed to permit the same item to be twice deducted. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 247, 44 Stat. 49.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Sections 213, 234, 236, and 246, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 954, 986, 988, and 1006 of this supplemental title.

PART IV.—ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

1021. Dividend returns; contents; verification.—Every corporation subject to the tax imposed by this title shall, when required by the commissioner, render a correct return, duly verified under oath, of its payments of dividends, stating the name and address of each shareholder, the number of shares owned by him, and the amount of dividends paid to him. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 254, 44 Stat. 50.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title.

1022. Brokers' returns; contents; verification.—Every person doing business as a broker shall, when required by the commissioner, render a correct return duly verified under oath, under such rules and regulations as the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe, showing the names of customers for whom such person has transacted any business, with such details as to the profits, losses, or other information which the commissioner may require, as to each of such customers, as will enable the commissioner to determine whether all income tax due on profits or gains of such customers has been paid. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 255, 44 Stat. 50.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

1023. Returns by employers, fiduciaries, lessees, mortgagors, etc.; amount; contents.—All persons, in whatever capacity acting, including lessees or mortgagors of real or personal property, fiduciaries, and employers, making payment to another person, of interest, rent, salaries, wages, premiums, annuities, compensations, remunerations, emoluments, or other fixed or determinable gains, profits, and income (other than payments described in sections 254 and 255), of $1,500 or more in any taxable year, or, in the case of such payments made by the United States, the officers or employees of the United States having information as to such payments and required to make returns in regard thereto by the regulations hereinafter provided for, shall render a true and accurate return to the commissioner, under such regulations and in such form and manner and to such extent as may be prescribed by him with the approval of the Secretary, setting forth the amount of such gains, profits, and income, and the name and address of the recipient of such payment.

Such returns may be required, regardless of amounts, (1) in the case of payments of interest upon bonds, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other similar obligations of corporations, and (2) in the case of collections of items (not payable in the United States) of interest upon the bonds of foreign countries and interest upon the bonds of and dividends from foreign corporations by persons undertaking as a matter of business or for profit the collection of foreign payments of such interest or dividends by means of coupons, checks, or bills of exchange.

When necessary to make effective the provisions of this section the name and address of the recipient of income shall be furnished upon demand of the person paying the income.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to the payment of interest on obligations of the United States. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 256. 44 Stat. 50.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Sections 254 and 255, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 1021 and 1022 respectively, of this supplemental title.

1024. Inspection; lists of persons making returns.—(a) Returns upon which the tax has been determined by the commissioner shall constitute public records; but, except as hereinafter provided in this section and section 1203, they shall be open to inspection only upon order of the President and under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary and approved by the President. Whenever a return is open to the inspection of any person a certified copy thereof shall, upon request, be furnished to such person under rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary. The commissioner may prescribe a reasonable fee for furnishing such copy.

(b) (1) The Secretary and any officer or employee of the Treasury Department, upon request from the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Finance of the Senate, or a select committee of the Senate or House specially authorized to investigate returns by a resolution of the Senate or House, or a joint committee so authorized by concurrent resolution, shall furnish such committee sitting in executive session with any data of any character contained in or shown by any return.

(2) Any such committee shall have the right, acting directly as a committee, or by or through such examiners or agents as it may designate or appoint, to inspect any or all of the returns at such times and in such manner as it may determine.

(3) Any relevant or useful information thus obtained may be submitted by the committee obtaining it to the Senate or the House, or to both the Senate and the House, as the case may be.

(c) The proper officers of any State may, upon the request of the governor thereof, have access to the returns of any corporation, or to an abstract thereof showing the name and income of the corporation, at such times and in such manner as the Secretary may prescribe.

(d) All bona fide shareholders of record owning 1 per centum or more of the outstanding stock of any corporation shall, upon making request of the commissioner, be allowed to examine the annual income returns of such corporation and of its subsidiaries. Any shareholder who pursuant to the provisions of this section is allowed to examine the return of any corporation, and who makes known in any manner whatever not provided by law the amount or source of income, profits, losses, expenditures, or any particular thereof, set forth or disclosed in any such return, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both.

(e) The commissioner shall as soon as practicable in each year cause to be prepared and made available to public inspection in such manner as he may determine, in the office of the collector in each internal-revenue district and in such other places as he may determine, lists containing the name and the post-office address of each person making an income-tax return in such district. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 257, 44 Stat. 51.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Section 1203, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1274 of this supplemental title.

1025. Disclosure by officials or publication of income tax returns unlawful.—It shall be unlawful for any collector, deputy collector, agent, clerk, or other officer or employee of the United States to divulge or to make known in any manner whatever not provided by law to any person the operations, style of work, or apparatus of any manufacturer or producer visited by him in the discharge of his official duties, or the amount or source of income, profits, losses, expenditures, or any particular thereof, set forth or disclosed in any income return, or to permit any income return or copy thereof or any book containing any abstract or particulars thereof to be seen or examined by any person except as provided by law; and it shall be unlawful for any person to print or publish in any manner whatever not provided by law any income return, or any part thereof or source of income, profits, losses, or expenditures appearing in any income return; and any offense against the foregoing provision shall be a misdemeanor and be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of the court; and if the offender be an officer or employee of the United States he shall be dismissed from office or discharged from employment. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1115, 44 Stat. 117.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Section 3167 of the Revised Statutes as amended, constituting §§ 62 and 1025 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. The subject matter of the statute was reenacted without change in § 1115 of said Act and is herein set out. This provision is also set out again in § 216 of supplemental Title 18, CRIMINAL CODE AND CRIMINAL PROCEDURE.

1026. Statistics of operation of law; contents.—The commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prepare and publish annually statistics reasonably available with respect to the operation of the income, war-profits and excess-profits tax laws, including classifications of taxpayers and of income, the amounts allowed as deductions, exemptions, and credits, and any other facts deemed pertinent and valuable. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 258, 44 Stat. 52.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

1027. Licenses to and regulation of persons collecting foreign payments of interest or dividends; penalty.—All persons undertaking as a matter of business or for profit the collection of foreign payments of interest or dividends by means of coupons, checks, or bills of exchange shall obtain a license from the commissioner and shall be subject to such regulations enabling the Government to obtain the information required under this title as the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe; and whoever knowingly undertakes to collect such payments without having obtained a license therefor, or without complying with such regulations, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 259, 44 Stat. 52.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title.

1028. Citizens of United States possessions; taxation of; Virgin Islands.—Any individual who is a citizen of any possession of the United States (but not otherwise a citizen of the United States) and who is not a resident of the United States, shall be subject to taxation under this title only as to income derived from sources within the United States, and in such case the tax shall be computed and paid in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as in the case of other persons who are taxable only as to income derived from such sources.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to alter or amend the provisions of the Act entitled "An Act making appropriations for the naval service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1922, and for other purposes," approved July 12, 1921, relating to the imposition of income taxes in the Virgin Islands of the United States. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 260, 44 Stat. 52.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title. The Act of July 12, 1921, mentioned in the text is set forth in part in section 1397 of Title 48, TERRITORIES AND INSULAR POSSESSIONS.

1029. Porto Rico and Philippine Islands; levy, assessment, collection, and payment of tax.—In Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands the income tax shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid as provided by law prior to the enactment of this Act. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 261, 44 Stat. 52.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

1030. Gross income of citizens or domestic corporations fulfilling certain requirements.—(a) In the case of citizens of the United States or domestic corporations, satisfying the following conditions, gross income means only gross income from sources within the United States—

(1) If 80 per centum or more of the gross income of such citizen or domestic corporation (computed without the benefit of this section), for the three-year period immediately preceding the close of the taxable year (or for such part of such period immediately preceding the close of such taxable year as may be applicable) was derived from sources within a possession of the United States; and

(2) If, in the case of such corporation, 50 per centum or more of its gross income (computed without the benefit of this section) for such period or such part thereof was derived from the active conduct of a trade or business within a possession of the United States; or

(3) If, in the case of such citizen, 50 per centum or more of his gross income (computed without the benefit of this section) for such period or such part thereof was derived from the active conduct of a trade or business within a possession of the United States either on his own account or as an employee or agent of another.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) there shall be included in gross income all amounts received by such citizens or corporations within the United States, whether derived from sources within or without the United States.

(c) As used in this section the term "possession of the United States" does not include the Virgin Islands of the United States. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 262, 44 Stat. 53.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

1031. Corporations organized under China Trade Act; credits allowed.—(a) For the purpose only of the tax imposed by section 230 there shall be allowed, in the case of a corporation organized under the China Trade Act, 1922, a credit of an amount equal to the proportion of the net income derived from sources within China (determined in a similar manner to that provided in section 217) which the par value of the shares of stock of the corporation owned on the last day of the taxable year by (1) persons resident in China, the United States, or possessions of the United States, and (2) individual citizens of the United States or China wherever resident, bears to the par value of the whole number of shares of stock of the corporation outstanding on such date: Provided, That in no case shall the amount by which the tax imposed by section 230 is diminished by reason of such credit exceed the amount of the special dividend certified under subdivision (b) of this section.

(b) Such credit shall not be allowed unless the Secretary of Commerce has certified to the commissioner—

(1) The amount which, during the year ending on the date fixed by law for filing the return, the corporation has distributed as a special dividend to or for the benefit of such persons as on the last day of the taxable year were resident in China, the United States, or possessions of the United States, or were individual citizens of the United States or China, and owned shares of stock of the corporation;

(2) That such special dividend was in addition to all other amounts, payable or to be payable to such persons or for their benefit, by reason of their interest in the corporation; and

(3) That such distribution has been made to or for the benefit of such persons in proportion to the par value of the shares of stock of the corporation owned by each; except that if the corporation has more than one class of stock, the certificates shall contain a statement that the articles of incorporation provide a method for the apportionment of such special dividend among such persons, and that the amount certified has been distributed in accordance with the method so provided.

(c) For the purposes of this section shares of stock of a corporation shall be considered to be owned by the person in whom the equitable right to the income from such shares is in good faith vested.

(d) As used in this section the term "China" shall have the same meaning as when used in the China Trade Act, 1922. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 263, 44 Stat. 53.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

The China Trade Act, 1922, mentioned in the text, constitutes ch. 4 of Title 15, COMMERCE AND TRADE. Sections 217 and 230, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 958 and 981, respectively, of this supplemental title.

PART V.—PAYMENT, COLLECTION, AND REFUND OF TAX AND PENALTIES

1041. Time for payment of tax; payments in full.—(a) Except as provided in subdivisions (b), (c), and (d) of this section the total amount of tax imposed by this title shall be paid—

(1) In the case of a taxpayer, other than a nonresident alien individual, and other than a foreign corporation not having an office or place of business in the United States, on the 15th day of March following the close of the calendar year, or, if the return should be made on the basis of a fiscal year, then on the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the fiscal year; and

(2) In the case of a nonresident alien individual, and of a foreign corporation not having an office or place of business in the United States, on the 15th day of June following the close of the calendar year, or, if the return should be made on the basis of a fiscal year, then on the fifteenth day of the sixth month following the close of the fiscal year.

(d) A tax imposed by this title, or any installment thereof, may be paid, at the election of the taxpayer, prior to the date prescribed for its payment. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 270 (a) (d), 44 Stat. 54.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title.

1042. Same; payment in installments.—(1) The taxpayer may elect to pay the tax in four equal installments, in which case the first installment shall be paid on the date prescribed in subdivision (a) for the payment of the tax by the taxpayer, the second installment shall be paid on the fifteenth day of the third month, the third installment on the fifteenth day of the sixth month, and the fourth installment on the fifteenth day of the ninth month, after such date.

(2) If any installment is not paid on or before the date fixed for its payment, the whole amount of the tax unpaid shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 270 (b), 44 Stat. 54.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

1043. Same; extension of time for payment.—(1) At the request of the taxpayer, the Commissioner may extend the time for payment of the amount determined as the tax by the taxpayer, or any installment thereof, for a period not to exceed six months from the date prescribed in subdivision (a) or (b) for the payment of the tax or an installment thereof. In such case the amount in respect of which the extension is granted shall be paid on or before the date of the expiration of the period of the extension.

(2) If the time for payment is thus extended there shall be collected, as a part of such amount, interest thereon at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date when such payment should have been made if no extension had been granted, until the expiration of the period of the extension. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 270(c), 44 Stat. 54.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

1044. Same; taxes payable at source.—The provisions of this section shall not apply to the payment of a tax required to be withheld at the source under section 221 or 237. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 270(e), 44 Stat. 54.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Sections 221 and 237, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 962 and 989, respectively, of this supplemental title.

1045. Examination of return and determination of amount of tax.—As soon as practicable after the return is filed the Commissioner shall examine it and shall determine the correct amount of the tax. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 271, 44 Stat. 55.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

1046. Credit or refund of overpayments.—If the taxpayer has paid as an installment of the tax more than the amount determined to be the correct amount of such installment, the excess shall be credited against the unpaid installments, if any. If the amount already paid, whether or not on the basis of installments, exceeds the amount determined to be the correct amount of the tax, the excess shall be credited or refunded as provided in section 284. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 272, 44 Stat. 55.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Section 284, mentioned in the text, is set out in §1065 of this supplemental title.

1047. Deficiency in tax; what constitutes.—As used in this title in respect of a tax imposed by this title the term "deficiency" means—

(1) The amount by which the tax imposed by this title exceeds the amount shown as the tax by the taxpayer upon his return; but the amount so shown on the return shall first be increased by the amounts previously assessed (or collected without assessment) as a deficiency, and decreased by the amounts previously abated, credited, refunded, or otherwise repaid in respect of such tax; or

(2) If no amount is shown as the tax by the taxpayer upon his return, or if no return is made by the taxpayer, then the amount by which the tax exceeds the amounts previously assessed (or collected without assessment) as a deficiency; but such amounts previously assessed, or collected without assessment, shall first be decreased by the amounts previously abated, credited, refunded, or otherwise repaid in respect of such tax. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 273, 44 Stat. 55.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title.

1048. Same; notice to taxpayer of deficiency; [limitations on assessment or collection of same].—If in the case of any taxpayer, the commissioner determines that there is a deficiency in respect of the tax imposed by this title, the commissioner is authorized to send notice of such deficiency to the taxpayer by registered mail. Within 60 days after such notice is mailed (not counting Sunday as the sixtieth day), the taxpayer may file a petition with the Board of Tax Appeals for a redetermination of the deficiency. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (d) or (f) of this section or in section 279, 282, or 1001, no assessment of a deficiency in respect of the tax imposed by this title and no distraint or proceeding in court for its collection shall be made, begun, or prosecuted until such notice has been mailed to the taxpayer, nor until the expiration of such 60-day period, nor, if a petition has been filed with the board, until the decision of the board has become final. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 3224 of the Revised Statutes the making of such assessment or the beginning of such proceeding or distraint during the time such prohibition is in force may be enjoined by a proceeding in the proper court. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 274(a), 44 Stat. 55.)

"This title" herein referred to constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title. Section 3224 of the Revised Statutes, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 154 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE. Section 279, mentioned in the text, is set out in §§ 1051 and 1063 of this supplemental title. Sections 282 and 1001, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 1071 and 1224, respectively, of said title.

See note at beginning of this chapter. Subdivisions (d) and (f), mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 1048a and 1048b, respectively, of this supplemental title.

1048a. Same; waiver of restrictions by taxpayer.—The taxpayer shall at any time have the right, by a signed notice in writing filed with the commissioner, to waive the restrictions provided in subdivision (a) of this section on the assessment and collection of the whole or any part of the deficiency. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 274 (d), 44 Stat. 55.)

New section. Subdivision (a), mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1048 of this supplemental title.

1048b. Additional deficiency in same year; mathematical error; notice.—If after the enactment of this Act the commissioner has mailed to the taxpayer notice of a deficiency as provided in subdivision (a), and the taxpayer files a petition with the board within the time prescribed in such subdivision, the commissioner shall have no right to determine any additional deficiency in respect of the same taxable year, except in the case of fraud, and except as provided in subdivision (e) of this section or in subdivision (c) of section 279. If the taxpayer is notified that, on account of a mathematical error appearing upon the face of the return, an amount of tax in excess of that shown upon the return is due, and that an assessment of the tax has been or will be made on the basis of what would have been the correct amount of tax but for the mathematical error, such notice shall not be considered, for the purposes of this subdivision or of subdivision (a) of this section, or of subdivision (d) of section 284, as a notice of a deficiency, and the taxpayer shall have no right to file a petition with the board based on such notice, nor shall such assessment or collection be prohibited by the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 274 (f), 44 Stat. 55.)

New section. Section 279, mentioned in the text, is set out in §§ 1051 and 1063 of this supplemental title; § 284, similarly mentioned, is set out in § 1065 of said title. Subdivisions (a) and (e), mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 1048 and 1049a, respectively, of said title.

1049. [Deficiency; assessment and payment, where petition filed with board].—If the taxpayer files a petition with the board, the entire amount redetermined as the deficiency by the decision of the board which has become final shall be assessed and shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector. No part of the amount determined as a deficiency by the commissioner but disallowed as such by the decision of the board which has become final shall be assessed or be collected by distraint or by proceeding in court with or without assessment. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 274 (b), 44 Stat. 55.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

1049a. Redetermination of deficiency by board.—The board shall have jurisdiction to redetermine the correct amount of the deficiency even if the amount so redetermined is greater than the amount of the deficiency, notice of which has been mailed to the taxpayer, and to determine whether any penalty, additional amount or addition to the tax should be assessed, if claim therefor is asserted by the commissioner at or before the hearing or a rehearing. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 274 (e), 44 Stat. 55.)

New section.

1049b. Redetermination of deficiency; consideration of taxes of other years.—The board in redetermining a deficiency in respect of any taxable year shall consider such facts with relation to the taxes for other taxable years as may be necessary correctly to redetermine the amount of such deficiency, but in so doing shall have no jurisdiction to determine whether or not the tax for any other taxable year has been overpaid or underpaid. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 274 (g), 44 Stat. 55.)

New section.

1049c. When decision of board becomes final.—For the purposes of this title the date on which a decision of the board becomes final shall be determined according to the provisions of section 1005. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 274 (h), 44 Stat. 55.)

New section. "This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title. Section 1005, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1228 of said title.

1050. Assessment and payment where no appeal to board.—If the taxpayer does not file a petition with the board within the time prescribed in subdivision (a) of this section, the deficiency, notice of which has been mailed to the taxpayer, shall be assessed, and shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 274 (c), 44 Stat. 55.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Subdivision (a), mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1048 of this supplemental title.

1051. Same; assessment and collection of deficiency where delay would jeopardize same.—(a) If the commissioner believes that the assessment or collection of a deficiency will be jeopardized by delay, he shall immediately assess such deficiency (together with all interest, additional amounts, or additions to the tax provided for by law) and notice and demand shall be made by the collector for the payment thereof.

(b) If the jeopardy assessment is made before any notice in respect of the tax to which the jeopardy assessment relates has been mailed under subdivision (a) of section 274, then the commissioner shall mail a notice under such subdivision within 60 days after the making of the assessment.

(c) The jeopardy assessment may be made in respect of a deficiency greater or less than that notice of which has been mailed to the taxpayer, despite the provisions of subdivision (f) of section 274 and whether or not the taxpayer has theretofore filed a petition with the Board of Tax Appeals. The commissioner shall notify the board of the amount of such assessment, if the petition is filed with the board before the making of the assessment or is subsequently filed, and the board shall have jurisdiction to redetermine the entire amount of the deficiency and of all amounts assessed at the same time in connection therewith.

(d) If the jeopardy assessment is made after the decision of the board is rendered such assessment may be made only in respect of the deficiency determined by the board in its decision.

(e) A jeopardy assessment may not be made after the decision of the board has become final or after the taxpayer has filed a petition for review of the decision of the board.

(f) When a jeopardy assessment has been made the taxpayer, within 10 days after notice and demand from the collector for the payment of the amount of the assessment, may obtain a stay of collection of the whole or any part of the amount of the assessment by filing with the collector a bond in such amount, not exceeding double the amount as to which the stay is desired, and with such sureties, as the collector deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of so much of the amount, the collection of which is stayed by the bond, as is not abated by a decision of the board which has become final, together with interest thereon as provided in subdivision (j) of this section.

(g) If the bond is given before the taxpayer has filed his petition with the board under subdivision (a) of section 274, the bond shall contain a further condition that if a petition is not filed within the period provided in such subdivision, then the amount the collection of which is stayed by the bond will be paid on notice and demand at any time after the expiration of such period, together with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date of the jeopardy notice and demand to the date of notice and demand under this subdivision.

(h) Upon the filing of the bond the collection of so much of the amount assessed as is covered by the bond shall be stayed. The taxpayer shall have the right to waive such stay at any time in respect of the whole or any part of the amount covered by the bond, and if as a result of such waiver any part of the amount covered by the bond is paid, then the bond shall, at the request of the taxpayer, be proportionately reduced. If the board determines that the amount assessed is greater than the amount which should have been assessed, then when the decision of the board is rendered the bond shall, at the request of the taxpayer, be proportionately reduced.

(i) When the petition has been filed with the board and when the amount which should have been assessed has been determined by a decision of the board which has become final, then any unpaid portion, the collection of which has been stayed by the bond, shall be collected as part of the tax upon notice and demand from the collector, and any remaining portion of the assessment shall be abated. If the amount already collected exceeds the amount determined as the amount which should have been assessed, such excess shall be credited or refunded to the taxpayer as provided in section 284. If the amount determined as the amount which shall have been assessed is greater than the amount actually assessed, then the difference shall be assessed and shall be collected as part of the tax upon notice and demand from the collector.

(j) In the case of the amount collected under subdivision (i) there shall be collected at the same time as such amount, and as a part of the tax, interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum upon such amount from the date of the jeopardy notice and demand to the date of notice and demand under subdivision (i) of this section, or, in the case of the amount collected in excess of the amount of the jeopardy assessment, interest as provided in subdivision (j) of section 274. If the amount included in the notice and demand from the collector under subdivision (i) of this section is not paid in full within 10 days after such notice and demand, then there shall be collected, as part of the tax, interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of 1 per centum a month (or, for any period the estate of the taxpayer is held by a fiduciary appointed by any court of competent jurisdiction or by will, at the rate of 6 per centum per annum) from the date of such notice and demand until it is paid. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 279 (a–j), 44 Stat. 59.)

Subdivisions (a), (f), and (j) of § 274, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 1048, 1048b, and 1053, respectively, of this supplemental title. Section 284, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1065 of said title.

1052. Prorating deficiency to installments.—If the taxpayer has elected to pay the tax in installments and a deficiency has been assessed, the deficiency shall be prorated to the four installments. Except as provided in section 279, that part of the deficiency so prorated to any installment the date for payment of which has not arrived, shall be collected at the same time as and as part of such installment. That part of the deficiency so prorated to any installment the date for payment of which has arrived, shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 274 (i), 44 Stat. 55.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Section 279, mentioned in the text, is set out in §§ 1051 and 1063 of this supplemental title.

1053. Interest on deficiency.—Interest upon the amount determined as a deficiency shall be assessed at the same time as the deficiency, shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector, and shall be collected as a part of the tax, at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax (or, if the tax is paid in installments, from the date prescribed for the payment of the first installment) to the date the deficiency is assessed, or, in the case of a waiver under subdivision (d) of this section, to the thirtieth day after the filing of such waiver or to the date the deficiency is assessed whichever is the earlier. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 274 (j), 44 Stat. 55.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Subdivision (d), mentioned in the text, is set out in section 1048a of this supplemental title.

1054. Extension of time for payment of deficiency.—Where it is shown to the satisfaction of the commissioner that the payment of a deficiency upon the date prescribed for the payment thereof will result in undue hardship to the taxpayer the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary (except where the deficiency is due to negligence, to intentional disregard of rules and regulations, or to fraud with intent to evade tax), may grant an extension for the payment of such deficiency or any part thereof for a period not in excess of eighteen months. If an extension is granted, the commissioner may require the taxpayer to furnish a bond in such amount, not exceeding double the amount of the deficiency, and with such sureties, as the commissioner deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of the deficiency in accordance with the terms of the extension. In such case there shall be collected, as a part of the tax, interest on the part of the deficiency the time for payment of which is so extended, at the rate of 6 per centum per annum for the period of the extension, and no other interest shall be collected on such part of the deficiency for such period. If the part of the deficiency the time for payment of which is so extended is not paid in accordance with the terms of the extension, there shall be collected, as a part of the tax, interest on such unpaid amount at the rate of 1 per centum a month for the period from the time fixed by the terms of the extension for its payment until it is paid, and no other interest shall be collected on such unpaid amount for such period. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 274 (k), 44 Stat. 55.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

1055. Increasing tax where deficiency due to negligence or fraud.—(a) If any part of any deficiency is due to negligence or intentional disregard of rules and regulations but without intent to defraud, 5 per centum of the total amount of the deficiency (in addition to such deficiency) shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner as if it were a deficiency, except that the provisions of subdivisions (i) and (j) of section 274 shall not be applicable.

(b) If any part of any deficiency is due to fraud with intent to evade tax, then 50 per centum of the total amount of the deficiency (in addition to such deficiency) shall be so assessed, collected, and paid, in lieu of the 50 per centum addition to the tax provided in section 3176 of the Revised Statutes, as amended. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 275, 44 Stat. 57.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Subdivisions (i) and (j) of section 274, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 1052 and 1053, respectively, of this supplemental title. Section 3176 of the Revised Statutes, mentioned in the text, is set out in §§ 97 and 98 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE.

1056. Delinquent taxes; interest, estates; [effect of filing bond].—(a) (1) Where the amount determined by the taxpayer as the tax imposed by this title, or any installment thereof, or any part of such amount or installment, is not paid on or before the date prescribed for its payment, there shall be collected as a part of the tax, interest upon such unpaid amount at the rate of 1 per centum a month from the date prescribed for its payment until it is paid.

(2) Where an extension of time for payment of the amount so determined as the tax by the taxpayer, or any installment thereof, has been granted, and the amount the time for payment of which has been extended, and the interest thereon determined under paragraph (2) of subdivision (c) of section 270, is not paid in full prior to the expiration of the period of the extension, then, in lieu of the interest provided for in paragraph (1) of this subdivision, interest at the rate of 1 per centum a month shall be collected on such unpaid amount from the date of the expiration of the period of the extension until it is paid.

(b) Where a deficiency, or any interest or additional amounts assessed in connection therewith under subdivision (j) of section 274, or under section 275, or any addition to the tax in case of delinquency provided for in section 3176 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, is not paid in full within ten days from the date of notice and demand from the collector, there shall be collected as part of the tax, interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of 1 per centum a month from the date of such notice and demand until it is paid. If any part of a deficiency prorated to any unpaid installment under subdivision (i) of section 274 is not paid in full on or before the date prescribed for the payment of such installment, there shall be collected as part of the tax interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of 1 per centum a month from such date until it is paid.

(c) For any period an estate is held by a fiduciary appointed by order of any court of competent jurisdiction or by will, there shall be collected interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum in lieu of the interest provided in subdivisions (a) and (b) of this section.

(d) If a bond is filed, as provided in section 279, the provisions of subdivisions (b) and (c) of this section shall not apply to the amount covered by the bond. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 276, 44 Stat. 57.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This title," herein referred to constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title. Subdivision (c) of § 270 and subdivisions (i) and (j) of § 274, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 1043, 1052, and 1053, respectively of said title. Section 275 similarly mentioned is set out in § 1055 of said title; § 279 similarly mentioned is set out in §§ 1051 and 1063 of said title. Section 3176 of the Revised Statutes similarly mentioned, is set out in §§ 97 and 98 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE.

1057. Assessments and collections; [suspension of running of limitation].—(a) Except as provided in section 278—(1) The amount of income taxes imposed by this Act shall be assessed within three years after the return was filed, and no proceeding in court without assessment for the collection of such taxes shall be begun after the expiration of such period.

(2) The amount of income, excess-profits, and war-profits taxes imposed by the Revenue Act of 1921, and by such Act as amended, for the taxable year 1921 and succeeding taxable years, and the amount of income taxes imposed by the Revenue Act of 1924, shall be assessed within four years after the return was filed, and no proceeding in court without assessment for the collection of such taxes shall be begun after the expiration of such period.

(3) The amount of income, excess-profits, and war-profits taxes imposed by the Act entitled "An Act to provide revenue, equalize duties, and encourage the industries of the United States, and for other purposes," approved August 5, 1909, the Act entitled "An Act to reduce tariff duties and to provide revenue for the government, and for other purposes," approved October 3, 1913, the Revenue Act of 1916, the Revenue Act of 1917, the Revenue Act of 1918, and by any such Act as amended, shall be assessed within five years after the return was filed, and no proceeding in court without assessment for the collection of such taxes shall be begun after the expiration of such period. (4) In the case of income received during the lifetime of a decedent, the tax shall be assessed, and any proceeding in court without assessment for the collection of such tax shall be begun, within one year after written request therefor (filed after the return is made) by the executor, administrator, or other fiduciary representing the estate of such decedent, but not after the expiration of the period prescribed for the assessment of the tax in paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of this subdivision.

(5) If a corporation makes no return of the tax imposed by this title, but each of the shareholders includes in his return his distributive share of the net income of the corporation, then the tax of the corporation shall be assessed within four years after the last date on which any such shareholder's return was filed. Nothing in section 283 shall be construed as making the provisions of this paragraph applicable to any tax imposed by a prior Act of Congress.

(b) The running of the statute of limitations provided in this section or in section 278 on the making of assessments and the beginning of distraint or a proceeding in court for collection, in respect of any deficiency, shall (after the mailing of a notice under subdivision (a) of section 274) be suspended for the period during which the commissioner is prohibited from making the assessment or beginning distraint or a proceeding in court, and for 60 days thereafter. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 277, 44 Stat. 58.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This Act," herein referred to, constitutes this supplemental title. "This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 19 of said supplemental title. The Revenue Act of 1924, mentioned in the text, is set out in Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE. Subdivision (a) of § 274, similarly mentioned, is set out in § 1048 of this supplemental title; § 278, similarly mentioned, is set out in §§ 1058 to 1062, inclusive, of said title; and § 283, similarly mentioned, is set out in § 1064 of said title.

1058. Same; false or fraudulent returns.—In the case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax or of a failure to file a return the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 278 (a), 44 Stat. 59.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

1059. Assessment and collection under prior law of deficiency attributable to tentatively allowed deductions.—Any deficiency attributable to a change in a deduction tentatively allowed under paragraph (9) of subdivision (a) of section 214, or paragraph (8) of subdivision (a) of section 234, of the Revenue Act of 1918 or the Revenue Act of 1921, may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 278 (b), 44 Stat. 59.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

1060. Assessment of tax assessable after prescribed time.—Where both the commissioner and the taxpayer have consented in writing to the assessment of the tax after the time prescribed in section 277 for its assessment the tax may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed upon. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 278 (c), 44 Stat. 59.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

Section 277, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1057 of this supplemental title.

1061. Distraint or court proceeding; time for.—Where the assessment of any income, excess-profits, or war-profits tax imposed by this title or by prior Act of Congress has been made (whether before or after the enactment of this Act) within the statutory period of limitation properly applicable thereto, such tax may be collected by distraint or by a proceeding in court (begun before or after the enactment of this Act), but only if begun (1) within six years after the assessment of the tax, or (2) prior to the expiration of any period for collection agreed upon in writing by the commissioner and the taxpayer. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 278 (d) 44 Stat. 59.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This title," mentioned in the text, constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title.

1062. Assessment or collection of taxes by distraint; where barred.—This section shall not bar a distraint or proceeding in court begun before the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1924; nor shall it authorize the assessment of a tax or the collection thereof by distraint or by proceeding in court (1) if at the time of the enactment of this Act such assessment, distraint or proceeding was barred by the statutory period of limitation properly applicable thereto, unless prior to the enactment of this Act the commissioner and the taxpayer agreed in writing thereto, or (2) contrary to the provisions of subdivision (a) of section 274 of this Act. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 278 (e), 44 Stat. 59.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

"This section," herein referred to, constitutes §§ 1058 to 1062, inclusive, of this supplemental title. Subdivision (a) of § 274, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1048 of said title. The Revenue Act of 1924, similarly mentioned, is set out in Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE.

1063. Claim in abatement.—No claim in abatement shall be filed in respect of any assessment made after the enactment of this Act in respect of any income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 279 (k), 44 Stat. 59.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

1064. Assessment and collections under prior law.—(a) If after the enactment of this Act the commissioner determines that any assessment should be made in respect of any income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax imposed by the Revenue Act of 1916, the Revenue Act of 1917, the Revenue Act of 1918, the Revenue Act of 1921, or the Revenue Act of 1924, or by any such Act as amended, the commissioner is authorized to send by registered mail to the person liable for such tax notice of the amount proposed to be assessed, which notice shall, for the purposes of this Act, be considered a notice under subdivision (a) of section 274 of this Act. In the case of any such determination the amount which should be assessed (whether as deficiency or as interest, penalty, or other addition to the tax) shall, except as provided in subdivision (d) of this section, be computed as if this Act had not been enacted, but the amount so computed shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and limitations (including the provisions in case of delinquency in payment after notice and demand and the provisions prohibiting claims and suits for refund) as in the case of a deficiency in the tax imposed by this title, except as otherwise provided in section 277 of this Act.

(b) If before the enactment of this Act any person has appealed to the Board of Tax Appeals under subdivision (a) of section 274 of the Revenue Act of 1924 (if such appeal relates to a tax imposed by Title II of such Act or to so much of an income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax imposed by any of the prior Acts enumerated in subdivision (a) of this section as was not assessed before June 3, 1924), and the appeal is pending before the board at the time of the enactment of this Act, the board shall have jurisdiction of the appeal. In all such cases the powers, duties, rights, and privileges of the commissioner and of the person who has brought the appeal, and the jurisdiction of the board and of the courts, shall be determined, and the computation of the tax shall be made, in the same manner as provided in subdivision (a) of this section, except as provided in subdivision (j) of this section and except that the person liable for the tax shall not be subject to the provisions of subdivision (d) of section 284.

(c) If before the enactment of this Act the commissioner has mailed to any person a notice under subdivision (a) of section 274 of the Revenue Act of 1924 (whether in respect of a tax imposed by Title II of such Act or in respect of so much of an income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax imposed by any of the prior Acts enumerated in subdivision (a) of this section as was not assessed before June 3, 1924), and if the 60-day period referred to in such subdivision has not expired before the enactment of this Act and no appeal has been filed before the enactment of this Act, such person may file a petition with the board in the same manner as if a notice of deficiency had been mailed after the enactment of this Act in respect of a deficiency in a tax imposed by this title. In such cases the 60-day period referred to in subdivision (a) of section 274 of this Act shall begin on the date of the enactment of this Act, and the powers, duties, rights, and privileges of the commissioner and of the person entitled to file the petition, and the jurisdiction of the board and of the courts, shall, whether or not the petition is filed, be determined, and the computation of the tax shall be made in the same manner as provided in subdivision (a) of this section.

(d) In the case of any assessment made after the enactment of this Act in respect of a tax imposed by any Act of Congress prior to November 23, 1921, interest upon the tax proposed to be assessed shall be assessed at the same time as such tax, shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector, and shall be collected as part of such tax, at the rate of 6 per centum per annum, from the date of the enactment of this Act to the date such tax is assessed, or, in the case of a waiver under subdivision (d) of section 274, to the thirtieth day after the filing of such waiver or to the date the deficiency is assessed whichever is the earlier.

(e) If any deficiency in any income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax imposed by the Revenue Act of 1916, the Revenue Act of 1917, the Revenue Act of 1918, or the Revenue Act of 1921, or by any such Act as amended, was assessed before June 3, 1924, but was not paid in full before the date of the enactment of this Act, and if the commissioner, after the enactment of this Act, finally determines the amount of the deficiency, he is authorized to send by registered mail to the person liable for such tax notice of such deficiency, which notice shall, for the purposes of this Act, be considered a notice under subdivision (a) of section 274 of this Act. In the case of any such final determination the amount of the tax (whether deficiency or interest, penalty, or other addition to the tax) shall, except as provided in subdivision (h) of this section, be computed as if this Act had not been enacted, but the amount so computed shall be collected and paid in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and limitations (including the provisions in case of delinquency in payment after notice and demand, and the provisions relating to claims and suits for refund) as in the case of a deficiency in the tax imposed by this title, except as otherwise provided in section 277 of this Act and in subdivision (i) of this section.

(f) If any deficiency in any income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax imposed by the Revenue Act of 1916, the Revenue Act of 1917, the Revenue Act of 1918, or the Revenue Act of 1921, or by any such Act as amended, was assessed before June 3, 1924, but was not paid in full before that date, and if the commissioner after June 2, 1924, but before the enactment of this Act finally determined the amount of the deficiency, and if the person liable for such tax appealed before the enactment of this Act to the board and the appeal is pending before the board at the time of the enactment of this Act, the board shall have jurisdiction of the appeal. In all such cases the powers, duties, rights, and privileges of the commissioner and of the person who has brought the appeal, and the jurisdiction of the board and of the courts, shall be determined, and the computation of the tax shall be made, in the same manner as provided in subdivision (e) of this section, except as provided in subdivision (j) of this section and except that the person liable for the tax shall not be subject to the provisions of subdivision (d) of section 284.

(g) If any deficiency in any income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax imposed by the Revenue Act of 1916, the Revenue Act of 1917, the Revenue Act of 1918, or the Revenue Act of 1921, or by any such Act as amended, was assessed before June 3, 1924, but was not paid in full before the date of the enactment of this Act, and if the commissioner after June 2, 1924, finally determined the amount of the deficiency, and notified the person liable for such tax to that effect less than 60 days prior to the enactment of this Act and no appeal has been filed before the enactment of this Act, the person so notified may file a petition with the board in the same manner as if a notice of deficiency had been mailed after the enactment of this Act in respect of a deficiency in a tax imposed by this title. In such cases the 60-day period referred to in subdivision (a) of section 274 of this Act shall begin on the date of the enactment of this Act, and, whether or not the petition is filed, the powers, duties, rights, and privileges of the commissioner and of the person who is so notified, and the jurisdiction of the board and of the courts, shall be determined, and the computation of the tax be made, in the same manner as provided in subdivision (e) of this section.

(h) In cases within the scope of subdivision (e), (f), or (g) in computing the amount which should be collected, interest upon the amount determined by the commissioner, or by the decision of the board which has become final, to be the amount of the deficiency, shall be included at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date of the enactment of this Act up to the date of notice and demand from the collector, or, in the case of a waiver under subdivision (d) of section 274, to the thirtieth day after the filing of such waiver or to the date of notice and demand whichever is the earlier. The interest provided in this subdivision shall be included only in cases where no other interest for the same period is provided by law.

(i) In cases within the scope of subdivision (e), (f), or (g), if the commissioner believes that the collection of the deficiency will be jeopardized by delay, he may, despite the provisions of subdivision (a) of section 274 of this Act, instruct the collector to proceed to enforce the payment of the unpaid portion of the deficiency, and notice and demand shall be made by the collector for the payment thereof. Within 10 days after such jeopardy notice and demand the person liable for the tax may obtain a stay of collection of the whole or any part of the amount included in the notice and demand by filing with the collector a bond in like manner, under the same conditions, and with the same effect, as in the case of a bond to stay the collection of a jeopardy assessment under section 279 of this Act.

(j) In cases within the scope of subdivision (b) or (f) of this section where any hearing before the board has been held before the enactment of this Act and the decision is rendered after the enactment of this Act, such decision shall, for the purposes of this title, be considered to have become final upon the date when it is rendered and neither party shall have any right to petition for a review of the decision. The commissioner may, within one year from the time the decision is rendered, begin a proceeding in court for the collection of any part of the amount disallowed by the board, unless the statutory period of limitations properly applicable thereto has expired before the appeal was taken to the board. The court shall include in its judgment interest upon the amount thereof in the same cases, at the same rate, and for the same period, as if such amount were collected otherwise than by proceeding in court. In any such proceeding by the commissioner or in any suit by the taxpayer for a refund, the findings of the board shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated.

(k) Where before the enactment of this Act a jeopardy assessment has been made under subdivision (d) of section 274 of the Revenue Act of 1924 (whether of a deficiency in the tax imposed by Title II of such Act or of a deficiency in an income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax imposed by any of the prior Acts enumerated in subdivision (a) of this section)

all proceedings after the enactment of this Act shall be the same as under the Revenue Act of 1924 as amended by this Act, except that—

(1) A decision of the board rendered after the enactment of this Act where no hearing has been held by the board before the enactment of this Act may be reviewed in the same manner as provided in this Act in the case of a tax imposed by this title;

(2) Where no hearing has been held by the board before the enactment of this Act, the commissioner shall have no right to begin a proceeding in court for the collection of any part of the deficiency disallowed by the board; and

(3) In the consideration of the case the jurisdiction and powers of the board shall be the same as provided in this Act in the case of a tax imposed by this title.

(l) In the case of any income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax imposed by prior Act of Congress, in computing the period of limitations provided in section 277 or 278 of this Act on the making of assessments and the beginning of distraint or a proceeding in court, the running of the statute of limitations shall be considered to have been suspended (in addition to the period of suspension provided for in subdivision (b) of section 277) for any period prior to the enactment of this Act during which the commissioner was prohibited from making the assessment or beginning distraint or proceeding in court. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 283, 44 Stat. 63.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

The Revenue Act of 1924, herein referred to, is set out in Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE. "Title II" of said Act, also herein referred to, is set out in c. 19, Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE. "This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title. "This Act," herein referred to, constitutes this supplemental title. Section 274 of the Revenue Act of 1924, mentioned in the text, is set out in §§ 1048 to 1054, inclusive, of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE; subdivisions (a) and (d) of said § 274, are set out in §§ 1048 and 1051, respectively, of said Title 26. Subdivisions (a) and (d) of § 274 of this Act, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 1048a and 1048b, respectively, of this supplemental title. Section 277, similarly mentioned, is set out in § 1057a of said title; § 278, similarly mentioned, is set out in §§ 1058 to 1062, inclusive, of said title; § 279, similarly mentioned, is set out in §§ 1051 and 1063 of said title; and § 284, similarly mentioned, is set out in § 1065 of said title.

1065. Credit or refund of overpayments; time for claim; [effect of determination of deficiency]; waiver of right to have tax assessed.—(a) Where there has been an overpayment of any income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax imposed by this Act, the Act entitled "An Act to provide revenue, equalize duties, and encourage the industries of the United States, and for other purposes," approved August 5, 1909, the Act entitled "An Act to reduce tariff duties and to provide revenue for the Government, and for other purposes," approved October 3, 1913, the Revenue Act of 1916, the Revenue Act of 1917, the Revenue Act of 1918, the Revenue Act of 1921, or the Revenue Act of 1924, or any such Act as amended, the amount of such overpayment shall, except as provided in subdivision (d), be credited against any income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax or installment thereof then due from the taxpayer, and any balance of such excess shall be refunded immediately to the taxpayer.

(b) Except as provided in subdivisions (c), (d), (e), and (g) of this section—

(1) No such credit or refund shall be allowed or made after three years from the time the tax was paid in the case of a tax imposed by this Act, nor after four years from the time the tax was paid in the case of a tax imposed by any prior Act, unless before the expiration of such period a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer; and

(2) The amount of the credit or refund shall not exceed the portion of the tax paid during the three or four years, respectively, immediately preceding the filing of the claim, or if no claim was filed, then during the three or four years, respectively, immediately preceding the allowance of the credit or refund.

(c) If the invested capital of a taxpayer is decreased by the commissioner, and such decrease is due to the fact that the taxpayer failed to take adequate deductions in previous years, with the result that there has been an overpayment of income, war-profits, or excess-profits taxes in any previous year or years, then the amount of such overpayment shall be credited or refunded, without the filing of a claim therefor, notwithstanding the period of limitation provided for in subdivision (b) or (g) has expired.

(d) If the commissioner has mailed to the taxpayer a notice of deficiency under subdivision (a) of section 274 and if the taxpayer after the enactment of this Act files a petition with the Board of Tax Appeals within the time prescribed in such subdivision, no credit or refund in respect of the tax for the taxable year in respect of which the commissioner has determined the deficiency shall be allowed or made and no suit by the taxpayer for the recovery of any part of such tax shall be instituted in any court except—

(1) As provided in subdivision (e) of this section or in subdivision (1) of section 279 or in subdivision (b), (f), or (i) of section 283 or in subdivision (d) of section 1001; and

(2) As to any amount collected in excess of an amount computed in accordance with the decision of the board which has become final; and

(3) As to any amount collected after the statutory period of limitations upon the beginning of distraint or a proceeding in court for collection has expired; but in any such claim for credit or refund or in any such suit for refund the decision of the board which has become final, as to whether such period has expired before the notice of deficiency was mailed, shall be conclusive.

(e) If the board finds that there is no deficiency and further finds that the taxpayer has made an overpayment of tax in respect of the taxable year in respect of which the commissioner determined the deficiency, the board shall have jurisdiction to determine the amount of such overpayment, and such amount shall, when the decision of the board has become final, be credited or refunded to the taxpayer as provided in subdivision (a). Such refund or credit shall be made either (1) if claim therefor was filed within the period of limitation provided for in subdivision (b) or (g), or (2) if the petition was filed with the board within four years after the tax was paid, or, in the case of a tax imposed by this Act, within three years after the tax was paid.

(f) Where there has been an overpayment of tax under section 221 or 237 any refund or credit made under the provisions of this section shall be made to the withholding agent unless the amount of such tax was actually withheld by the withholding agent.

(g) If the taxpayer has, within five years from the time the return for the taxable year 1917 was due, filed a waiver of his right to have the taxes due for such taxable year determined and assessed within five years after the return was filed, or if he has, on or before June 15, 1924, filed such a waiver in respect of the taxes due for the taxable year 1918, then such credit or refund relating to the taxes for the year in respect of which the waiver was filed shall be allowed or made if claim therefor is filed either on or before April 1, 1925, or within four years from the time the tax was paid. If the taxpayer has, on or before June 15, 1925, filed such a waiver in respect of the taxes due for the taxable year 1919, then such credit or refund relating to the taxes for the taxable year 1919 shall be allowed or made if claim therefor is filed either on or before April 1, 1926, or within four years from the time the tax was paid. If the taxpayer has, on or before June 15, 1926, filed such a waiver in respect of the taxes due for the taxable year 1920 or 1921, then such credit or refund relating to the taxes for the taxable year 1920 or 1921 shall be allowed or made if claim therefor is filed either on or before April 1, 1927, or within four years from the time the tax was paid. If any such waiver so filed has, before the expiration of the period thereof, been extended either by the filing of a new waiver or by the extension of the original waiver, then such credit or refund relating to the taxes for the year in respect of which the waiver was filed shall be allowed or made if claim therefor is filed either (1) within four years from the time the tax was paid, or (2) on or before April 1, 1926, in the case of credits or refunds relating to the taxes for the taxable years 1917 and 1918, or on or before April 1, 1927, in the case of credits or refunds relating to the taxes for the taxable year 1919, or on or before April 1, 1928, in the case of credits or refunds relating to the taxes for the taxable years 1920 and 1921. This subdivision shall not authorize a credit or refund prohibited by the provisions of subdivision (d).

(h) Except as provided in subdivision (d) this section shall not (1) bar from allowance a claim for credit or refund filed prior to the enactment of this Act which but for such enactment would have been allowable, or (2) bar from allowance a claim in respect of a tax for the taxable year 1919 or 1920 if such claim is filed before the expiration of five years after the date the return was due. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 284, 44 Stat. 66.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

The Revenue Act of 1924, mentioned in the text, is set out in Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE. "This Act," herein referred to, constitutes this supplemental title. Sections 221 and 237, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 962 and 989, respectively, of said supplemental title. Subdivision (a) of § 274, similarly mentioned, is set out in § 1048 of said title; subdivision (i) of § 279, similarly mentioned, is set out in § 1051 of said title. Sections 283 and 1001, similarly mentioned, are set out in §§ 1064 and 1224, respectively, of said title.

1065a. Credit or refund to stockholder of personal service corporation.—Any individual who has paid a tax (in accordance with section 218 of the Revenue Act of 1918 or section 218 of the Revenue Act of 1921) as a stockholder of a personal service corporation shall be entitled to a credit or refund, in the manner provided in section 284, if (a) such corporation has been finally determined not to be a personal service corporation, and (b) such corporation has paid the tax imposed by Title II of the Revenue Act of 1918 or Title II of the Revenue Act of 1921, as the case may be, and (c) claim therefor is filed within one year after the enactment of this Act, or before the expiration of the period of limitations upon the filing of such claim, whichever is the later. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1210, 44 Stat. 130.)

New section. Section 284, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1065 of this supplemental title.

1065b. Salaries of State and municipal officers; abatement, credit, or refund of taxes thereon.—Any taxes imposed by the Revenue Act of 1924 or prior Revenue Acts upon any individual in respect of amounts received by him as compensation for personal services as an officer or employee of any state or political subdivision thereof (except to the extent that such compensation is paid by the United States Government directly or indirectly), shall, subject to the statutory period of limitations properly applicable thereto, be abated, credited, or refunded. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1211, 44 Stat. 130.)

New section. The Revenue Act of 1924, mentioned in the text, is set out in Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE.

1066. Termination of taxable period; security for return and payment of taxes; certificate for departing aliens; penalties.—(a) If the commissioner finds that a taxpayer designs quickly to depart from the United States or to remove his property therefrom, or to conceal himself or his property therein, or to do any other act tending to prejudice or to render wholly or partly ineffectual proceedings to collect the tax for the taxable year then last past or the taxable year then current unless such proceedings be brought without delay, the commissioner shall declare the taxable period for such taxpayer immediately terminated and shall cause notice of such finding and declaration to be given the taxpayer, together with a demand for immediate payment of the tax for the taxable period so declared terminated and of the tax for the preceding taxable year or so much of such tax as is unpaid, whether or not the time otherwise allowed by law for filing return and paying the tax has expired; and such taxes shall thereupon become immediately due and payable. In any proceeding in court brought to enforce payment of taxes made due and payable by virtue of the provisions of this section the finding of the commissioner, made as herein provided, whether made after notice to the taxpayer or not, shall be for all purposes presumptive evidence of the taxpayer's design.

(b) A taxpayer who is not in default in making any return or paying income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax under any Act of Congress may furnish to the United States, under regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, security approved by the commissioner that he will duly make the return next thereafter required to be filed and pay the tax next thereafter required to be paid. The commissioner may approve and accept in like manner security for return and payment of taxes made due and payable by virtue of the provisions of this section, provided the taxpayer has paid in full all other income, war-profits, or excess-profits taxes due from him under any Act of Congress.

(c) If security is approved and accepted pursuant to the provisions of this section and such further or other security with respect to the tax or taxes covered thereby is given as the commissioner shall from time to time find necessary and require, payment of such taxes shall not be enforced by any proceedings under the provisions of this section prior to the expiration of the time otherwise allowed for paying such respective taxes.

(d) In the case of a citizen of the United States or of a possession of the United States about to depart from the United States the commissioner may, at his discretion, waive any or all of the requirements placed on the taxpayer by this section.

(e) No alien shall depart from the United States unless he first procures from the collector or agent in charge a certificate that he has complied with all the obligations imposed upon him by the income, war-profits, and excess-profits tax laws.

(f) If a taxpayer violates or attempts to violate this section there shall, in addition to all other penalties, be added as part of the tax 25 per centum of the total amount of the tax or deficiency in the tax, together with interest at the rate of 1 per centum a month from the time the tax became due. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 285, 44 Stat. 68.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

1069. Transferees and fiduciaries; liability same as in case of deficiency in tax; limitations for assessment; pending suits.—(a) The amounts of the following liabilities shall, except as hereinafter in this section provided, be assessed, collected and paid in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and limitations as in the case of a deficiency in a tax imposed by this title (including the provisions in case of delinquency in payment after notice and demand, the provisions authorizing distraint and proceedings in court for collection, and the provisions prohibiting claims and suits for refunds):

(1) The liability, at law or in equity, of a transferee of property of a taxpayer, in respect of the tax (including interest, additional amounts, and additions to the tax provided by law)

imposed upon the taxpayer by this title or by any prior income, excess-profits, or War-Profits Tax Act.

(2) The liability of a fiduciary under section 3467 of the Revised Statutes in respect of the payment of any such tax from the estate of the taxpayer.

Any such liability may be either as to the amount of tax shown on the return or as to any deficiency in tax.

(b) The period of limitation for assessment of any such liability of a transferee or fiduciary shall be as follows:

(1) Within one year after the expiration of the period of limitation for assessment against the taxpayer; or

(2) If the period of limitation for assessment against the taxpayer expired before the enactment of this Act but assessment against the taxpayer was made within such period—then within six years after the making of such assessment against the taxpayer, but in no case later than one year after the enactment of this Act.

(3) If a court proceeding against the taxpayer for the collection of the tax has been begun within either of the above periods—then within one year after return of execution in such proceeding.

(c) For the purposes of this section, if the taxpayer is deceased, or in the case of a corporation, has terminated its existence, the period of limitation for assessment against the taxpayer shall be the period that would be in effect had the death or termination of existence not occurred.

(d) The running of the period of limitation upon the assessment of the liability of a transferee or fiduciary shall, after the mailing of the notice under subdivision (a) of section 274 to the transferee of [sic] fiduciary, be suspended for the period during which the commissioner is prohibited from making the assessment in respect of the liability of the transferee or fiduciary, and for 60 days thereafter.

(e) This section shall not apply to any suit or other proceeding for the enforcement of the liability of a transferee or fiduciary pending at the time of the enactment of this Act.

(f) As used in this section, the term "transferee" includes heir, legatee, devisee, or distributee. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 280, 44 Stat. 61.)

New section. "This title," herein refered to, constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title. Subdivision (a) of § 274, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1048 of said title. Section 3467 of the Revised Statutes, similarly mentioned, is set out in § 192 of Title 31, MONEY AND FINANCE.

1070. Rights and duties of fiduciaries; notice.—(a) Upon notice to the commissioner that any person is acting in a fiduciary capacity such fiduciary shall assume the powers, rights, duties, and privileges of the taxpayer in respect of a tax imposed by this title or by prior income, excess-profits, or war-profits tax Act (except as otherwise specifically provided and except that the tax shall be collected from the estate of the tax-payer), until notice is given that the fiduciary capacity has terminated.

(b) Upon notice to the commissioner that any person is acting in a fiduciary capacity for a person subject to the liability specified in section 280, the fiduciary shall assume, on behalf of such person, the powers, rights, duties, and privileges of such person under such section (except that the liability shall be collected from the estate of such person), until notice is given that the fiduciary capacity has terminated.

(c) Notice under subdivision (a) or (b) shall be given in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary.

(d) In the absence of any notice to the commissioner under subdivision (a) or (b), notice under this title of a deficiency or other liability, if mailed to the taxpayer or other person subject to liability at his last known address, shall be sufficient for the purposes of this title even if such taxpayer or other person is deceased, or is under a legal disability, or, in the case of a corporation, has terminated its existence. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 281, 44 Stat. 62.)

New section. "This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title. Section 280, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1069 of said title.

1071. Bankruptcy of taxpayer; assessment and collection of deficiency; limitation period; interest; extension of time for payment.—(a) Upon the adjudication of bankruptcy of any taxpayer in any bankruptcy proceeding or the appointment of a receiver for any taxpayer in any receivership proceeding before any court of the United States or of any State or Territory or of the District of Columbia, any deficiency (together with all interest, additional amounts, or additions to the tax provided for by law) determined by the commissioner in respect of a tax imposed by this title upon such taxpayer shall, despite the provisions of subdivision (a) of section 274, be immediately assessed if such deficiency has not theretofore been assessed in accordance with law. Claim for the deficiency and such interest, additional amounts and additions to the tax may be presented, for adjudication in accordance with law, to the court before which the bankruptcy or receivership proceeding is pending, despite the pendency of proceedings for the redetermination of the deficiency in pursuance of a petition to the board; but no petition for any such redetermination shall be filed with the board after the adjudication of bankruptcy or the appointment of the receiver.

(b) Any portion of the claim allowed in such bankruptcy or receivership proceeding which is unpaid shall be paid by the taxpayer upon notice and demand from the collector after the termination of such proceeding, and may be collected by distraint or proceeding in court within six years after termination of such proceeding.

(c) If the amount of such portion of the claim is not paid in full within 10 days from the date of notice and demand from the collector, then there shall be collected as a part of such amount interest upon the unpaid portion thereof at the rate of 1 per centum a month from the date of such notice and demand until payment. Extensions of time for such payment may be had in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and limitations as are provided in subdivision (k) of section 274 in the case of a deficiency in a tax imposed by this title. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 282, 44 Stat. 62.)

New section. "This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 19 of this supplemental title. Subdivisions (a) and (k) of § 274, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 1048 and 1054, respectively, of said title.

1072. Amortization deduction under prior law.—The deduction provided by paragraph (9) of subdivision (a) of section 214 or by paragraph (8) of subdivision (a) of section 234 of the Revenue Act of 1918 may (notwithstanding any provisions of the Revenue Act of 1921) be allowed for the taxable year 1918, 1919, or 1920 if claim therefor was made before June 15, 1924. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1209, 44 Stat. 130.)

PART II.—GIFT TAX. [Repealed]

1137. Claim in abatement. [New.]

PART I.—ESTATE TAX

The statutes constituting §§ 1091 to 1118, inclusive, of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, were repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, as of that date.

The subject matter contained in the repealed statutes is, in substance, carried into the Act of Feb. 26, 1926, Title III, §§ 300 to 325, inclusive, herein set out in sections corresponding to those in said Title 26 of the Code.

1091. Definitions.—When used in this title—

(a) The term "executor" means the executor or administrator of the decedent, or, if there is no executor or administrator appointed, qualified, and acting within the United States, then any person in actual or constructive possession of any property of the decedent;

(b) The term "net estate" means the net estate as determined under the provisions of section 303;

(c) The term "month" means calendar month; and

(d) The term "collector" means the collector of internal revenue of the district in which was the domicile of the decedent at the time of his death, or, if there was no such domicile in the United States, then the collector of the district in which is situated the part of the gross estate of the decedent in the United States, or, if such part of the gross estate is situated in more than one district, then the collector of internal revenue of such district as may be designated by the commissioner. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 300, 44 Stat. 69.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

This title, herein referred to, constitutes c. 20 of this supplemental title. Section 303, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1095 of said supplemental title.

1092. Percentage of tax.—In lieu of the tax imposed by Title III of the Revenue Act of 1924, a tax equal to the sum of the following percentages of the value of the net estate (determined as provided in section 303) is hereby imposed upon the transfer of the net estate of every decedent dying after the enactment of this act, whether a resident or nonresident of the United States;

1 per centum of the amount of the net estate not in excess of $50,000;

2 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $50,000 and does not exceed $100,000;

3 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $100,000 and does not exceed $200,000;

4 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $200,000 and does not exceed $400,000;

5 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $400,000 and does not exceed $600,000;

6 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $600,000 and does not exceed $800,000;

7 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $800,000 and does not exceed $1,000,000;

8 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $1,000,000 and does not exceed $1,500,000;

9 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $1,500,000 and does not exceed $2,000,000;

10 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $2,000,000 and does not exceed $2,500,000;

11 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $2,500,000 and does not exceed $3,000,000;

12 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $3,000,000 and does not exceed $3,500,000;

13 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $3,500,000 and does not exceed $4,000,000;

14 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $4,000,000 and does not exceed $5,000,000;

16 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $6,000,000 and does not exceed $7,000,000;

17 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $7,000,000 and does not exceed $8,000,000;

18 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $8,000,000 and does not exceed $9,000,000;

19 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $9,000,000 and does not exceed $10,000,000;

20 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $10,000,000. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 301 (a), 44 Stat. 69.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

Title III of the Revenue Act of 1924, mentioned in the text, is set out in c. 20, of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE. Section 303, similarly mentioned, is set out in § 1095 of this supplemental title.

Subdivision (a) of § 301 of the Revenue Act of 1924 (§ 1092 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE), was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, as of that date, and § 1092, of this supplemental title was substituted therefor. The repealed section was retroactively amended by § 322 of the Act of Feb. 26, 1926, as follows:

"SEC. 322. (a) In lieu of the tax imposed by Title IV of the Revenue Act of 1921, a tax equal to the sum of the following percentages of the value of the net estate (determined as provided in section 303) is hereby imposed upon the transfer of the net estate of every decedent dying after the enactment of this Act, whether a resident or nonresident of the United States:

"1 per centum of the amount of the net estate not in excess of $50,000;

"2 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $50,000 and does not exceed $150,000;

"3 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $150,000 and does not exceed $250,000;

"4 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $250,000 and does not exceed $450,000;

"6 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $450,000 and does not exceed $750,000;

"8 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $750,000 and does not exceed $1,000,000;

"10 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $1,000,000 and does not exceed $1,500,000;

"12 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $1,500,000 and does not exceed $2,000,000;

"14 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $2,000,000 and does not exceed $3,000,000;

"16 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $3,000,000 and does not exceed $4,000,000;

"18 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $4,000,000 and does not exceed $5,000,000;

"20 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $5,000,000 and does not exceed $8,000,000;

"22 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $8,000,000 and does not exceed $10,000,000; and

"25 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $10,000,000."

(b) Subdivision (a) of this section shall take effect as of June 2, 1924. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 301(a), 43 Stat. 303; Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 322, 44 Stat. 85.)

Section 303, referred to in this amendatory section, is set forth in § 1095 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE.

1093. Taxes paid States, Territories, or District of Columbia as credits; limitation.—The tax imposed by this section shall be credited with the amount of any estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes actually paid to any state or territory or the District of Columbia, in respect of any property included in the gross estate. The credit allowed by this subdivision shall not exceed 80 per centum of the tax imposed by this section, and shall include only such taxes as were actually paid and credit therefor claimed within three years after the filing of the return required by section 304. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 301 (b), 44 Stat. 70.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

"This section," herein referred to, is set out in §§ 1092 and 1093 of this supplemental title. Section 304, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1096 of this supplemental title.

1094. Gross estate; value of.—The value of the gross estate of the decedent shall be determined by including the value at the time of his death of all property, real or personal, tangible or intangible, wherever situated—

(a) To the extent of the interest therein of the decedent at the time of his death;

(b) To the extent of any interest therein of the surviving spouse, existing at the time of the decedent's death as dower, curtesy, or by virtue of a statute creating an estate in lieu of dower or curtesy;

(c) To the extent of any interest therein of which the decedent has at any time made a transfer, by trust or otherwise, in contemplation of or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after his death, except in case of a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth. Where within two years prior to his death but after the enactment of this Act and without such a consideration the decedent has made a transfer or transfers, by trust or otherwise, of any of his property, or an interest therein, not admitted or shown to have been made in contemplation of or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after his death, and the value or aggregate value, at the time of such death, of the property or interest so transferred to any one person is in excess of $5,000, then, to the extent of such excess, such transfer or transfers shall be deemed and held to have been made in contemplation of death within the meaning of this title. Any transfer of a material part of his property in the nature of a final disposition or distribution thereof, made by the decedent within two years prior to his death but prior to the enactment of this Act, without such consideration, shall, unless shown to the contrary, be deemed to have been made in contemplation of death within the meaning of this title;

(d) To the extent of any interest therein of which the decedent has at any time made a transfer, by trust or otherwise, where the enjoyment thereof was subject at the date of his death to any change through the exercise of a power, either by the decedent alone or in conjunction with any person, to alter, amend, or revoke, or where the decedent relinquished any such power in contemplation of his death, except in case of a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth. The relinquishment of any such power, not admitted or shown to have been in contemplation of the decedent's death, made within two years prior to his death but after the enactment of this Act without such a consideration and affecting the interest or interests (whether arising from one or more transfers or the creation of one or more trusts) of any one beneficiary of a value or aggregate value, at the time of such death, in excess of $5,000, then, to the extent of such excess, such relinquishment or relinquishments shall be deemed and held to have been made in contemplation of death within the meaning of this title;

(e) To the extent of the interest therein held as joint tenants by the decedent and any other person, or as tenants by the entirety by the decedent and spouse, or deposited, with any person carrying on the banking business, in their joint names and payable to either or the survivor, except such part thereof as may be shown to have originally belonged to such other person and never to have been received or acquired by the latter from the decedent for less than an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth: Provided, That where such property or any part thereof, or part of the consideration with which such property was acquired, is shown to have been at any time acquired by such other person from the decedent for less than an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, there shall be excepted only such part of the value of such property as is proportionate to the consideration furnished by such other person: Provided further, That where any property has been acquired by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance, as a tenancy by the entirety by the decedent and spouse, then to the extent of one-half of the value thereof, or, where so acquired by the decedent and any other person as joint tenants and their interests are not otherwise specified or fixed by law, then to the extent of the value of a fractional part to be determined by dividing the value of the property by the number of joint tenants;

(f) To the extent of any property passing under a general power of appointment exercised by the decedent (1) by will, or (2) by deed executed in contemplation of, or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after, his death, except in case of a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth; and

(g) To the extent of the amount receivable by the executor as insurance under policies taken out by the decedent upon his own life; and to the extent of the excess over $40,000 of the amount receivable by all other beneficiaries as insurance under policies taken out by the decedent upon his own life.

(h) Except as otherwise specifically provided therein subdivisions (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g) of this section shall apply to the transfers, trusts, estates, interests, rights, powers, and relinquishment of powers, as severally enumerated and described therein, whether made, created, arising, existing, exercised, or relinquished before or after the enactment of this Act.

(i) If any one of the transfers, trusts, interests, rights, or powers, enumerated and described in subdivisions (c), (d), and (f) of this section is made, created, exercised, or relinquished for a consideration in money or money's worth, but is not a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, there shall be included in the gross estate only the excess of the fair market value at the time of death of the property otherwise to be included on account of such transaction, over the value of the consideration received therefor by the decedent. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 320, 44 Stat. 70.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 20 of this supplemental title.

1095. Net estate; how determined.—For the purpose of the tax the value of the net estate shall be determined—

(a) Residents; deductions; exemption.—In the case of a resident, by deducting from the value of the gross estate—

(1) Such amounts for funeral expenses, administration expenses, claims against the estate, unpaid mortgages upon, or any indebtedness in respect to, property (except, in the case of a resident decedent, where such property is not situated in the United States), to the extent that such claims, mortgages, or indebtedness were incurred or contracted bona fide and for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, losses incurred during the settlement of the estate arising from fires, storms, shipwreck, or other casualty, or from theft, when such losses are not compensated for by insurance or otherwise, and such amounts reasonably required and actually expended for the support during the settlement of the estate of those dependent upon the decedent, as are allowed by the laws of the jurisdiction, whether within or without the United States, under which the estate is being administered, but not including any income taxes upon income received after the death of the decedent, or any estate, succession, legacy, or inheritance taxes;

(2) An amount equal to the value of any property (A) forming a part of the gross estate situated in the United States of any person who died within five years prior to the death of the decedent, or (B) transferred to the decedent by gift within five years prior to his death, where such property can be identified as having been received by the decedent from such donor by gift or from such prior decedent by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance, or which can be identified as having been acquired in exchange for property so received. This deduction shall be allowed only where a gift tax imposed under the Revenue Act of 1924, or an estate tax imposed under this or any prior Act of Congress was paid by or on behalf of the donor or the estate of such prior decedent as the case may be, and only in the amount of the value placed by the commissioner on such property in determining the value of the gift or the gross estate of such prior decedent, and only to the extent that the value of such property is included in the decedent's gross estate and not deducted under paragraph (1) or (3) of this subdivision;

(3) The amount of all bequests, legacies, devises, or transfers, to or for the use of the United States, any State, Territory, any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, for exclusively public purposes, or to or for the use of any corporation organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, including the encouragement of art and the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual, or to a trustee or trustees, or a fraternal society, order, or association operating under the lodge system, but only if such contributions or gifts are to be used by such trustee or trustees, or by such fraternal society, order, or association, exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals. The amount of the deduction under this paragraph for any transfer shall not exceed the value of the transferred property required to be included in the gross estate; and

(4) An exemption of $100,000.

(b) Nonresidents.—In the case of a nonresident, by deducting from the value of that part of his gross estate which at the time of his death is situated in the United States—

(1) That proportion of the deductions specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of this section which the value of such part bears to the value of his entire gross estate, wherever situated, but in no case shall the amount so deducted exceed 10 per centum of the value of that part of his gross estate which at the time of his death is situated in the United States.

(2) An amount equal to the value of any property (A) forming a part of the gross estate situated in the United States of any person who died within five years prior to the death of the decedent, or (B) transferred to the decedent by gift within five years prior to his death, where such property can be identified as having been received by the decedent from such donor by gift or from such prior decedent by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance, or which can be identified as having been acquired in exchange for property so received. This deduction shall be allowed only where a gift tax imposed under the Revenue Act of 1924, or an estate tax imposed under this or any prior Act of Congress was paid by or on behalf of the donor or the estate of such prior decedent as the case may be, and only in the amount of the value placed by the Commissioner on such property in determining the value of the gift or the gross estate of such prior decedent, and only to the extent that the value of such property is included in that part of the decedent's gross estate which at the time of his death is situated in the United States and not deducted under paragraph (1) or (3) of this subdivision; and

(3) The amount of all bequests, legacies, devises, or transfers, to or for the use of the United States, any State, Territory, any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, for exclusively public purposes, or to or for the use of any domestic corporation organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, including the encouragement of art and the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual, or to a trustee or trustees, or a fraternal society, order, or association operating under the lodge system, but only if such contributions or gifts are to be used within the United States by such trustee or trustees, or by such fraternal society, order, or association, exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals. The amount of the deduction under this paragraph for any transfer shall not exceed the value of the transferred property required to be included in the gross estate.

(c) No deduction shall be allowed in the case of a nonresident unless the executor includes in the return required to be filed under section 304 the value at the time of his death of that part of the gross estate of the nonresident not situated in the United States.

(d) For the purpose of this title, stock in a domestic corporation owned and held by a nonresident decedent shall be deemed property within the United States, and any property of which the decedent has made a transfer, by trust or otherwise, within the meaning of subdivision (c) or (d) of section 302, shall be deemed to be situated in the United States, if so situated either at the time of the transfer, or at the time of the decedent's death.

(e) The amount receivable as insurance upon the life of a nonresident decedent, and any moneys deposited with any person carrying on the banking business, by or for a nonresident decedent who was not engaged in business in the United States at the time of his death, shall not, for the purpose of this title, be deemed property within the United States.

(c) Missionaries dying in foreign service.—(f) Missionaries duly commissioned and serving under boards of foreign missions of the various religious denominations in the United States, dying while in the foreign missionary service of such boards, shall not, by reason merely of their intention to permanently remain in such foreign service, be deemed nonresidents of the United States, but shall be presumed to be residents of the State, the District of Columbia, or the Territories of Alaska or Hawaii wherein they respectively resided at the time of their commission and their departure for such foreign service. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 303, 44 Stat. 72.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

The Revenue Act of 1924, herein referred to, is set out in Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE. "This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 20 of this supplemental title. Sections 302 and 304, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 1094 and 1096 of this supplemental title.

Section 303 of the Revenue Act of 1924 (§ 1095 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE) was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, as of the date thereof. A portion of said section was retroactively repealed as of June 2, 1924, by § 323 of the said Act of 1926, as follows:

"(a) So much of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) and of paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) of section 303 of the Revenue Act of 1924 as reads as follows: 'If the tax imposed by section 301, or any estate, succession, legacy, or inheritance taxes, are, either by the terms of the will, by the law of the jurisdiction under which the estate is administered, or by the law of the jurisdiction imposing the particular tax, payable in whole or in part out of the bequests, legacies, or devises otherwise deductible under this paragraph, then the amount deductible under this paragraph shall be the amount of such bequests, legacies, or devises reduced by the amount of such taxes' is repealed.

"(b) Subdivision (a) of this section shall take effect as of June 2, 1924." (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 323, 44 Stat. 86.)

Section 301, referred to in this repealing provision, is set out in §§ 1092 and 1093 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE.

1096. Executors; notice of appointment; returns; time for filing; contents.—(a) The executor, within two months after the decedent's death, or within a like period after qualifying as such, shall give written notice thereof to the collector. The executor shall also, at such times and in such manner as may be required by regulations made pursuant to law, file with the collector a return under oath in duplicate, setting forth (1) the value of the gross estate of the decedent at the time of his death, or, in case of a nonresident, of that part of his gross estate situated in the United States; (2) the deductions allowed under section 303; (3) the value of the net estate of the decedent as defined in section 303; and (4) the tax paid or payable thereon; or such part of such information as may at the time be ascertainable and such supplemental data as may be necessary to establish the correct tax.

(b) Return shall be made in all cases where the gross estate at the death of the decedent exceeds $100,000, and in the case of the estate of every nonresident any part of whose gross estate is situated in the United States. If the executor is unable to make a complete return as to any part of the gross estate of the decedent, he shall include in his return a description of such part and the name of every person holding a legal or beneficial interest therein, and upon notice from the collector such person shall in like manner make a return as to such part of the gross estate. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 304, 44 Stat. 74.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

Section 303, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1095 of this supplemental title.

1096a. Notice of administrative or fiduciary capacity; effect; notice of deficiency in absence of above.—(a) Upon notice to the commissioner that any person is acting as executor, such person shall assume the powers, rights, duties, and privileges of an executor in respect of a tax imposed by this title or by any prior estate tax Act, until notice is given that such person is no longer acting as executor.

(b) Upon notice to the commissioner that any person is acting in a fiduciary capacity for a person subject to the liability specified in section 316, the fiduciary shall assume on behalf of such person the powers, rights, duties, and privileges of such person under such section (except that the liability shall be collected from the estate of such person), until notice is given that the fiduciary capacity has terminated.

(c) Notice under subdivision (a) or (b) shall be given in accordance with regulations prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary.

(d) In the absence of any notice of the commissioner under subdivision (a) or (b), notice under this title of a deficiency or other liability, if addressed in the name of the decedent or other person subject to liability and mailed to his last known address, shall be sufficient for the purposes of this title. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 317, 44 Stat. 81.)

New section. "This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 20 of this supplemental title. Section 316, mentioned in the tax, is set out in § 1119 of this supplemental title.

1097. Time for payment of tax; to whom payable; extension of time; interest.—(a) The tax imposed by this title shall be due and payable one year after the decedent's death, and shall be paid by the executor to the collector.

(b) Where the commissioner finds that the payment on the due date of any part of the amount determined by the executor as the tax would impose undue hardship upon the estate, the commissioner may extend the time for payment of any such part not to exceed five years from the due date. In such case the amount in respect of which the extension is granted shall be paid on or before the date of the expiration of the period of the extension.

(c) If the time for the payment is thus extended there shall be collected, as a part of such amount, interest thereon at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the expiration of six months after the due date of the tax to the expiration of the period of the extension. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 305 (a), (b), (c), 44 Stat. 74.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 20 of this supplemental title.

1098. Same; tax imposed by former law; extension of time for payment.—The time for which the commissioner may extend the time for payment of the estate tax imposed by Title IV of the Revenue Act of 1921 shall be five years. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 305 (d), 44 Stat. 74.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

1099. Examination of return and determination of amount of tax.—As soon as practicable after the return is filed the commissioner shall examine it and shall determine the correct amount of the tax. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 306, 44 Stat. 74.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

1100. Deficiency; what constitutes.—As used in this title in respect of a tax imposed by this title the term "deficiency" means—

(1) The amount by which the tax imposed by this title exceeds the amount shown as the tax by the executor upon his return; but the amount so shown on the return shall first be increased by the amounts previously assessed (or collected without assessment) as a deficiency, and decreased by the amounts previously abated, refunded, or otherwise repaid in respect of such tax; or

(2) If no amount is shown as the tax by the executor upon his return, or if no return is made by the executor, then the amount by which the tax exceeds the amounts previously assessed (or collected without assessment) as a deficiency; but such amounts previously assessed, or collected without assessment, shall first be decreased by the amounts previously abated, refunded, or otherwise repaid in respect of such tax. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 307, 44 Stat. 74.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 20 of this supplemental title.

1101. Same; notice of; appeal by executor [limitations on assessment and collection of deficiency].—If the commissioner determines that there is a deficiency in respect of the tax imposed by this title, the commissioner is authorized to send notice of such deficiency to the executor by registered mail. Within 60 days after such notice is mailed (not counting Sunday as the sixtieth day), the executor may file a petition with the Board of Tax Appeals for a redetermination of the deficiency. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (d) or (f) of this section or in section 312 or 1001, no assessment of a deficiency in respect of the tax imposed by this title and no distraint or proceeding in court for its collection shall be made, begun, or prosecuted until such notice has been mailed to the executor, nor until the expiration of such 60-day period, nor, if a petition has been filed with the board, until the decision of the board has become final. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 3224 of the Revised Statutes the making of such assessment or the beginning of such proceeding or distraint during the time such prohibition is in force may be enjoined by a proceeding in the proper court. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 308 (a), 44 Stat. 75.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 20 of this supplemental title. Subdivisions (d) and (f), mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 1101a and 1101b, respectively, of this supplemental title. Section 312, mentioned in the text, is set out in §§ 1104, 1105, and 1137 of this supplemental title. Section 1001, similarly mentioned, is set out in § 1224 of this supplemental title, and § 3224 of the Revised Statutes, similarly mentioned, is set out in § 154 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE.

1101a. Same; waiver of restrictions; on assessment and collection.—The executor shall at any time have the right, by a signed notice in writing filed with the commissioner, to waive the restrictions provided in subdivision (a) of this section on the assessment and collection of the whole or any part of the deficiency. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 308 (d), 44 Stat. 75.)

Subdivision (a), mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1101 of this supplemental title.

1101b. Same; additional deficiency; mathematical error.—If after the enactment of this Act the commissioner has mailed to the executor notice of a deficiency as provided in subdivision (a), and the executor files a petition with the board within the time prescribed in such subdivision, the commissioner shall have no right to determine any additional deficiency, except in the case of fraud, and except as provided in subdivision (e) of this section or in subdivision (c) of section 312. If the executor is notified that, on account of a mathematical error appearing upon the face of the return, an amount of tax in excess of that shown upon the return is due, and that an assessment of the tax has been or will be made on the basis of what would have been the correct amount of tax but for the mathematical error, such notice shall not be considered, for the purposes of this subdivision or of subdivision (a) of this section, or of section 319, as a notice of a deficiency, and the executor shall have no right to file a petition with the Board of Tax Appeals based on such notice, nor shall such assessment or collection be prohibited by the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 308 (f), 44 Stat. 75.)

New section.

Subdivisions (a) and (e), mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 1101 and 1102a, respectively, of this supplemental title. Subdivision (c) of § 312, similarly mentioned, is set out in § 1104 of said title, and § 319, also mentioned, is set out in § 1120 of said title.

1102. Same; determination by board; assessment and payment of; collection of deficiency disallowed.—If the executor files a petition with the board, the entire amount redetermined as the deficiency by the decision of the board which has become final shall be assessed and shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector. No part of the amount determined as a deficiency by the commissioner but disallowed as such by the decision of the board which has become final shall be assessed or be collected by distraint or by proceeding in court with or without assessment. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 308 (b), 44 Stat. 75.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

1102a. Same; redetermination by board.—The board shall have jurisdiction to redetermine the correct amount of the deficiency even if the amount so redetermined is greater than the amount of the deficiency, notice of which has been mailed to the executor, and to determine whether any additional amount or addition to the tax should be assessed, if claim therefor is asserted by the commissioner at or before the hearing or a rehearing. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 308 (e), 44 Stat. 75.)

New section.

1102b. Same; when decision of board becomes final.—For the purposes of this title the date on which a decision of the board becomes final shall be determined according to the provisions of section 1005. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 308 (g), 44 Stat. 75.)

New section. "This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 20 of this supplemental title. Section 1005, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1228 of said title.

1103. Same; failure to file appeal; assessment and payment of deficiency.—If the executor does not file a petition with the board within the time prescribed in subdivision (a) of this section, the deficiency, notice of which has been mailed to the executor, shall be assessed, and shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 308 (c), 44 Stat. 75.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

Subdivision (a), mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1101 of this supplemental title.

1104. Same; assessment and collection of deficiency where delay would be dangerous.—(a) If the commissioner believes that the assessment or collection of a deficiency will be jeopardized by delay, he shall immediately assess such deficiency (together with all interest, additional amounts, or additions to the tax provided for by law) and notice and demand shall be made by the collector for the payment thereof.

(b) If the jeopardy assessment is made before any notice in respect of the tax to which the jeopardy assessment relates has been mailed under subdivision (a) of section 308, then the commissioner shall mail a notice under such subdivision within 60 days after the making of the assessment.

(c) The jeopardy assessment may be made in respect of a deficiency greater or less than that notice of which has been mailed to the executor, despite the provisions of subdivision (f) of section 308 and whether or not the executor has theretofore filed a petition with the Board of Tax Appeals. The commissioner shall notify the board of the amount of such assessment, if the petition is filed with the board before the making of the assessment or is subsequently filed, and the board shall have jurisdiction to redetermine the entire amount of the deficiency and of all amounts assessed at the same time in connection therewith.

(d) If the jeopardy assessment is made after the decision of the board is rendered such assessment may be made only in respect of the deficiency determined by the board in its decision.

(e) A jeopardy assessment may not be made after the decision of the board has become final or after the executor has filed a petition for review of the decision of the board.

(f) When a jeopardy assessment has been made the executor, within 30 days after notice and demand from the collector for the payment of the amount of the assessment, may obtain a stay of collection of the whole or any part of the amount of the assessment by filing with the collector a bond in such amount not exceeding double the amount as to which the stay is desired, and with such sureties, as the collector deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of so much of the amount, the collection of which is stayed by the bond, as is not abated by a decision of the board which has become final, together with interest thereon as provided in subdivision (j) of this section.

(g) If the bond is given before the executor has filed his petition with the board under subdivision (a) of section 308, the bond shall contain a further condition that if a petition is not filed within the period provided in such subdivision, then the amount the collection of which is stayed by the bond will be paid on notice and demand at any time after the expiration of such period, together with interest thereon at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date of the jeopardy notice and demand to the date of notice and demand under this subdivision.

(h) Upon the filing of the bond the collection of so much of the amount assessed as is covered by the bond shall be stayed. The executor shall have the right to waive such stay at any time in respect of the whole or any part of the amount covered by the bond, and if as a result of such waiver any part of the amount covered by the bond is paid, then the bond shall, at the request of the executor, be proportionately reduced. If the board determines that the amount assessed is greater than the amount which should have been assessed, then when the decision of the board is rendered the bond shall, at the request of the executor, be proportionately reduced.

(i) When the petition has been filed with the board and when the amount which should have been assessed has been determined by a decision of the board which has become final, then any unpaid portion, the collection of which has been stayed by the bond, shall be collected as part of the tax upon notice and demand from the collector, and any remaining portion of the assessment shall be abated. If the amount already collected exceeds the amount determined as the amount which should have been assessed, such excess shall be refunded. If the amount determined as the amount which should have been assessed is greater than the amount actually assessed, then the difference shall be assessed and shall be collected as part of the tax upon notice and demand from the collector.

(j) In the case of the amount collected under subdivision (i) there shall be collected at the same time as such amount, and as a part of the tax, interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum upon such amount from the date of the jeopardy notice and demand to the date of notice and demand under subdivision (i) of this section, or, in the case of the amount collected in excess of the amount of the jeopardy assessment, interest as provided in subdivision (h) of section 308. If the amount included in the notice and demand from the collector under subdivision (i) of this section is not paid in full within 30 days after such notice and demand, then there shall be collected, as part of the tax, interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of 1 per centum a month from the date of such notice and demand until it is paid. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 312 (a–j), 44 Stat. 77.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

Subdivisions (a), (f), and (h) of § 308, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 1101, 1101b, 1106 of this supplemental title.

1105. Claim in abatement.—No claim in abatement shall be filed in respect of any assessment made after the enactment of this Act in respect of any estate tax. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 312 (k), 44 Stat. 77.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

1106. Deficiency; interest on.—Interest upon the amount determined as a deficiency shall be assessed at the same time as the deficiency, shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector, and shall be collected as a part of the tax, at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the due date of the tax to the date the deficiency is assessed, or, in the case of a waiver under subdivision (d) of this section, to the thirtieth day after the filing of such waiver or to the date the deficiency is assessed whichever is the earlier. (Feb. 26, 1826, c. 27, § 308 (h), 44 Stat. 75.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

Subdivision (d), mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1101a of this supplemental title.

1107. Same; extension of time for payment of.—Where it is shown to the satisfaction of the commissioner that the payment of a deficiency upon the date prescribed for the payment thereof will result in undue hardship to the estate, the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary (except where the deficiency is due to negligence, to intentional disregard of rules and regulations, or to fraud with intent to evade tax) may grant an extension for the payment of such deficiency or any part thereof for a period not in excess of two years. If an extension is granted, the commissioner may require the executor to furnish a bond in such amount, not exceeding double the amount of the deficiency, and with such sureties, as the commissioner deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of the deficiency in accordance with the terms of the extension. In such case there shall be collected, as a part of the tax, interest on the part of the deficiency the time for payment of which is so extended, at the rate of 6 per centum per annum for the period of the extension, and no other interest shall be collected on such part of the deficiency for such period. If the part of the deficiency the time for payment of which is so extended is not paid in accordance with the terms of the extension, there shall be collected, as a part of the tax, interest on such unpaid amount at the rate of 1 per centum a month for the period from the time fixed by the terms of the extension for its payment until it is paid, and no other interest shall be collected on such unpaid amount for such period. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 308 (i), 44 Stat. 75.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

1108. Additional tax for failure to file return assessed, etc., as deficiency.—The 50 per centum addition to the tax provided by section 3176 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, shall, when assessed after the enactment of this Act in connection with an estate tax, be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner as if it were a deficiency, except that the provisions of subdivision (h) of this section shall not be applicable. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 308 (j), 44 Stat. 75.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

Subdivision (h), mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1106 of this supplemental title. Section 3176 of the Revised Statutes, similarly mentioned, is set out in §§ 97 and 98 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE.

1109. Interest on unpaid taxes.—(a) (1) Where the amount determined by the executor as the tax imposed by this title, or any part of such amount, is not paid on the due date of the tax, there shall be collected as a part of the tax, interest upon such unpaid amount at the rate of 1 per centum a month from the due date until it is paid.

(2) Where an extension of time for payment of the amount so determined as the tax by the executor has been granted, and the amount the time for payment of which has been extended, and the interest thereon determined under subdivision (c) of section 305, is not paid in full prior to the expiration of the period of the extension, then, in lieu of the interest provided for in paragraph (1) of this subdivision, interest at the rate of 1 per centum a month shall be collected on such unpaid amount from the date of the expiration of the period of the extension until it is paid.

(b) Where a deficiency, or any interest assessed in connection therewith under subdivision (h) of section 308, or any addition to the tax provided for in section 3176 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, is not paid in full within 30 days from the date of notice and demand from the collector, there shall be collected as part of the tax, interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of 1 per centum a month from the date of such notice and demand until it is paid.

(c) If a bond is filed, as provided in section 312, the provisions of subdivision (b) of this section shall not apply to the amount covered by the bond. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 309, 44 Stat. 76.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 20 of this supplemental title. Subdivisions (c) of § 305, and (h) of § 308, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 1097 and 1106 of this supplemental title. Section 312, similarly mentioned, is set out in §§ 1104, 1105, and 1137 of said title. Section 3176 of the Revised Statutes, similarly mentioned, is set out in §§ 97 and 98 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE.

1110. Time for assessment and collection of tax.—(a) Except as provided in section 311, the amount of the estate taxes imposed by this title shall be assessed within three years after the return was filed, and no proceeding in court without assessment for the collection of such taxes shall be begun after the expiration of three years after the return was filed.

(b) The running of the statute of limitations provided in this section or in section 311 on the making of assessments and the beginning of distraint or a proceeding in court for collection, in respect of any deficiency, shall (after the mailing of a notice under subdivision (a) of section 308) be suspended for the period during which the commissioner is prohibited from making the assessment or beginning distraint or a proceeding in court, and for 60 days thereafter. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 310, 44 Stat. 77.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

This title herein referred to, constitutes c. 20 of this supplemental title. Subdivision (a) of § 308, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1101 of this supplemental title and § 311, similarly mentioned, is set out in § 1111 of said title.

1111. Same; false or fraudulent returns; time for collection by distraint or court proceeding.—(a) In the case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax or of a failure to file a return the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time.

(b) Where the assessment of any tax imposed by this title or of any estate or gift tax imposed by prior Act of Congress has been made (whether before or after the enactment of this Act) within the statutory period of limitation properly applicable thereto, such tax may be collected by distraint or by a proceeding in court (begun before or after the enactment of this Act), but only if begun (1) within six years after the assessment of the tax, or (2) prior to the expiration of any period for collection agreed upon in writing by the commissioner and the executor.

(c) This section shall not bar a distraint or proceeding in court begun before the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1924; nor shall it authorize the assessment of a tax or the collection thereof by distraint or by proceeding in court (1) if at the time of the enactment of this Act such assessment, distraint, or proceeding was barred by the statutory period of limitation properly applicable thereto, unless prior to the enactment of this Act the commissioner and the executor agreed in writing thereto, or (2) contrary to the provisions of subdivision (a) of section 308, of this Act. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 311, 44 Stat. 77.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

This title, herein referred to, constitutes c. 20 of this supplemental title. The Revenue Act of 1924, mentioned in the text, is set out in Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE. Subdivision (a) of § 308, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1101 of this supplemental title.

1112. Duplicate tax receipts; discharge of executor from personal liability.—(a) The collector shall grant to the person paying the tax duplicate receipts, either of which shall be sufficient evidence of such payment, and shall entitle the executor to be credited and allowed the amount thereof by any court having jurisdiction to audit or settle his accounts.

(b) If the executor makes written application to the commissioner for determination of the amount of the tax and discharge from personal liability therefor, the commissioner (as soon as possible, and in any event within one year after the making of such application, or, if the application is made before the return is filed, then within one year after the return is filed, but not after the expiration of the period prescribed for the assessment of the tax in section 310) shall notify the executor of the amount of the tax. The executor, upon payment of the amount of which he is notified, shall be discharged from personal liability for any deficiency in tax thereafter found to be due and shall be entitled to a receipt or writing showing such discharge. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 313 (a) (b), 44 Stat. 79.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

Section 310, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1110 of this supplemental title.

1113. Lien for deficiency; liability of bona fide purchaser.—The provisions of subdivision (b) shall not operate as a release of any part of the gross estate from the lien for any deficiency that may thereafter be determined to be due, unless the title to such part of the gross estate has passed to a bona fide purchaser for value, in which case such part shall not be subject to a lien or to any claim or demand for any such deficiency, but the lien shall attach to the consideration received from such purchaser by the heirs, legatees, devisees, or distributees. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 313 (c), 44 Stat. 79.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

Subdivision (b), mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1112 of this supplemental title.

1114. Collection of tax; reimbursement of person paying tax; liability of insurance beneficiaries.—(a) If the tax herein imposed is not paid on or before the due date thereof the collector shall, upon instruction from the commissioner, proceed to collect the tax under the provisions of general law, or commence appropriate proceedings in any court of the United States having jurisdiction, in the name of the United States, to subject the property of the decedent to be sold under the judgment or decree of the court. From the proceeds of such sale the amount of the tax, together with the costs and expenses of every description to be allowed by the court, shall be first paid, and the balance shall be deposited according to the order of the court, to be paid under its direction to the person entitled thereto. This subdivision in so far as it applies to the collection of a deficiency shall be subject to the provisions of section 308.

(b) If the tax or any part thereof is paid by, or collected out of that part of the estate passing to or in the possession of, any person other than the executor in his capacity as such, such person shall be entitled to reimbursement out of any part of the estate still undistributed or by a just and equitable contribution by the persons whose interest in the estate of the decedent would have been reduced if the tax had been paid before the distribution of the estate or whose interest is subject to equal or prior liability for the payment of taxes, debts, or other charges against the estate, it being the purpose and intent of this title that so far as is practicable and unless otherwise directed by the will of the decedent the tax shall be paid out of the estate before its distribution. If any part of the gross estate consists of proceeds of policies of insurance upon the life of the decedent receivable by a beneficiary other than the executor, the executor shall be entitled to recover from such beneficiary such portion of the total tax paid as the proceeds, in excess of $40,000, of such policies bear to the net estate. If there is more than one such beneficiary the executor shall be entitled to recover from such beneficiaries in the same ratio. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 314, 44 Stat. 79.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

This title, herein referred to, constitutes c. 20 of this supplemental title. Section 308, mentioned in the text, is set out in §§ 1101 to 1103, inclusive, and §§ 1106 to 1108, inclusive.

1115. Lien of tax; liability of transferee or trustee of decedent; bona fide purchasers.—(a) Unless the tax is sooner paid in full, it shall be a lien for ten years upon the gross estate of the decedent, except that such part of the gross estate as is used for the payment of charges against the estate and expenses of its administration, allowed by any court having jurisdiction thereof, shall be divested of such lien. If the commissioner is satisfied that the tax liability of an estate has been fully discharged or provided for, he may, under regulations prescribed by him with the approval of the Secretary, issue his certificate, releasing any or all property of such estate from the lien herein imposed.

(b) If (1) the decedent makes a transfer, by trust or otherwise, of any property in contemplation of or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after his death (except in the case of a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth) or (2) if insurance passes under a contract executed by the decedent in favor of a specific beneficiary, and if in either case the tax in respect thereto is not paid when due, then the transferee, trustee, or beneficiary shall be personally liable for such tax, and such property, to the extent of the decedent's interest therein at the time of such transfer, or to the extent of such beneficiary's interest under such contract of insurance, shall be subject to a like lien equal to the amount of such tax. Any part of such property sold by such transferee or trustee to a bona fide purchaser for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth shall be divested of the lien and a like lien shall then attach to all the property of such transferee or trustee, except any part sold to a bona fide purchaser for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 315, 44 Stat. 80.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

1116. False statements; penalty; failure to make return or disclose information; penalty.—(a) Whoever knowingly makes any false statement in any notice or return required to be filed under this title shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding $5,000, or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both.

(b) Whoever fails to comply with any duty imposed upon him by section 304, or, having in his possession or control any record, file, or paper, containing or supposed to contain any information concerning the estate of the decedent, or, having in his possession or control any property comprised in the gross estate of the decedent, fails to exhibit the same upon request to the commissioner or any collector or law officer of the United States or his duly authorized deputy or agent, who desires to examine the same in the performance of his duties under this title, shall be liable to a penaly of not exceeding $500, to be recovered, with costs of suit, in a civil action in the name of the United States. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 320, 44 Stat. 85.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

This title, herein referred to, constitutes c. 20 of this supplemental title. Section 304, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1096 of this supplemental title.

1117. Estates in China; payment of tax to clerk of United States Court for China.—(a) The term "resident" as used in this title includes a citizen of the United States with respect to whose property any probate or administration proceedings are had in the United States Court for China. Where no part of the gross estate of such decedent is situated in the United States at the time of his death, the total amount of tax due under this title shall be paid to or collected by the clerk of such court, but where any part of the gross estate of such decedent is situated in the United States at the time of his death, the tax due under this title shall be paid to or collected by the collector of the district in which is situated the part of the gross estate in the United States, or, if such part is situated in more than one district, then the collector of such district as may be designated by the commissioner.

(b) For the purpose of this section the clerk of the United States Court for China shall be a collector for the territorial jurisdiction of such court, and taxes shall be collected by and paid to him in the same manner and subject to the same provisions of law, including penalties, as the taxes collected by and paid to a collector in the United States. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 321, 44 Stat. 85.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 20 of this supplemental title.

1118. Assessment and collection of tax under prior laws.—(a) If after the enactment of this Act the commissioner determines that any assessment should be made in respect of any estate or gift tax imposed by the Revenue Act of 1917, the Revenue Act of 1918, the Revenue Act of 1921, or the Revenue Act of 1924, or by any such Act as amended, the commissioner is authorized to send by registered mail to the person liable for such tax notice of the amount proposed to be assessed, which notice shall, for the purposes of this Act, be considered a notice under subdivision (a) of section 308 of this Act. In the case of any such determination the amount which should be assessed (whether as deficiency or additional tax or as interest, penalty, or other addition to the tax) shall be computed as if this Act had not been enacted, but the amount so computed shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and limitations (including the provisions in case of delinquency in payment after notice and demand and the provisions prohibiting claims and suits for refund) as in the case of a deficiency in the tax imposed by this title, except that in the case of an estate tax imposed by the Revenue Act of 1917, the Revenue Act of 1918, or the Revenue Act of 1921, or by any such Act as amended, the period of limitation prescribed in section 1109 of this Act shall be applied in lieu of the period prescribed in subdivision (a) of section 310.

(b) If before the enactment of this Act any person has appealed to the Board of Tax Appeals under subdivision (a) of section 308 of the Revenue Act of 1924 (if such appeal relates to a tax imposed by Title III of such Act or to so much of an estate tax imposed by any of the prior Acts enumerated in subdivision (a) of this section as was not assessed before June 3, 1924), and the appeal is pending before the board at the time of the enactment of this Act, the board shall have jurisdiction of the appeal. In all such cases the powers, duties, rights, and privileges of the commissioner and of the person who has brought the appeal, and the jurisdiction of the board and of the courts, shall be determined, and the computation of the tax shall be made, in the same manner as provided in subdivision (a) of this section, except as provided in subdivision (h) of this section and except that the person liable for the tax shall not be subject to the provisions of subdivision (a) of section 319.

(c) If before the enactment of this Act the commissioner has mailed to any person a notice under subdivision (a) of section 308 of the Revenue Act of 1924 (whether in respect of a tax imposed by Title III of such Act or in respect of so much of an estate tax imposed by any of the prior Acts enumerated in subdivision (a) of this section as was not assessed before June 3, 1924), and if the sixty-day period referred to in such subdivision has not expired before the enactment of this Act and no appeal has been filed before the enactment of this Act, such person may file a petition with the board in the same manner as if a notice of deficiency had been mailed after the enactment of this Act in respect of a deficiency in a tax imposed by this title. In such cases the sixty-day period referred to in subdivision (a) of section 308 of this Act shall begin on the date of the enactment of this Act, and the powers, duties, rights, and privileges of the commissioner and of the person entitled to file the petition, and the jurisdiction of the board and of the courts, shall, whether or not the petition is filed, be determined, and the computation of the tax shall be made, in the same manner as provided in subdivision (a) of this section.

(d) If any deficiency in any estate tax imposed by the Revenue Act of 1917, the Revenue Act of 1918, or the Revenue Act of 1921, or by any such Act as amended, was assessed before June 3, 1924, but was not paid in full before the date of the enactment of this Act, and if the commissioner, after the enactment of this Act, finally determines the amount of the deficiency, he is authorized to send by registered mail to the person liable for such tax notice of such deficiency, which notice shall, for the purposes of this Act, be considered a notice under subdivision (a) of section 308 of this Act. In the case of any such final determination the amount of the tax (whether as deficiency or additional tax or as interest, penalty, or other addition to the tax) shall be computed as if this Act had not been enacted, but the amount so computed shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and limitations (including the provisions in cases of delinquency in payment after notice and demand, and the provisions relating to claims and suits for refund) as in the case of a deficiency in the tax imposed by this title, except as otherwise provided in subdivision (g) of this section, and except that the period of limitation prescribed in section 1109 of this Act shall be applied in lieu of the period prescribed in subdivision (a) of section 310.

(e) If any deficiency in any estate tax imposed by the Revenue Act of 1917, the Revenue Act of 1918, or the Revenue Act of 1921, or by any such Act as amended, was assessed before June 3, 1924, but was not paid in full before that date, and if the commissioner after June 2, 1924, but before the enactment of this Act, finally determined the amount of the deficiency, and if the person liable for such tax appealed before the enactment of this Act to the Board of Tax Appeals and the appeal is pending before the board at the time of the enactment of this Act, the board shall have jurisdiction of the appeal. In all such cases the powers, duties, rights, and privileges of the commissioner and of the person who has brought the appeal, and the jurisdiction of the board and of the courts, shall be determined, and the computation of the tax shall be made, in the same manner as provided in subdivision (d) of this section, except as provided in subdivision (h) of this section and except that the person liable for the tax shall not be subject to the provisions of subdivision (a) of section 319.

(f) If any deficiency in any estate tax imposed by the Revenue Act of 1917, the Revenue Act of 1918, or the Revenue Act of 1921, or by any such Act as amended, was assessed before June 3, 1924, but was not paid in full before the date of the enactment of this Act, and if the commissioner after June 2, 1924, finally determined the amount of the deficiency, and notified the person liable for such tax to that effect less than sixty days prior to the enactment of this Act and no appeal has been filed before the enactment of this Act, the person so notified may file a petition with the board in the same manner as if a notice of deficiency had been mailed after the enactment of this Act in respect of a deficiency in a tax imposed by this title. In such cases the sixty-day period referred to in subdivision (a) of section 308 of this Act shall begin on the date of the enactment of this Act, and, whether or not the petition is filed, the powers, duties, rights, and privileges of the commissioner and of the person who is so notified, and the jurisdiction of the board and of the courts, shall be determined, and the computation of the tax be made, in the same manner as provided in subdivision (d) of this section.

(g) In cases within the scope of subdivision (d), (e), or (f), if the commissioner believes that the collection of the deficiency will be jeopardized by delay, he may, despite the provisions of subdivision (a) of section 308 of this Act, instruct the collector to proceed to enforce the payment of the unpaid portion of the deficiency, and notice and demand shall be made by the collector for the payment thereof. Within thirty days after such jeopardy notice and demand the person liable for the tax may obtain a stay of collection of the whole or any part of the amount included in the notice and demand by filing with the collector a bond in like manner, under the same conditions, and with the same effect, as in the case of a bond to stay the collection of a jeopardy assessment under section 312 of this Act.

(h) In cases within the scope of subdivision (b) or (e) of this section where any hearing before the board has been held before the enactment of this Act and the decision is rendered after the enactment of this Act, such decision shall, for the purposes of this title, be considered to have become final upon the date when it is rendered and neither party shall have any right to petition for a review of the decision. The commissioner may, within one year from the time the decision is rendered, begin a proceeding in court for the collection of any part of the amount disallowed by the board, unless the statutory period of limitations properly applicable thereto has expired before the appeal was taken to the board. The court shall include in its judgment interest upon the amount thereof in the same cases, at the same rate, and for the same period, as if such amount were collected otherwise than by proceeding in court. In any such proceeding by the commissioner or in any suit by the taxpayer for a refund, the findings of the board shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated.

(i) Where before the enactment of this Act a jeopardy assessment has been made under subdivision (d) of section 308 of the Revenue Act of 1924 (whether of a deficiency in the tax imposed by Title III of such Act or of a deficiency in an estate tax imposed by any of the prior Acts enumerated in subdivision (a) of this section) all proceedings after the enactment of this Act shall be the same as under the Revenue Act of 1924 as amended by this Act, except that—

(1) A decision of the board rendered after the enactment of this Act where no hearing has been held by the board before the enactment of this Act may be reviewed in the same manner as provided in this Act in the case of a tax imposed by this title.

(2) Where no hearing has been held by the board before the enactment of this Act, the commissioner shall have no right to begin a proceeding in court for the collection of any part of the deficiency disallowed by the board; and

(3) In the consideration of the case the jurisdiction and powers of the board shall be the same as provided in this Act in the case of a tax imposed by this title.

(j) In the case of any estate or gift tax imposed by prior Act of Congress in computing the period of limitations provided in section 310 or 311 of this Act on the making of assessments and the beginning of distraint or a proceeding in court, the running of the statute of limitations shall be considered to have been suspended (in addition to the period of suspension provided for in subdivision (b) of section 310) for any period prior to the enactment of this Act during which the commissioner was prohibited from making the assessment or beginning distraint or proceeding in court. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 318, 44 Stat. 81.)

See note at beginning of Part I of this chapter.

The Revenue Act of 1924, mentioned in the text, is set out in Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE. Title III of the Revenue Act of 1924, similarly mentioned, constitutes c. 20 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE. Subdivisions (a) and (d) of § 308 of said Revenue Act, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 1101 and 1104, respectively, of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE. "This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 20 of this supplemental title. "This Act," herein referred to, constitutes this supplemental title. Subdivision (a) of § 308, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1101 of this supplemental title. Sections 310, 311, and 319, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 1110, 1111, and 1120, respectively, of this supplemental title. Section 312, similarly mentioned, is set out in §§ 1104, 1105, and 1137 of this supplemental title. Section 1109, similarly mentioned, is set out in §§ 105 and 108 of this supplemental title.

1119. Liability of transferee or fiduciary; assessment and collection; limitations.—(a) The amounts of the following liabilities shall, except as hereinafter in this section provided, be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and limitations as in the case of a deficiency in a tax imposed by this title (including the provisions in case of delinquency in payment after notice and demand, the provisions authorizing distraint and proceedings in court for collection, and the provisions prohibiting claims and suits for refunds):

(1) The liability, at law or in equity, of a transferee of property of a decedent or donor, in respect of the tax (including interest, additional amounts, and additions to the tax provided by law) imposed by this title or by any prior estate tax Act or by any gift tax Act.

(2) The liability of a fiduciary under section 3467 of the Revised Statutes in respect of the payment of any such tax from the estate of the decedent or donor.

Any such liability may be either as to the amount of tax shown on the return or as to any deficiency in tax.

(b) The period of limitation for assessment of any such liability of a transferee or fiduciary shall be as follows:

(1) Within one year after the expiration of the period of limitation for assessment against the executor or donor; or

(2) If the period of limitation for assessment against the executor expired before the enactment of this Act but assessment against the executor was made within such period, then within six years after the making of such assessment against the executor, but in no case later than one year after the enactment of this Act.

(3) If a court proceeding against the executor or donor for the collection of the tax has been begun within either of the above periods, then within one year after return of execution in such proceeding.

(c) The running of the period of limitation upon the assessment of the liability of a transferee or fiduciary shall, after the mailing of the notice under subdivision (a) of section 308 to the transferee or fiduciary, be suspended for the period during which the commissioner is prohibited from making the assessment in respect of the liability of the transferee or fiduciary, and for sixty days thereafter.

(d) This section shall not apply to any suit or other proceeding for the enforcement of the liability of a transferee or fiduciary pending at the time of the enactment of this Act.

(e) As used in this section, the term "transferee" includes heir, legatee, devisee, and distributee. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 316, 44 Stat. 80.)

New section.

"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 20 of this supplemental title. Subdivision (a) of § 308, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 1101 of this supplemental title. Section 3467 of the Revised Statutes, similarly mentioned, is set out in § 192 of Title 31, MONEY AND FINANCE.

1120. Refund or suit for recovery of tax; restrictions on; limitations.—(a) If the commissioner has mailed to the executor a notice of deficiency under subdivision (a) of section 308 and if the executor after the enactment of this Act files a petition with the Board of Tax Appeals within the time prescribed in such subdivision, no refund in respect of the tax shall be allowed or made and no suit for the recovery for any part of such tax shall be instituted in any court, except—

(1) As provided in subdivision (c) of this section or in subdivision (i) of section 312 or in subdivision (b), (e), or (g) of section 318 or in subdivision (d) of section 1001; and

(2) As to any amount collected in excess of an amount computed in accordance with the decision of the board which has become final; and

(3) As to any amount collected after the statutory period of limitations upon the beginning of distraint or a proceeding in court for collection has expired; but in any such claim for refund or in any such suit for refund the decision of the board which has become final, as to whether such period had expired before the notice of deficiency was mailed, shall be conclusive.

(b) All claims for the refunding of the tax imposed by this title alleged to have been erroneously or illegally assessed or collected must be presented to the commissioner within three years next after the payment of such tax.

(c) If the board finds that there is no deficiency and further finds that the executor has made an overpayment of tax, the board shall have jurisdiction to determine the amount of such overpayment, and such amount shall, when the decision of the board has become final, be credited or refunded to the executor as provided in section 3220 of the Revised Statutes, as amended. Such refund shall be made either (1) if claim therefor was filed within the period of limitation provided for by law, or (2) if the petition was filed with the board within four years after the tax was paid, or, in the case of a tax imposed by this title, within three years after the tax was paid. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 319, 44 Stat. 84.)

New section.

"This title," herein referred to, constitutes c. 20 of this supplemental title. Section 3220 of the Revised Statutes, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 149 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE. Subdivision (a) of § 308 and subdivision (i) of § 312, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 1101 and 1104, respectively, of this supplemental title. Sections 318 and 1001, also mentioned, are set out in §§ 1118 and 1224, respectively, of said title.

1121. Refunds; interest.—Any tax that has been paid under the provisions of Title III of the Revenue Act of 1924 prior to the enactment of this Act in excess of the tax imposed by such title as amended by this Act shall be refunded without interest. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 325, 44 Stat. 87.)

New section.

Title III of the Revenue Act of 1924, mentioned in the text, constitutes c. 20 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE.

PART II.—GIFT TAX [REPEALED]

The statutes constituting §§ 1131 to 1136 of Title 26 of the Code were repealed by the Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, as of January 1, 1926. Section 324 of the said act retroactively amends § 319 of the Revenue Act of 1924, which constitutes § 1131 of said title, as follows:

"For the calendar year 1924 and the calendar year 1925, a tax equal to the sum of the following is hereby imposed upon the transfer by a resident by gift during such calendar year of any property wherever situated, whether made directly or indirectly, and upon the transfer by a nonresident by gift during such calendar year of any property situated within the United States, whether made directly or indirectly:

"1 per centum of the amount of the taxable gifts not in excess of $50,000;

"2 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $50,000 and do not exceed $150,000;

"3 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $150,000 and do not exceed $250,000;

"4 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $250,000 and do not exceed $450,000;

"6 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $450,000 and do not exceed $750,000;

"8 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $750,000 and do not exceed $1,000,000;

"10 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $1,000,000 and do not exceed $1,500,000;

"12 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $1,500,000 and do not exceed $2,000,000;
"14 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $2,000,000 and do not exceed $3,000,000;
"16 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $3,000,000 and do not exceed $4,000,000;
"18 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $4,000,000 and do not exceed $5,000,000;
"20 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $5,000,000 and do not exceed $8,000,000;
"22 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $8,000,000 and do not exceed $10,000,000; and
"25 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $10,000,000."

(b) Subdivision (a) of this section shall take effect as of June 2, 1924. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 319, 43 Stat. 313; Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 324, 44 Stat. 86.)

1137. Claim in abatement.—(k) No claim in abatement shall be filed in respect of any assessment made after the enactment of this Act in respect of any estate or gift tax. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 312, 44 Stat, 77.)

Chapter 21.—PROVISIONS COMMON TO SEVERAL OBJECTS OF TAXATION.

Sec.
1177. Restamping when stamp lost or destroyed.
1187. False statements as to tax in connection with sales or leases; penalty.

1177. Restamping when stamp lost or destroyed.

The statute (§ 1027 of the Revenue Act of 1924) constituting § 1177 of Title 26 of the Code, was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. The subject matter of the repealed statute was reenacted without change in § 1124 of said Act of 1926 (44 Stat. 122) to take effect as of the said date.

1187. False statements as to tax in connection with sales or leases; penalty.—Whoever in connection with the sale or lease, or offer for sale or lease, of any article, or for the purpose of making such sale or lease, makes any statement, written or oral, (1) intended or calculated to lead any person to believe that any part of the price at which such article is sold or leased, or offered for sale or lease, consists of a tax imposed under the authority of the United States, or (2) ascribing a particular part of such price to a tax imposed under the authority of the United States, knowing that such statement is false or that the tax is not so great as the portion of such price ascribed to such tax, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1123, 44 Stat. 121.)

The statute constituting § 1187 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of said date. The subject matter of the repealed statute was carried into § 1123 of said Act and is herein set out.

Chapter 22.—BOARD OF TAX APPEALS.

Sec.

Title IX of Revenue Act of 1924 amended.—Title IX of the Revenue Act of 1924 which is herein amended by § 1000 of Title X of the Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, constitutes c. 22 of Title 26 of the Code containing §§ 1211 to 1222, inclusive, of said Title 26 to which, in the main, the sections similarly numbered herein correspond.

1211. Board of Tax Appeals; [continuance]; number of members.—The Board of Tax Appeals (hereinafter referred to as the "board") is hereby continued as an independent agency in the executive branch of the Government. The board shall be composed of 16 members; except that such limitation shall not be held applicable to any member holding office under an appointment made before the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1926, in accordance with the law in force prior to the enactment of such Act. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900 (a), 43 Stat. 336; Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1000, 44 Stat. 105.)

See note at beginning of chapter.
In the amending statute this provision is denoted as "Sec. 900."

1212. Same; an independent agency.

See § 1211 of this supplemental title.

1213. Same; appointment of members; terms of office; vacancies; removal; salaries.—(a) Members of the board shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, solely on the grounds of fitness to perform the duties of the office. Members of the board may be removed by the President, after notice and opportunity for public hearing, for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office, but for no other cause. Each member shall receive salary at the rate of $10,000 per annum.

(b) The terms of office of all members who are to compose the board prior to June 2, 1926, shall expire at the close of business on June 1, 1926. The terms of office of the sixteen members first taking office after such date shall expire, as designated by the President at the time of nomination, four at the end of the sixth year, four at the end of the eighth year, four at the end of the tenth year, and four at the end of the twelfth year, after June 2, 1926. The terms of office of all successors shall expire twelve years after the expiration of the terms for which their predecessors were appointed; but any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of his predecessor. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900 (b), 43 Stat. 336; Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27 § 1000, 44 Stat. 105.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.
In the amending statute this section is denoted as "Sec. 901."

1214. Same; practice before board; by removed member.—A member of the board removed from office in accordance with subdivision (a) of section 901[54] shall not be permitted at any time to practice before the board. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900 (c), 43 Stat. 336; Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1000, 44 Stat. 105.)

See note at beginning of chapter.

1215. Same; chairman; seal.—The board shall at least biennially designate a member to act as chairman. The board shall have a seal which shall be judicially noticed. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900 (d), 43 Stat. 336; Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1000, 44 Stat. 105.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.
In the amending statute this section is denoted as "Sec. 902."

[54] Section 901, mentioned in the text, constitutes § 1213 of this supplemental title. In the amending statute this section is denoted as "Sec. 902."

1216. Same; hearing and determination of appeals; quorum; effect of vacancy.—The board and its divisions shall have such jurisdiction as is conferred on them by Title II[55] and Title III[55] of the Revenue Act of 1926 or by subsequent laws. The board is authorized to impose a fee in an amount not in excess of $10 to be fixed by the board for the filing of any petition for the redetermination of a deficiency after the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1926 and for the hearing of any proceeding pending at the time of such enactment. A majority of the members of the board or of any division thereof shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of the board or of the division, respectively. A vacancy in the board or in any division thereof shall not impair the powers nor affect the duties of the board or division nor of the remaining members of the board or division respectively. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900(e), 43 Stat. 336; Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1000, 44 Stat. 105.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

1217. Same; divisions; hearing and determination of appeals; decisions.—(a) The chairman may from time to time divide the board into divisions of one or more members, assign the members of the board thereto, and in case of a division of more than one member, designate the chief thereof. If a division, as a result of a vacancy or the absence or inability of a member assigned thereto to serve thereon, is composed of less than the number of members designated for the division, the chairman may assign other members to the division or direct the division to proceed with the transaction of business without awaiting any additional assignment of members thereto. A division shall hear and decide any proceeding instituted before the board and any motion thereon assigned to such division by the chairman.

(b) In case of a decision by a division, the decision and the findings of fact made in connection therewith shall become the decision and the findings of the board within 30 days after such decision by the division, unless within such period the chairman has directed that such decision shall be reviewed by the board.

(c) If a petition for a redetermination of a deficiency has been filed by the taxpayer, a decision of the board dismissing the proceeding shall, for the purposes of this title[56] and of the Revenue Act of 1926,[57] be considered as its decision that the deficiency is the amount determined by the commissioner. An order specifying such amount shall be entered in the records of the board unless the board can not determine such amount from the pleadings.

(d) A decision of the board shall be held to be rendered upon the date that an order specifying the amount of the deficiency is entered in the records of the board. If the board dismisses a proceeding and is unable from the pleadings to determine the amount of the deficiency determined by the commissioner, an order to that effect shall be entered in the records of the board, and the decision of the board shall be held to be rendered upon the date of such entry.

(e) If the assessment or collection of any tax is barred by any statute of limitations, the decision of the board to that effect shall, for the purposes of this title[56] and of the Revenue Act of 1926,[57] be considered as its decision that there is no deficiency in respect of such tax. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m. c. 234, § 900 (f), 43 Stat. 336; Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1000, 44 Stat. 105.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

[55] Title II and Title III constitute chs. 19 and 20, respectively, of this supplemental title. In the amending statute this section was composed of two provisions denoted as "Sec. 904" and "Sec. 905."

[56] "This title," constitutes c. 22 of this supplemental title.

[57] The Revenue Act of 1926 constitutes this supplemental title. In the amending statute this section was denoted as "Sec. 906," subdivisions (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e).

1218. Same; findings of board prima facie evidence of facts.—The findings of the board made in any decision prior to the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1926 shall, notwithstanding the enactment of such Act,[58] continue to be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900(g), 43 Stat. 336; Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1000, 44 Stat. 105.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.

In the amending statute this section was denoted as subdivision (f) of "Sec. 906."

1219. Same; notice and opportunity to be heard; procedure; reports; office of board; times and places of meeting; [quarters outside District].—(a) Notice and an opportunity to be heard shall be given to the taxpayer and the commissioner and a decision shall be made as quickly as practicable. Hearings before the board and its divisions shall be open to the public and shall be stenographically reported. The board is authorized to contract for the reporting of such hearing, and in such contract to fix the terms and conditions under which transcripts will be supplied by the contractor to the board and to other persons and agencies. The proceedings of the board and its divisions shall be conducted in accordance with such rules of practice and procedure (other than rules of evidence) as the board may prescribe and in accordance with the rules of evidence applicable in courts of equity of the District of Columbia. The mailing by registered mail of any pleading, order, notice, or process in respect of proceedings before the board shall be held sufficient service of such pleading, order, notice, or process.

(b) It shall be the duty of the board and of each division to make findings of fact and a decision in each case before it, and report thereon in writing; except that the findings of fact and report thereon may be omitted in case of a decision dismissing any proceeding upon motion either of the taxpayer, the commissioner, or the board. Whenever the board deems it advisable, the report shall contain an opinion in writing in addition to the findings of fact and decision.

(c) All reports of the board and all evidence received by the board and its divisions, including a transcript of the stenographic report of the hearings, shall be public records open to the inspection of the public; except that after the decision of the board in any proceeding has become final the board may, upon motion of the taxpayer or the commissioner, permit the withdrawal by the party entitled thereto of originals of books, documents, and records, and of models, diagrams, and other exhibits, introduced in evidence before the board or any division; or the board may, on its own motion, make such other disposition thereof as it deems advisable.

(d) The board shall provide for the publication of its reports at the Government Printing Office in such form and manner as may be best adapted for public information and use, and such authorized publication shall be competent evidence of the reports of the board therein contained in all courts of the United States and of the several States without any further proof or authentication thereof. Such reports shall be subject to sale in the same manner and upon the same terms as other public documents.

(e) The principal office of the board shall be in the District of Columbia, but the board or any of its divisions may sit at any place within the United States. The times and places of the meetings of the board and of its divisions shall be prescribed by the chairman with a view to securing reasonable opportunity to taxpayers to appear before the board or any of its divisions, with as little inconvenience and expense to taxpayers as is practicable.

(f) The Secretary of the Treasury shall provide the board with suitable rooms in courthouses or other buildings when necessary for hearings by the board, or any division thereof, outside the District of Columbia. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900(h), 43 Stat. 336; Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1000, 44 Stat. 105.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.
In the amending statute this section was denoted as "Sec. 907."

1220. Same; oaths; witnesses and depositions.—For the efficient administration of the functions vested in the board or any division thereof, any member of the board, or any employee of the board designated in writing for the purpose by the chairman, may administer oaths, and any member of the board may examine witnesses and require, by subpoena ordered by the board or any division thereof and signed by the member, (1) the attendance and testimony of witnesses, and the production of all necessary returns, books, papers, documents, correspondence, and other evidence, from any place in the United States at any designated place of hearing, or (2) the taking of a deposition before any designated individual competent to administer oaths under this act.[59] In the case of a deposition the testimony shall be reduced to writing by the individual taking the deposition or under his direction and shall then be subscribed by the deponent.

(a) Any witness summoned or whose deposition is taken under section 908[60] shall receive the same fees and mileage as witnesses in courts of the United States. Such fees and mileage and the expenses of taking any such deposition shall be paid as follows:

(1) In the case of witnesses for the commissioner, such payments shall be made by the Secretary out of any moneys appropriated for the collection of internal-revenue taxes, and may be made in advance.

(2) In the case of any other witnesses, such payments shall be made subject to rules prescribed by the board, by the party at whose instance the witness appears or the deposition is taken.

(b) This section shall take effect as of June 2, 1924, in the case of fees, mileage, or expenses accrued prior to, but remaining unpaid at the time of, the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1926. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900 (i), 43 Stat. 336; Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1000, 44 Stat. 105.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.
In the amending statute this section was composed of two sections denoted "Sec. 908" and "Sec. 909."

1222. Same; traveling and other expenses; employees; expenditures.—The members of the board shall receive necessary traveling expenses, and expenses actually incurred for subsistence while traveling on duty and away from their designated stations, subject to the same limitations in amount as are now or may hereafter be applicable to the Board of General Appraisers. The employees of the board shall receive their necessary traveling expenses, and expenses actually incurred for subsistence while traveling on duty and away from their designated stations, in an amount not to exceed $5 per day. The board is authorized in accordance with the Civil Service Laws to appoint, and in accordance with the Classification Act of 1923[61] to fix the compensation of, such employees, and to make such expenditures (including expenditures for personal services and rent at the seat of Government and elsewhere, and for law books, books of reference, and periodicals), as may be necessary efficiently to execute the functions vested in the board. All expenditures of the board shall be allowed and paid, out of any moneys appropriated for the purposes of the board, upon presentation of itemized vouchers therefor signed by the chairman. All fees received by the board shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts. Section 3709[62] of the Revised Statutes of the United States shall not be construed to apply to any purchase or service rendered for the board when the aggregate amount involved does not exceed the sum of $25. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900 (k), 43 Stat. 336; Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1000, 44 Stat. 105.)

See note at beginning of this chapter.
In the amending statute this section was denoted "Sec. 910."

1223. Award of damages in case of frivolous appeal to board.—Whenever it appears to the board that proceedings before it have been instituted by the taxpayer merely for delay, damages in an amount not in excess of $500 shall be awarded to the United States by the board in its decision. Damages so awarded shall be assessed at the same time as the deficiency and shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector, and shall be collected as a part of the tax. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1000, 44 Stat. 105.)

New section. See note at beginning of chapter.

1224. Review of board's decision; rules; operation of review as stay of assessment, and so forth; disallowance of deficiency; effect.—(a) The decision of the board rendered after the enactment of this Act (except as provided in subdivision (j) of section 283[63] and in subdivision (h) of section 318)[63] may be reviewed by a Circuit Court of Appeals, or the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, as hereinafter provided, if a petition for such review is filed by either the commissioner or the taxpayer within six months after the decision is rendered.

(b) Such courts are authorized to adopt rules for the filing of such petition, the preparation of the record for review, and the conduct of proceedings upon such review and, until the adoption of such rules, the rules of such courts relating to appellate proceedings upon a writ of error, so far as applicable, shall govern.

(c) Despite the provisions of sections 274[64] and 308,[65] such review shall not operate as a stay of assessment or collection of any portion of the amount of the deficiency determined by the board unless a petition for review in respect of such portion is filed by the taxpayer, and then only if the taxpayer (1) on or before the time his petition for review is filed (and in any event before the expiration of six months after the decision of the board is rendered) has filed with the board a bond in a sum fixed by the board not exceeding double the amount of the portion of the deficiency in respect of which the petition for review is filed, and with surety approved by the board, conditioned upon the payment of the deficiency as finally determined, together with any interest, additional amounts, or additions to the tax provided for by law, or (2) has filed a jeopardy bond under Title II[66] or Title III[66] of the Revenue Act of 1924 or of this Act. If as a result of a waiver under subdivision (d)[67] of section 274 or subdivision (d)[68] of section 308 any part of the amount determined by the board is paid after the filing of the review bond such bond shall, at the request of the taxpayer, be proportionately reduced.

(d) In cases where assessment or collection has not been stayed by the filing of a bond, then if the amount of the deficiency determined by the board is disallowed in whole or in part by the court, the amount so disallowed shall be credited or refunded to the taxpayer, or, if collection has not been made, shall be abated.

(e) Nothing in subdivision (c) shall be construed as relieving the petitioner from making or filing such undertakings as the court may require as a condition of or in connection with the review. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1001, 44 Stat. 109.)

New section. See note at beginning of chapter.

1225. Review; venue.—Such decision may be reviewed—

(a) In the case of an individual, by the Circuit Court of Appeals for the circuit whereof he is an inhabitant, or if not an inhabitant of any circuit, then by the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia.

(b) In the case of a person (other than an individual), except as provided in subdivision (c), by the Circuit Court of Appeals for the circuit in which is located the office of the collector to whom such person made the return, or in case such person made no return, then by the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia.

(c) In the case of a corporation which had no principal place of business or principal office or agency in the United States, then by the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia.

(d) In the case of an agreement between the commissioner and the taxpayer, then by the Circuit Court of Appeals for the circuit, or the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, as stipulated in such agreement. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1002, 44 Stat. 110.)

New section. See note at beginning of chapter.

1226. Courts vested with jurisdiction; review; powers of reviewing court.—(a) The Circuit Courts of Appeals and the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia shall have exclusive jurisdiction to review the decisions of the board (except as provided in section [69] 239 of the Judicial Code, as amended); and the judgment of any such court shall be final, except that it shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court of the United States upon certiorari, in the manner provided in section [69] 240 of the Judicial Code, as amended.

(b) Upon such review, such courts shall have power to affirm or, if the decision of the board is not in accordance with law, to modify or reverse the decision of the board, with or without remanding the case for a rehearing, as justice may require. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1003, 44 Stat. 110.)

New section. See note at beginning of chapter.

1227. Damages where petition is filed for delay; fees.—(a) The Circuit Courts of Appeals, the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, and the Supreme Court shall have power to impose damages in any case where the decision of the board is affirmed and it appears that the petition was filed merely for delay.

(b) The board is authorized to fix a fee, not in excess of the fee fixed by law to be charged and collected therefor by the clerks of the district courts, for comparing, or for preparing and comparing, a transcript of the record. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1004, 44 Stat. 110.)

New section. See note at beginning of chapter.

1228. When board's decision becomes final.—(a) The decision of the board shall become final—

(1) Upon the expiration of the time allowed for filing a petition for review, if no such petition has been duly filed within such time; or

(2) Upon the expiration of the time allowed for filing a petition for certiorari, if the decision of the board has been affirmed or the petition for review dismissed by the circuit court of appeals and no petition for certiorari has been duly filed; or

(3) Upon the denial of a petition for certiorari, if the decision of the board has been affirmed or the petition for review dismissed by the circuit court of appeals; or

(4) Upon the expiration of thirty days from the date of issuance of the mandate of the Supreme Court, if such court directs that the decision of the board be affirmed or the petition for review dismissed.

(b) If the Supreme Court directs that the decision of the board be modified or reversed, the decision of the board rendered in accordance with the mandate of the Supreme Court shall become final upon the expiration of thirty days from the time it was rendered, unless within such thirty days either the commissioner or the taxpayer has instituted proceedings to have such decision corrected to accord with the mandate, in which event the decision of the board shall become final when so corrected.

(c) If the decision of the board is modified or reversed by the circuit court of appeals, and if (1) the time allowed for filing a petition for certiorari has expired and no such petition has been duly filed, or (2) the petition for certiorari has been denied, or (3) the decision of the court has been affirmed by the Supreme Court, then the decision of the board rendered in accordance with the mandate of the circuit court of appeals shall become final on the expiration of thirty days from the time such decision of the board was rendered, unless within such thirty days either the commissioner or the taxpayer has instituted proceedings to have such decision corrected so that it will accord with the mandate, in which event the decision of the board shall become final when so corrected.

(d) If the Supreme Court orders a rehearing; or if the case is remanded by the circuit court of appeals to the board for a rehearing, and if (1) the time allowed for filing a petition for certiorari has expired, and no such petition has been duly filed, or (2) the petition for certiorari has been denied, or (3) the decision of the court has been affirmed by the Supreme Court, then the decision of the board rendered upon such rehearing shall become final in the same manner as though no prior decision of the board had been rendered.

(e) As used in this section—

(1) The term "circuit court of appeals" includes the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia;

(2) The term "mandate," in case a mandate has been recalled prior to the expiration of thirty days from the date of issuance thereof, means the final mandate. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1005, 44 Stat. 110.)

1275. Computation of invested capital. [New.]
1276. Effective date of Act. [New.]

1244. General laws made applicable.—All administrative, special, or stamp provisions of law, including the law relating to the assesment of taxes, so far as applicable, are hereby extended to and made a part of this Act.[70] (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1100, 44 Stat. 111.)

A similar provision with respect to Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, will be found in § 1244 thereof.

1245. Rules and regulations.—The commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe and publish all needful rules and regulations for the enforcement of this Act.[70] (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1101, 44 Stat. 111.)

A similar provision with respect to Title 26, of the Code, will be found in § 1245 thereof.

1247. Examination of books, papers, and records; taking testimony.—The commissioner, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return or for the purpose of making a return where none has been made, is hereby authorized, by any revenue agent or inspector designated by him for that purpose, to examine any books, papers, records, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return, and may require the attendance of the person rendering the return or of any officer or employee of such person, or the attendance of any other person having knowledge in the premises, and may take his testimony with reference to the matter required by law to be included in such return, with power to administer oaths to such person or persons. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1104, 44 Stat. 113.)

Section 1004, of the Act of June 2, 1924, c. 234, constituting § 1247 of Title 26, of the Code, was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. The subject matter of the repealed statute was carried into § 1104 of the latter Act and is herein set out.

1248. Same; number of inspections of taxpayer's accounts allowable; exceptions.—No taxpayer shall be subjected to unnecessary examinations or investigations, and only one inspection of a taxpayer's books of account shall be made for each taxable year unless the taxpayer requests otherwise or unless the commissioner, after investigation, notifies the taxpayer in writing that an additional inspection is necessary. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1105, 44 Stat. 113.)

The statute constituting § 1248 of Title 26 of the Code was repealed by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. The subject matter of the repealed statute was carried into § 1105 of said Act and is herein set out.

1249. [Bar of limitations; effect;] conclusiveness of assessment; determination of tax, and acceptance of abatement, credit or refund.—(a) The bar of the statute of limitations against the United States in respect of any internal-revenue tax shall not only operate to bar the remedy but shall extinguish the liability; but no credit or refund in respect of such tax shall be allowed unless the taxpayer has overpaid the tax. The bar of the statute of limitations against the taxpayer in respect of any internal-revenue tax shall not only operate to bar the remedy but shall extinguish the liability; but no collection in respect of such tax shall be made unless the taxpayer has underpaid the tax.

(b) If after a determination and assessment in any case the taxpayer has paid in whole any tax or penalty, or accepted any abatement, credit, or refund based on such determination and assessment, and an agreement is made in writing between the taxpayer and the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, that such determination and assessment shall be final and conclusive, then (except upon a showing of fraud or malfeasance or misrepresentation of fact materially affecting the determination or assessment thus made) (1) the case shall not be reopened or the determination and assessment modified by any officer, employee, or agent of the United States, and (2) no suit, action, or proceeding to annul, modify, or set aside such determination or assessment shall be entertained by any court of the United States. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1106, 44 Stat. 113.)

The statute constituting § 1249 of Title 26 of the Code was repealed by the Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. The subject matter of the repealed statute is carried into § 1106 of that Act and is herein set out.

1250. Conclusiveness of findings and decisions by Commissioner of Internal Revenue.—In the absence of fraud or mistake in mathematical calculation, the findings of facts in and the decision of the commissioner upon (or in case the Secretary is authorized to approve the same, then after such approval) the merits of any claim presented under or authorized by the internal-revenue laws shall not, except as provided in Title IX of the Revenue Act of 1924[71] as amended, be subject to review by any other administrative or accounting officer, employee, or agent of the United States. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1107, 44 Stat. 113.)

The statute constituting § 1250 of Title 26 of the Code was repealed by the Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. The subject matter of the repealed statute was carried into § 1107 of said Act and is herein set out.

1251. Retroactive effect of regulations or Treasury decisions.—(a) In case a regulation or Treasury decision relating to the internal-revenue laws, made by the commissioner or the Secretary, or by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, is reversed by a subsequent regulation or Treasury decision, and such reversal is not immediately occasioned or required by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, such subsequent regulation or Treasury decision may, in the discretion of the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, be applied without retroactive effect.

(b) No tax shall be levied, assessed, or collected under the provisions of Title VI of this Act[72] on any article sold or leased by the manufacturer, producer, or importer, if at the time of the sale or lease there was an existing ruling, regulation, or Treasury decision holding that the sale or lease of such article was not taxable, and the manufacturer, producer, or importer parted with possession or ownership of such article, relying upon the ruling, regulation, or Treasury decision. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1108, 44 Stat. 114.)

The statute constituting subdivision (a) of § 1251 of Title 26 of the Code was repealed by the Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200, 44 Stat. 125, to take effect as of that date. The subject matter of the repealed statute was carried into subdivision (a) of § 1108 of that Act and is herein set out. A provision similar to subdivision (b) of said § 1251 is contained in subdivision (b) of said § 1108 and is herein set out as subdivision (b).

[71] Title IX of the Revenue Act of 1924 constitutes c. 22 of Title 26 of the Code.

[72] "Title VI of this Act" constitutes c. 17 of this title of the appendix.

1253. Other methods of collecting taxes; administrative and penalty provisions applicable.—Whether or not the method of collecting any tax imposed by Titles IV, V, VI, or VII [73] is specifically provided therein, any such tax may, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, be collected by stamp, coupon, serial-numbered ticket, or such other reasonable device or method as may be necessary or helpful in securing a complete and prompt collection of the tax. All administrative and penalty provisions of Title VIII,[74] in so far as applicable, shall apply to the collection of any tax which the commissioner determines or prescribes shall be collected in such manner. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1119, 44 Stat. 120.)

A similar provision with respect to Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, will be found in § 1253 thereof.

1254. Records, statements and returns; acknowledgment to certain returns; returns and statements on notice from commissioner.—(a) Every person liable to any tax imposed by this Act,[75] or for the collection thereof, shall keep such records, render under oath such statements, make such returns, and comply with such rules and regulations, as the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may from time to time prescribe.

(b) Whenever in the judgment of the commissioner necessary he may require any person, by notice served upon him, to make a return, render under oath such statements, or keep such records as the commissioner deems sufficient to show whether or not such person is liable to tax.

(c) The commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may by regulation prescribe that any return required by any internal revenue law (except returns required under income or estate tax laws) to be under oath may, if the amount of the tax covered thereby is not in excess of $10, be signed or acknowledged before two witnesses instead of under oath.

(d) Any oath or affirmation required by the provisions of this Act or regulations made under authority thereof may be administered by any officer authorized to administer oaths for general purposes by the law of the United States or of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, wherein such oath or affirmation is administered, or by any consular officer of the United States. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1102, 44 Stat. 112.)

A similar provision with respect to Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, will be found in § 1254 thereof.

1256. Overpayments and overcollections of tax; credit and refund.—In the case of any overpayment or overcollection of any tax imposed by Title V or VI,[76] the person making such overpayment or overcollection may take credit therefor against taxes due upon any monthly return, and shall make refund of any excessive amount collected by him upon proper application by the person entitled thereto. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1121, 44 Stat. 121.)

A similar provision with respect to Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, will be found in § 1256 thereof.

1257. Jurisdiction of district courts; remedies not exclusive.—The district courts of the United States at the instance of the United States are hereby invested with such jurisdiction to make and issue, both in actions at law and suits in equity, writs and orders of injunction, and of ne exeat republica, orders appointing receivers, and such other orders and process, and to render such judgments and decrees, granting in proper cases both legal and equitable relief together, as may be necessary or appropriate for the enforcement of the provisions of this Act.[75] The remedies hereby provided are in addition to and not exclusive of any and all other remedies of the United States in such courts or otherwise to enforce such provisions. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1122 (b), 44 Stat. 121.)

A similar provision with respect to Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, will be found in § 1257 thereof.

1258. Same; compelling attendance of witnesses or production of books or papers.—If any person is summoned under this Act [75] to appear, to testify, or to produce books, papers, or other data, the district court of the United States for the district in which such person resides shall have jurisdiction by appropriate process to compel such attendance, testimony, or production of books, papers, or other data. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1122 (a), 44 Stat. 121.)

A similar provision with respect to Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, will be found in § 1258 of said title.

1260. Prior revenue law in force for assessment and collection of taxes and for imposition and collection of penalties thereunder.—The parts of the Revenue Act of 1924 [77] which are repealed by this Act [78] shall (except as provided in sections 283 and 318 [79] and except as otherwise specifically provided in this Act) [78] remain in force for the assessment and collection of all taxes imposed by such Act,[78] and for the assessment, imposition, and collection of all interest, penalties, or forfeitures which have accrued or may accrue in relation to any such taxes, and for the assessment and collection, to the extent provided in the Revenue Act of 1924,[77] of all taxes imposed by prior income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax acts, and for the assessment, imposition, and collection of all interest, penalties, or forfeitures which have accrued or may accrue in relation to any such taxes.[77] In the case of any tax imposed by any part of the Revenue Act of 1924 repealed by this Act,[78] if there is a tax imposed by this Act in lieu thereof, the provision imposing such tax shall remain in force until the corresponding tax under this Act [78] takes effect under the provisions of this Act.[78] (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1200 (b), 44 Stat. 125.)

A somewhat similar provision will be found in § 1260 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE.

1262. Definitions.—(a) When used in this Act [80]—

(1) The term "person" means an individual, a trust or estate, a partnership, or a corporation.

(2) The term "corporation" includes associations, joint-stock companies, and insurance companies.

(3) The term "domestic" when applied to a corporation or partnership means created or organized in the United States or under the law of the United States or of any State or Territory.

(4) The term "foreign" when applied to a corporation or partnership means a corporation or partnership which is not domestic.

(5) The term "United States" when used in a geographical sense includes only the States, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, and the District of Columbia.

(6) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Treasury.

(7) The term "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

(8) The term "collector" means collector of internal revenue.

(9) The term "taxpayer" means any person subject to a tax imposed by this Act.

[73] Title IV constitutes chs. 14 and 15 of this title. Titles V and VI are set out in chs. 16 and 17, respectively, of this title. Title VII is set out in chs. 4 and 11 of this title.

[74] Title VIII is set out in c. 18 of this title.

[75] "This Act" constitutes this title.

[76] Title V and VI are set out in chs. 16 and 17, respectively, of this title.

[77] The Revenue Act of 1924, mentioned in the text, is set out in Title 26 of the Code.

[78] "Act" constitutes this title.

[79] Sections 283 and 318, also mentioned, are set out in §§ 1064 and 1118, respectively, of this title.

[80] "This Act," herein referred to, constitutes this title.

(10) The term "military or naval forces of the United States" includes the Marine Corps, the Coast Guard, the Army Nurse Corps, Female, and the Navy Nurse Corps, Female.

(b) The terms "includes" and "including" when used in a definition contained in this Act[80] shall not be deemed to exclude other things otherwise within the meaning of the term defined. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 2, 44 Stat. 9.)

A similar provision with respect to Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, will be found in § 1262 thereof.

1263. Taxes on articles sold or leased for export.—Under such rules and regulations as the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary may prescribe, the taxes imposed under the provisions of Title IV or VI[81] or of section 903[82] shall not apply in respect of articles sold or leased for export or for shipment to a possession of the United States and in due course so exported or shipped. Under such rules and regulations the amount of any internal-revenue tax erroneously or illegally collected in respect of such articles so exported or shipped may be refunded to the exporter or shipper of the articles, instead of to the manufacturer, if the manufacturer waives any claim for the amount so to be refunded. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1121, 44 Stat. 121.)

A similar provision with respect to Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, will be found in § 1263 thereof.

1265. Failure to pay certain other taxes or to make returns and so forth; penalty.—Any person required under this Act[83] to pay any tax, or required by law or regulations made under authority thereof to make a return, keep any records, or supply any information, for the purposes of the computation, assessment, or collection of any tax imposed by this Act,[83] who willfully fails to pay such tax, make such return, keep such records, or supply such information, at the time or times required by law or regulations, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, together with the costs of prosecution. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1114 (a), 44 Stat. 116.)

A similar provision with respect to Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, is set out in § 1265 thereof.

1266. Failure to collect, account for, or pay over certain taxes.—Any person required under this Act[83] to collect, account for and pay over any tax imposed by this Act,[83] who willfully fails to collect or truthfully account for and pay over such tax, and any person who willfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any tax imposed by this Act[83] or the payment thereof, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1114 (b), 44 Stat. 116.)

A similar provision with respect to Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, is set out in § 1266 thereof.

1267. Aiding or assisting in false or fraudulent returns; penalty.—Any person who willfully aids or assists in, or procures, counsels, or advises, the preparation or presentation under, or in connection with any matter arising under, the internal-revenue laws, of a false or fraudulent return, affidavit, claim, or document, shall (whether or not such falsity or fraud is with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to present such return, affidavit, claim, or document) be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1114 (c), 44 Stat. 116.)

A similar provision will be found in § 1267 of Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE.

1268. Additional penalty for evading or failing to collect, and so forth, certain taxes.—Any person who willfully fails to pay, collect, or truthfully account for and pay over, any tax imposed by Titles IV, V, VI, VII, VIII, and IX,[84] or willfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any such tax or the payment thereof, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be liable to a penalty of the amount of the tax evaded, or not paid, collected, or accounted for and paid over, to be assessed and collected in the same manner as taxes are assessed and collected. No penalty shall be assessed under this subdivision for any offense for which a penalty may be assessed under authority of section 3176 of the Revised Statutes,[85] as amended, or for any offense for which a penalty has been recovered under section 3256 of the Revised Statutes.[86] (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1114 (d), 44 Stat. 116.)

A similar provision with respect to Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, is set out in § 1268 thereof.

1268a. Liability in case of failure to surrender property on which levy has been made.—Any person in possession of property, or rights to property, subject to distraint, upon which a levy has been made, shall, upon demand by the collector or deputy collector making such levy, surrender such property or rights to such collector or deputy, unless such property or right is, at the time of such demand, subject to an attachment or execution under any judicial process. Any person who fails or refuses to so surrender any of such property or rights shall be liable in his own person and estate to the United States in a sum equal to the value of the property or rights not so surrendered, but not exceeding the amount of the taxes (including penalties and interest) for the collection of which such levy has been made, together with costs and interest from the date of such levy. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1114 (e), 44 Stat. 116.)

New section.

1269. Definition; person.—The term "person" as used in this section[87] includes an officer or employee of a corporation or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1114 (f), 44 Stat. 116.)

A similar provision with respect to Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, is set out in § 1269 thereof.

1271. Partial invalidity of title.—If any provision of this Act,[88] or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the Act,[88] and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1213, 44 Stat. 130.)

A similar provision with respect to Title 26, INTERNAL REVENUE, will be found in § 1271 thereof.

1274. Joint congressional committee on internal revenue taxation; members; vacancies; duties; organization; powers; expenses.—(a) There is hereby established a joint congressional committee to be known as the Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "Joint Committee"), and to be composed of ten member as follows:

(1) Five members who are members of the Committee on Finance of the Senate, three from the majority and two from the minority party, to be chosen by such committee; and

(2) Five members who are members of the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives, three from the majority and two from the minority party, to be chosen by such committee.

(b) No person shall continue to serve as a member of the Joint Committee after he has ceased to be a member of the committee by which he was chosen, except that the members chosen by the Committee on Ways and Means who have been re-elected to the House of Representatives may continue to serve as members of the Joint Committee notwithstanding the expiration of the Congress. A vacancy in the Joint Committee shall not affect the power of the remaining members to execute the functions of the Joint Committee, and shall be filled in the same manner as the original selection, except that (1) in case of a vacancy during an adjournment or recess of Congress for a period of more than two weeks, the members of the Joint Committee who are members of the committee entitled to fill such vacancy may designate a member of such committee to serve until his successor is chosen by such committee, and (2) in the case of a vacancy after the expiration of a Congress which would be filled by the Committee on Ways and Means, the members of such committee who are continuing to serve as members of the Joint Committee may designate a person who, immediately prior to such expiration, was a member of such committee and who is re-elected to the House of Representatives, to serve until his successor is chosen by such committee.

(c) It shall be the duty of the Joint Committee—

(1) To investigate the operation and effect of the Federal system of internal-revenue taxes;

(2) To investigate the administration of such taxes by the Bureau of Internal Revenue or any executive department, establishment, or agency, charged with their administration;

(3) To make such other investigations in respect of such system of taxes as the Joint Committee may deem necessary;

(4) To investigate measures and methods for the simplification of such taxes, particularly the income tax;

(5) To publish, from time to time, for public examination and analysis, proposed measures and methods for the simplification of such taxes, and to make to the Senate and the House of Representatives, not later than December 31, 1927, a definite report thereon, together with such recommendations as it may deem advisable; and

(6) To report, from time to time, to the Committee on Finance and the Committee on Ways and Means and, in its discretion, to the Senate or the House of Representatives, or both, the results of its investigations, together with such recommendations as it may deem advisable.

(d) The Joint Committee shall have the same right to obtain data and to inspect returns as the Committee on Ways and Means or the Committee on Finance, and to submit any relevant or useful information thus obtained to the Senate, the House of Representatives, the Committee on Ways and Means, or the Committee on Finance. The Committee on Ways and Means or the Committee on Finance may submit such information to the House or to the Senate, or to both the House and the Senate, as the case may be.

(e) The Joint Committee shall meet and organize as soon as practicable after at least a majority of the members have been chosen, and shall elect a chairman and vice chairman from among its members and shall have power to appoint and fix the compensation of a clerk and such experts and clerical, stenographic, and other assistants, as it deems advisable.

(f) The Joint Committee, or any subcommittee thereof, is authorized to hold hearings and to sit and act at such places and times, to require by subpoena or otherwise the attendance of such witnesses and the production of such books, papers, and documents, to administer such oaths, to take such testimony, to have such printing and binding done, and to make such expenditures, as it deems advisable. The cost of stenographic services in reporting such hearings shall not be in excess of 25 cents per hundred words. Subpoenas for witnesses shall be issued under the signature of the chairman or vice chairman.

(g) The members shall serve without compensation in addition to that received for their services as members of Congress; but they shall be reimbursed for travel, subsistence, and other necessary expenses incurred by them in the performance of the duties vested in the Joint Committee other than expenses in connection with meetings of the Joint Committee in the District of Columbia during such times as the Congress is in session.

(h) The expenses of the Joint Committee shall be paid one-half from the contingent fund of the Senate and one-half from the contingent fund of the House of Representatives, upon vouchers signed by the chairman or vice chairman. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1203, 44 Stat. 127.)

New section.

1275. Computation of invested capital.—The computation of invested capital for any taxable year under the Revenue Act of 1917, the Revenue Act of 1918, and the Revenue Act of 1921, shall be considered as having been correctly made, so far as relating to the inclusion in invested capital for such year of income, war-profits, or excess-profits taxes for the preceding year, if made in accordance with the regulations in force in respect of such taxable year applicable to the relationship between invested capital of one year and taxes for the preceding year. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1207, 44 Stat. 129.)

New section.

1276. Effective date of Act.—Except as otherwise provided, this Act[90] shall take effect upon its enactment. (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1214, 44 Stat. 131.)

TITLE 28.—JUDICIAL CODE AND JUDICIARY

Part I.—Judicial Code

Chapter 1.—DISTRICT COURTS—ORGANIZATION.

4a. District judges for districts of Georgia.—The President is authorized to appoint, by and with advice and consent of the Senate, for the United States District Court for the middle district of Georgia, a district judge who shall reside in such district. (May 28, 1926, c. 414, § 2 (b), 44 Stat. 672.)

New section.

Section 2 (a) of Act of May 28, 1926, c. 414, 44 Stat. 670, provides that "the district judges for the northern and southern districts of Georgia in office immediately prior to passage of this Act shall be the district judges for such districts as constituted by this Act."

Section 1 of Act above cited, constituting § 150 of Title 28 of the appendix, created a new judicial district in Georgia called the "middle district."

Chapter 2.—DISTRICT COURTS; JURISDICTION.

Sec.

41. Original jurisdiction.
    Par. (20). Suits against United States.
    (26). Original jurisdiction of bills of interpleader by [casualty, surety, or] insurance companies, [fraternal or beneficial societies]; hearing; injunction; orders and decrees.

41. (Judicial Code, section 24 amended.) Original jurisdiction.

(20) Suits against United States.

Part of section 41 (20) of Title 28 reenacted.—Section 1025 (c) of the Act of June 2, 1924, c. 234, 43 Stat. 348, constituting a part of § 41(20) of Title 28 of the Code from the semicolon in the fourteenth line to the period following, was reenacted without change by Act of Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1122 (c), 44 Stat. 121.

(26) Original jurisdiction of bills of interpleader by [casualty, surety, or] insurance companies [fraternal or beneficial societies] hearings; injunction; orders and decrees.—That the district courts of the United States shall have original jurisdiction to entertain and determine suits in equity begun by bills of interpleader duly verified, filed by any casualty company, surety company, insurance company or association or fraternal or beneficial society, and averring that one or more persons who are bona fide claimants against such company, association, or society resides or reside within the territorial jurisdiction of said court; that such company, association, or society has in its custody or possession money or property of the value of $500 or more, or has issued a bond or a policy of insurance or certificate of membership providing for the payment of $500 or more to the obligee or obligees in such bond or as insurance, indemnity, or benefits to a beneficiary, beneficiaries, or the heirs, next of kin, legal representatives, or assignee of the person insured or member; that two or more adverse claimants, citizens of different States, are claiming to be entitled to such money or property or the penalty of such bond, or to such insurance, indemnity, or benefits; that such company, association, or society has deposited such money or property or has paid the amount of such bond or policy into the registry of the court, there to abide the judgment of the court.

In all such cases if the policy or certificate is drawn payable to the estate of the insured and has not been assigned in accordance with the terms of the policy or certificate the district court of the district of the residence of the personal representative of the insured shall have jurisdiction of such suit. In case the policy or certificate has been assigned during the life of the insured in accordance with the terms of the policy or certificate, the district court of the district of the residence of the assignee or of his personal representative shall have jurisdiction. In case the policy or certificate is drawn payable to a beneficiary or beneficiaries and there has been no such assignment as aforesaid the jurisdiction shall be in the district court of the district in which the beneficiary or beneficiaries or their personal representatives reside. In case there are claimants of such money or property, or in case there are beneficiaries under any such bond or policy resident in more districts than one, then jurisdiction shall be in the district court in any district in which a beneficiary or the personal representative of a claimant or a deceased claimant or beneficiary resides. Notwithstanding any provision of the Judicial Code to the contrary, said court shall have power to issue its process for all such claimants and to issue an order of injunction against each of them, enjoining them from instituting or prosecuting any suit or proceeding in any State court or in any other Federal court on account of such money or property or on such bond or on such policy or certificate of membership until the further order of the court; which process and order of injunction shall be returnable at such time as the said court or a judge thereof shall determine and shall be addressed to and served by the United States marshals for the respective districts wherein said claimants reside or may be found.

Said court shall hear and determine the cause and shall discharge the complainant from further liability; and shall make the injunction permanent and enter all such other orders and decrees as may be suitable and proper, and issue all such customary writs as may be necessary or convenient to carry out and enforce the same. (May 8, 1926, c. 273, §§ 1–3, 44 Stat. 416.)

Section 41 (26) of Title 28 amended.—Acts of Feb. 22, 1917, c. 113, 39 Stat. 929, and Feb. 25, 1925, c. 317, §§ 1–3, 43 Stat. 976, constituting par. (26) of § 41 of Title 28 of the Code, were repealed by Act of May 8, 1926, c. 273 § 4, 44 Stat. 417.

Sections 1 to 3 of said Act of May 8, 1926, c. 273, 44 Stat. 416, contain a substitute for the repealed paragraph and are set out in the text.

The repealing section provides that "Said repeal shall not affect any act done or any right accruing or accrued in any suit or proceeding had or commenced under said acts hereby repealed, prior to the passage of this act, but all such acts or rights, suits, or proceedings shall continue and be valid and may be prosecuted and enforced in the same manner as if said acts had not been repealed hereby."

The Act is entitled "An Act authorizing casualty companies, surety companies, insurance companies or associations, or fraternal or beneficial societies to file bills if interpleader."

225. Appellate jurisdiction.
227. Appeals in proceedings for injunctions and receivers.

223. Judicial Code, section 126.) Terms.—A term shall be held annually by the circuit courts of appeals in the several judicial circuits at the following places, and at such times as may be fixed by said courts, respectively: In the first circuit, in Boston and, when in its judgment the public interests require, shall hold a sitting at San Juan, Porto Rico; in the second circuit, in New York; in the third circuit, in Philadelphia; in the fourth circuit, in Richmond and in Asheville, N. C.; in the fifth circuit, in New Orleans, Atlanta, Fort Worth, and Montgomery; in the sixth circuit, in Cincinnati; in the seventh circuit, in Chicago; in the eighth circuit, in Oklahoma City, Saint Louis, Denver, or Cheyenne, and Saint Paul; in the ninth circuit, in San Francisco, and each year in two other places in said circuit to be designated by the judges of said court; and in each of the above circuits, terms may be held at such other times and in such other places as said courts, respectively, may from time to time designate: Provided, That terms shall be held in Atlanta on the first Monday in October, in Fort Worth on the first Monday in November, in Montgomery on the third Monday in October, in Denver or in Cheyenne on the first Monday in September, and in Saint Paul on the first Monday in May. All appeals, writs of error, and other appellate proceedings which may be taken or prosecuted from the district courts of the United States in the State of Georgia, in the State of Texas, and in the State of Alabama, to the circuit court of appeals for the fifth judicial circuit shall be heard and disposed of, respectively, by said court at the terms held in Atlanta, in Fort Worth, and in Montgomery, except that appeals or writs of error in cases of injunctions and in all other cases which, under the statutes and rules, or in the opinion of the court, are entitled to be brought to a speedy hearing may be heard and disposed of wherever said court may be sitting. All appeals, writs of errors, and other appellate proceedings which may be taken or prosecuted from the district court of the United States at Beaumont, Texas, to the circuit court of appeals for the fifth circuit, shall be heard and disposed of by the said circuit court of appeals at the terms of court held at New Orleans: Provided, That nothing herein shall prevent the court from hearing appeals or writs of error wherever the said courts shall sit, in cases of injunctions and in all other cases which, under the statutes and the rules, or in the opinion of the court, are entitled to be brought to a speedy hearing. All appeals, writs of error, and other appellate proceedings which may be taken or prosecuted from the district courts of the United States in the States of Colorado, Utah, and Wyoming, and the supreme court of the Territory of New Mexico to the circuit court of appeals for the eighth judicial circuit, shall be heard and disposed of by said court at the terms held either in Denver or in Cheyenne, except that any case arising in any of said States or Territory may, by consent of all the parties, be heard and disposed of at a term of said court other than the one held in Denver or Cheyenne. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 3, 26 Stat. 827; June 9, 1902, c. 1071, 32 Stat. 329; June 30, 1902, c. 1333, 32 Stat. 548; Dec. 18, 1902, c. 4, 32 Stat. 756; Jan. 30, 1903, c. 335, 32 Stat. 784; Mar. 4, 1904, c. 395, 33 Stat. 59; Apr. 22, 1904, c. 1420, 33 Stat. 249; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 126, 36 Stat. 1132; July 17, 1916, c. 246, 39 Stat. 385; Jan. 8, 1925, c. 57, 43 Stat. 729; July 3, 1926, c. 735, 44 Stat. 809.)

Section 223 of Title 28 amended.—Judicial Code, § 126, constituting § 223 of Title 28 of the Code, has been impliedly amended by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 735, 44 Stat. 809, which provides as follows: "That a term shall be held annually by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, at such times as may be fixed by such court: Provided, That suitable rooms and accommodations for holding court at Oklahoma City are furnished free of expense to the United States." The amendment relates to the eighth circuit and is incorporated in the text.

225. (Judicial Code, section 128, amended.) Appellate jurisdiction—

(a) Review of final decisions.—The circuit courts of appeal shall have appellate jurisdiction to review by appeal or writ of error final decisions—

First. In the district courts, in all cases save where a direct review of the decision may be had in the Supreme Court under section 345 of this title.

Second. In the United States district courts for Hawaii and for Porto Rico in all cases.

Third. In the district courts for Alaska or any division thereof, and for the Virgin Islands, in all cases, civil and criminal, wherein the constitution or a statute or treaty of the United States or any authority exercised thereunder is involved; in all other civil cases wherein the value in controversy, exclusive of interest and costs, exceeds $1,000; in all other criminal cases where the offense charged is punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year or by death, and in all habeas corpus proceedings; and in the district court for the Canal Zone in the cases and mode prescribed in sections 1307, 1324, 1336, and 1341 to 1357 of Title 48.

Fourth. In the Supreme Courts of the Territory of Hawaii and of Porto Rico, in all civil cases, civil or criminal, wherein the Constitution or a statute or treaty of the United States or any authority exercised thereunder is involved; in all other civil cases wherein the value in controversy, exclusive of interest and costs, exceeds $5,000, and in all habeas corpus proceedings.

Fifth. In the United States Court for China, in all cases.

(b) Review of interlocutory orders or decrees of district courts.—The circuit court of appeals shall also have appellate jurisdiction—

First. To review the interlocutory orders or decrees of the district courts which are specified in section 227 of this title.

Second. To review decisions of the district courts, under section 9[1] of the Railway Labor Act.

(c) Appellate and supervisory jurisdiction in bankruptcy proceedings.—The circuit courts of appeals shall also have an appellate and supervisory jurisdiction under sections 47 and 48 of Title 11, over all proceedings, controversies, and cases had or brought in the district courts under Title 11, relating to bankruptcy, or any of its amendments, and shall exercise the same in the manner prescribed in those sections; and the jurisdiction of the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit in this regard shall cover the courts of bankruptcy in Alaska and Hawaii, and that of the Circuit Court of Appeals for the First Circuit shall cover the court of bankruptcy in Porto Rico.

(d) Circuits in which reviews shall be had.—The review under this section shall be in the following circuit courts of appeals: The decisions of a district court of the United States within a State in the circuit court of appeals for the circuit embracing such State; those of the District Court of Alaska or any division thereof, the United States district court, and the Supreme Court of Hawaii, and the United States Court for China, in the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit; those of the United States district court and the Supreme Court of Porto Rico in the Circuit Court of Appeals for the First Circuit; those of the District Court of the Virgin Islands in the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit; and those of the District Court of the Canal Zone in the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit.

(e) Jurisdiction over Federal Trade Commission, Interstate Commerce Commission, and Federal Reserve Board.—The circuit courts of appeal are further empowered to enforce, set aside, or modify orders of the Federal Trade Commission, as provided in section 45 of Title 15; and orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Federal Reserve Board, and the Federal Trade Commission, as provided in section 21 of Title 15. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 6, 26 Stat. 828; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 128, 36 Stat. 1133; Jan. 28, 1915, c. 22, § 2, 38 Stat. 803; Feb. 7, 1925, c. 150, 43 Stat. 813; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 1, 43 Stat. 936; May 20, 1926, c. 347, § 13 (a), 44 Stat. 587.)

Section 225 of Title 28 amended.—Judicial Code, § 128, constituting § 225 of Title 28 of the Code, has been amended by § 13 (a) of Act of May 20, 1926, c. 347, 44 Stat. 587, to read as above. Amendment relates to paragraph "Second" of subdivision (b), and the amending Act was the Railway Labor Act of May 20, 1926, entitled "An Act to provide for the prompt disposition of disputes between carriers and their employees, and for other purposes."

227. (Judicial Code, section 129, amended.) Appeals in proceedings for injunctions and receivers.—Where, upon a hearing in a district court, or by a judge thereof in vacation, an injunction is granted, continued, modified, refused, or dissolved by an interlocutory order or decree, or an application to dissolve or modify an injunction is refused, or an interlocutory order or decree is made appointing a receiver, or refusing an order to wind up a pending receivership or to take the appropriate steps to accomplish the purposes thereof, such as directing a sale or other disposal of property held thereunder, an appeal may be taken from such interlocutory order or decree to the circuit court of appeals; and sections 346 and 347 of this title shall apply to such cases in the circuit courts of appeals as to other cases therein. The appeal to the circuit court of appeals must be applied for within thirty days from the entry of such order or decree, and shall take precedence in the appellate court; and the proceedings in other respects in the district court shall not be stayed during the pendency of such appeal unless otherwise ordered by the court, or the appellate court, or a judge thereof. The district court, may, in its discretion, require an additional bond as a condition of the appeal. In all cases where an appeal from a final decree in admiralty to the circuit court of appeals is allowed an appeal may also be taken to said court from an interlocutory decree in admiralty determining the rights and liabilities of the parties: Provided, That the same is taken within fifteen days after the entry of the decree: And provided further, That within twenty days after such entry the appellant shall give notice of the appeal to the appellee or appellees; but the taking of such appeal shall not stay proceedings under the interlocutory decree unless otherwise ordered by the district court upon such terms as shall seem just. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 7, 26 Stat. 828; Feb. 18, 1895, c. 96, 28 Stat. 666; June 6, 1900, c. 803, 31 Stat. 660; Apr. 14, 1906, c. 1627, 34 Stat. 116; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 129, 36 Stat. 1134; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 1, 43 Stat. 937; Apr. 3, 1926, c. 102, 44 Stat. 233.)

Section 227 of Title 28 amended.—Judicial Code, § 129, constituting § 227 of Title 28 of the Code, has been amended by Act of Apr. 3, 1926, c. 102, 44 Stat. 233, to read as above. The amendment added the last clause containing two provisos.

[1] "Section 9 of the Railway Labor Act" should be translated "Section 159 of Title 45 in this appendix."

Chapter 7.—THE COURT OF CLAIMS.

Sec.

259. Claims growing out of treaties.
284. No interest on claims; exceptions.

259. (Judicial Code, section 153.) Claims growing out of treaties.

The Court of Claims was vested with jurisdiction, with right of appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States, to hear and determine claims under Act of June 14, 1889, c. 24, 25 Stat. 642, or subsequent Acts relating to Indian affairs, of Chippewa Indians of Minnesota against the United States, not previously determined by Act May 14, 1926, c. 300, 44 Stat. 555.

Resolution May 19, 1926, c. 341, 44 Stat. 568, authorizes the Cherokee Indians, Seminole Indians, Creek Indians, and Choctaw and Chickasaw Indians to prosecute their claims in single suit or to bring separate suits on one or more claims, as they may elect and permits the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations or Tribes to jointly or severally prosecute their claims, jurisdiction over the several claims having been conferred on the Court of Claims by Act Mar. 19, 1924, c. 70, 43 Stat. 27; Act May 20, 1924, c. 162, 43 Stat. 133; Act May 24, 1924, c. 181, 43 Stat. 139; and Act June 7, 1924, c. 300, 43 Stat. 537.

The Court of Claims was vested with jurisdiction to hear, examine, and adjudicate and render judgment in all claims which the Citizens Bank of Pottawatomie Indians of Oklahoma may have against the United States arising or growing out of the treaty of Feb. 27, 1867 (15 Stat. 531), or any subsequent Act of Congress, by Act July 2, 1926, c. 724, 44 Stat. 801.

It was also vested with jurisdiction to hear and determine claims of the Crow Indian Nation or any branch thereof, against the United States, by Act July 3, 1926, c. 734, 44 Stat. 807.

284. (Judicial Code, section 177, amended.) No interest on claims; exceptions.—(a) No interest shall be allowed on any claim up to the time of the rendition of judgment by the Court of Claims, unless upon a contract expressly stipulating for the payment of interest, except as provided in subdivision (b).

(b) In any judgment of any court rendered after the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1926 (whether against the United States, a collector or deputy collector of internal revenue, a former collector or deputy collector, or the personal representative in case of death) for any internal-revenue tax erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, or for any penalty collected without authority or for any sum which was excessive or in any manner wrongfully collected, under the internal-revenue laws, interest shall be allowed at the rate of 6 per centum per annum upon the amount of such tax, penalty, or sum, from the date of the payment or collection thereof to the date of entry of such judgment or, if such judgment is reviewed by an appellate court, to the date of entry of final judgment. (R. S. § 1091. Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 177, 36 Stat. 1141; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1324 (b), 42 Stat. 316; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1020, 43 Stat. 346; Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1117, 44 Stat. 119.)

Section 284 of Title 28 amended.—Section 177 of the Judicial Code as amended, constituting § 284 of Title 28 of the Code, was amended by § 1117 of Title XI of the Revenue Act of 1926, cited above.

Chapter 9.—THE SUPREME COURT.

336. Appropriation for printing, binding, etc., of reports authorized.
348. Certification of questions to Supreme Court by circuit courts of appeals, and certiorari thereto, and appeal or writ of error to Supreme Court from circuit courts of appeals in certain other cases.
354. Printing for Supreme Court.

333. (Judicial Code, section 226, amended.) Reporter; salary and allowances.—The salary of the reporter shall be $8,000 per annum, payable out of the Treasury in monthly installments, which shall be in full compensation for the services required by law. He shall also be allowed stationery, supplies, equipment, office rent, and necessary professional and clerical assistance, in the discretion of the court or the Chief Justice. The expenses in connection with the maintenance of his office shall be paid from the appropriations of the Supreme Court of the United States. (Aug. 5, 1882, c. 389, § 1, 22 Stat. 254; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 226, 36 Stat. 1153; July 1, 1922, c. 267, § 2, 42 Stat. 816; May 29, 1926, c. 425, § 1, 44 Stat. 677.)

Section 333 of Title 28 amended.—Judicial Code, § 226, constituting § 333 of Title 28 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 29, 1926, c. 425, § 1, 44 Stat. 677, effective as of July 1, 1926, to read as above.

Additional assistant to the reporter.—A provision in Act of Apr. 29, 1926, c. 195, Title II, 44 Stat. 344, provides for "an additional assistant to the reporter of the court, if the court deems one necessary, to enable the reporter to expedite the publication of its reports."

334. (Judicial Code, section 227, amended.) Printing, binding, and distribution of reports and digests.—The reports provided for in section 332 of this title[2] shall be printed, bound, and issued within eight months after said decisions have been rendered by the Supreme Court, and within said period the Attorney General shall distribute copies of said Supreme Court reports as follows: To the President, the Justices of the Supreme Court, the judges of the Court of Customs Appeals, the judges of the Circuit Courts of Appeal, the judges of the district courts, the judges of the Court of Claims, and judges of the Court of Appeals, and of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, the judges of the several Territorial courts, the United States Court for China, the Secretary of State, the Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, the Secretary of the Interior, the Postmaster General, the Attorney General, the Secretary of Agriculture, the Secretary of Commerce, the Secretary of Labor, the Solicitor General, the Assistant to the Attorney General, each Assistant Attorney General, each United States district attorney, each Assistant Secretary of each of the executive departments, the Assistant Postmaster General, the Secretary of the Senate for use of the Senate, the Clerk of the House of Representatives for the use of the House of Representatives, the office of the Legislative Counsel, Senate branch, the office of the Legislative Counsel, House branch, the governors of the Territories, the Solicitor for the Department of State, the Treasurer of the United States, the Solicitor of the Treasury, the Comptroller General of the United States, the Assistant Comptroller General, the Comptroller of the Currency, the Director of the Budget, the Assistant Director of the Budget, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, the Director of the Mint, the Solicitor of the General Accounting Office, each of the chiefs of divisions in the General Accounting Office, the counsel of the Bureau of the Budget, the Judge Advocate General of the Army; the Chief of Finance, War Department; the Judge Advocate General, Navy Department; the Paymaster General, Navy Department; the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, the Commissioner of the General Land Office, the Commissioner of Pensions, the Commissioner of Patents, the Commissioner of Education, the Commissioner of Navigation, the Commissioner General of Immigration, the Director of Geological Survey, the Director of the Census, the Forester and Chief of Forest Service, Department of Agriculture; the purchasing agent, Post Office Department; the Federal Trade Commisison, the clerk of the Supreme Court of the United States, the marshal of the Supreme Court of the United States, the United States attorney for the District of Columbia, the chairman, United States Shipping Board; the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland; the Military Academy at West Point, New York; and the heads of such other executive offices as may be provided by law of equal grade with any of said offices, each one copy; to the Interstate Commerce Commission, sixteen copies; to the law library of the Supreme Court, twenty-five copies; to the law library of the Department of the Interior, two copies; to the law library of the Department of Justice, five copies; to the law library of the Judge Advocate General of the Army, two copies; to the Secretary of the Senate for the use of committees of the Senate, thirty copies; to the Clerk of the House of Representatives for the use of the committees of the House, thirty-five copies; to the marshal of the Supreme Court as custodian of the public property used by the court for the use of the justices thereof in the conference room, robing room, and courtroom, six copies; to the Secretary of War for the use of the proper courts and officers of the Philippine Islands, seven copies; to the Secretary of War for military headquarters which now exercise or may hereafter exercise general court-martial jurisdiction, such number, not to exceed in time of peace twenty-five copies, as the Secretary of War may from time to time specify; and to each of the places where district courts of the United States are now holden, including Hawaii and Porto Rico, one copy.

The Attorney General shall distribute one complete set of said reports and one set of the digests thereof to such executive officers as are entitled to receive said reports under this section and have not already received them; to each United States judge and to each United States district attorney who has not received a set; to each of the places where district courts are now held to which reports have not been distributed, and to each of the places at which a district court may hereafter be held, the edition of said reports and digests to be selected by the judge or officer receiving them: Provided, That this Act[2a] shall not be construed so as to require that reports and digests printed prior to the date of approval of this Act[2a] shall be furnished to the Secretary of War for military headquarters.

No distribution of reports and digests under this section shall be made to any place where the court is held in a building not owned by the United States unless there be at such place a United States officer to whose responsible custody they can be committed.

The clerks of courts (except the Supreme Court) shall in all cases keep the said reports and digests for the use of the courts and of the officers thereof. Said reports and digests shall remain the property of the United States and shall be preserved by the officers above named and by them turned over to their successors in office.

The Public Printer shall turn over to the Attorney General, upon request, such reports as he may require in order to make the distribution authorized to be made by the Attorney General hereunder. (R. S., § 683; Feb. 12, 1889, c. 135, 25 Stat. 661; July 1, 1902, c. 1355, 32 Stat. 630; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 227, 36 Stat. 1154; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1419; July 1, 1922, c. 267, § 3, 42 Stat. 816; June 12, 1926, c. 568, 44 Stat. 736.)

Section 334 of Title 28 amended.—Judicial Code, § 227, constituting § 334 of Title 28 of the Code, has been amended by Act of June 12, 1926, c. 568, 44 Stat. 736, to read as above.

335. (Judicial Code, section 228, amended.) Number of bound volumes and advance pamphlets to be printed; sale; price; reprints.—The cost of furnishing the bound volumes and pamphlets under the requisition provided for in section 332[3] of this title, and required for official distribution under section 334,[3] shall be charged to the proper appropriation of the Department of Justice. The Public Printer shall print such additional bound volumes and pamphlet copies of the United States Supreme Court reports as may be required for sale to the public by the Superintendent of Documents at the cost of printing and binding, plus 10 per centum, without limit as to the use, number of copies to any one applicant, or resale at a reasonable profit. (Feb. 12, 1889, c. 135, 25 Stat. 661; July 1, 1902, c. 1355, 32 Stat. 630; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 228, 36 Stat. 1155; July 1, 1922, c. 267, § 4, 42 Stat. 818; May 29, 1926, c. 425, § 2, 44 Stat. 677.)

Section 335 of Title 28 amended.—Judicial Code, § 228, constituting § 335 of Title 28 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 29, 1926, c. 425, § 2, 44 Stat. 677, effective as of July 1, 1926, to read as above.

336. Appropriation for printing, binding, etc., of reports authorized.

Section 336 of Title 28 repealed.—The statutory provision constituting § 336 of Title 28, was repeated as part of § 3 of Act May 29, 1926, c. 425, 44 Stat. 678, entitled "An Act to amend sections 226 and 228 of the Judicial Code, and for other purposes." Sections 1 and 2 of Act May 29, 1926, constitute §§ 333, 335 of this title in the appendix.

348. Certification of questions to Supreme Court by circuit courts of appeals, and certiorari thereto, and appeal or writ of error to Supreme Court from circuit courts of appeals in certain other cases.—Cases in a circuit court of appeals under section 9[4] of the Railway Labor Act; under section 5[5] of "An Act to create a Federal Trade Commission, to define its powers and duties, and for other purposes," approved September 26, 1914; and under section 11[6] of "An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes," approved October 15, 1914, are included among the cases to which sections 239[7] and 240[8] of the Judicial Code shall apply. (Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 2, 43 Stat. 939, May 20, 1926, c. 347, § 13 (b), 44 Stat. 587.)

Section 348 of Title 28 amended.—Act of Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 2, 43 Stat. 939, constituting § 348 of Title 28 of the Code, was amended by § 13 (b) of the Railway Labor Act of May 20, 1926, c. 347, 44 Stat. 587, to read as above.

The Railway Labor Act is entitled "An Act to provide for the prompt disposition of disputes between carriers and their employees, and for other purposes" and constitutes, with the exception of § 13, chapter 9 of Title 45 in the appendix.

[3] "332" and "334" have been substituted for "225" and "227" appearing in the amending Act of 1926 as "225" and "227" of the Judicial Code, referred to in that Act, constitute "332" and "334," respectively, of this title of the Code.

[10] New subdivision. This subdivision constitutes Act of July 3, 1926, c. 762, 44 Stat. 835, entitled "An Act relating to contempt."

the United States, is desired by the Attorney General or any assistant or district attorney acting under him, the judge of the court before which such action is pending, or who is to sit in the trial of the same, may, upon proper showing, order that a subpœna issue, addressed to any consul of the United States within any country in which such witness may be, commanding such witness to appear before the said court at a time and place therein designated. (July 3, 1926, c. 762, § 2, 44 Stat. 835.)

New section. See footnote to this subdivision.

713. Service of subpœna on witness in foreign country.—It shall be the duty of any consul of the United States within any country in which such witness may be at the request of the clerk of the court issuing any subpœna under this Act[10a] or at the request of the officer causing such subpœna to be issued, to serve the same personally upon such witness and also to serve any orders to show cause, rules, judgments, or decrees when requested by the court or United States marshal, and to make a return thereof to the court out of which the same issued, first tendering to the witness the amount of his necessary expenses in traveling to and from the place at which the court sits and his attendance thereon, which amount shall be determined by the judge on issuing the order for the subpœna and supplied to the consul making the service. (July 3, 1926, c. 762, § 3, 44 Stat. 835.)

New section. See footnote to this subdivision.

714. Failure of witness to obey subpœna; order to show cause in contempt proceedings.—If the witness so served shall neglect or refuse to appear as in such subpœna directed, the court out of which it was issued shall, upon proof being made of the service and default, issue an order directing the witness to appear before the court at a time in such order designated to show cause why he should not be adjudged guilty of contempt and be punished accordingly. (July 3, 1926, c. 762, § 4, 44 Stat. 836.)

New section. See footnote to this subdivision.

715. Direction in order to show cause for seizure of property of witness in contempt.—Upon issuing such order the court may, upon the giving of security for any damages which the recusing witness may have suffered, should the charge be dismissed (except that no security shall be required of the United States), direct as a part of such order that the property of the recusing witness, at any place within the United States, or so much thereof in value as the court may direct, shall be levied upon and seized by the marshal of said court in the manner provided by law or the rule of the court for a levy or seizure under execution, to be held to satisfy any judgment that may be rendered against such witness in the proceeding so instituted. (July 3, 1926, c. 762, § 5, 44 Stat. 836.)

New section. See footnote to this subdivision.

716. Service of order to show cause.—The marshal, having made such levy, shall thereupon forward to the consul of any country where the recusing witness may be a copy of the order to show cause why such witness should not be adjudged guilty of contempt with the request that said consul make service of the same personally upon the recusing witness, and shall cause to be published such order to show cause and for the sequestration of the property of such witness, in some newspaper of general circulation in the district within which the court issuing such order sits, once each week for six consecutive weeks. (July 3, 1926, c. 762, § 6, 44 Stat. 836.)

New section. See footnote to this subdivision.

717. Hearing on order to show cause; judgment; satisfaction.—On the return day of such order or any later day to which the hearing may by the court be continued, proof shall be taken; and if the charge of recusancy against the witness shall be sustained, the court shall adjudge him guilty of contempt and, notwithstanding any limitation upon the power of the court generally to punish for contempt, impose upon him a fine not exceeding $100,000 and direct that the amount thereof, with the costs of the proceeding, be satisfied, unless paid by a sale of the property of the witness so seized or levied upon, such sale to be conducted upon the notice required and in the manner provided for sales upon execution. (July 3, 1926, c. 762, § 7, 44 Stat. 836.)

New section. See footnote to this subdivision.

718. Opening judgment when rendered upon service by publication.—Any judgment rendered pursuant to this Act[10a] upon service by publication only may be opened for answer within the time and in the manner provided in section 57[11] of the Judicial Code. (July 3, 1926, c. 762, § 8, 44 Stat. 836.)

New section. See footnote to this subdivision.

[10a] "This Act" should be translated "sections 711 to 718 of this title of the appendix."

[11] Section 57 of the Judicial Code should be translated "section 118 of this title of the Code."

TITLE 30.—MINERAL LANDS AND MINING

Chapter 1.—THE BUREAU OF MINES.

Sec.
1. Bureau of Mines; establishment; director; experts and other employees.
4a. Investigation of potash deposits; appropriation. [New.]
4b. Cooperation with individuals, municipalities, etc.; contracts with owners; agreements as to prices. [New.]
11. Purchase of supplies or procurement of services for Bureau of Mines.

1. Bureau of Mines; establishment; director; experts and other employees.

Transfer of Bureau of Mines to Department of Commerce by Executive order.—The Bureau of Mines and the employees thereof, except those employees engaged on oil-leasing and mine-leasing work, were transferred from the Department of the Interior to the Department of Commerce by an Executive order signed by the President on June 4, 1925, effective from and including July 1, 1925, as authorized by Act Feb. 14, 1903 (32 Stat. 826).

4a. Investigation of potash deposits; appropriation.—There is hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $100,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1927, and a similar amount for each succeeding fiscal year for four years, to be expended as may be mutually agreed upon by the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Commerce for the purpose of determining the location, extent, and mode of occurrence of potash deposits in the United States and conducting the necessary laboratory tests incident thereto. (June 25, 1926, c. 674, § 1, 44 Stat. 768.)

New section. This section and the section next following are an Act entitled "An Act authorizing investigations by the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Commerce jointly to determine the location, extent, and mode of occurrence of potash deposits in the United States and to conduct laboratory tests," cited to text.

4b. Cooperation with individuals, municipalities, etc.; contracts with owners; agreements as to prices.—The Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Commerce jointly are hereby authorized, within their discretion, to cooperate under formal agreement with individuals, associations, corporations, States, municipalities, educational institutions, or other bodies, for the purposes of this Act:[1] Provided, That before undertaking drilling operations upon any tract or tracts of land the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Commerce jointly, shall enter into a contract or contracts with the owners or lessees, or both, of the mineral rights therein, which contract shall provide, among other things, that not more than the actual cost of the exploration shall constitute a preferred claim in favor of the United States and its cooperators against any minerals developed; and the aforesaid contract or contracts shall provide that the owners or lessees, or both, of said lands and/or mineral rights within the radius hereinafter mentioned, shall pay to the Government and its cooperators an amount equal to the actual costs of said explorations, said payments to be made at such time or times, in such manner, and in such proportions as said Secretaries may, in their discretion, determine to be equitable: Provided further, That such contract shall not restrict the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Commerce jointly in the choice of drilling locations within the property or in the conduct of the exploratory operations, so long as such selections or conduct do not interfere unreasonably with the use of the surface of the land or with the improvements thereon, and such contract shall provide that the United States and its cooperators shall not be liable for damages on account of such reasonable use of the surface as may be necessary in the proper conduct of the work: Provided further, That before such drilling be commenced the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Commerce jointly shall require the owners of land and/or mineral rights therein lying within a radius of not less than one mile of any proposed well, in consideration of the probable increase in value to such lands and/or mineral rights therein incident to any discovery of potash and in order to prevent profiteering, to enter into an agreement whereby the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Commerce, jointly, are empowered to act as referees in determining the maximum price at which the potash rights in such lands can be sold, which covenant shall run with the lands and/or mineral rights therein: And provided further, That the owners of such potash rights, in consideration of the advantage accruing from an equitable price for such potash rights as effected by said Secretary of the Interior and Secretary of Commerce, may be required to enter into an agreement whereby the potash produced from said lands shall be marketed at a price not in excess of a maximum determined by the Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Commerce jointly as equitable. (June 25, 1926, c. 674, § 2, 44 Stat. 768.)

New section. See note to § 4a.

11. Purchase of supplies or procurement of services for Bureau of Mines.—The purchase of supplies and equipment or the procurement of services for the Bureau of Mines, at the seat of government, as well as in the field outside of the District of Columbia, may be made in open market without compliance with section 3709[2] of the Revised Statutes of the United States, in the manner common among business men, when the aggregate amount of the purchase or the service does not exceed $100 in any instance. (Apr. 29, 1926, c. 195, 44 Stat. 369.)

Act of July 1, 1918, c. 113, § 1, 40 Stat. 672, constituting § 11 of Title 30 of the Code, was superseded by this section.

LEASES AND PROSPECTING PERMITS

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

181. Lands subject to disposition; right to extract helium; persons not entitled to benefits.

This section (Act Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 1, 41 Stat. 437) was amended to include deposits of sulphur by Act Apr. 17, 1926, c. 158, § 5, 44 Stat. 302, the last part of § 5 reading as follows: "the first and thirty-seventh sections thereof being amended to include deposits of sulphur, and section 27 being amended so as to prohibit any person, association, or corporation from taking or holding more than three sulphur permits or leases in any one State during the life of such permits or leases."

183. Cancellation of prospecting permits.

The general provisions of this section and §§ 185–192 (Act Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 26, 41 Stat. 448) are made applicable to sulphur permits and leases by Act Apr. 17, 1926, c. 158, § 5, 44 Stat. 302, constituting § 275 of Title 30 of this appendix.

184. Limitation on number of leases to one person; combinations or unlawful trusts.—No person, association, or corporation, except as herein provided, shall take or hold coal, phosphate, or sodium leases or permits during the life of such leases or permits in any one State exceeding in aggregate acreage two thousand five hundred and sixty acres for each of said minerals; no person, association, or corporation shall take or hold at one time oil or gas leases or permits exceeding in the aggregate seven thousand six hundred and eighty acres granted hereunder in any one State, and not more than two thousand five hundred and sixty acres within the geologic structure of the same producing oil or gas field; and no person, association, or corporation shall take or hold at one time any interest or interests as a member of an association or associations or as a stockholder of a corporation or corporations holding a lease or leases, permit or permits, under the provisions hereof, which, together with the area embraced in any direct holding of a lease or leases, permit or permits, under this Act,[7] or which, together with any other interest or interests as a member of an association or associations or as a stockholder of a corporation or corporations holding a lease or leases, permit or permits, under the provisions hereof for any kind of mineral leases hereunder, exceeds in the aggregate an amount equivalent to the maximum number of acres of the respective kinds of minerals allowed to any one lessee or permittee under this Act.[7] Any interests held in violation of this Act[7] shall be forfeited to the United States by appropriate proceedings instituted by the Attorney General for that purpose in the United States district court for the district in which the property, or some part thereof, is located, except that any ownership or interest forbidden in this Act[7] which may be acquired by descent, will, judgment, or decree may be held for two years and not longer after its acquisition: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit sections 18,[3] 18a, 19,[4] and 22[5] or to prevent any number of lessees under the provisions of this Act[7] from combining their several interests so far as may be necessary for the purposes of constructing and carrying on the business of a refinery, or of establishing and constructing as a common carrier a pipe line or lines of railroads to be operated and used by them jointly in the transportation of oil from their several wells, or from the wells of other lessees under this Act,[7] or the transportation of coal or to increase the acreage which may be acquired or held under section 17[6] of this Act: Provided further, That any combination for such purpose or purposes shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior on application to him for permission to form the same: And provided further, That if any of the lands or deposits leased under the provisions of this Act[7] shall be subleased, trusteed, possessed, or controlled by any device permanently, temporarily, directly, indirectly, tacitly, or in any manner whatsoever, so that they form a part of or are in anywise controlled by any combination in the form of an unlawful trust, with consent of lessee, or form the subject of any contract or conspiracy in restraint of trade in the mining or selling of coal, phosphate, oil, oil shale, gas, or sodium entered into by the lessee, or any agreement or understanding, written, verbal, or otherwise to which such lessee shall be a party, of which his or its output is to be or become the subject, to control the price or prices thereof or of any holding of such lands by any individual, partnership, association, corporation, or control, in excess of the amounts of lands provided in this Act,[7] the lease thereof shall be forfeited by appropriate court proceedings. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 27, 41 Stat. 448; Apr. 30, 1926, c. 197, 44 Stat. 373.)

Section 184 of Title 30 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 184 of Title 30 of the Code, was amended by Act Apr. 30, 1926, c. 197, cited to text, to read as set forth above.

It was also amended by Act Apr. 17, 1926, c. 158, so as to prohibit the holding by any one person of more than three sulphur permits or leases in any one State. See note to § 181.

Section 18a of the Act of Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, 41 Stat. 444, mentioned in the text, was omitted from the Code as being temporary. It reads as follows:

"Whenever the validity of any gas or petroleum placer claim under pre-existing law to land embraced in the Executive order of withdrawal issued September 27, 1909, has been or may hereafter be drawn in question on behalf of the United States in any departmental or judicial proceedings, the President is hereby authorized at any time within twelve months after the approval of this Act to direct the compromise and settlement of any such controversy upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon, to be carried out by an exchange or division of land or division of the proceeds of operation."

Act Sept. 15, 1922, c. 314, 42 Stat. 844, entitled "An Act to extend the provisions of section 18a of an Act approved Feb. 25, 1920 (Forty-first Statutes, page 437), to certain lands in Utah," reads as follows:

"That for the period of twelve months from and after the approval of this Act the provisions of section 18a of an Act entitled 'An Act to promote the mining of coal, phosphate, oil, oil shale, gas and sodium on the public domain,' approved February 25, 1920 (Forty-first Statutes, page 437), be, and the same are hereby, extended to land in Utah embraced in the Executive order of withdrawal issued October 4, 1909: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed as otherwise enlarging, continuing, or extending the provisions of the aforesaid section 18a of the Act approved February 25, 1920 (Forty-first Statutes, page 437)."

185. Rights of way for pipe lines.

See note to § 183.

186. Reservation of easements or rights of way for working purposes; reservation of right to sell or lease surface of lands.

See note to § 183.

187. Assignment or subletting of leases; relinquishment of rights under leases; conditions in leases as to operation of mines, wells, etc.

See note to § 183.

188. Forfeiture or cancellation of leases.

See note to § 183.

189. Rules and regulations; rights of States not affected.

See note to § 183.

190. Oaths required, when.

See note to § 183.

191. Disposition of moneys received.

See note to § 183.

[3] Section 18 of the Act Feb. 25, 1920, 41 Stat. 443, mentioned in text, constitutes § 227 of Title 30 of the Code.

[4] Section 19 of the same Act, mentioned in the text, constitutes § 228 of Title 30 of the Code.

[7] "This Act" should be translated "this section."

192. Payment of royalties in oil or gas; sale of such oil or gas.

See note to § 183.

193. Disposition of deposits of coal, etc., in Wyoming.

Section 193 of Title 30 amended.—Act of Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 37, 41 Stat. 451, constituting § 103 of Title 30 of the Code, has been amended to include deposits of sulphur, by Act Apr. 17, 1926, c. 158, § 5, 44 Stat. 302. See note to § 181.

4. OIL AND GAS

222a. Extension of oil or gas prospecting permit authorized.—Any oil or gas prospecting permit issued under the Act entitled "An Act to promote the mining of coal, phosphate, oil, oil shale, gas, and sodium on the public domain," approved February 25, 1920, or extended under the Act entitled "An Act to authorize the Secretary of the Interior to grant extensions of time under oil and gas permits, and for other purposes," approved January 11, 1922, may be extended by the Secretary of the Interior for an additional period of two years, if he shall find that the permittee has been unable, with the exercise of reasonable diligence, to begin drilling operations or to drill wells of the depth and within the time required by existing law, or has drilled wells of the depth and within the time required by existing law, and has failed to discover oil or gas, and desires to prosecute further exploration. (Apr. 5, 1926, c. 107, § 1, 44 Stat. 236.)

New section. This section and the section next following are an Act entitled "An Act to grant extensions of time under oil and gas permits," cited to text. For applicable provisions of Act Feb. 25, 1920, and Act Jan. 11, 1922, mentioned in this section, see §§ 221 and 222 of Title 30 of the Code.

222b. Extension of permits already expired.—Upon application to the Secretary of the Interior, and subject to valid intervening rights and to the provisions of section 1 of this Act,[6a] any permit which has already expired because of lack of authority under existing law to make further extensions, may be extended for a period of two years from the date of the passage of this Act. (Apr. 5, 1926, c. 107, § 2, 44 Stat. 236.)

New section. See note to § 222a.

8. SULPHUR.[7] [New]

271. Prospecting permits; lands included.—The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized and directed, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, to grant to any qualified applicant a prospecting permit which shall give the exclusive right to prospect for sulphur in lands belonging to the United States located in the State of Louisiana for a period of not exceeding two years: Provided, That the area to be included in such a permit shall be not exceeding six hundred and forty acres of land in reasonably compact form. (Apr. 17, 1926, c. 158, § 1, 44 Stat. 301.)

272. Leases to permittees; privileges extended to oil and gas permittees.—Upon showing to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Interior that valuable deposits of sulphur have been discovered by the permittee within the area covered by his permit, and that the land is chiefly valuable therefor, the permittee shall be entitled to a lease for any or all of the land embraced in the prospecting permit, at a royalty of 5 per centum of the quantity or gross value of the output of sulphur at the point of shipment to market, such lease to be taken in compact form by legal subdivisions of the public-land surveys; or if the land be not surveyed, by survey executed at the cost of the permittee in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior: Provided, That where any person having been granted an oil and gas permit makes a discovery of sulphur in lands covered by said permit, he shall have the same privilege of leasing not to exceed six hundred and forty acres of said land under the same terms and conditions as are given a sulphur permittee under the provisions of this section. (Apr. 17, 1926, c. 158, § 2, 44 Stat. 301.)

See note to § 271.

273. Lease of lands not covered by permits or leases; rental.—Lands known to contain valuable deposits of sulphur and not covered by permits or leases shall be held subject to lease by the Secretary of the Interior through advertisement, competitive bidding, or such other methods as he may by general regulations adopt and in such areas as he shall fix, not exceeding six hundred and forty acres; all leases to be conditioned upon the payment by the lessee of such royalty as may be fixed in the lease and the payment in advance of a rental of 50 cents per acre per annum, the rental paid for any one year to be credited against the royalties accruing for that year. (Apr. 17, 1926, c. 158, § 3, 44 Stat. 301.)

See note to § 271.

274. Lands containing coal or other minerals.—Prospecting permits or leases may be issued in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior under the provisions of this Act[6b] for deposits of sulphur in public lands also containing coal or other minerals on condition that such other deposits be reserved to the United States for disposal under applicable laws. (Apr. 17, 1926, c. 158, § 4, 44 Stat. 302.)

See note to § 271.

275. Laws applicable.—The general provisions of section 1 and sections 26 to 38,[8] inclusive, of the Act of February 25, 1920, entitled "An Act to promote the mining of coal, phosphate, oil, oil shale, gas, and sodium on the public domain," are made applicable to permits and leases under this Act. (Apr. 17, 1926, c. 158, § 5, 44 Stat. 302.)

See note to § 271.

276. Act applicable to Louisiana only.—That the provisions of this Act[6b] shall apply only to the State of Louisiana. (Apr. 17, 1926, c. 158, § 6, 44 Stat. 302.)

See note to § 271.

Chapter 4.[9]—LEASE OF GOLD, SILVER, OR QUICKSILVER DEPOSITS WHEN TITLE CONFIRMED BY COURT OF PRIVATE LAND CLAIMS. [New.]

Sec.

291. Lease of gold, silver, or quicksilver deposits on land title to which confirmed by Court of Private Land Claims.
292. Royalties and rentals; disposition.
293. Duties of Secretary of Interior.

291. Lease of gold, silver, or quicksilver deposits on lands title to which confirmed by Court of Private Land Claims.—Hereafter all gold, silver, or quicksilver deposits, or mines or minerals of the same on lands embraced within any land claim confirmed or hereafter confirmed by decree of the Court of Private Land Claims, and which did not convey the mineral rights to the grantee by the terms of the grant, and to which such grantee has not become otherwise entitled in law or in equity, may be leased by the Secretary of the Interior to the grantee, or to those claiming through or under him, for a period of twenty years, with the preferential right in the lessee to renew the same for successive periods of ten years, upon such reasonable terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, unless otherwise provided by law at the time of the expiration of such periods. (June 8, 1926, c. 503, § 1, 44 Stat. 710.)

292. Royalties and rentals; disposition.—That for the privilege of mining or extracting the gold, silver, or quicksilver deposits in the land covered by such lease, the lessee shall pay to the United States a royalty, which shall not be less than 5 per centum nor more than 12½ per centum of the net value of the output of the gold, silver, or quicksilver at the mine, due and payable at the end of each month succeeding that of the extraction of the minerals from the mine. All moneys received from royalties and rentals under the provisions of this Act shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States, and disposed of in the same manner as rentals and royalties under the provisions of the Act of February 25, 1920 (Forty-first Statutes, page 437).[10] (June 8, 1926, c. 503, § 2, 44 Stat. 710.)

See note to § 291.

293. Duties of Secretary of Interior.—That the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to perform any and all acts and to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary and proper for the purpose of carrying this Act[11] into full force and effect. (June 8, 1926, c. 503, § 3, 44 Stat. 710.)

See note to § 291.

[10] The provisions of Act Feb. 25, 1920, mentioned in the text, constitute § 191 of Title 30 of the Code.

[11] "This Act" should be translated "sections 291–293 of this title of the appendix."

TITLE 31.—MONEY AND FINANCE

Chapter 2.—AUDIT AND SETTLEMENT OF ACCOUNTS.

Sec.
103a. Disbursing officers of Army, Navy, and Marine Corps; designation of deputies. [New.]
121. Destruction of paid United States checks and warrants. [New.]
122. Claims on paid checks and warrants; statute of limitations. [New.]

103a. Disbursing officers of Army, Navy, and Marine Corps; designation of deputies.—When, in the opinion of the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, the exigencies of the service so require, disbursing officers of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps may, with the approval of the head of their executive department and the consent of their surety or sureties, if any, designate deputies for the purpose of having them make disbursements as their agents, sign checks drawn against their disbursing accounts with the Treasurer of the United States, and discharge all other duties required according to law or regulation to be performed by such disbursing officers, and the agent officer shall be subject, for his official misconduct, to all liabilities and penalties prescribed by law in like cases for the officer for whom he acts as deputy: Provided, That every deputy so designated for a disbursing officer who is bonded shall, if not already under bond, give bond as required by the head of the department concerned. (July 3, 1926, c. 775, 44 Stat. 888.)

New section. This section constitutes an Act entitled "An Act to authorize disbursing officers of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps to designate deputies," cited to text.

121. Destruction of paid United States checks and warrants.—The Secretary of the Treasury and the Comptroller General of the United States, respectively, are hereby authorized and directed to cause to be destroyed all United States Government checks and warrants issued by the Secretary of the Treasury, the Postmaster General, the Treasurer and Assistant Treasurers of the United States, or by disbursing officers and agents of the United States, eight full fiscal years prior to the date of destruction, which checks and warrants have been paid and form the paid check files of the Treasury Department and of the General Accounting Office wherever stored under their respective control, after all unpaid checks and warrants have been listed as outstanding as now required by law: Provided, That such checks and warrants as, in their discretion, respectively, may be deemed necessary in the public interests or the legality of the negotiation of which has been questioned in any material respect by any party in interest may be preserved: Provided further, That such checks as may be of historic or sentimental interest may also be preserved. (June 22, 1926, c. 650, § 1, 44 Stat. 761.)

New section. This section and the section next following constitute an Act entitled "An Act to authorize the destruction of paid United States checks," cited to text.

122. Claims on paid checks and warrants; statute of limitations.—All claims on account of any check, checks, warrant, or warrants appearing to have been paid shall be barred if not presented to the General Accounting Office within six years after the date of issuance of the check, checks, warrant, or warrants involved. (June 22, 1926, c. 650, § 2, 44 Stat. 761.)

New section. See note to section 121.

Chapter 3.—THE TREASURER.

143a. Deputy Assistant Treasurer designated Assistant Treasurer.—The title Deputy Assistant Treasurer of the United States as designated by the Act approved March 3, 1901, as amended by the Act approved July 16, 1914, be, and the same is hereby, changed and shall hereafter be designated as Assistant Treasurer of the United States. (Apr. 9, 1926, c. 110, 44 Stat. 237.)

The Act cited to the text was entitled "An Act to change the title of Deputy Assistant Treasurer of the United States to Assistant Treasurer of the United States."

Acts March 3, 1901, and July 16, 1914, mentioned in this section are the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation acts for the years 1902 and 1915, respectively, which provided for Deputy Assistant Treasurer at $3,200.

224. Settlement of claims for damages from operation of aircraft.

Section 224 of Title 31 repealed.—The statutory provision constituting § 224 of Title 31 of the Code was repealed in Act of Apr. 15, 1926, c. 146, Title I, 44 Stat. 269.

236. Settlement of indebtedness of Belgium to United States.—The settlement of the indebtedness of the Government of the Kingdom of Belgium to the Government of the United States of America made by the World War Foreign Debt Commission and approved by the President upon the terms and conditions as set forth in Senate Document Numbered 4, Sixty-ninth Congress, first session, is hereby approved in general terms as follows:

The indebtedness to be funded has been divided into two classes, that incurred prior to November 11, 1918, called the prearmistice indebtedness, and that incurred subsequent to November 11, 1918, called the postarmistice indebtedness.

The amount of the prearmistice indebtedness to be funded is $171,780,000, which is the principal amount of the obligations of Belgium received by the United States for cash advances made prior to November 11, 1918. The prearmistice indebtedness is payable in annual installments without interest over a period of sixty-two years, the first payment falling due June 15, 1926. Belgium is to pay the following amounts on the dates specified: June 15, 1926, $1,000,000; June 15, 1927, $1,000,000; June 15, 1928, $1,250,000; June 15, 1929, $1,750,000; June 15, 1930, $2,250,000; June 15, 1931, $2,750,000; June 15, 1932, to June 15, 1986, inclusive, $2,900,000 per annum; June 15, 1987, $2,280,000.

The amount of the postarmistice indebtedness to be funded after allowing for certain cash payments is $246,000,000, which has been computed as follows:

Principal of obligations for cash advanced	$175,430,808.68
Accrued and unpaid interest at 4¼ per centum per annum to December 15, 1922	26,314,491.66
		$201,745,300.34

Principal of obligations for war material sold on credit	$29,818,933.39
Accrued and unpaid interest at 4¼ per centum per annum to December 15, 1922	491,359.24
		$30,310,292.63
Total indebtedness as of December 15, 1922		232,055,592.97
Accrued interest thereon at 3 per centum per annum from December 15, 1922, to June 15, 1925		17,404,169.47
Total indebtedness as of June 15, 1925		249,459,762.44
Deduct:
Payments on account of interest received between December 15, 1922, and June 15, 1925, on obligations for war material	$3,442,346.20
Principal payment of $172.01 made August 7, 1923, together with interest thereon at 3 per centum per annum to June 15, 1925	181.58
		3,442,527.78
Net indebtedness as of June 15, 1925		246,017,234.66
To be paid in cash upon execution of agreement		17,234.66
Total indebtedness to be funded into bonds		246,000,000.00

The principal of the bonds issued for the postarmistice indebtedness shall be paid in annual installments on June 15, of each year up to and including June 15, 1987, on a fixed schedule subject to the right of the Government of the Kingdom of Belgium after June 15, 1935, to make such payments in three-year periods. The amount of the first principal installment shall be $1,100,000, the annual principal installments to increase until in the sixty-second year the amount of the final principal installment shall be $9,600,000, the aggregate principal installments being equal to the total principal of the postarmistice indebtedness to be funded into bonds.

The Government of the Kingdom of Belgium shall have the right to pay off additional amounts of the bonds on June 15 or December 15 of any year upon not less than ninety days' advance notice.

The bonds issued for the postarmistice indebtedness shall bear interest from June 15, 1925, in the amounts and on the dates set forth in the following schedule: December 15, 1925, $870,000; June 15, 1926, $870,000; December 15, 1926, $1,000,000; June 15, 1927, $1,000,000; December 15, 1927, $1,125,000; June 15, 1928, $1,125,000; December 15, 1928, $1,250,000; June 15, 1929, $1,250,000; December 15, 1929, $1,375,000; June 15, 1930, $1,375,000; December 15, 1930, $1,625,000; June 15, 1931, $1,625,000; December 15, 1931, $1,875,000; June 15, 1932, $1,875,000; December 15, 1932, $2,125,000; June 15, 1933, $2,125,000; December 15, 1933, $2,375,000; June 15, 1934, $2,375,000; December 15, 1934, $2,625,000; June 15, 1935, $2,625,000 until and including June 15, 1935, and thereafter at the rate of 3½ per centum per annum, payable semiannually on June 15 and December 15 of each year, until the principal of said bonds shall have been paid.

Any payment of interest or principal may be made at the option of the Government of the Kingdom of Belgium in any United States Government obligations issued after April 6, 1917, such obligations to be taken at par and accrued interest. (Apr. 30, 1926, c. 199, 44 Stat. 376.)

New section. This section is an Act entitled "An Act to authorize the settlement of the indebtedness of the Government of the Kingdom of Belgium to the Government of the United States of America," cited to text.

237. Settlement of indebtedness of Czechoslovak Republic to United States.—The settlement of the indebtedness of the Czechoslovak Republic to the United States of America made by the World War Foreign Debt Commission and approved by the President upon the terms and conditions as set forth in Senate Document Numbered 6, Sixty-ninth Congress, first session, is hereby approved in general terms as follows:

The net amount of the indebtedness in settlement of the financial differences between the two Governments and/or their agencies, both principal and interest, is fixed as of June 15, 1925, at $115,000,000.

The principal amount of the bonds to be delivered to the United States is $185,071,023.07, the increase over the funded indebtedness as of June 15, 1925, being due to the smaller payments during the first eighteen years than would have been payable upon the basis of the British-American settlement, this difference being funded over the remaining forty-four years, compounded annually, at the rates of 3 per centum per annum up to and including the tenth year and 3½ per centum per annum from the eleventh to the eighteenth year, both inclusive. The principal of the bonds shall be paid in semiannual installments on June 15 and December 15 of each year up to and including June 15, 1943, and thereafter in annual installments, subject to the right of the Czechoslovak Republic, after June 15, 1943, to make such payments in three-year periods. The first thirty-six semiannual installments are to be $1,500,000 each, and are to be paid without interest on June 15 and December 15 of each year. The remaining forty-four installments are to be paid annually on June 15 of each year, with interest at the rate of 3½ per centum per annum from June 15, 1943, payable semiannually on June 15 and December 15 of each year. The amount of the installment due in the nineteenth year is $1,296,023.07, the annual installments to increase thereafter until in the sixty-second year the amount of the final installment will be $5,685,000, the aggregate installments being equal to the total face amount of bonds to be delivered, namely, $185,071,023.07.

The Czechoslovak Republic shall have the right to pay off additional amounts of the principal of the bonds on June 15 or December 15 of any year upon not less than ninety days' advance notice.

Any payments of interest or principal may be made at the option of the Czechoslovak Republic in any United States obligations issued after April 6, 1917, such obligations to be taken at par and accrued interest. (May 3, 1926, c. 224, 44 Stat. 386.)

New section. This section is an Act entitled "An Act to authorize the settlement of the indebtedness of the Czechoslovak Republic to the United States of America," cited to text.

238. Settlement of indebtedness of Esthonia to United States.—The settlement of the indebtedness of the Republic of Esthonia to the United States of America, made by the World War Foreign Debt Commission and approved by the President upon the terms and conditions as set forth in Senate Document Numbered 7, Sixty-ninth Congress, first session, is hereby approved in general terms as follows:

The amount of the indebtedness to be funded, after allowing for the cash payment made by Esthonia, and the credit set out below, is $13,830,000, which has been computed as follows:

Principal amount of obligations to be funded	$13,999,145.60
Credit allowed for total loss of cargo on sinking of steamship John Russ sunk by a mine in Baltic Sea	1,932,923.45
		12,066,222.15
Interest accrued and unpaid thereon to December 15, 1922, at the rate of 4¼ per centum a year		1,765,219.73
Total principal and interest accrued and unpaid as of December 15, 1922		13,831,441.88
To be paid in cash by Esthonia upon execution of agreement		1,441.88
Total indebtedness to be funded into bonds		13,830,000.00

The principal of the bonds shall be paid in annual installments on December 15 of each year up to and including December 15, 1984, on a fixed schedule, subject to the right of the Republic of Esthonia to make such payments in three-year periods. The amount of the first year's installment shall be $69,000, the annual installments to increase until the sixty-second year. The amount of the final installment will be $530,000, the aggregate installments being equal to the total principal of the indebtedness to be funded into bonds.

The Republic of Esthonia shall have the right to pay off additional amounts of the principal of the bonds on any interest date, upon ninety days' advance notice.

Interest on the bonds shall be payable semiannually on June 15 and December 15 of each year at the rate of 3 per centum per annum from December 15, 1922, to December 15, 1932, and thereafter at the rate of 3½ per centum per annum until final payment.

The Republic of Esthonia shall have the option with reference to payments on account of principal and/or interest falling due on or before December 15, 1930, under the terms of the agreement, to make the following payments on the dates specified: June 15, 1926, $50,000; December 15, 1926, $50,000; June 15, 1927, $75,000; December 15, 1927, $75,000; June 15, 1928, $100,000; December 15, 1928, $100,000; June 15, 1929, $125,000; December 15, 1929, $125,000; June 15, 1930, $150,000; December 15, 1930, $150,000; total, $1,000,000; and to pay the balance, including interest on all overdue payments, at the rate of 3 per centum per annum, in bonds of Esthonia, dated December 15, 1930, bearing interest at the rate of 3 per centum per annum from December 15, 1930, to December 15, 1932, and thereafter at the rate of 3½ per centum per annum, such bonds to mature serially on December 15 of each year up to and including December 15, 1984, substantially in the same manner and to be substantially the same in other respects as the bonds of Esthonia received at the time of the funding of the indebtedness.

Any payment of interest or of principal may be made, at the option of the Republic of Esthonia, in any United States Government obligations issued after April 6, 1917, such obligations to be taken at par and accrued interest. (Apr. 30, 1926, c. 200, 44 Stat. 377.)

New section. This section is an Act entitled "An Act to authorize the settlement of the indebtedness of the Republic of Esthonia to the United States of America," cited to text.

239. Settlement of indebtedness of Italy to United States.—The settlement of the indebtedness of the Kingdom of Italy to the United States of America made by the World War Foreign Debt Commission and approved by the President upon the terms and conditions as set forth in Senate Document Numbered 3, Sixty-ninth Congress, first session, is hereby approved in general terms as follows:

The amount of the indebtedness to be funded, after allowing for certain cash payments made by Italy, is $2,042,000,000, which has been computed as follows:

Obligations taken for cash advanced by Treasury	$1,648,034,050.90
Accrued and unpaid interest at 4¼ per centum per annum to December 15, 1922	251,846,654.79	$1,899,880,705.69
Accrued interest at 3 per centum per annum from December 15, 1922, to June 15, 1925		142,491,052.93
		$2,042,371,758.62
Deduct payments made on account of principal since December 15, 1922	$164,852.94
Interest on principal payments at 3 per centum per annum to June 15, 1925	7,439.34	172,292.28
Total net indebtedness as of June 15, 1925		$2,042,199,466.34
To be paid in cash upon execution of agreement		199,466.34
Total indebtedness to be funded into bonds		$2,042,000,000.00

The principal of the bonds shall be paid in annual installments on June 15 of each year up to and including June 15, 1987, on a fixed schedule, subject to the right of the Kingdom of Italy to postpone such payments falling due after June 15, 1930, for two years, such postponed payment to bear interest at the rate of 4¼ per centum per annum. The amount of the annual principal installment during the first five years shall be $5,000,000. The amount of the principal installment due the sixth year shall be $12,100,000, the subsequent annual principal installments increasing until in the sixty-second year of the debt-funding period the final principal installment shall be $79,400,000, the aggregate principal installments being equal to the total principal of the indebtedness to be funded into bonds.

The Kingdom of Italy shall have the right to pay off additional amounts of principal of the bonds on June 15 and December 15 of any year upon ninety days' advance notice.

The bonds to be issued shall bear no interest until June 15, 1930, and thereafter shall bear interest at the rate of one-eighth of 1 per centum per annum from June 15, 1930, to June 15, 1940; at the rate of one-fourth of 1 per centum per annum from June 15, 1940, to June 15, 1950; at the rate of one-half of 1 per centum per annum from June 15, 1950, to June 15, 1960; at the rate of three-fourths of 1 per centum per annum from June 15, 1960, to June 15, 1970; at the rate of 1 per centum per annum from June 15, 1970, to June 15, 1980; and at the rate of 2 per centum per annum after June 15, 1980, all payable semiannually on June 15 and December 15 of each year.

Any payment of interest or principal may be made at the option of the Kingdom of Italy in any United States Government obligations issued after April 6, 1917, such obligations to be taken at par and accrued interest. (Apr. 28, 1926, c. 194, 44 Stat. 329.)

New section. This section is an Act entitled "An Act to authorize the settlement of the indebtedness of the Kingdom of Italy to the United States of America," cited to text.

240. Settlement of indebtedness of Latvia to United States.—The settlement of the indebtedness of the Government of the Republic of Latvia to the Government of the United States of America made by the World War Foreign Debt Commission and approved by the President upon the terms and conditions as set forth in Senate Document Numbered 8, Sixty-ninth Congress, first session, is hereby approved in general terms as follows:

The amount of the indebtedness to be funded, after allowing for the cash payments made by Latvia, is $5,775,000, which has been computed as follows:

Principal amount of obligations to be funded	$5,132,287.14
Interest accrued and unpaid thereon to December 15, 1922, at the rate of 4¼ per centum per annum	647,275.62
Total principal and interest accrued and unpaid as of December 15, 1922	5,779,562.76
To be paid in cash by Latvia upon execution of agreement	4,562.76
Total indebtedness to be funded into bonds	5,775,000.00

The principal of the bonds shall be paid in annual installments on December 15 of each year up to and including December 15, 1984, on a fixed schedule, subject to right of the Government of the Republic of Latvia to make such payments in three-year periods. The amount of the first year's installment shall be $28,000, the annual installments to increase until the sixty-second year, the amount of the final installment will be $228,000, the aggregate installments being equal to the total principal of the indebtedness to be funded into bonds.

The Government of the Republic of Latvia shall have the right to pay off additional amounts of the principal of the bonds on any interest date upon ninety days' advance notice.

Interest on the bonds shall be payable semiannually on June 15 and December 15 of each year at the rate of 3 per centum per annum from December 15, 1922, to December 15, 1932, thereafter at the rate of 3½ per centum per annum until final payment.

The Government of the Republic of Latvia shall have the option, with reference to payments on account of principal and/or interest falling due on or before December 15, 1930, under the terms of the agreement, to make the following payments on the dates specified: June 15, 1926, $30,000; December 15, 1926, $30,000; June 15, 1927, $35,000; December 15, 1927, $35,000; June 15, 1928, $40,000; December 15, 1928, $40,000; June 15, 1929, $45,000; December 15, 1929, $45,000; June 15, 1930, $50,000; December 15, 1930, $50,000; total $400,000, and to pay the balance, including interest on all overdue payments at the rate of 3 per centum per annum in bonds of Latvia, dated December 15, 1930, bearing interest at the rate of 3 per centum per annum from December 15, 1930, to December 15, 1932, and thereafter at the rate of 3½ per centum per annum, such bonds to mature serially on December 15 of each year up to and including December 15, 1984, substantially in the same manner and to be substantially the same in other respects as the bonds of Latvia received at the time of the funding of the indebtedness.

Any payment of interest or of principal may be made at the option of the Republic of Latvia, in any United States Government obligations issued after April 6, 1917, such obligations to be taken at par and accrued interest. (Apr. 30, 1926, c. 201, 44 Stat. 378.)

New section. This section is an Act entitled "An Act to authorize the settlement of the indebtedness of the Government of the Republic of Latvia to the Government of the United States of America," cited to text.

241. Settlement of indebtedness of Rumania to United States.—The settlement of the indebtedness of the Kingdom of Rumania to the United States of America made by the World War Foreign Debt Commission and approved by the President upon the terms and conditions as set forth in Senate Document Numbered 5, Sixty-ninth Congress, first session, is hereby approved in general terms as follows:

The amount of the indebtedness to be funded, after allowing for the cash payments made by the Kingdom of Rumania and the credits set out below, is $44,590,000, which has been computed as follows:

Principal amount of indebtedness to be funded	$36,128,494.94
Interest accrued and unpaid thereon to December 15, 1922, at the rate of 4¼ per centum a year	5,365,806.08
Total indebtedness as of December 15, 1922	41,494,301.02
Interest accrued and unpaid thereon to June 15, 1925, at the rate of 3 per centum a year	3,112,072.59
	44,606,373.61
Credits allowed by War Department on material together with interest thereon	11,922.07
Total net indebtedness as of June 15, 1925	44,594,451.54
To be paid in cash upon execution of agreement	4,451.54
Total indebtedness to be funded into bonds	44,590,000.00

The principal amount of the bonds to be delivered to the United States is $66,560,560.43, the increase over the funded indebtedness as of June 15, 1925, being due to the smaller payments during the first fourteen years than would have been payable upon the basis of the British-American settlement, this difference being funded over the remaining forty-eight years, compounded annually, at the rates of 3 per centum per annum up to and including the tenth year and 3½ per centum per annum from the eleventh to the fourteenth year, both inclusive. The principal of the bonds shall be paid in annual installments on June 15 of each year up to and including June 15, 1987, subject to the right of the Kingdom of Rumania, after June 15, 1939, to make such payments in three-year periods. The first fourteen annual installments are to be paid without interest on the date specified and in the following amounts: June 15, 1926, $200,000; June 15, 1927, $300,000; June 15, 1928, $400,000; June 15, 1929; $500,000; June 15, 1930, $600,000; June 15, 1931, $700,000; June 15, 1932, $800,000; June 15, 1933, $1,000,000; June 15, 1934, $1,200,000; June 15, 1935, $1,400,000; June 15, 1936, $1,600,000; June 15, 1937, $1,800,000; June 15, 1938, $2,000,000; June 15, 1939, $2,200,000. The remaining forty-eight installments are to be paid annually on June 15 of each year, with interest at the rate of 3½ per centum per annum from June 15, 1939, payable semiannually on June 15 and December 15 of each year. The amount of the installment due in the fifteenth year is $430,560.43, the annual installments to increase thereafter until in the sixty-second year the amount of the final installment will be $2,172,000, the aggregate installments being equal to the total face amount of bonds to be delivered, namely, $66,560,560.43.

The Kingdom of Rumania shall have the right to pay off additional amounts of the principal of the bonds on June 15 or December 15 of any year upon not less than ninety days' advance notice.

Any payment of interest or of principal may be made at the option of the Kingdom of Rumania in any obligations of the United States issued after April 6, 1917, such obligations to be taken at par and accrued interest. (May 3, 1926, c. 223, 44 Stat. 385.)

748. Additional Liberty bond tax exemptions. [Repealed.]

Section 1028 of Act June 2, 1924, 43 Stat. 349, constituting § 748 of Title 31 of the Code, was repealed by § 1200 of the Act Feb. 26, 1926, constituting § 1273 of Title 26, Internal Revenue, of this appendix.

748a. Consolidation of Liberty bond tax exemptions.—The various Acts authorizing the issues of Liberty bonds are amended and supplemented as follows:

(a) On and after January 1, 1921, 4 per centum and 4¼ per centum Liberty bonds shall be exempt from graduated additional income taxes, commonly known as surtaxes, and excess-profits and war-profits taxes, now or hereafter imposed by the United States upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, corporations, or associations, in respect to the interest on aggregate principal amounts thereof as follows:

Until the expiration of two years after the date of the termination of the war between the United States and the German Government, as fixed by proclamation of the President, on $125,000 aggregate principal amount; and for three years more on $50,000 aggregate principal amount.

(b) The exemptions provided in subdivision (a) shall be in addition to the exemptions provided in section 7 of the Second Liberty Bond Act,[1] and in addition to the exemption provided in subdivision (3) of section 1 of the Supplement to the Second Liberty Bond Act in respect to bonds issued upon conversion of 3½ per centum bonds, but shall be in lieu of the exemptions provided and free from the conditions and limitations imposed in subdivisions (1) and (2) of section 1 of the Supplement to the Second Liberty Bond Act and in section 2 of the Victory Liberty Loan Act.[2] (Feb. 26, 1926, c. 27, § 1125, 44 Stat. 122.)

This section is § 1125 of the Revenue Act of 1926.

[1] Section 7 of the Second Liberty Bond Act referred to in the text constitutes § 747 of this title of the Code.

[2] Section 2 of the Victory Liberty Loan Act mentioned in the text constitutes § 749 of this title of the Code.

TITLE 32.—NATIONAL GUARD

Chapter 3.—ARMAMENT, EQUIPMENT, AND SUPPLIES.

Sec.
42. Care of animals; armament, etc.
44. Issue of clothing, equipment, etc.

42. Care of animals; armament, etc.—Funds allotted by the Secretary of War for the support of the National Guard shall be available for the purchase and issue of forage, bedding, shoeing, and veterinary services, and supplies for the Government animals issued to any organization, and for animals owned or hired by any State, Territory, District of Columbia, or National Guard organization, not exceeding the number of animals authorized by Federal law for such organization and used solely for military purposes, and for the compensation of competent help for the care of material, animals, armament, and equipment of organizations of all kinds, under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe: Provided, That the men to be so compensated shall not exceed five for each organization, except heavier-than-air squadrons, for each of which a maximum of ten to be so compensated is hereby authorized, and shall, save as otherwise provided in the next succeeding proviso, be duly enlisted therein and detailed by the organization commander, and shall be paid by the United States disbursing officer in each State, Territory, and the District of Columbia: Provided further, That in each heavier-than-air squadron one caretaker may be a commissioned officer not above the grade of first lieutenant, and that in any organization whenever it shall be found impracticable to secure the necessary competent caretakers for the material, animals, armament, or equipment thereof from the personnel of such organization, the organization commander may employ one civilian caretaker therefor who shall be entitled to such compensations as may be fixed by the Secretary of War: Provided further, That nothing in this section shall be held to increase the number of commissioned officers authorized by law. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 90, 39 Stat. 205, amended, June 4, 1920, c. 227; subchapter I, § 46, 41 Stat. 783, March 1, 1922, c. 90, 42 Stat. 401, June 6, 1924, c. 275, § 5, 43 Stat. 471, and May 28, 1926, c. 417, § 1, 44 Stat. 673.)

Section 42 of Title 32 amended.—Section 90 of the National Defense Act of 1916, as amended, constituting § 42 of Title 32 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 28, 1926, c. 417, § 1, 44 Stat. 673, to read as above.

44. Issue of clothing, equipment, etc.

Section 44 of Title 32 repealed.—The statutory provision constituting § 44 of Title 32 of the Code has been repealed in the War Department Appropriation Act for 1927, Act Apr. 15, 1926, c. 146, Title I, 44 Stat. 282.

Chapter 4.—INSTRUCTION, TRAINING, AND DISCIPLINE.

Sec.
64. Camps for instruction of officers and enlisted men.
65. Officers or enlisted men selected to attend service schools or to receive routine instruction during field exercises.

64. Camps for instruction of officers and enlisted men.—Under such regulations as the President may prescribe the Secretary of War may provide for assemblages of officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men of the National Guard for the purpose of attending schools to be conducted by officers of the Regular Army detailed by the Secretary of War for that purpose or for the purpose of participating in small arms competitions. Such assemblages may be held either within or without the State, Territory, or District of Columbia, to which the members of the National Guard designated to attend them shall belong. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 97, 39 Stat. 207, amended, May 28, 1926, c. 417, § 2, 44 Stat. 674.)

Section 64 of Title 32 amended.—The provisions of Act of June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 97, 39 Stat. 207, constituting § 64 of Title 32 of the Code, have been amended by Act of May 28, 1926, c. 417, § 2, 44 Stat. 674, to read as above.

A further provision of the same act as to pay and allowance appears as § 145 of this title of the appendix.

65. Officers or enlisted men selected to attend service schools or to receive practical routine instruction during field exercises.—National Guard officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men at service schools, and so forth.—Under such regulations as the President may prescribe, the Secretary of War may, upon the recommendation of the governor of any State or Territory, or the commanding general of the National Guard of the District of Columbia, authorize a limited number of selected officers, warrant officers, or enlisted men of the National Guard to attend and pursue a regular course of study at any military-service school of the United States, except the United States Military Academy, or to be attached to an organization of the same arm, corps, or department to which such officer or enlisted man shall belong, for routine practical instruction at or near an Army post during a period of field training or other outdoor exercises. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 99, 39 Stat. 207; Sept. 22, 1922, c. 423, § 5, 42 Stat. 1035; May 28, 1926, c. 417, § 3, 44 Stat. 674.)

Section 65 of Title 32 amended.—The provisions of Act of June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 99, 39 Stat. 207, as amended, constituting § 65 of Title 32 of the Code, have been further amended by Act of May 28, 1926, c. 417, § 3, 44 Stat. 674, to read as above.

For further provisions of that Act as to pay and allowances, see § 146 of this title in the appendix.

Promotion not delayed though grade or rank is full.—Hereafter the promotion of an officer of the Navy or Marine Corps shall not be delayed or barred because of a resulting temporary excess in the grade or rank to which promotion is due, caused by the delay for any reason of the promotion of an officer in that grade or rank to fill an existing vacancy in a higher grade or rank. (July 3, 1926, c. 774, 44 Stat. 888.)

New section. Act of July 3, 1926, c. 774, 44 Stat. 888, cited to the text, was entitled "An Act to prevent delay in the promotion of officers of the Navy and Marine Corps."

SERVICE AND AGE REQUIREMENTS

311a. Section 311 of Code temporarily affected.—Until March 5, 1929, the provisions contained in the Act approved August 29, 1916[1] (Thirty-ninth Statutes at Large, page 579), which provide for the retirement of captains, commanders, and lieutenant commanders of the line of the Navy who are more than fifty-six, fifty, and forty-five years of age, respectively, and who have become ineligible for promotion on account of such age, be, and the same are hereby, modified to the extent that captains, commanders, and lieutenant commanders shall not become ineligible for promotion and shall not be retired until they have completed thirty-five, twenty-eight, and twenty-one years, respectively, of commissioned service in the Navy, and upon the completion of such service, if not recommended for promotion, they shall be retired without regard to age under the conditions specified in said Act: Provided, That the commissioned service of Naval Academy graduates, for the purpose of this Act[1a] only shall be computed from June 30 of the calendar year in which the class with which they graduated completed its academic course, or, if its academic course was more or less than four years, from June 30 of the calendar year in which it would have completed an academic course of four years. (June 22, 1926, c. 649, 44 Stat. 761.)

New section.

EQUALIZATION OF PROMOTION OF STAFF CORPS AND LINE OFFICERS. [New.]

348. Staff Corps; advancement of officers.—For all purposes of this Act[2] the words "staff officer" or "staff officers" as hereinafter used shall be construed to include officers of the Medical, Supply, Chaplain, Construction, Civil Engineer, and Dental Corps of the Navy only.

---

[1] "Act approved Aug. 29, 1916," should be translated "section 311 of this title."

[2] "This Act" should be translated "sections 348 to 348u of this title in the appendix."

Hereafter all advancements to the ranks of rear admiral, captain, and commander in each of the staff corps above mentioned, including the advancement of staff officers who are or may be carried on the Navy list as additional to the numbers of such ranks, shall be by selection only from staff officers of the next lower respective rank in the corps concerned upon the recommendation of a board of naval officers as hereinafter provided: Provided, That nothing in this Act[2] shall be construed as authorizing or permitting the advancement of any officer of the Chaplain Corps or Dental Corps to a higher rank than that of captain, and the ranks of commander and captain are hereby established in the grade of dental surgeon: Provided further, That the advancements of staff officers herein authorized to the ranks of rear admiral, captain, and commander shall be made regardless of numbers or percentages established by any prior Acts for the distribution of staff officers in the ranks or grades of such corps, and such prior Acts in so far as they establish numbers or percentages of staff officers in the various ranks or grades are hereby repealed: Provided further, That nothing in this Act[2] shall be construed as authorizing or permitting in the permanent rank of rear admiral, exclusive of additional numbers, more than four officers of the Medical Corps, three officers of the Supply Corps, one officer of the Construction Corps, and one officer of the Civil Engineer Corps: Provided further, That when a staff officer is advanced by selection in accordance with this Act[2] to a rank which does not now exist in the grade held by him at the time of such advancement he shall be promoted to the next higher grade in his corps at the same time he is so advanced in rank: Provided further, That no staff officer shall be advanced to the rank of rear admiral, captain, or commander except in accordance with the provisions of this Act[2] and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, but this shall not operate to repeal sections 1506 and 1507 of the Revised Statutes.[3] (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 1, 44 Stat. 717.)

New section. Act of June 10, 1926, c. 529, 44 Stat. 717, cited to the text, was entitled "An Act to provide for the equalization of promotion of officers of the staff corps of the Navy with officers of the line."

348a. Selection boards; creation and composition.—Boards for the selection of staff officers for recommendation for advancement to the rank of rear admiral shall be composed of not less than three nor more than nine officers of the rank of rear admiral or commodore on the active or retired list of the staff corps concerned. Boards for the selection of staff officers for recommendation for advancement to the ranks of captain and commander shall be composed of not less than six nor more than nine officers not below the rank of captain on the active or retired list of the staff corps concerned: Provided, That in case there be not a sufficient number of staff officers of the corps concerned legally or physically capacitated to serve on a selection board of such corps as herein provided, officers of the line on the active list of the rank of rear admiral may be detailed to duty on such board to constitute the required minimum membership: Provided further, That no officer shall be recommended for advancement unless he shall have received the recommendation of not less than two-thirds of the members of the board. (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 2, 44 Stat. 717.)

New section. See note to § 348 of this title of the appendix.

348b. Selection boards; oath of office; recommendations and report; pay and allowances; examination.—Each member of the selection board herein provided for shall swear, or affirm, that he will, without prejudice or partiality and having in view solely the special fitness of officers and the efficiency of the naval service, perform the duties imposed upon him as herein provided.

Each said selection board shall be furnished by the Secretary of the Navy with the number of officers to be recommended for advancement by said board and with the names of all officers who are eligible for consideration for selection by said board as herein authorized, together with the record of each such officer. If a selection board does not recommend a number of officers for advancement to any rank equal to the number furnished to that board for that rank by the Secretary of the Navy as provided in this section, the difference between the number actually recommended by the board and the number furnished the board by the Secretary of the Navy may be added by the Secretary of the Navy to the number furnished by him to the next succeeding board as prescribed by this section. Any officer eligible for consideration for selection as herein authorized shall have the right to forward through official channels at any time not later than ten days after the convening of a selection board for his rank and corps a written communication inviting attention to any matter of record in the Navy Department concerning himself which he deems important in the consideration of his case: Provided, That such communication shall not contain any reflection upon the character, conduct, or motives of, or criticism of, any officer.

The report of each board shall be in writing, signed by all of the members, and shall certify that the board has carefully considered the case of every officer eligible for consideration by said board under the provisions of this Act,[2] and that in the opinion of not less than two-thirds of the members of the board the officers therein recommended are the best fitted of all those under consideration to assume the duties of the next higher rank. The report of the board shall be submitted to the President for approval or disapproval. In case any officer recommended by the board be not acceptable to the President, the board shall be informed of the name of such officer and may recommend another officer, provided that there be another officer eligible for consideration by said board, and if necessary the board shall be reconvened for this purpose.

When the report of the board shall have been approved by the President the officers recommended therein shall be deemed eligible for selection and shall in accordance with the provisions of this Act[2] be advanced to and commissioned in the rank for which recommended, and when so commissioned each such officer shall be given in his new commission the same date of rank which has been, or in due course will be, stated in the commission in such rank of his running mate assigned him in accordance with this Act[2]: Provided, That a staff officer who is recommended for advancement by the report of a selection board approved by the President shall be eligible for advancement to a higher rank in his corps under the provisions of this Act[2] if and when his running mate or an officer junior to such running mate has been promoted to that higher rank in the line of the Navy or when a vacancy in that rank exists in the line of the Navy which will in due course be filled by the promotion of his running mate or an officer junior to his running mate: Provided further, That a staff officer selected and advanced in accordance with the provisions of this Act[2] shall be entitled to the pay and allowances of the rank to which so advanced from the date stated in his commission, but should such date stated in his commission be prior to the date of this Act[2] he shall be entitled to the pay and allowances of the rank to which so advanced from the date of this Act[2]: Provided further, That any officer so selected for advancement shall prior to advancement be subject in all respects to the examinations prescribed by law for officers advanced by seniority, and in case of failure to pass the required professional examination such officer shall thereafter be ineligible for selection and advancement. Should any such officer fail to pass the required physical examination, he shall not be considered, in the event of retirement, entitled to the next higher rank. (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 3, 44 Stat. 717.)

New section. See note to § 348 of this title of the appendix.

348c. Precedence of officers; running mates.—Hereafter all staff officers in the Navy commissioned prior to March 4, 1913, when of the same rank as their running mates or of the rank for which their running mates have been selected, shall take precedence with all other line and staff officers of the same rank from the dates stated in the commissions or which in due course will be stated in the commissions of their running mates in said rank. Such staff officers of a higher rank than the rank held by their running mates until their running mates have been selected for such higher rank shall take precedence with all line and staff officers of the rank then held by them in accordance with the date stated in the commission of the junior line officer in such higher rank; staff officers of a lower rank than the rank held by their running mates shall take precedence with all line and staff officers of the same rank in accordance with the dates stated in the commissions that had been held by their running mates in such lower rank: Provided, That officers having the same rank and the same date of precedence in that rank shall take precedence in the following order: (a) Line officers, (b) medical officers, (c) officers of the supply corps, (d) chaplains, (e) naval constructors, (f) civil engineers, (g) dental officers: Provided further, That staff officers assigned running mates in accordance with this Act,[2] if thereafter assigned new running mates, shall have with respect to other staff officers who also have as their running mates the new running mates so assigned, the precedence held by them prior to the assignment of such new running mates. (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 4, 44 Stat. 719.)

New Section. See note to § 348 of this title of the appendix.

348d. "Passed over" defined.—For the purposes of this Act[2] the term "passed over," when applied to an officer, shall be construed to mean that such officer when eligible for consideration for selection for permanent advancement has failed to be so selected and an officer junior to him in the same rank and branch of the Navy has been selected and permanently advanced: Provided, That no staff officer shall be regarded as having been passed over by reason of the advancement to the rank of rear admiral, prior to July 1, 1918, of an officer junior to him in his corps nor by reason of the advancement in rank since that date and prior to the date of this Act[2] of any officer of his corps not now on the active list of the Navy. (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 5, 44 Stat. 719.)

New section. See note to § 348 of this title of the appendix.

348e. Assignment of running mates to staff officers.—Each staff officer commissioned in his corps prior to March 4, 1913, who has served continuously on the active list of said corps since that date, and who has not lost numbers for any cause since January 1, 1914, or who has not been passed over, shall be assigned as his running mate the junior line officer who appeared above him on the precedence list of the Navy as published in the Navy Register of January 1, 1914; each staff officer commissioned on or after March 4, 1913, now on the active list, who has not lost numbers for any cause or who has not been passed over, shall be assigned as his running mate that line officer with or next after whom he took precedence when commissioned originally in his corps, and with whom he has taken precedence for promotion purposes in accordance with the Act of August 29, 1916:[4] Provided, That if the running mate who would be assigned in accordance with the foregoing clauses of this section to any staff officer appointed in his corps prior to March 4, 1913, is junior to the running mate of any staff officer appointed in the same corps, on or after said date, the staff officer first mentioned shall then be assigned as his running mate the running mate of the senior staff officer of the same corps now on the active list who was appointed on or after March 4, 1913: Provided further, That if the line officer assigned as a running mate to a staff officer, in accordance with this section, has become separated from the active list, has been passed over, or has for any cause lost numbers, a running mate shall be assigned such staff officer who shall be the line officer on the active list who, on the date of this Act,[2] occupies the position on the active list of the Navy next senior to that which would have been occupied by the line officer first mentioned had he not become separated from the active list, been passed over, or lost numbers: Provided further, That each staff officer now on the active list who has been passed over or who has lost numbers for any cause since January 1, 1914, and each staff officer appointed on or after March 4, 1913, and who has lost numbers between that date and January 1, 1914, shall be assigned as his running mate the running mate of the next senior staff officer now on the active list of the same corps, but should such running mate be senior to the running mate who would otherwise under this section have been assigned the staff officer who has been passed over, or lost numbers, as aforesaid, such staff officer shall be assigned as his running mate the line officer who would have been his running mate under this section had he not been passed over or lost numbers: And provided further, That any officer of a staff corps of the Navy advanced to the rank of rear admiral prior to July 1, 1918, shall have as his running mate that line officer who shall be the running mate of the officer in his own corps next junior to such staff officer on the date of this Act[2] or thereafter until such time as the line officer who would otherwise be assigned as the running mate of such staff officer in accordance with this Act[2] becomes his running mate. (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 6, 44 Stat. 719.)

New section. See note to § 348 of this title of the appendix.

348f. Running mates for newly commissioned or transferred officers.—Hereafter each staff officer, when first commissioned in the Navy, shall have assigned as his running mate that line officer who at the time is the junior officer of the rank in which the staff officer is commissioned: Provided, That a line officer hereafter transferred to a staff corps shall retain the rank and date of commission in such rank held by him at the time of such transfer and shall have assigned as his running mate that line officer immediately above him in the Navy at the time of such transfer. (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 7, 44 Stat. 720.)

New section. See note to § 348 of this title of the appendix.

348g. Assignment of new running mate.—Should the running mate assigned a staff officer be separated from the active list, or for any cause lose numbers, a new running mate shall be assigned such staff officer who shall be the line officer next senior to such former running mate, or the line officer next junior if such former running mate was the senior officer in the rank concerned. (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 8, 44 Stat. 720.)

New section. See note to § 348 of this title of the appendix.

348h. New running mate on advancement of staff officer.—When a staff officer is advanced whose running mate has not been selected such staff officer shall have assigned as a new running mate the line officer who is selected and promoted next senior to his former running mate: Provided, That should his running mate be the senior officer in the rank from which said staff officer is advanced, such staff officer shall have assigned as his new running mate the senior line officer recommended for selection by the immediately preceding line selection board as approved by the President. (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 9, 44 Stat. 720.)

New section. See note to § 348 of this title of the appendix.

348i. New running mate on promotion of old.—If the running mate of a staff officer be promoted to a higher rank and such staff officer be considered by a selection board for such rank but fail to be selected for advancement thereto, by the report of such board as approved by the President, such staff officer shall have assigned as his new running mate the line officer not promoted who was next senior to his former running mate in the rank in which the staff officer remains; if there remain in that rank no line officer who was senior therein to such former running mate, such staff officer shall not have assigned a new running mate but shall retain his former running mate who has been promoted: Provided, That if subsequently selected such staff officer when advanced shall have assigned as a new running mate the senior line officer in the rank to which advanced who was promoted to that rank upon recommendation of the line selection board immediately succeeding the last staff selection board which considered such staff officer but did not recommend him for advancement in its report as approved by the President: Provided further, That the foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply to officers of the staff corps of the rank of captain who, when eligible for promotion to the rank of rear admiral, are not passed over; such officers shall retain their running mates, and if subsequently promoted to the rank of rear admiral shall continue to retain the running mates they had while in the rank of captain. (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 10, 44 Stat. 720.)

New section. See note to § 348 of this title of the appendix.

348j. New running mate for officer losing numbers.—If a staff officer shall lose numbers for any cause he shall have assigned as his new running mate the line officer who is the running mate of the junior of those officers in his corps who becomes or will become senior to him as the result of such loss of numbers. (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 11, 44 Stat. 721.)

New section. See note to § 348 of this title of the appendix.

348k. New running mate where old is advanced for heroism or distinguished conduct.—If the running mate of a staff officer shall be advanced in accordance with section 1506 or section 1508 of the Revised Statutes,[5] such staff officer shall have assigned as his new running mate the line officer not advanced who was next senior to his former running mate in the rank in which the staff officer remains, or if there remain in that rank no line officer who was senior to such former running mate in the rank concerned, such staff officer shall then have assigned as his new running mate the senior line officer in the rank in which such staff officer remains. (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 12, 44 Stat. 721.)

New section. See note to § 348 of this title of the appendix.

348l. New running mate for officer advanced for heroism or distinguished conduct.—If a staff officer shall be advanced in accordance with section 1506 of the Revised Statutes,[6] he shall have assigned as his new running mate the line officer who is the running mate of the officer in his corps immediately senior to such staff officer in the position to which he is so advanced.

New section. See note to § 348 of this title of the appendix.

348m. Eligibility of staff officer for consideration by selection board.—Hereafter a staff officer shall become eligible for consideration by a selection board for recommendation for advancement to the next higher rank when the President approves the report of a line selection board in which the running mate of such staff officer or a line officer junior to such running mate is recommended for promotion to the next higher rank above that held by such staff officer: Provided, That on the date of this Act[7] a staff officer shall immediately become eligible for consideration by a selection board for recommendation for advancement to the next higher rank if his running mate or a line officer junior to such running mate has heretofore been permanently promoted to a rank above that now held by such staff officer or if his running mate or a line officer junior to such running mate has been recommended for such permanent promotion by the report of a selection board which has heretofore been approved by the President. (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 14, 44 Stat. 721.)

New section. See note to § 348 of this title of the appendix.

348n. Advancement of staff officers to rank of rear admiral, captain, and commander.—As soon as practicable after the date of this Act,[7] boards for the selection of staff officers for advancement to the ranks of rear admiral, captain, and commander shall be appointed by the Secretary of the Navy in accordance with section 2 of this Act.[7]

Each such board appointed to recommend staff officers for advancement to the rank of rear admiral shall recommend for advancement to such rank in the corps for which it was appointed, from such staff officers of the next lower rank in said corps who are eligible for consideration by such board in accordance with this Act,[7] such officers, not to exceed the number furnished it by the Secretary of the Navy, as according to its judgment, its oath, and the terms of the certificate herein required should be advanced to the next higher rank. The number so computed and furnished such board by the Secretary of the Navy shall be that number of officers which if advanced to the rank of rear admiral in the corps concerned will make the total number of staff officers on the active list of said corps in the rank of rear admiral, exclusive of additional numbers in said rank, 61 per centum of the total number of officers on the active list of said corps of the ranks of rear admiral and captain, exclusive of additional numbers in said ranks, whose running mates or line officers junior to such running mates have been promoted to the rank of rear admiral or have been recommended for such promotion by the report of a selection board which has heretofore been approved by the President: Provided, That the number to be furnished such board by the Secretary of the Navy shall not exceed that number of officers which if advanced to the rank of rear admiral in the corps concerned would make the total number of officers on the active list in that rank and corps more than the maximum number prescribed for said rank and corps by section 1 of this Act.[8]

Each such board appointed to recommend staff officers for advancement to the rank of captain shall recommend for advancement to such rank in the corps for which it was appointed, from such staff officers of the next lower rank in said corps who are eligible for consideration in accordance with section 14 of this Act,[9] such officers not to exceed the number furnished it by the Secretary of the Navy, as according to its judgment, its oath, and the terms of the certificate herein required, should be advanced to the next higher rank. The number so computed and furnished such board by the Secretary of the Navy shall be that number of officers which, if advanced to the rank of captain in the corps concerned, will make the total number of staff officers on the active list in the rank of captain of said corps, exclusive of additional numbers in said rank, 91 per centum of the total number of officers on the active list of said corps of the ranks of captain and commander whose running mates or line officers junior to such running mates are captains, excluding additional numbers in said ranks and excluding such officers of the rank of captain, in each corps whose running mates or juniors thereto have been recommended for promotion to the rank of rear admiral by the report of a selection board which has heretofore been approved by the President.

Each such board appointed to recommend staff officers for advancement to the rank of commander shall recommend for advancement to such rank in the corps for which it was appointed, from such staff officers of the next lower rank in said corps who are eligible for consideration in accordance with section 14 of this Act,[9] such officers not to exceed the number furnished it by the Secretary of the Navy, as according to its judgment, its oath, and the terms of the certificate herein required, should be advanced to the next higher rank. The number so computed and furnished such board by the Secretary of the Navy shall be that number of officers which, if advanced to the rank of commander in the corps concerned, will make the total number of staff officers on the active list in the rank of commander of said corps, exclusive of additional numbers in said rank, 91 per centum of the total number of officers on the active list of said corps of the ranks of commander and lieutenant commander whose running mates or line officers junior to such running mates are commanders, excluding additional numbers in said ranks and excluding such officers of the rank of commander in each corps whose running mates or juniors thereto have been recommended for promotion to the rank of captain by the report of a selection board which has heretofore been approved by the President. (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 15, 44 Stat. 721.)

New section. See note to § 348 of this title of the appendix.

348. Succeeding selection boards; duties and procedure.—After the President has approved the report of the selection boards, provided for in section 15 of this Act,[10] succeeding boards to recommend staff officers for advancement to the ranks of rear admiral, captain and commander, respectively, shall be appointed by the Secretary of the Navy in accordance with section 2 of this Act[7] as soon as practicable after the President has approved the report of each line selection board hereafter submitted to him.

Each such board appointed to recommend staff officers for advancement to the rank of rear admiral, and each such board appointed to recommend staff officers for advancement to the ranks of captain and commander, shall recommend for advancement in the corps for which it is appointed, from such staff officers in the next lower rank in said corps who are eligible for consideration by said board in accordance with this Act,[2] such officers as according to its judgment, its oath, and the terms of the certificate herein required, should be advanced to the next higher rank not to exceed the number furnished it by the Secretary of the Navy. The number so furnished each board shall be computed in the following manner: The number for each rank in each corps shall be determined as of the date of the approval by the President of the last preceding line selection board and shall be a fraction of the number of officers in the next lower rank in said corps eligible for consideration by a selection board as provided in this Act,[2] exclusive of additional numbers and inclusive of those officers who would otherwise have been eligible for consideration by the board concerned but who have been retired from said rank upon their own application after thirty years' service if such application was submitted within one year prior to the date that they would have become eligible for consideration by a selection board: Provided, That the number to be furnished such board by the Secretary of the Navy shall not exceed that number of officers which, if advanced to the rank of rear admiral in the corps concerned, would make the total number of officers on the active list in that rank and corps more than the maximum number prescribed for said rank and corps by section 1 of this Act.[8]

In determining the number of staff officers to which such fraction shall be applied, no staff officer shall be counted who was included in any preceding computation for the same rank or who was eligible for consideration for the same rank on the date of this Act.[2] The numerator of the fraction for each rank shall be a number equal to the total number of line officers recommended for promotion to that rank by the report of the preceding four line-selection boards as approved by the President. The denominator of the fraction for each rank shall be a number equal to the total number of line officers whose names have appeared upon the active list of the next lower rank, from and excluding the junior line officer in that rank recommended for promotion by the report of the fifth preceding line-selection board approved by the President, to and including the junior line officer in that rank recommended for promotion by the report of the last preceding line-selection board as approved by the President, exclusive of those officers who have become separated from the active list for reasons other than retirement because of ineligibility for promotion or upon their own application after thirty years' service if such application was submitted within one year prior to the date that they would have become ineligible for promotion by reason of age or length of service. (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 16, 44 Stat. 723.)

New section. See note to § 348 of this title of the appendix.

348p. Computing number to be furnished selection board.—In computing the number to be furnished each selection board by the Secretary of the Navy as provided in the preceding section, if the result of such computation for any rank in any corps shall be a mixed number, the fraction, if less than one-half, shall be eliminated and the whole number shall be furnished the board, but such fraction shall be carried forward and added to the number obtained as the result of the computation for the next succeeding selection board appointed for the same rank and corps in order to determine the number to be furnished by the Secretary of the Navy to such succeeding selection board.

In computing the number to be furnished each selection board by the Secretary of the Navy as provided in the preceding section, if the result of such computation for any rank in any corps shall be a mixed number in which the fraction shall be one-half or greater, the whole number next above shall be furnished the board, but the difference between such fraction and one shall be subtracted from the number obtained as the result of the computation for the next succeeding selection board appointed for the same rank and corps in order to determine the number to be furnished by the Secretary of the Navy to such succeeding selection board. (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 17, 44 Stat. 724.)

New section. See note to § 348 of this title of the appendix.

[10] "Section 15 of this Act" should be translated "section 348n of this title of the appendix."

348q. Pay and allowances of staff officer of rank of rear admiral.—All staff officers of the rank of rear admiral now on the active list who are not now receiving the pay and allowances of the upper half of such rank, and all staff officers who may hereafter be advanced to the rank of rear admiral on the active list, shall receive the pay and allowances prescribed by law for rear admirals of the upper half from the date on which their respective running mates became entitled or shall hereafter become entitled to such pay and allowances: Provided, That no staff officer shall become by virtue of this Act[2] entitled to any increased pay or allowances prior to the date of this Act.[2] (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 18, 44 Stat. 724.)

New section. See note to § 348 of this title of the appendix.

348r. Chaplains; commissions and advancement.—The provisions of existing law which require acting chaplains to serve for a period of three years on board ship in order to become eligible for commissions as chaplains, and which restrict the number of acting chaplains who may be commissioned as chaplains each year,[11] are hereby repealed, and hereafter all acting chaplains shall be commissioned as chaplains when advanced in accordance with the provisions contained in this Act to the rank of lieutenant.

That all other officers now on the active list in the Corps of Chaplains and all officers who may hereafter be appointed thereto shall be advanced in rank, up to and including the rank of lieutenant commander, with the officer of the line with whom or next after whom they take precedence, provided they are found qualified in accordance with law for such advancement. (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 19, 44 Stat. 724.)

348s. Retirement for age or length of service; previous act restricted.—Hereafter section 1481, Revised Statutes[12] of the United States, as amended, shall apply only to officers of the Corps of Professors of Mathematics. (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 20, 44 Stat. 724.)

New section. See note to § 348 of this title of the appendix.

348t. Effect on existing law.—Nothing contained in this Act[2] shall operate to change the provisions of existing law as to the authorized number, eligibility of officers, date of commission, or pay for permanent rank of rear admiral in those staff corps where but one officer of such permanent rank is authorized. (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 21, 44 Stat. 724.)

New section. See note to § 348 of this title of the appendix.

348u. Effect on existing pay and allowances of officers.—Nothing contained in this Act[2] shall operate to reduce the pay and allowances of any officer below the pay and allowances to which he is entitled by reason of his rank and length of service on the date of the approval of this Act.[2] (June 10, 1926, c. 529, § 22, 44 Stat. 724.)

New section. See note to § 348 of this title of the appendix.

[12] "Section 1481, Revised Statutes," should be translated "section 395 of this title of the Code."

GRATUITIES, MEDALS, ETC.

356a. Distinguished flying cross.—Under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, and notwithstanding the provisions of section 14 of this Act,[13] the President is hereby authorized to present, but not in the name of Congress, a distinguished flying cross of appropriate design, with accompanying ribbon, to any person who, while serving in any capacity with the Air Corps of the Army of the United States, including the National Guard and the Organized Reserves, or with the United States Navy, since the 6th day of April, 1917, has distinguished or who, after the approval of this Act, distinguishes himself by heroism or extraordinary achievement while participating in an aerial flight: Provided, That no person shall be eligible for the award of the distinguished flying cross for any act performed prior to November 11, 1918, except officers or enlisted men who have heretofore been recommended for but have not received the congressional medal of honor, the distinguished service cross, or the distinguished service medal and except those officers or enlisted men who displayed heroism while serving as instructors or students at flying schools. No more than one distinguished flying cross shall be issued to any one person, but for each succeeding act or achievement sufficient to justify the award of a distinguished flying cross the President may award a suitable bar or other suitable device to be worn as he shall direct. In case an individual who distinguishes himself shall have died before the making of the award to which he may be entitled, the award may nevertheless be made and the cross or the bar or other device presented to such representative of the deceased as the President may designate, but no cross, bar, or other device hereinbefore authorized shall be awarded or presented to any individual whose entire service subsequent to the time he distinguishes himself has not been honorable. (July 2, 1926, c. 721, § 12, 44 Stat. 789.)

New section.

357. Additional pay to persons awarded medals or crosses.

See § 357a of this title in the appendix.

357a. Additional pay to person awarded distinguished flying cross.—Each enlisted or enrolled man to whom there shall be awarded the distinguished flying cross or the soldier's medal shall be entitled to additional pay at the rate of $2 per month from the date of the act of heroism or extraordinary achievement on which the award is based, and each bar or other suitable device, in lieu of the distinguished flying cross or the soldier's medal, as hereinbefore provided for, shall entitle him to further additional pay at the rate of $2 per month from the date of the act of heroism or extraordinary achievement for which the bar or other device is awarded, and said additional pay shall continue throughout his active service, whether such service shall or shall not be continuous. (July 2, 1926, c. 721, § 13, 44 Stat. 789.)

New section.

358. Bars or other insignia for additional acts of valor.

See § 356a of this title in the appendix.

436. Retirement authorized.
437. Pay of retired nurse.
438. Service considered in computation.
439. Title; uniform; use in emergency.

GENERAL PROVISIONS AS TO RETIREMENT OF OFFICERS

395. Officers of Medical and Supply Corps, chaplains, professors of mathematics, and constructors.

Section 395 of Title 34 restricted.—For legislation restricting this section to professors of mathematics, see § 348s of this title in the appendix.

RETIREMENT OF NURSES. [New.]

436. Retirement authorized.—When a member of the Army Nurse Corps or the Navy Nurse Corps shall have served thirty years, or shall have reached the age of fifty years, having served twenty years, she may, in the discretion of the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, respectively, be retired from active service and placed on a list, hereby created in each of the aforementioned services and designated the "Nurse Corps Retired List," in the grade to which she belonged at the time of her retirement. (May 13, 1926, c. 289, § 1, 44 Stat. 531.)

New section. Act of May 13, 1926, c. 289, § 1, 44 Stat. 531, cited to the text, was entitled "An Act to provide retirement for the Nurse Corps of the Army and Navy."

437. Pay of retired nurse.—The annual pay of a retired member of the Army Nurse Corps or the Navy Nurse Corps shall be 3 per centum of the annual active base pay which she is receiving at the time of retirement multiplied by the number of complete years of service rendered prior to retirement, but not exceeding 75 per centum of such annual active base pay; and, in addition, supplemental annual retired pay for each complete year of active service rendered prior to retirement in each of the grades hereafter named, as follows: Chief nurse, $18; assistant superintendent, $45; director, $45; assistant director, $45; superintendent, $75: Provided, That in computing the period of service in any grade for such supplemental retired pay any period less than a year served in any higher grade may be included. (May 13, 1926, c. 289, § 2, 44 Stat. 532.)

New section. See note to § 436 of this title of the appendix.

438. Service considered in computation.—For the purpose of computing eligibility for retirement and retired pay, there shall be credited active service in the Army Nurse Corps and in the Navy Nurse Corps, active service as contract nurse prior to February 2, 1901, and service as a reserve nurse on active duty since February 2, 1901. (May 13, 1926, c. 289, § 3, 44 Stat. 532.)

New section. See note to § 436 of this title of the appendix.

439. Title; uniform; use in emergency.—Retired nurses shall be authorized to bear the title and may, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, wear the uniform of the grade held at the time of retirement, and, in time of war or national emergency, may be employed on active duty, in the discretion of the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, and when so employed shall receive the full active pay and allowances of their respective grades. (May 13, 1926, c. 289, § 4, 44 Stat. 532.)

New section. See note to § 436 of this title of the appendix.

641. Pay clerks.

Section 641 of Title 34 affected.—See § 642 of this title in the appendix for legislation affecting this section.

642. Pay clerk; chief marine gunner; chief quartermaster clerk; chief pay clerk.—The warrant grade of pay clerk in the United States Marine Corps is hereby established, appointments thereto to be made in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy. Officers in said grade shall have the same rank, pay, allowances, and other benefits as now are or may hereafter be allowed other warrant officers in the Marine Corps. All pay clerks hereafter appointed shall be warrant officers. Pay clerks now in the Marine Corps shall be warranted as pay clerks under the provisions of this Act and shall take rank in accordance with their present dates of precedence.

The commissioned warrant grades of chief marine gunner, chief quartermaster clerk, and chief pay clerk in the Marine Corps are hereby established, and that marine gunners, quartermaster clerks, and pay clerks shall after six years from the date of warrant be commissioned chief marine gunners, chief quartermaster clerks, and chief pay clerks, respectively, after passing satisfactorily such examinations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe, and when so commissioned they shall have the same rank, pay, allowances, and other benefits as now are or may hereafter be allowed commissioned warrant officers of the Navy: Provided, That for the purpose of computing the six-year period of service required for promotion from warrant to chief warrant rank, all service as pay clerk, warrant officer, and commissioned officer in the Marine Corps and all active service for purposes other than training rendered during the period from April 6, 1917, to December 31, 1921, under a temporary appointment as a pay clerk, warrant or commissioned officer in the United States Marine Corps, or as a pay clerk, warrant or commissioned officer in the United States Marine Corps Reserve, shall be counted: Provided, further, That nothing contained herein shall be construed so as to reduce the pay, allowances, emoluments, or other benefits that any person now in the service would have received but for the passage of this Act:[14] And provided further, That the total number of warrant officers and commissioned warrant officers shall not exceed the total number of warrant officers and pay clerks now authorized by law. (June 10, 1926, c. 530, 44 Stat. 725.)

749a. Construction of rigid airships, building of airships at navy yard.
750. Encouragement of aviation.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

735. Personnel; definitions.—PAR. 1. "Naval aviator" defined.—That hereafter when the term "naval aviator" is used in this Act[16] or any other Act it shall mean any commissioned officer or warrant line officer in the Navy or Marine Corps who has successfully completed the course prescribed by competent authority for naval aviators and who has been or may hereafter be designated or appointed a naval aviator by competent authority and who has flown alone in a heavier-than-air craft not less than seventy-five hours and who has flown in heavier-than-air craft a total of not less than two hundred hours or who has been in the air under training, in rigid airships not less than one hundred and fifty hours and successfully completed the course prescribed by competent authority.

PAR. 2. "Aviation pilot" defined.—That hereafter when the term "aviation pilot" is used in this Act[16] or any other Act it shall mean any enlisted man in the Navy or Marine Corps who has successfully completed the course prescribed for aviation pilots and who has been or may hereafter be designated or appointed an aviation pilot by competent authority and who has flown alone in a heavier-than-air craft not less than seventy-five hours and who has flown in heavier-than-air craft a total of not less than two hundred hours.

The term "pilot" shall be construed to mean a naval aviator or an aviation pilot.

PAR. 3. "Naval aviation observer" defined.—That hereafter when the term "naval aviation observer" is used in this Act[16] or any other Act it shall mean any commissioned or warrant officer in the Navy or Marine Corps who has successfully completed the course prescribed by competent authority as a naval aviation observer and who has been in the air not less than one hundred hours and who has been or may hereafter be designated or appointed as a naval aviation observer by competent authority in the Navy.

PAR. 4. Line officers of Navy detailed to aviation schools, stations and units—qualifications.—That hereafter when a line officer of the Navy is to be detailed to the command of a Navy aviation school or of a Navy air station or of a Navy air unit organized for flight tactical purposes he shall be a naval aviator.

PAR. 5. Line officers of Navy detailed to aircraft carriers and tenders—qualifications.—Line officers detailed to command of aircraft carriers or aircraft tenders shall be naval aviators or naval aviation observers who are otherwise qualified.

PAR. 6. Promotion of officers specializing in aviation.—That any officer of the Navy, line, or staff of the permanent rank or grade of commander or lieutenant commander, at the time of the passage of this Act who has specialized in aviation for such a period of time as to jeopardize his selection for promotion or advancement to the next higher grade or rank under existing provisions of law and whose service in aviation has been in the public interest shall be so notified by the Secretary of the Navy and at his own request be designated as an officer who will be carried as an additional number in the next higher grade or rank not above the grade of captain if and when promoted or advanced thereto: Provided, That selection boards in cases of such officers shall confine their consideration to the fitness alone of such officers for promotion, not to the comparative fitness of such officers.

PAR. 7. Line officers of Marine Corps detailed to aviation service—qualifications.—That hereafter when a line officer of the Marine Corps is to be detailed to the command of a Marine Corps aviation school or of a Marine Corps air station or of a Marine Corps air unit organized for flight tactical purposes he shall be a Marine Corps aviator.

PAR. 8. Number of enlisted pilots.—On and after July 1, 1928, the number of enlisted pilots in the Navy shall not be less than 30 per centum of the total number of pilots employed in the Navy on aviation duty. (June 24, 1926, c. 668, § 3, 44 Stat. 766.)

New section.

CONSTRUCTION OF AIRCRAFT AND ENCOURAGEMENT OF AVIATION. [New]

749. Construction program.—For the purpose of further developing and further increasing aeronautics in the Navy, the President of the United States is hereby authorized to undertake the construction and procurement of aircraft, spare parts, and equipment for the Navy as enumerated below:

PARAGRAPH 1. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1927, not to exceed two hundred and thirty-five airplanes with spare parts and equipment, to cost not to exceed $12,285,000: Provided, That the number of airplanes and the limit of cost herein specified for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1927, shall be in addition to the seventy-eight airplanes with spare parts and equipment for which the sum of $3,300,000 is included under the appropriation increase of the Navy in the Navy Department and Naval Establishment Appropriation Act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1927.

PAR. 2. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1928, not to exceed three hundred and thirteen airplanes with spare parts and equipment, to cost not to exceed $16,223,750.

PAR. 3. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1929, not to exceed three hundred and thirty-five airplanes with spare parts and equipment, to cost not to exceed $17,582,500.

PAR. 4. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1930, not to exceed three hundred and fifty-seven airplanes with spare parts and equipment, to cost not to exceed $18,941,250.

PAR. 5. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1931, not to exceed three hundred and seventy-four airplanes with spare parts and equipment, to cost not to exceed $20,046,250; in all, during the five-year period beginning July 1, 1926, and ending June 30, 1931, one thousand six hundred and fourteen airplanes, with spare parts and equipment, to cost not to exceed $85,078,750.

PAR. 6. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1932, and during each fiscal year thereafter, not to exceed three hundred and thirty-three airplanes with spare parts and equipment, to cost not to exceed $17,476,250.

PAR. 7. The number of airplanes, spare parts, and equipment thus authorized to be constructed or procured during the five fiscal years beginning July 1, 1926, and ending June 30, 1931, and the number authorized to be constructed or procured during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1932, and during each fiscal year thereafter is the number which it has been estimated will be required to increase, during a five-year period beginning July 1, 1926, the useful airplanes on hand or otherwise provided for on June 30, 1926, to one thousand and to maintain the number of useful airplanes at not less than this number which is hereby established as the authorized number of useful airplanes to be employed in the Navy: Provided, That, in the event satisfactory arrangements for the procurement of the authorized number of airplanes are not made in any fiscal year, such deficiency may be made up in the next ensuing year or years: Provided further, That "useful airplanes," as used in this Act,[14] shall be those airplanes on the Navy list which are, or which after reasonable repairs can be made, in all respects safe to fly and fitted to take part in active military operations in time of war, and shall be exclusive of those airplanes classified as experimental or, with the approval of the Secretary of the Navy, declared obsolete: Provided further, That nothing herein shall be construed as more than an authorization for the procurement of aircraft within the limits enumerated in this Act,[14a] nor in any way to abridge the right of Congress to determine what numbers of aircraft may be appropriated for in any fiscal year within the limits so authorized. (June 24, 1926, c. 668, § 1, 44 Stat. 764.)

New section. The Act of June 24, 1926, was in four sections. Section 2 is § 749a of this title in the appendix, § 3 is § 735 of this title in the appendix, and § 4, authorizing another Assistant Secretary of the Navy appears in c. 7 of Title 5, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS, OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES, in the appendix.

749a. Construction of rigid airships; building of airships at navy yard.—PARAGRAPH 1. Two rigid airships of a type suitable for use as adjuncts to the fleet and of approximately six million cubic feet volume each at a total cost not to exceed $8,000,000 for both ships, construction of one to be undertaken as soon as practicable and prior to July 1, 1928: Provided, That the two airships herein authorized shall be constructed in the United States: Provided further, That one or both of said airships shall be constructed either under contract similar to contracts covering the construction of other vessels for the Navy, or by the Navy Department, as the Secretary of the Navy may deem to be in the best interests of the Government.

PAR. 2. One experimental metalclad airship of approximately two hundred thousand cubic feet volume, at a cost not to exceed $300,000, chargeable to the appropriation provided in the Navy Department and Naval Establishment Appropriation Act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1927, for continuing experiments and development work on all types of aircraft: Provided, That the metalclad airship herein authorized shall be procured under contract, only on such terms and subject to such restrictions as the Secretary of the Navy may deem proper: Provided further, That to expedite construction of the experimental metalclad airship, $300,000 of the sum of $1,928,000 included in the Navy Department and Naval Establishment Appropriation Act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1927, for continuing experiments and development work on all types of aircraft may be made immediately available.

PAR. 3. The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to build at any navy yard or naval factory any of the aircraft, spare parts, or equipment herein authorized should it reasonably appear that the persons, firms, or corporations, or the agents thereof, bidding for the construction of any of said aircraft, spare parts, or equipment have entered into any combination, agreement, or understanding the effect, object, or purpose of which is to deprive the Government of fair, open, and unrestricted competition in letting contracts for the construction of any of said aircraft, spare parts, or equipment, or should it reasonably appear that any persons, firm, or corporation, or the agents thereof, being solely or peculiarly in position to manufacture or furnish the particular type or design of aircraft, spare parts, or equipment required by the Navy, in bidding on such aircraft, spare parts, or equipment, have named a price in excess of cost of production plus a reasonable profit.

To provide for the construction of the heavier-than-air craft and the lighter-than-air craft herein enumerated and described, except that experimental metalclad airship, there is hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, such sums as may be necessary, including, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1927, toward the construction of the heavier-than-air craft program, the sum of not to exceed $12,285,000 and toward the construction of the two rigid airships, to be available until expended, $1,100,000, of which sum $100,000 may be made immediately available. (June 24, 1926, c. 668, § 2, 44 Stat. 765.)

New section.

750. Encouragement of aviation.—(a) Aeronautic matériel; advertisement for bids for designs for aircrafts and accessories.—That in order to encourage the development of aviation and improve the efficiency of the Army and Navy aeronautical matériel the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, prior to the procurement of new designs of aircraft or aircraft parts or aeronautical accessories, shall, by advertisement for a period of thirty days in at least three of the leading aeronautical journals and in such other manner as he may deem advisable, invite the submission in competition, by sealed communications, of such designs of aircraft, aircraft parts, and aeronautical accessories, together with a statement of the price for which such designs in whole or in part will be sold to the Government.

(b) Contents of advertisement; submission of bids to board; report of winner.—The aforesaid advertisement shall specify a sufficient time, not less than sixty days from the expiration of the advertising period, within which all such communications containing designs and prices therefor must be submitted, and all such communications received shall be carefully kept sealed in the War Department or the Navy Department, as the case may be, until the expiration of said specified time, and no designs mailed after that time shall be received or considered. Said advertisement shall state in general terms the kind of aircraft, parts, or accessories to be developed and the approximate number or quantity required, and the department concerned shall furnish to each applicant identical specific detailed information as to the conditions and requirements of the competition and as to the various features and characteristics to be developed, listing specifically the respective measures of merit, expressed in rates per centum, that shall be applied in determining the merits of the designs, and said measures of merit shall be adhered to throughout such competition. All designs received up to the time specified for submitting them shall then be referred to a board appointed for that purpose by the Secretary of the department concerned and shall be appraised by it as soon as practicable and report made to the Secretary as to the winner or winners of such competition. When said Secretary shall have approved the report of said board, he shall then fix a time and place for a public announcement of the results and notify each competitor thereof; but if said report shall be disapproved by said Secretary, the papers shall be returned to the board for revision or the competition be decided by the Secretary, in his discretion, and in any case the decision of the Secretary shall be final and conclusive. Such announcement shall include the percentages awarded to each of the several features or characteristics of the designs submitted by each competitor and the prices named by the competitors for their designs and the several features thereof if separable.

(c) Contract with winners. Thereupon the said Secretary is authorized to contract with the winner or winners in such competition on such terms and conditions as he may deem most advantageous to the Government for furnishing or constructing all of each of the items, or all of any one or more of the several items of the aircraft, or parts, or accessories indicated in the advertisement, as the said Secretary shall find that in his judgment a winner is, or can within a reasonable time become, able and equipped to furnish or construct satisfactorily all or part, provided said Secretary and the winner shall be able to agree on a reasonable price. If the Secretary shall decide that a winner cannot reasonably carry out and perform a contract for all or part of such aircraft, parts, or accessories, as above provided, then he is authorized to purchase the winning designs or any separable parts thereof if a fair and reasonable price can be agreed on with the winner, but not in excess of the price submitted with the designs.

(d) Construction according to winning designs; application for patent by winner.—After contract is made, as authorized by any provision of this section, with a winner in such design competition for furnishing or constructing aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories in accordance with his designs and payment is completed under said contract, and after the purchase of and payment for the designs or separable parts thereof of a winner, as authorized herein, with whom a contract shall not have been made for furnishing or constructing aircraft, aircraft parts or aeronautical accessories in accordance with his designs, then in either case any department of the Government shall have the right without further compensation to the winner to construct or have constructed according to said designs and use any number of aircraft or parts or accessories, and sell said aircraft or parts or accessories according to law as condemned material: Provided, That such winner shall, nevertheless, be at liberty to apply for a patent on any features originated by him, and shall be entitled to enjoy the exclusive rights under such patent as he may obtain as against all other persons except the United States Government or its assignee as aforesaid.

(e) Submission by competitors of graduated scale of prices.—The competitors in design competition mentioned in this section shall submit with their designs a graduated scale of prices for which they are willing to construct any or all or each of the aircraft, aircraft parts, and aeronautical accessories for which designs are submitted and such stated prices shall not be exceeded in the awarding of contracts contemplated by this section.

(f) Rejection of designs; division of contracts among competitors.—If the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy shall find that in his judgment none of the designs submitted in said competition is of sufficient merit to justify the procurement of aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories in accordance therewith, then he shall not be obligated to accept any of such designs or to make any payment on account of any of them. If the Secretary of the department concerned shall decide that the designs submitted by two or more competitors possess equal merit, or that certain features embodied in the designs of any competitor are superior to corresponding features embodied in the designs of any other competitor and such features of one design may be substituted in another design, the said Secretary shall in his discretion divide the contracts for furnishing and manufacturing the aircraft, parts, or accessories required, equitably among those competitors that have submitted designs of equal merit, or he may select and combine features of superior excellence in different designs in such manner as may in his judgment best serve the Government's interests and make payment accordingly to the several competitors concerned at fair and reasonable prices, awarding the contract for furnishing or constructing the aircraft, parts, or accessories to the competitor or competitors concerned that have the highest figures of merit in said competition.

(g) Inability to contract with winner; contract with lowest responsible bidder.—In case the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy shall be unable to make contract as above authorized with a winner in said competition for furnishing or constructing aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories covered by the whole or part of the designs of such winner, or shall be unable to agree with a winner in the competition on a reasonable purchase price for the design of such winner with whom a contract may not be made, as aforesaid, he may retain such designs and shall advertise according to law for proposals for furnishing or constructing aircraft, or parts or accessories, in accordance with such designs or combinations thereof as aforesaid and, after all proposals are submitted, make contract on such terms and conditions as he may consider the best in the Government's interests, with the bidder that he shall find to be the lowest responsible bidder for furnishing or constructing the aircraft, parts, or accessories required, but the said Secretary shall have the right to reject all bids and to advertise for other bids with such other and different specifications as he may deem proper.

(h) Claim of error in determining merits of designs; reference to board of arbitration; composition of board.—If, within ten days after the announcement of the results of said competition, any participant in the competition shall make to the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy a reasonable showing in writing that error was made in determining the merits of designs submitted whereby such claimant was unjustly deprived of an award, the matter shall at once be referred by the Secretary of the department concerned to a board of arbitration for determination and the finding of such board shall, with the approval of the said Secretary, be conclusive on both parties. Such board of arbitration shall be composed of three skilled aeronautical engineers, one selected by the said Secretary, one by the claimant, and the third by those two, no one of whom shall have been a member of the board of appraisal in that competition.

(i) Suit by design owner for recovery of compensation for use.—Any person, firm, or corporation that shall complain that his, their, or its designs hereafter developed relating to aircraft or any components thereof are used or manufactured by or for any department of the Government without just compensation from either the Government or any other source, may within four years from the date of such use file suit in the Court of Claims for the recovery of his reasonable and entire compensation for such use and manufacture after the date of this Act.

(j) Who eligible to be awarded contract.—Only citizens of the United States, and corporations of which not less than three-fourths of the capital stock is owned by citizens of the United States, and of which the members of the boards of directors are citizens of the United States, and having manufacturing plants located within the continental limits of the United States shall be elegible to be awarded any contract under this section to furnish or construct aircraft, aircraft parts or aeronautical accessories for the United States Government, except that a domestic corporation whose stock shall be listed on a stock exchange shall not be barred by the provisions of this section unless and until foreign ownership or control of a majority of its stock shall be known to the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, as the case may be, and no aliens employed by a contractor for furnishing or constructing aircraft, or aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories for the United States shall be permitted to have access to the plans or specifications or the work under construction or to participate in the contract trials without the written consent beforehand of the Secretary of the department concerned.

(k) Purchase without competition of designs, aircrafts, etc., for experimental purposes.—The Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy may at his discretion purchase abroad or in the United States with or without competition, by contract, or otherwise, such designs, aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories as may be necessary in his judgment for experimental purposes in the development of aircraft or aircraft parts or aeronautical accessories of the best kind for the Army or the Navy, as the case may be, and if as a result of such procurement, new and suitable designs considered to be the best kind for the Army or the Navy are developed, he may enter into contract, subject to the requirements of paragraph (j) of this section, for the procurement in quantity of such aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories without regard to the provisions of paragraphs (a) to (e), inclusive, hereof.

(l) Plant and books of contractor subject to inspection and audit.—The manufacturing plant, and books, of any contractor for furnishing or constructing aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories, for the War Department or the Navy Department, or such part of any manufacturing plant as may be so engaged, shall at all times be subject to inspection and audit by any person designated by the head of any executive department of the Government.

(m) Preservation of audits and inspections of plants and books of contractor; annual report to Congress.—All audits and reports of inspection, made under the provisions of this section, shall be preserved by the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, as the case may be, for a period of ten years, and shall be subject to inspection by any committee of Congress, and the said Secretaries shall annually make a detailed and itemized report to Congress of all the departments' operations under this section, the names and addresses of all competitors, and of all persons having been awarded contracts and the prices paid for aircraft purchased and the grounds and reasons for having awarded such contracts to the particular persons, firms, or corporations, and all such reports shall be printed and held subject to public distribution.

(n) Release by vendors and contractors.—Every vendor of designs to the War Department or the Navy Department under the provisions of this section, and every contractor for furnishing or constructing for the War Department or the Navy Department, or both, aircraft or aircraft parts or aeronautical accessories, shall deliver to the Secretary of War or Secretary of the Navy, or both, when required by either or both, a release in such form and containing such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, or both, of claims on the part of such vendor or contractor against the United States arising out of such sale or contract, or both.

(o) Appropriations; available for purchasing designs and costs of arbitration.—All or any appropriations available for the procurement of aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories, for the War Department or the Navy Department shall also be available for payment of the purchase price of designs and the costs of arbitration as authorized by this section.

(p) Collusion, etc., to prevent free competition, or audit of contractors' books; penalty.—Any collusion, understanding, or arrangement to deprive the United States Government of the benefit of full and free competition in any competition authorized by this section, or to deprive the United States Government of the benefit of a full and free audit of the books of any person, firm, or corporation engaged in carrying out any contract authorized by this section, so far as may be necessary to disclose the exact cost of executing such contract, shall be unlawful, and any person, firm, or corporation that shall, upon indictment and trial, be found guilty of violating any of the provisions of this section shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not exceeding $20,000, or to be imprisoned not exceeding five years, or both, at the discretion of the court.

(q) Contracts for aircrafts, etc., constructed according to designs already reduced to practice.—In the procurement of aircraft constructed according to designs presented by any individual, firm, or corporation prior to the passage of this Act, which designs have been reduced to practice and found to be suitable for the purpose intended or according to such designs with minor modifications thereof, the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, when in his opinion the interests of the United States will be best served thereby, may contract with said individual, firm, or corporation, at reasonable prices for such quantities of said aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories as he may deem necessary: Provided, That the action of the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, in each such case shall be final and conclusive.

(r) Patents and design board, establishment; composition; submission of design to; purchase of right to use designs.—A board to be known as the patents and design board is hereby created, the three members of which shall be an Assistant Secretary of War, an Assistant Secretary of the Navy, and an Assistant Secretary of Commerce. To this board any individual, firm, or corporation may submit a design for aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories, and whether patented or unpatentable, the said board upon the recommendation of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics shall determine whether the use of such designs by the Government is desirable or necessary, and evaluate the designs so submitted and fix the worth to the United States of said design, not to exceed $75,000. The said designer, individual, firm, or corporation, may then be offered the sum fixed by the board for the ownership or a nonexclusive right of the United States to the use of the design in aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories and upon the acceptance thereof shall execute complete assignment or nonexclusive license to the United States: Provided, That no sum in excess of $75,000 shall be paid for any one design.

(s) "Winner" or "winners" defined.—The terms "winner" or "winners" as used in this section shall be construed to include not more than three competitors having the highest figures of merit in any one competition.

(t) Award of contract for aircraft, etc., to lowest responsible bidder; finality of decision.—Hereafter whenever the Secretary of War, or the Secretary of the Navy, shall enter into a contract for or on behalf of the United States, for aircraft, aircraft parts, or aeronautical accessories, said Secretary is hereby authorized to award such contract to the bidder that said Secretary shall find to be the lowest responsible bidder that can satisfactorily perform the work or the service required to the best advantage of the Government; and the decision of the Secretary of the department concerned as to the award of such contract, the interpretation of the provisions of the contract, and the application and administration of the contract shall not be reviewable, otherwise than as may be therein provided for, by any officer or tribunal of the United States except the President and the Federal courts. (July 2, 1926, c. 721, § 10, 44 Stat. 784.)

GENERAL PROVISIONS AS TO OFFICERS AND ENLISTED MEN

873. Pay and allowances of acting chaplain.

Section 873 of Title 34 affected.—See § 348r of this title in the appendix for legislation possibly affecting this section.

879a. Computation in case of delayed appointment.—All officers of the regular Navy appointed subsequent to June 30, 1922, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 4, 1920 (Forty-first Statutes at Large, pages 834 and 835),[17] who were examined and found qualified in all respects for such appointment prior to June 30, 1922, but whose appointments were delayed subsequent to that date through no fault of their own, shall be entitled to count, from and after date of appointment, in the computation of their pay, all service which would have been credited to them had they been so appointed on or before June 30, 1922. (May 19, 1926, c. 332, 44 Stat. 564.)

New section.

882. Pay as affected by absence from duty on account of sickness resulting from misconduct.

Section 882 of Title 34 repealed.—The statutory provision constituting § 882 of Title 34 of the Code, has been repealed by Act of April 17, 1926, c. 302, § 5, 44 Stat. 558. See sections 882a, 882b, 882c, and 882d of this title in the appendix for legislation replacing it.

882. Forfeiture of pay during absence resulting from use of liquor or drugs.—Hereafter no person in active service in the military or naval service who shall be absent from his regular duties for more than one day at any one time on account of the effects of a disease, as distinguished from injury, which is directly attributable to and immediately follows his own intemperate use of alcoholic liquor or habit-forming drugs, shall, except as hereinafter provided, be entitled to any pay, as distinguished from allowances, for the period of such absence. (May 17, 1926, c. 302, § 1, 44 Stat. 557.)

New section.

882b. Forfeiture of pay during absence on account of venereal disease.—Hereafter no person in active service in the military or naval service who shall be absent from his regular duties for more than one day at any one time on account of the direct effects of a venereal disease due to his own misconduct, shall, except as hereafter provided, be entitled to any pay, as distinguished from allowances, for the period of such absence: Provided, That such absence is within a period of one year following the appearance of the initial symptoms of such venereal disease and regardless of whether the appearance of the initial symptoms occurs prior or subsequent to the date of entry into the service. (May 17, 1926, c. 302, § 2, 44 Stat. 557.)

New section.

882c. Determination of period and cause of absence.—For all purposes within the scope of this Act,[18] the period of absence

[17] Provisions relating to the Naval Reserve Force, practically all of which were repealed by Act Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, 43 Stat. 1080, which Act now appears in chapter 15 of this title, the only portions thereof now in force being found in sections 432 and 879 of this title.

Sec.

122. Expenses of Army officers serving on commission.
122a. Power as to obligations and contracts; limitation as to amount. [New.]
122b. Contracts for work in Europe; services of architects. [New.]
133. Disbursing agent for disbursement of expenditures outside of United States.

122. Expenses of Army officers serving on commission.

Section 122 of Title 36 repeated.—The statutory provision constituting § 122 of Title 36 of the Code was repeated in Act Apr. 22, 1926, c. 171, 44 Stat. 307, with the omission of the words "with the commission."

122a. Power as to obligations and contracts; limitation as to amount.—The commission may incur obligations and enter into contracts for building materials and supplies and for construction work, which, inclusive of the amounts herein made available, shall not exceed a total of $3,000,000. (Apr. 22, 1926, c. 171, 44 Stat. 307.)

New section. This and the following section are from the Executive, etc., Appropriation Act for 1927, Apr. 22, 1926, c. 171, 44 Stat. 307, cited to the text.

122b. Contracts for work in Europe; services of architects.—Notwithstanding the requirements of existing laws or regulations and under such terms and conditions as the commission may in its discretion deem necessary and proper, the commission may contract for work in Europe, and engage, by contract or otherwise, the services of architects, firms of architects, and other technical and professional personnel. (Apr. 22, 1926, c. 171, 44 Stat. 307.)

New section. See note to § 122a.

133. Disbursing agent for disbursement of expenditures outside of United States.

Section 133 of Title 36 repeated.—The statutory provision constituting § 133 of Title 36 of the Code was repeated in Act Apr. 22, 1926, c. 171, 44 Stat. 307.

TITLE 37.—PAY AND ALLOWANCES (ARMY, NAVY, MARINE CORPS, COAST GUARD, COAST AND GEODETIC SURVEY, AND PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE)

Sec.
19a. Allowances for quarters and subsistence during sickness or absence. [New.]
20. Mileage allowance to officers; travel expenses.
21. Money allowance in lieu of transportation in kind for dependents of commissioned and enlisted personnel.
26a. Equalization of pay of retired officers and warrant officers. [New.]
29. Increase of pay of officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men detailed to duty involving flying; number detailed.

19a. Allowances for quarters and subsistence during sickness or absence.—Hereafter enlisted men, including the members of the United States Army Band, entitled to receive allowances for quarters and subsistence shall continue, while their permanent stations remain unchanged, to receive such allowances while sick in hospital or absent from their permanent-duty stations in a pay status: Provided further, That allowances for subsistence shall not accrue to such an enlisted man while he is in fact being subsisted at Government expense. (Apr. 15, 1926, c. 146, Title I, 44 Stat. 257.)

New section.

20. Mileage allowance to officers; travel expenses.—Officers of any of the services mentioned in the title of this Act,[1] when traveling under competent orders without troops, shall receive a mileage allowance at the rate of 8 cents per mile, distance to be computed by the shortest usually traveled route and existing laws providing for the issue of transportation requests to officers of the Army traveling under competent orders, and for deduction to be made from mileage accounts when transportation is furnished by the United States, are hereby made applicable to all the services mentioned in the title of this Act,[1] but in cases when orders are given for travel to be performed repeatedly between two or more places in the same vicinity, as determined by the head of the executive department concerned, he may, in his discretion, direct that actual and necessary expenses only be allowed. Actual expenses only shall be paid for travel under orders in Alaska and outside the limits of the United States in North America. Unless otherwise expressly provided by law, no officer of the services mentioned in the title of this Act[1] shall be allowed or paid any sum in excess of expenses actually incurred for subsistence while traveling on duty away from his designated post of duty, nor any sum for such expenses actually incurred in excess of $7 per day. The heads of the executive departments concerned are authorized to prescribe per diem rates of allowance, not exceeding $6, in lieu of subsistence to officers traveling on official business and away from their designated posts of duty.

"In lieu of the transportation in kind authorized by section 12 of an Act entitled 'An Act to increase the efficiency of the commissioned and enlisted personnel of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Coast and Geodetic Survey, and Public Health Service,' approved May 18, 1920,[2] to be furnished by the United States for dependents, the President may authorize the payment in money of amounts equal to such commercial transportation costs when such travel shall have been completed. Dependent children shall be such as are defined in section 4 of this Act."[3] (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 12, 42 Stat. 631; June 1, 1926, c. 436, 44 Stat. 680.)

Section 20 of Title 37 amended.—Section 12 of Act of June 10, 1922, c. 212, 42 Stat. 631, constituting § 20 of Title 37 of the Code, has been amended by Act of June 1, 1926, c. 436, 44 Stat. 680, to read as above.

21. Money allowance in lieu of transportation in kind for dependents of commissioned and enlisted personnel.

Section 21 of Title 37 repealed.—The statutory provisions constituting § 21 of Title 37 of the Code have been repealed by Act of June 1, 1926, c. 436, 44 Stat. 680. It is to be noted that the Act referred to in the text of this section of the Code is applicable to officers and enlisted men of all the services enumerated in the heading of this title.

26a. Equalization of pay of retired officers and warrant officers.—Hereafter the retired pay of the officers and warrant officers of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Coast and Geodetic Survey, and Public Health Service, who were retired on or before June 30, 1922, shall not be less than that provided for the officers and warrant officers of these services of equal rank and length of service retired subsequent to that date: Provided, That nothing in this Act shall operate to reduce the pay of any officer or warrant officer now on the retired list. (May 8, 1926, c. 274, § 1, 44 Stat. 417.)

New section.

29. Increase of pay of officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men detailed to duty involving flying; number detailed.—All officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men of all branches of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, when by orders of competent authority they are required to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flights, and when in consequence of such orders they do participate in regular and frequent flights as defined by such Executive orders as have heretofore been, or may hereafter be, promulgated by the President, shall receive the same increase of their pay and the same allowance for traveling expenses as are authorized for the performance of like duties in the Army. Exclusive of the Army Air Corps, and student aviators and qualified aircraft pilots of the Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, the number of officers of any of the services mentioned in the title of this Act who may be required by competent authority to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flights as defined by such Executive orders as have heretofore been, or may hereafter be, promulgated by the President shall not at any one time exceed 1 per centum of the total authorized commissioned strength of such service. Officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men of the National Guard participating in exercises or performing duties provided for by sections 92, 94, 97, and 99[4] of the National Defense Act, as amended, and of the Reserves of the services mentioned in the title of this Act called to active duty shall receive an increase of 50 per centum of their pay when by orders of competent authority they are required to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flights, and when in consequence of such orders they do participate in regular and frequent aerial flights as defined by such Executive

PART I.—GENERAL

422. Purpose; other gratuities or pensions; military or naval retirement laws; compensation to persons receiving active service or retirement pay.—This Act[10] is intended to provide a system for the relief of persons who were disabled, and for the dependents of those who died as a result of disability suffered in the military service of the United States between April 6, 1917, and July 2, 1921. For such disabilities and deaths no other pension laws or laws providing for gratuities or payments in the event of death in the service shall be applicable: Provided, however, That the laws relating to the retirement of persons in the regular military or naval service shall not be considered to be laws providing for pensions, gratuities, or payments within the meaning of this section: And provided further, That compensation under this title[11] shall not be paid while the person is in receipt of active service or retirement pay, this proviso to be effective as of April 6, 1917. Titles II and IV of this Act[12] shall not be applicable to any disability or resultant death in the service if such disability occurred as a result of service prior to April 6, 1917, or after July 2, 1921: Provided, however, That the schedule of ratings provided by section 202 (4) of this statute[13] shall hereafter be applicable to disabilities occurring as a result of service prior to April 6, 1917, or after July 2, 1921, wherever a person has an accrued right to compensation under section 602 of the World War Veterans' Act, 1924.[14] (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 212, 43 Stat. 623; July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 13, 44 Stat. 798.)

Section 422 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 422 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 13, 44 Stat. 798, to read as above. The amendment added to the second proviso the words "this proviso to be effective as of April 6, 1917," and also added all of the closing proviso.

425. United States Veterans' Bureau; establishment; director; appointment; salary; technical and administrative staff.—There is established an independent bureau under the President to be known as the United States Veterans' Bureau, the director of which shall be appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Director of the United States Veterans' Bureau shall receive a salary of $12,000 per annum, payable monthly.

There shall be included on the technical and administrative staff of the director such staff officers, experts, inspectors, and assistants as the director shall prescribe; and there shall be in the United States Veterans' Bureau such sections and subdivisions thereof as the director shall prescribe. With such exceptions as the President may deem advisable, all employees shall be subject to the civil-service law and regulations made thereunder. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 4, 43 Stat. 608; July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 21, 44 Stat. 800.)

Section 425 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 425 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by the Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 21, 44 Stat. 800, to read as above. The amendment related to the salary of the Director of the Veterans' Bureau, increasing it from $10,000 to $12,000.

427. Statement by director to Congress of employees and rates of pay.—On the first day of each regular session of Congress the Director of the Veterans' Bureau shall transmit to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives a statement giving in detail (a) the total number of positions at a rate of $2,000 or more per annum, (b) the rate of salary attached to each position, (c) the number of positions at each rate in the central office and in each regional office or suboffice and hospital, and (d) a brief statement of the duties of each position. (Apr. 22, 1926, c. 171, § 1, 44 Stat. 319.)

New section.

434. Hospitalization, medical care, and treatment of beneficiaries; powers of director; hospital facilities; transfer of hospitals from Treasury and Public Health Department.—The director, subject to the general directions of the President, shall be responsible for the proper examination, medical care, treatment, hospitalization, dispensary, and convalescent care necessary and reasonable aftercare, welfare of, nursing, vocational training, and such other services as may be necessary in the carrying out of the provisions of this Act,[10] and for that purpose is hereby authorized, at the direction of the President or with the approval of the head of the department concerned, to utilize the now existing or future facilities of the United States Public Health Service, the War Department, the Navy Department, the Interior Department, the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, and such other governmental facilities as may be made available for the purposes set forth in this Act;[10] and such governmental agencies are hereby authorized to furnish such facilities, including personnel, equipment, medical, surgical, and hospital services and supplies as the director may deem necessary and advisable in carrying out the provisions of this Act,[10] in addition to such governmental facilities as are hereby made available.

When, in the opinion of the director, the facilities and services utilized for the hospitalization, medical care, and treatment for beneficiaries under this Act[10] are unsatisfactory, the director shall make arrangements for the further hospitalization, care, and treatment of such beneficiaries by other means: Provided, That the director is hereby authorized to hospitalize women veterans entitled to hospitalization under the provisions of this Act[10] and amendments thereto, in other than Government hospitals.

In the event that there are not sufficient and satisfactory Government hospital and out-patient dispensary facilities for the proper medical care and treatment of beneficiaries under this Act[10] and the director deems it necessary and advisable to improve existing facilities or to secure additional Government facilities, he may, within the limits of appropriations made for carrying out the provisions of this paragraph, alter, improve, or extend existing governmental facilities, or acquire additional facilities by purchase or otherwise: Provided, however, That no alteration, improvement, or extension which will materially increase the bed capacity for patients of any hospital or institution shall be made, nor shall any new facilities be acquired without the approval of the President. Such new property and structures as may be improved, extended, or acquired shall become part of the permanent equipment of the United States Veterans' Bureau or of some one of the now existing agencies of the Government, including the War Department, Navy Department, Interior Department, Treasury Department, the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, in such way as will best serve the present emergency, taking into consideration the future services to be rendered the veterans of the World War, including the beneficiaries under this Act.[10]

In the event Government hospital facilities are insufficient or inadequate the director may contract with State, municipal, or, in exceptional cases, with private hospitals for such medical, surgical, and hospital services and supplies as may be required, and such contracts may be made for a period of not exceeding three years and may be for the use of a ward or other hospital unit or on such other basis as may be in the best interest of the beneficiaries under this Act.[10]

There are here permanently transferred to the Veterans' Bureau all hospitals now or formerly under the jurisdiction of the Public Health Service or of the Treasury Department, the operation, management, or control of which have heretofore been transferred by the President to said bureau pursuant to the authority contained in section 9 of the Act entitled "An Act to establish a Veterans' Bureau and to improve the facilities and service of such bureau and further to amend and modify the War Risk Insurance Act," approved August 9, 1921.[15] (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 10, 43 Stat. 610; July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 1, 44 Stat. 790.)

Section 434 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 434 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 1, 44 Stat. 790, to read as above.

450. Payments to minors, mental incompetents, or persons under legal disability.—(1) Where any payment under this Act[10] is to be made to a minor, other than a person in the military or naval forces of the United States, or to a person mentally incompetent, or under other legal disability adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, such payment may be made to the person who is constituted guardian, curator, or conservator by the laws of the State of residence of claimant, or is otherwise legally vested with the care of the claimant or his estate: Provided, That as to cases arising in the District of Columbia where in the opinion of the director any guardian, curator, conservator, or other person is acting as fiduciary in such a number of cases as to make it impracticable to conserve properly the estates or to supervise the persons of the wards, the director is hereby authorized to refuse to make future payments in such number of cases as he may deem proper: Provided further, That prior to receipt of notice by the bureau that any such person is under such other legal disability adjudged by some court of competent jurisdiction, payment may be made to such person direct: Provided further, That for the purpose of payments of benefits under Title II hereof,[16] where no guardian, curator, or conservator of the person under a legal disability has been appointed under the laws of the State of residence of the claimant, the director shall determine the person who is otherwise legally vested with the care of the claimant or his estate.

(2) Whenever it appears that any guardian, curator, conservator, or other person is not in the opinion of the director properly executing the duties of his trust or has collected or is attempting to collect fees, commissions, or allowances that are inequitable or are in excess of those allowed by law for the duties performed or expenses incurred, or has failed to make such payments as may be necessary for the benefit of the ward or the dependents of the ward, then and in that event the director is hereby empowered by his duly authorized attorney to appear in the court which has appointed such fiduciary and make proper presentation of such matters to the court: Provided, That the director in his discretion may suspend payments to any such guardian, curator, conservator, or other person who shall neglect or refuse, after reasonable notice, to render an account to the director from time to time showing the application of such payments for the benefit of such minor or incompetent beneficiary.

Authority is hereby granted for the payment of any court or other expenses incident to any investigation or court proceeding for the appointment or removal of any guardian, curator, conservator, or other person legally vested with the care of the claimant or his estate, or in connection with the administration of such estates by such fiduciaries, when such payment is authorized by the director. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 21, 43 Stat. 613; July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 2, 44 Stat. 791.)

Section 450 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 450 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by the Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 2, 44 Stat. 791.

451. Payments to personal representatives [or person entitled to decedent's property in case of intestacy; escheat to United States].—The amount of the monthly installments of compensation, yearly renewable term insurance, or accrued maintenance and support allowance which has become payable under the provisions of Titles II, III, or IV hereof,[17] but which has not been paid prior to the death of the person entitled to receive the same, may be payable to the personal representatives of such person, or in the absence of a duly appointed legal representative where the combined amounts payable are $1,000 or less, the director shall allow and pay such sum to such person or persons as would under the laws of the State of residence of the decedent be entitled to his personal property in case of intestacy: Provided, That in cases where the estate of the decedent would escheat under the laws of the place of residence, such installments shall not be paid to the estate of the decedent but shall escheat to the United States and shall be credited to the appropriation from which the original award was made. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 26, 43 Stat. 614; July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 3, 44 Stat. 792.)

Section 451 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 451 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by the Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 3, 44 Stat. 792, to read as above. The amendment inserted the clause beginning "or in the absence," immediately preceding the proviso.

453. Payments not to be recovered from beneficiaries, when [reimbursement of United States Government life insurance fund].—There shall be no recovery of payments from any beneficiary who, in the judgment of the director, is without fault on his part, and where, in the judgment of the director, such recovery would defeat the purpose of benefits otherwise authorized or would be against equity and good conscience.

When under the provisions of this section the recovery of a payment made from the United States Government life insurance fund is waived, the United States Government life insurance fund shall be reimbursed for the amount involved from the current appropriation for military and naval insurance. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 28, 43 Stat. 615; July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 4, 44 Stat. 792.)

Section 453 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 453 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 4, 44 Stat. 792, to read as above. The amendment added the second paragraph.

458. Reimbursement of hospitalized beneficiaries for loss of personal effects by fire.—The Veterans' Bureau shall, under regulations to be prescribed by the director, reimburse beneficiaries hospitalized or who have been hospitalized in Veterans' Bureau hospitals for any loss of personal effects heretofore or hereafter sustained by fire while such effects are or were stored in designated locations in Veterans' Bureau hospitals. (July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 5, 44 Stat. 792.)

New section.

459. Courses of instruction for professional personnel of bureau.—The director, in his discretion, may provide courses of instruction for the professional personnel of the bureau and may detail employees to attend the same, and may detail not more than 2 per centum of such professional personnel to attend professional courses conducted by other than bureau agencies, and such employees in addition to their salaries shall be entitled to the payment of expenses incident to such detail, including transportation: Provided, however, That travel or instruction outside the continental limits of the United States shall not be authorized under this section. (July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 6, 44 Stat. 793.)

New section.

460. Transportation allowances to physicians, dentists, and nurses of medical service of bureau.—Physicians, dentists, and nurses of the medical service of the United States Veterans' Bureau, in addition to their compensation, when transferred from one official station to another for permanent duty, may be allowed, within the discretion and under written order of the director, the expenses incurred for packing, crating, drayage, and transportation of their household effects and other personal property not exceeding in all five thousand pounds. (Apr. 22, 1926, c. 171, § 1, 44 Stat. 319.)

New section.

461. Pay and allowances of Medical Reserve Corps officers and nurses.—The pay and allowances of such additional officers and nurses of the Medical Reserve Corps as are required to supplement the like officers and nurses of the Regular Army in the care of beneficiaries of the United States Veterans' Bureau treated in Army hospitals may be paid from the funds allotted to the War Department by that bureau under existing law. (Apr. 15, 1926, c. 146, Title 1, 44 Stat. 283.)

New section.

PART II.—COMPENSATION AND TREATMENT

471. Compensation for death or disability; to whom payable and for what causes payable; presumptions as to soundness of condition and time of acquisition of disabilities.—For death or disability resulting from personal injury suffered or disease contracted in the military or naval service on or after April 6, 1917, and before July 2, 1921, or for an aggravation or recurrence of a disability existing prior to examination, acceptance, and enrollment for service, when such aggravation was suffered or contracted in, or such recurrence was caused by, the military or naval service on or after April 6, 1917, and before July 2, 1921, by any commissioned officer or enlisted man, or by any member of the Army Nurse Corps (female), or of the Navy Nurse Corps (female), when employed in the active service under the War Department or Navy Department, the United States shall pay to such commissioned officer or enlisted man, member of the Army Nurse Corps (female), or of the Navy Nurse Corps (female), or women citizens of the United States who were taken from the United States by the United States Government and who served in base hospitals overseas, or, in the discretion of the director, separately to his or her dependents, compensation as hereinafter provided; but no compensation shall be paid if the injury, disease, aggravation, or recurrence has been caused by his own willful misconduct: Provided, That no person suffering from paralysis, paresis, or blindness shall be denied compensation by reason of willful misconduct, nor shall any person who is helpless or bedridden as a result of any disability be denied compensation by reason of willful misconduct. That for the purposes of this Act[17] every such officer, enlisted man, or other member employed in the active service under the War Department or Navy Department who was dicharged or who resigned prior to July 2, 1921, and every such officer, enlisted man, or other member employed in the active service under the War Department or Navy Department on or before November 11, 1918, who on or after July 2, 1921, is discharged or resigns, shall be conclusively held and taken to have been in sound condition when examined, accepted, and enrolled for service, except as to defects, disorders, or infirmities made of record in any manner by proper authorities of the United States at the time of, or prior to, inception of active service, to the extent to which any such defect, disorder, or infirmity was so made of record: Provided, That an ex-service man who is shown to have or, if diseased, to have had, prior to January 1, 1925, neuropsychiatric disease and spinal meningitis, an active tuberculosis disease, paralysis agitans, encephalitis lethargica, or amœbic dysentery developing a 10 per centum degree of disability or more in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (4) of section 202 of this Act,[18] shall be presumed to have acquired his disability in such service between April 6, 1917, and July 2, 1921, or to have suffered an aggravation of a preexisting neuropsychiatric disease and spinal meningitis, tuberculosis, paralysis agitans, encephalitis lethargica, or amœbic dysentery in such service between said dates, and said presumption shall be conclusive in cases of active tuberculosis disease and spinal meningitis, but in all other cases said presumption shall be rebuttable by clear and convincing evidence; but nothing in this proviso shall be construed to prevent a claimant from receiving the benefits of compensation and medical care and treatment for a disability due to these diseases of more than

10 per centum degree (in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (4) of section 202 of this Act[18]) on or subsequent to January 1, 1925, if the facts in the case substantiate his claim. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 200, 43 Stat. 615; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 6, 43 Stat. 1304; July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 7, 44 Stat. 793.)

Section 471 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 471 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 7, 44 Stat. 793, to read as above.

472. Death resulting from injury; amounts payable; burial allowances; payments to widow or children; veterans of other wars.—If death results from injury—

If the deceased leaves a widow or child, or if he leaves a mother or father either or both dependent upon him for support, the monthly compensation shall be the following amounts:

(a) If there is a widow but no child, $30.

(b) If there is a widow and one child, $40, with $6 for each additional child.

(c) If there is no widow, but one child, $20.

(d) If there is no widow, but two children, $30.

(e) If there is no widow, but three children, $40, with $5 for each additional child.

(f) If there is a dependent mother (or dependent father), $20, or both, $30. The amount payable under this subdivision shall not exceed the difference between the total amount payable to the widow and children and the sum of $75. Such compensation shall be payable, whether the dependency of the father or mother or both arises before or after the death of the person, but no compensation shall be payable if the dependency arises more than five years after the death of the person.

(1) If death occur or shall have occurred subsequent to April 6, 1917, and before discharge or resignation from the service, the United States Veterans' Bureau shall pay for burial and funeral expenses and the return of body to his home a sum not to exceed $100, as may be fixed by regulation. Where a veteran of any war, including those women who served as Army nurses under contracts between April 21, 1898, and February 2, 1901, who was not dishonorably discharged, dies after discharge or resignation from the service and does not leave assets which, in the judgment of the director, should be applied to meet the expenses of burial and funeral and the transportation of the body (the decision of the director to be binding for all purposes), the United States Veterans' Bureau shall pay the following sums: For a flag to drape the casket, and after burial to be given to the next of kin of the deceased, a sum not exceeding $7; also, for burial and funeral expenses and the transportation of the body (including preparation of the body) to the place of burial, a sum not exceeding $100 to cover such items and to be paid to such person or persons as may be fixed by regulations: Provided, That when such person dies while receiving from the bureau compensation or vocational training, the above benefits shall be payable in all cases: Provided further, That where such person, while receiving from the bureau medical, surgical, or hospital treatment, or vocational training, dies away from home and at the place to which he was ordered by the bureau, or while traveling under orders of the bureau, the above benefits shall be payable in all cases and in addition thereto the actual and necessary cost of the transportation of the body of the person (including preparation of the body) to the place of burial, within the continental limits of the United States, its Territories, or possessions, and including also, in the discretion of the director, the actual and necessary cost of transportation of an attendant: And provided further, That no accrued pension, compensation, or insurance due at the time of death shall be deducted from the sum allowed.

[18] "Subdivision (4) of section 202 of this Act" should be translated "section 474 of this title."

(2) The payment of compensation to a widow shall continue until her death or remarriage, and the payment of compensation to a parent shall continue to the death of such parent.

(3) The payment of compensation to or for a child shall continue until such child reaches the age of eighteen years or marries, or if such child be permanently incapable of self-support by reason of mental or physical defect, then during such incapacity.

(4) Whenever the compensation payable to or for the benefit of any person under the provisions of this section is terminated by the happening of the contingency upon which it is limited, the compensation thereafter for the remaining beneficiary or beneficiaries, if any, shall be the amount which would have been payable to them if they had been the sole original beneficiaries.

(5) As between the widow and the children not in her custody, and as between children, the amount of compensation shall be apportioned as may be prescribed by regulation.

(6) The term "widow," as used in this section, shall not include one who shall have married the deceased later than ten years after July 2, 1921, and shall include widower whenever his condition is such that if the deceased person were living he would have been dependent upon her for support.

(7) That this section shall be deemed to be in effect as of April 6, 1917: Provided, however, That the receipt of a gratuity, pension, or compensation, including adjusted compensation, by widow, child, or parent, on account of the death, disability, or service of any person shall not bar the payment of compensation on account of the death or disability of any other person: Provided, That before compensation under this section shall be paid the claimant shall first surrender all claim to any gratuity or pension payable under any other law on account of the death of the same person: Provided further, That no changes in rates or compensation made by this Act[19] shall be retroactive in effect. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 201, 43 Stat. 616; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 7, 43 Stat. 1305; July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 8, 44 Stat. 794.)

Section 472 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 472 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 8, 44 Stat. 794, to read as above. The amendment relates to paragraph (1).

473. Disability resulting from injury; total and permanent disability; loss of both eyes; loss of use of both eyes and one or more limbs; tubercular ex-service men.—If and while the disability is rated as total and permanent, the rate of compensation shall be $100 per month: Provided, however, That the permanent loss of the use of both feet, or both hands, or of both eyes, or of one foot and one hand, or of one foot and one eye, or of one hand and one eye, or the loss of hearing of both ears, or the organic loss of speech, or becoming permanently helpless or permanently bedridden, shall be deemed to be total, permanent disability: Provided further, That the compensation for the loss of the use of both eyes shall be $150 per month, and that compensaiton for the loss of the use of both eyes and one or more limbs shall be $200 per month: Provided further, That for double total, permanent disability the rate of compensation shall be $200 per month.

That any ex-service man shown to have a tuberculous disease of compensable degree, and who has been hospitalized for a period of one year, and who in the judgment of the director will not reach a condition of arrest by further hospitalization, and whose discharge from hospitalization will not be prejudicial to the beneficiary or his family, and who is not, in the judgment of the director, feasible for training, shall, upon his request, be discharged from hospitalization and rated as temporarily totally disabled, said rating to continue for the period of three years: Provided, however, That nothing in this subdivision shall deny the beneficiary the right, upon presentation of satisfactory evidence, to be adjudged to be permanently and totally disabled. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 9, 44 Stat. 794.)

Section 473 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 473 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 9, 44 Stat. 794, to read as above.

479. Medical, surgical, and dental treatment in addition to compensation; artificial limbs, trusses, etc.—In addition to the compensation above provided, the injured person shall be furnished by the United States such reasonable governmental medical, surgical, and hospital services, including payment of court costs and other expenses incident to proceedings heretofore or hereafter taken for commitment of mentally incompetent persons to hospitals for care and treatment of the insane, and shall be furnished with such supplies, including wheel chairs, artificial limbs, trusses, and similar appliances, as the director may determine to be useful and reasonably necessary, which wheel chairs, artificial limbs, trusses, and similar appliances may be procured by the bureau in such manner, either by purchase or manufacture, as the director may determine to be advantageous and reasonably necessary: Provided, That nothing in this Act[19] shall be construed to affect the necessary military control over any member of the Military or Naval Establishments before he shall have been discharged from the military or naval service: Provided further, That where any person entitled to the benefits of this paragraph[20] has heretofore been hospitalized in a State institution, the United States Veterans' Bureau is hereby authorized to reimburse such person, or his estate, where payment has been made to the State out of the funds of such person, or to reimburse the State or any subdivision thereof where no payment has been made for the reasonable cost of such services from the date of admission. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 9, 44 Stat. 794.)

Section 479 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 479 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 9, 44 Stat. 794, to read as above. The provisions as to "dental" treatment in the section as appearing in the Code were eliminated.

480. Insane persons maintained in institutions; payment of compensation; additional allowance on recovery of reason.—Where any disabled person having neither wife, child, nor dependent parent shall, after July 1, 1924, have been maintained by the Government of the United States for a period or periods amounting to six months in an institution or institutions, and shall be deemed by the director to be insane, the compensation for such person shall thereafter be $20 per month so long as he shall thereafter be maintained by the bureau in an institution; and such compensation may, in the discretion of the director, be paid to the chief officer of said institution to be used for the benefit of such person: Provided, however, That if such person shall recover his reason and shall be discharged from such institution as competent, such additional sum shall be paid him as would equal the total sum by which his compensation has been reduced through the provisions of this subdivision.[21]

All or any part of the compensation, of any mentally incompetent inmate of an institution, may, in the discretion of the director, be paid to the chief officer of said institution to be properly accounted for and to be used for the benefit of such inmate, or may, in the discretion of the director, be apportioned to wife, child, or children, or dependent parents, in accordance with regulations.

That any ex-service person shown to have had a tuberculous disease of a compensable degree, who in the judgment of the director has reached a condition of complete arrest of his disease, shall receive compensation of not less than $50 per month: Provided, however, That nothing in this provision shall deny a beneficiary the right to receive a temporary total rating for six months after discharge from a one year's period of hospitalization: Provided further, That no payments under this provision shall be retroactive and the payments hereunder shall commence from the date of the passage of this Act[22] or the date the disease reaches a condition of arrest, whichever be the later date. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, §§ 8, 9, 43 Stat. 1306, 1307; July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 9, 44 Stat. 794.)

Section 480 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 480 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 9, 44 Stat. 797, to read as above.

See § 476 of this title for a similar provision to that of the closing paragraph of this section.

481. Compensation of veterans in institutions; rate after June 30, 1927.

Section 481 of Title 38 repeated.—The statutory provision constituting § 481 of Title 38 of the Code was repeated in Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 9, 44 Stat. 794.

484. Hospitalization for veterans of other wars; hospitalization in the insular possessions.—That all hospital facilities under the control and jurisdiction of the bureau shall be available for every honorably discharged veteran of the Spanish-American War, the Philippine insurrection, the Boxer rebellion, or the World War suffering from neuropsychiatric or tubercular ailments and diseases, paralysis agitans, encephalitis lethargica, or amœbic dysentery, or the loss of sight of both eyes, regardless whether such ailments or diseases are due to military service or otherwise, including traveling expenses as granted to those receiving compensation and hospitalization under this Act.[10] The director is further authorized, so far as he shall find that existing Government facilities permit, to furnish hospitalization and necessary traveling expenses incident to hospitalization to veterans of any war, military occupation, or military expedition, including those women who served as Army nurses under contracts between April 21, 1898, and February 2, 1901, not dishonorably discharged, without regard to the nature or origin of their disabilities: Provided, That any and all laws applicable to women who belonged to the Nurse Corps of the Army after February 2, 1901, shall apply equally to members of the Army Nurse Corps who served under contract between April 21, 1898, and February 2, 1901, including all women who served honorably as nurses, chief nurses, or superintendent of said corps in said period: Provided, That preference to admission to any Government hospital for hospitalization under the provisions of this subdivision shall be given to those veterans who are financially unable to pay for hospitalization and their necessary traveling expenses: Provided further, That where a veteran hospitalized under the authority of this subdivision is financially unable to supply himself with clothing, he shall also be furnished with such clothing as the director may deem necessary: Provided further, That where a veteran entitled to hospitalization under this subdivision is suffering with a disease or injury necessitating the wearing of a prosthetic appliance and is financially unable to supply himself with same, upon an affidavit to that effect the director is hereby authorized to furnish such appliance and to effect necessary repairs to the same without cost to the veteran: And provided further, That the pension of a veteran entitled to hospitalization under this subdivision shall not be subject to deduction, while such veteran is hospitalized in any Government hospital, for board, maintenance, or any other purpose incident to hospitalization: Provided further, That the Act of May 4, 1898, entitled "An Act making appropriations for the naval service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1899, and for other purposes," the Act of February 28, 1861, as amended by the Act of February 2, 1909, relative to the Government hospital for the insane in the District of Columbia, or any other Act, in so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this section be, and they are, hereby modified accordingly.

In the insular possessions or Territories of the United States the director is further authorized to furnish hospitalization in other than Government hospitals. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 9, 43 Stat. 1307; July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 9, 44 Stat. 794.)

Section 484 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 484 of Title 38 of this Code has been amended by Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 9, 44 Stat. 794, to read as above.

For Act of May 4, 1898, mentioned in the text, see § 6 of Title 24 of this Code.

For Act of Feb. 2, 1909, amending Act of Feb. 28, 1861, mentioned in the text, see § 165 of Title 24 of this Code.

492. Examination of applicants for compensation for disability; necessity for; neglect or refusal to submit to.—That every person applying for or in receipt of compensation for disability under the provisions of this title and every person applying for treatment under the provisions of subdivisions (9) or (10) of section 202 hereof,[22] shall, as frequently and at such times and places as may be reasonably required, submit himself to examination by a medical officer of the United States or by a duly qualified physician designated or approved by the director. He may have a duly qualified physician designated and paid by him present to participate in such examination. For all examinations he shall, in the discretion of the director, be paid his reasonable traveling and other expenses and also a per diem allowance of $2.65 per day for the period of travel and observation. If he shall neglect or refuse to submit to such examination, or shall in any way obstruct the same, his right to claim compensation under this title[23] shall be suspended until such neglect, refusal, or obstruction ceases. No compensation shall be payable while such neglect, refusal, or obstruction continues, and no compensation shall be payable for the intervening period. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 203, 43 Stat. 622; July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 10, 44 Stat. 797.)

Section 492 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 492 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 10, 44 Stat. 797, to read as above. The amendment related to the per diem allowance.

495. Time of occurrence of death or disability as affecting liability therefor.—That no compensation shall be payable for death or disability which does not occur prior to or within one year after discharge or resignation from the service, except as provided in section 200 of this Act,[24] and except where there is an official record of the injury during service or at the time of separation from active service, or where within three years from the approval of this Act,[25] satisfactory evidence is furnished the bureau to establish that the injury was suffered or aggravated during active service. Where there is official record of injury during service compensation shall be payable in accordance with the provisions of this title,[23] for death or disability whenever occurring, proximately resulting from such injury. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 206, 43 Stat. 622; July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 11, 44 Stat. 797.)

Section 495 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 495 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 11, 44 Stat. 797, to read as above.

498. Time for filing claim for compensation or treatment; extension of time.—No compensation shall be payable and that (except as provided by subdivision (10) of section 202 hereof)[26] no treatment shall be furnished unless a claim therefor be filed in case of disability within five years after discharge or resignation from the service, or in case of death during the service, within five years after such death is officially recorded in the department under which he may be serving: Provided, however, That where compensation is payable for death or disability occurring after discharge or resignation from the service, claim must be made within five years after such death or the beginning of such disability.

The time herein provided may be extended by the director not to exceed five years for good cause shown. If at the time that any right accrues to any person under the provisions of this title such person is a minor, or is of unsound mind or physically unable to make a claim, the time herein provided shall not begin to run until such disability ceases. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 209, 43 Stat. 623; July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 12, 44 Stat. 797.)

Section 498 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 498 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 12, 44 Stat. 797, to read as above. The amendment relates to extension of time from "two years" to "five years" in second paragraph.

PART III.—INSURANCE

511. Persons entitled to; amounts; time for application for; to whom payable; expense of; premium rates.—In order to give to every commissioned officer and enlisted man and to every member of the Army Nurse Corps (female) and of the Navy Nurse Corps (female) when employed in active service under the War Department or Navy Department protection for themselves, and their dependents, the United States, upon application to the bureau and without medical examination, shall grant United States Government life insurance (converted insurance) against the death or total permanent disability of any such person in any multiple of $500, and not less than $1,000 or more than $10,000, upon the payment of the premiums as hereinafter provided. Such insurance must be applied for within one hundred and twenty days after enlistment or after entrance into or employment in the active service and before discharge or resignation: Provided, That any member of the reserve forces whose application was accepted at a time when he was in attendance at a military or naval training camp or station, and from whom premiums were collected, and who becomes or has become totally or permanently disabled, or dies or has died, shall be deemed to have made valid application therefor. This proviso shall not authorize the granting of more than $10,000 insurance to any one person: Provided further, That each officer and enlisted man of the Coast Guard who is serving on active duty at the time of the passage of this amendatory Act[27] or who subsequent thereto enters the Coast Guard Service, shall be granted insurance in accordance with the terms of this section upon application within one hundred and twenty days of the passage of this amendatory Act,[28] or date of enlistment or entry into the Coast Guard, whichever is the later date, and before retirement, discharge, or resignation.

The insurance shall be payable only to a spouse, child, grandchild, parent, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law, or to any or all of them, and also during total and permanent disability to the injured person.

Where a beneficiary at the time of designation by the insured is within the permitted class of beneficiaries and is the designated beneficiary at the time of the maturity of the insurance because of the death of the insured, such beneficiary shall be deemed to be within the permitted class even though the status of such beneficiary shall have been changed.

The United States shall bear the expenses of administration and the excess mortality and disability cost resulting from the hazards of war. The premium rates shall be the net rates based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at 3½ per centum per annum. This section shall be deemed to be in effect as of June 7, 1924. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 300, 43 Stat. 624; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 12, 43 Stat. 1308; July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 14, 44 Stat. 798.)

Section 511 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 511 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 14, 44 Stat. 798, to read as above. The amendment added the two provisos at the close of first paragraph.

512. Term insurance; when terminated; conversion to elected policies; payment.—Except as provided in the second paragraph of this section, not later than July 2, 1927, all term yearly renewable insurance held by persons who were in the military service after April 6, 1917, shall be converted, without medical examination, into such form or forms of insurance as may be prescribed by regulations and as the insured may request. Regulations shall provide for the right to convert into ordinary life, twenty-payment life, endowment maturing at age sixty-two, five-year level premium term, and into other usual forms of insurance, and for reconversion of any such policies to a higher premium rate in accordance with regulations to be issued by the director, and shall prescribe the time and method of payment of the premiums thereon, but payments of premiums in advance shall not be required for periods of more than one month each, and may be deducted from the pay or deposit of the insured or be otherwise made at his election.

All yearly renewable term insurance shall cease on July 2, 1927, except when death or total permanent disability shall have occurred before July 2, 1927: Provided, however, That the director may by regulation extend the time for the continuing of yearly renewable term insurance and the conversion thereof in any case where on July 2, 1927, conversion of such yearly renewable term insurance is impracticable or impossible due to the mental condition or disappearance of the insured.

In case where an insured whose yearly renewable term insurance has matured by reason of total permanent disability is found and declared to be no longer permanently and totally disabled, and where the insured is required under regulations to renew payment of premiums on said term insurance, and where this contingency is extended beyond the period during which said yearly renewable term insurance otherwise must be converted, there shall be given such insured an additional period of two years from the date on which he is required to renew payment of premiums in which to convert said term insurance as hereinbefore provided: Provided, That where the time for conversion has been extended under the second paragraph of this section because of the mental condition or disappearance of the insured, there shall be allowed to the insured an additional period of two years from the date on which he recovers from his mental disability or reappears in which to convert.

The insurance except as provided herein shall be payable in two hundred and forty equal monthly installments: Provided, That when the amount of an individual monthly payment is less than $5, such amount may in the discretion of the director be allowed to accumulate without interest and be disbursed annually. Provisions for maturity at certain ages, for continuous installments during the life of the insured or beneficiaries, or both, for cash, loan, paid up and extended values, dividends from gains and savings, and such other provisions for the protection and advantage of and for alternative benefits to the insured and the beneficiaries as may be found to be reasonable and practicable, may be provided for in the contract of insurance, or from time to time by regulations. All calculations shall be based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at 3½ per centum per annum, except that no deduction shall be made for continuous installments during the life of the insured in case his total and permanent disability continues more than two hundred and forty months. Subject to regulations, the insured shall at all times have the right to change the beneficiary or beneficiaries without the consent of such beneficiary or beneficiaries, but only within the classes herein provided.

If no beneficiary within the permitted class be designated by the insured as beneficiary for converted insurance granted under the provisions of Article IV of the War Risk Insurance Act, or Title III of this Act,[29] either in his lifetime or by his last will and testament, or if the designated beneficiary does not survive the insured, then there shall be paid to the estate of the insured the present value of the remaining unpaid monthly installments; or if the designated beneficiary survives the insured and dies before receiving all of the installments of converted insurance payable and applicable, then there shall be paid to the estate of such beneficiary the present value of the remaining unpaid monthly installments: Provided, That no payments shall be made to any estate which under the laws of the residence of the insured or the beneficiary, as the case may be, would escheat, but same shall escheat to the United States and be credited to the United States Government life insurance fund.

The bureau may make provision in the contract for converted insurance for optional settlements, to be selected by the insured, whereby such insurance may be made payable either in one sum or in installments for thirty-six months or more. The bureau may also include in said contract a provision authorizing the beneficiary to elect to receive payment of the insurance in installments for thirty-six months or more, but only if the insured has not exercised the right of election as hereinbefore provided; and even though the insured may have exercised his right of election the said contract may authorize the beneficiary to elect to receive such insurance in installments spread over a greater period of time than that selected by the insured. This section shall be deemed to be in effect as of June 7, 1924. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 301, 43 Stat. 624; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 13, 43 Stat. 1309; June 2, 1926; c. 449, 44 Stat. 686.)

Section 512 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 512 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of June 2, 1926, c. 449, 44 Stat. 686.

515. Lapsed or canceled insurance; reinstatement; procedure; termination of term insurance unaffected.—In the event that all provisions of the rules and regulations other than the requirements as to the physical condition of the applicant for insurance have been complied with an application for reinstatement, in whole or in part, of lapsed or canceled yearly renewable term insurance or United States Government life insurance (converted insurance) hereafter made may be approved if made within one year after the passage of this amendatory Act[28] or within two years after the date of lapse or cancellation: Provided, That the applicant's disability is the result of an injury or disease, or of an aggravation thereof, suffered or contracted in the active military or naval service during the World War: Provided further, That the applicant during his lifetime submits proof satisfactory to the director showing that he is not totally and permanently disabled. As a condition, however, to the acceptance of an application for the reinstatement of lapsed or canceled yearly renewable term insurance, where the requirements as to the physical condition of the applicant have not been complied with, or, for the reinstatement of the United States Government life insurance (converted insurance), the applicant shall be required to pay all the back monthly premiums which would have become payable if such insurance had not lapsed, together with interest at the rate of 5 per centum per annum, compounded annually, on each premium from the date said premium is due by the terms of the policy: Provided further, That where within one year of this amendatory Act[30] all of the requirements for reinstatement of yearly renewable term insurance under this section are complied with, except the payment of unpaid premiums with interest, and proof satisfactory to the director is furnished showing the applicant is unable to pay such premiums with interest or some part thereof, the application may be approved, and the amount of unpaid premiums with interest as provided in this section shall be placed as an interest-bearing indebtedness against the insurance, such indebtedness to bear interest at the rate of 5 per centum per annum, compounded annually, to be deducted in any settlement thereunder: And provided further, That no yearly renewable term insurance shall be reinstated after July 2, 1927. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 304, 43 Stat. 625; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 15, 43 Stat. 1310; July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 15, 44 Stat. 799.)

Section 515 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 515 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 15, 44 Stat. 799.

516. Same; availability of compensation to revive insurance.—Where any person has heretofore[31] allowed his insurance to lapse, or has canceled or reduced all or any part of such insurance, while suffering from a compensable disability for which compensation was not collected and dies or has died, or becomes or has become permanently and totally disabled and at the time of such death or permanent total disability was or is entitled to compensation remaining uncollected, then and in that event so much of his insurance as said uncollected compensation, computed in all cases at the rate provided by section 302 of the War Risk Insurance Act as amended December 24, 1919,[32] would purchase if applied as premiums when due, shall not be considered as lapsed, canceled or reduced; and the United States Veterans' Bureau is hereby authorized and directed to pay to said soldier, or his beneficiaries, as the case may be, the amount of said insurance less the unpaid premiums and interest thereon at 5 per centum per annum compounded annually in installments as provided by law: Provided, That insurance hereafter revived under this section and section 309[33] by reason of permanent and total disability or by death of the insured, shall be paid only to the insured, his widow, child or children, dependent mother or father, and in the order named unless otherwise designated by the insured during his lifetime or by last will and testament. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 305, 43 Stat. 626; July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 16, 44 Stat. 799.)

Section 516 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 516 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 16, 44 Stat. 799, to read as above.

New section. The statutory provision constituting § 519 of Title 38 in the appendix was added as § 308 to Act of June 7, 1924, c. 320, by Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 17, 44 Stat. 800.

New section. The statutory provision constituting § 520 of Title 38 of the appendix was added as § 309 to Act of June 7, 1924, c. 320, by Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 184, 44 Stat. 800.

PART IV.—VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION

537. Same; time after which training and allowance shall not be granted.—No vocational training shall be granted after June 30, 1926, and except as provided by section 404 hereof,[34] no training allowance shall thereafter be paid to any person: Provided, That any person who is receiving placement training on June 30, 1926, may be continued in such training to January 1, 1927, and any person receiving educational training in schools or institutions on June 30, 1926, may be continued in training for not more than two years after the passage of this amendatory Act,[28] and may be paid the maintenance and support allowance provided by sections 401 and 404 hereof.[35] For the purposes of this section the unexpended balance of the appropriation for vocational rehabilitation for the fiscal year, 1926, shall be available. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 406, 43 Stat. 628; July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 19, 44 Stat. 800.)

Section 537 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 537 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 19, 44 Stat. 800, to read as above. Section matter is substantially new.

PART V.—PENALTIES

557. Applicability of title to Philippine Islands.—The provisions of this title shall be applicable to the administration of this Act in the Philippine Islands. (July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 20, 44 Stat. 800.)

New section. "Act" should be translated "chapter." The statutory provision constituting § 557 of Title 38 of the appendix was added as § 506 to Act of June 7, 1924, c. 320, by Act of July 2, 1926, c. 723, § 20, 44 Stat. 800.

668. Payment of lump sum to dependent where adjusted service credit certified to director. [New.]
669. Effect of amendatory Act; payment to dependent, preference. [New.]

PART III.—GENERAL PROVISIONS

612. Application for benefits; time for making; by whom made [death of veteran after application is made]; regulations as to.—(a) A veteran may receive the benefits to which he is entitled by application claiming the benefits of this Act,[10] filed with the Secretary of War, if he is serving in, or his last service was with, the military forces; or filed with the Secretary of the Navy, if he is serving in, or his last service was with, the naval forces.

(b) Such application shall be made and filed on or before January 1, 1928, (1) personally by the veteran, or (2) in case physical or mental incapacity prevents the making or filing of a personal application, then by such representative of the veteran and in such manner as may be by regulations prescribed. An application made by a person other than the representative authorized by any such regulation, or not filed on or before January 1, 1928, shall be held void. If the veteran dies after the application is made and before it is filed it may be filed by any person: Provided, however, That if the veteran died between May 19, 1924, and July 1, 1924, without making the application, leaving a widow surviving him, the application may be made by the widow and shall be valid with the same force and effect in every respect as if the application had been made by the veteran.

(c) If the veteran dies after the application is made, it shall be valid if the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, as the case may be, finds that it bears the bona fide signature of the applicant, discloses an intention to claim the benefits of this Act[10] on behalf of the veteran, and is filed on or before January 1, 1928, whether or not the veteran is alive at the time it is filed. If the veteran dies and payments are made to his dependents under Title VI,[36] and thereafter a valid application is filed under this section, then if the adjusted service credit of the veteran is more than $50, payment shall be made in accordance with Title V,[37] less any amounts already paid under Title VI.[36]

(d) The Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy shall jointly make any regulations necessary to the efficient administration of the provisions of this section. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 302, 43 Stat. 123; July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 1, 44 Stat. 826.)

Section 612 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 612 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 1, 44 Stat. 826. Paragraphs (b) and (c) are substantially new matter.

613. Transmittal of application to Director of United States Veterans' Bureau; certificate accompanying.—(a) As soon as practicable after the receipt of a valid application the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, as the case may be, shall transmit to the Director of the United States Veterans' Bureau (hereinafter in this Act[10] referred to as the director) the application and a certificate setting forth—

(1) That a valid application has been received;
(2) That the applicant is a veteran;
(3) His name and address;
(4) The date and place of his birth; and
(5) The amount of his adjusted service credit.

(b) Upon receipt of such certificate the director shall proceed to extend to the veteran the benefits provided for in Title IV or V.[38] (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 303, 43 Stat. 124; July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 2, 44 Stat. 827.)

Section 613 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 613 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 2, 44 Stat. 827, to read as above.

618. Benefits exempt from seizure under process and taxation; [no deductions for indebtedness to United States].—No sum payable under this Act[10] to a veteran or his dependents, or to his estate, or to any beneficiary named under Title V,[37] no adjusted service certificate, and no proceeds of any loan made on such certificate shall be subject to attachment, levy, or seizure under any legal or equitable process, or to national or State taxation, and no deductions on account of any indebtedness of the veteran to the United States shall be made from the adjusted service credit or from any amounts due under this Act.[10] (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 308, 43 Stat. 125; July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 3 (a), 44 Stat. 827.)

Section 618 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 618 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 3 (a), 44 Stat. 827, to read as above.

618a. Definitions; "original credit" and "new credit" defined.—As used in this section[40] the term "original credit" means the amount of the adjusted service credit computed under the World War Adjusted Compensation Act[41] before its amendment by this Act,[10] less amounts deducted on account of any indebtedness of the veteran to the United States; and the term "new credit" means the amount of the adjusted service credit computed under such Act as amended by this Act,[10] without such deduction. (July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 3 (b), 44 Stat. 827.)

New section.

618b. Benefits extended to excess of new credit over original credit when veteran alive.—If the veteran is alive at the time of the enactment of this Act[10] and the benefits of the World War Adjusted Compensation Act[41] have been extended to him, then any excess of the new credit over the original credit shall

[36] "Title VI" should be translated "Part VI of this chapter."
[37] "Title V" should be translated "Part V of this chapter."
[38] "Title IV or V" should be translated "Part IV or V of this chapter."
[40] "This section" should be translated "sections 618 to 618e of this title in the appendix."
[41] Should be translated "chapter 11 of this title in the Code."

be considered as if it were a separate adjusted service credit and the benefits of such Act shall be extended in respect thereof according to the terms of such Act as amended by this Act.[10] (July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 3 (c), 44 Stat. 827.)

New section.

618c. Payment of remainder of original credit and excess of new credit over original credit where veteran died before making application.—If the veteran has died before the enactment of this Act[42] and before making application under section 302 of the World War Adjusted Compensation Act,[43] then if any part of the original credit has been paid to the dependents of the veteran, any remaining part shall be paid as provided in Title VI[44] of such Act as amended by this Act,[10] and any excess of the new credit over the original credit shall be paid in cash in a lump sum to the dependents as provided in Title VI[44] of such Act as amended by this Act.[10] (July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 3 (d), 44 Stat. 827.)

New section.

618d. Method of payment where veteran died after making application.—If the veteran has died before the enactment of this Act[42] after having made application, then—

(1) If the original credit was not over $50 and the new credit is not over $50 payment shall be made as provided in subdivision (d).

(2) If the original credit was not over $50 and the new credit is over $50 then the face value of an adjusted service certificate computed on the basis of the new credit shall be paid to the beneficiary named, or, if the beneficiary died before the veteran and no new beneficiary was named or if no beneficiary was named in the application, then to the estate of the veteran. If in any such case any payments have already been made to the veteran or his dependents, the amount of such payments shall be deducted from the face value of the adjusted service certificate.

(3) If the original credit was over $50 then the face value of an adjusted service certificate computed on the basis of the excess of the new credit over the original credit shall be paid as provided in paragraph (2) of this subdivision.[21] (July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 3 (e), 44 Stat. 827.)

New section.

618e. Payment without administration of decedent's estate.—Wherever under this Act[10] or the World War Adjusted Compensation Act[41] it is provided that payment shall be made by the Director of the United States Veterans' Bureau to the estate of any decedent, such payment, if not over $500, may, under regulations prescribed by the director, be made to the persons found by him to be entitled thereto, without the necessity of compliance with the requirements of law in respect of the administration of such estate. (July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 3 (f), 44 Stat. 828.)

New section.

619. Unlawful fees for services rendered; punishment.—Any person who charges or collects, or attempts to charge or collect, either directly or indirectly, any fee or other compensation for assisting in any manner a veteran, his dependents or other beneficiary under this Act,[10] in obtaining any of the benefits, privileges or loans to which he is entitled under the provisions of this Act,[10] shall, upon conviction thereof, be subject to a fine of not more than $500, or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 309, 43 Stat. 125; July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 4 (a), 44 Stat. 828.)

Section 619 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 619 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 4 (a), 44 Stat. 828, to read as above.

[10] "Act" should be translated "chapter."
[21] "Subdivision" should be translated "section."
[41] Should be translated "chapter 11 of this title in the Code."
[42] July 3, 1926.
[43] Should be translated "section 612 of this title in the Code."
[44] Should be translated "Part VI of this title in the Code."

620. Finality of decisions.—The decisions of the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, and the director, on all matters within their respective jurisdictions under the provisions of this Act[10] (except the duties vested in them by Title VII[45]) shall be final and conclusive. (July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 4 (b), 44 Stat. 828.)

New section.

PART V.—ADJUSTED SERVICE CERTIFICATES

643. Prohibited negotiations or assignments of certificates [punishment].—No certificate issued or right conferred under the provisions of this title[46] shall, except as provided in section 502,[47] be negotiable or assignable or serve as security for a loan. Any negotiation, assignment, or loan made in violation of any provision of this section shall be held void. If any person is named as beneficiary by the veteran as a consideration for the making of a loan to the veteran by such person or any other person, such naming shall be void. Any person who accepts an assignment of a certificate or receives a certificate as security for a loan contrary to the provisions of this title, or who makes a loan to a veteran in consideration of the naming by the veteran of such person or any other person as beneficiary, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction thereof be fined not more than $500 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 503, 43 Stat. 128; July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 5, 44 Stat. 828.)

Section 643 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 643 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 5, 44 Stat. 828, to read as above. The amendment added the last two sentences.

648. Forging, counterfeiting, uttering, etc., of adjusted service certificates; punishment; detection and arrest of violators.—Whoever falsely makes, forges, counterfeits, or alters, or causes or procures to be made, forged, counterfeited, or altered, or willingly aids or assists in falsely making, forging, counterfeiting, or altering an adjusted service certificate issued under authority of this Act,[10] or whoever passes, utters, publishes, or sells, or attempts to pass, utter, publish, or sell, any such false, forged, counterfeited, or altered certificate, with intent to defraud the United States or any person, or whoever has in possession any such falsely made, forged, counterfeited, or altered certificate, with intent to unlawfully use the same, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $5,000 and imprisonment not more than fifteen years. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to direct and use the Secret Service Division of the Treasury Department to detect, arrest, and deliver into the custody of the United States marshal having jurisdiction any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this section. (July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 12, 44 Stat. 830.)

New section.

The statutory provision constituting § 648 of Title 38 of the appendix was added as § 704 to Act of May 19, 1924, c. 157, by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 12, 44 Stat. 830.

649. Destruction or loss of certificate; issuance of duplicate; surrender of original; bond.—Whenever it appears to the director, by evidence clear and satisfactory to him, that any adjusted service certificate has, without bad faith upon the part of the person entitled to payment thereon, been lost, destroyed, wholly or in part, or so defaced as to impair its value to the rightful holder, and such adjusted service certificate is identified by number and description, the director shall under such regulations and with such restrictions as to time and retention for security or otherwise as he may prescribe, issue a duplicate thereof of like value in all respects to the original certificate and so marked as to show the original number of the certificate lost, destroyed, or defaced, and the date

[45] "Title VII" should be translated "Part VII of this chapter."
[46] "Title" should be translated "part."
[47] "Section 502" should be translated "section 642 of this title."

thereof. The lawful holder of such certificate who makes application for a duplicate shall surrender the original, if existing, or so much thereof as may remain and shall file in the United States Veterans' Bureau a bond in a penal sum of the face value of such lost, destroyed, or defaced certificate, with two good and sufficient securities, residents of the United States, to be approved by the director, with condition to indemnify and save harmless the United States from any claim upon such lost, destroyed, or defaced certificate. (July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 13, 44 Stat. 830.)

New section.

The statutory provision constituting § 649 of Title 38 of the appendix was added as § 705 to Act of May 19, 1924, c. 157, by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 13, 44 Stat. 830.

PART VI.—PAYMENTS TO VETERANS' DEPENDENTS

661. Enumeration of preference of dependents.—If the veteran has died before making application under section 302,[48] or, if entitled to receive adjusted service pay, has died after making application but before he has received payment under Title IV,[49] then the amount of his adjusted service credit shall (as soon as practicable after receipt of an application in accordance with the provisions of section 604,[50] but not before March 1, 1925) be paid to his dependents, in the following order of preference:

(1) To the widow;

(2) If no widow entitled to payment, then to the children, share and share alike;

(3) If no widow or children entitled to payment, then to the mother;

(4) If no widow, children, or mother, entitled to payment, then to the father. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 601, 43 Stat. 128; July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 6, 44 Stat. 828.)

Section 661 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 661 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 6, 44 Stat. 828, to read as above.

662. Dependent defined.—(a) No payment under section 601[51] shall be made to a widow if she has remarried before making application, or if at the time of the death of the veteran was living apart from him by reason of her own willful act; nor unless dependent at the time of the death of the veteran or at any time thereafter and before January 2, 1928. The widow shall be presumed to have been dependent at the time of the death of the veteran upon a showing of the martial[52] cohabitation.

(b) Payment under section 601[51] shall be made to a child if (1) under 18 years of age at the time of the death of the veteran, or (2) at any time thereafter and before January 2, 1928, incapable of self-support by reason of mental or physical defect.

(c) No payment under section 601[51] shall be made to a mother or father unless dependent at the time of the death of the veteran or at any time thereafter and before January 2, 1928. If at the time of the death of the veteran or at any time thereafter and before January 2, 1928, the mother is unmarried or over 60 years of age, or the father is over 60 years of age, such mother or father, respectively, shall be presumed to be dependent. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 602, 43 Stat. 129; July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 7, 44 Stat. 829.)

Section 662 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 662 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 7, 44 Stat. 829, to read as above.

665. Same; certificates accompanying transmittal; contents.—(a) As soon as practicable after the receipt of a valid application the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, as the case may be, shall transmit to the director the application and a certificate setting forth—

(1) That a valid application has been received;

(2) The name and address of the applicant;

(3) That the individual upon whom the applicant bases his claim to payment was a veteran;

(4) The name of such veteran and the date and place of his birth; and

(5) The amount of the adjusted service credit of the veteran.

(b) Upon receipt of such certificate the director shall proceed to extend to the applicant the benefits provided in this title if the director finds that the applicant is the dependent entitled thereto. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 605, 43 Stat. 130; July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 8, 44 Stat. 829.)

Section 665 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 665 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 8, 44 Stat. 829, to read as above.

667. "Dependent," "child," "father," "mother," and "widow" defined.—As used in this Act[10]—

(a) The term "dependent" means a widow, widower, child, father, or mother;

(b) The term "child" includes (1) a legitimate child; (2) a child legally adopted; (3) a stepchild, if a member of the veteran's household; (4) an illegitimate child, but, as to the father only, if acknowledged in writing signed by him or if he has been judicially ordered or decreed to contribute to such child's support, or has been judicially decreed to be the putative father of such child;

(c) The terms "father" and "mother" include stepfathers and stepmothers, fathers and mothers through adoption, and persons who have, for a period of not less than one year, stood in loco parentis to the veteran at any time prior to the beginning of his service;

(d) The term "widow" includes widower. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 607, 43 Stat. 130; July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 9, 44 Stat. 829.)

Section 667 of Title 38 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 667 of Title 38 of the Code has been amended by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 9, 44 Stat. 829, to read as above. The amendment added subdivision (d).

668. Payment of lump sum to dependent where adjusted service credit certified to Director.—If the veteran died while in the service and before July 1, 1919, and if an adjusted service credit has been or is, after this section takes effect, certified to the director, then the sum of $60 shall be paid in a lump sum to the dependents of such veteran in the same manner as is provided in sections 601 and 602 of this Act.[53] (July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 10, 44 Stat. 829.)

New section.

669. Effect of amendatory act; payment to dependent; preference.—This Act[54] shall not invalidate any payments made or applications received under the World War Adjusted Compensation Act[55] before the enactment of this Act.[54] Payments under awards heretofore or hereafter made shall be made to the dependent entitled thereto regardless of change in status, unless another dependent establishes to the satisfaction of the director a priority of preference under such Act.[55] as amended by this Act.[54] Upon the establishment of such preference the remaining installments shall be paid to such dependent, but in no case shall the total payments under Title VI of such Act[56] (except section 608[57]) exceed the adjusted service credit of the veteran. (July 3, 1926, c. 751, § 11, 44 Stat. 829.)

New section.

TITLE 39.—THE POSTAL SERVICE

Chapter 1.—POST OFFICES.

Sec.
9. Rewards for detection of post-office burglars.
14. Rental of quarters without formal contract. [New.]

9. Rewards for detection of post-office burglars.

Section 9 of Title 39 repeated.—The statutory provision constituting § 9 of Title 39 of this Code was repeated in Act of Mar. 2, 1926, c. 43, § 1, 44 Stat. 156.

14. Rental of quarters without formal contract.—Hereafter the Postmaster General in his discretion may rent quarters for postal purposes without entering into a formal written contract in any case where the amount of the rental does not exceed $1,000 per annum. (June 3, 1926, c. 455, 44 Stat. 688.)

New section. The Act of June 3, 1926, constituting this section of Title 39 of the appendix was enacted as a new proviso to be added to § 3709 of the Revised Statutes as amended, which appears as § 35 of Title 41, PUBLIC CONTRACTS, of the Code.

Chapter 2.—POSTMASTERS.

Sec.
49. Adjustment of claims of postmasters and Navy mail clerks for losses by burglary and fire.
57. Compensation of postmasters of fourth class.
57a. Postmaster of fourth class; apportionment of compensation on change during fiscal year. [New.]
59. Assignment of fourth-class offices to proper class on increase of receipts.
60. Advancement of fourth-class offices to appropriate class under unusual conditions; reduction to appropriate class.
67. Postmasters as disbursing officers in Alaska. [New.]

49. Adjustment of claims of postmasters and Navy mail clerks for losses by burglary and fire.

Section 49 of Title 39 amended.—The provisions of Act of Mar. 17, 1882, c. 41, § 1, 22 Stat. 29, as amended, constituting § 49 of the Code, have been further amended by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 799, 44 Stat. 903, as follows: "That the Act entitled 'An Act authorizing the Postmaster General to adjust certain claims of postmasters for loss by burglary, fire, or other unavoidable casualty,' approved March 17, 1882, as amended, is amended so as to include losses of customs charges collected on dutiable mail articles, but such Act shall apply only to such losses occurring after April 1, 1924."

57. Compensation of postmasters of fourth class.—The compensation of postmasters of the fourth class shall be fixed upon the basis of the whole of the box rents collected at their offices and commissions upon the amount of canceled postage-due stamps and on postage stamps, stamped envelopes, postal cards, stamps on registry matter, including stamps to cover return receipts, insured and collect-on-delivery matter, canceled, on matter actually mailed at their offices, except the stamps affixed to pay the fees for special delivery service and special handling service, and on that part of the value of the stamps on the mail for transportation by air mail, canceled at their offices, equal to the postage which would be required on such mail at the regular domestic rates, and on the amount of newspaper and periodical postage collected in money, and on the postage collected in money on identical pieces of third and fourth class matter mailed under the provisions of the Act of April 28, 1904,[1] without postage stamps affixed, and on postage collected in money on matter of the first class mailed under provisions of the Act of April 24, 1920,[2] without postage stamps affixed, and on amounts received from waste paper, dead newspapers, printed matter, and twine sold, at the following rates, namely:

On the first $75 or less per quarter the postmaster shall be allowed 160 per centum on the amount; on the next $100 or less per quarter, 85 per centum; and on all the balance, 75 per centum, the same to be ascertained and allowed by the General Accounting Office in the settlement of the accounts of such postmasters upon their sworn quarterly returns: Provided, That in adjusting the quarterly compensation of postmasters of the fourth class the General Accounting Office shall allow such compensation as may be shown by the quarterly returns to be due, not exceeding $275 for the quarter ending September 30, not exceeding $550 for the two quarters ending December 31, not exceeding $825 for the three quarters ending March 31, and not exceeding $1,100 for the whole fiscal year, exclusive of 3 cents commission on each money-order issued. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 142, § 2, 22 Stat. 602; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 1, 43 Stat. 1054; June 4, 1926, c. 476, 44 Stat. 695.)

Section 57 of Title 39 amended.—The provision of Act of Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 1, 43 Stat. 1054, constituting § 57 of Title 39 of the Code, has been amended by Act of June 4, 1926, c. 476, 44 Stat. 695, entitled "An Act to amend the Act of February 28, 1925, fixing the compensation of fourth-class postmasters," to read as above.

57a. Postmaster of fourth class; apportionment of compensation on change during fiscal year.—Whenever during the fiscal year there occurs or is created a change in the postmastership of an office of the fourth class, by death or otherwise, the outgoing postmaster shall receive in the final settlement of his account all his earned compensation for that part of the fiscal year which he has served, but in no case shall such compensation amount to more than such a sum as is determined by taking such a fractional part of $1,100 as the time he has served in that fiscal year is to the whole fiscal year. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 1, 43 Stat. 1055, June 4, 1926, c. 476, 44 Stat. 696.)

New section.

59. Assignment of fourth-class offices to proper class on increase of receipts.—When the total compensation of any postmaster at a post office of the fourth class for the calendar year shall amount to $1,100, exclusive of 3 cents commission on each money-order issued, and the receipts of such post office for the same period shall aggregate as much as $1,500, the office shall be assigned to its proper class on July 1 following and the salary of the postmaster fixed according to the receipts. (May 18, 1916, c. 126, § 16, 39 Stat. 163; July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 418; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 1, 43 Stat. 1055; June 4, 1926, c. 476, 44 Stat. 696.)

Section 59 of Title 39 amended.—The provision of Act of Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 1, 43 Stat. 1055, constituting § 59 of Title 39 of the Code, has been amended by Act of June 4, 1926, c. 476, 44 Stat. 696, entitled "An Act to amend the Act of February 28, 1925, fixing the compensation of fourth-class postmasters," to read as above.

60. Advancement of fourth-class offices to appropriate class under unusual conditions; reduction to appropriate class.—Whenever unusual conditions prevail, the Postmaster General, in his discretion, may advance any post office from the fourth class to the appropriate class indicated by the receipts of the preceding quarter, notwithstanding the proviso which requires the compensation of fourth-class postmasters to reach $1,100 for the calendar year, exclusive of commission on each money order issued, and that the receipts of such post office for the same period shall aggregate as much as $1,500 before such advancement is made: And provided further, That when the Postmaster General has exercised the authority herein granted he shall, whenever the receipts are no longer sufficient to justify retaining such post office in the class to which it has been advanced, reduce the grade of such office to the appropriate class indicated by its receipts for the last preceding quarter. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 1, 43 Stat. 1055; June 4, 1926, c. 476, 44 Stat. 696.)

Section 60 of Title 39 amended.—The provision of Act of Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 1, 43 Stat. 1055, constituting § 60 of Title 39 of the Code, has been amended by Act of June 4, 1926, c. 476, 44 Stat. 696, entitled, "An Act to amend the Act of February 28, 1925, fixing the compensation of fourth-class postmasters," to read as above.

67. Postmasters as disbursing officers in Alaska.—Postmasters may be designated by the Postmaster General as disbursing officers for the payment of contractors, emergency carriers, and temporary carriers, for performance of authorized service on power boat and star routes in Alaska. (Apr. 23, 1926, c. 174, 44 Stat. 321.)

New section.

Chapter 7.—POSTAGE.

Sec.
301. Special joint congressional committee to investigate postal rates.
302. Postage on hotel and steamship room keys. [New.]

301. Special joint congressional committee to investigate postal rates.

Section 301 of Title 39 amended.—The provision of Act of Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, Title II, § 217, 43 Stat. 1070, constituting § 301 of Title 39 of the Code, has been amended by resolution of Dec. 17, 1925, c. 2, 44 Stat. 1, as follows: "That section 217 of the Act[8] reclassifying the salaries of postmasters and employees of the Postal Service, readjusting their salaries and compensation on an equitable basis, increasing postal rates to provide for such readjustment, and for other purposes (Public, Numbered 506, Sixty-eighth Congress), approved February 28, 1925, is hereby extended and continued in full force and effect until not later than the end of the second week of the second regular session of the Sixty-ninth Congress."

302. Postage on hotel and steamship room keys.—On hotel and steamship room keys with metal or fiber tags securely attached thereto, there being indelibly stamped upon such tags explicit post-office address and instructions directing that key and tag be returned to the hotel or steamship of their origin, postage shall be charged at the rate of 5 cents for each two ounces or fraction thereof if postage be collected on delivery. (July 3, 1926, c. 778, 44 Stat. 890.)

New section. The title of the Act constituting the section is "An Act fixing postage rates on hotel and steamship room keys and tags."

Chapter 12.—CONTRACTS FOR CARRYING THE MAILS.

443. Fining contractors.—The Postmaster General may make deductions from the pay of contractors for failure to perform service according to contract and impose fines upon them for other delinquencies, which deductions or fines may be changed or remitted, in his discretion. He may deduct the price of the trip in all cases where the trip is not performed and not exceeding three times the price if the failure be occasioned by the fault of the contractor or carrier. (R. S. § 3962; May 11, 1926, c. 284, 44 Stat. 499.)

Section 443 of Title 39 amended.—The provision of R. S. § 3962, constituting § 443 of Title 39 of the Code, has been amended by Act of May 11, 1926, c. 284, 44 Stat. 499, entitled "An Act authorizing the Postmaster General to remit or change deductions or fines imposed upon contractors for mail service," to read as above.

The amendment affected the first sentence by inserting, after the word "delinquencies," the words "which deductions or fines may be changed or remitted, in his discretion."

R. S. § 3962, here amended, was derived from the Act of June 8, 1872, c. 335, 17 Stat. 315.

Chapter 13.—AIR MAIL.

464. Same; contracts for transportation of air mail.—The Postmaster General is authorized to contract with any individual, firm, or corporation for the transportation of air mail by aircraft between such points as he may designate, and to further contract for the transportation by aircraft of first-class mail other than air mail at fixed rates per pound, including equipment, under such rates, rules, and regulations as he may prescribe, not exceeding $3 per pound for air mail for the first one thousand miles and not to exceed 30 cents per pound additional for each additional one hundred miles or fractional part thereof for routes in excess of one thousand miles in length, and not exceeding 60 cents per pound for first-class mail other than air mail for the first one thousand miles, and not to exceed 6 cents per pound additional for each additional one hundred miles or fractional part thereof for routes in excess of one thousand miles in length. Existing contracts may be amended by the written consent of the contractor and the Postmaster General to provide for a fixed rate per pound, including equipment, said rate to be determined by multiplying the rate hereinabove provided by a fraction, the numerator of which is the per centum of revenues derived from air mail to which the contractor was previously entitled under the contract, and the denominator of which is eighty. (Mar. 1, 1921, c. 88, § 1, 41 Stat. 1152; Feb. 2, 1925, c. 128, § 4, 43 Stat. 805; June 3, 1926, c. 460, 44 Stat. 692.)

Section 464 of Title 39 amended.—The provisions of Act of Feb. 2, 1925, c. 128, § 4, 43 Stat. 805, constituting § 464 of Title 39 of the Code, has been amended by Act of June 3, 1926, c. 460, 44 Stat. 692, entitled "An Act to amend section 4 of the Air Mail Act of February 2, 1925, so as to enable the Postmaster General to make contracts for the transmission of mail by aircraft at fixed rates per pound," to read as above.

Chapter 15.—RAILWAY SERVICE.

577. Lease of terminal railway post offices.—The Postmaster General may apply a part of the appropriation for rental of space for terminal railway post offices for the distribution of the mails when the furnishing of space for such distribution can not properly be required of railroad companies without additional compensation, to the purpose of leasing premises for the use of terminal railway post offices at a reasonable annual rental, to be paid monthly, for a term not exceeding twenty years. (Mar. 9, 1914, c. 33, 38 Stat. 301; Apr. 24, 1920, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 580; June 3, 1926, c. 456, 44 Stat. 688.)

Section 577 of Title 39 amended.—The provision of Act of Apr. 24, 1920, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 580, constituting § 577 of Title 39 of the Code, has been amended by Act of June 3, 1926, c. 456, 44 Stat. 688, entitled "An Act authorizing the Postmaster General to make monthly payment of rental for terminal railway post-office premises under lease," providing as follows: "That the proviso attached to the appropriation available for rental of space for terminal railway post offices in the Post Office Appropriation Act, approved April 24, 1920 (Forty-first Statutes, page 580), is amended by striking out the word 'quarterly' and inserting in lieu thereof the word 'monthly,' so that said proviso will read as follows:"

The change has been incorporated in the text.

Chapter 17.—FOREIGN MAIL SERVICE.

654. Pay for transporting.—(a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), for transportation of the mails, (1) between the United States or its Territories or possessions and any foreign country, (2) between the United States and its possessions or its naval or military forces abroad, or (3) between any such possession or naval or military forces and any other such possession or naval or military forces, the Postmaster General may allow, in the case of a vessel of the United States, compensation not in excess of the amount of the postage collected on the mail transported on such vessel, and in the case of a foreign vessel, compensation not in excess of the sea transit rates prescribed from time to time by the Universal Postal Union Convention.

[8] "Section 217 of the Act" should be translated "section 301 of this title."

(b) The provisions of subdivision (a) of this section shall not limit the compensation for transportation of mail which the Postmaster General may pay under contracts entered into in accordance with the provisions of section 4007 of the Revised Statutes[4] or section 24 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920.[5]

(c) In the case of mails transported between the United States or its Territories or possessions and any foreign country and in the case of mails transported between the United States and its possessions or its naval or military force abroad, or between any such possession or naval or military force and any other such possession or naval or military forces, payment for such transportation shall be made out of the appropriation for the transportation of foreign mails. (R. S. § 4009; July 3, 1926, c. 793, 44 Stat. 900.)

Section 654 of Title 39 amended.—The provision of R. S. § 4009, constituting § 654 of Title 39 of the Code, has been amended by Act of July 3, 1926, c. 793, 44 Stat. 900, to read as above.

Chapter 18.—POST-OFFICE INSPECTORS.

692. Post-office inspectors; appointment.

Section 692 of Title 39 repeated in part.—The statutory provision constituting § 692 of Title 39 has been repeated in part by Act of Mar. 2, 1926, c. 43, § 1, 44 Stat. 156. The repeated part of the provision begins after the semicolon.

[4] "Section 4007 of the Revised Statutes" should be translated "section 652 of this title."

Chapter 22.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE POSTAL SERVICE.

813a. Reward for invention or suggestion increasing efficiency authorized; limitation; execution of release.—The Postmaster General is hereby authorized to pay a cash reward for any invention, suggestion, or series of suggestions for an improvement or economy in device, design, or process applicable to the Postal Service submitted by one or more employees of the Post Office Department or the Postal Service which shall be adopted for use and will clearly effect a material economy or increase efficiency, and for that purpose the sum of $2,500 is hereby appropriated: Provided, That the sums so paid to employees in accordance with this Act[6] shall be in addition to their usual compensation: Provided further, That the total amount paid under the provisions of this Act[6] shall not exceed $1,000 in any month or for any one invention or suggestion: Provided further, That no employee shall be paid a reward under this Act[6] until he has properly executed an agreement to the effect that the use by the United States of the invention, suggestion, or series of suggestions made by him shall not form the basis of a further claim of any nature upon the United States by him, his heirs, or assigns: Provided further, That this appropriation shall be available for no other purpose. (Mar. 2, 1926, c. 43, 44 Stat. 156.)

New section. This section is from the Treasury and Post Office Departments Appropriation Act of Mar. 2, 1926, c. 43, 44 Stat. 156, and constitutes § 813a of this title of the appendix.

25. Rentals for gas governors.

Section 25 of Title 40 repeated.—The statutory provision constituting § 25 of Title 40 of the Code was repeated in the Treasury, etc., Appropriation Act of Mar. 2, 1926, c. 43, § 1, 44 Stat. 154.

26. Inspection of gas and electric meters.

Section 26 of Title 40 repeated.—The statutory provision constituting § 26 of Title 40 of the Code was repeated in the Legislative Appropriation Act of May 13, 1926, c. 294, § 1, 44 Stat. 546.

71. Park and playground system; National Capital Park and Planning Commission.—(a) To develop a comprehensive, consistent, and coordinated plan for the National Capital and its environs in the States of Maryland and Virginia, to preserve the flow of water in Rock Creek, to prevent pollution of Rock Creek and the Potomac and Anacostia Rivers, to preserve forests and natural scenery in and about Washington, and to provide for the comprehensive, systematic, and continuous development of park, parkway, and playground systems of the National Capital and its environs there is hereby constituted a commission to be known as the National Capital Park and Planning Commission, composed of the Chief of Engineers of the Army, the Engineer Commissioner of the District of Columbia, the Director of the National Park Service, the Chief of the Forest Service, the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital, the chairmen of the Committees on the District of Columbia of the Senate and House of Representatives, and four eminent citizens well qualified and experienced in city planning, one of whom shall be a bona fide resident of the District of Columbia, to be appointed for the term of six years by the President of the United States: Provided, That the first members appointed under this Act shall continue in office for terms of three, four, five, and six years, respectively, from the date of the passage of this Act, the terms of each to be designated by the President; but their successors shall be appointed for terms of six years, except that any person chosen to fill a vacancy shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of the member whom he shall succeed. All members of the said commission shall serve without compensation therefor, but each shall be paid actual expenses of subsistence not in excess of $10 per day and of travel when attending meetings of said commission or engaged in investigations pertaining to its activities. At the close of each Congress the presiding officer of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint, respectively, a Senator and a Representative elect to the succeeding Congress to serve as members of this commission until the chairmen of the committees of the succeeding Congress shall be chosen. The Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital shall be executive and disbursing officer of said commission.

(b) Duties; employment of personal services and experts.—That the said commission is hereby charged with the duty of preparing, developing, and maintaining a comprehensive, consistent, and coordinated plan for the National Capital and its environs, which plan shall include recommendations to the proper executive authorities as to traffic and transportation; plats and subdivisions; highways, parks, and parkways; school and library sites; playgrounds; drainage, sewerage, and water supply; housing, building, and zoning regulations; public and private buildings; bridges and water fronts; commerce and industry; and other proper elements of city and regional planning. It is the purpose of this Act to obtain the maximum amount of cooperation and correlation of effort between the departments, bureaus, and commissions of the Federal and District Governments. To this end plans and records, or copies thereof, shall be made available to the National Capital Park and Planning Commission, when requested. The commission may, as to the environs of the District of Columbia, act in conjunction and cooperation with such representatives of the States of Maryland and Virginia as may be designated by such States for this purpose. The said commission is hereby authorized to employ the necessary personal services, including the personal services of a director of planning and other expert city planners, such as engineers, architects, and landscape architects. Such technical experts may be employed at per diem rates not in excess of those paid for similar services elsewhere and as may be fixed by the said commission without regard to the provisions of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act for the classification of civilian positions within the District of Columbia and in the field services," approved March 4, 1923,[1] and amendments thereto, or any rule or regulation made in pursuance thereof.

(c) Highway Commission abolished; powers and duties transferred.—The commission established by section 2 of the Act entitled "An Act to provide a permanent system of highways in that part of the District of Columbia lying outside of cities" (Twenty-seventh Statutes at Large, pages 532 and 533), known as the Highway Commission, is hereby abolished, and all the functions, powers, and duties conferred and imposed upon said Highway Commission by law are hereby transferred to and conferred and imposed upon the National Capital Park and Planning Commission hereby constituted, and all records of said Highway Commission are hereby transferred to said National Capital Park and Planning Commission.

(d) Authorities and duties of National Capital Park Commission transferred.—All authority, powers, and duties conferred and imposed by law on the National Capital Park Commission shall hereafter be held, exercised, and performed by the National Capital Park and Planning Commission hereby constituted. All appropriations heretofore made for expenditure by the National Capital Park Commission are hereby made available for the use of the commission hereby constituted. (June 6, 1924, c. 270, § 1, 43 Stat. 463; April 30, 1926, c. 198, 44 Stat. 374.)

Section 71 of Title 40 of Code amended.—The Act of June 6, 1924, c. 270, § 1, 43 Stat. 463, constituting § 71 of Title 40 of the Code, was amended by Act of Apr. 30, 1926, cited to the text, to read as set out above.

115. Disposition of proceeds of sale of fuel.

Section 115 of Title 40 repeated.—The statutory provision constituting § 115 of Title 40 of the Code was repeated in the State, etc., Appropriation Act of Apr. 29, 1926, c. 195, Title III, 44 Stat. 368.

[1] For Act of Mar. 4, 1923, see c. 13 of Title 5 of the Code.

117. Appropriations for fuel yard and garage; use of.

The "First Deficiency Act, fiscal year 1926," Act Mar. 3, 1926, c. 44, § 1, 44 Stat. 173, contains the following provisions:

"So much of the Interior Department Appropriation Act for the fiscal year 1924 as requires the garage therein authorized to be constructed to be used jointly by the Government fuel yards and the Department of the Interior, and as requires that the Department of the Interior shall from applicable appropriations reimburse the appropriations for the fuel yards for its proportionate share of the expense of maintaining and operating the garage mentioned, is hereby repealed.

"* * * The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to reimburse therefrom the Government fuel yards the amount expended from its appropriation for rental of garage for use of the Interior Department during said period, or any part thereof."

120a. Use and supervision of motor and horse-drawn vehicles; purchase or exchange.—All of said motor vehicles and all other motor vehicles provided for in this Act[2] and all horse-drawn carriages and buggies owned by the District of Columbia shall be used only for purposes directly pertaining to the public services of said District, and shall be under the direction and control of the commissioners, who may from time to time alter or change the assignment for use thereof or direct the joint or interchangeable use of any of the same by officials and employees of the District, except as otherwise provided in this Act: Provided, That with the exception of motor vehicles for the police and fire departments, no automobile shall be acquired under any provision of this Act, by purchase or exchange at a cost, including the value of a vehicle exchanged, exceeding $650, except as may be herein specifically authorized. No motor vehicles shall be transferred from the police or fire departments to any other branch of the government of the District of Columbia. (May 10, 1926, c. 276, § 1, 44 Stat. 422.)

Chapter 6.—ACQUISITION OF SITES FOR AND CONSTRUCTION OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

Sec.

341. Secretary of Treasury authorized to acquire sites for and construct public buildings. [New.]
342. Duties of Office of the Supervising Architect; employment of assistance; compensation; expenses. [New.]
343. Acquisition of sites and construction of public buildings in numerous cities. [New.]
344. Submission of estimates to Bureau of Budget; basis of allocation; availability of moneys essential to letting contracts; report to Congress. [New.]
345. Appropriations and expenditures; method of acquisition and disposition of sites and buildings. [New.]
346. Public Buildings Commission; jurisdiction and powers. [New.]
347. Survey of public-building conditions. [New.]
348. Acquisition of quarantine site at New Orleans. [New.]

341. Secretary of Treasury authorized to acquire sites for and construct public buildings.—To enable the Secretary of the Treasury to provide suitable accommodations in the District of Columbia for the executive departments, and independent establishments of the Government not under any executive department, and for courthouses, postoffices, immigration stations, customhouses, marine hospitals, quarantine stations, and other public buildings of the classes under the control of the Treasury Department in the States, Territories, and possessions of the United States, he is hereby authorized and directed to acquire, by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, such sites and additions to sites as he may deem necessary, and to cause to be constructed thereon, and upon lands belonging to the Government conveniently located and available for the purpose (but exclusive of military or naval reservations), adequate and suitable buildings for any of the foregoing purposes, giving preference, where he considers conditions justify such action, to cases where sites for public buildings have heretofore been acquired or authorized to be acquired, and to enlarge, remodel, and extend existing public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department, and to purchase buildings, if found to be adequate, adaptable, and suitable for the purposes of this Act[5] together with the sites thereof, and to remodel, enlarge, or extend such buildings and provide proper approaches and other necessary improvements to the sites thereof. When a building is about to be constructed on a site heretofore acquired and such site is found by the Secretary of the Treasury to be unsuitable for its intended purpose, he is hereby further authorized and empowered to acquire a new site in lieu thereof by purchase, condemnation, exchange, or otherwise, and except in case of exchange to dispose of the present site by public sale and to execute the necessary quitclaim deed of conveyance: Provided, however, That the Secretary of the Treasury is also authorized to acquire a site for a building for the Supreme Court of the United States: Provided further, That aside from land that may be acquired for a site for a building for the Supreme Court of the United States, and for enlarging the site of the Government Printing Office, or erecting a storage warehouse or warehouses, the sum of $50,000,000, hereinafter authorized for projects in the District of Columbia, shall be used exclusively for the purpose of acquiring by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, south of Pennsylvania Avenue and west of Maryland Avenue, projected in a straight line to Twining Lake, such sites or additions to sites as the Secretary of the Treasury may deem necessary to provide such suitable office accommodations in the District of Columbia as are hereinbefore mentioned, of constructing adequate and suitable buildings for the furnishing of such office accommodations on said sites or additions to sites, or on sites already owned by the Government south of Pennsylvania Avenue and west of Maryland Avenue, as above mentioned, and of providing suitable approaches to said buildings, and beautifying and embellishing their surroundings as nearly in harmony with the plan of Peter Charles L'Enfant as may be practicable. Said buildings shall be so constructed as to combine high standards of architectural beauty and practical utility: Provided, That in carrying into effect the provisions of this Act,[5] in so far as relates to buildings to be used in whole or in part for post-office purposes, the Secretary of the Treasury, under regulations to be prescribed by him, shall act jointly with the Postmaster General in the selection of towns or cities in which buildings are to be constructed and the selection of sites therein: Provided further, That all sketches, plans, and estimates for buildings shall be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury and the heads of the executive departments which are to be located in such building.

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to carry on the construction work herein authorized by contract, or otherwise, as he deems most advantageous to the United States.

In all cases where the construction of buildings in the District of Columbia, under the provisions of this Act,[5] requires the utilization, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury, of contiguous squares as sites thereof, authority is hereby given for closing and vacating such portions of streets as lie between such squares and such alleys as intersect such squares, and the portions of such streets and alleys so closed and vacated shall thereupon become parts of such sites. (May 25, 1926, c. 380, § 1, 44 Stat. 630.)

New section.

342. Duties of Office of Supervising Architect; employment of assistance; compensation; expenses.—(a) The work of preparing designs and other drawings, estimates, specifications, and awarding of contracts, as well as the supervision of the work authorized under the provisions of this Act,[5] shall be performed by the Office of the Supervising Architect, Treasury Department, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, except as otherwise provided in this Act.[5]

(b) When deemed by him advantageous the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized, in special cases, (1) to procure by contract the floor plans and designs of buildings developed sufficiently to serve as guides for the preparation of working drawings and specifications, or to employ advisory assistance involving design or engineering features, and (2) to employ, to the extent deemed necessary by him in connection with the construction of buildings for the Departments of Commerce and Labor, the architects who were successful in competition heretofore held for a building for the then Department of Commerce and Labor, and to pay reasonable compensation for such services.

(c) The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to employ such additional technical, scientific, and clerical assistance in or under the Office of the Supervising Architect, both in the District of Columbia and in the field, as he deems necessary, and to fix such rates of compensation therefor as he deems proper, not, however, in excess of the maximum rates paid for the same or similar service in other departments, such employment to be made in accordance with the civil service laws, rules, and regulations, and to submit to Congress through customary channels, estimates for appropriations for compensation for such personal services, and for travel, subsistence, and other expenses involved in making any investigation or survey of building conditions or in the examination of sites which he may find to be necessary. (May 25, 1926, c. 280, § 2, 44 Stat. 631.)

343. Acquisition of sites and construction of public buildings in numerous cities.—The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to carry into effect the provisions of existing law authorizing the acquisition of land for sites or enlargements thereof, and the erection, enlargement, extension, and remodeling of public buildings thereon in the following cities: Juneau, Alaska; Globe, Arizona; Prescott, Arkansas; Red Bluff and San Pedro, California; Durango, Colorado; Branford and Putnam, Connecticut; Marianna, Florida; West Point, Georgia; Coeur d'Alene and Sandpoint, Idaho; Batavia, Metropolis, Mount Carmel, and Paxton, Illinois; Des Moines, Iowa; Shelbyville, Kentucky; Caribou and Fort Fairfield, Maine; Leominster, Malden, Newburyport, Southbridge, Waltham, and Winchester, Massachusetts; Wyandotte, Michigan; Montevideo, Minnesota; Central City, Nebraska; Fallon and Goldfield, Nevada; Bayonne, East Orange, Millville, and Montclair, New Jersey; East Las Vegas, New Mexico; Fort Plain, Long Island City, Syracuse, and Yonkers, New York; Wilson, North Carolina; Jamestown, North Dakota; Akron, Fremont, and Wilmington, Ohio; Donora, Lewistown, McKees Rocks, Olyphant, Sayre, Tamaqua, Tarentum, and Waynesburg, Pennsylvania; Lancaster, South Carolina; Chamberlain, South Dakota; Athens, Tennessee; Seattle, Washington; Williamson, West Virginia; Madison and Tomah, Wisconsin; Buffalo and Cody, Wyoming; Saint Louis, Missouri; Newark, New Jersey; Utica, New York; Missoula, Montana; additional building for the marine hospital at Chicago, Illinois; medical officers' quarters at the Marine hospital at Savannah, Georgia; construction of marine hospital facilities at Detroit, Michigan. The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to disregard the limit of cost fixed by Congress for each of said projects, to purchase additional land for enlargement of sites, and for such purposes to expend in addition to the amounts heretofore appropriated such additional sums of money for each of said projects as he shall deem advisable, not exceeding in the aggregate $15,000,000:

[5] "This Act" should be translated "sections 341 to 348 of this title in the appendix."

[5] "This Act" should be translated "sections 341 to 348 of this title in the appendix."

Provided, That in constructing the buildings embraced herein the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized, in his discretion, to provide space in such buildings for other activities or branches of the public service not specifically enumerated in the Act or Acts authorizing the acquisition of the sites, or the construction of the buildings, or both: Provided further, That in carrying into effect the provisions of this section, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and empowered to enter into contracts for all or so many of said buildings as may be possible within the total additional limit of $15,000,000 hereinbefore authorized. (May 25, 1926, c. 380, § 3, 44 Stat. 632.)

New section.

344. Submission of estimates to Bureau of Budget; basis of allocation; availability of moneys essential to letting contracts; report to Congress.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall submit annually and from time to time as may be required estimates to the Bureau of the Budget, in accordance with the provisions of the Budget and Accounting Act, 1921,[6] showing in complete detail the various amounts it is proposed to expend under the authority of this Act[5] during the fiscal year for which said estimates are submitted, which shall include a statement of the location of the buildings proposed to be erected, together with a limit of cost for the same: Provided, That in submitting such estimates the Secretary of the Treasury shall allocate the amounts proposed to be expended to the different States where buildings are found by him to be necessary, in such a manner as to distribute the same fairly on the basis of area, population, and postal receipts: Provided further, That unless specifically provided for in the Act making appropriations for public buildings, which provision is hereby authorized, no contract for the construction, enlarging, remodeling, or extension of any building or for the purchase of land authorized by this Act[5] shall be entered into until monies in the Treasury shall be made available for the payment of all obligations arising out of such contract, and unless the said Act making appropriations for public buildings shall otherwise specifically provide, as hereinafter authorized, appropriations shall be made, and expended by the Secretary of the Treasury, in accordance with the estimates submitted by the Bureau of the Budget: Provided further, That the Act making said appropriations may provide for any other buildings contained in the annual report of the Secretary of the Treasury hereinafter provided for: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Treasury shall also, in addition to submitting estimates to the Bureau of the Budget as herein provided, make an annual report to Congress containing a statement of the location of all public buildings which he and the Postmaster General (where his department is involved) deem necessary to be constructed under the provisions of this Act[5] together with a limit of cost for the same: Provided further, That the foregoing provisos shall not apply to buildings or their modification heretofore provided for by Act of Congress: Provided further, That at least two buildings shall be estimated for during the period covered by this Act[5] in each State for post offices with receipts of more than $10,000 during the last preceding year, for which post offices no public buildings have been provided. (May 25, 1926, c. 380, § 4, 44 Stat. 632.)

New section.

345. Appropriations and expenditures; method of acquisition and disposition of sites and buildings.—For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act[5] the sum of $150,000,000, in addition to the amount authorized in section 3 hereof, is hereby authorized to be appropriated, but under this authorization, and from appropriations (exclusive of appropriations made for "remodeling and enlarging public buildings"), heretofore made for the acquisition of sites for, or the construction, enlarging, remodeling, or extension of, public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department, not more than $25,000,000, in the aggregate shall be expended annually: Provided, That such amount as is necessary, not to exceed $50,000,000 of the total amount authorized to be expended under the provisions of this Act[5] shall be available for projects in the District of Columbia, and not more than $10,000,000 thereof shall be expended annually: Provided, That at least one-third of the expenditures outside of the District of Columbia during the fiscal year 1927 shall be for the buildings heretofore authorized and at least one-third of the expenditures for the fiscal year 1928, and at least one-third of the expenditures for the fiscal year 1929, shall be for a like purpose unless a less amount shall be necessary to complete all of such buildings: Provided further, That expenditures outside the District of Columbia under the provisions of this section shall not exceed the sum of $5,000,000 annually in any one of the States, Territories, or possessions of the United States.

In each of the cities in which a site is to be acquired under the provisions of this Act,[5] the Secretary of the Treasury shall solicit proposals by public advertisement. Such advertisement shall be published for a period of twenty days in one of the newspapers in said city having the largest circulation, for the sale of lands suitable for the purpose. The Secretary of the Treasury shall cause the sites offered, and such others as may be found to be suitable or desirable for the purpose, to be examined in person by an agent employed or detailed for the purpose, who shall make written report to said Secretary of the results of said examination and of his recommendation thereon and the reasons therefor, which shall be accompanied by the original proposals and all maps, plats, and statements which shall have come into his possession relating to the said proposed sites.

That in case a site or additions to a site acquired under the provisions of this Act[5] contains a building or buildings, the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to rent until their removal becomes necessary such of said buildings as may be purchased by the Government, or the land on which the same may be located where the buildings are reserved by the vendors, at a fair rental value, the proceeds thereof to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States, and a report of the proceedings to be submitted to Congress annually.

That, so far as practicable, all buildings constructed, enlarged, or extended under the provisions of this Act[5] shall be unexposed to danger of fire from adjacent buildings by an open space of at least forty feet on each side, including streets and alleys: Provided, That the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, acquire sites on which an open space of the extent hereinbefore specified can not be reserved, and he is likewise authorized, whenever in his judgment such action is necessary and warranted, to reduce the open space about any Federal building heretofore constructed and under the custody and control of said department.

In carrying into effect the provisions of this Act,[5] if the Secretary of the Treasury deems it to be to the best interests of the Government to construct Federal buildings to take the place of existing Federal buildings, he is hereby authorized to cause the present buildings to be demolished, in order that the sites may be utilized in whole or in part for such buildings, or where in his judgment it is more advantageous to construct a Federal building on a different site in the same city, to sell

INSTITUTION AND CONSTRUCTION OF PROJECTS

411a. Construction of dams; employment of consulting engineers.—That the Secretary of the Interior is authorized, in his judgment and discretion, to employ for consultation on the plans and specifications for any dam proposed to be constructed by the Department of the Interior, the services of not more than three experienced engineers, determined by him to have the necessary qualifications, without regard to civil-service requirements and at rates of compensation to be fixed by him for each, respectively, but not to exceed $50 per day and necessary traveling expenses, including a per diem of not to exceed $6 in lieu of subsistence for each engineer respectively, not exceeding in the aggregate more than $3,500 for any engineer so employed for the time employed and actually engaged upon such work: Provided, That retired officers of the Army may be employed by the Secretary of the Interior as consulting engineers in accordance with the provisions of this Act.[5] (June 28, 1926, c. 704, 44 Stat. 776.)

New section.

ADMINISTRATION OF EXISTING PROJECTS

423. Permanently unproductive lands; exclusion from project; disposition of water right.—All lands found by the classification to be permanently unproductive shall be excluded from the project and no water shall be delivered to them after the date of such exclusion unless and until they are restored to the project. Except as herein otherwise provided, the water right formerly appurtenant to such permanently unproductive lands shall be disposed of by the United States under the reclamation law: Provided, That the water users on the projects shall have a preference right to the use of the water: And provided further, That any surplus water temporarily available may be furnished upon a rental basis for use on lands excluded from the project under this section, on terms and conditions to be approved by the Secretary of the Interior. (May 25, 1926, c. 383, § 41, 44 Stat. 647.)

New section.

423a. Construction charges already paid; disposition of.—The construction charges heretofore paid on permanently unproductive lands excluded from the project shall be applied as a credit on charges due or to become due on any remaining irrigable land covered by the same water-right contract or land taken in exchange as provided in section 44 of this Act.[6] If the charges so paid exceed the amount of all water-right charges due and unpaid, plus the construction charges not yet due, the balance shall be paid in cash to the holder of the water-right contract covering the land so excluded or to the irrigation district affected; which in turn shall be charged with the responsibility of making suitable adjustment with the landowners involved. Should all the irrigable lands of a water-right applicant be excluded from the project as permanently unproductive, and no exchange be made as provided in section 44 hereof,[6] the total construction charges heretofore paid, less any accrued charges on account of operation and maintenance, shall be refunded in cash, the water-right contract shall be canceled, and all liens on account of water-right charges shall be released. (May 25, 1926, c. 383, § 42, 44 Stat. 647.)

New section.

423b. Temporarily unproductive lands; suspension of payment of construction charges.—The payment of all construction charges against said areas temporarily unproductive shall remain suspended until the Secretary of the Interior shall declare them to be possessed of sufficient productive power properly to be placed in a paying class, whereupon payment of construction charges against such areas shall be resumed or shall begin as the case may be. While said lands are so classified as temporarily unproductive and the construction charges against them are suspended, water for irrigation purposes may be furnished upon payment of the usual operation and maintenance charges, or such other charges as may be fixed by the Secretary of the Interior the advance payment of which may be required, in the discretion of the said Secretary. Should said lands temporarily classed as unproductive, or any of them, in the future be found by the Secretary of the Interior to be permanently unproductive, the charges against them shall be charged off as a permanent loss to the reclamation fund and they shall thereupon be treated in the same manner as other permanently unproductive lands as provided in this Act.[7] (May 25, 1926, c. 383, § 43, 44 Stat. 647.)

New section.

423c. Exchange of unpatented entries; entries, farms or private lands eliminated from project; rights not assignable; rights of lienholders; preference to ex-service men.—Settlers who have unpatented entries under any of the public land laws embracing lands which have been eliminated from the project, or whose entries under water rights have been so reduced that the remaining area is insufficient to support a family, shall be entitled to exchange their entries for other public lands within the same project or any other existing Federal reclamation project, with credit under the homestead laws for residence, improvement, and cultivation made or performed by them upon their original entries and with credit upon the new entry for any construction charges paid upon or in connection with the original entry: Provided, That when satisfactory final proof has been made on the original entry it shall not be necessary to submit final proof upon the lieu entry. Any entryman whose entry or farm unit is reduced by the elimination of permanently unproductive land shall be entitled to enter an equal amount of available public land on the same project contiguous to or in the vicinity of the farm unit reduced by elimination, with all credits in this section hereinbefore specified in lieu of the lands eliminated. Owners of private lands so eliminated from the project may, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, and free from all encumbrances, relinquish and convey to the United States lands so owned and held by them, not exceeding an area of one hundred and sixty acres, and select an equal area of vacant public land within the irrigable area of the same or any other Federal reclamation project, with credit upon the construction costs of the lands selected to the extent and in the amount paid upon or in connection with their relinquished lands, and the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to revise and consolidate farm units, so far as this may be made necessary or advisable, with a view to carrying out the provisions of this section: Provided further, That the rights extended under this section shall not be assignable: And provided further, That in administering the provisions of this section and section 42,[8] the Secretary of the Interior shall take into consideration the rights and interests of lien holders, as to him may seem just and equitable: Provided further, That where two entrymen apply for the same farm unit under the exchange provisions of this section, only one[9] whom is an ex-service man, as defined by the joint resolution of January 21, 1922 (Forty-second Statutes, page 358),[10] the ex-service man shall have a preference in making such exchange. (May 25, 1926, c. 383, § 44, 44 Stat. 648.)

New section.

423d. Amendment of existing water-right contracts by Secretary of Interior; conclusiveness of Secretary's decision.—The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to amend any existing water-right contract to the extent necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act,[7] upon request of the holder of such contract. The Secretary of the Interior, as a condition precedent to the amendment of any existing water-right contract, shall require the execution of a contract by a water-users' association or irrigation district whereby such association or irrigation district shall be required to pay to the United States, without regard to default in the payment of charges against any individual farm unit or tract of irrigable land, the entire charges against all productive lands remaining in the project after the permanently unproductive lands shall have been eliminated and the charges against temporarily unproductive areas shall have been suspended in the manner and to the extent authorized and directed by this Act.[7]

The Secretary is authorized, in his discretion, upon request of individual water users or districts, and upon performance of the condition precedent above set forth, to amend any existing water-right contract to provide for increase in the time for payment of construction charges, which have not then accrued, to the extent that may be necessary under the conditions in each case, subject to the limitation that there shall be allowed for repayment not more than forty years from the date the first payment matured under the original contract, and also to extend the time for payment of operation and maintenance or water rental charges due and unpaid for such period as in his judgment may be necessary not exceeding five years, the charges so extended to bear interest payable annually at the rate of 6 per centum per annum until paid, and to contract for the payment of the construction charges then due and unpaid within such term of years as the Secretary may find to be necessary, with interest payable annually at the rate of 6 per centum per annum until paid.

The Secretary is further authorized, in his discretion, to grant the relief provided for in section 4, Act of December 5, 1924 (Forty-third Statutes at Large, page 701), to any of the projects mentioned in this Act,[7] without requiring such project to take over the care, operation, and maintenance of the projects works.

The decision of the Secretary as to the necessity for amending any such contract shall be conclusive: Provided, That nothing in this Act[7] shall prevent the execution of any contract heretofore negotiated or in connection with which negotiations have been heretofore opened in good faith or which may be hereafter opened in good faith under the Act approved December 5, 1924 (Forty-third Statutes at Large, page 701),[11] and which shall be executed on or before January 1, 1927, unless the water users affected elect to have the contract governed by this section: Provided further, That in the execution of any contract provided for in the last proviso, the Secretary of the Interior shall have authority to arrange for payment of construction charges by any project or division for the calendar years 1926, 1927, and 1928 in proportion to the state of development of the project in those years: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to complete and execute the supplemental contract, now being negotiated and which has been approved as to form by the Secretary, between the United States and the Belle Fourche Irrigation District and at the expiration of said supplemental contract to enter into a permanent contract on behalf of the United States with said District in accordance with the terms of said supplemental contract. (May 25, 1926, c. 383, § 45, 44 Stat. 648.)

New section.

423e. Completion of new projects or new division; execution of contract with district as condition precedent to delivery of water; contents of contract; cooperation of States with United States; limitations on sale of land.—No water shall be delivered upon the completion of any new project or new division of a project until a contract or contracts in form approved by the Secretary of the Interior shall have been made with an irrigation district or irrigation districts organized under State law providing for payment by the district or districts of the cost of constructing, operating, and maintaining the works during the time they are in control of the United States, such cost of constructing to be repaid within such terms of years as the

Secretary may find to be necessary, in any event not more than forty years from the date of public notice hereinafter referred to, and the execution of said contract or contracts shall have been confirmed by a decree of a court of competent jurisdiction. Prior to or in connection with the settlement and development of each of these projects, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized in his discretion to enter into agreement with the proper authorities of the State or States wherein said projects or divisions are located whereby such State or States shall cooperate with the United States in promoting the settlement of the projects or divisions after completion and in the securing and selecting of settlers. Such contract or contracts with irrigation districts hereinbefore referred to shall further provide that all irrigable land held in private ownership by any one owner in excess of one hundred and sixty irrigable acres shall be appraised in a manner to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior and the sale prices thereof fixed by the Secretary on the basis of its actual bona fide value at the date of appraisal without reference to the proposed construction of the irrigation works; and that no such excess lands so held shall receive water from any project or division if the owners thereof shall refuse to execute valid recordable contracts for the sale of such lands under terms and conditions satisfactory to the Secretary of the Interior and at prices not to exceed those fixed by the Secretary of the Interior; and that until one-half the construction charges against said lands shall have been fully paid no sale of any such lands shall carry the right to receive water unless and until the purchase price involved in such sale is approved by the Secretary of the Interior and that upon proof of fraudulent representation as to the true consideration involved in such sales the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to cancel the water right attaching to the land involved in such fraudulent sales: Provided further, That the operation and maintenance charges on account of lands in said projects and divisions shall be paid annually in advance not later than March 1. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior to give public notice when water is actually available, and the operation and maintenance charges payable to the United States for the first year after such public notice shall be transferred to and paid as a part of the construction payment. (May 25, 1926, c. 383, § 46, 44 Stat. 649.)

New section.

423f. Purpose of Act.—The purpose of this Act[7] is the rehabilitation of the several reclamation projects and the insuring of their future success by placing them upon a sound operative and business basis, and the Secretary of the Interior is directed to administer this Act[7] to those ends. (May 25, 1926, c. 383, § 48, 44 Stat. 650.)

New section.

423g. Delivery of water during 1926 irrigation season notwithstanding delinquency in payment of water-right charges.—Pending the execution of any contract under this Act,[4] or the Interior Department Appropriation Act for the fiscal year 1927, or the said Act of December 5, 1924,[12] the Secretary is authorized, in his discretion and when convinced that action looking to execution of contract is being expedited in good faith, to deliver water during the irrigation season of 1926 to the irrigation district, water users' association, or water-right applicant affected, notwithstanding delinquency in the payment of water-right charges which under the law applicable would render such irrigation district, water users' association, or water-right applicant ineligible to receive water. (May 25, 1926, c. 383, § 49, 44 Stat. 650.)

CONSTRUCTION CHARGES

463. Notices as to construction charges. [Repealed.]

Section repealed.—Subsection E of § 4 of Act of Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, 43 Stat. 701, constituting § 463 of Title 43 of the Code, was repealed by Act of May 25, 1926, c. 383, § 47, 44 Stat. 650, "except as herein otherwise provided," in §§ 423 to 423h of this title in the appendix.

467. Adjustment of water charges; items included in adjustment. [Repealed.]

Section repealed.—Subsection L of § 4 of Act of Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, 43 Stat. 701, constituting § 467 of Title 43 of the Code, was repealed by Act of May 25, 1926, c. 383, § 47, 44 Stat. 650, "except as herein otherwise provided," in §§ 423 to 423h of this title in the appendix.

473. Installments on contracts made after December 5, 1924. [Repealed.]

Section repealed.—Subsection F of § 4 of Act of Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, 43 Stat. 701, constituting § 473 of Title 43 of the Code, was repealed by Act of May 25, 1926, c. 383, § 47, 44 Stat. 650, "except as herein otherwise provided," in §§ 423 to 423h of this title in the appendix.

479. Shutting off water for nonpayment of construction charge.

See § 423g of this title in the appendix for legislation affecting this section. The following act also apparently affects this section: The Secretary of the Interior is also authorized, in his discretion, until June 30, 1927, to contract with any irrigation district or water-users' association for the payment of the construction charges then remaining unpaid within such term of years, as the Secretary may find to be necessary. The construction charges due and unpaid when such contract is executed shall bear interest payable annually at the rate of 6 per centum per annum until paid. (May 10, 1926, c. 277, § 1, 44 Stat. 479.)

482. Unproductive lands; adjustment of charges on exclusion from or suspension of project.

See §§ 423 to 423h of this title in the appendix.

MAINTENANCE AND OPERATION OF WORKS GENERALLY

495. Shutting off water for nonpayment of operation charge.

See § 423g of this title in the appendix for legislation affecting this section.

The following Act also affects this section: The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized, in his discretion, until June 30, 1927, to extend the time for payment of operation and maintenance or water-rental charges due and unpaid for such period as in his judgment may be necessary, not exceeding five years. The charges so extended shall bear interest, payable annually, at the rate of 6 per centum per annum until paid. (May 10, 1926, c. 277, § 1, 44 Stat. 479.)

Chapter 16.—SALE AND DISPOSAL OF THE PUBLIC LANDS.

697. Error in entry, selections or location by mistake of numbers; [procedure where final entries have been canceled].—In all cases where an entry, selection, or location has been or shall be made of a tract of land not intended to be entered, the entryman, selector, or locator, or, in case of his death, his legal representatives, or, when the claim is by law transferable, his or their transferees, may, in any case coming within the provisions of this section, file his or their affidavit, with such additional evidence as can be procured showing the mistake as to the numbers of the tract intended to be entered and that every reasonable precaution and exertion was used to avoid the error, with the register of the land district in which such tract of land is situate, who shall transmit the evidence submitted to them, in each case, together with his written opinion both as to the existence of the mistake and the credibility of every person testifying thereto, to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, who, if he be entirely satisfied that the mistake has been made and that every reasonable precaution and exertion has been made to avoid it, is authorized to change the entry and transfer the payment from the tract erroneously entered to that intended to be entered, if the same has not been disposed of and is subject to entry, or, if not subject to entry, then to any other tract liable to such entry, selection, or location; but the oath of the person interested shall in no case be deemed sufficient, in the absence of other corroborating testimony, to authorize such change of entry, nor shall anything herein contained affect the right of third persons. (R. S. § 2372; Feb. 24, 1909, c. 181, 35 Stat. 645; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145; May 21, 1926, c. 353, 44 Stat. 591.)

Section 697 of Title 43 repealed in part.—The provision of the Act of Jan. 27, 1922, c. 33, 42 Stat. 359, constituting the second paragraph of § 697 of Title 43 of the Code, was repealed by Act of May 21, 1926, c. 353, 44 Stat. 591, which also provided as follows: "The Act of Congress approved January 27, 1922, entitled 'An Act to amend section 2372 of the Revised Statutes,' be and the same is hereby repealed: Provided, That any applications heretofore filed under the provisions of this Act, or any claim of which notice is filed within sixty days from the approval of this Act, upon which applications are presented within one year from the date of approval of this Act, may be perfected and patents issued therefor the same as if this Act had not been passed: Provided further, That when the selection in exchange fails for no fault on the part of the selector another selection in exchange may be made if filed within one year from notice to the selector of the rejection of the selection."

Chapter 20.—RESERVATIONS AND GRANTS TO STATES FOR PUBLIC PURPOSES.

869. Patent to States, counties, or municipalities of withheld unreserved nonmineral public lands for park or recreational purposes in exchange for other lands; reservation of mineral deposits.—That the Secretary of the Interior be, and hereby is, authorized, in his discretion, to withhold from all forms of appropriation unreserved nonmineral public lands, which have been classified by him as chiefly valuable for recreational purposes and are not desired for Federal administration, but only after a petition requesting such withdrawal has been signed and filed by the duly constituted authorities of the States or of the county or counties within which the lands are located, and to accept title on behalf of the United States from any States in and to lands granted by Congress to such State, and in exchange therefor to patent to such State an equal quantity or value of surveyed land so withheld and classified, any patent so issued to contain a reservation to the United States of all mineral deposits in the land conveyed and of the right to mine and remove same, under regulations to be established by the Secretary, and a provision for reversion of title to the United States upon a finding by the Secretary of the Interior that for a period of five consecutive years such land has not been used by the State for park or recreational purposes, or that such land or any part thereof is being devoted to other use: Provided, That lands so withheld and classified may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, be also held subject to purchase and may be purchased by the State or county in which the lands are situated, or by an adjacent municipality in the same State, at a price to be fixed by the Secretary of the Interior, through appraisal or otherwise, subject to the same reservation of mineral deposits and the same provision for reversion of title as are prescribed for conveyances to the States in consummation of exchanges hereby authorized, or be held subject to lease and may be leased to such States, counties, or municipalities for recretational[15] use at a reasonable annual rental for a period of twenty years, with privilege of renewal for a like period. And the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to make all necessary rules and regulations for the purpose of carrying the provisions of this Act[5] into effect: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Interior shall for each year make a report to Congress giving in detail a list of lands exchanged under the provisions of this Act.[5] (June 14, 1926, c. 578, 44 Stat. 741.)

New section.

Chapter 22.—RIGHTS OF WAY AND OTHER EASEMENTS IN PUBLIC LANDS.

946. Right of way to canal and ditch companies for irrigation purposes.—The right of way through the public lands and reservations of the United States is hereby granted to any canal ditch company, irrigation or drainage district formed for the purpose of irrigation or drainage, and duly organized under the laws of any State or Territory, and which shall have filed, or may hereafter file, with the Secretary of the Interior a copy of its articles of incorporation or, if not a private corporation, a copy of the law under which the same is formed and due proof of its organization under the same, to the extent of the ground occupied by the water of any reservoir and of any canals and laterals and fifty feet on each side of the marginal limits thereof, and, upon presentation of satisfactory showing by the applicant, such additional right of way as the Secretary of the Interior may deem necessary for the proper operation and maintenance of said reservoirs, canals, and laterals; also the right to take from the public lands adjacent to the line of the canal or ditch, material, earth, and stone necessary for the construction of such canal or ditch: Provided, That no such right of way shall be so located as to interfere with the proper occupation by the Government of any such reservation, and all maps of location shall be subject to the approval of the department of the Government having jurisdiction of such reservation; and the privilege herein granted shall not be construed to interfere with the control of water for irrigation and other purposes under authority of the respective States or Territories. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 18, 26 Stat. 1101; Mar. 4, 1917, c. 184, § 1, 39 Stat. 1197; May 28, 1926, c. 409, 44 Stat. 668.)

Section 946 of Title 43 amended.—The statutory provision constituting § 946 of Title 43 of the Code has been amended by Act of May 28, 1926, c. 409, 44 Stat. 668, to read as above.

Chapter 28.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE PUBLIC LANDS.

SALES OF ISOLATED TRACTS

1171. Sale of lands on former reservation.—The provisions of section 2455, United States Revised Statutes, as amended by the Act of June 27, 1906 (Thirty-fourth Statutes at Large, page 517), and by the Act of March 28, 1912 (Thirty-seventh Statutes at Large, page 77),[16] are made applicable to the ceded lands on the former Fort Hall Indian Reservation: Provided, That no land shall be sold at less than the price fixed by the law opening the lands to homestead entry. (May 19, 1926, c. 337, 44 Stat. 566.)

Section 75 of Title 44 repealed.—The statutory provision constituting § 75 of Title 44 of the Code is repealed in the Legislative, etc., Appropriation Act of May 13, 1926, c. 294, 44 Stat. 552.

Chapter 6.—CONGRESSIONAL RECORD, BILLS, AND LAWS.

194. Distribution of copies of this Code to Senators and Representatives.

Act June 30, 1926, c. 713, 44 Stat. 778, entitled "An Act to provide for the publication of the Act to consolidate, codify, and set forth the general and permanent laws of the United States in force December 7, 1925, with index, reference tables, appendix, and so forth," provides as follows:

That upon the enactment of H. R. 10000, a bill to consolidate, codify, and set forth the general and permanent laws of the United States in force December 7, 1925, such Act shall be plated from the type in which H. R. 10000 was printed when it passed the House of Representatives, with the amendments made thereto before its enactment, and shall be printed in the same style and form. Such Act shall be entitled and labeled "The Code of the Laws of the United States of America." The general provisions of law for the printing and distribution of laws are hereby modified with respect to such Act as follows:

1. No slip copies need be printed or distributed.

2. In lieu of distributing such Act in pamphlet form the Public Printer is hereby authorized and directed to print a sufficient number of copies without the index, reference tables, and other ancillaries provided for in section 2 hereof, except a table of contents, to supply the requisitions therefor, and to furnish one copy each to Members of the Sixty-ninth Congress and others who are entitled to copies of laws in slip or pamphlet form.

SEC. 2. That the Committee on the Revision of the Laws of the House of Representatives is hereby authorized to have prepared for such Act to be published with it in a single volume and the Public Printer is authorized to print as ancillaries thereto—

1. Preface.
2. Table of contents.
3. Parallel reference tables to the Revised Statutes of the United States.
4. Parallel reference tables to the Statutes at Large of the United States.

8. The Articles of Confederation.
9. The Ordinance of 1787.
10. The Constitution of the United States and amendments.
11. Appendix with the general and permanent laws of the first session of the Sixty-ninth Congress, other than such Act.
12. Index.

SEC. 3. That in addition to quotas already provided by law, except as modified by section 1 hereof, there shall be printed, published, and distributed of such Act with the said ancillaries all bound in one volume in law buckram ten copies for each Member of the Senate and House of Representatives of the Sixty-ninth Congress for his use and distribution, and in addition for the Committees on the Revision of the Laws of the Senate and House of Representatives a number of bound copies equal to ten times the number of members of the respective committees.

SEC. 4. That the Committee on the Revision of the Laws of the House of Representatives is hereby authorized to prepare and the Public Printer to print, in slip form, and furnish with each copy a statement inviting scrutiny of the work and encouraging constructive criticism.

SEC. 5. That such Act shall be published as Part 1 of volume 44 of the Statutes at Large and may be printed and distributed before the expiration of the Sixty-ninth Congress.

Chapter 8.—PARTICULAR REPORTS AND DOCUMENTS.

292. Surgeon General of Army; bulletins for instruction of medical officers.

Section 292 of Title 44 repealed.—The statutory provision constituting § 292 of Title 44 of the Code is repealed in the War Department Appropriation Act of Apr. 15, 1926, c. 146, Title I, 44 Stat. 255.

TITLE 45.—RAILROADS

"This Act," mentioned in the text, constitutes this chapter and § 348 and paragraph "second" of subdivision (b) of § 225 of Title 28 of this appendix.

The Interstate Commerce Act, mentioned in the text, constitutes chapter 1 of Title 49 of the Code.

152. General duties.—First. Duty of carriers and employees to settle disputes.—It shall be the duty of all carriers, their officers, agents, and employees to exert every reasonable effort

[1] New chapter. The 12 sections in the chapter are §§ 1–12 of an Act entitled "An Act to provide for the prompt disposition of disputes between carriers and their employees, and for other purposes," cited above.

Section 13(a) of the said Act amends paragraph "second" of subdivision (b) of § 128 of the Judicial Code, as amended (Title 28, § 225).

Section 13(b) of the said Act amends § 2 of Act Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, 43 Stat. 939 (Title 28, § 348).

Section 14 of the said Act of 1926, which constitutes § 163 of this supplemental title, repeals Title III of the Transportation Act of 1920 (Title 45, §§ 131–146), and also repealed Act July 15, 1913, c. 6, 38 Stat. 103 (Title 45, §§ 101–125).

to make and maintain agreements concerning rates of pay, rules, and working conditions, and to settle all disputes, whether arising out of the application of such agreements or otherwise, in order to avoid any interruption to commerce or to the operation of any carrier growing out of any dispute between the carrier and the employees thereof.

Second. Consideration of disputes by representatives.—All disputes between a carrier and its employees shall be considered, and, if possible, decided, with all expedition, in conference between representatives designated and authorized so to confer, respectively, by the carriers and by the employees thereof interested in the dispute.

Third. Designation of representatives.—Representatives, for the purposes of this Act, shall be designated by the respective parties in such manner as may be provided in their corporate organization or unincorporated association, or by other means of collective action, without interference, influence, or coercion exercised by either party over the self-organization or designation of representatives by the other.

Fourth. Conference of representatives; time; place; private agreements.—In case of a dispute between a carrier and its employees, arising out of grievances or out of the interpretation or application of agreements concerning rates of pay, rules, or working conditions, it shall be the duty of the designated representative or representatives of such carrier and of such employees, within ten days after the receipt of notice of a desire on the part of either party to confer in respect to such dispute, to specify a time and place at which such conference shall be held: Provided, (1) That the place so specified shall be situated upon the railroad line of the carrier involved unless otherwise mutually agreed upon; and (2) that the time so specified shall allow the designated conferees reasonable opportunity to reach such place of conference, but shall not exceed twenty days from the receipt of such notice: And provided further, That nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to supersede the provisions of any agreement (as to conferences) then in effect between the parties.

Fifth. Manner of dealing with certain disputes.—Disputes concerning changes in rates of pay, rules, or working conditions shall be dealt with as provided in section 6[2] and in other provisions of this Act[3] relating thereto. (May 20, 1926, c. 347, § 2, 44 Stat. 577.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

153. Boards of adjustment.—First. Creation of boards of adjustment; agreements and their provisions.—Boards of adjustment shall be created by agreement between any carrier or group of carriers, or the carriers as a whole, and its or their employees.

The agreement—

(a) Shall be in writing;

(b) Shall state the group or groups of employees covered by such adjustment board;

(c) Shall provide that disputes between an employee or group of employees and a carrier, growing out of grievances or out of the interpretation or application of agreements concerning rates of pay, rules, or working conditions, shall be handled in the usual manner up to and including the chief operating officer of the carrier designated to handle such disputes; but, failing to reach an adjustment in this manner, that the dispute shall be referred to the designated adjustment board by the parties, or by either party, with a full statement of the facts and all supporting data bearing upon the dispute;

(d) Shall provide that the parties may be heard either in person, by counsel, or by other representative, as they may respectively elect, and that adjustment boards shall hear and, if possible, decide promptly all disputes referred to them as provided in paragraph (c). Adjustment boards shall give due notice of all hearings to the employee or employees and the carrier or carriers involved in the dispute;

(e) Shall stipulate that decisions of adjustment boards shall be final and binding on both parties to the dispute; and it shall be the duty of both to abide by such decisions;

(f) Shall state the number of representatives of the employees and the number of representatives of the carrier or carriers on the adjustment board, which number of representatives, respectively, shall be equal;

(g) Shall provide for the method of selecting members and filling vacancies;

(h) Shall provide for the portion of expenses to be assumed by the respective parties;

(i) Shall stipulate that a majority of the adjustment board members shall be competent to make an award, unless otherwise mutually agreed;

(j) Shall stipulate that adjustment boards shall meet regularly at such times and places as designated; and

(k) Shall provide for the method of advising the employees and carrier or carriers of the decisions of the board.

Second. Settlement of disputes by mutual and voluntary agreement.—Nothing in this Act[3] shall be construed to prohibit an individual carrier and its employees from agreeing upon the settlement of disputes through such machinery of contract and adjustment as they may mutually establish. (May 20, 1926, c. 347, § 3, 44 Stat. 578.)

154. Board of Mediation.—First. Board of Mediation; creation; composition; term of office; quorum; salary of members; qualifications; removal.—There is hereby established, as an independent agency in the executive branch of the Government, a board to be known as the Board of Mediation and to be composed of five members appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The terms of office of the members first taking office shall expire, as designated by the President at the time of nomination, one at the end of the first year, one at the end of the second year, one at the end of the third year, one at the end of the fourth year, and one at the end of the fifth year, after January 1, 1926. The terms of office of all successors shall expire five years after the expiration of the terms for which their predecessors were appointed; but any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of his predecessor. Vacancies in the board shall not impair the powers nor affect the duties of the board nor of the remaining members of the board. A majority of the members in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of the board. Each member of the board shall receive a salary at the rate of $12,000 per annum, together with necessary traveling expenses and subsistence expenses, or per diem allowance in lieu thereof, subject to the provisions of law applicable thereto, while away from the principal office of the board on business required by this Act.[3] No person in the employment of or who is pecuniarily or otherwise interested in any organization of employees or any carrier shall enter upon the duties of or continue to be a member of the board.

A member of the board may be removed by the President for inefficiency, neglect of duty, malfeasance in office, or ineligibility, but for no other cause.

Second. Chairman; principal office; delegation of powers; oaths; seal; report.—The board shall annually designate a member to act as chairman. The board shall maintain its principal office in the District of Columbia, but it may meet at any other place whenever it deems it necessary. The board may designate one or more of its members to exercise the functions of the board in mediation proceedings. Each member of the board shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations. The board shall have a seal which shall be judicially noticed. The board shall make an annual report to Congress.

Third. Appointment of experts and other employees; salaries of employees; expenditures.—The board may (1) appoint such experts and assistants to act in a confidential capacity and, subject to the provisions of the civil service laws, such other officers and employees, and (2) in accordance with the Classification Act of 1923[4] fix the salary of such experts, assistants, officers, and employees, and (3) make such expenditures (including expenditures for rent and personal services at the seat of government and elsewhere, for law books, periodicals, and books of reference, and for printing and binding, and including expenditures for salaries and compensation, necessary traveling expenses and expenses actually incurred for subsistence, and other necessary expenses of boards of arbitration, in accordance with the provisions of section 7)[5] as may be necessary for the execution of the functions vested in the board, or in the boards of arbitration, and as may be provided for by the Congress from time to time. All expenditures of the board shall be allowed and paid on the presentation of itemized vouchers therefor approved by the chairman. (May 20, 1926, c. 347, § 4, 44 Stat. 579.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

155. Functions of Board of Mediation.—First. Disputes within jurisdiction of Board of Mediation.—The parties, or either party, to a dispute between an employee or group of employees and a carrier may invoke the services of the Board of Meditation created by this Act,[3] or the Board of Meditation may proffer its services, in any of the following cases:

(a) A dispute arising out of grievances or out of the interpretation or application of agreements concerning rates of pay, rules, or working conditions not adjusted by the parties in conference and not decided by the appropriate adjustment board;

(b) A dispute which is not settled in conference between the parties, in respect to changes in rates of pay, rules, or working conditions;

(c) Any other dispute not decided in conference between the parties.

In either event the said board shall promptly put itself in communication with the parties to such controversy, and shall use its best efforts, by mediation, to bring them to agreement. If such efforts to bring about an amicable adjustment through mediation shall be unsuccessful, the said board shall at once endeavor as its final required action (except as provided in paragraph third of this section and in section 10 of the Act),[6] to induce the parties to submit their controversy to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of this Act.[3]

Second. Interpretation of agreement.—In any case in which a controversy arises over the meaning or the application of any agreement reached through mediation under the provisions of this Act,[3] either party to the said agreement, or both, may apply to the Board of Mediation for an interpretation as to the meaning or application of such agreement. The said board shall upon receipt of such request notify the parties to the controversy, and after a hearing of both sides give its interpretation within thirty days.

Third. Duties of board with respect to arbitration of disputes; arbitrators; acknowledgment of agreement; notice to arbitrators; reconvening of arbitrators; transfer of records of other boards.—The Board of Mediation shall have the following duties with respect to the arbitration of disputes under section 7[7] of this Act:

(a) On failure of the arbitrators named by the parties to agree on the remaining arbitrator or arbitrators within the time set by section 7[7] of this Act, it shall be the duty of the Board of Mediation to name such remaining arbitrator or arbitrators. It shall be the duty of the board in naming such arbitrator or arbitrators to appoint only those whom the board shall deem wholly disinterested in the controversy to be arbitrated and impartial and without bias as between the parties to such arbitration. Should, however, the board name an arbitrator or arbitrators not so disinterested and impartial, then, upon proper investigation and presentation of the facts, the board shall promptly remove such arbitrator.

If an arbitrator named by the Board of Mediation, in accordance with the provisions of this Act,[3] shall be removed by such board as provided by this Act,[3] or if such an arbitrator refuses or is unable to serve, it shall be the duty of the Board of Mediation, promptly, to select another arbitrator, in the same manner as provided in this Act[3] for an original appointment by the Board of Mediation.

(b) Any member of the Board of Mediation is authorized to take the acknowledgment of an agreement of arbitration under this Act.[3] When so acknowledged, or when acknowledged by the parties before a notary public or the clerk of a district court or a circuit court of appeals of the United States, such agreement to arbitrate shall be delivered to a member of said board, or transmitted to said board, to be filed in its office.

(c) When an agreement to arbitrate has been filed with the Board of Mediation, or with one of its members, as provided by this section, and when the said board, or a member thereof, has been furnished the names of the arbitrators chosen by the parties to the controversy, it shall be the duty of the Board of Mediation to cause a notice in writing to be served upon said arbitrators, notifying them of their appointment, requesting them to meet promptly to name the remaining arbitrator or arbitrators necessary to complete the board of arbitration, and advising them of the period within which, as provided by the agreement to arbitrate, they are empowered to name such arbitrator or arbitrators.

(d) Either party to an arbitration desiring the reconvening of a board of arbitration to pass upon any controversy arising over the meaning or application of an award may so notify the Board of Mediation in writing, stating in such notice the question or questions to be submitted to such reconvened board. The Board of Mediation shall thereupon promptly communicate with the members of the board of arbitration, or a subcommittee of such board appointed for such purpose pursuant to a provision in the agreement to arbitrate, and arrange for the reconvening of said board or subcommittee, and shall notify the respective parties to the controversy of the time and place at which the board, or the subcommittee, will meet for hearings upon the matters in controversy to be submitted to it. No evidence other than that contained in the record filed with the original award shall be received or considered by such reconvened board or subcommittee, except such evidence as may be necessary to illustrate the interpretations suggested by the parties. If any member of the original board is unable or unwilling to serve on such reconvened board or subcommittee thereof, another arbitrator shall be named in the same manner and with the same powers and duties as such original arbitrator.

(e) The Interstate Commerce Commission, the Bureau of Labor Statistics, and the custodian of the records, respectively, of the Railroad Labor Board, of the mediators designated in the Act approved June 1, 1898,[8] providing for mediation and arbitration, known as the Erdman Act, and of the Board of Mediation and Conciliation created by the Act approved July 15, 1913,[8] providing for mediation, conciliation, and arbitration, known as the Newlands Act, are hereby authorized and directed to transfer and deliver to the Board of Mediation created by this Act any and all papers and documents heretofore filed with or transferred to them, respectively, bearing upon the settlement, adjustment, or determination of disputes between carriers and their employees or upon mediation or arbitration proceedings held under or pursuant to the provisions of any Act of Congress in respect to such disputes; and the President is authorized to require the transfer and delivery to the Board of Mediation, created by this Act,[3] of any and all such papers and documents filed with or in the possession of any agency of the Government. The President is authorized to designate a custodian of the records and property of the Railroad Labor Board, until the transfer and delivery of such records to the Board of Mediation and the disposition of such property in such manner as the President may direct. (May 20, 1926, c. 347, § 5, 44 Stat. 580.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

156. Procedure in changing rates of pay, rules, and working conditions.—Carriers and the representatives of the employees shall give at least thirty days' written notice of an intended change affecting rates of pay, rules, or working conditions, and the time and place for conference between the representatives of the parties interested in such intended changes shall be agreed upon within ten days after the receipt of said notice and said time shall be within the thirty days provided in the notice. Should changes be requested from more than one class or associated classes at approximately the same time, this date for the conference shall be understood to apply only to the first conference for each class; it being the intent that subsequent conferences in respect to each request shall be held in the order of its receipt and shall follow each other with reasonable promptness. In every case where such notice of intended change has been given, or conferences are being held with reference thereto, or the services of the Board of Mediation have been requested by either party, or said board has proffered its service, rates of pay, rules, or working conditions shall not be altered by the carrier until the controversy has been finally acted upon, as required by section 5 of this Act,[9] by the Board of Mediation, unless a period of ten days has elapsed after termination of conferences without request for or proffer of the services of the Board of Mediation. (May 20, 1926, c. 347, § 6, 44 Stat. 582.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

157. Arbitration.—First. Submission of controversy to arbitration.—Whenever a controversy shall arise between a carrier or carriers and its or their employees which is not settled either in conference between representatives of the parties or by the appropriate adjustment board or through mediation, in the manner provided in the preceding sections, such controversy may, by agreement of the parties to such controversy, be submitted to the arbitration of a board of three (or, if the parties to the controversy so stipulate, of six) persons: Provided, however, That the failure or refusal of either party to submit a controversy to arbitration shall not be construed as a violation of any legal obligation imposed upon such party by the terms of this Act or otherwise.

Second. Manner of selecting board of arbitration.—Such board of arbitration shall be chosen in the following manner:

(a) In the case of a board of three the carrier or carriers and the representatives of the employees, parties respectively to the agreement to arbitrate, shall each name one arbitrator; the two arbitrators thus chosen shall select a third arbitrator. If the arbitrators chosen by the parties shall fail to name the third arbitrator within five days after their first meeting, such third arbitrator shall be named by the Board of Mediation.

(b) In the case of a board of six the carrier or carriers and the representatives of the employees, parties respectively to the agreement to arbitrate, shall each name two arbitrators; the four arbitrators thus chosen shall, by a majority vote, select the remaining two arbitrators. If the arbitrators chosen by the parties shall fail to name the two arbitrators within fifteen days after their first meeting, the said two arbitrators, or as many of them as have not been named, shall be named by the Board of Mediation.

Third. Board of arbitration; organization; compensation; procedure.—(a) Notice of selection or failure to select arbitrators.—When the arbitrators selected by the respective parties have agreed upon the remaining arbitrator or arbitrators, they shall notify the Board of Mediation; and, in the event of their failure to agree upon any or upon all of the necessary arbitrators within the period fixed by this Act,[3] they shall, at the expiration of such period, notify the Board of Mediation of the arbitrators selected, if any, or of their failure to make or to complete such selection.

(b) Organization of board; procedure.—The board of arbitration shall organize and select its own chairman and make all necessary rules for conducting its hearings: Provided, however, That the board of arbitration shall be bound to give the parties to the controversy a full and fair hearing, which shall include an opportunity to present evidence in support of their claims, and an opportunity to present their case in person, by counsel, or by other representative as they may respectively elect.

(c) Duty to reconvene; questions considered.—Upon notice from the Board of Mediation that the parties, or either party, to an arbitration desire the reconvening of the board of arbitration (or a subcommittee of such board of arbitration appointed for such purpose pursuant to the agreement to arbitrate) to pass upon any controversy over the meaning or application of their award, the board, or its subcommittee, shall at once reconvene. No question other than, or in addition to, the questions relating to the meaning or application of the award, submitted by the party or parties in writing, shall be considered by the reconvened board of arbitration or its subcommittee.

Such rulings shall be acknowledged by such board or subcommittee thereof in the same manner, and filed in the same district court clerk's office, as the original award and become a part thereof.

(d) Competency of arbitrators.—No arbitrator, except those chosen by the Board of Mediation, shall be incompetent to act as an arbitrator because of his interest in the controversy to be arbitrated, or because of his connection with or partiality to either of the parties to the arbitration.

(e) Compensation and expenses.—Each member of any board of arbitration created under the provisions of this Act[3] named by either party to the arbitration shall be compensated by the party naming him. Each arbitrator selected by the arbitrators or named by the Board of Mediation shall receive from the Board of Mediation such compensation as the Board of Mediation may fix, together with his necessary traveling expenses and expenses actually incurred for subsistence, while serving as an arbitrator.

[8] The Act of July 15, 1913, here mentioned, is set out in §§ 101 to 125, inclusive, of Title 45 of the Code. The Act of July 15, 1913, repealed the Act of June 1, 1898, also mentioned in the text.

[9] "Section 5 of this Act" should be translated "section 155 of this chapter."

(f) Award; disposition of original and copies.—The board of arbitration shall furnish a certified copy of its award to the respective parties to the controversy, and shall transmit the original, together with the papers and proceedings and a transcript of the evidence taken at the hearings, certified under the hands of at least a majority of the arbitrators, to the clerk of the district court of the United States for the district wherein the controversy arose or the arbitration is entered into, to be filed in said clerk's office as hereinafter provided. The said board shall also furnish a certified copy of its award, and the papers and proceedings, including testimony relating thereto, to the Board of Mediation, to be filed in its office; and in addition a certified copy of its award shall be filed in the office of the Interstate Commerce Commission: Provided, however, That such award shall not be construed to diminish or extinguish any of the powers or duties of the Interstate Commerce Commission, under the Interstate Commerce Act,[10] as amended.

(g) Compensation of assistants to board of arbitration; expenses; quarters.—A board of arbitration may, subject to the approval of the Board of Mediation, employ and fix the compensation of such assistants as it deems necessary in carrying on the arbitration proceedings. The compensation of such employees, together with their necessary traveling expenses and expenses actually incurred for subsistence, while so employed, and the necessary expenses of boards of arbitration, shall be paid by the Board of Mediation.

Whenever practicable, the board shall be supplied with suitable quarters in any Federal building located at its place of meeting or at any place where the board may conduct its proceedings or deliberations.

(h) Testimony before board; oaths; attendance of witnesses; production of documents; subpœnas; compulsion of witnesses; fees.—All testimony before said board shall be given under oath or affirmation, and any member of the board shall have the power to administer oaths or affirmations. The board of arbitration, or any member thereof, shall have the power to require the attendance of witnesses and the production of such books, papers, contracts, agreements, and documents as may be deemed by the board of arbitration material to a just determination of the matters submitted to its arbitration, and may for that purpose request the clerk of the district court of the United States for the district wherein said arbitration is being conducted to issue the necessary subpœnas, and upon such request the said clerk or his duly authorized deputy shall be, and he hereby is, authorized, and it shall be his duty, to issue such subpœnas. In the event of the failure of any person to comply with any such subpœna, or in the event of the contumacy of any witness appearing before the board of arbitration, the board may invoke the aid of the United States courts to compel witnesses to attend and testify and to produce such books, papers, contracts, agreements, and documents to the same extent and under the same conditions and penalties as provided for in the Act to regulate commerce[10] approved February 4, 1887, and the amendments thereto.

Any witness appearing before a board of arbitration shall receive the same fees and mileage as witnesses in courts of the United States, to be paid by the party securing the subpœna. (May 20, 1926, c. 347, § 7, 44 Stat. 582.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

158. Agreement to arbitrate; form and contents; signatures and acknowledgment; revocation.—The agreement to arbitrate—

(a) Shall be in writing;

(b) Shall stipulate that the arbitration is had under the provisions of this Act;[3]

(c) Shall state whether the board of arbitration is to consist of three or of six members;

(d) Shall be signed by the duly accredited representatives of the carrier or carriers and the employees, parties respectively to the agreement to arbitrate, and shall be acknowledged by said parties before a notary public, the clerk of a district court or circuit court of appeals of the United States, or before a member of the Board of Mediation, and, when so acknowledged, shall be filed in the office of the Board of Mediation;

(e) Shall state specifically the questions to be submitted to the said board for decision; and that, in its award or awards, the said board shall confine itself strictly to decisions as to the questions so specifically submitted to it;

(f) Shall provide that the questions, or any one or more of them, submitted by the parties to the board of arbitration may be withdrawn from arbitration on notice to that effect signed by the duly accredited representatives of all the parties and served on the board of arbitration;

(g) Shall stipulate that the signatures of a majority of said board of arbitration affixed to their award shall be competent to constitute a valid and binding award;

(h) Shall fix a period from the date of the appointment of the arbitrator or arbitrators necessary to complete the board (as provided for in the agreement) within which the said board shall commence its hearings;

(i) Shall fix a period from the beginning of the hearings within which the said board shall make and file its award: Provided, That the parties may agree at any time upon an extension of this period;

(j) Shall provide for the date from which the award shall become effective and shall fix the period during which the award shall continue in force;

(k) Shall provide that the award of the board of arbitration and the evidence of the proceedings before the board relating thereto, when certified under the hands of at least a majority of the arbitrators, shall be filed in the clerk's office of the district court of the United States for the district wherein the controversy arose or the arbitration was entered into, which district shall be designated in the agreement; and, when so filed, such award and proceedings shall constitute the full and complete record of the arbitration;

(l) Shall provide that the award, when so filed, shall be final and conclusive upon the parties as to the facts determined by said award and as to the merits of the controversy decided;

(m) Shall provide that any difference arising as to the meaning, or the application of the provisions, of an award made by a board of arbitration shall be referred back for a ruling to the same board, or, by agreement, to a subcommittee of such board; and that such ruling, when acknowledged in the same manner, and filed in the same district court clerk's office, as the original award, shall be a part of and shall have the same force and effect as such original award; and

(n) Shall provide that the respective parties to the award will each faithfully execute the same.

The said agreement to arbitrate, when properly signed and acknowledged as herein provided, shall not be revoked by a party to such agreement: Provided, however, That such agreement to arbitrate may at any time be revoked and canceled by the written agreement of both parties, signed by their duly accredited representatives, and (if no board of arbitration has yet been constituted under the agreement) delivered to the Board of Mediation or any member thereof; or, if the board of arbitration has been constituted as provided by this Act,[3] delivered to such board of arbitration. (May 20, 1926, c. 347, § 8, 44 Stat. 584.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

[10] The Interstate Commerce Act, which is the Act of Feb. 4, 1887, and its amendments, both of which are mentioned in the text is set out in Chapter I of Title 49 of the Code.

[3] "Act" should be translated "chapter."

159. Award and judgment thereon; effect of Act on individual employee.—First. Filing of award.—The award of a board of arbitration, having been acknowledged as herein provided, shall be filed in the clerk's office of the district court designated in the agreement to arbitrate.

Second. Conclusiveness of award; judgment.—An award acknowledged and filed as herein provided shall be conclusive on the parties as to the merits and facts of the controversy submitted to arbitration, and unless, within ten days after the filing of the award, a petition to impeach the award, on the grounds hereinafter set forth, shall be filed in the clerk's office of the court in which the award has been filed, the court shall enter judgment on the award, which judgment shall be final and conclusive on the parties.

Third. Impeachment of award; grounds.—Such petition for the impeachment or contesting of any award so filed shall be entertained by the court only on one or more of the following grounds:

(a) That the award plainly does not conform to the substantive requirements laid down by this Act[3] for such awards, or that the proceedings were not substantially in conformity with this Act;[3]

(b) That the award does not conform, nor confine itself, to the stipulations of the agreement to arbitrate; or

(c) That a member of the board of arbitration rendering the award was guilty of fraud or corruption; or that a party to the arbitration practiced fraud or corruption which fraud or corruption affected the result of the arbitration: Provided, however, That no court shall entertain any such petition on the ground that an award is invalid for uncertainty; in such case the proper remedy shall be a submission of such award to a reconvened board, or subcommittee thereof, for interpretation, as provided by this Act:[3] Provided further, That an award contested as herein provided shall be construed liberally by the court, with a view to favoring its validity, and that no award shall be set aside for trivial irregularity or clerical error, going only to form and not to substance.

Fourth. Effect of partial invalidity of award.—If the court shall determine that a part of the award is invalid on some ground or grounds designated in this section as a ground of invalidity, but shall determine that a part of the award is valid, the court shall set aside the entire award: Provided, however, That, if the parties shall agree thereto, and if such valid and invalid parts are separable, the court shall set aside the invalid part, and order judgment to stand as to the valid part.

Fifth. Appeal; record.—At the expiration of ten days from the decision of the district court upon the petition filed as aforesaid, final judgment shall be entered in accordance with said decision, unless during said ten days either party shall appeal therefrom to the circuit court of appeals. In such case only such portion of the record shall be transmitted to the appellate court as is necessary to the proper understanding and consideration of the questions of law presented by said petition and to be decided.

Sixth. Finality of decision of circuit court of appeals.—The determination of said circuit court of appeals upon said questions shall be final, and, being certified by the clerk thereof to said district court, judgment pursuant thereto shall thereupon be entered by said district court.

Seventh. Judgment where petitioner's contentions are sustained.—If the petitioner's contentions are finally sustained, judgment shall be entered setting aside the award in whole or, if the parties so agree, in part; but in such case the parties may agree upon a judgment to be entered disposing of the subject matter of the controversy, which judgment when entered shall have the same force and effect as judgment entered upon an award.

Eighth. Duty of employee to render service without consent; right to quit.—Nothing in this Act[3] shall be construed to require an individual employee to render labor or service without his consent, nor shall anything in this Act[3] be construed to make the quitting of his labor or service by an individual employee an illegal act; nor shall any court issue any process to compel the performance by an individual employee of such labor or service, without his consent. (May 20, 1926, c. 347, § 9, 44 Stat. 585.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

160. Emergency Board.—If a dispute between a carrier and its employees be not adjusted under the foregoing provisions of this Act[3] and should, in the judgment of the Board of Mediation, threaten substantially to interrupt interstate commerce to a degree such as to deprive any section of the country of essential transportation service, the Board of Mediation shall notify the President, who may thereupon, in his discretion, create a board to investigate and report respecting such dispute. Such board shall be composed of such number of persons as to the President may seem desirable: Provided, however, That no member appointed shall be pecuniarily or otherwise interested in any organization of employees or any carrier. The compensation of the members of any such board shall be fixed by the President. Such board shall be created separately in each instance and it shall investigate promptly the facts as to the dispute and make a report thereon to the President within thirty days from the date of its creation.

There is hereby authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary for the expenses of such board, including the compensation and the necessary traveling expenses and expenses actually incurred for subsistence, of the members of the board. All expenditures of the board shall be allowed and paid on the presentation of itemized vouchers therefor approved by the chairman.

After the creation of such board and for thirty days after such board has made its report to the President, no change, except by agreement, shall be made by the parties to the controversy in the conditions out of which the dispute arose. (May 20, 1926, c. 347, § 10, 44 Stat. 586.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

161. Effect of partial invalidity of Act.—If any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the remainder of the Act,[3] and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby. (May 20, 1926, c. 347, § 11, 44 Stat. 587.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter for section constituting Act referred to in section.

162. Appropriation.—There is hereby authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary for expenditure by the Board of Mediation in carrying out the provisions of this Act.[3] (May 20, 1926, c. 347, § 12, 44 Stat. 587.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter for sections constituting Act referred to in section.

163. Repeal of prior legislation; exception.—Title III of the Transportation Act, 1920,[11] and the Act approved July 15, 1913,[12] providing for mediation, conciliation, and arbitration, and all Acts and parts of Acts in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed, except that the members, secretary, officers, employees, and agents of the Railroad Labor Board, in office upon the date of the passage of this Act, shall receive their salaries for a period of 30 days from such date, in the same manner as though this Act[3] had not been passed. (May 20, 1926, c. 347, § 14, 44 Stat. 587.)

New section. See footnote to this chapter.

[3] "Act" should be translated "chapter."

[11] Title III of the Transportation Act of 1920, mentioned in the text, constitutes chapter 7 of Title 45 of the Code.

[12] The Act of July 15, 1913, similarly mentioned, is set out in sections 101 to 125, inclusive, of Title 45 of the Code.

TITLE 46.—SHIPPING

Chapter 12.—REGULATION OF VESSELS IN DOMESTIC COMMERCE.

Sec.
293a. Creation of additional great district. [New.]
293b. Vessels operating in great district created; laws applicable.

293a. Creation of additional great district.—There is hereby created, in addition to the five great districts provided by section 4348 of the Revised Statutes as amended by the Act of May 12, 1906,[1] a sixth great district to include all the collection districts on the Great Lakes, their connecting and tributary waters, as far east as the Raquette River, New York. (July 3, 1926, c. 757, § 1, 44 Stat. 832.)

New section. This section and the section next following are §§ 1 and 2 of an Act entitled "An Act to create a sixth great district to include all the collection districts on the Great Lakes, their connecting and tributary waters, as far east as the Raquette River, New York," cited above.

Section 3 repeals R. S. §§ 3116 and 3117, which constitute §§ 284 and 285 of Title 19 of the Code.

293b. Vessels operating in great district created; laws applicable.—Enrolled and licensed vessels operating in the great district herein created shall be subject to all of the requirements of licensed and enrolled and licensed vessels imposed by sections 4349, 4350, 4351, and 4352 of the Revised Statutes and amendments and laws supplementary thereto:[2] Provided, That nothing herein shall affect the rights or privileges reserved to seamen under existing law. (July 3, 1926, c. 757, § 2, 44 Stat. 832.)

See note to § 293a, which precedes this section.

PUBLIC LANDS IN ALASKA

General Provisions

360. Public lands; lease for fur farming; reservations.—That the Secretary of the Interior, in order to encourage and promote development of production of furs in the Territory of Alaska, is hereby authorized to lease to corporations organized under the laws of the United States, or of any State or Territory thereof, citizens of the United States, or associations of such citizens, public lands of the United States in the Territory of Alaska suitable for fur farming, in areas not exceeding six hundred and forty acres, and for periods not exceeding ten years, upon such terms and conditions as he may by general regulations prescribe: Provided, That where leases are given hereunder for islands or lands within the same such lease may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, be for an area not to exceed thirty square miles: Provided further, That nothing herein contained shall prevent the prospecting, locating, development, entering, leasing, or patenting of the mineral resources of any lands so leased under laws applicable thereto: And provided further, That this Act[2] shall not be held nor construed to apply to the Pribilof Islands, declared a special reservation by the Act of Congress approved April 21, 1910: And provided further, That any permit or lease issued under this Act shall reserve to the Secretary of the Interior the right to permit the use and occupation of parts of said leased areas for the taking, preparing, manufacturing, or storing of fish or fish products, or the utilization of the lands for purposes of trade or business, to the extent and in the manner provided by existing laws or laws which may be hereafter enacted. (July 3, 1926, c. 745, § 1, 44 Stat. 821.)

New section. Act of July 3, 1926, c. 745, 44 Stat. 821, cited to the text, was entitled "An Act to provide for the leasing of public lands in Alaska for fur farming, and for other purposes."

361. Execution of provisions of Act; authority of Secretary of Interior.—That the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to perform any and all acts, and to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary and proper, for the purpose of carrying the provisions of this Act[2] into effect including provisions for the forfeiture of any lease for failure to stock the same with fur-bearing animals within a period of one year from the date of the lease, or in the event of the devotion of the lease area primarily to any purpose other than the rearing of such fur-bearing animals. (July 3, 1926, c. 745, § 2, 44 Stat. 822.)

New section. See note to § 360 of this title of the appendix.

369. Indian or Eskimo lands set aside on survey of town site.—Where, upon the survey of a town site pursuant to section 11 of the Act of March 3, 1891 (Twenty-sixth Statutes, page 1095),[3] and the regulations of the Department of the Interior under said Act, a tract claimed and occupied by an Indian or Eskimo of full or mixed blood, native of Alaska, has been or may be set apart to such Indian or Eskimo, the town-site trustee is authorized to issue to him a deed therefor which shall provide that the title conveyed is inalienable except upon approval of the Secretary of the Interior: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall subject such tract to taxation, to levy and sale in satisfaction of the debts, contracts, or liabilities of the patentee, or to any claims of adverse occupancy or law of prescription: Provided further, That the approval by the Secretary of the Interior of the sale by an Indian or Eskimo of a tract deeded to him under this Act[1] shall vest in the purchaser a complete and unrestricted title from the date of such approval. (May 25, 1926, c. 379, § 1, 44 Stat. 629.)

New section.

369a. Extension of street or alley across Indian or Eskimo land.—Whenever the Secretary of the Interior shall determine that it would be to the interest of the Indian or Eskimo occupant of land described in the preceding paragraph,[4] he is authorized to extend the established streets and alleys of the town site upon and across the track, and the deed issued to such occupant under this Act[1] shall reserve to the town site the area covered by such streets and alleys as extended. (May 25, 1926, c. 379, § 2, 44 Stat. 630.)

New section.

369b. Survey of nonmineral public lands into lots and blocks.—Whenever he shall find nonmineral public lands in Alaska to be claimed and occupied by Indians or Eskimos of full or mixed blood, natives of Alaska, as a town or village, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to have such lands surveyed into lots, blocks, streets, and alleys, and to issue a patent therefor to a trustee who shall convey to the individual Indian or Eskimo the land so claimed and occupied, exclusive of that embraced in streets or alleys: Provided, That any patent or deed to be issued under this section shall be subject to all the provisions, limitations, and restrictions of section 1 of this Act[5] with respect to Indian and Eskimo claims to land occupied by them within the limits of town sites established or to be established under said Act of March 3, 1891.[6] (May 25, 1926, c. 379, § 3, 44 Stat. 630.)

New section.

369c. Regulations by Secretary of the Interior.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to prescribe appropriate regulations for the administration of this Act.[7] (May 25, 1926, c. 379, § 4, 44 Stat. 630.)

New section.

Homesteads

379. Homestead claims; rectangular system of surveys; departure on account of local or topographic conditions.—That the provisions of the Act of May 14, 1898[8] (Thirtieth Statutes at Large, page 409), extending the homestead laws to Alaska, and the Act of March 3, 1903[8] (Thirty-second Statutes at Large, page 1028), amendatory thereof, in so far as they require that the lands so settled upon, or to be settled upon, if unsurveyed, must be located in rectangular form by north and south lines running according to the true meridian, and marked upon the ground by permanent monuments at each of the four corners; and the provisions of the Act of June 28, 1918[9] (Fortieth Statutes at Large, page 632), in so far as they require that surveys executed thereunder, without expense to the claimant, must follow the general system of the public land surveys, shall not apply where, by reason of the local or topographic conditions, it is not feasible or economical to include in a rectangular form with cardinal boundaries the lands desired; but all such claims must be compact and approximately rectangular in form, and marked upon the ground by permanent monuments at each corner, and the entryman or claimant shall conform his boundaries thereto. In all other respects the claims will be in conformity with the provisions of the aforesaid Acts. (Apr. 13, 1926, c. 121, § 1, 44 Stat. 243.)

New section. Act of Apr. 13, 1926, c. 121, 44 Stat. 243, cited to the text, was entitled "An Act to authorize a departure from the rectangular system of surveys of homestead claims in Alaska, and for other purposes."

380. Soldier's additional entry; trade or manufacturing site; application for official survey; deposit.—That if the rectangular system of the public lands surveys has not been extended over the lands included in a soldier's additional homestead entry, authorized by the aforesaid Act of May 14, 1898, as amended by the Act of March 3, 1903,[10] or a trade and manufacturing site authorized by section 10 of the first-named Act,[11] the entryman or claimant may, upon the approval of the register and receiver, make application to the public survey office for an official survey of his claim, accompanied by a deposit of the estimated cost of the field and office work incident to the execution of such survey. Upon receipt of the application and its accompanying deposit the public survey office will immediately issue appropriate instructions for the survey of the lands involved, to be executed by the surveying service of the General Land Office not later than the next surveying season under the direction of the supervisor of surveys, unless by reason of the inaccessibility of the locality or other conditions the supervisor of surveys decides that it will result to the advantage of the Government or claimants to have the survey executed by a United States deputy surveyor, in which event the laws and regulations now governing the execution of the surveys by United States deputy surveyors will be observed. (Apr. 13, 1926, c. 121, § 2, 44 Stat. 243.)

New section. See note to § 379 of this title of the appendix.

381. Disposition of deposit; rules.—The sum so deposited shall be held by the public survey office, and may be expended by it in payment of the cost of such survey, including field and office work; and any excess over the cost of the survey shall be repaid to the depositor or his legal representative. The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to make all necessary rules and regulations to carry this Act[12] into full force and effect. (Apr. 13, 1926, c. 121, § 3, 44 Stat. 244.)

New section. See note to § 379 of this title of the appendix.

Chapter 3.—HAWAII.

THE LEGISLATURE AND LEGISLATIVE POWER

562. Scope of legislative power.—The legislative power of the Territory shall extend to all rightful subjects of legislation not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States locally applicable. The legislature, from time to time, shall reapportion the membership in the senate and house of representatives among the senatorial and representative districts on the basis of the population in each of said districts who are citizens of the Territory; but the legislature shall not grant to any corporation, association, or individual any special or exclusive privilege, immunity, or franchise without the approval of Congress; nor shall it grant private charters, but it may by general act permit persons to associate themselves together as bodies corporate for manufacturing, agricultural, and other industrial pursuits, and for conducting the business of insurance, savings banks, banks of discount and deposit (but not of issue), loan, trust, and guaranty associations, for the establishment and conduct of cemeteries, and for the construction and operation of railroads, wagon roads, vessels, and irrigating ditches, and the colonization and improvement of lands in connection therewith, or for colleges, seminaries, churches, libraries, or any other benevolent, charitable, or scientific association. No divorce shall be granted by the legislature, unless the applicant therefor shall have resided in the Territory for two years next preceding the application, but this provision shall not affect any action pending on April 30, 1900; nor shall any lottery or sale of lottery tickets be allowed; nor shall any public money be appropriated for the support or benefit of any sectarian, denominational, or private school, or any school not under the exclusive control of the government; nor shall the government of the Territory of Hawaii, or any political or municipal corporation or subdivision of the Territory, make any subscription to the capital stock of any incorporated company, or in any manner lend its credit for the use thereof; nor shall any debt be authorized to be contracted by or on behalf of the Territory, or any political or municipal corporation or subdivision thereof, except to pay the interest upon the existing indebtedness, to suppress insurrection, or to provide for the common defense, except that in addition to any indebtedness created for such purposes the legislature may authorize loans by the Territory, or any such subdivision thereof, for the erection of penal, charitable, and educational institutions, and for public buildings, wharves, roads, and harbor and other public improvements, but the total of such indebtedness incurred in any one year by the Territory or any such subdivision shall not exceed 1 per centum of the assessed value of the property in the Territory or subdivision, respectively as shown by the then last assessments for taxation, whether such assessments are made by the Territory or the subdivision or subdivisions, and the total indebtedness of the Territory shall not at any time be extended beyond 10 per centum of such assessed value of property in the Territory and the total indebtedness of any such subdivision shall not at any time be extended beyond 5 per centum of such assessed value of property in the subdivision, but nothing in this chapter shall prevent the refunding of any indebtedness at any time; nor shall any such loan be made upon the credit of the public domain or part thereof; nor shall any bond or other instrument of any such indebtedness be issued unless made payable in not more than thirty years from the date of the issue thereof; nor shall any issue of bonds or other instruments of any such indebtedness be made after July 1, 1926, other than such bonds or other instruments of indebtedness in serial form maturing in substantially equal annual installments, the first installment to mature not later than five years from the date of the issue of such series, and the last installment not later than thirty years from the date of such issue; nor shall any such bond or indebtedness be issued or incurred until approved by the President of the United States. The legislature may by general act provide for the condemnation of property for public uses, including the condemnation of rights of way for the transmission of water for irrigation and other purposes. (Apr. 30, 1900, c. 339, § 55, 31 Stat. 150; May 27, 1910, c. 258, § 4, 36 Stat. 444; July 9, 1921, c. 42, § 302, 42 Stat. 116; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 134, § 3, 42 Stat. 223; June 9, 1926, c. 512, §§ 1, 2, 44 Stat. 710.)

Section 562 of Title 48 amended.—The provisions of Act of Apr. 30, 1900, as amended, constituting § 562 of Title 48 of the Code, has been again amended by Act of June 9, 1926, c. 512, §§ 1, 2, 44

AIR COMMERCE ACT

171. Air commerce; definitions.—That as used in this Act,[1] the term "air commerce" means transportation in whole or in part by aircraft of persons or property for hire, navigation of aircraft in furtherance of a business, or navigation of aircraft from one place to another for operation in the conduct of a business. As used in this Act,[1] the term "interstate or foreign air commerce" means air commerce between any State, Territory, or possession, or the District of Columbia, and any place outside thereof; or between points within the same State, Territory, or possession, or the District of Columbia, but through the air space over any place outside thereof; or wholly within the air space over any Territory or possession or the District of Columbia. (May 20, 1926, c. 344, § 1, 44 Stat. 568.)

New section.

Act of May 20, 1926, c. 344, 44 Stat. 568, cited to the text, is entitled "An Act to encourage and regulate the use of aircraft in commerce, and for other purposes."

Section 5 (e) of said Act amends Act of Oct. 1, 1890, § 3, 36 Stat. 653, Title 15, § 313, and may be found in Title 15 of this appendix. The first sentence of § 8 will be found in § 592a of Title 5 of this appendix.

172. Promotion of air commerce.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of Commerce to foster air commerce in accordance with the provisions of this Act,[1] and for such purpose—

(a) To encourage the establishment of airports, civil airways, and other air navigation facilities.

(b) To make recommendations to the Secretary of Agriculture as to necessary meteorological service.

(c) To study the possibilities for the development of air commerce and the aeronautical industry and trade in the United States and to collect and disseminate information relative thereto and also as regards the existing state of the art.

(d) To advise with the Bureau of Standards and other agencies in the executive branch of the Government in carrying forward such research and development work as tends to create improved air navigation facilities. The Secretary of Commerce is authorized to transfer funds available for carrying out the purposes of this subdivision to any such agency for carrying forward such research and development work in cooperation with the Department of Commerce.

(e) To investigate, record, and make public the causes of accidents in civil air navigation in the United States.

(f) To exchange with foreign governments through existing governmental channels information pertaining to civil air navigation. (May 20, 1926, c. 344, § 2, 44 Stat. 569.)

New section. See note to § 171 of this title of the appendix.

173. Regulatory powers.—The Secretary of Commerce shall by regulation—

(a) Registration of aircraft.—Provide for the granting of registration to aircraft eligible for registration, if the owner requests such registration. No aircraft shall be eligible for registration (1) unless it is a civil aircraft owned by a citizen of the United States and not registered under the laws of any foreign country, or (2) unless it is a public aircraft of the Federal Government, or of a State, Territory, or possession, or of a political subdivision thereof. All aircraft registered under this subdivision shall be known as aircraft of the United States.

(b) Rating of aircraft as to airworthiness; basis; re-rating.—Provide for the rating of aircraft of the United States as to their airworthiness. As a basis for rating, the Secretary of Commerce (1) may require, before the granting of registration for any aircraft first applying therefor more than eight months after the passage of this Act, full particulars of the design and of the calculations upon which the design is based and of the materials and methods used in the construction; and (2) may in his discretion accept in whole or in part the reports of properly qualified persons employed by the manufacturers or owners of aircraft; and (3) may require the periodic examination of aircraft in service and reports upon such examination by officers or employees of the Department of Commerce or by properly qualified private persons. The Secretary may accept any such examination and report by such qualified persons in lieu of examination by the employees of the Department of Commerce. The qualifications of any person for the purposes of this section shall be demonstrated in a manner specified by and satisfactory to the Secretary. The Secretary may, from time to time, re-rate aircraft as to their airworthiness upon the basis of information obtained under this subdivision.

(c) Examination and rating of airmen.—Provide for the periodic examination and rating of airmen serving in connection with aircraft of the United States as to their qualifications for such service.

(d) Examination and rating of air navigation facilities.—Provide for the examination and rating of air navigation facilities available for the use of aircraft of the United States as to their suitability for such use.

(e) Air traffic rules.—Establish air traffic rules for the navigation, protection, and identification of aircraft, including rules as to safe altitudes of flight and rules for the prevention of collisions between vessels and aircraft.

(f) Issuance, suspension and revocation of certificates; procedure in case of denial, suspension or revocation; hearing; effect of decision.—Provide for the issuance and expiration, and for the suspension and revocation, of registration, aircraft, and airman certificates, and such other certificates as the Secretary of Commerce deems necessary in administering the functions vested in him under this Act.[2] Within 20 days after notice that application for any certificate is denied or that a certificate is suspended or revoked, the applicant or holder may file a written request with the Secretary of Commerce for a public hearing thereon. The Secretary upon receipt of the request shall forthwith (1) arrange for a public hearing to be held within 20 days after such receipt in such place as the Secretary deems most practicable and convenient in view of the place of residence of the applicant or holder and the place where evidence bearing on the cause for the denial, suspension, or revocation is most readily obtainable, and (2) give the applicant or holder at least ten days' notice of the hearing, unless an earlier hearing is consented to by him. Notice under this subdivision may be served personally upon the applicant or holder or sent him by registered mail. The Secretary, or any officer or employee of the Department of Commerce designated by him in writing for the purpose, may hold any such hearing and for the purposes thereof administer oaths, examine witnesses, and issue subpœnas for the attendance and testimony of witnesses, or the production of books, papers, documents, and other evidence, or the taking of depositions before any designated individual competent to administer oaths. Witnesses summoned or whose depositions are taken shall receive the same fees and mileage as witnesses in courts of the United States. All evidence taken at the hearing shall be recorded and forwarded to the Secretary for decision in the matter to be rendered not later than ten days after completion of the hearing. The decision of the Secretary, if in accordance with law, shall be final. The denial, suspension, or revocation shall be invalid unless opportunity for hearing is afforded, notice served or sent, and decision rendered within the respective times prescribed by this subdivision. (May 20, 1926, c. 344, § 3, 44 Stat. 569.)

New section. See note to § 171 of this title of the appendix.

174. Airspace reservations.—The President is authorized to provide by Executive order for the setting apart and the protection of airspace reservations in the United States for national defense or other governmental purposes and, in addition, in the District of Columbia for public safety purposes. The several States may set apart and provide for the protection of necessary airspace reservations in addition to and not in conflict either with airspace reservations established by the President under this section or with any civil or military airway designated under the provisions of this Act.[2] (May 20, 1926, c. 344, § 4, 44 Stat. 570.)

New section. See note to § 171 of this title of the appendix.

175. Aids to air navigation.—(a) Transfer of airways, facilities, etc., by Postmaster General; expenditure of appropriation.—Whenever at any time the Postmaster General and the Secretary of Commerce by joint order so direct, the airways under the jurisdiction and control of the Postmaster General, together with all emergency landing fields and other air navigation facilities (except airports and terminal landing fields) used in connection therewith, shall be transferred to the jurisdiction and control of the Secretary of Commerce, and the established airports and terminal landing fields may be transferred to the jurisdiction and control of the municipalities concerned under arrangements subject to approval by the President. All unexpended balances of appropriations which are available for and which have been allotted for expenditure upon such airways, emergency landing fields, and other air navigation facilities, except airports and terminal landing fields, shall thereupon be available for expenditure under the direction of the Secretary of Commerce, in lieu of the Postmaster General, for the purposes for which such appropriations were made. No part of such unexpended balances of appropriations shall be used for the purchase or establishment of airports or terminal landing fields.

(b) Establishment of civil airways and navigation facilities; publication of maps; no exclusive right to be granted.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized to designate and establish civil airways and, within the limits of available appropriations hereafter made by the Congress, (1) to establish, operate, and maintain along such airways all necessary air navigation facilities except airports; and (2) to chart such airways and arrange for publication of maps of such airways, utilizing the facilities and assistance of existing agencies of the Government so far as practicable. The Secretary of Commerce shall grant no exclusive right for the use of any civil airway, airport, emergency landing field, or other air navigation facility under his jurisdiction.

(c) Availability of government facilities for public use.—Air navigation facilities owned or operated by the United States may be made available for public use under such conditions and to such extent as the head of the department or other independent establishment having jurisdiction thereof deems advisable and may by regulation prescribe.

(d) Sale of fuel and supplies; service and shelter; prices; disposition of receipts.—The head of any Government department or other independent establishment having jurisdiction over any airport or emergency landing field owned or operated by the United States may provide for the sale to any aircraft of fuel, oil, equipment, and supplies, and the furnishing to it of mechanical service, temporary shelter, and other assistance under such regulations as the head of the department or establishment may prescribe, but only if such action is by reason of an emergency necessary to the continuance of such aircraft on its course to the nearest airport operated by private enterprise. All such articles shall be sold and such assistance furnished at the fair market value prevailing locally as ascertained by the head of such department or establishment. All amounts received under this subdivision shall be covered into the Treasury; but that part of such amounts which, in the judgment of the head of the department or establishment, is equivalent to the cost of the fuel, oil, equipment, supplies, services, shelter, or other assistance so sold or furnished shall be credited to the appropriation from which such cost was paid, and the balance, if any, shall be credited to miscellaneous receipts.

[2] "This Act" should be translated "sections 171 to 184 of this title of the appendix."

(f) Effect of Act on designation of military airways; designation of military airway as civil airway; effect of such designation.—Nothing in this Act[2] shall be construed to prevent the Secretary of War from designating routes in the navigable airspace as military airways and prescribing rules and regulations for the use thereof on routes which do not conform to civil airways established hereunder, or to prevent the Secretary of Commerce from designating any military airway as a civil airway, and when so designated it shall thereupon become a civil airway within the meaning of this Act,[2] and the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to continue the operation of air navigation facilities for any military airway so designated as a civil airway until such time as the Secretary of Commerce can provide for the operation of such facilities. (May 20, 1926, c. 344, § 5, 44 Stat. 370.)

176. Foreign aircraft.—(a) Sovereignty of airspace declared; navigation of foreign military aircraft.—The Congress hereby declares that the Government of the United States has, to the exclusion of all foreign nations, complete sovereignty of the airspace over the lands and waters of the United States, including the Canal Zone. Aircraft a part of the armed forces of any foreign nation shall not be navigated in the United States, including the Canal Zone, except in accordance with an authorization granted by the Secretary of State.

(b) Navigation of foreign civil aircraft; authorization; applicability of regulations.—Foreign aircraft not a part of the armed forces of the foreign nation shall be navigated in the United States only if authorized as hereinafter in this section provided; and if so authorized, such aircraft and airmen serving in connection therewith, shall be subject to the requirements of section 3, unless exempt under subdivision (c) of this section.

(c) Navigation of foreign civil aircraft; condition of authorization; exemption from regulations; engagement in air commerce.—If a foreign nation grants a similar privilege in respect of aircraft of the United States, and/or airmen serving in connection therewith, the Secretary of Commerce may authorize aircraft registered under the law of the foreign nation and not a part of the armed forces thereof to be navigated in the United States, and may by regulation exempt such aircraft, and/or airmen serving in connection therewith, from the requirements of section 3, other than the air traffic rules; but no foreign aircraft shall engage in interstate or intrastate air commerce. (May 20, 1926, c. 344, § 6, 44 Stat. 572.)

New section. See note to § 171 of this supplemental title.

Section 3, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 173 of this title of the appendix.

177. Application of existing laws relating to foreign commerce.—(a) Application of navigation and shipping laws to aircraft.—The navigation and shipping laws of the United States, including any definition of "vessel" or "vehicle" found therein and including the rules for the prevention of collisions, shall not be construed to apply to seaplanes or other aircraft or to the navigation of vessels in relation to seaplanes or other aircraft.

(b) Designation of ports of entry; detail of officers; application of customs and public health laws.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to (1) designate places in the United States as ports of entry for civil aircraft arriving in the United States from any place outside thereof and for merchandise carried on such aircraft, (2) detail to ports of entry for civil aircraft such officers and employees of the customs service as he may deem necessary, and to confer or impose upon any officer or employee of the United States stationed at any such port of entry (with the consent of the head of the Government department or other independent establishment under whose jurisdiction the officer or employee is serving) any of the powers, privileges, or duties conferred or imposed upon officers or employees of the customs service, and (3) by regulation to provide for the application to civil air navigation of the laws and regulations relating to the administration of the customs and public health laws to such extent and upon such conditions as he deems necessary.

(c) Application of laws relating to entry and clearance of vessels.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized by regulation to provide for the application to civil aircraft of the laws and regulations relating to the entry and clearance of vessels to such extent and upon such conditions as he deems necessary.

(d) Designation of ports of entry for aliens; detail of officers; application of laws relating to immigration.—The Secretary of Labor is authorized to (1) designate any of the ports of entry for civil aircraft as ports of entry for aliens arriving by aircraft, (2) detail to such ports of entry such officers and employees of the immigration service as he may deem necessary, and to confer or impose upon any employee of the United States stationed at such port of entry (with the consent of the head of the Government department or other independent establishment under whose jurisdiction the officer or employee is serving) any of the powers, privileges, or duties conferred or imposed upon officers or employees of the immigration service, and (3) by regulation to provide for the application to civil air navigation of the laws and regulations relating to the administration of the immigration laws to such extent and upon such conditions as he deems necessary. (May 20, 1926, c. 344, § 7, 44 Stat. 372.)

New section. See note to § 171 of this title of the appendix.

178. Powers of Secretary of Commerce; regulations; expenditures; publication of bulletin; acquisition and operation of aircraft, etc.—Except as otherwise specifically provided, the Secretary of Commerce shall administer the provisions of this Act[2] and for such purpose is authorized (1) to make such regulations as are necessary to execute the functions vested in him by this Act;[2] (2) to make such expenditures (including expenditures for personal services and rent at the seat of government and elsewhere and for law books, books of reference, and periodicals) as may be necessary for such administration and as may be provided for by the Congress from time to time; (3) to publish from time to time a bulletin setting forth such matters relating to the functions vested in him by this Act[2] as he deems advisable, including air navigation treaties, laws, and regulations and decisions thereunder; and (4) to operate, and for this purpose to acquire within the limits of the available appropriations hereafter made by the Congress, such aircraft and air navigation facilities, except airports, as are necessary for executing the functions vested in the Secretary of Commerce by this Act.[2] (May 20, 1926, c. 344, § 8, 44 Stat. 573.)

New section. See note to § 171 of this title of the appendix. As noted therein, the first sentence of this section, providing for the appointment of an additional Assistant Secretary of Commerce will be found in chapter 10 of Title 5 of this appendix.

179. Definitions.—As used in this Act—

(a) The term "citizen of the United States" means (1) an individual who is a citizen of the United States or its possessions, or (2) a partnership of which each member is an individual who is a citizen of the United States or its possessions, or (3) a corporation or association created or organized in the United States or under the law of the United States or of any State, Territory, or possession thereof, of which the president and two-thirds or more of the board of directors or other managing officers thereof, as the case may be, are individuals who are citizens of the United States or its possessions and in which at least 51 per centum of the voting interest is controlled by persons who are citizens of the United States or its possessions.

(b) The term "United States," when used in a geographical sense, means the territory comprising the several States, Territories, possessions, and the District of Columbia (including the territorial waters thereof), and the overlying airspace; but shall not include the Canal Zone.

(c) The term "aircraft" means any contrivance now known or hereafter invented, used, or designed for navigation of or flight in the air, except a parachute or other contrivance designed for such navigation but used primarily as safety equipment.

(d) The term "public aircraft" means an aircraft used exclusively in the governmental service.

(e) The term "civil aircraft" means any aircraft other than a public aircraft.

(f) The term "aircraft of the United States" means any aircraft registered under this Act.[2]

(g) The term "airport" means any locality, either of water or land, which is adapted for the landing and taking off of aircraft and which provides facilities for shelter, supply, and repair of aircraft; or a place used regularly for receiving or discharging passengers or cargo by air.

(h) The term "emergency landing field" means any locality, either of water or land, which is adapted for the landing and taking off of aircraft, is located along an airway, and is intermediate to airports connected by the airway, but which is not equipped with facilities for shelter, supply, and repair of aircraft and is not used regularly for the receipt or discharge of passengers or cargo by air.

(i) The term "air navigation facility" includes any airport, emergency landing field, light or other signal structure, radio directional finding facility, radio or other electrical communication facility, and any other structure or facility, used as an aid to air navigation.

(j) The term "civil airway" means a route in the navigable airspace designated by the Secretary of Commerce as a route suitable for interstate or foreign air commerce.

(k) The term "airman" means any individual (including the person in command and any pilot, mechanic, or member of the crew) who engages in the navigation of aircraft while under way, and any individual who is in charge of the inspection, overhauling, or repairing of aircraft. (May 20, 1926, c. 344, § 9, 44 Stat. 573.)

New section. See note to § 171 of this title of the appendix.

180. Navigable airspace.—As used in this Act, the term "navigable airspace" means airspace above the minimum safe altitudes of flight prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce under section 3, and such navigable airspace shall be subject to a public right of freedom of interstate and foreign air navigation in conformity with the requirements of this Act.[2] (May 20, 1926, c. 344, § 10, 44 Stat. 574.)

New section. See note to § 171 of this title of the appendix. Section 3, mentioned in the text, is set out in § 173 of this title of the appendix.

181. Offenses; penalties.—(a) Infractions in navigation specified.—It shall be unlawful, except to the extent authorized or exempt under section 6—

(1) To navigate any aircraft within any airspace reservation otherwise than in conformity with the Executive orders regulating such reservation.

(2) To navigate any aircraft (other than a foreign aircraft) in interstate or foreign air commerce unless such aircraft is registered as an aircraft of the United States; or to navigate any foreign aircraft in the United States.

(3) To navigate any aircraft registered as an aircraft of the United States, or any foreign aircraft, without an aircraft certificate or in violation of the terms of any such certificate.

(4) To serve as an airman in connection with any aircraft registered as an aircraft of the United States, or any foreign aircraft, without an airman certificate or in violation of the terms of any such certificate.

(5) To navigate any aircraft otherwise than in conformity with the air traffic rules.

(b) Further violations of law; penalties imposable; remission or mitigation; lien; collection; libel proceedings.—Any person who (1) violates any provision of subdivision (a) of this section or any entry or clearance regulation made under section 7, or (2) any customs or public health regulation made under such section, or (3) any immigration regulation made under such section, shall be subject to a civil penalty of $500 which may be remitted or mitigated by the Secretary of Commerce, the Secretary of the Treasury, or the Secretary of Labor, respectively, in accordance with such proceedings as the Secretary shall by regulation prescribe. In case the violation is by the owner or person in command of the aircraft, the penalty shall be a lien against the aircraft. Any civil penalty imposed under this section may be collected by proceedings in personam against the person subject to the penalty and/or in case the penalty is a lien, by proceedings in rem against the aircraft. Such proceedings shall conform as nearly as may be to civil suits in admiralty; except that either party may demand trial by jury of any issue of fact, if the value in controversy exceeds $20, and facts so tried shall not be reexamined other than in accordance with the rules of the common law. The fact that in a libel in rem the seizure is made at a place not upon the high seas or navigable waters of the United States, shall not be held in any way to limit the requirement of the conformity of the proceedings to civil suits in rem in admiralty. The Supreme Court of the United States, and under its direction other courts of the United States, are authorized to prescribe rules regulating such proceedings in any particular not provided by law. The determination under this section as to the remission or mitigation of a civil penalty imposed under this section shall be final. In case libel proceedings are pending at any time during the pendency of remission or mitigation proceedings, the Secretary shall give notice thereof to the United States attorney prosecuting the libel proceedings.

(c) Seizure under lien; enforcement; release.—Any aircraft subject to a lien for any civil penalty imposed under this section may be summarily seized by and placed in the custody of such persons as the appropriate Secretary may by regulation prescribe and a report of the case thereupon transmitted to the United States attorney for the judicial district in which the seizure is made. The United States attorney shall promptly institute proceedings for the enforcement of the lien or notify the Secretary of his failure so to act. The aircraft shall be released from such custody upon (1) payment of the penalty or so much thereof as is not remitted or mitigated, (2) seizure in pursuance of process of any court in proceedings in rem for enforcement of the lien, or notification by the United States attorney of failure to institute such proceedings, or (3) deposit of a bond in such amount and with such sureties as the Secretary may prescribe, conditioned upon the payment of the penalty or so much thereof as is not remitted or mitigated.

(d) Forging or altering certificate; penalty.—Any person who fraudulently forges, counterfeits, alters, or falsely makes any certificate authorized to be issued under this Act,[2] or knowingly uses or attempts to use any such fraudulent certificate shall be guilty of an offense punishable by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding three years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(e) Exhibition of or interference with lights or signals; penalties.—Any person (1) who, with intent to interfere with air navigation in the navigable airspace or waters of the United States, exhibits within the United States any false light or signal at such place or in such manner that it is likely to be mistaken for a true light or signal required by regulation under this Act,[2] or for a true light or signal in connection with an airport or other air navigation facility, or (2) who, after due warning from the Secretary of Commerce continues to maintain any false light or signal, or (3) who knowingly removes, extinguishes, or interferes with the operation of any such true light or signal, or (4) who without lawful authority knowingly exhibits any such true light or signal, shall be guilty of an offense punishable by a fine not exceeding $5,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

[2] "This Act" should be translated "sections 171 to 184 of this title of the appendix."

(f) Disposition of penalties.—All penalties paid under this Act,[2] shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts. (May 20, 1926, c. 344, § 11, 44 Stat. 574.)

New section. See note to § 171 of this title of the appendix.

Sections 6 and 7, mentioned in the text, are set out in §§ 176 and 177 of this title of the appendix.

182. Separability.—If any provision of this Act[2] is declared unconstitutional or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of the Act and the application of such provision to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby. (May 20, 1926, c. 344, § 12, 44 Stat. 575.)

New section. See note to § 171 of this title of the appendix.

183. Time of taking effect.—This Act[2] shall take effect upon its passage; except that no penalty shall be enforced for any violation thereof occurring within 90 days thereafter. (May 20, 1926, c. 344, § 13, 44 Stat. 576.)

New section. See note to § 171 of this title of the appendix.

184. Short title.—This Act[2] may be cited as the "Air Commerce Act of 1926." (May 20, 1926, c. 344, § 14, 44 Stat. 576.)

New section. See note to § 171 of this title of the appendix.

SUPPLEMENTAL LEGISLATION

201. Air Corps; detail of officers to promote civil aviation.—That the President of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized in his discretion to detail officers of the Air Corps of the Army of the United States to duty under the Secretary of Commerce in connection with the work of promoting civil aviation as provided for in the Air Commerce Act of 1926: Provided, That such detail shall not be for a period of more than one year. (July 3, 1926, c. 807, 44 Stat. 915.)

New section. This section is derived from a joint resolution entitled "Joint resolution authorizing the detail of officers of the Army Air Corps to duty with the Commerce Department in connection with the development of civil aviation."

The Air Commerce Act of 1926, mentioned in the text, constitutes §§ 171 to 184 of this title of the appendix.

Chapter 5.—ARSENALS, ARMORIES, ARMS, AND WAR MATERIAL GENERALLY.

81. Military surveys and maps.

Section 81 of Title 50 repeated.—The statutory provision constituting § 81 of Title 50 of the Code has been repeated in Act of Apr. 15, 1926, c. 146, Title I, 44 Stat. 272.

Chapter 9.—AIRCRAFT.

154. Purchases by and services to National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics; advertising for proposals.—Hereafter section 3709 of the Revised Statutes of the United States[1] shall not be construed to apply to any purchase or service rendered for the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics when the aggregate amount involved does not exceed the sum of $50. (Apr. 22, 1926, c. 171, 44 Stat. 314.)
