783. Imported tobacco and snuff; affixing stamps; packages.—All manufactured tobacco and snuff imported from foreign countries shall have the same stamps respectively affixed in payment of the internal-revenue tax as are prescribed for tobacco and snuff manufactured in the United States. Such stamps shall be affixed and canceled on all such articles so imported by the owner or importer thereof, while they are in the custody of the proper customhouse officers, and such articles shall not pass out of the custody of said officers until the stamps have been affixed and canceled. Such tobacco and snuff shall be put up in packages, as prescribed by law for like articles manufactured in the United States before the stamps are affixed; and the owner or importer shall be liable to all the penal provisions prescribed for manufactures of tobacco and snuff manufactured in the United States. Whenever it is necessary to take any such articles, so imported, to any place for the purpose of repacking, affixing, and canceling such stamps, other than the public stores of the United States, the collector of customs of the port where they are entered shall designate a bonded warehouse to which they shall be taken, under the control of such customs officer as he may direct. And every officer of customs who permits any such articles to pass out of his custody or control without compliance by the owner or importer thereof with the provisions of this section relating thereto, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than six months nor more than three years. (R. S. § 3377; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 14, 20 Stat. 346; June 2, 1924, 4:01 p. m., c. 234, § 401(a), 43 Stat. 317.)

784. Same; scraps, clippings, cuttings, and so forth, withdrawn without payment of tax.—Scraps, cuttings, and clippings of tobacco imported from any foreign country may, after the proper customs duty has been paid thereon, be withdrawn in bulk without the payment of the internal-revenue tax, and transferred as material directly to the factory of a manufacturer of tobacco or snuff, or of a cigar manufacturer, under such restrictions and regulations as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury. (R. S. § 3377; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 14, 20 Stat. 346.)

785. Exportation of manufactured tobacco and snuff without payment of tax.—Manufactured tobacco and snuff may be removed for export to a foreign country without payment of tax, under such regulations, and the making of such entries, and the filing of such bonds and bills of lading as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe. (Aug. 4, 1886, c. 896, § 1, 24 Stat. 218.)

786. Same; transportation in bond; export bond.—Whenever any manufacturer of tobacco shall desire to withdraw the same from his factory for exportation under existing laws, such manufacturer may, at his option, in lieu of executing an export bond, as provided by law, give a transportation bond, with sureties satisfactory to the collector of internal revenue, and under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe, conditioned for the due delivery thereof on board ship at a port of exportation to be named therein; and in such case, on arrival of the tobacco at the port of export, the exporter or owner at that port shall immediately notify the collector of the port of the fact, setting forth his intention to export the same, the name of the vessel upon which the same is to be laden, and the port to which it is intended to be exported. He shall, after the quantity and description of tobacco have been verified by the inspector, file with the collector of the port an export entry verified by affidavit. He shall also give bond to the United States, with at least two sureties, satisfactory to the collector of customs, conditioned that the principal named in said bond will export the tobacco as specified in said entry, to the port designated in said entry, or to some other port without the jurisdiction of the United States. And upon the lading of such tobacco, the collector of the port, after proper bonds for the exportation of the same have been completed by the exporter or owner at the port of shipment thereof, shall transmit to the collector of internal revenue of the district from which the said tobacco was withdrawn for exportation, a clearance certificate and a detailed report of the inspector; which report shall show the quantity and description of manufactured tobacco, and the marks thereof. Upon the receipt of the certificate and report, and upon payment of tax on deficiency, if any, the collector of internal revenue shall cancel the transportation bond. The bonds required to be given for the landing at a foreign port of such manufactured tobacco shall be canceled upon the presentation of satisfactory proof and certificates that said tobacco has been landed at the port of destination named in the bill of lading, or any other port without the jurisdiction of the United States, or upon satisfactory proof that after shipment the same was lost at sea without fault or neglect of the owner or exporter thereof. (Feb. 8, 1875, c. 36, § 24, 18 Stat. 312.)

787. Same; procedure; exportation to foreign adjacent territory.—There shall be affixed to each package of tobacco and snuff intended for immediate export, before it is removed from the manufactory, an engraved stamp indicative of such intention. Such stamps shall be provided and furnished to the several collectors as in the case of other stamps, and they shall account for the use of the same. When the manufacturer has made the proper entries, filed the bonds, and otherwise complied with the requirements of law and the regulations as provided, the collector shall issue to him a permit for the removal, accurately describing the tobacco and snuff, to be shipped, the number and kinds of packages, the number of pounds, the marks and brands, the State and collection district from which the same are shipped, the number of the manufactory and the manufacturer's name, the port from which the said tobacco and snuff are to be exported, and the route or routes over which the same are to be sent to the port of shipment. Upon the presentation to the collector of internal revenue of a detailed report from the inspectors of customs, and a certificate of the collector of customs at the port from which the goods are to be exported that the goods removed from the manufactory under bond and described in the permit of the collector of internal revenue have been received by the said collector of customs, and that the said goods were duly laden on board of a foreign-bound vessel, naming the vessel, and that the said merchandise was entered on the outward manifest of said vessel, and that the said vessel and cargo were duly cleared from said port, and on the payment of the tax or deficiency, if any, the bonds, which have been given or shall hereafter be required to be given under the provisions of section 786 of this title shall be canceled. But when the goods are exported to an adjacent foreign territory, by vessel or otherwise, said bonds shall be canceled upon such proofs of exportation as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. (R. S. § 3385; June 9, 1880, c. 161, § 1, 21 Stat. 167; Aug. 8, 1882, c. 468, 22 Stat. 372; Jan. 18, 1883, c. 24, 22 Stat. 402; Aug. 4, 1886, c. 896, § 1, 24 Stat. 218.)

788. Drawback on exported tobacco and snuff.—There shall be an allowance of drawback on tobacco and snuff on which the tax has been paid by suitable stamps affixed thereto before removal from the place of manufacture, when the same are exported, equal in amount to the value of the stamps found to have been so affixed; the evidence that the stamps were so affixed, and the amount of tax so paid, and of the subsequent exportation of the said tobacco and snuff to be ascertained under such regulations as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury. Any sums found to be due under the provisions of this section shall be paid by the warrant of the Secretary of the Treasury on the Treasurer of the United States, out of any money arising from internal duties not otherwise appropriated. No claim for an allowance of drawback shall be entertained or allowed until a certificate from the collector of customs at the port from which the goods have been exported, or other evidence satisfactory to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, has been furnished, that the stamps affixed to the tobacco or snuff entered and cleared for export to a foreign country were totally destroyed before such clearance; nor until the claimant has filed a bond, with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the collector of the district from which the goods are shipped, in a penal sum double the amount of the tax for which said claim is made, that he will procure, within a reasonable time, evidence satisfactory to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue that said tobacco or snuff has been landed at any port without the jurisdiction of the United States, or that after shipment the same were lost at sea, and have not been relanded within the limits of the United States. (R. S. § 3386; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 16, 20 Stat. 347.)

789. Same; fraudulently claiming; forfeiture.—If any person or persons shall fraudulently claim or seek to obtain an allowance or drawback of duties on any manufactured tobacco, or shall fraudulently claim any greater allowance or drawback thereon than the duty actually paid, such person or persons shall forfeit triple the amount wrongfully or fraudulently claimed or sought to be obtained, or the sum of $500, at the election of the Secretary of the Treasury, to be recovered as in other cases of forfeiture provided for in the internal-revenue laws. (Feb. 8, 1875, c. 36, § 25, 18 Stat. 312.)

790. Relanding tobacco or snuff unlawfully; penalty; forfeiture.—Every person who, with the intent to defraud the revenue laws of the United States, relands or causes to be relanded within the jurisdiction of the United States any manufactured tobacco or snuff which has been shipped for exportation under the provisions of this section and section 786 of this title, without properly entering such tobacco or snuff at the custom-house, and paying the proper customs and internal-revenue tax thereon, or who receives such relanded tobacco or snuff, and every person who aids or abets in such relanding or receiving such tobacco or snuff shall, on conviction, be fined not exceeding $5,000, or imprisoned not more than three years, and all tobacco or snuff so relanded shall be forfeited to the United States. (R. S. § 3385; June 9, 1880, c. 161, § 1, 21 Stat. 167; Aug. 8, 1882, c. 468, 22 Stat. 372; Jan. 13, 1883, c. 24, 22 Stat. 402.)

791. Dealers in leaf tobacco; dealers in tobacco.—Every person shall be regarded as a dealer in leaf tobacco, whose business it is, for himself or on commission, to sell, or offer for sale, or consign for sale on commission, leaf tobacco.

Every person, whose business it is, to sell or offer for sale, manufactured tobacco, snuff, or cigars, shall be regarded as a dealer in tobacco. (R. S. § 3244.)

792. Dealers in leaf tobacco; statements; bonds; numbers assigned to.—Every dealer in leaf tobacco shall file with the collector of the district in which his business is carried on a statement in duplicate, subscribed under oath, setting forth the place, and, if in a city, the street and number of the street, where his business is to be carried on, and the exact location of each place where leaf tobacco is held by him on storage, and, whenever he adds to or discontinues any of his leaf tobacco storage places, he shall give immediate notice to the collector of the district in which he is registered.

Every such dealer shall give a bond with surety, satisfactory to, and to be approved by, the collector of the district, in such penal sum as the collector may require, not less than $500; and a new bond may be required in the discretion of the collector, or under instructions of the commissioner.

Every such dealer shall be assigned a number by the collector of the district, which number shall appear in every inventory, invoice and report rendered by the dealer, who shall also obtain certificates from the collector of the district setting forth the place where his business is carried on and the places designated by the dealer as the places of storage of his tobacco, which certificate shall be posted conspicuously within the dealer's registered place of business, and within each designated place of storage. (R. S. § 3360; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 14, 20 Stat. 345; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 704, 40 Stat. 1119; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 704, 42 Stat. 288; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 403, 43 Stat. 318.)

793. Same; inventories; records; reports.—Every dealer in leaf tobacco shall make and deliver to the collector of the district a true inventory of the quantity of the different kinds of tobacco held or owned, and where stored by him, on the 1st day of January of each year, or at the time of commencing and at the time of concluding business, if before or after the 1st day of January, such inventory to be made under oath and rendered in such form as may be prescribed by the commissioner.

Every dealer in leaf tobacco shall render such invoices and keep such records as shall be prescribed by the commissioner, and shall enter therein, day by day, and upon the same day on which the circumstance, thing, or act to be recorded is done or occurs, an accurate account of the number of hogsheads, tierces, cases and bales, and quantity of leaf tobacco contained therein, purchased or received by him, on assignment, consignment, for storage, by transfer or otherwise, and of whom purchased or received, and the number of hogsheads, tierces, cases and bales, and the quantity of leaf tobacco contained therein, sold by him, with the name and residence in each instance of the person to whom sold, and if shipped, to whom shipped and to what district; such records shall be kept at his place of business at all times and preserved for a period of two years, and the same shall be open at all hours for the inspection of any internal-revenue officer or agent.

Every dealer in leaf tobacco on or before the 10th day of each month, shall furnish to the collector of the district a true and complete report of all purchases, receipts, sales, and shipments of leaf tobacco made by him during the month next preceding, which report shall be verified and rendered in such form as the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe. (R. S. § 3360; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 14, 20 Stat. 345; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 704, 40 Stat. 1119; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 704, 42 Stat. 288; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 403, 43 Stat. 318.)

794. Same; sales or shipments by.—Sales or shipments of leaf tobacco by a dealer in leaf tobacco shall be in quantities of not less than a hogshead, tierce, case, or bale, except loose leaf tobacco comprising the breaks on warehouse floors, and except to a duly registered manufacturer of cigars for use in his own manufactory exclusively.

Dealers in leaf tobacco shall make shipments of leaf tobacco only to other dealers in leaf tobacco, to registered manufacturers of tobacco, snuff, cigars, or cigarettes, or for export. (R. S. § 3360; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 14, 20 Stat. 345; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 704, 40 Stat. 1119; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 704, 42 Stat. 288; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 403, 43 Stat. 318.)

795. Same; tax on tobacco unlawfully sold, removed, or shipped.—Upon all leaf tobacco sold, removed, or shipped by any dealer in leaf tobacco in violation of the provisions of section 794 of this title, or in respect to which no report has been made by such dealer in accordance with the provisions of section 793 of this title, there shall be levied, assessed, collected and paid a tax equal to the tax then in force upon manufactured tobacco, such tax to be assessed and collected in the same manner as the tax on manufactured tobacco. (R. S. § 3360; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 14, 20 Stat. 345; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 704, 40 Stat. 1119; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 704, 42 Stat. 288; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 403, 43 Stat. 318.)

796. Same; offenses; punishment.—Every dealer in leaf tobacco—

(1) who neglects or refuses to furnish the statement, to give bond, to keep books, to file inventory or to render the invoices, returns, or reports required by the commissioner, or to notify the collector of the district of additions to his places of storage; or

(2) who ships or delivers leaf tobacco, except as herein provided; or

(3) who fraudulently omits to account for tobacco purchased, received, sold, or shipped;

shall be fined not less than $100 or more than $500, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. (R. S. § 3360; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 14, 20 Stat. 345; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 704, 40 Stat. 119; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 704, 42 Stat. 288; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 403, 43 Stat. 318.)

797. Same; farmers' and cooperative associations.—For the purpose of sections 792 to 796 of this title a farmer or grower of tobacco or a tobacco growers' cooperative association shall not be regarded as a dealer in leaf tobacco in respect to the leaf tobacco produced by him or handled by such association; but such cooperative associations shall be required to keep available records of all purchases and sales of tobacco, such records to be open to inspection by the agents of the Government. As used in this section the term "tobacco growers' cooperative association" means an association of farmers or growers of tobacco organized and operated as sales agent for the purpose of marketing the tobacco produced by its members and turning back to them the proceeds of sales, less the necessary selling expenses, on the basis of the quantity and quality of tobacco furnished by them. (R. S. § 3360; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 14, 20 Stat. 345; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 704, 40 Stat. 1119; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 704, 42 Stat. 288; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 403, 43 Stat. 318.)

798. Same; statement of sales.—It shall be the duty of any dealer in leaf tobacco, or in any material used in manufacturing tobacco or snuff, on demand of any officer of internal revenue, to render a true and complete statement, under oath, of the quantity and amount of such leaf tobacco or materials sold or delivered to any person named in such demand; and in case of refusal or neglect to render such statement, or if there is cause to believe such statement to be incorrect or fraudulent, the collector shall make an examination of persons, books, and papers, in the manner provided in relation to frauds and evasions. (R. S. § 3359.)

799. Peddlers of tobacco.—Any person who sells or offers to sell and deliver manufactured tobacco, snuff, or cigars, traveling from place to place, in the town or through the country, shall be regarded as a peddler of tobacco; but manufacturers of, jobbers and wholesale dealers in, manufactured tobacco, snuff, cigars, and cigarettes, and the agents or salesmen of such manufacturers, jobbers, and wholesale dealers, traveling from place to place, in the town or through the country, and selling and delivering or offering to sell and deliver such products only to dealers, shall not be construed to be peddlers. (R. S. § 3244; Sept. 7, 1916, c. 453, 39 Stat. 740.)

800. Same; notice of business.—Every peddler of tobacco, before commencing, or, if he has already commenced, before continuing to peddle tobacco, shall furnish to the collector of his district a statement accurately setting forth the place of his residence, and, if in a city, the street and number of the street where he resides, the State or States through which he proposes to travel; also whether he proposes to sell his own manufactures or the manufactures of others, and, if he sells for other parties, the person for whom he sells. He shall also give a bond in the sum of $500, to be approved by the collector of the district, conditioned that he shall not engage in any attempt, by himself or by collusion with others, to defraud the Government of any tax on tobacco, snuff, or cigars; that he shall neither sell nor offer for sale any tobacco, snuff, or cigars, except in original and full packages, as the law requires the same to be put up and prepared by the manufacturer for sale, or for removal for sale or consumption, and except such packages of tobacco, snuff, and cigars as bear the manufacturer's label or caution notice, and his legal marks and brands, and genuine internal-revenue stamps which have never before been used. (R. S. § 3381; Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1244, § 28, 26 Stat. 618.)

801. Same; traveling with wagon.—Every peddler of tobacco, snuff, or cigars, traveling with a wagon, shall affix and keep on the same, in a conspicuous place, a sign painted in oil colors, or gilded, giving his full name, business, and collection district. (R. S. § 3382.)

802. Same; certificate.—Every peddler of tobacco shall obtain a certificate from the collector of his collection district, who is authorized and directed to issue the same, giving the name of the peddler, his residence, and the fact of his having filed the required bond; and shall on demand of any officer of internal revenue produce and exhibit his certificate. And whenever any peddler refuses to exhibit his certificate, as aforesaid, on demand of any officer of internal revenue, said officer may seize the horse or mule, wagon, and contents, or pack, bundle, or basket, of any person so refusing; and the collector of the district in which the seizure occurs may, on ten days' notice, published in any newspaper in the district, or served personally on the peddler, or at his dwelling house, require such peddler to show cause, if any he has, why the horses or mules, wagons, and contents, pack, bundle, or basket so seized shall not be forfeited. In case no sufficient cause is shown, proceedings for the forfeiture of the property seized shall be taken under the general provisions of the internal-revenue laws relating to forfeitures. Any internal-revenue agent may demand production of and inspect the collector's certificate for peddlers, and refusal or failure to produce the same, when so demanded, shall subject the party guilty thereof to a fine of not more than $500 and to imprisonment for not more than twelve months. (R. S. § 3383; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 15, 20 Stat. 346; Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1244, § 29, 26 Stat. 618.)

803. Same; unlawful peddling; penalty.—Every person who is found peddling tobacco, snuff, or cigars, without having given the bond, or without having previously obtained the collector's certificate as herein provided, or who sells tobacco, snuff, or cigars otherwise than in original and full packages as put up by the manufacturer; or who has in his possession any internal-revenue stamp which has been removed from any box or other package of tobacco, snuff, or cigars, or any empty or partially emptied box or other package which has been used for tobacco, snuff, or cigars, the stamp or stamps on which have not been destroyed; or who fails to have affixed to his wagon, in a conspicuous place, a sign, painted in oil colors, or gilded, giving his full name, business, and collection district, shall, for each such offense, be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500, or imprisoned not less than six months nor more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court. And any collector or deputy collector finding such peddler in the act of offending as to either of the offenses mentioned in this section, may seize the horse or horses, mule or mules, wagon and contents, or pack, bundle, or basket, of any such person; and the collector shall thereupon proceed upon such seizure as provided in section 802 of this title. (R. S. § 3384; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 15, 20 Stat. 346.)

Section 821. Cigars and cigarettes defined.—All rolls of tobacco, or any substitute therefor, wrapped with tobacco, shall be classed as cigars; and all rolls of tobacco, or any substitute therefor, wrapped in paper or any substance other than tobacco, shall be classed as cigarettes. (R. S. § 3394; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 127, § 2, 18 Stat. 339; July 24, 1897, c. 11, § 10, 30 Stat. 206; July 1, 1902, c. 1371, § 2, 32 Stat. 715; Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 33, 36 Stat. 110.)

822. Cigar manufacturer; statement and bond.—Every person before commencing, or, if he has already commenced, before continuing, the manufacture of cigars, shall furnish, without previous demand therefor, to the collector of the district a statement in duplicate, under oath, setting forth the place, and, if in a city, the street and number of the street, where the manufacture is to be carried on; and when the same are to be manufactured for, or to be sold and delivered to, any other person, the name and residence and business or occupation of the person for whom they are to be manufactured, or to whom they are to be delivered; and shall give a bond, in conformity with the provisions of this title, in such penal sum as the collector may require, not less than $100, and the sum of said bond may be increased from time to time and additional sureties required, at the discretion of the collector, or under the instructions of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Said bond shall be conditioned that he shall not engage in any attempt, by himself or by collusion with others, to defraud the Government of any tax on his manufactures; that he shall render correctly all the returns, statements, and inventories prescribed; that whenever he shall add to the number of cigar makers employed by him he shall immediately give notice thereof to the collector of the district; that he shall stamp, in accordance with law, all cigars manufactured by him before he offers the same or any part thereof for sale, and before he removes any part thereof from the place of manufacture; that he shall not knowingly sell, purchase, expose, or receive for sale, any cigars which have not been stamped as required by law; and that he shall comply with all the requirements of law relating to the manufacture of cigars. And every person who manufactures cigars of any description, without first giving bond as herein required, shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than three months nor more than five years. Cigarettes and cheroots shall be held to be cigars under the meaning of this chapter. (R. S. § 3387; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 16, 20 Stat. 347; Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1244, § 35, 26 Stat. 620.)

823. Same; certificate; posting; penalty.—Every cigar manufacturer shall obtain from the collector of the district who is required to issue the same a certificate setting forth the number of cigar makers for which the bond mentioned in section 822 of this title was given and shall keep the same posted in a conspicuous place within the manufactory. Every cigar manufacturer who neglects or refuses to obtain such certificate, or to keep the same posted as hereinbefore provided, shall be fined $100. (R. S. § 3387; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 16, 20 Stat. 347; Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1244, § 35, 26 Stat. 620.)

824. Same; sign.—Every cigar manufacturer shall place and keep on the side or end of the building within which his business is carried on, so that it can be distinctly seen, a sign, with letters thereon not less than three inches in length, painted in oil colors or gilded, giving his full name and business. Any person neglecting to comply with the requirements of this section shall, on conviction, be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500. (R. S. § 3388.)

825. Same; record of.—Every collector shall keep a record, in a book provided for that purpose, to be open to the inspection of only the proper officers of internal revenue, including deputy collectors and internal-revenue agents, of the name and residence of every person engaged in the manufacture of cigars in his district, the place where such manufacture is carried on, and the number of the manufactory; and he shall enter in said record, under the name of each manufacturer, an abstract of his inventory and monthly returns; and he shall cause the several manufacturers of cigars in the district to be numbered consecutively, which number shall not thereafter be changed. (R. S. § 3389; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 16, 20 Stat. 347; Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1244, § 34, 26 Stat. 620.)

826. Same; annual inventory and accounts.—Every person engaged in the manufacture of cigars shall make and deliver to the collector of the district a true inventory, in such form as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, of the quantity of leaf tobacco, cigars, stems, scraps, clippings, and waste, and of the number of cigar boxes and the capacity of each box, held or owned by him on the 1st day of January of each year, or at the time of commencing and at the time of concluding business, if before or after the 1st of January, setting forth what portion and kinds of said goods were manufactured or produced by him, and what were purchased from others, and shall verify said inventory by his oath indorsed thereon. The collector shall make personal examination of the stock sufficient to satisfy himself as to the correctness of the inventory; and shall verify the fact of such examination by oath to be indorsed on the inventory. Every such person shall also enter daily in a book, the form of which shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, an accurate account of all the articles aforesaid purchased by him, the quantity of leaf tobacco, cigars, stems, or cigar boxes, of whatever description, manufactured, sold, consumed, or removed for consumption or sale, or removed from the place of manufacture; and shall, on or before the 10th day of each and every month, furnish to the collector of the district a true and accurate abstract from such book, verified by his oath, of all such purchases, sales, and removals made during the month next preceding. In case of refusal or willful neglect to deliver the inventory or keep the account, or furnish the abstract aforesaid, he shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than six months nor more than three years. (R. S. § 3390.)

828. Packing cigars; cigars used by employees.—All cigars weighing more than three pounds per thousand shall be packed in boxes not before used for that purpose containing, respectively, three, five, seven, ten, twelve, thirteen, twenty-five, fifty, one hundred, two hundred, two hundred and fifty, or five hundred cigars each; and every person who sells, or offers for sale, or delivers, or offers to deliver, any cigars in any other form than in new boxes as above described, or who packs in any box any cigars in excess of or less than the number provided by law to be put in each box, respectively, or who falsely brands any box, or affixes a stamp on any box denoting a less amount of tax than that required by law, shall be fined for each offense not more than $1,000 and be imprisoned not more than two years. Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing the sale of cigars at retail by retail dealers from boxes packed, stamped, and branded in the manner prescribed by law. Each employee of a manufacturer of cigars shall be permitted to use, for personal consumption and for experimental purposes, not to exceed twenty-one cigars per week without the manufacturer of cigars being required to pack the same in boxes or to stamp or pay any internal-revenue tax thereon, such exemption to be allowed under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. (R. S. § 3392; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 16, 20 Stat. 347; Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1244, § 32, 26 Stat. 619; Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 32, 36 Stat. 109; Feb. 10, 1913, c. 34, 37 Stat. 664; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 400(e), 43 Stat. 317.)

829. Packages of cigarettes and small cigars; stamps.—Every manufacturer of cigarettes (including small cigars weighing not more than three pounds per thousand) shall put up all the cigarettes and such small cigars that he manufactures or has manufactured for him, and sells or removes for consumption or sale, in packages or parcels containing five, eight, ten, twelve, fifteen, sixteen, twenty, twenty-four, forty, fifty, eighty, or one hundred cigarettes each and shall securely affix to each of such packages or parcels a suitable stamp denoting the tax thereon and shall properly cancel the same prior to such sale or removal for consumption or sale under such regulations as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe; and all cigarettes imported from a foreign country shall be packed, stamped, and the stamps canceled in a like manner, in addition to the import stamp indicating inspection of the customhouse before they are withdrawn therefrom. (Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 32, 36 Stat. 109; Feb. 10, 1913, c. 34, 37 Stat. 664; Oct. 3, 1917, c. 63, § 400, 40 Stat. 313; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 400(a–d), 43 Stat. 316.)

830. Label and notice on cigars.—Every manufacturer of cigars shall securely affix, by pasting on each box containing cigars manufactured by or for him, a label, on which shall be printed, besides the number of the manufactory and the district and State in which it is situated, these words:

Notice.—The manufacturer of the cigars herein contained has complied with all the requirements of law. Every person is cautioned not to use either this box for cigars again, or the stamp thereon again, nor to remove the contents of this box without destroying said stamp, under the penalties provided by law in such cases.

Every manufacturer of cigars who neglects to affix such label to any box containing cigars made by or for him; or sold or offered for sale by or for him, and every person who removes any such label, so affixed, from any such box, shall be fined $50 for each box in respect to which such offense is committed. (R. S. § 3393; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 16, 20 Stat. 348.)

831. Label indicating clause of law.—The commissioner may, by regulation, require the manufacturer or importer to affix to each box, package, or container a conspicuous label indicating the clause of section 832 of this title under which the cigars therein contained have been tax-paid, which must correspond with the tax-paid stamp on such box or container. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 400(c), 43 Stat. 316.)

832. Cigars and cigarettes; tax; amount.—Upon cigars and cigarettes manufactured in or imported into the United States and sold by the manufacturer or importer, or removed for consumption or sale, there shall be levied, collected, and paid under the provisions of existing law, the following taxes, to be paid by the manufacturer or importer thereof—

On cigars of all descriptions made of tobacco, or any substitute therefor, and weighing not more than three pounds per thousand, $1.50 per thousand;

On cigars made of tobacco, or any substitute therefor, and weighing more than three pounds per thousand, if manufactured or imported to retail at not more than 5 cents each, $4 per thousand;

If manufactured or imported to retail at more than 5 cents each and not more than 8 cents each, $6 per thousand;

If manufactured or imported to retail at more than 8 cents each and not more than 15 cents each, $9 per thousand;

If manufactured or imported to retail at more than 15 cents each and not more than 20 cents each, $12 per thousand;

If manufactured or imported to retail at more than 20 cents each, $15 per thousand;

On cigarettes made of tobacco, or any substitute therefor, and weighing not more than three pounds per thousand, $3 per thousand;

Weighing more than three pounds per thousand, $7.20 per thousand.

(R. S. § 3394; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 127, § 2, 18 Stat. 339; July 24, 1897, c. 11, § 10, 30 Stat. 206; July 1, 1902, c. 1371, § 2, 32 Stat. 715; Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 33, 36 Stat. 110; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 400(a), 43 Stat. 316.)

833. Same; retail price.—Whenever in section 832 of this title reference is made to cigars manufactured or imported to retail at not over a certain price each, then in determining the tax to be paid regard shall be had to the ordinary retail price of a single cigar. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., § 400(b), 43 Stat. 316.)

834. Cigarette paper; tax; bond of manufacturers.—There shall be levied, collected, and paid, upon cigarette paper made up into packages, books, sets, or tubes, made up in or imported into the United States and hereafter sold by the manufacturer or importer to any person (other than to a manufacturer of cigarettes for use by him in the manufacture of cigarettes), the following taxes, to be paid by the manufacturer or importer: On each package book, or set containing more than twenty-five but not more than fifty papers, ½ cent; containing more than fifty but not more than one hundred papers, 1 cent; containing more than one hundred papers, ½ cent for each fifty papers or fractional part thereof; and upon tubes, 1 cent for each fifty tubes or fractional part thereof.

Every manufacturer of cigarettes purchasing any cigarette paper made up into tubes (a) shall give bond in an amount and with sureties satisfactory to the commissioner that he will use such tubes in the manufacture of cigarettes or pay thereon a tax equivalent to the tax imposed by this section, and (b) shall keep such records and render under oath such returns as the commissioner finds necessary to show the disposition of all tubes purchased or imported by such manufacturer of cigarettes. (Oct. 3, 1917, c. 63, § 404, 40 Stat. 314; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 402, 43 Stat. 318.)

835. Stamps; preparation, furnishing, and accounting for.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall cause to be prepared, for payment of the tax upon cigars, suitable stamps denoting the tax thereon. Such stamps shall be furnished to collectors requiring them, and collectors shall, if there be any cigar manufacturers within their respective districts, keep on hand at all times a supply equal in amount to two months' sales thereof, and shall sell the same only to the cigar manufacturers who have given bonds and paid the special tax, as required by law, in their districts, respectively, and to importers of cigars, who are required to affix the same to imported cigars in the custody of customs officers, and to persons required by law to affix the same to cigars on hand. Every collector shall keep an account of the number, amount, and denominate values of the stamps sold by him to each cigar manufacturer, and to other persons above described. (R. S. § 3395.)

836. Same; cigars sold under distraint; cigars abandoned or forfeited and sold.—Such stamps as may be required to stamp cigars sold under distraint by any collector of internal revenue, or for stamping any cigars which may have been abandoned, condemned, or forfeited, and sold by order of court or of any Government officer for the benefit of the United States, may, under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall prescribe, be used by the collector making such sale, or furnished by a collector to a United States marshal, or to any other Government officer making such sale for the benefit of the United States, without making payment for said stamps so used or delivered; and any revenue collector using or furnishing stamps in manner as aforesaid, on presenting vouchers satisfactory to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, shall be allowed credit for the same in settling his stamp account with the department. In case it shall appear that any abandoned, condemned, or forfeited cigars or cigarettes, when offered for sale, will not bring a price equal to the tax due and payable thereon, such goods shall not be sold for consumption in the United States; and upon application made to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue he is authorized to order the destruction of such cigars or cigarettes by the officer in whose custody and control the same may be at the time, and in such manner and under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe, or he may under such regulations order delivery of such cigars or cigarettes, without payment of any tax, to any hospital maintained by the United States for the use of present or former members of the military or naval forces of the United States. (R. S. § 3369; Oct. 14, 1921, c. 107, 42 Stat. 205.)

837. Dies and stamps for cigarettes and small cigars.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall provide suitable dies and stamps for cigars weighing not more than three pounds per thousand; and for cigarettes at the rates of tax imposed by this chapter and the laws and regulations governing the packing and removal for sale of cigarettes, and the affixing and canceling of the stamps on the packages thereof, shall apply to cigars weighing not more than three pounds per thousand. (R. S. § 3394; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 127, § 2, 18 Stat. 339; July 24, 1897, c. 11, § 10, 30 Stat. 206; July 1, 1902, c. 1371, § 2, 32 Stat. 715; Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 33, 36 Stat. 110.)

838. Lottery tickets or immoral pictures contained in or connected with packages; penalty.—No packages of cigars or cigarettes prescribed by law shall be permitted to have packed in, or attached to, or connected with, them, nor affixed to, branded, stamped, marked, written, or printed upon them, any paper, certificate, or instrument, purporting to be or represent a ticket, chance, share or interest in, or dependent upon, the event of a lottery, nor any indecent or immoral picture, representation, print or words; and any violation of the provisions of this section shall subject the offender to the penalties and punishments provided by section 1189 of this title. (R. S. § 3394; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 127, § 2, 18 Stat. 339; July 24, 1897, c. 11, § 10, 30 Stat. 206; July 1, 1902, c. 1371, § 2, 32 Stat. 715; Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 33, 36 Stat. 110.)

839. Inspection of cigars and cigarettes.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe such regulations for the inspection of cigars, cheroots, and cigarettes, and the collection of the tax thereon, as he may deem most effective for the prevention of frauds in the payment of such tax. (R. S. § 3396.)

840. Estimated tax on cigars sold without stamps; notice of assessment.—Whenever any manufacturer of cigars sells or removes for sale or consumption, any cigars, upon which a tax is required to be paid by stamps, without the use of the proper stamps, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, within a period of not more than two years after such sale or removal, upon satisfactory proof, to estimate the amount of tax which has been omitted to be paid, and to make an assessment therefor, and certify the same to the collector. The tax so assessed shall be in addition to the penalties imposed by law for such sale or removal: Provided, however, That no such assessment shall be made until and after notice to the manufacturer of the alleged sale and removal to show cause against said assessment; and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall, upon a full hearing of all the evidence, determine what assessment, if any, should be made. (R. S. § 3371; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 14, 20 Stat. 346.)

841. Removal without properly boxing, stamping, or branding; using false stamps; cigars for export.—Whenever any cigars are removed from any manufactory, or place where cigars are made, without being packed in boxes as required by the provisions of this chapter, or without the proper stamp thereon denoting the tax, or without stamping, indenting, burning, or impressing into each box, in a legible and durable manner, the number of the cigars contained therein, the number of the manufactory, and the number of the district and the State, or without properly affixing thereon and canceling the stamp denoting the tax on the same, or are sold, or offered for sale, not properly boxed and stamped, they shall be forfeited to the United States. And every person who commits any of the above-described offenses shall be fined for each such offense not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, and imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years. And every person who packs cigars in any box bearing a false or fraudulent or counterfeit stamp, or who affixes to any box containing cigars a stamp in the similitude or likeness of any stamp required to be used by the laws of the United States, whether the same be a customs or internal-revenue stamp, or who buys, receives, or has in his possession any cigars on which the tax to which they are liable has not been paid, or who removes, or causes to be removed, from any box any stamp denoting the tax on cigars, with intent to use the same, or who uses, or permits any other person to use, any stamp so removed, or who receives, buys, sells, gives away, or has in his possession any stamp so removed, or who makes any other fraudulent use of any stamp intended for cigars, or who removes from the place of manufacture any cigars not properly boxed and stamped as required by law, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, and imprisoned not less than six months nor more than three years. Cigars packed expressly for export, and which shall be exported to a foreign country under the restrictions and regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, shall be exempt from the provisions of this section, and also from the provisions of section 830 of this title requiring a label to be affixed to each box. (R. S. § 3397; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 16, 20 Stat. 348.)

842. Absence of stamp evidence of nonpayment of tax.—The absence of the proper revenue stamp on any box of cigars sold, or offered for sale, or kept for sale, shall be notice to all persons that the tax has not been paid thereon, and shall be prima facie evidence of the nonpayment thereof, and such cigars shall be forfeited to the United States. (R. S. § 3398.)

843. Cigars manufactured on shares, commission, or contract; stamping; fraud.—Whenever cigars of any description are manufactured, in whole or in part, upon commission or shares, or the material is furnished by one party and manufactured by another, or the material is furnished or sold by one party with an understanding or agreement with another that the cigars are to be received in payment therefor, or for any part thereof, the stamps required by law shall be affixed by the actual maker before the cigars are removed from the place of manufacturing. And in case of fraud on the part of either of said parties in respect to said manufacture, or of any collusion on their part with intent to defraud the revenue, such material and cigars shall be forfeited to the United States; and every person engaged in such fraud or collusion shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, and imprisoned for not less than six months nor more than three years. (R. S. § 3399.)

844. Removing or selling cigars without giving bond or without proper stamps; making false entries, and so forth; forfeitures.—Every manufacturer of cigars who removes or sells any cigars without having given bond as a cigar manufacturer or without the proper stamps denoting the tax thereon; or who makes false or fraudulent entries of the manufacture or sale of any cigars; or makes false or fraudulent entries of the purchase or sale of leaf tobacco, tobacco stems, or other material used in the manufacture of cigars; or who affixes any false, forged, spurious, fraudulent, or counterfeit stamp, or imitation of any stamp, required by law to any box containing any cigars, shall, in addition to the penalties elsewhere provided in this title for such offenses, forfeit to the United States all raw material and manufactured or partly manufactured tobacco and cigars, and all machinery, tools, implements, apparatus, fixtures, boxes, barrels, and all other materials which shall be found in his possession, or in his manufactory, and used in his business as such manufacturer, together with his estate or interest in the building or factory, and the lot or tract of ground on which such building or factory is located, and all appurtenances thereunto belonging. (R. S. § 3400.)

845. Imported cigars; stamping while in custody of customs officers; penalty.—All cigars imported from foreign countries shall have the same stamps affixed in payment of the internal-revenue tax as are prescribed for cigars manufactured in the United States. The stamps shall be affixed and canceled by the owner or importer of the cigars while they are in the custody of the proper customhouse officers, and the cigars shall not pass out of the custody of such officers until the stamps have been so affixed and canceled, but shall be put up in boxes containing quantities as prescribed in this chapter for cigars manufactured in the United States, before the stamps are affixed. And the owner or importer of such cigars shall be liable to all the penal provisions of this title prescribed for manufacturers of cigars manufactured in the United States. Whenever it is necessary to take any cigars so imported to any place other than the public stores of the United States, for the purpose of affixing and canceling such stamps, the collector of customs of the port where such cigars are entered shall designate a bonded warehouse to which they shall be taken, under the control of such customs officer as such collector may direct. And every officer of customs who permits any such cigars to pass out of his custody or control, without compliance by the owner or importer thereof with the provisions of this section relating thereto, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than six months nor more than three years. (R. S. § 3402; June 2, 1924, c. 234, 4.01 p. m., § 400(a), 43 Stat. 316.)

846. Same; selling improperly packed.—Every person who sells or offers for sale any imported cigars, or cigars purporting or claimed to have been imported, not put up in packages and stamped as provided by this chapter, shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years. (R. S. § 3403.)

847. Purchasing cigars not branded or stamped; penalty.—Every person who purchases or receives for sale any cigars which have not been branded or stamped according to law, shall be liable to a penalty of $50 for each such offense. (R. S. § 3404.)

848. Stamps on emptied boxes destroyed; penalty for noncompliance.—Whenever any stamped box containing cigars, cheroots, or cigarettes, is emptied, it shall be the duty of the person in whose hands the same is to destroy utterly the stamps thereon. And any person who willfully neglects or refuses so to do shall, for each such offense, be fined not exceeding $50 and imprisoned not less than ten days nor more than six months. And any person who fraudulently gives away or accepts from another, or who sells, buys, or uses for packing cigars, cheroots, or cigarettes, any such stamped box, shall for each such offense be fined not exceeding $100 and be imprisoned not more than one year. Any revenue officer may destroy any emptied cigar box upon which a cigar stamp is found. (R. S. § 3406.)

849. Exportation of manufactured cigars.—Manufactured cigars may be removed for export to a foreign country without payment of tax, under such regulations, and the making of such entries, and the filing of such bonds and bills of lading as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe. (Aug. 4, 1886, c. 896, § 1, 24 Stat. 218.)

850. Same; procedure; exports to foreign contiguous territory.—There shall be affixed to each package of cigars intended for immediate export, before it is removed from the manufactory, an engraved stamp indicative of such intention. Such stamps shall be provided and furnished to the several collectors as in the case of other stamps, and they shall account for the use of the same. When the manufacturer has made the proper entries, filed the bonds, and otherwise complied with the requirements of law and the regulations as herein provided, the collector shall issue to him a permit for the removal, accurately describing the cigars to be shipped, the number and kinds of packages, the number of pounds, the marks and brands, the State and collection district from which the same are shipped, the number of the manufactory and the manufacturer's name, the port from which the said cigars are to be exported, and the route or routes over which the same are to be sent to the port of shipment. Upon the presentation to the collector of internal revenue of a detailed report from the inspectors of customs, and a certificate of the collector of customs at the port from which the goods are to be exported that the goods removed from the manufactory under bond and described in the permit of the collector of internal revenue have been received by the said collector of customs, and that the said goods were duly laden on board of a foreign-bound vessel, naming the vessel, and that the said merchandise was entered on the outward manifest of said vessel, and that the said vessel and cargo were duly cleared from said port, and on the payment of the tax or deficiency, if any, the bonds, which have been given or shall hereafter be required to be given under the provisions of section 849 of this title shall be canceled. But when the goods are exported to an adjacent foreign territory, by vessel or otherwise, said bonds shall be canceled upon such proofs of exportation as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. (R. S. § 3385; June 9, 1880, c. 161, § 1, 21 Stat. 167; Aug. 8, 1882, c. 468, 22 Stat. 372; Jan. 13, 1883, c. 24, 22 Stat. 402.)

851. Same; relanding cigars unlawfully; penalty.—Every person who, with the intent to defraud the revenue laws of the United States, relands or causes to be relanded within the jurisdiction of the United States any cigars which have been shipped for exportation under the provisions of this chapter without properly entering such cigars at the customhouse, and paying the proper customs and internal revenue tax thereon, or who receives such relanded cigars, and every person who aids or abets in such relanding or receiving such cigars shall, on conviction, be fined not exceeding $5,000, or imprisoned not more than three years and all cigars so relanded shall be forfeited to the United States. (R. S. § 3385; June 9, 1880, c. 161, § 1, 21 Stat. 167; Aug. 8, 1882, c. 468, 22 Stat. 372; Jan. 13, 1883, c. 24, 22 Stat. 402.)

852. Drawback on exported cigars.—There shall be an allowance of drawback on cigars on which the tax has been paid by suitable stamps affixed thereto before removal from the place of manufacture, when the same are exported, equal in amount to the value of the stamps found to have been so affixed; the evidence that the stamps were so affixed, and the amount of tax so paid, and of the subsequent exportation of the said cigars, to be ascertained under such regulations as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury. Any sums found to be due under the provisions of this section shall be paid by the warrant of the Secretary of the Treasury on the Treasurer of the United States, out of any money arising from internal duties not otherwise appropriated: Provided, That no claim for an allowance of drawback shall be entertained or allowed until a certificate from the collector of customs at the port from which the goods have been exported, or other evidence satisfactory to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, has been furnished, that the stamps affixed to the cigars entered and cleared for export to a foreign country were totally destroyed before such clearance; nor until the claimant has filed a bond, with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the collector of the district from which the goods are shipped, in a penal sum double the amount of the tax for which said claim is made, that he will procure, within a reasonable time, evidence satisfactory to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue that said cigars have been landed at any port without the jurisdiction of the United States, or that after shipment the same were lost at sea, and have not been relanded within the limits of the United States. (R. S. § 3386; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 16, 20 Stat. 347.)

Chapter 16.—TAX ON ADMISSIONS AND DUES.

Sec.
871. Tax on admissions to places of amusement; amount; exemptions.
872. Tax on club dues or fees; amount; exemptions.
873. Collection of taxes imposed; returns; penalty.

Section 871. Tax on admissions to places of amusement; amount; exemptions.—(a) There shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid—

(1) A tax of 1 cent for each 10 cents or fraction thereof of the amount paid for admission to any place, including admission by season ticket or subscription, to be paid by the person paying for such admission; but where the amount paid for admission is 50 cents or less, no tax shall be imposed;

(2) Upon tickets or cards of admission to theaters, operas, and other places of amusement, sold at news stands, hotels, and places other than the ticket offices of such theaters, operas, or other places of amusement, at not to exceed 50 cents in excess of the sum of the established price therefor at such ticket offices plus the amount of any tax imposed under paragraph (1), a tax equivalent to 5 per centum of the amount of such excess; and if sold for more than 50 cents in excess of the sum of such established price plus the amount of any tax imposed under paragraph (1), a tax equivalent to 50 per centum of the whole amount of such excess, such taxes to be returned and paid, in the manner and subject to the interest provided in section 885 of this title, by the person selling such tickets;

(3) A tax equivalent to 50 per centum of the amount for which the proprietors, managers, or employees of any opera house, theater, or other place of amusement sell or dispose of tickets or cards of admission in excess of the regular or established price or charge therefor, such tax to be returned and paid, in the manner and subject to the interest provided in section 885, by the person selling such tickets;

(4) In the case of persons having the permanent use of boxes or seats in an opera house or any place of amusement or a lease for the use of such box or seat in such opera house or place of amusement (in lieu of the tax imposed by paragraph (1)), a tax equivalent to 10 per centum of the amount for which a similar box or seat is sold for each performance or exhibition at which the box or seat is used or reserved by or for the lessee or holder, such tax to be paid by the lessee or holder; and

(5) A tax of 1½ cents for each 10 cents or fraction thereof of the amount paid for admission to any public performance for profit at any roof garden, cabaret, or other similar entertainment, to which the charge for admission is wholly or in part included in the price paid for refreshment, service, or merchandise; the amount paid for such admission to be deemed to be 20 per centum of the amount paid for refreshment, service, and merchandise; such tax to be paid by the person paying for such refreshment, service, or merchandise. Where the amount paid for admission is 50 cents or less, no tax shall be imposed.

(b) No tax shall be levied under this chapter in respect of (1) any admissions all the proceeds of which inure (a) exclusively to the benefit of religious, educational, or charitable institutions, societies, or organizations, societies for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, or societies or organizations conducted for the sole purpose of maintaining symphony orchestras and receiving substantial support from voluntary contributions, or of improving any city, town, village, or other municipality, or of maintaining a cooperative or community center moving-picture theater—if no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual; or (b) exclusively to the benefit of persons in the military or naval forces of the United States; or (c) exclusively to the benefit of persons who have served in such forces and are in need; or (d) exclusively to the benefit of National Guard organizations, reserve officers' associations or organizations, posts or organizations of war veterans, or auxiliary units or societies of any such posts or organizations, if such posts, organizations, units, or societies are organized in the United States or any of its possessions, and if no part of their net earnings inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual; or (e) exclusively to the benefit of members of the police or fire department of any city, town, village, or other municipality, or the dependents or heirs of such members; or (2) any admissions to agricultural fairs if no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any stockholders or members of the association conducting the same, or admissions to any exhibit, entertainment, or other pay feature conducted by such association as part of any such fair—if the proceeds therefrom are used exclusively for the improvement, maintenance, and operation of such agricultural fairs.

(c) The term "admission" as used in this title includes seats and tables, reserved or otherwise, and other similar accommodations, and the charges made therefor.

872. Tax on club dues or fees; amount; exemptions.—There shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid a tax equivalent to 10 per centum of any amount paid for any period after June 2, 1924, (a) as dues or membership fees (where the dues or fees of an active resident annual member are in excess of $10 per year) to any social, athletic, or sporting club or organization; or (b) as initiation fees to such a club or organization, if such fees amount to more than $10, or if the dues or membership fees (not including initiation fees) of an active resident annual member are in excess of $10 per year; such taxes to be paid by the person paying such dues or fees: Provided, That there shall be exempted from the provisions of this section all amounts paid as dues or fees to a fraternal society, order, or association, operating under the lodge system, or to any local fraternal organization among the students of a college or university. In the case of life memberships a life member shall pay annually, at the time for the payment of dues by active resident annual members, a tax equivalent to the tax upon the amount paid by such a member, but shall pay no tax upon the amount paid for life membership. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 501, 43 Stat. 321.)

873. Collection of taxes imposed; returns; penalty.—(a) Every person receiving any payments for such admission, dues or fees shall collect the amount of the tax imposed by section 871 or 872 of this title from the person making such payments. Every club or organization having life members shall collect from such members the amount of the tax imposed by section 872. Such persons shall make monthly returns under oath, in duplicate, and pay the taxes so collected to the collector of the district in which the principal office or place of business is located.

(b) Any person making a refund of any payment upon which tax is collected under this section may repay therewith the amount of the tax collected on such payment; and the amount so repaid may be credited against amounts included in any subsequent monthly return.

(c) The returns required under this section shall contain such information, and be made at such times and in such manner, as the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may by regulation prescribe.

(d) The tax shall, without assessment by the commissioner or notice from the collector, be due and payable to the collector at the time so fixed for filing the return. If the tax is not paid when due, there shall be added as part of the tax interest at the rate of 1 per centum a month from the time when the tax became due until paid. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 502, 43 Stat. 322.)

Chapter 17.—EXCISE TAXES.

Sec.
881. Tax on certain articles sold or leased.
882. Sales at wholesale and retail; computation of tax.
883. Same; sales or leases to affiliated corporations; sales or leases at less than fair market price.
884. Same; sculpture, paintings, statuary, and so forth.
885. Same; returns; time for payment.
886. Tax on jewelry, and so forth; amount; returns; time for payment; interest.
887. Payment of tax by vendee or lessee in certain cases; to whom paid; refunds; dealer defined.

Section 881. Tax on certain articles sold or leased.—There shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid upon the following articles sold or leased by the manufacturer, producer, or importer, a tax equivalent to the following percentage of the price for which so sold or leased—

(1) Automobile truck and wagon chassis and automobile truck and wagon bodies.—Automobile truck chassis and automobile wagon chassis sold or leased for an amount in excess of $1,000, and automobile truck bodies and automobile wagon bodies sold or leased for an amount in excess of $200 (including in both cases, tires, inner tubes, parts, and accessories therefor sold on or in connection therewith or with the sale thereof), 3 per centum. A sale or lease of an automobile truck or of an automobile wagon shall, for the purposes of this subdivision, be considered to be a sale of the chassis and of the body;

(2) Other automobile chassis and bodies and motor cycles.—Other automobile chassis and bodies and motor cycles (including tires, inner tubes, parts, and accessories therefor sold on or in connection therewith or with the sale thereof), except tractors, 5 per centum. A sale or lease of an antomobile shall, for the purposes of this subdivision, be considered to be a sale of the chassis and of the body;

(3) Tires, tubes, parts, and accessories for automobiles.—Tires, inner tubes, parts, or accessories for any of the articles enumerated in subdivision (1) or (2), sold to any person other than a manufacturer or producer of any of the articles enumerated in subdivision (1) or (2), 2½ per centum. This subdivision shall not apply to chassis or bodies for automobile trucks, automobile wagons, or other automobiles;

(4) Cameras and lenses.—Cameras, weighing not more than 100 pounds, and lenses for such cameras, 10 per centum;

(5) Photographic films and plates.—Photographic films and plates (other than moving-picture films and other than X-ray films or plates), 5 per centum;

(6) Firearms, shells, and cartridges.—Firearms, shells, and cartridges, except those sold for the use of the United States, any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, 10 per centum;

(7) Cigars or cigarette holders, and pipes.—Cigar or cigarette holders and pipes, composed wholly or in part of meerschaum or amber, and humidors, 10 per centum;

(8) Coin-operated devices, machines, and so forth.—Coin-operated devices, coin-operated machines, and devices and machines operated by any substitute for a coin, 5 per centum; if the manufacturer, producer, or importer of any such device or machine operates it for profit, he shall pay a tax in respect of each such device or machine put into operation equivalent to 5 per centum of its fair market value;

(9) Mah-jongg sets.—Mah-jongg, pung chow, and similar tile sets, and the component parts thereof, 10 per centum. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 600, 43 Stat. 322.)

882. Sales at wholesale and retail; computation of tax.—If any manufacturer, producer, or importer of any of the articles enumerated in section 881 of this title customarily sells such articles both at wholesale and at retail, the tax in the case of any article sold by him at retail shall be computed on the price for which like articles are sold by him at wholesale. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 600, 43 Stat. 322.)

883. Same; sales or leases to affiliated corporations; sales or leases at less than fair market price.—(a) If any person who manufactures, produces, or imports any article enumerated in section 881 of this title, sells or leases such article to a corporation affiliated with such person within the meaning of section 993, at less than the fair market price obtainable therefor, the tax thereon shall be computed on the basis of the price at which such article is sold or leased by such affiliated corporation.

(b) If any such person sells or leases such article whether through any agreement, arrangement, or understanding, or otherwise, at less than the fair market price obtainable therefor, either (1) in such manner as directly or indirectly to benefit such person or any person directly or indirectly interested in the business of such person, or (2) with intent to cause such benefit, the amount for which such article is sold or leased shall be taken to be the amount which would have been received from the sale or lease of such article if sold or leased at the fair market price. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 601, 43 Stat. 323.)

884. Same; sculpture, paintings, statuary, and so forth.—There shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid, upon sculpture, paintings, statuary, art, porcelains, and bronzes, sold by any person other than the artist, a tax equivalent to 5 per centum of the price for which so sold. This section shall not apply to the sale of any such article (1) to an educational or religious institution or public art museum, or (2) by any dealer in such articles to another dealer in such articles for resale. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 602, 43 Stat. 323.)

885. Same; returns; time for payment.—Every person liable for any tax imposed by section 881 or 884 of this title shall make monthly returns under oath in duplicate and pay the taxes imposed by such sections to the collector for the district in which is located the principal place of business. Such returns shall contain such information and be made at such times and in such manner as the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may by regulations prescribe.

The tax shall, without assessment by the commissioner or notice from the collector, be due and payable to the collector at the time so fixed for filing the return. If the tax is not paid when due, there shall be added as part of the tax interest at the rate of 1 per centum a month from the time when the tax became due until paid. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 603, 43 Stat. 324.)

886. Tax on jewelry, and so forth; amount; returns; time for payment; interest.—(a) There shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid upon all articles commonly or commercially known as jewelry, whether real or imitation; pearls, precious and semiprecious stones, and imitations thereof; articles made of, or ornamented mounted or fitted with, precious metals or imitations thereof or ivory; watches; clocks; opera glasses; lorgnettes; marine glasses; field glasses; and binoculars; upon any of the above when sold or leased by or for a dealer or his estate for consumption or use, a tax equivalent to 5 per centum of the price for which so sold or leased.

(b) The tax imposed by subdivision (a) shall not apply to (1) surgical instruments, musical instruments, eyeglasses, spectacles, or silver-plated flat tableware, or articles used for religious purposes; (2) articles sold or leased for an amount not in excess of $30; or (3) watches sold or leased for an amount not in excess of $60.

(c) Every person selling any of the articles enumerated in this section shall make returns under oath in duplicate (monthly or quarterly as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe) and pay the taxes imposed in respect to such articles by this section to the collector for the district in which is located the principal place of business. Such returns shall contain such information and be made at such times and in such manner as the said commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may by regulations prescribe.

(d) The tax shall, without assessment by the commissioner or notice from the collector, be due and payable to the collector at the time so fixed for filing the return. If the tax is not paid when due, there shall be added as part of the tax interest at the rate of 1 per centum a month from the time when the tax became due until paid. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 604, 43 Stat. 324.)

887. Payment of tax by vendee or lessee in certain cases; to whom paid; refunds; dealer defined.—(a) If (1) any person has, prior to January 1, 1924, made a bona fide contract with a dealer for the sale or lease, after 4.01 postmeridian, July 2, 1924, of any article in respect of which a tax is imposed by section 881 of this title, or by this subdivision, and in respect of which no corresponding tax was imposed by section 900 of the revenue act of 1921 (Forty-second Statutes, page 291), and (2) such contract does not permit the adding, to the amount to be paid thereunder, of the whole of the tax imposed by said section 881 or by this subdivision; then the vendee or lessee shall, in lieu of the vendor or lessor, pay so much of the tax imposed by said section 881 or by this subdivision as is not so permitted to be added to the contract price. If a contract of the character above described was made with any person other than a dealer, no tax shall be collected under this chapter.

(b) If (1) any person has, prior to January 1, 1924, made a bona fide contract with any other person for the sale or lease, after 4.01 postmeridian, July 2, 1924, of any article in respect of which a tax is imposed by section 881 of this title, and in respect of which a corresponding but greater tax was imposed by section 900 of the revenue act of 1921 (Forty-second Statutes, p. 291); (2) the contract price includes the amount of the tax imposed by section 900 of the revenue act of 1921, and (3) such contract does not permit the deduction, from the amount to be paid thereunder, of the whole of the difference between the corresponding tax imposed by section 900 of the revenue act of 1921 and the tax imposed by said section 881; then the vendor or lessor shall refund to the vendee or lessee so much of the amount of such difference as is not so permitted to be deducted from the contract price.

(c) If (1) any person has, prior to January 1, 1924, made a bona fide contract with any other person for the sale or lease, after June 2, 1924, of any article in respect of which a tax was imposed by section 900 or 904 of the revenue act of 1921, and in respect of which no corresponding tax is imposed by section 881 of this title, (2) the contract price includes the amount of the tax imposed by section 900 or 904 of the revenue act of 1921, and (3) such contract does not permit deduction, from the amount to be paid thereunder, of the tax imposed by section 900 or 904 of the revenue act of 1921; then the vendor or lessor shall refund to the vendee or lessee so much of the amount of such tax as is not so permitted to be deducted from the contract price.

(d) The taxes payable by the vendee or lessee under subdivision (a), shall be paid to the vendor or lessor at the time the sale or lease is consummated, and collected, returned, and paid to the United States by such vendor or lessor in the same manner and subject to the same interest as provided by section 885.

(e) Any refund by the vendor or lessor under subdivision (b) or (c) shall be made at the time the sale or lease is consummated. Upon the failure of the vendor or lessor so to refund, he shall be liable to the vendee or lessee for damages in the amount of three times the amount of such refund, and the court shall include in any judgment in favor of the vendee or lessee in any suit for the recovery of such damages, costs of the suit, and a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court.

(f) A vendee who purchases any article with intent to use it in the manufacture or production of another article intended for sale shall be included in the term "dealer," as used in this section. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 605, 43 Stat. 324.)

Section 901. Tax on certain enumerated documents and instruments.—There shall be levied, collected, and paid, for and in respect of the several bonds, debentures, or certificates of stock and of indebtedness, and other documents, instruments, matters, and things mentioned and described in Schedule A of this section, or for or in respect of the vellum, parchment, or paper upon which such instruments, matters, or things, or any of them, are written or printed, by any person who makes, signs, issues, sells, removes, consigns, or ships the same, or for whose use or benefit the same are made, signed, issued, sold, removed, consigned, or shipped, the several taxes specified in such schedule.

SCHEDULE A—STAMP TAXES

(1) Bonds, debentures, certificates of indebtedness, and other corporate securities.—On all bonds, debentures, or certificates of indebtedness issued by any person, and all instruments, however termed, issued by any corporation with interest coupons or in registered form, known generally as corporate securities, on each $100 of face value or fraction thereof, 5 cents: Provided, That every renewal of the foregoing shall be taxed as a new issue: Provided further, That when a bond conditioned for the repayment or payment of money is given in a penal sum greater than the debt secured, the tax shall be based upon the amount secured.

(2) Issues of capital stock.—On each original issue, whether on organization or reorganization, of certificates of stock, or of profits, or of interest in property or accumulations, by any corporation, on each $100 of face value or fraction thereof, 5 cents: Provided, That where a certificate is issued without face value, the tax shall be 5 cents per share, unless the actual value is in excess of $100 per share, in which case the tax shall be 5 cents on each $100 of actual value or fraction thereof, or unless the actual value is less than $100 per share, in which case the tax shall be 1 cent on each $20 of actual value, or fraction thereof.

The stamps representing the tax imposed by this subdivision shall be attached to the stock books and not to the certificates issued.

(3) Sales or transfers of capital stock.—On all sales, or agreements to sell, or memoranda of sales or deliveries of, or transfers of legal title to shares or certificates of stock or of profits or of interest in property or accumulations in any corporation, or to rights to subscribe for or to receive such shares or certificates, whether made upon or shown by the books of the corporation, or by any assignment in blank, or by any delivery, or by any paper or agreement or memorandum or other evidence of transfer or sale, whether entitling the holder in any manner to the benefit of such stock, interest, or rights, or not, on each $100 of face value or fraction thereof, 2 cents, and where such shares are without par or face value, the tax shall be 2 cents on the transfer or sale or agreement to sell on each share: Provided, That it is not intended by this chapter to impose a tax upon an agreement evidencing a deposit of certificates as collateral security for money loaned thereon, which certificates are not actually sold, nor upon the delivery or transfer for such purpose of certificates so deposited, nor upon mere loans of stock nor upon the return of stock so loaned: Provided further, That the tax shall not be imposed upon deliveries or transfers to a broker for sale, nor upon deliveries or transfers by a broker to a customer for whom and upon whose order he has purchased same, but such deliveries or transfers shall be accompanied by a certificate setting forth the facts: Provided further, That in case of sale where the evidence of transfer is shown only by the books of the corporation the stamp shall be placed upon such books; and where the change of ownership is by transfer of the certificate the stamp shall be placed upon the certificate; and in cases of an agreement to sell or where the transfer is by delivery of the certificate assigned in blank there shall be made and delivered by the seller to the buyer a bill or memorandum of such sale, to which the stamp shall be affixed; and every bill or memorandum of sale or agreement to sell before mentioned shall show the date thereof, the name of the seller, the amount of the sale, and the matter or thing to which it refers. Any person liable to pay the tax as herein provided, or any one who acts in the matter as agent or broker for such person, who makes any such sale, or who in pursuance of any such sale delivers any certificate or evidence of the sale of any stock, interest or right, or bill or memorandum thereof, as herein required, without having the proper stamps affixed thereto with intent to evade the foregoing provisions, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine of not exceeding $1,000, or be imprisoned not more than six months, or both.

(4) Sales on exchange for future delivery.—Upon each sale, agreement of sale, or agreement to sell (not including so-called transferred or scratch sales), any products or merchandise at, or under the rules or usages of, any exchange, or board of trade, or other similar place, for future delivery, for each $100 in value of the merchandise covered by said sale or agreement of sale or agreement to sell, 1 cent, and for each additional $100 or fractional part thereof in excess of $100, 1 cent: Pro- vided, That on every sale or agreement of sale or agreement to sell as aforesaid there shall be made and delivered by the seller to the buyer a bill, memorandum, agreement, or other evidence of such sale, agreement of sale, or agreement to sell, to which there shall be affixed a lawful stamp or stamps in value equal to the amount of the tax on such sale: Provided further, That sellers of commodities described herein, having paid the tax provided by this subdivision, may transfer such contracts to a clearing-house corporation or association, and such transfer shall not be deemed to be a sale, or agreement of sale, or an agreement to sell within the provisions of this chapter: Provided, That such transfer shall not vest any beneficial interest in such clearing-house association but shall be made for the sole purpose of enabling such clearing-house association to adjust and balance the accounts of the members of such clearing-house association on their several contracts. Every such bill, memorandum, or other evidence of sale or agreement to sell shall show the date thereof, the name of the seller, the amount of the sale, and the matter or thing to which it refers; and any person liable to pay the tax as herein provided, or any one who acts in the matter as agent or broker for such person, who makes any such sale or agreement of sale, or agreement to sell, or who, in pursuance of any such sale, agreement of sale, or agreement to sell, delivers any such products or merchandise without a bill, memorandum, or other evidence thereof as herein required, or who delivers such bill, memorandum, or other evidence of sale, or agreement to sell, without having the proper stamps affixed thereto, with intent to evade the foregoing provisions, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine of not exceeding $1,000 or be imprisoned not more than six months, or both.

No bill, memorandum, agreement, or other evidence of such sale, or agreement of sale, or agreement to sell, in case of cash sales of products of merchandise for immediate or prompt delivery which in good faith are actually intended to be delivered shall be subject to this tax.

This subdivision shall not affect but shall be in addition to the provisions of sections 731 to 752 of this title (the "United States Cotton Futures Act.")

(5) Conveyances of land.—Deed, instrument, or writing, whereby any lands, tenements, or other realty sold shall be granted, assigned, transferred, or otherwise conveyed to, or vested in, the purchaser or purchasers, or any other person or persons, by his, her, or their direction, when the consideration or value of the interest or property conveyed, exclusive of the value of any lien or encumbrance remaining thereon at the time of sale, exceeds $100 and does not exceed $500, 50 cents; and for each additional $500 or fractional part thereof, 50 cents. This subdivision shall not apply to any instrument or writing given to secure a debt.

(6) Entries at customhouses.—Entry of any goods, wares, or merchandise at any customhouse, either for consumption or warehousing, not exceeding $100 in value, 25 cents; exceeding $100 and not exceeding $500 in value, 50 cents; exceeding $500 in value, $1.

(7) Entries for withdrawal from customs bonded warehouses.—Entry for the withdrawal of any goods or merchandise from customs bonded warehouse, 50 cents.

(8) Passage tickets to ports not in United States, Canada, or Mexico.—Passage ticket, one way or round trip, for each passenger, sold or issued in the United States for passage by any vessel to a port or place not in the United States, Canada, or Mexico, if costing not exceeding $30, $1; costing more than $30 and not exceeding $60, $3; costing more than $60, $5. This subdivision shall not apply to passage tickets costing $10 or less.

(9) Voting proxies.—Proxy for voting at any election for officers, or meeting for the transaction of business, of any corporation, except religious, educational, charitable, fraternal, or literary societies, or public cemeteries, 10 cents.

(10) Powers of attorney.—Power of attorney granting authority to do or perform some act for or in behalf of the grantor, which authority is not otherwise vested in the grantee, 25 cents. This subdivision shall not apply to any papers necessary to be used for the collection of claims from the United States or from any State for pensions, back pay, bounty, or for property lost in the military or naval service, nor to powers of attorney required in bankruptcy cases nor to powers of attorney contained in the application of those who become members of or policyholders in mutual insurance companies doing business on the interinsurance or reciprocal indemnity plan through an attorney in fact.

(11) Playing cards.—Upon every pack of playing cards containing not more than fifty-four cards, manufactured or imported, and sold, or removed for consumption or sale, a tax of 10 cents per pack.

(12) Insurance policies.—On each policy of insurance, or certificate, binder, covering note, memorandum, cablegram, letter, or other instrument by whatever name called whereby insurance is made or renewed upon property within the United States (including rents and profits) against peril by sea or on inland waters or in transit on land (including transshipments and storage at termini or way points) or by fire, lightning, tornado, wind-storm, bombardment, invasion, insurrection or riot, issued to or for or in the name of a domestic corporation or partnership or an individual resident of the United States by any foreign corporation or partnership or any individual not a resident of the United States, when such policy or other instrument is not signed or countersigned by an officer or agent of the insurer, in a State, Territory, or District of the United States within which such insurer is authorized to do business, a tax of 3 cents on each dollar, or fractional part thereof of the premium charged: Provided, That policies of reinsurance shall be exempt from the tax imposed by this subdivision.

Any person to or for whom or in whose name any such policy or other instrument is issued, or any solicitor or broker acting for or on behalf of such person in the procurement of any such policy or other instrument, shall affix the proper stamps to such policy or other instrument, and for failure to affix such stamps with intent to evade the tax shall, in addition to other penalties provided therefor, pay a fine of double the amount of the tax. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, §§ 800, 807, 43 Stat. 331, 333.)

902. Same; exemptions.—There shall not be taxed under this chapter any bond, note, or other instrument, issued by the United States, or by any foreign Government, or by any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or local subdivision thereof, or municipal or other corporation exercising the taxing power; or any bond of indemnity required to be filed by any person to secure payment of any pension, allowance, allotment, relief, or insurance by the United States, or to secure a duplicate for, or the payment of, any bond, note, certificate of indebtedness, war-savings certificate, warrant or check, issued by the United States; or stocks and bonds issued by domestic building and loan associations substantially all the business of which is confined to making loans to members, or by mutual ditch or irrigation companies. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 801, 43 Stat. 332.)

903. Same; stamps; preparation and distribution.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall cause to be prepared and distributed for the payment of the taxes prescribed in this chapter suitable stamps denoting the tax on the document, articles, or thing to which the same may be affixed, and shall prescribe such method for the affixing of said stamps in substitution for or in addition to the method provided in this chapter, as he may deem expedient. (June 2, 1924, c. 234, § 805, 43 Stat. 333.)

904. Same; cancellation of stamps.—Whenever an adhesive stamp is used for denoting any tax imposed by this chapter, except as hereinafter provided, the person using or affixing the same shall write or stamp or cause to be written or stamped thereupon the initials of his or its name and the date upon which the same is attached or used, so that the same may not again be used: Provided, That the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe such other method for the cancellation of such stamps as he may deem expedient. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 39, 28 Stat. 360; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 804, 43 Stat. 333.)

905. Same; collection of omitted taxes.—All internal-revenue laws relating to the assessment and collection of taxes are extended to and made a part of this chapter, so far as applicable, for the purpose of collecting stamp taxes omitted through mistake or fraud from any instrument, document, paper, writing, parcel, package, or article named herein. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 805, 43 Stat. 333.)

906. Same; stamps for Postmaster General; distribution and sale.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall furnish to the Postmaster General without prepayment a suitable quantity of adhesive stamps to be distributed to and kept on sale by the various postmasters in the United States. The Postmaster General may require each such postmaster to give additional or increased bond as postmaster for the value of the stamps so furnished, and each such postmaster shall deposit the receipts from the sale of such stamps to the credit of and render accounts to the Postmaster General at such times and in such form as he may by regulations prescribe. The Postmaster General shall at least once monthly transfer all collections from this source to the Treasury as internal-revenue collections. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 806, 43 Stat. 333.)

907. Same; stamps for assistant treasurers, designated depositaries, or State agents; bonds; schedule of taxes.—(a) Each collector shall furnish, without prepayment, to any assistant treasurer or designated depositary of the United States, located in the district of such collector, a suitable quantity of adhesive stamps to be kept on sale by such assistant treasurer or designated depositary.

(b) Each collector shall furnish, without prepayment, to any person who is (1) located in the district of such collector, (2) duly appointed and acting as agent of any State for the sale of stock transfer stamps of such State, and (3) designated by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for the purpose, a suitable quantity of such adhesive stamps as are required by subdivisions 2, 3, and 4 of Schedule A of section 901 of this title, to be kept on sale by such person.

(c) In such cases the collector may require a bond with sufficient sureties, in a sum to be fixed by the said commissioner, conditioned for the faithful return, whenever so required, of all quantities or amounts undisposed of, and for the payment monthly of all quantities or amounts sold or not remaining on hand. The Secretary of the Treasury may from time to time make such regulations as he may find necessary to insure the safe-keeping or prevent the illegal use of all such adhesive stamps. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 807, 43 Stat. 333.)

908. Same; offenses.—Whoever—

(a) Makes, signs, issues, or accepts, or causes to be made, signed, issued, or accepted, any instrument, document, or paper of any kind or description whatsoever without the full amount of tax thereon being duly paid;

(b) Manufactures or imports and sells, or offers for sale, or causes to be manufactured or imported and sold, or offered for sale, any playing cards, package, or other article without the full amount of tax being duly paid;

(c) Makes use of any adhesive stamp to denote any tax imposed by this chapter without canceling or obliterating such stamp as prescribed in section 904 of this title;

Is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine of not more than $100 for each offense. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 802, 43 Stat. 332.)

909. Same; other offenses.—Whoever—

(a) Fraudulently cuts, tears, or removes from any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, package, or article, upon which any tax is imposed by this chapter, any adhesive stamp or the impression of any stamp, die, plate, or other article provided, made, or used in pursuance of this chapter;

(b) Fraudulently uses, joins, fixes, or places to, with, or upon any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, package, or article, upon which any tax is imposed by this chapter, (1) any adhesive stamp, or the impression of any stamp, die, plate, or other article, which has been cut, torn, or removed from any other vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, package, or article, upon which any tax is imposed by this chapter; or (2) any adhesive stamp or the impression of any stamp, die, plate, or other article of insufficient value; or (3) any forged or counterfeited stamp, or the impression of any forged or counterfeited stamp, die, plate, or other article;

(c) Willfully removes, or alters the cancellation, or defacing marks of, or otherwise prepares, any adhesive stamp, with intent to use, or cause the same to be used, after it has been already used, or knowingly or willfully buys, sells, offers for sale, or gives away, any such washed or restored stamp to any person for use, or knowingly uses the same;

(d) Knowingly and without lawful excuse (the burden of proof of such excuse being on the accused) has in possession any washed, restored, or altered stamp, which has been removed from any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, package, or article;

Is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000, or by imprisonment for not more than five years, or both, and any such reused, canceled, or counterfeit stamp and the vellum, parchment, document, paper, package, or article upon which it is placed or impressed shall be forfeited to the United States. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 808, 43 Stat. 332.)

910. Tax on playing cards; regulations.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall make regulations as to dies and adhesive stamps for playing cards. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 38, 28 Stat. 560.)

911. Same; manufacturers to register.—Every manufacturer of playing cards shall register with the collector of the district his name or style, place of residence, trade, or business, and the place where such business is to be carried on, and a failure to register as herein provided and required shall subject such person to a penalty of $50. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 40, 28 Stat. 560.)

912. Same; sale, preparation, and furnishing of stamps.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall cause to be prepared, for payment of the tax upon playing cards, suitable stamps denoting the tax thereon. Such stamps shall be furnished to collectors requiring them, and collectors shall, if there be any manufacturers of playing cards within their respective districts, keep on hand at all times a supply equal in amount to two months' sales thereof, and shall sell the same only to such manufacturers as have registered as required by law and to importers of playing cards, who are required to affix the same to imported playing cards, and to persons who are required by law to affix the same to stocks of playing cards on hand when the tax thereon imposed first takes effect.

Every collector shall keep an account of the number and denominate values of the stamps sold by him to each manufacturer and to other persons above described. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 41, 28 Stat. 560.)

913. Same; selling or removing for sale without affixing stamps.—Whenever any person makes, prepares, and sells or removes for consumption or sale, playing cards, whether of domestic manufacture or imported, upon which a tax is imposed by law, without affixing thereto an adhesive stamp denoting the tax before mentioned, he shall incur a penalty of $50 for every omission to affix such stamp: Provided, That playing cards may be removed from the place of manufacture for export to a foreign country, without payment of tax, or affixing stamps thereto, under such regulations and the filing of such bonds as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 43, 28 Stat. 562.)

914. Same; removing stamps or reusing wrapper.—Every manufacturer or maker of playing cards who, after the same are so made, and the particulars hereinbefore required as to stamps have been complied with, takes off, removes, or detaches, or causes, or permits, or suffers to be taken off, or removed, or detached, any stamp, or who uses any stamp, or any wrapper or cover to which any stamp is affixed, to cover any other article or commodity than that originally contained in such wrapper or cover, with such stamp when first used, with the intent to evade the stamp duties, shall, for every such article, respectively, in respect of which any such offense is committed, be subject to a penalty of $50, to be recovered together with the costs thereupon accruing; and every such article or commodity as aforesaid shall also be forfeited. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 44, 28 Stat. 562.)

915. Same; selling without stamps.—Every maker or manufacturer of playing cards who, to evade the tax or duty chargeable thereon, or any part thereof, sells, exposes for sale, sends out, removes, or delivers any playing cards before the duty thereon has been fully paid, by affixing thereon the proper stamp, as provided by law, or who, to evade as aforesaid, hides or conceals, or causes to be hidden or concealed, or removes or conveys away, or deposits, or causes to be removed or conveyed away from or deposited in any place, any such article or commodity, shall be subject to a penalty of $50, together with the forfeiture of any such article or commodity. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 45, 28 Stat. 562.)

916. Same; manufacturer to pay tax; who deemed manufacturer; foreign manufacture.—The tax on playing cards shall be paid by the manufacturer thereof. Every person who offers or exposes for sale playing cards, whether the articles so offered or exposed are of foreign manufacture and imported or are of domestic manufacture, shall be deemed the manufacturer thereof, and subject to all the duties, liabilities, and penalties imposed by law in regard to the sale of domestic articles without the use of the proper stamps denoting the tax paid thereon, and all such articles of foreign manufacture shall, in addition to the import duties imposed on the same, be subject to the stamp tax prescribed in this chapter. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 46, 28 Stat. 562.)

Part I.—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 931. Definitions.—When used in this chapter—

(a) The term "taxable year" means the calendar year, or the fiscal year ending during such calendar year, upon the basis of which the net income is computed under section 953 or 984 of this title. The term "fiscal year" means an accounting period of twelve months ending on the last day of any month other than December. The term "taxable year" includes, in the case of a return made for a fractional part of a year under the provisions of this title or under regulations prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, the period for which such return is made.

(b) The term "fiduciary" means a guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, conservator, or any person acting in any fiduciary capacity for any person.

(c) The term "withholding agent" means any person required to deduct and withhold any tax under the provisions of section 962 or 989.

(d) The terms "paid or incurred" and "paid or accrued" shall be construed according to the method of accounting upon the basis of which the net income is computed under section 953 or 984. The deductions and credits provided for in this chapter shall be taken for the taxable year in which "paid or accrued" or "paid or incurred," dependent upon the method of accounting upon the basis of which the net income is computed under section 953 or 984, unless in order to clearly reflect the income the deductions or credits should be taken as of a different period.

(e) The term "stock" includes the share in an association, joint-stock company, or insurance company.

(f) The term "shareholder" includes a member in an association, joint-stock company, or insurance company. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 200, 43 Stat. 254.)

932. Dividends and distributions.—(a) The term "dividend" when used in this chapter (except in paragraph (9) of subdivision (a) of section 986 and paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of section 1004) means any distribution made by a corporation to its shareholders, whether in money or in other property, out of its earnings or profits accumulated after February 28, 1913.

(b) For the purposes of this chapter every distribution is made out of earnings or profits to the extent thereof, and from the most recently accumulated earnings or profits. Any earnings or profits accumulated, or increase in value of property accrued, before March 1, 1913, may be distributed exempt from tax, after the earnings and profits accumulated after February 28, 1913, have been distributed, but any such tax-free distribution shall be applied against and reduce the basis of the stock provided in section 935.

(c) Amounts distributed in complete liquidation of a corporation shall be treated as in full payment in exchange for the stock, and amounts distributed in partial liquidation of a corporation shall be treated as in part or full payment in exchange for the stock. The gain or loss to the distributee resulting from such exchange shall be determined under section 933, but shall be recognized only to the extent provided in section 934. In the case of amounts distributed in partial liquidation (other than a distribution within the provisions of subdivisions (g) of section 934 of stock or securities in connection with a reorganization) the part of such distribution which is properly chargeable to capital account shall not be considered a distribution of earnings or profits within the meaning of subdivision (b) of this section for the purpose of determining the taxability of subsequent distributions by the corporation.

(d) If any distribution (not in partial or complete liquidation) made by a corporation to its shareholders is not out of increase in value of property accrued before March 1, 1913, and is not out of earnings or profits, then the amount of such distribution shall be applied against and reduce the basis of the stock provided in section 935, and if in excess of such basis, such excess shall be taxable in the same manner as a gain from the sale or exchange of property. The provisions of this paragraph shall also apply to distributions from depletion reserves based on the discovery value of mines.

(e) Any distribution made by a corporation, which was classified as a personal service corporation under the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1918 (chapter 18, Fortieth Statutes, page 1057) or the Revenue Act of 1921 (chapter 136, Forty-second Statutes, page 227) out of its earnings or profits which were taxable in accordance with the provisions of section 218 of the Revenue Act of 1918 or section 218 of the Revenue Act of 1921, shall be exempt from tax to the distributees.

(f) A stock dividend shall not be subject to tax, but if before or after the distribution of any such dividend the corporation proceeds to cancel or redeem its stock at such time and in such manner as to make the distribution and cancellation or redemption in whole or in part essentially equivalent to the distribution of a taxable dividend, the amount so distributed in redemption or cancellation of the stock, to the extent that it represents a distribution of earnings or profits accumulated after February 28, 1913, shall be treated as a taxable dividend.

(g) As used in this section the term "amounts distributed in partial liquidation" means a distribution by a corporation in complete cancellation or redemption of a part of its stock, or one of a series of distributions in complete cancellation or redemption of all or a portion of its stock. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 201, 43 Stat. 254.)

933. Amount of gain derived or loss sustained from sale or other disposition of property.—(a) Except as hereinafter provided in this section, the gain from the sale or other disposition of property shall be the excess of the amount realized therefrom over the basis provided in subdivision (a) or (b) of section 935 of this title, and the loss shall be the excess of such basis over the amount realized.

(b) In computing the amount of gain or loss under subdivision (a) proper adjustment shall be made for (1) any expenditure properly chargeable to capital account, and (2) any item of loss, exhaustion, wear and tear, obsolescence, amortization, or depletion, previously allowed with respect to such property.

(c) The amount realized from the sale or other disposition of property shall be the sum of any money received plus the fair market value of the property (other than money) received.

(d) In the case of a sale or exchange, the extent to which the gain or loss determined under this section shall be recognized for the purposes of this chapter shall be determined under the provisions of section 934.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent (in the case of property sold under contract providing for payment in installments) the taxation of that portion of any installment payment representing gain or profit in the year in which such payment is received. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 202, 43 Stat. 255.)

934. Gains or losses not recognized.—(a) Upon the sale or exchange of property the entire amount of the gain or loss, determined under section 933 of this title, shall be recognized, except as hereinafter provided in this section.

(b) (1) No gain or loss shall be recognized if property held for productive use in trade or business or for investment (not including stock in trade or other property held primarily for sale, nor stocks, bonds, notes, choses in action, certificates of trust or beneficial interest, or other securities or evidences of indebtedness or interest) is exchanged solely for property of a like kind to be held either for productive use in trade or business or for investment, or if common stock in a corporation is exchanged solely for common stock in the same corporation, or if preferred stock in a corporation is exchanged solely for preferred stock in the same corporation.

(2) No gain or loss shall be recognized if stock or securities in a corporation a party to a reorganization are, in pursuance of the plan of reorganization, exchanged solely for stock or securities in such corporation or in another corporation a party to the reorganization.

(3) No gain or loss shall be recognized if a corporation a party to a reorganization exchanges property, in pursuance of the plan of reorganization, solely for stock or securities in another corporation a party to the reorganization.

(4) No gain or loss shall be recognized if property is transferred to a corporation by one or more persons solely in exchange for stock or securities in such corporation, and immediately after the exchange such person or persons are in control of the corporation; but in the case of an exchange by two or more persons this paragraph shall apply only if the amount of the stock and securities received by each is substantially in proportion to his interest in the property prior to the exchange.

(5) If property (as a result of its destruction in whole or in part, theft, or seizure, or an exercise of the power of requisition or condemnation, or the threat or imminence thereof) is compulsorily or involuntarily converted into property similar or related in service or use to the property so converted, or into money which is forthwith in good faith, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, expended in the acquisition of other property similar or related in service or use to the property so converted, or in the acquisition of control of a corporation owning such other property, or in the establishment of a replacement fund, no gain or loss shall be recognized. If any part of the money is not so expended, the gain, if any, shall be recognized, but in an amount not in excess of the money which is not so expended.

(c) If there is distributed, in pursuance of a plan of reorganization, to a shareholder in a corporation a party to the reorganization, stock or securities in such corporation or in another corporation a party to the reorganization, without the surrender by such shareholder of stock or securities in such a corporation, no gain to the distributee from the receipt of such stock or securities shall be recognized.

(d) (1) If an exchange would be within the provisions of paragraph (1), (2), or (4) of subdivision (b) if it were not for the fact that the property received in exchange consists not only of property permitted by such paragraph to be received without the recognition of gain, but also of other property or money, then the gain, if any, to the recipient shall be recognized, but in an amount not in excess of the sum of such money and the fair market value of such other property.

(2) If a distribution made in pursuance of a plan of reorganization is within the provisions of paragraph (1) but has the effect of the distribution of a taxable dividend, then there shall be taxed as a dividend to each distributee such an amount of the gain recognized under paragraph (1) as is not in excess of his ratable share of the undistributed earnings and profits of the corporation accumulated after February 28, 1913. The remainder, if any, of the gain recognized under paragraph (1) shall be taxed as a gain from the exchange of property.

(e) If an exchange would be within the provisions of paragraph (3) of subdivision (b) if it were not for the fact that the property received in exchange consists not only of stock or securities permitted by such paragraph to be received without the recognition of gain, but also of other property or money, then—

(1) If the corporation receiving such other property or money distributes it in pursuance of the plan of reorganization, no gain to the corporation shall be recognized from the exchange, but

(2) If the corporation receiving such other property or money does not distribute it in pursuance of the plan of reorganization, the gain, if any, to the corporation shall be recognized, but in an amount not in excess of the sum of such money and the fair market value of such other property, so received, which is not so distributed.

(f) If an exchange would be within the provisions of paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4) of subdivision (b) if it were not for the fact that the property received in exchange consists not only of property permitted by such paragraph to be received without the recognition of gain or loss, but also of other property or money, then no loss from the exchange shall be recognized.

(g) The distribution, in pursuance of a plan of reorganization, by or on behalf of a corporation a party to the reorganization, of its stock or securities or stock or securities in a corporation a party to the reorganization, shall not be considered a distribution of earnings or profits within the meaning of subdivision (b) of section 932 for the purpose of determining the taxability of subsequent distributions by the corporation.

(h) As used in this section and sections 932 and 935—

(1) The term "reorganization" means (A) a merger or consolidation (including the acquisition by one corporation of at least a majority of the voting stock and at least a majority of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of another corporation, or substantially all the properties of another corporation), or (B) a transfer by a corporation of all or a part of its assets to another corporation if immediately after the transfer the transferor or its stockholders or both are in control of the corporation to which the assets are transferred, or (C) a recapitalization, or (D) a mere change in identity, form, or place of organization, however effected.

(2) The term "a party to a reorganization" includes a corporation resulting from a reorganization and includes both corporations in the case of an acquisition by one corporation of at least a majority of the voting stock and at least a majority of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of another corporation.

(1) As used in this section the term "control" means the ownership of at least 80 per centum of the voting stock and at least 80 per centum of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of the corporation. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 203, 43 Stat. 256.)

935. Basis of determining gain or loss, and so forth.—(a) The basis for determining the gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of property acquired after February 28, 1913, shall be the cost of such property; except that—

(1) If the property should have been included in the last inventory, the basis shall be the last inventory value thereof;

(2) If the property was acquired by gift after December 31, 1920, the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the donor or the last preceding owner by whom it was not acquired by gift. If the facts necessary to determine such basis are unknown to the donee, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall, if possible, obtain such facts from such donor or last preceding owner, or any other person cognizant thereof. If the commissioner finds it impossible to obtain such facts, the basis shall be the fair market value of such property as found by the commissioner as of the date or approximate date of which, according to the best information that the commissioner is able to obtain, such property was acquired by such donor or last preceding owner;

(3) If the property was acquired after December 31, 1920, by a transfer in trust (other than by a transfer in trust by bequest or devise) the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the grantor, increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss recognized to the grantor upon such transfer under the law applicable to the year in which the transfer was made. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to the acquisition of such property interests as are specified in subdivision (c) or (e) of section 402 of the Revenue Act of 1921 or subdivision (c), (d), or (f) of section 1094 of this title;

(4) If the property was acquired by gift or transfer in trust on or before December 31, 1920, the basis shall be the fair market value of such property at the time of such acquisition;

(5) If the property was acquired by bequest, devise, or inheritance, the basis shall be the fair market value of such property at the time of such acquisition. The provisions of this paragraph shall apply to the acquisition of such property interests as are specified in subdivision (c) or (e) of section 402 of the Revenue Act of 1921, or in subdivision (c), (d), or (f) of section 1094 of this title;

(6) If the property was acquired upon an exchange described in subdivision (b), (d), (e), or (f) of section 934, the basis shall be the same as in the case of the property exchanged, decreased in the amount of any money received by the taxpayer and increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss to the taxpayer that was recognized upon such exchange under the law applicable to the year in which the exchange was made. If the property so acquired consisted in part of the type of property permitted by paragraph (1), (2), (3), or (4) of subdivision (b) of section 934 to be received without the recognition of gain or loss, and in part of other property, the basis provided in this paragraph shall be allocated between the properties (other than money) received, and for the purpose of the allocation there shall be assigned to such other property an amount equivalent to its fair market value at the date of the exchange. This paragraph shall not apply to property acquired by a corporation by the issuance of its stock or securities as the consideration in whole or in part for the transfer of the property to it;

(7) If the property (other than stock or securities in a corporation a party to the reorganization) was acquired after December 31, 1917, by a corporation in connection with a reorganization, and immediately after the transfer an interest or control in such property of 80 per centum or more remained in the same persons or any of them, then the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the transferor, increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss recognized to the transferor upon such transfer under the law applicable to the year in which the transfer was made;

(8) If the property (other than stock or securities in a corporation a party to a reorganization) was acquired after December 31, 1920, by a corporation by the issuance of its stock or securities in connection with a transaction described in paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of section 934 (including, also, cases where part of the consideration for the transfer of such property to the corporation was property or money in addition to such stock or securities), then the basis shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the transferor, increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss recognized to the transferor upon such transfer under the law applicable to the year in which the transfer was made;

(9) If the property consists of stock or securities distributed after December 31, 1923, to a taxpayer in connection with a transaction described in subdivision (c) of section 934, the basis in the case of the stock in respect of which the distribution was made shall be apportioned, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, between such stock and the stock or securities distributed;

(10) If the property was acquired as the result of a compulsory or involuntary conversion described in paragraph (5) of subdivision (b) of section 934, the basis shall be the same as in the case of the property so converted, decreased in the amount of any money received by the taxpayer which was not expended in accordance with the provisions of law (applicable to the year in which such conversion was made) determining the taxable status of the gain or loss upon such conversion, and increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss to the taxpayer recognized upon such conversion under the law applicable to the year in which such conversion was made;

(11) If substantially identical property was acquired after December 31, 1920, in place of stock or securities which were sold or disposed of and in respect of which loss was not allowed as a deduction under paragraph (5) of subdivision (a) of section 955 or paragraph (4) of subdivision (a) of section 986 of this title or of the Revenue Act of 1921, chapter 136, 42 Statutes, page 227; the basis in the case of the property so acquired shall be the basis in the case of the stock or securities so sold or disposed of, except that if the repurchase price was in excess of the sale price such basis shall be increased in the amount of the difference, or if the repurchase price was less than the sale price such basis shall be decreased in the amount of the difference.

(b) The basis for determining the gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of property acquired before March 1, 1913, shall be (A) the cost of such property (or, in the case of such property as is described in paragraph (1), (4), or (5), of subdivision (a), the basis as therein provided), or (B) the fair market value of such property as of March 1, 1913, which ever is greater. In determining the fair market value of stock in a corporation as of March 1, 1913, due regard shall be given to the fair market value of the assets of the corporation as of that date.

(c) The basis upon which depletion, exhaustion, wear and tear, and obsolescence are to be allowed in respect of any property shall be the same as is provided in subdivision (a) or (b) for the purpose of determining the gain or loss upon the sale or other disposition of such property, except that in the case of mines, oil and gas wells, discovered by the taxpayer after February 28, 1913, and not acquired as the result of purchase of a proven tract or lease, where the fair market value of the property is materially disproportionate to the cost, the basis for depletion shall be the fair market value of the property at the date of discovery or within thirty days thereafter; but such depletion allowance based on discovery value shall not exceed 50 per centum of the net income (computed without allowance for depletion) from the property upon which the discovery was made, except that in no case shall the depletion allowance be less than it would be if computed without reference to discovery value. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 204, 43 Stat. 258.)

936. Requirement of inventories.—Whenever in the opinion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue the use of inventories is necessary in order clearly to determine the income of any taxpayer, inventories shall be taken by such taxpayer upon such basis as the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe as conforming as nearly as may be to the best accounting practice in the trade or business and as most clearly reflecting the income. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 205, 43 Stat. 260.)

937. Net losses; determination of.—(a) As used in this section the term "net loss" means the excess of the deductions allowed by section 955 or 986 of this title over the gross income, with the following exceptions and limitations:

(1) Deductions otherwise allowed by law not attributable to the operation of a trade or business regularly carried on by the taxpayer shall be allowed only to the extent of the amount of the gross income not derived from such trade or business;

(2) In the case of a taxpayer other than a corporation, deductions for capital losses otherwise allowed by law shall be allowed only to the extent of the capital gains;

(3) The deduction for depletion shall not exceed the amount which would be allowable if computed without reference to discovery value;

(4) The deduction provided for in paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of section 986 of amounts received as dividends shall not be allowed;

(5) There shall be included in computing gross income the amount of interest received free from tax under this title, decreased by the amount of interest paid or accrued and losses sustained which is not allowed as a deduction by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of section 955 or by paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of section 986.

(b) If, for any taxable year, it appears upon the production of evidence satisfactory to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue that any taxpayer has sustained a net loss, the amount thereof shall be allowed as a deduction in computing the net income of the taxpayer for the succeeding taxable year (hereinafter in this section called "second year"), and if such net loss is in excess of such net income (computed without such deduction), the amount of such excess shall be allowed as a deduction in computing the net income for the next succeeding taxable year thereinafter in this section called "third year"); the deduction in all cases to be made under regulations prescribed by the said commissioner with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

(c) (1) If in the second year the taxpayer (other than a corporation) sustains a capital net loss, the deduction allowed by subdivision (b) of this section shall first be applied as a deduction in computing the ordinary net income for such year. If the deduction is in excess of the ordinary net income (computed without such deduction) then the amount of such excess shall be allowed as a deduction in computing net income for the third year.

(2) If in the second year the taxpayer (other than a corporation) has a capital net gain, the deduction allowed by subdivision (b) of this section shall first be applied as a deduction in computing the ordinary net income for such year. If the deduction is in excess of the ordinary net income (computed without such deduction) the amount of such excess shall next be applied against the capital net gain for such year and if in excess of the capital net gain the amount of that excess shall be allowed as a deduction in computing net income for the third year.

(d) If any portion of a net loss is allowed as a deduction in computing net income for the third year, under the provisions of either subdivision (d) or (c), and the taxpayer (other than a corporation) has in such year a capital net gain or a capital net loss, then the method of allowing such deduction in such third year shall be the same as provided in subdivision (c).

(e) If for the taxable year 1922 a taxpayer sustained a net loss in excess of his net income for the taxable year 1923 (such net loss and net income being computed under the Revenue Act of 1921), the amount of such excess shall be allowed as a deduction in computing net income for the taxable year 1924 in accordance with the method provided in subdivisions (b) and (c) of this section.

(f) If for the taxable year 1923 a taxpayer sustained a net loss within the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1921, the amount of such net loss shall be allowed as a deduction in computing net income for the two succeeding taxable years to the same extent and in the same manner as a net loss sustained for one taxable year is, under this chapter, allowed as a deduction for the two succeeding taxable years.

(g) If a taxpayer makes return for a period beginning in one calendar year (hereinafter in this subdivision called "first calendar year") and ending in the following calendar year (hereinafter in this subdivision called "second calendar year") and the law applicable to the second calendar year is different from the law applicable to the first calendar year, then his net loss for the period ending during the second calendar year shall be the sum of: (1) the same proportion of a net loss for the entire period, determined under the law applicable to the first calendar year, which the portion of such period falling within such calendar year is of the entire period; and (2) the same proportion of a net loss for the entire period, determined under the law applicable to the second calendar year, which the portion of such period falling within such calendar year is of the entire period.

(h) The benefit of this section shall be allowed to the members of a partnership, to an estate or trust, and to insurance companies subject to the tax imposed by section 1001 or 1006 of this title, under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 206, 43 Stat. 260.)

938. Amount of tax for fiscal year with different rates.—(a) If the taxpayer makes return for a period beginning in one calendar year (hereinafter in this subdivision called "first calendar year") and ending in the following calendar year (hereinafter in this subdivision called "second calendar year") and the law applicable to the second calendar year is different from the law applicable to the first calendar year, then his tax under this chapter for the period ending during the second calendar year shall be the sum of: (1) the same proportior of a tax for the entire period, determined under the law applicable to the first calendar year and at the rates for such year, which the portion of such period falling within the first calendar year is of the entire period; and (2) the same proportion of a tax for the entire period, determined under the law applicable to the second calendar year and at the rates for such year, which the portion of such period falling within the second calendar year is of the entire period.

(b) If a fiscal year of a partnership begins in one calendar year and ends in another calendar year, and the law applicable to the second calendar year is different from the law applicable to the first calendar year, then (1) the rates for the calendar year during which such fiscal year begins shall apply to an amount of each partner's share of such partnership net income (determined under the law applicable to such calendar year) equal to the proportion which the part of such fiscal year falling within such calendar year bears to the full fiscal year, and (2) the rates for the calendar year during which such fiscal year ends shall apply to an amount of each partner's share of such partnership net income (determined under the law applicable to such calendar year) equal to the proportion which the part of such fiscal year falling within such calendar year bears to the full fiscal year. In such cases the part of such income subject to the rates in effect for the most recent calendar year shall be added to the other income of the taxpayer subject to such rates and the resulting amount shall be placed in the lower brackets of the rate schedule applicable to such year, and the part of such income subject to the rates in effect for the next preceding calendar year shall be placed in the next higher brackets of the rate schedule applicable to such year.

(c) Any amount paid before or after June 2, 1924, on account of the tax imposed for a fiscal year beginning in 1923 and ending in 1924 by Title II of the Revenue Act of 1921 shall be credited toward the payment of the tax imposed for such fiscal year by this chapter, and if the amount so paid exceeds the amount of such tax imposed by this chapter, the excess shall be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section 1065 of this title. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 207, 43 Stat. 261.)

939. Capital gain; capital loss; capital deductions; ordinary deductions; capital net gain; capital net loss; ordinary net income; capital assets; tax in lieu of taxes imposed by sections 951, 952; members of partnerships.—(a) For the purposes of this chapter—

(1) The term "capital gain" means taxable gain from the sale or exchange of capital assets consummated after December 31, 1921;

(2) The term "capital loss" means deductible loss resulting from the sale or exchange of capital assets;

(3) The term "capital deductions" means such deductions as are allowed by section 955 for the purpose of computing net income, and are properly allocable to or chargeable against capital assets sold or exchanged during the taxable year;

(4) The term "ordinary deductions" means the deductions allowed by section 955 other than capital losses and capital deductions;

(5) The term "capital net gain" means the excess of the total amount of capital gain over the sum of (A) the capital deductions and capital losses, plus (B) the amount, if any, by which the ordinary deductions exceed the gross income computed without including capital gain;

(6) The term "capital net loss" means the excess of the sum of the capital losses plus the capital deductions over the total amount of capital gain;

(7) The term "ordinary net income" means the net income, computed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, after excluding all items of capital gain, capital loss, and capital deductions; and

(8) The term "capital assets" means property held by the taxpayer for more than two years (whether or not connected with his trade or business), but does not include stock in trade of the taxpayer or other property of a kind which would properly be included in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year, or property held by the taxpayer primarily for sale in the course of his trade or business.

(b) In the case of any taxpayer (other than a corporation) who for any taxable year derives a capital net gain, there shall (at the election of the taxpayer) be levied, collected, and paid, in lieu of the taxes imposed by sections 951 and 952, a tax determined as follows:

A partial tax shall first be computed upon the basis of the ordinary net income at the rates and in the manner provided in sections 951 and 952, and the total tax shall be this amount plus 12½ per centum of the capital net gain.

(c) In the case of any taxpayer (other than a corporation) who for any taxable year sustains a capital net loss, there shall be levied, collected, and paid, in lieu of the taxes imposed by sections 951 and 952, a tax determined as follows:

A partial tax shall first be computed upon the basis of the ordinary net income at the rates and in the manner provided in sections 951 and 952, and the total tax shall be this amount minus 12½ per centum of the capital net loss; but in no case shall the tax under this subdivision be less than the taxes imposed by sections 951 and 952 computed without regard to the provisions of this section.

(d) The total tax determined under subdivision (b) or (c) shall be collected and paid in the same manner, at the same time, and subject to the same provisions of law, including penalties, as other taxes under this chapter.

(e) In the case of the members of a partnership, of an estate or trust, or of the beneficiary of an estate or trust, the proper part of each share of the net income which consists, respectively, of ordinary net income, capital net gain, or capital net loss, shall be determined under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, and shall be separately shown in the return of the partnership or estate or trust, and shall be taxed to the member or beneficiary or to the estate or trust as provided in sections 959 and 960, but at the rates and in the manner provided in subdivision (b) or (c) of this section. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 208, 43 Stat. 262.)

940. Earned income, and so forth, defined; additional credit on account of earned income; members of partnerships.—(a) For the purposes of this section—

(1) The term "earned income" means wages, salaries, professional fees, and other amounts received as compensation for personal services actually rendered, but does not include that part of the compensation derived by the taxpayer for personal services rendered by him to a corporation which represents a distribution of earnings or profits rather than a reasonable allowance as compensation for the personal services actually rendered. In the case of a taxpayer engaged in a trade or business in which both personal services and capital are material income producing factors, a reasonable allowance as compensation for the personal services actually rendered by the taxpayer, not in excess of 20 per centum of his share of the net profits of such trade or business, shall be considered as earned income.

(2) The term "earned income deductions" means such deductions as are allowed by section 955 of this title for the purpose of computing net income, and are properly allocable to or chargeable against earned income.

(3) The term "earned net income" means the excess of the amount of the earned income over the sum of the earned income deductions. If the taxpayer's net income is not more than $5,000, his entire net income shall be considered to be earned net income, and if his net income is more than $5,000, his earned net income shall not be considered to be less than $5,000. In no case shall the earned net income be considered to be more than $10,000.

(b) In the case of an individual the tax shall, in addition to the credits provided in section 963, be credited with 25 per centum of the amount of tax which would be payable if his earned net income constituted his entire net income; but in no case shall the credit allowed under this subdivision exceed 25 per centum of his tax under section 951.

(c) In the case of the members of a partnership the proper part of each share of the net income which consists of earned incomes shall be determined under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury and shall be separately shown in the return of the partnership and shall be taxed to the member as provided in section 959. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 209, 43 Stat. 263.)

Part II.—INDIVIDUALS

Section 951. Normal tax rates; aliens residents of contiguous countries.—(a) There shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon the net income of every individual (except as provided in subdivision (b) of this section) a normal tax of 6 per centum of the amount of the net income in excess of the credits provided in section 957 of this title, except that in the case of a citizen or resident of the United States the rate upon the first $4,000 of such excess amount shall be 2 per centum, and upon the next $4,000 of such excess amount shall be 4 per centum;

(b) In lieu of the tax imposed by subdivision (a), there shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon the net income of every nonresident alien individual, a resident of a contiguous country, a normal tax equal to the sum of the following:

(1) 2 per centum of the amount by which the part of the net income attributable to wages, salaries, professional fees, or other amounts received as compensation for personal services actually performed in the United States, exceeds the credits provided in subdivisions (d) and (e) of section 957; but the amount taxable at such 2 per centum rate shall not exceed $4,000;

(2) 4 per centum of the amount by which such part of the net income exceeds the sum of (A) the credits provided in subdivisions (d) and (e) of section 957, plus (B) $4,000; but the amount taxable at such 4 per centum rate shall not exceed $4,000; and

(3) 6 per centum of the amount of the net income in excess of the sum of (A) the amount taxed under paragraphs (1) and (2), plus (B) the credits provided in section 216. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 210, 43 Stat. 264.)

952. Surtax; rates; bona fide sales of mines, oil or gas wells.—(a) In addition to the normal tax imposed by section 951 of this title, there shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon the net income of every individual a surtax as follows:

Upon a net income of $10,000 there shall be no surtax; upon net incomes in excess of $10,000 and not in excess of $14,000, 1 per centum of such excess.

$40 upon net incomes of $14,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $14,000 and not in excess of $16,000, 2 per centum in addition of such excess.

$80 upon net incomes of $16,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $16,000 and not in excess of $18,000, 3 per centum in addition of such excess.

$140 upon net incomes of $18,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $18,000 and not in excess of $20,000, 4 per centum in addition of such excess.

$220 upon net incomes of $20,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $20,000 and not in excess of $22,000, 5 per centum in addition of such excess.

$320 upon net incomes of $22,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $22,000 and not in excess of $24,000, 6 per centum in addition of such excess.

$440 upon net incomes of $24,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $24,000 and not in excess of $26,000, 7 per centum in addition of such excess.

$580 upon net incomes of $26,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $26,000 and not in excess of $28,000, 8 per centum in addition of such excess.

$740 upon net incomes of $28,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $28,000 and not in excess of $30,000, 9 per centum in addition of such excess.

$920 upon net incomes of $30,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $30,000 and not in excess of $34,000, 10 per centum in addition of such excess.

$1,320 upon net incomes of $34,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $34,000 and not in excess of $36,000, 11 per centum in addition of such excess.

$1,540 upon net incomes of $36,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $36,000 and not in excess of $38,000, 12 per centum in addition of such excess.

$1,780 upon net incomes of $38,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $38,000 and not in excess of $42,000, 13 per centum in addition of such excess.

$2,300 upon net incomes of $42,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $42,000 and not in excess of $44,000, 14 per centum in addition of such excess.

$2,580 upon net incomes of $44,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $44,000 and not in excess of $46,000, 15 per centum in addition of such excess.

$2,880 upon net incomes of $46,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $46,000 and not in excess of $48,000, 16 per centum in addition of such excess.

$3,200 upon net incomes of $48,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $48,000 and not in excess of $50,000, 17 per centum in addition of such excess.

$3,540 upon net incomes of $50,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $50,000 and not in excess of $52,000, 18 per centum in addition of such excess.

$3,900 upon net incomes of $52,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $52,000 and not in excess of $56,000, 19 per centum in addition of such excess.

$4,660 upon net incomes of $56,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $56,000 and not in excess of $58,000, 20 per centum in addition of such excess.

$5,060 upon net incomes of $58,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $58,000 and not in excess of $62,000, 21 per centum in addition of such excess.

$5,900 upon net incomes of $62,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $62,000 and not in excess of $64,000, 22 per centum in addition of such excess.

$6,340 upon net incomes of $64,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $64,000 and not in excess of $66,000, 23 per centum in addition of such excess.

$6,800 upon net incomes of $66,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $66,000 and not in excess of $68,000, 24 per centum in addition of such excess.

$7,280 upon net incomes of $68,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $68,000 and not in excess of $70,000, 25 per centum in addition of such excess.

$7,780 upon net incomes of $70,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $70,000 and not in excess of $74,000, 26 per centum in addition of such excess.

$8,820 upon net incomes of $74,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $74,000 and not in excess of $76,000, 27 per centum in addition of such excess.

$9,360 upon net incomes of $76,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $76,000 and not in excess of $80,000, 28 per centum in addition of such excess.

$10,480 upon net incomes of $80,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $80,000 and not in excess of $82,000, 29 per centum in addition of such excess.

$11,060 upon net incomes of $82,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $82,000 and not in excess of $84,000, 30 per centum in addition of such excess.

$11,660 upon net incomes of $84,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $84,000 and not in excess of $88,000, 31 per centum in addition of such excess.

$12,900 upon net incomes of $88,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $88,000 and not in excess of $90,000, 32 per centum in addition of such excess.

$13,540 upon net incomes of $90,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $90,000 and not in excess of $92,000, 33 per centum in addition of such excess.

$14,200 upon net incomes of $92,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $92,000 and not in excess of $94,000, 34 per centum in addition of such excess.

$14,880 upon net incomes of $94,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $94,000 and not in excess of $96,000, 35 per centum in addition of such excess.

$15,580 upon net incomes of $96,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $96,000 and not in excess of $100,000, 36 per centum in addition of such excess.

$17,020 upon net incomes of $100,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $100,000 and not in excess of $200,000, 37 per centum in addition of such excess.

$54,020 upon net incomes of $200,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $200,000 and not in excess of $300,000, 38 per centum in addition of such excess.

$92,020 upon net incomes of $300,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $300,000 and not in excess of $500,000, 39 per centum in addition of such excess.

$170,020 upon net incomes of $500,000; and upon net incomes in excess of $500,000, in addition 40 per centum of such excess.

(b) In the case of a bona fide sale of mines, oil or gas wells, or any interest therein, where the principal value of the property has been demonstrated by prospecting or exploration and discovery work done by the taxpayer, the portion of the tax imposed by this section attributable to such sale shall not exceed 16 per centum of the selling price of such property or interest. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 211, 43 Stat. 265.)

953. Net income; computation; change of accounting period.—(a) In the case of an individual the term "net income" means the gross income as defined in section 954 of this title, less the deductions allowed by sections 987 and 955.

(b) The net income shall be computed upon the basis of the taxpayer's annual accounting period (fiscal year or calendar year, as the case may be) in accordance with the method of accounting regularly employed in keeping the books of such taxpayer; but if no such method of accounting has been so employed, or if the method employed does not clearly reflect the income, the computation shall be made in accordance with such method as in the opinion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue does clearly reflect the income. If the taxpayer's annual accounting period is other than a fiscal year as defined in section 931 or if the taxpayer has no annual accounting period or does not keep books, the net income shall be computed on the basis of the calendar year.

(c) If a taxpayer changes his accounting period from fiscal year to calendar year, from calendar year to fiscal year, or from one fiscal year to another, the net income shall, with the approval of the said commissioner, be computed on the basis of such new accounting period, subject to the provisions of section 968. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 212, 43 Stat. 267.)

954. Gross income; what included; what not included.—For the purposes of this chapter, except as otherwise provided in section 985.

(a) The term "gross income" includes gains, profits, and income derived from salaries, wages or compensation for personal service (including in the case of the President of the United States, the judges of the Supreme and inferior courts of the United States, and all other officers and employees, whether elected or appointed, of the United States, Alaska, Hawaii, or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, the compensation received as such), of whatever kind and in whatever form paid, or from professions, vocations, trades, businesses, commerce, or sales, or dealings in property, whether real or personal, growing out of the ownership or use of or interest in such property; also from interest, rent, dividends, securities, or the transaction of any business carried on for gain or profit, or gains or profits and income derived from any source whatever. The amount of all such items shall be included in the gross income for the taxable year in which received by the taxpayer, unless, under methods of accounting permitted under subdivision (b) of section 953, any such amounts are to be properly accounted for as of a different period.

(b) The term "gross income" does not include the following items, which shall be exempt from taxation under this chapter:

(1) The proceeds of life insurance policies paid upon the death of the insured;

(2) The amount received by the insured as a return of premium or premiums paid by him under life insurance, endowment, or annuity contracts, either during the term or at the maturity of the term mentioned in the contract or upon surrender of the contract;

(3) The value of property acquired by gift, bequest, devise, or descent (but the income from such property shall be included in gross income);

(4) Interest upon (A) the obligations of a State, Territory, or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia; or (B) securities issued under the provisions of chapters 7 and 8 of Title 12 (the Federal Farm Loan Act); or (C) the obligations of the United States or its possessions. Every person owning any of the obligations or securities enumerated in clause (A), (B), or (C) shall, in the return required by this chapter, submit a statement showing the number and amount of such obligations and securities owned by him and the income received therefrom, in such form and with such information as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may require. In the case of obligations of the United States issued after September 1, 1917 (other than postal savings certificates of deposit), the interest shall be exempt only if and to the extent provided in the respective Acts authorizing the issue thereof as amended and supplemented, and shall be excluded from gross income only if and to the extent it is wholly exempt to the taxpayer from income taxes;

(5) The income of foreign governments received from investments in the United States in stocks, bonds, or other domestic securities, owned by such foreign governments, or from interest on deposits in banks in the United States of moneys belonging to such foreign governments, or from any other source within the United States;

(6) Amounts received, through accident or health insurance or under workmen's compensation acts, as compensation for personal injuries or sickness, plus the amount of any damages received whether by suit or agreement on account of such injuries or sickness;

(7) Income derived from any public utility or the exercise of any essential governmental function and accruing to any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or any political subdivision of a State or Territory, or income accruing to the Government of any possession of the United States, or any political subdivision thereof.

Whenever any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or any political subdivision of a State or Territory, prior to September 8, 1916, entered in good faith into a contract with any person, the object and purpose of which is to acquire, construct, operate, or maintain a public utility—

(A) If by the terms of such contract the tax imposed by this chapter is to be paid out of the proceeds from the operation of such public utility, prior to any division of such proceeds between the person and the State, Territory, political subdivision, or the District of Columbia, and if, but for the imposition of the tax imposed by this chapter, a part of such proceeds for the taxable year would accrue directly to or for the use of such State, Territory, political subdivision, or the District of Columbia, then a tax upon the net income from the operation of such public utility shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid in the manner and at the rates prescribed in this chapter, but there shall be refunded to such State, Territory, political subdivision, or the District of Columbia (under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury), an amount which bears the same relation to the amount of the tax as the amount which (but for the imposition of the tax imposed by this chapter) would have accrued directly to or for the use of such State, Territory, political subdivision, or the District of Columbia, bears to the amount of the net income from the operation of such public utility for such taxable year.

(B) If by the terms of such contract no part of the proceeds from the operation of the public utility for the taxable year would, irrespective of the tax imposed by this chapter, accrue directly to or for the use of such State, Territory, political subdivision, or the District of Columbia, then the tax upon the net income of such person from the operation of such public utility shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid in the manner and at the rates prescribed in this chapter;

(8) The income of a nonresident alien or foreign corporation which consists exclusively of earnings derived from the operation of a ship or ships documented under the laws of a foreign country which grants an equivalent exemption to citizens of the United States and to corporations organized in the United States;

(9) Amounts received as compensation, family allotments and allowances under the provisions of chapter 10, of Title 38 (the World War Veterans' Act, 1924), or as pensions from the United States for service of the beneficiary or another in the military or naval forces of the United States in time of war, or as a State pension for services rendered by the beneficiary or another for which the State is paying a pension;

(10) The amount received by an individual before January 1, 1927, as dividends or interest from domestic building and loan associations, substantially all the business of which is confined to making loans to members, but the amount excluded from gross income under this paragraph in any taxable year shall not exceed $300;

(11) The rental value of a dwelling house and appurtenances thereof furnished to a minister of the gospel as part of his compensation;

(12) The receipts of shipowners' mutual protection and indemnity associations, not organized for profit, and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder; but such corporations shall be subject as other persons to the tax upon their net income from interest, dividends and rents;

(13) In the case of a person, amounts distributed as dividends to or for his benefit by a corporation organized under sections 141 to 162 of Title 15 (the China Trade Act, 1922) if, at the time of such distribution, he is a resident of China and the equitable right to the income of the shares of stock of the corporation is in good faith vested in him.

(c) In the case of a nonresident alien individual, gross income means only the gross income from sources within the United States, determined under the provisions of section 958. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 213, 43 Stat. 267; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 345, § 12, 43 Stat. 997.)

955. Computation of net income; deductions allowed.—(a) In computing net income there shall be allowed as deductions:

Ordinary expenses incurred during taxable year; salaries; traveling expenses.—(1) All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year in carrying on any trade or business, including a reasonable allowance for salaries or other compensation for personal services actually rendered; traveling expenses (including the entire amount expended for meals and lodging) while away from home in the pursuit of a trade or business; and rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition to the continued use or possession, for purposes of the trade or business, of property to which the taxpayer has not taken or is not taking title or in which he has no equity;

Interest paid or accrued during taxable year; exception.—(2) All interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on indebtedness, except on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or securities (other than obligations of the United States issued after September 24, 1917, and originally subscribed for by the taxpayer) the interest upon which is wholly exempt from taxation under this title;

Taxes paid or accrued during taxable year.—(3) Taxes paid or accrued within the taxable year except (A) income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes imposed by the authority of the United States. (B) so much of the income, war-profits and excess-profits taxes, imposed by the authority of any foreign country or possession of the United States, as is allowed as a credit under section 963 of this title, (C) taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed, and (D) taxes imposed upon the taxpayer upon his interest as shareholder of a corporation, which are paid by the corporation without reimbursement from the taxpayer. For the purpose of this paragraph, estate, inheritance, legacy, and succession taxes accrue on the due date thereof except as otherwise provided by the law of the jurisdiction imposing such taxes;

Losses sustained during taxable year and not compensated.—(4) Losses sustained during the taxable year and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise, if incurred in trade or business;

Same.—(5) Losses sustained during the taxable year and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise, if incurred in any transaction entered into for profit, though not connected with the trade or business; but in the case of a nonresident alien individual only if the profit, if such transaction had resulted in a profit, would be taxable under this chapter. No deduction shall be allowed under this paragraph for any loss claimed to have been sustained in any sale or other disposition of shares of stock or securities where it appears that within thirty days before or after the date of such sale or other disposition the taxpayer has acquired (otherwise than by bequest or inheritance) or has entered into a contract or option to acquire substantially identical property, and the property so acquired is held by the taxpayer for any period after such sale or other disposition. If such acquisition or the contract or option to acquire is to the extent of part only of substantially identical property, then only a proportionate part of the loss shall be disallowed;

Losses from fires, storms, shipwrecks, and so forth.—(6) Losses sustained during the taxable year of property not connected with the trade or business (but in the case of a nonresident alien individual only property within the United States) if arising from fires, storms, shipwreck, or other casualty, or from theft, and if not compensated for by insurance or otherwise. The basis for determining the amount of the deduction under this paragraph, or paragraph (4) or (5), shall be the same as is provided in section 935 of this title for determining the gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of property;

Worthless debts charged off within taxable year; debts recoverable in part.—(7) Debts ascertained to be worthless and charged off within the taxable year (or, in the discretion of the commissioner, a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts); and when satisfied that a debt is recoverable only in part, the commissioner may allow such debt to be charged off in part;

Exhaustion, wear and tear; obsolescence.—(8) A reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear of property used in the trade or business, including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence;

Mines, oil and gas wells; depletion and depreciation.—(9) In the case of mines, oil and gas wells, other natural deposits, and timber, a reasonable allowance for depletion and for depreciation of improvements, according to the peculiar conditions in each case; such reasonable allowance in all cases to be made under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary. In the case of leases the deduction allowed by this paragraph shall be equitably apportioned between the lessor and lessee;

Contributions or gifts.—(10) Contributions or gifts made within the taxable year to or for the use of: (A) The United States, any State, Territory, or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, for exclusively public purposes; (B) any corporation or trust, or community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual; (C) the special fund for vocational rehabilitation authorized by section 440 of Title 38; (D) posts or organizations of war veterans, or auxiliary units or societies of any such posts or organizations, if such posts, organizations, units, or societies are organized in the United States or any of its possessions, and if no part of their net earnings inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual; or (E) a fraternal society, order, or association, operating under the lodge system, but only if such contributions or gifts are to be used exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals; to an amount which in all the above cases combined does not exceed 15 per centum of the taxpayer's net income as computed without the benefit of this paragraph, except that if in the taxable year and in each of the ten preceding taxable years the amount in all the above cases combined exceeds 90 per centum of the taxpayer's net income for each such year, as computed without the benefit of this paragraph, then to the full amount of such contributions and gifts made within the taxable year. In case of a nonresident alien individual this deduction shall be allowed only as to contributions or gifts made to domestic corporations, or to community chests, funds, or foundations, created in the United States, or to such vocational rehabilitation funds. Such contributions or gifts shall be allowable as deductions only if verified under rules and regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

Nonresident aliens.—(b) In the case of a nonresident alien individual, the deductions allowed in subdivision (a), except those allowed in paragraphs (5), (6), and (10), shall be allowed only if and to the extent that they are connected with income from sources within the United States; and the proper apportionment and allocation of the deductions with respect to sources of income within and without the United States shall be determined as provided in section 958 of this title under rules and regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. In the case of a citizen entitled to the benefits of section 1030 the deductions shall be the same and shall be determined in the same manner as in the case of a nonresident alien individual. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 214, 43 Stat. 269.)

956. Same; deductions not allowed.—(a) In computing net income no deduction shall in any case be allowed in respect of—

(1) Personal, living, or family expenses;

(2) Any amount paid out for new buildings or for permanent improvements or betterments made to increase the value of any property or estate;

(3) Any amount expended in restoring property or in making good the exhaustion thereof for which an allowance is or has been made; or

(4) Premiums paid on any life insurance policy covering the life of any officer or employee, or of any person financially interested in any trade or business carried on by the taxpayer, when the taxpayer is directly or indirectly a beneficiary under such policy.

(b) Amounts paid under the laws of any State, Territory, District of Columbia, possession of the United States, or foreign country as income to the holder of a life or terminable interest acquired by gift, bequest, or inheritance shall not be reduced or diminished by any deduction for shrinkage (by whatever name called) in the value of such interest due to the lapse of time, nor by any deduction allowed by this chapter for the purpose of computing the net income of an estate or trust but not allowed under the laws of such State, Territory, District of Columbia, possession of the United States, or foreign country for the purpose of computing the income to which such holder is entitled. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 215, 43 Stat. 271.)

957. Credits allowed for purpose of normal tax.—For the purpose of the normal tax only there shall be allowed the following credits:

(a) The amount received as dividends (1) from a domestic corporation other than a corporation entitled to the benefits of section 1030 of this title, and other than a corporation organized under sections 141 to 162 of Title 15 (the China Trade Act, 1922), or (2) from a foreign corporation when it is shown to the satisfaction of the commissioner that more than 50 per centum of the gross income of such foreign corporation for the three-year period ending with the close of its taxable year preceding the declaration of such dividends (or for such part of such period as the corporation has been in existence) was derived from sources within the United States as determined under the provisions of section 958;

(b) The amount received as interest upon obligations of the United States which is included in gross income under section 954;

(c) In the case of a single person, a personal exemption of $1,000; or in the case of the head of a family or a married person living with husband or wife, a personal exemption of $2,500. A husband and wife living together shall receive but one personal exemption. The amount of such personal exemption shall be $2,500. If such husband and wife make separate returns, the personal exemption may be taken by either or divided between them;

(d) $400 for each person (other than husband or wife) dependent upon and receiving his chief support from the taxpayer if such dependent person is under eighteen years of age or is incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective;

(e) In the case of a nonresident alien individual or of a citizen entitled to the benefits of section 1030, the personal exemption shall be only $1,000. The credit provided in subdivision (d) shall not be allowed in the case of a nonresident alien individual unless he is a resident of a contiguous country, nor in the case of a citizen entitled to the benefits of section 1030;

(f) (1) The credits allowed by subdivisions (d) and (e) of this section shall be determined by the status of the taxpayer on the last day of his taxable year.

(2) The credit allowed by subdivision (c) of this section shall, in case the status of the taxpayer changes during his taxable year, be the sum of (A) an amount which bears the same ratio to $1,000 as the number of months during which the taxpayer was single bears to twelve months, plus (B) an amount which bears the same ratio to $2,500 as the number of months during which the taxpayer was a married person living with husband or wife or was the head of a family bears to twelve months. For the purposes of this paragraph a fractional part of a month shall be disregarded unless it amounts to more than half a month, in which case it shall be considered as a month.

(3) In the case of an individual who dies during the taxable year, the credits allowed by subdivisions (c), (d), and (e) shall be determined by his status at the time of his death, and in such case full credits shall be allowed to the surviving spouse, if any, according to his or her status at the close of the taxable year. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 216, 43 Stat. 272.)

958. Nonresident aliens; gross income from sources within and without United States; deductions; allocation of items; definitions; returns; claims for credits.—(a) In the case of a nonresident alien individual or of a citizen entitled to the benefits of section 1030 of this title, the following items of gross income shall be treated as income from sources within the United States:

(1) Interest on bonds, notes, or other interest-bearing obligations of residents, corporate or otherwise, not including (A) interest on deposits with persons carrying on the banking business paid to persons not engaged in business within the United States and not having an office or place of business therein, or (B) interest received from a resident alien individual, a resident foreign corporation, or a domestic corporation, when it is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue that less than 20 per centum of the gross income of such resident payor or domestic corporation has been derived from sources within the United States, as determined under the provisions of this section, for the three-year period ending with the close of the taxable year of such payor preceding the payment of such interest, or for such part of such period as may be applicable;

(2) The amount received as dividends (A) from a domestic corporation other than a corporation entitled to the benefits of section 1030, and other than a corporation less than 20 per centum of whose gross income is shown to the satisfaction of the commissioner to have been derived from sources within the United States, as determined under the provisions of this section, for the three-year period ending with the close of the taxable year of such corporation preceding the declaration of such dividends (or for such part of such period as the corporation has been in existence), or (B) from a foreign corporation unless less than 50 per centum of the gross income of such foreign corporation for the three-year period ending with the close of its taxable year preceding the declaration of such dividends (or for such part of such period as the corporation has been in existence) was derived from sources within the United States as determined under the provisions of this section;

(3) Compensation for labor or personal services performed in the United States;

(4) Rentals or royalties from property located in the United States or from any interest in such property, including rentals or royalties for the use of or for the privilege of using in the United States, patents, copyrights, secret processes and formulas, good will, trade-marks, trade brands, franchises, and other like property; and

(5) Gains, profits, and income from the sale of real property located in the United States.

(b) From the items of gross income specified in subdivision (a) there shall be deducted the expenses, losses, and other deductions properly apportioned or allocated thereto and a ratable part of any expenses, losses, or other deductions which can not definitely be allocated to some item or class of gross income. The remainder, if any, shall be included in full as net income from sources within the United States.

(c) The following items of gross income shall be treated as income from sources without the United States:

(1) Interest other than that derived from sources within the United States as provided in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a);

(2) Dividends other than those derived from sources within the United States as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a);

(3) Compensation for labor or personal services performed without the United States;

(4) Rentals or royalties from property located without the United States or from any interest in such property, including rentals or royalties for the use of or for the privilege of using without the United States, patents, copyrights, secret processes and formulas, good will, trade-marks, trade brands, franchises, and other like property; and

(5) Gains, profits, and income from the sale of real property located without the United States.

(d) From the items of gross income specified in subdivision (c) there shall be deducted the expenses, losses, and other deductions properly apportioned or allocated thereto, and a ratable part of any expenses, losses, or other deductions which can not definitely be allocated to some item or class of gross income. The remainder, if any, shall be treated in full as net income from sources without the United States.

(e) Items of gross income, expenses, losses and deductions, other than those specified in subdivisions (a) and (c), shall be allocated or apportioned to sources within or without the United States under rules and regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Where items of gross income are separately allocated to sources within the United States, there shall be deducted (for the purpose of computing the net income therefrom) the expenses, losses and other deductions properly apportioned or allocated thereto and a ratable part of other expenses, losses or other deductions which can not definitely be allocated to some item or class of gross income. The remainder, if any, shall be included in full as net income from sources within the United States. In the case of gross income derived from sources partly within and partly without the United States, the net income may first be computed by deducting the expenses, losses or other deductions apportioned or allocated thereto and a ratable part of any expenses, losses or other deductions which can not definitely be allocated to some items or class of gross income; and the portion of such net income attributable to sources within the United States may be determined by processes or formulas of general apportionment prescribed by the said commissioner with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Gains, profits and income from (1) transportation or other services rendered partly within and partly without the United States, or (2) from the sale of personal property produced (in whole or in part) by the taxpayer within and sold without the United States, or produced (in whole or in part) by the taxpayer without and sold within the United States, shall be treated as derived partly from sources within and partly from sources without the United States. Gains, profits and income derived from the purchase of personal property within and its sale without the United States or from the purchase of personal property without and its sale within the United States, shall be treated as derived entirely from sources within the country in which sold.

(f) As used in this section the words "sale" or "sold" include "exchange" or "exchanged"; and the word "produced" includes "created," "fabricated," "manufactured," "extracted," "processed," "cured," or "aged."

(g) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) a nonresident alien individual or a citizen entitled to the benefits of section 1030 shall receive the benefit of the deductions and credits allowed in this chapter only by filing or causing to be filed with the collector a true and accurate return of his total income received from all sources in the United States, in the manner prescribed in this title; including therein all the information which the commissioner may deem necessary for the calculation of such deductions and credits.

(2) The benefit of the credits allowed in subdivisions (d) and (e) of section 957, and of the reduced rate of tax provided for in subdivision (b) of section 951, may, in the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and under regulations prescribed by him with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, be received by a nonresident alien individual entitled thereto, by filing a claim therefor with the withholding agent. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 217, 43 Stat. 273.)

959. Partnerships; credits; net income.—(a) Individuals carrying on business in partnership shall be liable for income tax only in their individual capacity. There shall be included in computing the net income of each partner his distributive share, whether distributed or not, of the net income of the partnership for the taxable year, or, if his net income for such taxable year is computed upon the basis of a period different from that upon the basis of which the net income of the partnership is computed, then his distributive share of the net income of the partnership for any accounting period of the partnership ending within the taxable year upon the basis of which the partner's net income is computed.

(b) The partner shall, for the purpose of the normal tax, be allowed as credits, in addition to the credits allowed to him under section 957 of this title, his proportionate share of such amounts specified in subdivisions (a) and (b) of section 957 as are received by the partnership.

(c) The net income of the partnership shall be computed in the same manner and on the same basis as provided in section 953 except that the deduction provided in paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) of section 955 shall not be allowed. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 218, 43 Stat. 275.)

960. Estates or property held in trust; net incomes; stock bonus or profit sharing plan; revesting or distribution of trusts.—(a) The tax imposed by Parts I and II of this chapter shall apply to the income of estates or of any kind of property held in trust, including—

(1) Income accumulated in trust for the benefit of unborn or unascertained persons or persons with contingent interests, and income accumulated or held for future distribution under the terms of the will or trust;

(2) Income which is to be distributed currently by the fiduciary to the beneficiaries, and income collected by a guardian of an infant which is to be held or distributed as the court may direct;

(3) Income received by estates of deceased persons during the period of administration or settlement of the estate; and

(4) Income which, in the discretion of the fiduciary, may be either distributed to the beneficiaries or accumulated.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (g) and (h), the tax shall be computed upon the net income of the estate or trust, and shall be paid by the fiduciary. The net income of the estate or trust shall be computed in the same manner and on the same basis as provided in section 953 of this title, except that—

(1) There shall be allowed as a deduction (in lieu of the deduction authorized by paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) of section 955) any part of the gross income, without limitation, which pursuant to the terms of the will or deed creating the trust, is during the taxable year paid or permanently set aside for the purposes and in the manner specified in paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) of section 955, or is to be used exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals or for the establishment, acquisition, maintenance or operation of a public cemetery not operated for profit;

(2) There shall be allowed as an additional deduction in computing the net income of the estate or trust the amount of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year which is to be distributed currently by the fiduciary to the beneficiaries, and the amount of the income collected by a guardian of an infant which is to be held or distributed as the court may direct, but the amount so allowed as a deduction shall be included in computing the net income of the beneficiaries whether distributed to them or not. Any amount allowed as a deduction under this paragraph shall not be allowed as a deduction under paragraph (3) in the same or any succeeding taxable year;

(3) In the case of income received by estates of deceased persons during the period of administration or settlement of the estate, and in the case of income which, in the discretion of the fiduciary, may be either distributed to the beneficiary or accumulated, there shall be allowed as an additional deduction in computing the net income of the estate or trust the amount of the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year which is properly paid or credited during such year to any legatee, heir, or beneficiary, but the amount so allowed as a deduction shall be included in computing the net income of the legatee, heir, or beneficiary.

(c) For the purpose of the normal tax the estate or trust shall be allowed the same credit as is allowed to a single person under subdivision (c) of section 957, and, if no part of the income of the estate or trust is included in computing the net income of any legatee, heir, or beneficiary, then in addition the same credits as are allowed by subdivisions (a) and (b) of section 957.

(d) If any part of the income of an estate or trust is included in computing the net income of any legatee, heir, or beneficiary, such legatee, heir, or beneficiary, shall, for the purpose of the normal tax, be allowed as credits, in addition to the credits allowed to him under section 957, his proportionate share of such amounts specified in subdivisions (a) and (b) of section 957 as are, under this section, required to be included in computing his net income. Any remaining portion of such amounts specified in subdivisions (a) and (b) of section 957 shall, for the purpose of the normal tax, be allowed as credits to the estate or trust.

(e) If the taxable year of a beneficiary is different from that of the estate or trust, the amount which he is required, under paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of this section, to include in computing his net income, shall be based upon the income of the estate or trust for its taxable year ending within his taxable year.

(f) A trust created by an employer as a part of a stock bonus or profit-sharing plan for the exclusive benefit of some or all of his employees, to which contributions are made by such employer, or employees, or both, for the purpose of distributing to such employees the earnings and principal of the fund accumulated by the trust in accordance with such plan, shall not be taxable under this section, but the amount actually distributed or made available to any distributee shall be taxable to him in the year in which so distributed or made available to the extent that it exceeds the amounts paid in by him. Such distributees shall for the purpose of the normal tax be allowed as credits such part of the amount so distributed or made available as represents the items specified in subdivisions (a) and (b) of section 957.

(g) Where the grantor of a trust has, at any time during the taxable year, either alone or in conjunction with any person not a beneficiary of the trust, the power to revest in himself title to any part of the corpus of the trust, then the income of such part of the trust for such taxable year shall be included in computing the net income of the grantor.

(h) Where any part of the income of a trust may, in the discretion of the grantor of the trust, either alone or in conjunction with any person not a beneficiary of the trust, be distributed to the grantor or be held or accumulated for future distribution to him, or where any part of the income of a trust is or may be applied to the payment of premiums upon policies of insurance on the life of the grantor (except policies of insurance irrevocably payable for the purposes and in the manner specified in paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) of section 955), such part of the income of the trust shall be included in computing the net income of the grantor. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 219, 43 Stat. 275.)

961. Evasion of surtax; accumulated profits of corporations; statements of gains and profits; net income.—(a) If any corporation, however created or organized, is formed or availed of for the purpose of preventing the imposition of the surtax upon its shareholders through the medium of permitting its gains and profits to accumulate instead of being divided or distributed, there shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon the net income of such corporation a tax equal to 50 per centum of the amount thereof, which shall be in addition to the tax imposed by section 981 of this title and shall (except as provided in subdivision (d) of this section) be computed, collected, and paid upon the same basis and in the same manner and subject to the same provisions of law, including penalties, as that tax.

(b) The fact that any corporation is a mere holding or investment company, or that the gains or profits are permitted to accumulate beyond the reasonable needs of the business, shall be prima facie evidence of a purpose to escape the surtax.

(c) When requested by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, or any collector, every corporation shall forward to him a correct statement of such gains and profits and the names and addresses of the individuals or shareholders who would be entitled to the same if divided or distributed, and of the amounts that would be payable to each.

(d) As used in this section the term "net income" means the net income as defined in section 984, increased by the sum of the amount of the deduction allowed under paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of section 986, and the amount of the interest on obligations of the United States issued after September 1, 1917, which would be subject to tax in whole or in part in the hands of an individual owner. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 220, 43 Stat. 277.)

962. Taxes to be deducted and withheld at source; returns.—(a) All persons, in whatever capacity acting, including lessees or mortgagors of real or personal property, fiduciaries, employers, and all officers and employees of the United States having the control, receipt, custody, disposal, or payment of interest (except interest on deposits with persons carrying on the banking business paid to persons not engaged in business in the United States and not having an office or place of business therein), rent, salaries, wages, premiums, annuities, compensations, remunerations, emoluments, or other fixed or determinable annual or periodical gains, profits, and income, of any nonresident alien individual, or of any partnership not engaged in trade or business within the United States and not having any office or place of business therein and composed in whole or in part of nonresident aliens, (other than income received as dividends of the class allowed as a credit by subdivision (a) of section 957 of this title) shall (except in the cases provided for in subdivision (b) and except as otherwise provided in regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue under section 958) deduct and withhold from such annual or periodical gains, profits, and income a tax equal to 6 per centum thereof: Provided, That the said commissioner may authorize such tax to be deducted and withheld from the interest upon any securities the owners of which are not known to the withholding agent.

(b) In any case where bonds, mortgages, or deeds of trust, or other similar obligations of a corporation contain a contract or provision by which the obligor agrees to pay any portion of the tax imposed by this title upon the obligee, or to reimburse the obligee for any portion of the tax, or to pay the interest without deduction for any tax which the obligor may be required or permitted to pay thereon, or to retain therefrom under any law of the United States, the obligor shall deduct and withhold a tax equal to 2 per centum of the interest upon such bonds, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other obligations, whether such interest is payable annually or at shorter or longer periods and whether payable to a nonresident, alien individual or to an individual citizen or resident of the United States or to a partnership: Provided, That the commissioner may authorize such tax to be deducted and withheld in the case of interest upon any such bonds, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other obligations, the owners of which are not known to the withholding agent. Such deduction and withholding shall not be required in the case of a citizen or resident entitled to receive such interest, if he files with the withholding agent on or before February 1 a signed notice in writing claiming the benefit of the credits provided in subdivisions (c) and (d) of section 957; nor in the case of a nonresident alien individual if so provided for in regulations prescribed by the commissioner under subdivision (g) of section 958.

(c) Every person required to deduct and withhold any tax under this section shall make return thereof on or before March 15 of each year and shall on or before June 15 pay the tax to the official of the United States Government authorized to receive it. Every such person is made liable for such tax and is indemnified against the claims and demands of any person for the amount of any payments made in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(d) Income upon which any tax is required to be withheld at the source under this section shall be included in the return of the recipient of such income, but any amount of tax so withheld shall be credited against the amount of income tax as computed in such return.

(e) If any tax required under this section to be deducted and withheld is paid by the recipient of the income, it shall not be recollected from the withholding agent; nor in cases in which the tax is so paid shall any penalty be imposed upon or collected from the recipient of the income or the withholding agent for failure to return or pay the same, unless such failure was fraudulent and for the purpose of evading payment. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 221, 43 Stat. 277.)

963. Credits.—(a) The tax computed under Parts I and II of this chapter shall be credited with:

(1) In the case of a citizen of the United States the amount of any income, war-profits and excess-profits taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year to any foreign country or to any possession of the United States; and

(2) In the case of a resident of the United States, the amount of any such taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year to any possession of the United States; and

(3) In the case of an alien resident of the United States, the amount of any such taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year to any foreign country, if the foreign country of which such alien resident is a citizen or subject, in imposing such taxes, allows a similar credit to citizens of the United States residing in such country; and

(4) In the case of any such individual who is a member of a partnership or a beneficiary of an estate or trust, his proportionate share of such taxes of the partnership or the estate or trust paid or accrued during the taxable year to a foreign country or to any possession of the United States, as the case may be.

(5) The above credits shall not be allowed in the case of a citizen entitled to the benefits of section 1030 of this title; and in no other case shall the amount of credit taken under this subdivision exceed the same proportion of the tax (computed on the basis of the taxpayer's net income without the deduction of any income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax any part of which may be allowed to him as a credit by this section), against which such credit is taken, which the taxpayer's net income (computed without the deduction of any such income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax) from sources without the United States bears to his entire net income (computed without such deduction) for the same taxable year.

(b) If accrued taxes when paid differ from the amounts claimed as credits by the taxpayer, or if any tax paid is refunded in whole or in part, the taxpayer shall notify the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, who shall redetermine the amount of the tax due under Parts I and II of this chapter for the year or years affected, and the amount of tax due upon such redetermination, if any, shall be paid by the taxpayer upon notice and demand by the collector, or the amount of tax overpaid, if any, shall be credited or refunded to the taxpayer in accordance with the provisions of section 1065. In the case of such a tax accrued but not paid, the said commissioner as a condition precedent to the allowance of this credit may require the taxpayer to give a bond with sureties satisfactory to and to be approved by the commissioner in such sum as the commissioner may require, conditioned upon the payment by the taxpayer of any amount of tax found due upon any such redetermination; and the bond herein prescribed shall contain such further conditions as the commissioner may require.

(c) The credits provided for in subdivision (a) of this section may, at the option of the taxpayer and irrespective of the method of accounting employed in keeping his books, be taken in the year in which the taxes of the foreign country or the possession of the United States accrued, subject, however, to the conditions prescribed in subdivision (b) of this section. If the taxpayer elects to take such credits in the year in which the taxes of the foreign country or the possession of the United States accrued, the credits for all subsequent years shall be taken upon the same basis.

(d) These credits shall be allowed only if the taxpayer furnishes evidence satisfactory to the commissioner showing the amount of income derived from sources without the United States, and all other information necessary for the verification and computation of such credits. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 222, 43 Stat. 279.)

964. Returns; persons required to make.—(a) The following individuals shall each make under oath a return stating specifically the items of his gross income and the deductions and credits allowed under this title—

(1) Every individual having a net income for the taxable year of $1,000 or over, if single, or if married and not living with husband or wife;

(2) Every individual having a net income for the taxable year of $2,500 or over, if married and living with husband or wife; and

(3) Every individual having a gross income for the taxable year of $5,000 or over, regardless of the amount of his net income.

(b) If a husband and wife living together have an aggregate net income for the taxable year of $2,500 or over, or an aggregate gross income for such year of $5,000 or over—

(1) Each shall make such a return, or

(2) The income of each shall be included in a single joint return, in which case the tax shall be computed on the aggregate income.

(c) If the taxpayer is unable to make his own return, the return shall be made by a duly authorized agent or by the guardian or other person charged with the care of the person or property of such taxpayer. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 223, 43 Stat. 280.)

965. Same; partnerships.—Every partnership shall make a return for each taxable year, stating specifically the items of its gross income and the deductions allowed by this title, and shall include in the return the names and addresses of the individuals who would be entitled to share in the net income if distributed and the amount of the distributive share of each individual. The return shall be sworn to by any one of the partners. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 224, 43 Stat. 280.)

966. Same; fiduciaries; when required; contents; verification.—(a) Every fiduciary (except a receiver appointed by authority of law in possession of part only of the property of an individual) shall make under oath a return for any of the following individuals, estates, or trusts for which he acts, stating specifically the items of gross income thereof and the deductions and credits allowed under this title—

(1) Every individual having a net income for the taxable year of $1,000 or over, if single, or if married and not living with husband or wife;

(2) Every individual having a net income for the taxable year of $2,500 or over, if married and living with husband or wife;

(3) Every individual having a gross income for the taxable year of $5,000 or over, regardless of the amount of his net income;

(4) Every estate or trust the net income of which for the taxable year is $1,000 or over;

(5) Every estate or trust the gross income of which for the taxable year is $5,000 or over, regardless of the amount of the net income; and

(6) Every estate or trust of which any beneficiary is a nonresident alien.

(b) Under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe a return made by one of two or more joint fiduciaries and filed in the office of the collector of the district where such fiduciary resides shall be sufficient compliance with the above requirement. Such fiduciary shall make oath (1) that he has sufficient knowledge of the affairs of the individual, estate or trust for which the return is made, to enable him to make the return, and (2) that the return is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, true and correct. Any fiduciary required to make a return under this chapter shall be subject to all the provisions of this chapter which apply to individuals. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 225, 43 Stat. 280.)

967. Same; time for making; to whom made.—(a) Returns (except in the case of nonresident aliens) shall be made on or before the 15th day of the third month following the close of the fiscal year, or, if the return is made on the basis of the calendar year, then the return shall be made on or before the 15th day of March. In the case of a nonresident alien individual returns shall be made on or before the 15th day of the sixth month following the close of the fiscal year, or, if the return is made on the basis of the calendar year, then the return shall be made on or before the 15th day of June. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing returns, if application therefor is made before the date prescribed by law for filing the return, whenever in his judgment good cause exists, and shall keep a record of every such extension and the reason therefor. Except in the case of taxpayers who are abroad, no such extension shall be for more than six months.

(b) Returns shall be made to the collector for the district in which is located the legal residence or principal place of business of the person making the return, or, if he has no legal residence or principal place of business in the United States, then to the collector at Baltimore, Maryland. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 227, 43 Stat. 281.)

968. Returns on change from fiscal to calendar year, or vice versa; computation of net income.—(a) If a taxpayer, with the approval of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, changes the basis of computing net income from fiscal year to calendar year a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the last fiscal year for which return was made and the following December 31. If the change is from calendar year to fiscal year, a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the last calendar year for which return was made and the date designated as the close of the fiscal year. If the change is from one fiscal year to another fiscal year a separate return shall be made for the period between the close of the former fiscal year and the date designated as the close of the new fiscal year.

(b) Where a separate return is so made, and in all other cases where a separate return is required or permitted, by regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, to be made for a fractional part of a year, then the income shall be computed on the basis of the period for which separate return is made.

(c) If a separate return is made under subdivision (a) the net income, computed in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (b), shall be placed on an annual basis by multiplying the amount thereof by twelve and dividing by the number of months included in the period for which the separate return is made. The tax shall be such part of the tax computed on such annual basis as the number of months in such period is of twelve months.

(d) The said commissioner with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury shall by regulations prescribe the method of applying the provisions of subdivisions (b) and (c) to cases where the taxpayer makes a separate return under subdivision (a) and it appears that for the period for which the return is so made he has derived a capital net gain, or sustained a capital net loss, or received earned income.

(e) In the case of a return made for a fractional part of a year, except a return made under subdivision (a), the credits provided in subdivisions (c), (d), and (e) of section 957 of this title shall be reduced respectively to amounts which bear the same ratio to the full credits provided in such subdivisions as the number of months in the period for which return is made bears to twelve months. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 226, 43 Stat. 281.)

Part III.—CORPORATIONS

Section 981. Rate.—There shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon the net income of every corporation a tax of 12½ per centum of the amount of the net income in excess of the credits provided in sections 988 and 1031 of this title. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 230, 43 Stat. 282.)

982. Organizations exempted.—The following organizations shall be exempt from taxation under this chapter—

Labor, agricultural, or horticultural organizations.—(1) Labor, agricultural, or horticultural organizations;

Mutual savings banks.—(2) Mutual savings banks not having a capital stock represented by shares;

Fraternal beneficiary societies, orders, and so forth.—(3) Fraternal beneficiary societies, orders, or associations, (a) operating under the lodge system or for the exclusive benefit of the members of a fraternity itself operating under the lodge system; and (b) providing for the payment of life, sick, accident or other benefits to the members of such society, order, or association or their dependents;

Domestic building and loan associations; cooperative banks operated without profit.—(4) Domestic building and loan associations substantially all the business of which is confined to making loans to members; and cooperative banks without capital stock organized and operated for mutual purposes and without profit;

Cemetery companies for benefit of members.—(5) Cemetery companies owned and operated exclusively for the benefit of their members or which are not operated for profit; and any corporation chartered solely for burial purposes as a cemetery corporation and not permitted by its charter to engage in any business not necessarily incident to that purpose, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual;

Corporations, community chest foundations, and so forth, for religious and charitable purposes.—(6) Corporations, and any community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual;

Business leagues, chambers of commerce, and so forth.—(7) Business leagues, chambers of commerce, or boards of trade, not organized for profit and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual;

Civic leagues or organizations for promotion of social welfare; associations of employees.—(8) Civic leagues or organizations not organized for profit but operated exclusively for the promotion of social welfare, or local associations of employees, the membership of which is limited to the employees of a designated person or persons in a particular municipality, and the net earnings of which are devoted exclusively to charitable, educational, or recreational purposes;

Clubs for nonprofitable purposes.—(9) Clubs organized and operated exclusively for pleasure, recreation, and other nonprofitable purposes, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder;

Benevolent life insurance associations; mutual hail, cyclone, and so forth, companies; conditions.—(10) Benevolent life insurance associations of a purely local character, farmers' or other mutual hail, cyclone, casualty, or fire insurance companies, mutual ditch or irrigation companies, mutual or cooperative telephone companies, or like organizations; but only if 85 per centum or more of the income consists of amounts collected from members for the sole purpose of meeting losses and expenses;

Associations for marketing produce of members.—(11) Farmers', fruit growers', or like associations, organized and operated as sales agents for the purpose of marketing the products of members and turning back to them the proceeds of sales, less the necessary selling expenses, on the basis of the quantity of produce furnished by them; or organized and operated as purchasing agents for the purpose of purchasing supplies and equipment for the use of members and turning over such supplies and equipment to such members at actual cost, plus necessary expenses;

Corporations for holding title to property, and so forth.—(12) Corporations organized for the exclusive purpose of holding title to property, collecting income therefrom, and turning over the entire amount thereof, less expenses, to an organization which itself is exempt from the tax imposed by this title; and

Federal land banks; national farm loan associations, and so forth.—(13) Federal land banks, national farm-loan associations, and Federal intermediate credit banks, as provided in chapters 7 and 8 of Title 12 (the Federal Farm Loan Act). (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 231, 43 Stat. 282.)

983. Exemption of farmers' or other mutual hail, cyclone, and so forth, insurance companies in Revenue Acts of 1916, 1918, and 1921 regardless of purely local character.—The exemption provided in paragraph (10) of subdivision (a) of section 11 of the Revenue Act of 1916, and in subdivision (10) of section 231 of the Revenue Act of 1918, and in subdivision (10) of section 231 of the Revenue Act of 1921, shall be granted to farmers' or other mutual hail, cyclone, or fire insurance companies (if otherwise exempt under such paragraphs), whether or not such organizations were of a purely local character. Any taxes assessed against such organizations shall, subject to the statutory period of limitations properly applicable thereto, be abated, credited or refunded. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1013(b), 43 Stat. 343.)

984. Computation of net income.—In the case of a corporation subject to the tax imposed by section 981 of this title the term "net income" means the gross income as defined in section 985 less the deductions allowed by sections 986 and 987, and the net income shall be computed on the same basis as is provided in subdivision (b) of section 953 or in section 968. In the case of a foreign corporation or of a corporation entitled to the benefits of section 1030 the computation shall also be made in the manner provided in section 958. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 232, 43 Stat. 283.)

985. Gross income.—(a) In the case of a corporation subject to the tax imposed by section 981 of this title the term "gross income" means the gross income as defined in sections 954 and 958, except that mutual marine insurance companies shall include in gross income the gross premiums collected and received by them less amounts paid for reinsurance.

(b) In the case of a foreign corporation, gross income means only gross income from sources within the United States, determined (except in the case of insurance companies subject to the tax imposed by sections 1001 or 1006) in the manner provided in section 958. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 233, 43 Stat. 283.)

986. Deductions allowable in computing net income.—(a) In computing the net income of a corporation subject to the tax imposed by section 981 of this title there shall be allowed as deductions:

Ordinary and necessary expenditure incurred during taxable year, salaries; rentals.—(1) All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year in carrying on any trade or business, including a reasonable allowance for salaries or other compensation for personal services actually rendered, and including rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition to the continued use or possession of property to which the corporation has not taken or is not taking title, or in which it has no equity;

Interest paid or accrued within taxable year.—(2) All interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on its indebtedness, except on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or securities (other than obligations of the United States issued after September 24, 1917, and originally subscribed for by the taxpayer) the interest upon which is wholly exempt from taxation under this chapter;

Taxes paid or accrued within taxable year.—(3) Taxes paid or accrued within the taxable year except (A) income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes imposed by the authority of the United States, (B) so much of the income, war-profits and excess-profits taxes imposed by the authority of any foreign country or possession of the United States as is allowed as a credit under section 990 of this title, and (C) taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed. In the case of obligors specified in subdivision (b) of section 962 no deduction for the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter, or any other tax paid pursuant to the tax-free covenant clause, shall be allowed, nor shall such tax be included in the gross income of the obligee. The deduction allowed by this paragraph shall be allowed in the case of taxes imposed upon a shareholder of a corporation upon his interest as shareholder, which are paid by the corporation without reimbursement from the shareholder, but in such cases no deduction shall be allowed the shareholder for the amount of such taxes. For the purpose of this paragraph, estate, inheritance, legacy, and succession taxes accrue on the due date thereof except as otherwise provided by law of the jurisdiction imposing such taxes;

Losses sustained during taxable year without compensation.—(4) Losses sustained during the taxable year and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise. No deduction shall be allowed under this paragraph for any loss claimed to have been sustained in any sale or other disposition of shares of stock or securities where it appears that within thirty days before or after the date of such sale or other disposition the taxpayer has acquired (otherwise than by bequest or inheritance) or has entered into a contract or option to acquire substantially identical property, and the property so acquired is held by the taxpayer for any period after such sale or other disposition, unless such claim is made by a dealer in stock or securities and with respect to a transaction made in the ordinary course of its business. If such acquisition or the contract or option to acquire is to the extent of part only of substantially identical property, then only a proportionate part of the loss shall be disallowed. The basis for determining the amount of the deduction for losses sustained shall be the same as is provided in section 935 of this title for determining the gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of property;

Worthless debts charged off within taxable year; reserve for bad debts; debts recoverable in part.—(5) Debts ascertained to be worthless and charged off within the taxable year (or in the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts); and when satisfied that a debt is recoverable only in part, the said commissioner may allow such debt to be charged off in part;

Dividends received.—(6) The amount received as dividends (A) from a domestic corporation other than a corporation entitled to the benefits of section 1030 of this title, and other than a corporation organized under sections 141 to 162 of Title 15 (the China Trade Act, 1922) or (B) from any foreign corporation when it is shown to the satisfaction of the commissioner that more than 50 per centum of the gross income of such foreign corporation for the three-year period ending with the close of its taxable year preceding the declaration of such dividends (or for such part of such period as the foreign corporation has been in existence) was derived from sources within the United States as determined under section 958 of this title;

Exhaustion; wear and tear of property; obsolescence.—(7) A reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear of property used in the trade or business, including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence;

Mines, oil and gas wells; depletion and depreciation.—(8) In the case of mines, oil and gas wells, other natural deposits, and timber, a reasonable allowance for depletion and for depreciation of improvements, according to the peculiar conditions in each case; such reasonable allowance in all cases to be made under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. In the case of leases the deductions allowed by this paragraph shall be equitably apportioned between the lessor and lessee;

Insurance companies (other than life insurance companies); additional deductions.—(9) In the case of insurance companies (other than life insurance companies), in addition to the above (unless otherwise allowed): (A) The net addition required by law to be made within the taxable year to reserve funds (including in the case of assessment insurance companies the actual deposit of sums with State or Territorial officers pursuant to law as additions to guarantee or reserve funds); and (B) the sums other than dividends paid within the taxable year on policy and annuity contracts. This paragraph shall apply only to mutual insurance companies other than life insurance companies;

Mutual marine insurance companies; additional deductions.—(10) In the case of mutual marine insurance companies, there shall be allowed, in addition to the deductions allowed in paragraphs (1) to (9) inclusive, unless otherwise allowed, amounts repaid to policyholders on account of premiums previously paid by them, and interest paid upon such amounts between the ascertainment and the payment thereof;

Mutual insurance companies requiring premium deposits.—(11) In the case of mutual insurance companies (including interinsurers and reciprocal underwriters, but not including mutual life or mutual marine insurance companies) requiring their members to make premium deposits to provide for losses and expenses, there shall be allowed, in addition to the deductions allowed in paragraphs (1) to (9), inclusive, unless otherwise allowed, the amount of premium deposits returned to their policyholders and the amount of premium deposits retained for the payment of losses, expenses, and reinsurance reserves.

Deductions allowable only to extent of income within United States.—In the case of a foreign corporation or of a corporation entitled to the benefits of section 1030 of this title the deductions allowed in subdivision (a) shall be allowed only if and to the extent that they are connected with income from sources within the United States; and the proper apportionment and allocation of the deductions with respect to sources within and without the United States shall be determined as provided in section 958 under rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 234, 43 Stat. 283.)

987. Same; items not allowed.—In computing net income no deduction shall in any case be allowed in respect of any of the items specified in section 956 of this title. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 235, 43 Stat. 285.)

988. Credits allowed.—For the purpose only of the tax imposed by section 981 of this title there shall be allowed the following credits:

(a) The amount received as interest upon obligations of the United States which is included in gross income under section 985 of this title; and

(b) In the case of a domestic corporation the net income of which is $25,000 or less, a specific credit of $2,000; but if the net income is more than $25,000 the tax imposed by section 981 of this title shall not exceed the tax which would be payable if the $2,000 credit were allowed, plus the amount of the net income in excess of $25,000. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 236, 43 Stat. 285.)

989. Foreign corporations; deduction and withholding of tax at source.—In the case of foreign corporations subject to taxation under this chapter not engaged in trade or business within the United States and not having any office or place of business therein, there shall be deducted and withheld at the source in the same manner and upon the same items of income as is provided in section 962 of this title a tax equal to 12½ per centum thereof, and such tax shall be returned and paid in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as provided in that section: Provided, That in the case of interest described in subdivision (b) of that section the deduction and withholding shall be at the rate of 2 per centum. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 237, 43 Stat. 285.)

990. Credit for other taxes paid.—(a) In the case of a domestic corporation the tax imposed by this chapter shall be credited with the amount of any income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes paid or accrued during the same taxable year to any foreign country, or to any possession of the United States: Provided, That the amount of such credit shall in no case exceed the same proportion of the tax (computed on the basis of the taxpayer's net income without the deduction of any income, war-profits, or excess-profits taxes imposed by any foreign country or possession of the United States), against which such credit is taken, which the taxpayer's net income (computed without the deduction of any such income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax) from sources without the United States bears to its entire net income (computed without such deduction) for the same taxable year. In the case of domestic insurance companies subject to the tax imposed by section 1001 or 1006 of this title, the term "net income" as used in this subdivision means net income as defined in sections 1005 and 1006, respectively.

(b) If accrued taxes when paid differ from the amounts claimed as credits by the corporation, or if any tax paid is refunded in whole or in part, the corporation shall at once notify the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, who shall redetermine the amount of the taxes for the year or years affected, and the amount of taxes due upon such redetermination, if any, shall be paid by the corporation upon notice and demand by the collector, or the amount of taxes overpaid, if any, shall be credited, or refunded to the corporation in accordance with the provisions of section 1065 of this title. In the case of such a tax accrued but not paid, the said commissioner as a condition precedent to the allowance of this credit may require the corporation to give a bond with sureties satisfactory to and to be approved by him in such sum as he may require, conditioned upon the payment by the taxpayer of any amount of taxes found due upon any such redetermination; and the bond herein prescribed shall contain such further conditions as the commissioner may require.

(c) The credits provided for in subdivision (a) of this section may, at the option of the taxpayer and irrespective of the method of accounting employed in keeping its books, be taken in the year in which the taxes of the foreign country or the possession of the United States accrued, subject, however, to the conditions prescribed in subdivision (b) of this section. If the taxpayer elects to take such credits in the year in which the taxes of the foreign country or the possession of the United States accrued, the credits for all subsequent years shall be taken upon the same basis.

(d) These credits shall be allowed only if the taxpayer furnishes evidence satisfactory to the commissioner showing the amount of income derived from sources without the United States, and all other information necessary for the verification and computation of such credit.

(e) For the purposes of this section a domestic corporation which owns a majority of the voting stock of a foreign corporation from which it receives dividends (not deductible under section 986) in any taxable year shall be deemed to have paid the same proportion of any income, war-profits, or excess-profits taxes paid by said foreign corporation to any foreign country or to any possession of the United States, upon or with respect to the accumulated profits of such foreign corporation from which such dividends were paid, which the amount of such dividends bears to the amount of such accumulated profits: Provided, That the credit allowed to any domestic corporation under this subdivision shall in no case exceed the same proportion of the taxes against which it is credited, which the amount of such dividends bears to the amount of the entire net income of the domestic corporation in which such dividends are included. The term "accumulated profits" when used in this subdivision in reference to a foreign corporation, means the amount of its gains, profits, or income in excess of the income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes imposed upon or with respect to such profits or income; and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury shall have full power to determine from the accumulated profits of what year or years such dividends were paid; treating dividends paid in the first sixty days of any year as having been paid from the accumulated profits of the preceding year or years (unless to his satisfaction shown otherwise), and in other respects treating dividends as having been paid from the most recently accumulated gains, profits, or earnings. In the case of a foreign corporation, the income, war-profits, and excess-profits taxes of which are determined on the basis of an accounting period of less than one year, the word "year" as used in this subdivision shall be construed to mean such accounting period.

(f) For the purposes of this section a corporation entitled to the benefits of section 1030 or 1031 shall be treated as a foreign corporation. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 238, 43 Stat. 286.)

991. Tax returns; form and contents; verification.—(a) Every corporation subject to taxation under this chapter shall make a return, stating specifically the items of its gross income and the deductions and credits allowed by this chapter. The return shall be sworn to by the president, vice president, or other principal officer and by the treasurer or assistant treasurer. If any foreign corporation has no office or place of business in the United States but has an agent in the United States, the return shall be made by the agent. In cases where receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, or assignees are operating the property or business of corporations, such receivers, trustees, or assignees shall make returns for such corporations in the same manner and form as corporations are required to make returns. Any tax due on the basis of such returns made by receivers, trustees, or assignees shall be collected in the same manner as if collected from the corporations of whose business or property they have custody and control.

(b) Returns made under this section shall be subject to the provisions of section 968 of this title. In the case of a return made for a fractional part of a year, except a return made under subdivision (a) of section 968, the credit provided in subdivision (b) of section 988 shall be reduced to an amount which bears the same ratio to the full credit therein provided as the number of months in the period for which the return is made bears to twelve months.

(c) There shall be included in the return or appended thereto a statement of such facts as will enable the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to determine the portion of the earnings or profits of the corporation (including gains, profits and income not taxed) accumulated during the taxable year for which the return is made, which have been distributed or ordered to be distributed, respectively, to its shareholders during such year. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 239, 43 Stat. 287.)

992. Same; time for making; to whom made.—(a) Returns of corporations shall be made at the same time as is provided in subdivision (a) of section 967 of this title, except that in the case of foreign corporations not having any office or place of business in the United States returns shall be made at the same time as provided in said section 967 in the case of a nonresident alien individual.

(b) Returns shall be made to the collector of the district in which is located the principal place of business or principal office or agency of the corporation, or, if it has no principal place of business or principal office or agency in the United States, then to the collector at Baltimore, Maryland. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 241, 43 Stat. 288.)

993. Affiliated corporations; separate or consolidated returns; foreign corporations.—(a) Corporations which are affiliated within the meaning of this section may, for any taxable year, make separate returns or, under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury make a consolidated return of net income for the purpose of this chapter, in which case the taxes thereunder shall be computed and determined upon the basis of such return. If return is made on either of such bases, all returns thereafter made shall be upon the same basis unless permission to change the basis is granted by the commissioner.

(b) In any case in which a tax is assessed upon the basis of a consolidated return, the total tax shall be computed in the first instance as a unit and shall then be assessed upon the respective affiliated corporations in such proportions as may be agreed upon among them, or, in the absence of any such agreement, then on the basis of the net income properly assignable to each. There shall be allowed in computing the income tax only one specific credit computed as provided in subdivision (b) of section 988.

(c) For the purpose of this section two or more domestic corporations shall be deemed to be affiliated (1) if one corporation owns at least 95 per centum of the voting stock of the other or others, or (2) if at least 95 per centum of the voting stock of two or more corporations is owned by the same interests. A corporation organized under sections 141 to 162 of Title 15 (the China Trade Act, 1922), shall not be deemed to be affiliated with any other corporation within the meaning of this section.

(d) In any case of two or more related trades or businesses (whether unincorporated or incorporated and whether organized in the United States or not) owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the same interests, the commissioner may and at the request of the taxpayer shall, if necessary in order to make an accurate distribution or apportionment of gains, profits, income, deductions, or capital between or among such related trades or businesses, consolidate the accounts of such related trades or businesses.

(e) For the purposes of this section a corporation entitled to the benefits of section 1030 shall be treated as a foreign corporation. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 240, 43 Stat. 288.)

INSURANCE COMPANIES

1001. Same; taxes imposed in lieu of other taxes.—In lieu of the taxes imposed by sections 223 and 981 of this title, there shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon the net income of every life insurance company a tax as follows: (1) In the case of a domestic life insurance company, the same percentage of its net income as is imposed upon other corporations by section 981 of this title;

(2) In the case of a foreign life insurance company, the same percentage of its net income from sources within the United States as is imposed upon the net income of other corporations by section 981 of this title. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 246, 43 Stat. 289.)

1002. Life insurance companies; definition of.—When used in this chapter the term "life insurance company" means an insurance company engaged in the business of issuing life insurance and annuity contracts (including contracts of combined life, health, and accident insurance), the reserve funds of which held for the fulfillment of such contracts comprise more than 50 per centum of its total reserve funds. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 242, 43 Stat. 288.)

1003. Same; gross income; reserve fund required by law.—(a) In the case of a life insurance company the term "gross income" means the gross amount of income received during the taxable year from interest, dividends, and rents.

(b) The term "reserve funds required by law" includes, in the case of assessment insurance, sums actually deposited by any company or association with State or Territorial officers pursuant to law as guaranty or reserve funds, and any funds maintained under the charter or articles of incorporation of the company or association exclusively for the payment of claims arising under certificates of membership or policies issued upon the assessment plan and not subject to any other use. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 244, 43 Stat. 289.)

1004. Same; net income; computation; credits; deductions.—(a) In the case of a life insurance company the term "net income" means the gross income less—

(1) The amount of interest received during the taxable year which under paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of section 954 of this title is exempt from taxation under this chapter;

(2) An amount equal to the excess, if any, over the deduction specified in paragraph (1) of this subdivision, of 4 per centum of the mean of the reserve funds required by law and held at the beginning and end of the taxable year, plus (in case of life insurance companies issuing policies covering life, health, and accident insurance combined in one policy issued on the weekly premium payment plan, continuing for life and not subject to cancellation) 4 per centum of the mean of such reserve funds (not required by law) held at the beginning and end of the taxable year, as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue finds to be necessary for the protection of the holders of such policies only;

(3) The amount received as dividends (A) from a domestic corporation other than a corporation entitled to the benefits of section 1030 of this title, and other than a corporation organized under sections 141 to 162 of Title 15 (the China Trade Act, 1922) or (B) from any foreign corporation when it is shown to the satisfaction of the commissioner that more than 50 per centum of the gross income of such foreign corporation for the three-year period ending with the close of its taxable year preceding the declaration of such dividends (or for such part of such period as the foreign corporation has been in existence) was derived from sources within the United States as determined under section 958;

(4) An amount equal to 2 per centum of any sums held at the end of the taxable year as a reserve for dividends (other than dividends payable during the year following the taxable year) the payment of which is deferred for a period of not less than five years from the date of the policy contract;

(5) Investment expenses paid during the taxable year: Provided, That if any general expenses are in part assigned to or included in the investment expenses, the total deduction under this paragraph shall not exceed one-fourth of 1 per centum of the book value of the mean of the invested assets held at the beginning and end of the taxable year;

(6) Taxes and other expenses paid during the taxable year exclusively upon or with respect to the real estate owned by the company, not including taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed, and not including any amount paid out for new buildings, or for permanent improvements or betterments made to increase the value of any property. The deduction allowed by this paragraph shall be allowed in the case of taxes imposed upon a shareholder of a company upon his interest as shareholder, which are paid by the company without reimbursement from the shareholder, but in such cases no deduction shall be allowed the shareholder for the amount of such taxes;

(7) A reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear of property, including a reasonable allowance for obsolescence;

(8) All interest paid or accrued within the taxable year on its indebtedness, except on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or securities (other than obligations of the United States issued after September 24, 1917, and originally subscribed for by the taxpayer) the interest upon which is wholly exempt from taxation under this chapter; and

(9) In the case of a domestic life insurance company, the net income of which (computed without the benefit of this paragraph) is $25,000 or less, the sum of $2,000; but if the net income is more than $25,000 the tax imposed by section 1001 of this title shall not exceed the tax which would be payable if the $2,000 credit were allowed, plus the amount of the net income in excess of $25,000.

(b) No deduction shall be made under paragraphs (6) and (7) of subdivision (a) on account of any real estate owned and occupied in whole or in part by a life insurance company unless there is included in the return of gross income the rental value of the space so occupied. Such rental value shall be not less than a sum which in addition to any rents received from other tenants shall provide a net income (after deducting taxes, depreciation, and all other expenses) at the rate of 4 per centum per annum of the book value at the end of the taxable year of the real estate so owned or occupied. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 245, 43 Stat. 289.)

1005. Same; foreign corporations; net income.—In the case of a foreign life insurance company the amount of its net income for any taxable year from sources within the United States shall be the same proportion of its net income for the taxable year from sources within and without the United States which the reserve funds required by law and held by it at the end of the taxable year upon business transacted within the United States is of the reserve funds held by it at the end of the taxable year upon all business transacted. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 245, 43 Stat. 289.)

1006. Other insurance companies; taxes imposed; gross income; net income; investment income; underwriting income;

premiums earned on insurance contracts during taxable year; losses incurred; expenses incurred.—(a) In lieu of the taxes imposed by sections 223 and 981 of this title, there shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon the net income of every insurance company (other than a life or mutual insurance company) a tax as follows:

(1) In the case of such a domestic insurance company the same percentage of its net income as is imposed upon other corporations by section 981 of this title;

(2) In the case of such a foreign insurance company the same percentage of its net income from sources within the United States as is imposed upon the net income of other corporations by section 981 of this title;

(b) In the case of an insurance company subject to the tax imposed by this section—

(1) The term "gross income" means the combined gross amount, earned during the taxable year, from investment income and from underwriting income as provided in this subdivision, computed on the basis of the underwriting and investment exhibit of the annual statement approved by the National Convention of Insurance Commissioners;

(2) The term "net income" means the gross income as defined in paragraph (1) of this subdivision less the deductions allowed by section 1007;

(3) The term "investment income" means the gross amount of income earned during the taxable year from interest, dividends and rents, computed as follows:

To all interest, dividends and rents received during the taxable year, add interest, dividends and rents due and accrued at the end of the taxable year, and deduct all interest, dividends and rents due and accrued at the end of the preceding taxable year;

(4) The term "underwriting income" means the premiums earned on insurance contracts during the taxable year less losses incurred and expenses incurred;

(5) The term "premiums earned on insurance contracts during the taxable year" means an amount computed as follows:

From the amount of gross premiums written on insurance contracts during the taxable year, deduct return premiums and premiums paid for reinsurance. To the result so obtained add unearned premiums on outstanding business at the end of the preceding taxable year and deduct unearned premiums on outstanding business at the end of the taxable year;

(6) The term "losses incurred" means losses incurred during the taxable year on insurance contracts, computed as follows:

To losses paid during the taxable year, add salvage and reinsurance recoverable outstanding at the end of the preceding taxable year, and deduct salvage and reinsurance recoverable outstanding at the end of the taxable year. To the result so obtained add all unpaid losses outstanding at the end of the taxable year and deduct unpaid losses outstanding at the end of the preceding taxable year;

(7) The term "expenses incurred" means all expenses shown on the annual statement approved by the National Convention of Insurance Commissioners, and shall be computed as follows:

To all expenses paid during the taxable year add expenses unpaid at the end of the taxable year and deduct expenses unpaid at the end of the preceding taxable year. For the purpose of computing the net income subject to the tax imposed by this section there shall be deducted from expenses incurred as defined in this paragraph all expenses incurred which are not allowed as deductions by section 1007 of this title. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 246, 43 Stat. 290.)

1007. Same; net income; computation; deductions.—(a) In computing the net income of an insurance company subject to the tax imposed by section 1006 of this title there shall be allowed as deductions:

(1) All ordinary and necessary expenses incurred, as provided in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of section 986 of this title;

(2) All interest as provided in paragraph (2) of subdivision (a) of section 986 of this title;

(3) Taxes as provided in paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of section 986 of this title;

(4) Losses incurred;

(5) Bad debts in the nature of agency balances and bills receivable ascertained to be worthless and charged off within the taxable year;

(6) The amount received as dividends from corporations as provided in paragraph (6) of subdivision (a) of section 986 of this title;

(7) The amount of interest earned during the taxable year which under paragraph (4) of subdivision (b) of section 954 of this title is exempt from taxation under this chapter, and the amount of interest allowed as a credit under section 988 of this title;

(8) A reasonable allowance for the exhaustion, wear and tear of property, as provided in paragraph (7) of subdivision (a) of section 986 of this title;

(9) In the case of such a domestic insurance company, the net income of which (computed without the benefit of this paragraph) is $25,000 or less, the sum of $2,000; but if the net income is more than $25,000 the tax imposed by section 1006 of this title shall not exceed the tax which would be payable if the $2,000 credit were allowed, plus the amount of the net income in excess of $25,000.

(b) In the case of a foreign corporation the deductions allowed in this section shall be allowed to the extent provided in subdivision (b) of section 986 of this title.

(c) Nothing in this section or in section 1006 of this title shall be construed to permit the same item to be twice deducted. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 247, 43 Stat. 291.)

Part IV.—ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

1021. Dividend returns; contents; verification.—Every corporation subject to the tax imposed by this chapter shall, when required by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, render a correct return, duly verified under oath, of its payments of dividends, stating the name and address of each shareholder, the number of shares owned by him, and the amount of dividends paid to him. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 254, 43 Stat. 292.)

1022. Brokers returns; contents; verification.—Every person doing business as a broker shall, when required by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, render a correct return duly verified under oath, under such rules and regulations as the said commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe, showing the names of customers for whom such person has transacted any business, with such details as to the profits, losses, or other information which the commissioner may require, as to each of such customers, as will enable the commissioner to determine whether all income tax due on profits or gains of such customers has been paid. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 255, 43 Stat. 292.)

1023. Returns by employers, fiduciaries, lessees, mortgagors, etc.; amount; contents.—All persons, in whatever capacity acting, including lessees or mortgagors of real or personal property, fiduciaries, and employers, making payment to another person, of interest, rent, salaries, wages, premiums, annuities, compensations, remunerations, emoluments, or other fixed or determinable gains, profits, and income (other than payments described in sections 1021 and 1022 of this title, of

$1,000 or more in any taxable year, or, in the case of such payments made by the United States, the officers or employees of the United States having information as to such payments and required to make returns in regard thereto by the regulations hereinafter provided for, shall render a true and accurate return to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, under such regulations and in such form and manner and to such extent as may be prescribed by him with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, setting forth the amount of such gains, profits, and income, and the name and address of the recipient of such payment

Such returns may be required, regardless of amounts, (1) in the case of payments of interest upon bonds, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other similar obligations of corporations, and (2) in the case of collections of items (not payable in the United States) of interest upon the bonds of foreign countries and interest upon the bonds of and dividends from foreign corporations by persons undertaking as a matter of business or for profit the collection of foreign payments of such interest or dividends by means of coupons, checks, or bills of exchange.

When necessary to make effective the provisions of this section the name and address of the recipient of income shall be furnished upon demand of the person paying the income.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to the payment of interest on obligations of the United States. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 256, 43 Stat. 292.)

1024. Inspection; lists of persons making returns; amount paid.—(a) Returns upon which the tax has been determined by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall constitute public records; but they shall be open to inspection only upon order of the President and under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury and approved by the President: Provided, That the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Finance of the Senate, or a special committee of the Senate or House, shall have the right to call on the Secretary of the Treasury for, and it shall be his duty to furnish, any data of any character contained in or shown by the returns or any of them, that may be required by the committee; and any such committee shall have the right, acting directly as a committee, or by and through such examiners or agents as it may designate or appoint, to inspect all or any of the returns at such times and in such manner as it may determine; and any relevant or useful information thus obtained may be submitted by the committee obtaining it to the Senate or the House, or to both the Senate and House, as the case may be: Provided further, That the proper officers of any State may, upon the request of the governor thereof, have access to the returns of any corporation, or to an abstract thereof showing the name and income of the corporation, at such times and in such manner as the Secretary may prescribe: Provided further, That all bona fide shareholders of record owning 1 per centum or more of the outstanding stock of any corporation shall, upon making request of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, be allowed to examine the annual income returns of such corporation and of its subsidiaries. Any shareholder who pursuant to the provisions of this section is allowed to examine the return of any corporation, and who makes known in any manner whatever not provided by law the amount or source of income, profits, losses, expenditures, or any particular thereof, set forth or disclosed in any such return, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both.

(b) The Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall as soon as practicable in each year cause to be prepared and made available to public inspection in such manner as he may determine, in the office of the collector in each internal-revenue district and in such other places as he may determine, lists containing the name and the post-office address of each person making an income-tax return in such district, together with the amount of the income tax paid by such person. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 257, 43 Stat. 293.)

1025. Disclosure by officials or publication of income-tax returns unlawful.—It shall be unlawful for any collector, deputy collector, agent, or clerk, to divulge or to make known in any manner whatever not provided by law to any person the amount or source of income, profits, losses, expenditures, or any particular thereof, set forth or disclosed in any income return, of any manufacturer or producer visited by him in the discharge of his official duties or to permit any income return or copy thereof or any book containing any abstract of particulars thereof to be seen or examined by any person except as provided by law; and it shall be unlawful for any person to print or publish in any manner whatever not provided by law any income return or any part thereof or source of income, profits, losses, or expenditures appearing in any income return; and any offense against the foregoing provision shall be a misdemeanor and be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of the court; and if the offender be an officer or employee of the United States he shall be dismissed from office or discharged from employment. (R. S. § 3167; Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 34, 28 Stat. 557; Oct. 3, 1913, c. 16, § II, I, 38 Stat. 177; Sept. 8, 1916, c. 463, § 16, 39 Stat. 773; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1317, 40 Stat. 1146; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1311, 42 Stat. 311; June 2, 1924, c. 234, 4.01 p. m., § 1018, 43 Stat. 345.)

1026. Statistics of operation of law; contents.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prepare and publish annually statistics reasonably available with respect to the operation of the income, war-profits and excess-profits tax laws, including classifications of taxpayers and of income, the amounts allowed as deductions, exemptions, and credits and any other facts deemed pertinent and valuable. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 258, 43 Stat. 293.)

1027. Licenses to and regulation of persons collecting foreign payments of interest or dividends; penalty.—All persons undertaking as a matter of business or for profit the collection of foreign payments of interest or dividends by means of coupons, checks, or bills of exchange shall obtain a license from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and shall be subject to such regulations enabling the Government to obtain the information required under this chapter as the said commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe; and whoever knowingly undertakes to collect such payments without having obtained a license therefor, or without complying with such regulations, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $5,000, or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 259, 43 Stat. 293.)

1028. Citizens of United States possessions; taxation of; Virgin Islands.—Any individual who is a citizen of any possession of the United States (but not otherwise a citizen of the United States) and who is not a resident of the United States, shall be subject to taxation under this chapter only as to income derived from sources within the United States, and in such case the tax shall be computed and paid in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as in the case of other persons who are taxable only as to income derived from such sources.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to alter or amend the provisions of section 1397 of Title 48, relating to the imposition of income taxes in the Virgin Islands of the United States. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 260, 43 Stat. 294.)

1029. Porto Rico and Philippine Islands; levy, assessment, collection, and payment of tax.—In Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands the income tax shall be levied, assessed, collected, and paid as otherwise provided by law. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 261, 43 Stat. 294.)

1030. Gross income of citizens or domestic corporations fulfilling certain requirements.—(a) In the case of citizens of the United States or domestic corporations, satisfying the following conditions, gross income means only gross income from sources within the United States—

(1) If 80 per centum or more of the gross income of such citizen or domestic corporation (computed without the benefit of this section), for the three-year period immediately preceding the close of the taxable year (or for such part of such period immediately preceding the close of such taxable year as may be applicable) was derived from sources within a possession of the United States; and

(2) If, in the case of such corporation, 50 per centum or more of its gross income (computed without the benefit of this section) for such period or such part thereof was derived from the active conduct of a trade or business within a possession of the United States; or

(3) If, in the case of such citizen, 50 per centum or more of his gross income (computed without the benefit of this section) for such period or such part thereof was derived from the active conduct of a trade or business within a possession of the United States either on his own account or as an employee or agent of another.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) there shall be included in gross income all amounts received by such citizens or corporations within the United States, whether derived from sources within or without the United States.

(c) As used in this section the term "possession of the United States" does not include the Virgin Islands of the United States. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 262, 43 Stat. 294.)

1031. Corporations organized under China Trade Act; credits allowed.—(a) For the purpose only of the tax imposed by section 981 of this title there shall be allowed, in the case of a corporation organized under sections 141 to 162 of Title 15 (the China Trade Act, 1922), a credit of an amount equal to the proportion of the net income derived from sources within China (determined in a similar manner to that provided in section 958) which the par value of the shares of stock of the corporation owned on the last day of the taxable year by (1) persons resident in China, the United States, or possessions of the United States, and (2) individual citizens of the United States or China wherever resident, bears to the par value of the whole number of shares of stock of the corporation outstanding on such date: Provided, That in no case shall the amount by which the tax imposed by section 981 is diminished by reason of such credit exceed the amount of the special dividend certified under subdivision (b) of this section.

(b) Such credit shall not be allowed unless the Secretary of Commerce has certified to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue (1) the amount which, during the year ending on the date fixed by law for filing the return, the corporation has distributed as a special dividend to or for the benefit of such persons as on the last day of the taxable year were resident in China, the United States, or possessions of the United States, or were individual citizens of the United States or China, and owned shares of stock of the corporation, (2) that such special dividend was in addition to all other amounts, payable or to be payable to such persons or for their benefit, by reason of their interest in the corporation, and (3) that such distribution has been made to or for the benefit of such persons in proportion to the par value of the shares of stock of the corporation owned by each; except that if the corporation has more than one class of stock, the certificates shall contain a statement that the articles of incorporation provide a method for the apportionment of such special dividend among such persons, and that the amount certified has been distributed in accordance with the method so provided.

(c) For the purposes of this section shares of stock of a corporation shall be considered to be owned by the person in whom the equitable right to the income from such shares is in good faith vested.

(d) As used in this section the term "China" shall have the same meaning as when used in sections 141 to 162 of Title 15. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 263, 43 Stat. 295; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 345, § 11, 43 Stat. 996.)

Part V.—PAYMENT, COLLECTION, AND REFUND OF TAX AND PENALTIES

1041. Time for payment of tax; payments in full.—Except as provided in sections 1042 to 1044 of this title the total amount of tax imposed by this title shall be paid—

(1) In the case of a taxpayer, other than a nonresident alien individual, and other than a foreign corporation not having an office or place of business in the United States, on or before the 15th day of March following the close of the calendar year, or, if the return should be made on the basis of a fiscal year, then on or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the fiscal year; and

(2) In the case of a nonresident alien individual, and of a foreign corporation not having an office or place of business in the United States, on or before the 15th day of June following the close of the calendar year, or, if the return should be made on the basis of a fiscal year, then on or before the 15th day of the sixth month following the close of the fiscal year. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 270(a), 43 Stat. 295.)

1042. Same; payment in installments.—(1) The taxpayer may elect to pay the tax in four equal installments, in which case the first installment shall be paid on or before the latest date prescribed in section 1041 of this title for the payment of the tax by the taxpayer, the second installment shall be paid on or before the 15th day of the third month, the third installment on or before the 15th day of the sixth month, and the fourth installment on or before the 15th day of the ninth month, after such date.

(2) If any installment is not paid on the date fixed for its payment, the whole amount of the tax unpaid shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 270(b), 43 Stat. 295.)

1043. Same; extension of time for payment.—(1) At the request of the taxpayer, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may extend the time for payment of the amount determined as the tax by the taxpayer, or any installment thereof, for a period not to exceed six months from the date prescribed in sections 1041 or 1042 of this title for the payment of the tax or an installment thereof. In such case the amount in respect of which the extension is granted shall be paid on or before the date of the expiration of the period of the extension.

(2) If the time for payment is thus extended there shall be collected, as a part of such amount, interest thereon at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date when such payment should have been made if no extension had been granted, until the expiration of the period of the extension. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 270(c), 43 Stat. 295.)

1044. Same; taxes payable at source.—The provisions of sections 1041 to 1043 of this title shall not apply to the payment of a tax required to be withheld at the source under section 962 or 989. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 270 (d), 43 Stat. 295.)

1045. Examination of return and determination of amount of tax.—As soon as practicable after the return is filed the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall examine it and shall determine the correct amount of the tax. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 271, 43 Stat. 296.)

1046. Credit or refund of overpayments.—If the taxpayer has paid as an installment of the tax more than the amount determined to be the correct amount of such installment, the excess shall be credited against the unpaid installments, if any. If the amount already paid, whether or not on the basis of installments, exceeds the amount determined to be the correct amount of the tax, the excess shall be credited or refunded as provided in section 1065 of this title. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 272, 43 Stat. 296.)

1047. Deficiency in tax; what constitutes.—As used in this chapter the term "deficiency" means—

(1) The amount by which the tax imposed by this chapter exceeds the amount shown as the tax by the taxpayer upon his return; but the amount so shown on the return shall first be increased by the amounts previously assessed (or collected without assessment) as a deficiency, and decreased by the amounts previously abated, credited, refunded, or otherwise repaid in respect of such tax; or

(2) If no amount is shown as the tax by the taxpayer upon his return, or if no return is made by the taxpayer, then the amount by which the tax exceeds the amounts previously assessed (or collected without assessment) as a deficiency; but such amounts previously assessed, or collected without assessment, shall first be decreased by the amounts previously abated, credited, refunded, or otherwise repaid in respect of such tax. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 273, 43 Stat. 296.)

1048. Same; notice to taxpayer of deficiency.—If, in the case of any taxpayer, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue determines that there is a deficiency in respect of the tax imposed by this chapter, the taxpayer, except as provided in section 1051 of this title shall be notified of such deficiency by registered mail, but such deficiency shall be assessed only as hereinafter provided. Within sixty days after such notice is mailed the taxpayer may file an appeal with the Board of Tax Appeals established by section 1211. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 274 (a), 43 Stat. 297.)

1049. Same; determination and assessment of deficiency by board; payment; collection of amount disallowed by board.—If the board determines that there is a deficiency, the amount so determined shall be assessed and shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector. No part of the amount determined as a deficiency by the commissioner but disallowed as such by the board shall be assessed, but a proceeding in court may be begun, without assessment, for the collection of any part of the amount so disallowed. The court shall include in its judgment interest upon the amount thereof at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax to the date of the judgment. Such proceeding shall be begun within one year after the final decision of the board, and may be begun within such year even though the period of limitation prescribed in section 1057 of this title has expired. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 274 (b), 43 Stat. 297.)

1050. Assessment and payment where no appeal to board.—If the taxpayer does not file an appeal with the board within the time prescribed in section 1048 of this title, the deficiency of which the taxpayer has been notified shall be assessed, and shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 274 (c), 43 Stat. 297.)

1051. Same; assessment and collection of deficiency where delay would jeopardize same.—If the Commissioner of Internal Revenue believes that the assessment or collection of a deficiency will be jeopardized by delay such deficiency shall be assessed immediately and notice and demand shall be made by the collector for the payment thereof. In such case the assessment may be made (1) without giving the notice provided in section 1048 of this title or (2) before the expiration of the sixty-day period provided in section 1048, even though such notice has been given, or (3) at any time prior to the final decision by the board upon such deficiency even though the taxpayer has filed an appeal. If the taxpayer does not file a claim in abatement as provided in section 1063 of this title the deficiency so assessed (or, if the claim so filed covers only a part of the deficiency, then the amount not covered by the claim) shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 274 (d), 43 Stat. 297.)

1052. Prorating deficiency to installments.—If the taxpayer has elected to pay the tax in installments and a deficiency has been assessed, the deficiency shall be prorated to the four installments. Except as provided in section 1051 of this title, that part of the deficiency so prorated to any installment the date for payment of which has not arrived, shall be collected at the same time as and as part of such installment. That part of the deficiency so prorated to any installment the date for payment of which has arrived, shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 274 (e), 43 Stat. 297.)

1053. Interest on deficiency.—Interest upon the amount determined as a deficiency, or, if the tax is paid in installments, upon the part of the deficiency prorated to each installment, shall be assessed at the same time as the deficiency, shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector, and shall be collected as a part of the tax, at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax, or the payment of such installment, to the date the deficiency is assessed. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 274 (f), 43 Stat. 297.)

1054. Extension of time for payment of deficiency.—Where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue that the payment of a deficiency upon the date prescribed for the payment thereof will result in undue hardship to the taxpayer the said commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury (except where the deficiency is due to negligence, to intentional disregard of rules and regulations, or to fraud with intent to evade tax), may grant an extension for the payment of such deficiency or any part thereof for a period not in excess of eighteen months. If an extension is granted the commissioner may require the taxpayer to furnish a bond in such amount, not exceeding double the amount of the deficiency, and with such sureties, as the commissioner deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of the deficiency in accordance with the terms of the extension. In such case there shall be collected, as a part of the tax, interest on the part of the deficiency the time for payment of which is so extended, at the rate of 6 per centum per annum for the period of the extension, and no other interest shall be collected on such part of the deficiency for such period. If the part of the deficiency the time for payment of which is so extended is not paid in accordance with the terms of the extension, there shall be collected, as a part of the tax, interest on such unpaid amount at the rate of 1 per centum a month for the period from the time fixed by the terms of the extension for its payment until it is paid, and no other interest shall be collected on such unpaid amount for such period. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 274 (g), 43 Stat. 297.)

1055. Increasing tax where deficiency due to negligence or fraud.—(a) If any part of any deficiency is due to negligence, or intentional disregard of rules and regulations but without intent to defraud, 5 per centum of the total amount of the deficiency (in addition to such deficiency) shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner as if it were a deficiency, except that the provisions of sections 1052 and 1053 of this title shall not be applicable.

(b) If any part of any deficiency is due to fraud with intent to evade tax, then 50 per centum of the total amount of the deficiency (in addition to such deficiency) shall be so assessed, collected, and paid, in lieu of the 50 per centum addition to the tax provided in section 98 of this title. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 275, 43 Stat. 298.)

1056. Delinquent taxes; interest; estates of incompetents, insolvents, and so forth; claims in abatement.—(a) (1) Where the amount determined by the taxpayer as the tax imposed by this chapter, or any installment thereof, or any part of such amount or installment, is not paid at the time prescribed for its payment, there shall be collected as a part of the tax, interest upon such unpaid amount at the rate of 1 per centum a month from the date prescribed for its payment until it is paid.

(2) Where an extension of time for payment of the amount so determined as the tax by the taxpayer, or any installment thereof, has been granted, and the amount the time for payment of which has been extended, and the interest thereon determined under paragraph (2) of section 1043 of this title, is not paid in full prior to the expiration of the period of the extension, then, in lieu of the interest provided for in paragraph (1) of this subdivision, interest at the rate of 1 per centum a month shall be collected on such unpaid amount from the date of the expiration of the period of the extension until it is paid.

(b) Where a deficiency, or any interest or additional amounts assessed in connection therewith under section 1053 of this title, or under section 1055 of this title, or any addition to the tax in case of delinquency provided for in section 98 of this title, is not paid in full within ten days from the date of notice and demand from the collector, there shall be collected as part of the tax, interest upon the unpaid amount of the rate of 1 per centum a month from the date of such notice and demand until it is paid. If any part of a deficiency prorated to any unpaid installment under section 1052 of this title is not paid in full on the date prescribed for the payment of such installment, there shall be collected as part of the tax interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of 1 per centum a month from such date until it is paid.

(c) In the case of estates of incompetent, deceased, or insolvent persons, there shall be collected interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum in lieu of the interest provided in subdivisions (a) and (b) of this section.

(d) If a claim in abatement is filed, as provided in section 1063 of this title, the provisions of subdivisions (b) and (c) of this section shall not apply to the amount covered by the claim in abatement. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 276, 43 Stat. 298.)

1057. Assessments and collections; extension of time.—(a) Except as provided in sections 1049, 1058 to 1062 of this title and in subdivision (b) of section 1063—

(1) The amount of income, excess-profits, and war-profits taxes imposed by the Revenue Act of 1921, and by such Act as amended, for the taxable year 1921 and succeeding taxable years, and the amount of income taxes imposed by this chapter, shall be assessed within four years after the return was filed, and no proceeding in court for the collection of such taxes shall be begun after the expiration of such period.

(2) The amount of income, excess-profits, and war-profits taxes imposed by the Act entitled "An Act to provide revenue, equalize duties, and encourage the industries of the United States, and for other purposes," approved August 5, 1909, the Act entitled "An Act to reduce tariff duties and to provide revenue for the Government, and for other purposes," approved October 3, 1913, the Revenue Act of 1916, the Revenue Act of 1917, the Revenue Act of 1918, and by any such Act as amended, shall be assessed within five years after the return was filed, and no proceeding in court for the collection of such taxes shall be begun after the expiration of such period.

(3) In the case of income received during the lifetime of a decedent, the tax shall be assessed, and any proceeding in court for the collection of such tax shall be begun, within one year after written request therefor (filed after the return is made) by the executor, administrator, or other fiduciary representing the estate of such decedent, but not after the expiration of the period prescribed for the assessment of the tax in paragraph (1) or (2) of this subdivision.

(b) The period within which an assessment is required to be made by subdivision (a) of this section in respect of any deficiency shall be extended (1) by sixty days if a notice of such deficiency has been mailed to the taxpayer under section 1048 and no appeal has been filed with the Board of Tax Appeals, or, (2) if an appeal has been filed, then by the number of days between the date of the mailing of such notice and the date of the final decision by the board. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 277, 43 Stat. 299.)

1058. Same; false or fraudulent returns.—In the case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax or of a failure to file a return the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 278 (a), 43 Stat. 299.)

1059. Assessment and collection under prior law of deficiency attributable to tentatively allowed deductions.—Any deficiency attributable to a change in a deduction tentatively allowed under paragraph (9) of subdivision (a) of section 214, or paragraph (8) of subdivision (a) of section 234, of the Revenue Act of 1918 or the Revenue Act of 1921, may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 278 (b), 43 Stat. 299.)

1060. Assessment of tax assessable after prescribed time.—Where both the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and the taxpayer have consented in writing to the assessment of the tax after the time prescribed in section 1057 of this title for its assessment the tax may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed upon. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 278 (c), 43 Stat. 299.)

1061. Distraint or court proceeding; time for; time for court proceeding without assessment.—Where the assessment of the tax is made within the period prescribed in section 1057 of this title or in sections 1058 to 1060 of this title such tax may be collected by distraint or by a proceeding in court, begun within six years after the assessment of the tax. Nothing in this title shall be construed as preventing the beginning, without assessment, of a proceeding in court for the collection of the tax at any time before the expiration of the period within which an assessment may be made. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 278 (d), 43 Stat. 299.)

1063. Claims for abatement of deficiency; time for filing; procedure; interest on claims denied.—(a) If a deficiency has been assessed under section 1051 of this title, the taxpayer, within ten days after notice and demand from the collector for the payment thereof, may file with the collector a claim for the abatement of such deficiency, or any part thereof, or of any interest or additional amounts assessed in connection therewith, or of any part of any such interest or additional amounts. Such claim shall be accompanied by a bond, in such amount, not exceeding double the amount of the claim, and with such sureties, as the collector deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of so much of the amount of the claim as is not abated, together with interest thereon as provided in subdivision (c) of this section. Upon the filing of such claim and bond, the collection of so much of the amount assessed as is covered by such claim and bond shall be stayed pending the final disposition of the claim.

(b) If a claim is filed as provided in subdivision (a) of this section the collector shall transmit the claim immediately to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue who shall by registered mail notify the taxpayer of his decision on the claim. The taxpayer may within sixty days after such notice is mailed file an appeal with the Board of Tax Appeals. If the claim is denied in whole or in part by the commissioner (or by the board in case an appeal has been filed) the amount, the claim for which is denied, shall be collected as part of the tax upon notice and demand from the collector, and the amount, the claim for which is allowed, shall be abated. A proceeding in court may be begun for any part of the amount, claim for which is allowed by the board. Such proceeding shall be begun within one year after the final decision of the board, and may be begun within such year even though the period of limitation prescribed in section 1057 has expired.

(c) If the claim in abatement is denied in whole or in part, there shall be collected, at the same time as the part of the claim denied, and as a part of the tax, interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum upon the amount of the claim denied, from the date of notice and demand from the collector under section 1051 to the date of the notice and demand under subdivision (b) of this section. If the amount included in the notice and demand from the collector under subdivision (b) of this section is not paid in full within ten days after such notice and demand, then there shall be collected, as part of the tax, interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of 1 per centum a month (or, in the case of estates of incompetent, deceased, or insolvent persons, at the rate of 6 per centum per annum) from the date of such notice and demand until it is paid.

(d) Except as provided in this section, no claim in abatement shall be filed in respect of any assessment made after June 2, 1924, in respect of any income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 279, 43 Stat. 300.)

1064. Assessment and collections under prior law.—If after June 2, 1924, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue determines that any assessment should be made in respect of any income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax imposed by the Revenue Act of 1916, the Revenue Act of 1917, the Revenue Act of 1918, or the Revenue Act of 1921, or by any such Act as amended, the amount which should be assessed (whether as deficiency or as interest, penalty, or other addition to the tax) shall be computed as if this chapter had not been enacted, but the amount so computed shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and limitations (including the provisions in case of delinquency in payment after notice and demand) as in the case of the taxes imposed by this title, except as otherwise provided in section 1057 of this title. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 280, 43 Stat. 301.

1065. Credit or refund of overpayments; time for claim; waiver of right to have tax assessed.—(a) Where there has been an overpayment of any income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax imposed by this chapter, the Act entitled "An Act to provide revenue, equalize duties, and encourage the industries of the United States, and for other purposes," approved August 5, 1909, the Act entitled "An Act to reduce tariff duties and to provide revenue for the Government, and for other purposes," approved October 3, 1913, the Revenue Act of 1916, the Revenue Act of 1917, the Revenue Act of 1918, or the Revenue Act of 1921, or any such Act as amended, the amount of such overpayment shall be credited against any income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax or installment thereof then due from the taxpayer, and any balance of such excess shall be refunded immediately to the taxpayer.

(b) Except as provided in subdivisions (c) and (e) of this section, (1) no such credit or refund shall be allowed or made after four years from the time the tax was paid, unless before the expiration of such four years a claim therefor is filed by the taxpayer, nor (2) shall the amount of the credit or refund exceed the portion of the tax paid during the four years immediately preceding the filing of the claim or, if no claim was filed, then during the four years immediately preceding the allowance of the credit or refund.

(c) If the invested capital of a taxpayer is decreased by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and such decrease is due to the fact that the taxpayer failed to take adequate deductions in previous years, with the result that there has been an overpayment of income, war-profits, or excess-profits taxes in any previous year or years, then the amount of such overpayment shall be credited or refunded, without the filing of a claim therefor, notwithstanding the period of limitation provided for in subdivision (b) has expired.

(d) Where there has been an overpayment of tax under section 962 or 989 of this title any refund or credit made under the provisions of this section shall be made to the withholding agent unless the amount of such tax was actually withheld by the withholding agent.

(e) If the taxpayer has, within five years from the time the return for the taxable year 1917 was due, filed a waiver of his right to have the taxes due for such taxable year determined and assessed within five years after the return was filed, or if he has, on or before June 15, 1924, filed such a waiver in respect of the taxes due for the taxable year 1918, then such credit or refund relating to the taxes for the year in respect of which the waiver was filed shall be allowed or made if claim therefor is filed within four years from the time the tax was paid. If the taxpayer has, on or before June 15, 1925, filed such a waiver in respect of the taxes due for the taxable year 1919, then such credit or refund relating to the taxes for the taxable year 1919 shall be allowed or made if claim therefor is filed either on or before April 1, 1926, or within four years from the time the tax was paid. If any such waiver so filed has, before the expiration of the period thereof, been extended either by the filing of a new waiver or by the extension of the original waiver, then such credit or refund relating to the taxes for the year, in respect of which the waiver was filed shall be allowed or made if claim therefor is filed either (1) within four years from the time the tax was paid, or (2) on or before April 1, 1926, in the case of credits or refunds relating to the taxes for the taxable years 1917 and 1918, or on or before April 1, 1927, in the case of credits or refunds relating to the taxes for the taxable year 1919.

(f) This section shall not (1) bar from allowance a claim for credit or refund filed prior to June 2, 1924, which but for the provisions of this chapter would have been allowable, or (2) bar from allowance a claim in respect of a tax for the taxable year 1919 or 1920 if such claim is filed before the expiration of five years after the date the return was due. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 281, 43 Stat. 301; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 435, 43 Stat. 1115.)

1066. Termination of taxable period; security for return and payment of taxes; certificate for departing aliens; penalties.—(a) If the Commissioner of Internal Revenue finds that a taxpayer designs quickly to depart from the United States or to remove his property therefrom, or to conceal himself or his property therein, or to do any other act tending to prejudice or to render wholly or partly ineffectual proceedings to collect the tax for the taxable year then last past or the taxable year then current unless such proceedings be brought without delay, the said commissioner shall declare the taxable period for such taxpayer immediately terminated and shall cause notice of such finding and declaration to be given the taxpayer, together with a demand for immediate payment of the tax for the taxable period so declared terminated and of the tax for the preceding taxable year or so much of such tax as is unpaid, whether or not the time otherwise allowed by law for filing return and paying the tax has expired; and such taxes shall thereupon become immediately due and payable. In any proceeding in court brought to enforce payment of taxes made due and payable by virtue of the provisions of this section the finding of the commissioner, made as herein provided, whether made after notice to the taxpayer or not, shall be for all purposes presumptive evidence of the taxpayer's design.

(b) A taxpayer who is not in default in making any return or paying income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax under any Act of Congress may furnish to the United States, under regulations to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, security approved by the commissioner that he will duly make the return next thereafter required to be filed and pay the tax next thereafter required to be paid. The commissioner may approve and accept in like manner security for return and payment of taxes made due and payable by virtue of the provisions of this section, provided the taxpayer has paid in full all other income, war-profits, or excess-profits taxes due from him under any Act of Congress.

(c) If security is approved and accepted pursuant to the provisions of this section and such further or other security with respect to the tax or taxes covered thereby is given as the commissioner shall from time to time find necessary and require, payment of such taxes shall not be enforced by any proceedings under the provisions of this section prior to the expiration of the time otherwise allowed for paying such respective taxes.

(d) In the case of a citizen of the United States about to depart from the United States the commissioner may, at his discretion, waive any or all of the requirements placed on the taxpayer by this section.

(e) No alien shall depart from the United States unless he first procures from the collector or agent in charge a certificate that he has complied with all the obligations imposed upon him by the income, war-profits, and excess-profits tax laws.

(f) If a taxpayer violates or attempts to violate this section, there shall, in addition to all other penalties, be added as part of the tax 25 per centum of the total amount of the tax or deficiency in the tax, together with interest at the rate of 1 per centum a month from the time the tax became due. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 282, 43 Stat. 302.)

1067. Revenue Act of 1917; consolidated returns of net income and invested capital of affiliated domestic corporations and partnerships.—(a) Title II of the Revenue Act of 1917 (October 3, 1917, chapter 63, Fortieth Statutes, page 300), shall be construed to impose the taxes therein mentioned upon the basis of consolidated returns of net income and invested capital in the case of domestic corporations and domestic partnerships that were affiliated during the calendar year 1917.

(b) For the purpose of this section a corporation or partnership was affiliated with one or more corporations or partnerships (1) when such corporation or partnership owned directly or controlled through closely affiliated interests or by a nominee or nominees all or substantially all the stock of the other or others, or (2) when substantially all the stock of two or more corporations or the business of two or more partnerships was owned by the same interests: Provided, That such corporations or partnerships were engaged in the same or a closely related business, or one corporation or partnership bought from or sold to another corporation or partnership products or services at prices above or below the current market, thus effecting an artificial distribution of profits, or one corporation or partnership in any way so arranged its financial relationships with another corporation or partnership as to assign to it a disproportionate share of net income or invested capital. For the purposes of this section, public service corporations which (1) were operated independently, (2) were not physically connected or merged, and (3) did not receive special permission to make a consolidated return, shall not be construed to have been affiliated; but a railroad or other public utility which was owned by an industrial corporation and was operated as a plant facility or as an integral part of a group organization of affiliated corporations which were required to file a consolidated return shall be construed to have been affiliated.

(c) The provisions of this section are declaratory of the provisions of said Title II of the Revenue Act of 1917. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1331, 42 Stat. 319.)

1068. Tax on personal service corporations where sections of prior law imposing taxes declared invalid; returns; claims for credit or refund of taxes paid; assessment and collection of tax.—(a) If either subdivision (e) of section 218 of the Revenue Act of 1918 or subdivision (d) of section 218 of the Revenue Act of 1921 is by final adjudication declared invalid, there shall, in addition to all other taxes, be levied, collected, and paid on the net income (as defined in section 232 of the Revenue Act of 1921) received during the calendar years 1918, 1919, 1920, and 1921 by every personal service corporation (as defined in section 200 of the Revenue Act of 1921) included within the provisions of such subdivisions a tax equal to the taxes imposed by Titles II and III of the Revenue Act of 1918, and in the case of income received during the calendar year 1921 by Titles II and III of the Revenue Act of 1921.

(b) In such event every such personal service corporation shall, on or before the 15th day of the sixth month following the date of entry of decree upon such final adjudication, make a return of any income received during each of the calendar years 1918, 1919, 1920, and 1921 in the manner prescribed by the Revenue Act of 1918 (or in the manner prescribed by the Revenue Act of 1921 in the case of income received during the calendar year 1921). Such return shall be made and the net income shall be computed on the basis of the taxpayer's annual accounting period (fiscal year or calendar year, as the case may be) in the manner provided for other corporations under the Revenue Acts of 1918 and 1921.

(c) If either subdivision (e) of section 218 of the Revenue Act of 1918 or subdivision (d) of section 218 of the Revenue Act of 1921 is so declared invalid, claims for credit or refund of taxes paid under both such sections shall be allowed, if made within the time provided in subdivision (f) of this section.

(d) In case the claims for credit or refund, filed within six months from such date of entry of decree, represent less than 30 per centum of the outstanding stock or shares in the corporation, the amount of taxes imposed by this section upon such corporation shall be reduced to that proportion thereof which the number of stock or shares owned by the shareholders or members making such claims bears to the total number of stock or shares outstanding.

(e) The tax imposed by this section shall be assessed, collected, and paid upon the same basis, in the same manner, and subject to the same provisions of law, including penalties, as the taxes imposed by sections 230 and 301 of the Revenue Act of 1918 (or by sections 230 and 301 of the Revenue Act of 1921, in the case of income received during the calendar year 1921), but no interest or penalties shall be due or payable thereon for any period prior to the date upon which the return is by this section required to be made and the first installment paid. The amount of tax paid by any shareholder or member of a personal service corporation pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (e) of section 218 of the Revenue Act of 1918 or subdivision (d) of section 218 of the Revenue Act of 1921 shall be credited against the tax due from such corporation under this section upon the joint written application of such corporation and such shareholder or member or his representatives, heirs, or assigns, if such application is filed with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue within six months from such date of entry of decree.

(f) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no claim for a credit or refund of taxes paid under subdivision (e) of section 218 of the Revenue Act of 1918 or subdivision (d) of section 218 of the Revenue Act of 1921 may be filed after the expiration of six months from such date of entry of decree: Provided, however, That a personal service corporation of which no shareholder or member has filed such claim within such period of six months shall not be subject to the tax imposed by this section. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1332, 42 Stat. 319.)

Part I.—ESTATE TAX

Section 1091. Definitions.—When used in Part I of this chapter—

The term "executor" means the executor or administrator of the decedent, or, if there is no executor or administrator appointed, qualified, and acting within the United States, then any person in actual or constructive possession of any property of the decedent;

The term "net estate" means the net estate as determined under the provisions of section 1095 of this title;

The term "month" means calendar month; and

The term "collector" means the collector of internal revenue of the district in which was the domicile of the decedent at the time of his death, or, if there was no such domicile in the United States, then the collector of the district in which is situated the part of the gross estate of the decedent in the United States, or, if such part of the gross estate is situated in more than one district, then the collector of internal revenue of such district as may be designated by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 300, 43 Stat. 303.)

1092. Percentage of tax.—A tax equal to the sum of the following percentages of the value of the net estate (determined as provided in section 1095 of this title) is imposed upon the transfer of the net estate of every decedent dying after 4.01 postmeridian, June 2, 1924, whether a resident or nonresident of the United States:

1 per centum of the amount of the net estate not in excess of $50,000;

2 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $50,000 and does not exceed $100,000;

3 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $100,000 and does not exceed $150,000;

4 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $150,000 and does not exceed $250,000;

6 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $250,000 and does not exceed $450,000;

9 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $450,000 and does not exceed $750,000;

12 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $750,000 and does not exceed $1,000,000;

15 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $1,000,000 and does not exceed $1,500,000;

18 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $1,500,000 and does not exceed $2,000,000;

21 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $2,000,000 and does not exceed $3,000,000;

24 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $3,000,000 and does not exceed $4,000,000;

27 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $4,000,000 and does not exceed $5,000,000;

30 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $5,000,000 and does not exceed $8,000,000;

35 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $8,000,000 and does not exceed $10,000,000;

40 per centum of the amount by which the net estate exceeds $10,000,000. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 301(a), 43 Stat. 303.)

1093. Taxes paid States, Territories, or District of Columbia as credits; limitation.—The tax imposed by section 1092 of this title shall be credited with the amount of any estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes actually paid to any State or Territory or the District of Columbia, in respect of any property included in the gross estate. The credit allowed by this section shall not exceed 25 per centum of the tax imposed by the said section. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 301 (b), 43 Stat. 303.)

1094. Gross estate; value of.—The value of the gross estate of the decedent shall be determined by including the value at the time of his death of all property, real or personal, tangible or intangible, wherever situated—

(a) To the extent of the interest therein of the decedent at the time of his death which after his death is subject to the payment of the charges against his estate and the expenses of its administration and is subject to distribution as part of his estate;

(b) To the extent of any interest therein of the surviving spouse, existing at the time of the decedent's death as dower, curtesy, or by virtue of a statute creating an estate in lieu of dower or curtesy;

(c) To the extent of any interest therein of which the decedent has at any time made a transfer, or with respect to which he has at any time created a trust, in contemplation of or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after his death, except in case of a bona fide sale for a fair consideration in money or money's worth. Any transfer of a material part of his property in the nature of a final disposition or distribution thereof, made by the decedent within two years prior to his death without such a consideration, shall, unless shown to the contrary, be deemed to have been made in contemplation of death within the meaning of Part I of this chapter;

(d) To the extent of any interest therein of which the decedent has at any time made a transfer, or with respect to which he has at any time created a trust, where the enjoyment thereof was subject at the date of his death to any change through the exercise of a power, either by the decedent alone or in conjunction with any person, to alter, amend, or revoke, or where the decedent relinquished any such power in contemplation of his death, except in case of a bona fide sale for a fair consideration in money or money's worth;

(e) To the extent of the interest therein held as joint tenants by the decedent and any other person, or as tenants by the entirety by the decedent and spouse, or deposited, with any person carrying on the banking business, in their joint names and payable to either or the survivor, except such part thereof as may be shown to have originally belonged to such other person and never to have been received or acquired by the latter from the decedent for less than a fair consideration in money or money's worth: Provided, That where such property or any part thereof, or part of the consideration with which such property was acquired, is shown to have been at any time acquired by such other person from the decedent for less than a fair consideration in money or money's worth, there shall be excepted only such part of the value of such property as is proportionate to the consideration furnished by such other person: Provided further, That where any property has been acquired by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance, as a tenancy by the entirety by the decedent and spouse, then to the extent of one-half of the value thereof, or, where so acquired by the decedent and any other person as joint tenants and their interests are not otherwise specified or fixed by law, then to the extent of the value of a fractional part to be determined by dividing the value of the property by the number of joint tenants;

(f) To the extent of any property passing under a general power of appointment exercised by the decedent (1) by will, or (2) by deed executed in contemplation of, or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after, his death, except in case of a bona fide sale for a fair consideration in money or money's worth; and

(g) To the extent of the amount receivable by the executor as insurance under policies taken out by the decedent upon his own life; and to the extent of the excess over $40,000 of the amount receivable by all other beneficiaries as insurance under policies taken out by the decedent upon his own life.

(h) Subdivisions (b), (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g) of this section shall apply to the transfers, trusts, estates, interests, rights, powers, and relinquishment of powers, as severally enumerated and described therein, whether made, created, arising, existing, exercised, or relinquished before or after 4.01 postmeridian June 2, 1924. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 302, 43 Stat. 304.)

1095. Net estate; how determined.—For the purpose of the tax the value of the net estate shall be determined—

(a) Residents; deductions; exemption.—In the case of a resident, by deducting from the value of the gross estate—

(1) Such amounts for funeral expenses, administration expenses, claims against the estate, unpaid mortgages upon, or any indebtedness in respect to, property (except, in the case of a resident decedent, where such property is not situated in the United States), to the extent that such claims, mortgages, or indebtedness were incurred or contracted bona fide and for a fair consideration in money or money's worth, losses incurred during the settlement of the estate arising from fires, storms, shipwreck, or other casualty, or from theft, when such losses are not compensated for by insurance or otherwise, and such amounts reasonably required and actually expended for the support during the settlement of the estate of those dependent upon the decedent, as are allowed by the laws of the jurisdiction, whether within or without the United States, under which the estate is being administered, but not including any income taxes upon income received after the death of the decedent, or any estate, succession, legacy, or inheritance taxes;

(2) An amount equal to the value of any property (A) forming a part of the gross estate situated in the United States of any person who died within five years prior to the death of the decedent, or (B) transferred to the decedent by gift within five years prior to his death, where such property can be identified as having been received by the decedent from such donor by gift or from such prior decedent by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance, or which can be identified as having been acquired in exchange for property so received. This deduction shall be allowed only where a gift tax or an estate tax under this chapter or any prior Act of Congress was paid by or on behalf of the donor or the estate of such prior decedent as the case may be, and only in the amount of the value placed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue on such property in determining the value of the gift or the gross estate of such prior decedent, and only to the extent that the value of such property is included in the decedent's gross estate and not deducted under paragraph (1) or (3) of this subdivision;

(3) The amount of all bequests, legacies, devises, or transfers, except bona fide sales for a fair consideration in money or money's worth, in contemplation of or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after the decedent's death, to or for the use of the United States, any State, Territory, any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, for exclusively public purposes, or to or for the use of any corporation organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, including the encouragement of art and the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual, or to a trustee or trustees, or a fraternal society, order, or association operating under the lodge system, but only if such contributions or gifts are to be used by such trustee or trustees, or by such fraternal society, order, or association, exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals. If the tax imposed by sections 1092 and 1093 of this title, or any estate, succession, legacy, or inheritance taxes, are, either by the terms of the will, by the law of the jurisdiction under which the estate is administered, or by the law of the jurisdiction imposing the particular tax, payable in whole or in part out of the bequests, legacies, or devises otherwise deductible under this paragraph, then the amount deductible under this paragraph shall be the amount of such bequests, legacies, or devises reduced by the amount of such taxes; and

(4) An exemption of $50,000.

(b) Nonresidents.—In the case of a nonresident, by deducting from the value of that part of his gross estate which at the time of his death is situated in the United States—

(1) That proportion of the deductions specified in paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of this section which the value of such part bears to the value of his entire gross estate, wherever situated, but in no case shall the amount so deducted exceed 10 per centum of the value of that part of his gross estate which at the time of his death is situated in the United States;

(2) An amount equal to the value of any property (A) forming a part of the gross estate situated in the United States of any person who died within five years prior to the death of the decedent, or (B) transferred to the decedent by gift within five years prior to his death, where such property can be identified as having been received by the decedent from such donor by gift or from such prior decedent by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance, or which can be identified as having been acquired in exchange for property so received. This deduction shall be allowed only where a gift tax or an estate tax under this chapter or any prior Act of Congress was paid by or on behalf of the donor or the estate of such prior decedent as the case may be, and only in the amount of the value placed by the commissioner on such property in determining the value of the gift or the gross estate of such prior decedent, and only to the extent that the value of such property is included in that part of the decedent's gross estate which at the time of his death is situated in the United States and not deducted under paragraph (1) or (3) of this subdivision; and

(3) The amount of all bequests, legacies, devises, or transfers, except bona fide sales for a fair consideration, in money or money's worth, in contemplation of or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after the decedent's death, to or for the use of the United States, any State, Territory, any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, for exclusively public purposes, or to or for the use of any domestic corporation organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, including the encouragement of art and the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual, or to a trustee or trustees, or a fraternal society, order, or association operating under the lodge system, but only if such contributions or gifts are to be used within the United States by such trustee or trustees, or by such fraternal society, order, or association, exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals. If the tax imposed by sections 1092 and 1093 of this title, or any estate, succession, legacy, or inheritance taxes, are, either by the terms of the will, by the law of the jurisdiction under which the estate is administered, or by the law of the jurisdiction imposing the particular tax, payable in whole or in part out of the bequests, legacies, or devises otherwise deductible under this paragraph, then the amount deductible under this paragraph shall be the amount of such bequests, legacies, or devises reduced by the amount of such taxes.

(4) No deduction shall be allowed in the case of a nonresident unless the executor includes in the return required to be filed under section 1096 of this title, the value at the time of his death of that part of the gross estate of the nonresident not situated in the United States.

(5) For the purpose of Part I of this chapter, stock in a domestic corporation owned and held by a nonresident decedent shall be deemed property within the United States, and any property of which the decedent has made a transfer or with respect to which he has created a trust, within the meaning of subdivision (c) or (d) of section 1094 of this title, shall be deemed to be situated in the United States, if so situated either at the time of the transfer or the creation of the trust, or at the time of the decedent's death.

(6) The amount receivable as insurance upon the life of a nonresident decedent, and any moneys deposited with any person carrying on the banking business, by or for a nonresident decedent who was not engaged in business in the United States at the time of his death, shall not, for the purpose of Part I of this chapter, be deemed property within the United States.

(c) Missionaries dying in foreign service.—Missionaries duly commissioned and serving under boards of foreign missions of the various religious denominations in the United States, dying while in the foreign missionary service of such boards, shall not, by reason merely of their intention to permanently remain in such foreign service, be deemed nonresidents of the United States, but shall be presumed to be residents of the State, the District of Columbia, or the Territories of Alaska or Hawaii wherein they respectively resided at the time of their commission and their departure for such foreign service. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 303, 43 Stat. 305.)

1096. Executors; notice of appointment; returns; time for filing; contents.—(a) The executor, within two months after the decedent's death, or within a like period after qualifying as such, shall give written notice thereof to the collector. The executor shall also, at such times and in such manner as may be required by regulations made pursuant to law, file with the collector a return under oath in duplicate, setting forth (1) the value of the gross estate of the decedent at the time of his death, or, in case of a nonresident, of that part of his gross estate situated in the United States; (2) the deductions allowed under section 1095 of this title; (3) the value of the net estate of the decedent as defined in section 1095 of this title; and (4) the tax paid or payable thereon; or such part of such information as may at the time be ascertainable and such supplemental data as may be necessary to establish the correct tax.

(b) Return shall be made in all cases where the gross estate at the death of the decedent exceeds $50,000, and in the case of the estate of every nonresident any part of whose gross estate is situated in the United States. If the executor is unable to make a complete return as to any part of the gross estate of the decedent, he shall include in his return a description of such part and the name of every person holding a legal or beneficial interest therein, and upon notice from the collector such person shall in like manner make a return as to such part of the gross estate. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 304, 43 Stat. 307.)

1097. Time for payment of tax; to whom payable; extension of time; interest.—(a) The tax imposed by Part I of this chapter shall be due and payable one year after the decedent's death, and shall be paid by the executor to the collector.

(b) Where the Commissioner of Internal Revenue finds that the payment on the due date of any part of the amount determined by the executor as the tax would impose undue hardship upon the estate, the commissioner may extend the time for payment of any such part not to exceed five years from the due date. In such case the amount in respect of which the extension is granted shall be paid on or before the date of the expiration of the period of the extension.

(c) If the time for the payment is thus extended there shall be collected, as a part of such amount, interest thereon at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the expiration of six months after the due date of the tax to the expiration of the period of the extension. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 305, 43 Stat. 308.)

1098. Same; tax imposed by former law; extension of time for payment.—The time for which the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may extend the time for payment of the estate tax imposed by Title IV of the Revenue Act of 1921, chapter 136, 42 Statutes 277, is increased from three years to five years. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 305(d), 43 Stat. 308.)

1099. Examination of return and determination of amount of tax.—As soon as practicable after the return is filed the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall examine it and shall determine the correct amount of the tax. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 306, 43 Stat. 308.)

1100. Deficiency; what constitutes.—As used in Part I of this chapter the term "deficiency" means—

(1) The amount by which the tax imposed by Part I of this chapter exceeds the amount shown as the tax by the executor upon his return; but the amount so shown on the return shall first be increased by the amounts previously assessed (or collected without assessment) as a deficiency, and decreased by the amounts previously abated, refunded, or otherwise repaid in respect of such tax; or

(2) If no amount is shown as the tax by the executor upon his return, or if no return is made by the executor, then the amount by which the tax exceeds the amounts previously assessed (or collected without assessment) as a deficiency; but such amounts previously assessed, or collected without assessment, shall first be decreased by the amounts previously abated, refunded, or otherwise repaid in respect of such tax. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 307, 43 Stat. 308.)

1101. Same; notice of; appeal by executor.—If the commissioner determines that there is a deficiency in respect of the tax imposed by Part I of this chapter, the executor, except as provided in section 1104 of this title, shall be notified of such deficiency by registered mail, but such deficiency shall be assessed only as hereinafter provided. Within sixty days after such notice is mailed the executor may file an appeal with the Board of Tax Appeals established by section 1211. (June 2, 1924, c 234, § 308(a), 43 Stat. 308.)

1102. Same; determination by board; assessment and payment of; collection of deficiency disallowed.—If the board determines that there is a deficiency the amount so determined shall be assessed and shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector. No part of the amount determined as a deficiency by the commissioner but disallowed as such by the board shall be assessed, but a proceeding in court may be begun, without assessment, for the collection of any part of the amount so disallowed. The court shall include in its judgment interest upon the amount thereof at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax to the date of the judgment. Such proceedings shall be begun within one year after the final decision of the board, and may be begun within such year even though the period of limitation prescribed in section 1110 of this title has expired. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 308(b), 43 Stat. 308.)

1103. Same; failure to file appeal; assessment and payment of deficiency.—If the executor does not file an appeal with the board within the time prescribed in section 1101 of this title, the deficiency of which the executor has been notified shall be assessed, and shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 308(c), 43 Stat. 308.)

1104. Same; assessment and collection of deficiency where delay would be dangerous; claims in abatement.—If the Commissioner of Internal Revenue believes that the assessment or collection of a deficiency will be jeopardized by delay, such deficiency shall be assessed immediately and notice and demand shall be made by the collector for the payment thereof. In such case the assessment may be made (1) without giving the notice provided in section 1101 of this title, or (2) before the expiration of the sixty-day period provided in said section even though such notice has been given, or (3) at any time prior to the final decision by the board upon such deficiency even though the executor has filed an appeal. If the executor does not file a claim in abatement as provided in section 1105, the deficiency so assessed (or, if the claim so filed covers only a part of the deficiency, then the amount not covered by the claim) shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 308(d), 43 Stat. 308.)

1105. Same; claim for abatement of decision and appeal; interest on claims denied.—(a) If a deficiency has been assessed under section 1104 of this title, the executor, within thirty days after notice and demand from the collector for the payment thereof, may file with the collector a claim for the abatement of such deficiency, or any part thereof, or of any interest or additional amounts assessed in connection therewith, or of any part of any such interest or additional amounts. Such claim shall be accompanied by a bond, in such amount, not exceeding double the amount of the claim, and with such sureties, as the collector deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of so much of the amount of the claim as is not abated, together with interest thereon as provided in subdivision (c) of this section. Upon the filing of such claim and bond, the collection of so much of the amount assessed as is covered by such claim and bond shall be stayed pending the final disposition of the claim.

(b) If a claim is filed as provided in subdivision (a) of this section the collector shall transmit the claim immediately to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue who shall by registered mail notify the executor of his decision on the claim. The executor may within sixty days after such notice is mailed file an appeal with the Board of Tax Appeals. If the claim is denied in whole or in part by the commissioner (or by the board in case an appeal has been filed) the amount, the claim for which is denied, shall be collected as part of the tax upon notice and demand from the collector, and the amount, the claim for which is allowed, shall be abated. A proceeding in court may be begun for any part of the amount, claim for which is allowed by the board. Such proceeding shall be begun within one year after the final decision of the board, and may be begun within such year even though the period of limitation prescribed in section 1110 of this title has expired.

(c) If the claim in abatement is denied in whole or in part, there shall be collected, at the same time as the part of the claim denied, and as a part of the tax, interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum upon the amount of the claim denied, from the date of notice and demand from the collector under section 1104 of this title to the date of the notice and demand under subdivision (b) of this section. If the amount included in the notice and demand from the collector under subdivision (b) of this section is not paid in full within thirty days after such notice and demand, then there shall be collected, as part of the tax, interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of 1 per centum a month from the date of such notice and demand until it is paid.

(d) Except as provided in this section, no claim in abatement shall be filed in respect of any assessment made after

June 2, 1924, in respect of any estate tax. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 312, 43 Stat. 310.)

1106. Same; interest on.—Interest upon the amount determined as a deficiency shall be assessed at the same time as the deficiency, shall be paid upon notice and demand from the collector, and shall be collected as a part of the tax, at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from the due date of the tax to the date the deficiency is assessed. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 308(e), 43 Stat. 308.)

1107. Same; extension of time for payment of.—Where it is shown to the satisfaction of the commissioner that the payment of a deficiency upon the date prescribed for the payment thereof will result in undue hardship to the estate, the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary (except where the deficiency is due to negligence, to intentional disregard of rules and regulations, or to fraud with intent to evade tax) may grant an extension for the payment of such deficiency or any part thereof for a period not in excess of two years. If an extension is granted, the commissioner may require the executor to furnish a bond in such amount, not exceeding double the amount of the deficiency, and with such sureties, as the commissioner deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of the deficiency in accordance with the terms of the extension. In such case there shall be collected, as a part of the tax, interest on the part of the deficiency the time for payment of which is so extended, at the rate of 6 per centum per annum for the period of the extension, and no other interest shall be collected on such part of the deficiency for such period. If the part of the deficiency the time for payment of which is so extended is not paid in accordance with the terms of the extension, there shall be collected, as a part of the tax, interest on such unpaid amount at the rate of 1 per centum a month for the period from the time fixed by the terms of the extension for its payment until it is paid, and no other interest shall be collected on such unpaid amount for such period. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 308(f), 43 Stat. 308.)

1108. Additional tax for failure to file return assessed, and so forth, as deficiency.—The 50 per centum addition to the tax provided by section 98 of this title shall, when assessed in connection with an estate tax, be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner as if it were a deficiency, except that the provisions of section 1106 shall not be applicable. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 308(g), 43 Stat. 308.)

1109. Interest on unpaid taxes.—(a) (1) Where the amount determined by the executor as the tax imposed by Part I of this chapter, or any part of such amount, is not paid on the due date of the tax, there shall be collected as a part of the tax, interest upon such unpaid amount at the rate of 1 per centum a month from the due date until it is paid.

(2) Where an extension of time for payment of the amount so determined as the tax by the executor has been granted, and the amount the time for payment of which has been extended, and the interest thereon determined under subdivision (c) of section 1097 of this title, is not paid in full prior to the expiration of the period of the extension, then, in lieu of the interest provided for in paragraph (1) of this subdivision, interest at the rate of 1 per centum a month shall be collected on such unpaid amount from the date of the expiration of the period of the extension until it is paid.

(b) Where a deficiency, or any interest assessed in connection therewith under section 1106 of this title, or any addition to the tax provided for in section 98 of this title, is not paid in full within thirty days from the date of notice and demand from the collector, there shall be collected as part of the tax, interest upon the unpaid amount at the rate of 1 per centum a month from the date of such notice and demand until it is paid.

(c) If a claim in abatement is filed, as provided in section 1105 of this title, the provisions of subdivision (b) of this section shall not apply to the amount covered by the claim in abatement. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 309, 43 Stat. 309.)

1110. Time for assessment and collection of tax.—(a) Except as provided in sections 1102 and 1111 of this title and in subdivision (b) of section 1105 of this title, the amount of the estate taxes imposed by Part I of this chapter shall be assessed within four years after the return was filed, and no proceeding in court for the collection of such taxes shall be begun after the expiration of five years after the return was filed.

(b) The period within which an assessment is required to be made by subdivision (a) of this section in respect of any deficiency shall be extended (1) by sixty days if a notice of such deficiency has been mailed to the executor under section 1101 of this title and no appeal has been filed with the Board of Tax Appeals, or (2) if an appeal has been filed, then by the number of days between the date of the mailing of such notice and the date of the final decision by the board. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 310, 43 Stat. 310.)

1111. Same; false or fraudulent returns; time for collection by distraint or court proceeding.—(a) In the case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade tax or of a failure to file a return the tax may be assessed or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time.

(b) Where the assessment of the tax is made within the period prescribed in section 1110 of this title or in this section, such tax may be collected by distraint or by a proceeding in court, begun within six years after the assessment of the tax. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as preventing the beginning, without assessment, of a proceeding in court for the collection of the tax at any time before the expiration of the period within which an assessment may be made.

(c) This section shall not (1) authorize the assessment of a tax or the collection thereof by distraint or by a proceeding in court if on June 2, 1924, such assessment, distraint, or proceeding was barred by the period of limitation then in existence, or (2) affect any assessment made, or distraint or proceeding in court begun, before said date. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 311, 43 Stat. 310.)

1112. Duplicate tax receipts; discharge of executor from personal liability.—(a) The collector shall grant to the person paying the tax duplicate receipts, either of which shall be sufficient evidence of such payment, and shall entitle the executor to be credited and allowed the amount thereof by any court having jurisdiction to audit or settle his accounts.

(b) If the executor makes written application to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for determination of the amount of the tax and discharge from personal liability therefor, the commissioner (as soon as possible, and in any event within one year after the making of such application, or, if the application is made before the return is filed, then within one year after the return is filed, but not after the expiration of the period prescribed for the assessment of the tax in section 1110 of this title) shall notify the executor of the amount of the tax. The executor, upon payment of the amount of which he is notified, shall be discharged from personal liability for any deficiency in tax thereafter found to be due and shall be entitled to a receipt or writing showing such discharge. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 313, 43 Stat. 311.)

1113. Lien for deficiency; liability of bona fide purchaser.—The provisions of subdivision (b) of section 1112 of this title shall not operate as a release of any part of the gross estate from the lien for any deficiency that may thereafter be determined to be due, unless the title to such part of the gross estate has passed to a bona fide purchaser for value, in which case such part shall not be subject to a lien or to any claim or demand for any such deficiency, but the lien shall attach to the consideration received from such purchaser by the heirs, legatees, devisees, or distributees. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 313, 43 Stat. 311.)

1114. Collection of tax; sale of property; reimbursement of person paying tax; liability of insurance beneficiaries.—(a) If the tax herein imposed is not paid on or before the due date thereof the collector shall, upon instruction from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, proceed to collect the tax under the provisions of general law, or commence appropriate proceedings in any court of the United States having jurisdiction, in the name of the United States, to subject the property of the decedent to be sold under the judgment or decree of the court. From the proceeds of such sale the amount of the tax, together with the costs and expenses of every description to be allowed by the court, shall be first paid, and the balance shall be deposited according to the order of the court, to be paid under its direction to the person entitled thereto.

(b) If the tax or any part thereof is paid by, or collected out of that part of the estate passing to or in the possession of, any person other than the executor in his capacity as such, such person shall be entitled to reimbursement out of any part of the estate still undistributed or by a just and equitable contribution by the persons whose interest in the estate of the decedent would have been reduced if the tax had been paid before the distribution of the estate or whose interest is subject to equal or prior liability for the payment of taxes, debts, or other charges against the estate, it being the purpose and intent of this chapter that so far as is practicable and unless otherwise directed by the will of the decedent the tax shall be paid out of the estate before its distribution. If any part of the gross estate consists of proceeds of policies of insurance upon the life of the decedent receivable by a beneficiary other than the executor, the executor shall be entitled to recover from such beneficiary such portion of the total tax paid as the proceeds, in excess of $40,000, of such policies bear to the net estate. If there is more than one such beneficiary the executor shall be entitled to recover from such beneficiaries in the same ratio. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 314, 43 Stat. 311.)

1115. Lien of tax; liability of transferee or trustee of decedent; bona fide purchasers.—(a) Unless the tax is sooner paid in full, it shall be a lien for ten years upon the gross estate of the decedent, except that such part of the gross estate as is used for the payment of charges against the estate and expenses of its administration, allowed by any court having jurisdiction thereof, shall be divested of such lien. If the Commissioner of Internal Revenue is satisfied that the tax liability of an estate has been fully discharged or provided for, he may, under regulations prescribed by him with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, issue his certificate, releasing any or all property of such estate from the lien herein imposed.

(b) If (1) the decedent makes a transfer of, or creates a trust with respect to, any property in contemplation of or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after his death (except in the case of a bona fide sale for a fair consideration in money, or money's worth) or (2) if insurance passes under a contract executed by the decedent in favor of a specific beneficiary, and if in either case the tax in respect thereto is not paid when due, then the transferee, trustee, or beneficiary shall be personally liable for such tax, and such property, to the extent of the decedent's interest therein at the time of such transfer, or to the extent of such beneficiary's interest under such contract of insurance, shall be subject to a like lien equal to the amount of such tax. Any part of such property sold by such transferee or trustee to a bona fide purchaser for a fair consideration in money or money's worth shall be divested of the lien and a like lien shall then attach to all the property of such transferee or trustee, except any part sold to a bona fide purchaser for a fair consideration in money or money's worth. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 315, 43 Stat. 312.)

1116. False statements; penalty; failure to make return or disclose information; penalty.—(a) Whoever knowingly makes any false statement in any notice or return required to be filed under Part I of this chapter shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding $5,000, or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both.

(b) Whoever fails to comply with any duty imposed upon him by section 1096 of this title, or, having in his possession or control any record, file, or paper, containing or supposed to contain any information concerning the estate of the decedent, or, having in his possession or control any property comprised in the gross estate of the decedent, fails to exhibit the same upon request to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue or any collector or law officer of the United States or his duly authorized deputy or agent, who desires to examine the same in the performance of his duties under Part I of this chapter, shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding $500, to be recovered, with costs of suit, in a civil action in the name of the United States. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 317, 43 Stat. 313.)

1117. Estates in China; payment of tax to clerk of United States Court for China.—(a) The term "resident" as used in this chapter includes a citizen of the United States with respect to whose property any probate or administration proceedings are had in the United States Court for China. Where no part of the gross estate of such decedent is situated in the United States at the time of his death, the total amount of tax due under Part I of this chapter shall be paid to or collected by the clerk of such court, but where any part of the gross estate of such decedent is situated in the United States at the time of his death, the tax due under Part I of this chapter shall be paid to or collected by the collector of the district in which is situated the part of the gross estate in the United States, or, if such part is situated in more than one district, then the collector of such district as may be designated by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

(b) For the purpose of this section the clerk of the United States Court for China shall be a collector for the territorial jurisdiction of such court, and taxes shall be collected by and paid to him in the same manner and subject to the same provisions of law, including penalties, as the taxes collected by and paid to a collector in the United States. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 318, 43 Stat. 313.)

1118. Assessment and collection of tax under prior laws.—If after June 2, 1924, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue determines that any assessment should be made in respect of any estate tax imposed by prior laws, the amount which should be assessed (whether as deficiency or additional tax or as interest, penalty, or other addition to the tax) shall be computed as if this chapter had not been enacted, but the amount so computed shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and limitations (including the provisions in case of delinquency in payment after notice and demand) as in the case of the taxes imposed by Part I of this chapter, except that the period of limitation prescribed in sections 105 to 108 of this title, shall be applied in lieu of the period prescribed in subdivision (a) of section 1110 of this title. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 316, 43 Stat. 312.)

Part II.—GIFT TAX

Section 1131. Gifts subject to tax; percentage.—A tax equal to the sum of the following shall be hereby imposed upon the transfer by a resident by gift during any calendar year of any property wherever situated, whether made directly or indirectly, and upon the transfer by a nonresident by gift during such calendar year of any property situated within the United States, whether made directly or indirectly:

1 per centum of the amount of the taxable gifts not in excess of $50,000;

2 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $50,000 and do not exceed $100,000;

3 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $100,000 and do not exceed $150,000;

4 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $150,000 and do not exceed $250,000;

6 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $250,000 and do not exceed $450,000;

9 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $450,000 and do not exceed $750,000;

12 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $750,000 and do not exceed $1,000,000;

15 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $1,000,000 and do not exceed $1,500,000;

18 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $1,500,000 and do not exceed $2,000,000;

21 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $2,000,000 and do not exceed $3,000,000;

24 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $3,000,000 and do not exceed $4,000,000;

27 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $4,000,000 and do not exceed $5,000,000;

30 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $5,000,000 and do not exceed $8,000,000;

35 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $8,000,000 and do not exceed $10,000,000;

40 per centum of the amount by which the taxable gifts exceed $10,000,000. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 319, 43 Stat. 313.)

1132. Same; value of gift; property sold or exchanged.—If the gift is made in property, the fair market value thereof at the date of the gift shall be considered the amount of the gift. Where property is sold or exchanged for less than a fair consideration in money or money's worth, then the amount by which the fair market value of the property exceeded the consideration received shall, for the purpose of the tax imposed by section 1131 of this title, be deemed a gift, and shall be included in computing the amount of gifts made during the calendar year. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 320, 43 Stat. 314.)

1133. Exemption and deductions.—In computing the amount of the gifts subject to the tax imposed by section 1131 of this title there shall be allowed as deductions:

(a) Residents.—In the case of a resident—

(1) An exemption of $50,000;

(2) The amount of all gifts or contributions made within the calendar year to or for the use of the United States, any State, Territory, any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, for exclusively public purposes, or to or for the use of any corporation organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, including the encouragement of art and the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual, or to a trustee or trustees, or fraternal society, order, or association, operating under the lodge system, but only if such gifts or contributions are to be used by such trustee or trustees or by such fraternal society, order, or association, exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, and the amount of all gifts or contributions made within the calendar year by such corporation, trustee, or fraternal society, order, or association for a religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purpose, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, and the amount of all gifts or contributions made within the calendar year to the special fund for vocational rehabilitation authorized by section 440 of Title 38;

(3) Gifts the aggregate amount of which to any one person does not exceed $500;

(4) An amount equal to the value of any property transferred by gift within the calendar year, which can be identified (A) as having been received by the donor within five years prior to the time of his making such gift, either from another person by gift or from a decedent by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance, or (B) as having been acquired in exchange for property so received. This deduction shall be allowed only where a gift tax or an estate tax under this chapter or any prior Act of Congress was paid by or on behalf of the donor or the estate of such decedent, as the case may be, and only in the amount of the value placed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue on such property in determining the value of the gift or the gross estate of such decedent, and only to the extent that the value of such property is included in the total amount of gifts made within the calendar year and not deducted under paragraph (2) or (3) of this subdivision.

(b) Nonresidents.—In the case of a nonresident—

(1) The amount of all gifts or contributions made within the calendar year to or for the use of the United States, any State, Territory, any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia, for exclusively public purposes, or to or for the use of any domestic corporation organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, including the encouragement of art and the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual, or to a trustee or trustees, or fraternal society, order, or association, operating under the lodge system, but only if such gifts or contributions are to be used within the United States by such trustee or trustees or by such fraternal society, order, or association, exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, and the amount of all gifts or contributions made within the calendar year by such corporation, trustee, or fraternal society, order, or association for a religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purpose, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, and the amount of all gifts or contributions made within the calendar year to the special fund for vocational rehabilitation authorized by section 440 of Title 38;

(2) Gifts the aggregate amount of which to any one person does not exceed $500;

(3) An amount equal to the value of any property situated in the United States transferred by gift within the calendar year, which can be identified (A) as having been received by the donor within five years prior to the time of his making such gift, either from another person by gift or from a decedent by gift, bequest, devise, or inheritance, or (B) as having been acquired in exchange for property so received. This deduction shall be allowed only where a gift tax or an estate tax under this chapter or any prior Act of Congress was paid by or on behalf of the donor or the estate of such decedent, as the case may be, and only in the amount of the value placed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue on such property in determining the value of the gift or the gross estate of such decedent, and only to the extent that the value of such property is included within the total amount of gifts made within the calendar year of property situated in the United States and not deducted under paragraph (1) or (2) of this subdivision. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 321, 43 Stat. 314.)

1134. Credits.—In case a tax has been imposed under section 1131 of this title upon any gift, and thereafter upon the death of the donor the amount thereof is required by any provision of Part I of this chapter to be included in the gross estate of the decedent then there shall be credited against and applied in reduction of the estate tax, which would otherwise be chargeable against the estate of the decedent under the provisions of section 1092 of this title, an amount equal to the tax paid, with respect to such gift; and in the event the donor has in any year paid the tax imposed by section 1131 of this title with respect to a gift or gifts which upon the death of the donor must be included in his gross estate and a gift or gifts not required to be so included, then the amount of the tax which shall be deemed to have been paid with respect to the gift or gifts required to be so included shall be that proportion of the entire tax paid on account of all such gifts which the amount of the gift or gifts required to be so included bears to the total amount of gifts in that year. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 322, 43 Stat. 315.)

1135. Returns.—Any person who within any calendar year makes any gift or gifts in excess of the deductions allowed by section 1133 of this title shall, on or before the 15th day of March, file with the collector a return under oath in duplicate, listing and setting forth therein all gifts and contributions made by him during such calendar year (other than the gifts specified in paragraph (8) of subdivision (a) and in paragraph (2) of subdivision (b) of section 1133 of this title), and the fair market value thereof when made, and also all sales and exchanges of property owned by him made within such year for less than a fair consideration in money or money's worth, stating therein the fair market value of the property so sold or exchanged and that of the consideration received by him, both as of the date of such sale or exchange. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 323, 43 Stat. 316.)

1136. Assessment; collection; payment.—The tax imposed by section 1131 of this title shall be paid by the donor on or before the 15th day of March, and shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner and subject, in so far as applicable, to the same provisions of law as the tax imposed by section 1092. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 324, 43 Stat. 316.)

1194. Same; application for remission and return of proceeds of sale; distribution.
1195. Search warrants.
1196. Purchasing for Government goods subject to tax.

Section 1161. Drawback; fraudulent claims of.—Whenever any person fraudulently claims or seeks to obtain an allowance of drawback on goods, wares, or merchandise on which no internal duty shall have been paid, or fraudulently claims any greater allowance of drawback than the tax actually paid, he shall forfeit triple the amount wrongfully or fraudulently claimed or sought to be obtained, or the sum of $500, at the election of the Secretary of the Treasury. (R. S. § 3443.)

1162. Same; articles shipped to Philippines.—All articles subject under the laws of the United States to internal-revenue tax, or on which the internal-revenue tax has been paid, and which may under existing laws and regulations be exported to a foreign country without the payment of such tax, or with benefit of drawback, as the case may be, may also be shipped to the Philippine Islands with like privilege, under such regulations and the filing of such bonds, bills of lading, and other security as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, prescribe. (Mar. 8, 1902, c. 140, § 6, 32 Stat. 55; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 164, 38 Stat. 1189.)

1163. Exemption of articles going into Porto Rico.—Articles, goods, wares, or merchandise going into Porto Rico from the United States shall be exempted from the payment of any tax imposed by the internal revenue laws of the United States. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 302, 42 Stat. 935.)

1164. Same; allowances of drawback.—All provisions of law for the allowance of drawback of internal-revenue tax on articles exported from the United States are, so far as applicable, extended to like articles upon which an internal-revenue tax has been paid when shipped from the United States to the Island of Porto Rico. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 164, 38 Stat. 1189.)

1164a. Tax on articles of Porto Rican manufacture coming into United States and vice versa.—Articles of merchandise of Porto Rican manufacture coming into the United States may be withdrawn for consumption or sale upon payment of a tax equal to the internal-revenue tax imposed in the United States upon the like articles of merchandise of domestic manufacture; such tax to be paid by internal-revenue stamp or stamps to be purchased and provided by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and to be procured from the collector of internal revenue at or most convenient to the port of entry of said merchandise in the United States, and to be affixed under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe; and on all articles of merchandise of United States manufacture coming into Porto Rico there shall be a tax equal in rate and amount to the internal-revenue tax imposed in Porto Rico upon the like articles of Porto Rican manufacture. (Apr. 12, 1900, c. 191, § 3, 31 Stat. 77.)

1164b. Same; deputy collector; bond.—All United States internal-revenue taxes imposed by law on articles of Porto Rican manufacture coming into the United States for consumption or sale may be paid by affixing to such articles before shipment thereof a proper United States internal-revenue stamp denoting such payment, and for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this section the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to grant to such collector of internal revenue as may be recommended by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and approved by the Secretary, an allowance for the salary and expenses of a deputy collector of internal revenue, to be stationed at San Juan, Porto Rico, and the appointment of this deputy to be approved by the Secretary.

The collector will place in the hands of such deputy all stamps necessary for the payment of the proper tax on articles produced in Porto Rico and shipped to the United States, and the said deputy, upon proper payment made for said stamps, shall issue them to manufacturers in Porto Rico. All such stamps so issued or transferred to said deputy collector shall be charged to the collector and be accounted for by him as in the case of other tax-paid stamps.

The deputy collector assigned to this duty shall perform such other work in connection with the inspection and stamping of such articles, and shall make such returns as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may, by regulations approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, direct, and all provisions of law relative to the appointment, duties, and compensation of deputy collectors of internal revenue, including office rent and other necessary expenses, shall, so far as applicable, apply to the deputy collector of internal revenue assigned to duty under the provisions of this chapter. Before entering upon the duties of his office such deputy collector shall execute a bond, payable to the collector of internal revenue appointing him, in such amount and with such sureties as he may determine. (June 29, 1906, c. 3613, §§ 1, 2, 34 Stat. 620, 621.)

1164c. Taxes in Porto Rico covered into the island treasury.—All taxes collected under the internal-revenue laws of the United States on articles produced in Porto Rico and transported to the United States, or consumed in the island shall be covered into the treasury of Porto Rico. (Mar. 2, 1917, c. 145, § 9, 39 Stat. 954.)

1165. Tax on imports from and into Virgin Islands.—There shall be levied, collected, and paid in the United States, upon articles coming into the United States from the Virgin Islands, a tax equal to the internal-revenue tax imposed in the United States upon like articles of domestic manufacture; such articles shipped from such islands to the United States shall be exempt from the payment of any tax imposed by the internal-revenue laws of such islands: Provided, That there shall be levied, collected, and paid in such islands, upon articles imported from the United States, a tax equal to the internal-revenue tax imposed in such islands upon like articles there manufactured; and such articles going into such islands from the United States shall be exempt from payment of any tax imposed by the internal-revenue laws of the United States. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1304, 40 Stat. 1142.)

1166. Tax upon articles coming from or imported into Philippine Islands.—There shall be levied, collected, and paid in the United States, upon articles, goods, wares, or merchandise coming into the United States from the Philippine Islands a tax equal to the internal-revenue tax imposed in the United States upon the like articles, goods, wares, or merchandise of domestic manufacture; such tax to be paid by internal-revenue stamp or stamps, to be provided by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and to be affixed in such manner and under such regulations as he, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe; and such articles, goods, wares, or merchandise shipped from said islands to the United States shall be exempt from the payment of any tax imposed by the internal-revenue laws of the Philippine Islands. There shall be levied, collected, and paid in the Philippine Islands, upon articles, goods, wares, or merchandise going into the Philippine Islands from the United States a tax equal to the internal-revenue tax imposed in the Philippine Islands upon the like articles, goods, wares, or merchandise of Philippine Islands manufacture; such tax to be paid by internal-revenue stamps or otherwise as provided by the laws in the Philippine Islands; and such articles, goods, wares, or merchandise going into the Philippine Islands from the United States shall be exempt from the payment of any tax imposed by the internal revenue laws of the United States. In addition to the customs taxes imposed in the Philippine Islands, there shall be levied, collected, and paid therein upon articles, goods, wares, or merchandise imported into the Philippine Islands from countries other than the United States the internal-revenue tax imposed by the Philippine Government on like articles manufactured and consumed in the Philippine Islands or shipped thereto for consumption therein from the United States. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 301, 42 Stat. 934.)

1167. Same; collections to be paid into insular treasury.—All internal revenues collected in or for account of the Philippine Islands shall accrue intact to the general government thereof and be paid into the insular treasury. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title III, § 301, 42 Stat. 934.)

1168. Articles intended for exportation to be manufactured in bonded warehouses.—All medicines, preparations, compositions, perfumery, cosmetics, cordials, and other liquors manufactured wholly or in part of domestic spirits, intended for exportation, as provided by law, in order to be manufactured and sold or removed, without being charged with duty, and without having a stamp affixed thereto, shall, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, be made and manufactured in warehouses similarly constructed to those known and designated in Treasury regulations as bonded warehouses, class 2: Provided, That such manufacturer shall first give satisfactory bonds to the collector of internal revenue for the faithful observance of all the provisions of law and the regulations as aforesaid, in amount not less than half of that required by the regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury from persons allowed bonded warehouses. Such goods, when manufactured in such warehouses, may be removed for exportation under the direction of the proper officer having charge thereof, who shall be designated by the Secretary of the Treasury, without being charged with duty, and without having a stamp affixed thereto. Any manufacturer of the articles aforesaid, or of any of them, having such bonded warehouse as aforesaid, shall be at liberty, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, to convey therein any materials to be used in such manufacture which are allowed by the provisions of law to be exported free from tax or duty, as well as the necessary materials, implements, packages, vessels, brands, and labels for the preparation, putting up, and export of the said manufactured articles; and every article so used shall be exempt from the payment of stamp and excise duty by such manufacturer. Articles and materials so to be used may be transferred from any bonded warehouse in which the same may be, under such regulation as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, into any bonded warehouse in which such manufacture may be conducted, and may be used in such manufacture, and when so used shall be exempt from stamp and excise duty; and the receipt of the officer in charge as aforesaid shall be received as a voucher for the manufacture of such articles. Any materials imported into the United States may, under such rules as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, and under the direction of the proper officer, be removed in original packages from on shipboard, or from the bonded warehouse in which the same may be, into the bonded warehouse in which such manufacture may be carried on, for the purpose of being used in such manufacture, without payment of duties thereon, and may there be used in such manufacture. No article so removed, nor any article manufactured in said bonded warehouse, shall be taken therefrom except for exportation, under the direction of the proper officer having charge thereof, as aforesaid, whose certificate, describing the articles by their mark or otherwise, the quantity, the date of importation, and name of vessel, with such additional particulars as may from time to time be required, shall be received by the collector of customs in cancellation of the bonds or return of the amount of foreign import duties. All labor performed and services rendered under these regulations shall be under the supervision of an officer of the customs, and at the expense of the manufacturer. (Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1244, § 10, 26 Stat. 614.)

1169. Removal in bond to Pacific coast for export.—Any article manufactured in a bonded warehouse established under section 1168 of this title, and situated in any of the Atlantic States, may be removed therefrom for transportation to a customs bonded warehouse at any port on the Pacific coast of the United States, for the purpose only of being exported therefrom, under such regulations and upon the execution of such bonds or other security as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. (R. S. § 3434.)

1170. Altering form and device of internal-revenue stamps or labels; cancellation.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may establish and, from time to time, alter or change the form, style, character, material, and device of any stamp, mark, or label used under any provision of the laws relating to internal revenue. Such stamps shall be attached, protected, removed, canceled, obliterated, and destroyed, in such manner and by such instruments or other means as he, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe; and he is authorized and empowered to make, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, all needful regulations relating thereto; and all pains, penalties, fines, and forfeitures provided by law relating to internal-revenue stamps shall apply to and have full force and effect in relation to any and all stamps which may or shall be so established by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue: Provided, Such stamps or device or instrument or means of removal or obliteration, shall entail no additional expense upon the persons required to affix or use the same. (R. S. § 3446; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 18, 20 Stat. 351.)

1171. Furnishing instruments for attaching and canceling.—Instruments or other means for attaching, protecting, and canceling stamps, for tobacco, snuff, cigars, distilled spirits, and fermented liquors, or either of them, shall be furnished by the United States to the persons using the stamps to be affixed therewith, under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe. (R. S. § 3445; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 18, 20 Stat. 351.)

1172. Same; cancellation of stamps by perforation.—In lieu of or in addition to other requirements of law in that respect all stamps used for denoting the tax upon fermented liquors or other taxes may, in the discretion of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, be canceled by perforations to be made in such manner and form as the commissioner may, by regulations, prescribe. (June 13, 1898, c. 448, § 1, 30 Stat. 448; Mar. 2, 1901, c. 806, § 1, 31 Stat. 938; Apr. 12, 1902, c. 500, § 1, 32 Stat. 96.)

1173. Transmission of stamps to internal-revenue officers.—The transmission of internal-revenue stamps to the officers of the Internal Revenue Service shall be made through the mails of the United States in registered packages. (Aug. 15, 1876, c. 287, § 1, 19 Stat. 152.)

1174. Redemption of spoiled stamps; limitation of claims.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, subject to regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, may, upon receipt of satisfactory evidence of the facts, make allowance for or redeem such of the stamps, issued under authority of law, to denote the payment of any internal-revenue tax, as may have been spoiled, destroyed, or rendered useless or unfit for the purpose intended, or for which the owner may have no use, or which through mistake may have been improperly or unnecessarily used, or where the rates or duties represented thereby have been excessive in amount, paid in error, or in any manner wrongfully collected. Such allowance or redemption may be made, either by giving other stamps in lieu of the stamps so allowed for or redeemed, or by refunding the amount or value to the owner thereof, deducting therefrom, in case of repayment, the percentage, if any, allowed to the purchaser thereof; but no allowance or redemption shall be made in any case until the stamps so spoiled or rendered useless shall have been returned to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, or until satisfactory proof has been made showing the reason why the same can not be returned; or, if so required by the said commissioner, when the person presenting the same can not satisfactorily trace the history of said stamps from their issuance to the presentation of his claim as aforesaid. No claim for the redemption of or allowance for stamps shall be allowed unless presented within four years after the purchase of said stamps from the Government. (May 12, 1900, c. 393, § 1, 31 Stat. 177; June 30, 1902, c. 1327, 32 Stat. 506; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1013 (a), 43 Stat. 343.)

1175. Same; decision of commissioner final.—The finding of facts in and the decision of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue upon the merits of any claim presented under or authorized by section 1174 of this title shall, in the absence of fraud or mistake in mathematical calculation, be final and not subject to revision by any accounting officer. (May 12, 1900, c. 393, § 2, 31 Stat. 178.)

1176. Assessment of tax on articles sold without stamps; collection.—Whenever any article upon which a tax is required to be paid by means of a stamp is sold or removed for sale by the manufacturer thereof, without the use of the proper stamp, in addition to the penalties otherwise imposed by law for such sale or removal, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, within a period of not more than two years after such removal or sale, upon such information as he can obtain, to estimate the amount of the tax which has been omitted to be paid, and to make an assessment therefor upon the manufacturer or producer of such article. He shall certify such assessment to the collector, who shall immediately demand payment of such tax, and upon the neglect or refusal of payment by such manufacturer or producer, shall proceed to collect the same in the manner provided for the collection of other assessed taxes. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 47, 28 Stat. 562.)

1177. Restamping when stamp lost or destroyed.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue may, under regulations prescribed by him with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, issue stamps for restamping packages of distilled spirits, tobacco, cigars, snuff, cigarettes, fermented liquors, and wines which have been duly stamped but from which the stamps have been lost or destroyed by unavoidable accident. (R. S. § 3315; Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 5, 20 Stat. 338; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1315, 40 Stat. 1145; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1330, 42 Stat. 319; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1027, 43 Stat. 349.)

1178. Internal-revenue laws coextensive with jurisdiction of United States.—The internal-revenue laws imposing taxes on distilled spirits, fermented liquors, tobacco, snuff, and cigars shall be held to extend to such articles produced anywhere within the exterior boundaries of the United States, whether the same be within a collection district or not. (R. S. § 3448.)

1179. Removing liquors or wines under other than trade-names.—Whenever any person ships, transports, or removes any spirituous or fermented liquors or wines, under any other than the proper name or brand known to the trade as designating the kind and quality of the contents of the casks or packages containing the same, or causes such act to be done, he shall forfeit said liquors or wines, and casks or packages, and be subject to pay a fine of $500. (R. S. § 3449.)

1180. Forging, counterfeiting, or fraudulently using or selling stamps.—If any person shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, any stamp, die, plate, or other instrument, or any part of any stamp, die, plate, or other instrument which shall have been provided or may hereafter be provided, made, or used in pursuance of the provisions of this title or shall forge, counterfeit, or resemble, or cause or procure to be forged, counterfeited, or resembled the impression or any part of the impression of any such stamp, die, plate, or other instrument, as aforesaid, upon any paper, or shall stamp or mark or cause or procure to be stamped or marked any paper with any such forged or counterfeited stamp, die, plate, or other instrument or part of any stamp, die, plate, or other instrument, as aforesaid, with intent to defraud the United States of any of the taxes imposed by the title or any part thereof; or if any person shall utter, or sell, or expose to sale any paper, article, or thing having thereupon the impression of any such counterfeited stamp, die, plate, or other instrument, or any part of any stamp, die, plate, or other instrument, or any such forged, counterfeited, or resembled impression, or part of impression, as aforesaid, knowing the same to be forged, counterfeited, or resembled; or if any person shall knowingly use or permit the use of any stamp, die, plate, or other instrument which shall have been so provided, made, or used, as aforesaid, with intent to defraud the United States; or if any person shall fraudulently cut, tear, or remove, or cause or procure to be cut, torn, or removed, the impression of any stamp, die, plate, or other instrument, which shall have been provided, made, or used in pursuance of any provisions of this title from any paper, or any instrument or writing charged or chargeable with any of the taxes imposed by law; or if any person shall fraudulently use, join, fix, or place, or cause to be used, joined, fixed, or placed, to, with, or upon any paper, or any instrument or writing charged or chargeable with any of the taxes hereby imposed, any adhesive stamp, or the impression of any stamp, die, plate, or other instrument, which shall have been provided, made, or used in pursuance of law, and which shall have been cut, torn, or removed from any other paper or any instrument or writing charged or chargeable with any of the taxes imposed by law; or if any person shall willfully remove or cause to be removed, alter or cause to be altered, the canceling or defacing marks on any adhesive stamp, with intent to use the same, or to cause the use of the same, after it shall have been once used, or shall knowingly or willfully sell or buy such washed or restored stamps or offer the same for sale, or give or expose the same to any person for use, or knowingly use the same, or prepare the same with intent for the further use thereof; or if any person shall knowingly and without lawful excuse (the proof whereof shall lie on the person accused) have in his possession any washed, restored, or altered stamps, which have been removed from any article, paper, instrument, or writing, then, and in every such case, every person so offending, and every person knowingly and willfully aiding, abetting, or assisting in committing any such offense as aforesaid, shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit the said counterfeit, washed, restored, or altered stamps and the articles upon which they are placed and be punished by fine not exceeding $1,000, or by imprisonment and confinement to hard labor not exceeding five years, or both, at the discretion of the court. And the fact that any adhesive stamp so bought, sold, offered for sale, used, or had in possession as aforesaid, has been washed or restored by removing or altering the canceling or defacing marks thereon, shall be prima facie proof that such stamp has been once used and removed by the possessor thereof from some paper, instrument, or writing charged with taxes imposed by law, in violation of the provisions of this section. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 42, 28 Stat. 561.)

1181. Removing or concealing articles with intent to defraud United States.—Whenever any goods or commodities for or in respect whereof any tax is or shall be imposed, or any materials, utensils, or vessels proper or intended to be made use of for or in the making of such goods or commodities are removed, or are deposited or concealed in any place, with intent to defraud the United States of such tax, or any part therof, all such goods and commodities, and all such materials, utensils, and vessels, respectively, shall be forfeited; and in every such case all the casks, vessels, cases, or other packages whatsoever, containing, or which shall have contained, such goods or commodities, respectively, and every vessel, boat, cart, carriage, or other conveyance whatsoever, and all horses or other animals, and all things used in the removal or for the deposit or concealment thereof, respectively, shall be forfeited. And every person who removes, deposits, or conceals, or is concerned in removing, depositing, or concealing any goods or commodities for or in respect whereof any tax is or shall be imposed, with intent to defraud the United States of such tax or any part thereof, shall be liable to a fine or penalty of not more than $500. (R. S. § 3450.)

1182. Sale of forfeited implements; disposal of proceeds; disposal of forfeited liquor.—All boilers, stills, or other vessels, tools and implements, used in distilling or rectifying and forfeited under any of the provisions of this title, and all condemned material, together with any engine or other machinery connected therewith, and all empty barrels, and all grain or other material, suitable for distillation shall, under the direction of the court in which the forfeiture is recovered be sold at public auction, and the proceeds thereof, after deducting the expenses of sale, shall be disposed of according to law. And all spirits or spirituous liquors, which may be forfeited under the provisions of this title, unless herein otherwise provided, shall be disposed of by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue as the Secretary of the Treasury may direct. (R. S. § 3450.)

1183. Fraudulently executing required documents.—Every person who simulates or falsely or fraudulently executes or signs any bond, permit, entry, or other document required by the provisions of the internal-revenue laws, or by any regulation made in pursuance thereof, or who procures the same to be falsely or fraudulently executed, or who advises, aids in, or connives at such execution thereof, shall be imprisoned for a term not less than one year nor more than five years; and the property to which such false or fraudulent instrument relates shall be forfeited. (R. S. § 3451.)

1184. Possession of property with intent to sell in fraud of law, or to evade taxes.—Every person who shall have in his custody or possession any goods, wares, merchandise, articles, or objects on which taxes are imposed by law, for the purpose of selling the same in fraud of the internal-revenue laws, or with design to avoid payment of the taxes imposed thereon, shall be liable to a penalty of $500 or not less than double the amount of taxes fraudulently attempted to be evaded. (R. S. § 3452.)

1185. Same; seizure.—All goods, wares, merchandise, articles, or objects, on which taxes are imposed, which shall be found in the possession, or custody, or within the control of any person, for the purpose of being sold or removed by him in fraud of the internal-revenue laws, or with design to avoid payment of said taxes, may be seized by the collector or deputy collector of the proper district, or by such other collector or deputy collector as may be specially authorized by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for that purpose, and shall be forfeited to the United States. And all raw materials found in the possession of any person intending to manufacture the same into articles of a kind subject to tax for the purpose of fraudulently selling such manufactured articles, or with design to evade the payment of said tax; and all tools, implements, instruments, and personal property whatsoever, in the place or building, or within any yard or inclosure where such articles or raw materials are found, may also be seized by any collector or deputy collector, as aforesaid, and shall be forfeited as aforesaid. The proceedings to enforce such forfeitures shall be in the nature of a proceeding in rem in the district court of the United States for the district where such seizure is made. (R. S. § 3453.)

1186. Sales to evade tax; forfeiture; recovery.—Whenever any person who is liable to pay any tax upon any goods, wares, or merchandise, sells or causes or allows the same to be sold before the tax is paid to which said property is liable, with intent to avoid such tax, or in fraud of the internal revenue laws, any debt contracted in such sale, and any security given therefor, unless the same shall have been bona fide transferred to an innocent holder, shall be void, and the collection thereof shall not be enforced in any court. And if such goods, wares, or merchandise have been paid for, in whole or in part, the sum so paid shall be deemed forfeited, and any person who shall sue for the same in an action of debt shall recover from the seller the amount so paid, one half to his own use and the other half to the use of the United States. (R. S. § 3454.)

1187. False statements as to tax in connection with sales or leases; penalty.—Whoever in connection with the sale or lease, or offer for sale or lease, of any article, or for the purpose of making such sale or lease, makes any statement, written or oral, (1) intended or calculated to lead any person to believe that any part of the price at which such article is sold or leased, or offered for sale or lease, consists of a tax imposed under the authority of the United States, or (2) ascribing a particular part of such price to a tax imposed under the authority of the United States, knowing that such statement is false or that the tax is not so great as the portion of such price ascribed to such tax, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1026, 43 Stat. 348.)

1188. Disposing of or receiving empty stamped packages.—Whenever any person sells, gives, purchases, or receives any box, barrel, bag, vessel, package, wrapper, cover, or envelope of any kind, stamped, branded, or marked in any way so as to show that the contents or intended contents thereof have been duly inspected, or that the tax thereon has been paid, or that any provision of the internal revenue laws has been complied with, whether such stamping, branding, or marking may have been a duly authorized act or may be false and counterfeit, or otherwise without authority of law, said box, barrel, bag, vessel, package, wrapper, cover, or envelope being empty, or containing anything else than the contents which were therein when said articles had been so lawfully stamped, branded, or marked by an officer of the revenue, he shall be liable to a penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $500. And every person who makes, manufactures, or produces any box, barrel, bag, vessel, package, wrapper, cover, or envelope, stamped, branded, or marked, as above described, or stamps, brands, or marks the same, as hereinbefore recited, shall be liable to penalty as before provided in this section. And every person who violates the foregoing provisions of this section, with intent to defraud the revenue, or to defraud any person, shall be liable to a fine of not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, or to imprisonment for not less than six months nor more than five years, or to both, at the discretion of the court. And all articles sold, given, purchased, received, made, manufactured, produced, branded, stamped, or marked in violation of the provisions of this section, and all their contents, shall be forfeited to the United States. (R. S. § 3455.)

1189. Distillers, rectifiers, wholesale liquor dealers, and so forth; violations of law; penalties and forfeitures.—If any distiller, rectifier, wholesale liquor dealer, or manufacturer of tobacco or cigars, shall knowingly or willfully omit, neglect, or refuse to do or cause to be done any of the things required by law in the carrying on or conducting of his business, or shall do anything by this title prohibited, if there be no specific penalty or punishment imposed by any other section of this title for the neglecting, omitting or refusing to do, or for the doing or causing to be done the thing required or prohibited, he shall pay a penalty of $1,000; and if the person so offending be a distiller, rectifier, or wholesale liquor dealer, all distilled spirits or liquors owned by him or in which he has any interest as owner, and if he be a manufacturer of tobacco or cigars, all tobacco or cigars found in his manufactory shall be forfeited to the United States. (R. S. § 3456; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 249.)

1190. Package included in forfeiture of goods.—In every case where any goods or commodities are forfeited under any internal-revenue law, all casks, vessels, cases, or other packages whatsoever, containing, or which shall have contained such goods or commodities, respectively, shall be forfeited. (R. S. § 3457.)

1191. Seizure of goods; delivery to marshal; affixing stamps, brands, and so forth, to unstamped articles on sale.—Any goods, wares, merchandise, articles, or objects which may be seized, under the provisions of section 1185 of this title by any collector or deputy collector, may, at the option of the collector, be delivered to the marshal of the district, and remain in the care and custody and under the control of said marshal, until he shall obtain possession by process of law. And the cost of seizure made before process issues shall be taxable by the court. And where any whisky or tobacco, or other article of manufacture or produce, requiring brands, stamps or marks of whatever kind to be placed thereon, shall be sold upon distraint, forfeiture, or other process provided by law, the same not having been branded, stamped, or marked, as required by law, the officers selling the same shall, upon sale thereof, fix or cause to be affixed the brands, stamps, or marks, so required, and deduct the expense thereof from the proceeds of such sale. (R. S. § 3458.)

1192. Same; bailing; sale for want of bail.—When any property which is seized under the foregoing provisions of section 1185 of this title is liable to perish or become greatly reduced in price or value by keeping, or when it can not be kept without great expense, the owner thereof, or the marshal of the district, may apply to the collector of the district to examine it; and if, in the opinion of the said collector, it shall be necessary that the said property should be sold to prevent such waste or expense, he shall appraise the same; and thereupon the owner shall have said property returned to him upon giving bond in such form as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and in an amount equal to the appraised value, with such sureties as the collector shall deem good and sufficient, to abide the final order, decree, or judgment of the court having cognizance of the case, and to pay the amount of said appraised value to the collector, marshal, or otherwise, as he may be ordered and directed by the court, which bond shall be filed by said collector with the United States district attorney for the district in which said proceedings in rem may be commenced. In case said bond shall have been executed and the property returned before seizure thereof by virtue of the process aforesaid, the marshal shall give notice of pendency of proceedings in court to the parties executing said bond, by personal service or publication, and in such manner and form as the court may direct, and the court shall thereupon have jurisdiction of said matter and parties in the same manner as if such property had been seized by virtue of the process aforesaid. But if said owner shall neglect or refuse to give said bond, the collector shall issue to a deputy collector or to the marshal aforesaid an order to sell the same; and the deputy collector or marshal shall thereupon advertise and sell the said property at public auction in the same manner as goods may be sold on final execution in said district; and the proceeds of the sale, after deducting the reasonable costs of the seizure and sale, shall be paid to the court aforesaid, to abide its final order, decree, or judgment. (R. S. § 3459.)

1193. Same; proceedings in case of goods valued at $500 or less.—In all cases of seizure of any goods, wares, or merchandise, as being subject to forfeiture under any provision of the internal revenue laws, which, in the opinion of the collector or deputy collector making the seizure, are of the appraised value of $500 or less, the said collector or deputy collector shall, except in cases otherwise provided, proceed as follows:

First. He shall cause a list containing a particular description of the goods, wares, or merchandise seized to be prepared in duplicate, and an appraisement thereof to be made by three sworn appraisers, to be selected by him, who shall be respectable and disinterested citizens of the United States residing within the collection district wherein the seizure was made. Said list and appraisement shall be properly attested by the said collector or deputy collector and the said appraisers, for which service each of the said appraisers shall be allowed the sum of $1.50 a day, to be paid in the manner provided by law for other necessary charges of collectors.

Second. If the said goods are found by the said appraisers to be of the value of $500 or less, the said collector or deputy collector shall publish a notice, for three weeks, in some newspaper of the district where the seizure was made, describing the articles, and stating the time, place, and cause of their seizure, and requiring any person claiming them to appear and make such claim within thirty days from the date of the first publication of such notice.

Third. Any person claiming the goods, wares, or merchandise so seized, within the time specified in the notice, may file with the said collector or deputy collector a claim, stating his interest in the articles seized, and may execute a bond to the United States in the penal sum of $250, with sureties to be approved by the said collector or deputy collector, conditioned that, in case of condemnation of the articles so seized, the obligors shall pay all the costs and expenses of the proceedings to obtain such condemnation; and upon the delivery of such bond to the collector or deputy collector, he shall transmit the same, with the duplicate list or description of the goods seized, to the United States district attorney for the district, and said attorney shall proceed thereon in the ordinary manner prescribed by law.

Fourth. If no claim is interposed and no bond is given within the time above specified, the collector or deputy collector, as the case may be, shall give ten days' notice of the sale of the goods, wares, or merchandise by publication, and, at the time and place specified in the notice, shall sell the articles so seized at public auction, and, after deducting the expense of appraisement and sale, he shall deposit the proceeds to the credit of the Secretary of the Treasury. (R. S. § 3460.)

1194. Same; application for remission and return of proceeds of sale; distribution.—Within one year after the sale of any goods, wares, or merchandise, as provided in section 1193 of this title, any person claiming to be interested in the property sold may apply to the Secretary of the Treasury for a remission of the forfeiture thereof, or of any part thereof, and a restoration of the proceeds of the sale; and the said Secretary may grant the same upon satisfactory proof, to be furnished in such manner as he shall prescribe: Provided, That it shall be satisfactorily shown that the applicant, at the time of the seizure and sale of the said property, and during the intervening time, was absent, out of the United States, or in such circumstances as prevented him from knowing of the seizure, and that he did not know of the same; and also that the said forfeiture was incurred without willful negligence or any intention of fraud on the part of the owner of said property. If no application for such restoration is made within one year, as hereinbefore prescribed, the Secretary of the Treasury shall, at the expiration of the said time, cause the proceeds of the sale of the said property to be distributed according to law, as in the case of goods, wares, or merchandise condemned and sold pursuant to the decree of a competent court. (R. S. § 3461.)

1195. Search warrants.—The several judges of the district courts of the United States, and United States commissioners, may, within their respective jurisdictions, issue a search warrant, authorizing any internal-revenue officer to search any premises within the same, if such officer makes oath in writing that he has reason to believe, and does believe, that a fraud upon the revenue has been or is being committed upon or by the use of the said premises. (R. S. § 3462; May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 19, 29 Stat. 184; Mar. 2, 1901, c. 814, 31 Stat. 956; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 289, 36 Stat. 1167.)

1196. Purchasing for Government goods subject to tax.—The privilege of purchasing supplies of goods imported from foreign countries for the use of the United States, duty free, which now does or hereafter shall exist by provision of law, shall be extended, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, to all articles of domestic production which are subject to tax by the provisions of this title. (R. S. § 3464.)

Chapter 22.—BOARD OF TAX APPEALS.

Sec.
1211. Board of Tax Appeals; establishment; number of members.
1212. Same; an independent agency.
1213. Same; appointment of members; terms of office; vacancies; removal, salaries.
1214. Same; practice before board and Bureau of Internal Revenue by ex-members.
1215. Same; chairman; seal.
1216. Same; hearing and determination of appeals; quorum; effect of vacancy.
1217. Same; divisions; hearing and determination of appeals; decisions.
1218. Same; findings of board prima facie evidence of facts.
1219. Same; notice and opportunity to be heard; procedure; reports; office of board; times and places of meetings.
1220. Same; oaths, witnesses, and depositions.
1221. Same; clerical assistance; quarters; stationery, and so forth.
1222. Same; traveling and other expenses; employees; expenditures.

Section 1211. Board of Tax Appeals; establishment; number of members.—There is established a board to be known as the Board of Tax Appeals (hereinafter referred to as the "board"). The board shall be composed of seven members, except that for a period of two years after June 2, 1924, the board shall be composed of such number of members, not more than twenty-eight, as the President determines to be necessary. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900 (a), 43 Stat. 336.)

1212. Same; an independent agency.—The Board of Tax Appeals shall be an independent agency in the executive branch of Government. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900, 43 Stat. 336.)

sent of the Senate, solely on the grounds of fitness to perform the duties of the office. The term of office of all members who are to compose the board during the period of two years after June 2, 1924, shall expire at the end of such period. The terms of office of the first seven members who are thereafter to compose the board shall expire, two at the end of the fourth year, two at the end of the sixth year, two at the end of the eighth year, and one at the end of the tenth year, after the expiration of such two-year period. The term of office of each such member shall be designated by the President, and the terms of office of their successors shall expire ten years after the expiration of their predecessors' terms, except that any individual appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall be appointed only for the unexpired term of his predecessor, and a member in office at the expiration of the term for which he was appointed may continue in office until his successor is qualified. Any member of the board may be removed by the President for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office, but for no other reason. Each member shall receive a salary at the rate of $7,500 per annum. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900 (b), 43 Stat. 336.)

1214. Same; practice before board and Bureau of Internal Revenue by ex-members.—No member of the Board of Tax Appeals appointed for a term beginning after June 2, 1926, shall be permitted to practice before the board or any official of the Bureau of Internal Revenue for a period of two years after leaving office. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900 (c), 43 Stat. 336.)

1215. Same; chairman; seal.—The board shall at least biennially designate a member to act as chairman. The board shall have a seal which shall be judicially noticed. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900 (d), 43 Stat. 336.)

1216. Same; hearing and determination of appeals; quorum; effect of vacancy.—The board and its divisions shall hear and determine appeals filed under sections 1048 to 1054, 1063, and 1101 to 1108 of this title. A majority of the members of the board or of any division thereof shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of the board or of the division, respectively. A vacancy in the board or in any division thereof shall not impair the powers nor affect the duties of the board or division, nor of the remaining members of the board or division, respectively. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900 (e), 43 Stat. 336.)

1217. Same; divisions; hearing and determination of appeals; decisions.—The chairman may from time to time divide the board into divisions and assign the members thereto, and designate a chief thereof. If a division, as a result of a vacancy or the absence or inability of a member assigned thereto to serve thereon, is composed of less than three members, the chairman may assign other members thereto, or he may direct the division to proceed with the transaction of business. A division shall hear and determine appeals filed with the board and assigned to such division by the chairman. Upon the expiration of thirty days after a decision by a division, such decision, and the findings of fact made in connection therewith, shall become the final decision and findings of the board, unless within such period the chairman has directed that such decision shall be reviewed by the board. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900 (f), 43 Stat. 336.)

1218. Same; findings of board prima facie evidence of facts.—In any proceeding in court under sections 1048 to 1054, 1063 and 1101 to 1108 of this title, and in any suit or proceeding by a taxpayer to recover any amounts paid in pursuance of a decision of the board, the findings of the board shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900 (g), 43 Stat. 336.)

1219. Same; notice and opportunity to be heard; procedure; reports; office of board; times and places of meetings.—Notice and an opportunity to be heard shall be given to the taxpayer and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and a decision shall be made as quickly as practicable. Hearings before the board and its divisions shall be open to the public. The proceedings of the board and its divisions shall be conducted in accordance with such rules of evidence and procedure as the board may prescribe. It shall be the duty of the board and of each division to make a report in writing of its findings of fact and decision in each case, and a copy of its report shall be entered of record and a copy furnished the taxpayer. If the amount of tax in controversy is more than $10,000 the oral testimony taken at the hearing shall be reduced to writing and the report shall contain an opinion in writing in addition to the findings of fact and decision. All reports of the board and its divisions and all evidence received by the board and its divisions (including, in cases where the oral testimony is reduced to writing, the transcript thereof) shall be public records open to the inspection of the public. The board shall provide for the publication of its reports at the Government Printing Office in such form and manner as may be best adapted for public information and use, and such authorized publication shall be competent evidence of the reports of the board therein contained in all courts of the United States and of the several States without any further proof or authentication thereof. Such reports shall be subject to sale in the same manner and upon the same terms as other public documents. The principal office of the board shall be in the District of Columbia, but the board or any of its divisions may sit at any place within the United States. The times and places of the meetings of the board, and of its divisions, shall be prescribed by the chairman with a view to securing reasonable opportunity to taxpayers to appear before the board or any of its divisions, with as little inconvenience and expense to taxpayers as is practicable. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900 (h), 43 Stat. 336.)

1220. Same; oaths, witnesses, and depositions.—For the efficient administration of the functions vested in the board or any division thereof, any member of the board may administer oaths, examine witnesses, and require, by subpœna ordered by the board or any division thereof and signed by the member, (1) the attendance and testimony of witnesses, and the production of all necessary returns, books, papers, documents, correspondence, and other evidence, from any place in the United States at any designated place of hearing, (2) the taking of a deposition before any designated individual competent to administer oaths under this title, and (3) the answer in writing under oath to any question of fact submitted. In the case of a deposition the testimony shall be reduced to writing by the individual taking the deposition or under his direction and shall then be subscribed by the deponent. Any witnesses summoned or whose deposition is taken under this section shall be paid the same fees and mileage as are paid witnesses in the courts of the United States. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900 (i), 43 Stat. 336.)

1221. Same; clerical assistance; quarters, stationery, and so forth.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall furnish the Board of Tax Appeals with such clerical assistance, quarters, stationery, furniture, office equipment, and other supplies as may be necessary for the efficient execution of the functions vested in it by sections 1211 to 1222 of this title. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900 (j), 43 Stat. 336.)

1222. Same; traveling and other expenses; employees; expenditures.—The members and employees of the board and employees assigned thereto shall receive their necessary traveling expenses, and their actual expenses incurred for subsistence while traveling on duty and away from their designated stations in an amount not to exceed $7 per day in the case of members, and $4 per day in the case of employees. The board is authorized in accordance with the civil service laws to appoint, and in accordance with sections 661 to 674 of Title 5 to fix the compensation of, such employees, and to make such expenditures, including expenditures for personal services and rent at the seat of the Government and elsewhere, and for law books, books of reference, and periodicals, as may be necessary efficiently to execute the functions vested in the board, in case such assistants and such expenditures are not suitably provided for by the Secretary under section 1221 of this title. All expenditures of the board shall be allowed and paid upon the presentation of itemized vouchers therefor, signed by the chairman, out of any moneys appropriated for the collection of internal revenue taxes and allotted to the board, or out of any moneys specifically appropriated for the purposes of the board. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 900 (k), 43 Stat. 336.)

1270. Failure to pay, collect, account for, and pay over certain tax, or to make returns or supply information; penalty.
1271. Partial invalidity of title.
1272. Citation.

Section 1241. Purchase of stationery.—The purchase of stationery for the Internal Revenue Service shall be made under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury as in the case of other branches of the public service under the Treasury Department. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1195.)

1242. Detection and punishment of frauds.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, is authorized to pay such sums, not exceeding in the aggregate the sum appropriated therefor, as he may deem necessary for detecting and bringing to trial and punishment persons guilty of violating the internal revenue laws, or conniving at the same, in cases where such expenses are not otherwise provided for by law. (R. S. § 3463.)

1243. Same; statement of expenditure.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall make a detailed statement to Congress once in each year as to how he has expended the sum appropriated for the purpose mentioned in section 1242 of this title, and also a detailed statement of all miscellaneous expenditures in the Bureau of Internal Revenue for which appropriation is made. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 208, 27 Stat. 587; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1483, 33 Stat. 1167; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 355, 37 Stat. 431.)

1244. General laws made applicable.—All administrative, special, or stamp provisions of law, including the law relating to the assessment of taxes, so far as applicable, are extended to and made a part of each chapter of this title. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1305, 40 Stat. 1142; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1300, 42 Stat. 308; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1000, 43 Stat. 339.)

1245. Rules and regulations.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, is authorized to prescribe all needful rules and regulations for the enforcement of the provisions of this title, and wherever the mode or time of assessing or collecting any tax which is imposed is not provided for, the said commissioner may establish the same by regulation. (R. S. § 3447; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1309, 40 Stat. 1143; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1303, 42 Stat. 309; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1001, 43 Stat. 339.)

1246. Same; regulations necessitated by alteration of law.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue may also make all such regulations, not otherwise provided for, as may have become necessary by reason of any alteration of law in relation to internal revenue. (R. S. § 3447.)

1247. Examination of books, papers, and records; taking testimony.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return or for the purpose of making a return where none has been made, is authorized, by any revenue agent or inspector designated by him for that purpose, to examine any books, papers, records or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return, and may require the attendance of the person rendering the return or of any officer or employee of such person, or the attendance of any other person having knowledge in the premises, and may take his testimony with reference to the matter required by law to be included in such return, with power to administer oaths to such person or persons. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1305, 40 Stat. 1142; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1004, 43 Stat. 340.)

1248. Same; number of inspections of taxpayer's accounts allowable; exceptions.—No taxpayer shall be subjected to unnecessary examinations or investigations, and only one inspection of a taxpayer's books of account shall be made for each taxable year unless the taxpayer requests otherwise or unless the commissioner, after investigation, notifies the taxpayer in writing that an additional inspection is necessary. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1005, 43 Stat. 340.)

1249. Conclusiveness of assessment, determination or payment of tax, and acceptance of abatement, credit, or refund.—If after a determination and assessment in any case the taxpayer has paid in whole any tax or penalty, or accepted any abatement, credit, or refund based on such determination and assessment, and an agreement is made in writing between the taxpayer and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, that such determination and assessment shall be final and conclusive, then (except upon a showing of fraud or malfeasance or misrepresentation of fact materially affecting the determination or assessment thus made), (1) the case shall not be reopened or the determination and assessment modified by any officer, employee, or agent of the United States, and (2) no suit, action, or proceeding to annul, modify, or set aside such determination or assessment shall be entertained by any court of the United States. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1006, 43 Stat. 340.)

1250. Conclusiveness of findings and decisions by Commissioner of Internal Revenue.—In the absence of fraud or mistake in mathematical calculation, the findings of facts by and the decision of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue upon the merits of any claim presented under or authorized by the internal revenue laws (after approval by the Secretary of the Treasury in case the Secretary is authorized to approve the same) shall not, except as provided in sections 1211 to 1222, be subject to review by any other administrative or accounting officer, employee, or agent of the United States. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1007, 43 Stat. 340.)

1251. Retroactive effect of regulations or Treasury decisions.—(a) In case a regulation or Treasury decision relating to the internal revenue laws, made by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue or the Secretary of the Treasury, or by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, is reversed by a subsequent regulation or Treasury decision, and such reversal is not immediately occasioned or required by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, such subsequent regulation or Treasury decision may, in the discretion of the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, be applied without retroactive effect.

(b) No tax shall be levied, assessed, or collected under the provisions of chapter 17 of this title on any article sold or leased by the manufacturer, producer, or importer, if at the time of the sale or lease there was an existing ruling, regulation, or Treasury decision holding that the sale or lease of such article was not taxable, and the manufacturer, producer, or importer parted with possession or ownership of such article, relying upon the ruling, regulation, or Treasury decision. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1008, 43 Stat. 341.)

1252. Mode of collecting taxes not specifically provided for.—In all cases where the method of collecting the tax imposed by sections 245, 248, 252 to 254, 441 to 456, and 506 of this title, or any other law in relation to internal revenue is not specifically provided for in this title the tax shall be collected in such manner as the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe. (R. S. § 3447; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1307, 40 Stat. 1143.)

1253. Other methods of collecting taxes; administrative and penalty provisions applicable.—Whether or not the method of collecting any tax imposed by sections 211 to 220, 223, 224, 245, 691 to 695, 702, 761, 792 to 797, 829, 831 to 834, 871, 872, 881 to 887 of this title is specifically provided therein, any such tax may, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, be collected by stamp, coupon, serial-numbered ticket, or such other reasonable device or method as may be necessary or helpful in securing a complete and prompt collection of the tax. All administrative and penalty provisions of chapter 18, in so far as applicable, shall apply to the collection of any tax which the commissioner determines or prescribes shall be collected in such manner. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1307, 40 Stat. 1143; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1301, 42 Stat. 308; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1022, 43 Stat. 347.)

1254. Records, statements, and returns; acknowledgment to certain returns; returns and statements on notice from commissioner.—(a) Every person liable to any tax imposed by this title, or for the collection thereof, shall keep such records, render under oath such statements, make such returns, and comply with such rules and regulations, as the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may from time to time prescribe.

(b) Whenever in the judgment of the commissioner necessary he may require any person, by notice served upon him, to make a return, render under oath such statements, or keep such records as the commissioner deems sufficient to show whether or not such person is liable to tax.

(c) The commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may by regulation prescribe that any return required by chapters 4 to 6 and 14 to 17, inclusive, of this title to be under oath may, if the amount of the tax covered thereby is not in excess of $10, be signed or acknowledged before two witnesses instead of under oath.

(d) Any oath or affirmation required by the provisions of this title, or regulations made under authority thereof, may be administered by any officer authorized to administer oaths for general purposes by the law of the United States or of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, wherein such oath or affirmation is administered, or by any consular officer of the United States. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, §§ 1305, 1309, 40 Stat. 1143; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, §§ 1300, 1303, 42 Stat. 309; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1002, 43 Stat. 339.)

1255. Credit sales; recovery of tax paid by vendor.—Wherever in this title a tax is required to be paid by the purchaser to the vendor at the time of a sale, and such sale is made on credit, then, under regulations prescribed by the commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, the tax may, at the option of the vendor, be returned and paid by him to the United States as if paid to him by the purchaser at the time of the sale, and in such case the vendor shall have a right of action in any court of competent jurisdiction against the purchaser for the amount of the tax so returned and paid to the United States. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1310, 40 Stat. 1143.)

1256. Overpayments and overcollections of tax; credit and refund.—In the case of any overpayment or overcollection of any tax imposed by chapters 16 and 17 of this title, the person making such overpayment or overcollection may take credit therefor against taxes due upon any monthly return, and shall make refund of any excessive amount collected by him upon proper application by the person entitled thereto. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1310, 40 Stat. 1143; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1304, 42 Stat. 309; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1023, 43 Stat. 347.)

1257. Jurisdiction of district courts; additional remedies.—The district courts of the United States at the instance of the United States are invested with such jurisdiction to make and issue, both in actions at law and suits in equity, writs and orders of injunction, and of ne exeat republica, orders appointing receivers, and such other orders and process, and to render such judgments and decrees, granting in proper cases both legal and equitable relief together, as may be necessary or appropriate for the enforcement of the provisions of this title. The remedies provided by this section and section 1258 of this title are in addition to and not exclusive of any and all other remedies of the United States in such courts or otherwise to enforce such provisions. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1025 (a, b), 43 Stat. 348.)

1258. Same; compelling attendance of witnesses or production of books and papers.—If any person is summoned under this title to appear, to testify or to produce books, papers, or other data, the district court of the United States for the district in which such person resides shall have jurisdiction by appropriate process to compel such attendance, testimony or production of books, papers, or other data. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1318, 40 Stat. 1148; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1310, 42 Stat. 310; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1025 (a), 43 Stat. 348.)

1259. Contracts with United States; filing with and access by commissioner to data.—Every person who on or after April 6, 1917, has entered into any contract, undertaking, or agreement, with the United States, or with any department, bureau, officer, commission, board, or agency under the United States or acting in its behalf, or with any other person having contract relations with the United States, for the performance of any work or the supplying of any materials or property for the use of or for the account of the United States, shall, within thirty days after a request of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue therefor, file with the commissioner a true and correct copy of every such contract, undertaking, or agreement.

Whoever fails to comply with such request of the commissioner shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

The commissioner shall (when not violative of the technical military or naval secrets of the Government) have access to all information and data relating to any such contract, undertaking, or agreement, in the possession, control or custody of any department, bureau, board, agency, officer, or commission of the United States, and may call upon any such department, bureau, board, agency, officer, or commission for a full statement and description of any allowance for amortization, obsolescence, depreciation or loss, or of any valuation, appraisal, adjustment or final settlement, made in pursuance of any such contract, undertaking or agreement. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1408, 40 Stat. 1151.)

1260. Prior revenue law in force for assessment and collection of taxes and for imposition and collection of penalties thereunder.—The parts of prior Revenue Acts heretofore repealed shall (except as otherwise provided in this title) remain in force for the assessment and collection of all taxes imposed by such Acts, and for the assessment, imposition, and collection of all interest, penalties, or forfeitures which have accrued or may accrue in relation to any such taxes, and for the assessment and collection, to the extent provided in such Acts, of all taxes imposed by prior income, war-profits, or excess-profits tax acts, and for the assessment, imposition, and collection of all interest, penalties, or forfeitures which have accrued or may accrue in relation to any such taxes. (June 2, 1924, c. 234, § 1100(b), 43 Stat. 352.)

1261. Retroactive benefits of certain repealed laws unaffected.—The repeal of Title II and Title IV of the Revenue Act of 1921 (Forty-second Statutes, page 227) shall not be construed to take away the retroactive benefits allowed by paragraph (12) of subdivision (a) of section 214 or paragraph (14) of subdivision (a) of section 234, of the Revenue Act of 1921, or by section 401 or 403 of such Act. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1100 (c), 43 Stat. 352.)

1262. Definitions.—(a) Unless otherwise specifically provided, when used in this title—

(1) The term "person" means an individual, a trust or estate, a partnership, or a corporation.

(2) The term "corporation" includes associations, joint-stock companies, and insurance companies.

(3) The term "domestic" when applied to a corporation or partnership means created or organized in the United States or under the law of the United States or of any State or Territory.

(4) The term "foreign" when applied to a corporation or partnership means a corporation or partnership which is not domestic.

(5) The term "United States" when used in a geographical sense includes only the States, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, and the District of Columbia.

(6) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Treasury.

(7) The term "commissioner" means the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

(8) The term "collector" means collector of internal revenue.

(9) The term "taxpayer" means any person subject to a tax imposed by this title.

(10) The term "military or naval forces of the United States" includes the Marine Corps, the Coast Guard, the Army Nurse Corps, Female, and the Navy Nurse Corps, Female.

(11) The term "Government contract" means (a) a contract made with the United States, or with any department, bureau, officer, commission, board, or agency, under the United States and acting in its behalf, or with any agency controlled by any of the above if the contract is for the benefit of the United States, or (b) a subcontract made with a contractor performing such a contract if the products or services to be furnished under the subcontract are for the benefit of the United States. The term "Government contract or contracts made between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, both dates inclusive" when applied to a contract of the kind referred to in clause (a) of this subdivision, includes all such contracts which, although entered into during such period, were originally not enforceable, but which have been or may become enforceable by reason of subsequent validation in pursuance of law.

(12) A corporation organized under sections 141 to 162 of Title 15 (the China Trade Act, 1922), shall, for the purposes of this title, be considered a domestic corporation.

(13) The term "Revenue Act of 1916" means the Act entitled "An Act to increase the revenue, and for other purposes," approved September 8, 1916.

(b) the terms "includes" and "including" when used in a definition contained in this title shall not be deemed to exclude other things otherwise within the meaning of the term defined. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 2, 42 Stat. 227; Sept. 19, 1922, c. 346, § 25, 42 Stat. 856; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 2, 43 Stat. 253.)

1263. Taxes on articles sold or leased for export.—Under such rules and regulations as the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary may prescribe, the taxes imposed under the provisions of sections 245, 252 to 254, 441 to 451, 506, 761, 792 to 797, 829, 831 to 833 of this title shall not apply in respect of articles sold or leased for export and in due course so exported. Under such rules and regulations the amount of any internal-revenue tax erroneously or illegally collected in respect of exported articles may be refunded to the exporter of the article, instead of to the manufacturer, if the manufacturer waives any claim for the amount so to be refunded. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1310, 40 Stat. 1143; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1305, 42 Stat. 310; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1024, 43 Stat. 348.)

1264. Porto Rico and Philippine Islands; law in force in.—Title I of the Revenue Act of 1916 as amended by the Revenue Act of 1917 shall remain in force for the assessment and collection of the income tax in Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands, except as may be otherwise provided by their respective legislatures. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1400, 40 Stat. 1149.)

1265. Failure to pay certain other taxes or to make returns, and so forth; penalty.—Any person required under sections 211 to 220, 223, 224, 761, 792 to 797, 829, 832, 834, 871 to 873, 881 to 887, 901, 931 to 940, 951 to 968, 981 to 993, 1001 to 1007, 1021 to 1031, 1041 to 1068, 1091 to 1118, 1131 to 1136 of this title to pay any tax, or required by law or regulations made under authority thereof to make a return, keep any records, or supply any information, for the purposes of the computation, assessment, or collection of any tax imposed by such sections, who willfully fails to pay such tax, make such return, keep such records, or supply such information, at the time or times required by law or regulations, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, together with the costs of prosecution. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1017 (a), 43 Stat. 343.)

1266. Failure to collect, account for, or pay over certain taxes.—Any person required under the provisions of this title to collect, account for and pay over any tax imposed by the sections enumerated in section 1265 of this title, who willfully fails to collect or truthfully account for and pay over such tax, and any person who willfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any tax imposed thereby or the payment thereof, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1017 (b), 43 Stat. 343.)

1267. Aiding or assisting in false or fraudulent returns; penalty.—Any person who willfully (1) aids or assists in the preparation or presentation of a false or fraudulent return, affidavit, claim, or document, authorized or required by the internal-revenue laws, or (2) procures, counsels, or advises the preparation or presentation of such return, affidavit, claim, or document, shall (whether or not such falsity or fraud is with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to present such return, affidavit, claim, or document) be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both, together with the costs of prosecution. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1017(c), 43 Stat. 343.)

1268. Additional penalty for evading or failing to collect, and so forth, certain taxes.—Any person who willfully fails to pay, collect, or truthfully account for and pay over, any tax imposed by sections 211 to 220, 223, 224, 761, 792 to 797, 829, 831 to 834 of this title, or willfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any such tax or the payment thereof, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be liable to a penalty of the amount of the tax evaded, or not paid, collected or accounted for and paid over, to be assessed and collected in the same manner as taxes are assessed and collected. No penalty shall be assessed under this section for any offense for which a penalty may be assessed under authority of sections 97 and 98 or for any offense for which a penalty has been recovered under section 260. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1017 (d), 43 Stat. 343.)

1269. Definition; "person."—The term "person" as used in sections 1265 to 1268 of this title includes an officer or employee of a corporation or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1017 (c), 43 Stat. 343.)

1270. Failure to pay, collect, account for, and pay over certain tax, or to make returns or supply information; penalty.—(a) Any person required under sections 245, 252 to 254, 289, 297, 322, 369, 378, 419, 441 to 448, 450 to 452, 489, 506, 515, and 525 of this title, to pay, or to collect, account for and pay over any tax, or required by law or regulations made under authority thereof to make a return or supply any information for the purposes of the computation, assessment, or collection of any such tax, who fails to pay, collect, or truly account for and pay over any such tax, make any such return or supply any such information at the time or times required by law or regulation shall in addition to other penalties provided by law be subject to a penalty of not more than $1,000.

(b) Any person who willfully refuses to pay, collect, or truly account for and pay over any such tax, make such return or supply such information at the time or times required by law or regulation, or who willfully attempts in any manner to evade such tax, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and in addition to other penalties provided by law shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both, together with the costs of prosecution.

(c) Any person who willfully refuses to pay, collect, or truly account for and pay over any such tax shall in addition to other penalties provided by law be liable to a penalty of the amount of the tax evaded, or not paid, collected, or accounted for and paid over, to be assessed and collected in the same manner as taxes are assessed and collected: Provided, however, That no penalty shall be assessed under this subdivision for any offense for which a penalty may be assessed under authority of sections 97 and 98 of this title, or for any offense for which a penalty has been recovered under section 260 of this title.

(d) The term "person" as used in this section includes an officer or employee of a corporation or a member or employee of a partnership, who as such officer, employee, or member is under a duty to perform the act in respect of which the violation occurs. (Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1308, 40 Stat. 1143; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1302, 42 Stat. 309.)

1271. Partial invalidity of title.—If any provision of any Acts or parts of Acts relating to internal-revenue taxes included in this title, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1103, 43 Stat. 353.)

1272. Citation.—Act June 2, 1924, chapter 234, included in this title may be cited as the "Revenue Act of 1924." (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1, 43 Stat. 253.)

Chapter 1.—GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Sec.
1. Short name of title.
2. Territory affected.
3. Effect on existing legislation.
4. Definitions.
5. Authority of commissioner's agents or assistants.

Section 1. Short name of title.—The short name of this title shall be the "National Prohibition Act." (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, § 1, 41 Stat. 305.)

2. Territory affected.—This title shall apply not only to the United States but to all territory subject to its jurisdiction, including the Territory of Hawaii and the Virgin Islands; and jurisdiction is conferred on the courts of the Territory of Hawaii and the Virgin Islands to enforce this title in such Territory and islands. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 134, § 3, 42 Stat. 223.)

3. Effect on existing legislation.—All laws in regard to the manufacture and taxation of and traffic in intoxicating liquor, and all penalties for violations of such laws that were in force on October 28, 1919, shall be and continue in force, as to both beverage and nonbeverage liquor, except such provisions of such laws as are directly in conflict with any provision of this title; but if any act is a violation of any of such laws and also of this title, a conviction for such act or offense under one shall be a bar to prosecution therefor under the other. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 134, § 5, 42 Stat. 223.)

4. Definitions.—When used in this title (1) The word "liquor" or the phrase "intoxicating liquor" shall be construed to include alcohol, brandy, whisky, rum, gin, beer, ale, porter, and wine, and in addition thereto any spirituous, vinous, malt, or fermented liquor, liquids, and compounds, whether medicated, proprietary, patented, or not, and by whatever name called, containing one-half of 1 per centum or more of alcohol by volume which are fit for use for beverage purposes: Provided, That the foregoing definition shall not extend to dealcoholized wine nor to any beverage or liquid produced by the process by which beer, ale, porter or wine is produced, if it contains less than one-half of 1 per centum of alcohol by volume, and is made as prescribed in section 58 of this title, and is otherwise denominated than as beer, ale, or porter, and is contained and sold in, or from, such sealed and labeled bottles, casks, or containers as the commissioner may by regulation prescribe.

(2) The word "person" shall mean and include natural persons, associations, copartnerships, and corporations.

(3) The word "commissioner" shall mean Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

(4) The term "application" shall mean a formal written request supported by a verified statement of facts showing that the commissioner may grant the request.

(5) The term "permit" shall mean a formal written authorization by the commissioner setting forth specifically therein the things that are authorized.

(6) The term "bond" shall mean an obligation authorized or required by or under this title or any regulation, executed in such form and for such a penal sum as may be required by a court, the commissioner, or prescribed by regulation.

(7) The term "regulation" shall mean any regulation prescribed by the commissioner with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury for carrying out the provisions of this title, and the commissioner is authorized to make such regulations. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 1, 41 Stat. 307.)

5. Authority of commissioner's agents or assistants.—Any act authorized to be done by the commissioner may be performed by any assistant or agent designated by him for that purpose. Records required to be filed with the commissioner may be filed with an assistant commissioner or other person designated by the commissioner to receive such records. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 1, 41 Stat. 307.)

Section 11. Investigation and report of violations of chapter; duty to prosecute; search warrants.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, his assistants, agents, and inspectors shall investigate and report violations of this chapter to the United States attorney for the district in which committed, who is hereby charged with the duty of prosecuting the offenders, subject to the direction of the Attorney General, as in the case of other offenses against the laws of the United States; and such Commissioner of Internal Revenue, his assistants, agents, and inspectors may swear out warrants before United States commissioners or other officers or courts authorized to issue the same for the apprehension of such offenders, and may, subject to the control of the said United States attorney, conduct the prosecution at the committing trial for the purpose of having the offenders held for the action of a grand jury. Section 591 of Title 18 is hereby made applicable in the enforcement of this chapter. Officers mentioned in said section 591 are authorized to issue search warrants under the limitations provided in sections 611 to 631, and 633 of Title 18. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 2, 41 Stat. 308.)

12. Manufacture, sale, transportation, importation or exportation, delivery, furnishing, or possessing intoxicating liquors prohibited; exceptions.—No person shall manufacture, sell, barter, transport, import, export, deliver, furnish or possess any intoxicating liquor except as authorized in this chapter, and all the provisions of this chapter shall be liberally construed to the end that the use of intoxicating liquor as a beverage may be prevented.

Liquor for nonbeverage purposes and wine for sacramental purposes may be manufactured, purchased, sold, bartered, transported, imported, exported, delivered, furnished and possessed, but only as herein provided, and the commissioner may, upon application, issue permits therefor: Provided, That nothing in this chapter shall prohibit the purchase and sale of warehouse receipts covering distilled spirits on deposit in Government bonded warehouses, and no special tax liability shall attach to the business of purchasing and selling such warehouse receipts. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 3, 41 Stat. 308.)

13. Articles exempt from provisions of chapter; permits to manufacture; quantity of alcohol; sale of enumerated articles for beverage purposes; punishment.—The articles enumerated in this section shall not, after having been manufactured and prepared for the market, be subject to the provisions of this chapter if they correspond with the following descriptions and limitations, namely:

(a) Denatured alcohol or denatured rum produced and used as provided by laws and regulations now or hereafter in force.

(b) Medicinal preparations manufactured in accordance with formulas prescribed by the United States Pharmacopœia, National Formulary or the American Institute of Homeopathy that are unfit for use for beverage purposes.

(c) Patented, patent, and proprietary medicines that are unfit for use for beverage purposes.

(d) Toilet, medicinal, and antiseptic preparations and solutions that are unfit for use for beverage purposes.

(e) Flavoring extracts and sirups that are unfit for use as a beverage, or for intoxicating beverage purposes.

(f) Vinegar and preserved sweet cider.

A person who manufactures any of the articles mentioned in this section may purchase and possess liquor for that purpose, but he shall secure permits to manufacture such articles and to purchase such liquor, give the bonds, keep the records, and make the reports specified in this chapter and as directed by the commissioner. No such manufacturer shall sell, use, or dispose of any liquor otherwise than as an ingredient of the articles authorized to be manufactured therefrom. No more alcohol shall be used in the manufacture of any extract, sirup, or the articles named in paragraphs b, c, and d of this section which may be used for beverage purposes than the quantity necessary for extraction or solution of the elements contained therein and for the preservation of the article.

Any person who shall knowingly sell any of the articles mentioned in paragraphs a, b, c, and d of this section for beverage purposes, or any extract or sirup for intoxicating beverage purposes, or who shall sell any of the same under circumstances from which the seller might reasonably deduce the intention of the purchaser to use them for such purposes, or shall sell any beverage containing one-half of 1 per centum or more of alcohol by volume in which any extract, sirup, or other article is used as an ingredient, shall be subject to the penalties provided in section 46 of this chapter. If the commissioner shall find, after notice and hearing as provided for in section 14 of this chapter, that any person has sold any flavoring extract, sirup, or beverage in violation of this paragraph, he shall notify such person, and any known principal for whom the sale was made, to desist from selling such article; and it shall thereupon be unlawful for a period of one year thereafter for any person so notified to sell any such extract, sirup, or beverage without making an application for, giving a bond, and obtaining a permit so to do, which permit may be issued upon such conditions as the commissioner may deem necessary to prevent such illegal sales, and in addition the commissioner shall require a record and report of sales. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 4, 41 Stat. 309.)

14. Analysis of manufactured articles; notice to manufacturer; revocation of permit.—Whenever the commissioner has reason to believe that any article mentioned in section 13 of this chapter does not correspond with the descriptions and limitations therein provided, he shall cause an analysis of said article to be made, and if, upon such analysis, the commissioner shall find that said article does not so correspond, he shall give not less than fifteen days' notice in writing to the person who is the manufacturer thereof to show cause why said article should not be dealt with as an intoxicating liquor, such notice to be served personally or by registered mail, as the commissioner may determine, and shall specify the time when, the place where, and the name of the agent or official before whom such person is required to appear.

If the manufacturer of said article fails to show to the satisfaction of the commissioner that the article corresponds to the descriptions and limitations provided in section 13 of this chapter, his permit to manufacture and sell such article shall be revoked. The manufacturer may by appropriate proceeding in a court of equity have the action of the commissioner reviewed, and the court may affirm, modify, or reverse the finding of the commissioner as the facts and law of the case may warrant, and during the pendency of such proceedings may restrain the manufacture, sale, or other disposition of such article. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 5, 41 Stat. 309.)

15. Change of formula of preparations being used as beverage or for intoxicating beverage purposes.—If the commissioner shall find after hearing, upon notice as required in section 14 of this chapter, that any article enumerated in subdivisions b, c, d, or e of section 13 of this chapter is being used as a beverage, or for intoxicating beverage purposes he may require a change of formula of such article and in the event that such change is not made within a time to be named by the commissioner he may cancel the permit for the manufacture of such article unless it is made clearly to appear to the commissioner that such use can only occur in rare or exceptional instances, but such action of the commissioner may by appropriate proceedings in a court of equity be reviewed, as provided for in section 14 of this chapter: Provided, That no change of formula shall be required and no permit to manufacture any article under subdivision (e), section 13, of this chapter, shall be revoked unless the sale or use of such article is substantially increased in the community by reason of its use as a beverage or for intoxicating beverage purposes. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 134, § 2, 42 Stat. 222.)

16. Permits to manufacture, sell, purchase, transport, or prescribe liquors; exceptions; expiration of permits; wine for sacramental purposes.—No one shall manufacture, sell, purchase, transport, or prescribe any liquor without first obtaining a permit from the commissioner so to do, except that a person may, without a permit, purchase and use liquor for medicinal purposes when prescribed by a physician as herein provided, and except that any person who in the opinion of the commissioner is conducting a bona fide hospital or sanatorium engaged in the treatment of persons suffering from alcoholism, may, under such rules, regulations, and conditions as the commissioner shall prescribe, purchase and use, in accordance with the methods in use in such institution, liquor, to be administered to the patients of such institution under the direction of a duly qualified physician employed by such institution.

All permits to manufacture, prescribe, sell, or transport liquor, may be issued for one year, and shall expire on the 31st day of December next succeeding the issuance thereof: Provided, That the commissioner may without formal application or new bond extend any permit granted under this chapter or laws now in force after August 31 in any year to December 31 of the succeeding year: Provided further, That permits to purchase liquor for the purpose of manufacturing or selling as provided in this chapter shall not be in force to exceed ninety days from the day of issuance. A permit to purchase liquor for any other purpose shall not be in force to exceed thirty days. Permits to purchase liquor shall specify the quantity and kind to be purchased and the purpose for which it is to be used. No permit shall be issued to any person who within one year prior to the application therefor or issuance thereof shall have violated the terms of any permit issued under this chapter or any law of the United States or of any State regulating traffic in liquor. No permit shall be issued to anyone to sell liquor at retail, unless the sale is to be made through a pharmacist designated in the permit and duly licensed under the laws of his State to compound and dispense medicine prescribed by a duly licensed physician. No one shall be given a permit to prescribe liquor unless he is a physician duly licensed to practice medicine and actively engaged in the practice of such profession. Every permit shall be in writing, dated when issued, and signed by the commissioner or his authorized agent. It shall give the name and address of the person to whom it is issued and shall designate and limit the acts that are permitted and the time when and place where such acts may be performed. No permit shall be issued until a verified, written application shall have been made therefor, setting forth the qualification of the applicant and the purpose for which the liquor is to be used.

The commissioner may prescribe the form of all permits and applications and the facts to be set forth therein. Before any permit is granted the commissioner may require a bond in such form and amount as he may prescribe to insure compliance with the terms of the permit and the provisions of this chapter. In the event of the refusal by the commissioner of any application for a permit, the applicant may have a review of his decision before a court of equity in the manner provided in section 14 of this chapter.

Nothing in this chapter shall be held to apply to the manufacture, sale, transportation, importation, possession, or distribution of wine for sacramental purposes, or like religious rites, except this section (save as the same requires a permit to purchase) and section 22 hereof, and the provisions of this chapter prescribing penalties for the violation of either of said sections. No person to whom a permit may be issued to manufacture, transport, import, or sell wines for sacramental purposes or like religious rites shall sell, barter, exchange, or furnish any such to any person not a rabbi, minister of the gospel, priest, or an officer duly authorized for the purpose by any church or congregation, nor to any such except upon an application duly subscribed by him, which application, authenticated as regulations may prescribe, shall be filed and preserved by the seller. The head of any conference or diocese or other ecclesiastical jurisdiction may designate any rabbi, minister, or priest to supervise the manufacture of wine to be used for the purposes and rites in this section mentioned, and the person so designated may, in the discretion of the commissioner, be granted a permit to supervise such manufacture. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 6, 41 Stat. 310.)

17. Physicians' prescriptions.—No one but a physician holding a permit to prescribe liquor shall issue any prescription for liquor. And no physician shall prescribe liquor unless after careful physical examination of the person for whose use such prescription is sought, or if such examination is found impracticable, then upon the best information obtainable, he in good faith believes that the use of such liquor as a medicine by such person is necessary and will afford relief to him from some known ailment. Not more than a pint of spirituous liquor to be taken internally shall be prescribed for use by the same person within any period of ten days and no prescription shall be filled more than once. Any pharmacist filling a prescription shall at the time indorse upon it over his own signature the word "canceled," together with the date when the liquor was delivered, and then make the same a part of the record that he is required to keep as herein provided.

Every physician who issues a prescription for liquor shall keep a record, alphabetically arranged in a book prescribed by the commissioner, which shall show the date of issue, amount prescribed, to whom issued, the purpose or ailment for which it is to be used and directions for use, stating the amount and frequency of the dose. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 7, 41 Stat. 311.)

18. Kinds of liquor which may be prescribed; percentage of alcohol in; quantity permitted to be prescribed.—Only spirituous and vinous liquor may be prescribed for medicinal purposes, and all permits to prescribe and prescriptions for any other liquor shall be void. No physician shall prescribe, nor shall any person sell or furnish on any prescription, any vinous liquor that contains more than 24 per centum of alcohol by volume, nor shall anyone prescribe or sell or furnish on any prescription more than one-fourth of one gallon of vinous liquor, or any such vinous or spirituous liquor that contains separately or in the aggregate more than one-half pint of alcohol, for use by any person within any period of ten days. But this provision shall not be construed to limit the sale of any article the manufacture of which is authorized under section 13 of this chapter. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 134, § 2, 42 Stat. 222.)

19. Prescription blanks.—The commissioner shall cause to be printed blanks for the prescriptions herein required, and he shall furnish the same, free of cost, to physicians holding permits to prescribe. The prescription blanks shall be printed in book form and shall be numbered consecutively from 1 to 100, and each book shall be given a number, and the stubs in each book shall carry the same numbers as and be copies of the prescriptions. The books containing such stubs shall be returned to the commissioner when the prescription blanks have been used, or sooner, if directed by the commissioner. All unused, mutilated, or defaced blanks shall be returned with the book. No physician shall prescribe and no pharmacist shall fill any prescription for liquor except on blanks so provided, except in cases of emergency, in which event a record and report shall be made and kept as in other cases. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 8, 41 Stat. 311.)

20. Number of blanks issued to physician within given period.—No physician shall be furnished with more than one hundred prescription blanks for use in any period of ninety days, nor shall any physician issue more than that number of prescriptions within any such period unless on application therefor he shall make it clearly apparent to the commissioner that for some extraordinary reason a larger amount is necessary, whereupon the necessary additional blanks may be furnished him. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 134, § 2, 42 Stat. 222.)

21. Violations of law by permittee; citation; hearing; revocation of permit.—If at any time there shall be filed with the commissioner a complaint under oath setting forth facts showing, or if the commissioner has reason to believe, that any person who has a permit is not in good faith conforming to the provisions of this chapter, or has violated the laws of any State relating to intoxicating liquor, the commissioner or his agent shall immediately issue an order citing such person to appear before him on a day named not more than thirty and not less than fifteen days from the date of service upon such permittee of a copy of the citation, which citation shall be accompanied by a copy of such complaint, or in the event that the proceedings be initiated by the commissioner with a statement of the facts constituting the violation charged, at which time a hearing shall be had unless continued for cause. Such hearings shall be held within the judicial district and within fifty miles of the place where the offense is alleged to have occurred, unless the parties agree on another place. If it be found that such person has been guilty of willfully violating any such laws, as charged, or has not in good faith conformed to the provisions of this chapter, such permit shall be revoked, and no permit shall be granted to such person within one year thereafter. Should the permit be revoked by the commissioner, the permittee may have a review of his decision before a court of equity in the manner provided in section 14 hereof. During the pendency of such action such permit shall be temporarily revoked. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 9, 41 Stat. 311.)

22. Record of manufacture, purchase, sale, or transportation of liquor.—No person shall manufacture, purchase for sale, sell, or transport any liquor without making at the time a permanent record thereof showing in detail the amount and kind of liquor manufactured, purchased, sold, or transported, together with the names and addresses of the persons to whom sold, in case of sale, and the consignor and consignee in case of transportation, and the time and place of such manufacture, sale, or transportation. The commissioner may prescribe the form of such record, which shall at all times be open to inspection as in this chapter provided. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 10, 41 Stat. 312.)

23. Copies of permits to be kept by manufacturers and wholesalers; sales only at wholesale.—All manufacturers and wholesale or retail druggists shall keep as a part of the records required of them a copy of all permits to purchase on which a sale of any liquor is made, and no manufacturer or wholesale druggist shall sell or otherwise dispose of any liquor except at wholesale and only to persons having permits to purchase in such quantities. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 11, 41 Stat. 312.)

24. Labels on containers.—All persons manufacturing liquor for sale under the provisions of this chapter shall securely and permanently attach to every container thereof, as the same is manufactured, a label stating name of manufacturer, kind and quantity of liquor contained therein, and the date of its manufacture, together with the number of the permit authorizing the manufacture thereof; and all persons possessing such liquor in wholesale quantities shall securely keep and maintain such label thereon; and all persons selling at wholesale shall attach to every package of liquor, when sold, a label setting forth the kind and quantity of liquor contained therein, by whom manufactured, the date of sale, and the person to whom sold; which label shall likewise be kept and maintained thereon until the liquor is used for the purpose for which such sale was authorized. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 12, 41 Stat. 312.)

25. Shipments of liquor; records of carriers; delivery; verification of copies of permits.—It shall be the duty of every carrier to make a record at the place of shipment of the receipt of any liquor transported, and he shall deliver liquor only to persons who present to the carrier a verified copy of a permit to purchase which shall be made a part of the carrier's permanent record at the office from which delivery is made.

The agent of the common carrier is hereby authorized to administer the oath to the consignee in verification of the copy of the permit presented, who, if not personally known to the agent, shall be identified before the delivery of the liquor to him. The name and address of the person identifying the consignee shall be included in the record. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 13, 41 Stat. 312.)

26. Notice to carrier of nature of shipments; information on packages.—It shall be unlawful for a person to use or induce any carrier, or any agent or employee thereof, to carry or ship any package or receptacle containing liquor without notifying the carrier of the true nature and character of the shipment. No carrier shall transport nor shall any person receive liquor from a carrier unless there appears on the outside of the package containing such liquor the following information:

Name and address of the consignor or seller, name and address of the consignee, kind and quantity of liquor contained therein, and number of the permit to purchase or ship the same, together with the name and address of the person using the permit. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 14, 41 Stat. 312.)

27. Consigning, shipping, transporting, delivering, or receiving packages with false statements thereon.—It shall be unlawful for any consignee to accept or receive any package containing any liquor upon which appears a statement known to him to be false, or for any carrier or other person to consign, ship, transport, or deliver any such package, knowing such statement to be false. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title, II, § 15, 41 Stat. 313.)

28. Orders to carrier for delivery to persons not actual bona fide consignees.—It shall be unlawful to give to any carrier or any officer, agent, or person acting or assuming to act for such carrier an order requiring the delivery to any person of any liquor or package containing liquor consigned to, or purporting or claimed to be consigned to a person, when the purpose of the order is to enable any person not an actual bona fide consignee to obtain such liquor. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 16, 41 Stat. 313.)

29. Advertising liquor or manufacture, sale, or keeping for sale thereof; exceptions.—It shall be unlawful to advertise anywhere, or by any means or method, liquor, or the manufacture, sale, keeping for sale or furnishing of the same, or where, how, from whom, or at what price the same may be obtained. No one shall permit any sign or billboard containing such advertisement to remain upon one's premises. But nothing herein shall prohibit manufacturers and wholesale druggists holding permits to sell liquor from furnishing price lists, with description of liquor for sale, to persons permitted to purchase liquor, or from advertising alcohol in business publications or trade journals circulating generally among manufacturers of lawful alcoholic perfumes, toilet preparations, flavoring extracts, medicinal preparations, and like articles: Provided, however, That nothing in this chapter shall apply to newspapers published in foreign countries when mailed to this country. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 17, 41 Stat. 313.)

30. Advertising, manufacture, or sale of utensils, apparatus, ingredients or formulæ for manufacture of liquor.—It shall be unlawful to advertise, manufacture, sell, or possess for sale any utensil, contrivance, machine, preparation, compound, tablet, substance, formula, direction, or recipe advertised, designed, or intended for use in the unlawful manufacture of intoxicating liquor. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 18, 41 Stat. 313.)

31. Soliciting or receiving orders for liquor.—No person shall solicit or receive, nor knowingly permit his employee to solicit or receive, from any person any order for liquor or give any information of how liquor may be obtained in violation of this chapter. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 19, 41 Stat. 313.)

32. Right of action for injuries caused by intoxicated person.—Any person who shall be injured in person, property, means of support, or otherwise by any intoxicated person, or by reason of the intoxication of any person, whether resulting in his death or not, shall have a right of action against any person who shall, by unlawfully selling to or unlawfully assisting in procuring liquor for such intoxicated person, have caused or contributed to such intoxication, and in any such action such person shall have a right to recover actual and exemplary damages. In case of the death of either party, the action or right of action given by this section shall survive to or against his or her executor or administrator, and the amount so recovered by either wife or child shall be his or her sole and separate property. Such action may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction. In any case where parents shall be entitled to such damages, either the father or mother may sue alone therefor, but recovery by one of such parties shall be a bar to suit brought by the other. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 20, 41 Stat. 313.)

33. Property used in connection with violation of law as common nuisance; punishment for maintenance; liability of owners of buildings.—Any room, house, building, boat, vehicle, structure, or place where intoxicating liquor is manufactured, sold, kept, or bartered in violation of this chapter, and all intoxicating liquor and property kept and used in maintaining the same, is hereby declared to be a common nuisance, and any person who maintains such a common nuisance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than $1,000 or be imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. If a person has knowledge or reason to believe that his room, house, building, boat, vehicle, structure, or place is occupied or used for the manufacture or sale of liquor contrary to the provision of this chapter, and suffers the same to be so occupied or used, such room, house, building, boat, vehicle, structure, or place shall be subject to a lien for and may be sold to pay all fines and costs assessed against the person guilty of such nuisance for such violation, and any such lien may be enforced by action in any court having jurisdiction. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 21, 41 Stat. 314.)

34. Abatement of nuisance; injunction; procedure; bond by owner or lessee of building.—An action to enjoin any nuisance defined in this chapter may be brought in the name of the United States by the Attorney General of the United States or by any United States attorney or any prosecuting attorney of any State or any subdivision thereof or by the commissioner or his deputies or assistants. Such action shall be brought and tried as an action in equity and may be brought in any court having jurisdiction to hear and determine equity cases. If it is made to appear by affidavits or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the court, or judge in vacation, that such nuisance exists, a temporary writ of injunction shall forthwith issue, restraining the defendant from conducting or permitting the continuance of such nuisance until the conclusion of the trial. If a temporary injuction is prayed for, the court may issue an order restraining the defendant and all other persons from removing or in any way interfering with the liquor or fixtures, or other things used in connection with the violation of this chapter constituting such nuisance. No bond shall be required in instituting such proceedings. It shall not be necessary for the court to find the property involved was being unlawfully used as aforesaid at the time of the hearing, but on finding that the material allegations of the petition are true, the court shall order that no liquors shall be manufactured, sold, bartered, or stored in such room, house, building, boat, vehicle, structure, or place, or any part thereof. And upon judgment of the court ordering such nuisance to be abated, the court may order that the room, house, building, structure, boat, vehicle, or place shall not be occupied or used for one year thereafter; but the court may, in its discretion, permit it to be occupied or used if the owner, lessee, tenant, or occupant thereof shall give bond with sufficient surety, to be approved by the court making the order, in the penal and liquidated sum of not less than $500 nor more than $1,000, payable to the United States, and conditioned that intoxicating liquor will not thereafter be manufactured, sold, bartered, kept, or otherwise disposed of therein or thereon, and that he will pay all fines, costs, and damages that may be assessed for any violation of this chapter upon said property. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 22, 41 Stat. 314.)

35. Person keeping or carrying liquor with intent to sell, or soliciting orders for liquor guilty of nuisance and restrainable by injunction.—Any person who shall, with intent to effect a sale of liquor, by himself, his employee, servant, or agent, for himself or any person, company or corporation, keep or carry around on his person, or in a vehicle, or other conveyance whatever, or leave in a place for another to secure, any liquor, or who shall travel to solicit, or solicit, or take, or accept orders for the sale, shipment, or delivery of liquor in violation of this title is guilty of a nuisance and may be restrained by injunction, temporary and permanent, from doing or continuing to do any of said acts or things.

In such proceedings it shall not be necessary to show any intention on the part of the accused to continue such violations if the action is brought within sixty days following any such violation of the law. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 23, 41 Stat. 314.)

36. Fees of officers.—For removing and selling property in enforcing this chapter the officer shall be entitled to charge and receive the same fee as the sheriff of the county would receive for levying upon and selling property under execution, and for closing the premises and keeping them closed a reasonable sum shall be allowed by the court. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 23, 41 Stat. 314.)

37. Forfeiture of lease at option of lessor.—Any violation of this chapter upon any leased premises by the lessee or occupant thereof shall, at the option of the lessor, work a forfeiture of the lease. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 23, 41 Stat. 314.)

38. Violation of injunction as contempt; procedure; punishment.—In the case of the violation of any injunction, temporary or permanent, granted pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, the court, or in vacation a judge thereof, may summarily try and punish the defendant. The proceedings for punishment for contempt shall be commenced by filing with the clerk of the court from which such injunction issued information under oath setting out the alleged facts constituting the violation, whereupon the court or judge shall forthwith cause a warrant to issue under which the defendant shall be arrested. The trial may be had upon affidavits, or either party may demand the production and oral examination of the witnesses. Any person found guilty of contempt under the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $1,000, or by imprisonment of not less than thirty days nor more than twelve months, or by both fine and imprisonment. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 24, 41 Stat. 315.)

39. Unlawful possession of liquor or property designed for manufacture thereof; search warrants.—It shall be unlawful to have or possess any liquor or property designed for the manufacture of liquor intended for use in violating this chapter or which has been so used, and no property rights shall exist in any such liquor or property. A search warrant may issue as provided in sections 434 to 454, and 456 of Title 17, and such liquor, the containers thereof, and such property so seized shall be subject to such disposition as the court may make thereof. If it is found that such liquor or property was so unlawfully held or possessed, or had been so unlawfully used, the liquor, and all property designed for the unlawful manufacture of liquor, shall be destroyed, unless the court shall otherwise order. No search warrant shall issue to search any private dwelling occupied as such unless it is being used for the unlawful sale of intoxicating liquor, or unless it is in part used for some business purpose such as a store, shop, saloon, restaurant, hotel, or boarding house. The term "private dwelling" shall be construed to include the room or rooms used and occupied not transiently but solely as a residence in an apartment house, hotel, or boarding house. The property seized on any such warrant shall not be taken from the officer seizing the same on any writ of replevin or other like process. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 25, 41 Stat. 315.)

40. Unlawful transportation of liquor; seizure and destruction of liquor and sale of vehicle.—When the commissioner, his assistants, inspectors, or any officer of the law shall discover any person in the act of transporting in violation of the law, intoxicating liquors in any wagon, buggy, automobile, water or air craft, or other vehicle, it shall be his duty to seize any and all intoxicating liquors found therein being transported contrary to law. Whenever intoxicating liquors transported or possessed illegally shall be seized by an officer he shall take possession of the vehicle and team or automobile, boat, air or water craft, or any other conveyance, and shall arrest any person in charge thereof. Such officer shall at once proceed against the person arrested under the provisions of this chapter in any court having competent jurisdiction; but the said vehicle or conveyance shall be returned to the owner upon execution by him of a good and valid bond, with sufficient sureties, in a sum double the value of the property, which said bond shall be approved by said officer and shall be conditioned to return said property to the custody of said officer on the day of trial to abide the judgment of the court. The court upon conviction of the person so arrested shall order the liquor destroyed, and unless good cause to the contrary is shown by the owner, shall order a sale by public auction of the property seized, and the officer making the sale, after deducting the expenses of keeping the property, the fee for the seizure, and the cost of the sale, shall pay all liens, according to their priorities, which are established, by intervention or otherwise at said hearing or in other proceeding brought for said purpose, as being bona fide and as having been created without the lienor having any notice that the carrying vehicle was being used or was to be used for illegal transportation of liquor, and shall pay the balance of the proceeds into the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts. All liens against property sold under the provisions of this section shall be transferred from the property to the proceeds of the sale of the property. If, however, no one shall be found claiming the team, vehicle, water or air craft, or automobile, the taking of the same, with a description thereof, shall be advertised in some newspaper published in the city or county where taken or if there be no newspaper published in such city or county, in a newspaper having circulation in the county, once a week for two weeks and by handbills posted in three public places near the place of seizure, and if no claimant shall appear within ten days after the last publication of the advertisement, the property shall be sold and the proceeds after deducting the expenses and costs shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 26, 41 Stat. 315.)

41. Forfeited vessels or vehicles used for enforcement of National Prohibition Act.—Any vessel or vehicle summarily forfeited to the United States for violation of the customs laws, may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, under such regulations as he may prescribe, be taken and used for the enforcement of the provisions of this title in lieu of the sale thereof as provided by law. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 438, § 1, 43 Stat. 1116.)

42. Application for vessel or vehicle.—Upon application therefor by the Secretary of the Treasury, any vessel or vehicle forfeited to the United States by a decree of any court for violation of this title may be ordered by the court to be delivered to the Treasury Department for use in the enforcement of the provisions of this title in lieu of the sale thereof as provided by law. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 438, § 2, 43 Stat. 1116.)

43. Limitation on use; appropriations for expense of maintenance, etc., report in Budget as to vessels or vehicles; disposition when not needed for official use.—Any vessel or vehicle acquired under the provisions of the two preceding sections shall be utilized only for official purposes in the enforcement of this title. The appropriations available for enforcement of this title shall be available for the payment of expenses of maintenance, repair, and operation of said vessels and vehicles, including motor-propelled passenger-carrying vehicles. Said appropriations shall also be available for the payment of the actual costs incident to the seizure and forfeiture, and if the seizure is made under any section of law under which liens are recognized, for the payment of the amount of such lien allowed by the court. A report shall be submitted to Congress each year in the Budget, setting forth in detail a description of the vessels or vehicles so acquired, the cost of acquiring, the appraised value thereof, the uses to which they have been put, the appraised value of seizures resulting from their use, and the expense of operating such vessels or vehicles. Any vessel or vehicle so acquired when no longer needed for official use shall be disposed of in the same manner as other surplus property. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 438, § 3, 43 Stat. 1116.)

44. Delivery of seized liquors to United States for certain purposes.—In all cases in which intoxicating liquors may be subject to be destroyed under the provisions of this chapter the court shall have jurisdiction upon the application of the United States attorney to order them delivered to any department or agency of the United States Government for medicinal, mechanical, or scientific uses, or to order the same sold at private sale for such purposes to any person having a permit to purchase liquor the proceeds to be covered into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of miscellaneous receipts. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 27, 41 Stat. 316.)

45. Powers of and protection to internal revenue officers in enforcement of chapter.—The commissioner, his assistants, agents, and inspectors, and all other officers of the United States, whose duty it is to enforce criminal laws, shall have all the power and protection in the enforcement of this chapter or any provisions thereof which is conferred by law for the enforcement of existing laws relating to the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors under the law of the United States. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 28, 41 Stat. 316.)

46. Punishment for unlawful manufacture or sale of liquor or violation of permits.—Any person who manufactures or sells liquor in violation of this chapter shall for a first offense be fined not more than $1,000, or imprisoned not exceeding six months, and for a second or subsequent offense shall be fined not less than $200 nor more than $2,000 and be imprisoned not less than one month nor more than five years.

Any person violating the provisions of any permit, or who makes any false record, report, or affidavit required by this chapter, or violates any of the provisions of this chapter, for which offense a special penalty is not prescribed, shall be fined for a first offense not more than $500; for a second offense not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, or be imprisoned not more than ninety days; for any subsequent offense he shall be fined not less than $500 and be imprisoned not less than three months nor more than two years. It shall be the duty of the prosecuting officer to ascertain whether the defendant has been previously convicted and to plead the prior conviction in the affidavit, information, or indictment. The penalties provided in this chapter against the manufacture of liquor without a permit shall not apply to a person for manufacturing nonintoxicating cider and fruit juices exclusively for use in his home, but such cider and fruit juices shall not be sold or delivered except to persons having permits to manufacture vinegar. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 29, 41 Stat. 316.)

47. Privilege of witnesses; immunity from prosecution.—No person shall be excused, on the ground that it may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture, from attending and testifying, or producing books, papers, documents, and other evidence in obedience to a subpœna of any court in any suit or proceeding based upon or growing out of any alleged violation of this chapter; but no natural person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing as to which, in obedience to a subpœna and under oath, he may so testify or produce evidence, but no person shall be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 30, 41 Stat. 317.)

48. Venue of prosecution for unlawful sale of liquor.—In case of a sale of liquor where the delivery thereof was made by a common or other carrier the sale and delivery shall be deemed to be made in the county or district wherein the delivery was made by such carrier to the consignee, his agent or employee, or in the county or district wherein the sale was made, or from which the shipment was made, and prosecution for such sale or delivery may be had in any such county or district. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 31, 41 Stat. 317.)

49. Affidavits, information, or indictments; joinder of separate offenses.—In any affidavit, information, or indictment for the violation of this chapter, separate offenses may be united in separate counts and the defendant may be tried on all at one trial and the penalty for all offenses may be imposed. It shall not be necessary in any affidavit, information, or indictment to give the name of the purchaser or to include any defensive negative averments, but it shall be sufficient to state that the act complained of was then and there prohibited and unlawful, but this provision shall not be construed to preclude the trial court from directing the furnishing the defendant a bill of particulars when it deems it proper to do so. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 32, 41 Stat. 317.)

50. Possession of liquor prima facie evidence of unlawful purpose; reports of possession; exception.—The possession of liquors by any person not legally permitted under this chapter to possess liquor shall be prima facie evidence that such liquor is kept for the purpose of being sold, bartered, exchanged, given away, furnished, or otherwise disposed of in violation of the provisions of this chapter. But it shall not be unlawful to possess liquors in one's private dwelling while the same is occupied and used by him as his dwelling only and such liquor need not be reported, provided such liquors are for use only for the personal consumption of the owner thereof and his family residing in such dwelling and of his bona fide guests when entertained by him therein; and the burden of proof shall be upon the possessor in any action concerning the same to prove that such liquor was lawfully acquired, possessed, and used. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 33, 41 Stat. 317.)

51. Records and reports; inspection; use as evidence.—All records and reports kept or filed under the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to inspection at any reasonable hour by the commissioner or any of his agents or by any public prosecutor or by any person designated by him, or by any peace officer in the State where the record is kept, and copies of such records and reports duly certified by the person with whom kept or filed may be introduced in evidence with like effect as the originals thereof, and verified copies of such records shall be furnished to the commissioner when called for. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 34, 41 Stat. 317.)

52. Repeal; liquor taxes and penalties.—All provisions of law that are inconsistent with this chapter are repealed only to the extent of such inconsistency and the regulations herein provided for the manufacture or traffic in intoxicating liquor shall be construed as in addition to existing laws. This chapter shall not relieve anyone from paying any taxes or other charges imposed upon the manufacture or traffic in such liquor. No liquor revenue stamps or tax receipts for any illegal manufacture or sale shall be issued in advance, but upon evidence of such illegal manufacture or sale a tax shall be assessed against, and collected from, the person responsible for such illegal manufacture or sale in double the amount now provided by law, with an additional penalty of $500 on retail dealers and $1,000 on manufacturers. The payment of such tax or penalty shall give no right to engage in the manufacture or sale of such liquor, or relieve anyone from criminal liability, nor shall this chapter relieve any person from any liability, civil or criminal, heretofore or hereafter incurred under existing laws. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 35, 41 Stat. 317.)

53. Assessment and collection of taxes and penalties.—All taxes and tax penalties provided for in section 52 of this chapter shall be assessed and collected in the same manner and by the same procedure as other taxes on the manufacture of or traffic in liquor. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 134, § 5, 42 Stat. 223.)

54. Loss of distilled spirits as affecting payment of tax thereon.—If distilled spirits upon which the internal-revenue tax has not been paid are lost by theft, accidental fire, or other casualty while in possession of a common carrier subject to chapters 24 and 25 of Title 46, chapter 7 of Title 45, and sections 71 to 74, 76 to 78, and 141 of Title 49, or if lost by theft from a distillery or other bonded warehouse, and it shall be made to appear to the commissioner that such losses did not occur as the result of negligence, connivance, collusion, or fraud on the part of the owner or person legally accountable for such distilled spirits, no tax shall be assessed or collected upon the distilled spirits so lost, nor shall any tax penalty be imposed or collected by reason of such loss, but the exemption from the tax and penalty shall only be allowed to the extent that the claimant is not indemnified against or recompensed for such loss. This provision shall apply to any claim for taxes or tax penalties that may have accrued since October 28, 1919, or that may accrue hereafter. Nothing in this section shall be construed as in any manner limiting or restricting the provisions of Chapter 3 of this title. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 134, § 5, 42 Stat. 223.)

55. Power of commissioner to compromise civil causes.—The commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may compromise any civil cause arising under this chapter before bringing action in court; and with the approval of the Attorney General he may compromise any such cause after action thereon has been commenced. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 35, 41 Stat. 317.)

56. Limitation and regulation of importation, reimportation and manufacture of spirituous and vinous liquor.—No spirituous liquor shall be imported into the United States, nor shall any permit be granted authorizing the manufacture of any spirituous liquor, save alcohol, until the amount of such liquor now in distilleries or other bonded warehouses shall have been reduced to a quantity that in the opinion of the commissioner will, with liquor that may thereafter be manufactured and imported, be sufficient to supply the current need thereafter for all nonbeverage uses: Provided, That no vinous liquor shall be imported into the United States unless it is made to appear to the commissioner that vinous liquor for such nonbeverage use produced in the United States is not sufficient to meet such nonbeverage needs: Provided further, That the commissioner may authorize the return to the United States under such regulations and conditions as he may prescribe any distilled spirits of American production exported free of tax and reimported in original packages in which exported and consigned for redeposit in the distillery bonded warehouse from which originally removed. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 134, § 2, 42 Stat. 222.)

57. Storage in or transportation to bonded warehouses of liquor already manufactured.—Nothing herein shall prevent the storage in United States bonded warehouses of all liquor manufactured prior to the taking effect of this chapter, or prevent the transportation of such liquor to such warehouses or to any wholesale druggist for sale to such druggist for purposes not prohibited when the tax is paid, and permits may be issued therefor. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, 41 Stat. 318.)

58. Development of liquids to contain more than one-half of 1 per centum of alcohol; reduction of same.—A manufacturer of any beverage containing less than one-half of 1 per centum of alcohol by volume may, on making application and giving such bond as the commissioner shall prescribe, be given a permit to develop in the manufacture thereof by the usual methods of fermentation and fortification or otherwise a liquid such as beer, ale, porter, or wine, containing more than one-half of 1 per centum of alcohol by volume, but before any such liquid is withdrawn from the factory or otherwise disposed of the alcoholic contents thereof shall under such rules and regulations as the commissioner may prescribe be reduced below such one-half of 1 per centum of alcohol: Provided, That such liquid may be removed and transported, under bond and under such regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, from one bonded plant or warehouse to another for the purpose of having the alcohol extracted therefrom. And such liquids may be developed, under permit, by persons other than the manufacturers of beverages containing less than one-half of 1 per centum of alcohol by volume, and sold to such manufacturers for conversion into such beverages. The alcohol removed from such liquid, if evaporated and not condensed and saved, shall not be subject to tax; if saved, it shall be subject to the same law as other alcoholic liquors. Credit shall be allowed on the tax due on any alcohol so saved to the amount of any tax paid upon distilled spirits or brandy used in the fortification of the liquor from which the same is saved. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 37, 41 Stat. 318.)

59. Tax on fortified wines for nonbeverage alcohol.—When fortified wines are made and used for the production of nonbeverage alcohol, and dealcoholized wines containing less than one-half of 1 per centum of alcohol by volume, no tax shall be assessed or paid on the spirits used in such fortification, and such dealcoholized wines produced under the provisions of this chapter, whether carbonated or not, shall not be subject to the tax on artificially carbonated or sparkling wines, but shall be subject to the tax on still wines only. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 37, 41 Stat. 318.)

60. Burden of proof as to alcoholic content.—In any case where the manufacturer is charged with manufacturing or selling for beverage purposes any malt, vinous, or fermented liquids containing one-half of 1 per centum or more of alcohol by volume, or in any case where the manufacturer, having been permitted by the commissioner to develop a liquid such as ale, beer, porter, or wine containing more than one-half of 1 per centum of alcohol by volume in the manner and for the purpose herein provided, is charged with failure to reduce the alcoholic content of any such liquid below such one-half of 1 per centum before withdrawing the same from the factory, then in either such case the burden of proof shall be on such manufacturer to show that such liquid so manufactured, sold, or withdrawn contains less than one-half of 1 per centum of alcohol by volume. In any suit or proceeding involving the alcoholic content of any beverage, the reasonable expense of analysis of such beverage shall be taxed as costs in the case. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 37, 41 Stat. 318.)

61. Employees and equipment for enforcement of chapter; appointment and purchase; appropriation.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue and the Attorney General of the United States are hereby respectively authorized to appoint and employ such assistants, experts, clerks, and other employees in the District of Columbia or elsewhere, and to purchase such supplies and equipment as they may deem necessary for the enforcement of the provisions of this title, but such assistants, experts, clerks, and other employees, except such executive officers as may be appointed by the Commissioner or the Attorney General to have immediate direction of the enforcement of the provisions of this title, and persons authorized to issue permits, and agents and inspectors in the field service, shall be appointed under the rules and regulations prescribed by chapter 12 of Title 5: Provided, That the Commissioner and Attorney General in making such appointments shall give preference to those who have served in the military or naval service in the recent war, if otherwise qualified, and there is hereby authorized to be appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, such sum as may be required for the enforcement of this chapter including personal services in the District of Columbia. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 38, 41 Stat. 319.)

62. Summons to citizens whose property rights may be affected.—In all cases wherein the property of any citizen is proceeded against or wherein a judgment affecting it might be rendered, and the citizen is not the one who in person violated the provisions of the law, summons must be issued in due form and served personally, if said person is to be found within the jurisdiction of the court. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 39, 41 Stat. 319.)

63. Prohibition of intoxicating liquors in Canal Zone.—It shall be unlawful to import or introduce into the Canal Zone, or to manufacture, sell, give away, dispose of, transport, or have in one's possession or under one's control within the Canal Zone, any alcoholic, fermented, brewed, distilled, vinous, malt, or spirituous liquors, except for sacramental, scientific, pharmaceutical, industrial, or medicinal purposes, under regulations to be made by the President, and any such liquors within the Canal Zone in violation hereof shall be forfeited to the United States and seized: Provided, That this section shall not apply to liquor in transit through the Panama Canal or on the Panama Railroad.

That each and every violation of any of the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment not exceeding six months for a first offense, and by a fine not less than $200 nor more than $2,000 and imprisonment not less than one month nor more than five years for a second or subsequent offense.

That all offenses heretofore committed within the Canal Zone may be prosecuted and all penalties therefor enforced in the same manner and to the same extent as if this chapter had not been passed. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title III, § 20, 41 Stat. 322.)

64. Effect of partial invalidity of chapter.—If any provision of this chapter shall be held invalid it shall not be construed to invalidate other provisions of the chapter. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title II, § 36, 41 Stat. 318.)

72. Plants and warehouses; registration of plants; applications; bonds; permits.
73. Establishment of warehouses.
74. Transfer of alcohol to other plants or warehouses.
75. Tax on alcohol.
76. Withdrawal of distilled spirits from bonded warehouses for denaturing or deposit in warehouse established under chapter.
77. Operation of distillery or bonded warehouse as industrial-alcohol plant or bonded warehouse therefor.
78. Production, use, or sale of alcohol.
79. Exemption of plants and warehouses from certain laws.
80. Establishment of denaturing plants; sale of denatured alcohol tax free; distilled vinegar.
81. Withdrawal of alcohol tax free for denaturing and other enumerated purposes.
82. Penalties.
83. Regulations for establishment, bonding, and operation of industrial-alcohol plants, denaturing plants, and bonded warehouses.
84. Refund of tax on alcohol for loss, evaporation, shrinkage, or leakage.
85. Punishment for unlawful operation of industrial-alcohol plant or denaturing plant.
86. Collection of tax on alcohol.
87. Release of property seized.
88. Applicability of administrative provisions of internal revenue laws.
89. Repeal of laws relating to alcohol.

Section 71. Definitions.—When used in this chapter the term "alcohol" means that substance known as ethyl alcohol, hydrated oxide of ethyl, or spirit of wine, from whatever source or whatever processes produced.

The term "container" includes any receptacle, vessel, or form of package, tank, or conduit used or capable of use for holding, storing, transferring, or shipment of alcohol. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title III, § 1, 41 Stat. 319.)

72. Plants and warehouses; registration of plants; applications; bonds; permits.—Any person establishing a plant for the production of industrial alcohol shall, before operation, make application to the commissioner for registration of his plant, file bond, and receive permit for the operation of such plant. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title III, § 2, 41 Stat. 319.)

73. Establishment of warehouses.—Warehouses for the storage and distribution of alcohol to be used exclusively for other than beverage purposes may be established upon filing of application and bond, and issuance of permit at such places, either in connection with the manufacturing plant or elsewhere, as the commissioner may determine; and the entry and storage of alcohol therein, and the withdrawals of alcohol therefrom shall be made in such containers and by such means as the commissioner by regulation may prescribe. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title III, § 3, 41 Stat. 319.)

74. Transfer of alcohol to other plants or warehouses.—Alcohol produced at any registered industrial-alcohol plant or stored in any bonded warehouse may be transferred under regulations to any other registered industrial-alcohol plant or bonded warehouse for any lawful purpose. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title III, § 4, 41 Stat. 320.)

75. Tax on alcohol.—Any tax imposed by law upon alcohol shall attach to such alcohol as soon as it is in existence as such, and all proprietors of industrial-alcohol plants and bonded warehouses shall be jointly and severally liable for any and all taxes on any and all alcohol produced thereat or stored therein. Such taxes shall be a first lien on such alcohol and the premises and plant in which such alcohol is produced or stored, together with all improvements and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title III, § 5, 41 Stat. 320.)

76. Withdrawal of distilled spirits from bonded warehouses for denaturing or deposit in warehouse established under chapter.—Any distilled spirits produced and fit for beverage purposes remaining in any bonded warehouse on or before the date when the eighteenth amendment of the Constitution of the United States goes into effect, may, under regulations, be withdrawn therefrom either for denaturation at any bonded denaturing plant or for deposit in a bonded warehouse established under this chapter; and when so withdrawn, if not suitable as to proof, purity, or quality for other than beverage purposes, such distilled spirits shall be redistilled, purified, and changed in proof so as to render such spirits suitable for other purposes, and having been so treated may thereafter be denatured or sold in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title III, § 6, 41 Stat. 320.)

77. Operation of distillery or bonded warehouse as industrial-alcohol plant or bonded warehouse therefor.—Any distillery or bonded warehouse heretofore legally established may, upon filing application and bond and the granting of permit, be operated as an industrial-alcohol plant or bonded warehouse under the provisions of this chapter and regulations made thereunder. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title III, § 7, 41 Stat. 320.)

78. Production, use, or sale of alcohol.—Alcohol may be produced at any industrial-alcohol plant established under the provisions of this chapter, from any raw materials or by any processes suitable for the production of alcohol, and, under regulations, may be used at any industrial-alcohol plant or bonded warehouse or sold or disposed of for any lawful purpose, as in this chapter provided. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title III, § 8, 41 Stat. 320.)

79. Exemption of plants and warehouses from certain laws.—Industrial-alcohol plants and bonded warehouses established under the provisions of this chapter shall be exempt from the provisions of sections 37, 43, 66, 67, 202 to 205, 221, 246, 247, 257, 263, 266, 281, 282, 284, 287 to 289, 291 to 294, 298, 303 to 305, 309, 311 to 314, 318 to 320, 323, 324, 341, 361, 363 to 367, 371 to 374, 393 to 396, 398 to 401, and 407 of Title 26, and from such other provisions of existing laws relating to distilleries and bonded warehouses as may, by regulations, be declared inapplicable to industrial-alcohol plants and bonded warehouses established under this chapter.

Regulations may be made embodying any provision of the sections above enumerated. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title III, § 9, 41 Stat. 320.)

80. Establishment of denaturing plants; sale of denatured alcohol tax free; distilled vinegar.—Upon the filing of application and bond and issuance of permit denaturing plants may be established upon the premises of any industrial-alcohol plant, or elsewhere, and shall be used exclusively for the denaturation of alcohol by the admixture of such denaturing materials as shall render the alcohol, or any compound in which it is authorized to be used, unfit for use as an intoxicating beverage.

Alcohol lawfully denatured may, under regulations, be sold free of tax either for domestic use or for export.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require manufacturers of distilled vinegar to raise the proof of any alcohol used in such manufacture or to denature the same. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title III, § 10, 41 Stat. 320.)

81. Withdrawal of alcohol tax free for denaturing and other enumerated purposes.—Alcohol produced at any industrial-alcohol plant or stored in any bonded warehouse may, under regulations, be withdrawn tax free as provided by existing law from such plant or warehouse for transfer to any denaturing plant for denaturation, or may, under regulations, before or after denaturation, be removed from any such plant or warehouse for any lawful tax-free purpose.

Spirits of less proof than one hundred and sixty degrees may, under regulations, be deemed to be alcohol for the purpose of denaturation, under the provisions of this chapter.

Alcohol may be withdrawn, under regulations, from any industrial plant or bonded warehouse tax free by the United States or any governmental agency thereof, or by the several States and Territories or any municipal subdivision thereof or by the District of Columbia, or for the use of any scientific university or college of learning, any laboratory for use exclusively in scientific research, or for use in any hospital or sanatorium.

But any person permitted to obtain alcohol tax free, except the United States and the several States and Territories and subdivisions thereof, and the District of Columbia, shall first apply for and secure a permit to purchase the same and give the bonds prescribed under chapter 2 of this title, but alcohol withdrawn for nonbeverage purposes for use of the United States and the several States, Territories and subdivisions thereof, and the District of Columbia, may be purchased and withdrawn subject only to such regulations as may be prescribed. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title III, § 11, 41 Stat. 321.)

82. Penalties.—The penalties provided in this chapter shall be in addition to any penalties provided in chapter 2 of this title, unless expressly otherwise therein provided. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title III, § 12, 41 Stat. 321.)

83. Regulations for establishment, bonding, and operation of industrial-alcohol plants, denaturing plants, and bonded warehouses.—The commissioner shall from time to time issue regulations respecting the establishment, bonding, and operation of industrial-alcohol plants, denaturing plants, and bonded warehouses authorized herein, and the distribution, sale, export, and use of alcohol which may be necessary, advisable, or proper, to secure the revenue, to prevent diversion of the alcohol to illegal uses, and to place the nonbeverage alcohol industry and other industries using such alcohol as a chemical raw material or for other lawful purpose upon the highest possible plane of scientific and commercial efficiency consistent with the interests of the Government, and which shall insure an ample supply of such alcohol and promote its use in scientific research and the development of fuels, dyes, and other lawful products. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title III, § 13, 41 Stat. 321.)

84. Refund of tax on alcohol for loss, evaporation, shrinkage, or leakage.—Whenever any alcohol is lost by evaporation or other shrinkage, leakage, casualty, or unavoidable cause during distillation, redistillation, denaturation, withdrawal, piping, shipment, warehousing, storage, packing, transfer, or recovery, of any such alcohol the commissioner may remit or refund any tax incurred under existing law upon such alcohol, provided he is satisfied that the alcohol has not been diverted to any illegal use: Provided also, That such allowance shall not be granted if the person claiming same is indemnified against such loss by a valid claim of insurance. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title III, § 14, 41 Stat. 321.)

85. Punishment for unlawful operation of industrial-alcohol plant or denaturing plant.—Whoever operates an industrial-alcohol plant or a denaturing plant without complying with the provisions of this chapter and lawful regulations made thereunder, or whoever withdraws or attempts to withdraw or secure tax free any alcohol subject to tax, or whoever otherwise violates any of the provisions of this chapter or of regulations lawfully made thereunder shall be liable, for the first offense, to a penalty of not exceeding $1,000, or imprisonment not exceeding thirty days, or both, and for a second or cognate offense to a penalty of not less than $100 nor more than $10,000, and to imprisonment of not less than thirty days nor more than one year. It shall be lawful for the commissioner in all cases of second or cognate offense to refuse to issue for a period of one year a permit for the manufacture or use of alcohol upon the premises of any person responsible in any degree for the violation. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title III, § 15, 41 Stat. 321.)

86. Collection of tax on alcohol.—Any tax payable upon alcohol under existing law may be collected either by assessment or by stamp as regulations shall provide; and if by stamp, regulations shall issue prescribing the kind of stamp to be used and the manner of affixing and canceling the same. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title III, § 16, 41 Stat. 322.)

87. Release of property seized.—When any property is seized for violation of this chapter it may be released to the claimant or to any intervening party, in the discretion of the commissioner, on a bond given and approved. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title III, § 17, 41 Stat. 322.)

88. Applicability of administrative provisions of internal revenue laws.—All administrative provisions of internal revenue law, including those relating to assessment, collection, abatement, and refund of taxes and penalties, and the seizure and forfeiture of property, are made applicable to this chapter in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions thereof. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title III, § 18, 41 Stat. 322.)

89. Repeal of laws relating to alcohol.—All prior statutes relating to alcohol as defined in this chapter are hereby repealed in so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 85, Title III, § 19, 41 Stat. 322.)

Section 1. (Judicial Code, section 1, amended.) District courts; judges; appointment and residence.—In each of the districts described in chapter 5 there shall be a court called a district court, for which there shall be appointed one judge, to be called a district judge, except that in the northern district of California, the southern district of California, the northern district of Illinois, the district of Indiana, the district of Minnesota, the district of Nebraska, the eastern district of New York, the northern and southern districts of Ohio, the district of Oregon, the eastern and western districts of Pennsylvania, the western district of Texas, and the western district of Washington, there shall be an additional district judge in each, in the district of New Jersey two additional district judges, and in the southern district of New York three additional district judges, and such other additional district judges as have been or may be provided for by law. There shall be one judge for the northern and southern districts of Mississippi. The district judge for the middle district of Alabama shall also be a district judge for the northern district thereof. Every district judge shall reside in the district or one of the districts for which he is appointed, and for offending against this provision shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor. (R. S. §§ 551, 552; Aug. 2, 1886, c. 842, 24 Stat. 213; Dec. 19, 1900, c. 3, 31 Stat. 726; Feb. 4, 1903, c. 402, 32 Stat. 795; Feb. 9, 1903, c. 527, 32 Stat. 805; Apr. 1, 1904, c. 857, 33 Stat. 155; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1418, 33 Stat. 987; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1427, § 2, 33 Stat. 993; May 26, 1906, c. 2557, 34 Stat. 202; Feb. 25, 1907, c. 1189, 34 Stat. 928; Feb. 25, 1907, c. 1198, 34 Stat. 931; Feb. 27, 1907, c. 2073, 34 Stat. 997; Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2575, 34 Stat. 1253; Feb. 26, 1909, c. 215, 35 Stat. 656; Mar. 2, 1909, c. 242, 35 Stat. 685; Mar. 2, 1909, c. 243, 35 Stat. 686; Feb. 24, 1910, c. 56, 36 Stat. 201; Feb. 24, 1910, c. 57, 36 Stat. 202; June 25, 1910, c. 410, 36 Stat. 838; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 1, 36 Stat. 1087; July 30, 1914, c. 216, 38 Stat. 580; Mar. 3, 1915, c. 100, §§ 1, 2, 38 Stat. 961; Apr. 11, 1916, c. 64, § 1, 39 Stat. 48; Feb. 26, 1917, c. 120, 39 Stat. 938; Sept. 14, 1922, c. 306, § 1, 42 Stat. 837; Jan. 16, 1925, c. 83, § 3, 43 Stat. 752.)

2. Additional district judges for certain districts; vacancies.—There shall be in addition to the judges provided for in the sections 1, 3, and 4, of this title, one judge of the district court of the United States for the northern judicial district of the State of Texas; one judge of the district court of the United States for the judicial district of the State of North Dakota; one judge of the district court of the United States for the western district of Michigan. The said judges shall possess the same powers, perform the same duties, and receive the same compensation and allowances as the present judges of the respective districts. The judges appointed pursuant to this section for the judicial district of the State of North Dakota and for the western district of Michigan shall be held and treated as the senior judges and shall exercise such powers and perform such duties in their respective judicial districts as may be incident to seniority. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in either the office of the district judge of the northern district of Texas, or the district of North Dakota by retirement, disqualification or death of the judge senior in commission, such vacancy shall not be filled. Upon the death, resignation, or retirement of the district judge holding office on February 17, 1925, for the western district of Michigan, the vacancy caused thereby shall not be filled. (Feb. 26, 1919, c. 50, §§ 1, 2, 40 Stat. 1183; June 25, 1921, c. 29, §§ 1, 2, 42 Stat. 66, 67; Feb. 17, 1925, c. 254, §§ 1, 2, 43 Stat. 949.)

3. Same; residence.—There shall be in addition to the judges provided for in sections 1, 2, and 4 of this title the following number of district judges for the United States district courts in the districts specified:

For the district of Massachusetts, two; for the eastern district of New York, one; for the southern district of New York, two; for the district of New Jersey, one; for the western district of Pennsylvania, one; for the northern district of Texas, one; for the southern district of Florida, one; for the eastern district of Michigan, one; for the northern district of Ohio, one; for the northern district of Illinois, one; for the eastern district of Illinois, one; for the eastern district of Missouri, one; for the western district of Missouri, one; for the district of Montana, one; for the northern district of California, one; for the southern district of California, one; for the district of New Mexico, one; and for the district of Arizona, one.

A vacancy occurring after September 14, 1924, in the office of any district judge so appointed shall not be filled unless Congress shall so provide, and if an appointment is made to fill such a vacancy occurring before September 14, 1924, a vacancy thereafter occurring in said office shall not be filled unless Congress shall so provide.

Every judge shall reside in the district or circuit or one of the districts or circuits for which he is appointed. (Sept. 14, 1922, c. 306, § 1, 42 Stat. 837; Feb. 16, 1925, c. 233, §§ 1–3, 43 Stat. 945, 946; Mar. 2, 1925, c. 397, §§ 1–3, 43 Stat. 1098.)

4. Additional judge for district of Minnesota; residence; powers; vacancy.—There shall be in addition to the judges provided for in sections 1 to 3 of this title, one judge of the district court of the United States for the judicial district of Minnesota, who shall reside in said district and whose compensation and powers shall be the same as provided by law for the judges of said district. A vacancy occurring after March 2, 1927, in the office of the district judge appointed pursuant to this section shall not be filled unless Congress shall so provide. (Mar. 2, 1925, c. 397, §§ 1–3, 43 Stat. 1098.)

5. (Judicial Code, section 2, amended.) District judges; salaries.—Each of the district judges, including the judges in Porto Rico, Hawaii, and Alaska exercising Federal jurisdiction, shall receive a salary of $7,500 a year, to be paid in monthly installments. (Feb. 12, 1903, c. 547, 32 Stat. 825; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 2, 36 Stat. 1087; Feb. 25, 1919, c. 29, § 1, 40 Stat. 1156.)

6. Clerks of certain courts; appointment.—Except in cases otherwise provided for by law, a clerk shall be appointed for each United States district court including Hawaii and Porto Rico by the judge for the district, or the senior judge if there be more than one judge in the district. The clerk of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia shall be appointed by said court in general term. (R. S. § 555; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 3, 36 Stat. 1087; Feb. 26, 1919, c. 49, § 1, 40 Stat. 1182; Feb. 11, 1921, c. 46, 41 Stat. 1099; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1412.)

7. Deputies and clerical assistants.—Except as otherwise provided by law, when, in the opinion of the Attorney General, the public interest requires it he may, on the recommendation of the clerk of a district court, including the clerk of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia and the clerks of the district courts of Hawaii and Porto Rico, which recommendation shall state facts (as distinguished from conclusions) showing necessity for the same, allow such clerk to employ necessary deputies and clerical assistants. Deputy clerks may be designated to reside and maintain offices at such places of holding court as the judge may determine. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 4, 36 Stat. 1087; Feb. 26, 1919, c. 49, § 4, 40 Stat. 1182; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1412.)

8. (Judicial Code, section 4.) Deputy clerks; removal; death of clerk; liability for defaults of deputies.—Deputy clerks may be removed at the pleasure of the clerk appointing them, with the concurrence of the district judge. In case of the death of the clerk, his deputy or deputies shall, unless removed, continue in office and perform the duties of the clerk, in his name, until a clerk is appointed and qualified; and for the default or misfeasances in office of any such deputy, whether in the lifetime of the clerk or after his death, the clerk and his estate and the sureties on his official bond shall be liable; and his executor or administrator shall have such remedy for any such default or misfeasances committed after his death as the clerk would be entitled to if the same had occurred in his lifetime. (R. S. § 558; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 4, 36 Stat. 1087.)

9. (Judicial Code, section 5.) Criers and bailiffs.—The district court for each district may appoint a crier for the court; and the marshal may appoint such number of persons, not exceeding the number appropriated for by Congress, as the judge may determine, to wait upon the grand and other juries, and for other necessary purposes. (R. S. § 715; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 5, 36 Stat. 1088; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title II, 43 Stat. 1030.)

10. (Judicial Code, section 6.) Records; where kept.—The records of a district court shall be kept at the place where the court is held. When it is held at more than one place in any district and the place of keeping the records is not specially provided by law, they shall be kept at either of the places of holding the court which may be designated by the district judge. (R. S. § 562; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 6, 36 Stat. 1088.)

11. (Judicial Code, section 7.) Altering terms.—No action, suit, proceeding, or process in any district court shall abate or be rendered invalid by reason of any Act changing the time of holding such court, but the same shall be deemed to be returnable to, pending, and triable in the terms established next after the return day thereof. (R. S. § 573; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 7, 36 Stat. 1088.)

12. (Judicial Code, section 8.) Trials not discontinued by new term.—When the trial or hearing of any cause, civil or criminal, in a district court has been commenced and is in progress before a jury or the court, it shall not be stayed or discontinued by the arrival of the time fixed by law for another session of said court; but the court may proceed therein and bring it to a conclusion in the same manner and with the same effect as if another stated term of the court had not intervened. (R. S. § 746; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 8, 36 Stat. 1088.)

13. (Judicial Code, section 9.) Courts open as courts of admiralty and equity.—The district courts, as courts of admiralty and as courts of equity, shall be deemed always open for the purpose of filing any pleading, of issuing and returning mesne and final process, and of making and directing all interlocutory motions, orders, rules, and other proceedings preparatory to the hearing, upon their merits, of all causes pending therein. Any district judge may, upon reasonable notice to the parties, make, direct, and award, at chambers or in the clerk's office, and in vacation as well as in term, all such process, commissions, orders, rules, and other proceedings, whenever the same are not grantable of course, according to the rules and practice of the court. (R. S. § 574; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 9, 36 Stat. 1088.)

14. (Judicial Code, section 10.) Monthly adjournments for trial of criminal causes.—District courts shall hold monthly adjournments of their regular terms, for the trial of criminal causes, when their business requires it to be done, in order to prevent undue expenses and delays in such cases. (R. S. § 578; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 10, 36 Stat. 1088.)

15. (Judicial Code, section 11.) Special terms.—A special term of any district court may be held at the same place where any regular term is held, or at such other place in the district as the nature of the business may require, and at such time and upon such notice as may be ordered by the district judge. Any business may be transacted at such special term which might be transacted at a regular term. (R. S. § 581; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 11, 36 Stat. 1088.)

16. (Judicial Code, section 12.) Adjournment for nonattendance of judge.—If the judge of any district court is unable to attend at the commencement of any regular, adjourned, or special term, or any time during such term, the court may be adjourned by the marshal, or clerk, by virtue of a written order directed to him by the judge, to the next regular term, or to any earlier day, as the order may direct. (R. S. § 583; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 12, 36 Stat. 1088.)

17. (Judicial Code, section 13, amended.) Disability of judge; accumulation of business; designation of another judge.—Whenever any district judge by reason of any disability or necessary absence from his district or the accumulation or urgency of business is unable to perform speedily the work of his district, the senior circuit judge of that circuit, or, in his absence, the circuit justice thereof, may, if in his judgment the public interest requires, designate and assign any district judge of any district court within the same judicial circuit to act as district judge in such district and to discharge all the judicial duties of a judge thereof for such time as the business of the said district court may require. Whenever it is found impracticable to designate and assign another district judge within the same judicial circuit as above provided and a certificate of the needs of any such district is presented by said senior circuit judge or said circuit justice to the Chief Justice of the United States, he, or in his absence the senior associate justice, may, if in his judgment the public interest so requires, designate and assign a district judge of an adjoining judicial circuit if practicable, or if not practicable, then of any judicial circuit, to perform the duties of district judge and hold a district court in any such district as above provided. Before any such designation or assignment is made the senior circuit judge of the circuit from which the designated or assigned judge is to be taken shall consent thereto. All designations and assignments made hereunder shall be filed in the office of the clerk and entered on the minutes of both the court from and to which a judge is designated and assigned. (R. S. § 591; Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2940, 34 Stat. 1417; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 13, 36 Stat. 1089; Sept. 14, 1922, c. 306, § 3, 42 Stat. 839.)

18. (Judicial Code, section 14, amended.) Power of designated judge.—Each district judge designated and assigned under the provisions of section 17 of this chapter may hold separately and at the same time a district court in the district or territory to which such judge is designated and assigned and discharge all the judicial duties of the district or territorial judge therein. (R. S. § 592; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 14, 36 Stat. 1089; Sept. 14, 1922, c. 306, § 4, 42 Stat. 839.)

19. (Judicial Code, section 15.) Designation by Chief Justice.—If all the circuit judges and the circuit justice are absent from the circuit, or are unable to execute the provisions of section 17 of this title, or if the district judge so designated is disabled or neglects to hold the court and transact the business for which he is designated, the clerk of the district court shall certify the fact to the Chief Justice of the United States, who may thereupon designate and appoint in the manner aforesaid the judge of any district within such circuit or within any other circuit; and said appointment shall be transmitted to the clerk and be acted upon by him as directed in section 17 of this title. (R. S. § 593; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 15, 36 Stat. 1089.)

20. (Judicial Code, section 16.) New appointment and revocation.—Any such circuit judge, or circuit justice, or the Chief Justice, as the case may be, may, from time to time, if in his judgment the public interests so require, make a new designation and appointment of any other district judge, in the manner, for the duties, and with the powers mentioned in sections 17, 18, and 19 of this title, and revoke any previous designation and appointment. (R. S. § 594; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 231, § 16, 36 Stat. 1089.)

21. (Judicial Code, section 17.) Designation to aid another judge.—It shall be the duty of the senior circuit judge then present in the circuit, whenever in his judgment the public interest so requires, to designate and appoint, in the manner and with the powers provided in sections 17 and 18 of this title, the district judge of any judicial district within his circuit to hold a district court in the place or in aid of any other district judge within the same circuit. (R. S. § 596; Mar. 3, 1881, c. 133, 21 Stat. 454; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 17, 36 Stat. 1089.)

22. (Judicial Code, section 18, amended.) Circuit judge designated to hold district court; powers.—The Chief Justice of the United States, or the circuit justice of any judicial circuit, or the senior circuit judge thereof, may, if the public interest requires, designate and assign any circuit judge of a judicial circuit to hold a district court within such circuit. The judges of the United States Court of Customs Appeals, or any of them, whenever the business of that court will permit, may, if in the judgment of the Chief Justice of the United States the public interest requires, be designated and assigned by him for service from time to time, and until he shall otherwise direct, in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia or the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, when requested by the Chief Justice of either of said courts.

During the period of service of any judge designated and assigned under this chapter, he shall have all the powers, and rights, and perform all the duties, of a judge of the district, or a justice of the court, to which he has been assigned (excepting the power of appointment to a statutory position or of permanent designation of newspaper or depository of funds). In case a trial has been entered upon before such period of service has expired and has not been concluded, the period of service shall be deemed to be extended until the trial has been concluded.

Any designated and assigned judge who has held court in another district than his own shall have power, notwithstanding his absence from such district and the expiration of the time limit in his designation, to decide all matters which have been submitted to him within such district, to decide motions for new trials, settle bills of exceptions, certify or authenticate narratives of testimony, or perform any other act required by law or the rules to be performed in order to prepare any case so tried by him for review in an appellate court; and his action thereon in writing filed with the clerk of the court where the trial or hearing was had shall be as valid as if such action had been taken by him within that district and within the period of his designation. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 18, 36 Stat. 1089; Oct. 3, 1913, c. 18, 38 Stat. 208; Sept. 14, 1922, c. 306, § 5, 42 Stat. 839.)

23. (Judicial Code, section 19.) Same; duty of district or circuit judge.—It shall be the duty of the district or circuit judge who is designated and appointed under either of sections 17 to 22 of this title, to discharge all the judicial duties for which he is so appointed, during the time for which he is so appointed; and all the acts and proceedings in the courts held by him, or by or before him, in pursuance of said provisions, shall have the same effect and validity as if done by or before the district judge of the said district. (R. S. § 595; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 19, 36 Stat. 1090.)

24. (Judicial Code, section 20.) Interest or relationship of district judge.—Whenever it appears that the judge of any district court is in any way concerned in interest in any suit pending therein, or has been of counsel or is a material witness for either party, or is so related to or connected with either party as to render it improper, in his opinion, for him to sit on the trial, it shall be his duty, on application by either party, to cause the fact to be entered on the records of the court; and also an order that an authenticated copy thereof shall be forthwith certified to the senior circuit judge for said circuit then present in the circuit; and thereupon such proceedings shall be had as are provided in sections 17 and 18 of this title. (R. S. § 601; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 20, 36 Stat. 1090.)

25. (Judicial Code, section 21.) Affidavit of personal bias or prejudice of judge.—Whenever a party to any action or proceeding, civil or criminal, shall make and file an affidavit that the judge before whom the action or proceeding is to be tried or heard has a personal bias or prejudice either against him or in favor of any opposite party to the suit, such judge shall proceed no further therein, but another judge shall be designated in the manner prescribed in section 24 of this title, or chosen in the manner prescribed in section 27 of this title, to hear such matter. Every such affidavit shall state the facts and the reasons for the belief that such bias or prejudice exists, and shall be filed not less than ten days before the beginning of the term of the court, or good cause shall be shown for the failure to file it within such time. No party shall be entitled in any case to file more than one such affidavit; and no such affidavit shall be filed unless accompanied by a certificate of counsel of record that such affidavit and application are made in good faith. The same proceedings shall be had when the presiding judge shall file with the clerk of the court a certificate that he deems himself unable for any reason to preside with absolute impartiality in the pending suit or action. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 21, 36 Stat. 1090.)

26. (Judicial Code, section 22.) Continuance in case of vacancy in office.—When the office of judge of any district court becomes vacant, all process, pleadings, and proceedings pending before such court shall, if necessary, be continued by the clerk thereof until such times as a judge shall be appointed, or designated to hold such court; and the judge so designated, while holding such court, shall possess the powers conferred by, and be subject to the provisions contained in, section 23 of this title. (R. S. §§ 602, 603; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 22, 36 Stat. 1090.)

27. (Judicial Code, section 23.) Districts with more than one judge; division of business.—In districts having more than one district judge, the judges may agree upon the division of business and assignment of cases for trial in said district; but in case they do not so agree, the senior circuit judge of the circuit in which the district lies, shall make all necessary orders for the division of business and the assignment of cases for trial in said district. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 23, 36 Stat. 1090.)

Section 41. (Judicial Code, section 24, amended.) Original jurisdiction.—The district courts shall have original jurisdiction as follows:

(1) United States as plaintiff; civil suits at common law or in equity.—First. Of all suits of a civil nature, at common law or in equity, brought by the United States, or by any officer thereof authorized by law to sue, or between citizens of the same State claiming lands under grants from different States; or, where the matter in controversy exceeds, exclusive of interest and costs, the sum or value of $3,000, and (a) arises under the Constitution or laws of the United States, or treaties made, or which shall be made, under their authority, or (b) is between citizens of different States, or (c) is between citizens of a State and foreign States, citizens, or subjects. No district court shall have cognizance of any suit (except upon foreign bills of exchange) to recover upon any promissory note or other chose in action in favor of any assignee, or of any subsequent holder if such instrument be payable to bearer and be not made by any corporation, unless such suit might have been prosecuted in such court to recover upon said note or other chose in action if no assignment had been made. The foregoing provision as to the sum or value of the matter in controversy shall not be construed to apply to any of the cases mentioned in the succeeding paragraphs of this section. (R. S. §§ 563, 629; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 137, § 1, 18 Stat. 470; Mar. 3, 1887, c. 373, § 1, 24 Stat. 552; Aug. 13, 1888, c. 866, § 1, 25 Stat. 433; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, 36 Stat. 1091.)

(2) Crimes and offenses.—Second. Of all crimes and offenses cognizable under the authority of the United States. (R. S. § 563, pars. 1, 2, § 629, pars. 19, 20; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 137, § 1, 18 Stat. 470; Mar. 3, 1887, c. 373, § 1, 24 Stat. 552; Aug. 13, 1888, c. 866, § 1, 25 Stat. 433; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 2, 36 Stat. 1091.)

(3) Admiralty causes, seizures, and prizes.—Third. Of all civil causes of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction, saving to suitors in all cases the right of a common-law remedy where the common law is competent to give it, and to claimants for compensation for injuries to or death of persons other than the master or members of the crew of a vessel their rights and remedies under the workmen's compensation law of any

State, District, Territory, or possession of the United States, which rights and remedies when conferred by such law shall be exclusive; of all seizures on land or waters not within admiralty and maritime jurisdiction; of all prizes brought into the United States; and of all proceedings for the condemnation of property taken as prize. The jurisdiction of the district courts shall not extend to causes arising out of injuries to or death of persons other than the master or members of the crew, for which compensation is provided by the workmen's compensation law of any State, District, Territory, or possession of the United States. (R. S. § 563, pars. 8, 9, § 629, par. 6; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 3, 36 Stat. 1091; Oct. 6, 1917, c. 97, § 1, 40 Stat. 395; June 10, 1922, c. 216, § 1, 42 Stat. 634.)

(4) Suits under laws relating to slave trade.—Fourth. Of all suits arising under any law relating to the slave trade. (R. S. § 629, par. 7; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 4, 36 Stat. 1092.)

(5) Cases under internal revenue, customs, and tonnage laws.—Fifth. Of all cases arising under any law providing for internal revenue, or from revenue from imports or tonnage, except those cases arising under any law providing revenue from imports, jurisdiction of which has been conferred upon the Court of Customs Appeals. (R. S. § 563, par. 5, § 629, par. 4; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 5, 36 Stat. 1092.)

(6) Suits under postal laws.—Sixth. Of all cases arising under the postal laws. (R. S. § 563, par. 7, § 629, par. 4; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 6, 36 Stat. 1092.)

(7) Suits under patent, copyright, and trade-mark laws.—Seventh. Of all suits at law or in equity arising under the patent, the copyright, and the trade-mark laws. (R. S. § 629, par. 9; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 7, 36 Stat. 1092.)

(8) Suits for violation of interstate commerce laws.—Eighth. Of all suits and proceedings arising under any law regulating commerce. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 8, 36 Stat. 1092; Oct. 22, 1913, c. 32, 38 Stat. 219.)

(9) Penalties and forfeitures.—Ninth. Of all suits and proceedings for the enforcement of penalties and forfeitures incurred under any law of the United States. (R. S. § 563, pars. 3, 6, § 629, par. 5; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 9, 36 Stat. 1092.)

(10) Suits on debentures.—Tenth. Of all suits by the assignee of any debenture for drawback of duties, issued under any law for the collection of duties, against the person to whom such debenture was originally granted, or against any indorser thereof, to recover the amount of such debenture. (R. S. § 563, par. 10, § 629, par. 8; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 10, 36 Stat. 1092.)

(11) Suits for injuries on account of acts done under laws of United States.—Eleventh. Of all suits brought by any person to recover damages for any injury to his person or property on account of any act done by him, under any law of the United States, for the protection or collection of any of the revenues thereof, or to enforce the right of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States. (R. S. § 629, par. 12; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 11, 36 Stat. 1092.)

(12) Suits concerning civil rights.—Twelfth. Of all suits authorized by law to be brought by any person for the recovery of damages on account of any injury to his person or property, or of the deprivation of any right or privilege of a citizen of the United States, by any act done in furtherance of any conspiracy mentioned in section 47 of Title 8. (R. S. § 563, par. 11, § 629, par. 17; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 12, 36 Stat. 1092.)

(13) Suits against persons having knowledge of conspiracy.—Thirteenth. Of all suits authorized by law to be brought against any person who, having knowledge that any of the wrongs mentioned in section 47 of Title 8, are about to be done, and, having power to prevent or aid in preventing the same, neglects or refuses so to do, to recover damages for any such wrongful act. (R. S. § 629, par. 18; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 13, 36 Stat. 1092.)

(14) Suits to redress deprivation of civil rights.—Fourteenth. Of all suits at law or in equity authorized by law to be brought by any person to redress the deprivation, under color of any law, statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, or usage, of any State, of any right, privilege, or immunity, secured by the Constitution of the United States, or of any right secured by any law of the United States providing for equal rights of citizens of the United States, or of all persons within the jurisdiction of the United States. (R. S. § 563, par. 12, § 629, par. 16; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 14, 36 Stat. 1092.)

(15) Suits to recover certain offices.—Fifteenth. Of all suits to recover possession of any office, except that of elector of President or Vice President, Representative in or Delegate to Congress, or member of a State legislature, authorized by law to be brought, wherein it appears that the sole question touching the title to such office arises out of the denial of the right to vote to any citizen offering to vote, on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude. Such jurisdiction shall extend only so far as to determine the rights of the parties to such office by reason of the denial of the right guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States, and secured by any law, to enforce the right of citizens of the United States to vote in all the States. (R. S. § 563, par. 13, § 629, par. 13; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 15, 36 Stat. 1092.)

(16) Suits against national-banking associations.—Sixteenth. Of all cases commenced by the United States, or by direction of any officer thereof, against any national banking association, and cases for winding up the affairs of any such bank; and of all suits brought by any banking association established in the district for which the court is held, under the provisions of chapter 2 of Title 12, to enjoin the Comptroller of the Currency, or any receiver acting under his direction, as provided by said chapter. And all national banking associations established under the laws of the United States shall, for the purposes of all other actions by or against them, real, personal, or mixed, and all suits in equity, be deemed citizens of the States in which they are respectively located. (R. S. § 563, par. 15, § 629, pars. 10, 11; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 16, 36 Stat. 1092.)

(17) Suits by aliens for torts.—Seventeenth. Of all suits brought by any alien for a tort only, in violation of the laws of nations or of a treaty of the United States. (R. S. § 563, par. 16; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 17, 36 Stat. 1093.)

(18) Suits against consuls and vice consuls.—Eighteenth. Of all suits against consuls and vice consuls. R. S. § 563, par. 17; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 18, 36 Stat. 1093.)

(19) Suits and proceedings in bankruptcy.—Nineteenth. Of all matters and proceedings in bankruptcy. (R. S. § 563, par. 18; July 1, 1898, c. 541, §§ 2, 23, 30 Stat. 545, 552; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 19, 36 Stat. 1093.)

(20) Suits against United States.—Twentieth. Concurrent with the Court of Claims, of all claims not exceeding $10,000 founded upon the Constitution of the United States or any law of Congress, or upon any regulation of an executive department, or upon any contract, express or implied, with the Government of the United States, or for damages, liquidated or unliquidated, in cases not sounding in tort, in respect to which claims the party would be entitled to redress against the United States, either in a court of law, equity, or admiralty, if the United States were suable, and of all set-offs, counterclaims, claims for damages, whether liquidated or unliquidated, or other demands whatsoever on the part of the Government of the United States against any claimant against the Government in said court; and of any suit or proceeding commenced after the passage of the Revenue Act of 1921, for the recovery of any internal-revenue tax alleged to have been erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, or of any penalty claimed to have been collected without authority or any sum alleged to have been excessive or in any manner wrongfully collected under the internal-revenue laws even if the claim exceeds $10,000, if the collector of internal revenue by whom such tax, penalty, or sum was collected is dead or is not in office as collector of internal revenue at the time such suit or proceeding is commenced. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as giving to either the district courts or the Court of Claims jurisdiction to hear and determine claims growing out of the Civil War, and commonly known as "war claims," or to hear and determine other claims which had been rejected or reported on adversely prior to the 3d day of March, 1887, by any court, department, or commission authorized to hear and determine the same, or to hear and determine claims for pensions; or as giving to the district courts jurisdiction of cases brought to recover fees, salary, or compensation for official services of officers of the United States or brought for such purpose by persons claiming as such officers or as assignees or legal representatives thereof; but no suit pending on the 27th day of June, 1898, shall abate or be affected by this provision. No suit against the Government of the United States shall be allowed under this paragraph unless the same shall have been brought within six years after the right accrued for which the claim is made. The claims of married women, first accrued during marriage, of persons under the age of twenty-one years, first accrued during minority, and of idiots, lunatics, insane persons, and persons beyond the seas at the time the claim accrued, entitled to the claim, shall not be barred if the suit be brought within three years after the disability has ceased; but no other disability than those enumerated shall prevent any claim from being barred, nor shall any of the said disabilities operate cumulatively. All suits brought and tried under the provisions of this paragraph shall be tried by the court without a jury. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 359, §§ 1, 2, 24 Stat. 505; June 27, 1898, c. 503, § 1, 30 Stat. 494; July 1, 1898, c. 546, § 3, 30 Stat. 649; Feb. 26, 1900, c. 25, 31 Stat. 33; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 20, 36 Stat. 1093; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1310 (c), 42 Stat. 311; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1025 (c), 43 Stat. 348; Feb. 24, 1925, c. 309, 43 Stat. 972.

(21) Suits for unlawful inclosure of public lands.—Twenty-first. Of proceedings in equity, by writ of injunction, to restrain violations of the provisions of laws of the United States to prevent the unlawful inclosure of public lands; and it shall be sufficient to give the court jurisdiction if service of original process be had in any civil proceeding on any agent or employee having charge or control of the inclosure. (Feb. 25, 1885, c. 149, § 2, 23 Stat. 321; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 21, 36 Stat. 1093.)

(22) Suits under immigration and contract labor laws.—Twenty-second. Of all suits and proceedings arising under any law regulating the immigration of aliens, or under the contract labor laws. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 22, 36 Stat. 1093.)

(23) Suits against trusts, monopolies, and unlawful combinations.—Twenty-third. Of all suits and proceedings arising under any law to protect trade and commerce against restraints and monopolies. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 23, 36 Stat. 1093.)

(24) Suits concerning allotments of land to Indians; decrees; appeal.—Twenty-fourth. Of all actions, suits, or proceedings involving the right of any person, in whole or in part of Indian blood or descent, to any allotment of land under any law or treaty.

And the judgment or decree of any such court in favor of any claimant to an allotment of land shall have the same effect, when properly certified to the Secretary of the Interior, as if such allotment had been allowed and approved by him; but this provision shall not apply to any lands held on or before December 21, 1911, by either of the Five Civilized Tribes, the Osage Nation of Indians, nor to any of the lands within the Quapaw Indian Agency. The right of appeal shall be allowed to either party as in other cases. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 24, 36 Stat. 1094; Dec. 21, 1911, c. 5, 37 Stat. p. 46.)

(25) Partition suits where United States is joint tenant.—Twenty-fifth. Of suits in equity brought by any tenant in common or joint tenant for the partition of lands in cases where the United States is one of such tenants in common or joint tenants, such suits to be brought in the district in which such land is situate. (May 17, 1898, c. 339, § 1, 30 Stat. 416; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 24, par. 25, 36 Stat. 1094.)

(26) Original jurisdiction of bills of interpleader by insurance companies; hearing; injunction; orders and decrees.—Twenty-sixth. Of suits in equity begun by bills of interpleader, duly verified, filed by any insurance company or association or fraternal or beneficial society, and averring that one or more persons who are bona fide claimants against such company, association, or society resides or reside within the territorial jurisdiction of said court; that such company, association, or society has issued a policy of insurance or certificate of membership providing for the payment of $500 or more as insurance, indemnity, or benefits to a beneficiary, beneficiaries, or the heirs, next of kin, legal representatives, or assignee of the person insured or member; that two or more adverse claimants, citizens of different States, are claiming to be entitled to such insurance, indemnity, or benefits; that such company, association, or society has paid the amount thereof into the registry of the court, there to abide the judgment of the court.

In all such cases if the policy or certificate is drawn payable to the estate of the insured and has not been assigned in accordance with the terms of the policy or certificate the district court of the district of the residence of the personal representative of the insured shall have jurisdiction of such suit. In case the policy or certificate has been assigned during the life of the insured in accordance with the terms of the policy or certificate, the district court of the district of the residence of the assignee or of his personal representative shall have jurisdiction. In case the policy or certificate is drawn payable to a beneficiary or beneficiaries and there has been no such assignment as aforesaid the jurisdiction shall be in the district court of the district in which the beneficiary or beneficiaries or their personal representatives reside. In case there are beneficiaries resident in more districts than one, then jurisdiction shall be in the district court in any district in which a beneficiary or the personal representative of a deceased beneficiary resides.

Said court shall hear and determine the cause and shall discharge the complainant from further liability; and shall make the injunction permanent and enter all such other orders and decrees as may be suitable and proper, and issue all such customary writs as may be necessary or convenient to carry out and enforce the same. (Feb. 22, 1917, c. 113, 39 Stat. 929; Feb. 25, 1925, c. 317, §§ 1-3, 43 Stat. 976.)

(27) Enforcement of orders of Interstate Commerce Commission.—Twenty-seventh. Of all cases for the enforcement, otherwise than by adjudication and collection of a forfeiture or penalty or by infliction of criminal punishment, of any order of the Interstate Commerce Commission other than for the payment of money. (June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 1, 36 Stat. 539; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 207, 36 Stat. 1148; Oct. 22, 1913, c. 32, 38 Stat. 219.)

(28) Setting aside order of Interstate Commerce Commission.—Twenty-eighth. Of cases brought to enjoin, set aside, annul, or suspend in whole or in part any order of the Interstate Commerce Commission. (June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 1, 36

Stat. 539; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 207, 36 Stat. 1148; Oct. 22, 1913, c. 32, 38 Stat. 219.)

42. Original jurisdiction of action by or against corporation incorporated under Act of Congress.—No district court shall have jurisdiction of any action or suit by or against any corporation upon the ground that it was incorporated by or under an Act of Congress. This section shall not apply to any suit, action, or proceeding brought by or against a corporation incorporated by or under an Act of Congress wherein the Government of the United States is the owner of more than one-half of its capital stock. (Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 12, 43 Stat. 941.)

43. Venue of suits relating to orders of Interstate Commerce Commission.—The venue of any suit brought to enforce, suspend, or set aside, in whole or in part, any order of the Interstate Commerce Commission shall be in the judicial district wherein is the residence of the party or any of the parties upon whose petition the order was made, except that where the order does not relate to transportation or is not made upon the petition of any party the venue shall be in the district where the matter complained of in the petition before the commission arises, and except that where the order does not relate either to transportation or to a matter so complained of before the commission the matter covered by the order shall be deemed to arise in the district where one of the petitioners in court has either its principal office or its principal operating office. In case such transportation relates to a through shipment the term "destination" shall be construed as meaning final destination of such shipment. (Oct. 22, 1913, c. 32, 38 Stat. 219.)

44. Procedure in certain cases.—The procedure in the district courts in respect to cases of which jurisdiction is conferred upon them by subdivisions 27 and 28 of section 41 of this title, and sections 20 and 43 of Title 49, shall be as provided in section 45 of this title. The orders, writs, and processes of the district courts may in these cases run, be served, and be returnable anywhere in the United States. (Oct. 22, 1913, c. 32, 38 Stat. 220; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 1, 43 Stat. 938.)

45. (Judicial Code, section 209.) District courts; practice and procedure in certain cases.—The jurisdiction of the district courts of cases brought under subdivisions 27 and 28 of section 41 of this title, and sections 20 and 43 of Title 49, shall be invoked by filing in the office of the clerk of the court a written petition setting forth briefly and succinctly the facts constituting the petitioner's cause of action, and specifying the relief sought. A copy of such petition shall be forthwith served by the marshal or a deputy marshal of the district court or by the proper United States marshal or deputy marshal upon every defendant therein named, and when the United States is a party defendant, the service shall be made by filing a copy of said petition in the office of the secretary of the Interstate Commerce Commission and in the Department of Justice. Within thirty days after the petition is served, unless that time is extended by order of the court or a judge thereof, an answer to the petition shall be filed in the clerk's office, and a copy thereof mailed to the petitioner's attorney, which answer shall briefly and categorically respond to the allegations of the petition. No replication need be filed to the answer, and objections to the sufficiency of the petition or answer as not setting forth a cause of action or defense must be taken at the final hearing or by motion to dismiss the petition based on said grounds, which motion may be made at any time before answer is filed. In case no answer shall be filed as provided herein the petitioner may apply to the court on notice for such relief as may be proper upon the facts alleged in the petition. The court may, by rule, prescribe the method of taking evidence in cases pending in said court. In all other respects the practice and procedure shall conform as nearly as may be to that in like cases in a district court of the United States. (June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 1, 36 Stat. 539; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 209, 36 Stat. 1149; Oct. 22, 1913, c. 32, 38 Stat. 219.)

46. (Judicial Code, section 208.) Suits to enjoin orders of Interstate Commerce Commission to be against United States.—Suits to enjoin, set aside, annul, or suspend any order of the Interstate Commerce Commission shall be brought in the district court against the United States. The pendency of such suit shall not of itself stay or suspend the operation of the order of the Interstate Commerce Commission; but the court, in its discretion, may restrain or suspend, in whole or in part, the operation of the commission's order pending the final hearing and determination of the suit. (June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 3, 36 Stat. 542; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 208, 36 Stat. 1149.)

47. Interlocutory injunctions as to orders of Interstate Commerce Commission; appeal to Supreme Court.—No interlocutory injunction suspending or restraining the enforcement, operation, or execution of, or setting aside, in whole or in part, any order made or entered by the Interstate Commerce Commission shall be issued or granted by any district court of the United States, or by any judge thereof, or by any circuit judge acting as district judge, unless the application for the same shall be presented to a circuit or district judge, and shall be heard and determined by three judges, of whom at least one shall be a circuit judge, and unless a majority of said three judges shall concur in granting such application. When such application as aforesaid is presented to a judge, he shall immediately call to his assistance to hear and determine the application two other judges. Said application shall not be heard or determined before at least five days' notice of the hearing has been given to the Interstate Commerce Comimssion, to the Attorney General of the United States, and to such other persons as may be defendants in the suit. In cases where irreparable damage would otherwise ensue to the petitioner, a majority of said three judges concurring, may, on hearing, after not less than three days' notice to the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Attorney General, allow a temporary stay or suspension, in whole or in part, of the operation of the order of the Interstate Commerce Commission for not more than sixty days from the date of the order of said judges pending the application for the order or injunction, in which case the said order shall contain a specific finding, based upon evidence submitted to the judges making the order and identified by reference thereto, that such irreparable damage would result to the petitioner and specifying the nature of the damage. The said judges may, at the time of hearing such application, upon a like finding, continue the temporary stay or suspension in whole or in part until decision upon the application. The hearing upon such application for an interlocutory injunction shall be given precedence and shall be in every way expedited and be assigned for a hearing at the earliest practicable day after the expiration of the notice hereinbefore provided for. An appeal may be taken direct to the Supreme Court of the United States from the order granting or denying, after notice and hearing, an interlocutory injunction, in such case if such appeal be taken within thirty days after the order, in respect to which complaint is made, is granted or refused; and upon the final hearing of any suit brought to suspend or set aside, in whole or in part, any order of said commission the same requirement as to judges and the same procedure as to expedition and appeal shall apply. (Oct. 22, 1913, c. 32, 38 Stat. 220.)

48. (Judicial Code, section 211.) Suits to be against United States; intervention by United States.—All cases and proceedings brought under subdivisions 27 and 28 of section 41 of this title, and sections 20 and 43 of Title 49 shall be brought by or against the United States, and the United States may intervene in any case or proceeding whenever, though it has not been made a party, public interests are involved. (June 18, 1910,

c. 309, § 4, 36 Stat. 542; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 211, 36 Stat. 1150; Oct. 22, 1913, c. 32, 38 Stat. 219.)

49. (Judicial Code, section 25.) Appellate jurisdiction; Chinese exclusion laws.—The district courts shall have appellate jurisdiction of the judgments and orders of United States commissioners in cases arising under the Chinese exclusion laws. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 25, 36 Stat. 1094.)

50. (Judicial Code, section 26.) Same; felonies within Yellowstone National Park.—The district court for the district of Wyoming shall have jurisdiction of all felonies committed within the Yellowstone National Park and appellate jurisdiction of judgments in cases of conviction before the commissioner authorized to be appointed under section 27 of Title 16. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 26, 36 Stat. 1094.)

51. (Judicial Code, section 27.) Jurisdiction of crimes on Indian reservations in South Dakota.—The District Court of the United States for the District of South Dakota shall have jurisdiction to hear, try, and determine all actions and proceedings in which any person shall be charged with the crime of murder, manslaughter, rape, assault with intent to kill, arson, burglary, larceny, or assault with a dangerous weapon, committed within the limits of any Indian reservation in the State of South Dakota. (Feb. 2, 1903, c. 351, 32 Stat. 793; Mar. 4, 1909, c. 321, § 329, 35 Stat. 1151; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 27, 36 Stat. 1094.)

52. Claims resulting from seizure of vessels for unlawful sealing in Bering Sea; claims which may be submitted; limitations.—Jurisdiction is conferred upon the United States District Court, Northern District of California, to hear and determine the claims of American citizens, their heirs and legal representatives, for damages or loss occasioned by or resulting from the seizure, detention, sale, or interference with their voyage by the United States of vessels charged with unlawful sealing in the Bering Sea and water contiguous thereto and outside of the three-mile limit during the years 1886 to 1896, inclusive, and to enter judgment therefor.

All American citizens whose rights were affected by said seizure, detention, sale, or interference specifically referred to in the preceding paragraph during the years 1886 to 1896, inclusive, may submit to the United States District Court in and for the Northern District of California their claims thereunder, and the court shall render judgment thereon. Claims not presented within two years from June 7, 1924, shall thereafter be forever debarred. (June 7, 1924, c. 308, §§ 1, 2, 3, 43 Stat. 595.)

53. Jurisdiction of suits by or against China Trade Act corporation.—The Federal district courts shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of all suits (except as provided by sections 191 to 197, 199, 200, and 202 of Title 22, as amended) to which a China Trade Act corporation, or a stockholder, director, or officer thereof in his capacity as such, is a party. Suit against the corporation may be brought in the United States Court for China, or in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia or in the Federal district court for any district in which the corporation has an agent and is engaged in doing business. (Sept. 19, 1922, c. 346, § 20, 42 Stat. 855; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 345, § 10, 43 Stat. 996.)

Section 71. (Judicial Code, section 28, amended.) Removal of suits from State courts.—Any suit of a civil nature, at law or in equity, arising under the Constitution or laws of the United States, or treaties made, or which shall be made, under their authority, of which the district courts of the United States are given original jurisdiction, in any State court, may be removed by the defendant or defendants therein to the district court of the United States for the proper district. Any other suit of a civil nature, at law or in equity, of which the district courts of the United States are given jurisdiction, in any State court, may be removed into the district court of the United States for the proper district by the defendant or defendants therein, being nonresidents of that State. And when in any suit mentioned in this section there shall be a controversy which is wholly between citizens of different States, and which can be fully determined as between them, then either one or more of the defendants actually interested in such controversy may remove said suit into the district court of the United States for the proper district. And where a suit is brought in any State court, in which there is a controversy between a citizen of the State in which the suit is brought and a citizen of another State, any defendant, being such citizen of another State, may remove such suit into the district court of the United States for the proper district, at any time before the trial thereof, when it shall be made to appear to said district court that from prejudice or local influence he will not be able to obtain justice in such State court, or in any other State court to which the said defendant may, under the laws of the State, have the right, on account of such prejudice or local influence, to remove said cause. If it further appear that said suit can be fully and justly determined as to the other defendants in the State court, without being affected by such prejudice or local influence, and that no party to the suit will be prejudiced by a separation of the parties, said district court may direct the suit to be remanded, so far as relates to such other defendants, to the State court, to be proceeded with therein. At any time before the trial of any suit in any district court, which has been removed to said court from a State court on the affidavit of any party plaintiff that he had reason to believe and did believe that, from prejudice or local influence, he was unable to obtain justice in said State court, the district court shall, on application of the other party, examine into the truth of said affidavit and the grounds thereof, and, unless it shall appear to the satisfaction of said court that said party will not be able to obtain justice in said State court, it shall cause the same to be remanded thereto. Whenever any cause shall be removed from any State court into any district court of the United States, and the district court shall decide that the cause was improperly removed, and order the same to be remanded to the State court from whence it came, such remand shall be immediately carried into execution, and no appeal or writ of errror from the decision of the district court so remanding such cause shall be allowed. No case arising under sections 51 to 59 of Title 45, and brought in any State court of competent jurisdiction shall be removed to any court of the United States. No suit brought in any State court of competent jurisdiction against a railroad company, or other corporation, or person, engaged in and carrying on the business of a common carrier, to recover damages for delay, loss of, or injury to property received for transportation by such common carrier under section 20 of Title 49, shall be removed to any court of the United States where the matter in controversy does not exceed, exclusive of interest and costs, the sum or value of $3,000. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 137, § 2, 18 Stat. 470; Mar. 3, 1887,

c. 373, § 1, 24 Stat. 552; Aug. 13, 1888, c. 866, 25 Stat. 433; Apr. 5, 1910, c. 143, § 1, 36 Stat. 291; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 28, 36 Stat. 1094; Jan. 20, 1914, c. 11, 38 Stat. 278.)

72. (Judicial Code, section 29.) Same; procedure.—Whenever any party entitled to remove any suit mentioned in section 71 of this title, except suits removable on the ground of prejudice or local influence, may desire to remove such suit from a State court to the district court of the United States, he may make and file a petition, duly verified, in such suit in such State court at the time, or any time before the defendant is required by the laws of the State or the rule of the State court in which such suit is brought to answer or plead to the declaration or complaint of the plaintiff, for the removal of such suit into the district court to be held in the district where such suit is pending, and shall make and file therewith a bond, with good and sufficient surety, for his or their entering in such district court, within thirty days from the date of filing said petition, a certified copy of the record in such suit, and for paying all costs that may be awarded by the said district court if said district court shall hold that such suit was wrongfully or improperly removed thereto, and also for their appearing and entering special bail in such suit if special bail was originally requisite therein. It shall then be the duty of the State court to accept said petition and bond and proceed no further in such suit. Written notice of said petition and bond for removal shall be given the adverse party or parties prior to filing the same. The said copy being entered within said thirty days as aforesaid in said district court of the United States, the parties so removing the said cause shall, within thirty days thereafter, plead, answer, or demur to the declaration or complaint in said cause, and the cause shall then proceed in the same manner as if it had been originally commenced in the said district court. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 137, § 3, 18 Stat. 470; Mar. 3, 1887, c. 373, § 1, 24 Stat. 552; Aug. 13, 1888, c. 866, § 1, 25 Stat. 434; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 29, 36 Stat. 1095.)

73. (Judicial Code, section 30.) Same; suits under grants of land from different States.—If in any action commenced in a State court the title of land be concerned, and the parties are citizens of the same State and the matter in dispute exceeds the sum or value of $3,000, exclusive of interest and costs, the sum or value being made to appear, one or more of the plaintiffs or defendants, before the trial, may state to the court, and make affidavit if the court require it, that he or they claim, and shall rely upon, a right or title to the land under a grant from a State, and produce the original grant, or an exemplification of it, except where the loss of public records shall put it out of his or their power, and shall move that any one or more of the adverse party inform the court whether he or they claim a right or title to the land under a grant from some other State, the party or parties so required shall give such information, or otherwise not be allowed to plead such grant or give it in evidence upon the trial. If he or they inform the court that he or they do claim under such grant, any one or more of the party moving for such information may then, on petition and bond, as hereinbefore mentioned in this chapter, remove the cause for trial to the district court of the United States next to be holden in such district; and any one of either party removing the cause shall not be allowed to plead or give evidence of any other title than that by him or them stated as aforesaid as the ground of his or their claim. (R. S. § 647; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 137, § 3, 18 Stat. 470; Mar. 3, 1887, c. 373, § 1, 24 Stat. 552; Aug. 13, 1888, c. 866, § 1, 25 Stat. 435; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 30, 36 Stat. 1096.)

74. (Judicial Code, section 31.) Same; causes against persons denied civil rights.—When any civil suit or criminal prosecution is commenced in any State court, for any cause whatsoever, against any person who is denied or can not enforce in the judicial tribunals of the State, or in the part of the State where such suit or prosecution is pending, any right secured to him by any law providing for the equal civil rights of citizens of the United States, or of all persons within the jurisdiction of the United States, or against any officer, civil or military, or other person, for any arrest or imprisonment or other trespasses or wrongs made or committed by virtue of or under color of authority derived from any law providing for equal rights as aforesaid, or for refusing to do any act on the ground that it would be inconsistent with such law, such suit or prosecution may, upon the petition of such defendant, filed in said State court at any time before the trial or final hearing of the cause, stating the facts and verified by oath, be removed for trial into the next district court to be held in the district where it is pending. Upon the filing of such petition all further proceedings in the State courts shall cease, and shall not be resumed except as hereinafter provided. But all bail and other security given in such suit or prosecution shall continue in like force and effect as if the same had proceeded to final judgment and execution in the State court. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the State court to furnish such defendant, petitioning for a removal, copies of said process against him, and of all pleadings, depositions, testimony, and other proceedings in the case. If such copies are filed by said petitioner in the district court on the first day of its session, the cause shall proceed therein in the same manner as if it had been brought there by original process; and if the said clerk refuses or neglects to furnish such copies, the petitioner may thereupon docket the case in the district court, and the said court shall then have jurisdiction therein, and may, upon proof of such refusal or neglect of said clerk, and upon reasonable notice to the plaintiff, require the plaintiff to file a declaration, petition, or complaint in the cause; and, in case of his default, may order a nonsuit, and dismiss the case at the costs of the plaintiff, and such dismissal shall be a bar to any further suit touching the matter in controversy. But if, without such refusal or neglect of said clerk to furnish such copies and proof thereof, the petitioner for removal fails to file copies in the district court, as herein provided, a certificate, under the seal of the district court, stating such failure, shall be given, and upon the production thereof in said State court the cause shall proceed therein as if no petition for removal had been filed. (R. S. § 641; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 31, 36 Stat. 1096.)

75. (Judicial Code, section 32.) Same; petitioner in actual custody of State court.—When all the acts necessary for the removal of any suit or prosecution, as provided in section 74 of this title, have been performed, and the defendant petitioning for such removal is in actual custody on process issued by said State court, it shall be the duty of the clerk of said district court to issue a writ of habeas corpus cum causa, and of the marshal, by virtue of said writ, to take the body of the defendant into his custody, to be dealt with in said district court according to law and the orders of said court, or, in vacation, of any judge thereof; and the marshal shall file with or deliver to the clerk of said State court a duplicate copy of said writ. (R. S. § 642; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 32, 36 Stat. 1097.)

76. (Judicial Code, section 33, amended.) Same; suits and prosecutions against revenue officers.—When any civil suit or criminal prosecution is commenced in any court of a State against any officer appointed under or acting by authority of any revenue law of the United States, or against any person acting under or by authority of any such officer, on account of any act done under color of his office or of any such law, or on account of any right, title, or authority claimed by such officer or other person under any such law, or is commenced against any person holding property or estate by title derived from any such officer and affects the validity of any such revenue law, or against any officer of the courts of the United States for or on account of any act done under color of his office or in the performance of his duties as such officer, or when any civil suit or criminal prosecution is commenced against any person for or on account of anything done by him while an officer of either House of Congress in the discharge of his official duty in executing any order of such House, the said suit or prosecution may at any time before the trial or final hearing thereof be removed for trial into the district court next to be holden in the district where the same is pending upon the petition of such defendant to said district court and in the following manner: Said petition shall set forth the nature of the suit or prosecution and be verified by affidavit and, together with a certificate signed by an attorney or counselor at law of some court of record of the State where such suit or prosecution is commenced or of the United States stating that, as counsel for the petitioner, he has examined the proceedings against him and carefully inquired into all the matters set forth in the petition, and that he believes them to be true, shall be presented to the said district court, if in session, or if it be not, to the clerk thereof at his office, and shall be filed in said office. The cause shall thereupon be entered on the docket of the district court and shall proceed as a cause originally commenced in that court; but all bail and other security given upon such suit or prosecution shall continue in like force and effect as if the same had proceeded to final judgment and execution in the State court. When the suit is commenced in the State court by summons, subpœna, petition, or any other process except capias, the clerk of the district court shall issue a writ of certiorari to the State court requiring it to send to the district court the record and the proceedings in the cause. When it is commenced by capias or by any other similar form of proceeding by which a personal arrest is ordered, he shall issue a writ of habeas corpus cum causa, a duplicate of which shall be delivered to the clerk of the State court or left at his office by the marshal of the district or his deputy or by some other person duly authorized thereto; and thereupon it shall be the duty of the State court to stay all further proceedings in the cause, and the suit or prosecution, upon delivery of such process, or leaving the same as aforesaid, shall be held to be removed to the district court, and any further proceedings, trial, or judgment therein in the State court shall be void. If the defendant in the suit or prosecution be in actual custody on mesne process therein, it shall be the duty of the marshal, by virtue of the writ of habeas corpus cum causa, to take the body of the defendant into his custody, to be dealt with in the cause according to law and the order of the district court, or, in vacation, of any judge thereof; and if, upon the removal of such suit or prosecution, it is made to appear to the district court that no copy of the record and proceedings therein in the State court can be obtained, the district court may allow and require the plaintiff to proceed de novo and to file a declaration of his cause of action, and the parties may thereupon proceed as in actions originally brought in said district court. On failure of the plaintiff so to proceed, judgment of non prosequitur may be rendered against him, with costs for the defendant. (R. S. § 643; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 130, § 8, 18 Stat. 401; Feb. 8, 1894, c. 25, § 1, 28 Stat. 36; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 33, 36 Stat. 1097; Aug. 23, 1916, c. 399, 39 Stat. 532.)

77. (Judicial Code, section 34.) Same; suits by aliens.—Whenever a personal action has been or shall be brought in any State court by an alien against any citizen of a State who is, or at the time the alleged action accrued was, a civil officer of the United States, being a nonresident of that State wherein jurisdiction is obtained by the State court, by personal service of process, such action may be removed into the district court of the United States in and for the district in which the defendant shall have been served with the process, in the same manner as provided for the removal of an action brought in a State court by the provisions of section 76 of this title. (R. S. § 644; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 34, 36 Stat. 1098.)

78. (Judicial Code, section 35.) Same; copies of records refused by clerk of State court.—In any case where a party is entitled to copies of the records and proceedings in any suit or prosecution in a State court, to be used in any court of the United States, if the clerk of said State court, upon demand, and the payment or tender of the legal fees, refuses or neglects to deliver to him certified copies of such records and proceedings, the court of the United States in which such records and proceedings are needed may, on proof by affidavit that the clerk of said State court has refused or neglected to deliver copies thereof, on demand as aforesaid, direct such record to be supplied by affidavit or otherwise, as the circumstances of the case may require and allow; and thereupon such proceeding, trial, and judgment may be had in the said court of the United States, and all such processes awarded, as if certified copies of such records and proceedings had been regularly before the said court. (R. S. § 645; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 35, 36 Stat. 1098.)

79. (Judicial Code, section 36.) Same; previous attachment bonds or orders.—When any suit shall be removed from a State court to a district court of the United States, any attachment or sequestration of the goods or estate of the defendant had in such suit in the State court shall hold the goods or estate so attached or sequestered to answer the final judgment or decree in the same manner as by law they would have been held to answer final judgment or decree had it been rendered by the court in which said suit was commenced. All bonds, undertakings, or security given by either party in such suit prior to its removal shall remain valid and effectual notwithstanding said removal; and all injunctions, orders, and other proceedings had in such suit prior to its removal shall remain in full force and effect until dissolved or modified by the court to which such suit shall be removed. (R. S. § 646; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 137, § 4, 18 Stat. 471; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 36, 36 Stat. 1098.)

80. (Judicial Code, section 37.) Same; dismissal or remand.—If in any suit commenced in a district court, or removed from a State court to a district court of the United States, it shall appear to the satisfaction of the said district court, at any time after such suit has been brought or removed thereto, that such suit does not really and substantially involve a dispute or controversy properly within the jurisdiction of said district court, or that the parties to said suit have been improperly or collusively made or joined, either as plaintiffs or defendants, for the purpose of creating a case cognizable or removable under this chapter, the said district court shall proceed no further therein, but shall dismiss the suit or remand it to the court from which it was removed, as justice may require, and shall make such order as to costs as shall be just. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 137, § 5, 18 Stat. 472; Mar. 3, 1887, c. 373, § 6, 24 Stat. 555; Aug. 13, 1888, c. 866, § 6, 25 Stat. 436; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 37, 36 Stat. 1098.)

81. (Judicial Code, section 38.) Same; proceedings in suits removed.—The district court of the United States shall, in all suits removed under the provisions of this chapter, proceed therein as if the suit had been originally commenced in said district court, and the same proceedings had been taken in such suit in said district court as shall have been had therein in said State court prior to its removal. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 137, § 6, 18 Stat. 472; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 38, 36 Stat. 1098.)

82. (Judicial Code, section 39.) Same; record; filing and return.—In all causes removable under this chapter, if the clerk of the State court in which any such cause shall be pending shall refuse to any one or more of the parties or persons applying to remove the same, a copy of the record therein, after tender of legal fees for such copy, said clerk so offending shall, on conviction thereof in the district court of the United States to which said action or proceeding was removed, be fined not more than $1,000, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. The district court to which any cause shall be removable under this chapter shall have power to issue a writ of certiorari to said State court commanding said State court to make return of the record in any such cause removed as aforesaid, or in which any one or more of the plaintiffs or defendants have complied with the provisions of this chapter for the removal of the same, and enforce said writ according to law. If it shall be impossible for the parties or persons removing any cause under this chapter, or complying with the provisions for the removal thereof, to obtain such copy, for the reason that the clerk of said State court refuses to furnish a copy, on payment of legal fees, or for any other reason, the district court shall make an order requiring the prosecutor in any such action or proceeding to enforce forfeiture or recover penalty, as aforesaid, to file a copy of the paper or proceeding by which the same was commenced, within such time as the court may determine; and in default thereof the court shall dismiss the said action or proceeding; but if said order shall be complied with, then said district court shall require the other party to plead, and said action or proceeding shall proceed to final judgment. The said district court may make an order requiring the parties thereto to plead de novo; and the bond given, conditioned as aforesaid, shall be discharged so far as it requires copy of the record to be filed as aforesaid. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 137, § 7, 18 Stat. 472; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 39, 36 Stat. 1099.)

83. Service of process after removal.—In all cases removed from any State court to any United States court for trial in which any one or more of the defendants has not been served with process or in which the same has not been perfected prior to such removal, or in which the process served upon the defendant or defendants, or any of them, proves to be defective, such process may be completed by the United States court through its officers, or new process as to defendants upon whom process has not been completed may be issued out of such United States court, or service may be perfected in such court in the same manner as in cases which are originally filed in such United States court. Nothing in this section shall be construed to deprive any defendant upon whom process is so served after removal, of his right to move to remand the cause to the State court, the same as if process had been served upon him prior to such removal. (Apr. 16, 1920, c. 146, 41 Stat. 554.)

Section 101. (Judicial Code, section 40.) Capital cases.—The trial of offenses punishable with death shall be had in the county where the offense was committed, where that can be done without great inconvenience. (R. S. § 729; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 40, 36 Stat. 1100.)

102. (Judicial Code, section 41.) Offenses on the high seas.—The trial of all offenses committed upon the high seas, or elsewhere out of the jurisdiction of any particular State or district, shall be in the district where the offender is found, or into which he is first brought. (R. S. § 730; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 41, 36 Stat. 1100.)

103. (Judicial Code, section 42.) Offenses begun in one district and completed in another.—When any offense against the United States is begun in one judicial district and completed in another, it shall be deemed to have been committed in either, and may be dealt with, inquired of, tried, determined, and punished in either district, in the same manner as if it had been actually and wholly committed therein. (R. S. § 731; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 42, 36 Stat. 1100.)

104. (Judicial Code, section 43.) Suits for penalties and forfeitures.—All pecuniary penalties and forfeitures may be sued for and recovered either in the district where they accrue or in the district where the offender is found. (R. S. § 732; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 43, 36 Stat. 1100.)

105. (Judicial Code, section 44.) Suits for internal-revenue taxes.—Taxes accruing under any law providing internal revenue may be sued for and recovered either in the district where the liability for such tax occurs or in the district where the delinquent resides. (R. S. § 733; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 44, 36 Stat. 1100.)

106. (Judicial Code, section 45.) Seizures made on high seas.—Proceedings on seizures made on the high seas, for forfeiture under any law of the United States, may be prosecuted in any district into which the property so seized is brought and proceedings instituted. Proceedings on such seizures made within any district shall be prosecuted in the district where the seizure is made, except in cases where it is otherwise provided. (R. S. § 734; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 45, 36 Stat. 1100.)

107. (Judicial Code, section 46.) Capture of property used in insurrection.—Proceedings for the condemnation of any property captured, whether on the high seas or elsewhere out of the limits of any judicial district, or within any district, on account of its being purchased or acquired, sold or given, with intent to use or employ the same, or to suffer it to be used or employed, in aiding, abetting, or promoting any insurrection against the Government of the United States, or knowingly so used or employed by the owner thereof, or with his consent, may be prosecuted in any district where the same may be seized, or into which it may be taken and proceedings first instituted. (R. S. § 735; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 46, 36 Stat. 1100.)

108. (Judicial Code, section 47.) Seizures under various circumstances.—Proceedings on seizures for forfeiture of any vessel or cargo entering any port of entry which has been closed by the President in pursuance of law, or of goods and chattels coming from a State or section declared by proclamation of the President to be in insurrection into other parts of the United States, or of any vessel or vehicle conveying such property, or conveying persons to or from such State or section, or of any vessel belonging, in whole or in part, to any inhabitant of such

State or section, may be prosecuted in any district into which the property so seized may be taken and proceedings instituted; and the district court thereof shall have as full jurisdiction over such proceedings as if the seizure was made in that district. (R. S. § 564; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 47, 36 Stat. 1100.)

109. (Judicial Code, section 48.) Patent cases.—In suits brought for the infringement of letters patent the district courts of the United States shall have jurisdiction, in law or in equity, in the district of which the defendant is an inhabitant, or in any district in which the defendant, whether a person, partnership, or corporation, shall have committed acts of infringement and have a regular and established place of business. If such suit is brought in a district of which the defendant is not an inhabitant, but in which such defendant has a regular and established place of business, service of process, summons, or subpœna upon the defendant may be made by service upon the agent or agents engaged in conducting such business in the district in which suit is brought. (Mar. 3, 1897, c. 395, 29 Stat. 695; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 48, 36 Stat. 1100.)

110. (Judicial Code, section 49.) Proceedings to enjoin Comptroller of Currency.—All proceedings by any national banking association to enjoin the Comptroller of the Currency, under the provisions of any law relating to national banking associations, shall be had in the district where such association is located. (R. S. § 736; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 49, 36 Stat. 1100.)

111. (Judicial Code, section 50.) When part of several defendants can not be served.—When there are several defendants in any suit at law or in equity, and one or more of them are neither inhabitants of nor found within the district in which the suit is brought, and do not voluntarily appear, the court may entertain jurisdiction, and proceed to the trial and adjudication of the suit between the parties who are properly before it; but the judgment or decree rendered therein shall not conclude or prejudice other parties not regularly served with process nor voluntarily appearing to answer; and nonjoinder of parties who are not inhabitants of nor found within the district, as aforesaid, shall not constitute matter of abatement or objection to the suit. (R. S. § 737; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 50, 36 Stat. 1101.)

112. (Judicial Code, section 51, amended.) Civil suits; arrests in; district where brought; effective period.—(a) Except as provided in sections 113 to 117 of this title, no person shall be arrested in one district for trial in another in any civil action before a district court; and, except as provided in sections 113 to 118 of this title, no civil suit shall be brought in any district court against any person by any original process or proceeding in any other district than that whereof he is an inhabitant; but where the jurisdiction is founded only on the fact that the action is between citizens of different States, suit shall be brought only in the district of the residence of either the plaintiff or the defendant.

(b) Any civil suit, action, or proceeding brought by or on behalf of the United States, or by or on behalf of any officer of the United States authorized by law to sue, may be brought in any district whereof the defendant is an inhabitant, or where there be more than one defendant in any district whereof any one of the defendants, being a necessary party, or being jointly, or jointly and severally, liable, is an inhabitant, or in any district wherein the cause of action or any part thereof arose; and in any such suit, action, or proceeding process, summons, or subpœna against any defendant issued from the district court of the district wherein such suit is brought shall run in any other district, and service thereof upon any defendant may be made in any district within the United States or the territorial or insular possessions thereof in which any such defendant may be found with the same force and effect as if the same had been served within the district in which said suit, action, or proceeding is brought. The word "district" and the words "district court" as used herein shall be construed to include the District of Columbia and the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia.

(c) Paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section shall be effective for a period of four years after September 19, 1922, after which paragraph (a) alone shall be and remain in full force and effect. (R. S. § 739; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 137, § 1, 18 Stat. 470; Mar. 3, 1887, c. 373, § 1, 24 Stat. 552; Aug. 13, 1888, c. 866, § 1, 25 Stat. 433; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 51, 36 Stat. 1101; Sept. 19, 1922, c. 345, 42 Stat. 849; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 526, § 1, 43 Stat. 1264.)

113. (Judicial Code, section 52.) Suits in States containing more than one district.—When a State contains more than one district, every suit not of a local nature, in the district court thereof, against a single defendant, inhabitant of such State, must be brought in the district where he resides; but if there are two or more defendants, residing in different districts of the State, it may be brought in either district, and a duplicate writ may be issued against the defendants, directed to the marshal of any other district in which any defendant resides. The clerk issuing the duplicate writ shall indorse thereon that it is a true copy of a writ sued out of the court of the proper district; and such original and duplicate writs, when executed and returned into the office from which they issue, shall constitute and be proceeded on as one suit; and upon any judgment or decree rendered therein, execution may be issued, directed to the marshal of any district in the same State. (R. S. § 740; Mar. 3, 1881, c. 144, § 2, 21 Stat. 507; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 52, 36 Stat. 1101.)

114. (Judicial Code, section 53.) Districts containing more than one division; transfer of criminal cases.—When a district contains more than one division, every suit not of a local nature against a single defendant must be brought in the division where he resides; but if there are two or more defendants residing in different divisions of the district it may be brought in either division. All mesne and final process subject to the provisions of this section may be served and executed in any or all of the divisions of the district, or if the State contains more than one district, then in any of such districts, as provided in section 113 of this title. All prosecutions for crimes or offenses shall be had within the division of such districts where the same were committed, unless the court, or the judge thereof, upon the application of the defendant, shall order the cause to be transferred for prosecution to another division of the district. When a transfer is ordered by the court or judge, all the papers in the case, or certified copies thereof, shall be transmitted by the clerk, under the seal of the court, to the division to which the cause is so ordered transferred; and thereupon the cause shall be proceeded with in said division in the same manner as if the offense had been committed therein. In all cases of the removal of suits from the courts of a State to the district court of the United States such removal shall be to the United States district court in the division in which the county is situated from which the removal is made; and the time within which the removal shall be perfected, in so far as it refers to or is regulated by the terms of United States courts, shall be deemed to refer to the terms of the United States district court in such division. (June 2, 1906, c. 2569, § 2, 34 Stat. 207; Mar. 5, 1910, c. 82, 36 Stat. 233; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 53, 36 Stat. 1101.)

115. (Judicial Code, section 54.) Suits of local nature.—In suits of a local nature, where the defendant resides in a different district, in the same State, from that in which the suit is brought, the plaintiff may have original and final process against him, directed to the marshal of the district in which he resides. (R. S. § 741; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 54, 36 Stat. 1102.)

116. (Judicial Code, section 55.) Property in different districts in same State.—Any suit of a local nature, at law or in equity, where the land or other subject matter of a fixed character lies partly in one district and partly in another, within the same State, may be brought in the district court of either district; and the court in which it is brought shall have jurisdiction to hear and decide it, and to cause mesne or final process to be issued and executed, as fully as if the said subject matter were wholly within the district for which such court is constituted. (R. S. § 742; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 55, 36 Stat. 1102.)

117. (Judicial Code, section 56.) Property in different States in same circuit; jurisdiction of receiver.—Where in any suit in which a receiver shall be appointed the land or other property of a fixed character, the subject of the suit, lies within different States in the same judicial circuit, the receiver so appointed shall, upon giving bond as required by the court, immediately be vested with full jurisdiction and control over all the property, the subject of the suit, lying or being within such circuit; subject, however, to the disapproval of such order, within thirty days thereafter, by the circuit court of appeals for such circuit, or by a circuit judge thereof, after reasonable notice to adverse parties and an opportunity to be heard upon the motion for such disapproval; and subject, also, to the filing and entering in the district court for each district of the circuit in which any portion of the property may lie or be, within ten days thereafter, of a duly certified copy of the bill and of the order of appointment. The disapproval of such appointment within such thirty days, or the failure to file such certified copy of the bill and order of appointment within ten days, as herein required, shall divest such receiver of jurisdiction over all such property except that portion thereof lying or being within the State in which the suit is brought. In any case coming within the provisions of this section, in which a receiver shall be appointed, process may issue and be executed within any district of the circuit in the same manner and to the same extent as if the property were wholly within the same district; but orders affecting such property shall be entered of record in each district in which the property affected may lie or be. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 56, 36 Stat. 1102.)

118. (Judicial Code, section 57.) Absent defendants in suits to enforce liens.—When in any suit commenced in any district court of the United States to enforce any legal or equitable lien upon or claim to, or to remove any incumbrance or lien or cloud upon the title to real or personal property within the district where such suit is brought, one or more of the defendants therein shall not be an inhabitant of or found within the said district, or shall not voluntarily appear thereto, it shall be lawful for the court to make an order directing such absent defendant or defendants to appear, plead, answer, or demur by a day certain to be designated, which order shall be served on such absent defendant or defendants, if practicable, wherever found, and also upon the person or persons in possession or charge of said property, if any there be; or where such personal service upon such absent defendant or defendants is not practicable, such order shall be published in such manner as the court may direct, not less than once a week for six consecutive weeks. In case such absent defendant shall not appear, plead, answer, or demur within the time so limited, or within some further time, to be allowed by the court, in its discretion, and upon proof of the service or publication of said order and of the performance of the directions contained in the same, it shall be lawful for the court to entertain jurisdiction, and proceed to the hearing and adjudication of such suit in the same manner as if such absent defendant had been served with process within the said district; but said adjudication shall, as regards said absent defendant or defendants without appearance, affect only the property which shall have been the subject of the suit and under the jurisdiction of the court therein, within such district; and when a part of the said real or personal property against which such procedings shall be taken shall be within another district, but within the same State, such suit may be brought in either district in said State. Any defendant or defendants not actually personally notified as above provided may, at any time within one year after final judgment in any suit mentioned in this section, enter his appearance in said suit in said district court, and thereupon the said court shall make an order setting aside the judgment therein and permitting said defendant or defendants to plead therein on payment by him or them of such costs as the court shall deem just; and thereupon said suit shall be proceeded with to final judgment according to law. (R. S. §§ 738, 742; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 137, § 8, 18 Stat. 472; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 57, 36 Stat. 1102.)

119. (Judicial Code, section 58.) Transfer of civil causes to another division of district.—Any civil cause, at law or in equity, may, on written stipulation of the parties or of their attorneys of record signed and filed with the papers in the case, in vacation or in term, and on the written order of the judge signed and filed in the case in vacation or on the order of the court duly entered of record in term, be transferred to the court of any other division of the same district, without regard to the residence of the defendants, for trial. When a cause shall be ordered to be transferred to a court in any other division, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court from which the transfer is made to carefully transmit to the clerk of the court to which the transfer is made the entire file of papers in the cause and all documents and deposits in his court pertaining thereto, together with a certified transcript of the records of all orders, interlocutory decrees, or other entries in the cause; and he shall certify, under the seal of the court, that the papers sent are all which are on file in said court belonging to the cause; for the performance of which duties said clerk so transmitting and certifying shall receive the same fees as were allowed on March 3, 1911, by law for similar services, to be taxed in the bill of costs, and regularly collected with the other costs in the cause; and such transcript, when so certified and received, shall henceforth constitute a part of the record of the cause in the court to which the transfer shall be made. The clerk receiving such transcript and original papers shall file the same and the case shall then proceed to final disposition as other cases of a like nature. (Feb. 28, 1887, c. 271, § 4, 24 Stat. 425; June 2, 1906, c. 2569, § 1, 34 Stat. 206; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 58, 36 Stat. 1103.)

120. Change of venue from one division to another in Indiana.—Either party in a civil or criminal proceeding in the district of Indiana may apply to the court in term or to a judge thereof in vacation for a change of venue from the division where a suit or proceeding has been instituted to an adjoining division and the court in its discretion, or the judge in his discretion, may grant such a change. (Jan. 16, 1925, c. 83, § 6, 43 Stat. 752.)

121. (Judicial Code, section 59.) Creation of new district or division.—Whenever any new district or division has been or shall be established, or any county or territory has been or shall be transferred from one district or division to another district or division, prosecutions for crimes and offenses committed within such district, division, county, or territory prior to such transfer, shall be commenced and proceeded with the same as if such new district or division had not been created, or such county or territory had not been transferred, unless the court, upon the application of the defendant, shall order the cause to be removed to the new district or division for trial. Civil actions pending at the time of the creation of any such district or division, or the transfer of any such county or territory, and arising within the district or division so created or the county or territory so transferred, shall be tried in the district or division as it existed at the time of the institution of the action, or in the district or division so created, or to which the county or territory is or shall be so transferred, as may be agreed upon by the parties, or as the court shall direct. The transfer of such prosecutions and actions shall be made in the manner provided in section 119 of this title. (Aug. 5, 1886, c. 928, § 7, 24 Stat. 309; Mar. 2, 1901, c. 801, § 7, 31 Stat. 881; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 59, 36 Stat. 1103.)

122. (Judicial Code, section 60.) Creation of new district or transfer of territory; lien.—The creation of a new district or division, or the transfer of any county or territory from one district or division to another district or division, shall not affect or divest any lien theretofore acquired in the circuit or district court by virtue of a decree, judgment, execution, attachment, seizure, or otherwise, upon property situated or being within the district or division so created, or the county or territory so transferred. To enforce any such lien, the clerk of the court in which the same is acquired, upon the request and at the cost of the party desiring the same, shall make a true and certified copy of the record thereof, which, when so made and certified, and filed in the proper court of the district or division in which such property is situated or shall be, after such transfer, shall constitute the record of such lien in such court, and shall be evidence in all courts and places equally with the original thereof; and, thereafter like proceedings shall be had thereon, and with the same effect, as though the cause or proceeding had been originally instituted in such court. The provisions of this section shall apply not only in all cases where a district or division is created, or a county or any territory is transferred, but also in all cases where a district or division has been created, or a county or any territory has been transferred by any law enacted before March 3, 1911. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 60, 36 Stat. 1103.)

123. (Judicial Code, section 61.) Commissioners; oaths to appraisers.—Any district judge may appoint commissioners, before whom appraisers of vessels or goods and merchandise seized for breaches of any law of the United States, may be sworn; and such oaths, so taken, shall be as effectual as if taken before the judge in open court. (R. S. § 570; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 61, 36 Stat. 1104.)

124. (Judicial Code, section 65.) Management of property by receivers.—Whenever in any cause pending in any court of the United States there shall be a receiver or manager in possession of any property, such receiver or manager shall manage and operate such property according to the requirements of the valid laws of the State in which such property shall be situated, in the same manner that the owner or possessor thereof would be bound to do if in possession thereof. Any receiver or manager who shall willfully violate any provision of this section shall be fined not more than $3,000, or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 373, § 2, 24 Stat. 554; Aug. 13, 1888, c. 866, § 3, 25 Stat. 436; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 65, 36 Stat. 1104.)

125. (Judicial Code, section 66.) Suits against receiver.—Every receiver or manager of any property appointed by any court of the United States may be sued in respect of any act or transaction of his in carrying on the business connected with such property, without the previous leave of the court in which such receiver or manager was appointed; but such suit shall be subject to the general equity jurisdiction of the court in which such manager or receiver was appointed so far as the same may be necessary to the ends of justice. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 373, § 3, 24 Stat. 554; Aug. 13, 1888, c. 866, § 3, 25 Stat. 436; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 66, 36 Stat. 1104.)

126. (Judicial Code, section 67, amended.) Officers of courts.—No person shall be appointed to or employed in any office or duty in any court who is related by affinity or consanguinity within the degree of first cousin to the judge of such court. No such person holding a position or employment in a circuit court on December 21, 1911, shall be debarred from similar appointment or employment in the district court succeeding to such circuit-court jurisdiction. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 373, § 7, 24 Stat. 555; Aug. 13, 1888, c. 866, § 7, 25 Stat. 437; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 67, 36 Stat. 1105; Dec. 21, 1911, c. 4, 37 Stat. 46.)

127. (Judicial Code, section 68.) Masters or receivers.—No clerk of a district court of the United States or his deputy shall be appointed a receiver or master in any case, except where the judge of said court shall determine that special reasons exist therefor, to be assigned in the order of appointment. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 183, 20 Stat. 415; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 68, 36 Stat. 1105.)

Section 141. (Judicial Code, section 69.) Judicial districts.—The United States are divided into judicial districts as follows: (R. S. § 530; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 69, 36 Stat. 1105.)

142. (Judicial Code, section 70, amended.) Alabama.—The State of Alabama is divided into three judicial districts, to be known as the northern, middle, and southern districts of Alabama. The northern district shall include the territory embraced on the 1st day of July, 1910, in the counties of Cullman, Jackson, Lawrence, Limestone, Madison, and Morgan, which shall constitute the northeastern division of said district; also the territory embraced on the date last mentioned in the counties of Colbert, Franklin, and Lauderdale, which shall constitute the northwestern division of said district; also the territory embraced on the date last mentioned in the counties of Cherokee, Dekalb, Etowah, Marshall, and Saint Clair, which shall constitute the middle division of said district; also the territory embraced on the date last mentioned in the counties of Blount, Jefferson, and Shelby, which shall constitute the southern division of said district; also the territory embraced on the date last mentioned in the counties of Walker, Winston, Marion, Fayette, and Lamar, which shall constitute the Jasper division of said district; also the territory embraced on the date last mentioned in the counties of Calhoun, Clay, Cleburne, and Talladega, which shall constitute the eastern division of said district; also the territory embraced on the date last mentioned in the counties of Bibb, Greene, Pickens, Sumter, and Tuscaloosa, which shall constitute the western division of said district. Terms of the district court for the northeastern division shall be held at Huntsville on the first Tuesday in April and the second Tuesday in October; for the northwestern division, at Florence on the second Tuesday in February and the third Tuesday in October: Provided, That suitable rooms and accommodations for holding court at Florence shall be furnished free of expense to the Government; for the middle division, at Gadsden on the first Tuesdays in February and August: Provided, That suitable rooms and accommodations for holding court at Gadsden shall be furnished free of expense to the Government; for the southern division, at Birmingham on the first Mondays in March and September, which courts shall remain in session for the transaction of business at least six months in each calendar year; for the Jasper division, at Jasper on the second Tuesdays in January and June: Provided, That suitable rooms and accommodations for holding court at Jasper shall be furnished free of expense to the Government; for the eastern division, at Anniston on the first Mondays in May and November; and for the western division, at Tuscaloosa on the first Tuesdays in January and June. The clerk of the court for the northern district shall maintain an office, in charge of himself or a deputy, at Anniston, at Florence, at Jasper, and at Gadsden, which shall be kept open at all times for the transaction of the business of said court. The district judge for the northern district shall reside at Birmingham. The middle district shall include the territory embraced on the 1st day of July, 1910, in the counties of Autauga, Barbour, Bullock, Butler, Chilton, Coosa, Covington, Crenshaw, Elmore, Lowndes, Montgomery, and Pike, which shall constitute the northern division of said district; also the territory embraced on the date last mentioned in the counties of Coffee, Dale, Geneva, Henry, and Houston, which shall constitute the southern division of said district; also the territory embraced on the date last mentioned in the counties of Chambers, Lee, Macon, Randolph, Russell, and Tallapoosa, which shall constitute the eastern division of said middle judicial district. Terms of the district court for the northern division shall be held at Montgomery on the first Tuesdays in May and December; for the southern division, at Dothan on the first Mondays in June and December; and for the eastern division, at Opelika on the first Mondays in April and November. Suitable rooms and accommodations for holding court at Opelika shall be furnished free of expense to the Government. The clerk of the court for the middle district shall maintain an office in charge of himself or a deputy at Dothan, and shall maintain an office in charge of himself or a deputy at Opelika, which said offices at Dothan and Opelika shall be kept open at all times for the transaction of the business of said divisions. The southern district shall include the territory embraced on the 1st day of July, 1910, in the counties of Baldwin, Choctaw, Clarke, Conecuh, Escambia, Mobile, Monroe, and Washington, which shall constitute the southern division of said district; also the territory embraced in the date last mentioned in the counties of Dallas, Hale, Marengo, Perry, and Wilcox, which shall constitute the northern division of said district. Terms of the district court for the southern division shall be held at Mobile on the fourth Mondays in May and November; and for the northern division, at Selma on the second Mondays in January and July. (R. S. § 532; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 70, 36 Stat. 1105; Feb. 28, 1913, c. 89, 37 Stat. 698; June 27, 1922, c. 247, 42 Stat. 667.)

143. Arizona.—The State of Arizona shall constitute one judicial district, to be known as the district of Arizona. Terms of the district court shall be held in Tucson on the first Mondays in May and November; at Phoenix on the first Mondays in April and October; at Prescott on the first Mondays in March and September; and at Globe on the first Mondays in June and December. Causes, civil and criminal, may be transferred by the court or judge thereof from any of the aforesaid places where court shall be held in said district to any of the places herein above mentioned in said district when the convenience of the parties or the ends of justice would be promoted by the transfer; and any interlocutory order may be made by the court or judge thereof in any of the herein above mentioned places. The clerk shall keep his office at the capital of the State. (June 20, 1910, c. 310, § 31, 36 Stat. 576; Oct. 3, 1913, c. 17, §§ 1, 2, 38 Stat. 203.)

144. (Judicial Code, section 71, amended.) Arkansas.—(a) The State of Arkansas is divided into two districts, to be known as the western and eastern districts of Arkansas.

(b) The western district shall include four divisions constituted as follows: The Texarkana division, which shall include the territory embraced on July 1, 1920, in the counties of Sevier, Howard, Little River, Pike, Hempstead, Miller, Lafayette, and Nevada; the El Dorado division, which shall include the territory embraced on such date in the counties of Columbia, Ouachita, Union, and Calhoun; the Fort Smith division, which shall include the territory embraced on such date in the counties of Polk, Scott, Logan, Sebastian, Franklin, Crawford, Washington, Benton, and Johnson; and the Harrison division, which shall include the territory embraced on such date in the counties of Baxter, Boone, Carroll, Madison, Marion, Newton, and Searcy.

(c) Terms of the district court for the Texarkana division shall be held at Texarkana on the second Mondays in May and November; for the El Dorado division, at El Dorado on the fourth Mondays in January and June; for the Fort Smith division, at Fort Smith on the second Mondays in January and June; and for the Harrison division, at Harrison on the second Mondays in April and October.

(d) The clerk of the court for the western district shall maintain an office in charge of himself or a deputy at Texarkana, Fort Smith, El Dorado, and Harrison. Such offices shall be kept open at all times for the transaction of the business of the court.

(e) The eastern district shall include four divisions constituted as follows: The eastern division, which shall include the territory embraced on July 1, 1920, in the counties of Desha, Lee, Phillips, Saint Francis, Cross, Monroe, and Woodruff; the northern division, which shall include the territory embraced on such date in the counties of Independence, Cleburne, Stone, Izard, Sharp, and Jackson; the Jonesboro division, which shall include the territory embraced on such date in the counties of Crittenden, Clay, Craighead, Greene, Mississippi, Poinsett, Fulton, Randolph, and Lawrence; and the western division, which shall include the territory embraced on such date in the counties of Arkansas, Ashley, Bradley, Chicot, Clark, Cleveland, Conway, Dallas, Drew, Faulkner, Garland, Grant, Hot Springs, Jefferson, Lincoln, Lonoke, Montgomery, Perry, Pope, Prairie, Pulaski, Saline, Van Buren, White, and Yell.

(f) Terms of the district court for the eastern division shall be held at Helena on the second Monday in March and the first Monday in October; for the northern division at Batesville on the fourth Monday in May and the second Monday in December; for the Jonesboro division, at Jonesboro on the first Monday in May and the fourth Monday in November; and for the western division, at Little Rock on the first Monday in April and the third Monday in October.

(g) The clerk of the court for the eastern district shall maintain an office in charge of himself or a deputy at Helena. Batesville, Jonesboro, and Little Rock. Such offices shall be kept open at all times for the transaction of the business of the court. (R. (Mar. 3, 1881, c. 144, 21 Stat. 507; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 84, 36 Stat. 1113.)

160. (Judicial Code, section 85, amended.) Maine; divisions; sessions.—The State of Maine shall constitute one judicial district, to be known as the district of Maine. Said district shall be divided into two divisions, to be known, respectively, as the northern and southern divisions. The counties of Aroostook, Penobscot, Piscataquis, Washington, Hancock, Waldo, and Somerset shall be known as the northern division, the court for which shall be held in the city of Bangor. The remaining counties in said State and district of Maine shall constitute the southern division, the court for which shall be held in the city of Portland. Two sessions shall be held in each and every year in the city of Bangor, beginning, respectively, on the first Tuesday of November and the first Tuesday of June, and three sessions shall be held in each and every year in the city of Portland, beginning, respectively, on the first Tuesday of April, on the third Tuesday of September, and on the second Tuesday in December. (R. S. § 531; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 85, 36 Stat. 1114; Dec. 22, 1911, c. 7, 37 Stat. 51; Sept. 8, 1916, c. 475, §§ 1, 3, 39 Stat. 850; Mar. 4, 1923, c. 279, 42 Stat. 1506.)

161. Office of clerk and marshal; deputy clerk; marshal's field deputy.—The clerk of the district court for the district of Maine and the marshal of said district shall each at all times maintain by himself or by deputy an office in charge of himself or deputy, both at the city of Bangor and at the city of Portland. The deputy clerk in charge of the office in the division in which the clerk does not reside himself shall reside in the city where the office of which he has charge is located. The marshal shall appoint a field deputy, who shall have charge of the office in the division in which the marshal does not reside himself, who shall reside in the city where the office of which he has charge is located, and who, within and for said division, in the absence of the marshal, shall have all the powers of the marshal, and who shall also, throughout said district of Maine, have all the powers of other deputy marshals. And such field deputy, before he enters on the duties of his office, shall give bond before the judge of said district of like tenor, effect, and amount and of similar form and condition, with like sureties, and to be approved in like manner, as may be required by law of the marshal of said district. (Sept. 8, 1916, c. 475, § 2, 39 Stat. 850.)

162. Divisions considered separate districts for purposes of jurisdiction and venue; United States commissioners.—For the purpose of determining the jurisdiction and venue of all causes, suits, actions, bills, petitions, matters, libels, proceedings, prosecutions, indictments, complaints, informations, and other judicial business, whether civil or criminal, or whether in equity, in admiralty, in prize, in forfeiture, or in condemnation, in rem, in personam, or mixed, whatsoever, cognizable in the United States district court, each of said divisions shall be as if it were a separate and distinct judicial district of the United States. There shall be but one judge, one clerk, one marshal, and one district attorney for said district of Maine. United States commissioners in either of said divisions, until otherwise provided by law, shall be appointed and have jurisdiction and cognizance through said district of Maine in the same manner and to the same extent and effect that they have under existing law. (Sept. 8, 1916, c. 475, § 4, 39 Stat. 851.)

163. Transfer of civil and criminal causes.—Any cause, suit, action, bill, petition, matter, libel, proceeding, prosecution, indictment, complaint, information, or other judicial business, whether civil or criminal, or whether in equity, in admiralty, in prize, in forfeiture, or in condemnation, in rem, in personam, or mixed, whatsoever, pending in either of said divisions, when all the parties thereto so stipulate in writing, and where the ends of justice or the convenience of the parties will be promoted thereby, may, at the discretion of the court or judge, be transferred wholly or specially for the hearing, trial, or determination of any single proceeding, matter, step, or motion therein from one of said divisions to the other. On request of all accused in any criminal prosecution and of all claimants in any cause, proceeding, libel, information, or other matter in rem, the same may be transferred, at the discretion of the court or judge from one of said divisions to the division in which a term of said court is next to be held, without the joinder in such request of the United States when the Government is the only other party thereto not joining in such request. (Sept. 8, 1916, c. 475, § 5, 39 Stat. 851.)

164. Ex parte proceedings heard in either division.—All ex parte, of course, default and pro confesso, proceedings and matters, and all interlocutory matters in which all interested parties are present and consenting that such hearing may be had, in whichever of said divisions the same may be cognizable or pending, may be heard and determined by the court or judge and all findings, orders, judgments, and decrees be made, and all mesne and final process therein be tested, sealed, issued, and renewed in either of said divisions, in term time, vacation, or chambers. (Sept. 8, 1916, c. 475, § 6, 39 Stat. 851.)

165. Same; change of venue or continuance.—Nothing in sections 160 to 165 of this title shall be construed to deprive the court or judge of the power to grant a change of venue or continuance in any cause, proceeding, or matter whatsoever according to law and the requirements of justice. (Sept. 8, 1916, c. 475, § 7, 39 Stat. 851.)

166. (Judicial Code, section 86.) Maryland.—The State of Maryland shall constitute one judicial district, to be known as the district of Maryland. Terms of the district court shall be held at Baltimore on the first Tuesdays in March, June, September, and December, at Cumberland on the second Monday in May and the last Monday in September, and at Denton on the third Monday in January and the first Monday in July: Provided, That suitable accommodations for holding court at Denton are furnished free of expense to the United States. The clerk of the court shall appoint a deputy who shall reside and maintain an office at Cumberland, unless the clerk shall himself reside there; and the marshal shall also appoint a deputy, who shall reside and maintain an office at Cumberland, unless he shall himself reside there. (R. S. § 531; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 86, 36 Stat. 1114; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 422, 43 Stat. 1106.)

167. (Judicial Code, section 87, amended.) Massachusetts.—The State of Massachusetts shall constitute one judicial district, to be known as the district of Massachusetts.

Terms of the district court shall be held at Boston on the third Tuesday in March, the fourth Tuesday in June, the second Tuesday in September, and the first Tuesday in December; at Springfield, on the second Tuesday in May and December; and at New Bedford, on the first Tuesday in August: Provided, That suitable rooms and accommodations for holding court at Springfield and New Bedford shall be furnished free of expense to the United States. All writs, precepts, and processes shall be returnable to the terms at Boston, and all court papers shall be kept in the clerk's office at Boston, unless otherwise specially ordered by the court, and the terms at Boston shall not be terminated or affected by the terms at Springfield or New Bedford.

The marshal and the clerk for said district shall each appoint at least one deputy to reside in Springfield and to maintain an office at that place. (R. S. § 531; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 87, 36 Stat. 1114; May 1, 1922, c. 173, 42 Stat. 508.)

168. (Judicial Code, section 88.) Michigan.—The State of Michigan is divided into two judicial districts, to be known as the eastern and western districts of Michigan. The eastern district shall include the territory embraced on the 1st day of July, 1910, in the counties of Alcona, Alpena, Arenac, Bay, Cheboygan, Clare, Crawford, Genesee, Gladwin, Gratiot, Huron, Iosco, Isabella, Midland, Montmorency, Ogemaw, Oscoda, Otsego, Presque Isle, Roscommon, Saginaw, Shiawassee, and Tuscola, which shall constitute the northern division; also the territory embraced on the date last mentioned in the counties of Branch, Calhoun, Clinton, Hillsdale, Ingham, Jackson, Lapeer, Lenawee, Livingston, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, St. Clair, Sanilac, Washtenaw, and Wayne, which shall constitute the southern division of said district. Terms of the district court for the southern division shall be held at Detroit on the first Tuesdays in March, June, and November; for the northern division, at Bay City on the first Tuesdays in May and October, and at Port Huron in the discretion of the judge of said court and at such times as he shall appoint therefor. There shall also be held a special or adjourned term of the district court at Bay City for the hearing of admiralty causes, beginning in the month of February in each year. The western district shall include the territory embraced on the 1st day of July, 1910, in the counties of Alger, Baraga, Chippewa, Delta, Dickinson, Gogebic, Houghton, Iron, Keweenaw, Luce, Mackinac, Marquette, Menominee, Ontonagon, and Schoolcraft, which shall constitute the northern division; also the territory embraced on the said date last mentioned in the counties of Allegan, Antrim, Barry, Benzie, Berrien, Cass, Charlevoix, Eaton, Emmet, Grand Traverse, Ionia, Kalamazoo, Kalkaska, Kent, Lake, Leelanau, Manistee, Mason, Mecosta, Missaukee, Montcalm, Muskegon, Newaygo, Oceana, Osceola, Ottawa, St. Joseph, Van Buren, and Wexford, which shall constitute the southern division of said district. Terms of the district court for the southern division shall be held at Grand Rapids on the first Tuesdays in March, June, October, and December; for the northern division, at Marquette on the second Tuesdays in April and September; and at Sault Saint Marie on the second Tuesdays in January and July. All issues of fact shall be tried at the terms held in the division where such suit shall be commenced. Actions in rem and admiralty may be brought in whichever division of the eastern district service can be had upon the res. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the district court of the western division from regulating, by general rule, the venue of transitory actions either at law or in equity, or from changing the same for cause. The clerk of the court for the western district shall reside and keep his office at Grand Rapids, and shall also appoint a deputy clerk for said court held at Marquette, who shall reside and keep his office at that place. The marshal for said western district shall keep an office and a deputy marshal at Marquette. The clerk of the court for the eastern district shall keep his office at the city of Detroit, and shall appoint a deputy for the court held at Bay City, who shall reside and keep his office at that place. The marshal for said district shall keep an office and a deputy marshal at Bay City, and mileage on service of process in said northern division shall be computed from Bay City. (R. S. § 538; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 88, 36 Stat. 1114; July 9, 1912, c. 222, 37 Stat. 190.)

Terms of the district court for the Omaha division shall be held at Omaha on the first Monday in April and the fourth Monday in September; for the Norfolk division, at Norfolk on the third Monday in September; for the Chadron division, at Chadron on the second Monday in September; for the Grand Island division, at Grand Island on the second Monday in January; for the North Platte division, at North Platte on the second Monday in June; for the Lincoln division, at Lincoln on the second Monday in May and the first Monday in October; for the Hastings division, at Hastings on the second Monday in March; and for the McCook division, at McCook on the first Monday in March: Provided, That where provision is made herein for holding court at places where there are no Federal buildings, a suitable room in which to hold court, together with light and heat, shall be provided by the city or county where such court is held, without any expense to the United States. The clerk of the court shall appoint a deputy for each division of the district in which he does not himself reside, who shall keep his office and reside at the place of holding court in the division for which he is appointed. (R. S. § 531; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 93, 36 Stat. 1118.)

174. (Judicial Code, section 94.) Nevada.—The State of Nevada shall constitute one judicial district, to be known as the district of Nevada. Terms of the district court shall be held at Carson City on the first Mondays in February, May, and October. (R. S. § 531; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 94, 36 Stat. 1118).

175. (Judicial Code, section 95, amended.) New Hampshire.—The State of New Hampshire shall constitute one judicial district, to be known as the district of New Hampshire. Terms of the district court shall be held at Portsmouth on the last Tuesday in October, at Concord on the last Tuesday in April and the second Tuesday in December, and at Littleton on the third Tuesday in September. (R. S. § 531; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 95, 36 Stat. 1119; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 344, 37 Stat. 357.)

176. (Judicial Code, section 96, amended.) New Jersey.—The State of New Jersey shall constitute one judicial district, to be known as the district of New Jersey. Terms of the district court shall be held at Newark on the first Tuesday in April and the first Tuesday in November, and at Trenton on the third Tuesday in January and the second Tuesday in September of each year. The clerk of the court for the district of New Jersey shall maintain an office, in charge of himself or a deputy, at Newark and at Trenton, each of which offices shall be kept open at all times for the transaction of the business of the court; and the marshal shall also maintain an office, in charge of himself or a deputy, at Newark and at Trenton, each of which offices shall be kept open at all times for the transaction of the business of the court. (R. S. § 531; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 96, 36 Stat. 1119; Aug. 9, 1912, c. 277, 37 Stat. 265, Feb. 14, 1913, c. 53, 37 Stat. 674.)

177. New Mexico.—The State of New Mexico shall constitute one judicial district to be known as the district of New Mexico.

Terms of the district court shall be held at Santa Fe on the first Monday in March and September, at Albuquerque on the first Monday in June and December, at Roswell on the first Monday in May and October, at Las Cruces on the first Monday in November, at Silver City on the first Monday in January, at Las Vegas on the first Monday in February, and at Raton on the first Monday in April. If at the time of the holding of the terms of said court in any year in the cities or towns of Las Vegas, Las Cruces, Silver City, or Raton there is insufficient business to justify the holding of any such term the same may be adjourned or continued by order of the judge of said court made at any place in the district. Terms of court at Silver City, town of Las Vegas, and Raton shall not be held unless facilities therefor are furnished by the county of Grant at Silver City, the county of San Miguel at town of Las Vegas, and the county of Colfax at Raton, without cost and expense to the United States, until such time as court rooms and other necessary facilities have been constructed by the United States.

Causes, civil and criminal, may be transferred by the court or either judge thereof from any of the aforesaid places where court shall be held in said district to any of the places hereinabove mentioned in said district whenever in the opinion of the court or judge the convenience of the parties or the ends of justice would be promoted by the transfer.

That the marshal and clerk of said court shall each, respectively, appoint at least one deputy to reside at and who shall maintain an office at each of the cities of Albuquerque and Roswell, and the marshal and the clerk of said court may each, respectively, with the approval of the Attorney General, appoint one deputy at each of the cities of Las Cruces, Silver City, Raton, and the town of Las Vegas. Upon completion of the Federal building in the city of Las Vegas, the court shall be transferred to and held in the city of Las Vegas instead of the town of Las Vegas and court at the latter place discontinued. (June 20, 1910, c. 310, § 13, 36 Stat. 565; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 149, 41 Stat. 1361; June 7, 1924, c. 332, 43 Stat. 642.)

178. (Judicial Code, section 97, amended.) New York.—The State of New York is divided into four judicial districts, to be known as the northern, eastern, southern, and western districts of New York. The northern district shall include the territory embraced on the 1st day of July, 1910, in the counties of Albany, Broome, Cayuga, Chenango, Clinton, Cortland, Delaware, Essex, Franklin, Fulton, Hamilton, Herkimer, Jefferson, Lewis, Madison, Montgomery, Oneida, Onondaga, Oswego, Otsego, Rensselaer, Saint Lawrence, Saratoga, Schenectady, Schoharie, Tioga, Tompkins, Warren, and Washington, with the waters thereof. Section 211. (Judicial Code, section 116, amended.) Circuits.—There shall be nine judicial circuits of the United States, constituted as follows:

First. The first circuit shall include the districts of Rhode Island, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Maine, and Porto Rico.

Second. The second circuit shall include the districts of Vermont, Connecticut, and New York.

Third. The third circuit shall include the districts of Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware.

Fourth. The fourth circuit shall include the districts of Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina.

Fifth. The fifth circuit shall include the districts of Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, and Texas.

Sixth. The sixth circuit shall include the districts of Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, and Tennessee.

Seventh. The seventh circuit shall include the districts of Indiana, Illinois, and Wisconsin.

Eighth. The eighth circuit shall include the districts of Nebraska, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas, Colorado, Wyoming, North Dakota, South Dakota, Utah, Oklahoma, and New Mexico.

Ninth. The ninth circuit shall include the districts of California, Oregon, Nevada, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Hawaii, and Arizona. (R. S. § 604; June 20, 1910, c. 310, §§ 13, 31, 36 Stat. 565, 576; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 116, 36 Stat. 1131; Jan. 28, 1915, c. 22, § 1, 38 Stat. 803.)

212. (Judicial Code, section 117.) Circuit courts of appeals.—There shall be in each circuit a circuit court of appeals, which shall consist of three judges, of whom two shall constitute a quorum, which shall be a court of record, with appellate jurisdiction, as hereinafter limited and established. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 2, 26 Stat. 826; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 117, 36 Stat. 1191.)

213. (Judicial Code, section 118, amended.) Circuit judges.—There shall be in the second and seventh circuits, respectively, four circuit judges; and in the eighth circuit, six judges; and in each of the other circuits, three circuit judges, to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. All circuit judges shall receive a salary of $8,500 a year each, payable monthly. Each circuit judge shall reside within his circuit, and when appointed shall be a resident of the circuit for which he is appointed. The circuit judges in each circuit shall be judges of the circuit court of appeals in that circuit, and it shall be the duty of each circuit judge in each circuit to sit as one of the judges of the circuit court of appeals in that circuit from time to time according to law. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent any circuit judge holding district court or otherwise, as provided by other sections of the Judicial Code. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 118, 36 Stat. 1131; Jan. 13, 1912, c. 9, 37 Stat. 52; Feb. 25, 1919, c. 29, § 2, 40 Stat. 1156; Sept. 14, 1922, c. 306, § 6, 42 Stat. 840; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 437, 43 Stat. 1116.)

214. Additional circuit judges.—The judges who served, prior to its repeal, under the Act entitled "An Act to create a Commerce Court and to amend the Act entitled 'An Act to regulate commerce,' approved February 4, 1887, as heretofore amended, and for other purposes," approved June 18, 1910, shall hold office during good behavior, and from time to time shall be designated and assigned by the Chief Justice of the United States for service in the district court of any district, or the circuit court of appeals for any circuit; and in the event of and on the death, resignation, or removal from office of any of such judges, his office is abolished and no successor to him shall be appointed. (June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 1, 36 Stat. 539; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 201, 36 Stat. 1147; Oct. 22, 1913, c. 32, 38 Stat. 219.)

215. (Judicial Code, section 119.) Allotment of justices to circuits.—The Chief Justice and associate justices of the Supreme Court shall be allotted among the circuits by an order of the court, and a new allotment shall be made whenever it becomes necessary or convenient by reason of the alteration of any circuit, or of the new appointment of a Chief Justice or associate justice, or otherwise. If a new allotment becomes necessary at any other time than during a term, it shall be made by the Chief Justice, and shall be binding until the next term and until a new allotment by the court. Whenever, by reason of death or resignation, no justice is allotted to a circuit, the Chief Justice may, until a justice is regularly allotted thereto, temporarily assign a justice of another circuit to such circuit. (R. S. §§ 606, 618; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 119, 36 Stat. 1131.)

216. (Judicial Code, section 120.) Judges who may sit in circuit court of appeals.—The Chief Justice and the associate justices of the Supreme Court assigned to each circuit, and the several district judges within each circuit, shall be competent to sit as judges of the circuit court of appeals within their respective circuits. In case the Chief Justice or an associate justice of the Supreme Court shall attend at any session of the circuit court of appeals, he shall preside. In the absence of such Chief Justice, or associate justice, the circuit judges in attendance upon the court shall preside in the order of the seniority of their respective commissions. In case the full court at any time shall not be made up by the attendance of the Chief Justice or the associate justice, and the circuit judges, one or more district judges within the circuit shall sit in the court according to such order or provision among the district judges as either by general or particular assignments shall be designated by the court. No judge before whom a cause or question may have been tried or heard in a district court, or existing circuit court, shall sit on the trial or hearing of such cause or question in the circuit court of appeals. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 3, 26 Stat. 827; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 120, 36 Stat. 1132.)

217. (Judicial Code, section 121.) Designation of justices allotted to circuits.—The words "circuit justice" and "justice of a circuit" shall be understood to designate the justice of the Supreme Court who is allotted to any circuit; but the word "judge," when applied generally to any circuit, shall be understood to include such justice. (R. S. § 605; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 121, 36 Stat. 1132.)

218. Conference of circuit judges; reports to circuit judges by district judges; expenses of judges attending.—It shall be the duty of the Chief Justice of the United States, or in case of his disability, of one of the other justices of the Supreme Court, in order of their seniority, annually, to summon to a conference on the last Monday in September, at Washington, District of Columbia, or at such other time and place in the United States as the Chief Justice, or, in case of his disability, any of said justices in order of their seniority, may designate, the senior circuit judge of each judicial circuit. If any senior circuit judge is unable to attend, the Chief Justice, or in case of his disability, the justice of the Supreme Court calling said conference, may summon any other circuit or district judge in the judicial circuit whose senior circuit judge is unable to attend, that each circuit may be adequately represented at said conference. It shall be the duty of every judge thus summoned to attend said conference, and to remain throughout its proceedings, unless excused by the Chief Justice, and to advise as to the needs of his circuit and as to any matters in respect of which the administration of justice in the courts of the United States may be improved.

The senior district judge of each United States district court, on or before the 1st day of August in each year, shall prepare and submit to the senior circuit judge of the judicial circuit in which said district is situated, a report setting forth the condition of business in said district court, including the number and character of cases on the docket, the business in arrears, and cases disposed of, and such other facts pertinent to the business dispatched and pending as said district judge may deem proper, together with recommendations as to the need of additional judicial assistance for the disposal of business for the year ensuing. Said reports shall be laid before the conference herein provided, by said senior circuit judge, or, in his absence, by the judge representing the circuit at the conference, together with such recommendations as he may deem proper.

The Chief Justice, or, in his absence, the senior associate justice, shall be the presiding officer of the conference. Said conference shall make a comprehensive survey of the condition of business in the courts of the United States and prepare plans for assignment and transfer of judges to or from circuits or districts where the state of the docket or condition of business indicates the need therefor, and shall submit such suggestions to the various courts as may seem in the interest of uniformity and expedition of business.

The Attorney General shall, upon request of the Chief Justice, report to said conference on matters relating to the business of the several courts of the United States, with particular reference to causes or proceedings in which the United States may be a party.

The Chief Justice and each justice or judge summoned and attending said conference shall be allowed his actual expenses of travel and his necessary expenses for subsistence, not to exceed $10 per day, which payments shall be made by the marshal of the Supreme Court of the United States upon the written certificate of the judge incurring such expenses, approved by the Chief Justice. (Sept. 14, 1922, c. 306, § 2, 42 Stat. 838.)

219. (Judicial Code, section 122.) Seals, forms of process, and rules.—Each circuit court of appeals shall prescribe the form and style of its seal, and the form of writs and other process and procedure as may be conformable to the exercise of its jurisdiction; and shall have power to establish all rules and regulations for the conduct of the business of the court within its jurisdiction as conferred by law. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 2, 26 Stat. 826; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 122, 36 Stat. 1132.)

220. (Judicial Code, section 123.) Marshals.—The United States marshals in and for the several districts of said courts shall be the marshals of said circuit courts of appeals, and shall exercise the same powers and perform the same duties, under the regulations of the court, as are exercised and performed by the marshal of the Supreme Court of the United States, so far as the same may be applicable. (July 16, 1892, c. 196, § 1, 27 Stat. 222; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 123, 36 Stat. 1132.)

221. (Judicial Code, section 124.) Clerks.—Each court shall appoint a clerk, who shall exercise the same powers and perform the same duties in regard to all matters within its jurisdiction, as are exercised and performed by the clerk of the Supreme Court, so far as the same may be applicable. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 2, 26 Stat. 826; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 124, 36 Stat. 1132.)

222. (Judicial Code, section 125.) Deputy clerks.—The clerk of the circuit court of appeals for each circuit may, with the approval of the court, appoint such number of deputy clerks as the court may deem necessary. Such deputies may be removed at the pleasure of the clerk appointing them, with the approval of the court. In case of the death of the clerk his deputy or deputies shall, unless removed by the court, continue in office and perform the duties of the clerk in his name until a clerk is appointed and has qualified; and for the defaults or misfeasances in office of any such deputy, whether in the lifetime of the clerk or after his death, the clerk and his estate and the sureties on his official bond shall be liable, and his executor or administrator shall have such remedy for such defaults or misfeasances committed after his death as the clerk would be entitled to if the same had occurred in his lifetime. (Feb. 3, 1911, c. 33, 36 Stat. 895; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 125, 36 Stat. 1132.)

223. (Judicial Code, section 126.) Terms.—A term shall be held annually by the circuit courts of appeals in the several judicial circuits at the following places, and at such times as may be fixed by said courts, respectively: In the first circuit, in Boston and, when in its judgment the public interests require, shall hold a sitting at San Juan, Porto Rico; in the second circuit, in New York; in the third circuit, in Philadelphia; in the fourth circuit, in Richmond and in Asheville, N. C.; in the fifth circuit, in New Orleans, Atlanta, Fort Worth, and Montgomery; in the sixth circuit, in Cincinnati; in the seventh circuit, in Chicago; in the eighth circuit, in Saint Louis, Denver, or Cheyenne, and Saint Paul; in the ninth circuit, in San Francisco, and each year in two other places in said circuit to be designated by the judges of said court; and in each of the above circuits, terms may be held at such other times and in such other places as said courts, respectively, may from time to time designate: Provided, That terms shall be held in Atlanta on the first Monday in October, in Fort Worth on the first Monday in November, in Montgomery on the third Monday in October, in Denver or in Cheyenne on the first Monday in September, and in Saint Paul on the first Monday in May. All appeals, writs of error, and other appellate proceedings which may be taken or prosecuted from the district courts of the United States in the State of Georgia, in the State of Texas, and in the State of Alabama, to the circuit court of appeals for the fifth judicial circuit shall be heard and disposed of, respectively, by said court at the terms held in Atlanta, in Fort Worth, and in Montgomery, except that appeals or writs of error in cases of injunctions and in all other cases which, under the statutes and rules, or in the opinion of the court, are entitled to be brought to a speedy hearing may be heard and disposed of wherever said court may be sitting. All appeals, writs of errors, and other appellate proceedings which may be taken or prosecuted from the district court of the United States at Beaumont, Texas, to the circuit court of appeals for the fifth circuit, shall be heard and disposed of by the said circuit court of appeals at the terms of court held at New Orleans: Provided, That nothing herein shall prevent the court from hearing appeals or writs of error wherever the said courts shall sit, in cases of injunctions and in all other cases which, under the statutes and the rules, or in the opinion of the court, are entitled to be brought to a speedy hearing. All appeals, writs of error, and other appellate proceedings which may be taken or prosecuted from the district courts of the United States in the States of Colorado, Utah, and Wyoming, and the supreme court of the Territory of New Mexico to the circuit court of appeals for the eighth judicial circuit, shall be heard and disposed of by said court at the terms held either in Denver or in Cheyenne, except that any case arising in any of said States or Territory may, by consent of all the parties, be heard and disposed of at a term of said court other than the one held in Denver or Cheyenne. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 3, 26 Stat. 827; June 9, 1902, c. 1071, 32 Stat. 329; June 30, 1902, c. 1333, 32 Stat. 548; Dec. 18, 1902, c. 4, 32 Stat. 756; Jan. 30, 1903, c. 335, 32 Stat. 784; Mar. 4, 1904, c. 395, 33 Stat. 59; Apr. 22, 1904, c. 1420, 33 Stat. 249;

Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 126, 36 Stat. 1132; July 17, 1916, c. 246, 39 Stat. 385; Jan. 8, 1925, c. 57, 43 Stat. 729.)

224. (Judicial Code, section 127.) Rooms for court.—The marshals for the several districts in which said circuit courts of appeals may be held shall, under the direction of the Attorney General, and with his approval, provide such rooms in the public buildings of the United States as may be necessary for the business of said courts, and pay all incidental expenses of said court, including criers, bailiffs, and messengers. In case proper rooms can not be provided in such buildings, then the marshals, with the approval of the Attorney General, may, from time to time, lease such rooms as may be necessary for such courts. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 9, 26 Stat. 829; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 127, 36 Stat. 1133.)

225. (Judicial Code, section 128, amended.) Appellate jurisdiction—

(a) Review of final decisions.—The circuit courts of appeal shall have appellate jurisdiction to review by appeal or writ of error final decisions—

First. In the district courts, in all cases save where a direct review of the decision may be had in the Supreme Court under section 345 of this title.

Second. In the United States district courts for Hawaii and for Porto Rico in all cases.

Third. In the district courts for Alaska or any division thereof, and for the Virgin Islands, in all cases, civil and criminal, wherein the Constitution or a statute or treaty of the United States or any authority exercised thereunder is involved; in all other civil cases wherein the value in controversy, exclusive of interest and costs, exceeds $1,000; in all other criminal cases where the offense charged is punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year or by death, and in all habeas corpus proceedings; and in the district court for the Canal Zone in the cases and mode prescribed in sections 1307, 1324, 1336, and 1341 to 1357 of Title 48.

Fourth. In the Supreme Courts of the Territory of Hawaii and of Porto Rico, in all civil cases, civil or criminal, wherein the Constitution or a statute or treaty of the United States or any authority exercised thereunder is involved; in all other civil cases wherein the value in controversy, exclusive of interest and costs, exceeds $5,000, and in all habeas corpus proceedings.

Fifth. In the United States Court for China, in all cases.

(b) Review of interlocutory orders or decrees of district courts.—The circuit court of appeals shall also have appellate jurisdiction—

First. To review the interlocutory orders or decrees of the district courts which are specified in section 227 of this title.

Second. To review decisions of the district courts sustaining or overruling exceptions to awards in arbitrations, as provided in sections 117 to 121 of Title 15.

(c) Appellate and supervisory jurisdiction in bankruptcy proceedings.—The circuit courts of appeals shall also have an appellate and supervisory jurisdiction under sections 47 and 48 of Title 11, over all proceedings, controversies, and cases had or brought in the district courts under Title 11, relating to bankruptcy, or any of its amendments, and shall exercise the same in the manner prescribed in those sections; and the jurisdiction of the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit in this regard shall cover the courts of bankruptcy in Alaska and Hawaii, and that of the Circuit Court of Appeals for the First Circuit shall cover the court of bankruptcy in Porto Rico.

(d) Circuits in which reviews shall be had.—The review under this section shall be in the following circuit courts of appeals: The decisions of a district court of the United States within a State in the circuit court of appeals for the circuit embracing such State; those of the District Court of Alaska or any division thereof, the United States district court, and the Supreme Court of Hawaii, and the United States Court for China, in the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit; those of the United States district court and the Supreme Court of Porto Rico in the Circuit Court of Appeals for the First Circuit; those of the District Court of the Virgin Islands in the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit; and those of the District Court of the Canal Zone in the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit.

(e) Jurisdiction over Federal Trade Commission, Interstate Commerce Commission, and Federal Reserve Board.—The circuit courts of appeal are further empowered to enforce, set aside, or modify orders of the Federal Trade Commission, as provided in section 45 of Title 15; and orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Federal Reserve Board, and the Federal Trade Commission, as provided in section 21 of Title 15. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 6, 26 Stat. 828; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 128, 36 Stat. 1133; Jan. 28, 1915, c. 22, § 2, 38 Stat. 803; Feb. 7, 1925, c. 150, 43 Stat. 813; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 1, 43 Stat. 936.)

226. Review of judgments of district courts exercising concurrent jurisdiction with Court of Claims or adjudicating claims against United States.—In cases in the district courts wherein they exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the Court of Claims or adjudicate claims against the United States the judgments shall be subject to review in the circuit courts of appeals like other judgments of the district courts; and sections 346 and 347 of this title shall apply to such cases in the circuit courts of appeals as to other cases therein. (Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 4, 43 Stat. 939.)

227. (Judicial Code, section 129, amended.) Appeals in proceedings for injunctions and receivers.—Where, upon a hearing in a district court, or by a judge thereof in vacation, an injunction is granted, continued, modified, refused, or dissolved by an interlocutory order or decree, or an application to dissolve or modify an injunction is refused, or an interlocutory order or decree is made appointing a receiver, or refusing an order to wind up a pending receivership or to take the appropriate steps to accomplish the purposes thereof, such as directing a sale or other disposal of property held thereunder, an appeal may be taken from such interlocutory order or decree to the circuit court of appeals; and sections 346 and 347 of this title shall apply to such cases in the circuit courts of appeals as to other cases therein. The appeal to the circuit court of appeals must be applied for within thirty days from the entry of such order or decree, and shall take precedence in the appellate court; and the proceedings in other respects in the district court shall not be stayed during the pendency of such appeal unless otherwise ordered by the court, or the appellate court, or a judge thereof. The district court, may, in its discretion, require an additional bond as a condition of the appeal. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 7, 26 Stat. 828; Feb. 18, 1895, c. 96, 28 Stat. 666; June 6, 1900, c. 803, 31 Stat. 660; Apr. 14, 1906, c. 1627, 34 Stat. 116; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 129, 36 Stat. 1134; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 1, 43 Stat. 937.)

228. (Judicial Code, section 132.) Allowance of appeals and writs of error.—Any judge of a circuit court of appeals, in respect of cases brought or to be brought before that court, shall have the same powers and duties as to allowances of appeals and writs of error, and the conditions of such allowances, as by law belong to the justices or judges in respect of other courts of the United States, respectively. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 11, 26 Stat. 829; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 132, 36 Stat. 1134.)

229. (Judicial Code, section 135.) Appeals and writs of error from Alaska.—All appeals, and writs of error, and other cases, coming from the district court for the district of Alaska to the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, shall be entered upon the docket and heard at San Francisco, California, or at Portland, Oregon, or at Seattle, Washington, as the trial court before whom the case was tried below shall fix and determine. At any time before the hearing of any appeal, writ of error, or other case, the parties thereto, through their respective attorneys, may stipulate at which of the above-named places the same shall be heard, in which case the case shall be remitted to and entered upon the docket at the place so stipulated and shall be heard there. (Jan. 11, 1909, c. 15, 35 Stat. 585; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 135, 36 Stat. 1135.)

230. Time for making application for appeal or writ of error.—No writ of error or appeal intended to bring any judgment or decree before a circuit court of appeals for review shall be allowed unless application therefor be duly made within three months after the entry of such judgment or decree. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 11, 26 Stat. 829; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 8 [c], 43 Stat. 940.)

231. Review dependent upon amount in controversy; proof of such amount.—In any case where the power to review, whether in the circuit courts of appeals or in the Supreme Court, depends upon the amount or value in controversy, such amount or value, if not otherwise satisfactorily disclosed upon the record, may be shown and ascertained by the oath of a party to the cause or by other competent evidence. (Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 9, 43 Stat. 941.)

Section 241. (Judicial Code, section 136, amended.) Judges.—The Court of Claims shall consist of a Chief Justice and four judges, who shall be appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and hold their offices during good behavior. Each of them shall take an oath to support the Constitution of the United States and to discharge faithfully the duties of his office. The Chief Justice shall be entitled to receive an annual salary of $8,000, and each of the other judges an annual salary of $7,500, payable monthly from the Treasury. (R. S. § 1049; Feb. 12, 1903, c. 547, 32 Stat. 825; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 136, 36 Stat. 1135; Feb. 25, 1919, c. 29, § 4, 40 Stat. 1157.)

242. (Judicial Code, section 137.) Seal.—The Court of Claims shall have a seal, with such device as it may order. (R. S. § 1050; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 137, 36 Stat. 1136.)

243. (Judicial Code, section 138.) Session; quorum.—The Court of Claims shall hold one annual session at the city of Washington, beginning on the first Monday in December and continuing as long as may be necessary for the prompt disposition of the business of the court. Any three of the judges of said court shall constitute a quorum, and may hold a court for the transaction of business. The concurrence of three judges shall be necessary to the decision of any case. (R. S. § 1052; June 23, 1874, c. 468, 18 Stat. 252; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 138, 36 Stat. 1136.)

244. (Judicial Code, section 139.) Officers of court.—The said court shall appoint a chief clerk, an assistant clerk, if deemed necessary, a bailiff, and a chief messenger. The clerks shall take an oath for the faithful discharge of their duties, and shall be under the direction of the court in the performance thereof; and for misconduct or incapacity they may be removed by it from office; but the court shall report such removals, with the cause thereof, to Congress, if in session, or if not, at the next session. The bailiff shall hold his office for a term of four years, unless sooner removed by the court for cause. (R. S. § 1053; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 139, 36 Stat. 1136.)

245. (Judicial Code, section 140.) Salary of clerk.—The salary of the chief clerk shall be $5,000 a year, payable monthly from the Treasury. (R. S. § 1054; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 140, 36 Stat. 1136.)

246. (Judicial Code, section 141.) Clerk's bond.—The chief clerk shall give bond to the United States in such amount, in such form, and with such security as shall be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury. (R. S. § 1055; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 141, 36 Stat. 1136.)

247. (Judicial Code, section 142.) Contingent fund.—The said clerk shall have authority when he has given bond as provided in the preceding section, to disburse, under the direction of the court, the contingent fund which may from time to time be appropriated for its use; and his accounts shall be settled by the General Accounting Office in the same way as the accounts of other disbursing agents of the Government are settled. (R. S. § 1056; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 142, 36 Stat. 1136; June 10, 1921, c. 18, 42 Stat. 23.)

248. (Judicial Code, section 143.) Reports to Congress.—On the first day of every regular session of Congress, the clerk of the Court of Claims shall transmit to Congress a full and complete statement of all the judgments rendered by the court during the previous year, stating the amounts thereof and the parties in whose favor they were rendered, together with a brief synopsis of the nature of the claims upon which they were rendered. At the end of every term of the court he shall transmit a copy of its decisions to the heads of departments; to the Solicitor of the Treasury; to the Comptroller General of the United States; to the Commissioner of the General Land Office and of Indian Affairs; to the chiefs of bureaus, and to other officers charged with the adjustment of claims against the United States. (R. S. § 1057; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 143, 36 Stat. 1136; June 10, 1921, c. 18, §§ 301, 302, 310, 42 Stat. 23, 25.)

249. (Judicial Code, section 144.) Members of Congress not to practice in.—Whoever, being elected or appointed a Senator, Member of, or Delegate to Congress, or a Resident Commissioner, shall, after his election or appointment, and either before or after he has qualified, and during his continuance in office, practice in the Court of Claims, shall be fined not more than $10,000 and imprisoned not more than two years; and shall, moreover, thereafter be incapable of holding any office of honor, trust, or profit under the Government of the United States. (R. S. § 1058; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 144, 36 Stat. 1136.)

250. (Judicial Code, section 145.) Jurisdiction.—The Court of Claims shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the following matters:

(1) Claims against United States.—First. All claims (except for pensions) founded upon the Constitution of the United States or any law of Congress, upon any regulation of an executive department, upon any contract, express or implied, with the Government of the United States, or for damages, liquidated or unliquidated, in cases not sounding in tort, in respect of which claims the party would be entitled to redress against the United States either in a court of law, equity, or admiralty if the United States were suable: Provided, however, That nothing in this section shall be construed as giving to the said court jurisdiction to hear and determine claims growing out of the late civil war, and commonly known as "war claims," or to hear and determine other claims which, prior to March 3, 1887, had been rejected or reported on adversely by any court, department, or commission authorized to hear and determine the same. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 359, § 1, 24 Stat. 505; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 145, 36 Stat. 1136.)

(2) Set-offs.—Second. All set-offs, counterclaims, claims for damages, whether liquidated or unliquidated, or other demands whatsoever on the part of the Government of the United States against any claimant against the Government in said court: Provided, That no suit against the Government of the United States, brought by any officer of the United States to recover fees for services alleged to have been performed for the United States, shall be allowed under this chapter until an account for said fees shall have been rendered and finally acted upon as required by law, unless the General Accounting Office fails to act finally thereon within six months after the account is received in said office. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 359, § 1, par. 2, 24 Stat. 505; June 27, 1898, c. 503, § 1, 30 Stat. 494; July 1, 1898, c. 546, § 3, 30 Stat. 649; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 145, par. 2, 36 Stat. 1137.)

(3) Disbursing officers.—Third. The claim of any paymaster, quartermaster, commissary of subsistence, or other disbursing officer of the United States, or of his administrators or executors, for relief from responsibility on account of loss by capture or otherwise, while in the line of his duty, of Government funds, vouchers, records, or papers in his charge, and for which such officer was and is held responsible. (R. S. § 1059; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 145, par. 3, 36 Stat. 1137.)

251. Jurisdiction not to extend to certain claims.—The jurisdiction of the Court of Claims shall not extend to or include any claim against the United States based upon or growing out of the destruction of any property or damage done to any property by the military or naval forces of the United States during the war for the suppression of the rebellion; nor to any claim for stores and supplies taken by or furnished to or for the use of the military or naval forces of the United States, nor to any claim for the value of any use and occupation of any real estate by the military or naval forces of the United States during said war; nor shall said Court of Claims hear and determine other claims which prior to March 3, 1887, had been rejected or reported on adversely by any court, department or commission authorized to hear and determine the same; nor shall said Court of Claims have jurisdiction of any claim which on March 4, 1915, was barred by the provisions of any law of the United States. (R. S. § 1059; Mar. 3, 1887, c. 359, § 1, 24 Stat. 505; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 145, 36 Stat. 1136; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 140, § 5, 38 Stat. 966.)

252. (Judicial Code, section 146.) Judgments for set-off or counterclaims.—Upon the trial of any cause in which any set-off, counterclaim, claim for damages, or other demand is set up on the part of the Government against any person making claim against the Government in said court, the court shall hear and determine such claim or demand both for and against the Government and claimant; and if upon the whole case it finds that the claimant is indebted to the Government it shall render judgment to that effect, and such judgment shall be final, with the right of appeal, as in other cases provided for by law. Any transcript of such judgment, filed in the clerk's office of any district court, shall be entered upon the records thereof, and shall thereby become and be a judgment of such court and be enforced as other judgments in such court are enforced. (R. S. § 1061; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 146, 36 Stat. 1137.)

253. (Judicial Code, section 147.) Decree on accounts of disbursing officers.—Whenever the Court of Claims ascertains the facts of any loss by any paymaster, quartermaster, commissary of subsistence, or other disbursing officer, in the cases hereinbefore provided, to have been without fault or negligence on the part of such officer, it shall make a decree setting forth the amount thereof, and upon such decree the General Accounting Office shall allow to such officer the amount so decreed as a credit in the settlement of his accounts. (R. S. § 1062; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 147, 36 Stat. 1137.)

254. (Judicial Code, section 148.) Claims referred by departments.—When any claim or matter is pending in any of the executive departments which involves controverted questions of fact or law, the head of such department may transmit the same, with the vouchers, papers, documents and proofs pertaining thereto, to the Court of Claims and the same shall be there proceeded in under such rules as the court may adopt. When the facts and conclusions of law shall have been found, the court shall report its findings to the department by which it was transmitted for its guidance and action. If it shall have been transmitted with the consent of the claimant, or if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court upon the facts established, that under existing laws or the provisions of this chapter it has jurisdiction to render judgment or decree thereon, it shall proceed to do so, in the latter case giving to either party such further opportunity for hearing as in its judgment justice shall require, and shall report its findings therein to the department by which the same was referred to said court. The Secretary of the Treasury may, upon the certificate of the Comptroller General of the United States, direct any claim or matter, of which, by reason of the subject matter or character, the said court might under existing laws, take jurisdiction on the voluntary action of the claimant, to be transmitted, with all the vouchers, papers, documents and proofs pertaining thereto, to the said court for trial and adjudication. (R. S. § 1063; Mar. 3, 1883, c. 116, §

2, 22 Stat. 485; Mar. 3, 1887, c. 359, §§ 12, 13, 24 Stat. 507; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 148, 36 Stat. 1137.)

255. (Judicial Code, section 149.) Procedure in cases transmitted by departments.—All cases transmitted by the head of any department, or upon the certificate of the Comptroller General of the United States, according to the provisions of section 254 of this title, shall be proceeded in as other cases pending in the Court of Claims, and shall, in all respects, be subject to the same rules and regulations. (R. S. § 1064; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 149, 36 Stat. 1138.)

256. (Judicial Code, section 150.) Judgments in cases transmitted by departments.—The amount of any final judgment or decree rendered in favor of the claimant, in any case transmitted to the Court of Claims under sections 254 and 255 of this title, shall be paid out of any specific appropriation applicable to the case, if any such there be; and where no such appropriation exists, the judgment or decree shall be paid in the same manner as other judgments of the said court. (R. S. § 1065; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 150, 36 Stat. 1138.)

257. (Judicial Code, section 151.) Reference of claims by Congress.—Whenever any bill, except for a pension, is pending in either House of Congress providing for the payment of a claim against the United States, legal or equitable, or for a grant, gift, or bounty to any person, the House in which such bill is pending may, for the investigation and determination of facts, refer the same to the Court of Claims, which shall proceed with the same in accordance with such rules as it may adopt and report to such House the facts in the case and the amount, where the same can be liquidated, including any facts bearing upon the question whether there has been delay or laches in presenting such claim or applying for such grant, gift, or bounty, and any facts bearing upon the question whether the bar of any statute of limitation should be removed or which shall be claimed to excuse the claimant for not having resorted to any established legal remedy, together with such conclusions as shall be sufficient to inform Congress of the nature and character of the demand, either as a claim, legal or equitable, or as a gratuity against the United States, and the amount, if any, legally or equitably due from the United States to the claimant. If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court upon the facts established, that under existing laws or the provisions of this chapter, the subject matter of the bill is such that it has jurisdiction to render judgment or decree thereon, it shall proceed to do so, giving to either party such further opportunity for hearing as in its judgment justice shall require, and it shall report its proceedings therein to the House of Congress by which the same was referred to said court. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 359, § 14, 24 Stat. 507; June 25, 1910, c. 409, 36 Stat. 837; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 151, 36 Stat. 1138.)

258. (Judicial Code, section 152.) Costs to prevailing party.—If the Government of the United States shall put in issue the right of the plaintiff to recover, the court may, in its discretion, allow costs to the prevailing party from the time of joining such issue. Such costs, however, shall include only what is actually incurred for witnesses, and for summoning the same, and fees paid to the clerk of the court. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 359, § 15, 24 Stat. 508; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 152, 36 Stat. 1138.)

259. (Judicial Code, section 153.) Claims growing out of treaties.—The jurisdiction of the said court shall not extend to any claim against the Government not pending therein on December 1, 1862, growing out of or dependent on any treaty stipulation entered into with foreign nations or with the Indian tribes. (R. S. § 1066; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 153, 36 Stat. 1138.)

260. (Judicial Code, section 154.) Claims pending in other courts.—No person shall file or prosecute in the Court of Claims, or in the Supreme Court on appeal therefrom, any claim for or in respect to which he or any assignee of his has pending in any other court any suit or process against any person who, at the time when the cause of action alleged in such suit or process arose, was, in respect thereto, acting or professing to act, mediately or immediately, under the authority of the United States. (R. S. § 1067; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 154, 36 Stat. 1138.)

261. (Judicial Code, section 155.) Aliens.—Aliens who are citizens or subjects of any Government which accords to citizens of the United States the right to prosecute claims against such Government in its courts, shall have the privilege of prosecuting claims against the United States in the Court of Claims, whereof such court, by reason of their subject matter and character, might take jurisdiction. (R. S. § 1068; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 155, 36 Stat. 1139.)

262. (Judicial Code, section 156.) Claims to be filed within six years.—Every claim against the United States cognizable by the Court of Claims, shall be forever barred unless the petition setting forth a statement thereof is filed in the court, or transmitted to it by the Secretary of the Senate or the Clerk of the House of Representatives, as provided by law, within six years after the claim first accrues. The claims of married women, first accrued during marriage, of persons under the age of twenty-one years, first accrued during minority, and of idiots, lunatics, insane persons, and persons beyond the seas at the time the claim accrued, entitled to the claim, shall not be barred if the petition be filed in the court or transmitted, as aforesaid, within three years after the disability has ceased; but no other disability than those enumerated shall prevent any claim from being barred, nor shall any of the said disabilities operate cumulatively. (R. S. § 1069; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 156, 36 Stat. 1139.)

263. (Judicial Code, section 157.) Rules of practice.—The said court shall have power to establish rules for its government and for the regulation of practice therein, and it may punish for contempt in the manner prescribed by the common law, may appoint commissioners, and may exercise such powers as are necessary to carry into effect the powers granted to it by law. (R. S. § 1070; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 157, 36 Stat. 1139.)

264. (Judicial Code, section 158.) Oaths and acknowledgments.—The judges and clerks of said court may administer oaths and affirmations, take acknowledgments of instruments in writing, and give certificates of the same. (R. S. § 1071; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 158, 36 Stat. 1139.)

265. (Judicial Code, section 159.) Petitions and verification.—The claimant shall in all cases fully set forth in his petition the claim, the action thereon in Congress or by any of the departments, if such action has been had, what persons are owners thereof or interested therein, when and upon what consideration such persons became so interested; that no assignment or transfer of said claim or of any part thereof or interest therein has been made, except as stated in the petition; that said claimant is justly entitled to the amount therein claimed from the United States after allowing all just credits and offsets; that the claimant and, where the claim has been assigned, the original and every prior owner thereof, if a citizen, has at all times borne true allegiance to the Government of the United States, and, whether a citizen or not, has not in any way voluntarily aided, abetted, or given encouragement to rebellion against the said Government, and that he believes the facts as stated in the said petition to be true. The said petition shall be verified by the affidavit of the claimant, his agent or attorney. (R. S. § 1072; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 159, 36 Stat. 1139.)

266. (Judicial Code, section 160.) Petition dismissed, when.—The said allegations as to true allegiance and voluntary aiding, abetting, or giving encouragement to rebellion against the Government may be traversed by the Government, and if on the trial such issues shall be decided against the claimant, his petition shall be dismissed. (R. S. § 1073; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 160, 36 Stat. 1139.)

267. (Judicial Code, section 161.) Burden of proof and evidence as to loyalty.—Whenever it is material in any claim to ascertain whether any person did or did not give any aid or comfort to forces or Government of the late Confederate States during the Civil War, the claimant asserting the loyalty of any such person to the United States during such Civil War shall be required to prove affirmatively that such person did, during said Civil War, consistently adhere to the United States and did give no aid or comfort to persons engaged in said Confederate service in said Civil War. (R. S. § 1074; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 161, 36 Stat. 1139.)

268. (Judicial Code, section 162.) Claims for proceeds arising from sales of abandoned property.—The Court of Claims shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the claims of those whose property was taken subsequent to June 1, 1865, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved March 3, 1863 (Twelfth Statutes, page 820); [authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to receive and collect all abandoned or captured property except war materials, in any area designated as in insurrection against the lawful Government of the United States during the late "Civil War," and to sell the same at public auction, and to pay the proceeds, thereof into the Treasury of the United States, and authorizing the owner at any time within two years after the suppression of the rebellion, to prefer his claim to the proceeds in the court of claims] and acts amendatory thereof where the property so taken was sold and the net proceeds thereof were placed in the Treasury of the United States; and the Secretary of the Treasury shall return said net proceeds to the owners thereof, on the judgment of said court, and full jurisdiction is given to said court to adjudge said claims, any statutes of limitations to the contrary notwithstanding. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 162, 36 Stat. 1139.)

269. Commissioners of Court of Claims; appointment; powers; procedure.—To afford the Court of Claims needed facilities for the disposition of suits brought therein said court is authorized and empowered to appoint seven competent persons, to be known as commissioners, who shall attend the taking of or take evidence in cases that may be assigned to them severally by the court and make report of the facts in the case to the court. Any commissioner shall proceed under such rules and regulations as may be promulgated by the court and such orders as the court may make in the particular case, and may have and perform the general duties that pertain to special masters in suits in equity. He may fix the times for hearings, administer oaths, examine witnesses, and receive evidence. Parties to the suit may appear before the commissioner in person or by attorney, produce evidence, and examine witnesses. Subpœnas for witnesses or for the production of testimony before the commissioner may issue out of the court by the clerk thereof and shall be served by a United States marshal in any judicial district to whom they are directed. The rules of the court shall provide for a finding and report of facts by a commissioner, to be filed in court with the testimony upon which the same is based, and for exceptions thereto, in whole or in part, by the parties to the suit, and a hearing thereon within such reasonable time as the court's rules or order may prescribe. Nothing in this section shall be so construed as to prevent the court from passing upon all questions and findings without regard to whether exceptions were or were not taken at the hearings before the commissioner. Any person appointed as commissioner may be removed at the pleasure of the court. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 301, § 1, 43 Stat. 964.)

270. Same; salaries; expenses.—Each of said commissioners shall devote all of his time to the duties of his office, and receive a salary of $5,000 per annum, payable monthly out of the Treasury. The commissioners and stenographers authorized by the court shall also receive their necessary traveling expenses and their actual expenses incurred for subsistence while traveling on duty and away from Washington in an amount not to exceed $7 per day in the case of commissioners and $4 per day in the case of stenographers. The expenses of travel and subsistence herein authorized shall be paid upon the order of the court. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 301, § 2, 43 Stat. 965.)

271. Same; when appointments cease.—Sections 269, 270, and 271 and all appointments made thereunder shall cease and determine on February 24, 1928. (R. S. § 1075; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 163, 36 Stat. 1140; Feb. 24, 1925, c. 301, §§ 1–3, 43 Stat. 964, 965.)

272. (Judicial Code, section 164.) Calling departments for information.—The said court shall have power to call upon any of the departments for any information or papers it may deem necessary, and shall have the use of all recorded and printed reports made by the committees of each House of Congress, when deemed necessary in the prosecution of its business. But the head of any department may refuse and omit to comply with any call for information or papers when, in his opinion, such compliance would be injurious to the public interest. (R. S. § 1076; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 164, 36 Stat. 1140.)

273. (Judicial Code, section 165.) When testimony not to be taken.—When it appears to the court in any case that the facts set forth in the petition of the claimant do not furnish any ground for relief, it shall not authorize the taking of any testimony therein. (R. S. § 1077; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 165, 36 Stat. 1140.)

274. (Judicial Code, section 166.) Examination of claimant.—The court may, at the instance of the attorney or solicitor appearing in behalf of the United States, make an order in any case pending therein, directing any claimant in such case to appear, upon reasonable notice, before any commissioner of the court and be examined on oath touching any or all matters pertaining to said claim. Such examination shall be reduced to writing by the said commissioner, and be returned to and filed in the court, and may, at the discretion of the attorney or solicitor of the United States appearing in the case, be read and used as evidence on the trial thereof. And if any claimant, after such order is made and due and reasonable notice thereof is given to him, fails to appear, or refuses to testify or answer fully as to all matters within his knowledge material to the issue, the court may, in its discretion, order that the said cause shall not be brought forward for trial until he shall have fully complied with the order of the court in the premises. (R. S. § 1080; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 166, 36 Stat. 1140.)

275. (Judicial Code, section 167.) Testimony; where taken.—The testimony in cases pending before the Court of Claims shall be taken in the county where the witness resides, when the same can be conveniently done. (R. S. § 1081; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 167, 36 Stat. 1140.)

276. (Judicial Code, section 168.) Witnesses before commissioners.—The Court of Claims may issue subpœnas to require the attendance of witnesses in order to be examined before any person commissioned to take testimony therein. Such subpœnas shall have the same force as if issued from a district court, and compliance therewith shall be compelled under such rules and orders as the court shall establish. (R. S. § 1082; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 168, 36 Stat. 1140.)

277. (Judicial Code, section 169.) Cross-examinations.—In taking testimony to be used in support of any claim, opportunity shall be given to the United States to file interrogatories, or by attorney to examine witnesses, under such regulations as said court shall prescribe; and like opportunity shall be afforded the claimant, in cases where testimony is taken on behalf of the United States, under like regulations. (R. S. § 1083; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 169, 36 Stat. 1140.)

278. (Judicial Code, section 170.) Witnesses; how sworn.—The commissioner taking testimony to be used in the Court of Claims shall administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses brought before him for examination. (R. S. § 1084; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 170, 36 Stat. 1140.)

279. (Judicial Code, section 172.) Claims forfeited for fraud.—Any person who corruptly practices or attempts to practice any fraud against the United States in the proof, statement, establishment, or allowance of any claim or of any part of any claim against the United States shall, ipso facto, forfeit the same to the Government; and it shall be the duty of the Court of Claims, in such cases, to find specifically that such fraud was practiced or attempted to be practiced, and thereupon to give judgment that such claim is forfeited to the Government, and that the claimant be forever barred from prosecuting the same. (R. S. § 1086; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 172, 36 Stat. 1141.)

280. (Judicial Code, section 173.) Excessive and fraudulent claims for stores and supplies.—No claims shall be allowed by the accounting officers under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 16, 1874 (18 Stat. 75), or by the Court of Claims, or by Congress, to any person where such claimant, or those under whom he claims, shall willfully, knowingly, and with intent to defraud the United States, have claimed more than was justly due in respect of such claim, or presented any false evidence to Congress, or to any department or court, in support thereof. (June 16, 1874, c. 285, § 2, 18 Stat. 75; Apr. 30, 1878, c. 77, § 2, 20 Stat. 524; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 173, 36 Stat. 1141.)

281. (Judicial Code, section 174.) New trial; motion of claimant.—When judgment is rendered against any claimant, the court may grant a new trial for any reason which, by the rules of common law or chancery in suits between individuals, would furnish sufficient ground for granting a new trial. (R. S. § 1087; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 174, 36 Stat. 1141.)

282. (Judicial Code, section 175.) Same; motion of United States.—The Court of Claims, at any time while any claim is pending before it, or on appeal from it, or within two years next after the final disposition of such claim, may, on motion, on behalf of the United States, grant a new trial and stay the payment of any judgment therein, upon such evidence, cumulative or otherwise, as shall satisfy the court that any fraud, wrong, or injustice in the premises has been done to the United States; but until an order is made staying the payment of a judgment, the same shall be payable and paid as on March 3, 1911, was provided by law. (R. S. § 1088; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 175, 36 Stat. 1141.)

283. (Judicial Code, section 176.) Cost of printing record.—There shall be taxed against the losing party in each and every cause pending in the Court of Claims the cost of printing the record in such case, which shall be collected, except when the judgment is against the United States, by the clerk of said court and paid into the Treasury of the United States. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 105, § 1, 19 Stat. 344; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 176, 36 Stat. 1141.)

284. (Judicial Code, section 177, amended.) No interest on claims.—No interest shall be allowed on any claim up to the time of the rendition of judgment by the Court of Claims, unless upon a contract expressly stipulating for the payment of interest, except that interest may be allowed in any judgment of any court rendered against the United States for any internal revenue tax erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, or for any penalty collected without authority or any sum which was excessive or in any manner wrongfully collected, under the internal revenue laws. (R. S. § 1091; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 177, 36 Stat. 1141; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1324(b), 42 Stat. 316; June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1020, 43 Stat. 346.)

285. (Judicial Code, section 178.) Payment of judgment.—The payment of the amount due by any judgment of the Court of Claims, and of any interest thereon allowed by law, as provided by law, shall be a full discharge to the United States of all claim and demand touching any of the matters involved in the controversy. (R. S. § 1092; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 178, 36 Stat. 1141.)

286. (Judicial Code, section 179.) Final judgments a bar.—Any final judgment against the claimant on any claim prosecuted as provided in this chapter shall forever bar any further claim or demand against the United States arising out of the matters involved in the controversy. (R. S. § 1093; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 179, 36 Stat. 1141.)

287. (Judicial Code, section 180.) Ascertainment of amounts due United States by debtors.—Whenever any person shall present his petition to the Court of Claims alleging that he is or has been indebted to the United States as an officer or agent thereof, or by virtue of any contract therewith, or that he is the guarantor, or surety, or personal representative of any officer or agent or contractor so indebted, or that he or the person for whom he is such surety, guarantor, or personal representative has held any office or agency under the United States, or entered into any contract therewith, under which it may be or has been claimed that an indebtedness to the United States had arisen and exists, and that he or the person he represents has applied to the proper department of the Government requesting that the account of such office, agency, or indebtedness may be adjusted and settled, and that three years have elapsed from the date of such application, and said account still remains unsettled and unadjusted, and that no suit upon the same has been brought by the United States, said court shall, due notice first being given to the head of said department and to the Attorney General of the United States, proceed to hear the parties and to ascertain the amount, if any, due the United States on said account. The Attorney General shall represent the United States at the hearing of said cause. The court may postpone the same from time to time whenever justice shall require. The judgment of said court or of the Supreme Court of the United States, upon review of the decision of the Court of Claims as provided in section 288 of this title as to the amount due, shall be binding and conclusive upon the parties. The payment of such amount so found due by the court shall discharge such obligation. An action shall accrue to the United States against such principal, or surety, or representative to recover the amount so found due, which may be brought at any time within three years after the final judgment of said court; and unless suit shall be brought within said time, such claim and the claim on the original indebtedness shall be forever barred. The provisions of section 274 of this title shall apply to cases under this section. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 359, §§ 3, 8, 24 Stat. 505, 506; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 180, 36 Stat. 1141; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 3, 43 Stat. 939.)

288. Certification to Supreme Court of questions of law; certiorari by Supreme Court to Court of Claims; no other review allowed.—(a) In any case in the Court of Claims, including those begun under section 287 of this title, that court at any time may certify to the Supreme Court any definite and distinct questions of law concerning which instructions are desired for the proper disposition of the cause; and thereupon the Supreme Court may give appropriate instructions on the questions certified and transmit the same to the Court of Claims for its guidance in the further progress of the cause.

(b) In any case in the Court of Claims, including those begun under section 287, it shall be competent for the Supreme Court, upon the petition of either party, whether Government or claimant, to require, by certiorari, that the cause, including the findings of fact and the judgment or decree, but omitting the evidence, be certified to it for review and determination with the same power and authority, and with like effect, as if the cause had been brought there by appeal.

(c) All judgments and decrees of the Court of Claims shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court as provided in this section, and not otherwise. (Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 3, 43 Stat. 939.)

289. (Judicial Code, section 183.) Attorney General's report to Congress.—The Attorney General shall report to Congress, at the beginning of each regular session, the suits under section 287 of this title, in which a final judgment or decree has been rendered, giving the date of each and a statement of the costs taxed in each case. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 359, § 17, 24 Stat. 507; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 183, 36 Stat. 1142.)

290. (Judicial Code, section 184.) Loyalty jurisdictional fact.—In any case of a claim for supplies or stores taken by or furnished to any part of the military or naval forces of the United States for their use during the late Civil War, the petition shall aver that the person who furnished such supplies or stores, or from whom such supplies or stores were taken, did not give any aid or comfort to said rebellion, but was throughout that war loyal to the Government of the United States, and the fact of such loyalty shall be a jurisdictional fact; and unless the said court shall, on a preliminary inquiry, find that the person who furnished such supplies or stores, or from whom the same were taken as aforesaid, was loyal to the Government of the United States throughout said war, the court shall not have jurisdiction of such cause, and the same shall, without further proceedings, be dismissed. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 116, § 4, 22 Stat. 486; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 184, 36 Stat. 1142.)

291. (Judicial Code, section 185.) Appearance by Attorney General for defense.—The Attorney General, or his assistants under his direction, shall appear for the defense and protection of the interests of the United States in all cases which may be transmitted to the Court of Claims under the provisions of this chapter, with the same power to interpose counterclaims, offsets, defenses for fraud practiced or attempted to be practiced by claimants, and other defenses, in like manner as he is required to defend the United States in said court. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 116, § 5, 22 Stat. 486; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 185, 36 Stat. 1142.)

292. (Judicial Code, section 186, amended.) Exclusion as witnesses because of color or because of interest.—No person shall be excluded as a witness in the Court of Claims on account of color or because he or she is a party to or interested in the cause or proceeding; and any plaintiff or party in interest may be examined as a witness on the part of the Government. (R. S. § 1078; Mar. 3, 1883, c. 116, § 6, 22 Stat. 486; Mar. 3, 1887, c. 359, § 8, 24 Stat. 506; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 186, 36 Stat. 1143; Feb. 5, 1912, c. 28, 37 Stat. 61.)

293. (Judicial Code, section 187.) Reports to Congress.—Reports of the Court of Claims to Congress, under sections 254 and 257 of this title, if not finally acted upon during the session at which they are reported, shall be continued from session to session and from Congress to Congress until the same shall be finally acted upon. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 116, § 7, 22 Stat. 486; Mar. 3, 1911; c. 231, § 187, 36 Stat. 1143.)

Section 301. (Judicial Code, section 188.) Court; judges; salaries; quorum; circuit and district judges may act.—There shall be a United States Court of Customs Appeals, which shall consist of a presiding judge and four associate judges, each of whom shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall receive a salary of $8,500 a year, payable monthly from the Treasury. The presiding judge shall be so designated in the order of appointment and in the commission issued to him by the President; and the associate judges shall have precedence according to the date of their commissions. Any three members of said court shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of three members shall be necessary to any decision thereof. In case of a vacancy or of the temporary inability or disqualification, for any reason, of one or two of the judges of said court, the President may, upon the request of the presiding judge of said court, designate any qualified United States circuit or district judge or judges to act in his or their place; and such circuit or district judges shall be duly qualified to so act. (Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105; Feb. 25, 1910, c. 62, 36 Stat. 214; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 188, 36 Stat. 1143; Feb. 26, 1919, c. 29, §§ 2, 5, 40 Stat. 1156, 1157.)

302. (Judicial Code, section 189.) Court always open; terms; expenses of judges.—The said Court of Customs Appeals shall always be open for the transaction of business, and sessions thereof may, in the discretion of the court, be held in the several judicial circuits, and at such places as said court may from time to time designate. Any judge who, in pursuance of the provisions of this chapter, shall attend a session of said court at any place other than the city of Washington, shall be paid, upon his written and itemized certificate, by the marshal of the district in which the court shall be held, his actual and necessary expenses incurred for travel and attendance, and the actual and necessary expenses of one stenographic clerk who may accompany him; and such payments shall be allowed the marshal in the settlement of his accounts with the United States. (Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 189, 36 Stat. 1143.)

303. (Judicial Code, section 190.) Marshal; appointment, salary, and duties.—Said court shall have the services of a marshal, with the same duties and powers, under the regulations of the court, as were provided on March 3, 1911, for the marshal of the Supreme Court of the United States, so far as the same may be applicable. Said services within the District of Columbia shall be performed by a marshal to be appointed by and to hold office during the pleasure of the court, who shall receive a salary of $3,000 per annum. Said services outside of the District of Columbia shall be performed by the United States marshals in and for the districts where sessions of said court may be held; and to this end said marshals shall be the marshals of said court. The marshal of said court, for the District of Columbia, is authorized to purchase, under the direction of the presiding judge, such books, periodicals, and stationery, as may be necessary for the use of said court; and such expenditures shall be allowed and paid by the Secretary of the Treasury upon claim duly made and approved by said presiding judge. (Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105; Feb. 25, 1910, c. 62, 36 Stat. 216; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 191, 36 Stat. 1144.)

304. (Judicial Code, section 191.) Clerk; appointment, salary, and duties.—The court shall appoint a clerk, whose office shall be in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, and who shall perform and exercise the same duties and powers in regard to all matters within the jurisdiction of said court as were exercised and performed on March 3, 1911, by the clerk of the Supreme Court of the United States, so far as the same may be applicable. The clerk shall receive a salary which shall be in full payment for all service rendered by such clerk; and all fees of any kind whatever, and all costs shall be by him turned into the United States Treasury. Said clerk shall not be appointed by the court or any judge thereof as a commissioner, master, receiver, or referee. The costs and fees in the said court shall be fixed and established by said court in a table of fees to be adopted and approved by the Supreme Court of the United States. The costs and fees so fixed shall not, with respect to any item, exceed the costs and fees charged in the Supreme Court of the United States; and the same shall be expended, accounted for, and paid over to the Treasury of the United States. (Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105; Feb. 25, 1910, c. 62, 36 Stat. 214; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 191, 36 Stat. 1144.)

305. (Judicial Code, section 192.) Assistant clerk, stenographic clerks, and reporter.—In addition to the clerk, the court may appoint an assistant clerk, five stenographic clerks, one stenographic reporter, and such other employees as may be appropriated for by Congress, whose salaries shall be payable in equal monthly installments, and all of whom, including the clerk, shall hold office during the pleasure of and perform such duties as are assigned them by the court. Said reporter shall prepare and transmit to the Secretary of the Treasury once a week in time for publication in the Treasury Decisions copies of all decisions rendered to that date by said court, and prepare and transmit, under the direction of said court, at least once a year, reports of said decisions rendered to that date, constituting a volume, which shall be printed by the Treasury Department in such numbers and distributed or sold in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury shall direct. (Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105; Feb. 25, 1910, c. 62, 36 Stat. 214; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 192, 36 Stat. 1144.)

306. (Judicial Code, section 193.) Rooms for holding court; bailiffs and messengers.—The marshal of said court for the District of Columbia and the marshals of the several districts in which said Court of Customs Appeals may be held shall, under the direction of the Attorney General, and with his approval, provide such rooms in the public buildings of the United States as may be necessary for said court. In case proper rooms can not be provided in such buildings, then the said marshals, with the approval of the Attorney General, may, from time to time, lease such rooms as may be necessary for said court. The bailiffs and messengers of said court shall be allowed the same compensation for their respective services as are allowed for similar services in the district courts existing March 3, 1911. In no case shall said marshals secure other rooms than those regularly occupied by the district courts existing March 3, 1911, or other public officers, except where such can not, by reason of actual occupancy or use, be occupied or used by said Court of Customs Appeals. (Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 193, 36 Stat. 1144.)

307. (Judicial Code, section 194.) Court of record; seal; rules; decisions.—The said Court of Customs Appeals shall be a court of record, with jurisdiction as in this chapter established and limited. It shall prescribe the form and style of its seal, and the form of its writs and other process and procedure, and exercise such powers conferred by law as may be conformable and necessary to the exercise of its jurisdiction. It shall have power to establish all rules and regulations for the conduct of the business of the court, and as may be needful for the uniformity of decisions within its jurisdiction as conferred by law. It shall have power to review any decision or matter within its jurisdiction, and may affirm, modify, or reverse the same and remand the case with such orders as may seem to it proper in the premises, which shall be executed accordingly. (Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 194, 36 Stat. 1145.)

308. (Judicial Code, section 195, amended.) Review of final decisions of Board of General Appraisers; review by Supreme Court.—The Court of Customs Appeals shall exercise exclusive appellate jurisdiction to review by appeal, as herein provided, final decisions by a board of general appraisers in all cases as to the construction of the law and the facts respecting the classification of merchandise and the rate of duty imposed thereon under such classifications, and the fees and charges connected therewith, and all appealable questions as to the jurisdiction of said board, and all appealable questions as to the laws and regulations governing the collection of the customs revenues; and the judgments and decrees of said Court of Customs Appeals shall be final in all such cases: Provided, however, That in any case in which the judgment or decree of the Court of Customs Appeals is made final by the provisions of this title, it shall be competent for the Supreme Court, upon the application of either party, duly made as required by section 350 of this title, in any case in which there is drawn in question the construction of the Constitution of the United States, or any part thereof, or of any treaty made pursuant thereto, or in any other case when the Attorney General of the United States shall before the decision of the Court of Customs Appeals is rendered, file with the court a certificate to the effect that the case is of such importance as to render expedient its review by the Supreme Court, to require, by certiorari or otherwise, such case to be certified to the Supreme Court for its review and determination, with the same power and authority in the case as if it had been carried by appeal or writ of error to the Supreme Court: And provided further, That the first proviso of this section shall not apply to any case involving only the construction of section 1, or any portion thereof, of an Act entitled "An Act to provide revenue, equalize duties, and encourage the industries of the United States, and for other purposes," approved August 5, 1909 (Thirty-sixth Statutes, page 11), nor to any case involving the construction of section 2 of an Act entitled "An Act to promote reciprocal trade relations with the Dominion of Canada, and for other purposes," approved July 26, 1911 (Thirty-seventh Statutes, page 11). (Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 195, 36 Stat. 1145; Aug. 22, 1914, c. 267, 38 Stat. 703; Sept. 6, 1916, c. 448, § 6, 39 Stat. 727; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 8, 43 Stat. 940.)

309. (Judicial Code, section 196.) Jurisdiction in customs cases.—No appeal shall be taken or allowed from any Board of United States General Appraisers to any court other than the Court of Customs Appeals, and no appellate jurisdiction shall be exercised or allowed by any other courts in cases decided by said Board of United States General Appraisers; but all appeals allowed by law from such Board of General Appraisers shall be subject to review only in the Court of Customs Appeals, according to the provisions of this chapter. (Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 196, 36 Stat. 1145.)

310. (Judicial Code, section 198.) Appeals from Board of General Appraisers.—If the importer, owner, consignee, or agent of any imported merchandise, or the collector or Secretary of the Treasury, shall be dissatisfied with the decision of the Board of General Appraisers as to the construction of the law and the facts respecting the classification of such merchandise and the rate of duty imposed thereon under such classification, or with any other appealable decision of said board, they, or either of them, may, within sixty days next after the entry of such decree or judgment, and not afterwards, apply to the Court of Customs Appeals for a review of the questions of law and fact involved in such decision. In Alaska and in the insular and other outside possessions of the United States ninety days shall be allowed for making such application to the Court of Customs Appeals. Such application shall be made by filing in the office of the clerk of said court a concise statement of errors of law and fact complained of; and a copy of such statement shall be served on the collector, or on the importer, owner, consignee, or agent, as the case may be. Thereupon the court shall immediately order the Board of General Appraisers to transmit to said court the record and evidence taken by them, together with the certified statement of the facts involved in the case and their decision thereon; and all the evidence taken by and before said board shall be competent evidence before said Court of Customs Appeals. The decision of said Court of Customs Appeals shall be final, and such cause shall be remanded to said Board of General Appraisers for further proceedings to be taken in pursuance of such determination. (Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 198, 36 Stat. 1146.)

311. (Judicial Code, section 199.) Records placed on calendar; call of calendar.—Immediately upon receipt of any record transmitted to the Court of Customs Appeals for determination the clerk thereof shall place the same upon the calendar for hearing and submission; and such calendar shall be called and all cases thereupon submitted, except for good cause shown, at least once every sixty days. Such calendar need not be called during the months of July and August of any year. (Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 28, 36 Stat. 91, 105; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 199, 36 Stat. 1146.)

Section 321. (Judicial Code, section 215.) Number of justices.—The Supreme Court of the United States shall consist of a Chief Justice of the United States and eight Associate Justices, any six of whom shall constitute a quorum. (R. S. § 673; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 215, 36 Stat. 1152.)

322. (Judicial Code, section 216.) Precedence of Associate Justices.—The Associate Justices shall have precedence according to the dates of their commissions, or, when the commissions of two or more of them bear the same date, according to their ages. (R. S. § 674; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 216, 36 Stat. 1152.)

323. (Judicial Code, section 217.) Vacancy in office of Chief Justice.—In case of a vacancy in the office of Chief Justice, or of his inability to perform the duties and powers of his office, they shall devolve upon the Associate Justice who is first in precedence, until such disability is removed, or another Chief Justice is appointed and duly qualified. This provision shall apply to every Associate Justice who succeeds to the office of Chief Justice. (R. S. § 675; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 217, 36 Stat. 1152.)

324. (Judicial Code, section 218.) Salaries of justices.—The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States shall receive the sum of $15,000 a year, and the justices thereof shall receive the sum of $14,500 a year each, to be paid monthly. (R. S. § 676; Feb. 12, 1903, c. 547, 32 Stat. 825; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 218, 36 Stat. 1152.)

325. (Judicial Code, section 219.) Clerk, marshal, and reporter.—The Supreme Court shall have power to appoint a clerk and a marshal for said court, and a reporter of its decisions. (R. S. § 677; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 219, 36 Stat. 1152.)

326. (Judicial Code, section 220.) Clerk; bond.—The clerk of the Supreme Court shall, before he enters upon the execution of his office, give bond, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the court, to the United States, in the sum of not less than $5,000 and not more than $20,000, to be determined and regulated by the Attorney General, faithfully to discharge the duties of his office, and seasonably to record the decrees, judgments, and determinations of the court. The Supreme Court may at any time, upon the motion of the Attorney General, to be made upon thirty days' notice, require a new bond, or a bond for an increased amount within the limits above prescribed; and the failure of the clerk to execute the same shall vacate his office. All bonds given by the clerk shall, after approval, be recorded in his office, and copies thereof from the records, certified by the clerk under seal of the court, shall be competent evidence in any court. The original bonds shall be filed in the Department of Justice. (Feb. 22, 1875, c. 95, §§ 2, 8, 18 Stat. 333; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 220, 36 Stat. 1152.)

327. (Judicial Code, section 221.) Same; deputies; liability of clerk for deputy's misfeasance.—One or more deputies of the clerk of the Supreme Court may be appointed by the court on the application of the clerk, and may be removed at the pleasure of the court. In case of the death of the clerk, his deputy or deputies shall, unless removed, continue in office and perform the duties of the clerk in his name until a clerk is appointed and qualified; and for the defaults or misfeasances in office of any such deputy, whether in the lifetime of the clerk or after his death, the clerk, and his estate, and the sureties on his official bond shall be liable; and his executor or administrator shall have such remedy for any such defaults or misfeasances committed after his death as the clerk would be entitled to if the same had occurred in his lifetime. (R. S. § 678; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 221, 36 Stat. 1153.)

328. Law clerks; salaries.—There shall be nine law clerks, one for the Chief Justice and one for each Associate Justice, at not exceeding $3,600 each. (June 1, 1922, c. 204, Title II, 42 Stat. 614; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 21, Title II, 42 Stat. 1081; May 28, 1924, c. 204, Title II, 43 Stat. 218; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title II, 43 Stat. 1028.)

329. (Judicial Code, section 222.) Records of old court of appeals.—The records and proceedings of the court of appeals, appointed previous to the adoption of the present Constitution, shall be kept in the office of the clerk of the Supreme Court, who shall give copies thereof to any person requiring and paying for them, in the manner provided by law for giving copies of the records and proceedings of the Supreme Court; and such copies shall have like faith and credit with all other proceedings of said court. (R. S. § 679; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 222, 36 Stat. 1153.)

330. (Judicial Code, section 223.) Tables of fees.—The Supreme court is authorized and empowered to prepare the tables of fees to be charged by the clerk thereof. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 143, § 1, 22 Stat. 631; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231 § 223, 36 Stat. 1153.)

331. (Judicial Code, section 224.) Marshal; salary; duties.—The marshal is entitled to receive a salary at the rate of $4,500 a year. He shall attend the court at its sessions; shall serve and execute all process and orders issuing from it, or made by the Chief Justice or an Associate Justice in pursuance of law; and shall take charge of all property of the United States used by the court or its members. With the approval of the Chief Justice he may appoint assistants and messengers to attend the court, with the compensation allowed to officers of the House of Representatives of similar grade. (R. S. § 680; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 224, 36 Stat. 1153.)

332. (Judicial Code, section 225, amended.) Reporter; duties; printing and binding of decisions.—It shall be the duty of the reporter to prepare the decisions of the Supreme Court for printing and publication in bound volumes, as and when directed by the court or the Chief Justice; and when so directed to cause to be printed and published advance copies of said decisions in pamphlet installments.

The reporter, by requisition upon the Public Printer, shall have the printing and binding herein required done at the Government Printing Office.

The quality and size of the paper, type, format, proofs, and binding shall be determined by the reporter subject to approval of the court or the Chief Justice.

Authority is conferred upon the Public Printer for doing the printing and binding specified herein. (R. S. § 681; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 225, 36 Stat. 1153; July 1, 1922, c. 267, § 1, 42 Stat. 816.)

333. (Judicial Code, section 226, amended.) Reporter; salary and allowances.—The salary of the reporter shall be $8,000 per annum, payable out of the Treasury in monthly installments, which shall be in full compensation for the services required by law. He shall also be allowed for professional and clerical assistance and stationery not to exceed $3,500 per annum, to be paid upon vouchers signed by him and approved by the Chief Justice. He shall be furnished a room in the Capitol, with suitable furniture, convenient to the space occupied by the Supreme Court and the law library thereof. (Aug. 5, 1882, c. 389, § 1, 22 Stat. 254; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 226, 36 Stat. 1153; July 1, 1922, c. 267, § 2, 42 Stat. 816.)

334. (Judicial Code, section 227, amended.) Printing, binding, and distribution of reports and digests.—The reports provided for in section 332 of this title shall be printed, bound, and issued within eight months after said decisions have been rendered by the Supreme Court, and within said period the Attorney General shall distribute copies of said Supreme Court reports as follows: To the President, the Justices of the Supreme Court, the judges of the Court of Customs Appeals, the judges of the circuit courts of appeal, the judges of the district courts, the judges of the Court of Claims, the judges of the Court of Appeals and of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, the judges of the several Territorial courts, the Secretary of State, the Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, the Secretary of the Interior, the Postmaster General, the Attorney General, the Secretary of Agriculture, the Secretary of Commerce, the Secretary of Labor, the Solicitor General, the Assistant to the Attorney General, each Assistant Attorney General, each United States district attorney, each Assistant Secretary of each of the executive departments, the Assistant Postmaster General, the Secretary of the Senate for use of the Senate, the Clerk of the House of Representatives for the use of the House of Representatives, the governors of the Territories, the Solicitor for the Department of State, the Treasurer of the United States, the Solicitor of the Treasury, the Comptroller General of the United States, the Assistant Comptroller General, the Comptroller of the Currency, the Director of the Budget, the Assistant Director of the Budget, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, the Director of the Mint, the solicitor of the General Accounting Office, each of the chiefs of divisions in the General Accounting Office, the counsel of the Bureau of the Budget, the Judge Advocate General, War Department; the Chief of Finance, War Department; the Judge Advocate General, Navy Department; the Paymaster General, Navy Department; the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, the Commissioner of General Land Office, the Commissioner of Pensions, the Commissioner of Patents, the Commissioner of Education, the Commissioner of Navigation, the Commissioner General of Immigration, the Director of Geological Survey, the Director of the Census, the Forester and Chief of Forest Service, Department of Agriculture; the purchasing agent, Post Office Department; the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Federal Trade Commission, the clerk of the Supreme Court of the United States, the marshal of the Supreme Court of the United States, the United States attorney for the District of Columbia, the chairman United States Shipping Board; the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland; the Military Academy at West Point, New York; and the heads of such other executive offices as may be provided by law of equal grade with any of said offices, each one copy; to the law library of the Supreme Court, twenty-five copies; to the law library of the Department of the Interior, two copies; to the law library of the Department of Justice, five copies; to the Secretary of the Senate for the use of committees of the Senate, thirty copies; to the Clerk of the House of Representatives for use of the committees of the House, thirty-five copies; to the marshal of the Supreme Court as custodian of the public property used by the court for the use of the justice thereof in the conference room, robing room, and court room, three copies; to the Secretary of War for the use of the proper courts and officers of the Philippine Islands, and for the headquarters of military departments in the United States, twelve copies; and to each of the places where district courts of the United States were holden on July 1, 1922, including Hawaii and Porto Rico, one copy.

The Attorney General shall distribute one complete set of said reports and one set of the digests thereof to such executive officers as are entitled to receive said reports under this section and have not already received them; to each United States judge and to each United States district attorney who has not received a set; to each of the places where district courts were held on July 1, 1922, to which reports have not been distributed and to each of the places at which a district court may hereafter be held, the edition of said reports and digests to be selected by the judge or officer receiving them.

No distribution of reports and digests under this section shall be made to any place where the court is held in a building not owned by the United States unless there be at such place a United States officer to whose responsible custody they can be committed.

The clerks of courts (except the Supreme Court) shall in all cases keep the said reports and digests for the use of the courts and of the officers thereof. Said reports and digests shall remain the property of the United States and shall be preserved by the officers above named and by them turned over to their successors in office.

The Public Printer shall turn over to the Attorney General, upon request, such reports as he may require in order to make the distribution authorized to be made by the Attorney General hereunder. (R. S. § 683; Feb. 12, 1889, c. 135, 25 Stat. 661; July 1, 1902, c. 1355, 32 Stat. 630; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 227, 36 Stat. 1154; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1419; July 1, 1922, c. 267, § 3, 42 Stat. 816.)

335. (Judicial Code, section 228, amended.) Number of bound volumes and advance pamphlets to be printed; sale; price; reprints.—The number of bound volumes and advance pamphlet installments, to be printed under the provisions of section 332 of this title, shall be determined by the reporter from estimates furnished by the Attorney General and the Superintendent of Documents, and the prices for said bound volumes and pamphlet installments to be sold by the Public Printer shall be fixed by the reporter with the approval of the Attorney General and shall equal the cost of composition, plating, printing, and binding, and such additional amount as shall equal as nearly as may be, one-half the sums appropriated for the salary and expenses of the reporter under the provisions of section 333 of this title.

Receipts from the sale of said reports and pamphlet installments shall be covered into the Treasury to the credit of miscellaneous receipts.

Whenever the supply of bound copies of any volume produced under any requisition pursuant to section 332 shall have been disposed of, reprints from the original plates shall be made at the Government Printing Office from time to time in sufficient numbers to meet current demands. Such reprints shall equal, as nearly as possible, in quality of presswork, paper, and binding the original editions, and shall be sold at the price fixed for the latest volume published when the reprints are made; so much of the money thus derived as equals the cost of making and distributing the reprints sold shall be credited to the appropriation for printing and binding; the remainder thereof shall be deposited in the Treasury to the credit of miscellaneous receipts. (Feb. 12, 1889, c. 135, 25 Stat. 661; July 1, 1902, c. 1355, 32 Stat. 630; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 228, 36 Stat. 1155; July 1, 1922, c. 267, § 4, 42 Stat. 818.)

336. Appropriations for printing, binding, and so forth, of reports authorized.—Such sums as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of sections 332 to 335 of this title are authorized to be appropriated annually out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated. (July 1, 1922, c. 267, § 5, 42 Stat. 818.)

337. (Judicial Code, section 229.) Distribution of Federal Reporter and digests.—The Attorney General is authorized to procure complete sets of the Federal Reporter or, in his discretion, other publication containing the decisions of the circuit courts of appeals, circuit courts, and district courts, and digests thereof, and also future volumes of the same as issued, and distribute a copy of each such reports and digests to each place where a circuit court of appeals, or a district court, is regularly held, and to the Supreme Court of the United States, the Court of Claims, the Court of Customs Appeals, the Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, the Attorney General, the Solicitor General, the Solicitor of the Treasury, the Assistant Attorney General for the Department of the Interior, the Commissioner of Patents, and the Interstate Commerce Commission; and to the Secretary of the Senate, for the use of the Senate, and to the Clerk of the House of Representatives, for the use of the House of Representatives, not more than three sets each. Whenever any such court room, office, or officer shall have a partial or complete set of any such reports, or digests, already purchased or owned by the United States, the Attorney General shall distribute to such court room, office, or officer, only sufficient volumes to make a complete set thereof. No distribution of reports or digests under this section shall be made to any place where the court is held in a building not owned by the United States, unless there be at such place a United States officer to whose responsible custody they can be committed. The clerks of the courts (except the Supreme Court) to which the reports and digests are distributed under this section, shall keep such reports and digests for the use of the courts and the officers thereof. All reports and digests distributed under the provisions of this section shall be and remain the property of the United States and, before distribution, shall be plainly marked on their covers with the words "The property of the United States," and shall be transmitted by the officers receiving them to their successors in office. Not to exceed $2 per volume shall be paid for the back and current volumes of the Federal Reporter or other publication purchased under the provisions of this section, and not to exceed $5 per volume for the digest, the said money to be disbursed under the direction of the Attorney General; and the Attorney General shall include in his annual estimates to be submitted to Congress, an estimate for the back and current volumes of such reports and digests, the distribution of which is provided for in this section. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 229, 36 Stat. 1155.)

338. (Judicial Code, section 230, amended.) Terms.—The Supreme Court shall hold at the seat of government one term annually, commencing on the first Monday in October, and such adjourned or special terms as it may find necessary for the dispatch of business. (R. S. § 684; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 230, 36 Stat. 1156; Sept. 6, 1916, c. 448, § 1, 39 Stat. 726.)

339. (Judicial Code, section 231.) Adjournment for want of quorum.—If, at any session of the Supreme Court, a quorum does not attend on the day appointed for holding it, the justices who do attend may adjourn the court from day to day for twenty days after said appointed time, unless there be sooner a quorum. If a quorum does not attend within said twenty days, the business of the court shall be continued over till the next appointed session; and if, during a term, after a quorum has assembled, less than that number attend on any day, the justices attending may adjourn the court from day to day until there is a quorum, or may adjourn without day. (R. S. § 685; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 231, 36 Stat. 1156.)

340. (Judicial Code, section 232.) Orders by less than quorum.—The justices attending at any term, when less than a quorum is present, may, within the twenty days mentioned in section 339 of this title, make all necessary orders touching any suit, proceeding, or process, depending in or returned to the court, preparatory to the hearing, trial, or decision thereof. (R. S. § 686; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 232, 36 Stat. 1156.)

341. (Judicial Code, section 233.) Original jurisdiction.—The Supreme Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all controversies of a civil nature where a State is a party, except between a State and its citizens, or between a State and citizens of other States, or aliens, in which latter cases it shall have original, but not exclusive, jurisdiction. And it shall have exclusively all such jurisdiction of suits or proceedings against ambassadors or other public ministers, or their domestics or domestic servants, as a court of law can have consistently with the law of nations; and original, but not exclusive, jurisdiction, of all suits brought by ambassadors, or other public ministers, or in which a consul or vice consul is a party. (R. S. § 687; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 238, 36 Stat. 1156.)

342. (Judicial Code, section 234.) Prohibition and mandamus.—The Supreme Court shall have power to issue writs of prohibition to the district courts, when proceeding as courts of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction; and writs of mandamus, in cases warranted by the principles and usages of law, to any courts appointed under the authority of the United States, or to persons holding office under the authority of the United States, where a State, or an ambassador, or other public minister, or a consul, or vice consul is a party. (R. S. § 688; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 234, 36 Stat. 1156.)

343. (Judicial Code, section 235.) Issues of fact.—The trial of issues of fact in the Supreme Court, in all actions at law against citizens of the United States, shall be by jury. (R. S. § 689; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 235, 36 Stat. 1156.)

344. (Judicial Code, section 237, amended.) Appellate jurisdiction of decrees of State courts; certiorari.—(a) A final judgment or decree in any suit in the highest court of a State in which a decision in the suit could be had, where is drawn in question the validity of a treaty or statute of the United States, and the decision is against its validity; or where is drawn, in question the validity of a statute of any State, on the ground of its being repugnant to the Constitution, treaties, or laws of the United States, and the decision is in favor of its validity, may be reviewed by the Supreme Court upon a writ of error. The writ shall have the same effect as if the judgment or decree had been rendered or passed in a court of the United States. The Supreme Court may reverse, modify, or affirm the judgment or decree of such State court, and may, in its discretion, award execution or remand the cause to the court from which it was removed by the writ.

(b) It shall be competent for the Supreme Court, by certiorari, to require that there be certified to it for review and determination, with the same power and authority and with like effect as if brought up by writ of error, any cause wherein a final judgment or decree has been rendered or passed by the highest court of a State in which a decision could be had where is drawn in question the validity of a treaty or statute of the United States; or where is drawn in question the validity of a statute of any State on the ground of its being repugnant to the Constitution, treaties, or laws of the United States; or where any title, right, privilege, or immunity is specially set up or claimed by either party under the Constitution, or any treaty or statute of, or commission held or authority exercised under, the United States; and the power to review under this paragraph may be exercised as well where the Federal claim is sustained as where it is denied. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit or detract from the right to a review on a writ of error in a case where such a right is conferred by the preceding paragraph; nor shall the fact that a review on a writ of error might be obtained under the preceding paragraph be an obstacle to granting a review on certiorari under this paragraph.

(c) If a writ of error be improvidently sought and allowed under this section in a case where the proper mode of invoking a review is by a petition for certiorari, this alone shall not be a ground for dismissal; but the papers whereon the writ of error was allowed shall be regarded and acted on as a petition for certiorari and as if duly presented to the Supreme Court at the time they were presented to the court or judge by whom the writ of error was allowed: Provided, That where in such a case there appears to be no reasonable ground for granting a petition for certiorari it shall be competent for the Supreme Court to adjudge to the respondent reasonable damages for his delay, and single or double costs, as provided in section 878 of this title. (R. S. §§ 690, 709; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, §§ 236, 237, 36 Stat. 1156; Dec. 23, 1914, c. 2, 38 Stat. 790; Sept. 6, 1916, c. 448, § 2, 39 Stat. 726; Feb. 17, 1922, c. 54, 42 Stat. 366; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 1, 43 Stat. 937.)

345. (Judicial Code, section 238, amended.) Appellate jurisdiction from decrees of United States district courts.—A direct review by the Supreme Court of an interlocutory or final judgment or decree of a district court may be had where it is so provided in the following sections and not otherwise:

(1) Section 29 of Title 15.

(2) Section 682 of Title 18, where the decision of the district court is adverse to the United States.

(3) Section 380 of this title.

(4) So much of section 47 of this title as relates to the review of interlocutory and final judgments and decrees in suits to enforce, suspend, or set aside orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission other than for the payment of money.

(5) Section 217 of Title 7. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 5, 26 Stat. 827; Jan. 20, 1897, c. 68, 29 Stat. 492; Apr. 12, 1900, c. 191, § 35, 31 Stat. 85; Apr. 30, 1900, c. 339, § 86, 31 Stat. 158; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 269, § 1, 35 Stat. 838; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, §§ 238, 244, 36 Stat. 1157; Jan. 28, 1915, c. 22, § 2, 38 Stat. 804; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 1, 43 Stat. 938.)

346. (Judicial Code, section 239, amended.) Certificates of questions by circuit courts of appeals and Court of Appeals of District of Columbia.—In any case, civil or criminal, in a circuit court of appeals, or in the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, the court at any time may certify to the Supreme Court of the United States any questions or propositions of law concerning which instructions are desired for the proper decision of the cause; and thereupon the Supreme Court may either give binding instructions on the questions and propositions certified or may require that the entire record in the cause be sent up for its consideration, and thereupon shall decide the whole matter in controversy in the same manner as if it had been brought there by writ of error or appeal. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 6, 26 Stat. 828; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 239, 36 Stat. 1157; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 1, 43 Stat. 938.)

347. (Judicial Code, section 240, amended.) Certiorari to circuit courts of appeals and Court of Appeals of District of Columbia; appeal or writ of error to Supreme Court from circuit courts of appeals in certain cases; other reviews not allowed.—(a) In any case, civil or criminal, in a circuit court of appeals, or in the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, it shall be competent for the Supreme Court of the United States, upon the petition of any party thereto, whether Government or other litigant, to require by certiorari, either before or after a judgment or decree by such lower court, that the cause be certified to the Supreme Court for determination by it with the same power and authority, and with like effect, as if the cause had been brought there by unrestricted writ of error or appeal.

(b) Any case in a circuit court of appeals where is drawn in question the validity of a statute of any State, on the ground of its being repugnant to the Constitution, treaties, or laws of the United States, and the decision is against its validity, may, at the election of the party relying on such State statute, be taken to the Supreme Court for review on writ of error or appeal; but in that event a review on certiorari shall not be allowed at the instance of such party, and the review on such writ of error or appeal shall be restricted to an examination and decision of the Federal questions presented in the case.

(c) No judgment or decree of a circuit court of appeals or of the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court otherwise than as provided in this section. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 6, 26 Stat. 828;

Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 240, 36 Stat. 1157; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 1, 43 Stat. 938.)

348. Certification of questions to Supreme Court by circuit courts of appeals, and certiorari thereto, and appeal or writ of error to Supreme Court from circuit courts of appeals in certain other cases.—Cases in a circuit court of appeals under sections 117 to 121 of Title 45, under section 45 of Title 15, and under section 21 of Title 15 are included among the cases to which sections 346 and 347 of this title shall apply. (Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 2, 43 Stat. 939.)

349. Certiorari to review decisions of Supreme Court of Philippine Islands.—In any case in the Supreme Court of the Philippine Islands wherein the Constitution, or any statute or treaty of the United States is involved, or wherein the value in controversy exceeds $25,000, or wherein the title or possession of real estate exceeding in value the sum of $25,000 is involved or brought in question, it shall be competent for the Supreme Court of the United States, upon the petition of a party aggrieved by the final judgment or decree, to require, by certiorari, that the cause be certified to it for review and determination with the same power and authority, and with like effect, as if the cause had been brought before it on writ of error or appeal; and, except as provided in this section, the judgments and decrees of the Supreme Court of the Philippine Islands shall not be subject to appellate review. (Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 7, 43 Stat. 940.)

350. Time for making application for writ of error, appeal, or certiorari; stay pending application for certiorari.—No writ of error, appeal, or writ of certiorari, intended to bring any judgment or decree before the Supreme Court for review shall be allowed or entertained unless application therefor be duly made within three months after the entry of such judgment or decree, excepting that writs of certiorari to the Supreme Court of the Philippine Islands may be granted where application therefor is made within six months. For good cause shown either of such periods for applying for a writ of certiorari may be extended not exceeding sixty days by a justice of the Supreme Court.

Where an application for a writ of certiorari is made with the purpose of securing a removal of the case to the Supreme Court from a circuit court of appeals or the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia before the court wherein the same is pending has given a judgment or decree the application may be made at any time prior to the hearing and submission in that court.

In any case in which the final judgment or decree of any court is subject to review by the Supreme Courtt on writ of certiorari, the execution and enforcement of such judgment or decree may be stayed for a reasonable time to enable the party aggrieved to apply for and to obtain a writ of certiorari from the Supreme Court. The stay may be granted by a judge of the court rendering the judgment or decree or by a justice of the Supreme Court, and may be conditioned on the giving of good and sufficient security, to be approved by such judge or justice, that if the aggrieved party fails to make application for such writ within the period allotted therefor, or fails to obtain an order granting his application, or fails to make his plea good in the Supreme Court, he shall answer for all damages and costs which the other party may sustain by reason of the stay. (R. S. § 1008; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 6, 26 Stat. 828; Sept. 6, 1916, c. 448, § 6, 39 Stat. 727; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 8 [a, b, d], 43 Stat. 940.)

351. (Judicial Code, section 253.) Precedence of writs of error to State courts.—Cases on writ of error to revise the judgment of a State court in any criminal case shall have precedence on the docket of the Supreme Court, of all cases to which the Government of the United States is not a party, excepting only such cases as the court, in its discretion, may decide to be of public importance. (R. S. § 710; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 253, 36 Stat. 1160.)

352. (Judicial Code, section 254.) Cost of printing records.—There shall be taxed against the losing party in each and every cause pending in the Supreme Court the cost of printing the record in such case, except when the judgment is against the United States. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 105, 19 Stat. 344; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 254, 36 Stat. 1200.)

353. (Judicial Code, section 255.) Women may be admitted to practice.—Any woman who shall have been a member of the bar of the highest court of any State or Territory, or of the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, for the space of three years, and shall have maintained a good standing before such court, and who shall be a person of good moral character, shall, on motion, and the production of such record, be admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States. (Feb. 15, 1879, c. 81, 20 Stat. 292; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 255, 36 Stat. 1160.)

354. Printing for Supreme Court.—The printing for the Supreme Court shall be done by the printer it may employ, unless it shall otherwise order. (Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title II, 43 Stat. 1028.)

Any person offending against the prohibition of this section shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor. (R. S. § 713; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 258, 36 Stat. 1161.)

374. (Judicial Code, section 259.) Traveling expenses of circuit justices and circuit and district judges.—The circuit justices, the circuit and district judges of the United States, and the judges of the district courts of the United States in Alaska, Hawaii, and Porto Rico, shall each be allowed and paid his necessary expenses of travel, and his reasonable expenses (not to exceed $10 per day) actually incurred for maintenance, consequent upon his attending court or transacting other official business in pursuance of law at any place other than his official place of residence, said expenses to be paid by the marshal of the district in which such court is held or official business transacted, upon the written certificate of the justice or judge. The official place of residence of each circuit and district judge, and of each judge of the district courts of the United States in Alaska, Hawaii, and Porto Rico, shall be at that place nearest his actual residence at which either a circuit court of appeals or a district court is regularly held. Every such judge shall, upon his appointment, and from time to time thereafter whenever he may change his official residence, in writing notify the Department of Justice of his official place of residence. (R. S. §§ 596, 597; Mar. 3, 1881, c. 133, 21 Stat. 454; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 8, 26 Stat. 828; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 259, 36 Stat. 1161.)

375. (Judicial Code, section 260, amended.) Salary of United States judges after resignation.—When any judge of any court of the United States, appointed to hold his office during good behavior, resigns his office after having held a commission or commissions as judge of any such court or courts at least ten years continuously, and having attained the age of seventy years, he shall, during the residue of his natural life receive the salary which is payable at the time of his resignation for the office that he held at the time of his resignation. But, instead of resigning, any judge other than a justice of the Supreme Court, who is qualified to resign under the foregoing provisions, may retire, upon the salary of which he is then in receipt, from regular active service on the bench, and the President shall thereupon be authorized to appoint a successor; but a judge so retiring may nevertheless be called upon by the senior circuit judge of that circuit and be by him authorized to perform such judicial duties in such circuit as such retired judge may be willing to undertake, or he may be called upon by the Chief Justice and be by him authorized to perform such judicial duties in any other circuit as such retired judge may be willing to undertake, or he may be called upon either by the presiding judge or senior judge of any other such court and be by him authorized to perform such judicial duties in such court as such retired judge may be willing to undertake.

In the event any circuit judge, or district judge, having so held a commission or commissions at least ten years continuously, and having attained the age of seventy years as aforesaid, shall nevertheless remain in office, and not resign or retire as aforesaid, the President, if he finds any such judge is unable to discharge efficiently all the duties of his office by reason of mental or physical disability of permanent character, may, when necessary for the efficient dispatch of business, appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate an additional circuit judge of the circuit or district judge of the district to which such disabled judge belongs. And the judge so retiring voluntarily, or whose mental or physical condition caused the President to appoint an additional judge, shall be held and treated as if junior in commission to the remaining judges of said court, who shall, in the order of the seniority of their respective commissions, exercise such powers and perform such duties as by law may be incident to seniority. In districts where there may be more than one district judge, if the judges or a majority of them can not agree upon the appointment of officials of the court, to be appointed by such judges, then the senior judge shall have the power to make such appointments.

Upon the death, resignation, or retirement of any circuit or district judge, so entitled to resign, following the appointment of any additional judge as provided in this section, the vacancy caused by such death, resignation, or retirement of the said judge so entitled to resign shall not be filled. (R. S. § 714; Feb. 15, 1909, c. 127, 35 Stat. 619; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 260, 36 Stat. 1161; Feb. 25, 1919, c. 29, § 6, 40 Stat. 1157.)

376. (Judicial Code, section 261.) Writs of ne exeat.—Writs of ne exeat may be granted by any justice of the Supreme Court, in cases where they might be granted by the Supreme Court; and by any district judge, in cases where they might be granted by the district court of which he is a judge. But no writ of ne exeat shall be granted unless a suit in equity is commenced, and satisfactory proof is made to the court or judge granting the same that the defendant designs quickly to depart from the United States. (R. S. § 717; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 261, 36 Stat. 1162.)

377. (Judicial Code, section 262.) Power to issue writs.—The Supreme Court and the district courts shall have power to issue writs of scire facias. The Supreme Court, the circuit courts of appeals, and the district courts shall have power to issue all writs not specifically provided for by statute, which may be necessary for the exercise of their respective jurisdictions, and agreeable to the usages and principles of law. (R. S. § 716; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 262, 36 Stat. 1162.)

378. (Judicial Code, section 264.) Injunctions; when granted.—Writs of injunction may be granted by any justice of the Supreme Court in cases where they might be granted by the Supreme Court; and by any judge of a district court in cases where they might be granted by such court. But no justice of the Supreme Court shall hear or allow any application for an injunction or restraining order in any cause pending in the circuit to which he is allotted, elsewhere than within such circuit, or at such place outside of the same as the parties may stipulate in writing, except when it can not be heard by the district judge of the district. In case of the absence from the district of the district judge, or of his disability, any circuit judge of the circuit in which the district is situated may grant an injunction or restraining order in any case pending in the district court, where the same might be granted by the district judge. (R. S. § 719; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 264, 36 Stat. 1162.)

379. (Judicial Code, section 265.) Same; stay in State courts.—The writ of injunction shall not be granted by any court of the United States to stay proceedings in any court of a State, except in cases where such injunction may be authorized by any law relating to proceedings in bankruptcy. (R. S. § 720; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 265, 36 Stat. 1162.)

380. (Judicial Code, section 266, amended.) Same; alleged unconstitutionality of State statutes; appeal to Supreme Court.—No interlocutory injunction suspending or restraining the enforcement, operation, or execution of any statute of a State by restraining the action of any officer of such State in the enforcement or execution of such statute, or in the enforcement or execution of an order made by an administrative board or commission acting under and pursuant to the statutes of such State, shall be issued or granted by any justice of the Supreme Court, or by any district court of the United States, or by any judge thereof, or by any circuit judge acting as district judge, upon the ground of the unconstitutionality of such statute, unless the application for the same shall be presented to a justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, or to a circuit or district judge, and shall be heard and determined by three judges, of whom at least one shall be a justice of the Supreme Court or a circuit judge, and the other two may be either circuit or district judges, and unless a majority of said three judges shall concur in granting such application. Whenever such application as aforesaid is presented to a justice of the Supreme Court, or to a judge, he shall immediately call to his assistance to hear and determine the application two other judges: Provided, however, That one of such three judges shall be a justice of the Supreme Court, or a circuit judge. Said application shall not be heard or determined before at least five days' notice of the hearing has been given to the governor and to the attorney general of the State, and to such other persons as may be defendants in the suit: Provided, That if of opinion that irreparable loss or damage would result to the complainant unless a temporary restraining order is granted, any justice of the Supreme Court, or any circuit or district judge, may grant such temporary restraining order at any time before such hearing and determination of the application for an interlocutory injunction, but such temporary restraining order shall remain in force only until the hearing and determination of the application for an interlocutory injunction upon notice as aforesaid. The hearing upon such application for an interlocutory injunction shall be given precedence and shall be in every way expedited and be assigned for a hearing at the earliest practicable day after the expiration of the notice hereinbefore provided for. An appeal may be taken direct to the Supreme Court of the United States from the order granting or denying, after notice and hearing, an interlocutory injunction in such case. It is further provided that if before the final hearing of such application a suit shall have been brought in a court of the State having jurisdiction thereof under the laws of such State, to enforce such statute or order, accompanied by a stay in such State court of proceedings under such statute or order pending the determination of such suit by such State court, all proceedings in any court of the United States to restrain the execution of such statute or order shall be stayed pending the final determination of such suit in the courts of the State. Such stay may be vacated upon proof made after hearing, and notice of ten days served upon the attorney general of the State, that the suit in the State courts is not being prosecuted with diligence and good faith. The requirement respecting the presence of three judges shall also apply to the final hearing in such suit in the district court; and a direct appeal to the Supreme Court may be taken from a final decree granting or denying a permanent injunction in such suit. (June 18, 1910, c. 309, § 17, 36 Stat. 557; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 266, 36 Stat. 1162; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 160, 37 Stat. 1013; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 1, 43 Stat. 938.)

381. Same; preliminary injunctions and temporary restraining orders.—No preliminary injunction shall be issued without notice to the opposite party.

No temporary restraining order shall be granted without notice to the opposite party unless it shall clearly appear from specific facts shown by affidavit or by the verified bill that immediate and irreparable injury, loss, or damage will result to the applicant before notice can be served and a hearing had thereon. Every such temporary restraining order shall be indorsed with the date and hour of issuance, shall be forthwith filed in the clerk's office and entered of record, shall define the injury and state why it is irreparable and why the order was granted without notice, and shall by its terms expire within such time after entry, not to exceed ten days, as the court or judge may fix, unless within the time so fixed the order is extended for a like period for good cause shown, and the reasons for such extension shall be entered of record. In case a temporary restraining order shall be granted without notice in the contingency specified, the matter of the issuance of a preliminary injunction shall be set down for a hearing at the earliest possible time and shall take precedence of all matters except older matters of the same character; and when the same comes up for hearing the party obtaining the temporary restraining order shall proceed with the application for a preliminary injunction, and if he does not do so the court shall dissolve the temporary restraining order. Upon two days' notice to the party obtaining such temporary restraining order the opposite party may appear and move the dissolution or modification of the order, and in that event the court or judge shall proceed to hear and determine the motion as expeditiously as the ends of justice may require. (R. S. § 718; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 268, 36 Stat. 1162; Oct. 15, 1914, c. 323, § 17, 38 Stat. 737.)

382. Same; security on issuance of.—Except as otherwise provided in section 26 of Title 15, no restraining order or interlocutory order of injunction shall issue, except upon the giving of security by the applicant in such sum as the court or judge may deem proper, conditioned upon the payment of such costs and damages as may be incurred or suffered by any party who may be found to have been wrongfully enjoined or restrained thereby. (Oct. 15, 1914, c. 323, § 18, 38 Stat. 738.)

383. Same; requisites of order; binding effect.—Every order of injunction or restraining order shall set forth the reasons for the issuance of the same, shall be specific in terms, and shall describe in reasonable detail, and not by reference to the bill of complaint or other document, the act or acts sought to be restrained, and shall be binding only upon the parties to the suit, their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, or those in active concert or participating with them, and who shall, by personal service or otherwise, have received actual notice of the same. (Oct. 15, 1914, c. 323, § 19, 38 Stat. 738.)

384. (Judicial Code, section 267.) Suits in equity, when not sustainable.—Suits in equity shall not be sustained in any court of the United States in any case where a plain, adequate, and complete remedy may be had at law. (R. S. § 723; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 267, 36 Stat. 1163.)

385. (Judicial Code, section 268.) Administration of oaths; contempts.—The said courts shall have power to impose and administer all necessary oaths, and to punish, by fine or imprisonment, at the discretion of the court, contempts of their authority. Such power to punish contempts shall not be construed to extend to any cases except the misbehavior of any person in their presence, or so near thereto as to obstruct the administration of justice, the misbehavior of any of the officers of said courts in their official transactions, and the disobedience or resistance by any such officer, or by any party, juror, witness, or other person to any lawful writ, process, order, rule, decree, or command of the said courts. (R. S. § 725; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 268, 36 Stat. 1163.)

386. Contempts; when constituting also criminal offense.—Any person who shall willfully disobey any lawful writ, process, order, rule, decree, or command of any district court of the United States or any court of the District of Columbia by doing any act or thing therein, or thereby forbidden to be done by him, if the act or thing so done by him be of such character as to constitute also a criminal offense under any statute of the United States or under the laws of any State in which the act was committed shall be proceeded against for his said contempt as hereinafter provided. (Oct. 15, 1914, c. 323, § 21, 38 Stat. 738.)

387. Same; procedure; bail; attachment; trial; punishment.—Whenever it shall be made to appear to any district court or judge thereof, or to any judge therein sitting, by the return of a proper officer on lawful process, or upon the affidavit of some credible person, or by information filed by any district attorney, that there is reasonable ground to believe that any person has been guilty of such contempt, the court or judge thereof, or any judge therein sitting, may issue a rule requiring the said person so charged to show cause upon a day certain why he should not be punished therefor, which rule, together with a copy of the affidavit or information, shall be served upon the person charged, with sufficient promptness to enable him to prepare for and make return to the order at the time fixed therein. If upon or by such return, in the judgment of the court, the alleged contempt be not sufficiently purged, a trial shall be directed at a time and place fixed by the court. If the accused, being a natural person, fail or refuse to make return to the rule to show cause, an attachment may issue against his person to compel an answer, and in case of his continued failure or refusal, or if for any reason it be impracticable to dispose of the matter on the return day, he may be required to give reasonable bail for his attendance at the trial and his submission to the final judgment of the court. Where the accused is a body corporate, an attachment for the sequestration of its property may be issued upon like refusal or failure to answer.

In all cases within the purview of sections 381 to 383, 386 to 390 of this title, section 412 of Title 18, section 52 of Title 29 and sections 12 to 27 of Title 15, such trial may be by the court, or, upon demand of the accused, by a jury; in which latter event the court may impanel a jury from the jurors then in attendance, or the court or the judge thereof in chambers may cause a sufficient number of jurors to be selected and summoned, as provided by law, to attend at the time and place of trial, at which time a jury shall be selected and impaneled as upon a trial for misdemeanor; and such trial shall conform, as near as may be, to the practice in criminal cases prosecuted by indictment or upon information.

If the accused be found guilty, judgment shall be entered accordingly, prescribing the punishment, either by fine or imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of the court. Such fine shall be paid to the United States or to the complainant or other party injured by the act constituting the contempt, or may, where more than one is so damaged, be divided or apportioned among them as the court may direct, but in no case shall the fine to be paid to the United States exceed, in case the accused is a natural person, the sum of $1,000, nor shall such imprisonment exceed the term of six months. In any case the court or a judge thereof may, for good cause shown, by affidavit or proof taken in open court or before such judge and filed with the papers in the case, dispense with the rule to show cause, and may issue an attachment for the arrest of the person charged with contempt; in which event such person, when arrested, shall be brought before such court or a judge thereof without unnecessary delay and shall be admitted to bail in a reasonable penalty for his appearance to answer to the charge or for trial for the contempt; and thereafter the proceedings shall be the same as provided herein in case the rule had issued in the first instance. (Oct. 15, 1914, c. 323, § 22, 38 Stat. 738.)

388. Same; review of conviction.—The evidence taken upon the trial of any persons so accused may be preserved by bill of exceptions, and any judgment of conviction may be reviewed upon writ of error in all respects as provided on October 15, 1914, by law in criminal cases, and may be affirmed, reversed, or modified as justice may require. Upon the granting of such writ of error, execution of judgment shall be stayed, and the accused, if thereby sentenced to imprisonment, shall be admitted to bail in such reasonable sum as may be required by the court, or by any justice, or any judge of any district court of the United States or any court of the District of Columbia. (Oct. 15, 1914, c. 323, § 23, 38 Stat. 739.)

389. Same; not specifically enumerated.—Nothing contained in sections 386 to 388 and 390 of this title shall be construed to relate to contempts committed in the presence of the court, or so near thereto as to obstruct the administration of justice, nor to contempts committed in disobedience of any lawful writ, process, order, rule, decree, or command entered in any suit or action brought or prosecuted in the name of, or on behalf of, the United States, but the same, and all other cases of contempt not specifically embraced within section 386 of this title, may be punished in conformity to the usages at law and in equity prevailing on October 15, 1914. (Oct. 15, 1914, c. 323, § 24, 38 Stat. 739.)

390. Same; limitations.—No proceeding for contempt shall be instituted against any person unless begun within one year from the date of the act complained of; nor shall any such proceeding be a bar to any criminal prosecution for the same act or acts. (Oct. 15, 1914, c. 323, § 25, 38 Stat. 740.)

391. (Judicial Code, section 269, amended.) New trials; harmless error.—All United States courts shall have power to grant new trials, in cases where there has been a trial by jury, for reasons for which new trials have usually been granted in the courts of law. On the hearing of any appeal, certiorari, writ of error, or motion for a new trial, in any case, civil or criminal, the court shall give judgment after an examination of the entire record before the court, without regard to technical errors, defects, or exceptions which do not affect the substantial rights of the parties. (R. S. § 726; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 269, 36 Stat. 1163; Feb. 26, 1919, c. 48, 40 Stat. 1181.)

392. (Judicial Code, section 270.) Security for the peace and good behavior.—The judges of the Supreme Court and of the circuit courts of appeals and district courts, United States commissioners, and the judges and other magistrates of the several States, who are or may be authorized by law to make arrests for offenses against the United States, shall have the like authority to hold to security of the peace and for good behavior, in cases arising under the Constitution and laws of the United States, as may be lawfully exercised by any judge or justice of the peace of the respective States, in cases cognizable before them. (R. S. § 727; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 270, 36 Stat. 1163.)

393. (Judicial Code, section 271.) Enforcement of awards of foreign consuls.—The district courts and the United States commissioners shall have power to carry into effect, according to the true intent and meaning thereof, the award or arbitration or decree of any consul, vice consul, or commercial agent of any foreign nation, made or rendered by virtue of authority conferred on him as such consul, vice consul, or commercial agent, to sit as judge or arbitrator in such differences as may arise between the captains and crews of the vessels belonging to the nation whose interests are committed to his charge, application for the exercise of such power being first made to such court or commissioner, by petition of such consul, vice consul, or commercial agent. And said courts and commissioners may issue all proper remedial process, mesne and final, to carry into full effect such award, arbitration, or decree, and to enforce obedience thereto by imprisonment in the jail or other place of confinement in the district in which the United States may lawfully imprison any person arrested under the authority of the United States, until such award, arbitration, or decree is complied with, or the parties are otherwise discharged therefrom, by the consent in writing of such consul, vice consul, or commercial agent, or his successor in office, or by the authority of the foreign government appointing such consul, vice consul, or commercial agent. The expenses of the said imprisonment and maintenance of the prisoners, and the cost of the proceedings, shall be borne by such foreign government, or by its consul, vice consul, or commercial agent requiring such imprisonment. The marshals of the United States shall serve all such process, and do all other acts necessary and proper to carry into effect the premises, under the authority of the said courts and commissioners. (R. S. § 728; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 271, 36 Stat. 1163.)

394. (Judicial Code, section 272.) Appearance personally or by counsel.—In all the courts of the United States the parties may plead and manage their own causes personally, or by the assistance of such counsel or attorneys at law as, by the rules of the said courts, respectively, are permitted to manage and conduct causes therein. (R. S. § 747; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 272, 36 Stat. 1164.)

395. (Judicial Code, section 273.) Officers forbidden to act as attorneys.—No clerk, or assistant or deputy clerk, of any Territorial, district, or circuit court of appeals, or of the Court of Claims, or of the Supreme Court of the United States, or marshal or deputy marshal of the United States within the district for which he is appointed, shall act as a solicitor, proctor, attorney, or counsel in any cause depending in any of said courts, or in any district for which he is acting as such officer. (R. S. § 748; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 273, 36 Stat. 1164.)

396. (Judicial Code, section 274.) Same; penalty.—Whoever shall violate the provisions of section 395 of this title shall be stricken from the roll of attorneys by the court upon complaint, upon which the respondent shall have due notice and be heard in his defense; and in the case of a marshal or deputy marshal so acting, he shall be recommended by the court for dismissal from office. (R. S. § 749; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 274, 36 Stat. 1164.)

397. (Judicial Code, section 274a.) Amendments to pleadings.—In case any United States court shall find that a suit at law should have been brought in equity or a suit in equity should have been brought at law, the court shall order any amendments to the pleadings which may be necessary to conform them to the proper practice. Any party to the suit shall have the right, at any stage of the cause, to amend his pleadings so as to obviate the objection that his suit was not brought on the right side of the court. The cause shall proceed and be determined upon such amended pleadings. All testimony taken before such amendment, if preserved, shall stand as testimony in the cause with like effect as if the pleadings had been originally in the amended form. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 90, 38 Stat. 956.)

398. (Judicial Code, section 274b.) Equitable defenses and equitable relief in actions at law.—In all actions at law equitable defenses may be interposed by answer, plea, or replication without the necessity of filing a bill on the equity side of the court. The defendant shall have the same rights in such case as if he had filed a bill embodying the defense of seeking the relief prayed for in such answer or plea. Equitable relief respecting the subject matter of the suit may thus be obtained by answer or plea. In case affirmative relief is prayed in such answer or plea, the plaintiff shall file a replication. Review of the judgment or decree entered in such case shall be regulated by rule of court. Whether such review be sought by writ of error or by appeal the appellate court shall have full power to render such judgment upon the records as law and justice shall require. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 90, 38 Stat. 956.)

399. (Judicial Code, section 274c.) Amendments to show diverse citizenship.—Where, in any suit brought in or removed from any State court to any district of the United States, the jurisdiction of the district court is based upon the diverse citizenship of the parties, and such diverse citizenship in fact existed at the time the suit was brought or removed, though defectively alleged, either party may amend at any stage of the proceedings and in the appellate court upon such terms as the court may impose, so as to show on the record such diverse citizenship and jurisdiction, and thereupon such suit shall be proceeded with the same as though the diverse citizenship had been fully and correctly pleaded at the inception of the suit, or, if it be a removed case, in the petition for removal. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 90, 38 Stat. 956.)

Chapter 11.—JURIES.

Sec.
411. Jurors; qualifications and exemptions.
412. Same; manner of drawing.
413. Same; apportioned in district.
414. Same; grand and petit juries in Indiana.
415. Same; not disqualified because of race or color.
416. Same; venire; service and return.
417. Talesmen for petit juries.
418. Special juries.
419. Grand jurors; number; when less than required number.
420. Same; foreman.
421. Same; when summoned; second grand jury.
422. Same; discharge.
423. Jurors not to serve more than once a year.
424. Challenges.
425. Peremptory challenges exceeding number allowed.
426. Disqualification for service in prosecutions for bigamy, polygamy, or unlawful cohabitation.

Section 411. (Judicial Code, section 275.) Jurors; qualifications and exemptions.—Jurors to serve in the courts of the United States, in each State respectively, shall have the same qualifications, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, and be entitled to the same exemptions, as jurors of the highest court of law in such State may have and be entitled to at the time when such jurors for service in the courts of the United States are summoned. (R. S. § 800; June 30, 1879, c. 52, § 2, 21 Stat. 43; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 275, 36 Stat. 1164.)

412. (Judicial Code, section 276, amended.) Same; manner of drawing.—All such jurors, grand and petit, including those summoned during the session of the court, shall be publicly drawn from a box containing, at the time of each drawing, the names of not less than three hundred persons, possessing the qualifications prescribed in the section last preceding, which names shall have been placed therein by the clerk of such court, or a duly qualified deputy clerk, and a commissioner, to be appointed by the judge thereof, or by the judge senior in commission in districts having more than one judge, which commissioner shall be a citizen of good standing, residing in the district in which such court is held, and a well-known member of the principal political party in the district in which the court is held opposing that to which the clerk, or a duly qualified deputy clerk then acting, may belong, the clerk, or a duly qualified deputy clerk, and said commissioner each to place one name in said box alternately, without reference to party affiliations until the whole number required shall be placed therein. (June 30, 1879, c. 52, § 2, 21 Stat. 43; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 276, 36 Stat. 1164; Feb. 3, 1917, c. 27, 39 Stat. 873.)

413. (Judicial Code, section 277.) Same; apportioned in district.—Jurors shall be returned from such parts of the district, from time to time, as the court shall direct, so as to be most favorable to an impartial trial, and so as not to incur an unnecessary expense, or unduly burden the citizens of any part of the district with such service. (R. S. § 802; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 277, 36 Stat. 1164.)

414. Same; grand and petit juries in Indiana.—A judge of the District Court for the District of Indiana may, in his discretion, cause jurors to be summoned for a petit jury in criminal cases, from the division in which the cause is to be tried or from an adjoining division, and cause jurors for a grand jury to be summoned from such parts of the district as he shall from time to time direct. A grand jury summoned to attend a term of such court may investigate, and find an indictment or make a presentment for, any crime or offense committed in the district, whether or not the crime or offense was committed in the division in which the jury is in session. (Jan. 16, 1925, c. 83, § 5, 43 Stat. 752.)

415. (Judicial Code, section 278.) Same; not disqualified because of race or color.—No citizen possessing all other qualifications which are or may be prescribed by law shall be disqualified for service as grand or petit juror in any court of the United States on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude. (June 30, 1879, c. 52, § 2, 21 Stat. 43; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 278, 36 Stat. 1165.)

416. (Judicial Code, section 279.) Same; venire; service and return.—Writs of venire facias, when directed by the court, shall issue from the clerk's office, and shall be served and returned by the marshal in person, or by his deputy; or, in case the marshal or his deputy is not an indifferent person, or is interested in the event of the cause, by such fit person as may be specially appointed for that purpose by the court, who shall administer to him an oath that he will truly and impartially serve and return the writ. Any person named in such writ who resides elsewhere than at the place at which the court is held, shall be served by the marshal mailing a copy thereof to such person commanding him to attend as a juror at a time and place designated therein, which copy shall be registered and deposited in the post office addressed to such person at his usual post-office address. And the receipt of the person so addressed for such registered copy shall be regarded as personal service of such writ upon such person, and no mileage shall be allowed for the service of such person. The postage and registry fee shall be paid by the marshal and allowed him in the settlement of his accounts. (R. S. § 803; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 279, 36 Stat. 1165.)

417. (Judicial Code, section 280.) Talesmen for petit juries.—When, from challenges or otherwise, there is not a petit jury to determine any civil or criminal cause, the marshal or his deputy shall, by order of the court in which such defect of jurors happens, return jurymen from the bystanders sufficient to complete the panel; and when the marshal or his deputy is disqualified as aforesaid, jurors may be so returned by such disinterested person as the court may appoint, and such person shall be sworn, as provided in section 416 of this title. (R. S. § 804; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 280, 36 Stat. 1165.)

418. (Judicial Code, section 281.) Special juries.—When special juries are ordered in any district court, they shall be returned by the marshal in the same manner and form as is required in such cases by the laws of the several States. (R. S. § 805; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 281, 36 Stat. 1165.)

419. (Judicial Code, section 282.) Grand jurors; number when less than required number.—Every grand jury impaneled before any district court shall consist of not less than sixteen nor more than twenty-three persons. If of the persons summoned less than sixteen attend, they shall be placed on the grand jury, and the court shall order the marshal to summon, either immediately or for a day fixed, from the body of the district, and not from the bystanders, a sufficient number of persons to complete the grand jury. And whenever a challenge to a grand juror is allowed, and there are not in attendance other jurors sufficient to complete the grand jury, the court shall make a like order to the marshal to summon a sufficient number of persons for that purpose. (R. S. § 808; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 282, 36 Stat. 1165.)

420. (Judicial Code, section 283.) Same; foreman.—From the persons summoned and accepted as grand jurors, the court shall appoint the foreman, who shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the grand jury. (R. S. § 809; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 283, 36 Stat. 1165.)

421. (Judicial Code, section 284.) Same; when summoned; second grand jury.—No grand jury shall be summoned to attend any district court unless the judge thereof, in his own discretion or upon a notification by the district attorney that such jury will be needed, orders a venire to issue therefor. If the United States attorney for any district which has a city or borough containing at least three hundred thousand inhabitants shall certify in writing to the district judge, or the senior district judge of the district, that the exigencies of the public service require it, the judge may, in his discretion, also order a venire to issue for a second grand jury. And said court may in term order a grand jury to be summoned at such time, and to serve such time as it may direct, whenever, in its judgment, it may be proper to do so. But nothing herein shall operate to extend beyond the time permitted by law the imprisonment before indictment found of a person accused of a crime or offense, or the time during which a person so accused may be held under recognizance before indictment found. (R. S. § 810; Mar. 28, 1910, c. 134, 36 Stat. 267; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 284, 36 Stat. 1165.)

422. (Judicial Code, section 285.) Same; discharge.—The district courts, the district courts of the Territories, and the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia may discharge their grand juries whenever they deem a continuance of the sessions of such juries unnecessary. (R. S. § 811; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 285, 36 Stat. 1166.)

423. (Judicial Code, section 286.) Jurors not to serve more than once a year.—No person shall serve as a petit juror in any district court more than one term in a year; and it shall be sufficient cause of challenge to any juror called to be sworn in any cause that he has been summoned and attended said court as a juror at any term of said court held within one year prior to the time of such challenge. (R. S. § 812; June 30, 1879, c. 52, § 2, 21 Stat. 43; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 286, 36 Stat. 1166.)

424. (Judicial Code, section 287.) Challenges.—When the offense charged is treason or a capital offense, the defendant shall be entitled to twenty and the United States to six peremptory challenges. On the trial of any other felony, the defendant shall be entitled to ten and the United States to six peremptory challenges; and in all other cases, civil and criminal, each party shall be entitled to three peremptory challenges; and in all cases where there are several defendants or several plaintiffs, the parties on each side shall be deemed a single party for the purposes of all challenges under this section. All challenges, whether to the array or panel, or to individual jurors for cause or favor, shall be tried by the court without the aid of triers. (R. S. § 819; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 287, 36 Stat. 1166.)

425. Peremptory challenges exceeding number allowed.—If, in the trial of a capital offense, the party indicted peremptorily challenges jurors above the number allowed him by law, such excess of challenges shall be disallowed by the court, and the cause shall proceed for trial in the same manner as if they had not been made. (R. S. § 1031.)

426. (Judicial Code, section 288.) Disqualification for service in prosecutions for bigamy, polygamy, or unlawful cohabitation.—In any prosecution for bigamy, polygamy, or unlawful cohabitation, under any statute of the United States, it shall be sufficient cause of challenge to any person drawn or summoned as a juryman or talesman—

First, that he is or has been living in the practice of bigamy, polygamy, or unlawful cohabitation with more than one woman, or that he is or has been guilty of an offense punishable by sections 513 and 514 of Title 18; or Second, that he believes it right for a man to have more than one living and undivorced wife at the same time, or to live in the practice of cohabiting with more than one woman.

Any person appearing or offered as a juror or talesman, and challenged on either of the foregoing grounds, may be questioned on his oath as to the existence of any such cause of challenge; and other evidence may be introduced bearing upon the question raised by such challenge; and this question shall be tried by the court.

But as to the first ground of challenge before mentioned, the person challenged shall not be bound to answer if he shall say upon his oath that he declines on the ground that his answer may tend to criminate himself; and if he shall answer as to said first ground, his answer shall not be given in evidence in any criminal prosecution against him for any offense above named; but if he declines to answer on any ground, he shall be rejected as incompetent. (Mar. 22, 1882, c. 47, § 5, 22 Stat. 31; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 288, 36 Stat. 1166.)

Chapter 12.—GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Sec.
431. References to laws revised refer to sections of Judicial Code.
432. Sections 11 to 15 of Title 1 govern construction of Judicial Code.
433. Inference of legislative construction.
434. Designation as "The Judicial Code."

Section 431. (Judicial Code, section 292.) References to laws revised refer to sections of Judicial Code.—Wherever, in any law not contained within the Judicial Code, a reference is made to any law revised or embraced in such Code, such reference, after March 3, 1911, shall be construed to refer to the section of the Judicial Code into which has been carried or revised the provision of law to which reference is so made. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 292, 36 Stat. 1167.)

432. (Judicial Code, section 293.) Sections 11 to 15 of Title 1 govern construction of the Judicial Code.—The provisions of sections 11 to 15 of Title 1, both inclusive, shall apply to and govern the construction of the provisions of the Judicial Code. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 293, 36 Stat. 1167.)

433. (Judicial Code, section 295.) Inference of legislative construction.—The arrangement and classification of the several sections of the Judicial Code have been made for the purpose of a more convenient and orderly arrangement of the same, and therefore no inference or presumption of a legislative construction is to be drawn by reason of the chapter under which any particular section of the Judicial Code is placed. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 295, 36 Stat. 1167.)

434. (Judicial Code, section 296.) Designation as "The Judicial Code."—The Act of March 3, 1911, chapter 231 (36 Stat. 1087), may be designated and cited as "The Judicial Code." (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 296, 36 Stat. 1168.)

Chapter 13.—REPEALING PROVISIONS.

Sec.
441. Effect of repeal; terms of judges; salaries.
442. Same; rights not affected.
443. Offenses committed, how prosecuted and enforced.

Section 441. (Judicial Code, section 298.) Effect of repeal; terms of judges; salaries.—The repeal by the Judicial Code of laws existing prior to March 3, 1911, providing for the appointment of judges and other officers mentioned in the Judicial Code, or affecting the organization of the courts, shall not be construed to affect the tenure of office of the incumbents (except the office be abolished), but they shall continue to hold their respective offices during the terms for which appointed, unless removed as provided by law; nor (except the office be abolished) shall such repeal affect the salary or fees or compensation of any officer or person holding office or position by virtue of any law. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 298, 36 Stat. 1169.)

442. (Judicial Code, section 299.) Same; rights not affected.—The repeal by the Judicial Code of laws existing prior to March 3, 1911, or the amendments thereof, embraced in the Judicial Code, shall not affect any act done, or any right accruing or accrued, or any suit or proceeding, including those pending on writ of error, appeal, certificate, or writ of certiorari, in any appellate court referred to or included within, the provisions of the Judicial Code pending on March 3, 1911, but all such suits and proceedings, and suits and proceedings for causes arising or acts done prior to such date, may be commenced and prosecuted within the same time, and with the same effect, as if said repeal or amendments had not been made. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 299, 36 Stat. 1169.)

443. (Judicial Code, section 300.) Offenses committed, how prosecuted and enforced.—All offenses committed, and all penalties, forfeitures, or liabilities incurred prior to March 3, 1911, under any law embraced in, amended, or repealed by the Judicial Code, may be prosecuted and punished, or sued for and recovered, in the district courts, in the same manner and with the same effect as if such Code had not been passed. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 300, 36 Stat. 1169.)

464. Appeals, how taken.
465. Pending proceedings in certain cases; limitation of appeals.
466. Appeal to circuit court of appeals; certificate of probable cause.

Section 451. Power of courts.—The Supreme Court and the district courts shall have power to issue writs of habeas corpus. (R. S. § 751.)

452. Power of judges.—The several justices of the Supreme Court and the several judges of the circuit courts of appeal and of the district courts, within their respective jurisdictions, shall have power to grant writs of habeas corpus for the purpose of an inquiry into the cause of restraint of liberty. The order of the circuit judge shall be entered in the records of the district court of the district wherein the restraint complained of is had. (R. S. § 752; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 6, 43 Stat. 940.)

453. When prisoner is in jail.—The writ of habeas corpus shall in no case extend to a prisoner in jail unless where he is in custody under or by color of the authority of the United States, or is committed for trial before some court thereof; or is in custody for an act done or omitted in pursuance of a law of the United States, or of an order, process, or decree of a court or judge thereof; or is in custody in violation of the Constitution or of a law or treaty of the United States; or, being a subject or citizen of a foreign State, and domiciled therein, is in custody for an act done or omitted under any alleged right, title, authority, privilege, protection, or exemption claimed under the commission, or order, or sanction of any foreign State, or under color thereof, the validity and effect whereof depend upon the law of nations; or unless it is necessary to bring the prisoner into court to testify. (R. S. § 753.)

454. Application for; complaint in writing.—Application for writ of habeas corpus shall be made to the court, or justice, or judge authorized to issue the same, by complaint in writing, signed by the person for whose relief it is intended, setting forth the facts concerning the detention of the party restrained, in whose custody he is detained, and by virtue of what claim or authority, if known. The facts set forth in the complaint shall be verified by the oath of the person making the application. (R. S. § 754.)

455. Allowance and direction.—The court, or justice, or judge to whom such application is made shall forthwith award a writ of habeas corpus, unless it appears from the petition itself that the party is not entitled thereto. The writ shall be directed to the person in whose custody the party is detained. (R. S. § 755.)

456. Time of return.—Any person to whom such writ is directed shall make due return thereof within three days thereafter, unless the party be detained beyond the distance of twenty miles; and if beyond that distance and not beyond a distance of a hundred miles, within ten days; and if beyond the distance of a hundred miles, within twenty days. (R. S. § 756.)

457. Form of return.—The person to whom the writ is directed shall certify to the court, or justice, or judge before whom it is returnable the true cause of the detention of such party. (R. S. § 757.)

458. Body to be produced.—The person making the return shall at the same time bring the body of the party before the judge who granted the writ. (R. S. § 758.)

459. Day for hearing.—When the writ is returned, a day shall be set for the hearing of the cause, not exceeding five days thereafter, unless the party petitioning requests a longer time. (R. S. § 759.)

460. Denial of return; counter allegations; amendments.—The petitioner or the party imprisoned or restrained may deny any of the facts set forth in the return, or may allege any other facts that may be material in the case. Said denials or allegations shall be under oath. The return and all suggestions made against it may be amended, by leave of the court, or justice, or judge, before or after the same are filed, so that thereby the material facts may be ascertained. (R. S. § 760.)

461. Summary hearing; disposition of party.—The court, or justice, or judge shall proceed in a summary way to determine the facts of the case, by hearing the testimony and arguments, and thereupon to dispose of the party as law and justice require. (R. S. § 761.)

462. Cases involving law of nations; notice of service.—When a writ of habeas corpus is issued in the case of any prisoner who, being a subject or citizen of a foreign State and domiciled therein, is committed, or confined, or in custody, by or under the authority or law of any one of the United States, or process founded thereon, on account of any act done or omitted under an alleged right, title, authority, privilege, protection, or exemption, claimed under the commission or order or sanction of any foreign State, or under color thereof, the validity and effect whereof depend upon the law of nations, notice of the said proceeding, to be prescribed by the court, or justice, or judge at the time of granting said writ, shall be served on the attorney general or other officer prosecuting the pleas of said State, and due proof of such service shall be made to the court, or justice, or judge before the hearing. (R. S. § 762.)

463. Review.—

(a) By circuit courts of appeals; jurisdiction of circuit judge to issue writ.—In a proceeding in habeas corpus in a district court, or before a district judge or a circuit judge, the final order shall be subject to review, on appeal, by the circuit court of appeals of the circuit wherein the proceeding is had. A circuit judge shall have the same power to grant writs of habeas corpus within his circuit that a district judge has within his district.

(b) Review by Court of Appeals of District of Columbia.—In such a proceeding in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, or before a justice thereof, the final order shall be subject to review, on appeal, by the Court of Appeals of that District.

(c) Sections 346 and 347 of this title applicable.—Sections 346 and 347 of this title shall apply to habeas corpus cases in the circuit courts of appeals and in the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia as to other cases therein.

(d) Certain sections applicable.—The provisions of sections 464 to 466 of this title shall apply to appellate proceedings under this section as they have applied prior to February 13, 1925, to direct appeals to the Supreme Court. (Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 6, 43 Stat. 940.)

464. Appeals, how taken.—The appeals allowed by section 463 of this title shall be taken on such terms, and under such regulations and orders, as well for the custody and appearance of the person alleged to be in prison or confined or restrained of his liberty, as for sending up to the appellate tribunal a transcript of the petition, writ of habeas corpus, return thereto, and other proceedings, as may be prescribed by the Supreme Court, or, in default thereof, by the court or judge hearing the cause. (R. S. § 765.)

465. Pending proceedings in certain cases; limitation of appeals.—Pending the proceedings or appeal in the cases mentioned in sections 463 and 464 of this title, and until final judgment therein, and after final judgment of discharge, any proceeding against the person so imprisoned or confined or restrained of his liberty, in any State court, or by or under the authority of any State, for any matter so heard and determined, or in process of being heard and determined, under such writ of habeas corpus, shall be deemed null and void. No such appeal shall be had or allowed unless taken within the time prescribed by section 230 of this title. (R. S. § 766; Mar. 3, 1893, c. 226, 27 Stat. 751; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 8 (c), 43 Stat. 940.)

466. Appeal to circuit court of appeals; certificate of probable cause.—From a final decision by a court of the United States in a proceeding in habeas corpus where the detention complained of is by virtue of process issued out of a State court no appeal to the circuit court of appeals shall be allowed unless the United States court by which the final decision was rendered or a judge of the circuit court of appeals shall be of opinion that there exists probable cause for an appeal, in which event, on allowing the same, the said court or judge shall certify that there is probable cause for such allowance. (Mar. 10, 1908, c. 76, 35 Stat. 40; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, §§ 6, 13, 43 Stat. 940, 942.)

Section 481. District attorneys.—There shall be appointed in each district, including the District of Columbia, a person learned in the law, to act as attorney for the United States in such district. (R. S. § 767; June 26, 1876, c. 147, §§ 1, 4, 19 Stat. 61, 62; Feb. 24, 1879, c. 97, § 8, 20 Stat. 320; Mar. 3, 1881, c. 144, § 7, 21 Stat. 507; Apr. 25, 1882, c. 87, §§ 1, 3, 22 Stat. 47; July 20, 1882, c. 512, § 3, 22 Stat. 172; Aug. 5, 1886, c. 928, § 7, 24 Stat. 309; Feb. 22, 1889, c. 180, § 21, 25 Stat. 682; July 3, 1890, c. 656, § 16, 26 Stat. 217; July 10, 1890, c. 664, § 16, 26 Stat. 225; Mar. 3, 1893, c. 220, 27 Stat. 745; July 16, 1894, c. 138, §§ 14, 16, 28 Stat. 110, 111; June 24, 1898, c. 495, § 1, 30 Stat. 487; May 12, 1900, c. 391, § 9, 31 Stat. 176; Jan. 22, 1901, c. 105, §§ 4, 7, 31 Stat. 736, 737; Feb. 12, 1901, c. 355, §§ 5, 7, 31 Stat. 782; Mar. 2, 1901, c. 801, §§ 3, 5, 31 Stat. 881; Mar. 11, 1902, c. 183, §§ 5, 6, 32 Stat. 66; Mar. 2, 1905, c. 1305, §§ 4, 6, 33 Stat. 824; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1427, §§ 13, 15, 19, 33 Stat. 995, 996; June 16, 1906, c. 3335, § 18, 34 Stat. 275; Mar. 3, 1915, c. 100, §§ 3, 4, 38 Stat. 961.)

482. Same; term and oath.—District attorneys, including the District of Columbia, shall be appointed and commissioned for a term of four years, and shall continue to discharge the duties of their respective offices, unless sooner removed by the President, until their successors shall be appointed and qualify in their stead. Every district attorney, before entering upon his office shall be sworn to a faithful execution thereof. (R. S. § 769; June 24, 1898, c. 495, § 1, 30 Stat. 487.)

483. Assistant district attorneys; official residence.—Except as provided in section 591 of this title, whenever, in the opinion of the district judge of any district, including the District of Columbia, evidenced by writing, the public interest requires it, one or more assistant district attorneys may be appointed, by the Attorney General; but such opinion shall state to the Attorney General the facts as distinguished from conclusions, showing the necessity therefor. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 8, 29 Stat. 181; July 19, 1919, c. 24, § 1, 41 Stat. 209.)

484. Clerical assistance; salaries.—Except as provided by section 591 of this title, the district attorney of any judicial district, including the district attorney for the District of Columbia, when the facts showing the necessity therefor are certified by the district judge to the Attorney General, may, with the approval of the Attorney General, and no longer than such approval lasts, employ necessary clerical assistance at such salary or salaries as shall be from time to time fixed by the Attorney General. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 15, 29 Stat. 183; July 19, 1919, c. 24, § 1, 41 Stat. 209.)

485. District attorneys; duties.—It shall be the duty of every district attorney to prosecute, in his district, all delinquents for crimes and offenses cognizable under the authority of the United States, and all civil actions in which the United States are concerned, and, unless otherwise instructed by the Secretary of the Treasury, to appear in behalf of the defendants in all suits or proceedings pending in his district against collectors, or other officers of the revenue, for any act done by them or for the recovery of any money exacted by or paid to such officers, and by them paid into the Treasury. (R. S. § 771.)

486. Same; prosecution of violations of revenue laws.—It shall be the duty of every district attorney to whom any collector of customs, or of internal revenue, shall report, according to law, any case in which any fine, penalty, or forfeiture has been incurred in the district of such attorney for the violation of any law of the United States relating to the revenue, to cause the proper proceedings to be commenced and prosecuted without delay, for the fines, penalties, and forfeitures in such case provided, unless, upon inquiry and examination, he shall decide that such proceedings can not probably be sustained, or that the ends of public justice do not require that such proceedings should be instituted; in which case he shall report the facts in customs cases to the Secretary of the Treasury, and in internal revenue cases to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for their direction. (R. S. § 838; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 241.)

487. Same; reports of suits to Solicitor of Treasury.—It shall be the duty of the United States district attorneys to make and forward to the Solicitor of the Treasury, for his information and the purposes of a permanent record, such reports relating to suits in which the United States is a party as may be required by the Solicitor of the Treasury with the approval of the Attorney General, and on instituting any suit for the recovery of any fine, penalty, or forfeiture, shall immediately transmit a statement thereof to the Solicitor of the Treasury. (R. S. §§ 772, 773; Apr. 9, 1910, c. 152, 36 Stat. 294.)

488. Same; returns to Commissioner of Internal Revenue in suits under revenue laws.—When any suit or proceeding arising under the internal revenue laws, to which the United States are party, or any suit or proceeding against a collector or other officer of the internal revenue, wherein a district attorney appears, is commenced, the attorney for the district in which it is brought shall immediately report to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue the full particulars relating to the same; and he shall, immediately after the end of each term of the court in which such suit or proceeding is pending, forward to the said commissioner a full and particular statement of its condition. (R. S. § 774.)

489. Same; reports to Department of Justice.—Each district attorney shall, immediately after the end of every term in which any suit for moneys due on account of the Post Office Department has been pending in his district, forward to the Department of Justice a statement of any judgment or order made, or step taken in the same, during such term, accompanied by a certificate of the clerk, showing the parties to and amount of every such judgment, with such other information as the Department of Justice may require. And the said attorney shall direct speedy and effectual execution upon said judgment, and the United States marshal to whom the same is directed shall make returns of the proceedings thereon to the Department of Justice, at such times as it may direct. (R. S. § 775.)

490. Marshals.—A marshal shall be appointed in each district, including the District of Columbia. (R. S. § 776; June 26, 1876, c. 147, §§ 1, 4, 19 Stat. 61, 62; Feb. 24, 1879, c. 97, § 8, 20 Stat. 320; Mar. 3, 1881, c. 144, § 7, 21 Stat. 507; Apr. 25, 1882, c. 87, §§ 1, 3, 22 Stat. 47; July 20, 1882, c. 512, § 3, 22 Stat. 172; Aug. 5, 1886, c. 928, § 7, 24 Stat. 309; Feb. 22, 1889, c. 180, § 21, 25 Stat. 682; July 3, 1890, c. 656, § 16, 26 Stat. 217; July 10, 1890, c. 664, § 16, 26 Stat. 225; Mar. 3, 1893, c. 220, 27 Stat. 745; July 16, 1894, c. 138, §§ 14, 16, 28 Stat. 110, 111; June 24, 1898, c. 495, § 1, 30 Stat. 487; May 12, 1900, c. 391, § 9, 31 Stat. 176; Jan. 22, 1901, c. 105, §§ 4, 7, 31 Stat. 736, 737; Feb. 12, 1901, c. 355, §§ 5, 7, 31 Stat, 782; Mar. 2, 1901, c. 801, §§ 3, 5, 31 Stat. 881; Mar. 11, 1902, c. 183, §§ 4, 5, 6, 32 Stat. 66; Mar. 2, 1905, c. 1305, §§ 4, 6, 33 Stat. 824; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1427, §§ 13, 15, 19, 33 Stat. 995, 996; June 16, 1906, c. 3335, § 13, 34 Stat. 275; Mar. 3, 1915, c. 100, §§ 3, 4, 38 Stat. 961.)

491. Same; term.—Marshals of the United States, including the District of Columbia, shall be appointed and commissioned for a term of four years and shall continue to discharge the duties of their respective offices, unless sooner removed by the President, until their successors shall be appointed and qualify in their stead. (R. S. § 779; June 24, 1898, c. 495, § 1, 30 Stat. 487.)

492. Same; field deputies; removal.—Except as provided by section 591 of this title, and as otherwise provided by law, at any time when, in the opinion of the marshal of any district, the public interest will thereby be promoted, he may appoint one or more deputy marshals for such district, who shall be known as field deputies, and, who, unless sooner removed by the district court as provided in section 491 of this chapter, shall hold office during the pleasure of the marshal, except as provided in the next paragraph of this section.

The marshal, immediately after making any appointment or appointments under this section, shall report the same to the Attorney General, stating the facts as distinguished from conclusions constituting the reason for such appointment, and the Attorney General may at any time cancel any such appointment as the public interest may require. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 11, 29 Stat. 182; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 269, 36 Stat. 1355.)

493. Same; office deputies and clerks; removal.—Except as provided by section 591 of this title and as otherwise provided by law, when in the opinion of the Attorney General the public interest requires it, he may, on the recommendation of the marshal, which recommendation shall state the facts as distinguished from conclusions, showing necessity for the same, allow the marshals to employ necessary office deputies and clerical assistance. Deputies shall be removable from office by the judge of the district court, at his pleasure. (R. S. § 780; Aug. 8, 1888, c. 792, § 4, 25 Stat. 390; June 1, 1900, c. 601, § 4, 31 Stat. 250; May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 10, 29 Stat. 182; Feb. 19, 1909, c. 161, 35 Stat. 640.)

494. Marshals and deputy marshals; oaths.—Every marshal and deputy marshal shall, before he enters upon the duties of his appointment, take, before any officer of the United States or of any State authorized by law to administer oaths, an oath or affirmation in the following form: "I, A. B., do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute all lawful precepts directed to the marshal of the district of ———, under the authority of the United States, and true returns make, and in all things well and truly, and without malice or partiality, perform the duties of the office of marshal (or marshal's deputy, as the case may be) of the district of ———, during my continuance in said office, and take only my lawful fees. So help me God." The words "so help me God" shall be omitted in all cases where an affirmation is admitted instead of an oath. (R. S. § 782; Dec. 22, 1896, c. 3, 29 Stat. 481.)

495. Marshals; authority to administer oaths.—Each United States marshal and each chief deputy United States marshal is authorized and empowered to administer oaths to the marshal's deputies and other persons presenting to the marshal claims and accounts for payment; but they shall not be entitled to any fee for administering such oaths. (Feb. 21, 1911, c. 144, 36 Stat. 927.)

496. Marshal's bond; augmented bond.—Every marshal, before he enters on the duties of his office, shall give bond before the district judge of the district, jointly and severally with two good and sufficient sureties, inhabitants and freeholders of such district, to be approved by said judge, in the sum of $20,000, for the faithful performance of said duties by himself and his deputies. (R. S. § 783.)

497. Same; augmented bond.—Whenever the business of the courts in any judicial district shall make it necessary, in the opinion of the Attorney General, for the marshal to furnish greater security than the official bond theretofore given, a bond in a sum not to exceed $40,000 shall be given when required by the Attorney General, who shall fix the amount thereof. (Feb. 22, 1875, c. 95, § 2, 18 Stat. 333.)

498. Same; augmented bond for southern district of New York.—Whenever the business of the United States district court in the southern judicial district of the State of New York shall make it necessary, in the opinion of the Attorney General, for the United States marshal to furnish greater security than the official bond required by this section, a bond in an amount not to exceed $75,000 shall be given when required by the Attorney General, who shall fix the amount thereof. (Feb. 26, 1923, c. 112, 42 Stat. 1287.)

499. Same; filing and recording.—The marshal's bond shall be filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of the district court sitting within the district, and copies thereof, certified by the clerk, under the seal of the said court, shall be competent evidence in any court of justice. (R. S. § 783.)

500. Same; suits; costs on breach of bond.—In case of a breach of the condition of a marshal's bond, any person thereby injured may institute in his own name and for his sole use a suit on said bond, and thereupon recover such damages as shall be legally assessed, with costs of suit, for which execution may issue for him in due form. If such party fails to recover in the suit, judgment shall be rendered and execution may issue against him for costs in favor of the defendant; and the United States shall in no case be liable for the same. (R. S. § 784.)

501. Same; further security after judgment.—The said bond shall remain, after any judgment rendered thereon, as a security for the benefit of any person injured by breach of the condition of the same, until the whole penalty has been recovered; and the proceedings shall always be as directed in section 500 of this title. (R. S. § 785.)

502. Same; limitation of suit on marshal's bond.—No suit on a marshal's bond shall be maintained unless it is commenced within six years after the right of action accrues, saving, nevertheless, the rights of infants, married women, and insane persons, so that they sue within three years after their disabilities are removed. (R. S. § 786.)

503. Marshals; duties.—It shall be the duty of the marshal of each district to attend the district courts when sitting therein, and to execute, throughout the district, all lawful precepts directed to him, and issued under the authority of the United States; and he shall have power to command all necessary assistance in the execution of his duty. (R. S. § 787.)

504. Same; powers as sheriffs.—The marshals and their deputies shall have, in each State, the same powers, in executing the laws of the United States, as the sheriffs and their deputies in such State may have, by law, in executing the laws thereof. (R. S. § 788.)

505. Same; payment of salaries of officers.—It shall be the duty of the United States marshals to pay, under regulations prescribed by the Attorney General, the salaries of all judges of the United States courts, except the justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, the salaries of judges retired under section 375 of this title, and the judges, officials, and employees of all courts whose sessions are held in the District of Columbia, whose salaries shall be paid through the disbursing officer of the Department of Justice as hitherto provided, United States district attorneys, their regular assistants, clerks, and messengers, and United States marshals and their deputies. Every United States marshal operating under a bond executed prior to August 1, 1914, shall give bond effective thereafter for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, including the payment of the salaries above mentioned. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 233, § 1, 38 Stat. 653.)

506. Same; death; deputies to continue.—In case of the death of any marshal, his deputy or deputies shall continue in office, unless otherwise specially removed, and shall execute the same in the name of the deceased, until another marshal is appointed, as provided in this chapter, and duly qualified. The defaults or misfeasances in office of such deputies in the meantime shall be adjudged a breach of the condition of the bond given by the marshal who appointed them; and the executor or administrator of the deceased marshal shall have like remedy for the defaults and misfeasances in office of such deputies, during such interval, as he would be entitled to if the marshal had continued in life and in the exercise of his said office until his successor was appointed and duly qualified. (R. S. § 789.)

507. Same; delivery of prisoners to successor.—Every marshal when removed from office, or when the term for which the marshal is appointed expires, shall be held responsible for the delivery to his successor of all prisoners who may be in his custody at the time of his removal, or when the term for which he is appointed expires; and for that purpose he may retain such prisoners in his custody until his successor is appointed and duly qualified. (R. S. § 790.)

508. Same; delivery of unserved process to successors.—All unserved process remaining in the hands of a United States marshal or his deputies, when the marshal ceases to be such, shall be immediately delivered to the succeeding marshal upon request; and when a deputy United States marshal resigns or is removed he shall, upon request, deliver to the United States marshal for the district all process remaining in his hands. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 427, § 1, 30 Stat. 1237.)

509. Same; returns to Solicitor of Treasury.—Every marshal shall, within thirty days before the commencement of each term of the district courts in his district, make returns to the Solicitor of the Treasury of the proceedings had upon all writs of execution, or other process which have been placed in his hands, for the collection of moneys adjudged and decreed to the United States in the said courts, respectively. (R. S. § 791.)

510. Same; returns to Auditor of Post Office Department.—Every marshal to whom any execution upon a judgment in any suit for moneys due on account of the Post Office Department has been directed, shall make returns to the Comptroller General of the United States, at such times as he may direct, of the proceedings which have taken place upon the said process of execution. (R. S. § 792; June 10, 1921, c. 18, §§ 304, 310, 42 Stat. 24, 25.)

511. District attorneys and marshals; vacancies; filled temporarily.—In case of a vacancy in the office of the district attorney or marshal the district court of the United States for the district where the vacancy exists, and the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia may appoint persons to exercise the duties of such offices within their respective jurisdictions, until such vacancy shall be filled. Such appointment shall be in writing, which shall be filed in the clerk's office of the court making the appointment, and a copy thereof shall be entered upon the journal of said court. Any marshal so appointed shall give bond, as if appointed by the President, and the bond shall be approved by said court. It shall then be filed in the clerk's office of said court, and a copy shall be entered on the journal of the court. A certified copy of such entry shall be prima facie proof of the execution of such bond, and of the contents thereof. (R. S. § 793; June 24, 1898, c. 495, § 2, 30 Stat. 487.)

512. Clerks; oath.—The clerk of the Supreme Court, and every clerk and deputy clerk of a district court, shall, before he enters upon the execution of his office, take an oath or affirmation in the following form: "I, A B, being appointed a clerk of ———, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will truly and faithfully enter and record all the orders, decrees, judgments, and proceedings of the said court, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties of my said office, according to the best of my abilities and understanding. So help me God." The words "so help me God" shall be omitted in all cases where an affirmation is admitted instead of an oath. (R. S. § 794.)

513. Same; bond.—Except as otherwise provided, the clerk of every court shall give bond, in a sum to be fixed and with sureties to be approved by the court which appoints him, faithfully to discharge the duties of his office, and seasonably to record the decrees, judgments, and determinations of the court of which he is clerk; and a new bond may be required whenever the court deems it proper that such bond should be given. A copy of every bond given by a clerk shall be entered on the journal of the court for which he is appointed, and the bond shall be deposited for safe-keeping as the court may direct. A certified copy of such entry shall be prima facie proof of the execution of such bond and of the contents thereof. (R. S. § 795.)

514. Bonds of clerks of district courts; renewal; augmented bonds.—The clerks of the district courts shall, each, before he enters upon the execution of his office, give bond, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the court for which he is appointed, to the United States, in the sum of not less than $5,000 and not more than $20,000, to be determined and regulated by the Attorney General of the United States, faithfully to discharge the duties of his office, and seasonably to record the decrees, judgments, and determinations of the court of which he is clerk. It shall be the duty of the district attorneys of the United States, upon requirement by the Attorney General, to give thirty days' notice of motion in their several courts that new bonds, in accordance with the terms of sections 514 to 516 of this title, are required to be executed; and upon failure of any clerk to execute such new bonds, his office shall be deemed vacant. The Attorney General may at any time, upon like notice through the district attorney, require a bond of increased amount, in his discretion, from any of said clerks within the limit of the amount above specified; and the failure of the clerk to execute the same shall in like manner vacate his office. All bonds given by the clerks shall, after approval, be recorded in their respective offices, and copies thereof from the records, certified by the clerks respectively, under seal of court, shall be competent evidence in any court. The original bonds shall be filed in the Department of Justice. (Feb. 22, 1875, c. 95, § 3, 18 Stat. 333; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 220, 36 Stat. 1152.)

515. Augmented bonds of clerks.—Whenever the business of the courts in any judicial district shall make it necessary, in the opinion of the Attorney General, for the clerk to furnish greater security than the official bond theretofore given, a bond in a sum not to exceed $40,000 shall be given when required by the Attorney General, who shall fix the amount thereof. (Feb. 22, 1875, c. 95, § 2, 18 Stat. 333.)

516. Clerks; bond; renewal.—The Attorney General is authorized to require the official bonds of clerks of United States courts to be renewed every four years, and to fix the amounts of such bonds within statutory limits. Failure to take such action shall not affect the liability under such bonds, but upon failure or refusal of any clerk to execute such new bond or bonds his office shall be deemed vacant by order of the President and so declared by the district attorney in open court. (July 1, 1918, c. 113, § 1, 40 Stat. 683.)

517. Bonds of deputy clerks.—Any district court may require any deputy clerk thereof to give bond to the United States for the faithful discharge of his duty as such deputy, in the same penalty, and with surety in the same manner, as is required by law of clerks; and such bond shall be recorded and preserved in like manner. But the taking of such bond shall not affect the legal responsibility of the clerk for the acts of such deputy. (R. S. § 796.)

518. Clerks; list of judgments, and report of moneys paid in internal revenue cases.—Every clerk of a district court shall, within thirty days after the adjournment of each term thereof, forward to the Solicitor of the Treasury a list of all judgments and decrees, to which the United States are parties, which have been entered in said court, respectively, during such term, showing the amount adjudged or decreed, in each case, for or against the United States, and the term to which execution thereon will be returnable.

He shall also, at the close of each quarter or within ten days thereafter, report to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue all moneys paid into court on account of cases arising under the internal revenue laws, as well as all moneys paid on suits on bonds of collectors of internal revenue. The report shall show the name and nature of each case, the date of payment into court, the amount paid on account of debt, tax, or penalty, and also the amount on account of costs. If such money, or any portion thereof, has been paid by the clerk to any internal-revenue officer or other person, the report shall show to whom each of such payments was made; and if to an internal-revenue officer, it shall be accompanied by the receipt of such officer. (R. S. § 797, Mar. 1, 1879, c. 125, § 2, 20 Stat. 327.)

519. Same; account of payments and moneys in court.—At each regular session of any court of the United States, the clerk shall present to the court an account of all moneys remaining therein, or subject to its order, stating in detail in what causes they are deposited, and in what causes payments have been made; and said account and the vouchers thereof shall be filed in the court. (R. S. § 798.)

520. Mandamus to compel returns and performance of duties.—The district courts of the United States, for the purposes of sections 326, 497, 514, 515, 520 to 522, and 598 of this title, shall have power to award the writ of mandamus, according to the course of the common law, upon motion of the Attorney General or the district attorney of the United States, to any officer thereof, to compel him to make the returns and perform the duties required by said sections. (Feb. 22, 1875, c. 95, § 4, 18 Stat. 333.)

521. Clerks; failure to perform duties; removal from office.—If any clerk of any district court of the United States shall willfully refuse or neglect to make any report, certificate, statement, or other document required by law to be by him made, or shall willfully refuse or neglect to forward any such report, certificate, statement, or document to the department, officer, or person to whom, by law, the same should be forwarded, the President of the United States is empowered, and it is made his duty, in every such case, to remove such clerk so offending from office by an order in writing for that purpose. And upon the presentation of such order, or a copy thereof, authenticated by the Attorney General of the United States, to the judge of the court whereof such offender is clerk, such clerk shall thereupon be deemed to be out of office, and shall not exercise the functions thereof. And such district judge shall appoint a successor. And such person so removed shall not be eligible to any appointment as clerk or deputy clerk for the period of two years next after such removal. (Feb. 22, 1875, c. 95, § 5, 18 Stat. 334.)

522. Same; misdemeanors; punishment.—If any clerk mentioned in section 521 of this title shall willfully refuse or neglect to make or to forward any such report, certificate, statement, or document therein mentioned, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000, or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, in the discretion of the court; but a conviction under this section shall not be necessary as a condition precedent to the removal from office provided for in section 521 of this chapter. (Feb. 22, 1875, c. 95, § 6, 18 Stat. 334.)

523. Clerks; oaths to persons in admiralty causes.—The clerks of the district courts may, in the absence or in case of the disability of the judges, administer oaths to all persons identifying papers found on board of vessels or elsewhere, to be used on trials in admiralty causes. (R. S. § 799.)

524. Residence of district attorneys, marshals, and clerks.—The Attorney General is authorized to fix and declare the place of the official residence of the district attorney and of each of his assistants: Provided, That the said assistants must be residents of the district for which they are appointed. The provisions relative to the residence of district attorneys, assistant district attorneys, and marshals shall not apply to the Territory of Alaska, and the provisions relating to the residence of district attorneys and assistant district attorneys shall not apply to the southern district of New York and the northern district of Illinois. The marshal's official residence shall be deemed to be at one of the places of holding court in the district, and the Attorney General shall be authorized to fix and declare the place of such official residence. Every clerk of the district court of the United States, shall reside permanently in the district where his official duties are to be performed.

Such district attorney, marshal, and clerk shall give his personal attention to his respective official duties; and in case any such officer shall remove from his district or to some place other than the place of his official residence, or shall fail to give personal attention to the duties of his office, except in case of sickness, such office shall be deemed vacant. In the southern district of New York said officers may reside within twenty miles of their districts. (June 20, 1874, c. 328, § 2, 18 Stat. 109; May 28, 1896, c. 252, §§ 8, 12, 29 Stat. 181, 183.)

525. Commissioners, clerks, and deputy clerks may administer oaths.—Except as provided in section 591 of this title United States commissioners and all clerks and all deputy clerks of United States courts are authorized to administer oaths. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 19, 29 Stat. 184; Mar. 2, 1901, c. 814, § 1, 31 Stat. 956.)

526. Commissioners; holding other office.—Except as provided in section 591 of this title, it shall be the duty of the district court of each judicial district to appoint such number of persons, to be known as United States commissioners, at such places in the district as may be designated by the district court, which United States commissioners shall have the same powers and perform the same duties as are conferred and imposed by law. The appointment of such United States commissioners shall be entered of record in the district courts, and notice thereof at once given by the clerk to the Attorney General. Such United States commissioners shall hold their offices for the term of four years, but they shall be at any time subject to removal by the district court; and no person shall at any time be a clerk or deputy clerk of a United States court and a United States commissioner without the approval of the Attorney General. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 19, 29 Stat. 184; Mar. 2, 1901, c. 814, 31 Stat. 956.)

527. Commissioners or receivers; persons ineligible.—Except as provided in section 591 of this title no marshal or deputy marshal, attorney or assistant attorney of any district, jury commissioner, clerk of marshal, no bailiff, crier, juror, janitor of any Government building, nor any civil or military employee of the Government, except as provided in section 526 of this title, and no clerk or employee of any United States justice or judge shall have, hold, or exercise the duties of the United States commissioner. And it shall not be lawful to appoint any of the officers named in this section receiver, or receivers in any case or cases brought in the courts of the United States. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 20, 29 Stat. 184.)

528. Commissioners; seals.—Each United States commissioner shall provide himself with an official impression seal, to be prescribed by the Attorney General, which said seal shall be affixed to each jurat or certificate of the official acts of said commissioner, but no increase of fees shall be allowed by reason thereof. (June 28, 1906, c. 3573, 34 Stat. 546.)

529. Same; records in criminal cases.—Except as provided in section 591 of this title, the United States commissioners shall keep a complete record of all proceedings before them in criminal cases, in a well-bound book, which record book shall be delivered to and preserved by the clerk of the district court for such district on the death, resignation, removal, or expiration of term of the commissioner, for which record the commissioner shall receive no compensation. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 21, 29 Stat. 185.)

530. Law books for judges transmitted to successors.—The law books purchased for United States judges, district attorneys, and other judicial officers, including the nine libraries of the United States circuit courts of appeals shall in all cases be transmitted to their successors in office; all books so purchased to be marked plainly, "The property of the United States." (May 10, 1916, c. 117, § 1, 39 Stat. 119; June 1, 1922, c. 204, Title II, 42 Stat. 617; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 21, Title II, 42 Stat. 1084; May 28, 1924, c. 204, Title II, 43 Stat. 221; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title II, 43 Stat. 1031; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 556, § 1, 43 Stat. 1333.)

Chapter 16.—FEES, COMPENSATION, AND ACCOUNTS OF OFFICERS.

CLERKS' FEES, SALARIES, EXPENSES, AND ACCOUNTS

Sec.
541. Clerk of Supreme Court; annual returns.

CLERKS' FEES, SALARIES, EXPENSES, AND ACCOUNTS

Section 541. Clerk of Supreme Court; annual returns.—The clerk of the Supreme Court of the United States, on the 1st day of January in each year, or within thirty days thereafter, shall, on a form prescribed by the Attorney General, make to the Attorney General a return, under oath, of all fees and costs collected by him in cases disposed of at the preceding term or terms of the court, and of all emoluments collected by him, and after deducting from such collections his compensation as provided in section 542 of this chapter, and the incidental expenses of his office, including clerk hire, such expenses to be certified by the Chief Justice, and audited and allowed by the proper accounting officers of the Treasury, shall at the time of making such returns pay any surplus that may remain into the Treasury of the United States. (Mar. 15, 1898, c. 68, § 8, 30 Stat. 317.)

542. Same; compensation retained by; surplus paid into Treasury.—The clerk of the Supreme Court of the United States shall not retain of the fees and emoluments of his office for his personal compensation over and above his necessary clerk hire and the incidental expenses of his office, certified to by the court, or by one of its justices appointed by it for that purpose, and to be audited and allowed by the General Accounting Office, a sum exceeding $6,000 a year, or exceeding that rate for any time less than a year; and the surplus of such fees and emoluments shall be paid into the Treasury as provided by law in cases of clerks of the circuit and district courts of the United States. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 143, 22 Stat. 631; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

543. Circuit Court of Appeals; costs and fees; tables of fees; revision thereof.—The costs and fees in each circuit court of appeals shall be fixed and established by said court in a table of fees and within three months after fixing and establishing such costs and fees, transmit the table to the Chief Justice of the United States, and within one year thereof the Supreme Court of the United States shall revise said table, making it, so far as may seem just and reasonable, uniform throughout the United States, which table shall thereupon be in force in each circuit. The costs and fees so fixed by any court of appeals shall not, with respect to any item, exceed the costs and fees now charged in the Supreme Court. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 2, 26 Stat. 826; Feb. 19, 1897, c. 263, 29 Stat. 536.)

544. Clerks of circuit courts of appeals; allowance and payment of office expenses, personal compensation, and so forth.—Office expenses of clerks of United States circuit courts of appeals, also the personal compensation of said clerks, their deputies, and other assistants, and their expenses of travel and subsistence, when absent from official headquarters on official business shall be allowed in accordance with the provisions of sections 557, 558, 560, and 562 to 567 of this title, except as otherwise provided in section 545 of this title, after authorization and approval by the Attorney General, and shall be paid by the respective United States marshals designated by the Attorney General. But the salaries of clerks of the United States circuit courts of appeals shall not be fixed at a rate in excess of $5,000 per annum. All fees and other moneys of every character and description received by said clerks, by virtue of their offices, shall be paid into the Treasury, as in the case of clerks of United States district courts. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 2, 26 Stat. 826; June 1, 1922, c. 204, Title II, 42 Stat. 616; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title II, 43 Stat. 1030.)

545. Same; travel expenses.—Only actual expenses of travel and expenses of lodging and subsistence, not to exceed $5 per day, shall be allowed any clerk of a United States circuit court of appeals when absent from his official residence on official business. (July 19, 1919, c. 24, § 1, 41 Stat. 210.)

546. Same; annual returns.—Clerks of the United States circuit courts of appeals, annually and within thirty days after the 30th day of June in each year, shall make a return to the Attorney General of the United States of all the fees and emoluments of their offices respectively. Such return shall cover all fees and emoluments earned during the preceding year. The respective clerks shall, at the time of making such returns, pay into the Treasury of the United States the amount of such fees and emoluments. (June 6, 1900, c. 791, § 1, 31 Stat. 639.)

547. Criers, clerks, bailiffs, and messengers of circuit courts of appeals; compensation.—The criers, clerks, bailiffs, and messengers of the circuit courts of appeals shall be allowed the same compensation for their respective services as are allowed for similar services in the district courts. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 9, 26 Stat. 829.)

548. Fees of clerks of district courts; United States not liable for fees.—The fees provided for in sections 549 to 555 of this chapter, and no other, shall be charged and collected by clerks of the district courts of the United States for services performed by them or their assistants. The United States shall not be required to pay any sum or fee herein provided for. (R. S. § 823; Feb. 11, 1925, c. 204, § 1, 43 Stat. 857.)

549. Same; on institution of suit or proceeding.—Upon the institution of any suit or proceeding, whether by original process, removal, indictment, information or otherwise, there shall be paid by the party or parties so instituting such suit or proceeding, as fees of the clerk for all services to be performed by him in such case or proceeding, except as hereinafter provided, the sum of $5. (Feb. 11, 1925, c. 204, § 2, 43 Stat. 857.)

550. Same; on filing answer or paper joining issue or entering order for trial; on entering plea of guilty.—Upon the filing of any answer or paper joining issue, or the entering of an order for trial, there shall be charged and collected by the clerk, from the party or parties filing any such answer or paper, for services performed and to be performed by said clerk in said case or proceeding, the further sum of $5. After one fee, as hereinbefore provided in this section, has been paid by any defendant, cross petitioner, intervenor, or party, other defendants, cross petitioners, intervenors, or parties, separately appearing or filing any answer or paper in said suit or proceeding, shall pay a further fee of $2, for each answer or paper so filed. In any criminal case, upon the entering of a plea of not guilty by any defendant, there shall be charged and taxed in the costs of said case, a fee of $5 for each defendant entering such plea, but the clerk shall not be required to account for any such fee not collected by him. (Feb. 11, 1925, c. 204, § 3, 43 Stat. 857.)

551. Same; on entry of judgment, decree, or final order.—Upon the entry of any judgment, decree, or final order of the court in any suit or proceeding there shall be charged and collected by the clerk, from the prevailing party or parties, as an additional fee for services performed and to be performed in said suit or proceeding, the further sum of $5. In any criminal case the clerk shall not be required to account for any such fee not collected by him. (Feb. 11, 1925, c. 204, § 4, 43 Stat. 857.)

552. Same; on filing petition for appeal or writ of error.—Upon the filing of any petition for appeal or writ of error to any circuit court of appeals or the Supreme Court of the United States there shall be charged and collected by the clerk, from the party or parties prosecuting such appeal or writ of error, an additional fee in said suit or proceeding of $5. (Feb. 11, 1925, c. 204, § 5, 43 Stat. 857.)

553. Same; on filing petition or application for habeas corpus, or appeal from deportation order.—Upon the filing of any petition or application for a writ of habeas corpus, or appeal from a deportation order of a United States commissioner, there shall be charged and collected by the clerk, from the petitioner or applicant, as full payment for all services performed or to be performed by him in said proceeding, the sum of $5. If an appeal is prosecuted from the order of the district court in said proceeding, then and in that event the additional sum of $5, as provided in section 551 of this title, shall be charged and collected by the clerk. (Feb. 11, 1925, c. 204, § 6, 43 Stat. 857.)

554. Same; for each additional trial or final hearing upon reversal by circuit court of appeals or Supreme Court or disagreement by jury; on grant of new trial or rehearing.—For each additional trial or final hearing, upon a reversal by a circuit court of appeals or the Supreme Court of the United States, or following a disagreement by a jury or the granting of a new trial or rehearing by the court, there shall be charged and collected by the clerk, from the party or parties securing such reversal, new trial, or rehearing, or from the plaintiff or plaintiffs in the event of a disagreement, the further sum of $5. The clerk shall not be required to account for any such fee not collected by him in any criminal case. Nothing herein contained shall prohibit the court from directing by rule or standing order, the collection at the time the services are rendered of the fees herein enumerated, from either party, but all such fees shall be taxed as costs in the respective cases. (Feb. 11, 1925, c. 204, § 7, 43 Stat. 857.)

555. Same; additional fees enumerated.—In addition to the fees for services rendered in cases, hereinbefore enumerated, the clerk shall charge and collect, for miscellaneous services performed by him, and his assistants, except when on behalf of the United States, the following fees:

1. For issuing any writ or a subpœna for a witness, not in a case instituted or pending in the court from which it is issued, and filing and entering the return of the marshal thereon, 50 cents.

2. For filing and indexing any paper, not in a case or proceeding, 25 cents.

3. For administering an oath or affirmation, not in a case or proceeding pending in the court where the oath is administered, 10 cents.

4. For an acknowledgment, certificate, affidavit or countersignature, with seal, 50 cents.

5. For taking and certifying depositions to file, 20 cents for each folio of one hundred words, and if taken stenographically, 15 cents per folio additional, for the stenographer.

6. For a copy of any record, entry, or other paper, and the comparison thereof, 15 cents for each folio of one hundred words.

7. For filing præcipe or requisition and searching the records of the court for judgments, decrees, or other instruments or suits pending, or bankruptcy proceedings, including the certifying of the results of such search, 60 cents for the first name and 25 cents for each additional name embraced in the certificate.

8. For receiving, keeping, and paying out money in pursuance of any statute or order of court, including cash bail or bonds or securities authorized by law to be deposited in lieu of other security, 1 per centum of the amount so received, kept and paid out, or of the face value of such bonds or securities.

9. For keeping a record of surety companies and bonds thereof, 15 cents for each folio of one hundred words.

10. For preparation and mailing notices in bankruptcy, 10 cents each for the first twenty notices and 5 cents for each additional notice. This fee shall cover and include all services and expenses in connection therewith: And provided further, That such fee shall not be deemed to be included in any other fee for services in bankruptcy proceedings.

11. For making and comparing a transcript of record on appeal or writ of error when required or requested, 15 cents for each folio of one hundred words.

12. For comparing any transcript, copy of record, or other paper not made by the clerk with the original thereof, 5 cents for each folio of one hundred words.

13. For making a final record in any case at the request of either party or upon order of court in a particular case, 15 cents for each folio of one hundred words. When any such final record is made upon order of court the fees therefor shall be taxed in the costs of the case.

14. For admission of attorneys to practice, $1 each; for certificate of admission to be furnished upon request, $2 additional.

15. For making any record not in a case and not provided for in sections 548 to 555 of this title, 15 cents for each folio of one hundred words. Nothing in this section and the sections 548 to 554 of this chapter shall repeal or in any way modify or enlarge the provisions of sections 832 to 836 of this title. (R. S. § 828; June 28, 1902, c. 1301, § 1, 32 Stat. 476; Feb. 11, 1925, c. 204, § 8, 43 Stat. 858.)

556. Clerks of district courts; books open to inspection.—All books in the offices of the clerks of the district courts, containing the docket or minute of the judgments, or decrees thereof, shall, during office hours, be open to the inspection of any person desiring to examine the same, without any fees or charge therefor. (R. S. § 828.)

557. Same; salaries in lieu of fees; collection and disposition of fees.—All fees and emoluments authorized by law to be paid to the clerks of the United States district courts, including the clerks of the district courts of the United States for Hawaii and Porto Rico, and the clerk of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, except the clerks of the district courts of Alaska, shall be charged and collected, as far as possible, and paid into the Treasury of the United States in such manner and at such times as hereinafter provided; and such clerks shall be paid, in lieu of the fees and emoluments allowed by law on February 26, 1919, an annual salary as provided in section 558 of this chapter. This section shall not be construed to require or authorize fees to be charged or collected from the United States. (Feb. 26, 1919, c. 49, § 1, 40 Stat. 1182; Feb. 11, 1921, c. 46, 41 Stat. 1099; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1412.)

558. Same; salaries; amount.—The clerk of the United States district court for each of the judicial districts of the United States, including the clerks of the district courts of the United States for Hawaii and Porto Rico, and the clerk of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, except the clerks of the district courts of Alaska, shall be paid, in lieu of the fees, salaries, and per centum allowed by law on February 26, 1919, an annual salary to be fixed by the Attorney General at not less than $2,500 nor more than $5,000, based in each instance upon the amount of business transacted by the court and the fees and the emoluments received by the clerks in the four years last preceding February 26, 1919. (Feb. 26, 1919, c. 49, § 2, 40 Stat. 1182; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1412.)

559. Same; change in salaries.—The Attorney General is authorized and empowered to increase or decrease the salary of any clerk of a United States district court within the limits prescribed by section 558 of this chapter, where upon investigation the Attorney General finds that there has been such material increase or decrease in the volume of business transacted in any such district when contrasted with the volume of business upon which the said salaries have been fixed, as to justify such increase or decrease, but in all cases the said increase or decrease shall be based upon the amount of business transacted by the court and the fees and emoluments collected by the clerks and by them paid into the Treasury of the United States during the four years last preceding the time of such increase or decrease of salary to be made by the Attorney General under the power hereby conferred. No change in the salary of any clerk having been fixed under power hereby conferred shall be made until after the lapse of four years from the date of such change. (Apr. 26, 1922, c. 146, 42 Stat. 500.)

560. Same; traveling expenses.—When any clerk of a district court, including the clerks of the district courts of the United States for Hawaii and Porto Rico, and the clerk of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, is necessarily absent from his official residence on any official business he shall be allowed his actual traveling expenses only and his necessary and actual expenses for lodging and subsistence, the latter not to exceed $4 per day. (Feb. 26, 1919, c. 49, § 8, 40 Stat. 1182; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1412.)

561. Same; per diem in lieu of subsistence.—Per diem in lieu of subsistence may be granted to clerks of United States district courts, their deputies and other assistants, instead of, but at the rates prescribed and under conditions applicable to the allowance for actual expenses of subsistence, as provided in sections 557, 558, 560, and 562 to 567 of this title. (Nov. 4, 1919, c. 93, § 1, 41 Stat. 338.)

562. Same; deputies and clerical assistants; compensation; traveling expenses.—The compensation of deputy clerks and clerical assistants to clerks of the district courts, including the clerks of the district courts of the United States for Hawaii and Porto Rico, and the clerk of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, shall be fixed by the Attorney General from time to time and paid as provided in section 564 of this title.

When any such deputy or clerical assistant is necessarily absent from the place of his regular employment on official business he shall be allowed his actual traveling expenses only and his necessary and actual expenses for lodging and subsistence, the latter not to exceed $3 per day. (Feb. 26, 1919, c. 49, § 4, 40 Stat. 1182; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1412.)

563. Same; office expenses.—The necessary office expenses of the clerks of the district courts of the United States, including the clerks of the district courts of the United States for Hawaii and Porto Rico, and the clerk of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, shall be allowed when authorized by the Attorney General. (Feb. 26, 1919, c. 49, § 5, 40 Stat. 1182; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1412.)

564. Same; salaries; when and by whom payable.—The salaries of the clerks, deputy clerks, and clerical assistants to the clerks of the district courts, including the clerks of the district courts of the United States for Hawaii and Porto Rico, and the clerk of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, shall be paid monthly by the marshals of the respective districts. (Feb. 26, 1919, c. 49, § 6, 40 Stat. 1182; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1412.)

565. Same; expense accounts.—The expense accounts of clerks of the United States district courts, including the clerks of the district courts of the United States for Hawaii and Porto Rico, and the clerk of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, when made out and verified, and the expense accounts of their deputy clerks and clerical assistants, when made out and certified as correct by the clerk of such court, covering the necessary expenses incurred by such clerk, deputy clerk, or clerical assistants when necessarily absent from the place of regular employment on official business, shall be paid by the marshal, who shall include them in his accounts with the United States. (Feb. 26, 1919, c. 49, § 7, 40 Stat. 1182; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1412.)

566. Same; office expenses; payment.—The necessary office expenses of the clerks of the United States district courts, including the clerks of the district courts of the United States for Hawaii and Porto Rico, and the clerk of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, as allowed and authorized by the Attorney General, shall be paid by the marshal and included in his accounts with the United States. (Feb. 26, 1919, c. 49, § 8, 40 Stat. 1182; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1412.)

567. Same; accounts.—The clerk of every district court, including the clerks of the district courts of the United States for Hawaii and Porto Rico, and the clerk of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, except the clerks of the district courts of Alaska, shall account quarterly for all the fees and emoluments earned during the quarter last preceding such accounting, except where the person requiring the services is relieved by law from prepayment of fees and costs, and for all fees and emoluments received within the quarter which had been earned prior thereto. Such accounting shall be in writing and shall be made to the Attorney General, in such form as he may prescribe, on the first days of January, April, July, and October in each year, or within twenty days thereafter, and shall include all moneys received in connection with the admission of attorneys to practice in the court, all that portion retained by the clerk of moneys received for services in naturalization proceedings in whatever capacity rendered, and all other amounts received for services in any way connected with the clerk's office. Such accounts shall be made in duplicate and be verified by the oath of the officer making them. The Attorney General shall cause each such return or account to be carefully examined by the proper officer of the Department of Justice and shall approve the same as he may deem just and proper, and shall transmit it with his approval to the General Accounting Office, by whom an account shall be stated against the officer rendering such return or account. Immediately upon receipt of notice from the auditor, or within ten days thereafter, the clerk shall deposit to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States the amount so stated against him. (R. S. § 833; June 28, 1902, c. 1301, § 1, 32 Stat. 475; Feb. 26, 1919, c. 49, § 9, 40 Stat. 1183; June 10, 1921, c. 18, §§ 301, 310, 42 Stat. 23, 25; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1412.)

568. Same; reports and accounts of moneys received; dockets.—The Attorney General shall hereafter, under rules and regulations prescribed by him, require the clerks of the United States district courts, clerks of the Territorial courts, and the clerks of the United States courts in Alaska to report and account for all moneys received by them on account of or as security for fees and costs, and to report and account for all amounts collected or received by them on behalf of the United States on account of judgments, fines, forfeitures, penalties, and costs. The Attorney General shall also require such clerks to report and account for any other moneys received by them in their official capacity, whether on behalf of the United States or otherwise, and the Attorney General shall prescribe such docket or dockets or other books as he may deem proper to be kept and used by such clerks in recording, reporting, and accounting for moneys mentioned above in this paragraph, and in recording all fees and emoluments earned by them, which dockets or other books shall be kept and used by said clerks in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the Attorney General. (June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 1, 34 Stat. 754.)

569. Same; compensation from other offices prohibited; violation entails vacation of appointment; exception.—No clerk or deputy clerk or assistant in the office of the clerk of a United States district court shall receive any compensation or emoluments through any office or position to which he may be appointed by the court, other than that received as such clerk, deputy clerk, or assistant, whether from the United States or from private litigants, and the acceptance of payment for personal services from private litigants shall be deemed a vacation of their appointments, but clerks of United States district courts, their deputies and assistants, who are or may be appointed United States commissioners, may receive compensation for both offices in an aggregate amount not exceeding the rate of $2,000 per annum. (Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1413; June 16, 1921, c. 23, § 1, 42 Stat. 41.)

570. Clerks; fees not earned or due.—It shall be unlawful for any clerk of any court of the United States to include in his emolument, account, or return any fee or fees not actually earned and due at the time such account or return is required by law to be made, and no fees not actually earned shall be allowed in any such account. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 189, 28 Stat. 956.)

FEES OF ATTORNEYS, SOLICITORS, AND PROCTORS

571. Fees to be taxed.—The following fees and no other shall be taxed and allowed to attorneys, solicitors, and proctors in the courts of the United States, and to district attorneys, except in cases otherwise expressly provided by law. But nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit attorneys, solicitors, and proctors from charging to and receiving from their clients, other than the Government, such reasonable compensation for their services, in addition to the taxable costs, as may be in accordance with general usage in their respective States, or may be agreed upon between the parties. (R. S. § 823; May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 6, 29 Stat. 179; Feb. 26, 1919, c. 49, § 1, 40 Stat. 1182; Feb. 11, 1921, c. 46, 41 Stat. 1099.)

572. Attorneys, solicitors, and proctors.—On a trial before a jury, in civil or criminal causes or before referees, or on a final hearing in equity or admiralty, a docket fee of $20: Provided, That in cases of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction, where the libelant recovers less than $50, the docket fee of his proctor shall be but $10.

In cases at law, when judgment is rendered without a jury, $10.

In cases at law, when the cause is discontinued, $5.

For scire facias, and other proceedings on recognizances, $5.

For each deposition taken and admitted in evidence in a cause, $2.50. (R. S. § 824.)

MARSHALS' FEES

573. Marshal of Supreme Court of United States.—The marshal of the Supreme Court of the United States shall be entitled to receive for the service of any warrant, attachment, summons, capias, or other writ, except execution, venire, or a summons, or subpœna for a witness, $1 for each person on whom such service may be made. His fees for all other services shall be the same as are allowed to other marshals; but he shall pay into the Treasury of the United States all fees received by him, and render a true account thereof at the close of each term to the Attorney General. (R. S. § 832.)

574. Marshals; fees enumerated.—The following fees and no other shall be taxed and allowed to marshals, except in cases otherwise expressly provided by law: For service of any warrant, attachment, summons, capias, or other writ, except execution, venire, or a summons or subpœna for a witness, $2 for each person on whom service is made.

For the keeping of personal property attached on mesne process, such compensation as the court, on petition setting forth the facts under oath, may allow.

For serving venires and summoning every twelve men as grand or petit jurors, $4, or 33⅓ cents each.

For holding a court of inquiry or other proceedings before a jury, including the summoning of a jury, $5.

For serving a writ of subpœna on a witness, 50 cents; and no further compensation shall be allowed for any copy, summons, or notice for a witness.

For serving a writ of possession, partition, execution, or any final process, the same mileage as is allowed for the service of any other writ, and for making the service, seizing or levying on property, advertising and disposing of the same by sale, set off, or otherwise according to law receiving and paying over the money, the same fees and poundage as are or shall be allowed for similar services to the sheriffs of the States, respectively, in which the service is rendered.

For each bail-bond, 50 cents.

For summoning appraisers, 50 cents each.

For executing a deed prepared by a party or his attorney, $1.

For drawing and executing a deed, $5.

For copies of writs or papers furnished at the request of any party, 10 cents a folio.

For every proclamation in admiralty, 30 cents.

For serving an attachment in rem or a libel in admiralty, $2.

For the necessary expenses of keeping boats, vessels, or other property attached or libeled in admiralty, not exceeding $2.50 a day.

When the debt or claim in admiralty is settled by the parties without a sale of the property, the marshal shall be entitled to a commission of 1 per centum on the first $500 of the claim or decree, and one-half of 1 per centum on the excess of any sum thereof over $500: Provided, That, when the value of the property is less than the claim, such commission shall be allowed only on the appraised value thereof.

For sale of vessels or other property under process in admiralty, or under the order of a court of admiralty, and for receiving and paying over the money, 2½ per centum on any sum under $500, and 1¼ per centum on the excess of any sum over $500.

For disbursing moneys, 2 per centum.

For expenses while employed in endeavoring to arrest, under process, any person charged with or convicted of a crime, the sum actually expended, not to exceed $2 a day, in addition to his compensation for service and travel.

For every commitment or discharge of a prisoner, 50 cents.

For transporting criminals, 10 cents a mile for himself and for each prisoner and necessary guard; except in the case provided for in the next paragraph.

For transporting criminals convicted of a crime in any district or Territory where there is no penitentiary available for the confinement of convicts of the United States, to a prison in another district or Territory designated by the Attorney General, the reasonable actual expense of transportation of the criminals, the marshal, and the guards, and the necessary subsistence and hire.

For attending examinations before a commissioner, and bringing in, guarding, and returning prisoners charged with crime, and witnesses, $2 a day; and for each deputy not exceeding two, necessarily attending, $2 a day.

For travel, in going only, to serve any process, warrant, attachment, or other writ, including writs of subpœna in civil or criminal cases, 6 cents a mile, to be computed from the place where the process is returned to the place of service, or, when more than one person is served therewith, to the place of service which is most remote, adding thereto the extra travel which is necessary to serve it on the others. But when more than two writs of any kind required to be served in behalf of the same party on the same person might be served at the same time, the marshal shall be entitled to compensation for travel on only two of such writs; and to save unnecessary expense, it shall be the duty of the clerk to insert the names of as many witnesses in a cause in such subpœna as convenience in serving the same will permit.

In all cases where mileage is allowed to the marshal he may elect to receive the same or his actual traveling expenses, to be proved on his oath, to the satisfaction of the court. (R. S. §§ 823, 829; May 28, 1896, c. 252, §§ 6, 7, 12, 29 Stat. 179, 180, 183.)

575. Warrants in prosecutions under internal revenue laws.—No part of any money appropriated to pay any fees to the United States commissioners, marshals, or clerks shall be used for any warrant issued or arrest made, or other fees in prosecutions under the internal revenue laws, unless said fees have been taxed against and collected from the defendant, or unless the prosecution has been commenced upon a sworn complaint setting forth the facts constituting the offense and alleging them to be within the personal knowledge of the affiant, or upon a sworn complaint by a United States district attorney, collector, or deputy collector of internal revenue or revenue agent, setting forth the facts upon information and belief, and approved either before or after such arrest by a circuit or district judge or the attorney of the United States in the district where the offense is alleged to have been committed or the indictment is found. (Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, 28 Stat. 416.)

576. Same; execution or return of writs.—No marshal or deputy marshal shall be allowed more than one mileage for each mile actually and necessarily traveled, irrespective of the number of writs he may execute in making such travel; nor shall any marshal or deputy marshal be allowed any additional mileage incident to the execution or return of any writ of arrest, commitment, or removal other than the 10 cents a mile allowed by law for each deputy, prisoner, and guard; and no mileage shall be allowed upon any writ not executed or when the travel was without cost to marshal or deputy. (Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, 28 Stat. 416; June 6, 1900, c. 791, § 1, 31 Stat. 639.)

SALARIES, EXPENSES, AND ACCOUNTS OF DISTRICT ATTORNEYS AND MARSHALS

577. Accounts of fees or costs not reexamined.—No accounts of fees or costs paid to any witness or juror, upon the order of any judge or commissioner, shall be so reexamined as to charge any marshal for an erroneous taxation of such fees or costs. Where the ministerial officers of the United States have or shall incur extraordinary expense in executing the laws thereof, the payment of which is not specifically provided for, the President of the United States is authorized to allow the payment thereof under the special taxation of the district court of the district in which the said services have been or shall be rendered, to be paid from the appropriation for defraying the expenses of the judiciary. (R. S. § 846; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 318; Feb. 22, 1875, c. 95, § 1, 18 Stat. 333; May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 13, 29 Stat. 183; May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 375; Feb. 26, 1919, c. 49, § 7, 40 Stat. 1182.)

578. Salaries to district attorneys and marshals in lieu of fees, and so forth.—Except as provided in section 591 of this title, all fees and emoluments authorized by law to be paid to United States district attorneys including the district attorney and his assistants for the District of Columbia and United States marshals shall be charged and collected, as far as possible, and paid to the clerk of the court having jurisdiction, and by him covered into the Treasury of the United States; and said officers shall be paid for their official services, which, in the case of district attorneys, shall include services in the circuit courts of appeals of their respective circuits wherever sitting, salaries and compensation hereinafter provided and not otherwise. This section shall not be construed to require or authorize fees to be charged against or collected from the United States, except as provided by sections 583 and 586 of this title. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 6, 29 Stat. 179; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, 33 Stat. 1207; July 19, 1919, c. 24, § 1, 41 Stat. 209.)

579. Salaries of United States attorneys and marshals.—Except as provided in section 591 of this title, the salaries of the United States attorneys and United States marshals for the several judicial districts of the United States shall be fixed by the Attorney General, at rates not less than $3,000 nor more than $7,500 per annum for attorneys and at rates not less than $3,000 nor more than $6,500 per annum for marshals, the amount to be based in each instance upon the business transacted during the four years ending June 30, 1923. The salaries of the United States attorneys for the southern district of New York, the northern district of Illinois, and the District of Columbia may be fixed at rates not exceeding $10,000 per annum for each of said districts.

The Attorney General may increase or decrease any of the salaries fixed, as aforesaid, within the limits prescribed in the foregoing if, upon investigation, he finds that there has been a material increase or decrease in the volume of business transacted: Provided, That no salary fixed under the provisions of this section shall be changed more than once in any four years. (R. S. §§ 823, 824, 829, 830; Mar. 3, 1887, c. 362, 24 Stat. 541; May 28, 1896, c. 252, §§ 7, 9, 29 Stat. 181; Mar. 11, 1902, c. 183, § 15, 32 Stat. 69; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, 33 Stat. 1207; June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 1, 34 Stat. 753; Feb. 27, 1907, c. 2073, § 13, 34 Stat. 1000; Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, 34 Stat. 1360; May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 375; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 269, § 21, 35 Stat. 843; June 25, 1910, c. 397, 36 Stat. 828; June 25, 1910, c. 411, 36 Stat. 838; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1426; Apr. 8, 1912, c. 71, 37 Stat. 79; June 23, 1913, c. 3, § 1, 38 Stat. 54; Mar. 3, 1915, c. 100, §§ 3, 4, 38 Stat. 961; June 13, 1918, c. 99, 40 Stat. 605; Feb. 26, 1919, c. 51, 40 Stat. 1183; Mar. 4, 1923, c. 295, 42 Stat. 1560.)

580. Assistant district attorneys; expenses of district attorney and assistants; official residence.—Except as provided in section 591 of this title, assistant district attorneys including those of the District of Columbia, shall be paid such salary as the Attorney General may from time to time determine as to each, which shall in no case exceed $3,500 per annum except in the case of the assistant district attorney for the eastern district of Pennsylvania, whose salary shall not exceed $4,000. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 8, 29 Stat. 181; Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1007, § 1, 32 Stat. 1141; Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, 34 Stat. 1360; May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 375; July 19, 1919, c. 24, § 1, 41 Stat. 209; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 21 Title II, 42 Stat. 1083.)

581. District attorneys and assistants; per diem in lieu of subsistence.—United States district attorneys and their regular assistants may be granted a per diem of not to exceed $4 in lieu of subsistence, instead of, but under the conditions prescribed for, the present allowance for actual expenses of subsistence. (June 1, 1922, c. 204, Title II, 42 Stat. 616; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 21, Title II, 42 Stat. 1083; Apr. 2, 1924, c. 81, 43 Stat. 44; May 28, 1924, c. 204, Title II, 43 Stat. 220; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title II, 43 Stat. 1029.)

582. Marshals; salaries and expenses of office deputies and clerks.—Except as provided in section 591 of this title, office deputies and clerical assistance of the marshal shall receive salaries to be fixed by the Attorney General, from time to time, and paid as provided in section 588 of this title. When any of such office deputies is engaged in the service of any writ, process, subpœna, or other order of the court, or when necessarily absent from the place of his regular employment; on official business, he shall be allowed his actual traveling expenses only, and his necessary and actual expenses for lodging and subsistence, not to exceed $4 per day, and the necessary actual expenses in transporting prisoners, including necessary guard hire; and he shall make and render accounts thereof as provided in section 586 of this title. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 10, 29 Stat. 182; Feb. 19, 1909, c. 161, 35 Stat. 640; June 1, 1922, c. 204, Title II, 42 Stat. 615; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title II, 43 Stat. 1029.)

583. Same; field deputies; compensation.—Except as provided in section 591 of this title, field deputies to the marshal shall each, as his compensation, receive the gross fees, including mileage, as provided by law, earned by him, not to exceed $1,500 per fiscal year, or at that rate for any part of a fiscal year; and in addition shall be allowed his actual necessary expenses, not exceeding $2 a day, while endeavoring to arrest, under process, a person charged with or convicted of crime. A field deputy may elect to receive actual expenses on any trip in lieu of mileage. In special cases, where in his judgment justice requires, the Attorney General may make an additional allowance, not, however, in any case to make the aggregate annual compensation of any field deputy in excess of $2,500 nor more than the gross fees earned by such field deputy. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 11, 29 Stat. 182; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 269, 36 Stat. 1355.)

584. Same; expenses.—Except as provided in section 591 of this title, the marshal, when attending court at any place other than his official residence, and when engaged in the service or attempted service of any process, writ, or subpœna, and when otherwise necessarily absent from his official residence on official business, shall be allowed his necessary expenses for lodging and subsistence, not exceeding $4 per day and his actual necessary traveling expenses. He shall also be allowed the actual necessary expenses in transporting prisoners, including necessary guard hire. An account of such expenses shall be made out and paid as provided in section 586 of this title. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 12, 29 Stat. 183.)

585. Same; per diem.—Marshals and office deputy marshals (except in the District of Alaska) may be granted a per diem of not to exceed $4 in lieu of subsistence, instead of, but under the conditions prescribed for the present allowance for actual expenses of subsistence. (June 1, 1922, c. 204, Title II, 42 Stat. 615; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 21, Title II, 42 Stat. 1083; May 28, 1924, c. 204, Title II, 43 Stat. 220; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title II, 43 Stat. 1029.)

586. Attorneys and marshals; expense accounts.—Except as provided in section 591 of this title, whenever in sections 526, 578, 582 to 584, 591, and 597 of this title, an officer, including the district attorney for the District of Columbia and his assistants, is allowed actual expenses the account therefor shall be made out quarterly, in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the Attorney General. When made out the account shall be verified on oath before an officer authorized to administer oaths. The expense accounts of the marshals and their office deputies and the accounts of the field deputies shall be paid by the marshals; said accounts and the expense accounts of the district attorneys and their assistants when made out in accordance with sections 526, 578, 582 to 584, 591, and 597 shall be submitted to and examined by the district court of the district, and when approved by the court shall be audited and allowed as provided by law. Each marshal shall make such returns of the earnings and expenses of his office as shall be required under rules and regulations prescribed by the Attorney General. No office or field deputy shall receive compensation as bailiff, and no field deputy shall receive fees for representing the marshal in court. (R. S. §§ 833, 834; May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 13, 29 Stat. 183; July 19, 1919, c. 24, § 1, 41 Stat. 209.)

587. Same; office expenses.—Except as provided in section 591 of this title, the necessary office expenses of the district attorneys, including the district attorney for the District of Columbia and his assistants, and marshals shall be allowed when authorized by the Attorney General. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 14, 29 Stat. 183; July 19, 1919, c. 24, § 1, 41 Stat. 209.)

588. Time of payment of salaries.—All salaries provided by sections 483, 484, 492, 493, 578, 580, 582 to 584, 586, and 587 of this title, inclusive, shall be paid monthly by the Department of Justice, except as provided in section 591 of this title. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 16, 29 Stat. 183.)

589. Costs not affected.—Except as provided in section 591 of this title, sections 483, 484, 492, 493, 578, 580, 582 to 584, 586, and 587 of this title shall not be so construed as to prevent or affect the amount or taxation of costs against the unsuccessful party in civil proceedings or against defendants convicted of crimes or misdemeanors. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 17, 29 Stat. 183.)

590. Illegal fees; failure to account for or pay over fees.—Except as provided in section 591 of this title, any officer whose compensation is fixed by sections 483, 484, 492, 493, 578, 580, 582 to 584, 586, and 587 of this title, who shall directly or indirectly demand, receive, or accept any fee or compensation for the performance of any official service other than is provided in said sections, or shall willfully fail or neglect to account for or pay over to the proper officer any fee received or collected by him shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $500, or by imprisonment, at the discretion of the court, not exceeding five years, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 18, 29 Stat. 183.)

591. Exceptions from provisions of preceding sections.—None of the provisions of sections 483, 484, 492, 493, 525, 526, 527, 529, 578, 580, 582 to 584, 586 to 590, and 597 of this title, 337 of Title 5, and 594 of Title 18, shall apply to the District of Alaska. None of the provisions of sections 483, 484, 578, and 580 of this title shall apply to the office of the United States district attorney and his assistants for the southern district of New York, or the northern district of Illinois. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 24, 29 Stat. 186; Feb. 19, 1897, c. 265, § 1, 29 Stat. 577; Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1007, § 1, 32 Stat. 1141; Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, 34 Stat. 1360; July 19, 1919, c. 24, § 1, 41 Stat. 209.)

592. District attorneys; traveling expenses; subsistence.—The necessary expenses for lodging and subsistence actually paid, not exceeding $4 per day and actual and necessary traveling expenses of the United States district attorneys, including the district attorneys and their assistants for the District of Columbia, for the southern district of New York, and for the northern district of Illinois and their assistants, while absent from their respective official residences and necessarily employed in going to, returning from, and attending before any United States court, commissioner, or other committing magistrate, and while otherwise necessarily absent from their respective official residences on official business shall be allowed and paid in the following manner: That the accounts of the United States attorneys and assistant United States attorneys for expenses herein provided for shall be made out monthly in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the Attorney General. And when said expense accounts are made out, as hereinbefore provided, and verified on oath before an officer authorized by law to administer oaths, they shall be submitted to and examined by one of the judges of the district court of the district for which said United States attorney or assistant United States attorney was appointed, and when approved by said judge, may be allowed and paid by the United States marshal for said district, and the amount of such payments shall be included in said marshal's accounts with the United States, and audited and allowed as provided by law. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, 34 Stat. 1360; May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 375; July 1, 1918, c. 113, § 1, 40 Stat. 683.)

593. Same; clerks and messengers for southern district of New York.—Clerks and messengers in the office of the United States district attorney for the southern district of New York shall be paid from appropriations for salaries and expenses of district attorneys, by the disbursing clerk of the Department of Justice, in such number and at such salaries as may be fixed by the Attorney General, and that such office expenses of said district attorney as may be approved by the Attorney General shall also be paid in the same manner and from the same appropriations as similar expenses in other judicial districts. (June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 1, 34 Stat. 753.)

594. Salaries of district attorney for District of Columbia and assistants.—Certificates to the effect that the public interest requires the appointment of assistants to the district attorney for the District of Columbia shall be made by the chief justice of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia and the district attorney. The principal assistant to the district attorney shall be paid a salary not in excess of $4,000 per annum, as the Attorney General may from time to time determine. (July 19, 1919, c. 24, § 1, 41 Stat. 209; Mar. 4, 1923, c. 205, 42 Stat. 1560.)

COMPENSATION OF CRIERS AND BAILIFFS

595. Criers of courts and attendants on juries.—All persons employed under section 9 of this title shall be allowed for their services the sum of $3 per day, to be paid by and included in the accounts of the marshal, out of any money of the United States in his hands. Such compensation shall be paid only for actual attendance. Such persons shall be deemed to be in actual attendance when they attend upon the order of the courts, but no such person shall be employed during vacation. (R. S. § 715; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1487, 33 Stat. 1259; June 1, 1922, c. 204, Title II, 42 Stat. 617; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 21, Title II, 42 Stat. 1084; May 28, 1924, c. 204, Title II, 43 Stat. 221.)

596. Per diem of bailiffs and criers.—No per diem shall be paid to any bailiff or crier unless the court is actually in session and the judge present and presiding or present in chambers. (Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title II, 43 Stat. 1030.)

COMMISSIONERS' FEES

597. Commissioners' fees; enumeration.—Except as provided in section 591 of this title, each United States commissioner shall be entitled to the following-named fees, and none other: Drawing a complaint, with oath and jurat to same, 50 cents; copy of complaint, with certificate to same, 30 cents; issuing warrant of arrest, 75 cents; issuing a commitment and making copy of same, $1; entering a return, 15 cents; issuing subpœna or subpœnas in any one case, with 5 cents for each necessary witness in addition to the first, 25 cents; drawing a bond of defendant and sureties, taking acknowledgment of same and justification of sureties, 75 cents; for administering an oath (except to witness as to attendance and travel), 10 cents; recognizance of all witnesses in a case, when the defendant or defendants are held for court, 50 cents; transcripts of proceedings, when required by order of court and transmission of original papers to court, 60 cents; copy of warrant of arrest, with certificate to same, when defendant is held for court, and the original papers are not sent to court, 40 cents; order in duplicate to pay all witnesses in a case: For first witness, 30 cents, and for each additional witness, 5 cents, and for oath to each witness as to attendance and travel, 5 cents; for hearing and deciding on criminal charges and reducing the testimony to writing when required by law or order of court, $5 a day for the time necessarily employed: Provided, That not more than one per diem shall be allowed in a case, unless the account shall show that the hearing could not be completed in one day, when one additional per diem may be specially approved and allowed by the court: Provided further, That not more than one per diem shall be allowed for any one day: Provided further, That no per diem shall be allowed for taking a bond or recognizance and passing on the sufficiency of the bond or recognizance and the sureties thereon when the bond or recognizance was taken after the defendant had been committed to prison upon a final commitment, or has given bond or been recognized for his appearance at court, or when the defendant has been arrested on a capias or bench warrant, or was in custody under any process or order of a court of record. For the examination and certificate in cases of application for discharge of poor convicts imprisoned for nonpayment of fine or fine and costs, and all services connected therewith, $3; for attending to a reference in a litigated matter, in a civil cause at law, in equity, or in admiralty, in pursuance of an order of the court, $3 a day; for taking and certifying depositions to file in civil cases, 10 cents for each folio; for each copy of the same furnished to a party on request, 10 cents for each folio. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 21, 29 Stat. 184.)

598. Commissioners' accounts; proof, and approval by court.—United States commissioners shall forward their accounts, duly verified by oath, to the district attorneys of their respective districts, by whom they shall be submitted for approval in open court, and the court shall cause to be entered of record an order approving or disapproving the account, as may be according to law and just. (Feb. 22, 1875, c. 95, § 1, 18 Stat. 333; May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 13, 29 Stat. 183; Feb. 26, 1919, c. 49; § 9, 40 Stat. 1183.)

599. Commissioners' fees; how paid.—The fees of commissioners, in cases where the United States are liable to pay the same, shall be paid on settling their accounts at the Treasury. (R. S. § 856; May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 6, 29 Stat. 179; Feb. 26, 1919, c. 49, § 1, 40 Stat. 1182; Feb. 11, 1921, c. 46, 41 Stat. 1099.)

FEES OF JURORS AND WITNESSES

600. Grand and petit jurors; fees.—The fees of grand and petit jurors for actual attendance at any court or courts, and for the time necessarily occupied in going to and returning from the same, shall be $3 a day during such attendance.

For the distance necessarily traveled from their residence in going to and returning from said court by the shortest practicable route, 5 cents a mile. (R. S. § 852; June 21, 1902, c. 1138, 32 Stat. 396.)

601. Witnesses' fees; enumeration.—Witnesses shall be paid for each day's attendance in court, or before any officer pursuant to law, $1.50, and 5 cents a mile for going from his place of residence to the place of trial or hearing, and 5 cents a mile for returning. When a witness is subpœnaed in more than one cause between the same parties, at the same court, only one travel fee and one per diem compensation shall be allowed for attendance. Both shall be taxed in the case first disposed of, after which the per diem attendance fee alone shall be taxed in the other cases in the order in which they are disposed of.

When a witness is detained in prison for want of security for his appearance, he shall be entitled, in addition to his subsistence, to a compensation of $1 a day. (R. S. § 848.)

602. Fees and mileage of jurors and witnesses.—Jurors and witnesses in the United States courts in the States of Wyoming, Montana, Washington, Oregon, California, Nevada, Idaho, Colorado, Utah, New Mexico, and Arizona shall be entitled to receive for actual attendance at any court or courts and for the time necessarily occupied in going to and returning from the same, $3 a day, and 15 cents for each mile necessarily traveled over any stage line, or by private conveyance, and 5 cents for each mile by any railway or steamship in going to and returning from said courts. No constructive or double mileage fees shall be allowed by reason of any person being summoned as both a witness and juror, or as a witness in two or more cases pending in the same court and triable at the same term thereof. (May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 377.)

603. No officer of court to have witness fees.—No officer of the United States courts, in any State or Territory, or in the District of Columbia, shall be entitled to witness fees for attending before any court or commissioner where he is officiating. (R. S. § 849.)

604. Expenses of officers of United States as witnesses.—When any clerk or other officer of the United States is sent away from his place of business as a witness for the Government, his necessary expenses, stated in items and sworn to, in going, returning, and attendance on the court, shall be audited and paid; but no mileage or other compensation in addition to his salary, shall in any case be allowed. (R. S. § 850.)

605. Seamen as witnesses.—There shall be paid to each seaman or other person who is sent to the United States from any foreign port, station, sea, or ocean, by any United States minister, chargé d'affaires, consul, captain, or commander, to give testimony in any criminal case depending in any court of the United States, such compensation, exclusive of subsistence and transportation as such court may adjudge to be proper, not exceeding $1 for each day necessarily employed in such voyage, and in arriving at the place of examination or trial. In fixing such compensation, the court shall take into consideration the condition of said seaman or witness, and whether his voyage has been broken up, to his injury, by his being sent to the United States.

When such seaman or person is transported in an armed vessel of the United States no charge for subsistence or transportation shall be allowed. When he is transported in any other vessel, the compensation for his transportation and subsistence, not exceeding in any case 50 cents a day, may be fixed by the court, and shall be paid to the captain of said vessel accordingly. (R. S. § 851.)

PRINTERS' FEES

606. Printers' fees.—For publishing any notice, or order, required by law, or the lawful order of any court, department, bureau, or other person, in any newspaper, printers shall be allowed a fee of 40 cents per folio for the first insertion, and 20 cents per folio for each subsequent insertion. The compensation herein provided shall include the furnishing of lawful evidence, under oath, of publication, to be made and furnished by the printer or publisher making such publication. (R. S. § 853; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 317.)

607. Meaning of folio.—The term folio, in this chapter, shall mean one hundred words, counting each figure as a word. When there are over fifty and under one hundred words, they shall be counted as one folio; but a less number than fifty words shall not be counted, except when the whole statute, notice, or order contains less than fifty words. (R. S. § 854.)

FEES, HOW PAID AND RECOVERED

609. Recovery of fees.—The fees and compensations of the officers and persons hereinbefore mentioned, except those which are directed to be paid out of the Treasury, shall be recovered in like manner as the fees of the officers of the States respectively for like services are recovered. (R. S. § 857.)

TESTIMONY FOR USE IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES

701. Taking.
702. Privilege of witness.
703. Punishment of witness for contempt.
704. Fees and mileage of witnesses.

Section 631. Competency of witnesses governed by State laws.—The competency of a witness to testify in any civil action, suit, or proceding in the courts of the United States shall be determined by the laws of the State or Territory in which the court is held. (R. S. § 858; June 29, 1906, c. 3608, 34 Stat. 618.)

632. Same; defendants in criminal cases.—In the trial of all indictments, informations, complaints, and other proceedings against persons charged with the commission of crimes, offenses, and misdemeanors, in the United States courts, Territorial courts, and courts-martial, and courts of inquiry, in any State or Territory, including the District of Columbia, the person so charged shall, at his own request but not otherwise, be a competent witness. And his failure to make such request shall not create any presumption against him. (Mar. 16, 1878, c. 37, 20 Stat. 30.)

633. Same; husband or wife of defendant in prosecution for bigamy.—In any proceeding or examination before a grand jury, a judge, justice, or a United States commissioner, or a court, in any prosecution for bigamy, polygamy, or unlawful cohabitation, under any statute of the United States, the lawful husband or wife of the person accused shall be a competent witness, and may be called, but shall not be compelled to testify in such proceeding, examination, or prosecution without the consent of the husband or wife, as the case may be; and such witness shall not be permitted to testify as to any statement or communication made by either husband or wife to each other, during the existence of the marriage relation, deemed confidential at common law. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 397, § 1, 24 Stat. 635.)

634. Testimony of witnesses before Congress.—No testimony given by a witness before either House, or before any committee of either House of Congress, shall be used as evidence in any criminal proceeding against him in any court, except in a prosecution for perjury committed in giving such testimony. But an official paper or record produced by him is not within the said privilege. (R. S. § 859.)

635. Proof in common-law actions.—The mode of proof in the trial of actions at common law shall be by oral testimony and examination of witnesses in open court, except as hereinafter provided. (R. S. § 861.)

636. Production of books and writings.—In the trial of actions at law, the courts of the United States may, on motion and due notice thereof, require the parties to produce books or writings in their possession or power, which contain evidence pertinent to the issue, in cases and under circumstances where they might be compelled to produce the same by the ordinary rules of proceeding in chancery. If a plaintiff fails to comply with such order, the court may, on motion, give the like judgment for the defendant as in cases of nonsuit; and if a defendant fails to comply with such order, the court may, on motion, give judgment against him by default. (R. S. § 724.)

637. Proof in equity and admiralty.—The mode of proof in causes of equity and of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction shall be according to rules now or hereafter prescribed by the Supreme Court, except as herein specially provided. (R. S. § 862.)

638. Comparison of handwriting to determine genuineness.—In any proceeding before a court or judicial officer of the United States where the genuineness of the handwriting of any person may be involved, any admitted or proved handwriting of such person shall be competent evidence as a basis for comparison by witnesses, or by the jury, court, or officer conducting such proceeding, to prove or disprove such genuineness. (Feb. 26, 1913, c. 79, 37 Stat. 683.)

639. Depositions de bene esse; when and where taken; notice.—The testimony of any witness may be taken in any civil cause depending in a district court by deposition de bene esse, when the witness lives at a greater distance from the place of trial than one hundred miles, or is bound on a voyage to sea, or is about to go out of the United States, or out of the district in which the case is to be tried, and to a greater distance than one hundred miles from the place of trial, before the time of trial, or when he is ancient and infirm. The deposition may be taken before any judge of any court of the United States, or any clerk of a district court, or any chancellor, justice, or judge of a supreme or superior court, mayor or chief magistrate of a city, judge of a county court or court of common pleas of any of the United States, or any notary public, not being of counsel or attorney to either of the parties, nor interested in the event of the cause. Reasonable notice must first be given in writing by the party or his attorney proposing to take such deposition, to the opposite party or his attorney of record, as either may be nearest, which notice shall state the name of the witness and the time and place of the taking of his deposition; and in all cases in rem, the person having the agency or possession of the property at the time of seizure shall be deemed the adverse party, until a claim shall have been put in; and whenever, by reason of the absence from the district and want of an attorney of record or other reason, the giving of the notice herein required shall be impracticable, it shall be lawful to take such depositions as there shall be urgent necessity for taking, upon such notice as any judge authorized to hold courts in such district shall think reasonable and direct. Any person may be compelled to appear and depose as provided by this section, in the same manner as witnesses may be compelled to appear and testify in court. (R. S. § 863.)

640. Same; mode of taking.—Every person deposing as provided in section 639 of this title shall be cautioned and sworn to testify the whole truth, and carefully examined. His testimony shall be reduced to writing or typewriting by the officer taking the deposition, or by some person under his personal supervision, or by the deponent himself in the officer's presence, and by no other person, and shall, after it has been reduced to writing or typewriting, be subscribed by the deponent. (R. S. § 864; May 23, 1900, c. 541, 31 Stat. 182.)

641. Same; transmission to court.—Every deposition taken under sections 639 and 640 of this title shall be retained by the magistrate taking it, until he delivers it with his own hand into the court for which it is taken; or it shall, together with a certificate of the reasons as aforesaid of taking it and of the notice, if any, given to the adverse party, be by him sealed up and directed to such court, and remain under his seal until opened in court. But unless it appears to the satisfaction of the court that the witness is then dead, or gone out of the United States, or to a greater distance than one hundred miles from the place where the court is sitting, or that, by reason of age, sickness, bodily infirmity, or imprisonment, he is unable to travel and appear at court, such deposition shall not be used in the cause. (R. S. § 865.)

642. Depositions, acknowledgments, and affidavits taken by notaries public.—Notaries public of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia may take depositions, and do all other acts in relation to taking testimony to be used in the courts of the United States, take acknowledgments and affidavits, in the same manner and with the same effect as commissioners of the United States district court may lawfully take or do. (Aug. 15, 1876, c. 304, 19 Stat. 206.)

643. Depositions; taken in mode prescribed by State laws.—In addition to the mode of taking the depositions of witnesses in causes pending at law or equity in the district courts of the United States, it shall be lawful to take the depositions or testimony of witnesses in the mode prescribed by the laws of the State in which the courts are held. (Mar. 9, 1892, c. 14, 27 Stat. 7.)

644. Depositions under dedimus potestatem and in perpetuam.—In any case where it is necessary, in order to prevent a failure or delay of justice, any of the courts of the United States may grant a dedimus potestatem to take depositions according to common usage; and any district court, upon application to it as a court of equity, may, according to the usages of chancery, direct depositions to be taken in perpetuam rei memoriam, if they relate to any matters that may be cognizable in any court of the United States. And the provisions of sections 639 to 641 of this title shall not apply to any deposition to be taken under the authority of this section. (R. S. § 866.)

645. Depositions in perpetuam; admissible at discretion of court.—Any court of the United States may, in its discretion, admit in evidence in any cause before it any deposition taken in perpetuam rei memoriam, which would be so admissible in a court of the State wherein such cause is pending, according to the laws thereof. (R. S. § 867.)

646. Deposition under dedimus potestatem; how taken.—When a commission is issued by any court of the United States for taking the testimony of a witness named therein at any place within any district or Territory, the clerk of any court of the United States for such district or Territory shall, on the application of either party to the suit, or of his agent, issue a subpœna for such witness, commanding him to appear and testify before the commissioner named in the commission, at a time and place stated in the subpœna; and if any witness, after being duly served with such subpœna, refuses or neglects to appear, or, after appearing, refuses to testify, not being privileged from giving testimony, and such refusal or neglect is proven to the satisfaction of any judge of the court whose clerk issues such subpœna, such judge may proceed to enforce obedience to the process, or punish the disobedience, as any court of the United States may proceed in case of disobedience to process of subpœna to testify issued by such court. (R. S. § 868.)

647. Same; subpœna duces tecum.—When either party in such suit applies to any judge of a United States court in such district or Territory for a subpœna commanding the witness, therein to be named, to appear and testify before said commissioner, at the time and place to be stated in the subpœna, and to bring with him and produce to such commissioner any paper or writing or written instrument or book or other document, supposed to be in the possession or power of such witness, and to be described in the subpœna, such judge, on being satisfied by the affidavit of the person applying, or otherwise, that there is reason to believe that such paper, writing, written instrument, book, or other document is in the possession or power of the witness, and that the same, if produced, would be competent and material evidence for the party applying therefor, may order the clerk of said court to issue such subpœna accordingly. And if the witness, after being served with such subpœna, fails to produce to the commissioner, at the time and place stated in the subpœna, any such paper, writing, written instrument, book, or other document, being in his possession or power, and described in the subpœna, and such failure is proved to the satisfaction of said judge, he may proceed to enforce obedience to said process of subpœna, or punish the disobedience in like manner as any court of the United States may proceed in case of disobedience to like process issued by such court. When any such paper, writing, written instrument, book, or other document is produced to such commissioner, he shall, at the cost of the party requiring the same, cause to be made a correct copy thereof, or of so much thereof as shall be required by either of the parties. (R. S. § 869.)

648. Same; witnesses; when required to attend.—No witness shall be required, under the provisions of either of sections 646 or 647 of this title, to attend at any place out of the county where he resides, nor more than forty miles from the place of his residence, to give his deposition; nor shall any witness be deemed guilty of contempt for disobeying any subpœna directed to him by virtue of either of the said sections, unless his fee for going to, returning from, and one day's attendance at, the place of examination, are paid or tendered to him at the time of the service of the subpœna. (R. S. § 870.)

649. Depositions in District of Columbia in suits pending elsewhere.—When a commission to take the testimony of any witness found within the District of Columbia, to be used in a suit depending in any State or Territorial or foreign court, is issued from such court, or a notice to the same effect is given according to its rules of practice, and such commission or notice is produced to a justice of the supreme court of said District, and due proof is made to him that the testimony of such witness is material to the party desiring the same, the said justice shall issue a summons to the witness, requiring him to appear before the commissioners named in the commission or notice, to testify in such suit, at a time and at a place within said District therein specified. (R. S. § 871.)

650. Same; commission or notice.—When it satisfactorily appears by affidavit to any justice of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, or to any commissioner for taking depositions appointed by said court—First. That any person within said District is a material witness for either party in a suit pending in any State or Territorial or foreign court; Second. That no commission nor notice to take the testimony of such witness has been issued or given; and Third. That, according to the practice of the court in which the suit is pending, the deposition of a witness taken without the presence and consent of both parties will be received on the trial or hearing thereof, such officer shall issue his summons, requiring the witness to appear before him at a place within the District, at some reasonable time, to be stated therein, to testify in such suit. (R. S. § 872.)

651. Same; manner of taking and transmitting.—Testimony obtained under sections 649 and 650 of this title shall be taken down in writing by the officer before whom the witness appears, and shall be certified and transmitted by him to the court in which the suit is pending, in such manner as the practice of that court may require. If any person refuses or neglects to appear at the time and place mentioned in the summons, or, on his appearance, refuses to testify, he shall be liable to the same penalties as would be incurred for a like offense on the trial of a suit. (R. S. § 873.)

652. Same; witness fees.—Every witness appearing and testifying under sections 649 to 651 of this chapter shall be entitled to receive for each day's attendance, from the party at whose instance he is summoned, the fees provided by law for each day he shall give attendance. (R. S. § 874.)

653. Letters rogatory; procedure.—When any commission or letter rogatory, issued to take the testimony of any witness in a foreign country, in any suit in which the United States are parties or have an interest, is executed by the court or the commissioner to whom it is directed, it shall be returned by such court or commissioner to the minister or consul of the United States nearest the place where it is executed. On receiving the same, the said minister or consul shall indorse thereon a certificate, stating when and where the same was received, and that the said deposition is in the same condition as when he received it; and he shall thereupon transmit the said letter or commission, so executed and certified, by mail, to the clerk of the court from which the same issued, in the manner in which his official dispatches are transmitted to the Government. And the testimony of witnesses so taken and returned shall be read as evidence on the trial of the suit in which it was taken, without objection as to the method of returning the same. When letters rogatory are addressed from any court of a foreign country to any district court of the United States, a commissioner of such district court designated by said court to make the examination of the witnesses mentioned in said letters, shall have power to compel the witnesses to appear and depose in the same manner as witnesses may be compelled to appear and testify in courts. (R. S. § 875; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 241.)

654. Witnesses; subpœnas; may run into another district.—Until September 19, 1928, subpœnas for witnesses who are required to attend a court of the United States, in any district, may run into any other district: Provided, That in civil cases no writ of subpœna shall issue for witnesses living out of the district in which the court is held at a greater distance than one hundred miles from the place of holding the same without the permission of the court being first had upon proper application and cause shown. The word "district" and the words "district court" as used herein shall be construed to include the District of Columbia and the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia. After September 19, 1928, subpœnas for witnesses who are required to attend a court of the United States, in any district, may run into any other district. In civil causes the witnesses living out of the district in which the court is held do not live at a greater distance than one hundred miles from the place of holding the same. (R. S. § 876; Sept. 19, 1922, c. 344, 42 Stat. 848.)

655. Same; subpœna; form; attendance under.—Witnesses who are required to attend any term of a district court on the part of the United States, shall be subpœnaed to attend to testify generally on their behalf, and not to depart the court without leave thereof, or of the district attorney; and under such process they shall appear before the grand or petit jury, or both, as they may be required by the court or district attorney. (R. S. § 877.)

656. Same; for indigent defendants in criminal cases.—Whenever any person indicted in a court of the United States makes affidavit, setting forth that there are witnesses whose evidence is material to his defense; that he can not safely go to trial without them; what he expects to prove by each of them; that they are within the district in which the court is held, or within one hundred miles of the place of trial; and that he is not possessed of sufficient means, and is actually unable to pay the fees of such witnesses, the court in turn, or any judge thereof in vacation, may order that such witnesses be subpœnaed if found within the limits aforesaid. In such case the costs incurred by the process and the fees of the witnesses shall be paid in the same manner that similar costs and fees are paid in case of witnesses subpœnaed in behalf of the United States. (R. S. § 878.)

657. Same; recognizance; at hearing of charges in criminal cases.—Any judge or other officer who may be authorized to arrest and imprison or bail persons charged with any crime or offense against the United States may, at the hearing of any such charge, require of any witness produced against the prisoner, on pain of imprisonment, a recognizance, with or without sureties, in his discretion, for his appearance to testify in the case. And where the crime or offense is charged to have been committed on the high seas, or elsewhere within the admiralty and maritime jurisdiction of the United States, he may, in his discretion, require a like recognizance, with such sureties as he may deem necessary, of any witness produced in behalf of the accused, whose testimony in his opinion is important, and is in danger of being otherwise lost. (R. S. § 879.)

658. Same; recognizance; Vermont.—In the district of Vermont, all recognizances of witnesses, taken by any magistrate in said district, for their appearance to testify in any case cognizable in the district court thereof, shall be to the district court next thereafter to be held in the said district. (R. S. § 880.)

659. Same; recognizance; when required.—Any judge of the United States, on the application of a district attorney, and on being satisfied by proof that the testimony of any person is competent and will be necessary on the trial of any criminal proceeding in which the United States are parties or are interested, may compel such person to give recognizance, with or without sureties, at his discretion, to appear to testify therein; and, for that purpose, may issue a warrant against such person, under his hand, with or without seal, directed to the marshal or other officer authorized to execute process in behalf of the United States, to arrest and bring before him such person. If the person so arrested neglects or refuses to give recognizance in the manner required, the judge may issue a warrant of commitment against him, and the officer shall convey him to the prison mentioned therein. And the said person shall remain in confinement until he is removed to the court for the purpose of giving his testimony, or until he gives the recognizance required by said judge. (R. S. § 881.)

660. Same; attachment without previous subpœna in certain prosecutions.—In any prosecution for bigamy, polygamy, or unlawful cohabitation, under any statute of the United States, whether before a United States commissioner, justice, judge, a grand jury, or any court, an attachment for any witness may be issued by the court, judge, or commissioner, without a previous subpœna, compelling the immediate attendance of such witness, when it shall appear by oath or affirmation, to the commissioner, justice, judge, or court, as the case may be, that there is reasonable ground to believe that such witness will unlawfully fail to obey a subpœna issued and served in the usual course in such cases; and in such case the usual witness fee shall be paid to such witness so attached. The person so attached may at any time secure his or her discharge from custody by executing a recognizance with sufficient surety, conditioned for the appearance of such person at the proper time, as a witness in the cause or proceeding wherein the attachment may be issued. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 397, § 2, 24 Stat. 635.)

661. Copies of department records and papers; admissibility.—Copies of any books, records, papers, or documents in any of the executive departments authenticated under the seals of such departments, respectively, shall be admitted in evidence equally with the originals thereof. (R. S. § 882.)

662. Same; in office of Solicitor of the Treasury.—Copies of any documents, records, books, or papers in the office of the Solicitor of the Treasury, certified by him under the seal of his office, or, when his office is vacant, by the officer acting as solicitor for the time, shall be evidence equally with the originals. (R. S. § 883.)

663. Instruments and papers of Comptroller of Currency; admissibility.—Every certificate, assignment, and conveyance executed by the Comptroller of the Currency, in pursuance of law, and sealed with his seal of office, shall be received in evidence in all places and courts; and all copies of papers in his office, certified by him and authenticated by the said seal, shall in all cases be evidence equally with the originals. An impression of such seal directly on the paper shall be as valid as if made on wax or wafer. (R. S. § 884.)

664. Organization certificates of national banks; admissibility.—Copies of the organization certificate of any national banking association, duly certified by the Comptroller of the Currency, and authenticated by his seal of office, shall be evidence in all courts and places within the jurisdiction of the United States of the existence of the association, and of every matter which could be proved by the production of the original certificate. (R. S. § 885.)

665. Transcripts from books of Treasury in suits against delinquents; admissibility.—When suit is brought in any case of delinquency of a revenue officer, or other person accountable for public money, a transcript from the books and proceedings of the Treasury Department, certified by the register and authenticated under the seal of the department, or, when the suit involves the accounts of the War or Navy Departments, certified by the Comptroller General of the United States, and authenticated under the seal of the General Accounting Office, shall be admitted as evidence, and the court trying the cause shall be authorized to grant judgment and award execution accordingly. And all copies of bonds, contracts, or other papers relating to, or connected with, the settlement of any account between the United States and an individual, when certified by the register, or by the Comptroller General, as the case may me, to be true copies of the originals on file, and authenticated under the seal of the department, may be annexed to such transcripts, and shall have equal validity, and be entitled to the same degree of credit which would be due to the original papers if produced and authenticated in court. Where suit is brought upon a bond or other sealed instrument, and the defendant pleads "non est factum," or makes his motion to the court, verifying such plea or motion by his oath, the court may take the same into consideration, and, if it appears to be necessary for the attainment of justice, may require the production of the original bond, contract, or other paper specified in such affidavit. (R. S. § 886; June 10, 1921, c. 18, §§ 302, 310, 42 Stat. 23, 25.)

666. Same; certificate by Secretary or Assistant Secretary.—The transcripts from the books and proceedings of the Department of the Treasury and the copies of bonds, contracts, and other papers provided for in section 665 of this chapter shall hereafter be certified by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary of the Treasury under the seal of the department, or by the Comptroller General under the seal of the General Accounting Office, as the case may be. (July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 17, 28 Stat. 210; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 10, 28 Stat. 809; June 10, 1921, c. 18, §§ 302, 304, 310, 42 Stat. 23.)

667. Regulations for carrying out provisions of section 666.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to make appropriate rules and regulations for carrying out the provisions of section 666 of this chapter. (July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 22, 28 Stat. 210.)

668. Same; indictments for embezzlement of public moneys.—Upon the trial of any indictment against any person for embezzling public moneys, it shall be sufficient evidence, for the purpose of showing a balance against such person, to produce a transcript from the books and proceedings of the Treasury Department, as provided by section 665 of this title. (R. S. § 887.)

669. Copies of returns in returns office admissible.—A copy of any return of a contract returned and filed in the returns office of the Department of the Interior, as provided by law, when certified by the clerk of the said office to be full and complete, and when authenticated by the seal of the department, shall be evidence in any prosecution against any officer for falsely and corruptly swearing to the affidavit required by law to be made by such officer in making his return of any contract, as required by law, to said returns office. (R. S. § 888.)

670. Admissibility of copies of statements of demands by Post Office Department.—In all suits for the recovery of balances due from postmasters, a copy, duly certified under the seal of the General Accounting Office, of the statement of any postmaster, special agent, or other person, employed by the Postmaster General or the General Accounting Office for that purpose, that he has mailed a letter to such delinquent postmaster at the post office where the indebtedness accrued, or at his last usual place of abode; that a sufficient time has elapsed for said letter to have reached its destination in the ordinary course of the mail; and that payment of such balance has not been received, within the time designated in his instructions, shall be received as sufficient evidence in the courts of the United States, or other courts, that a demand has been made upon the delinquent postmaster; but when the account of a late postmaster has been once adjusted and settled, and a demand has been made for the balance appearing to be due, and afterward allowances are made or credits entered, it shall not be necessary to make a further demand for the new balance found to be due. (R. S. § 890; June 10, 1921, c. 18, 42 Stat. 23.)

671. Admissibility of copies of post office records and statement of accounts.—Copies of the quarterly returns of postmasters and of any papers pertaining to the accounts in the office of the General Accounting Office, and transcripts from the money-order account books of the Post Office Department, when certified by the General Accounting Office under the seal of that office, shall be admitted as evidence in the courts of the United States, in civil suits and criminal prosecutions; and in any civil suit, in case of delinquency of any postmaster or contractor, a statement of the account, certified as aforesaid, shall be admitted in evidence, and the court shall be authorized thereupon to give judgment and award execution, subject to the provisions of law as to proceedings in such civil suits. (R. S. § 889; June 10, 1921, c. 18, 42 Stat. 23.)

672. Admissibility of copies of records of General Land Office.—Copies of any records, books, or papers in the General Land Office, authenticated by the seal and certified by the commissioner thereof, or, when his office is vacant, by the principal clerk, shall be evidence equally with the originals thereof. And literal exemplifications of any such records shall be held, when so introduced in evidence, to be of the same validity as if the names of the officers signing and countersigning the same had been fully inserted in such record. (R. S. § 891.)

673. Admissibility of copies of records, and so forth, of Patent Office.—Written or printed copies of any records, books, papers, or drawings belonging to the Patent Office, of letters patent, of certificates of registration of trade-marks, labels, or prints, authenticated by the seal of the Patent Office and certified by the commissioner thereof, or in his name attested by a chief of division duly designated by the commissioner, shall be evidence in all cases wherein the originals could be evidence; and any person making application therefor and paying the fee required by law shall have certified copies thereof. (R. S. § 892; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 535, § 2, 43 Stat. 1269.)

674. Copies of foreign letters patent as prima facie evidence.—Copies of the specifications and drawings of foreign letters patent, certified as provided in section 673 of this title, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact of the granting of such letters patent, and of the date and contents thereof. (R. S. § 893.)

675. Copies of specifications and drawings of patents admissible.—The printed copies of specifications and drawings of patents, which the Commissioner of Patents is authorized to print for gratuitous distribution, and to deposit in the capitols of the States and Territories, and in the clerk's offices of the district courts, shall, when certified by him and authenticated by the seal of his office, be received in all courts as evidence of all matters therein contained. (R. S. § 894.)

676. Extracts from Journals of Congress admissible when injunction of secrecy removed.—Extracts from the Journals of the Senate, or of the House of Representatives, and of the Executive Journal of the Senate when the injunction of secrecy is removed, certified by the Secretary of the Senate or by the Clerk of the House of Representatives, shall be admitted as evidence in the courts of the United States, and shall have the same force and effect as the originals would have if produced and authenticated in court. (R. S. § 895.)

677. Copies of records in offices of United States consuls admissible.—Copies of all official documents and papers in the office of any consul, vice consul, or commercial agent of the United States, and of all official entries in the books or records of any such office, certified under the hand and seal of such officer; shall be admitted in evidence in the courts of the United States. (R. S. § 896.)

678. Books and papers in certain district courts.—The transcripts into new books, made by the clerks of the district courts in the several districts of Texas, Florida, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, and Kansas, in pursuance of the Act of June 27, 1864, chapter 165 [(13 Stat. 199) providing that the books of records and journals of the district courts of said States should be transferred to the circuit courts after having first copied into a book for that purpose provided, all entries, orders, or other proceedings, which may be found in said books, journals, or records relating in any manner to cases which were not of circuit court cognizance, and which could not have been prosecuted in a circuit court] from the records and journals transferred by them, respectively, under the said act, to the clerks of the circuit courts in said districts, when certified by the clerks respectively making the same to be full and true copies from the original books, shall have the same force and effect as records as the originals. (R. S. § 897; June 27, 1864, c. 165, 13 Stat. 199; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 289, 36 Stat. 1167.)

679. Records in clerks' offices, western district of North Carolina.—The transcripts into new books made by the clerks of the circuit and district courts for the western district of North Carolina, in pursuance of the Act of June 4, 1872, chapter 282 [(17 Stat. 215) authorizing the clerks of the district and circuit courts of the western district to make transcripts, from any of the records, files or papers of the district and circuit courts remaining in the office of the clerks of the eastern district, of all matters and proceedings which relate to or concern liens upon or titles to real estate situate in the western district] when certified by the clerks respectively making the same to be full and true copies from the original books, shall have the same force and effect as records as the originals. And the certificate of the clerk of the district court of the western district of transcripts of any of the said transcribed records, shall also be received in evidence with the like effect as if made from the originals from which such records were transcribed. (R. S. § 898; June 4, 1872, c. 282, 17 Stat. 215; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 289, 36 Stat. 1167.)

680. Records in clerks' offices of former district of California.—The clerk of the district court for the northern district of California is authorized, at the request of the district judge of the southern district, and at the cost of the parties requiring the same, to make transcripts of any of the records, files, or papers of the district court of the United States, remaining in the office of the clerk of the northern district of California, and of all matters and proceedings which relate to or concern liens upon or titles to real estate situated in said southern district; and such transcripts, when so made, shall be certified to be true and correct by the clerk making the same, and the same, when so made and certified, and filed in the proper court, shall constitute the record in such court, and shall be evidence in all courts and places equally with said originals. (Aug. 5, 1886, c. 928, § 9, 24 Stat. 310.)

681. Original records lost or destroyed; certified copy admissible.—When the record of any judgment, decree, or other proceeding of any court of the United States is lost or destroyed, any party or person interested therein may, on application to such court, and on showing to its satisfaction that the same was lost or destroyed without his fault, obtain from it an order authorizing such defect to be supplied by a duly certified copy of the original record, where the same can be obtained; and such certified copy shall thereafter have, in all respects, the same effect as the original record would have had. (R. S. § 899.)

682. Same; when certified copy not obtainable.—When any record of a judgment, decree or other proceeding of any court of the United States is lost or destroyed, and the defect can not be supplied as provided in section 681 of this title, any party or person interested therein may make a written application to the court to which the record belonged, verified by affidavit, showing such loss or destruction; that the same occurred without his fault or neglect; that certified copies of such record can not be obtained by him; and showing also the substance of the record so lost or destroyed, and that the loss or destruction thereof, unless supplied, will or may result in damage to him. The court shall cause said application to be entered of record, and a copy of it shall be served personally upon every person interested therein, together with written notice that on a day therein stated, which shall not be less than sixty days after such service, said application will be heard; and if, upon such hearing, the court is satisfied that the statements contained in the application are true, it shall make and cause to be entered of record an order reciting the substance and effect of said lost or destroyed record. Said order shall have the same effect, so far as concerns the party or person making such application and the persons served as above provided, but subject to intervening rights, which the original record would have had, if the same had not been lost or destroyed. (R. S. § 900.)

683. Same; on removal to Supreme Court.—When any cause has been removed to the Supreme Court, and the original record thereof is afterward lost, a duly certified copy of the record remaining in said court may be filed in the court from which the cause was removed, on motion of any party or person claiming to be interested therein; and the copy so filed shall have the same effect as the original record would have had if the same had not been lost or destroyed. (R. S. § 901.)

684. Same; notice and proof of service.—In any proceedings in conformity with law to restore the records of any court of the United States which have been or may be hereafter lost or destroyed, the notice required may be served on any nonresident of the district in which such court is held anywhere within the jurisdiction of the United States, or in any foreign country; the proof of service of such notice, if made in a foreign country, to be certified by a minister or consul of the United States in such country, under his official seal. (R. S. § 902; Jan. 31, 1879, c. 39, § 1, 20 Stat. 277.)

685. Same; certified copy of official papers.—A certified copy of the official return, or any other official paper of the United States attorney, marshal, or clerk, or other certifying or recording officer of any court of the United States, made in pursuance of law, and on file in any department of the Government, relating to any cause or matter to which the United States was a party in any such court, the record of which has been or may be lost or destroyed, may be filed in the court to which it appertains, and shall have the same force and effect as if it were an original report, return, paper, or other document made to or filed in such court; and in any case in which the names of the parties and the date and amount of judgment or decree shall appear from such return, paper, or document, it shall be lawful for the court in which they are filed to issue the proper process to enforce such decree or judgment, in the same manner as if the original record remained in said court. And in all cases where any of the files, papers, or records of any court of the United States have been or shall be lost or destroyed, the files, records, and papers which, pursuant to law, may have been or may be restored or supplied in place of such records, files, and papers, shall have the same force and effect, to all intents and purposes, as the originals thereof would have been entitled to. (R. S. § 903; Jan. 31, 1879, c. 39, § 2, 20 Stat. 277.)

686. Same; restoration by district attorney.—Whenever any of the records or files in which the United States are interested of any court of the United States have been or may be lost or destroyed, it shall be the duty of the attorney of the United States for the district or court to which such files and records belong, so far as the judges of such courts respectively shall deem it essential to the interests of the United States that such records and files to be restored or supplied, to take such steps, under the direction of said judges, as may be necessary to effect such restoration or substitution, including such dockets, indices, and other books and papers as said judge shall think proper.

Said judges may direct the performance, by the clerks of said courts respectively and by the United States attorneys, of any duties incident thereto; and said clerks and attorneys shall be allowed such compensation for services in the matter and for lawful disbursements as may be approved by the Attorney General of the United States, upon a certificate by the judges of said courts stating that such claim for services and disbursements is just and reasonable; and the sum so allowed shall be paid out of the judiciary fund. (R. S. § 904; Jan. 31, 1879, c. 39, § 3, 20 Stat. 277.)

687. Authentication of legislative acts; proof of judicial proceedings of State.—The acts of the legislature of any State or Territory, or of any country subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, shall be authenticated by having the seals of such State, Territory, or country affixed thereto. The records and judicial proceedings of the courts of any State or Territory, or of any such country, shall be proved or admitted in any other court within the United States, by the attestation of the clerk, and the seal of the court annexed, if there be a seal, together with a certificate of the judge, chief justice, or presiding magistrate, that the said attestation is in due form. And the said records and judicial proceedings, so authenticated, shall have such faith and credit given to them in every court within the United States as they have by law or usage in the courts of the State from which they are taken. (R. S. § 905.)

688. Proofs of records in offices not pertaining to courts.—All records and exemplifications of books, which may be kept in any public office of any State or Territory, or of any country subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, not appertaining to a court, shall be proved or admitted in any court or office in any other State or Territory, or in any such country, by the attestation of the keeper of the said records or books, and the seal of his office annexed, if there be a seal, together with a certificate of the presiding justice of the court of the county, parish, or district in which such office may be kept, or of the governor, or secretary of state, the chancellor or keeper of the great seal, of the State, or Territory, or country, that the said attestation is in due form, and by the proper officers. If the said certificate is given by the presiding justice of a court, it shall be further authenticated by the clerk or prothonotary of the said court, who shall certify, under his hand and the seal of his office, that the said presiding justice is duly commissioned and qualified; or, if given by such governor, secretary, chancellor, or keeper of the great seal, it shall be under the great seal of the State, Territory, or country aforesaid in which it is made. And the said records and exemplifications, so authenticated, shall have such faith and credit given to them in every court and office within the United States as they have by law or usage in the courts or offices of the State, Territory, or country, as aforesaid, from which they are taken. (R. S. § 906.)

689. Copies of foreign records relating to land titles.—It shall be lawful for any keeper or person having the custody of laws, judgments, orders, decrees, journals, correspondence, or other public documents of any foreign government or its agents, relating to the title to lands claimed by or under the United States, on the application of the head of one of the departments, the Solicitor of the Treasury, or the Commissioner of the General Land Office, to authenticate copies thereof under his hand and seal, and to certify them to be correct and true copies of such laws, judgments, orders, decrees, journals, correspondence, or other public documents, respectively; and when such copies are certified by an American minister or consul, under his hand and seal of office, to be true copies of the originals, they shall be sealed up by him and returned to the Solicitor of the Treasury, who shall file them in his office, and cause them to be recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose. A copy of any such law, judgment, order, decree, journal, correspondence, or other public document, so filed, or of the same so recorded in said book, may be read in evidence in any court, where the title to land claimed by or under the United States may come into question, equally with the originals. (R. S. § 907.)

690. Possessory actions for recovery of mining titles.—No possessory action between persons, in any court of the United States, for the recovery of any mining title, or for damages to any such title, shall be affected by the fact that the paramount title to the land in which such mines lie is in the United States; but each case shall be adjudged by the law of possession. (R. S. § 910.)

TESTIMONY FOR USE IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES

701. Taking.—The testimony of any witness residing within the United States, to be used in any suit for the recovery of money or property depending in any court in any foreign country with which the United States are at peace, and in which the government of such foreign country shall be a party or shall have an interest, may be obtained, to be used in such suit. If a commission or letters rogatory to take such testimony, together with specific written interrogatories, accompanying the same, and addressed to such witness, shall have been issued from the court in which such suit is pending, on producing the same before the district judge of any district where the witness resides or shall be found, and on due proof being made to such judge that the testimony of any witness is material to the party desiring the same, such judge shall issue a summons to such witness requiring him to appear before the officer or commissioner named in such commission or letters rogatory, to testify in such suit. And no witness shall be compelled to appear or to testify under this section except for the purpose of answering such interrogatories so issued and accompanying such commission or letters. When counsel for all the parties attend the examination, they may consent that questions in addition to those accompanying the commission or letters rogatory may be put to the witness, unless the commission or letters rogatory exclude such additional interrogatories. The summons shall specify the time and place at which the witness is required to attend, which place shall be within one hundred miles of the place where the witness resides or shall be served with such summons. (R. S. § 4071.)

702. Privilege of witness.—No witness shall be required, on such examination or any other under letters rogatory, to make any disclosure or discovery which shall tend to criminate him either under the laws of the State or Territory within which such examination is had, or any other, or any foreign State. (R. S. § 4072.)

703. Punishment of witness for contempt.—If any person shall refuse or neglect to appear at the time and place mentioned in the summons issued, in accordance with section 701 of this title, or if upon his appearance he shall refuse to testify, he shall be liable to the same penalties as would be incurred for a like offense on the trial of a suit in the district court of the United States. (R. S. § 4073.)

704. Fees and mileage of witnesses.—Every witness who shall so appear and testify shall be allowed, and shall receive from the party at whose instance he shall have been summoned, the same fees and mileage as are allowed to witnesses in suits depending in the district courts of the United States. (R. S. § 4074.)

722. Teste of process, day of.—All process issued from the courts of the United States shall bear teste from the day of such issue. (R. S. § 912.)

723. Mesne process; proceedings in equity and admiralty.—The forms of mesne process and the forms and modes of proceeding in suits of equity and of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction in the district courts shall be according to the principles, rules, and usages which belong to courts of equity and of admiralty, respectively, except when it is otherwise provided by statute or by rules of court made in pursuance thereof; but the same shall be subject to alteration and addition by the said courts, respectively, and to regulation by the Supreme Court, by rules prescribed, from time to time, to any district court, not inconsistent with the laws of the United States. (R. S. § 913.)

724. Conformity to practice in State courts.—The practice, pleadings, and forms and modes of proceeding in civil causes, other than equity and admiralty causes, in the district courts, shall conform, as near as may be, to the practice, pleadings, and forms and modes of proceeding existing at the time in like causes in the courts of record of the State within which such district courts are held, any rule of court to the contrary notwithstanding. (R. S. § 914.)

725. Laws of States as rules of decision.—The laws of the several States, except where the Constitution, treaties, or statutes of the United States otherwise require or provide, shall be regarded as rules of decision in trials at common law, in the courts of the United States, in cases where they apply. (R. S. § 721.)

726. Attachments as provided by State laws.—In common-law causes in the district courts the plaintiff shall be entitled to similar remedies, by attachment or other process, against the property of the defendant, which are now provided by the laws of the State in which such court is held for the courts thereof; and such district courts may, from time to time, by general rules, adopt such State laws as may be in force in the States where they are held in relation to attachments and other process. Similar preliminary affidavits or proofs, and similar security, as required by such State laws, shall be first furnished by the party seeking such attachment or other remedy. (R. S. § 915.)

727. Executions as provided by State laws.—The party recovering a judgment in any common-law cause in any district court, shall be entitled to similar remedies upon the same, by execution or otherwise, to reach the property of the judgment debtor, as are provided in like causes by the laws of the State in which such court is held, or by any such laws which may subsequently be enacted and adopted by general rules of such district court; and such courts may, from time to time, by general rules, adopt such State laws as may be in force in such State in relation to remedies upon judgments, as aforesaid, by execution or otherwise. (R. S. § 916.)

728. Rights and remedies of occupying claimants of land as given by State laws.—When an occupant of land, having color of title, in good faith has made valuable improvements thereon, and is, in the proper action, found not to be the rightful owner thereof, such occupant shall be entitled in the Federal courts to all the rights and remedies, and, upon instituting the proper proceedings, such relief as may be given or secured to him by the statutes of the State or Territory where the land lies, although the title of the plaintiff in the action may have been granted by the United States after said improvements were so made. (June 1, 1874, c. 200, 18 Stat. 50.)

729. Proceedings in vindication of civil rights.—The jurisdiction in civil and criminal matters conferred on the district courts by the provisions of chapter 3 of Title 8, and Title 18, for the protection of all persons in the United States in their civil rights, and for their vindication, shall be exercised and enforced in conformity with the laws of the United States, so far as such laws are suitable to carry the same into effect; but in all cases where they are not adapted to the object, or are deficient in the provisions necessary to furnish suitable remedies and punish offenses against law, the common law, as modified and changed by the constitution and statutes of the State wherein the court having jurisdiction of such civil or criminal cause is held, so far as the same is not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States, shall be extended to and govern the said courts in the trial and disposition of the cause, and, if it is of a criminal nature, in the infliction of punishment on the party found guilty. (R. S. § 722.)

730. Regulation of practice of district courts by Supreme Court.—The Supreme Court shall have power to prescribe, from time to time, and in any manner not inconsistent with any law of the United States, the forms of writs and other process, the modes of framing and filing proceedings and pleadings, of taking and obtaining evidence, of obtaining discovery, of proceeding to obtain relief, of drawing up, entering, and enrolling decrees, and of proceeding before trustees appointed by the court, and generally to regulate the whole practice, to be used, in suits in equity or admiralty, by the district courts. (R. S. § 917.)

731. Rules of practice in district courts.—The district courts may, from time to time, and in any manner not inconsistent with any law of the United States, or with any rule prescribed by the Supreme Court under section 730 of this title, make rules and orders directing the returning of writs and processes, the filing of pleadings, the taking of rules, the entering and making up of judgments by default, and other matters in vacation, and otherwise regulate their own practice as may be necessary or convenient for the advancement of justice and the prevention of delays in proceedings. (R. S. § 918.)

732. Suits for duties, imposts, taxes, penalties, or forfeitures.—All suits for the recovery of any duties, imposts, or taxes, or for the enforcement of any penalty or forfeiture provided by any act respecting imports or tonnage, or the registering and recording or enrolling and licensing of vessels, or the internal revenue, or direct taxes, and all suits arising under the postal laws, shall be brought in the name of the United States. (R. S. § 919.)

733. Consolidation of revenue seizures.—Whenever two or more things belonging to the same person are seized for an alleged violation of the revenue laws, the whole must be included in one suit; and if separate actions are prosecuted in such cases, the court shall consolidate them. (R. S. § 920.)

734. Orders to save costs; consolidation of causes of like nature.—When causes of a like nature or relative to the same question are pending before a court of the United States, or of any Territory, the court may make such orders and rules concerning proceedings therein as may be conformable to the usages of courts for avoiding unnecessary costs or delay in the administration of justice, and may consolidate said causes when it appears reasonable to do so. (R. S. § 921.)

735. Marshal or deputy as party in cause.—When the marshal or his deputy is a party in any cause, the writs and precepts therein shall be directed to such disinterested person as the court or any justice or judge thereof may appoint, and the person so appointed may execute and return them. (R. S. § 922.)

736. Seizure for forfeiture.—When any vessel, goods, wares, or merchandise are seized by any officer of the customs, and prosecuted for forfeiture by virtue of any law respecting the revenue, or the registering and recording, or the enrolling and licensing of vessels, the court shall cause fourteen days' notice to be given of such seizure and libel, by causing the substance of such libel, with the order of the court thereon, setting forth the time and place appointed for trial, to be inserted in some newspaper published near the place of seizure, and by posting up the same in the most public manner for the space of fourteen days, at or near the place of trial; and proclamation shall be made in such manner as the court shall direct. And if no person appears and claims such vessel, goods, wares, or merchandise, and gives bond to defend the prosecution thereof and to respond the cost in case he shall not support his claim, the court shall proceed to hear and determine the cause according to law. (R. S. § 923.)

737. Attachment in postal suits.—In all cases where debts are due from defaulting or delinquent postmasters, contractors, or other officers, agents, or employees of the Post Office Department, a warrant of attachment may issue against all real and personal property and legal and equitable rights belonging to such officer, agent, or employee, and his sureties, or either of them, in the following cases:

First. When such officer, agent, or employee, and his sureties, or either of them, is a nonresident of the district where such officer, agent, or employee was appointed, or has departed from such district for the purpose of permanently residing out of the same, or of defrauding the United States, or of avoiding the service of civil process.

Second. When such officer, agent, or employee, and his sureties, or either of them, has conveyed away, or is about to convey away his property, or any part thereof, or has removed or is about to remove the same or any part thereof from the district wherein it is situate, with intent to defraud the United States.

And when any such property has been removed, certified copies of the warrant may be sent to the marshal of the district into which the same has been removed, under which certified copies he may seize said property and convey it to some convenient point within the jurisdiction of the court from which the warrant originally issued. And alias warrants may be issued in such cases upon due application, and the validity of the warrant first issued shall continue until the return day thereof. (R. S. § 924.)

738. Same; application for warrant.—Application for such warrant of attachment may be made by any district or assistant district attorney, or any other person authorized by the Postmaster General, before the judge, or, in his absence, before the clerk of any court of the United States having original jurisdiction of the cause of action. And such application shall be made upon an affidavit of the applicant, or of some other credible person, stating the existence of either of the grounds of attachments enumerated in section 788 of this title, and upon production of legal evidence of the debt. (R. S. § 925.)

739. Same; issue of warrant.—Upon any such application and upon due order of any judge of the court, or, in his absence, without such order, the clerk shall issue a warrant for the attachment of all the property of any kind belonging to the person specified in the affidavit, which warrant shall be executed with all possible dispatch by the marshal, who shall take the property attached, if personal, into his custody, and hold the same subject to all interlocutory or final orders of the court. (R. S. § 926.)

740. Same; trial of ownership of property.—At any time within twenty days before the return day of such warrant, the party whose property is attached may, on giving notice to the district attorney of his intention, file a plea in abatement, traversing the allegations of the affidavit, or denying the ownership of the property attached to be in the defendants or either of them; in which case the court may, upon application of either party, order an immediate trial by jury of the issues raised by the affidavit and plea; but the parties may, by consent, waive a trial by jury, in which case the court shall decide the issues raised. And any party claiming ownership of the property attached and a specific return thereof, shall be confined to the remedy herein afforded, but his right to an action of trespass, or other action for damages, shall not be impaired hereby. (R. S. § 927.)

741. Same; investment of proceeds of attached property.—When the property attached is sold on any interlocutory order of the court or is producing any revenue, the money arising from such sale or revenue shall be invested in securities of the United States, under the order of the court, and all accretions shall be held subject to the orders of the same. (R. S. § 928.)

742. Same; publication of attachment.—Immediately upon the execution of any such warrant of attachment, the marshal shall cause due publication thereof to be made, in the case of absconding debtors for two months and of nonresidents for four months. The publication shall be made in some newspaper published in the district where the property is situate, and the details thereof shall be regulated by the order under which the warrant is issued. (R. S. § 929.)

743. Same; personal notice of attachment.—After the first publication of such notice of attachment as required by law, every person indebted to, or having possession of any property belonging to, the said defendants, or either of them, and having knowledge of such notice, shall account and answer for the amount of such debt and the value of such property; and any disposal or attempt to dispose of any such property, to the injury of the United States, shall be illegal and void. And when the person indebted to, or having possession of the property of, such defendants, or either of them, is known to the district attorney or marshal, such officer shall see that personal notice of the attachment is served upon such person, but the want of such notice shall not invalidate the attachment. (R. S. § 930.)

744. Same; discharge; bond.—Upon application of the party whose property has been attached, the court, or any judge thereof, may discharge the warrant of attachment as to the property of the applicant, provided such applicant shall execute to the United States a good and sufficient penal bond, in double the value of the property attached, to be approved by a judge of the court, and with condition for the return of said property, or to answer any judgment which may be rendered by the court in the premises. (R. S. § 931.)

745. Same; accrued rights not affected.—Nothing contained in sections 737 to 744 of this title shall be construed to limit or abridge, in any manner, such rights of the United States as have accrued or been allowed in any district under the former practice of, or the adoption of State laws by, the United States courts. (R. S. § 932.)

746. Attachments dissolved in conformity with State laws.—An attachment of property, upon process instituted in any court of the United States, to satisfy such judgment as may be recovered by the plaintiff therein, except in the cases mentioned in the preceding nine sections, shall be dissolved when any contingency occurs by which, according to the laws of the State where said court is held, such attachment would be dissolved upon like process instituted in the courts of said State. Nothing herein contained shall interfere with any priority of the United States in the payment of debts. (R. S. § 933.)

747. Replevy of property taken under revenue laws.—All property taken or detained by any officer or other person, under authority of any revenue law of the United States, shall be irrepleviable, and shall be deemed to be in the custody of the law, and subject only to the orders and decrees of the courts of the United States having jurisdiction thereof. (R. S. § 934.)

748. Garnishees in suits by United States against a corporation.—In any suit by the United States against a corporation for the recovery of money upon a bill, note, or other security, the debtors of the corporation may be summoned as garnishees; and it shall be the duty of any person so summoned to appear in open court and to depose, in writing, to the amount which he was indebted to the said corporation at the time of the service of the summons and at the time of making such deposition; and judgment may be entered in favor of the United States for the sum admitted by such garnishee to be due to the said corporation, in the same manner as if it had been due to the United States. No judgment shall be entered against any garnishee until after judgment has been rendered against the corporation defendant to the said action, nor until the sum in which the garnishee stands indebted is actually due. (R. S. § 935.)

749. Same; issue tendered on denial of indebtedness.—When any person summoned as garnishee deposes in open court that he is not, and was not at the time of the service of the summons, indebted to such corporation, an issue may be tendered by the United States upon such demand, and if, upon the trial of that issue, a verdict is rendered against the garnishee, judgment shall be entered in favor of the United States, pursuant to such verdict, with costs of suit. (R. S. § 936.)

750. Same; garnishee failing to appear.—If any person summoned as garnishee, as aforesaid, fails to appear at the term of the court to which he is summoned, he shall be subject to attachment for contempt of the court. (R. S. § 937.)

751. Property seized under customs laws; bond.—Upon the prayer of any claimant to the court, that any vessel, goods, wares, or merchandise, seized and prosecuted under any law respecting the revenue from imports or tonnage, or the registering and recording, or the enrolling and licensing of vessels, or any part thereof, should be delivered to him, the court shall appoint three proper persons to appraise such property, who shall be sworn in open court, or before a commissioner appointed by the district court to administer oaths to appraisers, for the faithful discharge of their duty; and the appraisement shall be made at the expense of the party on whose prayer it is granted. If, on the return of the appraisement, the claimant, with one or more sureties, to be approved by the court, shall execute a bond to the United States for the payment of a sum equal to the sum at which the property prayed to be delivered is appraised, and produce a certificate from the collector of the district where the trial is had, and of the naval officer thereof, if any there be, that the duties on the goods, wares, and merchandise, or tonnage duty on the vessel so claimed, have been paid or secured in like manner as if the same had been legally entered, the court shall, by rule, order such vessel, goods, wares, or merchandise to be delivered to such claimant; and the said bond shall be lodged with the proper officer of the court. If judgment passes in favor of the claimant, the court shall cause the said bond to be canceled: but if judgment passes against the claimant, as to the whole or any part of such vessel, goods, wares, or merchandise, and the claimant does not within twenty days thereafter pay into the court, or to the proper officer thereof, the amount of the appraised value of such vessel, goods, wares, or merchandise so condemned, with the costs, judgment shall be granted upon the bond, on motion in open court, without further delay. (R. S. § 938.)

752. Same; sale after condemnation.—All vessels, goods, wares, or merchandise which shall be condemned by virtue of any law respecting the revenue from imports or tonnage, or the registering and recording, or the enrolling and licensing of vessels, and for which bonds shall not have been given by the claimant, shall be sold by the marshal or other proper officer of the court in which condemnation shall be had, to the highest bidder, at public auction, by order of such court, and at such place as the court may appoint, giving at least fifteen days' notice (except in cases of perishable merchandise) in one or more of the public newspapers of the place where such sale shall be; or if no paper is published in such place, in one or more of the papers published in the nearest place thereto; for which advertising, a sum not exceeding $5 shall be paid. And the amount of such sales, deducting all proper charges, shall be paid within ten days after such sale by the person selling the same to the clerk or other proper officer of the court directing such sale, to be by him, after deducting the charges allowed by the court, paid to the collector of the district in which such seizure or forfeiture has taken place, as hereinbefore directed. (R. S. § 939.)

753. Bailing of property seized in vacation.—In any cause of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction, or other case of seizure, depending in any court of the United States, any judge of the said court, in vacation, shall have the same authority to order any vessel, or cargo, or other property to be delivered to the claimants, upon bail or bond, or to be sold when necessary, as the said court has in term time, and to appoint appraisers, and exercise every other incidental power necessary to the complete execution of the authority herein granted; and the recognizance of bail or bond, under such order, may be executed before the clerk upon the party's producing the certificate of the collector of the district, of the sufficiency of the security offered; and the same proceedings shall be had in case of said order of delivery or of sale, as are had in like cases when ordered in term time. Upon every such application, either for an order of delivery or of sale, the collector and the attorney of the district shall have reasonable notice in cases of the United States, and the party or counsel in all other cases. (R. S. § 940.)

754. Delivery bond in admiralty proceedings; further security; special bond.—When a warrant of arrest or other process in rem is issued in any cause of admiralty jurisdiction, except in cases of seizures for forfeiture under any law of the United States, the marshal shall stay the execution of such process, or discharge the property arrested if the process has been levied, on receiving from the claimant of the property a bond or stipulation in double the amount claimed by the libelant, with sufficient surety, to be approved by the judge of the court where the cause is pending, or, in his absence, by the collector of the port, conditioned to answer the decree of the court in such cause. Such bond or stipulation shall be returned to the court, and judgment thereon, against both the principal and sureties, may be recovered at the time of rendering the decree in the original cause. And the owner of any vessel may cause to be executed and delivered to the marshal a bond or stipulation, with sufficient surety, to be approved by the judge of the court in which he is marshal, conditioned to answer the decree of said court in all or any cases that shall thereafter be brought in said court against the said vessel, and thereupon the execution of all such process against said vessel shall be stayed so long as the amount secured by such bond or stipulation shall be at least double the aggregate amount claimed by the libelants in such suits which shall be begun and pending against said vessel; and like judgments and remedies may be had on said bond or stipulation as if a special bond or stipulation had been filed in each of said suits. The court may make such orders as may be necessary to carry this section into effect, and especially for the giving of proper notice of any such suit. Such bond or stipulation shall be indorsed by the clerk with a minute of the suits wherein process is so stayed, and further security may at any time be required by the court. If a special bond or stipulation in the particular cause shall be given under this section, the liability as to said cause on the general bond or stipulation shall cease. (R. S. § 941; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 441, 30 Stat. 1354.)

755. Special bail in suits for duties and penalties.—In all suits or prosecutions for the recovery of duties or pecuniary penalties prescribed by the laws of the United States, commenced in any State where, by the laws thereof, imprisonment for debt shall not have been abolished, the person against whom process is issued shall be held to special bail, subject to the rules which prevail in civil suits in which special bail is required. (R. S. § 942.)

756. Defendant giving bail in one district and committed in another.—When a defendant who has procured bail to respond to the judgment in a suit in any court of the United States in any district is afterward arrested in any other district and is committed to a jail, the use of which had been ceded to the United States for the custody of prisoners, the judge of the court wherein the suit in which the defendant has so procured bail is depending, shall, at the request of the bail, order that such defendant be held in said jail, in the custody of the marshal of the district in which it is. The said marshal, upon the delivery of such order, duly authenticated, shall receive such person into his custody, and thereupon be chargeable for an escape, and shall forthwith make a certificate, under his hand and seal, of such commitment, and transmit the same to the court from which the order issued, and, if required, shall make and deliver to such bail or to his attorney a duplicate thereof. Upon the return of said certificate, the court which made the said order, or any judge thereof, may direct that an exoneretur be entered upon the bailpiece, where special bail shall have been found, or otherwise discharge such bail. (R. S. § 943.)

757. Same; defendant held until judgment in first suit.—When a defendant is committed by virtue of the order provided in section 756 of this title, he shall, unless sooner discharged by law, be holden in jail until final judgment is rendered in the suit in which he procured bail as aforesaid and sixty days thereafter, if such judgment is rendered against him, in order that he may be charged in execution, which may, in such cases, be directed to and served by the marshal in whose custody he is. (R. S. § 944.)

758. Bail and affidavits; taking by commissioners.—Bail and affidavits, when required or allowed in any civil cause in any district court, may be taken by a commissioner of the district court for the district; and such acknowledgments of bail and affidavits shall have the same effect as if taken before any judge of such court. (R. S. § 945.)

759. Calling of bail in Kentucky.—When a bail bond is given for the appearance of any person to answer in the district court for the district of Kentucky, the clerk of such court shall call the party at the time he is bound to appear. If the party fails, the clerk shall enter such failure on his minutes, and on said entry judgment may afterward be made of record by the court; but if the party appears, the clerk shall take another bond, with sureties similar to the first, for further appearance at the next succeeding term of the court, and if the party fails to give such other bond and surety, he shall stand committed by order of the clerk until he complies. (R. S. § 946.)

760. Clerks may take bail de bene esse.—Recognizances of special bail may be taken de bene esse by the clerks of the district court, in the absence or in case of the disability of the judge, in any action depending in said court, where special bail is demandable. (R. S. § 947.)

761. Proceedings in suits against United States.—The course of procedure for the district courts and the court of claims in cases under section 41, paragraph 20, and section 250 of this title, in so far as applicable and not inconsistent with sections 762 to 765, and the procedure prescribed for the court of claims shall be in accordance with the established rules of said respective courts, and of such additions and modifications thereof as said courts may adopt. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 359, § 4, 24 Stat. 506; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 297, 36 Stat. 1168; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 13, 43 Stat. 941.)

762. Petition in suit against United States.—The plaintiff in any suit brought under the provisions of section 41, paragraph 20, of this title shall file a petition, duly verified with the clerk of the respective court having jurisdiction of the case, and in the district where the plaintiff resides. Such petition shall set forth the full name and residence of the plaintiff, the nature of his claim, and a succinct statement of the facts upon which the claim is based, the money or any other thing claimed, or the damages sought to be recovered and praying the court for a judgment or decree upon the facts and law. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 359, § 5, 24 Stat. 506.)

763. Same; service; appearance by district attorney.—The plaintiff shall cause a copy of his petition filed under section 762 of this title, to be served upon the district attorney of the United States in the district wherein suit is brought, and shall mail a copy of the same, by registered letter, to the Attorney General of the United States, and shall thereupon cause to be filed with the clerk of the court wherein suit is instituted an affidavit of such service and the mailing of such letter. It shall be the duty of the district attorney upon whom service of petition is made as aforesaid to appear and defend the interests of the Government in the suit, and within sixty days after the service of petition upon him, unless the time should be extended by order of the court made in the case to file a plea, answer, or demurrer on the part of the Government, and to file a notice of any counterclaim, set-off, claim for damages, or other demand or defense whatsoever of the Government in the premises. Should the district attorney neglect or refuse to file the plea, answer, demurrer, or defense, as required, the plaintiff may proceed with the case under such rules as the court may adopt in the premises; but the plaintiff shall not have judgment or decree for his claim, or any part thereof, unless he shall establish the same by proof satisfactory to the court. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 359, § 6, 24 Stat. 506.)

764. Opinion, findings, and conclusions in suit against United States.—It shall be the duty of the court to cause a written opinion to be filed in the cause, setting forth the specific findings by the court of the facts therein and the conclusions of the court upon all questions of law involved in the case, and to render judgment thereon. If the suit be in equity or admiralty, the court shall proceed with the same according to the rules of such courts. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 359, § 7, 24 Stat. 506.)

765. Judgment adverse to Government in suit against United States; appeal.—When the findings of fact and the law applicable thereto have been filed in any case as provided in section 763 of this title, and the judgment or decree is adverse to the Government, it shall be the duty of the district attorney to transmit to the Attorney General of the United States certified copies of all the papers filed in the cause, with a transcript of the testimony taken, the written findings of the court, and his written opinion as to the same; whereupon the Attorney General shall determine and direct whether an appeal or writ of error shall be taken or not; and when so directed the district attorney shall cause an appeal or writ of error to be perfected in accordance with the terms of the statutes and rules of practice governing the same. From the date of such final judgment or decree interest shall be computed thereon, at the rate of 4 per centum per annum, until the time when an appropriation is made for the payment of the judgment or decree. (Mar 3, 1887, c. 359, § 10, 24 Stat. 507; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 8, 43 Stat. 940.)

766. Partition suits where United States is tenant in common or joint tenant.—When any suit in equity is brought by any tenant in common or joint tenant owning an undivided interest in lands, where the United States is one of such tenants in common or joint tenants, against the United States alone or against the United States and any other of such owners, service shall be made on the United States by causing a copy of the bill filed to be served upon the district attorney of the district wherein the suit is brought, and by mailing a copy of the same by registered letter to the Attorney General of the United States; and the complainant in such bill shall file with the clerk of the court in which such bill is filed an affidavit of such service and of the mailing of such letter. It shall be the duty of the district attorney upon whom service of the bill is made as aforesaid to appear and defend the interests of the Government, and within sixty days after service upon him as hereinabove prescribed, unless the time shall be enlarged by order of the court made in the case, to file a plea, answer, or demurrer on the part of the Government, and the cause shall proceed as other cases for partition by courts of equity, and in making such partition the court shall be governed by the same principles of equity that control courts of equity in partition proceedings between private persons. Whenever in such suit the court shall order a sale of the property or any part thereof the Attorney General of the United States may, in his discretion, bid for the same in behalf of the United States. If the United States shall be the purchaser, the amount of the purchase money shall be paid from the Treasury of the United States upon a warrant drawn by the Secretary of the Treasury, on the requisition of the Attorney General. (May 17, 1898, c. 339, §§ 1, 2, 30 Stat. 416.)

767. Amendment of process.—Any district court may at any time, in its discretion, and upon such terms as it may deem just, allow an amendment of any process returnable to or before it, where the defect has not prejudiced, and the amendment will not injure the party against whom such process issues. (R. S. § 948.)

768. Priority of cases where a State is party.—When a State is a party, or the execution of the the revenue laws of a State is enjoined or stayed, in any suit in a court of the United States, such State or the party claiming under the revenue laws of a State, the execution whereof is enjoined or stayed, shall be entitled, on showing sufficient reason, to have the cause heard at any time after it is docketed, in preference to any civil cause pending in such court between private parties. (R. S. § 949.)

769. Notice of case for trial.—In all civil actions in the courts of the United States either party may notice the same for trial. (R. S. § 950.)

770. Trial of issues of fact; by jury; exceptions.—The trial of issues of fact in the district courts, in all causes except cases in equity and cases of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction, and except as otherwise provided in proceeding in bankruptcy, shall be by jury. In causes of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction relating to any matter of contract or tort arising upon or concerning any vessel of twenty tons burden or upward, enrolled and licensed for the coasting trade, and at the time employed in the business of commerce and navigation between places in different States and Territories upon the lakes and navigable waters connecting the lakes, the trial of issues of fact shall be by jury when either party requires it. (R. S. §§ 566, 648.)

771. Same; in admiralty causes.—The district courts of the United States, in deciding causes of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction on the instance side of the court, shall find the facts and the conclusions of law upon which it renders its judgments or decrees, and shall state the facts and conclusions of law separately. And in finding the facts, as before provided, said court may, upon the consent of the parties who shall have appeared and put any matter of fact in issue, and subject to such general rules in the premises as shall be made and provided from time to time, impanel a jury of not less than five and not more than twelve persons, to whom shall be submitted the issues of fact in such cause, under the direction of the court, as in cases at common law. And the finding of such jury, unless set aside for lawful cause, shall be entered of record, and stand as the finding of the court, upon which judgment shall be entered according to law. (Feb. 16, 1875, c. 77, § 1, 18 Stat. 315; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 1, 43 Stat. 938.)

772. Same; in equity in patent causes.—District courts, when sitting in equity for the trial of patent causes, may impanel a jury of not less than five and not more than twelve persons, subject to such general rules in the premises as may, from time to time, be made by the Supreme Court, and submit to them such questions of fact arising in such cause as such district court shall deem expedient and the verdict of such jury shall be treated and proceeded upon in the same manner and with the same effect as in the case of issues sent from chancery to a court of law and returned with such findings. (Feb. 16, 1875, c. 77, § 2, 18 Stat. 316.)

773. Same; by court.—Issues of fact in civil cases in any district court may be tried and determined by the court, without the intervention of a jury, whenever the parties, or their attorneys of record, file with the clerk a stipulation in writing waiving a jury. The finding of the court upon the facts, which may be either general or special, shall have the same effect as the verdict of a jury. (R. S. § 649.)

774. Suits by United States against individuals; credits.—In suits brought by the United States against individuals, no claim for a credit shall be admitted, upon trial, except such as appear to have been presented to the accounting officers of the Treasury, for their examination, and to have been by them disallowed, in whole or in part, unless it is proved to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant is, at the time of the trial, in possession of vouchers not before in his power to procure, and that he was prevented from exhibiting a claim for such credit at the Treasury by absence from the United States or by some unavoidable accident. (R. S. § 951.)

775. Suits under postal laws; credits.—No claim for a credit shall be allowed upon the trial of any suit for delinquency against a postmaster, contractor, or other officer, agent, or employee of the Post Office Department, unless the same has been presented to the General Accounting Office and by it disallowed, in whole or in part, or unless it is proved to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant is, at the time of trial, in possession of vouchers not before in his power to procure, and that he was prevented from exhibiting to the General Accounting Office a claim for such credit by some unavoidable accident. (R. S. § 952; June 10, 1921, c. 118, § 310, 42 Stat. 25.)

776. Bill of exceptions; authentication; signing of by judge.—A bill of exceptions allowed in any cause shall be deemed sufficiently authenticated if signed by the judge of the court in which the cause was tried, or by the presiding judge thereof if more than one judge sat at the trial of the cause, without any seal of the court or judge annexed thereto. And in case the judge before whom the cause has heretofore been or may hereafter be tried is, by reason of death, sickness, or other disability, unable to hear and pass upon the motion for a new trial and allow and sign said bill of exceptions, then the judge who succeeds such trial judge, or any other judge of the court in which the cause was tried, holding such court thereafter, if the evidence in such cause has been or is taken in stenographic notes, or if the said judge is satisfied by any other means that he can pass upon such motion and allow a true bill of exceptions, shall pass upon said motion and allow and sign such bill of exceptions; and his ruling upon such motion and allowance and signing of such bill of exceptions shall be as valid as if such ruling and allowance and signing of such bill of exceptions had been made by the judge before whom such cause was tried; but in case said judge is satisfied that owing to the fact that he did not preside at the trial, or for any other cause, that he can not fairly pass upon said motion, and allow and sign said bill of exceptions, then he may in his discretion grant a new trial to the party moving therefor. (R. S. § 953; June 5, 1900, c. 717, § 1, 31 Stat. 270.)

777. Defects of form; amendments.—No summons, writ, declaration, return, process, judgment, or other proceedings in civil causes, in any court of the United States, shall be abated, arrested, quashed, or reversed for any defect or want of form; but such court shall proceed and give judgment according as the right of the cause and matter in law shall appear to it, without regarding any such defect, or want of form, except those which, in cases of demurrer, the party demurring specially sets down, together with his demurrer, as the cause thereof; and such court shall amend every such defect and want of form, other than those which the party demurring so expresses; and may at any time permit either of the parties to amend any defect in the process or pleadings, upon such conditions as it shall, in its discretion and by its rules, prescribe. (R. S. § 954.)

778. Death of parties; substitution of executor or administrator.—When either of the parties, whether plaintiff or petitioner or defendant, in any suit in any court of the United States, dies before final judgment, the executor or administrator of such deceased party may, in case the cause of action survives by law, prosecute or defend any such suit to final judgment. The defendant shall answer accordingly, and the court shall hear and determine the cause and render judgment for or against the executor or administrator, as the case may require. And if such executor or administrator, having been duly served with a scire facias from the office of the clerk of the court where the suit is depending twenty days beforehand, neglects or refuses to become party to the suit, the court may render judgment against the estate of the deceased party in the same manner as if the executor or administrator had voluntarily made himself a party. The executor or administrator who becomes a party as aforesaid shall, upon motion to the court, be entitled to a continuance of the suit until the next term of said court.

The provisions of this section shall apply to suits in equity and in admiralty as well as to suits at law, and the jurisdiction of all courts of the United States shall extend to and over executors and administrators of any party, who dies before final judgment or decree, appointed under the laws of any State or Territory of the United States, and such courts shall have jurisdiction within two years from the date of the death of the party to the suit to issue its scire facias to executors and administrators appointed in any State or Territory of the United States which may be served in any judicial district by the marshal thereof. No executor or administrator shall be made a party unless such service is made before final settlement and distribution of the estate of said deceased party to the suit.

This section shall apply to suits in which any party has deceased prior to November 23, 1921, as well as to suits in which any party may have died thereafter or may die hereafter. (R. S. § 955; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 142, §§ 1, 2, Stat. 324; Dec. 22, 1921, c. 18, 42 Stat. 352.)

779. Death of one of several plaintiffs or defendants.—If there are two or more plaintiffs or defendants, in a suit where the cause of action survives to the surviving plaintiff or against the surviving defendant, and one or more of them dies, the writ or action shall not be thereby abated; but, such death being suggested upon the record, the action shall proceed at the suit of the surviving plaintiff against the surviving defendant. (R. S. § 956.)

780. Survival of actions, suits, or proceedings—

(a) By or against officer of United States, District of Columbia, Canal Zone, or territory or insular possession of United States, or of county, and so forth, of such territory or insular possession.—Where, during the pendency of an action, suit, or other proceeding brought by or against an officer of the United States, or of the District of Columbia, or the Canal Zone, or of a Territory or an insular possession of the United States, or of a county, city, or other governmental agency of such Territory or insular possession, and relating to the present or future discharge of his official duties, such officer dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold such office, it shall be competent for the court wherein the action, suit, or proceeding is pending, whether the court be one of first instance or an appellate tribunal, to permit the cause to be continued and maintained by or against the successor in office of such officer, if within six months after his death or separation from the office it be satisfactorily shown to the court that there is a substantial need for so continuing and maintaining the cause and obtaining an adjudication of the questions involved.

(b) By or against officer of State, county, city, and so forth.—Similar proceedings may be had and taken where an action, suit, or proceeding brought by or against an officer of a State, or of a county, city, or other governmental agency of a State, is pending in a court of the United States at the time of the officer's death or separation from the office.

(c) Notice of application for substitution of parties.—Before a substitution under this section is made, the party or officer to be affected, unless expressly consenting thereto, must be given reasonable notice of the application therefor and accorded an opportunity to present any objection which he may have. (Feb. 8, 1899, c. 121, 30 Stat. 822; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 11, 43 Stat. 941.)

781. Delinquents for public money; judgment.—When suit is brought by the United States against any revenue officer or other person accountable for public money, who neglects or refuses to pay into the Treasury the sum or balance reported to be due to the United States, upon the adjustment of his account it shall be the duty of the court to grant judgment at the return term, upon motion, unless the defendant, in open court (the United States attorney being present), makes and subscribes an oath that he is equitably entitled to credits which had been, previous to the commencement of the suit, submitted to the accounting officers of the Tresaury, and rejected; specifying in the affidavit each particular claim so rejected, and that he can not then safely come to trial. If the court, when such oath is made, subscribed, and filed, is thereupon satisfied, a continuance until the next succeeding term may be granted. Such continuance may also be granted when the suit is brought upon a bond or other sealed instrument, and the defendant pleads non est factum, or makes a motion to the court, verifying such plea or motion by his oath, and the court thereupon requires the production of the original bond, contract, or other paper certified in the affidavit. And no continuance shall be granted except as herein provided. (R. S. § 957.)

782. Suits under postal laws; judgment; continuance.—In suits arising under the postal laws the court shall proceed to trial, and render judgment at the return term; but whenever service of process is not made at least twenty days before the return day of such term, the defendant is entitled to one continuance, if, on his statement, the court deems it expedient; and if he makes affidavit that he has a claim against the Post Office Department, which has been submitted to and disallowed by the General Accounting Office, specifying such claim in his affidavit, and that he could not be prepared for trial at such term for want of evidence, the court, if satisfied thereof, may grant a continuance until the next term. (R. S. § 958; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 310, 42 Stat. 25.)

783. Suits on debentures; judgment; continuance.—In all suits for the recovery of money upon debentures issued by the collectors of customs, under any act for the collection of duties, it shall be the duty of the court to grant judgment at the return term, unless the defendant, in open court, exhibits some plea, on oath, by which the court is satisfied that a continuance is necessary to the attainment of justice; in which case, and not otherwise, a continuance until the next term may be granted. (R. S. § 959.)

784. Suits on bonds for recovery of duties; judgment; continuance.—When suit is brought on any bond for the recovery of duties due to the United States, it shall be the duty of the court to grant judgment at the return term, upon motion, unless the defendant, in open court (the United States attorney being present) makes oath that an error has been committed in the liquidation of the duties demanded upon such bond, specifying the errors alleged to have been committed, and that the same have been notified in writing to the collector of the district before the said return term; whereupon a continuance may be granted until the next term, and no longer, if the court is satisfied that such continuance is necessary for the attainment of justice. (R. S. § 960.)

785. Suit to recover forfeiture in bond.—In all suits brought to recover the forfeiture annexed to any articles of agreement, covenant, bond, or other specialty, where the forfeiture, breach, or nonperformance appears by the default or confession of the defendant, or upon demurrer, the court shall render judgment for the plaintiff to recover so much as is due according to equity. And when the sum for which judgment should be rendered is uncertain, it shall, if either of the parties request it, be assessed by a jury. (R. S. § 961.)

786. Judgment for duties; collected in coin.—In all suits by the United States for the recovery of duties upon imports, or of penalties for the nonpayment thereof, the judgment shall recite that it is rendered for duties, and such judgment, with interest thereon, and costs, shall be payable in the coin by law receivable for duties; and the execution issued thereon shall set forth that the recovery is for duties, and shall require the marshal to satisfy the same in the coin by law receivable for duties; and in case of levy upon and sale of the property of the judgment debtor, the marshal shall refuse payment from any purchaser at such sale in any other money than that specified in the execution. (R. S. § 962.)

787. Interest; in suits on bonds for recovery of duties.—Upon all bonds, on which suits are brought for the recovery of duties, interest shall be allowed, at the rate of 6 per centum a year, from the time when said bonds became due. (R. S. § 963.)

788. Same; in suits for balances due Post Office Department.—In all suits for balances due to the Post Office Department, interest thereon shall be recovered, from the time of the default, at the rate of 6 per centum per year. (R. S. § 964.)

789. Same; in suits on debentures.—In suits upon debentures, issued by the collectors of the customs under any act for the collection of duties, interest shall be allowed, at the rate of 6 per centum per annum, from the time when such debenture became due and payable. (R. S. § 965.)

790. Final record in equity and admiralty.—In equity and admiralty causes, only the process, pleadings, and decree, and such orders and memorandums as may be necessary to show the jurisdiction of the court and regularity of the proceedings, shall be entered upon the final record. (R. S. § 750.)

791. Penalties and forfeitures; under laws of United States.—No suit or prosecution for any penalty or forfeiture, pecuniary or otherwise, accruing under the laws of the United States, shall be maintained, except in cases where it is otherwise specially provided, unless the same is commenced within five years from the time when the penalty or forfeiture accrued: Provided, That the person of the offender, or the property liable for such penalty or forfeiture, shall, within the same period, be found within the United States; so that the proper process therefor may be instituted and served against such person or property. (R. S. § 1047.)

JUDGMENTS, COSTS, EXECUTIONS, AND MONEYS PAID INTO COURT

811. Interest on judgments.—Interest shall be allowed on all judgments in civil causes, recovered in a district court, and may be levied by the marshal under process of execution issued thereon, in all cases where, by the law of the State in which such court is held, interest may be levied under process of execution on judgments recovered in the courts of such State; and it shall be calculated from the date of the judgment, at such rate as is allowed by law on judgments recovered in the courts of such State. (R. S. § 966.)

812. Judgments; liens of.—Judgments and decrees rendered in a district court of the United States within any State, shall be liens on property throughout such State in the same manner and to the same extent and under the same conditions only as if such judgments and decrees had been rendered by a court of general jurisdiction of such State. Whenever the laws of any State require a judgment or decree of a State court to be registered, recorded, docketed, indexed, or any other thing to be done, in a particular manner, or in a certain office or county, or parish in the State of Louisiana before a lien shall attach, this section and section 813 of this chapter shall be applicable therein whenever and only whenever the laws of such State shall authorize the judgments and decrees of the United States courts to be registered, recorded, docketed, indexed, or otherwise conformed to the rules and requirements relating to the judgments and decrees of the courts of the State. (Aug. 1, 1888, c. 729, § 1, 25 Stat. 357; Aug. 17, 1912, c. 300, 37 Stat. 311.)

813. Indices of judgment debtors to be kept by clerks.—The clerks of the several courts of the United States shall prepare and keep in their respective offices complete and convenient indices of all judgment debtors under decrees, judgments, or orders of said courts, and such indices and judgments shall at all times be open to the inspection and examination of the public. (Aug. 1, 1888, c. 729, § 2, 25 Stat. 357; Feb. 7, 1925, c. 149, 43 Stat. 813.)

814. Judgments cease to be liens, when.—Judgments and decrees rendered in a district court, within any State, shall cease to be liens on real estate or chattels real, in the same manner and at like periods as judgments and decrees of the courts of such State cease, by law, to be liens thereon. (R. S. § 967.)

815. Costs; plaintiff not entitled to, when.—When, in a district court, a plaintiff in an action at law originally brought there, or a petitioner in equity, other than the United States, recovers less than the sum or value of $500, exclusive of costs, in a case which can not be brought there unless the amount in dispute, exclusive of costs, exceeds said sum or value; or a libelant, upon his own appeal, recovers less than the sum or value of $300, exclusive of costs, he shall not be allowed, but, at the discretion of the court, may be adjudged to pay, costs. (R. S. § 968.)

816. Costs of keeping vessels or other property attached or libeled in admiralty.—There shall be paid to the marshal any necessary cost of keeping vessels or other property attached or libeled in admiralty in such amount as the court, on petition setting forth the facts under oath, may allow. (June 1, 1922, c. 204, Title II, 42 Stat. 615; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 21, Title II, 42 Stat. 1083; May 28, 1924, c. 204, Title II, 43 Stat. 220; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title II, 43 Stat. 1029.)

817. Costs; in internal revenue suits.—When a suit for the recovery of any penalty or forfeiture accruing under any law providing internal revenue is brought upon information received from any person other than a collector, deputy collector, or inspector of internal revenue, the United States shall not be subject to any costs of suit. (R. S. § 969.)

818. Same; seizures; claimant not entitled to, when.—When, in any prosecution commenced on account of the seizure of any vessel, goods, wares, or merchandise, made by any collector or other officer, under any act of Congress authorizing such seizure, judgment is rendered for the claimant, but it appears to the court that there was reasonable cause of seizure, the court shall cause a proper certificate thereof to be entered, and the claimant shall not, in such case, be entitled to costs, nor shall the person who made the seizure, nor the prosecutor, be liable to suit or judgment on account of such suit or prosecution: Provided, That the vessel, goods, wares, or merchandise be, after judgment, forthwith returned to such claimant or his agent. (R. S. § 970.)

819. Same; seizures; double costs.—If, in any suit against an officer or other person executing or aiding or assisting in the seizure of goods, under any act providing for or regulating the collection of duties on imports or tonnage, the plaintiff is nonsuited, or judgment passed against him, the defendant shall recover double costs. (R. S. § 971.)

820. Same; copyright suits.—In all recoveries under the copyright laws, either for damages, forfeitures, or penalties, full costs shall be allowed thereon. (R. S. § 972.)

821. Same; infringement of patent; disclaimer.—When judgment or decree is rendered for the plaintiff or complainant, in any suit at law or in equity, for the infringement of a part of a patent, in which it appears that the patentee, in his specification, claimed to be the original and first inventor or discoverer of any material or substantial part of the thing patented, of which he was not the original and first inventor, no costs shall be recovered, unless the proper disclaimer, as provided by the patent laws, has been entered at the Patent Office before the suit was brought. (R. S. § 973.)

822. Same; fines or forfeitures.—When judgment is rendered against the defendant in a prosecution for any fine or forfeiture incurred under a statute of the United States, he shall be subject to the payment of costs; and on every conviction for any other offense not capital, the court may, in its discretion, award that the defendant shall pay the costs of the prosecution. (R. S. § 974.)

823. Same; when recoverable by defendant in prosecution; exception.—If any informer or plaintiff on a penal statute, to whom the penalty or any part thereof, if recovered, is directed to accrue, discontinues his suit or prosecution, or is nonsuited therein, or if upon trial judgment is rendered in favor of the defendant, the court shall award to the defendant his costs, unless such informer or plaintiff is an officer of the United States specially authorized to commence such prosecution, and the court, at the trial in open court, certifies upon the record that there was reasonable cause for commencing the same; in which case no costs shall be adjudged to the defendant. (R. S. § 975.)

824. Fees of clerk, marshal, or attorney; when payable by informer.—If any informer on a penal statute, to whom the penalty or any part thereof, if recovered, is directed to accrue, discontinues his suit or prosecution, or is nonsuited therein, or if upon trial judgment is rendered in favor of the defendant, such informer shall be alone liable to the clerk, marshal, and attorney for the fees of such prosecution, unless he is an officer of the United States whose duty it is to commence such prosecution, and the court certifies that there was reasonable cause for commencing the same; in which case the United States shall be responsible for such fees. (R. S. § 976.)

825. Costs; several actions.—If several actions or processes are instituted, in a court of the United States or one of the Territories, against persons who might legally be joined in one action or process touching the matter in dispute, the party pursuing the same shall not recover, on all of the judgments therein which may be rendered in his favor, the costs of more than one action or process, unless special cause for said several actions or processes is satisfactorily shown on motion in open court. (R. S. § 977.)

826. Same; several libels against vessel and cargo.—When proceedings are had before a court of the United States or of the Territories, on several libels against any vessel and cargo, which might legally be joined in one libel, there shall not be allowed thereon more costs than on one libel, unless special cause for libeling the vessel and cargo separately is satisfactorily shown on motion in open court. And in proceedings on several libels or informations against any cargo, or parts of cargo, or merchandise seized as forfeited for the same cause, there shall not be allowed more costs than would be lawful on one libel or information, whatever may be the number of owners or consignees therein concerned. But allowance may be made on one libel or information for the costs incidental to several claims. (R. S. § 978.)

827. Same; payment before possession of vessel.—When judgment is rendered in favor of the claimant of any vessel or other property seized on behalf of the United States, and libeled or informed against as forfeited under any law thereof, he shall be entitled to possession of the same when his own costs are paid. (R. S. § 979.)

828. Witness fees before commissioner; taxation.—In no case shall the fees of more than four witnesses be taxed against the United States, in the examination of any criminal case before a United States commissioner, unless their materiality and importance are first approved and certified to by the district attorney for the district in which the examination is had; and such taxation shall be subject to revision, as in other cases. (R. S. § 981.)

829. Costs; attorney liable for, when.—If any attorney, proctor, or other person admitted to conduct causes in any court of the United States, or of any Territory, appears to have multiplied the proceedings in any cause before such court, so as to increase costs unreasonably and vexatiously, he shall be required, by order of the court, to satisfy any excess of costs so increased. (R. S. § 982.)

830. Same; bill of; taxation.—The bill of fees of the clerk, marshal, and attorney, and the amount paid printers and witnesses, and lawful fees for exemplifications and copies of papers necessarily obtained for use on trials in cases where by law costs are recoverable in favor of the prevailing party, shall be taxed by a judge or clerk of the court, and be included in and form a portion of a judgment or decree against the losing party. Such taxed bills shall be filed with the papers in the cause. (R. S. § 983.)

831. Same; bill of; sworn to.—Before any bill of costs shall be taxed by any judge or other officer, or allowed by any officer of the Treasury, for services of clerks, marshals, commissioners, or district attorneys, the party claiming such bill shall prove by his own oath, or that of some other person having a knowledge of the facts, to be attached to such bill, and filed therewith, that the services charged therein have been actually and necessarily performed, as therein stated. (R. S. § 984.)

832. Suits, and so forth, by poor persons; prepayment of fees and costs.—Any citizen of the United States entitled to commence any suit or action, civil or criminal, in any court of the United States, may, upon the order of the court, commence and prosecute or defend to conclusion any suit or action, or a writ of error or an appeal to the circuit court of appeals, or to the Supreme Court in such suit or action, including all appellate proceedings, unless the trial court shall certify in writing that in the opinion of the court such appeal or writ of error is not taken in good faith, without being required to prepay fees or costs or for the printing of the record in the appellate court or give security therefor, before or after bringing suit or action, or upon suing out a writ of error or appealing, upon filing in said court a statement under oath in writing, that because of his poverty he is unable to pay the costs of said suit or action or of such writ of error or appeal, or to give security for the same, and that he believes that he is entitled to the redress he seeks in such suit or action or writ of error or appeal, and setting forth briefly the nature of his alleged cause of action, or appeal. In any criminal case the court may, upon the filing in said court of the affidavit hereinbefore mentioned, direct that the expense of printing the record on appeal or writ of error be paid by the United States, and the same shall be paid when authorized by the Attorney General. (July 20, 1892, c. 209, § 1, 27 Stat. 252; June 25, 1910, c. 435, 36 Stat. 866; June 27, 1922, c. 246, 42 Stat. 666.)

833. Same; false swearing in affidavit of poverty, perjury.—After any such suit or action shall have been brought, the plaintiff may answer and avoid a demand for fees or security for costs by filing a like affidavit, and willful false swearing in any affidavit provided for in this section or section 832 of this title, shall be punishable as perjury is in other cases. (July 20, 1892, c. 209, § 2, 27 Stat. 252.)

834. Same; process; witnesses.—The officers of court shall issue, serve all process, and perform all duties in such cases, and witnesses shall attend as in other cases, and the plaintiff shall have the same remedies as are provided by law in other cases. (July 20, 1892, c. 209, § 3, 27 Stat. 252.)

835. Same; assignment of attorney; dismissal of cause.—The court may request any attorney of the court to represent such poor person, if it deems the cause worthy of a trial, and may dismiss any such cause so brought if it be made to appear that the allegation of poverty is untrue, or if said court be satisfied that the alleged cause of action is frivolous or malicious. (July 20, 1892, c. 209, § 4, 27 Stat. 252.)

836. Same; judgment for costs.—Judgment may be rendered for costs at the conclusion of the suit as in other cases: Provided, That the United States shall not be liable for any of the costs thus incurred. (July 20, 1892, c. 209, § 5, 27 Stat. 252.)

837. Suits by seamen without prepayment of or bond for costs.—Courts of the United States, including appellate courts, hereafter shall be open to seamen, without furnishing bonds or prepayment of or making deposit to secure fees or costs, for the purpose of entering and prosecuting suit or suits in their own name and for their own benefit for wages or salvage and to enforce laws made for their health and safety. (July 12, 1917, c. 27, § 1, 40 Stat. 157; July 1, 1918, c. 113, § 1, 40 Stat. 683.)

838. Executions; run in all districts of State.—All writs of execution upon judgments or decrees obtained in a district court, in any State which is divided into two or more districts, may run and be executed in any part of such State; but shall be issued from, and made returnable to, the court wherein the judgment was obtained. (R. S. § 985.)

839. Same; run in every State and Territory.—All writs of execution upon judgments obtained for the use of the United States, in any court thereof, in one State, may run and be executed in any other State, or in any Territory, but shall be issued from and made returnable to, the court wherein the judgment was obtained. (R. S. § 986.)

840. Same; stay on conditions.—When a district court enters judgment in a civil action, either upon a verdict or on a finding of the court upon the facts, in cases where such finding is allowed, execution may, on motion of either party, at the discretion of the court, and on such conditions for the security of the adverse party as it may judge proper, be stayed forty-two days from the time of entering judgment, to give time to file in the clerk's office of said court a petition for a new trial. If such petition is filed within said term of forty-two days, with a certificate thereon from any judge of such court that he allows it to be filed, which certificate he may make or refuse at his discretion, execution shall, of course, be further stayed to the next session of said court. If a new trial be granted, the former judgment shall be thereby rendered void. (R. S. § 987.)

841. Same; stay of one term.—In any State where judgments are liens upon the property of the defendant, and where, by the laws of such State, defendants are entitled, in the courts thereof, to a stay of execution for one term or more, defendants in actions in the courts of the United States, held therein, shall be entitled to a stay of execution for one term. (R. S. § 988.)

842. Same; against officers of revenue in cases of probable cause.—When a recovery is had in any suit or proceeding against a collector or other officer of the revenue for any act done by him, or for the recovery of any money exacted by or paid to him and by him paid into the Treasury, in the performance of his official duty, and the court certifies that there was probable cause for the act done by the collector or other officer, or that he acted under the directions of the Secretary of the Treasury, or other proper officer of the Government, no execution shall issue against such collector or other officer, but the amount so recovered shall, upon final judgment, be provided for and paid out of the proper appropriation from the Treasury. (R. S. § 989.)

843. Imprisonment for debt.—No person shall be imprisoned for debt in any State, on process issuing from a court of the United States, where, by the laws of such State, imprisonment for debt has been or shall be abolished. And all modifications, conditions, and restrictions upon imprisonment for debt, provided by the laws of any State, shall be applicable to the process issuing from the courts of the United States to be executed therein; and the same course of proceedings shall be adopted therein as may be adopted in the courts of such State. (R. S. § 990.)

844. Same; discharge according to State laws.—When any person is arrested or imprisoned in any State, on mesne process or execution issued from any court of the United States, in any civil action, he shall be entitled to discharge from such arrest or imprisonment in the same manner as if he were so arrested and imprisoned on like process from the courts of such State. The same oath may be taken, and the same notice thereof shall be required, as may be provided by the laws of such State, and the same course of proceedings shall be adopted as may be adopted in the courts thereof. But all such proceedings shall be had before one of the commissioners of the circuit court for the district where the defendant is so held. (R. S. § 991.)

845. Same; jail limits.—Persons imprisoned on process issuing from any court of the United States in civil actions, as well at the suit of the United States as at the suit of any person, shall be entitled to the same privileges of the yards of the respective jails as persons confined in like cases on process from the courts of the respective States are entitled to, and under the like regulations and restrictions. (R. S. § 992.)

846. Fieri facias; appraisal of goods; appraisers.—When it is required by the laws of any State that goods taken in execution on a writ of fieri facias shall be appraised, before the sale thereof, the appraisers appointed under the authority of the State may appraise goods taken in execution on a fieri facias issued out of any court of the United States, in the same manner as if such writ had issued out of a court of such State. And the marshal, in whose custody such goods may be, shall summon the appraisers, in the same manner as the sheriff is, by the laws of such State, required to summon them; and if the appraisers, being duly summoned, fail to attend and perform the duties required of them, the marshal may proceed to sell such goods without an appraisement. When such appraisers attend they shall be entitled to the like fees as in cases of appraisements under the laws of the State. (R. S. § 993.)

847. Sales; real property under order or decree.—All real estate or any interest in land sold under any order or decree of any United States court shall be sold at public sale at the courthouse of the county, parish, or city in which the property, or the greater part thereof, is located, or upon the premises, as the court rendering such order or decree of sale may direct. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 225, § 1, 27 Stat. 751.)

848. Same; personal property under order or decree.—All personal property sold under any order or decree of any court of the United States shall be sold as provided in section 847 of this title, unless in the opinion of the court rendering such order or decree, it would be best to sell it in some other manner. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 225, § 2, 27 Stat. 751.)

849. Same; necessity of notice.—No sale of real estate under any order, judgment, or decree of any United States court shall be had without previous publication of notices of such proposed sale being ordered and had once a week for at least four weeks prior to such sale in at least one newspaper printed, regularly issued and having a general circulation in the county and State where the real estate proposed to be sold is situated, if such there be. If said property shall be situated in more than one county or State, such notice shall be published in such of the counties where said property is situated, as the court may direct. Said notice shall, among other things, describe the real estate to be sold. The court may, in its discretion, direct the publication of the notice of sale herein provided for to be made in such other papers as may seem proper. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 225, § 3, 27 Stat. 751.)

850. Same; death of marshal after levy or after sale.—When a marshal dies, or is removed from office, or the term of his commission expires, after he has taken in execution, under process from a court of the United States, any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, and before sale or other final disposition thereof, the like process shall issue to the succeeding marshal, and the same proceeding shall be had as if such marshal had not died or been removed, or the term of his commission had not expired. And when a marshal dies or is removed from office, or the term of his commission expires, after he has sold any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, under process from a court of the United States, and before a deed for the same is executed by him to the purchaser, such court may, on application by the purchaser, or by the plaintiff at whose suit the sale was made, setting forth the case and the reason why the title was not perfected by said marshal, order the marshal for the time being to perfect the title and execute a deed to the purchaser, upon his paying the purchase money and costs remaining unpaid. (R. S. § 994.)

851. Moneys paid into court; deposit.—All moneys paid into any court of the United States, or received by the officers thereof, in any cause pending or adjudicated in such court, shall be forthwith deposited with the Treasurer, or a designated depositary of the United States, in the name and to the credit of such court. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the delivery of any such money upon security, according to agreement of parties, under the direction of the court. (R. S. § 995; May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 654.)

852. Same; withdrawal.—No money deposited as aforesaid shall be withdrawn except by order of the judge or judges of said court, respectively, in term or in vacation, to be signed by such judge or judges, and to be entered and certified of record by the clerk; and every such order shall state the cause in or on acount of which it is drawn.

In every case in which the right to withdraw money so deposited has been adjudicated or is not in dispute and such money has remained so deposited for at least five years unclaimed by the person entitled thereto, it shall be the duty of the judge or judges of said court, or its successor, to cause such money to be deposited in the Treasury of the United States, in the name and to the credit of the United States. Any person or persons or any corporation or company entitled to any such money may, on petition to the court from which the money was received, or its successor, and upon notice to the United States attorney and full proof of right thereto, obtain an order of court directing the payment of such money to the claimant, and the money deposited as aforesaid shall constitute and be a permanent appropriation for payments in obedience to such orders. (R. S. § 996; Feb. 19, 1897, c. 265, § 3, 29 Stat. 578; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 224, 36 Stat. 1088.)

PROCEDURE ON ERROR AND APPEAL

861. Dismissal of appeal or writ of error because of error in procedure.—No court having power to review a judgment or decree of another shall dismiss a writ of error solely because an appeal should have been taken, or dismiss an appeal solely because a writ of error should have been sued out; but where such error occurs the same shall be disregarded and the court shall proceed as if in that regard its power to review were properly invoked. (Sept. 6, 1916, c. 448, § 4, 39 Stat. 727; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 10, 43 Stat. 941.)

862. Removal of causes by writ of error.—There shall be annexed to and returned with any writ of error for the removal of a cause, at the day and place therein mentioned, an authenticated transcript of the record, an assignment of errors, and a prayer for reversal, with a citation to the adverse party. (R. S. § 997.)

863. Transcripts on appeals.—Upon the appeal of any cause in equity, or of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction, or of prize or no prize, a transcript of the record, as directed by law to be made, and copies of the proofs, and of such entries and papers on file as may be necessary on the hearing of the appeal, shall be transmitted to the Supreme Court. Either the court below or the Supreme Court may order any original document or other evidence to be sent up, in addition to the copy of the record, or in lieu of a copy of a part thereof. And on such appeals no new evidence shall be received in the Supreme Court, except in admiralty and prize causes. (R. S. § 698.)

864. One record.—Where appeal is duly taken by both parties from the judgment or decree of a district court to the Supreme Court, a transcript of the record filed in the Supreme Court by either appellant may be used on both appeals, and both shall be heard thereon in the same manner as if records had been filed by the appellants in both cases. (R. S. § 1013.)

865. Printed transcript of record on appeal to circuit court of appeals.—In any cause or proceeding wherein the final judgment or decree is sought to be reviewed on appeal to, or by writ of error from, a United States circuit court of appeals the appellant or plaintiff in error shall cause to be printed under such rules as the lower court shall prescribe, and shall file in the office of the clerk of such circuit court of appeals at least twenty days before the case is called for argument therein, at least twenty-five printed transcripts of the record of the lower court, and of such part or abstract of the proofs as the rules of such circuit court of appeals may require, and in such form as the Supreme Court of the United States shall by rule prescribe, one of which printed transcripts shall be certified under the hand of the clerk of the lower court and under the seal thereof, and shall furnish three copies of such printed transcript to the adverse party at least twenty days before such argument. Either the court below or the circuit court of appeals may order any original document or other evidence to be sent up in addition to the printed copies of the record or in lieu of printed copies of a part thereof; and no written or typewritten transcript of the record shall be required. (Feb. 13, 1911, c. 47, § 1, 36 Stat. 901.)

866. Printed record as part of transcript on appeal to Supreme Court.—In any cause or proceeding wherein the final judgment or decree is sought to be reviewed on appeal to or by writ of error or of certiorari from the Supreme Court of the United States, in which the record has been printed and used upon the hearing in the court below and which substantially conforms to the printed record in said Supreme Court, if there have been at the time of filing the record in the court below twenty-five copies of said printed record, in addition to those provided in the preceding section, lodged with the clerk of the court below, one copy thereof shall be used by the clerk of the court below in the preparation and as a part of the transcript of the record of the court below; and no fee shall be allowed the clerk of the court below in the preparation of the transcript for such part thereof as is included in said printed record so lodged with him. And the clerk of the court below in transmitting the transcript of record to the Supreme Court of the United States for review shall at the same time transmit the remaining uncertified copies of the printed record so lodged with him, which shall be used in the preparation and as a part of the printed record in the Supreme Court of the United States, and the clerk's fee for preparing the record for the printer, indexing the same, supervising the printing and binding and distributing the copies shall be at such rate per folio thereof, exclusive of the printed record so furnished by the clerk of the court below, as the Supreme Court of the United States may from time to time by rule prescribe; and no written or typewritten transcript of so much of the record as shall have been printed as herein provided shall be required. (Feb. 3, 1911, c. 47, § 2, 36 Stat. 901.)

867. Citation.—When a writ of error is issued by a circuit court of appeals to a district court, the citation shall be signed by the judge of such district court, or by the circuit judge of such circuit court of appeals, or by a justice of the Supreme Court, and the adverse party shall have at least twenty days' notice. (R. S. § 998; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, §§ 117, 289, 36 Stat. 1131, 1167.)

868. Citation on writ of error to district court by Supreme Court.—When a writ of error is issued by the Supreme Court to a circuit court of appeals or a district court, the citation shall be signed by a judge of such circuit court of appeals or district court, or by a justice of the Supreme Court, and the adverse party shall have at least thirty days' notice; and when it is issued by the Supreme Court to a State court, the citation shall be signed by the Chief Justice, or judge, or chancellor of such court, rendering the judgment or passing the decree complained of, or by a justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, and the adverse party shall have at least thirty days' notice. (R. S. § 999; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, §§ 117, 289, 36 Stat. 1131, 1167.)

869. Bond in error and on appeal.—Every justice or judge signing a citation on any writ of error, shall, except in cases brought up by the United States or by direction of any department of the Government, take good and sufficient security that the plaintiff in error or the appellant shall prosecute his writ or appeal to effect, and, if he fail to make his plea good, shall answer all damages and costs, where the writ is a supersedeas and stays execution, or all costs only where it is not a supersedeas as aforesaid. (R. S. § 1000.)

870. Same; not required of United States.—Whenever a writ of error, appeal, or other process in law, admiralty, or equity, issues from or is brought up to the Supreme Court, or a circuit court of appeals, either by the United States or by direction of any department of the Government, no bond, obligation, or security shall be required from the United States, or from any party acting under the direction aforesaid, either to prosecute said suit, or to answer in damages or costs. In case of an adverse decision, such costs as by law are taxable against the United States, or against the party acting by direction as aforesaid, shall be paid out of the contingent fund of the department under whose directions the proceedings were instituted. (R. S. § 1001; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, §§ 118, 289, 36 Stat. 1131, 1167.)

871. Writs of error to State courts, manner of issue.—Writs of error from the Supreme Court to a State court in cases authorized by law, shall be issued in the same manner, and under the same regulations, and shall have the same effect as if the judgment or decree complained of had been rendered or passed in a court of the United States. (R. S. § 1003.)

872. Writs of error returnable to Supreme Court or to circuit courts of appeals.—Writs of error returnable to the Supreme court or a circuit court of appeals may be issued as well by the clerks of the district courts, under the seal thereof, as by the clerk of the Supreme Court or of a circuit court of appeals. When so issued they shall be as nearly as each case may admit agreeable to the form of a writ of error issued by the clerk of the Supreme Court or the clerk of a circuit court of appeals. (R. S. § 1004; Jan. 22, 1912, c. 12, 37 Stat. 54.)

873. Amendment of writ of error.—The Supreme Court may, at any time, in its discretion and upon such terms as it may deem just, allow an amendment of a writ of error, when there is a mistake in the teste of the writ, or a seal to the writ is wanting, or when the writ is made returnable on a day other than the day of the commencement of the term next ensuing the issue of the writ, or when the statement of the title of the action or parties thereto in the writ is defective, if the defect can be remedied by reference to the accompanying record, and in all other particulars of form: Provided, The defect has not prejudiced, and the amendment will not injure, the defendant in error. (R. S. § 1005.)

874. Supersedeas.—In any case where a writ of error may be a supersedeas, the defendant may obtain such supersedeas by serving the writ of error, by lodging a copy thereof for the adverse party in the clerk's office where the record remains, within sixty days, Sundays exclusive, after the rendering of the judgment complained of, and giving the security required by law on the issuing of the citation. But if he desires to stay process on the judgment, he may, having served his writ of error as aforesaid, give the security required by law within sixty days after the rendition of such judgment, or afterward with the permission of a justice or judge of the appellate court. And in such cases where a writ of error may be a supersedeas, executions shall not issue until the expiration of ten days. (R. S. §1007; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 316.)

875. Review in cases tried without jury.—When an issue of fact in any civil cause in a district court is tried and determined by the court without the intervention of a jury, according to section 773 of this title, the rulings of the court in the progress of the trial of the cause, if excepted to at the time, and duly presented by a bill of exceptions, may be reviewed upon a writ of error or upon appeal; and when the finding is special the review may extend to the determination of the sufficiency of the facts found to support the judgment. (R. S. § 700; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 1, 43 Stat. 936.)

876. Judgment or decree on review from district court in prize causes.—The Supreme Court may affirm, modify, or reverse any judgment, decree, or order of a district court in prize causes, lawfully brought before it for review, or may direct such judgment, decree, or order to be rendered, or such further proceedings to be had by the inferior court, as the justice of the case may require. The Supreme Court shall not issue execution in a cause removed before it from such courts, but shall send a special mandate to the inferior court to award execution thereupon. (R. S. § 701.)

877. Remand by Supreme Court or circuit court of appeals.—Whenever on appeal or writ of error or otherwise a case coming directly from the district court shall be reviewed and determined in the Supreme Court the cause shall be remanded to the proper district court for further proceedings to be taken in pursuance of such determination. And whenever on appeal or writ of error or otherwise a case coming from a circuit court of appeals shall be reviewed and determined in the Supreme Court the cause shall be remanded by the Supreme Court to the proper district court for further proceedings in pursuance of such determination. Whenever on appeal or writ of error or otherwise a case coming from a district court shall be reviewed and determined in the circuit court of appeals in a case in which the decision in the circuit court of appeals is final such cause shall be remanded to the said district court for further proceedings to be there taken in pursuance of such determination. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 517, § 10, 26 Stat. 829.)

878. Damages and costs on affirmance.—Where, upon a writ of error, judgment is affirmed in the Supreme Court or a circuit court of appeals, the court shall adjudge to the respondents in error just damages for his delay, and single or double costs, at its discretion. (R. S. § 1010; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, §§ 117, 289, 36 Stat. 1131, 1167.)

879. Reversal on error limited.—There shall be no reversal in the Supreme Court or in a circuit court of appeals upon a writ of error, for error in ruling any plea in abatement, other than a plea to the jurisdiction of the court, or for any error in fact. (R. S. § 1011; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1.)

Chapter 1.—BUREAU OF LABOR STATISTICS.

Sec.
1. Design and duties of bureau generally.
2. Collection, collation, and reports of labor statistics.
3. Commissioner; appointment and tenure of office; compensation.
4. Duties of commissioner in general.
5. Bulletin as to labor conditions.
6. Annual and special reports to President and Congress.
7. Reports of labor statistics in Hawaii.

Section 1. Design and duties of bureau generally.—The general design and duties of the Bureau of Labor Statistics shall be to acquire and diffuse among the people of the United States useful information on subjects connected with labor, in the most general and comprehensive sense of that word, and especially upon its relation to capital, the hours of labor, the earnings of laboring men and women, and the means of promoting their material, social, intellectual, and moral prosperity. (June 13, 1888, c. 389, § 1, 25 Stat. 182; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 3, 37 Stat. 737.)

2. Collection, collation, and reports of labor statistics.—The Bureau of Labor Statistics, under the direction of the Secretary of Labor, shall collect, collate, and report at least once each year, or oftener if necessary, full and complete statistics of the conditions of labor and the products and distribution of the products of the same, and to this end said Secretary shall have power to employ any or either of the bureaus provided for his department and to rearrange such statistical work, and to distribute or consolidate the same as may be deemed desirable in the public interests; and said Secretary shall also have authority to call upon other departments of the Government for statistical data and results obtained by them; and said Secretary of Labor may collate, arrange, and publish such statistical information so obtained in such manner as to him may seem wise. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 4, 37 Stat. 737.)

3. Commissioner; appointment and tenure of office; compensation.—The Bureau of Labor Statistics shall be under the charge of a Commissioner of Labor Statistics, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate; he shall hold his office for four years, unless sooner removed, and shall receive a salary of $5,000 per annum. (June 13, 1888, c. 389, § 2, 25 Stat. 182; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 3, 37 Stat. 737.)

4. Duties of commissioner in general.—It shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Labor Statistics to ascertain and report as to the effect of the customs laws, and the effect thereon of the state of the currency, in the United States, on the agricultural industry, especially as to its effect on mortgage indebtedness of farmers. He shall also establish a system of reports by which, at intervals of not less than two years, he can report the general condition, so far as production is concerned, of the leading industries of the country. He is also specially charged to investigate the causes of, and facts relating to, all controversies and disputes between employers and employees as they may occur, and which may tend to interfere with the welfare of the people of the different States, and report thereon to Congress. He shall also obtain such information upon the various subjects committed to him as he may deem desirable from different foreign nations, and what, if any, convict-made goods are imported into this country, and if so from whence. (June 13, 1888, c. 389, § 7, 25 Stat. 183; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 3, 37 Stat. 737.)

5. Bulletin as to labor conditions.—The Commissioner of Labor Statistics is hereby authorized to prepare and publish a bulletin of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, as to the condition of labor in this and other countries, condensations of State and foreign labor reports, facts as to conditions of employment, and such other facts as may be deemed of value to the industrial interests of the country. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 1, 28 Stat. 805.)

6. Annual and special reports to President and Congress.—The Commissioner of Labor Statistics shall annually make a report in writing to the President and Congress, of the information collected and collated by him, and containing such recommendations as he may deem calculated to promote the efficiency of the department. He is also authorized to make special reports on particular subjects whenever required to do so by the President or either House of Congress, or when he shall think the subjects in his charge require it. He shall, on or before the 15th day of December in each year, make a report in detail to Congress of all moneys expended under his direction during the preceding fiscal year. (June 13, 1888, c. 389, § 8, 25 Stat. 183; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 3, 37 Stat. 737.)

7. Reports of labor statistics in Hawaii.—It shall be the duty of the United States Commissioner of Labor Statistics to collect, assort, arrange, and present in reports every five years statistical details relating to all departments of labor in the Territory of Hawaii, especially in relation to the commercial, industrial, social, educational, and sanitary condition of the laboring classes, and to all such other subjects as Congress may by law direct. The said commissioner is especially charged to ascertain the highest, lowest and average number of employees engaged in the various industries in the Territory, to be classified as to nativity, sex, hours of labor, and conditions of employment, and to report the same to Congress. (Apr. 30, 1900, c. 339, § 76, 31 Stat. 155; Apr. 8, 1904, c. 948, 33 Stat. 164.)

Chapter 2.—WOMEN'S BUREAU.

Sec.
11. Bureau established.
12. Director of bureau; appointment; salary.
13. Powers and duties of bureau.
14. Assistant director of bureau; appointment; salary; duties.
15. Employees of bureau; compensation.
16. Quarters for bureau.

Section 11. Bureau established.—There shall be established in the Department of Labor a bureau to be known as the Women's Bureau. (June 5, 1920, c. 248, § 1, 41 Stat. 987.)

12. Director of bureau; appointment; salary.—The Women's Bureau shall be in charge of a director, a woman, to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, who shall receive an annual compensation of $5,000. (June 5, 1920, c. 248, § 2, 41 Stat. 987.)

13. Powers and duties of bureau.—It shall be the duty of the Women's Bureau to formulate standards and policies which shall promote the welfare of wage-earning women, improve their working conditions, increase their efficiency, and advance their opportunities for profitable employment. The said bureau shall have authority to investigate and report to the Department of Labor upon all matters pertaining to the welfare of women in industry. The director of said bureau may from time to time publish the results of these investigations in such a manner and to such extent as the Secretary of Labor may prescribe. (June 5, 1920, c. 248, § 2, 41 Stat. 987.)

14. Assistant director of bureau; appointment; salary; duties.—There shall be in the Women's Bureau an assistant director, to be appointed by the Secretary of Labor, who shall receive an annual compensation of $3,500 and shall perform such duties as shall be prescribed by the director and approved by the Secretary of Labor. (June 5, 1920, c. 248, § 3, 41 Stat. 987.)

15. Employees of bureau; compensation.—There is hereby authorized to be employed by the Women's Bureau a chief clerk and such special agents, assistants, clerks, and other employees at such rates of compensation and in such numbers as Congress may from time to time provide by appropriations. (June 5, 1920, c. 248, § 4, 41 Stat. 987.)

16. Quarters for bureau.—The Secretary of Labor is hereby directed to furnish sufficient quarters, office furniture and equipment, for the work of the Women's Bureau. (June 5, 1920, c. 248, § 5, 41 Stat. 987.)

Chapter 3.—NATIONAL TRADE-UNIONS.

Sec.
21. Definition.
22. Incorporation.
23. Constitution, rules, and by-laws.
24. Officers, branches, and subunions.
25. Headquarters.

Section 21. Definition.—The term "national trade-union," in the meaning of this chapter, shall signify any association of working people having two or more branches in the States or Territories of the United States for the purpose of aiding its members to become more skillful and efficient workers, the promotion of their general intelligence, the elevation of their character, the regulation of their wages and their hours and conditions of labor, the protection of their individual rights in the prosecution of their trade or trades, the raising of funds for the benefit of sick, disabled, or unemployed members, or the families of deceased members, or for such other object or objects for which working people may lawfully combine, having in view their mutual protection or benefit. (June 29, 1886, c. 567, § 1, 24 Stat. 86.)

22. Incorporation.—National trade-unions shall, upon filing their articles of incorporation in the office of the recorder of the District of Columbia, become a corporation under the technical name by which said national trade-union desires to be known to the trade; and shall have the right to sue and be sued, to implead and be impleaded, to grant and receive, in its corporate or technical name, property, real, personal, and mixed, and to use said property, and the proceeds and income thereof, for the objects of said corporation as in its charter defined: Provided, That each union may hold only so much real estate as may be required for the immediate purposes of its incorporation. (June 29, 1886, c. 567, § 2, 24 Stat. 86.)

23. Constitution, rules, and by-laws.—An incorporated national trade-union shall have power to make and establish such constitution, rules, and by-laws as it may deem proper to carry out its lawful objects, and the same to alter, amend, add to, or repeal at pleasure. (June 29, 1886, c. 567, § 3, 24 Stat. 86.)

24. Officers, branches, and subunions.—An incorporated national trade-union shall have power to define the duties and powers of all its officers, and prescribe their mode of election and term of office, to establish branches and subunions in any Territory of the United States. (June 29, 1886, c. 567, § 4, 24 Stat. 86.)

25. Headquarters.—The headquarters of an incorporated national trade-union shall be located in the District of Columbia. (June 29, 1886, c. 567, § 5, 24 Stat. 86.)

Section 31. Appropriations for use of States for vocational rehabilitation of persons injured in industry or occupation; allotment.—In order to provide for the promotion of vocational rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry or in any legitimate occupation and their return to civil employment there is hereby authorized to be appropriated for the use of the States, subject to the provisions of this chapter, for the purpose of cooperating with them in the maintenance of vocational rehabilitation of such disabled persons, and in returning vocationally rehabilitated persons to civil employment for each of the fiscal years ending June 30, 1926, and June 30, 1927, and thereafter for a period of three years, the sum of $1,000,000. Said sums shall be allotted to the States in the proportion which their population bears to the total population in the United States, not including Territories, outlying possessions, and the District of Columbia, according to the last preceding United States census: Provided, That the allotment of funds to any State shall not be less than a minimum of $5,000 for any fiscal year. And there is hereby authorized to be appropriated for the fiscal years ending June 30, 1926 and 1927, the sum of $34,000, or so much thereof as may be needed, which shall be used for the purpose of providing the minimum allotment to the States provided for in this section. (June 5, 1924, c. 265, 43 Stat. 431.)

32. Conditions precedent to and limitations on expenditure of appropriations; civil employees of United States to receive benefits.—All moneys expended under the provisions of this chapter from appropriations authorized by section 31 shall be upon the condition (1) that for each dollar of Federal money expended there shall be expended in the State under the supervision and control of the State board at least an equal amount for the same purpose: Provided, That no portion of the appropriations authorized by this chapter shall be used by any institution for handicapped persons except for the special training of such individuals entitled to the benefits of this chapter as shall be determined by the Federal board; (2) that the State board shall annually submit to the Federal board for approval plans showing (a) the kinds of vocational rehabilitation and schemes of placement for which it is proposed the appropriation shall be used; (b) the plan of administration and supervision; (c) courses of study; (d) methods of instruction; (e) qualification of teachers, supervisors, directors, and other necessary administrative officers or employees; (f) plans for the training of teachers, supervisors, and directors; (3) that the State board shall make an annual report to the Federal board on or before September 1 of each year on the work done in the State and on the receipts and expenditures of money under the provisions of this chapter; (4) that no portion of any moneys authorized to be appropriated by this chapter for the benefit of the States shall be applied, directly or indirectly, to the purchase, preservation, erection, or repair of any building or buildings or equipment, or for the purchase or rental of any lands; (5) that all courses for vocational rehabilitation given under the supervision and control of the State board and all courses for vocational rehabilitation maintained shall be available, under such rules and regulations as the Federal board shall prescribe, to any civil employee of the United States disabled while in the performance of his duty. (June 5, 1924, c. 265, 43 Stat. 431.)

33. Definitions.—For the purpose of this chapter the term "persons disabled" shall be construed to mean any person who, by reason of a physical defect or infirmity, whether congenital or acquired by accident, injury, or disease, is, or may be expected to be, totally or partially incapacitated for remunerative occupation; the term "rehabilitation" shall be construed to mean the rendering of a person disabled fit to engage in a remunerative occupation. (June 2, 1920, c. 219, § 2, 41 Stat. 735.)

34. Acts required of States to secure benefits of appropriations.—In order to secure the benefits of the appropriations authorized by section 31, any State shall, through the legislative authority thereof, (1) accept the provisions of this chapter; (2) empower and direct the board designated or created as the State board for vocational education to cooperate in the administration of the provisions of sections 6 to 24 of Title 20, EDUCATION, to cooperate as herein provided with the Federal Board for Vocational Education in the administration of the provisions of this chapter; (3) in those States where a State workmen's compensation board, or other State board, department, or agency exists, charged with the administration of the State workmen's compensation or liability laws, the legislature shall provide that a plan of cooperation be formulated between such State board, department, or agency and the State board charged with the administration of this chapter, such plan to be effective when approved by the governor of the State; (4) provide for the supervision and support of the courses of vocational rehabilitation to be provided by the State board in carrying out the provisions of this chapter; (5) appoint as custodian for said appropriations its State treasurer, who shall receive and provide for the proper custody and disbursement of all money paid to the State from said appropriations. (June 5, 1924, c. 265, 43 Stat. 431.)

35. Federal Board for Vocational Education; cooperation with State boards; rules and regulations.—The Federal Board for Vocational Education shall have power to cooperate with State boards in carrying out the purposes and provisions of this chapter, and is hereby authorized to make and establish such rules and regulations as may be necessary or appropriate to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter; to provide for the vocational rehabilitation of disabled persons and their return to civil employment and to cooperate, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter, with such public and private agencies as it may deem advisable. (June 2, 1920, c. 219, § 4, 41 Stat. 736.)

36. Further powers and duties of Federal board; deductions from or withholding allotments to States.—It shall be the duty of the Federal board (1) to examine plans submitted by the State boards and approve the same if believed to be feasible and found to be in conformity with the provisions and purposes of this chapter; (2) to ascertain annually whether the several States are using or are prepared to use the money received by them in accordance with the provisions of this chapter; (3) to certify on or before the 1st day of January of each year to the Secretary of the Treasury each State which has accepted the provisions of this chapter and complied therewith, together with the amount which each State is entitled to receive under the provisions of this chapter; (4) to deduct from the next succeeding allotment to any State whenever any portion of the fund annually allotted has not been expended for the purpose provided for in this chapter a sum equal to such unexpended portion; (5) to withhold the allotment of moneys to any State whenever it shall be determined that moneys allotted are not being expended for the purposes and conditions of this chapter; (6) to require the replacement by withholding subsequent allotments of any portion of the moneys received by the custodian of any State under this chapter that by any action or contingency is diminished or lost: Provided, That if any allotment is withheld from any State, the State board of such State may appeal to the Congress of the United States, and if the Congress shall not, within one year from the time of said appeal, direct such sum to be paid, it shall be covered into the Treasury. (June 2, 1920, c. 219, § 4, 41 Stat. 736.)

37. Payment of allotments to States; disbursement by States.—The Secretary of the Treasury, upon the certification of the Federal board as provided in this chapter, shall pay quarterly to the custodian of each State appointed as herein provided the moneys to which it is entitled under the provisions of this chapter. The money so received by the custodian for any State shall be paid out on the requisition of the State board as reimbursement for services already rendered or expenditures already incurred and approved by said State board. (June 2, 1920, c. 219, § 5, 41 Stat. 736.)

38. Report by Federal board to Congress.—The Federal Board for Vocational Education shall make an annual report to the Congress on or before December 1 on the administration of this chapter and shall include in such report the reports made by the State boards on the administration of this chapter by each State and the expenditure of the money allotted to each State. (June 2, 1920, c. 219, § 5, 41 Stat. 737.)

39. Appropriation for use of Federal board.—There is hereby authorized to be appropriated to the Federal Board for Vocational Education the sum of $75,000 annually for a period of three years, commencing July 1, 1924, for the purpose of making studies, investigations, and reports regarding the vocational rehabilitation of disabled persons and their placements in suitable or gainful occupations, and for the administrative expenses of said board incident to performing the duties imposed by this chapter, including salaries of such assistants, experts, clerks, and other employees, in the District of Columbia or elsewhere as the board may deem necessary, actual traveling and other necessary expenses incurred by the members of the board and by its employees, under its orders, including attendance at meetings of educational associations and other organizations, rent and equipment of offices in the District of Columbia and elsewhere, purchase of books of reference, law books, and periodicals, stationery, typewriters and exchange thereof, miscellaneous supplies, postage on foreign mail, printing and binding to be done at the Government Printing Office, and all other necessary expenses. (June 5, 1924, c. 265, 43 Stat. 432.)

40. Report of expenditure of board.—A full report of all expenses under the preceding section, including names of all employees and salaries paid them, traveling expenses and other expenses incurred by each and every employee and by members of the board, shall be submitted annually to Congress by the board. (June 5, 1924, c. 265, 43 Stat. 432.)

41. Federal board authorized to receive gifts and donations.—The Federal Board for Vocational Education is hereby authorized and empowered to receive such gifts and donations from either public or private sources as may be offered unconditionally. (June 2, 1920, c. 219, § 7, 41 Stat. 737.)

42. Gifts or donations to constitute special fund; use of.—All moneys received as gifts or donations shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States, and shall constitute a permanent fund, to be called the "Special fund for vocational rehabilitation of disabled persons," to be used under the direction of the Federal board to defray the expenses of providing and maintaining courses of vocational rehabilitation in special cases, including the payment of necessary expenses of persons undergoing training. (June 2, 1920, c. 219, § 7, 41 Stat. 737.)

43. Report of gifts or donations.—A full report of all gifts and donations offered and accepted, together with the names of the donors and the respective amounts contributed by each, and all disbursements therefrom shall be submitted annually to Congress by said board. (June 2, 1920, c. 219, § 7, 41 Stat. 737.)

44. Prohibition of discrimination for or against persons entitled to benefits of chapter.—No discrimination shall be made or permitted for or against any person or persons who are entitled to the benefits of this chapter because of membership or nonmembership in any industrial, fraternal, or private organization of any kind under a penalty of $200 for every violation thereof. (June 2, 1920, c. 219, § 7, 41 Stat. 737.)

45. Provisions of chapter extended to Territory of Hawaii.—The Territory of Hawaii shall be entitled to share in the benefits of this chapter upon the same terms and conditions as any of the several States. There is authorized to be appropriated annually, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for each fiscal year ending June 30, the sum of $5,000, to be available for allotment under such chapter to the Territory. (Mar. 10, 1924, c. 46, § 5, 43 Stat. 18.)

Chapter 5.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

Sec.
51. Mediation in labor disputes; appointment of commissioners of conciliation.
52. Statutory restriction of injunctive relief.

Section 51. Mediation in labor disputes; appointment of commissioners of conciliation.—The Secretary of Labor shall have power to act as mediator and to appoint commissioners of conciliation in labor disputes whenever in his judgment the interests of industrial peace may require it to be done. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 8, 37 Stat. 738.)

52. Statutory restriction of injunctive relief.—No restraining order or injunction shall be granted by any court of the United States, or a judge or the judges thereof, in any case between an employer and employees, or between employers and employees, or between employees, or between persons employed and persons seeking employment, involving, or growing out of, a dispute concerning terms or conditions of employment, unless necessary to prevent irreparable injury to property, or to a property right, of the party making the application, for which injury there is no adequate remedy at law, and such property or property right must be described with particularity in the application, which must be in writing and sworn to by the applicant or by his agent or attorney.

And no such restraining order or injunction shall prohibit any person or persons, whether singly or in concert, from terminating any relation of employment, or from ceasing to perform any work or labor, or from recommending, advising, or persuading others by peaceful means so to do; or from attending at any place where any such person or persons may lawfully be, for the purpose of peacefully obtaining or communicating information, or from peacefully persuading any person to work or to abstain from working; or from ceasing to patronize or to employ any party to such dispute, or from recommending, advising, or persuading others by peaceful and lawful means so to do; or from paying or giving to, or withholding from, any person engaged in such dispute, any strike benefits or other moneys or things of value; or from peaceably assembling in a lawful manner, and for lawful purposes; or from doing any act or thing which might lawfully be done in the absence of such dispute by any party thereto; nor shall any of the acts specified in this paragraph be considered or held to be violations of any law of the United States. (Oct. 15, 1914, c. 323, § 20, 38 Stat. 738.)

Chapter	Sec.
1. THE BUREAU OF MINES	1
2. MINERAL LANDS AND REGULATIONS IN GENERAL	21
3. LANDS CONTAINING COAL, PHOSPHATES, PETROLEUM, OIL, OIL SHALE, GAS, SODIUM, POTASSIUM, AND SO FORTH, AND BUILDING STONE	71

Chapter 1.—THE BUREAU OF MINES.

Sec.
1. Bureau of Mines; establishment; director; experts and other employees.
2. Same; performance of duties in absence of director.
3. Same; duties of bureau.
4. Investigation of lignite coal and peat.
5. Reports of investigations.
6. Personal interest of director and members of bureau in mines.
7. Fees for tests or investigations.
8. Additional mining experiment stations and mine safety stations authorized.
9. Same; acceptance of lands from State.
10. Headquarters of mine rescue cars; site for experimental work; leases and donations for.
11. Purchase of supplies or procurement of services for Bureau of Mines.

Section 1. Bureau of Mines; establishment; director; experts and other employees.—There is established in the Department of Commerce a bureau of mining, metallurgy, and mineral technology, to be designated the Bureau of Mines, and there shall be a director of said bureau, who shall be thoroughly equipped for the duties of said office by technical education and experience and who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate; and there shall also be in the said bureau such experts and other employees, to be appointed by the Secretary of the Interior, as may be required to carry out the purposes of this chapter in accordance with the appropriations made from time to time by Congress for such purposes. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 12, 32 Stat. 830; Feb. 25, 1913, c. 72, § 1, 37 Stat. 681.)

2. Same; performance of duties in absence of director.—In the absence of the Director of the Bureau of Mines the assistant director of said bureau shall perform the duties of the director during the latter's absence, and in the absence of the Director and of the Assistant Director of the Bureau of Mines the Secretary of Commerce may designate some officer of said bureau to perform the duties of the director during his absence. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 12, 32 Stat. 830; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 303.)

3. Same; duties of bureau.—It shall be the province and duty of the Bureau of Mines, subject to the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, to conduct inquiries and scientific and technologic investigations concerning mining, and the preparation, treatment, and utilization of mineral substances with a view to improving health conditions, and increasing safety, efficiency, economic development, and conserving resources through the prevention of waste in the mining, quarrying, metallurgical, and other mineral industries; to inquire into the economic conditions affecting these industries; to investigate explosives and peat; and on behalf of the Government to investigate the mineral fuels and unfinished mineral products belonging to, or for the use of, the United States, with a view to their most efficient mining, preparation, treatment and use; and to disseminate information concerning these subjects in such manner as will best carry out the purposes of the provisions of this chapter. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 12, 32 Stat. 830; Feb. 25, 1913, c. 72, § 2, 37 Stat. 681.)

4. Investigation of lignite coal and peat.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized and directed to make experiments and investigations, through the Bureau of Mines, of lignite coals and peat, to determine the commercial and economic practicability of their utilization in producing fuel oil, gasoline substitutes, ammonia, tar, solid fuels, gas for power and other purposes. The Secretary of Commerce is authorized and directed to sell or otherwise dispose of any property, plant, or machinery purchased or acquired under the provisions of this section, as soon as the experiments and investigations hereby authorized have been concluded, and report the results of such experiments and investigations to Congress. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 12, 32 Stat. 830; Feb. 25, 1919, c. 23, §§ 1, 2, 40 Stat. 1154.)

5. Reports of investigations.—The Director of the Bureau of Mines shall prepare and publish, subject to the direction of the Secretary of Commerce, under the appropriations made from time to time by Congress, reports of inquiries and investigations, with appropriate recommendations of the bureau, concerning the nature, causes, and prevention of accidents, and the improvement of conditions, methods, and equipment, with special reference to health, safety, and prevention of waste in the mining, quarrying, metallurgical, and other mineral industries; the use of explosives and electricity, safety methods and appliances, and rescue and first-aid work in said industries; the causes and prevention of mine fires; and other subjects included under the provisions of this chapter. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 12, 32 Stat. 830; Feb. 25, 1913, c. 72, § 3, 37 Stat. 681.)

6. Personal interest of director and members of bureau in mines.—In conducting inquiries and investigations authorized under this chapter neither the director nor any member of the Bureau of Mines shall have any personal or private interest in any mine or the products of any mine under investigation, or shall accept employment from any private party for services in the examination of any mine or private mineral property, or issue any report as to the valuation or the management of any mine or other private mineral property. Nothing herein shall be construed as preventing the temporary employment by the Bureau of Mines, at a compensation not to exceed $10 per day, in a consulting capacity or in the investigation of special subjects, of any engineer or other expert whose principal professional practice is outside of such employment by said bureau. (Feb. 25, 1913, c. 72, § 4, 37 Stat. 682.)

7. Fees for tests or investigations.—For tests or investigations authorized by the Secretary of Commerce under the provisions of this chapter, other than those performed for the Government of the United States or State governments within the United States, a reasonable fee covering the necessary expenses shall be charged, according to a schedule prepared by the Director of the Bureau of Mines and approved by the Secretary of Commerce, who shall prescribe rules and regulations under which such tests and investigations may be made. All moneys received from such sources shall be paid into the Treasury to the credit of miscellaneous receipts. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 12, 32 Stat. 830; Feb. 25, 1913, c. 72, § 5, 37 Stat. 682.)

8. Additional mining experiment stations and mine safety stations authorized.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized and directed to establish and maintain in the several important mining regions of the United States and the Territory of Alaska, as Congress may appropriate for the necessary employees and other expenses, under the Bureau of Mines and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, ten mining experiment stations and seven mine safety stations, movable or stationary, in addition to those established prior to March 3, 1915, the province and duty of which shall be to make investigations and disseminate information with a view to improving conditions in the mining, quarrying, metallurgical, and other mineral industries, safeguarding life among employees, preventing unnecessary waste of resources, and otherwise contributing to the advancement of these industries. Not more than three mining experiment stations and mine safety stations hereinabove authorized shall be established in any one fiscal year under the appropriations made therefor. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 12, 32 Stat. 830; Mar. 3, 1915, c. 95, § 1, 38 Stat. 959.)

9. Same; acceptance of lands from States.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized to accept lands, buildings, or other contributions from the several States offering to cooperate in carrying out the purposes of section 8 of this title. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 12, 32 Stat. 830; Mar. 3, 1915, c. 95, § 2, 38 Stat. 959.)

10. Headquarters of mine rescue cars; site for experimental work; leases and donations for.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized to accept any suitable land or lands, buildings, or improvements that may be donated for the headquarters of mine rescue cars and construction of necessary railway sidings and housing for the same or as the site of an experimental mine and plant for studying explosives, and to enter into leases for periods not exceeding ten years subject to annual appropriations by Congress. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 12, 32 Stat. 830; June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 912.)

11. Purchase of supplies or procurement of services for Bureau of Mines.—The purchase of supplies and equipment or the procurement of services for the Bureau of Mines outside of the District of Columbia, may be made in open market in the manner common among business men when the aggregate amount of the purchase does not exceed $50. (July 1, 1918, c. 113, § 1, 40 Stat. 672.)

48. Lands in certain States excepted.
49. Lands in Missouri and Kansas; disposal as agricultural lands.
50. Grants to States or corporations not to include mineral lands.
51. Vested rights to use of water for mining; right of way for canals.
52. Rights subject to vested and accrued water rights.

Section 21. Mineral lands reserved.—In all cases lands valuable for minerals shall be reserved from sale, except as otherwise expressly directed by law. (R. S. § 2318.)

22. Lands open to purchase by citizens.—All valuable mineral deposits in lands belonging to the United States, both surveyed and unsurveyed, shall be free and open to exploration and purchase, and the lands in which they are found to occupation and purchase, by citizens of the United States and those who have declared their intention to become such, under regulations prescribed by law, and according to the local customs or rules of miners in the several mining districts, so far as the same are applicable and not inconsistent with the laws of the United States. (R. S. § 2319; Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 1, 41 Stat. 437.)

23. Length of claims on veins or lodes.—Mining claims upon veins or lodes of quartz or other rock in place bearing gold, silver, cinnabar, lead, tin, copper, or other valuable deposits, located prior to May 10, 1872, shall be governed as to length along the vein or lode by the customs, regulations, and laws in force at the date of their location. A mining claim located after the 10th day of May, 1872, whether located by one or more persons, may equal, but shall not exceed, one thousand five hundred feet in length along the vein or lode; but no location of a mining claim shall be made until the discovery of the vein or lode within the limits of the claim located. No claim shall extend more than three hundred feet on each side of the middle of the vein at the surface, nor shall any claim be limited by any mining regulation to less than twenty-five feet on each side of the middle of the vein at the surface, except where adverse rights existing on the 10th day of May, 1872, render such limitation necessary. The end lines of each claim shall be parallel to each other. (R. S. § 2320.)

24. Proof of citizenship.—Proof of citizenship, under this chapter, may consist, in the case of an individual, of his own affidavit thereof; in the case of an association of persons unincorporated, of the affidavit of their authorized agent, made on his own knowledge, or upon information and belief; and in the case of a corporation organized under the laws of the United States, or of any State or Territory thereof, by the filing of a certified copy of their charter or certificate of incorporation. (R. S. § 2321.)

25. Affidavit of citizenship.—Applicants for mineral patents, if residing beyond the limits of the district wherein the claim is situated, may make any oath or affidavit required for proof of citizenship before the clerk of any court of record or before any notary public of any State or Territory. (Apr. 26, 1882, c. 106, § 2, 22 Stat. 49.)

26. Locators' rights of possession and enjoyment.—The locators of all mining locations made on any mineral vein, lode, or ledge, situated on the public domain, their heirs and assigns, where no adverse claim existed on the 10th day of May, 1872, so long as they comply with the laws of the United States, and with State, territorial, and local regulations not in conflict with the laws of the United States governing their possessory title, shall have the exclusive right of possession and enjoyment of all the surface included within the lines of their locations, and of all veins, lodes, and ledges throughout their entire depth, the top or apex of which lies inside of such surface lines extended downward vertically, although such veins, lodes, or ledges may so far depart from a perpendicular in their course downward as to extend outside the vertical side lines of such surface locations. But their right of possession to such outside parts of such veins or ledges shall be confined to such portions thereof as lie between vertical planes drawn downward as above described, through the end lines of their locations, so continued in their own direction that such planes will intersect such exterior parts of such veins or ledges. Nothing in this section shall authorize the locator or possessor of a vein or lode which extends in its downward course beyond the vertical lines of his claim to enter upon the surface of a claim owned or possessed by another. (R. S. § 2322.)

27. Mining tunnels; right to possession of veins on line with; abandonment of right.—Where a tunnel is run for the development of a vein or lode, or for the discovery of mines, the owners of such tunnel shall have the right of possession of all veins or lodes within three thousand feet from the face of such tunnel on the line thereof, not previously known to exist, discovered in such tunnel, to the same extent as if discovered from the surface; and locations on the line of such tunnel of veins or lodes not appearing on the surface, made by other parties after the commencement of the tunnel, and while the same is being prosecuted with reasonable diligence, shall be invalid; but failure to prosecute the work on the tunnel for six months shall be considered as an abandonment of the right to all undiscovered veins on the line of such tunnel. (R. S. § 2323.)

28. Mining district regulations by miners; annual labor on claims pending issue of patent; expenditure on tunnels considered.—The miners of each mining district may make regulations not in conflict with the laws of the United States, or with the laws of the State or Territory in which the district is situated, governing the location, manner of recording, amount of work necessary to hold possession of a mining claim, subject to the following requirements: The location must be distinctly marked on the ground so that its boundaries can be readily traced. All records of mining claims made after May 10, 1872, shall contain the name or names of the locators, the date of the location, and such a description of the claim or claims located by reference to some natural object or permanent monument as will identify the claim. On each claim located after the 10th day of May, 1872, and until a patent has been issued therefor, not less than $100 worth of labor shall be performed or improvements made during each year. On all claims located prior to the 10th day of May, 1872, $10 worth of labor shall be performed or improvements made each year, for each one hundred feet in length along the vein until a patent has been issued therefor; but where such claims are held in common, such expenditure may be made upon any one claim; and upon a failure to comply with these conditions, the claim or mine upon which such failure occurred shall be open to relocation in the same manner as if no location of the same had ever been made, provided that the original locators, their heirs, assigns, or legal representatives, have not resumed work upon the claim after failure and before such location. Upon the failure of any one of several coowners to contribute his proportion of the expenditures required hereby, the coowners who have performed the labor or made the improvements may, at the expiration of the year, give such delinquent coowner personal notice in writing or notice by publication in the newspaper published nearest the claim, for at least once a week for ninety days, and if at the expiration of ninety days after such notice in writing or by publication such delinquent should fail or refuse to contribute his proportion of the expenditure required by this section, his interest in the claim shall become the property of his coowners who have made the required expenditures. The period within which the work required to be done annually on all unpatented mineral claims located since May 10, 1872, including such claims in the Territory of Alaska, shall commence at 12 o'clock meridian on the 1st day of July succeeding the date of location of such claim.

Where a person or company has or may run a tunnel for the purposes of developing a lode or lodes, owned by said person or company, the money so expended in said tunnel shall be taken and considered as expended on said lode or lodes, whether located prior to or since May 10, 1872; and such person or company shall not be required to perform work on the surface of said lode or lodes in order to hold the same as required by this section. On all such valid claims the annual period ending December 31, 1921, shall continue to 12 o'clock meridian July 1, 1922. (R. S. § 2324; Feb. 11, 1875, c. 41, 18 Stat. 315; Jan. 22, 1880, c. 9, § 2, 21 Stat. 61; Aug. 24, 1921, c. 84, 42 Stat. 186.)

29. Patents; procedure to obtain.—A patent for any land claimed and located for valuable deposits may be obtained in the following manner: Any person, association, or corporation authorized to locate a claim under this chapter, having claimed and located a piece of land for such purposes, who has, or have, complied with the terms of this chapter, may file in the proper land office an application for a patent, under oath, showing such compliance, together with a plat and field notes of the claim or claims in common, made by or under the direction of the United States supervisor of surveys, showing accurately the boundaries of the claim or claims, which shall be distinctly marked by monuments on the ground, and shall post a copy of such plat, together with a notice of such application for a patent, in a conspicuous place on the land embraced in such plat previous to the filing of the application for a patent, and shall file an affidavit of at least two persons that such notice has been duly posted, and shall file a copy of the notice in such land office, and shall thereupon be entitled to a patent for the land, in the manner following: The register of the land office, upon the filing of such application, plat, field notes, notices, and affidavits, shall publish a notice that such application has been made, for the period of sixty days, in a newspaper to be by him designated as published nearest to such claim; and he shall also post such notice in his office for the same period. The claimant at the time of filing this application, or at any time thereafter, within the sixty days of publication, shall file with the register a certificate of the United States supervisor of surveys that $500 worth of labor has been expended or improvements made upon the claim by himself or grantors; that the plat is correct, with such further description by such reference to natural objects or permanent monuments as shall identify the claim, and furnish an accurate description, to be incorporated in the patent. At the expiration of the sixty days of publication the claimant shall file his affidavit, showing that the plat and notice have been posted in a conspicuous place on the claim during such period of publication. If no adverse claim shall have been filed with the register of the proper land office at the expiration of the sixty days of publication, it shall be assumed that the applicant is entitled to a patent, upon the payment to the proper officer of $5 per acre, and that no adverse claim exists; and thereafter no objection from third parties to the issuance of a patent shall be heard, except it be shown that the applicant has failed to comply with the terms of this chapter. Where the claimant for a patent is not a resident of or within the land district wherein the vein, lode, ledge, or deposit sought to be patented is located, the application for patent and the affidavits required to be made in this section by the claimant for such patent may be made by his, her, or its authorized agent, where said agent is conversant with the facts sought to be established by said affidavits. (R. S. § 2325; Jan. 22, 1880, c. 9, § 2, 21 Stat. 61; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144, 1145.)

30. Adverse claim; proceedings and subsequent filing of judgment roll by successful claimant.—Where an adverse claim is filed during the period of publication, mentioned in section 29 of this title, it shall be upon oath of the person or persons making the same, and shall show the nature, boundaries, and extent of such adverse claim, and all proceedings, except the publication of notice and making and filing of the affidavit thereof, shall be stayed until the controversy shall have been settled or decided by a court of competent jurisdiction, or the adverse claim waived. It shall be the duty of the adverse claimant, within thirty days after filing his claim, to commence proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction, to determine the question of the right of possession, and prosecute the same with reasonable diligence to final judgment; and a failure so to do shall be a waiver of his adverse claim. After such judgment shall have been rendered, the party entitled to the possession of the claim, or any portion thereof, may, without giving further notice, file a certified copy of the judgment roll with the register of the land office, together with the certificate of the United States supervisor of surveys that the requisite amount of labor has been expended or improvements made thereon, and the description required in other cases, and shall pay to the register $5 per acre for his claim, together with the proper fees, whereupon the whole proceedings and the judgment roll shall be certified by the register to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and a patent shall issue thereon for the claim, or such portion thereof as the applicant shall appear, from the decision of the court, to rightly possess. If it appears from the decision of the court that several parties are entitled to separate and different portions of the claim, each party may pay for his portion of the claim, with the proper fees, and file the certificate and description by the United States supervisor of surveys, whereupon the register shall certify the proceedings and judgment roll to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, as in the preceding case, and patents shall issue to the several parties according to their respective rights. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the alienation of the title conveyed by a patent for a mining claim to any person whatever. (R. S. § 2326; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144, 1145.)

31. Same; oath of claimant.—The adverse claim required by section 30 of this title may be verified by the oath of any duly authorized agent or attorney in fact of the adverse claimant cognizant of the facts stated; and the adverse claimant, if residing or at the time being beyond the limits of the district wherein the claim is situated, may make oath to the adverse claim before the clerk of any court of record of the United States or of the State or Territory where the adverse claimant may then be, or before any notary public of such State or Territory. (Apr. 26, 1882, c. 106, § 1, 22 Stat. 49.)

32. Same; findings by jury; costs.—If, in any action brought pursuant to section 30 of this title, title to the ground in controversy shall not be established by either party, the jury shall so find, and judgment shall be entered according to the verdict. In such case costs shall not be allowed to either party, and the claimant shall not proceed in the land office or be entitled to a patent for the ground in controversy until he shall have perfected his title. (Mar. 3, 1881, c. 140, 21 Stat. 505.)

33. Pending applications; existing rights.—Applications for patents for mining claims under laws existing prior to May 10, 1872, and pending on that date may be prosecuted to a final decision in the General Land Office; but in such cases where adverse rights are not affected thereby, patents may issue in pursuance of the provisions of this chapter; and all patents for mining claims upon veins or lodes issued prior to May 10, 1872, shall convey all the rights and privileges conferred by this chapter where no adverse rights existed on the 10th day of May, 1872. (R. S. § 2328.)

34. Description of vein claims on surveyed and unsurveyed lands; monuments on ground to govern conflicting calls.—The description of vein or lode claims upon surveyed lands shall designate the location of the claims with reference to the lines of the public survey, but need not conform therewith; but where patents have been or shall be issued for claims upon unsurveyed lands, the United States supervisor of surveys in extending the public survey, shall adjust the same to the boundaries of said patented claims so as in no case to interfere with or change the true location of such claims as they are officially established upon the ground. Where patents have issued for mineral lands, those lands only shall be segregated and shall be deemed to be patented which are bounded by the lines actually marked, defined, and established upon the ground by the monuments of the official survey upon which the patent grant is based, and the United States supervisor of surveys in executing subsequent patent surveys, whether upon surveyed or unsurveyed lands, shall be governed accordingly. The said monuments shall at all times constitute the highest authority as to what land is patented, and in case of any conflict between the said monuments of such patented claims and the descriptions of said claims in the patents issued therefor the monuments on the ground shall govern, and erroneous or inconsistent descriptions or calls in the patent descriptions shall give way thereto. (R. S. § 2327; Apr. 28, 1904, c. 1796, 33 Stat. 545; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

35. Placer claims conforming entry to legal subdivisions and surveys; limitation of claims.—Claims usually called "placers," including all forms of deposit, excepting veins of quartz, or other rock in place, shall be subject to entry and patent, under like circumstances and conditions, and upon similar proceedings, as are provided for vein or lode claims; but where the lands have been previously surveyed by the United States, the entry in its exterior limits shall conform to the legal subdivisions of the public lands. And where placer claims are upon surveyed lands, and conform to legal subdivisions, no further survey or plat shall be required, and all placer-mining claims located after the 10th day of May, 1872, shall conform as near as practicable with the United States system of public-land surveys, and the rectangular subdivisions of such surveys, and no such location shall include more than twenty acres for each individual claimant; but where placer claims can not be conformed to legal subdivisions, survey and plat shall be made as on unsurveyed lands; and where by the segregation of mineral land in any legal subdivision a quantity of agricultural land less than forty acres remains, such fractional portion of agricultural land may be entered by any party qualified by law, for homestead purposes. (R. S. §§ 2329, 2331; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 4, 26 Stat. 1097.)

36. Same; subdivisions of ten-acre tracts; maximum of placer locations.—Legal subdivisions of forty acres may be subdivided into ten-acre tracts; and two or more persons, or associations of persons, having contiguous claims of any size, although such claims may be less than ten acres each, may make joint entry thereof; but no location of a placer claim, made after the 9th day of July, 1870, shall exceed one hundred and sixty acres for any one person or association of persons, which location shall conform to the United States surveys; and nothing in this section contained shall defeat or impair any bona fide preemption or homestead claim upon agricultural lands, or authorize the sale of the improvements of any bona fide settler to any purchaser. (R. S. § 2330.)

37. Same; proceedings for patent.—Where the same person, association, or corporation is in possession of a placer claim, and also a vein or lode included within the boundaries thereof, application shall be made for a patent for the placer claim, with the statement that it includes such vein or lode, and in such case a patent shall issue for the placer claim, subject to the provisions of this chapter, including such vein or lode, upon the payment of $5 per acre for such vein or lode claim, and twenty-five feet of surface on each side thereof. The remainder of the placer claim, or any placer claim not embracing any vein or lode claim, shall be paid for at the rate of $2.50 per acre, together with all costs of proceedings; and where a vein or lode, such as is described in section 23 of this title, is known to exist within the boundaries of a placer claim, an application for a patent for such placer claim which does not include an application for the vein or lode claim shall be construed as a conclusive declaration that the claimant of the placer claim has no right of possession of the vein or lode claim; but where the existence of a vein or lode in a placer claim is not known, a patent for the placer claim shall convey all valuable mineral and other deposits within the boundaries thereof. (R. S. § 2333.)

38. Evidence of possession and work to establish right to patent.—Where such person or association, they and their grantors, have held and worked their claims for a period equal to the time prescribed by the statute of limitations for mining claims of the State or Territory where the same may be situated, evidence of such possession and working of the claims for such period shall be sufficient to establish a right to a patent thereto under this chapter, in the absence of any adverse claim; but nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to impair any lien which may have attached in any way whatever to any mining claim or property thereto attached prior to the issuance of a patent. (R. S. § 2332.)

39. Surveyors of mining claims.—The United States supervisor of surveys may appoint in each land district containing mineral lands as many competent surveyors as shall apply for appointment to survey mining claims. The expenses of the survey of vein or lode claims, and the survey and subdivision of placer claims into smaller quantities than one hundred and sixty acres, together with the cost of publication of notices, shall be paid by the applicants, and they shall be at liberty to obtain the same at the most reasonable rates, and they shall also be at liberty to employ any United States deputy surveyor to make the survey. The Commissioner of the General Land Office shall also have power to establish the maximum charges for surveys and publication of notices under this chapter; and, in case of excessive charges for publication, he may designate any newspaper published in a land district where mines are situated for the publication of mining notices in such district, and fix the rates to be charged by such paper; and, to the end that the commissioner may be fully informed on the subject, each applicant shall file with the register a sworn statement of all charges and fees paid by such applicant for publication and surveys, together with all fees and money paid the register of the Land Office, which statement shall be transmitted, with the other papers in the case, to the Commissioner of the General Land Office. (R. S. § 2334; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144, 1145.)

40. Verification of affidavits.—All affidavits required to be made under this chapter may be verified before any officer authorized to administer oaths within the land district where the claims may be situated, and all testimony and proofs may be taken before any such officer, and, when duly certified by the officer taking the same, shall have the same force and effect as if taken before the register of the Land Office. In cases of contest as to the mineral or agricultural character of land, the testimony and proofs may be taken as herein provided on personal notice of at least ten days to the opposing party; or if such party can not be found, then by publication of at least once a week for thirty days in a newspaper, to be designated by the register of the Land Office as published nearest to the location of such land; and the register shall require proof that such notice has been given. (R. S. § 2335; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

41. Intersecting or crossing veins.—Where two or more veins intersect or cross each other, priority of title shall govern, and such prior location shall be entitled to all ore or mineral contained within the space of intersection; but the subsequent location shall have the right of way through the space of intersection for the purposes of the convenient working of the mine. And where two or more veins unite, the oldest or prior location shall take the vein below the point of union, including all the space of intersection. (R. S. § 2336.)

42. Patents for nonmineral lands.—Where nonmineral land not contiguous to the vein or lode is used or occupied by the proprietor of such vein or lode for mining or milling purposes, such nonadjacent surface ground may be embraced and included in an application for a patent for such vein or lode, and the same may be patented therewith, subject to the same preliminary requirements as to survey and notice as are applicable to veins or lodes; but no location made of such nonadjacent land shall exceed five acres, and payment for the same must be made at the same rate as fixed by this chapter for the superficies of the lode. The owner of a quartz mill or reduction works, not owning a mine in connection therewith, may also receive a patent for his mill site, as provided in this section. (R. S. § 2337.)

43. Conditions of sale by local legislature.—As a condition of sale, in the absence of necessary legislation by Congress, the local legislature of any State or Territory may provide rules for working mines, involving easements, drainage, and other necessary means to their complete development; and those conditions shall be fully expressed in the patent. (R. S. § 2338.)

44. Certain mineral lands open to homesteads.—Wherever, upon the lands designated as mineral lands prior to July 26, 1866, which have been excluded from survey and sale, there have been homesteads made by citizens of the United States, or persons who have declared their intention to become citizens, which homesteads have been made, improved, and used for agricultural purposes, and upon which there have been no valuable mines of gold, silver, cinnabar, or copper discovered, and which are properly agricultural lands, the settlers or owners of such homesteads may avail themselves of the provisions of chapter 7 of title 43, relating to "Homesteads." (R. S. § 2341; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 4, 26 Stat. 1097.)

45. Mineral lands set apart as agricultural lands.—Upon the survey of the lands described in section 44 of this title, the Secretary of the Interior may designate and set apart such portions of the same as are clearly agricultural lands, which lands shall thereafter be subject to sale as other public lands, and be subject to all the laws and regulations applicable to the same. (R. S. § 2342; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 4, 26 Stat. 1097.)

46. Additional land districts and officers.—The President is authorized to establish additional land districts, and to appoint the necessary officers under existing laws, wherever he may deem the same necessary for the public convenience in executing the provisions of this chapter. (R. S. § 2343.)

47. Provisions of chapter not to affect certain rights.—Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to impair, in any way, rights or interests in mining property acquired under laws in force prior to July 9, 1870; nor to affect the provisions of the act entitled "An act granting to A. Sutro the right of way and other privileges to aid in the construction of a draining and exploring tunnel to the Comstock lode, in the State of Nevada," approved July 25, 1866. (R. S. § 2344.)

48. Lands in certain States excepted.—Except as otherwise provided in sections 141 to 152, 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251, and 261 to 263 of this title, the provisions of sections 21 to 24, 26 to 30, 33 to 47, 51 and 52 of this title shall not apply to the mineral lands situated in the States of Michigan, Wisconsin, and Minnesota, which, except as otherwise provided in this title, are declared free and open to exploration and purchase, according to legal subdivisions, in like manner as before the 10th day of May, 1872. And any bona fide entries of such lands within the States named since the 10th day of May, 1872, may be patented without reference to any of the foregoing provisions of this chapter. Such lands shall be offered for public sale in the same manner, and at the same minimum price, as other public lands. (R. S. § 2345; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 561, § 4, 26 Stat. 1067; Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 1, 41 Stat. 437.)

49. Lands in Missouri and Kansas; disposal as agricultural lands.—Except as otherwise provided in sections 141 to 152, 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251, and 261 to 263 of this title, within the States of Missouri and Kansas deposits of coal, iron, lead, or other mineral are excluded from the operation of the provisions of this chapter, and all lands in said States shall be subject to disposal as agricultural lands. (May 5, 1876, c. 91, 19 Stat. 52.)

50. Grants to States or corporations not to include mineral lands.—No act passed at the first session of the Thirty-eighth Congress, granting lands to States or corporations to aid in the construction of roads or for other purposes, or to extend the time of grants made prior to the 30th day of January, 1865, shall be so construed as to embrace mineral lands, which in all cases are reserved exclusively to the United States, unless otherwise specially provided in the act or acts making the grant. (R. S. § 2346.)

51. Vested rights to use of water for mining; right of way for canals.—Whenever, by priority of possession, rights to the use of water for mining purposes have vested and accrued, and the same are recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws, and the decisions of courts, the possessors and owners of such vested rights shall be maintained and protected in the same; and the right of way for the construction of ditches and canals for the purposes herein specified is acknowledged and confirmed; but whenever any person, in the construction of any ditch or canal, injures or damages the possession of any settler on the public domain, the party committing such injury or damage shall be liable to the party injured for such injury or damage. (R. S. § 2339.)

52. Rights subject to vested and accrued water rights.—All patents granted, or preemption or homesteads allowed, shall be subject to any vested and accrued water rights, or rights to ditches and reservoirs used in connection with such water rights, as may have been acquired under or recognized by section 51 of this title. (R. S. § 2340.)

Chapter 3.—LANDS CONTAINING COAL, PHOSPHATES, PETROLEUM, OIL, OIL SHALE, GAS, SODIUM, POTASSIUM, AND SO FORTH, AND BUILDING STONE.

ENTRY ON COAL LANDS, IN GENERAL

Sec.
71. Coal lands; entry.
72. Same; preference right of entry.
73. Same; presentation of claims.
74. Same; one entry only.
75. Same; conflicting claims.
76. Same; rights reserved.
77. Coal lands in Alabama opened to agricultural entry.

ENTRY UNDER NONMINERAL-LAND LAWS OF COAL LANDS WITH RESERVATION OF COAL TO UNITED STATES

81. Rights of entrymen of lands subsequently classified as coal lands; disposal of coal deposits.
82. New or supplemental patents, in case of lands subsequently classified as noncoal.
83. Same; homestead or desert-land and other entries.
84. Same; applications for entry.
85. Patents for lands, with reservation of coal; disposal of coal deposits.
86. Disposition of lands in Indian reservations with reservation of coal; examination and appraisal of lands.
87. Same; statements in application; patents.
88. Same; disposition of coal by United States.
89. Same; disposition of proceeds.
90. Selection of coal lands by States; sale in isolated or disconnected tracts.

ENTRY UNDER MINING LAWS OF LANDS CONTAINING PETROLEUM, OR OTHER MINERAL OILS, OR GAS

Sec.
101. Entry of mineral oil lands under placer mining laws.
102. Assessment work on contiguous oil lands, located as claims, of same owner.
103. Patents for oil or gas lands not denied because of transfer before discovery of oil or gas.
104. Agreements with applicants for patents as to disposition of oil or gas, or proceeds thereof, pending determination of title; Navy petroleum fund.

HOMESTEAD ENTRY OF LANDS IN UTAH WITHDRAWN OR CLASSIFIED AS OIL LANDS

111. Entry under homestead or desert-land laws of lands in Utah, withdrawn or classified as oil lands; reservation of oil and gas.
112. Same; applications for lands.
113. Same; patent for lands; reservation of oil and gas in the United States.

AGRICULTURAL ENTRY OF LANDS WITHDRAWN OR CLASSIFIED AS CONTAINING PHOSPHATE, NITRATE, POTASH, OIL, GAS, OR ASPHALTIC MINERALS

121. Agricultural entry or purchase of lands withdrawn or classified as containing phosphate, nitrate, potash, oil or gas; reservations to United States; application.
122. Same; patents; reservation in the United States of reserved deposits; acquisition of right to remove deposits; application for entry to disprove classification.
123. Same; persons locating lands subsequently withdrawn or classified; patents to.

LOCATION UNDER PLACER-MINING LAWS OF LANDS CONTAINING PHOSPHATE ROCK

131. Phosphate rock land; validity of bona fide locations prior to Jan. 11, 1915; patents obtainable.

PERMITS TO PROSPECT FOR CHLORIDES, SULPHATES, CARBONATES, BORATES, SILICATES, OR NITRATES OF POTASSIUM

141. Permits to prospect for chlorides, sulphates, carbonates, borates, silicates, or nitrates of potassium; territory excepted; area limited.
142. Same; patents to permittees; leases of potash deposits; reservations.
143. Same; leases to permittees for camp sites.
144. Same; cancellation of permits.
145. Same; restrictions on leasehold interests.
146. Same; reservations in leases; protection of the United States.
147. Same; forfeiture of leases.
148. Same; potassium salts deposits.
149. Same; disposition of royalties and rentals.
150. Same; rules and regulations.
151. Same; regulation for disposition of deposits mandatory; rights of States concerning lessees.
152. Same; provision in leases for regulation of price and disposition of minerals.

ENTRY OF BUILDING-STONE OR SALINE LANDS UNDER PLACER-MINING LAWS

161. Entry of building-stone lands; previous law unaffected.
162. Entry of saline lands under placer-mining laws.

DISPOSAL OF LANDS IN ALABAMA AS AGRICULTURAL LANDS

171. Disposal as agricultural lands.
172. Certain lands in Alabama subject to homestead entry.

LEASES AND PROSPECTING PERMITS

1. General Provisions

181. Lands subject to disposition; right to extract helium reserved; persons not entitled to benefits.
182. Lands disposed of with reservation of deposits of coal, and so forth.
183. Cancellation of prospecting permits.
184. Limitation on number of leases to one person; combinations or unlawful trusts.
185. Rights of way for pipe lines.
186. Reservation of easements or rights of way for working purposes; reservation of right to sell or lease surface of lands.
187. Assignment or subletting of leases; relinquishment of rights under leases; conditions in leases as to operation of mines, wells, and so forth.
188. Forfeiture or cancellation of leases.
189. Rules and regulations; rights of States not affected.
190. Oaths required, when.

Sec.
191. Disposition of moneys received.
192. Payment of royalties in oil or gas; sale of such oil or gas.
193. Disposition of deposits of coal, and so forth, in Wyoming.
194. Fees and commissions of registers.

2. COAL

201. Division of land into leasing tracts; offer and award of leases; prospecting permits; notice of proposed lease.
202. Common carriers; limitations of lease or permit.
203. Inclusion of additional lands in lease.
204. Same; upon showing probability of exhaustion.
205. Consolidation of leases.
206. Noncontiguous tracts in single lease.
207. Royalties; annual rentals; term of leases; development and operation.
208. Permits to take coal for local domestic needs.

3. PHOSPHATES

211. Authority to lease lands.
212. Amount of land included in lease; surveys.
213. Royalties; annual rentals; term of leases; operation.
214. Use of surface of other lands.

4. OIL AND GAS

ENTRY ON COAL LANDS IN GENERAL

Section 71. Coal lands; entry.—Every person above the age of twenty-one years, who is a citizen of the United States, or who has declared his intention to become such, or any association of persons severally qualified as above, shall, upon application to the register of the proper land office, have the right to enter, by legal subdivisions, any quantity of vacant coal lands of the United States not otherwise appropriated or reserved by competent authority, not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres to such individual person, or three hundred and twenty acres to such association, upon payment to the register of not less than $10 per acre for such lands, where the same shall be situated more than fifteen miles from any completed railroad, and not less than $20 per acre for such lands as shall be within fifteen miles of such road. (R. S. § 2347; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

72. Same; preference right of entry.—Any person or association of persons severally qualified, as above provided, who have opened and improved, or shall open and improve, any coal mine or mines upon the public lands, and shall be in actual possession of the same, shall be entitled to a preference right of entry, under section 71 of this title, of the mines so opened and improved: Provided, That when any association of not less than four persons, severally qualified as above provided, shall have expended not less than $5,000 in working and improving any such mine or mines, such association may enter not exceeding six hundred and forty acres, including such mining improvements. (R. S. § 2348.)

73. Same; presentation of claims.—All claims under section 72 of this title must be presented to the register of the proper land district within sixty days after the date of actual possession and the commencement of improvements on the land, by the filing of a declaratory statement therefor; but when the township plat is not on file at the date of such improvement, filing must be made within sixty days from the receipt of such plat at the district office. (R. S. § 2349.)

74. Same; one entry only.—Sections 71 to 73 of this title shall be held to authorize only one entry by the same person or association of persons; and no association of persons any member of which shall have taken the benefit of such sections, either as an individual or as a member of any other association, shall enter or hold any other lands under the provisions thereof; and no member of any association which shall have taken the benefit of such sections shall enter or hold any other lands under their provisions; and all persons claiming under section 72 of this title shall be required to prove their respective rights and pay for the lands filed upon within one year from the time prescribed for filing their respective claims; and upon failure to file the proper notice, or to pay for the land within the required period, the same shall be subject to entry by any other qualified applicant. (R. S. § 2350.)

75. Same; conflicting claims.—In case of conflicting claims upon coal lands where the improvements shall be commenced, after the 3d day of March, 1873, priority of possession and improvement, followed by proper filing and continued good faith, shall determine the preference right to purchase. And also where improvements have already been made prior to the 3d day of March, 1873, division of the land claimed may be made by legal subdivisions, to include, as near as may be, the valuable improvements of the respective parties. The Commissioner of the General Land Office is authorized to issue all needful rules and regulations for carrying into effect the provisions of sections 71 to 75 of this title. (R. S. § 2351.)

76. Same; rights reserved.—Nothing in sections 71 to 75 of this title shall be construed to destroy or impair any rights which may have attached prior to the 3d day of March, 1873, or to authorize the sale of lands valuable for mines of gold, silver, or copper. (R. S. § 2352.)

77. Coal lands in Alabama opened to agricultural entry.—Unreserved public lands containing coal deposits in the State of Alabama which on April 23, 1912, were being withheld from homestead entry under the provisions of section 171 of this title, may be entered under the homestead laws of the United States subject to the provisions, terms, conditions, and limitations prescribed in sections 83 to 85, inclusive, of this title. (Apr. 23, 1912, c. 87, 37 Stat. 90.)

ENTRY UNDER NONMINERAL LAND LAWS OF COAL LANDS WITH RESERVATION OF COAL TO UNITED STATES

81. Rights of entrymen of lands subsequently classified as coal lands; disposal of coal deposits.—Any person who has in good faith located, selected, or entered under the nonmineral land laws of the United States any lands which subsequently are classified, claimed, or reported as being valuable for coal, may, if he shall so elect, and upon making satisfactory proof of compliance with the laws under which such lands are claimed, receive a patent therefor, which shall contain a reservation to the United States of all coal in said lands, and the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same. The coal deposits in such lands shall be subject to disposal by the United States in accordance with the provisions of the coal land laws in force at the time of such disposal, but no person shall enter upon said lands to prospect for, or mine and remove coal therefrom, without previous consent of the owner under such patent, except upon such conditions as to security for and payment of all damages to such owner caused thereby as may be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction. The owner under such patent shall have the right to mine coal for use on the land for domestic purposes prior to the disposal by the United States of the coal deposit. Nothing herein contained shall be held to affect or abridge the right of any locator, selector, or entryman to a hearing for the purpose of determining the character of the land located, selected, or entered by him. Such locator, selector, or entryman who has made or shall make final proof showing good faith and satisfactory compliance with the law under which his land is claimed shall be entitled to a patent without reservation unless at the time of such final proof and entry it shall be shown that the land is chiefly valuable for coal. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 270, 35 Stat. 844.)

82. New or supplemental patents, in case of lands subsequently classified as noncoal.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed in cases where patents for public lands have been issued to entrymen under the provisions of sections 81, 83, 84, and 85 of this title, reserving to the United States all coal deposits therein, and lands so patented are subsequently classified as noncoal in character, to issue new or supplemental patents without such reservation. (Apr. 14, 1914, c. 55, 38 Stat. 335.)

83. Same; homestead or desert-land and other entries.—Unreserved public lands of the United States exclusive of Alaska which have been withdrawn or classified as coal lands, or are valuable for coal, shall be subject to appropriate entry under the homestead laws by actual settlers only, the desert-land law, to selection under section 641, Title 43, and to withdrawal under sections 372, 373, 381, 383, 391, 392, 411, 416, 419, 421, 431, 432, 434, 439, 461, 476, 491, and 498 of Title 43, whenever such entry, selection, or withdrawal shall be made with a view of obtaining or passing title, with a reservation to the United States of the coal in such lands and of the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same. But no desert entry made under the provisions of this section and sections 84 and 85 shall contain more than one hundred and sixty acres, and all homestead entries made hereunder shall be subject to the conditions, as to residence and cultivation, of entries under section 218, Title 43. Those who have initiated nonmineral entries, selections, or locations in good faith, prior to June 22, 1910, on lands withdrawn or classified as coal lands may perfect the same under the provisions of the laws under which said entries were made, but shall receive the limited patent provided for herein. (June 22, 1910, c. 318, § 1, 36 Stat. 583.)

84. Same; applications for entry.—Any person desiring to make entry under the homestead laws or the desert-land law, any State desiring to make selection under section 641 of Title 43, and the Secretary of the Interior in withdrawing under sections 372, 373, 381, 383, 391, 392, 411, 416, 419, 421, 431, 432, 434, 439, 461, 476, 491, and 498 of Title 43 lands classified as coal lands, or valuable for coal, with a view of securing or passing title to the same in accordance with the provisions of said sections, shall state in the application for entry, selection, or notice of withdrawal that the same is made in accordance with and subject to the provisions and reservations of sections 83 to 85 of this title. (June 22, 1910, c. 318, § 2, 36 Stat. 584.)

85. Patents for lands, with reservation of coal; disposal of coal deposits.—Upon satisfactory proof of full compliance with the provisions of the laws under which entry is made, and of this section and sections 83 and 84 of this title, the entryman shall be entitled to a patent to the land entered by him, which patent shall contain a reservation to the United States of all the coal in the lands so patented, together with the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same. The coal deposits in such lands shall be subject to disposal by the United States in accordance with the provisions of the coal-land laws in force at the time of such disposal. Any person qualified to acquire coal deposits or the right to mine and remove the coal under the laws of the United States shall have the right, at all times, to enter upon the lands selected, entered, or patented, as provided by this section and sections 83 and 84 of this title, for the purpose of prospecting for coal thereon upon the approval by the Secretary of the Interior of a bond or undertaking to be filed with him as security for the payment of all damages to the crops and improvements on such lands by reason of such prospecting. Any person who has acquired from the United States the coal deposits in any such land, or the right to mine or remove the same, may reenter and occupy so much of the surface thereof as may be required for all purposes reasonably incident to the mining and removal of the coal therefrom, and mine and remove the coal, upon payment of the damages caused thereby to the owner thereof, or upon giving a good and sufficient bond or undertaking in an action instituted in any competent court to ascertain and fix said damages. The owner under such limited patent shall have the right to mine coal for use upon the land for domestic purposes at any time prior to the disposal by the United States of the coal deposits. Nothing herein contained shall be held to deny or abridge the right to present and have prompt consideration of applications to locate, enter, or select, under the land laws of the United States, lands which have been classified as coal lands with a view of disproving such classification and securing a patent without reservation. (June 22, 1910, c. 318, § 3, 36 Stat. 584.)

86. Disposition of lands in Indian reservations with reservation of coal; examination and appraisal of lands.—In any Indian reservation opened to settlement and entry pursuant to a classification of the surplus lands therein as mineral and nonmineral, such surplus lands not otherwise reserved or disposed of, which have been or may be withdrawn or classified as coal lands or are valuable for coal deposits, shall be subject to the same disposition as is or may be prescribed by law for the nonmineral lands in such reservation whenever proper application shall be made with a view of obtaining title to such lands, with a reservation to the United States of the coal deposits therein and of the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same. Such surplus lands, prior to any disposition hereunder, shall be examined, separated into classes the same as are the nonmineral lands in such reservations, and appraised, as to their value, exclusive of the coal deposits therein, under such rules and regulations as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior for that purpose. (Feb. 27, 1917, c. 133, § 1, 39 Stat. 944.)

87. Same; statements in application; patents.—Any applicant for lands mentioned in section 86 shall state in his application that the same is made in accordance with and subject to the provisions and reservations of this section and sections 86, 88, and 89 of this title, and upon submission of satisfactory proof of full compliance with the provisions of law under which application or entry is made and of said sections shall be entitled to a patent to the lands applied for and entered by him, which patent shall contain a reservation to the United States of all the coal deposits in the lands so patented, together with the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same. (Feb. 27, 1917, c. 133, § 2, 39 Stat. 945.)

88. Same; disposition of coal by United States.—If the coal-land laws have been or shall be extended over lands applied for, entered, or patented hereunder the coal deposits therein shall be subject to disposal by the United States in accordance with the provisions of the coal-land laws in force at the time of such disposal. Any person qualified to acquire coal deposits or the right to mine and remove the coal under the laws of the United States shall have the right at all times to enter upon the lands applied for, entered, or patented under this section and sections 86, 87, and 89 of this title, for the purpose of prospecting for coal thereon, if such coal deposits are then subject to disposition, upon the approval by the Secretary of the Interior of a bond or undertaking to be filed with him as security for the payment of all damages to the crops and improvements on such lands by reason of such prospecting. Any person who has acquired from the United States the coal deposits in any such lands, or the right to mine or remove the same, may reenter and occupy so much of the surface thereof as may be required for all purposes reasonably incident to the mining and removal of the coal therefrom, and mine and remove the coal, upon payment of the damages caused thereby to the owner thereof, or upon giving a good and sufficient bond or undertaking in an action instituted in any competent court to ascertain and fix said damages. The owner under such limited patent shall have the right to mine coal for personal use upon the land for domestic purposes at any time prior to the disposal by the United States of the coal deposits. Nothing herein contained shall be held to deny or abridge the right to present and have prompt consideration of applications made under the applicable land laws of the United States for any such surplus lands which have been or may be classified as coal lands with a view of disproving such classification and securing a patent without reservation. (Feb. 27, 1917, c. 133, § 3, 39 Stat. 945.)

89. Same; disposition of proceeds.—The net proceeds derived from the sale and entry of surplus lands in conformity with the provisions of sections 86, 87, and 88 of this title shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the same fund under the same conditions and limitations as are or may be prescribed by law for the disposition of the proceeds arising from the disposal of other surplus lands in such Indian reservation. The provisions of said sections shall not apply to the lands of the Five Civilized Tribes of Indians in Oklahoma. (Feb. 27, 1917, c. 133, § 4, 39 Stat. 945.)

90. Selection of coal lands by States; sale in isolated or disconnected tracts.—Unreserved public lands of the United States, exclusive of Alaska, which have been withdrawn or classified as coal lands or are valuable for coal shall, in addition to the classes of entries or filings described in sections 83, 84, and 85 of this title be subject to selection by the several States within whose limits the lands are situate, under grants made by Congress, and to disposition, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, under the laws providing for the sale of isolated or disconnected tracts of public lands, but there shall be a reservation to the United States of the coal in all such lands so selected or sold and of the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same in accordance with the provisions of said sections, and such lands shall be subject to all the conditions and limitations of said sections. (Apr. 30, 1912, c. 99, 37 Stat. 105.)

ENTRY UNDER MINING LAWS OF LANDS CONTAINING PETROLEUM, OR OTHER MINERAL OILS, OR GAS

101. Entry of mineral oil lands under placer mining laws.—Any person authorized to enter lands under the mining laws of the United States may enter and obtain patent to lands containing petroleum or other mineral oils, and chiefly valuable therefor, under the provisions of the laws relating to placer mineral claims: Provided, That lands containing such petroleum or other mineral oils which had been filed upon, claimed, or improved as mineral, but not yet patented, prior to February 11, 1897, may be held and patented under the provisions of this section the same as if such filing, claim, or improvement were subsequent to February 11, 1897. (Feb. 11, 1897, c. 216, 29 Stat. 526.)

102. Assessment work on contiguous oil lands, located as claims, of same owner.—Where oil lands are located as placer mining claims, the annual assessment labor upon such claims may be done upon any one of a group of claims lying contiguous and owned by the same person or corporation, not exceeding five claims in all, where such labor will tend to the development or to determine the oil-bearing character of such contiguous claims. (Feb. 12, 1903, c. 548, 32 Stat. 825.)

103. Patents for oil or gas lands not denied because of transfer before discovery of oil or gas.—In no case shall patent be denied to or for any lands located or claimed prior to March 2, 1911, under the mining laws of the United States containing petroleum, mineral oil, or gas solely because of any transfer or assignment thereof or of any interest or interests therein by the original locator or locators, or any of them, to any qualified person or persons or corporation, prior to discovery of oil or gas therein, but if such claim is in all other respects valid and regular, patent therefor not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres in any one claim shall issue to the holder or holders thereof, as in other cases. The above provisions shall not apply where such lands were at the time of inception of development on or under such claim withdrawn from mineral entry. (Mar. 2, 1911, c. 201, § 1, 36 Stat. 1015.)

104. Agreements with applicants for patents as to disposition of oil or gas, or proceeds thereof, pending determination of title; Navy petroleum fund.—Where applications for patents have been or may be offered for any oil or gas land included in an order of withdrawal upon which oil or gas had been discovered, or was being produced prior to March 2, 1911, or upon which drilling operations were in actual progress on October 3, 1910, and oil or gas is thereafter discovered thereon, and where there has been no final determination by the Secretary of the Interior upon such applications for patent, said Secretary, in his discretion, may enter into agreements, under such conditions as he may prescribe with such applicants for patents in possession of such land or any portions thereof, relative to the disposition of the oil or gas produced therefrom or the proceeds thereof, pending final determination of the title thereto by the Secretary of the Interior, or such other disposition of the same as may be authorized by law. Any money which may accrue to the United States under the provisions of this section and section 103 of this title from lands within the naval petroleum reserves shall be set aside for the needs of the Navy and deposited in the Treasury to the credit of a fund to be known as the Navy petroleum fund, which fund shall be applied to the needs of the Navy as Congress may from time to time direct, by appropriation or otherwise. (Mar. 2, 1911, c. 201, § 2, 36 Stat. 1015; Aug. 25, 1914, c. 287, 38 Stat. 708.)

HOMESTEAD ENTRY OF LANDS IN UTAH, WITHDRAWN OR CLASSIFIED AS OIL LANDS

111. Entry under homestead or desert-land laws of lands in Utah withdrawn or classified as oil lands; reservation of oil and gas.—Unreserved public lands of the United States in the State of Utah, which have been withdrawn or classified as oil lands, or are valuable for oil, shall be subject to appropriate entry under the homestead laws by actual settlers only, the desert-land law, to selection by the State of Utah under grants made by Congress and under section 641 of Title 43, and to withdrawal under sections 372, 373, 381, 383, 391, 392, 411, 416, 419, 421, 431, 432, 434, 439, 461, 476, 491, and 498 of Title 43, and to disposition in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior under the law providing for the sale of isolated or disconnected tracts of public lands, whenever such entry, selection, or withdrawal shall be made with a view of obtaining or passing title, with a reservation to the United States of the oil and gas in such lands and of the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same. But no desert entry made under the provisions of sections 111 to 113, inclusive, of this title shall contain more than one hundred and sixty acres: Provided, That those who have initiated nonmineral entries, selections, or locations in good faith, prior to August 24, 1912, on lands withdrawn or classified as oil lands may perfect the same under the provisions of the laws under which said entries were made, but shall receive the limited patent provided for in section 67 of this title. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 367, § 1, 37 Stat. 496.)

112. Same; applications for lands.—Any person desiring to make entry under the homestead laws or the desert-land law, and the State of Utah desiring to make selection under section 641 of Title 43, or under grants made by Congress, and the Secretary of the Interior in withdrawing under sections 372, 373, 381, 383, 391, 392, 411, 416, 419, 421, 431, 432, 434, 439, 461, 476, 491, and 498 of Title 43 lands classified as oil lands, or valuable for oil, with a view of securing or passing title to the same in accordance with the provisions of sections 111 to 113, inclusive, shall state in the application for entry, selection, or notice of withdrawal that the same is made in accordance with and subject to the provisions and reservations of said sections. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 367, § 2, 37 Stat. 496.)

113. Same; patent for lands; reservation of oil and gas in the United States.—Upon satisfactory proof of full compliance with the provisions of the laws under which entry is made and of sections 111 to 113 of this title the entryman shall be entitled to a patent to the land entered by him, which patent shall contain a reservation to the United States of all the oil and gas in the lands so patented, together with the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same upon rendering compensation to the patentee for all damages that may be caused by prospecting for and removing such oil or gas. The reserved oil and gas deposits in such lands shall be disposed of only as shall be expressly directed by law. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 367, § 3, 37 Stat. 496.)

AGRICULTURAL ENTRY OF LANDS WITHDRAWN OR CLASSIFIED AS CONTAINING PHOSPHATE, NITRATE, POTASH, OIL, GAS, OR ASPHALTIC MINERALS

121. Agricultural entry or purchase of lands withdrawn or classified as containing phosphate, nitrate, potash, oil, or gas; reservations to United States; application.—Lands withdrawn or classified as phosphate, nitrate, potash, oil, gas, or asphaltic minerals, or which are valuable for those deposits, shall be subject to appropriation, location, selection, entry, or purchase, if otherwise available, under the nonmineral land laws of the United States, whenever such location, selection, entry, or purchase shall be made with a view of obtaining or passing title with a reservation to the United States of the deposits on account of which the lands were withdrawn or classified or reported as valuable, together with the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same; but no desert entry made under the provisions of this section and sections 122 and 123 shall contain more than one hundred and sixty acres. All applications to locate, select, enter, or purchase under this section shall state that the same are made in accordance with and subject to the provisions and reservations of the above mentioned sections. (July 17, 1914, c. 142, § 1, 38 Stat. 509.)

122. Same; patents; reservation in the United States of reserved deposits; acquisition of right to remove deposits; application for entry to disprove classification.—Upon satisfactory proof of full compliance with the provisions of the laws under which the location, selection, entry, or purchase is made, the locator, selector, entryman, or purchaser shall be entitled to a patent to the land located, selected, entered, or purchased, which patent shall contain a reservation to the United States of the deposits on account of which the lands so patented were withdrawn or classified or reported as valuable, together with the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same, such deposits to be subject to disposal by the United States only as shall be expressly directed by law. Any person qualified to acquire the reserved deposits may enter upon said lands with a view of prospecting for the same upon the approval by the Secretary of the Interior of a bond or undertaking to be filed with him as security for the payment of all damages to the crops and improvements on such lands by reason of such prospecting, the measure of any such damage to be fixed by agreement of parties or by a court of competent jurisdiction. Any person who has acquired from the United States the title to or the right to mine and remove the reserved deposits, should the United States dispose of the mineral deposits in lands, may reenter and occupy so much of the surface thereof as may be required for all purposes reasonably incident to the mining and removal of the minerals therefrom, and mine and remove such minerals, upon payment of damages caused thereby to the owner of the land, or upon giving a good and sufficient bond or undertaking therefor in an action instituted in any competent court to ascertain and fix said damages. Nothing herein contained shall be held to deny or abridge the right to present and have prompt consideration of applications to locate, select, enter, or purchase, under the land laws of the United States, lands which have been withdrawn or classified as phosphate, nitrate, potash, oil, gas, or asphaltic mineral lands, with a view of disproving such classification and securing patent without reservation, nor shall persons who have located, selected, entered, or purchased lands subsequently withdrawn, or classified as valuable for said mineral deposits, be debarred from the privilege of showing, at any time before final entry, purchase, or approval of selection or location, that the lands entered, selected, or located are in fact nonmineral in character. (July 17, 1914, c. 142, § 2, 38 Stat. 509.)

123. Same; persons locating lands subsequently withdrawn or classified; patents to.—Any person who has, in good faith, located, selected, entered, or purchased, or any person who shall locate, select, enter, or purchase, after July 17, 1914, under the nonmineral land laws of the United States, any lands which are subsequently withdrawn, classified, or reported as being valuable for phosphate, nitrate, potash, oil, gas, or asphaltic minerals, may, upon application therefor, and making satisfactory proof of compliance with the laws under which such lands are claimed, receive a patent therefor, which patent shall contain a reservation to the United States of all deposits on account of which the lands were withdrawn, classified, or reported as being valuable, together with the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same. (July 17, 1914, c. 142, § 3, 38 Stat. 510.)

LOCATION UNDER PLACER-MINING LAWS OF LANDS CONTAINING PHOSPHATE ROCK

131. Phosphate rock land; validity of bona fide locations prior to January 11, 1915; patents obtainable.—Where public lands containing deposits of phosphate rock had been located in good faith under the placer-mining laws of the United States prior to January 11, 1915, and upon which assessment work has been annually performed, such locations shall be valid and may be perfected under the provisions of the placer-mining laws, and patents whether issued prior to, or after, said date thereon shall give title to and possession of such deposits. This section shall not apply to any locations made subsequent to the withdrawal of such lands from location, nor shall it apply to lands included in an adverse or conflicting lode location unless such adverse or conflicting location is abandoned. (Jan. 11, 1915, c. 9, 38 Stat. 792.)

PERMITS TO PROSPECT FOR CHLORIDES, SULPHATES, CARBONATES, BORATES, SILICATES, OR NITRATES OF POTASSIUM

141. Permits to prospect for chlorides, sulphates, carbonates, borates, silicates, or nitrates of potassium; territory excepted; area limited.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, to issue to any applicant who is a citizen of the United States, an association of such citizens, or a corporation organized under the laws of any State or Territory thereof, a prospecting permit which shall give the exclusive right, for a period not exceeding two years, to prospect for chlorides, sulphates, carbonates, borates, silicates, or nitrates of potassium on public lands of the United States, except lands in and adjacent to Searles Lake, which would be described if surveyed as townships 24, 25, 26, and 27 south of ranges 42, 43, and 44 east, Mount Diablo meridian, California: Provided, That the area to be included in such permit shall not exceed two thousand five hundred and sixty acres of land in reasonably compact form. (Oct. 2, 1917, c. 62, § 1, 40 Stat. 297.)

142. Same; patents to permittees; leases of potash deposits; reservations.—Upon showing to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Interior that valuable deposits of one or more of the substances enumerated in section 141 of this title have been discovered by the permittee within the area covered by his permit, the permittee shall be entitled to a patent for not to exceed one-fourth of the land embraced in the prospecting permit, to be taken in compact form and described by legal subdivisions of the public-land surveys, or if the land be not surveyed, then in tracts which shall not exceed two miles in length, by survey executed at the cost of the permittee, in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior. All other lands described and embraced in such a prospecting permit from and after the exercise of the right to patent accorded to the discoverer, and not covered by leases, may be leased by the Secretary of the Interior, through advertisement, competitive bidding, or such other methods as he may by general regulations adopt, and in such areas as he shall fix, not exceeding two thousand five hundred and sixty acres, all leases to be conditioned upon the payment by the lessee of such royalty as may be specified in the lease and which shall be fixed by the Secretary of the Interior in advance of offering the same, and which shall not be less than 2 per centum on the gross value of the output at the point of shipment, which royalty, on demand of the Secretary of the Interior, shall be paid in the product of such lease, and the payment in advance of a rental, which shall be not less than 25 cents per acre for the first year thereafter; not less than 50 cents per acre for the second, third, fourth, and fifth years, respectively; and not less than $1 per acre for each and every year thereafter during the continuance of the lease, except that such rental for any year shall be credited against the royalties as they accrue for that year. Leases shall be for indeterminate periods, upon condition that at the end of each twenty-year period succeeding the date of any lease such readjustment of terms and conditions may be made as the Secretary of the Interior may determine, unless otherwise provided by law at the time of the expiration of such periods, and a patentee under this section may also be a lessee. The potash deposits in the public lands in and adjacent to Searles Lake in what would be if surveyed townships 24, 25, 26, and 27 south of ranges 42, 43, and 44 east, Mount Diablo meridian, California, may be operated by the United States or may be leased by the Secretary of the Interior under the terms and provisions of sections 141 to 152 of this title. The Secretary of the Interior may issue leases under the provisions of such sections for deposits of potash in public lands in Sweetwater County, Wyoming, also containing deposits of coal, on condition that the coal be reserved to the United States. (Oct. 2, 1917, c. 62, § 2, 40 Stat. 298.)

143. Same; leases to permittees for camp sites.—In addition to areas of such mineral land to be included in prospecting permits or leases the Secretary of the Interior, in his discretion, may issue to a permittee or lessee under sections 141 to 152 of this title the exclusive right to use, during the life of the permit or lease, a tract of unoccupied nonmineral public land not exceeding forty acres in area for camp sites, refining works, and other purposes connected with and necessary to the proper development and use of the deposits covered by the permit or lease. (Oct. 2, 1917, c. 62, § 3, 40 Stat. 298.)

144. Same; cancellation of permits.—The Secretary of the Interior shall reserve the authority and shall insert in any preliminary permit issued under section 141 of this title appropriate provisions for its cancellation by him upon failure by the permittee or licensee to exercise due diligence in the prosecution of the prospecting work in accordance with the terms and conditions stated in the permit. (Oct. 2, 1917, c. 62, § 4, 40 Stat. 299.)

145. Same; restrictions on leasehold interests.—No person shall take or hold any interest or interests as a member of an association or associations or as a stockholder of a corporation or corporations holding a lease under the provisions hereof which, together with the area embraced in any direct holding of a lease under sections 141 to 152 of this title, or which, together with any other interest or interests as a member of an association or associations or as a stockholder of a corporation or corporations holding a lease under the provisions hereof, or otherwise, exceeds in the aggregate in any area, fifty miles square an amount equivalent to the maximum number of acres allowed to any one lessee under said sections. No person, association, or corporation holding a lease thereunder shall hold more than a tenth interest, direct or indirect, in any other agency, corporate or otherwise, engaged in the sale or resale of the products obtained from such lease; and any violation of the provisions of this section shall be ground for the forfeiture of the lease or interest so held; and the interests held in violation of this provision shall be forfeited to the United States by appropriate proceedings instituted by the Attorney General for that purpose in the United States district court for the district in which the property or some part thereof is located, except that any such ownership or interest hereby forbidden which may be acquired by descent, will, judgment, or decree may be held for two years and not longer after its acquisition. (Oct. 2, 1017, c. 62, § 5, 40 Stat. 299.)

146. Same; reservations in leases; protection of the United States.—Any permit, lease, occupation, or use, permitted under sections 141 to 152 of this title shall reserve to the Secretary of the Interior the right to permit for joint or several use such easements or rights of way upon, through, or in the lands leased, occupied, or used as may be necessary or appropriate to the working of the same, or of other lands containing the deposits described in said sections, and the treatment and shipment of the products thereof by or under authority of the Government, its lessees, or permittees, and for other public purposes. The Secretary of the Interior, in his discretion, in making any lease under said sections may reserve to the United States the right to dispose of the surface of the lands embraced within such lease under existing law or laws hereafter enacted, in so far as said surface is not necessary for use of the lessee in extracting and removing the deposits therein. If such reservation is made it shall be so determined before the offering of such lease. The said Secretary, during the life of the lease, is authorized to issue such permits for easements herein provided to be reserved. Each lease shall contain provisions deemed necessary for the protection of the interests of the United States, and for the prevention of monopoly, and for the safeguarding of the public welfare. (Oct. 2, 1917, c. 62, §§ 6, 7, 40 Stat. 299.)

147. Same; forfeiture of leases.—Any lease issued under the provisions of sections 141 to 152 of this title may be forfeited and canceled by an appropriate proceeding in the United States district court for the district in which the property or some part thereof is located whenever the lessee fails to comply with any of the provisions of said sections, of the lease, or of the general regulations promulgated under said sections and in force at the date of the lease, and the lease may provide for resort to appropriate methods for the settlement of disputes or for remedies for breach of specified conditions thereof. (Oct. 2, 1917, c. 62, § 8, 40 Stat. 299.)

148. Same; potassium salts deposits.—The provisions of sections 141 to 152 of this title shall also apply to all deposits of potassium salts in the lands of the United States which may have been or may be disposed of under laws reserving to the United States the potassium deposits with the right to prospect for, drill, mine, and remove the same, subject to such conditions as to the use and occupancy of the surface as are or may be provided by law. (Oct. 2, 1917, c. 62, § 9, 40 Stat. 300.)

149. Same; disposition of royalties and rentals.—All moneys received from royalties and rentals under the provisions of sections 141 to 152 of this title, excepting those from Alaska, shall be paid into, reserved, and appropriated as a part of the reclamation fund created by section 391 of Title 43, but after use thereof in the construction of reclamation works and upon return to the reclamation fund of any such moneys in the manner provided by sections 372, 373, 381, 383, 391, 392, 411, 416, 419, 421, 431, 432, 434, 439, 461, 476, 491, and 498 of Title 43 and Acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, 50 per centum of the amounts derived from such royalties and rentals, so utilized in and returned to the reclamation fund shall be paid by the Secretary of the Treasury after the expiration of each fiscal year to the State within the boundaries of which the leased lands or deposits are or were located, said moneys to be used by such State or subdivisions thereof for the construction and maintenance of public roads or for the support of public schools. (Oct. 2, 1917, c. 62, § 10, 40 Stat. 300.)

150. Same; rules and regulations.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to prescribe necessary and proper rules and regulations and to do any and all things necessary to carry out and accomplish the purposes of sections 141 to 152 of this title. (Oct. 2, 1917, c. 62, § 11, 40 Stat. 300.)

151. Same; regulation for disposition of deposits mandatory; rights of States concerning lessees.—The deposits referred to under sections 141 to 152 of this title in lands valuable for such minerals, shall be subject to disposition only in the form and manner provided therein, except as to valid claims existent October 2, 1917, and thereafter maintained in compliance with the laws under which initiated, which claims may be perfected under such laws. Nothing in the sections enumerated above shall be construed or held to affect the rights of the States or other local authority to exercise any rights which they may have to levy and collect taxes upon improvements, output of mines, or other rights, property, or assets of any lessee. (Oct. 2, 1917, c. 62, § 12, 40 Stat. 300.)

152. Same; provision in leases for regulation of price and disposition of minerals.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to incorporate in every lease issued under the provisions of sections 141 to 151 of this title a provision reserving to the President the right to regulate the price of all mineral extracted and sold from the leased premises, which stipulation shall specifically provide that the price or prices fixed shall be such as to yield a fair and reasonable return to the lessee upon his investment and to secure to the consumer any of such products at the lowest price reasonable and consistent with the foregoing. A lease issued under said sections shall also stipulate that the President shall have authority to so regulate the disposal of the potassium products produced under such lease as to secure its distribution and use wholly within the limits of the United States or its possessions. (Oct. 2, 1917, c. 62, § 13, 40 Stat. 300.)

ENTRY OF BUILDING-STONE OR SALINE LANDS UNDER PLACER-MINING LAWS

161. Entry of building-stone lands; previous law unaffected.—Any person authorized to enter lands under the mining laws of the United States may enter lands that are chiefly valuable for building stone under the provisions of the law in relation to placer-mineral claims. Lands reserved for the benefit of the public schools or donated to any States shall not be subject to entry under this section. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to repeal section 471 of Title 16 relating to the establishment of national forests. (Aug. 4, 1892, c. 375, §§ 1, 3, 27 Stat. 348.)

162. Entry of saline lands under placer-mining laws.—All unoccupied public lands of the United States containing salt springs, or deposits of salt in any form, and chiefly valuable therefor, shall be subject to location and purchase under the provisions of the law relating to placer-mining claims. The same person shall not locate or enter more than one claim hereunder. (Jan. 31, 1901, c. 186, 31 Stat. 745.)

DISPOSAL OF LANDS IN ALABAMA AS AGRICULTURAL LANDS

171. Disposal as agricultural lands.—Except as otherwise provided in sections 141 to 152, 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251, and 261 and 263 of this title, all public lands within the State of Alabama whether mineral or otherwise, shall be subject to disposal only as agricultural lands. All lands which had been reported to the General Land Office prior to March 3, 1883, as containing coal and iron shall first be offered at public sale. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 118, 22 Stat. 487.)

172. Certain lands in Alabama subject to homestead entry.—All lands designated as agricultural in the reclassification of the public lands of Alabama by the Secretary of the Interior under authority of Act March 27, 1906 (chapter 1347, section 1, Thirty-fourth Statutes, page 88), shall be subject to homestead entry as such. (Mar. 27, 1906, c. 1347, § 2, 34 Stat. 88.)

LEASES AND PROSPECTING PERMITS

1. General Provisions

181. Lands subject to disposition; right to extract helium reserved; persons not entitled to benefits.—Deposits of coal, phosphate, sodium, oil, oil shale, or gas, and lands containing such deposits owned by the United States, including those in national forests, but excluding lands acquired under sections 513 to 519 of Title 16 known as the Appalachian Forest Act, and those in national parks, and in lands withdrawn or reserved for military or naval uses or purposes, except as hereinafter provided, shall be subject to disposition in the form and manner provided by sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251, and 261 to 263 of this title to citizens of the United States, or to any association of such persons, or to any corporation organized under the laws of the United States, or of any State or Territory thereof, and in the case of coal, oil, oil shale, or gas, to municipalities. The United States reserves the right to extract helium from all gas produced from lands permitted, leased, or otherwise granted under the provisions of the sections hereinbefore enumerated, under such rules and regulations as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior. In the extraction of helium from gas produced from such lands, it shall be so extracted as to cause no substantial delay in the delivery of gas produced from the well to the purchaser thereof. Citizens of another country, the laws, customs, or regulations of which, deny similar or like privileges to citizens or corporations of this country, shall not by stock ownership, stock holding, or stock control, own any interest in any lease acquired under the provisions of said sections. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 1, 41 Stat. 437.)

182. Lands disposed of with reservation of deposits of coal, and so forth.—The provisions of sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251, and 261 to 263 of this title shall also apply to all deposits of coal, phosphate, sodium, oil, oil shale, or gas in the lands of the United States, which lands may have been or may be disposed of under laws reserving to the United States such deposits, with the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same, subject to such conditions as are or may hereafter be provided by such laws reserving such deposits. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 34, 41 Stat. 450.)

183. Cancellation of prospecting permits.—The Secretary of the Interior shall reserve and may exercise the authority to cancel any prospecting permit upon failure by the permittee to exercise due diligence in the prosecution of the prospecting work in accordance with the terms and conditions stated in the permit, and shall insert in every such permit issued under the provisions of sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229 241, 251, and 261 to 263 of this title appropriate provisions for its cancellation by him. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 26, 41 Stat. 448.)

184. Limitation on number of leases to one person; combinations or unlawful trusts.—No person, association, or corporation, except as herein provided, shall take or hold more than one coal, phosphate, or sodium lease during the life of such lease in any one State; no person, association, or corporation shall take or hold, at one time, more than three oil or gas leases granted hereunder in any one State, and not more than one lease within the geologic structure of the same producing oil or gas field; no corporation shall hold any interest as a stockholder of another corporation in more than such number of leases; and no person or corporation shall take or hold any interest or interests as a member of an association or associations or as a stockholder of a corporation or corporations holding a lease under the provisions hereof, which, together with the area embraced in any direct holding of a lease hereunder, or which, together with any other interest or interests as a member of an association or associations or as a stockholder of a corporation or corporations holding a lease under the provisions hereof, for any kind of mineral leased hereunder, exceeds in the aggregate an amount equivalent to the maximum number of acres of the respective kinds of minerals allowed to any one lessee under this section. Any interests held in violation hereof shall be forfeited to the United States by appropriate proceedings instituted by the Attorney General for that purpose in the United States district court for the district in which the property, or some part thereof, is located, except that any ownership or interest hereby forbidden which may be acquired by descent, will, judgment, or decree may be held for two years and not longer after its acquisition. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to limit sections 227, 228, and 251 of this title or to prevent any number of lessees from combining their several interests so far as may be necessary for the purposes of constructing and carrying on the business of a refinery, or of establishing and constructing as a common carrier a pipe line or lines of railroads to be operated and used by them jointly in the transportation of oil from their several wells, or from the wells of other lessees, or the transportation of coal. Any combination for such purpose or purposes shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior on application to him for permission to form the same. If any of the lands or deposits leased under the provisions hereof shall be subleased, trusteed, possessed, or controlled by any device permanently, temporarily, directly, indirectly, tacitly, or in any manner whatsoever, so that they form part of, or are in any-wise controlled by any combination in the form of an unlawful trust, with consent of lessee, or form the subject of any contract or conspiracy in restraint of trade in the mining or selling of coal, phosphate, oil, oil shale, gas, or sodium entered into by the lessee, or any agreement or understanding, written, verbal, or otherwise to which such lessee shall be a party, of which his or its output is to be or become the subject, to control the price or prices thereof or of any holding of such lands by any individual, partnership, association, corporation, or control, in excess of the amounts of lands herein provided, the lease thereof shall be forfeited by appropriate court proceedings. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 27, 41 Stat. 448.)

185. Rights of way for pipe lines.—Rights of way through the public lands, including the national forests of the United States are granted for pipe-line purposes for the transportation of oil or natural gas to any applicant possessing the qualifications provided in section 181 of this title, to the extent of the ground occupied by the said pipe line and twenty-five feet on each side of the same under such regulations as to survey, location, application, and use as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior and upon the express condition that such pipe lines shall be constructed, operated, and maintained as common carriers. The Government shall in express terms reserve and shall provide in every lease of oil lands hereunder that the lessee, assignee, or beneficiary, if owner, or operator or owner of a controlling interest in any pipe line or of any company operating the same which may be operated accessible to the oil derived from lands under such lease, shall at reasonable rates and without discrimination accept and convey the oil of the Government or of any citizen or company not the owner of any pipe line, operating a lease or purchasing gas or oil under the provisions of sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251, and 261 to 263 of this title. No right of way shall be granted over said lands for the transportation of oil or natural gas except under and subject to the provisions, limitations, and conditions of this section. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section or the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior shall be ground for forfeiture of the grant by the United States district court for the district in which the property, or some part thereof, is located in an appropriate proceeding. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 28, 41 Stat. 449.)

186. Reservation of easements or rights of way for working purposes; reservation of right to sell or lease surface of lands.—Any permit, lease, occupation, or use permitted under sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251, and 261 to 263 of this title shall reserve to the Secretary of the Interior the right to permit upon such terms as he may determine to be just, for joint or several use, such easements or rights of way, including easements in tunnels upon, through, or in the lands leased, occupied, or used as may be necessary or appropriate to the working of the same, or of other lands containing the deposits described in the sections hereinbefore enumerated, and the treatment and shipment of the products thereof by or under authority of the Government, its lessees, or permittees, and for other public purposes. The Secretary of the Interior, in his discretion, in making any lease under the sections hereinbefore enumerated, may reserve to the United States the right to lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of the surface of the lands embraced within such lease under existing law or laws hereafter enacted, in so far as said surface is not necessary for use of the lessee in extracting and removing the deposits therein. If such reservation is made it shall be so determined before the offering of such lease. The said Secretary, during the life of the lease, is authorized to issue such permits for easements herein provided to be reserved. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 29, 41 Stat. 449.)

187. Assignment or subletting of leases; relinquishment of rights under leases; conditions in leases as to operation of mines, wells, and so forth.—No lease issued under the authority of sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251, and 261 to 263 of this title shall be assigned or sublet, except with the consent of the Secretary of the Interior. The lessee may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Interior, be permitted at any time to make written relinquishment of all rights under such a lease, and upon acceptance thereof be thereby relieved of all future obligations under said lease, and may with like consent surrender any legal subdivision of the area included within the lease. Each lease shall contain provisions for the purpose of insuring the exercise of reasonable diligence, skill, and care in the operation of said property; a provision that such rules for the safety and welfare of the miners and for the prevention of undue waste as may be prescribed by said Secretary shall be observed, including a restriction of the workday to not exceeding eight hours in any one day for underground workers except in cases of emergency; provisions prohibiting the employment of any boy under the age of sixteen or the employment of any girl or woman, without regard to age, in any mine below the surface; provisions securing the workmen complete freedom of purchase; provision requiring the payment of wages at least twice a month in lawful money of the United States, and providing proper rules and regulations to insure the fair and just weighing or measurement of the coal mined by each miner, and such other provisions as he may deem necessary to insure the sale of the production of such leased lands to the United States and to the public at reasonable prices, for the protection of the interests of the United States, for the prevention of monopoly, and for the safeguarding of the public welfare. None of such provisions shall be in conflict with the laws of the State in which the leased property is situated. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 30, 41 Stat. 449.)

188. Forfeiture or cancellation of leases.—Any lease issued under the provisions of sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251, and 261 to 263 of this title may be forfeited and canceled by an appropriate proceeding in the United States district court for the district in which the property, or some part thereof, is located whenever the lessee fails to comply with any of the provisions of said sections, of the lease, or of the general regulations promulgated under said sections and in force at the date of the lease; and the lease may provide for resort to appropriate methods for the settlement of disputes or for remedies for breach of specified conditions thereof. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 31, 41 Stat. 450.)

189. Rules and regulations; rights of States not affected.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to prescribe necessary and proper rules and regulations and to do any and all things necessary to carry out and accomplish the purposes of sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251, and 261 to 263 of this title, also to fix and determine the boundary lines of any structure, or oil or gas field, for the purposes thereof. Nothing in said sections shall be construed or held to affect the rights of the States or other local authority to exercise any rights which they may have, including the right to levy and collect taxes upon improvements, output of mines, or other rights, property, or assets of any lessee of the United States. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 32, 41 Stat. 450.)

190. Oaths required, when.—All statements, representations, or reports required by the Secretary of the Interior under sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251, and 261 to 263 of this title shall be upon oath, unless otherwise specified by him, and in such form and upon such blanks as the Secretary of the Interior may require. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 33, 41 Stat. 450.)

191. Disposition of moneys received.—Ten per centum of all money received from sales, bonuses, royalties, and rentals under the provisions of sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251, and 261 to 263 of this title, excepting those from Alaska, shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States and credited to miscellaneous receipts; for production prior to February 25, 1920, 70 per centum, and for production thereafter 52½ per centum of the amounts derived from such bonuses, royalties, and rentals shall be paid into, reserved, and appropriated as a part of the reclamation fund created by sections 372, 373, 381, 383, 391, 392, 411, 416, 419, 421, 431, 432, 434, 439, 461, 476, 491, and 498 of Title 43, and for production prior to such date 20 per centum, and for production thereafter 37½ per centum of the amounts derived from such bonuses, royalties, and rentals shall be paid by the Secretary of the Treasury after the expiration of each fiscal year to the State within the boundaries of which the leased lands or deposits are or were located, said moneys to be used by such State or subdivisions thereof for the construction and maintenance of public roads or for the support of public schools or other public educational institutions, as the legislature of the State may direct. All moneys which may accrue to the United States hereunder from lands within the naval petroleum reserves shall be deposited in the Treasury as "miscellaneous receipts." (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 35, 41 Stat. 450.)

192. Payment of royalties in oil or gas; sale of such oil or gas.—All royalty accruing to the United States under any oil or gas lease or permit under sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251, and 261 to 263 of this title on demand of the Secretary of the Interior shall be paid in oil or gas.

Upon granting any oil or gas lease, and from time to time thereafter during said lease, the Secretary of the Interior shall, except whenever in his judgment it is desirable to retain the same for the use of the United States, offer for sale for such period as he may determine, upon notice and advertisement on sealed bids or at public auction, all royalty oil and gas accruing or reserved to the United States under such lease. Such advertisement and sale shall reserve to the Secretary of the Interior the right to reject all bids whenever within his judgment the interest of the United States demands; and in cases where no satisfactory bid is received or where the accepted bidder fails to complete the purchase, or where the Secretary of the Interior shall determine that it is unwise in the public interest to accept the offer of the highest bidder, the Secretary of the Interior, within his discretion, may readvertise such royalty for sale, or sell at private sale at not less than the market price for such period, or accept the value thereof from the lessee. Pending the making of a permanent contract for the sale of any royalty, oil or gas as herein provided, the Secretary of the Interior may sell the current product at private sale, at not less than the market price. Any royalty, oil, or gas may be sold at not less than the market price at private sale to any department or agency of the United States. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 36, 41 Stat. 451.)

193. Disposition of deposits of coal, and so forth, in Wyoming.—The deposits of coal, phosphate, sodium, oil, oil shale, and gas, herein referred to, in lands valuable for such minerals, including lands and deposits in Lander, Wyoming, coal entries numbered 18 to 49, inclusive, shall be subject to disposition only in the form and manner provided in sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251, and 261 to 263 of this title, except as to valid claims existent on February 25, 1920, and thereafter maintained in compliance with the laws under which initiated, which claims may be perfected under such laws, including discovery. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 37, 41 Stat. 451; Aug. 1, 1912, No. 38, 37 Stat. 1346.)

194. Fees and commissions of registers.—Until otherwise provided, the Secretary of the Interior shall be authorized to prescribe fees and commissions to be paid registers of United States land offices on account of business transacted under the provisions of sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251, and 261 to 263 of this title. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 38, 41 Stat. 451; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

2. Coal

201. Division of land into leasing tracts; offer and award of leases; prospecting permits; notice of proposed lease.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to, and upon the petition of any qualified applicant shall, divide any of the coal lands or the deposits of coal, classified and unclassified, owned by the United States, outside of the Territory of Alaska, into leasing tracts of forty acres each, or multiples thereof, and in such form as, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Interior, will permit the most economical mining of the coal in such tracts, but in no case exceeding two thousand five hundred and sixty acres in any one leasing tract, and thereafter the Secretary of the Interior shall, in his discretion, upon the request of any qualified applicant or on his own motion, from time to time, offer such lands or deposits of coal for leasing, and shall award leases thereon by competitive bidding or by such other methods as he may by general regulations adopt, to any qualified applicant. He is authorized, in awarding leases for coal lands improved and occupied or claimed in good faith, prior to February 25, 1920, to consider and recognize equitable rights of such occupants or claimants. Where prospecting or exploratory work is necessary to determine the existence or workability of coal deposits in any unclaimed, undeveloped area, the Secretary of the Interior may issue, to applicants qualified under sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251, and 261 to 263 of this title, prospecting permits for a term of two years, for not exceeding two thousand five hundred and sixty acres; and if within said period of two years thereafter, the permittee shows to the Secretary that the land contains coal in commercial quantities, the permittee shall be entitled to a lease hereunder for all or part of the land in his permit. No lease of coal hereunder shall be approved or issued until after notice of the proposed lease, or offering for lease, has been given for thirty days in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the lands or deposits are situated. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 2, 41 Stat. 438.)

202. Common carriers; limitations of lease or permit.—No company or corporation operating a common-carrier railroad shall be given or hold a permit or lease under the provisions of the subchapter for any coal deposits except for its own use for railroad purposes; and such limitations of use shall be expressed in all permits and leases issued to such companies or corporations; and no such company or corporation shall receive or hold more than one permit or lease for each two hundred miles of its railroad line within the State in which said property is situated, exclusive of spurs or switches and exclusive of branch lines built to connect the leased coal with the railroad, and also exclusive of parts of the railroad operated mainly by power produced otherwise than by steam.

Nothing in this section shall preclude such a railroad of less than two hundred miles in length from securing one permit or lease hereunder. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 2, 41 Stat. 438.)

203. Inclusion of additional lands in lease.—Any person, association, or corporation holding a lease of coal lands or coal deposits under this subchapter may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, upon a finding by him that it will be for the advantage of the lessee and the United States, secure modifications of his or its original lease by including additional coal lands or coal deposits contiguous to those embraced in such lease, but in no event shall the total area embraced in such modified lease exceed in the aggregate two thousand five hundred and sixty acres. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 3, 41 Stat. 439.)

204. Same; upon showing probability of exhaustion.—Upon satisfactory showing by any lessee to the Secretary of the Interior that all of the workable deposits of coal within a tract covered by his or its lease will be exhausted, worked out, or removed within three years thereafter, the Secretary of the Interior may, within his discretion, lease to such lessee an additional tract of land or coal deposits, which, including the coal area remaining in the existing lease, shall not exceed two thousand five hundred and sixty acres, through the same procedure and under the same conditions as in case of an original lease. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 4, 41 Stat. 439.)

205. Consolidation of leases.—If, in the judgment of the Secretary of the Interior, the public interest will be subserved thereby, lessees holding under lease areas not exceeding the maximum permitted may consolidate their leases through the surrender of the original leases and the inclusion of such areas in a new lease of not to exceed two thousand five hundred and sixty acres of contiguous lands. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 5, 41 Stat. 439.)

206. Noncontiguous tracts in single lease.—Where coal or phosphate lands aggregating two thousand five hundred and sixty acres and subject to lease hereunder do not exist as contiguous areas, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized, if, in his opinion, the interests of the public and of the lessee will be thereby subserved, to embrace in a single lease noncontiguous tracts which can be operated as a single mine or unit. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 6, 41 Stat. 439.)

207. Royalties; annual rentals; term of leases; development and operation.—For the privilege of mining or extracting the coal in the lands covered by the lease the lessee shall pay to the United States such royalties as may be specified in the lease, which shall be fixed in advance of offering the same, and which shall not be less than 5 cents per ton of two thousand pounds, due and payable at the end of each third month succeeding that of the extraction of the coal from the mine, and an annual rental, payable at the date of such lease and annually thereafter, on the lands or coal deposits covered by such lease, at such rate as may be fixed by the Secretary of the Interior prior to offering the same, which shall not be less than 25 cents per acre for the first year thereafter, not less than 50 cents per acre for the second, third, fourth, and fifth years, respectively, and not less than $1 per acre for each and every year thereafter during the continuance of the lease, except that such rental for any year shall be credited against the royalties as they accrue for that year. Leases shall be for indeterminate periods upon condition of diligent development and continued operation of the mine or mines, except when such operation shall be interrupted by strikes, the elements, or casualties not attributable to the lessee, and upon the further condition that at the end of each twenty-year period succeeding the date of the lease such readjustment of terms and conditions may be made as the Secretary of the Interior may determine, unless otherwise provided by law at the time of the expiration of such periods. The Secretary of the Interior may, if in his judgment the public interest will be subserved thereby, in lieu of the provision herein contained requiring continuous operation of the mine or mines, provide in the lease for the payment of an annual advance royalty upon a minimum number of tons of coal, which in no case shall aggregate less than the amount of rentals herein provided for. He may permit suspension of operation under such lease for not to exceed six months at any one time when market conditions are such that the lease can not be operated except at a loss. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 7, 41 Stat. 439.)

208. Permits to take coal for local domestic needs.—In order to provide for the supply of strictly local domestic needs for fuel, the Secretary of the Interior may, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe in advance, issue limited licenses or permits to individuals or associations of individuals to prospect for, mine, and take for their use but not for sale, coal from the public lands without payment of royalty for the coal mined or the land occupied, on such conditions not inconsistent with sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251, and 261 to 263 of this title as in his opinion will safeguard the public interests. This privilege shall not extend to any corporations. In the case of municipal corporations the Secretary of the Interior may issue such limited license or permit, for not to exceed three hundred and twenty acres for a municipality of less than one hundred thousand population, and not to exceed one thousand two hundred and eighty acres for a municipality of not less than one hundred thousand and not more than one hundred and fifty thousand population; and not to exceed two thousand five hundred and sixty acres for a municipality of one hundred and fifty thousand population or more, the land to be selected within the State wherein the municipal applicant may be located upon condition that such municipal corporations will mine the coal therein under proper conditions and dispose of the same without profit to residents of such municipality for household use: Provided, That the acquisition or holding of a lease under sections 181 and 201 to 207 of this title shall be no bar to the holding of such tract or operation of such mine under said limited license. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 8, 41 Stat. 440.)

3. Phosphates

211. Authority to lease lands.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to lease to any applicant qualified under sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251, and 261 to 263 of this title any lands belonging to the United States containing deposits of phosphates, under such restrictions and upon such terms as are herein specified, through advertisement, competitive bidding, or such other methods as the Secretary of the Interior may by general regulation adopt. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 9, 41 Stat. 440.)

212. Amount of land included in lease; surveys.—Each lease shall be for not to exceed two thousand five hundred and sixty acres of land to be described by the legal subdivisions of the public land surveys, if surveyed; if unsurveyed, to be surveyed by the Government at the expense of the applicant for lease, in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior and the lands leased shall be conformed to and taken in accordance with the legal subdivisions of such survey; deposits made to cover expense of surveys shall be deemed appropriated for that purpose; and any excess deposits shall be repaid to the person, association, or corporation making such deposits or their legal representatives. The land embraced in any one lease shall be in compact form, the length of which shall not exceed two and one-half times its width. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 10, 41 Stat. 440.)

213. Royalties; annual rentals; term of leases; operation.—For the privilege of mining or extracting the phosphates or phosphate rock covered by the lease the lessee shall pay to the United States such royalties as may be specified in the lease, which shall be fixed by the Secretary of the Interior in advance of offering the same, which shall not be less than 2 per centum of the gross value of the output of phosphates or phosphate rock at the mine, due and payable at the end of each third month succeeding that of the sale or other disposition of the phosphates or phosphate rock, and an annual rental payable at the date of such lease and annually thereafter on the area covered by such lease at such rate as may be fixed by the Secretary of the Interior prior to offering the lease, which shall be not less than 25 cents per acre for the first year thereafter, 50 cents per acre for the second, third, fourth, and fifth years, respectively, and $1 per acre for each and every year thereafter during the continuance of the lease, except that such rental for any year shall be credited against the royalties as they accrue for that year. Leases shall be for indeterminate periods upon condition of a minimum annual production, except when operation shall be interrupted by strikes, the elements, or casualties not attributable to the lessee, and upon the further condition that at the end of each twenty-year period succeeding the date of the lease such readjustment of terms and conditions shall be made as the Secretary of the Interior shall determine unless otherwise provided by law at the time of the expiration of such periods. The Secretary of the Interior may permit suspension of operation under such lease for not exceeding twelve months at any one time when market conditions are such that the lease can not be operated except at a loss. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 11, 41 Stat. 440.)

214. Use of surface of other lands.—Any qualified applicant to whom the Secretary of the Interior may grant a lease to develop and extract phosphates, or phosphate rock, under the provisions of this subchapter shall have the right to use so much of the surface of unappropriated and unentered lands, not exceeding forty acres, as may be determined by the Secretary of the Interior to be necessary for the proper prospecting for or development, extraction, treatment, and removal of such mineral deposits. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 12, 41 Stat. 441.)

4. Oil and Gas

221. Prospecting permits; term and conditions; extension; location of lands; marking land; notice of application for permit; permits in Alaska.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, under such necessary and proper rules and regulations as he may prescribe, to grant to any applicant qualified under sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251, and 261 to 263 of this title a prospecting permit, which shall give the exclusive right, for a period not exceeding two years, to prospect for oil or gas upon not to exceed two thousand five hundred and sixty acres of land wherein such deposits belong to the United States and are not within any known geological structure of a producing oil or gas field upon condition that the permittee shall begin drilling operations within six months from the date of the permit, and shall, within one year from and after the date of permit, drill one or more wells for oil or gas to a depth of not less than five hundred feet each, unless valuable deposits of oil or gas shall be sooner discovered, and shall, within two years from date of the permit, drill for oil or gas to an aggregate depth of not less than two thousand feet unless valuable deposits of oil or gas shall be sooner discovered. The Secretary of the Interior may, if he shall find that the permittee has been unable with the exercise of diligence to test the land in the time granted by the permit, extend any such permit for such time, not exceeding two years, and upon such conditions as he shall prescribe. Whether the lands sought in any such application and permit are surveyed or unsurveyed the applicant shall, prior to filing his application for permit, locate such lands in a reasonably compact form and according to the legal subdivisions of the public land surveys if the land be surveyed; and in an approximately square or rectangular tract if the land be an unsurveyed tract, the length of which shall not exceed two and one-half times its width, and if he shall cause to be erected upon the land for which a permit is sought a monument not less than four feet high, at some conspicuous place thereon, and shall post a notice in writing on or near said monument, stating that an application for permit will be made within thirty days after date of posting said notice, the name of the applicant, the date of the notice, and such a general description of the land to be covered by such permit by reference to courses and distances from such monument and such other natural objects and permanent monuments as will reasonably identify the land, stating the amount thereof in acres, he shall, during the period of thirty days following such marking and posting, be entitled to a preference right over others to a permit for the land so identified. The applicant shall, within ninety days after receiving a permit, mark each of the corners of the tract described in the permit upon the ground with substantial monuments, so that the boundaries can be readily traced on the ground, and shall post in a conspicuous place upon the lands a notice that such permit has been granted and a description of the lands covered thereby. In the Territory of Alaska prospecting permits not more than five in number may be granted to any qualified applicant for periods not exceeding four years, actual drilling operations shall begin within two years from date of permit, and oil and gas wells shall be drilled to a depth of not less than five hundred feet, unless valuable deposits of oil or gas shall be sooner discovered, within three years from date of the permit and to an aggregate depth of not less than two thousand feet, unless valuable deposits of oil or gas shall be sooner discovered, within four years from date of permit. In said Territory the applicant shall have a preference right over others to a permit for land identified by temporary monuments and notice posted on or near the same for six months following such marking and posting, and upon receiving a permit he shall mark the corners of the tract described in the permit upon the ground with substantial monuments within one year after receiving such permit. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 13, 41 Stat. 441.)

222. Same; extension of time for beginning drilling, and so forth.—The Secretary of the Interior may, if he shall find that any oil or gas permittee has been unable, with the exercise of diligence, to begin drilling operations or to drill wells of the depth and within the time prescribed by section 221 of this title, extend the time for beginning such drilling or completing it, to the amount specified in such section for such time, not exceeding three years, and upon such conditions as he shall prescribe. (Jan. 11, 1922, c. 28, 42 Stat. 356.)

223. Leases; amount and survey of land; term of lease; royalties and annual rental.—Upon establishing to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Interior that valuable deposits of oil or gas have been discovered within the limits of the land embraced in any permit, the permittee shall be entitled to a lease for one-fourth of the land embraced in the prospecting permit. The permittee shall be granted a lease for as much as one hundred and sixty acres of said lands, if there be that number of acres within the permit. The area to be selected by the permittee, shall be in compact form and, if surveyed, to be described by the legal subdivisions of the public-land surveys; if unsurveyed, to be surveyed by the Government at the expense of the applicant for lease in accordance with rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior and the lands leased shall be conformed to and taken in accordance with the legal subdivisions of such surveys; deposits made to cover expense of surveys shall be deemed appropriated for that purpose, and any excess deposits may be repaid to the person or persons making such deposit or their legal representatives. Such leases shall be for a term of twenty years upon a royalty of 5 per centum in amount or value of the production and the annual payment in advance of a rental of $1 per acre, the rental paid for any one year to be credited against the royalties as they accrue for that year, with the right of renewal as prescribed in section 226 of this title. The permittee shall also be entitled to a preference right to a lease for the remainder of the land in his prospecting permit at a royalty of not less than 12½ per centum in amount or value of the production, and under such other conditions as are fixed for oil or gas leases in sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251, and 261 to 263 of this title, the royalty to be determined by competitive bidding or fixed by such other method as the Secretary may by regulations prescribe. The Secretary shall have the right to reject any or all bids. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 14, 41 Stat. 442.)

224. Payments for oil or gas taken prior to application for lease.—Until the permittee shall apply for lease to the one quarter of the permit area heretofore provided for he shall pay to the United States 20 per centum of the gross value of all oil or gas secured by him from the lands embraced within his permit and sold or otherwise disposed of or held by him for sale or other disposition. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 15, 41 Stat. 442.)

225. Conditions of permit or lease; forfeiture for violations of.—All permits and leases of lands containing oil or gas, made or issued under the provisions of this subchapter, shall be subject to the condition that no wells shall be drilled within two hundred feet of any of the outer boundaries of the lands so permitted or leased, unless the adjoining lands have been patented or the title thereto otherwise vested in private owners, and to the further condition that the permittee or lessee will, in conducting his explorations and mining operations, use all reasonable precautions to prevent waste of oil or gas developed in the land, or the entrance of water through wells drilled by him to the oil sands or oil-bearing strata, to the destruction or injury of the oil deposits. Violations of the provisions of this section shall constitute grounds for the forfeiture of the permit or lease. to be enforced through appropriate proceedings in courts of competent jurisdiction. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 16, 41 Stat. 443.)

226. Lease of unappropriated deposits of oil or gas in producing oil or gas field; royalties and annual rentals.—All unappropriated deposits of oil or gas situated within the known geologic structure of a producing oil or gas field and the unentered lands containing the same, not subject to preferential lease, may be leased by the Secretary of the Interior to the highest responsible bidder by competitive bidding under general regulations to qualified applicants in areas not exceeding six hundred and forty acres and in tracts which shall not exceed in length two and one-half times their width, such leases to be conditioned upon the payment by the lessee of such bonus as may be accepted and of such royalty as may be fixed in the lease, which shall not be less than 12½ per centum in amount or value of the production, and the payment in advance of a rental of not less than $1 per acre per annum thereafter during the continuance of the lease, the rental paid for any one year to be credited against the royalties as they accrue for that year. Leases shall be for a period of twenty years, with the preferential right in the lessee to renew the same for successive periods of ten years upon such reasonable terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, unless otherwise provided by law at the time of the expiration of such periods. Whenever the average daily production of any oil well shall not exceed ten barrels per day, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to reduce the royalty on future production when in his judgment the wells can not be successfully operated upon the royalty fixed in the lease. The provisions of this section shall apply to all oil and gas leases made under this subchapter. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 17, 41 Stat. 443.)

227. Leases to persons relinquishing rights under prior claims on withdrawn lands under preexisting placer mining law; claims on naval petroleum reserves; fraud of claimant; adjustment of suits.—Upon relinquishment to the United States, filed in the General Land Office within six months after February 25, 1920, of all right, title, and interest claimed and possessed prior to July 3, 1910, and continuously since by the claimant or his predecessor in interest under the preexisting placer mining law to any oil or gas bearing land upon which there has been drilled one or more oil or gas wells to discovery embraced in the Executive order of withdrawal issued September 27, 1909, and not within any naval petroleum reserve, and upon payment as royalty to the United States of an amount equal to the value at the time of production of one-eighth of all the oil or gas already produced except oil or gas used for production purposes on the claim, or unavoidably lost, from such land, the claimant, or his successor, if in possession of such land, undisputed by any other claimant prior to July 1, 1919, shall be entitled to a lease thereon from the United States for a period of twenty years, at a royalty of not less than 12½ per centum of all the oil or gas produced except oil or gas used for production purposes on the claim, or unavoidably lost: Provided, That not more than one-half of the area, but in no case to exceed three thousand two hundred acres, within the geologic oil or gas structure of a producing oil or gas field shall be leased to any one claimant under the provision of this section when the area of such geologic oil structure exceeds six hundred and forty acres. Any claimant or his successor, subject to this limitation, shall, however, have the right to select and receive the lease as in this section provided for that portion of his claim or claims equal to, but not in excess of, said one-half of the area of such geologic oil structure, but not more than three thousand two hundred acres.

All such leases shall be made and the amount of royalty to be paid for oil and gas produced, except oil or gas used for production purposes on the claim, or unavoidably lost, after the execution of such lease shall be fixed by the Secretary of the Interior under appropriate rules and regulations: Provided, however, That as to all like claims situate within any naval petroleum reserve the producing wells thereon only shall be leased, together with an area of land sufficient for the operation thereof, upon the terms and payment of royalties for past and future production as herein provided for in the leasing of claims. No wells shall be drilled in the land subject to this provision within six hundred and sixty feet of any such leased well without the consent of the lessee: Provided, however, That the President may, in his discretion, lease the remainder or any part of any such claim upon which such wells have been drilled, and in the event of such leasing said claimant or his successor shall have a preference right to such lease: And provided further, That he may permit the drilling of additional wells by the claimant or his successor within the limited area of six hundred and sixty feet theretofore provided for upon such terms and conditions as he may prescribe.

No claimant for a lease who has been guilty of any fraud or who had knowledge or reasonable grounds to know of any fraud, or who has not acted honestly and in good faith, shall be entitled to any of the benefits of this section.

Upon the delivery and acceptance of the lease, as in this section provided, all suits brought by the Government affecting such land may be settled and adjusted in accordance herewith and all moneys impounded in such suits or under section 104 of this title shall be paid over to the parties entitled thereto. In case of conflicting claimants for leases under this section, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to grant leases to one or more of them as shall be deemed just. All leases hereunder shall inure to the benefit of the claimant and all persons claiming through or under him by lease, contract, or otherwise, as their interests may appear, subject, however, to the same limitation as to area and acreage as is provided for claimant in this section: Provided, That no claimant acquiring any interest in such lands since September 1, 1919, from a claimant on or since said date claiming or holding more than the maximum allowed claimant under this section shall secure a lease thereon or any interest therein, but the inhibition of this proviso shall not apply to an exchange of any interest in such lands made prior to the 1st day of January, 1920, which did not increase or reduce the area or acreage held or claimed in excess of said maximum by either party to the exchange: Provided further, That no lease or leases under this section shall be granted, nor shall any interest therein, inure to any person, association, or corporation for a greater aggregate area or acreage than the maximum in this section provided for. (Feb. 25, 1020, c. 85, § 18, 41 Stat. 443.)

228. Prospecting permits and leases to persons of lands not withdrawn; terms and conditions of; fraud of claimants.—Any person who on October 1, 1919, was a bona fide occupant or claimant of oil or gas lands under a claim initiated while such lands were not withdrawn from oil or gas location and entry, and who had previously performed all acts under then existing laws necessary to valid locations thereof except to make discovery, and upon which discovery had not been made prior to February 25, 1920, and who has performed work or expended on or for the benefit of such locations an amount equal in the aggregate to $250 for each location if application therefor shall be made within six months from February 25, 1920, shall be entitled to prospecting permits thereon upon the same terms and conditions, and limitations as to acreage, as other permits provided for in this subchapter, or where any such person has made such discovery, prior to said February 25, 1920, he shall be entitled to a lease thereon under such terms as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe unless otherwise provided for in section 227 of this title: Provided, That where such prospecting permit is granted upon land within any known geologic structure of a producing oil or gas field, the royalty to be fixed in any lease thereafter granted thereon or any portion thereof shall be not less than 12½ per centum of all the oil or gas produced except oil or gas used for production purposes on the claim, or unavoidably lost: Provided, however, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to lands reserved for the use of the Navy. No claimant for a permit or lease who has been guilty of any fraud or who had knowledge or reasonable grounds to know of any fraud, or who has not acted honestly and in good faith, shall be entitled to any of the benefits of this section.

All permits or leases hereunder shall inure to the benefit of the claimant and all persons claiming through or under him by lease, contract, or otherwise, as their interests may appear. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 19, 41 Stat. 445.)

229. Preference right to permits or leases of claimants of lands bona fide entered as agricultural land; terms and conditions of.—In the case of lands bona fide entered as agricultural, and not withdrawn or classified as mineral at the time of entry, but not including lands claimed under any railroad grant, the entryman or patentee, or assigns, where assignment was made prior to January 1, 1918, if the entry has been patented with the mineral right reserved, shall be entitled to a preference right to a permit and to a lease, as herein provided, in case of discovery; and within an area not greater than a township such entryman and patentees, or assigns holding restricted patents may combine their holdings, not to exceed two thousand five hundred and sixty acres for the purpose of making joint application. Leases executed under this section and embracing only lands so entered shall provide for the payment of a royalty of not less than 12½ per centum as to such areas within the permit as may not be included within the discovery lease to which the permittee is entitled under section 223 of this title. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 20, 41 Stat. 445.)

230. Permits or leases of certain lands in Oklahoma; adjustment of equitable claims by Secretary of Interior.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to adjust and determine the equitable claims of citizens of the United States, and domestic corporations to lands and oil and gas deposits belonging to the United States and situated south of the medial line of the main channel of Red River, Oklahoma, which lands were claimed and possessed in good faith by such citizens or corporations, or their predecessors in interest, prior to February 25, 1920, and upon which lands expenditures were made in good faith and with reasonable diligence in an effort to discover or develop oil or gas, by issuance of permits or leases to those found equitably entitled thereto. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 249, § 1, 42 Stat. 1448.)

231. Same; limitation of time for applications; grant to assignees or successors in interest of original locators or claimants; conflicting claims.—Applications for permits and leases under sections 230 to 236 of this title shall be made to the Secretary of the Interior, and shall be made within and not after sixty days from and after March 4, 1923. Leases and permits under said sections may be granted to the assignees or successors in interest of the original locators or the original claimants in all cases where the original locators or original claimants have assigned or transferred their rights, but when leases or permits are granted to the assignees or successors in interest of the original locators or original claimants the said leases and permits shall be subject to all contracts, not contrary to law or public policy, between the original locators or original claimants and their successors in interest.

In case of conflicting claimants for permits or leases under said sections 230 to 236 of this title, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to grant permits or leases to one or more of them as shall be deemed just. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 249, § 2, 42 Stat. 1448.)

232. Same; limitation on amount of land granted.—Not more than one hundred and sixty acres shall be granted by leases or permits under sections 230 to 236 of this title to any one person or corporation, except in those cases where two or more locations or claims have been assigned to one person or corporation, and in such cases not more than six hundred and forty acres shall be granted by leases or permits to any one person or corporation. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 249, § 3, 42 Stat. 1448.)

233. Same; royalties.—Each lessee shall be required to pay as royalty to the United States an amount equal to the value at the time of production of 12½ per centum of all oil and gas produced by him prior to the issuance of the lease, except oil or gas used on the property for production purposes or unavoidably lost; and shall be required to pay to the United States a royalty of not less than 12½ per centum of all oil and gas produced by him after the issuance of the lease, except oil and gas used on the property for production purposes or unavoidably lost. Of the proceeds of the oil and gas that have been produced or that may hereafter be produced by the receiver of said property, appointed by the Supreme Court of the United States, 12½ per centum as royalty shall be paid to the United States, and the residue after deducting and paying the expenses of the litigation incurred by the United States and the expenses of the receivership shall be paid to the person or corporation to whom may be granted a lease of the land on which said oil and gas were produced. The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to take such legal steps as may be necessary and proper to collect from any person or persons who shall not be awarded a permit or lease under sections 230 to 236 of this title an amount equal to the value of all oil and gas produced by him or them from any of said lands prior to the inclusion of said property in the receivership, except oil or gas used on the property for production purposes or unavoidably lost and except other reasonable and proper allowances for the expenses of production. Of the amount so collected, 12½ per centum shall be reserved to the United States as royalty and the balance after deducting the expense of collection shall be paid over to the person or persons awarded permits or leases under said sections, as their interests may appear. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 249, § 4, 42 Stat. 1448.)

234. Same; laws applicable; disposition of remaining lands; operation of wells pending final disposition of applications for leases or permits; disposition of royalties and rentals.—Except as otherwise provided herein the applicable provisions of sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251 and 261 to 263 of this title shall apply to the leases and permits granted under sections 230 to 236 of this title, including the provisions of sections 191 and 192 relating to the disposition of royalties. After the adjudication and disposition of all applications under said sections 230 to 236 any lands and deposits remaining unappropriated and undisposed of shall, after date fixed by order of the Secretary of the Interior, be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241, 251 and 261 to 263. The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to take over and operate wells existing on any of such lands on March 4, 1923, pending the final disposition of applications for leases and permits, and to utilize and expend in connection with such administration and operation so much as may be necessary of moneys impounded prior to that date from past production or thereafter produced, and upon final disposition of applications for and the issuance of leases and permits, after deducting the expenses of administration and operation and payment to the United States of the royalty herein provided, to pay the balance remaining to the person or company entitled thereto. Out of the 10 per centum of money received from royalties and rentals under the provisions of sections 230 to 236 of this title and paid into the Treasury of the United States and credited to miscellaneous receipts, as provided by section 191, the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to use and expend such portion as may be required to pay the expense of administration and supervision over leases and permits and the products thereof. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 249, § 5, 42 Stat. 1449.)

235. Same; lands in possession of receivers appointed by Supreme Court.—Nothing in sections 230 to 236 of this title shall be construed to interfere with the possession by the Supreme Court of the United States, through its receiver or receivers, of any part of the lands described in section 230, nor to authorize the Secretary of the Interior to dispose of any of said lands or oil or gas deposits involved in litigation pending in the Supreme Court of the United States, on March 4, 1923, until the final disposition of said proceeding. The authority herein granted to the Secretary of the Interior, to take over and operate oil wells on said lands, shall not become effective until the said lands shall be, by the Supreme Court of the United States, discharged from its possession. And nothing in said sections shall be construed to interfere with the jurisdiction, power, and authority of the Supreme Court of the United States to adjudicate claims against its said receiver, to direct the payment of such claims against the said receiver as may be allowed by the said court, to settle the said receiver's accounts, and to continue the receivership until, in due and orderly course, the same may be brought to an end. The Supreme Court of the United States is authorized, upon the termination of the said receivership, which the Attorney General is directed to apply for and secure at the earliest practicable date, to direct its receiver to pay to the Secretary of the Interior all funds derived from oil and gas produced from lands of the United States that may at that time remain in the hands of the said receiver; and when said funds shall be paid to the Secretary of the Interior the same shall be administered as provided in sections 230 to 236. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 249, § 6, 42 Stat. 1449.)

236. Same; rules and regulations.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to prescribe the necessary and proper rules and regulations and to do any and all things necessary to carry out and accomplish the purposes of sections 230 to 235 of this title. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 249, § 7, 42 Stat. 1450.)

5. Oil Shale

241. Authority to make lease; survey of land; term of lease; royalties and annual rentals; rights of existing claimants.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to lease to any person or corporation qualified under this section and sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 251 and 261 to 263 of this title any deposits of oil shale belonging to the United States and the surface of so much of the public lands containing such deposits, or land adjacent thereto, as may be required for the extraction and reduction of the leased minerals, under such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with such sections, as he may prescribe. No lease hereunder shall exceed five thousand one hundred and twenty acres of land, to be described by the legal subdivisions of the public-land surveys, or if unsurveyed, to be surveyed by the United States, at the expense of the applicant, in accordance with regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior. Leases may be for indeterminate periods, upon such conditions as may be imposed by the Secretary of the Interior, including covenants relative to methods of mining, prevention of waste, and productive development. For the privilege of mining, extracting, and disposing of the oil or other minerals covered by a lease under this section the lessee shall pay to the United States such royalties as shall be specified in the lease and an annual rental, payable at the beginning of each year, at the rate of 50 cents per acre per annum, for the lands included in the lease, the rental paid for any one year to be credited against the royalties accruing for that year; such royalties to be subject to readjustment at the end of each twenty-year period by the Secretary of the Interior. For the purpose of encouraging the production of petroleum products from shales the Secretary may, in his discretion, waive the payment of any royalty and rental during the first five years of any lease. Any person having a valid claim to such minerals under existing laws on January 1, 1919, shall, upon the relinquishment of such claim, be entitled to a lease under the provisions of this section for such area of the land relinquished as shall not exceed the maximum area authorized by this section to be leased to an individual or corporation. No claimant for a lease who has been guilty of any fraud or who had knowledge or reasonable grounds to know of any fraud, or who has not acted honestly and in good faith, shall be entitled to any of the benefits of this section. Not more than one lease shall be granted under this section to any one person, association, or corporation. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 21, 41 Stat. 445.)

6. Alaska Oil Proviso

251. Prospecting permits or leases to claimants of withdrawn lands; terms and conditions of; fraud of claimants.—Any bona fide occupant or claimant of oil or gas bearing lands in the Territory of Alaska, who, or whose predecessors in interest, prior to withdrawal had complied otherwise with the requirements of the mining laws, but had made no discovery of oil or gas in wells and who prior to withdrawal had made substantial improvements for the discovery of oil or gas on or for each location or had prior to February 25, 1920, expended not less than $250 in improvements on or for each location shall be entitled, upon relinquishment or surrender to the United States within one year from February 25, 1920, or within six months after final denial or withdrawal of application for patent, to a prospecting permit or permits, lease or leases, under this section and sections 181 to 194, 201 to 208, 211 to 214, 221, 223 to 229, 241 and 261 to 263 of this title covering such lands, not exceeding five permits or leases in number and not exceeding an aggregate of one thousand two hundred and eighty acres in each. Leases in Alaska under such sections whether as a result of prospecting permits or otherwise shall be upon such rental and royalties as shall be fixed by the Secretary of the Interior and specified in the lease, and be subject to readjustment at the end of each twenty-year period of the lease. For the purpose of encouraging the production of petroleum products in Alaska the Secretary may, in his discretion, waive the payment of any rental or royalty not exceeding the first five years of any lease.

No claimant for a lease who has been guilty of any fraud or who had knowledge or reasonable grounds to know of any fraud, or who has not acted honestly and in good faith, shall be entitled to any of the benefits of this section. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 22, 41 Stat. 446.)

7. Sodium

261. Prospecting permits; lands included.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, to grant to any qualified applicant a prospecting permit which shall give the exclusive right to prospect for chlorides, sulphates, carbonates, borates, silicates, or nitrates of sodium dissolved in and soluble in water, and accumulated by concentration, in lands belonging to the United States for a period of not exceeding two years. The area to be included in such a permit shall be not exceeding two thousand five hundred and sixty acres of land in reasonably compact form. The provisions of this section shall not apply to lands in San Bernardino County, California. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 23, 41 Stat. 447.)

262. Leases to permittees; survey of lands; royalties and annual rentals.—Upon showing to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Interior that valuable deposits of one of the substances enumerated in section 261 of this title has been discovered by the permittee within the area covered by his permit and that such land is chiefly valuable therefor the permittee shall be entitled to a lease for one-half of the land embraced in the prospecting permit, at a royalty of not less than one-eighth of the amount or value of the production, to be taken and described by legal subdivisions of the public-land surveys, or if the land be not surveyed by survey executed at the cost of the permittee in accordance with the rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior. The permittee shall also have the preference right to lease the remainder of the lands embraced within the limits of his permit at a royalty of not less than one-eighth of the amount or value of the production to be fixed by the Secretary of the Interior. Lands known to contain such valuable deposits as are enumerated in section 261 of this title and not covered by permits or leases, except such lands as are situated in said county of San Bernardino, shall be held subject to lease, and may be leased by the Secretary of the Interior through advertisement, competitive bidding, or such other methods as he may by general regulations adopt, and in such areas as he shall fix, not exceeding two thousand five hundred and sixty acres; all leases to be conditioned upon the payment by the lessee of such royalty of not less than one-eighth of the amount or value of the production as may be fixed in the lease, and the payment in advance of a rental of 50 cents per acre for the first calendar year or fraction thereof and $1 per acre per annum thereafter during the continuance of the lease, the rental paid for any one year to be credited on the royalty for that year. Leases may be for indeterminate periods, subject to readjustment at the end of each twenty-year period, upon such conditions not inconsistent herewith as may be incorporated in each lease or prescribed in general regulation theretofore issued by the Secretary of the Interior, including covenants relative to mining methods, waste, period of preliminary development, and minimum production, and a lessee under this section may be lessee of the remaining lands in his permit. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 24, 41 Stat. 447.)

263. Permits to use or lease of nonmineral lands for camp sites, and so forth.—In addition to areas of such mineral land which may be included in any such prospecting permits or leases, the Secretary of the Interior, in his discretion, may grant to a permittee or lessee of lands containing sodium deposits, and subject to the payment of an annual rental of not less than 25 cents per acre, the exclusive right to use, during the life of the permit or lease, a tract of unoccupied nonmineral public land, not exceeding forty acres in area, for camp sites, refining works, and other purposes connected with and necessary to the proper development and use of the deposits covered by the permit or lease. (Feb. 25, 1920, c. 85, § 25, 41 Stat. 447.)

DEFINITIONS

Section 1. Short title.—This chapter may be cited as the "Budget and Accounting Act, 1921." (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 1, 42 Stat. 20.)

2. Definitions.—When used in this chapter—The terms "department and establishment" and "department or establishment" mean any executive department, independent commission, board, bureau, office, agency, or other establishment of the Government, including the municipal government of the District of Columbia, but do not include the legislative branch of the Government or the Supreme Court of the United States;

The term "the Budget" means the Budget required by section 11 of this title to be transmitted to Congress;

The term "bureau" means the Bureau of the Budget;

The term "director" means the Director of the Bureau of the Budget; and

The term "assistant director" means the Assistant Director of the Bureau of the Budget. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 2, 42 Stat. 20.)

THE BUDGET

11. President to transmit Budget to Congress; contents thereof.—The President shall transmit to Congress on the first day of each regular session, the Budget, which shall set forth in summary and in detail:

(a) Estimates of the expenditures and appropriations necessary in his judgment for the support of the Government for the ensuing fiscal year; except that the estimates for such year for the legislative branch of the Government and the Supreme Court of the United States shall be transmitted to the President on or before October 15 of each year, and shall be included by him in the Budget without revision;

(b) His estimates of the receipts of the Government during the ensuing fiscal year, under (1) laws existing at the time the Budget is transmitted and also (2) under the revenue proposals, if any, contained in the Budget;

(c) The expenditures and receipts of the Government during the last completed fiscal year;

(d) Estimates of the expenditures and receipts of the Government during the fiscal year in progress;

(e) The amount of annual, permanent, or other appropriations, including balances of appropriations for prior fiscal years, available for expenditure during the fiscal year in progress, as of November 1 of such year;

(f) Balanced statements of (1) the condition of the Treasury at the end of the last completed fiscal year, (2) the estimated condition of the Treasury at the end of the fiscal year in progress, and (3) the estimated condition of the Treasury at the end of the ensuing fiscal year if the financial proposals contained in the Budget are adopted;

(g) All essential facts regarding the bonded and other indebtedness of the Government; and

(h) Such other financial statements and data as in his opinion are necessary or desirable in order to make known in all practicable detail the financial condition of the Government. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 201, 42 Stat. 20.)

12. Estimates of appropriations from reclamation fund.—The aggregate of all estimates of appropriations from the "reclamation fund" contained in the Budget for any fiscal year shall be included in the totals of the Budget for that year. (Jan. 24, 1923, c. 42, 42 Stat. 1208.)

13. Recommendations of President accompanying Budget.—(a) If the estimated receipts for the ensuing fiscal year contained in the Budget, on the basis of laws existing at the time the Budget is transmitted, plus the estimated amounts in the Treasury at the close of the fiscal year in progress, available for expenditure in the ensuing fiscal year are less than the estimated expenditures for the ensuing fiscal year contained in the Budget, the President in the Budget shall make recommendations to Congress for new taxes, loans, or other appropriate action to meet the estimated deficiency.

(b) If the aggregate of such estimated receipts and such estimated amounts in the Treasury is greater than such estimated expenditures for the ensuing fiscal year, he shall make such recommendations as in his opinion the public interests require. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 202, 42 Stat. 21.)

14. Supplemental or deficiency estimates transmitted to Congress.—(a) The President from time to time may transmit to Congress supplemental or deficiency estimates for such appropriations or expenditures as in his judgment (1) are necessary on account of laws enacted after the transmission of the Budget, or (2) are otherwise in the public interest. He shall accompany such estimates with a statement of the reasons therefor, including the reasons for their omission from the Budget.

(b) Whenever such supplemental or deficiency estimates reach an aggregate which, if they had been contained in the Budget, would have required the President to make a recommendation under subdivision (a) of section 13 of this title, he shall thereupon make such recommendation. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 203, 42 Stat. 21.)

15. Estimates or requests for appropriations, etc., not to be submitted by department officers or employees except by request.—No estimate or request for an appropriation and no request for an increase in an item of any such estimate or request, and no recommendation as to how the revenue needs of the Government should be met, shall be submitted to Congress or any committee thereof by any officer or employee of any department or establishment, unless at the request of either House of Congress. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 206, 42 Stat. 21.)

16. Bureau of Budget; director and assistant director; Budget, etc., to be prepared by bureau.—There is created in the Treasury Department a bureau to be known as the Bureau of the Budget. There shall be in the bureau a director and an assistant director, who shall be appointed by the President and receive salaries of $10,000 and $7,500 a year, respectively. The assistant director shall perform such duties as the director may designate, and during the absence or incapacity of the director or during a vacancy in the office of director he shall act as director. The bureau, under such rules and regulations as the President may prescribe, shall prepare for him the Budget, and any supplemental or deficiency estimates, and to this end shall have authority to assemble, correlate, revise, reduce, or increase the estimates of the several departments or establishments. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 207, 42 Stat. 22.)

17. Attorneys and other employees of bureau; compensation; expenses of bureau; transfer of employees to bureau.—(a) The director, under such rules and regulations as the President may prescribe, shall appoint attorneys and other employees and shall make expenditures for rent in the District of Columbia, printing, binding, telegrams, telephone service, law books, books of reference, periodicals, stationery, furniture, office equipment, other supplies, and necessary expenses of the office, within the appropriations made therefor.

(b) The director may appoint not more than four persons without regard to the civil service laws and regulations.

(c) All employees in the bureau whose compensation is at a rate of $5,000 a year or less shall be appointed in accordance with the civil service laws and regulations. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 208, 42 Stat. 22; Mar. 4, 1923, c. 265, §§ 1–14, 42 Stat. 1488–1499.)

18. Detailed study of departments and establishments by bureau.—The bureau, when directed by the President, shall make a detailed study of the departments and establishments for the purpose of enabling the President to determine what changes (with a view of securing greater economy and efficiency in the conduct of the public service) should be made in (1) the existing organization, activities, and methods of business of such departments or establishments, (2) the appropriations therefor, (3) the assignment of particular activities to particular services, or (4) the regrouping of services. The results of such study shall be embodied in a report or reports to the President, who may transmit to Congress such report or reports or any part thereof with his recommendations on the matters covered thereby. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 209, 42 Stat. 22.)

19. Powers and duties transferred to bureau.—The powers and duties relating to the compiling of estimates conferred and imposed upon the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants of the office of the Secretary of the Treasury on June 10, 1921, are transferred to the bureau. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 211, 42 Stat. 22.)

20. Aid and information for committees of Congress.—The bureau shall, at the request of any committee of either House of Congress having jurisdiction over revenue or appropriations, furnish the committee such aid and information as it may request. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 212, 42 Stat. 23.)

21. Information for bureau by departments and establishments; access to books, papers, etc., thereof.—Under such regulations as the President may prescribe, (1) every department and establishment shall furnish to the bureau such information as the bureau may from time to time require, and (2) the director and the assistant director, or any employee of the bureau when duly authorized, shall, for the purpose of securing such information, have access to, and the right to examine, any books, documents, papers, or records of any such department or establishment. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 213, 42 Stat. 23.)

22. Budget officers of departments and establishments; designation; duties.—(a) The head of each department and establishment shall designate an official thereof as Budget officer therefor, who, in each year under his direction and on or before a date fixed by him, shall prepare the departmental estimates.

(b) Such Budget officer shall also prepare, under the direction of the head of the department or establishment, such supplemental and deficiency estimates as may be required for its work. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 214, 42 Stat. 23.)

23. Departmental estimates; revision; time for submission to bureau; failure to submit.—The head of each department and establishment shall revise the departmental estimates and submit them to the bureau on or before September 15 of each year. In case of his failure so to do, the President shall cause to be prepared such estimates and data as are necessary to enable him to include in the Budget estimates and statements in respect to the work of such department or establishment. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 215, 42 Stat. 23.)

24. Same; form and manner of submission.—The departmental estimates and any supplemental or deficiency estimates submitted to the bureau by the head of any department or establishment shall be prepared and submitted in such form, manner, and detail as the President may prescribe. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 216, 42 Stat. 23.)

GENERAL ACCOUNTING OFFICE

41. Creation; control and direction of; certain offices abolished; officers, employees, books, papers, etc., transferred to General Accounting Office; seal thereof.—There is created an establishment of the Government to be known as the General Accounting Office, which shall be independent of the executive departments and under the control and direction of the Comptroller General of the United States. The offices of Comptroller of the Treasury and Assistant Comptroller of the Treasury are abolished. All other officers and employees of the office of the Comptroller of the Treasury, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, shall be officers and employees in the General Accounting Office at their grades and salaries on July 1, 1921, and all books, records, documents, papers, furniture, office equipment and other property of the office of the Comptroller of the Treasury shall be the property of the General Accounting Office. The Comptroller General is authorized to adopt a seal for the General Accounting Office. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 301, 42 Stat. 23.)

42. Comptroller General and Assistant Comptroller General.—There shall be in the General Accounting Office a Comptroller General of the United States and an Assistant Comptroller General of the United States, who shall be appointed by the President with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall receive salaries of $10,000 and $7,500 a year, respectively. The Assistant Comptroller General shall perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the Comptroller General, and during the absence or incapacity of the Comptroller General, or during a vacancy in that office, shall act as Comptroller General. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 302, 42 Stat. 23.)

43. Same; terms of office; removal from office; retirement.—Except as hereinafter provided in this section, the Comptroller General and the Assistant Comptroller General shall hold office for fifteen years. The Comptroller General shall not be eligible for reappointment. The Comptroller General or the Assistant Comptroller General may be removed at any time by joint resolution of Congress after notice and hearing, when, in the judgment of Congress, the Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller General has become permanently incapacitated or has been inefficient, or guilty of neglect of duty, or of malfeasance in office, or of any felony or conduct involving moral turpitude, and for no other cause and in no other manner except by impeachment. Any Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller General removed in the manner herein provided shall be ineligible for reappointment to that office. When a Comptroller General or Assistant Comptroller General attains the age of seventy years, he shall be retired from his office. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 303, 42 Stat. 23.)

44. Certain powers and duties transferred to General Accounting Office; conclusiveness of balances certified by Comptroller General.—All powers and duties which on June 30, 1921, were conferred or imposed by law upon the Comptroller of the Treasury or the six auditors of the Treasury Department, and the duties of the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants of the Office of the Secretary of the Treasury relating to keeping the personal ledger accounts of disbursing and collecting officers, shall, so far as not inconsistent with sections 1, 2, 11, 13 to 24, 41 to 47, 49 to 55, 58, 471, and 581 of this title and provisions of law enacted subsequent to June 30, 1921, be vested in and imposed upon the General Accounting Office and be exercised without direction from any other officer. The balances certified by the Comptroller General shall be final and conclusive upon the executive branch of the Government. The revision by the Comptroller General of settlements made by the six auditors shall be discontinued, except as to settlements made before July 1, 1921. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

45. Bureau of Accounts in Post Office Department; administrative examination of accounts and vouchers.—The administrative examination of the accounts and vouchers of the Postal Service imposed by law on June 30, 1921, upon the Auditor for the Post Office Department shall be performed by a bureau in the Post Office Department to be known as the Bureau of Accounts. The Bureau of Accounts shall be under the direction of a comptroller, who shall be appointed by the President with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall receive a salary of $5,000 a year. The comptroller shall perform the administrative duties performed by the Auditor for the Post Office Department and such other duties in relation thereto as the Postmaster General may direct. The officers and employees of the Office of the Auditor for the Post Office Department engaged in the administrative examination of accounts shall be officers and employees of the Bureau of Accounts at their grades and salaries on July 1, 1921. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

46. Laws governing General Accounting Office; copies of books, records, etc., thereof as evidence.—All laws relating generally to the administration of the departments and establishments shall, so far as applicable, govern the General Accounting Office. Copies of any books, records, papers, or documents, and transcripts from the books and proceedings of the General Accounting Office, when certified by the Comptroller General or the Assistant Comptroller General under its seal, shall be admitted as evidence with the same effect as the copies and transcripts referred to in sections 661 and 665 of Title 28. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 306, 42 Stat. 24.)

47. Payment of adjusted accounts or claims.—The Comptroller General may provide for the payment of accounts or claims adjusted and settled in the General Accounting Office, through disbursing officers of the several departments and establishments, instead of by warrant. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 307, 42 Stat. 25.)

48. Same; regulating payment of arrears of pay.—The Comptroller General may prescribe rules to govern the payment of arrears of pay due to any petty officer, seaman, or other person not an officer, on board any vessel in the employ of the United States, which has been sunk or destroyed, in case of the death of such petty officer, seaman, or person, to the person designated by law to receive the same. (R. S. § 274; July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 4, 28 Stat. 205; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

49. Forms, systems and procedure prescribed by Comptroller General.—The Comptroller General shall prescribe the forms, systems, and procedure for administrative appropriation and fund accounting in the several departments and establishments, and for the administrative examination of fiscal officers' accounts and claims against the United States. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 309, 42 Stat. 25.)

50. Forms for use in offices for collecting customs.—The Comptroller General shall report to the Secretary of the Treasury official forms to be used in the different offices for collecting the public receipts from customs. (R. S. § 318; July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 4, 28 Stat. 205; June 10, 1921, c. 18, §§ 304, 309, 42 Stat. 24, 25.)

51. Rooms of General Accounting Office.—The General Accounting Office shall occupy temporarily the rooms occupied on June 10, 1921, by the office of the Comptroller of the Treasury and the six auditors. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 310, 42 Stat. 25.)

52. Attorneys and employees in General Accounting Office; appointment; removal; compensation; duties; official acts; rules and regulations made by Comptroller General.—(a) The Comptroller General shall appoint and remove attorneys and other employees in the General Accounting Office.

(b) All such appointments, except to positions carrying a salary at a rate of more than $5,000 a year, shall be made in accordance with the civil service laws and regulations.

(c) The Comptroller General may appoint not more than four persons without regard to the civil service laws and regulations.

(d) All officers and employees of the General Accounting Office, whether transferred thereto or appointed by the Comptroller General, shall perform such duties as may be assigned to them by him.

(e) All official acts performed by such officers or employees specially designated therefor by the Comptroller General shall have the same force and effect as though performed by the Comptroller General in person.

(f) The Comptroller General shall make such rules and regulations as may be necessary for carrying on the work of the General Accounting Office, including rules and regulations concerning the admission of attorneys to practice before such office. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 311, 42 Stat. 25.)

53. Investigations and reports by Comptroller General.—(a) The Comptroller General shall investigate, at the seat of government or elsewhere, all matters relating to the receipt, disbursement, and application of public funds, and shall make to the President when requested by him, and to Congress at the beginning of each regular session, a report in writing of the work of the General Accounting Office, containing recommendations concerning the legislation he may deem necessary to facilitate the prompt and accurate rendition and settlement of accounts and concerning such other matters relating to the receipt, disbursement, and application of public funds as he may think advisable. In such regular report, or in special reports at any time when Congress is in session, he shall make recommendations looking to greater economy or efficiency in public expenditures.

(b) He shall make such investigations and reports as shall be ordered by either House of Congress or by any committee of either House having jurisdiction over revenue, appropriations, or expenditures. The Comptroller General shall also, at the request of any such committee, direct assistants from his office to furnish the committee such aid and information as it may request.

(c) The Comptroller General shall specially report to Congress every expenditure or contract made by any department or establishment in any year in violation of law.

(d) He shall submit to Congress reports upon the adequacy and effectiveness of the administrative examination of accounts and claims in the respective departments and establishments and upon the adequacy and effectiveness of departmental inspection of the offices and accounts of fiscal officers.

(e) He shall furnish such information relating to expenditures and accounting to the Bureau of the Budget as it may request from time to time. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 312, 42 Stat. 25.)

54. Information furnished to Comptroller General by departments and establishments.—All departments and establishments shall furnish to the Comptroller General such information regarding the powers, duties, activities, organization, financial transactions, and methods of business of their respective offices as he may from time to time require of them; and the Comptroller General, or any of his assistants or employees, when duly authorized by him, shall, for the purpose of securing such information, have access to and the right to examine any books, documents, papers, or records of any such department or establishment. The authority contained in this section shall not be applicable to expenditures made under the provisions of section 107 of this title. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 313, 42 Stat. 26.)

55. Eligible register for accountants for General Accounting Office.—The Civil Service Commission shall establish an eligible register for accountants for the General Accounting Office, and the examinations of applicants for entrance upon such register shall be based upon questions approved by the Comptroller General. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 314, 42 Stat. 26.)

56. Designation of person to sign warrants.—The Comptroller General is authorized to designate such person or persons in his office as may be required from time to time to countersign in his name such classes of warrants as he may direct. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 297, § 1, 35 Stat. 866; May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 647; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

58. Leaves of absence; piece-rate employees.—Under such rules and regulations as may be provided, piece-rate employees in the General Accounting Office and the Bureau of Accounts of the Post Office Department shall be entitled to the same leave of absence with pay as is provided for clerks and employees in the executive departments by sections 29 and 30 of Title 5. The pay of any piece-rate employee during such leave shall be determined by the average quantity of work done by such employee and the pay therefor. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 142, § 1, 37 Stat. 754; June 10, 1921, c. 18, §§ 304, 310, 42 Stat. 24, 25.)

Section 71. Public accounts to be settled in General Accounting Office.—All claims and demands whatever by the Government of the United States or against it, and all accounts whatever in which the Government of the United States is concerned, either as debtor or creditor, shall be settled and adjusted in the General Accounting Office. (R. S. § 236; June 10 1921, c. 18, § 305, 42 Stat. 24.)

72. Same; settlement of accounts.—Accounts shall be examined as follows:

First. The General Accounting Office shall receive and examine all accounts of salaries and incidental expenses of the office of the Secretary of the Treasury and all bureaus and offices under his direction, all accounts relating to the customs service, public debt, internal revenue, Treasurer and designated depositaries, mints and assay offices, Bureau of Engraving and Printing, Coast Guard, Public Health Service, public buildings, Secret Service, and to all other business within the jurisdiction of the Department of the Treasury, and certify the balances arising thereon to the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants.

Second. Said office shall receive and examine all accounts of salaries and incidental expenses of the office of the Secretary of War and all bureaus and offices under his direction, all accounts relating to the military establishment, armories and arsenals, national cemeteries, fortifications, public buildings and grounds under the Chief of Engineers, rivers and harbors, the Military Academy, and to all other business within the jurisdiction of the Department of War, and certify the balances arising thereon to the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants, and send forthwith a copy of each certificate to the Secretary of War.

Third. Said office shall receive and examine all accounts of salaries and incidental expenses of the office of the Secretary of the Interior, and of all bureaus and offices under his direction, and all accounts relating to Army and Navy pensions, Geological Survey, public lands, Indians, Architect of the Capitol, and to all other business within the jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior, and certify the balances arising thereon to the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants, and send forthwith a copy of each certificate to the Secretary of the Interior.

Fourth. Said office shall receive and examine all accounts of salaries and incidental expenses of the office of the Secretary of the Navy, and of all bureaus and offices under his direction, all accounts relating to the Naval Establishment, Marine Corps, Naval Academy, and to all other business within the jurisdiction of the Department of the Navy, and certify the balances arising thereon to the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants, and send forthwith a copy of each certificate to the Secretary of the Navy.

Fifth. The Bureau of Accounts in the Post Office Department shall receive and examine all accounts of salaries and incidental expenses of the office of the Postmaster General and of all bureaus and offices under his direction, all postal and money-order accounts of postmasters, all accounts relating to the transportation of the mails, and to all other business within the jurisdiction of the Post Office Department. The General Accounting Office shall audit the accounts and certify the balances arising thereon to the Postmaster General for accounts of the postal revenue and expenditures therefrom, and to the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants for other accounts, and send forthwith copies of the certificates in the latter cases to the Postmaster General.

All expenditures in the Postal Savings System shall be audited by the General Accounting Office.

Sixth. Said office shall receive and examine all accounts of salaries and incidental expenses of the office of the Secretary of Commerce, and of all bureaus and offices under his direction, all accounts relating to the Bureau of Lighthouses, Steamboat Inspection Service, Navigation, Alaskan fur-seal fisheries, the National Bureau of Standards, Coast and Geodetic Survey, Patents, Census, Bureau of Fisheries and to all other business within the jurisdiction of the Department of Commerce, and certify the balances arising thereon to the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants and send forthwith a copy of each certificate to the Secretary of Commerce.

Seventh. Said office shall receive and examine all accounts of salaries and incidental expenses of the office of the Secretary of Labor and of all bureaus and offices under his direction, and all accounts relating to all other business within the jurisdiction of the Department of Labor, and certify the balances arising thereon to the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants and send forthwith a copy of each certificate to the Secretary of Labor.

Eighth. Said office shall receive and examine all accounts of salaries and incidental expenses of the offices of the Secretary of State, the Attorney General, and the Secretary of Agriculture, and of all bureaus and offices under their direction; all accounts relating to all other business within the jurisdiction of the Departments of State, Justice, and Agriculture; all accounts relating to the Foreign Service, the judiciary, United States courts, judgments of United States courts, Executive Office, Civil Service Commission, Interstate Commerce Commission, District of Columbia, Court of Claims and its judgments, Smithsonian Institution, Territorial governments, the Senate, the House of Representatives, the Public Printer, Library of Congress, Botanic Garden, and accounts of all boards, commissions, and establishments of the Government not within the jurisdiction of any of the executive departments. Said office shall certify the balances arising thereon to the Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants, and send forthwith a copy of each certificate, according to the character of the account, to the Secretary of the Senate, Clerk of the House of Representatives, Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives, or the chief officer of the executive department, commission, board, or establishment concerned.

(July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 7, 28 Stat. 206; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 2, 32 Stat. 826; June 17, 1910, c. 301, §§ 4, 13, 36 Stat. 537, 539; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 1, 37 Stat. 309; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 10, 37 Stat. 559; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 2, 37 Stat. 737; Jan. 28, 1915, c. 20, § 1, 38 Stat. 800; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 601; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24; May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 1, 43 Stat. 140.)

73. Accounts of Post Office Department; duties of General Accounting Office and Bureau of Accounts.—The General Accounting Office shall keep and preserve all accounts arising in the Post Office Department or relative thereto and vouchers after settlement. The Bureau of Accounts in the Post Office Department shall close the account of the department quarterly, and transmit to the Secretary of the Treasury quarterly statements of its receipts and expenditures. It shall report to the Postmaster General, when required to do so, the manner and form of keeping and stating the accounts of the department, and the official forms of papers to be used in connection with its receipts and expenditures. It shall report to the Postmaster General all delinquencies of postmasters in rendering their accounts and returns, or in paying over money-order funds and other receipts at their offices. The Comptroller General shall register, charge, and countersign all warrants upon the Treasury for receipts or payments issued by the Postmaster General, when warranted by law. (R. S. § 277; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

74. Suspension of items; issuance of warrant; preservation of vouchers; decision of questions involving payment.—Nothing in this chapter shall prevent the General Accounting Office from suspending items in an account in order to obtain further evidence or explanations necessary to their settlement. The Secretary of the Treasury shall make regulations fixing the time which shall expire before a warrant is issued in payment of an account certified as provided in this section and section 72 of this title.

The General Accounting Office shall preserve, with their vouchers and certificates, all accounts which have been finally adjusted.

Disbursing officers, or the head of any executive department, or other establishment not under any of the executive departments, may apply for and the General Accounting Office shall render his decision upon any question involving a payment to be made by them or under them, which decision, when rendered, shall govern said office in passing upon the account containing said disbursement. (July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 8, 28 Stat. 207; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

75. Regulations for carrying out provisions.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to make appropriate rules and regulations for carrying out the provisions of sections 72, 74, 76, 78, 84, 87, 496, 506, and 514 of this title, and for transferring or preserving books, papers, or other property appertaining to any office or branch of business affected by them.

It shall also be the duty of the heads of the several executive departments and of the proper officers of other Government establishments, not within the jurisdiction of any executive department, to make appropriate rules and regulations to secure a proper administrative examination of all accounts sent to them, as required by section 78 of this title, before their transmission to the General Accounting Office, and for the execution of other requirements of this chapter in so far as the same relate to the several departments or establishments. (July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 22, 28 Stat. 210; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

76. Requisitions for advances.—Every requisition for an advance of money, before being acted on by the Secretary of the Treasury, shall be sent to the General Accounting Office for action thereon as required by section 78 of this title.

All warrants, when authorized by law and signed by the Secretary of the Treasury, shall be countersigned in the General Accounting Office, and all warrants for the payment of money shall be accompanied either by the certificate, mentioned in section 72 of this title, or by the requisition for advance of money, which certificate or requisition shall specify the particular appropriation to which the same should be charged, instead of being specified on the warrant; and shall also go with the warrant to the Treasurer, who shall return the certificate or requisition to the General Accounting Office, with the date and amount of the draft issued indorsed thereon. Requisitions for the payment of money on all audited accounts, or for covering money into the Treasury, shall not be required. And requisitions for advances of money shall not be countersigned in the General Accounting Office. (July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 11, 28 Stat. 209; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

77. Charging warrants to appropriation specified.—Moneys paid by virtue of such warrants shall be charged to the appropriation so specified in the books of the Secretary of the Treasury and General Accounting Office. (R. S. § 3675; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

78. Rendition of current accounts.—Except as otherwise provided by law, all monthly accounts shall be mailed or otherwise sent to the proper officer at Washington within ten days after the end of the month to which they relate, and quarterly and other accounts within twenty days after the period to which they relate, and shall be transmitted to and received by the General Accounting Office within twenty days of their actual receipt at the proper office in Washington in the case of monthly, and sixty days in the case of quarterly and other accounts. Should there be any delinquency in this regard at the time of the receipt by the General Accounting Office of a requisition for an advance of money, said office shall disapprove the requisition, which said office may also do for other reasons arising out of the condition of the officer's accounts for whom the advance is requested; but the Secretary of the Treasury may overrule the General Accounting Office's decision as to the sufficiency of these latter reasons. The Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe suitable rules and regulations, and may make orders in particular cases, relaxing the requirement of mailing or otherwise sending accounts as aforesaid, within ten or twenty days, or waiving delinquency, in such cases only in which there is, or is likely to be, a manifest physical difficulty in complying with the same, it being the purpose of this provision to require the prompt rendition of accounts without regard to the mere convenience of the officers, and to forbid the advance of money to those delinquent in rendering them. Should there be a delay by the administrative departments beyond the aforesaid twenty or sixty days in transmitting accounts, an order of the President, or, in the event of the absence from the seat of Government or sickness of the President, an order of the Secretary of the Treasury, in the particular case, shall be necessary to authorize the advance of money requested. This section shall not apply to accounts of the postal revenue and expenditures therefrom, which shall be rendered as required by law. (July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 12, 28 Stat. 209; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 4, 28 Stat. 807; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

79. Transmission of accounts of courts in Alaska to Department of Justice.—When, in the opinion of the Attorney General, it will be impossible for the accounts of any court official or other person whose accounts pertain to the United States courts in Alaska to be transmitted to the Department of Justice within the period prescribed by law, the Attorney General may modify, as he may deem proper, any requirement of law concerning the time when such accounts shall be rendered and transmitted. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 269, § 10, 35 Stat. 842.)

80. Administrative examination of accounts of Army expenditures.—The time for examination of monthly accounts, covering expenditures from appropriations for the Army, by the bureaus and offices of the War Department, after the date of actual receipt and before transmitting the same to the General Accounting Office, shall be sixty days, and in time of war may be extended to ninety days by the Secretary of the Treasury upon request of the Secretary of War. (Mar. 2, 1901, c. 803, 31 Stat. 910; July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter 18, 40 Stat. 892; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

81. Transmission of accounts of marshals.—Accounts of United States marshals and other disbursing officers of the Department of Justice shall be transmitted to the General Accounting Office within eighty days after the date of their receipt in the Department of Justice at Washington, District of Columbia. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, 34 Stat. 1360; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

82. Administrative examination of accounts.—Except as otherwise provided, the administrative examination of all public accounts, preliminary to their audit by the General Accounting Office, shall be made as contemplated by section 78 of this title, and all vouchers and pay rolls shall be prepared and examined by and through the administrative heads of divisions and bureaus in the executive departments and not by the disbursing clerks of said departments, except those vouchers prepared outside of Washington prior to August 23, 1912, may continue to be so prepared and the disbursing officers shall make only such examination of vouchers as may be necessary to ascertain whether they represent legal claims against the United States. (Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 375.)

83. Administrative audit of accounts under Department of Justice.—The administrative audit of all expenditures under the control of the Department of Justice shall be made in the Division of Accounts of that department. (Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 404.)

84. Rendition of accounts of officers of courts.—Before transmission to the General Accounting Office, the accounts of district attorneys, assistant attorneys, marshals, commissioners, clerks, and other officers of the courts of the United States, except consular courts, made out and approved as required by law, and accounts relating to prisoners convicted or held for trial in any court of the United States, and all other accounts relating to the business of the Department of Justice or of the courts of the United States other than consular courts, shall be sent with their vouchers to the Attorney General and examined under his supervision. (July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 13, 28 Stat. 210; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

85. Transmission of accounts of expenditures in Territories to Secretary of Interior.—The accounts and vouchers relating to the expenditure of the appropriations for government in the Territories shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior for administrative examination and by him passed to the General Accounting Office. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 141, § 1, 38 Stat. 1021; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

86. Accounts presented without administrative examination.—In the case of claims presented to the General Accounting Office which have not had an administrative examination, the Comptroller General shall cause them to be examined by two of his subordinates independently of each other. (July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 14, 28 Stat. 210; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

87. Papers transmitted with accounts of customs officers.—It shall be the duty of the collectors of customs and other officers of customs to transmit, with their accounts, to the officers charged with the settlement of their accounts, all such papers, records, or copies thereof relating to their transactions as officers of customs as the Secretary of the Treasury may direct. (July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 20, 28 Stat. 210.)

88. Reexamination of disallowed claims.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to authorize the reexamination and payment of any claim or account which had been disallowed or settled prior to July 31, 1894. (July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 23, 28 Stat. 211.)

89. Property returns by officers.—Instead of forwarding to the General Accounting Office returns of public property intrusted to the possession of officers or agents, the Quartermaster General, the Surgeon General, the Chief of Engineers, the Chief of Ordnance, the Chief Signal Officer, the Paymaster General of the Navy, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or other like chief officers in any department, by, through, or under whom stores, supplies, and other public property are received for distribution, or whose duty it is to receive or examine returns of such property, shall certify to the General Accounting Office, for debiting on the proper account, any charge against any officer or agent intrusted with public property, arising from any loss, accruing by his fault, to the Government as to the property so intrusted to him. (Mar. 29, 1894, c. 49, § 1, 28 Stat. 47; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 391, § 3, 37 Stat. 591; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

90. Same; certificate as to lost property.—Said certificate shall set forth the condition of such officer's or agent's property returns, that it includes all charges made up to its date and not previously certified, that he has had a reasonable opportunity to be heard and has not been relieved of responsibility; the effect of such certificate, when received, shall be the same as if the facts therein set forth had been ascertained by the General Accounting Office in accounting. (Mar. 29, 1894, c. 49, § 2, 28 Stat. 47; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

91. Same; manner of making.—The manner of making property returns to or in any administrative bureau or department, or of ascertaining liability for property, under existing laws and regulations, shall not be affected by sections 89 to 92 of this title, except as provided in section 89 of this title; but in all cases arising as to such property so intrusted the officer or agent shall have an opportunity to relieve himself from liability. (Mar. 29, 1894, c. 49, § 3, 28 Stat. 47.)

92. Same; regulations.—The heads of the several departments are hereby empowered to make and enforce regulations to carry out the provisions of sections 89 to 92 of this title. (Mar. 29, 1894, c. 49, § 4, 28 Stat. 47.)

93. General Accounting Office superintending recovery of debts.—The General Accounting Office shall superintend the recovery of all debts finally certified by it to be due to the United States. (July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 4, 28 Stat. 206; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

94. Settlement of advance bounties.—Any moneys paid by a paymaster in the Army to an enlisted man as an advance bounty shall be allowed in the settlement of the accounts of the paymaster, notwithstanding the discharge of such enlisted man before serving the time required by law to entitle him to payment of such moneys. (R. S. § 280.)

95. Settlement of accounts of Army officers.—The General Accounting Office shall audit and settle the accounts of line officers of the Army, to the extent of the pay due them for their services as such, notwithstanding the inability of any such line officer to account for property intrusted to his possession, or to make his monthly reports or returns, if such office shall be satisfied by the affidavit of the officer or otherwise that the inability was caused by the officer's having been a prisoner in the hands of the enemy, or by any accident or casualty of war. (R. S. § 278; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

96. Settlement of overpayments.—The proper accounting officers are authorized, in the settlement of the accounts of the paymasters of the Army, to allow such credits for overpayments made in good faith on public account, since the 14th day of April, 1861, and before the 16th day of March, 1868, as shall appear to them, by such vouchers and testimony as they shall require, to be just. (R. S. § 281.)

97. Claims for arrears of pay and bounty already paid.—Nothing in section 72 of this title shall be construed to prevent the General Accounting Office from disallowing claims for arrears of pay and bounty in cases where it appears from the records and files of his office that payment in full has already been made to the soldier himself, or to his widow or legal heirs. The action of such office shall be deemed final and conclusive and be subject to revision only by Congress or the proper courts. (July 16, 1892, c. 196, § 1, 27 Stat. 194; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

98. Same.—The General Accounting Office in certifying balances due for arrears of pay of two and three year volunteers, for bounty to volunteers and their widows and legal heirs, for bounty under the Act of July 28, 1866 (14 Stat. 322), and for amounts for commutation of rations to prisoners of war in rebel States, and to soldiers on furlough, follow the decisions of the United States Supreme Court or of the Court of Claims of the United States after the time for appeal has expired, if no appeal be taken, without regard to former settlements or adjudications by their predecessors. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, 34 Stat. 1356; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

99. Affidavits and declarations in bounty cases or claims for back pay; certification of official character and signature of officer taking.—Any and all affidavits and declarations other than those provided for in section 42 of Title 38 hereafter made or used in bounty cases, or in claims against the Government for back pay may be taken by any officer authorized to administer oaths for general purposes in the State, city, or county where said officer resides. If such officer has a seal and uses it upon such paper, no certificate of a county clerk, or prothonotary, or clerk of a court shall be necessary. But when declarations, affidavits, and other papers are verified by justices of the peace and other officers duly authorized by law to administer oaths for general persons, but not required by law to have seals, the official character, signature, and term of service of such justice or other officer shall be certified by the clerk of the county or court of record or other proper officer, under the seal of such county or court or public officer, in the department or bureau in which such papers are to be used; and one such certificate duly filed in such department or bureau, shall be sufficient as to all verifications of such officer during his official term, and all papers heretobefore or hereafter filed shall be subject to this rule. (July 1, 1890, c. 646, 26 Stat. 209; Sept. 1, 1890, No. 43, 26 Stat. 679.)

100. Claim agent withholding discharge papers.—Any claim agent, attorney, or other person engaged in the collection of claims for pay, bounty, or allowances for any soldier, or for any commissioned officer of the military forces, or who may have been a soldier or officer of the regular or volunteer forces of the United States, and honorably discharged, who shall retain, without the consent of the owner or owners thereof, or shall refuse to deliver or account for the same upon demand duly made by the owner or owners thereof, or by their agent or attorney, the discharge papers of any such soldier or commissioned officer, which may have been placed in his hands for the purpose of collecting said claims, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction, be punished by fine not exceeding $500, or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or both, at the discretion of the court, and shall thereafter be debarred from prosecuting any such claim in any executive department of the Government. (May 21, 1872, c. 178, 17 Stat. 137.)

101. Evidence of honorable discharge returned to officers and enlisted men.—In all cases where it has become necessary for any officer or enlisted man of the Army to file his evidence of honorable discharge from the military service of the United States, to secure the settlement of his accounts, the accounting officer with whom it has been filed shall, upon application by said officer or enlisted man, deliver to him such evidence of honorable discharge; but his accounts shall first be duly settled, and the fact, date, and amount of such settlement shall be clearly written across the face of such evidence of honorable discharge, and attested by the signature of the accounting officer before it is delivered. (R. S. § 282.)

102. Payment of claims for pay and allowances.—In the settlement of claims of officers, soldiers, sailors, and marines, or their representatives, and all other claims for pay and allowances covered by paragraphs numbered second and fourth of section 72 of this title presented and filed in which it was the practice on June 6, 1900, to make deductions of attorneys' fees from the amount found due, no deductions of fees for attorneys or agents shall be made, but the draft, check, or warrant for the full amount found due shall be delivered to the payee in person or sent to his bona fide post-office address (residence or place of business). (June 6, 1900, c. 791, 31 Stat. 637.)

103. Accounts of Departments of War and the Navy.—The General Accounting Office shall keep all accounts of the receipts and expenditures of the public money in regard to the War and Navy Departments, and of all debts due to the United States on moneys advanced relative to those departments; shall preserve the accounts which shall have been finally adjusted, with their vouchers and certificates, and record all requisitions drawn by the Secretaries of those departments. Said office shall annually, on the first Monday in November, report to the Secretary of the Treasury the application of the money appropriated for the Department of War and the Department of the Navy, and it shall make such reports concerning the accounts of those departments as the Secretaries of those departments may deem necessary and require. (R. S. § 283; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

104. Accounts of paymasters of lost or captured public vessels.—In every case of the loss or capture of a vessel belonging to the Navy of the United States, the Comptroller General as to money accounts and the Paymaster General of the Navy as to property accounts are authorized, in the settlement of the accounts of the paymaster of such vessel, to credit him with such portion of the amount of the provisions, clothing, small stores, and money, with which he stands charged on their books, as said officers shall be satisfied was inevitably lost by such capture or loss of a public vessel; and such paymaster shall be fully exonerated by such credit from all liability on account of the provisions, clothing, small stores, and money so proved to have been captured or lost. (R. S. § 284; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 317; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

105. Relief of disbursing officers of Navy.—The General Accounting Office shall relieve any disbursing officer of the Navy charged with responsibility on account of loss or deficiency while in the line of his duty, of Government funds, vouchers, records, or papers, in his charge, where such loss or deficiency occurred without fault or negligence on the part of said officer: Provided, That the Secretary of the Navy shall have determined that the officer was in the line of his duty, and the loss or deficiency occurred without fault or negligence on his part. The determination by the Secretary of the Navy of the aforesaid questions shall be conclusive upon the General Accounting Office: Provided further, That all cases of relief granted under this authority during any fiscal year shall be reported in detail to the Congress by the Secretary of the Navy. (July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 132.)

106. Disbursements by order of commanding officer of Navy.—Every disbursement of public moneys, or disposal of public stores, made by a disbursing officer pursuant to an order of any commanding officer of the Navy, shall be allowed by the General Accounting Office, in the settlement of the accounts of the officer, upon satisfactory evidence of the making of such order, and of the payment of money or disposal of stores in conformity with it; and the commanding officer by whose order such disbursement or disposal was made, shall be held accountable for the same. (R. S. § 285; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

107. Settlement of expenses of intercourse with foreign nations.—Whenever any sum of money has been or shall be issued, from the Treasury, for the purposes of intercourse or treaty with foreign nations, in pursuance of any law, the President is authorized to cause the same to be duly settled annually with the General Accounting Office, by causing the same to be accounted for, specifically, if the expenditure may, in his judgment, be made public; and by making or causing the Secretary of State to make a certificate of the amount of such expenditure as he may think it advisable not to specify; and every such certificate shall be deemed a sufficient voucher for the sum therein expressed to have been expended. (R. S. § 291; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

108. Accounting for appropriations for obtaining information from abroad and at home.—Expenditures by the Department of the Navy from the appropriation for obtaining information from abroad and at home shall be accounted for specifically, if, in the judgment of the Secretary of the Navy, they may be made public, and he shall make a certificate of the amount of such expenditures as he may think it advisable not to specify, and every such certificate shall be deemed a sufficient voucher for the sum therein expressed to have been expended. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 557.)

109. Collection of debts due Post Office Department.—The General Accounting Office shall superintend the collection of all debts due the Post Office Department, and all penalties and forfeitures imposed for any violation of the postal laws, and take all such other measures as may be authorized by law to enforce the payment of such debts and the recovery of such penalties and forfeitures. Such office shall also superintend the collection of all penalties and forfeitures arising under other statutes, where such penalties and forfeitures are the consequence of unlawful acts affecting the revenues or property of the Post Office Department. (R. S. § 292; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

110. Suits on postmasters' bonds.—All fees for United States attorneys, marshals, clerks of courts and special counsel necessarily employed in prosecuting civil suits instituted by the General Accounting Office through the Solicitor of the Treasury against the sureties on the official bonds of late postmasters, as provided for by section 109 of this title, shall be paid from the appropriations for expenses of the United States courts. (Feb. 26, 1896, c. 33, 29 Stat. 25; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

111. Accounts of money-order business.—The bureau of accounts in the Post Office Department shall keep the accounts of the money-order business separately, and in such manner as to show the number and amount of money orders issued at each office, the number and amount paid, the amount of fees received, and all the expenses of the money-order business. (R. S. § 293; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

112. Accounts of expenses of postmasters.—The General Accounting Office shall state and certify quarterly to the Postmaster General an account of the money paid by postmasters out of the receipts of their offices, and pursuant to appropriations, on account of the expenses of the postal service; designating the heads under which such payments were made. (R. S. § 294; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

113. Accounts of expenditures of Post Office Department under appropriations.—The bureau of accounts in the Post Office Department shall keep the accounts relating to the Post Office Department so as to show the expenditures of the Post Office Department under each item of appropriation provided by law. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 128, § 4, 18 Stat. 343; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

114. Reports of financial condition of Post Office Department.—The annual reports of the comptroller of the bureau of accounts in the Post Office Department shall show the financial condition of the Post Office Department at the close of each fiscal year, and be made a part of the Postmaster General's annual report to Congress for that fiscal year. (July 12, 1876, c. 179, § 4, 19 Stat. 80; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

115. Compromise of judgments.—Whenever a judgment is obtained for a debt or damages due the Post Office Department, and it satisfactorily appears that such judgment, or so much thereof as remains unpaid, cannot be collected by due process of law, the General Accounting Office may, with the written consent of the Postmaster General, compromise such judgment, and accept in satisfaction less than the full amount thereof. (R. S. § 295; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

116. Papers in suits for delinquencies in Post Office Department.—In case of delinquency of any postmaster, contractor, or other officer, agent, or employee of the Post Office Department, in which suit is brought, the General Accounting Office shall forward to the Department of Justice certified copies of all papers in said office tending to sustain the claim. (R. S. § 296; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

117. Officers authorized to administer oaths.—The proper officers of the General Accounting Office are empowered to administer oaths to witnesses in any case in which they may deem it necessary for the due examination of the accounts with which they shall be charged. (R. S. § 297; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

118. Oaths in settlements of postal accounts.—Any mayor of a city, justice of the peace, or judge of any court of record in the United States, may administer oaths, in relation to the examination and settlement of the accounts of the Post Office Department and Postal Service. (R. S. § 298; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

119. Allowance of lost checks.—Whenever the disbursing officer or agent by whom was issued any check which has been lost, destroyed, or stolen, is dead, or no longer in the service of the United States, the proper accounting officer shall, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, state an account in favor of the owner of such original check for the amount thereof, and charge such amount to the account of such officer or agent: Provided, That in case a check drawn by any officer or agent of the Post Office Department is lost, stolen, or destroyed a duplicate thereof may be issued under regulations prescribed by the Postmaster General, as set forth in section 528 of this title. (R. S. §§ 300, 3647; May 27, 1908, c. 206, 35 Stat. 415; Feb. 23, 1909, c. 174, 35 Stat. 644.)

120. Checks issued by Bureau of Pensions, Bureau of War Risk Insurance, and United States Veterans' Bureau, and for payment of salaries and wages; destruction; claims on, barred.—The General Accounting Office is hereby authorized to destroy United States Government checks that have been paid six full fiscal years, issued by the Bureau of Pensions for the payment of pensions, by the Bureau of War Risk Insurance and the United States Veterans' Bureau for the payment of military and naval compensation on account of death or disability, and checks for the payment of salaries and wages of officers and employees of the Government of the United States, after all unpaid checks have been listed as outstanding as now required by law, and all claims on account of checks of the foregoing classes appearing as having been paid shall be barred if not presented to the General Accounting Office within six full fiscal years after the date of payment. (Feb. 13, 1923, c. 72, 42 Stat. 1231.)

Chapter 3.—THE TREASURER.

Sec.
141. Treasurer.
142. Same; bond.
143. Assistant Treasurer.
144. Same; when may act as Treasurer.
145. Transfer and appointment of employees detailed to office of Treasurer.
146. Divisions of Issue and of Redemption.
147. Treasurer; duties.
148. Same; payment of salaries of Senators, Members, and officers of Congress.
149. Liabilities outstanding three or more years.
150. Vouchers for drafts remaining unpaid.
151. Payment upon presentation of outstanding drafts.
152. Accounts of disbursing officers unchanged for three years.
153. Reports of Treasurer and Assistant Treasurers.
154. Reports of unpaid checks by General Accounting Office.
155. Restrictions upon Treasurer.

Section 141. Treasurer.—There shall be in the Department of the Treasury a Treasurer of the United States, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall be entitled to a salary of $8,000 a year. (R. S. § 301; Mar. 4, 1909, c. 314, § 7, 35 Stat. 1065; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title I, 43 Stat. 770.)

142. Same; bond.—The Treasurer shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give bond, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, in the sum of $150,000, payable to the United States, with condition for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, and for the fidelity of the persons to be by him employed, which bond shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Treasury for filing. (R. S. § 302; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 5, 28 Stat. 807.)

143. Assistant Treasurer.—There shall be in the Department of the Treasury an Assistant Treasurer of the United States, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. (R. S. § 303.)

144. Same; when may act as Treasurer.—The Treasurer may, in his discretion, and with the consent of the Secretary of the Treasury, authorize the Assistant Treasurer to act in the place and discharge any or all the duties of the Treasurer of the United States; and in the event of the absence or illness of either the Treasurer or the Assistant Treasurer, or both, the Secretary of the Treasury may, on the recommendation of the Treasurer appoint for a term not exceeding thirty days at one time, from among the clerks in the Treasury, any one of said clerks to be Acting Assistant Treasurer during such absence or illness: Provided, however, That no such appointment shall be made until the official bond given by the principal of the office shall be made in terms to cover and apply to the acts and defaults of every such person so appointed from time to time. Such acting officer shall, moreover, for the time being, be subject to all the liabilities and penalties prescribed by law for the official misconduct in like cases of the Assistant Treasurer, for whom he acts. (R. S. § 304; Mar. 31, 1886, c. 41, 24 Stat. 9.)

145. Transfer and appointment of employees detailed to office of Treasurer.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to transfer and appoint in the office of the Treasurer of the United States such of the employees, in his discretion, as were employed in said office on July 16, 1914, under details authorized by the Act of March 4, 1913 (Thirty-seventh Statutes, page 755), authorizing employees in the offices of Assistant Treasurers to be detailed in the office of the Treasurer of the United States. (July 16, 1914, c. 141, § 1, 38 Stat. 471.)

146. Divisions of Issue and of Redemption.—There shall be in the Treasury Department, as a part of the office of the Treasurer of the United States, divisions to be designated and known as the Division of Issue and the Division of Redemption, to which shall be assigned, respectively, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may approve, all records and accounts relating to the issue and redemption of United States notes, gold certificates, silver certificates, and currency certificates. There shall be transferred from the accounts of the general fund of the Treasury of the United States, and taken up on the books of said divisions, respectively, accounts relating to the reserve fund for the redemption of United States notes and Treasury notes, the gold coin held against outstanding gold certificates, the United States notes held against outstanding currency certificates, and the silver dollars held against outstanding silver certificates, and each of the funds represented by these accounts shall be used for the redemption of the notes and certificates for which they are respectively pledged, and shall be used for no other purpose, the same being held as trust funds. (Mar. 14, 1900, c. 41, § 4, 31 Stat. 46.)

147. Treasurer; duties.—The Treasurer shall receive and keep the moneys of the United States, and disburse the same upon warrants drawn by the Secretary of the Treasury, countersigned in the General Accounting Office, and not otherwise. He shall take receipts for all moneys paid by him, and shall give receipts for all moneys received by him; and all receipts for moneys received by him shall be indorsed upon warrants signed by the Secretary of the Treasury, without which warrant, so signed, no acknowledgment for money received into the public Treasury shall be valid. He shall render his accounts to the General Accounting Office quarterly, or oftener if required, and shall transmit a copy thereof, when settled, to the Secretary of the Treasury. He shall at all times submit to the Secretary of the Treasury and the General Accounting Office, or either of them, the inspection of the moneys in his hands. (R. S. § 305; July 31, 1894, c. 174, §§ 4, 11, 28 Stat. 205, 209; June 10, 1921, c. 18 § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

148. Same; payment of salaries of Senators, Members, and officers of Congress.—Whenever any appropriation made for the payment of the salaries of Senators, Members, and Delegates in Congress, or the officers and employees of both or either of the Houses thereof, or for the expenses of the same, or any committees thereof, can not be lawfully disbursed by or through the officers specially charged with such disbursements, such disbursements may be made for the purposes named in said appropriations by the Treasurer of the United States, who shall take proper vouchers therefor and charge such disbursements against such appropriations; and the accounts therefor shall be audited and passed or rejected, as the law may require, in the same manner that similar accounts are or may be required by law to be audited and passed or rejected. (June 22, 1882, c. 236, 22 Stat. 108.)

149. Liabilities outstanding three or more years.—At the termination of each fiscal year all amounts of moneys that are represented by certificates, drafts, or checks, issued by the Treasurer, or by any disbursing officer of any department of the Government, upon the Treasurer or designated depositary of the United States, or upon any national bank designated as a depositary of the United States, and which shall be represented on the books of either of such offices as standing to the credit of any disbursing officer, and which were issued to facilitate the payment of warrants, or for any other purpose in liquidation of a debt due from the United States, and which have for three years or more remained outstanding, unsatisfied, and unpaid, shall be deposited by the Treasurer, to be covered into the Treasury by warrant, and to be carried to the credit of the parties in whose favor such certificates, drafts, or checks were respectively issued, or to the persons who are entitled to receive pay therefor, and into an appropriation account to be denominated "outstanding liabilities." (R. S. § 306; May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 654.)

150. Vouchers for drafts remaining unpaid.—The certificate of the Secretary of the Treasury, stating that the amount of any draft issued by the Treasurer, to facilitate the payment of a warrant directed to him for payment, has remained outstanding and unpaid for three years or more, and has been deposited and covered into the Treasury in the manner prescribed by section 149 of this title, shall be, when attached to any such warrant, a sufficient voucher in satisfaction of any such warrant or part of any warrant, the same as if the drafts correctly indorsed and fully satisfied were attached to such warrant or part of warrant. And all such moneys mentioned in this and in section 149 shall remain as a permanent appropriation for the redemption and payment of all such outstanding and unpaid certificates, drafts, and checks. (R. S. § 307; July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 16, 28 Stat. 210.)

151. Payment upon presentation of outstanding drafts.—The payee or the bona fide holder of any draft or check the amount of which has been deposited and covered into the Treasury pursuant to sections 149 and 150 of this title, shall, on presenting the same to the proper officer of the Treasury, be entitled to have it paid by the settlement of an account and the issuing of a warrant in his favor, according to the practice in other cases of authorized and liquidated claims against the United States. (R. S. § 308.)

152. Accounts of disbursing officers unchanged for three years.—The amounts, except such as are provided for in section 149 of this title, of the accounts of every kind of disbursing officer, which shall have remained unchanged, or which shall not have been increased by any new deposit thereto, nor decreased by drafts drawn thereon, for the space of three years, shall in like manner be covered into the Treasury, to the proper appropriation to which they belong; and the amounts thereof shall, on the certificate of the Treasurer that such amount has been deposited in the Treasury, be credited by the General Accounting Office on the books of the department or establishment, to the officer in whose name it had stood on the books of the General Accounting Office for such department or establishment, if it appears that he is entitled to such credit. (R. S. § 309.)

153. Reports of Treasurer and depositaries.—The Treasurer, each designated depositary of the United States, and the cashier of each of the national banks designated as such depositaries, shall, at the close of business on every 30th day of June, report to the Secretary of the Treasury the condition of every account standing, as in section 152 of this title specified, on the books of their respective offices, stating the name of each depositor, with his official designation, the total amount remaining on deposit to his credit, and the dates, respectively, of the last credit and the last debit made to each account. (R. S. § 310; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 5, 39 Stat. 336.)

154. Reports of unpaid checks by General Accounting Office.—At the termination of each fiscal year the General Accounting Office shall report to the Secretary of the Treasury all checks issued by any disbursing officer of the Government as shown by his accounts rendered to the General Accounting Office, which shall then have been outstanding and unpaid for three years or more, stating fully in such report the name of the payee, for what purpose each check was given, the office on which drawn, the number of the voucher received therefor, the date, the number, and the amount for which it was drawn, and, when known, the residence of the payee. (July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 5, 39 Stat. 336; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

155. Restrictions upon Treasurer.—No person appointed to the office of Treasurer, shall directly or indirectly be concerned or interested in carrying on the business of trade or commerce, or be owner in whole or in part of any sea vessel, or purchase by himself, or another in trust for him, any public lands or other public property, or be concerned in the purchase or disposal of any public securities of any State, or of the United States, or take or apply to his own use any emolument or gain for negotiating or transacting any business in the Treasury Department, other than what shall be allowed by law; and every person who offends against any of the prohibitions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor and forfeit to the United States the penalty of $3,000, and shall upon conviction be removed from office, and forever thereafter be incapable of holding any office under the United States; and if any other person than a public prosecutor shall give information of any such offense, upon which a prosecution and conviction shall be had, one-half the aforesaid penalty of $3,000, when recovered, shall be for the use of the person giving such information. (R. S. § 243.)

Chapter 4.—THE REGISTER.

Sec.
161. Register.
162. Same; duties.
163. Restrictions upon register.
164. Assistant register.
165. Same; duties.
166. Temporary acting assistant register.

Section 161. Register.—There shall be in the Department of the Treasury a Register of the Treasury, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. (R. S. § 312.)

162. Same; duties.—The duties of the Register of the Treasury shall be such as are required of him in connection with the public debt and such further duties as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. (July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 10, 28 Stat. 208.)

163. Restrictions upon register.—No person appointed to the office of Register of the Treasury shall directly or indirectly be concerned or interested in carrying on the business of trade or commerce, or be owner in whole or in part of any sea vessel, or purchase by himself, or another in trust for him, any public lands or other public property, or be concerned in the purchase or disposal of any public securities of any State, or of the United States, or take or apply to his own use any emolument or gain for negotiating or transacting any business in the Treasury Department, other than what shall be allowed by law; and every person who offends against any of the prohibitions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor and forfeit to the United States the penalty of $3,000, and shall upon conviction be removed from office, and forever thereafter be incapable of holding any office under the United States; and if any other person than a public prosecutor shall give information of any such offense, upon which a prosecution and conviction shall be had, one-half the aforesaid penalty of $3,000, when recovered, shall be for the use of the person giving such information. (R. S. § 243.)

164. Assistant register.—There shall be in the office of the Register of the Treasury an assistant register, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. (R. S. § 314.)

165. Same; duties.—The assistant register shall perform such duties as may be devolved on him by the register, and, in the absence of the register, shall act in his stead; and any official record, certificate, or other document, excepting warrants, bonds, and drafts, signed by the assistant register, shall have the same effect as if signed by the register. (R. S. § 315.)

166. Temporary acting assistant register.—During the absence of the Register of the Treasury, and while the assistant register is discharging, under the law, the duties of register during his said absence, the Secretary of the Treasury may, by appointment under his hand and seal, delegate authority to any chief of division or clerk in the office of register to act as assistant register during the said absence of the register. (Dec. 13, 1892, No. 1, 27 Stat. 752.)

Chapter 5. — THE BUREAU OF ENGRAVING AND PRINTING.

Sec.
171. Powers of and reports by director.
172. Leaves of absence to employees.
173. Same.
174. Impressions of portraits.
175. Engraved plates of portraits of deceased Senators and Representatives.
176. Disposition of receipts for miscellaneous work.
177. Bonds, notes, and checks; printing on presses and power presses directed by Secretary of Treasury; internal revenue stamps.
178. Appropriations for Bureau of Engraving and Printing.
179. Limitation on expenditure of funds.

Section 171. Powers of and reports by director.—All the business of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing shall be under the immediate control of the director of said bureau, subject to the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, and the director of the said bureau shall report to and be responsible directly to the Secretary of the Treasury. (June 4, 1897, c. 2, § 1, 30 Stat. 18.)

172. Leaves of absence to employees.—The employees of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, including the pieceworkers, shall be allowed leave of absence with pay, not exceeding thirty days in any one year, under such regulations and at such time or times as the director of the bureau, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe and designate:

Provided, That the length of the leave of absence of any employee of said bureau doing piecework, and the pay during such leave of absence, shall be determined by the average amount of work done by such person and the pay therefor during the several months of the year. (July 6, 1892, c. 154, 27 Stat. 87; June 4, 1897, c. 2, § 1, 30 Stat. 18.)

173. Same.—The compositors and pressmen employed in the awards division of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing shall be allowed leave of absence with pay not exceeding thirty days in any one year, or a pro rata portion thereof for a less time than one year, under such regulations and such time or times as the director of the bureau, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe and designate, and in conformity with section 172 of this title. (June 8, 1896, c. 373, 29 Stat. 275; June 4, 1897, c. 2, § 1, 30 Stat. 18.)

174. Impressions of portraits.—The Secretary of the Treasury, at the request of a Senator, Representative, or Delegate in Congress, the head of a department or bureau, art association, or library, may furnish impressions from any portrait or vignette which is now, or may be a part of the engraved stock of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, at such rates and under such conditions as he may deem necessary to protect the public interests. (Dec. 22, 1879, c. 2, 21 Stat. 59.)

175. Engraved plates of portraits of deceased Senators and Representatives.—The Secretary of the Treasury may deliver the engraved plates of portraits that have been or may be made of deceased Senators and Representatives in Congress, to their heirs or legal representatives on such terms and conditions as he may determine. (July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 275.)

176. Disposition of receipts for miscellaneous work.—Receipts for miscellaneous work authorized by law to be performed by the Bureau of Engraving and Printing for the several departments of the Government, and the amounts properly chargeable to national banks for engraving their plates shall be deposited, and covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts except as otherwise provided by law. (Aug. 4, 1886, c. 902, § 1, 24 Stat. 227.)

177. Bonds, notes, and checks; printing on presses and power presses directed by Secretary of Treasury; internal revenue stamps.—The proviso of the Act of July 1, 1898 (Thirtieth Statutes at Large, page 604), directing that all bonds, notes, and checks shall be printed on hand-roller presses shall not apply to checks, the backs and tints of all United States bonds, the backs and tints of all United States paper money, and the backs and tints of bonds and paper money issued by any of the insular possessions of the United States, any or all of which shall be printed from intaglio plates and on such plate printing presses as may be directed by the Secretary of the Treasury, said presses to be operated by plate printers, except that checks and tints may be printed by any desired process: Provided, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to print from plates of more than four subjects each upon power presses the fronts and backs of any paper money, bonds, or other printed matter on or after January 3, 1923, authorized to be executed at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, apply motors to hand-roller presses that were on August 24, 1912, or thereafter operated in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, but such presses, if equipped with motors, shall be regarded as hand-roller presses within the meaning of this section. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 355, § 1, 37 Stat. 430; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1099.)

178. Appropriations for Bureau of Engraving and Printing.—The appropriations made for all expenditures of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing shall be used in the manner in which appropriations for said bureau were used June 4, 1897, and no part of said appropriations shall be held to be contingent expenses of the Treasury Department, nor be subject to the provisions of sections 258 of Title 5 and 675 of this title. (June 4, 1897, c. 2, § 1, 30 Stat. 18.)

179. Limitation on expenditure of funds.—No fund appropriated by any Act other than that appropriated for the Bureau of Engraving and Printing shall be used for payment of the director, assistant director, chief of division of assignments and reviews, chief clerk, disbursing agent, cost accountants, stenographers, storekeepers, assistant storekeepers, clerks, attendants, messengers and assistant messengers, captains and lieutenants of watch, watchmen, forewomen of charwomen, charwomen, or laborers, in the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, except in cases of emergency arising after the passage of the Act making appropriations for such bureau, and then only on the written approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, and in every such case of emergency a detailed statement of the expenditures on account thereof shall be reported to Congress at the beginning of each regular session. (Mar. 3, 1921, c. 124, § 1, 41 Stat. 1271.)

232. Same; suits.
233. Duty of district attorney as to such cases.
234. Rights of persons presenting such suits.
235. Limitation of suit.

Section 191. Priority established.—Whenever any person indebted to the United States is insolvent, or whenever the estate of any deceased debtor, in the hands of the executors or administrators, is insufficient to pay all the debts due from the deceased, the debts due to the United States shall be first satisfied; and the priority established shall extend as well to cases in which a debtor, not having sufficient property to pay all his debts, makes a voluntary assignment thereof, or in which the estate and effects of an absconding, concealed, or absent debtor are attached by process of law, as to cases in which an act of bankruptcy is committed. (R. S. § 3466.)

192. Liability of fiduciaries.—Every executor, administrator, or assignee, or other person, who pays any debt due by the person or estate from whom or for which he acts, before he satisfies and pays the debts due to the United States from such person or estate, shall become answerable in his own person and estate for the debts so due to the United States, or for so much thereof as may remain due and unpaid. (R. S. § 3467.)

193. Priority of sureties.—Whenever the principal in any bond given to the United States is insolvent, or whenever, such principal being deceased, his estate and effects which come to the hands of his executor, administrator, or assignee, are insufficient for the payment of his debts, and, in either of such cases, any surety on the bond, or the executor, administrator, or assignee of such surety pays to the United States the money due upon such bond, such surety, his executor, administrator, or assignee, shall have the like priority for the recovery and receipt of the moneys out of the estate and effects of such insolvent or deceased principal as is secured to the United States; and may bring and maintain a suit upon the bond, in law or equity, in his own name, for the recovery of all moneys paid thereon. (R. S. § 3468.)

194. Compromise.—Upon a report by a district attorney, or any special attorney or agent having charge of any claim in favor of the United States, showing in detail the condition of such claim, and the terms upon which the same may be compromised, and recommending that it be compromised upon the terms so offered, and upon the recommendation of the Solicitor of the Treasury, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to compromise such claim accordingly. But the provisions of this section shall not apply to any claim arising under the postal laws. (R. S. § 3469.)

195. Purchase on execution.—At every sale, on execution, at the suit of the United States, of lands or tenements of a debtor, the United States may, by such agent as the Solicitor of the Treasury shall appoint, become the purchaser thereof; but in no case shall the agent bid in behalf of the United States a greater amount than that of the judgment for which such estate may be exposed to sale, and the costs. Whenever such purchase is made, the marshal of the district in which the sale is held shall make all needful conveyances, assignments, or transfers to the United States. (R. S. § 3470.)

196. Discharge of poor debtor; by Secretary of the Treasury.—Any person imprisoned upon execution issuing from any court of the United States, for a debt due to the United States, which he is unable to pay, may, at any time after commitment, make application, in writing, to the Secretary of the Treasury, stating the circumstances of his case, and his inability to discharge the debt; and thereupon the Secretary may make, or require to be made, an examination and inquiry into the circumstances of the debtor, by the oath of the debtor, which the Secretary, or any other person by him specially appointed, is authorized to administer, or otherwise, as the Secretary shall deem necessary and expedient, to ascertain the truth; and upon proof made to his satisfaction, that the debtor is unable to pay the debt for which he is imprisoned, and that he has not concealed or made any conveyance of his estate, in trust, for himself, or with an intent to defraud the United States, or to deprive them of their legal priority, the Secretary is authorized to receive from such debtor any deed, assignment or conveyance of his real or personal estate, or any collateral security, to the use of the United States. Upon a compliance by the debtor with such terms and conditions as the Secretary may judge reasonable and proper, the Secretary must issue his order, under his hand, to the keeper of the prison, directing him to discharge the debtor from his imprisonment under such execution. The debtor shall not be liable to be imprisoned again for the debt; but the judgment shall remain in force, and may be satisfied out of any estate which may then, or at any time afterward, belong to the debtor. The benefit of this section shall not be extended to any person imprisoned for any fine, forfeiture, or penalty, incurred by a breach of any law of the United States, or for moneys had and received by any officer, agent, or other person, for their use; nor shall its provisions extend to any claim arising under the postal laws. (R. S. § 3471.)

197. Same; by President.—Whenever any person is imprisoned upon execution for a debt due to the United States, which he is unable to pay, and his case is such as does not authorize his discharge by the Secretary of the Treasury, under section 196 of this title, he may make application to the President, who, upon proof made to his satisfaction that the debtor is unable to pay the debt, and upon a compliance by the debtor with such terms and conditions as the President shall deem proper, may order the discharge of such debtor from his imprisonment. The debtor shall not be liable to be imprisoned again for the same debt; but the judgment shall remain in force, and may be satisfied out of any estate which may then, or at any time afterwards, belong to the debtor. (R. S. § 3472.)

198. Debts to the United States; in what currency to be paid.—All taxes and all other debts and demands than duties on imports, accruing or becoming due to the United States, may be paid in gold and silver coin, Treasury notes, United States notes, or notes of national banks. (R. S. § 3473; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 249.)

199. Same; what coin receivable.—No gold or silver other than coin of standard fineness of the United States, shall be receivable in payment of dues to the United States, except as provided in sections 372 and 374 of this title. (R. S. § 3474.)

201. Debts of United States; national bank notes receivable for.—The notes of national banks shall be received at par for all debts and demands owing by the United States to any person within the United States, except interest on the public debt, or in redemption of the national currency. (R. S. § 3475.)

202. Same; Treasury notes payable for.—Treasury notes bearing interest may be paid to any creditor of the United States at their face value, excluding interest, or to any creditor willing to receive them at par, including interest. (R. S. § 3476.)

203. Assignments of claims void.—All transfers and assignments made of any claim upon the United States, or of any part or share thereof, or interest therein, whether absolute or conditional, and whatever may be the consideration therefor, and all powers of attorney, orders, or other authorities for receiving payment of any such claim, or of any part or share, thereof, except as provided in section 204 of this title, shall be absolutely null and void, unless they are freely made and executed in the presence of at least two attesting witnesses, after the allowance of such a claim, the ascertainment of the amount due, and the issuing of a warrant for the payment thereof. Such transfers, assignments, and powers of attorney, must recite the warrant for payment, and must be acknowledged by the person making them, before an officer having authority to take acknowledgements of deeds, and shall be certified by the officer; and it must appear by the certificate that the officer, at the time of the acknowledgement, read and fully explained the transfer, assignment, or warrant of attorney to the person acknowledging the same. The provisions of this section shall not apply to payments for rent of post-office quarters made by postmasters to duly authorized agents of the lessors. (R. S. § 3477; May 27, 1908, c. 206, 35 Stat. 411.)

204. Oath by person prosecuting claims.—Any person prosecuting claims, either as attorney or on his own account, before any of the departments or bureaus of the United States, shall be required to take the oath of allegiance, and to support the Constitution of the United States, as required of persons in the civil service. (R. S. § 3478.)

205. Same; who may administer.—The oath provided for in section 204 of this title may be taken before any justice of the peace, notary public, or other person who is legally authorized to administer an oath in the State or district where the same may be administered. (R. S. § 3479.)

206. Claims of disloyalists.—It shall be unlawful for any officer to pay any account, claim, or demand against the United States which accrued or existed prior to the 13th day of April, 1861, except claims for services in the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps of the United States prior to such date, in favor of any person who promoted, encouraged, or in any manner sustained the late rebellion, or in favor of any person who during such rebellion was not known to be opposed thereto, and distinctly in favor of its suppression; and no pardon granted shall authorize the payment of such account, claim, or demand, until this section is modified or repealed. This section shall not be construed to prohibit the payment of claims founded upon contracts made by any of the departments, where such claims were assigned or contracted to be assigned prior to the 1st day of April, 1861, to the creditors of such contractors, loyal citizens of loyal States, in payment of debts incurred prior to the 1st day of March, 1861, nor to require proof of loyalty during the late war of the rebellion as a prerequisite in any application for bounty land where the proof otherwise shows that the applicant is entitled thereto. (R. S. § 3480; Mar. 11, 1898, c. 57, 30 Stat. 274; July 6, 1914, c. 136, 38 Stat. 454; Feb. 13, 1923, c. 71, 42 Stat. 1226.)

207. Retention of money due States in default.—Whenever any State is in default in the payment of interest or principal on investments in stocks or bonds issued or guaranteed by such State and held by the United States in trust, the Secretary of the Treasury shall retain the whole, or so much thereof as may be necessary, of any moneys due on any account from the United States to such State, and apply the same to the payment of such principal and interest, or either, or to the reimbursement, with interest thereon, of moneys advanced by the United States on account of interest due on such stocks or bonds. (R. S. § 3481.)

208. Payment to officers for horses lost.—Except as provided in section 218 of this title, any field, or staff, or other officer, mounted militiaman, volunteer, ranger, or cavalryman, engaged in the military service of the United States, who sustains damage without any fault or negligence on his part, while in the service, by the loss of a horse in battle, or by the loss of a horse wounded in battle, which dies of the wound, or which, being so wounded, is abandoned by order of his officer and lost, or who sustains damage by the loss of any horse by death or abandonment because of the unavoidable dangers of the sea, when on board a United States transport vessel, or because the United States fails to supply transportation for the horse, and the owner is compelled by the order of his commanding officer to embark and leave him, or in consequence of the United States failing to supply sufficient forage, or because the rider is dismounted and separated from his horse and ordered to do duty on foot at a station detached from his horse, or when the officer in the immediate command orders the horse turned out to graze in the woods, prairies, or commons, because the United States fails to supply sufficient forage, and the loss is consequent thereon, or for the loss of necessary equipage, in consequence of the loss of his horse, shall be allowed and paid the value thereof, not to exceed $200. But any payment which is made to any one for the use and risk, or for forage, after the death, loss, or abandonment of his horse, shall be deducted from the value thereof, unless he satisfies the paymaster at the time he makes the payment, or thereafter shows, by proof, that he was remounted, in which case the deduction shall only extend to the time he was on foot. And any payment made to any person above mentioned, on account of clothing to which he is not entitled by law, shall be deducted from the value of his horse or accouterments. (R. S. § 3482; June 22, 1874, c. 395, 18 Stat. 193; Jan. 9, 1883, c. 15, 22 Stat. 401; Aug. 13, 1888, c. 868, 25 Stat. 437.)

209. Payment for property lost while in military service.—Except as provided in section 218 of this title, every person who sustains damage by the capture or destruction by an enemy, or by the abandonment or destruction by the order of the commanding general, the commanding officer, or quartermaster, of any horse, mule, ox, wagon, cart, sleigh, harness, steamboat or other vessel, railroad engine or railroad car, while such property is in the military service, either by impressment or contract; or who sustains damage by the death or abandonment and loss of any horse, mule, or ox, while in the service, in consequence of the failure on the part of the United States to furnish the same with sufficient forage, or whose horse, mule, ox, wagon, cart, boat, sleigh, harness, vessel, railroad engine, or railroad car is lost or destroyed by unavoidable accident while such property is in the service, shall be allowed and paid the value thereof at the time when such property was taken into the service, except in cases where the risk to which the property would be exposed was agreed to be incurred by the owner: Provided, It appears that such loss, capture, abandonment, destruction, or death was without any fault or negligence on the part of the owner of the property, and while the property was actually employed in the service of the United States. (R. S. § 3483.)

210. Payment for horses lost by capture.—Sections 208 and 209 of this title shall extend to all cases of the loss of horses by any officer, noncommissioned officer, or private in the military service of the United States, while in the line of his duty in such service, by capture by the enemy, whenever it shall appear that such officer, noncommissioned officer, or private was ordered by his superior officer to surrender to the enemy, and such capture was made in pursuance of such surrender. (R. S. § 3484.)

211. Payment for condemned horses and equipage.—Whenever any horse is condemned by a board of officers, on account of his unfitness for service, in consequence of the Government failing to supply forage, such horse and his equipage shall be allowed and paid for: Provided, It shall be proven, by satisfactory evidence, whether oral or written, that the condemned horse and the equipage were turned over to a quartermaster of the Army, whether any receipt therefor was given and produced, or not. (R. S. § 3485.)

212. Payment to guardian for horse lost by minor in military service.—When any minor engaged in the military service of the United States, and provided with a horse or equipments, or with military accouterments, by his parent or guardian, dies, without paying for the property, and the same is lost, captured, destroyed, or abandoned in the manner before mentioned, such parent or guardian shall be allowed pay therefor, on making satisfactory proof, as in other cases, and the further proof that he is entitled thereto by having furnished the same. (R. S. § 3486.)

213. Payment to owner for horse furnished and lost in military service.—When any person other than a minor, engaged in the military service, is provided with a horse or equipments, or with military accouterments, by any person, being the owner thereof, who takes the risk of such horse, equipments, or military accouterments, on himself, and the same is lost, captured, destroyed, or abandoned, in the manner before mentioned, such owner shall be allowed pay therefor, on making satisfactory proof, as in other cases, and the further proof that he is entitled thereto, by having furnished the same, and having taken the risk on himself. (R. S. § 3487.)

214. Taking testimony as to loss.—In executing so much of sections 208, 209, and 211 to 213 of this title, as provides for payment for steamboats and other vessels, and railroad engines or cars, lost or destroyed while in the military service of the United States, the Comptroller General is authorized, in person, or in such manner as he may deem most compatible with the public interests, to take testimony, and make such investigations as he may deem necessary in adjudicating claims; and for such necessary expenses incurred therein, payment may be made upon proper vouchers, certified and approved by the General Accounting Office. (R. S. § 3488; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

215. Settlement of claims not exceeding $1,000; certification of amounts found due to Congress; time for presentation.—The head of each department and establishment acting on behalf of the Government of the United States may consider, ascertain, adjust, and determine any claim accruing after April 6, 1917, on account of damages to or loss of privately owned property where the amount of the claim does not exceed $1,000, caused by the negligence of any officer or employee of the Government acting within the scope of his employment. Such amount as may be found to be due to any claimant shall be certified to Congress as a legal claim for payment out of appropriations that may be made by Congress therefor, together with a brief statement of the character of each claim, the amount claimed, and the amount allowed: Provided, That no claim shall be considered by a department or other independent establishment unless presented to it within one year from the date of the accrual of said claim. (Dec. 28, 1922, c. 17, § 2, 42 Stat. 1066.)

216. Same; definitions.—When used in section 215 of this title the terms "department and establishment" and "department or establishment" mean any executive department or other independent establishment of the Government; the word "employee" shall include enlisted men in the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps. (Dec. 28, 1922, c. 17, § 1, 42 Stat. 1066.)

217. Same; effect of acceptance of amount found due.—Acceptance by any claimant of the amount determined under the provisions of sections 215 and 216 of this title shall be deemed to be in full settlement of such claim against the Government of the United States. (Dec. 28, 1922, c. 17, § 3, 42 Stat. 1066.)

218. Settlement of claims for loss of property in military service.—Private property belonging to officers, enlisted men, and members of the Nurse Corps (female) of the Army, including all prescribed articles of equipment and clothing which they are required by law or regulations to own and use in the performance of their duties, and horses and equipment required by law or regulations to be provided by mounted officers, which since the 5th day of April, 1917, has been or shall hereafter be lost. damaged, or destroyed in the military service, shall be replaced, or the damage thereto, or its value recouped to the owner as hereinafter provided, when such loss, damage, or destruction has occurred or shall hereafter occur without fault or negligence on the part of the owner in any of the following circumstances:

First. When such private property so lost, damaged, or destroyed was shipped on board an unseaworthy vessel by order of an officer authorized to give such order or direct such shipment.

Second. When it appears that such private property was so lost, damaged, or destroyed in consequence of its owner having given his attention to the saving of human life or property belonging to the United States which was in danger at the same time and under similar circumstances, or while, at the time of such loss, damage, or destruction, the claimant was engaged in authorized military duties in connection therewith.

Third. When during travel under orders such private property, including the regulation allowance of baggage, transferred by a common carrier, or otherwise transported by the proper agent or agency of the United States Government, is lost, damaged, or destroyed; but replacement, recoupment, or commutation in these circumstances, where the property was or shall be transported by a common carrier, shall be limited to the extent of such loss, damage, or destruction over and above the amount recoverable from said carrier.

Fourth. When such private property is destroyed or captured by the enemy, or is destroyed to prevent its falling into the hands of the enemy, or is abandoned on account of lack of transportation or by reason of military emergency requiring its abandonment, or is otherwise lost in the field during campaign. (Mar. 3, 1885, c. 335, § 1, 23 Stat. 350; July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter VI, 40 Stat. 880; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 163, 41 Stat. 1436.)

219. Same; extent of liability.—Except as to such property as by law or regulation is required to be possessed and used by officers, enlisted men, and members of the Army Nurse Corps (female), respectively, the liability of the Government under sections 218 to 222 of this title shall be limited to damage to or loss of such sums of money or such articles of personal property as the Secretary of War shall decide or declare to be reasonable, useful, necessary, and proper for officers, enlisted men, or members of the Army Nurse Corps (female), respectively, as the case may be, to have in their possession while in quarters, or in the field, engaged in the public service in the line of duty. (Mar. 3, 1885, c. 335, § 2; July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter VI, 40 Stat. 880; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 163, 41 Stat. 1437.)

220. Same; examination; payment; replacement.—The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to examine into, ascertain, and determine the value of such property lost, destroyed, captured, or abandoned as specified in sections 218 and 219 of this title, or the amount of damage thereto, as the case may be; and the amount of such value or damage so ascertained and determined shall be paid by disbursing officers of the Army, or such property lost, destroyed, captured, or abandoned, or so damaged as to be unfit for service, may be replaced in kind from Government property on hand when the Secretary of War shall so direct. (Mar. 3, 1885, c. 335, § 3; July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter VI, 40 Stat. 881; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 163, 41 Stat. 1437.)

221. Same; final determination.—The tender of replacement or of commutation or the determination made by the Secretary of War upon a claim presented, as provided for in section 220 of this title, shall constitute a final determination of any claim cognizable under sections 218 to 222 of this title, and such claim shall not thereafter be reopened or considered. (Mar. 3, 1885, c. 335, § 4; July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter VI, 40 Stat. 881; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 163, 41 Stat. 1437.)

222. Same; time for presentation.—No claim arising under sections 218 to 222 of this title shall be considered unless made within two years from the time that it accrued, except that when a claim accrues in time of war, or when war intervenes within two years after its accrual, such claim may be presented within two years after peace is established. (Mar. 3, 1885, c. 335, § 5; July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter VI, 40 Stat. 881; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 163, 41 Stat. 1437.)

223. Settlement of claims for loss or damage to private property from operations, etc., of Army.—Settlement of claims of not to exceed $500 each in amount for damages to and loss of private property incident to the training, practice, operation, or maintenance of the Army that have accrued, or may accrue, from time to time, shall be made by the General Accounting Office, upon the approval and recommendation of the Secretary of War, where the amount of damages has been ascertained by the War Department, and payment thereof will be accepted by the owners of the property in full satisfaction of such damages. (June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 725; Mar. 2, 1923, c. 178, Title I, 42 Stat. 1386; June 7, 1924, c. 291, Title I, 43 Stat. 483; Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 897.)

224. Settlement of claims for damages from operation of aircraft.—Not more than the amount specified in any appropriation Act may be expended for settlement of claims (not exceeding $250 each) for damages to persons and private property resulting from the operation of aircraft at home and abroad when each claim is substantiated by a survey report of a board of officers appointed by the commanding officer of the nearest aviation post and approved by the Chief of Air Service and the Secretary of War. (June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 737; Mar. 2, 1923, c. 178, Title I, 42 Stat. 1398; June 7, 1924, c. 291, Title I, 43 Stat. 492; Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 907.)

225. Judgments of Court of Claims; payment.—In all cases of final judgments by the Court of Claims, or, on appeal, by the Supreme Court, where the same are affirmed in favor of the claimant, the sum due thereby shall be paid out of any general appropriation made by law for the payment and satisfaction of private claims, on presentation to the Secretary of the Treasury of a copy of said judgment, certified by the clerk of the Court of Claims, and signed by the chief justice, or, in his absence, by the presiding judge of said court. (R. S. § 1089.)

226. Same; certified by Secretary of the Treasury; interest.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall certify to Congress for appropriation only such judgments of the Court of Claims as are not to be appealed, or such cases as shall have been decided by the Supreme Court upon review as provided in section 288 of Title 28 to be due and payable. And on judgments in favor of claimants which have been reviewed upon petition of the United States and affirmed by the Supreme Court, interest, at the rate of 4 per centum per annum, shall be allowed and paid from the date of filing the transcript of judgment in the Treasury Department up to and including the date of the mandate of affirmance by the Supreme Court: Provided, That in no case shall interest be allowed after the term of the Supreme Court at which said judgment was affirmed. (Sept. 30, 1890, c. 1126, § 1, 26 Stat. 537; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, § 3, 43 Stat. 939.)

227. Offsets against judgments and claims against United States.—When any final judgment recovered against the United States or other claim duly allowed by legal authority, shall be presented to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment, and the plaintiff or claimant therein shall be indebted to the United States in any manner, whether as principal or surety, it shall be the duty of the Secretary to withhold payment of an amount of such judgment or claim equal to the debt thus due to the United States; and if such plaintiff or claimant assents to such set-off, and discharges his judgment or an amount thereof equal to said debt or claim, the Secretary shall execute a discharge of the debt due from the plaintiff to the United States. But if such plaintiff, or claimant, denies his indebtedness to the United States, or refuses to consent to the set-off, then the Secretary shall withhold payment of such further amount of such judgment, or claim, as in his opinion will be sufficient to cover all legal charges and costs in prosecuting the debt of the United States to final judgment. And if such debt is not already in suit, it shall be the duty of the Secretary to cause legal proceedings to be immediately commenced to enforce the same, and to cause the same to be prosecuted to final judgment with all reasonable dispatch. And if in such action judgment shall be rendered against the United States, or the amount recovered for debt and costs shall be less than the amount so withheld as before provided, the balance shall then be paid over to such plaintiff by such Secretary with 6 per centum interest thereon for the time it has been withheld from the plaintiff. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 149, 18 Stat. 481.)

228. Payment of judgments against United States made on settlements by General Accounting Office.—Hereafter in all cases of final judgments and awards rendered against the United States by the Court of Claims, and of final judgments rendered against the United States by the district courts of the United States, payment thereof under appropriations made by Congress shall be made on settlements by the General Accounting Office. (Feb. 18, 1904, c. 160, § 1, 33 Stat. 41; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

229. Private claims pending before Congress; taking of testimony.—Any committee of either House of Congress before which any private claim against the United States may at any time be pending, being first thereto authorized by the House appointing them, may order testimony to be taken, and books and papers to be examined, and copies thereof, proved, before any standing master in chancery within the judicial district where such testimony or evidence is to be taken. Such master in chancery, upon receiving a copy of the order of such committee, signed by its chairman, setting forth the time and place when and where such examination is to be had, the questions to be investigated, and, so far as may be known to the committee, the names of the witnesses to be examined on the part of the United States, and the general nature of the books, papers, and documents to be proved, if known, shall proceed to give to such private parties reasonable notice of the time and place of such examination, unless such notice shall have been or shall be given by such committee or its chairman, or by the attorney or agent of the United States, or waived by such private party. And such master shall issue subpœnas for such witnesses as may have been named in the order of such committee, and such others as the agent or other representative of the United States hereinafter mentioned shall request. And he shall also issue subpœnas at the request of such private party, or parties, for such witnesses within such judicial district as they may desire: Provided, That the United States shall not be liable for the fees of any officer for serving any subpœna for any private party, nor for the fees of any witness on behalf of such party. Said committee may inform the district attorney of the United States for the district where the testimony is to be taken of the time, place, and object of such examination, and request his attendance in behalf of the Government in conducting such examination, in which case it shall be his duty to attend in person, or by an assistant employed by him, to conduct such examination on the part of the United States, or such committee may, at its option, appoint an agent or attorney, or one of its own members, for that purpose, as they may deem best; and in that event, if the committee shall not be unanimous, the minority of the committee may also appoint such agent or attorney or member of such committee to attend and take part in such examination. (Feb. 3, 1879, c. 40, § 1, 20 Stat. 278.)

230. Same; subpœna for taking testimony; compensation of officers and witnesses; return of depositions.—It shall be the duty of the marshal of the United States for the district in which the testimony is to be taken to serve, or cause to be served, all subpœnas issued in behalf of the United States under this section and section 229 of this title, in the same manner as if issued by the district court for his district; and he shall, upon being first paid his fees therefor, serve any subpœnas that may be issued at the instance of such private party or parties. And the said master may, in his discretion, appoint any other person to serve any subpœna. Such master shall have full power to administer oaths to witnesses, and the same power to issue attachments to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers and documents, as the district court of his district would have in a case pending before it; and it shall be his duty to report the conduct of contumacious witnesses before him to the House of Congress appointing such committee. The compensation of such master in chancery, and the fees of marshals and deputy marshals, and of any person appointed to serve papers, shall be the same as for like services in equity cases in the district court of the United States; and the compensation of witnesses shall be the same as for like attendance and travel of witnesses before such district courts; and all such fees and compensation of officers and witnesses on behalf of the United States, and other expenses of all investigations which may be had under the provisions of this section and section 229 of this title on the part of the United States, shall be paid out of the contingent fund of the branch of Congress appointing such committee. Said master, when the examination is concluded, shall attach together all the depositions and exhibits, and attach thereto his certificate setting forth or referring to the authority by which they were taken, any notices he may have given, the names of the witnesses for whom subpœnas or attachments were issued, the names of witnesses who attended, with the time of attendance and mileage and fees of each witness on behalf of the United States, which he may require to be shown by affidavit, his own fees, the fees of the marshal, his deputies or other persons serving papers, giving the items, and such other facts in relation to the circumstances connected with the taking of the depositions as he may deem material. He shall then seal up such depositions and papers securely, direct them to the chairman of such committee at Washington, stating briefly on the outside the nature of the contents, and place the same in the post office, paying the postage thereon; and said package shall be opened only in the presence of such committee. The chairman of any committee ordering testimony to be taken under this section and section 229 of this title shall, at least ten days before the time fixed for such examination, and within two days after the adoption of such order, cause a copy thereof to be directed and delivered to the Attorney General of the United States, or sent to him by mail at the Department of Justice, to enable him to give such instructions as he may deem best to the district attorney of the district where such testimony is to be taken, who may, and, if required by the Attorney General, shall, though not requested by the committee, appear for the United States in person or by assistant, and take such part in such examination as the Attorney General shall direct. (Feb. 3, 1879, c. 40, § 2, 20 Stat. 279; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 289, 36 Stat. 1167.)

231. Liability of persons making false claims.—Any person not in the military or naval forces of the United States, or in the militia called into or actually employed in the service of the United States, who shall do or commit any of the acts prohibited by any of the provisions of section 80 of Title 18, shall forfeit and pay to the United States the sum of $2,000, and, in addition, double the amount of damages which the United States may have sustained by reason of the doing or committing such act, together with the costs of suit; and such forfeiture and damages shall be sued for in the same suit. (R. S. § 3490.)

232. Same; suits.—The several district courts of the United States, the supreme court of the District of Columbia, the several district courts of the Territories of the United States, within whose jurisdictional limits the person doing or committing such act shall be found, shall, wheresoever such act may have been done or committed, have full power and jurisdiction to hear, try, and determine such suit. Such suit may be brought and carried on by any person, as well for himself as for the United States; the same shall be at the sole cost and charge of such person, and shall be in the name of the United States, but shall not be withdrawn or discontinued without the consent, in writing, of the judge of the court and the district attorney, first filed in the case, setting forth their reasons for such consent. (R. S. § 3491.)

233. Duty of district attorney as to such cases.—It shall be the duty of the several district attorneys of the United States for the respective districts, for the District of Columbia, and for the several Territories, to be diligent in inquiring into any violation of the provisions of section 231 of this title by persons liable to such suit, and found within their respective districts or Territories, and to cause them to be proceeded against in due form of law for the recovery of such forfeiture and damages. And such person may be arrested and held to bail in such sum as the district judge may order, not exceeding the sum of $2,000, and twice the amount of the damages sworn to in the affidavit of the person bringing the suit. (R. S. § 3492.)

234. Rights of persons presenting such suits.—The person bringing said suit and prosecuting it to final judgment shall be entitled to receive one-half the amount of such forfeiture, as well as one-half the amount of the damages he shall recover and collect; and the other half thereof shall belong to and be paid over to the United States; and such person shall be entitled to receive to his own use all costs the court may award against the defendant, to be allowed and taxed according to any provision of law or rule of court in force, or that shall be in force in suits between private parties in said court: Provided, That such person shall be liable for all costs incurred by himself in the case, and shall have no claim therefor on the United States. (R. S. § 3493.)

235. Limitation of suit.—Every such suit shall be commenced within six years from the commission of the act, and not afterward. (R. S. § 3494.)

THE BUREAU OF THE MINT

Section 251. Bureau established; director.—There shall be established in the Treasury Department a Bureau of the Mint, embracing in its organization and under its control all mints for the manufacture of coin, and all assay offices for the stamping of bars, which have been, or which may be, authorized by law. The chief officer of the said bureau shall be denominated the Director of the Mint, and shall be under the general direction of the Secretary of the Treasury. He shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall hold his office for the term of five years, unless sooner removed by the President, upon reasons to be communicated by him to the Senate. (R. S. § 343.)

252. Director; salary and expenses.—There shall be allowed to the Director of the Mint an annual salary payable monthly, and actual necessary traveling expenses in visiting the different mints and assay offices, for which vouchers shall be rendered. (R. S. § 344.)

253. Same; powers; reports.—The Director of the Mint shall have the general supervision of all mints and assay offices, and shall make an annual report to the Secretary of the Treasury of their operations, at the close of each fiscal year, and from time to time such additional reports, setting forth the operations and condition of such institutions, as the Secretary of the Treasury shall require, and shall lay before him the annual estimates for their support. And the Secretary of the Treasury shall appoint the number of clerks, classified according to law, necessary to discharge the duties of said bureau. (R. S. § 345.)

254. Acting in absence of director.—In case of the temporary absence of the Director of the Mint, the Secretary of the Treasury may designate some one to act in his place. (R. S. § 3502.)

MINTS AND ASSAY OFFICES

261. Mints and assay offices enumerated.—The different mints and assay offices shall be known as—

First. The mint of the United States at Philadelphia.

Second. The mint of the United States at San Francisco.

Third. The mint of the United States at New Orleans.

Fourth. The mint of the United States at Carson.

Fifth. The mint of the United States at Denver.

Sixth. The United States assay office at New York.

Seventh. The United States assay office at Boise City, Idaho.

Eighth. The United States assay office at Helena, Montana.

Ninth. The United States assay office at Deadwood, South Dakota.

Tenth. The United States assay office at Seattle, Washington.

Eleventh. The United States assay office at Salt Lake City, Utah. (R. S. § 3495; May 12, 1874, c. 168, § 1, 18 Stat. 45; June 20, 1874, c. 328, § 1, 18 Stat. 97; Feb. 1, 1881, c. 33, § 1, 21 Stat. 322; June 11, 1896, c. 420, § 1, 29 Stat. 414; May 21, 1898, c. 348, 30 Stat. 420; May 30, 1908, c. 223, 35 Stat. 474.)

262. Denver mint; coinage of gold and silver at.—The coinage of gold and silver and minor coins shall be carried on at the mint of the United States at Denver, in the State of Colorado. (Feb. 20, 1895, c. 105, §§ 1, 3, 28 Stat. 673.)

263. Officers of mints.—The officers of each coinage mint shall be a superintendent and an assayer; and, for the mint at Philadelphia, an engraver; all to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. (R. S. § 3496; Feb. 20, 1895, c. 105, § 2, 28 Stat. 673; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1103.)

264. Superintendents of certain mints to perform duties of treasurer.—The superintendents of the mints at Philadelphia, San Francisco, and Denver shall be, and perform the duties of, treasurers of said mints respectively. (R. S. § 3497; Feb. 20, 1895, c. 105, § 2, 28 Stat. 673; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1103.)

265. Salaries of officers of coinage mints.—The officers of the several coinage mints shall be entitled to salaries, to be paid monthly, in accordance with the provisions of section 676 of Title 5. (R. S. § 3498; June 20, 1874, c. 328, § 1, 18 Stat. 96; Apr. 4, 1924, c. 84, 43 Stat. 78; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, 43 Stat. 764.)

266. Appointment of assistants and employees.—All assistants and employees of the mints and assay officers of the United States shall be appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury. One of the clerks at each mint shall be designated "chief clerk." (R. S. § 3504; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384.)

267. Duties of coiner and melter and refiner performed by superintendent.—The duties and responsibilities formerly imposed by law on the coiner and the melter and refiner in each of the coinage mints and the assay office at New York shall devolve upon the superintendents of said institutions. (Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384.)

268. Salaries of assistants, clerks, and laborers employed in the mints.—There shall be allowed to the assistants and clerks of the several mints annual salaries in accordance with section 676 of Title 5, and the workmen employed therein shall be allowed such wages as may be customary and reasonable according to their respective stations and occupations, to be determined by the superintendent, and approved by the Director of the Mint. The salaries provided for in this section, and the wages of workmen permanently engaged, shall be payable in monthly installments. (R. S. § 3499; June 20, 1874, c. 328, § 1, 18 Stat. 96; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 141, § 6, 38 Stat. 1049.)

269. Oath of office of officers, assistants, and clerks.—Every officer, assistant, and clerk appointed for any mint shall, before he enters upon the execution of his office, take an oath before some judge of the United States, or judge of some court of record of the State in which such mint is located, faithfully and diligently to perform the duties thereof; in addition to other official oaths prescribed by law, such oath, duly certified, shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Treasury. The superintendent of each mint may require such oath from any of the employees of the mint. (R. S. § 3500.)

270. Bonds of officers, assistants, and clerks.—The superintendent and the assayer, before entering upon the execution of their respective offices, shall become bound to the United States, with one or more sureties, approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, in the sum of not less than $10,000 nor more than $50,000, with condition for the faithful and diligent performance of the duties of his office. Similar bonds may be required of the assistants and clerks, in such sums as the superintendent shall determine, with the approbation of the Director of the Mint; but the same shall not be construed to relieve the superintendent or other officers from liability to the United States for acts, omissions, or negligence of their subordinates or employees; and the Secretary of the Treasury may, at his discretion, increase the bonds of the superintendents. (R. S. § 3501; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1103.)

271. Acting in absence of superintendent or other officer.—Whenever any officer of a mint or assay office shall be temporarily absent, on account of sickness or any other cause, it shall be lawful for the superintendent, with the consent of such officer, to appoint some person attached to the mint to act in the place of such officer during his absence; but all such appointments shall be forthwith reported to the Director of the Mint for his approval; and in all cases whatsoever the principal shall be responsible for the acts of his representative. In case of the temporary absence of the superintendent, the chief clerk shall act in his place. (R. S. § 3502.)

272. General duties of superintendents of mints.—The superintendent of each mint shall have the control thereof, the superintendence of the officers and persons employed therein, and the supervision of the business thereof, subject to the approval of the Director of the Mint. He shall make reports to the Director of the Mint at such times and according to such forms as the director may prescribe; which shall exhibit in detail, and under appropriate heads, the deposits of bullion, the amount of gold, silver, and minor coinage, and the amount of unparted, standard, and refined bars issued, and such other statistics and information as may be required. He shall keep and render, quarter yearly, to the Director of the Mint, for the purpose of adjustment according to such forms as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, regular and faithful accounts of his transactions with the other officers of the mint and the depositors; and shall also render to him a monthly statement of the ordinary expenses of the mint or assay office under his charge. (R. S. §§ 3503, 3504.)

273. Duties of superintendents as to coin and bullion.—The superintendent of each mint shall receive and safely keep, until legally withdrawn, all moneys or bullion which shall be for the use or the expenses of the mint. He shall receive all bullion brought to the mint for assay or coinage; shall be the keeper of all bullion or coin in the mint, except while the same is legally in the hands of other officers; and shall deliver all coins struck at the mint to the persons to whom they shall be legally payable. From the report of the assayer and the weight of the bullion, he shall compute the value of each deposit, and also the amount of the charges or deductions, if any, of all which he shall give a detailed memorandum to the depositor; and he shall also give at the same time, under his hand, a certificate of the net amount of the deposit, to be paid in coins or bars of the same species of bullion as that deposited, the correctness of which certificate shall be verified by the assayer, who shall countersign the same, and in all cases of transfer of coin or bullion, shall give and receive vouchers, stating the amount and character of such coin or bullion. (R. S. § 3506.)

274. Duties as to melting and refining.—The superintendent of melting and refining department shall execute all the operations which are necessary in order to form ingots of standard silver or gold, and alloys for minor coinage, suitable for the superintendent of coining department, from the metals legally delivered to him for that purpose; and shall also execute all the operations which are necessary in order to form bars conformable in all respects to the law, from the gold and silver bullion delivered to him for that purpose. He shall keep a careful record of all transactions with the superintendent, noting the weight and character of the bullion, and shall be responsible for all bullion delivered to him until the same is returned to the superintendent and the proper vouchers obtained. (R. S. § 3508; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384.)

275. Duties as to coining.—The superintendent of coining department shall execute all the operations which are necessary in order to form coins, conformable in all respects to the law, from the standard gold and silver ingots, and alloys for minor coinage, legally delivered to him for that purpose; and shall be responsible for all bullion delivered to him, until the same is returned to the superintendent and the proper vouchers obtained. (R. S. § 3509; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1103.)

276. Duties of engravers; dies for coins; new designs.—The engraver shall prepare from the original dies already authorized all the working dies required for use in the coinage of the several mints, and, when new coins, emblems, devices, legends, or designs are authorized, shall, if required by the Director of the Mint, prepare the devices, models, hubs, or original dies for the same. The Director of the Mint shall have power, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, to cause new designs or models of authorized emblems or devices to be prepared and adopted in the same manner as when new coins or devices are authorized. But no change in the design or die of any coin shall be made oftener than once in twenty-five years from and including the year of the first adoption of the design, model, die, or hub for the same coin: Provided, That no change be made in the diameter of any coin. But the Director of the Mint may nevertheless, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, engage temporarily for this purpose the services of one or more artists, distinguished in their respective departments of art, who shall be paid for such service from the contingent appropriation for the mint at Philadelphia. (R. S. § 3510; Sept. 26, 1890, c. 944, 26 Stat. 484.)

277. Duties of assayers.—The assayer shall assay all metals and bullion, whenever such assays are required in the operations of the mint; and shall make assays of coin or samples of bullion whenever required by the superintendent. (R. S. § 3507.)

278. Business of assay office at New York.—The business of the United States assay office at New York shall be in all respects similar to that of the mints, except that bars only and not coin, shall be manufactured therein; and no metals shall be purchased for minor coinage. All bullion intended by the depositor to be converted into coins, of the United States, and silver bullion purchased for coinage, when assayed, parted, and refined, and its net value certified, shall be transferred to the mint at Philadelphia, under such directions as shall be made by the Secretary of the Treasury, at the expense of the contingent fund of the mint, and shall be there coined. And the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to make the necessary arrangements for the adjustment of the accounts upon such transfers between the respective offices. (R. S. § 3553.)

279. Officers at New York assay office; appointment.—The officers of the assay office at New York shall be a superintendent and an assayer; each of whom shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. (R. S. § 3554; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384.)

280. Same; salaries.—The officers of the assay office at New York shall be entitled to salaries in accordance with the provisions of section 676 of Title 5. (R. S. § 3556; Apr. 4, 1924, c. 84, 43 Stat. 78; Jan. 21, 1925, c. 87, 43 Stat. 764.)

281. Same; duties.—The duties of the superintendent and the assayer of the assay office at New York shall correspond to those of superintendents and assayers of mints; and all the provisions of this title relating to mints and their officers, the duties and responsibilities of such officers, and others employed therein, the oaths to be taken, and the bonds and sureties to be given by them, shall extend, as far as the same may be applicable, to the assay office at New York, and to its officers, clerks, and employees. (R. S. § 3555; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1103.)

282. Salaries of assistants and employees.—The compensation of assistants, clerks, and workmen in the assay office at New York shall be regulated in the same manner as is prescribed in regard to mints. (R. S. § 3557; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384.)

283. Business of assay offices.—Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the business of the United States assay offices enumerated in section 261 of this title other than the assay office at New York, and that of any other assay offices which may be established, shall be confined to the receipt of gold and silver bullion, for melting and assaying. (R. S. § 3558; June 8, 1878, c. 170, 20 Stat. 102; Feb. 20, 1895, c. 105, § 1, 28 Stat. 673.)

284. Appointment of officers at assay offices.—Except as otherwise provided by law, the officer of the assay offices embraced by section 283 of this title shall be an assayer in charge, who shall also perform the duties of melter, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and who shall receive a salary in accordance with section 676 of Title 5. (R. S. § 3559; Feb. 20, 1895, c. 105, § 2, 28 Stat. 673; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, 43 Stat. 764.)

285. Powers and duties of assayers at assay offices.—The assayer at each of the assay offices embraced by section 283 of this title shall have general charge of the office; and shall discharge the duties of disbursing agent for the expenses of the office under his charge. (R. S. § 3560; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384.)

286. Bond and oath of officers and clerks.—Each officer and clerk appointed at either of the assay offices embraced by section 283 of this title shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take an oath pursuant to the provisions of section 16 of Title 5, and shall give a bond to the United States, with one or more sureties, satisfactory to the Director of the Mint or to one of the judges of the supreme court of the State or Territory in which the office to which he is appointed is located, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties. (R. S. § 3561; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 319; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 249.)

287. Laws relating to mints extended to assay offices.—All provisions of law for the regulation of mints, the government of officers and persons employed therein, and for the punishment of all offenses connected with mints or coinage, shall extend to all assay offices, as far as applicable. (R. S. § 3562.)

COINS AND COINAGE

Section 311. Policy of United States as to bimetallism.—It is hereby declared to be the policy of the United States to continue the use of both gold and silver as standard money, and to coin both gold and silver into money of equal intrinsic and exchangeable value, such equality to be secured through international agreement, or by such safeguards of legislation as will insure the maintenance of the parity in value of the coins of the two metals, and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the markets and in the payment of debts. And it is hereby further declared that the efforts of the Government should be steadily directed to the establishment of such a safe system of bimetallism as will maintain at all times the equal power of every dollar coined or issued by the United States, in the markets and in the payment of debts. (Nov. 1, 1893, c. 8, 28 Stat. 4.)

312. International monetary conference commissioners.—Whenever the President of the United States shall determine that the United States should be represented at any international conference called by the United States or any other country with a view to securing by international agreement a fixity of relative value between gold and silver as money by means of a common ratio between these metals, with free mintage at such ratio, he may appoint five or more commissioners to such international conference; and for compensation of said commissioners, and for all reasonable expenses connected therewith, to be approved by the Secretary of State, including the proportion to be paid by the United States of the joint expenses of any such conference, the sum of $100,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated. (Mar. 3, 1897, c. 376, § 1, 29 Stat. 624.)

313. International bimetallism.—The provisions of sections 146, 313, 314, 320, 406, 408, 411, 429, 455, and 751 of this title and sections 51, 101, and 178 of Title 12, BANKS AND BANKING, are not intended to preclude the accomplishment of international bimetallism whenever conditions shall make it expedient and practicable to secure the same by concurrent action of the leading commercial nations of the world and at a ratio which shall insure permanence of relative value between gold and silver. (Mar. 14, 1900, c. 41, § 14, 31 Stat. 49.)

314. Standard unit of value.—The dollar consisting of twenty-five and eight-tenths grains of gold nine-tenths fine shall be the standard unit of value, and all forms of money issued or coined by the United States shall be maintained at a parity of value with this standard, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to maintain such parity. (R. S. § 3511; Mar. 14, 1900, c. 41, § 1, 31 Stat. 45.)

315. Gold coins of United States; weight.—The gold coins of the United States shall be a quarter-eagle, or $2.50 piece; a half-eagle, or $5 piece; an eagle, or $10 piece; and a double-eagle, or $20 piece. The standard weight of the quarter-eagle, or $2.50 piece, shall be sixty-four and a half grains; of the half-eagle, or $5 piece, one hundred and twenty-nine grains; of the eagle, or $10 piece, two hundred and fifty-eight grains; of the double-eagle, or $20 piece, five hundred and sixteen grains. (R. S. § 3511; Sept. 26, 1890, c. 945, § 1, 26 Stat. 485.)

316. Silver coins; weight.—The silver coins of the United States shall be a dollar; a half-dollar, or fifty-cent piece; a quarter-dollar, or twenty-five-cent piece; and a dime, or ten-cent piece. The weight of the dollar shall be four hundred and twelve and one-half grains troy of standard silver, the weight of the half-dollar shall be one hundred and ninety-two and nine-tenths grains; the quarter-dollar and the dimes shall be, respectively, one-half and one-fifth of the weight of said half-dollar. (R. S. § 3513; Feb. 28, 1878, c. 20, § 1, 20 Stat. 25.)

317. Minor coins; weight and alloy.—The minor coins of the United States shall be a five-cent piece, and a one-cent piece. The alloy for the five-cent pieces shall be of copper and nickel, to be composed of three-fourths copper and one-fourth nickel. The alloy of the one-cent piece shall be 95 per centum of copper and 5 per centum of tin and zinc, in such proportions as shall be determined by the Director of the Mint. The weight of the piece of 5 cents shall be seventy-seven and sixteen-hundredths grains troy, and of the one-cent piece, forty-eight grains. (R. S. § 3515; Sept. 26, 1890, c. 945, § 1, 26 Stat. 485.)

318. Coins reduced in weight by abrasion.—Any gold coins of the United States, if reduced in weight by natural abrasion not more than one-half of 1 per centum below the standard weight prescribed by law, after a circulation of twenty years, as shown by the date of coinage, and at a ratable proportion for any period less than twenty years, shall be received at their nominal value by the United States Treasury and its offices, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe for the protection of the Government against fraudulent abrasion or other practices. (R. S. § 3505.)

319. Recoinage of gold coins.—Any gold coins in the Treasury of the United States, when reduced in weight by natural abrasion more than one-half of 1 per centum below the standard weight prescribed by law, shall be recoined. (R. S. § 3512.)

320. Recoinage of uncurrent subsidiary silver coins.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall cause all worn and uncurrent subsidiary silver coin of the United States received in the Treasury to be recoined, and to reimburse the Treasurer of the United States for the difference between the nominal or face value of such coin and the amount the same will produce in new coin from any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated. (Mar. 14, 1900, c. 41, § 9, 31 Stat. 48.)

321. Standard for gold and silver coins.—The standard for both gold and silver coins of the United States shall be such that of one thousand parts by weight nine hundred shall be of pure metal and one hundred of alloy. The alloy of the silver coins shall be of copper. The alloy of the gold coins shall be of copper, or of copper and silver; but the silver shall in no case exceed one-tenth of the whole alloy. (R. S. § 3514.)

322. Coins prohibited.—Except as otherwise authorized by Congress, no coins, either of gold, silver, or minor coinage, shall be issued from the Mint other than those of the denominations, standards, and weights set forth in this chapter. (R. S. § 3516.)

323. Withdrawal of discontinued pieces and recoinage.—As fast as $3 gold pieces, $1 gold pieces, and 3-cent nickel pieces shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States they shall be withdrawn from circulation and be recoined into other denominations of coins. (Sept. 26, 1890, c. 945, § 2, 26 Stat. 485.)

324. Inscriptions on coins.—Upon the coins there shall be the following devices and legends: Upon one side there shall be an impression emblematic of liberty, with an inscription of the word "Liberty" and the year of the coinage, and upon the reverse shall be the figure or representation of an eagle, with the inscriptions "United States of America" and "E Pluribus Unum," and a designation of the value of the coin; but on the dime, 5, and 1 cent piece, the figure of the eagle shall be omitted; and the motto "In God we trust" shall be inscribed on the denominations of gold and silver coins on which it was inscribed prior to May 18, 1908. (R. S. § 3517; Sept. 26, 1890, c. 945, § 1, 26 Stat. 485; May 18, 1908, c. 173, § 1, 35 Stat. 164.)

325. Gold and silver bars.—At the option of the owner gold or silver may be cast into bars of fine metal, or of standard fineness, or unparted, as he may prefer, with a stamp upon the same designating the weight and fineness, and with such devices impressed thereon as may be deemed expedient to prevent fraudulent imitation, and no such bars shall be issued of a less weight than five ounces. (R. S. § 3518.)

326. Exchange of gold coins for gold bars.—The superintendent of the coinage mints and of the United States assay office at New York may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, but not otherwise, receive United States gold coin from any holder thereof in sums of not less than $5,000, and pay and deliver in exchange therefor gold bars in value equaling such coin so received. The Secretary of the Treasury may make, in his discretion, such exchange without charge, or may impose a charge therefor. (May 26, 1882, c. 190, 22 Stat. 97; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 541, § 3, 26 Stat. 948; Mar. 3, 1901, c. 867, 31 Stat. 1446.)

327. Coining gold bullion; refusal of deposits.—Any owner of gold bullion may deposit the same at any mint, to be formed into coin or bars for his benefit. It shall be lawful, however, to refuse any deposit of less value than $100, or any bullion so base as to be unsuitable for the operations of the Mint. In cases where gold and silver are combined, if either metal be in such small proportion that it can not be separated advantageously, no allowance shall be made to the depositor for its value. (R. S. § 3519.)

328. Silver bullion for forming into bars.—Any owner of silver bullion may deposit the same at any mint, to be formed into bars, and no deposit of silver for other coinage shall be received. Silver bullion contained in gold deposits, and separated therefrom, may, however, be paid for in silver coin, at such valuation as may be, from time to time, established by the Director of the Mint. (R. S. § 3520; Mar. 3, 1887, c. 396, § 3, 24 Stat. 635.)

329. Weighing and valuing bullion.—When bullion is deposited in any of the mints, it shall be weighed by the superintendent, and, when practicable, in the presence of the depositor, to whom a receipt shall be given, which shall state the description and weight of the bullion. When, however, the bullion is in such a state as to require melting, or the removal of base metals, before its value can be ascertained, the weight, after such operation, shall be considered as the true weight of the bullion deposited. The fitness of the bullion to be received shall be determined by the assayer, and the mode of melting by the superintendent of melting and refining department. (R. S. § 3521; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1103.)

330. Assay of bullion.—From every parcel of bullion deposited for coinage or bars, the superintendent shall deliver to the assayer a sufficient portion for the purpose of being assayed. The bullion remaining from the operations of the assay shall be returned to the superintendent by the assayer. (R. S. § 3522.)

331. Report of quality of bullion assayed.—The assayer shall report to the superintendent the quality or fineness of the bullion assayed by him, and such information as will enable him to compute the amount of the charges hereinafter provided for, to be made to the depositor. (R. S. § 3523.)

332. Charges for converting bullion into coin and bars.—The charges for melting or refining bullion, for toughening when metals are contained in it which render it unfit for coinage, for copper used for alloy when the bullion is above standard, for separating the gold and silver when these metals exist together in the bullion, and for the preparation of bars, shall be fixed, from time to time, by the director, with the concurrence of the Secretary of the Treasury, so as to equal but not exceed, in their judgment, the actual average cost to each mint and assay office of the material, labor, wastage, and use of machinery employed in each of the cases aforementioned. (R. S. § 3524; Jan. 14, 1875, c. 15, § 2, 18 Stat. 296; Mar. 1, 1881, c. 95, 21 Stat. 374; Mar. 3, 1887, c. 396, § 3, 24 Stat. 635.)

333. Same; standard gold bullion.—No charge shall be made for converting standard gold bullion into coin. (Jan. 14, 1875, c. 15, § 2, 18 Stat. 296.)

334. Verification of calculations of value of deposits; countersigning certificate.—The assayer shall verify all calculations made by the superintendent of the value of deposits, and, if satisfied of the correctness thereof, shall countersign the certificate required to be given by the superintendent to the depositor. (R. S. § 3525.)

335. Purchase of bullion for silver coinage; silver-profit fund.—In order to procure bullion for the silver coinage authorized by this chapter, other than the silver dollar, the superintendents, with the approval of the Director of the Mint, as to price, terms, and quantity, shall purchase such bullion with the bullion fund. The gain arising from the coinage of such silver bullion into coin of a nominal value exceeding the cost thereof shall be credited to a special fund denominated the silver-profit fund. (R. S. § 3526; Mar. 2, 1889, c. 411, 25 Stat. 955.)

336. Paying out silver coins for gold coins.—Silver coins shall be paid out at the several mints, and at the assay office in New York City, in exchange for gold coins at par, in sums not less than $100. It shall be lawful, also, to transmit parcels of the same, from time to time, to depositaries and other officers of the United States, under general regulations proposed by the Director of the Mint, and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury. Nothing herein contained shall, however, prevent the payment of silver coins, at their nominal value, for silver parted from gold, as provided in this chapter, or for change less than $1 in settlement for gold deposits. (R. S. § 3527.)

337. Exchange of subsidiary silver coin for lawful money.—The holder of any of the silver coins of the United States of smaller denominations than $1, may, on presentation of the same in sums of $20, or any multiple thereof, at the office of the Treasurer or any designated depositary of the United States, which the Secretary of the Treasury may direct for that purpose, receive therefor lawful money of the United States. (June 9, 1879, c. 12, § 1, 21 Stat. 7; May 20, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 655.)

338. Same.—The Treasurer or any depositary of the United States who may receive any coins under sections 337, 338, and 459 of this title shall exchange the same in sums of $20, or any multiple thereof, for lawful money of the United States, on demand of any holder thereof. (June 9, 1879, c. 12, § 2, 21 Stat. 8.)

339. Free transportation of silver coin.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to transport free of charge silver coin when requested to do so: Provided, That an equal amount in coin or currency shall have been deposited in the Treasury by the applicant or applicants. (Aug. 7, 1882, c. 433, § 1, 22 Stat. 312.)

340. Purchase of metal for minor coinage; profit fund.—For the purchase of metal for the minor coinage, authorized by this chapter, a sum not exceeding $400,000 in lawful money of the United States shall, upon the recommendation of the Director of the Mint and in such sums as he may designate, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, be transferred to the credit of the superintendents of the mints at Philadelphia, San Francisco, and Denver, at which establishments, until otherwise provided by law, such coinage shall be carried on. The superintendents, with the approval of the Director of the Mint as to price, terms, and quantity shall purchase the metal required for such coinage by public advertisement, and the lowest and best bid shall be accepted, the fineness of the metals to be determined on the mint assay. The gain arising from the coinage of such metals into coin of a nominal value, exceeding the cost thereof, shall be credited to the special fund denominated the minor coinage profit fund; and this fund shall be charged with the wastage incurred in such coinage, and with the cost of distributing said coins, as hereinafter provided. The balance remaining to the credit of this fund, and any balance of the profits accrued from minor coinage under former Acts, shall be, from time to time, and at least twice a year, covered into the Treasury of the United States. (R. S. § 3528; Apr. 24, 1906, c. 1861, 34 Stat. 132; Dec. 2, 1918, c. 1, 40 Stat. 1051.)

341. Delivery of minor coins; redemption.—The minor coins authorized by this chapter may, at the discretion of the Director of the Mint, be delivered in any of the principal cities and the towns of the United States, at the cost of the mints, for transportation, and shall be exchangeable at par at the mints named, at the discretion of the superintendents, for any other coins of copper, bronze, or copper-nickel authorized, and it shall be lawful for the Treasurer and depositaries of the United States to redeem, in lawful money, under such rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, all copper, bronze, and copper-nickel coins authorized by law when presented in sums of not less than $20; and whenever, under this authority, these coins are presented for redemption in such quantity as to show the amount outstanding to be redundant, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and required to direct that such coinage shall cease until otherwise authorized by him. (R. S. § 3529; Apr. 24, 1906, c. 1861, 34 Stat. 132.)

342. Cleaning, reissue, and recoinage of minor coins.—The Secretary of the Treasury may transfer to the United States mint at Philadelphia, for cleaning and reissue, any minor coins received at the offices of designated depositaries in excess of the requirement for the current business of said offices. (June 4, 1897, c. 2, § 1, 30 Stat. 27; May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 655.)

343. Transfer for bullion for formation into ingots.—Parcels of bullion shall be, from time to time, transferred by the superintendent to the superintendent of melting and refining department. A careful record of these transfers, noting the weight and character of the bullion, shall be kept, and vouchers shall be taken for the delivery of the same, duly receipted by the superintendent of melting and refining department. The bullion thus placed in the hands of the superintendent of melting and refining department shall be subjected to the several processes which may be necessary to form it into ingots of the legal standard, and of a quality suitable for coinage. (R. S. § 3530; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1103.)

344. Assay of ingots.—The ingots so prepared shall be assayed. If they prove to be within the limits allowed for deviation from the standard, the assayer shall certify the fact to the superintendent, who shall thereupon receipt for the same, and transfer them to the superintendent of coining department. (R. S. § 3531; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384; Jan. 23, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1103.)

345. Delivery of ingots for coinage.—The superintendent shall, from time to time, deliver to the superintendent of coining department ingots for the purpose of coinage. A careful record of these transfers, noting the weight and character of the bullion, shall be kept, and vouchers shall be taken for the delivery of the same, duly receipted by the superintendent of coining department. The ingots thus placed in the hands of the superintendent of coining department shall be subjected to the several processes necessary to make from them coins in all respects conformable to law. (R. S. § 3532; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1103.)

346. Standard of ingots used for coinage.—No ingots shall be used for coinage which differ from the legal standard more than the following proportions, namely: In gold ingots, one-thousandth; in silver ingots, three-thousandths; in minor-coinage alloys, twenty-five thousandths, in the proportion of nickel. (R. S. § 3533.)

347. Preparation and stamping of bars for payment of deposits.—The superintendent of melting and refining department shall prepare all bars required for the payment of deposits; but the fineness thereof shall be ascertained and stamped thereon by the assayer. The superintendent of melting and refining department shall deliver such bars to the superintendent, who shall receipt for the same. (R. S. § 3534; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1103.)

348. Deviations allowed in adjusting weights; gold coins.—In adjusting the weights of the gold coins, the following deviations shall not be exceeded in any single piece: In the double-eagle and the eagle, one-half of a grain; in the half-eagle and the quarter-eagle, one-fourth of a grain. And in weighing a number of pieces together, when delivered by the superintendent of coining department to the superintendent, and by the superintendent to the depositor, the deviation from the standard weight shall not exceed one-hundredth of an ounce in $5,000 in double-eagles, eagles, half-eagles, or quarter-eagles. (R. S. § 3535; Sept. 26, 1890, c. 945, § 1, 26 Stat. 485; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1103.)

349. Same; silver coins.—In adjusting the weight of the silver coins the following deviations shall not be exceeded in any single piece: In the dollar, the half and quarter dollar, and in the dime, one and one-half grains. (R. S. § 3536; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 249; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 267, 36 Stat. 1354.)

350. Same; minor coins.—In adjusting the weight of the minor coins provided by this chapter, there shall be no greater deviation allowed than three grains for the 5-cent piece and two grains for the 1-cent piece. (R. S. § 3537; Sept. 26, 1890, c. 945, § 1, 26 Stat. 485.)

351. Delivery of coins to superintendent and trial of pieces.—The superintendent of coining department shall, from time to time, as coins are prepared, deliver them to the superintendent, who shall receipt for the same, and who shall keep a careful record of their kind, number, and actual weight. In receiving coins it shall be the duty of the superintendent to ascertain, by the trial of a number of single pieces separately, whether the coins of that delivery are within the legal limits of the standard weight; and if his trials for this purpose shall not prove satisfactory, he shall cause all the coins of such delivery to be weighed separately, and such as are not of legal weight shall be defaced and delivered to the superintendent of melting and refining department as standard bullion, to be again formed into ingots and recoined; or the whole delivery may, if more convenient, be remelted. (R. S. § 3538; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1103.)

352. Sealing and transmitting trial pieces.—At every delivery of coins made by the superintendent of coining department to a superintendent, it shall be the duty of such superintendent, in the presence of the assayer, to take indiscriminately a certain number of pieces of each variety for the annual trial of coins, the number for gold coins being not less than one piece for each one thousand pieces or any fractional part of one thousand pieces delivered; and for silver coins one piece for each two thousand pieces or any fractional part of two thousand pieces delivered. The pieces so taken shall be carefully sealed up in an envelope, properly labeled, stating the date of the delivery, the number and denomination of the pieces inclosed, and the amount of the delivery from which they were taken. These sealed parcels containing the reserved pieces shall be deposited in a pyx, designated for the purpose at each mint, which shall be kept under the joint care of the superintendent and assayer, and be so secured that neither can have access to its contents without the presence of the other, and the reserved pieces in their sealed envelopes from the coinage of each mint shall be transmitted quarterly to the mint at Philadelphia. A record shall also be kept at the same time of the number and denomination of the pieces so taken for the annual trial of coins, and of the number and denomination of the pieces represented by them and so delivered, a copy of which record shall be transmitted quarterly to the Director of the Mint. Other pieces may at any time be taken for such tests as the Director of the Mint shall prescribe. (R. S. § 3539; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22. 42 Stat. 1103.)

353. Disposals of clippings.—The superintendent of coining department shall, from time to time, deliver to the superintendent the clippings and other portions of bullion remaining after the process of coining; and the superintendent shall receipt for the same and keep a careful record of their weight and character. (R. S. § 3540; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1103.)

354. Yearly settlement of accounts.—The superintendent shall debit the superintendent of coining department with the amount in weight of standard metal of all the bullion placed in his hands, and credit him with the amount in weight of all the coins, clippings, and other bullion returned by him to the superintendent. Once at least in every year, and at such time as the Director of the Mint shall appoint, there shall be an accurate and full settlement of the accounts of the superintendent of coining department, and the superintendent of melting and refining department, at which time those officers shall deliver up to the superintendent all the coins, clippings, and other bullion in their possession, respectively, accompanied by statements of all the bullion delivered to them since the last annual settlement, and all the bullion returned by them during the same period, including the amount returned for the purpose of settlement. (R. S. § 3541; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1103.)

355. Allowance for wastage.—When all the coins, clippings, and other bullion have been delivered to the superintendent, it shall be his duty to examine the accounts and statements rendered by the superintendent of coining department and the superintendent of melting and refining department. The difference between the amount charged, and credited to each officer shall be allowed as necessary wastage, if the superintendent shall be satisfied that there has been a bona fide waste of the precious metals, and if the amount shall not exceed, in the case of the superintendent of melting and refining department, one-thousandth of the whole amount of gold, and one and one-half thousandths of the whole amount of silver delivered to him since the last annual settlement, and in the case of the superintendent of coining department, one-thousandth of the whole amount of silver, and one-half thousandth of the whole amount of gold that has been delivered to him by the superintendent. All copper used in the alloy of gold and silver bullion shall be separately charged to the superintendent of melting and refining department, and accounted for by him. (R. S. § 3542; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22. 42 Stat. 1103.)

356. Statement of balance sheet forwarded to Director of Mint.—It shall also be the duty of the superintendent to forward a correct statement of his balance sheet, at the close of such settlement, to the Director of the Mint; who shall compare the total amount of gold and silver bullion and coin on hand with the total liabilities of the mint. At the same time a statement of the ordinary expense account, and the moneys therein, shall also be made by the superintendent. (R. S. § 3543.)

357. Delivery of coin or bars to depositor.—When the coins or bars which are the equivalent to any deposit of bullion are ready for delivery, they shall be paid to the depositor, or his order, by the superintendent; and the payments shall be made, if demanded, in the order in which the bullion shall have been brought to the mint. In cases, however, where there is delay in manipulating a refractory deposit, or for any other unavoidable cause, the payment of subsequent deposits, the value of which is known, shall not be delayed thereby. In the denominations of coin delivered, the superintendent shall comply with the wishes of the depositor, except when impracticable or inconvenient to do so. (R. S. § 3544.)

358. Payment in money to depositors when value ascertained.—For the purpose of enabling the several mints and assay offices of the United States to make returns to depositors with as little delay as possible, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to keep in such mints and assay offices, when the state of the Treasury will admit thereof, such an amount of public money, or bullion procured for the purpose, as he shall judge convenient and necessary, out of which those who bring bullion to the said mints and assay offices may, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the said Secretary, be paid the value thereof, in coin or bars, as soon as practicable after the value has been ascertained. On payment thereof being made, the bullion so deposited shall become the property of the United States. The Secretary of the Treasury may, however, at any time withdraw the fund or any portion thereof. (R. S. § 3545; June 19, 1878, c. 329, § 1, 20 Stat. 191.)

359. Payment for bullion in coin certificates.—The Secretary of the Treasury may use, as far as he may deem it proper and expedient, for payment to depositors of bullion at the several mints and the assay office in New York, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, coin certificates, representing coin in the Treasury, and issued under the provisions of section 428 of this title. (June 19, 1878, c. 329, § 1, 20 Stat. 191; Mar. 3, 1879, c. 182, § 1, 20 Stat. 383; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 240, 36 Stat. 1292.)

360. Exchange of unparted bullion for fine bars.—Unparted bullion may be exchanged at any of the mints for fine bars, on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Director of the Mint, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. The fineness, weight, and value of the bullion received and given in exchange shall in all cases be determined by the mint assay. The charge to the depositor for refining or parting shall not exceed that allowed and deducted for the same operation in the exchange of unrefined for refined bullion. (R. S. § 3546.)

361. Refining and parting bullion.—Refining and parting of bullion shall be carried on at the coinage mints of the United States and at the assay office at New York, and it shall be lawful to apply the moneys arising from charges collected from depositors for these operations, and also the proceeds of sale of by-products (spent acids arising from any surplus bullion recovered in parting and refining processes), pursuant to law, so far as may be necessary, to defraying in full the expenses thereof, including labor, material, wastage, and loss on sale of sweeps. But no part of the moneys appropriated for the support of the coinage mints and assay office at New York shall be used to defray the expenses of parting and refining bullion. (June 19, 1878, c. 329, § 1, 20 Stat. 191; July 7, 1898, c. 571, § 1, 30 Stat. 661.)

362. Same; exchange of unparted bullion for fine bars.—When the bullion received shall not, in the aggregate, be in such proportion of gold and silver as to admit of economical parting, or the necessary supplies of acids can not be procured at reasonable rates, unparted bullion may be exchanged for fine bars, as provided in section 360 of this title. (June 19, 1878, c. 329, § 1, 20 Stat. 191.)

363. Assay commissioners.—To secure a due conformity in the gold and silver coins to their respective standards of fineness and weight, the judge of the District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, the Comptroller of the Currency, the assayer of the assay office at New York, and such other persons as the President shall, from time to time, designate, shall meet as assay commissioners, at the mint in Philadelphia, to examine and test, in the presence of the Director of the Mint, the fineness and weight of the coins reserved by the several mints for this purpose, on the second Wednesday in February, annually, and may continue their meetings by adjournment, if necessary. If a majority of the commissioners fail to attend at any time appointed for their meeting, the Director of the Mint shall call a meeting of the commissioners at such other time as he may deem convenient. If it appears by such examination and test that these coins do not differ from the standard fineness and weight by a greater quantity than is allowed by law, the trial shall be considered and reported as satisfactory. If, however, any greater deviation from the legal standard or weight appears, this fact shall be certified to the President; and if, on a view of the circumstances of the case, he shall so decide, the officers implicated in the error shall be thenceforward disqualified from holding their respective offices. (R. S. § 3547.)

364. Standard troy pound for regulation of coinage.—For the purpose of securing a due conformity in weight of the coins of the United States to the provisions of the laws relating to coinage, the standard troy pound of the Bureau of Standards of the United States shall be the standard troy pound of the mint of the United States, conformably to which the coinage thereof shall be regulated. (R. S. § 3548; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 268, § 1, 36 Stat. 1354.)

365. Standard weights for mints and assay offices.—It shall be the duty of the Director of the Mint to procure for each mint and assay office, to be kept safely thereat, a series of standard weights corresponding to the standard troy pound of the Bureau of Standards of the United States, consisting of a one-pound weight and the requisite subdivisions and multiples thereof, from the hundredths part of a grain to twenty-five pounds. The troy weight ordinarily employed in the transactions of such mints and assay offices shall be regulated according to the above standards at least once in every year, under the inspection of the superintendent and assayer; and the accuracy of those used at the mint at Philadelphia shall be tested annually, in the presence of the assay commissioners, at the time of the annual examination and test of coins. (R. S. § 3549; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 268, § 2, 36 Stat. 1354.)

366. Destruction of obverse working dies.—The obverse working dies at each mint shall, at the end of each calendar year, be defaced and destroyed by the superintendent of coining department in the presence of the superintendent and assayer. (R. S. § 3550; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1103.)

367. Coinage for foreign countries.—It shall be lawful for coinage to be executed at the mints of the United States for any foreign country applying for the same, according to the legally prescribed standards and devices of such country, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe; and the charge for the same shall be equal to the expenses thereof, including labor, materials, and use of machinery, to be fixed by the Director of the Mint, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury: Provided, That the manufacture of such coin shall not interfere with the required coinage of the United States. (Jan. 29, 1874, c. 19, 18 Stat. 6.)

368. National and other medals struck at Philadelphia Mint.—Dies of a national character may be executed by the engraver, and national and other metals struck by the superintendent of coining department of the mint at Philadelphia, under such regulations as the superintendent, with the approval of the Director of the Mint, may prescribe. Such work shall not, however, interfere with the regular coinage operations, and no private metal dies shall be prepared at any mint, or the machinery or apparatus thereof be used for that purpose. (R. S. § 3551; Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 384; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1103.)

369. Money arising from charges and deductions covered into Treasury.—The moneys arising from all charges and deductions on and from gold and silver bullion and the manufacture of medals, and from all other sources, except as provided by this chapter, shall, from time to time, be covered into the Treasury, and no part of such deductions or medal charges, or profit on silver or minor coinage, shall be expended in salaries or wages. All expenditures of the mints and assay offices, not herein otherwise provided for, shall be paid from appropriations made by law on estimates furnished by the Secretary of the Treasury. (R. S. § 3552.)

370. Transfer of bars to depositary; redemption of coin certificates or exchange for gold coins.—The Secretary of the Treasury may, from time to time, transfer to the office of the United States depositary at New York from the bullion fund of the assay office at New York, refined gold bars bearing the United States stamp of fineness, weight and value, or bars from any melt of foreign gold coin or bullion of standard equal to or above that of the United States and may apply the same to the redemption of coin certificates or in exchange for gold coins at not less than par and not less than the market value subject to such regulations as he may prescribe. (June 22, 1874, c. 419, 18 Stat. 202; May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 654, 655.)

371. Decimal system established.—The money of account of the United States shall be expressed in dollars or units, dimes or tenths, cents or hundredths, and mills or thousandths, a dime being the tenth part of a dollar, a cent the hundredth part of a dollar, a mill the thousandth part of a dollar; and all accounts in the public offices and all proceedings in the courts shall be kept and had in conformity to this regulation. (R. S. § 3563.)

372. Value of foreign coins; how ascertained.—(a) The value of foreign coin as expressed in the money of account of the United States shall be that of the pure metal of such coin of standard value; and the values of the standard coins in circulation of the various nations of the world shall be estimated quarterly by the Director of the Mint and be proclaimed by the Secretary of the Treasury quarterly on the 1st day of January, April, July, and October in each year.

(b) For the purpose of the assessment and collection of duties upon merchandise imported into the United States, wherever it is necessary to convert foreign currency into currency of the United States, such conversion, except as provided in subdivision (c), shall be made at the values proclaimed by the Secretary of the Treasury under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, for the quarter in which the merchandise was exported.

(c) If no such value has been proclaimed, or if the value so proclaimed varies by 5 per centum or more from a value measured by the buying rate in the New York market at noon on the day of exportation, conversion shall be made at a value measured by such buying rate. For the purposes of this subdivision such buying rate shall be the buying rate for cable transfers payable in the foreign currency so to be converted; and shall be determined by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York and certified daily to the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall make it public at such times and to such extent as he deems necessary. In ascertaining such buying rate such Federal Reserve bank may in its discretion (1) take into consideration the last ascertainable transactions and quotations, whether direct or through the exchange of other currencies, and (2) if there is no market buying rate for such cable transfers, calculate such rate from actual transactions and quotations in demand or time bills of exchange. (Aug. 27, 1894, c. 349, § 25, 28 Stat. 552; May 27, 1921, c. 14, § 403[a], 42 Stat. 17; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 522 (a), 42 Stat. 974.)

373. Recoinage of foreign coins.—All foreign gold and silver coins received in payment for moneys due to the United States shall, before being issued in circulation, be coined anew. (R. S. § 3566.)

374. Spanish and Mexican coins.—The pieces commonly known as the quarter, eighth, and sixteenth of the Spanish pillar dollar, and of the Mexican dollar, shall be receivable at the Treasury of the United States, and its several offices, and at the several post offices and land offices, at the rates of valuation following: The fourth of a dollar, or piece of two reals, at 20 cents; the eighth of a dollar, or piece of one real, at 10 cents; and the sixteenth of a dollar, or half real, at 5 cents. (R. S. § 3567.)

375. Same; transmission for recoinage.—The Director of the Mint, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe such regulations as are necessary and proper, to secure the transmission of the coins mentioned in section 374 of this title to the mint for recoinage, and the return or distribution of the proceeds thereof, when deemed expedient, and may prescribe such forms of account as are appropriate and applicable to the circumstances. The expenses incident to such transmission or distribution, and of recoinage, shall be charged against the account of silver profit and loss, and the net profits, if any, shall be paid, from time to time, into the Treasury. (R. S. § 3568; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 249.)

376. Commemorative coins; laws applicable.—All laws in force relating to the gold coins and subsidiary silver coins of the United States and the coining or striking of the same, regulating and guarding the process of coinage, providing for the purchase of material and for the transportation, distribution, and redemption of the coins, for the prevention of debasement or counterfeiting, for security of the coins, or for any other purposes, whether said laws are penal or otherwise, shall, so far as applicable, apply to the silver 50-cent pieces coined under authority of law and in such numbers and under the circumstances as authorized by law in commemoration of the one hundredth anniversies of the admission of the States of Illinois, Maine, Alabama, and Missouri, into the Union; the seventy-fifth anniversary of the admission of the State of California into the Union; the three hundredth anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims; the one hundredth anniversary of the enunciation of the Monroe doctrine; the three hundredth anniversary of the settling of New Netherland, the Middle States, in 1624, by Walloons, French and Belgian Huguenots; the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the Battle of Lexington and Concord; the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of Fort Vancouver by the Hudson Bay Company, State of Washington, and the commencement of the work of carving on Stone Mountain, in the State of Georgia, a monument to the valor of the soldiers of the South, and in memory of Warren G. Harding, and shall, so far as applicable, apply to the Grant memorial gold dollar and the Grant memorial silver half dollar struck in commemoration of the centenary of the birth of Ulysses S. Grant. (June 1, 1918, c. 91, §§ 1, 2, 40 Stat. 594; May 10, 1920, c. 176, §§ 1, 2, 41 Stat. 595; May 10, 1920, c. 177, §§ 1, 2, 41 Stat. 595; May 12, 1920, c. 182, §§ 1, 2, 41 Stat. 597; Mar. 4, 1921, c. 153, §§ 1, 2, 41 Stat. 1363; Feb. 2, 1922, c. 45, 42 Stat. 362; Jan. 24, 1923, c. 38, §§ 1–3, 42 Stat. 1172, 1173; Feb. 26, 1923, c. 113, §§ 1–3, 42 Stat. 1287; Mar. 17, 1924, c. 58, §§ 1–3, 43 Stat. 23; Jan. 14, 1925, c. 79, §§ 5, 6, 43 Stat. 749; Feb. 24, 1925, c. 302, §§ 2, 3, 43 Stat. 966.)

377. Gold $2.50 pieces and silver 50-cent pieces in commemoration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the signing of Declaration of Independence.—(a) In commemoration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence there shall be coined at the mints of the United States gold $2.50 pieces to the number of not more than two hundred thousand and silver 50-cent pieces to the number of not more than one million, such coins to be of the standard troy weight, composition, diameter, device, and design as shall be fixed by the Director of the Mint, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, and such coins shall be legal tender in any payment to the amount of their face value.

(b) All laws in force relating to the gold coins and subsidiary silver coins of the United States and the coining or striking of the same, regulating and guarding the process of coinage, providing for the purchase of material, and for the transportation, distribution, and redemption of the coins, for the prevention of debasement or counterfeiting, for security of the coins, or for any other purposes, whether such laws are penal or otherwise, shall, so far as applicable, apply to the coinage herein authorized: Provided, That the United States shall not be subject to the expense of making the necessary dies and other preparation for this coinage.

(c) The coins authorized by this section shall be issued only to the authorized officers of the Sesquicentennial Exhibition Association, and in such numbers and at such times as they shall request, upon payment by such officers, for and on behalf of such association, of the par value of such coins. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 482, § 4, 43 Stat. 1254.)

378. Silver 50-cent pieces in commemoration of one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of Battle of Bennington.—In commemoration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the Battle of Bennington and the independence of Vermont there shall be coined in the mints of the United States silver 50-cent pieces to the number of forty thousand, such 50-cent pieces to be of the standard troy weight, composition, diameter, device, and design as shall be fixed by the Director of the Mint, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, which said 50-cent pieces shall be legal tender in any payment to the amount of their face value. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 302, § 1, 43 Stat. 965.)

379. Laws applicable to coins authorized by sections 377 and 378.—All laws in force relating to the gold and subsidiary silver coins of the United States and the coining or striking of the same, regulating and guarding the process of coinage, providing for the purchase of material and for the transportation, distribution, and redemption of coins, for the prevention of debasement or counterfeiting, for security of the coin, or for any other purposes, whether said laws are penal or otherwise, shall, so far as applicable, apply to the coinage authorized by sections 377 and 378 of this title: Provided, That the United States shall not be subject to the expense of making the necessary dies and other preparations for this coinage. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 302, § 4, 43 Stat. 966; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 482, § 4, 43 Stat. 1254.)

CURRENCY

401. United States notes.—United States notes shall be of such denominations, not less than $1, as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, shall not bear interest, shall be payable to bearer, and shall be in such form as the Secretary may deem best. (R. S. § 3571.)

402. Limitation of amount of United States notes in circulation.—The amount of United States notes outstanding and to be used as a part of the circulating medium, shall not exceed the sum of $382,000,000, which said sum shall appear in each monthly statement of the public debt, and no part thereof shall be held or used as a reserve. (June 20, 1874, c. 343, § 6, 18 Stat. 124.)

403. Issue of United States notes of small denominations and retirement of notes of higher denominations.—Whenever and so long as the outstanding silver certificates of the denominations of $1, $2, and $5, issued under the provisions of section 406 of this title, shall be, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury, insufficient to meet the public demand therefor, he may issue United States notes of the denominations of $1, $2, and $5, and upon the issue of United States notes of such denominations an equal amount of United States notes of higher denominations shall be retired and canceled: Provided, however, That the aggregate amount of United States notes at any time outstanding shall remain as fixed by law: And provided further, That nothing in this section, or section 429 of this title or sections 90 and 178 of Title 12 shall be construed as affecting the right of any national bank to issue one-third in amount of its circulating notes of the denomination of $5, as provided by law. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2913, § 2, 34 Stat. 1289.)

404. Further cancellation or retirement of legal-tender notes prohibited.—It shall not be lawful for the Secretary of the Treasury or other officer under him to cancel or retire any more of the United States legal-tender notes. And when any of said notes may be redeemed or be received into the Treasury under any law from any source whatever and shall belong to the United States, they shall not be retired canceled or destroyed, but they shall be reissued and paid out again and kept in circulation: Provided, That nothing herein shall prohibit the cancellation and destruction of mutilated notes and the issue of other notes of like denomination in their stead, as provided by law. (May 31, 1878, c. 146, 20 Stat. 87.)

405. Silver certificates; issuance for silver dollars.—Any holder of silver dollars coined under the Act of February 28, 1878, chapter 20 (Twentieth Statutes, page 26), may deposit the same with the Treasurer or any depositary of the United States designated for that purpose, in sums not less than $10, and receive therefor certificates of the denominations hereinafter in this chapter prescribed. The coin deposited for or representing certificates heretofore or hereafter issued shall be retained in the Treasury for the payment of the same on demand. Said certificates heretofore or hereafter issued shall be receivable for customs, taxes, and all public dues, and, when so received, may be reissued. (Feb. 28, 1878, c. 20, § 3, 20 Stat. 26; Mar. 3, 1887, c. 362, 24 Stat. 515.)

406. Denominations of silver certificates.—Silver certificates shall be issued only of denominations of $10 and under, except that not exceeding in the aggregate 10 per centum of the total volume of said certificates, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, may be issued in denominations of $20, $50, and $100; and silver certificates of higher denomination than $10, except as herein provided, shall, whenever received at the Treasury or redeemed, be retired and canceled, and certificates of denominations of $10 or less shall be substituted therefor, and after such substitution, in whole or in part, a like volume of United States notes of less denomination than $10 shall from time to time be retired and canceled, and notes of denominations of $10 and upward shall be reissued in substitution therefor, with like qualities and restrictions as those retired and canceled. (Mar. 14, 1900, c. 41, § 7, 31 Stat. 47.)

407. Redemption of fractional currency.—Fractional currency presented for redemption shall be redeemed in any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and, when so redeemed, shall be destroyed. (June 21, 1879, c. 34, § 3, 21 Stat. 30; July 22, 1876, No. 17, § 1, 19 Stat. 215.)

408. Gold reserve; redemption of United States notes and Treasury notes; reissue of redeemed notes.—United States notes, and Treasury notes issued under the Act of July 14, 1890 (26 Stat. 289), when presented to the Treasury for redemption, shall be redeemed in gold coin of the standard fixed in section 314 of this title, and in order to secure the prompt and certain redemption of such notes as herein provided it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to set apart in the Treasury a reserve fund of $150,000,000 in gold coin and bullion, which fund shall be used for such redemption purposes only, and whenever and as often as any of said notes shall be redeemed from said fund it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to use said notes so redeemed to restore and maintain such reserve fund in the manner following, to wit: First, by exchanging the notes so redeemed for any gold coin in the general fund of the Treasury; second, by accepting deposits of gold coin at the Treasury or at any designated depositary in exchange for the United States notes so redeemed; third, by procuring gold coin by the use of said notes, in accordance with the provisions of section 734 of this title. If the Secretary of the Treasury is unable to restore and maintain the gold coin in the reserve fund by the foregoing methods, and the amount of such gold coin and bullion in said fund shall at any time fall below $100,000,000, then it shall be his duty to restore the same to the maximum sum of $150,000,000 by borrowing money on the credit of the United States, and for the debt thus incurred to issue and sell coupon or registered bonds of the United States, in such form as he may prescribe, in denominations of $50 or any multiple thereof, bearing interest at the rate of not exceeding 3 per centum per annum, payable quarterly, such bonds to be payable at the pleasure of the United States after one year from the date of their issue, and to be payable, principal and interest, in gold coin of the present standard value, and to be exempt from the payment of all taxes or duties of the United States, as well as from taxation in any form by or under State, municipal, or local authority; and the gold coin received from the sale of said bonds shall first be covered into the general fund of the Treasury and then exchanged, in the manner hereinbefore provided, for an equal amount of the notes redeemed and held for exchange, and the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, use said notes in exchange for gold, or to purchase or redeem any bonds of the United States, or for any other lawful purpose the public interests may require, except that they shall not be used to meet deficiencies in the current revenues. United States notes when redeemed in accordance with the provisions of this section shall be reissued, but shall be held in the reserve fund until exchanged for gold, as herein provided; and the gold coin and bullion in the reserve fund, together with the redeemed notes held for use as provided in this section, shall at no time, exclusive of the amounts paid into said reserve fund under sections 290 and 1072 of Title 12, and under section 9 of the Act of May 30, 1908, chapter 229 (Thirty-fifth Statutes, page 550), exceed the maximum sum of $150,000,000. (Mar. 14, 1900, c. 41, § 2, 31 Stat. 45; Dec. 23, 1913, c. 6, § 7, 38 Stat. 258; Mar. 4, 1923, c. 252, Title I, § 2, 42 Stat. 1457.)

409. Additional means for maintaining parity and strengthening gold reserve.—The Secretary of the Treasury may, for the purpose of maintaining the parity of all forms of money issued or coined by the United States in accordance with the provisions of section 314 of this title, and to strengthen the gold reserve, borrow gold on the security of United States bonds authorized by section 408 of this title, or for one-year gold notes bearing interest at a rate of not to exceed 3 per centum per annum, or sell the same if necessary to obtain gold. When the funds of the Treasury on hand justify, he may purchase and retire such outstanding bonds and notes. (Dec. 23, 1913, c. 6, § 26, 38 Stat. 274.)

Cross reference: Accounts relating to reserve fund; see section 146 of this title.

410. Treasury notes as legal tender; national bank reserve fund.—Treasury notes shall be a legal tender in payment of all debts, public and private, except where otherwise expressly stipulated in the contract, and shall be receivable for customs, taxes, and all public dues. Such notes, when held by any national banking association, may be counted as a part of its lawful reserve. (July 14, 1890, c. 708, § 2, 26 Stat. 289; Mar. 14, 1900, c. 41, § 5, 31 Stat. 47.)

411. Cancellation of Treasury notes on coinage of silver dollars and issue of silver certificates.—Treasury notes whenever received into the Treasury, either by exchange in accordance with the provisions of section 408 of this title or in the ordinary course of business, shall be retired and canceled with standard silver dollars coined under the provisions of the Acts of July 14, 1890 (Twenty-sixth Statutes, page 289), and June 13, 1898 (Thirtieth Statutes, page 467), from bullion purchased under the Act of July 14, 1890 (Twenty-sixth Statutes, page 289), and upon the cancellation of Treasury notes silver certificates shall be issued against the silver dollars so coined. (Mar. 14, 1900, c. 41, § 5, 31 Stat. 47.)

412. Redemption of Treasury notes with silver dollars.—Silver dollars coined in accordance with the provisions of the Act of June 13, 1898 (chapter 448, section 34, Thirtieth Statutes, page 467), providing for the coinage of silver dollars and the redemption of Treasury notes, shall be used for the redemption of Treasury notes issued under the Act of July 14, 1890 (chapter 708, Twenty-sixth Statutes, page 289), directing the purchase of silver bullion and the issue of Treasury notes thereon. (July 14, 1890, c. 708, § 3, 26 Stat. 289; June 13, 1898, c. 448, § 34, 30 Stat. 467.)

413. Portraits of living persons on bonds or notes.—No portrait shall be placed upon any of the bonds, securities, notes, fractional or postal currency of the United States, while the original of such portrait is living. (R. S. § 3576.)

414. Names inscribed under portraits.—The name of each person whose portrait shall be placed upon any of the plates for bonds, securities, notes, and silver certificates of the United States shall be inscribed below such portrait. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 411, § 1, 25 Stat. 945.)

415. Engraving and printing notes, bonds, and other securities.—The work of engraving and printing notes, bonds, and other securities shall be performed at the Treasury Department, provided it can be done there as cheaply, as perfectly, and as safely. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 105, 19 Stat. 353.)

416. Machinery, materials, and employees and officers.—The Secretary of the Treasury may purchase and provide all the machinery and materials, and employ such persons and appoint such officers as are necessary for the purpose of section 415 of this title. (R. S. § 3577.)

417. Expenses of issuing notes.—The necessary expenses of engraving, printing, preparing, and issuing the United States notes and Treasury notes shall be paid out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated; but no extra compensation for preparing, signing, or issuing such notes shall be allowed to any officer whose salary is fixed by law. (R. S. § 3578; July 22, 1876, No. 17, § 1, 19 Stat. 215.)

418. Distinctive paper for United States securities; contracts for.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized, in his discretion, to enter into a contract for the manufacture of distinctive paper for United States securities for a period not to exceed four years. (July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 277.)

419. Same; additional employees for mills.—During such period as it may be necessary to operate more than one mill for the manufacture of distinctive paper, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to employ temporarily such employees as may be necessary at rates of pay corresponding to those of the regular employees, the compensation of such temporary employees to be a charge against the appropriation available for the distinctive paper then manufactured. (Apr. 4, 1924, c. 84, Title I, 43 Stat. 69.)

420. Replacing mutilated notes.—When any United States notes returned to the Treasury are so mutilated or otherwise injured as to be unfit for use, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to replace the same with others of the same character and amounts. (R. S. § 3580.)

421. Destruction of notes.—Mutilated United States notes, when replaced according to law, and all other notes which by law are required to be taken up, and not reissued, when taken up, shall be destroyed in such manner and under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. (R. S. § 3581.)

422. Same.—All national bank notes, United States notes, and other obligations of the United States authorized to be destroyed may be destroyed by maceration instead of burning to ashes. The pulp from such macerated issue shall be disposed of only under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury. (June 23, 1874, c. 455, § 1, 18 Stat. 206.)

423. Laundering paper money.—The Secretary of the Treasury may employ such number of expert money assorters, feeders, and other employees, and expend such sums for contingent and miscellaneous items and for the purchase or construction and installation of paper-money laundering machines as may be necessary, in his judgment, to install, maintain, and operate laundering machines in the Treasury at Washington. (Aug. 26, 1912, c. 408, § 1, 37 Stat. 595.)

424. Counterfeit notes to be marked.—All United States officers charged with the receipt or disbursement of public moneys, and all officers of national banks, shall stamp or write in plain letters the word "counterfeit," "altered," or "worthless," upon all fraudulent notes issued in the form of, and intended to circulate as money, which shall be presented at their places of business; and if such officers shall wrongfully stamp any genuine note of the United States, or of the national banks, they shall, upon presentation, redeem such notes at the face value thereof. (June 30, 1876, c. 156, § 5, 19 Stat. 64.)

425. State taxation.—Circulating notes of national banking associations and United States legal tender notes and other notes and certificates of the United States payable on demand and circulating or intended to circulate as currency and gold, silver, or other coin shall be subject to taxation as money on hand or on deposit under the laws of any State or Territory: Provided, That any such taxation shall be exercised in the same manner and at the same rate that any such State or Territory shall tax money or currency circulating as money within its jurisdiction. (Aug. 13, 1894, c. 281, § 1, 28 Stat. 278.)

426. Same; national banks not affected.—The provisions of section 425 of this title shall not be deemed or held to change existing laws in respect of the taxation of national banking associations. (Aug. 13, 1894, c. 281, § 2, 28 Stat. 278.)

427. Rules and regulations.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall make and issue from time to time such instructions and regulations to the several collectors, receivers, depositaries, officers, and others who may receive Treasury notes, United States notes, or other securities of the United States, or who may be in any way engaged or employed in the preparation and issue of the same, as he shall deem best calculated to promote the public convenience and security, and to protect the United States, as well as individuals, from fraud and loss. (R. S. § 251.)

428. Gold certificates in exchange for gold bullion.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to receive deposits of gold bullion with the Treasurer or any agencies designated under section 476 of this title, in sums not less than $20, and to issue certificates therefor, in denominations of not less than $20 each, corresponding with the denominations of the United States notes. The bullion deposited for or representing the certificates of deposit shall be retained in the Treasury for the payment of the same on demand. And certificates representing coin in the Treasury may be issued in payment of interest on the public debt, which certificates, together with those issued for coin and bullion deposited, shall not at any time exceed 20 per centum beyond the amount of coin and bullion in the Treasury. (R. S. § 254.)

429. Deposits of gold coin; gold certificates.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to receive deposits of gold coin with the Treasurer, or any of the agencies designated under section 476 of this title, in sums of not less than $20, and to issue gold certificates therefor in denominations of not less than $10, and the coin so deposited shall be retained in the Treasury and held for the payment of such certificates on demand, and used for no other purpose. Such certificates when received for customs, taxes, and all public dues may be reissued, and when held by any national banking association may be counted as a part of its lawful reserve: Provided, That whenever and so long as the gold coin and bullion held in the reserve fund in the Treasury for the redemption of United States notes and Treasury notes shall fall and remain below $100,000,000 the authority to issue certificates as herein provided shall be suspended: And provided further, That whenever and so long as the aggregate amount of United States notes and silver certificates in the general fund of the Treasury shall exceed $60,000,000 the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, suspend the issue of the certificates herein provided for: And provided further, That of the amount of such outstanding certificates one-fourth at least shall be in denominations of $50 or less: And provided further, That the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, issue such certificates in denominations of $10,000, payable to order: And provided further, That the Secretary of the Treasurer may, in his discretion, receive, with the agencies designated under section 476 of this title, in New York and in San Francisco, deposits of foreign gold coin at their bullion value in amounts of not less than $1,000 in value and issue gold certificates therefor of the description herein authorized: And provided further, That the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, receive, with the Treasurer or any agencies designated under section 476 of this title, deposits of gold bullion bearing the stamp of the coinage mints of the United States, or the assay office in New York, certifying their weight, fineness, and value, in amounts of not less than $1,000 in value, and issue gold certificates therefor of the description herein authorized. But the amount of gold bullion and foreign coin so held shall not at any time exceed two-thirds of the total amount of gold certificates at such time outstanding. (R. S. § 254; July 12, 1882, c. 290, § 12, 22 Stat. 165; Mar. 14, 1900, c. 41, § 6, 31 Stat. 47; May 26, 1906, c. 2558, 34 Stat. 202; Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2913, § 1, 34 Stat. 1289; Mar. 2, 1911, c. 190, 36 Stat. 964; June 12, 1916, c. 142, 39 Stat. 225; May 20, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 654.)

430. Same; receiving by superintendents of mints or assayers of assay offices.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to constitute any superintendent of mint or assayer of any assay office a depositary to receive gold coin and bullion on deposit for the purposes provided for in sections 428 and 429 of this title. (June 8, 1878, c. 170, 20 Stat. 102; May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 654.)

472. The Treasury of the United States.—The rooms provided in the Treasury building at the seat of Government for the use of the Treasurer of the United States, his assistants, and clerks, and occupied by them, and the fireproof vaults and safes erected therein for the keeping of the public moneys in the possession and under the immediate control of the Treasurer, and such other apartments as are provided as places of deposit of the public money, shall be the Treasury of the United States. (R. S. § 3591.)

473. Same; foreign countries, the Territories, and the insular possessions.—The Secretary of the Treasury may designate such depositaries of public moneys in foreign countries and in the Territories and insular possessions of the United States as may be necessary for the transaction of the Government's business, under such terms and conditions as to security and otherwise as he may from time to time prescribe: Provided, That in designating such depositaries American financial institutions shall be given preference wherever, in the judgment of the Secretary of the Treasury, such institution is safe and able to render the service required. (June 19, 1922, c. 228, 42 Stat. 662.)

474. Public moneys subject to draft of Treasurer.—All public moneys paid into any depository shall be subject to the draft of the Treasurer of the United States, drawn agreeably to appropriations made by law. (R. S. § 3593.)

475. Same; bonds.—All officers in any mint, or assay office, authorized by law to act as depositaries, shall, respectively, give bonds to the United States for the faithful discharge of the duties of their respective offices as assistant treasurers, according to law, and for such amounts as shall be directed by the Secretary of the Treasury, with sureties to the satisfaction of the Solicitor of the Treasury; and shall, from time to time, renew, strengthen, and increase their official bonds as the Secretary of the Treasury may direct. (R. S. § 3600.)

476. Transfer of duties of assistant treasurers to other officers, etc.—The Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, transfer any or all of the duties and functions performed or authorized to be performed prior to May 29, 1920, by assistant treasurers at Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, New Orleans, Saint Louis, San Francisco, Cincinnati, and Chicago, or their offices, to the Treasurer of the United States or the mints or assay offices of the United States, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, or may utilize any of the Federal reserve banks acting as depositaries or fiscal agents of the United States, for the purpose of performing any or all of such duties and functions, notwithstanding the limitations of sections 391 and 392 of Title 12, or any other provisions of law. (May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 655.)

477. Deposit of money or bullion with Federal reserve banks.—If any moneys or bullion, constituting part of the trust funds or other special funds prior to May 29, 1920, required by law to be kept in Treasury offices, shall be deposited with any Federal reserve bank, then such moneys or bullion shall by such bank be kept separate and distinct from the assets, funds, and securities of the Federal reserve bank and be held in the joint custody of the Federal reserve agent and the Federal reserve bank. (May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 655.)

478. Member banks as depositaries.—Nothing in sections 476 to 479 of this title shall be construed to deny the right of the Secretary of the Treasury to use member banks as depositaries as authorized by law. (May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 655.)

479. Quarters occupied by subtreasuries; assignment to Federal reserve banks.—The Secretary of the Treasury may assign any or all the rooms, vaults, equipment, and safes or space in the buildings used prior to May 29, 1920, by the subtreasuries to any Federal reserve bank acting as fiscal agent of the United States. (May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 655.)

480. Deputies in case of sickness or absence.—In case of the sickness or unavoidable absence of any depositary from his office, he may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, authorize the chief clerk, or some other clerk employed therein, to act in his place, and to discharge all the duties required by law of such assistant treasurer or depositary. The official bond given by the principal of the office shall be held to cover and apply to the acts of the person appointed to act in his place in such cases. Such acting officer shall moreover, for the time being, be subject to all the liabilities and penalties prescribed by law for the official misconduct, in like cases, of the assistant treasurer or depositary, respectively, for whom he acts. (R. S. § 3613; May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 655.)

481. Bond of special agents.—Whenever it becomes necessary for the head of any department or office to employ special agents, other than officers of the Army or Navy, who may be charged with the disbursement of public moneys, such agents shall, before entering upon duty, give bond in such form and with such security as the head of the department or office employing them may approve. (R. S. § 3614.)

482. Collectors of public moneys to pay over.—All collectors and receivers of public money of every description, within the District of Columbia, shall, as often as they may be directed by the Secretary of the Treasury or the Postmaster General so to do, pay over to the Treasurer of the United States, at the Treasury, all public moneys collected by them or in their hands. It shall be the duty of the Secretary and Postmaster General, respectively, to direct such payments by collectors and receivers, at least as often as once in each week, and as much oftener as they may think proper. (R. S. § 3615; May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 654.)

483. Marshals and district attorneys paying into Treasury.—All marshals, district attorneys, and other persons than those mentioned in section 482 of this title, having public money to pay to the United States, may pay the same to any depositary constituted by or in pursuance of law, which may be designated by the Secretary of the Treasury. (R. S. § 3616.)

484. Deposit without deduction.—The gross amount of all moneys received from whatever source for the use of the United States, except as otherwise provided, shall be paid by the officer or agent receiving the same into the Treasury, at as early a day as practicable, without any abatement or deduction on account of salary, fees, costs, charges, expenses, or claim of any description whatever. But nothing herein shall affect any provision relating to the revenues of the Post Office Department. (R. S. § 3617.)

485. Receipts from private messages sent over Government lines.—All moneys received for the transmission of private dispatches over any and all telegraph lines owned or operated by the United States, shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States, as required by section 484 of this title. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 143, 22 Stat. 616.)

486. Private messages over telephone lines controlled by Treasury Department.—Private messages may, with the consent and authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, be transmitted over any and all telephone lines controlled by the Treasury Department, whenever it does not interfere with Government business, at such rates and on such terms and conditions as may from time to time be fixed by the Secretary of the Treasury, the proceeds thereof to be accounted for and paid into the Treasury of the United States. (Apr. 28, 1904, c. 1762, § 1, 33 Stat. 460.)

487. Proceeds of sales of material.—All proceeds of sales of old material, condemned stores, supplies, or other public property of any kind, except the proceeds of the sale or leasing of marine hospitals, or of the sales of revenue cutters, or of the sales of commissary stores to the officers and enlisted men of the Army, or of materials, stores, or supplies sold to officers and soldiers of the Army or of the sale of condemned Navy clothing, or of sales of materials, stores, or supplies to any exploring or surveying expedition authorized by law, or of sales for which a different provision for the deposition of the proceeds is made, shall be deposited and covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts, on account of "proceeds of Government property," and shall not be withdrawn or applied, except in consequence of a subsequent appropriation made by law. (R. S. § 3618; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 249.)

488. Proceeds of sale of surplus cuttings.—The proceeds derived from the sale of surplus cuttings of material for clothing manufactured by the Quartermaster Corps of the Army shall be deposited to the credit of that appropriation out of which the material was purchased. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 635.)

489. Payment of expenses of sales from proceeds.—From the proceeds of sales of old material, condemned stores, supplies, or other public property of any kind, before being deposited into the Treasury, either as miscellaneous receipts on account of "proceeds of Government property" or to the credit of the appropriations to which such proceeds are by law authorized to be made, there may be paid the expenses of such sales, as approved by the General Accounting Office, so as to require only the net proceeds of such sales to be deposited into the Treasury, either as miscellaneous receipts or to the credit of such appropriations, as the case may be. (June 8, 1896, c. 373, § 1, 29 Stat. 268; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

490. Penalty for withholding money.—Every officer or agent who neglects or refuses to comply with the provisions of section 484 of this title shall be subject to be removed from office, and to forfeit to the United States any share or part of the moneys withheld, to which he might otherwise be entitled. (R. S. § 3619.)

491. Fees, fines, etc., payable into Treasury to credit of United States and District of Columbia.—All fees, fines, and other miscellaneous items of revenue required by law prior to July 1, 1921, to be paid into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the United States and the District of Columbia in equal parts shall be paid for each fiscal year into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the United States and the District of Columbia in the same proportions as appropriations for the expenses of the government of the District of Columbia for such fiscal year are paid from the Treasury of the United States and the revenues of the District of Columbia; and all collections on account of special assessments for public improvements for which assessments are levied according to the law shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the United States and the District of Columbia in the same proportions as the appropriations used in paying for such assessment work are charged, respectively, against the revenues of the District of Columbia and the Treasury of the United States. (Feb. 22, 1921, c. 70, § 7, 41 Stat. 1144.)

492. Duty of disbursing officers.—Except as otherwise provided by law it shall be the duty of every disbursing officer having any public money intrusted to him for disbursement, to deposit the same with the Treasurer or with one of the depositaries of the United States mentioned in section 476 of this title, and to draw for the same only as it may be required for payments to be made by him in pursuance of law and draw for the same only in favor of the persons to whom payment is made; and all transfers from the Treasurer of the United States to a disbursing officer shall be by draft or warrant on the Treasury. In places, however, where there is no treasurer or depositary, the Secretary of the Treasury may, when he deems it essential to the public interest, specially authorize in writing the deposit of such public money in any other public depositary, or, in writing, authorize the same to be kept in any other manner, and under such rules and regulations as he may deem most safe and effectual to facilitate the payments to public creditors. (R. S. § 3620; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 249; May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 654, 655.)

493. Officers permitted to keep funds for subsistence of the Army for payments of small amounts.—Officers intrusted with the disbursement of funds for the subsistence of the Army may keep, at their own risk, in their personal possession for disbursement, such restricted amounts of subsistence funds for facilitating payments of small amounts to public creditors as shall from time to time be authorized by the Secretary of War. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1166.)

494. Acting disbursing officer in case of sickness or unavoidable absence of disbursing clerk or disbursing agent.—In case of the sickness or unavoidable absence of any disbursing clerk or disbursing agent of any executive department, independent bureau, or office, in Washington, District of Columbia, he may, with the approval of the head of the department, independent bureau, or office, in which said disbursing clerk or agent is employed, authorize the clerk of highest grade employed therein to act in his place, and to discharge all the duties by law or regulations of such disbursing clerk or agent. The official bond given by the principal of the office shall be held to cover and apply to the acts of the person appointed to act in his place in such cases. Such acting officer shall, moreover, for the time being, be subject to all the liabilities and penalties prescribed by law for the official misconduct in like cases, of the disbursing clerk or disbursing agent, respectively, for whom he acts, and such acting officer shall be required by the head of the department, independent bureau, or office, to give bond to and in such sum as the disbursing clerk or disbursing agent may require. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 299, § 8, 35 Stat. 1027.)

495. Deposit of moneys with public depositary; receipts; postal revenues.—Every person who shall have moneys of the United States in his hands or possession, and disbursing officers having moneys in their possession not required for current expenditure, shall pay the same to the Treasurer, or some public depositary of the United States, without delay, and in all cases within thirty days of their receipt. And the Treasurer or the public depositary shall issue duplicate receipts for the moneys so paid, transmitting forthwith the original to the Secretary of the Treasury, and delivering the duplicate to the depositor: Provided, That postal revenues and debts due to the Post Office Department shall be paid into the Treasury in the manner required by law. (R. S. § 3621; May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 5, 29 Stat. 179; May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 654, 655.)

496. Accounts.—Except as otherwise provided, every officer or agent of the United States who receives public money which he is not authorized to retain as salary, pay, or emolument, shall render his accounts monthly. Such accounts, with the vouchers necessary to the correct and prompt settlement thereof, shall be sent by mail, or otherwise, to the bureau to which they pertain, within ten days after the expiration of each successive month, and, after examination there, shall be passed to the General Accounting Office for settlement. Disbursing officers of the Navy shall, however, render their accounts and vouchers direct to the General Accounting Office. In case of the nonreceipt at the General Accounting Office or proper bureau of any accounts within a reasonable and proper time thereafter, the officer whose accounts are in default shall be required to furnish satisfactory evidence of having complied with the provisions of this section. Nothing herein contained shall, however, be construed to restrain the heads of any of the departments from requiring such other returns or reports from the officer or agent, subject to the control of such heads of departments, as the public interest may require. (R. S. § 3622; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 249; July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 12, 28 Stat. 209; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

497. Same; disbursing officers.—All disbursing officers of the United States shall render their accounts quarterly; and the Secretary of the Senate shall render his accounts as otherwise provided; but the Secretary of the Treasury may direct any or all such accounts to be rendered more frequently when in his judgment the public interests may require. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 837, § 4, 26 Stat. 413.)

498. Same; distinct accounts required.—All officers, agents, or other persons, receiving public moneys, shall render distinct accounts of the application thereof, according to the appropriation under which the same may have been advanced to them. (R. S. § 3623.)

499. Same; disbursements under Army appropriation Acts.—All officers, agents, or other persons receiving public moneys appropriated by any Army appropriation Act shall account for the disbursement thereof according to the several and distinct items of appropriation expressed in such Act. (July 5, 1884, c. 217, 23 Stat. 113.)

500. Payment of pressing obligations by certain disbursing officers.—Whenever pressing obligations are required to be paid by a disbursing officer of the Quartermaster Corps, the Ordnance Department, or the Engineer Department and there is an insufficient balance to his official credit under the proper appropriation or appropriations for the purpose, he is authorized to make payment from the total available balance to his official credit, provided sufficient funds under the proper appropriation or appropriations have been apportioned for the expenditure by the Quartermaster General, the Chief of Ordnance, or of the Chief of Engineers, as the case may be. When such disbursements are made the accounts of the disbursing officer shall show the charging of the proper appropriations, the balances under which will be adjusted by the disbursing officer on receipt of funds or by the General Accounting Office. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 252, 35 Stat. 747, 750; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1056; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 391, § 3, 37 Stat. 591; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

See also section 536 of this title.

501. Payment by disbursing officers; settlement of transactions of Engineer Department.—In the settlement of transactions between appropriations under the Engineer Department, or between the Engineer Department and another office or bureau of the War Department, or of any other executive department of the Government, payment therefor shall be made by the proper disbursing officer of the Corps of Engineers or of the office, bureau, or department concerned. (Apr. 27, 1914, c. 72, 38 Stat. 369.)

502. Same; settlement of transactions of Signal Corps.—In the settlement of transactions between appropriations under the Signal Corps, or between the Signal Corps and another office or bureau of the War Department, or of any other executive department of the Government, payment therefor shall be made by the proper disbursing officer of the Signal Corps, or of the office, bureau, or department concerned. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 622.)

503. Same; Military Academy.—In settling transactions between appropriations for the support of the United States Military Academy and other bureaus of the War Department, or between the United States Military Academy and any other executive department of the Government, payment therefor shall be made by the disbursing officer of the United States Military Academy or of the office, bureau, or department concerned. (Aug. 11, 1916, c. 314, 39 Stat. 504.)

504. Same; Medical Department.—In the settlement of accounts between the appropriations of the Medical Department and those of any other branch of the Army service, or any bureau or office of the War Department, or any other executive department or establishment of the Government, payment thereof may be made by the proper disbursing officer of the Medical Department or of the branch of the Army service, office, bureau, department, or establishment concerned. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 143, § 1, 38 Stat. 1080.)

505. Suits to recover money from officers.—Whenever any person accountable for public money, neglects or refuses to pay into the Treasury the sum or balance reported to be due to the United States, upon the adjustment of his account, the General Accounting Office shall institute suit for the recovery of the same, adding to the sum stated to be due on such account, the commissions of the delinquent, which shall be forfeited in every instance where suit is commenced and judgment obtained thereon, and an interest of 6 per centum per annum, from the time of receiving the money until it shall be repaid into the Treasury. (R. S. § 3624; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

506. Distress warrant.—Whenever any collector of the revenue, receiver of public money, or other officer who has received the public money before it is paid into the Treasury of the United States, fails to render his account, or pay over the same in the manner or within the time required by law, it shall be the duty of the General Accounting Office to cause to be stated the account of such officer, exhibiting truly the amount due to the United States, and to certify the same to the Solicitor of the Treasury, who shall issue a warrant of distress against the delinquent officer and his sureties, directed to the marshal of the district in which such officer and his sureties reside. Where the officer and his sureties reside in different districts, or where they, or either of them, reside in a district other than that in which the estate of either may be, which it is intended to take and sell, then such warrant shall be directed to the marshals of such districts, respectively. (R. S. § 3625; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 249; July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 4, 28 Stat. 206; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

507. Same; contents.—The warrant of distress shall specify the amount with which such delinquent is chargeable, and the sums, if any, which have been paid. (R. S. § 3626.)

508. Same; execution against officer.—The marshal authorized to execute any warrant of distress shall, by himself or by his deputy, proceed to levy and collect the sum remaining due, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of such delinquent officer; having given ten days' previous notice of such intended sale, by affixing an advertisement of the articles to be sold at two or more public places in the town and county where the goods or chattels were taken, or in the town or county where the owner of such goods or chattels may reside. If the goods and chattels be not sufficient to satisfy the warrant, the same may be levied upon the person of such officer, who may be committed to prison, there to remain until discharged by due course of law. (R. S. § 3627.)

509. Same; execution against surety.—If the delinquent officer absconds, or if goods and chattels belonging to him can not be found sufficient to satisfy the warrant, the marshal or his deputy shall proceed, notwithstanding the commitment of the delinquent officer, to levy and collect the sum which remains due by such delinquent, by the distress and sale of the goods and chattels of his sureties; having given ten days' previous notice of such intended sale, by affixing an advertisement of the articles to be sold at two or more public places in the town or county where the goods or chattels were taken, or in the town or county where the owner resides. (R. S. § 3628.)

510. Levy to be lien.—The amount due by any delinquent officer is declared to be a lien upon the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of such officer and his sureties, from the date of a levy in pursuance of the warrant of distress issued against him or them, and a record thereof made in the office of the clerk of the district court of the proper district, until the same is discharged according to law. (R. S. § 3629.)

511. Sale of lands regulated.—For want of goods and chattels of a delinquent officer, or his sureties, sufficient to satisfy any warrant of distress issued pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of such officer and his sureties, or so much thereof as may be necessary for that purpose, after being advertised for at least three weeks in not less than three public places in the county or district where such real estate is situate, before the time of sale, shall be sold by the marshal of such district or his deputy. (R. S. § 3630.)

512. Conveyance of lands.—For all lands, tenements, or hereditaments sold in pursuance of section 511 of this title, the conveyance of the marshal or his deputy, executed in due form of law, shall give a valid title against all persons claiming under such delinquent officer or his sureties. (R. S. § 3631.)

513. Disposal of surplus.—All moneys which may remain of the proceeds of sales, after satisfying the warrant of distress, and paying the reasonable costs and charges of the sale, shall be returned to such delinquent officer or surety, as the case may be. (R. S. § 3632.)

514. Failure of disbursing officer to account.—Whenever any officer employed in the civil, military, or naval service of the Government, to disburse the public money appropriated for those branches of the public service, respectively, fails to render his accounts, or to pay over, in the manner and in the times required by law, or by the regulations of the department to which he is accountable, any sum of money remaining in his hands, it shall be the duty of the General Accounting Office, to cause to be stated and certified the account of such delinquent officer to the Solicitor of the Treasury, who is hereby authorized and required immediately to proceed against such delinquent officer, in the manner directed in sections 508 to 513 of this title. (R. S. § 3633; July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 4, 28 Stat. 206; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

516. Extent of application of provision for distress warrants.—All the provisions relating to the issuing of a warrant of distress against a delinquent officer shall extend to every officer of the Government charged with the disbursement of the public money, and to their sureties, in the same manner and to the same extent as if they were herein described and enumerated. (R. S. § 3634.)

517. Postponement of proceedings for nonaccounting.—With the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, the institution of proceedings by a warrant of distress may be postponed, for a reasonable time, in cases where, in his opinion, the public interest will sustain no injury by such postponement. (R. S. § 3635.)

518. Injunction to stay distress warrant.—Any person who considers himself aggrieved by any warrant of distress issued under the foregoing provisions may prefer a bill of complaint to any district judge of the United States, setting forth therein the nature and extent of the injury of which he complains; and thereupon the judge may grant an injunction to stay proceedings on such warrant altogether, or for so much thereof as the nature of the case requires. But no injunction shall issue till the party applying for it gives bond, with sufficient security, in a sum to be prescribed by the judge, for the performance of such judgment as may be awarded against him; nor shall the issuing of such injunction in any manner impair the lien produced by the issuing of the warrant. And the same proceedings shall be had on such injunction as in other cases, except that no answer shall be necessary on the part of the United States; and if, upon dissolving the injunction, it appears to the satisfaction of the judge that the application for the injunction was merely for delay, the judge may add to the lawful interest assessed on all sums found due against the complainant such damages as, with such lawful interest, shall not exceed the rate of 10 per centum a year. Such injunction may be granted or dissolved by the district judge either in or out of court. (R. S. § 3636.)

519. Proceedings on distress.—When the district judge refuses to grant an injunction to stay proceedings on a distress warrant, as aforesaid, or dissolves such injunction after it is granted, any person who considers himself aggrieved by the decision in the premises may lay before the circuit justice, or circuit judge of the circuit within which such district lies, a copy of the proceeding had before the district judge; and thereupon the circuit justice or circuit judge may grant an injunction, or permit an appeal, as the case may be, if, in his opinion, the equity of the case requires it. (R. S. § 3637; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 289, 36 Stat. 1167.)

520. Rights of United States reserved.—Nothing contained in the provisions of this chapter relating to distress warrants shall be construed to take away or impair any right or remedy which the United States might have, by law, for the recovery of taxes, debts, or demands. (R. S. § 3638.)

521. Duties of officers as custodians of public moneys.—The Treasurer of the United States, all depositaries designated in accordance with section 476 of this title, and those performing the duties of assistant treasurer, all collectors of the customs, all surveyors of the customs, acting also as collectors, all receivers of public moneys at the several land offices, all postmasters, and all public officers of whatsoever character, are required to keep safely, without loaning, using, depositing in banks, or exchanging for other funds than as specially allowed by law, all the public money collected by them, or otherwise at any time placed in their possession and custody, till the same is ordered, by the proper department or officer of the Government, to be transferred or paid out; and when such orders for transfer or payment are received, faithfully and promptly to make the same as directed, and to do and perform all other duties as fiscal agents of the Government which may be imposed by any law, or by any regulation of the Treasury Department made in conformity to law. The President is authorized, if in his opinion the interest of the United States requires the same, to regulate and increase the sums for which bonds are, or may be, required by law, of all district attorneys, collectors of customs, comptrollers of customs, and surveyors of customs, Navy agents, Quartermaster General, registers of public lands, paymasters in the Army, and by all other officers employed in the disbursement of the public moneys, under the direction of the War or Navy Departments. (R. S. § 3639; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 391; § 3, 37 Stat. 591; Apr. 27, 1914, c. 72, 38 Stat. 356; May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 655; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 523, 42 Stat. 974.)

522. Transfer of moneys from depositaries to Treasury.—The Secretary of the Treasury may, except as provided in section 523 of this title, transfer the moneys in the hands of any depositary of public moneys to the Treasury of the United States to the credit of the Treasurer; and he may transfer moneys in the hands of one depositary to any other depositary, as the safety of the public moneys and the convenience of the public service shall seem to him to require. (R. S. § 3640.)

523. Postal deposits; transfer.—The Postmaster General may transfer money belonging to the Postal Service between the Treasurer and designated depositaries, at his discretion, and as the safety of the public money and the convenience of the service may require. (R. S. § 3641; May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 655.)

524. Same; accounts.—Every depositary shall keep his account of the money paid to or deposited with him, belonging to the Post Office Department, separate and distinct from the account kept by him of other public moneys so paid or deposited. (R. S. § 3642.)

525. Entry of each deposit, transfer, and payment.—All persons charged by law with the safekeeping, transfer, and disbursement of the public moneys, other than those connected with the Post Office Department, are required to keep an accurate entry of each sum received and of each payment or transfer. (R. S. § 3643.)

526. Public moneys in Treasury and depositaries subject to draft of Treasurer.—All moneys paid into the Treasury of the United States shall be subject to the draft of the Treasurer. And for the purpose of payments on the public account the Treasurer is authorized to draw upon any of the depositaries, as he may think most conducive to the public interest and to the convenience of the public creditors. Each depositary so drawn upon shall make returns to the Treasury and Post Office Departments of all moneys received and paid by him, at such times and in such forms as shall be directed by the Secretary of the Treasury or the Postmaster General. (R. S. § 3644.)

527. Presentment of drafts.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to issue and publish regulations to enforce the speedy presentation of all Government drafts, for payment, at the place where payable, and to prescribe the time, according to the different distances of the depositaries from the seat of Government, within which all drafts upon them, respectively, shall be presented for payment; and, in default of such presentation, to direct any other mode and place of payment which he may deem proper; but, in all these regulations and directions, it shall be his duty to guard, as far as may be, against those drafts being used or thrown into circulation as a paper currency or a medium of exchange. (R. S. § 3645.)

528. Duplicates for lost, stolen, or destroyed disbursing officers' checks or postal checks or warrants.—Whenever any original check is lost, stolen, or destroyed disbursing officers and agents of the United States are authorized, within three years from the date of such check, to issue a duplicate check, under such regulations in regard to its issue and payment, and upon the execution of such bond, with sureties, to indemnify the United States, and proof of loss of original check, as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe: Provided, That whenever any original check or warrant of the Post Office Department has been lost, stolen, or destroyed the Postmaster General may authorize the issuance of a duplicate thereof, at any time within three years from the date of such original check or warrant, upon the execution by the owner thereof of such bond of indemnity as the Postmaster General may prescribe: Provided further, That when such original check or warrant does not exceed in amount the sum of $50 and the payee or owner is, at the date of the application, an officer or employee in the service of the Post Office Department, whether by contract, designation, or appointment, the Postmaster General may, in lieu of an indemnity bond, authorize the issuance of a duplicate check or warrant upon such an affidavit as he may prescribe, to be made before any postmaster by the payee or owner of an original check or warrant. (R. S. § 3646; Feb. 16, 1885, c. 123, 23 Stat. 306; Mar. 23, 1906, c. 1129, 34 Stat. 84; June 19, 1906, c. 3434, 34 Stat. 301; May 27, 1908, c. 206, 35 Stat. 415; Feb. 23, 1909, c. 174, 35 Stat. 644; Mar. 21, 1916, c. 52, 39 Stat. 37.)

529. Advances of public moneys; prohibition against.—Except as otherwise provided by law, no advance of public money shall be made in any case. And in all cases of contracts for the performance of any service, or the delivery of articles of any description, for the use of the United States, payment shall not exceed the value of the service rendered, or of the articles delivered previously to such payment. It shall, however, be lawful, under the special direction of the President, to make such advances to the disbursing officers of the Government as may be necessary to the faithful and prompt discharge of their respective duties, and to the fulfillment of the public engagements. The President may also direct such advances as he may deem necessary and proper, to persons in the military and naval service employed on distant stations, where the discharge of the pay and emoluments to which they may be entitled cannot be regularly effected. (R. S. § 3648.)

530. Same; payment in advance for periodicals.—The annual subscriptions for publications for use in the immigration service at large, and subscriptions for publications for the Department of Agriculture, to be paid for by the Secretary of Agriculture, subscriptions to newspapers, magazines, periodicals, and other publications, purchased from funds of the Quartermaster Corps, subscriptions for foreign and professional newspapers and periodicals to be paid for from the appropriation for the Engineer School, District of Columbia, subscriptions for publications for the United States Veterans' Bureau, to be paid for by the director, subscriptions for newspapers for the naval service, and subscriptions to periodicals, which have been certified in writing by the respective heads of the executive departments or other Government establishments to be required for official use, to be paid from appropriations available therefor, may be paid in advance. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, 33 Stat. 1182; Mar. 4, 1909, c. 301, 35 Stat. 1054; Apr. 27, 1914, c. 72, 38 Stat. 362, 369; Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 929; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 141, § 5, 38 Stat. 1049; June 7, 1924, c. 292, § 1, 43 Stat. 533.)

531. Same; payments for rent of offices in foreign countries.—Section 529 of this title shall not apply to advance payments for rent of offices in foreign countries by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 556, § 1, 43 Stat. 1327.)

532. Same; by United States marshals.—Appropriations for salaries, fees, and expenses of marshals shall be available for advances to be made by United States marshals when authorized or approved by the Attorney General. (Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 1, 43 Stat. 687.)

533. Same; Department of Agriculture.—Advances of public money from the appropriations for the Department of Agriculture shall, except as provided in section 534 of this title, be made by the Secretary of Agriculture only to such chiefs of field parties, agricultural explorers, special agents, and others as shall have given bonds in such sums as the Secretary of Agriculture shall direct. (June 3, 1902, c. 985, 32 Stat. 303.)

534. Same; Forest Service for fighting forest fires in emergency cases.—Advances of money under any appropriation for the Forest Service may be made to the Forest Service and by authority of the Secretary of Agriculture to chiefs of field parties for fighting forest fires in emergency cases, who shall give bond under such rules and regulations and in such sum as the Secretary of Agriculture may direct, and detailed accounts arising under such advances shall be rendered through and by the Department of Agriculture to the General Accounting Office. (May 23, 1908, c. 192, 35 Stat. 259; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

535. Advances from appropriation "Boundary Line, Alaska and Canada, and the United States and Canada."—Advances of money under the appropriation "Boundary line, Alaska and Canada, and the United States and Canada," may be made to the commissioner on the part of the United States and by his authority to chiefs of parties, who shall give bond under such rules and regulations and in such sum as the Secretary of State may direct, and accounts arising under advances shall be rendered through and by the commissioner on the part of the United States to the General Accounting Office as under advances made to chiefs of parties prior to March 2, 1921: Provided, That when the commissioner is absent from Washington and from his regular place of residence on official business he shall be allowed actual and necessary expenses of subsistence not in excess of $8 per day. (Apr. 15, 1918, c. 52, 40 Stat. 523; Mar. 2, 1921, c. 113, § 1, 41 Stat. 1210; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

536. Advances to disbursing officers and agents under "Army accounts of advances"; amounts; use of.—The Secretary of War may issue his requisitions for advances to disbursing officers and agents of the Army, under an "Army account of advances," not to exceed the total appropriation for the Army, the amount so advanced to be exclusively used to pay, upon proper vouchers, obligations lawfully payable under the respective appropriations. (June 5, 1920, c. 240, 41 Stat. 975.)

537. Same; charge to proper appropriations.—The amount so advanced shall be charged to the proper appropriations and returned to "Army account of advances" by pay and counterwarrant. The said charge, however, to particular appropriations shall be limited to the amount appropriated to each. (June 5, 1920, c. 240, 41 Stat. 975.)

See also sections 499 and 500 of this title.

538. Same; adjustment of liabilities with account.—The General Accounting Office shall declare the sums due from the several special appropriations upon complete vouchers, as prior to June 5, 1920, according to law; and said office shall adjust the said liabilities with the "Army account of advances." (June 5, 1920, c. 240, 41 Stat. 975; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

539. Requisitions of Secretary of Navy for advances.—The Secretary of the Navy may issue his requisitions for advances to disbursing officers and agents of the Navy under a "General account of advances," not to exceed the total appropriation for the Navy, the amount so advanced to be exclusively used to pay current obligations upon proper vouchers for "Pay of the Navy" shall be used only for its legitimate purpose, as provided by law. (June 19, 1878, c. 312, § 1, 20 Stat. 167.)

540. Same; how charged.—The amount so advanced shall be charged to the proper appropriations, and returned to "General account of advances" by pay and counterwarrant; the said charge, however, to particular appropriations, shall be limited to the amount appropriated to each. (June 19, 1878, c. 312, § 2, 20 Stat. 167.)

541. Same; settlement of accounts.—The General Accounting Office shall declare the sums due from the several special appropriations upon complete vouchers according to law; and shall adjust the said liabilities with the "General account of advances." (June 19, 1878, c. 312, § 3, 20 Stat. 168; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

542. Partial payments on vessels for Treasury Department; lien.—The Secretary of the Treasury may make partial payments, from time to time, upon all contracts made after or existing May 5, 1894, for the construction of vessels for the Treasury Department, but not in excess of 75 per centum of the amount of the value of the work already done; and contracts made after said date shall provide for a lien upon such vessels for all advances so made: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize any partial payments, except on contracts stipulating for the same and then only in accordance with such contract stipulation. (May 5, 1894, No. 24, 28 Stat. 582.)

543. Exchange of funds restricted.—No exchange of funds shall be made by any disbursing officer or agent of the Government, of any grade or denomination whatsoever, or connected with any branch of the public service, other than an exchange for gold, silver, United States notes, and national-bank notes; and every such disbursing officer, when the means for his disbursements are furnished to him in gold, silver, United States notes, or national-bank notes, shall make his payments in the moneys so furnished; or when they are furnished to him in drafts, shall cause those drafts to be presented at their place of payment, and properly paid according to law, and shall make his payments in the money so received for the drafts furnished, unless, in either case, he can exchange the means in his hands for gold and silver at par. And it shall be the duty of the head of the proper department immediately to suspend from duty any disbursing officer or agent who violates the provisions of this section, and forthwith to report the name of the officer or agent to the President, with the fact of the violation, and all the circumstances accompanying the same, and within the knowledge of the Secretary, to the end that such officer or agent may be promptly removed from office, or restored to his trust and the performance of his duties, as the President may deem just and proper. (R. S. § 3651.)

544. Premium on sales of public moneys to be accounted for.—No officer of the United States shall, either directly or indirectly, sell or dispose of to any person, for a premium, any Treasury note, draft, warrant, or other public security, not his private property, or sell or dispose of the avails or proceeds of such note, draft, warrant, or security, in his hands for disbursement, without making return of such premium, and accounting therefor by charging the same in his accounts to the credit of the United States; and any officer violating this section shall be forthwith dismissed from office. (R. S. § 3652.)

545. Expenses of fiscal agents.—The officers, respectively, whose duty it is made by this chapter to receive, keep, or disburse the public moneys, as the fiscal agents of the Government, may be allowed any necessary additional expenses for fireproof chests or vaults, or other necessary expenses of collecting, safekeeping, transferring, or disbursing the moneys; but all such expenses of every character shall be first expressly authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury, whose directions upon all the above subjects, by way of regulation and otherwise, so far as authorized by law, shall be strictly followed by all the officers. But no part of the money appropriated for the purposes above mentioned shall be expended for clerical services or payment of employees of any nature or grade. (R. S. § 3653; Aug. 7, 1882, c. 433, 22 Stat. 312; Jan. 2, 1925, c. 87, 43 Stat. 767.)

546. Appropriations for construction of public buildings; disbursement.—All disbursements of money appropriated for the construction of public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department shall be made by the Treasury Department at Washington, District of Columbia, except in cases of public buildings located so remote from the seat of government as to occasion hardship by undue delay in making payments to contractors. In every such exceptional case the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, require the collector of customs at or nearest the place where such building is being constructed to make the disbursement, as provided in section 70 of Title 5, but in such exceptional cases no additional compensation shall be paid to any collector of customs for disbursements made hereunder; and no compensation or commissions shall be allowed for the disbursement of any appropriation for the construction, extension, enlargement, remodeling, or repairs of any public building under the control of the Treasury Department, except to disbursing agents appointed before March 4, 1911, and who have qualified by giving bonds. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1387.)

547. Disposition of trust funds received from foreign governments for citizens of United States.—All moneys received by the Secretary of State from foreign governments and other sources, in trust for citizens of the United States or others, shall be deposited and covered into the Treasury.

The Secretary of State shall determine the amounts due claimants, respectively, from each of such trust funds, and certify the same to the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall, upon the presentation of the certificates of the Secretary of State, pay the amounts so found to be due.

Each of the trust funds covered into the Treasury as aforesaid is hereby appropriated for the payment to the ascertained beneficiaries thereof of the certificates herein provided for. (Feb. 27, 1896, c. 34, 29 Stat. 32.)

548. Examination of depositaries.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to cause examinations to be made of the books, accounts, and money on hand, of the several depositaries; and for that purpose to appoint special agents, as occasion may require, with such compensation, not exceeding $6 per day and traveling expenses, as he may think reasonable, to be fixed and declared at the time of each appointment. The agent selected to make these examinations shall be instructed to examine as well the books, accounts, and returns of the officer, as the money on hand, and the manner of its being kept, to the end that uniformity and accuracy in the accounts, as well as safety to the public moneys, may be secured thereby. (R. S. § 3649.)

549. Examination of accounts of custodians of public moneys.—In addition to the examinations provided for in section 548 of this title it shall be the duty of each comptroller of customs, as a check upon the collector of the customs, of their respective districts; and of the superintendent of each mint and branch mint, as a check upon the treasurers, respectively, of the mints, or the persons acting as such, at the close of each quarter of the year, and as much oftener as they are directed by the Secretary of the Treasury to do so, to examine the books, accounts, returns, and money on hand, of said depositaries, collectors, treasurers of the mint and each branch mint, and persons acting as such, and to make a full, accurate, and faithful return of their condition to the Secretary of the Treasury. (R. S. § 3650; Oct. 28, 1921, c. 114, § 1, 42 Stat. 208; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 356, Title IV, § 523, 42 Stat. 974.)

550. Same; Coast and Geodetic Survey.—Advances of money from available appropriations may be made to the Coast and Geodetic Survey and by authority of the superintendent thereof to chiefs of parties, who shall give bond under such rules and regulations and in such sum as the Secretary of Commerce may direct, and accounts arising under such advances shall be rendered through and by the disbursing officer of the Coast and Geodetic Survey to the General Accounting Office as under advances made to chiefs of parties prior to July 1, 1918. (July 1, 1918, c. 113, § 1, 40 Stat. 688; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

Section 581. Contents of estimates of appropriations and statements of expenditures and estimated expenditures; statements accompanying lump-sum appropriations.—(a) Except as otherwise provided in chapter 1 of this title, the contents, order, and arrangement of the estimates of appropriations and the statements of expenditures and estimated expenditures contained in the Budget or transmitted under section 13 of this title, and the notes and other data submitted therewith, shall conform to the requirements of this chapter and any other applicable laws.

(b) Estimates for lump-sum appropriations contained in the Budget or transmitted under section 14 of this title shall be accompanied by statements showing, in such detail and form as may be necessary to inform Congress, the manner of expenditure of such appropriations and of the corresponding appropriations for the fiscal year in progress and the last completed fiscal year. Such statements shall be in lieu of statements of like character otherwise required by law. (June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 204, 42 Stat. 21.)

582. Statements required with estimates for lump-sum appropriations.—There shall be submitted in the annual Budget following every estimate for a general or lump-sum appropriation, except public buildings or other public works constructed under contract, a statement showing in parallel columns:

First, the number of persons, if any, intended to be employed and the rates of compensation to each, and the amounts contemplated to be expended for each of any other objects or classes of expenditures specified or contemplated in the estimate, including a statement of estimated unit cost of any construction work proposed to be done; and

Second, the number of persons, if any, employed and the rate of compensation paid each, and the amounts expended for each other object or class of expenditure, and the actual unit cost of any construction work done, out of the appropriation corresponding to the estimate so submitted, during the completed fiscal year next preceding the period for which the estimate is submitted.

Other notes shall not be submitted following any estimate embraced in the annual Budget other than such as shall suggest changes in form or order of arrangement of estimates and appropriations and reasons for such changes. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 355, § 6, 37 Stat. 487; Aug. 1, 1914, c. 223, § 10, 38 Stat. 680; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 204, 42 Stat. 21.)

583. Enumeration of estimates required.—There shall be submitted annually in addition to any other estimates required by law to be submitted:

(1) Expenses of national loan.—Detailed estimates of appropriations required for expenses of the national loan. (June 20, 1874, c. 328, § 4, 18 Stat. 109.)

(2) Payment of judgments.—Estimates for the payment of all judgments against the United States, including judgments in Indian depredation claims and of United States courts. (Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 1, 33 Stat. 422.)

(3) Customs Service.—A statement specifying in detail the number and class of officers and employees of every grade and nature, with the rate of compensation to each, that may be necessary to properly conduct the business of collecting the revenue at each port of entry in the United States, together with an estimate of the amounts required for contingent expenses at each of said ports, and for such additional expenses of the service as can not be otherwise specifically provided for. (Aug. 5, 1882, c. 389, § 5, 22 Stat. 256.)

(4) Parting and refining bullion.—Detailed estimates for the expenses of parting and refining bullion. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 240, 36 Stat. 1292.)

585. Manner of communicating estimates.—Estimates of expenditures and appropriations communicated to the Bureau of the Budget shall specify, as nearly as may be convenient, the sources from which such estimates are derived, and the calculations upon which they are founded, and shall discriminate between such estimates as are conjectural in their character and such as are framed upon actual information and applications from disbursing officers. They shall also give references to any law or treaty by which the proposed expenditures are, respectively, authorized, specifying the date of each, and the volume and page of the Statutes at Large, or of this Code, as the case may be, and the section of the Act in which the authority is to be found. (R. S. § 3660; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 215, 42 Stat. 23.)

586. Order and arrangement of estimates and general appropriation bills.—The estimates for expenses of the Government, and supplemental or deficiency estimates, except those for sundry civil expenses, shall be prepared and submitted each year according to the order and arrangement of the appropriation Acts for the year preceding. And any changes in such order and arrangement, and transfers of salaries from one office or bureau to another office or bureau, or the consolidation of offices or bureaus desired by the head of any executive department may be submitted by note in the estimates. The committees of Congress in reporting general appropriation bills shall, as far as may be practicable, follow the general order and arrangement of the respective appropriation Acts for the year preceding. (June 22, 1906, c. 3514, § 4, 34 Stat. 448; Sept. 8, 1916, c. 464, § 4, 39 Stat. 830; June 10, 1921, c. 18, §§ 203, 204, 42 Stat. 21.)

587. Estimates not conforming to requirements rearranged.—When estimates hereafter transmitted to the Bureau of the Budget for submission to Congress do not in form and arrangement comply with the provisions of section 586 of this title, they shall be rearranged so as to comply with said requirements of law. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 297, § 4, 35 Stat. 907; June 10, 1921, c. 18, §§ 204, 215, 42 Stat. 21, 23.)

588. Estimates for printing and binding; only appropriations made for printing and binding used therefor.—There shall be submitted in the regular annual estimates under and as a part of the expenses for "printing and binding," estimates for all printing and binding required by each of the executive departments, their bureaus and offices, and other Government establishments at Washington, District of Columbia, for each fiscal year; and no appropriations other than those made specifically and solely for printing and binding shall be used for such purposes in any executive department or other Government establishment in the District of Columbia: Provided, That nothing in this section shall apply to stamped envelopes, or envelopes and articles of stationery other than letterheads and noteheads, printed in the course of manufacture, or to so much of the printing and binding as is necessary to expedite the work of that branch of The Adjutant General's Office that was formerly known as the Record and Pension Office of the War Department. (June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 2, 34 Stat. 762; Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1158; Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, 34 Stat. 1367; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 215, 42 Stat. 23.)

589. Same; other officers.—The annual estimate for appropriations for every other public officer who is authorized to have printing and binding done at the Government Printing Office for the use of his public office, shall include such sum or sums as may seem necessary "for printing and binding, to be executed under the direction of the Public Printer." (R. S. § 3661; July 31, 1876, c. 246, 19 Stat. 105; Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 17, 28 Stat. 603.)

590. Same; Geological Survey, Coast and Geodetic Survey, Hydrographic Office, and Signal Service.—All printing and engraving for the Geological Survey, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Hydrographic Office of the Navy Department, and the Signal Service shall be estimated for separately and in detail, and appropriated for separately for each of said bureaus. (Aug. 4, 1886, c. 902, § 1, 24 Stat. 255.)

591. Estimates; for salaries.—All estimates for the compensation of officers authorized by law to be employed shall be founded upon the express provisions of law, and not upon the authority of executive distribution. (R. S. § 3662.)

592. Reports in estimates of number and salaries of inefficient employees.—It shall be the duty of the heads of the several executive departments of the Government to report to Congress each year in the annual estimates the number of employees in each bureau and office and the salaries of each who are below a fair standard of efficiency. (July 11, 1890, c. 667, § 2, 26 Stat. 268; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 204, 42 Stat. 21.)

593. Statements in estimates of condition of business in departments.—There shall be submitted to Congress, annually, in the estimates, a statement as to the condition of business in each department or other Government establishment, showing whether any part of the same is in arrears, and, if so, in what divisions of the respective bureaus and offices of his department or other Government establishment such arrears exist, the extent thereof, and the reasons therefor, and also a statement of the number and compensation of employees appropriated for in one bureau or office who have been detailed to another bureau or office for a period exceeding one year. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 7, 28 Stat. 808; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 204, 42 Stat. 21.)

594. Requisites of estimates for appropriations for public works.—Whenever any estimate submitted to the Bureau of the Budget asks an appropriation for any new specific expenditure, such as the erection of a public building, or the construction of any public work, requiring a plan before the building or work can be properly completed, such estimate shall be accompanied by full plans and detailed estimates of the cost of the whole work. All subsequent estimates for any such work shall state the original estimated cost, the aggregate amount theretofore appropriated for the same, and the amount actually expended thereupon, as well as the amount asked for the current year for which such estimate is made. And if the amount asked is in excess of the original estimate, the full reasons for the excess, and the extent of the anticipated excess, shall be also stated. (R. S. § 3663; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 249; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 215, 42 Stat. 23.)

595. Statements in estimates of buildings rented.—There shall be prepared and submitted to Congress each year, in the annual estimates, a statement of the buildings rented within the District of Columbia for the use of the Government, the purposes for which rented, the annual rental of each, the area of each building in square feet of available floor space for Government uses, the rate paid per square foot for such floor space, the assessed valuation of each building, what proportion, if any, of the rental paid includes heat, light, elevator, or other service, and the cost of the care, maintenance, and operation of each building per square foot of floor space of the building or portion of building rented; also a statement of the number of all other buildings rented by the several executive departments, the purposes for which rented, and the annual rental of each. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 128, § 1, 22 Stat. 552; July 16, 1892, c. 196, § 1, 27 Stat. 199; May 1, 1913, c. 1, § 3, 38 Stat. 3; May 20, 1920, c. 214, § 7, 41 Stat. 691; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 204, 42 Stat. 21.)

596. Estimates; statements in, of Government-owned buildings in District of Columbia.—There shall also be submitted to Congress annually in the estimates a statement giving for each of the Government-owned buildings in the District of Columbia under the jurisdiction of each department and independent establishment of the Government the following information for the preceding fiscal year: The location and valuation of each building, the purpose or purposes for which used, and the cost of care, maintenance, upkeep, and operation thereof per square foot of floor space. (June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 3, 41 Stat. 945; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 204, 42 Stat. 21.)

597. Same; additional explanations.—Whenever, in the annual estimates of expenditures required for the coming year for any department, the usual items of such estimates vary materially in amount from the appropriation ordinarily asked for the object named, and especially from the appropriation granted for the same objects for the preceding year, and whenever new items not theretofore usual are introduced into such estimates for any year, the estimates shall be accompanied by minute and full explanations of all such variations and new items, showing the reasons and grounds upon which the amounts are required, and the different items added. (R. S. § 3664.)

598. Same; amount of outstanding appropriations designated.—Estimates of expenditures required in any department during the year then approaching, shall designate not only the amount required to be appropriated for the next fiscal year, but also the amount of the outstanding appropriation, if there be any, which will probably be required for each particular item of expenditure. (R. S. § 3665.)

599. Same; statement of persons employed at mints and assay offices.—The number of persons employed, other than workmen and adjusters, and the compensation paid to each, at each mint and assay office, out of appropriations made for wages of workmen, adjusters, and other employees shall be reported to Congress each year in the annual estimates. (Feb. 3, 1905, c. 297, § 1, 33 Stat. 657.)

600. Same; for Coast Guard.—Estimates for the Coast Guard shall be submitted, in detail, showing separately, the amount required for pay of officers, rations for officers, pay of crews, rations of crews, fuel, repairs and outfits, ship chandlery, and for traveling and contingent expenses. There shall also be included in the annual Budget a statement showing the authorized number of officers and cadets in the Coast Guard, their rank and pay; also the number of men constituting the crews of vessels in said service. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 410, § 1, 25 Stat. 907; Jan. 28, 1915, c. 20 § 1, 38 Stat. 800; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 204, 42 Stat. 21.)

601. Same; reports of persons employed on public buildings and expenditures for repairs.—There shall be reported to Congress in the annual estimates the number of persons employed outside of the District of Columbia, as superintendents, clerks, watchmen and otherwise, and paid from appropriations for the construction of public buildings showing where said persons are employed, in what capacity, the length of time and at what rate of compensation, and a statement of the expenditure of the appropriation for "repairs and preservation of public buildings" which shall show the amount expended on each public building and the number of persons employed and paid salaries from such appropriation. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 362, 24 Stat. 512; Aug. 30, 1890, c. 837, § 1, 26 Stat. 374.)

602. Same; appropriations to refund illegally assessed or collected revenue taxes.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall submit annually an estimate of appropriations to refund and pay back duties or taxes erroneously or illegally assessed or collected under the internal-revenue laws, and to pay judgments, including interest and costs, rendered for taxes or penalties erroneously or illegally assessed or collected under the internal-revenue laws. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1317, 42 Stat. 314.)

603. Same; for Foreign Service.—Except as hereinafter otherwise provided, estimates for the annual expenditures of the expenses of the Foreign Service shall state the entire amount required for its support, including all commercial agents and other officers, whether paid by fees or otherwise, specifying the compensation to be allowed or deemed advisable in each individual case, but estimates for rent of consular offices, and, under contingent expenses, the amount required annually to be expended at consular offices for purposes within the discretion of the department shall be segregated and submitted separately. (July 1, 1882, c. 262, 22 Stat. 133; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1484, § 1, 33 Stat. 1214; May 24, 1924, c. 182, § 1, 43 Stat. 140.)

604. Same; for river and harbor improvements.—The Secretary of War shall annually submit estimates in detail for river and harbor improvements required for the ensuing fiscal year to the Bureau of the Budget to be included in and carried into the sum total of, the Budget. (June 4, 1897, c. 2, § 1, 30 Stat. 48; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 215, 42 Stat. 23.)

605. Same; for construction or modernization of batteries.—Estimates shall not be submitted to Congress for appropriations for construction of gun and mortar batteries, modernizing older emplacements, and other construction under the Engineer Department, in connection with fortifications, until after plans and estimates of cost shall have been prepared therefor. (Feb. 13, 1913, c. 51, 37 Stat. 671.)

606. Same; for fortifications for insular possessions.—All estimates for fortifications for insular possessions of the United States shall be made and submitted to Congress showing amount proposed to be expended at each harbor in each insular possession. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1402, 33 Stat. 847.)

609. Same; statements in of number and salaries of persons employed under appropriations for increase of Navy.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Navy to submit in the estimates, under the respective bureaus and offices of the Navy Department, a statement in detail, showing the number of persons employed during the previous fiscal year and the rate of compensation of each under appropriations for "Increase of the Navy" or other general appropriations. (Apr. 17, 1900, c. 192, § 1, 31 Stat. 117; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 204, 42 Stat. 21.)

610. Same; for Post Office Department.—There shall be submitted to Congress at each annual session an estimate of the amount that will be required by the Post Office Department for the ensuing fiscal year, under each of the following heads:

First. Transportation of the mails.
Second. Compensation of postmasters.
Third. Compensation of clerks in post offices.

Seventeenth. Stationery.
Eighteenth. Miscellaneous.

Such estimates shall show the sums paid under each head, and the names of the persons to whom payment are made out of the miscellaneous fund; but the names of persons employed in detecting depredations on the mail, and of other confidential agents, need not be disclosed. (R. S. § 3668.)

611. Same; for Railway Mail Service.—In making estimates for Railway Mail Service, the estimate for postal-car service shall be separated from the general estimates; and in case any increase or diminution of service by postal cars shall be made by the Postmaster General, the reasons therefor shall be given in his annual report next succeeding such increase or diminution. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 1, 20 Stat. 357.)

612. Same; Geological Survey.—The estimates for the Geological Survey shall be itemized, and there shall be submitted in the annual Budget, under each item of appropriation under "General expenses of the Geological Survey," notes showing the number of persons employed and the rate of compensation paid to each from each of said appropriations during the fiscal year next preceding the fiscal year for which estimates are submitted. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 362, 24 Stat. 527; June 28, 1902, c. 1301, § 1, 32 Stat. 455; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 204, 42 Stat. 21.)

613. Same; for Indian appropriations.—The estimates for appropriations for the Indian Service shall be presented in such form as to show the amounts required for each of the agencies in the several States or Territories, and for said States and Territories, respectively, and shall be accompanied by a detailed statement, classified in the manner prescribed in section 688 of this title, showing the purposes for which the appropriations are required. (Aug. 15, 1876, c. 289, § 4, 19 Stat. 200; June 30, 1913, c. 4, § 26, 38 Stat. 103.)

614. Same; for national parks.—The Secretary of the Interior shall submit in the annual estimates, following the estimates for each of the national parks, a classified statement of the receipts and expenditures for the complete fiscal year next preceding the fiscal year for which estimates of appropriations are submitted. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1421; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 204, 42 Stat. 21.)

615. Same; for expenses of insular and territorial affairs within jurisdiction of Department of Justice.—Estimates for appropriations for defraying the necessary expenses incurred in the conduct of insular and other territorial matters and affairs within the jurisdiction of the Department of Justice, including the payment of necessary employees at the seat of government or elsewhere, shall be submitted in detail under legislative, executive, and judicial expenses. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, 33 Stat. 1206.)

617. Same; estimates for Department of Agriculture.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall transmit to Congress in the annual estimates detailed estimates for all executive officers, clerks, and employees below the grade of clerk, indicating the salary or compensation of each, necessary to be employed by the various bureaus, offices, and divisions of the Department of Agriculture, and with such estimates shall be included a statement of all executive officers, clerks, and employees below the grade of clerk who may have been employed during the last completed fiscal year on any lump-sum appropriation for the department, and the salary or compensation of each, and a statement showing what proportion of this appropriation is paid for the quarters occupied by the various branches of the department. (June 3, 1902, c. 985, 32 Stat. 303; Mar. 4, 1915, c. 144, 38 Stat. 1108; Aug. 11, 1916, c. 313, 39 Stat. 492; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 204, 42 Stat. 21.)

618. Same; for Lighthouse Establishment.—There shall be submitted in the annual Budget, under each item of appropriation under the head of "Bureau of Lighthouses," notes showing the number of persons employed and the rate of compensation paid to each from each of said appropriations during the fiscal year next preceding the fiscal year for which estimates are submitted, and following each estimate statements shall be submitted showing the amount required for each object of expenditure mentioned in each of said estimates, together with a statement of the expenditures under each of such objects for the fiscal year terminated next preceding the period of submitting said estimates. (June 28, 1902, c. 1301, § 1, 32 Stat. 433; June 17, 1910, c. 301, § 4, 36 Stat. 537;

June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 1, 36 Stat. 755; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 204, 42 Stat. 21.)

619. Same; for officers and employees for Bureau of Fisheries.—The Commissioner of Fisheries shall embrace in the estimates of appropriations for the Bureau of Fisheries for each fiscal year estimates for all officers, clerks, and other employees whose services are permanent and continuous in their character and deemed to be necessary for an efficient and economical execution of the appropriations for the Bureau of Fisheries. (Aug. 5, 1892, c. 380, § 1, 27 Stat. 362.)

620. Same; for expenses of regulating immigration.—There shall be submitted, following the estimates under appropriation for expenses of regulating immigration, statements showing the amount required for each object of expenditure mentioned in said estimates, together with a statement of the expenditures under each of such objects for the fiscal year terminated next preceding the period of submitting said estimates. (June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 1, 36 Stat. 764.)

621. Same; for Panama Canal.—The estimates of appropriations for the Panama Canal shall be submitted annually in detail, showing the amounts required for personal services and the amounts required for material including all supplies, under the heads of construction, maintenance, operation, sanitation, and civil government, and following each there shall be submitted notes giving in parallel columns information which will show the number, by grade or classes, of officers, employees, and skilled and unskilled laborers proposed to be paid under each of said appropriations for the ensuing fiscal year and those paid at the close of the fiscal year next preceding the period when said estimates are prepared and submitted; also, in connection with each item for material and miscellaneous purposes other than salaries or pay for personal services, the amounts actually expended or obligated, quantities purchased, and prices paid for material or supplies during the entire fiscal year next preceding the preparation and submission of said estimates.

There shall also be submitted in connection with the foregoing information, statements of actual unit cost of all construction work done, and of estimated unit cost of work proposed to be done, for the fiscal years included in the notes so required to be submitted with the annual estimates. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 223, § 6, 38 Stat. 679.)

622. Same; compiling and printing.—Estimates of appropriations contained in the Budget or transmitted under section 14 of this title, shall be properly classified, compiled, indexed, and printed, by the Bureau of the Budget. (July 7, 1884, c. 334, § 1, 23 Stat. 254; June 10, 1921, c. 18, §§ 204, 211, 42 Stat. 21, 22.)

623. Same; elimination of unnecessary words.—The Bureau of the Budget shall, as nearly as may be practicable, eliminate from all such estimates unnecessary words and make uniform the language commonly used in expressing purposes or conditions of appropriations. (June 23, 1913, c. 3, § 3, 38 Stat. 75; June 10, 1921, c. 18, §§ 204, 207, 42 Stat. 21, 22.)

624. Same; statements accompanying.—The Bureau of the Budget shall annex to the annual estimates of the appropriations required for the public service, a statement of the appropriations for the service of the year, which may have been made by former Acts, and submit, as a part of the appendix to the estimates, such extracts from the annual reports of the several heads of departments and bureaus as relate to estimates for appropriations, and the necessities therefor. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 129, § 3, 18 Stat. 370; June 10, 1921, c. 18, §§ 204, 207, 42 Stat. 21, 22.)

625. Statement of proceeds of sales of old material.—A detailed statement of the proceeds of all sales of old material, condemned stores, supplies, or other public property of any kind except materials, stores, or supplies sold to officers and soldiers of the Army, or to exploring or surveying expeditions authorized by law shall be submitted to Congress at the beginning of each regular session thereof as a separate communication not included in the annual estimates. (R. S. § 3672; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 249; June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 6, 36 Stat. 773.)

626. Statements of money received from proceeds of public property or other sources, and of payments therefrom.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall require, and it shall be the duty of the head of each executive department or other Government establishment to furnish him, within thirty days after the close of each fiscal year, a statement of all money arising from proceeds of public property of any kind or from any source other than the Postal Service, received by said head of department or other Government establishment during the previous fiscal year for or on account of the public service, or in any other manner in the discharge of his official duties other than as salary or compensation, which was not paid into the general Treasury of the United States, together with a detailed account of all payments, if any, made from such funds during such year: Provided, however, That this shall not apply to the Quartermaster Corps, as successor to the Subsistence Department. All such statements, together with a similar statement applying to the Treasury Department, shall be transmitted by the Secretary of the Treasury to Congress at the beginning of each regular session. June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 5, 34 Stat. 763; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 391, §§ 1, 3, 37 Stat. 579, 591.)

627. Construction of appropriation Acts.—No Act of Congress shall be construed to make an appropriation out of the Treasury of the United States, or to authorize the execution of a contract involving the payment of money in excess of appropriations made by law, unless such Act shall in specific terms declare an appropriation to be made or that a contract may be executed. (June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 9, 34 Stat. 764.)

628. Application of moneys appropriated.—Except as otherwise provided by law, sums appropriated for the various branches of expenditure in the public service shall be applied solely to the objects for which they are respectively made, and for no others. (R. S. § 3678.)

629. Lump-sum appropriations; not available for increased salaries.—Except as otherwise provided by law, no part of any money appropriated in lump sum shall be available for the payment of personal services at a rate of compensation in excess of that paid for the same or similar services during the preceding fiscal year; nor shall any person employed at a specific salary be transferred and paid from a lump-sum appropriation a rate of compensation greater than such specific salary, and the heads of departments shall cause this provision to be enforced: Provided, That this section shall not apply to mechanics, artisans, their helpers and assistants, laborers, or any other employees whose duties are of similar character and required in carrying on the various manufacturing or constructing operations of the Government. (Aug. 26, 1912, c. 408, § 7, 37 Stat. 626; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 142, § 4, 37 Stat. 790.)

630. Same; salaries of scientific and technical employees of Department of Agriculture.—Section 629 of this title shall not apply to the payment, out of moneys appropriated in lump sum for the Department of Agriculture, for personal services of employees engaged in strictly scientific or technical work: Provided, That nothing contained herein shall be construed to authorize the transfer of any person employed at a specific salary and the payment of compensation from lump-sum appropriations at a rate greater than said specific salary. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 145, 37 Stat. 854.)

631. Drafts for War and Navy Departments.—All moneys appropriated for the use of the War and Navy Departments shall be drawn from the Treasury, by warrants of the Secretary of the Treasury, upon the requisitions of the Secretaries of those departments, respectively, countersigned in the General Accounting Office, and registered. (R. S. § 3673; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

632. Restriction on payments on account of Postal Service.—Payments of money out of the Treasury on account of the Postal Service shall be in pursuance of appropriations made by law, by warrants of the Postmaster General, registered and countersigned in the General Accounting Office, and expressing on their face the appropriation to which they should be charged. (R. S. § 3674; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

633. Charge against fund "Transportation and recruiting," for transportation of men discharged.—The transportation to their homes, if residents of the United States, of enlisted men and apprentices of the Navy discharged on medical survey; and the transportation to the place of enlistment, if residents of the United States, of such enlisted men and apprentices discharged on account of expiration of enlistment, shall be chargeable to the appropriation "Transportation and recruiting." (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 831, § 1, 31 Stat. 1030; Feb. 11, 1925, c. 209, 43 Stat. 864.)

634. Appropriations for Navy controlled by Secretary; for bureaus kept separately.—All appropriations for specific, general, and contingent expenses of the Navy Department shall be under the control and expended by the direction of the Secretary of the Navy, and the appropriation for each bureau shall be kept separate in the Treasury. (R. S. § 3676.)

635. Appropriations for Bureau of Yards and Docks available until expended.—Appropriations made under the Bureau of Yards and Docks for public works, exclusive of repairs and preservation, shall remain available until expended. (July 12, 1921, c. 44, § 3, 42 Stat. 139.)

636. Restrictions upon use of appropriations for "Increase of Navy" under Bureau of Ordnance.—No part of appropriations made for "Increase of the Navy" under the Bureau of Ordnance and no part of allotments of appropriations made to said bureau shall be available for the payment for services or materials used in the construction of any shop, building, living quarters, or other structures, except such temporary structures costing not in excess of $5,000 each as may be incident to current work of said bureau, or for additions and betterments to any existing shore station facilities unless the appropriation shall in terms specifically authorize such construction or additions and betterments: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed as interfering in any way with any existing contract or any work in progress on July 12, 1921. (July 12, 1921, c. 44, § 1, 42 Stat. 128.)

637. Contingent expenses not payable from appropriations for Naval Establishment.—It shall not be lawful to expend, for any of the offices or bureaus of the Navy Department at Washington, any sum out of appropriations made for the Naval Establishment for stationery, furniture, newspapers, plans, drawings, drawing material, horses and wagons to be used only for official purposes, including rental of stable, purchase, maintenance, repair, operation or exchange of horse-drawn passenger-carrying vehicles, automobile mail wagon, including exchange of same, street car tickets, freight, expressage, postage, typewriters, computing machines, and other absolutely necessary expenses of the Navy Department and its various bureaus and offices. (June 22, 1906, c. 3514, § 1, 34 Stat. 427; Mar. 3, 1917, c. 163, § 1, 39 Stat. 1102.)

638. Restrictions upon appropriations for ordnance or ordnance material or material purchased therewith.—No money appropriated for ordnance or ordnance material or material purchased therewith for the Navy shall be used for any other purpose than that for which the appropriation was made: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed as preventing the allocation of armor, armament, ammunition, ordnance material, equipment, and accessories to ships according to the requirements of the naval service. (July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 721; July 12, 1921, c. 44, § 1, 42 Stat. 128.)

639. Credit to appropriation "Pay miscellaneous" of premiums from sale of exchange.—The General Accounting Office may credit appropriation "Pay miscellaneous," with all receipts for interest on the account of the Navy Department with the London fiscal agents, premiums arising from sales of bills of exchange, and from any appreciation in the value of foreign coin. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 212, 27 Stat. 716; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

640. Clothing and small-stores fund.—The value of issues of clothing and small stores by the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts in the Department of the Navy shall be credited to a consolidated fund to be designated as the "clothing and small-stores fund," in the same manner as the value of the issues of clothing was credited to the "clothing fund" prior to February 14, 1879, and as the value of issues of small stores was credited to the "small-stores fund" prior to June 30, 1890; the resources of the fund to be used in the purchase of supplies of clothing and small stores for issue. (Feb. 14, 1879, c. 68, 20 Stat. 288; June 30, 1890, c. 640, 26 Stat. 197; July 19, 1892, c. 206, § 1, 27 Stat. 243, 245; Mar. 3, 1893, c. 1010, 32 Stat. 1191; Mar. 20, 1922, c. 104, 42 Stat. 451.)

641. Naval supplies; purchase, and classification and issue, for Navy, and not for bureaus.—All supplies purchased with moneys appropriated for any branch of the Naval Establishment shall be deemed purchased for the Navy and not for any bureau thereof, and shall be arranged, classified, catalogued, and issued for consumption or use, under such regulations as the Secretary may prescribe, without regard to the bureau for which they were purchased. (June 30, 1890, c. 640, 26 Stat. 205; Mar. 2, 1891, c. 494, 26 Stat. 807.)

642. "Naval Supply Account"; purchases charged to; payments from "General Account of Advances," returned.—The Naval Supply Account for the Naval Establishment, under the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts, shall govern the charging, crediting, receipt, purchase, transfer, manufacture, repair, issue, and consumption of all stores for the Naval Establishment, excepting such material as provisions, clothing and small stores, medical stores, and such other materials as the Secretary of the Navy may designate, and which may be purchased by specific appropriations or transferred to specific appropriations before such materials are issued for use or consumption; the said charge, however, to any particular appropriation shall be limited to the amount appropriated therefor. The appraised value of all stores, equipage, and supplies turned in from ships, and ships' equipage turned in from yards or stations (except salvage), shall be credited to the current appropriations concerned, and the amounts so credited shall be available for expenditures for the same purposes as the appropriations credited. (June 25, 1910, c. 385, 36 Stat. 792; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1279; June 30, 1914, c. 130, 38 Stat. 405.)

643. Permanent special working fund; charges against and credits to.—The permanent special working fund of the Navy shall be charged with the net proceeds of all sales of surplus and condemned stores; with refunds to bidders at sales and to special depositors; and with all labor, overhead, material, and services incident to work done not chargeable to naval appropriations; and shall be credited with all funds received as payment or advances for surplus stores, for condemned stores, and for all expenses incident to work not chargeable to naval appropriations. (May 28, 1924, c. 203, 43 Stat. 195.)

644. Naval Supply Account fund; charges against.—There shall be a naval supply account fund, which shall be charged with the cost of all stores procured for and credited with the value of all issues or sales made from the naval supply account. Deficiencies under appropriations for the Naval Establishment for the fiscal year 1920 and prior years shall be charged to this fund, to which shall be transferred the unexpended balances of annual appropriations for the Naval Establishment for the fiscal years 1919 and 1920. (Mar. 1, 1921, c. 89, § 1, 41 Stat. 1169.)

645. Prices of material expended from naval supply account; issue of certain material at reduced prices.—The prices at which material is to be expended from the naval supply account shall be fixed by the Paymaster General of the Navy, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Navy, and materials purchased during the war shall be issued at reduced prices in all cases appropriate, such differences in values and losses to be charged to the respective funds; and no charges on this account shall be made to naval appropriations. (Mar. 1, 1921, c. 89, § 1, 41 Stat. 1170.)

646. Overhead charges charged against appropriations.—There shall be charged against the several appropriations for the support of the Naval Establishment the overhead charges incident to upkeep and to industrial work at navy yards and stations. The total sum so charged shall be distributed in accordance with the work done in the various yards and stations in order that the cost of work may be determined. (June 30, 1914, c. 130, 38 Stat. 413.)

647. Direct and indirect charges included in cost of work under naval appropriations.—In fixing the cost of work under the various naval appropriations, the direct and indirect charges incident thereto shall be included in such cost. The Bureau of Supplies and Accounts shall keep the money accounts of the Naval Establishment in such manner as to show such charges, and shall report the same annually for the information of Congress. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1267.)

648. Equipment outfits charged against appropriation "Increase of the Navy, construction and machinery."—Equipment outfits for the Navy shall be charged to appropriation "Increase of the Navy, construction and machinery." (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 952.)

649. Expenses of certain naval auxiliaries charged against appropriation "Fuel and transportation."—When the lowest obtainable cost of transportation of fuel between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts of the United States by merchant carriers is considered excessive, the appropriation "Fuel and transportation" may be charged with the expense of pay, transportation, shipping, and subsistence of civilian officers and crews, and such other incidental expenses as can not be paid from other appropriations, of naval auxiliaries engaged in the transportation of fuel: Provided, That the appropriation "Maintenance of naval auxiliaries" is insufficient therefor. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 944.)

650. Charge against fund "Pay of the Army" of detained pay.—Sums known as detained pay, which have already been or may hereafter be withheld from the monthly pay of enlisted men of the Army in obedience to court-martial sentences, shall, when repaid, become a charge against the fund "Pay of the Army" for the year in which said enlisted men have been or may be discharged. (Aug. 6, 1894, c. 228, 28 Stat. 236.)

651. Disbursements; for Signal Service.—All appropriations made for the support of the Signal Service or Corps and for the maintenance and repair of military telegraph lines, shall be disbursed under the direction of the Secretary of War, by the regularly bonded officer who is or may be detailed by the Secretary of War for duty as disbursing officer of the Signal Service. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 837, § 1, 26 Stat. 399; Feb. 24, 1891, c. 284, 26 Stat. 779.)

652. Appropriations for Quartermaster Corps; no payment of extra-duty pay at West Point.—No part of the moneys appropriated for use of the Quartermaster Corps shall be used in payment of extra-duty pay for the Army service men in the Quartermaster's Department at West Point. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1167; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 391, § 3, 37 Stat. 591.)

653. Appropriations for horses; expenditures from.—No part of any appropriation shall be expended for defraying expenses of Army officers, enlisted men, or horses in attending or taking part in horse shows or horse races; but nothing in this section shall be held to apply to the officers, enlisted men, and horses of any troop, battery, or company which shall, by order or permission of the Secretary of War, and within the limits of the United States, attend any horse show or any State, county, or municipal fair, celebration, or exhibition. (Apr. 27, 1914, c. 72, 38 Stat. 351.)

654. Appropriations for support of Army; use for supplies for subsequent years.—Funds appropriated for support of the Army may be used for the procurement of supplies to be held in store for issue to the Army during subsequent fiscal years. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 143, § 1, 38 Stat. 1078.)

655. Appropriations for ordnance-stores ammunition, available for two years.—The appropriations "Ordnance-stores ammunition," "Small-arms target practice," and "Ordnance stores and supplies" shall be available for two years to procure the stores authorized by them. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1175.)

656. Cost of transportation of material charged to appropriations for work in connection with which transportation charges required.—The cost of transportation of material in connection with the manufacturing and purchasing activities of the Signal Corps, Ordnance Department, Chemical Warfare Service, Air Service, Medical Department, Engineer Department, and the Coast Artillery Corps, and in connection with the construction and installation of fire-control projects at seacoast fortifications by the Coast Artillery Corps may be charged to the appropriations for the work in connection with which such transportation charges are required; and the Budget estimates for each of such appropriations shall hereafter carry separately the amounts required for such transportation costs. (Mar. 2, 1923, c. 178, Title I, 42 Stat. 1391.)

657. Appropriations for Ordnance Department; no expenditure for freight charges.—No part of the appropriations made for the Ordnance Department shall be used in payment of freight charges on ordnance or ordnance stores issued by said department. (June 30, 1902, c. 1328, 32 Stat. 520.)

658. Expenses of manufacturing operations by Chief of Ordnance charged against appropriations therefor.—The Chief of Ordnance, in conducting manufacturing or similar operations, may charge any indirect or general expense for labor or material therefor against any of the appropriations authorizing these operations in such manner as is most economical and efficient, provided that the methods adopted shall show that each of such appropriations bears its ratable share of the total amount of these expenses. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2507, 34 Stat. 1062.)

660. Expenses of Ordnance Department in procuring stores for other departments or bureaus.—Whenever the Ordnance Department, under existing regulations, procures stores for other executive departments or bureaus, including the Philippine government, its appropriations shall be applicable to defray the necessary expenses in connection with the procurement, subject to reimbursement from time to time, or on completion of the work, from the department or bureau for which the stores were procured. (June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 258.)

661. Appropriation for Coast and Geodetic Survey; purchases from.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized to purchase, from the appropriation for the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, provisions, clothing, and small stores for the enlisted men, and food supplies for field parties working in remote localities, such provisions, clothing, small stores, and food supplies to be sold to the employees of said survey and the appropriation reimbursed. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 853, § 1, 31 Stat. 1144; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 4, 32 Stat. 826.)

662. Appropriations for Bureau of Fisheries; purchases from.—The Secretary of Commerce may purchase, to the extent of not to exceed $5,000, from the appropriations for the Bureau of Fisheries, clothing and small stores for the crews of vessels, to be sold to the employees of said service and the appropriations reimbursed. (July 1, 1918, c. 113, § 1, 40 Stat. 694.)

663. Expenditures for supplies for courts and judicial officers.—Money appropriated for supplies for the United States courts and judicial officers, shall be expended in payment for such supplies only as shall be purchased, in the discretion of the Attorney General, for delivery at the Department of Justice for distribution. (June 28, 1902, c. 1301, § 1, 32 Stat. 476.)

664. Appropriation for furniture, and repairs for public buildings; certain expenditures prohibited.—Expenditures for traveling expenses and subsistence of persons detailed to assist the inspector and assistant inspector of furniture shall not be made from the appropriation for "Furniture and repairs of same, for public buildings." (June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 1, 36 Stat. 710.)

665. Expenditures in excess of appropriations; voluntary service forbidden; apportionment of appropriations for contingent expenses or other general purposes.—No executive department or other Government establishment of the United States shall expend, in any one fiscal year, any sum in excess of appropriations made by Congress for that fiscal year, or involve the Government in any contract or other obligation for the future payment of money in excess of such appropriations unless such contract or obligation is authorized by law. Nor shall any department or any officer of the Government accept voluntary service for the Government or employ personal service in excess of that authorized by law, except in cases of sudden emergency involving the loss of human life or the destruction of property. All appropriations made for contingent expenses or other general purposes, except appropriations made in fulfillment of contract obligations expressly authorized by law, or for objects required or authorized by law without reference to the amounts annually appropriated therefor, shall, on or before the beginning of each fiscal year, be so apportioned by monthly or other allotments as to prevent expenditures in one portion of the year which may necessitate deficiency or additional appropriations to complete the service of the fiscal year for which said appropriations are made; and all such apportionments shall be adhered to and shall not be waived or modified except upon the happening of some extraordinary emergency or unusual circumstance which could not be anticipated at the time of making such apportionment, but this provision shall not apply to the contingent appropriations of the Senate or House of Representatives; and in case said apportionments are waived or modified as herein provided, the same shall be waived or modified in writing by the head of such executive department or other Government establishment having control of the expenditure, and the reasons therefor shall be fully set forth in each particular case and communicated to Congress in connection with estimates for any additional appropriations required on account thereof. Any person violating any provision of this section shall be summarily removed from office and may also be punished by a fine of not less than $100 or by imprisonment for not less than one month. (R. S. § 3679; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1484, § 4, 33 Stat. 1257; Feb. 27, 1906, c. 510, § 3, 34 Stat. 48.)

666. Gratuitous services of members of Officers' Reserve Corps.—Section 665 of this title shall not be construed to prohibit the Secretary of War from accepting the gratuitous services of members of the Officers' Reserve Corps of the Army in the furtherance of the enrollment, organization, and training of the Officers' Reserve Corps, the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, or the Enlisted Reserve Corps of the Army or in consultation upon matters relating to the military service. (May 12, 1917, c. 12, 40 Stat. 72.)

667. Contracts for fuel for public buildings in advance of appropriations.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to contract for the purchase of fuel for public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department in advance of the availability of the appropriation for the payment thereof. Such contracts, however, shall not exceed the necessities of the current fiscal year. (Feb. 17, 1922, c. 55, 42 Stat. 388; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1109; Apr. 4, 1924, c. 84, Title I, 43 Stat. 83; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title I, 43 Stat. 781.)

668. Contracts for fuel by Secretary of War without regard to current fiscal year.—When, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, it is in the interest of the United States so to do, he is authorized to enter into contracts and to incur obligations for fuel in sufficient quantities to meet the requirements for one year without regard to the current fiscal year, and payments for supplies delivered under such contracts may be made from funds appropriated for the fiscal year in which the contract is made, or from funds appropriated or which may be appropriated for such supplies for the ensuing fiscal year. (June 30, 1921, c. 33, § 1, 42 Stat. 78.)

669. Apportionment of contingent fund of departments to offices and bureaus.—In addition to the apportionment required by section 665 of this title, the head of each executive department shall, on or before the beginning of each fiscal year, apportion to each office or bureau of his department the maximum amount to be expended therefor during the fiscal year out of the contingent fund or funds appropriated for the entire year for the department, and the amounts so apportioned shall not be increased or diminished during the year for which made except upon the written direction of the head of the department, in which there shall be fully expressed his reasons therefor; and there shall not be purchased out of any other fund any article for use in any office or bureau of any executive department in Washington, District of Columbia, which could be purchased out of the appropriations made for the regular contingent funds of such department or of its offices or bureaus. (Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, 37 Stat. 414.)

670. Footing of paragraphs to determine amount appropriated.—The total amount appropriated in the various paragraphs of an appropriation Act shall be determined by the correct footing up of the specific sums or rates appropriated in each paragraph contained therein unless otherwise expressly provided. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 1, 29 Stat. 148.)

671. Appropriations for contingent expenses of Congress; restrictions.—Appropriations made for contingent expenses of the House of Representatives or the Senate shall not be used for the payment of personal services except upon the express and specific authorization of the House or Senate in whose behalf such services are rendered. Nor shall such appropriations be used for any expenses not intimately and directly connected with the routine legislative business of either House of Congress, and the General Accounting Office shall apply the provisions of this section in the settlement of the accounts of expenditures from said appropriations incurred for services or materials. (Feb. 14, 1902, c. 17, § 1, 32 Stat. 26; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

672. Expenses of commissions and inquiries.—No accounting or disbursing officer of the Government shall allow or pay any account or charge whatever, growing out of, or in any way connected with, any commission or inquiry, except courts-martial or courts of inquiry in the military or naval service of the United States, until special appropriations shall have been made by law to pay such accounts and charges. This section, however, shall not extend to the contingent fund connected with the foreign intercourse of the Government, placed at the disposal of the President. (R. S. § 3681.)

673. Use of public moneys or appropriations for compensation or expenses of commission; details from executive departments to such commission prohibited.—No part of the public moneys, or of any appropriation made by Congress, shall be used for the payment of compensation or expenses of any commission, council, board, or other similar body, or any members thereof, or for expenses in connection with any work or the results of any work or action of any commission, council, board, or other similar body, unless the creation of the same shall be or shall have been authorized by law; nor shall there be employed by detail, hereafter or heretofore made, or otherwise personal services from any executive department or other Government establishment in connection with any such commission, council, board, or other similar body. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 299, § 9, 35 Stat. 1027.)

674. Restrictions on contingent appropriations.—No moneys appropriated for contingent, incidental, or miscellaneous purposes shall be expended or paid for official or clerical compensation. (R. S. § 3682.)

675. Purchases from contingent funds.—Except as otherwise provided no part of the contingent fund appropriated to any department, bureau, or office, shall be applied to the purchase of any articles except such as the head of the department shall deem necessary and proper to carry on the business of the department, bureau, or office, and shall, by written order, direct to be procured. (R. S. § 3683.)

676. Purchases by Department of Commerce.—Section 675 of this title shall not apply to any purchase made by the Department of Commerce when the aggregate amount involved does not exceed the sum of $25. (Mar. 3, 1921, c. 124, § 1, 41 Stat. 1303.)

677. Expenditure of appropriations for contingent expenses of Post Office Department.—The appropriations for the contingent expenses of the Post Office Department shall be expended as specially directed in the law, and according to the appropriations for the items specifically named, and no moneys appropriated for the specific purposes named under the head of "For contingent expenses of the Post Office Department" shall be diverted from one purpose to another; and all moneys unexpended for one or more specific purposes shall be turned into the Treasury, and not expended, by the superintendent and disbursing officer, for any object or purpose whatsoever other than the specific ones named in the appropriation for the "Contingent expenses of the Post Office Department." (June 19, 1878, c. 329, § 1, 20 Stat. 203.)

678. Purchases of books from appropriations for contingent expenses.—Law books, books of reference, and periodicals for use of any executive department, or other Government establishment not under an executive department, at the seat of Government, shall not be purchased or paid for from any appropriation made for contingent expenses or for any specific or general purpose unless such purchase is authorized and payment therefor specifically provided in the law granting the appropriation. (Mar. 15, 1898, c. 68, § 3, 30 Stat. 316.)

679. Expenditure from appropriations for private telephone service.—Except as otherwise provided by law, no money appropriated by any Act shall be expended for telephone service installed in any private residence or private apartment or for tolls or other charges for telephone service from private residences or private apartments, except for long-distance telephone tolls required strictly for the public business, and so shown by vouchers duly sworn to and approved by the head of the department, division, bureau, or office in which the official using such telephone or incurring the expense of such tolls shall be employed. (Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 7, 37 Stat. 414.)

680. Same; when allowed.—The provisions of section 679 of this title, or any other law, prohibiting the expenditure of public money for telephone services installed in private residences, shall not be construed to apply to or forbid the installation and use of such telephones as the Chief of Engineers may certify to be necessary for the prosecution of Government business and as the Secretary of War may authorize in connection with the construction and operation of locks and dams in the navigable waters of the United States. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 427, § 7, 42 Stat. 1042.)

681. Buildings under control of Treasury Department.—All appropriations for public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department shall be available immediately upon the approval of the Act containing such appropriations. (R. S. § 3684.)

682. Appropriations for public buildings available until completion of work.—All moneys appropriated for the construction of public buildings shall remain available until the completion of the work for which they are, or may be, appropriated; and upon the final completion of each or any of said buildings, and the payment of all outstanding liabilities therefor, the balance or balances remaining shall be immediately covered into the Treasury. (June 23, 1874, c. 476, § 1, 18 Stat. 275.)

683. Appropriations for public buildings available only for purposes specifically enumerated; separate estimates for administrative work; appointments.—The appropriations made to carry into effect the provisions of legislation authorizing the acquisition of land for sites for public buildings or the enlargement thereof, or for the construction, enlargement, extension, remodeling, or special repairs of public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department, shall be deemed to be available only for the purposes specifically enumerated in said legislation, and the Secretary of the Treasury shall submit to Congress annually detailed estimates of appropriations necessary for defraying all expenses, both in the office of the Supervising Architect and in the field, of every kind and character incident to, or requisite for, the administrative work of carrying into effect the provisions of public-building Acts, so far as the same relate to public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department, such estimates to be in addition to and separate and apart from the estimates of appropriations providing specifically for the salaries of certain officers and employees in the office of the Supervising Architect. The appropriations for said administrative work, when made, shall be immediately available for such personal services and all other expenses and supplies, both for office and field work, as the Secretary of the Treasury may deem necessary and specially order or approve to carry into effect the provisions of Acts relating to the acquisition of land for sites or the enlargement thereof, or for the construction, enlargement, extension, remodeling, or special repairs of public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department, including the annual appropriations under the control of the Supervising Architect: Provided, That such persons as may be regularly appointed and paid from such appropriations shall be subject, in all respects, to the laws, rules, and regulations respecting entrance into or separation from the classified civil service of the United States, and shall be employed only in the office of the Supervising Architect or in field work of construction and repair under his supervision and control, and the Secretary of the Treasury shall annually submit to Congress in the estimates a statement, showing the names of all persons whose salaries or compensation are paid from said appropriations, their duties, and the rate of compensation and the amount paid to each of them, respectively: And provided further, That this section shall not be construed as rendering unavailable for the employment of personal services in the office of the Supervising Architect, or for any other purpose now authorized by law, any of the annual appropriations under the control of the Supervising Architect. All appropriations made for extension of the limits of cost of public buildings or sites, or for the acquisition of land for sites, or the enlargement thereof, or for the erection, enlargement, extension, remodeling, or special repairs of public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department, or for any annual appropriation under the control of the Supervising Architect, shall be subject to the provisions hereof. (May 30, 1908, c. 228, § 6, 35 Stat 537; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 204, 42 Stat. 21.)

684. Pay of assistant custodians and janitors.—No fund appropriated, other than that for pay of assistant custodians and janitors and personal services in connection with the care of public buildings under control of the Treasury Department outside the District of Columbia, shall be used for this service. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 853, § 1, 31 Stat. 1153.)

685. Lighthouses.—Appropriations for establishing lighthouses shall be available for expenditure for two years after acts of State legislatures ceding jurisdiction over sites take effect. This section shall not, however, apply to general appropriations for lighthouse purposes. In no case shall any special appropriation be available for more than two years without further provision of law. (R. S. § 3685.)

686. Purchase or manufacture of stores or materials or performance of services by bureau or department for another bureau or department.—Whenever any Government bureau or department procures, by purchase or manufacture, stores or materials of any kind, or performs any service for another bureau or department, the funds of the bureau or department for which the stores or materials are to be procured or the service performed may be placed subject to the requisitions of the bureau or department making the procurement or performing the service for direct expenditure: Provided, That funds so placed with the procuring bureau shall remain available for a period of two years for the purposes for which the allocation was made unless sooner expended: And provided further, That when the stores being procured by one bureau of the War or Navy Departments for another bureau of such departments are for current issue during the year stores of equal value may be issued from stock on hand in place of any of those aforesaid. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 143, § 1, 38 Stat. 1084; May 21, 1920, c. 194, § 7, 41 Stat. 613.)

687. Appropriations for Court of Customs Appeals; detailed statement of expenditure.—A detailed statement of the expenditure of the appropriations for the United States Court of Customs Appeals shall be submitted to Congress at the beginning of each regular session thereof. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 237, § 1, 36 Stat. 1234.)

688. System of bookkeeping in Bureau of Indian Affairs; allotment of appropriations; classified statement to accompany estimates.—A system of bookkeeping shall be used in the Bureau of Indian Affairs, which will afford a ready analysis of expenditures by appropriations and allotments and by units of the service, showing for each class of work or activity carried on, the expenditures for the operation of the service, for repairs and preservation of property, for new and additional property, salaries and wages of employees, and for other expenditures. Provision shall be made by the Secretary of the Interior for further analysis of each of the foregoing classes of expenditures, if, in his judgment, he shall deem it advisable.

Annually a detailed statement of expenditures, as hereinbefore described, shall be incorporated in the annual report of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and transmitted by the Secretary of the Interior to Congress on or before the first Monday in December.

Before any appropriation for the Indian Service is obligated or expended, the Secretary of the Interior shall make allotments thereof in conformity with the intent and purpose of this section, and such allotments shall not be altered or modified except with his approval. (June 30, 1913, c. 4, § 26, 38 Stat. 103.)

PERMANENT ANNUAL APPROPRIATIONS

711. Permanent indefinite appropriations.—There are appropriated, out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purposes hereinafter specified, such sums as may be necessary for the same, respectively; and such appropriations shall be deemed permanent annual appropriations.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT

(1) Consular receipts.—For payment of the proceeds of the personal estates of American citizens who die abroad, to the legal representatives of the said deceased party upon proper demand and proof.

(2) Interest on public debt.—For payment of interest on the public debt, under the several Acts authorizing the same.

(3) Refunding moneys erroneously received and covered.—To refund moneys received and covered into the Treasury before the payment of legal and just charges against the same.

(4) Redemption of stamps (internal revenue).—Of such sum of money as may be necessary to repay the amount or value paid for internal-revenue stamps which may have been spoiled, destroyed, or rendered useless or unfit for the purpose intended, or which through mistake may have been improperly or unnecessarily used.

(5) Debentures and other charges (customs).—To pay debentures and other charges arising from duties, the revenue remaining in the hands of the collecting officers not being sufficient to pay said debentures.

(6) Debentures and drawbacks (customs).—For the payment of debentures or drawbacks, bounties, and allowances, which are or may be authorized, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury payable according to laws authorizing them: Provided, The collectors of customs shall be the disbursing agents to pay the same.

(7) Repayment of excess of deposits for unascertained duties (customs).—To repay to importers the excess of deposits for unascertained customs duties, or duties or other moneys paid under protest.

(8) Refunding duties on goods destroyed (customs).—For refunding duties paid or accruing on goods, wares, or merchandise injured or destroyed by accidental fire or other casualty, while in the custody of the officers of customs, in any public or private warehouse, or in the appraisers' stores undergoing appraisal, in pursuance of law or regulations of the Treasury Department, or after their arrival within the limits of any port of entry of the United States, and before the same have been landed under the supervision of the officers of the customs, or while in transportation under bond from the port of entry to any other port of the United States.

(9) Public Health Service.—The proceeds of leases and sales of marine-hospital buildings, and lands appertaining thereto, for the Public Health Service, except that all sums received by the Public Health Service during the fiscal year 1926, except allotments and reimbursements on account of patients of the United States Veterans' Bureau, shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

(10) Refunding proceeds of goods seized and sold.—To refund the proceeds of goods, wares, and merchandise seized and sold for having been illegally imported into the United States.

(11) Refunding proceeds of unclaimed merchandise (customs).—To repay to claimants the overplus received from the sale under the customs laws of unclaimed merchandise, on due proof of their property and entitlement.

WAR DEPARTMENT

(12) Soldiers' Home.—For the support of the Soldiers' Home the following funds are set apart and appropriated: All stoppages or fines adjudged against soldiers by sentence of courts-martial over and above any amount that may be due for the reimbursement of Government or of individuals; all forfeitures on account of desertion; and all moneys belonging to the estates of deceased soldiers, which are or may be unclaimed for the period of three years subsequent to the death of said soldier or soldiers, to be repaid by the commissioners of the institution, upon the demand of the heirs or legal representatives of the deceased.

(13) Horses and other property lost in military service.—To pay for horses, mules, oxen, wagons, carts, sleighs, harness, steamboats and other vessels, railroad engines and railroad cars, killed, lost, captured, destroyed, or abandoned while in the military service under the provisions of chapter 6 of this title.

NAVY DEPARTMENT

(14) Indemnity for lost clothing.—To allow and pay to each person, not an officer, employed on a vessel of the United States, sunk or otherwise destroyed, and whose personal effects have been lost, a sum not exceeding $60. In the event of the death of the person, this sum is to be paid to his proper legal representatives.

(15) Prize money.—For the proceeds of derelict and salvage cases adjudged by the courts of the United States to salvors.

INTERIOR DEPARTMENT

(16) Deposits for surveying public lands.—Of the amount deposited by individuals under the provisions of Title 43, to pay the cost and expenses incident to the survey of lands, not mineral or reserved, upon which they have settled, any excess of the sums so deposited, over and above the actual cost of surveys, comprising all expenses incident thereto, for which they were severally deposited, to be repaid to the depositors, respectively.

(17) Five per centum fund to States.—To pay to the States of Missouri, Michigan, Florida, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Oregon, and Nevada, 5 per centum of the net proceeds of sales of all public lands lying within their limits, for the purpose of education or of making public roads and improvements, in pursuance of the Acts of March 6, 1920, chapter 22 (Third Statutes, page 547); of June 23, 1836, chapter 121 (Fifth Statutes, page 60); of March 3, 1845, chapter 75 (Fifth Statutes, page 788); of March 3, 1845, chapter 76 (Fifth Statutes, page 790); of August 6, 1846, chapter 53 (Ninth Statutes, pages 58, 179); of February 26, 1857, chapter 60 (Eleventh Statutes, page 167); of February 14, 1859, chapter 33 (Eleventh Statutes, page 384); of February 28, 1859, chapter 65 (Eleventh Statutes, page 388); and of March 21, 1864, chapter 86 (Thirteenth Statutes, page 32).

(18) Indemnity for swamp lands for States.—To pay to the States the proceeds of swamp lands within their limits which may have been erroneously sold by the United States.

(19) Refunding money for lands erroneously sold.—To pay to the purchaser or purchasers the sum or sums of money received for lands erroneously sold by the United States.

(20) Payment of interest to North Carolina Cherokees.—To pay each member of every family of the Cherokee Nation of Indians that remained in the State of North Carolina at the time of the treaty of New Echota, May 23, 1836, interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum on a sum equal to $53.33 for each individual member, ascertained as provided in the Act of July 29, 1848, chapter 118, section 4 (9 Stat. 264).

MISCELLANEOUS

(21) Smithsonian Institution.—To pay for the erection of buildings and expenses of the Smithsonian Institution, being 6 per centum on the fund derived from the bequest of James Smithson. (R. S. §§ 3048, 3689; June 20, 1874, c. 328, § 4, 18 Stat. 109; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 129, § 1, 18 Stat. 343; June 19, 1878, c. 329, § 1, 20 Stat. 178; May 26, 1908, c. 198, § 1, 35 Stat. 274; June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 8, 36 Stat. 773; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 1, 37 Stat. 309; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, 43 Stat. 775.)

712. Balances of appropriations; expenditure.—Except as otherwise provided by law, all balances of appropriations contained in the annual appropriation bills and made specifically for the service of any fiscal year, and remaining unexpended at the expiration of such fiscal year, shall only be applied to the payment of expenses properly incurred during that year, or to the fulfillment of contracts properly made within that year; and balances not needed for such purposes shall be carried to the surplus fund. This section, however, shall not apply to appropriations known as permanent or indefinite appropriations. (R. S. § 3690.)

713. Same; carried to surplus fund.—After the 1st day of July, in each year, the Secretary of the Treasury shall cause all unexpended balances of appropriations which shall have remained upon the books of the Treasury for two fiscal years to be carried to the surplus fund and covered into the Treasury: Provided, That this provision shall not apply to permanent specific appropriations, appropriations for rivers and harbors, lighthouses, or public buildings, or the pay of the Navy and Marine Corps; but the appropriations named in this proviso shall continue available until otherwise ordered by Congress. (June 20, 1874, c. 328, § 5, 18 Stat. 110; July 26, 1886, c. 781, § 2, 24 Stat. 157; Mar. 3, 1919, c. 99, § 6, 40 Stat. 1309.)

714. Same; reports to Congress as to claims.—It shall be the duty of the General Accounting Office to continue to receive, examine, and consider the justice and validity of all claims under appropriations the balances of which have been exhausted or carried to the surplus fund under the provisions of section 713 of this title that may be brought before them within a period of five years. And the Secretary of the Treasury shall report the amount due each claimant, at the commencement of each session, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, who shall lay the same before Congress for consideration: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the reexamination and payment of any claim or account which has been once examined and rejected, unless reopened in accordance with existing law. (June 14, 1878, c. 191, § 4, 20 Stat. 115; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

715. Same; certification as to pending claims.—All balances of appropriations which shall have remained on the books of the Treasury, without being drawn against in the settlement of accounts, for two years from the date of the last appropriation made by law, shall be reported by the Secretary of the Treasury to the General Accounting Office, the proper officer of which shall examine the books of such office, and certify to the Secretary whether such balances will be required in the settlement of any accounts pending in such office; and if it appears that such balances will not be required for this purpose, then the Secretary may include such balances in his surplus-fund warrant, whether the head of the proper department shall have certified that it may be carried into the general Treasury or not. But no appropriation for the payment of the interest or principal of the public debt, or to which a longer duration is given by law, shall be thus treated. (R. S. § 3691; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

716. Same; for pay of Navy or Marine Corps.—All balances of moneys appropriated for the pay of the Navy or pay of the Marine Corps, for any year existing after the accounts for said year shall have been settled shall be covered into the Treasury. (July 26, 1886, c. 781, § 2, 24 Stat. 157.)

717. Same; reappropriation to other purpose construed as new appropriation.—The reappropriation and diversion of the unexpended balance of any appropriation to a purpose other than that for which it was originally made shall be construed and accounted as a new appropriation and the unexpended balance shall be reduced by the sum proposed to be so diverted. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 147, § 4, 38 Stat. 1161.)

718. Appropriations in annual appropriation Acts not permanent.—No specific or indefinite appropriation made subsequent to August 24, 1912, in any regular annual appropriation Act shall be construed to be permanent or available continuously without reference to a fiscal year unless it belongs to one of the following four classes: "Rivers and harbors," "lighthouses," "public buildings," and "pay of the Navy and Marine Corps," last specifically named in and excepted from the operation of the provisions of section 713 of this title, or unless it is made in terms expressly providing that it shall continue available beyond the fiscal year for which the appropriation Act in which it is contained makes provision. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 355, § 7, 37 Stat. 487; Mar. 3, 1919, c. 99, § 6, 40 Stat. 1309.)

719. Unexpended balances for National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers.—The provisions of sections 712 and 715 of this title shall apply to all appropriations made for the maintenance of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers: Provided, That it shall be the duty of the managers of said home, on or before the 1st day of October in each year, to furnish to the Secretary of War estimates, in detail, for the support of said home for the fiscal year commencing on the 1st day of July thereafter, and the Secretary of War shall annually include such estimates in his estimates for his department. (Oct. 2, 1888, c. 1069, 25 Stat. 543.)

720. Proceeds of sales of material.—All moneys received from the leasing or sale of marine hospitals, or the sale of Coast Guard cutters, or from the sale of commissary stores to the officers and enlisted men of the Army, or from the sale of materials, stores, or supplies sold to officers and soldiers of the Army, or from sales of condemned clothing of the Navy, or from sales of materials, stores, or supplies to any exploring or surveying expedition authorized by law, shall respectively revert to that appropriation out of which they were originally expended, and shall be applied to the purposes for which they are appropriated by law. (R. S. § 3692; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 249; Jan. 28, 1915, c. 20, § 1, 38 Stat. 800.)

721. Payments of appropriations for charitable purposes.—All moneys appropriated for the aid, use, support, or benefit of any charitable, industrial, or other association, institution, or corporation, shall be placed to the credit of the proper fiscal officer of such association, institution, or corporation, by warrant of the Secretary of the Treasury, on the books of the Treasurer of the United States, or a designated depositary of the United States other than a national bank, and shall be paid out only on the checks of such fiscal officer, drawn payable to the order of the person to whom payment is to be made, for services, materials, or any other purpose, and stating in writing thereon the specific object or purpose to which the avails thereof are to be applied: Provided, That when payments are to be made under $20, such fiscal officer may check in his own name, but shall state in writing on the check that the avails thereof are to be applied to the payment of small claims, and shall furnish, to the Treasurer, or designated depositary on whom the check is drawn, a certified list of such claims, which list shall set forth the amount and nature of each claim and the name of each claimant. (June 23, 1874, c. 455, § 1, 18 Stat. 216.)

722. Term of service of Members of Congress as trustees or directors of corporations or institutions appropriated for.—In all cases where Members of Congress or Senators are appointed to represent Congress on any board of trustees or board of directors of any corporation or institution to which Congress makes any appropriation, the term of said Members or Senators, as such trustee or director, shall continue until the expiration of two months after the first meeting of the Congress chosen next after their appointment. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 199, § 1, 27 Stat. 553.)

Section 731. Payment in coin.—The faith of the United States is solemnly pledged to the payment in coin or its equivalent of all the obligations of the United States not bearing interest, known as United States notes, and of all the interest-bearing obligations of the United States, except in cases where the law authorizing the issue of any such obligations has expressly provided that the same may be paid in lawful money or other currency than gold and silver. But none of the interest-bearing obligations not already due shall be redeemed or paid before maturity, unless at such time United States notes are convertible into coin at the option of the holder, or unless at such time bonds of the United States bearing a lower rate of interest than the bonds to be redeemed can be sold at par in coin. (R. S. § 3693.)

732. Interest; payment.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall cause to be paid, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, any interest falling due, or accruing, on any portion of the public debt authorized by law. (R. S. § 3698.)

733. Same; anticipation.—The Secretary of the Treasury may anticipate the payment of interest on the public debt, by a period not exceeding one year, from time to time, either with or without a rebate of interest upon the coupons, as to him may seem expedient; and he is authorized to dispose of any gold in the Treasury of the United States, not necessary for the payment of interest of the public debt. The obligation to create the sinking fund shall not, however, be impaired thereby. (R. S. § 3699.)

734. Purchase of coin.—The Secretary of the Treasury may purchase coin with any of the bonds or notes of the United States, authorized by law, at such rates and upon such terms as he may deem most advantageous to the public interest. (R. S. § 3700.)

735. Destroyed bonds; duplicates.—Whenever it appears to the Secretary of the Treasury, by clear and unequivocal proof, that any interest-bearing bond of the United States has, without bad faith upon the part of the owner, been destroyed, wholly or in part, or so defaced as to impair its value to the owner, and such bond is identified by number and description, the Secretary of the Treasury shall, under such regulations and with such restrictions as to time and retention for security or otherwise as he may prescribe, issue a duplicate thereof, having the same time to run, bearing like interest as the bond so proved to have been destroyed or defaced, and so marked as to show the original number of the bond destroyed and the date thereof. But when such destroyed or defaced bonds appear to have been of such a class or series as has been or may, before such application, be called in for redemption, instead of issuing duplicates thereof, they shall be paid, with such interest only as would have been paid if they had been presented in accordance with such call. (R. S. § 3702.)

736. Same; indemnity for.—The owner of such destroyed or defaced bond shall surrender the same, or so much thereof as may remain, and shall file in the Treasury a bond in a penal sum of double the amount of the destroyed or defaced bond, and the interest which would accrue thereon until the principal becomes due and payable, with two good and sufficient sureties, residents of the United States, to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, with condition to indemnify and save harmless the United States from any claim upon such destroyed or defaced bond. (R. S. § 3703.)

737. Lost registered bond; duplicate for.—Whenever it is proved to the Secretary of the Treasury, by clear and satisfactory evidence, that any duly registered bond of the United States, bearing interest, issued for valuable consideration in pursuance of law, has been lost or destroyed, so that the same is not held by any person as his own property, the Secretary shall issue a duplicate of such registered bond, of like amount and bearing like interest and marked in the like manner as the bond so proved to be lost or destroyed. (R. S. § 3704.)

738. Same; indemnity for.—The owner of such missing bond shall first file in the Treasury a bond in a penal sum equal to the amount of such missing bond, and the interest which would accrue thereon, until the principal thereof becomes due and payable, with two good and sufficient sureties, residents of the United States, to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, with condition to indemnify and save harmless the United States from any claim because of the lost or destroyed bond. (R. S. § 3705.)

739. Exchange of coupon for registered bonds.—The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to issue, upon such terms and under such regulations as he may from time to time prescribe, registered bonds in exchange for and in lieu of any coupon bonds which have been or may be lawfully issued; such registered bonds to be similar in all respects to the registered bonds issued under the Acts authorizing the issue of the coupon bonds offered for exchange. (R. S. § 3706.)

740. Credit to officers for stolen notes.—When any officer or agent duly authorized to receive, redeem, or cancel any Treasury notes issued by authority of law, shall receive, or pay, any Treasury note which has been previously received or redeemed by any officer or agent having authority to receive or redeem such note, and which has subsequently thereto been purloined and put into circulation, the Secretary of the Treasury, upon full and satisfactory proof that the same has been received or paid in good faith, and in the exercise of ordinary prudence, may allow a credit for the amount of such note, to the officer or agent so receiving or paying the same. (R. S. § 3707.)

741. Purchase or redemption of bonds.—The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time apply the surplus money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, or so much thereof as he may consider proper, to the purchase or redemption of the United States bonds: Provided, That the bonds so purchased or redeemed shall constitute no part of the sinking fund, but shall be canceled. (Mar. 3, 1881, c. 133, § 2, 21 Stat. 457.)

742. Exemption from taxation.—Except as otherwise provided by law, all stocks, bonds, Treasury notes, and other obligations of the United States, shall be exempt from taxation by or under State or municipal or local authority. (R. S. § 3701.)

743. Panama Canal bonds to have rights and privileges of other bonds.—The 2 per cent bonds of the United States authorized by section 8 of the Act of June 28, 1902, chapter 1302, shall have all the rights and privileges accorded by law to other 2 per cent bonds of the United States. (Dec. 21, 1905, c. 3, § 1, 34 Stat. 5.)

744. Redemption, payment, and exemption from taxes of Panama Canal bonds.—Bonds issued under authority of section 8 of the Act of June 28, 1902 (chapter 1302, Thirty-second Statutes, page 484), shall be redeemable in gold coin at the pleasure of the United States after 10 years from the date of their issue, and payable 30 years from such date, and bear interest payable quarterly in gold coin at the rate of 2 per centum per annum; and such bonds shall be exempt from all taxes or duties of the United States, as well as from taxation in any form by or under State, municipal, or local authority. (June 28, 1902, c. 1302, § 8, 32 Stat. 484.)

745. Payment, interest, and exemption from taxes of Panama Canal bonds.—Bonds issued under authority of section 39 of the Act of August 5, 1909 (chapter 6, Thirty-sixth Statutes, page 117) shall be payable fifty years from the date of issue, and bear interest payable quarterly in gold coin at a rate not exceeding 3 per centum per annum; and such bonds shall be exempt from all taxes or duties of the United States, as well as from taxation in any form by or under State, municipal, or local authority. (Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 39, 36 Stat. 117.)

746. Payment, interest, exemptions from taxes, etc., of First Liberty bonds.—Bonds issued under section 1 of the First Liberty Bond Act (Act of April 24, 1917, chapter 4, section 1, Fortieth Statutes, page 35), shall be subject to the terms and conditions of issue, conversion, redemption, maturities, payment, and rate and time of payment of interest, not exceeding 3½ per centum per annum, as the Secretary of the Treasury has prescribed. The principal and interest thereof shall be payable in United States gold coin of the present standard of value and shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation, except estate or inheritance taxes, imposed by authority of the United States, or its possessions, or by any State or local taxing authority; but such bonds shall not bear the circulation privilege. (Apr. 24, 1917, c. 4, § 1, 40 Stat. 35.)

747. Tax exemptions; second and subsequent Liberty loans.—All bonds and certificates authorized by sections 752, 754, and 757 of this title shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest from all taxation imposed on September 24, 1917, or thereafter by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority, except (a) estate or inheritance taxes, and (b) graduated additional income taxes, commonly known as surtaxes, and excess profits and war-profits taxes, imposed on September 24, 1917, or thereafter by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations. The interest on an amount of such bonds and certificates the principal of which does not exceed in the aggregate $5,000, owned by any individual, partnership, association, or corporation, shall be exempt from the taxes provided for in subdivision (b) of this section. (Sept. 24, 1917, c. 56, § 7, 40 Stat. 291.)

748. Additional Liberty bond tax exemptions.—In addition to the exemptions contained in section 747 of this title 4 per centum and 4¼ per centum Liberty bonds shall be exempt from graduated additional income taxes, commonly known as surtaxes, and excess-profits and war-profits taxes, imposed on June 2, 1924, or thereafter by the United States upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, corporations, or associations, in respect to the interest on aggregate principal amounts thereof as follows:

Until the expiration of two years after the date of the termination of the war between the United States and the German Government (July 2, 1921), as fixed by proclamation of the President, on $125,000 aggregate principal amount; and for three years more on $50,000 aggregate principal amount. (June 2, 1924, 4.01 p. m., c. 234, § 1028, 43 Stat. 349.)

749. First, second, third, and fourth Liberty loans; bonds; exemption from taxation.—(a) Until the expiration of five years after the date of the termination of the war between the United States and the German Government, (July 2, 1921) as fixed by proclamation of the President, in addition to the exemptions provided in section 747 of this title in respect to the interest on an amount of bonds and certificates, authorized by sections 752, 754 and 757 of this title, the principal of which does not exceed in the aggregate $5,000, and in addition to all other exemptions provided in the Second Liberty Bond Act (September 24, 1917, chapter 56, Fortieth Statutes, page 288) or the supplement to Second Liberty Bond Act, (September 24, 1918, chapter 176, Fortieth Statutes, page 965) the interest received on and after January 1, 1919, on an amount of bonds of the first Liberty loan converted, dated November 15, 1917, May 9, 1918, or October 24, 1918, the second Liberty loan converted and unconverted, the third Liberty loan, and the fourth Liberty loan, the principal of which does not exceed $30,000 in the aggregate, owned by any individual, partnership, association, or corporation, shall be exempt from graduated additional income taxes, commonly known as surtaxes, and excess-profits and war-profits taxes, imposed on March 3, 1919, or thereafter by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations or corporations.

(b) In addition to the exemption provided in subdivision (a), and in addition to the other exemptions therein referred to, the interest received on and after January 1, 1919, on an amount of the bonds therein specified the principal of which does not exceed $20,000 in the aggregate, owned by any individual, partnership, association, or corporation, shall be exempt from the taxes therein specified: Provided, That no owner of such bonds shall be entitled to such exemption in respect to the interest on an aggregate principal amount of such bonds exceeding three times the principal amount of notes of the Victory Liberty loan originally subscribed for by such owner and still owned by him at the date of his tax return. (Mar. 3, 1919, c. 100, § 2, 40 Stat. 1310.)

750. Bonds and certificates of indebtedness beneficially owned by nonresident aliens not engaged in business in United States exempt from taxation.—Notwithstanding the provisions of the Second Liberty Bond Act (September 24, 1917, chapter 56, Fortieth Statutes, page 288) or of chapter 10 of Title 15, (War Finance Corporation Act) or of any other law, bonds, notes, and certificates of indebtedness of the United States and bonds of the War Finance Corporation shall, while beneficially owned by a nonresident alien individual, or a foreign corporation, partnership, or association, not engaged in business in the United States, be exempt both as to principal and interest from any and all taxation imposed on July 9, 1918 or thereafter by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States or by any local taxing authority. (July 9, 1918, c. 142. § 3, 40 Stat. 845; Mar. 3, 1919, c. 100, § 4, 40 Stat. 1311.)

751. Consols of 1930, interest, payment, exemption from taxes.—The bonds of the United States bearing interest at 5 per centum per annum, payable February 1, 1904, and any bonds of the United States bearing interest at 4 per centum per annum, payable July 1, 1907, and any bonds of the United States bearing interest at 3 per centum per annum, payable August 1, 1908, exchanged for an equal amount of coupon or registered bonds of the United States in the form prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, in denominations of $50 or any multiple thereof, bearing interest at the rate of 2 per centum per annum, payable quarterly, shall be payable at the pleasure of the United States after thirty years from the date of their issue, and said bonds to be payable, principal and interest, in gold coin of the standard value on March 14, 1900, and be exempt from the payment of all taxes or duties of the United States, as well as from taxation in any form by or under State, municipal, or local authority. (Mar. 14, 1900, c. 41, § 11, 31 Stat. 48.)

752. Second, third, and fourth Liberty loans; amount; bonds.—The Secretary of the Treasury, with the approval of the President, is authorized to borrow, from time to time, on the credit of the United States for the purposes of sections 752 to 754, 757, 758, 760, 764 to 766, 769, 771, 773, and 774 of this title, and to meet expenditures authorized for the national security and defense and other public purposes authorized by law, not exceeding in the aggregate $20,000,000,000, and to issue therefor bonds of the United States, in addition to the $2,000,000,000 bonds already issued or offered for subscription under authority of the Act approved April 24, 1917 (chapter 4, Fortieth Statutes, page 35), entitled "An Act to authorize an issue of bonds to meet expenditures for the national security and defense, and, for the purpose of assisting in the prosecution of the war, to extend credit to foreign governments, and for other purposes": Provided, That of this sum $3,063,945,460 shall be in lieu of that amount of the unissued bonds authorized by sections 1 and 4 of said Act approved April 24, 1917, $225,000,000 shall be in lieu of that amount of the unissued bonds authorized by section 39 of the Act approved August 5, 1909 (chapter 6, Thirty-sixth Statutes, page 117), $150,000,000 shall be in lieu of the unissued bonds authorized by the joint resolution approved March 4, 1917 (chapter 191, Thirty-ninth Statutes, page 1201), and $100,000,000 shall be in lieu of the unissued bonds authorized by section 400 of the Act approved March 3, 1917 (chapter 159, Thirty-ninth Statutes, page 1002).

The bonds herein authorized shall be in such form or forms and denomination or denominations and subject to such terms and conditions of issue, conversion, redemption, maturities, payment, and rate or rates of interest, not exceeding 4¼ per centum per annum, and time or times of payment of interest, as the Secretary of the Treasury from time to time at or before the issue thereof may prescribe. The principal and interest thereof shall be payable in United States gold coin of the present standard of value.

The bonds herein authorized shall from time to time first be offered at not less than par as a popular loan, under such regulations, prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury from time to time, as will in his opinion give the people of the United States as nearly as may be an equal opportunity to participate therein, but he may make allotment in full upon applications for smaller amounts of bonds in advance of any date which he may set for the closing of subscriptions and may reject or reduce allotments upon later applications and applications for larger amounts, and may reject or reduce allotments upon applications from incorporated banks and trust companies for their own account and make allotment in full or larger allotments to others, and may establish a graduated scale of allotments, and may from time to time adopt any or all of said methods, should any such action be deemed by him to be in the public interest: Provided, That such reduction or increase of allotments of such bonds shall be made under general rules to be prescribed by said Secretary and shall apply to all subscribers similarly situated. And any portion of the bonds so offered and not taken may be otherwise disposed of by the Secretary of the Treasury in such manner and at such price or prices, not less than par, as he may determine. The Secretary may make special arrangements for subscriptions at not less than par from persons in the military or naval forces of the United States, but any bonds issued to such persons shall be in all respects the same as other bonds of the same issue. (Sept. 24, 1917, c. 56, § 1, 40 Stat. 288; Apr. 4, 1918, c. 44, § 1, 40 Stat. 502; July 9, 1918, c. 142, § 1, 40 Stat. 844.)

753. United States notes; (a) Authority to issue; amount; forms and denominations; interest; payment and redemption.—In addition to the bonds and certificates of indebtedness and war-savings certificates authorized by sections 752 to 754, 757, 758, 760, 764 to 766, 769, 771, 773 and 774 of this title, the Secretary of the Treasury, with the approval of the President, is authorized to borrow from time to time on the credit of the United States for the purposes of said sections, to provide for the purchase or redemption of any notes issued thereunder, and to meet public expenditures authorized by law, not exceeding in the aggregate $7,500,000,000 at any one time outstanding, and to issue therefor notes of the United States at not less than par in such form or forms and denomination or denominations, containing such terms and conditions, and at such rate or rates of interest, as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, and each series of notes so issued shall be payable at such time not less than one year nor more than five years from the date of its issue as he may prescribe, and may be redeemable before maturity (at the option of the United States) in whole or in part, upon not more than one year's nor less than four months' notice, and under such rules and regulations and during such period as he may prescribe.

(b) Series; exemptions.—The notes herein authorized may be issued in any one or more of the following series as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe in connection with the issue thereof:

(1) Exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation (except estate or inheritance taxes) imposed on September 14, 1917, or thereafter by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority;

(2) Exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation imposed on September 14, 1917, or thereafter by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority, except (a) estate or inheritance taxes, and (b) graduated additional income taxes, commonly known as surtaxes, and excess-profits and war-profits taxes, imposed on September 14, 1917, or thereafter by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations;

(3) Exempt, both as to principal and interest, as provided in paragraph (2); and with an additional exemption from the taxes referred to in clause (b) of such paragraph, of the interest on an amount of such notes the principal of which does not exceed $30,000, owned by any individual, partnership, association, or corporation; or

(4) Exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation imposed on September 14, 1917, or thereafter by the United States, any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority, except (a) estate or inheritance taxes, and (b) all income, excess-profits, and war-profits taxes, imposed on September 14, 1917, or thereafter by the United States, upon the income or profits of individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations.

(c) Conversion into other series.—If the notes authorized under this section are offered in more than one series bearing the same date of issue, the holder of notes of any such series shall (under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury) have the option of having such notes held by him converted at par into notes of any other such series offered bearing the same date of issue.

(d) No circulation privileges; payment in gold coin; "bond" or "bonds" defined.—None of the notes authorized by this section shall bear the circulation privilege. The principal and interest thereof shall be payable in United States gold coin of the present standard of value. The word "bond" or "bonds" where it appears in sections 735 to 738, 760, 765, 771 and 773 of this title and section 84 of Title 12, but in such sections only, shall be deemed to include notes issued under this section. (Sept. 24, 1917, c. 56, § 18; Mar. 3, 1919, c. 100, § 1, 40 Stat. 1309; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1401, 42 Stat. 321.)

754. Second and third Liberty loans; additional loans; certificates of indebtedness.—In addition to the bonds authorized by section 752 of this title the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to borrow from time to time, on the credit of the United States, for the purposes of sections 752 to 754, 757, 758, 760, 764 to 766, 769, 771, 773, and 774 of this title, and to meet public expenditures authorized by law, such sum or sums as in his judgment may be necessary, and to issue therefor certificates of indebtedness of the United States at not less than par in such form or forms and subject to such terms and conditions and at such rate or rates of interest as he may prescribe; and each certificate so issued shall be payable at such time not exceeding one year from the date of its issue, and may be redeemable before maturity upon such terms and conditions, and the interest accruing thereon shall be payable at such time or times as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. The sum of such certificates outstanding hereunder and under section 755 of this title, shall not at any time exceed in the aggregate $10,000,000,000. (Sept. 24, 1917, c. 56, § 5, 40 Stat. 290; Apr. 4, 1918, c. 44, § 4, 40 Stat. 504; Mar. 3, 1919, c. 100, § 3, 40 Stat. 1311.)

755. First Liberty loan; certificates of indebtedness.—In addition to the bonds authorized by sections 1 and 4 of the Act of April 24, 1917 (chapter 4, Fortieth Statutes, page 36), the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to borrow from time to time, on the credit of the United States, for the purposes of said Act and to meet public expenditures authorized by law, such sum or sums as, in his judgment, may be necessary, and to issue therefor certificates of indebtedness at not less than par in such form and subject to such terms and conditions and at such rate of interest, not exceeding 3½ per centum per annum, as he may prescribe; and each certificate so issued shall be payable, with the interest accrued thereon, at such time, not exceeding one year from the date of its issue, as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. Certificates of indebtedness herein authorized shall not bear the circulation privilege, and the sum of such certificates outstanding shall at no time exceed in the aggregate $2,000,000,000, and such certificates shall be exempt, both as to principal and interest, from all taxation, except estate or inheritance taxes, imposed by authority of the United States, or its possessions, or by any State or local taxing authority. (Apr. 24, 1917, c. 4, § 6, 40 Stat. 36.)

756. Loans to meet public expenditures; certificates of indebtedness; limitation; counterfeiting.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to borrow, from time to time, at a rate of interest not exceeding 3 per centum per annum, such sum or sums as in his judgment, may be necessary to meet public expenditures, and to issue therefor certificates of indebtedness in such form and in such denominations as he may prescribe; and each certificate so issued shall be payable, with the interest accrued thereon, at such time, not exceeding one year from the date of its issue, as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe: Provided, That the sum of such certificates outstanding shall at no time exceed $300,000,000, and the provisions of existing law respecting counterfeiting and other fraudulent practices are extended to the bonds and certificates of indebtedness authorized by this section. (June 13, 1898, c. 448, § 32, 30 Stat. 466; Aug. 5, 1909, c. 6, § 40, 36 Stat. 117; Mar. 3, 1917, c. 159, § 401, 39 Stat. 1003.)

757. Second and third Liberty loans; additional loans; war-savings certificates.—In addition to the bonds authorized by section 752 of this title and the certificates of indebtedness authorized by section 754 of this title, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to borrow from time to time, on the credit of the United States, for the purposes of sections 752 to 754, 757, 758, 760, 764 to 766, 769, 771, 773 and 774 of this title and to meet public expenditures authorized by law, such sum or sums as in his judgment may be necessary, and to issue therefor, at such price or prices and upon such terms and conditions as he may determine, war-savings certificates of the United States on which interest to maturity may be discounted in advance at such rate or rates and computed in such manner as he may prescribe. Such war-savings certificate shall be in such form or forms and subject to such terms and conditions, and may have such provisions for payment thereof before maturity, as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. Each war-savings certificate so issued shall be payable at such time, not exceeding five years from the date of its issue, and may be redeemable before maturity, upon such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. The sum of such war-savings certificates outstanding shall not at any one time exceed in the aggregate $4,000,000,000. It shall not be lawful for any one person at any one time to hold war-savings certificates of any one series to an aggregate amount exceeding $5,000. The Secretary of the Treasury may, under such regulations and upon such terms and conditions as he may prescribe, issue, or cause to be issued, stamps to evidence payments for or on account of such certificates. (Sept. 24, 1917, c. 56, § 6, 40 Stat. 291; Sept. 24, 1918, c. 176, § 2, 40 Stat. 966; Nov. 23, 1921, c. 136, § 1402, 42 Stat. 321.)

758. Bonds and certificates not to bear circulation privilege.—None of the bonds authorized by section 752 of this title nor of the certificates authorized by sections 754 and 757 of this title shall bear the circulation privilege. (Sept. 24, 1917, c. 56, § 7, 40 Stat. 291.)

759. First Liberty loan; appropriation to pay expenses.—In order to pay all necessary expenses, including rent, connected with any operations under sections 746, 755, 759, 764, and 804 of this title, a sum not exceeding one-tenth of 1 per centum of the amount of certificates of indebtedness therein authorized is hereby appropriated, or as much thereof as may be necessary, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be expended as the Secretary of the Treasury may direct: Provided, That, in addition to the reports required by law, the Secretary of the Treasury shall, annually, on the first Monday in December, transmit to the Congress a detailed statement of all expenditures under such sections. (Apr. 24, 1917, c. 4, § 8, 40 Stat. 37.)

760. Second and third Liberty loans; appropriation to pay expenses of issue of bonds; report of expenditures.—In order to pay all necessary expenses, including rent, connected with any operations under sections 752 to 754, 757, 758, 760, 764 to 766, 769, 771, and 773 of this title, a sum not exceeding one-fifth of 1 per centum of the amount of bonds and war-saving certificates and one-tenth of 1 per centum of the amount of certificates of indebtedness therein authorized is hereby appropriated, or as much thereof as may be necessary, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be expended as the Secretary of the Treasury may direct: Provided, That in addition to the reports required by law, the Secretary of the Treasury shall, annually on the first Monday in December, transmit to the Congress a detailed statement of all expenditures under such sections. (Sept. 24, 1917, c. 56, § 10, 40 Stat. 292.)

761. Appropriations for expense available for subsequent public debt issues.—The appropriations contained in sections 759 and 760 of this title, are hereby made applicable to any operations arising in connection with any public debt issues made subsequently to June 30, 1921, pursuant to the authority contained in sections 746, 752 to 755, 757 to 760, 764 to 766, 769, 771, 773 and 804 of this title, and section 84 of Title 12, as amended and supplemented: Provided, That with respect to operations on account of any such issue made after June 16, 1921, such appropriations shall be available only until the close of the fiscal year next following the fiscal year in which such issue was made. (May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 646; June 16, 1921, c. 23, § 1, 42 Stat. 36.)

762. Expenses of sale and distribution of war-savings and thrift stamps.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to advance to the Postmaster General from the appropriation for expenses of preparation and issuance of war-savings stamps such sums as may be necessary to meet the expenses of the Post Office Department for clerical service and other necessary expenditures in connection with the distribution, sale, and keeping of accounts of war-savings and thrift stamps. (Nov. 4, 1918, c. 201, § 1, 40 Stat. 1035.)

763. First and second Liberty loans; bonds; conversion into bonds bearing higher interest rate; extension of time for.—The privilege of converting 4 per centum bonds of the first Liberty loan converted and 4 per centum bonds of the second Liberty loan into 4¼ per centum bonds, which privilege arose on May 9, 1918, and expired on November 9, 1918, may be extended by the Secretary of the Treasury for such period, upon such terms and conditions and subject to such rules and regulations, as he may prescribe. For the purpose of computing the amount of interest payable, bonds presented for conversion under any such extension shall be deemed to be converted on the dates for the payment of the semiannual interest on the respective bonds so presented for conversion next succeeding the date of such presentation. (Mar. 3, 1919, c. 100, § 5, 40 Stat. 1311.)

764. Use of proceeds; exchange of bonds.—Bonds shall be issued from time to time upon the interchange of bonds of different denominations and of coupon and registered bonds and upon the transfer of registered bonds issued under sections 1 and 4 of the Act of April 24, 1917 (chapter 4, Fortieth Statutes, page 36), under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe, and, if and to the extent that the privilege of conversion provided for in such bonds shall arise and shall be exercised, in accordance with such provision for such conversion. The proceeds of the bonds authorized by section 752 of this title may be used for the purpose of defraying expenditures, and to reimburse the Treasury for expenditures not covered by previous issues of bonds, on account of the Panama Canal; to raise the money necessary to carry into effect the provisions of section 79 of Title 50, relative to the production of nitrates; to meet expenditures and reimburse the Treasury for expenditures on account of the Mexican situation, the construction of the armor plate plant, the construction of the Alaskan railway, and the purchase of the Danish West Indies; to meet emergency expenditures directed by the President for naval construction or the expediting thereof; and to redeem the 3 per centum loan of 1908 to 1918, maturing August 1, 1918. (Sept. 24, 1917, c. 56, § 11, 40 Stat. 292; Apr. 24, 1917, c. 4, § 4, 40 Stat. 36.)

765. Bonds receivable in payment of estate or inheritance taxes.—Any bonds of the United States bearing interest at a higher rate than 4 per centum per annum (whether issued under section 752 of this title or upon conversion of bonds issued under that section or under the Act of April 24, 1917, (chapter 4, Fortieth Statutes, page 35), which have been owned by any person continuously for at least six months prior to the date of his death, and which upon such date constitute part of his estate, shall, under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, be receivable by the United States at par and accrued interest in payment of any estate or inheritance taxes imposed by the United States, under or by virtue of any present or future law upon such estate or the inheritance thereof. (Sept. 24, 1917, c. 56, § 14; Apr. 4, 1918, c. 44, § 6, 40 Stat.)

766. Bonds or certificates payable in foreign money.—Any of the bonds or certificates of indebtedness authorized by sections 752 to 754, 757, 758, 760, 764 to 766, 769, 771, 773, and 774 of this title may be issued by the Secretary of the Treasury payable, principal and interest, in any foreign money or foreign moneys, as expressed in such bonds or certificates, but not also in United States gold coin, and he may dispose of such bonds or certificates in such manner and at such prices, not less than par, as he may determine, without compliance with the provisions of the third paragraph of section 752 of this title. In determining the amount of bonds and certificates issuable under said section the dollar equivalent of the amount of any bonds or certificates payable in foreign money or foreign moneys shall be determined by the par of exchange at the date of issue thereof, as estimated by the Director of the Mint, and proclaimed by the Secretary of the Treasury, in pursuance of the provisions of section 372 of this title. The Secretary of the Treasury may designate depositaries in foreign countries, with which may be deposited as he may determine all or any part of the proceeds of any bonds or certificates authorized by said sections payable in foreign money or foreign moneys. (Sept. 24, 1917, c. 56, § 16; Apr. 4, 1918, c. 44, § 6, 40 Stat.)

767. Sinking fund for retirement of Liberty bonds and notes.—There is created in the Treasury a cumulative sinking fund for the retirement of bonds and notes issued under sections 752 to 755 and 757 of this title (the First Liberty Bond Act, the Second Liberty Bond Act, the Third Liberty Bond Act, the Fourth Liberty Bond Act, and the Victory Liberty Loan Act) and the First Liberty Bond Act (April 24, 1917, chapter 4, Fortieth Statutes, page 35), and outstanding on July 1, 1920, and of bonds and notes thereafter issued, under any of such sections, for refunding purposes. The sinking fund and all additions thereto are hereby appropriated for the payment of such bonds and notes at maturity, or for the redemption or purchase thereof before maturity by the Secretary of the Treasury at such prices and upon such terms and conditions as he shall prescribe, and shall be available until all such bonds and notes are retired. The average cost of the bonds and notes purchased shall not exceed par and accrued interest. Bonds and notes purchased, redeemed, or paid out of the sinking fund shall be canceled and retired and shall not be reissued. For each fiscal year, until all such bonds and notes are retired there is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purposes of such sinking fund, an amount equal to the sum of (1) 2½ per centum of the aggregate amount of such bonds and notes outstanding on July 1, 1920, less an amount equal to the par amount of any obligations of foreign governments held by the United States on July 1, 1920, and (2) the interest which would have been payable during the fiscal year for which the appropriation is made on the bonds and notes purchased, redeemed, or paid out of the sinking fund during such year or in previous years.

The Secretary of the Treasury shall submit to Congress at the beginning of each regular session a separate annual report of the action taken under the authority contained in this section. (Mar. 3, 1919, c. 100, § 6, 40 Stat. 1311; Mar. 2, 1923, c. 179, 42 Stat. 1427.)

768. Bonds and certificates of indebtedness payable in gold coin.—Any bonds and certificates of indebtedness of the United States issued after February 4, 1910, shall be payable, principal and interest, in United States gold coin of the standard of value on February 4, 1910; and such bonds may be issued in such denomination as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. (Feb. 4, 1910, c. 25, § 1, 36 Stat. 192; Mar. 3, 1917, c. 159, § 400, 39 Stat. 1002; Mar. 4, 1917, c. 191, 39 Stat. 1201; Apr. 24, 1917, c. 4, § 1, 40 Stat. 35.)

769. Certificates of indebtedness; taxation; expense of issue.—Any certificates of indebtedness issued after February 4, 1910, shall be exempt from all taxes or duties of the United States (but, in the case of certificates issued after September 1, 1917, only if and to the extent provided in connection with the issue thereof), as well as from taxation in any form by or under State, municipal, or local authority; and a sum not exceeding one-tenth of 1 per centum of the amount of any certificates of indebtedness issued is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of preparing, advertising, and issuing the same. (Feb. 4, 1910, c. 25, § 2, 36 Stat. 192; Sept. 24, 1917, c. 56, § 11, 40 Stat. 292.)

770. Certain bonds not receivable as security for national bank circulating notes.—The bonds issued under section 39 of the Act of August 5, 1909 (chapter 6, Thirty-sixth Statutes, page 117), which carry a provision that such bonds shall not be receivable by the Treasurer of the United States as security for the issue of circulating notes to national banks shall not be receivable for that purpose. (Mar. 2, 1911, c. 195, 36 Stat. 1013.)

771. Deposit of proceeds of sales of Liberty bonds, certificates of indebtedness, and war-savings certificates.—The Secretary of the Treasury, in his discretion, is authorized to deposit, in such incorporated banks and trust companies as he may designate, the proceeds, or any part thereof, arising from the sale of the bonds and certificates of indebtedness and war-savings certificates authorized by this section and sections 752 to 754, 757, 758, 760, 764 to 766, 769, 773, and 774 of this title, and by the "First Liberty Bond Act" (Act of April 24, 1917, chapter 4, Fortieth Statutes, page 35) and arising from the payment of income taxes, and such deposits shall bear such rate or rates of interest, and shall be secured in such manner, and shall be made upon and subject to such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Treasury may from time to time prescribe: Provided, That the provisions of sections 141 to 143 of Title 12, with reference to the reserves required to be kept by national banking associations and other member banks of the Federal reserve system, shall not apply to deposits of public moneys by the United States in designated depositaries. (Sept. 24, 1917, c. 56, § 8, 40 Stat. 291; Oct. 3, 1917, c. 63, § 214, 40 Stat. 308; Apr. 4, 1918, c. 44, § 5, 40 Stat. 504.)

772. Fiscal agents.—Any incorporated bank or trust company designated as a depositary by the Secretary of the Treasury under the authority conferred by section 771 of this title, which gives security for such deposits as, and to amounts, by him prescribed, may, upon and subject to such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, act as a fiscal agent of the United States in connection with the operations of selling and delivering any bonds, certificates of indebtedness, or war-savings certificates of the United States. (July 9, 1918, c. 142, § 4, 40 Stat. 845.)

773. Performance of services by postal employees in connection with bonds, etc.—In connection with the operations of advertising, selling, and delivering any bonds, certificates of indebtedness, or war-savings certificates of the United States provided for in this section and sections 752 to 754, 757, 758, 760, 764 to 766, 769, and 771 of this title, the Postmaster General, under such regulations as he may prescribe, shall require, at the request of the Secretary of the Treasury, the employees of the Post Office Department and of the Postal Service to perform such services as may be necessary, desirable, or practicable, without extra compensation. (Sept. 24, 1917, c. 56, § 9, 40 Stat. 292.)

774. Short titles of Acts.—The short titles of the following Acts referred to or included, wholly or partly in this chapter, shall be as follows: (1) The short title of the Act of April 24, 1917 (chapter 4, Fortieth Statutes, page 35), shall be "First Liberty Bond Act."

(2) The short title of the Act of September 24, 1917 (chapter 56, Fortieth Statutes, page 288), shall be "Second Liberty Bond Act."

(3) The short title of the Act of April 4, 1918 (chapter 44, Fortieth Statutes, page 502), shall be "Third Liberty Bond Act."

(4) The short title of the Act of July 9, 1918 (chapter 142, Fortieth Statutes, page 844), shall be "Fourth Liberty Bond Act."

(5) The short title of the Act of September 24, 1918 (chapter 176, Fortieth Statutes, page 965), shall be "Supplement to Second Liberty Bond Act."

(6) The short title of the Act of March 3, 1919 (chapter 100, Fortieth Statutes, page 1309), shall be "Victory Liberty Loan Act." (Apr. 24, 1917, c. 4, § 9, 40 Stat. 506; Sept. 24, 1917, c. 56, § 17, 40 Stat. 506; Apr. 4, 1918, c. 44, § 8, 40 Stat. 506; July 9, 1918, c. 142, § 5, 40 Stat. 845; Sept. 24, 1918, c. 176, § 7, 40 Stat. 967; Mar. 3, 1919, c. 100, § 11, 40 Stat. 1314.)

OBLIGATIONS OF FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS

801. Conversion into obligations bearing higher interest rate; sale of obligations; redemption of United States bonds.—Except as otherwise provided in sections 805 to 809 of this title, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized, from time to time, to exercise in respect to any obligations of foreign governments acquired under authority of the First or Second Liberty Bond Acts (April 24, 1917, chapter 4, Fortieth Statutes, page 35; September 24, 1917, chapter 56, Fortieth Statutes, page 288) any privilege of conversion into obligations bearing interest at a higher rate provided for in or pursuant to such Acts, and to convert any short-time obligations of foreign governments which may have been purchased under the authority of such Acts into long-term obligations of such foreign governments, respectively, maturing not later than the bonds of the United States then last issued under the authority of such Acts, and in such form and terms as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe; but the rate or rates of interest borne by any such long-time obligations at the time of their acquisition shall not be less than the rate borne by the short-time obligations so converted into such long-time obligations; and, under such terms and conditions as he may from time to time prescribe, to receive payment, on or before maturity, of any obligations of such foreign governments acquired on behalf of the United States under authority of such Acts, and, with the approval of the President, to sell any of such obligations (but not at less than the purchase price with accrued interest unless otherwise hereafter provided by law), and to apply the proceeds thereof, and any payments so received from foreign governments on account of the principal of their said obligations, to the redemption or purchase, at not more than par and accrued interest, of any bonds of the United States issued under authority of such Acts; and if such bonds can not be so redeemed or purchased the Secretary of the Treasury shall redeem or purchase any other outstanding interest-bearing obligations of the United States which may at such time be subject to redemption or which can be purchased at not more than par and accrued interest. (Sept. 24, 1917, c. 56, § 3, 40 Stat. 289.)

802. Conversion of short-time obligations of foreign governments into long-time obligations; interest; payment of obligations.—Except as otherwise provided in sections 805 to 809 of this title, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized from time to time to convert any short-time obligations of foreign governments which may be received under the authority of paragraph (a) of section 7 of the Act of March 3, 1919 (chapter 100, Fortieth Statutes, page 1312), into long-time obligations of such foreign governments, respectively, maturing not later than October 15, 1938, and in such form and terms as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe; but the rate or rates of interest borne by any such long-time obligations at the time of their acquisition shall not be less than the rate borne by the short-time obligations so converted into such long-time obligations; and, under such terms and conditions as he may from time to time prescribe, to receive payment, on or before maturity, of any obligations of such foreign governments acquired on behalf of the United States under authority of this section, and said paragraph "a" of section 7 of the Act of March 3, 1919 (chapter 100, Fortieth Statutes, page 1312), and, with the approval of the President, to sell any of such obligations (but not at less than par with accrued interest unless otherwise hereafter provided by law), and to apply the proceeds thereof, and any payments so received from foreign governments on account of the principal of such obligations, to the redemption or purchase, at not more than par and accrued interest, of any bonds of the United States issued under the authority of the First Liberty Bond Act or section 752 of this title, and if such bonds can not be so redeemed or purchased, the Secretary of the Treasury shall redeem or purchase any other outstanding interest-bearing obligations of the United States which may at such time be subject to redemption or which can be purchased at not more than par and accrued interest. (Mar. 3, 1919, c. 100, § 7, 40 Stat. 1312.)

803. Maturity of obligations of foreign governments.—Except as otherwise provided in sections 805 to 809 of this title, the obligations of foreign governments acquired by the Secretary of the Treasury by virtue of the provisions of the First Liberty Bond Act (April 24, 1917, chapter 4, Fortieth Statutes, page 35), and the Second Liberty Bond Act (September 24, 1917, chapter 56, Fortieth Statutes, page 288), and amendments and supplements thereto, shall mature at such dates as shall be determined by the Secretary of the Treasury: Provided, That such obligations acquired by virtue of the provisions of the First Liberty Bond Act, or through the conversion of short-time obligations acquired under such Act, shall mature not later than June 15, 1947, and all other such obligations of foreign governments shall mature not later than October 15, 1938. (Mar. 3, 1919, c. 100, § 8, 40 Stat. 1313.)

804. Payment before maturity or sale of obligations of foreign governments.—Except as otherwise provided in sections 805 to 809 of this title, the Secretary of the Treasury, under such terms and conditions as he may prescribe, is authorized to receive on or before maturity payment for any obligations of foreign governments purchased on behalf of the United States, under the First Liberty Bond Act (April 24, 1917, chapter 4, Fortieth Statutes, page 35), and to sell at not less than the purchase price any of such obligations and to apply the proceeds thereof, and any payments made by foreign governments on account of their said obligations to the redemption or purchase at not more than par and accrued interest of any bonds of the United States issued under authority of such Act; and if such bonds are not available for this purpose the Secretary of the Treasury shall redeem or purchase any other outstanding interest-bearing obligations of the United States which may at such time be subject to call or which may be purchased at not more than par and accrued interest. (Apr. 24, 1917, c. 4, § 3, 40 Stat. 35.)

805. World War Foreign Debt Commission; members; appointment.—A World War Foreign Debt Commission is created consisting of eight members, one of whom shall be the Secretary of the Treasury who shall serve as chairman, and seven of whom shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. Not more than four members so appointed shall be from the same political party. (Feb. 9, 1922, c. 47, § 1, 42 Stat. 363; Feb. 28, 1923, c. 146, § 2, 42 Stat. 1326.)

806. Powers of commission as to refunding, conversion, or extension of time of payment of obligations of foreign governments.—Subject to the approval of the President, the commission created by section 805 of this title is authorized to refund or convert, and to extend the time of payment of the principal or the interest, or both, of any obligation of any foreign government held on February 9, 1922, by the United States of America, or any obligation of any foreign government thereafter or hereafter received by the United States of America (including obligations held by the United States Grain Corporation, the War Department, the Navy Department, or the American Relief Administration), arising out of the World War, into bonds or other obligations of such foreign government in substitution for the bonds or other obligations of such government held on February 9, 1922, or thereafter or hereafter by the United States of America, in such form and of such terms, conditions, date or dates of maturity, and rate or rates of interest, and with such security, if any, as shall be deemed for the best interests of the United States of America. (Feb. 9, 1922, c. 47, § 2, 42 Stat. 363; Feb. 28, 1923, c. 146, § 1, 42 Stat. 1325.)

807. Exchange of bonds or obligations or cancellation of obligations not authorized.—Sections 805 to 809 of this title shall not be construed to authorize the exchange of bonds or other obligations of any foreign government for those of any other foreign government, or cancellation of any part of such indebtedness except through payment thereof. (Feb. 9, 1922, c. 47, § 3, 42 Stat. 363.)

808. Termination of authority granted.—The authority granted by sections 805 to 809 of this title shall cease and determine on February 9, 1927. (Feb. 9, 1922, c. 47, § 4, 42 Stat. 363; Jan. 21, 1925, c. 86, 43 Stat. 763.)

809. Annual report of commission; copies of refunding agreements for Congress.—The annual report of this commission shall be included in the annual report of the Secretary of the Treasury on the state of the finances, but said commission shall immediately transmit to the Congress copies of any refunding agreements entered into, with the approval of the President, by each foreign government upon the completion of the authority granted under the provisions of sections 805 to 809 of this title. (Feb. 9, 1922, c. 47, § 5, 42 Stat. 363.)

12. Appointment of adjutant generals for Territories and District of Columbia.
13. Annual reports by adjutant generals of States, etc.
14. Annual report of Secretary of War to contain abstract of reports of adjutant generals.
15. Inspections of National Guard.
16. Disbanding or reduction of strength.

Section 1. Composition and classes of militia.—The militia of the United States shall consist of all able-bodied male citizens of the United States and all other able-bodied males who have or shall have declared their intention to become citizens of the United States, who shall be more than eighteen years of age and, except as hereinafter provided, not more than forty-five years of age, and said militia shall be divided into three classes, the National Guard, the Naval Militia, and the Unorganized Militia. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 57, 39 Stat. 197.)

2. Militia exclusively a land force.—The provisions of this title in respect to the militia shall be applicable only to militia organized as a land force. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 117, 39 Stat. 212.)

3. Exemptions from militia duty.—The Vice President of the United States; the officers, judicial and executive, of the Government of the United States and of the several States and Territories; persons in the military or naval service of the United States; customhouse clerks; persons employed by the United States in the transmission of the mail; artificers and workmen employed in the armories, arsenals, and navy yards of the United States; pilots; mariners actually employed in the sea service of any citizen or merchant within the United States, shall be exempt from militia duty without regard to age, and all persons who because of religious belief shall claim exemption from military service, if the conscientious holding of such belief by such person shall be established under such regulations as the President shall prescribe, shall be exempted from militia service in a combatant capacity; but no person so exempted shall be exempt from militia service in any capacity that the President shall declare to be noncombatant. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 59, 39 Stat. 197.)

4. Composition of National Guard.—The National Guard shall consist of regularly enlisted men who upon original enlistment shall be not less than eighteen nor more than forty-five years of age, or who in subsequent enlistments shall not be more than sixty-four years of age, organized, armed, and equipped as hereinafter provided, and of commissioned officers and warrant officers between the ages of twenty-one and sixty-four years: Provided, That in cases of appointments of warrant officers or enlistments made in accordance with National Guard regulations, no payments heretofore made to such warrant officers and enlisted men for participating in exercises or performing the duties described in sections 62, 63, 64, and 65 of this title, or any bona fide claim therefor, shall be held or considered invalid because such warrant officer or enlisted man was of an age greater than forty-five years at the time of his appointment or enlistment or at the time of the performance of such duties. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 58, 39 Stat. 197; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 371, § 1, 43 Stat. 1075.)

5. Organization of tactical units.—Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, the organization of the National Guard, including the composition of all units thereof, shall be the same as that which is or may hereafter be prescribed for the Regular Army, subject in time of peace to such general exceptions as may be authorized by the Secretary of War. And the President may prescribe the particular unit or units, as to branch or arm of service, to be maintained in each State, Territory, or the District of Columbia in order to secure a force which, when combined, shall form complete higher tactical units. The National Guard of any State, Territory, and the District of Columbia may include such detachments or parts of units as may be necessary in order to form complete tactical units when combined with troops of other States. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 36, 41 Stat. 780.)

6. Location of units and headquarters.—The States and Territories shall have the right to determine and fix the location of the units and headquarters of the National Guard within their respective borders. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 68, 39 Stat. 200.)

7. Location and designation of units comprised entirely within State or Territory.—Subject to general regulations approved by the Secretary of War, the location and designation of units of the National Guard entirely comprised within the limits of any State or Territory shall be determined by a board, a majority of whom shall be reserve officers, including reserve officers who hold or have held commissions in the National Guard and recommended for this duty by the governor of the State or Territory concerned. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 3, 41 Stat. 760.)

8. Assignment of National Guard to divisions, brigades, etc.; commanding officers.—For the purpose of maintaining appropriate organization and to assist in instruction and training, the President may assign the National Guard of the several States and Territories and the District of Columbia to divisions, brigades, and other tactical units, and may detail officers either from the National Guard or the Regular Army to command such units: Provided, That where complete units are organized within a State, Territory, or the District of Columbia the commanding officers thereof shall not be displaced under the provisions of this section. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 64, 39 Stat. 198.)

9. Authorized officers and men of staff corps and departments.—The National Guard of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia shall include such officers and enlisted men of the staff corps and departments, corresponding to those of the Regular Army, as may be authorized by the Secretary of War. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 875.)

10. Chiefs of staff of divisions.—The President may detail one officer of the Regular Army as chief of staff and one officer of the Regular Army or the National Guard as assistant to the chief of staff of any division of the National Guard in the service of the United States as a National Guard organization: Provided, That, in order to insure the prompt mobilization of the National Guard in time of war or other emergency, the President may, in time of peace, detail an officer of the Regular Army to perform the duties of chief of staff for each fully organized tactical division of the National Guard. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 65, 39 Stat. 199.)

11. Adjutant general for each State, Territory, and District of Columbia.—There shall be appointed in each State, Territory, and the District of Columbia an adjutant general, who shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by the laws of such State, Territory, and District, respectively. (Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 12, 32 Stat. 776.)

12. Appointment of adjutant generals for Territories and District of Columbia.—The adjutant generals of the Territories and of the District of Columbia shall be appointed by the President with such rank and qualifications as he may prescribe, and each adjutant general for a Territory shall be a citizen of the Territory for which he is appointed. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 66, 39 Stat. 199.)

13. Annual reports by adjutant generals of States, etc.—The adjutant generals of the States, Territories, and the District of Columbia and the officers of the National Guard shall make such returns and reports to the Secretary of War, or to such officers as he may designate, at such times and in such form as the Secretary of War may from time to time prescribe. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 66, 39 Stat. 199.)

14. Annual report of Secretary of War to contain abstract of reports of adjutant generals.—The Secretary of War shall, with his annual report of each year, transmit to Congress an abstract of the returns and reports of the adjutant generals of the States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, with such observations thereon as he may deem necessary for the information of Congress. (Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 12, 32 Stat. 776.)

15. Inspections of National Guard.—The Secretary of War shall cause an inspection to be made at least once each year by inspector generals, and if necessary by other officers, of the Regular Army, detailed by him for that purpose, to determine whether the amount and condition of the property in the hands of the National Guard is satisfactory; whether the National Guard is organized as hereinbefore prescribed; whether the officers and enlisted men possess the physical and other qualifications prescribed; whether the organization and the officers and enlisted men thereof are sufficiently armed, uniformed, equipped, and being trained and instructed for active duty in the field or coast defense, and whether the records are being kept in accordance with the requirements of this title. The reports of such inspections shall serve as the basis for deciding as to the issue to and retention by the National Guard of the military property provided for by this title, and for determining what organizations and individuals shall be considered as constituting parts of the National Guard within the meaning of this title. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 93, 39 Stat. 206.)

16. Disbanding or reduction of strength.—No organization of the National Guard, members of which shall be entitled to and shall have received compensation under the provisions of this title, shall be disbanded without the consent of the President, nor, without such consent, shall the commissioned or enlisted strength of any such organization be reduced below the minimum that shall be prescribed therefor by the President. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 68, 39 Stat. 200.)

Chapter 2.—FUNDS FOR SUPPORT OF NATIONAL GUARD.

Sec.
21. Annual appropriation.
22. Apportionment and disbursement of appropriation.
23. Proceeds of sale of disused target ranges.
24. Forfeiture of right to allotment of appropriation.
25. Annual estimates of expenses.
26. Reduction of certain units to meet appropriation.

Section 21. Annual appropriation.—A sum of money shall be appropriated annually, to be paid out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the support of the National Guard, including the expense of providing arms, ordnance stores, quartermaster stores, and camp equipage, and all other military supplies for issue to the National Guard, and such other expenses pertaining to said guard as are or may be authorized by law. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 67, 39 Stat. 199.)

22. Apportionment and disbursement of appropriation.—The appropriation provided for in section 21 of this title shall be apportioned among the several States and Territories under just and equitable procedure to be prescribed by the Secretary of War and in direct ratio to the number of enlisted men in active service in the National Guard existing in such States and Territories at the date of apportionment of said appropriation, and to the District of Columbia, under such regulations as the President may prescribe: Provided, That the sum so apportioned among the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia shall be available under such rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War for the actual and necessary expenses incurred by officers and enlisted men of the Regular Army when traveling on duty in connection with the National Guard; for the transportation of supplies furnished to the National Guard for the permanent equipment thereof; for office rent and necessary office expenses of officers of the Regular Army on duty with the National Guard; for the expenses of the Militia Bureau, including clerical services; for expenses of enlisted men of the Regular Army on duty with the National Guard, including an allowance for quarters and subsistence provided in section 19 of Title 37, medicine, and medical attendance; and such expenses shall constitute a charge against the whole sum annually appropriated for the support of the National Guard, and shall be paid therefrom and not from the allotment duly apportioned to any particular State, Territory, or the District of Columbia; for the promotion of rifle practice, including the acquisition, construction, maintenance, and equipment of shooting galleries, and suitable target ranges; for the hiring of horses and draft animals for use of mounted troops, batteries, and wagons; for forage for the same; and for such other incidental expenses in connection with lawfully authorized encampments, maneuvers, and field instruction as the Secretary of War may deem necessary, and for such other expenses pertaining to the National Guard as are or may be authorized by law. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 423, § 3, 42 Stat. 1034.)

23. Proceeds of sale of disused target ranges.—When any land acquired by purchase for a target range for the use of the National Guard of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia shall have become useless or shall be found to be unavailable for such purpose the Secretary of War may cause the same to be sold either in whole or in two or more parts as he may deem best for the interests of the United States. In the disposal of such property, the Secretary of War shall cause the same to be appraised either as a whole or in two or more tracts, having due reference to the requirements of any permanent improvements made thereon; and he shall cause the property to be offered at public or private sale at not less than the appraised value. The expenses for advertising, appraisement, survey, and sale shall be paid from the proceeds of the sale; and the net proceeds thereof shall be placed to the credit of the State, Territory, or District of Columbia, as additional to its allotment under section 49 of this title. (May 12, 1917, c. 12, 40 Stat. 67.)

24. Forfeiture of right to allotment of appropriation.—Whenever any State shall, within a limit of time to be fixed by the President, have failed or refused to comply with or enforce any requirement of this title, or any regulation promulgated thereunder and in aid thereof by the President or the Secretary of War, the National Guard of such State shall be debarred, wholly or in part, as the President may direct, from receiving from the United States any pecuniary or other aid, benefit, or privilege authorized or provided by this title or any other law. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 116, 39 Stat. 212.)

25. Annual estimates of expenses.—The Secretary of War shall cause to be estimated annually the amount necessary for carrying out the provisions of law relating to the militia, and no money shall be expended under said provisions except as shall from time to time be appropriated for carrying them out. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 119, 39 Stat. 213.)

26. Reduction of certain units to meet appropriation.—The mounted, motorized, air, medical, and tank units and motor transport, military police, wagon and service companies of the National Guard shall be so reduced that the appropriation made for the National Guard during the fiscal year 1926 shall cover the entire cost of maintenance of such units. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 921.)

Chapter 3.—ARMAMENT, EQUIPMENT, AND SUPPLIES.

Sec.
31. Type of arms, equipment, etc.

33. Issue of arms to National Guard.
34. Issue of new types of small arms.
35. Cost of supplying new types of arms and equipment.
36. Issue of automatic pistols.
37. Issue of Field Artillery matériel.
38. Supplying and exchanging Infantry equipment; requisitions.
39. Purchase of supplies, etc., from War Department; requisition by Government after purchase.
40. Purchase of animals with National Guard funds.
42. Care of animals, armament, etc.
43. Withdrawal of Coast Artillery equipment in emergency.
44. Issue of clothing, equipment, etc.
45. Proceeds of sales of condemned stores.
46. Return of property replaced as obsolete or condemned.
47. Military property lost, destroyed, damaged, or becoming unserviceable.
48. Bond to account for travel ration fund not required.
49. Property and disbursing officers.
50. Agents of disbursing officers.

Section 31. Type of arms, equipment, etc.—The National Guard of the United States shall, as far as practicable, be uniformed, armed, and equipped with the same type of uniforms, arms, and equipments as are or shall be provided for the Regular Army. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 82, 39 Stat. 203.)

32. Purchase of and accountability for arms and equipment.—The purchase or manufacture of arms, ordnance stores, quartermaster stores, and camp equipage for the militia under the provisions of this title shall be made under the direction of the Secretary of War, as such arms, ordnance and quartermaster stores, and camp equipage are now manufactured or otherwise provided for the use of the Regular Army, and they shall be receipted for and shall remain the property of the United States, and be annually accounted for by the governors of the States and Territories and by the commanding general of the National Guard of the District of Columbia, for which purpose the Secretary of War shall prescribe and supply the necessary blanks and make such regulations as he may deem necessary to protect the interests of the United States. (June 22, 1906, c. 3515, § 3, 34 Stat. 450.)

33. Issue of arms to National Guard.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized to procure, under such regulations as the President may prescribe, by purchase or manufacture, within the limits of available appropriations made by Congress, and to issue from time to time to the National Guard, upon requisition of the governors of the several States and Territories or the commanding general of the National Guard of the District of Columbia, such number of United States service arms, with all accessories, Field Artillery matériel, Engineer, Coast Artillery, Signal, and Sanitary matériel, accouterments, field uniforms, clothing, equipage, publications, and military stores of all kinds, including public animals, as are necessary to arm, uniform, and equip for field service the National Guard in the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia: Provided, That as a condition precedent to the issue of any property as provided for by this title, the State, Territory, or the District of Columbia desiring such issue shall make adequate provision, to the satisfaction of the Secretary of War, for the protection and care of such property: Provided further, That whenever it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of War that the National Guard of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, is properly organized, armed, and equipped for field service, funds allotted to that State, Territory, or District for the support of its National Guard may be used for the purchase, from the War Department, of any article issued by any of the supply departments of the Army. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 83, 39 Stat. 203.)

34. Issue of new types of small arms.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of War, whenever a new type of small arm shall have been adopted for the use of the Regular Army, and when a sufficient quantity of such arms shall have been manufactured to constitute, in his discretion, an adequate reserve for the armament of any regular and volunteer forces that it may be found necessary to raise in case of war, to cause the Organized Militia of the United States to be furnished with small arms of the type so adopted, with bayonets and the necessary accouterments and equipments, including ammunition therefor. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2511, 34 Stat. 1174.)

35. Cost of supplying new types of arms and equipment.—Under such regulations as the President may prescribe, whenever a new type of equipment, small arm, or field gun, shall have been issued to the National Guard of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, such equipment, small arms, and field guns, including all accessories, shall be furnished without charging the cost or value thereof or any expense connected therewith against the appropriations provided for the support of the National Guard. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 84, 39 Stat. 204.)

36. Issue of automatic pistols.—Whenever in his opinion a sufficient number of automatic pistols of the standard service type, holsters, and pistol cartridge boxes therefor, shall have been procured and be available for the purpose, the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to issue, on the requisition of the governors of the several States and Territories, or of the commanding general of the Militia of the District of Columbia, such number of standard pistols, holsters, and pistol cartridge boxes therefor as are required for arming all of the Organized Militia in said States, Territories, and District of Columbia, without charging the cost or value thereof, or any expense connected therewith, against the allotment to said State, Territory, or District of Columbia, out of the annual appropriation provided by section 21 of this title, or requiring payment therefor, and to exchange, without receiving any money credit therefor, ammunition, or parts thereof, suitable to the new standard pistol, round for round, for corresponding ammunition suitable to the old revolver theretofore issued to said States, Territory, or District by the United States: Provided, That the said standard pistols, holsters, and pistol cartridge boxes therefor shall be receipted for and shall remain the property of the United States and be annually accounted for by the governors of the States and Territories and the commanding general of the Militia of the District of Columbia as now required by law, and that each State, Territory, and District shall, on receipt of the new pistols, holsters, and pistol cartridge boxes, and ammunition, turn in to the Ordnance Department of the United States Army, without receiving any money credit therefor and without expense for transportation, all United States revolvers and ammunition therefor, holsters, and revolver cartridge boxes now in its possession. (Mar. 3, 1911, c. 209, 36 Stat. 1057.)

37. Issue of Field Artillery matériel.—The Secretary of War is authorized, under such regulations as he may prescribe, on the requisitions of the governors of the several States and Territories or the commanding general of the National Guard of the District of Columbia, to issue Field Artillery matériel to the National Guard of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, but to remain the property of the United States and to be accounted for in the manner prescribed by law. (June 5, 1920, c. 240, 41 Stat. 973.)

38. Supplying and exchanging Infantry equipment; requisitions.—Whenever in the opinion of the Secretary of War a sufficient number of Infantry equipment, model of 1910, shall have been procured and shall be available for the purpose the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to issue on the requisition of the governors of the several States and Territories or the commanding general of the District of Columbia National Guard, such numbers thereof as are required for equipping the National Guard in said States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, without charging the cost or value thereof or any expenses connected therewith, against any allotments to said States, Territories, or the District of Columbia: Provided, That the equipment thus issued shall be receipted for and shall remain the property of the United States and be annually accounted for in the manner prescribed by section 49 of this title, and that each State, Territory, and the District of Columbia shall, upon receipt of new equipment, turn in to the Ordnance Department of the United States Army, without receiving any money credit therefor and without expense for transportation of Infantry equipment now in its possession, the property of the United States, and replaced by articles of the model of 1910 equipment. (May 12, 1917, c. 12, 40 Stat. 68.)

39. Purchase of supplies, etc., from War Department; requisition by Government after purchase.—Any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia may, with the approval of the Secretary of War, purchase for cash from the War Department for the use of the National Guard, including the officers thereof, any stores, supplies, matériel of war, and military publications furnished to the Army, in addition to those issued under the provisions of this title, at the price at which they shall be listed to the Army, with cost of transportation added. The funds received from such sale shall be credited to the appropriation to which they shall belong, shall not be covered into the Treasury, and shall be available until expended to replace therewith the supplies sold to the States in the manner herein authorized: Provided, That stores, supplies, and matériel of war so purchased by a State, Territory, or the District of Columbia may, in time of actual or threatened war, be requisitioned by the United States for use in the military service thereof, and when so requisitioned by the United States and delivered credit for the ultimate return of such property in kind shall be allowed to such State, Territory, or the District of Columbia. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 86, 39 Stat. 204.)

40. Purchase of animals with National Guard funds.—Funds allotted by the Secretary of War for the support of the National Guard shall be available for the purchase, under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe, of animals conforming to the Regular Army standards for the training of the National Guard, said animals to remain the property of the United States and to be used solely for military purposes. The number of animals so issued shall not exceed thirty-two for each battery of field artillery or troop of cavalry, and a proportionate number for other mounted organizations, under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe; and the Secretary of War is further authorized to issue, in lieu of purchase, for the training of such organizations, condemned Army animals which are no longer fit for service, but which may be suitable for the purposes of instruction, such animals to be sold as provided by law when said purposes shall have been served. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 45, 41 Stat. 783.)

42. Care of animals, armament, etc.—Funds allotted by the Secretary of War for the support of the National Guard shall be available for the purchase and issue of forage, bedding, shoeing, and veterinary services, and supplies for the Government animals issued to any organization, and for animals owned or hired by any State, Territory, District of Columbia, or National Guard organization, not exceeding the number of animals authorized by Federal law for such organization and used solely for military purposes, and for the compensation of competent help for the care of matériel, animals, armament, and equipment of organizations of all kinds, under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe: Provided, That the men to be so compensated shall not exceed five for each organization, except heavier-than-air squadrons, for each of which a maximum of ten to be so compensated is hereby authorized, and shall, save as otherwise provided in the next succeeding proviso, be duly enlisted therein and detailed by the organization commander, and shall be paid by the United States disbursing officer in each State, Territory, and the District of Columbia: Provided further, That whenever it shall be found impracticable to secure the necessary competent enlisted caretakers for the matériel, animals, armament, or equipment of any organization from the duly enlisted personnel thereof, the organization commander may employ one civilian caretaker therefor who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be fixed by the Secretary of War. (June 6, 1924, c. 275, § 5, 43 Stat. 471.)

43. Withdrawal of Coast Artillery equipment in emergency.—In time of war, or threatened war, matériel, equipment, books of instruction, range finders, and fire-control equipment purchased for the instruction and use of State Coast Artillery organizations may, in the discretion of the Secretary of War, be withdrawn from armories or other places where it is in use by the State Coast Artillery organizations, and may be used in the fortifications of the United States. (Mar. 23, 1910, c. 115, 36 Stat. 261.)

44. Issue of clothing, equipment, etc.—The Secretary of War is hereby directed to issue from surplus or reserve stores and matériel on hand and purchased for the United States Army such articles of clothing and equipment and Field Artillery, Engineer, and Signal matériel and ammunition as may be needed by the National Guard organized under the provisions of this title. This issue shall be made without charge against militia appropriations except for actual expenses incident to such issue. (Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 921.)

45. Proceeds of sales of condemned stores.—The net proceeds of the sale of condemned stores issued to the National Guard and not charged to State allotments shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States, as shall also stoppages against officers and enlisted men, and the net proceeds of collections made from any person to reimburse the Government for the loss, damage, or destruction of said property not charged against the State allotment issued for the use of the National Guard. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 88, 39 Stat. 205.)

46. Return of property replaced as obsolete or condemned.—Each State, Territory, and the District of Columbia shall, on the receipt of new property issued to replace obsolete or condemned prior issues, turn in to the War Department or otherwise dispose of, in accordance with the directions of the Secretary of War, all property so replaced or condemned, and shall not receive any money credit therefor. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 85, 39 Stat. 204.)

47. Military property lost, destroyed, damaged, or becoming unserviceable.—All military property issued to the National Guard as herein provided shall remain the property of the United States. Whenever any such property issued to the National Guard in any State or Territory or the District of Columbia shall have been lost, damaged, or destroyed, or become unserviceable or unsuitable by use in service or from any other cause, it shall be examined by a disinterested surveying officer of the Regular Army or the National Guard, detailed by the Secretary of War, and the report of such surveying officer shall be forwarded to the Secretary of War, or to such officer as he shall designate to receive such reports; and if it shall appear to the Secretary of War from the record of survey that the property was lost, damaged, or destroyed through unavoidable causes, he is hereby authorized to relieve the State or Territory or the District of Columbia from further accountability therefor. If it shall appear that the loss, damage, or destruction of property was due to carelessness or neglect, or that its loss, damage, or destruction could have been avoided by the exercise of reasonable care, the money value of such property shall be charged to the accountable State, Territory, or District of Columbia to be paid from State, Territory, or District funds, or any funds other than Federal. If the articles so surveyed are found to be unserviceable or unsuitable, the Secretary of War shall direct what disposition by sale or otherwise shall be made of them; and if sold, the proceeds of such sale, as well as stoppages against officers and enlisted men, and the net proceeds of collections made from any person or from any State, Territory, or District to reimburse the Government for the loss, damage, or destruction of any property, shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as a credit to said State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, accountable for said property, and shall remain available throughout the then current fiscal year and throughout the fiscal year following that in which the sales, stoppages, and collections were effected, for the purposes provided for in that portion of its allotment set aside for the purchase of similar supplies, stores, or material of war: Provided, That if any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia shall neglect or refuse to pay, or to cause to be paid, the money equivalent of any loss, damage, or destruction of property charged against such State, Territory, or the District of Columbia by the Secretary of War after survey by a disinterested officer appointed as hereinbefore provided, the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to debar such State, Territory, or the District of Columbia from further participation in any and all appropriations for the National Guard until such payment shall have been made: Provided further, That property issued to the National Guard and which has become unserviceable through fair wear and tear in service, may, after inspection thereof and finding to that effect made by an officer of the Regular Army designated by the Secretary of War, be sold or otherwise disposed of, and the State, Territory, or District of Columbia accountable shall be relieved from further accountability therefor; such inspection, and sale or other disposition, to be made under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War, and to constitute as to such property a discretional substitute for the examination, report, and disposition provided for elsewhere in this section. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 371, § 4, 43 Stat. 1077.)

48. Bond to account for travel ration fund not required.—Officers of the Organized Militia who may hereafter be furnished, under proper authority, with funds for the purchase of coffee, or other components of the travel ration for the use of their respective commands, shall not be required to furnish bonds for the safe-keeping and disbursement of the same. (May 11, 1908, c. 163, 35 Stat. 117.)

49. Property and disbursing officers.—The governor of each State and Territory and the commanding general of the National Guard of the District of Columbia shall appoint, designate, or detail, subject to the approval of the Secretary of War, The Adjutant General or an officer of the National Guard of the State, Territory, or District of Columbia, who shall be regarded as property and disbursing officer of the United States. He shall receipt and account for all funds and property belonging to the United States in possession of the National Guard of his State, Territory, or District, and shall make such returns and reports concerning the same as may be required by the Secretary of War. The Secretary of War is authorized, on the requisition of the governor of a State or Territory or the commanding general of the National Guard of the District of Columbia, to pay to the property and disbursing officer thereof so much of its allotment out of the annual appropriation for the support of the National Guard as shall, in the judgment of the Secretary of War, be necessary for the purposes enumerated therein. He shall render, through the War Department, such accounts of Federal funds intrusted to him for disbursement as may be required by the Treasury Department. Before entering upon the performance of his duties as property and disbursing officer he shall be required to give good and sufficient bond to the United States, the amount thereof to be determined by the Secretary of War, for the faithful performance of his duties and for the safekeeping and proper disposition of the Federal property and funds intrusted to his care. He shall, after having qualified as property and disbursing officer, receive pay for his services at a rate to be fixed by the Secretary of War, and such compensation shall be a charge against the whole sum annually appropriated for the support of the National Guard: Provided, That when traveling in the performance of his official duties under orders issued by the proper authorities he shall be reimbursed for his actual necessary traveling expenses, the sum to be made a charge against the allotment of the State, Territory, or District of Columbia: Provided further, That the Secretary of War shall cause an inspection of the accounts and records of the property and disbursing officer to be made by an inspector general of the Army at least once each year: And provided further, That the Secretary of War is empowered to make all rules and regulations necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this section. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 67, 39 Stat. 200; July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter III, 40 Stat. 878.)

50. Agents of disbursing officers.—Under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, property and disbursing officers of the National Guard accountable for public moneys may intrust money to other officers of the National Guard for the purpose of having them make disbursements as their agents, and the officers to whom the money is intrusted, as well as the officer intrusting the same to him, shall be held pecuniarily responsible therefor to the United States, and the agent officer shall be subject for his official misconduct to all the liabilities and penalties prescribed by law in like cases for the officer for whom he acts as agent. (June 3, 1924, c. 244, § 5, 43 Stat. 365.)

Chapter 4. — INSTRUCTION, TRAINING, AND DISCIPLINE.

Sec.
61. System of discipline.
62. Company drill and participation in maneuvers, etc.; annual amount required.
63. Encampments or maneuvers for field or coast-defense instruction.
64. Camps for instruction of officers and enlisted men.
65. Officers or enlisted men selected to attend service schools or to receive practical routine instruction during field exercises.
66. Assignment of officers and men of Regular Army for instruction of National Guard.
67. Detail of officers and men of Regular Army to attend encampments, etc., of National Guard.
68. Detail of officers and men of Regular Army to duty with National Guard.
69. Acceptance by Regular Army officers of commissions in National Guard.
70. Assignment of National Guard officers to duty with Army; pay and allowances.
71. Instruction in firing; supply of ammunition.
72. Right of command during joint encampments, etc., with Regular Army.
73. Reduced rates for transportation to and from encampments, etc.
74. Offices for inspector-instructors.
75. Government employees in National Guard; leaves of absence for training periods.

Section 61. System of discipline.—The discipline (which includes training) of the National Guard shall conform to the system which is or may be prescribed for the Regular Army, and the training shall be carried out by the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia so as to conform to the provisions of this title. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 91, 39 Stat. 206.)

62. Company drill and participation in maneuvers, etc.; annual amount required.—Under such regulations as the Secretary of War shall prescribe, each company, troop, battery, and detachment in the National Guard shall assemble for drill and instruction, including indoor target practice, not less than forty-eight times each year, and shall, in addition thereto, participate in encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, including outdoor target practice, at least fifteen days in training each year, including target practice, unless such company, troop, battery, or detachment shall have been excused from participation in any part thereof by the Secretary of War: Provided, That an assembly for drill and instruction may consist of a single duly ordered formation of a company, troop, battery, or detachment, or when so authorized by the Secretary of War of a series of duly ordered formations of subdivisions or parts thereof, but in the latter case the series of formations of subdivisions or groups must comprehend and include the entire organization, and must be included within the time limit of seven consecutive days within a calendar month. The sum total of the attendance at all the separate consecutive formations announced as constituting that assembly shall be counted as the attendance at the actual military assembly for the required period of time; but no officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man shall be counted more than once, nor receive credit for more than one required period of actual military attendance even though he may have attended more than one of the formations which constitute the assembly for the required period of time: Provided further, That credit for an assembly for drill or for indoor target practice shall not be given unless the number of officers and enlisted men present for duty at such assembly shall equal or exceed a minimum to be prescribed by the President, nor unless the period of actual military duty and instruction participated in by each officer and enlisted man at each such assembly at which he shall be credited as having been present shall be of at least one and one-half hours' duration and the character of training such as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War. (June 3, 1924, c. 244, § 2, 43 Stat. 363.)

63. Encampments or maneuvers for field or coast-defense instruction.—Under such regulations as the President may prescribe the Secretary of War is authorized to provide for the participation of the whole or any part of the National Guard in encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, including outdoor target practice, for field or coast-defense instruction, either independently or in conjunction with any part of the Regular Army, and there may be set aside from the funds appropriated for that purpose and allotted to any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, such portion of said funds as may be necessary for the payment, subsistence, transportation, and other proper expenses of such portion of the National Guard of such State, Territory, or the District of Columbia as shall participate in such encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, including outdoor target practice, for field and coast-defense instruction. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 94, 39 Stat. 206.)

64. Camps for instruction of officers and enlisted men.—Under such regulations as the President may prescribe the Secretary of War may provide camps for the instruction of officers and enlisted men of the National Guard. Such camps shall be conducted by officers of the Regular Army detailed by the Secretary of War for that purpose, and may be located either within or without the State, Territory, or District of Columbia to which the members of the National Guard designated to attend said camps shall belong. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 97, 39 Stat. 207.)

65. Officers or enlisted men selected to attend service schools or to receive practical routine instruction during field exercises.—Under such regulations as the President may prescribe, the Secretary of War may, upon the recommendation of the governor of any State or Territory or the commanding general of the National Guard of the District of Columbia, authorize a limited number of selected officers or enlisted men of the National Guard to attend and pursue a regular course of study at any miltary service school of the United States, except the United States Miltary Academy, or to be attached to an organization of the same arm, corps, or department to which such officer or enlisted man shall belong, for routine practical instruction at or near an Army post during a period of field training or other outdoor exercises. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 423, § 5, 42 Stat. 1035.)

66. Assignment of officers and men of Regular Army for instruction of National Guard.—For duty in the Militia Bureau and for instruction of the National Guard, the President shall assign such number of officers and enlisted men of the Regular Army as he may deem necessary. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 371, § 3, 43 Stat. 1077.)

67. Detail of officers and men of Regular Army to attend encampments, etc., of National Guard.—The Secretary of War may detail one or more officers and enlisted men of the Regular Army to attend any encampment, maneuver, or other exercise for field or coast-defense instruction of the National Guard, who shall give such instruction and information to the officers and men assembled for such encampment, maneuver, or other exercise as may be directed by the Secretary of War or requested by the governor or by the commanding officer of the National Guard there on duty. Such officer or officers shall immediately make a report of such encampment to the Secretary of War, who shall furnish a copy thereof to the governor of the State or Territory. (Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 19, 32 Stat. 778; June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 96, 39 Stat. 207.)

68. Detail of officers and men of Regular Army to duty with National Guard.—The Secretary of War shall detail officers of the active list of the Army to duty with the National Guard in each State, Territory, or District of Columbia. The Secretary of War may detail one or more enlisted men of the Regular Army with each State, Territory, or District of Columbia for duty in connection with the National Guard. But nothing in this section shall be so construed as to prevent the detail of retired officers as provided by law. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 100, 39 Stat. 208.)

69. Acceptance by Regular Army officers of commissions in National Guard.—The officers detailed under section 68 of this title may accept commissions in the National Guard, with the permission of the President and terminable in his discretion, without vacating their commissions in the Regular Army or being prejudiced in their relative or lineal standing therein. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 100, 39 Stat. 208.)

70. Assignment of National Guard officers to duty with Army; pay and allowances.—The President may assign, with their consent and within the limits of the appropriations previously made for this specific purpose, not exceeding five hundred officers of the active federally recognized National Guard, and who are reserve officers, to duty with the Regular Army, in addition to those attending service schools. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 371, § 3, 43 Stat. 1077.)

71. Instruction in firing; supply of ammunition.—The troops of the militia encamped at any military post or camp of the United States may be furnished such amounts of ammunition for instruction in firing and target practice as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, and such instruction in firing shall be carried on under the direction of an officer selected for that purpose by the proper military commander. (Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 21, 32 Stat. 779.)

72. Right of command during joint encampments, etc., with Regular Army.—When any part of the National Guard participates in encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, including outdoor target practice, for field or coast-defense instruction at a United States military post, or reservation, or elsewhere, if in conjunction with troops of the United States, the command of such military post or reservation and of the officers and troops of the United States on duty there or elsewhere shall remain with the commander of the United States troops without regard to the rank of the commanding or other officer of the National Guard temporarily engaged in the encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 95, 39 Stat. 207.)

73. Reduced rates for transportation to and from encampments, etc.—Nothing in chapter 1 of Title 49 shall be construed to prohibit any common carrier from giving reduced rates for members of National Guard organizations traveling to and from joint encampments with the Regular Army. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 646.)

74. Offices for inspector instructors.—Whenever practicable inspector-instructors shall use the State armories or other public buildings for offices. (May 12, 1917, c. 12, 40 Stat. 68.)

75. Government employees in National Guard; leaves of absence for training periods.—All officers and employees of the United States and of the District of Columbia who shall be members of the National Guard shall be entitled to leave of absence from their respective duties, without loss of pay, time, or efficiency rating on all days during which they shall be engaged in field or coast-defense training ordered or authorized under the provisions of this title. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 80, 39 Stat. 203.)

Chapter 5.—CALL OR DRAFT INTO FEDERAL SERVICE.

Sec.
81. Authority of President; draft.
81a. Authority to call forth militia.
82. Law governing National Guard called into Federal service.
83. Physical examination.
84. Drafting Philippine Militia into Federal service.

Section 81. Authority of President; draft.—When Congress shall have authorized the use of the armed land forces of the United States for any purpose requiring the use of troops in excess of those of the Regular Army, the President may, under such regulations, including such physical examinations as he may prescribe, draft into the military service of the United States, to serve therein for the period of the war or emergency, unless sooner discharged, any or all members of the National Guard and of the National Guard Reserve. All persons so drafted shall, from the date of their draft, stand discharged from the militia, and shall be subject to such laws and regulations for the government of the Army of the United States as may be applicable to members of the Army, whose permanent retention in the military service is not contemplated by law, and shall be organized into units corresponding as far as practicable to those of the Regular Army or shall be otherwise assigned as the President may direct. The commissioned officers of said organizations shall be appointed from among the members thereof; officers with rank not above that of colonel to be appointed by the President alone, and all other officers to be appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. Officers and enlisted men while in the service of the United States under the terms of this section shall have the same pay and allowances as officers and enlisted men of the Regular Army of the same grades and the same prior service. On the termination of the emergency all persons so drafted shall be discharged from the Army, shall resume their membership in the militia, and, if the State so provide, shall continue to serve in the National Guard until the dates upon which their enlistments entered into prior to their draft, would have expired if uninterrupted. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 49, 41 Stat. 784.)

81a. Authority to call forth militia.—Whenever the United States is invaded, or in danger of invasion from any foreign nation, or of rebellion against the authority of the Government of the United States, or the President is unable, with the other forces at his command, to execute the laws of the Union in any part thereof, it shall be lawful for the President to call forth, for a period not exceeding nine months, such number of the militia of the State or of the States or Territories or of the District of Columbia as he may deem necessary to repel such invasion, suppress such rebellion, or to enable him to execute such laws, and to issue his orders for that purpose to such officers of the militia as he may think proper. (Jan. 21, 1903, c. 196, § 4, 32 Stat. 776.)

82. Law governing National Guard called into Federal service.—The National Guard when called as such into the service of the United States shall, from the time they are required by the terms of the call to respond thereto, be subject to the laws and regulations governing the Regular Army, so far as such laws and regulations are applicable to officers and enlisted men whose permanent retention in the military service, either on the active list or on the retired list, is not contemplated by existing law. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 101, 39 Stat. 208.)

83. Physical examination.—Every officer and enlisted man of the National Guard who shall be called into the service of the United States as such shall be examined as to his physical fitness under such regulations as the President may prescribe without further commission or enlistment: Provided, That immediately preceding the muster out of an officer or enlisted man called into the active service of the United States he shall be physically examined under rules prescribed by the President of the United States, and the record thereof shall be filed and kept in the War Department. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 115, 39 Stat. 212.)

84. Drafting Philippine Militia into Federal service.—The militia and other locally created armed forces in the Philippine Islands may be called into the service of the United States, and all members thereof may be drafted into said service and organized in such manner as is or may be provided by law for calling or drafting the National Guard into said service, and shall in all respects while therein be upon the same footing with members of the National Guard so called or drafted: Provided, That the pay and allowances of officers and men of the Philippine Militia and other locally created armed forces in the Philippine Islands called into the service of the United States under the provisions of this section when serving in the Philippine Islands shall in no case exceed the pay and allowances for corresponding grades of Philippine Scouts. (Jan. 26, 1918, c. 11, 40 Stat.)

Chapter 6.—COURTS-MARTIAL.

Sec.
91. System of courts-martial for National Guard.
92. General courts-martial.
93. Special courts-martial.
94. Summary courts.
95. Sentence to imprisonment in lieu of fine.
96. Approval of sentence of dismissal from service.
97. Issuance of warrants of arrest; execution of sentences.

Section 91. System of courts-martial for National Guard.—Except in organizations in the service of the United States, court-martial in the National Guard shall be of three kinds, namely, general courts-martial, special courts-martial, and summary courts-martial. They shall be constituted like, and have cognizance of the same subjects, and possess like powers, except as to punishments, as similar courts provided for by the laws and regulations governing the Army of the United States, and the proceedings of courts-martial of the National Guard shall follow the forms and modes of procedure prescribed for said similar courts. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 102, 39 Stat. 208.)

92. General courts-martial.—General courts-martial of the National Guard not in the service of the United States may be convened by orders of the President, or of the governors of the respective States and Territories, or by the commanding general of the National Guard of the District of Columbia, and such courts shall have the power to impose fines not exceeding $200; to sentence to forfeiture of pay and allowances; to a reprimand; to dismissal or dishonorable discharge from the service; to reduction of noncommissioned officers to the ranks; or any two or more of such punishments may be combined in the sentences imposed by such courts. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 103, 39 Stat. 208.)

93. Special courts-martial.—In the National Guard, not in the service of the United States, the commanding officer of each garrison, fort, post, camp, or other place, brigade, regiment, detached battalion, or other detached command, may appoint special courts-martial for his command; but such special courts-martial may in any case be appointed by superior authority when by the latter deemed desirable. Special courts-martial shall have power to try any person subject to military law, except a commissioned officer, for any crime or offense made punishable by the military laws of the United States, and such special courts-martial shall have the same powers of punishment as do general courts-martial, except that fines imposed by such courts shall not exceed $100. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 104, 39 Stat. 208.)

94. Summary courts.—In the National Guard, not in the service of the United States, the commanding officer of each garrison, fort, post, or other place, regiment, or corps, detached battalion, company, or other detachment of the National Guard may appoint for such place or command a summary court to consist of one officer, who shall have power to administer oaths and to try the enlisted men of such place or command for breaches of discipline and violations of laws governing such organizations; and said court, when satisfied of the guilt of such soldier, may impose fines not exceeding $25 for any single offense; may sentence noncommissioned officer to reduction to the ranks; may sentence to forfeiture of pay and allowances. The proceedings of such court shall be informal, and the minutes thereof shall be the same as prescribed for summary courts of the Army of the United States. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 105, 39 Stat. 208.)

95. Sentence to imprisonment in lieu of fine.—All courts-martial of the National Guard, not in the service of the United States, including summary courts, shall have power to sentence to confinement in lieu of fines authorized to be imposed: Provided, That such sentences of confinement shall not exceed one day for each dollar of fine authorized. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 106, 39 Stat. 209.)

96. Approval of sentence of dismissal from service.—No sentence of dismissal from the service or dishonorable discharge, imposed by a National Guard court-martial, not in the service of the United States, shall be executed until approved by the governor of the State or Territory concerned, or by the commanding general of the National Guard of the District of Columbia. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 107, 39 Stat. 209.)

97. Issuance of warrants of arrest; execution of sentences.—In the National Guard, not in the service of the United States, presidents of courts-martial and summary court officers shall have power to issue warrants to arrest accused persons and to bring them before the court for trial whenever such persons shall have disobeyed an order in writing from the convening authority to appear before such court, a copy of the charge or charges having been delivered to the accused with such order, and to issue subpœnas and subpœnas duces tecum and to enforce by attachment attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers, and to sentence for a refusal to be sworn or to answer as provided in actions before civil courts.

All processes and sentences of said courts shall be executed by such civil officers as may be prescribed by the laws of the several States and Territories, and in any State where no provision shall have been made for such action, and in the Territories and the District of Columbia, such processes and sentences shall be executed by a United States marshal or his duly appointed deputy, and it shall be the duty of any United States marshal to execute all such processes and sentences and make return thereof to the officer issuing or imposing the same. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 108, 39 Stat. 209.)

Chapter 7.—COMMISSIONED OFFICERS.

Sec.
111. Qualifications for officers.
112. Federal oath for officers.
113. Examinations for commissions.
114. Authority to vacate commissions and grounds therefor.
115. Filling vacancies in organizations in Federal service.

Section 111. Qualifications for officers.—Persons commissioned as officers of the National Guard after June 4, 1920, shall not be recognized as such under any of the provisions of this title unless they shall have been selected from the following classes, and shall have taken and subscribed to the oath of office prescribed in section 112 of this title; officers or enlisted men of the National Guard; officers, active or retired, reserve officers, and former officers, of the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, enlisted men and former enlisted men of the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps who have received an honorable discharge therefrom; graduates of the United States Military and Naval Academies; and graduates of schools, colleges, universities, and officers' training camps, where they have received military instruction under the supervision of an officer of the Regular Army who certified their fitness for appointment as commissioned officers; and for the technical branches or Staff Corps and departments, such other civilians as may be specially qualified for duty therein. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 74, 39 Stat. 201; June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 41, 41 Stat. 781.)

112. Federal oath for officers.—Commissioned officers of the National Guard of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia serving on June 3, 1916, under commissions regularly issued shall continue in office, as officers of the National Guard, without the issuance of new commissions: Provided, That said officers have taken, or shall take and subscribe to the following oath of office: "I, ———, do solemnly swear that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States and the constitution of the State of ———, against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I will obey the orders of the President of the United States and of the Governor of the State of ———; that I make this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office of ——— in the National Guard of the United States and of the State of ——— upon which I am about to enter, so help me God." (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 73, 39 Stat. 201.)

113. Examinations for commissions.—The provisions of this title shall not apply to any person appointed an officer of the National Guard after June 3, 1916, unless he first shall have successfully passed such tests as to his physical, moral, and professional fitness as the President shall prescribe. The examination to determine such qualifications for commission shall be conducted by a board of three commissioned officers appointed by the Secretary of War from the Regular Army or the National Guard, or both. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 75, 39 Stat. 202.)

114. Authority to vacate commissions and grounds therefor.—At any time the moral character, capacity, and general fitness for the service of any National Guard officer may be determined by an efficiency board of three commissioned officers, senior in rank to the officer whose fitness for service shall be under investigation, and if the findings of such board be unfavorable to such officer and be approved by the official authorized to appoint such an officer, he shall be discharged. Commissions of officers of the National Guard may be vacated upon resignation, absence without leave for three months, upon the recommendation of an efficiency board, or pursuant to sentence of a court-martial. Officers of said guard rendered surplus by the disbandment of their organizations shall be placed in the National Guard Reserve. Officers may, upon their own application, be placed in the said reserve. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 77, 39 Stat. 202.)

115. Filling vacancies in organizations in Federal service.—All vacancies occurring in any grade of commissioned officers in any organization in the military service of the United States and composed of persons drafted from the National Guard under the provisions of this title shall be filled by the President, as far as practicable, by the appointment of persons similarly taken from said guard, and in the manner prescribed by law for filling similar vacancies occurring in the volunteer forces. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 76, 39 Stat. 202.)

Chapter 8.—ENLISTED FORCE.

Sec.
121. Enlisted strength of National Guard.
122. Compliance with preceding section.
123. Contract and oath of enlistment.
124. Periods of enlistment and reenlistment.
125. Discharge of enlisted men.

Section 121. Enlisted strength of National Guard.—The number of enlisted men of the National Guard to be organized under this title within one year from June 3, 1916, shall be for each State in the proportion of two hundred such men for each Senator and Representative in Congress from such State, and a number to be determined by the President for each Territory and the District of Columbia, and shall be increased each year thereafter in the proportion of not less than 50 per centum until a total peace strength of not less than eight hundred enlisted men for each Senator and Representative in Congress shall have been reached: Provided, That in States which have but one Representative in Congress such increase shall be at the discretion of the President: Provided further, That this shall not be construed to prevent any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia from organizing the full number of troops required under this section in less time than is specified in this section, or from maintaining existing organizations if they shall conform to such rules and regulations regarding organization, strength, and armament as the President may prescribe: And provided further, That nothing in this title shall be construed to prevent any State with but one Representative in Congress from organizing one or more regiments of troops, with such auxiliary troops as the President may prescribe; such organizations and members of such organizations to receive all the benefits accruing under this title under the conditions set forth herein. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 62, 39 Stat. 198.)

122. Compliance with preceding section.—The provisions of the next preceding section shall be considered fulfilled if the first strength mentioned therein be attained by June 30, 1920, and the other increments provided therein be attained by successive years thereafter: Provided, That this shall not prevent any State from compliance with the provisions of section 62. (July 11, 1919, c. 8, 41 Stat. 126.)

123. Contract and oath of enlistment.—Men enlisting in the National Guard of the several States, Territories, and the District of Columbia, shall sign an enlistment contract and subscribe to the following oath of enlistment: "I do hereby acknowledge to have voluntarily enlisted this ——— day of ———, 19—, as a soldier in the National Guard of the United States and of the State of ———, for the period of three (or one) year—, under the conditions prescribed by law, unless sooner discharged by proper authority. And I do solemnly swear that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the United States of America and to the State of ———, and that I will serve them honestly and faithfully against all their enemies whomsoever, and that I will obey the orders of the President of the United States and of the Governor of the State of ———, and of the officers appointed over me according to law and the rules and Articles of War." (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 38, 41 Stat. 781.)

124. Periods of enlistment and reenlistment.—Original enlistments in the National Guard shall be for a period of three years, and subsequent enlistments for periods of one year or three years each. (June 6, 1924, c. 275, § 4, 43 Stat. 470.)

125. Discharge of enlisted men.—An enlisted man discharged from service in the National Guard, except when drafted into the military service of the United States under the provisions of section 81 of this title, shall receive a discharge in writing in such form and with such classification as is or shall be prescribed for the Regular Army, and in time of peace discharges may be given prior to the expiration of terms of enlistment under such regulations as the President may prescribe. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 40, 41 Stat. 781.)

Chapter 9.—NATIONAL GUARD RESERVE.

Sec.
131. Establishment and organization.
132. Enlistments.
133. Transfer from reserve to active list and vice versa.
134. Pay and allowances of reservists on active duty.

Section 131. Establishment and organization.—Subject to such rules and regulations as the President may prescribe, a National Guard Reserve shall be organized in each State, Territory, and the District of Columbia, and shall consist of such organizations, officers, and enlisted men as the President may prescribe, or members thereof may be assigned as reserves to an active organization of the National Guard. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 78, 39 Stat. 202.)

132. Enlistments.—Men duly qualified for enlistment in the active National Guard may enlist in the National Guard Reserve for a period of one or three years, under such regulations as the Secretary of War shall prescribe, and on so enlisting they shall subscribe to the following enlistment contract and take the oath therein specified: "I do hereby acknowledge to have voluntarily enlisted this ——— day of ———, 19—, as a soldier in the National Guard of the United States and of the State of ———, to serve in the Reserve thereof, or in the active National Guard of the United States and said State if transferred thereto, for a period of one (or three) year—, unless sooner discharged by proper authority, and I do solemnly swear that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the United States of America and to the State of ———, and that I will serve them honestly and faithfully against all their enemies whomsoever and that I will obey the orders of the President of the United States and the Governor of the State of ———, and of the officers appointed over me according to law and the rules and Articles of War." (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 371, § 2, 43 Stat. 1076.)

133. Transfer from reserve to active list and vice versa.—Under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe, enlisted men of the active National Guard may be transferred to the National Guard Reserve; likewise, enlisted men hereafter enlisted in or transferred to the National Guard Reserve may be transferred to the active National Guard; Provided, That no enlisted man shall be required to serve under any enlistment for a longer time than the period for which he enlisted in the active National Guard or National Guard Reserve as the case may be. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 371, § 2, 43 Stat. 1076.)

134. Pay and allowances of reservists on active duty.—Members of said Reserve, officers and enlisted men, when engaged in field or coast defense training with the active National Guard, shall receive the same Federal pay and allowances as those occupying like grades on the active list of said guard when likewise engaged: Provided further, That except as otherwise specifically provided in this title, no commissioned or enlisted reservist shall receive any pay or allowances out of any appropriation made by Congress for National Guard purposes. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 371, § 2, 43 Stat. 1076.)

Chapter 10.—PAY AND ALLOWANCES.

Sec.
141. Pay periods for officers entitled to Federal pay.
142. Longevity pay of officers.
143. Pay of officers and warrant officers for armory drills.
144. Pay and allowances for attending encampments, etc., for field or coast-defense instruction.
145. Pay and allowances for attending instruction camps.
146. Pay and allowances for attendance at service schools, etc.
147. Pay and allowances for duty with Regular Army.
148. Administrative function pay of officers.
149. Pay of warrant officers in addition to pay prescribed by section 143.
150. Additional pay for flying duty; travel allowance.
151. Quarters and subsistence for officers and warrant officers during instruction and training.
152. Pay of enlisted men of sixth and seventh grades.
153. Pay for specialist rating in sixth and seventh grades.
154. Pay of enlisted men of grades other than sixth and seventh.
155. Payment of men enlisted by State authorities.
156. Uniforms, accouterments and equipment furnished to officers at cost.
157. Commencement of pay in Federal service.
158. Time of payment for attending encampments, etc.
159. Payment of arrears.
160. Pensions for death or disability in Federal service.
Sec.
161. Pay and allowances continued during hospital treatment for injuries in line of duty; transportation on discharge.
162. Hospital treatment, pay, etc., in case of injury while engaged in flying prescribed under preceding section.
163. Pay and allowances in hospital limited to six months.
164. Burial expenses of persons dying in hospital or while training.

Section 141. Pay periods for officers entitled to Federal pay.—See section 7 of Title 37.

142. Longevity pay of officers.—See section 7 of Title 37.

143. Pay of officers and warrant officers for armory drills.—Under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe, captains, lieutenants, and warrant officers belonging to organizations of the National Guard shall receive compensation at the rate of one-thirtieth of the monthly base pay prescribed for them in sections 7 and 13 of Title 37, for each regular drill or other period of instruction authorized by the Secretary of War, not exceeding eight in any one calendar month and not exceeding sixty in one year, at which they shall have been officially present for the entire required period of not less than one and one-half hours. Officers above the grade of captain shall receive not more than $500 a year, and officers below the grade of major, not belonging to organizations, shall receive not more than four-thirtieths of the monthly base pay prescribed for them in section 7 of Title 37 for satisfactory performance of their appropriate duties under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe. Pay under the provisions of this section shall not accrue to any officer during a period when he shall be entitled under any provision of law to the full rate of his base pay prescribed in section 7 or section 13 of Title 37, or section 673 of Title 10, as the case may be. (June 3, 1924, c. 244, § 3, 43 Stat. 364.)

144. Pay and allowances for attending encampments, etc., for field or coast-defense instruction.—The officers and enlisted men of the National Guard while engaged in encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, including outdoor target practice, for field or coast-defense instruction shall be entitled to the same pay, subsistence, and transportation as officers and enlisted men of corresponding grades of the Regular Army are or may be entitled by law. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 94, 39 Stat. 206.)

145. Pay and allowances for attending instruction camps.—Officers and enlisted men of the National Guard attending instruction camps shall be entitled to pay and transportation, and enlisted men to subsistence in addition, at the same rates as for encampments or maneuvers for field or coast-defense instruction. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 97, 39 Stat. 207.)

146. Pay and allowances for attendance at service schools, etc.—When any National Guard officer or enlisted man is selected to attend and pursue a regular course of study at any military service school of the United States, except the United States Military Academy, or to be attached to an organization of the same arm, corps, or department to which such officer or enlisted man shall belong, for routine practical instruction at or near an Army post during a period of field training or other outdoor exercises, such officer shall receive out of any National Guard allotment of funds available for the purpose, the pay and allowances provided in Title 37 for officers of the National Guard when authorized by law to receive Federal pay and the travel allowances provided in section 20 thereof, and any such enlisted man shall receive therefrom, except as otherwise provided in section 23 of Title 37, the same pay and allowances, including allowances for quarters, subsistence, and travel to which an enlisted man of the Regular Army of like grade would be entitled for attending such school, college, or practical course of instruction under orders from proper military authority, while in actual attendance at such school, college, or practical course of instruction, and for the necessary period of travel from and to his home station. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 423, § 5, 42 Stat. 1035.)

147. Pay and allowances for duty with Regular Army.—National Guard officers assigned to duty with the regular Army shall, while so assigned, receive the pay and allowances authorized in section 175 of this title. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 81, 39 Stat. 203; June 4, 1920, c. 227, subschapter I, § 44, 41 Stat. 782; Sept. 22, 1922, c. 423, § 4, 42 Stat. 1034; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 371, § 3, 43 Stat. 1077.)

148. Administrative function pay of officers.—In addition to pay provided, in section 143 of this title, officers commanding organizations less than a brigade and having administrative functions connected therewith, shall, whether or not such officers belong to such organizations, receive not more than $240 a year for the faithful performance of such administrative functions under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe; and for the purpose of determining how much shall be paid to such officers so performing such functions, the Secretary of War may, from time to time, divide them into classes and fix the amount payable to the officers in each class. Pay under the provisions of this section shall not accrue to any officer during a period when he shall be entitled under any provision of law to the full rate of his base pay prescribed in section 7 or section 13 of Title 37, as the case may be. (June 3, 1924, c. 244, § 3, 43 Stat. 364.)

149. Pay of warrant officers in addition to pay prescribed by section 143.—See section 23 of Title 37.

150. Additional pay for flying duty; travel allowance.—See section 29 of Title 37.

151. Quarters and subsistence for officers and warrant officers during instruction and training.—See section 23 of Title 37.

152. Armory drill pay of enlisted men of sixth and seventh grades.—See section 23 of Title 37.

153. Pay of specialist rating in sixth and seventh grades.—Enlisted men of the sixth and seventh grades of the National Guard holding specialists' ratings under the provisions of section 605 of Title 10, shall, in addition to the pay provided in section 23 of Title 37, be entitled to one-thirtieth of the specialists' pay provided in section 13 of Title 37 for each day of participation in exercises provided for by sections 63, 64, and 65 of this title: Provided, That payments made prior to June 3, 1924, to enlisted men of the sixth and seventh grades of the National Guard holding specialists' ratings of one-thirtieth of the specialists' pay provided in said section 13 of Title 37 for each day spent in participating in exercises or performing the duties provided for by sections 63, 64, and 65 of this title are hereby validated. (June 3, 1924, c. 244, § 6, 43 Stat. 365.)

154. Pay of enlisted men of grades other than sixth and seventh.—Each enlisted man belonging to an organization of the National Guard, other than enlisted men of the sixth and seventh grades, shall receive compensation at the rate of one-thirtieth of the initial monthly pay of his grade in the Regular Army, and each of those of the sixth and seventh grades shall receive compensation as is provided in section 23 of Title 37, for each drill ordered for his organization where he is officially present and in which he participates for not less than one and one-half hours, not exceeding eight in any one calendar month and not exceeding sixty drills in one year: Provided, That the proviso contained in section 62 of this title shall not operate to prevent the payment of enlisted men actually present at any duly ordered drill or other exercise: Provided further, That periods of any actual military duty equivalent to the drills herein prescribed (except those periods of service provided for in sections 63, 64, 65, and 82 of this title, as amended) may be accepted as service in lieu of such drills when so provided by the Secretary of War: And provided further, That any enlisted man shall, under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe, receive compensation under the provisions of this section for any drill had in accordance with such provisions where he is officially present and in which he participates for not less than one and one-half hours with a National Guard organization within the same State at a station other than his own, upon presentation of a certificate in form prescribed in said regulations from the organization commander to the commanding officer of the organization of which he is a member showing such drill participation.

All amounts appropriated for the purpose of this section and section 143 of this title shall be disbursed and accounted for by the officers and agents of the Finance Department of the Army, and all disbursements under the foregoing provisions of this section shall be made as soon as practicable after the 31st day of March, the 30th day of June, the 30th day of September, and the 31st day of December of each year upon pay rolls prepared and authenticated in the manner to be prescribed by the Secretary of War: Provided, That stoppages may be made against the compensation payable to any officer or enlisted man hereunder to cover the cost of public property lost or destroyed by and chargeable to such officer or enlisted man.

Except as otherwise specifically provided herein no money appropriated under the provisions of this section or section 143 of this title shall be paid to any person not on the active list, nor to any person over sixty-four years of age, nor to any person who shall fail to qualify as to fitness for military service under such regulations as the Secretary of War shall prescribe, nor to any State, Territory, or District, or officer or enlisted man in the National Guard thereof unless and until such State, Territory, or District provides by law that staff officers, including officers of the Finance, Inspection, Quartermaster, and Medical Departments hereafter appointed shall have had previous military experience and shall hold their positions until they shall have reached the age of sixty-four years, unless retired prior to that time by reason of resignation, disability, or for cause to be determined by a court-martial legally convened for that purpose, and that vacancies among said officers shall be filled by appointment from the officers of the militia of such State, Territory, or District. (Sept 22, 1922, c. 423, § 6, 42 Stat. 1035; June 6, 1924, c. 275, § 7, 43 Stat. 471.)

155. Payment of men enlisted by State authorities.—Nothing in this title shall be construed to prohibit the paying of men enlisted by State authorities of any State for militia organization for the purpose of bringing said organization up to the minimum necessary to permit of the muster in of said organization, from the date of such enlistments to the date of muster in or from date of enlistment to date of rejection, after physical examination. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 624.)

156. Uniforms, accouterments, and equipment furnished to officers at cost.—Uniforms, accouterments, and equipment shall on the request of any officer of the National Guard and National Guard Reserve, whether in State or Federal service, be furnished by the Government at cost for cash on proper identification and under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe. (June 3, 1924, c. 244, § 3, 43 Stat. 364.)

157. Commencement of pay in Federal service.—When the militia is called into the actual service of the United States, their pay shall commence from the day of their appearing at the place of company rendezvous, but this provision shall not be construed to authorize any species of expenditure previous to arriving at such places of rendezvous which is not provided by existing laws to be paid after their arrival at such places of rendezvous. (May 27, 1908, c. 204, § 7, 35 Stat. 401.)

158. Time of payment for attending encampments, etc.—When any portion of the National Guard shall participate in encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, including outdoor target practice, for field or coast-defense instruction, under the provisions of this title, it may, after being duly mustered, be paid at any time after such muster for the period from the date of leaving the home rendezvous to date of return thereto as determined in advance, both dates inclusive; and such payment, if otherwise correct, shall pass to the credit of the disbursing officer making the same. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 98, 39 Stat. 207.)

159. Payment of arrears.—Members of the National Guard who have or shall become entitled for a continuous period of less than one month to Federal pay at the rates fixed for the Regular Army, whether by virtue of a call by the President, of attendance at school or maneuver, or of any other cause, and whose accounts have not been settled, shall receive such pay for each day of such period; and the thirty-first day of a calendar month shall not be excluded from the computation. Such payments may include the entire amount lawfully accruing to such officers as pay, allowances, and mileage on account of such service, and, including pay and mileage for their return home, may be paid to the officers during said period and prior to their departure from the camp or other place at which such service is performed. (June 30, 1922, c. 253, Title I, 42 Stat. 749; Sept. 14, 1922, c. 307, § 3, 42 Stat. 841; Mar. 4, 1923, c. 281, § 3, 42 Stat. 1508.)

160. Pensions for death or disability in Federal service.—When any officer or enlisted man of the National Guard drafted into the service of the United States in time of war is disabled by reason of wounds or disability received or incurred while in the active service of the United States in time of war, he shall be entitled to all the benefits of the pension laws existing at the time of his service, and in case such officer or enlisted man dies in the active service of the United States in time of war or in returning to his place of residence after being mustered out of such service, or at any other time in consequence of wounds or disabilities received in such active service, his widow and children, if any, shall be entitled to all the benefits of such pension laws. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 112, 39 Stat. 211.)

161. Pay and allowances continued during hospital treatment for injuries in line of duty; transportation on discharge.—Officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men of the National Guard injured in line of duty while at encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises, or at service schools, under the provisions of sections 63, 64, and 65 of this title shall be entitled, under such regulations as the President may prescribe, to medical and hospital treatment at Government expense, and to a continuation of the pay and allowances whether in money or in kind, they were receiving at the time of such injuries, until they are fit for transportation to their homes, and upon termination of such medical and hospital treatment shall be entitled to transportation to their homes at Government expense. (June 3, 1924, c. 244, § 4, 43 Stat. 364.)

162. Hospital treatment, pay, etc., in case of injury while engaged in flying prescribed under preceding section.—Officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men of the National Guard injured in line of duty when participating in aerial flights prescribed under the provisions of section 62 of this title shall, under regulations prescribed by the President, be entitled from the date such injury was sustained to the same medical and hospital treatment at Government expense, pay and allowances, and transportation to their homes, as if such injury had occurred while in line of duty at encampments, maneuvers, or other exercises under section 62 of this title. (June 3, 1924, c. 244, § 4, 43 Stat. 364.)

163. Pay and allowances in hospital limited to six months.—Any person hereinbefore described in the two next preceding sections, injured as therein stated, who shall remain disabled for more than six months, shall, during the period of disability in excess of six months and until fit for transportation to his home, be entitled to medical and hospital treatment and to subsistence at Government expense, and when fit for transportation shall be entitled to transportation to his home at Government expense, but shall not during such period in excess of six months be entitled to other compensation. (June 3, 1924, c. 244, § 4, 43 Stat. 364.)

164. Burial expenses of persons dying in hospital or while training.—If the death of any person mentioned in sections 161 and 162 of this title occurs while he is undergoing the training or medical and hospital treatment contemplated in said sections, the United States shall pay for burial expenses and the return of the body to his home a sum not to exceed $100, as may be fixed in regulations prescribed by the President. (June 3, 1924, c. 244, § 4, 43 Stat. 364.)

Chapter 11.—MILITIA BUREAU.

Sec.

171. Creation of bureau.
172. Appointment and term of office of chief of bureau; rank, pay, and allowances; right to retirement.
173. Vacancy in office of chief or disability of incumbent; acting chief.
174. Assignment of officers and enlisted men of Regular Army to Militia Bureau.
175. Assignment of National Guard officers to Militia Bureau; pay and allowances.
176. Fund for payment of officers of Militia Bureau.

Section 171. Creation of bureau.—The Militia Division of the War Department shall hereafter be known as the Militia Bureau of the War Department. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 371, § 3, 43 Stat. 1076.)

172. Appointment and term of office of chief of bureau; rank, pay, and allowances; right to retirement.—The Chief of the Militia Bureau shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, by selection from lists of active federally recognized National Guard officers, recommended by the governors of the several States and Territories as suitable for such appointment, who have had ten or more years' commissioned service in the active National Guard, at least five of which have been in the line, and who have attained at least the grade of major. The Chief of the Militia Bureau shall hold office for four years unless sooner removed for cause, shall be eligible to succeed himself and when he is sixty-four years of age he shall cease to hold such office. Upon accepting his office the Chief of the Militia Bureau shall also be appointed a major general in the Officers' Reserve Corps and shall be commissioned in the Army of the United States, which appointment and commission shall terminate when he ceases to hold such office. The Chief of the Militia Bureau shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of a major general provided in section 8 of Title 37, during his tenure of office, but shall not be entitled to retirement or retired pay. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 371, § 3, 43 Stat. 1076.)

173. Vacancy in office of chief or disability of incumbent; acting chief.—In case the office of Chief of the Militia Bureau becomes vacant or the incumbent, because of disability, is unable to discharge the powers and duties of the office, the reserve officer, senior in rank on duty in the Militia Bureau, appointed from the National Guard, shall act as chief of said bureau until the incumbent is able to resume his duties, or the vacancy in the office is regularly filled. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 81, 39 Stat. 203; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 371, § 3, 43 Stat. 1077.)

174. Assignment of officers and enlisted men of Regular Army to Militia Bureau.—For duty in the Militia Bureau the President shall assign such number of officers and enlisted men of the Regular Army as he may deem necessary. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 371, § 3, 43 Stat. 1077.)

175. Assignment of National Guard officers to Militia Bureau; pay and allowances.—The President may also assign, with their consent, to duty in the Militia Bureau three officers who, at the time of their initial assignment, are active federally recognized National Guard officers and who are reserve officers, and any such officer while so assigned shall receive the pay and allowances provided in Title 37, for officers of the National Guard when authorized by law to receive Federal pay. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 371, § 3, 43 Stat. 1077.)

176. Fund for payment of officers of Militia Bureau.—The pay and allowances provided in section 172 of this title for the Chief of the Militia Bureau and for the reserve officers assigned to duty from the National Guard shall be paid out of the whole fund appropriated for the support of the National Guard. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 371, § 3, 43 Stat. 1077.)

Chapter 12.—RIFLE INSTRUCTION AND PRACTICE FOR CIVILIANS.

Sec.
181. Rifle ranges and equipment for instruction and practice.
182. Director of civilian marksmanship.
183. Detail of officers and enlisted men for duty at rifle ranges.
184. Detail of enlisted men to instruct rifle clubs.
185. Commutation of traveling expenses of members of civilian rifle teams.

Section 181. Rifle ranges and equipment for instruction and practice.—The Secretary of War shall, within the limits of appropriations made from time to time by Congress and in accordance with reasonable rules and regulations approved by him upon the recommendation of the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice, authorize and provide for—

(a) Construction, equipment, maintenance, and operation of indoor and outdoor rifle ranges and their accessories and appliances;

(b) Instruction of able-bodied citizens of the United States in marksmanship and, in connection therewith, the employment of necessary instructors;

(c) Promotion of practice in the use of rifled arms, the maintenance and management of matches or competitions in the use of such arms, and the issuance in connection therewith of the necessary arms, ammunition, targets, and other necessary supplies and appliances, and the award to competitors of trophies, prizes, badges, and other insignia;

(d) Sale to members of the National Rifle Association, at cost to the Government, and issue to clubs organized, for practice with rifled arms, under the direction of the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice, of arms, ammunition, targets, and other supplies and appliances necessary for target practice;

(e) Maintenance of the National Board for the Promotion of Rifle Practice, including provision for the necessary expenses thereof and of its members;

(f) Procurement of necessary materials, supplies, appliances, trophies, prizes, badges, and other insignia, clerical and other services, and labor;

(g) Transportation of employees, instructors, and civilians to give or undergo instruction or to assist or engage in practice in the use of rifled arms, and the transportation and subsistence, or commutations in lieu of subsistence, of members of teams especially authorized by the Secretary of War to participate in matches or competitions in the use of rifled arms, making a full report of all things done hereunder annually to Congress. (June 7, 1924, c. 291, Title I, 43 Stat. 510.)

182. Director of civilian marksmanship.—The President is authorized, in his discretion, to appoint, as director of civilian marksmanship, under the direction of the Secretary of War, an officer of the Army or of the Marine Corps. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 648.)

183. Detail of officers and enlisted men for duty at rifle ranges.—The President may detail capable officers and noncommissioned officers of the Regular Army and National Guard to duty at such ranges as instructors for the purpose of training the citizenry in the use of the military arm. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 113, 39 Stat. 211.)

184. Detail of enlisted men to instruct rifle clubs.—The Secretary of War, in his discretion, and under such regulations as he may prescribe, may authorize the detail of enlisted men of the Army as temporary instructors in rifle practice to organized rifle clubs requesting such instruction. (May 12, 1917, c. 12, 40 Stat. 64.)

185. Commutation of traveling expenses to members of civilian rifle teams.—Members of civilian rifle teams may, in the discretion of the Secretary of War, be paid, as commutation of traveling expenses at the rate of 5 cents per mile for the shortest usually traveled route from their homes to national matches, when authorized to participate therein by the Secretary of War and for the return travel thereto: Provided further, That the payment of travel pay for the return journey may be made in advance of the actual performance of travel. (June 5, 1920, c. 240, 41 Stat. 966.)

Chapter 13.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

Sec.
191. Preservation of names, numbers, flags, etc., of units serving in World War.
192. Certain corps permitted to retain ancient privileges.
193. Ancient privileges of First Corps Cadets, Massachusetts.
194. Maintenance of other troops by States and Territories.

Section 191. Preservation of names, numbers, flags, etc., of units serving in World War.—In the reorganization of the National Guard, the names, numbers and other designations, flags, and records of the divisions and subordinate units thereof that served in the World War between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, shall be preserved as such as far as practicable. (June 4, 1920, c. 227, subchapter I, § 3, 41 Stat. 760.)

192. Certain corps permitted to retain ancient privileges.—Any corps of Artillery, Cavalry, or Infantry existing in any of the States on May 8, 1792, which by the laws, customs, or usages of said States has been in continuous existence since said day under the provisions of the laws of the United States, relating to the militia, shall be allowed to retain its ancient privileges, subject, nevertheless, to all duties required by law of militia: Provided, That said organizations may be a part of the National Guard and entitled to all the privileges of this title, and shall conform in all respects to the organization, discipline, and training of the National Guard in time of war: Provided further, That for purposes of training and when on active duty in the service of the United States they may be assigned to higher units, as the President may direct, and shall be subject to the orders of officers under whom they shall be serving. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 63, 39 Stat. 198.)

193. Ancient privileges of First Corps Cadets, Massachusetts.—Pursuant to section 192 of this title, the First Corps of Cadets, antedating, and continuously existing in the State of Massachusetts since May 8, 1792, now designated as the Second Battalion, Two hundred and eleventh Artillery, Antiaircraft, Coast Artillery Corps, First Corps Cadets, Massachusetts National Guard, hereby declared to be such a corps as is defined in said section 192 for all the purposes thereof and now incorporated in the Organized Militia and a part of the National Guard of Massachusetts, shall be allowed to retain its ancient privileges and organization. Said First Corps Cadets is hereby further declared to be entitled to a lieutenant colonel in command, and a major second in command; and said officers, when federally recognized, shall receive, in accordance with the provisions of this title and Title

37, the pay of their respective grades: Provided, That nothing in this section or other provisions of law shall be deemed to be in derogation of any other ancient privileges to which said First Corps Cadets is entitled under the laws, customs, or usages of the State of Massachusetts. (June 6, 1924, c. 275, § 6, 43 Stat. 471.)

194. Maintenance of other troops by States and Territories.—No State shall maintain troops in time of peace other than as authorized in accordance with the organization prescribed under this title: Provided, That nothing contained in this title shall be construed as limiting the rights of the States and Territories in the use of the National Guard within their respective borders in time of peace: Provided further, That nothing contained in this title shall prevent the organization and maintenance of State police or constabulary. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 61, 39 Stat. 198.)

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Regulations by Secretary of War for navigation of waters generally.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to prescribe such regulations for the use, administration, and navigation of the navigable waters of the United States as in his judgment the public necessity may require for the protection of life and property, or of operations of the United States in channel improvement, covering all matters not specifically delegated by law to some other executive department. Such regulations shall be posted, in conspicuous and appropriate places, for the information of the public; and every person and every corporation which shall violate such regulations shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction thereof in any district court of the United States within whose territorial jurisdiction such offense may have been committed, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) not exceeding six months, in the discretion of the court.

Any regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War in pursuance of this section may be enforced as provided in section 413 of chapter 9 of this title, the provisions whereof are hereby made applicable to the said regulations. (June 13, 1902, c. 1079, § 6, 32 Stat. 374; Aug. 8, 1917, c. 49, § 7, 40 Stat. 266.)

2. Regulations for navigation of "South and Southwest Passes" of Mississippi River; penalties.—The Secretary of War is authorized to make such rules and regulations for the navigation of the South and Southwest Passes of the Mississippi River as to him shall seem necessary or expedient for the purpose of preventing any obstruction to the channels through said South and Southwest Passes and any injury to the works therein constructed. The term "South and Southwest Passes," as herein employed, shall be construed as embracing the entire extent of channel, in each case, between the upper ends of the works at the head of the pass and the outer or sea ends of the jetties at the entrance from the Gulf of Mexico; and any willful violation of any rule or regulation made by the Secretary of War in pursuance of this section shall be deemed a misdemeanor, for which the owner or owners, agent or agents, master or pilot of the vessel so offending shall be separately or collectively responsible, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100, nor exceeding $500, or by imprisonment for not exceeding three months, or by both fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 264, § 5, 35 Stat. 818.)

3. Regulations to prevent injuries from target practice.—Authority to adopt regulations.—In the interest of the national defense, and for the better protection of life and property on the navigable waters of the United States, the Secretary of War is authorized and empowered to prescribe such regulations as he may deem best for the use and navigation of any portion or area of the navigable waters of the United States or waters under the jurisdiction of the United States endangered or likely to be endangered by Coast Artillery fire in target practice or otherwise, or by the proving operations of the Government ordnance proving grounds at Sandy Hook, New Jersey, or at any Government ordnance proving ground that may be established elsewhere on or near such waters, and of any portion or area of said waters occupied by submarine mines, mine fields, submarine cables, or other material and accessories pertaining to seacoast fortifications, or by any plant or facility engaged in the execution of any public project of river and harbor improvement; and the said Secretary shall have like power to regulate the transportation of explosives upon any of said waters: Provided, That the authority hereby conferred shall be so exercised as not unreasonably to interfere with or restrict the food fishing industry, and the regulations prescribed in pursuance hereof shall provide for the use of such waters by food fishermen operating under permits granted by the War Department.

Detail of vessels to enforce regulations.—To enforce the regulations prescribed pursuant to this section, the Secretary of War may detail any public vessel in the service of the War Department, or, upon the request of the Secretary of War, the head of any other department may enforce, and the head of any such department is hereby authorized to enforce, such regulations by means of any public vessel of such department.

Posting and violation of regulations.—The regulations made by the Secretary of War pursuant to this section shall be posted in conspicuous and appropriate places, designated by him, for the information of the public; and every person who and every corporation which shall willfully violate any regulations made by the said Secretary pursuant to this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) not exceeding six months, in the discretion of the court.

Venue and jurisdiction of offenses; procedure.—Offenses against the provisions of this section, or any regulation made pursuant thereto, committed in any Territory or other place subject to the jurisdiction of the United States where there is no court having general jurisdiction of crimes against the United States, shall be cognizable in any court of such place or Territory having original jurisdiction of criminal cases in the place or Territory in which the offense has been committed, with the same right of appeal in all cases as is given in other criminal cases where imprisonment not exceeding six months forms a part of the penalty, and jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon such courts and such courts shall exercise the same for such purposes; and in case any such offense be committed beyond the territorial jurisdiction of any court having jurisdiction thereof, the offense shall be deemed and held to have been committed within the jurisdiction in which the offender may be found or into which he is first brought, and shall be tried by the court having jurisdiction thereof. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter XIX, §§ 1–4, 40 Stat. 892.)

4. Water gauges on Mississippi River and tributaries.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized and directed to have water gauges established, and daily observations made of the rise and fall of the Mississippi River and its tributaries.

For the purpose of securing the uninterrupted gauging of the waters of the Mississippi River and its tributaries, as provided for in this section, upon the application of the Chief of Engineers, the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to draw his warrant or requisition, from time to time, upon the Secretary of the Treasury for such sums as may be necessary to do such work, not to exceed in the aggregate for each year the sum of $9,600: Provided, however, That an itemized statement of said expenses shall accompany the annual report of the Chief of Engineers. (R. S. § 5252; June 13, 1902, c. 1079, § 9, 32 Stat. 374.)

5. Abolition of tolls on Government canals, canalized rivers, etc.; expense of operation, repairs to and reconstruction of canals, etc.; Panama Canal excepted.—No tolls or operating charges whatever shall be levied upon or collected from any vessel, dredge, or other water craft for passing through any lock, canal, canalized river, or other work for the use and benefit of navigation, now belonging to the United States or that may be hereafter acquired or constructed; and for the purpose of preserving and continuing the use and navigation of said canals and other public works without interruption, the Secretary of War, upon the recommendation of the Chief of Engineers, United States Army, is hereby authorized to draw his warrant or requisition, from time to time, upon the Secretary of the Treasury to pay the actual expenses of operating, maintaining, and keeping said works in repair, which warrants or requisitions shall be paid by the Secretary of the Treasury out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated: Provided, That whenever, in the judgment of the Secretary of War, the condition of any of the aforesaid works is such that its entire reconstruction is absolutely essential to its efficient and economical maintenance and operation as herein provided for, the reconstruction thereof may include such modifications in plan and location as may be necessary to provide adequate facilities for existing navigation: Provided further, That the modifications are necessary to make the reconstructed work conform to similar works previously authorized by Congress and forming a part of the same improvement, and that such modifications shall be considered and approved by the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors and be recommended by the Chief of Engineers before the work of reconstruction is commenced: Provided further, also, That an itemized statement of said expenses shall accompany the annual report of the Chief of Engineers: And provided further, That nothing herein contained shall be held to apply to the Panama Canal. (July 5, 1884, c. 229, § 4, 23 Stat. 147; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 264, § 6, 35 Stat. 818.)

6. Free passage to harbor of Michigan City, Indiana.—The passage of vessels to and from the harbor of Michigan City, in Indiana, shall be free and not subject to toll or charge. (R. S. § 5247.)

7. Use of Government iron pier in Delaware Bay.—The Government iron pier in Delaware Bay near Lewes, Delaware, shall be open to public use under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of War. (July 27, 1916, c. 260, § 1, 39 Stat. 394.)

8. Toll-free rivers in Alabama.—The Tennessee, Coosa, Cahawba, and Black Warrior Rivers, within the State of Alabama, shall be forever free from toll for all property belonging to the United States, and for all persons in their service, and for all citizens of the United States, except as to such tolls as may be allowed by Act of Congress. (R. S. § 5244.)

9. Des Moines River as toll-free.—The Des Moines River shall forever remain free from any toll, or other charge whatever, for any property of the United States, or persons in their service, passing along the same. (R. S. § 5246.)

10. Waters in Louisiana Purchase as public highways.—All the navigable rivers and waters in the former Territories of Orleans and Louisiana shall be and forever remain public highways. (R. S. § 5251.)

11. Authority for compact between Middle Northwest States as to jurisdiction of offenses committed on boundary waters.—The consent of the Congress is hereby given to the States of North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, and Nebraska, or any two or more of them, by such agreement or compact as they may deem desirable or necessary, or as may be evidenced by legislative acts enacted by any two or more of said States, not in conflict with the Constitution of the United States or any law thereof, to determine and settle the jurisdiction to be exercised by said States, respectively, over offenses arising out of the violation of the laws of any of said States upon any of the waters forming the boundary lines between any two or more of said States, or waters through which such boundary line extends, and that the consent of the Congress be, and the same is hereby, given to the concurrent jurisdiction agreed to by the States of Minnesota and South Dakota, as evidenced by the act of the Legislature of the State of Minnesota approved April 20, 1917, and the act of the Legislature of the State of South Dakota approved February 13, 1917. (Mar. 4, 1921, c. 158, 41 Stat. 1366.)

12. Port Arthur Ship Canal.—After there shall be conveyed to the United States, free of cost, a valid title to the line of water communication between Taylors Bayou and Sabine Pass, in the State of Texas, known as the Port Arthur Ship Canal, together with a valid title to the turning basin as existing July 19, 1906, and to the artificial slip on which the lumber dock of the Port Arthur Canal and Dock Company is built, the said waterways shall thereupon become free public waters of the United States, and be subject to the laws enacted by Congress for the maintenance, preservation, protection, and regulation of navigable waters: Provided, That the company or corporation conveying title to said canal as aforesaid shall also convey to the United States, free of cost, the fee to a strip of land one hundred and fifty feet wide along the westerly margin of the canal, except that where the right of way of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company prevents the transfer of such strip of land along the westerly margin of said canal there shall be conveyed such strip on the easterly margin thereof as may be necessary to make up such one hundred and fifty feet of width, with the reservation that until Congress shall have authorized and provided for the enlargement and widening of said canal the said company or corporation, its successors or assigns, shall have the right to control, occupy, and use the said strip of land and every part thereof in the same manner and to the same extent as before the execution and delivery of the conveyance, and also the right to transfer, lease, sell, quitclaim, or otherwise dispose of said property and every part thereof, subject to the grant made to the United States. The charges for the use of said docks and wharves shall be just and reasonable and shall not be greater than charges for similar services at other ports of the United States on the Gulf of Mexico. (June 19, 1906, c. 3436, § 1, 34 Stat. 302.)

WATERS DECLARED NONNAVIGABLE; CHANGE OF NAME

21. Bayou Cocodrie, Louisiana.—Bayou Cocodrie, from its source to its junction with Bayou Chicot, in the State of Louisiana, is declared to be not a navigable water of the United States within the meaning of the laws enacted by the Congress for the preservation and protection of such waters. The right to alter, amend, or repeal this section is hereby expressly reserved. (Feb. 25, 1921, c. 71, §§ 1–2, 41 Stat. 1145.)

22. Bayou Meto, Arkansas.—The Bayou Meto, in the State of Arkansas, is declared to be a nonnavigable stream within the meaning of the Constitution and laws of the United States. (Aug. 8, 1917, c. 49, § 16, 40 Stat. 268.)

23. Bear Creek, Mississippi.—Bear Creek in Humphreys, Leflore, and Sunflower Counties, in the State of Mississippi, is declared to be a nonnavigable stream within the meaning of the Constitution and the laws of the United States. The right of Congress to alter, amend, or repeal this section is hereby expressly reserved. (Mar. 3, 1923, c. 229, §§ 1–2, 42 Stat. 1442.)

24. Big Tarkio River, Missouri.—The Big Tarkio River, in the counties of Holt and Atchison, in the State of Missouri, is declared to be not a navigable water of the United States within the meaning of the laws enacted by Congress for the preservation and protection of such waters. The right to alter, amend, or repeal this section is hereby expressly reserved. (Feb. 15, 1910, c. 33, § 2, 36 Stat. 194.)

25. Cache River, Arkansas.—The Cache River in the State of Arkansas is declared to be a nonnavigable stream within the meaning of the Constitution and laws of the United States. This provision shall become void after one year from July 27, 1916, unless within said period the Legislature of Arkansas shall pass an act expressly approving this declaration. The right of the Congress to alter, amend, or repeal this paragraph is hereby expressly reserved. (July 27, 1916, c. 260, § 1, 39 Stat. 399.)

26. Calumet River, Cook County, Illinois, old channel.—The portion of the old channel of the Calumet River in the north quarter of fractional section 7, township 37 north, range 15, east of the third principal meridian, south of the Indian boundary line, in Cook County, Illinois, which lies outside of the new channel lines as established by the United States and shown on "map of the Calumet River, Illinois, from Lake Michigan to Calumet Lake, to accompany report of W. G. Ewing, United States attorney, to the Attorney General, respecting cession of right of way for improvement of said river, under Act of Congress approved July 5, 1884," is abandoned as navigable water. (Feb. 27, 1915, c. 68, 38 Stat. 817.)

27. Chicago River at Chicago, Illinois.—All of that portion of the West Fork of the South Branch of the Chicago River in the county of Cook and State of Illinois, extending west from the west line of the collateral channel of the sanitary district of Chicago, in the northwest quarter of section 36, township 39 north, range 13 east of the third principal meridian, is declared to be a nonnavigable stream within the meaning of the Constitution and laws of the United States. The right of Congress to alter, amend, or repeal this provision is hereby expressly reserved.

The provisions of sections 401 and 402 of chapter 9 of this title shall not apply to that portion of the west arm of the South Fork of the South Branch of the Chicago River, lying between the east line of Ashland Avenue and the north line of Thirty-ninth Street, in the city of Chicago, Illinois, as the same now exists or may hereafter be extended. All rights, authority, or control over that part of the Chicago River possessed or assumed by the United States are hereby relinquished and abandoned, and all rights, authority, or control over the same that were possessed by the State of Illinois are fully restored to said State.

As soon as the city of Chicago, or any other governmental agency or any corporation thereunto duly authorized by the Secretary of War, shall have constructed, after June 7, 1924, a new channel for the South Branch of the Chicago River between West Polk Street and West Nineteenth Street in said city of Chicago, then, and in that event, so much of the channel of the South Branch of the Chicago River as shall be superseded and replaced by said new channel in accordance with the permit of the Secretary of War shall be discontinued and abandoned. (Jan. 24, 1923, c. 33, §§ 1–2, 42 Stat. 1171; Feb. 27, 1923, c. 142, 42 Stat. 1323; June 7, 1924, c. 337, 43 Stat. 646.)

28. Crum River; old channel at mouth, Delaware Bay.—After the channel of the Crum River where the same empties into the Delaware River has been changed, diverted, and straightened under the authority given to Alba B. Johnson and Samuel M. Vauclain and the Baldwin Locomotive Works by Act July 27, 1916, chapter 260, the said Crum River, as so straightened, shall be a public navigable stream, and the course and channel of the said river, as it existed July 27, 1916, from the right of way of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway Company to the low-water line in the Delaware River shall be abandoned and vacated when the above-mentioned new channel shall have been completed to a depth of four feet at mean low water, with a bottom width of sixty-two feet and width of one hundred feet at mean low-water level: Provided, That the Government shall have such right, title, and interest in and to the bed of said new channel as will assure the public the right to the perpetual use of said channel for all the purposes of navigation and commerce. (July 27, 1916, c. 260, § 1, 39 Stat. 393.)

29. Cuivre River, Missouri.—Cuivre River, in the counties of Lincoln and Saint Charles, in the State of Missouri, being the dividing line, is hereby declared not to be a navigable stream, and shall be so treated by the Secretary of War and all other authorities. PRELIMINARY

Section 61. Adoption of rules for navigation on high seas.—The following regulations for preventing collisions at sea shall be followed by all public and private vessels of the United States upon the high seas and in all waters connected therewith, navigable by sea-going vessels: Provided, That such regulations shall not apply to the harbors, rivers and inland waters of the United States, nor to the Great Lakes and their connecting and tributary waters as far east as Montreal, nor to the Red River of the North and rivers emptying into the Gulf of Mexico and their tributaries, in so far as special rules are adopted in pursuance of article 30. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 320.)

62. "Sailing vessel," "steam vessel" and "under way" defined.—In the following rules every steam vessel which is under sail and not under steam is to be considered a sailing vessel, and every vessel under steam, whether under sail or not, is to be considered a steam vessel.

The word "steam vessel" shall include any vessel propelled by machinery.

A vessel is "under way" within the meaning of these rules when she is not at anchor, or made fast to the shore, or aground. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 320.)

63. "Visible" as applied to lights defined.—The word "visible" in these rules when applied to lights shall mean visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 321.)

RULES CONCERNING LIGHTS, ETC.

71. Time for lights; prescribed lights exclusive.—Article 1.—The rules concerning lights shall be complied with in all weathers from sunset to sunrise, and during such time no other lights which may be mistaken for the prescribed lights shall be exhibited. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 321.)

72. Lights of steam vessel under way.—Art. 2.—A steam vessel when under way shall carry—(a) On or in front of the foremast, or if a vessel without a foremast, then in the fore part of the vessel, at a height above the hull of not less than twenty feet, and if the breadth of the vessel exceeds twenty feet, then at a height above the hull not less than such breadth, so, however, that the light need not be carried at a greater height above the hull than forty feet, a bright white light, so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of twenty points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light ten points on each side of the vessel, namely, from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least five miles.

(b) On the starboard side a green light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the starboard side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

(c) On the port side a red light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the port side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

(d) The said green and red side lights shall be fitted with inboard screens projecting at least three feet forward from the light, so as to prevent these lights from being seen across the bow.

(e) A steam vessel when under way may carry an additional white light similar in construction to the light mentioned in subdivision (a). These two lights shall be so placed in line with the keel that one shall be at least fifteen feet higher than the other, and in such a position with reference to each other that the lower light shall be forward of the upper one. The vertical distance between these lights shall be less than the horizontal distance. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 321.)

73. Lights of vessel towing another vessel or vessels.—Art. 3.—A steam vessel when towing another vessel shall, in addition to her side lights, carry two bright white lights in a vertical line one over the other, not less than six feet apart, and when towing more than one vessel shall carry an additional bright white light six feet above or below such light, if the length of the tow measuring from the stern of the towing vessel to the stern of the last vessel towed exceeds six hundred feet. Each of these lights shall be of the same construction and character, and shall be carried in the same position as the white light mentioned in article 2 (a), excepting the additional light, which may be carried at a height of not less than fourteen feet above the hull.

Such steam vessel may carry a small white light abaft the funnel or aftermast for the vessel towed to steer by, but such light shall not be visible forward of the beam. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 321.)

74. Lights and day signals of vessel not under control and of telegraph cable vessel.—Art. 4.—(a) A vessel which from any accident is not under command shall carry at the same height as a white light mentioned in article 2 (a), where they can best be seen, and if a steam vessel in lieu of that light, two red lights, in a vertical line one over the other, not less than six feet apart, and of such a character as to be visible all around the horizon at a distance of at least two miles; and shall by day carry in a vertical line one over the other, not less than six feet apart, where they can best be seen, two black balls or shapes, each two feet in diameter.

(b) A vessel employed in laying or in picking up a telegraph cable shall carry in the same position as the white light mentioned in article 2 (a), and if a steam vessel in lieu of that light, three lights in a vertical line one over the other not less than six feet apart. The highest and lowest of these lights shall be red, and the middle light shall be white, and they shall be of such a character as to be visible all around the horizon, at a distance of at least two miles. By day she shall carry in a vertical line, one over the other, not less than six feet apart, where they can best be seen, three shapes not less than two feet in diameter, of which the highest and lowest shall be globular in shape and red in color, and the middle one diamond in shape and white.

(c) The vessels referred to in this article, when not making way through the water, shall not carry the side lights, but when making way shall carry them.

(d) The lights and shapes required to be shown by this article are to be taken by other vessels as signals that the vessel showing them is not under command and can not therefore get out of the way.

These signals are not signals of vessels in distress and requiring assistance. Such signals are contained in article 31. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 322.)

75. Lights of sailing vessel under way and of vessel in tow.—Art. 5.—A sailing vessel under way and any vessel being towed shall carry the same lights as are prescribed by article 2 for a steam vessel under way, with the exception of the white lights mentioned therein, which they shall never carry. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 322.)

76. Lights of small vessel under way in bad weather.—Art. 6.—Whenever, as in the case of small vessels under way during bad weather, the green and red side lights can not be fixed, these lights shall be kept at hand, lighted and ready for use; and shall, on the approach of or to other vessels, be exhibited on their respective sides in sufficient time to prevent collision, in such manner as to make them most visible, and so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side, nor, if practicable, more than two points abaft the beam on their respective sides.

To make the use of these portable lights more certain and easy the lanterns containing them shall each be painted outside with the color of the light they respectively contain and shall be provided with proper screens. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 322.)

77. Substitute lights for small vessel and rowing boats.—Art. 7.—Steam vessels of less than forty, and vessels under oars or sails of less than twenty tons gross tonnage, respectively, and rowing boats, when under way, shall not be required to carry the lights mentioned in article 2 (a), (b), and (c), but if they do not carry them they shall be provided with the following lights:

First. Steam vessels of less than forty tons shall carry—

(a) In the fore part of the vessel, or on or in front of the funnel, where it can best be seen, and at a height above the gunwale of not less than nine feet, a bright white light constructed and fixed as prescribed in article 2 (a), and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

(b) Green and red side lights constructed and fixed as prescribed in article 2 (b) and (c), and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least one mile, or a combined lantern showing a green light and a red light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on their respective sides. Such lanterns shall be carried not less than three feet below the white light.

Second. Small steamboats, such as are carried by seagoing vessels, may carry the white light at a less height than nine feet above the gunwale, but it shall be carried above the combined lantern mentioned in subdivision 1 (b).

Third. Vessels under oars or sails of less than twenty tons shall have ready at hand a lantern with a green glass on one side and a red glass on the other, which, on the approach of or to other vessels, shall be exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision, so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side.

Fourth. Rowing boats, whether under oars or sail, shall have ready at hand a lantern showing a white light which shall be temporarily exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision.

The vessels referred to in this article shall not be obliged to carry the lights prescribed by article 4 (a) and article 11, last paragraph. (May 28, 1894, c. 83, 28 Stat. 82.)

78. Lights of pilot vessel on and off duty; steam pilot vessel.—Art. 8.—Pilot vessels when engaged on their station on pilotage duty shall not show the lights required for other vessels, but shall carry a white light at the masthead, visible all around the horizon, and shall also exhibit a flare-up light or flare-up lights at short intervals, which shall never exceed fifteen minutes.

On the near approach of or to other vessels they shall have their side lights lighted, ready for use, and shall flash or show them at short intervals, to indicate the direction in which they are heading, but the green light shall not be shown on the port side, nor the red light on the starboard side.

A pilot vessel of such a class as to be obliged to go alongside of a vessel to put a pilot on board may show the white light instead of carrying it at the masthead, and may, instead of the colored lights above mentioned, have at hand, ready for use, a lantern with a green glass on the one side and a red glass on the other, to be used as prescribed above.

Pilot vessels when not engaged on their station on pilotage duty shall carry lights similar to those of other vessels of their tonnage.

A steam pilot vessel, when engaged on her station on pilotage duty and in waters of the United States, and not at anchor, shall, in addition to the lights required for all pilot boats, carry at a distance of eight feet below her white masthead light a red light, visible all around the horizon and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere at a distance of at least two miles, and also the colored side lights required to be carried by vessels when under way.

When engaged on her station on pilotage duty and in waters of the United States, and at anchor, she shall carry in addition to the lights required for all pilot boats the red light above mentioned, but not the colored side lights.

When not engaged on her station on pilotage duty, she shall carry the same lights as other steam vessels. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 323; Feb. 19, 1900, c. 22, § 1, 31 Stat. 30.)

79. Lights and day signals of fishing vessels and boats.—Art. 9.—Fishing vessels and fishing boats, when under way and when not required by this article to carry or show the lights hereinafter specified, shall carry or show the lights prescribed for vessels of their tonnage under way.

(a) Open boats, by which is to be understood boats not protected from the entry of sea water by means of a continuous deck, when engaged in any fishing at night, with outlying tackle extending not more than one hundred and fifty feet horizontally from the boat into the seaway, shall carry one all-round white light.

Open boats, when fishing at night, with outlying tackle extending more than one hundred and fifty feet horizontally from the boat into the seaway, shall carry one all-round white light, and in addition, on approaching or being approached by other vessels, shall show a second white light at least three feet below the first light and at a horizontal distance of at least five feet away from it in the direction in which the outlying tackle is attached.

(b) Vessels and boats, except open boats as defined in subdivision (a), when fishing with drift nets, shall, so long as the nets are wholly or partly in the water, carry two white lights where they can best be seen. Such lights shall be placed so that the vertical distance between them shall be not less than six feet and not more than fifteen feet, and so that the horizontal distance between them, measured in a line with the keel, shall be not less than five feet and not more than ten feet. The lower of these two lights shall be in the direction of the nets, and both of them shall be of such a character as to show all around the horizon, and to be visible at a distance of not less than three miles.

Within the Mediterranean Sea and in the seas bordering the coasts of Japan and Korea sailing fishing vessels of less than twenty tons gross tonnage shall not be obliged to carry the lower of these two lights. Should they, however, not carry it, they shall show in the same position (in the direction of the net or gear) a white light, visible at a distance of not less than one sea mile, on the approach of or to other vessels.

(c) Vessels and boats, except open boats as defined in subdivision (a), when line fishing with their lines out and attached to or hauling their lines, and when not at anchor or stationary within the meaning of subdivision (h), shall carry the same lights as vessels fishing with drift nets. When shooting lines, or fishing with towing lines, they shall carry the lights prescribed for a steam or sailing vessel under way, respectively.

Within the Mediterranean Sea and in the seas bordering the coasts of Japan and Korea sailing fishing vessels of less than twenty tons gross tonnage shall not be obliged to carry the lower of these two lights. Should they, however, not carry it, they shall show in the same position (in the direction of the lines) a white light, visible at a distance of not less than one sea mile on the approach of or to other vessels.

(d) Vessels when engaged in trawling, by which is meant the dragging of an apparatus along the bottom of the sea—

First. If steam vessels, shall carry in the same position as the white light mentioned in article two (a) a tri-colored lantern so constructed and fixed as to show a white light from right ahead to two points on each bow, and a green light and a red light over an arc of the horizon from two points on each bow to two points abaft the beam on the starboard and port sides, respectively; and not less than six nor more than twelve feet below the tri-colored lantern a white light in a lantern, so constructed as to show a clear, uniform, and unbroken light all around the horizon.

Second. If sailing vessels, shall carry a white light in a lantern, so constructed as to show a clear, uniform, and unbroken light all around the horizon, and shall also, on the approach of or to other vessels, show where it can best be seen a white flare-up light or torch in sufficient time to prevent collision.

All lights mentioned in subdivision (d) first and second shall be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

(e) Oyster dredgers and other vessels fishing with dredge nets shall carry and show the same lights as trawlers.

(f) Fishing vessels and fishing boats may at any time use a flare-up light in addition to the lights which they are by this article required to carry and show, and they may also use working lights.

(g) Every fishing vessel and every fishing boat under one hundred and fifty feet in length, when at anchor, shall exhibit a white light visible all around the horizon at a distance of at least one mile.

Every fishing vessel of one hundred and fifty feet in length or upward, when at anchor, shall exhibit a white light visible all around the horizon at a distance of at least one mile, and shall exhibit a second light as provided for vessels of such length by article eleven.

Should any such vessel, whether under one hundred and fifty feet in length or of one hundred and fifty feet in length or upward, be attached to a net or other fishing gear, she shall on the approach of other vessels show an additional white light at least three feet below the anchor light, and at a horizontal distance of at least five feet away from it in the direction of the net or gear.

(h) If a vessel or boat when fishing becomes stationary in consequence of her gear getting fast to a rock or other obstruction, she shall in daytime haul down the day signal required by subdivision (k); at night show the light or lights prescribed for a vessel at anchor; and during fog, mist, falling snow, or heavy rain storms make the signal prescribed for a vessel at anchor. (See subdivision (d) and the last paragraph of article fifteen.)

(i) In fog, mist, falling snow, or heavy rain storms, drift-net vessels attached to their nets, and vessels when trawling, dredging, or fishing with any kind of drag net, and vessels line fishing with their lines out, shall, if of twenty tons gross tonnage or upward, respectively, at intervals of not more than one minute make a blast; if steam vessels, with the whistle or siren, and if sailing vessels, with the foghorn, each blast to be followed by ringing the bell. Fishing vessels and boats of less than twenty tons gross tonnage shall not be obliged to give the above-mentioned signals; but if they do not, they shall make some other efficient sound signal at intervals of not more than one minute.

(k) All vessels or boats fishing with nets or lines or trawls, when under way, shall in daytime indicate their occupation to an approaching vessel by displaying a basket or other efficient signal where it can best be seen. If vessels or boats at anchor have their gear out, they shall, on the approach of other vessels show the same signal on the side on which those vessels can pass.

The vessels required by this article to carry or show the lights hereinbefore specified shall not be obliged to carry the lights prescribed by article four (a) and the last paragraph of article eleven. (Jan. 19, 1907, c. 300, § 1, 34 Stat. 850.)

80. Lights on overtaken vessel.—Art. 10.—A vessel which is being overtaken by another shall show from her stern to such last mentioned vessel a white light or a flare-up light.

The white light required to be shown by this article may be fixed and carried in a lantern, but in such case the lantern shall be so constructed, fitted, and screened that it shall throw an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of twelve points of the compass, namely, for six points from right aft on each side of the vessel, so as to be visible at a distance of at least one mile. Such light shall be carried as nearly as practicable on the same level as the side lights. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 324.)

81. Lights on vessel at anchor or aground.—Art. 11.—A vessel under one hundred and fifty feet in length, when at anchor, shall carry forward, where it can best be seen, but at a height not exceeding twenty feet above the hull, a white light in a lantern so constructed as to show a clear, uniform, and unbroken light visible all around the horizon at a distance of at least one mile.

A vessel of one hundred and fifty feet or upwards in length, when at anchor, shall carry in the forward part of the vessel, at a height of not less than twenty and not exceeding forty feet above the hull, one such light, and at or near the stern of the vessel, and at such a height that it shall be not less than fifteen feet lower than the forward light, another such light.

The length of a vessel shall be deemed to be the length appearing in her certificate of registry.

A vessel aground in or near a fair-way shall carry the above light or lights and the two red lights prescribed by article four (a). (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 324.)

82. Additional lights and signals when necessary authorized.—Art. 12.—Every vessel may, if necessary in order to attract attention, in addition to the lights which she is by these rules required to carry, show a flare-up light or use any detonating signal that can not be mistaken for a distress signal. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 325.)

83. Special lights for ship of war and convoy; recognition signals adopted by shipowners.—Art. 13.—Nothing in these rules shall interfere with the operation of any special rules made by the Government of any nation with respect to additional station and signal-lights for two or more ships of war or for vessels sailing under convoy, or with the exhibition of recognition signals adopted by shipowners, which have been authorized by their respective Governments and duly registered and published. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 325.)

84. Day signal of steam vessel under sail.—Art. 14.—A steam vessel proceeding under sail only but having her funnel up, shall carry in daytime, forward, where it can best be seen, one black ball or shape two feet in diameter. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 325.)

SOUND SIGNALS FOR FOG, ETC.; SPEED

91. Sound signals for fog, etc., generally.—Art. 15.—All signals prescribed by this article for vessels under way shall be given:

First. By "steam vessels" on the whistle or siren.

Second. By "sailing vessels" and "vessels towed" on the fog horn.

The words "prolonged blast" used in this article shall mean a blast of from four to six seconds duration.

A steam vessel shall be provided with an efficient whistle or siren, sounded by steam or by some substitute for steam, so placed that the sound may not be intercepted by any obstruction, and with an efficient fog horn, to be sounded by mechanical means, and also with an efficient bell. (In all cases where the rules require a bell to be used a drum may be substituted on board Turkish vessels, or a gong where such articles are used on board small seagoing vessels.)

A sailing vessel of twenty tons gross tonnage or upward shall be provided with a similar fog horn and bell.

In fog, mist, falling snow, or heavy rainstorms, whether by day or night, the signals described in this article shall be used as follows, namely:

(a) A steam vessel having way upon her shall sound, at intervals of not more than two minutes, a prolonged blast.

(b) A steam vessel under way, but stopped, and having no way upon her, shall sound, at intervals of not more than two minutes, two prolonged blasts, with an interval of about one second between.

(c) A sailing vessel under way shall sound, at intervals of not more than one minute, when on the starboard tack, one blast; when on the port tack, two blasts in succession, and when with the wind abaft the beam, three blasts in succession.

(d) A vessel when at anchor shall, at intervals of not more than one minute, ring the bell rapidly for about five seconds.

(e) A vessel when towing, a vessel employed in laying or in picking up a telegraph cable, and a vessel under way, which is unable to get out of the way of an approaching vessel through being not under command, or unable to maneuver as required by the rules, shall, instead of the signals prescribed in subdivisions (a) and (c) of this article, at intervals of not more than two minutes, sound three blasts in succession, namely: One prolonged blast followed by two short blasts. A vessel towed may give this signal and she shall not give any other.

Sailing vessels and boats of less than twenty tons gross tonnage shall not be obliged to give the above-mentioned signals, but, if they do not, they shall make some other efficient sound signal at intervals of not more than one minute. (June 10, 1896, c. 401, § 1, 29 Stat. 381.)

92. Speed in fog, etc.—Art. 16.—Every vessel shall, in a fog, mist, falling snow, or heavy rainstorms, go at a moderate speed, having careful regard to the existing circumstances and conditions.

A steam vessel hearing, apparently forward of her beam, the fog signal of a vessel the position of which is not ascertained shall, so far as the circumstances of the case admit, stop her engines, and then navigate with caution until danger of collision is over. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 326.)

STEERING AND SAILING RULES

101. Suggestion for ascertainment of risk of collision.—Risk of collision can, when circumstances permit, be ascertained by carefully watching the compass bearing of an approaching vessel. If the bearing does not appreciably change, such risk should be deemed to exist. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 326.)

102. Sailing vessels approaching one another.—Art. 17.—When two sailing vessels are approaching one another, so as to involve risk of collision, one of them shall keep out of the way of the other, as follows, namely:

(a) A vessel which is running free shall keep out of the way of a vessel which is close-hauled.

(b) A vessel which is close-hauled on the port tack shall keep out of the way of a vessel which is close-hauled on the starboard tack.

(c) When both are running free, with the wind on different sides, the vessel which has the wind on the port side shall keep out of the way of the other.

(d) When both are running free, with the wind on the same side, the vessel which is to the windward shall keep out of the way of the vessel which is to leeward.

(e) A vessel which has the wind aft shall keep out of the way of the other vessel. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 326.)

103. Steam vessels meeting end on.—Art. 18.—When two steam vessels are meeting end on, or nearly end on, so as to involve risk of collision, each shall alter her course to starboard, so that each may pass on the port side of the other.

This article only applies to cases where vessels are meeting end on, or nearly end on, in such a manner as to involve risk of collision, and does not apply to two vessels which must, if both keep on their respective courses, pass clear of each other.

The only cases to which it does apply are when each of the two vessels is end on, or nearly end on, to the other; in other words, to cases in which, by day, each vessel sees the masts of the other in a line, or nearly in a line, with her own; and by night, to cases in which each vessel is in such a position as to see both the side lights of the other.

It does not apply by day to cases in which a vessel sees another ahead crossing her own course; or by night, to cases where the red light of one vessel is opposed to the red light of the other, or where the green light of one vessel is opposed to the green light of the other or where a red light without a green light, or a green light without a red light, is seen ahead, or where both green and red lights are seen anywhere but ahead. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 326.)

104. Steam vessels crossing.—Art. 19.—When two steam vessels are crossing, so as to involve risk of collision, the vessel which has the other on her own starboard side shall keep out of the way of the other. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 327.)

105. Steam and sailing vessels meeting.—Art. 20.—When a steam vessel and a sailing vessel are proceeding in such directions as to involve risk of collision, the steam vessel shall keep out of the way of the sailing vessel. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 327.)

106. Vessel having right of way to keep course.—Art. 21.—Where, by any of these rules, one of two vessels is to keep out of the way the other shall keep her course and speed.

NOTE.—When, in consequence of thick weather or other causes, such vessel finds herself so close that collision can not be avoided by the action of the giving-way vessel alone, she also shall take such action as will best aid to avert collision. (See articles 27 and 29.) (May 28, 1894, c. 83, 28 Stat. 83.)

107. Crossing ahead of vessel having right of way.—Art. 22.—Every vessel which is directed by these rules to keep out of the way of another vessel shall, if the circumstances of the case admit, avoid crossing ahead of the other. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 327.)

108. Duty of steam vessel to slacken speed.—Art. 23.—Every steam vessel which is directed by these rules to keep out of the way of another vessel shall, on approaching her, if necessary, slacken her speed or stop or reverse. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 327.)

109. Overtaking vessel to keep out of the way; definition of "overtaking vessel."—Art. 24.—Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules every vessel, overtaking any other, shall keep out of the way of the overtaken vessel.

Every vessel coming up with another vessel from any direction more than two points abaft her beam, that is, in such a position, with reference to the vessel which she is overtaking that at night she would be unable to see either of that vessel's side lights, shall be deemed to be an overtaking vessel; and no subsequent alteration of the bearing between the two vessels shall make the overtaking vessel a crossing vessel within the meaning of these rules, or relieve her of the duty of keeping clear of the overtaken vessel until she is finally past and clear.

As by day the overtaking vessel can not always know with certainty whether she is forward of or abaft this direction from the other vessel she should, if in doubt, assume that she is an overtaking vessel and keep out of the way. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 327.)

110. Steam vessel in narrow channel.—Art. 25.—In narrow channels every steam vessel shall, when it is safe and practicable, keep to that side of the fairway or mid-channel which lies on the starboard side of such vessel. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 327.)

111. Right of way of fishing vessels or boats; obstruction of fairway.—Art. 26.—Sailing vessels under way shall keep out of the way of sailing vessels or boats fishing with nets, or lines, or trawls. This rule shall not give to any vessel or boat engaged in fishing the right of obstructing a fairway used by vessels other than fishing vessels or boats. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 327.)

112. Special circumstances requiring departure from rules.—Art. 27.—In obeying and construing these rules due regard shall be had to all dangers of navigation and collision, and to any special circumstances which may render a departure from the above rules necessary in order to avoid immediate danger. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 327.)

113. Sound signals of steam vessel indicating course.—Art. 28.—The words "short blast" used in this article shall mean a blast of about one second's duration.

When vessels are in sight of one another, a steam vessel under way, in taking any course authorized or required by these rules, shall indicate that course by the following signals on her whistle or siren, namely:

One short blast to mean, "I am directing my course to starboard."

Two short blasts to mean, "I am directing my course to port."

Three short blasts to mean, "My engines are going at full speed astern." (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 328.)

NO VESSEL, UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, TO NEGLECT PROPER PRECAUTIONS

121. Additional precautions required generally.—Art. 29.—Nothing in these rules shall exonerate any vessel, or the owner or master or crew thereof, from the consequences of any neglect to carry lights or signals, or of any neglect to keep a proper lookout, or of the neglect of any precaution which may be required by the ordinary practice of seamen, or by the special circumstances of the case. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 328.)

RESERVATION OF RULES FOR HARBORS AND INLAND NAVIGATION

131. Local rules for harbors and inland waters.—Art. 30.—Nothing in these rules shall interfere with the operation of a special rule, duly made by local authority, relative to the navigation of any harbor, river, or inland waters. (Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, § 1, 26 Stat. 328.)

DISTRESS SIGNALS

141. Distress signals in daytime and at night.—Art. 31.—When a vessel is in distress and requires assistance from other vessels or from the shore the following shall be the signals to be used or displayed by her, either together or separately, namely:

In the day time—

First. A gun or other explosive signal fired at intervals of about a minute.

Second. The international code signal of distress indicated by N. C.

Third. The distance signal, consisting of a square flag, having either above or below it a ball or anything resembling a ball.

Fourth. A continous sounding with any fog-signal apparatus.

At night—

First. A gun or other explosive signal fired at intervals of about a minute.

Second. Flames on the vessel (as from a burning tar barrel, oil barrel, and so forth.)

Third. Rockets or shells throwing stars of any color or description, fired one at a time, at short intervals.

Fourth. A continuous sounding with any fog-signal apparatus. (May 28, 1894, c. 83, 28 Stat. 82.)

Chapter 3.—NAVIGATION RULES FOR HARBORS, RIVERS, AND INLAND WATERS GENERALLY.

PRELIMINARY

Sec.
151. Demarcation of high seas lines.
152. Regulation of length of tow lines.
153. Penalty for use of unlawful tow lines.
154. Adoption of rules for navigation of harbors, rivers, and inland waters.
155. "Sailing vessel," "steam vessel," and "under way" defined.
156. "Visible" as applied to lights defined.
157. Special rules by inspectors, etc., of steam vessels authorized.
158. Penalty for violations by pilot, engineer, mate, or master.
159. Penalty for violations by vessel.

RULES CONCERNING LIGHTS, ETC.

Sec.
171. Time for lights; prescribed lights exclusive.
172. Lights of steam vessel under way.
173. Lights of vessel towing another vessel or vessels.
174. Lights of sailing vessel under way or in tow.
175. Lights of small vessel under way in bad weather.
176. Lights of rowboats.
177. Lights of pilot vessel on and off duty; steam pilot vessel.
178. Lights of fishing vessels; raft and unspecified craft.
179. Lights of overtaken vessel.
180. Lights of vessel at anchor.
181. Additional lights when necessary authorized.
182. Special lights for ship of war and convoy; recognition signals adopted by ship owners.
183. Day signal of steam vessel under sail.

SOUND SIGNALS FOR FOG, ETC.; SPEED

191. Sound signals for fog, etc., generally.
192. Speed in fog, and so forth.

STEERING AND SAILING RULES AND SIGNALS

201. Suggestion for ascertainment of risk of collision.
202. Sailing vessels approaching one another.
203. Steam vessels approaching, meeting, or passing one another; banks obstructing view; leaving dock.
204. Steam vessels crossing.
205. Steam and sailing vessels meeting.
206. Vessel having right of way to keep course.
207. Crossing ahead of vessel having right of way.
208. Duty of steam vessel to slacken speed.
209. Overtaking vessel to keep out of the way; definition of "overtaking vessel."
210. Steam vessel in narrow channel.
211. Right of way of fishing vessels or boats; obstruction of fairway.
212. Special circumstances requiring departure from rules.
213. Signal of full speed of engines astern.

NO VESSEL UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES TO NEGLECT PROPER PRECAUTIONS

221. Usual additional precautions required generally.
222. Lights on war and Coast Guard vessels; Exhibition suspended.

DISTRESS SIGNALS

231. Distress signals in daytime and at night.

PRELIMINARY

Section 151. Damarcation of high seas lines.—The Secretary of Commerce is hereby authorized, empowered and directed from time to time to designate and define by suitable bearings or ranges with lighthouses, light vessels, buoys or coast objects, the lines dividing the high seas from rivers, harbors and inland waters. (Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, § 2, 28 Stat. 672; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, 32 Stat. 829; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, 37 Stat. 736.)

152. Regulation of length of towlines.—The Commissioner of Lighthouses, the Supervising Inspector General of the Steamboat Inspection Service, and the Commissioner of Navigation shall convene as a board at such times as the Secretary of Commerce shall prescribe to prepare regulations limiting the length of hawsers between towing vessels and seagoing barges in tow and the length of such tows within any of the inland waters of the United States designated and defined from time to time pursuant to the preceding section, and such regulations when approved by the Secretary of Commerce shall have the force of law. (May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 14, 35 Stat. 428.)

153. Penalty for use of unlawful towline.—The master of the towing vessel shall be liable to the suspension or revocation of his license for any willful violation of regulations issued pursuant to the preceding section in the manner prescribed for incompetency, misconduct, or unskillfulness. (May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 15, 35 Stat. 429.)

154. Adoption of rules for navigation of harbors, rivers, and inland waters.—The following regulations for preventing collision shall be followed by all vessels navigating all harbors, rivers, and inland waters of the United States, except the Great Lakes and their connecting and tributary waters as far east as Montreal and the Red River of the North and rivers emptying into the Gulf of Mexico and their tributaries, and are hereby declared special rules duly made by local authority. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 96.)

155. "Sailing vessel," "steam vessel," and "under way" defined.—In the following rules every steam vessel which is under sail and not under steam is to be considered a sailing vessel, and every vessel under steam, whether under sail or not, is to be considered a steam vessel.

The word "steam vessel" shall include any vessel propelled by machinery.

A vessel is "under way," within the meaning of these rules, when she is not at anchor, or made fast to the shore, or aground. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 96.)

156. "Visible" as applied to lights defined.—The word "visible" in these rules, when applied to lights, shall mean visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 96.)

157. Special rules by inspectors, etc., of steam vessels authorized.—The supervising inspectors of steam vessels and the Supervising Inspector General shall establish such rules to be observed by steam vessels in passing each other and as to the lights to be carried by ferryboats and by barges and canal boats when in tow of steam vessels, and as to the lights and day signals to be carried by vessels, dredges of all types, and vessels working on wrecks or other obstruction to navigation or moored for submarine operations, or made fast to a sunken object which may drift with the tide or be towed, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, contained in sections 154 to 231, inclusive, as they from time to time may deem necessary for safety, which rules when approved by the Secretary of Commerce are declared special rules duly made by local authority, as provided for in article 30 of chapter 2 of this title, section 131. Two printed copies of such rules shall be furnished to such ferryboats, barges, dredges, canal boats, vessels working on wrecks, and steam vessels, which rules shall be kept posted up in conspicuous places in such vessels, barges, dredges, and boats. (May 25, 1914, c. 98, 38 Stat. 381.)

158. Penalty for violations by pilot, engineer, mate, or master.—Every pilot, engineer, mate, or master of any steam vessel, and every master or mate of any barge or canal boat, who neglects or refuses to observe the following provisions of this chapter, or the regulations established in pursuance of the preceding section, shall be liable to a penalty of $50, and for all damages sustained by any passenger in his person or baggage by such neglect or refusal: Provided, That nothing herein shall relieve any vessel, owner or corporation from any liability incurred by reason of such neglect or refusal. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 3, 30 Stat. 102.)

159. Penalty for violations by vessel.—Every vessel that shall be navigated without complying with the provisions of this chapter, contained in sections 154 to 231, inclusive, shall be liable to a penalty of $200, one-half to go to the informer, for which sum the vessel so navigated shall be liable and may be seized and proceeded against by action in any district court of the United States having jurisdiction of the offense. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 4, 30 Stat. 103.)

RULES CONCERNING LIGHTS, ETC.

171. Time for lights; prescribed lights exclusive.—Art. 1.—The rules concerning lights shall be complied with in all weathers from sunset to sunrise, and during such time no other lights which may be mistaken for the prescribed lights shall be exhibited. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 96.)

172. Lights of steam vessel under way.—Art. 2.—A steam vessel when under way shall carry—

(a) On or in front of the foremast, or, if a vessel without a foremast, then in the fore part of the vessel, a bright white light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of twenty points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light ten points on each side of the vessel, namely, from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least five miles.

(b) On the starboard side a green light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the starboard side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

(c) On the port side a red light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the port side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

(d) The said green and red side lights shall be fitted with inboard screens projecting at least three feet forward from the light, so as to prevent these lights from being seen across the bow.

(e) A seagoing steam vessel when under way may carry an additional white light similar in construction to the light mentioned in subdivision (a).

These two lights shall be so placed in line with the keel that one shall be at least fifteen feet higher than the other, and in such a position with reference to each other that the lower light shall be forward of the upper one. The vertical distance between these lights shall be less than the horizontal distance.

(f) All steam vessels (except seagoing vessels and ferry-boats) shall carry, in addition to green and red lights required by article 2 (b), (c), and screens as required by article 2 (d), a central range of two white lights, the afterlight being carried at an elevation at least fifteen feet above the light at the head of the vessel. The headlight shall be so constructed as to show an unbroken light through twenty points of the compass, namely, from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side of the vessel, and the afterlight so as to show all around the horizon. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 96.)

173. Lights of vessel towing another vessel or vessels.—Art. 3.—A steam vessel when towing another vessel shall, in addition to her side lights, carry two bright white lights in a vertical line one over the other, not less than three feet apart, and when towing more than one vessel shall carry an additional bright white light three feet above or below such lights, if the length of the tow measuring from the stern of the towing vessel to the stern of the last vessel towed exceeds six hundred feet. Each of these lights shall be of the same construction and character, and shall be carried in the same position as the white light mentioned in article 2 (a) or the after range light mentioned in article 2 (f).

Such steam vessel may carry a small white light abaft the funnel or aftermast for the vessel towed to steer by, but such light shall not be visible forward of the beam. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 97.)

174. Lights of sailing vessel under way or in tow.—Art. 5.—A sailing vessel under way or being towed shall carry the same lights as are prescribed by article 2 for a steam vessel under way, with the exception of the white lights mentioned therein, which they shall never carry. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 97.)

175. Lights of small vessel under way in bad weather.—Art. 6.—Whenever, as in the case of vessels of less than ten gross tons under way during bad weather, the green and red side lights can not be fixed, these lights shall be kept at hand, lighted and ready for use, and shall, on the approach of or to other vessels, be exhibited on their respective sides in sufficient time to prevent collision, in such manner as to make them most visible and so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side, nor, if practicable, more than two points abaft the beam on their respective sides. To make the use of these portable lights more certain and easy, the lanterns containing them shall each be painted outside with the color of the light they respectively contain and shall be provided with proper screens. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 97.)

176. Lights of rowboats.—Art. 7.—Rowing boats, whether under oars or sail, shall have ready at hand a lantern showing a white light which shall be temporarily exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 98.)

177. Lights of pilot vessel on and off duty; steam pilot vessel.—Art. 8.—Pilot vessels when engaged on their station on pilotage duty shall not show the lights required for other vessels but shall carry a white light at the masthead, visible all around the horizon, and shall also exhibit a flare-up light or flare-up lights at short intervals, which shall never exceed fifteen minutes.

On the near approach of or to other vessels they shall have their side lights lighted, ready for use, and shall flash or show them at short intervals, to indicate the direction in which they are heading, but the green light shall not be shown on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side.

A pilot vessel of such a class as to be obliged to go alongside of a vessel to put a pilot on board may show the white light instead of carrying it at the masthead, and may, instead of the colored lights above mentioned, have at hand, ready for use, a lantern with a green glass on the one side and a red glass on the other, to be used as prescribed above.

Pilot vessels, when not engaged on their station on pilotage duty, shall carry lights similar to those of other vessels of their tonnage.

A steam pilot vessel, when engaged on her station on pilotage duty and in waters of the United States, and not at anchor, shall, in addition to the lights required for all pilot boats, carry at a distance of eight feet below her white masthead light a red light, visible all around the horizon and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere at a distance of at least two miles, and also the colored side lights required to be carried by vessels when under way.

When engaged on her station on pilotage duty and in waters of the United States, and at anchor, she shall carry in addition to the lights required for all pilot boats the red light above mentioned, but not the colored side lights.

When not engaged on her station on pilotage duty, she shall carry the same lights as other steam vessels. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 98; Feb. 19, 1900, c. 22, § 1, 31 Stat. 30.)

178. Lights of fishing vessels; rafts and unspecified craft.—Art. 9.—(a) Fishing vessels of less than ten gross tons, when under way and when not having their nets, trawls, dredges, or lines in the water, shall not be required to carry the colored side lights; but every such vessel shall, in lieu thereof, have ready at hand a lantern with a green glass on one side and a red glass on the other side, and on approaching to or being approached by another vessel such lantern shall be exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision, so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side.

(b) All fishing vessels and fishing boats of ten gross tons or upward, when under way and when not having their nets, trawls, dredges, or lines in the water, shall carry and show the same lights as other vessels under way.

(c) All vessels, when trawling, dredging, or fishing with any kind of dragnets or lines, shall exhibit, from some part of the vessel where they can be best seen, two lights. One of these lights shall be red and the other shall be white. The red light shall be above the white light, and shall be at a vertical distance from it of not less than six feet and not more than twelve feet; and the horizontal distance between them, if any, shall not be more than ten feet. These two lights shall be of such a character and contained in lanterns of such construction as to be visible all round the horizon, the white light a distance of not less than three miles and the red light of not less than two miles.

(d) Rafts, or other water craft not herein provided for, navigating by hand power, horse power, or by the current of the river, shall carry one or more good white lights, which shall be placed in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors of Steam Vessels. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 98.)

179. Lights on overtaken vessel.—Art. 10.—A vessel which is being overtaken by another, except a steam vessel with an after range light showing all around the horizon, shall show from her stern to such last-mentioned vessel a white light or a flare-up light. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 98.)

180. Lights on vessel at anchor.—Art. 11.—A vessel under one hundred and fifty feet in length when at anchor shall carry forward, where it can best be seen, but at a height not exceeding twenty feet above the hull, a white light, in a lantern so constructed as to show a clear, uniform, and unbroken light visible all around the horizon at a distance of at least one mile.

A vessel of one hundred and fifty feet or upward in length when at anchor shall carry in the forward part of the vessel, at a height of not less than twenty and not exceeding forty feet above the hull, one such light, and at or near the stern of the vessel, and at such a height that it shall be not less than fifteen feet lower than the forward light, another such light.

The length of a vessel shall be deemed to be the length appearing in her certificate of registry. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 98.)

181. Additional lights when necessary authorized.—Art. 12.—Every vessel may, if necessary, in order to attract attention, in addition to the lights which she is by these rules required to carry, show a flare-up light or use any detonating signal that can not be mistaken for a distress signal. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 99.)

182. Special lights for ship of war and convoy; recognition signals adopted by shipowners.—Art. 13.—Nothing in these rules shall interfere with the operation of any special rules made by the government of any nation with respect to additional station and signal lights for two or more ships of war or for vessels sailing under convoy, or with the exhibition of recognition signals adopted by shipowners, which have been authorized by their respective governments and duly registered and published. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 99.)

183. Day signal of steam vessel under sail.—Art. 14.—A steam vessel proceeding under sail only, but having her funnel up, may carry in daytime, forward, where it can best be seen, one black ball or shape two feet in diameter. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 99.)

SOUND SIGNALS FOR FOG, ETC.; SPEED

191. Sound signals for fog, etc., generally.—Art. 15.—All signals prescribed by this article for vessels under way shall be given—

1. By "steam vessels" on the whistle or siren.

2. By "sailing vessels" and "vessels towed" on the foghorn.

The words "prolonged blast" used in this article shall mean a blast of from four to six seconds duration.

A steam vessel shall be provided with an efficient whistle or siren, sounded by steam or by some substitute for steam, so placed that the sound may not be intercepted by any obstruction, and with an efficient foghorn; also with an efficient bell.

A sailing vessel of twenty tons gross tonnage or upward shall be provided with a similar foghorn and bell.

In fog, mist, falling snow, or heavy rainstorms, whether by day or night, the signals described in this article shall be used as follows, namely:

(a) A steam vessel under way shall sound, at intervals of not more than one minute, a prolonged blast.

(c) A sailing vessel under way shall sound, at intervals of not more than one minute, when on the starboard tack, one blast; when on the port tack, two blasts in succession; and when with the wind abaft the beam, three blasts in succession.

(d) A vessel when at anchor shall, at intervals, of not more than one minute, ring the bell rapidly for about five seconds.

(e) A steam vessel when towing, shall, instead of the signals prescribed in subdivision (a) of this article, at intervals of not more than one minute, sound three blasts in succession, namely, one prolonged blast followed by two short blasts.

A vessel towed may give this signal and she shall not give any other.

(f) All rafts or other water craft, not herein provided for, navigating by hand power, horse power, or by the current of the river, shall sound a blast of the foghorn, or equivalent signal, at intervals of not more than one minute. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 99.)

192. Speed in fog, etc.—Art. 16.—Every vessel shall, in a fog, mist, falling snow, or heavy rainstorms, go at a moderate speed, having careful regard to the existing circumstances and conditions.

A steam vessel hearing, apparently forward of her beam, the fog signal of a vessel the position of which is not ascertained shall, so far as the circumstances of the case admit, stop her engines, and then navigate with caution until danger of collision is over. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 99.)

STEERING AND SAILING RULES AND SIGNALS

201. Suggestion for ascertainment of risk of collision.—Risk of collision can, when circumstances permit, be ascertained by carefully watching the compass bearing of an approaching vessel. If the bearing does not appreciably change, such risk should be deemed to exist. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 100.)

202. Sailing vessels approaching one another.—Art. 17.—When two sailing vessels are approaching one another, so as to involve risk of collision, one of them shall keep out of the way of the other as follows, namely:

(a) A vessel which is running free shall keep out of the way of a vessel which is close-hauled.

(b) A vessel which is close-hauled on the port tack shall keep out of the way of a vessel which is close-hauled on the starboard tack.

(c) When both are running free, with the wind on different sides, the vessel which has the wind on the port side shall keep out of the way of the other.

(d) When both are running free, with the wind on the same side, the vessel which is to the windward shall keep out of the way of the vessel which is to the leeward.

(e) A vessel which has the wind aft shall keep out of the way of the other vessel. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 100.)

203. Steam vessels approaching, meeting, or passing one another; banks obstructing view; leaving dock.—Art. 18.—Rule I. When steam vessels are approaching each other head and head, that is, end on, or nearly so, it shall be the duty of each to pass on the port side of the other; and either vessel shall give, as a signal of her intention, one short and distinct blast of her whistle, which the other vessel shall answer promptly by a similar blast of her whistle, and thereupon such vessels shall pass on the port side of each other.

But if the courses of such vessels are so far on the starboard of each other as not to be considered as meeting head and head, either vessel shall immediately give two short and distinct blasts of her whistle, which the other vessel shall answer promptly by two similar blasts of her whistle, and they shall pass on the starboard side of each other.

The foregoing only applies to cases where vessels are meeting end on or nearly end on, in such a manner as to involve risk of collision; in other words, to cases in which, by day, each vessel sees the masts of the other in a line, or nearly in a line, with her own and by night to cases in which each vessel is in such a position as to see both the sidelights of the other.

It does not apply by day to cases in which a vessel sees another ahead crossing her own course, or by night to cases where the red light of one vessel is opposed to the red light of the other, or where the green light of one vessel is opposed to the green light of the other, or where a red light without a green light or a green light without a red light, is seen ahead, or where both green and red lights are seen anywhere but ahead.

Rule III. If, when steam vessels are approaching each other, either vessel fails to understand the course or intention of the other, from any cause, the vessel so in doubt shall immediately signify the same by giving several short and rapid blasts, not less than four, of the steam whistle.
