Fifth. He shall, so far as is compatible with the desk duties of his office, occasionally inspect the surveying operations while in progress in the field, sufficiently to satisfy himself of the fidelity of the execution of the work according to contract, and the actual and necessary expenses incurred by him while so engaged shall be allowed; and where it is incompatible with his other duties for the Supervisor of Surveys to devote the time necessary to make a personal inspection of the work in progress, then he is authorized to depute a confidential agent to make such examination; and the actual and necessary expenses of such person shall be allowed and paid for that service, and $5 a day during the examination in the field; but such examination shall not be protracted beyond thirty days; and in no case longer than is actually necessary; and when the Supervisor of Surveys, or any person employed in his office at a regular salary, is engaged in such special service, he shall receive only his necessary expenses in addition to his regular salary. (R. S. § 2223; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

53. Powers devolved on Commissioner of Land Office on turning over of papers to States.—In all cases where, as provided in the preceding section, the field notes, maps, records, and other papers appertaining to land titles in any State are turned over to the authorities of such State, the same authority, powers, and duties in relation to the survey, resurvey, or subdivision of the lands therein, and all matters and things connected therewith, as previously exercised by the surveyor general, whose district included such State, shall be vested in, and devolved upon, the Commissioner of the General Land Office. (R. S. § 2219.)

54. Completion of surveys; delivery to States.—The Secretary of the Interior shall take all the necessary measures for the completion of the surveys in the several surveying districts, at the earliest periods compatible with the purposes contemplated by law; and whenever the surveys and records of any such district are completed, the Supervisor of Surveys shall deliver over to the secretary of state of the respective States, including such surveys, or to such other officer as may be authorized to receive them, all the field notes, maps, records, and other papers appertaining to land titles within the same. (R. S. §§ 2207, 2218; June 5, 1924, c. 264, 43 Stat. 394; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

55. Field notes delivered to States; access to.—Under the authority and direction of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, any deputy surveyor or other agent of the United States shall have free access to any such field notes, maps, records, and other papers, for the purpose of taking extracts therefrom, or making copies thereof, without charge of any kind. (R. S. § 2220.)

56. Conditions of delivery to States.—The field notes, maps, records, and other papers mentioned in section 53, shall in no case be turned over to the authorities of any State, until such State has provided by law for the reception and safe-keeping of the same as public records, and for the allowance of free access to the same by the authorities of the United States. (R. S. § 2221.)

57. Authenticated copies or extracts from records as evidence.—Any copy of or extract from the plats, field notes, records, or other papers of the offices of the former surveyors general for the districts of Oregon and California, when authenticated by the seal and signature of the Supervisor of Surveys, shall be evidence in all cases in which the original would be evidence. (R. S. § 2224; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

58. Transcripts from records of Louisiana.—Any copy of a plat of survey, or transcript from the records of the office of the former surveyor general of Louisiana, duly certified, shall be admitted as evidence in all the courts of the United States and the Territories thereof. (R. S. § 2225.)

59. Official papers in office of surveyor general in California; copies.—All official books, papers, instruments of writing, documents, archives, official seals, stamps, or dies, which have been authorized by law to be collected and deposited in the surveyor general's office in California, shall be safely and securely kept by the Supervisor of Surveys in the archives of his office; and copies thereof, authenticated by the Supervisor of Surveys under his seal of office, shall be evidence in all cases where the originals would be evidence. (R. S. § 2229; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

60. Stationery for mineral surveys.—The stationery and drafting instruments purchased for exclusive use of the Field Surveying Service in the preparation of plats and field notes of mineral surveys, as also the rent of additional quarters that may be necessary for the execution of such work, shall be paid for out of the fund created by deposits made by individuals to the credit of the United States to cover the cost of office work on such mineral surveys. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 830, § 1, 31 Stat. 1003; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

61. Deputy surveyor; bond.—Every deputy surveyor shall enter into bond, with sufficient security, for the faithful performance of all surveying contracts confided to him; and the penalty of the bond, in each case, shall be double the estimated amount of money accruing under such contracts, at the rate per mile stipulated to be paid therein. The sufficiency of the sureties to all such bonds shall be approved and certified by the Supervisor of Surveys. (R. S. § 2230; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

62. Oath of deputy surveyor.—The Supervisor of Surveys, in addition to the oath authorized by law to be administered to deputies on their appointment to office, shall require each of his deputies, on the return of his surveys, to take and subscribe an oath that those surveys have been faithfully and correctly executed, according to law and the instructions of the Supervisor of Surveys. (R. S. § 2231; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

63. Suit on bond of deputy.—The district attorney of the United States, in whose district any false, erroneous, or fraudulent surveys have been executed, shall, upon the application of the Supervisor of Surveys, immediately institute suit upon the bond of such deputy; and the institution of such suit shall act as a lien upon any property owned or held by such deputy, or his sureties, at the time such suit was instituted. (R. S. § 2232; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

Section 71. Offices of register and receiver consolidated.—The offices of register and receiver of such land offices as may have two officials shall be consolidated as of July 1, 1925, and the applicable provisions of the Act of October 28, 1921, chapter 114, authorizing the President to consolidate the offices of register and receiver in any district land office and to appoint by and with the advice and consent of the Senate a register for such land office and to abolish the office of receiver of such land office shall be followed in effecting such consolidation. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

72. Appointment of register; duties; bonds.—There shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a register of the land office for each land district established by law, who shall have charge of and attend to the sale of public and Indian lands within his district, as provided by law and official regulations, and shall be accountable under his official bond for the proceeds of such sales, and for all fees, commissions, or other moneys received by him under any provision of law or official regulation. (R. S. § 2234; Jan. 27, 1898, c. 10, 30 Stat. 234.)

73. Designation of chief clerk to act in case of death, resignation, removal, or disability of register.—In case of a vacancy in the office of register by reason of death, resignation, or removal, or in case of inability to act, the Secretary of the Interior may designate for the period of such vacancy or inability to act the chief clerk of such office, or any other qualified employee of the Department of the Interior to act as register, subject to the filing of such bond or bonds as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe, and the same authority is conferred upon the person so designated which such register lawfully possesses, except that no contest or protest shall be decided or disposed of by such clerk or employee, but all such decisions shall be deferred until the appointment or return of the register. (Oct. 28, 1921, c. 114, § 2, 42 Stat. 208.)

74. Transfer of duties of register.—The President is authorized, in any case where he thinks the public interest may require it, to transfer the duties of register in any district to the Field Surveying Service. (R. S. § 2228; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144, 1145.)

75. Oaths administered by.—The register is authorized, and it shall be his duty, to administer any oath required by law or the instructions of the General Land Office, in connection with the entry or purchase of any tract of the public lands; but he shall not charge or receive, directly or indirectly, any compensation for administering such oath. (R. S. § 2246; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

76. Duration of office.—All registers shall be appointed for the term of four years, but shall be removable at pleasure. (R. S. § 2244; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

77. Continuation of duties after expiration of commission.—Every register, except where the President sees cause otherwise to determine, is authorized to continue in the uninterrupted discharge of his regular official duties, after the day of expiration of his commission, and until a new commission is issued to him for the same office, or until the day when a successor enters upon the duties of such office; and the existing official bond of any officer so acting shall be deemed good and sufficient, and in force, until the date of the approval of a new bond to be given by him, if recommissioned, or otherwise, for the additional time he may so continue officially to act, pursuant to the authority of this section. (R. S. § 2222; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

78. Residence.—Every register shall reside at the place where the land office for which he is appointed is directed by law to be kept. (R. S. § 2235; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

79. Bonds.—Every register shall, before entering on the duties of his office, give bond in the penal sum of $10,000, with approved security, for the faithful discharge of his trust. (R. S. § 2236; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

80. Salary; maximum compensation.—Every register shall be paid a salary of $500 per annum except as otherwise provided in section 367 of Title 48, TERRITORIES, together with the fees and commissions otherwise allowable, but the salary, fees, and commissions shall in no case exceed in the aggregate $3,000 a year, and no register shall receive for any one quarter or fractional quarter more than a pro rata allowance of such maximum. (R. S. §§ 2237, 2240; Oct. 28, 1921, c. 114, § 1, 42 Stat. 208; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

81. Commencement of compensation.—The compensation of registers, both for salary and commissions, shall commence and be calculated from the time they enter on the discharge of their duties. (R. S. § 2243; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

82. Fees and commissions.—Registers, in addition to their salaries, shall be allowed the following fees and commissions, namely:

First. A fee of $2 for each declaratory statement filed.

Second. A commission of 2 per centum on all moneys received.

Third. A commission to be paid by the homestead applicant, at the time of entry, of 2 per centum on the cash price, as fixed by law, of the land applied for; and a like commission when the claim is finally established, and the certificate therefor issued as the basis of a patent.

Fourth. For locating military bounty land warrants, issued since the 11th day of February, 1847, and for locating agricultural-college land scrip, the same commission, to be paid by the holder or assignee of each warrant or scrip, as is allowed for sales of the public lands for cash, at the rate of $1.25 per acre.

Fifth. A fee in donation cases of $5 for each final certificate for one hundred and sixty acres of land, $10 for three hundred and twenty acres, and $15 for six hundred and forty acres.

Sixth. In the location of lands by States and corporations under grants from Congress for railroads and other purposes (except for agricultural colleges), a fee of $2 for each final location of one hundred and sixty acres; to be paid by the State or corporation making such location.

Seventh. A fee of $10 for filing and acting upon each application for patent or adverse claim filed for mineral lands, to be paid by the respective parties.

Eighth. A fee at the rate of 15 cents per hundred words for testimony reduced to writing for claimants, in establishing desert-land and homestead rights.

Ninth. A like fee as provided in the preceding subdivision when such writing is done in the land office, in establishing claims for mineral lands.

Tenth. Registers in California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Colorado, Idaho, New Mexico, Arizona, Utah, Wyoming, and Montana are each entitled to collect and receive 50 per centum on the fees and commissions provided for in the first, third, and eighth subdivisions of this section.

Eleventh. A fee of 10 cents per hundred words for each transcript of the records in their office made and furnished to individuals.

Twelfth. A fee of $1 for giving notice to contestant of a homestead entry that the contested entry has been cancelled, which fee shall be paid by the contestant. (R. S. § 2238; Mar. 21, 1864, c. 38, § 6, 13 Stat. 36; May 14, 1880, c. 89, § 21, 21 Stat. 141; Dec. 17, 1880, c. 2, 21 Stat. 311; July 26, 1892, c. 251, 27 Stat. 270; Mar. 22, 1904, c. 748, 33 Stat. 144; May 29, 1908, c. 220, § 14, 35 Stat. 468; May 24, 1922, c. 199, 42 Stat. 558; Jan. 24, 1923, c. 42, 42 Stat. 1179; June 5, 1924, c. 264, 43 Stat. 395; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

83. Fees for transcripts of records; transcripts of records as evidence.—Registers of United States land offices shall, in addition to the fees allowed by law on March 22, 1904, be entitled to charge and receive for making transcripts of the records in their offices for individuals, the sum of 10 cents per hundred words for each transcript so furnished; and the transcripts thus furnished, when duly certified to by the register, shall be admitted as evidence in all courts of the United States and the Territories thereof, and before all officials authorized to receive evidence, with the same force and effect as the original records. (Mar. 22, 1904, c. 748, 33 Stat. 144; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

84. Fees for consolidated land offices.—The register for any consolidated land district, in addition to the fees otherwise allowed by law, shall be entitled to charge and receive for making transcripts for individuals, or furnishing any other record information respecting public lands or land titles in his consolidated land district, such fees as are properly authorized by the tariff existing in the local courts of his district. (R. S. § 2239; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

85. Excess of fees covered into Treasury.—All fees collected by registers from any source whatever, which would increase their salaries beyond $3,000 a year, shall be covered into the Treasury, except only so much as may be necessary to pay the actual cost of clerical services employed exclusively in contested cases; and they shall make report quarterly, under oath, of all expenditures for such clerical services, with vouchers therefor. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 362, 24 Stat. 526; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 261, § 2, 36 Stat. 1352; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

86. Accounting for fees for notices of cancellation of entries.—All money or fees received or collected by registers of United States land offices for issuing notices of cancellation of entries shall be reported and accounted for by such registers in the same manner as other fees or moneys received or collected. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 261, § 2, 36 Stat. 1352.)

87. Plats of townships and lists of lands sold; compensation.—Registers shall, upon application, furnish plats or diagrams of townships in their respective districts showing what lands are vacant and what lands are taken, and shall be allowed to receive compensation therefor from the party obtaining said plat or diagram at such rates as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of the General Land Office and said officer shall, upon application by the proper State or Territorial authorities, furnish, for the purpose of taxation, a list of all lands sold in their respective districts, together with the names of the purchasers, and shall be allowed to receive compensation for the same not to exceed 10 cents per entry. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 101, § 2, 22 Stat. 484; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

88. Illegal fees.—No register shall receive any compensation out of the Treasury for past services who has charged or received illegal fees; and, on satisfactory proof that such officer has charged or received fees or other rewards not authorized by law, he shall be forthwith removed from office. (R. S. § 2242; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

89. Monthly and quarterly returns of registers.—Registers shall make to the Secretary of the Treasury monthly returns of the moneys received in their several offices, and pay over such money pursuant to his instructions. And they shall also make to the Commissioner of the General Land Office like monthly returns, and transmit to him quarterly accounts current of the debits and credits of their several offices with the United States. (R. S. § 2245; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 261, § 2, 36 Stat. 1352; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

90. Expenses incurred.—No expenses chargeable to the Government shall be incurred by registers in the conduct of local land offices except upon previous specific authorization by the Commissioner of the General Land Office. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 75, 38 Stat. 855; June 12, 1917, c. 27, § 1, 40 Stat. 142; May 24, 1922, c. 199, 42 Stat. 557; Jan. 24, 1923, c. 42, 42 Stat. 1179; June 5, 1924, c. 264, 43 Stat. 395; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

91. Deposit in Treasury of unearned fees and unofficial moneys.—Registers are authorized, under the direction of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, to deposit to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States all unearned fees and unofficial moneys that have been carried upon the books of their respective offices for a period of five years or more, which sums shall be covered into the Treasury by warrant and carried to the credit of the parties from whom such fees or moneys were received, and into an appropriation account to be denominated "Outstanding liabilities." (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2562, § 1, 34 Stat. 1245; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

92. Lists furnished with deposits.—At the time of making such deposit the register shall furnish a list showing the date when the money was paid to him or to his predecessor; the names and residences of the parties; the purposes of the payments and the amounts thereof, which list shall bear the certificate of the register that the same is correct; that the amounts are due and payable; that diligence has been exercised to return the same, and that the sums specified have remained unclaimed for a period of five years or more. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2562, § 2, 34 Stat. 1245; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

93. Deposit of moneys deposited by unknown parties.—Amounts that appear in a register's accounts as "Moneys deposited by unknown parties" shall also be deposited to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States, accompanied by a list showing the amount and, if possible, the date of the receipt of each item; which list shall bear the certificate of the register that, after careful investigation, the ownership of said moneys could not be determined, and that they have been reported in the unearned fees and unofficial moneys accounts for five years or more. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2562, § 3, 34 Stat. 1245; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

94. Reimbursement of sums disbursed by receivers as special disbursing agents.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any unexpended balances of appropriations for contingent expenses of land offices, for the expenses of hearings in land entries and the expenses of depositing public moneys, such sums as have been or may be disbursed by registers acting as special disbursing agents at United States land offices, before the receipt of Government funds: Provided, That no payment shall be made under this section in excess of the amount appropriated by the Congress for the particular purpose in each instance and for the fiscal year in which such disbursements were made: Provided, That all such disbursements shall have been or shall be made in pursuance of law in carrying out departmental regulations or to meet authorizations by the Commissioner of the General Land Office: Provided further, That the accounts containing such items shall have been duly approved by the Commissioner of the General Land Office. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2563, 34 Stat. 1245.)

95. Repayment of purchase moneys paid under applications rejected.—Where purchase moneys and commissions paid under any public land law have been or shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States under any application to make any filing, location, selection, entry, or proof, such purchase moneys and commissions shall be repaid to the person who made such application, entry, or proof, or to his legal representatives, in all cases where such application, entry, or proof has been or shall be rejected, and neither such applicant nor his legal representatives shall have been guilty of any fraud or attempted fraud in connection with such application: Provided, That such person or his legal representatives shall file a request for the repayment of such purchase moneys and commissions within two years from the rejection of such application, entry, or proof. (Mar. 26, 1908, c. 102, § 1, 35 Stat. 48; Dec. 11, 1919, c. 5, 41 Stat. 366.)

96. Repayment of excess payments.—In all cases where it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Interior that any person has made any payments to the United States under the public land laws in excess of the amount he was lawfully required to pay under such laws, such excess shall be repaid to such person or to his legal representatives: Provided, That such person or his legal representatives shall file a request for the repayment of such excess within two years after the patent has issued for the land embraced in such payment. (Mar. 26, 1908, c. 102, § 2, 35 Stat. 48; Dec. 11, 1919, c. 5, 41 Stat. 366.)

97. Certification of amount of excess moneys and repayment.—When the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall ascertain the amount of any excess moneys, purchase moneys, or commissions in any case where repayment is authorized by the two preceding sections, the Secretary of the Interior shall at once certify such amounts to the Secretary of the Treasury, who is authorized and directed to make repayment of all amounts so certified out of any moneys not otherwise appropriated and issue his warrant in settlement thereof. (Mar. 26, 1908, c. 102, § 3, 35 Stat. 48; Dec. 11, 1919, c. 5, 41 Stat. 366.)

98. Rules and regulations.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary and proper for the purpose of carrying the provisions of the three preceding sections into full force and effect. (Mar. 26, 1908, c. 102, § 4; Dec. 11, 1919, c. 5, 41 Stat. 367.)

99. Repayment of moneys deposited and covered into Treasury.—Any person or persons other than those specified in the four preceding sections who shall have made payment to a register, or to his predecessor, and the money shall have been covered into the Treasury pursuant to section 91, or shall, on presenting satisfactory evidence of such payment to the proper officer of the Treasury Department, be entitled to have the same returned by the settlement of an account and the issuing of a warrant in his favor according to the practice in other cases of authorized and liquidated claims against the United States: Provided, That when such moneys shall remain unclaimed in the Treasury for more than five years the right to recover the same shall be barred: Provided, That no homestead entryman shall be required to make payment of the purchase money on any application to make a cash entry until the same shall have been approved by the register, but such payment shall be made within ten days after notice of such approval. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2562, § 4, 34 Stat. 1245; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

100. Disqualification.—No register shall receive evidence in, hear, or determine any cause pending in any district land office in which cause he is interested directly or indirectly, or has been of counsel, or where he is related to any of the parties in interest by consanguinity or affinity within the fourth degree, computing by the rules adopted by the common law. (Jan. 11, 1894, c. 10, § 1, 28 Stat. 26; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

101. Report by register of disqualification; designation of officer to act in place of.—It shall be the duty of every register so disqualified to report the fact of his disqualification to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, as soon as he shall ascertain it, and before the hearing of such cause, who thereupon, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, shall designate some other register or special agent of the Land Department to act in the place of the disqualified officer, and the same authority is conferred on the officer so designated which such register would otherwise have possessed to act in such case. (Jan. 11, 1894, c. 10, § 2, 28 Stat. 26; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

102. Attendance of witnesses.—Registers in all matters requiring a hearing before them are authorized and empowered to issue subpœnas directing the attendance of witnesses, which subpœnas may be served by any person by delivering a true copy thereof to such witness, and when served, witnesses shall be required to attend in obedience thereto: Provided, That if any subpœna be served under the provisions of this section by any person other than an officer authorized by the laws of the United States, or of the State or Territory in which the depositions are taken, the service thereof shall be proved by the affidavit of the person serving the same: Provided further, That said subpœnas shall be served within the county in which attendance is required, and at least five days before attendance is required. (Jan. 31, 1903, c. 344, § 1, 32 Stat. 790.)

103. Witnesses' fees.—Witnesses shall have the right to receive their fee for one day's attendance and mileage in advance. The fees and mileage of witnesses shall be the same as that provided by law in the district courts of the United States in the district in which such land offices are situated; and the witness shall be entitled to receive his fee for attendance in advance from day to day during the hearing. (Jan. 31, 1903, c. 344, § 2, 32 Stat. 790.)

104. Disobedience to subpœna.—Any person willfully neglecting or refusing obedience to such subpœna, or neglecting or refusing to appear and testify when subpœnaed, his fees having been paid if demanded, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, for which he shall be punished by indictment in the district court of the United States or in the district courts of the Territories exercising the jurisdiction of district courts of the United States. The punishment for such offense, upon conviction, shall be a fine of not more than $200, or imprisonment not to exceed ninety days, or both, at the discretion of the court: Provided, That if such witness has been prevented from obeying such subpœna without fault upon his part he shall not be punished under the provisions of this section. (Jan. 31, 1903, c. 344, § 3, 32 Stat. 790.)

105. Depositions of witnesses residing outside county.—Whenever the witness resides outside the county in which the hearing occurs any party to the proceeding may take the testimony of such witness in the county of such witness's residence in the form of depositions by giving ten days' written notice of the time and place of taking such depositions to the opposite party or parties. The depositions may be taken before any United States commissioner, notary public, judge or clerk of a court of record. Subpœnas for witnesses before the officer taking depositions may issue from the office of the register, or may be issued by the officer taking the depositions, and disobedience thereof, as defined in section 104, shall also be punished; and the witness shall receive the same fees and mileage and be subject to the same penalties in all respects as in case of violation of a subpœna to appear before the register, and subject to the same limitations. The fees of the officer taking the depositions shall be the same as those allowed in the State or Territorial courts, and shall be paid by the party taking the deposition, and an itemized account of the fees shall be made by the officer taking the depositions and attached to the depositions. (Jan. 31, 1903, c. 344, § 4, 32 Stat. 790; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

106. Continuing taking of depositions in behalf of opposite party.—Whenever the taking of any depositions taken in pursuance of section 105 is concluded the opposite party may proceed at once at his own expense to take depositions in his own behalf, at the same time and place and before the same officer: Provided, That he shall, before taking of the depositions in the first instance is entered upon, give notice to the opposing party, or any agent or attorney representing him in the taking of said depositions, of his intention to do so. (Jan. 31, 1903, c. 344, § 5, 32 Stat. 791.)

107. Penalty for false information by register.—If any person applies to any register to enter any land whatever, and the register knowingly and falsely informs the person so applying that the same has already been entered, and refuses to permit the person so applying to enter the same, such register shall be liable therefor to the person so applying, for $5 for each acre of land which the person so applying offered to enter, to be recovered by action of debt in any court of record having jurisdiction of the amount. (R. S. § 2247.)

Chapter 5.—LAND DISTRICTS.

Sec.
121. Discontinuance of land offices by President.
122. Discontinuance of land offices by Secretary of Interior.
123. Continuance of land offices when required by public convenience.
124. Consolidation of land offices.
125. Annexation of discontinued land office to adjacent district.
126. Change of location of land offices.
127. Change of boundaries of land districts.
128. Division or change of boundaries; continuance of business of original district.
129. Office rent and clerk hire for consolidated land offices.
130. Entry of public lands in States where no land offices exist.

Section 121. Discontinuance of land offices by President.—Upon the recommendation of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, approved by the Secretary of the Interior, the President may order the discontinuance of any land office and the transfer of any of its business and archives to any other land office within the same State or Territory. (R. S. § 2252.)

122. Discontinuance of land offices by Secretary of Interior.—Whenever the quantity of public land remaining unsold in any land district is reduced to a number of acres less than one hundred thousand, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior to discontinue the land office of such district; and if any land in any such district remains unsold at the time of the discontinuance of a land office, the same shall be subject to sale at some one of the existing land offices most convenient to the district in which the land office has been discontinued, of which the Secretary of the Interior shall give notice. (R. S. § 2248.)

123. Continuance of land offices when required by public convenience.—The Secretary of the Interior may continue any land district in which is situated the seat of government of any one of the States, and may continue the land office in such district, notwithstanding the quantity of land unsold in such district may not amount to one hundred thousand acres, when, in his opinion, such continuance is required by public convenience, or in order to close the land system in such State. (R. S. § 2249.)

124. Consolidation of land offices.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior to consolidate the district land offices where practicable and consistent with the public interests. (Aug. 5, 1892, c. 380, § 1, 27 Stat. 368.)

125. Annexation of discontinued land office to adjacent district.—Whenever the cost of collecting the revenue from the sales of the public lands in any land district is as much as one-third of the whole amount of revenue collected in such district, it may be lawful for the President, if, in his opinion, not incompatible with the public interest, to discontinue the land office in such district, and to annex the same to some other adjoining land district. (R. S. § 2250.)

126. Change of location of land offices.—The President is authorized to change the location of the land offices in the several land districts established by law, and to relocate the same from time to time at such point in the district as he deems expedient. (R. S. § 2251.)

127. Change of boundaries of land districts.—The President is authorized to change and reestablish the boundaries of land districts whenever, in his opinion, the public interests will be subserved thereby, without authority to increase the number of land offices or land districts. (R. S. § 2253.)

128. Division or change of boundaries; continuance of business of original district.—In case of the division of existing land districts by the erection of new ones, or by a change of boundaries by the President, all business in such original districts shall be entertained and transacted without prejudice or change, until the offices in the new districts are duly opened by public announcement under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior. All sales or disposals of the public lands heretofore regularly made at any land office, after such lands have been made part of another district by any Act of Congress, or by any act of the President, are confirmed, provided the same are free from conflict with prior valid rights. (R. S. § 2254.)

129. Office rent and clerk hire for consolidated land offices.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to make a reasonable allowance for office rent for each consolidated land office; and when satisfied of the necessity therefor, to approve the employment by the register of one or more clerks, at a reasonable per diem compensation, for such time as such clerical force is absolutely required to keep up the current public business, which clerical force shall be paid out of the surplus fees authorized to be charged by section 84, if any, and if no surplus exists, then out of the appropriation for incidental expenses of district land offices; but no clerk shall be so paid unless his employment has been first sanctioned by the Secretary of the Interior. (R. S. § 2255.)

130. Entry of public lands in States where no land offices exist.—Public lands situated in States in which there are no land offices may be entered at the General Land Office, subject to the provisions of law touching the entry of public lands; and the necessary proofs and affidavits required in such cases may be made before some officer competent to administer oaths, whose official character shall be duly certified by the clerk of a court of record. And moneys received by the Commissioner of the General Land Office for lands entered by cash entry shall be covered into the Treasury. (June 19, 1878, c. 329, § 1, 20 Stat. 201.)

Chapter 6.—WITHDRAWAL FROM SETTLEMENT, LOCATION, SALE, OR ENTRY.

Sec.
141. Withdrawal and reservation of lands for water-power sites or other purposes.
142. Lands withdrawn open to exploration under mining laws; rights of occupants or claimants of oil or gas bearing lands; forest reserves.
143. Reports of withdrawals to Congress.
144. Entries on land withdrawn as valuable for oil or gas validated.
145. Sale of lands withdrawn; notice of.
146. Patents to purchasers of lands withdrawn.
147. Disposition of proceeds of sale of withdrawn lands.
148. Withdrawal of lands in Indian reservations for power or reservoir sites.
149. Exchange of private lands included in Indian reservation for other lands.
150. Withdrawals of land for Indian reservations prohibited.
151. Opening of lands restored to entry after withdrawals.
152. Restoration of lands previously withdrawn.
153. Reservation of lands in North Dakota.

Section 141. Withdrawal and reservation of lands for water-power sites or other purposes.—The President may, at any time in his discretion, temporarily withdraw from settlement, location, sale, or entry any of the public lands of the United States, including Alaska, and reserve the same for water-power sites, irrigation, classification of lands, or other public purposes to be specified in the orders of withdrawals, and such withdrawals or reservations shall remain in force until revoked by him or by an Act of Congress. (June 25, 1910, c. 421, § 1, 36 Stat. 847.)

142. Lands withdrawn open to exploration under mining laws; rights of occupants or claimants of oil or gas bearing lands; forest reserves.—All lands withdrawn under the provisions of this and the preceding section shall at all times be open to exploration, discovery, occupation, and purchase under the mining laws of the United States, so far as the same apply to metalliferous minerals: Provided, That the rights of any person who, at the date of any order of withdrawal, is a bona fide occupant or claimant of oil or gas bearing lands and who, at such date, is in the diligent prosecution of work leading to the discovery of oil or gas, shall not be affected or impaired by such order so long as such occupant or claimant shall continue in diligent prosecution of said work: Provided further, That this and the preceding section shall not be construed as a recognition, abridgment, or enlargement of any asserted rights or claims initiated upon any oil or gas bearing lands after any withdrawal of such lands made prior to June 25, 1910: And provided further, That there shall be excepted from the force and effect of any withdrawal made under the provisions of this and the preceding section all lands which are, on the date of such withdrawal, embraced in any lawful homestead or desert-land entry theretofore made, or upon which any valid settlement has been made and is at said date being maintained and perfected pursuant to law; but the terms of this proviso shall not continue to apply to any particular tract of land unless the entryman or settler shall continue to comply with the law under which the entry or settlement was made: And provided further, That no national forest shall be created, nor shall any additions be made to one created, prior to August 24, 1912, within the limits of the States of California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Colorado, or Wyoming, except by Act of Congress. (June 25, 1910, c. 421, § 2, 36 Stat. 847; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 369, 37 Stat. 497.)

143. Reports of withdrawals to Congress.—The Secretary of the Interior shall report all such withdrawals to Congress at the beginning of its next regular session after the date of the withdrawals. (June 25, 1910, c. 421, § 3, 36 Stat. 848.)

144. Entries on land withdrawn as valuable for oil or gas validated.—Existing entries allowed prior to April 1, 1924, under sections 291 to 301, inclusive, for land withdrawn as valuable for oil or gas, but not otherwise reserved or withdrawn, are hereby validated, if otherwise regular: Provided, That at date of entry the land was not within the limits of the geologic structure of a producing oil or gas field. (Feb. 7, 1925, c. 147, § 12, 43 Stat. 812.)

145. Sale of lands withdrawn; notice of.—Whenever in the opinion of the Secretary of the Interior any lands which have been withdrawn under the provisions of section 142 for the purpose of exploratory drilling to discover water supplies for irrigation or other purposes, and which have had wells or other permanent improvements placed thereon by and at the expense of the United States are no longer needed for the purpose for which they were withdrawn and improved, the Secretary of the Interior may appraise the lands, together with the improvements thereon, and thereafter sell the same to a citizen of the United States for not less than the appraised value at public auction to the highest bidder, after giving public notice of the time and place of sale by posting upon the land and publication for not less than thirty days in a newspaper of general circulation in the vicinity of the land. (Jan. 26, 1921, c. 27, § 1, 41 Stat. 1089.)

146. Patents to purchasers of lands withdrawn.—Upon payment of the purchase price the Secretary of the Interior is authorized by appropriate patent to convey all the right, title, and interest in and to said lands to the purchaser at said sale, subject, however, to such reservations, limitations, or conditions as said Secretary may deem proper: Provided, That not over one hundred and sixty acres shall be sold to any one person: Provided further, That any patent issued hereunder shall contain a reservation to the United States of all oil, gas, coal, and other mineral. (Jan. 26, 1921, c. 27, § 2, 41 Stat. 1089.)

147. Disposition of proceeds of sale of withdrawn lands.—The moneys derived from the sale of such lands and improvements shall be disposed of as are other receipts from the sale and disposal of public lands. (Jan. 26, 1921, c. 27, § 3, 41 Stat. 1090.)

148. Withdrawal of lands in Indian reservations for power or reservoir sites.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, in his discretion, to reserve from location, entry, sale, allotment, or other appropriation any lands within any Indian reservation, valuable for power or reservoir sites, or which may be necessary for use in connection with any irrigation project authorized by Congress: Provided, That if no irrigation project shall be authorized prior to the opening of any Indian reservation containing such power or reservoir sites the Secretary of the Interior may, in his discretion, reserve such sites pending future legislation by Congress for their disposition, and he shall report to Congress all reservations made. (June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 13, 36 Stat. 858.)

149. Exchange of private lands included in Indian reservation for other lands.—Any private land over which an Indian reservation has been extended by Executive order, may be exchanged at the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior and at the expense of the owner thereof and under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, for vacant, nonmineral, nontimbered, surveyed public lands of equal area and value and situated in the same State or Territory. (Apr. 21, 1904, c. 1402, § 1, 33 Stat. 211.)

150. Withdrawals of land for Indian reservations prohibited.—No public lands of the United States shall be withdrawn by Executive order, proclamation, or otherwise, for or as an Indian reservation except by Act of Congress. (June 30, 1919, c. 4, § 27, 41 Stat. 34.)

151. Opening of lands restored to entry after withdrawals.—When public lands are excluded from national forests or released from withdrawals the President may, whenever in his judgment it is proper or necessary, provide for the opening of the lands by settlement in advance of entry, by drawing, or by such other method as he may deem advisable in the interest of equal opportunity and good administration, and in doing so may provide that lands so opened shall be subject only to homestead entry by actual settlers only or to entry under the desert land laws for a period not exceeding ninety days, the unentered lands to be thereafter subject to disposition under the public land laws applicable thereto. (Sept. 30, 1913, c. 15, § 1, 38 Stat. 113.)

152. Restoration of lands previously withdrawn.—Where under the law the Secretary of the Interior is authorized or directed to make restoration of lands previously withdrawn he may also restrict the restoration as prescribed in the preceding section. (Sept. 30, 1913, c. 15, § 2, 38 Stat. 114.)

153. Reservation of lands in North Dakota.—Upon receipt of a proper deed from the State of North Dakota, executed under authority of the act of its legislative assembly, approved February 5, 1915, reconveying to the United States title to section 16, township 138 north, range 81 west, fifth principal meridian, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to issue patents to said State for such vacant, surveyed, unreserved, unoccupied, nonmineral public lands as may be selected by said State within its boundaries, not exceeding one thousand two hundred and eighty acres in aggregate area, and said section when so reconveyed shall not be subject to settlement, location, entry, or selection under the public land laws, but shall be reserved for the use of the Department of Agriculture in carrying on experiments in dry-land agriculture at the Northern Great Plains Field Station, Mandan, North Dakota. (July 3, 1916, c. 219, 39 Stat. 344.)

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 161. Who may enter unappropriated public lands generally.—Every person who is the head of a family, or who has arrived at the age of twenty-one years, and is a citizen of the United States, or who has filed his declaration of intention to become such, as required by the naturalization laws, shall be entitled to enter one-quarter section, or a less quantity, of unappropriated public lands, to be located in a body in conformity to the legal subdivisions of the public lands; but no person who is the proprietor of more than one hundred and sixty acres of land in any State or Territory, shall acquire any right under the homestead law. And every person owning and residing on land may, under the provisions of this section, enter other land lying contiguous to his land, which shall not, with the land so already owned and occupied, exceed in the aggregate one hundred and sixty acres. (R. S. § 2289; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 5, 26 Stat. 1097.)

162. Application for entry; affidavit.—Any person applying to enter land under the preceding section shall first make and subscribe before the proper officer and file in the proper land office an affidavit that he or she is the head of a family, or is over twenty-one years of age, and that such application is honestly and in good faith made for the purpose of actual settlement and cultivation, and not for the benefit of any other person, persons or corporation, and that he or she will faithfully and honestly endeavor to comply with all the requirements of law as to settlement, residence, and cultivation necessary to acquire title to the land applied for; that he or she is not acting as agent of any person, corporation, or syndicate in making such entry, nor in collusion with any person, corporation or syndicate to give them the benefit of the land entered, or any part thereof, or the timber thereon; that he or she does not apply to enter the same for the purpose of speculation, but in good faith to obtain a home for himself, or herself, and that he or she has not directly or indirectly made, and will not make, any agreement or contract in any way or manner, with any person or persons, corporation or syndicate whatsoever, by which the title which he or she might acquire from the Government of the United States should inure, in whole or in part, to the benefit of any person, except himself, or herself, and upon filing such affidavit with the register on payment of $5 when the entry is of not more than eighty acres, and on payment of $10 when the entry is for more than eighty acres, he or she shall thereupon be permitted to enter the amount of land specified. (R. S. § 2290; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 5, 26 Stat. 1097.)

163. Record of applications; returns to Land Office.—The register of the land office shall note all applications under the provisions of this chapter, on the tract books and plats of his office, and keep a register of all such entries, and make return thereof to the General Land Office, together with the proof upon which they have been founded. (R. S. § 2295.)

164. Certificate or patent generally; general requisites to issuance.—No certificate shall be given or patent issued therefor until the expiration of three years from the date of such entry; and if at the expiration of such time, or at any time within two years thereafter, the person making such entry, or if he be dead his widow, or in case of her death his heirs or devisee, or in case of a widow making such entry her heirs or devisee, in case of her death, proves by himself and by two credible witnesses that he, she, or they have a habitable house upon the land and have actually resided upon and cultivated the same for the term of three years succeeding the time of filing the affidavit and makes affidavit that no part of such land has been alienated, except as provided in section 174 of this division of this chapter, and that he, she, or they will bear true allegiance to the Government of the United States, then in such case he, she, or they, if at that time citizens of the United States, shall be entitled to a patent, as in other cases provided by law: Provided, That upon filing in the local land office notice of the beginning of such absence the entryman shall be entitled to a continuous leave of absence from the land for a period not exceeding five months in each year after establishing residence, and upon the termination of such absence the entryman shall file a notice of such termination in the local land office, but in case of commutation the fourteen months' actual residence required by law must be shown, and the person commuting must be at the time a citizen of the United States: Provided further, That when the person making entry dies before the offer of final proof those succeeding to the entry must show that the entryman had complied with the law in all respects to the date of his death, and that they have since complied with the law in all respects, as would have been required of the entryman had he lived, excepting that they are relieved from any requirement of residence upon the land: Provided further, That the entryman shall, in order to comply with the requirements of cultivation herein provided for, cultivate not less than one-sixteenth of the area of his entry, beginning with the second year of the entry, and not less than one-eighth, beginning with the third year of the entry and until final proof, except that in the case of entries under section 218, paragraph (f) of this chapter, double the area of cultivation herein provided shall be required, but the Secretary of the Interior may, upon a satisfactory showing, under rules and regulations prescribed by him, reduce the required area of cultivation: And provided further, That the above provision as to cultivation shall not apply to entries under section 224 of this chapter, commonly known as the Kinkaid Act, or entries under chapter 12 of this title, commonly known as the reclamation law, and that the provisions of this section relative to the homestead period shall apply to all unperfected entries as well as entries hereafter made upon which residence is required. (R. S. 2291; June 6, 1912, c. 153, 37 S. 123, 124.)

165. Suspension of entries for correction of clerical errors; patents.—Whenever it shall appear to the Commissioner of the General Land Office that a clerical error has been committed in the entry of any of the public lands such entry may be suspended, upon proper notification to the claimant, through the local land office, until the error has been corrected; and all entries made under the homestead or desert land laws, in which final proof and payment may have been made and certificates issued, and to which there are no adverse claims originating prior to final entry and which have been sold or incumbered prior to the 1st day of March, 1888, and after final entry, to bona-fide purchasers, or incumbrancers, for a valuable consideration, shall unless upon an investigation by a Government agent, fraud on the part of the purchaser has been found, be confirmed and patented upon presentation of satisfactory proof to the land department of such sale or incumbrance: Provided, That after the lapse of two years from the date of the issuance of the register's receipt upon the final entry of any tract of land under the homestead or desert land laws, or under this section, and when there shall be no pending contest or protest against the validity of such entry, the entryman shall be entitled to a patent conveying the land by him entered, and the same shall be issued to him; but this proviso shall not be construed to require the delay of two years from the date of said entry before the issuing of a patent therefor. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 7, 26 Stat. 1098.)

166. Time of filing application and of perfecting entry; marriage of entrywoman; preferential right of entry.—Any settler who has settled, or who shall hereafter settle, on any of the public lands of the United States, whether surveyed or unsurveyed, with the intention of claiming the same under the homestead laws, shall be allowed the same time to file his homestead application and perfect his original entry in the United States Land Office as allowed on May 14, 1888, to settlers under the then existing preemption laws to put their claims on record, and his right shall relate back to the date of settlement, the same as if he settled under such preemption laws.

Where an unmarried woman who has heretofore settled, or may hereafter settle, upon a tract of public land, improved, established, and maintained a bona-fide residence thereon, with the intention of appropriating the same for a home, subject to the homestead law, and has married, or shall thereafter marry, before making entry of said land, or before making application to enter said land, she shall not on account of her marriage forfeit her right to make entry and receive patent for the land: Provided, That she does not abandon her residence on said land, and is otherwise qualified to make homestead entry: Provided further, That the man whom she marries is not, at the time of their marriage, claiming a separate tract of land under the homestead law: Provided further, That any settler upon lands designated by the Secretary of the Interior as subject to the provisions of paragraphs (a) to (e), inclusive, of section 218 of this chapter and paragraphs (a) to (e), inclusive of section 219 of this chapter, shall be entitled to the preference right of entry accorded by this section, provided he shall have plainly marked the exterior boundaries of the lands claimed as his homestead: And provided further, That after the designation by the Secretary of the Interior of public lands for entry under the nonresidence provisions of the Enlarged Homestead Acts, sections 218 and 219 of this chapter, any person who shall have plainly marked the exterior boundaries of the lands claimed under said provisions of law and made valuable improvements thereon shall have a preference right to enter the lands so claimed and improved at any time within three months after the date on which such lands become subject to entry; but such right shall forfeit unless the settler or claimant under the provisions of the Enlarged Homestead Acts shall annually cultivate and improve the lands in the form and manner and to the extent therein required following date of initiation of his claim hereunder. (May 14, 1880, c. 89, § 3, 21 Stat. 141; June 6, 1900, c. 821, 31 Stat. 683; Aug. 9, 1912, c. 280, 37 Stat. 267.)

167. Marriage of entryman to entrywoman.—The marriage of a homestead entryman to a homestead entrywoman after each shall have fulfilled the requirements of the homestead law for one year next preceding such marriage shall not impair the right of either to a patent, but the husband shall elect, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, on which of the two entries the home shall thereafter be made, and residence thereon by the husband and wife shall constitute a compliance with the residence requirements upon each entry: Provided, That the provisions hereof shall apply to entries on March 1, 1921: Provided, further, That in the administration of this section the terms "entryman" and "entrywoman" shall be construed to include bona-fide settlers who have complied with the homestead law for at least one year next preceding such marriage. (Apr. 6, 1914, c. 51, 38 Stat. 312; Mar. 1, 1921, c. 90, 41 Stat. 1193.)

168. Marriage of entrywoman to alien.—Any female citizen of the United States who has initiated a claim to a tract of public land under any of the laws applicable thereto, and who thereafter has complied with all the conditions as to the acquisition of title to such land prescribed by the public land laws of the United States, shall, notwithstanding her intermarriage with an alien, who is entitled to become a citizen of the United States, be entitled to a certificate or patent to such entry equally as though she had remained unmarried or had married an American citizen. (Oct. 17, 1914, c. 325, 38 Stat. 740.)

169. Failure to establish residence; reversion to Government.—If, at any time after the filing of the affidavit as required in section 162 and before the expiration of the three years mentioned in section 164, of this chapter, it is proved, after due notice to the settler, to the satisfaction of the register of the land office that the person having filed such affidavit has failed to establish residence within six months after the date of entry, or abandoned the land for more than six months at any time, then and in that event the land so entered shall revert to the Government: Provided, That the three years' period of residence herein fixed shall date from the time of establishing actual permanent residence upon the land: And provided fur- ther, That where there may be climatic reasons, sickness, or other unavoidable cause, the Commissioner of the General Land Office may, in his discretion, allow the settler twelve months from the date of filing in which to commence his residence on said land under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe. (R. S. § 2297; Mar. 3, 1881, c. 153, 21 Stat. 511; June 6, 1912, c. 153, 37 Stat. 123.)

170. Rights of wife abandoned by husband.—In any case in which persons have regularly initiated claims to public lands as settlers thereon under the provisions of the homestead laws and the wife of such homestead settler or entryman, while residing upon the homestead claim and prior to submission of final proof of residence, cultivation, and improvement as prescribed by law, has been abandoned and deserted by her husband for a period of more than one year, the deserted wife shall, upon establishing the fact of such abandonment or desertion to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Interior, be entitled to submit proof upon such claim and obtain patent therefor in her name in the form, manner, and subject to the conditions prescribed in section 164 of this chapter: Provided, That in such cases the wife shall be required to show residence upon, cultivation, and improvement of the homestead by herself for such time as when, added to the time during which her husband prior to desertion had complied with the law, would aggregate the full amount of residence, improvement, and cultivation required by law: And provided further, That the published and posted notices of intention to submit final proof in such cases shall recite the fact that the proof is to be offered and patent sought by applicant as a deserted wife, and, prior to its submission, notice thereof shall be served upon the husband of the applicant in such a manner and under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior shall prescribe. (Oct. 22, 1914, c. 335, 38 Stat. 766.)

171. Rights inuring to infant children.—In case of the death of both father and mother, leaving an infant child or children under twenty-one years of age, the right and fee shall inure to the benefit of such infant child or children; and the executor, administrator, or guardian may, at any time within two years after the death of the surviving parent, and in accordance with the laws of the State in which such children, for the time being, have their domicile, sell the land for the benefit of such infants, but for no other purpose, and the purchaser shall acquire the absolute title by the purchase, and be entitled to a patent from the United States on the payment of the office fees and the commutation if any money. (R. S. § 2292.)

172. Insanity of settlers.—In all cases in which parties who regularly initiated claims to public lands as settlers thereon according to the provisions of the homestead laws, became insane, prior June 8, 1880, or shall have thereafter become insane before the expiration of the time during which their residence, cultivation, or improvement of the land claimed by them is required by law to be continued in order to entitle them to make the proper proof and perfect their claims, it shall be lawful for the required proof and payment to be made for their benefit by any person who may be legally authorized to act for them during their disability, and thereupon their claims shall be confirmed and patented, provided it shall be shown by proof satisfactory to the Commissioner of the General Land Office that the parties complied in good faith with the legal requirements up to the time of their becoming insane, and the requirement in homestead entries of an affidavit of allegiance by the applicant in certain cases as a prerequisite to the issuing of the patents shall be dispensed with so far as regards such insane parties. (June 8, 1880, c. 136, 21 Stat. 166.)

173. Commutation after fourteen months.—All commutations of homestead entries shall be allowed after the expiration of fourteen months from date of settlement. Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to prevent any person who shall avail himself of the benefits of section 161 of this chapter from paying the minimum price for the quantity of land so entered at any time after the expiration of fourteen calendar months from the date of such entry, and obtaining a patent therefor, upon making proof of settlement and of residence and cultivation for such period of fourteen months. (R. S. § 2301; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 6, 26 Stat. 1098; June 3, 1896, c. 312, § 2, 29 Stat. 197.)

174. Right to transfer claim.—Any bona fide settler under the homestead, or other settlement law shall have the right to transfer, by warranty against his own acts, any portion of his claim for church, cemetery, or school purposes, or for the right of way of railroads, telegraph, telephones, canals, reservoirs, or ditches, for irrigation or drainage across it; and the transfer for such public purposes shall in no way vitiate the right to complete and perfect the title to his claim. (R. S. § 2288; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, §§ 3, 4, 26 Stat. 1097; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1424, 33 Stat. 991.)

175. Exemption from execution of homestead land.—No lands acquired under the provisions of the homestead laws and laws supplemental and amendatory thereof shall in any event become liable to the satisfaction of any debt contracted prior to the issuing of the patent therefor. (R. S. § 2296; Apr. 28, 1922, c. 155, 42 Stat. 502.)

176. Commissioners.—Appointment.—The chief justice of the court exercising Federal jurisdiction in the Territories shall have power to appoint commissioners in the several judicial districts, to be known when appointed as United States court commissioners.

Administration of oaths.—Said commissioners shall have power, and it shall be their duty on application by proper person, to administer the oaths in preliminary affidavits and final proofs required under the homestead and desert land laws in their respective districts, in like manner as provided for in reference to United States commissioners, in section 254 of this chapter.

Residence.—No commissioner shall be appointed who resides within thirty miles of any local land office, nor shall any commissioner be appointed who resides within thirty miles of any other commissioner. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 174, §§ 1–3, 28 Stat. 744.)

RIGHT OF PARTICULAR PERSONS TO MAKE ENTRY

181. Additional entry after loss or forfeiture of former entry.—Any person who prior to June 5, 1900, has made entry under the homestead laws, but from any cause has lost or forfeited the same shall be entitled to the benefits of the homestead laws as though such former entry had not been made. (June 5, 1900, c. 716, § 3, 31 Stat. 270.)

182. Entry after forfeiture of prior entry without fault.—Any person otherwise duly qualified to make entry or entries of public lands under the homestead or desert-land laws, who has prior to September 5, 1914, made or may thereafter make entry under said laws, and who, through no fault of his own, may have lost, forfeited, or abandoned the same, or who may lose, forfeit, or abandon same, shall be entitled to the benefits of the homestead or desert-land laws as though such former entry or entries had never been made: Provided, That such applicant shall show to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Interior that the prior entry or entries were made in good faith, were lost, forfeited, or abandoned because of matters beyond his control, and that he has not speculated in his right nor committed a fraud or attempted fraud in connection with such prior entry or entries. (Sept. 5, 1914, c. 294, 38 Stat. 712.)

183. Minor veterans.—No person who shall serve, or may hereafter serve, for a period not less than fourteen days in the Army or Navy of the United States, either Regular or Volunteer, under the laws thereof, during the existence of an actual war, domestic or foreign, shall be deprived of the benefits of this chapter on account of not having attained the age of twenty-one years.

Minors serving in Military Establishment.—Any person, under the age of twenty-one, who has served or shall hereafter serve in the Army of the United States during the emergency contemplated by the act of August 31, 1918, shall be entitled to the same rights under the homestead and other land and mineral entry laws, general or special, as those over twenty-one years of age now possess under said laws: Provided, That any requirements as to establishment of residence within a limited time shall be suspended as to entry by such person until six months after his discharge from military service: And provided further, That applications for entry may be verified before any officer in the United States, or any foreign country, authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the State or Territory in which the land may be situated.

Relinquishment of entries.—No relinquishment of any public-land entry made under and by authority of the preceding paragraph shall be valid or effective for any purpose unless executed after the entryman shall have actually resided upon and cultivated the land, in the case of a homestead entry, for at least six months, and in the case of an entry made under other than the homestead laws, after the entryman shall have complied with the provisions of the applicable law for at least one year.

Any person, firm, or corporation soliciting or dealing with the relinquishment of such claim or entry prior to the completion of compliance with the applicable law and with this section, and who or which solicits, demands, or receives or accepts any fee or compensation for locating, filing, or securing the claims or entries for persons entitled to the benefits of said paragraph shall, upon conviction, be fined not to exceed $1,000 or imprisoned for not exceeding two years, or both. (R. S. 2300; Sept. 13, 1918, c. 173, 40 Stat. 960.)

184. No distinction on account of race or color.—No distinction shall be made in the construction or execution of this chapter, on account of race or color. (R. S. § 2302.)

185. Preference right of entry of successful contestants.—In all cases where any person has contested, paid the land-office fees, and procured the cancellation of any homestead entry, he shall be notified by the register of the land office of the district in which such land is situated of such cancellation, and shall be allowed thirty days from date of such notice to enter said lands: Provided, That said register shall be entitled to a fee of $1 for the giving of such notice, to be paid by the contestant and not to be reported: Provided further, That should any such person who has initiated a contest die before the final termination of the same, said contest shall not abate by reason thereof, but his heirs who are citizens of the United States, may continue the prosecution under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe, and said heirs shall be entitled to the same rights under this section that contestant would have been if his death had not occurred. (May 14, 1880, c. 89, § 2, 21 Stat. 141; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 4, 26 Stat. 1097; July 26, 1892, c. 251, 27 Stat. 270; Mar. 3, 1893, c. 208, 27 Stat. 593.)

186. Preference right of entry of World War veterans; rules and regulations.—For the period of ten years following February 14, 1920, on the opening of public or Indian lands to entry, or the restoration to entry of public lands theretofore withdrawn from entry, such opening or restoration shall, in the order therefor, provide for a period of not less than ninety days before the general opening of such lands to disposal in which officers, soldiers, sailors, or marines who have served in the Army or Navy of the United States in the war with Germany and been honorably separated or discharged therefrom or placed in the Regular Army or Naval Reserve, or citizens of the United States who served with the allied armies during the World War, and were honorably discharged, upon their resumption of citizenship in the United States, provided the service with the allied armies was similar to the service required by this section in the United States Army, shall have a preferred right of entry under the homestead or desert land laws, if qualified thereunder, except as against prior existing valid settlement rights and as against preference rights conferred by existing laws or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation: Provided, That the rights and benefits conferred by this section shall not extend to any person who, having been drafted for service under the provisions of the selective service act, shall have refused to render such service or to wear the uniform of such service of the United States.

The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to make any and all regulations necessary to carry into full force and effect the provisions of this section. (Feb. 14, 1920, c. 76, §§ 1, 2, 41 Stat. 434; Dec. 28, 1922, c. 19, 42 Stat. 1067; Jan. 21, 1922, c. 32, 42 Stat. 358.)

187. Entrants on ceded Indian reservations.—Any person who prior to February 25, 1925, entered, under the homestead laws, and paid a price equivalent to or greater than $2.50 per acre, lands embraced in a ceded Indian reservation, shall, upon proof of such fact, if otherwise qualified, be entitled to the benefits of the homestead law as though such former entry had not been made: Provided, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to any person who has failed to pay the full price for his former entry, or whose former entry was canceled for fraud. (Feb. 25, 1925, c. 326, 43 Stat. 981.)

188. Purchaser of Flathead Indian land, Montana.—Persons who purchased land under and in accordance with the terms of an Act entitled "An Act to provide for the sale of lands patented to certain members of the Flathead band of Indians in the Territory of Montana, and for other purposes," approved March 2, 1889, shall not be held to have impaired or exhausted their homestead rights by or on account of any such purchase. (June 5, 1900, c. 716, § 3, 31 Stat. 270.)

189. Indians abandoning tribal relations.—Any Indian born in the United States, who is the head of a family, or who has arrived at the age of twenty-one years, and who has abandoned, or may hereafter abandon, his tribal relations, shall, on making satisfactory proof of such abandonment, under rules to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, be entitled to the benefits of this chapter, except that the provisions of section 173 of this chapter shall not be held to apply to entries made under this section: Provided, however, That the title to lands acquired by any Indian by virtue hereof shall not be subject to alienation or incumbrance, either by voluntary conveyance or the judgment, decree, or order of any court, and shall be and remain inalienable for a period of five years from the date of the patent issued therefor: Provided, That any such Indian shall be entitled to his distributive share of all annuities, tribal funds, lands, and other property, the same as though he had maintained his tribal relations; and any transfer, alienation, or incumbrance of any interest he may hold or claim by reason of his former tribal relations shall be void. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 131, § 15, 18 Stat. 420.)

190. Indians located on public lands; patents.—Such Indians as may have been located on public lands, prior to July 4, 1884, or as may, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, or otherwise, thereafter, so locate may avail themselves of the provisions of the homestead laws as fully and to the same extent as may now be done by citizens of the United States. No fees or commissions shall be charged on account of said entries or proofs. All patents therefor shall be of the legal effect, and declare that the United States does and will hold the land thus entered for the period of twenty-five years, in trust for the sole use and benefit of the Indian by whom such entry shall have been made, or, in case of his decease, of his widow and heirs according to the laws of the State where such land is located, and that at the expiration of said period the United States will convey the same by patent to said Indian, or his widow and heirs as aforesaid, in fee, discharged of said trust and free of all charge or incumbrance whatsoever. (July 4, 1884, c. 180, § 1, 23 Stat. 96.)

191. Stockbridge Munsee Indians.—Each of the chiefs, warriors, and heads of families of the Stockbridge Munsee Tribes of Indians, residing in the county of Shawana, State of Wisconsin, may, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, enter a homestead and become entitled to all the benefits of this chapter, free from any fee or charge; and any part of their present reservation, which is abandoned for that purpose, may be sold, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, and the proceeds applied for the benefit of such Indians as may settle on homesteads, to aid them in improving the same.

Exemption of homesteads.—The homestead secured, by virtue of this section, shall not be subject to any tax, levy, or sale; nor shall it be sold, conveyed, mortgaged, or in any manner incumbered, except upon the decree of the district court of the United States. (R. S. §§ 2310, 2311.)

LANDS SUBJECT TO ENTRY

201. Mineral lands.—Mineral lands shall not be liable to entry and settlement under its provisions. (R. S. § 2302.)

202. Relinquished entries.—When a homestead claimant shall file a written relinquishment of his claim in the local land office, the land covered by such claim shall be held as open to settlement and entry without further action on the part of the Commissioner of the General Land Office. (May 14, 1880, c. 89, § 1, 21 Stat. 140; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 4, 26 Stat. 1097; Mar. 3, 1893, c. 208, 27 Stat. 593.)

203. Former Ute Indian Reservation in Colorado.—The provisions of the homestead laws are extended over and shall apply to the lands included within the limits of the former Ute Indian Reservation in Colorado not included in any forest reservation, in addition to the existing laws relating to cash entries thereon: Provided, That no selection or entry of lands in lieu of land included within a forest reservation or of soldiers' or sailors' additional homesteads shall be allowed within said limits.

Reimbursement of Ute Indian fund.—All sums of money that may be lost to the Ute Indian fund by reason of the enactment of this section shall be paid into the fund by the United States, and all moneys received by reason of the commutation of any homestead entry shall be credited to said Ute Indian fund.

Lands on which Government has improvements excepted.—No lands shall be included in any location or settlement under the provisions of this section on which the United States Government has valuable improvements. (June 13, 1902, c. 1080, §§ 1–3, 32 Stat. 384.)

204. Entries on even sections within railroad and other grants.—The even sections within the limits of any grant of public lands to any railroad company, or to any military road company, or to any State in aid of any railroad or military road, shall be open to settlers under the homestead laws to the extent of one hundred and sixty acres to each settler, and any person who has, under laws in force March 3, 1879, taken a homestead on any even section within the limits of any railroad or military road land grant, and who, by such laws shall have been restricted to eighty acres, may enter under the homestead laws an additional eighty acres adjoining the land embraced in his original entry, if such additional land be subject to entry; or if such person so elect, he may surrender his entry to the United States for cancellation, and thereupon be entitled to enter lands under the homestead laws the same as if the surrendered entry had not been made. And any person so making additional entry of eighty acres, or new entry after the surrender and cancellation of his original entry, shall be permitted so to do without payment of fees and commissions; and the residence and cultivation of such person upon and of the land embraced in his original entry shall be considered residence and cultivation for the same length of time upon and of the land embraced in his additional or new entry, and shall be deducted from the five years' residence and cultivation required by law: Provided, That in no case shall patent issue upon an additional or new homestead entry under this section until the person has actually, and in conformity with the homestead laws, occupied, resided upon, and cultivated the land embraced therein at least one year. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 191, 20 Stat. 472.)

205. Entries on odd sections within railroad and other grants.—The odd sections within the limits of any grant of public lands to any railroad company in the States of Missouri and Arkansas, or to such States respectively, in aid of any railroad where the even sections have been granted to and received by any railroad company or by such States respectively in aid of any railroad shall be open to settlers under the homestead laws to the extent of one hundred and sixty acres to each settler, and any person who has under laws in force July 1, 1879, taken a homestead on any section within the limits of any railroad grant in said States, and who by such laws shall have been restricted to eighty acres, may enter under the homestead laws an additional eighty acres adjoining the land embraced in his original entry, if such additional land be subject to entry; or if such person so elect, he may surrender his entry to the United States for cancellation, and thereupon be entitled to enter lands under the homestead laws the same as if the surrendered entry had not been made. And any person so making additional entry of eighty acres, or new entry after the cancellation of his original entry, shall be permitted to do so without payment of fees or commissions; and the residence of such person upon and cultivation of the land embraced in his original entry shall be considered residence and cultivation for the same length of time upon and of the land embraced in his additional or new entry, and shall be deducted from the five years' residence and cultivation required by law: Provided, That in no case shall patent issue upon an additional or new homestead entry under this section until the person has actually, and in conformity with the homestead laws, occupied, resided upon, and cultivated the land embraced therein at least one year. (July 1, 1879, c. 60, 21 Stat. 46.)

206. Patents for additional entries within railway limits.—All homestead settlers on public lands within the railway limits restricted to less than one hundred and sixty acres of land, who have prior to May 6, 1886, made or may thereafter make the additional entry allowed by either of the two preceding sections, after having made final proof of settlement and cultivation under the original entry, shall be entitled to have the lands covered by the additional entry patented without any further cost or proof of settlement and cultivation. (May 6, 1886, c. 88, 24 Stat. 22.)

207. Military reservations in Nevada.—All the agricultural lands embraced within the military reservations in the State of Nevada which have been placed under the control of the Secretary of the Interior for disposition may be disposed of under the homestead and desert-land laws, and not otherwise: Provided, That this section is intended to make applicable to the desert-land laws only such lands as were included under the Act of March 3, 1877, providing for the disposition of public lands under the desert-land laws. (Aug. 21, 1916, c. 361, 39 Stat. 518.)

208. Unreserved public lands in Columbia or Moses Reserve.—All unreserved public lands within the former Columbia or Moses Reserve in the State of Washington, made subject to acquisition under the homestead laws by the Act of Congress approved July 4, 1884 (Twenty-third Statutes, page 76), be, and they are, made subject to acquisition under section 1171 of chapter 28 of this title, and chapter 9, and other Acts applicable generally to the public domain. (June 3, 1924, c. 240, 43 Stat. 357.)

LIMITATION AS TO AMOUNT AND ADDITIONAL AND ENLARGED ENTRIES

211. Limitation of amount of homestead entry.—Except as otherwise provided, no person shall be permitted to acquire title to more than one quarter section under the provisions of this chapter. (R. S. § 2298.)

212. Limitation of aggregate amount of entries.—No person who shall enter upon any of the public lands with a view to occupation, entry, or settlement under any of the land laws shall be permitted to acquire title to more than three hundred and twenty acres in the aggregate, except as otherwise provided, under all of said laws, but this limitation shall not operate to curtail the right of any person who has before August 30, 1890, made entry or settlement on the public lands, or whose occupation, entry, or settlement is validated by chapter 15 of this title.

The above provisions of this section shall be construed to include in the maximum amount of lands the title to which is permitted to be acquired by one person only agricultural lands and not to include lands entered or sought to be entered under mineral land laws. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 837, § 1, 26 Stat. 391.)

213. Additional entry on land contiguous to former entry of less than quarter section.—Any homestead settler who has, prior to April 28, 1904, entered, or may thereafter enter, less than one-quarter section of land may enter other and additional land lying contiguous to the original entry which shall not, with the land first entered and occupied, exceed in the aggregate one hundred and sixty acres, without proof of residence upon and cultivation of the additional entry; and if final proof of settlement and cultivation has been made for the original entry when the additional entry is made, then the patent shall issue without further proof: Provided, That this section shall not apply to or for the benefit of any person who does not own and occupy the lands covered by the original entry: And provided, That if the original entry should fail for any reason prior to patent, or should appear to be illegal or fraudulent, the additional entry shall not be permitted, or, if having been initiated, shall be canceled.

Commutation under the provisions of section 173 shall not be allowed of an entry made under this section. (Apr. 28, 1904, c. 1776, §§ 2, 3, 33 Stat. 527.)

214. Additional entry; after final proof on entry of less than quarter-section.—Every person entitled, under the provisions of the homestead laws, to enter a homestead, who has prior to March 3, 1889, complied with or who shall thereafter comply with the conditions of said laws, and who shall have made his final proof thereunder for a quantity of land less than one hundred and sixty acres and received the register's final receipt therefor, shall be entitled under said laws to enter as a personal right, and not assignable, by legal subdivisions of the public lands of the United States subject to homestead entry, so much additional land as added to the quantity previously so entered by him shall not exceed one hundred and sixty acres: Provided, That in no case shall patent issue for the land covered by such additional entry until the person making such additional entry shall have actually and in conformity with the homestead laws resided upon and cultivated the lands so additionally entered and otherwise fully complied with such laws: Provided, also, That this section shall not be construed as affecting any rights as to location of soldiers' certificates issued, prior to March 3, 1889, under section 274 of this chapter. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 381, § 6, 25 Stat. 854.)

215. Additional entry after patent on entry for less than quarter section.—Any person otherwise qualified who has obtained title under the homestead laws to less than one quarter section of land may make entry and obtain title under the provisions for enlarged homesteads, for such an area of public land as will, when one-half of such area is added to the area of the lands to which he has already obtained title, not exceed one quarter section: Provided, That this section shall not be construed to apply to soldiers' additional homestead entries made under section 274 of this chapter, or Acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto. (Feb. 20, 1917, c. 98, 39 Stat. 925.)

216. Validation of additional entry after patent.—All pending homestead entries pending March 4, 1915, made in good faith prior to January 1, 1914, under the provisions of the enlarged homestead laws, by persons who before making such enlarged homestead entry had acquired title to land under the homestead laws and therefore were not qualified to make an enlarged homestead entry, are validated, if in all other respects regular, in all cases where the original homestead entry was for less than one hundred and sixty acres of land. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 148, 38 Stat. 1162.)

217. Additional entry after commutation of former entry.—Any person who has, prior to June 5, 1900, made entry under the homestead laws and commuted same under provisions of section 173 of this chapter, shall be entitled to the benefits of the homestead laws, as though such former entry had not been made, except that commutation under the provisions of section 173, shall not be allowed of an entry made under this section. (June 5, 1900, c. 716, § 2, 31 Stat. 269.)

218. Enlarged entries of certain nonmineral, nonirrigable lands in certain States.—(a) Any person who is a qualified entryman under the homestead laws of the United States may enter, by legal subdivisions, under the provisions of this section, in the States of Arizona, California, Colorado, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming, three hundred and twenty acres, or less, of nonmineral, nonirrigable, unreserved, and unappropriated surveyed public lands which do not contain merchantable timber, located in a reasonably compact body, and not over one and one-half miles in extreme length: Provided, That no lands shall be subject to entry under the provisions of this Act until such lands shall have been designated by the Secretary of the Interior as not being, in his opinion, susceptible of successful irrigation at a reasonable cost from any known source of water supply.

(b) Applications; affidavits; fees.—Any person applying to enter land under the provisions of this section shall make and subscribe before the proper officer an affidavit as required by section 162 of this chapter and in addition thereto shall make affidavit that the land sought to be entered is of the character described in paragraph (a) of this section, and shall pay the fees required to be paid under the homestead laws.

(c) Additional entry of land contiguous to former entry not to exceed limitation.—Any person who has made, or shall make, homestead entry of lands of the character herein described, and who has not submitted final proof thereon, or who having submitted final proof still owns and occupies the land thus entered, shall have the right to enter public lands, subject to the provisions of this section, contiguous to his first entry, which shall not, together with the original entry, exceed three hundred and twenty acres: Provided, That the land originally entered and that covered by the additional entry shall have first been designated as subject to this section, as provided by paragraph (a) hereof.

(d) Proof of cultivation; final proofs on additional entries.—At the time of making final proof, as provided in section 164 of this chapter, the entryman under this section shall, in addition to the proofs and affidavits required under said section 164 prove by himself and two credible witnesses that at least one-sixteenth of the area embraced in such entry was continuously cultivated for agricultural crops other than native grasses, beginning with the second year of the entry, and that at least one-eighth of the area embraced in the entry was so continuously cultivated beginning with the third year of the entry: Provided, That any qualified person who has prior to February 19, 1909, made, or who thereafter makes, additional entry under the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section to an entry upon which final proof has not been made, may be allowed to perfect title to his original entry by showing compliance with the provisions of said section 164, respecting such original entry, and thereafter in making proof upon his additional entry shall be credited with residence maintained upon his original entry from date of such original entry, but the cultivation required upon entries made under this section must be shown respecting such additional entry, which cultivation, while it may be made upon either the original or additional entry or upon both entries, must be cultivation in addition to that relied upon and used in making proof upon the original entry; or, if he elects, his original and additional entries may be considered as one, with full credit for residence upon and improvements made upon his original entry, in which event the amount of cultivation herein required shall apply to the total area of the combined entry, and proof may be made upon such combined entry whenever it can be shown that the cultivation required by this section has been performed; and to this end the time within which proof must be made upon such a combined entry is hereby extended to seven years from the date of the original entry: Provided further, That where an entry is made as additional to an entry upon which final proof has theretofore been submitted by an entryman who still owns and occupies the land thus entered, the entryman in making proof upon his additional entry shall be credited with residence maintained upon his original entry from date thereof, but the cultivation required upon entries made under this section must be shown respecting such additional entry and must be performed upon the land included therein to the extent and for the period required in connection with the original entries under this section, proof of which must be submitted within five years from and after the date of the additional entry: Provided further, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to require residence upon the combined entry in excess of the period of residence as required by section 164.

(e) Other rights of entry not affected.—Nothing in this section contained shall be held to affect the right of a qualified entryman to make homestead entry in the States named in paragraph (a) of this section under the provisions of section 161 of this chapter, but no person who has made entry under this section shall be entitled to make homestead entry under the provisions of said section 161, and no entry made under this section shall be commuted.

(f) Lands in Utah without domestic water supply designated; residence and cultivation.—Whenever the Secretary of the Interior shall find that any tracts of land, in the State of Utah, subject to entry under this section, do not have upon them such a sufficient supply of water suitable for domestic purposes as would make continuous residence upon the lands possible, he may, in his discretion, designate such tracts of land, not to exceed in the aggregate 2,000,000 acres, and thereafter they shall be subject to entry under this section without the necessity of residence: Provided, That in such event the entryman on any such entry shall in good faith cultivate not less than one-eighth of the entire area of the entry during the second year, one-fourth during the third year, and one-half during the fourth and fifth years after the date of such entry, and that after entry and until final proof the entryman shall reside within such distance of said land as will enable him successfully to farm the same as required by this paragraph.

(g) Additional entry of noncontiguous land; amount; patents.—Any person who has made or shall make homestead entry of less than three hundred and twenty acres of lands of the character described, in this section, and who shall have submitted final proof thereon, shall have the right to enter public lands subject to the provisions of this section, not contiguous to his first entry, which shall not with the original entry exceed three hundred and twenty acres: Provided, That the land originally entered and that covered by the additional entry shall first have been designated as subject to this section as provided by paragraph (a): Provided further, That in no case shall patent issue for the land covered by such additional entry until the person making same shall have actually and in conformity with the homestead laws resided upon and cultivated the lands so additionally entered, and otherwise complied with such laws, except that where the land embraced in the additional entry is located not exceeding twenty miles from the land embraced in the original entry no residence shall be required on such additional entry if the entryman is residing on his former entry: And provided further, That this section shall not be construed as affecting any rights as to location of soldiers' additional homesteads under section 274 of this chapter.

(h) Provisions extended to Kansas.—The provisions of paragraphs (a) to (e), inclusive, of the Act entitled "An Act to provide for an enlarged homestead," approved February 19, 1909 (Thirty-fifth Statutes at Large, page 639), as modified and amended, are hereby extended and made applicable to the State of Kansas. (Feb. 19, 1909, c. 160, §§ 1-7, 35 Stat. 639; June 13, 1912, c. 166, 37 Stat. 132; Mar. 3, 1915, c. 84, 38 Stat. 953; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 152, § 2, 38 Stat. 1163; July 3, 1916, c. 220, 39 Stat. 344.)

219. Enlarged entries of certain nonmineral, nonirrigable lands in Idaho.—(a) Any person who is a qualified entryman under the homestead laws of the United States may enter, by legal subdivision, under the provisions of this section, in the State of Idaho, three hundred and twenty acres or less of arid nonmineral, nonirrigable, unreserved, and unappropriated surveyed public lands which do not contain merchantable timber, located in a reasonably compact body and not over one and one-half miles in extreme length: Provided, That no lands shall be subject to entry under the provisions of this section until the lands shall have been designated by the Secretary of the Interior as not being, in his opinion, susceptible of successful irrigation, at a reasonable cost, from any known source of water supply.

(b) Applications; affidavits; fees.—Any person applying to enter land under the provisions of this section shall make and subscribe before the proper officer an affidavit as required by section 162 of this chapter and in addition thereto shall make affidavit that the land sought to be entered is of the character described in paragraph (a) of this section, and shall pay the fees now required to be paid under the homestead laws.

(c) Additional entry of land contiguous to former entry not to exceed limitation.—Any person who has made, or shall make, homestead entry of lands of the character described in this section, and who has not submitted final proof thereon, or who having submitted final proof still owns and occupies the land thus entered, shall have the right to enter public lands, subject to the provisions of this section, contiguous to his first entry, which shall not, together with the original entry, exceed three hundred and twenty acres: Provided, That the land originally entered and that covered by the additional entry shall have first been designated as subject to this section, as provided by paragraph (a) hereof.

(d) Proof of cultivation; final proofs on additional entries.—At the time of making final proof, as provided in section 164 of this chapter, the entryman under this section shall, in addition to the proofs and affidavits required under said section 164 prove by himself and two credible witnesses that at least one-sixteenth of the area embraced in such entry was continuously cultivated for agricultural crops other than native grasses, beginning with the second year of the entry, and that at least one-eighth of the area embraced in the entry was so continuously cultivated beginning with the third year of the entry: Provided, That any qualified person who has, prior to June 10, 1910, made, or who hereafter makes, additional entry under the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section to an entry upon which final proof has not been made, may be allowed to perfect title to his original entry by showing compliance with the provisions of section 164, respecting such original entry, and thereafter in making proof upon his additional entry shall be credited with residence maintained upon his original entry from date of such original entry, but the cultivation required upon entries made under this section must be shown respecting such additional entry, which cultivation, while it may be made upon either the original or additional entry or upon both entries, must be cultivation in addition to that relied upon and used in making proof upon the original entry; or, if he elects, his original and additional entries may be considered as one, with full credit for residence upon and improvement made upon his original entry, in which event the amount of cultivation herein required shall apply to the total area of the combined entry, and proof may be made upon such combined entry whenever it can be shown that the cultivation required by this paragraph has been performed; and to this end the time within which proof must be made upon such a combined entry is extended to seven years from the date of the original entry: Provided further, That where an entry is made as additional to an entry upon which final proof has theretofore been submitted by an entryman who still owns and occupies the land thus entered, the entryman in making proof upon his additional entry shall be credited with residence maintained upon his original entry from date thereof, but the cultivation required upon entries made under this section must be shown respecting such additional entry and must be performed upon the land included therein to the extent and for the period required in connection with the original entries under this section, proof of which must be submitted within five years from and after the date of the additional entry: Provided further, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to require residence upon the combined entry in excess of the period of residence as required by section 164 of this chapter.

(e) Other rights of entry not affected.—Nothing contained in this section shall be held to affect the right of a qualified entryman to make homestead entry in the State of Idaho under the provisions of section 161 of this chapter, but no person who has made entry under this section shall be entitled to make homestead entry under the provisions of said section 161, and no entry made under this section shall be commuted.

(f) Lands without domestic water supply designated; residence and cultivation.—Whenever the Secretary of the Interior shall find any tracts of land in the State of Idaho, subject to entry under this section, do not have upon them such a sufficient supply of water suitable for domestic purposes as would make continuous residence upon the lands possible he may, in his discretion, designate such tracts of land, not to exceed in the aggregate one million acres, and thereafter they shall be subject to entry under this section without the necessity of residence upon the land entered: Provided, That the entryman shall in good faith cultivate not less than one-sixteenth of the entire area of the entry which is susceptible of cultivation during the first year of the entry, not less than one-eighth during the second year, and not less than one-fourth during the third year of the entry and until final proof: Provided further, That after six months from the date of entry and until final proof the entryman shall be a resident of the State of Idaho.

(g) Noncontiguous lands; occupancy and improvements; soldiers' additional homesteads.—Any person who has made or shall make homestead entry of less than three hundred and twenty acres of lands of the character described in this section and who shall have submitted final proof thereon, shall have the right to enter public lands subject to the provisions of this section, not contiguous to his first entry, which shall not with the original entry exceed three hundred and twenty acres: Provided, That the land originally entered and that covered by the additional entry shall first have been designated as subject to this section or the preceding section (Thirty-fifth Statutes, page 639), as provided by section 1 of said Acts: Provided further, That in no case shall patent issue for the land covered by such additional entry until the person making same shall have actually and in conformity with the homestead laws resided upon and cultivated the lands so additionally entered, and otherwise complied with such laws, except that where the land embraced in the additional entry is located not exceeding twenty miles from the land embraced in the original entry no residence shall be required on such additional entry if the entryman is residing on his former entry: And provided further, That this section shall not be construed as affecting any rights as to location of soldiers' additional homesteads under section 274. (June 17, 1910, c. 298, § 7, 36 Stat. 532; Feb. 11, 1913, c. 39, 37 Stat. 666; Mar. 3, 1915, c. 91, 38 Stat. 957; Sept. 6, 1916, c. 440, 39 Stat. 724.)

220. Applications for entry of lands not designated as subject to entry and for additional entry of contiguous land.—Where any person qualified to make entry under the provisions of the second preceding section, shall make application to enter under the provisions of said sections any unappropriated public land in any State affected thereby which has not been designated as subject to entry under the section (provided said application is accompanied and supported by properly corroborated affidavit of the applicant in duplicate, showing prima facie that the land applied for is of the character contemplated by said section), such application, together with the regular fees and commissions, shall be received by the register of the land district in which said land is located, and suspended until it shall have been determined by the Secretary of the Interior whether said land is actually of that character; that during such suspension the land described in said application shall be segregated by the said register and not subject to entry until the case is disposed of; and if it shall be determined that such land is of the character contemplated by the said section, then such application shall be allowed; otherwise it shall be rejected, subject to appeal: Provided, That the provisions of this section shall apply to the application of a qualified entryman to make additional entry of unappropriated land adjoining his unperfected homestead entry, the area of which, together with his original entry, shall not exceed three hundred and twenty acres. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 150, § 1, 38 Stat. 1162, 1163.)

221. Provisions extended to South Dakota.—The provisions of the preceding section and of the first five paragraphs, third preceding section, shall extend to and include the State of South Dakota. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 150, § 2, 38 Stat. 1163.)

222. Additional entries by homestead entrymen in lands in national forests.—Any homestead entrymen of one hundred and sixty acres or less of lands which have been prior to March 3, 1923, or may thereafter be designated or classified by the Secretary of the Interior as subject to entry under the provisions of sections 216 and 217 of this chapter, who has not submitted final proof upon his existing entry, and any homestead entryman who has submitted final proof, or received patent, for such an amount of lands which have been at that time or may thereafter be designated or classified by the Secretary of the Interior as of the character described in said sections, and who owns and resides upon the said homestead entry, where said lands are within a national forest, may make an additional entry for and obtain patent to such an amount of land, of that same character, not in a national forest, and within a radius of twenty miles from said homestead entry, as, when the area thereof is added to the area of the original entry, will not exceed three hundred and twenty acres, and residence upon the original entry shall be credited on both entries; but cultivation must be made on the additional entry as required by said sections. For the purposes of this section the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to designate as subject to such sections, lands embraced, at the time of such designation, within valid subsisting entries within national forests. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 245, § 1, 42 Stat. 1445.)

223. Preference of settler to entry under Enlarged Homestead Act.—Any settler upon lands designated by the Secretary of the Interior as subject to the provisions of paragraphs (a) to (e), inclusive, of section 218 of this chapter, and section 219 of this chapter, shall be entitled to the preference right of entry accorded by section 166 of this chapter; provided he shall have plainly marked the exterior boundaries of the lands claimed as his homestead: Provided, That after the designation by the Secretary of the Interior of public lands for entry under the nonresidence provisions of sections 218 and 219, any person who shall have plainly marked the exterior boundaries of the lands claimed under said provisions of law and made valuable improvements thereon shall have a preference right to enter the lands so claimed and improved at any time within three months after the date on which such lands become subject to entry; but such right shall forfeit unless the settler or claimant under the provisions of the said sections shall annually cultivate and improve the lands in the form and manner and to the extent therein required following date of initiation of his claim hereunder. (May 14, 1880, c. 89, § 3, 21 Stat. 141; June 6, 1900, c. 821, 31 Stat. 683; Aug. 9, 1912, c. 280, 37 Stat. 267.)

224. Limitation of entries within certain boundaries in Nebraska extended; exclusion of irrigable lands.—(a) After June 27, 1904, entries made under the homestead laws in the State of Nebraska west and north of the following line, to wit: Beginning at a point on the boundary line between the States of South Dakota and Nebraska where the first guide meridian west of the sixth principal meridian strikes said boundary; thence running south along said guide meridian to its intersection with the fourth standard parallel north of the base line between the States of Nebraska and Kansas; thence west along said fourth standard parallel to its intersection with the second guide meridian west of the sixth principal meridian; thence south along said second guide meridian to its intersection with the third standard parallel north of the said base line; thence west along said third standard parallel to its intersection with the range line between ranges 25 and 26 west of the sixth principal meridian; thence south along said line to its intersection with the second standard parallel north of the said base line; thence west on said standard parallel to its intersection with the range line between ranges 30 and 31 west; thence south along said line to its intersection with the boundary line between the States of Nebraska and Kansas, shall not exceed in area six hundred and forty acres, and shall be as nearly compact in form as possible, and in no event over two miles in extreme length: Provided, That there shall be excluded from the provisions of this section such lands within the territory herein described as in the opinion of the Secretary of the Interior it may be reasonably practicable to irrigate under the national irrigation law, or by private enterprise; and that said Secretary shall, prior to the date above mentioned, designate and exclude from entry under this section the lands, particularly along the North Platte River, which in his opinion it may be possible to irrigate as aforesaid; and shall thereafter, from time to time, open to entry under this section any of the lands so excluded, which, upon further investigation, he may conclude can not be practically irrigated in the manner aforesaid.

(b) Limit of additional entry of contiguous land.—Entrymen under the homestead laws of the United States within the territory above described who owned and occupied the lands heretofore entered by them prior to April 28, 1904, may, under the provisions of this section and subject to its conditions, enter other lands contiguous to their said homestead entry, which shall not, with the land so already entered, owned, and occupied, exceed in the aggregate six hundred and forty acres; and residence continued and improvements made upon the original homestead, subsequent to the making of the additional entry, shall be accepted as equivalent to actual residence and improvements made upon the additional land so entered, but final entry shall not be allowed of such additional land until five years after first entering the same, except in favor of entrymen entitled to credit for military service.

(c) Fees and commissions on entries; commutation.—The fees and commissions on all entries under this section shall be uniformly the same as those charged for a maximum entry at the minimum price. The commutation provisions of the homestead law shall not apply to entries under this section, and at the time of making final proof the entryman must prove affirmatively that he has placed upon the lands entered permanent improvements of the value of not less than $1.25 per acre for each acre included in his entry: Provided, That a former homestead entry shall not be a bar to the entry under the provisions of this section of a tract which, together with the former entry, shall not exceed six hundred and forty acres: Provided, That any former homestead entryman who shall be entitled to an additional entry under paragraph (b) of this section shall have for ninety days after April 28, 1904, the preferential right to make additional entry as provided in said paragraph.

(d) Benefits of section extended to certain entries.—All qualified entrymen who, during the period beginning on the 28th day of April, 1904, and ending on the 28th day of June, 1904, made homestead entry in the State of Nebraska within the area affected by this section, shall be entitled to all the benefits of said Act as if their entries had been made prior or subsequent to the above-mentioned dates, subject to all existing rights.

(e) Benefits of military service extended to entries.—The benefits of military service in the Army or Navy of the United States granted under the homestead laws shall apply to entries made under the aforesaid Act approved April 28, 1904, and all homestead entries hereafter made within the territory described in the aforesaid Act shall be subject to all the provisions thereof.

(f) Sale of isolated tracts.—Within the territory described in said Act approved April 28, 1904, it shall be lawful for the Secretary of the Interior to order into market and sell under the provisions of the laws providing for the sale of isolated or disconnected tract or parcels of land any isolated or disconnected tract not exceeding three quarter sections in area: Provided, That not more than three quarter sections shall be sold to any one person.

(g) Qualifications of entrymen making additional entries.—The qualifications of a former homestead entryman who has, prior to August 24, 1912, been permitted to make an additional or another entry under this section, prior to August 24, 1912, shall be determined by the qualifications, except as to citizenship, possessed on the date of his first entry in all cases where the rights of third persons shall not have intervened and the additional or second entry has not been canceled. (Apr. 28, 1904, c. 1801, §§ 1–3, 33 Stat. 548; Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2527, §§ 1–3, 34 Stat. 1224; May 29, 1908, c. 220, § 7, 35 Stat. 466; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 371, 37 Stat. 499.)

LEAVES OF ABSENCE AND EXCUSES FOR NONRESIDENCE OR NONCULTIVATION

231. Optional leaves of absence; proof on commutation.—The entryman mentioned in section 164 of this chapter upon filing in the local land office notice of the beginning of such absence at his option shall be entitled to a leave of absence in one or two continuous periods, not exceeding in the aggregate five months in each year after establishing residence: Provided, That the register of the local land office under rules and regulations made by the Commissioner of the General Land Office may, upon proper showing, upon application of the homesteader, and only for climatic conditions, which makes residence on the homestead for seven months in each year a hardship, reduce the term of residence to not more than six months in each year, over a period of four years, or to not more than five months each year over a period of five years, but the total residence required shall in no event exceed twenty-five months, not less than five of which shall be in each year; proof to be made within five years after entry; and upon the termination of such absence, in each period, the entryman shall file a notice of such termination in the local land office; but in case of commutation the fourteen months' actual residence, as now required by law, must be shown, and the person commuting be at the time a citizen of the United States. (R. S. § 2291; June 6, 1912, c. 153, 37 Stat. 123; Aug. 22, 1914, c. 270, 38 Stat. 704; Feb. 25, 1919, c. 21, 40 Stat. 1153; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

232. Settlers on unsurveyed land.—Any qualified person who has prior to July 3, 1916, or shall thereafter in good faith make settlement upon and improve unsurveyed unreserved unappropriated public lands of the United States with intention, upon survey, of entering same under the homestead laws shall be entitled to a leave of absence in one or two periods not exceeding in the aggregate five months in each year after establishment of residence: Provided, That he shall have plainly marked on the ground the exterior boundaries of the lands claimed and have filed in the local land office notice of the approximate location of the lands settled upon and claimed, of the period of intended absence, and that he shall upon the termination of the absence and his return to the land file notice thereof in the local land office. (July 3, 1916, c. 214, 39 Stat. 341.)

233. Persons receiving vocational rehabilitation or treatment for wounds.—Every person who, after discharge from the military or naval service of the United States during the war against Germany and its allies, is furnished any course of vocational rehabilitation under the terms of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act, constituting sections 531 to 539 of Title 38, PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF, upon the ground that he comes within Article III of the Act of October 6, 1917, Fortieth Volume, Statutes at Large, page 398, and who before entering upon such course shall have made entry upon or application for public lands of the United States under the homestead laws, or who has settled or shall hereafter settle upon public lands, shall be entitled to a leave of absence from his land for the purpose of undergoing training by the Federal Board of Vocational Education, and such absence, while actually engaged in such training shall be counted as constructive residence: Provided, That no patent shall issue to any homestead settler who has not resided upon, improved, and cultivated his homestead for a period of at least one year.

The above provisions of this section are extended to those who, after discharge from the military or naval service of the United States, are furnished treatment by the Government for wounds received or disability incurred in line of duty. (Sept. 29, 1919, c. 64, 41 Stat. 288; Apr. 6, 1922, c. 122, § 2, 42 Stat. 491.)

234. Destruction or failure of crops, sickness, or unavoidable casualty.—Whenever it shall be made to appear to the register of any public land office, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe, that any settler upon the public domain under existing law is unable by reason of a total or partial destruction or failure of crops, sickness, or other unavoidable casualty, to secure a support for himself, herself, or those dependent upon him or her upon the lands settled upon, then such register may grant to such settler a leave of absence from the claim upon which he or she has filed for a period not exceeding one year at any one time, and such settler so granted leave of absence shall forfeit no rights by reason of such absence: Provided, That the time of such actual absence shall not be deducted from the actual residence required by law: Provided further, That if any such settler has, prior to December 29, 1894, forfeited his or her entry for any of said reasons, such person shall be permitted to make entry of, not to exceed a quarter section on any public land subject to entry under the homestead law, and to perfect title to the same under the same conditions in every respect as if he had not made the former entry. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 381, § 3, 25 Stat. 854; Dec. 29, 1894, c. 14, 28 Stat. 599; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

235. Destruction or injury to crops by grasshoppers.—It shall be lawful for homestead settlers on the public lands, where crops have been or may be destroyed or seriously injured by grasshoppers, to leave and be absent from said lands, under such rules and regulations, as to proof of the same, as the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall prescribe; but in no case shall such absence extend beyond one year continuously; and during such absence no adverse rights shall attach to said lands, such settlers being allowed to resume and perfect their settlement as though no such absence had occurred. (July 1, 1879, c. 63, § 1, 21 Stat. 48; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 4, 26 Stat. 1097.)

236. Absence to perform farm labor during World War.—During the pendency of the war with Germany and her allies any homestead settler or entryman shall be entitled to a leave of absence from his land for the purpose of performing farm labor, and such absence, while actually engaged in farm labor, shall, upon compliance with the terms of this section, be counted as constructive residence: Provided, That each settler or entryman within fifteen days after leaving his claim for the purpose herein provided shall file notice thereof in the United States Land Office, and at the expiration of the calendar year file in said land office of the district wherein his claim is situated a written statement, under oath and corroborated by two witnesses, giving the date or dates when he left his claim, date or dates of return thereto, and where and for whom he was engaged in farm labor during such period or periods of absence: Provided further, That nothing herein shall excuse any homestead settler or entryman from making improvements or performing the cultivation required by applicable law upon his claim or entry: Provided further, That the provisions of this section shall apply only to homestead settlers and entrymen who may have filed their application prior to December 20, 1917. The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to provide rules and regulations for carrying this section into effect. (Dec. 20, 1917, c. 6, 40 Stat. 430.)

237. Period of drought in 1919.—Any homestead settler or entryman who, during the calendar year 1919, found it necessary to leave his homestead to seek employment in order to obtain food and other necessaries of life for himself, family, and work stock, because of great and serious drought conditions, causing total or partial failures of crops, may, upon filing with the register proof of such conditions in the form of a corroborated affidavit, be excused from residence upon his homestead during all or part of the calendar year 1919, or the current year of such homestead which may fall principally in the year 1919, and in the making of final proof upon such an entry absence granted under this section shall be counted and construed as constructive residence by said homesteader. (July 24, 1919, c. 26, 41 Stat. 271.)

238. Residence and cultivation, etc., by disabled veterans excused.—Any bona fide settler, applicant, or entryman under the homestead laws of the United States, or any desert-land entryman whose entry is subject to the provisions of chapter 12 of this title, who, after settlement, application, or entry, and prior to November 11, 1918, enlisted or was actually engaged in the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps during the war with Germany, who has been honorably discharged and because of physical incapacities due to the service is unable to return to the land, may make final proof, without further residence, improvement, cultivation, or reclamation, at such time and place as may be authorized by the Secretary of the Interior, and receive patent to the land by him so entered or settled upon, subject to the provisions of the Act or Acts under which such settlement or entry was made: Provided, That no such patent shall issue prior to the conformation of the entry to a single farm unit, as required by the Act of August 13, 1914 (Thirty-eighth Statutes, page 686): And provided further, That this section shall not be construed to exempt or relieve such applicant or entryman from payment of any lawful fees, commissions, purchase moneys, water charges, or other sums due to the United States, or its successors in control of the reclamation project, in connection with such lands. (Mar. 1, 1921, c. 102, § 1, 41 Stat. 1202; Apr. 7, 1922, c. 125, 42 Stat. 492.)

239. Service in Army or Navy, etc., as equivalent to residence.—Where a party at the date of his entry of a tract of land under the homestead laws, or subsequently thereto, was actually enlisted and employed in the Army or Navy of the United States, his services therein shall, in the administration of such homestead laws, be construed to be equivalent, to all intents and purposes, to a residence for the same length of time upon the tract so entered. And if his entry has been canceled by reason of his absence from such tract while in the military or naval service of the United States, and such tract has not been disposed of, his entry shall be restored; but if such tract has been disposed of, the party may enter another tract subject to entry under the homestead laws, and his right to a patent therefor may be determined by the proofs touching his residence and cultivation of the first tract and his absence therefrom in such service. (R. S. § 2308.)

240. Service in time of war as equivalent to residence and cultivation.—In every case in which a settler on the public land of the United States under the homestead laws enlists or is actually engaged in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States as private soldier, officer, seaman, or marine, during the war with Spain or during any other war in which the United States may be engaged, his services therein shall, in the administration of the homestead laws, be construed to be equivalent to all intents and purposes to residence and cultivation for the same length of time upon the tract entered or settled upon; and after July 16, 1898, no contest shall be initiated on the ground of abandonment, nor allegation of abandonment sustained against any such settler, unless it shall be alleged in the preliminary affidavit or affidavits of contest, and proved at the hearing in cases thereafter initiated, that the settler's alleged absence from the land was not due to his employment in such service: Provided, That if such settler shall be discharged on account of wounds received or disability incurred in the line of duty, then the term of his enlistment shall be deducted from the required length of residence without reference to the time of actual service: Provided further, That no patent shall issue to any homestead settler who has not resided upon, improved, and cultivated his homestead for a period of at least one year after he shall have commenced his improvements.

The above provisions of this section shall be applicable in all cases of military service rendered in connection with operations in Mexico, or along the borders thereof, or in mobilization camps elsewhere, whether such service be in the military or naval organization of the United States or the National Guard of the several States now or hereafter in the service of the United States. (July 16, 1898, c. 458, 30 Stat. 473; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 420, 39 Stat. 671.)

241. Military, naval, or other service; contest; discharge for disability; death.—Any settler upon the public lands of the United States; or any entryman whose application has been allowed; or any person who has made application for public lands which thereafter may be allowed under the homestead laws, who, after such settlement, entry, or application, enlists or is actually engaged in the military or naval service of the United States as a private soldier, officer, seaman, marine, national guardsman, or member of any other organization for offense or defense authorized by Congress during any war in which the United States may be engaged, shall, in the administration of the homestead laws, have his services therein construed to be equivalent to all intents and purposes to residence and cultivation for the same length of time upon the tract entered or settled upon; and after July 28, 1917, no contest shall be initiated on the ground of abandonment, nor allegation of abandonment sustained against any such settler, entryman, or person unless it shall be alleged in the preliminary affidavit or affidavits of contest and proved at the hearing in cases thereafter initiated that the alleged absence from the land was not due to his employment in such military or naval service; that if he shall be discharged on account of wounds received or disability incurred in the line of duty, then the term of his enlistment shall be deducted from the required length of residence, without reference to the time of actual service: Provided, That no patent shall issue to any homestead settler who has not resided upon, improved, and cultivated his homestead for a period of at least one year. (July 28, 1917, c. 44, § 1, 40 Stat. 248.)

242. Widows and minor children of applicants for homesteads dying in military or naval service.—Any settler upon the public lands of the United States; or any entryman whose application has been allowed; or any person who has made application for public lands which thereafter may be allowed under the homestead laws, who dies while actually engaged in the military or naval service of the United States as a private soldier, officer, seaman, marine, national guardsman, or member of any other organization for offense or defense authorized by Congress during any war in which the United States may be engaged, then his widow, if unmarried, or in case of her death or marriage, his minor orphan children, or his or their legal representatives may proceed forthwith to make final proof upon such entry or application thereafter allowed, and shall be entitled to receive Government patent for such land; and that the death of such soldier while so engaged in the service of the United States shall, in the administration of the homestead laws, be construed to be equivalent to a performance of all requirements as to residence and cultivation upon such homestead. (July 28, 1917, c. 44, § 2, 40 Stat. 248.)

FINAL PROOF GENERALLY

251. Notice of intention to make final proof.—Before final proof shall be submitted by any person claiming to enter agricultural lands under the laws providing for homestead entries, such person shall file with the register of the proper land office a notice of his or her intention to make such proof, stating therein the description of lands to be entered, and the names of the witnesses by whom the necessary facts will be established. Upon the filing of such notice, the register shall publish a notice, that such application has been made once a week for the period of thirty days, in a newspaper to be by him designated as published nearest to such land, and he shall also post such notice in some conspicuous place in his office for the same period. Such notice shall contain the names of the witnesses as stated in the application. At the expiration of said period of thirty days, the claimant shall be entitled to make proof in the manner provided by law. The Secretary of the Interior shall make all necessary rules for giving effect to the foregoing provisions. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 192, 20 Stat. 472.)

252. Time of taking testimony for final proof in case of unavoidable delay.—The testimony for final proof may be taken within ten days following the day advertised as upon which such final proof shall be made, in cases where accident or unavoidable delays have prevented the applicant or witnesses from making such proof on the date specified. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 381, § 7, 25 Stat. 855.)

253. Notice of contest; publication.—The notices of contest now provided by law under the homestead, [pre-emption and tree-culture] laws of the United States shall, after June 3, 1878, be printed in some newspaper printed in the county where the land in contest lies; and if no newspaper be printed in such county, then in the newspaper printed in the county nearest to such land. (June 3, 1878, c. 152, § 1, 20 Stat. 91.)

254. Officers before whom affidavits or proofs may be made; perjury; fees.—All proofs, affidavits, and oaths of any kind whatsoever required to be made by applicants and entrymen under the Homestead, Desert Land, and Timber and Stone Acts, may in addition to those now authorized to take such affidavits, proofs, and oaths be made before any United States commissioner or commissioner of the court exercising Federal jurisdiction in the Territory or before the judge or clerk of any court of record in the county, parish, or land district in which the lands are situated: Provided, That in cases where because of geographic or topographic conditions there is a qualified officer nearer or more accessible to the land involved, but outside the county and land district, affidavits, proofs, and oaths may be taken before such officer: Provided further, That in case the affidavits, proofs, and oaths hereinbefore mentioned be taken outside of the county or land district in which the land is located, the applicant must show by affidavit, satisfactory to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, that it was taken before the nearest or most accessible officer qualified to take such affidavits, proofs, and oaths; but such showing by affidavits need not be made in making final proof if the proof be taken in the town or city where the newspaper is published in which the final proof notice is printed. The proof, affidavit, and oath, when so made and duly subscribed, shall have the same force and effect as if made before the register when transmitted to him with the fees and commissions allowed and required by law. If any witness making such proof, or any applicant making such affidavit or oath, shall knowingly, willfully, or corruptly swear falsely to any material matter contained in said proofs, affidavits, or oaths, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall be liable to the same pains and penalties as if he had sworn falsely before the register. The fees for entries and for final proofs, when made before any other officer than the register shall be as follows:

For each affidavit, 25 cents.

For each deposition of claimant or witness, when not prepared by the officer, 25 cents.

For each deposition of claimant or witness prepared by the officer, $1.

Any officer demanding or receiving a greater sum for such service shall be guilty of misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by a fine not exceeding $100. (R. S. § 2294; May 26, 1890, c. 355, 26 Stat. 121; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, §§ 1, 4, 26 Stat. 1097; Mar. 3, 1893, c. 208, 27 Stat. 593; Mar. 11, 1902, c. 182, 32 Stat. 63; Mar. 4, 1904, c. 394, 33 Stat. 59; Feb. 23, 1923, c. 105, 42 Stat. 1281; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

255. Persons in military or naval service; affidavits taken by commanding officer.—In case of any person desirous of availing himself of the benefits of this chapter; but who, by reason of actual service in the military or naval service of the United States, is unable to do the personal preliminary acts at the district land office which the preceding sections require; and whose family, or some member thereof, is residing on the land which he desires to enter, and upon which a bona-fide improvement and settlement have been made, such person may make the affidavit required by law before the officer commanding in the branch of the service in which the party is engaged, which affidavit shall be as binding in law, and with like penalties, as if taken before the register; and upon such affidavit being filed with the register by the wife or other representative of the party, the same shall become effective from the date of such filing, provided the application and affidavit are accompanied by the fee and commissions as required by law.

During the continuance of the present war with Germany, and until his discharge from service, any man serving in the armed forces of the United States, who, prior to the beginning of his services was a settler, an applicant, or entryman under the land laws of the United States, or who has, prior to enlistment, filed a contest, with the view of exercising preference right of entry therefor, may make any affidavit required by law or regulation of the department, affecting such application, entry, or contest, or necessary to the making of entry in the case of the successful termination of such contest awarding him preference right of entry, before his commanding officer as provided above in this section, which affidavits shall be as binding in law and with like penalties as if taken before the Register of the United States Land Office. (R. S. § 2293; Oct. 6, 1917, c. 86, 40 Stat. 391.)

256. Election as to law under which to make final proof.—Any person entitled to enter lands under the homestead laws, who may have established residence upon unsurveyed lands (which were subject to homestead entry) prior to June 6, 1916, may perfect his proof for such lands under the provisions of this chapter, or under the law existing at the time of the establishment of such residence, as he may elect, such election to be signified to the Department of the Interior in accordance with rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 149, 37 Stat. 925.)

PAYMENTS AND REFUNDS

261. Time for payments; extension of time for payment.—Whenever it shall appear by the filing of such evidence in the office of any register and receiver as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior that any settler on the public lands, by reason of a failure of crops for which he is in no wise responsible, is unable to make the payment on his homestead claim required by law, the Commissioner of the General Land

Office is authorized to extend the time for such payment for not exceeding one year from the date when the same becomes due. (Sept. 30, 1890, No. 59, 26 Stat. 684; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 4, 26 Stat. 1097.)

262. Repayment of excess on final proof or commutation.—In all cases in which homestead entrymen upon final proof or commutation shall have been required to pay more than the lawful purchase money for their lands, the Secretary of the Interior shall cause the excess to be repaid to the entryman or to his heirs or assigns. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2568, 34 Stat. 1248.)

263. Cancellation of entries; repayment.—In all cases where it shall, upon due proof being made, appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Interior that innocent parties have paid the fees and commissions and excess payments required upon the location of claims under section 274, which said claims were, after such location, found to be fraudulent and void, and the entries or locations made thereon canceled, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to repay to such innocent parties the fees and commissions, and excess payments paid by them, upon the surrender of the receipts issued therefor by the receivers of public moneys, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and shall be payable out of the appropriation to refund purchase money on lands erroneously sold by the United States.

Canceled and unconfirmed entries.—In all cases where homestead or timber-culture or desert-land entries or other entries of public lands have heretofore or shall hereafter be canceled for conflict, or where, from any cause, the entry has been erroneously allowed and can not be confirmed, the Secretary of the Interior shall cause to be repaid to the person who made such entry, or to his heirs or assigns, the fees and commissions, amount of purchase money, and excesses paid upon the same upon the surrender of the duplicate receipt and the execution of a proper relinquishment of all claims to said land, whenever such entry shall have been duly canceled by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and in all cases where parties have paid double-minimum price for land which has afterwards been found not to be within the limits of a railroad land grant, the excess of $1.25 per acre shall in like manner be repaid to the purchaser thereof, or to his heirs or assigns.

Appropriation.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to make the payments herein provided for, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Rules by Commissioner of General Land Office.—The Commissioner of the General Land Office shall make all necessary rules, and issue all necessary instructions, to carry the provisions of the preceding section into effect; and for the repayment of the purchase money and fees therein provided for the Secretary of the Interior shall draw his warrant on the Treasury and the same shall be paid without regard to the date of the cancellation of the entries.

Proof of loyalty not required.—No proof of loyalty shall be required in the cases mentioned in this section. (June 16, 1880, c. 244, §§ 1–4, 21 Stat. 287; Apr. 18, 1904, No. 25, 33 Stat. 589.)

SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' HOMESTEAD

271. Soldiers and sailors entitled to make entry generally.—Every private soldier and officer who served in the Army of the United States during the recent rebellion for ninety days, and who was honorably discharged and has remained loyal to the Government, including the troops mustered into the service of the United States by virtue of the third section of an Act approved February 13, 1862, and every seaman, marine, and officer who served in the Navy of the United States or in the Marine Corps during the rebellion for ninety days, and who was honorably discharged and has remained loyal to the Government, and every private soldier and officer who served in the Army of the United States during the Spanish war, or during the suppression of the insurrection in the Philippines for ninety days, and who was honorably discharged; and every seaman, marine, and officer who served in the Navy of the United States or in the Marine Corps during the Spanish war, or during the suppression of the insurrection in the Philippines for ninety days; and every person engaged for ninety days in the military or naval service of the United States, as a private soldier, officer, seaman, marine, national guardsman, or member of any other organization for offense or defense authorized by Congress, in connection with operations in Mexico, or along the borders thereof, or in mobilization camps elsewhere, or during the war with Germany and her allies, and who was honorably discharged, and every citizen of the United States who served with the allied armies during the World War, and who was honorably discharged, upon his resumption of citizenship in the United States, provided the service with the allied armies was similar to the service in the Armies of the United States required in this section, shall, on compliance with the provisions of this chapter, as hereinafter modified, be entitled to enter upon and receive patents for a quantity of public lands not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres, or one quarter section, to be taken in compact form, according to legal subdivisions, including the alternate reserved sections of public lands along the line of any railroad or other public work not otherwise reserved or appropriated, and other lands subject to entry under the homestead laws of the United States; but such homestead settler shall be allowed six months after locating his homestead and filing his declaratory statement within which to make his entry and commence his settlement and improvement. (R. S. § 2304; Mar. 1, 1901, c. 674, 31 Stat. 847; Feb. 25, 1919, c. 37, 40 Stat. 1161; Dec. 28, 1922, c. 19, 42 Stat. 1067.)

272. Deduction of military and naval service from time required to perfect title; rights of widows and children of veterans.—The time which the homestead settler has served in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States, or in the military or naval service, as defined in the preceding section, in connection with the Mexican border operations, or during the war with Germany and her allies with the allied armies during the World War shall be deducted from the time otherwise required to perfect title, or if discharged on account of wounds received or disability incurred in the line of duty, or if discharged from service and subsequently awarded compensation by the Government for wounds received or disability incurred in the line of duty, then the term of enlistment shall be deducted from the time so required to perfect title without reference to the length of time he may have served; but no patent shall issue to any homestead settler who has not resided upon, improved, and cultivated his homestead for a period of at least one year after he shall have commenced his improvements: Provided, That in every case in which a settler on the public land of the United States under the homestead laws died while actually engaged in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States as private soldier, officer, seaman, or marine, during the war with Spain or the Philippine insurrection, the Mexican border operations, or the war with Germany and her allies, his widow, if unmarried, or in case of her death or marriage, then his minor orphan children or his or their legal representatives, may proceed forthwith to make final proof upon the land so held by the deceased soldier and settler, and that the death of such soldier while so engaged in the service of the United States shall, in the administration of the homestead laws, be construed to be equivalent to a performance of all requirements as to residence and cultivation for the full period of five years, and shall entitle his widow, if unmarried, or in case of her death or marriage, then his minor orphan children or his or their legal representatives, to make final proof upon and receive Government patent for said land; and that upon proof produced to the officers of the proper local land office by the widow, if unmarried, or in case of her death or marriage, then his minor orphan children or his or their legal representatives, that the applicant for patent is the widow, if unmarried, or in case of her death or marriage, his orphan children or his or their legal representatives, and that such soldier, sailor, or marine died while in the service of the United States as hereinbefore described, the patent for such land shall issue. (R. S. § 2305; Mar. 1, 1901, c. 674, 31 Stat. 847; July 28, 1917, c. 44, § 2, 40 Stat. 248; Feb. 25, 1919, c. 37, 40 Stat. 1161; Apr. 6, 1922, c. 122, § 1, 42 Stat. 491.)

273. Veterans receiving compensation for wounds or disability.—The provisions of the two preceding sections, so far as applicable to those discharged from the military or naval service because of wounds received or disability incurred therein, are extended to those regularly discharged from such service and subsequently awarded compensation by the Government for wounds received or disability incurred in the line of duty. (Apr. 6, 1922, c. 122, § 1, 42 Stat. 491.)

274. Additional entry by veteran.—Every person entitled, under the provisions of section 271 to enter a homestead who may have, prior to March 1, 1901, entered, under the homestead laws, a quantity of land less than one hundred and sixty acres, shall be permitted to enter so much land as, when added to the quantity previously entered, shall not exceed one hundred and sixty acres. (R. S. § 2306.)

275. Additional entries invalid; commutation.—Where soldier's additional homestead entries have been made or initiated upon certificate of the Commissioner of the General Land Office of the right to make such entry, and there is no adverse claimant, and such certificate is found erroneous or invalid for any cause, the purchaser thereunder, on making proof of such purchase, may perfect his title by payment of the Government price for the land; but no person shall be permitted to acquire more than one hundred and sixty acres of public land through the location of any such certificate. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 208, 27 Stat. 593.)

276. Additional homestead certificates; sale.—All soldiers' additional homestead certificates issued under the rules and regulations of the General Land Office under section 274 of this division of this chapter, or in pursuance of the decisions or instructions of the Secretary of the Interior, of date March 10, 1877, or any subsequent decisions or instructions of the Secretary of the Interior or the Commissioner of the General Land Office, shall be, and are declared to be valid, notwithstanding any attempted sale or transfer thereof; and where such certificates have been, prior to August 18, 1894, or may thereafter be sold or transferred, such sale or transfer shall not be regarded as invalidating the right, but the same shall be good and valid in the hands of bona fide purchasers for value; and all entries prior to August 18, 1894, or thereafter made with such certificates by such purchasers shall be approved, and patent shall issue in the name of the assignees. (Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, 28 Stat. 397.)

277. Entry by agent.—Every soldier, sailor, marine, officer, or other person coming within the provisions of section 271, may, as well by an agent as in person, enter upon such homestead by filing a declaratory statement; but such claimant in person shall within the time prescribed make his actual entry, commence settlements and improvements on the same, and thereafter fulfill all the requirements of law. (R. S. § 2309; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 4, 26 Stat. 1097.)

278. Right of widow of veteran to make entry; rights of children on her death.—In the case of the death of any person who would be entitled to a homestead under the provisions of sections 271 and 272 of this division of this chapter, his widow, if unmarried and otherwise qualified, may make entry of public lands under the provisions of the homestead laws of the United States and shall be entitled to all the benefits enumerated in said preceding sections of this division of this chapter subject to the provisions and requirements as to settlement, residence, and improvement therein contained: Provided, That in the event of the death of such homestead entrywoman prior to perfection of title, leaving only a minor child or children, patent shall issue to the said minor child or children upon proof of death, and of the minority of the child or children, without further showing or compliance with law. (R. S. § 2307; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 357, 42 Stat. 990.)

STOCK-RAISING HOMESTEAD

291. Persons entitled to make entry; number of acres.—From and after December 29, 1916, it shall be lawful for any person qualified to make entry under the homestead laws of the United States to make a stock-raising homestead entry for not exceeding six hundred and forty acres of unappropriated unreserved public land in reasonably compact form: Provided, however, That the land so entered shall theretofore have been designated by the Secretary of the Interior as "stock-raising lands." (Dec. 29, 1916, c. 9, § 1, 39 Stat. 862.)

292. Designation of lands subject to entry; applications.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, on application or otherwise, to designate as stock-raising lands subject to entry under this division of this chapter lands the surface of which is, in his opinion, chiefly valuable for grazing and raising forage crops, do not contain merchantable timber, are not susceptible of irrigation from any known source of water supply, and are of such character that six hundred and forty acres are reasonably required for the support of a family: Provided, That where any person qualified to make original or additional entry under the provisions of this division of this chapter shall make application to enter any unappropriated public land which has not been designated as subject to entry (provided said application is accompanied and supported by properly corroborated affidavit of the applicant, in duplicate, showing prima facie that land applied for is of the character contemplated by this division of this chapter), such application, together with the regular fees and commissions, shall be received by the register of the land district in which said land is located and suspended until it shall have been determined by the Secretary of the Interior whether said land is actually of that character. During such suspension the land described in the application shall not be disposed of; and if the said land shall be designated under this division of this chapter, then such application shall be allowed, otherwise it shall be rejected, subject to appeal; but no right to occupy such lands shall be acquired by reason of said application until said lands have been designated as stock-raising lands, unless the applicant actually establishes his residence and resides on the land; and until final action on such application, the settler may, if the land be not designated under this division of this chapter, change his application to one under the enlarged homestead law if such lands be designated thereunder, or to one under the ordinary provisions of the homestead law: Provided, That if the settler shall change his application he shall embrace therein the lands upon which his residence and principal improvements are located, and conform to the provisions, limitations, and conditions of the applicable law. (Dec. 29, 1916, c. 9, § 2, 39 Stat. 862; June 6, 1924, c. 274, 43 Stat. 469; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

293. Persons entitled to make entry; effect of entries.—Any qualified homestead entryman may make entry under the homestead laws of lands so designated by the Secretary of the Interior, according to legal subdivisions, in areas not exceeding six hundred and forty acres, and in compact form so far as may be subject to the provisions of this division of this chapter, and secure title thereto by compliance with the terms of the homestead laws: Provided, That a former homestead entry of land of the character described in the preceding section shall not be a bar to the entry of a tract within a radius of twenty miles from such former entry under the provisions of this division of this chapter, which, together with the former entry, shall not exceed six hundred and forty acres, subject to the requirements of law as to residence and improvements, except that no residence shall be required on such additional entry if the entryman owns and is residing on his former entry: Provided further, That the entryman shall be required to enter all contiguous areas of the character described in this division of this chapter open to entry prior to the entry of any noncontiguous land: And provided further, That instead of cultivation as required by the homestead laws the entryman shall be required to make permanent improvements upon the land entered before final proof is submitted tending to increase the value of the same for stock-raising purposes of the value of not less than $1.25 per acre, and at least one-half of such improvements shall be placed upon the land within three years after the date of entry thereof. (Dec. 29, 1916, c. 9, § 3, 39 Stat. 863; Oct. 25, 1918, c. 195, 40 Stat. 1016.)

294. Additional entries; amount.—Any homestead entryman of lands of the character described in this division of this chapter, who has not submitted final proof upon his existing entry shall have the right to enter, subject to the provisions of said division, such amount of lands designated for entry under the provisions of said division, within a radius of twenty miles from said existing entry, as shall not, together with the amount embraced in his original entry, exceed six hundred and forty acres, and residence upon the original entry shall be credited on both entries, but improvements must be made on the additional entry equal to $1.25 for each acre thereof: Provided, That the entryman shall be required to enter all contiguous areas of the character described in said division open to entry prior to the entry of any noncontiguous land. (Dec. 29, 1916, c. 9, § 4, 39 Stat. 863; Sept. 29, 1919, c. 63, 41 Stat. 287.)

295. Additional entries; persons entitled generally.—Persons who have submitted final proof upon, or received patent for, lands of the character described in this division of this section under the homestead laws, and who own and reside upon the land so acquired, may, subject to the provisions of said division, make additional entry for and obtain patent to lands designated for entry under the provisions of said division, within a radius of twenty miles from the lands theretofore acquired under the homestead laws, which, together with the area theretofore acquired under the homestead laws, shall not exceed six hundred and forty acres, on proof of the expenditure required by said division on account of permanent improvements upon the additional entry: Provided, That the entryman shall be required to enter all contiguous areas of the character described in said division open to entry prior to the entry of any noncontiguous land. (Dec. 29, 1916, c. 9, § 5, 39 Stat. 863; Sept. 29, 1919, c. 63, 41 Stat. 287.

296. Additional entries; heads of families, etc.—Any person who is the head of a family, or who has arrived at the age of twenty-one years and is a citizen of the United States, who has entered or acquired under the homestead laws, prior to December 29, 1916, lands of the character described in this division of this chapter, the area of which is less than six hundred and forty acres, and who is unable to exercise the right of additional entry conferred by said division because no lands subject to entry under said division adjoin the tract so entered or acquired or lie within the twenty-mile limit provided for in said division, may, upon submitting proof that he resides upon and has not sold the land so entered or acquired and against which land there are no encumbrances, relinquish or reconvey to the United States the land so occupied, entered, or acquired, and in lieu thereof, within the same land-office district, may enter and acquire title to six hundred and forty acres of the land subject to entry under said division, but must show compliance with all the provisions of said division respecting the new entry and with all the provisions of existing homestead laws except as modified in said division. (Dec. 29, 1916, c. 9, § 6, 39 Stat. 863.)

297. Commutation.—The commutation provisions of the homestead laws shall not apply to any entries made under this division of this chapter. (Dec. 29, 1916, c. 9, § 7, 39 Stat. 864.)

298. Additional entries; preferential rights.—Any homestead entrymen or patentees who shall be entitled to additional entry under this division of this chapter shall have, for ninety days after the designation of lands subject to entry under the provisions of said division and contiguous to those entered or owned and occupied by him, the preferential right to make additional entry as provided in said division: Provided, That where such lands contiguous to the lands of two or more entrymen or patentees entitled to additional entries under this section are not sufficient in area to enable such entrymen to secure by additional entry the maximum amounts to which they are entitled, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to make an equitable division of the lands among the several entrymen or patentees, applying to exercise preferential rights, such division to be in tracts of not less than forty acres, or other legal subdivision, and so made as to equalize as nearly as possible the area which such entrymen and patentees will acquire by adding the tracts embraced in additional entries to the lands originally held or owned by them: Provided further, That where but one such tract of vacant land may adjoin the lands of two or more entrymen or patentees entitled to exercise preferential right hereunder, the tract in question may be entered by the person who first submits to the local land office his application to exercise said preferential right. (Dec. 29, 1916, c. 9, § 8, 39 Stat. 864.)

299. Reservation of coal and mineral rights.—All entries made and patents issued under the provisions of this division of this chapter shall be subject to and contain a reservation to the United States of all the coal and other minerals in the lands so entered and patented, together with the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same. The coal and other mineral deposits in such lands shall be subject to disposal by the United States in accordance with the provisions of the coal and mineral land laws in force at the time of such disposal. Any person qualified to locate and enter the coal or other mineral deposits, or having the right to mine and remove the same under the laws of the United States, shall have the right at all times to enter upon the lands entered or patented, as provided by said division, for the purpose of prospecting for coal or other mineral therein, provided he shall not injure, damage, or destroy the permanent improvements of the entryman or patentee, and shall be liable to and shall compensate the entryman or patentee for all damages to the crops on such lands by reason of such prospecting. Any person who has acquired from the United States the coal or other mineral deposits in any such land, or the right to mine and remove the same, may reenter and occupy so much of the surface thereof as may be required for all purposes reasonably incident to the mining or removal of the coal or other minerals, first, upon securing the written consent or waiver of the homestead entryman or patentee; second, upon payment of the damages to crops or other tangible improvements to the owner thereof, where agreement may be had as to the amount thereof; or, third, in lieu of either of the foregoing provisions, upon the execution of a good and sufficient bond or undertaking to the United States for the use and benefit of the entryman or owner of the land, to secure the payment of such damages to the crops or tangible improvements of the entryman or owner, as may be determined and fixed in an action brought upon the bond or undertaking in a court of competent jurisdiction against the principal and sureties thereon, such bond or undertaking to be in form and in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior and to be filed with and approved by the register of the local land office of the district wherein the land is situate, subject to appeal to the Commissioner of the General Land Office: Provided, That all patents issued for the coal or other mineral deposits herein reserved shall contain appropriate notations declaring them to be subject to the provisions of said division with reference to the disposition, occupancy, and use of the land as permitted to an entryman under said division. (Dec. 29, 1916, c. 9, § 9, 39 Stat. 864.)

300. Reservation of land containing water holes; cattle driveways.—Lands containing water holes or other bodies of water needed or used by the public for watering purposes shall not be designated under this division of this chapter but may be reserved under the provisions of sections 141 to 143, inclusive, and 148 of chapter 6 of this title and such lands, prior to December 29, 1916, or thereafter reserved shall, while so reserved, be kept and held open to the public use for such purposes under such general rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe: Provided, That the Secretary may, in his discretion, also withdraw from entry lands necessary to insure access by the public to watering places reserved hereunder and needed for use in the movement of stock to summer and winter ranges or to shipping points, and may prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the proper administration and use of such lands: Provided further, That such driveways shall not be of greater number or width than shall be clearly necessary for the purpose proposed and in no event shall be more than one mile in width for a driveway less than twenty miles in length, not more than two miles in width for driveways over twenty and not more than thirty-five miles in length and not over five miles in width for driveways over thirty-five miles in length: Provided further, That all stock so transported over such driveways shall be moved an average of not less than three miles per day for sheep and goats and an average of not less than six miles per day for cattle and horses. (Dec. 29, 1916, c. 9, § 10, 39 Stat. 865.)

301. Rules and regulations.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to make all necessary rules and regulations in harmony with the provisions and purposes of this section for the purpose of carrying the same into effect. (Dec. 29, 1916, c. 9, § 11, 39 Stat. 865.)

302. Additional entries by entrymen on lands in national forests.—Any homestead entryman of one hundred and sixty acres or less of lands which have been March 4, 1923, or may thereafter be designated or classified by the Secretary of the Interior as subject to entry under the provisions of this division of this chapter, who has not submitted final proof upon his existing entry, and also any homestead entryman who has submitted final proof or received patent, for such an amount of lands that are of the character described as subject to entry under the provisions of said division, and who owns and resides upon the said homestead entry, where said lands are within a national forest, may make an additional entry for and obtain patent to such an amount of land of that same character, not in a national forest and within a radius of twenty miles from said homestead entry, as, when the area thereof is added to the area of the original entry, will not exceed six hundred and forty acres, and residence upon the original entry shall be credited on both entries; but improvements must be made on the additional entry equal to $1.25 for each acre thereof. For the purposes of this section the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to designate lands embraced, at the time of such designation, within valid subsisting entries within national forests. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 245, § 2, 42 Stat. 1445.)

Chapter 8.—TIMBER AND STONE LANDS.

Sec.
311. Sale.
312. Applications for purchase; false swearing.
313. Publication; proofs; entry and patent; regulations.

Section 311. Sale.—Surveyed public lands of the United States within the public land States, not included within military, Indian, or other reservations of the United States, valuable chiefly for timber, but unfit for cultivation, and which have not been offered at public sale according to law, may be sold to citizens of the United States, or persons who have declared their intention to become such, in quantities not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres to any one person or association of persons, at the minimum price of $2.50 per acre; and lands valuable chiefly for stone may be sold on the same terms as timber lands: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall defeat or impair any bona fide claim under any law of the United States, or authorize the sale of any mining claim, or the improvements of any bona fide settler, or lands containing gold, silver, cinnabar, copper, or coal, or lands selected by the said States under any law of the United States donating lands for internal improvements, education, or other purposes: And provided further, That none of the rights conferred by sections 43 to 45 and 51 of Title 30, MINERAL LANDS AND MINING, and section 932 of this title shall be abrogated by this chapter; and all patents granted shall be subject to any vested and accrued water rights, or rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection with such water rights, as may have been acquired under and by the provisions of said sections; and such rights shall be expressly reserved in any patent issued under this chapter. (June 3, 1878, c. 151, § 1, 20 Stat. 89; Aug. 4, 1892, c. 375, § 2, 27 Stat. 348.)

312. Applications for purchase; false swearing.—Any person desiring to avail himself of the provisions of this chapter shall file with the register of the proper district a written statement in duplicate, one of which is to be transmitted to the General Land Office, designating by legal subdivisions the particular tract of land he desires to purchase, setting forth that the same is unfit for cultivation, and valuable chiefly for its timber or stone; that it is uninhabited; contains no mining or other improvements, except for ditch or canal purposes, where any such do exist, save such as were made by or belong to the applicant, nor, as deponent verily believes, any valuable deposit of gold, silver, cinnabar, copper, or coal; that deponent has made no other application under this chapter; that he does not apply to purchase the same on speculation, but in good faith to appropriate it to his own exclusive use and benefit; and that he has not, directly or indirectly, made any agreement or contract, in any way or manner, with any person or persons whatsoever, by which the title which he might acquire from the Government of the United States should inure, in whole or in part, to the benefit of any person except himself; which statement must be verified by the oath of the applicant before the register of the land office within the district where the land is situated; and if any person taking such oath shall swear falsely in the premises, he shall be subject to all the pains and penalties of perjury, and shall forfeit the money which he may have paid for said lands, and all right and title to the same; and any grant or conveyance which he may have made, except in the hands of bona fide purchasers, shall be null and void. (June 3, 1878, c. 151, § 2, 20 Stat. 89; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

313. Publication; proofs; entry and patent; regulations.—Upon the filing of said statement, as provided in the preceding section, the register of the land office shall post a notice of such application, embracing a description of the land by legal subdivisions, in his office, for a period of sixty days, and shall furnish the applicant a copy of the same for publication, at the expense of such applicant, in a newspaper published nearest the location of the premises, for a like period of time; and after the expiration of said sixty days, if no adverse claim shall have been filed, the person desiring to purchase shall furnish to the register of the land office satisfactory evidence, first, that said notice of the application prepared by the register as aforesaid was duly published in a newspaper as herein required; secondly, that the land is of the character contemplated in this chapter, unoccupied and without improvements, other than those excepted, either mining or agricultural, and that it apparently contains no valuable deposits of gold, silver, cinnabar, copper, or coal; and upon payment to the proper officer of the purchase money of said land, together with the fees of the register as provided for in case of mining claims in section 39 of Title 30, MINERAL LANDS AND MINING, the applicant may be permitted to enter said tract, and, on the transmission to the General Land Office of the papers and testimony in the case, a patent shall issue thereon: Provided, That any person having a valid claim to any portion of the land may object, in writing, to the issuance of a patent to lands so held by him, stating the nature of his claim thereto; and evidence shall be taken, and the merits of said objection shall be determined by the officers of the land office, subject to appeal, as in other land cases. Effect shall be given to the provisions of this chapter by regulations to be prescribed by the Commissioner of the General Land Office. (June 3, 1878, c. 151, § 3, 20 Stat. 90; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

Chapter 9.—DESERT-LAND ENTRIES.

Sec.
321. Entry right generally; extent of right to appropriate waters.
322. Desert lands defined; question how determined.
323. States in which chapter applies.
324. Assignment of entries.
325. Resident citizenship of State as qualification for entry.
326. Unsurveyed lands not subject to entry; preferential right of entry after survey.
327. Filing irrigation plan; association of entrymen.
328. Expenditures and cultivation required.
329. Issue of patent on final proof; citizenship requirement as to patentee; limit as to amount of holding.
330. Desert-land entry in addition to homestead entry.
331. Reclamation requirements waived in favor of disabled soldiers, etc.
332. Expenditure and cultivation requirements suspended in favor of officers and enlisted men during war with Germany.
333. Extension of time for completion of irrigation works.
334. Further extension of time for final proofs.
335. Further extension in cases not covered by two preceding sections.
336. Further extension in addition to that authorized by three preceding sections.
337. Entry, after expenditures, perfected as homestead entry.
338. Election to perfect entry; final proof.

Section 321. Entry right generally; extent of right to appropriate waters.—It shall be lawful for any citizen of the United States, or any person of requisite age "who may be entitled to become a citizen, and who has filed his declaration to become such" and upon payment of 25 cents per acre—to file a declaration under oath with the register and the receiver of the land district in which any desert land is situated, that he intends to reclaim a tract of desert land not exceeding one-half section, by conducting water upon the same, within the period of three years thereafter: Provided, however, That the right to the use of water by the person so conducting the same, on or to any tract of desert land of three hundred and twenty acres shall depend upon bona fide prior appropriation; and such right shall not exceed the amount of water actually appropriated, and necessarily used for the purpose of irrigation and reclamation; and all surplus water over and above such actual appropriation and use, together with the water of all lakes, rivers, and other sources of water supply upon the public lands and not navigable, shall remain and be held free for the appropriation and use of the public for irrigation, mining and manufacturing purposes subject to existing rights. Said declaration shall describe particularly said one-half section of land if surveyed, and, if unsurveyed, shall describe the same as nearly as possible without a survey. At any time within the period of three years after filing said declaration, upon making satisfactory proof to the register and receiver of the reclamation of said tract of land in the manner aforesaid, and upon the payment to the receiver of the additional sum of $1 per acre for a tract of land not exceeding three hundred and twenty acres to any one person, a patent for the same shall be issued to him: Provided, That no person shall be permitted to enter more than one tract of land and not to exceed three hundred and twenty acres which shall be in compact form. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 107, § 1, 19 Stat. 377; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 2, 26 Stat. 1096.)

322. Desert lands defined; question how determined.—All lands exclusive of timber lands and mineral lands which will not, without irrigation, produce some agricultural crop, shall be deemed desert lands, within the meaning of this chapter, which fact shall be ascertained by proof of two or more credible witnesses under oath, whose affidavits shall be filed in the land office in which said tract of land may be situated.

The determination of what may be considered desert land shall be subject to the decision and regulation of the Commissioner of the General Land Office. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 107, §§ 2, 3, 19 Stat. 377.)

323. States in which chapter applies.—This chapter shall only apply to and take effect in the States of California, Colorado, Oregon, Nevada, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Utah, Wyoming, Arizona, New Mexico, and North and South Dakota. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 107, § 3, 19 Stat. 377; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 2, 26 Stat. 1096.)

324. Assignment of entries.—No assignment after March 28, 1908, of an entry made under this chapter shall be allowed or recognized, except it be to an individual who is shown to be qualified to make entry under this chapter of the land covered by the assigned entry, and such assignments may include all or part of an entry; but no assignment to or for the benefit of any corporation or association shall be authorized or recognized. (Mar. 28, 1908, c. 112, § 2, 35 Stat. 52.)

325. Resident citizenship of State as qualification for entry.—Excepting in the State of Nevada, no person shall be entitled to make entry of desert lands unless he be a resident citizen of the State or Territory in which the land sought to be entered is located. (Jan. 6, 1921, c. 12, 41 Stat. 1086.)

326. Unsurveyed lands not subject to entry; preferential right of entry after survey.—From and after March 28, 1908, the right to make entry of desert lands under the provisions of this chapter shall be restricted to surveyed public lands of the character contemplated by this chapter, and no such entries of unsurveyed lands shall be allowed or made of record: Provided, however, That any individual qualified to make entry of desert lands under this chapter who has, prior to survey, taken possession of a tract of unsurveyed desert land not exceeding in area three hundred and twenty acres in compact form, and has reclaimed or has in good faith commenced the work of reclaiming the same, shall have the preference right to make entry of such tract under this chapter, in conformity with the public land surveys, within ninety days after the filing of the approved plat of survey in the district land office. (Mar. 28, 1908, c. 112, § 1, 35 Stat. 52.)

327. Filing irrigation plan; association of entrymen.—At the time of filing the declaration hereinbefore in this chapter required the party shall also file a map of said land, which shall exhibit a plan showing the mode of contemplated irrigation, and which plan shall be sufficient to thoroughly irrigate and reclaim said land, and prepare it to raise ordinary agricultural crops, and shall also show the source of the water to be used for irrigation and reclamation. Persons entering or proposing to enter separate sections, or fractional parts of sections, of desert lands, may associate together in the construction of canals and ditches for irrigating and reclaiming all of said tracts, and may file a joint map or maps showing their plan of internal improvements. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 2, 26 Stat. 1096.)

328. Expenditures and cultivation required.—No land shall be patented to any person under this chapter unless he or his assignors shall have expended in the necessary irrigation, reclamation, and cultivation thereof, by means of main canals and branch ditches, and in permanent improvements upon the land, and in the purchase of water rights for the irrigation of the same, at least $3 per acre of whole tract reclaimed and patented in the manner following: Within one year after making entry for such tract of desert land as aforesaid the party so entering shall expend not less than $1 per acre for the purposes aforesaid; and he shall in like manner expend the sum of $1 per acre during the second and also during the third year thereafter, until the full sum of $3 per acre is so expended. Said party shall file during each year with the register proof, by the affidavits of two or more credible witnesses, that the full sum of $1 per acre has been expended in such necessary improvements during such year, and the manner in which expended, and at the expiration of the third year a map or plan showing the character and extent of such improvements. If any party who has made such application shall fail during any year to file the testimony aforesaid the lands shall revert to the United States, and the 25 cents advanced payment shall be forfeited to the United States, and the entry shall be canceled. Nothing herein contained shall prevent a claimant from making his final entry and receiving his patent at an earlier date than hereinbefore prescribed, provided that he then makes the required proof of reclamation to the aggregate extent of $3 per acre: Provided, That proof be further required of the cultivation of one-eighth of the land. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 2, 26 Stat. 1096.)

329. Issue of patent on final proof; citizenship requirement as to patentee; limit as to amount of holding.—At any time after filing the declaration, and within the period of four years thereafter, upon making satisfactory proof to the register and the receiver of the reclamation and cultivation of said land to the extent and cost and in the manner aforesaid, and substantially in accordance with the plans herein provided for, and that he or she is a citizen of the United States, and upon payment to the receiver of the additional sum of $1 per acre for said land, a patent shall issue therefor to the applicant or his assigns; but no person or association of persons shall hold by assignment or otherwise prior to the issue of patent, more than three hundred and twenty acres of such arid or desert lands but this section shall not apply to entries made or initiated prior to March 3, 1891: Provided, however, That additional proofs may be required at any time within the period prescribed by law, and that the claims or entries made under this chapter shall be subject to contest, as provided by the law, relating to homestead cases, for illegal inception, abandonment, or failure to comply with the requirements of law, and upon satisfactory proof thereof shall be canceled, and the lands, and moneys paid therefor, shall be forfeited to the United States. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 2, 26 Stat. 1096.)

330. Desert-land entry in addition to homestead entry.—The right to make a desert-land entry shall not be denied to any applicant therefor who has already made an enlarged homestead entry of three hundred and twenty acres: Provided, That said applicant is a duly qualified entryman and the whole area to be acquired as an enlarged homestead entry and under the provisions of this chapter does not exceed four hundred and eighty acres. (Feb. 27, 1917, c. 134, 39 Stat. 946.)

331. Reclamation requirements waived in favor of disabled soldiers, etc.—Any entryman under the desert-land laws, or any person entitled to preference right of entry under section 326 of this chapter, who after application or entry for surveyed lands or legal initiation of claim for unsurveyed lands, and prior to November 11, 1918, enlisted or was actually engaged in the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps during the war with Germany, who has been honorably discharged and because of physical incapacities due to service is unable to accomplish reclamation of and payment for the land, may make proof without further reclamation thereof or payments thereon under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, and receive patent for the land by him so entered or claimed, if found entitled thereto: Provided, That no such patent shall issue prior to the survey of the land. (Dec. 15, 1921, c. 3, 42 Stat. 348.)

332. Expenditure and cultivation requirements suspended in favor of officers and enlisted men during war with Germany.—No desert-land entry made or held under the provisions of the first seven sections of this chapter by an officer or enlisted man in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Organized Militia of the United States shall be subject to contest or cancellation for failure to make or expend the sum of $1 per acre per year in improvements upon such claim, or to effect the reclamation thereof, during the period said entryman or his successor in interest was engaged in the military service of the United States during the war with Germany, and until six months thereafter, and the time within which such entryman or claimant is required to make such expenditures and effect reclamation of the land shall be, exclusive of the time of his actual service in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Organized Militia of the United States: Provided, That said desert-land entry shall have been made by the said officer or enlisted man prior to his enlistment: Provided further, That each such entryman or claimant shall have, within six months after August 7, 1917, or within six months after he is mustered into the service, filed in the local land office of the district wherein his claim is situate a notice of his muster into the service of the United States and of his desire to hold said desert claim under this section: Provided further, That the term "enlisted man," as used in this section shall include any person selected to serve in the military forces of the United States as provided by the Act entitled "An Act authorizing the President to increase temporarily the Military Establishment of the United States," approved May 18, 1917. (Aug. 7, 1917, c. 48, 40 Stat. 250.)

333. Extension of time for completion of irrigation works.—Any entryman under the first seven sections of this chapter who shall show to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of the General Land Office that he has in good faith complied with the terms, requirements, and provisions of said sections, but that because of some unavoidable delay in the construction of the irrigating works, intended to convey water to the said lands, he is, without fault on his part, unable to make proof of the reclamation and cultivation of said land, as required by said sections, shall, upon filing his corroborated affidavit with the land office in which said land is located, setting forth said facts, be allowed an additional period of not to exceed three years, within the discretion of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, within which to furnish proof as required by said sections of the completion of said work. (Mar. 28, 1908, c. 112, § 3, 35 Stat. 52.)

334. Further extension of time for final proofs.—The Secretary of the Interior may, in his discretion, in addition to the extension authorized by the preceding section or other law existing prior to April 30, 1912, grant to any entryman under the desert-land laws a further extension of the time within which he is required to make final proof: Provided, That such entryman shall, by his corroborated affidavit filed in the land office of the district where such land is located, show to the satisfaction of the Secretary that because of unavoidable delay in the construction of irrigation works intended to convey water to the land embraced in his entry he is, without fault on his part, unable to make proof of the reclamation and cultivation of said lands as required by law within the time limited therefor; but such extension shall not be granted for a period of more than three years, and this section shall not affect contests initiated prior to April 30, 1912, for a valid existing reason: Provided, That the total extension of the statutory period for making final proof that may be allowed in any one case under this section, and any other statutes existing prior to April 30, 1912, of either general or local application, shall be limited to six years in the aggregate. (Apr. 30, 1912, c. 101, 37 Stat. 106.)

335. Further extension in cases not covered by two preceding sections.—The Secretary of the Interior may, in his discretion, extend the time within which final proof is required to be submitted upon any lawful pending desert-land entry made prior to March 4, 1915, such extension not to exceed three years from the date of allowance thereof: Provided, That the entryman or his duly qualified assignee has, in good faith, complied with the requirements of law as to yearly expenditures and proof thereof, and shall show, under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, that there is a reasonable prospect that, if the extension is granted, he will be able to make the final proof of reclamation, irrigation, and cultivation required by law: Provided further, That the foregoing shall apply only to cases wherein an extension or further extension of time may not properly be allowed under the two preceding sections or other law existing prior to March 4, 1915: Provided further, That in cases where such entries have been assigned prior to March 4, 1915, the assignees shall, if otherwise qualified, be entitled to the benefit hereof. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 147, § 5, 38 Stat. 1161; Mar. 21, 1918, c. 26, 40 Stat. 458.)

336. Further extension in addition to that authorized by three preceding sections.—The Secretary of the Interior may, in his discretion, in addition to the extensions authorized by the three preceding sections or other law existing prior to February 25, 1925, grant to any entryman under the desert-land laws of the United States a further extension of time of not to exceed three years within which to make final proof: Provided, That such entryman shall, by his corroborated affidavit, filed in the land office of the district where such land is located, show to the satisfaction of the Secretary that because of unavoidable delay in the construction of the irrigation works intended to convey water to the land embraced in his entry, he is, without fault on his part, unable to make proof of the reclamation and cultivation of said lands as required by law within the time limited therefor: And provided further, That the entryman, his heirs, or his duly qualified assignee, has in good faith complied with the requirements of law as to yearly expenditures and proof thereof, and shall show, under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, that there is a reasonable prospect that if the extension is granted he will be able to make the final proof of reclamation, irrigation, and cultivation required by law. (Feb. 25, 1925, c. 329, 43 Stat. 982.)

337. Entry, after expenditures, perfected as homestead entry.—Where it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Interior, under rules and regulations to be prescribed by him, with reference to any lawful pending desert-land entry made prior to March 4, 1915, under which the entryman or his duly qualified assignee under an assignment made prior to March 4, 1915, has, in good faith, expended the sum of $3 per acre in the attempt to effect reclamation of the land, that there is no reasonable prospect that, if the extension allowed by section 335 of this chapter or any law existing prior to March 4, 1915, were granted, he would be able to secure water sufficient to effect reclamation of the irrigable land in his entry or any legal subdivision thereof, the Secretary of the Interior may, in his discretion, allow such entryman or assignee five years from notice within which to perfect the entry in the manner required of a homestead entryman: Provided, That in cases where such entries have been assigned prior to March 4, 1915, the assignees shall, if otherwise qualified, be entitled to the benefit hereof. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 147, § 5, 38 Stat. 1161; Mar. 21, 1918, c. 26, 40 Stat. 458.)

338. Election to perfect entry; final proof.—Any desert-land entryman or his assignee entitled to the benefit of the preceding section may, if he shall so elect within sixty days from the notice therein provided, pay to the receiver of the local land office the sum of 50 cents per acre for each acre embraced in the entry, and thereafter perfect such entry upon proof that he has upon the tract permanent improvements conducive to the agricultural development thereof of the value of not less than $1.25 per acre, and that he has, in good faith, used the land for agricultural purposes for three years and the payment to the receiver, at the time of final proof, of the sum of 75 cents per acre: Provided, That in such case final proof may be submitted at any time within five years from the date of the entryman's election to proceed as provided in this section, and in the event of failure to perfect the entry as herein provided, all moneys theretofore paid shall be forfeited and the entry canceled: Provided, That in cases where such entries have been assigned prior to March 4, 1915, the assignees shall, if otherwise qualified, be entitled to the benefit hereof. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 147, § 5, 38 Stat. 1161; Mar. 21, 1918, c. 26, 40 Stat. 458.)

Chapter 10.—UNDERGROUND-WATER RECLAMATION GRANTS.

Sec.
351. Permit to explore for underground water; land included in permit.
352. Designation by Secretary of lands subject to disposal; application covering lands not designated by Secretary.
353. Application for permit; accompanying affidavit; filing fee.
354. Conditions of permit; cancellation.
355. Patent to land on development of water supply.
356. Extension of time for development of water supply.
357. Disposition of land not included in patents; homestead entries.
358. Proceeds of land as part of reclamation fund.
359. Reservation of coal and mineral right; disposition of such reserved right.
360. Rules and regulations prescribed by Secretary.

Section 351. Permit to explore for underground water; land included in permit.—The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to grant to any citizen of the United States, or to any association of such citizens, a permit, which shall give the exclusive right, for a period not exceeding two years, to drill or otherwise explore for water beneath the surface of not exceeding two thousand five hundred and sixty acres of unreserved, unappropriated, nonmineral, nontimbered public lands of the United States in the State of Nevada not known to be susceptible of successful irrigation at a reasonable cost from any known source of water supply: Provided, however, That not more than one such permit shall be issued to the same citizen or the same association of citizens within an area of forty miles square: And provided further, That said land shall not be fenced or otherwise exclusively used by the permittee except as provided in this chapter: And provided further, That said land shall theretofore have been designated by the Secretary of the Interior as subject to disposal under the provisions of this chapter. (Oct. 22, 1919, c. 77, § 1, 41 Stat. 293.)

352. Designation by Secretary of lands subject to disposal; application covering lands not designated by Secretary.—The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized, on application or otherwise, to designate the lands subject to disposal under the provisions of this chapter: Provided, however, That where any person or association qualified to receive a permit under the provisions of this chapter shall make application for such permit upon land which has not been designated as subject to disposal under the provisions of this chapter (provided said application is accompanied and supported by properly corroborated affidavit of the applicant, in duplicate, showing prima facie that the land applied for is of the character contemplated by this chapter), such application, together with the regular fees and commissions, shall be received by the register and receiver of the land district in which said land is located and suspended until it shall have been determined by the Secretary of the Interior whether said land is actually of that character. That during such suspension the land described in the application shall not be disposed of; and if the land shall be designated under this chapter, then such application shall be allowed; otherwise it shall be rejected, subject to appeal. (Oct. 22, 1919, c. 77, § 2, 41 Stat. 294.)

353. Application for permit; accompanying affidavit; filing fee.—Any qualified applicant for a permit under section 351 of this chapter shall file with the register or receiver of the land district in which said land is located the application for such permit and shall make and subscribe before the proper officer and file with said register or receiver an affidavit that such application is honestly and in good faith made for the purpose of reclamation and cultivation and not for the benefit of any other person or corporation, and that the applicant is not acting as agent for any person, corporation, or syndicate in making such application, nor in collusion with any person, corporation, or syndicate to give them the benefit of the land applied for or any part thereof, and that the applicant will faithfully and honestly endeavor to comply with all of the requirements of this chapter, and shall pay to said register and receiver a filing fee of 1 cent per acre for each acre of land embraced in said application, and such applicant shall then be entitled to receive such permit after the lands embraced therein are designated as provided in the preceding section. (Oct. 22, 1919, c. 77, § 3, 41 Stat. 294.)

354. Conditions of permit; cancellation.—Such a permit shall be upon condition that the permittee shall begin operations for the development of underground waters within six months from the date of the permit and continue such operations with reasonable diligence until water has been discovered in the quantity hereinafter in this chapter described, or until the date of the expiration of the permit. Upon the presentation at any time of proof satisfactory to the Secretary of the Interior that any permittee is not conducting such operations in good faith and with reasonable diligence, or has violated any of the terms of the permit, the Secretary shall forthwith cancel such permit, and such permittee shall not again be granted a permit under this chapter. (Oct. 22, 1919, c. 77, § 4, 41 Stat. 294.)

355. Patent to land on development of water supply.—On establishing at any time within two years from the date of the permit to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Interior that underground waters in sufficient quantity to produce at a profit agricultural crops other than native grasses upon not less than twenty acres of land has been discovered and developed and rendered available for such use within the limits of the land embraced in any permit the said permittee shall be entitled to a patent for one-fourth of the land embraced in the permit, such area to be selected by the permittee in compact form according to the legal subdivisions of the public land surveys if the land be surveyed, or to be surveyed at his expense under rules and regulations established by the Secretary of the Interior if located on unsurveyed land. (Oct. 22, 1919, c. 77, § 5, 41 Stat. 294.)

356. Extension of time for development of water supply.—The Secretary of the Interior may, if he shall find that any permittee has been unable, with the exercise of diligence, to begin or continue operations for the development of underground waters within the time prescribed by the two preceding sections, extend the time for the beginning, recommencement, or completion of the said operations described in said sections for such time, not exceeding two years, and upon such conditions as he shall prescribe. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 400, 42 Stat. 1012.)

357. Disposition of land not included in patents; homestead entries.—The remaining area within the limits of the land embraced in any such permit shall thereafter be subject to entry and disposal under section 161 of chapter 7 of this title. (Oct. 22, 1919, c. 77, § 6, 41 Stat. 294.)

358. Proceeds of land as part of reclamation fund.—The receipts obtained from the sale of lands under the provisions of the preceding section hereof shall be paid into, reserved, and appropriated as a part of the reclamation fund created by section 391 of chapter 12 of this title. (Oct. 22, 1919, c. 77, § 7, 41 Stat. 295.)

359. Reservation of coal and mineral right; disposition of such reserved right.—All entries made and patents issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to and contain a reservation to the United States of all the coal and other valuable minerals in the lands so entered and patented, together with the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same. The coal and other valuable mineral deposits in such lands shall be subject to disposal by the United States in accordance with the provisions of the coal and mineral land laws in force at the time of such disposal. Any person qualified to locate and enter the coal or other mineral deposits, or having the right to mine and remove the same under the laws of the United States, shall have the right at all times to enter upon the lands entered or patented, as provided by this chapter, for the purpose of prospecting for coal or other mineral therein, provided he shall not injure, damage, or destroy the permanent improvements of the entryman or patentee, and shall be liable to and shall compensate the entryman or patentee for all damages to the crops on such lands by reason of such prospecting. Any person who has acquired from the United States the coal or other mineral deposits in any such land, or the right to mine or remove the same, may reenter and occupy so much of the surface thereof as may be required for all purposes reasonably incident to the mining or removal of the coal or other minerals, first, upon securing the written consent or waiver of the homestead entryman or patentee; second, upon payment of the damages to crops or other tangible improvements to the owner thereof, where agreement may be had as to the amount thereof; or, third, in lieu of either of the foregoing provisions, upon the execution of a good and sufficient bond or undertaking to the United States for the use and benefit of the entryman or owner of the land, to secure the payment of such damages to the crops or tangible improvements of the entryman or owner, as may be determined and fixed in an action brought upon the bond or undertaking in a court of competent jurisdiction against the principal and sureties thereon, such bond or undertaking to be in form and in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior and to be filed with and approved by the register and receiver of the local land office of the district wherein the land is situate, subject to appeal to the Commissioner of the General Land Office: Provided, That all patents issued for the coal or other mineral deposits herein reserved shall contain appropriate notations declaring them to be subject to the provisions of this chapter with reference to the disposition, occupancy, and use of the surface of the land. (Oct. 22, 1919, c. 77, § 8, 41 Stat. 295.)

360. Rules and regulations prescribed by Secretary.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to prescribe the necessary and proper rules and regulations and to do any and all things necessary to carry out and accomplish the purposes of this chapter. (Oct. 22, 1919, c. 77, § 9, 41 Stat. 295.)

Chapter 11.—DISCOVERY, DEVELOPMENT, AND MARKING OF WATER HOLES, ETC., BY GOVERNMENT.

Sec.
361. Authority to explore for, develop, and mark water holes, etc.
362. Injury to signposts and filling up or fouling water supply.
363. Rules and regulations by Secretary.

Section 361. Authority to explore for, develop, and mark water holes, etc.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and empowered, in his discretion in so far as the authorization made herein will permit, to discover, develop, protect, and render more accessible for the benefit of the general public, springs, streams, and water holes on arid public lands of the United States; and in connection therewith to erect and maintain suitable and durable monuments and signboards at proper places and intervals along and near the accustomed lines of travel and over the general area of said desert lands, containing information and directions as to the location and nature of said springs, streams, and water holes, to the end that the same may be more readily traced and found by persons in search or need thereof; also to provide convenient and ready means, apparatus, and appliances by which water may be brought to the earth's surface at said water holes for the use of such persons; also to prepare and distribute suitable maps, reports, and general information relating to said springs, streams, and water holes, and their specific location with reference to lines of travel. (Aug. 21, 1916, c. 360, § 1, 39 Stat. 518.)

362. Injury to signposts and filling up or fouling water supply.—Whoever shall willfully or maliciously injure, destroy, deface, or remove any of said monuments or signposts, or shall willfully or maliciously fill up, render foul, or in any wise destroy or impair the utility of said springs, streams, or water holes, or shall willfully or maliciously interfere with said monuments, signposts, streams, springs, or water holes, or the purposes for which they are maintained and used, shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than three years, or both. (Aug. 21, 1916, c. 360, § 3, 39 Stat. 518.)

363. Rules and regulations by Secretary.—The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to perform any and all acts and make such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the purpose of carrying the provisions of this chapter into full force and effect. (Aug. 21, 1916, c. 360, § 4, 39 Stat. 518.)

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 371. Definitions; "Secretary," "reclamation law," "reclamation fund," "project," and "division of a project."—When used in this chapter—

(a) The word "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Interior.

(b) The words "reclamation law" mean the provisions of this chapter.

(c) The words "reclamation fund" mean the fund provided by the reclamation law.

(d) The word "project" means a Federal irrigation project authorized by the reclamation law.

(e) The words "division of a project" mean a substantial irrigable area of a project designated as a division by order of the Secretary. (Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 4, subsec. A, 43 Stat. 701; Feb. 21, 1925, c. 277, § 1, 43 Stat. 956.)

372. Water right as appurtenant to land and extent of right.—The right to the use of water acquired under the provisions of the reclamation law shall be appurtenant to the land irrigated, and beneficial use shall be the basis, the measure, and the limit of the right. (June 17, 1902, c. 1093, § 8, 32 Stat. 390.)

373. General authority of Secretary of Interior.—The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to perform any and all acts and to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary and proper for the purpose of carrying the provisions of this chapter into full force and effect. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 15, 38 Stat. 690.)

374. Sale of lands acquired in connection with irrigation project.—Whenever in the opinion of the Secretary of the Interior any lands which have been acquired under the provisions of this chapter, for any irrigation works contemplated by the reclamation law are not needed for the purposes for which they were acquired, said Secretary of the Interior may cause said lands, together with the improvements thereon, to be appraised by three disinterested persons, to be appointed by him, and thereafter to sell the same for not less than the appraised value at public auction to the highest bidder, after giving public notice of the time and place of sale by posting upon the land and by publication for not less than thirty days in a newspaper of general circulation in the vicinity of the land.

Upon payment of the purchase price, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized by appropriate deed to convey all the right, title, and interest of the United States of, in, and to said lands to the purchaser at said sale, subject, however, to such reservations, limitations, or conditions as said Secretary may deem proper: Provided, That not over one hundred and sixty acres shall be sold to any one person.

The moneys derived from the sale of such lands shall be covered into the reclamation fund and be placed to the credit of the project for which such lands had been acquired. (Feb. 2, 1911, c. 32, §§ 1–3, 36 Stat. 895.)

375. Sale of land improved at expense of reclamation fund.—Whenever in the opinion of the Secretary of the Interior any public lands which have been withdrawn for or in connection with construction or operation of reclamation projects under the provisions of this chapter, which are not otherwise reserved and which have been improved by and at the expense of the reclamation fund for administration or other like purposes, are no longer needed for the purposes for which they were withdrawn and improved, the Secretary of the Interior may cause said lands, together with the improvements thereon, to be appraised by three disinterested persons to be appointed by him and thereafter sell the same, for not less than the appraised value, at public auction to the highest bidder, after giving public notice of the time and place of sale by posting upon the land and by publication for not less than thirty days in a newspaper of general circulation in the vicinity of the land, not less than one-fifth the purchased price shall be paid at the time of sale, and the remainder in not more than four annual payments with interest at 6 per centum per annum, payable annually, on deferred payments.

Upon payment of the purchase price the Secretary of the Interior is authorized, by appropriate patent, to convey all the right, title, and interest of the United States in and to said lands to the purchaser at said sale, subject, however, to such reservations, limitations, or conditions as said Secretary may deem proper: Provided, That not over one hundred and sixty acres shall be sold to any one person, and if said lands are irrigable under the project in which located they shall be sold subject to compliance by the purchaser with all the terms, conditions, and limitations of the reclamation law applicable to lands of that character: Provided, That the accepted bidder must, prior to issuance of patent, furnish satisfactory evidence that he or she is a citizen of the United States.

The moneys derived from the sale of such lands shall be covered into the reclamation fund and be placed to the credit of the project for which such lands had been withdrawn. (May 20, 1920, c. 192, §§ 1–3, 41 Stat. 605, 606.)

376. Return of land donations not needed.—Where real property or any interest therein heretofore has been, or hereafter shall be, donated and conveyed to the United States for use in connection with a project, and the Secretary decides not to utilize the donation, he is authorized without charge to reconvey such property or any part thereof to the donating grantor, or to the heirs, successors, or assigns of such grantor. (Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 4, subsec. Q, 43 Stat. 704.)

377. General expenses of Bureau of Reclamation chargeable to general reclamation fund.—The cost and expense after June 30, 1925, of the main office at Washington, District of Columbia, of the Bureau of Reclamation in the Department of the Interior, and the cost and expense of general investigations heretofore and hereafter authorized by the Secretary, shall be charged to the general reclamation fund and shall not be charged as a part of the construction or operation and maintenance cost payable by the water users under the projects. (Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 4, subsec. O, 43 Stat. 704.)

378. Rent of office accommodations in District of Columbia.—The Secretary of the Interior may authorize such expenditure as may be necessary, not exceeding a total of $8,000 annually, for rent of office accommodations in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, for the Bureau of Reclamation, payable from the reclamation fund. (June 30, 1906, c. 3912, § 1, 34 Stat. 663.)

379. Purchase of scientific books, law books, etc.—The Secretary of the Interior may authorize the purchase of such law books, books of reference, periodicals, engineering and statistical publications as are needed in carrying out the surveys and examinations authorized by the reclamation law. (May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 350.)

380. Purchase of supplies, etc., without biddings.—The purchase of supplies and the procurement of services for the Bureau of Reclamation may be made in open market in the manner common among business men, without advertising and formal contract, when the aggregate of the amount required does not exceed $50, and when, in the opinion of the Director of the Bureau of Reclamation, such limitations of amount are not designed to evade the purchase of supplies and the procurement of services under advertising and formal contract, and equally or more advantageous terms can thereby be secured. (July 1, 1918, c. 113, § 1, 40 Stat. 675.)

381. Commissions of registers.—Registers shall be allowed the usual commissions on all moneys paid for lands entered under this chapter. (June 17, 1902, c. 1093, § 5, 32 Stat. 389.)

382. Assignments of pay by employees of Bureau of Reclamation.—The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to permit the employees of the Bureau of Reclamation, while employed in the field, to make assignments of their pay under such regulations as he may prescribe. (May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 350.)

383. Vested rights and State laws unaffected by chapter.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as affecting or intended to affect or to in any way interfere with the laws of any State or Territory relating to the control, appropriation, use, or distribution of water used in irrigation, or any vested right acquired thereunder, and the Secretary of the Interior, in carrying out the provisions of this chapter, shall proceed in conformity with such laws, and nothing herein shall in any way affect any right of any State or of the Federal Government or of any landowner, appropriator, or user of water in, to, or from any interstate stream or the waters thereof. (June 17, 1902, c. 1093, § 8, 32 Stat. 390.)

384. Extension of time for payment of charges accrued prior to March 2, 1924, and January 1, 1925.—(a) The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized and empowered, in his discretion, to defer the dates of payments of any charges, rentals, and penalties which have accrued prior to the 2d day of March, 1924, under the reclamation law or prior to that date, as against water users on any irrigation project being constructed or operated and maintained under the direction of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, as may, in his judgment, be necessary in or concerning any irrigation project existing prior to May 9, 1924, under said law: Provided, That no payment shall be deferred under this section in any particular case beyond March 1, 1927: Provided, That upon such adjustment being made, any penalties or interest which may have accrued in connection with such unpaid construction and operation and maintenance charges shall be canceled, and in lieu thereof the amount so due, and the payment of which is hereby extended, shall draw interest at the rate of 5 per centum per annum, paid annually from the time said amount became due to date of payment: And provided further, That in case the principal and interest herein provided for are not paid in the manner and at the time provided by this section, any penalty provided by law prior to May 9, 1924, shall thereupon attach from the date of such default.

(b) Where an individual water user, or individual applicant for a water right under a Federal irrigation project constructed or being constructed under the reclamation law, makes application prior to January 1, 1925, alleging that he will be unable to make the payments as required in paragraph (a) of this section, the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized in his discretion prior to March 1, 1925, to add such accrued and unpaid charges to the construction charge of the land of such water user or applicant, and to distribute such accumulated charges equally over each of the subsequent years, beginning with the year 1925, or, in the discretion of the Secretary, distribute a total of one-fourth over the first half of the remaining years of the 20-year period beginning with the year 1925, and three-fourths over the second half of such period, so as to complete the payment during the remaining years of the 20-year period of payment of the original construction charge: Provided, That upon such adjustment being made, any penalties or interest which may have accrued in connection with such unpaid construction and operation and maintenance charges shall be canceled, and in lieu thereof the amount so due, and the payment of which is hereby extended, shall draw interest at the rate of 5 per centum per annum, paid annually from the time said amount became due to the date of payment: Provided further, That the applicant for the extension shall first show to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Interior detailed statement of his assets and liabilities and probable inability to make payment at the time required in paragraph (a) of this section: And provided further, That in case the principal and interest herein provided for are not paid in the manner and at the time provided by this section, any penalty provided by law, prior to May 9, 1924, shall thereupon attach from the date of such default: And provided further, That similar relief in whole or in part may be extended by the Secretary of the Interior to a legally organized group of water users of a project, upon presentation of a sufficient number of individual showings made in accordance with the foregoing proviso to satisfy the Secretary of the Interior that such extension is necessary. (May 9, 1924, c. 150, §§ 1, 2, 43 Stat. 116.)

RECLAMATION FUND GENERALLY

391. Establishment of "reclamation fund."—All moneys received from the sale and disposal of public lands in Arizona, California, Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Texas, Washington, and Wyoming, beginning with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1901, including the surplus of fees and commissions in excess of allowances to registers and receivers, and excepting the 5 per centum of the proceeds of the sales of public lands in the above States set aside by law for educational and other purposes, shall be, and the same are hereby, reserved, set aside, and appropriated as a special fund in the Treasury to be known as the "reclamation fund," to be used in the examination and survey for and the construction and maintenance of irrigation works for the storage, diversion, and development of waters for the reclamation of arid and semiarid lands in the said States and Territories, and for the payment of all other expenditures provided for in this chapter. (June 17, 1902, c. 1093, § 1, 32, Stat. 388; June 12, 1906, c. 3288, 34 Stat. 259.)

392. Payments into reclamation fund of moneys received from entrymen and water-right applicants.—All moneys received from entrymen or applicants for water rights shall be paid into the reclamation fund. (June 17, 1902, c. 1093, § 5, 32 Stat. 389.)

393. Proceeds from sale of materials, etc.—There shall be covered into the reclamation fund the proceeds of the sales of material utilized for temporary work and structures in connection with the operations under the reclamation law, as well as of the sales of all other condemned property which had been purchased under the provisions thereof, and also any moneys refunded in connection with the operations under the reclamation law. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1459, 33 Stat. 1032.)

394. Proceeds from sale of products of or leases of withdrawn or reserved lands.—The proceeds heretofore or hereafter received from the lease of any lands reserved or withdrawn under the reclamation law or from the sale of the products therefrom shall be covered into the reclamation fund; and where such lands are affected by a reservation or withdrawal under some other law, the proceeds from the lease of land and the sale of products therefrom shall likewise be covered into the reclamation fund in all cases where such lands are needed for the protection or operation of any reservoir or other works constructed under the reclamation law, and such lands shall be and remain under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Interior. (July 19, 1919, c. 24, § 1, 41 Stat. 202.)

395. Contributions by State, municipality, etc.—All moneys received after March 4, 1921, from any State, municipality, corporation, association, firm, district, or individual for investigations, surveys, construction work, or any other development work incident thereto involving operations similar to those provided for by the reclamation law shall be covered into the reclamation fund and shall be available for expenditure for the purposes for which contributed in like manner as if said sums had been specifically appropriated for said purposes. (Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1404.)

396. Return of contributions to cooperative investigations of projects.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to receive moneys from any State, municipality, irrigation district, individual, or other interest, public or private, expend the same in connection with moneys appropriated by the United States for any cooperative investigation of the feasibility of reclamation projects, and return to the contributor any moneys so contributed in excess of the actual cost of that portion of the work properly chargeable to the contribution. (Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 1, 43 Stat. 685.)

397. Advances by Government for completion of projects initiated prior to June 25, 1910.—To enable the Secretary of the Interior to complete Government reclamation projects begun, prior to June 25, 1910, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized, as of June 25, 1910, upon request of the Secretary of the Interior, to transfer from time to time to the credit of the reclamation fund created by section 391 of this chapter, such sum or sums, not exceeding in the aggregate $20,000,000, as the Secretary of the Interior may deem necessary to complete the said reclamation projects, and such extensions thereof as he may deem proper and necessary to the successful and profitable operation and maintenance thereof or to protect water rights pertaining thereto claimed by the United States, provided the same shall be approved by the President of the United States; and such sum or sums as may be required to comply with the foregoing authority are appropriated, as of June 25, 1910, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated: Provided, That the sums hereby authorized to be transferred to the reclamation fund shall be so transferred only as such sums shall be actually needed to meet payments for work performed under existing law: And provided further, That all sums so transferred shall be reimbursed to the Treasury from the reclamation fund, as hereinafter provided: And provided further, That no part of this appropriation shall be expended upon any project existing June 25, 1910, until it shall have been examined and reported upon by a board of engineer officers of the Army, designated by the President of the United States, and until it shall be approved by the President as feasible and practicable and worthy of such expenditure; nor shall any portion of this appropriation be expended upon any project initiated after June 25, 1910. (June 25, 1910, c. 407, § 1, 36 Stat. 835.)

398. Sales of Government certificates to obtain funds for advances.—For the purpose of providing the Treasury with funds for the advances to the reclamation fund, provided for in the preceding section, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to issue certificates of indebtedness of the United States in such form as he may prescribe and in denominations of $50, or multiples of that sum; said certificates to be redeemable at the option of the United States at any time after three years from the date of their issue and to be payable five years after such date, and to bear interest, payable semiannually, at not exceeding 3 per centum per annum; the principal and interest to be payable in gold coin of the United States. The certificates of indebtedness herein authorized may be disposed of by the Secretary of the Treasury at not less than par, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, giving all citizens of the United States an equal opportunity to subscribe therefor, but no commission shall be allowed and the aggregate issue of such certificates shall not exceed the amount of all advances made to said reclamation fund, and in no event shall the same exceed the sum of $20,000,000. The certificates of indebtedness herein authorized shall be exempt from taxes or duties of the United States as well as from taxation in any form by or under State, municipal, or local authority; and a sum not exceeding one-tenth of 1 per centum of the amount of the certificates of indebtedness issued under this section is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expense of preparing, advertising, and issuing the same. (June 25, 1910, c. 407, § 2, 36 Stat. 835.)

399. Repayment of advances.—Beginning five years after the date of the first advance to the reclamation fund under the two preceding sections, 50 per centum of the annual receipts of the reclamation fund shall be paid into the general fund of the Treasury of the United States until payment so made shall equal the aggregate amount of advances made by the Treasury to said reclamation fund, together with interest paid on the certificates of indebtedness issued under the preceding section and any expense incident to preparing, advertising, and issuing the same: Provided, That in lieu of the above 50 per centum of the annual receipts, reimbursement of the moneys advanced shall be made by transferring annually the sum of $1,000,000 from the reclamation fund to the general funds in the Treasury, beginning July 1, 1920, and continuing until full reimbursement has been made. (June 25, 1910, c. 407, § 3, 36 Stat. 836; June 12, 1917, c. 27, § 1, 40 Stat. 149.)

400. Advances as item of cost of construction and maintenance of project.—All money placed to the credit of the reclamation fund in pursuance of the three preceding sections shall be devoted exclusively to the completion of work on reclamation projects begun prior to June 25, 1910, as hereinbefore provided, and the same shall be included with all other expenses in future estimates of construction, operation, or maintenance. (June 25, 1910, c. 407, § 4, 36 Stat. 836.)

INSTITUTION AND CONSTRUCTION OF PROJECTS

411. Surveys for, location, and construction of irrigation works generally; reports to Congress.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to make examinations and surveys for, and to locate and construct, as provided in this chapter, irrigation works for the storage, diversion, and development of waters, including artesian wells, and to report to Congress at the beginning of each regular session as to the results of such examinations and surveys, giving estimates of cost of all contemplated works, the quantity and location of the lands which can be irrigated therefrom, and all facts relative to the practicability of each irrigation project; also the cost of works in process of construction as well as of those which have been completed. (June 17, 1902, c. 1093, § 2, 32 Stat. 388.)

412. Prerequisites to initiation of project or division of project.—After December 5, 1924, no new project or new division of a project shall be approved for construction or estimates submitted therefor by the Secretary until information in detail shall be secured by him concerning the water supply, the engineering features, the cost of construction, land prices, and the probable cost of development, and he shall have made a finding in writing that it is feasible, that it is adaptable for actual settlement and farm homes, and that it will probably return the cost thereof to the United States. (Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 4, subsec. B, 43 Stat. 702.)

413. Approval of project by President.—No irrigation project shall be begun unless and until the same shall have been recommended by the Secretary of the Interior and approved by the direct order of the President of the United States. (June 25, 1910, c. 407, § 4, 36 Stat. 836.)

414. Appropriation for projects essential.—Expenditures shall not be made for carrying out the purposes of the reclamation law except out of appropriations made annually by Congress therefor, and the Secretary of the Interior shall annually, in the regular Book of Estimates, submit to Congress estimates of the amount of money necessary to be expended for carrying out any or all of the purposes authorized by the reclamation law, including the extension and completion of existing projects and units thereof and the construction of new projects. The annual appropriations made hereunder by Congress for such purposes shall be paid out of the reclamation fund provided for by the reclamation law. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 16, 38 Stat. 690.)

415. Receipts applicable to project generally.—All moneys heretofore or hereafter refunded or received in connection with operations under the reclamation law, except repayments of construction and operation and maintenance charges, shall be a credit to the appropriation for the project or operation from or on account of which the collection is made and shall be available for expenditure in like manner as if said sum had been specifically appropriated for said project or operation. (June 12, 1917, c. 27, § 1, 40 Stat. 149.)

416. Withdrawal of lands to be irrigated from and restoration to entry.—The Secretary of the Interior shall, before giving the public notice provided for in section 419 of this chapter, withdraw from public entry the lands required for any irrigation works contemplated under the provisions of this chapter, and shall restore to public entry any of the lands so withdrawn when, in his judgment, such lands are not required for the purposes of this chapter; and the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized, at or immediately prior to the time of beginning the surveys for any contemplated irrigation works, to withdraw from entry, except under the homestead laws, any public lands believed to be susceptible of irrigation from said works: Provided, That all lands entered and entries made under the homestead laws within areas so withdrawn during such withdrawal shall be subject to all the provisions, limitations, charges, terms, and conditions of this chapter; that said surveys shall be prosecuted diligently to completion, and upon the completion thereof, and of the necessary maps, plans, and estimates of cost, the Secretary of the Interior shall determine whether or not said project is practicable and advisable, and if determined to be impracticable or unadvisable he shall thereupon restore said lands to entry. (June 17, 1902, c. 1093, § 3, 32 Stat. 388.)

417. Reservation of easements in public lands for reclamation projects.—Where, in the opinion of the Secretary, a right of way or easement of any kind over public land is required in connection with a project the Secretary may reserve the same to the United States by filing in the General Land Office and in the appropriate local land office copies of an instrument giving a description of the right of way or easement and notice that the same is reserved to the United States for Federal irrigation purposes under this chapter, in which event entry for such land and the patent issued therefor shall be subject to the right of way or easement so described in such instrument; and reference to each such instrument shall be made in the appropriate tract books and also in the patent. (Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 4, subsec. P, 43 Stat. 704.)

418. Private lands within project; agreement as to disposal of excess over farm unit.—Before any contract is let or work begun for the construction of any reclamation project adopted after August 13, 1914, the Secretary of the Interior shall require the owners of private lands thereunder to agree to dispose of all lands in excess of the area which he shall deem sufficient for the support of a family upon the land in question, upon such terms and at not to exceed such price as the Secretary of the Interior may designate; and if any landowner shall refuse to agree to the requirements fixed by the Secretary of the Interior, his land shall not be included within the project if adopted for construction. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 12, 38 Stat. 689.)

419. Contract for irrigation project; notice as to lands irrigable, unit of entry, and construction charges.—Upon the determination that any irrigation project is practicable, the Secretary of the Interior may cause to be let contracts for the construction of the same, in such portions or sections as it may be practicable to construct and complete as parts of the whole project, providing the necessary funds for such portions or sections are available, and thereupon he shall give public notice of the lands irrigable under such project, and limit of area per entry, which limit shall represent the acreage which, in the opinion of the Secretary, may be reasonably required for the support of a family upon the lands in question; also of the charges which shall be made upon the said entries, and upon lands in private ownership which may be irrigated by the waters of the said irrigation project, and the number of annual installments in which such charges shall be paid and the time when such payments shall commence: Provided, That in all construction work eight hours shall constitute a day's work, and no Mongolian labor shall be employed thereon. (June 17, 1902, c. 1093, § 4, 32 Stat. 389.)

420. Use of earth, timber, etc., from other public lands.—In carrying out the provisions of this chapter, and in constructing works thereunder, the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to use and to permit the use by those engaged in the construction of works under said law, under rules and regulations to be prescribed by him, such earth, stone, and timber from the public lands of the United States as may be required in the construction of such works, and the Secretary of Agriculture is hereby authorized to permit the use of earth, stone, and timber from the forest reserves of the United States for the same purpose, under rules and regulations to be prescribed by him. (Feb. 8, 1905, c. 552, 33 Stat. 706.)

421. Acquisition of lands for irrigation project; eminent domain.—Where in carrying out the provisions of this chapter it becomes necessary to acquire any rights or property, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to acquire the same for the United States by purchase or by condemnation under judicial process, and to pay from the reclamation fund the sums which may be needed for that purpose, and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General of the United States upon every application of the Secretary of the Interior, under this chapter, to cause proceedings to be commenced for condemnation within thirty days from the receipt of the application at the Department of Justice. (June 17, 1902, c. 1093, § 7, 32 Stat. 389.)

422. Construction of dams across Yellowstone River.—Where, in carrying out projects under the provisions of the reclamation law, it shall be necessary to construct dams in or across the Yellowstone River in the State of Montana, the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to construct and use and operate the same in the manner and for the purposes contemplated by said reclamation law. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1476, 33 Stat. 1045.)

WATER-RIGHT APPLICATIONS AND LAND ENTRIES

431. Water-right applications generally; limitation as to amount of water; qualifications of applicant.—No right to the use of water for land in private ownership shall be sold for a tract exceeding one hundred and sixty acres to any one landowner, and no such sale shall be made to any landowner unless he be an actual bona fide resident on such land, or occupant thereof residing in the neighborhood of said land, and no such right shall permanently attach until all payments therefor are made. (June 17, 1902, c. 1093, § 5, 32 Stat. 389.)

432. Entry under homestead laws generally.—Public lands which it is proposed to irrigate by means of any contemplated works shall be subject to entry only under the provisions of the homestead laws, and shall be subject to the limitations, charges, terms, and conditions herein provided: Provided, That the commutation provisions of the homestead laws shall not apply to entries made under this chapter. (June 17, 1902, c. 1093, § 3, 32 Stat. 388.)

433. Character and capital qualification of entrymen.—The Secretary is authorized, under regulations to be promulgated by him, to require of each applicant including preference right ex-service men for entry to public lands on a project, such qualifications as to industry, experience, character, and capital, as in his opinion are necessary to give reasonable assurance of success by the prospective settler. The Secretary is authorized to appoint boards in part composed of private citizens, to assist in determining such qualifications. (Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 4, subsec. C, 43 Stat. 702.)

434. Amount of land for which entry may be made; farm unit; subdivision of lands.—Public lands which it is proposed to irrigate by means of any contemplated works shall be subject to entry in tracts of not less than forty nor more than one hundred and sixty acres: Provided, That whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Interior, by reason of market conditions and the special fitness of the soil and climate for the growth of fruit and garden produce, a lesser area than forty acres may be sufficient for the support of a family on lands to be irrigated under the provisions of the reclamation law, he may fix a lesser area than forty acres as the minimum entry and may establish farm units of not less than ten nor more than one hundred and sixty acres. Wherever it may be necessary, for the purpose of accurate description, to further subdivide lands to be irrigated under the provisions of said reclamation law, the Secretary of the Interior may cause subdivision surveys to be made by the officers of the reclamation service, which subdivisions shall be rectangular in form, except in cases where irregular subdivisions may be necessary in order to provide for practicable and economical irrigation. Such subdivision surveys shall be noted upon the tract books in the General Land Office, and they shall be paid for from the reclamation fund: Provided, That an entryman may elect to enter under said reclamation law a lesser area than the minimum limit in any State or Territory. (June 17, 1902, c. 1093, § 3, 32 Stat. 388; June 27, 1906, c. 3559, § 1, 34 Stat. 519.)

435. Entries in excess of farm unit.—All entries under reclamation projects containing more than one farm unit shall be reduced in area and conformed to a single farm unit within two years after making proof of residence, improvement, and cultivation, or within two years after the issuance of a farm-unit plat for the project, if the same issues subsequent to the making of such proof: Provided, That such proof is made within four years from the date as announced by the Secretary of the Interior that water is available for delivery for the land. Any entryman failing within the period herein provided to dispose of the excess of his entry above one farm unit, in the manner provided by law, and to conform his entry to a single farm unit shall render his entry subject to cancellation as to the excess above one farm unit: Provided, That upon compliance with the provisions of law such entryman shall be entitled to receive a patent for that part of his entry which conforms to one farm unit as established for the project. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 13, 38 Stat. 690.)

436. Time when entry may be made generally.—After August 13, 1914, no entry shall be made and no entryman shall be permitted to go upon lands reserved for irrigation purposes until the Secretary of the Interior shall have established the unit of acreage per entry, and water is ready to be delivered for the land in such unit or some part thereof and such fact has been announced by the Secretary of the Interior. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 10, 38 Stat. 689.)

437. Lands as to which entries made prior to June 25, 1910, have been relinquished.—Where entries made prior to June 25, 1910, have been or may be relinquished, in whole or in part, the lands so relinquished shall be subject to settlement and entry under the reclamation law. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 10, 38 Stat. 689.)

438. Exchange of farm unit entry for lands in other project; credit for payments; preference to ex-service men.—Every entryman or assignee on a project farm unit not yet patented which unit shall be found by the Secretary to be insufficient to support a family and pay water charges shall have the right upon application to exchange his entry for another farm unit of unentered public land on the same or another project located in the same State, in which event all installments of construction charges theretofore paid on account of the relinquished farm unit shall be credited on account of the new farm unit taken in exchange: Provided, That where two entrymen apply for the same farm unit under the exchange provision of this section, only one of whom is an officer, soldier, sailor, or marine who served in the Army or Navy of the United States in the war with Germany and has been honorably separated or discharged therefrom or placed in the Regular Army or Naval Reserve, the ex-service man shall have a preference in making such exchange: Provided further, That the rights and benefits conferred by this section shall not extend to any person who, having been drafted for service under the provisions of the Selective Service Act, shall have refused to render such service or to wear the uniform of such service of the United States. (Jan. 21, 1922, c. 32, § 1, 42 Stat. 358; Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 4, subsec. M, 43 Stat. 703.)

439. Cultivation requirement as to entrymen.—The entryman upon lands to be irrigated shall, in addition to compliance with the homestead laws, reclaim at least one-half of the total irrigable area of his entry for agricultural purposes. (June 17, 1902, c. 1093, § 5, 32 Stat. 389.)

440. Regulations as to use of water and requirements as to cultivation and reclamation of land; cancellation for noncompliance with requirements.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to make general rules and regulations governing the use of water in the irrigation of the lands within any project, and may require the reclamation for agricultural purposes and the cultivation of one-fourth the irrigable area under each water-right application or entry within three full irrigation seasons after the filing of water-right application or entry, and the reclamation for agricultural purposes and the cultivation of one-half the irrigable area within five full irrigation seasons after the filing of the water-right application or entry, and shall provide for continued compliance with such requirements. Failure on the part of any water-right applicant or entryman to comply with such requirements shall render his application or entry subject to cancellation. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 8, 38 Stat. 688.)

441. Assignment of entries generally.—From and after the filing with the Commissioner of the General Land Office of satisfactory proof of residence, improvement, and cultivation for the five years required by law, persons who have, or shall make, homestead entries within reclamation projects under the provisions of the reclamation law, may assign such entries, or any part thereof, to other persons, and such assignees, upon submitting proof of the reclamation of the lands and upon payment of the charges apportioned against the same as provided in the said law, may receive from the United States a patent for the lands: Provided, That all assignments made under the provisions of this section shall be subject to the limitations, charges, terms, and conditions of the reclamation law. (June 23, 1910, c. 357, 36 Stat. 592.)

442. Assignment between June 23, 1910, and January 1, 1913, confirmed.—In the absence of any intervening valid adverse interests any assignment made between June 23, 1910, and January 1, 1913, of land upon which the assignor has submitted satisfactory final proof and the assignee purchased with the belief that the assignment was valid and under the preceding section, is hereby confirmed, and the assignee shall be entitled to the land assigned as under the preceding section, notwithstanding that said original entry was conformed to farm units and that the part assigned was canceled and eliminated from said entry prior to the date of final proof: Provided, That all entries so assigned shall be subject to the limitations, terms, and conditions of the reclamation law, and all of said assignees whose entries are hereby confirmed shall, as a condition to receiving patent, make the proof required, prior to May 8, 1916, of assignees. (June 23, 1910, c. 357, 36 Stat. 592; May 8, 1916, c. 114, 39 Stat. 65.)

443. Limitation of amount of land holdable under assignment of entry.—No person shall hold by assignment more than one farm unit prior to final payment of all charges for all the land held by him subject to the reclamation law, except operation and maintenance charges not then due. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 13, 38 Stat. 690.)

444. Leave of absence to entryman; entries prior to June 25, 1910.—All qualified entrymen who have, prior to June 25, 1910, made bona fide entry upon lands proposed to be irrigated under the provisions of the reclamation law, may, upon application and a showing that they have made substantial improvements, and that water is not available for the irrigation of their said lands, within the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, obtain leave of absence from their entries, until water for irrigation is turned into the main irrigation canals from which the land is to be irrigated: Provided, That the period of actual absence under this section shall not be deducted from the full time of residence required by law. (June 25, 1910, c. 432, 36 Stat. 864.)

445. Protection of entries made prior to June 25, 1910; absence of water as excuse for failure to maintain residence or make improvements.—No qualified entrymen who prior to June 25, 1910, made bona fide entry upon lands proposed to be irrigated under the provisions of the reclamation law, and who established residence in good faith upon the lands entered by him, shall be subject to contest for failure to maintain residence or make improvements upon his land prior to the time when water is available for the irrigation of the lands embraced in his entry, but all such entrymen shall, within ninety days after the issuance of the public notice required by section 419 of this chapter, fixing the date when water will be available for irrigation, file in the local land office a water-right application for the irrigable lands embraced in his entry, in conformity with the public notice and approved farm-unit plat for the township in which his entry lies, and shall also file an affidavit that he has reestablished his residence on the land with the intention of maintaining the same for a period sufficient to enable him to make final proof: Provided, That no such entryman shall be entitled to have counted as part of the required period of residence any period of time during which he was not actually upon the said land prior to the date of the notice aforesaid, and no application for the entry of said lands shall be received until after the expiration of the ninety days after the issuance of notice within which the entryman is hereby required to reestablish his residence and apply for water right. (Apr. 30, 1912, c. 100, 37 Stat. 105.)

446. Right to make entry on relinquishment of former entry under land laws.—Wherever the Secretary of the Interior, in carrying out the provisions of the reclamation law, shall acquire by relinquishment lands covered by a bona fide unperfected entry under the land laws of the United States, the entryman upon such tract may make another and additional entry, as though the entry thus relinquished had not been made. (June 27, 1906, c. 3559, § 2, 34 Stat. 519.)

447. Relinquishment of homestead entry and making new entry.—Any person who has made homestead entry under the reclamation law, for land believed to be susceptible of irrigation which at the time of said entry was withdrawn for any contemplated irrigation project, may relinquish the same, provided that it has since been determined that the land embraced in such entry or all thereof in excess of twenty acres is not or will not be irrigable under the project, and in lieu thereof may select and make entry for any farm unit included within such irrigation project as finally established, notwithstanding the provisions of section 436 of this chapter: Provided, That such entrymen shall be given credit on the new entry for the time of bona fide residence maintained on the original entry. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 182, 38 Stat. 1215.)

448. Desert-land entries within reclamation project generally.—Where any bona fide desert-land entry has been or may be embraced within the exterior limits of any land withdrawal or irrigation project under the reclamation law and the desert-land entryman has been or may be directly or indirectly hindered, delayed, or prevented from making improvements or from reclaiming the land embraced in any such entry by reason of such land withdrawal or irrigation project, the time during which the desert-land entryman has been or may be so hindered, delayed, or prevented from complying with the desert-land law shall not be computed in determining the time within which such entryman has been or may be required to make improvements or reclaim the land embraced within any such desert-land entry: Provided, That if after investigation the irrigation project has been or may be abandoned by the Government, time for compliance with the desert land law, by any such entryman shall begin to run from the date of notice of such abandonment of the project and the restoration to the public domain of the lands withdrawn in connection therewith, and credit shall be allowed for all expenditures and improvements made prior to June 27, 1906, on any such desert-land entry of which proof has been filed; but if the reclamation project is carried to completion so as to make available a water supply for the land embraced in any such desert-land entry, the entryman shall thereupon comply with all the provisions of the reclamation law, and shall relinquish all land embraced within his desert-land entry in excess of one hundred and sixty acres, and as to such one hundred and sixty acres retained, he shall be entitled to make final proof and obtain patent upon compliance with the terms of payment prescribed in said law, and not otherwise. But nothing herein contained shall be held to require a desert-land entryman who owns a water right and reclaims the land embraced in his entry to accept the conditions of said reclamation law. (June 27, 1906, c. 3559, § 5, 34 Stat. 520.)

449. Assignment of desert-land entry within project.—A desert-land entry within the exterior limits of a Government reclamation project may be assigned in whole or in part under section 824 of chapter 9 of this title, and the benefits and limitations of the preceding section shall apply to such desert-land entryman and his assignees: Provided, That all such assignments shall conform to and be in accordance with farm units to be established by the Secretary of the Interior upon the application of the desert-land entryman. All such assignments made in good faith prior to July 24, 1912, shall be recognized under this section. (July 24, 1912, c. 251, 37 Stat. 200.)

CONSTRUCTION CHARGES

461. Determination of construction charges generally.—The construction charges which shall be made per acre upon the entries and upon lands in private ownership which may be irrigated by the waters of any irrigation project shall be determined with a view of returning to the reclamation fund the estimated cost of construction of the project, and shall be apportioned equitably. (June 17, 1902, c. 1093, § 4, 32 Stat. 389.)

462. Classification of irrigable lands and equitable apportionment of charges.—The irrigable lands of each new project and new division of a project approved, after December 5, 1924, shall be classified by the Secretary with respect to their power, under a proper agricultural program, to support a family and pay water charges, and the Secretary is authorized to fix different construction charges against different classes of land under the same project for the purpose of equitably apportioning the total construction cost so that all lands may as far as practicable bear the burden of such cost according to their productive value. (Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 4, subsec. D, 43 Stat. 702.)

463. Notices as to construction charges.—The Secretary shall as to each irrigable acre of land in each new project, or a new division of a project, approved after December 5, 1924, issue two public notices relating to construction charges. The first public notice shall be issued when the land is ready for settlement and will announce the construction charge per irrigable acre. The second public notice shall be issued when in the opinion of the Secretary the agricultural development of the project shall have advanced sufficiently to warrant the commencement of payment of installments of such construction charge. The second public notice shall fix the date when payments will begin on the construction charge announced by the first public notice, which date shall be not more than five years from the date of the first public notice. (Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 4, subsec. E, 43 Stat. 702.)

464. Increases of charges on failure to make water-right application.—In all cases where application for water right for lands in private ownership or lands held under entries not subject to the reclamation law shall not be made within one year after August 13, 1914, or within one year after notice issued in pursuance of section 419 of this chapter, in cases where such notice has not been issued prior to August 13, 1914, the construction charges for such land shall be increased 5 per centum each year until such application is made and an initial installment is paid. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 9, 38 Stat. 689.)

465. Charges for water service prior to notice of construction charge.—Whenever water is available and it is impracticable to apportion operation and maintenance charges as provided in section 492 of this chapter, the Secretary of the Interior may, prior to giving public notice of the construction charge per acre upon land under any project, furnish water to any entryman or private landowner thereunder until such notice is given, making a reasonable charge therefor, and such charges shall be subject to the same penalties and to the provisions for cancellation and collection as provided in this chapter for other operation and maintenance charges. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 11, 38 Stat. 689.)

466. Surveys to correct errors or inequalities in original basis of project.—On each project existing prior to December 5, 1924, where, in the opinion of the Secretary, it appears that on account of lack of fertility in the soil, an inadequate water supply, or other physical causes, settlers are unable to pay construction costs, or whenever it appears that the cost of any reclamation project by reason of error or mistake or for any cause has been apportioned or charged upon a smaller area of land than the total area of land under said project, the Secretary is authorized to undertake a comprehensive and detailed survey to ascertain all pertinent facts, and report in each case the result of such survey to the Congress, with his recommendations: Provided, That the cost and expense of each such survey shall be charged to the appropriation for the project on account of which the same is made, but shall not be charged as a part of the construction or operation and maintenance cost payable by the water users under the project. (Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 4, subsec. K, 43 Stat. 703.)

467. Adjustment of water charges; items included in adjustment.—In any adjustment of water charges as provided in the preceding section all due and unpaid charges to the United States, both on account of construction and on account of operation and maintenance, including interest and penalties, shall be added in each case to the total obligation of the water user, and the new total thus established shall then be the construction charge against the land in question. (Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 4, subsec. L, 43 Stat. 703.)

468. Withdrawal of notice given and modification of applications and contracts made prior to February 13, 1911.—The Secretary of the Interior may, in his discretion, withdraw any public notice issued prior to February 13, 1911, under section 419 of this chapter, and he may agree to such modification of water-right applications duly filed prior to February 13, 1911, or contracts with water users' associations and others, entered into prior to February 13, 1911, as he may deem advisable, or he may consent to the abrogation of such water-right applications and contracts, and proceed in all respects as if no such notice had been given. (Feb. 13, 1911, c. 49, 36 Stat. 902.)

469. Increase in construction charges.—No increase in the construction charges shall, after August 13, 1914, be made, after the same have been fixed by public notice, except by agreement between the Secretary of the Interior and a majority of the water-right applicants and entrymen to be affected by such increase, whereupon all water-right applicants and entrymen in the area proposed to be affected by the increased charge shall become subject thereto. Such increased charge shall be added to the construction charge and payment thereof distributed over the remaining unpaid installments of construction charges: Provided, That the Secretary of the Interior, in his discretion, may agree that such increased construction charge shall be paid in additional annual installments, each of which shall be at least equal to the amount of the largest installment as fixed for the project by the public notice theretofore issued. And such additional installments of the increased construction charge, as so agreed upon, shall become due and payable on December 1 of each year subsequent to the year when the final installment of the construction charge under such public notice is due and payable: Provided further, That all such increased construction charges shall be subject to the same conditions, penalties, and suit or action as provided in sections 478, 480, and 481 of this chapter. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 4, 38 Stat. 687.)

470. When work increasing construction charge may be undertaken.—No work shall be undertaken or expenditure made for any lands, for which the construction charge has been fixed by public notice, which work or expenditure shall, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Interior, increase the construction cost above the construction charge so fixed; unless and until valid and binding agreement to repay the cost thereof shall have been entered into between the Secretary of the Interior and the water-right applicants and entrymen affected by such increased cost, as provided by the preceding section. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 75, § 1, 38 Stat. 861.)

471. Initial payment and annual installments of charges generally.—Any entryman or applicant shall at the time of making water-right application or entry, as the case may be, pay into the reclamation fund 5 per centum of the construction charge fixed for his land as an initial installment, and shall pay the balance of said charge in annual installments. The first of the annual installments shall become due and payable on December 1 of the fifth calendar year after the initial installment: Provided, That any water-right applicant or entryman may, if he so elects, pay the whole or any part of the construction charges owing by him within any shorter period: Provided further, That entry may be made whenever water is available, as announced by the Secretary of the Interior, and the initial payment be made when the charge per acre is established. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 1, 38 Stat. 686.)

472. Installments on entries or applications made after August 13, 1914, and prior to December 5, 1924.—Any person whose lands, after August 13, 1914, and prior to December 5, 1924, have become subject to the terms and conditions of this chapter, and any person who, after August 13, 1914, and prior to December 5, 1924, has made entry thereunder shall pay the balance of said charge after the initial payment in fifteen annual installments, the first five of which shall each be 5 per centum of the construction charge and the remainder shall each be 7 per centum until the whole amount shall have been paid. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, §§ 1, 2, 38 Stat. 686; July 26, 1916, c. 257, 39 Stat. 390.)

473. Installments on contracts made after December 5, 1924.—After December 5, 1924, all project construction charges shall be made payable in annual installments based on the productive power of the land as provided in this section. The installment of the construction charge per irrigable acre payable each year shall be 5 per centum of the average gross annual acre income for the ten calendar years first preceding, or for all years of record if fewer than ten years are available, of the area in cultivation in the division or subdivision thereof of the project in which the land is located, as found by the Secretary annually. The decision of the Secretary as to the amount of any such installment shall be conclusive. These annual payments shall continue until the total construction charge against each unit is paid. (Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 4, subsec. F, 43 Stat. 702.)

474. Modification of contracts existing prior to December 5, 1924.—The Secretary is authorized upon request to amend any contract existing prior to December 5, 1924, for a project water right so that it will provide for payment of the construction charge thereunder in accordance with the provisions of the preceding section or for the deferment of such construction charges for a period of three years from December 5, 1924, or both. (Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 4, subsec. F, 43 Stat. 702.)

475. Annual installments on entries and contracts prior to August 13, 1914.—Any person whose land or entry has, prior to August 13, 1914, become subject to the terms and conditions of the reclamation law shall pay the construction charge, or the portion of the construction charge remaining unpaid, in twenty annual installments, the first of which shall become due and payable on December 1 of the year in which the public notice affecting his land is issued, and subsequent installments on December 1 of each year thereafter. The first four of such installments shall each be 2 per centum, the next two installments shall each be 4 per centum, and the next fourteen each 6 per centum of the total construction charge, or the portion of the construction charge unpaid at the beginning of such installments.

Any person whose land or entry has prior to August 13, 1914, become subject to the reclamation law, who desires to secure the benefits of the extension of the period of payments provided by this section, shall, within six months after the issuance of the first public notice hereunder affecting his land or entry, notify the Secretary of the Interior, in the manner to be prescribed by said Secretary, of his acceptance of all the terms and conditions of this chapter, and thereafter his lands or entry shall be subject to all of the provisions of this chapter: Provided, That upon sufficient showing the Secretary of the Interior may, in his discretion, permit notice of acceptance of all the terms and conditions of this chapter to be filed at any time after the time limit hereinbefore fixed for filing such acceptance shall have expired, conditioned, however, that where the applicant for such acceptance is in arrears on construction charges, he shall at the time of acceptance pay such installments of the construction charge as he would have been required to pay had he accepted the benefits of this section within the time limit hereinabove fixed, plus the penalties that would have accrued had he so accepted, and such applicant shall thereafter be upon the same status that he would have been had he accepted the provisions of this section within the time limit hereinabove fixed, and thereafter the lands or entry of any such persons so filing such notice of acceptance shall be subject to all the provisions of this chapter. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, §§ 2, 14, 38 Stat. 687, 690; July 26, 1916, c. 257, 39 Stat. 390.)

476. To whom construction charges paid.—The annual installments of construction charges shall be paid to the register of the local land office of the district in which the land is situated. (June 17, 1902, c. 1093, § 5, 32 Stat. 389.)

477. Association or irrigation district as fiscal agent of Government.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, in his discretion, to designate and appoint, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, the legally organized water-users' association or irrigation district, under any reclamation project, as the fiscal agent of the United States to collect the annual payments on the construction charge of the project and the annual charges for operation and maintenance and all penalties: Provided, That no water-right applicant or entryman shall be entitled to credit for any payment thus made until the same shall have been paid over to an officer designated by the Secretary of the Interior to receive the same. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 7, 38 Stat. 688.)

478. Pecuniary penalty for nonpayment of installments of construction charges.—If any water-right applicant or entryman shall have, prior to December 5, 1924, failed to pay any installment of his construction charges when due, there shall be added to the amount unpaid a penalty of 1 per centum thereof, and there shall be added a like penalty of 1 per centum of the amount unpaid on the first day of each month thereafter so long as such default shall have continued: Provided, That the penalty of 1 per centum per month against delinquent accounts, is hereby reduced to one-half of 1 per centum per month, as to all installments which may become due after December 5, 1924. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, 38 Stat. 687; Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 4, subsec. H, 43 Stat. 703.)

479. Shutting off water for nonpayment of construction charge.—No water shall be delivered to the lands of any water-right applicant or entryman who shall be in arrears for more than one calendar year for the payment of any annual construction charge and penalties. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 6, 38 Stat. 688.)

480. Cancellation of water right or entry for nonpayment of construction charge.—If any water-right applicant or entryman shall be one year in default in the payment of any installment of the construction charges and penalties, or any part thereof, his water-right application, and if he be a homestead entryman his entry also, shall be subject to cancellation, and all payments made by him forfeited to the reclamation fund, but no homestead entry shall be subject to contest because of such default. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 3, 38 Stat. 687.)

481. Action to recover construction charges and penalties.—If the Secretary of the Interior shall so elect, he may cause suit or action to be brought for the recovery of the amount of the construction charges in default and penalties; but if suit or action be brought, the right to declare a cancellation and forfeiture of the entry or water-right application as provided in the preceding section shall be suspended pending such suit or action. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 3, 38 Stat. 687.)

MAINTENANCE AND OPERATION OF WORKS GENERALLY

491. Authority of Secretary to operate works.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to use the reclamation fund for the operation and maintenance of all reservoirs and irrigation works constructed under the provisions of this chapter. (June 17, 1902, c. 1093, § 6, 32 Stat. 389.)

492. Operation and maintenance charges generally.—In addition to the construction charge, every water-right applicant, entryman, or landowner under or upon a reclamation project shall also pay, whenever water service is available for the irrigation of his land, an operation and maintenance charge based upon the total cost of operation and maintenance of the project, or each separate unit thereof, and such charge shall be made for each acre-foot of water delivered; but each acre of irrigable land, whether irrigated or not, shall be charged with a minimum operation and maintenance charge based upon the charge for delivery of not less than one acre-foot of water. If the total amount of operation and maintenance charges and penalties collected for any one irrigation season on any project shall exceed the cost of operation and maintenance of the project during that irrigation season, the balance shall be applied to a reduction of the charge on the project for the next irrigation season, and any deficit incurred may likewise be added to the charge for the next irrigation season. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 5, 38 Stat. 687.)

493. Operation charges; when payable.—All operation and maintenance charges upon projects existing prior to December 5, 1924, shall become due and payable on the date fixed for each project by the Secretary of the Interior, and if such charge is paid on or before the date when due there shall be a discount of 5 per centum of such charge.

All contracts providing for new projects and new divisions of projects approved after December 5, 1924, shall require that all operation and maintenance charge shall be payable in advance. In each case where the care, operation, and maintenance of a project or division of a project are transferred to the water users the contract shall require the payment of operation and maintenance charges in advance. Whenever an adjustment of water charges is made under this chapter the adjustment contract shall provide that thereafter all operation and maintenance charges shall be payable in advance. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 6, 38 Stat. 688; Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 4, subsec. N, 43 Stat. 704.)

494. Pecuniary penalty for nonpayment of operation charge.—If any operation or maintenance charge is unpaid on the 1st day of the third calendar month after it became due, prior to December 5, 1924, a penalty of 1 per centum of the amount unpaid shall be added thereto, and thereafter an additional penalty of 1 per centum of the amount unpaid shall be added on the 1st day of each calendar month if such charge and penalties shall remain unpaid: Provided, That the penalty of 1 per centum per month against delinquent accounts is hereby reduced to one-half of 1 per centum per month, as to all installments which may become due after December 5, 1924. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 6, 38 Stat. 688; Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 4, subsec. H, 43 Stat. 703.)

495. Shutting off water for nonpayment of operation charge.—No water shall be delivered to the lands of any water-right applicant or entryman who shall be in arrears for more than one calendar year for the payment of any charge for operation and maintenance. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 6, 38 Stat. 688.)

496. Cancellation of entry or water right for nonpayment of operation charge.—If any water-right applicant or entryman shall be one year in arrears in the payment of any charge for operation and maintenance and penalties, or any part thereof, his water-right application, and if he be a homestead entryman his entry also, shall be subject to cancellation, and all payments made by him forfeited to the reclamation fund, but no homestead entry shall be subject to contest because of such arrears. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 6, 38 Stat. 688.)

497. Action to recover operation charge and penalty.—In the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior suit or action may be brought for the amounts of operation or maintenance charges in default and penalties in like manner as provided in section 481 of this chapter. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 6, 38 Stat. 688.)

498. Transfer of management and operation of works to water users generally.—When the payments required by this chapter are made for the major portion of the lands irrigated from the waters of any of the works herein provided for, then the management and operation of such irrigation works shall pass to the owners of the lands irrigated thereby, to be maintained at their expense under such form of organization and under such rules and regulations as may be acceptable to the Secretary of the Interior: Provided, That the title to and the management and operation of the reservoirs and the works necessary for their protection and operation shall remain in the Government until otherwise provided by Congress. (June 17, 1902, c. 1093, § 6, 32 Stat. 389.)

499. Discretionary power to transfer management.—Whenever any legally organized water-users' association or irrigation district shall so request, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized, in his discretion, to transfer to such water-users' association or irrigation district the care, operation, and maintenance of all or any part of the project works, subject to such rules and regulations as he may prescribe. (Aug. 13, 1914, c. 247, § 5, 38 Stat. 687.)

500. Duty of association or district to take over management.—Whenever two-thirds of the irrigable area of any project, or division of a project, shall be covered by water-right contracts between the water users and the United States, said project shall be required, as a condition precedent to receiving the benefits of this chapter to take over, through a legally organized water-users' association or irrigation district, the care, operation, and maintenance of all or any part of the project works, subject to such rules and regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, and thereafter the United States, in its relation to said project, shall deal with a water-users' association or irrigation district, and when the water users assume control of a project, the operation and maintenance charges for the year then current shall be covered into the construction account to be repaid as part of the construction repayments. (Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 4, subsec. G, 43 Stat. 702.)

501. Disposition of profits of project taken over by water users.—Whenever the water users take over the care, operation, and maintenance of a project, or a division of a project, the total accumulated net profits, as determined by the Secretary, derived from the operation of project power plants, leasing of project grazing and farm lands, and the sale or use of town sites shall be credited to the construction charge of the project, or a division thereof, and thereafter the net profits from such sources may be used by the water users to be credited annually, first, on account of project construction charge, second, on account of project operation and maintenance charge, and third, as the water users may direct. No distribution to individual water users shall be made out of any such profits before all obligations to the Government shall have been fully paid. (Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 4, subsec. I, 43 Stat. 703.)

CONTRACTS WITH STATE IRRIGATION DISTRICTS FOR PAYMENT OF CHARGES

511. Authority to contract with irrigation district.—In carrying out the purposes of the reclamation law, the Secretary of the Interior may enter into contract with any legally organized irrigation district whereby such irrigation district shall agree to pay the moneys required to be paid to the United States, and in such event water-right applications on the part of landowners and entrymen, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, may be dispensed with. In the event of such contract being made with an irrigation district, the Secretary of the Interior, in his discretion, may contract that the payments, both for the construction of irrigation works and for operation and maintenance, on the part of the district shall be made upon such dates as will best conform to the district and taxation laws of the respective States under which such irrigation districts shall be formed, and if he deem it advisable he may contract for such penalties or interest charges in case of delinquency in payments as he may deem proper and consistent with such State laws, notwithstanding the provisions of sections 471, 475, 478, 492, and 493 of this chapter. The Secretary of the Interior may accept a partial payment of the amount due from any district to the United States, providing such acceptance shall not constitute a waiver of the balance remaining due nor the interest or penalties, if any, accruing upon said balance: Provided, That no contract with an irrigation district under this and the two following sections shall be binding on the United States until the proceedings on the part of the district for the authorization of the execution of the contract with the United States shall have been confirmed by decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, or pending appellate action if ground for appeal be laid. (May 15, 1922, c. 190, § 1, 42 Stat. 541.)

512. Release of Government liens after contract with irrigation districts.—Patents and water-right certificates which shall be issued after May 15, 1922, under the terms of sections 541 to 546, inclusive, of this chapter, for lands lying within any irrigation district with which the United States shall have contracted, by which the irrigation district agrees to make the payment of all charges for the building of irrigation works and for operation and maintenance, shall not reserve to the United States a lien for the payment of such charges; and where such a lien shall have been reserved in any patent or water-right certificate issued under the said sections, the Secretary of the Interior is hereby empowered to release such lien in such manner and form as may be deemed effective; and the Secretary of the Interior is further empowered to release liens in favor of the United States contained in water-right applications and to assent to the release of liens to secure reimbursement of moneys due to the United States pursuant to water-right applications running in favor of the water-users' association and contained in stock subscription contracts to such associations, when the lands covered by such liens shall be subject to assessment and levy for the collection of all moneys due and to become due to the United States by irrigation districts formed pursuant to State law and with which the United States shall have entered into contract therefor: Provided, That no such lien so reserved to the United States in any patent or water-right certificate shall be released until the owner of the land covered by the lien shall consent in writing to the assessment, levy, and collection by such irrigation district of taxes against said land for the payment to the United States of the contract obligation: Provided further, That before any lien is released under this section the Secretary of the Interior shall file a written report finding that the contracting irrigation district is legally organized under the laws of the State in which its lands are located, with full power to enter into the contract and to collect by assessment and levy against the lands of the district the amount of the contract obligation. (May 15, 1922, c. 190, § 2, 42 Stat. 542.)

513. Lands in project subject to provisions of chapter; after contract with irrigation district.—Upon the execution of any contract between the United States and any irrigation district pursuant to the two preceding sections the public lands included within such irrigation district, when subject to entry, and entered lands within such irrigation district, for which no final certificates shall have been issued and which may be designated by the Secretary of the Interior in said contract, shall be subject to all the provisions of chapter 13 of this title: Provided, That no map or plan as required by section 623 of the said chapter need be filed by the irrigation district for approval by the Secretary of the Interior. (May 15, 1922, c. 190, § 3, 42 Stat. 542.)

SALE OR LEASE OF SURPLUS WATERS, WATER POWER, STORAGE CAPACITY, AND WATER TRANSPORTATION FACILITIES

521. Sale of surplus waters generally.—The Secretary of the Interior in connection with the operations under the reclamation law is authorized to enter into contract to supply water from any project irrigation system for other purposes than irrigation, upon such conditions of delivery, use, and payment as he may deem proper: Provided, That the approval of such contract by the water-users' association or associations shall have first been obtained: Provided, That no such contract shall be entered into except upon a showing that there is no other practicable source of water supply for the purpose: Provided further, That no water shall be furnished for the uses aforesaid if the delivery of such water shall be detrimental to the water service for such irrigation project, nor to the rights of any prior appropriator: Provided further, That the moneys derived from such contracts shall be covered into the reclamation fund and be placed to the credit of the project from which such water is supplied. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 86, 41 Stat. 451.)

522. Lease of water power.—Whenever a development of power is necessary for the irrigation of lands, under any project undertaken under the said reclamation law, or an opportunity is afforded for the development of power under any such project, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to lease for a period not exceeding ten years, giving preference to municipal purposes, any surplus power or power privilege, and the moneys derived from such leases shall be covered into the reclamation fund and be placed to the credit of the project from which such power is derived: Provided, That no lease shall be made of such surplus power or power privileges as will impair the efficiency of the irrigation project: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Interior is authorized, in his discretion, to make such a lease in connection with Rio Grande project in Texas and New Mexico for a longer period not exceeding fifty years, with the approval of the water-users' association or associations under any such project, organized in conformity with the rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior in pursuance of section 498 of this chapter. (Feb. 24, 1911, c. 155, 36 Stat. 930.)

523. Storage and transportation of water for irrigation districts, etc.—Whenever in carrying out the provisions of the reclamation law, storage or carrying capacity has been or may be provided in excess of the requirements of the lands to be irrigated under any project, the Secretary of the Interior, preserving a first right to lands and entrymen under the project, is hereby authorized, upon such terms as he may determine to be just and equitable, to contract for the impounding, storage, and carriage of water to an extent not exceeding such excess capacity with irrigation systems operating under chapter 14 of this title, known as the Carey Act, and individuals, corporations, associations, and irrigation districts organized for or engaged in furnishing or in distributing water for irrigation. Water so impounded, stored, or carried under any such contract shall be for the purpose of distribution to individual water users by the party with whom the contract is made: Provided, however, That water so impounded, stored, or carried shall not be used otherwise than as prescribed by law as to lands held in private ownership within Government reclamation projects. In fixing the charges under any such contract for impounding, storing, or carrying water for any irrigation system, corporation, association, district, or individual, as herein provided, the Secretary shall take into consideration the cost of construction and maintenance of the reservoir by which such water is to be impounded or stored and the canal by which it is to be carried, and such charges shall be just and equitable as to water users under the Government project. No irrigation system, district, association, corporation, or individual so contracting shall make any charge for the storage, carriage, or delivery of such water in excess of the charge paid to the United States except to such extent as may be reasonably necessary to cover cost of carriage and delivery of such water through their works. (Feb. 21, 1911, c. 141, § 1, 36 Stat. 925.)

524. Cooperation with irrigation districts, etc., in construction of reservoirs and canals.—In carrying out the provisions of the reclamation law, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized, upon such terms as may be agreed upon, to cooperate with irrigation districts, water-users' associations, corporations, entrymen or water users for the construction or use of such reservoirs, canals, or ditches as may be advantageously used by the Government and irrigation districts, water-users' associations, corporations, entrymen or water users for impounding, delivering and carrying water for irrigation purposes: Provided, That the title to and management of the works so constructed shall be subject to the provisions of section 498 of this chapter: Provided further, That water shall not be furnished from any such reservoir or delivered through any such canal or ditch to any one landowner in excess of an amount sufficient to irrigate one hundred and sixty acres: Provided, That nothing contained in this or the preceding section shall be held or construed as enlarging or attempting to enlarge the right of the United States, under existing law, to control the waters of any stream in any State. (Feb. 21, 1911, c. 141, § 2, 36 Stat. 926.)

525. Covering proceeds into reclamation fund.—The moneys received in pursuance of the contracts authorized by the two preceding sections shall be covered into the reclamation fund and be available for use under the terms of the reclamation law, (Feb. 21, 1911, c. 141, § 3, 36 Stat. 926.)

526. Credit of proceeds to particular project.—All moneys or profits as determined by the Secretary heretofore or hereafter derived from the sale or rental of surplus water under the three preceding sections or from the connection of a new project with an existing project shall be credited to the project or division of the project to which the construction cost has been charged. (Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 4, subsec. J, 43 Stat. 703.)

PATENTS AND FINAL WATER-RIGHT CERTIFICATES

541. When patent or final certificate issued.—Any homestead entryman under the reclamation law, including entrymen on ceded Indian lands, may, at any time after having complied with the provisions of law applicable to such lands as to residence, reclamation and cultivation, submit proof of such residence, reclamation and cultivation, which proof, if found regular and satisfactory, shall entitle the entryman to a patent, and all purchasers of water-right certificates on reclamation projects shall be entitled to a final water-right certificate upon proof of the cultivation and reclamation of the land to which the certificate applies, to the extent required by the reclamation law for homestead entrymen: Provided, That no such patent or final water-right certificate shall issue until after the payment of all sums due the United States on account of such land or water right at the time of the submission of proof entitling the homestead or desert-land entryman to such patent or the purchaser to such final water-right certificate. (Aug. 9, 1912, c. 278, § 1, 37 Stat. 265; Feb. 15, 1917, c. 71, 39 Stat. 920.)

542. Reservation of lien for charges; enforcement of lien; redemption.—Every patent and water-right certificate issued under the preceding section shall expressly reserve to the United States a prior lien on the land patented or for which water right is certified, together with all water rights appurtenant or belonging thereto, superior to all other liens, claims or demands whatsoever for the payment of all sums due or to become due to the United States or its successors in control of the irrigation project in connection with such lands and water rights.

Upon default of payment of any amount so due title to the land shall pass to the United States free of all encumbrance, subject to the right of the defaulting debtor or any mortgagee, lien holder, judgment debtor, or subsequent purchaser to redeem the land within one year after the notice of such default shall have been given by payment of all moneys due, with 8 per centum interest and cost. And the United States, at its option, acting through the Secretary of the Interior, may cause land to be sold at any time after such failure to redeem, and from the proceeds of the sale there shall be paid into the reclamation fund all moneys due, with interest as herein provided, and costs. The balance of the proceeds, if any, shall be the property of the defaulting debtor or his assignee: Provided, That in case of sale after failure to redeem under this section the United States shall be authorized to bid in such land at not more than the amount in default, including interest and costs. (Aug. 9, 1912, c. 278, § 2, 37 Stat. 266.)

543. Certificate of final payment and release of lien.—Upon full and final payment being made of all amounts due on account of the building and betterment charges to the United States or its successors in control of the project, the United States or its successors, as the case may be, shall issue upon request a certificate certifying that payment of the building and betterment charges in full has been made and that the lien upon the land has been so far satisfied and is no longer of any force or effect except the lien for annual charges for operation and maintenance. (Aug. 9, 1912, c. 278, § 3, 37 Stat. 266.)

544. Limitation as to holdings prior to final payment of charges; forfeiture of excess holding.—No person shall at any one time or in any manner, except as hereinafter otherwise provided, acquire, own, or hold irrigable land for which entry or water-right application shall have been made under the said reclamation law, before final payment in full of all installments of building and betterment charges shall have been made on account of such land in excess of one farm unit as fixed by the Secretary of the Interior as the limit of area per entry of public land or per single ownership of private land for which a water right may be purchased respectively, nor in any case in excess of one hundred and sixty acres, nor shall water be furnished under said law nor a water right sold or recognized for such excess; but any such excess land acquired at any time in good faith by descent, by will, or by foreclosure of any lien may be held for two years and no longer after its acquisition; and every excess holding prohibited as aforesaid shall be forfeited to the United States by proceedings instituted by the Attorney General for that purpose in any court of competent jurisdiction. The above provision shall be recited in every patent and water-right certificate issued by the United States under the provisions of the three preceding sections. (Aug. 9, 1912, c. 278, § 3, 37 Stat. 266.)

545. Appointment of agents to receive payments; record of payments and amounts owing.—The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to designate such bonded fiscal agents or officers of the Reclamation Service as he may deem advisable on each reclamation project, to whom shall be paid all sums due on reclamation entries or water rights, and the officials so designated shall keep a record for the information of the public of the sums paid and the amount due at any time on account of any entry made or water right purchased under the reclamation law; and the Secretary of the Interior shall make provision for furnishing copies of duly authenticated records of entries upon payment of reasonable fees, which copies shall be admissible in evidence, as are copies authenticated under section 669 of chapter 17 of Title 28, JUDICIAL CODE AND JUDICIARY. (Aug. 9, 1912, c. 278, § 4, 37 Stat. 267.)

546. Jurisdiction of district court for enforcement of preceding sections.—Jurisdiction of suits by the United States for the enforcement of the provisions of the five preceding sections is hereby conferred on the United States district courts of the districts in which the lands are situated. (Aug. 9, 1912, c. 278, § 5, 37 Stat. 267.)

547. Patent to desert-land entryman.—Any desert-land entryman whose desert-land entry has been embraced within the exterior limits of any land withdrawal or irrigation project under the reclamation law, and who may have obtained a water supply for the land embraced in any such desert-land entry from the reclamation project by the purchase of a water-right certificate, may at any time after having complied with the provisions of the law applicable to such lands and upon proof of the cultivation and reclamation of the land to the extent required by the reclamation law for homestead entrymen, submit proof of such compliance, which proof, if found regular and satisfactory, shall entitle the entryman to a patent and a final water-right certificate under the same terms and conditions as required of homestead entrymen under the six preceding sections. (Aug. 26, 1912, c. 408, § 1, 37 Stat. 610.)

TOWN SITES, PARKS, PLAYGROUNDS AND SCHOOL SITES

561. Withdrawal of land for town sites; reservation for public purposes.—The Secretary of the Interior may withdraw from public entry any lands needed for town-site purposes in connection with irrigation projects under the reclamation law, not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres in each case, and survey and subdivide the same into town lots, with appropriate reservations for public purposes: Provided, That, whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Interior, it shall be advisable for the public interest, he may withdraw and dispose of town sites in excess of one hundred and sixty acres. (Apr. 16, 1906, c. 1631, § 1, 34 Stat. 116; June 27, 1906, c. 3559, § 4, 34 Stat. 520.)

562. Appraisal and sale of town lots.—The lots so surveyed shall be appraised under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior and sold under his direction at not less than their appraised value at public auction to the highest bidders, from time to time, for cash, and the lots offered for sale and not disposed of may afterwards be sold at not less than the appraised value under such regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe. Reclamation funds may be used to defray the necessary expenses of appraisement and sale, and the proceeds of such sales shall be covered into the reclamation fund. (Apr. 16, 1906, c. 1631, § 2, 34 Stat. 116.)

563. Disposal of town sites set apart prior to June 27, 1906.—Any town site set apart or established prior to June 25, 1906, by proclamation of the President, under the provisions of sections 711 and 712 of chapter 17 of this title, within or in the vicinity of any reclamation project, may be appraised and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the preceding section, and all necessary expenses incurred in the appraisal and sale of lands embraced within any such town site shall be paid from the reclamation fund, and the proceeds of the sales of such lands shall be covered into the reclamation fund. (June 27, 1906, c. 3559, § 3, 34 Stat. 519.)

564. Reappraisal of town lots for sale.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, whenever he may deem it necessary, to reappraise all unsold lots within town sites on projects under the reclamation law heretofore or hereafter appraised under the provisions of the two preceding sections, and thereafter to proceed with the sale of such town lots in accordance with said sections. (June 11, 1910, c. 284, § 1, 36 Stat. 465.)

565. Terms of sale of town lots; installments of price.—In the sale of town lots under the provisions of the three preceding sections the Secretary of the Interior may, in his discretion, require payments for such town lots in full at time of sale or in annual installments, not exceeding five, with interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum on deferred payments. (June 11, 1910, c. 284, § 2, 36 Stat. 466.)

566. Maintenance of public reservations and conveyance to municipality.—The public reservations in such town sites shall be improved and maintained by the town authorities at the expense of the town; and upon the organization thereof as municipal corporations the said reservations shall be conveyed to such corporations by the Secretary of the Interior, subject to the condition that they shall be used forever for public purposes. (Apr. 16, 1906, c. 1631, § 3, 34 Stat. 116.)

567. Water rights for towns and cities; charges.—The Secretary of the Interior shall, in accordance with the provisions of the reclamation law, provide for water rights in amount he may deem necessary for the towns established as provided, in the preceding sections, and may enter into contract with the proper authorities of such towns, and other towns or cities on or in the immediate vicinity of irrigation projects, which shall have a water right from the same source as that of said project for the delivery of such water supply to some convenient point, and for the payment into the reclamation fund of charges for the same to be paid by such towns or cities, which charges shall not be less nor upon terms more favorable than those fixed by the Secretary of the Interior for the irrigation project from which the water is taken. (Apr. 16, 1906, c. 1631, § 4, 34 Stat. 116.)

568. Use of reclamation fund for expenses of and disposal of proceeds of sale of town sites.—Reclamation funds shall be available for the payment of all expenses incurred in executing the foregoing provisions relating to town sites, and the proceeds of all sales of town sites shall be covered into the reclamation fund. (June 27, 1906, c. 3559, § 4, 34 Stat. 520.)

569. Reservation of land for park, playground, or community center.—

Authority for reservation.—(a) The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to withdraw from other disposition and reserve for country parks, public playgrounds, and community centers for the use of the residents upon the lands such tracts as he may deem advisable not exceeding twenty acres in any one township in each reclamation project or the several units of such reclamation projects undertaken under the reclamation law.

Water service.—(b) Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained in this section every such tract of land so set apart shall be supplied with water from the Government irrigation system, the cost thereof to be charged to the remaining lands of the project as a part of the construction charge of such project, and shall be maintained and used in perpetuity by the people upon said reclaimed lands for a pleasure park, public playground, and community center.

Contract for maintenance and use.—(c) For the purpose of carrying out and effecting the objects of this section the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to enter into a contract with the organization formed by the owners of the lands irrigated within said project or project unit pursuant to section 498 of this chapter, stipulating and providing that the organization will maintain and use such of the lands so reserved for the purposes prescribed in this section as such organization may desire, and that upon failure to so maintain and use such lands, or in the event that same shall be permitted to be used or occupied for other purposes than those stipulated in this section, the control of the lands shall revert to the United States.

Disposition of land not contracted for.—(d) Any of such lands not contracted for in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section within ten years from the time water is available for the same, or sooner, if the Secretary of the Interior may deem it desirable, shall be disposed of in accordance with the public land laws applicable thereto, and the proceeds from the disposition of lands reverting to the United States under the provisions of this section, and from sales of water rights, shall be covered into the reclamation fund and placed to the credit of the project wherein the lands are situate. (Oct. 5, 1914, c. 316, §§ 1–4, 38 Stat. 727–728.)

570. Conveyance of land to school district.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, upon application by the proper officers of a school district located wholly or in part within the boundaries of a project of the United States Reclamation Service, to issue patent conveying to such district such unappropriated undisposed of lands, not exceeding six acres in area, within any Government reclamation town site situated within such school district as, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Interior, are necessary for use by said district for school buildings and grounds: Provided, That if any land so conveyed cease entirely to be used for school purposes title thereto shall revert to and revest in the United States. (Oct. 31, 1919, c. 92, 41 Stat. 326.)

REFUNDS TO WAR VETERANS

581. Definition; "veteran."—As used in the five following sections, the term "veteran" includes any individual a member of the military or naval forces of the United States at any time after April 5, 1917, and before November 12, 1918; but does not include (1) any individual at any time during such period or thereafter separated from such forces under other than honorable conditions, (2) any conscientious objector who performed no military duty whatever or refused to wear the uniform, or (3) any alien at any time during such period or thereafter discharged from the military or naval forces on account of his alienage. (Feb. 21, 1925, c. 277, § 1, 43 Stat. 956.)

582. General authorization for refund to World War veterans.—(a) Any veteran—who at any time since April 6, 1917, and prior to February 21, 1925, has made entry upon a farm unit within a Federal irrigation project under the reclamation law and (1) who no longer retains such entry because of cancellation by, or relinquishment to, the United States after or (2) who, prior to receipt by him of a final certificate in respect of such entry, but in no case more than one year after February 21, 1925, desires to relinquish such entry—may, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, file application for the refund provided in subdivision (b). A veteran who has been compensated, in cash or otherwise, for any such relinquishment shall not be entitled to the benefits of this and the four following sections, and before payment of such refund the Secretary of the Interior, under such regulations as he may prescribe, shall require proof that the veteran has not been so compensated.

(b) Upon receipt of such application the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to investigate the facts and, in his discretion, to pay as a refund to any such veteran entitled thereto, a sum equal to all amounts paid to the United States by such veteran, or for his account, as construction charges and as interest and penalties on such charges in respect of such unit. Every such refund so approved by the Secretary of the Interior shall be paid from the appropriation for the project on which the entry in question was made. (Feb. 21, 1925, c. 277, § 2, 43 Stat. 956.)

583. Right of estate of veteran.—The estate of a veteran shall be entitled to the benefits of the preceding section in any case where the veteran, if living, could have availed himself of such benefits. Application for such benefits shall be made by, and payments thereof shall be made to, the executor or administrator of such estate. (Feb. 21, 1925, c. 277, § 3, 43 Stat. 956.)

584. Relinquishment of rights on acceptance of refund.—A veteran (or his estate) accepting in respect of any farm unit the benefits of the two preceding sections, shall be deemed thereby to have relinquished, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, all right, title, or interest of such veteran (or estate) in such farm unit and any improvements thereon. (Feb. 21, 1925, c. 277, § 3, 43 Stat. 956.)

585. Cancellation of water-right application.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to cancel any application for permanent water right for any farm unit in respect of which a veteran (or his estate) has received the benefits of the three preceding sections, and to terminate all rights and liabilities of such veteran (or estate) in respect of such application. (Feb. 21, 1925, c. 277, § 4, 43 Stat. 957.)

586. Regulations by Secretary as to refunds.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to make such regulations as he deems necessary to execute the functions imposed upon him by the five preceding sections. (Feb. 21, 1925, c. 277, § 5, 43 Stat. 957.)

LEGISLATION APPLICABLE TO PARTICULAR PROJECTS GENERALLY

591. Boise projects, Idaho; extension of time for payment of charges.—Where an individual water user, or individual applicant for a water right under a Federal irrigation project constructed or being constructed under the reclamation law, is unable to pay any construction or operation and maintenance charge due, excepting operation and maintenance charges for drainage on the Boise, Idaho, project for the year 1922, or prior thereto, the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized in his discretion to add such accrued and unpaid charges to the construction charge of the land of such water user or applicant, and to distribute such accumulated charges equally over each of the subsequent years, beginning with the year 1924, at such rate per year as will complete the payment during the remaining years of the twenty-year period of payment of the original construction charge: Provided, That upon such adjustment being made, any penalties or interest which may have accrued in connection with such unpaid construction and operation and maintenance charges shall be canceled, and in lieu thereof the amount so due, and the payment of which is hereby extended, shall draw interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum, paid annually from the time said amount became due to the date of payment: Provided further, That the applicant for the extension shall first show to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Interior detailed statement of his assets and liabilities and actual inability to make payment at the time of the application and an apparent ability to meet the deferred charges in 1924 and subsequent years: And provided further, That in case the principal and interest herein provided for are not paid in the manner and at the time provided by this section, any penalty provided by law, prior to February 28, 1923, shall attach from the date the charge was originally due: And provided further, That similar relief in whole or in part may be extended by the Secretary of the Interior to a legally organized group of water users of a project, upon presentation of a sufficient number of individual showings made in accordance with the foregoing proviso to satisfy the Secretary of the Interior that such extension is necessary. (Feb. 28, 1923, c. 145, § 5, 42 Stat. 1325.)

592. Castle Peak project, Utah; leave of absence to entrymen.—Any qualified entryman who has, prior to February 28, 1919, made bona fide entry upon land subsequently withdrawn under the provisions of the reclamation law for the Castle Peak irrigation project, in Utah, upon filing an application to have his entry made subject to all the charges, terms, conditions, provisions, and limitations of the reclamation law, together with a satisfactory showing of full compliance with the homestead laws under which such entry was made to the date of such application, may be granted leave of absence from the land until the Secretary of the Interior announces the availability of a water supply for the irrigation of the land, or until the lands embraced in his entry shall be restored to the public domain: Provided, That the period of actual absence under this section shall not be deducted from the full time of residence required by law. (Feb. 28, 1919, c. 78, 40 Stat. 1210.)

593. Flathead irrigation project, Montana.—The provisions of sections 441 and 442 of this chapter, authorizing the assignment under certain conditions of homesteads within reclamation projects, and of sections 541 to 546, inclusive, of this chapter, authorizing under certain conditions the issuance of patents on reclamation entries, and for other purposes, are hereby extended and made applicable to lands within the Flathead irrigation project, in the former Flathead Indian Reservation, Montana, but such lands shall otherwise be subject to the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 23, 1904 (Thirty-third Statutes at Large, page 302), as amended by the Act of Congress approved May 29, 1908 (Thirty-fifth Statutes at Large, page 448): Provided, That the lien reserved to the United States on the land patented, as provided for in section 542 of this chapter, shall include all sums due or to become due to the United States on account of the Indian price of such land. (July 17, 1914, c. 143, 38 Stat. 510.)

594. Heyburn and Rupert project, Idaho; rights of settlers on town site; size of town site.—In the town sites of Heyburn and Rupert, in Idaho, created and surveyed by the Government, on which town sites settlers have been allowed to establish themselves, and had actually established themselves prior to March 5, 1906, in permanent buildings not easily moved, the said settlers shall be given the right to purchase the lots so built upon at an appraised valuation for cash, such appraisement to be made under rules to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior: Provided, That the limitation on the size of town sites contained in section 561 of this chapter shall not apply to the town sites named in this section. (June 27, 1906, c. 3559, § 4, 34 Stat. 520.)

595. King Hill project, Idaho.—King Hill project, Idaho, shall be subject to the reclamation law so far as applicable and consistent with contract heretofore made between the United States and King Hill irrigation district: Provided further, That for the purposes of issuing patent to lands reclaimed, the reclamation effected by the operations of the United States Bureau of Reclamation may be considered by the Secretary of the Interior as equivalent to reclamation effected by the State of Idaho, under chapter 14 of this title. (July 1, 1918, c. 113, § 1, 40 Stat. 674.)

596. North Platte irrigation project, Nebraska-Wyoming; aid of ex-service men whose entries were defeated.—The ex-service men qualified to make entry under the homestead laws, who were successful at the drawing held March 5, 1920, for farm units on the North Platte irrigation project, Fort Laramie unit, Nebraska-Wyoming, and to whom approved water-rental applications were duly issued, but who were prevented from making homestead entries for the lands covered by such applications because of the reinstatement of certain conflicting homestead entries, shall each have a preferred right of entry under the homestead laws at the next opening of lands under said project, for not less than thirty days before the date set for the opening of such lands to other entry: Provided, That this section shall not be considered as entitling any person to make another homestead entry who shall have received the benefits of the homestead laws since being prevented, as aforesaid, from exercising the right acquired at the said drawing on March 5, 1920. (May 20, 1921, c. 9, 42 Stat. 7.)

597. Riverton project, Wyoming.—Lands within and in the vicinity of the ceded portion of the Wind River or Shoshone Reservation, and included in the Riverton project, Wyoming, shall be subject to all the charges, terms, conditions, provisions, and limitations of the reclamation law, and suitable provision shall be made by the Secretary of the Interior in fixing the charges to provide for reimbursement of the entire expenditure in accordance with the reclamation law and other laws applicable to said lands.

When any land on the project is opened to homestead entry under the terms of the reclamation law, the entryman shall pay to the United States for the lands the sum of $1.50 per acre as provided in section 2 of the Act approved March 3, 1905 (volume 33, Statutes at Large, page 1016), to be credited to the fund established by said Act of 1905, together with the proceeds from the sale of town sites established in said project under the reclamation law. (Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1404.)

598. Salt River project, Arizona; sale of water power.—Whenever a development of power is necessary for the irrigation of lands under the Salt River reclamation project, Arizona, or an opportunity is afforded for the development of power under said project, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized, giving preference to municipal purposes, to enter into contracts for a period not exceeding fifty years for the sale of any surplus power so developed, and the money derived from such sales shall be placed to the credit of said project for disposal as provided in the contract between the United States of America and the Salt River Valley Water Users' Association, approved September 6, 1917. Provided, That no contract shall be made for the sale of such surplus power which will impair the efficiency of said project: Provided, however, That no such contract shall be made without the approval of the legally organized water-users' asssociation or irrigation district which has contracted with the United States to repay the cost of said project: Provided further, That the charge for power may be readjusted at the end of five, ten, or twenty year periods after the beginning of any contract for the sale of power in a manner to be described in the contract. (Sept. 18, 1922, c. 323, 42 Stat. 847.)

599. Yuma project, Arizona; entries by residents on lands withdrawn for project.—Any person who has, prior to August 17, 1916, established residence upon and improved any tract of land within the irrigable area of the Yuma reclamation project in Arizona withdrawn from entry under the provisions of the reclamation law, and who shall have made valuable improvements upon such lands, and who has resided thereon in good faith for two years prior to August 17, 1916, may make entry for the farm unit upon which his residence is established, and such residence and improvements heretofore made shall be credited upon his final proof. (Aug. 17, 1916, c. 349, 39 Stat. 516.)

KLAMATH PROJECT, OREGON-CALIFORNIA

601. Change of level of lakes and subjection of lands to reclamation law.—The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized in carrying out any irrigation project that may be undertaken by him under the terms and conditions of the national reclamation law and which may involve the changing of the levels of Lower or Little Klamath Lake, Tule or Rhett Lake, and Goose Lake, or any river or other body of water connected therewith, in the States of Oregon and California, to raise or lower the level of said lakes as may be necessary and to dispose of any lands which may come into the possession of the United States as a result thereof by cession of any State or otherwise under the terms and conditions of the national reclamation law. (Feb. 9, 1905, c. 567, 33 Stat. 714.)

602. Notice of lands subject to entry; conditions of and reservations in patents.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to determine and make public announcement of what lands in and around Little or Lower Klamath Lake, in Siskiyou County, California, and in Klamath County, Oregon, ceded to the United States by the State of California by the Act entitled "An Act authorizing the United States Government to lower the water levels of any or all of the following lakes: Lower or Little Klamath Lake, Tule or Rhett Lake, Goose Lake, and Clear Lake, situated in Siskiyou and Modoc Counties, and to use any part or all of the beds of said lakes for the storage of water in connection with the irrigation and reclamation operations conducted by the Reclamation Service of the United States; also ceding to the United States all right, title, interest, or claim of the State of California to any lands uncovered by the lowering of the water levels of any or all of said lakes not already disposed of by the State," and ceded to the United States by the State of Oregon by an Act entitled "An Act to authorize the utilization of Upper Klamath Lake, Lower or Little Klamath Lake, and Tule or Rhett Lake, situate in Klamath County, Oregon, and Goose Lake, situate in Lake County, Oregon, in connection with the irrigation and reclamation operations of the Reclamation Service of the United States, and to cede to the United States all the right, title, interest, and claim of the State of Oregon to any and all lands recovered by the lowering of the water levels or by the drainage of any or all of said lakes," will eventually be uncovered and opened to agricultural development by the lowering of the water level of said lake. Title to all said lands can be acquired by homestead entry under the general homestead laws and the provisions of this division of this chapter and not otherwise: Provided, That all said lands shall forever be and remain subject to the right of the United States (a) to overflow the same or any part thereof for the purposes of irrigation by such systems of reservoirs and drainage and diking as actually exist May 27, 1920, or may be thereafter constructed in Siskiyou County, California, and Klamath County, Oregon, and (b) to drain the water therefrom. All patents issued for the said lands shall expressly reserve to the United States such right of overflow and drainage, and the title and ownership of all minerals and mineral interests in such lands, including oil, are expressly reserved to the United States. (May 27, 1920, c. 209, § 1, 41 Stat. 627.)

603. Assessment of past expenditure for benefit of reclamation fund.—The Secretary of the Interior shall also determine and make public announcement of the proportionate part of the sum of $283,225, expended prior to June 27, 1920, from the reclamation fund in connection with the Klamath project, Oregon-California, that in the opinion of the Secretary of the Interior each acre of the said land should be assessed, and the proportionate part that each acre of privately owned land, similarly situated to the said lands hereby affected, should be assessed, to return to said reclamation fund in all the said sum of $283,225. (May 27, 1920, c. 209, § 2, 41 Stat. 628.)

604. Survey and opening of lands to entry.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to cause said lands to be surveyed and opened to entry under the general homestead laws and the provisions of this division of this chapter: Provided, That none of said lands shall be opened to entry until the Secretary of the Interior shall have first made arrangement with the owners of lands in private ownership, similarly situated to the lands hereby affected, for the payment into the reclamation fund of the proportionate part of the sum of $283,225, determined and apportioned by the Secretary of the Interior against said privately owned lands as provided in the preceding section. (May 27, 1920, c. 209, § 3, 41 Stat. 628.)

605. Additional payments; installments; forfeiture for nonpayment; interest; covering proceeds into reclamation fund.—In addition to all payments required by the general homestead laws there shall be paid by homestead entrymen the amount per acre assessed as provided in the second preceding section. Said payment shall be made in annual installments of $1 per acre, except the last installment, which may be a fraction of a dollar: Provided, That the whole or any part of the amount so assessed may be paid by the entryman in a shorter period if he so elects. The first installment shall be paid at the time homestead application is filed and subsequent installments shall be due and payable on December 1 of each calendar year thereafter until the entire sum so assessed and apportioned against the lands is paid, and patent shall not issue for any of said lands until the sum so apportioned against said lands shall have been fully paid. Failure to pay any installment when due shall render the entry subject to cancellation, with a forfeiture of all moneys paid. All assessments shall draw interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from their due date until paid. All moneys paid on account of such assessments shall, without diminution of any kind whatsoever, be covered into the reclamation fund. (May 27, 1920, c. 209, § 4, 41 Stat. 628.)

606. Preference rights of World War veterans.—Those who served in the military or naval forces of the United States during the war between the United States and Germany and have been honorably separated or discharged therefrom or placed in the Regular Army or Naval Reserve shall have preference and prior right to file upon and enter said lands under the homestead laws and the provisions of this division of this chapter for a period of six months following the time said lands are opened to entry. In opening said lands for homestead entry the Secretary of the Interior shall provide for the disposition thereof to the said soldiers, sailors, and marines, by drawing, under general rules and regulations to be promulgated by him: Provided, That the rights and benefits conferred by this division of this chapter shall not extend to any person who, having been drafted for service under the provisions of the Selective Service Act, shall have refused to render such service or to wear the uniform of such service of the United States. (May 27, 1920, c. 209, § 5, 41 Stat. 628.)

607. Squatter's rights not recognized; time of entry on land; penalty for premature entry.—No rights to make entry shall attach by reason of settlement or squatting upon any of the lands hereby restored before the hour on which such lands shall be subject to homestead entry at the land office, and until said lands are opened for settlement and entry as herein provided no person shall enter upon and occupy the same, and any person violating this provision shall never be permitted to enter any of said lands. (May 27, 1920, c. 209, § 6, 41 Stat. 629.)

608. Lands in Klamath Lake Bird Reservation; reservation of lake shore; easement for canal ditches.—The Secretary of the Interior shall determine which of the lands within the boundaries of the Klamath Lake Bird Reserve are chiefly valuable for agricultural purposes and which for the purpose of said reservation, and shall open to homestead entry those lands which are chiefly valuable for agricultural purposes: Provided, That the shore line of the lake, including the smallest legal subdivision of land adjoining the flow line, shall remain in the possession of the United States, but access may be provided to the lake for such canals as may be necessary for irrigation, drainage, and domestic water supply. (May 27, 1920, c. 209, § 7, 41 Stat. 629.)

609. Powers of Secretary in relation to project.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to perform any and all acts and to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary and proper for the purpose of carrying the provisions of sections 601 to 608, inclusive, of this division of this chapter into full force and effect. (May 27, 1920, c. 209, § 8, 41 Stat. 629.)

Chapter 13.—FEDERAL LANDS INCLUDED IN STATE IRRIGATION DISTRICTS.

Sec.

621. Subjection of lands in State irrigation district to State laws generally.
622. Cost of construction and maintenance of irrigation project as charge on land.
623. Map of district and plan of irrigation project; approval by Secretary.
624. Entry of approval on land records.
625. Release of unentered land from lien on noncompletion of irrigation project.
626. Enforcement of lien against entered but unpatented land.
627. Sale of unpatented and unentered land prohibited; suspension of entry.
628. Patents to entered but unpatented land.
629. Delivery to register and to entryman of notices required by State law; right to hearing, appeal, etc.
630. Disposition by Government of proceeds of land sold.

Section 621. Subjection of lands in State irrigation district to State laws generally.—When in any State of the United States under the irrigation district laws of said State there has, prior to August 11, 1916, been organized and created or shall thereafter be organized and created any irrigation district for the purpose of irrigating the lands situated within said irrigation district, and in which irrigation district so created or to be created there shall be included any of the public lands of the United States, such public lands so situated in said irrigation district, when subject to entry, and entered lands within said irrigation district, for which no final certificates have been issued, which may be designated by the Secretary of the Interior in the approval by him of the map and plat of an irrigation district as provided in section 623 of this chapter, are hereby made and declared to be subject to all the provisions of the laws of the State in which such lands shall be situated relating to the organization, government, and regulation of irrigation districts for the reclamation and irrigation of arid lands for agricultural purposes, to the same extent and in the same manner in which the lands of a like character held under private ownership are or may be subject to said laws: Provided, That the United States and all persons legally holding unpatented lands under entry made under the public land laws of the United States are accorded all the rights, privileges, benefits, and exemptions given by said State laws to persons holding lands of a like character under private ownership, except as hereinafter otherwise provided: Provided further, That this chapter shall not apply to any irrigation district comprising a majority acreage of unentered land. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 319, § 1, 39 Stat. 506.)

622. Cost of construction and maintenance of irrigation project as charge on land.—The cost of constructing, acquiring, purchasing, or maintaining the canals, ditches, reservoirs, reservoir sites, water, water right, rights of way, or other property incurred in connection with any irrigation project under said irrigation district laws shall be equitably apportioned among lands held under private ownership, lands legally covered by unpatented entries, and unentered public lands included in said irrigation district. Officially certified lists of the amounts of charges assessed against the smallest legal subdivision of said lands shall be furnished to the register and receiver of the land district within which the lands affected are located as soon as such charges are assessed; but nothing in this chapter shall be construed as creating any obligation against the United States to pay any of said charges, assessments, or debts incurred.

All charges legally assessed shall be a lien upon unentered lands and upon lands covered by unpatented entries included in said irrigation district. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 319, § 2, 39 Stat. 507.)

623. Map of district and plan of irrigation project; approval by Secretary.—No unentered lands and no entered lands for which no final certificates have been issued shall be subject to the lien or liens herein contemplated until there shall have been submitted by said irrigation district to the Secretary of the Interior, and approved by him, a map or plat of said district and sufficient detailed engineering data to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Interior the sufficiency of the water supply and the feasibility of the project, and which shall explain the plan or mode of irrigation in those irrigation districts where the irrigation works have not been constructed, and which plan shall be sufficient to thoroughly irrigate and reclaim said land and prepare it to raise ordinary agricultural crops, and which shall also show the source of water to be used for irrigation of land included in said district: Provided, That in those irrigation districts organized prior to August 11, 1916, and whose irrigation works have been constructed and are in operation as soon as a satisfactory map, plat, and plan shall have been approved by the Secretary of the Interior, as in this chapter provided, such entered and unentered lands shall be subject to all district taxes and assessments theretofore actually levied against the lands in said district and in the same manner in which lands of a like character held under private ownership are subject to liens and assessments. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 319, § 3, 39 Stat. 507.)

624. Entry of approval on land records.—Upon the approval of the district map or plat as hereinbefore provided by the Secretary of the Interior the register and receiver will note said approval upon their records where any unentered or entered and unpatented lands are affected. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 319, § 4, 39 Stat. 508.)

625. Release of unentered land from lien on noncompletion of irrigation project.—The Secretary of the Interior may, upon the expiration of ten years from the date of his approval of said map and plan of any irrigation district, release from the lien authorized by this chapter any unentered land or lands upon which final certificate has not issued, for which irrigation works have not been constructed and water of such district made available for the land. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 319, § 3, 39 Stat. 507.)

626. Enforcement of lien against entered but unpatented land.—Said lien upon said land covered by unpatented entries may be enforced upon said unpatented lands by the sale thereof in the same manner and under the same proceeding whereby said assessments are enforced against lands held under private ownership: Provided, That in the case of entered unpatented lands the title or interest which such irrigation district may convey by tax sale, tax deed, or as a result of any tax proceeding shall be subject to the following conditions and limitations: If such unpatented land be withdrawn under chapter 12 of this title, or subject to the provisions of said chapter, then the interest which the district may convey by such tax proceedings or tax deed shall be subject to a prior lien reserved to the United States for all the unpaid charges authorized by the said chapter, but the holder of such tax deed or tax title resulting from such district tax shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges in the land included in such tax title or tax deed of an assignee under the provisions of section 441 of said chapter, and upon submission to the United States land office of the district in which the land is located of satisfactory proof of such tax title, the name of the holder thereof shall be indorsed upon the records of such land office as entitled to the rights of one holding a complete and valid assignment under said section 441, and such person may at any time thereafter receive patent upon submitting satisfactory proof of the reclamation and irrigation required by the said chapter. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 319, § 2, 39 Stat. 507.)

627. Sale of unpatented and unentered land prohibited; suspension of entry.—No public lands which were unentered at the time any tax or assessment was levied against same by such irrigation district shall be sold for such taxes or assessments, but such tax or assessment shall be and continue a lien upon such lands, and not more than one hundred and sixty acres of such land shall be entered by any one person; and when such lands shall be applied for, after said approval by the Secretary of the Interior, under the homestead or desert-land laws of the United States the application shall be suspended for a period of thirty days to enable the applicant to present a certificate from the proper district or county officer showing that no unpaid district charges are due and delinquent against said land. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 319, § 5, 39 Stat. 508.)

628. Patents to entered but unpatented land.—Any entered but unpatented lands not subject to reclamation law, chapter 12 of this title, sold in the manner and for the purposes mentioned in this chapter may be patented to the purchaser thereof or his assignee at any time after the expiration of the period of redemption allowed by law under which it may have been sold (no redemption having been made) upon the payment to the receiver of the local land office of the minimum price of $1.25 per acre, or such other price as may be fixed by law for such lands, together with the usual fees and commissions charged in entries of like lands under the homestead laws, and upon a satisfactory showing that the irrigation works have been constructed and that water of the district is available for such land; but the purchaser or his assignee shall, at the time of application for patent, have the qualification of a homestead entryman or desert-land entryman, and not more than one hundred and sixty acres of said land shall be patented to any one purchaser under the provisions of this chapter.

These limitations shall not apply to sales to irrigation districts, but shall apply to purchasers from such irrigation districts of such land bid in by said district.

Unless the purchaser or his assignee of such lands shall, within ninety days after the time for redemption has expired, pay to the proper receiver all fees and commissions and the purchase price to which the United States shall be entitled as provided for in this chapter, any person having the qualification of a homestead entryman or a desert-land entryman may pay to the proper receiver, for not more than one hundred and sixty acres of said lands, for which payment has not been made, the unpaid purchase price, fees, and commissions to which the United States may be entitled; and upon satisfactory proof that he has paid to the purchaser at the tax sale, or his assignee or to the proper officer of the district for such purchaser or for the district, as the case may be, the sum for which the land was sold at sale for irrigation district charges or bid in by the district at such sale, and in addition thereto the interest and penalties on the amount bid at the rate allowed by law, shall be subrogated to the rights of such purchaser to receive patent for said land.

In any case where any tract of entered land lying within such approved irrigation district shall become vacant by relinquishment or cancellation for any cause, any subsequent applicant therefor shall be required, in addition to the qualifications and requirements otherwise provided, to furnish satisfactory proof by certificate from the proper district or county officer that he has paid all charges then due to the district upon said land and also has paid to the proper district or county officer for the holder or holders of any tax certificates, delinquency certificates, or other proper evidence of purchase at tax sale the amount for which the said land was sold at tax sale, together with the interest and penalties thereon provided by law. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 319, § 6, 39 Stat. 508.)

629. Delivery to register and to entryman of notices required by State law; right to hearing, appeal, etc.—All notices required by the irrigation district laws mentioned in this chapter shall, as soon as such notices are issued, be delivered to the register of the proper land office in cases where unpatented lands are affected thereby, and to the entryman whose unpatented lands are included therein, and the United States and such entryman shall be given the same rights to be heard by petition, answer, remonstrance, appeal, or otherwise as are given to persons holding lands in private ownership, and all entrymen shall be given the same rights of redemption as are given to the owners of lands held in private ownership. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 319, § 7, 39 Stat. 509.)

630. Disposition by Government of proceeds of land sold.—All moneys derived by the United States from the sale of public lands referred to in this chapter shall be paid into such funds and applied as provided by law for the disposal of the proceeds from the sale of public lands. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 319, § 8, 39 Stat. 509.)

Chapter 14.—GRANTS OF DESERT LANDS TO STATES FOR RECLAMATION (THE CAREY ACT).

Sec.
641. Grant of desert land to States authorized.
642. Liens for expenses of reclamation.
643. Temporary withdrawal from settlement or entry.
644. Preference right to entrymen under State laws.
645. Additional arid lands available to Colorado, Idaho, Nevada, and Wyoming for reclamation.
646. Grant extended to New Mexico and Arizona.
647. Grant extended to desert lands within part of former Ute Indian Reservation in Colorado.
648. Extension of time of segregation and reclamation in Oregon segregation lists.

Section 641. Grant of desert land to States authorized.—To aid the public-land States in the reclamation of the desert lands therein, and the settlement, cultivation and sale thereof in small tracts to actual settlers, the Secretary of the Interior with the approval of the President is, as of August 18, 1894, authorized and empowered, upon proper application of the State to contract and agree, from time to time, with each of the States in which there may be situated desert lands as defined in section 322 of chapter 9 of this title, to donate, grant and patent to the State free of cost for survey or price such desert lands, not exceeding one million acres in each State, as the State may cause to be irrigated, reclaimed or occupied, and not less than twenty acres of each one hundred and sixty acre tract cultivated by actual settlers, as thoroughly as is required of citizens who may enter under the said desert-land law, chapter 9 of this title, within ten years from the date of approval by the Secretary of the Interior of the State's application for the segregation of such lands; and if actual construction of reclamation works is not begun within three years after the segregation of the lands or within such further period not exceeding three years, as shall be allowed by the Secretary of the Interior, the said Secretary of the Interior, in his discretion, may restore such lands to the public domain; and if the State fails, within ten years from the date of such segregation, to cause the whole or any part of the lands so segregated to be so irrigated and reclaimed, the Secretary of the Interior may, in his discretion, continue said segregation for a period not exceeding five years, or may, in his discretion, restore such lands not irrigated and reclaimed to the public domain upon the expiration of the ten-year period or of any extension thereof.

Before the application of any State is allowed or any contract or agreement is executed or any segregation of any of the land from the public domain is ordered by the Secretary of the Interior, the State shall file a map of the said land proposed to be irrigated which shall exhibit a plan showing the mode of the contemplated irrigation and which plan shall be sufficient to thoroughly irrigate and reclaim said land and prepare it to raise ordinary agricultural crops and shall also show the source of the water to be used for irrigation and reclamation, and the Secretary of the Interior may make necessary regulations for the reservation of the lands applied for by the States to date from the date of the filing of the map and plan of irrigation, but such reservation shall be of no force whatever if such map and plan of irrigation shall not be approved.

Any State contracting under this section is hereby authorized to make all necessary contracts to cause the said lands to be reclaimed, and to induce their settlement and cultivation in accordance with and subject to the provisions of this section; but the State shall not be authorized to lease any of said lands or to use or dispose of the same in any way whatever, except to secure their reclamation, cultivation and settlement.

As fast as any State may furnish satisfactory proof according to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, that any of said lands are irrigated, reclaimed and occupied by actual settlers, patents shall be issued to the State or its assigns for said lands so reclaimed and settled: Provided, That said States shall not sell or dispose of more than one hundred and sixty acres of said lands to any one person, and any surplus of money derived by any State from the sale of said lands in excess of the cost of their reclamation, shall be held as a trust fund for and be applied to the reclamation of other desert lands in such State. (Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 4, 28 Stat. 422; Jan. 6, 1921, c. 10, 41 Stat. 1085.)

642. Liens for expenses of reclamation.—Under any law heretofore or hereafter enacted by any State, providing for the reclamation of arid lands, in pursuance and acceptance of the terms of the grant made in the preceding section, a lien or liens is hereby authorized to be created by the State to which such lands are granted and by no other authority whatever, and when created shall be valid on and against the separate legal subdivisions of land reclaimed, for the actual cost and necessary expenses of reclamation and reasonable interest thereon from the date of reclamation until disposed of to actual settlers; and when an ample supply of water is actually furnished in a substantial ditch or canal, or by artesian wells or reservoirs, to reclaim a particular tract or tracts of such lands, then patents shall issue for the same to such State without regard to settlement or cultivation: Provided, That in no event, in no contingency, and under no circumstances shall the United States be in any manner directly or indirectly liable for any amount of any such lien or liability, in whole or in part. (June 11, 1896, c. 420, § 1, 29 Stat. 413.)

643. Temporary withdrawal from settlement or entry.—To aid in carrying out the purposes of section 1 of this chapter, it shall be lawful for the Secretary of the Interior, upon application by the proper officer of any State or Territory to which said section applies, to withdraw temporarily from settlement or entry areas embracing lands for which the State or Territory proposes to make application under said section, pending the investigation and survey preliminary to the filing of the maps and plats and application for segregation by the State or Territory: Provided, That if the State or Territory shall not present its application for segregation and maps and plats within one year after such temporary withdrawal the lands so withdrawn shall be restored to entry as though such withdrawal had not been made. (Mar. 15, 1910, c. 96, 36 Stat. 237.)

644. Preference right to entrymen under State laws.—The Secretary of the Interior, when restoring to the public domain lands that have been segregated to a State under sections 1 to 8, inclusive, of this chapter, is authorized, in his discretion and under such rules and regulations as he may establish to allow for not exceeding ninety days to any Carey Act entryman a preference right of entry under applicable land laws of any of such lands which such person had entered under and pursuant to the State laws providing for the administration of the grant under the Carey Act and upon which such person had established actual bona fide residence or had made substantial and permanent improvements: Provided, That each entryman shall be entitled to a credit as residence upon his new homestead entry allowed hereunder of the time that he has actually lived upon the claim as a bona fide resident thereof. (Feb. 14, 1920, c. 74, 41 Stat. 407.)

645. Additional arid lands available to Colorado, Idaho, Nevada, and Wyoming for reclamation.—An additional one million acres of arid lands within each of the States of Colorado, Idaho, Nevada, and Wyoming is made available and subject to the terms of section 1 of this chapter, and the States of Idaho and Wyoming are allowed under the provisions of said section said additional area or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purposes and under the provisions of said section. (May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 347; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1417; Aug. 21, 1911, No. 7, 37 Stat. 38.)

646. Grant extended to New Mexico and Arizona.—All the provisions of sections 1 to 3, inclusive, of this chapter, are extended to the States of New Mexico and Arizona, and the said States upon complying with the provisions of said section shall be entitled to have and receive all of the benefits therein conferred upon the States. (Feb. 18, 1909, c. 150, § 1, 35 Stat. 638.)

647. Grant extended to desert lands within part of former Ute Indian Reservation in Colorado.—The provision of sections 1 to 3, inclusive, of this chapter are extended over and shall apply to the desert lands within the limits of all that portion of the former Ute Indian Reservation, not included in any national forest, in the State of Colorado, described and embraced in the Act entitled "An Act relating to lands in Colorado lately occupied by the Uncompahgre and White River Ute Indians," approved July 28, 1882: Provided, That before a patent shall issue for any of the lands aforesaid under the terms of the said section the State of Colorado shall pay into the Treasury of the United States the sum of $1.25 per acre for the lands so patented, and the money so paid shall be subject to the provisions of section 3 of the Act of June 15, 1880, entitled "An Act to accept and ratify the agreements submitted by the confederated bands of Ute Indians in Colorado for the sale of their reservation in said State, and for other purposes, and to make the necessary appropriation for carrying out same."

No lands shall be included in any tract to be segregated under the provisions of this section on which the United States Government has valuable improvements, or which have been reserved for any Indian schools or farm purposes. (Feb. 24, 1909, c. 178, §§ 1, 2, 35 Stat. 645.)

648. Extension of time of segregation and reclamation in Oregon segregation lists.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, within his discretion, to extend for a period of not exceeding ten years the time of segregation in the Oregon Carey Act segregation lists numbered 6 and 19, the two areas comprising 147,714 acres, in the aggregate, approximately 86,000 acres of which are irrigable, same being situated in Crook County, Oregon: Provided, That the Secretary of the Interior is further authorized to grant to the State of Oregon a similar extension of ten years for the reclamation of said lands in addition to the time allotted under rules, regulations, contracts, and laws February 26, 1917.

The Secretary of the Interior is also authorized, within his discretion, to continue to not beyond January 12, 1929, the segregation of the lands embraced in approved Oregon segregation list numbered 13.

The Secretary of the Interior is also authorized within his discretion to continue to not beyond October 21, 1930, the segregation of the lands embraced in approved Oregon segregation list numbered 11. (Feb. 26, 1917, c. 124, 39 Stat. 942; Mar. 3, 1919, c. 114, 40 Stat. 1322; June 5, 1920, c. 249, 41 Stat. 987.)

Chapter 15.—APPROPRIATION OF WATERS; RESERVOIR SITES.

Sec.

661. Appropriation of waters on public lands; right of way for canals and ditches.
662. Reservation of reservoir sites generally.
663. Restriction of sites to inclusion of necessary lands.
664. Rights of way over reservoir sites generally.
665. Rights of way over reservoir sites, wagon road, railroad, or other highway.

Section 661. Appropriation of waters on public lands; right of way for canals and ditches.—Whenever, by priority of possession, rights to the use of water for mining, agricultural, manufacturing, or other purposes, have vested and accrued, and the same are recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws, and the decisions of courts, the possessors and owners of such vested rights shall be maintained and protected in the same; and the right of way for the construction of ditches and canals for the purposes herein specified is acknowledged and confirmed; but whenever any person, in the construction of any ditch or canal, injures or damages the possession of any settler on the public domain, the party committing such injury or damage shall be liable to the party injured for such injury or damage.

All patents granted, or preemption or homesteads allowed, shall be subject to any vested and accrued water rights, or rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection with such water rights, as may have been acquired under or recognized by this section. (R. S. §§ 2339, 2340.)

662. Reservation of reservoir sites generally.—Sites for reservoirs and other hydraulic works necessary for the storage and utilization of water for irrigation and the prevention of floods and overflows, located or selected prior to August 30, 1899, shall remain segregated and reserved from entry, or settlement, until otherwise provided by law, and reservoir sites thereafter located or selected on public lands shall in like manner be reserved from the date of the location or selection thereof: Provided, That the President may at any time in his discretion, by proclamation, open any portion or all of the lands reserved by this provision to settlement under the homestead laws. (Oct. 2, 1888, c. 1069, § 1, 25 Stat. 526; Aug. 30, 1890, c. 837, § 1, 26 Stat. 391.)

663. Restriction of sites to inclusion of necessary lands.—Reservoir sites located or selected and to be located and selected shall be restricted to and shall contain only so much land as is actually necessary for the construction and maintenance of reservoirs; excluding so far as practicable lands occupied by actual settlers at the date of the location of said reservoirs. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 17, 26 Stat. 1101.)

664. Rights of way over reservoir sites generally.—All reservoir sites reserved or to be reserved shall be open to use and occupation under sections 946 to 949, inclusive, of this title, and any State is hereby authorized to improve and occupy such reservoir sites to the same extent as an individual or private corporation, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe: Provided, That the charges for water coming in whole or part from reservoir sites used or occupied under the provisions of this section shall always be subject to the control and regulation of the respective States and Territories in which such reservoirs are in whole or part situate. (Feb. 26, 1897, c. 335, 29 Stat. 599.)

665. Rights of way over reservoir sites, wagon road, railroad, or other highway.—In the form provided by existing law the Secretary of the Interior may file and approve surveys and plats of any right of way for a wagon road, railroad, or other highway over and across any reservoir site when in his judgment the public interests will not be injuriously affected thereby. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 427, § 1, 30 Stat. 1233.)

Chapter 16.—SALE AND DISPOSAL OF THE PUBLIC LANDS.

Sec.

Sec.
697. Error in entry, selection, or location by mistake of numbers; procedure where final entries have been canceled.
698. Recovery of premiums paid.
699. Bill for discovery of agreements.
700. Private entry of lands forbidden; exceptions.

Section 671. Public sale forbidden; exceptions.—No public lands of the United States, except abandoned military or other reservations isolated and disconnected fractional tracts authorized to be sold by section 1171, and mineral and other lands the sale of which at public auction has been authorized by Acts of Congress of a special nature having local application, shall be sold at public sale. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 9, 26 Stat. 1099.)

672. Public sale in half quarter sections.—All the public lands, the sale of which is authorized by law, shall, when offered at public sale to the highest bidder, be offered in half quarter sections. (R. S. § 2353.)

673. Private sales.—All the public lands, when offered at private sale, may be purchased, at the option of the purchaser, in entire sections, half sections, quarter sections, half quarter sections, or quarter quarter sections. (R. S. § 2354; Mar. 2, 1889, c. 381, § 1, 25 Stat. 854.)

674. Memorandum in connection with application.—Every person making application at any of the land offices of the United States for the purchase at private sale of a tract of land shall produce to the register a memorandum in writing, describing the tract, which he shall enter by the proper number of the section, half section, quarter section, half quarter section, or quarter quarter section, as the case may be, and of the township and range, subscribing his name thereto, which memorandum the register shall file and preserve in his office. (R. S. § 2355.)

675. Private sale of lands in Missouri.—All public lands within the State of Missouri shall be subject to disposal at private sale in the manner provided by law for the sale of lands which have been publicly offered for sale, whether such lands have ever been offered at public sale or not: Provided, That the actual settlers shall have a preference right, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe. (May 18, 1898, c. 344, § 2, 30 Stat. 418.)

676. Highest bidder at private sale.—Where two or more persons apply for the purchase, at private sale, of the same tract, at the same time, the register shall determine the preference, by forthwith offering the tract to the highest bidder. (R. S. § 2365.)

677. Credit on sales.—Credit shall not be allowed for the purchase money on the sale of any of the public lands, but every purchaser of land sold at public sale shall, on the day of purchase, make complete payment therefor; and the purchaser at private sale shall produce to the register of the land office a receipt from the Treasurer of the United States, or from the register of the district, for the amount of the purchase money on any tract, before he enters the same at the land office; and if any person, being the highest bidder at public sale for a tract of land, fails to make payment therefor on the day on which the same was purchased, the tract shall be again offered at public sale on the next day of sale, and such person shall not be capable of becoming the purchaser of that or any other tract offered at such public sales. (R. S. § 2356; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

678. Price of lands.—The price at which the public lands are offered for sale shall be $1.25 an acre; and at every public sale, the highest bidder, who makes payment as provided in the preceding section, shall be the purchaser; but no land shall be sold, either at public or private sale, for a less price than $1.25 an acre; and all the public lands which are offered at public sale, according to law, and remain unsold at the close of such public sales, shall be subject to be sold at private sale, by entry at the land office, at $1.25 an acre, to be paid at the time of making such entry: Provided, That the price to be paid for alternate reserved lands, along the line of railroads within the limits granted by any Act of Congress, shall be $2.50 per acre. (R. S. § 2357; Mar. 2, 1889, c. 381, § 1, 25 Stat. 854.)

679. Price of alternate sections of railroad lands.—The price of lands subject to entry on June 15, 1880, and which were raised to $2.50 per acre, and put in market prior to January, 1861, by reason of the grant of alternate sections for railroad purposes is hereby reduced to $1.25 per acre. (June 15, 1880, c. 227, § 3, 21 Stat. 238.)

680. Mineral lands.—The preceding section shall not apply to any of the mineral lands of the United States; and no person who shall be prosecuted for or proceeded against on account of any trespass committed or material taken from any of the public lands after March 1, 1879, shall be entitled to the benefit thereof. (June 15, 1880, c. 227, § 4, 21 Stat. 238.)

681. Price of forfeited railroad lands and lands adjacent to railroad lands.—The price of all sections and parts of sections of the public lands within the limits of the portions of the several grants of lands to aid in the construction of railroads which have been or may be forfeited, which were by the Act making such grants or have since been increased to the double minimum price, and, also, of all lands within the limits of any such railroad grant, but not embraced in such grant lying adjacent to and coterminous with the portions of the line of any such railroad which was not completed on March 2, 1889, shall be $1.25 per acre. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 381, § 4, 25 Stat. 854.)

682. Sale for cemetery purposes.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to sell and convey to any religious or fraternal association, or private corporation, empowered by the laws under which such corporation or association is organized or incorporated to hold real estate for cemetery purposes, not to exceed eighty acres of any unappropriated nonmineral public lands of the United States for cemetery purposes, upon the payment therefor by such corporation or association of the sum of not less than $1.25 per acre: Provided, That title to any land disposed of under the provisions of this section shall revert to the United States, should the land or any part thereof be sold or cease to be used for the purpose herein provided. (Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2286, 34 Stat. 1052.)

683. Minimum price; how fixed when reservations sold.—Whenever any reservation of public lands is brought into market, the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall fix a minimum price, not less than $1.25 per acre, below which such lands shall not be disposed of. (R. S. § 2364.)

684. Offered for sale in proportions chosen by President.—Whenever the President is authorized to cause the public lands, in any land district, to be offered for sale, he may offer for sale, at first, only a part of the lands contained in such district, and at any subsequent time or times he may offer for sale in the same manner any other part, or the remainder of the lands contained in the same. (R. S. § 2358.)

685. Advertisement of sales.—The public lands which are exposed to public sale by order of the President shall be advertised for a period of not less than three nor more than six months prior to the day of sale, unless otherwise specially provided. (R. S. § 2359.)

686. Publication of proclamations of sales.—All executive proclamations relating to the sales of public lands shall be published in only one newspaper, the same to be printed and published in the State or Territory where the lands are situated, and to be designated by the Secretary of the Interior. (Jan. 12, 1877, c. 18, § 2, 19 Stat. 221.)

687. Duration of sales.—The public sales of lands shall, respectively, be kept open for two weeks, and no longer, unless otherwise specially provided by law. (R. S. § 2360.)

688. Several certificates to two or more purchasers of same section.—Where two or more persons have become purchasers of a section or fractional section, the register of the land office of the district in which the lands lie shall, on application of the parties, and a surrender of the original certificate, issue separate certificates, of the same date with the original, to each of the purchasers, or their assignees, in conformity with the division agreed on by them; but in no case shall the fractions so purchased be divided by other than north and south, or east and west, lines; nor shall any certificate issue for less than eighty acres. (R. S. § 2361.)

689. Refund of purchase money.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, upon proof being made, to his satisfaction, that any tract of land has been erroneously sold by the United States, so that from any cause the sale can not be confirmed, to repay to the purchaser, or to his legal representatives or assignees, the sum of money which was paid therefor, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated. (R. S. § 2362.)

690. Sources of funds for repayment.—Where any tract of land has been erroneously sold, as described in the preceding section, and the money which was paid for the same has been invested in any stocks held in trust, or has been paid into the Treasury to the credit of any trust fund, it is lawful, by the sale of such portion of the stocks as may be necessary for the purpose, or out of such trust fund, to repay the purchase money to the parties entitled thereto. (R. S. § 2363.)

691. Purchase of lands located in good faith by claims arising under treaty.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to permit the purchase, with cash or military bounty-land warrants, of such lands as may have been located with claims arising under the seventh clause of the second article of the treaty of September 30, 1854, at such price per acre as he deems equitable and proper, but not at a less price than $1.25 per acre, and the owners and holders of such claims in good faith are also permitted to complete their entries, and to perfect their titles under such claims upon compliance with the terms above mentioned; but it must be shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Interior that such claims are held by innocent parties in good faith, and that the locations made under such claims have been made in good faith and by innocent holders of the same. (R. S. § 2368.)

692. Coin receivable in payment.—The gold coins of Great Britain and other foreign coins shall be received in all payments on account of public lands, at the value estimated annually by the Director of the Mint, and proclaimed by the Secretary of the Treasury, in accordance with the provisions of section 372 of Title 31, MONEY AND FINANCE. (R. S. § 2366.)

693. Provisions for mistakes in entry.—In every case of a purchaser of public lands, at private sale, having entered at the land office, a tract different from that he intended to purchase, and being desirous of having the error in his entry corrected, he shall make his application for that purpose to the register of the land office; and if it appears from testimony satisfactory to the register, that an error in the entry has been made, and that the same was occasioned by original incorrect marks made by the surveyor, or by the obliteration or change of the original marks and numbers at corners of the tract of land; or that it has in any otherwise arisen from mistake or error of the surveyor, or officers of the land office, the register shall report the case, with the testimony, and their opinion thereon, to the Secretary of the Interior, who is authorized to direct that the purchaser is at liberty to withdraw the entry so erroneously made, and that the moneys which have been paid shall be applied in the purchase of other lands in the same district, or credited in the payment for other lands which have been purchased at the same office. (R. S. § 2369; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

694. Mistakes in patent lands.—The provisions of the preceding section shall extend to all cases where patents have issued or may hereafter issue; upon condition, however, that the party concerned surrenders his patent to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, with a relinquishment of title thereon, executed in a form to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior. (R. S. § 2370.)

695. Mistakes in location of warrants.—The provisions of the two preceding sections are made applicable in all respects to errors in the location of land-warrants. (R. S. § 2371.)

696. Agreements to pay premium to purchasers.—If any person before, or at the time of the public sale of any of the lands of the United States, enters into any contract, bargain, agreement, or secret understanding with any other person, proposing to purchase such land, to pay or give to such purchasers for such land a sum of money or other article of property, over and above the price at which the land is bid off by such purchasers, every such contract, bargain, agreement, or secret understanding, and every bond, obligation, or writing of any kind whatsoever, founded upon or growing out of the same, shall be utterly null and void. (R. S. § 2374.)

697. Error in entry, selection or location by mistake of numbers; procedure where final entries have been canceled.—In all cases where an entry, selection, or location has been or shall be made of a tract of land not intended to be entered, the entryman, selector, or locator, or, in case of his death, his legal representatives, or, when the claim is by law transferable, his or their transferees, may, in any case coming within the provisions of this section, file his or their affidavit, with such additional evidence as can be procured showing the mistake as to the numbers of the tract intended to be entered and that every reasonable precaution and exertion was used to avoid the error, with the register of the land district in which such tract of land is situate, who shall transmit the evidence submitted to them, in each case, together with his written opinion both as to the existence of the mistake and the credibility of every person testifying thereto, to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, who, if he be entirely satisfied that the mistake has been made and that every reasonable precaution and exertion has been made to avoid it, is authorized to change the entry and transfer the payment from the tract erroneously entered to that intended to be entered, if the same has not been disposed of and is subject to entry, or, if not subject to entry, then to any other tract liable to such entry, selection, or location; but the oath of the person interested shall in no case be deemed sufficient, in the absence of other corroborating testimony, to authorize such change of entry, nor shall anything herein contained affect the right of third persons.

In all cases where a final entry of public lands has been or may be canceled, and such entry is held by the Land Department or by a court of competent jurisdiction to have been confirmed under section 1165, if the land has been disposed of to or appropriated by a claimant under the homestead or desert-land laws, or patented to a claimant under other public-land laws, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized, in his discretion, and under rules to be prescribed by him, to change the entry and transfer the payment to any other tract of surveyed public land, nonmineral in character, free from lawful claim, and otherwise subject to general disposition: Provided, That the entryman, his heirs, or assigns shall file a relinquishment of all right, title, and interest in and to the land originally entered: Provided further, That no right or claim under the provisions of this paragraph shall be assignable or transferable. (R. S. § 2372; Feb. 24, 1909, c. 181, 35 Stat. 645; Jan. 27, 1922, c. 33, 42 Stat. 359; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

698. Recovery of premiums paid.—Every person being a party to such contract, bargain, agreement, or secret understanding, who pays to such purchaser any sum of money or other article of value, over and above the purchase money of such land, may sue for and recover such excess from such purchaser in any court having jurisdiction of the same. (R. S. § 2375.)

699. Bill for discovery of agreements.—If the party aggrieved have no legal evidence of such contract, bargain, agreement, or secret understanding, or of the payment of the excess, he may, by bill in equity, compel such purchaser to make discovery thereof; and if in such case the complainant shall ask for relief, the court in which the bill is pending may proceed to final decree between the parties to the same; but every such suit either in law or equity shall be commenced within six years next after the sale of such land by the United States. (R. S. § 2376.)

700. Private entry of lands forbidden; exceptions.—No public lands of the United States, except those in the State of Missouri shall be subject to private entry. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 381, § 1, 25 Stat. 854.)

Chapter 17.—RESERVATION AND SALE OF TOWN SITES ON THE PUBLIC LANDS.

Sec.
711. Town sites to be reserved.
712. Reservations surveyed into lots.
713. Town or city sites.
714. Towns established on unsurveyed lands; extension limits.
715. Transcript maps not filed in twelve months.
716. Size of lots or plat varying from general rule.
717. Title to lots subject to mineral rights.
718. Entry of town authorities in trust for occupants.
719. When entry is to be made.
720. Entry in proportion to number of inhabitants.
721. Acts of trustees.
722. Title acquired to mines or mining claims.
723. Military or other reservations.
724. Inhabitants of towns on public lands; right to enter.
725. Quantity of land excluded from homestead entry.
726. Town site exceeding maximum; excess opened to settlement.
727. Town site less than maximum; additional entry.
728. Town-site entries on mineral lands; title to minerals and claims not acquired.
729. Entries by cities and towns for cemetery and park purposes.
730. Patents to transferees of town lots purchased at public sale.

Section 711. Town sites to be reserved.—The President is authorized to reserve from the public lands, whether surveyed or unsurveyed, town sites on the shores of harbors, at the junction of rivers, important portages, or any natural or prospective centers of population. (R. S. § 2380.)

712. Reservations surveyed into lots.—When, in the opinion of the President, the public interests require it, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior to cause any of such reservations, or part thereof, to be surveyed into urban or suburban lots of suitable size, and to fix by appraisement of disinterested persons their cash value, and to offer the same for sale at public outcry to the highest bidder, and thence afterward to be held subject to sale at private entry according to such regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe; but no lot shall be disposed of at public sale or private entry for less than the appraised value thereof. And all such sales shall be conducted by the register of the land office in the district in which the reservations may be situated, in accordance with the instructions of the Commissioner of the General Land Office. (R. S. § 2381; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

713. Town or city sites.—In any case in which parties have already founded, or may hereafter desire to found, a city or town on the public lands, it may be lawful for them to cause to be filed with the recorder for the county in which the same is situated, a plat thereof, for not exceeding six hundred and forty acres, describing its exterior boundaries according to the lines of the public surveys, where such surveys have been executed; also giving the name of such city or town, and exhibiting the streets, squares, blocks, lots, and alleys, the size of the same, with measurements and area of each municipal subdivision, the lots in which shall each not exceed four thousand two hundred square feet, with a statement of the extent and general character of the improvements; such map and statement to be verified under oath by the party acting for and in behalf of the persons proposing to establish such city or town; and within one month after such filing there shall be transmitted to the General Land Office a verified transcript of such map and statement, accompanied by the testimony of two witnesses that such city or town has been established in good faith, and when the premises are within the limits of an organized land district, a similar map and statement shall be filed with the register, and at any time after the filing of such map, statement, and testimony in the General Land Office it may be lawful for the President to cause the lots embraced within the limits of such city or town to be offered at public sale to the highest bidder, subject to a minimum of $10 for each lot; and such lots as may not be disposed of at public sale shall thereafter be liable to private entry at such minimum, or at such reasonable increase or diminution thereafter as the Secretary of the Interior may order from time to time, after at least three months' notice, in view of the increase or decrease in the value of the municipal property. (R. S. § 2382; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

714. Towns established on unsurveyed lands; extension limits.—When such cities or towns are established upon unsurveyed lands, it may be lawful, after the extension thereto of the public surveys, to adjust the extension limits of the premises according to those lines, where it can be done without interference with rights which may be vested by sale; and patents for all lots so disposed of at public or private sale shall issue as in ordinary cases. (R. S. § 2383.)

715. Transcript maps not filed in twelve months.—If within twelve months from the establishment of a city or town on the public domain, the parties interested refuse or fail to file in the General Land Office a transcript map, with the statement and testimony called for by the provisions of section 713, it may be lawful for the Secretary of the Interior to cause a survey and plat to be made of such city or town, and thereafter the lots in the same shall be disposed of as required by such provisions, with this exception, that they shall each be at an increase of 50 per centum on the minimum of $10 per lot. (R. S. § 2384.)

716. Size of lots or plat varying from general rule.—In the case of any city or town, in which the lots may be variant as to size from the limitation fixed in section 713, and in which the lots and buildings, as municipal improvements, cover an area greater than six hundred and forty acres, such variance as to size of lots or excess in area shall prove no bar to such city or town claim under the provisions of that section; but the minimum price of each lot in such city or town, which may contain a greater number of square feet than the maximum named in that section, shall be increased to such reasonable amount as the Secretary of the Interior may by rule establish. (R. S. § 2385.)

717. Title to lots subject to mineral rights.—Where mineral veins are possessed, which possession is recognized by local authority, and to the extent so possessed and recognized, the title to town lots to be acquired shall be subject to such recognized possession and the necessary use thereof; but nothing contained in this section shall be so construed as to recognize any color of title in possessors for mining purposes as against the United States. (R. S. § 2386.)

718. Entry of town authorities in trust for occupants.—Whenever any portion of the public lands have been or may be settled upon and occupied as a town site, it is lawful, in case such town be incorporated, for the corporate authorities thereof, and, if not incorporated, for the judge of the county court for the county in which such town is situated, to enter at the proper land office, and at the minimum price, the land so settled and occupied in trust for the several use and benefit of the occupants thereof, according to their respective interests; the execution of which trust, as to the disposal of the lots in such town, and the proceeds of the sales thereof, to be conducted under such regulations as may be prescribed by the legislative authority of the State or Territory in which the same may be situated. (R. S. § 2387; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 4, 26 Stat. 1097.)

719. When entry is to be made.—The entry of the land provided for in the preceding section shall be made, or a declaratory statement of the purpose of the inhabitants to enter it as a town site shall be filed with the register of the proper land office, prior to the commencement of the public sale of the body of land in which it is included, and the entry or declaratory statement shall include only such land as is actually occupied by the town, and the title to which is in the United States; but in any Territory in which a land office may not have been established, such declaratory statements may be filed with the Field Surveying Service of the district in which the lands are situated; who shall transmit the same to the General Land Office. (R. S. § 2388; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

720. Entry in proportion to number of inhabitants.—If upon surveyed lands, the entry shall in its exterior limit be made in conformity to the legal subdivisions of the public lands authorized by law; and where the inhabitants are in number one hundred, and less than two hundred, shall embrace not exceeding three hundred and twenty acres; and in cases where the inhabitants of such town are more than two hundred, and less than one thousand, shall embrace not exceeding six hundred and forty acres; and where the number of inhabitants is one thousand and over one thousand, shall embrace not exceeding twelve hundred and eighty acres; but for each additional one thousand inhabitants, not exceeding five thousand in all, a further grant of three hundred and twenty acres shall be allowed. (R. S. § 2389.)

721. Acts of trustees.—Any act of the trustees not made in conformity to the regulations alluded to in section 718 shall be void. (R. S. § 2391.)

722. Title acquired to mines or mining claims.—No title shall be acquired, under the provisions of sections 711 to 721, inclusive, to any mine of gold, silver, cinnabar, or copper; or to any valid mining claim or possession held under laws existing on March 2, 1867. (R. S. § 2392.)

723. Military or other reservations.—The provisions of sections 711 to 724, inclusive, shall not apply to military or other reservations made by the United States prior to March 2, 1867, nor to reservations for lighthouses, customhouses, mints, or such other public purposes as the interests of the United States may require, whether held under reservations through the Land Office by title derived from the Crown of Spain, or otherwise. (R. S. § 2393.)

724. Inhabitants of towns on public lands; right to enter.—The inhabitants of any town located on the public lands may avail themselves, if the town authorities choose to do so, of the provisions of sections 718, 719, and 720; and in addition to the minimum price of the lands embracing any town site so entered, there shall be paid by the parties availing themselves of such provisions all costs of surveying and platting any such town site, and expenses incident thereto incurred by the United States, before any patent issues therefor; but nothing contained in the sections herein cited shall prevent the issuance of patents to persons who have made or may hereafter make entries, and elect to proceed under other laws relative to town sites set forth in sections 711 to 724, inclusive. (R. S. § 2394.)

725. Quantity of land excluded from homestead entry.—The existence or incorporation of any town upon the public lands of the United States shall not be held to exclude from homestead entry a greater quantity than twenty-five hundred and sixty acres of land, or the maximum area which may be entered as a town site under existing laws, unless the entire tract claimed or incorporated as such town site shall, including and in excess of the area above specified, be actually settled upon, inhabited, improved, and used for business and municipal purposes. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 113, § 1, 19 Stat. 392; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 4, 20 Stat. 1097.)

726. Town site exceeding maximum; excess opened to settlement.—Whenever the corporate limits of any town upon the public domain are shown or alleged to include lands in excess of the maximum area specified in section 725, the Commissioner of the General Land Office may require the authorities of such town, and it shall be lawful for them, to elect what portion of said lands, in compact form and embracing the actual site of the municipal occupation and improvement, shall be withheld from homestead entry; and thereafter the residue of such lands shall be open to disposal under the homestead laws. And upon default of said town authorities to make such selection within sixty days after notification by the commissioner, he may direct testimony respecting the actual location and extent of said improvements, to be taken by the register of the district in which such town may be situated; and, upon receipt of the same, he may determine and set off the proper site according to section 725, and declare the remaining lands open to settlement and entry under the homestead laws. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 113, § 3, 19 Stat. 392; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 4, 26 Stat. 1097; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

727. Town site less than maximum; additional entry.—It shall be lawful for any town which has made, or may hereafter make entry of less than the maximum quantity of land named in section 720 to make such additional entry, or entries, of contiguous tracts, which may be occupied for town purposes as when added to the entry or entries theretofore made will not exceed twenty-five hundred and sixty acres: Provided, That such additional entry shall not together with all prior entries be in excess of the area to which the town may be entitled at date of the additional entry by virtue of its population as prescribed in said section 720. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 113, § 4, 19 Stat. 392.)

728. Town-site entries on mineral lands; title to minerals and claims not acquired.—Town-site entries may be made by incorporated towns and cities on the mineral lands of the United States, but no title shall be acquired by such towns or cities to any vein of gold, silver, cinnabar, copper, or lead, or to any valid mining claim or possession held under the law existing on March 3, 1891. When mineral veins are possessed within the limits of an incorporated town or city, and such possession is recognized by local authority or by the laws of the United States, the title to town lots shall be subject to such recognized possession and the necessary use thereof and when entry has been made or patent issued for such town sites to such incorporated town or city, the possessor of such mineral vein may enter and receive patent for such mineral vein, and the surface ground appertaining thereto: Provided, That no entry shall be made by such mineral-vein claimant for surface ground where the owner or occupier of the surface ground shall have had possession of the same before the inception of the title of the mineral-vein applicant. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 16, 26 Stat. 1101.)

729. Entries by cities and towns for cemetery and park purposes.—Incorporated cities and towns shall have the right, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, to purchase for cemetery and park purposes not exceeding one-quarter section of public lands not reserved for public use, such lands to be within three miles of such cities or towns: Provided, That when such city or town is situated within a mining district, the land proposed to be taken under this section shall be considered as mineral lands, and patent to such land shall not authorize such city or town to extract mineral therefrom, but all such mineral shall be reserved to the United States, and such reservation shall be entered into such patent. (Sept. 30, 1890, c. 1121, 26 Stat. 502.)

730. Patents to transferees of town lots purchased at public sale.—In all cases where town lots were sold by the United States at public sale, and the purchaser at such sale had transferred his interest in any such lot prior to the 11th day of October, 1911, and patent has not been issued in the name of the original purchaser, the Commissioner of the General Land Office may issue a patent in the name of the transferee where full payment of the purchase price has been made and satisfactory evidence of the transfer has been furnished: Provided, That it be shown that the original purchaser is dead, or that after due inquiry his whereabouts cannot be ascertained, and that the instrument of transfer given by the original purchaser has been lost or destroyed. (July 9, 1914, c. 138, 38 Stat. 454.)

771. Compensation by the day in Oregon and California.
772. Resurveys or retracements to mark boundaries of lands undisposed of.
773. Resurveys or retracements of township lines, etc.
774. Protection of surveyor by marshal.

Section 751. Rules of survey.—The public lands shall be divided by north and south lines run according to the true meridian, and by others crossing them at right angles, so as to form townships of six miles square, unless where the line of an Indian reservation, or of tracts of land surveyed or patented prior to May 18, 1796, or the course of navigable rivers, may render this impracticable; and in that case this rule must be departed from no further than such particular circumstances require.

Second. The corners of the townships must be marked with progressive numbers from the beginning; each distance of a mile between such corners must be also distinctly marked with marks different from those of the corners.

Third. The township shall be subdivided into sections, containing, as nearly as may be, six hundred and forty acres each, by running through the same, each way, parallel lines at the end of every two miles; and by making a corner on each of such lines, at the end of every mile. The sections shall be numbered respectively, beginning with the number one in the northeast section and proceeding west and east alternately through the township with progressive numbers till the thirty-six be completed.

Fourth. The deputy surveyors, respectively, shall cause to be marked on a tree near each corner established in the manner described, and within the section, the number of such section, and over it the number of the township within which such section may be; and the deputy surveyors shall carefully note, in their respective field books, the names of the cornertrees marked and the numbers so made.

Fifth. Where the exterior lines of the townships which may be subdivided into sections or half-sections exceed, or do not extend six miles, the excess or deficiency shall be specially noted, and added to or deducted from the western and northern ranges of sections or half-sections in such township, according as the error may be in running the lines from east to west, or from north to south; the sections and half-sections bounded on the northern and western lines of such townships shall be sold as containing only the quantity expressed in the returns and plats respectively, and all others as containing the complete legal quantity.

Sixth. All lines shall be plainly marked upon trees, and measured with chains, containing two perches of sixteen and one-half feet each, subdivided into twenty-five equal links; and the chain shall be adjusted to a standard to be kept for that purpose.

Seventh. Every surveyor shall note in his field book the true situations of all mines, salt licks, salt springs, and mill-seats which come to his knowledge; all watercourses over which the line he runs may pass; and also the quality of the lands.

Eighth. These field books shall be returned to the Field Surveying Service, which shall cause therefrom a description of the whole lands surveyed to be made out and transmitted to the officers who may superintend the sales. He shall also cause a fair plat to be made of the townships and fractional parts of townships contained in the lands, describing the subdivisions thereof, and the marks of the corners. This plat shall be recorded in books to be kept for that purpose; and a copy thereof shall be kept open at the office of the Field Surveying Service for public information, and other copies shall be sent to the places of the sale, and to the General Land Office. (R. S. § 2395; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

752. Boundaries and contents of public lands; how ascertained.—The boundaries and contents of the several sections, half-sections, and quarter-sections of the public lands shall be ascertained in conformity with the following principles:

First. All the corners marked in the surveys, returned by the Field Surveying Service, shall be established as the proper corners of sections, or subdivisions of sections, which they were intended to designate; and the corners of half and quarter sections, not marked on the surveys, shall be placed as nearly as possible equidistant from two corners which stand on the same line.

Second. The boundary lines, actually run and marked in the surveys returned by the Field Surveying Service, shall be established as the proper boundary lines of the sections, or subdivisions, for which they were intended, and the length of such lines, as returned, shall be held and considered as the true length thereof. And the boundary lines which have not been actually run and marked shall be ascertained, by running straight lines from the established corners to the opposite corresponding corners; but in those portions of the fractional townships where no such opposite corresponding corners have been or can be fixed, the boundary lines shall be ascertained by running from the established corners due north and south or east and west lines, as the case may be, to the watercourse, Indian boundary line, or other external boundary of such fractional township.

Third. Each section or subdivision of section, the contents whereof have been returned by the Field Surveying Service, shall be held and considered as containing the exact quantity expressed in such return; and the half sections and quarter sections, the contents whereof shall not have been thus returned, shall be held and considered as containing the one-half or the one-fourth part, respectively, of the returned contents of the section of which they may make part. (R. S. § 2396; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

753. Lines of division of half quarter sections; how run.—In every case of the division of a quarter section the line for the division thereof shall run north and south, and the corners and contents of half quarter sections which may thereafter be sold, shall be ascertained in the manner and on the principles directed and prescribed by the section preceding, and fractional sections containing one hundred and sixty acres or upwards shall in like manner as nearly as practicable be subdivided into half quarter sections, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, and in every case of a division of a half quarter section, the line for the division thereof shall run east and west, and the corners and contents of quarter quarter sections, which may thereafter be sold, shall be ascertained as nearly as may be, in the manner, and on the principles, directed and prescribed by the section preceding; and fractional sections containing fewer or more than one hundred and sixty acres shall in like manner, as nearly as may be practicable, be subdivided into quarter quarter sections, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior. (R. S. § 2397.)

754. Contracts for surveys; when binding.—Contracts for the survey of the public lands shall not become binding upon the United States until approved by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, except in such cases as the commissioner may otherwise specially order. (R. S. § 2398.)

755. Contract for survey; instructions deemed part of.—The printed manual of surveying instructions for the survey of the public lands of the United States and private land claims, prepared at the General Land Office, and bearing date January 1, 1902, the instructions of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and the special instructions of the Field Surveying Service, when not in conflict with said printed manual or the instructions of said commissioner, shall be taken and deemed to be a part of every contract for surveying the public lands of the United States and private land claims. (R. S. § 2399; Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1262, 26 Stat. 650; Aug. 15, 1894, c. 288, 28 Stat. 285; Apr. 26, 1902, c. 592, 32 Stat. 120; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

756. Prices of surveys; how established.—The Commissioner of the General Land Office has power, and it shall be his duty, to fix the prices per mile for public surveys, which shall in no case exceed the maximum established by law. (R. S. § 2400; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 130, § 1, 18, Stat. 384.)

757. Cost of survey of private land claims to be reported and paid.—An accurate account shall be kept by the Field Surveying Service of the cost of surveying and platting every private land claim to be reported to the General Land Office with the map of such claim; and a patent shall not issue nor shall any copy of any such survey be furnished for any such private claim until the cost of survey and platting shall have been paid into the Treasury of the United States by the party or parties in interest in said grant or by any other party. (July 31, 1876, c. 246, 19 Stat. 121; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

758. Delivery of patent contingent on refund of cost of survey.—In all cases of the survey of private land claims the cost of the same shall be refunded to the Treasury by the owner before the delivery of the patent. (Mar. 3, 1885, c. 360, 23 Stat. 499.)

759. When survey may be had by settlers in township.—When the settlers in any township not mineral or reserved by the Government, or persons and associations lawfully possessed of coal lands and otherwise qualified to make entry thereof, or when the owners or grantees of public lands of the United States, under any law thereof, desire a survey made of the same under the authority of the Field Surveying Service and shall file an application therefor in writing, and shall deposit in a proper United States depository to the credit of the United States a sum sufficient to pay for such survey, together with all expenditures incident thereto, without cost or claim for indemnity on the United States, it shall be lawful for the Field Surveying Service, under such instructions as may be given by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and in accordance with law, to survey such township or such public lands owned by said grantees of the Government, and make return therefor to the general and proper local land office: Provided, That no application shall be granted unless the township so proposed to be surveyed is within the range of the regular progress of the public surveys embraced by existing standard lines or bases for township and subdivisional surveys. (R. S. § 2401; Aug. 20, 1894, c. 302, § 1, 28 Stat. 423; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

760. Deposit for expenses deemed an appropriation.—The deposit of money in a proper United States depository, under the provisions of the preceding section, shall be deemed an appropriation of the sums so deposited for the objects contemplated by that section, and the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to cause the sums so deposited to be placed to the credit of the proper appropriations for the surveying service; but any excesses in such sums over and above the actual cost of the surveys, comprising all expenses incident thereto, for which they were severally deposited, shall be repaid to the depositors respectively. (R. S. § 2402.)

761. Repayment of excess of deposits to cover cost of surveys of mineral lands.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of the moneys heretofore or hereafter covered into the Treasury from deposits made by individuals to cover cost of work performed and to be performed in the offices of the United States Field Surveying Service in connection with the survey of mineral lands, any excess in the amount deposited over and above the actual cost of the work performed, including all expenses incident thereto for which the deposits were severally made or the whole of any unused deposit; and such sums, as the several cases may be, shall be deemed to be annually and permanently appropriated for that purpose. Such repayments shall be made to the person or persons who made the several deposits, or to his or their legal representatives, after the completion or abandonment of the work for which the deposits were made, and upon an account certified by the Field Surveying Service of the district in which the mineral land surveyed, or sought to be surveyed is situated and approved by the Commissioner of the General Land Office. (Feb. 24, 1909, c. 180, 35 Stat. 645; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

762. Deposits made by settlers for surveys to go in part payment of lands.—Where settlers or owners or grantees of public lands make deposits in accordance with the provisions of section 759, certificates shall be issued for such deposits which may be used by settlers in part payment for the lands settled upon by them, the survey of which is paid for out of such deposits, or said certificates may be assigned by indorsement and may be received by the Government in payment for any public lands of the United States in the States where the surveys were made, entered or to be entered under the laws thereof. (R. S. § 2403; Apr. 27, 1876, c. 84, 19 Stat. 38; Mar. 3, 1879, c. 170, 20 Stat. 352; Aug. 20, 1894, c. 302, § 2, 28 Stat. 423.)

763. Deposits in Louisiana applicable to resurveys.—Such sums as have been or may be deposited for surveys in Louisiana by actual settlers, under sections 759, 760 and 762, may be, in whole or in part, employed in making such resurveys as may be necessary in the discretion of the Commissioner of the General Land Office. (Aug. 7, 1882, c. 433, § 1, 22 Stat. 327.)

764. Augmented rates for surveys of forest lands; Oregon.—The Commissioner of the General Land Office may authorize, in his discretion, public lands in Oregon, densely covered with forests or thick undergrowth, to be surveyed at augmented rates, not exceeding $18 per mile for standard parallels, $15 for townships, and $12 for section lines. (R. S. § 2404.)

765. Augmented rates for surveys of forest lands; California and Washington.—The Commissioner of the General Land Office, in his discretion, may authorize public lands in California and Washington, densely covered with forests or thick undergrowth, to be surveyed at augmented rates, not exceeding $18 per linear mile for standard parallels, $16 for townships, and $14 for section lines. (R. S. § 2405.)

766. Geological surveys, extension of public surveys, expenses of subdividing.—There shall be no further geological survey by the Government, unless authorized by law. The public surveys shall extend over all mineral lands; and all subdividing of surveyed lands into lots less than one hundred and sixty acres may be done by county and local surveyors at the expense of claimants; but nothing in this section contained shall require the survey of waste or useless lands. (R. S. § 2406.)

767. Surveys on watercourses in certain cases.—Whenever, in the opinion of the President, a departure from the ordinary method of surveying land on any river, lake, bayou, or watercourse would promote the public interest, he may direct the Field Surveying Service of the district in which such land is situated, and where the change is intended to be made, to cause the lands thus situated to be surveyed in tracts of two acres in width, fronting on any river, bayou, lake, or watercourse, and running back the depth of forty acres; which tracts of land so surveyed shall be offered for sale entire, instead of in half quarter sections, and in the usual manner and on the same terms in all respects as the other public lands of the United States. (R. S. § 2407; Mar. 3. 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

768. Lines in Nevada.—In extending the surveys of the public lands in the State of Nevada, the Secretary of the Interior may vary the lines of the subdivisions from a rectangular form, to suit the circumstances of the country. (R. S. § 2408.)

769. Geodetic method of survey in Oregon and California.—The Secretary of the Interior, if he deems it advisable, is authorized to continue the surveys in Oregon and California, to be made after what is known as the geodetic method, under such regulations and upon such terms as have been or may hereafter be prescribed by the Commissioner of the General Land Office; but none other than township lines shall be run where the land is unfit for cultivation; nor shall any deputy surveyor charge for any line except such as may be actually run and marked, or for any line not necessary to be run. (R. S. § 2409.)

770. Rectangular mode of survey; when departed from.—Whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Interior, a departure from the rectangular mode of surveying and subdividing the public lands in California would promote the public interests, he may direct such change to be made in the mode of surveying and designating such lands as he deems proper, with reference to the existence of mountains, mineral deposits, and the advantages derived from timber and water privileges; but such lands shall not be surveyed into less than one hundred and sixty acres, or subdivided into less than forty acres. (R. S. § 2410.)

771. Compensation by the day in Oregon and California.—Whenever the public surveys, or any portion of them, in the States of Oregon and California, are so required to be made as to render it expedient to make compensation for the surveying thereof by the day instead of by the mile, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner of the General Land Office, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, to make such fair and reasonable allowance as, in his judgment, may be necessary to insure the accurate and faithful execution of the work. (R. S. § 2411.)

772. Resurveys or retracements to mark boundaries of lands undisposed of.—The Secretary of the Interior may, as of March 3, 1909, in his discretion cause to be made, as he may deem wise under the rectangular system on that date provided by law, such resurveys or retracements of the surveys of public lands as, after full investigation, he may deem essential to properly mark the boundaries of the public lands remaining undisposed of: Provided, That no such resurvey or retracement shall be so executed as to impair the bona fide rights or claims of any claimant, entryman, or owner of lands affected by such resurvey or retracement: Provided further, That not to exceed 20 per cent of the total annual appropriation for surveys and resurveys of the public lands shall be used for the resurveys and retracements authorized hereby. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 271, 35 Stat. 845; June 25, 1910, No. 40, 36 Stat. 884.)

773. Resurveys or retracements of township lines, etc.—Upon the application of the owners of three-fourths of the privately owned lands in any township covered by public-land surveys, more than 50 per centum of the area of which townships is privately owned, accompanied by a deposit with the United States Field Surveying Service for the proper State, or if there be no Field Surveying Service in such State, then with the Commissioner of the General Land Office, of the proportionate estimated cost, inclusive of the necessary work, of the resurvey or retracement of all the privately owned lands in said township, the Commissioner of the General Land Office, subject to the supervisory authority of the Secretary of the Interior, shall be authorized in his discretion to cause to be made a resurvey or retracement of the lines of said township and to set permanent corners and monuments in accordance with the laws and regulations governing surveys and resurveys of public lands. The sum so deposited shall be held by the Field Surveying Service or commissioner and may be expended in payment of the cost of such survey, including field and office work, and any excess over the cost of such survey and the expenses incident thereto shall be repaid pro rata to the person making said deposits or their legal representatives. The proportionate cost of the field and office work for the resurvey or retracement of any public lands in such township shall be paid from the current appropriation for the survey and resurvey of public lands, in addition to the portion of such appropriation otherwise allowed by law for resurveys and retracements. Similar resurveys and retracements may be made on the application, accompanied by the requisite deposit, of any court of competent jurisdiction, the returns of such resurvey or retracement to be submitted to the court. The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to make all necessary rules and regulations to carry this section into full force and effect. (Sept. 21, 1918, c. 175, 40 Stat. 965; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

774. Protection of surveyor by marshal.—Whenever the President is satisfied that forcible opposition has been offered, or is likely to be offered, to any surveyor or deputy surveyor in the discharge of his duties in surveying the public lands, it may be lawful for the President to order the marshal of the State or district, by himself or deputy, to attend such surveyor or deputy surveyor with sufficient force to protect such officer in the execution of his duty, and to remove force should any be offered. (R. S. § 2413.)

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 781. Investigation of frauds.—The Commissioner of Pensions is authorized to detail from time to time clerks or persons employed in his office to make special examinations into the merits of bounty land claims, whether pending or adjudicated, as he may deem proper, and to aid in the prosecution of any party appearing on such examinations to be guilty of fraud, either in the presentation or in procuring the allowance of such claims; and any person so detailed shall have power to administer oaths and take affidavits and depositions in the course of such examinations, and to orally examine witnesses, and may employ a stenographer, when deemed necessary by the Commissioner of Pensions, in important cases, such stenographer to be paid by such clerk or person, and the amount so paid to be allowed in his accounts. (R. S. § 4744; July 25, 1882, c. 349, § 2, 22 Stat. 175.)

782. Regulations by Secretary of Interior.—The Secretary of the Interior is required to prescribe such regulations for carrying the provisions of this chapter into effect as he may deem necessary and proper in order to protect the Government against imposition and fraud by persons claiming the benefit thereof; and all laws and parts of laws for the punishment of frauds against the United States are made applicable to frauds under that section. (R. S. § 2442.)

783. Bounty warrants and indemnity certificates receivable in payment for lands.—In addition to the benefits otherwise given thereto by law, all unsatisfied military bounty-land warrants under any Act of Congress, and unsatisfied indemnity certificates of location under the Act of Congress approved June 2, 1858, shall be receivable at the rate of $1.25 per acre in payment or part payment for any lands entered under the desert-land law (chapter 9 of this title); the timber and stone law (chapter 8 of this title); or for lands which may be sold at public auction, except such lands as shall have been purchased from any Indian tribe within ten years prior to December 13, 1894. (Dec. 13, 1894, c. 3, 28 Stat. 594.)

784. Duty of Commissioner of Pensions to execute bounty-land laws.—The Commissioner of Pensions shall perform, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, such duties in the execution of the various bounty-land laws as may be prescribed by the President. (R. S. § 471.)

785. Person to sign bounty-land warrants.—The Commissioner of Pensions is authorized, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, to appoint a person to sign the name of the commissioner to certificates or warrants for bounty lands; and certificates or warrants so signed shall be as valid as if signed by the commissioner. (R. S. § 473.)

786. Printed instructions furnished free.—The Commissioner of Pensions, on application being made to him in person, or by letter, by any claimant or applicant for bounty land, or other allowance required by law to be adjusted or paid by the Pension Office, shall furnish such person, free of all expense, all such printed instructions and forms as may be necessary in establishing and obtaining said claim; and on the issuing of a bounty-land warrant, he shall forthwith notify the claimant or applicant, and also the agent or attorney in the case, if there be one, that such allowance has been made, and the date and amount thereof. (R. S. § 4748.)

787. False certification of documents; false affidavit and postdating vouchers; false certificate to vouchers.—Every person before whom any declaration, affidavit, voucher, or other paper or writing to be used in aid of the prosecution of any claim for bounty land or payment thereof purports to have been executed who shall knowingly certify that the declarant, affiant, or witness named in such declaration, affidavit, voucher, or other paper or writing personally appeared before him and was sworn thereto, or acknowledged the execution thereof, when, in fact, such declarant, affiant, or witness did not personally appear before him or was not sworn thereto, or did not acknowledge the execution thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500, or by imprisonment for a term of not more than five years. (R. S. § 4746; July 7, 1898, c. 578, 30 Stat. 718.)

RIGHT TO BOUNTY; AMOUNT

791. Service in War of 1812 and certain Indian wars; amount of bounty.—Each of the surviving, or the widow or minor children of deceased commissioned and noncommissioned officers, musicians, or privates, whether of regulars, volunteers, rangers, or militia, who performed military service in any regiment, company, or detachment, in the service of the United States, in the war with Great Britain, declared on the 18th day of June, 1812, or in any of the Indian wars since 1790, and prior to the 3d of March, 1850, and each of the commissioned officers who was engaged in the military service of the United States in the war with Mexico, shall be entitled to lands as follows: Those who engaged to serve twelve months or during the war, and actually served nine months, shall receive one hundred and sixty acres, and those who engaged to serve six months, and actually served four months, shall receive eighty acres, and those who engaged to serve for any or an indefinite period, and actually served one month, shall receive forty acres; but wherever any officer or soldier was honorably discharged in consequence of disability contracted in the service, before the expiration of his period of service, he shall receive the amount to which he would have been entitled if he had served the full period for which he had engaged to serve. All the persons enumerated in this section who enlisted in the regular army, or were mustered in any volunteer company for a period of not less than twelve months, and who served in the war with Mexico and received an honorable discharge, or who were killed or died of wounds received or sickness incurred in the course of such service, or were discharged before the expiration of the term of service in consequence of wounds received or sickness incurred in the course of such service, shall be entitled to receive a certificate or warrant for one hundred and sixty acres of land: or at option Treasury script for one hundred dollars bearing interest at 6 per centum per annum, payable semiannually, at the pleasure of the Government. In the event of the death of any one of the persons mentioned in this section during service, or after his discharge, and before the issuing of a certificate or warrant, the warrant or script shall be issued in favor of his family or relatives; first, to the widow and his children; second, his father; third, his mother; fourth, his brothers and sisters. (R. S. § 2418.)

792. Entry into service after commencement of Mexican War.—The persons enumerated in the preceding section received into service after the commencement of the war with Mexico, for less than twelve months, and who served such term, or were honorably discharged are entitled to receive a certificate or warrant for forty acres, or script for $25 if preferred, and in the event of the death of such person during service, or after honorable discharge before the 11th of February, 1847, the warrant or script shall issue to the wife, child, or children, if there be any, and if none, to the father, and if no father, to the mother of such soldier. (R. S. § 2419.)

793. Militia, volunteers, and State troops in service between June 18, 1812, and March 22, 1852.—Where the militia, or volunteers, or State troops of any State or Territory, subsequent to the 18th day of June, 1812, and prior to March 22, 1852, were called into service, the officers and soldiers thereof shall be entitled to all the benefits of section 791 of this title upon proof of length of service as therein required. (R. S. § 2420.)

794. Effect of receiving bounty under prior statutes.—No person shall take any benefit under the provisions of the three preceding sections, if he has received, or is entitled to receive, any military land bounty under any Act of Congress passed prior to the 22d March, 1852. (R. S. § 2421.)

795. Period of captivity added to actual service.—The period during which any officer or soldier remained in captivity with the enemy shall be estimated and added to the period of his actual service, and the person so retained in captivity shall receive land under the provisions of sections 791 and 793 of this title, in the same manner that he would be entitled in case he had entered the service for the whole term made up by the addition of the time of his captivity, and had served during such term. (R. S. § 2422.)

796. Widows of persons entitled.—In the event of the death of any person, for whom provision is made by sections 791 and 793 of this title, and who did not receive bounty land for his services, a like warrant shall issue in favor of his widow, who shall be entitled to one hundred and sixty acres of land in case her husband was killed in battle: nor shall a subsequent marriage impair the right of any widow to such warrant, if she be a widow at the time of making her application. (R. S. § 2424.)

797. Widows and children of persons entitled.—In the event of the death of any person who would be entitled to a warrant, as provided in section 800 of this title, leaving a widow, or, if no widow, a minor child, such widow or such minor child shall receive a warrant for the same quantity of land that the decedent would be entitled to receive, if living on the 3d day of March, 1855. (R. S. § 2428.)

798. Subsequent marriage of widow.—A subsequent marriage shall not impair the right of any widow, under the preceding section, if she be a widow at the time of her application. (R. S. § 2429.)

799. Minors.—Persons within the age of twenty-one years on the 3d day of March, 1855, shall be considered minors within the intent of section 797 of this title. (R. S. § 2430.)

800. Equalization of bounties.—Each of the surviving persons specified in the classes enumerated in the following section, who has served for a period of not less than fourteen days, in any of the wars in which the United States have been engaged since the year 1790, and prior to the 3d day of March, 1855, shall be entitled to receive a warrant from the Department of the Interior, for one hundred and sixty acres of land; and, where any person so entitled has, prior to the 3d day of March, 1855, received a warrant for any number of acres less than one hundred and sixty, he shall be allowed a warrant for such quantity of land only as will make, in the whole, with what he may have received prior to that date, one hundred and sixty acres. (R. S. § 2425.)

801. Right dependent on length of service.—The classes of persons embraced as beneficiaries under the preceding section, are as follows, namely:

First. Commissioned and noncommissioned officers, musicians, and privates, whether of the regulars, volunteers, rangers, or militia, who were regularly mustered into the service of the United States.

Second. Commissioned and noncommissioned officers, seamen, ordinary seamen, flotilla men, marines, clerks, and landsmen in the Navy.

Third. Militia, volunteers, and State troops of any State or Territory, called into military service, and regularly mustered therein, and whose services have been paid by the United States.

Fourth. Wagon masters and teamsters who have been employed under the direction of competent authority, in time of war, in the transportation of military stores and supplies.

Fifth. Officers and soldiers of the Revolutionary War, and marines, seamen, and other persons in the naval service of the United States during that war.

Sixth. Chaplains who served with the Army.

Seventh. Volunteers who served with the armed forces of the United States in any of the wars mentioned, subject to military orders, whether regularly mustered into the service of the United States or not. (R. S. § 2426.)

802. Right independent of length of service.—The following class of persons are included as beneficiaries under section 800 of this title, without regard to the length of service rendered:

First. Any of the classes of persons mentioned in section 801 of this title who have been actually engaged in any battle in any of the wars in which this country has been engaged since 1780, and prior to March 3, 1855.

Second. Those volunteers who served at the invasion of Plattsburgh, in September, 1814.

Third. The volunteers who served at the battle of King's Mountain, in the Revolutionary War.

Fourth. The volunteers who served at the battle of Nickojack against the confederate savages of the South.

Fifth. The volunteers who served at the attack on Lewistown, in Delaware, by the British fleet, in the War of 1812. (R. S. § 2427.)

803. Parol proof of service.—Where no record evidence of the service for which a warrant is claimed exists, parol evidence may be admitted to prove the service performed, under such regulations as the Commissioner of Pensions may prescribe. (R. S. § 2431.)

804. Proof of service on application for additional bounty.—Where certificate or a warrant for bounty land for any less quantity than one hundred and sixty acres has been issued to any officer or soldier, or to the widow or minor child of any officer or soldier, the evidence upon which such certificate or warrant was issued shall be received to establish the service of such officer or soldier in the application of himself, or of his widow or minor child, for a warrant for so much land as may be required to make up the full sum of one hundred and sixty acres, to which he may be entitled under the preceding section, on proof of the identity of such officer or soldier, or, in case of his death, of the marriage and identity of his widow, or, in case of her death, of the identity of his minor child. But if, upon a review of such evidence, the Commissioner of Pensions is not satisfied that the former warrant was properly granted, he may require additional evidence, as well of the term as of the fact of service. (R. S. § 2432.)

805. Allowance for travel time in computing length of service.—When any company, battalion, or regiment, in an organized form, marched more than twenty miles to the place where they were mustered into the service of the United States, or were discharged more than twenty miles from the place where such company, battalion, or regiment was organized, in all such cases, in computing the length of service of the officers and soldiers of any such company, battalion, or regiment, there shall be allowed one day for every twenty miles from the place where the company, battalion, or regiment was organized to the place where the same was mustered into the service of the United States, and one day for every twenty miles from the place where such company, battalion, or regiment was discharged, to the place where it was organized, and from whence it marched to enter the service, provided that such march was in obedience to the command or direction of the President, or some general officer of the United States, commanding an army or department, or the chief executive officer of the State or Territory by which such company, battalion, or regiment was called into service. (R. S. § 2433.)

806. Indians included in bounty laws.—The provisions of all the bounty-land laws shall be extended to Indians, in the same manner and to the same extent as to white persons. (R. S. § 2434.)

807. Evidence of right to pension admissible to show right to bounty.—Where a pension has been granted to any officer or soldier, the evidence upon which such pension was granted shall be received to establish the service of such officer or soldier in his application for bounty land; and upon proof of his identity as such pensioner, a warrant may be issued to him for the quantity of land to which he is entitled; and in case of the death of such pensioned officer or soldier, his widow shall be entitled to a warrant for the same quantity of land to which her husband would have been entitled, if living, upon proof that she is such widow; and in case of the death of such officer or soldier, leaving a minor child and no widow, or where the widow may have deceased before the issuing of any warrant, such minor child shall be entitled to a warrant for the same quantity of land as the father would have been entitled to receive if living, upon proof of the decease of father and mother. But if, upon a review of such evidence, the Commissioner of Pensions is not satisfied that the pension was properly granted, he may require additional evidence, as well of the term as of the fact of service. (R. S. § 2435.)

898. Deserters not entitled to bounty land.—No person who has been in the military service of the United States shall, in any case, receive a bounty land warrant if it appears by the muster rolls of his regiment or corps that he deserted or was dishonorably discharged from service. (R. S. § 2438.)

WARRANT, LOCATION, AND PATENT

821. Assignment of warrants and locations.—All warrants for military bounty lands issued under any law of the United States, and all valid locations of the same, shall be assignable by deed or instrument of writing, made and executed according to such form and pursuant to such regulations as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, so as to vest the assignee with all the rights of the original owner of the warrant or location. (R. S. § 2414.)

822. Effect of sale, mortgage, or letter of attorney made before issue of warrant.—All sales, mortgages, letters of attorney, or other instruments of writing, going to affect the title or claim to any warrant issued, or to be issued, or any land granted, or to be granted, under the preceding provisions of this chapter, made or executed prior to the issue of such warrant, shall be null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever; nor shall such warrant, or the land obtained thereby, be in anywise affected by, or charged with, or subject to, the payment of any debt or claim incurred by any officer or soldier, prior to the issuing of the patent. (R. S. § 2436.)

823. Location of warrants; payment of excess over minimum price.—The warrants issued in pursuance of law may be located according to the legal subdivisions of the public lands in one body upon any lands of the United States subject to private entry at the time of such location at the minimum price. When such warrant is located on lands which are subject to entry at a greater minimum than $1.25 per acre, the locator shall pay to the United States in cash the difference between the value of such warrants at $1.25 per acre and the tract of land located on. But where such tract is rated at $1.25 per acre, and does not exceed the area specified in the warrant, it must be taken in full satisfaction thereof. (R. S. § 2415.)

824. Entry under warrants for services in Revolutionary War and War of 1812.—In all cases of warrants for bounty lands, issued by virtue of an act approved July 27, 1842, and of two acts approved January 27, 1835, therein and thereby revised, and of two acts to the same intent, respectively, approved June 26, 1848, and February 8, 1854, for military services in the Revolutionary War, or in the War of 1812 with Great Britain, which remained unsatisfied on the 2d day of July, 1864, it is lawful for the person in whose name such warrant issued, his heirs or legal representatives, to enter in quarter sections, at the proper local land office in any of the States or Territories, the quantity of the public lands subject to private entry which he is entitled to under such warrant. (R. S. § 2416.)

825. Time for location of warrants referred to in preceding section.—All warrants for bounty lands referred to in the preceding section may be located at any time, in conformity with the general laws in force at the time of such location. (R. S. § 2417.)

826. Warrants located free of expense.—It shall be the duty of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, to cause to be located, free of expense, any warrant which the holder may transmit to the General Land Office for that purpose, in such State or land district as the holder or warrantee may designate, and upon good farming land, so far as the same can be ascertained from the maps, plats, and field notes of the surveyor, or from any other information in the possession of the local office, and, upon the location being made, the Secretary shall cause a patent to be transmitted to such warrantee or holder. (R. S. § 2437.)

827. Issuance of patent.—Every person for whom provision is made by sections 791 and 793 of this title, shall receive a warrant from the Department of the Interior for the quantity of land to which he is entitled; and, upon the return of such warrant, with evidence of the location thereof having been legally made to the General Land Office, a patent shall be issued therefor. (R. S. § 2423.)

828. Issue of patent notwithstanding loss of warrant.—When a soldier of the Regular Army, who has obtained a military land warrant, loses the same, or such warrant is destroyed by accident, he shall, upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Interior, be entitled to a patent in like manner as if the warrant was produced. (R. S. § 2439.)

829. Assignment of lost warrant; criminal liability.—Whenever it appears that any certificate or warrant, issued in pursuance of any law granting bounty land, has been lost or destroyed, whether the same has been sold and assigned by the warrantee or not, the Secretary of the Interior is required to cause a new certificate or warrant of like tenor to be issued in lieu thereof; which new certificate or warrant may be assigned, located, and patented in like manner as other certificates or warrants for bounty land are authorized by law to be assigned, located, and patented; and in all cases where warrants have been, or may be, reissued, the original warrant, in whose ever hands it may be, shall be deemed and held to be null and void, and the assignment thereof, if any there be, fraudulent; and no patent shall ever issue for any land located therewith, unless such presumption of fraud in the assignment be removed by due proof that the same was executed by the warrantee in good faith and for a valuable consideration. (R. S. § 2441.)

830. Loss of or failure to issue certificate of honorable discharge.—In all cases of discharge from the military service of the United States of any soldier of the Regular Army, when it appears to the satisfaction of the Secretary of War that a certificate of faithful services has been omitted by the neglect of the discharging officer, by misconstruction of the law, or by any other neglect or casualty, such omission shall not prevent the issuing of the warrant and patent as in other cases. And when it is proved that any soldier of the Regular Army has lost his discharge and certificate of faithful service, the Secretary of War shall cause such papers to be furnished such soldier as will entitle him to his land warrant and patent, provided such measure is justified by the time of his enlistment, the period of service, and the report of some officer of the corps to which he was attached. (R. S. § 2440.)

831. Mode of issuing patents to heirs.—In all cases where an officer or soldier of the Revolutionary War, or a soldier of the War of 1812, who was entitled to bounty land, has died before obtaining a patent for the land, and where application is made by a part only of the heirs of such deceased officer or soldier for such bounty land, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior to issue the patent in the name of the heirs of such deceased officer or soldier, without specifying each; and the patent so issued in the name of the heirs, generally, shall inure to the benefit of the whole, in such portions as they are severally entitled to by the laws of descent in the State or Territory where the officer or soldier belonged at the time of his death. (R. S. § 2443.)

832. Death of claimant after establishing right and before warrant.—When proof has been filed in the Pension Office, during the lifetime of a claimant, establishing, to the satisfaction of that office, his right to a warrant for military services, and such warrant is not issued until after the death of the claimant, the title to such warrants and all such warrants as have been issued subsequent to the death of the claimant, shall vest in his widow, if there be one, and if there be no widow, then in the heirs or legatees of the claimant; and all military bounty land warrants issued pursuant to law shall be treated as personal chattels, and may be conveyed by assignment of such widow, heirs, or legatees, or by the legal representatives of the deceased claimant, for the use of such heirs or legatees only. (R. S. § 2444.)

833. Proofs filed by legal representatives.—The legal representatives of a deceased claimant for a bounty land warrant, whose claim was filed prior to his death, may file the proofs necessary to perfect such claim. (R. S. § 2445.)

834. Relocation of military bounty land warrants in cases of error.—Where an actual settler on the public lands has sought, or attempts, to locate the land settled on and improved by him, with a military bounty land warrant, and where, from any cause, an error has occurred in making such location, he is authorized to relinquish the land so erroneously located, and to locate such warrant upon the land so settled upon and improved by him, if the same then be vacant, and if not, upon any other vacant land, on making proof of those facts to the satisfaction of the land officers, according to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and subject to his final adjudication. (R. S. § 2446.)

835. Issuance and recording of warrants.—In all cases in which land has been given or shall be given by the United States for military services, warrants shall be granted to the parties entitled to such land by the Secretary of the Interior; and such warrants shall be recorded in the General Land Office, in books to be kept for the purpose, and shall be located as is or may be provided by law; and patents shall afterwards be issued accordingly. (R. S. § 457.)

CLAIM AGENTS OR ATTORNEYS

841. Claim agent withholding discharge papers.—Any claim agent, attorney, or other person engaged in the collection of claims for pay, bounty, or other allowances for any soldier, sailor, or marine, or for any commissioned officer of the military or naval forces, or who may have been a soldier, sailor, marine, or officer of the Regular or Volunteer forces of the United States, and honorably discharged, who shall retain, without the consent of the owner or owners thereof, or shall refuse to deliver or account for the same upon demand duly made by the owner or owners thereof, or by their agent or attorney, the land warrant of any such soldier, sailor, or marine, or commissioned officer, which may have been placed in his hands for the purpose of collecting said claims, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction, be punished by fine not exceeding $500, or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or both, at the discretion of the court, and shall thereafter be debarred from prosecuting any such claim in any executive department of the Government. (May 21, 1872, c. 178, 17 Stat. 137.)

842. Compensation of agent or attorney.—No agent or attorney or other person shall demand or receive any other compensation for his services in prosecuting a claim for bounty land than such as the Commissioner of Pensions shall direct to be paid to him, not exceeding $25; nor shall such agent, attorney or other person demand or receive such compensation, in whole or in part, until such bounty land claim shall be allowed. (R. S. § 4785; July 4, 1884, c. 181, § 3, 23 Stat. 99.)

843. Agent or attorney demanding more than legal fee.—Any agent or attorney, or any other person instrumental in prosecuting any claim for bounty land, who shall directly or indirectly contract for, demand, or receive or retain any greater compensation for his services, or instrumentality in prosecuting a claim for bounty land than is provided in Title 38 pertaining to pensions, or who shall wrongfully withhold from a claimant the whole, or any part of the claim allowed and due such claimant, or the land warrant issued to any such claimant, shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall for every such offense be fined not exceeding $500, or imprisonment at hard labor not exceeding two years, or both, at the discretion of the court. (R. S. § 5485.)

844. Agreement for fee; filing; limitation of amount.—The agent or attorney of record in the prosecution of the case may cause to be filed with the Commissioner of Pensions, duplicate articles of agreement, without additional cost to the claimant, setting forth the fee agreed upon by the parties, which agreement shall be executed in the presence of and certified by some officer competent to administer oaths. In all cases where application is made for bounty land, and no agreement is filed with the commissioner as herein provided, the fee shall be $10 and no more. No greater fee than $10 shall be demanded, received, or allowed in any claim for bounty land granted by special act of Congress. Any agent or attorney or other person instrumental in prosecuting any claim for bounty land, who shall directly or indirectly contract for, demand or receive or retain any greater compensation for his services or instrumentality in prosecuting a claim for bounty land than is provided in this section, or for payment thereof at any other time or in any other manner than is herein provided, or who shall wrongfully withhold from a claimant the land warrant issued to any such claimant, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall for every such offense be fined not exceeding $500, or imprisoned at hard labor not exceeding two years, or both, in the discretion of the court. (R. S. § 4786; July 4, 1884, c. 181, § 4, 23 Stat. 99.)

Chapter 20.—RESERVATIONS AND GRANTS TO STATES FOR PUBLIC PURPOSES.

Sec.
851. Deficiencies in grants to State by reason of settlements, etc., on designated sections generally.
852. Selections to supply deficiencies of school lands.
853. Selections in Utah to supply deficiencies of school lands.
854. Selections in New Mexico to supply deficiencies of school lands.
855. Indemnity selections by State of Wyoming.
856. Selection of school lands on ceded Indian reservations.
857. Grant to new States.
858. Grants to counties for seats of justice.
859. Fee simple to pass in all grants.
860. Selection of phosphate or oil lands by Idaho under indemnity and other land grants.
861. Preference right of selection granted certain Western States.
862. Patents for wagon-road grants to Oregon.
863. Survey of lands granted to certain Western States.
864. Survey of land grants to Florida.
865. Certain lands selected by California confirmed.
866. Exchange of cut-over land in Montana.
867. Agricultural college scrip.
868. Representation of Indian claimants in suits to determine right to school lands.

Section 851. Deficiencies in grants to State by reason of settlements, etc., on designated sections generally.—Where settlements with a view to preemption or homestead have been, prior to February 26, 1859, or shall thereafter be made, before the survey of the lands in the field, which are found to have been made on sections 16 or 36, those sections shall be subject to the claims of such settlers; and if such sections, or either of them, have been or shall be granted, reserved, or pledged for the use of schools or colleges in the State or Territory in which they lie, other lands of equal acreage are hereby appropriated and granted, and may be selected by said State or Territory, in lieu of such as may be thus taken by preemption or homestead settlers. And other lands of equal acreage are also hereby appropriated and granted, and may be selected by said State or Territory where sections 16 or 36 are mineral land, or are included within any Indian, military, or other reservation, or are otherwise disposed of by the United States: Provided, Where any State is entitled to said sections 16 and 36, or where said sections are reserved to any Territory, notwithstanding the same may be mineral land or embraced within a military, Indian, or other reservation, the selection of such lands in lieu thereof by said State or Territory shall be a waiver of its right to said sections. And other lands of equal acreage are also hereby appropriated and granted, and may be selected by said State or Territory to compensate deficiencies for school purposes, where sections 16 or 36 are fractional in quantity, or where one or both are wanting by reason of the township being fractional, or from any natural cause whatever. And it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior, without awaiting the extension of the public surveys, to ascertain and determine, by protraction or otherwise, the number of townships that will be included within such Indian, military, or other reservations, and thereupon the State or Territory shall be entitled to select indemnity lands to the extent of two sections for each of said townships, in lieu of sections 16 and 36 therein; but such selections may not be made within the boundaries of said reservations: Provided, however, That nothing in this section contained shall prevent any State or Territory from awaiting the extinguishment of any such military, Indian, or other reservation and the restoration of the lands therein embraced to the public domain and then taking the sections 16 and 36 in place therein; but nothing in this proviso shall be construed as conferring any right not in this section existing prior to February 28, 1891. (R. S. § 2275; Feb. 28, 1891, c. 384, 26 Stat. 796.)

852. Selections to supply deficiencies of school lands.—The lands appropriated by the preceding section shall be selected from any unappropriated, surveyed public lands, not mineral in character, within the State or Territory where such losses or deficiencies of school sections occur; and where the selections are to compensate for deficiencies of school lands in fractional townships, such selections shall be made in accordance with the following principles of adjustment, to wit: For each township, or fractional township, containing a greater quantity of land than three-quarters of an entire township, one section; for a fractional township, containing a greater quantity of land than one-half, and not more than three-quarters of a township, three quarters of a section; for a fractional township, containing a greater quantity of land than one quarter, and not more than one half of a township, one-half section; and for a fractional township containing a greater quantity of land than one entire section, and not more than one-quarter of a township, one-quarter section of land: Provided, That the States or Territories which are, or shall be entitled to both the sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections in place, shall have the right to select double the amounts named, to compensate for deficiencies of school land in fractional townships. (R. S. § 2276; Feb. 28, 1891, c. 384, 26 Stat. 796.)

853. Selections in Utah to supply deficiencies of school lands.—All the provisions of sections 1 and 2, this chapter, which provide for the selection of lands for educational purposes in lieu of those appropriated for other purposes, are made applicable to the State of Utah, and the grant of school lands to said State, including sections 2 and 32 in each township, and indemnity therefor, shall be administered and adjusted in accordance with the provisions of said sections, anything in the Act providing for the admission of said State into the Union, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Wherever the words "sections 16 and 36" occur in said sections, the same as applicable to the State of Utah shall read: "sections 2, 16, 32, and 36," and wherever the words "sixteenth and thirty-sixth sections" occur the same shall read: "second, sixteenth, thirty-second, and thirty-sixth sections," and wherever the words "sections 16 or 36" occur the same shall read: "sections 2, 16, 32, or 36," and wherever the words "two sections" occur the same shall read "four sections." (May 3, 1902, c. 683, §§ 1, 2, 32 Stat. 189.)

854. Selections in New Mexico to supply deficiencies of school lands.—All the provisions of sections 851 and 852 of this chapter are made applicable to New Mexico, and the grant of school lands to said State, and indemnity therefor, shall be administered and adjusted in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, anything in the Act of Congress approved June 21, 1898, making certain grants of land to the former Territory of New Mexico, and for other purposes, to the contrary notwithstanding. (Mar. 16, 1908, c. 88, 35 Stat. 44.)

855. Indemnity selections by State of Wyoming.—Upon the selection by the State of Wyoming under the provisions of sections 851 and 852 of this chapter, and in accordance with the regulations of the Department of the Interior governing such selections of other lands approximately equal in area in exchange for tract numbered 60, township 56 north, of range 69 west, of the sixth principal meridian in that State, which is a segregation by resurvey of granted school section 36 in said township, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to convey title to the State for the land so selected if found regular. (Mar. 2, 1923, c. 184, 42 Stat. 1429.)

856. Selection of school lands on ceded Indian reservations.—Any State or Territory entitled to indemnity school lands or entitled to select lands for educational purposes under law existing prior to March 2, 1895, may select such lands within the boundaries of any Indian reservation in such State or Territory from the surplus lands thereof, purchased by the United States after allotments have been made to the Indians of such reservation, and prior to the opening of such reservation to settlement. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 188, § 1, 28 Stat. 899.)

857. Grant to new States.—There is granted, for purposes of internal improvement, to each new State admitted into the Union, after September 4, 1841, upon such admission, so much public land as, including the quantity that was granted to such State before its admission and while under a territorial government, will make five hundred thousand acres.

Selections and locations of lands.—The selections of lands, granted in this section, shall be made within the limits of each State so admitted into the Union, in such manner as the legislatures thereof, respectively, may direct; and such lands shall be located in parcels conformably to sectional divisions and subdivisions of not less than three hundred and twenty acres in any one location, on any public land not reserved from sale by law of Congress or by proclamation of the President. The locations may be made at any time after the public lands in any such new State have been surveyed according to law. (R. S. §§ 2378, 2379.)

858. Grants to counties for seats of justice.—There shall be granted to the several counties or parishes of each State and Territory, where there are public lands, at the minimum price for which public lands of the United States are sold, the right of preemption to one quarter section of land, in each of the counties or parishes, in trust for such counties or parishes, respectively, for the establishment of seats of justice therein; but the proceeds of the sale of each of such quarter section shall be appropriated for the purpose of erecting public buildings in the county or parish for which it is located, after deducting therefrom the amount originally paid for the same. And the seat of justice for such counties or parishes, respectively, shall be fixed previously to a sale of the adjoining lands within the county or parish for which the same is located. (R. S. § 2286.)

859. Fee simple to pass in all grants.—Where lands have been or may hereafter be granted by any law of Congress to any one of the several States and Territories, and where such law does not convey the fee-simple title of the lands, or require patents to be issued therefor, the list of such lands which have been or may hereafter be certified by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, under the seal of his office, either as originals or copies of the originals or records shall be regarded as conveying the fee simple of all the lands embraced in such lists that are of the character contemplated by such Act of Congress, and intended to be granted thereby, but where lands embraced in such lists are not of the character embraced by such Acts of Congress, and are not intended to be granted thereby, the lists, so far as these lands are concerned, shall be perfectly null and void, and no right, title, claim, or interest shall be conveyed thereby. (R. S. § 2449.)

860. Selection of phosphate or oil lands by Idaho under indemnity and other land grants.—From and after February 27, 1913, unreserved public lands of the United States in the State of Idaho which have been withdrawn or classified as phosphate or oil lands, or are valuable for phosphates or oil, shall, if otherwise available under existing law, be subject to selection by the State of Idaho under indemnity and other land grants made to it by Congress whenever such selections shall be made with a view of obtaining or passing title, with a reservation to the United States of the phosphates and oil in such lands, and of the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same.

Application for selection.—The State of Idaho, when applying to select lands classified as phosphate or oil lands, or valuable for phosphates or oil, with a view to securing or passing title to the same in accordance with the provisions of the indemnity and other granting Acts, shall state in the application for selection that same is made in accordance with and subject to the provisions and reservations of this section.

Lands selected certified to State; reservations.—Upon satisfactory proof of full compliance with the provisions of the laws under which selection is made and this section, the State shall, upon approval of the selection by the Secretary of the Interior, be entitled to have the lands certified to it, with a reservation to the United States of all the phosphates and oil in the land so certified, together with the right in the United States, or persons authorized by it, to prospect for, mine, and remove the same; but before any person not acting for the United States shall be entitled to enter upon the lands certified for the purpose of prospecting for phosphates or oil he shall furnish, subject to approval by the Secretary of the Interior, a bond or undertaking as security for the payment of all damages to the crops and improvements on said lands by reason of such prospecting for phosphates or oil. Any person who has acquired from the United States the oil or phosphate deposits in any such land, or the right to mine or remove the same, may reenter and occupy so much of the surface thereof as may be required for all purposes reasonably incident to the mining and removal of the oil or phosphate therefrom and mine and remove the oil or phosphate upon payment of the damages caused thereby to the owner thereof, or upon giving a good and sufficient bond or undertaking in an action instituted in any competent court to ascertain and fix said damages: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be held to deny or abridge the right of the State of Idaho to present and have prompt consideration of applications to select lands, which have been classified as oil or phosphate lands, with a view to disproving such classification and securing a certificate without reservation: And provided further, That the reserved phosphate and oil deposits in approved selections under this section shall not be subject to exploration or entry, other than by the United States, except as hereinafter authorized by Congress. (Feb. 27, 1913, c. 85, §§ 1–3, 37 Stat. 687.)

861. Preference right of selection granted certain Western States.—The States of North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, Idaho, and Washington shall have a preference right over any person or corporation to select lands subject to entry by said States by the Act of Congress approved February 22, 1889, for a period of sixty days after lands have been surveyed and duly declared to be subject to selection and entry under the general land laws of the United States.

Rights of bona fide settlers.—Such preference right shall not accrue against bona fide homestead or preemption settlers on any of said lands at the date of filing of the plat of survey of any township in any local land office of said States. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 208, 27 Stat. 593.)

862. Patents for wagon-road grants to Oregon.—In all cases when the roads in aid of the construction of which said lands were granted are shown by the certificate of the Governor of the State of Oregon to have been constructed and completed, patents for said lands shall issue in due form to the State of Oregon as fast as the same shall, under said grants, be selected and certified, unless the State of Oregon shall by public act have transferred its interests in said lands to any corporation or corporations, in which case the patents shall issue from the General Land Office to such corporation or corporations upon their payment of the necessary expenses thereof: Provided, That this shall not be construed to revive any land grant already expired nor to create any new rights of any kind except to provide for issuing patents for lands to which the State is already entitled. (June 18, 1874, c. 305, 18 Stat. 80.)

863. Survey of lands granted to certain Western States.—It shall be lawful for the Governors of the States of Washington, Idaho, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Utah, and Wyoming to apply to the Commissioner of the General Land Office for the survey of any township or townships of public land then remaining unsurveyed in any of the several surveying districts, with a view to satisfy the public land grants made by the several Acts admitting the said States into the Union to the extent of the full quantity of land called for thereby; and upon the application of said governors the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall proceed to immediately notify the Supervisor of Surveys of the application made by the governor of any of the said States of the application made for the withdrawal of said lands, and the Supervisor of Surveys shall proceed to have the survey or surveys so applied for made, as in the cases of surveys of public lands; and the lands that may be found to fall within the limits of such township or townships, as ascertained by the survey, shall be reserved upon the filing of the application for survey from any adverse appropriation by settlement or otherwise except under rights that may be found to exist of prior inception, for a period to extend from such application for survey until the expiration of sixty days from the date of the filing of the township plat of survey in the proper district land office, during which period of sixty days the State may select any of such lands not embraced in any valid adverse claim, for the satisfaction of such grants, with the condition, however, that the governor of the State, within thirty days from the date of such filing of the application for survey, shall cause a notice to be published, which publication shall be continued for thirty days from the first publication, in some newspaper of general circulation in the vicinity of the lands likely to be embraced in such township or townships, giving notice to all parties interested of the fact of such application for survey and the exclusive right of selection by the State for the aforesaid period of sixty days as herein provided for; and after the expiration of such period of sixty days any lands which may remain unselected by the State, and not otherwise appropriated according to law, shall be subject to disposal under general laws as other public lands: And provided further, That the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall give notice immediately of the reservation of any township or townships to the local land office in which the land is situate of the withdrawal of such township or townships, for the purpose hereinbefore provided: And provided further, That the governors of the several States herein named are authorized to advance money from time to time for the survey of the townships withdrawn at such United States depository as may be designated by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and the moneys so advanced shall be reimbursable. (Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, 28 Stat. 394; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

864. Survey of land grants to Florida.—It shall be lawful for the properly credited agent or official of the State of Florida having in charge the adjustment of its school grant to apply to the Commissioner of the General Land Office for the survey of any townships or parts of townships of public land unsurveyed in any of the surveying districts of said State, with a view to satisfy the grant in aid of schools made to said State of Florida to the extent of the full quantity of land called for thereby; and upon the application of said agent or official, the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall proceed to have the survey or surveys so applied for made, as in the case of surveys of other public lands; and the lands that may be found to fall within the limits of such townships or parts of townships as ascertained by the survey shall be reserved, upon the filing of the application for survey from any adverse appropriation by settlement or otherwise, except under rights that may be found to exist of prior inception, for a period to extend from such application for survey until the expiration of sixty days from date of filing of the township plat of survey in the proper district land office, which period of sixty days the State may select any of such lands not embraced in any valid adverse claim for the satisfaction of its school grant, as aforesaid, with the condition, however, that the agent or official of the State, within thirty days from the date of such filing of the application for survey, shall cause a notice to be published, which publication shall be continued for thirty days from date of first publication in some newspaper of general circulation in the vicinity of the lands likely to be embraced in such townships or parts of townships giving notice to all parties interested of the fact of such application for survey and the exclusive right of selection by the State for the aforesaid period of sixty days as herein provided for, and after the expiration of such sixty days any lands which may remain unselected by the State and not otherwise appropriated according to law shall be subject to disposal under general laws as other public lands: Provided, That the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall give notice immediately of the reservation of any township or parts of townships to the officials of the local land office of the land district in which the land is situated of the withdrawal of such townships or parts of townships for the purpose hereinbefore provided: Provided further, That nothing herein shall be deemed to authorize the Commissioner of the General Land Office to survey any lands within the exterior boundaries of the Everglades, as defined in Everglades patent numbered 137, issued to the State of Florida by the United States under the Swamp Land Act, chapter 23 of this title. (Feb. 16, 1921, c. 60, 41 Stat. 1103.)

865. Certain lands selected by California confirmed.—All selections of any portion of the public domain, to which, prior to July 23, 1866, no homestead, preemption, or other right had been acquired by any settler under the laws of the United States, and not being mineral land, nor reserved for naval, military, or Indian purposes nor held or claimed under any valid Mexican or Spanish grant, and not included within the limits of any city, town, or village or of the county of San Francisco, made prior to the 23d day of July, 1866, and theretofore sold to bona fide purchasers by the State of California are confirmed to the State of California: Provided, however, That said State shall not receive any greater quantity of land for school or improvement purposes than she is entitled to by law.

Selections on lands already surveyed.—When selections named in the above paragraph have been made upon lands already surveyed by authority of the United States, the authorities of said States, where the same has not been already done, shall notify the register of the land office, for the district in which the land is situated, which notice shall be regarded as the date of the State selection; and the said registers of the several land offices, after investigation and decision, shall, under the instruction of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, forward all such selections to the General Land Office, and the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall certify the same over to the State in the usual manner.

Selections on land surveyed only by State authority.—When the State of California has made such selections from the lands not surveyed by the authority of the United States, but which selections have been surveyed by the authority of said State, and the land sold to purchasers in good faith, under the laws of the State, such selections, from said 23d of July, 1866, when marked off and designated in the field, shall have the same force and effect as the preemption rights of a settler upon unsurveyed public lands; and if upon a survey of such lands by the United States, the lines of the two surveys shall be found not to agree, the selection shall be so changed as to include those legal subdivisions which nearest conform to the identical land included in the State survey and selection. Upon filing with the register of the proper United States land office of the township plat, in which any such selection of unsurveyed land is located, the holder of the State title shall be allowed the same time to present and prove up his purchase and claim as was allowed preemptors under laws existing prior to July 23, 1866, and if found in accordance with the law the land embraced therein shall be certified over to the State by the Commissioner of the General Land Office. (R. S. §§ 2485–2487.)

866. Exchange of cut-over land in Montana.—Tracts of timbered lands prior to February 14, 1923, granted to the State of Montana for educational purposes, from which the timber has been cut or removed pursuant to State laws, may, under such rules and regulations as the legislature of said State shall prescribe, be exchanged for other lands of like character and approximately of equal value, in private ownership, which exchanged land shall be subject to the same requirements and limitations to the end that the State may acquire holdings in reasonably compact form and reforesting be undertaken in an economic manner, anything in the enabling act of said State to the contrary notwithstanding. (Feb. 14, 1923, c. 74, 42 Stat. 1245.)

867. Agricultural college scrip.—Reissue of agricultural college land scrip lost or destroyed.—The provisions of section 829 of chapter 19 of this title, relating to the reissue of land warrants in certain cases, be, and the same are hereby extended so as to include the reissue of agricultural college land scrip lost, canceled, or destroyed without the fault of the owner thereof, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe.

Limitation of entries by agricultural college scrip.—In no case shall more than three sections of public lands be entered at private entry in any one township by scrip issued to any State under the Act approved July 2, 1862, for the establishment of an agricultural college therein. (R. S. § 2377; June 20, 1874, c. 330, 18 Stat. 111.)

868. Representation of Indian claimants in suits to determine right to school lands.—In any suit prior to March 2, 1901, or thereafter instituted in the Supreme Court of the United States to determine the right of a State to what are commonly known as school lands within any Indian reservation or any Indian cession where an Indian tribe claims any right to or interest in the lands in controversy, or in the disposition thereof by the United States, the right of such State may be fully tested and determined without making the Indian tribe, or any portion thereof, a party to the suit if the Secretary of the Interior is made a party thereto; and the duty of representing and defending the right or interest of the Indian tribe, or any portion thereof, in the matter shall devolve upon the Attorney General upon the request of such Secretary. (Mar. 2, 1901, c. 808, 31 Stat. 950.)

912. Disposition of abandoned or forfeited railroad grants.
913. Conveyance by land-grant railroads of portions of rights of way to State, county, or municipality.
914. Patents for wagon-road grants to Oregon.

Section 881. Cost of survey of grants to railroads; payment.—Before any land granted to any railroad company by the United States shall be conveyed to such company, or any persons entitled thereto under any of the acts incorporating or relating to said company, unless such company is exempted by law from the payment of such cost, there shall first be paid into the Treasury of the United States the cost of surveying, selecting, and conveying the same by the said company or persons in interest. (July 15, 1870, c. 292, 16 Stat. 305; July 31, 1876, c. 246, 19 Stat. 121.)

882. Surveyed lands taxable notwithstanding lien; provisos.—No lands granted to any railroad corporation by any Act of Congress shall be exempt from taxation by States, Territories, and municipal corporations on account of the lien of the United States upon the same for the costs of surveying, selecting, and conveying the same, or because no patent has been issued therefor; but this provision shall not apply to lands unsurveyed: Provided, That any such land sold for taxes shall be taken by the purchaser subject to the lien for costs of surveying, selecting, and conveying, to be paid in such manner by the purchaser as the Secretary of the Interior may by rule provide and to all liens of the United States, all mortgages of the United States, and all rights of the United States in respect of such lands: Provided further, That sections 882 to 885, inclusive, shall apply only to lands situated opposite to and coterminous with completed portions of said roads, and in organized counties: Provided further, That at any sale of lands under the provisions of sections 882 to 885, inclusive, the United States may become a preferred purchaser, and in such case the lands sold shall be restored to the public domain and disposed of as provided by the laws relating thereto. (July 10, 1886, c. 764, § 1, 24 Stat. 143.)

883. Collection of costs of surveying, etc.; reimbursement of purchaser.—If any railroad corporation required by law to pay the costs of surveying, selecting, or conveying any lands granted to such company or for its use and benefit by Act of Congress shall for thirty days neglect or refuse to pay any such costs after demand for payment thereof by the Secretary of the Interior, he shall notify the Attorney General, who shall at once commence proceedings to collect the same. But when any sum shall be collected of such railroad company as costs of surveying, selecting, and conveying any tract of land which shall have been purchased under the provisions of section 882, the Secretary of the Interior shall out of such collections reimburse said purchaser, his heirs or assigns, the amount of money paid by him as the costs of such surveying, selecting, and conveying. (July 10, 1886, c. 764, § 2, 24 Stat. 143.)

884. Right of forfeiture of railroad grants not affected.—Sections 882 to 885, inclusive, shall not affect the right of the Government to declare or enforce a forfeiture of any lands so granted; but all the rights of the United States to said lands or to any interest therein shall be and remain as if said sections had not passed, except as to the lien mentioned in section 882. (July 10, 1886, c. 764, § 3, 24 Stat. 143.)

885. Union Pacific Railroad lands.—The costs of surveying, selecting, and conveying lands granted to the Union Pacific Railroad Company shall become due and payable at and on the demand therefor made by the Secretary of the Interior as provided in section 883, and nothing in this section or the three preceding sections shall be construed or taken in any wise to affect or impair the right of Congress at any time further to alter, amend, or repeal the Act of July 2, 1864, chapter 216, as in the opinion of Congress, justice or the public welfare may require, or to impair or waive any right or remedy in the premises existing on July 10, 1886, in favor of the United States. This section and the three preceding sections, shall be subject to alteration, amendment, or repeal. (July 10, 1886, c. 764, § 4, 24 Stat. 143.)

886. Survey of lands within limits of railroad grants.—For the survey of the public lands lying within the limits of land grants made by Congress to aid in the construction of railroads, and the selection therein of such lands as are granted therefor, to enable the Secretary of the Interior to carry out the provisions of section 894, the sum of $100,000 heretofore appropriated is made a continuing appropriation for the survey of lands within the limits of railroad land grants, and any money which shall be expended of such appropriation and reimbursed and paid into the Treasury is hereby reappropriated, and said sum shall remain a continuing appropriation, and so often as any part of the same shall, after being expended, be reimbursed by any railroad company as hereinafter provided, the same shall be again available for the purposes aforesaid: Provided, That any portion of said sum expended for surveying such lands shall be reimbursed by the respective companies or parties in interest for whose benefit the lands are granted, according to the provisions of section 881: And provided further, That whenever there shall have been reimbursed and paid into the Treasury of the United States, by the respective companies or parties in interest, any part of said appropriation expended for surveys within such grants, there shall be immediately available, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, an amount equal to the amount so reimbursed, and the same shall be available for the survey of the public lands lying within the limits of the railroad land grants made by Congress, until all of said lands shall have been surveyed: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the use, within the limits of any railroad land grant made by Congress, of any part of any regular appropriation for surveying the public lands: Provided, That no part of the foregoing money shall be used for any land embraced in any grant to the State of Florida: And provided further, That the provisions of law requiring reimbursements to be made to the United States by railroad corporations claiming such grants, shall apply equally to the successors of such railroad corporations acquiring title to their lands and other property, under decree of foreclosure of any mortgage authorized by Congress. The Secretary of the Interior shall report to each regular session of Congress what has been done under this section. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 189, § 1, 28 Stat. 937.)

887. Deposits for surveys of lands granted to railroads.—When any railroad company claiming a grant of land under any Act of Congress, desiring to secure the survey of any unsurveyed lands within the limits of its grant, shall file an application therefor in writing with the Field Surveying Service of the State in which the lands sought to be surveyed are situated, and deposit in a proper United States depository to the credit of the United States a sum sufficient to pay for such survey and for the examination thereof pursuant to law and the rules and regulations of the Department of the Interior under the direction of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, it shall thereupon be the duty of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, or the Director of the Geological Survey, as the case may be, to cause said lands to be surveyed.

For any deposits made by any railroad company hereunder, certificates shall be issued, which may be used by such railroad company, its successors or assigns, to the same extent as cash is now allowed in payment of entries of public lands under existing law and regulations for any public lands of the United States in the States where the surveys were made, or for any survey or office fees due the United States from such railroad company on account of surveys of lands within its grant. The Secretary of the Interior shall provide such rules and regulations as may be necessary for carrying out the foregoing provisions. (Feb. 27, 1899, c. 205, 30 Stat. 892; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

888. Selection by railroads of lands in lieu of lands entered subsequent to accrual of rights; title of settlers.—In the adjustment of all railroad land grants, whether made directly to any railroad company or to any State for railroad purposes, if any of the lands granted be found in the possession of an actual settler whose entry or filing has been allowed under the preemption or homestead laws of the United States subsequent to the time at which, by the decision of the land office, the right of said road was declared to have attached to such lands, the grantees, upon a proper relinquishment of the lands so entered or filed for, shall be entitled to select an equal quantity of other lands in lieu thereof from any of the public lands not mineral and within the limits of the grant not otherwise appropriated at the date of selection, to which they shall receive title the same as though originally granted. And any such entries or filings thus relieved from conflict may be perfected into complete title as if such lands had not been granted: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall in any manner be so construed as to enlarge or extend any grant to any such railroad or to extend to lands reserved in any land grant made for railroad purposes: And provided further, That this section shall not be construed so as in any manner to confirm or legalize any decision or ruling of the Interior Department under which lands have been certified to any railroad company when such lands have been entered by a preemption or homestead settler after the location of the line of the road and prior to the notice to the local land office of the withdrawal of such lands from market. (June 22, 1874, c. 400, 18 Stat. 194.)

889. Rights of entrymen whose entries had not been admitted to record.—The privileges granted by section 888 are extended (subject to the provisos, limitations, and restrictions thereof) to all persons entitled to the right of homestead or preemption under the laws of the United States, who on August 29, 1890, had resided upon and improved for five years lands granted to any railroad company, but whose entries or filings had not for any cause been admitted to record. (Aug. 29, 1890, c. 819, 26 Stat. 369.)

890. Homestead entries on railroad lands prior to withdrawal or after restoration to market confirmed.—All preemption and homestead entries, or entries in compliance with any law of the United States, of the public lands, made in good faith, by actual settlers, upon tracts of land of not more than one hundred and sixty acres each, within the limits of any land grant, prior to the time when notice of the withdrawal of the lands embraced in such grant was received at the local land office of the district in which such lands are situated, or after their restoration to market by order of the General Land Office, and where the preemption and homestead laws have been complied with, and proper proofs thereof have been made by the parties holding such tracts or parcels, shall be confirmed, and patents for the same shall issue to the parties entitled thereto. (Apr. 21, 1876, c. 72, § 1, 19 Stat. 35.)

891. Abandoned railroad lands; reentry.—When at the time of such withdrawal as aforesaid, valid preemption or homestead claims existed upon any lands within the limits of any such grants which afterward were abandoned, and, under the decisions and rulings of the Land Department, were reentered by preemption or homestead claimants who have complied with the laws governing preemption or homestead entries, and shall make the proper proofs required under such laws, such entries shall be deemed valid, and patents shall issue therefor to the person entitled thereto. (Apr. 21, 1876, c. 72, § 2, 19 Stat. 35.)

892. Entries after expiration of grant.—All such preemption and homestead entries which may have been made by permission of the Land Department, or in pursuance of the rules and instructions thereof, within the limits of any land grant at a time subsequent to expiration of such grant, shall be deemed valid, and a compliance with the laws and the making of the proof required shall entitle the holder of such claim to a patent therefor. (Apr. 21, 1876, c. 72, § 3, 19 Stat. 36.)

893. Rights of permissive settlers on railroad lands restored to public domain.—All persons who shall have settled and made valuable and permanent improvements upon any odd-numbered section of land within any railroad withdrawal in good faith and with the permission or license of the railroad company for whose benefit the same shall have been made, and with the expectation of purchasing of such company the land so settled upon, which land so settled upon and improved, may, for any cause, be restored to the public domain, and who, at the time of such restoration, may not be entitled to enter and acquire title to such land under the homestead laws of the United States, shall be permitted, at any time within three months after such restoration, and under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of the General Land Office may prescribe, to purchase not to exceed one hundred and sixty acres in extent of the same by legal subdivisions, at the price of $2.50 per acre, and to receive patents therefor. (Jan. 13, 1881, c. 19, 21 Stat. 315; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 591, §§ 1, 4, 26 Stat. 1095, 1097; Mar. 3, 1893, c. 208, 27 Stat. 593.)

894. Adjustment of land grants to railroads.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed as of March 3, 1887, to adjust, in accordance with the decisions of the Supreme Court, each of the railroad land grants made by Congress to aid in the construction of railroads and theretofore unadjusted. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 376, § 1, 24 Stat. 556.)

895. Cancellation of patents erroneously issued; reconveyance.—If it shall appear, upon the completion of such adjustments, respectively, or sooner, that lands have been, from any cause, prior to March 3, 1887, erroneously certified or patented, by the United States, to or for the use or benefit of any company claiming by, through, or under grant from the United States, to aid in the construction of a railroad, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior to thereupon demand from such company a relinquishment or reconveyance to the United States of all such lands, whether within granted or indemnity limits; and if such company shall neglect or fail to so reconvey such lands to the United States within ninety days after the aforesaid demand shall have been made, it shall thereupon be the duty of the Attorney General to commence and prosecute in the proper courts the necessary proceedings to cancel all patents, certification, or other evidence of title prior to March 3, 1887, issued for such lands, and to restore the title thereof to the United States. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 376, § 2, 24 Stat. 556.)

896. Erroneous cancellation of bona fide entries corrected.—If, in the adjustment of said grants, it shall appear that the homestead or preemption entry of any bona fide settler has been erroneously canceled on account of any railroad grant or the withdrawal of public lands from market, such settler upon application shall be reinstated in all his rights and allowed to perfect his entry by complying with the public land laws: Provided, That he has not located another claim or made an entry in lieu of the one so erroneously canceled: And provided also, That he did not voluntarily abandon said original entry: And provided further, That if any of said settlers do not renew their application to be reinstated within a reasonable time, to be fixed by the Secretary of the Interior, then all such unclaimed lands shall be disposed of under the public land laws, with priority of right given to bona fide purchasers of said unclaimed lands, if any, and if there be no such purchasers, then to bona fide settlers residing thereon. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 376, § 3, 24 Stat. 557.)

897. Patents to purchasers from railroads; purchase money.—As to all lands, except those mentioned in the foregoing section, which have been so erroneously certified or patented as aforesaid, and which have been sold by the grantee company to citizens of the United States, or to persons who have declared their intention to become such citizens, the person or persons so purchasing in good faith, his heirs or assigns, shall be entitled to the land so purchased, upon making proof of the fact of such purchase at the proper land office, within such time and under such rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, after the grants respectively shall have been adjusted; and patents of the United States shall issue therefor, and shall relate back to the date of the original certification or patenting, and the Secretary of the Interior, on behalf of the United States, shall demand payment from the company which has so disposed of such lands of an amount equal to the Government price of similar lands; and in case of neglect or refusal of such company to make payment as hereafter specified, within ninety days after the demand shall have been made, the Attorney General shall cause suit or suits to be brought against such company for the said amount: Provided, That nothing in sections 894 to 899, inclusive, shall prevent any purchaser of lands erroneously withdrawn, certified, or patented as aforesaid from recovering the purchase money therefor from the grantee company, less the amount paid to the United States by such company as by said sections required: And provided, That a mortgage or pledge of said lands by the company shall not be considered as a sale for the purpose of said sections, nor shall said sections be construed as a declaration of forfeiture of any portion of any land grant for conditions broken, or as authorizing an entry for the same, or as a waiver of any rights that the United States may have on account of any breach of said conditions. Provided further, That where such purchasers, their heirs or assigns, have paid only a portion of the purchase price to the company, which is less than the Government price of similar lands, they shall be required, before the delivery of patent for their lands, to pay to the Government a sum equal to the difference between the portion of the purchase price so paid and the Government price, and in such case the amount demanded from the company shall be the amount paid to it by such purchaser. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 376, § 4, 24 Stat. 557; Feb. 12, 1896, c. 18, 29 Stat. 6.)

898. Rights of purchasers from railroads of coterminous lands not within grants.—Where any said company shall have sold to citizens of the United States, or to persons who have declared their intention to become such citizens, as a part of its grant, lands not conveyed to or for the use of such company, said lands being the numbered sections prescribed in the grant, and being coterminous with the constructed parts of said road, and where the lands so sold are for any reason excepted from the operation of the grant to said company, it shall be lawful for the bona fide purchaser thereof from said company to make payment to the United States for said lands at the ordinary Government price for like lands, and thereupon patents shall issue therefor to the said bona fide purchaser, his heirs or assigns: Provided, That all lands shall be excepted from the provisions of this section which at the date of such sales were in the bona fide occupation of adverse claimants under the preemption or homestead laws of the United States, and whose claims and occupation have not since been voluntarily abandoned, as to which excepted lands the said preemption and homestead claimants shall be permitted to perfect their proofs and entries and receive patents therefor: Provided further, That this section shall not apply to lands settled upon subsequent to the 1st day of December, 1882, by persons claiming to enter the same under the settlement laws of the United States, as to which lands the parties claiming the same as aforesaid shall be entitled to prove up and enter as in other like cases. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 376, § 5, 24 Stat. 557.)

899. Limitation of quantity to be conveyed.—No more lands shall be certified or conveyed to any State or to any corporation or individual, for the benefit of either of the companies herein mentioned, where it shall appear to the Secretary of the Interior that such transfers may create an excess over the quantity of lands to which such State corporation or individual would be rightfully entitled. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 376, § 7, 24 Stat. 558.)

900. Suits to cancel patents to lands erroneously issued under railroad or wagon-road grants.—Suits by the United States to vacate and annul any patent to lands erroneously issued under a railroad or wagon-road grant shall only be brought within six years after the date of the issuance of such patents. But no patent to any lands held by a bona fide purchaser shall be vacated or annulled, but the right and title of such purchaser is hereby confirmed: Provided, That no suit shall be brought or maintained, nor shall recovery be had for lands or the value thereof, that were certified or patented in lieu of other lands covered by a grant which were lost or relinquished by the grantee in consequence of the failure of the Government or its officers to withdraw the same from sale or entry. (Mar. 2, 1896, c. 39, § 1, 29 Stat. 42.)

901. Claims of bona fide purchasers; establishment of rights.—If any person claiming to be a bona fide purchaser of any lands erroneously patented or certified shall present his claim to the Secretary of the Interior prior to the institution of a suit to cancel a patent or certification, and if it shall appear that he is a bona fide purchaser, the Secretary of the Interior shall request that suit be brought in such case against the patentee, or the corporation, company, person, or association of persons for whose benefit the certification was made, for the value of said land, which in no case shall be more than the minimum Government price thereof, and the title of such claimant shall stand confirmed. An adverse decision by the Secretary of the Interior on the bona fides of such claimant shall not be conclusive of his rights, and if such claimant, or one claiming to be a bona fide purchaser, but who has not submitted his claim to the Secretary of the Interior, is made a party to such suit, and if found by the court to be a bona fide purchaser, the court shall decree a confirmation of the title, and shall render a decree in behalf of the United States against the patentee, corporation, company, person, or association of persons for whose benefit the certification was made for the value of the land as hereinbefore provided. Any bona fide purchaser of lands patented or certified to a railroad company, and who is not made a party to such suit, and who has not submitted his claim to the Secretary of the Interior, may establish his right as such bona fide purchaser in any United States court having jurisdiction of the subject matter, or at his option, as prescribed in sections 896 and 897. (Mar. 2, 1896, c. 39, § 2, 29 Stat. 43.)

902. Cancellation; investigation before suit.—If at any time prior to the institution of suit by the Attorney General to cancel any patent or certification of lands erroneously patented or certified a claim or statement is presented to the Secretary of the Interior by or on behalf of any person or persons, corporation or corporations, claiming that such person or persons, corporation or corporations, is a bona fide purchaser or are bona fide purchasers of any patented or certified land by deed or contract or otherwise, from or through the original patentee or corporation to which patent or certification was issued, no suit or action shall be brought to cancel or annul the patent or certification for said land until such claim is investigated in said Department of the Interior; and if it shall appear that such person or corporation is a bona fide purchaser as aforesaid, or that such persons or corporations are such bona fide purchasers, then no such suit shall be instituted and the title of such claimant or claimants shall stand confirmed; but the Secretary of the Interior shall request that suit be brought in such case against the patentee, or the corporation, company, person, or association of persons for whose benefit the patent was issued or certification was made for the value of the land as hereinbefore specified. (Mar. 2, 1896, c. 39, § 3, 29 Stat. 43.)

903. Relief of settlers on lands granted in aid of wagon roads.—The provision of section 888 and all statutes amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, including sections 894 to 899, inclusive, as modified or supplemented by sections 900, 901 and 902, shall apply to grants of land in aid of the construction of wagon roads. (July 1, 1902, c. 1386, 32 Stat. 733.)

904. Forfeiture of unearned grants; restoration to public domain.—There is hereby forfeited to the United States, and the United States hereby resumes the title thereto, all lands granted prior to September 29, 1890, to any State or to any corporation to aid in the construction of a railroad opposite to and coterminous with the portion of any such railroad not on that date completed, and in operation, for the construction or benefit of which such lands were granted; and all such lands are declared to be a part of the public domain: Provided, That sections 904 to 907, inclusive, shall not be construed as forfeiting the right of way or station grounds of any railroad company granted prior to September 29, 1890. (Sept. 29, 1890, c. 1040, § 1, 26 Stat. 496.)

905. Homestead entries on forfeited lands.—All persons who, on September 29, 1890, were actual settlers in good faith on any of the lands forfeited by section 904 and are otherwise qualified, on making due claim on said lands under the homestead law within six months after the date of the promulgation by the Commissioner of the General Land Office of the instructions to the officers of the local land offices, for their direction in the disposition of said lands, shall be entitled to a preference right to enter the same under the provisions of the homestead law and sections 904 to 907, inclusive, and shall be regarded as such actual settlers from the date of actual settlement or occupation; and any person who prior to September 29, 1890, has not had the benefit of the homestead or preemption law, or who has failed from any cause to perfect the title to a tract of land theretofore entered by him under either of said laws, may make a second homestead entry under the provisions of sections 904 to 907, inclusive. The Secretary of the Interior shall make such rules as will secure to such actual settlers these rights: Provided, That nothing herein shall extend any time or enlarge any rights given by sections 904 to 907, inclusive, to any railroad company. (Sept. 29, 1890, c. 1040, § 2, 26 Stat. 496; Feb. 18, 1891, c. 244, 26 Stat. 764.)

906. Purchase by bona fide purchasers from grantees; removal of crops and improvements.—In all cases where persons being citizens of the United States, or who have declared their intentions to become such, in accordance with the naturalization laws of the United States, are in possession of any of the lands affected by any such grant and hereby resumed by and restored to the United States, under deed, written contract with, or license from, the State or corporation to which such grant was made, or its assignees, executed prior to January 1, 1888, or where persons may have settled said lands with bona fide intent to secure title thereto by purchase from the State or corporation when earned by compliance with the conditions or requirements of the granting Acts of Congress they shall be entitled to purchase the same from the United States, in quantities not exceeding three hundred and twenty acres to any one such person, at the rate of $1.25 per acre, at any time prior to January 1, 1899, and on making said payments to receive patents therefor, and where any such person in actual possession of any such lands and having improved the same prior to the 1st day of January, 1890, under deed, written contract, or license as aforesaid, or his assignor, has made partial or full payments to said railroad company prior to said date, on account of the purchase price of said lands from it, on proof of the amount of such payments he shall be entitled to have the same, to the extent and amount of $1.25 per acre, if so much has been paid, and not more, credited to him on account of and as part of the purchase price herein provided to be paid the United States for said lands, or such persons may elect to abandon their purchases and make claim on said lands under the homestead law and as provided in the preceding section: Provided, That in all cases where parties, persons or corporations, with the permission of such State or corporation, or its assignees, are in the possession of and have made improvements upon any of the lands hereby resumed and restored, and are not entitled to enter the same under the provisions of sections 904 to 907, inclusive, such parties, persons, or corporations shall have six months in which to remove any growing crop, and within which time they shall also be entitled to remove all buildings and other movable improvements from said lands: Provided further, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to any lands situate in the State of Iowa on which any person in good faith has made or asserted the right to make a preemption or homestead settlement: And provided further, That nothing in sections 904 to 907, inclusive, contained shall be construed as limiting the rights granted to purchasers or settlers by sections 894 to 899, inclusive, or as repealing, altering, or amending said sections, nor as in any manner affecting any cause of action existing in favor of any purchaser against his grantor for breach of any covenants of title.

Actual residence upon the lands by persons claiming the right to purchase the same shall not be required where such lands have been fenced, cultivated, or otherwise improved by such claimants, and such persons shall be permitted to purchase two or more tracts of such lands by legal subdivisions, whether contiguous or not, but not exceeding three hundred and twenty acres in the aggregate.

Nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to interfere with any adverse claim that may have attached to the lands or any part thereof. (Sept. 29, 1890, c. 1040, § 8, 26 Stat. 496; Feb. 18, 1891, c. 244, 26 Stat. 764; June 25, 1892, c. 133, 27 Stat. 59; Jan. 31, 1893, c. 54, 27 Stat. 427; Dec. 12, 1893, c. 1, 28 Stat. 15; Jan. 23, 1896, c. 8, 29 Stat. 4; Feb. 18, 1897, c. 250, 29 Stat. 535.)

907. Rights of original grantees to forfeited lands.—No lands declared forfeited to the United States by sections 904 to 907, inclusive, shall by reason of such forfeiture inure to the benefit of any State or corporation to which lands may have been granted by Congress, except as therein otherwise provided; nor shall sections 904 to 907, inclusive, be construed to enlarge the area of land originally covered by any such grant, or to confer any right upon any State, corporation, or person to lands which were excepted from such grant. Nor shall the moiety of the lands granted to any railroad company on account of a main and a branch line appertaining to uncompleted road, and forfeited by section 904, within the conflicting limits of the grants for such main and branch lines, when but one of such lines has been completed, inure by virtue of the forfeiture declared to the benefit of the completed line. (Sept. 29, 1890, c. 1040, § 6, 26 Stat. 498.)

908. Deposits by railroad companies for costs of surveying and conveying unsurveyed lands granted.—To enable the Secretary of the Interior to complete the adjustment of land grants made by Congress to aid in the construction of railroads, and to subject the lands granted to taxation by States, Territories, and municipal authorities, any railroad corporation required by law to pay the costs of surveying, selecting, or conveying any lands granted to such company or corporation, or for its use and benefit, by any Act of Congress, is required, within ninety days from demand by the Secretary of the Interior, to deposit in a proper United States depository to the credit of the United States a sum sufficient to pay the cost of surveying, selecting, and conveying any of the unsurveyed lands granted to such company, or for its use and benefit, under any Act of Congress: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Interior shall determine and specify in the notice or demand to such company the amount of the required deposit, and may, in his discretion, demand a sum sufficient to cover the cost of the survey, selection, and conveyance of the entire area granted to any company, or for its use and benefit, then unsurveyed, or for such townships or fractional townships as he may prescribe and designate in the notice or demand to such company, as aforesaid: And provided further, That the amount deposited shall, subject to the rules and regulations of the Department of the Interior, under the direction of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, be disbursed for the surveying, including office and field work, selection, and conveyance of the lands granted and designated in the notice of the Secretary of the Interior, as aforesaid: And provided further, That in the event the money deposited by any railroad corporation under the provisions of sections 908 to 911, inclusive, shall exceed the cost of said surveys, the said excess thereof shall be repaid to the corporation so depositing the same, or to its assigns. (June 25, 1910, c. 406, § 1, 36 Stat. 834.)

909. Forfeiture of grant on failure to make deposit.—If any railroad corporation required by law to pay the costs of surveying, selecting, or conveying any lands granted to such corporation, or for its use and benefit, by any Act of Congress, shall, for ninety days from notice or demand by the Secretary of the Interior, as provided by section 908, neglect or refuse to deposit an amount sufficient to meet the expense of surveying, selecting, and conveying the unsurveyed lands granted to such company, or for its use and benefit, by any Act of Congress, and designated in the notice or demand by the Secretary of the Interior, as aforesaid, the rights, title, and interests of such company, and all those claiming by, through, or under it, in and to the unsurveyed lands designated in the notice of the Secretary, as aforesaid, shall cease and forfeit to the United States; and the Secretary of the Interior shall notify the Attorney General, who shall at once commence proceedings to declare the forfeiture and to restore the lands forfeited to the public domain. (June 25, 1910, c. 406, § 2, 36 Stat. 834.)

910. Right to extend public surveys over lands granted, and other rights of United States, not affected.—Sections 908 to 911, inclusive, shall not affect the right of the Secretary of the Interior to cause the public surveys to be extended over any lands granted to any railroad or corporation by any Act of Congress in the manner on June 25, 1910, otherwise provided by law, nor shall any claim, right, interest, or demand of the Government of the United States be waived or annulled by the provisions thereof: Provided, That all granted lands surveyed under the provisions of sections 908 to 911, inclusive, shall be subject to taxation by States, Territories, and municipal authorities, and the right of the Government to reimburse itself for the survey, selection, and conveyance of such lands otherwise provided by law shall remain in full force and effect. (June 25, 1910, c. 406, § 3, 36 Stat. 834.)

911. Regulations.—The Secretary of the Interior shall prescribe such rules and regulations as will be necessary to the carrying out of the provisions of the three preceding sections. (June 25, 1910, c. 406, § 4, 36 Stat. 835.)

912. Disposition of abandoned or forfeited railroad grants.—Whenever public lands of the United States have been or may be granted to any railroad company for use as a right of way for its railroad or as sites for railroad structures of any kind, and use and occupancy of said lands for such purposes has ceased or shall hereafter cease, whether by forfeiture or by abandonment by said railroad company declared or decreed by a court of competent jurisdiction or by Act of Congress, then and thereupon all right, title, interest, and estate of the United States in said lands shall, except such part thereof as may be embraced in a public highway legally established within one year after the date of said decree or forfeiture or abandonment be transferred to and vested in any person, firm, or corporation, assigns, or successors in title and interest to whom or to which title of the United States may have been or may be granted, conveying or purporting to convey the whole of the legal subdivision or subdivisions traversed or occupied by such railroad or railroad structures of any kind as aforesaid, except lands within a municipality the title to which, upon forfeiture or abandonment, as herein provided, shall vest in such municipality, and this by virtue of the patent thereto and without the necessity of any other or further conveyance or assurance of any kind or nature whatsoever: Provided, That this section shall not affect conveyances made by any railroad company of portions of its right of way if such conveyance be among those which have been or may after May 8, 1922, and before such forfeiture or abandonment be validated and confirmed by any Act of Congress; nor shall this section affect any public highway on said right of way on May 8, 1922: Provided further, That the transfer of such lands shall be subject to and contain reservations in favor of the United States of all oil, gas, and other minerals in the land so transferred and conveyed, with the right to prospect for, mine, and remove same. (Mar. 8, 1922, c. 94, 42 Stat. 414.)

913. Conveyance by land-grant railroads of portions of rights of way to State, county, or municipality.—All railroad companies to which grants for rights of way through the public lands have been made by Congress, or their successors in interest or assigns, are authorized to convey to any State, county, or municipality any portion of such right of way to be used as a public highway or street: Provided, That no such conveyance shall have the effect to diminish the right of way of such railroad company to a less width than 50 feet on each side of the center of the main track of the railroad as now established and maintained. (May 25, 1920, c. 197, 41 Stat. 621.)

914. Patents for wagon-road grants to Oregon.—In all cases when the military wagon roads in aid of the construction of which lands were granted to the State of Oregon prior to June 18, 1874, are shown by the certificate of the Governor of the State of Oregon to have been constructed and completed, patents for said lands shall issue in due form to the State of Oregon as fast as the same shall, under said grants, be selected and certified, unless the State of Oregon shall by public act have transferred its interests in said lands to any corporation or corporations, in which case the patents shall issue from the General Land Office to such corporation or corporations upon their payment of the necessary expenses thereof: Provided, That this section shall not be construed to revive any land grant which had expired prior to June 18, 1874, nor to create any new rights of any kind except to provide for issuing patents for lands to which the State is already entitled. (June 18, 1874, c. 305, 18 Stat. 80.)

970. Forfeiture for violation of antitrust law.
971. Bathhouses, hotels, etc., adjacent to mineral, medicinal, etc., springs on public lands.

Section 931. Navigable rivers public highways.—All navigable rivers, within the territory occupied by the public lands, shall remain and be deemed public highways; and, in all cases where the opposite banks of any streams not navigable belong to different persons, the stream and the bed thereof shall become common to both. (R. S. § 2476.)

932. Right of way for highways.—The right of way for the construction of highways over public lands, not reserved for public uses, is hereby granted. (R. S. § 2477.)

933. Roads across military reservations; ferry landings; bridges.—The Secretary of War shall have authority, in his discretion, to permit the extension of State, county, and Territorial roads across military reservations; to permit the landing of ferries, the erection of bridges thereon; and permit cattle, sheep, or other stock animals to be driven across such reservation, whenever in his judgment the same can be done without injury to the reservation or inconvenience to the military forces stationed thereon. (July 5, 1884, c. 214, § 6, 23 Stat. 104.)

934. Right of way through public lands granted to railroads.—The right of way through the public lands of the United States is granted to any railroad company duly organized under the laws of any State or Territory, except the District of Columbia, or by the Congress of the United States, which shall have filed with the Secretary of the Interior a copy of its articles of incorporation, and due proofs of its organization under the same, to the extent of one hundred feet on each side of the central line of said road; also the right to take, from the public lands adjacent to the line of said road, material, earth, stone, and timber necessary for the construction of said railroad; also ground adjacent to such right of way for station buildings, depots, machine shops, side tracks, turnouts, and water stations, not to exceed in amount twenty acres for each station, to the extent of one station for each ten miles of its road. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 152, § 1, 18 Stat. 482.)

935. Several roads through canyons.—Any railroad company whose right of way, or whose track or roadbed upon such right of way, passes through any canyon, pass, or defile, shall not prevent any other railroad company from the use and occupancy of the said canyon, pass, or defile, for the purposes of its road, in common with the road first located, or the crossing of other railroads at grade. And the location of such right of way through any canyon, pass, or defile shall not cause the disuse of any wagon or other public highway located therein on March 3, 1875, nor prevent the location through the same of any such wagon road or highway where such road or highway may be necessary for the public accommodation; and where any change in the location of such wagon road is necessary to permit the passage of such railroad through any canyon, pass, or defile, said railroad company shall before entering upon the ground occupied by such wagon road, cause the same to be reconstructed at its own expense in the most favorable location, and in as perfect a manner as the original road: Provided, That such expenses shall be equitably divided between any number of railroad companies occupying and using the same canyon, pass or defile. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 152, § 2, 18 Stat. 482.)

936. Condemnation of private land.—The legislature of the proper Territory may provide for the manner in which private lands and possessory claims on the public lands of the United States may be condemned; and where such provision shall not have been made, such condemnation may be made in accordance with section 8 of the act entitled "An Act to amend an Act entitled 'An Act to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph line from the Missouri River to the Pacific Ocean, and to secure to the Government the use of the same for postal, military, and other purposes, approved July 1, 1862,'" approved July 2, 1864. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 152, § 3, 18 Stat. 482.)

937. Filing profile of road; forfeiture of rights.—Any railroad company desiring to secure the benefits of sections 934 to 939, inclusive, shall, within twelve months after the location of any section of twenty miles of its road, if the same be upon surveyed lands, and, if upon unsurveyed lands, within twelve months after the survey thereof by the United States, file with the register of the land office for the district where such land is located a profile of its road; and upon approval thereof by the Secretary of the Interior the same shall be noted upon the plats in said office; and thereafter all such lands over which such right of way shall pass shall be disposed of subject to such right of way: Provided, That if any section of said road shall not be completed within five years after the location of said section, the rights herein granted shall be forfeited as to any such uncompleted section of said road. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 152, § 4, 18 Stat. 483.)

938. Lands excepted.—The four preceding sections shall not apply to any lands within the limits of any military, park, or Indian reservation, or other lands especially reserved from sale, unless such right of way shall be provided for by treaty-stipulation or by Act of Congress passed prior to March 3, 1875. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 152, § 5, 18 Stat. 483.)

939. Alteration, amendment, or repeal.—Congress hereby reserves the right at any time to alter, amend, or repeal the five preceding sections, or any part thereof. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 152, § 6, 18 Stat. 483.)

940. Forfeiture of rights where railroad not constructed in five years after location.—Each and every grant of right of way and station grounds made prior to February 25, 1909, to any railroad corporation under the six preceding sections, where such railroad had not been constructed and the period of five years next following the location of said road, or any section thereof, had on that date expired, is declared forfeited to the United States, to the extent of any portion of such located line then remaining unconstructed, and the United States resumes the full title to the lands covered thereby free and discharged from such easement, and the forfeiture declared shall, without need of further assurance or conveyance, inure to the benefit of any owner or owners of land conveyed by the United States prior to such date subject to any such grant of right of way or station grounds: Provided, That no right of way on which construction was progressing in good faith on February 25, 1909, shall be in any wise affected, validated, or invalidated, by the provisions of this section. (June 26, 1906, c. 3550, 34 Stat. 482; Feb. 25, 1909, c. 191, 35 Stat. 647.)

941. Railroad stations on rights of way granted.—All railroad companies operating railroads through the Territories of the United States over a right of way obtained under any grant or Act of Congress giving to said railroad companies the right of way over the public lands of the United States shall be required to establish and maintain passenger stations and freight depots at or within one-fourth of a mile of the boundary limits of all town sites established prior to August 8, 1894, in said Territories on the line of said railroads by authority of the Interior Department. (Aug. 8, 1894, c. 236, § 1, 28 Stat. 263.)

942. Time for establishment of stations.—Railroad companies mentioned in the preceding section are hereby required within three months after August 8, 1894, to establish at or within one-fourth of a mile of the boundary limits of all town sites provided for in the preceding section, passenger stations, freight depots, and other accommodations necessary for receiving and discharging passengers and freight at such points; and upon failure of said companies to establish such stations and depots within said time said companies shall be liable to a fine of $500 for each day thereafter until said stations and depots shall be established, which shall be recovered in a suit brought by the United States in the United States courts in any Territory through which said railroads may pass. (Aug. 8, 1894, c. 236, § 2, 28 Stat. 263.)

943. Right of way for railroads; reserved lands in Minnesota.—All lands in the State of Minnesota described in and withdrawn from sale by the proclamations of the President of the United States for the reason that said lands would be required for or subject to flowage in the construction of dams, reservoirs, and other works proposed to be erected for the improvement of the navigation of the Mississippi River and certain of its tributaries, are declared to be, and to have been at all times prior to February 27, 1901, subject to the provisions of sections 934 to 939, inclusive, as fully, effectually, and to the same extent as though said lands had not been described in said proclamations, or withdrawn from sale thereby, but had remained with the body of public lands subject to private entry and sale: Provided, however, That any and all parts of said lands acquired by any railroad company under said sections shall at all times be subject to the right of flowage which at an time may become necessary in the construction or maintenance of dams, reservoirs, or other works which may be constructed or erected by or under the authority of the United States for the improvement of the navigation of the Mississippi River and its tributaries: Provided further, That the railroad companies availing themselves of this section shall, in addition to filing the maps required by law on February 27, 1901, to be filed, also file maps of definite location with elevation of rail of their lines of railroad over said water-reserve lands in the office of the Secretary of War; and no location shall be permitted which takes for right of way or stations or interferes with submergence of lands needed for the use of the reservoir system, existing on February 27, 1901, or in the construction of dams or other works, or any proposed or probable extension of the same, or which will obstruct or increase the cost of the present or prospective reservoir system: Provided further, That the plan for the location and construction of any such railway, or any part thereof, shall be first submitted to the Secretary of War and approved by him and by the Chief of Engineers of the United States Army. (Feb. 27, 1901, c. 614, 31 Stat. 815.)

944. Right of way in Oklahoma and Arizona.—Where, under sections 934 to 939, inclusive, or under special Acts of Congress, or under the laws of the former Territories of Oklahoma and Arizona, railroads have been constructed and were on June 26, 1906, in operation in Oklahoma or Arizona which passed through any of the lands theretofore reserved for said Territories, such lands shall be disposed of subject to such railroad right or easement, but only to the extent of the right of way conferred by the said sections for such railroad purposes. (June 26, 1906, c. 3548, 34 Stat. 481.)

945. Reservation in patents of right of way for ditches or canals.—In all patents for lands taken up after August 30, 1890, under any of the land laws of the United States or on entries or claims validated by the Act of August 30, 1890, west of the one hundredth meridian, it shall be expressed that there is reserved from the lands in said patent described a right of way thereon for ditches or canals constructed by the authority of the United States. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 837, § 1, 26 Stat. 391.)

946. Right of way to canal and ditch companies for irrigation purposes.—The right of way through the public lands and reservations of the United States is hereby granted to any canal or ditch company or drainage district formed for the purpose of irrigation or drainage and duly organized under the laws of any State or Territory, and which shall have filed or may hereafter file with the Secretary of the Interior a copy of its articles of incorporation and due proofs of its organization under the same, to the extent of the ground occupied by the water of the reservoir and of the canal and its laterals, and fifty feet on each side of the marginal limits thereof; also the right to take from the public lands adjacent to the line of the canal or ditch, material, earth, and stone necessary for the construction of such canal or ditch: Provided, That no such right of way shall be so located as to interfere with the proper occupation by the Government of any such reservation, and all maps of location shall be subject to the approval of the department of the Government having jurisdiction of such reservation; and the privilege herein granted shall not be construed to interfere with the control of water for irrigation and other purposes under authority of the respective States or Territories. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 18, 26 Stat. 1101; Mar. 4, 1917, c. 184, § 1, 39 Stat. 1197.)

947. Map; damages to settlers.—Any canal or ditch company desiring to secure the benefits of sections 946 to 949, inclusive, shall, within twelve months after the location of ten miles of its canal, if the same be upon surveyed lands, and if upon unsurveyed lands, within twelve months after the survey thereof by the United States, file with the register of the land office for the district where such land is located a map of its canal or ditch and reservoir; and upon the approval thereof by the Secretary of the Interior the same shall be noted upon the plats in said office, and thereafter all such lands over which such rights of way shall pass shall be disposed of subject to such right of way. Whenever any person or corporation, in the construction of any canal, ditch, or reservoir, injures or damages the possession of any settler on the public domain, the party committing such injury or damage shall be liable to the party injured for such injury or damage. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 19, 26 Stat. 1102.)

948. Application to existing and future canals.—The provisions of sections 946 to 949, inclusive, shall apply to all canals, ditches, or reservoirs, heretofore or hereafter constructed, whether constructed by corporations, individuals, or association of individuals, on the filing of the certificates and maps therein provided for. If such ditch, canal, or reservoir has been or shall be constructed by an individual or association of individuals, it shall be sufficient for such individual or association of individuals to file with the Secretary of the Interior, and with the register of the land office where said land is located, a map of the line of such canal, ditch, or reservoir, as in case of a corporation, with the name of the individual owner or owners thereof, together with the articles of association, if any there be. Plats filed before March 3, 1891, shall have the benefits of sections 946 to 949, inclusive, from the date of their filing, as though filed thereunder: Provided, That if any section of said canal, or ditch, shall not be completed within five years after the location of said section, the rights therein granted shall be forfeited as to any uncompleted section of said canal, ditch, or reservoir, to the extent that the same is not completed at the date of the forfeiture. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 20, 26 Stat. 1102.)

949. Use for canal or ditch only.—Nothing in sections 946 to 949, inclusive, shall authorize such canal or ditch company to occupy such right of way except for the purpose of said canal or ditch, and then only so far as may be necessary for the construction, maintenance, and care of said canal or ditch. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 21, 26 Stat. 1102.)

950. Right of way to canal and ditch companies for irrigation purposes; additional grants.—In addition to the rights of way granted by sections 946 to 949, inclusive, and subject to the conditions and restrictions therein contained, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to grant permits or easements for not to exceed five acres of ground adjoining the right of way at each of the locations, to be determined by the Secretary of the Interior, to be used for the erection thereon of dwellings or other buildings or corrals for the convenience of those engaged in the care and management of the works provided for by said sections: Provided, That this section shall not apply to lands within national forests. (Mar. 1, 1921, c. 93, 41 Stat. 1194.)

951. Right of way for water transportation, domestic purposes, or development of power.—Rights of way for ditches, canals, or reservoirs heretofore or hereafter approved under the provisions of sections 946 to 949, inclusive, may be used for purposes of a public nature; and said rights of way may be used for purposes of water transportation, for domestic purposes, or for the development of power, as subsidiary to the main purpose of irrigation or drainage. (May 11, 1898, c. 292, § 2, 30 Stat. 404; Mar. 4, 1917, c. 184, § 2, 39 Stat. 1197.)

952. Reservoir sites for water for livestock.—Any person, livestock company, or transportation corporation engaged in breeding, grazing, driving, or transporting livestock may construct reservoirs upon unoccupied public lands of the United States, not mineral or otherwise reserved, for the purpose of furnishing water to such livestock, and shall have control of such reservoir, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, and the lands upon which the same is constructed, not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres, so long as such reservoir is maintained and water kept therein for such purposes: Provided, That such reservoir shall not be fenced and shall be open to the free use of any person desiring to water animals of any kind.

The Secretary of the Interior, in his discretion, under such rules, regulations, and conditions as he may prescribe, upon application by such person, company, or corporation, may grant permission to fence such reservoirs in order to protect livestock, to conserve water, and to preserve its quality and conditions: Provided, That such reservoir shall be open to the free use of any person desiring to water animals of any kind; but any fence, erected under the authority hereof, shall be immediately removed on the order of the Secretary. (Jan. 13, 1897, c. 11, § 1, 29 Stat. 484; Mar. 3, 1923, c. 219, 42 Stat. 1437.)

953. Declaratory statement.—Any person, livestock company, or corporation desiring to avail themselves of the provisions of sections 952 to 955, inclusive, shall file a declaratory statement in the United States land office in the district where the land is situated, which statement shall describe the land where such reservoir is to be or has been constructed; shall state what business such corporation is engaged in; specify the capacity of the reservoir in gallons, and whether such company, person, or corporation has filed upon other reservoir sites within the same county; and if so, how many. (Jan. 13, 1897, c. 11, § 2, 29 Stat. 484.)

954. Survey; map.—At any time after the completion of such reservoir or reservoirs, which shall be constructed and completed within two years after filing such declaratory statement, such person, company, or corporation shall have the same accurately surveyed, as hereinafter provided, and shall file in the United States land office in the district in which such reservoir is located a map or plat showing the location of such reservoir, which map or plat shall be transmitted by the register of said United States land office to the Secretary of the Interior and approved by him, and thereafter such land shall be reserved from sale by the Secretary of the Interior so long as such reservoir is kept in repair and water kept therein. (Jan. 13, 1897, c. 11, § 3, 29 Stat. 484; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

955. Amendment or repeal.—Congress may at any time amend, alter, or repeal sections 952 to 955, inclusive. (Jan. 13, 1897, c. 11, § 4, 29 Stat. 484.)

956. Right of way for tramroads, canals, or reservoirs.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and empowered, under general regulations to be fixed by him, to permit the use of the right of way through the public lands of the United States, not within the limits of any national forest, park, military or Indian reservation, for tramroads, canals, or reservoirs to the extent of the ground occupied by the water of the canals and reservoirs and fifty feet on each side of the marginal limits thereof, or fifty feet on each side of the center line of the tramroad, by any citizen or any association of citizens of the United States engaged in the business of mining or quarrying or of cutting timber and manufacturing lumber or for the purposes of furnishing water for domestic, public, and other beneficial uses. (Jan. 21, 1895, c. 37, 28 Stat. 635; May 11, 1898, c. 292, § 1, 30 Stat. 404; Feb. 15, 1901, c. 372, 31 Stat. 790.)

957. Right of way to electric-power companies.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and empowered, under general regulations to be fixed by him, to permit the use of right of way to the extent of twenty-five feet, together with the use of necessary ground, not exceeding forty acres, upon the public lands and national forests of the United States by any citizen or association of citizens of the United States for the purposes of generating, manufacturing, or distributing electric power. (May 14, 1896, c. 179, § 2, 29 Stat. 120.)

958. Rights of way for wagon roads or railroads.—In the form provided by law existing on March 3, 1899, the Secretary of the Interior may file and approve surveys and plats of any right of way for a wagon road, railroad, or other highway over and across any reservoir site when in his judgment the public interests will not be injuriously affected thereby. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 427, § 1, 30 Stat. 1233.)

959. Rights of way for electrical plants, etc.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and empowered, under general regulations to be fixed by him, to permit the use of rights of way through the public lands and reservations of the United States for electrical plants, poles, and lines for the generation and distribution of electrical power, and for telephone and telegraph purposes, and for canals, ditches, pipes and pipe lines, flumes, tunnels, or other water conduits, and for water plants, dams, and reservoirs, used to promote irrigation or mining or quarrying, or the manufacturing or cutting of timber or lumber, or the supplying of water for domestic, public, or any other beneficial uses to the extent of the ground occupied by such canals, ditches, flumes, tunnels, reservoirs, or other water conduits or water plants, or electrical or other works permitted hereunder, and not to exceed fifty feet on each side of the marginal limits thereof, or not to exceed fifty feet on each side of the center line of such pipes and pipe lines, electrical, telegraph, and telephone lines and poles, by any citizen, association, or corporation of the United States, where it is intended by such to exercise the use permitted hereunder for any one or more of the purposes herein named: Provided, That such permits shall be allowed within or through any military, Indian, or other reservation only upon the approval of the chief officer of the department under whose supervision such reservation falls and upon a finding by him that the same is not incompatible with the public interest: Provided further, That all permits given hereunder for telegraph and telephone purposes shall be subject to the provisions of sections 1 to 6, inclusive, and section 8 of Title 47, TELEGRAPHS, TELEPHONES, AND RADIOTELEGRAPHS, and amendments thereto, regulating rights of way for telegraph companies over the public domain: And provided further, That any permission given by the Secretary of the Interior under the provisions of this section may be revoked by him or his successor in his discretion, and shall not be held to confer any right, or easement, or interest in, to, or over any public land or reservation. (Feb. 15, 1901, c. 372, 31 Stat. 790.)

961. Rights of way for electrical poles and lines.—The head of the department having jurisdiction over the public lands is authorized and empowered, under general regulations to be fixed by him, to grant an easement for rights of way, for a period not exceeding fifty years from the date of the issuance of such grant, over, across, and upon the public lands and reservations of the United States for electrical poles and lines for the transmission and distribution of electrical power, and for poles and lines for telephone and telegraph purposes, to the extent of twenty feet on each side of the center line of such electrical, telephone, and telegraph lines and poles, to any citizen, association, or corporation of the United States, where it is intended by such to exercise the right of way herein granted for any one or more of the purposes herein named: Provided, That such right of way shall be allowed within or through any military, Indian, or other reservation only upon the approval of the chief officer of the department under whose supervision or control such reservation falls, and upon a finding by him that the same is not incompatible with the public interest: Provided, That all or any part of such right of way may be forfeited and annulled by declaration of the head of the department having jurisdiction over the lands for nonuse for a period of two years or for abandonment.

Any citizen, association, or corporation of the United States to whom there has been issued, prior to March 4, 1911, a permit for any of the purposes specified herein under any law existing on that date may obtain the benefit of this section upon the same terms and conditions as shall be required of citizens, associations, or corporations thereafter making application under the provisions of this section. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 238, 36 Stat. 1253.)

962. Right of way in Colorado and Wyoming to pipe-line companies.—The right of way through the public lands of the United States situate in the State of Colorado and in the State of Wyoming outside of the boundary lines of the Yellowstone National Park is granted to any pipe-line company or corporation formed for the purpose of transporting oils, crude or refined, which shall have filed or may hereafter file with the Secretary of the Interior a copy of its articles of incorporation, and due proofs of its organization under the same, to the extent of the ground occupied by said pipe line and twenty-five feet on each side of the center line of the same; also the right to take from the public lands adjacent to the line of said pipe line material, earth, and stone necessary for the construction of said pipe line. (May 21, 1896, c. 212, § 1, 29 Stat. 127.)

963. Applications for right of way.—Any company or corporation desiring to secure the benefits of sections 962 to 965, inclusive, shall, within twelve months after the location of ten miles of the pipe line, if the same be upon surveyed lands and if the same be upon unsurveyed lands, within twelve months after the survey thereof by the United States, file with the register of the land office for the district where such land is located a map of its line, and upon the approval thereof by the Secretary of the Interior the same shall be noted upon the plats in said office, and thereafter all such lands over which such right of way shall pass shall be disposed of subject to such right of way. (May 21, 1896, c. 212, § 2, 29 Stat. 127.)

964. Limit of time for completion; forfeiture.—If any section of said pipe line shall not be completed within five years after the location of said section the right granted in sections 962 to 965, inclusive, shall be forfeited, as to any incomplete section of said pipe line, to the extent that the same is not completed at the date of the forfeiture. (May 21, 1896, c. 212, § 3, 29 Stat. 127.)

965. Restriction on use.—Nothing in sections 962 to 965, inclusive, shall authorize the use of such right of way except for the pipe line, and then only so far as may be necessary for its construction, maintenance, and care. (May 21, 1896, c. 212, § 4, 29 Stat. 127.)

966. Right of way in Arkansas to pipe line companies.—A right of way through the public lands of the United States in the State of Arkansas is granted for pipe-line purposes to any citizen of the United States or any company or corporation authorized by its charter to transport oil, crude or refined, or natural gas which shall have filed or may hereafter file with the Secretary of the Interior a copy of its articles of incorporation, and due proof of organization under the same, to the extent of the ground occupied by the said pipe line and ten feet on each side of the center line of same. (Apr. 12, 1910, c. 155, § 1, 36 Stat. 296.)

967. Applications for right of way.—Any citizen of the United States, company, or corporation desiring to secure the benefits of sections 966 to 970, inclusive, shall within twelve months after the location of ten miles of the pipe line, if the same be upon surveyed land, and if the same be upon unsurveyed lands within twelve months after the survey thereof by the United States, file with the register of the land office for the district where such land is located a map of its lines, and upon the approval thereof by the Secretary of the Interior, the same shall be noted upon the plats in said office, and thereafter all such land over which such line shall pass shall be disposed of subject to such right of way. (Apr. 12, 1910, c. 155, § 2, 36 Stat. 296.)

968. Restriction on use.—Nothing in sections 966 to 970, inclusive, shall authorize the use of such right of way except for the pipe line, and then only so far as may be necessary for its construction, maintenance, and care. (Apr. 12, 1910, c. 155, § 3, 36 Stat. 296.)

969. Forfeiture for nonuser, etc.—If any section of said pipe line shall not be completed within one year after the approval by the Secretary of the Interior of said section, or if any section of said pipe line shall be abandoned or shall not be used for a period of two years, the right of way granted in sections 966 to 970, inclusive, as to any uncompleted, abandoned or unused section of said pipe line shall be forfeited to the extent that the same is not completed or is abandoned or unused at the date of the forfeiture, without further action or declaration on the part of the Government or any proceedings or judgment of any court. (Apr. 12, 1910, c. 155, § 4, 36 Stat. 296.)

970. Forfeiture for violation of antitrust law.—If any citizen, company, or corporation taking advantage of the benefits of sections 966 to 970, inclusive, shall violate sections 1 to 7, inclusive, of Title 15, COMMERCE AND TRADE, or any amendment thereof, the right of way granted in sections 966 to 970, inclusive, shall be forfeited without further action or declaration on the part of the Government or any proceedings or judgment of any court. (Apr. 12, 1910, c. 155, § 5, 36 Stat. 296.)

971. Bathhouses, hotels, etc., adjacent to mineral, medicinal, etc., springs on public lands.—The Secretary of the Interior, upon such terms and under such regulations as he may deem proper, may permit responsible persons or associations to use and occupy, for the erection of bathhouses, hotels, or other improvements for the accommodation of the public, suitable spaces or tracts of land near or adjacent to mineral, medicinal, or other springs which are located upon unreserved public lands or public lands which have been withdrawn for the protection of such springs: Provided, That permits or leases hereunder shall be for periods not exceeding twenty years. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 458, 43 Stat. 1133.)

Chapter 23.—GRANTS OF SWAMP AND OVERFLOWED LANDS.

Sec.
981. Indemnity to States on sale of lands.
982. Grant to States to aid in construction of levees and drains.
983. Lists and plats of lands, for governors of States.
984. Legal subdivisions mostly wet and unfit for cultivation.
985. Patents to prior purchasers and locators.
986. Selection of lands confirmed.
987. Lands to be certified to State within one year.
988. Act extended to Minnesota and Oregon.
989. Homestead entries by purchasers from Missouri of lands declared not to be swamp lands.
990. Grant to Missouri.
991. Title of purchasers of unconfirmed lands in Arkansas confirmed.
992. Sale of erroneously designated water-covered areas in Arkansas.
993. Sale of lands in Louisiana; preference rights; application for purchase; appraisal; payment for land.
994. Sale of lands in Wisconsin.

Section 981. Indemnity to States on sale of lands.—Upon proof by the authorized agent of the State, before the Commissioner of the General Land Office, that any of the lands purchased by any person from the United States, prior to March 2, 1855, were "swamp lands," within the true intent and meaning of the Act entitled "An Act to enable the State of Arkansas and other States to reclaim the swamp lands within their limits," approved September 28, 1850, the purchase money shall be paid over to the State wherein said land is situate; and when the lands have been located by warrant or scrip, the said State shall be authorized to locate a like quantity of any of the public lands subject to entry, at $1.25 per acre, or less, and patents shall issue therefor. The decision of the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall be first approved by the Secretary of the Interior. (R. S. § 2482.)

982. Grant to States to aid in construction of levees and drains.—To enable the several States (but not including the States of Kansas, Nebraska, and Nevada) to construct the necessary levees and drains, to reclaim the swamp and overflowed lands therein—the whole of the swamp and overflowed lands, made unfit thereby for cultivation, and remaining unsold on or after the 28th day of September, A. D. 1850, are granted and belong to the several States respectively, in which said lands are situated: Provided, however, That said grant of swamp and overflowed lands, as to the States of California, Minnesota, and Oregon, is subject to the limitations, restrictions and conditions hereinafter named and specified in this chapter, as applicable to said three last-named States respectively. (R. S. § 2479.)

983. Lists and plats of lands, for governors of States.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior, to make accurate lists and plats of all such lands, and transmit the same to the governors of the several States in which such lands may lie, and at the request of the governor of any State in which said swamp and overflowed lands may be, to cause patents to be issued to said State therefor, conveying to said State the fee simple of said land.

The proceeds of said lands, whether from sale or by direct appropriation in kind, shall be applied exclusively, as far as necessary, to the reclaiming said lands, by means of levees and drains. (R. S. § 2480.)

984. Legal subdivisions mostly wet and unfit for cultivation.—In making out lists and plats of the lands aforesaid all legal subdivisions, the greater part whereof is wet and unfit for cultivation, shall be included in said lists and plats, but when the greater part of a subdivision is not of that character, the whole of it shall be excluded therefrom. (R. S. § 2481.)

985. Patents to prior purchasers and locators.—The President of the United States shall cause patents to be issued to the purchaser or purchasers, locator or locators, who made entries of the public lands claimed as swamp lands, either with cash or land warrants, or scrip, or under any homestead or preemption laws prior to the issue of patents to the State or States: Provided, That in all cases where any State through its constituted authorities, may have sold or disposed of any tract or tracts of land prior to the entry, sale or location of the same under the preemption or other laws of the United States, no patent shall be issued by the President for such tract or tracts of land, until such State through its constituted authorities, shall release its claim thereto in such form as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior. In all cases where such State did not within ninety days from the 2d day of March, 1855, the date of an Act entitled, "An Act for the relief of purchasers and locators of swamp and overflowed lands," through its constituted authorities, return to the General Land Office of the United States, a list of all the lands sold as aforesaid, together with the dates of such sales and the names of the purchasers, the President shall issue patents to persons who made such entries of the public lands so claimed as swamp land. (R. S. § 2483.)

986. Selection of lands confirmed.—All land selected and reported to the General Land Office as swamp and overflowed land by the several States entitled to the provisions of said Act of September 28, 1850, prior to March 3, A. D. 1857, are confirmed to said States respectively so far as the same remained vacant and unappropriated and not interfered with by an actual settlement under any law of the United States. (R. S. § 2484.)

987. Lands to be certified to State within one year.—It shall be the duty of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, to certify over to the State of California as swamp and overflowed lands, all the lands represented as such upon the approved township surveys and plats, whether made before or after the 23d day of July, 1866, under the authority of the United States.

The supervisors of survey shall under the direction of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, examine the segregation maps and surveys of the swamp and overflowed lands, made by said State; and where he shall find them to conform to the system of surveys adopted by the United States, he shall construct and approve township plats accordingly, and forward to the General Land Office for approval.

In segregating large bodies of land, notoriously and obviously swamp and overflowed, it shall not be necessary to subdivide the same, but to run the exterior lines of such body of land.

In case such State surveys are found not to be in accordance with the system of United States surveys, and in such other townships as no survey has been made by the United States, the commissioner shall direct the supervisor of surveys to make segregation surveys, upon application by the governor of said State, within one year of such application, of all the swamp and overflowed land in such townships, and to report the same to the General Land Office, representing and describing what land was swamp and overflowed, under the grant, according to the best evidence he can obtain.

If the authorities of said State, shall claim as swamp and overflowed, any land not represented as such upon the map or in the returns of the surveyors, the character of such land at the date of the grant September 28, 1850, and the right to the same shall be determined by testimony, to be taken before the supervisor of surveys, who shall decide the same, subject to the approval of the Commissioner of the General Land Office. (R. S. § 2488; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

988. Act extended to Minnesota and Oregon.—The provisions of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to enable the State of Arkansas and other States to redeem" the swamp lands within their limits, approved September 28, A. D. 1850 (supra this chapter, sections 981 to 983, inclusive), are extended to the States of Minnesota and Oregon: Provided, That the grant shall not include any lands which the Government of the United States may have sold or disposed of under any law, enacted prior to March 12, 1860, prior to the confirmation of title to be made under the authority of said Act—and the selections to be made from lands already surveyed in each of the States last named, under the authority of the Act aforesaid, shall have been made within two years from the adjournment of the legislature of each State, at its next session after the 12th day of March, A. D. 1860—and as to all lands surveyed or to be surveyed, thereafter, within two years from such adjournment, at the next session after notice by the Secretary of the Interior to the governor of the State, that the surveys have been completed and confirmed. (R. S. § 2490.)

989. Homestead entries by purchasers from Missouri of lands declared not to be swamp lands.—In all cases in the State of Missouri where lands have, prior to February 23, 1875, been selected and claimed as swamp and overflowed lands by said State, and the various counties therein, by virtue of any Act of Congress, and said lands have been withheld from market in consequence thereof by the General Government, and the said State and counties have sold said lands to actual settlers, and said settlers have improved the same to the value of $100; said settlers, their heirs, assigns, and legal representatives, who have continued to reside thereon, shall have priority of right to homestead all such lands as may be rejected by the United States as not being in fact swamp and overflowed lands; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this section: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall prejudice the rights of any person who may have made actual settlement upon such lands under the preemption or homestead laws prior to February 23, 1875. (Feb. 23, 1875, c. 99, 18 Stat. 334; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 591, § 4, 26 Stat. 1097.)

990. Grant to Missouri.—All lands in the State of Missouri selected as swamp and overflowed lands, and regularly reported as such to the General Land Office, and on March 3, 1877, withheld from market as such, so far as the same remain vacant and unappropriated and not interfered with by any preemption, homestead, or other claim under any law of the United States, and the claim whereto has not been on said date rejected by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, or other competent authority, are confirmed to said State, and all title thereto vested in said State; and it is made the duty of the Secretary of the Interior to cause patents to issue for the same. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 116, 19 Stat. 395.)

991. Title of purchasers of unconfirmed lands in Arkansas confirmed.—The title of all persons who have, on April 29, 1898, purchased from the State of Arkansas any unconfirmed swamp land and hold deeds for the same, is confirmed and made valid as against any claim or right of the United States, and without the payment by said persons, their heirs or assigns, of any sum whatever to the United States or to the State of Arkansas.

Relinquishment by Arkansas.—The State of Arkansas does hereby relinquish and quitclaim to the United States all lands prior to August 29, 1898, confirmed, certified, or patented to the State which have been entered under the public land laws; and does hereby cede, relinquish, and quitclaim to the United States all right, title, and interest under the Acts of September 28, 1850, March 2, 1855, and March 3, 1857, in and to all lands in the State which have been heretofore granted, confirmed, certified, or patented by the United States under any other Acts, and the title to such lands is hereby confirmed in the grantees, their heirs, successors, or assigns, anything in this section or any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided, That this section shall be of no force or effect until the State of Arkansas shall have accepted and approved the conditions, limitations, and provisions herein contained by an act of the general assembly or by an instrument in writing duly executed by the governor under the authority conferred upon him by the legislature of said State, and file with the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of the Interior within one year from April 29, 1898: Provided further, That whereas the General Assembly of the State of Arkansas did, on the 10th day of March, 1897, accept and approve the conditions, limitations, and provisions herein contained before April 29, 1898, making the same effective and conclusive, therefore this section shall be in full force and effect from and after April 29, 1898. (Apr. 29, 1898, c. 229, §§ 3, 4, 30 Stat. 368.)

992. Sale of erroneously designated water-covered areas in Arkansas.—The Secretary of the Interior, in his judgment and discretion, is authorized to sell, in the manner hereinafter provided in this section, any of those public lands situated in the State of Arkansas which were originally erroneously meandered and shown upon the official plats as water-covered areas, and which are not lawfully appropriated by a qualified settler or entryman claiming under the public land laws.

Preference right to purchase; application; time for and proofs accompanying.—Any citizen of the United States who in good faith under color of title or claiming as a riparian owner has, prior to September 21, 1922, placed valuable improvements upon or reduced to cultivation any of the lands subject to the operation of this section, shall have a preferred right to file in the office of the register of the United States land office of the district in which the lands are situated, an application to purchase the lands thus improved by them at any time within ninety days from September 21, 1922, if the lands have been surveyed and plats filed in the United States land office; otherwise within ninety days from the filing of such plats. Every such application must be accompanied with satisfactory proof that the applicant is entitled to such preference right and that the lands which he applies to purchase are not in the legal possession of an adverse claimant.

Appraisal.—Upon the filing of an application to purchase any lands subject to the operation of this section, together with the required proof, the Secretary of the Interior shall cause the lands described in said application to be appraised, said appraisal to be on the basis of the value of such lands at the date of appraisal, exclusive of any increased value resulting from the development or improvement thereof for agricultural purposes by the applicant or his predecessor in interest, but inclusive of the stumpage value of any timber cut or removed by the applicant or his predecessor in interest.

Payment of appraisal price; issue of patent; disposition of proceeds.—An applicant who applies to purchase lands under the provisions of this section, in order to be entitled to receive a patent must within thirty days from receipt of notice of appraisal by the Secretary of the Interior pay to the register of the United States land office of the district in which the lands are situated the appraised price of the lands, and thereupon a patent shall issue to said applicant for such lands as the Secretary of the Interior shall determine that such applicant is entitled to purchase under this section. The proceeds derived by the Government from the sale of lands hereunder shall be covered into the United States Treasury and applied as provided by law for the disposal of the proceeds from the sale of public lands.

Rules and regulations.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to prescribe all necessary rules and regulations for administering the provisions of this section and determining conflicting claims arising hereunder. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 362, §§ 1-5, 42 Stat. 992.)

993. Sale of lands in Louisiana; preference rights; application for purchase; appraisal; payment for land.—The Secretary of the Interior, in his judgment and discretion, is hereby authorized to sell, in the manner hereinafter provided, in this section, any of those lands situated in the State of Louisiana which were originally erroneously meandered and shown upon the official plats as water-covered areas, and which were not prior to February 19, 1925, lawfully appropriated by a qualified settler or entryman claiming under the public land laws.

Any citizen of the United States who, or whose ancestors in title in good faith under color of title or claiming as a riparian owner has, prior to February 19, 1925, placed valuable improvements upon or reduced to cultivation any of the lands subject to the operation of this section, shall have a preferred right to file in the office of the register of the United States land office of the district in which the lands are situated, an application to purchase the lands thus improved by them at any time within ninety days from February 19, 1925, if the lands have been surveyed and plats filed in the United States land office; otherwise within ninety days from official notice to such claimant of the filing of such plats. Every such application must be accompanied with satisfactory proof that the applicant is entitled to such preference right and that the lands which he applies to purchase are not in the legal possession of an adverse claimant or in the actual possession of a person or persons who have improved the property and who have attempted to enter same in compliance with the laws and regulations of the United States land office.

Upon the filing of an application to purchase any lands subject to the operation of this section, together with the required proof, the Secretary of the Interior shall cause the lands described in said application to be appraised, said appraisal to be on the basis of the value of such lands at the date of appraisal, exclusive of any increased value resulting from the development or improvement thereof for agricultural purposes by the applicant or his predecessor in interest, but inclusive of the stumpage value of any timber cut or removed by the applicant or his predecessor in interest.

An applicant who applies to purchase lands under the provisions of this section, in order to be entitled to receive a patent, must within six months from receipt of notice of appraisal by the Secretary of the Interior pay to the register of the United States land office of the district in which the lands are situated, the appraised price of the lands, and thereupon a patent shall issue to said applicant for such lands as the Secretary of the Interior shall determine that such applicant is entitled to purchase under this section. The proceeds derived by the Government from the sale of the lands hereunder shall be covered into the United States Treasury and applied as provided by law for the disposal of the proceeds from the sale of public lands.

The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to prescribe all necessary rules and regulations for administering the provisions of this section and determining conflicting claims arising hereunder.

Reservation of coal, oil, gas, etc., in lands sold.—All purchases made and patents issued under the provisions of this section shall be subject to and contain a reservation to the United States of all the coal, oil, gas, and other minerals in the lands so purchased and patented, together with the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same. (Feb. 19, 1925, c. 268, §§ 1, 2, 43 Stat. 952.)

994. Sale of lands in Wisconsin.—The Secretary of the Interior, in his judgment and discretion, is authorized to sell, in the manner hereinafter provided, in this section, any of those lands situated in the State of Wisconsin which were originally erroneously meandered and shown upon the official plats as water-covered areas, and which are not lawfully appropriated by a qualified settler or entryman claiming under the public land laws.

Preference rights; application for purchase.—Any owner in good faith of land shown by the official public land surveys to be bounded in whole or in part by such erroneously meandered area, and who acquired title to such land prior to February 25, 1925, or any citizen of the United States who in good faith under color of title or claiming as a riparian owner has, prior to said date, placed valuable improvements upon or reduced to cultivation any of the lands subject to the operation of this section, shall have a preferred right to file in the office of the register of the United States land office of the district in which the lands are situated, an application to purchase the lands thus improved by them at any time within ninety days from said date if the lands have been surveyed and plats filed in the United States land office; otherwise within ninety days from the filing of such plats. Every such application must be accompanied with satisfactory proof that the applicant is entitled to such preference right and that the lands which he applies to purchase are not in the legal possession of an adverse claimant under the public land laws.

Conflicting claims.—In event such erroneously meandered land is bounded by two or more tracts of land held in private ownership with apparent riparian rights indicated by the official township plat of survey at date of disposal of title by the United States, the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall have discretionary power to cause such meandered area, when surveyed, to be divided into such tracts or lots as will permit a fair division of such meandered area among the owners of such surrounding or adjacent tracts under the provisions of this section. In administering the provisions of this section, where there shall exist a conflict of claims falling within its operation, if any claimant shall have placed valuable improvements upon the land involved, or shall have reduced the same to cultivation, then to the extent of such improvements or cultivation, such claimant shall be given preference in adjustment of such conflict: Provided, That no preference right of entry under this section shall be recognized for a greater area than one hundred and sixty acres, in one body, to any one applicant, whether an individual, an association, or a corporation: Provided further, That this section shall not be construed as in any manner abridging the rights of any settler or entryman under the public land laws existing prior to February 27, 1925.

Appraisal.—Upon the filing of an application to purchase any lands subject to the operation of this section, together with the required proof, the Secretary of the Interior shall cause the lands described in said application to be appraised, said appraisal to be on the basis of the value of such lands at the date of appraisal, exclusive of any increased value resulting from the development or improvement thereof for agricultural purposes by the applicant or his predecessor in interest, but inclusive of the stumpage value of any timber cut or removed by the applicant or his precedessor in interest.

Payment for land.—An applicant who applies to purchase lands under the provisions of this section, in order to be entitled to receive a patent, must within thirty days from receipt of notice of appraisal by the Secretary of the Interior pay to the register of the United States land office of the district in which the lands are situated the appraisal price of the lands, and thereupon a patent shall issue to said applicant for such lands as the Secretary of the Interior shall determine that such applicant is entitled to purchase under this section. The proceeds derived by the Government from the sale of lands under this section shall be covered into the United States Treasury and applied as provided by law for the disposal of the proceeds from the sale of public lands.

Rules and regulations.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to prescribe all necessary rules and regulations for administering the provisions of this section and determining conflicting claims arising thereunder. (Feb. 27, 1925, c. 363, §§ 1-6, 43 Stat. 1014.)

LANDS IN MINNESOTA

Section 1021. Subjection of lands in Minnesota to State laws for drainage for agricultural purposes.—All lands in the State of Minnesota, when subject to entry, and all entered lands for which no final certificates have issued, are hereby made and declared to be subject to all of the provisions of the laws of said State relating to the drainage of swamp or overflowed lands for agricultural purposes to the same extent and in the same manner in which lands of a like character held in private ownership are or may be subject to said laws: Provided, That the United States and all persons legally holding unpatented lands under entries made under the public-land laws of the United States are accorded all the rights, privileges, and benefits given by said laws to persons holding lands of a like character in private ownership. (May 20, 1908, c. 181, § 1, 35 Stat. 169.)

1022. Apportionment of cost of works.—The cost of constructing canals, ditches, and other drainage works incurred in connection with any drainage project under said laws shall be equitably apportioned among all lands held in private ownership, all lands covered by unpatented entries, and all unentered public lands affected by such project; and officially certified lists showing the amount of the charges assessed against each smallest legal subdivision of such lands shall be furnished to the register of the land district in which the lands affected are located as soon as said charges are assessed, but nothing in this division of this chapter shall be construed as creating any obligation on the United States to pay any of said charges. (May 20, 1908, c. 181, § 2, 35 Stat. 169.)

1023. Sale for enforcement of charges.—All charges legally assessed may be enforced against any unentered lands, or against any lands covered by an unpatented entry, by the sale of such lands subject to the same manner and under the same proceedings under which such charges would be enforced against lands held in private ownership. (May 20, 1908, c. 181, § 3, 35 Stat. 170.)

1024. Certification of statement of sale.—When any unentered lands, or any lands covered by an unpatented entry, have been sold in the manner mentioned in this division of this chapter, a statement of such sale showing the price at which each legal subdivision was sold shall be officially certified to the register immediately after the completion of such sale. (May 20, 1908, c. 181, § 4, 35 Stat. 170.)

1025. Unentered lands; patents to purchasers.—At any time after any sale of unentered lands has been made in the manner and for the purposes mentioned in this division of this chapter patent shall issue to the purchaser thereof upon payment to the register of the minimum price of $1.25 per acre, or such other price as may have been fixed by law for such lands, together with the usual fees and commissions charged in entry of like lands under the homestead laws. But purchasers at a sale of unentered lands shall have the qualification of homestead entrymen, and not more than one hundred and sixty acres of such lands shall be sold to any one purchaser under the provisions of said division. This limitation shall not apply to sales to the State, but shall apply to purchases from the State of unentered lands bid in for the State. Any part of the purchase money arising from the sale of any lands in the manner and for the purposes provided in this division of this chapter which shall be in excess of the drainage charges then delinquent shall be paid to and used by the county in which such land is located for the purpose of maintenance, improving, and extending such drainage works within the area benefited by the drainage project in which such land shall have been assessed for such drainage charge. (May 20, 1908, c. 181, § 5, 35 Stat. 170; Sept. 5, 1916, c. 437, 39 Stat. 722.)

1026. Entered lands; patents to purchasers of entered lands; forfeiture on nonpayment.—Any entered lands sold in the manner and for the purposes mentioned in this division of this chapter, may be patented to the purchaser thereof at any time after the expiration of the period of redemption provided for in the drainage laws under which it may be sold (there having been no redemption) upon the payment to the register of the fees and commissions and the price mentioned in the preceding section, or so much thereof as has not already been paid by the entryman; and if the sum received at any such sale shall be in excess of the payments required in this division and of the drainage assessments and cost of the sale, such excess shall be paid to the proper county officer for the benefit of and payment to the entryman. Unless the purchasers of unentered lands shall, within ninety days after the sale provided for in section 3 of this division of this chapter, pay to the proper register the fees, commissions, and purchase price to which the United States may be entitled, as provided in section 5 of said division, and unless the purchasers of entered lands shall, within ninety days after the right of redemption has expired, make like payments, as provided for in this section, any person having the qualifications of a homestead entryman may pay to the proper register for not more than one hundred and sixty acres of land for which such payment has not been made: First, the unpaid fees, commissions, and purchase price to which the United States may then be entitled; and, second, the sum due at the sale for drainage charges; and, in addition thereto, if bid in by the State, interest on the amount bid by the State at the rate of seven per centum per annum from the date of such sale, and thereupon the person making such payment shall become subrogated to the rights of such purchaser to receive a patent for said land. When any payment is made to effect such subrogation the register shall transmit to the treasurer of the county where the land is situated the amount paid for drainage charges, together with the interest paid thereon. (May 20, 1908, c. 181, § 6, 35 Stat. 170; Sept. 5, 1916, c. 437, 39 Stat. 723.)

1027. Notices to register and to entrymen.—A copy of all notices required by the drainage laws mentioned in this division of this chapter to be given to the owners or occupants of lands held in private ownership shall, as soon as such notices issue, be delivered to the register of the proper district land office in cases where unentered lands are affected thereby and to the entrymen whose unpatented lands are included therein, and the United States and such entrymen shall be given the same rights to be heard by petition, answer, remonstrance, appeal, or otherwise as are given to persons holding lands in private ownership; and all entrymen shall be given the same rights of redemption as are given to the owners of lands held in private ownership. (May 20, 1908, c. 181, § 7, 35 Stat. 171.)

1028. Chippewa Indian lands; erroneous cash entries validated.—In all cases where Chippewa Indian lands in Minnesota, ceded under the Act of Congress approved January 14, 1889 (Twenty-fifth Statutes at Large, page 642), were assessed under the State drainage laws prior to the opening of the lands to entry, where the lands were subsequently opened to entry and were thereafter sold under the said drainage laws, and where cash entries for the lands were subsequently made as though authorized by the foregoing provisions of this division of this chapter, such erroneously allowed entries, if otherwise regular, are validated and confirmed. (Mar. 3, 1919, c. 113, 40 Stat. 1321.)

LANDS IN ARKANSAS

1041. Subjection of lands to State laws; rights of persons holding unpatented lands; lands included.—All of those unentered, unreserved public lands, and all of those entered lands for which no final certificates have been issued, within the areas hereinafter described, are hereby made and declared to be subject to the laws of the State of Arkansas relating to the organization, government, and regulation of drainage districts to the same extent and in the same manner, except as hereinafter provided, in which lands held under private ownership are or may be subject to said laws: Provided, That the United States and all persons legally holding unpatented lands under entries made under the public land laws of the United States shall be accorded all the rights, privileges, and benefits given by said laws to persons holding lands in private ownership, said lands being those public lands in Mississippi County, Arkansas, in townships 14, 15, and 16 north, range 9 east, and townships 15 and 16 north, range 10 east, fifth principal meridian, according to the official surveys thereof approved October 12, 1915, and all of those unentered public lands, and all of those entered lands for which no final certificates have been issued in Poinsett County, Arkansas, in townships 11 and 12 north, range 6 east, fifth principal meridian, according to the official surveys thereof approved July 30, 1913. (Jan. 17, 1920, c. 47, § 1, 41 Stat. 392.)

1042. Canals, ditches, levees, and other drainage works; assessment of cost of.—The construction and maintenance of canals, ditches, levees, and other drainage works upon and across the lands subject to the operation of this division of this chapter are authorized, subject to the same conditions as are imposed by the laws of the State of Arkansas upon lands held in private ownership, and the cost of construction and maintenance of canals, ditches, levees, and other drainage works incurred in connection with any drainage project under said laws shall be equitably apportioned among all lands held in private ownership, all unentered public lands, and all lands embraced in unpatented entries affected by such project. Officially certified lists showing the amount of charges assessed against each smallest legal subdivision of such lands shall be furnished to the register of the United States land office of the district in which the lands affected are situated as soon as said charges would become a lien if the lands were held in private ownership. (Jan. 17, 1920, c. 47, § 2, 41 Stat. 392.)

1043. Lien of assessments; enforcement; sale of lands.—All charges legally assessed pursuant to the drainage laws of the State of Arkansas by a drainage district against any unentered public lands, or against any lands embraced in unpatented entries, subject to the provisions of this division of this chapter, shall be a lien upon said lands, which may be enforced by sale in the same manner and subject to the same conditions, except as hereinafter, in this division of this chapter, set forth, under which said charges shall be enforced against lands held in private ownership, and whenever any of said lands shall be sold for nonpayment of such charges, inclusive of lands bid in for a drainage district, a statement showing the name of the purchaser, the price at which each legal subdivision was sold, the amount assessed against it, together with penalties and interest, if any, and the cost of the sale, and the amount of excess, if any, over and above all lawful assessment charges and the cost of sale, shall be officially certified to the register of the United States land office of the district in which the lands are situated immediately after the completion of such sale, but nothing in this division of this chapter shall be construed as creating any obligation on the United States to pay any of said charges. (Jan. 17, 1920, c. 47, § 3, 41 Stat. 393.)

1044. Excess of price of lands sold to enforce lien of assessments.—All moneys received from the sale of entered or unentered lands subject to the operation of this division of this chapter which shall be in excess of assessments due thereon, together with penalties and interest and the cost of the sales, shall be paid by the proper county officer to the register of the United States land office of the district in which the lands are situated, and such excess moneys shall be covered into the United States Treasury as proceeds from the sales of public lands. (Jan. 17, 1920, c. 47, § 4, 41 Stat. 393.)

1045. Patents to purchasers at sale of lands to enforce assessments.—At any time within ninety days after the sale of unentered public lands and at any time within ninety days after the expiration of the period of redemption provided for in the drainage laws under which the lands are sold, no redemption having been made, after the sale of lands embraced within unpatented entries, the purchaser at such sale, a drainage district being herein expressly excepted from the operation of this provision, shall, upon the filing of an application therefor and an affidavit containing proof of necessary qualifications with the register of the United States land office, and upon payment to the register of the price of $5 per acre, together with the usual fees and commissions charged in entry of lands under the homestead laws, be entitled to receive a patent: Provided, That such purchaser shall have the qualifications required in making entry of lands under the homestead laws, and any such purchase shall exhaust any further homestead right of the purchaser to the extent of the amount of lands thus purchased by him. Not more than one hundred and sixty acres of such lands shall be sold and patented to any one purchaser under the provisions of this division of this chapter. This limitation shall not apply to lands subject to the operation of this division of this chapter which may be bid in for a drainage district, but no patent shall be issued to a drainage district or to any one bidding in said lands for a drainage district. The proceeds derived by the Government shall be covered into the United States Treasury and applied as provided by law for the disposal of the proceeds from the sale of public lands. (Jan. 17, 1920, c. 47, § 5, 41 Stat. 393.)

1046. Patents to qualified homestead entrymen on failure of purchasers at sale to apply for patents.—Unless the purchaser shall, within the time specified in section 1045 of this division of this chapter, file with the register of the United States land office an application for a patent, together with the required affidavit, and make payment of the purchase price, fees, and commissions as provided in said section 1045, any person having the qualifications of an entryman under the homestead laws may file an application for a patent, together with the required affidavit, and upon payment to the register of the purchase price of $5 per acre, fees, and commissions, and in addition thereto an amount equal to the drainage charges, penalties, interest, and costs for which the lands were sold, and if the lands were bid in for the drainage district, an additional amount equal to 6 per centum per annum on the sum for which the lands were sold from the date of such sale, said applicant shall become subrogated to the rights of such purchaser and shall be entitled to receive a patent for not more than one hundred and sixty acres of said lands. When payment is made to effect subrogation as herein provided the register of the United States land office shall serve notice upon the purchaser that an application for patent for the lands purchased by him has been filed, and that the amount of the drainage charges, penalties, interests, and costs of the sale will be paid to him upon submission of proof of purchase and payment by him of said sums. The register shall make such payment as soon as said requirement shall have been fulfilled. If the lands were bid in for a drainage district, the register will pay to the proper county officers the amount of the drainage charges, penalties, and interests and costs of sale, together with the additional sum of 6 per centum per annum, to which said drainage district is entitled. All remaining moneys to which the United States may be entitled shall be covered into the United States Treasury and applied as provided by law for the disposal of the proceeds from the sale of public lands. (Jan. 17, 1920, c. 47, § 6, 41 Stat. 393.)

1047. Copies of notices required by State drainage laws; rights of United States and entrymen.—A copy of all notices required by the drainage laws of the State of Arkansas to be given to the owners and occupants of lands held in private ownership shall, as soon as such notice is issued, be delivered to the register of the United States land office of the district in which the lands are situated where any of the lands subject to the operation of this division of this chapter are affected, and the United States and the entryman claiming under the public land laws of the United States shall be accorded the same rights to be heard by petition, answer, remonstrance, appeal, or otherwise, as are given to persons holding lands in private ownership, and all entrymen shall be given the same rights of redemption as are given to the owners of land held in private ownership. (Jan. 17, 1920, c. 47, § 7, 41 Stat. 394.)

1048. Lands not affected.—This division of this chapter shall not be effective as to any lands involved in suits instituted on behalf of the United States with a view to quieting title in the Government to such lands until and unless such suits shall be finally determined in favor of the United States. (Jan. 17, 1920, c. 47, § 8, 41 Stat. 394.)

Chapter 25.—UNLAWFUL INCLOSURES OR OCCUPANCY; OBSTRUCTING SETTLEMENT OR TRANSIT.

Sec.

1061. Inclosure of or assertion of right to public lands without title.
1062. Suits for violations of law.
1063. Obstruction of settlement on or transit over public lands.
1064. Violations of chapter; punishment.
1065. Summary removal of inclosures.
1066. Permission of Secretary to sue.

Section 1061. Inclosure of or assertion of right to public lands without title.—All inclosures of any public lands in any State or Territory of the United States, heretofore or to be hereafter made, erected, or constructed by any person, party, association, or corporation, to any of which land included within the inclosure the person, party, association, or corporation making or controlling the inclosure had no claim or color of title made or acquired in good faith, or an asserted right thereto by or under claim, made in good faith with a view to entry thereof at the proper land office under the general laws of the United States at the time any such inclosure was or shall be made, are hereby declared to be unlawful, and the maintenance, erection, construction, or control of any such inclosure is hereby forbidden and prohibited; and the assertion of a right to the exclusive use and occupancy of any part of the public lands of the United States in any State or any of the Territories of the United States, without claim, color of title, or asserted right as above specified as to inclosure, is likewise declared unlawful, and prohibited. (Feb. 25, 1885, c. 149, § 1, 23 Stat. 321.)

1062. Suits for violations of law.—It shall be the duty of the district attorney of the United States for the proper district, on affidavit filed with him by any citizen of the United States that section 1 of this chapter is being violated showing a description of the land inclosed with reasonable certainty, not necessarily by metes and bounds nor by governmental subdivisions of surveyed lands, but only so that the inclosure may be identified, and the persons guilty of the violation as nearly as may be, and by description, if the name can not on reasonable inquiry be ascertained, to institute a civil suit in the proper United States district court, or territorial district court, in the name of the United States, and against the parties named or described who shall be in charge of or controlling the inclosure complained of as defendants; and jurisdiction is also conferred on any United States district court or territorial district court having jurisdiction over the locality where the land inclosed, or any part thereof, shall be situated, to hear and determine proceedings in equity, by writ of injunction, to restrain violations of the provisions of this chapter; and it shall be sufficient to give the court jurisdiction if service of original process be had in any civil proceeding on any agent or employee having charge or control of the inclosure; and any suit brought under the provisions of this section shall have precedence for hearing and trial over other cases on the civil docket of the court, and shall be tried and determined at the earliest practicable day. In any case if the inclosure shall be found to be unlawful, the court shall make the proper order, judgment, or decree for the destruction of the inclosure, in a summary way, unless the inclosure shall be removed by the defendant within five days after the order of the court. (Feb. 25, 1885, c. 149, § 2, 23 Stat. 321.)

1063. Obstruction of settlement on or transit over public lands.—No person, by force, threats, intimidation, or by any fencing or inclosing, or any other unlawful means, shall prevent or obstruct, or shall combine and confederate with others to prevent or obstruct, any person from peaceably entering upon or establishing a settlement or residence on any tract of public land subject to settlement or entry under the public land laws of the United States, or shall prevent or obstruct free passage or transit over or through the public lands: Provided, This section shall not be held to affect the right or title of persons, who have gone upon, improved or occupied said lands under the land laws of the United States, claiming title thereto, in good faith. (Feb. 25, 1885, c. 149, § 3, 23 Stat. 322.)

1064. Violations of chapter; punishment.—Any person violating any of the provisions of this chapter, whether as owner, part owner, or agent, or who shall aid, abet, counsel, advise, or assist in any violation hereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and fined in a sum not exceeding $1,000, or be imprisoned not exceeding one year, or both, for each offense. (Feb. 25, 1885, c. 149, § 4, 23 Stat. 322; Mar. 10, 1908, c. 75, 35 Stat. 40.)

1065. Summary removal of inclosures.—The President is authorized to take such measures as shall be necessary to remove and destroy any unlawful inclosure of any of the public lands mentioned in this chapter, and to employ civil or military force as may be necessary for that purpose. (Feb. 25, 1885, c. 149, § 5, 23 Stat. 322.)

1066. Permission of Secretary to sue.—Where the alleged unlawful inclosure includes less than one hundred and sixty acres of land, no suit shall be brought under the provisions of this chapter without authority from the Secretary of the Interior. (Feb. 25, 1885, c. 149, § 6, 23 Stat. 322.)

Chapter 26.—ABANDONED MILITARY RESERVATIONS.

Sec.

1071. Designation for disposition.
1072. Survey or subdivision; appraisal, advertisement, and sale; rights of settlers.
1073. Appraisal and sale of improvements or other property on reservations.
1074. Disposition of mineral lands.
1075. Homestead and desert land laws applicable to reservations in Nevada.
1076. Grants to municipalities.
1077. Lands opened to settlement; preference right of entry.
1078. Effect of preceding section limited.
1079. Confirmation of selections by States in lieu of school sections; disposal of sections.
1080. Application of sections.

Section 1071. Designation for disposition.—Whenever, in the opinion of the President of the United States, the lands, or any portion of them, included within the limits of any military reservation shall become useless for military purposes, he shall cause the same or so much thereof as he may designate, to be placed under the control of the Secretary of the Interior for disposition as hereinafter provided, and shall cause to be filed with the Secretary of the Interior a notice thereof. (July 5, 1884, c. 214, § 1, 23 Stat. 103.)

1072. Survey or subdivision; appraisal, advertisement, and sale; rights of settlers.—The Secretary of the Interior may, if in his opinion the public interests so require, cause the lands referred to in section 1071 of this title, or any part thereof, in such reservations, to be regularly surveyed, or to be subdivided into tracts of less than forty acres each, and into town lots, or either, or both. He shall cause the said lands so surveyed and subdivided, and each tract thereof, to be appraised by three competent and disinterested men to be appointed by him, and who shall, after having each been first duly sworn to impartially and faithfully execute the trust reposed in them, appraise the said lands, subdivisions, and tracts, and each of them and report their proceedings to the Secretary of the Interior for his action thereon. If such appraisement be disapproved, the Secretary of the Interior shall again cause the said lands to be appraised as before provided; and when the appraisement has been approved he shall cause the said lands, subdivisions, and lots to be sold at public sale, to the highest bidder for cash, at not less than the appraised value thereof, nor less than $1.25 per acre, first having given not less than sixty days' public notice of the time, place, and terms of sale, immediately prior to such sale, by publication in at least two newspapers having a general circulation in the county or section of country where the lands to be sold are situate; and any lands, subdivisions, or lots remaining unsold may be reoffered for sale at any subsequent time in the same manner, at the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior; and if not sold at such second offering for want of bidders, then the Secretary of the Interior may sell the same at private sale, for cash, at not less than the appraised value, nor less than $1.25 per acre: Provided, That any settler who was in actual occupation of any portion of any such reservations prior to the location of such reservation, or settled thereon prior to January 1, 1884, in good faith for the purpose of securing a home and of entering the same under the general laws and has continued in such occupation to July 5, 1884, and is by law entitled to make a homestead entry shall be entitled to enter the land so occupied, not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres in a body, according to the Government surveys and subdivisions: Provided further, That said lands were subject to entry under the public-land laws at the time of their withdrawal: And provided further, That all patents issued, prior to July 5, 1884, and approved State selections, covering any lands within the old Fort Lyon Military Reservation, in the State of Colorado, declared by Executive order of August 8, 1863, are confirmed; and the rights of all entrymen and settlers on said reservation to acquire title under the homestead laws are recognized and affirmed to the extent they would have attached had public lands been settled upon or entered; and such portions of said reservation as shall not have been entered or settled upon as aforesaid shall be disposed of by the Secretary of the Interior under the provisions of this chapter, including lands that may be abandoned by settlers or entrymen. (July 5, 1884, c. 214, § 2, 23 Stat. 103.)

1073. Appraisal and sale of improvements or other property on reservations.—The Secretary of the Interior shall cause any improvements, buildings, building materials, and other property which may be situate upon any such lands, subdivisions or lots not sold prior to July 5, 1884, by the United States authorities, to be appraised in the same manner as provided in section 1072 of this title for the appraisements of such lands, subdivisions, and lots, and shall cause the same, together with the tract or lot upon which they are situate, to be sold at public sale, to the highest bidder for cash, at not less than the appraised value of such land and improvements, first giving the sixty days' notice as provided in section 1072 of this title; or he may, in his discretion, cause the improvements to be sold separately, at public sale for cash, at not less than the appraised value, to be removed by the purchaser within such time as may be prescribed, first giving the sixty days' public notice before provided; and if in any case the lands and improvements, or the improvements separately, as the case may be, are not sold for want of bidders, then the Secretary of the Interior may, in his discretion, cause the same to be reoffered for sale, at any subsequent time, in the same manner as above provided, or may cause the same to be sold at private sale for not less than the appraised value: Provided, That where buildings or improvements have been sold by the United States authorities prior to July 5, 1884, the land upon which such buildings or improvements are situate not exceeding the smallest subdivision or lot provided for by section 1072 of this title upon the reservation on which said buildings are situate shall be offered for sale to the purchaser of said improvements and buildings at the appraised value of the lands and if said purchaser shall fail for sixty days after notice to complete said purchase of lands the same shall be sold under the provisions of said section: And provided further, That the proceeds of the military reservation lands sold on Bois Blanc Island near to Fort Mackinaw Military Reservation shall be set apart as a separate fund for the improvement of the national park on the Island of Mackinaw, Michigan, under the direction of the Secretary of War. (July 5, 1884, c. 214, § 3, 23 Stat. 103.)

1074. Disposition of mineral lands.—Whenever any lands containing valuable mineral deposits shall be vacated by the reduction or abandonment of any military reservation under the provisions of this chapter, the same shall be disposed of exclusively under the mineral-land laws of the United States. (July 5, 1884, c. 214 § 5, 23 Stat. 104.)

1075. Homestead and desert land laws applicable to reservations in Nevada.—All the agricultural lands embraced within the military reservations in the State of Nevada which have been placed under the control of the Secretary of the Interior for disposition shall be disposed of under the homestead and desert-land laws, and not otherwise: Provided, That this section is intended to make applicable to the desert-land laws only such lands as were included under chapter 9 of this title, providing for the disposition of public lands under the desert-land laws. (Aug. 21, 1916, c. 361, 39 Stat. 518.)

1076. Grants to municipalities.—The President is authorized by proclamation to withhold from sale and grant for public use to the municipal corporation in which the same is situated all or any portion of any abandoned military reservation not exceeding twenty acres in one place. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 208, § 1, 27 Stat. 593.)

1077. Lands opened to settlement; preference right of entry.—All lands not disposed of prior to August 23, 1894, which were included within the limits of any abandoned military reservation placed under the control of the Secretary of the Interior for disposition under sections 1071 to 1075, inclusive, or under any law in force prior to July 5, 1884, the disposal of which has not been provided for by a subsequent Act of Congress, where the area exceeds five thousand acres, except such legal subdivisions as have Government improvements thereon, and except also such other parts as are reserved for some public use, are opened to settlement under the public-land laws of the United States, and a preference right of entry shall be given all bona fide settlers who are qualified to enter under the homestead law and have made improvements, upon any agricultural lands in said reservations, for a period of six months from the date of settlement after August 23, 1894: Provided, That persons who enter under the homestead law shall pay for such lands not less than the value determined by appraisement, nor less than the price of the land at the time of the entry, and such payment may, at the option of the purchaser, be made in five equal installments, at times and at rates of interest to be fixed by the Secretary of the Interior. (Aug. 23, 1894, c. 314, § 1, 28 Stat. 491; Feb. 15, 1895, c. 92, § 1, 28 Stat. 664.)

1078. Effect of preceding section limited.—Nothing contained in section 1077 of this title shall be construed to suspend or to interfere with the operation of sections 1071 to 1075, inclusive, of this title as to all lands included in abandoned military reservations placed under the control of the Secretary of the Interior for disposal subsequent to August 23, 1894, and all appraisements required by section 1077 of this title shall be in accordance with the provisions of sections 1072 and 1073 of this title. (Aug. 23, 1894, c. 314, § 2, 28 Stat. 491.)

1079. Confirmation of selections by States in lieu of school sections; disposal of sections.—All State school indemnity selections in lieu of what are known as school sections in abandoned military reservations made pursuant to the decision of the Secretary of the Interior dated January 28, 1898, and before notice of the withdrawal of that decision was received at the local land office at which the selections were made, and which are otherwise regular and free from any prior lawful claim, shall be confirmed by the Secretary of the Interior; and the lands in such school sections in lieu of which such confirmed selections were made shall be disposed of under the laws applicable to other lands in such abandoned military reservations, a preference right being accorded to those who have made and maintained a bona fide settlement or entry pursuant to said decision of the Secretary of the Interior. (Feb. 11, 1903, c. 543, 32 Stat. 822.)

1080. Application of sections.—The provisions of the two preceding sections are extended to all abandoned military reservations which were placed under the control of the Secretary of the Interior under any law in force prior to July 5, 1884. (Feb. 15, 1895, c. 92, § 1, 28 Stat. 664.)

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1091. Homestead entries on Indian lands; soldiers' and sailors' homesteads; reservation of school and missionary lands; rights of railroads.—Whenever any of the other lands within the former Territory of Oklahoma, other than those specified in the first three paragraphs of section 18 of the Act of May 2, 1890, occupied on that date by any Indian tribe, shall by operation of law or proclamation of the President of the United States, be open to settlement, they shall be disposed of to actual settlers only, under the provisions of the homestead law, except section 173 of chapter 7 of this title, which shall not apply: Provided, however, That each settler, under and in accordance with the provisions of said homestead laws, shall before receiving a patent for his homestead pay to the United States for the land so taken by him, in addition to the fees provided by law, a sum per acre equal to the amount which has been or may be paid by the United States to obtain a relinquishment of the Indian title or interest therein, but in no case shall such payment be less than $1.25 per acre. The rights of honorably discharged soldiers and sailors in the late Civil War, as defined and described in sections 271 and 272 of chapter 7 of this title, shall not be abridged except as to such payment. All tracts of land in former Oklahoma Territory which, prior to May 2, 1890, have been set apart for school purposes, to educational societies, or missionary boards at work among the Indians, shall not be open for settlement, but are granted to the respective educational societies or missionary boards for whose use the same has been set apart. No part of the land embraced within the former Oklahoma Territory shall inure to the use or benefit of any railroad corporation, except the rights of way and land for stations granted to certain railroad corporations prior to May 2, 1890. Nor shall any provision of this chapter or any act of any officer of the United States, done or performed under the provisions of this chapter or otherwise, invest any corporation owning or operating any railroad in the Indian Territory, or the former Oklahoma Territory, with any land or right to any land in either of said Territories, and this chapter shall not apply to or affect any land which, upon any condition on becoming a part of the public domain, would inure to the benefit of, or become the property of, any railroad corporation. (May 2, 1890, c. 182, § 18, 26 Stat. 90.)

1092. Procedure; selections in square form; amount of holding; soldiers' and sailors' homesteads.—The procedure in applications, entries, contests, and adjudications in the former Territory of Oklahoma shall be in form and manner prescribed under the homestead laws of the United States, and the general principles and provisions of the homestead laws, except as modified by the provisions of this chapter and the acts of Congress approved March 1 and 2, 1889, relating to the cession of lands of the Muscogee (or Creek) Nation of Indians, and the Seminole and Cherokee Indians, shall be applicable to all entries made in said Territory, but no patent shall be issued to any person who is not a citizen of the United States at the time of making final proof. All persons who shall settle on land in said Territory, under the provisions of the homestead laws of the United States, and of this chapter, shall be required to select the same in square form as nearly as may be; and no person who shall at the time be seized in fee simple of a hundred and sixty acres of land in any State or Territory, shall hereafter be entitled to enter land in the former Territory of Oklahoma. The provisions of sections 271 and 272 of chapter 7 of this title shall, except so far as modified by this chapter, apply to all homestead settlements in said Territory. (May 2, 1890, c. 182, § 20, 26 Stat. 91.)

1093. Patents on homestead entries on payment twelve months after location.—Any person, entitled by law to take a homestead in the former Territory of Oklahoma, who has prior to May 2, 1890, located and filed upon, or shall thereafter locate and file upon, a homestead within the limits described in the President's proclamation of April 1, 1889, and under and in pursuance of the laws applicable to the settlement of the lands opened for settlement by such proclamation, and who has complied with all the laws relating to such homestead settlement, may receive a patent therefor at the expiration of twelve months from date of locating upon said homestead upon payment to the United States of $1.25 per acre for land embraced in such homestead. (May 2, 1890, c. 182, § 21, 26 Stat. 91.)

1094. Town-site laws applicable; lands open to entry; reservations; rights of homestead settlers.—The provisions of sections 711 and 724 of chapter 17 of this title relating to reservation and sale of town sites on the public lands shall apply to the lands open, or to be opened to settlement in the former Territory of Oklahoma, except those opened to settlement by the proclamation of the President on the 22d day of April, 1889: Provided, That after May 2, 1890, all surveys for town sites in said former Territory shall contain reservations for parks (of substantially equal area if more than one park) and for schools and other public purposes, embracing in the aggregate not less than ten nor more than twenty acres; and patents for such reservations, to be maintained for such purposes, shall be issued to the towns respectively when organized as municipalities: Provided further, That in case any lands in said former Territory of Oklahoma, which may be occupied and filed upon as a homestead, under the provisions of law applicable to said former Territory, by a person who is entitled to perfect his title thereto under such laws, are required for town site purposes, it shall be lawful for such person to apply to the Secretary of the Interior to purchase the lands embraced in said homestead or any part thereof for town-site purposes. He shall file with the application a plat of such proposed town site, and if such plat shall be approved by the Secretary of the Interior, he shall issue a patent to such person for land embraced in said town site, upon the payment of the sum of $10 per acre for all the lands embraced in such town site, except the lands to be donated and maintained for public purposes as provided in this section. And the sums so received by the Secretary of the Interior shall be paid over to the proper authorities of the municipalities when organized, to be used by them for school purposes only. (May 2, 1890, c. 182, § 22, 26 Stat. 91.)

1095. Reservations between sections for highway purposes.—There shall be reserved public highways four rods wide between each section of land in said former Territory of Oklahoma, the section lines being the center of said highways; but no deduction shall be made, where cash payments are provided for, in the amount to be paid for each quarter section of land by reason of such reservation. But if the said highway shall be vacated by any competent authority, the title to the respective strips shall inure to the then owner of the tract of which it formed a part by the original survey. (May 2, 1890, c. 182, § 23, 26 Stat. 92.)

1096. Fraudulent settlement.—It shall be unlawful for any person, for himself or any company, association, or corporation, to directly or indirectly procure any person to settle upon any lands open to settlement in the former Territory of Oklahoma, with intent thereafter of acquiring title thereto; and any title thus acquired shall be void; and the parties to such fraudulent settlement shall severally be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished upon indictment, by imprisonment not exceeding twelve months, or by a fine not exceeding $1,000, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. (May 2, 1890, c. 182, § 24, 26 Stat. 92.)

1097. Rights of occupants not impaired.—The provisions of this division of this chapter shall not be so construed as to invalidate or impair any legal claims or rights of persons occupying prior to May 2, 1890, any portion of said former Territory of Oklahoma, under the laws of the United States, but such claims shall be adjudicated by the Land Department, or the courts, in accordance with their respective jurisdictions. (May 2, 1890, c. 182, § 27, 26 Stat. 93.)

1098. Nonmineral character of lands.—All the lands in Oklahoma except as otherwise provided by law are hereby declared to be agricultural lands, and proof of their nonmineral character shall not be required as a condition precedent to final entry. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 543, § 16, 26 Stat. 1026.)

1099. Division into counties before opening to settlement; reservation for county seats.—Before any lands in Oklahoma are open to settlement it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior to divide the same into counties which shall contain as near as possible not less than seven hundred square miles in each county: Provided, That as soon as the county lines are designated by the Secretary he shall reserve not to exceed one-half section of land in each, to be located near the center of said county, for county seat purposes, to be entered under sections 719 and 718 of chapter 17 of this title. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 543, § 37, 26 Stat. 1043.)

TOWN SITES

1111. Entry by trustees.—So much of the public lands situate in the former Territory of Oklahoma, open to settlement prior to May 14, 1890, as may be necessary to embrace all the legal subdivisions covered by actual occupancy for purposes of trade and business, not exceeding twelve hundred and eighty acres in each case, may be entered as town sites, for the several use and benefit of the occupants thereof, by three trustees to be appointed by the Secretary of the Interior for that purpose, such entry to be made under the provisions of section 718 of chapter 17 of this title as near as may be; and when such entry shall have been made, the Secretary of the Interior shall provide regulations for the proper execution of the trust by such trustees, including the survey of the land into streets, alleys, squares, blocks, and lots when necessary, or the approval of such survey as may already have been made by the inhabitants thereof, the assessment upon the lots of such sum as may be necessary to pay for the lands embraced in such town site, costs of survey, conveyance of lots, and other necessary expenses, including compensation of trustees: Provided, That the Secretary of the Interior may when practicable cause more than one town site to be entered and the trust thereby created executed in the manner herein provided by a single board of trustees, but not more than seven boards of trustees in all shall be appointed for said Territory, and no more than two members of any of said boards shall be appointed from one political party.

On January 1, 1899, the boards of trustees for town sites, and each of them in said Territory, shall cease and be abolished, and no compensation shall be allowed or paid to anyone, member, or trustee, or disbursing agent on or after January 1, 1899. And so much of the trust vested in said boards and prior to July 7, 1898, initiated as shall remain unexecuted on said date shall be vested in the Commissioner of the General Land Office, who is authorized and empowered to complete the same. (May 14, 1890, c. 207, § 1, 26 Stat. 109; July 7, 1898, c. 571, 30 Stat. 674.)

1112. Evidence of occupancy.—In the execution of such trust, and for the purpose of the conveyance of title by said trustees, or by the Commissioner, after January 1, 1899, any certificate or other paper evidence of claim duly issued by the authority recognized for such purpose by the people residing upon any town site the subject of entry hereunder, shall be taken as evidence of the occupancy by the holder thereof of the lot or lots therein described, except that where there is an adverse claim to said property such certificate shall only be prima facie evidence of the claim of occupancy of the holder: Provided, That nothing in this division of this chapter contained shall be so construed as to make valid any claim invalid, prior to May 14, 1890, of those who entered upon and occupied said lands in violation of the laws of the United States or the proclamation of the President thereunder: Provided further, That the certificates hereinbefore mentioned shall not be taken as evidence in favor of any person claiming lots who entered upon said lots in violation of law or the proclamation of the President thereunder. (May 14, 1890, c. 207, § 2, 26 Stat. 109.)

1113. Church lots.—Lots of land occupied by any religious organization, incorporated or otherwise, conforming to the approved survey within the limits of such town site, shall be conveyed to or in trust for the same. (May 14, 1890, c. 207, § 3, 26 Stat. 109.)

1114. Sale or reservation of lots.—All lots not disposed of as hereinbefore provided for shall be sold under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior for the benefit of the municipal government of any such town, or the same or any part thereof may be reserved for public use as sites for public buildings, or for the purpose of parks, if in the judgement of the Secretary such reservation would be for the public interest, and the Secretary shall execute proper conveyances to carry out the provisions of this section. (May 14, 1890, c. 207, § 4, 26 Stat. 109.)

1115. Kansas town-site law to govern.—The provisions of sections 4, 5, 6, and 7 of an act of the Legislature of the State of Kansas, entitled "An act relating to town sites," approved March 2, 1868, shall, so far as applicable, govern the trustees, or the commissioner after January 1, 1899, in the performance of their duties hereunder. (May 14, 1890, c. 207, § 5, 26 Stat. 109.)

1116. Preference of pending entries; appeals.—All entries of town sites pending, prior to May 14, 1890, on application thereafter made under this division of this chapter, shall have preference at the local land office of the ordinary business of the office and shall be determined as speedily as possible, and if an appeal shall be taken from the decision of the local office in any such case to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, the same shall be made special, and disposed of by him as expeditiously as the duties of his office will permit, and so if an appeal should be taken to the Secretary of the Interior. And all applications, prior to May 14, 1890, filed in the proper land office shall have the same force and effect as if made under the provisions of this division of this chapter, and upon the application of the trustees herein provided for, or of the commissioner after January 1, 1899, such entries shall be prosecuted to final issue in the names of such trustees or commissioner without other formality, and when final entry is made the title of the United States to the land covered by such entry shall be conveyed to said trustees or commissioner for the uses and purposes herein provided. (May 14, 1890, c. 207, § 6, 26 Stat. 110.)

1117. Authority, duties, and compensation of trustees.—The trustees appointed under this division of this chapter, or the commissioner after January 1, 1899, shall have the power to administer oaths, to hear and determine all controversies arising in the execution of this division of this chapter, shall keep a record of their proceedings, which shall, with all papers filed with them and all evidence of their official acts, except conveyances, be filed in the General Land Office and become part of the records of the same, and all conveyances executed by them shall be acknowledged before an officer duly authorized for that purpose. They shall be allowed prior to January 1, 1899, such compensation as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe, not exceeding $10 per day while actually employed; and such traveling and other necessary expenses as the Secretary may authorize and the Secretary of the Interior shall also provide them with necessary clerical force by detail or otherwise. (May 14, 1890, c. 207, § 7, 26 Stat. 110.)

1118. Town site laws extended to Cherokee Outlet.—The provisions of this division of this chapter are made applicable to the territory known as the "Cherokee Outlet," and prior to September 1, 1893, a part of the former Territory of Oklahoma. (Sept. 1, 1893, No. 4, 28 Stat. 11.)

1119. Vacation of town sites; homestead entries; sale.—In all cases where a town site, or an addition to a town site, entered under the provisions of section 1094 of this chapter shall be vacated in accordance with the laws of Oklahoma, and patents for the public reservations in such vacated town site, or addition thereto, have not been issued, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner of the General Land Office, upon an official showing that such town site, or addition thereto, has been vacated, and upon payment of the homestead price for such reservations, to issue a patent for such reservations to the original entryman. If the original entryman shall fail or neglect to make application for the reservations within six months from the vacation of such town site, or from May 11, 1896, the reservations shall be subject to disposal under the provisions of section 1171 of this title. (May 11, 1896, c. 168, § 1, 29 Stat. 116.)

Sale of vacated town sites.—If a patent has issued prior to May 11, 1896, or shall thereafter issue, for any such reservation, to any town or municipality, such town or municipality, upon the vacation of the town site or addition thereto, as aforesaid, may sell the same at public or private sale to the highest bidder after thirty days' public notice of such sale, and convey said lands to the purchaser by proper deed of conveyance, and cover the proceeds of such sale into the school fund of such town or municipality: Provided, That where, by reason of the vacation of an entire town site and all its additions, the municipal organization has ceased to exist, the reservations in such vacated town site which may have been patented to the town may be disposed of as isolated tracts under the provisions of section 1171 of this title. (May 11, 1896, c. 168, § 2, 29 Stat. 117.)

LANDS IN GREER COUNTY

1131. Homestead settlers on lands in Greer County.—Every person qualified under the homestead laws of the United States, who, on March 16, 1896, was a bona fide occupant of land within the territory established as Greer County, Oklahoma, shall be entitled to continue his occupation of such land with improvements thereon, not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres, and shall be allowed six months preference right from January 18, 1897, within which to initiate his claim thereto, and shall be entitled to perfect title thereto under the provisions of the homestead law, upon payment of land office fees only, at the expiration of five years from the date of entry, except that such person shall receive credit for all time during which he or those under whom he claims shall have continuously occupied the same prior to March 16, 1896. Every such person shall also have the right, for six months prior to all other persons, to purchase at $1 an acre, in five equal annual payments, any additional land of which he was in actual possession on March 16, 1896, not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres, which, prior to said date, shall have been cultivated, purchased, or improved by him. When any person entitled to a homestead or additional land, as above provided, is the head of a family, and though still living, shall not take such homestead or additional land, within six months from January 18, 1897, any member of such family over the age of twenty-one years, other than husband or wife, shall succeed to the right to take such homestead or additional land for three months longer, and any such member of the family shall also have the right to take, as before provided, any excess of additional land actually cultivated or improved prior to March 16, 1896, above the amount to which such head of the family is entitled, not to exceed one hundred and sixty acres to any one person thus taking as a member of such family.

In case of the death of any settler who actually established residence and made improvement on land in said Greer County prior to March 16, 1896, the entry shall be treated as having accrued at the time the residence was established, and sections 164 and 171 of chapter 7 of this title shall be applicable thereto.

Any person entitled to such homestead or additional land shall have the right prior to January 1, 1898, from January 18, 1897, to remove all crops and improvements he may have on land not taken by him.

Right of purchasers from Texas to perfect title under homestead laws.—The above provisions of this section are so extended as to allow parties who, prior to March 1, 1899, have had the benefit of the homestead laws of the United States, and who had purchased land in Greer County from the State of Texas prior to March 16, 1896, to perfect titles to said lands according to the provisions of this section, under such regulations as the Commissioner of the General Land Office may prescribe, and according to the legal subdivisions of the public surveys, if no adverse rights have attached: Provided, That no settler shall be permitted to acquire to exceed three hundred and twenty acres under this provision. (Jan. 18, 1897, c. 62, § 1, 29 Stat. 1897; Mar. 1, 1899, c. 328, 30 Stat. 966.)

1132. Unoccupied lands subject to homestead entry only.—All land in said county not occupied, cultivated, or improved, as provided in the first section of this division of this chapter, or not included within the limits of any town site or reserve shall be subject to entry to actual settlers only, under the provisions of the homestead law. (Jan. 18, 1897, c. 62, § 2, 29 Stat. 490.)

1133. Town-site entries.—The inhabitants of any town located in said county shall be entitled to enter the same as a town site under the provisions of sections 718 to 720, inclusive, of chapter 17 of this title: Provided, That all persons who have made or own improvements on any town lots in said county made prior to March 16, 1896, shall have the preference right to enter said lots under the provisions of this division of this chapter and of the general town site laws. (Jan. 18, 1897, c. 62, § 3, 29 Stat. 490.)

1134. Application restricted to Greer County; repeal; commutation of homesteads.—The provisions of this division of this chapter shall apply only to Greer County, Oklahoma, and all laws, existing prior to January 18, 1897, inconsistent with the provisions of said division applying to said territory in said county, are repealed; and all laws authorizing commutations of homesteads in Oklahoma shall apply to Greer County. (Jan. 18, 1897, c. 62, § 7, 29 Stat. 491.)

1193. Presenting false or counterfeited evidences of title to lands in California.

ENFORCEMENT OF PROVISIONS

1201. Power of Commissioner of Land Office.

PATENTS FOR PRIVATE LAND CLAIMS

Section 1151. Patents for confirmed claims.—In case of any claim to land in any State or Territory which had, prior to December 22, 1854, been confirmed by law, and in which no provision is made by the confirmatory statute for the issue of a patent, it may be lawful, where surveys for the land have been made, to issue patents for the claims so confirmed, upon the presentation to the Commissioner of the General Land Office of plats of survey thereof, duly approved by the surveyor general of any State or Territory, if the same be found correct by the commissioner. But such patents shall only operate as a relinquishment of title on the part of the United States, and shall in no manner interfere with any valid adverse right to the same land, nor be construed to preclude a legal investigation and decision by the proper judicial tribunal between adverse claimants to the same land. (R. S. § 2447.)

1152. Patents to persons dead before issue; effect of.—Where patents for public lands have been or may be issued, in pursuance of any law of the United States, to a person who has died before the date of such patent, the title to the land designated therein shall inure to and become vested in the heirs, devisees, or assignees of such deceased patentee as if the patent had issued to the deceased person during life. (R. S. § 2448.)

1153. Titles to lands in Missouri confirmed.—All of the right, title, and interest of the United States in and to all of the lands in the State of Missouri which, prior to June 6, 1874, had been confirmed to any person or persons by any Act of Congress, or by any officer or officers, or board or boards of commissioners, acting under and by authority of any Act of Congress, shall be granted, released, and relinquished by the United States, in fee simple, to the respective owners of the equitable titles thereto, and to their respective heirs and assigns forever, as fully and as completely, in every respect whatever, as could be done by patents issued therefor according to law. (June 6, 1874, c. 223, § 1, 18 Stat. 62.)

1155. Certificates of location of private land claims; issue and location.—Whenever, in cases prosecuted under the Acts of Congress of June 22, 1860, March 2, 1867, and the first section of the Act of June 10, 1872, providing for the adjustment of private land claims in the States of Florida, Louisiana, and Missouri, the validity of the claim has been, or shall be recognized by the Supreme Court of the United States, and the court has decreed that the plaintiff or plaintiffs is or are entitled to enter a certain number of acres upon the public lands of the United States, subject to private entry at $1.25 per acre, or to receive certificate of location for as much of the land the title to which has been established as has been disposed of by the United States, certificate of location shall be issued by the Commissioner of the General Land Office attested by the seal of said office, to be located as provided for in the sixth section of the aforesaid Act of Congress of June 22, 1860, or applied according to the provisions of this section; and said certificate of location or scrip shall be subdivided according to the request of the confirmee or confirmees, and, as nearly as practicable, in conformity with the legal divisions and subdivisions of the public lands of the United States, and shall be assignable by deed or instrument of writing, according to the form and pursuant to regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, so as to vest the assignee with all the rights of the original owners of the scrip, including the right to locate the scrip in his own name. Such scrip shall be received from actual settlers only in payment of preemption claims or in commutation of homestead claims, in the same manner and to the same extent as on January 28, 1879, was authorized by law in the case of military bounty-land warrants. The register of the proper land office, upon any such certificate being located, shall issue, in the name of the party making the location, a certificate of entry, upon which, if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of the General Land Office that such certificate has been fairly obtained, according to the true intent and meaning of this section, a patent shall issue, as in other cases, in the name of the locator or his legal representative. The provisions of this section respecting the assignment and patenting of scrip and its application to preemption and homestead claims shall apply to the indemnity certificates of location provided for by the Act of the 2d of June, 1858, entitled "An Act to provide for the location of certain confirmed private land claims in the State of Missouri, and for other purposes." (Jan. 28, 1879, c. 30, §§ 1, 2, 3, 4, 20 Stat. 274, 275.)

1156. Patents for locations under certificates made prior to January 28, 1879.—It shall be lawful for the Commissioner of the General Land Office to cause patents to be issued, as evidence of title, for all valid locations made with land scrip issued pursuant to decrees of the Supreme Court of the United States, which valid locations were made prior to January 28, 1879, in the same manner that patents are issued under the provisions of the preceding section. (May 30, 1894, c. 87, 28 Stat. 84.)

DISPOSITION OF SUSPENDED ENTRIES AND CLAIMS; INVALID AND DEFECTIVE CLAIMS AND PATENTS THEREFOR

1161. "Suspended entries of public lands" and "suspended preemption land claims."—The Commissioner of the General Land Office is authorized to decide upon principles of equity and justice, as recognized in courts of equity, and in accordance with regulations to be approved by the Secretary of the Interior, consistently with such principles, all cases of suspended entries of public lands and of suspended preemption land claims, and to adjudge in what cases patents shall issue upon the same. (R. S. § 2450; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 244; Sept. 20, 1922, c. 350, 42 Stat. 857.)

1162. Adjudications as to suspended entries; approval.—Every such adjudication shall be approved by the Secretary of the Interior and shall operate only to divest the United States of the title to the land embraced thereby, without prejudice to the rights of conflicting claimants. (R. S. § 2451; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 244; Sept. 20, 1922, c. 350, 42 Stat. 858.)

1163. Patents surrendered and new ones issued.—Where patents have been already issued on entries which are approved by the Secretary of the Interior, the Commissioner of the General Land Office, upon the canceling of the outstanding patent, is authorized to issue a new patent, on such approval, to the person who made the entry, his heirs or assigns. (R. S. § 2456; Sept. 20, 1922, c. 350, 42 Stat. 858.)

1164. Extent of foregoing provisions.—The three preceding sections and section 1171, shall be applicable to all cases of suspended entries and locations, which have arisen in the General Land Office since the 26th day of June, 1856, as well as to all cases of a similar kind which may hereafter occur, embracing as well locations under bounty-land warrants as ordinary entries or sales, including homestead entries and preemption locations or cases; where the law has been substantially complied with, and the error or informality arose from ignorance, accident, or mistake which is satisfactorily explained; and where the rights of no other claimant or preemptor are prejudiced, or where there is no adverse claim. (R. S. § 2457.)

1165. Suspension of entries for correction of clerical errors; patents.—Whenever it shall appear to the Commissioner of the General Land Office that a clerical error has been committed in the entry of any of the public lands such entry may be suspended, upon proper notification to the claimant, through the local land office, until the error has been corrected; and all entries made under the preemption, homestead, desert-land, or timber-culture laws, in which final proof and payment may have been made and certificates issued, and to which there are no adverse claims originating prior to final entry and which have been sold or incumbered prior to the 1st day of March, 1888, and after final entry, to bona fide purchasers, or incumbrancers, for a valuable consideration, shall unless upon an investigation by a Government agent, fraud on the part of the purchaser has been found, be confirmed and patented upon presentation of satisfactory proof to the Land Department of such sale or incumbrance: Provided, That after the lapse of two years from the date of the issuance of the register's receipt upon the final entry of any tract of land under the homestead, timber-culture, desert-land, or preemption laws, or under the Act of March 3, 1891, and when there shall be no pending contest or protest against the validity of such entry, the entryman shall be entitled to a patent conveying the land by him entered, and the same shall be issued to him; but this proviso shall not be construed to require the delay of two years from the date of said entry before the issuing of a patent therefor. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, §§ 1, 4, 7, 26 Stat. 1095; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

1166. Limitations of suits to annul patents.—Suits by the United States to vacate and annul any patent shall only be brought within six years after the date of the issuance of such patents. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 8, 26 Stat. 1099.)

1167. Entries and final proofs, made out of proper district, confirmed.—Whenever it shall appear to the Commissioner of the General Land Office that an error was made prior to March 9, 1904, by the officers of any local land office in receiving any application, declaratory statement, entry, or final proof under the homestead or other land laws, and that there was no fraud practiced by the entryman, and that there are no prior adverse claimants to the land described in the entry, and that no other reason why the title should not vest in the entryman exists, except that said application, declaratory statement, entry, or proof was not made within the land district in which the lands applied for were situated, as provided by section 254, such entry or proof shall be confirmed. (Mar. 9, 1904, c. 503, § 1, 33 Stat. 64.)

SALES OF ISOLATED TRACTS

1171. Sale of isolated or disconnected tracts not exceeding one quarter section.—It shall be lawful for the Commissioner of the General Land Office to order into market and sell at public auction, at the land office of the district in which the land is situated, for not less than $1.25 an acre, any isolated or disconnected tract or parcel of the public domain not exceeding one quarter section which, in his judgment, it would be proper to expose for sale after at least thirty days' notice by the land officers of the district in which such land may be situated: Provided, That any legal subdivisions of the public land, not exceeding one quarter section, the greater part of which is mountainous or too rough for cultivation, may, in the discretion of said commissioner be ordered into the market and sold pursuant to this section upon the application of any person who owns lands or holds a valid entry of, lands adjoining such tract, regardless of the fact that such tract may not be isolated or disconnected within the meaning of this section: Provided further, That this section shall not defeat any vested right which has attached under any pending entry or location. (R. S. § 2455; Feb. 26, 1895, c. 133, 28 Stat. 687; June 27, 1906, c. 3554, 34 Stat. 517; Mar. 28, 1912, c. 67, 37 Stat. 77.)

1172. Sale of ceded Chippewa Indian lands.—The provisions of section 1171, relating to the sale of isolated tracts of the public domain, are extended and made applicable to ceded Chippewa Indian lands in the State of Minnesota: Provided, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to lands which are not subject to homestead entry: Provided further, That purchasers of land under this section must pay for the lands not less than the price fixed in the law opening the lands to homestead entry. (Feb. 4, 1919, c. 13, 40 Stat. 1055.)

1173. Sale of isolated tracts in former Fort Berthold Indian Reservation.—The provisions of section 1171 are extended and made applicable to lands within the portion of the Fort Berthold Indian Reservation, North Dakota, opened under the Act of June 1, 1910 (Thirty-sixth Statutes at Large, page 455): Provided, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to lands which are not subject to homestead entry: Provided further, That purchasers of land under this section shall pay for the lands not less than the price fixed in the law opening such lands to homestead entry. (May 10, 1920, c. 178, 41 Stat. 595.)

1174. Sale of isolated tracts formerly in Oregon and California railroad grants.—The provisions of section 1171 are extended to class 3 of the lands formerly embraced by what are known as the Oregon and California railroad grants, title to which was revested in the United States under the provisions of the Act approved June 9, 1916 (Thirty-ninth Statutes at Large, page 218): Provided, That no sales hereunder shall be made for less than $2.50 per acre, and the appraised value of the timber on the land, nor until such lands shall have been subject to homestead entry for a period of two years: Provided further, That the proceeds of such sales shall be applied in the manner prescribed in said Act of June 9, 1916 (Thirty-ninth Statutes at Large, page 218). (May 25, 1920, c. 200, 41 Stat. 623.)

1175. Sale of isolated tracts in abandoned Fort Buford Military Reservation.—The provisions of section 1171 are extended to all nonmineral lands within the abandoned Fort Buford Military Reservation in the States of North Dakota and Montana, which were restored to disposal under the homestead, town-site, and desert-land laws under the provisions of the Act of May 19, 1900 (Thirty-first Statutes at Large, page 180). (Aug. 11, 1921, c. 62, 42 Stat. 159.)

TIMBER CULTURE

1181. Repeal of laws.—An Act entitled "An Act to amend an Act entitled 'An Act to encourage the growth of timber on the western prairies,'" approved June 14, 1878, and all laws supplementary thereto or amendatory thereof are repealed: Provided, That this repeal shall not affect any valid rights accrued or accruing under said laws but all bona fide claims lawfully initiated prior to March 3, 1891, may be perfected upon due compliance with law, in the same manner, upon the same terms and conditions, and subject to the same limitations, forfeitures, and contests as if this section had not been passed: Provided further, That the following words of the last clause of section 2 of said Act, namely, "That not less than twenty-seven hundred trees were planted on each acre," are hereby repealed: Provided further, That in computing the period of cultivation the time shall run from the date of the entry, if the necessary acts of cultivation were performed within the proper time: Provided further, That the preparation of the land and the planting of trees shall be construed as acts of cultivation, and the time authorized to be so employed and actually employed shall be computed as a part of the eight years of cultivation required by statute: Provided further, That if trees, seeds, or cuttings were in good faith planted as provided by law and the same and the land upon which so planted were thereafter in good faith cultivated as provided by law for at least eight years by a person qualified to make entry and who has a subsisting entry under the timber-culture laws, final proof may be made without regard to the number of trees that may have been then growing on the land: And provided, That any person who has made entry of any public lands of the United States under the timber-culture laws, and who has for a period of four years in good faith complied with the provisions of said laws and who is an actual bona fide resident of the State or Territory in which said land is located shall be entitled to make final proof thereto, and acquire title to the same, by the payment of $1.25 per acre for such tract, under such rules and regulations as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, and registers shall be allowed the same fees and compensation for final proofs in timber-culture entries as is now allowed by law in homestead entries: And provided further, That no land acquired under the provisions of this section shall in any event become liable to the satisfaction of any debt or debts contracted prior to the issuing of the final certificate therefor. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 1, 26 Stat. 1095; Mar. 3, 1893, c. 208, 27 Stat. 593.)

EVIDENCES OF TITLE

1191. False making or altering of instrument concerning lands, mines, or minerals in California.—Every person who falsely makes, alters, forges, or counterfeits, or causes or procures to be falsely made, altered, forged, or counterfeited; or willingly aids and assists in the false making, altering, forging, or counterfeiting any petition, certificate, order, report, decree, concession, denouncement, deed, patent, confirmation, diseño, map, expediente or part of an expediente, or any title paper, or evidence of right, title, or claim to lands, mines, or minerals in California, or any instrument of writing whatever in relation to lands or mines or minerals in the State of California, for the purpose of setting up or establishing against the United States any claim, right, or title to lands, mines, or minerals within the State of California, or for the purpose of enabling any person to set up or establish any such claim; and every person, who, for such purpose, utters or publishes as true and genuine any such false, forged, altered, or counterfeited petition, certificate, order, report, decree, concession, denouncement, deed, patent, confirmation, diseño, map, expediente or part of an expediente, title paper, evidence of right, title, or claim to lands or mines or minerals in the State of California, or any instrument of writing whatever in relation to lands or mines or minerals in the State of California, shall be punishable by imprisonment at hard labor not less than three years and not more than ten years, and by a fine of not more than $10,000. (R. S. § 2471.)

1192. Falsely dating evidence of title under Mexican authority to lands in California.—Every person who makes, or causes or procures to be made, or willingly aids and assists in making any falsely dated petition, certificate, order, report, decree, concession, denouncement, deed, patent, confirmation, diseño, map, expediente or part of an expediente, or any title paper, or written evidence of right, title, or claim, under Mexican authority, to any lands, mines, or minerals in the State of California, or any instrument of writing in relation to lands or mines or minerals in the State of California, having a false date, or falsely purporting to be made by any Mexican officer or authority prior to the 7th day of July, 1846, for the purpose of setting up or establishing any claim against the United States to lands or mines or minerals within the State of California, or of enabling any person to set up or establish any such claim; and every person who signs his name as governor, secretary, or other public officer acting under Mexican authority, to any instrument of writing falsely purporting to be a grant, concession, or denouncement under Mexican authority, and during its existence in California, of lands, mines, or minerals, or falsely purporting to be an informe, report, record, confirmation, or other proceeding on an application for a grant, concession, or denouncement under Mexican authority, during its existence in California, of lands, mines, or minerals, shall be punishable as prescribed in the preceding section. (R. S. § 2472.)

1193. Presenting false or counterfeited evidences of title to lands in California.—Every person who, for the purpose of setting up or establishing any claim against the United States to lands, mines, or minerals within the State of California, presents, or causes or procures to be presented, before any court, judge, commission, or commissioner, or other officer of the United States, any false, forged, altered, or counterfeited petition, certificate, order, report, decree, concession, denouncement, deed, patent, diseño, map, expediente or part of an expediente, title paper, or written evidence of right, title, or claim to lands, minerals, or mines in the State of California, knowing the same to be false, forged, altered, or counterfeited, or any falsely dated petition, certificate, order, report, decree, concession, denouncement, deed, patent, confirmation, diseño, map, expediente or part of an expediente, title paper, or written evidence of right, title, or claim to lands, mines, or minerals in California, knowing the same to be falsely dated; and every person who prosecutes in any court of the United States, by appeal or otherwise, any claim against the United States for lands, mines, or minerals in California, which claim is founded upon, or evidenced by, any petition, certificate, order, report, decree, concession, denouncement, deed, patent, confirmation, diseño, map, expediente or part of an expediente, title paper, or written evidence of right, title, or claim, which has been forged, altered, counterfeited, or falsely dated, knowing the same to be forged, altered, counterfeited, or falsely dated, shall be punishable as prescribed in section 1191. (R. S. § 2473.)

ENFORCEMENT OF PROVISIONS

1201. Power of Commissioner of Land Office.—The Commissioner of the General Land Office, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, is authorized to enforce and carry into execution, by appropriate regulations, every part of the provisions of this title not otherwise specially provided for. 16. Schedule of materials required; advertisements for proposals; contracts.

Section 1. Joint Committee on Printing.—There shall be a Joint Committee on Printing, consisting of three members of the Senate and three members of the House of Representatives, who shall have the powers hereinafter stated. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 1, 28 Stat. 601.)

2. Same; reelected Congressmen to continue as members of until successors chosen; powers during recess.—The members of the Joint Committee on Printing who are reelected to the succeeding Congress shall continue as members of said committee until their successors are chosen. The President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall, on the last day of a Congress, appoint members of their respective Houses who have been elected to the succeeding Congress to fill any vacancies which may then be about to occur on said committee, and such appointees and the members of said committee who shall have been reelected shall continue until their successors are chosen. The Joint Committee on Printing shall, when Congress is not in session, exercise all the powers and duties devolving upon said committee as provided by law, the same as when Congress is in session. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 189, § 1, 28 Stat. 962; Mar. 3, 1917, c. 163, § 6, 39 Stat. 1121.)

4. Same; remedying neglect or delay in public printing.—The Joint Committee on Printing shall have power to adopt and employ such measures as, in its discretion, may be deemed necessary to remedy any neglect, delay, duplication, or waste in the public printing and binding and the distribution of Government publications. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 2, 28 Stat. 601; Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2284, § 1, 34 Stat. 1012; Mar. 1, 1919, c. 86, § 11, 40 Stat. 1270.)

5. Standards of paper; advertisements for proposals; samples.—The Joint Committee on Printing shall fix upon standards of paper for the different descriptions of public printing and binding, and the Public Printer shall, under their direction, advertise in one newspaper or trade journal, published in each of six cities, for sealed proposals to furnish the Government with paper, as specified in the schedule to be furnished applicants by the Public Printer, setting forth in detail the quality and quantities required for the public printing. And the Public Printer shall furnish samples of the standard of papers fixed upon to applicants therefor who shall desire to bid. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 3, 28 Stat. 601; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 421, § 1, 43 Stat. 1105.)

6. Specifications in advertisements.—The advertisements shall specify the minimum portion of each quality of paper required for either three months, six months, or one year, as the Joint Committee on Printing may determine; but when the minimum portion so specified exceeds, in any case, one thousand reams, it shall state that proposals will be received for one thousand reams or more. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 4, 28 Stat. 601.)

7. Opening bids; bonds.—The sealed proposals to furnish paper shall be opened in the presence of the Joint Committee on Printing, and the contracts shall be awarded by them to the lowest and best bidder for the interest of the Government; but they shall not consider any proposal which is not accompanied by a bond approved by a judge or clerk of a court of record in the penalty of $5,000 that the bidder or bidders, if his or their proposal is accepted, shall enter into a contract to furnish the articles proposed for and by satisfactory evidence that the person making it is a manufacturer of or dealer in the description of paper which he proposes to furnish. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 5, 28 Stat. 602.)

8. Approval of contract; time for performance; bonds.—No contract for furnishing paper shall be valid until it has been approved by the Joint Committee on Printing. The award of each contract for furnishing paper shall designate a reasonable time for its performance. The contractor shall give bond in such amount as may be fixed by, and to the approval of, the Joint Committee on Printing. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 6, 28 Stat. 602; Mar. 3, 1917, c. 163, § 6, 39 Stat. 1121.)

9. Comparison of paper with standard.—The Public Printer shall compare every lot of paper delivered by any contractor with the standard of quality fixed upon by the Joint Committee on Printing and shall not accept any paper which does not conform to it in every particular. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 7, 28 Stat. 602.)

10. Determination of quality of paper.—In case of difference of opinion between the Public Printer and any contractor for paper respecting its quality, the matter of difference shall be determined by the Joint Committee on Printing, and the decision of said Joint Committee shall be final as to the United States. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 8, 28 Stat. 602; Mar. 3, 1917, c. 163, § 6, 39 Stat. 1121.)

11. Default of contractor; new contracts and purchase in open market.—If any contractor shall fail to comply with his contract, the Public Printer shall report such default to the Joint Committee on Printing, and he shall, under the direction of the committee, enter into a new contract with the lowest, best, and most responsible bidder for the interest of the Government among those whose proposals were rejected at the last opening of bids, or he shall advertise for new proposals, under the regulations hereinbefore stated; and during the interval which may thus occur he shall, under the direction of the Joint Committee on Printing, purchase in open market, at the lowest market price, all paper necessary for the public printing. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 9, 28 Stat. 602; Mar. 3, 1917, c. 163, § 6, 39 Stat. 1121.)

12. Liability of defaulting contractor.—In case of the default of any contractor to furnish paper, he and his sureties shall be responsible for any increase of cost to the Government in procuring a supply of such paper which may be consequent upon such default. The Public Printer shall report every such default, with a full statement of all the facts in the case, to the Solicitor of the Treasury, who shall prosecute the defaulting contractor and his sureties upon their bond, in the circuit court of the United States in the district in which such defaulting contractors reside. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 10, 28 Stat. 602.)

13. Purchase of paper in open market.—The Joint Committee on Printing may authorize the Public Printer to make purchases of paper in open market whenever they may deem the quantity required so small or the want so immediate as not to justify advertisement for proposals. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 11, 28 Stat. 602; Mar. 3, 1917, c. 163, § 6, 39 Stat. 1121.)

14. Purchase of other materials.—The Joint Committee is authorized to give permission to the Public Printer to purchase material other than paper in open market, whenever in their opinion it would not promote the public interest to advertise for proposals and to make contracts for the same. Purchases herein authorized shall not in any term of six months exceed the sum of $50 for any particular article required. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 12, 28 Stat. 602.)

15. Lithographing and engraving; contracts; bids.—When the probable total cost of the maps or plates accompanying one work or document exceeds $1,200, the lithographing or engraving thereof shall be awarded to the lowest and best bidder, after advertisement by the Public Printer, under the direction of the Joint Committee, which may authorize him to make immediate contracts for lithographing or engraving whenever the exigencies of the public service do not justify advertisement for proposals. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 15, 28 Stat. 603.)

16. Schedule of materials required; advertisements for proposals; contracts.—The Public Printer shall prepare a schedule of materials required to be purchased, showing the description, quantity, and quality of each article, and shall invite proposals for furnishing the same, either by advertisement or circular, as the Joint Committee on Printing may direct, and shall make contracts for the same with the lowest responsible bidder, making a return of the same to the Joint Committee, showing the number of bidders, the amounts of each bid, and the awards of the contracts. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 16, 28 Stat. 603.)

58. Sale of duplicate plates; copyright.
59. Machinery, material, equipment, or supplies from other departments.
60. Consolidation of department printing offices.
61. Branches of printing office in executive departments.

Section 31. Public Printer; appointment; salary; bond.—The President of the United States shall nominate and, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint a suitable person, who must be a practical printer and versed in the art of bookbinding, to take charge of and manage the Government Printing Office. The title of said officer shall be Public Printer. He shall receive a salary of $6,000 per annum, and shall give bond in the sum of $25,000 for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, said bond to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 17, 28 Stat. 603; June 12, 1917, c. 27, § 1, 40 Stat. 173; Feb. 20, 1923, c. 98, 42 Stat. 1278; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 549, § 1, 43 Stat. 1299.)

32. Same; vacancy in office.—In case of the death, resignation, absence, or sickness of the Public Printer the Deputy Public Printer shall perform the duties of the Public Printer until a successor is appointed or such absence or sickness shall cease; but the President may, in his discretion, authorize and direct any other officer of the Government, whose appointment is vested in the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to perform the duties of the vacant office until a successor is appointed, or the sickness or absence of the Public Printer shall cease. A vacancy occasioned by death or resignation must not be temporarily filled under the provisions of this section for a longer period than ten days, and no temporary appointment, designation, or assignment of another officer to perform such duty shall be made except to fill a vacancy happening during a recess of the Senate. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 36, 28 Stat. 606; May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 382.)

33. Same; duties.—It shall be the duty of the Public Printer to purchase all materials and machinery which may be necessary for the Government Printing Office; to take charge of all matter which is to be printed, engraved, lithographed, or bound; to keep an account thereof in the order in which it is received, and to cause the work to be promptly executed; to superintend all printing and binding done at the Government Printing Office, and to see that the sheets or volumes are promptly delivered to the officer who is authorized to receive them. The receipt of such officer shall be a sufficient voucher for their delivery. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 18, 28 Stat. 603.)

34. Same; annual report.—The Public Printer shall make annual report to Congress, and in it specify the number of copies of each department report and document printed upon requisition by the head of the department for which the printing was done, and he shall also specify in said report the exact number of copies of books, giving the titles of the books, bound upon requisition for Senators, Representatives, Delegates, and other officers of the Government and the cost thereof. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 19, 28 Stat. 603.)

35. Annual report of cost of printing, paper, contracts, and payments.—The Public Printer shall, on the first day of each regular session, report to Congress the exact condition and the quantity and cost of all printing, binding, lithographing, and engraving; the quantity and cost of all paper purchased for the same; a detailed statement of all proposals and contracts entered into for the purchase of paper and other materials, and for lithographing and engraving; of all payments made, during the preceding year, under his direction; of the quantity of work ordered and done, with a general classification thereof, for each department, and a detailed statement of each account with the departments or public officers; a classified detailed statement of the number of hands employed and the sums paid to each; and such other information touching all matters connected with the printing office as may be in his possession. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 22, 28 Stat. 604.)

36. Annual estimates; for paper.—The Public Printer shall, at the beginning of each session of Congress, submit to the Joint Committee on Printing estimates of the quantity of paper of all descriptions which will be required for the public printing and binding during the ensuing year. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 26, 28 Stat. 604.)

37. Same; of expenses.—He shall prepare and submit to the Bureau of the Budget, annually, as required by section 24 of Title 31, detailed estimates of the sums which will be required for salaries, wages, printing, engraving, lithographing, binding, materials, and other necessary expenses of the printing office for the ensuing fiscal year including estimates covering appropriations requisite for all work to be done and services to be rendered under his direction, and estimates for all clerks and employees who may be required in the executive or administrative offices of the Government Printing Office; and no funds other than those specifically appropriated under said estimates shall be used during said fiscal year for services in the Government Printing Office of the character specified in said estimates and appropriated for thereunder. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 27, 28 Stat. 604; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 189, § 1, 28 Stat. 961; May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 382; June 10, 1921, c. 18, §§ 215, 216, 42 Stat. 23.)

38. Fraud of Public Printer; penalty.—If the Public Printer shall, by himself or through others, corruptly collude or have any secret understanding with any person to defraud the United States, or whereby the United States shall be made to sustain a loss, he shall, on conviction thereof before any court of competent jurisdiction, forfeit his office and be imprisoned in the penitentiary for a term of not more than seven years, and fined in a sum not exceeding $3,000. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 33, 28 Stat. 605.)

39. Deputy Public Printer.—The office of Deputy Public Printer shall be filled by the selection and appointment by the Public Printer of a person skilled as a practical printer and versed in the art of bookbinding, and who shall perform the duties formerly required of the chief clerk, have supervision of the buildings occupied by the Government Printing Office, and perform such other duties as may be required of him by the Public Printer. (May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 382.)

40. Employment by Public Printer of employees; pay.—The Public Printer may employ, at such rates of wages and salaries, including compensation for night and overtime work, as he may deem for the interest of the Government and just to the persons employed, except as otherwise provided herein, such journeymen, apprentices, laborers, and other persons as may be necessary for the work of the Government Printing Office; but he shall not, at any time, employ more persons than the necessities of the public work may require or more than two hundred apprentices at any one time. The minimum pay of all journeymen printers, pressmen, and bookbinders employed in the Government Printing Office shall be at the rate of 90 cents an hour for the time actually employed. Except as hereinbefore provided, the rate of wages, including compensation for night and overtime work, for more than ten employees of the same occupation shall be determined by a conference between the Public Printer and a committee selected by the trades affected, and the rates and compensation so agreed upon shall become effective upon approval by the Joint Committee on Printing; if the Public Printer and the committee representing any trade fail to agree as to wages, salaries, and compensation either party is hereby granted the right of appeal to the Joint Committee on Printing, and the decision of said committee shall be final; the wages, salaries, and compensation determined as provided herein shall not be subject to change oftener than once a year thereafter. Employees and officers of the Government Printing Office, unless otherwise herein fixed, shall continue to be paid at the rates of wages, salaries, and compensation (including night rate) authorized by law on June 7, 1924, until such time as their wages, salaries, and compensation shall be determined as hereinbefore provided. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, §§ 39, 47, 50, 28 Stat. 607, 608; June 6, 1900, c. 791, § 1, 31 Stat. 643; Mar. 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 1021, 1024; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 355, § 1, 37 Stat. 482; July 8, 1918, c. 139, § 1, 40 Stat. 836; Aug. 2, 1919, c. 30, 41 Stat. 72; Feb. 20, 1923, c. 98, 42 Stat. 1278; June 7, 1924, c. 354, § 1, 43 Stat. 658.)

41. Employment of skilled workmen.—It shall be the duty of the Public Printer to employ workmen who are thoroughly skilled in their respective branches of industry, as shown by trial of their skill under his direction. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 45, 28 Stat. 607.)

42. Night work.—The Public Printer shall cause work to be done on the public printing in the Government Printing Office at night as well as through the day, when the exigencies of the public service require it, but the provisions of the existing eight-hour law shall apply. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 47, 28 Stat. 607.)

43. Eight-hour law.—The Public Printer is hereby directed to rigidly enforce the provisions of the eight-hour law in the department under his charge. (Mar. 30, 1888, c. 47, § 1, 25 Stat. 57.)

44. Holidays.—The employees of the Government Printing Office shall be allowed the following legal holidays with pay, to wit: The 1st day of January, the 22d day of February, the 4th day of July, the 25th day of December, Inauguration Day, Memorial Day, Labor's Holiday, and such day as may be designated by the President of the United States as a day of public fast or thanksgiving. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 46, 28 Stat. 607.)

45. Leaves of absence.—The employees of the Government Printing Office, whether employed by the piece or otherwise, shall be allowed leaves of absence with pay to the extent of not exceeding thirty days in any one fiscal year under such regulations and at such times as the Public Printer may designate at the rate of pay received by them during the time in which said leave was earned; but such leaves of absence shall not be allowed to accumulate from year to year. Such employees as are engaged on piecework shall receive the same rate of pay for the said thirty days' leave as will be paid to day hands. It shall be lawful to allow pay for pro rata leave to those serving fractional parts of a year; also to allow pay for pro rata leave of absence to employees of the Government Printing Office in any fiscal year, notwithstanding the fact that thirty days' leave of absence, with pay, may have been granted to such employees in that fiscal year on account of service rendered in a previous fiscal year. The Public Printer is authorized to pay to the legal representatives of any employees who may die, and may have any accrued leave of absence due them as such employees, said claims to be paid out of any appropriations for leaves of absence. (June 11, 1896, c. 420, § 1, 29 Stat. 453.)

46. Same; payment of employees receiving annual salaries.—Employees in the Government Printing Office receiving annual salaries fixed by law shall be allowed leave at the rate of pay received by them at the time such leave is granted, the same to be payable from the specific appropriation for their salaries. (June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 1, 36 Stat. 767.)

47. Details of employees to executive departments or establishments.—No employee of the Government Printing Office shall be detailed to duties not pertaining to the work of public printing and binding in any executive department or other Government establishment unless expressly authorized by law. (June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 1, 36 Stat. 770.)

48. List of employees for Official Register.—The Public Printer shall, as of the 1st day of July in each year, cause to be filed with the Director of the Census a full and complete list of all persons occupying administrative and supervisory positions in his department, or in any of the branch offices. He shall include in such list all the statistics peculiar to his department required to enable the Director of the Census to prepare the Official Register. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 43, 28 Stat. 607; June 7, 1906, c. 3048, 34 Stat. 218.)

49. Examining boards.—The Deputy Public Printer, the superintendent of printing, and a person designated by the Joint Committee on Printing, shall constitute a board to examine and report in writing on all paper delivered under contract, or by purchase or otherwise, at the Government Printing Office. The Deputy Public Printer, superintendent of binding, and a person designated by the Joint Committee on Printing shall constitute a board to examine and report in writing on all material, except paper, for the use of the bindery. The Deputy Public Printer, the superintendent of printing, and a person designated by the Joint Committee on Printing shall constitute a board of condemnation, who, upon the call of the Public Printer, shall determine the condition of presses and other machinery and material used in the Government Printing Office, with a view to condemnation. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 20, 28 Stat. 603; May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 382; June 7, 1924, c. 303, § 1, 43 Stat. 590.)

50. Disbursing clerk; duties.—The disbursing clerk of the Government Printing Office shall be charged with the receipt and disbursement of all moneys for said office in accordance with the provisions of law relating to other disbursing officers of the Government, under such bond and rules as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 30, 28 Stat. 605; Feb. 20, 1923, c. 98, 42 Stat. 1278.)

51. Settlement of accounts.—The disbursing clerk of the Government Printing Office shall settle the account of his receipts and disbursements in the same manner required of other disbursing officers. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 30, 28 Stat. 605; Feb. 20, 1923, c. 98, 42 Stat. 1278.)

52. Advances to disbursing clerk.—There shall be advanced to the disbursing clerk from time to time, as the public service may require it, and under such rules as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, a sum of money to enable him to pay for work and material. (Mar. 30, 1900, c. 118, 31 Stat. 58; Feb. 20, 1923, c. 98, 42 Stat. 1278.)

53. Interest of officers and assistants in printing contracts.—Neither the Public Printer, superintendent of printing, superintendent of binding, nor any of their assistants shall, during their continuance in office, have any interest, direct or indirect, in the publication of any newspaper or periodical, or in any printing, binding, engraving, or lithographing of any kind, or in any contract for furnishing paper or other material connected with the public printing, binding, lithographing, or engraving; and for every violation of this section the party offending shall, on conviction before any court of competent jurisdiction, be imprisoned in the penitentiary for a term of not less than one nor more than five years, and shall be fined not exceeding $500. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 34, 28 Stat. 605; May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 382; June 7, 1924, c. 303, § 1, 43 Stat. 590.)

54. Accountability for and issue of materials.—The Public Printer shall charge himself with, and be accountable for, all material received for the public use. The superintendents of printing and binding shall make out estimates of the quantity and kind of material required for their respective departments and file written requisitions therefor when it is needed. The Public Printer shall furnish the same to them on these requisitions, as required for the public service, and they shall receipt to him and be held accountable for all material so received. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 32, 28 Stat. 605; June 7, 1924, c. 303, § 1, 43 Stat. 590.)

55. Purchase of press supplies.—The Public Printer may purchase in open market, and without previous advertising, such supplies as the Government Printing Office may require, of ink, rollers, composition for making rollers, tapes, press blankets, and lubricating oils, taking care that only the lowest market prices be paid; and when practicable he shall issue circulars inviting bids. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 38, 28 Stat. 607.)

56. Sale or exchange of condemned materials.—Whenever any machinery or material in the Government Printing Office shall have been regularly condemned as unserviceable, the Public Printer may sell the same, after public advertisement, to the highest bidder, for cash, and turn the proceeds into the Treasury of the United States. In case the sum or sums offered for such advertised property should be deemed by him too low, he may exchange said old machinery or material for new, paying the difference in money, and render appropriate vouchers for such expenditure. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 21, 28 Stat. 604.)

57. Receipts from sales to be covered into Treasury.—Moneys received from sales of extra copies of documents, paper shavings, imperfections, waste gold leaf, leather and book cloth scraps, and for the sale of old and condemned material, shall be deposited by the Public Printer in the Treasury of the United States, and a detailed statement thereof shall be included in his annual report to Congress. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 29, 28 Stat. 605.)

58. Sale of duplicate plates; copyright.—The Public Printer shall sell, under such regulations as the Joint Committee on Printing may prescribe, to any person or persons who may apply, additional or duplicate stereotype or electrotype plates from which any Government publication is printed, at a price not to exceed the cost of composition, the metal and making to the Government and 10 per centum added and the full amount of the price shall be paid when the order is filed. No publication reprinted from such stereotype or electrotype plates and no other Government publication shall be copyrighted. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 52, 28 Stat. 608.)

59. Machinery, material, equipment, or supplies from other departments.—Any officer of the Government having machinery, material, equipment, or supplies for printing, binding, and blank-book work, including lithography, photolithography, and other processes of reproduction, which are no longer required or authorized for his service, shall submit a detailed report of the same to the Public Printer, and the Public Printer is hereby authorized, with the approval of the Joint Committee on Printing, to requisition such articles of the character herein described as are serviceable in the Government Printing Office, and the same shall be promptly delivered to that office. (July 19, 1919, c. 24, § 3, 41 Stat. 233.)

60. Consolidation of department printing offices.—All printing offices in the departments in operation on January 12, 1895, or thereafter put in operation, shall be considered a part of the Government Printing Office, and shall be under the control of the Public Printer, who shall furnish all presses, types, imposing stones, and necessary machinery and material for said offices from the general supplies of the Government Printing Office; and all paper and material of every kind used in the said offices for departmental work, except letter and note paper and envelopes, shall be supplied by the Public Printer; and all persons employed in said printing offices and binderies shall be appointed by the Public Printer, and be carried on his pay roll the same as employees in the main office, and shall be responsible to him. This section shall not apply to the office in the Weather Bureau, but the Public Printer, with the approval of the Joint Committee on Printing, may abolish such excepted office whenever in their judgment the economy of the public service would be thereby advanced.

All work done in the said offices shall be ordered on blanks prepared for that purpose by the Public Printer, which shall be numbered consecutively, and must be signed by some one designated by the head of the department for which the work is to be done, who shall be held responsible for all work thus ordered, and who shall quarterly report to the head of the department a classified statement of the work done and the cost thereof, which report shall be transmitted to the Public Printer in time for his annual report to Congress. The Public Printer shall show in detail, in his annual report, the cost of operating each departmental office. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 31, 28 Stat. 605; Mar. 6, 1902, c. 139, § 11, 32 Stat. 53; Apr. 23, 1904, c. 1485, 33 Stat. 262; Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1158; Mar. 3, 1917, c. 163, § 1, 39 Stat. 1083.)

61. Branches of printing office in executive departments.—No money appropriated by any Act shall be used for maintaining more than one branch of the Government Printing Office in any one building occupied by any executive department or departments of the Government, nor shall any branch of the Government Printing Office be established unless specifically authorized by law. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 223, § 1, 38 Stat. 673.)

94. Blank forms; printing and sale.
95. Distribution of publications to be by Public Printer; mailing lists.
96. Departmental distribution of documents.

Section 71. Superintendent of Documents; sale of documents.—The Public Printer shall appoint a competent person to act as Superintendent of Documents. The Superintendent of Documents so designated and appointed is hereby authorized to sell at cost any public document in his charge, the distribution of which is not herein specifically directed, said cost to be estimated by the Public Printer and based upon printing from stereotyped plates; but, except as provided in section 72 of this title, only one copy of any document shall be sold to the same person, excepting libraries or schools by which additional copies are desired for separate departments thereof, and members of Congress; and whenever any officer of the Government having in his charge documents published for sale shall desire to be relieved of the same, he is hereby authorized to turn them over to the Superintendent of Documents, who shall receive and sell them under the provisions of this section. All moneys received from the sale of documents shall be returned to the Public Printer on the 1st day of each month and be by him covered into the Treasury monthly, and the Superintendent of Documents shall report annually the number of copies of each and every document sold by him, and the price of the same. He shall also report monthly to the Public Printer the number of documents received by him and the disposition made of the same. He shall have general supervision of the distribution of all public documents, and to his custody shall be committed all documents subject to distribution, excepting those printed for the special official use of the executive departments, which shall be delivered to said departments, and those printed for the use of the two Houses of Congress, which shall be delivered to the folding rooms of said Houses and distributed or delivered ready for distribution to Members and Delegates upon their order by the superintendents of the folding rooms of the Senate and House of Representatives. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 61, 28 Stat. 610.)

72. Printing for sale to public; regulations.—The Public Printer shall print such additional copies of any Government publication, not confidential in character, as may be required for sale to the public by the Superintendent of Documents at the cost of printing and binding, plus 10 per centum, without limit as to the number of copies to any one applicant who agrees not to resell or distribute the same for profit; but the printing of such additional copies required for sale by the Superintendent of Documents shall be subject to regulation by the Joint Committee on Printing and shall not interfere with the prompt execution of printing for the Government. (May 11, 1922, c. 189, § 1, 42 Stat. 541.)

73. Superintendent of Documents under control of Public Printer; disbursements and report.—The office of the Superintendent of Documents shall be under the control of the Public Printer. The disbursements on account of salaries or other expenses of the office of the Superintendent of Documents shall be made by the disbursing clerk of the Government Printing Office, and a statement thereof shall be included in the Public Printer's annual report for each fiscal year. (June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 1, 36 Stat. 770; Feb. 20, 1923, c. 98, 42 Stat. 1278.)

74. Assistants, blanks, printing, and binding for Superintendent of Documents.—The Public Printer is hereby authorized and directed, upon the requisition of the Superintendent of Documents, to appoint such assistants as may be necessary, and furnish such blanks and to do such printing and binding as are required by his office, and the Public Printer shall provide convenient office, storage, and distributing rooms for the use of the Superintendent of Documents. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 66, 28 Stat. 611.)

75. Compensation to employees in office of Superintendent of Documents for night, Sunday, holiday, and overtime work.—Employees in the office of the Superintendent of Documents may be paid compensation for night, Sunday, holiday, and overtime work at rates not in excess of the rates of additional compensation for such work allowed to other employees of the Government Printing Office under the provisions of section 40 of this title. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 549, § 1, 43 Stat. 1300.)

76. Index of documents; number and distribution.—The Superintendent of Documents shall, at the close of each regular session of Congress, prepare and publish a comprehensive index of public documents, upon such plan as shall be approved by the Joint Committee on Printing; and the Public Printer shall, immediately upon its publication, deliver to him a copy of each and every document printed by the Government Printing Office; and the head of each of the executive departments, bureaus, and offices of the Government shall deliver to him a copy of each and every document issued or published by such department, bureau, or office not confidential in its character. He shall also prepare and print in one volume a consolidated index of Congressional documents, and shall index such single volumes of documents as the Joint Committee on Printing shall direct. Of the comprehensive index and of the consolidated index two thousand copies each shall be printed and bound in addition to the usual number, two hundred copies for the use of the Senate, eight hundred copies for the use of the House, and one thousand copies for distribution by the Superintendent of Documents. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 62, 28 Stat. 610.)

77. Catalogue of Government publications.—A catalogue of Government publications shall be prepared by the Superintendent of Documents on the 1st day of each month, which shall show the documents printed during the preceding month, where obtainable, and the price thereof. Two thousand copies of such catalogue shall be printed in pamphlet form for distribution. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 69, 28 Stat. 612.)

78. Documents in charge of departments to be turned over to Superintendent of Documents.—All public documents accumulating in the several executive departments, bureaus, and offices not needed for official use shall be annually turned over to the Superintendent of Documents for distribution or sale. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 67, 28 Stat. 611.)

79. Reprinting documents required for sale.—The Superintendent of Documents is hereby authorized to order reprinted, from time to time, such public documents as may be required for sale, such order for reprinting to be subject to the approval of the Secretary or head of the department in which such public document shall have originated. The appropriation for printing and binding shall be reimbursed for the cost of such reprints from the moneys received by the Superintendent of Documents from the sale of public documents. (Mar. 28, 1904, No. 11, 33 Stat. 584.)

80. Documents for President.—The Public Printer shall deliver to the Executive Mansion two copies each of all documents, bills, and resolutions as soon as printed and ready for distribution. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 88, 28 Stat. 622.)

81. Documents for use of Public Printer.—The Public Printer may retain out of all documents, bills, and resolutions printed the number of copies absolutely needful for the official use of the Government Printing Office, not exceeding five of each. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 618.)

82. Distribution of copies of publications to designated depositories.—The copies of journals, books, and public documents which are or may be authorized to be distributed to incorporated bodies, institutions, and associations within the States and Territories shall be distributed to such bodies as shall be designated by each of the Senators from the several States, respectively, and by the Representatives in Congress from each congressional district, and by the Delegate from each Territory. The distribution shall be made in such manner that the quantity distributed to each congressional district and Territory shall be equal. (R. S. § 501; Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2284, § 4, 34 Stat. 1014.)

83. Designation of depositories.—The selection of an institution to receive the documents ordered to be published or procured at the first session of any Congress shall control the documents of the entire Congress, unless another designation be made before any distribution has taken place under the selection first made. And the public documents to be distributed by the Superintendent of Documents shall be sent to the institutions already designated, unless he shall be satisfied that any such institution is no longer a suitable depository of the same. Congressional journals and public documents, authorized to be distributed to institutions on the designation of Members of Congress, shall be sent to such libraries and institutions only as shall signify a willingness to pay the cost of their transportation. (R. S. § 502; Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, §§ 53, 61, 28 Stat. 608, 610.)

84. Libraries as depositories continued; new designations.—Libraries designated by law prior to June 23, 1913, as depositories to receive books and other Government publications shall, during their existence, continue such receipt; and new designations may be made when libraries chosen shall cease to exist or other designations shall be authorized by law. (June 23, 1913, c. 3, § 5, 38 Stat. 75.)

85. Distribution of copies of publications to designated depositories and libraries; land-grant colleges as depositories.—Upon request of the Superintendent of Documents the Public Printer is hereby authorized and directed to either increase or diminish the number of copies of publications furnished for distribution, to designated depositories and State and Territorial libraries, so that the number of copies delivered shall be equal to the number of libraries on the list: Provided, That the number thus delivered shall at no time exceed the number authorized under existing statute. The allotment of copies furnished for distribution to libraries shall be increased or reduced, from time to time, as the redistricting of States or the rearrangement of depository lists under provisions of law shall demand, to such numbers as may be necessary to comply with the law. All land-grant colleges shall be constituted as depositories for public documents, subject to the provisions and limitations of the depository laws. (Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2284, § 4, 34 Stat. 1014.)

86. Investigation of libraries designated as depositories.—The Superintendent of Documents shall thoroughly investigate the condition of all libraries that are designated depositories, and whenever he shall ascertain that the number of books in any such library, other than college libraries, is below one thousand, other than Government publications, or it has ceased to be maintained as a public library, he shall strike the same from the list, and the Senator, Representative, or Delegate shall designate another depository that shall meet the conditions herein required. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 70, 28 Stat. 612.)

87. Libraries of executive departments and Military and Naval Academies constituted depositories.—The libraries of the executive departments, of the United States Military Academy, and United States Naval Academy are hereby constituted designated depositories of Government publications, and the Superintendent of Documents shall supply one copy of said publications, in the same form as supplied to other depositories, to each of said libraries. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 98, 28 Stat. 624.)

88. American Antiquarian Society to be depository.—One copy of the public journals of the Senate and of the House of Representatives, and of the documents published under the orders of the Senate and House of Representatives, respectively, shall be transmitted to the Executive of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts for the use and benefit of the American Antiquarian Society of said Commonwealth. (Dec. 1, 1814, No. 7, 3 Stat. 248.)

89. Distribution of public documents to library of Philippine government.—The Superintendent of Documents is hereby authorized and directed to supply one copy of each document delivered to him for distribution to State and Territorial libraries and designated depositories to the library of the Philippine government, in the city of Manila, Philippine Islands; and the Public Printer is hereby directed to print, bind, and deliver to the Superintendent of Documents the extra number of documents required to comply with this section. (Jan. 18, 1907, c. 153, 34 Stat. 850.)

90. Books and documents not to be removed from depositories.—All such books and documents, when received at the proper offices, libraries, and other depositories, as provided by law, shall be kept there and not removed from such places. (R. S. § 506.)

91. Documents and reports for foreign legations.—Documents and reports may be furnished to foreign legations to the United States upon request specifying those desired and requisition made upon the Public Printer by the Secretary of State: Provided, That such gratuitous distribution shall only be made to legations whose Governments furnish to legations from the United States copies of their printed and legislative documents desired. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 75, 28 Stat. 620.)

92. Ownership of publications furnished officers for official use; free use in depositories.—Government publications furnished to judicial and executive officers of the United States for their official use shall not become the property of these officers, but on the expiration of their official term shall be by them delivered to their successors in office and all Government publications delivered to designated depositories or other libraries shall be for public use without charge. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 74, 28 Stat. 620.)

93. Exchange of documents.—Heads of departments are authorized to exchange surplus documents for such other documents and books as may be required by them, when the same can be done to the advantage of the public service. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 95, 28 Stat. 623.)

94. Blank forms; printing and sale.—The Public Printer is authorized to print for sale by the Superintendent of Public Documents to the public, upon prepayment, additional copies of approved Government blank forms. (June 7, 1924, c. 303, § 1, 43 Stat. 592.)

95. Distribution of publications to be by Public Printer; mailing lists.—No money appropriated by any Act shall be used for services in any executive department or other Government establishment at Washington, District of Columbia, in the work of addressing, wrapping, mailing, or otherwise dispatching any publication for public distribution, except maps, weather reports, and weather cards issued by an executive department or other Government establishment at Washington, District of Columbia, or for the purchase of material or supplies to be used in such work; and it shall be the duty of the Public Printer to perform such work at the Government Printing Office. Each head of such executive department and other Government establishment at Washington, District of Columbia, shall furnish from time to time to the Public Printer mailing lists, in convenient form, and changes therein, or franked slips, for use in the public distribution of publications issued by such department or establishment; and the Public Printer shall furnish copies of any publication only in accordance with the provisions of law or the instruction of the head of the department or establishment issuing the publication. Nothing in this section shall be construed as applying to orders, instructions, directions, notices, or circulars of information printed for and issued by any of the executive departments or other Government establishments or to the distribution of public documents by Senators or Members of the House of Representatives or to the folding rooms and document rooms of the Senate or House of Representatives. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 92, 28 Stat. 623; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 8, 37 Stat. 414.)

96. Departmental distribution of documents.—Government publications printed for or received by the executive departments, whether for official use or for distribution, except such as are required by section 95 of this title to be distributed by the Public Printer, shall be distributed by a competent person detailed to such duty in each department by the head thereof. He shall keep an account in detail of all publications received and distributed by him. He shall prevent duplication, and make detailed report to the head of the department, who shall transmit the same annually to Congress. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 92, 28 Stat. 623.)

Chapter 4.—PRINTING AND BINDING GENERALLY.

Sec.
111. Government printing to be done at Government Printing Office; Supreme Court excepted.
112. Stereotyping and electrotyping.
113. Engraving and lithographing; contracts.
114. Printing and sale of extra copies of documents.
115. Illustrations and maps in documents and reports; orders for printing acted on within one year.
116. No printing and binding unless authorized; binding materials.
117. Certificate of necessity; estimate of cost.
118. Restrictions on use of appropriations for printing and binding, for illustrations.
119. Blanks and letterheads for judges and officers of courts.
120. Disposition of receipts for work done.

Section 111. Government printing to be done at Government Printing Office; Supreme Court excepted.—All printing, binding, and blank-book work for Congress, the Executive office, the judiciary, and every executive department, independent office, and establishment of the Government shall be done at the Government Printing Office, except such classes of work as shall be deemed by the Joint Committee on Printing to be urgent or necessary to have done elsewhere than in the District of Columbia for the exclusive use of any field service outside of said District. The printing and binding for the Supreme Court shall be done by the printer it may employ, unless it shall otherwise order. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 87, 28 Stat. 622; Mar. 1, 1919, c. 86, § 11, 40 Stat. 1270; June 1, 1922, c. 204, Title II, 42 Stat. 614; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 21, Title II, 42 Stat. 1081; May 28, 1924, c. 204, Title II, 43 Stat. 218; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title II, 43 Stat. 1028.)

112. Stereotyping and electrotyping.—The Public Printer shall cause to be stereotyped or electrotyped all matter when there is a reason to believe that it will be needed a second time. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 25, 28 Stat. 604.)

113. Engraving and lithographing; contracts.—The Public Printer shall preserve in his office samples of the paper on which any engravings or lithographs are to be furnished by contract, and he shall not receive any engraving or lithograph which is not printed on paper equal to the sample, or which is not executed in the proper manner or in the quantity contracted for, or within the time specified in the contract, unless, for special reasons, he may have extended the time. The contractor shall not be paid except upon the certificate of the Public Printer that his contract has been complied with. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 41, 28 Stat. 607.)

114. Printing and sale of extra copies of documents.—The Public Printer shall furnish to all applicants giving notice before the matter is put to press, not exceeding two hundred and fifty to any one applicant, copies of bills, reports, and documents, said applicants paying in advance the cost of such printing with 10 per centum added: Provided, That the printing of such work for private parties shall not interfere with the printing for the Government. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 42, 28 Stat. 607.)

115. Illustrations and maps in documents and reports; orders for printing acted on within one year.—No document or report to be illustrated or accompanied by maps shall be printed by the Public Printer until the illustrations or maps designed therefor shall be ready for publication; and no order for public printing shall be acted upon by the Public Printer after the expiration of one year, unless the entire copy and illustrations for the work shall have been furnished within that period. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 80, 28 Stat. 621.)

116. No printing and binding unless authorized; binding materials.—No printing or binding shall be done at the Government Printing Office unless authorized by law. Binding for the departments of the Government shall be done in plain sheep or cloth, except that record and account books may be bound in Russia leather, sheep fleshers, and skivers, when authorized by the head of a department: Provided, The libraries of the several departments, the Library of Congress, the libraries of the Surgeon General's Office, the Patent Office, and the Naval Observatory may have books for the exclusive use of said libraries bound in half Turkey, or material no more expensive. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 86, 28 Stat. 622.)

117. Certificate of necessity; estimate of cost.—When any department, the Supreme Court, the Court of Claims, or the Library of Congress shall require printing or binding to be done, it shall be on certificate that such work be necessary for the public service; whereupon the Public Printer shall furnish an estimate of the cost by the principal items for such printing or binding so called for, after which requisitions shall be made upon him therefor by the head of such department, the clerk of the Supreme Court, Chief Justice of the Court of Claims, or the Librarian of Congress; and the Public Printer shall place the cost thereof to the debit of such department in its annual appropriation for printing and binding. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 93, 28 Stat. 623.)

118. Restrictions on use of appropriations for printing and binding, for illustrations.—No part of the appropriations made for printing and binding shall be used for any illustration, engraving, or photograph in any document or report ordered printed by Congress unless the order to print expressly authorizes the same, nor in any document or report of any executive department or other Government establishment until the head of the executive department or Government establishment shall certify in a letter transmitting such report that the illustration is necessary and relates entirely to the transaction of public business. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, 33 Stat. 1213.)

119. Blanks and letterheads for judges and officers of courts.—All blanks and letterheads for use by the judges and other officials of the United States courts other than such as are required to be paid for by any of these officers out of the emoluments of their offices shall be printed at the Government Printing Office upon forms prescribed by the Department of Justice, and shall be distributed by it upon requisition. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 97, 28 Stat. 624.)

120. Disposition of receipts for work done.—All sums paid to the Public Printer for work that he is authorized by law to do shall be deposited to the credit, on the books of the Treasury Department, of the appropriation made for the working capital of the Government Printing Office for the year in which the work is done, and be subject to requisition by the Public Printer. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 549, § 1, 43 Stat. 1300.)

Chapter 5.—CONGRESSIONAL PRINTING IN GENERAL.

Section 131. "Usual number" of documents and reports; distribution of House and Senate documents and reports; binding; reports on private bills; number of copies printed; distribution.—Whenever any document or report shall be ordered printed by Congress, such order to print shall signify the "usual number" of copies for binding and distribution among those entitled to receive them. No greater number shall be printed unless ordered by either House, or as hereinafter provided. When a special number of a document or report is ordered printed, the usual number shall also be printed, unless already ordered. The usual number of documents and reports shall be distributed as follows:

Of the House documents and reports, unbound.—To the Senate document room, one hundred and fifty copies; to the office of the Secretary of the Senate, ten copies; to the House document room, not to exceed five hundred copies; to the Clerk's office of the House, twenty copies; to the Library of Congress, two copies, as provided in section 139 of this title; to the Governor General of the Philippine Islands at Manila, three copies, as provided in section 164 of this title.

Of the Senate documents and reports, unbound.—To the Senate document room, two hundred and twenty copies; office of the Secretary of the Senate, ten copies; to the House document room, not to exceed five hundred copies; to the Clerk's office of the House, ten copies; to the Library of Congress, two copies, as provided in section 139 of this title; to the Governor General of the Philippine Islands at Manila, three copies, as provided in section 164 of this title.

Of the number printed, the Public Printer shall bind a sufficient number of copies, which shall be distributed as follows:

Of the House documents and reports, bound.—To the Senate library, fifteen copies; to the Library of Congress, one hundred and twenty-five copies, as provided in section 139 of this title; to the House library, fifteen copies; to the Superintendent of Documents, as many copies as may be required for distribution to the State and Territorial libraries and designated depositories.

Of the Senate documents and reports, bound.—To the Senate library, fifteen copies; to the Library of Congress, one hundred and twenty-five copies, as provided in section 139 of this title; to the House library, fifteen copies; to the Superintendent of Documents, as many copies as may be required for distribution to State and Territorial libraries and designated depositories. In binding documents the Public Printer shall give precedence to those that are to be distributed to libraries and to designated depositories. But any State or Territorial library or designated depository entitled to documents that may prefer to have its documents in unbound form, may do so by notifying the Superintendent of Documents to that effect prior to the convening of each Congress.

All of the "usual number" shall be printed at one time.

The usual number of reports on private bills, concurrent or simple resolutions, shall not be printed. In lieu thereof there shall be printed of each Senate report on a private bill, simple or concurrent resolution, three hundred and forty-five copies, in addition to those required to be furnished the Library of Congress, which shall be distributed as follows: To the Senate document room, two hundred and twenty copies; to the Secretary of the Senate, fifteen copies; to the House document room, one hundred copies; to the Superintendent of Documents, ten copies; and of each House report on a private bill, simple or concurrent resolution, two hundred and sixty copies, in addition to those for the Library of Congress, which shall be distributed as follows: To the Senate document room, one hundred and thirty-five copies; to the Secretary of the Senate, fifteen copies; to the House document room, one hundred copies; to the Superintendent of Documents, ten copies. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the binding of all Senate and House reports in the reserve volumes bound for and delivered to the Senate and House libraries; nor shall it operate to abridge in any way the right of the Vice President, Senators, Representatives, Delegates, Resident Commissioners, Secretary of the Senate, and Clerk of the House to have bound in half morocco, or material not more expensive, one copy of every public document to which he may be entitled. Not less than twelve copies of each report on bills for the payment or adjudication of claims against the Government shall be kept on file in the Senate document room. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 54, 28 Stat. 608; Mar. 2, 1901, No. 16, §§ 1, 2, 31 Stat. 1464; Jan. 20, 1905, c. 50, § 1, 33 Stat. 610; Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2284, § 4, 34 Stat. 1014; Jan. 15, 1908, No. 3, § 2, 35 Stat. 566; June 25, 1910, c. 439, § 1, 36 Stat. 868; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 421, §§ 6, 7, 43 Stat. 1106.)

132. Extra copies of documents and reports.—Extra copies of documents and reports shall be printed promptly when the same shall be ready for publication, and shall be bound in paper or cloth as directed by the Joint Committee on Printing. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 612.)

133. Printing extra copies.—Orders for printing extra copies, otherwise than herein provided for, shall be by simple, concurrent, or joint resolution. Either House may print extra copies to the amount of $500 by simple resolution; if the cost exceeds that sum, the printing shall be ordered by concurrent resolution, except when the resolution is self-appropriating, when it shall be by joint resolution. Such resolutions, when presented to either House, shall be referred immediately to the Committee on Printing, who, in making their report, shall give the probable cost of the proposed printing upon the estimate of the Public Printer; and no extra copies shall be printed before such committee has reported. The printing of additional copies may be performed upon orders of the Joint Committee on Printing within a limit of $200 in cost in any one instance. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 2, 28 Stat. 601; Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2284, § 1, 34 Stat. 1012.)

134. "Extra copies" defined.—The term "extra copies" as used herein shall be construed to mean copies in addition to the usual number as defined in section 131 of this title. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 2, 28 Stat. 601; Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2284, § 1, 34 Stat. 1012.)

135. Duplicate orders to print.—The Public Printer shall examine closely the orders of the Senate and House for printing, and in case of duplication he shall print under the first order received. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 53, 28 Stat. 608.)

136. Regulations for printing documents for Congress in two or more editions; printing of full number and allotment of full quota.—The Joint Committee on Printing is authorized and directed to establish rules and regulations, from time to time, which shall be observed by the Public Printer, whereby public documents and reports printed for Congress, or either House thereof, may be printed in two or more editions, instead of one, to meet the public requirements. In no case shall the aggregate of said editions exceed the number of copies otherwise authorized. Nothing herein shall operate to obstruct the printing of the full number of any document or report, or the allotment of the full quota to Senators and Representatives, as otherwise authorized, when a legitimate demand for the full complement is known to exist. (Mar. 30, 1906, No. 14, 34 Stat. 826.)

137. Reprinting bills, laws, and reports from committees not exceeding fifty pages.—The Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Representatives may order the reprinting in a number not exceeding one thousand copies of any pending bill or resolution, or any public law not exceeding fifty pages, or any report from any committee or congressional commission on pending legislation not accompanied by testimony or exhibits or other appendices and not exceeding fifty pages, when the supply shall have been exhausted. The Public Printer shall require each requisition for reprinting to cite the specific authority of law for its execution. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 2, 28 Stat. 601; Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2284, § 1, 34 Stat. 1012.)

138. Senate and House documents and reports for Department of State.—The Public Printer is hereby authorized and directed to print, in addition to the usual number, and furnish the Department of State with twenty copies of each Senate and House of Representatives document and report. (Feb. 7, 1896, No. 14, 29 Stat. 463.)

139. Distribution of documents to Library of Congress.—Of the publications described in this section the number of copies which shall be printed and distributed by the Public Printer to the Library of Congress for its own use and for international exchange shall be one hundred and twenty-five, to wit: The House documents and reports, bound; the Senate documents and reports, bound; the House Journals, bound; the Senate Journals, bound; all other documents bearing a congressional number and all documents not bearing a congressional number printed by order of either House of Congress, or by order of any department, bureau, commission, or officer of the Government, except confidential matter, blank forms, and circular letters not of a public character; the Revised Statutes, bound; the Statutes at Large, bound; the Congressional Record, bound; the Official Register of the United States, bound. In addition to the foregoing the Public Printer shall supply to the Library of Congress for its own use two copies of each of the above-described publications, unbound, as published; five copies of all bills and resolutions; ten copies of the daily Congressional Record; and two copies of all documents printed for the use of congressional committees not of a confidential character. (Jan. 28, 1899, No. 12, 30 Stat. 1388; Mar. 2, 1901, No. 16, §§ 1, 2, 31 Stat. 1464; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 421, § 7, 43 Stat. 1106.)

140. Printing of documents not provided for by law.—Either House may order the printing of a document not already provided for by law, but only when the same shall be accompanied by an estimate from the Public Printer as to the probable cost thereof. Any executive department, bureau, board, or independent office of the Government submitting reports or documents in response to inquiries from Congress shall submit therewith an estimate of the probable cost of printing to the usual number. Nothing in this section relating to estimates shall apply to reports or documents not exceeding fifty pages. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 2, 28 Stat. 601; Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2284, § 1, 34 Stat. 1012.)

141. Lapse of authority to print, when.—In the printing of any document or report, or any publication authorized by law to be printed, for distribution by Congress, the whole number of copies of which shall not have been ordered within two years from the date of the original order, the authority to print shall lapse, except as orders for subsequent editions may be approved by the Joint Committee on Printing, and then in no instance shall the whole number exceed the number originally authorized by law. (Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2284, § 5, 34 Stat. 1014.)

142. Classification and numbering of publications ordered printed by Congress; designation of publications of departments; printing of committee hearings.—Publications ordered printed by Congress, or either House thereof, shall be in four series, namely: One series of reports made by the committees of the Senate, to be known as Senate reports; one series of reports made by the committees of the House of Representatives, to be known as House reports; one series of documents other than reports of committees, the orders for printing which originate in the Senate, to be known as Senate documents, and one series of documents other than committee reports, the orders for printing which originate in the House of Representatives, to be known as House documents. The publications in each series shall be consecutively numbered, the numbers in each series continuing in unbroken sequence throughout the entire term of a Congress, but the foregoing provisions shall not apply to the documents printed for the use of the Senate in executive session. Of the "usual number," the copies which are intended for distribution to State and Territorial libraries and other designated depositories of all annual or serial publications originating in or prepared by an executive department, bureau, office, commission, or board shall not be numbered in the document or report series of either House of Congress, but shall be designated by title and bound as hereinafter provided, and the departmental edition, if any, shall be printed concurrently with the "usual number." Hearings of committees may be printed as congressional documents only when specifically ordered by Congress or either House thereof. (Jan. 15, 1908, No. 3, § 1, 35 Stat. 565.)

143. Binding of publications for distribution to libraries.—In the binding of congressional documents and reports for distribution by the Superintendent of Documents to State and Territorial libraries and other designated depositories, every publication of sufficient size on any one subject shall be bound separately and receive the title suggested by the subject of the volume, and the others shall be distributed in unbound form as soon as printed. The Public Printer shall supply the Superintendent of Documents sufficient copies of those publications distributed in unbound form, to be bound and distributed to the State and Territorial libraries and other designated depositories for their permanent files. The library edition, as well as all other bound sets of congressional numbered documents and reports, shall be arranged in volumes and bound in the manner directed by the Joint Committee on Printing. (Jan. 15, 1908, No. 3, § 2, 35 Stat. 566.)

144. Appropriation to which cost of printing by order of Congress chargeable.—The cost of the printing of any document or report printed by order of Congress which can not, under the provisions of section 214 of this title, be properly charged to any other appropriation or allotment of appropriation already made, shall, upon order of the Joint Committee on Printing, be charged to the allotment of appropriation for printing and binding for Congress. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 2, 28 Stat. 601; Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2284, § 1, 34 Stat. 1012.)

145. Requirements of reports recommending printing and binding for Congress.—Printing and binding for Congress, when recommended to be done by the Committee on Printing of either House, shall be so recommended in a report containing an approximate estimate of the cost thereof, together with a statement from the Public Printer of estimated approximate cost of work previously ordered by Congress, within the fiscal year. (July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 330; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 549, § 1, 43 Stat. 1299.)

146. Stationery and blank books for Congress.—Stationery, blank books, tables, forms, and other necessary papers preparatory to congressional legislation, required for the official use of the Senate and the House of Representatives, or the committees and officers thereof, shall be furnished by the Public Printer upon requisition of the Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Representatives, respectively. This shall not operate to prevent the purchase by the officers of the Senate and House of Representatives of such stationery and blank books as may be necessary for sale to Senators and Members in the stationery rooms of the two Houses as provided by law. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 2, 28 Stat. 601; Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2284, § 1, 34 Stat. 1012.)

147. Journals of Houses of Congress.—There shall be printed of the Journals of the Senate and House of Representatives eight hundred and twenty-two copies, which shall be distributed as follows: To the Senate document room, ninety copies for distribution to Senators, and twenty-five additional copies; to the Senate library, ten copies; to the House document room, three hundred and sixty copies for distribution to Members, and twenty-five additional copies; to the Department of State, four copies; to the Superintendent of Documents, one hundred and forty-four copies to be distributed to three libraries in each of the States and Territories to be designated by the Superintendent of Documents; to the Library of Congress, one hundred and twenty-five bound copies and two unbound copies as provided in section 139 of this title; to the Court of Claims, two copies; and to the library of the House of Representatives, ten copies. The remaining number of the Journals of the Senate and House of Representatives, consisting of twenty-five copies, shall be furnished to the Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Representatives, respectively, as the necessities of their respective offices may require, as rapidly as signatures are completed for such distribution. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 57, 28 Stat. 609; Jan. 28, 1899, No. 12, 30 Stat. 1388; Mar. 2, 1901, No. 16, §§ 1, 2, 31 Stat. 1464; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 421, § 7, 43 Stat. 1106.)

148. Senate and House Manuals.—Of the Senate Manual and of the Digest and Manual of the House of Representatives, each House shall print as many copies as it shall desire, even though the cost exceed $500. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 617.)

149. Congressional Directory.—There shall be prepared under the direction of the Joint Committee on Printing a Congressional Directory, of which there shall be three editions during each long session and two editions during each short session of Congress. The first edition shall be distributed to Senators, Representatives, Delegates, the principal officers of Congress, and heads of departments on the first day of the session, and shall be ready for distribution to others within one week thereafter. The number and distribution of such directory shall be under the control of the Joint Committee on Printing. Official correspondence concerning the directory may be had in penalty envelopes under the direction of the Joint Committee. All copies delivered to Senators and Representatives for distribution shall be bound in cloth. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 617; July 1, 1902, c. 1351, 32 Stat. 583.)

150. Same; sale.—The Public Printer, under the direction of the Joint Committee, may print for sale, at a price sufficient to reimburse the expense of such printing, the current Congressional Directory. The money derived from such sales shall be paid into the Treasury and accounted for in his annual report to Congress, and no sales shall be made on credit. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 40, 28 Stat. 607.)

151. Eulogies; engraving.—There shall be printed of eulogies of deceased Senators, Representatives, and Delegates eight thousand copies, of which number fifty copies, bound in full morocco, with gilt edges, shall be delivered to the family of the deceased, and one thousand nine hundred and fifty copies in cloth binding shall be delivered to the Senators, Representatives, or Delegates of the State or Territory represented by the deceased. The remaining number, also in cloth binding, shall be distributed in the proportion of two thousand to the Senate and four thousand to the House. The engraving for such eulogies shall be done at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing and paid for out of the appropriation for that bureau. Of the "usual number" the bound volume shall contain in one volume for each House all eulogies during the session of Congress upon Senators and Representatives respectively. The preparation of memorial addresses on deceased Senators and Members of the House of Representatives shall be done under the direction of the Joint Committee on Printing without extra expense therefor. (Aug. 23, 1894, c. 307, 28 Stat. 447; Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 616.)

152. Illustrations accompanying bound copies of memorial addresses.—The illustrations to accompany bound copies of memorial addresses delivered in Congress shall be made at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing and paid for out of the appropriation for that bureau, or, in the discretion of the Joint Committee on Printing, shall be obtained elsewhere by the Public Printer and charged to the allotment for printing and binding for Congress. (Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1431.)

153. Statement of appropriations; "usual number."—Of the statements of appropriations required to be prepared by section 105 of Title 2, there shall be printed, after the close of each regular session of Congress, the usual number of copies. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 189, § 1, 28 Stat. 958.)

154. Printing for committees of Congress.—No committee of Congress shall be empowered to procure the printing of more than one thousand copies of any hearing or other document, which shall be germane thereto, for its use except by simple, concurrent, or joint resolution, as provided in this chapter. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 2, 28 Stat. 601; Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2284, § 1, 34 Stat. 1012.)

155. Committee reports; indexing and binding.—The Secretary of the Senate and Clerk of the House shall procure and file for the use of their respective Houses copies of all reports made by committees, and they are hereby directed at the close of each session of Congress to cause such reports to be indexed and bound, one copy to be deposited in the library of each House and one copy in the room of the committee from which the reports emanate. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 83, 28 Stat. 622.)

156. Reports of Librarian of Congress.—Of the annual and special reports of the Librarian of Congress submitted to Congress, there shall be printed and bound in cloth five thousand copies for the use of the Library of Congress. (Feb. 24, 1904, No. 8, 33 Stat. 583.)

157. Distribution of documents to Congressmen.—Whenever in the division among Senators, Representatives, and Delegates of documents printed for the use of Congress there shall be an apportionment to each or either House in round numbers, the Public Printer shall not deliver the full number so accredited at the respective folding rooms, but only the largest multiple of the number constituting the full membership of each or either House, including the Secretary and Sergeant at Arms of the Senate and Clerk, Sergeant at Arms, and Doorkeeper of the House, which shall be contained in the round numbers thus accredited to each or either House, so that the number delivered shall divide evenly and without remainder among the Members of the House to which they are delivered; and the remainder of the documents thus resulting shall be turned over to the Superintendent of Documents, to be distributed by him, first, to public and school libraries for the purpose of completing broken sets; second, to public and school libraries that have not been supplied with any portions of such sets, and, lastly, by sale to other persons; said libraries to be named to him by Senators, Representatives, and Delegates in Congress; and in this distribution the Superintendent of Documents shall see that as far as practicable an equal allowance is made to each Senator, Representative, and Delegate. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 68, 28 Stat. 612; Apr. 6, 1904, c. 862, 33 Stat. 159.)

158. Allotments of public documents printed after expiration of term; rights of retiring Congressmen to documents.—The congressional allotment of public documents printed after the expiration of the term of office of any Senator, Representative, or Delegate shall be delivered to his or her successor in office.

Any Senator, Representative, or Delegate having public documents to his credit at the expiration of his term of office shall take the same prior to the convening of the next succeeding Congress, and if he shall not do so within such period he shall forfeit them to his or her successor in office. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 72, 28 Stat. 612; Mar. 18, 1924, c. 60, 43 Stat. 24.)

159. Time for distribution of documents by Congressmen extended.—The time allowed Members of Congress reelected to distribute public documents to their credit, or the credit of their respective districts in the Interior or other Departments and bureaus, and in the Government Printing Office, shall continue during their successive terms and until their right to frank documents shall end. (June 4, 1897, c. 2, § 1, 30 Stat. 62.)

160. Binding for Congressmen.—Each Senator and Representative shall be entitled to the binding in half morocco, or material not more expensive, of but one copy of each public document to which he may be entitled, an account of which, with each Senator and Representative, shall be kept by the Secretary of the Senate and Clerk of the House, respectively. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 2, 28 Stat. 601; Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2284, § 1, 34 Stat. 1012.)

161. Same; binding at expense of Congressmen.—The Public Printer shall be authorized to bind at the Government Printing Office any books, maps, charts, or documents published by authority of Congress, upon application of any Member of the Senate or House of Representatives, upon payment of the actual cost of such binding. (Dec. 10, 1877, c. 6, 20 Stat. 5.)

162. Documents and reports ordered by Congressmen; franks and envelopes for Congressmen.—Documents and reports of committees with the evidence and papers submitted therewith, or any part thereof ordered printed by Congress, may be reprinted by the Public Printer on order of any Member of Congress or Delegate, on prepayment of the cost thereof.

He may also furnish without cost to Senators, Members, and Delegates blank franks printed on sheets and perforated, or singly at the option of said Senators, Members, and Delegates, for public documents. Franks so furnished shall contain in the upper left-hand corner thereof the following words, to wit: "Public document. Free. United States Senate (or House of Representatives U. S.)" and in upper right-hand corner the letters "U. S. S." or "M. C." But he shall not print any other words thereon except where it may be desirable to affix the official title of a document. All other words printed thereon shall be at the personal expense of the Senator, Member, or Delegate ordering the same.

At the request of any Congressman the Public Printer is authorized to print upon franks or envelopes used for mailing public documents or seed the facsimile stamp of said Congressman and a special request for return if not called for, and the name of the State and county and city. Said Congressman to deposit with his order the extra expense involved in printing these additional words.

The Public Printer may also, at the request of any Senator, Representative, or Delegate in Congress, print on envelopes authorized to be furnished the name of the Senator, Representative, or Delegate, and State, the date, and the topic or subject matter, not exceeding twelve words.

All moneys accruing under this section shall be deposited by the Public Printer in the Treasury of the United States to the credit on the books of the Treasury Department of the appropriation made for the working capital of the Government Printing Office for the year in which the work is done, and accounted for in his annual report to Congress. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 37, 28 Stat. 606; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 189, § 1, 28 Stat. 961; Jan. 30, 1904, c. 39, § 1, 33 Stat. 9; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 549, § 1, 43 Stat. 1300.)

163. Payment of cost of printing extracts from Congressional Record, or other documents.—In case any Senator, Representative, or Delegate shall fail to pay the cost of printing extracts from the Congressional Record or other documents ordered by him to be printed, the Public Printer shall certify the amount due to the Sergeant at Arms of the House or the financial clerk of the Senate, as the case may be, and the Sergeant at Arms or financial clerk shall deduct from any salary due the said delinquent the said amount, or as much thereof as the salary due may cover, and pay the amount so obtained to the Public Printer, to be applied by him to the satisfaction of the indebtedness. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1446.)

164. Distribution of copies of Congressional Record, etc., to Governor General of Philippines.—The Public Printer is hereby authorized to furnish gratuitously to the Governor General of the Philippine Islands at Manila ten copies of the daily Congressional Record and three copies of all bills, resolutions, documents, and reports, as printed, and he is hereby directed to print, if necessary, the extra number required to comply with this section. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 317, § 1, 35 Stat. 1067.)

165. Senate and House document rooms; superintendents.—There shall be one document room of the Senate and one of the House of Representatives, to be designated, respectively, the "Senate and House document room." Each shall be in charge of a superintendent, who shall be appointed by the Secretary of the Senate and the Doorkeeper of the House, respectively, who shall also appoint the necessary number of assistants. The Senate document room shall be under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Senate. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 60, 28 Stat. 610; Mar. 3, 1901, c. 830, § 1, 31 Stat. 962.)

166. Senate and House folding rooms; superintendents.—There shall be one folding room of the Senate and one folding room of the House of Representatives. They shall be in charge of superintendents, appointed respectively by the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate and Doorkeeper of the House, who shall also appoint the necessary assistants. All reports or documents to be distributed for Senators, Representatives, and Delegates shall be folded and distributed from the folding rooms, unless otherwise ordered and each Senator, Representative and Delegate shall be notified in writing once every sixty days of the number and character of publications on hand and assigned to him for use and distribution. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 71, 28 Stat. 612.)

167. Disposition of documents stored at Capitol.—The Secretary and Sergeant at Arms of the Senate and the Clerk and Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives shall at the convening in regular session of each successive Congress cause an invoice to be made of all public documents stored in and about the Capitol, other than those belonging to the quota of Members of such Congress, to the Library of Congress and the Senate and House libraries and document rooms, and all such documents shall by the superintendents, respectively, of the Senate and House folding rooms be put to the credit of Senators, Representatives, and Delegates of such Congress, in quantities equal in the number of volumes and as nearly as possible in value, to each Member of Congress, and said documents shall be distributed upon the orders of Senators, Representatives, and Delegates, each of whom shall be supplied by the superintendents of the folding rooms with a list of the number and character of the publications thus put to his credit, but before said apportionment is made copies of any of these documents desired for the use of committees of the Senate or House shall be delivered to the chairmen of such committees. Four copies of each and all leather-bound documents shall be reserved and carefully stored, to be used in supplying deficiencies in the Senate and House libraries caused by wear or loss. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 63, 28 Stat. 611.)

168. Binding for Senate library.—The Secretary of the Senate is authorized to make requisition upon the Public Printer for the binding for the Senate library of such books as he may deem necessary at a cost not to exceed $200 per year. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 189, § 1, 28 Stat. 958.)

Congressional Record; arrangement, style, contents, and indexes.—The Joint Committee on Printing shall have control of the arrangement and style of the Congressional Record, and while providing that it shall be substantially a verbatim report of proceedings, shall take all needed action for the reduction of unnecessary bulk, and shall provide for the publication of an index of the Congressional Record semimonthly during the sessions of Congress and at the close thereof. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 13, 28 Stat. 603.)

182. Same; indexes.—The Joint Committee on Printing shall designate to the Public Printer a competent person to prepare the semimonthly and session index to the Congressional Record, and shall fix and regulate the compensation to be paid by the Public Printer for the said work and direct the form and manner of its publication and distribution. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 14, 28 Stat. 603.)

183. Same; gratuitous copies; subscriptions.—The Public Printer shall furnish the Congressional Record as follows and shall furnish gratuitously no others in addition thereto:

To the Vice President and each Senator, eighty-eight copies; and to the Secretary and Sergeant at Arms of the Senate, each twenty copies, and to the Secretary for office use ten copies; to each Representative and Delegate, sixty copies, and to the Clerk and Doorkeeper of the House, each twenty copies, and to the Clerk, for office use, ten copies; and to the Clerk for use of Members of the House of Representatives fifty copies, and to the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate, for the use of the Senate, twenty copies to be supplied daily as originally published or in the revised and permanent form bound only in half russia, or part in each form, as each may elect.

To the Vice President and each Senator, Representative, and Delegate there shall be furnished two copies of the daily Record, one to be delivered at his residence and one at the Capitol.

To the President, for use of the Executive Office, four copies of the daily and one bound copy.

To the Chief Justice and each of the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, the marshal and clerk of the said court, one daily and one bound copy.

To the governor of each State and Territory, one copy of the daily and one bound copy of the Record.

To the Official Reporter of the Senate and each of his assistant reporters, and to the official reporters of the House, each two copies of the daily and one copy of the bound Record.

To the superintendent of the Senate and House document rooms, each one copy of the daily and one bound copy.

To the Library of Congress, one hundred and twenty-five bound copies, for its own use and international exchange and ten copies of the daily Record for its own use, as provided in section 139 of this title, and such number of copies of the daily Record, as may be required, not exceeding one hundred copies, for distribution under section 186 of this title.

To the Senate and House libraries, twenty copies each.

To the library of each of the executive departments, and to the Naval Observatory, Smithsonian Institution, the United States National Museum, and Civil Service Commission, one bound copy.

To the Soldiers' Home, and to each of the national homes for disabled volunteer soldiers, and to each of the State soldiers' homes established for either Federal or Confederate soldiers, one copy of the daily.

To the Superintendent of Documents, as many bound copies as may be required for distribution to depositories of public documents.

To each of our legations abroad, one copy of the daily Record, to be sent through the Secretary of State.

To each foreign legation in Washington whose government extends a like courtesy to our legations abroad, one copy of the daily Record, to be sent through the Secretary of State and furnished upon his requisition.

To each newspaper correspondent whose name appears in the Congressional Directory, and who makes application therefor, for his personal use and that of the paper or papers he represents, one copy of the daily Congressional Record and one copy of the bound Congressional Record, the same to be sent to the office address of each member of the press, or elsewhere in the city of Washington, as he may direct.

To the Governor General of the Philippine Islands at Manila, ten copies of the daily Record as provided in section 164 of this title.

The Public Printer is authorized to furnish to subscribers the daily Record at $8 for the long and $4 for the short session, or $1.50 per month, payable in advance. The "usual number" of the Congressional Record shall not be printed. The daily and the permanent Record shall bear the same date which shall be of the actual day's proceedings reported therein. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 617; June 11, 1896, c. 420, 29 Stat. 454; Mar. 19, 1896, No. 31, 29 Stat. 468; Feb. 17, 1897, No. 12, 29 Stat. 700; Mar. 26, 1900, No. 15, 31 Stat. 713; Mar. 2, 1901, No. 16, § 1, 31 Stat. 1464; Jan. 30, 1903, c. 338, 32 Stat. 786; Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2284, § 4, 34 Stat. 1014; Mar. 4, 1909, c. 317, § 1, 35 Stat. 1067; Mar. 4, 1909, No. 25, 35 Stat. 1169; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 421, § 7, 43 Stat. 1106.)

184. Same; unbound copies for Congressmen.—There shall be reserved by the Public Printer from the quota of each Member of Congress and Delegate one copy of the Congressional Record in unstitched form, to be delivered to each Member or Delegate; and there shall be furnished to each standing committee of Congress one copy, which copies for Members and committees shall be bound promptly in paper when each semimonthly index shall be issued and shall be delivered without delay. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 24, 28 Stat. 604.)

185. Same; extracts for Congressmen; mailing envelopes.—It shall be lawful for the Public Printer to print and deliver, upon the order of any Senator, Representative, or Delegate, extracts from the Congressional Record, the person ordering the same paying the cost thereof. The Public Printer may furnish without cost to Senators, Members, and Delegates, envelopes, ready for mailing the Congressional Record or any part thereof, or speeches, or reports therein contained. Envelopes so furnished shall contain in the upper left-hand corner thereof the following words, to wit: "Senate United States (or House of Representatives, U. S.). Part of Congressional Record. Free," and in upper right-hand corner the letters "U. S. S." or "M. C.," and the Public Printer may, at the request of any Senator, Representative, or Delegate in Congress, print in addition to the foregoing, the name of the Senator, Representative, or Delegate, and State, the date, and the topic or subject matter, not exceeding twelve words. But he shall not print any other words thereon, except at the personal expense of the Senator, Member, or Delegate ordering the same, except to affix the official title of a document. All moneys accruing under this section shall be deposited by the Public Printer in the Treasury of the United States to the credit on the books of the Treasury Department of the appropriation made for the working capital of the Government Printing Office for the year in which the work is done and accounted for in his annual report to Congress. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 37, 28 Stat. 606; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 189, § 1, 28 Stat. 961; Jan. 30, 1904, c. 39, § 1, 33 Stat. 9.)

186. Same; distribution in exchange for foreign parliamentary records.—For the purpose of more fully carrying into effect the provisions of the convention concluded at Brussels on March 15, 1886, and proclaimed by the President on January 15, 1889, the Public Printer is authorized and directed to supply to the Library of Congress such number as may be required, not exceeding one hundred copies, of the daily issue of the Congressional Record for distribution, through the Smithsonian Institution, to the legislative chambers of such foreign governments as may agree to send to the United States current copies of their parliamentary record or like publication, such documents, when received, to be deposited in the Library of Congress. (Mar. 4, 1909, No. 25, 35 Stat. 1169.)

187. Same; exchange for Parliamentary Hansard.—The Librarian of Congress is hereby authorized to furnish a copy of the daily and bound Congressional Record to the Undersecretary of State for External Affairs of Canada in exchange for a copy of the Parliamentary Hansard, and the Public Printer is hereby directed to honor the requisition of the Librarian of Congress for such copy. The Parliamentary Hansard so received shall be the property of the Department of State. (Apr. 10, 1912, No. 14, 37 Stat. 632.)

188. Same; sale.—The Public Printer, under the direction of the Joint Committee, may print for sale, at a price sufficient to reimburse the expense of such printing, the current numbers and bound sets of the Congressional Record. The money derived from such sales shall be paid into the Treasury and accounted for in his annual report to Congress, and no sales shall be made on credit. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 40, 28 Stat. 607.)

189. Bills and resolutions; number and distribution; "Private bills" defined.—There shall be printed of each Senate and House public bill and joint resolution six hundred and twenty-five copies, which shall be distributed as follows: To the Senate document room, two hundred and twenty-five copies; office of Secretary of Senate, fifteen copies; House document room, three hundred and eighty-five copies. There shall be printed of each Senate private bill, when introduced, when reported, and when passed, three hundred copies, which shall be distributed as follows: To the Senate document room, one hundred and seventy copies; to the Secretary of the Senate, fifteen copies; to the House document room, one hundred copies; to the Superintendent of Documents, ten copies. There shall be printed of each House private bill, when introduced, when reported, and when passed, two hundred and sixty copies, which shall be distributed as follows: To the Senate document room, one hundred and thirty-five copies; to the Secretary of the Senate, fifteen copies; to the House document room, one hundred copies; to the Superintendent of Documents, ten copies. The term "private bill" shall be construed to mean all bills for the relief of private parties, bills granting pensions, bills removing political disabilities, and bills for the survey of rivers and harbors. All bills and resolutions shall be printed in bill form, and, unless specially ordered by either House, shall only be printed when referred to a committee, when favorably reported back, and after their passage by either House. Of concurrent and simple resolutions, when reported, and after their passage by either House, only two hundred and sixty copies shall be printed, except by special order, and the same shall be distributed as follows: To the Senate document room, one hundred and thirty-five copies; to the Secretary of the Senate, fifteen copies; to the House document room, one hundred copies; to the Superintendent of Documents, ten copies. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 55, 28 Stat. 609; Jan. 20, 1905, c. 50, § 2, 33 Stat. 611.)

190. Binding sets of bills and resolutions for Congress.—The Public Printer shall bind four sets of Senate and House of Representatives bills, joint and concurrent resolutions of each Congress, two for the Senate and two for the House, to be furnished him from the files of the Senate and House document room, the volumes when bound to be kept there for reference. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 82, 28 Stat. 622.)

191. Public and private laws, postal conventions, and treaties.—There shall be printed in slip form two thousand one hundred and ten copies of public and seven hundred and sixty copies of private laws, postal conventions, and treaties, which shall be distributed as follows: To the House document room, one thousand copies of public and one hundred copies of private laws; to the Senate document room, five hundred and fifty copies of public and one hundred copies of private laws; to the Department of State, five hundred copies of all laws; and to the Treasury Department, sixty copies of all laws.

Postal conventions and treaties shall be distributed as private laws. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 56, 28 Stat. 609.)

192. Printing Acts, resolutions, and treaties.—The Public Printer on receiving from the Secretary of State a copy of any Act or joint resolution, or treaty, shall immediately cause an accurate printed copy thereof to be executed and sent in duplicate to the Secretary of State for revision. On the return of one of the revised duplicates, he shall at once have the marked corrections made, and cause the number specified in section 191 of this title to be printed. (R. S. § 3805; Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 56, 28 Stat. 609.)

193. Printing of postal conventions.—The Public Printer, on receiving from the Postmaster General a copy of any postal convention between the Postmaster General, on the part of the United States, and an equivalent officer of any foreign government, shall immediately cause an accurate printed copy thereof to be executed and sent in duplicate to the Postmaster General. On the return of one of the revised duplicates, he shall at once have the marked corrections made, and cause to be printed the number specified in section 191 of this title. (R. S. § 3806.)

194. Distribution of copies of this Code to Senators and Representatives.—The Secretary of the Interior shall, at the beginning of the first session of each Congress, distribute to each Senator and Representative in such Congress who may in writing apply for the same, one copy of this Code: Provided, That such applicant shall certify in his written application for the same that the volume for which he applies is intended for his personal use exclusively: And provided further, That no Senator or Representative during his term of service shall receive more than one copy of such Code. (July 1, 1902, c. 1355, § 5, 32 Stat. 631.)

195. Pamphlet copies of statutes.—The Secretary of State shall cause to be edited, printed, published, and distributed pamphlet copies of the statutes of each session of Congress to the officers and persons hereinafter provided for; said distribution shall be made at the close of every session of Congress, as follows:

To the President and Vice President of the United States, two copies each; to each Senator, Representative, and Delegate in Congress, one copy; to the librarian of the Senate, for the use of Senators, one hundred copies; to the librarian of the House, two hundred copies, for the use of Representatives and Delegates; to the Library of Congress, the number specified in section 139 of this title; to the Department of State, including those for the use of legations and consulates, six hundred copies; to the Treasury Department, three hundred copies; to the War Department, two hundred copies; to the Navy Department, one hundred copies; to the Department of the Interior, including those for the use of United States Supervisor of Surveys and registers of public land offices, two hundred and fifty copies; to the Post Office Department, fifty copies; to the Interstate Commerce Commission, ten copies; to the Civil Service Commission, three copies; to the Department of Justice, including those for the use of the Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court and the judges and officers of the United States and Territorial courts, eight hundred and fifty copies; to the Department of Agriculture, fifty copies; to the Department of Commerce and the Department of Labor, three hundred copies; to the Smithsonian Institution, five copies; to the Government Printing Office, two copies; to the governors and secretaries of Territories, one copy each.

The Secretary of State is authorized to have printed as many additional copies of the pamphlet laws as he may deem needful for distribution and sale by the Superintendent of Documents, at cost price, not exceeding one thousand copies of the laws of any one session in any one year.

The Public Printer shall deliver to the folding rooms of the Senate and House of Representatives seven thousand copies of the pamphlet laws, two thousand copies of which shall be for the Senate and five thousand copies for the House, and to the Superintendent of Documents as many copies as may be required, for distribution to State and Territorial libraries and to designated depositories. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 614; Mar. 15, 1898, c. 68, § 4, 30 Stat. 316; Apr. 28, 1904, c. 1791, 33 Stat. 542; Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2284, § 4, 34 Stat. 1014; Mar. 4, 1907, No. 29, 34 Stat. 1426; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144, 1145.)

196. Statutes at Large.—After the close of each Congress the Secretary of State shall have edited, printed, and bound a sufficient number of the volumes containing the Statutes at Large enacted by that Congress to enable him to distribute copies, or as many thereof as may be needed, as follows:

To the President of the United States, four copies, one of which shall be for the library of the Executive Mansion; to the Vice President of the United States, one copy; to each Senator, Representative, and Delegate in Congress, one copy; to the librarian of the Senate, for the use of Senators, one hundred copies; to the librarian of the House, for the use of Representatives and Delegates, two hundred copies; to the Library of Congress, one hundred and twenty-five copies, as provided in section 139 of this title, including four copies for the law library; to the Department of State, including those for the use of the legations and consulates, three hundred and eighty copies; to the Treasury Department, including those for the use of officers of customs, three hundred copies; to the War Department, seventy-five copies; to the Navy Department, seventy-five copies; to the Department of the Interior, including those for the use of the United States Supervisor of Surveys and registers of public land offices, two hundred and fifty copies; to the Post Office Department, fifty copies; to the Interstate Commerce Commission, ten copies; to the Civil Service Commission, three copies; to the Department of Justice, including those for the use of the Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, and the judges and the officers of the United States and Territorial courts and to State supreme court libraries, eight hundred and fifty copies; to the Department of Agriculture, fifty copies; to the Department of Commerce and the Department of Labor, including those for the officers of the Immigration Service, three hundred copies; to the Smithsonian Institution, two copies; to the Government Printing Office, one copy, and the Public Printer shall deliver as many copies of the Statutes at Large to the Superintendent of Documents as may be required for distribution to State and Territorial libraries and to designated depositories. And the Secretary of State is authorized to have as many additional copies printed and bound as may in his opinion be needed for distribution and sale at cost thereof, not exceeding in any one year one thousand copies of the laws of any one Congress. He shall also cause the Statutes at Large to be delivered to the Superintendent of Documents, to supply deficiencies, and to be sold by him under the provisions of section 71 of this title. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 615, Mar. 15, 1898, c. 68, § 4, 30 Stat. 316; Mar. 2, 1901, No. 16, § 1, 31 Stat. 1464; Apr. 28, 1904, c. 1791, 33 Stat. 542; Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2284, § 4, 34 Stat. 1014; Mar. 4, 1907, No. 29, 34 Stat. 1426; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 421, § 7, 43 Stat. 1106; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144, 1145.)

197. Same; marginal references.—The Secretary of State is directed to include in the marginal references of the United States Statutes at Large the number of the Senate bill, House bill, Senate joint resolution, or House joint resolution (designating same as S. for Senate bill, H. R. for House bill, S. J. Res. for Senate joint resolution and H. J. Res. for House joint resolution, as the case may be) under which each Act was approved and became a law, said marginal reference to be placed within brackets immediately under the marginal date of the approval of each Act at the beginning of each chapter as the same is now printed. (Apr. 12, 1904, No. 20, 33 Stat. 587.)

Chapter 7.—EXECUTIVE AND DEPARTMENTAL PRINTING IN GENERAL.

Sec.
211. Printing and binding for President.
212. Reports of departments.
213. Appropriations for printing not to be exceeded; limitation on number of reports; bureau reports.
214. Appropriations to which cost of printing and binding for executive departments and bureaus to be charged.
215. Departments to order documents required; limit; bills and resolutions.
216. Form and style of work for departments.
217. Publications for department or officer.
218. Inserting "compliments" forbidden.
219. Restrictions on printing for executive departments.
220. Use by executive departments, independent offices, or establishments of appropriations for printing of journals, magazines, periodicals, etc.; number printed; sale to public.
221. Report of publications issued during preceding fiscal year.
222. Annual report of executive officers; type.
223. Certain reports not to be printed unless ordered.
224. Printing documents in two or more editions; requisitions; printing of full number and allotment of full quota.
225. Paper and envelopes for departments, establishments, or services of Government.
226. Franks for Department of Agriculture for mailing seeds.
227. Supplies for executive departments.
228. Publications printed elsewhere than at Printing Office.

Section 211. Printing and binding for President.—The Public Printer shall execute such printing and binding for the President as he shall order and make requisitions for. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 88, 28 Stat. 622.)

212. Reports of departments.—Of the annual reports of the departments to Congress there shall be printed one thousand copies for the Senate and two thousand for the House, but of the reports of the Chief of Engineers of the Army, the Commissioner of Patents, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, the report of the Chief Signal Officer of the War Department, and of the Chief of Ordnance, the usual number only shall be printed. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 615.)

213. Appropriations for printing not to be exceeded; limitation on number of reports; bureau reports.—No printing shall be done for the executive departments in any fiscal year in excess of the amount of the appropriation, and none shall be done without a special requisition, signed by the chief of the department and filed with the Public Printer.

Of the annual report of the head of the department without appendices there may be printed in any one fiscal year not to exceed five thousand copies, bound in pamphlet form; and of the reports of chiefs of bureaus without appendices there may be printed in any one fiscal year not to exceed two thousand five hundred copies, bound in pamphlet form. The Secretary of Agriculture may print such number of copies of the monthly crop report, and of other reports and bulletins containing not to exceed one hundred octavo pages, as he shall deem requisite; and this provision shall apply to the maps, charts, bulletins, and minor reports of the Weather Bureau, which shall be printed in such numbers as the Secretary of Agriculture may deem for the best interests of the Government. The Secretary of the Treasury may authorize the printing of the annual report of the general superintendent of the Life Saving Service, the Secretary of Commerce may authorize the printing of the notices to mariners, tide tables' coast pilots, bulletins, and other special publications of the Coast and Geodetic Survey and of the Bureau of Lighthouses, and the Secretary of the Navy may authorize the printing of the charts, maps, notices to mariners, tide tables, light lists, sailing directions, bulletins, and other special publications of the Hydrographic Office in such editions as the interests of the Government and of the public may require.

Heads of executive departments shall direct whether reports made to them by bureau chiefs and chiefs of divisions shall be printed or not. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 89, 28 Stat. 622; Mar. 13, 1896, No. 23, 29 Stat. 466; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, §§ 4, 10, 32 Stat. 826, 829; June 17, 1910, c. 301, §§ 4, 6, 36 Stat. 537, 538; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 421, § 4, 43 Stat. 1106.)

214. Appropriations to which cost of printing and binding for executive departments and bureaus to be charged.—In the printing and binding of documents or reports emanating from the executive departments, bureaus, and independent offices of the Government, the cost of which was, on March 30, 1906, charged to the allotment for printing and binding for Congress, or to appropriations or allotments of appropriations other than those made to the executive departments, bureaus, or independent offices of the Government, the cost of illustrations, composition, stereoptyping, and other work involved in the actual preparation for printing, apart from the creation of manuscript, shall be charged to the appropriation or allotment of appropriation for the printing and binding of the department, bureau, or independent office of the Government in which such documents or reports originate; the balance of cost shall be charged to the allotment for printing and binding for Congress, and to the appropriation or allotment of appropriation of the executive department, bureau, or independent office of the Government, in proportion to the number delivered to each; the cost of any copies of such documents or reports distributed otherwise than through Congress, or the executive departments, bureaus, and independent offices of the Government, if such there be, shall be charged as otherwise provided. On or before the 1st day of December in each fiscal year each executive department, bureau, or independent office of the Government to which an appropriation or allotment of appropriation for printing and binding is made, shall obtain from the Public Printer an estimate of the probable cost of all publications of such department, bureau, or independent office required by law to be printed, and so much thereof as would, under the terms of this resolution, be charged to the appropriation or allotment of appropriation of the department, bureau, or independent office of the Government in which such publications originate, shall thereupon be set aside to be applied only to the printing and binding of such documents and reports, and shall not be available for any other purpose until all of such allotment of cost on account of such documents and reports shall have been fully paid. (Mar. 30, 1906, No. 13, 34 Stat. 825.)

215. Departments to order documents required; limit; bills and resolutions.—The heads of executive departments, and such executive officers as are not connected with the departments, respectively, shall cause daily examination of the Congressional Record for the purpose of noting documents, reports, and other publications of interest to their departments, and shall cause an immediate order to be sent to the Public Printer for the number of copies of such publications required for official use, not to exceed, however, the number of bureaus in the department and divisions in the office of the head thereof. The Public Printer shall send to each executive department and to each executive office not connected with the departments, as soon as printed, five copies of all bills and resolutions, except the State Department, to which shall be sent ten copies of bills and resolutions. When the head of a department desires a greater number of any class of bills or resolutions for official use, they shall be furnished by the Public Printer on requisition promptly made. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 90, 28 Stat. 623.)

216. Form and style of work for departments.—The forms and style in which the printing or binding ordered by any of the departments shall be executed, and the material and the size of type to be used, shall be determined by the Public Printer, having proper regard to economy, workmanship, and the purposes for which the work is needed. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 51, 28 Stat. 608.)

217. Publications for department or officer.—Whenever printing not bearing a congressional number shall be done for any department or officer of the Government, except confidential matter, blank forms, and circular letters not of a public character, or shall be done for use of congressional committees, not of a confidential character, two copies shall be sent, unless withheld by order of the committee, by the Public Printer to the Senate and House libraries, respectively, and one copy each to the document rooms of the Senate and House, for reference; and these copies shall not be removed; and of all publications of the executive departments not intended for their especial use, but made for distribution, as many copies as may be required shall be at once delivered to the Superintendent of Documents for distribution to designated depositories and State and Territorial libraries. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 58, 28 Stat. 610; Mar. 1, 1907, c. 2284, § 4, 34 Stat. 1014.)

218. Inserting "compliments" forbidden.—No report, document, or publication of any kind distributed by or from an executive department or bureau of the Government shall contain any notice that the same is sent with "the compliments" of an officer of the Government, or with any special notice that it is so sent, except that notice that it has been sent, with a request for an acknowledgment of its receipt, may be given. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 620.)

219. Restrictions on printing for executive departments.—No book or document not having to do with the ordinary business transactions of the executive departments shall be printed on the requisition of any executive department or unless the same shall have been expressly authorized by Congress. Executive officers, before transmitting their annual reports, shall carefully examine the same and all accompanying documents, and exclude therefrom all matter, including engravings, maps, drawings, and illustrations, except such as they shall certify in their letters transmitting such reports are necessary and relate entirely to the transaction of the public business. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 94, 28 Stat. 623; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1484, § 1, 33 Stat. 1249.)

220. Use by executive departments, independent offices, or establishments of appropriations for printing of journals, magazines, periodicals, etc.; number printed; sale to public.—The head of any executive department, independent office, or establishment of the Government is authorized, with the approval of the Director of the Bureau of the Budget, to use from the appropriations available for printing and binding such sums as may be necessary for the printing of journals, magazines, periodicals, and similar publications as he shall certify in writing to be necessary in the transaction of the public business required by law of such department, office, or establishment. There may be printed, in addition to those necessary for such public business, not to exceed two thousand copies for free distribution by the department, office, or establishment issuing the same. The Public Printer shall print such additional copies thereof as may be required for sale to the public by the Superintendent of Documents at the cost of printing and binding, plus 10 per centum, without limit as to the number of copies to any one applicant who agrees not to resell or distribute the same for profit; but the printing of such additional copies required for sale by the Superintendent of Documents shall be subject to regulation by the Joint Committee on Printing and shall not interfere with the prompt execution of printing for the Government. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1484, § 1, 33 Stat. 1249; Mar. 1, 1919, c. 86, § 11, 40 Stat. 1270; July 24, 1919, c. 26, 41 Stat. 237; May 11, 1922, c. 189, § 1, 42 Stat. 541.)

221. Report of publications issued during preceding fiscal year.—The head of each department and independent establishment of the Government shall on the first day of each regular session submit in writing a report to the Congress giving the aggregate number of the various publications it has issued during the preceding fiscal year giving same in detail, and shall also report the cost of paper used for such publications, cost of printing and the cost of preparation of each publication, and the number of each which has been distributed. (June 5, 1920, c. 253, § 1, 41 Stat. 1037.)

222. Annual reports of executive officers; type.—The annual reports of executive officers shall be printed in the same type and form as the report of the head of the department which it accompanies, unless otherwise ordered by the Joint Committee on Printing. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 91, 28 Stat. 623.)

223. Certain reports not to be printed unless ordered.—The following reports required by law to be made to Congress shall not be printed unless the printing be recommended by the head of the department making the same, and ordered by concurrent resolution of Congress, namely: Report of contracts for conveying the mails, report of fines and deductions in the Post Office Department, the report of the treasurer of accounts by him from time to time rendered to and settled with the General Accounting Office, and the report of the proceedings of the annual meetings of the Board of Supervising Inspectors of Steam Vessels. (July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 4, 28 Stat. 205; Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 616; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

224. Printing documents in two or more editions; requisitions; printing of full number and allotment of full quota.—The number of copies of any public document or report authorized to be printed for any of the executive departments, or bureaus or branches thereof, or independent offices of the Government may be supplied in two or more editions, instead of one, upon a requisition on the Public Printer by the official head of such department or independent office, but in no case shall the aggregate of said editions exceed the number of copies otherwise authorized. Nothing herein shall operate to obstruct the printing of the full number of any document or report, or the allotment of the full quota to Senators and Representatives, as otherwise authorized, when a legitimate demand for the full complement is known to exist. (Mar. 30, 1906, No. 14, 34 Stat. 826.)

225. Paper and envelopes for departments, establishments, or services of Government.—The Public Printer is hereby authorized to procure, under direction of the Joint Committee on Printing, and furnish on requisition paper and envelopes (not including envelopes printed in the course of manufacture) in common use by two or more departments, establishments, or services of the Government in the District of Columbia, and reimbursement therefor shall be made to the Public Printer from appropriations or funds available for such purpose; paper and envelopes so furnished by the Public Printer shall not be procured in any other manner thereafter. (June 7, 1924, c. 303, § 1, 43 Stat. 592.)

226. Franks for Department of Agriculture for mailing seeds.—The Public Printer shall furnish to the Department of Agriculture such franks as the Secretary of Agriculture may require for sending out seeds on congressional orders, the franks to have printed thereon the facsimile signatures of Senators, Representatives, and Delegates, also the names of their respective States or Territories, and the words "United States Department of Agriculture, Congressional Seed Distribution," or such other printed matter as the Secretary of Agriculture may direct; the franks to be of such size and style as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture; the expense of printing the said franks to be charged to the allotment for printing and binding for the two Houses of Congress. (May 19, 1902, No. 23, 32 Stat. 741.)

227. Supplies for executive departments.—The Public Printer is authorized hereafter to procure and supply, on the requisition of the head of any executive department or other Government establishment, complete manifold blanks, books, and forms, required in duplicating processes; also complete patented devices with which to file money-order statements, or other uniform official papers, and to charge such supplies to the allotment for printing and binding of the department or Government establishment requiring the same. (June 28, 1902, c. 1301, § 1, 32 Stat. 481.)

228. Publications printed elsewhere than at printing office.—Of any publication printed at the Government expense by direction of any department, commission, bureau, or officer of the Government elsewhere than at the Government Printing Office there shall be supplied to the Library of Congress for its own use and for international exchange one hundred and twenty-five copies. (Mar. 2, 1901, No. 16, § 3, 31 Stat. 1465; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 421, § 7, 43 Stat. 1106.)

Section 241. Agricultural Department; report of Secretary.—The annual report of the Secretary of Agriculture shall be submitted and printed in two parts, as follows: Part 1, which shall contain purely business and executive matter which it is necessary for the Secretary to submit to the President and Congress; part 2, which shall contain such reports from the different bureaus and divisions, and such papers prepared by their special agents, accompanied by suitable illustrations as shall, in the opinion of the Secretary, be specially suited to interest and instruct the farmers of the country, and to include a general report of the operations of the department for their information. In addition to the usual number, there shall be printed of part 1, one thousand copies for the Senate, two thousand copies for the House, and three thousand copies for the Department of Agriculture; and of part 2, one hundred and ten thousand copies for the use of the Senate, three hundred and sixty thousand copies for the use of the House of Representatives, and thirty thousand copies for the use of the Department of Agriculture, the illustrations for the same to be executed under the supervision of the Public Printer, in accordance with directions of the Joint Committee on Printing, said illustrations to be subject to the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture; and the title of each of the said parts shall be such as to show that such part is complete in itself. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 612.)

242. Same; progress of beet-sugar industry.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to print and distribute annually eight thousand copies of the annual reports covering the progress of the beet-sugar industry. The preparation and publication of such annual reports shall be within the discretion of the Secretary of Agriculture. (June 30, 1906, No. 51, 34 Stat. 839.)

243. American Historical Association; report of.—Of the report of the American Historical Association, there shall be printed in addition to the usual number, five thousand five hundred copies; one thousand for the Senate, two thousand for the House, and one thousand five hundred for distribution by the association and the Smithsonian Institution, and one thousand copies for the use of the association. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 616; May 25, 1900, No. 27, 31 Stat. 717.)

244. Animal Industry Bureau; report of.—Of the report of the Bureau of Animal Industry, there shall be printed, in addition to the usual number, thirty thousand copies, of which seven thousand shall be for the Senate, fourteen thousand for the House, and nine thousand for distribution by the Agricultural Department. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 613.)

245. Army and Navy Registers.—Of the registers of the Army and Navy, there shall be printed, in addition to the usual number, fifteen hundred copies of each; five hundred for the Senate and one thousand for the House. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 616.)

246. Coast and Geodetic Survey; charts; sale and distribution.—The charts published by the Coast and Geodetic Survey shall be sold at cost of paper and printing as nearly as practicable; and there shall be no free distribution of such charts except to the departments and officers of the United States requiring them for public use; and a number of copies of each sheet, not to exceed three hundred, to be presented to such foreign governments, libraries, and scientific associations, and institutions of learning as the Secretary of Commerce may direct; but on the order of Senators, Representatives, and Delegates not to exceed ten copies to each may be distributed through the Superintendent of the Coast and Geodetic Survey. Charts of the Coast Survey that are obsolete and have been superseded by charts containing more advanced information based on the most recent surveys, may be distributed free to educational institutions, each of such charts to have stamped or printed conspicuously thereon the words "For school use only." (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 76, 28 Stat. 621; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, §§ 4, 10, 32 Stat. 826, 829; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 320.)

247. Same; report.—Of the report of the Superintendent of the Coast and Geodetic Survey, there shall be printed, in addition to the usual number, two thousand eight hundred copies in quarto form, bound in one volume, two hundred for the Senate, six hundred for the House, and two thousand for distribution by the Coast and Geodetic Survey. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 613; Apr. 20, 1896, No. 46, 29 Stat. 471.)

248. Civil Service Commission; report.—Of the report of the Civil Service Commission, there shall be printed, in addition to the usual number, twenty-three thousand copies; one thousand for the Senate, two thousand for the House, and twenty thousand for distribution by the Civil Service Commission. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 614.)

249. Commerce and Navigation.—Of the report on Commerce and Navigation and on Internal Commerce, there shall be printed one thousand copies for the Senate and two thousand for the House in addition to those published as part of the departmental report.

Of the annual report of the Commissioner of Navigation, one thousand copies for the Senate, two thousand for the House, and one thousand copies for distribution by the commissioner; and of the annual list of merchant vessels of the United States, five thousand copies for distribution by Department of Commerce. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 616; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 4, 32 Stat. 826; Mar. 4, 1907, No. 25, 34 Stat. 1425.)

250. Commercial and Foreign Relations.—Of Commercial Relations, and of Foreign Relations, there shall be printed, in addition to the usual number, three thousand copies of each; one thousand for the Senate and two thousand for the House. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 613.)

251. Consular Reports.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized to have printed, for distribution by the Department of Commerce, an edition of Daily Consular Reports not to exceed twenty thousand copies in any one issue. The usual number shall not be printed. (June 25, 1910, c. 388, § 1, 36 Stat. 821; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

252. District of Columbia; report on improvement and care of public buildings.—There shall be printed each year, in addition to the number of copies otherwise authorized by law, two hundred copies of the annual report upon the improvement and care of public buildings and grounds, and the care and maintenance of the Washington Monument, in the District of Columbia, for the use of the officer in charge of public buildings and grounds. (June 2, 1900, No. 30, 31 Stat. 718.)

253. Education, Commissioner of; report.—Of the report of the Commissioner of Education, there shall be printed, in addition to the usual number, thirty-five thousand copies; five thousand for the Senate, ten thousand for the House, and twenty thousand for distribution by the Commissioner of Education. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 614.)

254. Ephemeris and Nautical Almanac.—There shall be published, in lieu of the usual number of the American Ephemeris and Nautical Almanac, two thousand five hundred copies, uniform with the editions printed for the Navy Department, five hundred of which shall be for the use of the Senate, one thousand for the use of the House of Representatives, and one thousand for distribution or sale by the Navy Department. The Secretary of the Navy is also authorized to cause additional copies of the Ephemeris, and of the Nautical Almanacs extracted therefrom, to be printed for the public service and for sale to navigators and others. All moneys received from sales of the Ephemeris and of the Nautical Almanacs shall be deposited in the Treasury and placed to the credit of the general fund for public printing. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 613; May 13, 1902, No. 20, 32 Stat. 740; July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 678.)

255. Ethnology, Bureau of; bulletins; size.—The bulletins issued by the Bureau of American Ethnology shall be in octavo size. (Mar. 29, 1904, No. 14, 33 Stat. 585.)

256. Same; report.—Of the report of the Bureau of Ethnology, uniform with the preceding volumes of the series, there shall be printed, in addition to the usual number, eight thousand copies, one thousand five hundred for the Senate, three thousand for the House, and three thousand five hundred for distribution by the Bureau of Ethnology. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 613; Mar. 29, 1904, No. 14, 33 Stat. 585.)

257. Experiment Stations; report of director of office.—There shall be prepared annually a report of the Director of the Office of Experiment Stations on the work and expenditures of that office and of the agricultural experiment stations established in the several States and Territories under sections 362 to 365, 368, 377 to 379 of Title 7, and eight thousand copies thereof shall be printed, of which one thousand copies shall be for the use of the Senate, two thousand copies for the use of the House of Representatives, and five thousand copies for the use of the Department of Agriculture. (Apr. 27, 1904, No. 29, 33 Stat. 590.)

258. Fisheries; bulletins of bureau.—Of the bulletins of the Bureau of Fisheries, there shall be printed, in addition to the usual number, five thousand copies; one thousand for the Senate, two thousand for the House, and two thousand for distribution by the bureau. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 614.)

259. Same; report of commissioner.—Of the report of the Commissioner of Fisheries, there shall be printed, in addition to the usual number, eight thousand copies; two thousand for the Senate, four thousand for the House, and two thousand for distribution by the Bureau of Fisheries. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 614.)

260. Geological Survey; publications; size of volumes; editions; additional copies; bulletins; reports on gauging of streams and utilization of water resources; additional copies; distribution.—The publications of the Geological Survey shall consist of the annual report of the director, which shall be confined to one volume of royal octavo size; monographs, of quarto size; professional papers, of quarto size; bulletins, of ordinary octavo size; water-supply and irrigation papers, of ordinary octavo size; and such maps, folios, and atlases as may be required by law.

Of the report of the Geological Survey, ten thousand copies shall be printed in addition to the usual number; two thousand for the Senate, four thousand for the House, four thousand for distribution by the Geological Survey.

The reports of the Geological Survey, except the annual report of the director, shall be published in editions as recommended in each case by the director and approved by the Secretary of the Interior, but not to exceed ten thousand copies.

Whenever the edition of any of the reports of the survey shall have become exhausted, and the demand for it continues, there shall be published, on the requisition of the Secretary of the Interior, as many additional copies of the report as the director of the survey shall state will, in his judgment, be necessary to meet the demand.

The report of the mineral resources of the United States shall be published in two octavo volumes and as a distinct publication, the number of copies, printing of separate chapters, and mode of distribution of which shall be the same as of the annual report.

Three thousand copies of the monographs and bulletins of the Geological Survey shall be published.

The bulletins and professional papers shall be distributed gratuitously, and not sold; and of the number published one thousand copies shall be delivered to the Senate and two thousand copies shall be delivered to the House of Representatives for distribution.

The director of the survey shall transmit to the Library of Congress two copies of every report of the bureau as soon as the first delivery to the survey is made, such copies to be additional to those received by the Library of Congress under any other provision of law. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 614; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 189, § 1, 28 Stat. 960; June 11, 1896, c. 420, § 1, 29 Stat. 453; June 4, 1897, c. 2, § 1, 30 Stat. 61; Mar. 2, 1901, No. 17, 31 Stat. 1465; May 16, 1902, No. 22, 32 Stat. 741; Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1007, § 1, 32 Stat. 1146; Mar. 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 988.)

261. Same; monographs, bulletins, and reports; estimates.—The scientific reports known as the monographs and bulletins of the Geological Survey shall not be published until specific and detailed estimates are made therefor and specific appropriations made in pursuance of such estimates; and no engravings for the annual reports for such monographs and bulletins, or of illustrations, sections, and maps, shall be done until specific estimates are submitted therefor and specific appropriations made based on such estimates. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 79, 28 Stat. 621.)

262. Same; distribution of publications to public libraries.—The Director of the Geological Survey shall distribute to public libraries that have not already received them such copies of sale publications as may remain on hand at the expiration of five years after date of delivery to the survey document room, excepting a reserve number not to exceed two hundred copies. (Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1007, § 1, 32 Stat. 1146.)

263. Health officer of District of Columbia; report.—Of the report of the health officer of the District of Columbia, there shall be printed, in addition to the usual number, one thousand five hundred copies; one hundred for the Senate, three hundred and sixty for the House, and one thousand and forty for distribution by the health officer. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 614.)

265. Hydrographic surveys; foreign surveys.—All appropriations made for the preparation or publication of foreign hydrographic surveys shall only be applicable to their object, upon the approval by the Secretary of the Navy, after a report from three competent naval officers to the effect that the original data for proposed charts are such as to justify their publication; and it is made the duty of the Secretary of the Navy to order a board of three naval officers to examine and report upon the data before he shall approve of any application of moneys to the preparation or publication of such charts or hydrographic surveys. (R. S. § 3686; Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 78, 28 Stat. 621.)

266. Immigration Bureau; report.—The number of copies to be printed of the annual reports of the Bureau of Immigration shall be subject to the discretion of the Secretary of Labor, the number of copies not to exceed five thousand in any one fiscal year. (Mar. 3, 1905, No. 33, 33 Stat. 1287; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

267. Immigration Commission; reprinting public documents.—The Superintendent of Documents is authorized to order reprinted from time to time such public documents of the Immigration Commission as may be required for sale. (June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 1, 36 Stat. 768.)

268. Industrial Relations; report of commission.—The Superintendent of Documents is authorized to reprint for sale or distribution as provided by law, copies of the final report of the United States Commission on Industrial Relations, including the report of Basil M. Manly, director of research and investigation, and the individual reports and statements of the several commissioners, together with all the testimony taken at its hearings, except exhibits submitted in printed form, which shall be appropriately referred to in said testimony, printed as a Senate document under the direction of the Joint Committee on Printing. (Apr. 28, 1916, c. 98, 39 Stat. 59.)

269. Interstate Commerce Commission; report.—Of the annual report of the Interstate Commerce Commission, there shall be printed, in addition to the usual number, three thousand copies; one thousand for the Senate, two thousand for the House, and for the use of the commission there may be printed such number of said report and other documents incident to interstate commerce for distribution by them as they may deem expedient. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 614.)

270. Labor Statistics, Bureau of; bulletins.—There shall be printed one edition of not exceeding fifteen thousand copies of each issue of the bulletin of the Bureau of Labor Statistics authorized by section 5 of Title 29 and such number of extra copies not to exceed twenty thousand of any single issue, when in the opinion of the commissioner the demand for the bulletin makes an extra edition necessary. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 1, 28 Stat. 805; June 4, 1897, c. 2, § 1, 30 Stat. 61; June 6, 1900, c. 791, § 1, 31 Stat. 644; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 3, 37 Stat. 737.)

271. Same; report of commissioner.—Of the report of the Commissioner of Labor Statistics, twenty-five thousand copies shall be printed, in addition to the usual number, five thousand for the Senate, ten thousand for the House, and ten thousand for distribution by the commissioner. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 614; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 3, 37 Stat. 737.)

272. Mines, Bureau of; publications.—The publications of the Bureau of Mines shall be published in such editions as recommended by the Secretary of the Interior, but not to exceed ten thousand copies for the first edition. Whenever the edition of any of the publications of the Bureau of Mines shall have become exhausted and the demand for it continues, there shall be published, on the requisition of the Secretary of the Interior, as many additional copies as the Secretary of the Interior may deem necessary to meet the demand. (June 25, 1910, No. 36, §§ 1, 2, 36 Stat. 883.)

273. Mint; reports of director.—There may be printed, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, for distribution by the Treasury Department, two thousand copies of the annual report of the Director of the Mint on the operations of the mint and assay offices with appendices, and of the annual report of the Director of the Mint on the production of precious metals. (Mar. 4, 1907, No. 24, 34 Stat. 1424.)

274. National Academy of Sciences; memoirs.—Of the memoirs of the National Academy of Sciences, there shall be printed, in addition to the usual number, two thousand five hundred copies; five hundred for the Senate, one thousand for the House, and one thousand for distribution by the Academy of Sciences. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 616.)

275. Same; report.—Of the report of the National Academy of Sciences, there shall be printed, in addition to the usual number, two thousand copies, five hundred for the Senate, one thousand for the House, and five hundred for distribution by the Academy of Sciences. 276. National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers; report of managers and inspectors.—There shall be printed of the report of the board of managers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, in addition to the usual number, for the use of the National Homes for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, five hundred copies of the report proper, bound in cloth; two hundred copies of the report of the inspection of the State homes, bound in paper, and two hundred copies of the record of members, bound in cloth. (Mar. 31, 1904, No. 15, 33 Stat. 585.)

277. National Monetary Commission; reprinting public documents.—The Superintendent of Documents is hereby authorized to order reprinted, from time to time, such public documents of the National Monetary Commission as may be required for sale. (Feb. 25, 1910, c. 62, § 1, 36 Stat. 217.)

278. Naval Intelligence Office; additional copies of publications.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to print, in excess of one thousand copies, such extra copies of the publications of the Office of Naval Intelligence as may be necessary for distribution to the naval service and to meet other official demands. In no case shall the edition of any one publication exceed two thousand copies. (Mar. 21, 1900, No. 14, 31 Stat. 713.)

279. Naval Observatory Observations.—Of the Observations of the Naval Observatory, there shall be printed, in addition to the usual number, one thousand eight hundred copies; three hundred for the Senate, seven hundred for the House, and eight hundred for distribution by the Naval Observatory, and of the astronomical appendixes to the above observations, one thousand two hundred separate copies, and of the meteorological and magnetic observations one thousand separate copies for distribution by the Naval Observatory. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 613.)

280. Official Register.—Of the Official Register published by the Director of the Census there shall be printed and bound a sufficient number of copies for the following distribution to be made by the Superintendent of Documents: To the President of the United States, four copies, one copy of which shall be for the library of the Executive Office; to the Vice President of the United States, two copies; to each Senator, Representative, Delegate and Resident Commissioner in Congress, three copies; to the Secretary and the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate and to the Clerk, the Sergeant at Arms, and the Doorkeeper of the House, one copy each; to the library of the Senate and the House, each, not to exceed fifteen copies; to the Library of Congress, twenty-five copies, and to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, ten copies. The usual number of the Official Register shall not be printed. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 619; Oct. 22, 1913, c. 32, 38 Stat. 224; Feb. 18, 1922, c. 58, § 4, 42 Stat. 391; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 421, § 2, 43 Stat. 1105.)

281. Same; report of Comptroller of Currency.—A full and complete list of all officers, agents, clerks, and other employees of the office of the Comptroller of the Currency, including bank examiners, receivers and attorneys for receivers, and clerks employed by such examiners and receivers, or any other person connected with the work of said office in Washington or elsewhere, whose salary or compensation is paid from the Treasury of the United States or assessed against or collected from existing or failed banks under their supervision or control, shall be transmitted to the Director of the Census, in accordance with the provisions of section 280 of this title. (Mar. 6, 1902, c. 139, § 7, 32 Stat. 52; Apr. 28, 1902, c. 594, § 1, 32 Stat. 138; June 7, 1906, c. 3048, 34 Stat. 219; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 421, § 2, 43 Stat. 1105.)

282. Pan American Union; monthly bulletin.—The Public Printer is hereby authorized to print an edition of the Monthly Bulletin of the Pan American Union, not to exceed five thousand copies per month, for distribution by the Union every month. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 208, 36 Stat. 1032.)

283. Patent Office; printing.—The Commissioner of Patents, upon the requisition of the Secretary of the Interior, is authorized to continue the printing of the following:

1. Patents issued.—First. The patents for inventions and designs issued by the Patent Office, including grants, specifications, and drawings, together with copies of the same, and of patents already issued, in such number as may be needed for the business of the office.

2. Trade-marks and labels.—Second. The certificates of trade-marks and labels registered in the Patent Office, including descriptions and drawings, together with copies of the same, and of trade-marks and labels heretofore registered, in such numbers as may be needed for the business of the office.

3. Official Gazette.—Third. The Official Gazette of the United States Patent Office in numbers sufficient to supply all who shall subscribe therefor at $5 per annum; also for exchange for other scientific publications desirable for the use of the Patent Office; also to supply one copy to each Senator, Representative, and Delegate in Congress; with one hundred additional copies, together with weekly, monthly, and annual indexes for all the same; of the Official Gazette the "usual number" shall not be printed.

4. Report of Commissioner of Patents.—Fourth. The report of the Commissioner of Patents for the fiscal year, not exceeding five hundred in number, for distribution by him; the annual report of the Commissioner of Patents to Congress, without the list of patents, not exceeding one thousand five hundred in number, for distribution by him; and of the annual report of the Commissioner of Patents to Congress, with the list of patents, five hundred copies for sale by him, if needed, and in addition thereto the usual number only shall be printed.

5. Rules of practice, patent laws, etc.—Fifth. Pamphlet copies of the rules of practice, pamphlet copies of the patent laws, and pamphlet copies of the laws and rules relating to trade-marks and labels, and circulars relating to the business of the office, all in such numbers as may be needed for the business of the office. The usual number shall not be printed.

6. Decisions of commissioner and courts.—Sixth. Annual volumes of the decisions of the Commissioner of Patents and of the United States courts in patent cases, not exceeding one thousand five hundred in number, of which the usual number shall be printed, and for this purpose a copy of each shall be transmitted to Congress promptly when prepared.

7. Indexes.—Seventh. Indexes to patents relating to electricity, and indexes to foreign patents, in such numbers as may be needed for the business of office. The usual number shall not be printed. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 619, 620; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 355, § 1, 37 Stat. 481; Feb. 18, 1922, c. 58, § 4, 42 Stat. 391; June 7, 1924, c. 303, § 1, 43 Stat. 592.)

284. Same; lithographing.—All printing for the Patent Office making use of lithography or photolithography, together with the plates for the same, shall be contracted for and performed under the direction of the Commissioner of Patents, under such limitations and conditions as the Joint Committee on Printing may from time to time prescribe, and all other printing for the Patent Office shall be done by the Public Printer under such limitations and conditions as the Joint Committee on Printing may from time to time prescribe. The entire work may be done at the Government Printing Office whenever in the judgment of the Joint Committee on Printing the same would be to the interest of the Government. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 620.)

285. President's message.—The message of the President without the accompanying documents and reports shall be printed, immediately upon its receipt by Congress, in pamphlet form. Fifteen thousand copies shall be printed, of which five thousand shall be for the Senate, and ten thousand for the House. Of the message and accompanying documents, there shall be printed one thousand copies for the Senate and two thousand for the House. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 615.)

286. Public Health Service; bulletins.—There shall be printed each year the bulletins of the Hygienic Laboratory, not exceeding ten in number in any one year, and of the yellow fever institute of the Public Health Service of the United States, not exceeding five in number in any one year, in such editions, not exceeding five thousand copies in any one year, as the interests of the Government and the public may require, subject to the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury. (Feb. 24, 1905, No. 21, § 1, 33 Stat. 1283; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 1, 37 Stat. 309.)

287. Same; report of Surgeon General.—There shall be printed each year four thousand copies of the annual report of the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, bound in cloth, to be distributed by the Surgeon General. (Feb. 24, 1905, No. 21, § 2, 33 Stat. 1284; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 1, 37 Stat. 309.)

288. Public Printer's report.—There shall be printed of the annual report of the Public Printer one thousand copies to be distributed under his direction. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 618.)

289. Smithsonian Institution; report.—Of the report of the Smithsonian Institution there shall be printed, in addition to the usual number, ten thousand copies; one thousand for the Senate, two thousand for the House, five thousand for distribution by the Smithsonian Institution, and two thousand for distribution by the National Museum. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 616.)

290. Soils, Bureau of; report on field operations.—There shall be printed ten thousand five hundred copies of the report on field operations of the Bureau of Soils, Department of Agriculture, of which one thousand five hundred copies shall be for the use of the Senate, three thousand copies for the use of the House of Representatives, and six thousand copies for the use of the Department of Agriculture. In addition to the number of copies above provided for there shall be printed, as soon as the manuscript can be prepared, with the necessary maps and illustrations to accompany it, a report on each area surveyed, in the form of advance sheets, bound in paper covers, of which five hundred copies shall be for the use of each Senator from the State, two thousand copies for the use of each Representative for the congressional district or districts in which the survey is made, and one thousand copies for the use of the Department of Agriculture. (Feb. 23, 1901, No. 8, 31 Stat. 1462; June 3, 1902, c. 985, 32 Stat. 303; Mar. 14, 1904, No. 9, 33 Stat. 583.)

291. Statistical Abstract.—Of the Statistical Abstract of the United States, there shall be printed, in addition to the usual number, twelve thousand copies; three thousand for the Senate, six thousand for the House, and three thousand for distribution by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 616; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 407.)

292. Surgeon General of Army; bulletins for instruction of medical officers.—The sum of $3,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, may be used for the publication, from time to time, of bulletins prepared under the direction of the Surgeon General of the Army, for the instruction of medical officers, when approved by the Secretary of War. (June 12, 1917, c. 27, § 1, 40 Stat. 174; June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 717; Mar. 2, 1923, c. 178, Title I, 42 Stat. 1378; June 7, 1924, c. 291, Title I, 43 Stat. 478; Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 893.)

293. Tests of Metals.—Of the Tests of Metals, there shall be printed, in addition to the usual number, five hundred copies for distribution by the War Department. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 616.)

294. Treasury Department; binding registered bonds and written records.—Registered bonds and written records may be bound at the Treasury Department. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 84, 28 Stat. 622.)

295. Same; reports.—Of the finance report of the Secretary of the Treasury, there shall be printed one thousand copies for the Senate and two thousand for the House in addition to those published as part of the departmental report.

Of the annual report of the Comptroller of the Currency thirteen thousand copies; one thousand for the Senate, two thousand for the House, and ten thousand for distribution by the Comptroller of the Currency. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 616; Mar. 4, 1907, No. 25, 34 Stat. 1425.)

296. Weather Bureau; report.—Of the annual report of the Chief of the Weather Bureau, there shall be printed, in addition to the usual number, four thousand copies; one thousand copies for the Senate, two thousand copies for the House, and one thousand copies for the bureau. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 73, 28 Stat. 613.)

Chapter 9.—ADVERTISEMENTS.

Sec.

321. Publication of laws discontinued; proclamations and treaties; advertisements for contracts in District of Columbia.
322. Rate of payment for advertisements, notices, and proposals.
323. Advertising in District of Columbia; rate of compensation.
324. No advertisement without authority.

Section 321. Publication of laws discontinued; proclamations and treaties; advertisements for contracts in District of Columbia.—The publication of the laws in newspapers shall cease. All executive proclamations, and all treaties required by law to be published, shall be published in only one newspaper, the same to be printed and published in the District of Columbia and to be designated by the Secretary of State; and in no case of advertisement for contracts for the public service shall the same be published in any newspaper published and printed in the District of Columbia unless the supplies or labor covered by such advertisement are to be furnished or performed in said District of Columbia. (June 20, 1874, c. 328, 18 Stat. 90; July 31, 1876, c. 246, 19 Stat. 105.)

322. Rate of payment for advertisements, notices, and proposals.—All advertisements, notices, proposals for contracts, and all forms of advertising required by law for the several departments of the Government may be paid for at a price not to exceed the commercial rates charged to private individuals, with the usual discounts; such rates to be ascertained from sworn statements to be furnished by the proprietors or publishers of the newspapers proposing so to advertise. But the heads of the several departments may secure lower terms at special rates whenever the public interest requires it. (June 20, 1878, c. 359, § 1, 20 Stat. 216.)

323. Advertising in District of Columbia; rate of compensation.—All advertising required by law to be done in the District of Columbia by any of the departments of the Government shall be given to one daily and one weekly newspaper of each of the two principal political parties and to one daily and one weekly neutral newspaper: Provided, That the rates of compensation for such service shall in no case exceed the regular commercial rate of the newspapers selected; nor shall any advertisement be paid for unless published in accordance with section 324 of this title. (Jan. 21, 1881, c. 25, § 1, 21 Stat. 317.)

324. No advertisement without authority.—No advertisement, notice, or proposal for any executive department of the Government, or for any bureau thereof, or for any office therewith connected, shall be published in any newspaper whatever, except in pursuance of a written authority for such publication from the head of such department; and no bill for any such advertising, or publication, shall be paid, unless there be presented, with such bill, a copy of such written authority. (R. S. § 3828.)

Section 1. Driving-wheel brakes and appliances for operating train-brake system.—It shall be unlawful for any common carrier engaged in interstate commerce by railroad to use on its line any locomotive engine in moving interstate traffic not equipped with a power driving-wheel brake and appliances for operating the train-brake system, or to run any train in such traffic that has not a sufficient number of cars in it so equipped with power or train brakes that the engineer on the locomotive drawing such train can control its speed without requiring brakemen to use the common hand brake for that purpose. (Mar. 2, 1893, c. 196, § 1, 27 Stat. 531.)

2. Automatic couplers.—It shall be unlawful for any common carrier engaged in interstate commerce by railroad to haul or permit to be hauled or used on its line any car used in moving interstate traffic not equipped with couplers coupling automatically by impact, and which can be uncoupled without the necessity of men going between the ends of the cars. (Mar. 2, 1893, c. 196, § 2, 27 Stat. 531.)

3. Refusal of insufficiently equipped cars from connecting lines.—When any person, firm, company, or corporation engaged in interstate commerce by railroad shall have equipped a sufficient number of its cars so as to comply with the provisions of section 1 of this chapter, it may lawfully refuse to receive from connecting lines of road or shippers any cars not equipped sufficiently, in accordance with the first section of this chapter, with such power or train brakes as will work and readily interchange with the brakes in use on its own cars, as required by this chapter. (Mar. 2, 1893, c. 196, § 3, 27 Stat. 531.)

4. Grab irons or handholds for security in coupling and uncoupling cars.—Until otherwise ordered by the Interstate Commerce Commission, it shall be unlawful for any railroad company to use any car in interstate commerce that is not provided with secure grab irons or handholds in the ends and sides of each car for greater security to men in coupling and uncoupling cars. (Mar. 2, 1893, c. 196, § 4, 27 Stat. 531.)

5. Standard height of drawbars for freight cars; noncomplying cars excluded from traffic.—No freight cars, either loaded or unloaded, shall be used in interstate traffic which do not comply with the prescribed standard as to height of drawbars. (Mar. 2, 1893, c. 196, § 5, 27 Stat. 531.)

6. Failure to equip cars as provided; duty of district attorneys and Interstate Commerce Commission; exceptions from operation of provisions.—Any common carrier engaged in interstate commerce by railroad using any locomotive engine, running any train, or hauling or permitting to be hauled or used on its line any car in violation of any of the preceding provisions of this chapter, shall be liable to a penalty of $100 for each and every such violation, to be recovered in a suit or suits to be brought by the United States district attorney in the district court of the United States having jurisdiction in the locality where such violation shall have been committed; and it shall be the duty of such district attorney to bring such suits upon duly verified information being lodged with him of such violation having occurred; and it shall also be the duty of the Interstate Commerce Commission to lodge with the proper district attorneys information of any such violations as may come to its knowledge: Provided, That nothing in this chapter contained shall apply to trains composed of four-wheel cars or to trains composed of eight-wheel standard logging cars where the height of such car from top of rail to center of coupling does not exceed twenty-five inches, or to locomotives used in hauling such trains when such cars or locomotives are exclusively used for the transportation of logs. (Mar. 2, 1893, c. 196, § 6, 27 Stat. 532; Apr. 1, 1896, c. 87, 29 Stat. 85.)

7. Assumption of risk by employees.—Any employee of any common carrier engaged in interstate commerce by railroad who may be injured by any locomotive, car, or train in use contrary to the provision of this chapter shall not be deemed thereby to have assumed the risk thereby occasioned, although continuing in the employment of such carrier after the unlawful use of such locomotive, car, or train had been brought to his knowledge. (Mar. 2, 1893, c. 196, § 8, 27 Stat. 532.)

8. Provisions of chapter extended.—The preceding provisions and requirements of this chapter shall be held to apply to common carriers by railroads in the Territories and the District of Columbia and shall apply in all cases, whether or not the couplers brought together are of the same kind, make, or type; and the provisions and requirements relating to train brakes, automatic couplers, grab irons, and the height of drawbars shall be held to apply to all trains, locomotives, tenders, cars, and similar vehicles used on any railroad engaged in interstate commerce, and in the Territories and the District of Columbia, and to all other locomotives, tenders, cars, and similar vehicles used in connection therewith, excepting those trains, cars, and locomotives exempted by the provisions of section 6 of this chapter, or which are used upon street railways. (Mar. 2, 1903, c. 976, § 1, 32 Stat. 943.)

9. Number of cars to be operated with power or train brakes; increase of number.—Whenever, as provided in this chapter, any train is operated with power or train brakes not less than 50 per centum of the cars in such train shall have their brakes used and operated by the engineer of the locomotive drawing such train; and all power-braked cars in such train which are associated together with said 50 per centum shall have their brakes so used and operated; and, to more fully carry into effect the objects of said chapter, the Interstate Commerce Commission may, from time to time, after full hearing, increase the minimum percentage of cars in any train required to be operated with power or train brakes which must have their brakes used and operated as aforesaid; and failure to comply with any such requirement of the said Interstate Commerce Commission shall be subject to the like penalty as failure to comply with any requirement of this section. (Mar. 2, 1903, c. 976, § 2, 32 Stat. 943.)

10. Former duties, requirements, and liabilities continued unless specifically amended.—Nothing in sections 8 and 9 of this chapter shall be held or construed to relieve any common carrier, the Interstate Commerce Commission, or any United States district attorney from any of the provisions, powers, duties, liabilities, or requirements hereinbefore set out, and all of such provisions, powers, duties, requirements and liabilities shall, except as specifically amended by sections 8 and 9, apply thereto. (Mar. 2, 1903, c. 976, § 3, 32 Stat. 943.)

11. Safety appliances required for each car; when hand brakes may be omitted.—It shall be unlawful for any common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter to haul, or permit to be hauled or used on its line any car subject to the provisions of this chapter not equipped with appliances herein provided for, to wit: All cars must be equipped with secure sill steps and efficient hand brakes; all cars requiring secure ladders and secure running boards shall be equipped with such ladders and running boards, and all cars having ladders shall also be equipped with secure handholds or grab irons on their roofs at the tops of such ladders: Provided, That in the loading and hauling of long commodities, requiring more than one car, the hand brakes may be omitted on all save one of the cars while they are thus combined for such purpose. (Apr. 14, 1910, c. 160, § 2, 36 Stat. 298.)

12. Safety appliances, as designated by commission, to be standards of equipment; modification of standard height of drawbars.—The number, dimensions, location, and manner of application of the appliances provided for by sections 4 and 11 of this chapter as designated by the Interstate Commerce Commission shall remain as the standards of equipment to be used on all cars subject to the provisions of this chapter, unless changed by an order of said Interstate Commerce Commission, to be made after full hearing and for good cause shown; and failure to comply with any such requirement of the Interstate Commerce Commission shall be subject to a like penalty as failure to comply with any requirement of this chapter. Said commission is hereby given authority, after hearing, to modify or change, and to prescribe the standard height of drawbars and to fix the time within which such modification or change shall become effective and obligatory, and prior to the time so fixed it shall be unlawful to use any car or vehicle in interstate or foreign traffic which does not comply with the standard now fixed or the standard so prescribed, and after the time so fixed it shall be unlawful to use any car or vehicle in interstate or foreign traffic which does not comply with the standard so prescribed by the commission. (Apr. 14, 1910, c. 160, § 3, 36 Stat. 298.)

13. Penalty for using car not equipped as provided; hauling car for repairs where equipment becomes defective; liability for death or injury of employee; use of chains instead of drawbars.—Any common carrier subject to this chapter using, hauling, or permitting to be used or hauled on its line, any car subject to the requirements of this chapter not equipped as provided in this chapter, shall be liable to a penalty of $100 for each and every such violation, to be recovered as provided in section 6 of this chapter: Provided, That where any car shall have been properly equipped, as provided in this chapter, and such equipment shall have become defective or insecure while such car was being used by such carrier upon its line of railroad, such car may be hauled from the place where such equipment was first discovered to be defective or insecure to the nearest available point where such car can be repaired, without liability for the penalties imposed by this section or section 6 of this chapter, if such movement is necessary to make such repairs and such repairs can not be made except at such repair point; and such movement or hauling of such car shall be at the sole risk of the carrier, and nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve such carrier from liability in any remedial action for the death or injury of any railroad employee caused to such employee by reason of or in connection with the movement or hauling of such car with equipment which is defective or insecure or which is not maintained in accordance with the requirements of this chapter; and nothing in this proviso shall be construed to permit the hauling of defective cars by means of chains instead of drawbars, in revenue trains or in association with other cars that are com-mercially used, unless such defective cars contain livestock or "perishable" freight. (Apr. 14, 1910, c. 160, § 4, 36 Stat. 299.)

14. Liability for using car with defective equipment, except as specified.—Except that, within the limits specified in the preceding section of this chapter the movement of a car with defective or insecure equipment may be made without incurring the penalty provided by the statutes, but shall in all other respects be unlawful, nothing in sections 11, 12, and 13 of this chapter shall be held or construed to relieve any common carrier, the Interstate Commerce Commission, or any United States attorney from any of the provisions, powers, duties, liabilities, or requirements heretofore set out in this chapter; and, except as aforesaid, all of such provisions, powers, duties, requirements, and liabilities shall apply. (Apr. 14, 1910, c. 160, § 5, 36 Stat. 299.)

15. Enforcement by commission.—It shall be the duty of the Interstate Commerce Commission to enforce the provisions of this chapter as to equipment of each car with safety appliances and all powers heretofore granted to said commission are hereby extended to it for the purpose of such enforcement. (Apr. 14, 1910, c. 160, § 6, 36 Stat. 299.)

16. Application of provisions to common carriers and vehicles subject to "Safety Appliance Acts."—The provisions of sections 11, 12, 13, 14, and 15, as to the equipment of cars with the designated safety appliances apply to every common carrier and every vehicle subject to what are commonly known as the "Safety Appliance Acts" set out in the first nine sections of this chapter. (Apr. 14, 1910, c. 160, § 1, 36 Stat. 298.)

17. Locomotives to be equipped with safety ash pans.—It shall be unlawful for any common carrier engaged in interstate or foreign commerce by railroad to use any locomotive in moving interstate or foreign traffic or for any common carrier by railroad in any Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia to use any locomotive, not equipped with an ash pan, which can be dumped or emptied and cleaned without the necessity of any employee going under such locomotive. (May 30, 1908, c. 225, §§ 1, 2, 35 Stat. 476.)

18. Penalty for violation, and actions therefor; duties of district attorneys and of commission.—Any such common carrier using any locomotive in violation of the provisions of the preceding section shall be liable to a penalty of $200 for each and every such violation, to be recovered in a suit or suits to be brought by the United States district attorney in the district court of the United States having jurisdiction in the locality where such violation shall have been committed; and it shall be the duty of such district attorney to bring such suits upon duly verified information being lodged with him of such violation having occurred; and it shall also be the duty of the Interstate Commerce Commission to lodge with the proper district attorneys information of any such violations as may come to its knowledge. (May 30, 1908, c. 225, § 3, 35 Stat. 476.)

19. Enforcement by commission.—It shall be the duty of the Interstate Commerce Commission to enforce the provisions as to safety ash pans, and all powers heretofore granted to said commission are hereby extended to it for the purpose of such enforcement. (May 30, 1908, c. 225, § 4, 35 Stat. 476.)

20. Who included in term "common carrier."—The term "common carrier" as used in sections 17 and 18 of this chapter shall include the receiver or receivers or other persons or corporations charged with the duty of the management and operation of the business of a common carrier. (May 30, 1908, c. 225, § 5, 35 Stat. 476.)

21. Provisions not applicable to locomotives on which ash pan not necessary.—Nothing in the provisions of sections 17 to 20, inclusive, shall apply to any locomotive upon which, by reason of the use of oil, electricity, or other such agency, an ash pan is not necessary. (May 30, 1908, c. 225, § 6, 35 Stat. 476.)

22. Inspection of locomotives and appurtenances; definitions.—When used in sections 23 to 34, inclusive, the terms "carrier" and "common carrier" mean a common carrier by railroad, or partly by railroad and partly by water, within the continental United States, subject to chapter 1 of Title 49, TRANSPORTATION, as amended, excluding street, suburban, and interurban electric railways unless operated as a part of a general railroad system of transportation. The term "railroad" as used in said sections shall include all the roads in use by any common carrier operating a railroad, whether owned or operated under a contract, agreement, or lease, and the term "employees" as used in said sections shall be held to mean persons actually engaged in or connected with the movement of any train. (Feb. 17, 1911, c. 103, § 1, 36 Stat. 913; June 7, 1924, c. 355, § 1, 43 Stat. 659.)

23. Use of unsafe locomotives and appurtenances unlawful; inspection and tests.—It shall be unlawful for any carrier to use or permit to be used on its line any locomotive unless said locomotive, its boiler, tender, and all parts and appurtenances thereof are in proper condition and safe to operate in the service to which the same are put, that the same may be employed in the active service of such carrier without unnecessary peril to life or limb, and unless said locomotive, its boiler, tender, and all parts and appurtenances thereof have been inspected from time to time in accordance with the provisions of sections 28, 29, 30, and 32 and are able to withstand such test or tests as may be prescribed in the rules and regulations hereinafter provided for. (June 7, 1924, c. 355, § 2, 43 Stat. 659.)

24. Chief inspector and assistant chief inspectors; appointment and salaries.—There shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a chief inspector and two assistant chief inspectors of locomotive boilers, who shall have general superintendence of the inspectors hereinafter provided for, direct them in the duties hereby imposed upon them, and see that the requirements of this chapter as to the inspection of locomotives, their boilers, tenders, and so forth, and the rules, regulations, and instructions made or given hereunder are observed by common carriers subject hereto. The said chief inspector and his two assistants shall be selected with reference to their practical knowledge of the construction and repairing of boilers, and to their fitness and ability to systematize and carry into effect the provisions hereof relating to the inspection and maintenance of locomotive boilers. The chief inspector shall receive a salary of $6,000 per year and the assistant chief inspectors shall each receive a salary of $5,000 per year; and each of the three shall be paid his traveling expenses incurred in the performance of his duties. (Feb. 17, 1911, c. 103, § 3, 36 Stat. 914; June 7, 1924, § 6, 43 Stat. 659.)

25. Offices; legal, technical, stenographic, and clerical help.—The office of the chief inspector shall be in Washington, District of Columbia, and the Interstate Commerce Commission shall provide such legal, technical, stenographic, and clerical help as the business of the offices of the chief inspector and his said assistants may require. (Feb. 17, 1911, c. 103, § 3, 36 Stat. 914; June 7, 1924, c. 355, § 3, 43 Stat. 659.)

26. Inspection districts; appointment and assignment of district inspectors; salaries and expenses; examinations of applicants; disqualifications.—Immediately after his appointment and qualification the chief inspector shall divide the territory comprising the several States and the District of Columbia into fifty locomotive boiler inspection districts, so arranged that the service of the inspector appointed for each district shall be most effective, and so that the work required of each inspector shall be substantially the same. Thereupon there shall be appointed by the Interstate Commerce Commission fifty inspectors of locomotive boilers. Said inspectors shall be in the classified service and shall be appointed after competitive examination according to the law and the rules of the Civil Service Commission governing the classified service. The chief inspector shall assign one inspector so appointed to each of the districts hereinbefore named. Each inspector shall receive a salary of $3,600 per year and his traveling expenses while engaged in the performance of his duty. He shall receive in addition thereto an annual allowance for office rent, stationery, and clerical assistance, to be fixed by the Interstate Commerce Commission, but not to exceed in the case of any district inspector $1,000. In order to obtain the most competent inspectors possible, it shall be the duty of the chief inspector to prepare a list of questions to be propounded to applicants with respect to construction, repair, operation, testing, and inspection of locomotive boilers, and their practical experience in such work, which list, being approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission, shall be used by the Civil Service Commission as a part of its examination. No person interested, either directly or indirectly, in any patented article required to be used on any locomotive under supervision or who is intemperate in his habits shall be eligible to hold the office of either chief inspector or assistant or district inspector. (Feb. 17, 1911, c. 103, § 4, 36 Stat. 914; June 7, 1924, c. 355, § 4, 43 Stat. 659.)

27. Appointment and assignment of additional inspectors.—Within the appropriations therefor and subject to the provisions of the preceding section, the Interstate Commerce Commission may appoint, from time to time, not more than fifteen inspectors in addition to the number authorized in such section, as the needs of the service may require. Any inspector appointed under this provision shall be so assigned by the chief inspector that his service will be most effective. (June 7, 1924, c. 355, § 4, 43 Stat. 659.)

28. Rules and instructions as to inspection.—Rules and instructions for the inspection of locomotive boilers which have been made by a carrier subject to this chapter and approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission are obligatory on such carrier until changed in the manner hereafter provided, and a violation thereof shall be punished as provided in section 34. A carrier may from time to time change such rules and instructions, but such change shall not take effect and the new rules and instructions be in force until the same shall have been filed with and approved by the interstate Commerce Commission. The chief inspector shall also make all needful rules, regulations, and instructions not inconsistent herewith for the conduct of his office and for the government of the district inspectors: Provided, however, That all such rules and instructions shall be approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission before they take effect. (Feb. 17, 1911, c. 103, § 5, 36 Stat. 914.)

29. Duties of district inspectors; inspection and repairs by carriers; notice to carrier of condition of boiler; appeal to chief inspector and reexaminaton; further appeal to commission.—It shall be the duty of each inspector to become familiar, so far as practicable, with the condition of each locomotive boiler ordinarily housed or repaired in his district, and if any locomotive is ordinarily housed or repaired in two or more districts, then the chief inspector or an assistant shall make such division between inspectors as will avoid the necessity for duplication of work. Each inspector shall make such personal inspection of the locomotive boilers under his care from time to time as may be necessary to fully carry out the provisions of this chapter, and as may be consistent with his other duties, but he shall not be required to make such inspections at stated times or at regular intervals. His first duty shall be to see that the carriers make inspections in accordance with the rules and regulations established or approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission, and that carriers repair the defects which such inspections disclose before the boiler or boilers or appurtenances pertaining thereto are again put in service. To this end each carrier subject to this chapter shall file with the inspector in charge, under the oath of the proper officer or employee, a duplicate of the report of each inspection required by such rules and regulations, and shall also file with such inspector, under the oath of the proper officer or employee, a report showing the repair of the defects disclosed by the inspection. The rules and regulations hereinbefore provided for shall prescribe the time at which such reports shall be made. Whenever any district inspector shall, in the performance of his duty, find any locomotive boiler or apparatus pertaining thereto not conforming to the requirements of the law or the rules and regulations established and approved as hereinbefore stated, he shall notify the carrier in writing that the locomotive is not in serviceable condition, and thereafter such boiler shall not be used until in serviceable condition: Provided, That a carrier, when notified by an inspector in writing that a locomotive boiler is not in serviceable condition, because of defects set out and described in said notice, may within five days after receiving said notice, appeal to the chief inspector by telegraph or by letter to have said boiler reexamined, and upon receipt of the appeal from the inspector's decision, the chief inspector shall assign one of the assistant chief inspectors or any district inspector other than the one from whose decision the appeal is taken to reexamine and inspect said boiler within fifteen days from date of notice. If upon such reexamination the boiler is found in serviceable condition, the chief inspector shall immediately notify the carrier in writing, whereupon such boiler may be put into service without further delay; but if the reexamination of said boiler sustains the decision of the district inspector, the chief inspector shall at once notify the carrier owning or operating such locomotive that the appeal from the decision of the inspector is dismissed, and upon the receipt of such notice the carrier may, within thirty days, appeal to the Interstate Commerce Commission, and upon such appeal, and after hearing, said commission shall have power to revise, modify, or set aside such action of the chief inspector and declare that said locomotive is in serviceable condition and authorize the same to be operated: Provided further, That pending either appeal the requirements of the inspector shall be effective. (Feb. 17, 1911, c. 103, § 6, 36 Stat. 915.)

30. Powers and duties of inspectors, and provisions of chapter applicable to all parts of locomotive and tender; examinations of inspectors.—The chief inspector and the two assistant chief inspectors, together with all the district inspectors, appointed as hereinbefore provided, shall inspect and shall have the same powers and duties with respect to all the parts and appurtenances of the locomotive and tender that they have with respect to the boiler of a locomotive and the appurtenances thereof, and the provision as to the equipment of locomotives shall apply to and include the entire locomotive and tender and all their parts with the same force and effect as it applies to locomotive boilers and their appurtenances. All inspectors and applicants for the position of inspector shall be examined touching their qualifications and fitness with respect to the additional duties hereby imposed. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 169, § 2, 38 Stat. 1192.)

31. Annual report of chief inspector.—The chief inspector shall make an annual report to the Interstate Commerce Commission of the work done during the year, and shall make such recommendations for the betterment of the service as he may desire. (Feb. 17, 1911, c. 103, § 7, 36 Stat. 916.)

32. Report by carrier to chief inspector as to accident; preservation of disabled parts; investigation and report thereupon.—In the case of accident resulting from failure from any cause of a locomotive boiler or its appurtenances, resulting in serious injury or death to one or more persons, a statement forthwith must be made in writing of the fact of such accident, by the carrier owning or operating said locomotive, to the chief inspector. Whereupon the facts concerning such accident shall be investigated by the chief inspector or one of his assistants, or such inspector as the chief inspector may designate for that purpose. And where the locomotive is disabled to the extent that it can not be run by its own steam, the part or parts affected by the said accident shall be preserved by said carrier intact, so far as possible, without hindrance or interference to traffic until after said inspection. The chief inspector or an assistant or the designated inspector making the investigation shall examine or cause to be examined thoroughly the boiler or part affected, making full and detailed report of the cause of the accident to the chief inspector. (Feb. 17, 1911, c. 103, § 8, 36 Stat. 916.)

33. Reports by commission of investigations.—The Interstate Commerce Commission may at any time call upon the chief inspector for a report of any accident embraced in the preceding section, and upon the receipt of said report, if it deems it to the public interest, make reports of such investigations, stating the cause of accident, together with such recommendations at it deems proper. Such reports shall be made public in such manner as the commission deems proper. Neither said report nor any report of said investigation nor any part thereof shall be admitted as evidence or used for any purpose in any suit or action for damages growing out of any matter mentioned in said report or investigation. (Feb. 17, 1911, c. 103, § 8, 36 Stat. 916.)

34. Penalty for violations by carrier; duty of district attorney to sue therefor; chief inspector to give information.—Any common carrier violating the provisions of this chapter relating to locomotives, their boilers, tenders, and so forth, or any rule or regulation made under such provisions or any lawful order of any inspector shall be liable to a penalty of $100 for each and every such violation, to be recovered in a suit or suits to be brought by the United States attorney in the district court of the United States having jurisdiction in the locality where such violation shall have been committed; and it shall be the duty of such attorneys, subject to the direction of the Attorney General, to bring such suits upon duly verified information being lodged with them, respectively, of such violations having occurred; and it shall be the duty of the chief inspector of locomotive boilers to give information to the proper United States attorney of all violations coming to his knowledge. (Feb. 17, 1911, c. 103, § 9, 36 Stat. 916.)

35. Investigation and report by commission on block-signal systems and appliances for automatic control of trains; evidence.—The Interstate Commerce Commission is directed to investigate and report on the use of and necessity for block-signal systems and appliances for the automatic control of railway trains in the United States. For this purpose the commission is authorized to employ persons who are familiar with the subject, and may use such of its own employees as are necessary to make a thorough examination into the matter.

In transmitting its report to the Congress the commission shall recommend such legislation as to the commission seems advisable.

To carry out and give effect to the provisions of this section the commission shall have power to issue subpœnas, administer oaths, examine witnesses, require the production of books and papers, and receive depositions taken before any proper officer in any State or Territory of the United States. (June 30, 1906, No. 46, 34 Stat. 838.)

36. Investigation and testing by commission of appliances or systems to promote safety.—The Interstate Commerce Commission is authorized, at its discretion, to investigate, test experimentally, and report on the use and need of any appliances or systems intended to promote the safety of railway operation which may be furnished in completed shape to such commission for such investigation and test entirely free of cost to the Government. For this purpose the commission is authorized to employ persons familiar with the subject to be investigated and tested, and may also make use of its regular employees for such purposes. (May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 325.)

37. Inspection of mail cars.—All inspectors employed for the enforcement of the provisions of this chapter as to safety appliances shall also be required to make examination of the construction, adaptability, design, and condition of all mail cars used on any railroad in the United States and make report thereon, a copy of which report shall be transmitted to the Postmaster General. (May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 324.)

38. Monthly reports of railroad accidents; duty of carrier to make.—It shall be the duty of the general manager, superintendent, or other proper officer of every common carrier engaged in interstate or foreign commerce by railroad to make to the Interstate Commerce Commission, at its office in Washington, District of Columbia, a monthly report, under oath, of all collisions, derailments, or other accidents resulting in injury to persons, equipment, or roadbed arising from the operation of such railroad under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the said commission, which report shall state the nature and causes thereof and the circumstances connected therewith: Provided, That hereafter all said carriers shall be relieved from the duty of reporting accidents in their annual financial and operating reports made to the commission. (May 6, 1910, c. 208, § 1, 36 Stat. 350.)

39. Penalty for failure to make report.—Any common carrier failing to make the report provided for in the preceding section within thirty days after the end of any month shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof by a court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine of not more than $100 for each and every offense and for every day during which it shall fail to make such report after the time herein specified for making the same. (May 6, 1910, c. 208, § 2, 36 Stat. 350.)

40. Investigation by commission of accidents; cooperation with State commissions; reports of investigations.—The Interstate Commerce Commission shall have authority to investigate all collisions, derailments, or other accidents resulting in serious injury to person or to the property of a railroad occurring on the line of any common carrier engaged in interstate or foreign commerce by railroad. The commission, or any impartial investigator thereunto authorized by said commission, shall have authority to investigate such collisions, derailments, or other accidents aforesaid, and all the attending facts, conditions, and circumstances, and for that purpose may subpœna witnesses, administer oaths, take testimony, and require the production of books, papers, orders, memoranda, exhibits, and other evidence, and shall be provided by said carriers with all reasonable facilities: Provided, That when such accident is investigated by a commission of the State in which it occurred, the Interstate Commerce Commission shall, if convenient, make any investigation it may have previously determined upon, at the same time as, and in connection with, the State commission investigation. Said commission shall, when it deems it to the public interest, make reports of such investigations, stating the cause of accident, together with such recommendations as it deems proper. Such reports shall be made public in such manner as the commission deems proper. (May 6, 1910, c. 208, § 3, 36 Stat. 351.)

41. Reports not evidence in suits for damages.—Neither said report nor any report of said investigation nor any part thereof shall be admitted as evidence or used for any purpose in any suit or action for damages growing out of any matter mentioned in said report or investigation. (May 6, 1910, c. 208, § 4, 36 Stat. 351.)

42. Form of reports.—The Interstate Commerce Commission is authorized to prescribe for such common carriers a method and form for making the reports hereinbefore provided. (May 6, 1910, c. 208, § 5, 36 Stat. 351.)

43. Terms "interstate commerce" and "foreign commerce" defined.—The term "interstate commerce," as used in sections 38, 40, shall include transportation from any State or Territory or the District of Columbia to any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia, and the term "foreign commerce," as used in said sections, shall include transportation from any State or Territory or the District of Columbia to any foreign country and from any foreign country to any State or Territory or the District of Columbia. (May 6, 1910, c. 208, § 7, 36 Stat. 351.)

44. Medals of honor for persons saving lives on railroads.—The President of the United States is authorized to cause to be prepared bronze medals of honor, with suitable emblematic devices, which shall be bestowed upon any persons who shall hereafter, by extreme daring, endanger their own lives in saving, or endeavoring to save, lives from any wreck, disaster, or grave accident, or in preventing or endeavoring to prevent such wreck, disaster, or grave accident, upon any railroad within the United States engaged in interstate commerce: Provided, That no award of said medal shall be made to any person until sufficient evidence of his deserving shall have been furnished and placed on file, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the President of the United States. (Feb. 23, 1905, c. 744, § 1, 33 Stat. 743.)

45. Rosettes and ribbons.—The President of the United States is authorized to issue to any person to whom a medal of honor may be awarded under the provisions of the preceding section a rosette or knot, to be worn in lieu of the medal, and a ribbon to be worn with the medal; said rosette or knot and ribbon to be each of a pattern to be prescribed by the President of the United States: Provided, That whenever a ribbon issued under the provisions of this chapter shall have been lost, destroyed, or rendered unfit for use without fault or neglect on the part of the person to whom it was issued, a new ribbon shall be issued to such person without charge therefor. (Feb. 23, 1905, c. 744, § 2, 33 Stat. 743.)

46. Payment of expenses.—The appropriations for the enforcement and execution of the provisions of the Acts to promote the safety of employees and travelers upon railroads are hereby made available for carrying out the provisions of the two preceding sections. (Feb. 23, 1905, c. 744, § 3, 33 Stat. 743.)

Chapter 2.—LIABILITY FOR INJURIES TO EMPLOYEES.

Sec.

51. Liability of common carriers by railroad, in interstate or foreign commerce, for injuries to employees from negligence.
52. Carriers in Territories or other possessions of United States.
53. Contributory negligence; diminution of damages.
54. Assumption of risks of employment.
55. Contract, rule, regulation, or device exempting from liability; set-off.
56. Actions; limitation; concurrent jurisdiction of courts; removal of case in State court.
57. Who included in term "common carrier."
58. Duty or liability of common carriers and rights of employees under other acts not impaired.
59. Survival of right of action of person injured.

Section 51. Liability of common carriers by railroad, in interstate or foreign commerce, for injuries to employees from negligence.—Every common carrier by railroad while engaging in commerce between any of the several States or Territories, or between any of the States and Territories, or between the District of Columbia and any of the States or Territories, or between the District of Columbia or any of the States or Territories and any foreign nation or nations, shall be liable in damages to any person suffering injury while he is employed by such carrier in such commerce, or, in case of the death of such employee, to his or her personal representative, for the benefit of the surviving widow or husband and children of such employee; and, if none, then of such employee's parents; and, if none, then of the next of kin dependent upon such employee, for such injury or death resulting in whole or in part from the negligence of any of the officers, agents, or employees of such carrier, or by reason of any defect or insufficiency, due to its negligence, in its cars, engines, appliances, machinery, track, roadbed, works, boats, wharves, or other equipment. (Apr. 22, 1908, c. 149, § 1, 35 Stat. 65.)

52. Carriers in Territories or other possessions of United States.—Every common carrier by railroad in the Territories, the District of Columbia, the Panama Canal Zone, or other possessions of the United States shall be liable in damages to any person suffering injury while he is employed by such carrier in any of said jurisdictions, or, in case of the death of such employee, to his or her personal representative, for the benefit of the surviving widow or husband and children of such employee; and, if none, then of such employee's parents; and, if none, then of the next of kin dependent upon such employee, for such injury or death resulting in whole or in part from the negligence of any of the officers, agents, or employees of such carrier, or by reason of any defect or insufficiency, due to its negligence, in its cars, engines, appliances, machinery, track, roadbed, works, boats, wharves, or other equipment. (Apr. 22, 1908, c. 149, § 2, 35 Stat. 65.)

53. Contributory negligence; diminution of damages.—In all actions hereafter brought against any such common carrier by railroad under or by virtue of any of the provisions of this chapter to recover damages for personal injuries to an employee, or where such injuries have resulted in his death, the fact that the employee may have been guilty of contributory negligence shall not bar a recovery, but the damages shall be diminished by the jury in proportion to the amount of negligence attributable to such employee: Provided, That no such employee who may be injured or killed shall be held to have been guilty of contributory negligence in any case where the violation by such common carrier of any statute enacted for the safety of employees contributed to the injury or death of such employee. (Apr. 22, 1908, c. 149, § 3, 35 Stat. 66.)

54. Assumption of risks of employment.—In any action brought against any common carrier under or by virtue of any of the provisions of this chapter to recover damages for injuries to, or the death of, any of its employees, such employee shall not be held to have assumed the risks of his employment in any case where the violation by such common carrier of any statute enacted for the safety of employees contributed to the injury or death of such employee. (Apr. 22, 1908, c. 149, § 4, 35 Stat. 66.)

55. Contract, rule, regulation, or device exempting from liability; set-off.—Any contract, rule, regulation, or device whatsoever, the purpose or intent of which shall be to enable any common carrier to exempt itself from any liability created by this chapter, shall to that extent be void: Provided, That in any action brought against any such common carrier under or by virtue of any of the provisions of this chapter, such common carrier may set off therein any sum it has contributed or paid to any insurance, relief benefit, or indemnity that may have been paid to the injured employee or the person entitled thereto on account of the injury or death for which said action was brought. (Apr. 22, 1908, c. 149, § 5, 35 Stat. 66.)

56. Actions; limitation; concurrent jurisdiction of courts; removal of case in State court.—No action shall be maintained under this chapter unless commenced within two years from the day the cause of action accrued.

Under this chapter an action may be brought in a district court of the United States, in the district of the residence of the defendant, or in which the cause of action arose, or in which the defendant shall be doing business at the time of commencing such action. The jurisdiction of the courts of the United States under this chapter shall be concurrent with that of the courts of the several States, and no case arising under this chapter and brought in any State court of competent jurisdiction shall be removed to any court of the United States. (Apr. 22, 1908, c. 149, § 6, 35 Stat. 66; Apr. 5, 1910, c. 143, § 1, 36 Stat. 291.)

57. Who included in term "common carrier."—The term "common carrier" as used in this chapter shall include the receiver or receivers or other persons or corporations charged with the duty of the management and operation of the business of a common carrier. (Apr. 22, 1908, c. 149, § 7, 35 Stat. 66.)

58. Duty or liability of common carriers and rights of employees under other Acts not impaired.—Nothing in this chapter shall be held to limit the duty or liability of common carriers or to impair the rights of their employees under any other Act or Acts of Congress. (Apr. 22, 1908, c. 149, § 8, 35 Stat. 66.)

59. Survival of right of action of person injured.—Any right of action given by this chapter to a person suffering injury shall survive to his or her personal representative, for the benefit of the surviving widow or husband and children of such employee, and, if none, then of such employee's parents; and, if none, then of the next of kin dependent upon such employee, but in such cases there shall be only one recovery for the same injury. (Apr. 5, 1910, c. 143, § 2, 36 Stat. 291.)

Chapter 3.—HOURS OF SERVICE OF EMPLOYEES.

Sec.

61. Carriers and transportation subject to provisions of chapter; "railroad" and "employees" defined.
62. Hours of continuous service limited.
63. Penalty; suits therefor; exceptions from operation of Act.
64. Enforcement by Interstate Commerce Commission.
65. Establishment of eight-hour day.
66. Penalty for violation.

Section 61. Carriers and transportation subject to provisions of chapter; "railroad" and "employees" defined.—The provisions of this chapter shall apply to any common carrier or carriers, their officers, agents, and employees, engaged in the transportation of passengers or property by railroad in the District of Columbia or any Territory of the United States, or from one State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia to any other State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia, or from any place in the United States to an adjacent foreign country, or from any place in the United States through a foreign country to any other place in the United States. The term "railroad" as used in this chapter shall include all bridges and ferries used or operated in connection with any railroad, and also all the road in use by any common carrier operating a railroad, whether owned or operated under a contract, agreement, or lease; and the term "employees" as used in this chapter shall be held to mean persons actually engaged in or connected with the movement of any train. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2939, § 1, 34 Stat. 1415.)

62. Hours of service limited.—It shall be unlawful for any common carrier, its officers or agents, subject to this chapter to require or permit any employee subject to this chapter to be or remain on duty for a longer period than sixteen consecutive hours, and whenever any such employee of such common carrier shall have been continuously on duty for sixteen hours he shall be relieved and not required or permitted again to go on duty until he has had at least ten consecutive hours off duty; and no such employee who has been on duty sixteen hours in the aggregate in any twenty-four-hour period shall be required or permitted to continue or again go on duty without having had at least eight consecutive hours off duty: Provided, That no operator, train dispatcher, or other employee who by the use of the telegraph or telephone dispatches, reports, transmits, receives, or delivers orders pertaining to or affecting train movements shall be required or permitted to be or remain on duty for a longer period than nine hours in any twenty-four-hour period in all towers, offices, places, and stations continuously operated night and day, nor for a longer period than thirteen hours in all towers, offices, places, and stations operated only during the daytime, except in case of emergency, when the employees named in this proviso may be permitted to be and remain on duty for four additional hours in a twenty-four-hour period on not exceeding three days in any week: Provided further, The Interstate Commerce Commission may after full hearing in a particular case and for good cause shown extend the period within which a common carrier shall comply with the provisions of this proviso as to such case. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2939, § 2, 34 Stat. 1416.)

63. Penalty; suits therefor; exceptions from operation of Act.—Any such common carrier, or any officer or agent thereof, requiring or permitting any employee to go, be, or remain on duty in violation of the next preceding section of this chapter shall be liable to a penalty of not less than $100 nor more than $500 for each and every violation, to be recovered in a suit or suits to be brought by the United States district attorney in the district court of the United States having jurisdiction in the locality where such violations shall have been committed; and it shall be the duty of such district attorney to bring such suit upon satisfactory information being lodged with him; but no such suit shall be brought after the expiration of one year from the date of such violation; and it shall also be the duty of the Interstate Commerce Commission to lodge with the proper district attorney information of any such violations as may come to its knowledge. In all prosecutions under this chapter the common carrier shall be deemed to have knowledge of all acts of all its officers and agents: Provided, That the provisions of this chapter shall not apply in any case of casualty or unavoidable accident or the act of God; nor where the delay was the result of a cause not known to the carrier or its officer or agent in charge of such employee at the time said employee left a terminal, and which could not have been foreseen: Provided further, That the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to the crews of wrecking or relief trains. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2939, § 3, 34 Stat. 1416; May 4, 1916, c. 109, § 1, 39 Stat. 61.)

64. Enforcement by Interstate Commerce Commission.—It shall be the duty of the Interstate Commerce Commission to execute and enforce the provisions of this chapter, and all powers granted to the Interstate Commerce Commission are hereby extended to it in the execution of this chapter. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2939, § 4, 34 Stat. 1417.)

65. Establishment of eight-hour day.—Eight hours shall, in contracts for labor and service, be deemed a day's work and the measure or standard of a day's work for the purpose of reckoning the compensation for services of all employees who are now or may hereafter be employed by any common carrier by railroad, except railroads independently owned and operated not exceeding one hundred miles in length, electric street railroads, and electric interurban railroads, which is subject to the provisions of chapter 1, Title 49, TRANSPORTATION, and who are now or may hereafter be actually engaged in any capacity in the operation of trains used for the transportation of persons or property on railroads, except railroads independently owned and operated not exceeding one hundred miles in length, electric street railroads, and electric interurban railroads, from any State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia to any other State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia, or from one place in a Territory to another place in the same Territory, or from any place in the United States to an adjacent foreign country, or from any place in the United States through a foreign country to any other place in the United States: Provided, That the above exceptions shall not apply to railroads though less than one hundred miles in length whose principal business is leasing or furnishing terminal or transfer facilities to other railroads, or are themselves engaged in transfers of freight between railroads or between railroads and industrial plants. (Sept. 3, 5, 1916, c. 436, § 1, 39 Stat. 721.)

66. Penalty for violation.—Any person violating any provision of the preceding section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $100 and not more than $1,000, or imprisoned not to exceed one year, or both. (Sept. 3, 5, 1916, c. 436, § 4, 39 Stat. 722.)

Chapter 4.—CARE OF ANIMALS IN TRANSIT.

Sec.
71. Transportation of animals; time of confinement; unloading for rest and feeding; unloading sheep.
72. Animals unloaded to be fed and watered by or at expense of owner; lien.
73. Penalty for failure to comply with law; when provisions for unloading not to apply.
74. Penalty recoverable by civil action; duty of district attorneys to prosecute.
75. Rules as to accommodations for export cattle.
76. Violation of rules; penalty.

Section 71. Transportation of animals; time of confinement; unloading for rest and feeding; unloading sheep.—No railroad, express company, car company, common carrier other than by water, or the receiver, trustee, or lessee of any of them, whose road forms any part of a line of road over which cattle, sheep, swine, or other animals shall be conveyed from one State or Territory or the District of Columbia into or through another State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or the owners or masters of steam, sailing, or other vessels carrying or transporting cattle, sheep, swine, or other animals from one State or Territory or the District of Columbia into or through another State or Territory or the District of Columbia, shall confine the same in cars, boats, or vessels of any description for a period longer than twenty-eight consecutive hours without unloading the same in a humane manner, into properly equipped pens for rest, water, and feeding, for a period of at least five consecutive hours, unless prevented by storm or by other accidental or unavoidable causes which can not be anticipated or avoided by the exercise of due diligence and foresight: Provided, That upon the written request of the owner or person in custody of that particular shipment, which written request shall be separate and apart from any printed bill of lading, or other railroad form, the time of confinement may be extended to thirty-six hours. In estimating such confinement, the time consumed in loading and unloading shall not be considered, but the time during which the animals have been confined without such rest or food or water on connecting roads shall be included, it being the intent of this chapter to prohibit their continuous confinement beyond the period of twenty-eight hours, except upon the contingencies hereinbefore stated: Provided, That it shall not be required that sheep be unloaded in the nighttime, but where the time expires in the nighttime in case of sheep the same may continue in transit to a suitable place for unloading, subject to the aforesaid limitation of thirty-six hours. (June 29, 1906, c. 3594, § 1, 34 Stat. 607.)

72. Animals unloaded to be fed and watered by or at expense of owner; lien.—Animals so unloaded shall be properly fed and watered during such rest either by the owner or person having the custody thereof, or in case of his default in so doing, then by the railroad, express company, car company, common carrier other than by water, or the receiver, trustee, or lessee of any of them, or by the owners or masters of boats or vessels transporting the same, at the reasonable expense of the owner or person in custody thereof, and such railroad, express company, car company, common carrier other than by water, receiver, trustee, or lessee of any of them, owners or masters, shall in such case have a lien upon such animals for food, care, and custody furnished, collectible at their destination in the same manner as the transportation charges are collected, and shall not be liable for any detention of such animals, when such detention is of reasonable duration, to enable compliance with section 1 of this chapter, but nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the owner or shipper of animals from furnishing food therefor, if he so desires. (June 29, 1906, c. 3594, § 2, 34 Stat. 608.)

73. Penalty for failure to comply with law; when provisions for unloading not to apply.—Any railroad, express company, car company, common carrier other than by water, or the receiver, trustee, or lessee of any of them, or the master or owner of any steam, sailing, or other vessel who knowingly and willfully fails to comply with the provisions of the two preceding sections shall for every such failure be liable for and forfeit and pay a penalty of not less than $100 nor more than $500: Provided, That when animals are carried in cars, boats, or other vessels in which they can and do have proper food, water, space, and opportunity to rest the provisions in regard to their being unloaded shall not apply. (June 29, 1906, c. 3594, § 3, 34 Stat. 608.)

74. Penalty recoverable by civil action; duty of district attorneys to prosecute.—The penalty created by the preceding section shall be recovered by civil action in the name of the United States in the district court holden within the district where the violation may have been committed or the person or corporation resides or carries on business; and it shall be the duty of United States attorneys to prosecute all violations of this chapter reported by the Secretary of Agriculture, or which come to their notice or knowledge by other means. (June 29, 1906, c. 3594, § 4, 34 Stat. 608.)

75. Rules as to accommodations for export cattle.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to examine all vessels which are to carry export cattle from the ports of the United States to foreign countries, and to prescribe by rules and regulations or orders the accommodations which said vessels shall provide for export cattle, as to space, ventilation, fittings, food and water supply and such other requirements as he may decide to be necessary for the safe and proper transportation and humane treatment of such animals. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 521, § 1, 26 Stat. 833.)

76. Violation of rules; penalty.—Whenever the owner, owners, or master of any vessel carrying export cattle shall willfully violate or cause or permit to be violated any rule, regulation, or order made pursuant to the foregoing section the vessel in respect of which such violation shall occur may be prohibited from again carrying cattle from any port of the United States for such length of time, not exceeding one year, as the Secretary of Agriculture may direct, and such vessel shall be refused clearance from any port of the United States accordingly. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 521, § 2, 26 Stat. 833.)

Chapter 5.—GOVERNMENT-AIDED RAILROADS.

Sec.
81. Union Pacific Railroad.
82. Connection of other roads.
83. Roads and telegraphs to be operated as continuous line; equal facilities to be afforded.
84. Interstate communication.
85. Compensation of directors appointed by the United States.

Sec.
86. Withholding payments to certain roads.
87. Companies may sue in Court of Claims.
88. District court to issue mandamus to compel operation of road.
89. Collection of percentage of net earnings due United States.
90. Settlement of accounts for Army and mail transportation.
91. Settlement of accounts for Navy and Marine Corps transportation.
92. Settlement of claims for transportation over nonbond-aided lines.
93. Indian goods and supplies.
94. Liens of United States; redemption of prior incumbrances.
95. Sinking funds to secure debt to United States.

Section 81. Union Pacific Railroad.—The books, records, correspondence, and all other documents of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, shall at all times be open to inspection by the Secretary of the Treasury, or such persons as he may delegate for that purpose. The laws of the United States providing for proceedings in bankruptcy shall not be held to apply to said corporation. No dividend shall be made by said company but from the actual net earnings thereof; and no new stock shall be issued or mortgages or pledges made on the property or future earnings of the company without leave of Congress, except for the purpose of funding and securing debt now existing, or the renewals thereof. No director or officer of said road shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract therewith except for his lawful compensation as such officer. Any director or officer who shall pay or declare, or aid in paying or declaring, any dividend, or creating any mortgage or pledge prohibited by this section, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding two years, and by fine not exceeding $5,000. (R. S. § 5256.)

82. Connection of other roads.—Any railroad company incorporated under any law of the United States, or of any State, which has been or may be organized by an Act of Congress, may connect its road with the Union Pacific Railroad, or any of its branches. (R. S. § 5257.)

83. Roads and telegraphs to be operated as continuous line; equal facilities to be afforded.—The several companies authorized by the Acts of Congress known as the Pacific Railroad Acts to construct railroads are required to operate and use said roads and telegraph for all purposes of communication, travel, and transportation, so far as the public and the Government are concerned, as one continuous line; and, in such operation and use, to afford and secure to each equal advantages and facilities as to rates, time, and transportation, without any discrimination of any kind in favor of the road or business of any or either of said companies, or adverse to the road or business of any or either of the others, and it shall not be lawful for the proprietors of any line of telegraph, authorized by this section, or the Act amended by this section to refuse, or fail to convey for all persons requiring the transmission of news and messages of like character, on pain of forfeiting to the person injured for each offense, the sum of $100, and such other damage as he may have suffered on account of said refusal or failure, to be sued for and recovered in any court of the United States, or of any State or Territory of competent jurisdiction.

And any officer or agent of the companies authorized to construct the aforesaid roads, or of any company engaged in operating either of said roads, who shall refuse to operate and use the road or telegraph under his control, or which he is engaged in operating for all purposes of communication, travel, and transportation, so far as the public and the Government are concerned, as one continuous line, or shall refuse, in such operation and use, to afford and secure to each of said roads equal advantages and facilities as to rates, time, or transportation, without any discrimination of any kind in favor of, or adverse to, the road or business of any or either of said companies, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000, and may be imprisoned not less than six months. In case of failure or refusal of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, or either of said branches, to comply with the requirements of this section and the Acts to which this section is amendatory, the party injured or the company aggrieved may bring an action in the district or circuit court of the United States in the Territory, district, or circuit in which any portion of the road of the defendant may be situated, for damages on account of such failure or refusal; and, upon recovery, the plaintiff shall be entitled to judgment for treble the amount of all excess of freight and fares collected by the defendant, and for treble amount of damages sustained by the plaintiff by such failure or refusal; and for each and every violation of or failure to comply with the requirements of this section, a new cause of action shall arise; and in case of suit in any such Territory, district, or circuit, process may be served upon any agent of the defendant found in the Territory, district, or circuit in which such suit may be brought, and such service shall be by the court held to be good and sufficient; and it is hereby provided that for all the purposes of said amended Act, the railway of the Denver Pacific Railway and Telegraph Company shall be deemed and taken to be a part and extension of the road of the Kansas Pacific Railroad, to the point of junction thereof with the road of the Union Pacific Railroad Company at Cheyenne, as provided in the Act of March 3, 1869. (July 2, 1864, c. 216, § 15, 13 Stat. 362; June 20, 1874, c. 331, 18 Stat. 111.)

84. Interstate communication.—Every railroad company in the United States, whose road is operated by steam, its successors and assigns, is authorized to carry upon and over its road, boats, bridges, and ferries, all passengers, troops, Government supplies, mails, freight, and property on their way from any State to another State, and to receive compensation therefor, and to connect with roads of other States so as to form continuous lines for the transportation of the same to the place of destination. But this section shall not affect any stipulation between the Government of the United States and any railroad company for transportation or fares without compensation, nor impair or change the conditions imposed by the terms of any Act granting lands to any such company to aid in the construction of its road, nor shall it be construed to authorize any railroad company to build any new road or connection with any other road without authority from the State in which such railroad or connection may be proposed. And Congress may at any time alter, amend, or repeal this section. (R. S. § 5258.)

85. Compensation of directors appointed by the United States.—Whenever, in any grant of land or other subsidies to railroads or other corporations, the United States has reserved the right, or shall reserve it, to appoint directors, engineers, commissioners, or other agents to examine the roads, or act in conjunction with other officers of such company or companies, all the costs, charges, and pay of such directors, engineers, commissioners, or agents shall be paid by the respective companies. Such directors, engineers, commissioners, or agents shall be paid for such services the sum of $10 per day, for each and every day actually and necessarily employed, and 10 cents per mile for each and every mile actually and necessarily traveled, in discharging the duties required of them, which per diem and mileage shall be in full compensation for such services. In case any company shall refuse or neglect to make such payments, no more patents for lands or other subsidies shall be issued to such company until these requirements are complied with. (R. S. § 5259.)

86. Withholding payments to certain railroads.—The Secretary of the Treasury is directed to withhold all payments to any railroad company and its assigns, on account of freights or transportation over their respective roads of any kind, to the amount of payments made by the United States for interest upon bonds of the United States issued to any such company, and which shall not have been reimbursed, together with the 5 per centum of net earnings due and unapplied, as provided by law. (R. S. § 5260.)

87. Companies may sue in Court of Claims.—Any such company may bring suit in the Court of Claims to recover the price of such freight and transportation, and in such suit the right of such company to recover the same upon the law and the facts of the case shall be determined, and also the rights of the United States upon the merits of all the points presented by it in answer thereto by them; and either party to such suit may appeal to the Supreme Court; and both said courts shall give such cause or causes precedence of all other business. (R. S. § 5261.)

88. District court to issue mandamus to compel operation of road.—The proper district court of the United States shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all cases of mandamus to compel said Union Pacific Railroad Company to operate its road as required by law. (R. S. § 5262.)

89. Collection of percentage of net earnings due United States.—The Secretary of the Treasury is directed to require payment of the railroad companies, their successors and assigns, or the successors or assigns of any or either of said companies, of all sums of money due or to become due, the United States for the 5 per centum of the net earnings provided for by the Act entitled "An Act to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph line from the Missouri River to the Pacific Ocean, and to secure to the Government the use of the same for postal, military, and other purposes" approved July 1, 1862, or by any other Act or Acts in relation to the companies therein named, or any other such company or companies, and in case either of said railroad companies shall neglect or refuse to pay the same within sixty days after demand therefor made upon the treasurer of such railroad company, the Secretary of the Treasury shall certify that fact to the Attorney General, who shall thereupon institute the necessary suits and proceedings to collect and otherwise obtain redress in respect of the same in the proper district courts of the United States, and prosecute the same, with all convenient dispatch to a final determination. (June 22, 1874, c. 414, 18 Stat. 200.)

90. Settlement of accounts for Army and mail transportation.—For the proper adjustment of the accounts of the Union Pacific, Central Pacific, Kansas Pacific, Western Pacific, and Sioux City and Pacific Railroad Companies, respectively, for services which have been or may be hereafter performed for the Government for transportation of the Army and transportation of the mails, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to make such entries upon the books of the department as will carry to the credit of said companies the amounts so earned or to be earned by them during each fiscal year and withheld under the provisions of section 86 of this title; and of the Act of Congress approved May 7, 1878: Provided, That this shall not authorize the expenditure of any money from the Treasury nor change the method now provided by law for the auditing of such claims against the Government: Provided further, That this paragraph shall not be so construed as to be a disposition of any moneys due or to become due to or from said companies respectively, or to, in any way, affect their rights or duties or the rights of the United States, under existing laws, it being only intended hereby to enable the proper accounting officers to state on the books of the Treasury the accounts between the Government and said companies respectively. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 183, 20 Stat. 420.)

91. Settlement of accounts for Navy and Marine Corps transportation.—The provisions of the preceding section authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to make such entries upon the books of the department as will carry to the credit of certain railroad companies named in said section amounts earned or to be earned by them during each fiscal year on account of transportation of the Army and transportation of the mails be, and the same are hereby, extended and made applicable to the transportation of the Navy and the Marine Corps. (Mar. 3, 1897, c. 386, 29 Stat. 663.)

92. Settlement of claims for transportation over nonbond-aided lines.—The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to make settlement of the claims growing out of Government transportation over nonbond-aided lines of the Southern Pacific Company and Central Pacific Railroad Company by crediting against the notes of the Central Pacific Railroad Company held in the Treasury of the United States interest on all of said judgment and allowed claims at 4 per centum per annum, as set forth in his letter to the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate, dated May 12, 1900. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 831, § 1, 31 Stat. 1023.)

93. Indian goods and supplies.—Payment for transportation of Indian goods and supplies shall include all Indian transportation lawfully due such land-grant railroads as have not received aid in Government bonds (to be adjusted in accordance with the decisions of the Supreme Court in cases decided under such land-grant Acts), but in no case shall more than 50 per centum of full amount of service be paid to said land-grant roads: Provided, That such compensation shall be computed upon the basis of the tariff or lower special rates for like transportation performed for the public at large, and shall be accepted as in full for all demands for such service: Provided further, That hereafter in expending money appropriated for this purpose a railroad company which has not received aid in bonds of the United States, and which obtained a grant of public lands to aid in the construction of its railroad on condition that such railroad should be a post route and military road, subject to the use of the United States for postal, military, naval, and other Government services, and also subject to such regulations as Congress may impose, restricting the charge for such government transportation, having claims against the United States for transportation of Indian goods and supplies over such aided railroads, shall be paid out of the moneys appropriated for such purpose only on the basis of such rate for the transportation of such Indian goods and supplies as the Secretary of the Interior shall deem just and reasonable under the provisions set forth herein, such rate not to exceed 50 per centum of the compensation for such Government transportation as shall at that time be charged to and paid by private parties to any such company for like and similar transportation; and the amount so fixed to be paid shall be accepted as in full for all demands for such service. (Apr. 30, 1908, c. 153, 35 Stat. 73.)

94. Liens of United States; redemption of prior incumbrances.—Whenever, in the opinion of the President, it shall be deemed necessary to the protection of the interests and the preservation of the security of the United States in respect of its lien, mortgage, or other interest in any of the property of any or all of the several companies upon which a lien, mortgage, or other incumbrance paramount to the right, title, or interest of the United States for the same property, or any part of the same, may exist and be then lawfully liable to be enforced, the Secretary of the Treasury shall, under the direction of the President, redeem or otherwise clear off such paramount lien, mortgage, or other incumbrance by paying the sums lawfully due in respect thereof out of the Treasury; and the United States shall thereupon become and be subrogated to all rights and securities theretofore pertaining to the debt, mortgage, lien, or other incumbrance in respect of which such payment shall have been made. It shall be the duty of the Attorney General, under the direction of the President, to take all such steps and proceedings, in the courts and otherwise, as shall be needful to redeem such lien, mortgage, or other incumbrance, and to protect and defend the rights and interests of the United States in respect of the matters in this section mentioned, and to take steps to foreclose any mortgages or liens of the United States on any such railroad property. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 345, § 4, 24 Stat. 491.)

95. Sinking funds to secure debt to United States.—The sinking funds which are or may be held in the Treasury for the security of the indebtedness of either or all of said railroad companies may, in addition to the investments now authorized by law, be invested in any bonds of the United States heretofore issued for the benefit of either or all of said companies, or in any of the first-mortgage bonds of either of said companies which have been issued under the authority of any law of the United States and secured by mortgages of their roads and franchises, which by any law of the United States have been made prior and paramount to the mortgage, lien, or other security of the United States in respect of its advances to either of said companies as provided by law. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 345, § 5, 24 Stat. 492.)

Chapter 6.—MEDIATION, CONCILIATION, AND ARBITRATION IN CONTROVERSIES BETWEEN CARRIERS AND EMPLOYEES.

Sec.
101. Carriers affected; shipping excluded.
102. "Railroad" and "transportation" construed.
103. Employees affected.
104. Terms used.
105. Submission of controversies to Board of Mediation and Conciliation; submission to arbitration.
106. Proffer of services by board in urgent cases.
107. Application for board's opinions as to meaning of agreement reached through mediation.
108. Submission of controversy to board of arbitrators; selection of members.
109. Requirements of agreement to arbitrate.
110. Authority of arbitrators.
111. Acknowledgment and filing of agreement.
112. Notification to arbitrators.
113. Notice to Board of Mediation and Conciliation.
114. Reconvention of board of arbitration.
115. Organization and procedure of board of arbitration.
116. Papers bearing on mediation or arbitration proceedings under former law.
117. When award becomes operative.

124. United States Board of Mediation and Conciliation; how constituted.
125. Repeal of previous Act.
126. Offices of Commissioner and Assistant Commissioner of Mediation and Conciliation abolished.

Section 101. Carriers affected; shipping excluded.—The provisions of this chapter shall apply to any common carrier or carriers and their officers, agents, and employees, except masters of vessels and seamen, as defined in section 713 of Title 46, SHIPPING, engaged in the transportation of passengers or property wholly by railroad, or partly by railroad and partly by water, for a continuous carriage or shipment from one State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia to any other State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia, or from any place in the United States to an adjacent foreign country, or from any place in the United States through a foreign country to any other place in the United States. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 1, 38 Stat. 103.)

102. "Railroad" and "transportation" construed.—The term "railroad" as used in this chapter shall include all bridges and ferries used or operated in connection with any railroad, and also all the road in use by any corporation operating a railroad, whether owned or operated under a contract, agreement, or lease; and the term "transportation" shall include all instrumentalities of shipment or carriage. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 1, 38 Stat. 103.)

103. Employees affected.—The term "employees" as used in this chapter shall include all persons actually engaged in any capacity in train operation or train service of any description, and notwithstanding that the cars upon or in which they are employed may be held and operated by the carrier under lease or other contract: Provided, however, That this chapter shall not be held to apply to employees of street railroads and shall apply only to employees engaged in railroad train service. In every such case the carrier shall be responsible for the acts and defaults of such employees in the same manner and to the same extent as if said cars were owned by it and said employees directly employed by it, and any provisions to the contrary of any such lease or other contract shall be binding only as between the parties thereto and shall not affect the obligations of said carrier either to the public or to the private parties concerned. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 1, 38 Stat. 103.)

104. Terms used.—A common carrier subject to the provisions of this chapter is hereinafter referred to as an "employer," and the employees of one or more of such carriers are hereinafter referred to as "employees." (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 1, 38 Stat. 103.)

105. Submission of controversies to Board of Mediation and Conciliation; submission to arbitration.—Whenever a controversy concerning wages, hours of labor, or conditions of employment shall arise between an employer or employers and employees subject to this chapter interrupting or threatening to interrupt the business of said employer or employers to the serious detriment of the public interest, either party to such controversy may apply to the Board of Mediation and Conciliation created by this chapter and invoke its services for the purpose of bringing about an amicable adjustment of the controversy; and upon the request of either party the said board shall with all practicable expedition put itself in communication with the parties to such controversy and shall use its best efforts, by mediation and conciliation, to bring them to an agreement; and if such efforts to bring about an amicable adjustment through mediation and conciliation shall be unsuccessful, the said board shall at once endeavor to induce the parties to submit their controversy to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 2, 38 Stat. 104.)

106. Proffer of services by board in urgent cases.—In any case in which an interruption of traffic is imminent and fraught with serious detriment to the public interest, the Board of Mediation and Conciliation may, if in its judgment such action seem desirable, proffer its services to the respective parties to the controversy. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 2, 38 Stat. 104.)

107. Application for board's opinions as to meaning of agreement reached through mediation.—In any case in which a controversy arises over the meaning or the application of any agreement reached through mediation under the provisions of this chapter either party to the said agreement may apply to the Board of Mediation and Conciliation for an expression of opinion from such board as to the meaning or application of such agreement and the said board shall upon receipt of such request give its opinion as soon as may be practicable. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 2, 38 Stat. 104.)

108. Submission of controversy to board of arbitrators; selection of members.—Whenever a controversy shall arise between an employer or employers and employees subject to this chapter, which can not be settled through mediation and conciliation in the manner provided in the preceding section, such controversy may be submitted to the arbitration of a board of six, or, if the parties to the controversy prefer so to stipulate, to a board of three persons, which board shall be chosen in the following manner: In the case of a board of three, the employer or employers and the employees, parties respectively to the agreement to arbitrate, shall each name one arbitrator; and the two arbitrators thus chosen shall select the third arbitrator; but in the event of their failure to name the third arbitrator within five days after their first meeting, such third arbitrator shall be named by the Board of Mediation and Conciliation. In the case of a board of six, the employer or employers and the employees, parties respectively to the agreement to arbitrate, shall each name two arbitrators, and the four arbitrators thus chosen shall, by a majority vote, select the remaining two arbitrators; but in the event of their failure to name the two arbitrators within fifteen days after their first meeting the said two arbitrators, or as many of them as have not been named, shall be named by the Board of Mediation and Conciliation.

In the event that the employees engaged in any given controversy are not members of a labor organization, such employees may select a committee which shall have the right to name the arbitrator, or the arbitrators, who are to be named by the employees as provided above in this section. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 3, 38 Stat. 104.)

109. Requirements of agreement to arbitrate.—The agreement to arbitrate—

First. Shall be in writing;

Second. Shall stipulate that the arbitration is had under the provisions of this chapter;

Third. Shall state whether the board of arbitration is to consist of three or six members;

Fourth. Shall be signed by duly accredited representatives of the employer or employers and of the employees;

Fifth. Shall state specifically the questions to be submitted to the said board for decision;

Sixth. Shall stipulate that a majority of said board shall be competent to make a valid and binding award.

Seventh. Shall fix a period from the date of the appointment of the arbitrator or arbitrators necessary to complete the board, as provided for in the agreement, within which the said board shall commence its hearings;

Eighth. Shall fix a period from the beginning of the hearings within which the said board shall make and file its award: Provided, That this period shall be thirty days unless a different period be agreed to;

Ninth. Shall provide for the date from which the award shall become effective and shall fix the period during which the said award shall continue in force;

Tenth. Shall provide that the respective parties to the award will each faithfully execute the same;

Eleventh. Shall provide that the award and the papers and proceedings, including the testimony relating thereto, certified under the hands of the arbitrators, and which shall have the force and effect of a bill of exceptions, shall be filed in the clerk's office of the district court of the United States for the district wherein the controversy arises or the arbitration is entered into, and shall be final and conclusive upon the parties to the agreement unless set aside for error of law apparent on the record;

Twelfth. May also provide that any difference arising as to the meaning or the application of the provisions of an award made by a board of arbitration shall be referred back to the same board or to a subcommittee of such board for a ruling, which ruling shall have the same force and effect as the original award; and if any member of the original board is unable or unwilling to serve, another arbitrator shall be named in the same manner as such original member was named. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 4, 38 Stat. 105.)

110. Authority of arbitrators.—For the purposes of this chapter the arbitrators herein provided for, or either of them, shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, sign subpœnas, require the attendance and testimony of witnesses, and the production of such books, papers, contracts, agreements, and documents material to a just determination of the matters under investigation as may be ordered by the court; and may invoke the aid of the United States courts to compel witnesses to attend and testify and to produce such books, papers, contracts, agreements, and documents to the same extent and under the same conditions and penalties as is provided for in chapter 1 of Title 49, TRANSPORTATION. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 5, 38 Stat. 106.)

111. Acknowledgement and filing of agreement.—Every agreement of arbitration under this chapter shall be acknowledged by the parties thereto before a notary public or a clerk of the district or the circuit court of appeals of the United States, or before a member of the Board of Mediation and Conciliation, the members of which are hereby authorized to take such acknowledgments; and when so acknowledged shall be delivered to a member of said board or transmitted to said board to be filed in its office. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 6, 38 Stat. 106.)

112. Notification to arbitrators.—When such agreement of arbitration has been filed with the said board, or one of its members, and when the said board, or a member thereof, has been furnished the names of the arbitrators chosen by the respective parties to the controversy, the board, or a member thereof, shall cause a notice in writing to be served upon the said arbitrators, notifying them of their appointment, requesting them to meet promptly to name the remaining arbitrator or arbitrators necessary to complete the board, and advising them of the period within which, as provided in the agreement of arbitration, they are empowered to name such arbitrator or arbitrators. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 6, 38 Stat. 106.)

113. Notice to Board of Mediation and Conciliation.—When the arbitrators selected by the respective parties have agreed upon the remaining arbitrator or arbitrators, they shall notify the Board of Mediation and Conciliation; and in the event of their failure to agree upon any or upon all of the necessary arbitrators within the period fixed by this chapter they shall, at the expiration of such period, notify the Board of Mediation and Conciliation of the arbitrators selected, if any, or of their failure to make or to complete such selection. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 6, 38 Stat. 106.)

114. Reconvention of board of arbitration.—If the parties to an arbitration desire the reconvening of a board to pass upon any controversy arising over the meaning or application of an award, they shall jointly so notify the Board of Mediation and Conciliation, and shall state in such written notice the question or questions to be submitted to such reconvened board. The Board of Mediation and Conciliation shall thereupon promptly communicate with the members of the board of arbitration or a subcommittee of such board appointed for such purpose pursuant to the provisions of the agreement of arbitration, and arrange for the reconvening of said board or subcommittee, and shall notify the respective parties to the controversy of the time and place at which the board will meet for hearings upon the matters in controversy to be submitted to it. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 6, 38 Stat. 106.)

115. Organization and procedure of board of arbitration.—The board of arbitration shall organize and select its own chairman and make all necessary rules for conducting its hearings; but in its award or awards the said board shall confine itself to findings or recommendations as to the questions specifically submitted to it or matters directly bearing thereon. All testimony before said board shall be given under oath or affirmation, and any member of the board of arbitration shall have the power to administer oaths or affirmations. It may employ such assistants as may be necessary in carrying on its work. It shall, whenever practicable, be supplied with suitable quarters in any Federal building located at its place of meeting or at any place where the board may adjourn for its deliberations. The board of arbitration shall furnish a certified copy of its awards to the respective parties to the controversy, and shall transmit the original, together with the papers and proceedings and a transcript of the testimony taken at the hearings, certified under the hands of the arbitrators, to the clerk of the district court of the United States for the district wherein the controversy arose or the arbitration is entered into, to be filed in said clerk's office as provided in paragraph 11 of section 109 of this title. And said board shall also furnish a certified copy of its award, and the papers and proceedings, including the testimony relating thereto, to the Board of Mediation and Conciliation, to be filed in its office. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 7, 38 Stat. 106.)

116. Papers bearing on mediation or arbitration proceedings under former law.—The Interstate Commerce Commission, and the Bureau of Labor Statistics are hereby authorized to turn over to the Board of Mediation and Conciliation upon its request any papers and documents heretofore filed with them and bearing upon mediation or arbitration proceedings held under the provisions of the Act approved June 1, 1898, providing for mediation and arbitration. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 7, 38 Stat. 106.)

117. When award becomes operative.—The award, being filed in the clerk's office of a district court of the United States as hereinbefore provided, shall go into practical operation, and judgment shall be entered thereon accordingly at the expiration of ten days from such filing, unless within such ten days either party shall file exceptions thereto for matter of law apparent upon the record, in which case said award shall go into practical operation, and judgment be entered accordingly, when such exceptions shall have been finally disposed of either by said district court or on appeal therefrom. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 8, 38 Stat. 107.)

118. Appeal to circuit court of appeals.—At the expiration of ten days from the decision of the district court upon exceptions taken to said award as aforesaid judgment shall be entered in accordance with said decision, unless during said ten days either party shall appeal therefrom to the circuit court of appeals. In such case only such portion of the record shall be transmitted to the appellate court as is necessary to the proper understanding and consideration of the questions of law presented by said exceptions and to be decided. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 8, 38 Stat. 107.)

119. Finality of judgment.—The determination of said circuit court of appeals upon said questions shall be final, and, being certified by the clerk thereof to said district court, judgment pursuant thereto shall thereupon be entered by said district court. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 8, 38 Stat. 107.)

120. Judgment on exception to award; judgment by agreement.—If exceptions to an award are finally sustained, judgment shall be entered setting aside the award in whole or in part; but in such case the parties may agree upon a judgment to be entered disposing of the subject matter of the controversy, which judgment when entered shall have the same force and effect as judgment entered upon an award. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 8, 38 Stat. 107.)

121. Compulsory labor not permitted.—Nothing in this chapter contained shall be construed to require an employee to render personal service without his consent, and no injunction or other legal process shall be issued which shall compel the performance by any employee against his will of a contract for personal labor or service. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 8, 38 Stat. 107.)

122. Rights of employees under Federal court receivers; restriction on reducing wages.—Whenever receivers appointed by a Federal court are in the possession and control of the business of employers covered by this chapter the employees of such employers shall have the right to be heard through their representatives in such court upon all questions affecting the terms and conditions of their employment; and no reduction of wages shall be made by such receivers without the authority of the court therefor, after notice to such employees, said notice to be given not less than twenty days before the hearing upon the receivers' petition or application, and to be posted upon all customary bulletin boards along or upon the railway or in the customary places on the premises of other employers covered by this chapter. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 9, 38 Stat. 107.)

123. Pay of arbitrators; expenses of boards of arbitration.—Each member of the board of arbitration created under the provisions of this chapter shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by the Board of Mediation and Conciliation, together with his traveling and other necessary expenses. Authority for incurring expenses, including subsistence, by boards of arbitration shall first be obtained from the Board of Mediation and Conciliation. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 10, 38 Stat. 108; June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 886.)

124. United States Board of Mediation and Conciliation; how constituted.—The President shall designate not more than two officials of the Government who have been appointed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and the officials thus designated, shall constitute a board to be known as the United States Board of Mediation and Conciliation. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 11, 38 Stat. 108.)

125. Repeal of previous Act.—The Act of June 1, 1898, relating to the mediation and arbitration of controversies between railway companies and certain classes of their employees is hereby repealed: Provided, That any agreement of arbitration which, at the time of the passage of this chapter, shall have been executed in accordance with the provisions of said Act of June 1, 1898, shall be governed by the provisions of said Act of June 1, 1898, and the proceedings thereunder shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of said Act. (July 15, 1913, c. 6, § 11, 38 Stat. 108.)

126. Offices of Commissioner and Assistant Commissioner of Mediation and Conciliation abolished.—The offices of Commissioner of Mediation and Conciliation and Assistant Commissioner of Mediation and Conciliation are abolished. (Dec. 15, 1921, c. 1, § 1, 42 Stat. 328.)

Section 131. Definitions.—When used in this chapter—

(1) The term "carrier" includes any express company, sleeping-car company, and any carrier by railroad, subject to the Interstate Commerce Act, except a street, interurban, or suburban electric railway not operating as a part of a general steam railroad system of transportation;

(2) The term "adjustment board" means any railroad board of labor adjustment established under section 133;

(3) The term "Labor Board" means the Railroad Labor Board;

(4) The term "commerce" means commerce among the several States or between any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia and any foreign nation, or between any Territory or the District of Columbia and any State, or between any Territory and any other Territory, or between any Territory and the District of Columbia, or within any Territory or the District of Columbia, or between points in the same State but through any other State or any Territory or the District of Columbia or any foreign nation; and

(5) The term "subordinate official" includes officials of carriers of such class or rank as the commission shall designate by regulation formulated and issued after such notice and hearing as the commission may prescribe, to the carriers, and employees and subordinate officials of carriers, and organizations thereof, directly to be affected by such regulations. (Feb. 28, 1920, c. 91, § 300, 41 Stat. 469.)

132. Disputes between carriers and their officers, agents, and employees to be decided by conference if possible; reference to boards.—It shall be the duty of all carriers and their officers, employees, and agents to exert every reasonable effort and adopt every available means to avoid any interruption to the operation of any carrier growing out of any dispute between the carrier and the employees or subordinate officials thereof. All such disputes shall be considered and, if possible, decided in conference between representatives designated and authorized so to confer by the carriers, or the employees or subordinate officials thereof, directly interested in the dispute. If any dispute is not decided in such conference, it shall be referred by the parties thereto to the board which under the provisions of this chapter is authorized to hear and decide such dispute. (Feb. 28, 1920, c. 91, § 301, 41 Stat. 469.)

133. Establishment of railroad boards of labor adjustment.—Railroad boards of labor adjustment may be established by agreement between any carrier, group of carriers, or the carriers as a whole, and any employees or subordinate officials of carriers, or organization or group of organizations thereof. (Feb. 28, 1920, c. 91, § 302, 41 Stat. 469.)

134. Duty of boards to hear and decide disputes.—Each such adjustment board shall, (1) upon the application of the chief executive of any carrier or organization of employees or subordinate officials whose members are directly interested in the dispute, (2) upon the written petition signed by not less than one hundred unorganized employees or subordinate officials directly interested in the dispute, (3) upon the adjustment board's own motion, or (4) upon the request of the Labor Board whenever such board is of the opinion that the dispute is likely substantially to interrupt commerce, receive for hearing, and as soon as practicable and with due diligence decide, any dispute involving only grievances, rules, or working conditions, not decided as provided in section 142, between the carrier and its employees or subordinate officials, who are, or any organization thereof which is, in accordance with the provisions of section 133, represented upon any such adjustment board. (Feb. 28, 1920, c. 91, § 303, 41 Stat. 469.)

135. Railroad Labor Board; establishment; composition; filling vacancies.—There is hereby established a board to be known as the "Railroad Labor Board" and to be composed of nine members as follows:

(1) Three members constituting the labor group, representing the employees and subordinate officials of the carriers, to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, from not less than six nominees whose nominations shall be made and offered by such employees in such manner as the commission shall by regulation prescribe;

(2) Three members, constituting the management group, representing the carriers, to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, from not less than six nominees whose nominations shall be made and offered by the carriers in such manner as the commission shall by regulation prescribe; and

(3) Three members, constituting the public group, representing the public, to be appointed directly by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

Any vacancy on the Labor Board shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment. (Feb. 28, 1920, c. 91, § 304, 41 Stat. 470.)

136. Selection of members by President.—If either the employees or the carriers fail to make nominations and offer nominees in accordance with the regulations of the commission, as provided in paragraphs (1) and (2) of the preceding section, or in case of a vacancy in the office of member of the Labor Board within fifteen days after such vacancy occurs, the President shall thereupon directly make the appointment, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. In making any such appointment the President shall, as far as he deems it practicable, select an individual associated in interest with the carriers or employees thereof, whichever he is to represent. (Feb. 28, 1920, c. 91, § 305, 41 Stat. 470.)

137. Effect of subsequent ineligibility of members.—Any member of the Labor Board who during his term of office is an active member or in the employ of or holds any office in any organization of employees or subordinate officials, or any carrier, or owns any stock or bond thereof, or is pecuniarily interested therein, shall at once become ineligible for further membership upon the Labor Board; but no such member is required to relinquish honorary membership in, or his rights in any insurance or pension or other benefit fund maintained by, any organization of employees or subordinate officials or by a carrier. (Feb. 28, 1920, c. 91, § 306, 41 Stat. 470.)

138. Terms of office; salary; removal from office.—Of the original members of the Labor Board, one from each group shall be appointed for a term of three years, one for two years, and one for one year. Their successors shall hold office for terms of five years, except that any member appointed to fill a vacancy shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of the member whom he succeeds. Each member shall receive from the United States an annual salary of $10,000. A member may be removed by the President for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office, but for no other cause. (Feb. 28, 1920, c. 91, § 306, 41 Stat. 470.)

139. Disputes within jurisdiction of Labor Board; hearings and decisions.—(a) The Labor Board shall hear, and as soon as practicable and with due diligence decide, any dispute involving grievances, rules, or working conditions, in respect to which any adjustment board certifies to the Labor Board that in its opinion the adjustment board has failed or will fail to reach a decision within a reasonable time, or in respect to which the Labor Board determines that any adjustment board has so failed or is not using due diligence in its consideration thereof. In case the appropriate adjustment board is not organized under the provisions of section 133, (1) upon the application of the chief executive of any carrier or organization of employees or subordinate officials whose members are directly interested in the dispute, (2) upon a written petition signed by not less than one hundred unorganized employees or subordinate officials directly interested in the dispute, or (3) upon the Labor Board's own motion if it is of the opinion that the dispute is likely substantially to interrupt commerce, shall receive for hearing, and as soon as practicable and with due diligence decide, any dispute involving grievances, rules, or working conditions which is not decided as provided in section 132 and which such adjustment board would be required to receive for hearing and decision under the provisions of section 134.

(b) The Labor Board, (1) upon the application of the chief executive of any carrier or organization of employees or subordinate officials whose members are directly interested in the dispute, (2) upon a written petition signed by not less than one hundred unorganized employees or subordinate officials directly interested in the dispute, or (3) upon the Labor Board's own motion if it is of the opinion that the dispute is likely substantially to interrupt commerce, shall receive for hearing, and as soon as practicable and with due diligence decide, all disputes with respect to the wages or salaries of employees or subordinate officials of carriers, not decided as provided in section 132. The Labor Board may upon its own motion within ten days after the decision, in accordance with the provisions of section 132, of any dispute with respect to wages or salaries of employees or subordinate officials of carriers, suspend the operation of such decision if the Labor Board is of the opinion that the decision involves such an increase in wages or salaries as will be likely to necessitate a substantial readjustment of the rates of any carrier. The Labor Board shall hear any decision so suspended and as soon as practicable and with due diligence decide to affirm or modify such suspended decision.

(c) A decision by the Labor Board under the provisions of paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section shall require the concurrence therein of at least five of the nine members of the Labor Board: Provided, That in case of any decision under paragraph (b), at least one of the representatives of the public shall concur in such decision. All decisions of the Labor Board shall be entered upon the records of the board and copies thereof, together with such statement of facts bearing thereon as the board may deem proper, shall be immediately communicated to the parties to the dispute, the President, each adjustment board, and the commission, and shall be given further publicity in such manner as the Labor Board may determine.

(d) All the decisions of the Labor Board in respect to wages or salaries and of the Labor Board or an adjustment board in respect to working conditions of employees or subordinate officials of carriers shall establish rates of wages and salaries and standards of working conditions which in the opinion of the board are just and reasonable. In determining the justness and reasonableness of such wages and salaries or working conditions the board shall, so far as applicable, take into consideration among other relevant circumstances:

(1) The scales of wages paid for similar kinds of work in other industries;

(2) The relation between wages and the cost of living;

(3) The hazards of the employment;

(4) The training and skill required;

(5) The degree of responsibility;

(6) The character and regularity of the employment; and

(7) Inequalities of increases in wages or of treatment, the result of previous wage orders or adjustments. (Feb. 28, 1920, c. 91, § 307, 41 Stat. 470.)

140. Powers and duties of Labor Board as to election of chairman; maintenance of central office; meetings; investigations; regulations; reports.—The Labor Board—

(1) Shall elect a chairman by majority vote of its members;

(2) Shall maintain central offices in Chicago, Illinois, but the Labor Board may, whenever it deems it necessary, meet at such other place as it may determine;

(3) Shall investigate and study the relations between carriers and their employees, particularly questions relating to wages, hours of labor, and other conditions of employment and the respective privileges, rights, and duties of carriers and employees, and shall gather, compile, classify, digest, and publish, from time to time, data and information relating to such questions to the end that the Labor Board may be properly equipped to perform its duties under this chapter and that the members of the adjustment boards and the public may be properly informed;

(4) May make regulations necessary for the efficient execution of the functions vested in it by this chapter; and

(5) Shall at least annually collect and publish the decisions and regulations of the Labor Board and the adjustment boards and all court and administrative decisions and regulations of the commission in respect to this chapter, together with a cumulative index-digest thereof. (Feb. 28, 1920, c. 91, § 308, 41 Stat. 472.)

141. Parties to dispute entitled to hearing in person or by counsel.—Any party to any dispute to be considered by an adjustment board or by the Labor Board shall be entitled to a hearing either in person or by counsel. (Feb. 28, 1920, c. 91, § 309, 41 Stat. 472.)

142. Power to secure evidence; failure of witness to comply with subpœna or his contumacy punishable as contempt; incriminating testimony; perjury.—(a) For the efficient administration of the functions vested in the Labor Board by this chapter, any member thereof may require, by subpœna issued and signed by himself, the attendance of any witness and the production of any book, paper, document, or other evidence from any place in the United States at any designated place of hearing, and the taking of a deposition before any designated person having power to administer oaths. In the case of a deposition the testimony shall be reduced to writing by the person taking the deposition or under his direction, and shall then be subscribed to by the deponent. Any member of the Labor Board may administer oaths and examine any witness. Any witness summoned before the board and any witness whose deposition is taken shall be paid the same fees and mileage as are paid witnesses in the courts of the United States.

(b) In case of failure to comply with any subpœna or in case of the contumacy of any witness appearing before the Labor Board, the board may invoke the aid of any United States district court. Such court may thereupon order the witness to comply with the requirements of such subpœna, or to give evidence touching the matter in question, as the case may be. Any failure to obey such order may be punished by such court as a contempt thereof.

(c) No person shall be excused from so attending and testifying or deposing, nor from so producing any book, paper, document, or other evidence on the ground that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but no natural person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing, as to which in obedience to a subpœna and under oath, he may so testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise. But no person shall be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying. (Feb. 28, 1920, c. 91, § 310, 41 Stat. 472.)

143. Access to books, accounts, records, etc.; penalty for refusal.—(a) When necessary to the efficient administration of the functions vested in the Labor Board by this chapter, any member, officer, employee, or agent thereof, duly authorized in writing by the board, shall at all reasonable times for the purpose of examination have access to and the right to copy any book, account, record, paper, or correspondence relating to any matter which the board is authorized to consider or investigate. Any person who upon demand refuses any duly authorized member, officer, employee, or agent of the Labor Board such right of access or copying, or hinders, obstructs, or resists him in the exercise of such right, shall upon conviction thereof be liable to a penalty of $500 for each such offense. Each day during any part of which such offense continues shall constitute a separate offense. Such penalty shall be recoverable in a civil suit brought in the name of the United States, and shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts.

(b) Every officer or employee of the United States, whenever requested by any member of the Labor Board or an adjustment board duly authorized by the board for the purpose, shall supply to such board any data or information pertaining to the administration of the functions vested in it by this chapter, which may be contained in the records of his office.

(c) The President is authorized to transfer to the Labor Board any books, papers, or documents pertaining to the administration of the functions vested in the board by this chapter, which are in the possession of any agency, or railway board of adjustment in connection therewith, established for executing the powers granted the President under the Federal Control Act and which are no longer necessary to the administration of the affairs of such agency. (Feb. 28, 1920, c. 91, § 311, 41 Stat. 472.)

144. Determination of violations of decisions of Labor Board or adjustment boards.—The Labor Board, in case it has reason to believe that any decision of the Labor Board or of an adjustment board is violated by any carrier, or employee or subordinate official, or organization thereof, may upon its own motion after due notice and hearing to all persons directly interested in such violation, determine whether in its opinion such violation has occurred and make public its decision in such manner as it may determine. (Feb. 28, 1920, c. 91, § 313, 41 Stat. 473.)

145. Secretary of Labor Board; appointment and salary; other officers, employees, or agents; expenditures by board.—The Labor Board may (1) appoint a secretary, who shall receive from the United States an annual salary of $5,000; and (2) subject to the provisions of the civil service laws, appoint and remove such officers, employees, and agents; and make such expenditures for rent, printing, telegrams, telephone, law books, books of reference, periodicals, furniture, stationery, office equipment, and other supplies and expenses, including salaries, traveling expenses of its members, secretary, officers, employees, and agents, and witness fees, as are necessary for the efficient execution of the functions vested in the board by this chapter and as may be provided for by Congress from time to time. All of the expenditures of the Labor Board shall be allowed and paid upon the presentation of itemized vouchers therefor approved by the chairman of the Labor Board. (Feb. 28, 1920, c. 91, § 314, 41 Stat. 473.)

146. Jurisdiction of adjustment or Labor Board as excluding that of Board of Mediation and Conciliation.—The powers and duties of the Board of Mediation and Conciliation created by chapter 6 of this title shall not extend to any dispute which may be received for hearing and decision by any adjustment board or the Labor Board. (Feb. 28, 1920, c. 91, § 316, 41 Stat. 474.)

Chapter 1.—BUREAU OF NAVIGATION.

Sec.
1. Establishment and charge of bureau.
2. General duties of commissioner.
3. Additional duties of commissioner.
4. Annual list of vessels and report of increase.
5. Appointment; deputy; additional clerks.

Section 1. Establishment and charge of bureau.—There shall be in the Department of Commerce of the United States a Bureau of Navigation, under the immediate charge of a Commissioner of Navigation. (July 5, 1884, c. 221, § 1, 23 Stat. 118; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

2. General duties of commissioner.—The Commissioner of Navigation, under the direction of the Secretary of Commerce, shall have general superintendence of the commercial marine and merchant seamen of the United States, so far as vessels and seamen are not, under existing laws, subject to the supervision of any other officer of the Government. He shall be specially charged with the decision of all questions relating to the issue of registers, enrollments, and licenses of vessels, and to the filing and preserving of those documents; and wherever in chapters 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 13 any of the above-named documents are required to be surrendered or returned to the Register of the Treasury, such requirement is repealed, and such documents shall be surrendered and returned to the Commissioner of Navigation. Said commissioner shall have charge of all similar documents in the keeping of the Register of the Treasury, on July 5, 1884, and shall perform all the duties devolved upon said register, prior to said date, relating to navigation. (July 5, 1884, c. 221, § 2, 23 Stat. 118; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

3. Additional duties of commissioner.—The Commissioner of Navigation shall be charged with the supervision of the laws relating to the admeasurement of vessels, and the assigning of signal letters thereto, and of designating their official number; and on all questions of interpretation growing out of the execution of the laws relating to these subjects, and relating to the collection of tonnage tax, and to the refund of such tax when collected erroneously or illegally, his decision shall be final. (July 5, 1884, c. 221, § 3, 23 Stat. 119.)

4. Annual list of vessels and report of increase.—The Commissioner of Navigation shall annually prepare and publish a list of vessels of the United States belonging to the commercial marine, specifying the official number, signal letters, names, rig, tonnage, home port, and place and date of building of every vessel, distinguishing in such list sailing vessels from such as may be propelled by steam or other motive power. He shall also report annually to the Secretary of Commerce the increase of vessels of the United States, by building or otherwise, specifying their number, rig, and motive power. He shall also investigate the operations of the laws relative to navigation, and annually report to the Secretary of Commerce such particulars as may, in his judgment, admit of improvement or may require amendment. (July 5, 1884, c. 221, § 4, 23 Stat. 119; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

5. Appointment; deputy; additional clerks.—The Commissioner of Navigation shall be appointed by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. And the Secretary of Commerce shall have power to transfer from existing bureaus or divisions of the Department of Commerce one clerk, to be designated as Deputy Commissioner of Navigation, to act with the full powers of said commissioner during his temporary absence from his official duty for any cause, and such additional clerks as he may consider necessary to the successful operation of the Bureau of Navigation, without impairing the efficiency of the bureaus or divisions whence such clerks may be transferred. (July 5, 1884, c. 221, § 6, 23 Stat. 119; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

GENERAL PROVISIONS AS TO REGISTRY AND DOCUMENTS

Section 11. Vessels entitled to registry; coastwise trade; ocean mail service contracts.—Vessels built within the United States and belonging wholly to citizens thereof; and vessels which may be captured in war by citizens of the United States and lawfully condemned as prize, or which may be adjudged to be forfeited for a breach of the laws of the United States; and seagoing vessels, whether steam or sail, which have been certified by the Steamboat Inspection Service as safe to carry dry and perishable cargo, wherever built, which are to engage only in trade with foreign countries or with the Philippine Islands and the islands of Guam and Tutuila, being wholly owned by citizens of the United States or corporations organized and chartered under the laws of the United States or of any State thereof, the president and managing directors of which shall be citizens of the United States or corporations organized and chartered under the laws of the United States or of any State thereof, the president and managing directors of which shall be citizens of the United States, and no others, may be registered as directed in chapters 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9. Foreign-built vessels registered pursuant to this section shall not engage in the coastwise trade: Provided, That such vessels so admitted under the provisions of this section may contract with the Postmaster General under sections 657 to 665, inclusive, of Title 39, POSTAL SERVICE, so long as such vessels shall in all respects comply with the provisions and requirements of said sections. (R. S. § 4132; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 390, § 5, 37 Stat. 562; Aug. 18, 1914, c. 256, § 1, 38 Stat. 698; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, § 321, 42 Stat. 947.)

12. Provisional certificates of registry to vessels abroad.—Consular officers of the United States and such other persons as may from time to time be designated by the President for the purpose are authorized to issue provisional certificates of registry to vessels abroad which have been purchased by citizens of the United States, including corporations, as defined in the preceding section.

(a) Such a provisional certificate shall entitle the vessel to the privileges of a vessel of the United States in trade with foreign countries or with the Philippine Islands and the islands of Guam and Tutuila until the expiration of six months from its date or until ten days after the vessel's arrival at a port of the United States, whichever first happens, and no longer. On arrival at a port of the United States the vessel shall become subject to the laws relating to officers, inspection, and measurement.

(b) The Secretary of Commerce shall prescribe the conditions in accordance with which such provisional certificates shall be issued and the manner in which they shall be surrendered in exchange for certificates of registry at ports of the United States.

(c) The form of such provisional certificate shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Navigation and shall include the name of the ship and of the master, time and place of purchase and names of purchasers, and the best particulars respecting her tonnage, build, description, and inspection or survey which the consular officer is able to obtain.

(d) Copies of such provisional certificates shall be forwarded as soon as practicable by the issuing officer to the Commissioner of Navigation. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 172, § 1, 38 Stat. 1193.)

13. Foreign-built vessels admitted to American registry; coastwise trade.—All foreign-built vessels admitted to American registry, owned on February 1, 1920, by persons citizens of the United States, and all foreign-built vessels owned by the United States on June 5, 1920, when sold and owned by persons citizens of the United States, may engage in the coastwise trade so long as they continue in such ownership, subject to the rules and regulations of such trade. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 22, 41 Stat. 997.)

14. Wrecked vessels.—The Secretary of Commerce may issue a register or enrollment for any vessel wrecked on the coasts of the United States or her possessions or adjacent waters, when purchased by a citizen or citizens of the United States and thereupon repaired in a shipyard in the United States or her possessions, if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of Commerce, if he deems it necessary, through a board of three appraisers appointed by him, that the said repairs put upon such vessels are equal to three times the appraised salved value of the vessel: Provided, That the expense of the appraisal provided for shall be borne by the owner of the vessel: Provided further, That if any of the material matters of fact sworn to or represented by the owner, or at his instance, to obtain the register of any vessel are not true, there shall be a forfeiture to the United States of the vessel in respect to which the oath shall have been made, together with tackle, apparel, and furniture thereof. (R. S. § 4136; Feb. 24, 1915, c. 57, 38 Stat. 812.)

15. Vessels owned by corporations.—Registers for vessels owned by any incorporated company may be issued in the name of the president or secretary of such company; and such register shall not be vacated or affected by sales of any shares of stock in such company. (R. S. § 4137.)

16. New registry on death of officer of corporation.—Upon the death, removal, or resignation of such president or secretary of any incorporated company owning any vessel, a new register shall be taken out for such vessel. (R. S. § 4138.)

17. Place of registration.—Every vessel, not enrolled or licensed, shall be registered by the collector of that collection district which includes the port to which such vessel shall belong at the time of her registry; which port shall be deemed to be that at or nearest to which the owner, if there be but one, or if more than one, the husband or acting and managing owner of such vessel, usually resides. (R. S. § 4141.)

18. Home ports of vessels of United States.—For the purposes of the navigation laws of the United States and of the Ship Mortgage Act, 1920, otherwise known as section 30 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920, chapter 25 of this title, every vessel of the United States shall have a "home port" in the United States, including Alaska, Hawaii, and Porto Rico, which port the owner of such vessel, subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Navigation of the Department of Commerce, shall specifically fix and determine, and subject to such approval may from time to time change. Such home port shall be shown in the register, enrollment and license, or license of such vessel, which documents, respectively, are referred to as the vessel's document. The home port shown in the document of any vessel of the United States in force on February 16, 1925, shall be deemed to have been fixed and determined in accordance with the provisions hereof. The preceding section is amended to conform herewith. (Feb. 16, 1925, c. 235, § 1, 43 Stat. 947.)

19. Oath for registry by owner.—In order to the registry of any vessel, an oath shall be taken and subscribed by the owner, or by one of the owners thereof, before the officer authorized to make such registry, declaring, according to the best of the knowledge and belief of the person so swearing, the name of such vessel, her burden, the place where she was built, if built within the United States, and the year in which she was built; or that she has been captured in war, specifying the time, by a citizen of the United States, and lawfully condemned as prize, producing a copy of the sentence of condemnation, authenticated in the usual forms; or that she has been adjudged to be forfeited for a breach of the laws of the United States, producing a like copy of the adjudication of forfeiture; and declaring his name and place of abode, and if he be the sole owner of the vessel, that such is the case; or if there be another owner, that there is such other owner, specifying his name and place of abode, and that he is a citizen of the United States, and specifying the proportion belonging to each owner; and where an owner resides in a foreign country, in the capacity of a consul of the United States, or as an agent for and a partner in a house or copartnership consisting of citizens of the United States, actually carrying on trade within the United States, that such is the case, that the person so swearing is a citizen of the United States, and that there is no subject or citizen of any foreign prince or state, directly or indirectly, by way of trust, confidence, or otherwise, interested in such vessel, or in the profits or issues thereof; and that the master thereof is a citizen, naming the master, and stating the means whereby or manner in which he is a citizen. (R. S. § 4142.)

20. Oath by corporate officer or agent of owner.—Previous to granting a register for any vessel owned by any incorporated company, or by an individual or individuals, the president or secretary of such company, or any other officer or agent thereof, duly authorized by said company in writing, attested by the corporate seal thereof, to act for the company in this behalf, or the managing owner, or his agent duly authorized by power of attorney, when such vessel is owned by an individual or individuals, shall swear to the ownership of the vessel without designating the names of the persons composing the company, when such vessel is owned by a corporation, and the oath of either of said officers or agents shall be deemed sufficient without requiring the oath of any other person interested and concerned in such vessel. (R. S. § 4139; June 24, 1902, c. 1155, § 1, 32 Stat. 398.)

21. Forfeiture for false swearing.—If any of the matters of fact alleged in the oath taken by an owner to obtain the registry of any vessel, which within the knowledge of the party so swearing are not true, there shall be a forfeiture of the vessel, together with her tackle, apparel, and furniture, in respect to which the oath shall have been made, or of the value thereof to be recovered, with the costs of suit, of the person by whom the oath was made. (R. S. § 4143.)

22. Oath by master.—If the master of a vessel is within the district where a registry thereof is to be made, when application is made for registering the same, he shall, himself, instead of the owner, or of the agent or attorney, as provided in this chapter, make oath touching his being a citizen and the means whereby or manner in which he is a citizen; in which case, if the master shall knowingly swear to anything untrue, no forfeiture of the vessel, on account of such false oath, shall be incurred, but the master shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000. (R. S. § 4144.)

23. Surrender of certificate of registry on loss of vessel, or purchase by foreigner.—A certificate of registry shall be solely used for the vessel for which it is granted, and shall not be sold, lent, or otherwise disposed of, to any person whomsoever; and in case the vessel so registered shall be lost, or taken by an enemy, burned, or broken up, or shall be otherwise prevented from returning to the port to which she may belong, the certificate, if preserved, shall be delivered up within eight days after the arrival of the master or person having the charge or command of such vessel within any district of the United States, to the collector of such district; and if any foreigner, or any person for the use and benefit of such foreigner, shall purchase or otherwise become entitled to the whole, or any part or share of, or interest in such vessel, the same being within a district of the United States, the certificate shall, within seven days after such purchase, change, or transfer of property, be delivered up to the collector of the district; and if any such purchase, change, or transfer of property shall happen when such vessel shall be at any foreign port or place, or at sea, then the master or person having the charge or command thereof shall, within eight days after his arrival within any district of the United States, deliver up the certificate to the collector of such district.

Any master or owner violating the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding $500, and the certificate of registry shall be thenceforth void.

The Secretary of Commerce shall have the power to remit or mitigate such penalty if in his opinion it was incurred without willful negligence or intention of fraud. (R. S. § 4146; Jan. 16, 1895, c. 24, § 2, 28 Stat. 624; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

24. Carpenter's certificate necessary.—In order to the registry of any vessel built within the United States, it shall be necessary to produce a certificate, under the hand of the principal or master carpenter, by whom or under whose direction the vessel has been built, testifying that she was built by him or under his direction, and specifying the place where, the time when, and the person for whom, and describing her build, number of decks and masts, length, breadth, depth, tonnage, and such other circumstances as are usually descriptive of the identity of a vessel; which certificate shall be sufficient to authorize the removal of a new vessel from the district where she may be built to another district in the same or an adjoining State, where the owner actually resides, provided it be with ballast only. (R. S. § 4147.)

25. Form of register.—When the several matters hereinbefore required, in order to the registering of any vessel, have been complied with, the collector of the district comprehending the port to which she belongs shall make and keep in some proper book a registry thereof, and shall grant a certificate of such registry, as nearly as may be, in the form following:

In pursuance of chapter 2, Title 46, of the Code of the Laws of the United States (inserting here the name, occupation, and place of abode of the person by whom the oath was made), having taken and subscribed the oath required by law, and having sworn that he (or she, and if more than one owner, adding the words, "together with," and the name or names, occupation or occupations, place or places of abode, of the owner or owners, and the part or proportion of such vessel belonging to each owner) is (or are) the only owner (or owners) of the vessel called the (inserting here her name), of (inserting here the port to which she may belong), whereof (inserting here the name of the master) is at present master, and is a citizen of the United States, and that the said vessel was (inserting here when and where built), and (inserting here the name and office, if any, of the person by whom she shall have been surveyed or measured) having certified that the said vessel has (inserting here the number of decks) and (inserting here the number of masts), and that her length is (inserting here the number of feet), her breadth (inserting here the number of feet), her depth (inserting here the number of feet), and that she measures (inserting here her number of tons); that she is (describing here the particular kind of vessel, whether ship, brigantine, snow, schooner, sloop, or whatever else, together with her build, and specifying whether she has any or no gallery or head); and the said (naming the owner, or the master, or other person acting in behalf of the owner or owners, by whom the certificate of measurement has been countersigned, as aforesaid) having agreed to the description and measurement above specified, and sufficient security having been given, according to law, the said vessel has been duly registered at the port of (naming the port where registered). Given under my hand and seal, at (naming the said port), this (inserting the particular day) day of (naming the month), in the year (specifying the number of the year, in words, at length). (R. S. § 4155.)

26. Variation from form.—When the master of such vessel himself makes oath touching his being a citizen, the wording of the certificate shall be varied so as to be conformable to the truth of the case. Where a new certificate of registry is granted in consequence of any transfer of a vessel, the words shall be so varied as to refer to the former certificate of registry for her measurement. (R. S. § 4156.)

27. Blank certificates of registry to be furnished.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of Commerce to cause to be provided blank certificates of registry, and such other papers as may be necessary, executed in such manner and with such marks as he may direct. No certificate of registry shall be issued, except such as shall have been so provided and marked. (R. S. § 4157; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

28. Issuing of forms.—The Secretary of Commerce shall cause to be transmitted, from time to time, to the collectors of the several districts, a sufficient number of forms of the certificates of registry, attested under the seal of the Department of Commerce and the hand of the Commissioner of Navigation thereof, with proper blanks, to be filled by the collectors, respectively, by whom also the certificate shall be signed and sealed, before they are issued; and where there is a comptroller of customs at any port, they shall be countersigned by him; and where there is a surveyor, but no comptroller of customs, they shall be countersigned by him. A copy of each certificate issued shall be transmitted to the Commissioner of Navigation, who shall cause a record to be kept of the same. (R. S. § 4158; July 5, 1884, c. 221, 23 Stat. 118; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, § 528, 42 Stat. 974.)

29. Registry on purchase of vessel.—Whenever any citizen of the United States purchases or becomes owner of any vessel entitled to be registered, such vessel being within any district other than the one in which he usually resides, such vessel shall be entitled to be registered by the collector of the district where she may be, at the time of his becoming owner thereof, upon his complying with the provisions hereinbefore prescribed, in order to the registry of vessels. And the oath which is required to be taken may, at the option of such owner, be taken either before the collector of the district comprehending the port to which such vessel may belong, or before the collector of the district within which such vessel may be, either of whom is empowered to administer such oath. (R. S. § 4159.)

30. Surrender of certificate granted to purchaser.—Whenever any vessel, registered in pursuance of the provisions of the preceding section, shall arrive within the district comprehending the port to which she belongs, the certificate of registry, so obtained, shall be delivered up to the collector of such district, who, upon the requisites of this chapter in order to the registry of vessels, being complied with, shall grant a new one in lieu of the first. The certificate so delivered up shall forthwith be returned by the collector who receives the same, to the collector who granted it. If the first-mentioned certificate of registry is not delivered up, as above directed, the owner and the master of such vessel, at the time of her arrival within the district comprehending the port to which she may belong, shall severally be liable to a penalty of $100, and the certificate of registry shall be thenceforth void. (R. S. § 4160.)

31. Registry by agent.—Whenever any vessel entitled to be registered is purchased by an agent or attorney for or on account of a citizen of the United States, such vessel being in a district of the United States more than fifty miles distant, taking the nearest usual route by land, from the one comprehending the port to which, by virtue of such purchase, and by force of this chapter, such vessel ought to be deemed to belong, it shall be lawful for the collector of the district where such vessel may be, and he is required, upon the application of such agent or attorney, to proceed to the registering of the vessel, the agent or attorney first complying, on behalf and in the stead of the owner thereof, with the requisites prescribed by this chapter in order to the registry of vessels, except that, in the oath taken by the agent or attorney, instead of swearing that he is owner or an owner of such vessel, he shall swear that he is agent or attorney for the owner thereof, and that he has, in good faith, purchased the vessel for the person whom he names and describes as the owner thereof. (R. S. § 4161.)

32. Surrender of certificate granted to agent.—Whenever any vessel registered in pursuance of the provisions of the preceding section, shall arrive within the district comprehending the port to which she belongs, the certificate of registry so obtained shall be delivered up to the collector of such district, who, upon the requirements of this chapter in order to the registry of vessels being complied with, shall grant a new one in lieu of the first. The certificate, so delivered up, shall forthwith be returned to the collector, who shall transmit the same to the collector who granted it. If the first-mentioned certificate of registry is not delivered up, as above directed, the owner and the master of such vessel, at the time of her arrival within the district comprehending the port to which she may

33. Forfeiture for false swearing by agent.—If any of the matters of fact alleged in the oath taken by an agent or attorney to obtain the registry of a vessel which are within the knowledge of the party so swearing, are not true, there shall be a forfeiture of vessel, together with her tackle, apparel, and furniture, in respect to which the same was made, or of the value thereof, to be recovered, with costs of suit, of the person by whom such oath was made. (R. S. § 4163.)

34. Registry on sale under legal process.—Whenever it appears, by satisfactory proof, to the Secretary of Commerce, that any vessel has been sold and transferred by process of law, and that the register of such vessel is retained by the former owner, the Secretary may direct the collector of the district to which such vessel may belong to grant a new register, under such sale, on the owners complying with such terms and conditions as are by law required for granting such papers; excepting only the delivering up of the former certificate of registry. But nothing in this section shall be construed to remove the liability of any person to any penalty for not surrendering the papers belonging to any vessel, on a transfer or sale of the same. (R. S. § 4164; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

35. Registry on sale abroad.—When any vessel, registered pursuant to any law of the United States, shall, while she is without the limits of the United States, be sold or transferred in whole or in part to a citizen of the United States, such vessel on her first arrival in the United States thereafter, shall be entitled to all the privileges and benefits of a vessel of the United States: Provided, That all the requisites of law, in order to the registry of vessels, shall be complied with, and a new certificate of registry obtained for such vessel, within three days from the time at which the master or other person having the charge or command of such vessel is required to make his final report upon her first arrival afterward. (R. S. § 4166.)

36. Oath on loss of register; grant of new register.—Whenever the certificate of the registry of any vessel is lost, destroyed, or mislaid, the master, or other person having the charge or command thereof, may make oath before the collector of the district where such vessel shall first be after such loss, destruction, or mislaying, in the form following: "I, (inserting here the name of the person swearing), being master (or having the charge or command) of the ship or vessel called the (inserting the name of the vessel), do swear (or affirm) that the said vessel hath been, as I verily believe, registered according to law, by the name of (inserting again the name of the vessel), and that a certificate thereof was granted by the collector of the district of (naming the district where registered), which certificate has been lost (or destroyed, or unintentionally and by mere accident mislaid, as the case may be); and (except where the certificate is alleged to have been destroyed) that the same, if found again, and within my power, shall be delivered up to the collector of the district in which it was granted." Such oath shall be subscribed by the party making the same; and upon such oath being made, and the other requisites of this chapter in order to the registry of vessels being complied with, it shall be lawful for the collector of the district before whom such oath is made, to grant a new register, inserting therein that the same is issued in lieu of the one lost or destroyed. (R. S. § 4167.)

37. Surrender of certificate obtained on loss of original.—Whenever a register is granted in lieu of one lost or destroyed, by any other than the collector of the district to which the vessel actually belongs, such register shall, within ten days after her first arrival within the district to which she belongs, be delivered up to the collector of such district, who shall, thereupon, grant a new register in lieu thereof. And in case the master or commander shall neglect to deliver up such register within the time above mentioned, he shall be liable to a penalty of $100; and the former register shall become null and void. (R. S. § 4168.)

38. Penalty for not obtaining new registry.—In every case in which a vessel is required to be registered anew, if she shall not be so registered anew, she shall not be entitled to any of the privileges or benefits of a vessel of the United States. And if her former certificate of registry is not delivered up, except where the same may have been destroyed, lost, or unintentionally mislaid, and an oath thereof shall have been made, as prescribed in section 36, the owner of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $500, to be recovered, with costs of suit. (R. S. § 4169.)

39. New registry on sale or alteration of vessel.—Whenever any vessel, which has been registered, is, in whole or in part, sold or transferred to a citizen of the United States, or is altered in form or burden, by being lengthened or built upon, or from one denomination to another, by the mode or method of rigging or fitting, the vessel shall be registered anew, by her former name, according to the directions hereinbefore contained, otherwise she shall cease to be deemed a vessel of the United States. The former certificate of registry of such vessel shall be delivered up to the collector to whom application for such new registry is made, at the time that the same is made, to be by him transmitted to the Commissioner of Navigation, who shall cause the same to be canceled. In every such case of sale or transfer, there shall be some instrument of writing, in the nature of a bill of sale, which shall recite, at length, the certificate; otherwise the vessel shall be incapable of being so registered anew. (R. S. § 4170; July 5, 1884, c. 221, 23 Stat. 118.)

40. Change of master; indorsement on certificate of registry.—When the master or person having the charge or command of a registered vessel is changed, the owner, or one of the owners, or the new master of such vessel, shall report such change to the collector of the district where the same has happened, or where the vessel shall first be after the same has happened, and shall produce to him the certificate of registry of such vessel, and shall make oath, showing that such new master is a citizen of the United States, and the manner in which or means whereby he is so a citizen. Thereupon the collector shall indorse upon the certificate of registry a memorandum of such change, specifying the name of such new master, and shall subscribe the memorandum with his name; and if other than the collector of the district by whom the certificate of registry was granted, shall transmit a copy of the memorandum to him, with notice of the particular vessel to which it relates; and the collector of the district, by whom the certificate shall have been granted, shall make a like memorandum of such change in his book of registers, and shall transmit a copy thereof to the Commissioner of Navigation. If the change is not reported, or if the oath is not taken, as above directed, the registry of such vessel shall be void, and the master or person having the charge or command of her shall be liable to a penalty of $100. (R. S. § 4171; July 5, 1884, c. 221, 23 Stat. 118.)

41. Failure to report sale to foreigners.—If any vessel registered as a vessel of the United States shall be sold or transferred, in whole or in part, by way of trust, confidence, or otherwise, to a subject or citizen of any foreign prince or state, and such sale or transfer shall not be made known, as hereinbefore directed, such vessel, together with her tackle, apparel, and furniture, shall be forfeited. If such vessel, however, be so owned in part only, and it is made to appear to the jury before whom the trial for such forfeiture is had that any other owner of such vessel, being a citizen of the United States, was wholly ignorant of the sale or transfer to or ownership of such foreign subject or citizen, the share or interest of such citizen of the United States shall not be subject to such forfeiture, and the residue only shall be so forfeited. (R. S. § 4172.)

42. Oath on entry as to ownership.—Upon the entry of every vessel of the United States from any foreign port, if the same shall be at the port at which the owner or any of the part owners reside, such owner or part owner shall make oath that the register of such vessel contains the name or names of all the persons who are then owners of the vessel; or if any part of such vessel has been sold or transferred since the granting of such register, that such is the case, and that no foreign subject or citizen has, to the best of his knowledge and belief, any share, by way of trust, confidence, or otherwise, in such vessel. If the owner or any part owner does not reside at the port at which such vessel enters, the master shall make oath to the like effect. If the owner, or part owner, where there is one, or the master, where there is no owner, refuses so to swear, such vessel shall not be entitled to the privileges of a vessel of the United States. (R. S. § 4173.)

43. Transmission of certificate for cancellation.—Every certificate of registry which is delivered up to a collector on the loss, destruction, or capture of a vessel, or the transfer thereof to a foreigner, shall be forthwith transmitted to the Commissioner of Navigation, to be canceled; who, if the same shall have been delivered up to a collector other than of the district in which it was granted, shall cause notice of such delivery to be given to the collector of such district. (R. S. § 4174; July 5, 1884, c. 221, 23 Stat. 118.)

44. Numbering registers.—The collector of each district shall progressively number the certificates of the registry by him granted, beginning anew at the commencement of each year, and shall enter an exact copy of each certificate in a book to be kept for that purpose; and shall, once in three months, transmit to the Commissioner of Navigation copies of all the certificates which shall have been granted by him, including the number of each. (R. S. § 4176; July 5, 1884, c. 221, 23 Stat. 118.)

45. Numbers for vessels.—The Secretary of Commerce shall have power, under such regulations as he shall prescribe, to establish and provide a system of numbering vessels so registered, enrolled, and licensed; and each vessel so numbered shall have her number deeply carved or otherwise permanently marked on her main beam; and if at any time she shall cease to be so marked, such vessel shall be liable to a fine of $30 on every arrival in a port of the United States if she have not her proper official number legally carved or permanently marked. (R. S. § 4177; June 19, 1886, c. 421, § 6, 24 Stat. 81; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

46. Names and home ports marked on bow and stern.—The name of every documented vessel of the United States shall be marked upon each bow and upon the stern, and the home port shall also be marked upon the stern. These names shall be painted or gilded, or consist of cut or carved or cast roman letters in light color on a dark ground, or in a dark color on a light ground, secured in place, and to be distinctly visible. The smallest letters used shall not be less in size than four inches. If any such vessel shall be found without these names being so marked the owner or owners shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each name omitted. (R. S. § 4178; Feb. 21, 1891, c. 250, § 1, 26 Stat. 765; Jan. 20, 1897, c. 67, § 1, 29 Stat. 491.)

47. "Port" defined.—The word "port," as used in the preceding section and in section 287, in reference to painting the name and port of every registered or licensed vessel on the stern of such vessel, shall be construed to mean either the port where the vessel is registered or enrolled, or the place in the same district where the vessel was built or where one or more of the owners reside. (June 26, 1884, c. 121, § 21, 23 Stat. 58.)

48. Draft marked on stem and stern posts.—The draft of every registered vessel shall be marked upon the stem and stern post, in English feet or decimeters, in either Arabic or Roman numerals. The bottom of each numeral shall indicate the draft to that line. (Feb. 21, 1891, c. 250, § 2, 26 Stat. 765; Jan. 20, 1897, c. 67, § 2, 29 Stat. 491.)

49. Private signals and registry thereof.—If a shipowner desires to use for the purpose of a private code any rockets, lights, or other similar signals, he may register those signals and house flags and funnel marks with the Commissioner of Navigation, who shall give public notice from time to time of the signals, house flags, and funnel marks so registered in such manner as he may think requisite for preventing those signals from being mistaken for signals of distress or signals for pilots. The Commissioner of Navigation may refuse to register any signals which in his opinion can not easily be distinguished from signals of distress, signals for pilots, or signals prescribed by laws for preventing collisions. (May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 7, 35 Stat. 426.)

50. Change of name of documented vessel.—No master, owner, or agent of any vessel of the United States shall in any way change the name of such vessel, or by any device, advertisement, or contrivance deceive or attempt to deceive the public, or any officer or agent of the United States, or of any State, or any corporation or agent thereof, or any person or persons, as to the true name or character of such vessel, on pain of the forfeiture of such vessel. (R. S. § 4179.)

51. Change of name of vessels by Commissioner of Navigation.—The Commissioner of Navigation shall, under the direction of the Secretary of Commerce, be empowered to change the names of vessels of the United States on application of the owner or owners of such vessels when in his judgment there shall be sufficient cause for so doing. (Feb. 19, 1920, c. 83, § 1, 41 Stat. 436.)

52. Rules and regulations as to change of name; evidence; publication of order.—The Commissioner of Navigation, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, shall establish such rules and regulations and procure such evidence as to age, condition, where built, and pecuniary liability of the vessel as he may deem necessary to prevent injury to public or private interests; and when permission is granted by the Commissioner of Navigation, he shall cause the order for the change of name to be published at least in four issues in some daily or weekly paper at the place of documentation, and the cost of procuring evidence and advertising the change of name to be paid by the person or persons desiring such change of name. (Feb. 19, 1920, c. 83, § 2, 41 Stat. 437.)

53. Fees for privilege of securing change of name.—For the privilege of securing such changes of name the following fees shall be paid by the owners of vessels to collectors of customs, to be deposited in the Treasury by such collectors as navigation fees: For vessels ninety-nine gross tons and under, $10; for vessels one hundred gross tons and up to and including four hundred and ninety-nine gross tons, $25; for vessels five hundred gross tons and up to and including nine hundred and ninety-nine gross tons, $50; for vessels one thousand gross tons and up to and including four thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine gross tons, $75; for vessels five thousand gross tons and over, $100. (Feb. 19, 1920, c. 83, § 3, 41 Stat. 437.)

54. Oath to obtain record of vessel owned by foreigner.—Every vessel built in the United States, and belonging wholly or in part to the subjects of foreign powers, in order to be entitled to the benefits of a ship built and recorded in the United States, shall be recorded in the office of the collector of the district in which such vessel was built, in the manner following: The builder of every such vessel shall make oath before the collector of such district in manner following: "I, (inserting here the name of such builder), of (inserting here the place of his residence), shipwright, do swear (or affirm) that (describing here the kind of vessel, as whether ship, brig, snow, schooner, sloop, or whatever else) named (inserting here the name of the ship or vessel), having (inserting here the number of decks), and being in length (inserting here the number of feet), in breadth (inserting here the number of feet), in depth (inserting here the number of feet), and measuring (inserting here the number of tons), having (specifying whether any or no) gallery, and (also specifying whether any or no) head, was built by me or under my direction at (naming the place, county, and State), in the United States, in the year (inserting here the number of the year)." Which oath shall be subscribed by the person making the same, and shall be recorded in a book to be kept by the collector for that purpose. (R. S. § 4180.)

55. Certificate of record.—A certificate of the record, attested under the hand and seal of the collector, shall be granted to the master of every such vessel, as nearly as may be, of the form following: "In pursuance of chapter 2 of Title 46, of the Code of the Laws of the United States of America, I, (inserting here the name of the collector of the district), of (inserting here the name of the district), in the United States, do certify that (inserting here the name of the builder), of (inserting here the place of his residence, county, and State), having sworn (or affirmed) that the (describing the ship or vessel, as in the certificate of record) named (inserting here her name), whereof (inserting here the name of her master) is, at present, master, was built at (inserting here the name of the place, county, and State where built), by him or under his direction, in the year (inserting here the number of the year); and (inserting here the name of the surveyor, or other person, by whom the measurement shall have been made) having certified that the said ship or vessel has (inserting here her number of decks), is in length (inserting here the number of feet), in breadth (inserting here the number of feet), in depth (inserting here the number of feet), and measures (inserting here the number of tons): And the said builder and (naming and describing the owner, or master, or agent for the owner or owners, as the case may be, by whom the said certificate shall have been countersigned) having agreed to the said description and admeasurement, the said vessel has been recorded, in the district of (inserting here the name of the district where recorded), in the United States. Witness my hand and seal this (inserting here the day of the month) day of (inserting here the name of the month), in the year (inserting here the number of the year)." Which certificate shall be recorded in the office of the collector, and a duplicate thereof transmitted to the Commissioner of Navigation to be recorded in his office. (R. S. § 4182; July 5, 1884, c. 221, 23 Stat. 118.)

56. Change of master or name of recorded vessel; indorsement on certificate of record.—Whenever the master or the name of a vessel so recorded is changed, the owner, part owner, or consignee of such vessel shall cause a memorandum thereof to be indorsed on the certificate of the record, by the collector of the district where such vessel may be, or at which she shall first arrive if such change took place in a foreign country; and a copy thereof shall be entered in the book of records, a transcript whereof shall be transmitted by the collector to the collector of the district where such certificate was granted, if not the same person, who shall enter the same in his book of records, and forward a duplicate of such entry to the Commissioner of Navigation; and in such case, until the owner, part owner, or consignee shall cause the memorandum to be made by the collector, in the manner above prescribed, such vessel shall not be deemed a vessel recorded, in pursuance of this chapter. (R. S. § 4183; July 5, 1884, c. 221, 23 Stat. 118.)

57. Production of certificate on entry.—The master or other person having the command or charge of any vessel, recorded in pursuance of this chapter, shall, on entry of such vessel, produce the certificate of such record to the collector of the district where she is so entered; and in default thereof the vessel shall not be entitled to the privileges of a recorded vessel. (R. S. § 4184.)

58. Penalty for misconduct by officers.—Every collector or officer who knowingly makes, or is concerned in making, any false register or record, or who knowingly grants or is concerned in granting, any false certificate of registry or record of or for any vessel, or any other false document whatever touching the same, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this chapter, or who receives any voluntary reward or gratuity for any of the services performed, pursuant thereto; and every surveyor or other person appointed to measure any vessel, who willfully delivers to any collector or comptroller of customs a false description of such vessel, to be registered or recorded, shall be punishable by a fine of $1,000, and be rendered incapable of serving in any office of trust or profit under the United States. (R. S. § 4187; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, § 523, 42 Stat. 974.)

59. Penalty for neglect by officers.—If any person authorized and required by this chapter to perform, as an officer, any act or thing, willfully neglects to do or perform the same according to the true intent and meaning of this chapter, he shall, if not subject to the penalty and disqualification prescribed in the preceding section, be punishable by a fine of $500 for the first offense, and by a like fine for the second offense, and shall thenceforth be rendered incapable of holding any office of trust or profit under the United States. (R. S. § 4188.)

60. Penalty for fraudulent registry.—Whenever any certificate of registry, enrollment, or license, or other record or document granted in lieu thereof, to any vessel, is knowingly and fraudulently obtained or used for any vessel not entitled to the benefit thereof, such vessel, with her tackle, apparel, and furniture, shall be liable to forfeiture. (R. S. § 4189.)

61. Sea letters; to what vessels issued.—No sea letter or other document certifying or proving any vessel to be the property of a citizen of the United States shall be issued, except to vessels duly registered or enrolled and licensed as vessels of the United States, or to vessels which shall be wholly owned by citizens of the United States, and furnished with or entitled to sea letters or other customhouse documents. (R. S. § 4190.)

62. Making or using forged papers.—Every person who knowingly makes, utters, or publishes any false sea letter, Mediterranean passport, or certificate of registry, or who knowingly avails himself of any such Mediterranean passport, sea letter, or certificate of registry, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $5,000, and if an officer of the United States, shall thenceforth be incapable of holding any office of trust or profit under the authority of the United States. (R. S. § 4191.)

63. Unrigged wooden vessels; notation of rebuilding.—Upon affidavit by a reputable shipbuilder of the United States that an unrigged wooden vessel of the United States has been rebuilt, giving the date and place of such rebuilding, is sound and free from rotten or doted wood in structural parts, properly fastened and calked and in strength and seaworthiness as good as new, the Commissioner of Navigation shall include in the list of merchant vessels a notation to that effect. (July 9, 1912, c. 220, 37 Stat. 189.)

INSPECTION, SURVEY, AND MEASUREMENT

71. Measurement of vessel.—Before any vessel shall be registered, she shall be measured by a surveyor, if there be one, or by the person he shall appoint, at the port or place where the vessel may be, and if there be none, by such person as the collector of the district within which she may be shall appoint. But in all cases where a vessel has before been registered as a vessel of the United States, it shall not be necessary to measure her anew, for the purpose of obtaining another register; unless such vessel has undergone some alteration as to her burden, subsequent to the time of her former registry. (R. S. § 4148.)

72. Certificate of particulars as to vessel.—The officer or person by whom such measurement is made shall, for the information of and as a voucher to the officer by whom the registry is to be made, grant a certificate, specifying the build of the vessel, her number of decks and masts, her length, breadth, depth, the number of tons she measures, and such other particulars as are usually descriptive of the identity of a vessel, and that her name, and the place to which she belongs, are painted on her stern in manner required by this chapter; which certificate shall be countersigned by an owner, or by the master of such vessel, or by some other person who shall attend her admeasurement, on behalf of her owner or owners, in testimony of the truth of the particulars therein contained; without which the certificate shall not be valid. (R. S. § 4149.)

73. Measurement for record; certificate.—The collector shall cause the vessel built as specified in section 54 to be surveyed or measured, and the person by whom such measurement is made shall grant a certificate thereof, as in the case of a vessel to be registered, which certificate shall be countersigned by the builder, and by an owner or the master or person having the command or charge thereof, or by some other person being an agent for the owner thereof, in testimony of the truth of the particulars therein contained. (R. S. § 4181.)

74. Mode of measurement.—The registry of every vessel shall express her length and breadth, together with her depth and the height under the third or spar deck, which shall be ascertained in the following manner: The tonnage deck, in vessels having three or more decks to the hull, shall be the second deck from below; in all other cases the upper deck of the hull is to be the tonnage deck. The length from the fore part of the outer planking on the side of the stem to the after part of the main sternpost of screw steamers, and to the after part of the rudderpost of all other vessels measured on the top of the tonnage deck, shall be accounted the vessel's length. The breadth of the broadest part on the outside of the vessel shall be accounted the vessel's breadth of beam. A measure from the under side of the tonnage-deck plank, amidships, to the ceiling of the hold (average thickness), shall be accounted the depth of hold. If the vessel has a third deck, then the height from the top of the tonnage-deck plank to the under side of the upper-deck plank shall be accounted as the height under the spar deck. All measurement to be taken in feet and fractions of feet; and all fractions of feet shall be expressed in decimals. (R. S. § 4150.)

75. Cabins or staterooms excluded from measurement.—No part of any vessel shall be required by the preceding section to be measured or registered for tonnage that is used for cabins or staterooms, and constructed entirely above the first deck, which is not a deck to the hull. (R. S. § 4151.)

76. Vessels not required to be measured.—The provisions foregoing relating to the measurement of vessels shall not be deemed to apply to any vessel not required by law to be registered, or enrolled, or licensed, unless otherwise specially provided. (R. S. § 4152.)

77. Tonnage.—The register tonnage of every vessel built within the United States or owned by a citizen or citizens thereof shall be her entire internal cubical capacity in tons of one hundred cubic feet each, to be ascertained as follows: Measure the length of the vessel in a straight line along the upper side of the tonnage deck, from the inside of the inner plank, average thickness, at the side of the stem to the inside of the plank on the stern timbers, average thickness, deducting from this length what is due to the rake of the bow in the thickness of the deck, and what is due to the rake of the stern timber in the thickness of the deck, and also what is due to the rake of the stern timber in one-third of the round of the beam; divide the length so taken into the number of equal parts required by the following table, according to the class in such table to which the vessel belongs:

Table of classes

Class one. Vessels of which the tonnage length according to the above measurement is fifty feet or under: into six equal parts.

Class two. Vessels of which the tonnage length according to the above measurement is above fifty feet, and not exceeding one hundred feet: into eight equal parts.

Class three. Vessels of which the tonnage length according to the above measurement is above one hundred feet, and not exceeding one hundred and fifty feet: into ten equal parts.

Class four. Vessels of which the tonnage length according to the above measurement is above one hundred and fifty feet, and not exceeding two hundred feet: into twelve equal parts.

Class five. Vessels of which the tonnage length according to the above measurement is above two hundred feet, and not exceeding two hundred and fifty feet: into fourteen equal parts.

Class six. Vessels of which the tonnage length according to the above measurement is above two hundred and fifty feet: into sixteen equal parts.

Then, the hold being sufficiently cleared to admit of the required depths and breadths being properly taken, find the transverse area of such vessel at each point of division of the length as follows:

Measure the depth at each point of division from a point at a distance of one-third of the round of the beam below such deck; or, in case of a break, below a line stretched in continuation thereof, to the upper side of the floor timber, at the inside of the limber strake, after deducting the average thickness of the ceiling, which is between the bilge planks and limber strake; then, if the depth at the midship division of the length do not exceed sixteen feet, divide each depth into four equal parts; then measure the inside horizontal breadth, at each of the three points of division, and also at the upper and lower points of the depth, extending each measurement to the average thickness of that part of the ceiling which is between the points of measurement; number these breadths from above, numbering the upper breadth one, and so on down to the lowest breadth; multiply the second and fourth by four, and the third by two; add these products together, and to the sum add the first breadth and the last, or fifth; multiply the quantity thus obtained by one-third of the common interval between the breadths, and the product shall be deemed the transverse area; but if the midship depth exceed sixteen feet, divide each depth into six equal parts, instead of four, and measure as before directed, the horizontal breadths at the five points of division, and also at the upper and lower points of the depth; number them from above as before; multiply the second, fourth, and sixth by four, and the third and fifth by two; add these products together, and to the sum add the first breadth and the last, or seventh; multiply the quantities thus obtained by one-third of the common interval between the breadths, and the products shall be deemed the transverse area.

Having thus ascertained the transverse area at each point of division of the length of the vessel, as required above, proceed to ascertain the register tonnage of the vessel in the following manner:

Number the areas successively one, two, three, and so forth, number one being at the extreme limit of the length at the bow, and the last number at the extreme limit of the length at the stern; then, whether the length be divided according to the table into six or sixteen parts, as in classes one and six, or any intermediate number, as in classes two, three, four and five, multiply the second, and every even-numbered area by four, and the third, and every odd-numbered area, except the first and last, by two; add these products together, and to the sum add the first and last if they yield anything; multiply the quantities thus obtained by one-third of the common interval between the areas, and the product will be the cubical contents of the space under the tonnage deck; divide this product by one hundred, and the quotient, being the tonnage under the tonnage deck, shall be deemed to be the register tonnage of the vessel, subject to the additions hereinafter mentioned.

If there be a break, a poop, or any other permanent closed-in space on the upper deck, or the spar deck, available for cargo, or stores, or for the berthing or accommodation of passengers or crew, the tonnage of such space shall be ascertained as follows:

Measure the internal mean length of such space in feet, and divide it into an even number of equal parts of which the distance asunder shall be most nearly equal to those into which the length of the tonnage deck has been divided; measure at the middle of its height the inside breadths, namely, one at each end and at each of the points of division, numbering them successively one, two, three, and so forth; then to the sum of the end breadths add four times the sum of the even-numbered breadths and twice the sum of the odd-numbered breadths, except the first and last, and multiply the whole sum by one-third of the common interval between the breadths; the product will give the mean horizontal area of such space; then measure the mean height between the planks of the decks, and multiply by it the mean horizontal area; divide the product by one hundred, and the quotient shall be deemed to be the tonnage of such space, and shall be added to the tonnage under the tonnage decks, ascertained as aforesaid.

If a vessel has a third deck, or spar deck, the tonnage of the space between it and the tonnage deck shall be ascertained as follows:

Measure in feet the inside length of the space, at the middle of its height, from the plank at the side of the stem to the plank on the timbers at the stern, and divide the length into the same number of equal parts into which the length of the tonnage deck is divided; measure, also at the middle of its height, the inside breadth of the space at each of the points of division, also the breadth of the stem and the breadth of the stern; number them successively one, two, three, and so forth, commencing at the stem; multiply the second, and all other even-numbered breadths, by four, and the third, and all the other odd-numbered breadths, except the first and last, by two; to the sum of these products add the first and last breadths, multiply the whole sum by one-third of the common interval between the breadths, and the result will give, in superficial feet, the mean horizontal area of such space; measure the mean height between the plank of the two decks, and multiply by it the mean horizontal area, and the product will be the cubical contents of the space; divide this product by one hundred, and the quotient shall be deemed to be the tonnage of such space, and shall be added to the other tonnage of the vessel, ascertained as above directed. And if the vessel has more than three decks, the tonnage of each space between decks, above the tonnage deck shall be severally ascertained in the manner above described, and shall be added to the tonnage of the vessel, ascertained as above directed.

In ascertaining the tonnage of open vessels the upper edge of the upper strake is to form the boundary line of measurement, and the depth shall be taken from an athwartship line, extending from the upper edge of such strake at each division of the length.

From the gross tonnage of every vessel of the United States there shall be deducted—

(a) The tonnage of the spaces or compartments occupied by or appropriated to the use of the crew of the vessel. Every place appropriated to the crew of the vessel shall have a space of not less than seventy-two cubic feet and not less than twelve superficial feet, measured on the deck or floor of that place, for each seaman or apprentice lodged therein. Such place shall be securely constructed, properly lighted, drained, and ventilated, properly protected from weather and sea, and as far as practicable properly shut off and protected from the effluvium of cargo or bilge water; and failure to comply with this provision shall subject the owner to a penalty of $500. Every place so occupied shall be kept free from goods or stores of any kind not being the personal property of the crew in use during the voyage; and if any such place is not so kept free the master shall forfeit and pay to each seaman or apprentice lodged in that place the sum of 50 cents a day for each day during which any goods or stores as aforesaid are kept or stored in the place after complaint has been made to him by any two or more of the seamen so lodged. No deduction from tonnage as aforesaid shall be made unless there is permanently cut in a beam and over the doorway of every such place the number of men it is allowed to accommodate with these words, "Certified to accommodate seamen."

(b) Any space exclusively for the use of the master certified by the collector to be reasonable in extent and properly constructed, and the words "Certified for the accommodation of master" to be permanently cut in a beam and over the door of such space.

(c) Any space used exclusively for the working of the helm, the capstan, and the anchor gear, or for keeping the charts, signals, and other instruments of navigation and boatswain's stores, and the words "Certified for steering gear," or "Certified for boatswain's stores," or "Certified chart house," as the case may be, to be permanently cut in the beam and over the doorway of each of such spaces.

(d) The space occupied by the donkey engine and boiler, if connected with the main pumps of the ship.

(e) In the case of a ship propelled wholly by sails any space, not exceeding 2½ per centum of the gross tonnage, used exclusively for storage of sails: Provided, That spaces deducted shall be certified by the collector to be reasonable in extent and properly and efficiently constructed for the purposes for which they are intended, and the words "Certified for storage of sails" to be cut on the beam and over the doorway of such space.

(f) In the case of a ship propelled by steam or other power requiring engine room, a deduction for the space occupied by the propelling power shall be made, as follows:

In ships propelled by paddle wheels in which the tonnage of the space occupied by and necessary for the proper working of the boilers and machinery is above 20 per centum and under 30 per centum of the gross tonnage, the deduction shall be 37 per centum of the gross tonnage; and in ships propelled by screws in which the tonnage of the space is above 13 per centum and under 20 per centum of the gross tonnage, the deduction shall be 32 per centum of the gross tonnage. In the case of screw steamers the contents of the shaft trunk shall be deemed spaces necessary for the proper working of the machinery.

(g) In the case of other vessels in which the actual space occupied by the propelling machinery amounts in the case of paddle vessels to 20 per centum or under and in the case of screw vessels to 13 per centum or under of the gross tonnage of the ship, the deduction shall consist in the case of paddle vessels of once and a half the tonnage of the actual machinery space and in the case of screw vessels of once and three-fourths the tonnage of the actual machinery space. But if the actual machinery space is so large as to amount in the case of paddle vessels to 30 per centum or above, and in the case of screw vessels to 20 per centum or above of the gross tonnage of the ship, the deduction shall consist of 37 per centum of the gross tonnage of the ship in the case of a paddle vessel and 32 per centum of the gross tonnage in the case of a screw vessel; or if the owner prefers there shall be deducted from the gross tonnage of the vessel the tonnage of the space or spaces actually occupied by or required to be inclosed for the proper working of the boilers and machinery, including the trunk shaft or alley in screw steamers, with the addition in the case of vessels propelled with paddle wheels of 50 per centum, and in the case of vessels propelled by screws of 75 per centum of the tonnage of such space.

(h) If there be a break, a poop, or any other permanent closed-in space on the upper deck available for cargo or stores, or for the berthing or accommodation of passengers or crew, the tonnage of that space shall be ascertained and added to the gross tonnage: Provided, That nothing shall be added to the gross tonnage for any sheltered space above the upper deck which is under cover and open to the weather; that is, not inclosed.

The cubical contents of the hatchways shall be obtained by multiplying the length and breadth together and the product by the mean depth taken from the top of beam to the under side of the hatch. From the aggregate tonnage of the hatchways there shall be deducted one-half of 1 per cent of the gross tonnage and the remainder only shall be added to the gross tonnage of the ship exclusive of the tonnage of the hatchways.

(i) On a request in writing to the Commissioner of Navigation by the owners of a ship the tonnage of such portion of the space or spaces above the crown of the engine room and above the upper deck as is framed in for the machinery or for the admission of light and air and not required to be added to gross tonnage shall, for the purpose of ascertaining the tonnage of the space occupied by the propelling power, be added to the tonnage of the engine space; but it shall then be included in the gross tonnage; such space or spaces must be reasonable in extent, safe, and seaworthy, and can not be used for any purpose other than the machinery or for the admission of light and air to the machinery or boilers of the ship.

And the proper deduction from the gross tonnage having been made, the remainder shall be deemed the net or register tonnage of such vessels.

The register or other official certificate of the tonnage or nationality of a vessel of the United States, in addition to what is now required by law to be expressed therein, shall state separately the deductions made from the gross tonnage, and shall also state the net or register tonnage of the vessel.

But the outstanding registers or enrollments of vessels of the United States shall not be rendered void by the addition of such new statement of her tonnage, unless voluntarily surrendered; but the same may be added to the outstanding document or by an appendix thereto, with a certificate of a collector of customs that the original estimate of tonnage is amended.

In the case of a ship constructed with a double bottom for water ballast, if the space between the inner and outer plating thereof is certified by the collector to be not available for the carriage of cargo, stores, or fuel, then the depth of the vessel shall be taken to be the upper side of the inner plating of the double bottom, and that upper side shall for the purposes of measurement be deemed to represent the floor timber. From the gross tonnage there shall be deducted any other space adapted only for water ballast certified by the collector not to be available for the carriage of cargo, stores, supplies, or fuel.

Upon application by the owner or master of an American vessel in foreign trade, collectors of customs, under regulations to be approved by the Secretary of Commerce, are authorized to attach to the register of such vessel an appendix stating separately, for use in foreign ports, the measurement of such space or spaces as are permitted to be deducted from gross tonnage by the rules of other nations and are not permitted by the laws of the United States.

The register of the vessel shall express the number of decks, the tonnage under the tonnage deck, that of the between decks, above the tonnage deck; also that of the poop or other inclosed spaces above the deck, each separately. In every vessel documented as a vessel of the United States the number denoting her net tonnage shall be deeply carved or otherwise permanently marked on her main beam, and shall be so continued; and if the number at any time cease to be continued such vessel shall be subject to a fine of $30 on every arrival in a port of the United States if she have not her tonnage number legally carved or permanently marked. (R. S. § 4153; Aug. 5, 1882, c. 398, § 1, 22 Stat. 300; June 19, 1886, c. 421, § 5, 24 Stat. 81; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 173, § 1, 28 Stat. 741; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Feb. 6, 1909, c. 82, §§ 1, 2, 35 Stat. 613; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

78. Remeasurements.—The remeasurement of any American vessel duly measured before April 1, 1895, shall not be required, but upon application by the owner of any such vessel collectors of customs shall cause such vessel, or the spaces to be deducted, to be measured according to the provisions of the preceding section, and if a new register is not issued the statement of such remeasurement shall be attached by an appendix to the outstanding register or enrollment with a certificate of the collector of customs that the original estimate of tonnage is amended pursuant to said section. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 173, § 2, 28 Stat. 743.)

79. Regulations by Commissioner of Navigation.—Under the direction of the Secretary of Commerce the Commissioner of Navigation shall make regulations needful to give effect to the provisions of the two preceding sections. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 173, § 4, 28 Stat. 743; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

80. Space and accommodations for crew; hospital compartments.—On all merchant vessels of the United States the construction of which shall be begun after March 4, 1915, except yachts, pilot boats, or vessels of less than one hundred tons register, every place appropriated to the crew of the vessel shall have a space of not less than one hundred and twenty cubic feet and not less than sixteen square feet, measured on the floor or deck of that place, for each seaman or apprentice lodged therein, and each seaman shall have a separate berth and not more than one berth shall be placed one above another; such place or lodging shall be securely constructed, properly lighted, drained, heated, and ventilated, properly protected from weather and sea, and, as far as practicable, properly shut off and protected from the effluvium of cargo or bilge water. And every such crew space shall be kept free from goods or stores not being the personal property of the crew occupying said place in use during the voyage.

In addition to the space allotment for lodgings provided in this section, on all merchant vessels of the United States which in the ordinary course of their trade make voyages of more than three days' duration between ports, and which carry a crew of twelve or more seamen, there shall be constructed a compartment, suitably separated from other spaces, for hospital purposes, and such compartment shall have at least one bunk for every twelve seamen, constituting her crew, provided that not more than six bunks shall be required in any case.

Every steamboat of the United States plying upon the Mississippi River or its tributaries shall furnish an appropriate place for the crew, which shall conform to the requirements of this section, so far as they are applicable thereto, by providing sleeping room in the engine room of such steamboat, properly protected from the cold, wind, and rain by means of suitable awnings or screens on either side of the guards or sides and forward, reaching from the boiler deck to the lower or main deck, under the direction and approval of the Supervising Inspector General of Steam Vessels, and shall be properly heated.

All merchant vessels of the United States, the construction of which shall be begun after March 4, 1915, having more than ten men on deck must have at least one light, clean, and properly ventilated washing place. There shall be provided at least one washing outfit for every two men of the watch. The washing place shall be properly heated. A separate washing place shall be provided for the fire-room and engine-room men, if their number exceed ten, which shall be large enough to accommodate at least one-sixth of them at the same time, and have hot and cold water supply and a sufficient number of washbasins, sinks, and shower baths.

Any failure to comply with this section shall subject the owner or owners of such vessel to a penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $500: Provided, That forecastles shall be fumigated at such intervals as may be provided by regulations to be issued by the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, with the approval of the Department of Commerce, and shall have at least two exits, one of which may be used in emergencies. (Mar. 3, 1897, c. 389, § 2, 29 Stat. 688; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 153, § 6, 38 Stat. 1165.)

81. Measurement of foreign vessels; certificates.—Whenever it is made to appear to the Secretary of Commerce that the rules concerning the measurement for tonnage of vessels of the United States have been substantially adopted by the government of any foreign country, he may direct that the vessels of such foreign country be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of register or other national papers, and thereupon it shall not be necessary for such vessels to be remeasured at any port in the United States; and when it shall be necessary to ascertain the tonnage of any vessel not a vessel of the United States, the said tonnage shall be ascertained in the manner provided by law for the measurement of vessels of the United States. (R. S. § 4154; Aug. 5, 1882, c. 398, § 2, 22 Stat. 300; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

82. Suspension of provisions as to survey, inspection, and measurement.—The President of the United States is authorized, whenever in his discretion the needs of foreign commerce may require, to suspend by order, so far and for such length of time as he may deem desirable, the provisions of the law requiring survey, inspection, and measurement by officers of the United States of foreign-built vessels admitted to American registry under section 11. (Aug. 18, 1914, c. 256, § 2, 38 Stat. 699.)

Chapter 3.—CLEARANCE AND ENTRY.

Sec.
91. Granting clearances.
92. Manifests of shippers.
93. Form of manifest.
94. Oath of master.
95. Manifests in Alaskan and insular trade.
96. Form of clearance.
97. State inspection laws.
98. Conveyance of bullion, coin, notes, or bonds for United States.
99. Clearance of vessel laden with live oak.
100. Payment of fees on vessels outward bound.
101. Statement of consular services performed without fee filed.
102. Steamboats on Lake Champlain.
103. Pleasure yachts; license; entry and clearance; restrictions.
104. Reciprocal exemption of foreign yachts from charges and tonnage taxes; licenses.
105. Commissions to yachts.
106. Entry of yachts on return from foreign countries; manifest of dutiable articles.
107. Licensed yacht must comply with law.
108. Penalty for violation.
109. Signals for yachts.
110. Entry of ferryboats.
111. Vessels in foreign and coasting trade on northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers.
112. Passenger vessels trading between ports of United States and foreign ports.
113. Vessels making daily trips on interior waters.

Section 91. Granting clearances.—The master or person having the charge or command of any vessel bound to a foreign port, shall deliver to the collector of the district from which such vessel is about to depart, a manifest of all the cargo on board the same, and the value thereof, by him subscribed, and shall swear to the truth thereof; whereupon the collector shall grant a clearance for such vessel and her cargo, but without specifying the particulars thereof in the clearance, unless required by the master or other person having the charge or command of such vessel so to do. If any vessel bound to a foreign port departs on her voyage to such foreign port without delivering such manifest and obtaining a clearance, as required, the master or other person having the charge or command of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $500 for every such offense. (R. S. § 4197.)

92. Manifests of shippers.—Before a clearance shall be granted for any vessel bound to a foreign port, the owners, shippers, or consignors of the cargo of such vessel shall deliver to the collector manifests of the cargo, or the parts thereof shipped by them respectively, and shall verify the same by oath. Such manifests shall specify the kinds and quantities of the articles shipped respectively, and the value of the total quantity of each kind of articles; and the oath to each manifest shall state that it contains a full, just, and true account of all articles laden on board of such vessel by the owners, shippers, or consignors, respectively, and that the values of such articles are truly stated, according to their actual cost, or the values which they truly bear at the port and time of exportation. And before a clearance shall be granted for any such vessel, the master of that vessel, and the owners, shippers, and consignors of the cargo, shall state, upon oath, to the collector, the foreign port or country in which such cargo is truly intended to be landed. The oaths shall be taken and subscribed in writing. (R. S. § 4200.)

93. Form of manifest.—The form of the report and manifest to be delivered to the collector shall be as follows:

Report and manifest of the cargo laden at the port of , on board the , master, bound for port

Marks	Numbers	Packages or articles in bulk	Contents or quantities	Value at the port of exportation

(R. S. § 4199.)

94. Oath of master.—The oath to be taken by the master or commander of the vessel shall be as follows:

District of

I, (insert the name), master or commander of the (insert the denomination and name of the vessel), bound from the port of (insert the name of the port or place sailing from) to (insert the name of the port or place bound to), do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear (or affirm, as the case may be) that the manifest of the cargo on board the said (insert denomination and name of the vessel), now delivered by me to the collector of this district, and subscribed with my name, contains, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, a full, just, and true account of all the goods, wares, and merchandise now actually laden on board the said vessel, and of the value thereof; and if any other goods, wares, or merchandise shall be laden or put on board the said (insert denomination and name of vessel) previous to her sailing from this port, I will immediately report the same to the said collector. I do also swear (or affirm) that I verily believe the duties on all the foreign merchandise therein specified have been paid or secured, according to law, and that no part thereof is intended to be relanded within the United States, and that if by distress or other unavoidable accident it shall become necessary to reland the same, I will forthwith make a just and true report thereof to the collector of the customs of the district wherein such distress or accident may happen. So help me God. (R. S. § 4198.)

95. Manifests in Alaskan and insular trade.—The provisions of the four preceding sections, requiring statements of quantity and value of goods carried by vessels clearing from the United States to foreign ports, shall be extended to and govern, under such regulations as the Secretary of Commerce shall prescribe, in the trade between the United States and Hawaii, Porto Rico, Alaska, the Philippine Islands, Guam, and its other noncontiguous territory, and shall also govern in the trade conducted between said islands and territory, and in shipments from said islands or territory to other parts of the United States: Provided, That this law shall not apply in the Philippine Islands during such time as the collectors of customs of those islands are under the jurisdiction of the War Department. (Apr. 29, 1902, c. 637, 32 Stat. 172; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 3, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

96. Form of clearance.—The form of a clearance, to be granted to a ship or vessel on her departure to a foreign port or place, shall be as follows:

District of , ss,

Port of :

These are to certify all whom it doth concern, that , master or commander of the , burden tons, or thereabouts, mounted with guns, navigated with men, built, and bound for , having on board , hath here entered and cleared his said vessel according to law. Given under our hands and seals, at the customhouse of , this day of , one thousand , and in the year of the Independence of the United States of America. (R. S. § 4201.)

97. State inspection laws.—The collectors and other officers of the customs shall pay due regard to the inspection laws of the States in which they may respectively act, in such manner that no vessel having on board goods liable to inspection shall be cleared until the master, or other proper person, shall have produced such certificate that all such goods have been duly inspected, as the laws of the respective States may require to be produced to collectors or other officers of the customs. (R. S. § 4202.)

98. Conveyance of bullion, coin, notes, or bonds for United States.—All vessels belonging to citizens of the United States, and bound from any port in the United States to any other port therein, or to any foreign port, or from any foreign port to any port in the United States, shall, before clearance, receive on board all such bullion, coin, United States notes and bonds and other securities, as the Government of the United States or any department thereof, or any minister, consul, vice consul, or other agent of the United States abroad, shall offer, and shall securely convey and promptly deliver the same to the proper authorities or consignees, on arriving at the port of destination; and shall receive for such service such reasonable compensation as may be allowed to other carriers in the ordinary transactions of business. (R. S. § 4204.)

99. Clearance of vessel laden with live oak.—Collectors of the collection districts within the States of Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, and Louisiana, before allowing a clearance to any vessel laden in whole or in part with live-oak timber, shall ascertain satisfactorily that such timber was cut from private lands, or, if from public lands, by consent of the Department of the Navy. (R. S. § 4205.)

100. Payment of fees on vessels outward bound.—Previous to a clearance being granted to any vessel, outward bound, the legal fees which shall have accrued on such vessel shall be paid at the offices where such fees are respectively payable; and receipts for the same shall be produced to the collector or other officer whose duty it may be to grant clearances, before a clearance is granted. (R. S. § 4206.)

101. Statement of consular services performed without fee filed.—It shall be the duty of all masters of vessels for whom any official services shall be performed by any consular officer, without the payment of a fee, to require a written statement of such services from such consular officer, and, after certifying as to whether such statement is correct, to furnish it to the collector of the district in which such vessels shall first arrive on their return to the United States; and if any such master of a vessel shall fail to furnish such statement, he shall be liable to a fine of not exceeding $50, unless such master shall state under oath that no such statement was furnished him by said consular officer. And it shall be the duty of every collector to forward to the Comptroller General all such statements as shall have been furnished to him, and also a statement of all certified invoices which shall have come to his office, giving the dates of the certificates, and the names of the persons for whom and of the consular officer by whom the same were certified. (R. S. § 4213; June 26, 1884, c. 121, § 13, 23 Stat. 56; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736; June 10, 1921, c. 18, 42 Stat. 23.)

102. Steamboats on Lake Champlain.—The master or person having charge or command of any steamboat on Lake Champlain, when going from the United States into the Province of Quebec, may deliver a manifest of the cargo on board, and take a clearance from the collector of the district through which any such boat shall last pass, when leaving the United States, without regard to the place from which any such boat shall have commenced her voyage, or where her cargo shall have been taken on board. (R. S. § 4208.)

103. Pleasure yachts; license; entry and clearance; restrictions.—The Secretary of Commerce may cause yachts used and employed exclusively as pleasure vessels or designed as models of naval architecture, if built and owned so as to be entitled to registry and the benefits thereof as vessels of the United States if such vessels were merchant vessels, to be licensed on terms which will authorize them to proceed from port to port of the United States and to foreign ports without entering or clearing at the customhouse; such license shall be in such form as the Secretary of Commerce may prescribe. Such vessels, so enrolled and licensed, shall not be allowed to transport merchandise or carry passengers for pay. Such vessels shall have their name and port placed on some conspicuous portion of their hulls. Such vessels shall, in all respects, except as above, be subject to the laws of the United States, and shall be liable to seizure and forfeiture for any violation of the provisions of this chapter. (R. S. § 4214; Mar. 3, 1883, c. 133, § 1, 22 Stat. 566; Jan. 16, 1895, c. 24, § 4, 28 Stat. 624; Aug. 20, 1912, c. 307, § 1, 37 Stat. 315; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

104. Reciprocal exemption of foreign yachts from charges and tonnage taxes; licenses.—Whenever it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the President of the United States that yachts belonging to any regularly organized yacht club of the United States are allowed to arrive at and depart from any foreign port and to cruise in the waters of such port without entering or clearing at the customhouse thereof, and without the payment of any charges for entering or clearing, dues, duty per ton, tonnage taxes or charges for cruising licenses, the Secretary of Commerce may authorize and direct the customs authorities at the various ports and subports of entry of the United States to allow yachts from such foreign port belonging to any regularly organized yacht club thereof to arrive at and depart from any port or subport of the United States and to cruise in waters of the United States without the payment of any charges for entering or clearing, dues, duty per ton, or tonnage taxes, but the Secretary of Commerce may, in his discretion, direct that such foreign yachts shall be required to obtain licenses to cruise, in a form prescribed by him, before they shall be allowed under the provisions of this section to cruise in waters of the United States. Such licenses shall be issued without cost to such yachts and shall prescribe such limitations as to length of time, direction, and place of cruising and action, and such other particulars as the Secretary of Commerce may deem proper: Provided, That the privileges of this section shall not extend to any yacht built outside of the United States and owned, chartered, or used by a citizen of the United States unless such ownership or charter was acquired prior to February 5, 1897. (May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 5, 35 Stat. 425; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

105. Commissions to yachts.—For the identification of yachts and their owners, a commission to sail for pleasure in any designated yacht belonging to any regularly organized and incorporated yacht club, stating the exemptions and privileges enjoyed under it, may be issued by the Secretary of Commerce, and shall be a token of credit to any United States official, and to the authorities of any foreign power, for privileges enjoyed under it. (R. S. § 4217; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

106. Entry of yachts on return from foreign countries; manifest of dutiable articles.—Every yacht, except those of fifteen gross tons or under, visiting a foreign country under the provisions of sections 103, 105, and 109, shall, on her return to the United States, make due entry at the customhouse of the port at which, on such return, she shall arrive: Provided, That nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to exempt the master or person in charge of a yacht or vessel arriving from a foreign port or place with dutiable articles on board from reporting to the customs officer of the United States at the port or place at which said yacht or vessel shall arrive, and deliver in to said officer a manifest of all dutiable articles brought from a foreign country in such yachts or vessels. (R. S. § 4218; Aug. 20, 1912, c. 307, § 2, 37 Stat. 315.)

107. Licensed yacht must comply with law.—No licensed yacht shall engage in any trade, nor in any way violate the revenue laws of the United States; and every such yacht shall comply with the laws in all respects. (Jan. 16, 1895, c. 24, § 4, 28 Stat. 625.)

108. Penalty for violation.—Any master or owner violating the provisions of the preceding section shall be liable to the penalty of $200, in addition to any other penalty imposed by law. The Secretary of Commerce shall have power to remit or mitigate any such penalty if in his opinion it was incurred without negligence or intention of fraud. (Jan. 16, 1895, c. 24, § 5, 28 Stat. 625; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

109. Signals for yachts.—All licensed yachts shall use a signal of the form, size, and colors prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy; and the owners thereof shall at all times permit the naval architects in the employ of the United States to examine and copy the models of such yachts. (R. S. § 4415.)

110. Entry of ferryboats.—Vessels used exclusively as ferryboats carrying passengers, baggage, and merchandise, shall not be required to enter and clear, nor shall the masters of such vessels be required to present manifests, or to pay entrance or clearance fees, or fees for receiving or certifying manifests, but they shall, upon arrival in the United States, be required to report such baggage and merchandise to the proper officer of the customs according to law. (R. S. § 2792; May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 1, 35 Stat. 424.)

111. Vessels in foreign and coasting trade on northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers.—Enrolled or licensed vessels engaged in the foreign and coasting trade on the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers of the United States, departing from or arriving at a port in one district to or from a port in another district, and also touching at intermediate foreign ports, shall not thereby become liable to the payment of entry and clearance fees, as if from or to foreign ports; but such vessels shall, notwithstanding, be required to enter and clear. (R. S. § 2793.)

112. Passenger vessels trading between ports of United States and foreign ports.—Any passenger vessel engaged triweekly or oftener in trade between ports of the United States and foreign ports shall be exempt from entrance and clearance fees while such service triweekly or oftener is maintained. (R. S. § 2792; May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 1, 35 Stat. 424.)

113. Vessels making daily trips on interior waters.—In cases of vessels making regular daily trips between any port of the United States and any port in the Dominion of Canada, wholly upon interior waters not navigable to the ocean, no clearance fees shall be charged against such vessel by the officers of the United States. (R. S. § 4221.)

Chapter 4.—TONNAGE DUTIES.

Sec.
121. Amount of tonnage duties.
122. Coasting and fishing vessels.
123. Vessels in foreign and coasting trade on northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers.
124. Passenger vessels trading between ports of United States and foreign ports.
125. Vessels making daily trips on interior waters.
126. Vessels touching at Canadian ports.
127. Tonnage taxes on foreign vessels coming from Philippines.
128. Light money.
129. Exemption of unregistered vessels owned by citizens.
130. Vessels owned by citizens of Philippines.
131. Rights of Cuban vessels.
132. Vessels not entering by sea.
133. Hospital ships in time of war.
134. Designation by President of hospital ships exempted.
135. Rights under treaties preserved.

Section 121. Amount of tonnage duties.—Upon vessels which shall be entered in the United States from any foreign port or place there shall be paid duties as follows: On vessels built within the United States but belonging wholly or in part to subjects of foreign powers, at the rate of thirty cents per ton; on other vessels not of the United States, at the rate of fifty cents per ton, and any vessel, any officer of which shall not be a citizen of the United States shall pay a tax of fifty cents per ton.

A tonnage duty of 2 cents per ton, not to exceed in the aggregate 10 cents per ton in any one year, is imposed at each entry on all vessels which shall be entered in any port of the United States from any foreign port or place in North America, Central America, the West India Islands, the Bahama Islands, the Bermuda Islands, or the coast of South America bordering on the Caribbean Sea, or Newfoundland, and a duty of 6 cents per ton, not to exceed 30 cents per ton per annum, is imposed at each entry on all vessels which shall be entered in any port of the United States from any other foreign port, not, however, to include vessels in distress or not engaged in trade.

Upon every vessel not of the United States, which shall be entered in one district from another district, having on board goods, wares, or merchandise taken in one district to be delivered in another district, duties shall be paid at the rate of 50 cents per ton: Provided, That no such duty shall be required where a vessel owned by citizens of the United States, but not a vessel of the United States, after entering an American port, shall, before leaving the same, be registered as a vessel of the United States. On all foreign vessels which shall be entered in the United States from any foreign port or place, to and with which vessels of the United States are not ordinarily permitted to enter and trade, there shall be paid a duty at the rate of $2 per ton; and none of the duties on tonnage above mentioned shall be levied on the vessels of any foreign nation if the President of the United States shall be satisfied that the discriminating or countervailing duties of such foreign nations, so far as they operate to the disadvantage of the United States, have been abolished. Any rights or privileges acquired by any foreign nation under the laws and treaties of the United States relative to the duty of tonnage on vessels shall not be impaired; and any vessel, any officer of which shall not be a citizen of the United States shall pay a tax of 50 cents per ton. (R. S. § 4219; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 250; June 26, 1884, c. 121, § 14, 23 Stat. 57; June 19, 1886, c. 421, § 11, 24 Stat. 81; Apr. 4, 1888, c. 61, § 1, 25 Stat. 80; Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 36, 36 Stat. 111; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 171, § 1, 38 Stat. 1193.)

122. Coasting and fishing vessels.—No vessel belonging to any citizen of the United States, trading from one port within the United States to another port within the United States, or employed in the bank, whale, or other fisheries, shall be subject to tonnage tax or duty, if such vessel be licensed, registered or enrolled. (R. S. § 4220.)

123. Vessels in foreign and coasting trade on northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers.—Enrolled or licensed vessels engaged in the foreign and coasting trade on the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers of the United States, departing from or arriving at a port in one district to or from a port in another district, and also touching at intermediate foreign ports, shall not thereby become liable to the payment of tonnage tax, as if from or to foreign ports; but such vessels shall, notwithstanding, be required to enter and clear. (R. S. § 2793.)

124. Passenger vessels trading between ports of United States and foreign ports.—Any passenger vessel engaged triweekly or oftener in trade between ports of the United States and foreign ports shall be exempt from tonnage taxes while such service triweekly or oftener is maintained. (R. S. § 2792; May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 1, 35 Stat. 424.)

125. Vessels making daily trips on interior waters.—In cases of vessels making regular daily trips between any port of the United States and any port in the Dominion of Canada, wholly upon interior waters not navigable to the ocean, no tonnage fees shall be charged against such vessel by the officers of the United States, except upon the first clearing of such vessel in each year. (R. S. § 4221.)

126. Vessels touching at Canadian ports.—No consul or consular agent of the United States shall exact tonnage fees from any vessel of the United States, touching at or near ports in Canada, on her regular voyage from one port to another within the United States, unless such consul or consular agent shall perform some official services, required by law for such vessel when she shall thus touch at a Canadian port. (R. S. § 4222.)

127. Tonnage taxes on foreign vessels coming from Philippines.—The same tonnage taxes shall be levied, collected, and paid upon all foreign vessels coming into the United States from the Philippine Islands which are required by law to be levied, collected, and paid upon vessels coming into the United States from foreign countries. (Apr. 29, 1908, c. 152, § 2, 35 Stat. 70.)

128. Light money.—A duty of 50 cents per ton, to be denominated "light money," shall be levied and collected on all vessels not of the United States, which may enter the ports of the United States. Such light money shall be levied and collected in the same manner and under the same regulations as the tonnage duties: Provided, That no such duty shall be required where a vessel owned by citizens of the United States, but not a vessel of the United States, after entering an American port, shall, before leaving the same, be registered as a vessel of the United States. (R. S. § 4225; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 171, § 1, 38 Stat. 1193.)

129. Exemption of unregistered vessels owned by citizens.—The preceding section shall not be deemed to operate upon unregistered vessels, owned by citizens of the United States, and carrying a sea letter, or other regular document, issued from a customhouse of the United States, proving the vessel to be American property. Upon the entry of every such vessel from any foreign port, if the same shall be at the port at which the owner or any of the part owners reside, such owner or part owners shall make oath that the sea letter or other regular document possessed by such vessel contains the name or names of all the persons who are then the owners of the vessel; or if any part of such vessel has been sold or transferred since the date of such sea letter or document, that such is the case, and that no foreign subject or citizen has, to the best of his knowledge and belief, any share, by way of trust, confidence, or otherwise, in such vessel. If the owner or any part owner does not reside at the port or place at which such vessel shall enter, then the master shall make oath to the like effect. If the owner or part owner, where there is one, or the master, where there is no owner, shall refuse to so swear, such vessel shall not be entitled to the privileges granted by this section. (R. S. § 4226.)

130. Vessels owned by citizens of Philippines.—Vessels owned by citizens of the Philippine Islands and documented as such by the government of said islands shall be exempt in ports of the United States from payment of tonnage taxes and light dues: Provided, That nothing contained herein shall be construed as exempting said vessels from any taxes or dues imposed by the government of the Philippine Islands. (July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 286.)

131. Rights of Cuban vessels.—Vessels owned by citizens of Cuba and documented as such shall be entitled in ports of the United States to the rights and privileges of vessels of the most favored nation, and they and their cargoes shall be subject to no higher charges in ports of the United States than are imposed on the vessels and cargoes of the most favored nation in the same trade. (Feb. 10, 1900, c. 15, § 1, 31 Stat. 27.)

132. Vessels not entering by sea.—Vessels entering otherwise than by sea from a foreign port at which tonnage or lighthouse dues or other equivalent tax or taxes are not imposed on vessels of the United States shall be exempt from the tonnage duty of 2 cents per ton, not to exceed in the aggregate 10 cents per ton in any one year. (Mar. 8, 1910, c. 86, 36 Stat. 234.)

133. Hospital ships in time of war.—Hospital ships, concerning which the conditions set forth in articles 1, 2, and 3 of the convention concluded at The Hague on July 29, 1899, for the adaptation to maritime warfare of the principles of the Geneva convention of August 22, 1864, are fulfilled, shall, in the ports of the United States and the possessions thereof, be exempted, in time of war, from all dues and taxes imposed on vessels by the laws of the United States, and from all pilotage charges. (Mar. 24, 1908, c. 96, § 1, 35 Stat. 46.)

134. Designation by President of hospital ships exempted.—The President of the United States shall by proclamation name the hospital ships to which the preceding section shall apply, and shall indicate the time when the exemptions provided for shall begin and end. (Mar. 24, 1908, c. 96, § 2, 35 Stat. 46.)

135. Rights under treaties preserved.—Nothing contained in this chapter shall be deemed in anywise to impair any rights and privileges which have been or may be acquired by any foreign nation under the laws and treaties of the United States relative to the duty on tonnage of vessels, or any other duty on vessels. (R. S. § 4227.)

Chapter 5.—DISCRIMINATING DUTIES AND RECIPROCAL PRIVILEGES.

Sec.
141. Suspension by President.
142. Retaliatory suspension of commercial privileges to foreign vessels.
143. Retaliation on denial of rights to United States vessels in British North America.
144. Suspension of free passage through Saint Marys Falls Canal; tolls.
145. Collection of tolls.
146. Discriminating duty for merchandise imported in foreign vessels.

Section 141. Suspension by President.—Upon satisfactory proof being given to the President, by the government of any foreign nation, that no discriminating duties of tonnage or imposts are imposed or levied in the ports of such nation upon vessels wholly belonging to citizens of the United States, or upon the produce, manufactures, or merchandise imported in the same from the United States or from any foreign country, the President may issue his proclamation, declaring that the foreign discriminating duties of tonnage and impost within the United States are suspended and discontinued, so far as respects the vessels of such foreign nation, and the produce, manufactures, or merchandise imported into the United States from such foreign nation, or from any other foreign country; the suspension to take effect from the time of such notification being given to the President, and to continue so long as the reciprocal exemption of vessels, belonging to citizens of the United States, and their cargoes, shall be continued, and no longer: Provided, That the President is authorized to suspend in part the operation of sections 121 and 146 so that foreign vessels from a country imposing partial discriminating tonnage duties upon American vessels, or partial discriminating import duties upon American merchandise, may enjoy in our ports the identical privileges which the same class of American vessels and merchandise may enjoy in said foreign country. (R. S. § 4228; July 24, 1897, c. 13, 30 Stat. 214.)

142. Retaliatory suspension of commercial privileges to foreign vessels.—Whenever any foreign country whose vessels have been placed on the same footing in the ports of the United States as American vessels (the coastwise trade excepted) shall deny to any vessels of the United States any of the commercial privileges accorded to national vessels in the harbors, ports, or waters of such foreign country, the President, on receiving satisfactory information of the continuance of such discriminations against any vessels of the United States, is authorized to issue his proclamation excluding, on and after such time as he may indicate, from the exercise of such commercial privileges in the ports of the United States as are denied to American vessels in the ports of such foreign country, all vessels of such foreign country of a similar character to the vessels of the United States thus discriminated against, and suspending such concessions previously granted to the vessels of such country; and on and after the date named in such proclamation for it to take effect, if the master, officer, or agent of any vessel of such foreign country excluded by said proclamation from the exercise of any commercial privileges shall do any act prohibited by said proclamation in the ports, harbors, or waters of the United States for or on account of such vessel, such vessel, and its rigging, tackle, furniture, and boats, and all the goods on board, shall be liable to seizure and to forfeiture to the United States; and any person opposing any officer of the United States in the enforcement of this section, or aiding and abetting any other person in such opposition, shall forfeit $800, and shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years. (June 19, 1886, c. 421, § 17, 24 Stat. 82.)

143. Retaliation on denial of rights to United States vessels in British North America.—Whenever the President of the United States shall be satisfied that American fishing vessels or American fishermen, visiting or being in the waters or at any ports or places of the British dominions of North America, are or then lately have been denied or abridged in the enjoyment of any rights secured to them by treaty or law, or are or then lately have been unjustly vexed or harassed in the enjoyment of such rights, or subjected to unreasonable restrictions, regulations, or requirements in respect of such rights; or otherwise unjustly vexed or harassed in said waters, ports or places; or whenever the President of the United States shall be satisfied that any such fishing vessels or fishermen, having a permit under the laws of the United States to touch and trade at any port or ports, place or places, in the British dominions of North America, are or then lately have been denied the privilege of entering such port or ports, place or places in the same manner and under the same regulations as may exist therein applicable to trading vessels of the most favored nation, or shall be unjustly vexed or harassed, in respect thereof, or otherwise be unjustly vexed or harassed therein, or shall be prevented from purchasing such supplies as may there be lawfully sold to trading vessels of the most favored nation; or whenever the President of the United States shall be satisfied that any other vessels of the United States, their masters or crews, so arriving at or being in such British waters or ports or places of the British dominions of North America, are or then lately have been denied any of the privileges therein accorded to the vessels, their masters or crews, of the most favored nation, or unjustly vexed or harassed in respect of the same, or unjustly vexed or harassed therein by the authorities thereof, then, and in either or all of such cases, it shall be lawful, and it shall be the duty of the President of the United States, in his discretion, by proclamation to that effect, to deny vessels, their masters and crews, of the British dominions of North America, any entrance into the waters, ports, or places of or within the United States (with such exceptions in regard to vessels in distress, stress of weather, or needing supplies as to the President shall seem proper), whether such vessels shall have come directly from said dominions on such destined voyage or by way of some port or place in such destined voyage elsewhere; and also to deny entry into any port or place of the United States of fresh fish or salt fish or any other product of said dominions, or other goods coming from said dominions to the United States. The President may, in his discretion, apply such proclamation to any part or to all of the foregoing named subjects, and may revoke, qualify, limit, and renew such proclamation from time to time as he may deem necessary to the full and just execution of the purposes of this section. Every violation of any such proclamation, or any part thereof, is declared illegal, and all vessels and goods so coming or being within the waters, ports, or places of the United States contrary to such proclamation shall be forfeited to the United States; and such forfeiture shall be enforced and proceeded upon in the same manner and with the same effect as in the case of vessels or goods whose importation or coming to or being in the waters or ports of the United States contrary to law may be enforced and proceeded upon. Every person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section, or such proclamation of the President made in pursuance hereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000, or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or by both said punishments, in the discretion of the court. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 339, 24 Stat. 475.)

144. Suspension of free passage through Saint Marys Falls Canal; tolls.—With a view of securing reciprocal advantages for the citizens, ports, and vessels of the United States, whenever and so often as the President shall be satisfied that the passage through any canal or lock connected with the navigation of the Saint Lawrence River, the Great Lakes, or the waterways connecting the same, of any vessels of the United States, or of cargoes or passengers in transit to any port of the United States, is prohibited or is made difficult or burdensome by the imposition of tolls or otherwise which, in view of the free passage through the Saint Marys Falls Canal, permitted to vessels of all nations, he shall deem to be reciprocally unjust and unreasonable, he shall have the power, and it shall be his duty, to suspend by proclamation to that effect, for such time and to such extent (including absolute prohibition) as he shall deem just, the right of free passage through the Saint Marys Falls Canal, so far as it relates to vessels owned by the subjects of the Government so discriminating against the citizens, ports, or vessels of the United States, or to any cargoes, portions of cargoes, or passengers in transit to the ports of the Government making such discrimination, whether carried in vessels of the United States or of other nations.

In such case and during such suspension tolls shall be levied, collected, and paid as follows, to wit: Upon freight of whatever kind or description, not to exceed $2 per ton; upon passengers, not to exceed $5 each, as shall be from time to time determined by the President: Provided, That no tolls shall be charged or collected upon freight or passengers carried to and landed at Ogdensburg, or any port west of Ogdensburg, and south of a line drawn from the northern boundary of the State of New York through the Saint Lawrence River, the Great Lakes, and their connecting channels to the northern boundary of the State of Minnesota. (July 26, 1892, c. 248, § 1, 27 Stat. 267.)

145. Collection of tolls.—All tolls charged under the provisions of the preceding section shall be collected under such regulations as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce, who may require the master of each vessel to furnish a sworn statement of the amount and kind of cargo and the number of passengers carried and the destination of the same, and such proof of the actual delivery of such cargo or passengers at some port or place within the limits above named as he shall deem satisfactory; and until such proof is furnished such freight and passengers may be considered to have been landed at some port or place outside of those limits, and the amount of tolls which would have accrued if they had been so delivered shall constitute a lien which may be enforced against the vessel in default wherever and whenever found in the waters of the United States. (July 26, 1892, c. 248, § 2, 27 Stat. 268; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

146. Discriminating duty for merchandise imported in foreign vessels.—A discriminating duty of 10 per centum ad valorem, in addition to the duties imposed by law, shall be levied, collected, and paid on all goods, wares, and merchandise which shall be imported on vessels not of the United States; but this discriminating duty shall not apply to goods, wares, and merchandise which shall be imported in vessels not of the United States, entitled, by treaty or any act of Congress, to be entered in the ports of the United States on payment of the same duties as shall then be paid on goods, wares, and merchandise imported in vessels of the United States. (R. S. § 2502; Oct. 3, 1913, c. 16, § IV, J, subsec. 1, 38 Stat. 195.)

Chapter 6.—REGULATION AS TO VESSELS CARRYING STEERAGE PASSENGERS.

Sec.
151. Accommodations for steerage passengers in vessels from foreign ports.
152. Berths for passengers.
153. Light, air, and accommodations for passengers.
154. Food.
155. Hospitals, surgeon, and medicine.
156. Discipline and cleanliness; space for exercise of passengers.
157. Visiting parts of vessel occupied by passengers.
158. Boarding vessel on arrival; passenger lists.
159. Death of passenger; payment to collector for.
160. Inspection and examination of vessels; reports.
161. Vessels carrying emigrant passengers to foreign countries; withholding clearance papers.
162. Fines and penalties; lien on vessel; recovery.
163. Regulations as to boarding arriving vessels before inspection.

Section 151. Accommodations for steerage passengers in* vessels from foreign ports.—It shall not be lawful for the master of any vessel whereon steerage passengers have been taken at any port or place in the foreign country or dominion (ports and places in foreign territory contiguous to the United States excepted) to bring such vessel and passengers to or take from any port or place in the United States unless the compartments, spaces, and accommodations hereinafter mentioned have been provided, allotted, maintained, and used for and by such passengers during the entire voyage, unobstructed by cargo, stores, or goods. The master of a vessel coming to a port or place in the United States in violation of any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and if the number of steerage passengers carried or brought in the vessel, or in any compartment, space, poop, or deck house thereof, is greater than the number allowed to be carried or brought therein, respectively, as hereinafter prescribed, the said master shall be fined $50 for each and every such passenger in excess of the proper number, and may also be imprisoned not exceeding six months.

In computing the number of passengers carried or brought in any vessel, children under one year of age shall not be included, and two children between one and eight years of age shall be counted as one passenger; and any person brought in such vessel who shall have been, during the voyage, taken from any other vessel wrecked or in distress on the high seas, or have been picked up at sea from any boat, raft, or otherwise, shall not be included in such computation.

Second. The expression "steerage passenger" means all passengers except cabin passengers, and persons shall not be deemed cabin passengers unless the space allotted to their exclusive use is in the proportion of at least thirty-six clear superficial feet to each passenger.

Third. The expression "lowest passenger deck" means the deck next below the water line; and the expression "passenger deck" includes every deck or portion of a deck which is above the lowest passenger deck, and is appropriated for passengers.

Fourth. A vessel shall not carry passengers, whether cabin or steerage passengers, on more than one deck below the water line.

Fifth. The height between that part of any deck on which steerage passengers are carried and the deck immediately above it shall not be less than six feet.

Sixth. No steerage passengers shall be carried on the lowest passenger deck unless it is efficiently lighted by side scuttles and otherwise to the satisfaction of the inspector.

Seventh. No greater number of steerage passengers shall be carried on the lowest passenger deck than in the proportion of one steerage passenger to every twenty-one clear superficial feet allotted to their use. If, however, the height between the lowest passenger deck and the deck immediately above it is less than seven feet, and the apertures, exclusive of side scuttles, through which light and air are admitted are less in size than in the proportion of three square feet to every one hundred superficial feet of that deck, no greater number of steerage passengers shall be carried on that deck than in the proportion of one steerage passenger to every thirty clear superficial feet thereof, subject to the allowance for measurement of public rooms, lavatories, and bathrooms, if any, provided for by paragraph 10.

Eighth. No greater number of steerage passengers may be carried on a passenger deck than in the proportion of one steerage passenger to every eighteen clear superficial feet of deck alloted to their use, subject to the allowance for measurement of public rooms, lavatories, and bathrooms, if any, provided for by paragraph 10. If, however, the height between any passenger deck and the deck immediately above it be less than seven feet, no greater number of steerage passengers may be carried on that deck than in the proportion of one steerage passenger to every twenty-one clear superficial feet thereof, subject to the allowance for measurement of public rooms, lavatories, and bathrooms, if any, provided for by paragraph 10.

Ninth. A vessel, whatever be the superficial space of the passenger decks and of the lowest passenger deck, shall not carry a greater number of steerage passengers on the whole than in the proportion of one steerage passenger to every five superficial feet of air or promenade space provided on a deck so open as not to be included in the tonnage and approved by the inspector, and this space shall not be counted or included in the area available for any other passengers, or in other areas for steerage passengers prescribed by this section.

Tenth. In the measurement of the passenger decks and of the lowest passenger deck, the space occupied by that part of the personal baggage of the steerage passengers which the inspector permits to be carried there shall be included, and also, on whatever deck located, commodious and suitable dining rooms, lounging rooms, smoking rooms, lavatories, toilet rooms, and bathrooms: Provided, That—

(a) The space in any place appropriated to the use of steerage passengers in which they sleep shall not be less than eighteen superficial feet in the case of the lowest passenger deck and fifteen superficial feet in the case of a passenger deck.

(b) Each space so included in the measurement must be clearly marked to the satisfaction of the inspector as being exclusively appropriated for the use of the steerage passengers.

Eleventh. Each separate compartment in which steerage passengers are berthed shall be conspicuously marked, showing the total area of such compartments. (Aug. 2, 1882, c. 374, § 1, 22 Stat. 186; Dec. 19, 1908, c. 6, § 1, 35 Stat. 583.)

152. Berths for passengers.—Sufficient number required.—In every such steamship or other vessel there shall be a sufficient number of berths for the proper accommodation as hereinafter provided, of all such passengers.

Number of tiers; construction and occupancy.—There shall not be on any deck nor in any compartment or space occupied by such passengers more than two tiers of berths. The berths shall be properly constructed, and be separated from each other by partitions, as berths ordinarily are separated, and each berth shall be at least two feet in width and six feet in length; and the interval between the floor or lowest part of the lower tier of berths and the deck beneath them shall not be less than six inches, nor the interval between each tier of berths, and the interval between the uppermost tier and the deck above it, less than two feet six inches; and each berth shall be occupied by not more than one passenger over eight years of age; but double berths of twice the above-mentioned width may be provided, each double berth to be occupied by no more and by none other than two women, or by one woman and two children under the age of eight years, or by husband and wife, or by a man and two of his own children under the age of eight years, or by two men personally acquainted with each other.

Berths for males.—All the male passengers upwards of fourteen years of age who do not occupy berths with their wives shall be berthed in the fore part of the vessel, in a compartment divided off from the space or spaces appropriated to the other passengers by a substantial and well-secured bulkhead.

Berths for unmarried females.—Unmarried female passengers shall be berthed in a compartment separated from the spaces occupied by other passengers by a substantial and well-constructed bulkhead, the opening or communication from which to an adjoining passenger space shall be so constructed that it can be closed and secured.

Families.—Families shall not be separated except with their consent.

Berths to be numbered.—Each berth shall be numbered serially, on the outside berth board, according to the number of passengers that may lawfully occupy the berth; and the berths occupied by such passengers shall not be removed or taken down until the expiration of twelve hours from the time of entry, unless previously inspected within a shorter period.

Penalties.—For any violation of either of the provisions of this section the master of the vessel shall be liable to a fine of $5 for each passenger carried or brought on the vessel. (Aug 2, 1882, c. 374, § 2, 22 Stat. 186.)

153. Light, air, and accommodations for passengers.—Light and air.—Every such steamship or other vessel shall have adequate provision for affording light and air to the passenger decks and to the compartments and spaces occupied by such passengers, and with adequate means and appliances for ventilating the said compartments and spaces.

Ventilators.—To compartments having sufficient space for fifty or more of such passengers at least two ventilators, each not less than twelve inches in diameter, shall be provided, one of which ventilators shall be inserted in the forward part of the compartment, and the other in the after part thereof, and shall be so constructed as to ventilate the compartment; and additional ventilators shall be provided for each compartment in the proportion of two ventilators for each additional fifty of such passengers carried or brought in the compartment. All ventilators shall be carried at least six feet above the uppermost deck of the vessel, and shall be of the most approved form and construction. In any steamship the ventilating apparatus provided, or any method of ventilation adopted thereon, which has been approved by the proper emigration officers at the port or place from which said vessel was cleared, shall be deemed a compliance with the foregoing provisions.

Hatchways and companionways.—In all vessels carrying or bringing such passengers there shall be properly constructed hatchways over the compartments or spaces occupied by such passengers, which hatchway shall be properly covered with houses or booby hatches, and the combings or sills of which shall rise at least six inches above the deck; and there shall be proper companionways or ladders from each hatchway leading to the compartments or spaces occupied by such passengers; and the said companionways or ladders shall be securely constructed, and be provided with handrails or strong rope, and, when the weather will permit, such passengers shall have the use of each hatchway situated over the compartment or spaces appropriated to their use.

Caboose and cooking apparatus.—Every vessel carrying or bringing such passengers shall have a properly located and constructed caboose and cooking range, or other cooking apparatus, the dimensions and capacity of which shall be sufficient to provide for properly cooking and preparing the food of all such passengers.

Water-closets.—In every vessel carrying or bringing such passengers there shall be at least two water-closets or privies, and an additional water-closet or privy for every one hundred male passengers on board, for the exclusive use of such male passengers, and an additional water-closet or privy for every fifty female passengers on board, for the exclusive use of the female passengers and young children on board. The aforesaid water-closets and privies shall be properly inclosed and located on each side of the vessel, and shall be separated from passengers' spaces by substantial and properly constructed partitions or bulkheads; and the water-closets and privies shall be kept and maintained in a serviceable and cleanly condition throughout the voyage.

Penalties.—For any violation of either of the provisions of this section, or for any neglect to conform to the requirements thereof, the master of the vessel shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $250. (Aug. 2, 1882, c. 374, § 3, 22 Stat. 187.)

154. Food.—Allowance of.—An allowance of good, wholesome, and proper food, with a reasonable quantity of fresh provisions, which food shall be equal in value to one and a half Navy rations of the United States, and of fresh water, not less than four quarts per day, shall be furnished each of such passengers.

Number of meals per day.—Three meals shall be served daily, at regular and stated hours, of which hours sufficient notice shall be given.

Short allowance.—If any such passengers shall at any time during the voyage be put on short allowance for food and water, the master of the vessel shall pay to each passenger $3 for each and every day the passenger may have been put on short allowance, except in case of accidents, where the captain is obliged to put the passengers on short allowance.

Milk for infants.—Mothers with infants and young children shall be furnished the necessary quantity of wholesome milk or condensed milk for the sustenance of the latter.

Tables and seats.—Tables and seats shall be provided for the use of passengers at regular meals.

Penalties.—For every willful violation of any of the provisions of this section the master of the vessel shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $500, and be imprisoned for a term not exceeding six months. The enforcement of this penalty, however, shall not affect the civil responsibility of the master and owners of the vessel to such passengers as may have suffered from any negligence, breach of contract, or default on the part of such master and owners. (Aug. 2, 1882, c. 374, § 4, 22 Stat. 188.)

155. Hospitals, surgeon, and medicine.—In every such steamship or other vessel there shall be properly built and secured, or divided off from other spaces, two compartments or spaces to be used exclusively as hospitals for such passengers, one for men and the other for women. The hospitals shall be located in a space not below the deck next below the main deck of the vessel. The hospital spaces shall in no case be less than in the proportion of eighteen clear superficial feet for every fifty such passengers who are carried or brought on the vessel, and such hospitals shall be supplied with proper beds, bedding, and utensils, and be kept so supplied throughout the voyage. And every steamship or other vessel carrying or bringing emigrant passengers, or passengers other than cabin passengers, exceeding fifty in number, shall carry a duly qualified and competent surgeon or medical practitioner, who shall be rated as such in the ship's articles, and who shall be provided with surgical instruments, medical comforts, and medicines proper and necessary for diseases and accidents incident to sea voyages, and for the proper medical treatment of such passengers during the voyage, and with such articles of food and nourishment as may be proper and necessary for preserving the health of infants and young children; and the services of such surgeon or medical practitioner shall be promptly given, in any case of sickness or disease, to any of the passengers, or to any infant or young child of any such passengers, who may need his services. For a violation of either of the provisions of this section the master of the vessel shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $250. (Aug. 2, 1882, c. 374, § 5, 22 Stat. 188.)

156. Discipline and cleanliness; space for exercise of passengers.—The master of every such steamship or other vessel is authorized to maintain good discipline and such habits of cleanliness among such passengers as will tend to the preservation and promotion of health, and to that end he shall cause such regulations as he may adopt for such purpose to be posted up on board the vessel, in a place or places accessible to such passengers, and shall keep the same so posted up during the voyage. The said master shall cause the compartments and spaces provided for, or occupied by, such passengers to be kept at all times in a clean and healthy condition, and to be, as often as may be necessary, disinfected with chloride of lime, or by some other equally efficient disinfectant. Whenever the state of the weather will permit, such passengers and their bedding shall be mustered on deck, and a clear and sufficient space on the main or any upper deck of the vessel shall be set apart, and so kept, for the use and exercise of such passengers during the voyage. For each neglect or violation of any of the provisions of this section the master of the vessel shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $250. (Aug. 2, 1882, c. 374, § 6, 22 Stat. 188.)

157. Visiting parts of vessel occupied by passengers.—Neither the officers, seamen, nor other persons employed on any such steamship or other vessel shall visit or frequent any part of the vessel provided or assigned to the use of such passengers, except by the direction or permission of the master of such vessel first made or given for such purpose; and every officer, seaman, or other person employed on board of such vessel who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and may be fined not exceeding $100, and be imprisoned not exceeding twenty days, for each violation; and the master of such vessel who directs or permits any officer, seaman, or other person employed on board the vessel to visit or frequent any part of the vessel provided for or assigned to the use of such passengers, or the compartments or spaces occupied by such passengers, except for the purpose of doing or performing some necessary act or duty as an officer, seaman, or other person employed on board of the vessel, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and may be fined not more than $100 for each time he directs or permits the provisions of this section to be violated. A copy of this section, written or printed in the language or principal languages of the passengers on board, shall, by or under the direction of the master of the vessel, be posted in a conspicuous place on the forecastle and in the several parts of the vessel provided and assigned for the use of such passengers, and in each compartment or space occupied by such passengers, and the same shall be kept so posted during the voyage; and if the said master neglects so to do, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not more than $100. (Aug. 2, 1882, c. 374, § 7, 22 Stat. 189.)

158. Boarding vessel on arrival; passenger lists.—It shall not be lawful for the master of any such steamship or other vessel, not in distress, after the arrival of the vessel within any collection district of the United States, to allow any person or persons, except a pilot, officer of the customs, or health officer, agents of the vessel, and consuls, to come on board of the vessel, or to leave the vessel, until the vessel has been taken in charge by an officer of the customs, nor, after charge so taken, without leave of such officer, until all the passengers, with their baggage, have been duly landed from the vessel. On the arrival of any such steamship or other vessel within any collection district of the United States, the master shall submit for inspection to the officer of customs who first makes demand therefor, and shall subsequently deliver with his manifest of cargo on entry, a correct list, signed and verified on oath by the master, of all passengers taken on board the vessel at any foreign port or place, specifying, in the manner to be prescribed from time to time by the Secretary of Commerce, the name of each passenger, age (if a child of eight years or under), sex, married or single, location of compartment or space occupied during the voyage (if the passenger be other than a cabin passenger), whether a citizen of the United States, number of pieces of baggage, and if any passenger die on the voyage the list shall specify the name, age, and cause of death of each deceased passenger.

For a violation of either of the provisions of this section, or for permitting or neglecting to prevent a violation thereof, the master of the vessel shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $1,000. (Aug. 2, 1882, c. 374, § 9, 22 Stat. 189; Feb. 9, 1905, c. 564, § 1, 33 Stat. 711; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

159. Death of passengers; payment to collector for.—In case there shall have occurred on board any such steamship or other vessel any death among such passengers during the voyage, the master or consignees of the vessel shall, within forty-eight hours after the arrival of the vessel within a collection district of the United States, or within twenty-four hours after the entry of the vessel, pay to the collector of customs of such district the sum of $10 for each and every such passenger above the age of eight years who shall have died on the voyage by natural disease; and the master or consignees of any vessel who neglect or refuse to pay such collector, within the times described, the sums of money aforesaid, shall be liable to a penalty of $50 in addition to the sum required to be paid as aforesaid for each passenger whose death occurred on the voyage. All sums of money paid to any collector under the provisions of this section shall be by him paid into the Treasury of the United States in such manner and under such regulations as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce. (Aug. 2, 1882, c. 374, § 10, 22 Stat. 190; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

160. Inspection and examination of vessels; reports.—The collector of customs of the collection district within which, or the surveyor of the port at which, any such steamship or other vessel arrives, shall direct an inspector or other officer of the customs to make an examination of the vessel, and to admeasure the compartments or spaces occupied by the emigrant passengers, or passengers other than cabin passengers, during the voyage; and such measurement shall be made in the manner provided by law for admeasuring vessels for tonnage; and to compare the number of such passengers found on board with the list of such passengers furnished by the master to the customs officer; and the said inspector or other officer shall make a report to the aforesaid collector or surveyor, stating the port of departure, the time of sailing, the length of the voyage, the ventilation, the number of such passengers on board the vessel, and their native country, respectively; the cubic quantity of each compartment or space, and the number of berths and passengers in each space, the kind and quality of the food furnished to such passengers on the voyage; the number of deaths, and the age and sex of those who died during the voyage, and of what disease; and in case there was any unusual sickness or mortality during the voyage, to report whether the same was caused by any neglect or violation of the provisions of sections 151 to 162, inclusive, or by the want of proper care against disease by the master or owners of the vessel; and the said reports shall be forwarded to the Secretary of Commerce at such times and in such manner as he shall direct. (Aug. 2, 1882, c. 374, § 11, 22 Stat. 190; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

161. Vessels carrying emigrant passengers to foreign countries; withholding clearance papers.—The provisions of sections 151 to 162, inclusive, shall apply to every steamship or other vessel whereon emigrant passengers, or passengers other than cabin passengers, are taken on board at a port or place in the United States for conveyance to any port or place in a foreign country except foreign territory contiguous to the United States, and shall also apply to any vessel whereon such passengers are taken on board at any port or place of the United States on the Atlantic Ocean or its tributaries for conveyance to a port or place on the Pacific Ocean or its tributaries, or vice versa; and whether the voyage of said vessel is to be continuous from port to port or such passengers are to be conveyed from port to port in part by the way of any overland route through Mexico or Central America; and the said collector of customs may direct an examination of the vessel to be made by an inspector or other officer of the customs, who shall make the examination and report whether the provisions of sections 151 to 162, inclusive, have been complied with in respect to such vessel, and the said collector is authorized to withhold the clearance of such vessel until the coming in of such report; and if the said report shall show that any of the provisions of said sections have not been complied with, the collector is authorized and directed to withhold the clearance of such vessel until the said provisions are complied with; and if any such vessel leaves the aforesaid port or place without having been duly cleared by the collector of customs, the master shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and may be fined not exceeding $1,000, and be imprisoned not exceeding one year, and the vessel shall be liable to seizure and forfeiture. (Aug. 2, 1882, c. 374, § 12, 22 Stat. 191.)

162. Fines and penalties; lien on vessel; recovery.—The amount of the several fines and penalties imposed by sections 151 to 159, inclusive, 161, and 171 upon the master of any steamship or other vessel carrying or bringing emigrant passengers, or passengers other than cabin passengers, for any violation of the said provisions, shall be liens upon such vessel, and such vessel may be libeled therefor in any district court of the United States where such vessel shall arrive or depart. (Aug. 2, 1882, c. 374, § 13, 22 Stat. 191.)

163. Regulations as to boarding arriving vessels before inspection.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized and directed to prescribe from time to time and enforce regulations governing the boarding of vessels arriving at the seaports of the United States, before such vessels have been properly inspected and placed in security, and for that purpose to employ any of the officers of that department. Each person violating such regulations shall be subject to a penalty of not more than $100 or imprisonment not to exceed six months, or both, in the discretion of the court. This section shall be construed as supplementary to section 158 and section 708. (Mar. 31, 1900, c. 120, §§ 1, 2, 3, 31 Stat. 58; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

Chapter 7.—TRANSPORTATION OF EXPLOSIVES OR DANGEROUS SUBSTANCES ON PASSENGER VESSELS.

Sec.
171. Carrying explosives or other dangerous articles; animals.
172. Transportation of nitroglycerin or oil.
173. Packing and marking.
174. Regulation by States.
175. Shipping inflammable materials.

Section 171. Carrying explosives or other dangerous articles; animals.—It shall not be lawful to take, carry, or have on board of any such steamship or other vessel referred to in the preceding chapter any nitroglycerin, dynamite, or any other explosive article or compound, nor any vitriol or like acids, nor gunpowder, except for the ship's use, nor any article or number of articles, whether as a cargo or ballast, which, by reason of the nature or quantity or mode of storage thereof, shall, either singly or collectively, be likely to endanger the health or lives of the passengers or the safety of the vessel, and horses, cattle, or other animals taken on board of or brought in any such vessel shall not be carried on any deck below the deck on which passengers are berthed, nor in any compartment in which passengers are berthed, nor in any adjoining compartment except in a vessel built of iron and of which the compartments are divided off by water-tight bulkheads extending to the upper deck. For every violation of any of the provisions of this section the master of the vessel shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not exceeding $1,000, and be imprisoned for a period not exceeding one year. (Aug. 2, 1882, c. 374, § 8, 22 Stat. 189.)

172. Transportation of nitroglycerin or oil.—It shall not be lawful to transport, carry, or convey, ship, deliver on board, or cause to be delivered on board, the substance or article known or designated as nitroglycerin, or glynoin oil, nitroleum or blasting oil, or nitrated oil, or powder mixed with any such oil, or fiber saturated with any such article or substance, upon or in any vessel or vehicle used or employed in transporting passengers by land or water between a place in any foreign country and a place within the limits of any State, Territory, or district of the United States, or between a place in one State, Territory, or district of the United States, and a place in any other State, Territory, or district thereof. (R. S. § 4278.)

173. Packing and marking.—It shall not be lawful to ship, send, or forward any quantity of the substances or articles named in the preceding section, or to transport, convey, or carry the same by a vessel or vehicle of any description, upon land or water, between a place in a foreign country and a place within the United States, or between a place in one State, Territory, or district of the United States, and a place in any other State, Territory, or district thereof, unless the same shall be securely inclosed, deposited, or packed in a metallic vessel surrounded by plaster of Paris, or other material that will be nonexplosive when saturated with such oil or substance, and separate from all other substances, and the outside of the package containing the same be marked, printed, or labeled in a conspicuous manner with the words "Nitroglycerin, dangerous." (R. S. § 4279.)

174. Regulation by States.—The two preceding sections shall not be so construed as to prevent any State, Territory, district, city, or town within the United States from regulating or from prohibiting the traffic in or transportation of those substances, between persons or places lying or being within their respective territorial limits, or from prohibiting the introduction thereof into such limits, for sale, use, or consumption therein. (R. S. § 4280.)

175. Shipping inflammable materials.—Any person shipping oil or vitriol, unslaked lime, inflammable matches, or gunpowder, in a vessel taking cargo for divers persons on freight, without delivering, at the time of shipment, a note in writing, expressing the nature and character of such merchandise, to the master, mate, officer, or person in charge of the lading of the vessel, shall be liable to the United States in a penalty of $1,000.

Chapter 8.—LIMITATION OF VESSEL OWNER'S LIABILITY.

Sec.
181. Liability of masters as carriers.
182. Loss by fire.
183. Liability of owner not to exceed interest.
184. Apportionment of compensation.
185. Transfer of interest of owner to trustee.
186. Charterer may be deemed owner.
187. Remedies reserved.
188. Limitation of liability of owners applied to all vessels.
189. Limitation of liability of owners of vessels for debts.
190. Stipulations relieving from liability for negligence.
191. Stipulations relieving from exercise of due diligence in equiping vessels.
192. Limitation of liability for errors of navigation, dangers of the sea, and acts of God.
193. Bills of lading to be issued; contents.
194. Penalties; lien; recovery.
195. Certain provisions inapplicable to transportation of live animals.

181. Liability of masters as carriers.—If any shipper of platina, gold, gold dust, silver, bullion, or other precious metals, coins, jewelry, bills of any bank or public body, diamonds, or other precious stones, or any gold or silver in a manufactured or unmanufactured state, watches, clocks, or timepieces of any description, trinkets, orders, notes, or securities for payment of money, stamps, maps, writings, title deeds, printings, engravings, pictures, gold or silver plate or plated articles, glass, china, silks in a manufactured or unmanufactured state, and whether wrought up or not wrought up with any other material, furs, or lace, or any of them, contained in any parcel, or package, or trunk, shall lade the same as freight or baggage, on any vessel, without at the time of such lading giving to the master, clerk, agent, or owner of such vessel receiving the same a written notice of the true character and value thereof, and having the same entered on the bill of lading therefor, the master and owner of such vessel shall not be liable as carriers thereof in any form or manner; nor shall any such master or owner be liable for any such goods beyond the value and according to the character thereof so notified and entered. (R. S. § 4281.)

182. Loss by fire.—No owner of any vessel shall be liable to answer for or make good to any person any loss or damage, which may happen to any merchandise whatsoever, which shall be shipped, taken in, or put on board any such vessel, by reason or by means of any fire happening to or on board the vessel, unless such fire is caused by the design or neglect of such owner. (R. S. § 4282.)

183. Liability of owner not to exceed interest.—The liability of the owner of any vessel, for any embezzlement, loss, or destruction, by any person, of any property, goods, or merchandise, shipped or put on board of such vessel, or for any loss, damage, or injury by collision, or for any act, matter, or thing, loss, damage, or forfeiture, done, occasioned, or incurred without the privity, or knowledge of such owner or owners, shall in no case exceed the amount or value of the interest of such owner in such vessel, and her freight then pending. (R. S. § 4283.)

184. Apportionment of compensation.—Whenever any such embezzlement, loss, or destruction is suffered by several freighters or owners of goods, wares, merchandise, or any property whatever, on the same voyage, and the whole value of the vessel, and her freight for the voyage, is not sufficient to make compensation to each of them, they shall receive compensation from the owner of the vessel in proportion to their respective losses; and for that purpose the freighters and owners of the property, and the owner of the vessel, or any of them, may take the appropriate proceedings in any court, for the purpose of apportioning the sum for which the owner of the vessel may be liable among the parties entitled thereto. (R. S. § 4284; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 251.)

185. Transfer of interest of owner to trustee.—It shall be deemed a sufficient compliance on the part of such owner with the requirements of this chapter relating to his liability for any embezzlement, loss, or destruction of any property, goods, or merchandise, if he shall transfer his interest in such vessel and freight, for the benefit of such claimants, to a trustee, to be appointed by any court of competent jurisdiction, to act as such trustee for the person who may prove to be legally entitled thereto; from and after which transfer all claims and proceedings against the owner shall cease. (R. S. § 4285.)

186. Charterer may be deemed owner.—The charterer of any vessel, in case he shall man, victual, and navigate such vessel at his own expense, or by his own procurement, shall be deemed the owner of such vessel within the meaning of the provisions of this chapter relating to the limitation of the liability of the owners of vessels; and such vessel, when so chartered, shall be liable in the same manner as if navigated by the owner thereof. (R. S. § 4286.)

187. Remedies reserved.—Nothing in the five preceding sections shall be construed to take away or affect the remedy to which any party may be entitled, against the master, officers, or seamen, for or on account of any embezzlement, injury, loss, or destruction of merchandise, or property, put on board any vessel, or on account of any negligence, fraud, or other malversation of such master, officers, or seamen, respectively, nor to lessen or take away any responsibility to which any master or seaman of any vessel may by law be liable, notwithstanding such master or seaman may be an owner or part owner of the vessel. (R. S. § 4287.)

188. Limitation of liability of owners applied to all vessels.—The provisions of the six preceding sections, and of sections 175 and 189, shall apply to all seagoing vessels, and also to all vessels used on lakes or rivers or in inland navigation, including canal boats, barges, and lighters. (R. S. § 4289; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 320; June 19, 1886, c. 421, § 4, 24 Stat. 80.)

189. Limitation of liability of owners of vessels for debts.—The individual liability of a shipowner shall be limited to the proportion of any or all debts and liabilities that his individual share of the vessel bears to the whole; and the aggregate liabilities of all the owners of a vessel on account of the same shall not exceed the value of such vessels and freight pending: Provided, That this provision shall not prevent any claimant from joining all the owners in one action; nor shall the same apply to wages due to persons employed by said shipowners. (June 26, 1884, c. 121, § 18, 23 Stat. 57.)

190. Stipulations relieving from liability for negligence.—It shall not be lawful for the manager, agent, master, or owner of any vessel transporting merchandise or property from or between ports of the United States and foreign ports to insert in any bill of lading or shipping document any clause, covenant, or agreement whereby it, he, or they shall be relieved from liability for loss or damage arising from negligence, fault, or failure in proper loading, stowage, custody, care, or proper delivery of any and all lawful merchandise or property committed to its or their charge. Any and all words or clauses of such import inserted in bills of lading or shipping receipts shall be null and void and of no effect. (Feb. 13, 1893, c. 105, § 1, 27 Stat. 445.)

191. Stipulations relieving from exercise of due diligence in equipping vessels.—It shall not be lawful for any vessel transporting merchandise or property from or between ports of the United States of America and foreign ports, her owner, master, agent, or manager, to insert in any bill of lading or shipping document any covenant or agreement whereby the obligations of the owner or owners of said vessel to exercise due diligence properly equip, man, provision, and outfit said vessel, and to make said vessel seaworthy and capable of performing her intended voyage, or whereby the obligations of the master, officers, agents, or servants to carefully handle and stow her cargo and to care for and properly deliver same, shall in any wise be lessened, weakened, or avoided. (Feb. 13, 1893, c. 105, § 2, 27 Stat. 445.)

192. Limitation of liability for errors of navigation, dangers of the sea and acts of God.—If the owner of any vessel transporting merchandise or property to or from any port in the United States of America shall exercise due diligence to make the said vessel in all respects seaworthy and properly manned, equipped, and supplied, neither the vessel, her owner or owners, agent, or charterers, shall become or be held responsible for damage or loss resulting from faults or errors in navigation or in the management of said vessel nor shall the vessel, her owner or owners, charterers, agent, or master be held liable for losses arising from dangers of the sea or other navigable waters, acts of God, or public enemies, or the inherent defect, quality, or vice of the thing carried, or from insufficiency of package, or seizure under legal process, or for loss resulting from any act or omission of the shipper or owner of the goods, his agent or representative, or from saving or attempting to save life or property at sea, or from any deviation in rendering such service. (Feb. 13, 1893, c. 105, § 3, 27 Stat. 445.)

193. Bills of lading to be issued; contents.—It shall be the duty of the owner or owners, masters, or agent of any vessel transporting merchandise or property from or between ports of the United States and foreign ports to issue to shippers of any lawful merchandise a bill of lading, or shipping document, stating, among other things, the marks necessary for identification, number of packages, or quantity, stating whether it be carrier's or shipper's weight, and apparent order or condition of such merchandise or property delivered to and received by the owner, master, or agent of the vessel for transportation, and such document shall be prima facie evidence of the receipt of the merchandise therein described. (Feb. 13, 1893, c. 105, § 4, 27 Stat. 445.)

194. Penalties; lien; recovery.—For a violation of any of the provisions of the four preceding sections the agent, owner, or master of the vessel guilty of such violation, and who refuses to issue on demand the bill of lading provided for, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $2,000. The amount of the fine and costs for such violation shall be a lien upon the vessel, whose agent, owner, or master is guilty of such violation, and such vessel may be libeled therefor in any district court of the United States, within whose jurisdiction the vessel may be found. One-half of such penalty shall go to the party injured by such violation and the remainder to the Government of the United States. (Feb. 13, 1893, c. 105, § 5, 27 Stat. 446.)

195. Certain provisions inapplicable to transportation of live animals.—Sections 190 and 193 shall not apply to the transportation of live animals. (Feb. 13, 1893, c. 105, § 7, 27 Stat. 446.)

Chapter 9.—LOG BOOKS.

Sec.
201. Entries.
202. Mode of making entries.
203. Penalty for omitting entries.

Section 201. Entries.—Every vessel making voyages from a port in the United States to any foreign port, or, being of the burden of seventy-five tons or upward, from a port on the Atlantic to a port on the Pacific, or vice versa, shall have an official log book; and every master of such vessel shall make, or cause to be made therein, entries of the following matters, that is to say:

First. Every legal conviction of any member of his crew, and the punishment inflicted.

Second. Every offense committed by any member of his crew for which it is intended to prosecute, or to enforce a forfeiture, together with such statement concerning the reading over such entry, and concerning the reply, if any, made to the charge, as is required by the provisions of section 702.

Third. Every offense for which punishment is inflicted on board, and the punishment inflicted.

Fourth. A statement of the conduct, character, and qualifications of each of his crew; or a statement that he declines to give an opinion of such particulars.

Fifth. Every case of illness or injury happening to any member of the crew, with the nature thereof, and the medical treatment.

Sixth. Every case of death happening on board, with the cause thereof.

Seventh. Every birth happening on board, with the sex of the infant, and the names of the parents.

Eighth. Every marriage taking place on board, with the names and ages of the parties.

Ninth. The name of every seaman or apprentice who ceases to be a member of the crew otherwise than by death, with the place, time, manner, and cause thereof.

Tenth. The wages due to any seaman or apprentice who dies during the voyage, and the gross amount of all deductions to be made therefrom.

Eleventh. The sale of the effects of any seaman or apprentice who dies during the voyage, including a statement of each article sold, and the sum received for it.

Twelfth. In every case of collision in which it is practicable so to do, the master shall, immediately after the occurrence, cause a statement thereof, and of the circumstances under which the same occurred, to be entered in the official log book. Such entry shall be made in the manner prescribed in the following section, and failure to make such entry shall subject the offender to the penalties prescribed by section 203. (R. S. § 4290; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 251; Feb. 14, 1900, c. 19, § 1, 31 Stat. 29.)

202. Mode of making entries.—Every entry required to be made in the official log book shall be signed by the master and by the mate, or some other one of the crew, and every entry in the official log book shall be made as soon as possible after the occurrence to which it relates, and, if not made on the same day as the occurrence to which it relates, shall be made and dated so as to show the date of the occurrence, and of the entry respecting it; and in no case shall any entry therein, in respect of any occurrence happening previously to the arrival of the vessel at her final port, be made more than twenty-four hours after such arrival. (R. S. § 4291.)

203. Penalty for omitting entries.—If in any case the official log book is not kept in the manner required, or if any entry directed to be made in any such log book is not made at the time and in the manner directed, the master shall, for each such offense, be liable to a penalty of not more than $25; and every person who makes, or procures to be made, or assists in making, any entry in any official log book in respect of any occurrence happening previously to the arrival of the vessel at her final port of discharge, more than twenty-four hours after such arrival, shall, for each offense, be liable to a penalty of not more than $150. (R. S. § 4292.)

Chapter 10.—REGULATION OF PILOTS AND PILOTAGE.

Sec.
211. State regulation of pilots.
212. Pilots on boundaries between States.
213. Discrimination in pilotage rates not allowed.
214. Licenses of pilots of steam vessels.
215. State regulations as to licenses of pilots of steam vessels.

Section 211. State regulation of pilots.—Until further provision is made by Congress, all pilots in the bays, inlets, rivers, harbors, and ports of the United States shall continue to be regulated in conformity with the existing laws of the States respectively wherein such pilots may be, or with such laws as the States may respectively enact for the purpose. (R. S. § 4235.)

212. Pilots on boundaries between States.—The master of any vessel coming into or going out of any port situate upon waters which are the boundary between two States, may employ any pilot duly licensed or authorized by the laws of either of the States bounded on such waters, to pilot the vessel to or from such port. (R. S. § 4236.)

213. Discrimination in pilotage rates not allowed.—No regulations or provisions shall be adopted by any State which shall make any discrimination in the rate of pilotage or half-pilotage between vessels sailing between the ports of one State and vessels sailing between the ports of different States, or any discrimination against vessels propelled in whole or in part by steam, or against national vessels of the United States; and all existing regulations or provisions making any such discrimination are annulled and abrogated. (R. S. § 4237.)

214. Licenses of pilots of steam vessels.—Whenever any person claiming to be a skillful pilot of steam vessels offers himself for a license, the inspectors shall make diligent inquiry as to his character and merits, and if satisfied, from personal examination of the applicant, with the proof that he offers that he possesses the requisite knowledge and skill, and is trustworthy and faithful, they shall grant him a license for the term of five years to pilot any such vessel within the limits prescribed in the license; but such license shall be suspended or revoked upon satisfactory evidence of negligence, unskillfulness, inattention to the duties of his station, or intemperance, or the willful violation of any provision of chapters 14 and 15. (R. S. § 4442; May 28, 1896, c. 255, § 2, 29 Stat. 188; Oct. 22, 1914, c. 334, 38 Stat. 765.)

215. State regulations as to licenses of pilots of steam vessels and pilot charges.—No State or municipal government shall impose upon pilots of steam vessels any obligation to procure a State or other license in addition to that issued by the United States, or any other regulation which will impede such pilots in the performance of the duties required by this and the following chapter; nor shall any pilot charges be levied by any such authority upon any steamer piloted as provided by said chapters; and in no case shall the fees charged for the pilotage of any steam vessel exceed the customary or legally established rates in the State where the same is performed. Nothing in said chapters shall be construed to annul or affect any regulation established by the laws of any State, requiring vessels entering or leaving a port in any such State, other than coastwise steam vessels, to take a pilot duly licensed or authorized by the laws of such State, or of a State situate upon the waters of such State. (R. S. § 4444.)

Section 221. Vessels of United States and officers defined; officers to be citizens.—Vessels registered pursuant to law and no others, except such as shall be duly qualified according to law for carrying on the coasting or fishing trade, shall be deemed vessels of the United States, and entitled to the benefits and privileges appertaining to such vessels; but no such vessel shall enjoy such benefits and privileges longer than it shall continue to be wholly owned by a citizen or citizens of the United States or a corporation created under the laws of any of the States thereof, and be commanded by a citizen of the United States. And all the officers of vessels of the United States who shall have charge of a watch, including pilots, shall in all cases be citizens of the United States. The word "officers" shall include the chief engineer and each assistant engineer in charge of a watch on vessels propelled wholly or in part by steam; and no person shall be qualified to hold a license as a commander or watch officer of a merchant vessel of the United States who is not a native-born citizen, or whose naturalization as a citizen shall not have been fully completed. In cases where on a foreign voyage, or on a voyage from an Atlantic to a Pacific port of the United States, any such vessel is for any reason deprived of the services of an officer below the grade of master, his place, or a vacancy caused by the promotion of another officer to such place, may be supplied by a person not a citizen of the United States until the first return of such vessel to its home port; and such vessel shall not be liable to any penalty or penal tax for such employment of an alien officer. (R. S. § 4131; June 26, 1884, c. 121, § 1, 23 Stat. 53; May 28, 1896, c. 255, §§ 1, 3, 29 Stat. 188, 189.)

222. Complement of officers and crew of passenger vessels; penalties.—No vessel of the United States subject to the provisions of this chapter or chapters 14 or 15 or to the inspection laws of the United States shall be navigated unless she shall have in her service and on board such complement of licensed officers and crew including certificated lifeboat men, separately stated, as may in the judgment of the local inspectors who inspect the vessel be necessary for her safe navigation. The local inspectors shall make in the certificate of inspection of the vessel an entry of such complement of officers and crew including certificated lifeboat men, separately stated, which may be changed from time to time by indorsement on such certificate by local inspectors by reason of change of conditions or employment. Such entry or indorsement shall be subject to a right of appeal, under regulations to be made by the Secretary of Commerce, to the supervising inspector and from him to the Supervising Inspector General, who shall have the power to revise, set aside, or affirm the said determination of the local inspectors.

If any such vessel is deprived of the services of any number of the crew including certificated lifeboat men, separately stated, without the consent, fault, or collusion of the master, owner, or any person interested in the vessel, the vessel may proceed on her voyage if, in the judgment of the master, she is sufficiently manned for such voyage: Provided, That the master shall ship, if obtainable, a number equal to the number of those whose services he has been deprived of by desertion or casualty, who must be of the same grade or of a higher rating with those whose places they fill. If the master shall fail to explain in writing the cause of such deficiency in the crew including certificated lifeboat men, separately stated, to the local inspectors within twelve hours of the time of the arrival of the vessel at her destination, he shall be liable to a penalty of $50. If the vessel shall not be manned as provided in this section, the owner shall be liable to a penalty of $100, or in case of an insufficient number of licensed officers to a penalty of $500. (R. S. § 4463; Apr. 2, 1908, c. 123, § 1, 35 Stat. 55; Mar. 3, 1913, c. 118, § 1, 37 Stat. 732; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 153, § 14, 38 Stat. 1182; May 11, 1918, c. 72, § 1, 40 Stat. 548.)

223. Minimum number of officers.—The board of local inspectors shall make an entry in the certificate of inspection of every ocean and coastwise seagoing merchant vessel of the United States propelled by machinery, and every ocean-going vessel carrying passengers, the minimum number of licensed deck officers required for her safe navigation according to the following scale:

No such vessel shall be navigated unless she shall have on board and in her service one duly licensed master.

Every such vessel of one thousand gross tons and over, propelled by machinery, shall have in her service and on board three licensed mates, who shall stand in three watches while such vessel is being navigated, unless such vessel is engaged in a run of less than four hundred miles from the port of departure to the port of final destination, then such vessel shall have two licensed mates; and every vessel of two hundred gross tons and less than one thousand gross tons, propelled by machinery, shall have two licensed mates.

Every such vessel of one hundred gross tons and under two hundred gross tons, propelled by machinery, shall have on board and in her service one licensed mate, but if such vessel is engaged in a trade in which the time required to make the passage from the port of departure to the port of destination exceeds twenty-four hours, then such vessel shall have two licensed mates.

Nothing in this section shall be so construed as to prevent local inspectors from increasing the number of licensed officers on any vessel subject to the inspection laws of the United States, if, in their judgment, such vessel is not sufficiently manned for her safe navigation: Provided, That this section shall not apply to fishing or whaling vessels, yachts, or motor boats as defined in chapter 16, or to wrecking vessels. (May 11, 1918, c. 72, § 2, 40 Stat. 549.)

224. Licenses of officers by inspectors.—The boards of local inspectors shall license and classify the masters, chief mates, and second and third mates, if in charge of a watch, engineers, and pilots of all steam vessels, and the masters of sail vessels of over seven hundred gross tons, and all other vessels of over one hundred gross tons carrying passengers for hire. It shall be unlawful to employ any person or for any person to serve as a master, chief mate, engineer, or pilot of any steamer or as master of any sail vessel of over seven hundred gross tons or of any other vessel of over one hundred gross tons carrying passengers for hire who is not licensed by the inspectors; and anyone violating this section shall be liable to a penalty of $100 for each offense. (R. S. § 4438; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 29, § 1, 30 Stat. 764; Jan. 25, 1907, c. 398, 34 Stat. 864; May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 2, 35 Stat. 425.)

225. Licenses to officers of vessels of the United States; exemption from draft; pay and pension.—All licenses issued to such officers shall be for a term of five years, but the holder of a license may have the same renewed for another five years in the manner prescribed in the rules and regulations of the Board of Supervising Inspectors: Provided, however, That any officer holding a license, and who is engaged in a service which necessitates his continuous absence from the United States, may make application in writing for renewal and transmit the same to the board of local inspectors, with his certificate of citizenship, if naturalized, and a statement of the applicant, verified before a consul or other officer of the United States authorized to administer an oath, setting forth the reasons for not appearing in person; and upon receiving the same the board of local inspectors that originally issued such license shall renew the same and shall notify the applicant of such renewal: Provided further, That no license as master, mate, or pilot of any class of vessel shall be renewed without furnishing a satisfactory certificate of examination as to color blindness. And in all cases where the issue is the suspension or revocation of such licenses, before the local boards of inspectors (of steam vessels), as provided for in section 239, the accused shall be allowed to appear by counsel and to testify in his own behalf. No master, mate, pilot, or engineer of steam vessels licensed under this chapter shall be liable to draft in time of war, except for the performance of duties such as required by his license; and while performing such duties in the service of the United States every such master, mate, pilot, or engineer shall be entitled to the highest rate of wages paid in the merchant marine of the United States for similar services; and if killed or wounded while performing such duties under the United States, they, or their heirs, or their legal representatives, shall be entitled to all the privileges accorded to soldiers and sailors serving in the Army or Navy, under the pension laws of the United States. (May 28, 1896, c. 255, § 2, 29 Stat. 188; Oct. 22, 1914, c. 334, 38 Stat. 765.)

226. Licenses of captains.—Whenever any person applies to be licensed as master of any steam vessel, or of a sail vessel of over seven hundred tons, the inspectors shall make diligent inquiry as to his character, and shall carefully examine the applicant as well as the proofs which he presents in support of his claim, and if they are satisfied that his capacity, experience, habits of life, and character are such as warrant the belief that he can safely be intrusted with the duties and responsibilities of the station for which he makes application, they shall grant him a license authorizing him to discharge such duties on any such vessel for the term of five years; but such license shall be suspended or revoked upon satisfactory proof of bad conduct, intemperate habits, incapacity, inattention to his duties, or the willful violation of any provision of this chapter or chapter 14 or 15 applicable to him. (R. S. § 4439; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 29, § 2, 30 Stat. 764.)

227. Removal of captain by owners.—Any person or body corporate having more than one-half ownership of any vessel shall have the same power to remove a master, who is also part owner of such vessel, as such majority owners have to remove a master not an owner. This section shall not apply where there is a valid written agreement subsisting, by virtue of which such master would be entitled to possession. (R. S. § 4250; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 320.)

228. Licenses of mates.—Whenever any person applies for authority to be employed as chief mate of ocean or coastwise steam vessels or of sail vessels of over seven hundred tons, or as second or third mate of ocean or coastwise steam vessels, who shall have charge of a watch, or whenever any person applies for authority to be employed as mate of river steamers, the inspectors shall require satisfactory evidence of the knowledge, experience, and skill of the applicant in lading cargo and in handling and stowage of freight, and if for license as chief mate on ocean or coastwise steamers, or of sail vessels of over seven hundred tons, or as second or third mate of ocean or coastwise steamers, who shall have charge of a watch, shall also examine him as to his knowledge and ability in navigation and managing such vessels and all other duties pertaining to his station, and if satisfied of his qualifications and good character they shall grant him a license authorizing him to perform such duties for the term of five years upon the waters upon which he is found qualified to act; but such license shall be suspended or revoked upon satisfactory proof of bad conduct, intemperate habits, unskillfulness, or want of knowledge of the duties of his station or the willful violation of any provision of this chapter or chapter 14 or 15. (R. S. § 4440; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 251; Mar. 23, 1898, c. 86, 30 Stat. 340; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 29, § 3, 30 Stat. 765.)

229. Licenses of engineers.—Whenever any person applies for authority to perform the duties of engineer of any steam vessel, the inspectors shall examine the applicant as to his knowledge of steam machinery, and his experience as an engineer, and also the proofs which he produces in support of his claim; and if, upon full consideration, they are satisfied that his character, habits of life, knowledge, and experience in the duties of an engineer are all such as to authorize the belief that he is a suitable and safe person to be intrusted with the powers and duties of such a station, they shall grant him a license, authorizing him to be employed in such duties for the term of five years, in which they shall assign him to the appropriate class of engineers; but such license shall be suspended or revoked upon satisfactory proof of negligence, unskillfulness, intemperance, or the willful violation of any provision of this chapter or chapter 14 or 15. Whenever complaint is made against any engineer holding a license authorizing him to take charge of the boilers and machinery of any steamer, that he has, through negligence or want of skill, permitted the boilers in his charge to burn or otherwise become in bad condition, or that he has not kept his engine and machinery in good working order, it shall be the duty of the inspectors, upon satisfactory proof of such negligence or want of skill, to revoke the license of such engineer and assign him to a lower grade or class of engineers, if they find him fitted therefor. (R. S. § 4441; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 252; May 28, 1896, c. 255, § 2, 29 Stat. 188; Oct. 22, 1914, c. 334, 38 Stat. 765.)

230. Licenses of captains or mates as pilots.—Where the master or mate is also pilot of the vessel, he shall not be required to hold two licenses to perform such duties, but the license issued shall state on its face that he is authorized to act in such double capacity. (R. S. § 4443.)

231. Oath of licensed officers.—Every master, chief mate, engineer, and pilot, who receives a license, shall, before entering upon his duties, make oath before one of the inspectors provided for, to be recorded with the certificate, that he will faithfully and honestly, according to his best skill and judgment, without concealment or reservation, perform all the duties required of him by law. Every applicant for license as either master, mate, pilot, or engineer under the provisions of this chapter shall make and subscribe to an oath or affirmation, before one of the inspectors referred to in this chapter, to the truth of all the statements set forth in his application for such license. Any person who shall make or subscribe to any oath or affirmation authorized in this chapter and knowing the same to be false shall be deemed guilty of perjury. Every licensed master, mate, pilot, or engineer who shall change, by addition, interpolation, or erasure of any kind, any certificate or license issued by any inspector or inspectors referred to in this chapter, shall, for every such offense, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not more than $500 or by imprisonment at hard labor for a term not exceeding three years. (R. S. § 4445; Mar. 23, 1900, c. 90, § 1, 31 Stat. 50.)

232. Exhibition of licenses.—Every master, mate, engineer, and pilot who shall receive a license shall, when employed upon any vessel, within forty-eight hours after going on duty, place his certificate of license, which shall be framed under glass, in some conspicuous place in such vessel, where it can be seen by passengers and others at all times: Provided, That in case of emergency such officer may be transferred to another vessel of the same owners for a period not exceeding forty-eight hours without the transfer of his license to such other vessel; and for every neglect to comply with this provision by any such master, mate, engineer, or pilot, he shall be subject to a fine of $100, or to the revocation of his license. (R. S. § 4446; Feb. 19, 1907, c. 991, 34 Stat. 897.)

233. Renewal of licenses.—When any licensed officer is employed on a steamer in a district distant from any local board of inspectors, such inspectors, or the supervising inspector of the district, may grant a renewal of his license, without such licensed officer being personally present, under such regulations as the board of supervising inspectors shall prescribe. (R. S. § 4447.)

234. Officers to assist inspectors in examinations; dismissal of inspector disclosing source of information.—All officers licensed under the provisions of this chapter shall assist the inspectors in their examination of any vessels to which such licensed officers belong and shall point out all defects and imperfections known to them in the hull, equipments, boilers, or machinery of such vessel, and shall also make known to the inspectors at the earliest opportunity all accidents or occurrences producing serious injury to the vessel, her equipments, boilers, or machinery, and in default thereof the license of any such officer so neglecting or refusing shall be suspended or revoked.

No inspector or supervising inspector receiving information from a licensed officer who is employed on any vessel as to defects in such vessel, or her equipments, boilers, or machinery, or that any provision of this chapter or chapter 14 or 15 is being violated, shall impart the name of such licensed officer, or the source of his information to any person other than his superiors in the Steamboat Inspection Service. Any inspector or supervising inspector violating this provision shall be subject to dismissal from the service. (R. S. § 4448; Mar. 3, 1915, c. 79, § 1, 38 Stat. 893.)

235. Watch duty of deck officers.—It shall be unlawful for the master, owner, agent, or other person having authority to permit an officer of any vessel to take charge of the deck watch of the vessel upon leaving or immediately after leaving port, unless such officer shall have had at least six hours off duty within the twelve hours immediately preceding the time of sailing, and no licensed officer on any ocean or coastwise vessel shall be required to do duty to exceed nine hours of any twenty-four while in port, including the date of arrival, or more than twelve hours of any twenty-four at sea, except in a case of emergency when life or property is endangered. Any violation of this section shall subject the person or persons guilty thereof to a penalty of $100. (May 11, 1918, c. 72, § 3, 40 Stat. 549.)

236. Suspension of provisions as to watch officers.—The President of the United States is authorized, whenever in his discretion the needs of foreign commerce may require, to suspend by order, so far and for such length of time as he may deem desirable, the provisions of law prescribing that all the watch officers of vessels of the United States registered for foreign trade shall be citizens of the United States. (Aug. 18, 1914, c. 256, § 2, 38 Stat. 699.)

237. Licenses to, and ownership of boats by, Indians.—All Indians of the Tsimpsean or Haida Tribe of the full or mixed blood who emigrated from British Columbia and settled at Metlakahtla on Annette Island, in southeastern Alaska, in the year 1887 and subsequent years, as well as all descendants of such Indians, and all other Indians who have since become and remained bona fide residents of said Metlakahtla, Alaska, shall, if otherwise qualified, be entitled to receive and obtain licenses as masters, pilots, and engineers, as the case may be, of any and all steamboats and other craft, and also licenses as operators of motor boats and other craft, subject to the provisions of section 404, with the same force and effect as if they had been citizens of the United States; any such Indian may be the owner of any such motor boat or other craft, subject to the provisions of the said section, although such Indian be not a citizen of the United States, without depriving said motor boat or other craft of the benefits and privileges of a vessel of the United States. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2929, § 1, 34 Stat. 1411.)

238. Certificate of eligibility for licenses to Indians.—A certificate under the hand of any officer of the customs in Alaska, to the effect that the applicant for one of the different licenses mentioned in the foregoing section comes within one of the provisions of said section, shall, together with the affidavit of the applicant to that effect, be sufficient evidence of the fact that said applicant is entitled to the privileges conferred upon said Indians by such section. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2929, § 2, 34 Stat. 1412.)

239. Investigation of conduct of officers.—The local boards of inspectors shall investigate all acts of incompetency or misconduct committed by any licensed officer while acting under the authority of his license, and shall have power to summon before them any witnesses within their respective districts, and compel their attendance by a similar process as in the United States district courts; and they may administer all necessary oaths to any witnesses thus summoned before them; and after reasonable notice in writing, given to the alleged delinquent, of the time and place of such investigation, such witnesses shall be examined, under oath, touching the performance of his duties by any such licensed officer; and if the board shall be satisfied that such licensed officer is incompetent, or has been guilty of misbehavior, negligence, or unskillfulness, or has endangered life, or willfully violated any provision of this chapter or chapter 14 or 15, they shall immediately suspend or revoke his license. (R. S. § 4450.)

240. Revocation or suspension of officer's license for refusal to serve.—If any licensed officer shall, to the hindrance of commerce, wrongfully or unreasonably refuse to perform his official duties after having signed articles or while employed on any vessel as authorized by the terms of his certificate of license, or if any pilot or engineer shall refuse to admit into the pilot house or engine room any person whom the master or owner of the vessel may desire to place there for the purpose of learning the profession, his license shall be revoked or suspended upon the same proceedings as are provided in other cases of revocation or suspension of such license. (R. S. § 4449; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1457, § 5, 33 Stat. 1030; Mar. 3, 1915, c. 79, § 1, 38 Stat. 894.)

Section 251. Vessels of United States.—Vessels of twenty tons and upward, enrolled in pursuance of this chapter, and having a license in force, or vessels of less than twenty tons, which, although not enrolled, have a license in force, as required by this chapter, and no others, shall be deemed vessels of the United States entitled to the privileges of vessels employed in the coasting trade or fisheries. (R. S. § 4311.)

252. Vessels which may be enrolled.—In order for the enrollment of any vessel, she shall possess the same qualifications, and the same requirements in all respects shall be complied with, as are required before registering a vessel; and the same powers and duties are conferred and imposed upon all officers, respectively, and the same proceedings shall be had, in enrollment of vessels, as are prescribed for similar cases in registering; and vessels enrolled, with the masters or owners thereof, shall be subject to the same requirements as are prescribed for registered vessels. (R. S. § 4312.)

253. Enrollment of vessels owned by corporations.—Enrollments and licenses for vessels owned by any incorporated company may be issued in the name of the president or secretary of such company; and such enrollments or licenses shall not be vacated or affected by any sale of shares of stock in such company. (R. S. § 4313.)

254. Oath as to corporate or individual ownership.—Previous to granting enrollment and license for any vessel owned by any incorporated company, or by an individual or individuals, the president or secretary of such company, or any other officer or agent thereof, duly authorized by said company in writing, attested by the corporate seal thereof, to act in its behalf, or the managing owner, or his agent duly authorized by power of attorney, when such vessel is owned by an individual or individuals, shall swear to the ownership of such vessel without designating the names of the persons composing such company, when such vessel is owned by a corporation, which oath shall be deemed sufficient without requiring the oath of any other person interested or concerned in such vessel. (R. S. § 4314; June 24, 1902, c. 1155, § 2, 32 Stat. 399.)

255. New enrollment on death, removal, or resignation of corporate officers.—Upon the death, removal, or resignation of the president or secretary of any incorporated company owning any steamboat or vessel, a new enrollment and license shall be taken out for such steamboat or vessel. (R. S. § 4315; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 251.)

256. Enrollment of steamboats owned by aliens.—Any steamboat employed or intended to be employed only in a river or bay of the United States, owned wholly or in part by an alien resident within the United States, may be enrolled and licensed, as if the same belonged to a citizen of the United States, subject to all the provisions of this chapter, except that, in such case, no oath shall be required that the boat belongs to a citizen of the United States. (R. S. § 4316.)

257. Bond by alien owner.—Such resident alien, owner of any steamboat, upon application for enrollment or license, shall give bond to the collector of the district, for the use of the United States, in the penalty of $1,000, with sufficient surety, conditioned that the boat shall not be employed in other waters than the rivers and bays of the United States. (R. S. § 4317.)

258. Enrollment of vessels on frontiers.—Any vessel of the United States, navigating the waters on the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers, otherwise than by sea, shall be enrolled and licensed in such form as other vessels; such enrollment and license shall authorize any such vessel to be employed either in the coasting or foreign trade on such frontiers, and no certificate of registry shall be required for vessels so employed. Such vessel shall be, in every other respect, liable to the regulations and penalties relating to registered and licensed vessels. (R. S. § 4318; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 251.)

259. Form of enrollment.—The record of the enrollment of a vessel shall be made, and an abstract or copy thereof granted, as nearly as may be in the following form: Enrollment. In conformity to Title 46, "SHIPPING," of the Code of the Laws of the United States, (inserting here the name of the person, with his occupation and place of abode, by whom the oath or affirmation is to be made), having taken and subscribed the oath (or affirmation) required by law, and having sworn (or affirmed) that he (or she, and if more than one owner adding the words "together with," and the name or names, occupation or occupations, place or places of abode of the owner or owners, and the part or proportion of such vessel belonging to each owner) is (or are) a citizen (or citizens) of the United States, and sole owner (or owners) of the ship or vessel called the (inserting here her name), of (inserting here the name of the port to which she may belong), whereof (inserting here the name of the master) is at present master, and is a citizen of the United States, and that the said ship or vessel was (inserting here when and where built), and

(inserting here the name and office, if any, of the person by whom she shall have been surveyed and measured), having certified that the said ship or vessel has (inserting here the number of decks), and (inserting here the number of masts), and that her length is (inserting here the number of feet), her breadth (inserting here the number of feet), her depth (inserting here the number of feet), and that she measures (inserting here her number of tons); that she is (describing here the particular kind of vessel, whether ship, brigantine, snow, schooner, sloop, or whatever else, together with her build, and specifying whether she has any or no gallery or head), and the said (naming the owner or the master, or other person acting in behalf of the owner or owners by whom the certificate of measurement shall have been countersigned), having agreed to the description and measurement above specified, according to the said title, the said ship or vessel has been duly enrolled at the port of (naming the port where enrolled). Given under my hand and seal, at (naming the said port), this (inserting the particular day) day of (naming the month), in the year (specifying the number of the year, in words, at length). (R. S. § 4319; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 251.)

260. Consolidation of forms of enrollment and of license.—Under the direction of the Secretary of Commerce the Commissioner of Navigation is authorized and directed from time to time to consolidate into one document in the case of any vessel of the United States the form of enrollment prescribed by the preceding section and the form of license prescribed by section 263, and such consolidated form shall be issued to a vessel of the United States in lieu of the separate enrollment and license prescribed by law on April 24, 1906, and shall be deemed sufficient compliance with the requirements of laws relating to the subject. (Apr. 24, 1906, c. 1865, § 1, 34 Stat. 136; Feb. 29, 1912, c. 47, 37 Stat. 70; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

261. Compensation of customs officers for enrollment and license not affected.—The preceding section and section 267 shall not be construed to amend any law in force on April 24, 1906, concerning the compensation of officers of the customs for service connected with the enrollment and license of vessels. (Apr. 24, 1906, c. 1865, § 3, 34 Stat. 136.)

262. License; oath not to defraud revenue.—No licensed vessel shall be employed in any trade whereby the revenue laws of the United States shall be defrauded. The master of every such vessel shall swear that he is a citizen of the United States, and that such license shall not be used for any other vessel or any other employment than that for which it was specially granted, or in any trade or business whereby the revenue of the United States may be defrauded; and if such vessels be less than twenty tons burden, the husband or managing owner shall swear that she is wholly the property of citizens of the United States; whereupon it shall be the duty of the collector of the district comprehending the port whereto such vessel may belong to grant a license. (R. S. § 4320; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69 § 1, 19 Stat. 251; Jan. 16, 1895, c. 24, § 3, 28 Stat. 625.)

263. Form of license.—The form of a license for carrying on the coasting trade or fisheries shall be as follows:

"License for carrying on the (here insert 'coasting trade,' 'whale fishery,' 'mackerel fishery,' or 'cod fishery,' as the case may be).

"In pursuance of Title 46, of the Code of the Laws of the United States (inserting here the name of the husband or managing owner, with his occupation and place of abode, and the name of the master, with the place of his abode), having sworn that the (insert here the description of the vessel, whether ship, brigantine, snow, schooner, sloop, or whatever else she may be), called the (insert here the vessel's name), whereof the said (naming the master) is master, burden (insert here the number of tons, in words) tons as appears by her enrollment, dated at (naming the district, day, month, and year, in words at length, but if she be less than twenty tons, insert, instead thereof, 'proof being had of her admeasurement'), shall not be employed in any trade, while this license shall continue in force, whereby the revenue of the United States shall be defrauded, and having also sworn (or affirmed) that this license shall not be used for any other vessel, or for any other employment, than is herein specified, license is hereby granted for the said (inserting here the description of the vessel) called the (inserting here the vessel's name), to be employed in carrying on the (inserting here 'coasting trade,' 'whale fishery,' 'mackerel fishery,' or 'cod fishery,' as the case may be), for one year from the date hereof, and no longer. Given under my hand and seal, at (naming the said district), this (inserting the particular day) day of (naming the month), in the year (specifying the number of the year in words at length)." (R. S. § 4321.)

264. Exchange of enrollment and registry.—The collectors of the several districts may enroll and license any vessel that may be registered, upon such registry being given up, or may register any vessel that may be enrolled, upon such enrollment and license being given up. (R. S. § 4322.)

265. Exchange; when vessel is in another district.—When any vessel shall be in any other district than the one to which she belongs, the collector of such district, on the application of the master thereof, and upon his taking an oath that, according to his best knowledge and belief, the property remains as expressed in the register or enrollment proposed to be given up, shall make the exchange of an enrollment for a register or a register for an enrollment; but in every such case, the collector to whom the register or enrollment and license may be given up shall transmit the same to the Commissioner of Navigation; and the register, or enrollment and license, granted in lieu thereof, shall, within ten days after the arrival of such vessel within the district to which she belongs, be delivered to the collector of the district, and be by him canceled. If the master shall neglect to deliver the register or enrollment and license within such time, he shall be liable to a penalty of $100. (R. S. § 4323; July 5, 1884, c. 221, 23 Stat. 118.)

266. Expiration of license.—No license, granted to any vessel, shall be considered in force any longer than such vessel is owned, and of the description set forth in such license, or for carrying on any other business or employment than that for which she is specially licensed. (R. S. § 4324.)

267. Presentation of license for renewal by indorsement; surrender.—The license granted to any vessel shall be presented for renewal by indorsement to the collector of customs of the district in which the vessel then may be within three days after the expiration of the time for which it was granted, or, if she be absent at that time, within three days from her first arrival within a district. In case of change of build, ownership, district, trade, or arrival under temporary papers in the district where she belongs the license shall be surrendered. If the master shall fail to deliver the license he shall be liable to a penalty of $10, which shall not be mitigated. (R. S. § 4325; Apr. 24, 1906, c. 1865, § 2, 34 Stat. 136.)

268. Exemption from penalty; loss of license.—If such license shall have been previously given up to the collector of any other district, as authorized by this chapter, and a certificate thereof under the hand of such collector be produced by such master, or if such license be lost, or destroyed, or unintentionally mislaid so that it can not be found, and the master of such vessel shall make and subscribe an oath that such license is lost, destroyed, or unintentionally mislaid, as he verily believes, and that the same, if found, shall be delivered up, as is required, then the penalty prescribed in the preceding section shall not be incurred. If such license shall be lost, destroyed, or unintentionally mislaid, before the expiration of the time for which it was granted, upon the like oath being made and subscribed by the master of such vessel, the collector, upon application being made therefor, shall license such vessel anew. (R. S. § 4326.)

269. Return and cancellation; new license.—The owner of any licensed vessel may return such license to the collector who granted the same, at any time within the year for which it was granted; and thereupon the collector shall cancel the same, and shall license such vessel anew, upon the application of the owner, and upon the conditions hereinbefore required being complied with. (R. S. § 4327.)

270. Renewal when vessel is in another district.—Whenever it becomes necessary for the owner of any vessel of the United States navigating the waters of the United States, and being in a district other than that to which such vessel belongs, to procure her enrollment and license, or license or renewal thereof, the same proceedings may be had in the district in which the vessel then is, as are required by law on application for such enrollment and license, or license, or renewal thereof, as the case may be, in the district to which such vessel belongs, excepting the enrollment and issuance of license; and the officer before whom such proceeding is had shall certify the same to the collector of the district to which such vessel belongs, who shall thereupon duly enroll the vessel and issue license in the same form as if the application had originally been made in his office; and shall either deliver the license to the owner, or forward it by mail to the officer who certified to him the preliminary proceedings; and in the latter case, such officer shall deliver the license to the owner or master of the vessel. (R. S. § 4328; Apr. 17, 1874, c. 106, 18 Stat. 30.)

271. Renewal on sale of vessel.—Whenever it appears, by satisfactory proof, to the Secretary of Commerce that any vessel has been sold and transferred by process of law, and that the certificate of enrollment or license of such vessel is retained by the former owner, the Secretary may direct the collector of the district to which such vessel belongs to grant a new certificate of enrollment or license, on the owner's, under such sale, complying with such terms and conditions as are by law required for granting of such papers, excepting only the delivering up of the former certificate of enrollment or license. But nothing in this section shall be construed to remove the liability of any person to any penalty for not surrendering up the papers belonging to any vessel, on a transfer or sale of the same. (R. S. § 4329; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

272. Oath as to payment for repairs.—No license, or enrollment and license, nor renewal of either, shall be issued to any vessel until the collector to whom application is made for the same is satisfied, from the oath of the owner or master, that all equipments and repairs, made in a foreign port within the year immediately preceding such application, have been duly accounted for, and the duties accruing thereon duly paid; and if such owner or master shall refuse to take such oath, or take it falsely, the vessel shall be seized and forfeited. (R. S. § 4330.)

273. Measurement of vessels less than twenty tons.—Before any vessel, of the burden of five tons, and less than twenty tons, shall be licensed, the same measurement shall be made of such vessel, and the same provisions observed relative thereto, as are to be observed in case of measuring vessels to be registered or enrolled; but in all cases, where such vessel or any other licensed vessel shall have been once measured, it shall not be necessary to measure such vessel anew, for the purpose of obtaining another enrollment or license, unless such vessel shall have undergone some alteration as to her burden, subsequent to the time of her former license. (R. S. § 4331.)

274. Signatures to enrollment or license; surveyor's return.—In every case where the collector is by this chapter directed to grant any enrollment, license, certificate, permit, or other document, the Comptroller of Customs residing at the port, if there be one, shall sign the same; and every surveyor who certifies a manifest, or grants any permit, or who receives any certified manifest, or any permit, as is provided for in this chapter, shall make return thereof monthly, or sooner, if it can conveniently be made, to the collector of the district where such surveyor resides. (R. S. § 4332; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, § 523, 42 Stat. 974.)

275. Record of licenses.—The collector of each district shall progressively number the licenses by him granted, beginning anew at the commencement of each year, and shall make a record thereof in a book, to be by him kept for that purpose, and shall, once in three months, transmit to the Commissioner of Navigation copies of the licenses which shall have been so granted by him; and also of such licenses as shall have been given up or returned to him, respectively, in pursuance of this chapter. Whenever any vessel is licensed or enrolled anew, or being licensed or enrolled is afterward registered, or being registered is afterward enrolled or licensed, she shall, in every such case, be enrolled, licensed, or registered by her former name. (R. S. § 4333; July 5, 1884, c. 221, 23 Stat. 118.)

276. Change of master.—Whenever the master of any licensed vessel, ferryboats excepted, is changed, the new master, or, in case of his absence, the owner or one of the owners thereof, shall report such change to the collector residing at the port where the same happens, if there be one; otherwise, to the collector residing at any port where such vessel next arrives, who, upon the oath of such new master, or, in case of his absence, of the owner, that such master is a citizen of the United States, and that such vessel shall not, while such license continues in force, be employed in any manner whereby the revenue of the United States may be defrauded, shall indorse such change on the license, with the name of the new master. Whenever such change is not reported, and indorsed, as required, such vessel, if found carrying on the coasting trade or fisheries, shall be subject to pay the same fees and tonnage as a vessel of the United States having a register, and the new master shall be liable to a penalty of $10. (R. S. § 4335.)

277. Inspection of enrollment or license.—Any officer concerned in the collection of the revenue may at all times inspect the enrollment or license of any vessel; and if the master of any such vessel shall not exhibit the same, when required by such officer, he shall be liable to a penalty of $100. (R. S. § 4336.)

278. Penalty for unlawfully proceeding on foreign voyage.—If any vessel, enrolled or licensed, shall proceed on a foreign voyage, without first giving up her enrollment and license to the collector of the district comprehending the port from which she is about to proceed on such voyage, and being duly registered by such collector, every such vessel, together with her tackle, apparel, and furniture, and the merchandise so imported therein, shall be liable to seizure and forfeiture. (R. S. § 4337.)

279. Certificate for vessel proceeding on foreign voyage.—If the port from which any vessel, so enrolled or licensed, is about to proceed on a foreign voyage, is not within the district where such vessel is enrolled, the collector of such district shall give to the master of such vessel a certificate, specifying that the enrollment and license of such vessel has been received by him, and the time when it was so received; which certificate shall afterward be delivered by the master to the collector who may have granted such enrollment and license. (R. S. § 4338.)

280. Papers for vessels in whale fishery.—All vessels which may clear with registers for the purpose of engaging in the whale fishery shall be deemed to have lawful and sufficient papers for such voyages, securing the privileges and rights of registered vessels, and the privileges and exemptions of vessels enrolled and licensed for the fisheries. (R. S. § 4339.)

281. Enrollments at Jersey City.—The assistant collector at Jersey City may enroll and license all vessels engaged in the coasting trade and fisheries, owned in whole or in part by residents of the counties of Hudson and Bergen, in the State of New Jersey. (R. S. § 4340.)

282. Enrollments at Camden.—The assistant collector for the port of Camden, in New Jersey, may enroll and license all vessels engaged in the coasting trade and fisheries, owned in whole or in part by residents of that portion of the Bridgeton district lying north of Alloway's Creek, in the county of Salem, in the State of New Jersey. (R. S. § 4341.)

283. Enrollments at Wilmington.—The owners of vessels residing on New River, in Onslow County, in the State of North Carolina, shall have the privilege of taking out registers or enrollments and licenses at Wilmington, in that State, and the collector of that district may grant the same on the conditions required by law. (R. S. § 4342.)

284. Enrollments at Chesapeake City.—The deputy collector who may be appointed to reside at Chesapeake City, in Maryland, shall have power to grant enrollments and licenses to vessels. (R. S. § 4343.)

285. Enrollment by surveyors.—The Secretary of Commerce may authorize the surveyor of any port of delivery, under such regulations as he shall deem necessary, to enroll and license vessels to be employed in the coasting trade and fisheries, in like manner as collectors of ports of entry are authorized to do. (R. S. § 4344; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

286. Enrollment by surveyors at Cold Spring, Greenport, and Port Jefferson.—The surveyors appointed for the ports of Cold Spring, on the north side of Long Island, Greenport and Port Jefferson, all in the State of New York, shall have power to enroll and license vessels to be employed in the coasting trade and fisheries, and to enter and clear, and grant registers and other usual papers to vessels employed in the whale fisheries, under such restrictions and regulations as the Secretary of Commerce may deem necessary. (R. S. § 4345; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

287. Name and port on stern.—Every licensed vessel shall have her name, and the port to which she belongs, painted on her stern, in the manner prescribed for registered vessels; and if any licensed vessel be found without such painting, the owner thereof shall be liable to a penalty of $20. (R. S. § 4334.)

288. Numbering undocumented vessels.—Every undocumented vessel, operated in whole or in part by machinery, owned in the United States and found on the navigable waters thereof, except public vessels, and vessels not exceeding sixteen feet in length measured from end to end over the deck excluding sheer, temporarily equipped with detachable motors, shall be numbered. Such numbers shall be not less in size than three inches and painted or attached to each bow of the vessel in such manner and color as to be distinctly visible and legible.

The said numbers, on application of the owner or master, shall be awarded by the collector of customs of the district in which the vessel is owned and a record thereof kept in the customhouse of the district in which the owner or managing owner resides. No numbers not so awarded shall be carried on the bows of such vessel.

Notice of destruction or abandonment of such vessels or change in their ownership shall be furnished within ten days by the owners to the collectors of customs of the districts where such numbers were awarded. Such vessel sold into another customs district may be numbered anew in the latter district.

The penalty for violation of any provision of this section shall be $10, for which the vessel shall be liable and may be seized and proceeded against in the district court of the United States in any district in which such vessel may be found. Such penalty on application may be mitigated or remitted by the Secretary of Commerce.

The Secretary of Commerce shall make such regulations as may be necessary to secure proper execution of this section by collectors of customs and other officers of the Government. (June 7, 1918, c. 93, §§ 1, 2, 3, 4, 5; 40 Stat. 602.)

289. Transportation of passengers in foreign vessels.—No foreign vessel shall transport passengers between ports or places in the United States, either directly or by way of a foreign port, under a penalty of $200 for each passenger so transported and landed. (June 19, 1886, c. 421, § 8, 24 Stat. 81; Feb. 17, 1898, c. 26, § 2, 30 Stat. 248.)

290. Transportation of merchandise in foreign vessels.—No merchandise shall be transported by water under penalty of forfeiture thereof from one port of the United States to another port of the United States, either directly or via a foreign port, or for any part of the voyage, in any other vessel than a vessel of the United States. But this section shall not be construed to prohibit the sailing of any foreign vessel from one to another port of the United States: Provided, That no merchandise other than that imported in such vessel from some foreign port which shall not have been unladen shall be carried from one port or place in the United States to another. (Feb. 17, 1898, c. 26, § 1, 30 Stat. 248.)

291. Transshipment of imported merchandise intended for immediate exportation.—Whenever merchandise is imported into the United States by sea for immediate exportation to a foreign port by sea, or by a river, the right to ascend or descend which for the purposes of commerce is secured by treaty to the citizens of the United States and the subjects of a foreign power, the Secretary of Commerce is hereby authorized to prescribe regulations for the transshipment and transportation of such merchandise. (Feb. 17, 1898, c. 26, § 3, 30 Stat. 248; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

292. Dredging by foreign-built dredges.—A foreign-built dredge shall not, under penalty of forfeiture, engage in dredging in the United States unless documented as a vessel of the United States. (May 28, 1906, c. 2566, 34 Stat. 204.)

293. Establishment of great districts.—The seacoasts and navigable rivers of the United States and Porto Rico shall be divided into five great districts: The first to include all the collection districts on the seacoasts and navigable rivers between the northern boundary of the State of Maine and the southern boundary of the State of Texas; the second to consist of the island of Porto Rico; the third to include the collection districts on the seacoasts and navigable rivers between the southern boundary of the State of California and the northern boundary of the State of Washington; the fourth to consist of the Territory of Alaska; the fifth to consist of the Territory of Hawaii. (R. S. § 4348; May 12, 1906, c. 2453, § 1, 34 Stat. 190.)

294. Manifests and permits before departure for vessels trading between neighboring districts.—The master of every vessel under twenty tons burden licensed for carrying on the coasting trade, destined from a district in one State to a district in the same or an adjoining State, on the seacoast or on a navigable river, and of every vessel of the burden of twenty tons and upward, destined from a district within one of the great districts to another district within the same great district, or from a State in one great district to an adjoining State in another great district, having on board sugar in casks or boxes exceeding three thousand pounds, or foreign merchandise in packages, as imported, exceeding in value $400, or merchandise, consisting of such enumerated or other articles of foreign growth or manufacture, or of both, whose aggregate value exceeds $800, shall, previous to the departure of such vessel from the port where she may then be, make out and subscribe duplicate manifests of the whole of such cargo on board such vessel, specifying in such manifests the marks and numbers of every cask, bag, box, chest, or package containing the same, with the name and place of residence of every shipper and consignee, and the quantity shipped by and to each. If there be a collector or surveyor residing at such port, or within five miles thereof, he shall deliver such manifest to the collector, if there be one; otherwise to the surveyor, before whom he shall swear, to the best of his knowledge and belief, that the goods therein contained were legally imported, and the duties thereupon paid or secured. Thereupon the collector or surveyor shall certify the same on the manifests, one of which he shall return to the master, with a permit, specifying thereon, generally, the lading on board such vessel, and authorizing him to proceed to the port of his destination. (R. S. § 4349.)

295. Penalty for proceeding to neighboring district without manifests and permits.—If any vessel, being laden and destined, as mentioned in the preceding section, shall depart from the port where she may then be without the master having first made out and subscribed duplicate manifests of the lading on board such vessel, and in case there be a collector or surveyor residing at such port, or within five miles thereof, without having previously delivered the same to the collector or surveyor, and obtaining a permit, such master shall be liable to a penalty of $100. (R. S. § 4350.)

296. Delivery of manifests before unlading of vessels trading between neighboring districts.—The master of every vessel licensed for carrying on the coasting trade, having on board sugar in casks or boxes exceeding three thousand pounds, or foreign merchandise in packages, as imported, exceeding in value $400, or goods, wares, or merchandise, consisting of such enumerated or other articles of foreign growth or manufacture, or of both, whose aggregate value exceeds $800, and arriving from a district in one State, at a district in the same or an adjoining State on the seacoast, or on a navigable river, or, if of the burden of twenty tons or upward, arriving at a district within one of the great districts from another district within the same great district, or from a State adjoining such great district, shall, previous to the unlading of any part of the cargo of such vessel, deliver to the collector, if there be one, or if not, to the surveyor residing at the port of her arrival, or if there be no collector or surveyor residing at such port, then to a collector or surveyor, if there be any such officer residing within five miles thereof, the manifest of the cargo, certified by the collector or surveyor of the district from whence she sailed if there be such manifest, otherwise the duplicate manifests thereof, as is hereinbefore directed, to the truth of which, before such officer, he shall swear. If there have been taken on board such vessel any other or more goods than are contained in such manifest or manifests, since her departure from the port from whence she first sailed, or if any goods have been since landed, the master shall make known and particularize the same to the collector or surveyor, or if no such goods have been so taken on board or landed, he shall so declare, to the truth of which he shall swear. Thereupon the collector or surveyor shall grant a permit for unlading a part or the whole of such cargo, as the master or commander may request. If there is no collector or surveyor residing at or within five miles of the port of her arrival, the master of such vessel may proceed to discharge the lading from on board such vessel, but shall deliver to the collector or surveyor residing at the first port where he may next afterward arrive, and within twenty-four hours of his arrival, the manifest or manifests, noting thereon the times when and places where the goods therein mentioned have been unladen, to the truth of which, before the last-mentioned collector or surveyor, he shall swear. (R. S. § 4351.)

297. Penalty for not delivering manifests of vessels trading between neighboring districts.—If the master of any such vessel, being laden and destined as mentioned in the preceding section, shall neglect or refuse to deliver manifests, at the times and in the manner directed, he shall be liable to a penalty of $100. (R. S. § 4352.)

298. Manifests and permits before departure for vessels trading between remote districts.—The master of every vessel under twenty tons of burden licensed for carrying on the coasting trade, and destined from any district of the United States to a district other than a district in the same or an adjoining State, on the seacoast, or on a navigable river, and of every vessel of the burden of twenty tons and upward, destined to a district other than a district within the same great district, or within a State adjoining such great district, shall, previous to her departure, deliver to the collector residing at the port where such vessel may be, if there is one, otherwise to the collector of the district comprehending such port, or to a surveyor within the district, as the one or the other may reside nearest to the port at which such vessel may be, duplicate manifests of the whole cargo on board such vessel; or if there is no cargo on board, he shall so certify; and if there is any merchandise of foreign growth or manufacture on board, other than what may by the collector be deemed sufficient for sea stores, he shall specify in such manifests the marks and numbers of every cask, bag, box, chest, or package containing the same, with the name, and place of residence of every shipper and consignee of such merchandise of foreign growth or manufacture, and the quantity shipped by and to each. The manifests or certificates shall be subscribed and sworn to by him; and he shall also swear, before the collector or surveyor, that such merchandise of foreign growth or manufacture was, to the best of his knowledge and belief, legally imported, and the duties thereupon paid or secured. Upon the performance of these provisions, and not before, the collector or surveyor shall certify the same on the manifests or certificates; one of which he shall return to the master, with a permit thereto annexed, authorizing him to proceed to the port of his destination. (R. S. § 4353.)

299. Penalty for proceeding to remote district without manifests and permits.—If any such vessel, destined as mentioned in the preceding section, shall depart from the port where she may then be, having goods, wares, or merchandise of foreign growth or manufacture on board, without complying with the requirements of the preceding section, the master thereof shall be liable to a penalty of $100; or, if the lading be of goods the growth or manufacture of the United States only, or if such vessel have no cargo, and she depart without the several things required in the preceding section being complied with, the master shall be liable to a penalty of $50. (R. S. § 4354.)

300. Delivery of manifests before unlading of vessels trading between remote districts.—The master of every vessel under twenty tons burden licensed to carry on the coasting trade, arriving at any district of the United States from any district other than a district in the same or an adjoining State on the seacoast, or on a navigable river, and of every vessel of the burden of twenty tons and upward arriving from a district other than a district within the same great district, or from a State adjoining such great district, shall deliver to the collector residing at the port where she may arrive, if there be one, otherwise to the collector or surveyor in the district comprehending such port, as the one or the other may reside nearest thereto, if the collector or surveyor reside at a distance not exceeding five miles, within twenty-four hours, or, if at a greater distance, within forty-eight hours next after his arrival, and previous to the unlading any of the goods brought in such vessel, the manifest of the cargo, if there be any, certified by the collector or surveyor of the district from whence she last sailed; and shall make oath, before the collector or surveyor, that there was not when he sailed from the district where his manifest was certified, and has not been since, and is not then, any more or other merchandise of foreign growth or manufacture, other than sea stores, on board such vessel, than is therein mentioned; and if there be none such, he shall so swear; and if there be no cargo on board, he shall produce the certificate of the collector or surveyor of the district from whence she last sailed that such is the case. Thereupon such collector or surveyor shall grant a permit for unlading the whole or part of such cargo, if there be any within his district, as the master may request; and where a part only of the merchandise of foreign growth or manufacture, brought in such vessel, is intended to be landed, the collector or surveyor shall make an indorsement of such part on the back of the manifest, specifying the articles to be landed; and shall return such manifest to the master, indorsing also thereon his permission for such vessel to proceed to the place of her destination. (R. S. § 4355.)

301. Penalty for not delivering manifests of vessels trading between remote districts.—If the master of such vessel, laden and destined as mentioned in the preceding section, shall neglect or refuse to deliver the manifest, or, if she has no cargo, the certificate, within the time directed in the preceding section, he shall be liable to a penalty of $100, and the merchandise of foreign growth or manufacture found on board, or landed from such ship or vessel, not being certified as required, shall be forfeited; and if the same shall amount to the value of $800, such ship or vessel, with her tackle, apparel, and furniture shall be also forfeited. (R. S. § 4356.)

302. Exemption of vessels navigating Mississippi River from requirements as to permits.—The provisions of sections 294 to 301, inclusive, requiring the master of every vessel licensed to carry on the coasting trade, laden in part with foreign merchandise, to procure a permit from the customs officer of the port at which his vessel was laden, authorizing him to proceed to his port of destination, and also to procure a permit from the port of destination for the unlading of his cargo, shall not be held to include vessels engaged in the navigation of the Mississippi River or tributaries, above the port of New Orleans. (July 12, 1876, c. 185, 19 Stat. 90.)

303. Exemption of vessels in coasting trade from requirements as to manifests and permits.—Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to oblige the master of any vessel of less than twenty tons burden, licensed for carrying on the coasting trade, bound from a district in one State to a district in the same or an adjoining State on the seacoast, or on a navigable river, or of any vessel of the burden of twenty tons or upward, bound from a district within one of the great districts to a district within the same great district, or within a State adjoining such great district, having on board merchandise of the growth, product, or manufacture of the United States only, except sugar in casks or boxes not more than three thousand pounds, or foreign merchandise in packages, as imported, of not more value than $400, or merchandise consisting of such enumerated or other articles of foreign growth or manufacture, or of both, whose aggregate value shall be not more than $800, to deliver a manifest thereof, or obtain a permit, previous to her departure, or, on her arrival within such district, to make any report thereof; but such master shall be provided with a manifest, by him subscribed, of the lading, of what kind soever, which was on board such vessel at the time of his departure from the district from which she last sailed, and if the same, or any part of such lading, consists of merchandise of foreign growth or manufacture, with the marks and numbers of each cask, bag, box, chest, or package containing the same, with the name of the shipper and consignee of each. Such manifest shall be by him exhibited, for the inspection of any officer of the revenue, when required by such officer; and he shall also inform such officer from whence such vessel last sailed, and how long she has been in port, when by him so interrogated. (R. S. § 4359.)

304. Penalties for not exhibiting manifest.—Whenever the master of such vessel, laden and destined as described in the preceding section, is not provided, on his arrival within any such district, with a manifest, and does not exhibit the same, as required in the preceding section, if the lading of such vessel consists wholly of merchandise the produce or manufacture of the United States, he shall be liable to a penalty of $20, or if there be merchandise of foreign growth or manufacture, on board, excepting what may be sufficient for sea stores, he shall be liable to a penalty of $40; or if he shall refuse to answer the interrogatories truly, as is herein required, he shall be liable to a penalty of $100. If any of the merchandise laden on board such vessel be of foreign growth or manufacture, so much of the same as may be found on board such vessel, and not included in the manifest exhibited by such master, shall be forfeited. (R. S. § 4360; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 320.)

305. Trade between Long Island and Rhode Island.—Coasting vessels, going from Long Island, in the State of New York, to the State of Rhode Island, or from the State of Rhode Island to Long Island, shall have the same privileges as are allowed to vessels under the like circumstances going from a district in one State to a district in the same or an adjoining State. (R. S. § 4357.)

306. Trade between Alaska and other districts.—The coasting trade between the Territory of Alaska and any other portion of the United States shall be regulated in accordance with the provisions of law applicable to such trade between any two great districts. (R. S. § 4358; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 1, 37 Stat. 512.)

307. Regulations as to registered vessels in interdistrict trade.—Whenever any vessel of the United States, registered according to law, is employed in going from any one district in the United States to any other district, such vessel, and the master thereof, with the goods she may have on board previous to her departure from the district where she may be, and also upon her arrival in any other district, shall be subject, except as to the payment of fees, to the same regulations, provisions, penalties, and forfeitures, and the like duties are imposed on like officers, as are provided for vessels licensed for carrying on the coasting trade. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to registered vessels of the United States having on board merchandise of foreign growth or manufacture, brought into the United States, in such vessel, from a foreign port, and on which the duties have not been paid according to law. (R. S. § 4361.)

308. Permit for inland transportation.—The collector of the district of Philadelphia may grant permits for the transportation of merchandise of foreign growth or manufacture across the State of New Jersey to the district of New York, or across the State of Delaware to any district in the State of Maryland or Virginia; and the collector of the district of New York may grant like permits for transportation across the State of New Jersey; and the collector of any district of Maryland or Virginia may grant like permits for transportation across the State of Delaware to the district of Philadelphia. Every such permit shall express the name of the owner, or person sending the merchandise, and of the person to whom the merchandise is consigned, with the marks, numbers, and description of the packages, whether bale, box, chest, or otherwise, and the kind of goods contained therein, and the date when granted; and the owner, or person sending such goods, shall swear that they were legally imported, and the duties paid. Where the merchandise, to be so transported, shall be of less value than $800, the permit shall not be deemed necessary. (R. S. § 4362.)

309. Penalty for failure to report arrival of merchandise transported inland.—The owner or consignee of all merchandise transported under the provisions of the preceding section and for the transportation whereof a permit is necessary, shall, within twenty-four hours after the arrival thereof at the place to which such merchandise was permitted to be transported, report the same to the collector of the district where it has arrived, and shall deliver up the permit accompanying the same; and if the owner or consignee shall neglect or refuse to make due entry of such merchandise within the time and in the manner directed, all such merchandise shall be subject to forfeiture; and if the permit granted shall not be given up within the time limited for making the report, the person to whom it was granted, neglecting or refusing to deliver it up, shall be liable to a penalty of $50 for every twenty-four hours it shall be withheld afterward. (R. S. § 4363.)

310. Permit to touch at foreign port.—Whenever any vessel, licensed for carrying on the fishery, is intended to touch and trade at any foreign port, it shall be the duty of the master or owner to obtain permission for that purpose from the collector of the district where such vessel may be, previous to her departure, and the master of every such vessel shall deliver like manifests, and make like entries, both of the vessel and of the merchandise on board, within the same time, and under the same penalty, as are by law provided for vessels of the United States arriving from a foreign port. (R. S. § 4364.)

311. Penalty for touching at foreign port without permission.—Whenever a vessel, licensed for carrying on the fisheries, is found within three leagues of the coast, with merchandise of foreign growth or manufacture, exceeding the value of $500, without having such permission as is directed by the preceding section, such vessel, together with the merchandise of foreign growth or manufacture imported therein, shall be subject to seizure and forfeiture. (R. S. § 4365.)

312. Report of arrival at port other than that of destination.—The master of every vessel employed in the transportation of merchandise from district to district, that shall put into a port other than the one to which she was bound, shall, within twenty-four hours of his arrival, if there be an officer residing at such port, and she continue there so long, make report of his arrival to such officer, with the name of the place he came from, and to which he is bound, with an account of his lading; and every master who neglects or refuses so to do shall be liable to a penalty of $20. (R. S. § 4366.)

313. Foreign vessels bound coastwise.—The master of every foreign vessel bound from a district in the United States to any other district within the same, shall, in all cases, previous to her departure from such district, deliver to the collector of such district duplicate manifests of the lading on board such vessel, if there be any, or, if there be none, he shall declare that such is the case; and to the truth of such manifest or declaration he shall swear, and also obtain a permit from the collector, authorizing him to proceed to the place of his destination. (R. S. § 4367.)

314. Delivery of manifest of foreign vessel.—The master of every foreign vessel, on his arrival within any district from any other district, shall, in all cases, within forty-eight hours after his arrival, and previous to the unlading of any goods from on board such vessel, deliver to the collector of the district where he may have arrived, a manifest of the goods laden on board such vessel, if any there be; or if in ballast only, he shall so declare; he shall swear to the truth of such manifest or declaration, and shall also swear that such manifest contains an account of all the merchandise which was on board such vessel at the time, or has been since her departure from the place from whence she shall be reported last to have sailed; and he shall also deliver to such collector the permit which was given him from the collector of the district from whence he sailed. (R. S. § 4368.)

315. Penalty against foreign vessels trading coastwise.—Every master of any foreign vessel who neglects or refuses to comply with any of the requirements of the two preceding sections, shall be liable to a penalty of $100. Nothing therein contained shall, however, be construed as affecting the payment of tonnage, or any other requirements to which such vessels are subject by law. (R. S. § 4369.)

316. Penalty on foreign tugboats towing vessels between United States ports.—All steam tugboats not of the United States found employed in towing documented vessels of the United States plying from one port or place in the same to another, shall be liable to a penalty of 50 cents per ton on the measurement of every such vessel so towed by them respectively, which sum may be recovered by way of libel or suit. This section shall not apply to any case where the towing, in whole or in part, is within or upon foreign waters. Any foreign railroad company or corporation, whose road enters the United States by means of a ferry or tug boat, may own such boat, and it shall be subject to no other or different restrictions or regulations in such employment than if owned by a citizen of the United States. (R. S. § 4370.)

317. Trading without license; fees; forfeiture.—Every vessel of twenty tons or upward, other than registered vessels found trading between district and district, or between different places in the same district, or carrying on the fishery without being enrolled and licensed, or if less than twenty tons and not less than five tons, without a license, in the manner provided by this chapter, if laden with merchandise the growth or manufacture of the United States only, or in ballast, shall pay the same fees and tonnage in every port of the United States at which she may arrive as vessels not belonging to a citizen of the United States; and, if she have on board any articles of foreign growth, or manufacture other than sea stores, she shall, together with her tackle, apparel, and furniture, and the lading found on board, be forfeited. The provisions of this section shall not apply to vessels entitled to be documented as vessels of the United States. (R. S. § 4371; June 19, 1886, c. 421, § 7, 24 Stat. 81.)

318. Exemptions where license expires at sea.—If any vessel be at sea at the expiration of the time for which the license was given, and the master of such vessel shall swear that such was the case, and shall also, within forty-eight hours after his arrival, deliver to the collector of the district in which he shall first arrive the license which shall have expired, the forfeiture prescribed in the preceding section shall not be incurred, nor shall the vessel be liable to pay the fees and tonnage therein required. (R. S. § 4372.)

319. Fine for trading without license.—Every vessel of twenty tons or upwards, entitled to be documented as a vessel of the United States, other than registered vessels found trading between district and district, or between different places in the same district, or carrying on the fishery, without being enrolled and licensed, and every vessel of less than twenty tons and not less than five tons burden found trading or carrying on the fishery as aforesaid without a license obtained as provided by this chapter, shall be liable to a fine of $30 at every port of arrival without such enrollment or license. But if the license shall have expired while the vessel was at sea, and there shall have been no opportunity to renew such license, then said fine of $30 shall not be incurred. (June 19, 1886, c. 421, § 7, 24 Stat. 81.)

320. Remission or mitigation of fines.—The fines imposed by sections 45, 77, 289, and 319 shall be subject to remission or mitigation by the Secretary of Commerce when the offense was not willfully committed, under such regulations and methods of ascertaining the facts as may seem to him advisable. (June 19, 1886, c. 421, § 9, 24 Stat. 81; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

321. Penalty for illegal enrollment or license.—Every collector, who knowingly makes any record of enrollment or license of any vessel, and every other officer, or person, appointed by or under them, who makes any record, or grants any certificate or other document whatever, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this chapter, or takes any other or greater fees than are by this chapter allowed, or receives for any service performed pursuant to this chapter, any reward or gratuity, and every surveyor, or other person appointed to measure vessels, who willfully delivers to any collector or Comptroller of Customs a false description of any vessel, to be enrolled or licensed, in pursuance of this chapter, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, and be rendered incapable of serving in any office of trust or profit under the United States. (R. S. § 4373; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, § 523, 42 Stat. 974.)

322. Penalty for malfeasance.—Every person, authorized and required by this chapter to perform any act or thing as an officer, who willfully neglects or refuses to do and perform the same, according to the true intent and meaning of this chapter, shall, if not subject to the penalty and disqualifications prescribed in the preceding section, be liable to a penalty of $500 for the first offense, and of like sum for the second offense, and shall, after conviction for the second offense, be rendered incapable of holding any office of trust or profit under the United States. (R. S. § 4374.)

323. Penalty for forgery and alteration.—Every person who forges, counterfeits, erases, alters, or falsifies any enrollment, license, certificate, permit, or other document, mentioned or required in this chapter, to be granted by any officer of the revenue, such person, so offending, shall be liable to a penalty of $500. (R. S. § 4375.)

324. Penalty for obstructing officers.—Every person who assaults, resists, obstructs, or hinders any officer in the execution of any Act or law relating to the enrollment, registry, or licensing of vessels, or of this chapter, or of any of the powers or authorities vested in him by any such Act or law, shall, for every such offense, for which no other penalty is particularly provided, be liable to a penalty of $500. (R. S. § 4376.)

325. Penalty for violation of license.—Whenever any licensed vessel is transferred, in whole or in part, to any person who is not at the time of such transfer a citizen of and resident within the United States, or is employed in any other trade than that for which she is licensed, or is found with a forged or altered license, or one granted for any other vessel, such vessel with her tackle, apparel, and furniture, and the cargo, found on board her, shall be forfeited. But vessels which may be licensed for the mackerel fishery shall not incur such forfeiture by engaging in catching cod or fish of any other description whatever. (R. S. § 4377.)

326. Exemption from forfeiture.—Any merchandise on board any vessel which belongs, in good faith, to any person other than the master, owner, or mariners of such vessel, and upon which the duties have been paid, or secured according to law, shall be exempted from any forfeiture under this chapter. (R. S. § 4378.)

327. Notice of seizure.—In every case where a forfeiture of any vessel or merchandise shall accrue, it shall be the duty of the collector or other proper officer, who shall give notice of the seizure of such vessel or of such merchandise, to insert in the same advertisement the name and the place of residence of the person to whom any such vessel and merchandise belonged or were consigned, at the time of such seizure, if the same be known to him. (R. S. § 4379.)

328. Recovery of forfeitures and penalties.—All penalties and forfeitures which shall be incurred by virtue of this chapter may be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered as penalties and forfeitures incurred by virtue of the laws relating to the collection of duties, and shall be appropriated in like manner; except when otherwise expressly prescribed. (R. S. § 4380.)

329. Fees.—The following fees shall be levied and collected from the owners and masters of all vessels except those navigating the waters of the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers, otherwise than by sea:

For granting a permit for a vessel not belonging to a citizen or citizens of the United States, to proceed from district to district, and receiving the manifest, $2.

For receiving a manifest, and granting a permit, to unload, for such last-mentioned vessel, on her arrival in one district from another district, $2. (R. S. § 4381; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 251; July 5, 1884, c. 228, § 1, 23 Stat. 132; June 19, 1886, c. 421, § 1, 24 Stat. 79.)

330. Fees on frontiers.—The following fees shall be levied and collected from the owners and masters of vessels navigating the waters of the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers of the United States, otherwise than by sea:

For granting license, including bond and oath, above one hundred tons, $1.20.

For certifying manifest, including master's oath, and granting permit for vessel to go from district to district, 10 cents.

For receiving manifest, including master's oath, on arrival of a vessel from one collection district to another, whether touching at foreign, intermediate ports or not, 10 cents.

For a port entry of such vessel, $2.

For permit to land or deliver goods, 20 cents.

For permit to load goods for exportation entitled to drawback, 30 cents.

For receiving manifest of each railroad car or other vehicle laden with goods, wares, or merchandise from a foreign contiguous territory, 25 cents.

For entry of goods, wares, or merchandise for consumption, warehouse, rewarehouse, transportation, or exportation, including oath and permit to land or deliver, 50 cents. (R. S. § 4382; July 5, 1884, c. 228, §§ 2, 3, 23 Stat. 132, 133; June 19, 1886, c. 421, § 1, 24 Stat. 79; Mar. 3, 1897, c. 389, § 9, 29 Stat. 689.)

331. Certain fees abolished.—No fees shall be charged or collected by collectors or other officers of customs, or by inspectors of steam vessels or shipping commissioners, for the following services to vessels of the United States, to wit: Measurement of tonnage and certifying the same; issuing of license or granting of certificate of registry, record, or enrollment, including all indorsements on the same and bond and oath; indorsement of change of master; certifying and receiving manifest, including master's oath and permit; granting permit to vessels licensed for the fisheries to touch and trade; granting certificate of payment of tonnage dues; recording bill of sale, mortgage, hypothecation or conveyance, or the discharge of such mortgage or hypothecation; furnishing certificate of title; furnishing the crew list; certificate or protection to seamen; bill of health; shipping or discharging of seamen, as provided by chapter 18 and sections 563 and 646; apprenticing boys to the merchant service; inspecting, examining, and licensing steam vessels, including inspection certificate and copies thereof; and licensing of master, engineer, pilot, or mate of a vessel. (June 19, 1886, c. 421, § 1, 24 Stat. 79; Apr. 4, 1888, c. 61, § 2, 25 Stat. 80.)

332. Exemptions of vessels not propelled by sail or internal motive power.—The provisions of this chapter shall not be so construed as to require the payment of any fee or charge for the enrolling or licensing of vessels, built in the United States and owned by citizens thereof, not propelled by sail or by internal motive power of their own, and not in any case carrying passengers, whether navigating the internal waters of a State or the navigable waters of the United States, and not engaged in trade with contiguous foreign territory, nor shall this or any law existing on June 30, 1879, be construed to require the enrolling, registering or licensing of any flatboat, barge or like craft for the carriage of freight, not propelled by sail or by internal motive power of its own, on the rivers or lakes of the United States. (June 30, 1879, c. 54, 21 Stat. 44.)

333. Posting table of fees.—Every collector and comptroller of customs shall cause to be affixed and constantly kept in some conspicuous place in his office a fair table of the rates of fees demandable by this chapter. (R. S. § 4383; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, § 523, 42 Stat. 974.)

334. Vessels liable for fees for enrollment.—All vessels subject to enrollment or license shall be liable to the payment of the fees established by law for services of customs officers incident thereto. (R. S. § 4384.)

335. Lighters and boats.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to extend to any boat or lighter not being masted, or if masted and not decked, employed in the harbor of any town or city. (R. S. § 4385.)

336. Canal boats exempt from enrollment, license, and customs fees.—Sections 251, 252, 259, 262 to 269, inclusive, 273 to 279, inclusive, 287, 294 to 301, inclusive, 303, 304, 307 to 315, inclusive, 317, 318, 321 to 329, inclusive, 333, and 335 shall not be so construed as to extend to canal boats or boats employed on the internal waters or canals of any State; and all such boats, excepting only such as are provided with sails or propelling machinery of their own adapted to lake or coastwise navigation, and excepting such as are employed in trade with the Canadas, shall be exempt from such provisions and from the payment of all customs and other fees under any Act of Congress. (Apr. 18, 1874, c. 110, 18 Stat. 31.)

Chapter 13.—PASSPORTS AND PAPERS OF VESSELS ENGAGED IN FOREIGN COMMERCE.

Sec.
351. Passports of United States vessels on departure to foreign country.
352. Penalty for departing without passport.
353. Passports of unregistered vessels.
354. Deposit of ship's papers with consul.
355. Penalty for failure.

Section 351. Passports of United States vessels on departure to foreign country.—Every vessel of the United States, going to any foreign country, shall, before she departs from the United States, at the request of the master, be furnished by the collector for the district where such vessel may be, with a passport, the form for which shall be prescribed by the Secretary of State. In order to be entitled to such passport, the master of every such vessel shall be bound, with sufficient sureties, to the Treasurer of the United States, in the penalty of $2,000, conditioned that the passport shall not be applied to the use or protection of any other vessel than the one described in it; and that, in case of the loss or sale of any vessel having such passport, the same shall, within three months, be delivered up to the collector from whom it was received, if the loss or sale take place within the United States; or within six months, if the same shall happen at any place nearer than the Cape of Good Hope; and within eighteen months, if at a more distant place. (R. S. § 4306.)

352. Penalty for departing without passport.—If any vessel of the United States shall depart therefrom, and shall be bound to any foreign country, other than to some port in America, without such passport, the master of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $200 for every such offense. (R. S. § 4307.)

353. Passports of unregistered vessels.—Every unregistered vessel owned by a citizen of the United States, and sailing with a sea letter, going to any foreign country, shall, before she departs from the United States, at the request of the master, be furnished by the collector of the district where such vessel may be with a passport, for which the master shall be subject to the rules and conditions prescribed for vessels of the United States. (R. S. § 4308.)

354. Deposit of ship's papers with consul.—Every master of a vessel, belonging to citizens of the United States, who shall sail from any port of the United States, shall, on his arrival at a foreign port, deposit his register, sea letter, and Mediterranean passport with the consul or vice consul, if any there be at such port; and it shall be the duty of such consul or vice consul, on such master or commander producing to him a clearance from the proper officer of the port where his vessel may be, to deliver to the master all of his papers, if such master or commander has complied with the provisions of law relating to the discharge of seamen in a foreign country, and to the payment of the fees of consular officers. (R. S. § 4309.)

355. Penalty for failure.—Every master of any such vessel who refuses or neglects to deposit the papers as required by the preceding section, shall be liable to a penalty of $500, to be recovered by such consul or vice consul, in his own name, for the benefit of the United States, in any court of competent jurisdiction. (R. S. § 4310.)

VESSELS SUBJECT TO INSPECTION AND REGULATION

Section 361. What are steam vessels.—Every vessel propelled in whole or in part by steam shall be deemed a steam vessel within the meaning of this and the following chapter and sections 214 and 215. (R. S. § 4399.)

362. Vessels subject to provisions of chapter; reciprocal acceptance of foreign certificates of inspection; fees.—All steam vessels navigating any waters of the United States which are common highways of commerce or open to general or competitive navigation, excepting public vessels of the United States, vessels of other countries, and boats propelled in whole or in part by steam for navigating canals, shall be subject to the provisions of this and the following chapter and sections 214 and 215.

And all foreign private steam vessels carrying passengers from any port of the United States to any other place or country shall be subject to the provisions of sections 391, 392, 399 to 402, inclusive, 463 to 466, inclusive, 472, 475, 481, 494, 495, 497, and 498, and shall be liable to visitation and inspection by the proper officer, in any of the ports of the United States, respecting any of the provisions of the sections aforesaid: Provided, however, That when such foreign passenger steamers belong to countries having inspection laws approximating those of the United States, and have unexpired certificates of inspection issued by the proper authorities in the respective countries to which they belong, they shall be subject to no other inspection than necessary to satisfy the local inspectors that the condition of the vessel, her boilers, and life-saving equipments are as stated in the current certificate of inspection; but no such certificate of inspection shall be accepted as evidence of lawful inspection except when presented by steam vessels of other countries which have by their laws accorded to the steam vessels of the United States visiting such countries the same privilege accorded to the steam vessels of such countries visiting the United States; it being further provided that there shall be collected and paid into the Treasury of the United States the same fees for the inspection of foreign passenger steamers carrying passengers from the United States that any foreign nation shall charge the merchant vessels of the United States trading to the ports of such nationality; it being further provided that the Secretary of Commerce shall have the power to waive at any time the collection of such fees upon due notice of the proper authorities of any country concerned that the collection of fees for the inspection of American steam merchant vessels has been discontinued.

It is further provided that the Secretary of Commerce may, in his discretion, permit any foreign passenger steamer coming within the provisions of this section whose foreign certificate of inspection shall have expired at sea since last leaving the country to which said vessel belongs, or while said vessel shall have been in a port of the United States, to sail upon her regular route without undergoing any further inspection than would have been required had said foreign certificate of inspection been in force: Provided, however, That such discretion shall be exercised only with respect of vessels operated upon regularly established lines, and in cases where such foreign passenger steamers will be regularly inspected by the authorities of her home government before her next return to a port of the United States. (R. S. § 4400; Aug. 7, 1882, c. 441, § 1, 22 Stat. 346; Mar. 1, 1895, c. 146, § 1, 28 Stat. 699; Feb. 15, 1902, c. 23, 32 Stat. 34; Mar. 17, 1906, c. 955, § 1, 34 Stat. 68; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

363. United States Shipping Board vessels.—All steam vessels owned or operated by the United States Shipping Board, or any corporation organized or controlled by it, shall be subject to all the provisions of this and the following chapter and sections 214 and 215 for the regulation of steam vessels and Acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto. (Oct. 25, 1919, c. 82, 41 Stat. 305.)

364. Vessels navigating coastwise and on Great Lakes.—All coastwise seagoing vessels, and vessels navigating the Great Lakes, shall be subject to the navigation laws of the United States, when navigating within the jurisdiction thereof; and all vessels, propelled in whole or in part by steam, and navigating as aforesaid, shall be subject to all the rules and regulations established in pursuance of law for the government of steam vessels in passing, as provided by this and the following chapter; and every coastwise seagoing steam vessel subject to the navigation laws of the United States, and to the rules and regulations aforesaid, not sailing under register, shall, when under way, except on the high seas, be under the control and direction of pilots licensed by the inspectors of steamboats. (R. S. § 4401.)

365. Vessels navigating Irondequoit Bay.—Irondequoit Bay, New York, shall, for the purpose of applying the provisions of this and the following chapter and sections 214 and 215, relating to steam vessels navigating thereon, be declared a navigable water of the United States; and steam vessels navigated thereon, and carrying passengers, shall be inspected under the provisions of section 404, and subject to the penalties provided therein for a failure to comply therewith. (June 25, 1890, c. 616, 26 Stat. 180.)

366. Foreign vessels admitted to registry.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized to direct the inspection of any foreign vessel, admitted to American registry, its steam boilers, steam pipes, and appurtenances, and to direct the issue of the usual certificate of inspection, whether said boilers, steam pipes, and appurtenances are or are not constructed pursuant to the laws of the United States, or whether they are or are not constructed of iron stamped pursuant to said laws. The tests in the inspection of such boilers, steam pipes, and appurtenances shall be the same in all respects as to strength and safety as are required in the inspection of boilers constructed in the United States for marine purposes. (Mar. 3, 1897, c. 389, § 14, 29 Stat. 690; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

APPOINTMENT, QUALIFICATIONS, DUTIES, AND SALARIES OF INSPECTORS AND OTHER OFFICERS

371. Supervising Inspector General and Deputy Supervising Inspector General.—There shall be a Supervising Inspector General, who shall be appointed from time to time by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and who shall be selected with reference to his fitness and ability to systematize and carry into effect all the provisions of law relating to the Steamboat Inspection Service, and who shall be entitled to a salary of $5,000 a year and his actual necessary traveling expenses while traveling on official business assigned him by competent authority, together with his actual and reasonable expenses for transportation of instruments, which shall be certified and sworn to under such instructions as shall be given by the Secretary of Commerce.

The Secretary of Commerce may appoint a Deputy Supervising Inspector General, who shall be the chief clerk of the bureau and in the absence of the Supervising Inspector General have power to act in his stead, and who shall be entitled to a salary of $3,000 per year. (R. S. § 4402; July 2, 1918, c. 115, 40 Stat. 739.)

372. Duties of Supervising Inspector General.—The Supervising Inspector General shall, under the direction of the Secretary of Commerce, superintend the administration of the steamboat-inspection laws, preside at the meetings of the Board of Supervising Inspectors, receive all reports of inspectors, receive and examine all accounts of inspectors, report fully at stated periods to the Secretary of Commerce upon all matters pertaining to his official duties, and produce a correct and uniform administration of the inspection laws, rules, and regulations. (R. S. § 4403; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

373. Supervising inspectors; qualifications and appointment.—There shall be eleven supervising inspectors, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. Each of them shall be selected for his knowledge, skill, and practical experience in the uses of steam for navigation, and shall be a competent judge of the character and qualities of steam vessels and of all parts of the machinery employed in steaming. Each supervising inspector shall be entitled to a salary of $3,450 a year and his actual necessary traveling expenses while traveling on official business assigned him by competent authority, together with his actual and reasonable expenses for transportation of instruments, which shall be certified and sworn to under such instructions as shall be given by the Secretary of Commerce. (R. S. § 4404; July 2, 1918, c. 115, 40 Stat. 740.)

374. Designation of officer to perform duties of absent inspector.—In the case of the absence of any supervising inspector of steamboats from his official station the Secretary of Commerce may designate some officer of the Steamboat Inspection Service to perform the duties of such officer during his absence. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1229; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

375. Meetings of board; assignment of districts; executive committee.—The supervising inspectors and the Supervising Inspector General shall assemble as a board once in each year at the city of Washington, District of Columbia, on the third Wednesday in January, and at such other times as the Secretary of Commerce shall prescribe, for joint consultation, and shall assign to each of the supervising inspectors the limits of territory within which he shall perform his duties. The board shall establish all necessary regulations required to carry out in the most effective manner the provisions of this and the following chapter and sections 214 and 215 and also regulations, prohibiting useless and unnecessary whistling, and such regulations, when approved by the Secretary of Commerce, shall have the force of law. The supervising inspector for the district embracing the Pacific coast shall not be under obligation to attend the meetings of the board oftener than once in two years; but when he does not attend such meeting he shall make his communications thereto, in the way of a report, in such manner as the board shall prescribe: Provided, That the Secretary of Commerce may at any time call in session, after reasonable public notice, a meeting of an executive committee, to be composed of the Supervising Inspector General and any two supervising inspectors, which committee, with the approval of the said Secretary, shall have power to alter, amend, add to, or repeal any of the rules and regulations made, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce by the Board of Supervising Inspectors, either by virtue of this section or under any power granted by this or the following chapter, or any amendments thereof, such alteration, amendment, addition, or repeal, when approved by the said Secretary, to have the force of law and to continue in effect until thirty days after the adjournment of the next meeting of the Board of Supervising Inspectors. The foregoing powers of such executive committee, acting with the said Secretary, shall also extend to the approval of the instruments, machines, and equipments referred to in section 489. (R. S. § 4405; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1453, § 1, 33 Stat. 1022; Feb. 8, 1907, c. 892, 34 Stat. 881; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

376. Duties of supervising inspectors.—Each supervising inspector shall watch over all parts of the territory assigned to him, shall visit, confer with, and examine into the doings of the local boards of inspectors within his district, and shall instruct them in the proper performance of their duties; and shall, whenever he thinks it expedient, visit any vessels licensed, and examine into their condition, for the purpose of ascertaining whether the provisions of this and the following chapter and sections 214 and 215 have been observed and complied with, both by the board of inspectors and the master and owners. All masters, engineers, mates, and pilots of such vessels shall answer all reasonable inquiries, and shall give all the information in their power in regard to any such vessel so visited, and her machinery for steaming, and the manner of managing both. (R. S. § 4406.)

377. Duties as to violations of law.—Whenever a supervising inspector ascertains to his satisfaction that any master, mate, engineer, pilot, or owner of any steam vessel fails to perform his duties according to the provisions of this and the following chapter, he shall report the facts in writing to the board of local inspectors in the district where the vessel was inspected or belongs; and, if need be, he shall cause the negligent or offending party to be prosecuted; and if the supervising inspector has good reason to believe there has been, through negligence or any other cause, a failure of the board which inspected the vessel to do its duty, he shall report the facts in writing to the Secretary of Commerce; who shall cause immediate investigation into the truth of the complaint, and, if he deems the cause sufficient, shall remove any officer found delinquent. (R. S. § 4407; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

378. Supervision of local boards.—The supervising inspectors shall see that the several boards of local inspectors within their respective districts execute their duties faithfully, promptly, and, as far as possible, uniformly in all places, by following out the provisions of this and the following chapter and sections 214 and 215 according to the true intent and meaning thereof; and they shall, as far as practicable, harmonize differences of opinion existing in different local boards. (R. S. § 4408.)

379. Supervision of districts not having inspectors.—The supervising inspector shall visit any collection district in which there is at any time no board of inspectors, and within which steam vessels are owned or employed. Each supervising inspector shall have full power in any such district, or in any district where, from distance or other cause, it is inconvenient to resort to the local board, to inspect any steam vessel and the boilers of such steamer, and to grant certificates of approval, and to do and perform all the duties imposed upon local boards. (R. S. § 4409; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 251.)

380. Regulations as to information to local inspectors.—The board of supervising inspectors shall establish such regulations as may be necessary to make known in a proper manner, to local inspectors, the names of all persons licensed under the provisions of chapter 11, the names of all persons from whom licenses have been withheld, and the names of all whose licenses have been suspended or revoked; also the names of all steam vessels neglecting or refusing to make such repairs as may be ordered pursuant to law, and the names of all that have been refused certificates of inspection. (R. S. § 4411.)

381. Regulations as to passing steamers.—The board of supervising inspectors shall establish such regulations to be observed by all steam vessels in passing each other, as they shall from time to time deem necessary for safety; two printed copies of such regulations, signed by them, shall be furnished to each of such vessels, and shall at all times be kept posted up in conspicuous places in such vessels.

Every pilot, engineer, mate, or master of any steam vessel who neglects or willfully refuses to observe the regulations established in pursuance of this section, shall be liable to a penalty of $50, and for all damages sustained by any passenger, in his person or baggage, by such neglect or refusal.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to steam vessels navigating the harbors, rivers, and inland waters of the United States, except the Great Lakes and their connecting and tributary waters as far east as Montreal and the Red River of the North and rivers emptying into the Gulf of Mexico and their tributaries. (R. S. §§ 4412, 4413; June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 5, 30 Stat. 103.)

382. Local inspectors; number and salaries; assistants and clerks; traveling expenses.—There shall be in each of the following collection districts, namely, the districts of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; San Francisco, California; New London, Connecticut; Baltimore, Maryland; Detroit, Michigan; Chicago, Illinois; Bangor, Maine; New Haven, Connecticut; Michigan, Michigan; Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Willamette, Oregon; Puget Sound, Washington; Savannah, Georgia; Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Oswego, New York; Charleston, South Carolina; Duluth, Minnesota; Superior, Michigan; Galveston, Texas; Mobile, Alabama; Providence, Rhode Island; and in each of the following ports: New York, New York; Jacksonville, Florida; Tampa, Florida; Portland, Maine; Boston, Massachusetts; Buffalo, New York; Cleveland, Ohio; Toledo, Ohio; Norfolk, Virginia; Evansville, Indiana; Dubuque, Iowa; Louisville, Kentucky; Albany, New York; Cincinnati, Ohio; Memphis, Tennessee; Nashville, Tennessee; Saint Louis, Missouri; Port Huron, Michigan; New Orleans, Louisiana; Los Angeles, California; Juneau, Alaska; Saint Michael, Alaska; and Point Pleasant, West Virginia; Honolulu, Hawaii; and San Juan, Porto Rico, one inspector of hulls and one inspector of boilers.

The inspector of hulls and the inspector of boilers in the districts and ports enumerated in the preceding paragraphs shall be entitled to the following salaries, to be paid under the direction of the Secretary of Commerce, namely:

For the port of New York, New York, at the rate of $2,950 per year for each local inspector.

For the districts of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Baltimore, Maryland; San Francisco, California; and Puget Sound, Washington; and the ports of Boston, Massachusetts; Buffalo, New York; and New Orleans, Louisiana, at the rate of $2,700 per year for each local inspector.

For the districts of Michigan, Michigan; Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Duluth, Minnesota; Providence, Rhode Island; Chicago, Illinois; and the ports of Albany, New York; Cleveland, Ohio; Portland, Maine; Los Angeles, California; Juneau, Alaska; Saint Michael, Alaska; and Norfolk, Virginia; Honolulu, Hawaii; and San Juan, Porto Rico; at the rate of $2,500 per year for each local inspector.

For the districts of Oswego, New York; Willamette, Oregon; Detroit, Michigan; and Mobile, Alabama; and the ports of Saint Louis, Missouri; and Port Huron, Michigan; at the rate of $2,350 per year for each local inspector.

For the districts of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; New Haven, Connecticut; Savannah, Georgia; Charleston, South Carolina; Galveston, Texas; New London, Connecticut; Superior, Michigan; and Bangor, Maine; and the ports of Dubuque, Iowa; Toledo, Ohio; Evansville, Indiana; Memphis, Tennessee; Nashville, Tennessee; Point Pleasant, West Virginia; Jacksonville, Florida; Tampa, Florida; Louisville, Kentucky; and Cincinnati, Ohio, at the rate of $2,100 per year for each local inspector.

And in addition the Secretary of Commerce may appoint, in districts or ports where the volume of work requires them, assistant inspectors, at a salary, for the port of New York, of $2,500 a year each; for the port of New Orleans, Louisiana; the districts of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Baltimore, Maryland; the ports of Boston, Massachusetts; Providence, Rhode Island; and the district of San Francisco, California, at $2,350 per year each, and for all other districts and ports at a salary of $2,100 a year each; and he may appoint a clerk to any such board at a compensation not exceeding $1,500 a year to each person so appointed. Every inspector provided for in this or the preceding sections of this chapter shall be paid his actual necessary traveling expenses while traveling on official business assigned him by competent authority, together with his actual and reasonable expenses for transportation of instruments, which shall be certified and sworn to under such instructions as shall be given by the Secretary of Commerce.

Assistant inspectors, appointed as provided by law, shall perform such duties of actual inspection as may be assigned to them under the direction, supervision, and control of the local inspectors.

The Secretary of Commerce may appoint not exceeding four traveling inspectors when in his judgment they are necessary for the improvement of the service, each of whom shall be entitled to a salary of $3,000 a year and his actual necessary traveling expenses while traveling on official business.

And the Secretary of Commerce may from time to time detail said assistant inspectors of one port or district for service in any other port or district, as the needs of the Steamboat Inspection Service may, in his discretion, require, and the actual necessary traveling expenses of assistant inspectors so detailed, while traveling on official business assigned them by competent authority, shall, subject to such limitations as the said Secretary may in his discretion prescribe, be paid in the same manner as provided in this section for inspection. (R. S. § 4414; Jan. 3, 1887, c. 12, 24 Stat. 354; July 26, 1890, c. 721, 26 Stat. 292; Mar. 1, 1895, c. 146, § 2, 28 Stat. 699; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 186, § 1, 28 Stat. 843; Feb. 15, 1897, c. 231, 29 Stat. 530; Apr. 21, 1898, c. 184, 30 Stat. 360; June 2, 1900, c. 614, 31 Stat. 262; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1455, 33 Stat. 1026; Apr. 9, 1906, c. 1372, § 1, 34 Stat. 106; May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 9, 35 Stat. 428; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 159, 37 Stat. 1013; Oct. 22, 1913, c. 32, 38 Stat. 223; Feb. 26, 1917, c. 125, 39 Stat. 942; July 2, 1918, c. 115, 40 Stat. 740; Apr. 19, 1924, c. 129, §§ 1, 2, 43 Stat. 104.)

383. Traveling expenses of inspectors.—Inspectors and other employees in the Steamboat Inspection Service shall be allowed, in lieu of mileage, only their actual necessary traveling expenses while traveling on official business assigned them by competent authority. (Oct. 22, 1913, c. 32, 38 Stat. 223.)

384. Qualifications and appointment of local inspectors.—The inspector of hulls shall be a person of good character and suitable qualifications and attainments to perform the services required of an inspector of hulls, who from his practical knowledge of shipbuilding and navigation and the uses of steam in navigation is fully competent to make a reliable estimate of the strength, seaworthiness, and other qualities of the hulls of vessels and their equipment deemed essential to safety of life in their navigation; and the inspector of boilers shall be a person of good character and suitable qualifications and attainments to perform the services required of an inspector of boilers, who from his knowledge and experience of the duties of an engineer employed in navigating vessels by steam, and also of the construction and use of boilers, and machinery and appurtenances therewith connected, is able to form a reliable opinion of the strength, form, workmanship, and suitableness of boilers and machinery to be employed, without hazard to life from imperfection in the material, workmanship, or arrangement of any part of such apparatus for steaming. The inspector of hulls and the inspector of boilers designated by the Secretary of Commerce shall, from the date of designation, constitute a board of local inspectors. (R. S. § 4415; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 251; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1457, § 1, 33 Stat. 1028; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

385. Persons ineligible as inspectors or assistants.—No person interested, either directly or indirectly, in any patented article required to be used on any steamer by this and the following chapter, or who is a member of any association of owners, masters, engineers, or pilots of steamboats, or who is, directly or indirectly, pecuniarily interested in any steam vessel, or who has not the qualifications and acquirements prescribed by this chapter, or who is intemperate in his habits, shall be eligible to hold the office of either supervising, local, or assistant inspector, or to discharge the duties thereof; and if any such person shall attempt to exercise the functions of the office of either inspector he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of $500, and shall be dismissed from office. (R. S. § 4416; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1457, § 2, 33 Stat. 1029.)

MODE, MANNER, AND EXTENT OF INSPECTION; CERTIFICATES; RECORDS

391. Hulls and equipments; exemption of vessels; enforcement of requirements.—The local inspectors shall, once in every year, at least, carefully inspect the hull of each steam vessel within their respective districts, and shall satisfy themselves that every such vessel so submitted to their inspection is of a structure suitable for the service in which she is to be employed, has suitable accommodations for passengers and the crew, and is in a condition to warrant the belief that she may be used in navigation as a steamer, with safety to life, and that all the requirements of law in regard to fires, boats, pumps, hose, life preservers, floats, anchors, cables, and other things are faithfully complied with; and if they deem it expedient they may direct the vessel to be put in motion, and may adopt any other suitable means to test her sufficiency and that of her equipment. The local inspectors shall, once in every year, at least, carefully inspect the hull of each sail vessel of over seven hundred tons carrying passengers for hire and all other vessels and barges of over one hundred tons burden carrying passengers for hire within their respective districts, and shall satisfy themselves that every such vessel so submitted to their inspection is of a structure suitable for the service in which she is to be employed, has suitable accommodations for the crew, and is in condition to warrant the belief that she may be used in navigation with safety to life: Provided, That vessels while laid up and dismantled and out of commission may, by regulations established by the board of supervising inspectors, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, be exempted from any or all inspection under this section and sections 392, 404, and 405. Whenever any inspector or assistant inspector shall, in the performance of his duty, find on board any vessel subject to the provisions of this and the following chapter, as part of the required equipment thereof, any equipment, machinery, apparatus, or appliances not conforming to the requirements of law, he shall require the same to be placed in proper condition by the owner or master of the said vessel, if possible; and if said inspector or assistant inspector shall find on board any such vessel any life preservers or fire hose so defective as to be incapable of repair, he shall require that the same be destroyed in his presence by such owner or master. And in any of the foregoing cases local inspectors by whom or under whose supervision said vessel is then being inspected shall have power to enforce the foregoing requirements by revoking the certificate of the said vessel, and by refusing to issue a new certificate to the said vessel until the said requirements shall have been fully complied with or until such action of the local inspectors shall have been reversed, modified, or set aside by the supervising inspector of the district on proper appeal by the owner or master of said vessel, which appeal shall be made to the said supervising inspector within ten days after the final action as aforesaid by the local inspectors; and upon such appeal, duly made, the supervising inspector shall have power to affirm, modify, or set aside such action by the local inspectors. (R. S. § 4417; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 29, § 4, 30 Stat. 765; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1454, § 1, 33 Stat. 1023; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.

392. Boilers and appurtenances.—The local inspectors shall also inspect the boilers and their appurtenances in all steam vessels before the same shall be used, and once at least in every year thereafter, and shall subject all boilers to the hydrostatic pressure. All such vessels shall comply with the following requirements, namely: That the boilers are well made, of good and suitable material; that the openings for the passage of water and steam, respectively, and all pipes and tubes exposed to heat, are of proper dimensions and free from obstructions; that the spaces between and around the flues are sufficient; that flues, boilers, furnaces, safety valves, fusible plugs, low-water indicators, feed-water apparatus, gauge cocks, steam gauges, water and steam pipes connecting boilers, means of prevention of sparks and flames from fire doors, low-water gauges, means of removing mud and sediment from boilers, and all other such machinery and appurtenances thereof, are of such construction, shape, condition, arrangement, and material that the same may be safely employed in the service proposed without peril to life; and the local inspectors shall satisfy themselves by thorough examination that said requirements of law and regulations in regard thereto have been fully complied with. All boilers used on steam vessels and constructed of iron or steel plates, inspected under the provisions of section 408, shall be subjected to a hydrostatic test, in the ratio of one hundred and fifty pounds to the square inch to one hundred pounds to the square inch of the working steam power allowed. No boiler or flue pipe, nor any of the connections therewith, shall be approved, which is made, in whole or in part, of bad material, or is unsafe in its form, or dangerous from defective workmanship, age, use, or other cause. (R. S. § 4418; June 19, 1886, c. 421, § 14, 24 Stat. 82; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1456, § 1, 33 Stat. 1027.)

393. Control of safety valves and steam registers.—One of the safety valves may, if in the opinion of the local inspectors it is necessary to do so, and the steam registers shall, be taken wholly from the control of all persons engaged in navigating such vessel and secured by the inspectors. (R. S. § 4419.)

394. Amount of steam pressure allowed freight boats on Mississippi.—In applying the directions of the preceding sections to steamboats used exclusively for towing and carrying freight on the Mississippi River and its tributaries, the local inspectors shall substitute, for such boats, one hundred and fifty pounds of steam pressure in place of one hundred and ten pounds for the standard pressure upon standard boilers of forty-two inches diameter, and of plates of one-quarter of an inch in thickness. (R. S. § 4420; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 251.)

395. Seagoing barges; certificates.—The local inspectors of steamboats shall at least once in every year inspect the hull and equipment of every seagoing barge of one hundred gross tons or over, and shall satisfy themselves that such barge is of a structure suitable for the service in which she is to be employed, has suitable accommodations for the crew, and is in a condition to warrant the belief that she may be used in navigation with safety to life. They shall then issue a certificate of inspection in the manner and for the purposes prescribed in sections 399 and 400. (May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 10, 35 Stat. 428.)

396. Equipment of barges with life-saving appliances.—Every such barge shall be equipped with the following appliances of kinds approved by the board of supervising inspectors: At least one lifeboat, at least one anchor with suitable chain or cable, and at least one life preserver for each person on board. (May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 11, 35 Stat. 428.)

397. Certificate of inspection and equipment of barge required.—A register, enrollment, or license shall not be issued or renewed by any collector or other officer of customs to any such barge unless at the time of issue or renewal such barge has in force the certificate of inspection prescribed by section 395 and on board the equipment prescribed by the preceding section. (May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 12, 35 Stat. 428; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 184, § 6, 38 Stat. 1218.)

398. Navigating barge without certificate or equipment prescribed.—If any such barge shall be navigated without such certificate of inspection, or without any part of the equipment prescribed by section 396, the owner shall be liable to a penalty of $500 for each offense. (May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 13, 35 Stat. 428.)

399. Certificate; temporary certificate; completion of voyage after expiration.—When the inspection of a steam vessel is completed and the inspectors approve the vessel and her equipment throughout, they shall make and subscribe a certificate, which certificate shall be verified by the oaths of the inspectors signing it, before the chief officer of the customs of the district or any other person competent by law to administer oaths. Such certificate shall be delivered to the master or owner of the vessel to which it relates, and one copy thereof shall be kept on file in the inspectors' office and one copy shall be delivered to the collector or other chief officer of the customs of the district in which such inspection has been made, who shall keep the same on file in his office. If the inspectors refuse to grant a certificate of approval they shall make a statement in writing and sign the same, giving the reasons for their disapproval. Upon such inspection and approval the inspectors shall also make and subscribe to a temporary certificate, which shall set forth substantially the fact of such inspection and approval, and shall deliver the same to the master or owner of the vessel and shall keep a copy thereof on file in their office. The said temporary certificate shall be carried and exposed by vessels in the same manner as is provided in section 400 for the regular certificate, and the form thereof and the period during which it is to be in force shall be as prescribed by the board of supervising inspectors, or the executive committee thereof, as provided in section 375. And such temporary certificate, during such period and prior to the delivery to the master or owner of the regular certificate, shall take the place of and be a substitute for the regular certificate of inspection, as required by this section and by section 404, and for the purposes of said sections. Such temporary certificate shall also be subject to revocation in the manner and under the conditions provided in section 435. No vessel required to be inspected under the provisions of this chapter shall be navigated without having on board an unexpired regular certificate of inspection or such temporary certificate: Provided, however, That any such vessel operated upon a regularly established line from a port of the United States to a port of a foreign country not contiguous to the United States whose certificate of inspection expires at sea or while said vessel is in a foreign port or a port of the Philippine Islands or Hawaii may lawfully complete her voyage without the regular certificate of inspection or the temporary certificate required by this section, and no liability for penalties imposed by this and the following chapter for want of such certificate shall be incurred until her voyage shall have been completed: Provided, That said voyage shall be so completed within thirty days after the expiration of said certificate or temporary certificate: Provided further, That no such vessel whose certificate of inspection shall expire within fifteen days of the date of her sailing shall proceed upon her voyage to such port of a foreign country not contiguous to the United States without first having procured a new certificate of inspection or the temporary certificate required by this section. (R. S. § 4421; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 251; June 11, 1906, c. 3071, 34 Stat. 230; June 25, 1910, c. 402, 36 Stat. 831; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 184, § 1, 38 Stat. 1216.)

400. Placing of certificate for observation by passengers.—The original certificate of inspection delivered to the master or owner of a steam vessel shall be placed by such master or owner in a conspicuous place in the vessel where it will be most likely to be observed by passengers and others, and there kept at all times, framed under glass, as evidence of the authority thereby conferred: Provided, however, That where it is not practicable to so expose said certificate, it shall be carried in the vessel in such manner as shall be prescribed by the regulations established by the board of supervising inspectors with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce. (R. S. § 4423; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1457, § 3, 33 Stat. 1029; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 184, § 3, 38 Stat. 1217.)

401. Certificate authorizing vessel to carry gunpowder; posting of.—Upon the application of any master or owner of any steam vessel employed in the carriage of passengers, for a license to carry gunpowder, the local inspectors shall examine such vessel, and if they find that she is provided with a chest or safe composed of metal, or entirely lined and sheathed therewith, or if the vessel has one or more compartments thoroughly lined and sheathed with metal, at a secure distance from any fire, they may grant a certificate to that effect, authorizing such vessel to carry as freight within such chests, safes, or compartments, the article of gunpowder, which certificate shall be kept conspicuously posted on board such vessel. (R. S. § 4422; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 184, § 2, 38 Stat. 1217.)

402. Penalty for violating provisions as to or in certificates.—Whenever any passenger is received on board any steam vessel not having an unexpired certificate of approval or an unexpired temporary certificate of approval placed and kept as required by this chapter, or whenever any passenger steam vessel receives or carries any gunpowder on board, not having a certificate authorizing the same, placed and kept as required, or shall carry any gunpowder at a place or in a manner not authorized by such certificate, such steam vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $100 for each offense. (R. S. § 4424; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 184, § 4, 38 Stat. 1217.)

403. Punishment for certifying falsely.—Every inspector who willfully certifies falsely touching any steam vessel, as to her hull, accommodations, boilers, engines, machinery, or their appurtenances, or any of her equipments, or any matter or thing contained in any certificate signed and sworn to by him, shall be punished by fine of not more than $500, or imprisonment for not more than six months, or both. (R. S. § 4425.)

404. Inspection of ferryboats, canal boats, and small craft; regulations; licenses.—The hull and boilers of every ferryboat, canal boat, yacht, or other small craft of like character propelled by steam, shall be inspected under the provisions of this chapter. Such other provisions of law for the better security of life as may be applicable to such vessels shall, by the regulations of the board of supervising inspectors, also be required to be complied with before a certificate of inspection shall be granted, and no such vessel shall be navigated without a licensed engineer and a licensed pilot: Provided, however, That in open steam launches of ten gross tons and under, one person, if duly qualified, may serve in the double capacity of pilot and engineer. All vessels of above fifteen gross tons carrying freight or passengers for hire, but not engaged in fishing as a regular business, propelled by gas, fluid, naphtha, or electric motors, shall be subject to all the provisions of this section relating to the inspection of hulls and boilers and requiring engineers and pilots, and for any violation of the provisions of this or the following chapter or sections 214 or 215 applicable to such vessels, or of rules or regulations lawfully established thereunder, and to the extent to which such provisions of law and regulations are so applicable, the said vessels, their masters, officers, and owners shall be subject to the provisions of sections 494 to 498, inclusive, relating to the imposition and enforcement of penalties and the enforcement of law. All vessels of fifteen gross tons or less propelled in whole or in part by gas, gasoline, petroleum, naphtha, fluid, or electricity, and carrying passengers for hire, shall carry one life preserver, of the sort prescribed by the regulations of the board of supervising inspectors, for every passenger carried, and no such boat while so carrying passengers shall be operated or navigated except in charge of a person duly licensed for such service by the local board of inspectors. No examination shall be required as a condition of the obtaining of such a license, and any such license shall be revoked or suspended by the local board of inspectors for misconduct, gross negligence, recklessness in navigation, intemperance, or violation of law on the part of the holder, and if revoked, the person holding such license shall be incapable of obtaining another such license for one year from the date of revocation. (R. S. § 4426; Dec. 22, 1890, c. 26, 26 Stat. 692; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1457, § 4, 33 Stat. 1029; May 16, 1906, c. 2460, 34 Stat. 193.)

405. Tugboats and freight boats.—The hull and boiler of every tugboat, towing boat, and freight boat shall be inspected, under the provisions of this chapter; and the inspectors shall see that the boilers, machinery, and appurtenances of such vessel are not dangerous in form of workmanship, and that the safety valves, gauge cocks, low-water alarm indicators, steam gauges, and fusible plugs are all attached in conformity to law; and the officers navigating such vessels shall be licensed in conformity with the provisions of chapter 11 and shall be subject to the same provisions of law, as officers navigating passenger steamers. (R. S. § 4427.)

406. Construction of boilers.—Every boiler manufactured to be used on steam vessels, and made of iron or steel plates, shall be constructed of plates that have been stamped in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. (R. S. § 4428.)

407. Punishment for improper construction.—Every person who constructs a boiler, or steam pipe connecting the boilers, to be used on steam vessels, of iron or steel plates which have not been duly stamped and inspected according to the provisions of this chapter, or who knowingly uses any defective, bad, or faulty iron or steel in the construction of such boilers; or who drifts any rivet hole to make it come fair; or who delivers any such boiler for use, knowing it to be imperfect in its flues, flanging, riveting, bracing, or in any other of its parts, shall be fined $1,000, one-half for the use of the informer. Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to prevent from being used, on any steamer, any boiler or steam generator which may not be constructed of riveted iron or steel plates, when the board of supervising inspectors have satisfactory evidence that such boiler or steam generator is equal in strength, and as safe from explosion, as a boiler of the best quality constructed of riveted iron or steel plates: Provided, however, That the Secretary of Commerce may grant permission to use any boiler or steam generator not constructed of riveted iron or steel plates upon the certificate of the supervising inspector of steamboats for the district wherein such boiler or generator is to be used, and other satisfactory proof that the use of the same is safe and efficient; said permit to be valid until the next regular meeting of the supervising inspectors who shall act thereon. (R. S. § 4429; Aug. 7, 1882, c. 433, § 1, 22 Stat. 310; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

408. Boiler plates.—Every iron or steel plate used in the construction of steamboat boilers, and which shall be subject to a tensile strain, shall be inspected in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors and approved by the Secretary of Commerce, so as to enable the inspectors to ascertain its tensile strength, homogeneousness, toughness, and ability to withstand the effect of repeated heating and cooling; and no iron or steel plate shall be used in the construction of such boilers which has not been inspected and approved under those rules. And the Supervising Inspector General may, under the direction of the Secretary of Commerce, detail assistant inspectors from any local inspection district where assistant inspectors are employed, to inspect iron or steel boiler plates at the mills where the same are manufactured; and if the plates are found in accordance with the rules of the supervising inspectors, the assistant inspector shall stamp the same with the initials of his name, followed by the letters and words, "U. S. Assistant Inspector;" and material so stamped shall be accepted by the local inspectors in the districts where such material is to be manufactured into marine boilers as being in full compliance with the requirements of this section regarding the inspection of boiler plates; it being further provided that any person who affixes any false, forged, fraudulent, spurious, or counterfeit of the stamp authorized to be put on by an assistant inspector, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be fined not less than $1,000, nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than two years nor more than five years. (R. S. § 4430; Jan. 22, 1894, c. 16, 28 Stat. 28; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

409. Stamping boiler plates.—Every plate of boiler iron or steel, made for use in the construction of steamboat boilers, shall be distinctly and permanently stamped by the manufacturer thereof, and, if practicable, in such places that the marks shall be left visible when such plates are worked into boilers, with the name of the manufacturer, the place where manufactured, and the number of pounds tensile strain it will bear to the sectional square inch; and the inspectors shall keep a record in their office of the stamps upon all boiler plates and boilers which they inspect. (R. S. § 4431.)

410. Counterfeiting stamps.—Every person who counterfeits, or causes to be counterfeited, any of the marks or stamps prescribed for boiler iron or steel plates, or who designedly stamps, or causes to be stamped falsely, any such plate; and every person who stamps or marks, or causes to be stamped or marked, any such iron or steel plates with the name or trademark of another, with the intent to mislead or deceive, shall be fined $2,000, one-half to the use of the informer, and may, in addition thereto, at the discretion of the court, be imprisoned not exceeding two years. (R. S. § 4432.)

411. Pressure of steam allowable.—The working steam pressure allowable on boilers, constructed of plates inspected as required by this chapter, when single riveted, shall not produce a strain to exceed one-sixth of the tensile strength of the iron or steel plates of which such boilers are constructed; but where the longitudinal laps of the cylindrical parts of such boilers are double riveted, and the rivet holes for such boilers have been fairly drilled instead of punched, an addition of 20 per centum to the working pressure provided for single riveting may be allowed: Provided, That all other parts of such boilers shall correspond in strength to the additional allowances so made; and no split calking shall in any case be permitted. (R. S. § 4433.)

412. Thickness of boiler plate; space between flues.—No externally fired boiler having its shell constructed of iron or steel plates, exceeding an average thickness of thirty-eight one-hundredths of an inch, shall be employed on any steam vessel navigating the Red River of the North or rivers flowing into the Gulf of Mexico or their tributaries; and no externally fired boiler employed on any such steam vessel shall have less than three inches space between its shell and any of its internal flues, and not less than three inches space between such flues when any such flues are more than five inches in diameter, the measurements to be taken from the center of the length of the tapered section of said flues; and every such externally fired boiler employed on any such steam vessel shall be provided with a manhole in the lower part of the front head thereof, of such dimensions as may be prescribed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors, in all cases where the distance between its internal flues is less than three inches. Externally fired boilers having shells constructed of iron or steel plates not exceeding an average thickness of fifty one-hundredths of an inch may, in the discretion of the Supervising Inspector General, be authorized and employed on steam vessels navigating the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans, or salt water bays, or sounds, or the Great Lakes, or any of them, and waters flowing to and from the same, or any of them: Provided, That on inspection, no plate that is by this section limited to a thickness of thirty-eight one-hundredths of an inch and no plate that is by this section limited to a thickness of fifty one-hundredths of an inch shall be rejected for use if found to exceed those dimensions, respectively, if the approved average thickness thereof does not exceed the limits therein specified, and the amount of steam pressure that will be permitted to be carried in boilers constructed in accordance with the requirements of this section shall be determined from measurements showing the least thickness of the plates.

All externally fired boilers, constructed of iron or steel, prior to March 2, 1909, and then in use on any such vessels, wherein the space between the shell and any of its internal flues or between such flues is less than three inches, shall be deemed lawfully constructed. (R. S. § 4434; Feb. 11, 1885, c. 55, 23 Stat. 298; Feb. 28, 1895, c. 139, § 1, 28 Stat. 690; Mar. 2, 1909, c. 244, §§ 1, 2, 35 Stat. 687.)

413. Obstructing safety valves.—Every person who intentionally loads or obstructs, or causes to be loaded or obstructed, in any way or manner, the safety valve of a boiler, or who employs any other means or device whereby the boiler may be subjected to a greater pressure than the amount allowed by the certificate of the inspectors, or who intentionally deranges or hinders the operation of any machinery or device employed to denote the state of the water or steam in any boiler, or to give warning of approaching danger, or who intentionally permits the water to fall below the prescribed low-water line of the boiler, and every person concerned therein, directly or indirectly, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined $200, and may also be imprisoned not exceeding five years. (R. S. § 4437.)

414. Records and reports by local inspectors.—The local inspectors shall keep a record of certificates of inspection of vessels, their boilers, engines, and machinery, and of all their acts in their examination and inspection of steamers, whether of approval or disapproval; and when a certificate of approval is recorded, the original shall be delivered to the collector or other chief officer of the customs of the district. They shall also keep a like record of certificates authorizing gunpowder to be carried as freight by any steamer carrying passengers, and of all licenses granted to masters, mates, pilots, and engineers, and of all refusals of the same, of all suspensions and revocations of license, of all refusals, suspensions, or revocations of which they shall receive notices from other districts; and shall report to the supervising inspector of their respective districts, in writing, their decisions in cases of refusal of licenses, or of the suspension or revocation thereof, and all testimony received by them in such proceedings. They shall also report promptly to such supervising inspector all violations of the steamboat laws that come to their knowledge. They shall also keep an accurate account of every steamer boarded by them during the year, and of all their official acts and doings, which, in the form of a report, they shall communicate to the supervising inspector of the district, at such times as the Board of Supervising Inspectors, by their established rules shall direct. (R. S. § 4457.)

415. Instruments, stationery, and printing for local boards.—The Secretary of Commerce shall procure for the several supervising inspectors and local boards of inspectors such instruments, stationery, printing, and other things necessary for the use of their respective offices as may be required therefor. (R. S. § 4460; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

416. Regulations.—The Secretary of Commerce shall make such regulations as may be necessary to secure the proper execution of this and the following chapter and sections 214 and 215. (R. S. § 4462; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

PROCEDURE; DECISIONS AND REVIEW THEREOF

431. Appeals to supervising inspectors and to Supervising Inspector General.—Whenever any person directly interested in or affected by any decision or action of any board of local inspectors of vessels shall feel aggrieved by such decision or action, he may appeal therefrom to the supervising inspector of the district; and a like appeal shall be allowed from any decision or action of a supervising inspector to the Supervising Inspector General, whose decision, when approved by the Secretary of Commerce, shall be final: Provided, however, That application for such reexamination of the case by a supervising inspector or by the Supervising Inspector General shall be made within thirty days after the decision or action appealed from shall have been rendered or taken: And provided further, That in all cases reviewed under the provisions of this and the three following sections where the issue is the suspension or revocation of the license of a licensed officer such officer shall be allowed to be represented by counsel and to testify in his own behalf. (June 10, 1918, c. 95, § 1, 40 Stat. 602.)

432. Powers of supervising inspectors and Supervising Inspector General.—Whenever there shall be a disagreement between the local inspectors in regard to any matter before them for decision they shall report the case to the supervising inspector of the district, who shall investigate and decide the same. Any supervising inspector may within thirty days thereafter, upon his own motion, review any decision or action of any board of local inspectors within his district and in like manner the Supervising Inspector General may within thirty days thereafter review any decision or action of any supervising inspector or board of local inspectors, and the decision of the Supervising Inspector General in such case shall, when approved by the Secretary of Commerce, be final. (June 10, 1918, c. 95, § 2, 40 Stat. 603.)

433. Modification of decisions on review.—Any decision or action reviewed by the Supervising Inspector General or by any supervising inspector, as provided in the two preceding sections, may be revoked, changed, or modified by such reviewing officer, who shall have power to administer oaths and to summon and compel the attendance of witnesses by a similar process as in the district courts of the United States; and the disbursing clerk, Department of Commerce, shall pay, on properly certified vouchers, such fees to any witness so summoned for his actual travel and attendance as shall be officially certified to by the officer reviewing the case, not exceeding the rate allowed for fees to witnesses for travel and attendance in the district courts of the United States. (June 10, 1918, c. 95, § 3, 40 Stat. 603.)

434. Regulations.—The Secretary of Commerce shall make such regulations as may be necessary to secure a proper enforcement of the provisions of the three preceding sections. (June 10, 1918, c. 95, § 4, 40 Stat. 603.)

435. Reinspections and notice for repairs; enforcement of requirements.—In addition to the annual inspection, the local inspectors shall examine, at proper times, steamers arriving and departing to and from their respective ports, so often as to enable them to detect any neglect to comply with the requirements of law, and also any defects or imperfections becoming apparent after the inspection aforesaid, and tending to render the navigation of the vessels unsafe; and if they shall discover any omission to comply with the law, or that repairs have become necessary to make the vessel safe, the inspectors shall at once notify the master, in writing, stating in the notice what is required; and if the master deems the requirements unreasonable or unnecessary, he may apply for a reexamination of the case to the supervising inspector. All inspections and orders for repairs shall be promptly made by the inspectors, and, when it can be safely done in their judgment, they shall permit repairs to be made where those interested can most conveniently do them. And whenever any local inspector or supervising inspector ascertains to his satisfaction that any vessel, subject to the provisions of this and the following chapter, has been or is being navigated or operated without complying with the terms of the vessel's certificate of inspection regarding the number and class of licensed officers and crew, or without complying with the provisions of law and her said certificate as to the number or kind of life-saving or fire-fighting apparatus, or without maintaining in good and efficient condition her lifeboats, fire pumps, fire hose, and life preservers, or that for any other reason said vessel can not be operated with safety to life, the said local or supervising inspector shall order the owner or master of said vessel to correct such unlawful conditions, and may require that the vessel at once cease navigating and be submitted to reinspection; and in case the said orders of such inspector shall not at once be complied with, the said inspector shall revoke the said vessel's certificate of inspection and shall immediately give to the owner, master, or agent of said vessel notice, in writing, of such revocation; and no new certificate of inspection shall be again issued to her until the provisions of this and the following chapter have been complied with. Any vessel subject to the provisions of this and the following chapter operating or navigating or attempting to operate or navigate after the revocation of her certificate of inspection and before the issuance of a new certificate, shall, upon application by the inspector to any district court of the United States having jurisdiction, and by proper order or action of said court in the premises, be seized summarily by way of libel and held without privilege of release by bail or bond until a proper certificate of inspection shall have been issued to said vessel: Provided, That the master or owner of any vessel whose certificate shall have been so revoked may within thirty days after receiving notice of such revocation appeal to the Secretary of Commerce for a reexamination of the case, and upon such appeal the said Secretary shall have power to revise, modify, or set aside such action of the local or supervising inspector and direct the issuance to such vessel of her original certificate or of a new certificate of inspection; and in case the said Secretary shall so direct the issuance of a certificate, all judicial process against said vessel based on this section shall thereupon be of no further force or effect, and the vessel shall thereupon be released. (R. S. § 4453; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1454, § 2, 33 Stat. 1023; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

436. Penalty for failure to make repairs on notice.—If any master or owner of any steamer shall refuse or neglect to comply with the requirements of the local inspectors, made in pursuance of the preceding section, and shall, contrary thereto and while the same remains unreversed by the supervising inspector, employ the vessel by navigating her, the master and owner shall be liable to a penalty of $500 for each offense, one-half for the use of the informer; for which sum the vessel itself shall be liable, and may be seized and proceeded against by libel in any district court having jurisdiction; and the master and owner, and the vessel itself, shall, in addition thereto, be liable for any damage to passengers and their baggage which shall occur from any defects as stated in the notice prescribed by the preceding section. (R. S. § 4454.)

437. Effect of decisions by inspectors.—The inspectors of one district shall not modify or annul the doings of the inspectors of another district in regard to repairs, unless there is a change in the state of things, demanding more repairs than were thought necessary when the order was made. Nor shall the inspectors of one district license a person coming from another district, if such person has been rejected for unfitness or want of qualifications. (R. S. § 4455.)

438. Inspection in districts not having inspectors.—The local boards of inspectors, when so requested in writing by any master or owner, shall, under the direction of the supervising inspector, inspect steamers in other collection districts where no such board is established; and if a certificate of approval is not granted, no other inspection shall be made by the same or any other board until the objections made by such local board and unreversed by the supervising inspector of the district, are removed. Nothing in this section shall impair the right of the inspectors to permit such vessel to go to another port for repairs, if in their opinion it can be done with safety. (R. S. § 4456.)

439. Reports to Supervising Inspector General; examination by general board.—Each supervising inspector shall report, in writing, at the end of each fiscal year to the Supervising Inspector General the general business transacted in his district during the year, embracing all violations of the laws regulating vessels, and the action taken in relation to the same; all investigations and decisions by local inspectors; and all cases of appeal and the result thereof. The board shall examine into all the acts of each supervising inspector and local board, and all complaints made against same, in relation to the performance of their duties under the law, and the judgment of the board in each case shall be entered upon their journal; and the board shall, as far as possible, correct mistakes where they exist. (R. S. § 4410; May 22, 1912, c. 130, § 1, 37 Stat. 116.)

440. Payment of marshal and witnesses.—The chief officer of the customs for the district shall pay out of the revenues received under the provisions of this and the following chapter such fees to the United States marshal for his services, and to any witness, so summoned, for his actual travel and attendance, as shall be officially certified to by any inspector hearing the case, upon the back of such summons, not exceeding the rate allowed for fees and to witnesses for travel and attendance in any district courts of the United States. (R. S. § 4451.)

Chapter 15.—TRANSPORTATION OF PASSENGERS AND MERCHANDISE BY STEAM VESSELS.

Sec.
451. Number of passengers allowable.
452. Penalty for carrying too many passengers.
453. Special permit for excursions.
454. Regulations as to regattas or marine parades.
455. Enforcement of regulations; use of public or private vessels.
456. Transfer of authority to regulate to head of other department.
457. Penalties for violations of regulations.
458. Vessels on Great Lakes carrying persons not passengers.
459. Life preservers.
460. Count or list of passengers.
461. Penalty for failure to keep list of passengers.
462. Recovery of penalties.
463. Precautions against fire.
464. Fire pumps and hose.
465. Dangerous articles not to be carried on passenger steamers; gasoline in automobiles; regulations.
466. Penalty for unlawfully carrying cotton or hemp.
467. Use of petroleum in production of motive power; discharge of petroleum at terminal ports.
468. Mode of packing dangerous articles.
469. Punishment for unlawfully shipping dangerous articles.
470. Watchmen on passenger steamers.
471. Punishment for failure to keep watchmen.
472. Fire extinguishers.
473. Steering, navigating, and signaling apparatus.
474. Boats for river steamers.
475. Life preservers for river steamers.
476. Fire buckets and axes for river steamers.
477. Stairways and gangways on river steamers.
478. Accommodation of deck passengers.
479. Penalty for not providing proper accommodations for passengers.
480. River steamers to be anchored when navigation is unsafe.
481. Regulations as to life-saving appliances on ocean, lake, and sound steamers and foreign vessels.
482. Water-tight bulkheads in lake steamers carrying passengers.
483. Water-tight bulkheads not required on certain steamers.
484. Radio-communication apparatus.
485. Requirements as to efficiency of radio apparatus.
486. Penalty for violating provisions as to radio apparatus; separate offenses.
487. Regulations as to radio apparatus.
488. Substitute for second operator of radio apparatus on cargo steamers.
489. Use of instruments for security of life to be approved.
490. Barges carrying passengers.
491. Liability of master and owners for damage to passengers.
492. Copies of provisions to be kept on passenger steamers.
493. Name of steamer exhibited.
494. Duties of customs officers.
495. Penalty for omission of duty by customs officers.
496. Registry or enrollment denied to vessels not complying with law.
497. Penalty for failure to comply with provisions.
498. Penalty in cases not provided for.

Section 451. Number of passengers allowable.—The board of local inspectors shall state in every certificate of inspection granted to vessels carrying passengers, other than ferryboats, the number of passengers of each class that any such vessel has accommodation for and can carry with prudence and safety. They shall report their action to the supervising inspector of the district, who may at any time order the number of such passengers decreased, giving his reasons therefor in writing, and thereupon the board of local inspectors shall change the certificate of inspection of such vessel to conform with the decision of the supervising inspector. Whenever the allowance of passengers shall be increased by any board of local inspectors such increase shall be reported to the supervising inspector of the district, together with the reasons therefor, and such increase shall not become effective until the same has been approved in writing by the supervising inspector. (R. S. § 4464; Feb. 14, 1917, c. 63, § 1, 39 Stat. 918.)

452. Penalty for carrying too many passengers.—It shall not be lawful to take on board of any vessel a greater number of passengers than is stated in the certificate of inspection, and for every violation of this provision the master or owner shall be liable to any person suing for the same to forfeit the amount of passage money and $10 for each passenger beyond the number allowed.

The master or owner of the vessel, or either or any of them, who shall knowingly violate this provision shall be liable to a fine of not more than $100 or imprisonment of not more than thirty days, or both. (R. S. § 4465; Feb. 14, 1917, c. 63, § 2, 39 Stat. 918.)

453. Special permit for excursions.—If any passenger vessel engages in excursions, the board of local inspectors shall issue to such vessel a special permit, in writing, for the occasion, in which shall be stated the additional number of passengers that may be carried and the number and kind of life-saving appliances that shall be provided for the safety of such additional passengers; and they shall also, in their discretion, limit the route and distance for such excursions: Provided, however, That the issuance of such special permit shall be reported by the board of local inspectors to the supervising inspector of the district, and such special permit shall not be effective until approved by the said supervising inspector. (R. S. § 4466; Feb. 14, 1917, c. 63, § 3, 39 Stat. 918.)

454. Regulations as to regattas or marine parades.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized and empowered in his discretion to issue from time to time regulations, not contrary to law, to promote the safety of life on navigable waters during regattas or marine parades. (Apr. 28, 1908, c. 151, § 1, 35 Stat. 69; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

455. Enforcement of regulations; use of public or private vessels.—To enforce such regulations the Secretary of Commerce may detail any public vessel in the service of that department and make use of any private vessel tendered gratuitously for the purpose, or upon the request of the Secretary of Commerce the head of any other department may enforce the regulations issued under sections 454 and 456 by means of any public vessel of such department and of any private vessel tendered gratuitously for the purpose. (Apr. 28, 1908, c. 151, § 2, 35 Stat. 69; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

456. Transfer of authority to regulate to head of other department.—The authority and power bestowed upon the Secretary of Commerce by the two preceding sections may be transferred for any special occasion to the head of another department by the President whenever in his judgment such transfer is desirable. (Apr. 28, 1908, c. 151, § 3, 35 Stat. 69; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

457. Penalties for violations of regulations.—For any violation of regulations issued pursuant to the three preceding sections the following penalties shall be incurred:

(a) A licensed officer shall be liable to suspension or revocation of license in the manner now prescribed by law for incompetency or misconduct.

(b) Any person in charge of the navigation of a vessel other than a licensed officer shall be liable to a penalty of $500.

(c) The owner of a vessel (including any corporate officer of a corporation owning the vessel) actually on board shall be liable to a penalty of $500, unless the violation of regulations shall have occurred without his knowledge.

(d) Any other person shall be liable to a penalty of $250.

The Secretary of Commerce is authorized and empowered to mitigate or remit any penalty herein provided for in the manner prescribed by law for the mitigation or remission of penalties for violation of the navigation laws. (Apr. 28, 1908, c. 151, § 4, 35 Stat. 69; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

458. Vessels on Great Lakes carrying persons not passengers.—Any steam vessel engaged in the business of towing vessels, rafts, or water craft of any kind, also steam vessels engaged in oyster dredging and planting, and fishing steamers engaged in food fishing on the Great Lakes and all other inland waters of the United States, and not carrying passengers, may be authorized and licensed by the supervising inspector of the district in which said steamer shall be employed to carry on board such number of persons, in addition to its crew, as the supervising inspector, in his judgment, shall deem necessary to carry on the legitimate business of such towing, oyster and fishing steamers, not exceeding, however, one person to every net ton of measurement of said steamer: Provided, however, That the person so allowed to be carried shall not be carried for hire. (July 9, 1886, c. 755, § 1, 24 Stat. 129; Feb. 23, 1901, c. 465, § 1, 31 Stat. 800.)

459. Life preservers.—Every steam vessel licensed under the foregoing section shall carry and have on board, in accessible places, one life preserver for every person allowed to be carried, in addition to those provided for the crew of such vessel. (July 9, 1886, c. 775, § 2, 24 Stat. 129; Feb. 23, 1901, c. 465, § 2, 31 Stat. 801.)

460. Count or list of passengers.—The master of every passenger steamer shall keep a correct count of all the passengers received and delivered from day to day, which count shall be open to the inspection of the inspectors and officers of the customs at all times, and the aggregate number of passengers shall be furnished to inspectors as often as called for: Provided, however, That a correct list of passengers received and delivered from day to day shall be kept, instead of a correct count, by the masters of seagoing passenger steamers in the coastwise trade and by the masters of passenger steamers on the Great Lakes on routes exceeding three hundred miles: Provided further, That nothing herein shall affect existing laws relative to vessels running between this country and foreign ports. (R. S. § 4467; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 252; May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 3, 35 Stat. 425.)

461. Penalty for failure to keep list of passengers.—Every master of any passenger steamer who fails, through negligence or design, to keep a count or list of passengers as required by the preceding section shall be liable to a penalty of $100. (R. S. § 4468; May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 4, 35 Stat. 425.)

462. Recovery of penalties.—The penalties imposed by sections 452 and 461 shall be a lien upon the vessel in each case; but a bond may, as provided in other cases, be given to secure the satisfaction of the judgment. (R. S. § 4469.)

463. Precautions against fire.—Every steamer carrying passengers or freight shall be provided with suitable pipes and valves attached to the boiler to convey steam into the hold and to the different compartments thereof to extinguish fire, or such other suitable apparatus as may be prescribed by the regulations of the Board of Supervising Inspectors, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, for extinguishing fire in the hold and compartments thereof by the introduction through pipes into such hold and compartments of carbonic-acid gas or other fire-extinguishing gas or vapor; and every stove used on board of any such vessel shall be well and securely fastened, so as to prevent it from being moved or overthrown, and all woodwork or other ignitible substances about the boilers, chimneys, cook houses, and stovepipes, exposed to ignition shall be thoroughly shielded by some incombustible material in such a manner as to leave the air to circulate freely between such material and woodwork or other ignitible substance; and before granting a certificate of inspection the inspector shall require all other necessary provisions to be made throughout such vessel to guard against loss or danger from fire. (R. S. § 4470; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1457, § 7, 33 Stat. 1031; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

464. Fire pumps and hose.—Every steamer permitted by her certificate of inspection to carry as many as fifty passengers, or upward, and every steamer carrying passengers, which also carries cotton, hay, or hemp, shall be provided with a good double-acting steam fire pump, or other equivalent apparatus for throwing water. Such pump or other apparatus for throwing water shall be kept at all times and at all seasons of the year in good order and ready for immediate use, having at least two pipes of suitable dimensions, one on each side of the vessel, to convey the water to the upper decks, to which pipes there shall be attached, by means of stop cocks or valves, both between decks and on the upper deck, good and suitable hose of sufficient strength to stand a pressure of not less than one hundred pounds to the square inch, long enough to reach to all parts of the vessel and properly provided with nozzles, and kept in good order and ready for immediate service. Every steamer exceeding two hundred tons burden and carrying passengers shall be provided with two good double-acting fire pumps, to be worked by hand; each chamber of such pumps, except pumps upon steamers in service on the 28th day of February, 1871, shall be of sufficient capacity to contain not less than one hundred cubic inches of water; and such pumps shall be placed in the most suitable parts of the vessel for efficient service, having suitable well-fitted hose to each pump, of at least one-half the vessel in length, kept at all times in perfect order, and shipped up and ready for immediate use. On every steamer not exceeding two hundred tons, one of such pumps may be dispensed with. Each fire pump thus prescribed shall be supplied with water by means of a suitable pipe connected therewith, and passing through the side of the vessel so low as to be at all times under water when she is afloat. Every steamer shall also be provided with a pump which shall be of sufficient strength and suitably arranged to test the boilers thereof. (R. S. § 4471; June 30, 1906, c. 3919, 34 Stat. 797.)

465. Dangerous articles not to be carried on passenger steamers; gasoline in automobiles; regulations.—No loose hay, loose cotton, or loose hemp, camphene, nitroglycerin, naphtha, benzine, benzole, coal oil, crude or refined petroleum, or other like explosive burning fluids or like dangerous articles, shall be carried as freight or used as stores on any steamer carrying passengers; nor shall baled cotton or hemp be carried on such steamers unless the bales are compactly pressed and thoroughly covered and secured in such manner as shall be prescribed by the regulations established by the Board of Supervising Inspectors with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce; nor shall gunpowder be carried on any such vessel except under special license; nor shall oil of vitriol, nitric or other chemical acids be carried on such steamers except on the decks or guards thereof or in such other safe part of the vessel as shall be prescribed by the inspectors. Refined petroleum, which will not ignite at a temperature less than one hundred and ten degrees of Fahrenheit thermometer, may be carried on board such steamers upon routes where there is no other practicable mode of transporting it, and under such regulations as shall be prescribed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, and oil or spirits of turpentine may be carried on such steamers when put up in good metallic vessels or casks or barrels well and securely bound with iron and stowed in a secure part of the vessel, and friction matches may be carried on such steamers when securely packed in sfrong tight chests or boxes, the covers of which shall be well secured by locks, screws, or other reliable fastenings, and stowed in a safe part of the vessel at a secure distance from any fire or heat. All such other provisions shall be made on every steamer carrying passengers or freight, to guard against and extinguish fire, as shall be prescribed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors and approved by the secretary of Commerce. Nothing in the foregoing or following sections of this chapter shall prohibit the transportation by steam vessels of gasoline or any of the products of petroleum when carried by motor vehicles (commonly known as automobiles) using the same as a source of motive power: Provided, however, That all fires, if any, in such vehicles or automobiles be extinguished immediately after entering the said vessel, and that the same be not relighted until immediately before said vehicle shall leave the vessel: Provided further, That any owner, master, agent, or other person having charge of passenger steam vessels shall have the right to refuse to transport automobile vehicles the tanks of which contain gasoline, naphtha, or other dangerous burning fluids: Provided, however, That nothing in the provisions of this chapter shall prohibit the transportation by vessels not carrying passengers for hire, of gasoline or any of the products of petroleum for use as a source of motive power for the motor boats or launches of such vessels: Provided further, That nothing in the foregoing or following sections of this chapter shall prohibit the use, by steam vessels carrying passengers for hire, of lifeboats equipped with gasoline motors, and tanks containing gasoline for the operation of said motor-driven lifeboats: Provided, however, That no gasoline shall be carried other than that in the tanks of the lifeboats: Provided further, That the use of such lifeboats equipped with gasoline motors shall be under such regulations as shall be prescribed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce: Provided, however, That nothing in the foregoing or following sections of this chapter shall prohibit the transportation and use by vessels carrying passengers or freight for hire of gasoline or any of the products of petroleum for the operation of engines to supply an auxiliary lighting and wireless system independent of the vessel's main power plant: Provided further, That the transportation or use of such gasoline or any of the products of petroleum shall be under such regulations as shall be prescribed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce: Provided, however, That kerosene and lubricating oils made from refined products of petroleum which will stand a fire test of not less than three hundred degrees Fahrenheit may be used as stores on board steamers carrying passengers, under such regulations as shall be prescribed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce. The owner of any automobile in which all fire has not been extinguished and the motors stopped immediately after the automobile has taken its position on any vessel found on navigable waters of the United States and in which such fires do not remain extinguished and the motors remain idle until the vessel is made fast to the wharf or ferry bridge at which she lands shall incur a penalty of not more than $500, for which the automobile shall be liable. (R. S. § 4472; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 252; Feb. 20, 1901, c. 386, 31 Stat. 799; Feb. 18, 1905, c. 586, 33 Stat. 720; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1457, § 8, 33 Stat. 1031; May 28, 1906, c. 2565, 34 Stat. 204; Jan. 24, 1913, c. 10, 37 Stat. 650; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736; Oct. 22, 1914, c. 336, 38 Stat. 766; Mar. 29, 1918, c. 30, 40 Stat. 499; Mar. 2, 1925, c. 387, 43 Stat. 1093.)

466. Penalty for unlawfully carrying cotton or hemp.—Every bale of cotton or hemp that shall be shipped or carried on any passenger steamer, without conforming to the provisions of the preceding section, shall be subject to a penalty of $5, and shall be liable to seizure and sale to secure the payment of such penalty. (R. S. § 4473.)

467. Use of petroleum in production of motive power; discharge of petroleum at terminal ports.—The Secretary of Commerce may grant permission to the owner of any steam vessel, to use any invention or process for the utilization of petroleum or other mineral oils or substances in the production of motive power, and may make and enforce regulations concerning the application and use of the same for such purpose. But no such permission shall be granted, unless upon the certificate of the supervising inspector of steamboats for the district wherein such vessel is registered, and other satisfactory proof that the use of the same is safe and efficient; and upon such proof, and the approval of such certificate by the Secretary of Commerce, a special license for the use of such process or invention shall issue under the seal of the Department of Commerce: Provided, however, That the Secretary of Commerce may permit the use of petroleum as fuel on steamers not carrying passengers, without the certificate of the supervising inspector of the district where the vessel is to be used, subject to such conditions and safeguards as the Secretary of Commerce in his judgment shall provide. For a violation of any of the conditions imposed by the Secretary of Commerce a penalty of $500 shall be imposed, which penalty shall be a lien upon the vessel, but a bond may, as provided in other cases, be given to secure the satisfaction of the judgment: Provided further, That when crude petroleum of a flash point not less than one hundred and fifty degrees Fahrenheit, is carried in the double-bottom fuel tanks of steamers using the same for fuel, the crude petroleum, carried in such tanks in excess of the necessities of the voyage may be discharged at terminal ports when no passengers are on board the ship. Crude petroleum carried and discharged under these conditions will not be considered stores or cargo within the contemplation of section 465. (R. S. § 4474; Oct. 18, 1888, c. 1197, 25 Stat. 564; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736; July 17, 1914, c. 146, 38 Stat. 511.)

468. Mode of packing dangerous articles.—All gunpowder, nitroglycerin, camphene, naphtha, benzine, benzole, coal oil, crude or refined petroleum, oil of vitriol, nitric or other chemical acids, oil or spirits of turpentine, friction matches, and all other articles of like character, when packed or put up for shipment, shall be securely packed and put up separately from each other and from all other articles; and the package, box, cask, or other vessel containing the same shall be distinctly marked on the outside, with the name and description of the article contained therein. (R. S. § 4475.)

469. Punishment for unlawfully shipping dangerous articles.—Every person who packs or puts up, or causes to be packed or put up for shipment, any gunpowder, nitroglycerin, camphene, naphtha, benzine, benzole, coal oil, crude or refined petroleum, oil of vitriol, nitric or other chemical acids, oil or spirits of turpentine, friction matches, or other articles of like character otherwise than as directed by the preceding section, or who knowingly ships or attempts to ship the same, or delivers the same to any such vessel as stores, unless duly packed and marked, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished by fine not exceeding $2,000, or imprisonment not exceeding eighteen months, or both; one-half of the fine to go to the informer, and the articles to be liable to seizure and forfeiture. (R. S. § 4476.)

470. Watchmen on passenger steamers.—Every steamer carrying passengers during the nighttime shall keep a suitable number of watchmen in the cabins, and on each deck, to guard against fire or other dangers, and to give alarm in case of accident or disaster. (R. S. § 4477.)

471. Punishment for failure to keep watchmen.—For any neglect to keep the watchmen required by the preceding section, the license of the officer in charge of the vessel for the time being shall be revoked; and every owner of such vessel who neglects or refuses to furnish the number of men necessary to keep watch as required, shall be fined $1,000. (R. S. § 4478.)

472. Fire extinguishers.—The Board of Supervising Inspectors may require steamers carrying either passengers or freight to be provided with such number and kind of good and efficient portable fire extinguishers as, in the judgment of the board, may be necessary to protect them from fire when such steamers are moored or lying at a warf without steam to work the pumps. (R. S. § 4479.)

473. Steering, navigating, and signaling apparatus.—Every steamer carrying passengers shall be provided with such tiller ropes, tiller rods, or chains for the purpose of steering and navigating the vessel, and such bell pulls for signaling the engineer from the pilot house, and such tubes or other arrangement to repeat back the signal to the pilot house, as may be prescribed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce. (R. S. § 4480; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1456, § 2, 33 Stat. 1028; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

474. Boats for river steamers.—Every steam vessel navigating rivers only, except ferry boats, freight boats, canal boats, and towing boats, of less than fifty tons, shall have at least one good substantial boat with lines attached, and properly supplied with oars, and kept in good condition at all times, and ready for immediate use; and in addition thereto, every such vessel carrying passengers shall have one or more metallic lifeboats, fireproof, and in all respects good and substantial boats, of such dimensions and arrangements as the Board of Supervising Inspectors by their regulations shall prescribe, which boats shall be carried in the most convenient manner to be brought into immediate use in case of accident. But where the character of the navigation is such that, in the opinion of the supervising inspector, the metallic lifeboats can be dispensed with, he may exempt any such vessel from carrying the same; or may require a substitute therefor, at his discretion. (R. S. § 4481.)

475. Life preservers for river steamers.—Every such steam vessel carrying passengers shall also be provided with a good life preserver, made of suitable material, for every cabin passenger for which she will have accommodation, and also a good life preserver or float for each deck or other class passenger which the inspector's certificate shall allow her to carry, including the officers and crew; which life preservers or floats shall be kept in convenient and accessible places on such vessel in readiness for immediate use in case of accident. (R. S. § 4482.)

476. Fire buckets and axes for river steamers.—Every such steam vessel carrying passengers shall keep such fire buckets, axes, and water barrels as shall be prescribed by the regulations established by the Board of Supervising Inspectors, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce. The buckets and barrels shall be kept in convenient places and filled with water, to be in readiness in case of fire, and the axes shall be kept in good order and ready for immediate use. Tanks of suitable dimensions and arrangement, or buckets in sufficient number, may be substituted for barrels. (R. S. § 4483; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1456, § 3, 33 Stat. 1028; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

477. Stairways and gangways on river steamers.—Every such steam vessel carrying passengers on the main deck shall be provided with permanent stairways and other sufficient means, convenient to the passengers, for their escape to the upper deck, in case of the vessel sinking or of other accident endangering life; and in the stowage of freight upon such deck, where passengers are carried, gangways or passages, sufficiently large to allow persons to pass freely through them, shall be left open both fore and aft of the vessel, and also to and along the guards on each side. (R. S. § 4484.)

478. Accommodation of deck passengers.—The captain or mate of every such steam vessel carrying passengers upon the main deck shall assign to all deck passengers, when taking passage, the space on deck they may occupy during the voyage, and such space shall not thereafter be occupied by freight, nor overcrowded by other persons, nor shall freight be stowed about the boilers or machinery, in such a manner as to obstruct or prevent the engineer from readily attending to his duties. (R. S. § 4485.)

479. Penalty for not providing proper accommodations for passengers.—For every violation of the provisions of the two preceding sections the owners of the vessel shall be punished by a fine of $300. (R. S. § 4486.)

480. River steamers to be anchored when navigation is unsafe.—On any steamers navigating rivers only, when, from darkness, fog, or other cause, the pilot or watch shall be of opinion that the navigation is unsafe, or, from accident to or derangement of the machinery of the boat, the chief engineer shall be of the opinion that the further navigation of the vessel is unsafe, the vessel shall be brought to anchor, or moored as soon as it can prudently be done: Provided, That if the person in command shall, after being so admonished by either of such officers, elect to pursue such voyage, he may do the same; but in such case both he and the owners of such steamer shall be answerable for all damages which shall arise to the person of any passenger, or his baggage, from such causes in so pursuing the voyage, and no degree of care or diligence shall in such case be held to justify or excuse the person in command, or the owners. (R. S. § 4487.)

481. Regulations as to life-saving appliances on ocean, lake, and sound steamers and foreign vessels.—Every steamer navigating the ocean, or any lake, bay, or sound of the United States, shall be provided with such numbers of lifeboats, floats, rafts, life preservers, line-carrying projectiles, and the means of propelling them, and drags, as will best secure the safety of all persons on board such vessel in case of disaster; and every seagoing vessel carrying passengers, and every such vessel navigating any of the northern or northwestern lakes, shall have the lifeboats required by law, provided with suitable boat-disengaging apparatus, so arranged as to allow such boats to be safely launched while such vessels are under speed or otherwise, and so as to allow such disengaging apparatus to be operated by one person, disengaging both ends of the boat simultaneously from the tackles by which it may be lowered to the water. And the Board of Supervising Inspectors shall fix and determine, by their rules and regulations, the character of lifeboats, floats, rafts, life preservers, line-carrying projectiles, and the means of propelling them, and drags that shall be used on such vessels, and also the character and capacity of pumps or other appliances for freeing the steamer from water in case of heavy leakage, the capacity of such pumps or appliances being suited to the navigation in which the steamer is employed. Every vessel subject to the provisions of this and the preceding chapter shall, while in operation, carry one life preserver for each and every person allowed to be carried on said vessel by the certificate of inspection, including each member of the crew: Provided, however, That upon such vessels and under such conditions as are specified in section 475 floats may be substituted for life preservers. Any person who willfully and knowingly manufactures or sells, or offers for sale, or has in his possession with intent to sell, life preservers containing metal or other nonbuoyant material, for the purpose of increasing the weight thereof, or more metal or other such material than is reasonably necessary for the construction thereof, or who shall so manufacture, sell, offer for sale, or possess with intent to sell any other articles commonly used for preservation of life or the prevention of fire on board vessels subject to the provisions of this and the preceding chapter, which articles shall be so defective as to be inefficient to accomplish the purposes for which they are respectively intended and designed, shall upon conviction, be fined not more than $2,000, and may, in addition thereto, in the discretion of the court, be imprisoned not exceeding five years.

The powers bestowed by this section upon the Board of Supervising Inspectors in respect of lifeboats, floats, rafts, life preservers, and other life-saving appliances and equipment, and the further requirements herein as to davits, embarkation of passengers in lifeboats and rafts, and the manning of lifeboats and rafts, and the musters and drills of the crews, on steamers navigating the ocean or any lake, bay, or sound of the United States, shall be subject to the provisions, limitations, and minimum requirements of the regulations herein set forth, and all such vessels shall be required to comply in all respects therewith: Provided, That foreign vessels leaving ports of the United States shall comply with the rules herein prescribed as to life-saving appliances, their equipment, and the manning of same.

REGULATIONS

LIFE-SAVING APPLIANCES

STANDARD TYPES OF BOATS

The standard types of boats classified as follows:

Class	Section	Type
I (Entirely rigid sides)	A.	Open. Internal buoyancy only.
	B.	Open. Internal and external buoyancy.
	C.	Pontoon. Well deck, fixed water-tight bulwarks.
II (Partially collapsible sides)	A.	Open. Upper part of sides collapsible.
	B.	Pontoon. Well deck, collapsible water-tight bulwarks.
	C.	Pontoon. Flush deck; collapsible water-tight bulwarks.

STRENGTH OF BOATS

Each boat must be of sufficient strength to enable it to be safely lowered into the water when loaded with its full complement of persons and equipment.

ALTERNATIVE TYPES OF BOATS AND RAFTS

Any type of boat may be accepted as equivalent to a boat of one of the prescribed classes and any type of raft as equivalent to an approved pontoon raft, if the Board of Supervising Inspectors, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, is satisfied by suitable trials that it is as effective as the standard types of the class in question, or as the approved type of pontoon raft, as the case may be.

Motor boats may be accepted if they comply with the requirements laid down for boats of the first class, but only to a limited number, which number shall be determined by the Board of Supervising Inspectors, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce.

No boat may be approved the buoyancy of which depends upon the previous adjustment of one of the principal parts of the hull or which has not a cubic capacity of at least one hundred and twenty-five cubic feet.

BOATS OF THE FIRST CLASS

The standard types of boats of the first class must satisfy the following conditions:

1A.—Open boats with internal buoyancy only

The buoyancy of a wooden boat of this type shall be provided by water-tight air cases, the total volume of which shall be at least equal to one-tenth of the cubic capacity of the boat.

The buoyancy of a metal boat of this type shall not be less than that required above for a wooden boat of the same cubic capacity, the volume of water-tight air cases being increased accordingly.

1B.—Open boats with internal and external buoyancy

The internal buoyancy of a wooden boat of this type shall be provided by water-tight air cases, the total volume of which is at least equal to 7½ per centum of the cubic capacity of the boat.

The external buoyancy may be of cork or of any other equally efficient material, but such buoyancy shall not be secured by the use of rushes, cork shavings, loose granulated cork, or any other loose granulated substance, or by any means dependent upon inflation by air.

If the buoyancy is of cork, its volume, for a wooden boat, shall not be less than thirty-three thousandths of the cubic capacity of the boat; if of any material other than cork, its volume and distribution shall be such that the buoyancy and stability of the boat are not less than that of a similar boat provided with buoyancy of cork.

The buoyancy of a metal boat shall be not less than that required above for a wooden boat of the same cubic capacity, the volume of the air cases and external buoyancy being increased accordingly.

1C.—Pontoon boats, in which persons can not be accommodated below the deck, having a well deck and fixed water-tight bulwarks

The area of the well deck of a boat of this type shall be at least 30 per centum of the total deck area. The height of the well deck above the water line at all points shall be at least equal to ½ per centum of the length of the boat, this height being increased to 1½ per centum of the length of the boat at the ends of the well.

The freeboard of a boat of this type shall be such as to provide for a reserve buoyancy of at least 35 per centum.

BOATS OF THE SECOND CLASS

The standard types of boats of the second class must satisfy the following conditions:

2A.—Open boats having the upper part of the sides collapsible

A boat of this type shall be fitted both with water-tight air cases and with external buoyancy, the volume of which, for each person which the boat is able to accommodate, shall be at least equal to the following amounts: Air cases, one and five-tenths cubic feet; external buoyancy (if of cork), two-tenths cubic foot.

The minimum freeboard of boats of this type is fixed in relation to their length; it is measured vertically to the top of the solid hull at the side amidships, from the water level when the boat is loaded.

The freeboard in fresh water shall not be less than the following amounts:

Length of the boat	Minimum freeboard
Feet	Inches
30	10

The freeboard of boats of intermediate lengths is to be found by interpolation.

2B.—Pontoon boats having a well deck and collapsible bulwarks

All the conditions laid down for boats of type 1C are to be applied to boats of this type, which differ from those of type 1C only in regard to the bulwarks.

2C.—Pontoon boats, in which the persons can not be accommodated below deck, having a flush deck and collapsible bulwarks

The minimum freeboard of boats of this type is independent of their lengths and depends only upon their depth. The depth of the boat is to be measured vertically from the underside of the garboard strake to the top of the deck on the side amidships, and the freeboard is to be measured from the top of the deck at the side amidships to the water level when the boat is loaded.

The freeboard in fresh water shall not be less than the following amounts, which are applicable without correction to boats having a mean sheer equal to 8 per centum of their length:

Depth of boat	Minimum freeboard
Inches	Inches
12	2¾
18	3¾
20	5⅛
30	6¼

For intermediate depths the freeboard is obtained by interpolation.

If the sheer is less than the standard sheer defined above, the minimum freeboard is obtained by adding to the figures in the table one-seventh of the difference between the standard sheer and the actual mean sheer measured at the stem and sternpost. No deduction is to be made from the freeboard on account of the sheer being greater than the standard sheer or on account of the camber of the deck.

MOTOR BOATS

When motor boats are accepted, the volume of internal buoyancy and, when fitted, the external buoyancy, must be fixed, having regard to the difference between the weight of the motor and its accessories and the weight of the additional persons which the boat could accommodate if the motor and its accessories were removed.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR CLEARING PONTOON LIFEBOATS OF WATER

All pontoon lifeboats shall be fitted with efficient means for quickly clearing the deck of water. The orifices for this purpose shall be such that the water can not enter the boat through them when they are intermittingly submerged. The number and size of the orifices shall be determined for each type of boat by a special test.

For the purpose of this test the pontoon boat shall be loaded with a weight of iron or bags of sand, equal to that of its complement of persons and equipment.

In the case of a boat twenty-eight feet in length two tons of water shall be cleared from the boat in a time not exceeding the following: type 1C, sixty seconds; type 2B, sixty seconds; type 2C, twenty seconds.

In the case of a boat having a length greater or less than twenty-eight feet the weight of water to be cleared in the same time shall be, for each type, directly proportional to the length of the boat.

CONSTRUCTION OF BOATS

Open lifeboats of the first class (types 1A and 1B) must have a mean sheer at least equal to 4 per centum of their length.

The air cases of open boats of the first class shall be placed along the sides of the boat; they may also be placed at the ends of the boat, but not in the bottom of the boat.

Pontoon lifeboats may be built of wood or metal. If constructed of wood, they shall have the bottom and deck made of two thicknesses with textile material between; if of metal, they shall be divided into water-tight compartments with means of access to each compartment.

All boats shall be fitted for the use of a steering oar.

PONTOON RAFTS

No type of pontoon raft may be approved unless it satisfies the following conditions:

First. It should be reversible and fitted with bulwarks of wood, canvas, or other suitable material on both sides. These bulwarks may be collapsible.

Second. It should be of such size, strength, and weight that it can be handled without mechanical appliances, and, if necessary, be thrown from the vessel's deck.

Third. It should have not less than three cubic feet of air cases or equivalent buoyancy for each person whom it can accommodate.

Fourth. It should have a deck area of not less than four square feet for each person whom it can accommodate and the platform should not be less than six inches above the water level when the raft is loaded.

Fifth. The air cases or equivalent buoyancy should be placed as near as possible to the sides of the raft.

CAPACITY OF BOATS AND PONTOON RAFTS

First. The number of persons which a boat of one of the standard types or a pontoon raft can accommodate is equal to the greatest whole number obtained by dividing the capacity in cubic feet, or the surface in square feet, of the boat or of the raft by the standard unit of capacity, or unit of surface (according to circumstances), defined below for each type.

Second. The cubic capacity in feet of a boat in which the number of persons is determined by the surface shall be assumed to be ten times the number of persons which it is authorized to carry.

Third. The standard units of capacity and surface are as follows:

Units of capacity, open boats, type 1A, ten cubic feet; open boats, type 1B, nine cubic feet..

Unit of surface, open boats, type 2A, three and one-half square feet; pontoon boats, type 2C, three and one-half square feet; pontoon boats, type 1C; three and one-fourth square feet; pontoon boats, type 2B, three and one-fourth square feet.

Fourth. The board of supervising inspectors, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, may accept, in place of three and one-fourth, a smaller divisor, if it is satisfied after trial that the number of persons for whom there is seating accommodation in the pontoon boat in question is greater than the number obtained by applying the above divisor, provided always that the divisor adopted in place of three and one-fourth may never be less than three.

CAPACITY LIMITS

Pontoon boats and pontoon rafts shall never be marked with a number of persons greater than that obtained in the manner specified in this section.

This number shall be reduced—

First. When it is greater than the number of persons for which there is proper seating accommodation, the latter number being determined in such a way that the persons when seated do not interfere in any way with the use of the oars.

Second. When in the case of boats other than those of the first two sections of the first class, the freeboard, when the boat is fully loaded, is less than the freeboard laid down for each type respectively. In such circumstances the number shall be reduced until the freeboard, when the boat is fully loaded, is at least equal to the standard freeboard laid down above.

In boats of types 1C and 2B the raised part of the deck at the sides may be regarded as affording seating accommodation.

EQUIVALENTS FOR AND WEIGHT OF THE PERSONS

In test for determining the number of persons which a boat or pontoon raft can accommodate each person shall be assumed to be an adult person wearing a life jacket.

In verifications of freeboard the pontoon boats shall be loaded with a weight of at least one hundred and sixty-five pounds for each adult person that the pontoon boat is authorized to carry.

In all cases two children under twelve years of age shall be reckoned as one person.

CUBIC CAPACITY OF OPEN BOATS OF THE FIRST CLASS

First. The cubic capacity of an open boat of type 1A or 1B shall be determined by Stirling's (Simpson's) rule or by any other method, approved by the Board of Supervising Inspectors, giving the same degree of accuracy. The capacity of a square-sterned boat shall be calculated as if the boat had a pointed stern.

Second. For example, the capacity in cubic feet of a boat, calculated by the aid of Stirling's rule, may be considered as given by the following formula:

$$\text{Capacity}=\frac{1}{12}(4A+2B+4C)$$

1 being the length of the boat in meters (or feet) from the inside of the planking or plating at the stem to the corresponding point at the stern post; in the case of a boat with a square stern, the length is measured to the inside of the transom.

A, B, C denote, respectively, the areas of the cross sections at the quarter length forward, amidships, and the quarter length aft, which correspond to the three points obtained by dividing 1 into four equal parts. (The areas corresponding to the two ends of the boat are considered negligible.

The areas A, B, C shall be deemed to be given in square feet by the successive application of the following formula to each of the three cross sections:

$$\text{Area}=\frac{h}{12}(a+4b+2c+4d+e)$$

h being the depth measured in meters (or in feet) inside the planking or plating from the keel to the level of the gunwale, or, in certain cases, to a lower level as determined hereafter.

a, b, c, d, e denote the horizontal breadths of the boat measured in feet at the upper and lower points of the depth and at the three points obtained by dividing h into four equal parts (a and e being the breadths at the extreme points, and c at the middle point, of h).

Third. If the sheer of the gunwale, measured at the two points situated at a quarter of the length of the boat from the ends, exceeds 1 per centum of the length of the boat, the depth employed in calculating the area of the cross sections A or C shall be deemed to be the depth amidships plus 1 per centum of the length of the boat.

Fourth. If the depth of the boat amidships exceeds 45 per centum of the breadth, the depth employed in calculating the area of the midship cross section B shall be deemed to be equal to 45 per centum of the breadth; and the depth employed in calculating the areas of the quarter-length sections A and C is obtained by increasing this last figure by an amount equal to 1 per centum of the length of the boat, provided that in no case shall the depths employed in the calculation exceed the actual depths at these points.

Fifth. If the depth of the boat is greater than four feet, the number of persons given by the application of this rule shall be reduced in proportion to the ratio of four feet to the actual depth, until the boat has been satisfactorily tested afloat with that number of persons on board all wearing life jackets.

Sixth. The Board of Supervising Inspectors shall impose, by suitable formulæ, a limit for the number of persons allowed in boats with very fine ends and in boats very full in form.

Seventh. The Board of Supervising Inspectors may by regulation assign to a boat a capacity equal to the product of the length, the breadth, and the depth multiplied by six-tenths if it is evident that this formula does not give a greater capacity than that obtained by the above method. The dimensions shall then be measured in the following manner:

Length. From the intersection of the outside of the planking with the stem to the corresponding point at the sternpost or, in the case of a square-sterned boat, to the afterside of the transom.

Breadth. From the outside of the planking at the point where the breadth of the boat is greatest.

Depth. Amidships inside the planking from the keel to the level of the gunwale, but the depth used in calculating the cubic capacity may not in any case exceed 45 per centum of the breadth.

In all cases the vessel owner has the right to require that the cubic capacity of the boat shall be determined by exact measurement.

Eighth. The cubic capacity of a motor boat is obtained from the gross capacity by deducting a volume equal to that occupied by the motor and its accessories.

DECK AREA OF PONTOON BOATS AND OPEN BOATS OF THE SECOND CLASS

First. The area of the deck of a pontoon boat of type 1C, 2B, or 2C shall be determined by the method indicated below or by any other method giving the same degree of accuracy. The same rule is to be applied in determining the area within the fixed bulwarks of a boat of type 2A.

Second. For example, the surface in square feet of a boat may be deemed to be given by the following formula:

$$\text{Area}=\tfrac{1}{12}(2a+1.5b+4c+1.5d+2e)$$

1 being the length in feet from the intersection of the outside of the planking with the stem to the corresponding point at the sternpost.

a, b, c, d, e denote the horizontal breadths in feet outside the planking at the points obtained by dividing 1 into four equal parts and subdividing the foremost and aftermost parts into two equal parts (a and e being the breadths at the extreme subdivisions, c at the middle point of the length, and b and d at the intermediate points).

MARKING OF BOATS AND PONTOON RAFTS

The dimensions of the boat and the number of persons which it is authorized to carry shall be marked on it in clear, permanent characters, according to regulations by the Board of Supervising Inspectors, approved by the Secretary of Commerce. These marks shall be specifically approved by the officers appointed to inspect the ship.

Pontoon rafts shall be marked with the number of persons in the same manner.

EQUIPMENT OF BOATS AND PONTOON RAFTS

First. The normal equipment of every boat shall consist of—

(a) A single banked complement of oars and two spare oars; one set and a half of thole pins or crutches; a boat hook.

(b) Two plugs for each plug hole (plugs are not required when proper automatic valves are fitted); a bailer and a galvanized iron bucket.

(c) A tiller or yoke and yoke lines.

(d) Two hatchets.

(e) A lamp filled with oil and trimmed.

(f) A mast or masts with one good sail at least, and proper gear for each. (This does not apply to motor lifeboats or lifeboats on the Great Lakes or other inland waters.)

(g) A suitable compass.

Pontoon lifeboats will have no plug hole, but shall be provided with at least two bilge pumps.

In the case of a steamer which carries passengers in the North Atlantic, all the boats need not be equipped with masts, sails, and compasses, if the ship is provided with a radiotelegraph installation.

Second. The normal equipment of every approved pontoon raft shall consist of—

(a) Four oars.

(b) Five rowlocks.

(c) A self-igniting life buoy light.

Third. In addition, every boat and every pontoon raft shall be equipped with—

(a) A life line becketed around the outside.

(b) A sea anchor.

(c) A painter.

(d) A vessel containing one gallon of vegetable or animal oil. The vessel shall be so constructed that the oil can be easily distributed on the water and so arranged that it can be attached to the sea anchor.

(e) A water-tight receptacle containing two pounds avoirdupois of provisions for each person, except on vessels navigating fresh water.

(f) A water-tight receptacle containing one quart for each person, except on vessels navigating fresh water.

(g) A number of self-igniting "red lights" and a water-tight box of matches.

Fourth. All loose equipment must be securely attached to the boat or pontoon raft to which it belongs.

STOWAGE OF BOATS—NUMBER OF DAVITS

The minimum number of sets of davits is fixed in relation to the length of the vessel; provided that a number of sets of davits greater than the number of boats necessary for the accommodation of all the persons on board may not be required.

HANDLING OF THE BOATS AND RAFTS

All the boats and rafts must be stowed in such a way that they can be launched in the shortest possible time and that, even under unfavorable conditions of list and trim from the point of view of the handling of the boats and rafts, it may be possible to embark in them as large a number of persons as possible.

The arrangements must be such that it may be possible to launch on either side of the vessel as large a number of boats and rafts as possible.

STRENGTH AND OPERATION OF THE DAVITS

The davits shall be of such strength that the boats can be lowered with their full complement of persons and equipment, the vessel being assumed to have a list of fifteen degrees.

The davits must be fitted with a gear of sufficient power to insure that the boat can be turned out against the maximum list under which the lowering of the boats is possible on the vessel in question.

OTHER APPLIANCES EQUIVALENT TO DAVITS

Any appliance may be accepted in lieu of davits or sets of davits if the Board of Supervising Inspectors, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, is satisfied after proper trials that the appliance in question is as effective as davits for placing the boats in the water.

DAVITS

Each set of davits shall have a boat of the first class attached to it, provided that the number of open boats of the first class attached to davits shall not be less than the minimum number fixed by the table which follows.

If it is neither practicable nor reasonable to place on a vessel the minimum number of sets of davits required by the rules, the Board of Supervising Inspectors, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, may authorize a smaller number of sets of davits to be fitted, provided always that this number shall never be less than the minimum number of open boats of the first class required by the rules.

If a large proportion of the persons on board are accommodated in boats whose length is greater than fifty feet, a further reduction in the number of sets of davits may be allowed exceptionally, if the Board of Supervising Inspectors, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, is satisfied that the arrangements are in all respects satisfactory.

In all cases in which a reduction in the minimum number of sets of davits or other equivalent appliances required by the rules is allowed, the owner of the vessel in question shall be required to prove, by a test made in the presence of an officer designated by the Supervising Inspector General, that all the boats can be efficiently launched in a minimum time.

The conditions of this test shall be as follows:

First. The vessel is to be upright and in smooth water.

Second. The time is the time required from the beginning of the removal of the boat covers, or any other operation necessary to prepare the boats for lowering, until the last boat or pontoon raft is afloat.

Third. The number of men employed in the whole operation must not exceed the total number of boat hands that will be carried on the vessel under normal service conditions.

Fourth. Each boat when being lowered must have on board at least two men and its full equipment as required by the rules.

The time allowed for putting all the boats into the water shall be fixed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce.

MINIMUM NUMBER OF DAVITS AND OF OPEN BOATS OF THE FIRST CLASS—MINIMUM BOAT CAPACITY

The following table fixes, according to the length of the vessel—

(A) The minimum number of sets of davits to be provided, to each of which must be attached a boat of the first class in accordance with this section.

(B) The minimum total number of open boats of the first class, which must be attached to davits, in accordance with this section.

(C) The minimum boat capacity required, including the boats attached to davits and the additional boats, in accordance with this section.

When the length of the vessel exceeds one thousand and thirty feet, the Board of Supervising Inspectors, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, shall determine the minimum number of sets of davits and of open boats of the first class for that vessel.

EMBARKATION OF THE PASSENGERS IN THE LIFEBOATS AND RAFTS

Suitable arrangements shall be made for embarking the passengers in the boats, in accord with regulations by the Board of Supervising Inspectors, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce.

In vessels which carry rafts there shall be a number of rope or wooden ladders always available for use in embarking the persons on to the rafts.

The number and arrangement of the boats, and (where they are allowed) of the pontoon rafts, on a vessel depends upon the total number of persons which the vessel is intended to carry: Provided, That there shall not be required on any voyage a total capacity in boats and (where they are allowed) pontoon rafts greater than that necessary to accommodate all the persons on board.

At no moment of its voyage shall any passenger steam vessel of the United States on ocean routes more than twenty nautical miles offshore have on board a total number of persons greater than that for whom accommodation is provided in the lifeboats and pontoon life rafts on board.

If the lifeboats attached to davits do not provide sufficient accommodation for all persons on board, additional lifeboats of one of the standard types shall be provided. This addition shall bring the total capacity of the boats on the vessel at least up to the greater of the two following amounts:

(a) The minimum capacity required by these regulations;

(b) A capacity sufficient to accommodate 75 per centum of the persons on board.

The remainder of the accommodation required shall be provided, under regulations of the Board of Supervising Inspectors, approved by the Secretary of Commerce, either in boats of class 1 or class 2, or in pontoon rafts of an approved type.

At no moment of its voyage shall any passenger steam vessel of the United States on ocean routes less than twenty nautical miles offshore have on board a total number of persons greater than that for whom accommodation is provided in the lifeboats and pontoon rafts on board. The accommodation provided in lifeboats shall in every case be sufficient to accommodate at least 75 per centum of the persons on board. The number and type of such lifeboats and life rafts shall be determined by regulations of the Board of Supervising Inspectors, approved by the Secretary of Commerce: Provided, That during the interval from May 15 to September 15, inclusive, any passenger steam vessel of the United States, on ocean routes less than twenty nautical miles offshore, shall be required to carry accommodation for not less than 70 per centum of the total number of persons on board in lifeboats and pontoon life rafts, of which accommodation not less than 50 per centum shall be in lifeboats and 50 per centum may be in collapsible boats or rafts, under regulations of the Board of Supervising Inspectors, approved by the Secretary of Commerce.

At no moment of its voyage may any ocean-cargo steam vessel of the United States have on board a total number of persons greater than that for whom accommodation is provided in the lifeboats on board. The number and types of such boats shall be determined by regulations of the Board of Supervising Inspectors, approved by the Secretary of Commerce.

At no moment of its voyage may any passenger steam vessel of the United States on the Great Lakes, on routes more than three miles offshore, except over waters whose depth is not sufficient to submerge all the decks of the vessel, have on board a total number of persons, including passengers and crew, greater than that for whom accommodation is provided in the lifeboats and pontoon life rafts on board. The accommodation provided in lifeboats shall in every case be sufficient to accommodate at least 75 per centum of the persons on board. The number and types of such lifeboats and life rafts shall be determined by regulations of the Board of Supervising Inspectors approved by the Secretary of Commerce: Provided, That during the interval from May 15 to September 15, inclusive, any such steamer shall be required to carry accommodation for not less than 50 per centum of persons on board in lifeboats and pontoon life rafts, of which accommodation not less than two-fifths shall be in lifeboats and three-fifths may be in collapsible boats or rafts, under regulations of the Board of Supervising Inspectors, approved by the Secretary of Commerce: Provided further, That all passenger steam vessels of the United States, the keels of which are laid after the 1st of July, 1915, for service on ocean routes, or for service from September 15 to May 15 on the Great Lakes on routes more than three miles offshore, shall be built to carry, and shall carry, enough lifeboats and life rafts to accommodate all persons on board, including passengers and crew: And provided further, That not more than 25 per centum of such equipment may be in pontoon life rafts or collapsible lifeboats.

At no moment of its voyage may any cargo steam vessel of the United States on the Great Lakes have on board a total number of persons greater than that for whom accommodation is provided in the lifeboats on board. The number and types of such boats shall be determined by regulations of the Board of Supervising Inspectors approved by the Secretary of Commerce.

The number, types, and capacity of lifeboats and life rafts, together with the proportion of such accommodation to the number of persons on board which shall be carried on steam vessels on the Great Lakes, on routes three miles or less offshore or over waters whose depth is not sufficient to submerge all the decks of the vessels, and on all other lakes, and on rivers, bays, and sounds, shall be determined by regulations of the Board of Supervising Inspectors, approved by the Secretary of Commerce.

All regulations by the Board of Supervising Inspectors approved by the Secretary of Commerce, authorized by this section, shall be transmitted to Congress as soon as practicable after they are made.

The Secretary of Commerce is authorized in specific cases to exempt existing vessels from the requirements of this section that the davits shall be of such strength and shall be fitted with a gear of sufficient power to insure that the boats can be lowered with their full complement of persons and equipment, the vessel being assumed to have a list of fifteen degrees, where their strict application would not be practicable or reasonable.

CERTIFICATED LIFEBOAT MEN—MANNING OF THE BOATS

There shall be for each boat or raft a number of lifeboat men at least equal to that specified as follows: If the boat or raft carries twenty-five persons or less, the minimum number of certificated lifeboat men shall be one; if the boat or raft carries twenty-six persons and less than forty-one persons the minimum number of certificated lifeboat men shall be two; if the boat or raft carries forty-one persons and less than sixty-one persons the minimum number of certificated lifeboat men shall be three; if the boat or raft carries from sixty-one to eighty-five persons, the minimum number of certificated lifeboat men shall be four; if the boat or raft carries from eighty-six to one hundred and ten persons, the minimum number of certificated lifeboat men shall be five; if the boat or raft carries from one hundred and eleven to one hundred and sixty persons, the minimum number of certificated lifeboat men shall be six; if the boat or raft carries from one hundred and sixty-one to two hundred and ten persons, the minimum number of certificated lifeboat men shall be seven; and, thereafter, one additional certificated lifeboat man for each additional fifty persons: Provided, That if the raft carries fifteen persons or less a licensed officer or able seaman need not be placed in charge of such raft: Provided further, That one-half the number of rafts carried shall have a capacity of exceeding fifteen persons.

The allocation of the certificated lifeboat men to each boat and raft remains within the discretion of the master, according to the circumstances.

By "certificated lifeboat man" is meant any member of the crew who holds a certificate of efficiency issued under the authority of the Secretary of Commerce, who is hereby directed to provide for the issue of such certificates.

In order to obtain the special lifeboat man's certificate the applicant must prove to the satisfaction of an officer designated by the Secretary of Commerce that he has been trained in all the operations connected with launching lifeboats and the use of oars; that he is acquainted with the practical handling of the boats themselves; and, further, that he is capable of understanding and answering the orders relative to lifeboat service.

MANNING OF BOATS

A licensed officer or able seaman shall be placed in charge of each boat or pontoon raft; he shall have a list of its lifeboat men, and other members of its crew which shall be sufficient for her safe management, and shall see that the men placed under his orders are acquainted with their several duties and stations.

A man capable of working the motor shall be assigned to each motor boat.

The duty of seeing that the boats, pontoon rafts, and other life-saving appliances are at all times ready for use shall be assigned to one or more officers.

MUSTER ROLL AND DRILLS

Special duties for the event of an emergency shall be allotted to each member of the crew.

The muster list shows all these special duties, and indicates, in particular, the station to which each man must go, and the duties that he has to perform.

Before the vessel sails the muster list shall be drawn up and exhibited, and the proper authority, to be designated by the Secretary of Commerce, shall be satisfied that the muster list has been prepared for the vessel. It shall be posted in several parts of the vessel, and in particular in the crew's quarters.

MUSTER LIST

The muster list shall assign duties to the different members of the crew in connection with—

(a) The closing of the water-tight doors, valves, and so forth.

(b) The equipment of the boats and rafts generally.

(c) The launching of the boats attached to davits.

(d) The general preparation of the other boats and the pontoon rafts.

(e) The muster of the passengers.

(f) The extinction of fire.

The muster list shall assign to the members of the stewards' department their several duties in relation to the passengers at a time of emergency. These duties shall include—

(a) Warning the passengers.

(b) Seeing that they are dressed and have put on their life jackets in a proper manner.

(c) Assembling the passengers.

(d) Keeping order in the passages and on the stairways, and, generally, controlling the movements of the passengers.

The muster list shall specify definite alarm signals for calling all the crew of the boat and fire stations, and shall give full particulars of these signals.

MUSTERS AND DRILLS

Musters of the crews at their boat and fire stations, followed by boat and fire drills, respectively, shall be held at least once a week, either in port or at sea. An entry shall be made in the official log book of these drills, or of the reason why they could not be held.

Different groups of boats shall be used in turn at successive boat drills. The drills and inspections shall be so arranged that the crew thoroughly understand and are practiced in the duties they have to perform, and that all the boats and pontoon rafts on the ship with the gear appertaining to them are always ready for immediate use.

LIFE JACKETS AND LIFE BUOYS

A life jacket of an approved type, or other appliance of equal buoyancy and capable of being fitted on the body, shall be carried for every person on board, and, in addition, a sufficient number of life jackets, or other equivalent appliances, suitable for children.

First. A life jacket shall satisfy the following conditions:

(a) It shall be of approved material and construction.

(b) It shall be capable of supporting in fresh water for twenty-four hours fifteen pounds avoirdupois of iron.

Life jackets the buoyancy of which depends on air compartments are prohibited.

Second. A life buoy shall satisfy the following conditions:

(a) It shall be of solid cork or any other equivalent material.

(b) It shall be capable of supporting in fresh water for twenty-four hours at least thirty-one pounds avoirdupois of iron.

Life buoys filled with rushes, cork shavings, or granulated cork, or any other loose granulated material, or whose buoyancy depends upon air compartments which require to be inflated, are prohibited.

Third. The minimum number of life buoys with which vessels are to be provided is fixed as follows:

Vessels under one hundred feet in length, minimum number of buoys, two; vessels one hundred feet and less than two hundred feet in length, minimum number of buoys, four, of which two shall be luminous; vessels two hundred feet and less than three hundred feet in length, minimum number of buoys, six, of which two shall be luminous; vessels three hundred feet and less than four hundred feet in length, minimum number of buoys, twelve, of which four shall be luminous; vessels four hundred feet and less than six hundred feet in length, minimum number of buoys, eighteen, of which nine shall be luminous; vessels six hundred feet and less than eight hundred feet in length, minimum number of buoys, twenty-four, of which twelve shall be luminous; vessels eight hundred feet and over in length, minimum number of buoys, thirty, of which fifteen shall be luminous.

Fourth. All the buoys shall be fitted with beckets securely seized. Where two buoys only are carried, one shall be fitted with a life line at least fifteen fathoms in length, and where more than two buoys are carried, at least one buoy on each side shall be fitted with a life line of at least fifteen fathoms in length. The lights shall be efficient self-igniting lights which can not be extinguished in water and they shall be kept near the buoys to which they belong, with the necessary means of attachment.

Fifth. All the life buoys and life jackets shall be so placed as to be readily accessible to the persons on board; their position shall be plainly indicated so as to be known to the persons concerned.

The life buoys shall always be capable of being rapidly cast loose, and shall not be permanently secured in any way. The owner of any vessel who neglects or refuses to provide and equip his vessel with such lifeboats, floats, rafts, life preservers, line-carrying projectiles, and the means of propelling them, drags, pumps, or other appliances, as are required under the provisions of this section, or under the regulations of the Board of Supervising Inspectors, approved by the Secretary of Commerce, authorized by and made pursuant hereto, shall be fined not less than $500, nor more than $5,000, and every master of a vessel who shall fail to comply with the requirements of this section, and the regulations of the Board of Supervising Inspectors, approved by the Secretary of Commerce, authorized by and made pursuant hereto, shall upon conviction be fined not less than $50, nor more than $500. (R. S. § 4488; Mar. 2, 1889, c. 418, § 1, 25 Stat. 1012; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1454, § 3, 33 Stat. 1024; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 153, § 14, 38 Stat. 1170; June 12, 1916, c. 141, 39 Stat. 224.)

482. Water-tight bulkheads in lake steamers carrying passengers.—Every seagoing steamer, and every steamer navigating the great northern or northwestern lakes, carrying passengers, the building of which shall be completed after the 28th day of August, 1871, shall have not less than three water-tight cross bulkheads, such bulkheads to reach to the main deck in single-decked vessels, otherwise to the deck next below the main deck; to be made of iron plates, sustained upon suitable framework; and to be properly secured to the hull of the vessel. The position of such bulkheads and the strength of material of which the same shall be constructed shall be determined by the general rules of the Board of Supervising Inspectors. (R. S. § 4490; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 252.)

483. Water-tight bulkheads not required on certain steamers.—Steam vessels of one hundred tons burden or under, engaged in the coastwise bays and harbors of the United States, may be licensed by the United States local inspectors of steam vessels to carry passengers or excursions on the ocean or upon the Great Lakes of the North or Northwest, not exceeding fifteen miles from the mouth of such bays or harbors, without being required to have the three water-tight cross bulkheads provided by the preceding section for other passenger steamers: Provided, That in the judgment of the local inspector such steamers shall be safe and suitable for such navigation without danger to human life, and that they shall have one water-tight collision bulkhead not less than five feet abaft the stem of said steamer. (July 9, 1886, c. 755, § 3, 24 Stat. 129.)

484. Radio-communication apparatus.—It shall be unlawful for any steamer of the United States or of any foreign country navigating the ocean or the Great Lakes and licensed to carry, or carrying, fifty or more persons, including passengers or crew or both, to leave or attempt to leave any port of the United States unless such steamer shall be equipped with an efficient apparatus for radio communication, in good working order, capable of transmitting and receiving messages over a distance of at least one hundred miles, day or night. An auxiliary power supply, independent of the vessel's main electric power plant, must be provided which will enable the sending set for at least four hours to send messages over a distance of at least one hundred miles, day or night, and efficient communication between the operator in the radio room and the bridge shall be maintained at all times.

The radio equipment must be in charge of two or more persons skilled in the use of such apparatus, one or the other of whom shall be on duty at all times while the vessel is being navigated. Such equipment, operators, the regulation of their watches, and the transmission and receipt of messages, except as may be regulated by law or international agreement, shall be under the control of the master, in the case of a vessel of the United States; and every willful failure on the part of the master to enforce at sea the provisions of this paragraph as to equipment, operators, and watches shall subject him to a penalty of $100.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to steamers plying between ports, or places, less than two hundred miles apart. (June 24, 1910, c. 379, § 1, 36 Stat. 629; July 23, 1912, c. 250, § 1, 37 Stat. 199.)

485. Requirements as to efficiency of radio apparatus.—For the purpose of sections 484, 486, and 487 apparatus for radio communication shall not be deemed to be efficient unless the company installing it shall contract in writing to exchange, and shall, in fact, exchange, as far as may be physically practicable, to be determined by the master of the vessel, messages with shore or ship stations using other systems of radio communication. (June 24, 1910, c. 379, § 2, 36 Stat. 630.)

486. Penalty for violating provisions as to radio apparatus; separate offenses.—The master or other person being in charge of any such vessel which leaves or attempts to leave any port of the United States in violation of any of the provisions of sections 484, 485, and 487 shall, upon conviction, be fined in a sum not more than $5,000, and any such fine shall be a lien upon such vessel, and such vessel may be libeled therefor in any district court of the United States within the jurisdiction of which such vessel shall arrive or depart, and the leaving or attempting to leave each and every port of the United States shall constitute a separate offense. (June 24, 1910, c. 379, § 3, 36 Stat. 630.)

487. Regulations as to radio apparatus.—The Secretary of Commerce shall make such regulations as may be necessary to secure the proper execution of sections 484, 485, and 486 by collectors of customs and other officers of the Government. (June 24, 1910, c. 379, § 4, 36 Stat. 630; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

488. Substitute for second operator of radio apparatus on cargo steamers.—On cargo steamers, in lieu of the second operator provided for in section 484, there may be substituted a member of the crew or other person who shall be duly certified and entered in the ship's log as competent to receive and understand distress calls or other usual calls indicating danger, and to aid in maintaining a constant wireless watch so far as required for the safety of life. (July 23, 1912, c. 250, § 2, 37 Stat. 200.)

489. Use of instruments for security of life to be approved.—No kind of instrument, machine, or equipment, for the better security of life, provided for by this chapter shall be used on any steam vessel which shall not first be approved by the Board of Supervising Inspectors, and also by the Secretary of Commerce. (R. S. § 4491; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

490. Barges carrying passengers.—Every barge carrying passengers, while in tow of any steamer, shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter relating to fire buckets, axes, life preservers, and yawls, to such extent as shall be prescribed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors; and for any violation of this section the penalty shall be $200, recoverable one-half for the use of the informer. (R. S. § 4492.)

491. Liability of master and owners for damage to passengers.—Whenever damage is sustained by any passenger or his baggage, from explosion, fire, collision, or other cause, the master and the owner of such vessel, or either of them, and the vessel shall be liable to each and every person so injured, to the full amount of damage if it happens through any neglect or failure to comply with the provisions of this or the preceding chapter or sections 214 or 215, or through known defects or imperfections of the steaming apparatus or of the hull; and any person sustaining loss or injury through the carelessness, negligence, or willful misconduct of any master, mate, engineer, or pilot, or his neglect or refusal to obey the laws governing the navigation of such steamers, may sue such master, mate, engineer, or pilot, and recover damages for any such injury caused by any such master, mate, engineer, or pilot. (R. S. § 4493.)

492. Copies of provisions to be kept on passenger steamers.—Every master or commander of any steam vessel carrying passengers shall keep on board of such vessel at least two copies of the provisions of this and the preceding chapter and sections 214 and 215, to be furnished to him by the Secretary of Commerce; and if the master or commander neglects or refuses to do so, or shall unreasonably refuse to exhibit a copy of the same to any passenger who asks for it, he shall be liable to a penalty of $20. (R. S. § 4494; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

493. Name of steamer exhibited.—Every steam vessel of the United States, in addition to having her name painted on her stern, shall have the same conspicuously placed in distinct, plain letters of not less than six inches in length, on each outer side of the pilot house, if it has such, and in case the vessel has side wheels, also on the outer side of each wheelhouse; and if any such steamboat be found without having her name placed as required, she shall be subject to the same penalty and forfeiture as provided by law in the case of a vessel of the United States found without having her name, and the name of the port to which she belongs, painted on her stern. (R. S. § 4495.)

494. Duties of customs officers.—All collectors, or other chief officers of the customs, and all inspectors within the several districts, shall enforce the provisions of this and the preceding chapter against all steamers arriving and departing. (R. S. § 4496.)

495. Penalty for omission of duty by customs officers.—Every collector, or other chief officer of the customs, or inspector, who negligently or intentionally omits any duty under the preceding section, shall be liable to removal from office, and to a penalty of $100 for each offense, to be sued for in an action of debt. (R. S. § 4497.)

496. Registry or enrollment denied to vessels not complying with law.—A register, enrollment, or license shall not be granted, or other papers be issued by any collector or other chief officer of customs to any vessel subject by law to inspection under this and the preceding chapter until all the provisions of said chapters applicable to such vessel have been fully complied with and until the copy of the certificate of inspection required by said chapters for such vessel has been filed with said collector or other chief officer of customs. (R. S. § 4498; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1457, § 9, 33 Stat. 1032; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 184, § 5, 38 Stat. 1218.)

497. Penalty for failure to comply with provisions.—If any vessel propelled in whole or in part by steam be navigated without complying with the terms of this and the preceding chapter, the owner shall be liable to the United States in a penalty of $500 for each offense, one-half for the use of the informer, for which sum the vessel so navigated shall be liable, and may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States having jurisdiction of the offense. Persons or corporations chartering or engaging or contracting for the use of vessels subject to this and the preceding chapter and sections 214 and 215, under such terms and conditions that they have full and exclusive control of the management and operation of such vessels, shall be subject to the same penalties for violations of the provisions of said chapters and sections as are now imposed upon owners of vessels thereunder, and in such cases the owners shall not be liable to such penalties for such violations by such charterers or contractors. (R. S. § 4499; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1454, § 4, 33 Stat. 1025.)

498. Penalty in cases not provided for.—The penalty for the violation of any provision of this, or the preceding chapter or sections 214 or 215, not otherwise especially provided for, shall be a fine of $500, recoverable one-half for the use of the informer. (R. S. § 4500.)

Chapter 16.—REGULATION OF MOTOR BOATS.

Sec.
511. "Motor boats" defined; inspection.
512. Classes of boats.
513. Lights.
514. Sound signals.
515. Life preservers; licenses.
516. Means of extinguishing burning gasoline.
517. Penalty for violations.
518. Regulations; remission of fine or penalty.
519. International rules for preventing collisions at sea not affected.
520. Regulations as to certain vessels propelled by gas, fluid, naphtha, or electric motors.

Section 511. "Motor boats" defined; inspection.—The words "motor boat" where used in this chapter shall include every vessel propelled by machinery and not more than sixty-five feet in length except tugboats and towboats propelled by steam. The length shall be measured from end to end over the deck, excluding sheer: Provided, That the engine, boiler, or other operating machinery shall be subject to inspection by the local inspectors of steam vessels, and to their approval of the design thereof, on all said motor boats, which are more than forty feet in length, and which are propelled by machinery driven by steam. (June 9, 1910, c. 268, § 1, 36 Stat. 462.)

512. Classes of boats.—Motor boats subject to the provisions of this chapter shall be divided into classes as follows:

Class 1. Less than twenty-six feet in length.

Class 2. Twenty-six feet or over and less than forty feet in length.

Class 3. Forty feet or over and not more than sixty-five feet in length. (June 9, 1910, c. 268, § 2, 36 Stat. 462.)

513. Lights.—Every motor boat in all weathers from sunset to sunrise shall carry the following lights, and during such time no other lights which may be mistaken for those prescribed shall be exhibited.

(a) Every motor boat of class 1 shall carry the following lights:

First. A white light aft to show all around the horizon.

Second. A combined lantern in the fore part of the vessel and lower than the white light aft showing green to starboard and red to port, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on their respective sides.

(b) Every motor boat of classes 2 and 3 shall carry the following lights:

First. A bright white light in the fore part of the vessel as near the stem as practicable, so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of twenty points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light ten points on each side of the vessel, namely, from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side. The glass or lens shall be of not less than the following dimensions:

Class 2. Nineteen square inches.

Class 3. Thirty-one square inches.

Second. A white light aft to show all around the horizon.

Third. On the starboard side a green light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the starboard side. On the port side a red light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the port side. The glasses or lenses in the said side lights shall be of not less than the following dimensions on motor boats of—

Class 2. Sixteen square inches.

Class 3. Twenty-five square inches.

All glasses or lenses prescribed by paragraph (b) of this section shall be fresnel or fluted. The said lights shall be fitted with inboard screens of sufficient height and so set as to prevent these lights from being seen across the bow and shall be of not less than the following dimensions on motor boats of—

Class 2. Eighteen inches long.

Class 3. Twenty-four inches long: Provided, That motor boats as defined in this chapter, when propelled by sail and machinery or under sail alone, shall carry the colored lights suitably screened but not the white lights prescribed by this section. (June 9, 1910, c. 268, § 3, 36 Stat. 462.)

514. Sound signals.—(a) Every motor boat under the provisions of this chapter shall be provided with a whistle or other sound-producing mechanical appliance capable of producing a blast of two seconds or more in duration, and in the case of such boats so provided a blast of at least two seconds shall be deemed a prolonged blast within the meaning of the law.

(b) Every motor boat of class 2 or 3 shall carry an efficient fog horn.

(c) Every motor boat of class 2 or 3 shall be provided with an efficient bell, which shall be not less than eight inches across the mouth on board of vessels of class 3. (June 9, 1910, c. 268, § 4, 36 Stat. 463.)

515. Life preservers; licenses.—Every motor boat subject to any of the provisions of this chapter, and also all vessels propelled by machinery other than by steam more than sixty-five feet in length, shall carry either life preservers or life belts, or buoyant cushions, or ring buoys or other device, to be prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce, sufficient to sustain afloat every person on board and so placed as to be readily accessible. All motor boats carrying passengers for hire shall carry one life preserver of the sort prescribed by the regulations of the Board of Supervising Inspectors for every passenger carried, and no such boat while so carrying passengers for hire shall be operated or navigated except in charge of a person duly licensed for such service by the local board of inspectors. No examination shall be required as the condition of obtaining such a license, and any such license shall be revoked or suspended by the local board of inspectors for misconduct, gross negligence, recklessness in navigation, intemperance, or violation of law on the part of the holder, and if revoked the person holding such license shall be incapable of obtaining another such license for one year from the date of revocation: Provided, That motor boats shall not be required to carry licensed officers, except as required in this chapter. (June 9, 1910, c. 268, § 5, 36 Stat. 463; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

516. Means of extinguishing burning gasoline.—Every motor boat and also every vessel propelled by machinery other than by steam, more than sixty-five feet in length, shall carry ready for immediate use the means of promptly and effectually extinguishing burning gasoline. (June 9, 1910, c. 268, § 6, 36 Stat. 463.)

517. Penalty for violations.—A fine not exceeding $100 may be imposed for any violation of this chapter. The motor boat shall be liable for the said penalty and may be seized and proceeded against, by way of libel, in the district court of the United States for any district within which such vessel may be found. (June 9, 1910, c. 268, § 7, 36 Stat. 463.)

518. Regulations; remission of fine or penalty.—The Secretary of Commerce shall make such regulations as may be necessary to secure the proper execution of this chapter by collectors of customs and other officers of the Government. And the Secretary of the Department of Commerce may, upon application therefor, remit or mitigate any fine, penalty, or forfeiture relating to motor boats except for failure to observe the provisions of section 516. (June 9, 1910, c. 268, § 8, 36 Stat. 463; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

519. International rules for preventing collisions at sea not affected.—Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to alter or amend Acts of Congress embodying or revising international rules for preventing collisions at sea. (June 9, 1910, c. 268, § 9, 36 Stat. 463.)

520. Regulations as to certain vessels propelled by gas, fluid, naphtha, or electric motors.—All vessels of above fifteen tons burden, carrying freight or passengers for hire, propelled by gas, fluid, naphtha, or electric motors, are subject to all the provisions of section 404, relating to the inspection of hulls and boilers and requiring engineers and pilots; and all vessels so propelled, without regard to tonnage or use, shall be subject to the provisions of section 381, relating to the regulation of steam vessels in passing each other; and to so much of sections 311 to 323, inclusive, 331 and 341 to 351, inclusive, of Title 33, NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS, relating to lights, fog signals, steering, and sailing rules, as the Board of Supervising Inspectors shall, by their regulations, deem applicable and practicable for their safe navigation. (Jan. 18, 1897, c. 61, 29 Stat. 489.)

Chapter 17.—REGULATION OF FISHERIES.

Sec.
531. Agreement for fishing voyage.
532. Penalty for violating agreement.
533. Recovery of shares of fish under agreement.
534. Discharge of vessel on bond by owner.

Section 531. Agreement for fishing voyage.—The master of any vessel of the burden of twenty tons or upward, qualified according to law for carrying on the bank and other cod fisheries, or the mackerel fishery, bound from a port of the United States to be employed in any such fishery, at sea, shall, before proceeding on such fishing voyage, make an agreement in writing with every fisherman who may be employed therein, except only an apprentice or servant of himself or owner, and, in addition to such terms of shipment as may be agreed on, shall, in such agreement, express whether the same is to continue for one voyage or for the fishing season, and shall also express that the fish or the proceeds of such fishing voyage or voyages which may appertain to the fishermen shall be divided among them in proportion to the quantities or number of such fish which they may respectively have caught. Such agreement shall be indorsed or countersigned by the owner of such fishing vessel or his agent. (R. S. § 4391.)

532. Penalty for violating agreement.—If any fisherman, having engaged himself for a voyage or for the fishing season in any fishing vessel and signed an agreement therefor, thereafter and while such agreement remains in force and to be performed deserts or absents himself from such vessel without leave of the master thereof, or of the owner or his agent, such deserter shall be liable to the same penalties as deserting seamen are subject to in the merchant service, and may in the like manner, and upon the like complaint and proof, be apprehended and detained; and all costs of process and commitment, if paid by the master or owner, shall be deducted out of the share of fish or proceeds of any fishing voyage to which such deserter had or shall become entitled. Every fisherman, having so engaged himself, who during such fishing voyage refuses or neglects his proper duty on board the fishing vessel, being thereto ordered or required by the master thereof, or otherwise resists his just commands to the hinderance or detriment of such voyage, besides being answerable for all damages arising thereby, shall forfeit to the use of the owner of such vessel his share of any public allowance which may be paid upon such voyage. (R. S. § 4392.)

533. Recovery of shares of fish under agreement.—Whenever an agreement or contract is so made and signed for a fishing voyage or for the fishing season, and any fish caught on board such vessel during the same are delivered to the owner or to his agent, for cure, and sold by such owner or agent, such vessel shall, for the term of six months after such sale, be liable for the master's and every other fisherman's share of such fish, and may be proceeded against in the same form and to the same effect as any other vessel is by law liable, and may be proceeded against for the wages of seamen or mariners in the merchant service. Upon such proceeding for the value of a share or shares of the proceeds of fish so delivered and sold it shall be incumbent on the owner or his agent to produce a just account of the sales and division of such fish according to such agreement or contract; otherwise the vessel shall be answerable upon such proceeding for what may be the highest value of the shares demanded. But in all cases the owner of such vessel or his agent, appearing to answer in such proceeding, may offer thereupon his account of general supplies made for such fishing voyage and of other supplies therefor made to either of the demandments, and shall be allowed to produce evidence thereof in answer to their demands respectively; and judgment shall be rendered upon such proceeding for the respective balances which upon such an inquiry shall appear. (R. S. § 4393.)

534. Discharge of vessel on bond by owner.—When process shall be issued against any vessel so liable, if the owner thereof or his agent will give bond to each fisherman in whose favor such process shall be instituted, with sufficient security, to the satisfaction of two justices of the peace, of whom one shall be named by such owner or agent, and the other by the fisherman or fishermen pursuing such process, or if either party shall refuse, then the justice first appointed shall name his associate, with condition to answer and pay whatever sum shall be recovered by him or them on such process, there shall be an immediate discharge of such vessel. Nothing in this or the preceding section shall prevent any fisherman from having his action at common law for his share or shares of fish or the proceeds thereof. (R. S. § 4394.)

SHIPPING COMMISSIONERS

Section 541. Appointment; accounts; expenditures; compensation; clerks.—The Secretary of Commerce shall appoint a commissioner for each port of entry, which is also a port of ocean navigation, and which, in his judgment, may require the same; such commissioner to be termed a shipping commissioner, and may, from time to time, remove from office any such commissioner whom he may have reason to believe does not properly perform his duty, and shall then provide for the proper performance of his duties until another person is duly appointed in his place. Shipping commissioners shall monthly render a full, exact, and itemized account of their receipts and expenditures to the Secretary of Commerce, who shall determine their compensation, and shall from time to time determine the number and compensation of the clerks appointed by such commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, subject to the limitations now fixed by law. The Secretary of Commerce shall regulate the mode of conducting business in the shipping offices established by the shipping commissioners, and shall have full and complete control over the same, subject to the provisions herein contained; and all expenditures by shipping commissioners shall be audited and adjusted in the General Accounting Office in the mode and manner provided for expenditures in the collection of customs. All fees of shipping commissioners shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States and shall constitute a fund which shall be used under the direction of the Secretary of Commerce to pay the compensation of said commissioners and their clerks and such other expenses as he may find necessary to ensure the proper administration of their duties. (R. S. § 4501; June 26, 1884, c. 121, § 27, 23 Stat. 59; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 756; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

542. Bond and oath.—Every shipping commissioner so appointed shall give bond to the United States, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, for a sum, in the discretion of the Secretary of Commerce, of not less than $5,000, in such form and with such security as the Secretary of Commerce shall direct and approve; and shall take and subscribe the oath prescribed by section 16 of Title 5 before entering upon the duties of his office: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed to affect in any respect the liability of principal or sureties on any bond given prior to April 26, 1906, by any shipping commissioner. (R. S. § 4502; Apr. 26, 1906, c. 1875, 34 Stat. 137; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

543. When officers of customs shall act.—In any port in which no shipping commissioner shall have been appointed, the whole or any part of the business of a shipping commissioner shall be conducted by the collector or deputy collector of customs of such port; and in respect of such business such customhouse shall be deemed a shipping office, and the collector or deputy collector of customs to whom such business shall be committed, shall, for all purposes, be deemed a shipping commissioner within the meaning of this chapter. (R. S. § 4503.)

544. Vessels in coastwise trade.—None of the provisions of an Act entitled "An Act to authorize the appointment of shipping commissioners by the several circuit courts of the United States to superintend the shipping and discharge of seamen engaged in merchant ships belonging to the United States, and for the further protection of seamen" shall apply to sail or steam vessels engaged in the coastwise trade, except the coastwise trade between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, or in the lake-going trade touching at foreign ports or otherwise, or in the trade between the United States and the British North American possessions, or in any case where the seamen are by custom or agreement entitled to participate in the profits or result of a cruise, or voyage. (June 9, 1874, c. 260, 18 Stat. 64.)

545. Duties.—The general duties of a shipping commissioner shall be:

First. To afford facilities for engaging seamen by keeping a register of their names and characters.

Second. To superintend their engagement and discharge, in manner prescribed by law.

Third. To provide means for securing the presence on board at the proper times of men who are so engaged.

Fourth. To facilitate the making of apprenticeships to the sea service.

Fifth. To perform such other duties relating to merchant seamen or merchant ships as may be required by law. (R. S. § 4508.)

546. Penalty for personating shipping commissioner.—Any person other than a commissioner under this chapter who shall perform or attempt to perform, either directly or indirectly, the duties which are by this chapter set forth as pertaining to a shipping commissioner, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $500. Nothing in this chapter, however, shall prevent the owner, or consignee, or master of any vessel except vessels bound from a port in the United States to any foreign port, other than vessels engaged in trade between the United States and the British North American possessions, or the West India Islands, or the Republic of Mexico, and vessels of the burden of seventy-five tons or upward bound from a port on the Atlantic to a port on the Pacific, or vice versa, from performing, himself, so far as his vessel is concerned, the duties of shipping commissioner under this chapter. Whenever the master of any vessel shall engage his crew, or any part of the same, in any collection district where no shipping commissioner shall have been appointed, he may perform for himself the duties of such commissioner. (R. S. § 4504.)

547. Clerks.—Any shipping commissioner may engage clerks to assist him in the transaction of the business of the shipping office, at his own proper cost, and may, in case of necessity, depute such clerks to act for him in his official capacity; but the shipping commissioner shall be held responsible for the acts of every such clerk or deputy, and will be personally liable for any penalties such clerk or deputy may incur by the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter; and all acts done by a clerk, as such deputy, shall be as valid and binding as if done by the shipping commissioner. (R. S. § 4505.)

548. Seal.—Each shipping commissioner shall provide a seal with which he shall authenticate all his official acts, on which seal shall be engraved the arms of the United States, and the name of the port or district for which he is commissioned. Any instrument either printed or written, purporting to be the official act of a shipping commissioner, and purporting to be under the seal and signature of such shipping commissioner, shall be received as presumptive evidence of the official character of such instrument, and of the truth of the facts therein set forth. (R. S. § 4506.)

549. Office.—The Secretary of Commerce shall assign in public buildings or otherwise procure suitable offices and rooms for the shipment and discharge of seamen, to be known as shipping commissioners' offices, and shall procure furniture, stationery, printing, and other requisites for the transaction of the business of such offices. (R. S. § 4507; Mar. 3, 1897, c. 389, § 1, 29 Stat. 687; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

SHIPMENT OF CREW

561. Apprentices.—Every shipping commissioner appointed under this chapter shall, if applied to for the purpose of apprenticing boys to the sea service, by any master or owner of a vessel, or by any person legally qualified, give such assistance as is in his power for facilitating the making of such apprenticeships; but the shipping commissioner shall ascertain that the boy has voluntarily consented to be bound, and that the parents or guardian of such boy have consented to such apprenticeship, and that he has attained the age of twelve years, and is of sufficient health and strength, and that the master to whom such boy is to be bound is a proper person for the purpose. Such apprenticeship shall terminate when the apprentice becomes eighteen years of age. The shipping commissioner shall keep a register of all indentures of apprenticeship made before him. (R. S. § 4509.)

562. Indenture of apprentice to be produced to commissioner.—The master of every foreign-going vessel shall, before carrying any apprentice to sea from any place in the United States, cause such apprentice to appear before the shipping commissioner before whom the crew is engaged, and shall produce to him the indenture by which such apprentice is bound, and the assignment or assignments thereof if any; and the name of the apprentice, with the date of the indenture and of the assignment or assignments thereof, if any, shall be entered on the agreement; which shall be in the form as near as may be given in the table marked "A" in the schedule annexed to this chapter, and no such assignment shall be made without the approval of a commissioner, of the apprentice, and of his parents or his guardian. For any violation of this section, the master shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $100. (R. S. § 4510.)

563. Shipment of crews by shipping commissioners; shipping agreements.—Shipping commissioners may ship crews for any vessel engaged in the coastwise trade, or the trade between the United States and the Dominion of Canada, or Newfoundland, or the West Indies, or the Republic of Mexico, at the request of the master or owner of such vessel.

When a crew is shipped by a shipping commissioner for any American vessel in the coastwise trade, or the trade between the United States and the Dominion of Canada, or New Foundland, or the West Indies, or Mexico, as authorized by this section, an agreement shall be made with each seaman engaged as one of such crew in the same manner as is provided by sections 564 and 565, not however including the sixth, and eighth items of section 564, and such agreement shall be posted as provided in section 577, and such seamen shall be discharged and receive their wages as provided by the first clause of section 596, and also by sections 593 to 595, inclusive, 597, 600, 603, 604, 625 to 628, inclusive, 641 to 645, inclusive, 651 and 704; but in all other respects such shipment of seamen and such shipping agreement shall be regarded as if both shipment and agreement had been entered into between the master of a vessel and a seaman without going before a shipping commissioner: Provided, That the clothing of any seaman shall be exempt from attachment, and that any person who shall detain such clothing when demanded by the owner shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be imprisoned not more than six months or fined not more than $500, or both. (June 19, 1886, c. 421, § 2, 24 Stat. 80; Aug. 19, 1890, c. 801, 26 Stat. 320; Feb. 18, 1895, c. 97, 28 Stat. 667; Mar. 3, 1897, c. 389, § 8, 29 Stat. 689; Apr. 11, 1904, c. 1140, 33 Stat. 168.)

564. Shipping articles.—The master of every vessel bound from a port in the United States to any foreign port other than vessels engaged in trade between the United States and the British North American possessions, or the West India Islands, or Mexico, or of any vessel of the burden of seventy-five tons or upward, bound from a port on the Atlantic to a port on the Pacific, or vice versa, shall, before he proceeds on such voyage, make an agreement, in writing or in print, with every seaman whom he carries to sea as one of the crew, in the manner hereinafter mentioned; and every such agreement shall be, as near as may be, in the form given in the table marked A, in the schedule annexed to this chapter, and shall be dated at the time of the first signature thereof, and shall be signed by the master before any seaman signs the same, and shall contain the following particulars:

First. The nature and, as far as practicable, the duration of the intended voyage or engagement, and the port or country at which the voyage is to terminate.

Second. The number and description of the crew, specifying their respective employments.

Third. The time at which each seaman is to be on board, to begin work.

Fourth. The capacity in which each seaman is to serve.

Fifth. The amount of wages which each seaman is to receive.

Sixth. A scale of the provisions which are to be furnished to each seaman.

Seventh. Any regulations as to conduct on board, and as to fines, short allowance of provisions, or other lawful punishments for misconduct, which may be sanctioned by Congress or authorized by the Secretary of Commerce not contrary to or not otherwise provided for by law, which the parties agree to adopt.

Eighth. Any stipulations in reference to advance and allotment of wages, or other matters not contrary to law. (R. S. § 4511; Mar. 3, 1897, c. 389, § 19, 29 Stat. 691; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

565. Rules for shipping articles.—The following rules shall be observed with respect to agreements:

First. Every agreement, except such as are otherwise specially provided for, shall be signed by each seaman in the presence of a shipping commissioner.

Second. When the crew is first engaged the agreement shall be signed in duplicate, and one part shall be retained by the shipping commissioner, and the other part shall contain a special place or form for the description and signatures of persons engaged subsequently to the first departure of the ship, and shall be delivered to the master.

Third. Every agreement entered into before a shipping commissioner shall be acknowledged and certified under the hand and official seal of such commissioner. The certificate of acknowledgment shall be indorsed on or annexed to the agreement; and shall be in the following form:

"State of ——, County of ——:

"On this ——— day of ———, personally appeared before me, a shipping commissioner in and for the said county, A. B., C. D., and E. F., severally known to me to be the same persons who executed the foregoing instrument, who each for himself acknowledged to me that he had read or had heard read the same; that he was by me made acquainted with the conditions thereof, and understood the same; and that, while sober and not in a state of intoxication, he signed it freely and voluntarily, for the uses and purposes therein mentioned." (R. S. § 4512.)

566. Exception as to shipping articles.—Section 564 shall not apply to masters of vessels where the seamen are by custom or agreement entitled to participate in the profits or result of a cruise or voyage, nor to masters of coastwise nor to masters of lake-going vessels that touch at foreign ports; but seamen may, by agreement, serve on board such vessels a definite time, or, on the return of any vessel to a port in the United States, may reship and sail in the same vessel on another voyage. (R. S. § 4513; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 252.)

567. Penalty for shipping without agreement.—If any person shall be carried to sea, as one of the crew on board of any vessel making a voyage as hereinbefore specified, without entering into an agreement with the master of such vessel, in the form and manner, and at the place and times in such cases required, the vessel shall be held liable for each such offense to a penalty of not more than $200. But the vessel shall not be held liable for any person carried to sea, who shall have secretly stowed away himself without the knowledge of the master, mate, or of any of the officers of the vessel, or who shall have falsely personated himself to the master, mate, or officers of the vessel, for the purpose of being carried to sea. (R. S. § 4514.)

568. Penalty for knowingly shipping seamen without articles.—If any master, mate, or other officer of a vessel knowingly receives, or accepts, to be entered on board of any merchant vessel, any seaman who has been engaged or supplied contrary to the provisions of this chapter, the vessel on board of which such seaman shall be found shall, for every such seaman, be liable to a penalty of not more than $200. (R. S. § 4515.)

569. Shipping seamen to replace those lost by desertion or casualty.—In case of desertion or casualty resulting in the loss of one or more of the seamen, the master must ship, if obtainable, a number equal to the number of those whose services he has been deprived of by desertion or casualty, who must be of the same or higher grade or rating with those whose places they fill, and report the same to the United States consul at the first port at which he shall arrive, without incurring the penalty prescribed by the two preceding sections. This section shall not apply to fishing or whaling vessels or yachts. (R. S. § 4516; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 1, 30 Stat. 755; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 153, § 1, 38 Stat. 1164.)

570. Shipping seamen in foreign ports.—Every master of a merchant vessel who engages any seaman at a place out of the United States, in which there is a consular officer shall, before carrying such seaman to sea, procure the sanction of such officer, and shall engage seamen in his presence; and the rules governing the engagement of seamen before a shipping commissioner in the United States, shall apply to such engagements made before a consular officer; and upon every such engagement the consular officer shall indorse upon the agreement his sanction thereof, and an attestation to the effect that the same has been signed in his presence, and otherwise duly made. (R. S. § 4517.)

571. Penalty for violating preceding section.—Every master who engages any seaman in any place in which there is a consular officer, otherwise than as required by the preceding section, shall incur a penalty of not more than $100, for which penalty the vessel shall be held liable. (R. S. § 4518.)

572. Voyage or term for which seamen may be shipped; reshipment.—A master of a vessel in the foreign trade may engage a seaman at any port in the United States, in the manner provided by law, to serve on a voyage to any port, or for the round trip from and to the port of departure, or for a definite time, whatever the destination. The master of a vessel making regular and stated trips between the United States and a foreign country may engage a seaman for one or more round trips, or for a definite time, or on the return of said vessel to the United States may reship such seaman for another voyage in the same vessel, in the manner provided by law. (June 26, 1884, c. 121, § 19, 23 Stat. 58.)

573. Voyage or term of seamen shipped in foreign port; reshipment; bond.—Every master of a vessel in the foreign trade may engage any seaman at any port out of the United States, in the manner provided by law, to serve for one or more round trips from and to the port of departure, or for a definite time, whatever the destination; and the master of a vessel clearing from a port of the United States with one or more seamen engaged in a foreign port as herein provided shall not be required to reship in a port of the United States the seamen so engaged, or to give bond, to produce said seamen before a boarding officer on the return of said vessel to the United States. (June 26, 1884, c. 121, § 20, 23 Stat. 58.)

574. Shipping articles for vessels in coasting trade.—Every master of any vessel of the burden of fifty tons or upward, bound from a port in one State to a port in any other than an adjoining State, except vessels of the burden of seventy-five tons or upward, bound from a port on the Atlantic to a port on the Pacific, or vice versa, shall, before he proceeds on such voyage, make an agreement in writing or in print, with every seaman on board such vessel except such as shall be apprentice or servant to himself or owners, declaring the voyage or term of time for which such seaman shall be shipped. (R. S. § 4520.)

575. Penalty for shipping without articles.—If any master of such vessel of the burden of fifty tons or upward shall carry out any seaman or mariner, except apprentices or servants, without such contract or agreement being first made and signed by the seamen, such master shall pay to every such seaman the highest price or wages which shall have been given at the port or place where such seaman was shipped, for a similar voyage, within three months next before the time of such shipping, if such seaman shall perform such voyage; or if not, then for such time as he shall continue to do duty on board such vessel; and shall moreover be liable to a penalty of $20 for every such seaman, recoverable, one-half to the use of the person prosecuting for the same, and the other half to the use of the United States. Any seaman who has not signed such a contract shall not be bound by the regulations nor subject to the penalties and forfeitures contained in this chapter. (R. S. § 4521.)

576. Penalty for omitting to begin voyage.—At the foot of every such contract to ship upon such a vessel of the burden of fifty tons or upward there shall be a memorandum in writing of the day and the hour when such seaman who shipped and subscribed shall render himself on board to begin the voyage agreed upon. If any seaman shall neglect to render himself on board the vessel for which he has shipped at the time mentioned in such memorandum without giving twenty-four hours' notice of his inability to do so, and if the master of the vessel shall, on the day in which such neglect happened, make an entry in the log book of such vessel of the name of such seaman, and shall in like manner note the time that he so neglected to render himself after the time appointed, then every such seaman shall forfeit for every hour which he shall so neglect to render himself one-half of one day's pay, according to the rate of wages agreed upon, to be deducted out of the wages. If any such seaman shall wholly neglect to render himself on board of such vessel, or having rendered himself on board shall afterwards desert, he shall forfeit all of his wages or emoluments which he has then earned. (R. S. § 4522; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 252; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 2, 30 Stat. 755.)

577. Posting copy of agreement.—The master shall, at the commencement of every voyage or engagement, cause a legible copy of the agreement, omitting signatures, to be placed or posted up in such part of the vessel as to be accessible to the crew; and on default shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $100. (R. S. § 4519.)

578. Unlawful shipments void.—All shipments of seamen made contrary to the provisions of any act of Congress shall be void; and any seaman so shipped may leave the service at any time, and shall be entitled to recover the highest rate of wages of the port from which the seaman was shipped, or the sum agreed to be given him at his shipment. (R. S. § 4523.)

579. Report of returns of collectors and foreign agents.—The Secretary of State shall lay before Congress, within ten days after the commencement of each regular session, a statement containing an abstract of all the returns made to him pursuant to law, by the collectors of the different ports, of the seamen registered by them, together with an account of such impressments and detentions as shall appear by the protests of the masters to have taken place. (R. S. § 207; Mar. 3, 1897, c. 389, § 16, 29 Stat. 691.)

WAGES OF SEAMEN

591. Commencement of wages.—A seaman's right to wages and provisions shall be taken to commence either at the time at which he commences work, or at the time specified in the agreement for his commencement of work or presence on board, whichever first happens. (R. S. § 4524.)

592. Wages not dependent on freight earned.—No right to wages shall be dependent on the earning of freight by the vessel; but every seaman or apprentice who would be entitled to demand and receive any wages if the vessel on which he has served had earned freight, shall, subject to all other rules of law and conditions applicable to the case, be entitled to claim and recover the same of the master or owner in personam, notwithstanding that freight has not been earned. But in all cases of wreck or loss of vessel, proof that any seaman or apprentice has not exerted himself to the utmost to save the vessel, cargo, and stores shall bar his claim. (R. S. § 4525.)

593. Termination of wages by loss of vessel; transportation to place of shipment.—In cases where the service of any seaman terminates before the period contemplated in the agreement, by reason of the loss or wreck of the vessel, such seaman shall be entitled to wages for the time of service prior to such termination, but not for any further period. Such seaman shall be considered as a destitute seaman and shall be treated and transported to port of shipment as provided in sections 678, 679, and 681. (R. S. § 4526; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 3, 30 Stat. 755.)

594. Right to wages in case of improper discharge.—Any seaman who has signed an agreement and is afterward discharged before the commencement of the voyage or before one month's wages are earned, without fault on his part justifying such discharge, and without his consent, shall be entitled to receive from the master or owner, in addition to any wages he may have earned, a sum equal in amount to one month's wages as compensation, and may, on adducing evidence satisfactory to the court hearing the case, of having been improperly discharged, recover such compensation as if it were wages duly earned. (R. S. § 4527.)

595. Conduct as affecting right.—No seaman or apprentice shall be entitled to wages for any period during which he unlawfully refuses or neglects to work when required, after the time fixed by the agreement for him to begin work, nor, unless the court hearing the case otherwise directs, for any period during which he is lawfully imprisoned for any offense committed by him. (R. S. § 4528.)

596. Time for payment.—The master or owner of any vessel making coasting voyages shall pay to every seaman his wages within two days after the termination of the agreement under which he was shipped, or at the time such seaman is discharged, whichever first happens; and in case of vessels making foreign voyages, or from a port on the Atlantic to a port on the Pacific, or vice versa, within twenty-four hours after the cargo has been discharged, or within four days after the seaman has been discharged, whichever first happens; and in all cases the seaman shall be entitled to be paid at the time of his discharge on account of wages a sum equal to one-third part of the balance due him. Every master or owner who refuses or neglects to make payment in the manner hereinbefore mentioned without sufficient cause shall pay to the seaman a sum equal to two days' pay for each and every day during which payment is delayed beyond the respective periods, which sum shall be recoverable as wages in any claim made before the court; but this section shall not apply to masters or owners of any vessel the seamen of which are entitled to share in the profits of the cruise or voyage. (R. S. § 4529; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 4, 30 Stat. 756; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 153, § 3, 38 Stat. 1164.)

597. Payment at ports.—Every seaman on a vessel of the United States shall be entitled to receive on demand from the master of the vessel to which he belongs one-half part of the balance of his wages earned and remaining unpaid at the time when such demand is made at every port where such vessel, after the voyage has been commenced, shall load or deliver cargo before the voyage is ended, and all stipulations in the contract to the contrary shall be void: Provided, Such a demand shall not be made before the expiration of, nor oftener than once in, five days nor more than once in the same harbor on the same entry. Any failure on the part of the master to comply with this demand shall release the seaman from his contract and he shall be entitled to full payment of wages earned. And when the voyage is ended every such seaman shall be entitled to the remainder of the wages which shall be then due him, as provided in the preceding section: Provided further, That notwithstanding any release signed by any seaman under section 644 any court having jurisdiction may upon good cause shown set aside such release and take such action as justice shall require: And provided further, That this section shall apply to seamen on foreign vessels while in harbors of the United States, and the courts of the United States shall be open to such seamen for its enforcement. (R. S. § 4530; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 5, 30 Stat. 756; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 153, § 4, 38 Stat. 1165; June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 31, 41 Stat. 1006.)

598. Vessels engaged in taking oysters.—Sections 596, 599, and 604 shall apply to all vessels engaged in the taking of oysters. (June 28, 1906, c. 3583, § 4, 34 Stat. 551.)

599. Advances and allotments.—(a) It shall be unlawful in any case to pay any seaman wages in advance of the time when he has actually earned the same, or to pay such advance wages, or to make any order, or note, or other evidence of indebtedness therefor to any other person, or to pay any person, for the shipment of seamen when payment is deducted or to be deducted from a seaman's wages. Any person violating any of the foregoing provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $100, and may also be imprisoned for a period of not exceeding six months, at the discretion of the court. The payment of such advance wages or allotment, whether made within or without the United States or territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof, shall in no case except as herein provided absolve the vessel or the master or the owner thereof from the full payment of wages after the same shall have been actually earned, and shall be no defense to a libel suit or action for the recovery of such wages. If any person shall demand or receive, either directly or indirectly, from any seaman or other person seeking employment, as seaman, or from any person on his behalf, any remuneration whatever for providing him with employment, he shall for every such offense be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be imprisoned not more than six months or fined not more than $500.

(b) It shall be lawful for any seaman to stipulate in his shipping agreement for an allotment of any portion of the wages he may earn to his grandparents, parents, wife, sister, or children.

(c) No allotment shall be valid unless in writing and signed by and approved by the shipping commissioner. It shall be the duty of the said commissioner to examine such allotments and the parties to them and enforce compliance with the law. All stipulations for the allotment of any part of the wages of a seaman during his absence which are made at the commencement of the voyage shall be inserted in the agreement and shall state the amounts and times of the payments to be made and the persons to whom the payments are to be made.

(d) No allotment except as provided for in this section shall be lawful. Any person who shall falsely claim to be such relation, as above described, of a seaman under this section shall for every such offense be punished by a fine not exceeding $500 or imprisonment not exceeding six months, at the discretion of the court.

(e) This section shall apply as well to foreign vessels while in waters of the United States, as to vessels of the United States, and any master, owner, consignee, or agent of any foreign vessel who has violated its provisions shall be liable to the same penalty that the master, owner, or agent of a vessel of the United States would be for similar violation.

The master, owner, consignee, or agent of any vessel of the United States, or of any foreign vessel seeking clearance from a port of the United States, shall present his shipping articles at the office of clearance, and no clearance shall be granted any such vessel unless the provisions of this section have been complied with.

(f) Under the direction of the Secretary of Commerce the Commissioner of Navigation shall make regulations to carry out this section. (June 26, 1884, c. 121, § 10, 23 Stat. 55; June 19, 1886, c. 421, § 3, 24 Stat. 80; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 24, 30 Stat. 763; Apr. 26, 1904, c. 1603, § 1, 33 Stat. 308; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 153, § 11, 38 Stat. 1168; June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 32, 41 Stat. 1006.)

600. Agreements as to loss of lien or right to wages.—No seaman shall, by any agreement other than is provided by this chapter, forfeit his lien upon the ship, or be deprived of any remedy for the recovery of his wages to which he would otherwise have been entitled; and every stipulation in any agreement inconsistent with any provision of this chapter, and every stipulation by which any seaman consents to abandon his right to his wages in the case of the loss of the ship, or to abandon any right which he may have or obtain in the nature of salvage, shall be wholly inoperative. (R. S. § 4535.)

601. Attachment or arrestment of wages; support of seaman's wife.—No wages due or accruing to any seaman or apprentice shall be subject to attachment or arrestment from any court, and every payment of wages to a seaman or apprentice shall be valid in law, notwithstanding any previous sale or assignment of wages or of any attachment, encumbrance, or arrestment thereon; and no assignment or sale of wages or of salvage made prior to the accruing thereof shall bind the party making the same, except such allotments as are authorized by this chapter. This section shall apply to fishermen employed on fishing vessels as well as to seamen: Provided, That nothing contained in this or any preceding section shall interfere with the order by any court regarding the payment by any seaman of any part of his wages for the support and maintenance of his wife and minor children. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 153, § 12, 38 Stat. 1169.)

602. Limit of sum recoverable during voyage.—No sum exceeding $1 shall be recoverable from any seaman, by any one person, for any debt contracted during the time such seaman shall actually belong to any vessel, until the voyage for which such seaman engaged shall be ended. (R. S. § 4537.)

603. Summons for nonpayment.—Whenever the wages of any seaman are not paid within ten days after the time when the same ought to be paid according to the provisions of this chapter, or any dispute arises between the master and seamen touching wages, the district judge for the judicial district where the vessel is, or in case his residence be more than three miles from the place, or he be absent from the place of his residence, then, any judge or justice of the peace, or any United States commissioner of a district court, may summon the master of such vessel to appear before him, to show cause why process should not issue against such vessel, her tackle, apparel, and furniture, according to the course of admiralty courts, to answer for the wages. (R. S. § 4546; May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 19, 29 Stat. 184; Mar. 2, 1901, c. 814, 31 Stat. 956; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, 36 Stat. 1167.)

604. Libel for wages.—If the master against whom such summons is issued neglects to appear, or, appearing, does not show that the wages are paid or otherwise satisfied or forfeited, and if the matter in dispute is not forthwith settled, the judge or justice or United States commissioner shall certify to the clerk of the district court that there is sufficient cause of complaint whereon to found admiralty process; and thereupon the clerk of such court shall issue process against the vessel. In all cases where the matter in demand does not exceed $100 the return day of the monition or citation shall be the first day of a stated or special session of court next succeeding the third day after the service of the monition, or citation, and on the return of process in open court, duly served, either party may proceed therein to proofs and hearing without other notice, and final judgment shall be given according to the usual course of admiralty courts in such cases. In such suits all the seamen having cause of complaint of the like kind against the same vessel may be joined as complainants, and it shall be incumbent on the master to produce the contract and log book, if required to ascertain any matter in dispute; otherwise the complainants shall be permitted to state the contents thereof, and the burden of proof of the contrary shall be on the master. But nothing herein contained shall prevent any seaman from maintaining any action at common law for the recovery of his wages, or having immediate process out of any court having admiralty jurisdiction wherever any vessel may be found, in case she shall have left the port of delivery where her voyage ended before payment of the wages, or in case she shall be about to proceed to sea before the end of the ten days next after the day when such wages are due, in accordance with section 596. (R. S. § 4547; May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 19, 29 Stat. 184; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 6, 30 Stat. 756; Mar. 2, 1901, c. 814, 31 Stat. 956.)

605. Wages payable in gold.—Moneys paid under the laws of the United States, by direction of consular officers or agents, at any foreign port or place, as wages, extra or otherwise, due American seamen, shall be paid in gold or its equivalent, without any deduction whatever, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. (R. S. § 4548.)

WAGES ON CANAL BOATS

611. Libel of canal boats for wages.—No canal boat, without masts or steam power, which is required to be registered, licensed, or enrolled and licensed, shall be subject to be libeled in any of the United States courts for the wages of any person who may be employed on board thereof, or in navigating the same. (R. S. § 4251.)

EFFECTS OF DECEASED SEAMEN

621. Duty of master where seaman dies during voyage.—Whenever any seaman or apprentice belonging to or sent home on any merchant vessel, whether a foreign-going or domestic vessel, employed on a voyage which is to terminate in the United States, dies during such voyage, the master shall take charge of all moneys, clothes, and effects which he leaves on board, and shall, if he thinks fit, cause all or any of such clothes and effects to be sold by auction at the mast or other public auction, and shall thereupon sign an entry in the official log book, and cause it to be attested by the mate and one of the crew, containing the following particulars:

First. A statement of the amount of money so left by the deceased.

Second. In case of a sale, a description of each article sold, and the sum received for each.

Third. A statement of the sum due to deceased as wages, and the total amount of deductions, if any, to be made therefrom. (R. S. § 4538.)

622. Proceedings in regard to effects.—In cases embraced by the preceding section, the following rules shall be observed:

First. If the vessel proceeds at once to any port in the United States, the master shall, within forty-eight hours after his arrival, deliver any such effects remaining unsold, and pay any money which he has taken charge of, or received from such sale, and the balance of wages due to the deceased, to the shipping commissioner at the port of destination in the United States.

Second. If the vessel touches and remains at some foreign port before coming to any port in the United States, the master shall report the case to the United States consular officer there, and shall give to such officer any information he requires as to the destination of the vessel and probable length of the voyage; and such officer may, if he considers it expedient so to do, require the effects, money, and wages to be delivered and paid to him, and shall, upon such delivery and payment, give to the master a receipt; and the master shall within forty-eight hours after his arrival at his port of destination in the United States produce the same to the shipping commissioner there. Such consular officer shall, in any such case, indorse and certify upon the agreement with the crew the particulars with respect to such delivery and payment.

Third. If the consular officer does not require such payment and delivery to be made to him, the master shall take charge of the effects, money, and wages, and shall, within forty-eight hours after his arrival at his port of destination in the United States, deliver and pay the same to the shipping commissioner there.

Fourth. The master shall, in all cases in which any seaman or apprentice dies during the voyage or engagement, give to such officer or shipping commissioner an account, in such form as they may respectively require, of the effects, money, and wages so to be delivered and paid; and no deductions claimed in such account shall be allowed unless verified by an entry in the official log book, if there be any; and by such other vouchers, if any, as may be reasonably required by the officer or shipping commissioner to whom the account is rendered.

Fifth. Upon due compliance with such of the provisions of this section as relate to acts to be done at the port of destination in the United States, the shipping commissioner shall grant to the master a certificate to that effect. No officer of customs shall clear any foreign-going vessel without the production of such certificate. (R. S. § 4539.)

623. Penalty for neglect of master.—Whenever any master fails to take such charge of the money or other effects of a seaman or apprentice during a voyage, or to make such entries in respect thereof, or to procure such attestation to such entries, or to make such payment or delivery of any money, wages, or effects of any seaman or apprentice dying during a voyage, or to give such account in respect thereof as is above directed, he shall be accountable for the money, wages, and effects of the seaman or apprentice to the district court in whose jurisdiction such port of destination is situate, and shall pay and deliver the same accordingly; and he shall, in addition, for every such offense, be liable to a penalty of not more than treble the value of the money or effects, or, if such value is not ascertained, not more than $200; and if any such money, wages, or effects are not duly paid, delivered, and accounted for by the master, the owner of the vessel shall pay, deliver, and account for the same, and such money and wages and the value of such effects shall be recoverable from him accordingly; and if he fails to account for and pay the same, he shall, in addition to his liability for the money and value, be liable to the same penalty which is incurred by the master for a like offense; and all money, wages, and effects of any seaman or apprentice dying during a voyage shall be recoverable in the courts and by the modes of proceeding by which seamen are enabled to recover wages due to them. (R. S. § 4540; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, 36 Stat. 1167.)

624. Duties of consular officers.—Whenever any such seaman or apprentice dies at any place out of the United States, leaving any money or effects not on board of his vessel, the consular officer of the United States at or nearest the place shall claim and take charge of such money and effects, and shall, if he thinks fit, sell all or any of such effects, or any effects of any deceased seaman or apprentice delivered to him under the provisions of this chapter, and shall quarterly remit to the district court of the district embracing the port from which such vessel sailed, or the port where the voyage terminates, all moneys belonging to or arising from the sale of the effects or paid as the wages of any deceased seamen or apprentices which have come to his hands; and shall render such accounts thereof as the district court requires. (R. S. § 4541; Mar. 3, 1897, c. 389, § 4, 29 Stat. 689; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, 36 Stat. 1167.)

625. Effects of seaman dying within the United States.—Whenever any seaman or apprentice dies in the United States, and is, at the time of his death, entitled to claim from the master or owner of any vessel in which he has served, any unpaid wages or effects, such master or owner shall pay and deliver, or account for the same, to the shipping commissioner at the port where the seaman or apprentice was discharged, or was to have been discharged or where he died. (R. S. § 4542; Mar. 3, 1897, c. 389, § 6, 29 Stat. 689.)

626. Payment to district court.—Every shipping commissioner in the United States shall, within one week from the date of receiving any such money, wages, or effects of any deceased seaman or apprentice, pay, remit, or deliver to the district court of the district in which he resides, the money, wages, or effects, subject to such deductions as may be allowed by the district court for expenses incurred in respect to such money and effects; and should any commissioner fail to pay, remit, and deliver the same to the district court, within the time hereinbefore mentioned, he shall incur a penalty of not more than treble the value of such money and effects. (R. S. § 4543; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, 36 Stat. 1167.)

627. Distribution by district court.—If the money and effects of any seaman or apprentice paid, remitted, or delivered to the district court, including the moneys received for any part of his effects which have been sold, either before delivery to the district court, or by its directions, do not exceed in value the sum of $300, then, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, and to all such deductions for expenses incurred in respect to the seaman or apprentice, or of his money and effects, as the said court thinks fit to allow, the court may pay and deliver the said money and effects to any claimants who can prove themselves either to be his widow or children, or to be entitled to the effects of the deceased under his will, or under any statute, or at common law, or to be entitled to procure probate, or take out letters of administration or confirmation, although no probate or letters of administration or confirmation have been taken out, and shall be thereby discharged from all further liability in respect of the money and effects so paid and delivered; or may, if it thinks fit so to do, require probate, or letters of administration or confirmation, to be taken out, and thereupon pay and deliver the said money and effects to the legal personal representatives of the deceased; and if such money and effects exceed in value the sum of $300, then, subject to deduction for expenses, the court shall pay and deliver the same to the legal personal representatives of the deceased. (R. S. § 4544; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, 36 Stat. 1167.)

628. Unclaimed wages and effects.—A district court, in its discretion, may at any time direct the sale of the whole or any part of the effects of a deceased seaman or apprentice, which it has received, and shall hold the proceeds of such sale as the wages of deceased seamen are held. When no claim to the wages or effects or proceeds of the sale of the effects of a deceased seaman or apprentice, received by a district court, is substantiated within six years after the receipt thereof by the court, it shall be in the absolute discretion of the court, if any subsequent claim is made, either to allow or refuse the same. Such courts shall, from time to time, pay any moneys arising from the unclaimed wages and effects of deceased seamen, which in their opinion it is not necessary to retain for the purpose of satisfying claims, into the Treasury of the United States, and such moneys shall form a fund for, and be appropriated to, the relief of sick and disabled and destitute seamen belonging to the United States merchant marine service. (R. S. § 4545; Mar. 3, 1897, c. 389, § 7, 29 Stat. 689; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, 36 Stat. 1167.)

DISCHARGE

641. Mode.—All seamen discharged in the United States from merchant vessels engaged in voyages from a port in the United States to any foreign port, or, being of the burden of seventy-five tons or upward, from a port on the Atlantic to a port on the Pacific, or vice versa, shall be discharged and receive their wages in the presence of a duly authorized shipping commissioner under this chapter, except in cases where some competent court otherwise directs; and any master or owner of any such vessel who discharges any such seaman belonging thereto, or pays his wages within the United States in any other manner, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $50. (R. S. § 4549.)

642. Accounting as to wages.—Every master shall, not less than forty-eight hours before paying off or discharging any seaman, deliver to him, or, if he is to be discharged before a shipping commissioner, to such shipping commissioner, a full and true account of his wages, and all deductions to be made therefrom on any account whatsoever; and in default shall, for each offense, be liable to a penalty of not more than $50. No deduction from the wages of any seaman except in respect of some matter happening after such delivery shall be allowed, unless it is included in the account delivered; and the master shall, during the voyage, enter the various matters in respect to which such deductions are made, with the amounts of the respective deductions as they occur, in the official log book, and shall, if required, produce such book at the time of the payment of wages, and, also, upon the hearing, before any competent authority, of any complaint or question relating to such payment. (R. S. § 4550.)

643. Certificate.—Upon the discharge of any seaman, or upon payment of his wages, the master shall sign and give him a certificate of discharge, specifying the period of his service and the time and place of his discharge, in the form marked Table B in the schedule annexed to this chapter; and every master who fails to sign and give to such seaman such certificate and discharge shall, for each such offense, incur a penalty not exceeding $50. But whenever the master shall discharge his crew or any part thereof in any collection district where no shipping commissioner has been appointed, he may perform for himself the duties of such commissioner. (R. S. § 4551.)

644. Rules for settlement.—The following rules shall be observed with respect to the settlement of wages:

First. Upon the completion, before a shipping commissioner, of any discharge and settlement, the master or owner and each seaman, respectively, in the presence of the shipping commissioner, shall sign a mutual release of all claims for wages in respect of the past voyage or engagement, and the shipping commissioner shall also sign and attest it, and shall retain it in a book to be kept for that purpose, provided both the master and seamen assent to such settlement, or the settlement has been adjusted by the shipping commissioner.

Second. Such release, so signed and attested, shall operate as a mutual discharge and settlement of all demands for wages between the parties thereto, on account of wages, in respect of the past voyage or engagement.

Third. A copy of such release, certified under the hand and seal of such shipping commissioner to be a true copy, shall be given by him to any party thereto requiring the same, and such copy shall be receivable in evidence upon any future question touching such claims, and shall have all the effect of the original of which it purports to be a copy.

Fourth. In cases in which discharge and settlement before a shipping commissioner are required, no payment, receipt, settlement, or discharge otherwise made shall operate as evidence of the release or satisfaction of any claim.

Fifth. Upon payment being made by a master before a shipping commissioner, the shipping commissioner shall, if required, sign and give to such master a statement of the whole amount so paid; and such statement shall, between the master and his employer, be received as evidence that he has made the payments therein mentioned. (R. S. § 4552.)

645. Certificate of character.—Upon every discharge effected before a shipping commissioner, the master shall make and sign, in the form given in the table marked "B," in the schedule annexed to this chapter, a report of the conduct, character, and qualifications of the persons discharged; or may state in such form, that he declines to give any opinion upon such particulars, or upon any of them; and the commissioner shall keep a register of the same, and shall, if desired so to do by any seaman, give to him or indorse on his certificate of discharge a copy of so much of such report as concerns him. (R. S. § 4553.)

646. Discharge of crews in coast trade.—Shipping commissioners may discharge crews from any vessel engaged in the coastwise trade, or the trade between the United States and the Dominion of Canada, or Newfoundland, or the West Indies, or the Republic of Mexico, at the request of the master or owner of such vessel. (June 19, 1886, c. 421, § 2, 24 Stat. 80.)

PROTECTION AND RELIEF

651. Commissioner as arbiter.—Every shipping commissioner shall hear and decide any question whatsoever between a master, consignee, agent, or owner, and any of his crew, which both parties agree in writing to submit to him; and every award so made by him shall be binding on both parties, and shall, in any legal proceedings which may be taken in the matter, before any court of justice, be deemed to be conclusive as to the rights of parties. And any document under the hand and official seal of a commissioner purporting to be such submission or award, shall be prima-facie evidence thereof. (R. S. § 4554.)

652. Examination of witnesses.—In any proceeding relating to the wages, claims, or discharge of a seaman, carried on before any shipping commissioner, under the provisions of this chapter, such shipping commissioner may call upon the owner, or his agent, or upon the master, or any mate, or any other member of the crew, to produce any log books, papers, or other documents in their possession or power, respectively, relating to any matter in question in such proceedings, and may call before him and examine any of such persons, being then at or near the place, on any such matter; and every owner, agent, master, mate, or other member of the crew, who, when called upon by the shipping commissioner, does not produce any such books, papers, or documents, if in his possession or power, or does not appear and give evidence, shall, unless he shows some reasonable cause for such default, be liable to a penalty of not more than $100 for each offense; and, on application made by the shipping commissioner, shall be further punished, in the discretion of the court, as in other cases of contempt of the process of the court. (R. S. § 4555.)

653. Complaint that vessel is unseaworthy.—If the first and second officers under the master or a majority of the crew of any vessel bound on any voyage shall, before the vessel shall have left the harbor, discover that the vessel is too leaky or is otherwise unfit in her crew, body, tackle, apparel, furniture, provisions, or stores to proceed on the intended voyage, and shall require such unfitness to be inquired into, the master shall, upon the request of the first and second officers under the master or such majority of the crew, forthwith apply to the judge of the district court of that judicial district, if he shall there reside, or if not, to some justice of the peace of the city, town, or place for the appointment of surveyors, as in the following section provided, taking with him two or more of the crew who shall have made such request; and any master refusing or neglecting to comply with these provisions shall be liable to a penalty of $500. (R. S. § 4556; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 7, 30 Stat. 757.)

654. Proceedings on examination of vessel.—The judge, or justice, in a domestic port, shall, upon such application of the master or commander, issue his precept, directed to three persons in the neighborhood, the most experienced and skillful in maritime affairs that can be procured; and whenever such complaint is about the provisions one of such surveyors shall be a physician or a surgeon of the Public Health Service, if such service is established at the place where the complaint is made. It shall be the duty of such surveyors to repair on board such vessel and to examine the same in respect to the defects and insufficiencies complained of, and make reports to the judge, or justice, as the case may be, in writing, under their hands or the hands of two of them whether in any or in what respect the vessel is unfit to proceed on the intended voyage, and what addition of men, provisions, or stores, or what repairs or alterations in the body, tackle, or apparel will be necessary; and upon such report the judge or justice shall adjudge and shall indorse on his report his judgment whether the vessel is fit to proceed on the intended voyage, and, if not, whether such repairs can be made or deficiencies supplied where the vessel then lies, or whether it is necessary for her to proceed to the nearest or most convenient place where such supplies can be made or deficiencies supplied; and the master and the crew shall, in all things, conform to the judgment. The master or commander shall, in the first instance, pay all the costs of such review, report, or judgment, to be taxed and allowed on a fair copy thereof, certified by the judge or justice. But if the complaint of the crew shall appear upon the report and judgment to have been without foundation, the master or commander, or the owner or consignee of such vessel, shall deduct the amount thereof, and of reasonable damages for the detention, to be ascertained by the judge or justice, out of the wages of the complaining seamen. (R. S. § 4557; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 8, 30 Stat. 757; July 1, 1902, c. 1370, 32 Stat. 712; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, 37 Stat. 309.)

655. Refusal to proceed when vessel found seaworthy.—If, after judgment that such vessel is fit to proceed on her intended voyage, or after procuring such men, provisions, stores, repairs, or alterations as may be directed, the seamen, or either of them, shall refuse to proceed on the voyage, he shall forfeit any wages that may be due him. (R. S. § 4558; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 9, 30 Stat. 757.)

656. Appointment of inspectors by consul in foreign port.—Upon a complaint in writing, signed by the first and second officers or a majority of the crew of any vessel, while in a foreign port, that such vessel is in an unsuitable condition to go to sea because she is leaky or insufficiently supplied with sails, rigging, anchors, or any other equipment, or that the crew is insufficient to man her, or that her provisions, stores, and supplies are not or have not been during the voyage sufficient or wholesome, thereupon, in any of these or like cases the consul shall cause to be appointed three persons of like qualifications with those described in section 654, who shall proceed to examine into the cause of complaint and who shall proceed and be governed in all their proceedings as provided by said section. (R. S. § 4559; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 10, 30 Stat. 757; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 153, § 5, 38 Stat. 1165.)

657. Report of inspectors.—The inspectors appointed by any consul, in pursuance of the preceding section, shall have full power to examine the vessel and whatever is aboard of her, so far as is pertinent to their inquiry, and also to hear and receive any other proofs which the ends of justice may require; and if, upon a view of the whole proceedings, the consul is satisfied therewith, he may approve the whole or any part of the report, and shall certify such approval; or if he dissents, he shall certify his reasons for dissenting. (R. S. § 4560.)

658. Discharge of crew on account of unseaworthiness; penalty for sending unseaworthy vessel to sea.—The inspectors in their report shall also state whether in their opinion the vessel was sent to sea unsuitably provided in any important or essential particular, by neglect or design, or through mistake or accident; and in case it was by neglect or design, and the consular officer approves of such finding, he shall discharge such of the crew as request it, and shall require the payment by the master of one month's wages for each seaman over and above the wages then due, or sufficient money for the return of such of the crew as desire to be discharged to the nearest and most convenient port of the United States, or by furnishing the seamen who so desire to be discharged with employment on a ship agreed to by them. But if in the opinion of the inspectors the defects or deficiencies found to exist have been the result of mistake or accident, and could not, in the exercise of ordinary care, have been known and provided against before the sailing of the vessel, and the master shall in a reasonable time remove or remedy the causes of complaint, then the crew shall remain and discharge their duty. If any person knowingly sends or attempts to send or is party to the sending or attempting to send an American ship to sea, in the foreign or coastwise trade, in such an unseaworthy state that the life of any person is likely to be thereby endangered, he shall, in respect of each offense, be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine not to exceed $1,000 or by imprisonment not to exceed five years, or both, at the discretion of the court, unless he proves that either he used all reasonable means to insure her being sent to sea in a seaworthy state, or that her going to sea in an unseaworthy state was, under the circumstances, reasonable and justifiable, and for the purposes of giving that proof he may give evidence in the same manner as any other witness. (R. S. § 4561; June 26, 1884, c. 121, § 4, 23 Stat. 54; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 11, 30 Stat. 758.)

660. Refusal to pay wages and charges.—Every master who refuses to pay such wages and charges shall be liable to each person injured thereby in damages, to be recovered in any court of the United States in the district where such delinquent may reside or be found, and in addition thereto be punishable by a fine of $100 for each offense. (R. S. § 4563.)

661. Neglect to provide sufficient stores.—Should any master or owner of any merchant vessel of the United States neglect to provide a sufficient quantity of stores to last for a voyage of ordinary duration to the port of destination, and in consequence of such neglect the crew are compelled to accept a reduced scale, such master or owner shall be liable to a penalty as provided in section 665. (R. S. § 4564; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 12, 30 Stat. 758.)

662. Complaint as to provisions or water; examination.—Any three or more of the crew of any merchant vessel of the United States bound from a port in the United States to any foreign port, or being of the burden of seventy-five tons or upward, and bound from a port on the Atlantic to a port on the Pacific, or vice versa, may complain to any officer in command of any of the vessels of the United States Navy, or consular officer of the United States, or shipping commissioner or chief officer of the customs, that the provisions or water for the use of the crew are, at any time, of bad quality, unfit for use, or deficient in quantity. Such officer shall thereupon examine the provisions or water, or cause them to be examined; and if, on examination, such provisions or water are found to be of bad quality and unfit for use, or to be deficient in quantity, the person making such examination shall certify the same in writing to the master of the ship. If such master does not thereupon provide other proper provisions or water, where the same can be had, in lieu of any so certified to be of a bad quality and unfit for use, or does not procure the requisite quantity of any so certified to be insufficient in quantity, or uses any provisions or water which have been so certified as aforesaid to be of bad quality and unfit for use, he shall, in every such case, be liable to a penalty of not more than $100; and upon every such examination the officers making or directing the same shall enter a statement of the result of the examination in the log book, and shall send a report thereof to the district judge for the judicial district embracing the port to which such vessel is bound; and such report shall be received in evidence in any legal proceedings. (R. S. § 4565.)

663. Forfeiture for false complaint as to provisions or water.—If the officer to whom any such complaint in regard to the provisions or the water is made certifies in such statement that there was no reasonable ground for such complaint, each of the parties so complaining shall forfeit to the master or owner his share of the expense, if any, of the survey. (R. S. § 4566; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 13, 30 Stat. 758.)

664. Permission from master to enter complaint as to provisions or water.—If any seamen, while on board any vessel, shall state to the master that they desire to make complaint, in accordance with the two preceding sections, in regard to the provisions or the water, to a competent officer, against the master, the master shall, if the vessel is then at a place where there is any such officer, so soon as the service of the vessel will permit, and if the vessel is not then at such a place, so soon after her first arrival at such place as the service of the vessel will permit, allow such seamen, or any of them, to go ashore, or shall send them ashore, in proper custody, so that they may be enabled to make such complaint; and shall, in default, be liable to a penalty of not more than $100. (R. S. § 4567.)

665. Allowance for reduction of provisions.—If, during a voyage, the allowance of any of the provisions which any seaman is entitled to under section 713 is reduced except for any time during which such seaman willfully and without sufficient cause refuses or neglects to perform his duty, or is lawfully under confinement for misconduct either on board or on shore; or if it shall be shown that any of such provisions are, or have been during the voyage, bad in quality or unfit for use, the seaman shall receive, by way of compensation for such reduction or bad quality, according to the time of its continuance, the following sums, to be paid to him in addition to and to be recoverable as wages:

First. If his allowance is reduced by any quantity not exceeding one-third of the quantity specified by law, a sum not exceeding 50 cents a day.

Second. If his allowance is reduced by more than one-third of such quantity, a sum not exceeding $1 a day.

Third. In respect of bad quality, a sum not exceeding $1 a day.

But if it is shown to the satisfaction of the court before which the case is tried that any provisions, the allowance of which has been reduced, could not be procured or supplied in sufficient quantities, or were unavoidably injured or lost, or if by reason of its innate qualities any article becomes unfit for use and that proper and equivalent substitutes were supplied in lieu thereof, the court shall take such circumstances into consideration and shall modify or refuse compensation, as the justice of the case may require. (R. S. § 4568; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 14, 30 Stat. 758.)

666. Medicines.—Every vessel belonging to a citizen of the United States, bound from a port in the United States to any foreign port, or being of the burden of seventy-five tons or upward, and bound from a port on the Atlantic to a port on the Pacific, or vice versa, shall be provided with a chest of medicines; and every sailing vessel bound on a voyage across the Atlantic or Pacific Ocean, or around Cape Horn, or the Cape of Good Hope, or engaged in the whale or other fisheries, or in sealing, shall also be provided with, and cause to be kept, a sufficient quantity of lime or lemon juice, and also sugar and vinegar, or other antiscorbutics, to be served out to every seaman as follows: The master of every such vessel shall serve the lime or lemon juice, and sugar and vinegar, to the crew, within ten days after salt provisions mainly have been served out to the crew, and so long afterward as such consumption of salt provisions continues; the lime or lemon juice and sugar daily at the rate of half an ounce each per day; and the vinegar weekly, at the rate of half a pint per week for each member of the crew. (R. S. § 4569.)

667. Penalty for failure to keep medicines.—If, on any such vessel, such medicines, medical stores, lime or lemon juice, or other articles, sugar, and vinegar, as are required by the preceding section, are not provided and kept on board, as required, the master or owner shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $500; and if the master of any such vessel neglects to serve out the lime or lemon juice, and sugar and vinegar in the case and manner directed, he shall for each such offense be liable to a penalty of not more than $100; and if any master is convicted in either of the offenses mentioned in this section, and it appears that the offense is owing to the act or default of the owner, such master may recover the amount of such penalty, and the costs incurred by him, from the owner. (R. S. § 4570.)

668. Weights and measures.—Every master shall keep on board proper weights and measures for the purpose of determining the quantities of the several provisions and articles served out, and shall allow the same to be used at the time of serving out such provisions and articles, in the presence of a witness, whenever any dispute arises about such quantities, and in default shall, for every offense, be liable to a penalty of not more than $50. (R. S. § 4571.)

669. Clothing and heat.—Every vessel bound on any foreign voyage exceeding in length fourteen days shall also be provided with at least one suit of woolen clothing for each seaman, and every vessel in the foreign or domestic trade shall provide a safe and warm room for the use of seamen in cold weather. Failure to make such provisions shall subject the owner or master to a penalty of not less than $100. (R. S. § 4572; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 15, 30 Stat. 759.)

670. Slop chests.—Every vessel mentioned in section 666 shall also be provided with a slop chest, which shall contain a complement of clothing for the intended voyage for each seaman employed, including boots or shoes, hats or caps, underclothing and outer clothing, oiled clothing, and everything necessary for the wear of a seaman; also a full supply of tobacco and blankets. Any of the contents of the slop chest shall be sold, from time to time, to any or every seaman applying therefor, for his own use, at a profit not exceeding 10 per centum of the reasonable wholesale value of the same at the port at which the voyage commenced. And if any such vessel is not provided, before sailing, as herein required, the owner shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $500. The provisions of this section shall not apply to vessels plying between the United States and the Dominion of Canada, Newfoundland, the Bermuda Islands, the Bahama Islands, the West Indies, Mexico and Central America. (June 26, 1884, c. 121, § 11, 23 Stat. 56.)

671. Slop chests; vessels engaged in whaling or fishing business.—The preceding section shall not be construed to apply to vessels engaged in the whaling or fishing business. (June 19, 1886, c. 421, § 13, 24 Stat. 82.)

672. Requirements, qualifications, and regulations as to crews.—No vessel of one hundred tons gross and upward, except those navigating rivers exclusively and the smaller inland lakes and except as provided in section 569, shall be permitted to depart from any port of the United States unless she has on board a crew not less than 75 per centum of which, in each department thereof, are able to understand any order given by the officers of such vessel, nor unless 65 per centum of her deck crew, exclusive of licensed officers and apprentices, are of a rating not less than able seaman. Every person shall be rated an able seaman, and qualified for service as such on the seas, who is nineteen years of age or upward, and has had at least three years' service on deck at sea or on the Great Lakes, on a vessel or vessels to which this section applies, including decked fishing vessels, naval vessels or Coast Guard vessels; and every person shall be rated an able seaman, and qualified to serve as such on the Great Lakes and on the smaller lakes, bays or sounds, who is nineteen years of age or upward and has had at least eighteen months' service on deck at sea or on the Great Lakes or on the smaller lakes, bays, or sounds, on a vessel or vessels to which this section applies, including decked fishing vessels, naval vessels, or Coast Guard vessels; and graduates of school ships approved by and conducted under rules prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce may be rated able seamen after twelve months' service at sea: Provided, That upon examination, under rules prescribed by the Department of Commerce as to eyesight, hearing, and physical condition, such persons or graduates are found to be competent: Provided further, That upon examination, under rules prescribed by the Department of Commerce as to eyesight, hearing, physical condition, and knowledge of the duties of seamanship a person found competent may be rated as able seaman after having served on deck twelve months at sea, or on the Great Lakes; but seamen examined and rated able seamen under this proviso shall not in any case compose more than one-fourth of the number of able seamen required by this section to be shipped or employed upon any vessel.

Any person may make application to any board of local inspectors for a certificate of service as able seaman, and upon proof being made to said board by affidavit and examination, under rules approved by the Secretary of Commerce, showing the nationality and age of the applicant and the vessel or vessels on which he has had service and that he is entitled to such certificate under the provisions of this section, the board of local inspectors shall issue to said applicant a certificate of service, which shall be retained by him and be accepted as prima facie evidence of his rating as an able seaman.

Each board of local inspectors shall keep a complete record of all certificates of service issued by them and to whom issued and shall keep on file the affidavits upon which said certificates are issued.

The collector of customs may, upon his own motion, and shall, upon the sworn information of any reputable citizen of the United States setting forth that this section is not being complied with, cause a muster of the crew of any vessel to be made to determine the fact; and no clearance shall be given to any vessel failing to comply with the provisions of this section: Provided, That the collector of customs shall not be required to cause such muster of the crew to be made unless said sworn information has been filed with him for at least six hours before the vessel departs, or is scheduled to depart: Provided further, That any person that shall knowingly make a false affidavit for such purpose shall be deemed guilty of perjury and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, within the discretion of the court. Any violation of any provision of this section by the owner, master, or officer in charge of the vessel shall subject the owner of such vessel to a penalty of not less than $100 and not more than $500: And provided further, That the Secretary of Commerce shall make such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section, and nothing herein shall be held or construed to prevent the Board of Supervising Inspectors, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, from making rules and regulations authorized by law as to vessels excluded from the operation of this section. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 153, § 13, 38 Stat. 1169.)

673. Requirements as to watches; duties of seamen; right to discharge.—In all merchant vessels of the United States of more than one hundred tons gross, excepting those navigating rivers, harbors, bays, or sounds exclusively, the sailors shall, while at sea, be divided into at least two, and the firemen, oilers, and water tenders into at least three watches, which shall be kept on duty successively for the performance of ordinary work incident to the sailing and management of the vessel. The seamen shall not be shipped to work alternately in the fireroom and on deck, nor shall those shipped for deck duty be required to work in the fireroom, or vice versa; but these provisions shall not limit either the authority of the master or other officer or the obedience of the seamen when, in the judgment of the master or other officer, the whole or any part of the crew are needed for the maneuvering of the vessel or the performance of work necessary for the safety of the vessel or her cargo, or for the saving of life aboard other vessels in jeopardy, or when in port or at sea from requiring the whole or any part of the crew to participate in the performance of fire, lifeboat, and other drills. While such vessel is in a safe harbor no seaman shall be required to do any unnecessary work on Sundays or the following-named days: New Year's Day, the Fourth of July, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, and Christmas Day, but this shall not prevent the dispatch of a vessel on regular schedule or when ready to proceed on her voyage. And at all times while such vessel is in a safe harbor, nine hours, inclusive of the anchor watch, shall constitute a day's work. Whenever the master of any vessel shall fail to comply with this section, the seamen shall be entitled to discharge from such vessel and to receive the wages earned. But this section shall not apply to fishing or whaling vessels or yachts. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 153, § 2, 38 Stat. 1164.)

674. List of crew to be delivered to collector.—Before a clearance is granted to any vessel bound on a foreign voyage or engaged in the whale fishery, the master thereof shall deliver to the collector of the customs a list containing the names, places of birth and residence, and description of the persons who compose his ship's company; to which list the oath of the captain shall be annexed, that the list contains the names of his crew, together with the places of their birth and residence, as far as he can ascertain them; and the collector shall deliver him a certified copy thereof. (R. S. § 4573.)

675. Certificate to list of crew; record.—In all cases of private vessels of the United States sailing from a port in the United States to a foreign port, the list of the crew shall be examined by the collector for the district from which the vessel shall clear, and, if approved of by him, shall be certified accordingly. No person shall be admitted or employed on board of any such vessel unless his name shall have been entered in the list of the crew, approved and certified by the collector for the district from which the vessel shall clear. The collector, before he delivers the list of the crew, approved and certified, to the master or proper officer of the vessel to which the same belongs, shall cause the same to be recorded in a book by him for that purpose to be provided, and the record shall be open for the inspection of all persons, and a certified copy thereof shall be admitted in evidence in any court in which any question may arise under any of the provisions of this chapter. (R. S. § 4574.)

676. Rules as to list of crew.—The following rules shall be observed with reference to vessels bound on any foreign voyage:

First. The duplicate list of the ship's company required to be made out by the master and delivered to the collector of the customs, under section 674, shall be a fair copy in one uniform handwriting without erasure or interlineation.

Second. It shall be the duty of the owners of every such vessel to obtain from the collector of the customs of the district from which the clearance is made, a true and certified copy of the shipping articles containing the names of the crew, which shall be written in a uniform hand, without erasures or interlineations.

Third. These documents, which shall be deemed to contain all the conditions of contract with the crew as to their service, pay, voyage, and all other things, shall be produced by the master, and laid before any consul of the United States, whenever he may deem their contents necessary to enable him to discharge the duties imposed upon him by law toward any mariner applying to him for his aid or assistance.

Fourth. All interlineations, erasures, or writing in a hand different from that in which such duplicates were originally made, shall be deemed fraudulent alterations, working no change in such papers, unless satisfactorily explained in a manner consistent with innocent purposes and the provisions of law which guard the rights of mariners.

Fifth. If any master of a vessel shall proceed on a foreign voyage without the documents required, or refuse to produce them when required, or to perform the duties imposed by this section, or shall violate the provisions thereof, he shall be liable to each and every individual injured thereby in damages, to be recovered in any court of the United States in the district where such delinquent may reside or be found, and in addition thereto be punishable by a fine of $100 for each offense.

Sixth. It shall be the duty of the boarding officer to report all violations of this section to the collector of the port where any vessel may arrive, and the collector shall report the same to the Secretary of Commerce and to the United States attorney in his district. (R. S. § 4575; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 252; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

677. Production of copy of list on return of vessel; production of persons named.—The master of every vessel bound on a foreign voyage or engaged in the whale fishery shall exhibit the certified copy of the list of the crew to the first boarding officer at the first port in the United States at which he shall arrive on his return, and also produce the persons named therein to the boarding officer, whose duty it shall be to examine the men with such list and to report the same to the collector; and it shall be the duty of the collector at the port of arrival, where the same is different from the port from which the vessel originally sailed, to transmit a copy of the list so reported to him to the collector of the port from which such vessel originally sailed. For each failure to produce any person on the certified copy of the list of the crew the master and owner shall be severally liable to a penalty of $400, to be sued for, prosecuted, and disposed of in such manner as penalties and forfeitures which may be incurred for offenses against the laws relating to the collection of duties; but such penalties shall not be incurred on account of the master not producing to the first boarding officer any of the persons contained in the list who may have been discharged in a foreign country with the consent of the consul or vice consul there residing, certified in writing, under his hand and official seal, to be produced to the collector with the other persons composing the crew, nor on account of any such person dying or absconding or being forcibly impressed into other service of which satisfactory proof shall also be exhibited to the collector. (R. S. § 4576; Mar. 3, 1897, c. 389, § 3, 29 Stat. 688.)

678. Subsistence to destitute seamen; return to United States.—It shall be the duty of the consuls and vice consuls, from time to time, to provide for the seamen of the United States, who may be found destitute within their districts, respectively, sufficient subsistence and passages to some port in the United States, in the most reasonable manner, at the expense of the United States, subject to such instructions as the Secretary of State shall give. The seamen shall, if able, be bound to do duty on board the vessels in which they may be transported, according to their several abilities. (R. S. § 4577.)

679. Transportation of destitute seamen to United States.—All masters of vessels of the United States, and bound to some port of the same, are required to take such destitute seamen on board their vessels, at the request of consular officers, and to transport them to the port in the United States to which such vessel may be bound, on such terms, not exceeding $10 for each person for voyages of not more than thirty days, and not exceeding $20 for each person for longer voyages, as may be agreed between the master and the consular officer, when the transportation is by a sailing vessel; and said consular officer shall issue certificates for such transportation, which certificates shall be assignable for collection. If any such destitute seaman is so disabled or ill as to be unable to perform duty, the consular officer shall so certify in the certificate of transportation, and such additional compensation shall be paid as the Comptroller General of the United States shall deem proper. Every such master who refuses to receive and transport such seamen on the request or order of such consular officer shall be liable to the United States in a penalty of $100 for each seaman so refused. The certificate of any such consular officer, given under his hand and official seal, shall be presumptive evidence of such refusal in any court of law having jurisdiction for the recovery of the penalty. No master of any vessel shall, however, be obliged to take a greater number than one man to every one hundred tons burden of the vessel on any one voyage or to take any seaman having a contagious disease. (R. S. § 4578; June 26, 1884, c. 121, § 9, 23 Stat. 55; June 19, 1886, c. 421, § 18, 24 Stat. 83; July 31, 1894, c. 174, 28 Stat. 205; June 10, 1921, § 312, 42 Stat. 25.)

680. Rate for transportation of destitute seamen to United States on steam vessels.—The amount agreed upon between the consular officer and the master of the vessel in each individual case not in excess of the lowest passenger rate of such vessel and not in excess of 2 cents per mile, together with such additional compensation for transporting sick or disabled seamen as is provided by the preceding section, shall in each case constitute the lawful rate for transportation on steam vessels. (Jan. 3, 1923, c. 21, Title I, 42 Stat. 1072.)

681. Additional allowance for transportation of destitute seamen.—Whenever distressed seamen of the United States are transported from foreign ports where there is no consular officer of the United States, to ports of the United States, there shall be allowed to the master or owner of each vessel, in which they are transported, such reasonable compensation, in addition to the allowance now fixed by law, as shall be deemed equitable by the Comptroller General of the United States. (R. S. § 4579; July 31, 1894, c. 174, 28 Stat. 205; June 10, 1921, § 312, 42 Stat. 25.)

682. Wages on discharge.—Upon the application of the master of any vessel to a consular officer to discharge a seaman, or upon the application of any seaman for his own discharge, if it appears to such officer that said seaman has completed his shipping agreement, or is entitled to his discharge under any Act of Congress or according to the general principles or usages of maritime law as recognized in the United States, such officer shall discharge said seaman, and require from the master of said vessel, before such discharge shall be made, payment of the wages which may then be due said seaman; but no payment of extra wages shall be required by any consular officer upon such discharge of any seaman except as provided in sections 658, 683, 684, and 703. (R. S. § 4580; June 26, 1884, c. 121, § 2, 23 Stat. 54.)

683. Penalty for neglect of consular officer to collect wages; incapacitated seaman.—If any consular officer, when discharging any seaman, shall neglect to require the payment of and collect the arrears of wages and extra wages required to be paid in the case of the discharge of any seaman, he shall be accountable to the United States for the full amount thereof. The master shall provide any seaman so discharged with employment on a vessel agreed to by the seaman, or shall provide him with one month's extra wages, if it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the consul that such seaman was not discharged for neglect of duty, incompetency, or injury incurred on the vessel. If the seaman is discharged by voluntary consent before the consul, he shall be entitled to his wages up to the time of his discharge, but not for any further period. If the seaman is discharged on account of injury or illness, incapacitating him for service, the expenses of his maintenance and return to the United States shall be paid from the fund for the maintenance and transportation of destitute American seamen.

Provided, That at the discretion of the Secretary of Commerce, and under such regulations as he may prescribe, if any seaman incapacitated from service by injury or illness is on board a vessel so situated that a prompt discharge requiring the personal appearance of the master of the vessel before an American consul or consular agent is impracticable, such seaman may be sent to a consul or consular agent, who shall care for him and defray the cost of his maintenance and transportation, as provided in this paragraph. (R. S. § 4581; June 26, 1884, c. 121, § 7, 23 Stat. 55; Apr. 4, 1888, c. 61, § 3, 25 Stat. 80; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 16, 30 Stat. 759; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 153, § 19, 38 Stat. 1185.)

684. Wages on discharge in case of sale.—Whenever a vessel of the United States is sold in a foreign country and her company discharged, it shall be the duty of the master to produce to the consular officer a certified list of the ship's company, and also the shipping articles, and besides paying to each seaman or apprentice the wages due him, he shall either provide him with adequate employment on board some other vessel bound to the port at which he was originally shipped, or to such other port as may be agreed upon by him, or furnish the means of sending him to such port, or provide him with a passage home, or deposit with the consular officer such a sum of money as is by the officer deemed sufficient to defray the expenses of his maintenance and passage home; and the consular officer shall indorse upon the agreement with the crew of the ship which the seaman or apprentice is leaving the particulars of any payment, provision, or deposit made under this section. A failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall render the owner liable to a fine of not exceeding $50. (R. S. § 4582; June 26, 1884, c. 121, § 5, 23 Stat. 54; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 17, 30 Stat. 759.)

685. Wages on justifiable complaint of seaman.—Whenever on the discharge of a seaman in a foreign country by a consular officer on his complaint that the voyage is continued contrary to agreement, or that the vessel is badly provisioned or unseaworthy, or against the officers for cruel treatment, it shall be the duty of the consul or consular agent to institute a proper inquiry into the matter, and, upon his being satisfied of the truth and justice of such complaint, he shall require the master to pay to such seaman one month's wages over and above the wages due at the time of discharge, and to provide him with adequate employment on board some other vessel, or provide him with a passage on board some other vessel bound to the port from which he was originally shipped, or to the most convenient port of entry in the United States, or to a port agreed to by the seaman. (R. S. § 4583; June 26, 1884, c. 121, § 3, 23 Stat. 54; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 18, 30 Stat. 760.)

686. Certificates of citizenship.—The collector of every district shall keep a book or books, in which, at the request of any seaman, being a citizen of the United States of America, and producing proof of his citizenship, authenticated in the manner hereinafter directed, he shall enter the name of such seaman, and shall deliver to him a certificate, in the following form, that is to say: "I, A B, collector of the district of D, do hereby certify, that E F, an American seaman, aged ——— years, or thereabouts, of the height of ——— feet ——— inches, (describing the said seaman as particularly as may be,) has, this day, produced to me proof in the manner directed by law; and I do hereby certify that the said E F is a citizen of the United States of America. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal of office, this ——— day of ———." It shall be the duty of the collectors to file and preserve the proofs of citizenship so produced. (R. S. § 4588.)

687. List of citizen seamen.—The collector of every port of entry in the United States shall send a list of the seamen to whom certificates of citizenship have been granted, once every three months, to the Secretary of State, together with an account of such impressments or detentions as shall appear by the protests of the masters to have taken place. (R. S. § 4591.)

688. Recovery for injury to or death of seaman.—Any seaman who shall suffer personal injury in the course of his employment may, at his election, maintain an action for damages at law, with the right of trial by jury, and in such action all statutes of the United States modifying or extending the common-law right or remedy in cases of personal injury to railway employees shall apply; and in case of the death of any seaman as a result of any such personal injury the personal representative of such seaman may maintain an action for damages at law with the right of trial by jury, and in such action all statutes of the United States conferring or regulating the right of action for death in the case of railway employees shall be applicable. Jurisdiction in such actions shall be under the court of the district in which the defendant employer resides or in which his principal office is located. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 153, § 20, 38 Stat. 1185; June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 33, 41 Stat. 1007.)

OFFENSES AND PUNISHMENTS

701. Various offenses; penalties.—Whenever any seaman who has been lawfully engaged or any apprentice to the sea service commits any of the following offenses, he shall be punished as follows:

First. For desertion, by forfeiture of all or any part of the clothes or effects he leaves on board and of all or any part of the wages or emoluments which he has then earned.

Second. For neglecting or refusing without reasonable cause to join his vessel or to proceed to sea in his vessel, or for absence without leave at any time within twenty-four hours of the vessel's sailing from any port, either at the commencement or during the progress of the voyage, or for absence at any time without leave and without sufficient reason from his vessel and from his duty, not amounting to desertion, by forfeiture from his wages of not more than two days' pay or sufficient to defray any expenses which shall have been properly incurred in hiring a substitute.

Third. For quitting the vessel without leave, after her arrival at the port of her delivery and before she is placed in security, by forfeiture from his wages of not more than one month's pay.

Fourth. For willful disobedience to any lawful command at sea, by being, at the option of the master, placed in irons until such disobedience shall cease, and upon arrival in port by forfeiture from his wages of not more than four days' pay, or, at the discretion of the court, by imprisonment for not more than one month.

Fifth. For continued willful disobedience to lawful command or continued willful neglect of duty at sea, by being, at the option of the master, placed in irons, on bread and water, with full rations every fifth day, until such disobedience shall cease, and upon arrival in port by forfeiture, for every twenty-four hours' continuance of such disobedience or neglect, of a sum of not more than twelve days' pay, or by imprisonment for not more than three months, at the discretion of the court.

Sixth. For assaulting any master or mate, by imprisonment for not more than two years.

Seventh. For willfully damaging the vessel, or embezzling or willfully damaging any of the stores or cargo, by forfeiture out of his wages of a sum equal in amount to the loss thereby sustained, and also, at the discretion of the court, by imprisonment for not more than twelve months.

Eighth. For any act of smuggling for which he is convicted and whereby loss or damage is occasioned to the master or owner, he shall be liable to pay such master or owner such a sum as is sufficient to reimburse the master or owner for such loss or damage, and the whole or any part of his wages may be retained in satisfaction or on account of such liability, and he shall be liable to imprisonment for a period of not more than twelve months. (R. S. § 4596; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 19, 30 Stat. 760; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 153, § 7, 38 Stat. 1166.)

702. Entry of offense in log book.—Upon the commission of any of the offenses enumerated in the preceding section an entry thereof shall be made in the official log book on the day on which the offense was committed, and shall be signed by the master and by the mate or one of the crew; and the offender, if still in the vessel, shall, before her next arrival at any port, or, if she is at the time in port, before her departure therefrom, be furnished with a copy of such entry, and have the same read over distinctly and audibly to him, and may thereupon make such a reply thereto as he thinks fit; and a statement that a copy of the entry has been so furnished, or the same has been so read over, together with his reply, if any, made by the offender, shall likewise be entered and signed in the same manner. In any subsequent legal proceedings the entries hereinbefore required shall, if practicable, be produced or proved, and in default of such production or proof the court hearing the case may, at its discretion, refuse to receive evidence of the offense. (R. S. § 4597; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 20, 30 Stat. 761.)

703. Duty of consular officers as to insubordination.—It shall be the duty of all consular officers to discountenance insubordination by every means in their power and, where the local authorities can be usefully employed for that purpose, to lend their aid and use their exertions to that end in the most effectual manner. In all cases where seamen or officers are accused, the consular officer shall inquire into the facts and proceed as provided in section 685; and the officer discharging such seaman shall enter upon the crew list and shipping articles and official log the cause of such discharge and the particulars in which the cruel or unusual treatment consisted and subscribe his name thereto officially. He shall read the entry made in the official log to the master, and his reply thereto, if any, shall likewise be entered and subscribed in the same manner. (R. S. § 4600; June 26, 1884, c. 121, § 6, 23 Stat. 55; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 21, 30 Stat. 761; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 153, § 8, 38 Stat. 1167.)

704. Drunkenness or neglect of duty.—Any master of, or any seaman or apprentice belonging to, any merchant vessel, who, by willful breach of duty, or by reason of drunkenness, does any act tending to the immediate loss or destruction of, or serious damage to such vessel, or tending immediately to endanger the life or limb of any person belonging to or on board of such vessel; or who, by willful breach of duty or by neglect of duty or by reason of drunkenness, refuses or omits to do any lawful act proper and requisite to be done by him for preserving such vessel from immediate loss, destruction, or serious damage, or for preserving any person belonging to or on board of such ship from immediate danger to life or limb, shall, for every such offense, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment for not more than twelve months. (R. S. § 4602.)

705. Enforcement of forfeitures.—Any question concerning the forfeiture of, or deductions from, the wages of any seaman or apprentice, may be determined in any proceeding lawfully instituted with respect to such wages, notwithstanding the offense in respect of which such question arises, though made punishable by imprisonment as well as forfeiture, has not been made the subject of any criminal proceeding. (R. S. § 4603.)

706. Disposal of forfeitures.—All clothes, effects, and wages which, under the provisions of this chapter, are forfeited for desertion, shall be applied, in the first instance, in payment of the expenses occasioned by such desertion, to the master or owner of the vessel from which the desertion has taken place, and the balance, if any, shall be paid by the master or owner to any shipping commissioner resident at the port at which the voyage of such vessel terminates; and the shipping commissioner shall account for and pay over such balance to the judge of the district court within one month after the commissioner receives the same, to be disposed of by him in the same manner as is prescribed for the disposal of the money, effects, and wages of deceased seamen. Whenever any master or owner neglects or refuses to pay over to the shipping commissioner such balance, he shall be liable to a penalty of double the amount thereof, recoverable by the commissioner in the same manner that seamen's wages are recovered. In all other cases of forfeiture of wages, the forfeiture shall be for the benefit of the master or owner by whom the wages are payable. (R. S. § 4604; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, 36 Stat. 1167.)

707. Appropriation of wages to costs of conviction.—Whenever in any proceeding relating to seamen's wages it is shown that any seaman or apprentice has, in the course of the voyage, been convicted of any offense by any competent tribunal, and rightfully punished therefor, by imprisonment or otherwise, the court hearing the case may direct a part of the wages due to such seaman, not exceeding $15, to be applied in reimbursing any costs properly incurred by the master in procuring such conviction and punishment. (R. S. § 4605; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 252.)

708. Boarding vessels before arrival.—Every person who, not being in the United States service, and not being duly authorized by law for the purpose, goes on board any vessel about to arrive at the place of her destination, before her actual arrival, and before she has been completely moored, without permission of the master, shall, for every such offense, be punishable by a fine of not more than $200, and by imprisonment for not more than six months; and the master of such vessel may take any such person so going on board into custody, and deliver him up forthwith to any constable or police officer, to be by him taken before any justice of the peace, to be dealt with according to the provisions of this chapter. (R. S. § 4606.)

709. Soliciting seamen as lodgers.—If, within twenty-four hours after the arrival of any vessel at any port in the United States, any person, then being on board such vessel, solicits any seaman to become a lodger at the house of any person letting lodgings for hire, or takes out of such vessel any effects of any seaman, except under his personal direction, and with the permission of the master, he shall, for every such offense, be punishable by a fine of not more than $50, or by imprisonment for not more than three months. This section shall apply to vessels of the United States engaged in the foreign trade and to foreign vessels. (R. S. § 4607, Apr. 13, 1904, c. 1252, § 1, 33 Stat. 174.)

710. Carrying sheath knives.—No seaman in the merchant service shall wear any sheath knife on shipboard. It shall be the duty of the master of any vessel registered, enrolled, or licensed under the laws of the United States, and of the person entering into contract for the employment of a seaman upon any such vessel, to inform every person offering to ship himself of the provisions of this section, and to require his compliance therewith, under a penalty of $50 for each omission, to be sued for and recovered in the name of the United States, under the direction of the Secretary of Commerce; one half for the benefit of the informer, and the other half for the benefit of the fund for the relief of sick and disabled seamen. (R. S. § 4608; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

711. Recovery of penalties and forfeitures.—All penalties and forfeitures imposed by this chapter, for the recovery whereof no specific mode is provided, may be recovered, with costs, in any district court of the United States, at the suit of any district attorney of the United States, or at the suit of any person by information to any district attorney, in any port of the United States, where or near to where the offense is committed or the offender is found; and if a conviction is had, and the sum imposed as a penalty by the court is not paid either immediately after the conviction, or within such period as the court at the time of the conviction appoints, it shall be lawful for the court to commit the offender to prison, there to be imprisoned for the term provided in case of such offense, the commitment to be terminable upon payment of the amount and costs; and all penalties and forfeitures mentioned in this chapter for which no special application is provided, shall, when recovered, be paid and applied in manner following: So much as the court shall determine, and the residue shall be paid to the court and be remitted from time to time by order of the judge, to the Treasury of the United States, and appropriated as provided for in section 628: Provided always, That it shall be lawful for the court before which any proceeding shall be instituted for the recovery of any pecuniary penalty imposed by this chapter, to mitigate or reduce such penalty as to such court shall appear just and reasonable; but no such penalty shall be reduced to less than one-third of its original amount: Provided also, That all proceedings so to be instituted shall be commenced within two years next after the commission of the offense, if the same shall have been committed at or beyond the Cape of Good Hope or Cape Horn, or within one year if committed elsewhere, or within two months after the return of the offender and the complaining party to the United States; and there shall be no appeal from any decision of any of the district courts, unless the amount sued for exceeds the sum of $500. (R. S. § 4610; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, 36 Stat. 1167.)

712. Corporal punishment.—Flogging and all other forms of corporal punishment are prohibited on board of any vessel, and no form of corporal punishment on board of any vessel shall be deemed justifiable, and any master or other officer thereof who shall violate the aforesaid provisions of this section, or either thereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment for not less than three months nor more than two years. Whenever any officer other than the master of such vessel shall violate any provision of this section, it shall be the duty of such master to surrender such officer to the proper authorities as soon as practicable, provided he has actual knowledge of the misdemeanor, or complaint thereof is made within three days after reaching port. Any failure on the part of such master to use due diligence to comply herewith, which failure shall result in the escape of such officer, shall render the master or vessel or the owner of the vessel liable in damages for such flogging or corporal punishment to the person illegally punished by such officer. (R. S. § 4611; Dec. 21, 1898, c. 28, § 22, 30 Stat. 761; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 153, § 9, 38 Stat. 1167.)

713. Definitions, schedule, and tables.—In the construction of this chapter, every person having the command of any vessel belonging to any citizen of the United States shall be deemed to be the "master" thereof; and every person (apprentices excepted) who shall be employed or engaged to serve in any capacity on board the same shall be deemed and taken to be a "seaman"; and the term "vessel" shall be understood to comprehend every description of vessel navigating on any sea or channel, lake or river, to which the provisions of this chapter may be applicable, and the term "owner" shall be taken and understood to comprehend all the several persons, if more than one, to whom the vessel shall belong.

FORM OF ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT

United States of America.

(Date and place of first signature of agreement, including name of shipping office):

It is agreed between the master and seamen or mariners of the ———, of which ——— ——— is at present master, or whoever shall go for master, now bound from the port of ———, ———, to ———, ———, (here the voyage is to be described, and the places named at which the vessel is to touch, or if that cannot be done, the general nature and probable length of the voyage is to be stated.)

And the said crew agree to conduct themselves in an orderly, faithful, honest, and sober manner, and to be at all times diligent in their respective duties, and to be obedient to the lawful commands of the said master, or of any person who shall lawfully succeed him, and of their superior officers in everything relating to the vessel, and the stores and cargo thereof, whether on board, in boats, or on shore; and in consideration of which service, to be duly performed, the said master hereby agrees to pay the said crew, as wages, the sums against their names respectively expressed, and to supply them with provisions according to the annexed scale. And it is hereby agreed that any embezzlement, or willful or negligent destruction of any part of the vessel's cargo or stores, shall be made good to the owner out of the wages of the person guilty of the same; and if any person enters himself as qualified for a duty which he proves himself incompetent to perform, his wages shall be reduced in proportion to his incompetency. And it is also agreed that if any member of the crew considers himself to be aggrieved by any breach of the agreement or otherwise, he shall represent the same to the master or officer in charge of the vessel, in a quiet and orderly manner, who shall thereupon take such steps as the case may require. And it is also agreed that (here any other stipulations may be inserted to which the parties agree, and which are not contrary to law).

In witness whereof the said parties have subscribed their names hereto, on the days against their respective signatures mentioned.

Chapter 19.—WRECKS AND SALVAGE.

Sec.
721. Vessels stranded on foreign coasts.
722. Property wrecked on Florida coast.
723. Forfeitures for taking wrecked property to foreign ports.
724. License to wreckers on Florida coast.
725. Canadian vessels aiding vessels wrecked or disabled in United States waters.
726. International agreement as to derelicts.
727. Right to salvage not affected by ownership of vessel.
728. Duty of master to assist persons in danger.
729. Salvors of life to share in remuneration.
730. Time limit for salvage suits.
731. Applicability to ships of war.

Section 721. Vessels stranded on foreign coasts.—Consuls and vice consuls, in cases where vessels of the United States are stranded on the coasts of their consulates respectively, shall, as far as the laws of the country will permit, take proper measures, as well for the purpose of saving the vessels, their cargoes and appurtenances, as for storing and securing the effects and merchandise saved, and for taking inventories thereof; and the merchandise and effects saved, with the inventories thereof so taken, shall, after deducting therefrom the expenses, be delivered to the owners. No consul or vice consul shall have authority to take possession of any such merchandise, or other property, when the master, owner, or consignee thereof is present or capable of taking possession of the same. (R. S. § 4238.)

722. Property wrecked on Florida coast.—All property, of any description whatsoever, which shall be taken from any wreck, from the sea, or from any of the keys and shoals, within the jurisdiction of the United States, on the coast of Florida, shall be brought to some port of entry within the jurisdiction of the United States. (R. S. § 4239.)

723. Forfeitures for taking wrecked property to foreign ports.—Every vessel which shall be engaged or employed in carrying or transporting any property whatsoever, taken from any wreck, from the sea, or from any of the keys or shoals, within the jurisdiction of the United States, on the coast of Florida, to any foreign port, shall, together with her tackle, apparel, and furniture, be forfeited, and all forfeitures incurred by virtue of this section shall accrue, one moiety to the informer and the other to the United States. (R. S. § 4240.)

724. License to wreckers on Florida coast.—No vessel, or master thereof, shall be regularly employed in the business of wrecking on the coast of Florida without the license of the judge of the district court for the district of Florida; and, before licensing any vessel or master, the judge shall be satisfied that the vessel is seaworthy, and properly and sufficiently fitted and equipped for the business of saving property shipwrecked and in distress; and that the master thereof is trustworthy, and innocent of any fraud or misconduct in relation to any property shipwrecked or saved on the coast. (R. S. § 4241.)

725. Canadian vessels aiding vessels wrecked or disabled in United States waters.—Canadian vessels and wrecking appurtenance may render aid and assistance to Canadian or other vessels and property wrecked, disabled, or in distress in the waters of the United States contiguous to the Dominion of Canada.

This section shall be construed to apply to the canal and improvement of the waters between Lake Erie and Lake Huron, and to the waters of the Saint Mary's River and canal: And provided further, That this section shall cease to be in force from and after the date of the proclamation of the President of the United States to the effect that said reciprocal privilege has been withdrawn, revoked, or rendered inoperative by the said Government of the Dominion of Canada. (June 19, 1878, c. 324, 20 Stat. 175; May 24, 1890, c. 292, 26 Stat. 120; Mar. 3, 1893, c. 211, § 1, 27 Stat. 683.)

726. International agreement as to derelicts.—The President of the United States is authorized to make with the several Governments interested in the navigation of the North Atlantic Ocean, an international agreement providing for the reporting, marking, and removal of dangerous wrecks, derelicts, and other menaces to navigation in the North Atlantic Ocean outside the coast waters of the respective countries bordering thereon. (Oct. 31, 1893, No. 13, 28 Stat. 13.)

727. Right to salvage not affected by ownership of vessel.—The right to remuneration for assistance or salvage services shall not be affected by common ownership of the vessels rendering and receiving such assistance or salvage services. (Aug. 1, 1912, c. 268, § 1, 37 Stat. 242.)

728. Duty of master to assist persons in danger.—The master or person in charge of a vessel shall, so far as he can do so without serious danger to his own vessel, crew, or passengers, render assistance to every person who is found at sea in danger of being lost; and if he fails to do so, he shall, upon conviction, be liable to a penalty of not exceeding $1,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or both. (Aug. 1, 1912, c. 268, § 2, 37 Stat. 242.)

729. Salvors of life to share in remuneration.—Salvors of human life, who have taken part in the services rendered on the occasion of the accident giving rise to salvage, are entitled to a fair share of the remuneration awarded to the salvors of the vessel, her cargo, and accessories. (Aug. 1, 1912, c. 268, § 3, 37 Stat. 242.)

730. Time limit for salvage suits.—A suit for the recovery of remuneration for rendering assistance or salvage services shall not be maintainable if brought later than two years from the date when such assistance or salvage was rendered, unless the court in which the suit is brought shall be satisfied that during such period there had not been any reasonable opportunity of arresting the assisted or salved vessel within the jurisdiction of the court or within the territorial waters of the country in which the libelant resides or has his principal place of business. (Aug. 1, 1912, c. 268, § 4, 37 Stat. 242.)

731. Applicability to ships of war.—Nothing in the four preceding sections shall be construed as applying to ships of war or to Government ships appropriated exclusively to a public service. (Aug. 1, 1912, c. 268, § 5, 37 Stat. 242.)

Chapter 20.—SUITS IN ADMIRALTY BY OR AGAINST VESSELS OR CARGOES OF UNITED STATES.

Sec.
741. Exemption of United States vessels and cargoes from arrest or seizure.
742. Libel in personam.
743. Procedure in cases of libel in personam.
744. Release of privately owned vessel after seizure.
745. Causes of action on which suits may be brought; limitations.
746. Exemptions and limitations of liability.
747. Seizures in foreign jurisdiction.
748. Payment of judgment, award, or settlement.
749. Arbitration, compromise, or settlement of claims.
750. Recovery for salvage services by vessel or crew.
751. Disposition of moneys recovered by United States.
752. Reports as to suits, awards, and settlements.

Section 741. Exemption of United States vessels and cargoes from arrest or seizure.—No vessel owned by the United States or by any corporation in which the United States or its representatives shall own the entire outstanding capital stock or in the possession of the United States or of such corporation or operated by or for the United States or such corporation, and no cargo owned or possessed by the United States or by such corporation, shall, in view of the provision herein made for a libel in personam, be subject to arrest or seizure by judicial process in the United States or its possessions: Provided, That this chapter shall not apply to the Panama Railroad Company. (Mar. 9, 1920, c. 95, § 1, 41 Stat. 525.)

742. Libel in personam.—In cases where if such vessel were privately owned or operated, or if such cargo were privately owned and possessed, a proceeding in admiralty could be maintained at the time of the commencement of the action herein provided for, a libel in personam may be brought against the United States or against such corporation, as the case may be, provided that such vessel is employed as a merchant vessel or is a tugboat operated by such corporation. Such suits shall be brought in the district court of the United States for the district in which the parties so suing, or any of them, reside or have their principal place of business in the United States, or in which the vessel or cargo charged with liability is found. The libelant shall forthwith serve a copy of his libel on the United States attorney for such district and mail a copy thereof by registered mail to the Attorney General of the United States, and shall file a sworn return of such service and mailing. Such service and mailing shall constitute valid service on the United States and such corporation. In case the United States or such corporation shall file a libel in rem or in personam in any district, a cross libel in personam may be filed or a set-off claimed against the United States or such corporation with the same force and effect as if the libel had been filed by a private party. Upon application of either party the cause may, in the discretion of the court, be transferred to any other district court of the United States. (Mar. 9, 1920, c. 95, § 2, 41 Stat. 525.)

743. Procedure in cases of libel in personam.—Such suits shall proceed and shall be heard and determined according to the principles of law and to the rules of practice obtaining in like cases between private parties. A decree against the United States or such corporation may include costs of suit, and when the decree is for a money judgment, interest at the rate of 4 per centum per annum until satisfied, or at any higher rate which shall be stipulated in any contract upon which such decree shall be based. Interest shall run as ordered by the court. Decrees shall be subject to appeal and revision as provided in other cases of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction. If the libelant so elects in his libel, the suit may proceed in accordance with the principles of libels in rem wherever it shall appear that had the vessel or cargo been privately owned and possessed a libel in rem might have been maintained. Election so to proceed shall not preclude the libelant in any proper case from seeking relief in personam in the same suit. Neither the United States nor such corporation shall be required to give any bond or admiralty stipulation on any proceeding brought hereunder. Any such bond or stipulation given prior to March 9, 1920, in admiralty causes by the United States, the United States Shipping Board, or the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation, shall become void and be surrendered and canceled upon the filing of a suggestion by the Attorney General or other duly authorized law officer that the United States is interested in such cause, and assumes liability to satisfy any decree included within said bond or stipulation, and thereafter any such decree shall be paid as provided in section 748 of this chapter. (Mar. 9, 1920, c. 95, § 3, 41 Stat. 526.)

744. Release of privately owned vessel after seizure.—If a privately owned vessel not in the possession of the United States or of such corporation is arrested or attached upon any cause of action arising or alleged to have arisen from previous possession, ownership, or operation of such vessel by the United States or by such corporation, such vessel shall be released without bond or stipulation therefor upon the suggestion by the United States, through its Attorney General or other duly authorized law officer, that it is interested in such cause, desires such release, and assumes the liability for the satisfaction of any decree obtained by the libelant in such cause, and thereafter such cause shall proceed against the United States in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. (Mar. 9, 1920, c. 95, § 4, 41 Stat. 526.)

745. Causes of action on which suits may be brought; limitations.—Suits as herein authorized shall be brought within two years after the cause of action arises. (Mar. 9, 1920, c. 95, § 5, 41 Stat. 526.)

746. Exemptions and limitations of liability.—The United States or such corporation shall be entitled to the benefits of all exemptions and of all limitations of liability accorded by law to the owners, charterers, operators, or agents of vessels. (Mar. 9, 1920, c. 95, § 6, 41 Stat. 527.)

747. Seizures in foreign jurisdictions.—If any vessel or cargo within the purview of sections 741 and 744 of this chapter is arrested, attached, or otherwise seized by process of any court in any country other than the United States, or if any suit is brought therein against the master of any such vessel for any cause of action arising from, or in connection with, the possession, operation, or ownership of any such vessel, or the possession, carriage, or ownership of any such cargo, the Secretary of State of the United States in his discretion, upon the request of the Attorney General of the United States, or any other officer duly authorized by him, may direct the United States consul residing at or nearest the place at which such action may have been commenced to claim such vessel or cargo as immune from such arrest, attachment, or other seizure, and to execute an agreement, undertaking, bond, or stipulation for and on behalf of the United States, or the United States Shipping Board, or such corporation as by said court required, for the release of such vessel or cargo, and for the prosecution of any appeal; or may, in the event of such suits against the master of any such vessel, direct said United States consul to enter the appearance of the United States, or of the United States Shipping Board, or of such corporation, and to pledge the credit thereof to the payment of any judgment and cost that may be entered in such suit. The Attorney General is vested with power and authority to arrange with any bank, surety company, person, firm, or corporation in the United States, its Territories and possessions, or in any foreign country, to execute any such aforesaid bond or stipulation as surety or stipulator thereon, and to pledge the credit of the United States to the indemnification of such surety or stipulator as may be required to secure the execution of such bond or stipulation. The presentation of a copy of the judgment roll in any such suit, certified by the clerk of the court and authenticated by the certificate and seal of the United States consul claiming such vessel or cargo, or his successor, and by the certificate of the Secretary of State as to the official capacity of such consul, shall be sufficient evidence to the proper accounting officers of the United States, or of the United States Shipping Board, or of such corporation, for the allowance and payment of such judgments: Provided, however, That nothing in this section shall be held to prejudice or preclude a claim of the immunity of such vessel or cargo from foreign jurisdiction in a proper case. (Mar. 9, 1920, c. 95, § 7, 41 Stat. 527.)

748. Payment of judgment, award, or settlement.—Any final judgment rendered in any suit herein authorized, and any final judgment within the purview of sections 744 and 747 of this chapter, and any arbitration award or settlement had and agreed to under the provisions of section 749 of this chapter, shall, upon the presentation of a duly authenticated copy thereof, be paid by the proper accounting officers of the United States out of any appropriation or insurance fund or other fund especially available therefor; otherwise there is appropriated out of any money in the Treasury of the United States not otherwise appropriated, a sum sufficient to pay any such judgment or award or settlement. (Mar. 9, 1920, c. 95, § 8, 41 Stat. 527.)

749. Arbitration, compromise, or settlement of claims.—The Secretary of any department of the Government of the United States, or the United States Shipping Board, or the board of trustees of such corporation, having control of the possession or operation of any merchant vessel are, and each is, authorized to arbitrate, compromise, or settle any claim in which suit will lie under the provisions of sections 742, 744, and 750 of this chapter. (Mar. 9, 1920, c. 95, § 9, 41 Stat. 527.)

750. Recovery for salvage services by vessel or crew.—The United States, and the crew of any merchant vessel owned or operated by the United States, or such corporation, shall have the right to collect and sue for salvage services rendered by such vessel and crew, and any moneys recovered therefrom by the United States for its own benefit, and not for the benefit of the crew, shall be covered into the United States Treasury to the credit of the department of the Government of the United States, or of the United States Shipping Board, or of such corporation, having control of the possession or operation of such vessel. (Mar. 9, 1920, c. 95, § 10, 41 Stat. 528.)

751. Disposition of moneys recovered by United States.—All moneys recovered in any suit brought by the United States on any cause of action arising from, or in connection with, the possession, operation, or ownership of any merchant vessel, or the possession, carriage, or ownership of any cargo, shall be covered into the United States Treasury to the credit of the department of the Government of the United States, or of the United States Shipping Board, or of such aforesaid corporation, having control of the vessel or cargo with respect to which such cause of action arises, for reimbursement of the appropriation, or insurance fund, or other funds, from which the loss, damage, or compensation for which said judgment was recovered has been or will be paid. (Mar. 9, 1920, c. 95, § 11, 41 Stat. 528.)

752. Reports as to suits, awards, and settlements.—The Attorney General shall report to the Congress at each session thereof the suits under this chapter in which final judgment shall have been rendered for or against the United States and such aforesaid corporation, and the Secretary of any department of the Government of the United States, and the United States Shipping Board, and the board of trustees of any such aforesaid corporation, shall likewise report the arbitration awards or settlements of claims which shall have been agreed to since the previous session, and in which the time to appeal shall have expired or have been waived. (Mar. 9, 1920, c. 95, § 12, 41 Stat. 528.)

Chapter 21.—DEATH ON THE HIGH SEAS BY WRONGFUL ACT.

Sec.
761. Right of action; where and by whom brought.
762. Amount and apportionment of recovery.
763. Limitations.
764. Rights of action given by laws of foreign countries.
765. Death of plaintiff pending action.
766. Contributory negligence.
767. Exceptions from operation of chapter.
768. Pending suits.

Section 761. Right of action; where and by whom brought.—Whenever the death of a person shall be caused by wrongful act, neglect, or default occurring on the high seas beyond a marine league from the shore of any State, or the District of Columbia, or the Territories or dependencies of the United States, the personal representative of the decedent may maintain a suit for damages in the district courts of the United States, in admiralty, for the exclusive benefit of the decedent's wife, husband, parent, child, or dependent relative against the vessel, person, or corporation which would have been liable if death had not ensued. (Mar. 30, 1920, c. 111, § 1, 41 Stat. 537.)

762. Amount and apportionment of recovery.—The recovery in such suit shall be a fair and just compensation for the pecuniary loss sustained by the persons for whose benefit the suit is brought and shall be apportioned among them by the court in proportion to the loss they may severally have suffered by reason of the death of the person by whose representative the suit is brought. (Mar. 30, 1920, c. 111, § 2, 41 Stat. 537.)

763. Limitations.—Suit shall be begun within two years from the date of such wrongful act, neglect, or default, unless during that period there has not been reasonable opportunity for securing jurisdiction of the vessel, person, or corporation sought to be charged; but after the expiration of such period of two years the right of action hereby given shall not be deemed to have lapsed until ninety days after a reasonable opportunity to secure jurisdiction has offered. (Mar. 30, 1920, c. 111, § 3, 41 Stat. 537.)

764. Rights of action given by laws of foreign countries.—Whenever a right of action is granted by the law of any foreign

State on account of death by wrongful act, neglect, or default occurring upon the high seas, such right may be maintained in an appropriate action in admiralty in the courts of the United States without abatement in respect to the amount for which recovery is authorized, any statute of the United States to the contrary notwithstanding. (Mar. 30, 1920, c. 111, § 4, 41 Stat. 537.)

765. Death of plaintiff pending action.—If a person die as the result of such wrongful act, neglect, or default as is mentioned in section 761 during the pendency in a court of admiralty of the United States of a suit to recover damages for personal injuries in respect of such act, neglect, or default, the personal representative of the decedent may be substituted as a party and the suit may proceed as a suit under this chapter for the recovery of the compensation provided in section 762. (Mar. 30, 1920, c. 111, § 5, 41 Stat. 537.)

766. Contributory negligence.—In suits under this chapter the fact that the decedent has been guilty of contributory negligence shall not bar recovery, but the court shall take into consideration the degree of negligence attributable to the decedent and reduce the recovery accordingly. (Mar. 30, 1920, c. 111, § 6, 41 Stat. 537.)

767. Exceptions from operation of chapter.—The provisions of any State statute giving or regulating rights of action or remedies for death shall not be affected by this chapter. Nor shall this chapter apply to the Great Lakes or to any waters within the territorial limits of any State, or to any navigable waters in the Panama Canal Zone. (Mar. 30, 1920, c. 111, § 7, 41 Stat. 538.)

768. Pending suits.—This chapter shall not affect any pending suit, action, or proceeding. (Mar. 30, 1920, c. 111, § 8, 41 Stat. 538.)

Chapter 22.—SUITS IN ADMIRALTY AGAINST UNITED STATES FOR DAMAGES CAUSED BY OR FOR TOWAGE OR SALVAGE SERVICES.

Sec.
781. Libel in admiralty against or impleader of United States.
782. Venue of suit; application of provision of chapter 20.
783. Cross libel or set-off or counterclaim where United States sues.
784. Subpœnas to officers or members of crews.
785. Suits by nationals of foreign governments.
786. Arbitration, compromise, or settlement.
787. Payment of judgments or settlements.
788. Lien not created against public vessels.
789. Exemptions and limitations of liability.
790. Reports by Attorney General.

Section 781. Libel in admiralty against or impleader of United States.—A libel in personam in admiralty may be brought against the United States, or a petition impleading the United States, for damages caused by a public vessel of the United States, and for compensation for towage and salvage services, including contract salvage, rendered to a public vessel of the United States: Provided, That the cause of action arose after the 6th day of April, 1920. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 428, § 1, 43 Stat. 1112.)

782. Venue of suit; application of provisions of chapter 20.—Such suit shall be brought in the district court of the United States for the district in which the vessel or cargo charged with creating the liability is found within the United States, or if such vessel or cargo be outside the territorial waters of the United States, then in the district court of the United States for the district in which the parties so suing, or any of them, reside or have an office for the transaction of business in the United States; or in case none of such parties reside or have an office for the transaction of business in the United States, and such vessel or cargo be outside the territorial waters of the United States, then in any district court of the United States. Such suits shall be subject to and proceed in accordance with the provisions of chapter 20 or any amendment thereof, in so far as the same are not inconsistent herewith, except that no interest shall be allowed on any claim up to the time of the rendition of judgment unless upon a contract expressly stipulating for the payment of interest. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 428, § 2, 43 Stat. 1112.)

783. Cross libel or set-off or counterclaim where United States sues.—In the event of the United States filing a libel in rem or in personam in admiralty for damages caused by a privately owned vessel, the owner of such vessel, or his successors in interest, may file a cross libel in personam or claim a set-off or counterclaim against the United States in such suit for and on account of any damages arising out of the same subject matter or cause of action: Provided, That whenever a cross libel is filed for any cause of action for which the original libel is filed by authority of this chapter, the respondent in the cross libel shall give security in the usual amount and form to respond to the claim set forth in said cross libel unless the court, for cause shown, shall otherwise direct; and all proceedings on the original libel shall be stayed until such security shall be given. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 428, § 3, 43 Stat. 1112.)

784. Subpœnas to officers or members of crews.—No officer or member of the crew of any public vessel of the United States may be subpœnaed in connection with any suit authorized under this chapter without the consent of the Secretary of the department or the head of any independent establishment of the Government having control of the vessel at the time the cause of action arose, or of the master or commanding officer of such vessel at the time of the issuance of such subpœna. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 428, § 4, 43 Stat. 1112.)

785. Suits by nationals of foreign governments.—No suit may be brought under this chapter by a national of any foreign government unless it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court in which suit is brought that said government, under similar circumstances, allows nationals of the United States to sue in its courts. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 428, § 5, 43 Stat. 1113.)

786. Arbitration, compromise, or settlement.—The Attorney General of the United States is authorized to arbitrate, compromise, or settle any claim on which a libel or cross libel would lie under the provisions of this chapter, and for which a libel or cross libel has actually been filed. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 428, § 6, 43 Stat. 1113.)

787. Payment of judgments or settlements.—Any final judgment rendered on any libel or cross libel herein authorized, and any settlement had and agreed to under the provisions of section 786 of this chapter, shall, upon presentation of a duly authenticated copy thereof, be paid by the proper accounting officer of the United States out of any moneys in the Treasury of the United States appropriated therefor by Congress. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 428, § 7, 43 Stat. 1113.)

788. Lien not created against public vessels.—Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to recognize the existence of or as creating a lien against any public vessel of the United States. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 428, § 8, 43 Stat. 1113.)

789. Exemptions and limitations of liability.—The United States shall be entitled to the benefits of all exemptions and of all limitations of liability accorded by law to the owners, charterers, operators or agents of vessels. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 428, § 9, 43 Stat. 1113.)

790. Reports by Attorney General.—The Attorney General of the United States shall report to the Congress at each session thereof all suits in which final judgment shall have been rendered and all claims which shall have been settled under this chapter. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 428, § 10, 43 Stat. 1113.)

Section 801. Terms defined.—When used in this chapter:

The term "common carrier by water in foreign commerce" means a common carrier, except ferryboats running on regular routes, engaged in the transportation by water of passengers or property between the United States or any of its Districts, Territories, or possessions and a foreign country, whether in the import or export trade: Provided, That a cargo boat commonly called an ocean tramp shall not be deemed such "common carrier by water in foreign commerce."

The term "common carrier by water in interstate commerce" means a common carrier engaged in the transportation by water of passengers or property on the high seas or the Great Lakes on regular routes from port to port between one State, Territory, District, or possession of the United States and any other State, Territory, District, or possession of the United States, or between places in the same Territory, District, or possession.

The term "common carrier by water" means a common carrier by water in foreign commerce or a common carrier by water in interstate commerce on the high seas or the Great Lakes on regular routes from port to port.

The term "other person subject to this Act" means any person not included in the term "common carrier by water," carrying on the business of forwarding or furnishing wharfage, dock, warehouse, or other terminal facilities in connection with a common carrier by water.

The term "person" includes corporations, partnerships, and associations, existing under or authorized by the laws of the United States, or any State, Territory, District, or possession thereof, or of any foreign country.

The term "vessel" includes all water craft and other artificial contrivances of whatever description and at whatever stage of construction, whether on the stocks or launched, which are used or are capable of being or are intended to be used as a means of transportation on water.

The term "documented under the laws of the United States," means "registered, enrolled, or licensed under the laws of the United States." (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 1, 39 Stat. 728; July 15, 1918, c. 152, § 1, 40 Stat. 900.)

802. Corporation, partnership, or association as citizen.—(a) Within the meaning of this chapter no corporation, partnership, or association shall be deemed a citizen of the United States unless the controlling interest therein is owned by citizens of the United States, and, in the case of a corporation, unless its president and managing directors are citizens of the United States and the corporation itself is organized under the laws of the United States or of a State, Territory, District, or possession thereof, but in the case of a corporation, association, or partnership operating any vessel in the coastwise trade the amount of interest required to be owned by citizens of the United States shall be 75 per centum.

(b) The controlling interest in a corporation shall not be deemed to be owned by citizens of the United States (a) if the title to a majority of the stock thereof is not vested in such citizens free from any trust or fiduciary obligation in favor of any person not a citizen of the United States; or (b) if the majority of the voting power in such corporation is not vested in citizens of the United States; or (c) if through any contract or understanding it is so arranged that the majority of the voting power may be exercised, directly or indirectly, in behalf of any person who is not a citizen of the United States; or, (d) if by any other means whatsoever control of the corporation is conferred upon or permitted to be exercised by any person who is not a citizen of the United States.

(c) Seventy-five per centum of the interest in a corporation shall not be deemed to be owned by citizens of the United States (a) if the title to 75 per centum of its stock is not vested in such citizens free from any trust or fiduciary obligation in favor of any person not a citizen of the United States; or (b) if 75 per centum of the voting power in such corporation is not vested in citizens of the United States; or (c) if, through any contract or understanding, it is so arranged that more than 25 per centum of the voting power in such corporation may be exercised, directly or indirectly, in behalf of any person who is not a citizen of the United States; or (d) if by any other means whatsoever control of any interest in the corporation in excess of 25 per centum is conferred upon or permitted to be exercised by any person who is not a citizen of the United States. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 2, 39 Stat. 729; July 15, 1918, c. 152, § 2, 40 Stat. 900; June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 38, 41 Stat. 1008.)

803. Applicability of chapter to receivers and trustees.—The provisions of this chapter shall apply to receivers and trustees of all persons to whom the chapter applies, and to the successors or assignees of such persons. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 2, 39 Stat. 729; July 15, 1918, c. 152, § 2, 40 Stat. 900; June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 38, 41 Stat. 1008.)

804. Shipping Board; establishment; commissioners; duties; seal; rules and regulations.—A board is hereby created to be known as the United States Shipping Board and hereinafter referred to as the board. The board shall be composed of seven commissioners, to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate; and the President shall designate the member to act as chairman of the board, and the board may elect one of its members as vice chairman. Such commissioners shall be appointed as soon as practicable after June 5, 1920, and shall continue in office two for a term of one year, and the remaining five for terms of two, three, four, five, and six years, respectively, from the date of their appointment, the term of each to be designated by the President, but their successors shall be appointed for terms of six years, except that any person chosen to fill a vacancy shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of the commissioner whom he succeeds.

The commissioners shall be appointed with due regard to their fitness for the efficient discharge of the duties imposed on them by this chapter, and two shall be appointed from the States touching the Pacific Ocean, two from the States touching the Atlantic Ocean, one from the States touching the Gulf of Mexico, one from the States touching the Great Lakes and one from the interior, but not more than one shall be appointed from the same State. Not more than four of the commissioners shall be appointed from the same political party. A vacancy in the board shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointments. No commissioner shall take any part in the consideration or decision of any claim or particular controversy in which he has a pecuniary interest.

Each commissioner shall devote his time to the duties of his office, and shall not be in the employ of or hold any official relation to any common carrier or other person subject to this chapter, nor while holding such office acquire any stock or bonds thereof or become pecuniarily interested in any such carrier.

The duties of the board may be so divided that under its supervision the directorship of various activities may be assigned to one or more commissioners. Any commissioner may be removed by the President for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office. A vacancy in the board shall not impair the right of the remaining members of the board to exercise all its powers. The board shall have an official seal, which shall be judicially noticed.

The board may adopt rules and regulations in regard to its procedure and the conduct of its business. The board may employ within the limits of appropriations made therefor by Congress such attorneys as it finds necessary for proper legal service to the board in the conduct of its work, or for proper representation of the public interest in investigations made by it or proceedings pending before it whether at the board's own instance or upon complaint, or to appear for or represent the board in any case in court or other tribunal. The board shall have such other rights and perform such other duties not inconsistent with the following chapter, the Merchant Marine Act, 1920, as were conferred by existing law upon the board in existence on June 5, 1920.

The commissioners in office on June 5, 1920, shall hold office until all the commissioners provided for in this section are appointed and qualify. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 3, 39 Stat. 729; June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 3, 41 Stat. 989.)

805. Salaries of commissioners and employees; detail of officers of military, naval, or other services; civil service rules.—Each member of the board shall receive a salary of $12,000 per annum. The board shall appoint a secretary, at a salary of $5,000 per annum, and employ and fix the compensation of such attorneys, officers, naval architects, special experts, examiners, clerks, and other employees as it may find necessary for the proper performance of its duties and as may be appropriated for by the Congress. The President, upon the request of the board, may authorize the detail of officers of the military, naval, or other services of the United States for such duties as the board may deem necessary in connection with its business.

With the exception of the secretary, a clerk to each commissioner, the attorneys, naval architects, and such special experts and examiners as the board may from time to time find necessary to employ for the conduct of its work, all employees of the board shall be appointed from lists of eligibles to be supplied by the Civil Service Commission and in accordance with the civil service law.

The expenses of the board, including necessary expenses for transportation, incurred by the members of the board or by its employees under its orders, in making any investigation, or upon official business in any other place than in the city of Washington, shall be allowed and paid on the presentation of itemized vouchers therefor approved by the chairman of the board.

Until otherwise provided by law the board may rent suitable offices for its use.

The General Accounting Office shall receive and examine all accounts of expenditures of the board. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 4, 39 Stat. 729; June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 3, 41 Stat. 990; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

806. Transfer of vessels to board by President.—The President may transfer either permanently or for limited periods to the board such vessels belonging to the War or Navy Department as are suitable for commercial uses and not required for military or naval use in time of peace, and cause to be transferred to the board vessels owned by the Panama Railroad Company and not required in its business. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 6, 39 Stat. 730.)

807. Limitation on salaries.—No officer or employee of the United States Shipping Board or the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation shall be paid a salary or compensation at a rate per annum in excess of $10,000 except the following: One at not to exceed $25,000 and seven at not to exceed $18,000 each. (June 12, 1922, c. 218, 42 Stat. 648; Feb. 13, 1923, c. 72, 42 Stat. 1242; June 7, 1924, c. 292, § 1, 43 Stat. 531; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 468, § 1, 43 Stat. 1209.)

808. Registration, enrollment, and licensing of vessels purchased, chartered, or leased; regulations; coastwise trade.—Any vessel purchased, chartered, or leased from the board, by persons who are citizens of the United States, may be registered or enrolled and licensed, or both registered and enrolled and licensed, as a vessel of the United States and entitled to the benefits and privileges appertaining thereto: Provided, That foreign-built vessels admitted to American registry or enrollment and license under this chapter, and vessels owned by any corporation in which the United States is a stockholder, and vessels sold, leased, or chartered by the board to any person a citizen of the United States, as provided in this chapter, may engage in the coastwise trade of the United States while owned, leased, or chartered by such a person.

Every vessel purchased, chartered, or leased from the board shall, unless otherwise authorized by the board, be operated only under such registry or enrollment and license. Such vessels while employed solely as merchant vessels shall be subject to all laws, regulations, and liabilities governing merchant vessels, whether the United States be interested therein as owner, in whole or in part, or hold any mortgage, lien, or other interest therein.

It shall be unlawful to sell, transfer or mortgage, or, except under regulations prescribed by the board, to charter, any vessel purchased from the board or documented under the laws of the United States to any person not a citizen of the United States, or to put the same under a foreign registry or flag, without first obtaining the board's approval.

Any vessel chartered, sold, transferred or mortgaged to a person not a citizen of the United States or placed under a foreign registry or flag, or operated, in violation of any provision of this section shall be forfeited to the United States, and whoever violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of not more than $5,000, or to imprisonment for not more than five years, or both. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 9, 39 Stat. 730; July 15, 1918, c. 152, § 3, 40 Stat. 900; June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 18, 41 Stat. 994.)

809. Taking vessels for naval or military purposes.—The President, upon giving to the person interested such reasonable notice in writing as in his judgment the circumstances permit, may take possession, absolutely or temporarily, for any naval or military purpose, of any vessel purchased, leased, or chartered from the board: Provided, That if, in the judgment of the President, an emergency exists requiring such action he may take possession of any such vessel without notice.

Thereafter, upon ascertainment by agreement or otherwise, the United States shall pay the person interested the fair actual value based upon normal conditions at the time of taking of the interest of such person in every vessel taken absolutely, or if taken for a limited period, the fair charter value under normal conditions for such period. In case of disagreement as to such fair value it shall be determined by appraisers, one to be appointed by the board, one by the person interested, and a third by the two so appointed. The finding of such appraisers shall be final and binding upon both parties. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 10, 39 Stat. 731.)

810. Corporations for purchase, construction, equipment, maintenance, and operation of merchant vessels.—The board, if in its judgment such action is necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter, may form under the laws of the District of Columbia one or more corporations for the purchase, construction, equipment, lease, charter, maintenance, and operation of merchant vessels in the commerce of the United States. The total capital stock thereof shall not exceed $50,000,000. The board may, for and on behalf of the United States, subscribe to, purchase, and vote not less than a majority of the capital stock of any such corporation, and do all other things in regard thereto necessary to protect the interests of the United States and to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The board, with the approval of the President, may sell any or all of the stock of the United States in such corporation, but at no time shall it be a minority stockholder therein: Provided, That no corporation in which the United States is a stockholder, formed under the authority of this section, shall engage in the operation of any vessel constructed, purchased, leased, chartered, or transferred under the authority of this chapter unless the board shall be unable, after a bona fide effort, to contract with any person a citizen of the United States for the purchase, lease, or charter of such vessel under such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the board.

The board shall give public notice of the fact that vessels are offered and the terms and conditions upon which a contract will be made, and shall invite competitive offerings. In the event the board shall, after full compliance with the terms of this proviso, determine that it is unable to enter into a contract with such private parties for the purchase, lease, or charter of such vessel, it shall make a full report to the President, who shall examine such report, and if he shall approve the same he shall make an order declaring that the conditions have been found to exist which justify the operation of such vessel by a corporation formed under the provisions of this section.

The board may sell, lease, or charter such vessels and shall dispose of the property other than vessels on the best available terms and, after payment of all debts and obligations, deposit the proceeds thereof in the Treasury to its credit. All stock in such corporations owned by others than the United States at the time of dissolution shall be taken over by the board at a fair and reasonable value and paid for with funds to the credit of the board. In case of disagreement, such value shall be determined in the manner provided in the preceding section. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 11, 39 Stat. 731.)

811. Investigations as to cost of merchant vessels.—The board shall investigate the relative cost of building merchant vessels in the United States and in foreign maritime countries, and the relative cost, advantages, and disadvantages of operating in the foreign trade vessels under United States registry and under foreign registry. It shall examine the rules under which vessels are constructed abroad and in the United States, and the methods of classifying and rating same, and it shall examine into the subject of marine insurance, the number of companies in the United States, domestic and foreign, engaging in marine insurance, the extent of the insurance on hulls and cargoes placed or written in the United States, and the extent of reinsurance of American maritime risks in foreign companies, and ascertain what steps may be necessary to develop an ample marine insurance system as an aid in the development of an American merchant marine. It shall examine the navigation laws of the United States and the rules and regulations thereunder, and make such recommendations to the Congress as it deems proper for the amendment, improvement, and revision of such laws, and for the development of the American merchant marine.

It shall, on or before the 1st day of December in each year, make a report to the Congress, which shall include its recommendations and the results of its investigations, a summary of its transactions, and a statement of all expenditures and receipts under this chapter, and of the operations of any corporation in which the United States is a stockholder, and the names and compensation of all persons employed by the board. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 12, 39 Stat. 732.)

812. Rebates and discriminations by carriers by water prohibited; use of "fighting ship."—No common carrier by water shall, directly or indirectly, in respect to the transportation by water of passengers or property between a port of a State, Territory, District, or possession of the United States and any other such port or a port of a foreign country—

First. Pay, or allow, or enter into any combination, agreement, or understanding, express or implied, to pay or allow, a deferred rebate to any shipper. The term "deferred rebate" in this chapter means a return of any portion of the freight money by a carrier to any shipper as a consideration for the giving of all or any portion of his shipments to the same or any other carrier, or for any other purpose, the payment of which is deferred beyond the completion of the service for which it is paid, and is made only if, during both the period for which computed and the period of deferment, the shipper has complied with the terms of the rebate agreement or arrangement.

Second. Use a fighting ship either separately or in conjunction with any other carrier, through agreement or otherwise. The term "fighting ship" in this chapter means a vessel used in a particular trade by a carrier or group of carriers for the purpose of excluding, preventing, or reducing competition by driving another carrier out of said trade.

Third. Retaliate against any shipper by refusing, or threatening to refuse, space accommodations when such are available, or resort to other discriminating or unfair methods, because such shipper has patronized any other carrier or has filed a complaint charging unfair treatment, or for any other reason.

Fourth. Make any unfair or unjustly discriminatory contract with any shipper based on the volume of freight offered, or unfairly treat or unjustly discriminate against any shipper in the matter of (a) cargo space accommodations or other facilities, due regard being had for the proper loading of the vessel and the available tonnage; (b) the loading and landing of freight in proper condition; or (c) the adjustment and settlement of claims.

Any carrier who violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $25,000 for each offense. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 14, 39 Stat. 733; June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 20, 41 Stat. 996.)

813. Determination by board as to violations.—The board upon its own initiative may, or upon complaint shall, after due notice to all parties in interest and hearing, determine whether any person, not a citizen of the United States and engaged in transportation by water of passengers or property—

(1) Has violated any provision of the preceding section, or

(2) Is a party to any combination, agreement, or understanding, express or implied, that involves in respect to transportation of passengers or property between foreign ports, deferred rebates or any other unfair practice designated in the preceding section, and that excludes from admission upon equal terms with all other parties thereto, a common carrier by water which is a citizen of the United States and which has applied for such admission.

If the board determines that any such person has violated any such provision or is a party to any such combination, agreement, or understanding, the board shall thereupon certify such fact to the Secretary of Commerce. The Secretary shall thereafter refuse such person the right of entry for any ship owned or operated by him or by any carrier directly or indirectly controlled by him, into any port of the United States, or any Territory, District, or possession thereof, until the board certifies that the violation has ceased or such combination, agreement, or understanding has been terminated. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 14a; June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 20, 41 Stat. 996.)

814. Contracts between carriers filed with board.—Every common carrier by water, or other person subject to this chapter, shall file immediately with the board a true copy, or, if oral, a true and complete memorandum, of every agreement, with another such carrier or other person subject to this chapter, or modification or cancellation thereof, to which it may be a party or conform in whole or in part, fixing or regulating transportation rates or fares; giving or receiving special rates, accommodations, or other special privileges or advantages; controlling, regulating, preventing, or destroying competition; pooling or apportioning earnings, losses, or traffic; allotting ports or restricting or otherwise regulating the number and character of sailings between ports; limiting or regulating in any way the volume or character of freight or passenger traffic to be carried; or in any manner providing for an exclusive, preferential, or cooperative working arrangement. The term "agreement" in this section includes understandings, conferences, and other arrangements.

The board may by order disapprove, cancel, or modify any agreement, or any modification or cancellation thereof, whether or not previously approved by it, that it finds to be unjustly discriminatory or unfair as between carriers, shippers, exporters, importers, or ports, or between exporters from the United States and their foreign competitors or to operate to the detriment of the commerce of the United States, or to be in violation of this chapter, and shall approve all other agreements, modifications, or cancellations.

Agreements existing at the time of the organization of the board shall be lawful until disapproved by the board. It shall be unlawful to carry out any agreement or any portion thereof disapproved by the board.

All agreements, modifications, or cancellations made after the organization of the board shall be lawful only when and as long as approved by the board, and before approval or after disapproval it shall be unlawful to carry out in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, any such agreement, modification, or cancellation.

Every agreement, modification, or cancellation lawful under this section shall be excepted from the provisions of sections 1 to 11, inclusive, and section 15 of chapter 1, of Title 15, COMMERCE AND TRADE, and amendments and Acts supplementary thereto.

Whoever violates any provision of this section shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000 for each day such violation continues, to be recovered by the United States in a civil action. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 15, 39 Stat. 733.)

815. Discriminatory acts prohibited.—It shall be unlawful for any common carrier by water, or other person subject to this chapter, either alone or in conjunction with any other person, directly or indirectly—

First. To make or give any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any particular person, locality, or description of traffic in any respect whatsoever, or to subject any particular person, locality, or description of traffic to any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever.

Second. To allow any person to obtain transportation for property at less than the regular rates then established and enforced on the line of such carrier, by means of false billing, false classification, false weighing, false report of weight, or by any other unjust or unfair device or means.

Third. To induce, persuade, or otherwise influence any marine insurance company or underwriter, or agent thereof, not to give a competing carrier by water as favorable a rate of insurance on vessel or cargo, having due regard to the class of vessel or cargo, as is granted to such carrier or other person subject to this chapter. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 16, 39 Stat. 734.)

816. Discriminatory rates prohibited; supervision by board.—No common carrier by water in foreign commerce shall demand, charge, or collect any rate, fare, or charge which is unjustly discriminatory between shippers or ports, or unjustly prejudicial to exporters of the United States as compared with their foreign competitors. Whenever the board finds that any such rate, fare, or charge is demanded, charged, or collected it may alter the same to the extent necessary to correct such unjust discrimination or prejudice and make an order that the carrier shall discontinue demanding, charging, or collecting any such unjustly discriminatory or prejudicial rate, fare, or charge.

Every such carrier and every other person subject to this chapter shall establish, observe, and enforce just and reasonable regulations and practices relating to or connected with the receiving, handling, storing, or delivering of property. Whenever the board finds that any such regulation or practice is unjust or unreasonable it may determine, prescribe, and order enforced a just and reasonable regulation or practice. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 17, 39 Stat. 734.)

817. Carriers to establish, observe, and enforce reasonable rates and regulations.—Every common carrier by water in interstate commerce shall establish, observe, and enforce just and reasonable rates, fares, charges, classifications, and tariffs, and just and reasonable regulations and practices relating thereto and to the issuance, form, and substance of tickets, receipts, and bills of lading, the manner and method of presenting, marking, packing, and delivering property for transportation, the carrying of personal, sample, and excess baggage, the facilities for transportation, and all other matters relating to or connected with the receiving, handling, transporting, storing, or delivering of property.

Every such carrier shall file with the board and keep open to public inspection, in the form and manner and within the time prescribed by the board, the maximum rates, fares, and charges for or in connection with transportation between points on its own route; and if a through route has been established, the maximum rates, fares, and charges for or in connection with transportation between points on its own route and points on the route of any other carrier by water.

No such carrier shall demand, charge, or collect a greater compensation for such transportation than the rates, fares, and charges filed in compliance with this section, except with the approval of the board and after ten days' public notice in the form and manner prescribed by the board, stating the increase proposed to be made; but the board for good cause shown may waive such notice.

Whenever the board finds that any rate, fare, charge, classification, tariff, regulation, or practice, demanded, charged, collected, or observed by such carrier is unjust or unreasonable, it may determine, prescribe, and order enforced a just and reasonable maximum rate, fare, or charge, or a just and reasonable classification, tariff, regulation, or practice. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 18, 39 Stat. 735.)

818. Rates reduced not to be increased without approval of board.—Whenever a common carrier by water in interstate commerce reduces its rates on the carriage of any species of freight to or from competitive points below a fair and remunerative basis with the intent of driving out or otherwise injuring a competitive carrier by water, it shall not increase such rates unless after hearing the board finds that such proposed increase rests upon changed conditions other than the elimination of said competition. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 19, 39 Stat. 735.)

819. Disclosure of confidential information prohibited.—It shall be unlawful for any common carrier by water or other person subject to this chapter, or any officer, receiver, trustee, lessee, agent, or employee of such carrier or person, or for any other person authorized by such carrier or person to receive information, knowingly to disclose to or permit to be acquired by any person other than the shipper or consignee, without the consent of such shipper or consignee, any information concerning the nature, kind, quantity, destination, consignee, or routing of any property tendered or delivered to such common carrier or other person subject to this chapter for transportation in interstate or foreign commerce, which information may be used to the detriment or prejudice of such shipper or consignee, or which may improperly disclose his business transactions to a competitor, or which may be used to the detriment or prejudice of any carrier; and it shall also be unlawful for any person to solicit or knowingly receive any such information which may be so used.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent the giving of such information in response to any legal process issued under the authority of any court, or to any officer or agent of the Government of the United States, or of any State, Territory, District, or possession thereof, in the exercise of his powers, or to any officer or other duly authorized person seeking such information for the prosecution of persons charged with or suspected of crime, or to another carrier, or its duly authorized agent, for the purpose of adjusting mutual traffic accounts in the ordinary course of business of such carriers. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 20, 39 Stat. 735.)

820. Reports by carriers required.—The board may require any common carrier by water, or other person subject to this chapter, or any officer, receiver, trustee, lessee, agent, or employee thereof, to file with it any periodical or special report, or any account, record, rate, or charge, or any memorandum of any facts and transactions appertaining to the business of such carrier or other person subject to this chapter. Such report, account, record, rate, charge, or memorandum shall be under oath whenever the board so requires, and shall be furnished in the form and within the time prescribed by the board. Whoever fails to file any report, account, record, rate, charge, or memorandum as required by this section shall forfeit to the United States the sum of $100 for each day of such default.

Whoever willfully falsifies, destroys, mutilates, or alters any such report, account, record, rate, charge, or memorandum, or willfully files a false report, account, record, rate, charge, or memorandum shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and subject upon conviction to a fine of not more than $1,000, or imprisonment for not more than one year, or to both such fine and imprisonment. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 21, 39 Stat. 736.)

821. Complaints to board and investigations.—Any person may file with the board a sworn complaint setting forth any violation of this chapter by a common carrier by water, or other person subject to this chapter, and asking reparation for the injury, if any, caused thereby. The board shall furnish a copy of the complaint to such carrier or other person, who shall, within a reasonable time specified by the board, satisfy the complaint or answer it in writing. If the complaint is not satisfied the board shall, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, investigate it in such manner and by such means, and make such order as it deems proper. The board, if the complaint is filed within two years after the cause of action accrued, may direct the payment, on or before a day named, of full reparation to the complainant for the injury caused by such violation.

The board, upon its own motion, may in like manner and, except as to orders for the payment of money, with the same powers, investigate any violation of this chapter. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 22, 39 Stat. 736.)

822. Orders of board made only after full hearing.—Orders of the board relating to any violation of this chapter shall be made only after full hearing, and upon a sworn complaint or in proceedings instituted of its own motion.

All orders of the board other than for the payment of money made under this chapter shall continue in force for such time, not exceeding two years, as shall be prescribed therein by the board, unless suspended, modified, or set aside by the board or any court of competent jurisdiction. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 23, 39 Stat. 736.)

823. Records of board; copies; publication of reports; evidence.—The board shall enter of record a written report of every investigation made under this chapter in which a hearing has been held, stating its conclusions, decision, and order, and, if reparation is awarded, the findings of fact on which the award is made, and shall furnish a copy of such report to all parties to the investigation.

The board may publish such reports in the form best adapted for public information and use, and such authorized publications shall, without further proof or authentication, be competent evidence of such reports in all courts of the United States and of the States, Territories, Districts, and possessions thereof. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 24, 39 Stat. 736.)

824. Reversal, suspension, or modification of orders.—The board may reverse, suspend, or modify, upon such notice and in such manner as it deems proper, any order made by it. Upon application of any party to a decision or order it may grant a rehearing of the same or any matter determined therein, but no such application for or allowance of a rehearing shall, except by special order of the board, operate as a stay of such order. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 25, 39 Stat. 736.)

825. Investigation by board as to acts of foreign governments.—The board shall have power, and it shall be its duty whenever complaint shall be made to it, to investigate the action of any foreign government with respect to the privileges afforded and burdens imposed upon vessels of the United States engaged in foreign trade whenever it shall appear that the laws, regulations, or practices of any foreign Government operate in such a manner that vessels of the United States are not accorded equal privileges in foreign trade with vessels of such foreign countries or vessels of other foreign countries, either in trade to or from the ports of such foreign country or in respect of the passage or transportation through such foreign country of passengers or goods intended for shipment or transportation in such vessels of the United States, either to or from ports of such foreign country or to or from ports of other foreign countries. It shall be the duty of the board to report the results of its investigation to the President with its recommendations and the President is authorized and empowered to secure by diplomatic action equal privileges for vessels of the United States engaged in such foreign trade. And if by such diplomatic action the President shall be unable to secure such equal privileges then the President shall advise Congress as to the facts and his conclusions by special message, if deemed important in the public interest, in order that proper action may be taken thereon. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 26, 39 Stat. 737.)

826. Attendance of witnesses and production of books and papers.—For the purpose of investigating alleged violations of this chapter, the board may by subpœna compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, documents, and other evidence from any place in the United States at any designated place of hearing. Subpœnas may be signed by any commissioner, and oaths or affirmations may be administered, witnesses examined, and evidence received by any commissioner or examiner, or, under the direction of the board, by any person authorized under the laws of the United States or of any State, Territory, District, or possession thereof to administer oaths. Persons so acting under the direction of the board and witnesses shall, unless employees of the board, be entitled to the same fees and mileage as in the courts of the United States. Obedience to any such subpœna shall, on application by the board, be enforced as are orders of the board other than for the payment of money. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 27, 39 Stat. 737.)

827. Immunity of witnesses.—No person shall be excused, on the ground that it may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture, from attending and testifying, or producing books, papers, documents, and other evidence, in obedience to the subpœna of the board or of any court in any proceeding based upon or growing out of any alleged violation of this chapter; but no natural person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing as to which, in obedience to a subpœna and under oath, he may so testify or produce evidence, except that no person shall be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 28, 39 Stat. 737.)

828. Enforcement of orders of board.—In case of violation of any order of the board, other than an order for the payment of money, the board, or any party injured by such violation, or the Attorney General, may apply to a district court having jurisdiction of the parties; and if, after hearing, the court determines that the order was regularly made and duly issued, it shall enforce obedience thereto by a writ of injunction or other proper process, mandatory or otherwise. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 29, 39 Stat. 737.)

829. Violation of orders of board for payment of money.—In case of violation of any order of the board for the payment of money the person to whom such award was made may file in the district court for the district in which such person resides, or in which is located any office of the carrier or other person to whom the order was directed, or in which is located any point of call on a regular route operated by the carrier, or in any court of general jurisdiction of a State, Territory, District, or possession of the United States having jurisdiction of the parties, a petition or suit setting forth briefly the causes for which he claims damages and the order of the board in the premises.

In the district court the findings and order of the board shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated, and the petitioner shall not be liable for costs, nor shall he be liable for costs at any subsequent stage of the proceedings unless they accrue upon his appeal. If a petitioner in a district court finally prevails, he shall be allowed a reasonable attorney's fee, to be taxed and collected as part of the costs of the suit.

All parties in whose favor the board has made an award of reparation by a single order may be joined as plaintiffs, and all other parties to such order may be joined as defendants, in a single suit in any district in which any one such plaintiff could maintain a suit against any one such defendant. Service of process against any such defendant not found in that district may be made in any district in which is located any office of, or point of call on a regular route operated by, such defendant. Judgment may be entered in favor of any plaintiff against the defendant liable to that plaintiff.

No petition or suit for the enforcement of an order for the payment of money shall be maintained unless filed within one year from the date of the order. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 30, 39 Stat. 737.)

830. Venue and procedure in suits to enforce, suspend, or set aside orders.—The venue and procedure in the courts of the United States in suits brought to enforce, suspend, or set aside, in whole or in part, any order of the board shall, except as otherwise provided, be the same as in similar suits in regard to orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission, but such suits may also be maintained in any district court having jurisdiction of the parties. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 31, 39 Stat. 738.)

831. Penalty for violation of chapter.—Whoever violates any provision of this chapter, except where a different penalty is provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by fine of not to exceed $5,000. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 32, 39 Stat. 738.)

832. Powers of Interstate Commerce Commission not affected; intrastate commerce.—This chapter shall not be construed to affect the power or jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission, nor to confer upon the board concurrent power or jurisdiction over any matter within the power or jurisdiction of such commission; nor shall this chapter be construed to apply to intrastate commerce. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 33, 39 Stat. 738.)

833. Partial invalidity of chapter as not affecting remainder.—If any provision of this chapter, or the application of such provision to certain circumstance, is held unconstitutional, the remainder of the chapter, and the application of such provision to circumstances other than those as to which it is held unconstitutional, shall not be affected thereby. (Sept 7, 1916, c. 451, § 34, 39 Stat. 738.)

834. Refusal of clearance to vessel refusing to accept trade.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to refuse a clearance to any vessel or other vehicle laden with merchandise destined for a foreign or domestic port whenever he shall have satisfactory reason to believe that the master, owner, or other officer of such vessel or other vehicle refuses or declines to accept or receive freight or cargo in good condition tendered for such port of destination or for some intermediate port of call, together with the proper freight or transportation charges therefor, by any citizen of the United States, unless the same is fully laden and has no space accommodations for the freight or cargo so tendered, due regard being had for the proper loading of such vessel or vehicle, or unless such freight or cargo consists of merchandise for which such vessel or vehicle is not adaptable. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 36, 39 Stat. 738.)

835. Restrictions on transfer of shipping facilities during war or national emergency.—When the United States is at war or during any national emergency, the existence of which is declared by proclamation of the President, it shall be unlawful, without first obtaining the approval of the board:

(a) To transfer to or place under any foreign registry or flag any vessel owned in whole or in part by any person a citizen of the United States or by a corporation organized under the laws of the United States, or of any State, Territory, District, or possession thereof; or

(b) To sell, mortgage, lease, charter, deliver, or in any manner transfer, or agree to sell, mortgage, lease, charter, deliver, or in any manner transfer, to any person not a citizen of the United States, (1) any such vessel or any interest therein, or (2) any vessel documented under the laws of the United States, or any interest therein, or (3) any shipyard, dry dock, shipbuilding or ship repairing plant or facilities, or any interest therein; or

(c) To enter into any contract, agreement, or understanding to construct a vessel within the United States for or to be delivered to any person not a citizen of the United States, without expressly stipulating that such construction shall not begin until after the war or emergency proclaimed by the President has ended; or

(d) To make any agreement or effect any understanding whereby there is vested in or for the benefit of any person not a citizen of the United States, the controlling interest or a majority of the voting power in a corporation which is organized under the laws of the United States, or of any State, Territory, District, or possession thereof, and which owns any vessel, shipyard, dry dock, or shipbuilding or ship-repairing plant or facilities; or

(e) To cause or procure any vessel constructed in whole or in part within the United States, which has never cleared for any foreign port, to depart from a port of the United States before it has been documented under the laws of the United States.

Whoever violates, or attempts or conspires to violate, any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by imprisonment for not more than five years, or both.

Any vessel, shipyard, dry dock, shipbuilding or ship-repairing plant or facilities, or interest therein, sold, mortgaged, leased, chartered, delivered, transferred, or documented, or agreed to be sold, mortgaged, leased, chartered, delivered, transferred, or documented, in violation of any of the provisions of this section, and any stocks, bonds, or other securities sold or transferred, or agreed to be sold or transferred, in violation of any of such provisions, or any vessel departing in violation of the provisions of subdivision (e), shall be forfeited to the United States.

Any such sale, mortgage, lease, charter, delivery, transfer, documentation, or agreement therefor shall be void, whether made within or without the United States, and any consideration paid therefor or deposited in connection therewith shall be recoverable at the suit of the person who has paid or deposited the same, or of his successors or assigns, after the tender of such vessel, shipyard, dry dock, shipbuilding or ship-repairing plant or facilities, or interest therein, or of such stocks, bonds, or other securities, to the person entitled thereto, or after forfeiture thereof to the United States, unless the person to whom the consideration was paid, or in whose interest it was deposited, entered into the transaction in the honest belief that the person who paid or deposited such consideration was a citizen of the United States. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 37, 39 Stat. 728; July 15, 1918, c. 152, § 4, 40 Stat. 901.)

836. Forfeitures.—All forfeitures incurred under the provisions of this chapter may be prosecuted in the same court, and may be disposed of in the same manner, as forfeitures incurred for offenses against the law relating to the collection of duties. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 38, 39 Stat. 728; July 15, 1918, c. 152, § 4, 40 Stat. 902.)

837. Prima facie evidence.—In any action or proceeding under the provisions of this chapter to enforce a forfeiture the conviction in a court of criminal jurisdiction of any person for a violation thereof with respect to the subject of the forfeiture shall constitute prima facie evidence of such violation against the person so convicted. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 39, 39 Stat. 728; July 15, 1918, c. 152, § 4, 40 Stat. 902.)

838. Record of sale or other disposition of vessels.—Whenever any bill of sale, mortgage, hypothecation, or conveyance of any vessel, or part thereof, or interest therein, is presented to any collector of the customs to be recorded, the vendee, mortgagee, or transferee shall file therewith a written declaration in such form as the board may by regulation prescribe, setting forth the facts relating to his citizenship, and such other facts as the board requires, showing that the transaction does not involve a violation of any of the provisions of section 808 or 835. Unless the board, before such presentation, has failed to prescribe such form, no such bill of sale, mortgage, hypothecation, or conveyance shall be valid against any person whatsoever until such declaration has been filed. Any declaration filed by or in behalf of a corporation shall be signed by the president, secretary, or treasurer thereof.

Whoever knowingly makes any false statement of a material fact in any such declaration shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of not more than $5,000, or to imprisonment for not more than five years, or both. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 40, 39 Stat. 728; July 15, 1918, c. 152, § 4, 40 Stat. 902.)

839. Approvals by board.—Whenever by section 808 or 835 the approval of the board is required to render any act or transaction lawful, such approval may be accorded either absolutely or upon such conditions as the board prescribes. Whenever the approval of the board is accorded upon any condition a statement of such condition shall be entered upon its records and incorporated in the same document or paper which notifies the applicant of such approval. A violation of such condition so incorporated shall constitute a misdemeanor and shall be punishable by fine and imprisonment in the same manner, and shall subject the vessel, stocks, bonds, or other subject matter of the application conditionally approved to forfeiture in the same manner, as though the act conditionally approved had been done without the approval of the board, but the offense shall be deemed to have been committed at the time of the violation of the condition.

Whenever by this chapter the approval of the board is required to render any act or transaction lawful, whoever knowingly makes any false statement of a material fact to the board, or to any member thereof, or to any officer, attorney, or agent thereof, for the purpose of securing such approval, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine or not more than $5,000 or to imprisonment for not more than five years, or both. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 41, 39 Stat. 728; July 15, 1918, c. 152, § 4, 40 Stat. 902.)

840. Documented vessels.—Any vessel registered, enrolled, or licensed under the laws of the United States shall be deemed to continue to be documented under the laws of the United States within the meaning of subdivision (b) of section 835, until such registry, enrollment, or license is surrendered with the approval of the board, the provisions of any other Act of Congress to the contrary notwithstanding. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 42, 39 Stat. 728; July 15, 1918, c. 152, § 4, 40 Stat. 903.)

841. End of war emergency.—The fact that a war or emergency has ended shall, for the purposes of this chapter, be evidenced by a proclamation of the President. (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 43, 39 Stat. 728; July 15, 1918, c. 152, § 4, 40 Stat. 903.)

842. "Shipping Act."—The Act of September 7, 1916, chapter 451, may be cited as "Shipping Act, 1916." (Sept. 7, 1916, c. 451, § 44, 39 Stat. 728; July 15, 1918, c. 152, § 4, 40 Stat. 903.)

Section 861. Purpose and policy of United States.—It is necessary for the national defense and for the proper growth of its foreign and domestic commerce that the United States shall have a merchant marine of the best equipped and most suitable types of vessels sufficient to carry the greater portion of its commerce and serve as a naval or military auxiliary in time of war or national emergency, ultimately to be owned and operated privately by citizens of the United States; and it is declared to be the policy of the United States to do whatever may be necessary to develop and encourage the maintenance of such a merchant marine, and, in so far as may not be inconsistent with the express provisions of this chapter, the United States Shipping Board shall, in the disposition of vessels and shipping property as hereinafter provided, in the making of rules and regulations, and in the administration of the shipping laws keep always in view this purpose and object as the primary end to be attained. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 1, 41 Stat. 988.)

862. Acts repealed; limitations; settlement of matters arising out of exercise of powers conferred by repealed Acts.—(a) The following Acts and parts of Acts are hereby repealed, subject to the limitations and exceptions hereinafter in this chapter provided:

(1) The emergency shipping fund provisions of the Act entitled "An Act making appropriations to supply urgent deficiencies in appropriations for the Military and Naval Establishments on account of war expenses for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1917, and for other purposes," approved June 15, 1917, as amended by the Act entitled "An Act to amend the emergency shipping fund provisions of the Urgent Deficiency Appropriation Act, approved June 15, 1917, so as to empower the President and his designated agents to take over certain transportation systems for the transportation of shipyard and plant employees, and for other purposes," approved April 22, 1918, and as further amended by the Act entitled "An Act making appropriation to supply deficiencies in appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1919, and prior fiscal years, on account of war expenses, and for other purposes," approved November 4, 1918.

(2) Section 3 of such Act of April 22, 1918;

(3) The paragraphs numbered 2 and 3 under the heading "Emergency shipping fund" in such Act of November 4, 1918; and

(4) The Act entitled "An Act to confer on the President power to prescribe charter rates and freight rates and to requisition vessels, and for other purposes," approved July 18, 1918.

(5) Sections 5, 7, and 8, Shipping Act, 1916.

(b) The repeal of such Acts or parts of Acts is subject to the following limitations:

(1) All contracts or agreements lawfully entered into before June 5, 1920, under any such Act or part of Act shall be assumed and carried out by the United States Shipping Board, hereinafter called "the board."

(2) All rights, interests, or remedies accruing or to accrue as a result of any such contract or agreement or of any action taken in pursuance of any such Act or parts of Acts shall be in all respects as valid, and may be exercised and enforced in like manner, subject to the provisions of subdivision (c) of this section, as if this chapter had not been passed.

(3) The repeal shall not have the effect of extinguishing any penalty incurred under such Acts or parts of Acts, but such Acts or parts of Acts shall remain in force for the purpose of sustaining a prosecution for enforcement of the penalty therein provided for the violation thereof.

(4) The board shall have full power and authority to complete or conclude any construction work begun in accordance with the provisions of such Acts or parts of Acts if, in the opinion of the board, the completion or conclusion thereof is for the best interests of the United States.

(c) As soon as practicable after June 5, 1920, the board shall adjust, settle, and liquidate all matters arising out of or incident to the exercise by or through the President of any of the powers or duties conferred or imposed upon the President by any such Act or parts of Acts; and for this purpose the board, instead of the President, shall have and exercise any of such powers and duties relating to the determination and payment of just compensation: Provided, That any person dissatisfied with any decision of the board shall have the same right to sue the United States as he would have had if the decision had been made by the President of the United States under the Acts hereby repealed. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 2, 41 Stat. 988.)

863. Transfer to Shipping Board of vessels and other property acquired by President.—All vessels and other property or interests of whatsoever kind, including vessels or property in course of construction or contracted for, acquired by the President through any agencies whatsoever in pursuance of authority conferred by the Acts or parts of Acts repealed by section 862, or in pursuance of the joint resolution entitled "Joint Resolution authorizing the President to take over for the United States the possession and title of any vessel within its jurisdiction, which at the time of coming therein was owned in whole or in part by any corporation, citizen, or subject of any nation with which the United States may be at war, or was under register of any such nation, and for other purposes," approved May 12, 1917, with the exception of vessels and property the use of which is, in the opinion of the President, required by any other branch of the Government service of the United States, are hereby transferred to the board: Provided, That all vessels in the military and naval service of the United States, including the vessels assigned to river and harbor work, inland waterways, or vessels for such needs in the course of construction or under contract by the War Department, shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 4, 41 Stat. 990.)

864. Sale of vessels; terms and conditions.—In order to accomplish the declared purposes of this chapter, and to carry out the policy declared in section 861 hereof, the board is authorized and directed to sell, as soon as practicable, consistent with good business methods and the objects and purposes to be attained by this chapter, at public or private competitive sale after appraisement and due advertisement, to persons who are citizens of the United States except as provided in the following section, all of the vessels referred to in the preceding section or otherwise acquired by the board. Such sale shall be made at such prices and on such terms and conditions as the board may prescribe, but the completion of the payment of the purchase price and interest shall not be deferred more than fifteen years after the making of the contract of sale. The board in fixing or accepting the sale price of such vessels shall take into consideration the prevailing domestic and foreign market price of, the available supply of, and the demand for vessels, existing freight rates and prospects of their maintenance, the cost of constructing vessels of similar types under prevailing conditions, as well as the cost of the construction or purchase price of the vessels to be sold, and any other facts or conditions that would influence a prudent, solvent business man in the sale of similar vessels or property which he is not forced to sell. All sales made under the authority of this chapter shall be subject to the limitations and restrictions of section 808. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 5, 41 Stat. 990.)

865. Sale to aliens.—The board is authorized and empowered to sell to aliens, at such prices and on such terms and conditions as it may determine, not inconsistent with the provisions of the preceding section (except that completion of the payment of the purchase price and interest shall not be deferred more than ten years after the making of the contract of sale), such vessels as it shall, after careful investigation, deem unnecessary to the promotion and maintenance of an efficient American merchant marine; but no such sale shall be made unless the board, after diligent effort, has been unable to sell, in accordance with the terms and conditions of said section, such vessels to persons citizens of the United States, and has, upon an affirmative vote of not less than five of its members, spread upon the minutes of the board, determined to make such sale; and it shall make as a part of its records a full statement of its reasons for making such sale. Deferred payments of purchase price of vessels under this section shall bear interest at the rate of not less than 5½ per centum per annum, payable semiannually. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 6, 41 Stat. 991.)

866. Establishment and operation of steamship lines between ports of United States.—Investigation and determination by board.—The board is authorized and directed to investigate and determine as promptly as possible after June 5, 1920, and from time to time thereafter what steamship lines should be established and put in operation from ports in the United States or any Territory, District, or possession thereof to such world and domestic markets as in its judgment are desirable for the promotion, development, expansion, and maintenance of the foreign and coastwise trade of the United States and an adequate postal service, and to determine the type, size, speed, and other requirements of the vessels to be employed upon such lines and the frequency and regularity of their sailings, with a view to furnishing adequate, regular, certain, and permanent service.

Sale or charter of vessels.—The board is authorized to sell, and if a satisfactory sale can not be made, to charter such of the vessels referred to in section 863, or otherwise acquired by the board, as will meet these requirements to responsible persons who are citizens of the United States who agree to establish and maintain such lines upon such terms of payment and other conditions as the board may deem just and necessary to secure and maintain the service desired; and if any such steamship line is deemed desirable and necessary, and if no such citizen can be secured to supply such service by the purchase or charter of vessels on terms satisfactory to the board, the board shall operate vessels on such line until the business is developed so that such vessels may be sold on satisfactory terms and the service maintained, or unless it shall appear within a reasonable time that such line can not be made self-sustaining.

Contracts for carrying mails.—The Postmaster General is authorized, notwithstanding sections 657 to 665, inclusive, of Title 39, Postal Service, to contract for the carrying of the mails over such lines at such price as may be agreed upon by the board and the Postmaster General.

Preference in sales or charters.—Preference in the sale or assignment of vessels for operation on such steamship lines shall be given to persons who are citizens of the United States who have the support, financial and otherwise, of the domestic communities primarily interested in such lines if the board is satisfied of the ability of such persons to maintain the service desired and proposed to be maintained, or to persons who are citizens of the United States who may then be maintaining a service from the port of the United States to or in the general direction of the world-market port to which the board has determined that such service should be established.

Lines established by board; continued operation.—Where steamship lines and regular service have been established and are being maintained by ships of the board on June 5, 1920, such lines and service shall be maintained by the board until, in the opinion of the board, the maintenance thereof is unbusinesslike and against the public interests.

Additional lines established by board; rates and charges.—Whenever the board shall determine, as provided in this chapter, that trade conditions warrant the establishment of a service or additional service under Government administration where a service is already being given by persons, citizens of the United States, the rates and charges for such Government service shall not be less than the cost thereof, including a proper interest and depreciation charge on the value of Government vessels and equipment employed therein. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 7, 41 Stat. 992.)

867. Investigation of port, terminal, and warehouse facilities.—It shall be the duty of the board, in cooperation with the Secretary of War, with the object of promoting, encouraging, and developing ports and transportation facilities in connection with water commerce over which it has jurisdiction, to investigate territorial regions and zones tributary to such ports, taking into consideration the economies of transportation by rail, water, and highway and the natural direction of the flow of commerce; to investigate the causes of the congestion of commerce at ports and the remedies applicable thereto; to investigate the subject of water terminals, including the necessary docks, warehouses, apparatus, equipment, and appliances in connection therewith, with a view to devising and suggesting the types most appropriate for different locations and for the most expeditious and economical transfer or interchange of passengers or property between carriers by water and carriers by rail; to advise with communities regarding the appropriate location and plan of construction of wharves, piers, and water terminals; to investigate the practicability and advantages of harbor, river, and port improvements in connection with foreign and coastwise trade; and to investigate any other matter that may tend to promote and encourage the use by vessels of ports adequate to care for the freight which would naturally pass through such ports: Provided, That if after such investigation the board shall be of the opinion that rates, charges, rules, or regulations of common carriers by rail subject to the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission are detrimental to the declared object of this section, or that new rates, charges, rules, or regulations, new or additional port terminal facilities, or affirmative action on the part of such common carriers by rail is necessary to promote the objects of this section, the board may submit its findings to the Interstate Commerce Commission for such action as such commission may consider proper under existing law. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 8, 41 Stat. 992.)

868. Vessels sold under deferred payment plan; insurance.—If the terms and conditions of any sale of a vessel made under the provisions of this chapter include deferred payments of the purchase price, the board shall require, as part of such terms and conditions, that the purchaser of the vessel shall keep the same insured (a) against loss or damage by fire, and against marine risks and disasters, and war and other risks if the board so specifies, with such insurance companies, associations or underwriters, and under such forms of policies, and to such an amount, as the board may prescribe or approve; and (b) by protection and indemnity insurance with such insurance companies, associations, or underwriters and under such forms of policies, and to such an amount as the board may prescribe or approve. The insurance required to be carried under this section shall be made payable to the board and/or to the parties as interest may appear. The board is authorized to enter into any agreement that it deems wise in respect to the payment and/or the guarantee of premiums of insurance. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 9, 41 Stat. 992.)

869. Creation of fund for insurance of interests of United States.—The board may create out of net revenue from operations and sales, and maintain and administer, a separate insurance fund, which it may use to insure in whole or in part, against all hazards commonly covered by insurance policies in such cases, any interest of the United States (1) in any vessel, either constructed or in process of construction, and (2) in any plants or materials heretofore or hereafter acquired by the board or hereby transferred to the board. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 10, 41 Stat. 992.)

870. Construction loan fund; use of.—(a) During a period of five years from June 5, 1920, the board may annually set aside out of the revenues from sales and operations a sum not exceeding $25,000,000, to be known as its construction loan fund. The board may use such fund to the extent it thinks proper, upon such terms as the board may prescribe, in making loans to aid persons citizens of the United States in the construction by them in private shipyards or navy yards of the United States of vessels of the best and most efficient type for the establishment or maintenance of service on lines deemed desirable or necessary by the board, provided such vessels shall be fitted and equipped with the most modern, the most efficient, and the most economical engines, machinery, and commercial appliances or, in the outfitting and equipment by them in private shipyards or navy yards of the United States of vessels already built, with engines, machinery, and commercial appliances of the type and kind mentioned.

(b) The term "vessel" or "vessels," where used in this section, shall be construed to mean a vessel or vessels to aid in whose construction or equipment a loan is made from the construction loan fund of the board. All such vessels shall be documented under the laws of the United States and shall remain documented under such laws for not less than five years from the date the loan is made; and, so long as there remains due the United States any principal or interest on account of such loan.

(c) No loan shall be made for a longer time than fifteen years. If it is not to be repaid within two years from the date when the first advance on the loan is made by the board, the principal shall be payable in installments to be definitely prescribed in the instruments. Such installments shall be made payable at intervals not exceeding two years; and in amounts not less than 6 per centum of the original amount of the loan, if the installments are payable at intervals of one year or less; and in amounts not less than 12 per centum of the original amount of the loan, if the installments are at intervals exceeding one year in length. The loan may be paid at any time, on thirty days written notice to the board, with interest computed to date of payment.

(d) All such loans shall bear interest at rates to be fixed by the board, payable not less frequently than annually. During any interest period in which the vessel is operated exclusively in coastwise trade, or is inactive, the rate of interest shall be not less than 5¼ per centum per annum. During any interest period in which the vessel is operated in foreign trade, the rate shall be not less than 4¼ per centum per annum. The board may prescribe rules for determining the amount of interest payable under the provisions of this paragraph.

(e) No loan shall be for a greater sum than one-half the cost of the vessel or vessels to be constructed; or, than one-half the cost of the equipment hereinbefore authorized for a vessel already built: Provided, however, If security is furnished in addition to the mortgage on the vessel or vessels, the board may increase the amount loaned, but such additional amount shall not exceed one-half the market value of the additional security furnished, and in no case shall the total loan be for a greater sum than two-thirds of the cost of the vessel or vessels to be constructed; or, than two-thirds of the cost of the equipment, and its installation, for vessels already built.

(f) The board shall require such security as it shall deem necessary to insure the completion of the construction or equipment of the vessel within a reasonable time and the repayment of the loan with interest; when the vessel is completed the security shall include a preferred mortgage on the vessel, complying with the provisions of the following chapter, which mortgage shall contain appropriate covenants and provisions to insure the proper physical maintenance of the vessel, and its protection against liens for taxes, penalties, claims, or liabilities of any kind whatever, which might impair the security for the debt. It shall also contain any other covenants and provisions the board may prescribe, including a provision for the summary maturing of the entire debt, for causes to be enumerated in the mortgage.

(g) The board shall also require and the security furnished shall provide that the owner of the vessel shall keep the same insured against loss or damage by fire, and against marine risks and disasters, and against any and all other insurable risks the board specifies, with such insurance companies, associations or underwriters, and under such forms of policies, and to such an amount, as the board may prescribe or approve; such insurance shall be made payable to the board and/or to the parties, as interest may appear. The board is authorized to enter into any agreement that it deems wise in respect to the payment and for the guarantee of premiums of insurance. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 11, 41 Stat. 993; June 6, 1924, c. 273, § 1, 43 Stat. 467.)

871. Repair and operation of vessels until sale.—All vessels may be reconditioned and kept in suitable repair and until sold shall be managed and operated by the board or chartered or leased by it on such terms and conditions as the board shall deem wise for the promotion and maintenance of an efficient merchant marine, pursuant to the policy and purposes declared in sections 861 and 864; and the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation shall continue in existence and have authority to operate vessels, unless otherwise directed by law, until all vessels are sold in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, the provision in section 810 to the contrary notwithstanding.

The term "reconditioned" as used in this section includes the substitution of the most modern, most efficient, and most economical types of internal-combustion engines as the main propulsive power of vessels. Should the board have any such engines built in the United States and installed, in private shipyards or navy yards of the United States, in one or more merchant vessels owned by the United States, and the cost to the board of such installation exceeds the amount of funds otherwise available to it for that use, the board may transfer to its funds from which expenditures under this section may be paid, from its construction loan fund authorized by section 870, so much as in its judgment may be necessary to meet obligations under contracts for such installation; and the Treasurer of the United States shall, at the request of the board, make the transfer accordingly: Provided, That the total amount expended by the board for this purpose shall not in the aggregate exceed $25,000,000. Any such vessel so equipped by the board under the provisions of this section shall not be sold for a period of five years from the date the installation thereof is completed, unless it is sold for a price not less than the cost of the installation thereof and of any other work of reconditioning done at the same time plus an amount not less than $10 for each dead-weight ton of the vessel as computed before such reconditioning thereof is commenced. The date of the completion of such installation and the amount of the dead-weight tonnage of the vessel shall be fixed by the board: Provided further, That in fixing the minimum price at which the vessel may thus be sold the board may deduct from the aggregate amount above prescribed 5 per centum thereof per annum from the date of the installation to the date of sale as depreciation: And provided further, That no part of such fund shall be expended upon the reconditioning of any vessel unless the board shall have first made a binding contract for a satisfactory sale of such vessel in accordance with the provisions of this and the following chapter, or for the charter or lease of such vessels for a period of not less than five years by a capable, solvent operator; or unless the board is prepared and intends to directly put such vessel in operation immediately upon completion. Such vessel, in any of the enumerated instances, shall be documented under the laws of the United States and shall remain documented under such laws for a period of not less than five years from the date of the completion of the installation, and during such period it shall be operated only on voyages which are not exclusively coastwise. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 12, 41 Stat. 993; June 6, 1924, c. 273, § 2, 43 Stat. 468.)

872. Sale of property other than vessels.—The board is further authorized to sell all property other than vessels transferred to it under section 863 upon such terms and conditions as the board may determine and prescribe. (June 5, 1920, c. (250, § 13, 41 Stat. 993.)

873. Use and disposition of net proceeds derived from authorized activities; withdrawal of investments.—The net proceeds derived by the board prior to July 1, 1921, from any activities authorized by this chapter, or by the preceding chapter, or by the acts specified in section 862, except such an amount as the board shall deem necessary to withhold as operating capital, for the purposes of section 871, and for the insurance fund authorized in section 869, and for the construction loan fund authorized in section 870, shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the board and may be expended by it, within the limits of the amounts heretofore or hereafter authorized, for the construction, requisitioning, or purchasing of vessels. After July 1, 1921, such net proceeds, less such an amount as may be authorized annually by Congress to be withheld as operating capital, and less such sums as may be needed for such insurance and construction loan funds, shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts. The board shall, as rapidly as it deems advisable, withdraw investment of Government funds made during the emergency under the authority conferred by the Acts or parts of Acts repealed by section 862 and cover the net proceeds thereof into the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 14, 41 Stat. 993.)

874. Authority in respect to housing privileges for employees terminated.—All authorization to purchase, build, requisition, lease, exchange, or otherwise acquire houses, buildings or land under the Act entitled "An Act to authorize and empower the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation to purchase, lease, requisition, or otherwise acquire, and to sell or otherwise dispose of improved or unimproved lands, houses, buildings, and for other purposes," approved March 1, 1918, is hereby terminated: Provided, however, That expenditures may be made under said Act for the repair of houses and buildings already constructed, and the completion of such houses or buildings as had been contracted for prior to June 5, 1920, or were on that date under construction, if considered advisable, and the board is authorized and directed to dispose of all such properties or the interest of the United States in all such properties at as early a date as practicable, consistent with good business and the best interests of the United States. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 16, 41 Stat. 994.)

875. Possession and control of terminal equipment and facilities.—The board is authorized and directed to take over on January 1, 1921, the possession and control of, and to maintain and develop all docks, piers, warehouses, wharves and terminal equipment and facilities, including all leasehold easements, rights of way, riparian rights and other rights, estates and interests therein or appurtenant thereto, acquired by the President by or under the Act entitled "An Act making appropriations to supply urgent deficiencies in appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1918, and prior fiscal years, on account of war expenses, and for other purposes," approved March 28, 1918.

The possession and control of such other docks, piers, warehouses, wharves and terminal equipment and facilities or parts thereof, including all leasehold easements, rights of way, riparian rights and other rights, estates or interests therein or appurtenant thereto which were acquired by the War Department or the Navy Department for military or naval purposes during the war emergency may be transferred by the President to the board whenever the President deems such transfer to be for the best interests of the United States.

The President may at any time he deems it necessary, by order setting out the need therefor and fixing the period of such need, permit or transfer the possession and control of any part of the property taken over by or transferred to the board under this section to the War Department or the Navy Department for their needs, and when in the opinion of the President such need therefor ceases the possession and control of such property shall revert to the board. None of such property shall be sold except as may be provided by law. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 17, 41 Stat. 994.)

876. Power of board to make rules and regulations.—(1) The board is authorized and directed in aid of the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter.

(a) To make all necessary rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this chapter;

(b) To make rules and regulations affecting shipping in the foreign trade not in conflict with law in order to adjust or meet general or special conditions unfavorable to shipping in the foreign trade, whether in any particular trade or upon any particular route or in commerce generally and which arise out of or result from foreign laws, rules, or regulations or from competitive methods or practices employed by owners, operators, agents, or masters of vessels of a foreign country; and

(c) To request the head of any department, board, bureau, or agency of the Government to suspend, modify, or annul rules or regulations which have been established by such department, board, bureau, or agency, or to make new rules or regulations affecting shipping in the foreign trade other than such rules or regulations relating to the Public Health Service, the Consular Service, and the Steamboat Inspection Service.

(2) No rule or regulation shall be established by any department, board, bureau, or agency of the Government which affect shipping in the foreign trade, except rules or regulations affecting the Public Health Service, the Consular Service, and the Steamboat Inspection Service, until such rule or regulation has been submitted to the board for its approval and final action has been taken thereon by the board or the President.

(3) Whenever the head of any department, board, bureau, or agency of the Government refuses to suspend, modify, or annul any rule or regulation, or make a new rule or regulation upon request of the board, as provided in subdivision (c) of paragraph (1) of this section, or objects to the decision of the board in respect to the approval of any rule or regulation, as provided in paragraph (2) of this section, either the board or the head of the department, board, bureau, or agency which has established or is attempting to establish the rule or regulation in question may submit the facts to the President, who is authorized to establish or suspend, modify, or annul such rule or regulation.

(4) No rule or regulation shall be established which in any manner gives vessels owned by the United States any preference or favor over those vessels documented under the laws of the United States and owned by persons who are citizens of the United States. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 19, 41 Stat. 995.)

877. Coastwise laws extended to island Territories and possessions.—From and after February 1, 1922, the coastwise laws of the United States shall extend to the island Territories and possessions of the United States not covered thereby on June 5, 1920, and the board is directed prior to the expiration of such year to have established adequate steamship service at reasonable rates to accommodate the commerce and the passenger travel of said islands and to maintain and operate such service until it can be taken over and operated and maintained upon satisfactory terms by private capital and enterprise: Provided, That if adequate shipping service is not established by February 1, 1922, the President shall extend the period herein allowed for the establishment of such service in the case of any island Territory or possession for such time as may be necessary for the establishment of adequate shipping facilities therefor: Provided further, That until Congress shall have authorized the registry as vessels of the United States of vessels owned in the Philippine Islands, the government of the Philippine Islands is authorized to adopt, from time to time, and enforce regulations governing the transportation of merchandise and passengers between ports or places in the Philippine Archipelago: And provided further, That the foregoing provisions of this section shall not take effect with reference to the Philippine Islands until the President of the United States after a full investigation of the local needs and conditions shall, by proclamation, declare that an adequate shipping service has been established as herein provided and fix a date for the going into effect of the same. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 21, 41 Stat. 997.)

878. Deductions allowed owners of documented vessels of United States for income and excess-profits tax purposes.—The owner of a vessel documented under the laws of the United States and operated in foreign trade shall, for each of the ten taxable years while so operated, beginning with the first taxable year ending after June 5, 1920, be allowed as a deduction for the purpose of ascertaining his net income subject to the war-profits and excess-profits taxes imposed by Title III of the Revenue Act of 1918 an amount equivalent to the net earnings of such vessel during such taxable year, determined in accordance with rules and regulations to be made by the board: Provided, That such owner shall not be entitled to such deduction unless during such taxable year he invested, or set aside under rules and regulations to be made by the board in a trust fund for investment, in the building in shipyards in the United States of new vessels of a type and kind approved by the board, an amount, to be determined by the Secretary of the Treasury and certified by him to the board, equivalent to the war-profits and excess-profits taxes that would have been payable by such owner on account of the net earnings of such vessels but for the deduction allowed under the provisions of this section: Provided further, That at least two-thirds of the cost of any vessel constructed under this paragraph shall be paid for out of the ordinary funds or capital of the person having such vessel constructed. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 23, 41 Stat. 997.)

879. Exemption from income taxes on sales of documented vessels.—During the period of ten years from June 5, 1920, any person a citizen of the United States who may sell a vessel documented under the laws of the United States and built prior to January 1, 1914, shall be exempt from all income taxes that would be payable upon any of the proceeds of such sale under Title I, Title II, and Title III of the Revenue Act of 1918 if the entire proceeds thereof shall be invested in the building of new ships in American shipyards, such ships to be documented under the laws of the United States and to be of a type approved by the board. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 23, 41 Stat. 998.)

880. United States mails carried on American-built documented vessels.—All mails of the United States shipped or carried on vessels shall, if practicable, be shipped or carried on American-built vessels documented under the laws of the United States. No contract made after June 5, 1920, with the Postmaster General for carrying mails on vessels so built and documented shall be assigned or sublet, and no mails covered by such contract shall be carried on any vessel not so built and documented. No money shall be paid out of the Treasury of the United States on or in relation to any such contract for carrying mails on vessels so built and documented when such contract has been assigned or sublet or when mails covered by such contract are in violation of the terms thereof carried on any vessel not so built and documented. The board and the Postmaster General, in aid of the development of a merchant marine adequate to provide for the maintenance and expansion of the foreign or coastwise trade of the United States and of a satisfactory postal service in connection therewith, shall from time to time determine the just and reasonable rate of compensation to be paid for such service, and the Postmaster General is authorized to enter into contracts within the limits of appropriations made therefor by Congress to pay for the carrying of such mails in such vessels at such rate. Nothing herein shall be affected by sections 657 to 665, inclusive, of Title 39, Postal Service. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 24, 41 Stat. 998.)

881. Classification of vessels by American Bureau of Shipping.—For the classification of vessels owned by the United States, and for such other purposes in connection therewith as are the proper functions of a classification bureau, all departments, boards, bureaus, and commissions of the Government are hereby directed to recognize the American Bureau of Shipping as their agency so long as the American Bureau of Shipping continues to be maintained as an organization which has no capital stock and pays no dividends: Provided, That the Secretary of Commerce and the chairman of the board shall each appoint one representative who shall represent the Government upon the executive committee of the American Bureau of Shipping, and the bureau shall agree that these representatives shall be accepted by them as active members of such committee. Such representatives of the Government shall serve without any compensation, except necessary traveling expenses: Provided further, That the official list of merchant vessels published by the Government shall contain a notation clearly indicating all vessels classed by the American Bureau of Shipping. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 25, 41 Stat. 998.)

882. Number of passengers cargo vessels may carry.—Cargo vessels documented under the laws of the United States may carry not to exceed sixteen persons in addition to the crew between any ports or places in the United States or its Districts, Territories, or possessions, or between any such port or place and any foreign port, or from any foreign port to another foreign port, and such vessels shall not be held to be "passenger vessels" or "vessels carrying passengers," within the meaning of the inspection laws and the rules and regulations thereunder: Provided, That nothing herein shall be taken to exempt such vessels from the laws, rules, and regulations respecting life-saving equipment: Provided further, That when any such vessel carries persons other than the crew as herein provided for, the owner, agent, or master of the vessel shall first notify such persons of the presence on board of any dangerous articles, as defined by law, or of any other condition or circumstance which would constitute a risk of safety for passenger or crew.

The privilege bestowed by this section on vessels of the United States shall be extended in so far as the foreign trade is concerned to the cargo vessels of any nation which allows the like privilege to cargo vessels of the United States in trades not restricted to vessels under its own flag.

Failure on the part of the owner, agent, or master of the vessel to give such notice shall subject the vessel to a penalty of $500, which may be mitigated or remitted by the Secretary of Commerce upon a proper representation of the facts. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 26, 41 Stat. 998.)

883. Transportation of merchandise between points in United States in other than domestic built and documented vessels.—No merchandise shall be transported by water, or by land and water, on penalty of forfeiture thereof, between points in the United States, including Districts, Territories, and possessions thereof embraced within the coastwise laws, either directly or via a foreign port, or for any part of the transportation, in any other vessel than a vessel built in and documented under the laws of the United States and owned by persons who are citizens of the United States, or vessels to which the privilege of engaging in the coastwise trade is extended by sections 13 or 808: Provided, That this section shall not apply to merchandise transported between points within the continental United States, excluding Alaska, over through routes recognized by the Interstate Commerce Commission for which routes rate tariffs have been or shall be filed with said commission when such routes are in part over Canadian rail lines and their own or other connecting water facilities: Provided further, That this section shall not become effective upon the Yukon River until the Alaska Railroad shall be completed and the Shipping Board shall find that proper facilities will be furnished for transportation by persons citizens of the United States for properly handling the traffic. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 27, 41 Stat. 999.)

884. Charges for transportation subject to "Interstate Commerce Act."—No common carrier shall charge, collect, or receive, for transportation subject to chapter 1, of Title 49, TRANSPORTATION, of persons or property, under any joint rate, fare, or charge, or under any export, import, or other proportional rate, fare, or charge, which is based in whole or in part on the fact that the persons or property affected thereby is to be transported to, or has been transported from, any port in a possession or dependency of the United States, or in a foreign country, by a carrier by water in foreign commerce, any lower rate, fare, or charge than that charged, collected, or received by it for the transportation of persons, or of a like kind of property, for the same distance, in the same direction, and over the same route, in connection with commerce wholly within the United States, unless the vessel so transporting such persons or property is, or unless it was at the time of such transportation by water, documented under the laws of the United States. Whenever the board is of the opinion, however, that adequate shipping facilities to or from any port in a possession or dependency of the United States or a foreign country are not afforded by vessels so documented, it shall certify this fact to the Interstate Commerce Commission, and the commission may, by order, suspend the operation of the provisions of this section with respect to the rates, fares, and charges for the transportation by rail of persons and property transported from, or to be transported, to such ports, for such length of time and under such terms and conditions as it may prescribe in such order, or in any order supplemental thereto. Such suspension of operation of the provisions of this section may be terminated by order of the commission whenever the board is of the opinion that adequate shipping facilities by such vessels to such ports are afforded and shall so certify to the commission. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 28, 41 Stat. 999.)

885. Definitions; construction of antitrust laws.—(a) Whenever used in this section—

(1) The term "association" means any association, exchange, pool, combination, or other arrangement for concerted action; and

(2) The term "marine insurance companies" means any persons, companies, or associations, authorized to write marine insurance or reinsurance under the laws of the United States or of a State, Territory, District, or possession thereof.

(b) Nothing contained in the "antitrust laws" as designated in section 12 of chapter 1, of Title 15, COMMERCE AND TRADE, shall be construed as declaring illegal an association entered into by marine insurance companies for the following purposes: To transact a marine insurance and reinsurance business in the United States and in foreign countries and to reinsure or otherwise apportion among its membership the risks undertaken by such association or any of the component members. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 29, 41 Stat. 1000.)

886. Powers of board; how exercised.—The power and authority vested in the board by this and the following chapter, except as herein otherwise specifically provided, may be exercised directly by the board, or by it through the United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 35, 41 Stat. 1007.)

887. Partial invalidity of chapter.—If any provision of this and the following chapter is declared unconstitutional or the application of any provision to certain circumstances be held invalid, the remainder of such chapters and the application of such provisions to circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid shall not be affected thereby. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 36, 41 Stat. 1007.)

888. Definitions.—When used in this and the following chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the terms "person," "vessel," "documented under the laws of the United States," and "citizen of the United States" shall have the meaning assigned to them by sections 801, 802, and 803 of the preceding chapter, as amended by this and the following chapter; the term "board" means the United States Shipping Board; and the term "alien" means any person not a citizen of the United States. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 37, 41 Stat. 1008.)

889. "Merchant Marine Act."—The Act of June 5, 1920, chapter 250, may be cited as the "Merchant Marine Act, 1920." (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 39, 41 Stat. 1008.)

DEFINITIONS

Section 911. Words and terms used in chapter.—When used in this chapter—

(1) The term "document" includes registry and enrollment and license;

(2) The term "documented" means registered or enrolled or licensed under the laws of the United States, whether permanently or temporarily;

(3) The term "port of documentation" means the port at which the vessel is documented, in accordance with law;

(4) The term "vessel of the United States" means any vessel documented under the laws of the United States and such vessel shall be held to continue to be so documented until its documents are surrendered with the approval of the board; and

(5) The term "mortgagee," in the case of a mortgage involving a trust deed and a bond issue thereunder, means the trustee designated in such deed. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. B, 41 Stat. 1000.)

RECORDING OF SALES, CONVEYANCES, AND MORTGAGES OF VESSELS OF THE UNITED STATES

921. Sale, conveyance, or mortgage of vessel of United States; record.—(a) No sale, conveyance, or mortgage which, at the time such sale, conveyance, or mortgage is made, includes a vessel of the United States, or any portion thereof, as the whole or any part of the property sold, conveyed, or mortgaged shall be valid, in respect to such vessel, against any person other than the grantor or mortgagor, his heir or devisee, and a person having actual notice thereof, until such bill of sale, conveyance, or mortgage is recorded in the office of the collector of customs of the port of documentation of such vessel, as provided in subdivision (b) of this subsection.

(b) Such collector of customs shall record bills of sale, conveyances, and mortgages, delivered to him, in the order of their reception, in books to be kept for that purpose and indexed to show—

(1) The name of the vessel;

(2) The names of the parties to the sale, conveyance, or mortgage;

(3) The time and date of reception of the instrument;

(4) The interest in the vessel so sold, conveyed, or mortgaged; and

(5) The amount and date of maturity of the mortgage. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. C, 41 Stat. 1000.)

922. Preferred mortgages.—(a) A valid mortgage which, at the time it is made includes the whole of any vessel of the United States of 200 gross tons and upward, shall in addition have, in respect to such vessel and as of the date of the compliance with all the provisions of this subdivision, the preferred status given by the provisions of subsection M, section 953, if—

(1) The mortgage is indorsed upon the vessel's documents in accordance with the provisions of this chapter;

(2) The mortgage is recorded as provided in subsection C, section 921, together with the time and date when the mortgage is so indorsed;

(3) An affidavit is filed with the record of such mortgage to the effect that the mortgage is made in good faith and without any design to hinder, delay, or defraud any existing or future creditor of the mortgagor or any lienor of the mortgaged vessel;

(4) The mortgage does not stipulate that the mortgagee waives the preferred status thereof; and

(5) The mortgagee is a citizen of the United States.

(b) Any mortgage which complies in respect to any vessel with the conditions enumerated in this subsection is hereafter in this chapter called a "preferred mortgage" as to such vessel.

(c) There shall be indorsed upon the documents of a vessel covered by a preferred mortgage—

(1) The names of the mortgagor and mortgagee;

(2) The time and date the indorsement is made;

(3) The amount and date of maturity of the mortgage; and

(4) Any amount required to be indorsed by the provisions of subdivision (e) or (f) of this subsection.

(d) Such indorsement shall be made (1) by the collector of customs of the port of documentation of the mortgaged vessel, or (2) by the collector of customs of any port in which the vessel is found, if such collector is directed to make the indorsement by the collector of customs of the port of documentation; and no clearance shall be issued to the vessel until such indorsement is made. The collector of customs of the port of documentation shall give such direction by wire or letter at the request of the mortgagee and upon the tender of the cost of communication of such direction. Whenever any new document is issued for the vessel, such indorsement shall be transferred to and indorsed upon the new document by the collector of customs.

(e) A mortgage which includes property other than a vessel shall not be held a preferred mortgage unless the mortgage provides for the separate discharge of such property by the payment of a specified portion of the mortgage indebtedness. If a preferred mortgage so provides for the separate discharge, the amount of the portion of such payment shall be indorsed upon the documents of the vessel.

(f) If a preferred mortgage includes more than one vessel and provides for the separate discharge of each vessel by the payment of a portion of the mortgage indebtedness, the amount of such portion of such payment shall be indorsed upon the documents of the vessel. In case such mortgage does not provide for the separate discharge of a vessel and the vessel is to be sold upon the order of a district court of the United States in a suit in rem in admiralty, the court shall determine the portion of the mortgage indebtedness increased by 20 per centum (1) which, in the opinion of the court, the approximate value of the vessel bears to the approximate value of all the vessels covered by the mortgage, and (2) upon the payment of which the vessel shall be discharged from the mortgage. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. D, 41 Stat. 1000.)

923. Certified copies of mortgage; exhibition.—The collector of customs upon the recording of a preferred mortgage shall deliver two certified copies thereof to the mortgagor who shall place, and use due diligence to retain, one copy on board the mortgaged vessel and cause such copy and the documents of the vessel to be exhibited by the master to any person having business with the vessel, which may give rise to a maritime lien upon the vessel or to the sale, conveyance, or mortgage thereof. The master of the vessel shall, upon the request of any such person, exhibit to him the documents of the vessel and the copy of any preferred mortgage of the vessel placed on board thereof. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. E, 41 Stat. 1001.)

924. Prior and subsequent maritime liens on mortgaged vessel.—The mortgagor (1) shall, upon request of the mortgagee, disclose in writing to him prior to the execution of any preferred mortgage, the existence of any maritime lien, prior mortgage, or other obligation or liability upon the vessel to be mortgaged, that is known to the mortgagor, and (2), without the consent of the mortgagee, shall not incur, after the execution of such mortgage and before the mortgagee has had a reasonable time in which to record the mortgage and have indorsements in respect thereto made upon the documents of the vessel, any contractual obligation creating a lien upon the vessel other than a lien for wages of stevedores when employed directly by the owner, operator, master, ship's husband, or agent of the vessel, for wages of the crew of the vessel, for general average, or for salvage, including contract salvage, in respect to the vessel. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. F, 41 Stat. 1002.)

925. Record of notice of claim of lien on mortgaged vessel; discharge of lien.—(a) The collector of customs of the port of documentation shall upon the request of any person, record notice of his claim of a lien upon a vessel covered by a preferred mortgage, together with the nature, date of creation, and amount of the lien, and the name and address of the person. Any person who has caused notice of his claim of lien to be so recorded shall, upon a discharge in whole or in part of the indebtedness, forthwith file with the collector of customs a certificate of such discharge. The collector of customs shall thereupon record the certificate.

(b) The mortgagor upon a discharge in whole or in part of the mortgage indebtedness, shall forthwith file with the collector of customs for the port of documentation of the vessel, a certificate of such discharge. Such collector of customs shall thereupon record the certificate. In case of a vessel covered by a preferred mortgage, the collector of customs at the port of documentation shall (1) indorse upon the documents of the vessel, or direct the collector of customs at any port in which the vessel is found, to so indorse, the fact of such discharge, and (2) shall deny clearance to the vessel until such indorsement is made. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. G, 41 Stat. 1002.)

926. Conditions precedent to record; interest on preferred mortgage.—(a) No bill of sale, conveyance, or mortgage shall be recorded unless it states the interest of the grantor or mortgagor in the vessel, and the interest so sold, conveyed, or mortgaged.

(b) No bill of sale, conveyance, mortgage, notice of claim of lien, or certificate of discharge thereof, shall be recorded unless previously acknowledged before a notary public or other officer authorized by a law of the United States, or of a State, Territory, District, or possession thereof, to take acknowledgment of deeds.

(c) In case of a change in the port of documentation of a vessel of the United States, no bill of sale, conveyance, or mortgage shall be recorded at the new port of documentation unless there is furnished to the collector of customs of such port, together with the copy of the bill of sale, conveyance, or mortgage to be recorded, a certified copy of the record of the vessel at the former port of documentation furnished by the collector of such port. The collector of customs at the new port of documentation is authorized and directed to record such certified copy.

(d) A preferred mortgage may bear such rate of interest as is agreed by the parties thereto. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. H, 41 Stat. 1002.)

927. Inspection of and copies from records; fees.—Each collector of customs shall permit records made under the provisions of this chapter to be inspected during office hours, under such reasonable regulations as the collector may establish. Upon the request of any person the collector of customs shall furnish him from the records of the collector's office (1) a certificate setting forth the names of the owners of any vessel, the interest held by each owner, and the material facts as to any bill of sale or conveyance of, any mortgage covering, or any lien or other incumbrance upon, a specified vessel, (2) a certified copy of any bill of sale, conveyance, mortgage, notice of claim of lien, or certificate of discharge in respect to such vessel, or (3) a certified copy as required by subdivision (c) of subsection H, section 926. The collector of customs shall collect a fee for any bill of sale, conveyance, or mortgage recorded, or any certificate or certified copy furnished, by him, in the amount of 20 cents a folio with a minimum charge of $1. All such fees shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. D, 41 Stat. 1002.)

PENALTIES

941. Failure of master to exhibit documents; unlawful acts by mortgagor; liability of collector of customs.—(a) If the master of the vessel willfully fails to exhibit the documents of the vessel or the copy of any preferred mortgage thereof, as required by subsection E, the board of local inspectors of vessels having jurisdiction of the license of the master, may suspend or cancel such license, subject to the provisions of sections 431 to 434, inclusive.

(b) A mortgagor who, with intent to defraud, violates any provision of subsection F, section 924, and if the mortgagor is a corporation or association, the president or other principal executive officer of the corporation or association, shall upon conviction thereof be held guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than two years, or both. The mortgaged indebtedness shall thereupon become immediately due and payable at the election of the mortgagee.

(c) If any person enters into any contract secured by, or upon the credit of, a vessel of the United States covered by a preferred mortgage, and suffers pecuniary loss by reason of the failure of the collector of customs, or any officer, employee, or agent thereof, properly to perform any duty required of the collector under the provisions of this chapter, the collector of customs shall be liable to such person for damages in the amount of such loss. If any such person is caused any such loss by reason of the failure of the mortgagor, or master of the mortgaged vessel, or any officer, employee, or agent thereof, to comply with any provision of subsection E or F, section 923 or 924, or to file an affidavit as required by subdivision (a) of subsection D, section 922, correct in each particular thereof, the mortgagor shall be liable to such person for damages in the amount of such loss. The district courts of the United States are given jurisdiction (but not to the exclusion of the courts of the several States, Territories, Districts, or possessions) of suits for the recovery of such damages, irrespective of the amount involved in the suit or the citizenship of the parties thereto. Such suit shall be begun by personal service upon the defendant within the limits of the district. Upon judgment for the plaintiff in any such suit, the court shall include in the judgment an additional amount for costs of the action and a reasonable counsel's fee, to be fixed by the court. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. J, 41 Stat. 1003.)

FORECLOSURE OF PREFERRED MORTGAGES

951. Lien of preferred mortgage; foreclosure; jurisdiction; procedure.—A preferred mortgage shall constitute a lien upon the mortgaged vessel in the amount of the outstanding mortgage indebtedness secured by such vessel. Upon the default of any term or condition of the mortgage, such lien may be enforced by the mortgagee by suit in rem in admiralty. Original jurisdiction of all such suits is granted to the district courts of the United States exclusively. In addition to any notice by publication, actual notice of the commencement of any such suit shall be given by the libellant, in such manner as the court shall direct, to (1) the master, other ranking officer, or caretaker of the vessel, and (2) any person who has recorded a notice of claim of an undischarged lien upon the vessel, as provided in subsection G, section 925, unless after search by the libellant satisfactory to the court, such mortgagor, master, other ranking officer, caretaker, or claimant is not found within the United States. Failure to give notice to any such person, as required by this subsection, shall not constitute a jurisdictional defect; but the libellant shall be liable to such person for damages in the amount of his interest in the vessel terminated by the suit. Suit in personam for the recovery of such damages may be brought in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (c) of subsection J, section 941. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. K, 41 Stat. 1003.)

952. Receiver in foreclosure; possession by marshal.—In any suit in rem in admiralty for the enforcement of the preferred mortgage lien, the court may appoint a receiver and, in its discretion, authorize the receiver to operate the mortgaged vessel. The marshal may be authorized and directed by the court to take possession of the mortgaged vessel notwithstanding the fact that the vessel is in the possession or under the control of any person claiming a possessory common-law lien. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. L, 41 Stat. 1004.)

953. Preferred maritime lien; priorities; other liens.—(a) When used hereinafter in this chapter, the term "preferred maritime lien" means (1) a lien arising prior in time to the recording and indorsement of a preferred mortgage in accordance with the provisions of this chapter; or (2) a lien for damages arising out of tort, for wages of a stevedore when employed directly by the owner, operator, master, ship's husband, or agent of the vessel, for wages of the crew of the vessel, for general average, and for salvage, including contract salvage.

(b) Upon the sale of any mortgaged vessel by order of a district court of the United States in any suit in rem in admiralty for the enforcement of a preferred mortgage lien thereon, all preexisting claims in the vessel, including any possessory common-law lien of which a lienor is deprived under the provisions of subsection L, section 952, shall be held terminated and shall thereafter attach, in like amount and in accordance with their respective priorities, to the proceeds of the sale; except that the preferred mortgage lien shall have priority over all claims against the vessel, except (1) preferred maritime liens, and (2) expenses and fees allowed and costs taxed, by the court. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. M, 41 Stat. 1004.)

954. Suits in personam in admiralty on default.—(a) Upon the default of any term or condition of a preferred mortgage upon a vessel, the mortgagee may, in addition to all other remedies granted by this chapter, bring suit in personam in admiralty in a district court of the United States, against the mortgagor for the amount of the outstanding mortgage indebtedness secured by such vessel or any deficiency in the full payment thereof.

(b) This chapter shall not be construed, in the case of a mortgage covering, in addition to vessels, realty or personalty other than vessels, or both, to authorize the enforcement by suit in rem in admiralty of the rights of the mortgagee in respect to such realty or personalty other than vessels. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. N, 41 Stat. 1004.)

TRANSFERS OF MORTGAGED VESSELS AND ASSIGNMENT OF VESSEL MORTGAGES

961. Surrender of documents; termination of mortgagee's interest; sale of mortgaged vessel.—(a) The documents of a vessel of the United States covered by a preferred mortgage may not be surrendered (except in the case of the forfeiture of the vessel or its sale by the order of any court of the United States or any foreign country) without the approval of the board. The board shall refuse such approval unless the mortgagee consents to such surrender.

(b) The interest of the mortgagee in a vessel of the United States covered by a mortgage, shall not be terminated by the forfeiture of the vessel for a violation of any law of the United States, unless the mortgagee authorized, consented, or conspired to effect the illegal act, failure, or omission which constituted such violation.

(c) Upon the sale of any vessel of the United States covered by a preferred mortgage, by order of a district court of the United States in any suit in rem in admiralty for the enforcement of a maritime lien other than a preferred maritime lien, the vessel shall be sold free from all preexisting claims thereon; but the court shall, upon the request of the mortgagee, the libellant, or any intervenor, require the purchaser at such sale to give and the mortgagor to accept a new mortgage of the vessel for the balance of the term of the original mortgage. The conditions of such new mortgage shall be the same, so far as practicable, as those of the original mortgage and shall be subject to the approval of the court. If such new mortgage is given, the mortgagee shall not be paid from the proceeds of the sale and the amount payable as the purchase price shall be held diminished in the amount of the new mortgage indebtedness.

(d) No rights under a mortgage of a vessel of the United States shall be assigned to any person not a citizen of the United States without the approval of the board. Any assignment in violation of any provision of this chapter shall be void.

(e) No vessel of the United States shall be sold by order of a district court of the United States in any suit in rem in admiralty to any person not a citizen of the United States. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. O, 41 Stat. 1004.)

MARITIME LIENS FOR NECESSARIES

971. Persons entitled to lien.—Any person furnishing repairs, supplies, towage, use of dry dock or marine railway, or other necessaries, to any vessel, whether foreign or domestic, upon the order of the owner of such vessel, or of a person authorized by the owner, shall have a maritime lien on the vessel, which may be enforced by suit in rem, and it shall not be necessary to allege or prove that credit was given to the vessel. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. P, 41 Stat. 1005.)

972. Persons authorized to procure repairs, supplies, and necessaries.—The following persons shall be presumed to have authority from the owner to procure repairs, supplies, towage, use of dry dock or marine railway, and other necessaries for the vessel: The managing owner, ship's husband, master, or any person to whom the management of the vessel at the port of supply is intrusted. No person tortiously or unlawfully in possession or charge of a vessel shall have authority to bind the vessel. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. Q, 41 Stat. 1005.)

973. Notice to person furnishing repairs, supplies, and necessaries.—The officers and agents of a vessel specified in subsection Q, section 972, shall be taken to include such officers and agents when appointed by a charterer, by an owner pro hac vice, or by an agreed purchaser in possession of the vessel; but nothing in this chapter shall be construed to confer a lien when the furnisher knew, or by exercise of reasonable diligence could have ascertained, that because of the terms of a charter party, agreement for sale of the vessel, or for any other reason, the person ordering the repairs, supplies, or other necessaries was without authority to bind the vessel therefor. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. R, 41 Stat. 1005.)

974. Waiver of right to lien.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent the furnisher of repairs, supplies, towage, use of dry dock or marine railway, or other necessaries, or the mortgagee, from waiving his right to a lien, or in the case of a preferred mortgage lien, to the preferred status of such lien, at any time, by agreement or otherwise; and this chapter shall not be construed to affect the rules of law existing on June 5, 1920, in regard to (1) the right to proceed against the vessel for advances, (2) laches in the enforcement of liens upon vessels, (3) the right to proceed in personam, (4) the rank of preferred maritime liens among themselves, or (5) priorities between maritime liens and mortgages, other than preferred mortgages, upon vessels of the United States. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. S, 41 Stat. 1005.)

975. State statutes superseded.—This chapter shall supersede the provisions of all State statutes conferring liens on vessels, in so far as such statutes purport to create rights of action to be enforced by suits in rem in admiralty against vessels for repairs, supplies, towage, use of dry dock or marine railway, and other necessaries. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. T, 41 Stat. 1006.)

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

981. Existing mortgages not affected.—This chapter shall not apply (1) to any existing mortgage, or (2) to any mortgage hereafter placed on any vessel under an existing mortgage, on June 5, 1920, so long as such existing mortgage remains undischarged. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. U, 41 Stat. 1006.)

982. Books for collectors of customs.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized and directed to furnish collectors of customs with all necessary books and records, and with certificates of registry and of enrollment and license in such form as provides for the making of all indorsements thereon required by this chapter. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. V, 41 Stat. 1006.)

983. Rules and regulations by Secretary of Commerce.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized to make such regulations in respect to the recording and indorsing of mortgages covering vessels of the United States, as he deems necessary to the efficient execution of the provisions of this chapter. (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. W, 41 Stat. 1006.)

984. "Ship Mortgage Act."—Section 30, Act of June 5, 1920, chapter 250, may be cited as the "Ship Mortgage Act, 1920." (June 5, 1920, c. 250, § 30, subsec. A, 41 Stat. 1000.)

Sec.
1011. Port of documentation.
1012. Record at home port.
1013. Conveyances and other instruments and acts validated.
1014. Navigation laws and Ship Mortgage Act amended.

Section 1011. Port of documentation.—Whenever in the Ship Mortgage Act, 1920, otherwise known as section 30 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920, chapter 25 of this title, the words "port of documentation" are used they shall be deemed to mean the "home port" of the vessel, except that the words "port of documentation" shall not include a port in which a temporary document is issued. (Feb. 16, 1925, c. 235, § 4, 43 Stat. 948.)

1012. Record at home port.—No bill of sale, conveyance, mortgage, assignment of mortgage, or hypothecation (except bottomry), which includes a vessel of the United States or any portion thereof shall be valid in respect to such vessel against any person other than the grantor or mortgagor, his heirs or devisees, and any person having actual notice thereof, until such bill of sale, conveyance, mortgage, assignment of mortgage, or hypothecation is recorded in the office of the collector of customs at the home port of such vessel. Any bill of sale or conveyance of the whole or any part of a vessel shall be recorded at the home port of such vessel as shown in her new document. (Feb. 16, 1925, c. 235, § 2, 43 Stat. 948.)

1013. Conveyances and other instruments and acts validated.—All conveyances and mortgages of any vessel or any part thereof, and all documentations, recordations, indorsements, and indexing thereof, and proceedings incidental thereto made or done, prior to February 16, 1925, are declared valid to the extent they would have been valid if the port or ports at which said vessel has in fact been documented from time to time had been the port or ports at which it should have been documented in accordance with law; and this section is declared retroactive so as to accomplish such validations: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to deprive any person of any vested right. (Feb. 16, 1925, c. 235, § 3, 43 Stat. 948.)

1014. Navigation laws and Ship Mortgage Act amended.—All such provisions of the navigation laws of the United States and of the Ship Mortgage Act, 1920, otherwise known as section 30 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1920, chapter 25 of this title, as are in conflict with sections 18, 1011, 1012, and 1013, are amended to conform herewith. (Feb. 16, 1925, c. 235, § 5, 43 Stat. 948.)

10. Equal facilities to connecting lines; discrimination in rates.
11. Powers of Interstate Commerce Commission.
12. Interference with liens of United States.
13. Violations; punishment; action for damages.
14. Contracts filed with Interstate Commerce Commission; reports; failure to make.
15. Reservation of power to alter, amend, or repeal law; power to fix rates and purchase lines.

Section 1. Use of public domain.—Any telegraph company organized, under the laws of any State, shall have the right to construct, maintain, and operate lines of telegraph through and over any portion of the public domain of the United States over and along any of the military or post roads of the United States which have been or may hereafter be declared such by law, and over, under, or across the navigable streams or waters of the United States; but such lines of telegraph shall be so constructed and maintained as not to obstruct the navigation of such streams and waters, or interfere with the ordinary travel on such military or post roads. (R. S. § 5263.)

2. Use of materials from public lands.—Any telegraph company organized under the laws of any State shall have the right to take and use from the public lands through which its lines of telegraph may pass, the necessary stone, timber, and other materials for its posts, piers, stations, and other needful uses in the construction, maintenance, and operation of its lines of telegraph, and may preempt and use such portion of the unoccupied public lands subject to preemption through which their lines of telegraph may be located as may be necessary for their stations, not exceeding forty acres for each station; but such stations shall not be within fifteen miles of each other. (R. S. § 5264.)

3. Government priority in transmission of messages.—Telegrams between the several departments of the Government and their officers and agents, in their transmission over the lines of any telegraph company to which has been given the right of way, timber, or station lands from the public domain shall have priority over all other business, at such rates as the Postmaster General shall annually fix. And no part of any appropriation for the several departments of the Government shall be paid to any company which neglects or refuses to transmit such telegrams in accordance with the provisions of this section. (R. S. § 5266.)

4. Purchase of lines.—The United States may, for postal, military, or other purposes, purchase all the telegraph lines, property, and effects of any or all companies acting under the provisions of sections 1 to 6 of this title, at an appraised value, to be ascertained by five competent, disinterested persons, two of whom shall be selected by the Postmaster General of the United States, two by the company interested, and one by the four so previously selected. (R. S. § 5267.)

5. Acceptance of obligation to be filed.—Before any telegraph company shall exercise any of the powers or privileges conferred by law such company shall file their written acceptance with the Postmaster General of the restrictions and obligations required by law. (R. S. § 5268.)

6. Rights not transferable.—The rights and privileges granted under the provisions of sections 1 to 5 of this title shall not be transferred by any company acting thereunder to and other corporation, association, or person. (R. S. § 5265.)

7. Transmission of telegrams by railroads.—Telegrams are authorized to be transmitted by railroad companies which may have telegraph lines, and which shall file their written acceptance of the restrictions and obligations imposed on telegraph companies by sections 1 to 6 and 8 of this title, for the Government and for the general public, at rates to be fixed by the Government, according to the provisions of sections 1 to 6 and 8 of this title. (June 23, 1879, c. 35, § 1, 21 Stat. 31.)

8. Refusal to transmit dispatches.—Whenever any telegraph company, after having filed its written acceptance with the Postmaster General of the restrictions and obligations required by this section and sections 1 to 6 of this title, shall, by its agents or employees, refuse or neglect to transmit any such telegraphic communications as are provided for by law, such telegraph company shall be liable to a penalty of not less than $100 and not more than $1,000 for each such refusal or neglect, to be recovered by an action or actions at law in any district court of the United States. (R. S. § 5269; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 252.)

9. Subsidized companies required to construct and operate lines.—All railroad and telegraph companies to which the United States has granted any subsidy in lands or bonds or loan of credit for the construction of either railroad or telegraph lines, which, by the acts incorporating them, or by any act amendatory or supplementary thereto, are required to construct, maintain, or operate telegraph lines, and all companies engaged in operating said railroad or telegraph lines shall, by and through their own respective corporate officers and employees, maintain, and operate, for railroad, governmental, commercial, and all other purposes, telegraph lines, and exercise by themselves alone all the telegraph franchises conferred upon them and obligations assumed by them under the acts making the grants as aforesaid. (Aug. 7, 1888, c. 772, § 1, 25 Stat. 382.)

10. Equal facilities to connecting lines; discrimination in rates.—Whenever any telegraph company which shall have accepted the provisions of sections 1 to 6 and 8 of this title shall extend its line to any station or office of a telegraph line belonging to any one of said railroad or telegraph companies, referred to in section 9 of this title, said telegraph company so extending its line shall have the right and said railroad or telegraph company shall allow the line of said telegraph company so extending its line to connect with the telegraph line of said railroad or telegraph company to which it is extended at the place where their lines may meet, for the prompt and convenient interchange of telegraph business between said companies; and such railroad and telegraph companies, referred to in section 9 of this title, shall so operate their respective telegraph lines as to afford equal facilities to all, without discrimination in favor of or against any person, company, or corporation whatever, and shall receive, deliver, and exchange business with connecting telegraph lines on equal terms, and affording equal facilities, and without discrimination for or against any one of such connecting lines; and such exchange of business shall be on terms just and equitable. (Aug. 7, 1888, c. 772, § 2, 25 Stat. 383.)

11. Powers of Interstate Commerce Commission.—If any railroad or telegraph company referred to in section 9 of this title, or company operating such railroad or telegraph line shall refuse or fail, in whole or in part, to maintain, and operate a telegraph line as provided herein, for the use of the Government or the public, for commercial and other purposes, without discrimination, or shall refuse or fail to make or continue such arrangements for the interchange of business with any connecting telegraph company, then any person, company, corporation, or connecting telegraph company may apply for relief to the Interstate Commerce Commission, whose duty it shall thereupon be, under such rules and regulations as said commission may prescribe, to ascertain the facts, and determine and order what arrangement is proper to be made in the particular case, and the railroad or telegraph company concerned shall abide by and perform such order; and it shall be the duty of the Interstate Commerce Commission, when such determination and order are made, to notify the parties concerned, and, if necessary, enforce the same by writ of mandamus in the courts of the United States, in the name of the United States, at the relation of either of said interstate commerce commissioners. The commissioners may institute any inquiry, upon their own motion, in the same manner and to the same effect as though complaint had been made. (Aug. 7, 1888, c. 772, § 3, 25 Stat. 383.)

12. Interference with liens of United States.—In order to secure and preserve to the United States the full value and benefit of its liens upon all the telegraph lines required to be constructed by and lawfully belonging to railroad and telegraph companies referred to in section 9 of this title, and to have the same possessed, used, and operated in conformity with sections 9 to 15 of this title, it is hereby made the duty of the Attorney General of the United States, by proper proceedings, to prevent any unlawful interference with the rights and equities of the United States under all acts of Congress relating to such railroads and telegraph lines, and to have legally ascertained and finally adjudicated all alleged rights of all persons and corporations whatever claiming in any manner any control or interest of any kind in any telegraph lines or property, or exclusive rights of way upon the lands of said railroad companies, or any of them, and to have all contracts and provisions of contracts set aside and annulled which have been unlawfully and beyond their powers entered into by said railroad or telegraph companies, or any of them, with any other person, company, or corporation. (Aug. 7, 1888, c. 772, § 4, 25 Stat. 383.)

13. Violations; punishment; action for damages.—Any officer or agent of said railroad or telegraph companies, or of any company operating the railroads and telegraph lines of said companies, who shall refuse or fail to operate the telegraph lines of said railroad or telegraph companies under his control, or which he is engaged in operating, in the manner herein directed, or who shall refuse or fail, in such operation and use, to afford and secure to the Government and the public equal facilities, or to secure to each of said connecting telegraph lines equal advantages and facilities in the interchange of business, as herein provided for, without any discrimination whatever for or adverse to the telegraph line of any or either of said connecting companies, or shall refuse to abide by or perform and carry out within a reasonable time the order or orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission, shall in every such case of refusal or failure be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall in every such case be fined in a sum of not exceeding $1,000, and may be imprisoned not less than six months; and in every such case of refusal or failure the party aggrieved may not only cause the officer or agent guilty thereof to be prosecuted under the provisions of this section, but may also bring an action for the damages sustained thereby against the company whose officer or agent may be guilty thereof, in the district court of the United States in any State or Territory in which any portion of the road or telegraph line of said company may be situated; and in case of suit process may be served upon any agent of the company found in such State or Territory, and such service shall be held by the court good and sufficient. (Aug. 7, 1888, c. 772, § 5, 25 Stat. 384; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 289, 36 Stat. 1167.)

14. Contracts filed with Interstate Commerce Commission; reports; failure to make.—It shall be the duty of each and every one of the aforesaid railroad and telegraph companies annually to report to the Interstate Commerce Commission, with reasonable fullness and certainty, the nature, extent, value, and condition of the telegraph lines and property then belonging to it, the gross earnings, and all expenses of maintenance, use, and operation thereof, and its relation and business with all connecting telegraph companies during the preceding year, at such time and in such manner as may be required by a system of reports which said commission shall prescribe; and if any of said railroad or telegraph companies shall refuse or fail to make such reports or any report as may be called for by said commission, or refuse to submit its books and records for inspection, such neglect or refusal shall operate as a forfeiture, in each case of such neglect or refusal, of a sum not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, to be recovered by the Attorney General of the United States, in the name and for the use and benefit of the United States; and it shall be the duty of the Interstate Commerce Commission to inform the Attorney General of all such cases of neglect or refusal, whose duty it shall be to proceed at once to judicially enforce the forfeitures hereinbefore provided. (Aug. 7, 1888, c. 772, § 6, 25 Stat. 384.)

15. Reservation of power to alter, amend, or repeal act; power to fix rates and purchase lines.—Nothing in this section and sections 9 to 14 of this title shall be construed to affect or impair the right of Congress, at any time, to alter, amend, or repeal sections 1 to 6 and 8 of this title; and sections 9 to 15 shall be subject to alteration, amendment, or repeal as, in the opinion of Congress, justice or the public welfare may require; and nothing herein contained shall be held to deny, exclude, or impair any right or remedy in the premises existing on August 7, 1888, in the United States, or any authority that the Postmaster General on August 7, 1888, had under sections 1 to 6, and 8 to fix rates, or, of the Government, to purchase lines as provided under said sections, or to have its messages given precedence in transmission. (Aug. 7, 1888, c. 772, § 7, 25 Stat. 385.)

Section 21. Submarine cables; willful injury to; punishment.—Any person who shall willfully and wrongfully break or injure, or attempt to break or injure, or who shall in any manner procure, counsel, aid, abet, or be accessory to such breaking or injury, or attempt to break or injure, a submarine cable in such manner as to interrupt or embarrass, in whole or in part, telegraphic communication, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to a fine not exceeding $5,000, or to both fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court. (Feb. 29, 1888, c. 17, § 1, 25 Stat. 41.)

22. Same; negligent injury to; punishment.—Any person who by culpable negligence shall break or injure a submarine cable in such manner as to interrupt or embarrass, in whole or in part, telegraphic communication, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or to a fine not exceeding $500, or to both fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court. (Feb. 29, 1888, c. 17, § 2, 25 Stat. 41.)

23. Same; injury in efforts to save life excepted.—The provisions of sections 21 and 22 of this title shall not apply to a person who breaks or injures a cable in an effort to save the life or limb of himself or of any other person, or to save his own or any other vessel: Provided, That he takes reasonable precautions to avoid such breaking or injury. (Feb. 29, 1888, c. 17, § 3, 25 Stat. 41.)

24. Vessels laying cables; signals; avoidance of buoys.—The master of any vessel which, while engaged in laying or repairing submarine cables, shall fail to observe the rules concerning signals that have been or shall be adopted by the parties to the convention described in section 30 of this chapter with a view to preventing collisions at sea; or the master of any vessel that, perceiving, or being able to perceive the said signals displayed upon a telegraph ship engaged in repairing a cable, shall not withdraw to or keep at distance of at least one nautical mile; or the master of any vessel that seeing or being able to see buoys intended to mark the position of a cable when being laid or when out of order or broken, shall not keep at a distance of at least a quarter of a nautical mile, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month, or to a fine of not exceeding $500. (Feb. 29, 1888, c. 17, § 4, 25 Stat. 41.)

25. Fishing vessels; duty to keep nets from cables.—The master of any fishing vessel who shall not keep his implements or nets at a distance of at least one nautical mile from a vessel engaged in laying or repairing a cable; or the master of any fishing vessel who shall not keep his implements or nets at a distance of at least a quarter of a nautical mile from a buoy or buoys intended to mark the position of a cable when being laid or when out of order or broken, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten days, or to a fine not exceeding $250, or to both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court. Fishing vessels, on perceiving or being able to perceive the said signals displayed on a telegraph ship, shall be allowed such time as may be necessary to obey the notice thus given, not exceeding twenty-four hours, during which period no obstacle shall be placed in the way of their operations. (Feb. 29, 1888, c. 17, § 5, 25 Stat. 42.)

26. Duties of commanders of warships.—For the purpose of carrying into effect the convention described in section 30 of this title a person commanding a ship of war of the United States or of any foreign state for the time being bound by the convention, or a ship specially commissioned by the Government of the United States or by the government of such foreign state, may exercise and perform the duties with respect to requiring exhibition of documents evidencing the nationality of offending vessels and making reports of infractions vested in and imposed on such officer by the convention. (Feb. 29, 1888, c. 17, § 6, 25 Stat. 42.)

27. Offending vessels to show nationality.—Any person having the custody of the papers necessary for the preparation of the statements provided for in article 10 of the said convention with respect to reports of infractions, by officers commanding vessels of war or vessels especially commissioned, who shall refuse to exhibit them or shall violently resist persons having authority according to article 10 of said convention to draw up statements of facts in the exercise of their functions, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be liable to imprisonment not exceeding two years, or to a fine not exceeding $5,000, or to both fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court. (Feb. 29, 1888, c. 17, § 7, 25 Stat. 42.)

28. Penalties not to bar suits for damages.—The penalties provided in sections 21 to 33 of this title for the breaking or injury of a submarine cable shall not be a bar to a suit for damages on account of such breaking or injury. (Feb. 29, 1888, c. 17, § 8, 25 Stat. 42.)

29. Master of offending vessel punishable.—When an offense against sections 21 to 33 of this title shall have been committed by means of a vessel, or of any boat belonging to a vessel, the master of such vessel shall, unless some other person is shown to have been in charge of and navigating such vessel or boat, be deemed to have been in charge of and navigating the same, and be liable to be punished accordingly. (Feb. 29, 1888, c. 17, § 9, 25 Stat. 42.)

30. Definitions.—Unless the context of sections 21 to 33 of this title otherwise requires, the term "vessel" shall be taken to mean every description of vessel used in navigation, in whatever way it is propelled; the term "master" shall be taken to include every person having command or charge of a vessel; and the term "person" to include a body of persons, corporate or incorporate. The term "convention" shall be taken to mean the International Convention for the Protection of Submarine Cables, made at Paris on the 14th day of May, 1884, and proclaimed by the President of the United States on the 22d day of May, 1885. (Feb. 29, 1888, c. 17, § 10, 25 Stat. 42.)

31. Summary trials.—The provisions of chapter 8 of Title 33 shall extend to the trial of offenses against the provisions of sections 24 and 25 of this title. (Feb. 29, 1888, c. 17, § 11, 25 Stat. 42.)

32. Application.—The provisions of sections 21 to 33 of this title shall be held to apply only to cables to which the convention for the time being applies. (Feb. 29, 1888, c. 17, § 12, 25 Stat. 42.)

33. Jurisdiction and venue of offenses.—The district courts of the United States shall have jurisdiction over all offenses against sections 21 to 33 of this title and of all suits of a civil nature arising thereunder, whether the infraction complained of shall have been committed within the territorial waters of the United States or on board a vessel of the United States outside of said waters. From the decrees and judgments of the district courts in actions and suits arising under said sections appeals and writs of error shall be allowed as provided by law in other cases. Criminal actions and proceedings for a violation of the provisions of said sections shall be commenced and prosecuted in the district court for the district within which the offense was committed, and when not committed within any judicial district, then in the district court for the district within which the offender may be found; and suits of a civil nature may be commenced in the district court for any district within which the defendant may be found and shall be served with process. (Feb. 29, 1888, c. 17, § 13, 25 Stat. 42.)

34. Licenses for landing or operating cables connecting United States with foreign country; necessity for.—No person shall land or operate in the United States any submarine cable directly or indirectly connecting the United States with any foreign country, or connecting one portion of the United States with any other portion thereof, unless a written license to land or operate such cable has been issued by the President of the United States. The conditions of sections 34 to 39 of this title shall not apply to cables, all of which, including both terminals, lie wholly within the continental United States. (May 27, 1921, c. 12, § 1, 42 Stat. 8.)

35. Same; withholding or revoking by President; terms and conditions of licenses.—The President may withhold or revoke such license when he shall be satisfied after due notice and hearing that such action will assist in securing rights for the landing or operation of cables in foreign countries, or in maintaining the rights or interests of the United States or of its citizens in foreign countries, or will promote the security of the United States, or may grant such license upon such terms as shall be necessary to assure just and reasonable rates and service in the operation and use of cables so licensed. The license shall not contain terms or conditions granting to the licensee exclusive rights of landing or of operation in the United States. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit the power and jurisdiction heretofore granted the Interstate Commerce Commission with respect to the transmission of messages. (May 27, 1921, c. 12, § 2, 42 Stat. 8.)

36. Same; preventing landing or operating of cables.—The President is empowered to prevent the landing of any cable about to be landed in violation of sections 34 to 39 of this title. When any such cable is about to be or is landed or is being operated without a license, any district court of the United States exercising jurisdiction in the district in which such cable is about to be or is landed, or any district court of the United States having jurisdiction of the parties, shall have jurisdiction, at the suit of the United States, to enjoin the landing or operation of such cable or to compel, by injunction, the removal thereof. (May 27, 1921, c. 12, § 3, 42 Stat. 8.)

37. Same; violations; punishment.—Whoever knowingly commits, instigates, or assists in any act forbidden by section 34 of this title shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $5,000, or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. (May 27, 1921, c. 12, § 4, 42 Stat. 8.)

38. Same; definitions.—The term "United States" as used in sections 34 to 39 of this title includes the Canal Zone, the Philippine Islands, and all territory continental or insular, subject to the jurisdiction of the United States of America. (May 27, 1921, c. 12, § 5, 42 Stat. 8.)

39. Same; amendment, modification, etc., of rights granted.—No right shall accrue to any government, person, or corporation under the terms of sections 34 to 39 of this title that may not be rescinded, changed, modified, or amended by the Congress. (May 27, 1921, c. 12, § 6, 42 Stat. 9.)

Chapter 3.—RADIOTELEGRAPHS.

Sec.
51. License for operation.
52. Same; form; persons entitled.
53. Operators; license or temporary permits; employment of unlicensed operators.
54. Regulations; penalty for violations; temporary licenses for experiments; naval and military stations.
55. Willful or malicious interference with communication.
56. Radio communication defined.
57. Uttering or transmitting false or fraudulent signals.
58. Restriction of use on foreign ships.
59. Jurisdiction of offenses.
60. Inapplicability to Philippines.
61. Government-owned radio stations and apparatus; use for official business.
62. Same; use for other than official business; rates.
63. Same; sections applicable.

Section 51. License for operation.—A person, company, or corporation within the jurisdiction of the United States shall not use or operate any apparatus for radio communication as a means of commercial intercourse among the several States, or with foreign nations, or upon any vessel of the United States engaged in interstate or foreign commerce, or for the transmission of radiograms or signals the effect of which extends beyond the jurisdiction of the State or Territory in which the same are made, or where interference would be caused thereby with the receipt of messages or signals from beyond the jurisdiction of the said State or Territory, except under and in accordance with a license, revocable for cause, in that behalf granted by the Secretary of Commerce upon application therefor; but nothing in sections 51 to 60 of this title shall be construed to apply to the transmission and exchange of radiograms or signals between points situated in the same State: Provided, That the effect thereof shall not extend beyond the jurisdiction of the said State or interfere with the reception of radiograms or signals from beyond said jurisdiction; and a license shall not be required for the transmission or exchange of radiograms or signals by or on behalf of the Government of the United States, but every Government station on land or sea shall have special call letters designated and published in the list of radio stations of the United States by the Department of Commerce. Any person, company, or corporation that shall use or operate any apparatus for radio communication in violation of this section, or knowingly aid or abet another person, company, or corporation in so doing, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500, and the apparatus or device so unlawfully used and operated may be adjudged forfeited to the United States. (Aug. 13, 1912, c. 287, § 1, 37 Stat. 302; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

52. Same; form; persons entitled.—Every such license shall be in such form as the Secretary of Commerce shall determine and shall contain the restrictions, pursuant to sections 51 to 60 of this title, on and subject to which the license is granted; every such license shall be issued only to citizens of the United States or Porto Rico or to a company incorporated under the laws of some State or Territory or of the United States or Porto Rico, and shall specify the ownership and location of the station in which said apparatus shall be used and other particulars for its identification and to enable its range to be estimated; shall state the purpose of the station, shall state the wave length or the wave lengths authorized for use by the station for the prevention of interference and the hours for which the station is licensed for work; and shall not be construed to authorize the use of any apparatus for radio communication in any other station than that specified. Every such license shall be subject to the regulations contained herein and such regulations as may be established from time to time by authority of sections 51 to 60 of this title or subsequent Acts and treaties of the United States. Every such license shall provide that the President of the United States in time of war or public peril or disaster may cause the closing of any station for radio communication and the removal therefrom of all radio apparatus, or may authorize the use or control of any such station or apparatus by any department of the Government, upon just compensation to the owners. (Aug. 13, 1912, c. 287, § 2, 37 Stat. 303; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

53. Operators; license or temporary permits; employment of unlicensed operators.—Every such apparatus shall at all times while in use and operation as aforesaid be in charge or under the supervision of a person or persons licensed for that purpose by the Secretary of Commerce. Every person so licensed who in the operation of any radio apparatus shall fail to observe and obey regulations contained in or made pursuant to sections 51 to 60 of this title or subsequent Acts or treaties of the United States, or any one of them, or who shall fail to enforce obedience thereto by an unlicensed person while serving under his supervision, in addition to the punishments and penalties herein prescribed, may suffer the suspension of the said license for a period to be fixed by the Secretary of Commerce not exceeding one year. It shall be unlawful to employ any unlicensed person or for any unlicensed person to serve in charge or in supervision of the use and operation of such apparatus, and any person violating this provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $100 or imprisonment for not more than two months, or both, in the discretion of the court, for each and every such offense. In case of emergency the Secretary of Commerce may authorize a collector of customs to issue a temporary permit, in lieu of a license, to the operator on a vessel subject to sections 484 to 487 of Title 46. (Aug. 13, 1912, c. 287, § 3, 37 Stat. 303; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

54. Regulations; penalty for violations; temporary licenses for experiments; naval and military stations.—For the purpose of preventing or minimizing interference with communication between stations in which such apparatus is operated, to facilitate radio communication, and to further the prompt receipt of distress signals, said private and commercial stations shall be subject to the regulations of this section. These regulations shall be enforced by the Secretary of Commerce through the collectors of customs and other officers of the Government as other regulations herein provided for.

The Secretary of Commerce may, in his discretion, waive the provisions of any or all of these regulations when no interference of the character above mentioned can ensue.

The Secretary of Commerce may grant special temporary licenses to stations actually engaged in conducting experiments for the development of the science of radio communication, or the apparatus pertaining thereto, to carry on special tests, using any amount of power or any wave lengths, at such hours and under such conditions as will insure the least interference with the sending or receipt of commercial or Government radiograms, of distress signals and radiograms, or with the work of other stations.

In these regulations the naval and military stations shall be understood to be stations on land.

REGULATIONS

NORMAL WAVE LENGTH

First. Every station shall be required to designate a certain definite wave length as the normal sending and receiving wave length of the station. This wave length shall not exceed six hundred meters or it shall exceed one thousand six hundred meters. Every coastal station open to general public service shall at all times be ready to receive messages of such wave lengths as are required by the convention signed at Berlin November 3, 1906, regulating wireless telegraphy. Every ship station, except as hereinafter provided, and every coast station open to general public service shall be prepared to use two sending wave lengths, one of three hundred meters and one of six hundred meters, as required by the international convention in force. The Secretary of Commerce may, in his discretion, change the limit of wave length reservation made by regulations first and second to accord with any international agreement to which the United States is a party.

86270°—26——98

OTHER WAVE LENGTHS

Second. In addition to the normal sending wave length all stations, except as provided hereinafter in these regulations, may use other sending wave lengths: Provided, That they do not exceed six hundred meters or that they do exceed one thousand six hundred meters: Provided further, That the character of the waves emitted conforms to the requirements of regulations third and fourth following.

USE OF A "PURE WAVE"

Third. At all stations if the sending apparatus, to be referred to hereinafter as the "transmitter," is of such a character that the energy is radiated in two or more wave lengths, more or less sharply defined, as indicated by a sensitive wave meter, the energy in no one of the lesser waves shall exceed 10 per centum of that in the greatest.

USE OF A "SHARP WAVE"

Fourth. At all stations the logarithmic decrement per complete oscillation in the wave trains emitted by the transmitter shall not exceed two-tenths, except when sending distress signals or signals and messages relating thereto.

USE OF "STANDARD DISTRESS WAVE"

Fifth. Every station on shipboard shall be prepared to send distress calls on the normal wave length designated by the international convention in force, except on vessels of small tonnage unable to have plants insuring that wave length.

SIGNAL OF DISTRESS

Sixth. The distress call used shall be the international signal of distress . . . — — — . . .

USE OF "BROAD INTERFERING WAVE" FOR DISTRESS SIGNALS

Seventh. When sending distress signals, the transmitter of a station on shipboard may be tuned in such a manner as to create a maximum of interference with a maximum of radiation.

DISTANCE REQUIREMENT FOR DISTRESS SIGNALS

Eighth. Every station on shipboard, wherever practicable, shall be prepared to send distress signals of the character specified in regulations fifth and sixth with sufficient power to enable them to be received by day over sea a distance of one hundred nautical miles by a shipboard station equipped with apparatus for both sending and receiving equal in all essential particulars to that of the station first mentioned.

"RIGHT OF WAY" FOR DISTRESS SIGNALS

Ninth. All stations are required to give absolute priority to signals and radiograms relating to ships in distress; to cease all sending on hearing a distress signal; and, except when engaged in answering or aiding the ship in distress, to refrain from sending until all signals and radiograms relating thereto are completed.

REDUCED POWER FOR SHIPS NEAR A GOVERNMENT STATION

Tenth. No station on shipboard, when within fifteen nautical miles of a naval or military station, shall use a transformer input exceeding one kilowatt, nor, when within five nautical miles of such a station, a transformer input exceeding one-half kilowatt, except for sending signals of distress, or signals or radiograms relating thereto.

INTERCOMMUNICATION

Eleventh. Each shore station open to general public service between the coast and vessels at sea shall be bound to exchange radiograms with any similar shore station and with any ship station without distinction of the radio systems adopted by such stations, respectively, and each station on shipboard shall be bound to exchange radiograms with any other station on shipboard without distinction of the radio systems adopted by each station, respectively.

It shall be the duty of each such shore station, during the hours it is in operation, to listen in at intervals of not less than fifteen minutes and for a period not less than two minutes, with the receiver tuned to receive messages of three-hundred-meter wave lengths.

DIVISION OF TIME

Twelfth. At important seaports and at all other places where naval or military and private or commercial shore stations operate in such close proximity that interference with the work of naval and military stations can not be avoided by the enforcement of the regulations contained in the foregoing regulations concerning wave lengths and character of signals emitted, such private or commercial shore stations as do interfere with the reception of signals by the naval and military stations concerned shall not use their transmitters during the first fifteen minutes of each hour, local standard time. The Secretary of Commerce may, on the recommendation of the department concerned, designate the station or stations which may be required to observe this division of time.

GOVERNMENT STATIONS TO OBSERVE DIVISIONS OF TIME

Thirteenth. The naval or military stations for which the above-mentioned division of time may be established shall transmit signals or radiograms only during the first fifteen minutes of each hour, local standard time, except in case of signals or radiograms relating to vessels in distress, as hereinbefore provided.

USE OF UNNECESSARY POWER

Fourteenth. In all circumstances, except in case of signals or radiograms relating to vessels in distress, all stations shall use the minimum amount of energy necessary to carry out any communication desired.

GENERAL RESTRICTIONS ON PRIVATE STATIONS

Fifteenth. No private or commercial station not engaged in the transaction of bona fide commercial business by radio communication or in experimentation in connection with the development and manufacture of radio apparatus for commercial purposes shall use a transmitting wave length exceeding two hundred meters, or a transformer input exceeding one kilowatt, except by special authority of the Secretary of Commerce contained in the license of the station. The owner or operator of a station of the character mentioned in this regulation shall not be liable for a violation of the requirements of the third or fourth regulations to the penalties of $100 or $25, respectively, provided in this section unless the person maintaining or operating such station shall have been notified in writing that the said transmitter has been found, upon tests conducted by the Government, to be so adjusted as to violate the said third and fourth regulations, and opportunity has been given to said owner or operator to adjust said transmitter in conformity with said regulations.

SPECIAL RESTRICTIONS IN THE VICINITIES OF GOVERNMENT STATIONS

Sixteenth. No station of the character mentioned in regulation fifteenth situated within five nautical miles of a naval or military station shall use a transmitting wave length exceeding two hundred meters or a transformer input exceeding one-half kilowatt.

SHIP STATIONS TO COMMUNICATE WITH NEAREST SHORE STATIONS

Seventeenth. In general, the shipboard stations shall transmit their radiograms to the nearest shore station. A sender on board a vessel shall, however, have the right to designate the shore station through which he desires to have his radiograms transmitted. If this can not be done, the wishes of the sender are to be complied with only if the transmission can be effected without interfering with the service of other stations.

LIMITATIONS FOR FUTURE INSTALLATIONS IN VICINITIES OF GOVERNMENT STATIONS

Eighteenth. No station on shore not in actual operation on August 13, 1912, shall be licensed for the transaction of commercial business by radio communication within fifteen nautical miles of the following naval or military stations, to wit: Arlington, Virginia; Key West, Florida; San Juan, Porto Rico; North Head and Tatoosh Island, Washington; San Diego, California; and those established or which may be established in Alaska and in the Canal Zone; and the head of the department having control of such Government stations shall, so far as is consistent with the transaction of governmental business, arrange for the transmission and receipt of commercial radiograms under the provisions of the Berlin convention of 1906 and future international conventions or treaties to which the United States may be a party, at each of the stations above referred to, and shall fix the rates therefor, subject to control of such rates by Congress. At such stations and wherever and whenever shore stations open for general public business between the coast and vessels at sea under the provisions of the Berlin convention of 1906 and future international conventions and treaties to which the United States may be a party shall not be so established as to insure a constant service day and night without interruption, and in all localities wherever or whenever such service shall not be maintained by a commercial shore station within one hundred nautical miles of a naval radio station, the Secretary of the Navy shall, so far as is consistent with the transaction of governmental business, open naval radio stations to the general public business described above, and shall fix rates for such service, subject to control of such rates by Congress. The receipts from such radiograms shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

SECRECY OF MESSAGES

Nineteenth. No person or persons engaged in or having knowledge of the operation of any station or stations, shall divulge or publish the contents of any messages transmitted or received by such station, except to the person or persons to whom the same may be directed, or their authorized agent, or to another station employed to forward such message to its destination, unless legally required so to do by a court of competent jurisdiction or other competent authority. Any person guilty of divulging or publishing any message, except as herein provided, shall, on conviction thereof, be punishable by a fine of not more than $250 or imprisonment for a period of not exceeding three months, or both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

PENALTIES

For violation of any of these regulations, subject to which a license under sections 51 and 52 of this title may be issued, the owner of the apparatus shall be liable to a penalty of $100, which may be reduced or remitted by the Secretary of Commerce, and for repeated violations of any of such regulations, the license may be revoked.

For violation of any of these regulations, except as provided in regulation nineteenth, subject to which a license under section 53 of this title may be issued, the operator shall be subject to a penalty of $25, which may be reduced or remitted by the Secretary of Commerce, and for repeated violations of any such regulations, the license shall be suspended or revoked. (Aug. 13, 1912, c. 287, § 4, 37 Stat. 304; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

55. Willful or malicious interference with communication.—Every license granted under the provisions of sections 51 and 52 of this title for the operation or use of apparatus for radio communication shall prescribe that the operator thereof shall not willfully or maliciously interfere with any other radio communication. Such interference shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof the owner or operator, or both, shall be punishable by a fine of not to exceed $500 or imprisonment for not to exceed one year, or both. (Aug. 13, 1912, c. 287, § 5, 37 Stat. 308.)

56. Radio communication defined.—The expression "radio communication" as used in sections 51 to 60 of this title means any system of electrical communication by telegraphy or telephony without the aid of any wire connecting the points from and at which the radiograms, signals, or other communications are sent or received. (Aug. 13, 1912, c. 287, § 6, 37 Stat. 308.)

57. Uttering or transmitting false or fraudulent signals.—A person, company, or corporation within the jurisdiction of the United States shall not knowingly utter or transmit, or cause to be uttered or transmitted, any false or fraudulent distress signal or call or false or fraudulent signal, call, or other radiogram of any kind. The penalty for so uttering or transmitting a false or fraudulent distress signal or call shall be a fine of not more than $2,500 or imprisonment for not more than five years, or both, in the discretion of the court, for each and every such offense, and the penalty for so uttering or transmitting, or causing to be uttered or transmitted, any other false or fraudulent signal, call, or other radiogram shall be a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, in the discretion of the court, for each and every such offense. (Aug. 13, 1912, c. 287, § 7, 37 Stat. 308.)

58. Restriction of use on foreign ships.—A person, company, or corporation shall not use or operate any apparatus for radio communication on a foreign ship in territorial waters of the United States otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of sections 54 and 57 of this title and so much of section 55 of this title as imposes a penalty for interference. Save as aforesaid, nothing herein shall apply to apparatus for radio communication on any foreign ship. (Aug. 13, 1912, c. 287, § 8, 37 Stat. 308.)

59. Jurisdiction of offenses.—The trial of any offense under sections 51 to 60 of this title shall be in the district in which it is committed, or if the offense is committed upon the high seas or out of the jurisdiction of any particular State or district the trial shall be in the district where the offender may be found or into which he shall be first brought. (Aug. 13, 1912, c. 287, § 9, 37 Stat. 308.)

60. Inapplicability to Philippines.—Sections 51 to 59 of this title shall not apply to the Philippine Islands. (Aug. 13, 1912, c. 287, § 10, 37 Stat. 308.)

61. Government-owned radio stations and apparatus; use for official business.—All land, ship, and airship radio stations, and all apparatus therein owned by the United States may be used by it for receiving and transmitting messages relating to Government business, compass reports, and the safety of ships. (June 5, 1920, c. 269, § 1, 41 Stat. 1061.)

62. Same; use for other than official business; rates.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized, under the terms and conditions and at rates prescribed by him, which rates shall be just and reasonable, and which, upon complaint, shall be subject to review and revision by the Interstate Commerce Commission, to use all radio stations and apparatus, wherever located, owned by the United States and under the control of the Navy Department (a) for the reception and transmission of press messages offered by any newspaper published in the United States, its Territories or possessions, or published by citizens of the United States in foreign countries, or by any press association of the United States, and (b) for the reception and transmission of private commercial messages between ships and between ship and shore. The rates fixed for the reception and transmission of all such messages, other than press messages between the Pacific coast of the United States, Hawaii, Alaska, the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, and the Orient, shall not be less than the rates charged by privately owned and operated stations for like messages and service. The right to use such stations for any of the purposes named in this section shall terminate and cease as between any countries or localities or between any locality and privately operated ships whenever privately owned and operated stations are capable of meeting the normal communication requirements between such countries or localities or between any locality and privately operated ships, and the Secretary of Commerce shall have notified the Secretary of the Navy thereof, and in any event all rights conferred by this section shall terminate and cease on June 30, 1927, except that all such rights conferred by this section in the Republic of China shall be deemed to have terminated and ceased on January 1, 1924. (June 5, 1920, c. 269, § 2, 41 Stat. 1061; Apr. 14, 1922, c. 132, 42 Stat. 495; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 378, 43 Stat. 1091.)

63. Same; sections applicable.—All stations owned and operated by the Government, except as herein otherwise provided, shall be used and operated in accordance with the provisions of sections 51 to 60 of this title. (June 5, 1920, c. 269, § 3, 41 Stat. 1061.)

TITLE 48.—TERRITORIES AND INSULAR POSSESSIONS

Chapter	Sec.
1. THE BUREAU OF INSULAR AFFAIRS	1
2. ALASKA	21

7. THE VIRGIN ISLANDS	1391
8. GUANO ISLANDS	1411
9. GUAM, SAMOA, AND SWAINS ISLAND; MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS	1431
10. TERRITORIAL PROVISIONS OF A GENERAL NATURE	1451

Chapter 1.—THE BUREAU OF INSULAR AFFAIRS.

Sec.
1. Bureau of Insular Affairs; business.
2. Same; officers of; rank.
3. Chief of bureau; appointment.
4. Assistant to chief of bureau.
5. Additional assistant to chief of bureau authorized.

Section 1. Bureau of Insular Affairs; business.—After July 1, 1902, the Division of Insular Affairs of the War Department, shall be known as the Bureau of Insular Affairs of the War Department. The business assigned to said bureau shall embrace all matters pertaining to civil government in the island possessions of the United States subject to the jurisdiction of the War Department. (July 1, 1902, c. 1369, § 87, 32 Stat. 712.)

2. Same; officers of; rank.—The officers of the Bureau of Insular Affairs shall be one chief of the bureau with the rank of brigadier general, and two officers below the grade of brigadier general. During the tenure of office of the Chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs in office on June 4, 1920, he shall have the rank of major general. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 14, 39 Stat. 176; June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 14, 41 Stat. 769.)

3. Chief of bureau; appointment.—The Chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs of the War Department shall be appointed by the President for the period of four years, unless sooner relieved, with the advice and consent of the Senate. (June 25, 1906, c. 3528, 34 Stat. 456; June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 14, 41 Stat. 769.)

4. Assistant to chief of bureau.—The Secretary of War is authorized to detail an officer of the Army, whom he may consider especially well qualified, to act as assistant to the Chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs of the War Department. The provisions of law, with reference to the transfer of officers of the line to the departments of the staff for tours of service, shall apply to the vacancy created by this section and to the return of the officer so detailed to the line of the Army. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1162; Mar. 23, 1910, c. 115, 36 Stat. 248.)

5. Additional assistant to chief of bureau authorized.—The Secretary of War is authorized to detail one additional officer of the Army as assistant to the Chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs, under the same provisions of law in regard to the vacancy in the line thus created and return to the line as govern in the case of the assistant authorized by section 4 of this title; and both officers detailed in the Bureau of Insular Affairs shall be designated, while on this duty, as assistants to the chief of the bureau. (Mar. 23, 1910, c. 115, 36 Stat. 248.)

Section 21. Territory of Alaska organized.—The territory ceded to the United States by Russia by the treaty of March 30, 1867, and known as Alaska, shall be and constitute the Territory of Alaska under the laws of the United States, the government of which shall be organized and administered as provided by said laws. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 1, 37 Stat. 512.)

22. Capital at Juneau.—The capital of the Territory of Alaska shall be at the city of Juneau, Alaska, and the seat of government shall be maintained there. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 2, 37 Stat. 512.)

23. Constitution and laws of the United States extended.—The Constitution of the United States, and all the laws thereof which are not locally inapplicable, shall have the same force and effect within the said Territory as elsewhere in the United States. All the laws of the United States passed prior to August 24, 1912, establishing the executive and judicial departments in Alaska shall continue in full force and effect until amended or repealed by Act of Congress; except as herein provided all laws in force in Alaska prior to that date shall continue in full force and effect until altered, amended, or repealed by Congress or by the legislature. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 3, 37 Stat. 512.)

24. Authority of Territorial legislature to repeal or amend existing laws limited; additional taxes or licenses.—The authority granted to the legislature by section 23 of this title to alter, amend, modify, and repeal laws in force in Alaska shall not extend to the customs, internal revenue, postal, or other general laws of the United States or to the game, fish, and fur seal laws and laws relating to fur-bearing animals of the United States applicable to Alaska, or to the laws of the United States providing for taxes on business and trade, or to sections 41, 47, 161 to 169, 321 to 325, and 329 of this chapter. This provision shall not operate to prevent the legislature from imposing other and additional taxes or licenses. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 3, 37 Stat. 512.)

25. Fees of officers not otherwise compensated; Attorney General to prescribe.—In case the law requires or authorizes any services to be performed or any act to be done by any official or person within the Territory of Alaska, and provides no compensation therefor, the Attorney General may prescribe and promulgate a schedule of such fees, mileage, or other compensation as shall be by him deemed proper for each division of the court, and such schedule shall have the force and effect of law; and the Attorney General may from time to time amend such schedule and promulgate the same as amended, and the schedule as amended and promulgated shall also have the force and effect of law. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 30, 31 Stat. 332.)

26. Notaries public; appointment by governor.—The governor may appoint and commission one or more notaries public for the Territory. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 2, 31 Stat. 321.)

27. Same; appointments made prior to June 6, 1900, legalized.—Appointments of notaries public made by the Governor of Alaska prior to June 6, 1900, are hereby legalized, and all acts performed by them by virtue of their notarial commissions shall be for all purposes as valid as though the governor had at the time full and complete legal authority to appoint and commission them. (June 6, 1900, c. 768, § 2, 31 Stat. 321.)

28. Same; residence; term of office; removal from office.—Every person appointed as a notary public must at the time of his appointment be a resident of the district and must continue to reside therein during his term of office. Removal from the district vacates his office and is equivalent to resignation.

The term of office of a notary public shall be four years from and after the date of his commission, but he may be sooner removed by the governor for misconduct in office. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 17, 31 Stat. 328.)

29. Same; bonds; issue of commission.—Each notary must execute an official bond in the sum of $1,000, which bond must be approved by the clerk of the division of the district court located nearest his residence. Upon approval of his official bond, so soon as he has taken his official oath, each notary public must transmit such bond and oath, signed by him with his own proper signature to the office of the secretary of the district, whereupon the governor must issue a commission. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, §§ 22, 23, 31 Stat. 329.)

30. Same; fee for commission.—For each commission issued to a notary public a fee of $10 shall be paid to the secretary of the Territory. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 32, 31 Stat. 333.)

31. Same; duties.—It shall be the duty of a notary public—

First. When requested, to demand acceptance and payment of foreign, domestic, and inland bills of exchange, or promissory notes, and protest the same for nonacceptance and nonpayment, and to exercise such other powers and duties as by the law of nations and according to commercial usages or by the laws of any State, government, or country may be performed by notaries, and keep a record of such acts.

Second. To take acknowledgment or proof of powers of attorney, deeds, mortgages, grants, transfers, and other instruments of writing executed by any person and to give a certificate of such proof or acknowledgment indorsed or attached to the instrument.

Third. To take depositions and affidavits and administer oaths and affirmations in all matters incident to the duties of the office or to be used before any court, judge, or officer.

Fourth. When requested and upon payment of his fees therefor to make and give a certified copy of any record in his office.

Fifth. To provide and keep an official seal, upon which must be engraved the name of the district and the words "Notary Public," with the surname of the notary and at least the initials of his Christian name. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 18, 31 Stat. 328.)

32. Same; protests.—The protest of a notary public under his hand and seal of a bill of exchange or promissory note for nonacceptance or nonpayment, stating the presentment for acceptance or payment and the nonacceptance or nonpayment thereof, the service of notice on any and all parties to such bill of exchange or promissory note and specifying the mode of giving such notice and the reputed place of residence of the party to such bill of exchange or promissory note and of the party to whom same was given and the post office nearest thereto is prima facie evidence of the facts contained therein. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 19, 31 Stat. 329.)

33. Same; liability for misconduct or neglect.—For the official misconduct or neglect of a notary public, he and sureties on his official bond are liable to the parties injured thereby for all damages sustained. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 24, 31 Stat. 329.)

34. Same; records to be deposited with district court on resignation, removal, or death; penalty.—It shall be the duty of every notary public, on his resignation or removal from office or at the expiration of his term and, in case of his death, of his legal representative, to forthwith deposit all the records kept by him in the office of the clerk of the division of the district court in which he resides, and on failure to do so the person so offending is liable in damages to any person injured thereby. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 20, 31 Stat. 329.)

35. Same; duty of clerk on safe-keeping records deposited.—It shall be the duty of each clerk mentioned in section 34 of this title to receive and safely keep all records and papers of the notary in each case above named and to give attested copies of them under his seal, for which he may demand such fees as by law may be allowed to the notaries, and such copies shall have the same effect as if certified by the notary. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 21, 31 Stat. 329.)

36. Certificates to practice law; fee; disposition of.—For each certificate issued to a member of the bar, authorizing him to practice law in Alaska, a fee of $10 shall be paid to the clerk of the court, which shall by him be promptly remitted to the secretary of the Territory, and at the same time the clerk shall advise the governor of such remittance. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 32, 31 Stat. 333.)

37. Wharf at Sitka; charges.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to charge and fix the rates of dockage and wharfage to be paid by any private vessel or person allowed to use the wharf at Sitka, the said receipts to be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States as a miscellaneous receipt derived from Government property; and the Secretary of the Treasury shall direct, by regulation or otherwise, by whom said wharfage and dockage receipts shall be collected. (June 11, 1896, c. 420, § 1, 29 Stat. 413.)

38. Same; repairs.—The Secretary of the Treasury may, in renting the wharf at Sitka, require that the lessee shall make all necessary repairs thereto. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 223, § 1, 38 Stat. 615; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1106.)

39. Reindeer.—All reindeer owned by the United States in Alaska shall as soon as practicable be turned over to missions in or natives of Alaska, to be held and used by them under such conditions as the Secretary of the Interior shall prescribe. The Secretary of the Interior may authorize the sale of surplus male reindeer and make regulations for the same. The proceeds of such sale shall be turned into the Treasury of the United States. The Commissioner of Education is authorized to sell such of the male reindeer belonging to the Government as he may deem advisable and to use the proceeds in the purchase of female reindeer belonging to missions and in the distribution of reindeer to natives in those portions of Alaska in which reindeer have not yet been placed and which are adapted to the reindeer industry. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, 34 Stat. 1338; May 24, 1922, c. 199, 42 Stat. 584; Jan. 24, 1923, c. 42, 42 Stat. 1205; June 5, 1924, c. 264, 43 Stat. 427; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1181.)

40. Court rooms and offices; jails; reservation of land for; construction to be approved by Attorney General.—Any of the public buildings in Alaska not required for the Customs Service or military purposes may be used for court rooms and offices of the civil government; and the marshals of the Territory shall, each in his division, be the custodian of such buildings. Any division of the court may, where necessary, order the construction or repair of a jail building at the place or places where terms of the court are held, at a cost not to exceed $3,000 for each building, the same to be paid by the clerk as provided for the payment of other allowances for the necessary expenses of the court; and any part or portion of the unappropriated public domain of the United States, embracing not more than four thousand square feet, to be taken in compact form, as near as may be practicable, may be set aside by order of the court as a jail site, which order shall describe the location of the ground selected, where unsurveyed by metes and bounds and by reference to natural objects and permanent monuments, in such manner that its boundaries and its location may be readily determined, a certified copy of which order of the court shall be by the clerk thereof transmitted to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, who shall cause the same to be noted on the records of his office, and thereafter the ground described shall be reserved from sale or other disposition, unless for good cause the court shall vacate the order of reservation or Congress shall otherwise direct, and the sentence of imprisonment in any criminal case shall be carried out by confinement in the penitentiary or jails herein provided for, or as provided in section 696 of Title 18, CRIMINAL CODE AND CRIMINAL PROCEDURE.

Where a suitable court room is not available or can not be obtained at reasonable rental at the place or any of the places where terms of the court are held, the court may enter a like order of reservation and direct the construction of a suitable building where the sessions of the court may be held, the cost of such building not to exceed in any case the sum of $5,000, the same to be paid and proceedings to reserve the land to be as in the case of the reservation of ground and construction of jail, as hereinbefore provided. No court building or jail shall be constructed in any division of the Territory without authority from the Attorney General, to whom the clerk shall furnish a verified account in detail of all expenditures made by him for buildings, repairs, or other purposes, together with his authority for each payment made. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 31, 31 Stat. 332.)

41. Alaska fund; how constituted; disposition of.—All moneys derived from and collected for occupation or trade licenses, outside of the incorporated towns in the Territory of Alaska, shall be deposited in the Treasury Department of the United States, there to remain as a separate and distinct fund, to be known as the Alaska fund, and to be wholly devoted to the purposes hereinafter stated in the Territory of Alaska. Twenty-five per centum of said fund, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be devoted to the establishment and maintenance of public schools in said Territory; 10 per centum of said fund shall be, and is hereby, appropriated and authorized to be expended for the relief of persons in Alaska who are indigent and incapacitated through nonage, old age, sickness, or accident; and all the residue of said fund shall be devoted to the construction and maintenance of wagon roads, bridges, and trails in said Territory. The clerk of the court of each judicial division of said Territory is authorized and directed, whenever considered necessary, to call upon the United States marshal of said judicial division to aid in the collection of said license moneys by designating regular or special deputies of his office to act as temporary license inspectors, and it shall be the duty of said United States marshal to render such aid; and the said regular or special deputies while actually engaged in the performance of this duty shall receive the same fees and allowances and be paid in the same manner as when performing their regular duties.

At the end of each fiscal quarter the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States shall divide the amount of said 10 per centum of said fund so received during the quarter just ended into four equal parts, and transmit to each of the four United States district judges in Alaska one of said equal amounts.

Each of said judges is authorized to expend so much of the money received by him under this section as may, in his discretion, be required for the relief of those persons in his division who are incapacitated through nonage, old age, sickness, or accident, and who are indigent and unable to assist and protect themselves; and each judge shall quarterly submit to the Secretary of the Treasury an itemized statement, with proper vouchers, of all expenditures made by him under this section, and he shall at the time transmit a copy of said statement to the governor of the Territory. Any unexpended balance remaining in the hands of any judge at the end of any quarter shall be returned to the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, and by him deposited in the said Alaska fund, and the said sum shall be subsequently devoted, first, to meeting any actual requirements for the care and relief of such persons as are provided for in this section in any other division in said Territory wherein the amount allotted for that purpose has proved insufficient; and, second, if there shall be any remainder thereof, said remainder shall be devoted to the construction and maintenance of wagon roads, bridges, and trails in said Territory. (Jan. 27, 1905, c. 277, § 1, 33 Stat. 616; May 14, 1906, c. 2458, § 1, 34 Stat. 192; Feb. 6, 1909, c. 80, § 7, 35 Stat. 601; Mar. 3, 1913, c. 109, 37 Stat. 728; Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 30, 39 Stat. 903.)

42. Historical library and museum; fund.—All fees received by the secretary of the Territory of Alaska as such secretary, from every source whatsoever, shall be disbursed, on the order of the Governor of the Territory of Alaska, for the benefit of the Alaska Historical Library and Museum. The same shall embrace copies of all laws relating to the Territory, and all papers and periodicals published within the Territory, and such other matter of historical interest as the governor may consider valuable and appropriate for such collection. The collection shall also embrace such curios relating to the aborigines and the settlers as may be by the governor deemed of historical importance. The collection thus made shall be described by the governor in the annual report of the governor to the Secretary of the Interior, and shall be by him kept in a secure place and turned over to his successor in office. The secretary of the Territory and the governor shall each annually account to the Secretary of the Interior for all receipts and disbursements in connection with such historical library and museum. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 32, 31 Stat. 333; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1497, § 2, 33 Stat. 1266.)

43. Same; depository of Government publications.—The historical library and museum provided for in section 42 of this title shall be a designated depository of publications of the Government, and shall be supplied with one copy of each of said publications in the same manner as such publications are supplied to other depositories. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 33, 31 Stat. 333; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1497, § 2, 33 Stat. 1266.)

44. Taxation by municipalities; limitation.—No incorporated town or municipality shall levy any tax for any purpose in excess of 2 per centum of the assessed valuation of property within the town in any one year. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 9, 37 Stat. 514.)

45. Divorce; requirement of residence; evidence in open court.—No divorce shall be granted by the courts of the Territory, unless the applicant therefor shall have resided in the Territory for two years next preceding the application, which residence and all causes for divorce shall be determined by the court upon evidence adduced in open court. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 9, 37 Stat. 514.)

46. Insane persons; contract for care and custody of.—The Secretary of the Interior shall, as in his judgment may be deemed advisable, advertise for and receive bids for the care and custody of persons legally adjudged insane in Alaska, and in behalf of the United States shall contract, for one or more years, as he may deem best, with a responsible asylum or sanitarium west of the main range of the Rocky Mountains submitting the lowest and best responsible bid for the care and custody of persons legally adjudged insane in Alaska, the cost of advertising for bids, executing the contract, and caring for the insane to be paid from appropriations to be made for such service upon estimates to be submitted to Congress annually. (Feb. 6, 1909, c. 80, § 7, 35 Stat. 601.)

47. Same; commitment; compensation of commissioners, jurors, and witnesses.—Commissioners appointed by the judges of the district court in Alaska, pursuant to law, shall, as ex officio probate judges and in the exercise of their probate jurisdiction, have the power, and it shall be their duty, in their respective districts, to commit, by warrant under their hands and seals, all persons adjudged insane in their districts to the asylum or sanitarium provided for the care and keeping of the insane of the Territory of Alaska. No person shall be adjudged insane or committed as such except upon and pursuant to the following proceedings, to wit: Whenever complaint in writing is made by any adult person to a commissioner that there is an insane person at large in the commissioner's district, the commissioner shall at once cause such insane person to be taken into custody and to be brought before him, and he shall then immediately summon and impanel a jury of six male adults, residents of the district, to inquire, try, and determine whether the person so complained of is really insane. The members of said jury shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duty, each take an oath to diligently inquire, justly try, and a true verdict render, touching the mental condition of the person charged with being insane. Before entering upon such trial the commissioner shall appoint some suitable person to appear for and represent in the proceeding the person complained of as insane. And in case there is a physician or surgeon in the vicinity who can be procured, the commissioner shall cause such surgeon or physician to examine the person alleged to be insane, and after such examination to testify under oath before the jury in respect to the mental condition of said person. The commissioner shall preside at said hearing and trial. All witnesses that may be offered shall be heard and shall be permitted to testify under oath in said matter, and after having heard all the evidence the said jury shall retire to agree upon a verdict, and if the jury unanimously, by their verdict in writing, find that the said person so charged with being insane as aforesaid is really and truly insane and that he ought to be committed to the asylum or sanitarium aforesaid, and the commissioner approves such finding, he shall enter a judgment adjudging the said person to be insane and adjudging that he be at once conveyed to and thereafter properly and safely kept in the said asylum or sanitarium until duly discharged therefrom by law. The commissioner shall thereupon, under his hand and seal, issue his warrant, with a copy of said judgment attached, for the commitment of said insane person to the asylum or sanitarium aforesaid, which warrant shall be delivered to the marshal of the division in which said proceedings are had, and shall direct said marshal to safely keep and deliver said insane person to said asylum or sanitarium, and the said marshal, for the service of process in connection with and the guarding and the transportation of the insane, shall be compensated from the same source and in the same manner as in the case of prisoners convicted of crime. The commissioner, the jurymen, and the witnesses in said proceeding shall be entitled to the same compensation and mileage as in civil actions. And all the compensation, mileage, fees, and all other expenses and outlays incident to said proceedings shall be audited and allowed by the district judge of the division in which said proceedings are pending and had, and when so audited and allowed shall be paid by the clerk of the court in such division as the incidental expenses of the court are by him paid and from the same fund. (Jan. 27, 1905, c. 277, § 8, 33 Stat. 619.)

48. Same; return to legal residence or friends.—The Secretary of the Interior shall, so soon as practicable, return to their places of residence or to their friends inmates of institutions for the care of the insane not residents of Alaska at the time they became insane. The commitment papers for any person adjudged insane shall include a statement by the committing authority as to the legal residence of such person. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1181.)

49. Persons admitted to hospitals.—Patients who are not indigent may be admitted to the hospitals erected by the Secretary of the Interior for the medical and sanitary relief of the Eskimos, Aleuts, Indians, and other natives of Alaska for care and treatment on the payment of such reasonable charges therefor as the Secretary of the Interior shall prescribe. (June 12, 1917, c. 27, § 1, 40 Stat. 151; May 24, 1922, c. 199, 42 Stat. 584; Jan. 24, 1923, c. 42, 42 Stat. 1205; June 5, 1924, c. 264, 43 Stat. 427; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1181.)

LEGISLATURE AND GOVERNMENT

61. Governor; authority in general.—There shall be appointed for the Territory a governor, who shall reside therein during his term of office and be charged with the interests of the United States Government within the Territory. To the end aforesaid he shall have authority to see that the laws enacted for the said Territory are enforced and to require the faithful discharge of their duties by the officials appointed to administer the same. He may also grant reprieves for offenses committed against the laws of the said Territory or of the United States until the decision of the President thereon shall be made known. He shall be ex officio commander in chief of the militia of the Territory, and shall have power to call out the same when necessary to the due execution of the laws and to preserve the peace, and to cause all able-bodied citizens of the United States in the Territory to enroll and serve as such when the public exigency demands; and he shall perform generally in and over said Territory such acts as pertain to the office of governor of a Territory, so far as the same may be made or become applicable thereto.

The governor shall from time to time inquire into the operations of any person, company, association, or corporation authorized by the United States, by contract or otherwise, to kill seal or other fur-bearing animals in the Territory of Alaska, and any and all violations by such person, company, association, or corporation of the agreement with the United States under which the operations are being conducted, and shall annually report to Congress the result of such inquiries. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 2, 31 Stat. 321.)

62. Same; appointment, how made; compensation.—The governor provided for in section 61 of this title shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall hold office for the term of four years and until his successor is appointed and qualified, unless sooner removed by the President for cause.

The governor shall receive an annual compensation of $7,000, payable from the Treasury of the United States, as a like officer is paid in other Territories. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 10, 31 Stat. 325.)

63. Same; expenses, how paid.—The governor shall, in addition to his salary, be paid his actual traveling and subsistence expenses when traveling in the discharge of his official duties. Accounts for such expenses shall be rendered and paid as are accounts of judges, marshals, clerks, and district attorneys for like expenses in other districts. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 10, 31 Stat. 325; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144, 1181.)

64. Same; annual report to the President of United States; confirming or annulling acts.—The Governor of Alaska shall make an annual report, on the 1st day of October in each year, to the President of the United States, of his official acts and doings, and of the condition of the Territory, with reference to its resources, industries, population, and the administration of the civil government thereof.

The President of the United States shall have power to review and to confirm or annul any reprieves granted or other acts done by him. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 2, 31 Stat. 321.)

65. Secretary; bond.—The secretary of the Territory of Alaska, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall execute a bond with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Secretary of the Interior, and in such penal sum as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe, conditioned upon the safe-keeping, faithful disbursement, and proper accounting for all moneys from whatsoever source which may come into his hands as such secretary. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1497, § 3, 33 Stat. 1266.)

66. Same; fees.—In case the law requires or authorizes any service to be performed or any act to be done by the secretary of the Territory of Alaska and there is no provision of law requiring the payment of a fee for such service by the person for whose benefit the same is performed, the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe such fees for said service as he may deem proper. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1497, § 1, 33 Stat. 1265.)

67. Legislature.—The legislative power and authority of Alaska shall be vested in a legislature, which shall consist of a senate and a house of representatives. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 4, 37 Stat. 513.)

68. Same; senate; members; term of office.—The senate shall consist of eight members, two from each of the four judicial divisions into which Alaska is divided by section 101 of this title, each of whom shall have at the time of his election the qualifications of an elector in Alaska, and shall have been a resident and an inhabitant in the division from which he is elected for at least two years prior to the date of his election. The term of office of each member of the senate shall be four years: Provided, That immediately after they shall be assembled in consequence of the first election they shall, by lot or drawing, be divided in each division into two classes; the seats of the members of the first class shall be vacated at the end of two years and the seats of the members of the second class shall be vacated at the end of four years, so that one member of the senate shall be elected biennially at the regular election from each division. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 4, 37 Stat. 513.)

69. Same; house of representatives.—The house of representatives shall consist of sixteen members, four from each of the four judicial divisions into which Alaska is divided by section 101 of this title. The term of office of each representative shall be for two years and each representative shall possess the same qualifications as are prescribed for members of the senate. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 4, 37 Stat. 513.)

70. Same; who deemed elected; tie vote.—The persons receiving the highest number of legal votes in each judicial division cast in an election for senator or representative shall be deemed and declared elected to such office. In case of a tie vote the candidates thus affected shall settle the question by lot. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 4, 37 Stat. 513.)

71. Same; elections to fill vacancies.—In case of a vacancy in either branch of the legislature the governor shall order an election to fill such vacancy, giving due and proper notice thereof. (Aug. 24, 1912, c 387, § 4, 37 Stat. 513.)

72. Same; salary and mileage of members.—Each member of the legislature shall be paid by the United States the sum of $15 per day for each day's attendance while the legislature is in session, and mileage, in addition, at the rate of 15 cents per mile for each mile from his home to the capital and return by the nearest traveled route. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 4, 37 Stat. 513.)

73. Same; election of members; laws governing election of Delegate applicable.—Elections for members of the Legislature of Alaska shall be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, biennially in even-numbered years; the qualifications of electors, the regulations governing the creation of voting precincts, the appointment and qualifications of election officers, the supervision of elections, the giving of notices thereof, the forms of ballots, the register of votes, the challenging of voters, and the returns and the canvass of the returns of the result of all such elections for members of the legislature shall be the same as those prescribed in sections 131, 135 to 144, and 147 to 149 of this title, and all the provisions of said sections which are applicable are extended to said elections for members of the legislature, and shall govern the same, and the canvassing board created by said sections shall canvass the returns of such elections and issue certificates of election to each member elected to the said legislature; and all the penal provisions contained in section 149 shall apply to elections for members of the legislature as fully as they apply to elections for Delegate from Alaska to the House of Representatives. (Aug. 24, 1912, c 387, § 5, 37 Stat. 513.)

74. Same; convening and session; governor authorized to convene extraordinary session.—The Legislature of Alaska shall convene at the capitol at the city of Juneau, Alaska, biennially in odd-numbered years on the first Monday in March; but the said legislature shall not continue in session longer than sixty days in any two years unless again convened in extraordinary session by a proclamation of the governor, which shall set forth the object thereof and give at least thirty days' written notice to each member of said legislature, and in such case shall not continue in session longer than fifteen days. The governor of Alaska is authorized to convene the legislature in extraordinary session for a period not exceeding fifteen days when requested to do so by the President of the United States, or when any public danger or necessity may require it. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 6, 37 Stat. 514.)

75. Same; organization; president of senate; speaker; employees; salary.—When the legislature shall convene under the law, the senate and house of representatives shall each organize by the election of one of their number as presiding officer, who shall be designated in the case of the senate as "president of the senate" and in the case of the house of representatives as "speaker of the house of representatives," and by the election by each body of the subordinate officers provided for in section 1462 of this title, and each of said subordinate officers shall receive the compensation provided in that section: Provided, That no person shall be employed for whom salary, wages, or compensation is not provided in the appropriation made by Congress. (June 19, 1878, c. 329, § 1, 20 Stat. 193; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 7, 37 Stat. 514.)

76. Same; enacting clause; subject of act.—The enacting clause of all laws passed by the legislature shall be "Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska." No law shall embrace more than one subject, which shall be expressed in its title. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 8, 37 Stat. 514.)

77. Same; general power and limitation.—The legislative power of the Territory of Alaska shall extend to all rightful subjects of legislation not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States, but no law shall be passed interferring with the primary disposal of the soil; no tax shall be imposed upon the property of the United States; nor shall the lands or other property of nonresidents be taxed higher than the lands or other property of residents; nor shall the legislature grant to any corporation, association, or individual any special or exclusive privilege, immunity, or franchise without the affirmative approval of Congress; nor shall the legislature pass local or special laws in any of the cases enumerated in section 1471 of this title; nor shall it grant private charters or special privileges, but it may, by general act, permit persons to associate themselves together as bodies corporate for manufacturing, mining, agricultural, and other industrial pursuits, and for the conduct of business of insurance, savings banks, banks of discount and deposit (but not of issue), loans, trust, and guaranty associations, for the establishment and conduct of cemeteries, and for the construction and operation of railroads, wagon roads, vessels, and irrigating ditches, and the colonization and improvement of lands in connection therewith, or for colleges, seminaries, churches, libraries, or any other benevolent, charitable, or scientific association, but the authority embraced in this section shall only permit the organization of corporations or associations whose chief business shall be in the Territory of Alaska; no divorce shall be granted by the legislature; nor shall any lottery or the sale of lottery tickets be allowed; nor shall the legislature or any municipality interfere with or attempt in any wise to limit the Acts of Congress to prevent and punish gambling, and all gambling implements shall be seized by the United States marshal or any of his deputies, or any constable or police officer, and destroyed; nor shall spirituous or intoxicating liquors be manufactured or sold, except under such regulations and restrictions as Congress shall provide; nor shall any public money be appropriated by the Territory or any municipal corporation therein for the support or benefit of any sectarian, denominational, or private school, or any school not under the exclusive control of the Government; nor shall the government of the Territory of Alaska or any political or municipal corporation or subdivision of the Territory make any subscription to the capital stock of any incorporated company, or in any manner lend its credit for the use thereof; nor shall the Territory, or any municipal corporation therein, have power or authority to create or assume any bonded indebtedness whatever; nor to borrow money in the name of the Territory or of any municipal division thereof; nor to pledge the faith of the people of the same for any loan whatever, either directly or indirectly; nor to create, nor to assume, any indebtedness, except for the actual running expenses thereof; and no such indebtedness for actual running expenses shall be created or assumed in excess of the actual income of the Territory or municipality for that year, including as a part of such income appropriations then made by Congress, and taxes levied and payable and applicable to the payment of such indebtedness and cash and other money credits on hand and applicable and not already pledged for prior indebtedness. All authorized indebtedness shall be paid in the order of its creation. No acts or laws passed by the Legislature of Alaska providing for a county form of government therein shall have any force or effect until it shall be submitted to and approved by the affirmative action of Congress; and all laws passed, or attempted to be passed, by such legislature in said Territory inconsistent with the provisions of this section shall be null and void. Nothing contained in this section shall be held to abridge the right of the legislature to modify the qualifications of electors by extending the elective franchise to women. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 9, 37 Stat. 514.)

78. Same; taxes to be uniform; assessments.—All taxes shall be uniform upon the same class of subjects and shall be levied and collected under general laws, and the assessments shall be according to the actual value thereof. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 9, 37 Stat. 514.)

79. Same; taxation for Territorial purposes; limitation.—No tax shall be levied for Territorial purposes in excess of 1 per centum upon the assessed valuation of property therein in any one year. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 9, 37 Stat. 514.)

80. Same; legislature not to deprive judges, officers, etc., of district court of authority or jurisdiction.—The legislature shall pass no law depriving the judges and officers of the district court of Alaska of any authority, jurisdiction, or function exercised by like judges or officers of district courts of the United States. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 3, 37 Stat. 512.)

81. Same; rules, quorum, and majority.—The senate and house of representatives shall each choose its own officers, determine the rules of its own proceedings not inconsistent with the provisions of this subchapter, and keep a journal of its proceedings; the ayes and noes of the members of either house on any question shall, at the request of one-fifth of the members present, be entered upon the journal; a majority of the members to which each house is entitled shall constitute a quorum of such house for the conduct of business, of which quorum a majority vote shall suffice; a smaller number than a quorum may adjourn from day to day and compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner and under such penalties as each house may provide; for the purpose of ascertaining whether there is a quorum present the presiding officer shall count and report the actual number of members present. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 10, 37 Stat. 515.)

82. Same; member holding other office; persons holding commission or appointment under the United States.—No member of the legislature shall hold or be appointed to any office which has been created, or the salary or emoluments of which have been increased, while he was a member, during the term for which he was elected and for one year after the expiration of such term. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 11, 37 Stat. 516.)

83. Same; persons holding appointment under United States not to be members or hold office.—No person holding a commission or appointment under the United States shall be a member of the legislature or shall hold any office under the government of the Territory. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 11, 37 Stat. 516.)

84. Same; exemptions of members.—No member of the legislature shall be held to answer before any other tribunal for any words uttered in the exercise of his legislative functions. The members of the legislature shall, in all cases except treason, felony, or breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance upon the sessions of the respective houses, and in going to and returning from the same; but such privilege as to going and returning shall not cover a period of more than ten days each way, except in the second division, when it shall extend to twenty days each way, and the fourth division to fifteen days each way. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 12, 37 Stat. 516.)

85. Passage of laws.—A bill in order to become a law shall have three separate readings in each house, the final passage of which in each house shall be by a majority vote of all the members to which such house is entitled, taken by ayes and noes, and entered upon its journal. Every bill, when passed by the house in which it originated or in which amendments thereto shall have originated, shall immediately be enrolled and certified by the presiding officer and the clerk and sent to the other house for consideration. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 13, 37 Stat. 516.)

86. Veto power.—Except as herein provided, all bills passed by the legislature shall, in order to be valid, be signed by the governor. Every bill which shall have passed the legislature shall be certified by the presiding officers and clerks of both houses, and shall thereupon be presented to the governor. If he approves it, he shall sign it and it shall become a law at the expiration of ninety days thereafter, unless sooner given effect by a two-thirds vote of said legislature. If the governor does not approve such bill, he may return it, with his objections, to the legislature. He may veto any specific item or items in any bill which appropriates money for specific purposes, but shall veto other bills, if at all, only as a whole. Upon the receipt of a veto message from the governor each house of the legislature shall enter the same at large upon its journal and proceed to reconsider such bill, or part of a bill, and again vote upon it by ayes and noes, which shall be entered upon its journal. If, after such reconsideration, such bill or part of a bill shall be approved by a two-thirds vote of all the members to which each house is entitled, it shall thereby become a law. If the governor neither signs nor vetoes a bill within three days (Sundays excepted) after it is delivered to him, it shall become a law without his signature, unless the legislature adjourns sine die prior to the expiration of such three days. If any bill shall not be returned by the governor within three days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the legislature, by its adjournment, prevents the return of the bill, in which case it shall not be a law. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 14, 37 Stat. 516.)

87. Legislative expenses.—There shall be annually appropriated by Congress a sum sufficient to pay the salaries of members and authorized employees of the Legislature of Alaska, the printing of the laws, and other incidental expenses thereof; the said sums shall be disbursed by the Governor of Alaska, under sole instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury, and he shall account quarterly to the Secretary for the manner in which the said funds shall have been expended; and no expenditure, to be paid out of money appropriated by Congress, shall be made by the governor or by the legislature for objects not authorized by the Acts of Congress making the appropriations, nor beyond the sums thus appropriated for such objects. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 15, 37 Stat. 516.)

88. Transmission of copies of law to President and Secretary of State.—The Governor of Alaska shall, within ninety days after the close of each session of the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska, transmit a correct copy of all the laws and resolutions passed by the said legislature, certified to by the secretary of the Territory, with the seal of the Territory attached; one copy to the President of the United States, and one to the Secretary of State of the United States. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 16, 37 Stat. 517.)

89. Printing of laws and distribution in the Territory.—The legislature shall make provision for printing the session laws and resolutions within ninety days after the close of each session and for their distribution to public officials and sale to the people of the Territory. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 16, 37 Stat. 517.)

90. Laws submitted to Congress.—All laws passed by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska shall be submitted to Congress by the President of the United States, and, if disapproved by Congress, they shall be null and of no effect. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 20, 37 Stat. 518.)

91. Powers of courts and legislature.—Nothing in this subchapter or in section 23 of this title shall be so construed as to prevent the courts of Alaska from enforcing within their respective jurisdictions all laws passed by the legislature within the power conferred upon it, the same as if such laws were passed by Congress, nor to prevent the legislature passing laws imposing additional duties, not inconsistent with the present duties of their respective offices, upon the governor, marshals, deputy marshals, clerks of the district courts, and United States commissioners acting as justices of the peace, judges of probate courts, recorders, and coroners, and providing the necessary expenses of performing such duties. (Aug. 29, 1914, c. 292, 38 Stat. 710.)

THE JUDICIARY

101. District court; judges; divisions.—There is established a district court for the Territory of Alaska, with the jurisdiction of district courts of the United States and with general jurisdiction in civil, criminal, equity, and admiralty causes; and four district judges shall be appointed for the district, each at an annual salary of $7,500, who shall during their terms of office reside in the divisions of the district to which they may be respectively assigned by the President. The court shall consist of four divisions, which shall also be recording divisions.

Division numbered 1 shall consist of all that part of the Territory of Alaska lying east of the one hundred and forty-first meridian of west longitude.

Division numbered 2 shall consist of all that territory lying west of a line commencing on the Arctic coast at the one hundred and forty-eighth meridian; thence extending south along the easterly watershed of the Colville River to a point on the Rocky Mountain divide between the headwaters of Colville River on the north and west and the waters of the Chandlar River on the south; thence southwesterly along the divide between the waters of the Colville River, Kotzebue Sound, and Norton Sound on the north and west and the waters of the Yukon on the south to the one hundred and sixty-first meridian of west longitude, thence along said meridian to a point midway between the Yukon River and the Kuskokwim River; thence southwesterly to the point of intersection of the sixty-first parallel of north latitude with the shore of Bering Sea; the said division to include all the islands lying north of the fifty-eighth parallel of north latitude and west of the one hundred and forty-eighth meridian of west longitude, excepting Nelson Island, all islands in Kuskokwim Bay, all islands in Bristol Bay, and all islands in the Gulf of Alaska, north of the fifty-eighth parallel of north latitude.

Division numbered 3 shall consist of all that territory lying south and west of the line starting on the coast of the Gulf of Alaska at the one hundred and forty-first meridian of west longitude; thence northerly along said meridian to a point due east from Mount Kimball; thence west to the summit of Mount Kimball; thence southwesterly along the southerly watershed of the headwaters of Tanana River; thence westerly along the divide between the waters of the Gulf of Alaska on the south and the waters of the Yukon on the north to the summit of Mount McKinley; thence continuing southwesterly along the divide between the waters of the Kuskokwim River and Bay on the north and west and the Gulf of Alaska and Bristol Bay on the south to the westerly point of Cape Newenham; the said division to include the Alaska Peninsula, the Aleutian and Pribilof Islands, and all islands along and off the coast of this division, between Cape Newenham and the point where the one hundred and forty-first meridian, west longitude, intersects the northern line of the territory.

Division numbered 4 shall consist of that part of the Territory of Alaska lying east of the second division and north of the third division, and all islands along the north coast of said division, east of the one hundred and forty-eighth meridian of west longitude, also Nelson Island and all islands in Kuskokwim Bay. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 4, 31 Stat. 322; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 269, § 2, 35 Stat. 839; Mar. 2, 1921, c. 110, 41 Stat. 1203.)

102. Same; terms; special terms; notice; interpreters.—One general term of court shall be held each year at Juneau, and such additional terms at other places in the first division as the Attorney General may direct. One general term of court shall be held each year at Nome, and such additional terms at other places in the second division as the Attorney General may direct. One general term of court shall be held each year at Valdez, and such additional terms at other places in the third division as the Attorney General may direct. One general term of court shall be held each year at Fairbanks, and such additional terms at other places in the fourth division as the Attorney General may direct. Each of the judges is authorized and directed to hold such special terms of court as may be necessary for the public welfare or for the dispatch of the business of the court at such times and places in their respective districts as any of them, respectively, may deem expedient, or as the Attorney General may direct; and each shall have authority to employ interpreters and to make allowances for the necessary expenses of his court and to employ an official court stenographer at such compensation as shall be fixed by the Attorney General. At least thirty days' notice shall be given by the judge, or the clerk, of the time and place of holding the several terms of the court. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 4, 31 Stat. 322; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 269, § 2, 35 Stat. 839; Mar. 2, 1921, c. 110, 41 Stat. 1203; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 1, 43 Stat. 936.)

103. Same; jurisdiction; change of place of trial.—The jurisdiction of each division of the court shall extend over the Territory of Alaska, but the court in which the action is pending may, on motion, change the place of trial in any action, civil or criminal, from one place to another place in the same division or to a designated place in another division in either of the following cases:

First. When there is reason to believe that an impartial trial can not be had therein;

Second. When the convenience of witnesses and the ends of justice would be promoted by the change;

Third. When from any cause the judge is disqualified from acting; but in such event, if the judge of another division will appear and try the action, no change of place of trial must be made;

Fourth. By the court, on its own motion, when, considering available means of travel, it appears that the defendant will be put to unnecessary expense and inconvenience if summoned to defend in the place or division in which the action has been commenced; and when it appears to the satisfaction of the court, or judge thereof, that an action has been commenced in a place or division remote from the residence of the defendant for the purpose of causing unnecessary expense or inconvenience, the place of trial shall be changed at the cost of the plaintiff, and such costs shall not be recovered from the defendant.

In any criminal prosecution the court shall change the place of trial where it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant will not be prejudiced thereby and that the United States will be put to unnecessary expense in such criminal prosecution if the transfer is not made. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 5, 31 Stat. 323.)

104. Clerks and commissioners.—The respective judges of the court shall appoint, and at pleasure remove, clerks and commissioners in and for the Territory, who shall have the jurisdiction conferred by law in any part thereof, but who shall, during their terms of office, each reside at the place in the district designated in the respective orders of appointment. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 5, 31 Stat. 323.)

105. Bonds of clerks and commissioners.—The clerks of the court shall each, before entering upon the duties of his office, execute a bond with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, or the court or a judge thereof, in the penalty of $20,000, for the faithful performance of his official duties, and file the same with the Attorney General; and each commissioner shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, execute a bond, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the court, or a judge thereof, in the penalty of $1,000, for the faithful performance of his official duties, and file the same with the clerk, who shall send a certified copy thereof to the Attorney General. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 12, 31 Stat. 326.)

106. Duties of clerks.—Four clerks shall be appointed for the court, one of whom shall be assigned to each division thereof, and during his term of office shall reside at such place in the division as the Attorney General may direct. Each clerk shall, in his division of the Territory, perform the duties required or authorized by law to be performed by clerks of the United States courts in other districts, and such other duties as may be prescribed by the laws of the United States relating to the Territory of Alaska. He shall preserve copies of all laws applicable to the Territory and shall preserve all records and record all proceedings and official acts of his division of the court. He shall also collect and receive all moneys arising from the fees of his office, from licenses, fines, forfeitures, judgments, or on any other account authorized by law to be paid to or collected by him, and shall apply the same, except the money derived from licenses, to the incidental expenses of the proper division of the district court and the allowance thereof as directed in written orders, duly made and signed by the judge, and shall account for the same in detail, and for any balances on account thereof, under oath, quarterly, or more frequently if required, to the court, the Attorney General, and the Secretary of the Treasury. Moneys accruing from violations of the customs laws, civil customs cases, or internal revenue cases, moneys, not including costs, accruing from civil post-office suits, fines in criminal cases for violations of the postal laws, the net proceeds of sales of public property under section 487 of Title 31, MONEY AND FINANCE, and other moneys the disposition of which is otherwise specially provided for by law, shall not be available for the expenses of the court, but shall be paid over or deposited as provided by law for other districts. And after all payments ordered by the judge shall have been made, any balances remaining in the hands of the clerk shall be by him deposited to the credit of the United States and be covered into the Treasury of the United States at such times and under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. The clerk shall be ex officio recorder of instruments as hereinafter provided and also register of wills for the division, and shall establish secure offices for the safe-keeping of his official records where terms of his division of the court are held. He may appoint necessary deputies and employ other necessary clerical assistance to aid him in the expeditious discharge of the duties of his office, with the approval and at compensation to be fixed by the court or judge, subject to the approval of the Attorney General. Any person so appointed or employed shall be paid by the clerk on the order of the judge, as other court expenses are paid. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 7, 31 Stat. 324; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 269, § 3, 35 Stat. 840.)

107. Clerk's fees, accounts, and clerical help.—Each clerk shall collect all money arising from the fees of his office or on any other account authorized by law to be paid to or collected by him, and shall report the same and the disposition thereof in detail, under oath, quarterly, or more frequently if required, to the court, the Attorney General, and the Secretary of the Treasury, and all public money received by him and his deputies for fees or on any other account shall be paid out by the clerk on the order of the court, duly made and signed by the judge, and any balance remaining in his hands after all payments ordered by the court shall have been made shall be by him covered into the Treasury of the United States at such times and under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. The clerk may employ necessary clerical help with the approval and at compensation to be fixed by the court to aid him in the expeditious discharge of the business of his office. Any person so employed shall be paid by the clerk on the order of the court, as other court expenses are paid. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 10, 31 Stat. 325.)

108. Commissioner to be ex officio justice of peace; power to grant habeas corpus; other powers and duties.—The commissioners shall be ex officio justices of the peace, recorders, and probate judges, and shall perform all the duties and exercise all the powers, civil and criminal, imposed or conferred on the United States commissioners by the general laws of the United States and the special laws applicable to Alaska.

They shall also have power to grant writs of habeas corpus for the purpose of inquiring into the cause of restraint of liberty, which writs shall be made returnable before a district judge and like proceedings shall be had thereon as if the same had been granted by the judge under the general laws of the United States in such cases. The commissioners shall also have the powers of notaries public, and shall keep a memorandum of all deeds and other instruments of writing acknowledged before them and relating to the title to or transfer of property within the district, which memorandum shall be subject to public inspection. And all records of instruments of writing made prior to June 6, 1900, by any United States commissioner in the Territory of Alaska are declared to be public records of such district and shall have the same force and effect as if recorded in conformity with the provisions of this subchapter.

The commissioners shall also keep a record of all fines and forfeitures received by them, and shall pay over the same quarterly to the clerk of the division of the district court in which they were appointed. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 6, 31 Stat. 323.)

109. District attorneys; residence, duties, salary, and assistants.—Four district attorneys shall be appointed for the Territory, one of whom shall be assigned to each division and shall reside at such place in the division as the Attorney General shall direct. They shall each perform the duties required to be performed by United States district attorneys in other districts, and such other duties as may be required by law; and they shall each receive a salary of $5,000 and shall not while in office accept retainers or engage in any other law business in the Territory than that pertaining to the duties of their office. The Attorney General may, upon the recommendation of the district attorney, appoint and at pleasure remove one or more assistant district attorneys and one or more clerical assistants, who shall receive such compensation as the Attorney General may fix, to be paid as other assistant United States district attorneys, and clerical assistants are paid. In the case of the death or disability of a district attorney the judge may appoint a suitable person to fill the office until his successor is appointed and qualified or until the disability is removed. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 8, 31 Stat. 324; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 269, § 4, 35 Stat. 841.)

110. Marshals and deputies; residence; salary; duties; powers.—Four United States marshals shall be appointed for the Territory, one of whom shall be assigned to each division and shall reside at such place in the division as the Attorney General shall direct. Each marshal shall have authority and be required to appoint, subject to the approval of the Attorney General, such deputy marshals as he may deem necessary for the efficient execution of the law and the orders of the court and of the commissioners appointed as herein provided.

Each marshal shall receive an annual compensation of $4,000.

When in the opinion of the Attorney General the public interest requires it, he may, on the recommendation of the marshal, which recommendation shall state the facts as distinguished from conclusions, showing necessity for the same, allow the marshals to employ necessary office deputies and clerical assistance, upon salaries to be fixed by the Attorney General, from time to time, and paid as other officers of the court are paid. When any of such office deputies is engaged in the service or attempted service of any writ, process, subpœna, or other order of the court, or when necessarily absent from the place of his regular employment upon official business, he shall be allowed his actual traveling expenses only, and his necessary and actual expenses for lodging and subsistence, not to exceed $4 per day, and the necessary actual expenses in transporting prisoners, including necessary guard hire; and he shall make and render accounts thereof as provided for.

Each marshal shall have the general authority and powers and be subject to the obligations of United States marshals in the States and Territories. He shall be the executive officer of the court, and charged with the execution of all processes thereof and with the transportation and custody of prisoners and insane persons, and he shall be ex officio keeper of the jails and penitentiaries of the division of the district to which he may be assigned, and shall be responsible on his official bond for the acts of all deputy marshals appointed by him. In case of the death of a marshal the district judge shall appoint a suitable person to fill the vacancy until his successor is appointed and qualified. The persons so appointed shall give such bonds as the court may require.

The marshal shall deliver persons duly adjudged insane in the district to the authorities of such asylum or sanitarium as the Governor, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, may designate, and for the service of process in connection with and the guarding and transportation of the insane he shall be compensated as in the case of prisoners.

The deputy marshals shall be ex officio constables and executive officers of the commissioners herein provided for, and shall have the powers and discharge the duties of United States deputy marshals, and also those of constables, under the laws of the United States applicable to said district. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, §§ 9, 10, 31 Stat. 324, 325; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 269, § 6, 35 Stat. 841.)

111. Increase of marshal's bond.—Whenever the business of the courts, in any division of the Territory of Alaska shall make it necessary, in the opinion of the Attorney General, for the marshal for said division to furnish greater security than the official bond required by law, a bond in a sum not to exceed $7,500 shall be given when required by the Attorney General, who shall fix the amount thereof. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 429, § 459, 30 Stat. 1336; Jan. 22, 1902, c. 3, 32 Stat. 2.)

112. Appointment of attorneys, judges, and marshals.—The attorneys, judges, and the marshals provided for in this subchapter shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall hold their respective offices for the term of four years and until their successors are appointed and qualified, unless sooner removed by the President for cause. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 10, 31 Stat. 325.)

113. Salaries, how payable.—The salaries of judges, marshals, clerks, and district attorneys shall be payable from the Treasury of the United States, as like officers are paid in other districts. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 10, 31 Stat. 325.)

114. Traveling expenses.—The marshals, judges, clerks of court, and district attorneys shall, in addition to their salaries, be paid their actual traveling and subsistence expenses when traveling in the discharge of their official duties not in excess of $5 a day. Accounts for such expenses shall be rendered and paid as are accounts of judges, marshals, clerks, and district attorneys for like expenses in other districts. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 10, 31 Stat. 325; Apr. 6, 1914, c. 52, § 1, 38 Stat. 318.)

115. Payment of office expenses of United States marshals.—The Attorney General shall pay the office expenses of United States marshals in the Territory of Alaska from the appropriation, "Salaries, fees, and expenses of United States marshals and their deputies." (June 1, 1922, c. 204, Title II, 42 Stat. 615; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 21, Title II, 42 Stat. 1083.)

116. Accounts of fees and expenses.—An accurate detailed account of all fees earned and expenses incurred by commissioners and deputy marshals shall be prepared in duplicate quarterly, duly verified by the oath of the commissioner or deputy marshal rendering the account, and forwarded to the clerk for the proper division of the district court and approved by the judge thereof, if found to be in accordance with law. After approval by the judge the original of each such account shall be forwarded by the clerk to the Department of Justice for revision and the duplicate filed in the court. All net fees earned in excess of the sum of $3,000 per calendar year or in excess of that rate for a less period, by any commissioner or deputy marshal, shall be annually paid to the clerk of the proper division of the court to be available for incidental expenses of the district court of the proper division, such payment of such incidental expenses to be accompanied by a verified detailed statement of said clerk. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 11, 31 Stat. 326; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 269, § 5, 35 Stat. 841.)

117. Recording districts; establishment, modification, or discontinuance of; removal of commissioner.—At any regular or special term an order may be made by the court establishing one or more recording districts within the recording division under the supervision of such division of the court and defining the boundaries thereof by reference to natural objects and permanent landmarks, or monuments, in such manner that the boundaries thereof can be readily determined.

The order establishing a recording district shall designate a commissioner to be ex officio recorder thereof, and shall also designate the place where the commissioner shall keep his recording office within the recording district.

The clerk of the court shall be ex officio recorder of all that portion of the recording division under the supervision of his division of the court not embraced within the limits of a recording district established, bounded, and described therein as authorized by this section, and when any part of the division for which a clerk has been recording shall be embraced in a recording district, such clerk shall transcribe that portion of his records appertaining to such district and deliver the same to the commissioner designated as recorder thereof.

Whenever it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the public interests demand, or that the convenience of the people require, the court may change or modify the boundaries or discontinue a recording district or change the location of the recording office, or remove the commissioner acting as ex officio recorder, and appoint another commissioner to fill the office. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 13, 31 Stat. 327.)

118. Record books; duties of recorders.—The clerk as ex officio recorder must procure such books for records as the business of his office requires and such as may be required by the respective commissioners designated as recorders in his division of the court, but orders for the same must first be obtained from the court or the judge thereof. The respective officers acting as ex officio recorders shall have the custody and must keep all the books, records, maps, and papers deposited in their respective offices, and where a recorder is removed or from any cause becomes unable to act, or a recording district is discontinued, the records and all books, papers, and property relating thereto shall be delivered to the clerk or such officer or person as the court or judge thereof may direct.

The record books procured by the clerk, as herein provided, shall be paid for by him, on the order of the court, out of any moneys in his hands, as other court expenses are paid. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 14, 31 Stat. 327.)

119. Instruments to be recorded.—The respective recorders shall, upon the payment of the fees for the same prescribed by the Attorney General, record separately, in large and well-bound separate books, in fair hand:

First. Deeds, grants, transfers, contracts to sell or convey real estate and mortgages of real estate, releases of mortgages, powers of attorney, leases which have been acknowledged or proved, mortgages upon personal property;

Second. Certificates of marriage and marriage contracts and births and deaths;

Third. Wills devising real estate admitted to probate;

Fourth. Official bonds;

Fifth. Transcripts of judgments which by law are made liens upon real estate;

Sixth. All orders and judgments made by the district court or the commissioners in probate matters affecting real estate which are required to be recorded;

Seventh. Notices and declaration of water rights;

Eighth. Assignments for the benefit of creditors;

Ninth. Affidavits of annual work done on mining claims;

Tenth. Notices of mining location and declaratory statements;

Eleventh. Such other writings as are required or permitted by law to be recorded, including the liens of mechanics, laborers, and others. Notices of location of mining claims shall be filed for record within ninety days from the date of the discovery of the claim described in the notice, and all instruments shall be recorded in the recording district in which the property or subject matter affected by the instrument is situated, and where the property or subject matter is not situated in any established recording district the instrument affecting the same shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the division of the court having supervision over the recording division in which such property or subject matter is situated. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 15, 31 Stat. 327.)

120. Accounts for fees for instruments unrecorded; penalty.—Any clerk or commissioner authorized to record any instrument who having collected fees for so doing fails to record such instrument shall account to his successor in office, or to such person as the court may direct, for all the fees received by him for recording any instrument on file and unrecorded at the expiration of his official term, or at the time he is required to transfer his records to another officer under the direction of the court. And any clerk or commissioner who fails, neglects, or refuses to so account for fees received and not actually earned by the recording of instrument shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, and imprisoned for not more than one year, or until the fees received and unearned as aforesaid shall have been properly accounted for and paid over by him, as hereinbefore provided. And in addition such fees may be recovered from such clerk or commissioner or the bondsmen of either, in a civil action which shall be brought by the district attorney, in the name of the United States, to recover the same; and the amount when recovered shall be by the court transferred to the successor in office of such recorder who shall thereupon proceed to record the unrecorded instruments. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 16, 31 Stat. 328.)

121. Costs of prosecuting crimes under Alaskan law; offenses against Territorial revenue law.—In the prosecution of all crimes denounced by Territorial laws the costs shall be paid the same as is provided by Act of Congress providing for the prosecution of criminal offenses in Alaska, except that in prosecutions growing out of any revenue law passed by the legislature the costs shall be paid as in civil actions and such prosecutions shall be in the name of the Territory. (Aug. 29, 1914, c. 292, 38 Stat. 710.)

DELEGATE TO CONGRESS

131. Delegate; qualifications; allowances.—The people of the Territory of Alaska shall be represented by a Delegate in the House of Representatives of the United States, chosen by the people thereof in the manner and at the time hereinafter prescribed, and who shall be known as the Delegate from Alaska. Such Delegate shall at the time of his election have been for seven years a citizen of the United States, and shall be an inhabitant and qualified voter of the District of Alaska, and shall be not less than twenty-five years of age. (May 7, 1906, c. 2083, § 1, 34 Stat. 169; May 24, 1924, c. 83, § 1, 43 Stat. 149.)

132. Same; term.—The Delegate chosen at each election shall hold his office for the same term as the Members of the House of Representatives chosen at the general election in the same year. (May 7, 1906, c. 2083, § 2, 34 Stat. 170.)

134. Same; salary and allowances to be for full term.—The salary and allowances of the Delegate from Alaska shall be for the full term of the Congress to which he is elected a Delegate. (May 7, 1906, c. 2083, § 2, 34 Stat. 170.)

Cross reference: Amount of allowance; see section 44 of Title 2.

135. Election for Delegate; voters.—All male citizens of the United States twenty-one years of age and over who are actual and bona fide residents of Alaska, and who have been such residents continuously during the entire year immediately preceding the election, and who have been such residents continuously for thirty days next preceding the election in the precinct in which they vote, shall be qualified to vote for the election of a Delegate from Alaska. (May 7, 1906, c. 2083, § 3, 34 Stat. 170.)

136. Same; election districts in town; officers.—Each incorporated town in the Territory of Alaska shall constitute an election district, and where the population of such town exceeds one thousand inhabitants the common council may, in their discretion, at least thirty days before the election, divide the district into two or more voting precincts and define the boundaries of each precinct; and the said common council shall also appoint, at least thirty days before the election, three judges of election and two clerks for each voting precinct, all of whom shall be qualified voters of the precinct; and no more than two judges and one clerk shall belong to the same political party. The common council shall also, at least thirty days before the date of the election, provide a suitable polling place for each voting precinct and give due notice of the election by posting a written or printed notice in three public places in each precinct, specifying the time and place of the election, and in case there are one or more newspapers of general circulation published in the town, then a copy of said notice shall also be published in one of such newspapers at least once a week for two consecutive weeks next prior to the date of the election. (May 7, 1906, c. 2083, § 4, 34 Stat. 170.)

137. Same; districts outside of towns; precincts.—All of the territory in each recording district situate outside of an incorporated town shall, for the purposes of this subchapter, constitute one election district; in each year in which a Delegate is to be elected the commissioner in each of said election districts shall, at least sixty days before the date of each election, issue an order and notice, signed by him and entered in his records in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, in which said order and notice he shall—

First. Divide his election district into such number of voting precincts as may in his judgment be necessary or convenient, defining the boundaries of each precinct by natural objects and permanent monuments or landmarks, as far as practicable, and in such manner that the boundaries of each can be readily determined and become generally known from such description, specify a polling place in each of said precincts, and give to each voting precinct an appropriate name by which the same shall thereafter be designated. No such voting precinct shall be established with less than thirty qualified voters resident therein; and the precincts established as aforesaid shall remain as permanent precincts for all subsequent elections, unless discontinued or changed by order of the commissioner of that district.

Second. Give notice of said election, specifying in said notice, among other things, the date of such election, the boundary of the voting precincts as established, the location of the polling place in the precinct, and the hours between which said polling places will be open.

Said order and notice shall be given publicity by said commissioner by posting copies of the same at least thirty days before the date of each election. Said copies shall be posted as follows: One at the office of the commissioner in said district, and three copies to be posted in three conspicuous public places in each of said voting precincts as established, one of which shall be the designated polling place in each precinct; and said commissioner shall also mail a certified copy of said order and notice to the Governor of Alaska at his official residence.

At least thirty days prior to the date of the holding of such election the commissioner shall select, notify, and appoint from among the qualified electors in each voting precinct three judges of election for said precinct, no more than two of whom shall be of the same political party. Said commissioner shall notify all of said judges of election of their appointment as such, so that each and all of them shall receive said notice at least ten days before the date of the election. (May 7, 1906, c. 2083, § 5, 34 Stat. 171.)

138. Same; election board; clerks.—The judges of election of each voting precinct shall constitute the election board for said precinct and shall supervise and have charge of the election therein. They shall secure and provide a place for holding the election and a suitable ballot box. They shall pass upon the qualification of the voter and, if he be found qualified, receive and deposit his ballot in the ballot box, and shall canvass and make a return of the votes cast, as hereinafter provided.

The members of said election board in each precinct, before entering upon the duties of their office, shall each severally take an oath, which shall be reduced to writing, before an officer qualified to administer oaths, to honestly, faithfully, and promptly perform the duties of their positions; and if no officer qualified to administer oaths be present or available, then any one of said duly appointed or selected judges of election may administer the necessary oath to said other two judges, and he shall afterwards in turn be sworn by one of them.

Each of said judges shall have authority to administer any oath to the voter necessary or proper under this subchapter, and said judges shall have equal authority; and in case of any question or disagreement over any matter during the course of said election the decision of the majority of said judges shall govern.

Two of the three judges of election in each voting precinct, outside of incorporated towns, to be selected by a majority of said judges shall also perform the duties of clerks of election for that precinct; the two judges performing the duties of clerks shall be of different political parties. It shall be the duty of the clerks at each voting precinct to make a full written record of such election as held in that precinct, and each of them shall keep a correct duplicate register and enter therein the names of the voters and the fact that they have voted, or have offered to vote and were refused, and a brief statement of the reasons for said refusal. (May 7, 1906, c. 2083, § 6, 34 Stat. 171.)

139. Same; vacancies in board.—In case any of the judges of election selected as provided in this subchapter for any precinct shall fail to appear and qualify at the time and place designated for the election for which they shall be appointed, then, in that event, the qualified voters present may, by a majority viva voce vote, select a suitable person or persons to fill the vacancy or vacancies in said election board; and the person or persons so selected shall qualify and serve on said election board, with the same powers and in the same manner as if appointed as hereinbefore provided. (May 7, 1906, c. 2083, § 8, 34 Stat. 172.)

140. Same; watchers.—Each of the candidates for the office of Delegate provided for in section 131 of this title, at any election held under the provisions of this subchapter, shall be entitled to one watcher at each voting precinct, who shall be permitted to be present within the place of voting at such precinct, and in some place therein where he may at all times be in full view of every act done. Such watcher shall have the right to be so present at all times from the opening of the polls until the ballots are finally counted and the result certified by the election board. Each watcher shall be required to present to the election board proper credentials, signed by the candidate he represents, showing him to be the duly authorized watcher for such person. (May 7, 1906, c. 2083, § 7, 34 Stat. 172.)

141. Same; hours for voting; ballots.—The election boards provided for in this subchapter shall keep the several polling places open for reception of votes from eight o'clock antemeridian until seven o'clock postmeridian on the day of election. The voting at said election shall be by printed or written ballot.

At all elections the ballot shall be substantially in the following form:

"FOR DELEGATE FROM ALASKA

"(Here insert the name of the person voted for.)"

Such ballot shall be folded by the voter so as not to disclose the vote, and by him handed to any one of the judges of election, who shall immediately, in the presence of the voter and of all the members of the election board, deposit the same, folded as aforesaid, in the ballot box, where the same shall remain untouched until the polls are closed. At the time the ballot is so deposited the clerks of election shall each of them enter in his duplicate register the name of the voter and the fact that he has voted. (May 7, 1906, c. 2083, § 9, 34 Stat. 172.)

142. Same; challenges; penalty for falsely swearing.—Any person offering to vote may be challenged by any election officer or any other person entitled to vote at the same polling place, or by any duly appointed watcher, and when so challenged before being allowed to vote he shall make and subscribe to the following oath: "You do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be) that you are twenty-one years of age and a citizen of the United States; that you are an actual and bona fide resident of Alaska, and have been such resident during the entire year immediately preceding this election, and have been a resident in this voting precinct for thirty days next preceding this election, and that you have not voted at this election," and further naming the place from which the voter came immediately prior to living in the precinct in which he offers to vote, and giving the length of time of his residence in the former place. And when he has made such an affidavit he shall be allowed to vote; but if any such person so challenged shall refuse or fail to take such oath and sign such affidavit, then his vote shall be rejected; and any person swearing falsely in any such affidavit shall be guilty of perjury and shall, upon conviction thereof, suffer punishment as is prescribed by law for persons guilty of perjury. (May 7, 1906, c. 2083, § 10, 34 Stat. 172.)

143. Same; canvass of votes; certificates of result; care of documents.—The election board at each polling place, as soon as the polls are closed, shall immediately publicly proceed to open the ballot box and count and canvass the votes cast, and they shall thereupon, under their hands and seals, make out in duplicate a certificate of the result of said election, specifying the number of votes, in words and figures, cast for each candidate, and they shall then immediately carefully and securely seal up in one envelope one of said duplicate certificates and one of the registers of voters, all the ballots cast, and all affidavits made, and mail such envelope, with said papers inclosed, at the nearest post office by registered mail, if possible, duly addressed to the Governor of Alaska at his place of residence, with the postage prepaid thereon.

The other duplicate certificate and register of voters, with the oaths of the judges of election, the judges of election shall at once seal up in an envelope addressed to the clerk of the district court for the division in which the precinct is situate, at his place of residence, with the postage thereon prepaid, and deposit the same in the nearest post office, by registered mail, if possible. And the said clerk shall, as soon as he receives the said duplicate certificate, at once make out and duly mail to the Governor of Alaska a certified copy of such certificate.

The clerks of the district courts for the various divisions of Alaska and the Governor of Alaska shall each retain and carefully preserve all such documents received by them until the end of the term for which the Delegate chosen has been elected. (May 7, 1906, c. 2083, § 11, 34 Stat. 173.)

144. Same; canvassing board; canvass.—The governor and the collector of customs for Alaska shall constitute a canvassing board for the Territory of Alaska to canvass and compile in writing the vote specified in the certificates of election returned to the governor from all the several election precincts as aforesaid.

The said canvassing board shall commence the performance of its duties at the office of the governor in each year in which an election is held under and by virtue of this subchapter, and shall continue with such work from day to day until the same is completed; and said canvass shall be publicly made.

In case it shall appear to said board that no election return as hereinbefore prescribed has been received by the governor from any precinct in which an election has been held, the said board may accept in place thereof the certified copy of the certificate of election for such precinct received from the clerk of the court, and may canvass and compile the same with the other election returns.

Said board, upon the completion of said canvass, shall declare the person who has received the greatest number of votes for Delegate to be the duly elected Delegate from Alaska for the term for which he has been so elected, and shall issue and deliver to him in writing under their hands and seals a certificate of his election. (May 7, 1906, c. 2083, § 12, 34 Stat. 173; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 17, 37 Stat. 517.)

145. Same; time of holding election to fill vacancies.—The election for Delegate from the Territory of Alaska, provided by this subchapter, shall be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November biennially in even-numbered years. The time for holding an election for Delegate in Alaska to the House of Representatives to fill a vacancy, whether such vacancy is caused by failure to elect at the time prescribed by law, or by the death, resignation, or incapacity of a person elected, may be prescribed by an act passed by the Legislature of the Territory of Alaska. When such election is held it shall be governed in every respect by the laws passed by Congress governing such election. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 17, 37 Stat. 517.)

146. Same; compensation of judges and clerks.—Each of the judges of election who shall qualify and serve as such in any precinct on said election day and each of the clerks of election in an incorporated town shall be entitled to a compensation of $5 for all services performed. (May 7, 1906, c. 2083, § 13, 34 Stat. 174.)

147. Same; election notices.—Each newspaper in Alaska authorized to publish the notice of election provided for in this subchapter, and having published the same according to law, shall be entitled to receive therefor not more than $10 for the entire publications of any one election; each commissioner in the Territory of Alaska is authorized to contract for the proper posting of all elections notices, as provided in this subchapter, in each voting precinct created in his said election district, and not more than the sum of $10 shall be allowed at each election for the posting of said notices in any one voting precinct in Alaska; not more than $10 at each election shall be allowed for the rental of a proper polling place in each voting precinct in Alaska. (May 7, 1906, c. 2083, § 13, 34 Stat. 174.)

148. Same; audit and payment of expenses.—The compensation for newspaper publications, the proper posting of said notices, the rental of said polling places, the fees of the judges and clerks of election in each precinct, together with the cost of securing a ballot box and the cost of necessary postage and stationery, shall be certified with proper vouchers and receipts attached by various election officials to the judge of the district court in the said judicial division in which said voting precinct is situate, and the same shall be audited by said judge and shall be paid by the clerk of the court of said division out of the same fund and in the same manner as the incidental expenses of said district court are paid. (May 7, 1906, c. 2083, § 14, 34 Stat. 174.)

149. Same; offenses; jurisdiction.—Any person who, by any means, shall hinder, delay, prevent, or obstruct any other person from qualifying himself to vote or from lawfully voting at any election provided for in this subchapter, or who shall knowingly personate and vote or attempt to vote in the name of any other person, or who shall vote more than once at the same election, or shall vote at a place where or at a time when he may not lawfully be entitled to vote, or shall do any unlawful act to secure an opportunity to vote, for himself or for any other person, or who, by or through any force, threat, intimidation, bribery, reward or offer thereof, unlawfully vote himself or procures another to vote, or prevents or induces another to refrain from exercising his right of suffrage, or induces by any means any officer of an election to do any unlawful act or omit to do his duty in any manner, or who, directly or indirectly, in any manner shall fraudulently change or cause to be changed the returns or the true and lawful result of any election hereunder or shall attempt to do the same, or who shall delay, cause to be delayed, or connive at the delay of election returns in any manner or attempt to do so, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon the conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 nor less than $100, or imprisoned not more than three years, or both, in the discretion of the court, and pay the costs of the prosecution; and every officer of an election held hereunder who neglects to perform or violates any duty imposed upon him as such officer, or knowingly does any unauthorized act with the intent to affect the election or the result thereof, or who shall permit, make, or connive at any false count or certificate of election, or who shall conceal, withhold, destroy, or willfully delay the returns of election, or connive at the same being done, or who shall aid, counsel, or procure any person to do or attempt to do any act made a crime hereinbefore, or guilty of a crime, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $200 nor more than $1,000, or by imprisonment of not more than five years, or both, in the discretion of the court, and shall pay all costs of the prosecution; and jurisdiction of all such matters is hereby conferred upon the district court of Alaska. (May 7, 1906, c. 2083, § 15, 34 Stat. 174.)

EDUCATION AND SCHOOLS

161. Public instruction; superintendent of public instruction.—The Governor of Alaska shall be ex officio superintendent of public instruction in the Territory, and as such shall have supervision and direction of the public schools in said Territory and shall prescribe rules and regulations for the examination and qualification of teachers, and shall make an annual report of the condition of the schools in the Territory to the Secretary of the Interior. (Jan. 27, 1905, c. 277, § 3, 33 Stat. 617.)

162. Same; school districts in towns; funds.—The common council of the incorporated towns in Alaska shall have the power and it shall be their duty, in their respective towns to establish school districts, to provide the same with suitable schoolhouses and to maintain public schools therein and to provide the necessary funds for the schools. (Jan. 27, 1905, c. 277, § 4, 33 Stat. 617; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 14, § 1, 33 Stat. 1262.)

163. School board; term of office; expenditures.—Such schools when established shall be under the supervision and control of a school board of three members, consisting of a director, a treasurer, and a clerk, to be elected annually by the vote of all adults who are citizens of the United States or who have declared their intention to become such and who are residents of the school district. The members of said board first elected shall hold their offices for the term of one, two, and three years, respectively, and until their successors are elected and qualified, and one member of such board shall be elected each year thereafter and shall hold his office for a period of three years and until his successor is elected and qualified; and they shall each, before entering upon the duties of their office, take an oath in writing to honestly and faithfully discharge the duties of their trust. In case a vacancy in the membership of said board occurs from death, resignation, removal, or other cause, such vacancy may be filled by a special election, upon ten days' notice, called by the remaining members of the board upon the petition of five qualified voters. All money available for school purposes, except for the construction and equipment of schoolhouses and the acquisition of sites for the same, shall be expended under the direction of said board, and the treasurer of said board shall be the custodian of said money, and he shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give his bond, with sufficient sureties, to the school district, in such sum as the common council may direct, and subject to its approval, but not less than twice the amount that may come into his hands as treasurer, conditioned that he will honestly and faithfully disburse and account for all money that may come into his hands as such treasurer. (Jan. 27, 1905, c. 277, § 4, 33 Stat. 617; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1491, 33 Stat. 1262.)

164. Same; teachers; heating and lighting schoolhouses, etc.—The said board shall have power to hire and employ the necessary teachers, to provide for heating and lighting the schoolhouse, and in general to do and perform everything necessary for the due maintenance of a proper school. (Jan. 27, 1905, c. 277, § 4, 33 Stat. 617; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1491, 33 Stat. 1262.)

165. Same; reports of clerks.—The clerks of school districts in the incorporated towns shall, at the end of each school term, report to the governor in writing the length of the term, the wages paid the teacher, the number of pupils in attendance, and the average daily attendance during the term. (Jan. 27, 1905, c. 277, § 6, 33 Stat. 619.)

166. School districts outside incorporated towns; duty of clerk of district court; election.—The clerk of the district court shall have the power, and it shall be his duty, in the division to which he is appointed and in which he resides, upon petition as hereinafter specified, to establish by order in writing a school district at any camp, village, or settlement outside of the limits of any incorporated town, but such school district shall not embrace more than forty square miles of territory nor contain less than twenty resident white children between the ages of six and twenty years. The said petition shall specify as near as may be the location and boundary of the proposed school district, the number of people, the number of families, and the number of children between the ages of six and twenty years, resident therein, and such other material facts as tend to show the necessity for the establishment of the school district. Said petition shall be signed by not less than twelve persons of adult age who are citizens of the United States or have declared their intention to become such and who reside within the boundaries of the proposed school district. If the clerk of the court is satisfied that it is necessary and proper to grant such petition, he shall make an order in writing establishing the school district prayed for, describing the same and defining its boundaries, and he shall also in said order appoint three of the petitioners to supervise and give notice of the first election, and shall specify the time and place of the same. The original order shall remain on file in the records of the court, and a copy of the same shall be posted at three public places in the school district at least ten days before the election, and such posting shall be deemed a sufficient notice of such election. All persons qualified to sign said petition shall be qualified to vote at said election. (Jan. 27, 1905, c. 277, § 5, 33 Stat. 617.)

167. Same; election of school board; powers and duties.—The qualified voters of said school district shall at said election choose by a plurality vote a school board of three members, consisting of a clerk, a treasurer, and a director, who shall, before entering upon the duties of their trust, each take an oath in writing to honorably and faithfully discharge the duties of their office. In case a vacancy in the membership of said board occurs from death, resignation, removal, or other cause, such vacancy may be filled by a special election, upon ten days' notice, called by the remaining members of the board upon the petition of five qualified voters. The treasurer shall be the custodian of the moneys of the school district, and he shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give his bond to the school district, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk of the court, and in such sum as he may direct, but not less than twice the amount of money that may come into his hands as treasurer, conditioned that he, the treasurer, will honestly and faithfully disburse and account for all the money that may come into his hands by virtue of his office. Said board shall have the power to build or rent the necessary schoolhouse or schoolroom, to equip the same with the necessary furniture and fixtures, to provide fuel and light, to hire and employ teachers, and in general to do and perform everything that may be necessary for the maintenance of a public school. The members of said board shall hold office for the term of one year and until their successors are elected and qualified. An annual election shall be held each year, after the first election, for the election of members of said board. As soon as the members of said school board have been elected and qualified, they shall send to the clerk of the court and file in his office a certificate of their election under the hand and seal of the judges or supervisors of election, their oaths of office, and the bond of the treasurer, and the clerk of the court shall file said papers and carefully keep them as a part of the files and records of his office, and he shall at once send to the Governor of the District of Alaska a certified copy of said papers, together with a certified copy of the order establishing the school district, and the governor shall duly file and preserve the same. The said board, as soon as they have complied with the requirements aforesaid, shall immediately report in writing to the governor the number of children in their school district between the ages of six and twenty years that intend to attend a public school, and the wages per month for which a teacher can be obtained; and after a school has been opened and maintained they shall, at the end of each school term, report to the governor in writing the length of the term, the wages paid the teacher, the total number of pupils in attendance, and the daily average of such attendance at such term. (Jan. 27, 1905, c. 277, § 5, 33 Stat. 617.)

168. Governor to assign proportion of Alaska fund.—The governor shall assign and set apart to each school district established and organized under the provisions of sections 166 and 167 of this title a sum, not less than $300 nor more than $1,000, in proportion to the number of pupils in the district, for the construction and equipment of a schoolhouse, which sum shall be paid by the Secretary of the Treasury to the treasurer of the school district upon the order and voucher of the governor out of that portion of the said Alaska fund set apart for the establishment and maintenance of public schools. The residue of said portion of said fund, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall by the governor be apportioned among the several school districts established under the provisions of this section in amounts sufficient for each district to pay the wages of a teacher, together with the expense of fuel and light, for five months' school in each year. And the amounts so apportioned to each school district shall be paid to the treasurer of the district by the Secretary of the Treasury upon the order and voucher of the governor out of the said portion of said fund. (Jan. 27, 1905, c. 277, § 5, 33 Stat. 617.)

169. Same; education of children and Eskimos and Indians.—The schools specified and provided for in sections 162, 163, 166 and 167 of this title shall be devoted to the education of white children and children of mixed blood who lead a civilized life. The education of the Eskimos and Indians in Alaska shall remain under the direction and control of the Secretary of the Interior, and schools for and among the Eskimos and Indians of Alaska shall be provided for by an annual appropriation, and the Eskimo and Indian children of Alaska shall have the same right to be admitted to any Indian boarding school as the Indian children in the States or Territories of the United States. (Jan. 27, 1905, c. 277, § 7, 33 Stat. 619.)

170. Same; schools for white and colored children; appropriations.—The Legislature of Alaska is empowered to establish and maintain schools for white and colored children and children of mixed blood who lead a civilized life in said Territory and to make appropriations of Territorial funds for that purpose. (Mar. 3, 1917, c. 167, 39 Stat. 1131.)

171. Same; assignments of pay by teachers and other employees.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to permit teachers and other employees of the United States Bureau of Education employed in Alaska to make assignments of their pay, under such regulations as he may prescribe, during such time as they may be in the employ of the Bureau of Education in Alaska; and the Secretary of the Interior is further authorized, in his discretion, under such regulations as he may prescribe, to reimburse school teachers in Alaska for expenses incurred by them in the discharge of their duties and paid from their personal funds. (Mar. 21, 1906, No. 10, 34 Stat. 824.)

172. Same; employees as special peace officers.—The Attorney General shall have power to appoint, in his discretion, any person employed in the Alaska school service who may be designated by the Secretary of the Interior as a special peace officer of the division of Alaska in which such person resides; and such special peace officer shall have authority to arrest, upon warrant duly issued, any native of Alaska charged with the violation of any of the provisions of the Criminal Code of Alaska (Act March 3, 1899, chapter 429, Thirtieth Statutes at Large, pages 1253–1256) or any amendment thereof, or any white man charged with the violation of any of said provisions to the detriment of any native of Alaska; and such peace officer shall also have authority to make such arrests, without warrant, for a crime committed or attempted in his presence, or when the person arrested has committed a felony, although not in his presence, or when a felony has in fact been committed and he has reasonable cause for believing the person arrested to have committed it; and any person so arrested shall be taken, in accordance with such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Attorney General, and without unnecessary delay, before a United States commissioner or other judicial officer for trial. No person so appointed shall be entitled to any fees or emoluments of any character whatsoever for performing any of the services herein mentioned, but may be allowed, in the discretion of the Attorney General, expenses actually and necessarily incurred in connection with such services. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 266, 35 Stat. 837.)

173. Vocational training for aboriginal natives; schools, etc.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to establish a system of vocational training for the aboriginal native people of the Territory of Alaska, and to construct and maintain suitable buildings for schools and dormitories and hospitals in such localities within the Territory of Alaska as he may select. (Feb. 25, 1925, c. 320, § 1, 43 Stat. 978.)

174. Same; buildings assigned to Bureau of Education by Secretary of Interior.—The Secretary of the Interior is instructed to assign to the Bureau of Education any unoccupied buildings in Alaska which are in his custody at abandoned military posts or any other buildings controlled by the Department of the Interior, for use by the Bureau of Education as industrial schools or hospitals that are held by him to be necessary or suitable for purposes outlined in section 173 of this title; and the Secretary of War is authorized to transfer to the Secretary of the Interior any unoccupied buildings in Alaska that in the opinion of the Secretary of War may be dispensed with by the War Department, to be used for industrial school or hospital purposes that are held by him to be necessary or suitable for such purposes, and the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to dismantle and remove any of the aforementioned buildings to such locations as may be decided upon for the erection of industrial schools. (Feb. 25, 1925, c. 320, § 2, 43 Stat. 978.)

ALASKA GAME LAW

191. Powers and duties of Secretary of Commerce and Secretary of Agriculture.—The powers and duties conferred upon the Secretary of Commerce prior to May 31, 1920, by law, proclamations, or Executive orders with respect to any mink, marten, beaver, land otter, muskrat, fox, wolf, wolverine, weasel, or other land fur-bearing animals in Alaska, and with respect to the leasing of certain islands in Alaska for the propagation of fur-bearing animals, are conferred upon, and shall be exercised by, the Secretary of Agriculture, and the powers and duties conferred upon the Secretary of Agriculture prior to May 31, 1920, with respect to walruses and sea lions, are conferred upon, and shall be exercised by, the Secretary of Commerce. Nothing contained in this section shall affect the powers and duties conferred upon the Secretary of Commerce by existing law, proclamations, or Executive orders with respect to fur seals and sea otters and jurisdiction over the Pribilof Islands and the fur-bearing animals thereon. (May 31, 1920, c. 217, 41 Stat. 716.)

192. Duties and powers of the commission, wardens, and officers.—The commission shall have authority to employ and remove game wardens, deputies, clerks, and such other assistants as may be necessary, to fix their periods of service and compensation, to rent quarters, and to incur other expenses, including printing, necessary for the enforcement of the provisions of this subchapter and for which appropriation has been made; but, subject to review by the commission, the executive officer may suspend or remove any game warden or other employee for cause, including insubordination.

Each member of the commission, any warden, any person appointed by the Secretary of Agriculture or by the commission to enforce the provisions of this subchapter, any Forest Service employee, marshal, deputy marshal, collector or deputy collector of customs, officer of a Coast Guard vessel, special officer of the Department of Justice, or licensed guide shall have power, in or out of the Territory, and it shall be his duty, to arrest without warrant any person committing a violation of said provisions in his presence or view, and to take such person immediately for examination or trial before an officer or court of competent jurisdiction; he shall have power to execute any warrant or other process issued by an officer or court of competent jurisdiction for the enforcement of the provisions of this subchapter; and he shall have authority, with a search warrant, to search any place at any time. Any officer or employee empowered to enforce the provisions of this subchapter shall have with respect to camps and vessels of the United States like authority and powers of search as are conferred with respect to such vessels upon wardens appointed by the Secretary of Agriculture for the protection of land fur-bearing animals in Alaska, by the Act of May 31, 1920 (chapter 217, Forty-first Statutes at Large, page 716), conferring upon officers appointed for the protection of fur-bearing animals in Alaska the authority and powers conferred by law upon officers and agents of the Department of Commerce employed in the salmon fisheries and fur-seal and sea-otter services in Alaska, and like authority and powers as were conferred upon game wardens by the Act of May 11, 1908 (Thirty-fifth Statutes at Large, page 102), which provided that any warden in or out of Alaska might arrest without warrant any person found violating any of the provisions of that Act, or any of the regulations therein provided, and might seize any game, birds, or hides, and any traps, nets, guns, boats, or other paraphernalia used in the capture of such game or birds and found in the possession of said person in or out of Alaska, and keep and deliver the same to a marshal or deputy marshal. The several judges of the courts established under the laws of the United States and United States commissioners may, within their respective jurisdictions, upon proper oath or affirmation showing probable cause, issue warrants in all such cases. All guns, traps, nets, boats, dogs, sleds, and other paraphernalia used in or in aid of a violation of the provisions of this subchapter may be seized, and all animals, birds, or parts thereof, or nests or eggs of birds taken, transported or possessed contrary to the provisions of this subchapter shall be seized within or outside the Territory by any officer or person authorized to enforce the provisions of this subchapter, and upon conviction of the offender or upon judgment of a court of the United States that the same were being used or were taken, transported, or possessed in violation of this subchapter, shall be forfeited to the United States and disposed of as directed by the court having jurisdiction, and if sold the proceeds of sale shall be transmitted by the clerk of the court to the executive officer to be disposed of as are other receipts of the commission. Any property, animals, birds, or parts thereof, or nests or eggs of birds seized by a licensed guide shall be safely held and promptly delivered by him to the commission, a game warden, or to a marshal or a deputy marshal. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury and the Postmaster General, upon request of the Secretary of Agriculture, to aid in carrying out the provisions of this subchapter. (Jan. 13, 1925, c. 75, § 5, 43 Stat. 741.)

193. Bonds of commissioners and game wardens, etc.—Before entering upon the duties of his office, each member of the commission, other than the executive officer, shall execute and file with the Secretary of Agriculture a bond to the people of the United States in the sum of $1,000, with sufficient sureties, and the executive officer shall so file such a bond in the sum of $20,000, and each game warden or other person authorized by the commission to sell licenses shall so file such a bond in the sum of $500, conditioned for the faithful performance of their respective duties, and for the proper accounting and paying over, pursuant to law, of all moneys or property received by them, respectively. Each member of the commission and each of such game wardens or other persons shall have reimbursed to him on proper voucher the premium paid by him on his bond. (Jan. 13, 1925, c. 75, § 6, 43 Stat. 742.)

194. Commission to file estimates and submit report of administration.—The commission, on or before the 15th day of July of each year, shall file with the Secretary of Agriculture a detailed estimate of the appropriation necessary for the service during the following fiscal year, and on or before the 1st day of October of each year shall submit a detailed report to him covering the administration of the law, including all expenditures and other operations for the preceding fiscal year, and such estimates shall be subject to revision by him. (Jan. 13, 1925, c. 75, § 7, 43 Stat. 742.)

195. Taking of animals and birds restricted.—Unless and except as permitted by this subchapter or by regulations made pursuant to this subchapter, it shall be unlawful for any person to take, possess, transport, sell, offer to sell, purchase, or offer to purchase any game animal, land fur-bearing animal, wild bird, or any parts thereof, or any nest or egg of any such bird, or, except under regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture, to molest, damage, or destroy beaver or muskrat houses. Nothing in this subchapter shall be construed to prevent the collection or exportation of animals, birds, parts thereof, or nests or eggs of birds for scientific purposes, or of live animals, birds, or eggs of birds, for propagation or exhibition purposes, under a permit issued by the Secretary of Agriculture and under such regulations as he may prescribe. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 29, 31 Stat. 332; May 11, 1908, c. 162, § 2, 35 Stat. 102; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 280, 36 Stat. 1360; Jan. 13, 1925, c. 75, § 8, 43 Stat. 743.)

196. Same; animals escaping from captivity, etc., subject to game law.—Land fur-bearing or game animals which escape from captivity, unless recaptured by their owners, and all fur and game animals introduced into Alaska are declared to be wild fur-bearing or game animals and shall be subject to the provisions of this subchapter. (Jan. 13, 1925, c. 75, § 8, 43 Stat. 743.)

197. Poison; use prohibited; record of sales.—No person shall at any time use any poison to kill any animal or bird protected by this subchapter or put out poison or a poisoned bait where any such animal or bird may come in contact with it; but a game warden or predatory animal hunter employed by or under the direction of the commission may use poison to kill wolves, coyotes, or wolverines, under such regulations as the commission may adopt; and no person shall sell or give any strychnine or other poison designated by the commission to any hunter or trapper, including native Indians or Eskimos who hunt or trap. No hunter or trapper, including native Indians or Eskimos who hunt and trap, shall have any strychnine or other poison designated by the commission in his possession, and any such poison found in the possession of any such person shall be seized and disposed of in such manner as the commission may determine. Any person selling or otherwise disposing of any strychnine or any other poison designated by the commission shall keep a record in a special book showing the name and address of each person purchasing or otherwise procuring it and the kind and amount thereof, which record shall at all times be open to inspection by any game warden or other officer authorized to enforce the provisions of this subchapter, and he shall transmit such information monthly to the commission. (Jan. 13, 1925, c. 75, § 9, 43 Stat. 743.)

198. Regulations; limitations upon; taking game for food during closed season.—The Secretary of Agriculture, upon consultation with or recommendation from the commission, is authorized and directed from time to time to determine when, to what extent, if at all, and by what means game animals, land fur-bearing animals, game birds, nongame birds, and nests or eggs of birds may be taken, possessed, transported, bought, or sold, and to adopt suitable regulations permitting and governing the same in accordance with such determinations, which regulations shall become effective ninety days after the date of publication thereof by the Secretary of Agriculture; but no such regulation shall permit any person to take any female yearling or calf moose, any doe yearling or fawn deer, or any female or lamb mountain sheep except under permit for scientific, propagation, or educational purposes; or to use any dog in taking game animals; or to sell the heads, hides, or horns of any game animals, except the hides of moose, caribou, deer, and mountain goat which the regulations may permit to be sold under such restrictions as the Secretary may deem to be appropriate; or to use any shotgun larger than a number 10 gauge; or to use any airplane, steam or power launch, or any boat other than one propelled by paddle, oars, or pole in taking game animals or game birds; or to sell any game animals, game birds, or parts thereof, to the owner, master, or employee of any coastal or river steamer or commercial power or sail boat, or to procure for serving or to serve any such game animals, game birds, or parts thereof, in any cannery or other commercial mess house, or to the employees on any such steamer or boat; nor, except as herein provided, shall prohibit any Indian or Eskimo, prospector, or traveler to take animals or birds during the closed season when he is in absolute need of food and other food is not available, but the shipment or sale of any animals or birds or parts thereof so taken shall not be permitted, except that the hides of animals so taken may be sold within the Territory, but the Secretary by regulation may prohibit such native Indians or Eskimos, prospectors, or travelers from taking any species of animals or birds for food during the closed season in any section of the Territory within which he shall determine that the supply of such species of animals or birds is in danger of extermination; nor shall any such regulation contravene any of the provisions of sections 703 to 711 of Title 16 (the Migratory Bird Treaty Act) and regulations. (May 11, 1908, c. 162, §§ 3, 4, 35 Stat. 103; Jan. 13, 1925, c. 75, § 10, 43 Stat. 743.)

199. Licenses—

(Subdivision A.) Nonresident hunting license.—Except as otherwise permitted by this subchapter, or by regulation made pursuant thereto, no nonresident shall take or possess any of the animals or birds protected by the provisions of this subchapter without first having procured a nonresident hunting and trapping license as herein provided.

(Subdivision A.) Nonresident hunting license.—Except as the Territory shall export any game animal or part thereof, except that he may export for mounting and return to the Territory in any one year but not for sale, not to exceed two heads or trophies of each species of game animal legally killed by him, upon first procuring a resident shipping license as herein provided, but the Secretary may, by regulation, permit a citizen of the United States, who has been a resident of the Territory for at least two years and who is removing his residence from the Territory, to export trophies of game animals legally acquired by him, upon first procuring a resident shipping license as herein provided.

(Subdivision C.) Resident hunting and trapping licenses.—The commission, whenever it shall deem expedient, may by regulation require residents of the Territory to procure resident hunting and trapping licenses authorizing them to take animals and birds protected by this subchapter, and when such licenses shall have been required of residents the fee therefor shall be as follows: For each hunting license the sum of $2 and for each trapping license the sum of $2, but no such license shall be required of native-born Indians, Eskimos, or half-breeds who have not severed their tribal relations by adopting a civilized mode of living or by exercising the right of franchise. After the expiration of sixty days from the adoption of such regulation no resident shall take any animal or bird protected by this subchapter without having first procured resident hunting and trapping licenses as herein provided.

(Subdivision D.) Registered guide license.—Only a resident citizen or a resident native Indian or Eskimo of the Territory may act as guide for a nonresident in any section of the Territory where the commission by regulation requires nonresidents to employ guides, and he shall first register with the commission in a book which it shall keep for this purpose and procure a registered guide license as herein provided, and the commission shall determine by regulation the qualifications required of such guides. No person other than a registered guide shall act as guide for a nonresident in any section of the Territory where guides are required by regulation of the commission to be registered.

(Subdivision E.) Alien special license.—No alien shall take any of the animals or birds protected by the provisions of this subchapter or own or be possessed of a shotgun, rifle, or other firearm, except under an alien special license issued as provided in this subchapter.

(Subdivision F.) Reports.—Each person to whom a license to take birds or animals, or to deal in furs, is issued, shall, on or before thirty days after the expiration of his license, make a written report to the commission on a form prepared and furnished by it, stating the kind and number of each species of bird or animal taken, purchased, or otherwise procured under such license. A licensee who willfully fails or neglects to make such report shall not be entitled to, nor shall he be granted, a license to take birds or animals or deal in furs for one year from the date such report is due, but no other punishment shall be imposed.

(Subdivision G.) Fur-farm license.—No person shall engage in the business of farming land fur-bearing animals or possess them for purposes of propagation without first having procured a fur-farm license as provided in this subchapter.

(Subdivision H.) Fur dealers, licenses, fees.—No person shall buy or sell the skins of fur-bearing animals, or engage in, carry on, or be concerned in the business of buying, selling, or trading in the skins of fur-bearing animals protected by the provisions of this subchapter without first having procured a license as herein provided, but no license shall be required of a native-born resident Indian, Eskimo, or half-breed who has not severed his tribal relations by adopting a civilized mode of living or by exercising the right of franchise, or of a hunter or trapper selling the skins of such animals which he has lawfully taken, or of a person not engaged or employed in the business of trading in such skins to purchase them for his own use but not for sale.

The applicant for such a license shall accompany his application by the required fee, as follows:

(a) If the applicant is a resident of the Territory, the sum of $10.

(b) If the applicant is a nonresident of the Territory, who is a citizen of the United States, or is a corporation, association, or copartnership organized under the laws of the Territory or of a State of the United States, the sum of $250.

(c) If the applicant is an alien, or is a corporation, association, or copartnership not organized under the laws of the Territory or of a State of the United States, the sum of $500.

If a resident agent for a fur dealer within the meaning of clause (c) of this section, the sum of $10.

If a nonresident, who is a citizen of the United States and an agent for a dealer within the meaning of said clause (c), the sum of $250.

(Subdivision I.) Fees and applications for, and issuance of licenses.—Licenses, with the exception of alien special licenses and resident shipping licenses, shall be issued by the commission through its members, game wardens, and other persons authorized by it in writing to sell licenses. Alien special licenses shall be issued only by the members of the commission, and resident shipping licenses shall be issued by members of the commission and by the collector of customs at the port of shipment. Application blanks for licenses shall be furnished by the commission and shall be in such form as the commission may by regulation determine; and each application shall be subscribed and sworn to by the applicant before an officer authorized to administer oaths in the Territory; and the members of the commission, and its game wardens and other persons authorized in writing by it to issue licenses are hereby authorized to administer oaths to applicants for such licenses. The applicant for a license shall accompany his application with a license fee as follows:

Nonresident big game, small game, and fur-bearing animal hunting and trapping license, $50.

Nonresident small game hunting license, $10.

Resident shipping and return license, $1 for each trophy.

Resident removing from Territory, $5 for each trophy of big game.

Registered guide license, $10.

Alien special license, $100.

Fur farm license, $2.

(Subdivision J.) False statement in application for and alteration and expiration of licenses.—Any false statement in an application for license as to citizenship, place of residence or other material facts shall render null and void the license issued upon it. Any person who shall make any false statement in an application for a license shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to the penalties provided for the commission of perjury. No person shall alter, change, loan, or transfer to another any license issued to him in pursuance of the provisions of this subchapter, nor shall any person other than the one to whom it is issued use such license; and each of such licenses shall expire the 30th day of June next succeeding its issuance.

(Subdivision K.) Proceeds of licenses, disposition of.—Each officer or person selling licenses shall, as soon as practicable after the 1st day of each month, transmit the proceeds thereof with a report of such sales to the executive officer, who shall keep accurate records thereof and of receipts from all other sources and promptly transmit 50 per centum thereof to the Secretary of Agriculture, to be covered into the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts, and 50 per centum thereof to the treasurer of the Territory to be covered into the Territorial school fund. (May 11, 1908, c. 162, § 5, 35 Stat. 103; Jan. 13, 1925, c. 75, § 11, 43 Stat. 744.)

200. Collectors of customs, duties of.—It shall be the duty of collectors of customs at ports of entry in the United States to keep accurate accounts of all consignments of game birds, game animals, skins of land fur-bearing animals, and parts thereof received from or returned to the Territory, except birds, nests, and eggs shipped under a scientific permit issued by the Secretary of Agriculture; and it shall be the duty of all collectors of customs to enforce the provisions of regulations adopted pursuant to this subchapter with respect to shipments of animals or birds or nests or eggs of birds. (May 11, 1908, c. 162, § 6, 35 Stat. 104; Jan. 13, 1925, c. 75, § 12, 43 Stat. 746.)

201. United States attorneys, duties of.—It shall be the duty of the United States attorney for the division in which any wild animal or wild bird, or part thereof, or nest or egg of such bird, or any gun, trap, net, boat, dog, sled, or other paraphernalia has been seized, or has been used, taken, transported, bought, sold, or possessed contrary to the provisions of this subchapter, to institute an action in rem against it for the forfeiture thereof to the United States in any case in which the disposition of such article is not involved in a criminal prosecution; the possession of any wild animal, bird, or part thereof, or nest or egg of such bird, during the time when the taking of it is prohibited, shall, in any such action, constitute prima facie evidence that it was taken, possessed, bought, sold, or transported in violation of the provisions of this subchapter, and the burden of proof shall be upon the possessor or claimant of it to overcome the presumption of illegal possession and to establish the fact that it was obtained and is possessed lawfully; and in case of judgment being rendered in favor of the United States, it shall be disposed of as directed by the court having jurisdiction, and if sold, the proceeds of sale shall be transmitted by the clerk of the court to the executive officer to be disposed of as are other receipts of the commission. (Jan. 13, 1925, c. 75, § 13, 43 Stat. 746.)

202. Penalties; guides to report violations; penalty.—Unless a different or other penalty or punishment is specifically prescribed in this subchapter, a person who violates any provision of this subchapter, or who fails to perform any duty imposed by this subchapter or any order or regulation adopted pursuant to this subchapter, is guilty of misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $500 or be imprisoned not more than six months, or both; and, in addition thereto, the conviction of any licensed hunter for a violation of any of the provisions of this subchapter shall cause a forfeiture of his license and he shall surrender it upon demand to any person authorized by the commission to receive it; that all moneys from fines shall be transmitted by the clerk of the court to the executive officer to be disposed of as are other receipts of the commission.

Any licensed guide who shall fail or refuse to report promptly to the commission any violation of this subchapter of which he may have knowledge, shall be guilty of a violation of this subchapter, and, in addition thereto, shall have his license revoked, and shall be ineligible to act as a licensed guide for a period of five years from the time of his conviction therefor, or, of the establishment to the satisfaction of the commission of definite proof of such offense. (May 11, 1908, c. 162, § 7, 35 Stat. 105; Jan. 13, 1925, c. 75, § 15, 43 Stat. 747.)

203. Previous law unaffected.—Nothing in this subchapter contained shall be construed as repealing or modifying in any manner section 352 of Title 16. (Jan. 13, 1925, c. 75, § 17, 43 Stat. 747.)

204. Partial invalidity; effect of.—If any clause, sentence, paragraph, or part of this subchapter shall for any reason be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph or parts thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered. (Jan. 13, 1925, c. 75, § 3, 43 Stat. 740.)

205. Short title.—This subchapter shall be known by the short title of the "Alaska Game Law." (Jan. 13, 1925, c. 75, § 1, 43 Stat. 739.)

206. Definitions.—For the purposes of this subchapter the following shall be construed, respectively, to mean:

Commission: The Alaska Game Commission.

Territory: Territory of Alaska.

Person: The plural or the singular, as the case demands, including individuals, associations, partnerships, and corporations, unless the context otherwise requires.

Take: Taking, pursuing, disturbing, hunting, capturing, trapping, or killing game animals, land fur-bearing animals, game or nongame birds, attempting to take, pursue, disturb, hunt, capture, trap, or kill such animals or birds, or setting or using a net, trap or other device for taking them, or collecting the nests or eggs of such birds, unless the context otherwise requires. Whenever the taking of animals, birds or nests or eggs of birds is permitted, reference is had to taking by lawful means and in lawful manner.

Open season: The time during which birds or animals may lawfully be taken. Each period of time prescribed as an open season shall be construed to include the first and last days thereof.

Close season: The time during which birds and animals may not be taken.

Transport: Shipping, transporting, carrying, importing, exporting, or receiving or delivering for shipment, transportation, carriage, or export, unless the context otherwise requires.

Game animals: Deer, moose, caribou, elk, mountain sheep, mountain goat, and the large brown and grizzly bears, which shall be known as big game.

Land fur-bearing animals: Beaver, muskrat, marmot, ground squirrel (spermophiles), fisher, fox, lynx, marten or sable, mink, weasel or ermine, land otter, wolverine, polar bear and black bear including its brown and blue (or glacier bear) color variations.

Game birds: Migratory waterfowl, commonly known as ducks, geese, brant, and swans; shore birds, commonly known as plover, sandpipers, snipe, little brown cranes, and curlew, and the several species of grouse and ptarmigan, which shall be known as small game.

Nongame birds: All wild birds except game birds. (May 11, 1908, c. 162, § 1, 35 Stat. 102; Jan. 13, 1925, c. 75, § 2, 43 Stat. 739.)

207. Who deemed residents; who deemed aliens.—For the purposes of this subchapter a citizen of the United States who has been domiciled in the Territory not less than one year for the purpose of making his permanent home therein, or a foreign-born person not a citizen of the United States who has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and has been domiciled in the Territory for a like period and purpose, shall be considered a resident; but if such a foreign-born person shall not have been admitted to citizenship within seven years from the date he declared his first intention to become a citizen, he shall thereafter be deemed to be an alien until admitted to citizenship. A foreign-born person not a citizen of the United States who has not declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, or who has not resided in the Territory for at least one year after having declared such intention, shall be considered an alien. (Jan. 13, 1925, c. 75, § 3, 43 Stat. 740.)

208. Alaska Game Commission; composition; qualification of members; tenure of office.—The Alaska Game Commission shall consist of five members, four of whom shall be appointed by the Secretary of Agriculture, one member from each of the four judicial divisions of the Territory, each of whom shall be a resident citizen of the district from which he is appointed, and shall before his appointment have been for five years a resident of Alaska and shall not be a Federal employee. After June 30, 1925, one of the said four members of the commission shall serve one year, one shall serve two years, one shall serve three years, and one four years, as the members of the commission may determine by lot, and thereafter their successors shall be appointed in like manner to serve for four years unless sooner removed. The fifth member shall be the chief representative of the Bureau of Biological Survey resident of Alaska, who shall be the executive officer and fiscal agent of the commission and under the direction of the commission shall direct the administration of the provisions of this subchapter and disburse such sums as may be allotted therefor. (Jan. 13, 1925, c. 75, § 4, 43 Stat. 740.)

209. Same; removal of members.—The Secretary of Agriculture may remove a commissioner for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or misconduct in office, giving him a copy of the charges against him and opportunity to be publicly heard in person or by counsel in his own defense; pending the investigation of the charges the Secretary may suspend such commissioner. The Secretary of Agriculture shall fill vacancies on the commission by appointment for the unexpired term, and a vacancy shall be filled by appointment from the same judicial division in which it occurs. The office of any commissioner shall be vacant upon his removing his residence from the judicial division from which he was appointed. (Jan. 13, 1925, c. 75, § 4, 43 Stat. 740.)

210. Same; compensation; per diem; salary of executive officer.—The members of the commission, other than the executive officer, shall receive no compensation for their services as members thereof, except a per diem of $10 for each member for each day going to and from and in actual attendance at meetings of the commission, but the total salary or per diem compensation of the member from the second judicial division shall not exceed the sum of $1,500, and that of any of the other members, except the executive officer, the sum of $900 in any one fiscal year, and each such member in addition shall have reimbursed to him in any one fiscal year for actual and necessary traveling and subsistence expenses incurred or made in the discharge of his official duties a sum not to exceed the maximum amount allowed him for salary, which shall be paid on proper vouchers from the appropriation for the enforcement of the Alaska game law. The executive officer shall be paid his salary and shall have reimbursed to him all actual and necessary traveling and other expenses and disbursements in accordance with the fiscal regulations of the Department of Agriculture, payable from the appropriation for the enforcement of the Alaska game law and from such other appropriations for the work of the Bureau of Biological Survey in the Territory as the Secretary of Agriculture may designate. (Jan. 13, 1925, c. 75, § 4, 43 Stat. 740.)

211. Same; office; business; seal.—The commission shall maintain and have its principal office in the capital of the Territory.

A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. All investigations, inquiries, hearings, and decisions of a commissioner shall be deemed to be the investigations, inquiries, hearings, and decisions of the commission, when approved by it and entered by it in its minutes, and every order made by a commissioner, when approved and confirmed by the commission and ordered filed in its office, shall be and be deemed to be the order of the commission. The commission shall have an official seal. (Jan. 13, 1925, c. 75, § 4, 43 Stat. 740.)

212. Price of blue fox skins paid to natives of St. Paul Island.—The Secretary of Commerce is required to fix a reasonable price to be paid the natives of St. Paul Island for blue fox skins secured by them. (Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, 28 Stat. 391; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 7, 32 Stat. 828; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736; May 31, 1920, c. 217, 41 Stat. 716.)

ALASKA FISHERIES

221. Fishing areas; closed season; limitation on fishing.—For the purpose of protecting and conserving the fisheries of the United States in all waters of Alaska the Secretary of Commerce from time to time may set apart and reserve fishing areas in any of the waters of Alaska over which the United States has jurisdiction, and within such areas may establish closed seasons during which fishing may be limited or prohibited as he may prescribe. Under this authority to limit fishing in any area so set apart and reserved the Secretary may (a) fix the size and character of nets, boats, traps, or other gear and appliances to be used therein; (b) limit the catch of fish to be taken from any area; (c) make such regulations as to time, means, methods, and extent of fishing as he may deem advisable. (June 6, 1924, c. 272, § 1, 43 Stat. 464.)

222. Unlawful fishing in areas; no exclusive rights to be granted; citizens.—From and after the creation of any such fishing area and during the time fishing is prohibited therein it shall be unlawful to fish therein or to operate therein any boat, seine, trap, or other gear or apparatus for the purpose of taking fish; and from and after the creation of any such fishing area in which limited fishing is permitted such fishing shall be carried on only during the time, in the manner, to the extent, and in conformity with such rules and regulations as the Secretary prescribes under the authority herein given: Provided, That every such regulation made by the Secretary of Commerce shall be of general application within the particular area to which it applies, and that no exclusive or several right of fishery shall be granted therein, nor shall any citizen of the United States be denied the right to take, prepare, cure, or preserve fish or shellfish in any area of the waters of Alaska where fishing is permitted by the Secretary of Commerce. (June 6, 1924, c. 272, § 1, 43 Stat. 464.)

223. Prohibited areas in creeks, streams, rivers, etc., not affected.—The right herein given to establish fishing areas and to permit limited fishing therein shall not apply to any creek, stream, river, or other bodies of water in which fishing is prohibited by specific provisions of sections 221 to 228 of this title, but the Secretary of Commerce through the creation of such areas and the establishment of closed seasons may further extend the restrictions and limitations imposed upon fishing by specific provisions of the above-mentioned sections or any other law. (June 6, 1924, c. 272, § 1, 43 Stat. 464.)

224. Importing salmon during closed seasons.—It shall be unlawful to import or bring into the Territory of Alaska, for purposes other than personal use and not for sale or barter, salmon from waters outside the jurisdiction of the United States taken during any closed period provided for by sections 221 to 228 of this title or regulations made thereunder. (June 6, 1924, c. 272, § 1, 43 Stat. 464.)

225. Escapements in salmon runs; percentage of runs which may be taken.—In all creeks, streams, or rivers, or in any other bodies of water in Alaska, over which the United States has jurisdiction, in which salmon run, and in which there exist racks, gateways, or other means by which the number in a run may be counted or estimated with substantial accuracy, there shall be allowed an escapement of not less than 50 per centum of the total number thereof. In such waters the taking of more than 50 per centum of the run of such fish is prohibited. It is declared to be the intent and policy of Congress that in all waters of Alaska in which salmon run there shall be an escapement of not less than 50 per centum thereof, and if in any year it shall appear to the Secretary of Commerce that the run of fish in any waters has diminished, or is diminishing, there shall be required a correspondingly increased escapement of fish therefrom. (June 6, 1924, c. 272, § 2, 43 Stat. 465.)

226. Violation of fishing laws; punishment; forfeiture.—Any person, company, corporation or association violating any provisions of sections 221 to 228 of this title, or of sections 230 to 241, or of any regulation made under authority of said sections shall, upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine not exceeding $5,000 or imprisonment for a term of not more than ninety days in the county jail or by both such fine and imprisonment, and in case of the violation of section 233 there may be imposed a further fine not exceeding $250 for each day the obstruction therein declared unlawful is maintained. Every boat, seine, net, trap and every other gear and appliance used or employed in violation of said above-mentioned sections and all fish taken therein or therewith shall be forfeited to the United States and shall be seized and sold under the direction of the court in which the forfeiture is declared at public auction and the proceeds thereof after deducting the expenses of sale shall be disposed of as other fines and forfeitures under the laws relating to Alaska. Proceedings for such forfeiture shall be in rem under the rules of admiralty. (June 6, 1924, c. 272, § 6, 43 Stat. 466.)

227. Employees of Bureau of Fisheries as peace officers.—For the purposes of sections 221 to 228 of this title all employees of the Bureau of Fisheries, designated by the Commissioner of Fisheries, shall be considered as peace officers and shall have the same powers of arrest of persons and seizure of property for any violation of the provisions of said sections as have United States marshals or their deputies. (June 6, 1924, c. 272, § 6, 43 Stat. 466.)

228. Territorial powers not abrogated or curtailed.—Nothing in sections 221 to 228 of this title contained, nor any powers conferred by said sections upon the Secretary of Commerce, shall abrogate or curtail the powers granted the Territorial Legislature of Alaska to impose taxes or licenses, nor limit or curtail any powers granted the Territorial Legislature of Alaska by sections 23, 24, 44, 45, and 67 to 90 of this title. (June 6, 1924, c. 272, § 8, 43 Stat. 467.)

229. Powers of bird reservation wardens.—The wardens and other officers appointed by the Secretary of Agriculture for the protection of bird reservations in Alaska under control of the Department of Agriculture, or for the protection of fur-bearing animals in Alaska, shall have and exercise like authority and powers in the performance of their respective duties as are conferred upon game wardens by section 192 of this title and by existing law upon officers and agents of the Department of Commerce employed in the salmon fisheries and fur-seal and sea-otter services in Alaska. (May 31, 1920, c. 217, 41 Stat. 717.)

230. License tax on canning fish.—Every person, company, or corporation carrying on the business of canning, curing, or preserving fish or manufacturing fish products within Alaska, or in any of the waters of Alaska over which the United States has jurisdiction, shall, in lieu of all other license fees and taxes therefor and thereon, pay license taxes on their said business and output as follows: Canned salmon, 4 cents per case; pickled salmon, 10 cents per barrel; salt salmon in bulk, 5 cents per one hundred pounds; fish oil, 10 cents per barrel; fertilizer, 20 cents per ton. The payment and collection of such license taxes shall be under and in accordance with the provisions of the Act of March 3, 1899 (chapter 429, Thirtieth Statutes, page 1253), entitled "An Act to define and punish crimes in the District of Alaska, and to provide a code of criminal procedure for the district," and amendments thereto. (June 26, 1906, c. 3547, § 1, 34 Stat. 478.)

231. Same; exemptions; hatcheries.—The catch and pack of salmon made in Alaska by the owners of private salmon hatcheries operated in Alaska shall be exempt from all license fees and taxation of every nature at the rate of ten cases of canned salmon to every one thousand red or king salmon fry liberated, upon the following conditions:

That the Secretary of Commerce may from time to time, and on the application of the hatchery owner shall, within a reasonable time thereafter, cause such private hatcheries to be inspected for the purpose of determining the character of their operations, efficiency, and productiveness, and if he approve the same shall cause notice of such approval to be filed in the office of the clerk or deputy clerk of the United States district court of the division of the District of Alaska wherein any such hatchery is located, and shall also notify the owners of such hatchery of the action taken by him. The owner, agent, officer, or superintendent of any hatchery the effectiveness and productiveness of which has been approved as above provided shall, between the 30th day of June and the 31st day of December of each year, make proof of the number of salmon fry liberated during the twelve months immediately preceding the 30th day of June, by a written statement under oath. Such proof shall be filed in the office of the clerk or deputy clerk of the United States district court of the division of the District of Alaska wherein such hatchery is located, and when so filed shall entitle the respective hatchery owners to the exemption as herein provided; and a false oath as to the number of salmon fry liberated shall be deemed perjury and subject the offender to all the pains and penalties thereof. Duplicates of such statements shall also be filed with the Secretary of Commerce. It shall be the duty of such clerk or deputy clerk in whose office the approval and proof heretofore provided for are filed to forthwith issue to the hatchery owner, causing such proofs to be filed, certificates which shall not be transferable and of such denominations as said owner may request (no certificate to cover fewer than one thousand fry), covering in the aggregate the number of fry so proved to have been liberated; and such certificates may be used at any time by the person, company, corporation, or association to whom issued for the payment pro tanto of any license fees or taxes upon or against or on account of any catch or pack of salmon made by them in Alaska; and it shall be the duty of all public officials charged with the duty of collecting or receiving such license fees or taxes to accept such certificates in lieu of money in payment of all license fees or taxes upon or against the pack of canned salmon at the ratio of one thousand fry for each ten cases of salmon. No hatchery owner shall obtain the rebates from the output of any hatchery to which he might otherwise be entitled under sections 230 to 242 of this title unless the efficiency of said hatchery has first been approved by the Secretary of Commerce in the manner herein provided for. (June 26, 1906, c. 3547, § 2, 34 Stat. 478; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

232. Manner of taking fish.—It shall be unlawful to fish for, take, or kill any salmon of any species or by any means except by hand rod, spear, or gaff in any of the creeks, streams, or rivers of Alaska; or within five hundred yards of the mouth of any such creek, stream, or river over which the United States has jurisdiction, excepting the Karluk and Ugashik Rivers. Nothing contained in this section shall prevent the taking of fish for local food requirements or for use as dog feed. (June 26, 1906, c. 3547, § 4, 34 Stat. 479; June 6, 1924, c. 272, § 4, 43 Stat. 466.)

233. Obstructions in waters for capturing salmon.—It shall be unlawful to erect or maintain any dam, barricade, fence, trap, fish wheel, or other fixed or stationary obstruction, except for purposes of fish culture, in any of the waters of Alaska at any point where the distance from shore to shore is less than one thousand feet, or within five hundred yards of the mouth of any creek, stream, or river into which salmon run, excepting the Karluk and Ugashik Rivers, with the purpose or result of capturing salmon or preventing or impeding their ascent to the spawning grounds, and the Secretary of Commerce is authorized and directed to have any and all such unlawful obstructions removed or destroyed. For the purposes of this section, the mouth of such creek, stream, or river shall be taken to be the point determined as such mouth by the Secretary of Commerce and marked in accordance with this determination. It shall be unlawful to lay or set any seine or net of any kind within one hundred yards of any other seine, net, or other fishing appliance which is being or which has been laid or set in any of the waters of Alaska, or to drive or to construct any trap or any other fixed fishing appliance within six hundred yards laterally or within one hundred yards endwise of any other trap or fixed fishing appliance. (June 26, 1906, c. 3547, § 3, 34 Stat. 479; June 6, 1924, c. 272, § 3, 43 Stat. 465.)

234. Closed season for salmon; stationary and floating traps.—It shall be unlawful to fish for, take, or kill any salmon of any species in any manner or by any means except by hand rod, spear, or gaff for personal use and not for sale or barter in any of the waters of Alaska over which the United States has jurisdiction from six o'clock post meridian of Saturday of each week until six o'clock antemeridian of the Monday following, or during such further closed time as may be declared by authority conferred by law, but such authority shall not be exercised to prohibit the taking of fish for local food requirements or for use as dog feed. Whenever the Secretary of Commerce shall find that conditions in any fishing area make such action advisable, he may advance twelve hours both the opening and ending time of the above minimum thirty-six-hour closed period stipulated. Throughout the weekly closed season prescribed above the gate, mouth, or tunnel of all stationary and floating traps shall be closed, and twenty-five feet of the webbing or net of the "heart" of such traps on each side next to the "pot" shall be lifted or lowered in such manner as to permit the free passage of salmon and other fishes. (June 26, 1906, c. 3547, § 5, 34 Stat. 479; June 6, 1924, c. 272, § 5, 43 Stat. 466.)

235. Canning or salting salmon.—It shall be unlawful to can or salt for sale for food any salmon more than forty-eight hours after it has been killed. (June 26, 1906, c. 3547, § 7, 34 Stat. 480.)

236. Waste or destruction of food fish.—It shall be unlawful for any person, company, or corporation wantonly to waste or destroy salmon or other food fishes taken or caught in any of the waters of Alaska. (June 26, 1906, c. 3547, § 8, 34 Stat. 480.)

237. False labeling or branding of packages of fish.—It shall be unlawful for any person, company, or corporation canning, salting, or curing fish of any species in Alaska to use any label, brand, or trade-mark which shall tend to misrepresent the contents of any package of fish offered for sale. The use of the terms "red," "medium red," "pink," "chum," and so forth, as applied to the various species of Pacific salmon under present trade usages shall not be deemed in conflict with the provisions of this section when used to designate salmon of those known species. (June 26, 1906, c. 3547, § 9, 34 Stat. 480.)

238. Reports of persons engaged in fishing industry.—Every person, company, and corporation engaged in catching, curing, or in any manner utilizing fishery products, or in operating fish hatcheries in Alaska, shall make detailed annual reports thereof to the Secretary of Commerce, on blanks furnished by him, covering all such facts as may be required with respect thereto for the information of the department. Such reports shall be sworn to by the superintendent, manager, or other person having knowledge of the facts, a separate blank form being used for each establishment in cases where more than one cannery, saltery, or other establishment is conducted by a person, company, or corporation, and the same shall be forwarded to the department at the close of the fishing season and not later than December 15 of each year. (June 26, 1906, c. 3547, § 10, 34 Stat. 480; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

239. Manner of catching or killing fish.—The catching or killing, except with rod, spear, or gaff, of any fish of any kind or species whatsoever in any of the waters of Alaska over which the United States has jurisdiction, shall be subject to the provisions of sections 230 to 242 of this title, and the Secretary of Commerce is authorized to make and establish such rules and regulations not inconsistent with law as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of said above-mentioned sections. (June 26, 1906, c. 3547, § 11, 34 Stat. 480; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

240. Agent and assistant agent.—For the protection of the salmon fisheries in Alaska there shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, one agent and one assistant agent. (June 4, 1897, c. 2, § 1, 30 Stat. 29.)

241. Same; officers and employees of Department of Commerce for enforcement of law.—To enforce the provisions of sections 230 to 242 of this title and such regulations as he may establish in pursuance thereof, the Secretary of Commerce is authorized and directed to depute, in addition to the agent and assistant agent of salmon fisheries otherwise provided by law, from the officers and employees of the Department of Commerce, a force adequate to the performance of all work required for the proper investigation, inspection, and regulation of the Alaskan fisheries and hatcheries, and he shall annually submit to Congress estimates to cover the cost of the establishment and maintenance of fish hatcheries in Alaska, the salaries and actual traveling expenses of such officials, and for such other expenditures as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of said sections. (June 26, 1906, c. 3547, § 12, 34 Stat. 480.)

242. Same; jurisdiction of prosecutions.—The violation of any provision of sections 230 to 242 of this title may be prosecuted in any district court of Alaska or any district court of the United States in the States of California, Oregon, or Washington. And it shall be the duty of the Secretary of Commerce to enforce the provisions of said sections and the rules and regulations made thereunder. And it shall be the duty of the district attorney to whom any violation is reported by any agent or representative of the Department of Commerce to institute proceedings necessary to carry out the provisions of said sections. (June 26, 1906, c. 3547, § 14, 34 Stat. 481; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736.)

243. Fishing by aliens; sales to aliens.—It shall be unlawful for any person not a citizen of the United States, or who has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and is not a bona fide resident therein, or for any company, corporation, or association not organized or authorized to transact business under the laws of the United States or under the laws of any State, Territory, or District thereof, or for any person not a native of Alaska, to catch or kill, or attempt to catch or kill, except with rod, spear, or gaff, any fish of any kind or species whatsoever in any of the waters of Alaska under the jurisdiction of the United States. Nothing contained in sections 243 to 247 of this title shall prevent those lawfully taking fish in the said waters from selling the same, fresh or cured, in Alaska or in Alaskan waters, to any alien person, company, or vessel then being lawfully in said waters. Nothing contained in such sections shall prevent any person, firm, corporation, or association lawfully entitled to fish in the waters of Alaska from employing as laborers any aliens who can be lawfully employed under the existing laws of the United States, either at stated wages or by piecework, or both, in connection with Alaskan fisheries, or with the canning, salting or otherwise preserving of fish. (June 14, 1906, c. 3299, § 1, 34 Stat. 263.)

244. Same; penalties; liability of vessels.—Every person, company, corporation, or association found guilty of a violation of any provision of sections 243 to 247 of this title or of any regulation made thereunder shall, for each offense, be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500, which fine shall be a lien against any vessel or other property of the offending party or which was used in the commission of such unlawful act. Every vessel used or employed in violation of any provision of said sections or of any regulation made thereunder shall be liable to a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500, and may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any court having jurisdiction of the offense. (June 14, 1906, c. 3299, § 2, 34 Stat. 264.)

245. Same; jurisdiction of prosecutions.—The violation of any provision of sections 243 to 247 of this title or of any regulation made thereunder may be prosecuted in any United States district court of Alaska, California, Oregon, or Washington. (June 14, 1906, c. 3299, § 3, 34 Stat. 264.)

246. Same; searches and seizures of vessels; arrests.—The collector of customs of the Territory of Alaska is authorized to search and seize every foreign vessel and arrest every person violating any provision of sections 243 to 247 of this title or any regulation made thereunder, and the Secretary of Commerce shall have power to authorize officers of the Navy and of the Coast Guard and agents of the Department of Commerce to likewise make such searches, seizures, and arrests. If any foreign vessel shall be found within the waters to which the aforesaid sections apply, having on board fresh or cured fish and apparatus or implements suitable for killing or taking fish, it shall be presumed that the vessel and apparatus were used in violation of such sections until it is otherwise sufficiently proved. And every vessel, its tackle, apparatus, or implements so seized shall be given into the custody of the United States marshal of either of the districts mentioned in section 245, and shall be held by him subject to the proceedings provided for in section 244. The facts in connection with such seizure shall be at once reported to the United States district attorney for the district to which the vessel so seized shall be taken, whose duty it shall be to institute the proper proceedings. (June 14, 1906, c. 3299, § 4, 34 Stat. 264.)

247. Same; regulations; enforcement of laws.—The Secretary of Commerce shall have power to make rules and regulations not inconsistent with law to carry into effect the provisions of sections 243 to 246 of this title. And it shall be the duty of the Secretary of Commerce to enforce the provisions of said sections and the rules and regulations made thereunder, and for that purpose he may employ, through the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of the Navy, the vessels of the United States Coast Guard and of the Navy. Nothing contained in said sections shall be construed as affecting any existing treaty or convention between the United States and any foreign power. (June 14, 1906, c. 3299, § 5, 34 Stat. 264; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736; Jan. 28, 1915, c. 20, 38 Stat. 800.)

INTOXICATING LIQUOR

Cross reference: Effectiveness of this subchapter; see section 3 of Title 27.

261. Manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquor prohibited; penalty.—It shall be unlawful for any person, house, association, firm, company, club, or corporation, his, its, or their agents, officers, clerks, or servants, to manufacture, sell, give, or otherwise dispose of any intoxicating liquor or alcohol of any kind in the Territory of Alaska, or to have in his or its possession or to transport any intoxicating liquor or alcohol in the Territory of Alaska unless the same was procured and is so possessed and transported as hereinafter provided.

Whenever the term "liquor," "intoxicating liquor," or "intoxicating liquors" is used in this subchapter it shall be deemed to include whisky, brandy, rum, gin, wine, ale, porter, beer, cordials, hard or fermented cider, alcoholic bitters, ethyl alcohol and all malt liquors, including all alcoholic compounds classed by the United States Internal Revenue Bureau as "compound liquors." But the provisions of this subchapter shall not apply to methyl or wood alcohol.

Any person or persons, or any house, company, association, club, or corporation, his, its, or their agents, officers, clerks, or servants, who shall, directly or indirectly violate the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than $1,000 or shall be imprisoned for a period of not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 1, 39 Stat. 903.)

262. Pharmacists; permit for transportation of pure alcohol.—Before a pharmacist shall be authorized to transport pure alcohol for scientific, artistic, or mechanical purposes or for compounding or preparing medicines, as provided by this subchapter, he shall procure a permit for that purpose from the judge of the district court in the division where the applicant resides. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 2, 39 Stat. 903.)

263. Same; application for.—In order to procure a permit to transport pure alcohol a pharmacist shall make and file with the clerk of the said district court a statement in writing, under oath, stating that he desires to transport pure alcohol for scientific, artistic, or mechanical purposes or for compounding, preparing, or preserving medicines only, as provided by this subchapter, and giving his name, the location of his place of business, a statement that he is a licensed pharmacist, that he is regularly engaged in the practice of his profession at the location named, and that he will not violate the provisions of this subchapter. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 3, 39 Stat. 904.)

264. Same; permits; issue; form.—If the judge of the district court of any division in Alaska is satisfied of the good faith of the applicant he shall issue to such pharmacist a permit to transport pure alcohol for compounding, preparing, or preserving medicines or for scientific, artistic, or mechanical purposes. Such permit shall be substantially in the following form:

"Permit to pharmacists to transport pure alcohol for compounding, preparing, and preserving medicines only or for scientific, artistic, or mechanical purposes.

"District court, ——— division, Territory of Alaska, ss.

"———, ———, a pharmacist, residing at ———, is hereby permitted to transport pure alcohol for compounding, preparing, and preserving medicines only or for scientific, artistic, or mechanical purposes. This permit can only be used for one shipment and will be void after six months from the date of issue.

"By order of the district court aforesaid.

"Dated this ——— day of ———, nineteen hundred and ———.

———, ———,

"Judge of the district court."

(Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 4, 39 Stat. 904.)

265. Same; issue and record of permits.—Said permit mentioned in section 264 of this title shall be issued upon forms supplied by the clerk of the district court and shall contain the permit, a copy of the application for permit, and a copy of the provisions of section 266, and shall be issued under the seal of the said court, and shall be void for transportation purposes after six months from the date of issuance. The clerk of said district court shall keep in a separate book provided for that purpose a record of permits issued under this subchapter, wherein shall be entered the date and the number thereof, the person to whom issued, and the purpose for which issued. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, §§ 4, 5, 39 Stat. 904.)

266. Attaching permits to packages; cancellation.—The permit mentioned in section 264 of this title shall be attached to and remain affixed in a conspicuous place upon any package or parcel containing pure alcohol imported into or shipped in the Territory of Alaska, and when so affixed shall authorize any common carrier or any person operating a boat or vehicle for the transportation of goods, wares, or merchandise within the Territory of Alaska to transport, ship, or carry such pure alcohol. Any person so transporting such alcohol shall, before the delivery of such package or parcel, cancel said permit and so deface the same that it can not be used again. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 6, 39 Stat. 904.)

267. Revocation of licenses of pharmacists.—In case a pharmacist is convicted under the provisions of this subchapter, the judge of the district court, in addition to the penalty provided in this subchapter, may, in his discretion, revoke his license to practice pharmacy, and thereafter he shall not receive a license for one year. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 25, 39 Stat. 908.)

268. Carriers; records of shipments of alcohol.—All express companies, railroad companies, public or private carriers are required to keep a separate book in which shall be entered, immediately upon receipt thereof, the name of the person to whom pure alcohol is shipped, from what city or town and State the same was shipped, and the name of the shipper, the amount and kind received, the date when received, the date when delivered, and to whom delivered, after which record there shall be a blank space in which the consignee shall be required to sign his own name, in ink, before such pure alcohol is delivered to such consignee, which book shall be open to the inspection of the public at any time during business hours of the company and shall not be removed from the place where the same is required to be kept. A copy of entries upon any such record herein provided to be kept, when certified to by the agent of any express or railroad company or any public or private carrier in charge of the same, shall constitute prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated in any court of the Territory.

It shall be unlawful for any person, house, association, firm, company, club, or corporation, his, its, or their agents, officers, clerks, or servants, to ship alcohol or intoxicating liquor to a false or fictitious name or person, or any person to receive or receipt for alcohol or intoxicating liquor in a false or fictitious name. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 7, 39 Stat. 904.)

269. Same; transportation of wine for sacramental purposes.—Any common carrier or any person operating a boat or vehicle for the transportation of goods, wares, or merchandise may accept for transportation and may transport to any place within the Territory of Alaska shipments of wine for sacramental purposes when there is attached to such shipment a certificate in substantially the following form:

"I (or we) certify that this package contains only ——— (amount) of ——— (wine), which has been ordered by ——— ——— who represents himself to be a duly authorized and officiating priest or minister of the ——— church at ———, and that said wine is desired for sacramental purposes only.

"——— ———." (Signature of shipper.)

(Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 8, 39 Stat. 905.)

270. Same; refusal of delivery without certificates.—Whenever a shipment of wines for sacramental purposes shall have been transported for delivery within the Territory of Alaska the delivering agent of the transportation company must refuse to deliver the same unless it is accompanied by the certificate prescribed in section 269 of this title, and then only to the person to whom the same is addressed or upon his written order. The transportation company must keep a record of all shipments and deliveries of wines for sacramental purposes and must preserve for a period of one year after their receipt all certificates accompanying such shipments and all written orders upon which deliveries may be made. Such records must be open to the inspection of the public at any time during office hours. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 9, 39 Stat. 905.)

271. Alcohol for scientific purposes; permits; application for.—Any person who shall desire to purchase pure alcohol for scientific, artistic, or mechanical purposes shall apply to the district court aforesaid for a permit for that purpose. To procure such permit he shall make and file with the clerk of the district court a statement in writing, under oath, stating that he desires to purchase pure alcohol for scientific, artistic, or mechanical purposes as provided by this subchapter, and giving his name and residence and the place at which such pure alcohol is to be used. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 10, 39 Stat. 905.)

272. Same; permits; form.—If the judge of said district court is satisfied of the good faith of the applicant, he shall issue to said applicant a permit to purchase a reasonable amount of pure alcohol for scientific, artistic, or mechanical purposes. The original of said permit shall have attached thereto a duplicate copy, and each shall be numbered with the same number and be in substantially the following form:

"District Court, ——— Division, Territory of Alaska, ss.

"———, residing at ———, is hereby permitted to purchase pure alcohol in the amount of ——— (here insert quantity), to be used for scientific, artistic, or mechanical purposes. This permit can only be used for one purchase, and the copy thereof attached hereto shall be conspicuously pasted upon the package containing said alcohol, and this permit to purchase shall be void after ninety days from the date hereof.

"By order of the district court aforesaid.

"Dated this ——— day of ———, nineteen hundred and ———.

"———, Judge of the District Court."

(Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 11, 39 Stat. 905.)

273. Same; permits; cancellation.—The permit mentioned in section 272 of this title shall authorize the applicant to purchase and any pharmacist to sell and deliver to him the quantity named in the said permit. The permit shall be canceled, kept, and retained on file for at least one year by the pharmacist so selling said pure alcohol, and the copy of said permit shall be, by the pharmacist, conspicuously pasted upon the receptacle containing said alcohol, and shall so remain upon said receptacle so long as the same shall contain alcohol. Said permit and copy shall only authorize one purchase and sale. It shall be unlawful for any pharmacist to sell pure alcohol without the permit specified in said section, or for any person to keep or have in his possession any pure alcohol unless the receptacle containing the same shall be distinctly labeled with the copy of the permit authorizing the purchase of the same. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 12, 39 Stat. 906.)

274. Use of building or vehicle, in violation of law.—It shall be unlawful for any person owning, leasing, or occupying or in possession or control of any premises, building, vehicle, car, or boat to knowingly permit thereon or therein the manufacture, transportation, disposal, or the keeping of intoxicating liquor with intent to manufacture, transport, or dispose of the same in violation of the provisions of this subchapter. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 13, 39 Stat. 906.)

275. Importation or possession of liquors except as provided by law.—It shall be unlawful for any person to import, ship, sell, transport, deliver, receive, or have in his possession any intoxicating liquors, except as in this subchapter provided. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 14, 39 Stat. 906.)

276. Drinking liquors in or on passenger coach.—Any person who shall in or upon any passenger coach, street car, boat, or in or upon any other vehicle commonly used for the transportation of passengers, or in or about any depot, platform, or waiting room drink any intoxicating liquor of any kind, or any person who shall be drunk or intoxicated in any public or private road or street, or in any passenger coach, street car, or any public place or building, or at any public gathering, or any person who shall be drunk or intoxicated and shall disturb the peace of any person, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 15, 39 Stat. 906.)

277. Keeping place for sale of liquors.—Every person who shall directly or indirectly keep or maintain by himself or by associating with others, or who shall in any manner aid, assist, or abet in keeping or maintaining any clubhouse, or other place in which alcoholic liquor is received or kept for the purpose of use, gift, barter, or sale, or for distribution or division among the members of any club or association by any means whatsoever, or who shall maintain what is commonly known as the "locker system" or other device for evading the provisions of this subchapter, and every person who shall use, barter, sell, give away, or assist or abet in bartering, selling, or giving away any liquors so received or kept, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof be subject to the penalties prescribed in section 261 of this title; and in all cases the members, shareholders, associates, or employees in any club or association mentioned in this section shall be competent witnesses to prove any violations of the provisions of said section, or of any fact tending thereto; and no person shall be excused from testifying as to any offense committed by another against any of the provisions of this subchapter by reason of his testimony tending to criminate himself, but the testimony given by such person shall in no case be used against him.

The keeping or giving away of alcoholic liquors, or any schemes or devices whatever, to evade the provisions of this subchapter shall be deemed unlawful within the provisions of this subchapter. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 16, 39 Stat. 906.)

278. Arrest of persons charged with violations of law.—If one or more persons who are competent witnesses shall charge, on oath or affirmation, before the district attorney or any of his deputies duly authorized to act for him, presenting that any person, company, copartnership, association, club, or corporation has or have violated or is violating the provisions of this subchapter by manufacturing, storing, or depositing, offering for sale, keeping for sale or use, trafficking in, bartering, exchanging for goods, giving away, or otherwise furnishing alcoholic liquor, shall request said district attorney or any of his assistants duly authorized to act for him to cause to be issued a warrant, said attorney or any of his assistants shall cause to be issued such warrant, in which warrant the room, house, building, or other place in which the violation is alleged to have occurred or is occurring shall be specifically described; and said warrant shall be placed in the hands of the marshal, his deputy, or any town marshal or policeman in any town in which the room, house, building, or other place above referred to is located, commanding him to at once thoroughly search said described room, house, building, or other place, and the appurtenances thereof; and if any such be found, to take into his possession and safely keep, to be produced as evidence when required, all alcoholic liquors and all the means of dispensing the same, also all the paraphernalia or part of the paraphernalia of a barroom or other alcoholic liquor establishment, and any United States internal-revenue tax receipt or certificate for the manufacture or sale of alcoholic liquor, effective for the period of time covering the alleged offense, and forthwith report all the facts to the district attorney or his deputy, and such alcoholic liquor or the means for dispensing same, or the paraphernalia of a barroom or other alcoholic liquor establishment, or any United States internal-revenue tax receipt or certificate for the sale of alcoholic liquor, effective as aforesaid, shall be prima facie evidence of the violation of the provisions of this subchapter. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 17, 39 Stat. 906.)

279. Evidence to convict.—It shall not be necessary, in order to convict any person, company, house, association, copartnership, club, or corporation, his, its, or their agents, officers, clerks, or servants of manufacturing, importing, or selling alcoholic liquors, to prove the actual manufacture, importing, sale, delivery of, or payment for any alcoholic liquors, but the evidence of having or keeping them in hand, stored or deposited, taking orders for, or offering to sell or barter, or exchanging them for goods or merchandise, or giving them away, shall be sufficient to convict; nor shall it be necessary in a warrant, information, or indictment to specify the particular kind of alcoholic liquor which is made the subject of a charge of violation of this subchapter. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 18, 39 Stat. 907.)

280. Liquor nuisances; maintenance; abatement.—All houses, boats, boathouses, buildings, clubrooms, and places of every description, including drug stores, where alcoholic liquors are manufactured, stored, sold, or vended, given away, or furnished contrary to law, including those in which clubs, orders, or associations sell, barter, give away, distribute, or dispense intoxicating liquors to their members by any means or device whatever, as provided in this subchapter, shall be held, taken, and deemed common and public nuisances. And any person who shall maintain, or shall aid or abet, or knowingly be associated with others in maintaining such common and public nuisance, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to the penalties prescribed in section 261 of this title, and judgment shall be given that such house, boat, building, or other place, or any room therein, be abated or closed up as a place for the sale or keeping of such liquor contrary to law, as the court may determine. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 19, 39 Stat. 907.)

281. Same; actions for abatement.—Any United States district attorney for the Territory of Alaska may maintain an action in equity in the name of the United States to abate and perpetually enjoin such a nuisance as defined in section 280 of this title. No bond shall be required. Any person violating the terms of any injunction granted in such proceedings shall be punished for contempt by a fine of not more than $500 or by imprisonment in the Federal jail for not more than six months, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 20, 39 Stat. 907.)

282. Same; violations of law by tenant; forfeiture of lease.—If a tenant of a building or tenement is convicted of using such premises or any part thereof or maintaining a common nuisance, as defined in section 280 of this title, or of knowingly permitting such use by another, the conviction of such use shall render void the lease under which he holds and shall cause the right of possession to revert to the owner or lessor, who may, without process of law, make immediate entry upon the premises, or may avail himself of the remedy provided for the forcible detention thereof. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 21, 39 Stat. 907.)

283. Same; owners of buildings knowingly permitting.—Anyone who knowingly permits any building owned or leased by him or under his control, or any part thereof, to be used in maintaining a common nuisance described in section 280 of this title, neglects to take all reasonable measures to eject therefrom the person so using the same, shall be deemed guilty of assisting in maintaining such nuisance. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 22, 39 Stat. 908.)

284. Property in alcoholic liquors illegally manufactured; searches and seizures.—No property right of any kind shall exist in alcoholic liquors or beverages illegally manufactured, received, possessed, or stored under this subchapter, and in all such cases the liquors are forfeited to the United States and may be searched for and seized and ordered to be destroyed by the court after a conviction, when such liquors have been seized for use as evidence, or upon satisfactory evidence to the court presented by the district attorney that such liquors are contraband. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 23, 39 Stat. 908.)

285. Punishment for violations of law.—Any person convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this subchapter where the punishment therefor is not herein specifically provided shall be punished as provided by section 261 of this title. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 24, 39 Stat. 908.)

286. Evidence of sale of liquors.—The issuance by the United States of any internal revenue special tax stamp or receipt to any person as a dealer in intoxicating liquors shall be prima facie evidence of the sale of intoxicating liquors by such person during the time the stamp or receipt is in force and effect.

A copy of such stamp or receipt or of the record of the issuance thereof, certified to by a United States internal-revenue officer having charge of such record, is admissible as evidence in like case and with like effect as the original stamp or receipt. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 26, 39 Stat. 908.)

287. Duties of officers to enforce law.—It shall be the duty of the Governor of Alaska, the United States marshals and their deputies, mayors, and members of town councils, town marshals, and police officers of all incorporated towns in Alaska, all Federal game wardens, agents of the Bureau of Fisheries and Forestry Service, customs collectors and their deputies, employees of the Bureau of Education, prosecuting attorneys and their deputies, and all other Federal and Territorial executive officers to enforce the provisions of this subchapter. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 27, 39 Stat. 908.)

288. Information for violations of law.—Prosecutions for violations of the provisions of this subchapter shall be on information filed by any such officer before any justice of the peace or district judge, or upon indictment by any grand jury of the Territory of Alaska, and said United States district attorney or his deputy shall file such information upon the presentation to him or his assistants of sworn information that the law has been violated; and in such prosecutions anyone making a false oath to any material fact shall be deemed guilty of perjury. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 28, 39 Stat. 908.)

289. Importing liquors in violation of law.—Any person, company, or corporation who shall import or carry liquors into or upon the Territorial waters of Alaska in or upon any steamship, steamboat, vessel, boat, or other water craft, or shall permit the same to be so imported or carried into or upon said waters, except under the provisions of this subchapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished as provided in section 261 of this title. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 29, 39 Stat. 908.)

290. Additional legislation by legislature.—The Legislature of the Territory of Alaska may pass additional legislation in aid of the enforcement of this subchapter not inconsistent with its provisions. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 31, 39 Stat. 909.)

291. Singular includes plural, and masculine feminine.—In the interpretation of this subchapter words of the singular number shall be deemed to include their plurals, and words of the masculine gender shall be deemed to include the feminine, as the case may be. (Feb. 14, 1917, c. 53, § 32, 39 Stat. 909.)

RAILROADS, TELEGRAPH, AND TELEPHONES

301. Railroads; location, construction, and operation.—The President of the United States is empowered, authorized, and directed to adopt and use a name by which to designate the railroad or railroads and properties to be located, owned, acquired, or operated under the authority of sections 301 to 308 of this title; to employ such officers, agents, or agencies, in his discretion, as may be necessary to enable him to carry out the purposes of sections 301 to 308; to authorize and require such officers, agents, or agencies to perform any or all of the duties imposed upon him by the terms of sections 301 to 308; to detail and require any officer or officers in the Engineer Corps in the Army or Navy to perform service under sections 301 to 308; to fix the compensation of all officers, agents, or employees appointed or designated by him; to designate and cause to be located a route or routes for a line or lines of railroad in the Territory of Alaska not to exceed in the aggregate one thousand miles, to be so located as to connect one or more of the open Pacific Ocean harbors on the southern coast of Alaska with the navigable waters in the interior of Alaska, and with a coal field or fields so as best to aid in the development of the agricultural and mineral or other resources of Alaska, and the settlement of the public lands therein, and so as to provide transportation of coal for the Army and Navy, transportation of troops, arms, munitions of war, the mails, and for other governmental and public uses and for the transportation of passengers and property; to construct and build a railroad or railroads along such route or routes as he may so designate and locate, with the necessary branch lines, feeders, sidings, switches, and spurs; to purchase or otherwise acquire all real and personal property necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 301 to 308; to exercise the power of eminent domain in acquiring property for such use, which use is declared to be a public use, by condemnation in the courts of Alaska in accordance with the laws now or hereafter in force there; to acquire rights of way, terminal grounds, and all other rights; to purchase or otherwise acquire all necessary equipment for the construction and operation of such railroad or railroads; to build or otherwise acquire docks, wharves, terminal facilities, and all structures needed for the equipment and operation of such railroad or railroads; to fix, change, or modify rates for the transportation of passengers and property, which rates shall be equal and uniform, but no free transportation or passes shall be permitted except that the provisions of the interstate commerce laws relating to the transportation of employees and their families shall be in force as to the lines constructed under sections 301 to 308; to receive compensation for the transportation of passengers and property, and to perform generally all the usual duties of a common carrier by railroad; to make and establish rules and regulations for the control and operation of said railroad or railroads; in his discretion, to lease the said railroad or railroads, or any portion thereof, including telegraph and telephone lines, after completion under such terms as he may deem proper, but no lease shall be for a longer period than twenty years, or in the event of failure to lease, to operate the same until the further action of Congress. If said railroad or railroads, including telegraph and telephone lines, are leased under the authority given under sections 301 to 308, then and in that event they shall be operated under the jurisdiction and control of the provisions of the interstate commerce laws; to purchase, condemn, or otherwise acquire upon such terms as he may deem proper any other line or lines of railroad in Alaska which may be necessary to complete the construction of the line or lines of railroad designated or located by him. The price to be paid in case of purchase shall in no case exceed the actual physical value of the railroad; to make contracts or agreements with any railroad or steamship company or vessel owner for joint transportation of passengers or property over the road or roads herein provided for, and such railroad or steamship line or by such vessel, and to make such other contracts as may be necessary to carry out any of the purposes of sections 301 to 308; to utilize in carrying on the work herein provided for any and all machinery, equipment, instruments, material, and other property of any sort whatsoever used or acquired in connection with the construction of the Panama Canal, so far and as rapidly as the same is no longer needed at Panama, and the successors to the Isthmian Canal Commission are authorized to deliver said property to such officers or persons as the President may designate, and to take credit therefor at such percentage of its original cost as the President may approve, but this amount shall not be charged against the fund provided for in said sections. (Mar. 12, 1914, c. 37, § 1, 38 Stat. 305.)

302. Telegraph and telephone lines.—The authority granted under section 301 of this title shall include the power to construct, maintain, and operate telegraph and telephone lines so far as they may be necessary or convenient in the construction and operation of the railroad or railroads as herein authorized and they shall perform generally all the usual duties of telegraph and telephone lines for hire. (Mar. 12, 1914, c. 37, § 1, 38 Stat. 305.)

303. Townsites.—The President is authorized to withdraw, locate, and dispose of, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, such area or areas of the public domain along the line or lines of such proposed railroad or railroads for townsite purposes as he may from time to time designate. (Mar. 12, 1914, c. 37, § 1, 38 Stat. 305.)

304. Terminals, stations and rights of way.—Terminal and station grounds and rights of way through the lands of the United States in the Territory of Alaska are granted for the construction of railroads, telegraph and telephone lines authorized by sections 301 to 308 of this title, and the President may, in such manner as he deems advisable, make reservation of such lands as are or may be useful for furnishing materials for construction and for stations, terminals, docks, and for such other purposes in connection with the construction and operation of such railroad lines as he may deem necessary and desirable. (Mar. 12, 1914, c. 37, § 1, 38 Stat. 305.)

305. Patents to contain reserve for right of way.—In all patents for lands taken up, entered, or located in Alaska after March 12, 1914, there shall be expressed that there is reserved to the United States a right of way for the construction of railroads, telegraph and telephone lines to the extent of one hundred feet on either side of the center line of any such road and twenty-five feet on either side of the center line of any such telegraph or telephone lines. (Mar. 12, 1914, c. 37, § 1, 38 Stat. 305.)

306. Disposition of proceeds of lease or sale of public lands.—All moneys derived from the lease, sale, or disposal of any of the public lands, including townsites, in Alaska, or the coal or mineral therein contained, or the timber thereon, and the earnings of said railroad or railroads, together with the earnings of the telegraph and telephone lines constructed under authority of sections 301 to 308 of this title, above maintenance charges and operating expenses, shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States as other miscellaneous receipts are paid, and a separate account thereof shall be kept and annually reported to Congress. (Mar. 12, 1914, c. 37, § 3, 38 Stat. 307.)

307. Authority of President.—It is the intent and purpose of Congress through the provisions of sections 301 to 308 of this title to authorize and empower the President of the United States, and he is fully authorized and empowered, through such officers, agents, or agencies as he may appoint or employ, to do all necessary acts and things in addition to those specially authorized in such sections to enable him to accomplish the purposes and objects of such sections. (Mar. 12, 1914, c. 37, § 1, 38 Stat. 305.)

308. Officers, agents, etc., to make annual report to President; transmission to Congress.—The officers, agents, or agencies placed in charge of the work by the President shall make to the President annually, and at such other periods as may be required by the President or by either House of Congress, full and complete reports of all their acts and doings and of all moneys received and expended in the construction of said work and in the operation of said work or works and in the performance of their duties in connection therewith. The annual reports provided for in this section shall be by the President transmitted to Congress. (Mar. 12, 1914, c. 37, § 4, 38 Stat. 307.)

309. Taxation of railroads.—In addition to the normal income tax on net income there shall be levied and collected 1 per centum on the gross annual income of all railroad corporations doing business in Alaska, on business done in Alaska, which shall be computed and collected in the manner provided by law, the proceeds of which tax when collected shall be paid to the treasurer of Alaska and be applicable to general Territorial purposes. (July 18, 1914, c. 187, 38 Stat. 517.)

ROADS, TRAILS, AND BRIDGES

321. Board of road commissioners; composition.—There shall be a board of road commissioners in the Territory of Alaska, to be composed of an Engineer officer of the United States Army to be detailed and appointed by the Secretary of War, and two other officers of that part of the Army stationed in the Territory of Alaska and to be designated by the Secretary of War. The said Engineer officer shall, during the term of his said detail and appointment, abide in said Territory. (Jan. 27, 1905, c. 277, § 2, 33 Stat. 616; May 14, 1906, c. 2458, § 2, 34 Stat. 192.)

322. Same; location and construction of roads and trails.—The said board shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, upon their own motion or upon petition, to locate, lay out, construct, and maintain wagon roads and pack trails from any point on the navigable waters of Alaska to any town, mining or other industrial camp or settlement, or between any such town, camps, or settlements therein, if in their judgment such roads or trails are needed and will be of permanent value for the development of Alaska; but no such road or trail shall be constructed to any town, camp, or settlement which is wholly transitory or of no substantial value or importance for mining, trade, agricultural, or manufacturing purposes. (Jan. 27, 1905, c. 277, § 2, 33 Stat. 616; May 14, 1906, c. 2458, § 2, 34 Stat. 192.)

323. Same; maps, plans, and specifications; contracts for permanent work.—The said board shall prepare maps, plans, and specifications of every road or trail they may locate and lay out, and whenever more than $20,000, in the aggregate, shall have to be expended upon the actual construction of any road or section of road designed to be permanent, contract for the work shall be let by them to the lowest responsible bidder, upon sealed bids, after due notice, under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of War. The board may reject any bid if they deem the same unreasonably high or if they find that there is a combination among bidders. In case no responsible and reasonable bid can be secured, then the work may be carried on with material and men procured and hired by the board. The Engineer officer of the board shall in all cases supervise the work of construction and see that the same is properly performed. As soon as any road or trail laid out by the board has been constructed and completed they shall examine the same and make a full and detailed report of the work done on the same to the Secretary of War, and in such report they shall state whether the road or trail has been completed conformably to the maps, plans, and specifications of the same. (Jan. 27, 1905, c. 277, § 2, 33 Stat. 616; May 14, 1906, c. 2458, § 2, 34 Stat. 192.)

324. Same; repair of roads and trails constructed.—It shall be the duty of said board, as far as practicable, to keep in proper repair all roads and trails constructed under their supervision, and the same rules as to the manner in which the work of repair shall be done, whether by contract or otherwise, shall govern as in the case of the original construction of the road or trail. (Jan. 27, 1905, c. 277, § 2, 33 Stat. 616; May 14, 1906, c. 2458, § 2, 34 Stat. 192.)

325. Costs and expenses payable out of Alaska fund; limitation of liability.—The cost and expenses of laying out, constructing, and repairing such roads and trails shall be paid by the Secretary of the Treasury, through the authorized disbursing officer of the board designated by the Secretary of War, out of the road and trail portion of the "Alaska fund" mentioned in section 41 of this title upon vouchers approved and certified by said board. The Secretary of the Treasury shall, at the end of each month, send by mail to each of the members of said board a statement of the amount available of said "Alaska fund" for the construction and repair of roads and trails, and, subject to the provisions of section 326 of this title, no greater liability for construction or repair shall at any time be incurred by said board than the money available therefor at that time in said fund. (Jan. 27, 1905, c. 277, § 2, 33 Stat. 616; May 14, 1906, c. 2458, § 2, 34 Stat. 192.)

326. Roads, bridges, and trails; obligations in advance of appropriations.—When an appropriation for the construction and maintenance of roads, tramways, ferries, bridges, and trails for any fiscal year shall not have been made prior to the 1st day of March preceding the beginning of such fiscal year, the Secretary of War may authorize the board of road commissioners to incur obligations for this purpose of not to exceed 75 per centum of the appropriation for this purpose for the fiscal year then current, payment of these obligations to be made from the appropriation for the new fiscal year when it becomes available. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title II, 43 Stat. 930.)

327. Roads and trails; contributions for construction, etc.—The Secretary of War is authorized to receive from the Territory of Alaska, or other source, such funds as may be contributed by them to be expended in connection with funds appropriated by the United States for any authorized work of construction, repair, and maintenance of roads, bridges, ferries, trails, and related works in the Territory of Alaska, and to cause such funds to be deposited to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States, and to expend the same in accordance with the purpose for which they were contributed. (June 30, 1921, c. 33, § 1, 42 Stat. 90.)

328. Same; estimates for work on.—So long as the construction and maintenance of "military and post" roads in Alaska, and of other roads, bridges, and trails in that Territory shall remain under the direction of the Secretary of War, he is authorized to submit such estimates for the consideration of Congress as are in his judgment necessary for a proper prosecution of the work. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 863.)

329. Expenses of board in addition to salary.—The members of the board of road commissioners shall, in addition to their salaries, be reimbursed in the sums actually paid or incurred by them in traveling expenses in the performance of their duties, and shall be entitled to receive their actual expenses of living while serving as members of said board within the limits of the Territory and not stationed at a military post. (Jan. 27, 1905, c. 277, § 2, 33 Stat. 616; May 14, 1906, c. 2458, § 2, 34 Stat. 192.)

330. Same; per diem commutation.—Any officer of the Army and member of said board of road commissioners who is living with his family while serving as a member of said board within the limits of the Territory of Alaska, and not stationed at a military post, shall be entitled to receive a per diem commutation fixed by the board in lieu of "actual living expenses," as otherwise provided by law. (Apr. 27, 1914, c. 72, 38 Stat. 366.)

331. Road overseers; road districts.—It shall be the duty of the commissioner in each precinct in Alaska, on the first Monday in the month of April in each year, to appoint a road overseer for the precinct in which he resides, and create a road district in the inhabited part of said precinct, which said district shall not include incorporated cities and towns.

To fill all vacancies in the office of road overseer in his precinct.

To cause a record to be made defining the boundaries of said road district. (Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1629, 33 Stat. 391.)

332. Same; term of office; qualifications; oath of office; bond.—All road overseers shall hold office for one year and until their successors are appointed and qualified.

Every person appointed to the office of road overseer of any road district shall reside in the road district to which he has been appointed, and shall, within thirty days after he shall have been notified of his appointment, take and subscribe to an oath of office obligating himself to the faithful performance of the duties of his office, and shall forthwith cause such oath to be filed in the office of the commissioner of his precinct, and in case any such road overseer shall become nonresident of his road district, his office shall at once become vacant.

Each road overseer shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, execute a bond to the United States in a sum not less than double the amount of money which will probably come into his hands at any time during his term of office, with two or more sureties, the amount and sufficiency of the bond to be approved by the commissioner of the precinct, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, which bond shall be by him forthwith filed in the office of the commissioner and ex officio recorder. The approval of such bond shall be indorsed thereon by the commissioner. (Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1629, 33 Stat. 391.)

333. Same; duties.—The duties of road overseer shall be such as may be prescribed by law.

Each road overseer shall keep an accurate account of all money received by virtue of his office and the manner in which the same has been disbursed, and to whom, and shall, on the last Saturday of March in each year, exhibit such account, together with his vouchers, to the commissioner for adjustment and settlement. Such account shall be in writing, verified by affidavit of the overseer that the same is in all respects a full and true account of all money received by him during the full term for which he should make settlement and the amounts expended and the manner in which they were expended.

If any person appointed to the office of road overseer, unless unable from disease or other infirmity to discharge the duties of such office, shall refuse or neglect to serve therein, he shall be liable to a fine of $25; but no person so appointed who shall have served for a term next preceding such appointment shall be liable to such fine for refusing to serve if he shall have given notice in writing of refusal to the commissioner within twenty days after having been notified of his appointment.

Every road overseer who shall, after the expiration of his term of office, neglect or refuse to deliver on demand to his successor in office, after such successor shall have been duly qualified according to law, all moneys, records, books, papers, or other property appertaining to such office shall be liable to a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $500. (Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1629, 33 Stat. 392.)

334. Same; duties; work on roads.—Road overseers of the different precincts are authorized, and it is made their duty, to warn out all male persons between eighteen and fifty years of age who have resided thirty days in the district of Alaska, who are capable of performing labor on roads or trails, and who are not a precinct charge, to perform two days' work of eight hours each in locating, constructing, or repairing public roads or trails, under the direction of the road overseer within whose precinct they may respectively reside, or furnish a substitute to do the same, or pay the sum of $4 per day for two days' labor, and said road overseer shall receipt for the same and shall expend it in location, construction, or repairs on the public roads and trails within his precinct; and any moneys so received and not expended shall be paid over to his successor in office, who shall expend the same as above provided.

The overseer of roads and trails in each precinct shall give notice to persons residing in his precinct liable to or charged with a road or trail tax of the time and place and the kind of work expected to be performed on the road or trail, and may direct what implements such persons shall bring with which to perform such work.

Whenever it shall happen, in consequence of sickness or absence from home, or any other cause, that the two days' work aforesaid shall not be performed within the time specified, the overseer shall be authorized to require the performance of such work at any time prior to the 1st day of October then next ensuing; and in case any person shall neglect or refuse to do the two days' work, or furnish a substitute, or pay in money the price of two days' labor, as provided in this section, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined in the sum of $10 for each day refusing so to work upon conviction before any justice of the peace of the precinct.

If any person shall appear at the proper time and place as directed by the overseer and neglect or refuse to do a reasonable day's work according to his ability, he shall be liable the same as if he had neglected or refused to appear, or furnish a substitute, or pay the sum of money as provided herein.

Under the direction of the overseer, and at his discretion, the above road tax may be performed by one day's work, together with an able-bodied man, a two-horse team with wagon, or a dog team consisting of not less than five dogs and a sleigh, or a reindeer team of not less than two reindeer and sleigh or cart.

It shall be the duty of each road overseer to receipt to each person who performs labor on the public roads and trails of his precinct under the provisions of this section for the amount of labor so performed, and no person shall be compelled to pay road tax except in one precinct in Alaska during one calendar year. (Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1629, 33 Stat. 392.)

335. Same; annual report.—Each road overseer shall, on or before the 1st day of April in each year, report to the commissioner of the precinct the names of all persons subject to the two days' road tax for the preceding year, the names of those who have worked out said tax, the names of those who have paid the said tax in money, and the names of those delinquent, and also all moneys received by him from all sources, and how expended, and the account of said road overseer of the work performed by himself, which report shall be approved by said commissioner before any final settlement shall be made with such road overseer. (Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1629, 33 Stat. 393.)

336. Same; duties; neglect or refusal.—Each and every road overseer who shall neglect or refuse to perform the several duties enjoined upon him by sections 331 to 337 of this title, or who shall, under any pretense whatsoever, give or sign a receipt or certificate for labor performed or money paid, unless the labor shall have been performed or money paid prior to the signing or giving of such receipts or certificates, shall forfeit for every such offense not less than $5 nor more than $50, to be recovered by an action before any justice of the peace within the precinct where such overseer may reside, and it is hereby made the duty of every United States attorney or assistant to prosecute all offenses against the provisions of said sections not otherwise provided for. (Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1629, 33 Stat. 393.)

337. Same; compensation.—Road overseers shall be allowed $4 per day for all services required by sections 331 to 337 of this title and actually performed in their respective precincts, to be retained out of money paid said road overseers from persons paying money or fines in lieu of two days' labor, upon the certified statement of the overseers, approved by the commissioner of the precinct: Provided, That no overseer shall receive pay for more than ten days in any one year, and not until he has made the return as provided in section 335 of this title, in duplicate, one copy to be retained by the commissioner and one copy filed with the clerk of the district court in the division in which the said precinct is situated.

Any oath required to be taken by said overseer, acknowledgment of bond, or the filing or recording of any paper or plat authorized by sections 331 to 337 of this title shall be free of cost to said overseer.

Upon application of road overseers it shall be the duty of the clerk of the district court to furnish copies of the provisions of sections 331 to 337 and blank forms of notices warning persons to perform road work, receipts for road work, bond, and oath, and for overseer's report to commissioner, the expense of which shall be paid out of the fund for paying the incidental expenses of the court. (Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1629, 33 Stat. 393.)

PUBLIC LANDS IN ALASKA

General Provisions

351. Survey system extended to Alaska.—The system of public land surveys is extended to the Territory of Alaska. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 424, § 1, 30 Stat. 1098.)

352. Surveys in Nome and Fairbanks districts.—The United States Supervisor of Surveys, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, shall furnish the registers of the land offices at Nome and Fairbanks a sufficient quantity of numbers to be used in the different classes of official surveys that may be made in the Nome and Fairbanks land districts to meet the requirements thereof, and upon application by any person desiring to have an official survey made the registers shall furnish a number or numbers for such survey or surveys, together with an order directing a qualified deputy surveyor to make the same, and such application, order, and the fee required to be paid shall be transmitted to the United States Supervisor of Surveys. All surveys thus made shall be approved by the United States Supervisor of Surveys. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2537, § 4, 34 Stat. 1232; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144, 1145.)

353. Reservation of lands for educational purposes.—When the public lands of the Territory of Alaska are surveyed, under direction of the Government of the United States, sections numbered 16 and 36 in each township in said Territory shall be reserved from sale or settlement for the support of common schools in the Territory of Alaska; and section 33 in each township in the Tanana Valley between parallels sixty-four and sixty-five north latitude and between the one hundred and forty-fifth and the one hundred and fifty-second degrees of west longitude (meridian of Greenwich) shall be reserved from sale or settlement for the support of a Territorial agricultural college and school of mines established by the Legislature of Alaska upon the tract granted in section 354 of this title: Provided, That where settlement with a view to homestead entry has been made upon any part of the sections reserved hereby before the survey thereof in the field, or where the same may have been sold or otherwise appropriated by or under the authority of any Act of Congress, or are wanting or fractional in quantity, other lands may be designated and reserved in lieu thereof in the manner provided by sections 851 and 852 of Title 43: Provided further, That the Territory may, by general law, provide for leasing said land in area not to exceed one section to any one person, association, or corporation for not longer than ten years at any one time: And provided further, That if any of said sections, or any part thereof, shall be of known mineral character at the date of acceptance of survey thereof, the reservation herein made shall not be effective or applicable, but the entire proceeds or income derived by the United States from such sections 16 and 36 and such section 33 in each township in the Tanana Valley area hereinbefore described, and the minerals therein, together with the entire proceeds or income derived from said reserved lands, are hereby appropriated and set apart as separate and permanent funds in the Territorial treasury, to be invested and the income from which shall be expended only for the exclusive use and benefit of the public schools of Alaska or of the agricultural college and school of mines, respectively, in such manner as the Legislature of Alaska may by law direct. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 181, § 1, 38 Stat. 1214, 1215.)

354. Site for agricultural college and school of mines.—Section numbered 6, in township numbered 1 south of the Fairbanks base line and range numbered 1 west of the Fairbanks meridian; section numbered 31, in township numbered 1 north of the Fairbanks base line and range numbered 1 west of the Fairbanks meridian; section numbered 1, in township numbered 1 south of the Fairbanks base line and range numbered 2 west of the Fairbanks meridian; and section numbered 36, in township numbered 1 north of the Fairbanks base line and range numbered 2 west of the Fairbanks meridian, are hereby granted to the Territory of Alaska, but with the express condition that they shall be forever reserved and dedicated to use as a site for an agricultural college and school of mines: Provided, That nothing in this section or in section 353 shall be held to interfere with or destroy any legal claim of any person or corporation to any part of said lands under the homestead or other law for the disposal of the public lands acquired prior to March 4, 1915. So much of the said land as was, on said March 4, 1915, used by the Government of the United States as an agricultural experiment station may continue to be used for such purpose until abandoned for that use by an order of the President of the United States or by Act of Congress. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 181, § 2, 38 Stat. 1215.)

355. Town-site entries.—Until otherwise ordered by Congress lands in Alaska may be entered for town-site purposes, for the several use and benefit of the occupants of such town sites, by such trustee or trustees as may be named by the Secretary of the Interior for that purpose, such entries to be made under the provisions of section 718 of Title 43 as near as may be; and when such entries shall have been made the Secretary of the Interior shall provide by regulation for the proper execution of the trust in favor of the inhabitants of the town site, including the survey of the land into lots, according to the spirit and intent of said section 718 of Title 43, whereby the same results would be reached as though the entry had been made by a county judge and the disposal of the lots in such town site and the proceeds of the sale thereof had been prescribed by the legislative authority of a State or Territory: Provided, That no more than six hundred and forty acres shall be embraced in one town-site entry. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 11, 26 Stat. 1099.)

356. Land for schools or missions; general land laws.—The Indians or persons conducting schools or missions in the district shall not be disturbed in the possession of any lands actually in their use or occupation on June 6, 1900, and the land, at any station not exceeding six hundred and forty acres, occupied on said date as missionary stations among the Indian tribes in the section, with the improvements thereon erected by or for such societies, shall be continued in the occupancy of the several religious societies to which the missionary stations respectively belong, and the Secretary of the Interior is directed to have such lands surveyed in compact form as nearly as practicable and patents issued for the same to the several societies to which they belong; but nothing contained in this chapter of this title shall be construed to put in force in the district the general land laws of the United States. (May 17, 1884, c. 53, § 8, 23 Stat. 26; June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 27, 31 Stat. 330.)

357. Homestead allotments to native Indians or Eskimos.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and empowered, in his discretion and under such rules as he may prescribe, to allot not to exceed one hundred and sixty acres of nonmineral land in Alaska to any Indian or Eskimo of full or mixed blood who resides in and is a native of Alaska, and who is the head of a family, or is twenty-one years of age; and the land so allotted shall be deemed the homestead of the allottee and his heirs in perpetuity, and shall be inalienable and nontaxable until otherwise provided by Congress. Any person qualified for an allotment as aforesaid shall have the preference right to secure by allotment the nonmineral land occupied by him not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres. (May 17, 1906, c. 2469, 34 Stat. 197.)

358. Annette Islands reserved for Metlakahtla Indians.—Until otherwise provided by law the body of lands known as Annette Islands, situated in Alexander Archipelago in southeastern Alaska, on the north side of Dixon's entrance, is set apart as a reservation for the use of the Metlakahtla Indians, and those people known as Metlakahtlans who, on March 3, 1891, had recently emigrated from British Columbia to Alaska, and such other Alaskan natives as may join them, to be held and used by them in common, under such rules and regulations, and subject to such restrictions, as may be prescribed from time to time by the Secretary of the Interior. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 15, 26 Stat. 1101.)

359. Affidavits; filing, publishing, and posting proofs of claims.—All affidavits, testimony, proofs, and other papers provided for by the provisions of this chapter concerning public lands, or by any departmental or Executive regulation thereunder, by depositions or otherwise, under commission from the register of the land office, which may have been or may hereafter be taken and sworn to anywhere in the United States, before any court, judge, or other officer authorized by law to administer an oath, shall be admitted in evidence as if taken before the register of the proper local land office. And thereafter such proof, together with a certified copy of the field notes and plat of the survey of the claim, shall be filed in the public survey office at Juneau, and if such survey and plat shall be approved by the United States Supervisor of Surveys, certified copies thereof, together with the claimant's application to purchase, shall be filed in the United States land office in the land district in which the claim is situated, whereupon, at the expense of the claimant, the register of such land office shall cause notice of such application to be published for at least sixty days in a newspaper of general circulation published nearest the claim within Alaska, and the applicant shall at the time of filing such field notes, plat, and application to purchase in the land office, as aforesaid, cause a copy of such plat, together with the application to purchase, to be posted upon the claim, and such plat and application shall be kept posted in a conspicuous place on such claim continuously for at least sixty days, and during such period of posting and publication or within thirty days thereafter any person, corporation, or association, having or asserting any adverse interest in, or claim to, the tract of land or any part thereof sought to be purchased, may file in the land office where such application is pending, under oath, an adverse claim setting forth the nature and extent thereof, and such adverse claimant shall, within sixty days after the filing of such adverse claim, begin action to quiet title in a court of competent jurisdiction within Alaska, and thereafter no patent shall issue for such claim until the final adjudication of the rights of the parties, and such patent shall then be issued in conformity with the final decree of the court. (May 14, 1898, c. 299, § 10, 30 Stat. 413; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

LAND DISTRICTS AND LAND OFFICES

365. Number of land districts and location of land offices.—There shall be two land districts in Alaska, the boundaries of which shall be designated by the President, to be known as the Nome land district and the Fairbanks land district, with the land offices located, respectively, at Nome, Alaska, and Fairbanks, Alaska, and one other land district and land office the location of which shall be fixed by the President. (Feb. 14, 1902, c. 17, § 1, 32 Stat. 20; Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2537, § 1, 34 Stat. 1232.)

366. Clerks of district courts as ex officio registers.—The clerks of the district courts at Nome and Fairbanks shall respectively be ex officio registers of the land offices at Nome and Fairbanks. Said clerks shall perform the several duties of register of the land office with all the powers incident to such office to the same extent as performed by the register of the land office at Juneau, Alaska. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2537, § 2, 34 Stat. 1232; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

367. Compensation of clerks of district courts as ex officio registers.—The clerks of the district courts at Nome and Fairbanks shall, in addition to their compensation as clerk as provided by law, receive all the fees and commissions allowed by law for services as registers of land offices under the land laws: Provided, That any fees or commissions in excess of $1,500 per annum received by either of such officials shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States: Provided, That no other salary than aforesaid shall be paid such registers. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2537, § 3, 34 Stat. 1232; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

368. Compensation of clerks in district land offices.—The clerks employed in the district land offices in Alaska may be paid a compensation not to exceed $2,200 per annum. (June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 908.)

HOMESTEADS

371. Homestead laws extended to Alaska; locations on navigable waters; entries on unsurveyed lands.—All the provisions of the homestead laws of the United States not in conflict with the provisions of this section, and all rights incident thereto, are hereby extended to the Territory of Alaska, subject to such regulations as may be made by the Secretary of the Interior; and no indemnity, deficiency, or lieu land selections pertaining to any land grant outside of Alaska shall be made, and no land scrip or land warrant of any kind whatsoever shall be located within or exercised upon any lands in said Territory except as provided by law; and provided further that no more than one hundred and sixty acres shall be entered in any single body by such scrip, lieu selection, or soldier's additional homestead right; and provided further that no location or scrip, selection, or right along any navigable or other waters shall be made within the distance of eighty rods of any lands, along such waters, theretofore located by means of any such scrip or otherwise; and provided further that no commutation privileges shall be allowed in excess of one hundred and sixty acres included in any homestead entry under the provisions hereof: Provided, That no entry shall be allowed extending more than one hundred and sixty rods along the shore of any navigable water, and along such shore a space of at least eighty rods shall be reserved from entry between all such claims; and that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to authorize entries to be made or title to be acquired to the shore of any navigable waters within Alaska; and no patent shall issue hereunder until all the requirements of sections 164, 171, 256, and 272 of Title 43 have been fully complied with as to residence, improvements, cultivation, and proof except as to commuted lands as herein provided. If any of the land so settled upon, or to be settled upon, is unsurveyed, then the land settled upon, or to be settled upon, must be located in a rectangular form, not more than one mile in length, and located by north and south lines run according to the true meridian; the location so made shall be marked upon the ground by permanent monuments at each of the four corners of the said location, so that the boundaries of the same may be readily and easily traced; and the record of said location shall, within ninety days from the date of settlement, be filed for record in the recording district in which the land is situated. Said record shall contain the name of the settler, the date of the settlement, and such a description of the land settled upon, by reference to some natural object or permanent monument, as will identify the same; and, if after the expiration of the said period of five years or at such date as the settler may desire to commute the public surveys of the United States have not been extended over the land located, a patent shall nevertheless issue for the land included within the boundaries of said location as thus recorded, upon proof to be submitted to the register and receiver of the proper land office, upon proof that he is a citizen of the United States, and upon the further proof required by sections 164 and 256 of Title 43, and under the procedure in the obtaining of patents to the unsurveyed lands of the United States, as provided for by section 461 of this title, and under such rules and regulations as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior as hereinbefore provided, without the payment of any purchase price or other charges, except the ordinary office fees and commissions of the register except $1.25 per acre on land commuted: And provided always, That no title shall be obtained hereunder to any of the mineral or coal lands of Alaska. The right of any homestead settler to transfer any portion of the land so settled upon, as provided by section 174 of Title 43, shall be restricted and limited within the district of Alaska as follows: For church, cemetery, or school purposes to five acres, and for the right of railroads across such homestead to one hundred feet in width on either side of the center line of said railroad; and all contracts by the settler made before his receipt of patent from the Government, for the conveyance of the land homesteaded by him or her, except as herein provided, shall be held null and void. (May 14, 1898, c. 299, § 1, 30 Stat. 409; Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1002, 32 Stat. 1028.)

372. Modification of restrictions on location of homestead entries.—The provisions of section 371 of this title, extending the homestead laws to Alaska, in so far as they reserve from sale and entry a space of at least eighty rods in width between tracts sold or entered under the provisions thereof along the shore of any navigable water, and provide that no entry shall be allowed extending more than one hundred and sixty rods along the shore of any navigable water, shall not apply to lands classified and listed by the Secretary of Agriculture for entry under sections 506 to 509 of Title 16, CONSERVATION, and the Secretary of the Interior may upon application to enter or otherwise in his discretion restore to entry and disposition such reserved spaces and may waive the restriction that no entry shall be allowed extending more than one hundred and sixty rods along the shore of any navigable water as to such lands as he shall determine are not necessary for harborage uses and purposes. (June 5, 1920, c. 265, 41 Stat. 1059.)

373. Amount of homestead entries.—Every person who is qualified under existing laws to make homestead entry of the public lands of the United States who has settled upon or who shall hereafter settle upon any of the public lands of the United States situated in Alaska, whether surveyed or unsurveyed, with the intention of claiming the same under the homestead laws, shall, subject to the provisions and limitations of section 371 of this title, be entitled to enter one hundred and sixty acres or a less quantity of unappropriated public land in Alaska, and no more: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit or curtail the area of any homestead claim lawfully initiated prior to June 28, 1918. (July 8, 1916, c. 228, § 1, 39 Stat. 352; June 28, 1918, c. 110, 40 Stat. 632.)

374. Effect of entry in another State or Territory.—A former homestead entry in any other State or Territory shall not be a bar to a homestead entry in Alaska. (July 8, 1916, c. 228, § 1, 39 Stat. 352; June 28, 1918, c. 110, 40 Stat. 632.)

375. Entry on unsurveyed lands; final proofs.—If the system of public surveys has not been extended over the land included in a homestead entry, the entryman may, after due compliance with the terms of the homestead law in the matter of residence, cultivation, and improvement, submit to the register a showing as to such compliance, duly corroborated by two witnesses, and if such evidence satisfactorily shows that the homesteader is in a position to submit acceptable final proof the surveyor general of the Territory will be so advised and will, not later than the next succeeding surveying season, issue proper instructions for the survey of the land so entered, without expense to the entryman, who may thereafter submit final proof as in similar entries of surveyed lands. So far as practicable, such survey shall follow the general system of public-land surveys, and the entryman shall conform his boundaries thereto: Provided, That nothing herein shall prevent the homesteader from securing earlier action on his entry by a special survey at his own expense, if he so elects. (June 28, 1918, c. 110, 40 Stat. 633.)

376. Entry on land containing coal, oil, or gas.—Homestead claims may be initiated by actual settlers on public lands of the United States in Alaska known to contain workable coal, oil, or gas deposits, or that may be valuable for the coal, oil, or gas contained therein, and which are not otherwise reserved or withdrawn, whenever such claim shall be initiated with a view of obtaining or passing title with a reservation to the United States of the coal, oil, or gas in such lands, and of the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same; and any settler who has initiated a homestead claim in good faith on lands containing workable deposits of coal, oil, or gas, or that may be valuable for the coal, oil, or gas contained therein, may perfect the same under the provisions of the laws under which the claim was initiated, but shall receive the limited patent provided for in section 377 of this title: Provided, however, That should it be discovered at any time prior to the issuance of a final certificate on any claim initiated for unreserved lands in Alaska that the lands are coal, oil, or gas in character, the patent issued on such entry shall contain the reservation required by said section. (Mar. 8, 1922, c. 96, § 1, 42 Stat. 415.)

377. Patent for land entered under section 376; reservations.—Upon satisfactory proof of full compliance with the provisions of the laws under which the entry is made and of section 376 of this title the entryman shall be entitled to a patent to the lands entered by him, which patent shall contain a reservation to the United States of all the coal, oil, or gas in the land so patented, together with the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same. The coal, oil, or gas deposits so reserved shall be subject to disposal by the United States in accordance with the provisions of the laws applicable to coal, oil, or gas deposits or coal, oil, or gas lands in Alaska in force at the time of such disposal. Any person qualified to acquire coal, oil, or gas deposits, or the right to mine and remove the coal or to drill for and remove the oil or gas under the laws of the United States, shall have the right at all times to enter upon the lands entered or patented, as provided by the provisions hereof, for the purpose of prospecting for coal, oil, or gas therein, upon the approval by the Secretary of the Interior of a bond or undertaking to be filed with him as security for the payment of all damages to the crops and improvements on such lands by reason of such prospecting. Any person who has acquired from the United States the coal, oil, or gas deposits in any such land, or the right to mine, drill for, or remove the same, may reenter and occupy so much of the surface thereof as may be required for all purposes reasonably incident to the mining and removal of the coal, oil, or gas therefrom, and mine and remove the coal or drill for and remove the oil or gas upon payment of the damages caused thereby to the owner thereof, or upon giving a good and sufficient bond or undertaking in an action instituted in any competent court to ascertain and fix said damages: Provided, That the owner under such limited patent shall have the right to mine the coal for use on the land for domestic purposes at any time prior to the disposal by the United States of the coal deposits: Provided further, That nothing in this section or section 376 of this title shall be construed as authorizing the exploration upon or entry of any coal deposits withdrawn from such exploration and purchase: And provided further, That nothing herein contained shall be held or construed to authorize the entry or disposition, under section 274 of Title 43, of withdrawn or classified coal, oil, or gas lands or of lands valuable for coal, oil, or gas. (Mar. 8, 1922, c. 96, § 2, 42 Stat. 416.)

378. Lands excepted from entry.—There shall be excepted from homestead settlement and entry under the provisions of sections 373 to 375 of this title, the lands in Annette and Pribilof Islands, the islands leased or occupied for the propagation of foxes, and such other lands as have been, or may be, reserved or withdrawn from settlement or entry. (July 8, 1916, c. 228, § 3, 39 Stat. 352; June 28, 1918, c. 110, 40 Stat. 633.)

Mining Claims

381. Mining laws of United States extended to Alaska; regulations.—The laws of the United States relating to mining claims, mineral locations, and rights incident thereto are hereby extended to Alaska: Provided, That subject only to such general limitations as may be necessary to exempt navigation from artificial obstructions all land and shoal water between low and mean high tide on the shores, bays, and inlets of Bering Sea, within the jurisdiction of the United States, shall be subject to exploration and mining for gold and other precious metals by citizens of the United States, or persons who have legally declared their intentions to become such, under such reasonable rules and regulations as the miners in organized mining districts may have heretofore made or may hereafter make governing the temporary possession thereof for exploration and mining purposes until otherwise provided by law: Provided further, That the rules and regulations established by the miners shall not be in conflict with the mining laws of the United States; and no exclusive permit shall be granted by the Secretary of War authorizing any person or persons, corporation or company to excavate or mine under any of said waters below low tide, and if such exclusive permit has been granted it is hereby revoked and declared null and void; but citizens of the United States or persons who have legally declared their intention to become such shall have the right to dredge and mine for gold or other precious metals in said waters, below low tide, subject to such general rules and regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe for the preservation of order and the protection of the interests of commerce; such rules and regulations shall not, however, deprive miners on the beach of the right hereby given to dump tailings into or pump from the sea opposite their claims, except where such dumping would actually obstruct navigation, and the reservation of a roadway sixty feet wide, under section 461 of this title, shall not apply to mineral lands or town sites. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 26, 31 Stat. 329.)

382. Recording notices of location of mining claims.—Notices of location of mining claims shall be filed for record within ninety days from the date of the discovery of the claim described in the notice, and all instruments shall be recorded in the recording district in which the property or subject matter affected by the instrument is situated, and where the property or subject matter is not situated in any established recording district the instrument affecting the same shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the division of the court having supervision over the recording division in which such property or subject matter is situated. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 15, 31 Stat. 327.)

383. Miners' regulations for recording notices; certain records legalized.—Miners in any organized mining district may make rules and regulations governing the recording of notices of location of mining claims, water rights, flumes and ditches, mill sites and affidavits of labor, not in conflict with this chapter or the general laws of the United States; and nothing in this chapter shall be construed so as to prevent the miners in any regularly organized mining district not within any recording district established by the court from electing their own mining recorder to act as such until a recorder therefor is appointed by the court: Provided further, All records regularly made by the United States commissioner prior to June 6, 1900, at Dyea, Skagway, and the recorder at Douglas City, not in conflict with any records regularly made with the United States commissioner at Juneau, are hereby legalized. And all records made in good faith prior to June 6, 1900, in any regularly organized mining district are hereby made public records. (June 6, 1900, c. 786, § 16, 31 Stat. 328.)

384. Annual labor or improvements on mining claims.—During each year and until patent has been issued therefor, at least $100 worth of labor shall be performed or improvements made on, or for the benefit or development of, in accordance with existing law, each mining claim in Alaska heretofore or hereafter located except association placer-mining claims under section 387. And the locator or owner of such claim or some other person having knowledge of the facts may also make and file with the said recorder of the district in which the claims shall be situate an affidavit showing the performance of labor or making of improvements to the amount of $100 as aforesaid and specifying the character and extent of such work. Such affidavit shall set forth the following: First, the name or number of the mining claims and where situated; second, the number of days' work done and the character and value of the improvements placed thereon; third, the date of the performance of such labor and of making improvements; fourth, at whose instance the work was done or the improvements made; fifth, the actual amount paid for work and improvement, and by whom paid when the same was not done by the owner. Such affidavit shall be prima facie evidence of the performance of such work or making of such improvements, but if such affidavits be not filed within the time fixed by this section the burden of proof shall be upon the claimant to establish the performance of such annual work and improvements. And upon failure of the locator or owner of any such claim to comply with the provisions of this section, as to performance of work and improvements, such claim shall become forfeited and open to location by others as if no location of the same had ever been made. The affidavits required hereby may be made before any officer authorized to administer oaths, and the provisions of sections 231 and 232 of Title 18, CRIMINAL CODE AND CRIMINAL PROCEDURE, are extended to such affidavits. Said affidavits shall be filed not later than ninety days after the close of the year in which such work is performed. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2559, § 1, 34 Stat. 1243.)

385. Fees for filing proofs of work and improvements.—The recorders for the several divisions or districts of Alaska shall collect the sum of $1.50 as a fee for the filing, recording, and indexing annual proofs of work and improvements for each claim so recorded under the provisions of section 384 of this title. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2559, § 2, 34 Stat. 1243.)

386. Time for filing adverse claims, and for adverse suits.—In Alaska adverse claims authorized and provided for in sections 29 and 30 of Title 30 may be filed at any time during the sixty days' period of publication or within eight months thereafter, and the adverse suits authorized and provided for in section 30 of Title 30 may be instituted at any time within sixty days after the filing of said claims in the local land office. (June 7, 1910, c. 265, 36 Stat. 459.)

387. Association placer-mining claims limited; annual assessment work.—After August 12, 1912, no association placer-mining claim shall be located in Alaska in excess of forty acres, and on every placer-mining claim thereafter located in Alaska, and until a patent has been issued therefor, not less than $100 worth of labor shall be performed or improvements made during each year, including the year of location, for each and every twenty acres or excess fraction thereof. (Aug. 1, 1912, c. 269, § 1, 37 Stat. 242.)

388. Power of attorney to locate placer-mining claims; restrictions.—No person shall locate any placer-mining claim in Alaska as attorney for another unless he is duly authorized thereto by a power of attorney in writing, duly acknowledged and recorded in any recorder's office in the judicial division where the location is made. Any person so authorized may locate placer-mining claims for not more than two individuals or one association under such power of attorney, but no such agent or attorney shall be authorized or permitted to locate more than two placer-mining claims for any one principal or association during any calendar month, and no placer-mining claim shall be located in Alaska except under the limitations of sections 387 to 391. (Aug. 1, 1912, c. 269, § 2, 37 Stat. 243.)

389. Restrictions on placer locations.—No person shall locate, cause or procure to be located, for himself more than two placer-mining claims in any calendar month: Provided, That one or both of such locations may be included in an association claim. (Aug. 1, 1912, c. 269, § 3, 37 Stat. 243.)

390. Area and shape of placer claims.—No placer-mining claim hereafter located in Alaska shall be patented which shall contain a greater area than is fixed by law, nor which is longer than three times its greatest width. (Aug. 1, 1912, c. 269, § 4, 37 Stat. 243.)

391. Placer locations in violation of law.—Any placer-mining claim attempted to be located in violation of sections 387 to 391 of this title shall be null and void, and the whole area thereof may be located by any qualified locator as if no such prior attempt had been made. (Aug. 1, 1912, c. 269, § 5, 37 Stat. 243.)

392. Reciprocity with Canada as to mining rights.—Native-born citizens of the Dominion of Canada shall be accorded in Alaska the same mining rights and privileges accorded to citizens of the United States in British Columbia and the former Northwest Territory by the laws of the Dominion of Canada or the local laws, rules, and regulations; but no greater rights shall be thus accorded than citizens of the United States or persons who have declared their intention to become such may enjoy in Alaska; and the Secretary of the Interior shall from time to time promulgate and enforce rules and regulations to carry this provision into effect. (May 14, 1898, c. 299, § 13, 30 Stat. 415.)

MINERS' AND LABORERS' LIENS FOR WORK DONE

395. Miners' labor lien on output; priority.—Every miner or other laborer who shall labor in or upon any mine or mining ground for another in the Territory of Alaska in digging, thawing, conveying, hoisting, piling, cleaning up, or any other kind of work in producing any mineral-bearing sands, gravels, earth, or rock, gold or gold dust, or other minerals, or shall aid or assist therein by his labor as cook, engineer, fireman, or in cutting and delivering wood used in said work, or in work in any like capacity in producing the dump, shall, where his labor directly aided in such production, have a lien upon the dump or mass of mineral-bearing sands, gravels, earth, or rocks, and all gold and gold dust, or other minerals therein, and all gold and gold dust extracted therefrom, for the full amount of wages for all the time which he was so employed as such laborer in producing the said dump, within one year next preceding his ceasing to labor thereon; and to the extent of the labor of the said miner or other laborer actually employed or expended thereon, within one year next prior to ceasing to labor thereon, the said lien shall be prior to and preferred over any deed, mortgage, bill of sale, attachment, conveyance, or other claim, whether the same was made or given prior to such labor or not: Provided, That this preference shall not apply to any such deed, mortgage, bill of sale, attachment, conveyance, or other claim given in good faith and for value prior to June 25, 1910. (June 25, 1910, c. 422, § 1, 36 Stat. 848.)

396. Filing claim of lien; form of claim.—Every laborer, within ninety days after the completion of the performance of the work or labor mentioned in section 395 of this title who shall claim the benefit thereof, must, personally or by some other person for him, file for record in the recording precinct where the labor was performed a claim of lien containing a statement of his demand under oath, substantially in the following form:

Notice of Laborer's Lien

Territory of Alaska, ——— precinct, ss.:

——— ———, claimant, against ——— ———, defendant.

Notice is hereby given that ——— ———, claimant, claims a lien upon (describing the dump or mass of mineral-bearing sands, gravels, earth, or rock, and its location with reasonable certainty) in the ——— precinct, in the Territory of Alaska, for labor performed in (digging, and so forth; describe the work). That the name of the owner or reputed owner of said property is ——— ———, and that ——— ——— is the owner or reputed owner of the mine or mining ground from which the dump or mass of mineral-bearing sands, gravels, earth or rock and the minerals therein were extracted, and that ——— ——— employed claimant to perform such work and labor upon the following terms and conditions (state substance of contract, if any, or reasonable value); that said contract has been faithfully performed and fully complied with on the part of the claimant, who performed labor thereunder aforesaid for the period of ——— days; that said labor was performed between the ——— day of ——— and the ——— day of ———, and the rendition of said service was closed on the ——— day of ———, and ninety days have not elapsed since that time; that the amount of claimant's demand for said service is ———; that no part thereof has been paid (except the sum of ——— dollars), and there is now due and remaining unpaid thereon, after deducting all just credits and offsets, the sum of ——— dollars, in which amount he claims a lien upon said property.

———— ————,
Claimant.

Territory of Alaska, ——— precinct, ss.:

——— ———, being first duly sworn, on oath deposes and says, that I am the claimant (or if by some other person state the fact) named in the foregoing claim; that I have heard the same read, know the contents thereof, and believe the same to be true.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this ——— day of ———.

———— ————
[Officer's title.]

(June 25, 1910, c. 422, § 2, 36 Stat. 848.)

397. Recording claim of lien.—The recorder must record every claim filed under the provisions of sections 395 and 396 of this title in books kept by him for that purpose, which record must be indexed as deeds and other conveyances are required by law to be indexed and for which he may receive the following fees and none other: For filing, 10 cents; for recording, $1; for indexing, 15 cents for each name. (June 25, 1910, c. 422, § 3, 36 Stat. 849.)

398. Duration of lien.—No lien provided for in section 395 of this title shall bind any property for a longer period than ninety days after the claim has been filed, unless an action be commenced within that time to enforce the same. (June 25, 1910, c. 422, § 4, 36 Stat. 849.)

399. Foreclosure of liens; jurisdiction.—The action for the foreclosure of the lien provided for in sections 395 to 405 of this title shall be begun either in the district court or in the justice's court in the precinct where the lien was filed and the justices of the peace in Alaska are given full jurisdiction in the foreclosure of such liens under the provisions of this division of this chapter, and shall also have such other jurisdiction and power as is conferred on them by law in aid of the enforcement of said sections, and the provisions of section 723 of chapter 71 of the Code of Civil Procedure in force on June 25, 1910, in Alaska shall be applicable to the jurisdiction intended to be conferred hereby. (June 25, 1910, c. 422, § 5, 36 Stat. 849.)

400. Defects in lien notice or in proceedings to foreclose cured by amendment.—No mistake, informality, or mere matter of form or lack of statement, either in the lien notice or pleadings, shall be ground for dismissal or unnecessary delay in the action to foreclose the lien, but the lien notice and pleadings may be amended at any time before judgment, and section 92 of chapter 11 of the Code of Civil Procedure in force in Alaska on June 25, 1910, shall apply to such amendment. If it be shown that a material statement or averment has been omitted or misstated, it shall be ground for a reasonable delay or continuance to give the defendant a reasonable opportunity to meet it upon amendment. (June 25, 1910, c. 422, § 6, 36 Stat. 849.)

401. Proceeding to foreclose lien; intervention by adverse claimants.—The claimant may file the original or a certified copy of the notice of lien in the district or justice's court as the statement of his case, and thereupon the court or justice shall issue the usual summons directed to the defendant or defendants, which summons, together with a copy of the lien notice, shall, by any officer authorized to serve process, be served upon the defendant or defendants, as provided in sections 950 and 951 of chapter 92 of the Code of Civil Procedure in force in Alaska on June 25, 1910. The summons shall require the defendant or defendants to appear before such court or justice at a time and a place to be named therein, not less than six nor more than twenty days from the date thereof, to answer the demand of the claimant in the said lien notice, or judgment for want of an answer will be taken against them. Service by publication may be had pursuant to sections 47 and 48 of chapter 4 of said Code of Civil Procedure. The officer serving the summons shall also immediately post a copy of said lien notice in a conspicuous place on the dump or mass of mineral-bearing sands, gravels, earth, or rock, and gold and gold dust, and other minerals therein upon which the lien is filed, and from the moment of posting the lien notice the dump or mass of mineral-bearing sands, gravels, earth, and rock, and gold and gold dust, and other minerals therein shall be in the custody and under the control of the officer. All persons who claim any interest therein in opposition to the lien claimant may come in and answer and set up and defend their said claims, but no claim or claims of any owner, lessee, or other adverse defendant shall bar the lien claimant from recovering the sum due him for actual labor in producing the said dump or mass of mineral-bearing sands, gravels, earth, or rock, or gold and gold dust, or other minerals. (June 25, 1910, c. 422, § 7, 36 Stat. 850.)

402. Joinder of plaintiffs; consolidation of actions; waiver of lien.—Any number of persons claiming liens under sections 395 to 405 of this title may join in the same action, and when separate actions are commenced the court may consolidate them. The court shall also allow, as a part of the costs, the moneys paid for filing, recording, and indexing the notice of lien, the sum of $5 for drawing the same, and a reasonable attorney's fee for each person claiming a lien, not to exceed 10 per centum of the amount of the lien established on judgment. Any contract or agreement or any waiver of any kind made or signed by any miner or laborer whereby it is sought to waive or abandon his right to file a lien under sections 395 to 405 of this title, or any agreement for an extended time of payment whereby the same end is sought, shall to that extent be null and void as against public policy. (June 25, 1910, c. 422, § 8, 36 Stat. 850.)

403. Judgment for claimants; enforcement.—In the action provided for in sections 395 to 405 of this title judgment must be rendered in favor of each person having a laborer's lien for the amount due him, and the court shall order the dump or mass of mineral-bearing sands, gravels, earth, or rock, and the gold and gold dust, and other minerals therein subject to the lien to be sold by the marshal in the same manner that personal property is sold on execution; or the court may, upon a showing that it is necessary to do so to preserve the property from loss or waste, by order require the marshal to wash up or extract the gold and gold dust or other mineral from the said mineral-bearing sands, gravels, earth, or rock; or the court may, by order, allow the defendant or defendants or any party interested to wash up and extract the said mineral, in the presence of the marshal or deputy marshal or special officer, who shall take the gold or gold dust or other minerals as it is washed up and extracted and return the same into court, and it shall be immediately paid out as follows: First, the cost of cleaning up or extracting the gold or gold dust or other minerals shall be paid; second, the court costs shall be paid; and, third, the judgment or judgments so rendered in favor of the lien claimants shall be paid; and if there is not sufficient gold or gold dust, or other minerals, or sufficient moneys obtained from the sale of the property to pay all claims in full, the court shall apportion the proceeds to the payment of such judgments pro rata. No part of any such proceeds shall be paid upon any claim or judgment to any person who did not actually perform labor in producing the dump or the proceeds thereof until all such preferred claims are paid in full. (June 25, 1910, c. 422, § 9, 36 Stat. 850.)
