Rule V. Whenever a steam vessel is nearing a short bend or curve, in the channel, where, from the height of the banks or other cause, a steam vessel approaching from the opposite direction can not be seen for a distance of half a mile, such steam vessel, when she shall have arrived within half a mile of such curve, or bend, shall give a signal by one long blast of the steam whistle, which signal shall be answered by a similar blast, given by any approaching steam vessel that may be within hearing. Should such signal be so answered by a steam vessel upon the farther side of such bend, then the usual signals for meeting and passing shall immediately be given and answered; but, if the first alarm signal of such vessel be not answered, she is to consider the channel clear and govern herself accordingly.

When steam vessels are moved from their docks or berths, and other boats are liable to pass from any direction toward them, they shall give the same signal as in the case of vessels meeting at a bend, but immediately after clearing the berths so as to be fully in sight they shall be governed by the steering and sailing rules.

Rule VIII. When steam vessels are running in the same direction, and the vessel which is astern shall desire to pass on the right or starboard hand of the vessel ahead, she shall give one short blast of the steam whistle, as a signal of such desire, and if the vessel ahead answers with one blast, she shall put her helm to port; or if she shall desire to pass on the left or port side of the vessel ahead, she shall give two short blasts of the steam whistle as a signal of such desire, and if the vessel ahead answers with two blasts, shall put her helm to starboard; or if the vessel ahead does not think it safe for the vessel astern to attempt to pass at that point, she shall immediately signify the same by giving several short and rapid blasts of the steam whistle, not less than four, and under no circumstances shall the vessel astern attempt to pass the vessel ahead until such time as they have reached a point where it can be safely done, when said vessel ahead shall signify her willingness by blowing the proper signals.

The vessel ahead shall in no case attempt to cross the bow or crowd upon the course of the passing vessel.

Rule IX. The whistle signals provided in the rules under this article, for steam vessels meeting, passing, or overtaking, are never to be used except when steamers are in sight of each other, and the course and position of each can be determined in the daytime by a sight of the vessel itself, or by night by seeing its signal lights.

In fog, mist, falling snow or heavy rainstorms, when vessels can not so see each other, fog signals only must be given. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 100.)

204. Steam vessels crossing.—Art. 19.—When two steam vessels are crossing, so as to involve risk of collision, the vessel which has the other on her own starboard side shall keep out of the way of the other. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 101.)

205. Steam and sailing vessels meeting.—Art. 20.—When a steam vessel and a sailing vessel are proceeding in such directions as to involve risk of collision, the steam vessel shall keep out of the way of the sailing vessel. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 101.)

206. Vessel having right of way to keep course.—Art. 21.—Where, by any of these rules, one of the two vessels is to keep out of the way, the other shall keep her course and speed. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 101.)

207. Crossing ahead of vessel having right of way.—Art. 22.—Every vessel which is directed by these rules to keep out of the way of another vessel shall, if the circumstances of the case admit, avoid crossing ahead of the other. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 101.)

208. Duty of steam vessel to slacken speed.—Art. 23.—Every steam vessel which is directed by these rules to keep out of the way of another vessel shall, on approaching her, if necessary, slacken her speed or stop or reverse. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 101.)

209. Overtaking vessel to keep out of the way; definition of "overtaking vessel."—Art. 24.—Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules every vessel, overtaking any other, shall keep out of the way of the overtaken vessel.

Every vessel coming up with another vessel from any direction more than two points abaft her beam, that is, in such a position with reference to the vessel which she is overtaking that at night she would be unable to see either of that vessel's side lights, shall be deemed to be an overtaking vessel; and no subsequent alteration of the bearing between the two vessels shall make the overtaking vessel a crossing vessel within the meaning of these rules, or relieve her of the duty of keeping clear of the overtaken vessel until she is finally past and clear.

As by day the overtaking vessel can not always know with certainty whether she is forward of or abaft this direction from the other vessel she should, if in doubt, assume that she is an overtaking vessel and keep out of the way. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 101.)

210. Steam vessel in narrow channel.—Art. 25.—In narrow channels every steam vessel shall, when it is safe and practicable, keep to that side of the fairway or mid-channel which lies on the starboard side of such vessel. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 101.)

211. Right of way of fishing vessel or boats; obstruction of fairway.—Art. 26.—Sailing vessels under way shall keep out of the way of sailing vessels or boats fishing with nets, or lines, or trawls. This rule shall not give to any vessel or boat engaged in fishing the right of obstructing a fairway used by vessels other than fishing vessels or boats. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 102.)

212. Special circumstances requiring departure from rules.—Art. 27.—In obeying and construing these rules due regard shall be had to all dangers of navigation and collision, and to any special circumstances which may render a departure from the above rules necessary in order to avoid immediate danger. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 102.)

213. Signal of full speed of engines astern.—Art. 28.—When vessels are in sight of one another a steam vessel under way whose engines are going at full speed astern shall indicate that fact by three short blasts on the whistle. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 102.)

NO VESSEL UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES TO NEGLECT PROPER PRECAUTIONS

221. Usual additional precautions required generally.—Art. 29.—Nothing in these rules shall exonerate any vessel, or the owner or master or crew thereof, from the consequences of any neglect to carry lights or signals, or of any neglect to keep a proper lookout, or of the neglect of any precaution which may be required by the ordinary practice of seamen, or by the special circumstances of the case. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 102.)

222. Lights on war and Coast Guard vessels; exhibition suspended.—Art. 30.—The exhibition of any light on board of a vessel of war of the United States or a Coast Guard vessel may be suspended whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Navy, the commander in chief of a squadron, or the commander of a vessel acting singly, the special character of the service may require it. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 102.)

DISTRESS SIGNALS

231. Distress signals in daytime and at night.—Art. 31.—When a vessel is in distress and requires assistance from other vessels or from the shore the following shall be the signals to be used or displayed by her, either together or separately, namely:

IN THE DAYTIME.—A continuous sounding with any fog-signal apparatus, or firing a gun.

AT NIGHT.—First. Flames on the vessel as from a burning tar barrel, oil barrel, and so forth.

Second. A continuous sounding with any fog-signal apparatus, or firing a gun. (June 7, 1897, c. 4, § 1, 30 Stat. 102.)

CROSS REFERENCE

As regards light and sounding signal devices on motor boats, and sailing and steering rules, relating thereto, see sections 513, 514, and 520 of Title 46, SHIPPING.

PRELIMINARY

Section 241. Adoption of rules for navigation of Great Lakes, etc.—The following rules for preventing collisions shall be followed in the navigation of all public and private vessels of the United States upon the Great Lakes and their connecting and tributary waters as far east as Montreal. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 645.)

242. "Sailing vessel," "steam vessel," and "under way" defined.—Rule 1.—Every steam vessel which is under sail and not under steam, shall be considered a sail vessel; and every steam vessel which is under steam, whether under sail or not, shall be considered a steam vessel. The word steam vessel shall include any vessel propelled by machinery. A vessel is under way within the meaning of these rules when she is not at anchor or made fast to the shore or aground. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 645.)

243. Special regulation by Secretary of Commerce and by Board of Supervising Inspectors.—The Secretary of Commerce of the United States shall have authority to establish all necessary regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, required to carry the same into effect.

The Board of Supervising Inspectors of the United States shall have authority to establish such regulations to be observed by all steam vessels in passing each other, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, as they shall from time to time deem necessary; and all regulations adopted by the said Board of Supervising Inspectors under the authority of this chapter, when approved by the Secretary of Commerce, shall have the force of law. Two printed copies of any such regulations for passing, signed by them, shall be furnished to each steam vessel, and shall at all times be kept posted up in conspicuous places on board. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 3, 28 Stat. 649.)

244. Penalty for violation of provisions.—A fine, not exceeding $200, may be imposed for the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter. The vessel shall be liable for the said penalty, and may be seized and proceeded against, by way of libel, in the district court of the United States for any district within which such vessel may be found. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 2, 28 Stat. 649.)

RULES CONCERNING LIGHTS, ETC.

251. Time for lights; prescribed lights exclusive; "visible" defined.—Rule 2.—The lights mentioned in the following rules and no others shall be carried in all weathers from sunset to sunrise. The word visible in these rules when applied to lights shall mean visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 645.)

252. Lights of steam vessel under way.—Rule 3.—Except in the cases hereinafter expressly provided for, a steam vessel when under way shall carry:

(a) On or in front of the foremast, or if a vessel without a foremast, then in the fore part of the vessel, at a height above the hull of not less than twenty feet, and if the beam of the vessel exceeds twenty feet, then at a height above the hull not less than such beam, so, however, that such height need not exceed forty feet, a bright white light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of twenty points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light ten points on each side of the vessel, namely, from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side, and of such character as to be visible at a distance of at least five miles.

(b) On the starboard side, a green light, so constructed as to throw an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the starboard side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

(c) On the port side, a red light, so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the port side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least two miles.

(d) The said green and red lights shall be fitted with inboard screens projecting at least three feet forward from the light, so as to prevent these lights from being seen across the bow.

(e) A steamer of over one hundred and fifty feet register length shall also carry when under way an additional bright light similar in construction to that mentioned in subdivision (a), so fixed as to throw the light all around the horizon and of such character as to be visible at a distance of at least three miles. Such additional light shall be placed in line with the keel at least fifteen feet higher from the deck and more than seventy-five feet abaft the light mentioned in subdivision (a). (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 645.)

253. Lights of steam vessel having a tow other than raft.—Rule 4.—A steam vessel having a tow other than a raft shall in addition to the forward bright light mentioned in subdivision (a) of rule 3 carry in a vertical line not less than six feet above or below that light a second bright light of the same construction and character and fixed and carried in the same manner as the forward bright light mentioned in said subdivision (a) of rule 3. Such steamer shall also carry a small bright light abaft the funnel or after mast for the tow to steer by, but such light shall not be visible forward of the beam. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 646.)

254. Lights of steam vessel having raft in tow.—Rule 5.—A steam vessel having a raft in tow shall, instead of the forward lights mentioned in rule 4, carry on or in front of the foremast, or if a vessel without a foremast then in the fore part of the vessel, at a height above the hull of not less than twenty feet, and if the beam of the vessel exceeds twenty feet, then at a height above the hull not less than such beam, so however that such height need not exceed forty feet, two bright lights in a horizontal line athwartships and not less than eight feet apart, each so fixed as to throw the light all around the horizon and of such character as to be visible at a distance of at least five miles. Such steamer shall also carry the small bright steering light aft, of the character and fixed as required in rule 4. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 646.)

255. Lights of sailing vessel under way and vessel in tow.—Rule 6.—A sailing vessel under way and any vessel being towed shall carry the side lights mentioned in rule 3.

A vessel in tow shall also carry a small bright light aft, but such light shall not be visible forward of the beam. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 646.)

256. Lights of small tugs, boats on River St. Lawrence, ferryboats, rafts, and canal boats; regulations by Board of Supervising Inspectors.—Rule 7.—The lights for tugs under thirty tons register whose principal business is harbor towing, and for boats navigating only on the River Saint Lawrence, also ferryboats, rafts, and canal boats, shall be regulated by rules which have been or may hereafter be prescribed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors of Steam Vessels. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 646.)

257. Lights of small vessels under way in bad weather.—Rule 8.—Whenever, as in the case of small vessels under way during bad weather, the green and red side lights can not be fixed, these lights shall be kept at hand lighted and ready for use, and shall, on the approach of or to other vessels, be exhibited on their respective sides in sufficient time to prevent collision, in such manner as to make them most visible, and so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side, nor the red light on the starboard side, nor, if practicable, more than two points abaft the beam on their respective sides. To make the use of these portable lights more certain and easy, they shall each be painted outside with the color of the light they respectively contain, and shall be provided with suitable screens. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 646.)

258. Lights of vessel at anchor.—Rule 9.—A vessel under one hundred and fifty feet register length, when at anchor, shall carry forward, where it can best be seen, but at a height not exceeding twenty feet above the hull, a white light in a lantern constructed so as to show a clear, uniform, and unbroken light, visible all around the horizon, at a distance of at least one mile.

A vessel of one hundred and fifty feet or upward in register length, when at anchor, shall carry in the forward part of the vessel, at a height of not less than twenty and not exceeding forty feet above the hull, one such light, and at or near the stern of the vessel, and at such a height that it shall be not less than fifteen feet lower than the forward light, another such light. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 647.)

259. Lights of produce boats, canal boats, etc., navigating by hand or horsepower or by sail or by current, or at anchor.—Rule 10.—Produce boats, canal boats, fishing boats, rafts, or other water craft navigating any bay, harbor, or river by hand power, horsepower, sail, or by the current of the river, or which shall be anchored or moored in or near the channel or fairway of any bay, harbor, or river, and not otherwise provided for in these rules, shall carry one or more good white lights, which shall be placed in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Board of Supervising Inspectors of Steam Vessels. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 647.)

260. Lights of open boat.—Rule 11.—Open boats shall not be obliged to carry the side lights required for other vessels, but shall, if they do not carry such lights, carry a lantern having a green slide on one side and a red slide on the other side; and on the approach of or to other vessels, such lantern shall be exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision, and in such a manner that the green light shall not be seen on the port side, nor the red light on the starboard side. Open boats, when at anchor or stationary, shall exhibit a bright white light. They shall not, however, be prevented from using a flare-up in addition if considered expedient. This rule shall be so construed as not to require row boats and skiffs on the river St. Lawrence to carry lights. (June 19, 1886, c. 421, § 16, 24 Stat. 82; Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 647.)

261. Use of torch by sailing vessel on approach of steamer.—Rule 12.—Sailing vessels shall at all times, on the approach of any steamer during the nighttime, show a lighted torch upon that point or quarter to which such steamer shall be approaching. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 647.)

262. Suspension of lights by vessel of war or Coast Guard vessels.—Rule 13.—The exhibition of any light on board of a vessel of war or Coast Guard vessel of the United States may be suspended whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Navy, the commander in chief of a squadron, or the commander of a vessel acting singly, the special character of the service may require it. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 647.)

SOUND SIGNALS FOR FOG, ETC.; SPEED

271. Sound signals in fog, etc., of steam and sailing vessels under way, at anchor or aground.—Rule 14.—A steam vessel shall be provided with an efficient whistle, sounded by steam or by some substitute for steam, placed before the funnel not less than eight feet from the deck, or in such other place as the local inspectors of steam vessels shall determine, and of such character as to be heard in ordinary weather at a distance of at least two miles, and with an efficient bell, and it is hereby made the duty of the United States local inspectors of steam vessels when inspecting the same to require each steamer to be furnished with such whistle and bell. A sailing vessel shall be provided with an efficient fog horn and with an efficient bell.

Whenever there is thick weather by reason of fog, mist, falling snow, heavy rainstorms, or other causes, whether by day or by night, fog signals shall be used as follows:

(a) A steam vessel under way, excepting only a steam vessel with raft in tow, shall sound at intervals of not more than one minute three distinct blasts of her whistle.

(b) Every vessel in tow of another vessel shall, at intervals of one minute, sound four bells on a good and efficient and properly-placed bell as follows: By striking the bell twice in quick succession, followed by a little longer interval, and then again striking twice in quick succession (in the manner in which four bells is struck in indicating time).

(c) A steamer with a raft in tow shall sound at intervals of not more than one minute a screeching or Modoc whistle for from three to five seconds.

(d) A sailing vessel under way and not in tow shall sound at intervals of not more than one minute—

If on the starboard tack with wind forward of abeam, one blast of her fog horn;

If on the port tack with wind forward of the beam, two blasts of her fog horn;

If she has the wind abaft the beam on either side, three blasts of her fog horn.

(e) Any vessel at anchor and any vessel aground in or near a channel or fairway shall at intervals of not more than two minutes ring the bell rapidly for three to five seconds.

(f) Vessels of less than ten tons registered tonnage, not being steam vessels, shall not be obliged to give the above-mentioned signals, but if they do not they shall make some other efficient sound signal at intervals of not more than one minute.

(g) Produce boats, fishing boats, rafts, or other water craft navigating by hand power or by the current of the river, or anchored or moored in or near the channel or fairway and not in any port, and not otherwise provided for in these rules, shall sound a fog horn or equivalent signal, at intervals of not more than one minute. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 647.)

272. Speed in fog, etc.—Rule 15.—Every vessel shall, in thick weather, by reason of fog, mist, falling snow, heavy rain storms, or other causes, go at moderate speed. A steam vessel hearing, apparently not more than four points from right ahead, the fog signal of another vessel shall at once reduce her speed to bare steerageway, and navigate with caution until the vessels shall have passed each other. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 648.)

STEERING AND SAILING RULES

281. Sailing vessels approaching one another.—Rule 16.—When two sailing vessels are approaching one another so as to involve risk of collision one of them shall keep out of the way of the other, as follows, namely:

(a) A vessel which is running free shall keep out of the way of a vessel which is close-hauled.

(b) A vessel which is close-hauled on the port tack shall keep out of the way of a vessel which is close-hauled on the starboard tack.

(c) When both are running free, with the wind on different sides, the vessel which has the wind on the port side shall keep out of the way of the other.

(d) When they are running free, with the wind on the same side, the vessel which is to windward shall keep out of the way of the vessel which is to leeward. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 648.)

282. Steam vessels meeting end on.—Rule 17.—When two steam vessels are meeting end on, or nearly end on, so as to involve risk of collision each shall alter her course to starboard, so that each shall pass on the port side of the other. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 648.)

283. Steam vessels crossing.—Rule 18.—When two steam vessels are crossing so as to involve risk of collision the vessel which has the other on her own starboard side shall keep out of the way of the other. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 648.)

284. Steam and sailing vessels meeting.—Rule 19.—When a steam vessel and a sailing vessel are proceeding in such directions as to involve risk of collision the steam vessel shall keep out of the way of the sailing vessel. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 648.)

285. Vessel having right of way to keep course.—Rule 20.—Where, by any of the rules in this chapter prescribed, one of two vessels shall keep out of the way, the other shall keep her course and speed. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 649.)

286. Duty of steam vessel to slacken speed.—Rule 21.—Every steam vessel which is directed by these rules to keep out of the way of another vessel shall, on approaching her, if necessary, slacken her speed or stop or reverse. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 649.)

287. Overtaking vessel to keep out of the way.—Rule 22.—Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules every vessel overtaking any other shall keep out of the way of the overtaken vessel. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 649.)

288. Whistle signals of steam vessels to indicate course.—Rule 23.—In all weathers every steam vessel under way in taking any course authorized or required by these rules shall indicate that course by the following signals on her whistle, to be accompanied whenever required by corresponding alteration of her helm; and every steam vessel receiving a signal from another shall promptly respond with the same signal or, as provided in rule 26:

One blast to mean, "I am directing my course to starboard."

Two blasts to mean, "I am directing my course to port."

But the giving or answering signals by a vessel required to keep her course shall not vary the duties and obligations of the respective vessels. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 649.)

289. Steam vessels meeting in narrow channels having current and certain rivers; right of way.—Rule 24.—In all narrow channels where there is a current, and in the rivers Saint Mary, Saint Clair, Detroit, Niagara, and Saint Lawrence, when two steamers are meeting, the descending steamer shall have the right of way, and shall, before the vessels shall have arrived within the distance of one-half mile of each other, give the signal necessary to indicate which side she elects to take. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 649.)

290. Steam vessels passing in narrow channels; slackening speed.—Rule 25.—In all channels less than five hundred feet in width, no steam vessel shall pass another going in the same direction unless the steam vessel ahead be disabled or signify her willingness that the steam vessel astern shall pass, when the steam vessel astern may pass, subject, however, to the other rules applicable to such a situation. And when steam vessels proceeding in opposite directions are about to meet in such channels, both such vessels shall be slowed down to a moderate speed, according to the circumstances. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 649.)

291. Dissent to or misunderstanding of signal given; duty to reduce speed.—Rule 26.—If the pilot of a steam vessel to which a passing signal is sounded deems it unsafe to accept and assent to said signal, he shall not sound a cross signal; but in that case, and in every case where the pilot of one steamer fails to understand the course or intention of an approaching steamer, whether from signals being given or answered erroneously, or from other causes, the pilot of such steamer so receiving the first passing signal, or the pilot so in doubt, shall sound several short and rapid blasts of the whistle; and if the vessels shall have approached within half a mile of each other both shall reduce their speed to bare steerageway, and, if necessary, stop and reverse. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 649.)

292. Departure from rules to avert immediate danger.—Rule 27.—In obeying and construing these rules due regard shall be had to all dangers of navigation and collision and to any special circumstances which may render a departure from the above rules necessary in order to avoid immediate danger. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 649.)

293. Usual additional precautions required generally.—Rule 28.—Nothing in these rules shall exonerate any vessel, or the owner or master or crew thereof, from the consequences of any neglect to carry lights or signals, or of any neglect to keep a proper lookout, or of a neglect of any precaution which may be required by the ordinary practice of seamen, or by the special circumstances of the case. (Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, § 1, 28 Stat. 649.)

PRELIMINARY

Section 301. Adoption of rules.—The following rules for preventing collisions on the water, shall be followed in the navigation of vessels of the Navy and of the mercantile marine of the United States upon the Red River of the North and rivers emptying into the Gulf of Mexico and their tributaries.

Such rules and regulations pursuant to the provisions of this chapter are hereby declared special rules duly made by local authority relative to the navigation of harbors, rivers and inland waters as provided for in article 30, of chapter 2 of this title, section 131. (R. S. § 4233; Aug. 19, 1890, c. 802, 26 Stat. 320; Feb. 8, 1895, c. 64, 28 Stat. 645; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672; June 7, 1897, c. 4, 30 Stat. 96.)

302. "Sail vessel" and "steam vessel" defined.—Rule 1.—Every steam vessel which is under sail and not under steam shall be considered a sail vessel; and every steam vessel which is under steam, whether under sail or not, shall be considered a steam vessel. The words steam vessel shall include any vessel propelled by machinery. (Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672; Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1457, § 10, 33 Stat. 1032.)

303. Penalty for violation by vessel.—Collectors or other chief officers of the customs shall require all sail vessels navigating the Red River of the North and rivers emptying into the Gulf of Mexico, and their tributaries to be furnished with proper signal lights.

Every such vessel that shall be navigated without complying with the Statutes of the United States, or the regulations that may be lawfully made thereunder, shall be liable to a penalty of $200, one-half to go to the informer; for which sum the vessel so navigated shall be liable, and may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any district court of the United States having jurisdiction of the offense. (Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, § 3, 28 Stat. 672.)

RULES CONCERNING LIGHTS

311. Time for lights; prescribed lights exclusive.—Rule 2.—The lights mentioned in the following rules, and no others, shall be carried in all weathers, between sunset and sunrise. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

312. Lights of ocean-going steamers and steamers carrying sail, when under way.—Rule 3.—All ocean-going steamers, and steamers carrying sail, shall, when under way, carry—

(a) At the foremast head, a bright white light, of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least five miles, and so constructed as to show a uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of twenty points of the compass, and so fixed as to throw the light ten points on each side of the vessel, namely, from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side.

(b) On the starboard side, a green light, of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least two miles, and so constructed as to show a uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, and so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the starboard side.

(c) On the port side, a red light, of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least two miles, and so constructed as to show a uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, and so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the port side.

The green and red lights shall be fitted with inboard screens, projecting at least three feet forward from the lights, so as to prevent them from being seen across the bow. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

313. Lights of steam vessels towing other vessels.—Rule 4.—Steam vessels, when towing other vessels, shall carry two bright white masthead lights vertically, in addition to their side lights, so as to distinguish them from other steam vessels. Each of these masthead lights shall be of the same character and construction as the masthead lights prescribed by rule 3. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

314. Lights of steam vessels other than ocean-going steamers and steamers carrying sail.—Rule 5.—All steam vessels, other than ocean-going steamers and steamers carrying sail, shall, when under way, carry on the starboard and port sides lights of the same character and construction and in the same position as are prescribed for side lights by rule 3, except in the case provided in rule 6. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

315. Lights of river steamers on waters flowing into Gulf of Mexico.—Rule 6.—River steamers navigating waters flowing into the Gulf of Mexico, and their tributaries, shall carry the following lights, namely: One red light on the outboard side of the port smoke pipe, and one green light on the outboard side of the starboard smoke pipe. Such lights shall show both forward and abeam on their respective sides. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

316. Lights of steam vessels not otherwise provided for; ferryboats, barges and canal boats.—Rule 7.—All steam vessels other than ferryboats and vessels otherwise expressly provided for, except those mentioned in rule 6, shall carry the red and green lights, as prescribed for ocean-going steamers; and, in addition thereto, a central range of two white lights; the afterlight being carried at an elevation of at least fifteen feet above the light at the head of the vessel. The headlight shall be so constructed as to show a good light through twenty points of the compass, namely: from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side of the vessel; and the afterlight so as to show all around the horizon. The lights for ferryboats, barges and canal boats when in tow of steam vessels, shall be regulated by such rules as the board of supervising inspectors of steam vessels shall prescribe. (R. S. § 4233; Mar. 3, 1893, c. 202, 27 Stat. 557; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

317. Lights of sailing vessels under way or in tow.—Rule 8.—Sail vessels, under way or being towed, shall carry the same lights as steam vessels under way, with the exception of the white masthead lights, which they shall never carry. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

318. Lights of small vessels in bad weather.—Rule 9.—Whenever, as in case of small vessels during bad weather, the green and red lights can not be fixed, these lights shall be kept on deck, on their respective sides of the vessel, ready for instant exhibition, and shall, on the approach of or to other vessels, be exhibited on their respective sides in sufficient time to prevent collision, in such manner as to make them most visible, and so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side, nor the red light on the starboard side. To make the use of these portable lights more certain and easy, they shall each be painted outside with the color of the light they respectively contain, and shall be provided with suitable screens. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

319. Lights of vessels at anchor.—Rule 10.—All vessels, whether steam vessels or sail vessels, when at anchor in roadsteads or fairways, shall, between sunset and sunrise, exhibit where it can best be seen, but at a height not exceeding twenty feet above the hull, a white light in a globular lantern of eight inches in diameter, and so constructed as to show a clear, uniform, and unbroken light, visible all around the horizon, and at a distance of at least one mile. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

320. Lights of sailing and steam pilot vessels.—Rule 11.—Sailing pilot vessels shall not carry the lights required for other sailing vessels, but shall carry a white light at the masthead, visible all around the horizon, and shall also exhibit a flare-up light every fifteen minutes.

Steam pilot boats shall, in addition to the masthead light and green and red side lights required for ocean steam vessels, carry a red light hung vertically from three to five feet above the foremast headlight, for the purpose of distinguishing such steam pilot boats from other steam vessels. (R. S. § 4233; Mar. 3, 1897, c. 389, § 5, 29 Stat. 689; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

321. Lights of coal boats, produce boats, etc., navigating by hand power, horse power, or by current of river.—Rule 12.—Coal boats, trading boats, produce boats, canal boats, oyster boats, fishing boats, rafts, or other water craft, navigating any bay, harbor, or river, by hand power, horsepower, sail, or by the current of the river, or which shall be anchored or moored in or near the channel or fairway of any bay, harbor, or river, shall carry one or more good white lights, which shall be placed in such manner as shall be prescribed by the board of supervising inspectors of steam vessels. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

322. Lights of open boats.—Rule 13.—Open boats shall not be required to carry the side lights required for other vessels, but shall, if they do not carry such lights, carry a lantern having a green slide on one side and a red slide on the other side; and, on the approach of or to other vessels, such lantern shall be exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision, and in such a manner that the green light shall not be seen on the port side, nor the red light on the starboard side. Open boats, when at anchor or stationary, shall exhibit a bright white light. They shall not, however, be prevented from using a flare-up, in addition, if considered expedient. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

323. Vessel of war or Coast Guard vessel; suspension of exhibition of lights.—Rule 14.—The exhibition of any light on board of a vessel of war of the United States may be suspended whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Navy, the commander in chief of a squadron, or the commander of a vessel acting singly, the special character of the service may require it. The exhibition of any light on board of a Coast Guard vessel of the United States may be suspended whenever, in the opinion of the commander of the vessel, the special character of the service may require it. (Mar. 3, 1897, c. 389, § 12, 29 Stat. 690; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

SOUND SIGNALS FOR FOG, ETC.

331. Sound signals for fog, etc.; steamers, sailing vessels, and other water craft, at anchor or under way.—Rule 15.—(a) Whenever there is a fog, or thick weather, whether by day or night, fog signals shall be used as follows: Steam vessels under way shall sound a steam whistle placed before the funnel, not less than eight feet from the deck, at intervals of not more than one minute. Steam vessels, when towing, shall sound three blasts of quick succession repeated at intervals of not more than one minute.

(b) Sail vessels under way shall sound a foghorn at intervals of not more than one minute.

(c) Steam vessels and sail vessels, when not under way, shall sound a bell at intervals of not more than two minutes.

(d) Coal boats, trading boats, produce boats, canal boats, oyster boats, fishing boats, rafts, or other water craft, navigating any bay, harbor, or river, by hand power, horsepower, sail, or by the current of the river, or anchored or moored in or near the channel or fairway of any bay, harbor, or river, and not in any port, shall sound a foghorn, or equivalent signal, which shall make a sound equal to a steam whistle, at intervals of not more than two minutes. (R. S. § 4233; Mar. 3, 1897, c. 389, § 12, 29 Stat. 690; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

STEERING AND SAILING RULES

341. Suggestion for ascertainment of risk of collision.—Rule 16.—Risk of collision can, when circumstances permit, be ascertained by carefully watching the compass bearing of an approaching vessel. If the bearing does not appreciably change such risk should be deemed to exist. (Mar. 3, 1897, c. 389, § 12, 29 Stat. 690; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

342. Sailing vessels approaching one another.—Rule 17.—When two sailing vessels are approaching one another, so as to involve risk of collision, one of them shall keep out of the way of the other, as follows, namely:

(a) A vessel which is running free shall keep out of the way of a vessel which is close-hauled.

(b) A vessel which is closed-hauled on the port tack shall keep out of the way of a vessel which is close-hauled on the starboard tack.

(c) When both are running free, with the wind on different sides, the vessel which has the wind on the port side shall keep out of the way of the other.

(d) When both vessels are running free, with the wind on the same side, the vessel which is to the windward shall keep out of the way of the vessel which is to the leeward.

(e) A vessel which has the wind aft shall keep out of the way of the other vessel. (Mar. 3, 1897, c. 389, § 12, 29 Stat. 690; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

343. Steam vessels meeting end on.—Rule 18.—If two vessels under steam are meeting end on, or nearly end on, so as to involve risk of collision, the helms of both shall be put to port, so that each may pass on the port side of the other. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

344. Steam vessels crossing.—Rule 19.—If two vessels under steam are crossing so as to involve risk of collision, the vessel which has the other on her own starboard side shall keep out of the way of the other. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

345. Steam and sailing vessels meeting.—Rule 20.—If two vessels, one of which is a sail vessel and the other a steam vessel, are proceeding in such directions as to involve risk of collision, the steam vessel shall keep out of the way of the sail vessel. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

346. Duty of steam vessel to slacken speed; fog.—Rule 21.—Every steam vessel, when approaching another vessel, so as to involve risk of collision, shall slacken her speed, or, if necessary, stop and reverse; and every steam vessel shall, when in a fog, go at a moderate speed. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

347. Overtaking vessel to keep out of the way.—Rule 22.—Every vessel overtaking any other vessel shall keep out of the way of the last-mentioned vessel. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

348. Vessel having right of way to keep course.—Rule 23.—Where, by rules 17, 19, 20, and 22, one of two vessels shall keep out of the way, the other shall keep her course, subject to the qualifications of rule 24. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

349. Special circumstance requiring departure from rules.—Rule 24.—In construing and obeying these rules, due regard must be had to all dangers of navigation, and to any special circumstances which may exist in any particular case rendering a departure from them necessary in order to avoid immediate danger. (R. S. § 4233; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

350. Overtaken sailing vessel to show light.—Rule 25.—A sail vessel which is being overtaken by another vessel during the night shall show from her stern to such last-mentioned vessel a torch or a flare-up light. (Mar. 3, 1897, c. 389, § 13, 29 Stat. 690; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

351. Usual additional precautions required.—Rule 26.—Nothing in these rules shall exonerate any ship, or the owner, or master, or crew thereof, from the consequences of any neglect to carry lights or signals, or of any neglect to keep a proper lookout, or of the neglect of any precaution which may be required by the ordinary practice of seamen or by the special circumstances of the case. (Mar. 3, 1897, c. 389, § 13, 29 Stat. 690; Feb. 19, 1895, c. 102, 28 Stat. 672.)

Chapter 6.—GENERAL DUTIES OF SHIP OFFICERS AND OWNERS AFTER COLLISION OR OTHER ACCIDENT.

Sec.
361. Reports of accidents generally; penalty.
362. Report of probable loss of vessel; penalty.
363. Transmission by collectors of customs of reports to Secretary of Commerce.
364. Remission and recovery of penalties.
365. Reports by owners, etc., of barges in tow.
366. Reports by Secretary of Commerce to Congress.
367. Duty of master of vessel in collision to give aid, name of his vessel, etc.
368. Penalty for failure to give aid, etc.

Section 361. Reports of accidents general; penalty.—Whenever any vessel of the United States has sustained or caused any accident involving the loss of life, the material loss of property, or any serious injury to any person, or has received any material damage affecting her seaworthiness or her efficiency, the managing owner, agent, or master of such vessel, shall within five days after the happening of such accident or damage, or as soon thereafter as possible, send, by letter to the collector of customs of the district wherein such vessel belongs or of that within which such accident or damage occurred, a report thereof, signed by such owner, agent, or master, stating the name and official number (if any) of the vessel, the port to which she belongs, the place where she was, the nature and probable occasion of the casualty, the number and names of those lost, and the estimated amount of loss or damage to the vessel or cargo; and shall furnish, upon the request of either of such collectors of customs, such other information concerning the vessel, her cargo, and the casualty as may be called for; and if he neglect or refuse to comply with the foregoing requirements after a reasonable time, he shall incur a penalty of $100. (June 20, 1874, c. 344, § 10, 18 Stat. 128.)

362. Report of probable loss of vessel; penalty.—Whenever the managing owner or agent of any vessel of the United States has reason, owing to the nonappearance of such vessel, or to any other circumstance, to apprehend that such vessel has been lost, he shall, as soon as conveniently may be, send notice, in writing, to the collector of customs of the port to which said vessel belonged, of such loss, and the probable occasion thereof stating the name and the official number (if any) of the vessel, and the names of all persons on board, so far as the same can be ascertained, and shall furnish, upon request of the collector of such port, such additional information as he may be able; and if he neglect to comply with the above requirements within a reasonable time, he shall incur a penalty of $100. (June 20, 1874, c. 344, § 11, 18 Stat. 128.)

363. Transmission by collectors of customs of reports to Secretary of Commerce.—It shall be the duty of the collectors of customs to immediately transmit to the Secretary of Commerce such reports and information as they may receive under the provisions of the two preceding sections, and they shall also report to the Secretary of Commerce any neglect or refusal on the part of the managing owner, agent, or master of any vessel of the United States to comply with the requirements thereof. (June 20, 1874, c. 344, § 12, 18 Stat. 128.)

364. Remission and recovery of penalties.—The Secretary of Commerce may, upon application therefor, remit or mitigate any penalty provided for in the preceding sections of this chapter, or discontinue any prosecution to recover the same, upon such terms as he, in his discretion, shall think proper, and shall have authority to ascertain the facts upon all such applications in such manner and under such regulations as he may think proper. All penalties herein provided may be sued for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of in the manner prescribed by section 396 of chapter 8 of this title. (Mar. 3, 1897, c. 389, § 11, 29 Stat. 690.)

365. Reports by owners, etc., of barges in tow.—The owner, agent, or master of every barge which, while in tow through the open sea, has sustained or caused any accident, shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of the four preceding sections, and the reports therein prescribed shall be transmitted by collectors of customs to the Secretary of Commerce. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 153, § 15, 38 Stat. 1184.)

366. Reports by Secretary of Commerce to Congress.—The Secretary of Commerce shall transmit annually to Congress a summary of the reports, transmitted to him by the collectors of customs as required in the preceding sections of this chapter during the previous fiscal year, together with a brief statement of the action of the department in respect to such accidents. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 153, § 15, 38 Stat. 1184.)

367. Duty of master of vessel in collision to give aid, name of his vessel, etc.—In every case of collision between two vessels it shall be the duty of the master or person in charge of each vessel, if and so far as he can do so without serious danger to his own vessel, crew, and passengers (if any), to stay by the other vessel until he has ascertained that she has no need of further assistance, and to render to the other vessel, her master, crew, and passengers (if any) such assistance as may be practicable and as may be necessary in order to save them from any danger caused by the collision, and also to give to the master or person in charge of the other vessel the name of his own vessel and her port of registry, or the port or place to which she belongs, and also the name of the ports and places from which and to which she is bound. If he fails so to do, and no reasonable cause for such failure is shown, the collision shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be deemed to have been caused by his wrongful act, neglect, or default. (Sept. 4, 1890, c. 875, § 1, 26 Stat. 425.)

368. Penalty for failure to give aid, etc.—Every master or person in charge of a United States vessel who fails, without reasonable cause, to render such assistance or give such information as required in the preceding section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to a penalty of $1,000, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years; and for the above sum the vessel shall be liable and may be seized and proceeded against by process in any district court of the United States by any person; one-half such sum to be payable to the informer and the other half to the United States. (Sept. 4, 1890, c. 875, § 2, 26 Stat. 425.)

Chapter 7.—REGULATIONS FOR THE SUPPRESSION OF PIRACY.

Sec.
381. Use of public vessels to suppress piracy.
382. Seizure of piratical vessels generally.
383. Resistance of pirates by merchant vessels.
384. Condemnation of piratical vessels.
385. Seizure and condemnation of vessels fitted out for piracy.
386. Commissioning private vessels for seizure of piratical vessels.
387. Duties of officers of customs and marshals as to seizure.

CROSS REFERENCE

As regards piracy and other offenses on the high seas, see section 481 et seq., of Title 18.

Section 381. Use of public vessels to suppress piracy.—The President is authorized to employ so many of the public armed vessels as in his judgment the service may require, with suitable instructions to the commanders thereof, in protecting the merchant vessels of the United States and their crews from piratical aggressions and depredations. (R. S. § 4293.)

382. Seizure of piratical vessels generally.—The President is authorized to instruct the commanders of the public armed vessels of the United States to subdue, seize, take, and send into any port of the United States, any armed vessel or boat, or any vessel or boat, the crew whereof shall be armed, and which shall have attempted or committed any piratical aggression, search, restraint, depredation, or seizure, upon any vessel of the United States, or of the citizens thereof, or upon any other vessel; and also to retake any vessel of the United States, or its citizens, which may have been unlawfully captured upon the high seas. (R. S. § 4294.)

383. Resistance of pirates by merchant vessels.—The commander and crew of any merchant vessel of the United States, owned wholly, or in part, by a citizen thereof, may oppose and defend against any aggression, search, restraint, depredation, or seizure, which shall be attempted upon such vessel, or upon any other vessel so owned, by the commander or crew of any armed vessel whatsoever, not being a public armed vessel of some nation in amity with the United States, and may subdue and capture the same; and may also retake any vessel so owned which may have been captured by the commander or crew of any such armed vessel, and send the same into any port of the United States. (R. S. § 4295.)

384. Condemnation of piratical vessels.—Whenever any vessel, which shall have been built, purchased, fitted out in whole or in part, or held for the purpose of being employed in the commission of any piratical aggression, search, restraint, depredation, or seizure, or in the commission of any other act of piracy as defined by the law of nations, or from which any piratical aggression, search, restraint, depredation, or seizure shall have been first attempted or made, is captured and brought into or captured in any port of the United States, the same shall be adjudged and condemned to their use, and that of the captors after due process and trial in any court having admiralty jurisdiction, and which shall be holden for the district into which such captured vessel shall be brought; and the same court shall thereupon order a sale and distribution thereof accordingly, and at its discretion. (R. S. § 4296.)

385. Seizure and condemnation of vessels fitted out for piracy.—Any vessel built, purchased, fitted out in whole or in part, or held for the purpose of being employed in the commission of any piratical aggression, search, restraint, depredation, or seizure, or in the commission of any other act of piracy, as defined by the law of nations, shall be liable to be captured and brought into any port of the United States if found upon the high seas, or to be seized if found in any port or place within the United States, whether the same shall have actually sailed upon any piratical expedition or not, and whether any act of piracy shall have been committed or attempted upon or from such vessel or not; and any such vessel may be adjudged and condemned, if captured by a vessel authorized as in the following section mentioned, to the use of the United States, and to that of the captors, and if seized by a collector, surveyor, or marshal, then to the use of the United States. (R. S. § 4297.)

386. Commissioning private vessels for seizure of piratical vessels.—The President is authorized to instruct the commanders of the public armed vessels of the United States, and to authorize the commanders of any other armed vessels sailing under the authority of any letters of marque and reprisal granted by Congress, or the commanders of any other suitable vessels, to subdue, seize, take, and, if on the high seas, to send into any port of the United States, any vessel or boat built, purchased, fitted out, or held as mentioned in the preceding section. (R. S. § 4298.)

387. Duties of officers of customs and marshals as to seizure.—The collectors of the several ports of entry, the surveyors of the several ports of delivery, and the marshals of the several judicial districts within the United States, shall seize any vessel or boat built, purchased, fitted out, or held as mentioned in section 385 of this chapter, which may be found within their respective ports or districts, and to cause the same to be proceeded against and disposed of as provided by that section. (R. S. § 4299.)

Chapter 8.—SUMMARY TRIALS FOR CERTAIN OFFENSES AGAINST NAVIGATION LAWS.

Sec.
391. Summary trials authorized.
392. Complaint and answer; jury trial.
393. Amendments of complaint and adjournments.
394. Challenge to jurors.
395. Limit of sentence.
396. Recovery of penalties and forfeitures generally.

Section 391. Summary trials authorized.—Whenever a complaint shall be made against any master, officer, or seaman of any vessel belonging, in whole or in part, to any citizen of the United States, of the commission of any offense, not capital or otherwise infamous, against any law of the United States made for the protection of persons or property engaged in commerce or navigation, it shall be the duty of the district attorney to investigate the same, and the general nature thereof, and if, in his opinion, the case is such as should be summarily tried, he shall report the same to the district judge, and the judge shall forthwith, or as soon as the ordinary business of the court will permit, proceed to try the cause, and for that purpose may, if necessary, hold a special session of the court, either in term time or vacation. (R. S. § 4300.)

392. Complaint and answer; jury trial.—At the summary trial of offenses against the laws for the protection of persons or property engaged in commerce or navigation, it shall not be necessary that the accused shall have been previously indicted, but a statement of complaint, verified by oath in writing, shall be presented to the court, setting out the offense in such manner as clearly to apprise the accused of the character of the offense complained of, and to enable him to answer the complaint. The complaint or statement shall be read to the accused, who may plead to or answer the same, or make a counterstatement. The trial shall thereupon be proceeded with in a summary manner, and the case shall be decided by the court, unless, at the time for pleading or answering, the accused shall demand a jury, in which case the trial shall be upon the complaint and plea of not guilty. (R. S. § 4301.)

393. Amendments of complaint and adjournments.—It shall be lawful for the court to allow the district attorney to amend his statement of complaint at any stage of the proceedings, before verdict, if, in the opinion of the court, such amendment will work no injustice to the accused; and if it appears to the court that the accused is unprepared to meet the charge as amended, and that an adjournment of the cause will promote the ends of justice, such adjournment shall be made, until a further day, to be fixed by the court. (R. S. § 4302.)

394. Challenge to jurors.—At the trial in summary cases, if by jury, the United States and the accused shall each be entitled to three peremptory challenges. Challenges for cause, in such cases, shall be tried by the court without the aid of triers. (R. S. § 4303.)

395. Limit of sentence.—It shall not be lawful for the court to sentence any person convicted in such trial to any greater punishment than imprisonment in jail for one year, or to a fine exceeding $500, or both, in its discretion, in those cases where the laws of the United States authorize such imprisonment and fine. (R. S. § 4304.)

396. Recovery of penalties and forfeitures generally.—All penalties and forfeitures which may be incurred for offenses against this chapter and the six preceding chapters of this title may be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered in such court, and be disposed of in such manner, as any penalties and forfeitures which may be incurred for offenses against the laws relating to the collection of duties, except when otherwise expressly prescribed. (R. S. § 4305.)

Chapter 9.—PROTECTION OF NAVIGABLE WATERS AND OF HARBOR AND RIVER IMPROVEMENTS GENERALLY.

450. Liability of vessel.
451. Supervisor of harbor; appointment and duties.
452. Taking shellfish or otherwise interfering with navigation in New York Harbor channels; penalty; arrest and procedure.
453. Regulations for navigation of Ambrose Channel; exclusion of tows and sailing vessels.
454. Consent of Congress to obstruction of waters by New York City.

POTOMAC RIVER AND TRIBUTARIES IN DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

461. Deposit in river, etc., of materials generally.
462. Deposit of offal.
463. Penalty for violation of preceding sections.
464. Improvements under supervision of Federal Government excepted.

IN GENERAL

Section 401. Construction of bridges, causeways, dams or dikes generally.—It shall not be lawful to construct or commence the construction of any bridge, dam, dike, or causeway over or in any port, roadstead, haven, harbor, canal, navigable river, or other navigable water of the United States until the consent of Congress to the building of such structures shall have been obtained and until the plans for the same shall have been submitted to and approved by the Chief of Engineers and by the Secretary of War: Provided, That such structures may be built under authority of the legislature of a State across rivers and other waterways the navigable portions of which lie wholly within the limits of a single State, provided the location and plans thereof are submitted to and approved by the Chief of Engineers and by the Secretary of War before construction is commenced: And provided further, That when plans for any bridge or other structure have been approved by the Chief of Engineers and by the Secretary of War, it shall not be lawful to deviate from such plans either before or after completion of the structure unless the modification of said plans has previously been submitted to and received the approval of the Chief of Engineers and of the Secretary of War. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 425, § 9, 30 Stat. 1151.)

402. Construction of bridges, etc., over Illinois and Mississippi Canal.—The provisions of the foregoing section are hereby made applicable alike to the completed and uncompleted portions of the Illinois and Mississippi Canal. Whenever the Secretary of War shall approve plans for a bridge to be built across said canal he may, in his discretion, and subject to such terms and conditions as in his judgment are equitable, expedient, and just to the public, grant to the person or corporation building and owning such bridge a right of way across the lands of the United States on either side of and adjacent to the said canal; also the privilege of occupying so much of said lands as may be necessary for the piers, abutments, and other portions of the bridge structure and approaches. (June 13, 1902, c. 1079, § 10, 32 Stat. 374.)

403. Obstruction of navigable waters generally; wharves; piers, etc.; excavations and filling in.—The creation of any obstruction not affirmatively authorized by Congress, to the navigable capacity of any of the waters of the United States is hereby prohibited; and it shall not be lawful to build or commence the building of any wharf, pier, dolphin, boom, weir, breakwater, bulkhead, jetty, or other structures in any port, roadstead, haven, harbor, canal, navigable river, or other water of the United States, outside established harbor lines, or where no harbor lines have been established, except on plans recommended by the Chief of Engineers and authorized by the Secretary of War; and it shall not be lawful to excavate or fill, or in any manner to alter or modify the course, location, condition, or capacity of, any port, roadstead, haven, harbor, canal, lake, harbor of refuge, or inclosure within the limits of any breakwater, or of the channel of any navigable water of the United States, unless the work has been recommended by the Chief of Engineers and authorized by the Secretary of War prior to beginning the same. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 425, § 10, 30 Stat. 1151.)

404. Establishment of harbor lines; conditions to grants for extension of piers, etc.—Where it is made manifest to the Secretary of War that the establishment of harbor lines is essential to the preservation and protection of harbors he may, and is hereby, authorized to cause such lines to be established, beyond which no piers, wharves, bulkheads, or other works shall be extended or deposits made, except under such regulations as may be prescribed from time to time by him: Provided, That whenever the Secretary of War grants to any person or persons permission to extend piers, wharves, bulkheads, or other works, or to make deposits in any tidal harbor or river of the United States beyond any harbor lines established under authority of the United States, he shall cause to be ascertained the amount of tidewater displaced by any such structure or by any such deposits, and he shall, if he deem it necessary, require the parties to whom the permission is given to make compensation for such displacement either by excavating in some part of the harbor, including tidewater channels between high and low water mark, to such an extent as to create a basin for as much tidewater as may be displaced by such structure or by such deposits, or in any other mode that may be satisfactory to him. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 425, § 11, 30 Stat. 1151.)

405. Establishment and modification of harbor lines on Potomac and Anacostia Rivers.—The provisions of the foregoing section are made applicable to the Potomac and Anacostia Rivers, and after July 25, 1912, harbor lines in the District of Columbia, or elsewhere on said rivers, shall be established or modified as therein provided. (July 25, 1912, c. 253, § 1, 37 Stat. 206.)

406. Penalty for wrongful construction of bridges, piers, etc.; removal of structures.—Every person and every corporation that shall violate any of the provisions of sections 401, 403 and 404 of this chapter or any rule or regulation made by the Secretary of War in pursuance of the provisions of the said sections, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,500 nor less than $500, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) not exceeding one year, or by both such punishments, in the discretion of the court. And further, the removal of any structures or parts of structures erected in violation of the provisions of the said sections may be enforced by the injunction of any district court exercising jurisdiction in any district in which such structures may exist, and proper proceedings to this end may be instituted under the direction of the Attorney General of the United States. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 425, § 12, 30 Stat. 1151; Feb. 20, 1900, c. 23, § 2, 31 Stat. 32.)

407. Deposit of refuse in navigable waters generally.—It shall not be lawful to throw, discharge, or deposit, or cause, suffer, or procure to be thrown, discharged, or deposited either from or out of any ship, barge, or other floating craft of any kind, or from the shore, wharf, manufacturing establishment, or mill of any kind, any refuse matter of any kind or description whatever other than that flowing from streets and sewers and passing therefrom in a liquid state, into any navigable water of the United States, or into any tributary of any navigable water from which the same shall float or be washed into such navigable water; and it shall not be lawful to deposit, or cause, suffer, or procure to be deposited material of any kind in any place on the bank of any navigable water, or on the bank of any tributary of any navigable water, where the same shall be liable to be washed into such navigable water, either by ordinary or high tides, or by storms or floods, or otherwise, whereby navigation shall or may be impeded or obstructed: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall extend to, apply to, or prohibit the operations in connection with the improvement of navigable waters or construction of public works, considered necessary and proper by the United States officers supervising such improvement or public work: And provided further, That the Secretary of War, whenever in the judgment of the Chief of Engineers anchorage and navigation will not be injured thereby, may permit the deposit of any material above mentioned in navigable waters, within limits to be defined and under conditions to be prescribed by him, provided application is made to him prior to depositing such material; and whenever any permit is so granted the conditions thereof shall be strictly complied with, and any violation thereof shall be unlawful. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 425, § 13, 30 Stat. 1152.)

408. Taking possession of, use of, or injury to harbor or river improvements.—It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to take possession of or make use of for any purpose, or build upon, alter, deface, destroy, move, injure, obstruct by fastening vessels thereto or otherwise, or in any manner whatever impair the usefulness of any sea wall, bulkhead, jetty, dike, levee, wharf, pier, or other work built by the United States, or any piece of plant, floating or otherwise, used in the construction of such work under the control of the United States, in whole or in part, for the preservation and improvement of any of its navigable waters or to prevent floods, or as boundary marks, tide gauges, surveying stations, buoys, or other established marks, nor remove for ballast or other purposes any stone or other material composing such works: Provided, That the Secretary of War may, on the recommendation of the Chief of Engineers, grant permission for the temporary occupation or use of any of the aforementioned public works when in his judgment such occupation or use will not be injurious to the public interest. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 425, § 14, 30 Stat. 1152.)

409. Obstruction of navigable waters by vessels; floating timber; marking and removal of sunken vessels.—It shall not be lawful to tie up or anchor vessels or other craft in navigable channels in such a manner as to prevent or obstruct the passage of other vessels or craft; or to voluntarily or carelessly sink, or permit or cause to be sunk, vessels or other craft in navigable channels; or to float loose timber and logs, or to float what is known as sack rafts of timber and logs in streams or channels actually navigated by steamboats in such manner as to obstruct, impede, or endanger navigation. And whenever a vessel, raft, or other craft is wrecked and sunk in a navigable channel, accidently or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the owner of such sunken craft to immediately mark it with a buoy or beacon during the day and a lighted lantern at night, and to maintain such marks until the sunken craft is removed or abandoned, and the neglect or failure of the said owner so to do shall be unlawful; and it shall be the duty of the owner of such sunken craft to commence the immediate removal of the same, and prosecute such removal diligently, and failure to do so shall be considered as an abandonment of such craft, and subject the same to removal by the United States as hereinafter provided for. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 425, § 15, 30 Stat. 1152.)

410. Exception as to floating loose timber, sack rafts, etc.; violation of regulations; penalty.—The prohibition contained in the foregoing section against floating loose timber and logs, or sack rafts, so called, of timber and logs in streams or channels actually navigated by steamboats, shall not apply to any navigable river or waterway of the United States or any part thereof whereon the floating of loose timber and logs and sack rafts of timber and logs is the principal method of navigation. But such method of navigation on such river or waterway or part thereof shall be subject to the rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War as hereinafter provided.

The Secretary of War shall have power, and he is hereby authorized and directed to prescribe rules and regulations, which he may at any time modify, to govern and regulate the floating of loose timber and logs, and sack rafts, (so called) of timber and logs and other methods of navigation on the streams and waterways, or any thereof, of the character, as to navigation, heretofore in this section described. The said rules and regulations shall be so framed as to equitably adjust conflicting interests between the different methods or forms of navigation; and the said rules and regulations shall be published at least once in such newspaper or newspapers of general circulation as in the opinion of the Secretary of War shall be best adapted to give notice of said rules and regulations to persons affected thereby and locally interested therein. And all modifications of said rules and regulations shall be similarly published. And such rules and regulations when so prescribed and published as to any such stream or waterway shall have the force of law, and any violation thereof shall be a misdemeanor, and every person convicted of such violation shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding $2,500 nor less than $500, or by imprisonment (in case of a natural person) for not less than thirty days nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That the proper action to enforce the provisions of this section may be commenced before any commissioner, judge, or court of the United States, and such commissioner, judge, or court shall proceed in respect thereto as authorized by law in the case of crimes or misdemeanors committed against the United States.

The right to alter, amend, or repeal this section at any time is hereby reserved. (May 9, 1900, c. 387, §§ 1–3, 31 Stat. 172.)

411. Penalty for wrongful deposit of refuse; use of or injury to harbor improvements, and obstruction of navigable waters generally.—Every person and every corporation that shall violate, or that shall knowingly aid, abet, authorize, or instigate a violation of the provisions of sections 407, 408, and 409 of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,500 nor less than $500, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) for not less than thirty days nor more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court, one-half of said fine to be paid to the person or persons giving information which shall lead to conviction. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 425, § 16, 30 Stat. 1153.)

on board of any boat or vessel who shall knowingly engage in towing any scow, boat, or vessel loaded with any material specified in section 407 of this chapter to any point or place of deposit or discharge in any harbor or navigable water, elsewhere than within the limits defined and permitted by the Secretary of War, or who shall willfully injure or destroy any work of the United States contemplated in section 408 of this chapter, or who shall willfully obstruct the channel of any waterway in the manner contemplated in section 409 of this chapter, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this chapter, and shall upon conviction be punished as provided in the preceding section, and shall also have his license revoked or suspended for a term to be fixed by the judge before whom tried and convicted. And any boat, vessel, scow, raft, or other craft used or employed in violating any of the provisions of sections 407, 408, and 409, of this chapter shall be liable for the pecuniary penalties specified in the preceding section, and in addition thereto for the amount of the damages done by said boat, vessel, scow, raft, or other craft, which latter sum shall be placed to the credit of the appropriation for the improvement of the harbor or waterway in which the damage occurred, and said boat, vessel, scow, raft, or other craft may be proceeded against summarily by way of libel in any district court of the United States having jurisdiction thereof. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 425, § 16, 30 Stat. 1153.)

413. Duty of district attorneys and other Federal officers in enforcement of provisions; arrest of offenders.—The Department of Justice shall conduct the legal proceedings necessary to enforce the foregoing provisions of the foregoing sections of this chapter; and it shall be the duty of district attorneys of the United States to vigorously prosecute all offenders against the same whenever requested to do so by the Secretary of War or by any of the officials hereinafter designated, and it shall furthermore be the duty of said district attorneys to report to the Attorney General of the United States the action taken by him against offenders so reported, and a transcript of such reports shall be transmitted to the Secretary of War by the Attorney General; and for the better enforcement of the said provisions and to facilitate the detection and bringing to punishment of such offenders, the officers and agents of the United States in charge of river and harbor improvements, and the assistant engineers and inspectors employed under them by authority of the Secretary of War, and the United States collectors of customs and other revenue officers shall have power and authority to swear out process, and to arrest and take into custody, with or without process, any person or persons who may commit any of the acts or offenses prohibited by the aforesaid sections of this chapter, or who may violate any of the provisions of the same: Provided, That no person shall be arrested without process for any offense not committed in the presence of some one of the aforesaid officials: And provided further, That whenever any arrest is made under the foregoing provisions of this chapter, the person so arrested shall be brought forthwith before a commissioner, judge, or court of the United States for examination of the offenses alleged against him; and such commissioner, judge, or court shall proceed in respect thereto as authorized by law in case of crimes against the United States. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 425, § 17, 30 Stat. 1153.)

414. Removal by Secretary of sunken water craft generally.—Whenever the navigation of any river, lake, harbor, sound, bay, canal, or other navigable waters of the United States shall be obstructed or endangered by any sunken vessel, boat, water craft, raft, or other similar obstruction, and such obstruction has existed for a longer period than thirty days, or whenever the abandonment of such obstruction can be legally established in a less space of time, the sunken vessel, boat, water craft, raft, or other obstruction shall be subject to be broken up, removed, sold, or otherwise disposed of by the Secretary of War at his discretion, without liability for any damage to the owners of the same: Provided, That in his discretion, the Secretary of War may cause reasonable notice of such obstruction of not less than thirty days, unless the legal abandonment of the obstruction can be established in a less time, to be given by publication, addressed "To whom it may concern," in a newspaper published nearest to the locality of the obstruction, requiring the removal thereof: And provided also, That the Secretary of War may, in his discretion, at or after the time of giving such notice, cause sealed proposals to be solicited by public advertisement, giving reasonable notice of not less than ten days, for the removal of such obstruction as soon as possible after the expiration of the above specified thirty days' notice, in case it has not in the meantime been so removed, these proposals and contracts, at his discretion, to be conditioned that such vessel, boat, water craft, raft, or other obstruction, and all cargo and property contained therein, shall become the property of the contractor, and the contract shall be awarded to the bidder making the proposition most advantageous to the United States: Provided, That such bidder shall give satisfactory security to execute the work: Provided further, That any money received from the sale of any such wreck, or from any contractor for the removal of wrecks, under this paragraph shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 425, § 19, 30 Stat. 1154.)

415. Summary removal of water craft obstructing navigation.—Under emergency, in the case of any vessel, boat, water craft, or raft, or other similar obstruction, sinking or grounding, or being unnecessarily delayed in any Government canal or lock, or in any navigable waters mentioned in the foregoing section, in such manner as to stop, seriously interfere with, or specially endanger navigation, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, or any agent of the United States to whom the Secretary may delegate proper authority, the Secretary of War or any such agent shall have the right to take immediate possession of such boat, vessel, or other water craft, or raft, so far as to remove or to destroy it and to clear immediately the canal, lock, or navigable waters aforesaid of the obstruction thereby caused, using his best judgment to prevent any unnecessary injury; and no one shall interfere with or prevent such removal or destruction: Provided, That the officer or agent charged with the removal or destruction of an obstruction under this section may in his discretion give notice in writing to the owners of any such obstruction requiring them to remove it: And provided further, That the expense of removing any such obstruction as aforesaid shall be a charge against such craft and cargo; and if the owners thereof fail or refuse to reimburse the United States for such expense within thirty days after notification, then the officer or agent aforesaid may sell the craft or cargo, or any part thereof that may not have been destroyed in removal, and the proceeds of such sale shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 425, § 20, 30 Stat. 1154.)

416. Appropriation for removal of sunken water craft.—Such sum of money as may be necessary to execute the two preceding sections is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be paid out on the requisition of the Secretary of War. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 425, § 20, 30 Stat. 1154.)

417. Expenses of investigations by War Department.—Expenses incurred by the Engineer Department of the War Department in all investigations, inspections, hearings, reports, service of notice, or other action incidental to examination of plans or sites of bridges or other structures built or proposed to be built in or over navigable waters, or to examinations into alleged violations of laws for the protection and preservation of navigable waters, or to the establishment or marking of harbor lines, shall be payable from any funds which may be available for the improvement, maintenance, operation, or care of the waterways or harbors affected, or if such funds are not available in sums judged by the Chief of Engineers to be adequate, then from any funds available for examinations, surveys, and contingencies of rivers and harbors. (Mar 3, 1905, c. 1482, § 6, 33 Stat. 1148.)

418. Provisions for protection of New York Harbor unaffected.—Nothing contained in the foregoing sections of this chapter shall be construed as repealing, modifying, or in any manner affecting the provisions of sections 441 to 453, inclusive, of this chapter. (June 13, 1902, c. 1079, § 12, 32 Stat. 375.)

419. Regulation by Secretary governing transportation and dumping of dredgings, refuse, etc., into navigable waters; oyster lands; appropriations.—The Secretary of War is authorized and empowered to prescribe regulations to govern the transportation and dumping into any navigable water, or waters adjacent thereto, of dredgings, earth, garbage, and other refuse materials of every kind or description, whenever in his judgment such regulations are required in the interest of navigation. Such regulations shall be posted in conspicuous and appropriate places for the information of the public; and every person or corporation which shall violate the said regulations, or any of them, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to the penalties prescribed in sections 411 and 412 of this chapter, for violation of the provisions of section 407 of this chapter: Provided, That any regulations made in pursuance hereof may be enforced as provided in section 413 of this chapter, the provisions whereof are hereby made applicable to the said regulations: Provided further, That this section shall not apply to any waters within the jurisdictional boundaries of any State which are now or may hereafter be used for the cultivation of oysters under the laws of such State, except navigable channels which have been or may hereafter be improved by the United States, or to be designated as navigable channels by competent authority, and in making such improvements of channels, the material dredged shall not be deposited upon any ground in use in accordance with the laws of such State for the cultivation of oysters, except in compliance with said laws: And provided further, That any expense necessary in executing this section may be paid from funds available for the improvement of the harbor or waterway, for which regulations may be prescribed, and in case no such funds are available the said expense may be paid from appropriations made by Congress for examinations, surveys, and contingencies of rivers and harbors. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1482, § 4, 33 Stat. 1147.)

420. Piers and cribs on Mississippi and St. Croix Rivers.—The owners of sawmills on the Mississippi River and the Saint Croix River in the States of Wisconsin and Minnesota are authorized and empowered, under the direction of the Secretary of War, to construct piers or cribs in front of their mill property on the banks of the river, for the protection of their mills and rafts against damage by floods and ice: Provided, however, That the piers or cribs so constructed shall not interfere with or obstruct the navigation of the river. And in case any pier or crib constructed under authority of this section shall at any time, and for any cause, be found to obstruct the navigation of the river, the Government expressly reserves the right to remove or direct the removal of it, at the cost and expense of the owners thereof. (R. S. § 5254; May 1, 1882, c. 112, 22 Stat. 52.)

421. Deposit of refuse, etc., in Lake Michigan near Chicago.—It shall not be lawful to throw, discharge, dump, or deposit, or cause, suffer, or procure, to be thrown, discharged, dumped, or deposited, any refuse matter of any kind or description whatever other than that flowing from streets and sewers and passing therefrom in a liquid state into Lake Michigan, at any point opposite or in front of the county of Cook, in the State of Illinois, or the county of Lake in the State of Indiana, within eight miles from the shore of said lake, unless said material shall be placed inside of a breakwater so arranged as not to permit the escape of such refuse material into the body of the lake and cause contamination thereof; and no officer of the Government shall dump or cause or authorize to be dumped any material contrary to the provisions of this section: Provided, however, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to work in connection with the construction, repair, and protection of breakwaters and other structures built in aid of navigation, or for the purpose of obtaining water supply. Any person violating any provision of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined for each offense not exceeding $1,000. (June 23, 1910, c. 359, 36 Stat. 593.)

422. Modification and extension of harbor lines at Chicago.—The Secretary of War is authorized, in his discretion, to modify and extend harbor lines in front of the city of Chicago in such manner as to permit park extension work which may be desired by the municipal authorities, including the changing and widening of the southern entrance to the Chicago Harbor. (Aug. 26, 1912, c. 408, § 5, 37 Stat. 626.)

423. Establishment of pierhead and bulkhead lines in Wilmington Harbor, California.—The Secretary of War is authorized to fix and establish pierhead and bulkhead lines, either or both, in the inner harbor of San Pedro, otherwise known as Wilmington Harbor, California, beyond which no piers, wharves, bulkheads, or other works shall be extended or deposits made except under such regulations as shall be prescribed from time to time by the Secretary of War. (Mar. 26, 1908, No. 14, 35 Stat. 569.)

424. Establishment of pierhead or bulkhead lines in Newport Harbor, California.—The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to fix and establish pierhead and bulkhead lines, either or both, at Newport Harbor, California, in accordance with plan dated United States Engineer Office, Los Angeles, California, March 25, 1913, and entitled "Newport Bay, California," showing harbor lines, beyond which no piers, wharfs, bulkheads, or other works shall be extended or deposit made, except under such regulations as shall be prescribed from time to time by the Secretary of War. (July 27, 1916, c. 260, § 3, 39 Stat. 411.)

425. Investigations by Secretary of War as to pollution of navigable waters.—The Secretary is authorized and directed to make such investigation as may be necessary to ascertain what polluting substances are being deposited into the navigable waters of the United States, or into nonnavigable waters connecting with navigable waters, to such an extent as to endanger or interfere with navigation or commerce upon such navigable waters or the fisheries therein; and with a view to ascertaining the sources of such pollutions and by what means they are deposited; and the Secretary shall report the results of his investigation to the Congress not later than two years after July 7, 1924, together with such recommendations for remedial legislation as he deems advisable: Provided, That funds appropriated for examinations, surveys, and contingencies of rivers and harbors may be applied to paying the cost of this investigation. (June 7, 1924, c. 316, § 9, 43 Stat. 606.)

OIL POLLUTION OF COASTAL WATERS

431. Short title; "Oil Pollution Act."—This chapter, sections 431 to 437, inclusive, may be cited as the "Oil Pollution Act, 1924." (June 7, 1924, c. 316, § 1, 43 Stat. 604.)

432. Definitions; "oil"; "person"; "coastal navigable waters"; "Secretary."—When used in this chapter, sections 431 to 437, inclusive, unless the context otherwise requires—

(a) The term "oil" means oil of any kind or in any form, including fuel oil, oil sludge, and oil refuse;

(b) The term "person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, or association; any owner, master, officer or employee of a vessel; and any officer, agent, or employee of the United States;

(c) The term "coastal navigable waters of the United States" means all portions of the sea within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States, and all inland waters navigable in fact in which the tide ebbs and flows;

(d) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of War. (June 7, 1924, c. 316, § 2, 43 Stat. 604.)

433. Prohibition against discharge of oil generally.—Except in case of emergency imperiling life or property, or unavoidable accident, collision, or stranding, and except as otherwise permitted by regulations prescribed by the Secretary as hereinafter in this chapter, sections 434 to 437, inclusive, authorized, it shall be unlawful for any person to discharge, or suffer, or permit the discharge of oil by any method, means, or manner into or upon the coastal navigable waters of the United States from any vessel using oil as fuel for the generation of propulsion power, or any vessel carrying or having oil thereon in excess of that necessary for its lubricating requirements and such as may be required under the laws of the United States and the rules and regulations prescribed thereunder. The Secretary is authorized and empowered to prescribe regulations permitting the discharge of oil from vessels in such quantities, under such conditions, and at such times and places as in his opinion will not be deleterious to health or sea food, or a menace to navigation, or dangerous to persons or property engaged in commerce on such waters, and for the loading, handling, and unloading of oil. (June 7, 1924, c. 316, § 3, 43 Stat. 605.)

434. Penalties for violations; liability of vessel.—Any person who violates the preceding section or any regulation prescribed in pursuance thereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,500 nor less than $500, or by imprisonment not exceeding one year nor less than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, for each offense. And any vessel (other than a vessel owned and operated by the United States) from which oil is discharged in violation of the preceding section, or any regulation prescribed in pursuance thereof, shall be liable for the pecuniary penalty specified in this section, and clearance of such vessel from a port of the United States may be withheld until the penalty is paid, and said penalty shall constitute a lien on such vessel which may be recovered in proceedings by libel in rem in the district court of the United States for any district within which the vessel may be. (June 7, 1924, c. 316, § 4, 43 Stat. 605.)

435. Revocation or suspension of license of officers of offending vessels.—A board of local inspectors of vessels may, subject to the provisions of section 239 of Title 46, Shipping, and of sections 431 to 434, inclusive, of Title 46, Shipping, suspend or revoke a license issued by any such board to the master or other licensed officer of any vessel found violating the provisions of section 433 of this chapter. (June 7, 1924, c. 316, § 5, 43 Stat. 605.)

436. Personnel for enforcement of provisions; arrest of offenders and procedure.—In the administration of this chapter, sections 431 to 437, inclusive, the Secretary may make use of the organization, equipment, and agencies, including engineering, clerical, and other personnel, employed under his direction in the improvement of rivers and harbors, and in the enforcement of laws for the preservation and protection of navigable waters. And for the better enforcement of the provisions of the said sections, the officers and agents of the United States in charge of river and harbor improvements, and the assistant engineers and inspectors employed under them by authority of the Secretary, and officers of the Customs and Coast Guard of the United States, shall have power and authority and it shall be their duty to swear out process and to arrest and take into custody, with or without process, any person who may violate any of said provisions: Provided, That no person shall be arrested without process for a violation not committed in the presence of some one of the aforesaid officials: And provided further, That whenever any arrest is made under the provisions of the said sections the person so arrested shall be brought forthwith before a commissioner, judge, or court of the United States for examination of the offenses alleged against him; and such commissioner, judge, or court shall proceed in respect thereto as authorized by law in cases of crimes against the United States. (June 7, 1924, c. 316, § 7, 43 Stat. 605.)

437. Other statutes for preservation and protection of navigable waters unaffected.—Sections 431 to 436, inclusive, of this chapter shall be in addition to the laws existing prior to June 7, 1924, for the preservation and protection of navigable waters and shall not be construed as repealing, modifying, or in any manner affecting the provisions of those laws. (June 7, 1924, c. 316, § 8, 43 Stat. 606.)

NEW YORK HARBOR AND ADJACENT WATERS

441. Deposit of refuse in New York Harbor and adjacent waters prohibited; penalty.—The placing, discharging, or depositing, by any process or in any manner, of refuse, dirt, ashes, cinders, mud, sand, dredgings, sludge, acid, or any other matter of any kind, other than that flowing from streets, sewers, and passing therefrom in a liquid state, in the tidal waters of the harbor of New York, or its adjacent or tributary waters, or in those of Long Island Sound, within the limits which shall be prescribed by the supervisor of the harbor, is hereby strictly forbidden, and every such act is made a misdemeanor, and every person engaged in or who shall aid, abet, authorize, or instigate a violation of this section, shall, upon conviction, be punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, such fine to be not less than $250 nor more than $2,500, and the imprisonment to be not less than thirty days nor more than one year, either or both united, as the judge before whom conviction is obtained shall decide, one-half of said fine to be paid to the person or persons giving information which shall lead to conviction of this misdemeanor. (June 29, 1888, c. 496, § 1, 25 Stat. 209.)

442. Liability of officers of towing vessel.—Any and every master and engineer, or person or persons acting in such capacity, respectively, on board of any boat or vessel, who shall knowingly engage in towing any scow, boat, or vessel loaded with any such prohibited matter to any point or place of deposit, or discharge in the waters of the harbor of New York, or in its adjacent, or tributary waters, or in those of Long Island Sound, or to any point or place elsewhere than within the limits defined and permitted by the supervisor of the harbor hereinafter mentioned, in section 451 of this chapter, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of the preceding section, and shall, upon conviction, be punishable as provided for offenses in violation of the preceding section, and shall also have his license revoked or suspended for a term to be fixed by the judge before whom tried and convicted. (June 29, 1888, c. 496, § 2, 25 Stat. 209.)

443. Permit for dumping; penalty for taking or towing boat or scow without permit.—In all cases of receiving on board of any scows or boats such forbidden matter or substance as described in section 441 of this chapter, the owner or master, or person acting in such capacity on board of such scows or boats, before proceeding to take or tow the same to the place of deposit, shall apply for and obtain from the supervisor of the harbor appointed, as provided in section 451 of this chapter, a permit defining the precise limits within which the discharge of such scows or boats may be made; and it shall not be lawful for the owner or master, or person acting in such capacity, of any tug or towboat to tow or move any scow or boat so loaded with such forbidden matter until such permit shall have been obtained; and every person violating the foregoing provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 nor less than $500, and in addition thereto the master of any tug or towboat so offending shall have his license revoked or suspended for a term to be fixed by the judge before whom tried and convicted. (May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 8, 35 Stat. 426.)

444. Dumping at other place than designated dumping grounds; penalty; person liable; excuses for deviation.—Any deviation from such dumping or discharging place specified in such permit shall be a misdemeanor, and the owner and master, or person acting in the capacity of master, of any scows or boats dumping or discharging such forbidden matter in any place other than that specified in such permit shall be liable to punishment therefor as provided in section 441 of this chapter; and the owner and master, or person acting in the capacity of master, of any tug or towboat towing such scows or boats shall be liable to equal punishment with the owner and master, or person acting in the capacity of master, of the scows or boats; and, further, every scowman or other employee on board of both scows and towboats shall be deemed to have knowledge of the place of dumping specified in such permit, and the owners and masters, or persons acting in the capacity of masters, shall be liable to punishment, as aforesaid, for any unlawful dumping, within the meaning of this chapter, sections 441 to 449, inclusive, which may be caused by the negligence or ignorance of such scowman or other employee; and, further, neither defect in machinery nor avoidable accidents to scows or towboats, nor unfavorable weather, nor improper handling or moving of scows or boats of any kind whatsoever shall operate to release the owners and master and employees of scows and towboats from the penalties hereinbefore mentioned. (May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 8, 35 Stat. 426.)

445. Equipment and marking of boats or scows.—Every scow or boat engaged in the transportation of dredgings, earth, sand, mud, cellar dirt, garbage, or other offensive material of any description shall have its name or number and owner's name painted in letters and numbers at least fourteen inches long on both sides of the scow or boat; these names and numbers shall be kept distinctly legible at all times, and no scow or boat not so marked shall be used to transport or dump any such material. Each such scow or boat shall be equipped at all times with a life line or rope extending at least the length of and three feet above the deck thereof, such rope to be attached to the coaming thereof, also with a life preserver and a life buoy for each person on board thereof, also with anchor to weigh not less than two hundred and seventy-five pounds, and at least one hundred feet of cable attached thereto; a list of the names of all men employed on any such scow or boat shall be kept by the owner or master thereof and the said list shall be open to the inspection of all parties. Failure to comply with any of the foregoing provisions shall render the owner of such scow or boat liable upon conviction thereof to a penalty of not more than $500: Provided, That the requirements in regard to life line or rope contained in this section shall not apply to any scow or boat the deck outside the coaming or rail of which shall not exceed one foot in width: And provided further, That on any such scow or boat its name or number and owner's name painted in letters and numbers, at least fourteen inches long on both ends of such scow or boat, shall be a compliance with the provisions of this section in regard to name, number, and owner's name. (May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 8, 35 Stat. 426; Feb. 16, 1909, c. 132, 35 Stat. 623.)

446. Inspectors; appointment, powers, and duties.—The supervisor of the harbor of New York, designated as provided in section 451 of this chapter, is authorized and directed to appoint inspectors and deputy inspectors, and, for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of sections 441 to 449, inclusive, of this chapter, and of detecting and bringing to punishment offenders against the same, the said supervisor of the harbor, and the inspectors and deputy inspectors so appointed by him, shall have power and authority:

First. To arrest and take into custody, with or without process, any person or persons who may commit any of the acts or offenses prohibited by sections 441 to 449, inclusive, of this chapter, or who may violate any of the provisions of the same: Provided, That no person shall be arrested without process for any offense not committed in the presence of the supervisor or his inspectors or deputy inspectors, or either of them: And provided further, That whenever any such arrest is made the person or persons so arrested shall be brought forthwith before a commissioner, judge, or court of the United States for examination of the offenses alleged against him; and such commissioner, judge, or court shall proceed in respect thereto as authorized by law in case of crimes against the United States.

Second. To go on board of any scow or towboat engaged in unlawful dumping of prohibited material, or in moving the same without a permit, as required in section 443 of this chapter, or otherwise violating any of the provisions of the three preceding sections, and to seize and hold said boats until they are discharged by action of the commissioner, judge, or court of the United States before whom the offending persons are brought.

Third. To arrest and take into custody any witness or witnesses to such unlawful dumping of prohibited material, the said witnesses to be released under proper bonds.

Fourth. To go on board of any towboat having in tow scows or boats loaded with such prohibited material, and accompany the same to the place of dumping, whenever such action appears to be necessary to secure compliance with the requirements of sections 441 to 453, inclusive, of this chapter.

Fifth. To enter gas and oil works and all other manufacturing works for the purpose of discovering the disposition made of sludge, acid, or other injurious material, whenever there is good reason to believe that such sludge, acid, or other injurious material is allowed to run into the tidal waters of the harbor in violation of section 441 of this chapter. (May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 8, 35 Stat. 426.)

447. Bribery of inspector; penalty.—Every person who, directly or indirectly, gives any sum of money or other bribe, present, or reward, or makes any offer of the same to any inspector, deputy inspector, or other employee of the office of the supervisor of the harbor with intent to influence such inspector, deputy inspector, or other employee to permit or overlook any violation of the provisions of sections 441 to 449, inclusive, of this chapter, shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not less than $500 nor more than $1,000, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than one year. (May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 8, 35 Stat. 426.)

448. Return of permit; penalty for failure to return.—Every permit issued in accordance with the provisions of section 443 of this chapter, which may not be taken up by an inspector or deputy inspector, shall be returned within four days after issuance to the office of the supervisor of the harbor; such permit shall bear an indorsement by the master of the towboat, or the person acting in such capacity, stating whether the permit has been used, and, if so, the time and place of dumping. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be liable to a fine of not more than $500 nor less than $100. (May 28, 1908, c. 212, § 8, 35 Stat. 426.)

449. Disposition of dredged matter; persons liable; penalty.—All mud, dirt, sand, dredgings, and material of every kind and description whatever taken, dredged, or excavated from any slip, basin, or shoal in the harbor of New York, or the waters adjacent or tributary thereto, and placed on any boat, scow, or vessel for the purpose of being taken or towed upon the waters of the harbor of New York to a place of deposit, shall be deposited and discharged at such place or within such limits as shall be defined and specified by the supervisor of the harbor, as in section 443 of this chapter prescribed, and not otherwise. Every person, firm, or corporation being the owner of any slip, basin, or shoal, from which such mud, dirt, sand, dredgings, and material shall be taken, dredged, or excavated, and every person, firm, or corporation in any manner engaged in the work of dredging or excavating any such slip, basin, or shoal, or of removing such mud, dirt, sand, or dredgings therefrom, shall severally be responsible for the deposit and discharge of all such mud, dirt, sand, or dredgings at such place or within such limits so defined and prescribed by said supervisor of the harbor; and for every violation of the provisions of this section the person offending shall be guilty of an offense, and shall be punished by a fine equal to the sum of $5 for every cubic yard of mud, dirt, sand, dredgings, or material not deposited or discharged as required by this section. (June 29, 1888, c. 496, § 4, 25 Stat. 210.)

450. Liability of vessel.—Any boat or vessel used or employed in violating any provision of this chapter, sections 441 to 449, inclusive, shall be liable to the pecuniary penalties imposed thereby, and may be proceeded against, summarily by way of libel in any district court of the United States having jurisdiction thereof. (June 29, 1888, c. 496, § 4, 25 Stat. 210.)

451. Supervisor of harbor; appointment and duties.—A line officer of the Navy shall be designated by the President of the United States as supervisor of the harbor, to act under the direction of the Secretary of War in enforcing the foregoing provisions of this chapter, sections 441 to 449, inclusive, and in detecting offenders against the same. This officer shall have personal charge and supervision under the Secretary of War, and shall direct the patrol boats and other means to detect and bring to punishment offenders against the provisions of said sections. (June 29, 1888, c. 496, § 5, 25 Stat. 210.)

452. Taking shellfish or otherwise interfering with navigation in New York Harbor channels; penalty; arrest and procedure.—It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to engage in fishing or dredging for shellfish in any of the channels leading to and from the harbor of New York, or to interfere in any way with the safe navigation of those channels by ocean steamships and ships of deep draft.

Any person or persons violating the foregoing provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by fine or imprisonment, or both, such fine to be not more than $250 nor less than $50, and the imprisonment to be not more than six months nor less than thirty days, either or both united, as the judge before whom conviction is obtained shall decide.

It shall be the duty of the United States supervisor of the harbor to enforce this section, and the deputy inspectors of the said supervisor shall have authority to arrest and take into custody, with or without process, any person or persons who may commit any of the acts or offenses prohibited by this section: Provided, That no person shall be arrested without process for any offense not committed in the presence of the supervisor or his inspector or deputy inspectors, or either of them: And provided further, That whenever any such arrest is made the person or persons so arrested shall be brought forthwith before a commissioner, judge, or court of the United States for examination of the offenses alleged against him; and such commissioner, judge or court shall proceed in respect thereto as authorized by law in case of crimes against the United States. (Aug. 18, 1894, c. 299, § 2, 28 Stat. 360.)

453. Regulations for navigation of Ambrose Channel; exclusion of tows and sailing vessels.—The Secretary of War is authorized to make such rules and regulations for the navigation of Ambrose Channel as he may deem necessary or expedient to insure its safe use in all kinds of weather, night and day, for all vessels under control and running under their own power, and to this end he may, in his discretion, forbid its use to tows of every description and to sailing vessels. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 144, § 1, 37 Stat. 803.)

454. Consent of Congress to obstruction of waters by New York City.—The consent of Congress is hereby given to the city of New York, in the State of New York, to obstruct navigation of any river or other waterway which does not form a connecting link between other navigable waters of the United States, and lying wholly within the limits of said city, by closing all or any portion of the same or by building structures in or over the same when the said city shall be lawfully authorized to do so by the State of New York: Provided, however, That any such obstruction shall be unlawful unless the location and plans for the proposed work or works before the commencement thereof shall have been filed with and approved by the Secretary of War and Chief of Engineers; and when the plans for any such obstruction have been approved by the Chief of Engineers and by the Secretary of War it shall not be lawful to deviate from such plans either before or after the completion of such obstruction, unless the modification of such plans has previously been submitted to and received the approval of the Chief of Engineers and the Secretary of War: And provided further, That the city of New York shall be liable for any damage that may be inflicted upon private property by reason of any of the provisions of this section.

The right to alter, amend, or repeal this section is expressly reserved, and the United States shall incur no liability for the alteration, amendment, or repeal thereof to the city of New York, or to the owner or owners, or any other persons interested in any obstruction which shall have been constructed under its provisions. (June 25, 1910, c. 436, §§ 1, 2, 36 Stat. 866, 867.)

POTOMAC RIVER AND TRIBUTARIES IN DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

461. Deposit in river, etc., of materials generally.—It shall be unlawful for any owner or occupant of any wharf or dock, any master or captain of any vessel, or any person or persons to cast, throw, drop, or deposit any ballast, dirt, oyster shells, or ashes in the water in any part of the Potomac River or its tributaries in the District of Columbia, or on the shores of said river below high-water mark, unless for the purpose of making a wharf, after permission has been obtained from the Commissioners of the District of Columbia for that purpose, which wharf shall be sufficiently inclosed and secured so as to prevent injury to navigation. (May 19, 1896, c. 208, § 1, 29 Stat. 126.)

462. Deposit of offal.—It shall be unlawful for any owner or occupant of any wharf or dock, any captain or master of any vessel, or any other person or persons to cast, throw, deposit, or drop in any dock or in the waters of the Potomac River or its tributaries in the District of Columbia any dead fish, fish offal, dead animals of any kind, condemned oysters in the shell, watermelons, cantaloupes, vegetables, fruits, shavings, hay, straw, ice, snow, filth, or trash of any kind whatsoever. (May 19, 1896, c. 208, § 2, 29 Stat. 126.)

463. Penalty for violation of preceding sections.—Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of the two preceding sections shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in the police court of the District of Columbia shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $100 or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by both such punishments, in the discretion of the court. (May 19, 1896, c. 208, § 3, 29 Stat. 126.)

464. Improvements under supervision of Federal Government excepted.—Nothing in the three preceding sections contained shall be construed to interfere with the work of improvement in or along the said river and harbor, under the supervision of the United States Government. (May 19, 1896, c. 208, § 4, 29 Stat. 126.)

Chapter 10.—ANCHORAGE GROUNDS AND HARBOR REGULATIONS GENERALLY.

Sec.

471. Establishment by Secretary of War of anchorage grounds and regulations generally.
472. Marking anchorage grounds by Commissioner of Lighthouses.
473. Anchorage and harbor regulations for Potomac River at Washington.
474. Anchorage and general regulations for Saint Marys River.
475. Regulations for Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

Section 471. Establishment by Secretary of War of anchorage grounds and regulations generally.—The Secretary of War is authorized, empowered, and directed to define and establish anchorage grounds for vessels in all harbors, rivers, bays, and other navigable waters of the United States whenever it is manifest to the said Secretary that the maritime or commercial interests of the United States require such anchorage grounds for safe navigation and the establishment of such anchorage grounds shall have been recommended by the Chief of Engineers, and to adopt suitable rules and regulations in relation thereto; and such rules and regulations shall be enforced by the Coast Guard under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury: Provided, That at ports or places where there is no Coast Guard vessel available such rules and regulations may be enforced by the Chief of Engineers under the direction of the Secretary of War. In the event of the violation of any such rules and regulations by the owner, master, or person in charge of any vessel, such owner, master, or person in charge of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $100; and the said vessel may be holden for the payment of such penalty, and may be seized and proceeded against summarily by libel for the recovery of the same in any United States district court for the district within which such vessel may be and in the name of the officer designated by the Secretary of War. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 142, § 7, 38 Stat. 1053.)

472. Marking anchorage grounds by Commissioner of Lighthouses.—The Commissioner of Lighthouses shall provide, establish, and maintain, out of the annual appropriations for the Lighthouse Service, buoys or other suitable marks for marking anchorage grounds for vessels in waters of the United States, when such anchorage grounds have been defined and established by proper authority in accordance with the laws of the United States. (Sept. 15, 1922, c. 313, 42 Stat. 844.)

473. Anchorage and harbor regulations for Potomac River at Washington.—Every vessel coming to anchor in the Potomac River between the junction of the Washington and Georgetown channels of said river and the extension of the south line of P Street southwest, in the city of Washington, shall anchor as near the flats in said river as possible, so that the channel of said river will not be obstructed; and if such vessel is to remain over twelve hours it shall be moored with both anchors, so as to give room for passing vessels and so as not to swing and obstruct said channel. No vessel shall be permitted to anchor in the Washington channel of the Potomac River between the extended lines of P or K Streets south. Vessels coming to anchor above the line of K Street south, aforesaid, shall come to anchor as near the flats as possible and so that the channel will not be obstructed; and all vessels coming to anchor shall be so moored by the use of both anchors as to prevent obstruction of the channel within four hundred feet of the nearest wharf, the said anchorage to continue only twenty-four hours, unless otherwise ordered or directed by the harbor master. No vessel shall be permitted to lie in Seventeenth Street Canal, New Jersey Avenue Canal, or James Creek Canal, or at the entrance thereof, so as to obstruct the passage of any vessel going into or out of the same or moving from one place to another therein, unless such obstructing vessel is actually engaged in loading or unloading, and shall then, if deemed expedient by the harbor master, be removed to such place as shall be necessary to give room to passing vessels. Any captain or owner of, or anyone in charge of, any barge, sand scow, or any vessel that may sink in said canals, shall raise and remove the same in five days. Any vessels at the end of wharves or in docks shall, when required by the harbor master, haul either way to accommodate vessels going in or coming out from such wharves or docks. They shall not occupy regular steamers' or sailing packets' berths without permission from the recognized occupants of such wharves and docks. And they are required to rig in all fore-and-aft spars, have boats hoisted up under the bow, and davits turned up, as the harbor master may direct. Vessels when not engaged in loading or discharging cargo shall give place to such vessels as are ready to receive or deliver freights. And if the captain or person in charge of any vessel refuse to move said vessel when notified by the occupant of the wharf at which she is lying, the harbor master shall order him to haul to some other berth, or into the stream.

The powers and authority herein conferred upon the harbor master may, in his absence or temporary disability, be exercised by the pilot of the harbor police boat. Any person refusing to obey the instructions of the harbor master, or, in case of his absence or temporary disability, the said pilot of the harbor police boat, or any person failing to comply with any of the provisions of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in the police court of the District of Columbia shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $100, or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by both such punishments, in the discretion of the court. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 172, §§ 1, 2, 28 Stat. 740.)

474. Anchorage and general regulations for Saint Marys River.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized and directed to adopt and prescribe suitable rules and regulations governing the movements of vessels and rafts in Saint Marys River from Point Iroquois, on Lake Superior, to Point Detour, on Lake Huron, and for the purpose of enforcing the observance of such regulations the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to detail one or more Coast Guard cutters for duty upon the request of the Secretary of Commerce on said river.

All officers of the Coast Guard who are directed to enforce the regulations prescribed by the above rules are hereby empowered and directed, in case of necessity, or when a proper notice has been disregarded, to use the force at their command to remove from channels or stop any vessel found violating the prescribed rules.

In the event of the violation of any such regulations or rules of the Secretary of Commerce by the owners, master, or person in charge of such vessel, such owners, master, or person in charge shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $200:

Provided, That the Secretary of Commerce may remit said fine on such terms as he may prescribe: Provided also, That nothing in this section shall be construed to amend or repeal chapter 4 of this title regulating navigation on the Great Lakes and their connecting and tributary waters as far east as Montreal. (Mar. 6, 1896, c. 49, §§ 1–3, 29 Stat. 54–55; Apr. 26, 1906, c. 1874, § 2, 34 Stat. 136.)

475. Regulations for Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.—For the proper control, protection, and defense of the naval station, harbor, and entrance channel at Pearl Harbor, Territory of Hawaii, the Secretary of the Navy is authorized, empowered, and directed to adopt and prescribe suitable rules and regulations governing the navigation, movement, and anchorage of vessels of whatsoever character in the waters of Pearl Harbor, island of Oahu, Hawaiian Islands, and in the entrance channel to said harbor, and to take all necessary measures for the proper enforcement of such rules and regulations. (Aug. 22, 1912, c. 335, § 1, 37 Stat. 341.)

Chapter 11.—BRIDGES OVER NAVIGABLE WATERS.

Sec.
491. Approval of and deviation from plans.
492. Bridge as post route; limitation as to charges against Government; telegraph and telephone lines.
493. Use of railroad bridges by other railroad companies.
494. Obstruction of navigation; alterations and removals; lights and signals; draws; tolls.
495. Failure to comply with regulations; penalty; removal of bridge.
496. Time for commencement and completion of bridge.
497. "Persons" defined.
498. Reservation of right to alter or repeal.
499. Regulations for drawbridges; penalties for violation; enforcement.
500. Deflection of current; liability to riparian owners.
501. Consent to bridges over Maquoketa River, Iowa.
511. Criminal liability for failure to alter bridge obstructing navigation.

Section 491. Approval of and deviation from plans.—When, after March 23, 1906, authority is granted by Congress to any persons to construct and maintain a bridge across or over any of the navigable waters of the United States, such bridge shall not be built or commenced until the plans and specifications for its construction, together with such drawings of the proposed construction and such map of the proposed location as may be required for a full understanding of the subject, have been submitted to the Secretary of War and Chief of Engineers for their approval, nor until they shall have approved such plans and specifications and the location of such bridge and accessory works; and when the plans for any bridge to be constructed under the provisions of this chapter, sections 491 to 498, inclusive, have been approved by the Chief of Engineers and by the Secretary of War it shall not be lawful to deviate from such plans, either before or after completion of the structure, unless the modification of such plans has previously been submitted to and received the approval of the Chief of Engineers and of the Secretary of War. (Mar. 23, 1906, c. 1130, § 1, 34 Stat. 84.)

492. Bridge as post route; limitation as to charges against Government; telegraph and telephone lines.—Any bridge built in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, sections 491 to 498, inclusive, shall be a lawful structure and shall be recognized and known as a post route, upon which no higher charge shall be made for the transmission over the same of the mails, the troops, and the munitions of war of the United States than the rate per mile paid for the transportation over any railroad, street railway, or public highway leading to said bridge; and the United States shall have the right to construct, maintain, and repair, without any charge therefor, telegraph and telephone lines across and upon said bridge and its approaches; and equal privileges in the use of said bridge and its approaches shall be granted to all telegraph and telephone companies. (Mar. 23, 1906, c. 1130, § 2, 34 Stat. 85.)

493. Use of railroad bridges by other railroad companies.—All railroad companies desiring the use of any railroad bridge built in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, sections 491 to 498, inclusive, shall be entitled to equal rights and privileges relative to the passage of railway trains or cars over the same and over the approaches thereto upon payment of a reasonable compensation for such use; and in case of any disagreement between the parties in regard to the terms of such use or the sums to be paid all matters at issue shall be determined by the Secretary of War upon hearing the allegations and proofs submitted to him. (Mar. 23, 1906, c. 1130, § 3, 34 Stat. 85.)

494. Obstruction of navigation; alterations and removals; lights and signals; draws; tolls.—No bridge erected or maintained under the provisions of this chapter, sections 491 to 498, inclusive, shall at any time unreasonably obstruct the free navigation of the waters over which it is constructed, and if any bridge erected in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, sections 491 to 498, inclusive, shall, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, at any time unreasonably obstruct such navigation, either on account of insufficient height, width of span, or otherwise, or if there be difficulty in passing the draw opening or the drawspan of such bridge by rafts, steamboats, or other water craft, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of War, after giving the parties interested reasonable opportunity to be heard, to notify the persons owning or controlling such bridge to so alter the same as to render navigation through or under it reasonably free, easy, and unobstructed, stating in such notice the changes required to be made, and prescribing in each case a reasonable time in which to make such changes, and if at the end of the time so specified the changes so required have not been made, the persons owning or controlling such bridge shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this chapter, sections 491 to 498, inclusive; and all such alterations shall be made and all such obstructions shall be removed at the expense of the persons owning or operating said bridge. The persons owning or operating any such bridge shall maintain, at their own expense, such lights and other signals thereon as the Secretary of Commerce shall prescribe. If the bridge shall be constructed with a draw, then the draw shall be opened promptly by the persons owning or operating such bridge upon reasonable signal for the passage of boats and other water craft. If tolls shall be charged for the transit over any bridge constructed under the provisions of this chapter, sections 491 to 498, inclusive, of engines, cars, street cars, wagons, carriages, vehicles, animals, foot passengers, or other passengers, such tolls shall be reasonable and just, and the Secretary of War may, at any time, and from time to time, prescribe the reasonable rates of toll for such transit over such bridge, and the rates so prescribed shall be the legal rates and shall be the rates demanded and received for such transit. (Mar. 23, 1906, c. 1130, § 4, 34 Stat. 85.)

495. Failure to comply with regulations; penalty; removal of bridge.—Any persons who shall fail or refuse to comply with the lawful order of the Secretary of War or the Chief of Engineers, made in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, sections 491 to 498, inclusive, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this chapter, sections 491 to 498, inclusive, and any persons who shall be guilty of a violation of this chapter, sections 491 to 498, inclusive, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be punished in any court of competent jurisdiction by a fine not exceeding $5,000, and every month such persons shall remain in default shall be deemed a new offense and subject such persons to additional penalties therefor; and in addition to the penalties above described the Secretary of War and the Chief of Engineers may, upon refusal of the persons owning or controlling any such bridge and accessory works to comply with any lawful order issued by the Secretary of War or Chief of Engineers in regard thereto, cause the removal of such bridge and accessory works at the expense of the persons owning or controlling such bridge, and suit for such expense may be brought in the name of the United States against such persons, and recovery had for such expense in any court of competent jurisdiction; and the removal of any structures erected or maintained in violation of the provisions of this chapter, sections 491 to 498, inclusive, or the order or direction of the Secretary of War or Chief of Engineers made in pursuance thereof may be enforced by injunction, mandamus, or other summary process, upon application to the district court in the district in which such structure may, in whole or in part, exist, and proper proceedings to this end may be instituted under the direction of the Attorney General of the United States at the request of the Secretary of War; and in case of any litigation arising from any obstruction or alleged obstruction to navigation created by the construction of any bridge under this chapter, sections 491 to 498, inclusive, the cause or question arising may be tried before the district court of the United States in any district which any portion of said obstruction or bridge touches. (Mar. 23, 1906, c. 1130, § 5, 34 Stat. 85.)

496. Time for commencement and completion of bridge.—Whenever Congress shall by law authorize the construction of any bridge over or across any of the navigable waters of the United States, and no time for the commencement and completion of such bridge is named in said Act, the authority thereby granted shall cease and be null and void unless the actual construction of the bridge authorized in such Act be commenced within one year and completed within three years from the date of the passage of such Act. (Mar. 23, 1906, c. 1130, § 6, 34 Stat. 86.)

497. "Persons" defined.—The word "persons" as used in this chapter, sections 491 to 498, inclusive, shall be construed to import both the singular and the plural, as the case demands, and shall include municipalities, quasi municipal corporations, corporations, companies, and associations. (Mar. 23, 1906, c. 1130, § 7, 34 Stat. 86.)

498. Reservation of right to alter or repeal.—The right to alter, amend, or repeal this chapter, sections 491 to 498, inclusive, is hereby expressly reserved as to any and all bridges which may be built in accordance with the provisions of the said sections of this chapter, and the United States shall incur no liability for the alteration, amendment, or repeal thereof to the owner or owners or any other persons interested in any bridge which shall have been constructed in accordance with its provisions. (Mar. 23, 1906, c. 1130, § 8, 34 Stat. 86.)

499. Regulations for drawbridges; penalties for violation; enforcement.—It shall be the duty of all persons owning, operating, and tending the drawbridges built prior to August 18, 1894, or which may thereafter be built across the navigable rivers and other waters of the United States, to open, or cause to be opened, the draws of such bridges under such rules and regulations as in the opinion of the Secretary of War the public interests require to govern the opening of drawbridges for the passage of vessels and other water crafts, and such rules and regulations, when so made and published, shall have the force of law. Every such person who shall willfully fail or refuse to open, or cause to be opened, the draw of any such bridge for the passage of a boat or boats, or who shall unreasonably delay the opening of said draw after reasonable signal shall have been given, as provided in such regulations, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $2,000 nor less than $1,000, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) for not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That the proper action to enforce the provisions of this section may be commenced before any commissioner, judge, or court of the United States, and such commissioner, judge, or court shall proceed in respect thereto as authorized by law in case of crimes against the United States: Provided further, That whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, the public interests require it, he may make rules and regulations to govern the opening of drawbridges for the passage of vessels and other water crafts, and such rules and regulations, when so made and published, shall have the force of law, and any violation thereof shall be punished as hereinbefore provided: Provided further, That any regulations made in pursuance of this section may be enforced as provided in section 413 of chapter 9 of this title, the provisions whereof are made applicable to the said regulations. (Aug. 18, 1894, c. 299, § 5, 28 Stat. 362; June 13, 1902, c. 1079, § 6, 32 Stat. 374.)

500. Deflection of current; liability to riparian owners.—Whenever complaint shall be made to the Secretary of War that by reason of the placing in any navigable waters of the United States of any bridge pier or abutment, the current of such waters has been so deflected from its natural course as to cause by producing caving of banks or otherwise serious damage or danger to property, it shall be his duty to make inquiry, and if it shall be ascertained that the complaint is well founded, he shall cause the owners or persons operating such bridge to repair such damage or prevent such danger to property by such means as he shall indicate and within such time as he may name, and in default thereof the owners or persons operating such bridge shall be liable in any court of competent jurisdiction to the persons injured in a sum double the amount of said injury: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to affect any rights of action which may have existed prior to August 11, 1888. (Aug. 11, 1888, c. 860, § 2, 25 Stat. 423.)

501. Consent to bridges over Maquoketa River, Iowa.—The assent of Congress, as of July 13, 1868, is given to the construction of bridges across the Maquoketa River, within the State of Iowa, with or without draws, as may be provided by the laws of that State. (R. S. § 5250.)

502. Criminal liability for failure to alter bridge obstructing navigation.—Whenever the Secretary of War shall have good reason to believe that any railroad or other bridge over any of the navigable waterways of the United States is an unreasonable obstruction to the free navigation of such waters on account of insufficient height, width of span, or otherwise, or where there is difficulty in passing the draw opening or the draw span of such bridge by rafts, steamboats, or other water craft, it shall be the duty of the said Secretary, first giving the parties reasonable opportunity to be heard, to give notice to the persons or corporations owning or controlling such bridge so to alter the same as to render navigation through or under it reasonably free, easy, and unobstructed; and in giving such notice he shall specify the changes recommended by the Chief of Engineers that are required to be made, and shall prescribe in each case a reasonable time in which to make them. If at the end of such time the alteration has not been made, the Secretary of War shall forthwith notify the United States district attorney for the district in which such bridge is situated, to the end that the criminal proceedings hereinafter in this section mentioned may be taken. If the persons, corporation, or association owning or controlling any railroad or other bridge shall, after receiving notice to that effect, as hereinbefore required, from the Secretary of War, and within the time prescribed by him willfully fail or refuse to remove the same or to comply with the lawful order of the Secretary of War in the premises, such persons, corporation, or association shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $5,000, and every month such persons, corporation, or association shall remain in default in respect to the removal or alteration of such bridge shall be deemed a new offense, and subject the persons, corporation, or association so offending to the penalties above prescribed: Provided, That in any case arising under the provisions of this section an appeal or writ of error may be taken from the district courts direct to the Supreme Court either by the United States or by the defendants. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 425, § 18, 30 Stat. 1153.)

604. Removal of snags, etc., from Mississippi River.
605. Operation of snag boats on Upper Mississippi River.
606. Removal of snags, etc., from Ohio River.
607. Removal of drift from New York Harbor.
608. Construction of fishways.
609. Sluices and other work in dams for development of water power.

PROSECUTION OF WORK GENERALLY

Sec.
621. By what methods river and harbor work may be authorized to be prosecuted.
622. Method of doing work generally.
623. Letting contract to lowest responsible bidder.
624. Limitation on power to let contract based on estimation of cost.
625. Combining several projects in one contract.
626. Prosecution of work when appropriation insufficient.
627. Application of appropriation when separate works are included therein.
628. Expenditure for dredging within harbor lines.
629. Contract for hire of dredging plant.
630. Limitation on expenditure for purchase of dredges.
631. Transfer of property between projects.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 541. Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors; establishment; duties and powers generally.—There shall be organized in the office of the Chief of Engineers, United States Army, by detail from time to time from the Corps of Engineers, a board of seven engineer officers, a majority of whom shall be of rank not less than lieutenant colonel, whose duties shall be fixed by the Chief of Engineers, and to whom shall be referred for consideration and recommendation, in addition to any other duties assigned, so far as in the opinion of the Chief of Engineers may be necessary, all reports upon examinations and surveys provided for by Congress, and all projects or changes in projects for works of river and harbor improvement prior to June 13, 1902, or thereafter provided for. And the board shall submit to the Chief of Engineers recommendations as to the desirability of commencing or continuing any and all improvements upon which reports are required. And in the consideration of such works and projects the board shall have in view the amount and character of commerce existing or reasonably prospective which will be benefited by the improvement, and the relation of the ultimate cost of such work, both as to cost of construction and maintenance, to the public commercial interests involved, and the public necessity for the work and propriety of its construction, continuance, or maintenance at the expense of the United States. And such consideration shall be given as time permits to such works as have, prior to June 13, 1902, been provided for by Congress, the same as in the case of new works proposed. The board shall, when it considers the same necessary, and with the sanction and under orders from the Chief of Engineers, make, as a board or through its members, personal examinations of localities. And all facts, information, and arguments which are presented to the board for its consideration in connection with any matter referred to it by the Chief of Engineers shall be reduced to and submitted in writing, and made a part of the records of the office of the Chief of Engineers. It shall further be the duty of said board, upon a request transmitted to the Chief of Engineers by the Committee on Rivers and Harbors of the House of Representatives, or the Committee on Commerce of the Senate, in the same manner to examine and report through the Chief of Engineers upon any projects adopted, prior to June 13, 1902, by the Government or upon which appropriations have been made, and report upon the desirability of continuing the same or upon any modifications thereof which may be deemed desirable.

The board shall have authority, with the approval of the Chief of Engineers, to rent quarters, if necessary, for the proper transaction of its business, and to employ such civil employees as may, in the opinion of the Chief of Engineers, be required for properly transacting the business assigned to it, and the necessary expenses of the board shall be paid from allotments made by the Chief of Engineers from any appropriations made by Congress for the work or works to which the duties of the board pertain. (June 13, 1902, c. 1079, § 3, 32 Stat. 372; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 144, § 4, 37 Stat. 826.)

542. Review by Board of Engineers of reports on examinations and surveys and special reports.—All reports on examinations and surveys authorized by law shall be reviewed by the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors as provided for in the preceding section and all special reports ordered by Congress shall, in the discretion of the Chief of Engineers, be reviewed in like manner by said board; and the said board shall also, on request by resolution of the Committee on Commerce of the Senate or the Committee on Rivers and Harbors of the House of Representatives, submitted to the Chief of Engineers, examine and review the report of any examination or survey made pursuant to any Act or resolution of Congress, and report thereon through the Chief of Engineers, United States Army, who shall submit his conclusions thereon as in other cases: Provided, That in no case shall the board, in its report thus called for by committee resolution, extend the scope of the project contemplated in the original report upon which its examination and review has been requested, or in the provision of law authorizing the original examination or survey. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 144, § 4, 37 Stat. 826.)

543. Employment of civil engineers on western and northwestern rivers.—The Chief of Engineers may, with the approval of the Secretary of War, employ such civil engineers, not exceeding five in number, for the purpose of executing the surveys and improvements of western and northwestern rivers, ordered by Congress, as may be necessary to the proper and diligent prosecution of the same; and the persons so employed may be allowed a reasonable compensation for their services, not to exceed the sum of $3,000 a year. (R. S. § 5253.)

544. Employment of retired officers of Army or Navy.—Section 62 of chapter 1 of Title 5, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND GOVERNMENT OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES, shall not be so construed as to prevent the employment of any retired officer of the Army or Navy to do work under the direction of the Chief of Engineers of the United States Army in connection with the improvement of rivers and harbors of the United States, or the payment by the proper officer of the Treasury of any amounts agreed upon as compensation for such employment. (June 3, 1896, c. 314, § 7, 29 Stat. 235.)

545. Preliminary examinations and reports; surveys; contents of report to Congress generally.—In all cases where preliminary examinations and surveys are authorized a preliminary examination of the river, harbor, or other proposed improvement mentioned shall first be made and a report as to the advisability of its improvement shall be submitted unless a survey or estimate is expressly directed. If upon such preliminary examination the proposed improvement is not deemed advisable, no further action shall be taken thereon without the further direction of Congress; but in case the report shall be favorable to such proposed improvement, or that a survey and estimate should be made to determine the advisability of improvement, the Secretary of War is authorized, in his discretion, to cause surveys to be made, and the cost and advisability to be reported to Congress. And such reports containing plans and estimates shall also contain a statement as to the rate at which the work should be prosecuted: Provided, That every report submitted to Congress, in addition to full information regarding the present and prospective commercial importance of the project covered by the report and the benefit to commerce likely to result from any proposed plan of improvement, shall also contain such data as it may be practicable to secure in regard to the following subjects:

(a) The existence and establishment of both private and public terminal and transfer facilities contiguous to the navigable water proposed to be improved, and, if water terminals have been constructed, the general location, description, and use made of the same, with an opinion as to their adequacy and efficiency, whether private or public. If no public terminals have been constructed, or if they are inadequate in number, there shall be included in the report an opinion in general terms as to the necessity, number, and appropriate location of the same, and also the necessary relations of such proposed terminals to the development of commerce.

(b) The development and utilization of water power for industrial and commercial purposes.

(c) Such other subjects as may be properly connected with such project: Provided, That in the investigation and study of these questions consideration shall be given only to their bearing upon the improvement of navigation, to the possibility and desirability of their being coordinated in a logical and proper manner with improvements for navigation to lessen the cost of such improvements and to compensate the Government for expenditures made in the interest of navigation, and to their relation to the development and regulation of commerce: Provided further, That the investigation and study of these questions may, upon review by the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors when called for as provided by law, be extended to any work of improvement under way and to any locality the examination and survey of which has heretofore been, or may hereafter be, authorized by Congress. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 144, § 3, 37 Stat. 825.)

546. Investigation of stream flow and watersheds; surveys in connection with dams.—The surveys of navigable streams herein or hereafter authorized shall include such stream-flow measurements and other investigations of the watersheds as may be necessary for preparation of plans of improvement and a proper consideration of all uses of the stream affecting navigation, and whenever necessary similar investigations may be made in connection with all navigable streams under improvement. Whenever permission for the construction of dams in navigable streams is granted, or is under consideration by Congress, such surveys and investigations of the sections of the streams affected may be made as are necessary to secure conformity with rational plans for the improvement of the streams for navigation. (June 25, 1910, c. 382, § 3, 36 Stat. 669.)

547. Reports as to local benefits of improvement and recommendations as to local cooperation.—Every report submitted to Congress in pursuance of any provision of law for a survey, in addition to other information which the Congress has directed shall be given, shall contain a statement of special or local benefit which will accrue to localities affected by such improvement and a statement of general or national benefits, with recommendations as to what local cooperation should be required, if any, on account of such special or local benefit. (June 5, 1920, c. 252, § 2, 41 Stat. 1010.)

548. Reports on discontinuance or curtailment of projects.—The Chief of Engineers is directed to make a report upon all river and harbor projects adopted, prior to March 3, 1925, the further improvement of which under present conditions is undesirable or in which curtailment of the plans or projects should be made. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 467, § 7, 43 Stat. 1191.)

549. Report of deterioration in improvements.—The Secretary of War shall cause the Chief of Engineers of the United States Army, in submitting his annual reports to Congress with regard to works of river and harbor improvement under his charge, to state what deterioration, if any, has taken place by destruction, decay, obstructions, or otherwise, in connection with any of such works, together with an estimate of the cost of rebuilding or repairing such works, or removing such obstructions; and he shall also cause the said Chief of Engineers to recommend, with his reasons therefor, the discontinuance of appropriations for any river and harbor work which he may deem unworthy of further improvement. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 425, § 7, 30 Stat. 1150.)

550. Report on water terminal and transfer facilities.—The Chief of Engineers, United States Army, shall indicate in his annual reports the character of the terminal and transfer facilities existing on every harbor or waterway under maintenance or improvement by the United States, and state whether they are considered adequate for existing commerce. He shall also submit one or more special reports on this subject, as soon as possible after January 18, 1918, including, among other things, the following:

(a) A brief description of such water terminals, including location and the suitability of such terminals to the existing traffic conditions, and whether such terminals are publicly or privately owned, and the terms and conditions under which they may be subjected to public use.

(b) Whether such water terminals are connected by a belt or spur line of railroad with all the railroads serving the same territory or municipality, and whether such connecting railroad is owned by the public and the conditions upon which the same may be used, and also whether there is an interchange of traffic between the water carriers and the railroad or railroads as to such traffic which is carried partly by rail and partly by water to its destination, and also whether improved and adequate highways have been constructed connecting such water terminal with the other lines of highways.

(c) If no water terminals have been constructed by the municipality or other existing public agency there shall be included in his report an expression of opinion in general terms as to the necessity, number, and appropriate location of such a terminal or terminals.

(d) An investigation of the general subject of water terminals, with descriptions and general plans of terminals of appropriate types and construction for the harbors and waterways of the United States suitable for various commercial purposes and adapted to the varying conditions of tides, floods, and other physical characteristics. (July 18, 1918, c. 155, § 7, 40 Stat. 911.)

551. Policy of Government as to terminal facilities for new projects.—It is hereby declared to be the policy of the Congress that water terminals are essential at all cities and towns located upon harbors or navigable waterways and that at least one public terminal should exist, constructed, owned, and regulated by the municipality or other public agency of the State and open to the use of all on equal terms. The Secretary of War, through the Chief of Engineers, shall give full publicity, as far as may be practicable, to this provision. (Mar. 2, 1919, c. 95, § 1, 40 Stat. 1286.)

552. Report as to employment of civil engineers.—The Secretary of War shall report to Congress, at each session thereof, the name and place of residence of each civilian engineer employed in the work of improving rivers and harbors by means and as the result of appropriations made in river and harbor appropriation bills, the time so employed, the compensation paid, and the place at and work on which employed. (Aug. 5, 1886, c. 929, § 8, 24 Stat. 335.)

553. Freight statistics.—In the collection of statistics relating to traffic, the Corps of Engineers is directed to adopt a uniform system of classification for freight, and upon rivers or inland waterways to collate ton-mileage statistics as far as practicable. (July 25, 1912, c. 253, § 1, 37 Stat. 223.)

554. Duty of shipowners and officers to furnish information to person in local charge of improvement; penalty.—Owners, agents, masters, and clerks of vessels arriving at or departing from localities where works of river and harbor improvement are carried on shall furnish, on application of the persons in local charge of the works, a comprehensive statement of vessels, passengers, freight, and tonnage.

Every person or persons offending against the provisions of this section shall, for each and every offense, be liable to a fine of $100, or imprisonment not exceeding two months, to be enforced in any district court in the United States within whose territorial jurisdiction such offense may have been committed. (Feb. 21, 1891, c. 252, §§ 1, 2, 26 Stat. 766.)

555. Duty of shipowners and officers to furnish information required by Secretary of War.—Owners, agents, masters, and clerks of vessels and other craft plying upon the navigable waters of the United States, and all individuals and corporations engaged in transporting their own goods upon the navigable waters of the United States, shall furnish such statements relative to vessels, passengers, freight, and tonnage as may be required by the Secretary of War: Provided, That this provision shall not apply to those rafting logs except upon a direct request upon the owner to furnish specific information.

Every person or persons offending against the provisions of this section shall, for each and every offense, be liable to a fine of $100, or imprisonment not exceeding two months, to be enforced in any district court in the United States within whose territorial jurisdiction such offense may have been committed. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 427, § 11, 42 Stat. 1043.)

556. Printing reports generally.—The Secretary of War shall cause the manuscript of the annual report of the Chief of Engineers and subordinate engineers, relating to the improvement of rivers and harbors, and the report of the Mississippi River Commission to be placed in the hands of the Public Printer on or before the 15th day of October in each year, and the Public Printer shall cause said reports to be printed with an accurate and comprehensive index thereof, on or before the first Monday in December in each year, for the use of Congress.

All reports on examinations and surveys which may be prepared during the recess of Congress shall, in the discretion of the Secretary of War, be printed by the Public Printer as documents of the following session of Congress. (Aug. 11, 1888, c. 860, § 8, 25 Stat. 424; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 144, § 3, 37 Stat. 825.)

557. Payment of costs of printing.—The printing of matter relating to river and harbor works, including all reports, compilations, regulations, and so forth, whose preparation is allowable under War Department regulations, shall be done and paid for out of regular annual appropriations for printing and binding for the War Department. (July 25, 1912, c. 253, § 13, 37 Stat. 234; July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 330.)

558. Sale of property acquired for improvement.—When any land or other property which has been heretofore or may be hereafter purchased or acquired for the improvement of rivers and harbors is no longer needed, or is no longer serviceable, it may be sold in such manner as the Secretary of War may direct, and the proceeds credited to the appropriation for the work for which it was purchased or acquired; and the Secretary of War may direct the transfer of any property employed in river and harbor works, and in such event the property so transferred shall be valued and credited to the project upon which it was theretofore used and charged to the project to which it shall be transferred. (June 13, 1902, c. 1079, § 5, 32 Stat. 373.)

559. Disposition of rentals for Government plants.—Amounts paid by private parties or other agencies for rental of plant owned by the Government in connection with the prosecution of river and harbor works shall be deposited in each case to the credit of the appropriation to which the plant belongs. (Aug. 8, 1917, c. 49, § 13, 40 Stat. 268.)

560. Contributions from private parties; return of excess.—The Secretary of War is authorized to receive from private parties such funds as may be contributed by them to be expended in connection with funds appropriated by the United States for any authorized work of public improvement of rivers and harbors whenever such work and expenditure may be considered by the Chief of Engineers as advantageous to the interests of navigation: Provided, That when contributions heretofore or hereafter made by local interests for river and harbor improvements, in accordance with specific requirements or under general authority of Congress, are in excess of the actual cost of the work contemplated and properly chargeable to such contributions, such excess contributions may, with the approval of the Secretary of War, be returned to the proper representatives of the contributing interests, unless the provision of law under which the contribution is made requires that the entire contribution be retained by the United States. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 142, § 4, 38 Stat. 1053.)

561. Advances by private parties; repayment.—Whenever local interests shall offer to advance funds for the prosecution of a work of river and harbor improvement duly adopted and authorized by law the Secretary of War may, in his discretion, receive such funds and expend the same in the immediate prosecution of such work. The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to repay without interest, from appropriations which may be provided by Congress for river and harbor improvements, the moneys so contributed and expended: Provided, That no repayment of funds which may be contributed for the purpose of meeting any conditions of local cooperation imposed by Congress, nor under the authority of the preceding section shall be made. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 467, § 11, 43 Stat. 1197.)

562. Channel depths and dimensions defined.—In the preparation of projects under River and Harbor Acts, unless otherwise expressed, the channel depths referred to shall be understood to signify the depth at mean low water in tidal waters tributary to the Atlantic and Gulf coasts and at mean lower low water in tidal waters tributary to the Pacific coast and the mean depth for a continuous period of fifteen days of the lowest water in the navigation season of any year in rivers and nontidal channels, and the channel dimensions specified shall be understood to admit of such increase at the entrances, bends, sidings, and turning places as may be necessary to allow of the free movement of boats. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 142, § 5, 38 Stat. 1053.)

563. Use of unexpended sums for preservation, etc., of existing works and for new projects.—Funds appropriated prior to September 22, 1922, for improvement of rivers and harbors and which remain in the Treasury unexpended because the work or projects for which the same were appropriated have been completed, are hereby made available for expenditure by and under the direction of the Secretary of War and the supervision of the Chief of Engineers for the preservation and maintenance of any existing river and harbor works and for the prosecution of such projects of improvement theretofore adopted and authorized as may be most desirable in the interests of commerce and navigation. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 427, § 6, 42 Stat. 1042.)

564. Settlement of claims for injuries to or loss of private property.—Whenever any vessel belonging to or employed by the United States engaged upon river and harbor works collides with and damages another vessel, pier, or other legal structure belonging to any person or corporation, and whenever, in the prosecution of river and harbor works, an accident occurs damaging or destroying property belonging to any person or corporation, and whenever personal property of employees of the United States, who are employed on or in connection with river and harbor works, is damaged or destroyed in connection with the loss, threatened loss, or damage to United States property, or through efforts to save life or to preserve United States property, the Chief of Engineers shall cause an immediate examination to be made, and if, in his judgment, the facts and circumstances are such as to make the whole or any part of the damages or destruction a proper charge against the United States, the Chief of Engineers, subject to the approval of the Secretary of War, shall have authority to adjust and settle all claims for damages or destruction caused by the above designated collisions, accidents, and so forth, in cases where the damage or expense does not exceed $500, and pay the same from the appropriation directly involved, and to report such as exceed $500 to Congress for its consideration. (June 5, 1920, c. 252, § 9, 41 Stat. 1015.)

565. River and harbor improvement by private or municipal enterprise.—Any person or persons, corporations, municipal or private, who desire to improve any navigable river, or any part thereof, at their or its own expense and risk may do so upon the approval of the plans and specifications of said proposed improvement by the Secretary of War and Chief of Engineers of the Army. The plan of said improvement must conform with the general plan of the Government improvements, must not impede navigation, and no toll shall be imposed on account thereof, and said improvement shall at all times be under the control and supervision of the Secretary of War and Chief of Engineers. (June 13, 1902, c. 1079, § 1, 32 Stat. 371.)

566. Improvement by or under authority of State of New Jersey.—Authority is given to the State of New Jersey, or, through it, to any commission, individual, corporation, or municipality, singly or collectively, designated by the legislature of said State, or by a commission appointed or authorized by said legislature, to improve the channels on the New Jersey seacoast, or any portion of said coast, or the waters adjacent thereto, lying between thirty-eight degrees fifty-six minutes and forty degrees twenty minutes north latitude, by dredging, or by the construction of piers, jetties, or breakwaters, or other river and harbor work of any description or nature adapted to attain the ends now pursued by the United States Government for the advantage of said coast or the relief of commerce: Provided, That such operations shall not encroach upon those portions of said coast, or the channels adjacent thereto, for which the United States Government may undertake similar work according to its own plans: And provided, That the plans for said work shall be placed on file with the Chief of Engineers of the War Department for thirty days, during which time he is authorized to disapprove said plans and forbid such work if, in his judgment, the improvements when completed will interfere with navigation or with any works of the United States Government commenced or proposed to be made: Provided further, That no tolls or other charges upon commerce shall be imposed by those making such improvements: And provided further, That this section shall not be construed as affecting in any way the jurisdiction and control of the Federal Government over any waters that may be improved in pursuance of the provisions thereof, nor as exempting such waters from the operation of the laws heretofore or hereafter enacted by Congress for the preservation and protection of navigable waters. The right to alter, amend, or repeal this section is hereby expressly reserved. (June 30, 1906, c. 3923, §§ 1, 2, 34 Stat. 800.)

567. Navigation and flood control improvements by Minnesota, North Dakota, and South Dakota.—Congress hereby consents that the States of Minnesota, North Dakota, and South Dakota, or any two of them, may enter into any agreement or agreements with each other to aid in improving navigation and to prevent and control floods on boundary waters of said States and the waters tributary thereto. And said States, or any two of them, may agree with each other upon any project or projects for the purpose of making such improvements, and upon the amount of money to be contributed by each to carry out such projects. The Secretary of War is authorized and directed to make a survey of any project proposed, as aforesaid, by said States, or any two of them, to determine the feasibility and practicability thereof and the expenses of carrying the same into effect and what share of such expenses should be borne by the respective States, local interests, or by the National Government. If the Secretary of War approves any such projects, he may authorize the States to make such improvements at their own expense, but under his supervision. (Aug. 8, 1917, c. 49, § 5, 40 Stat. 266.)

568. Limitation on power of committee of Congress to consider projects.—No project shall be considered by any committee of Congress with a view to its adoption, except with a view to a survey, if five years have elapsed since a report upon a survey of such project has been submitted to Congress pursuant to law. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 427, § 9, 42 Stat. 1043.)

TRAVELING EXPENSES AND SUBSISTENCE

581. Hiring special means of transportation.—In their execution and inspection of river and harbor improvement work, at points beyond easy reach of ordinary regular transportation lines, Engineer officers are authorized to hire and use such transportation as they may consider desirable and advantageous to the progress of work. (July 25, 1912, c. 253, § 9, 37 Stat. 233.)

582. Subsistence allowance to persons engaged in field work.—When the expenses of persons engaged in field work or traveling on official business outside of the District of Columbia and away from their designated posts of duty are chargeable to appropriations of the Engineer Department, a per diem of not exceeding $4 may be allowed in lieu of subsistence when not otherwise fixed by law. (July 18, 1918, c. 155, § 9, 40 Stat. 912.)

583. Payment of allowances, etc., incident to change of station of Engineer officers from appropriation for improvements.—When in the opinion of the Secretary of War the changes of a station of an officer of the Corps of Engineers is primarily in the interest of river and harbor improvement, the mileage and other allowances to which he may be entitled incident to such change of station may be paid from appropriations for such improvements. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 467, § 5, 43 Stat. 1191.)

ACQUISITION OF LAND AND MATERIALS

591. Condemnation, purchase and donation of land and materials.—The Secretary of War may cause proceedings to be instituted, in the name of the United States, in any court having jurisdiction of such proceedings, for the acquirement by condemnation of any land, right of way, or material needed to enable him to maintain, operate or prosecute works for the improvement of rivers and harbors for which provision has been made by law; such proceedings to be prosecuted in accordance with the laws relating to suits for the condemnation of property of the States wherein the proceedings may be instituted: Provided, however, That when the owner of such land, right of way, or material shall fix a price for the same, which in the opinion of the Secretary of War, shall be reasonable, he may purchase the same at such price without further delay: And provided further, That the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to accept donations of lands or materials required for the maintenance or prosecution of such works. (Apr. 24, 1888, c. 194, 25 Stat. 94.)

592. Condemnation of land in aid of person, company, corporation, municipal or private.—Whenever any person, company, or corporation, municipal or private, shall undertake to secure any land or easement therein needed in connection with a work of river and harbor improvement duly authorized by Congress, for the purpose of conveying the same to the United States free of cost, or for the purpose of constructing, maintaining, and operating locks, dry docks, or other works to be conveyed to the United States free of cost, and of constructing, maintaining and operating dams for use in connection therewith, and shall be unable for any reason to obtain the same by purchase and acquire a valid title thereto, the Secretary of War may, in his discretion, cause proceedings to be instituted in the name of the United States for the acquirement by condemnation of said land or easement, and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General of the United States to institute and conduct such proceedings upon the request of the Secretary of War: Provided, That all expenses of said proceedings and any award that may be made thereunder shall be paid by the said person, company, or corporation, to secure which payment the Secretary of War may require the said person, company, or corporation to execute a proper bond in such amount as he may deem necessary before said proceedings are commenced. (June 29, 1906, c. 3628, 34 Stat. 632.)

593. Condemnation of land in aid of State or State agency.—Whenever any State, or any reclamation, flood control or drainage district, or other public agency created by any State, shall undertake to secure any land or easement therein, needed in connection with a work of river and harbor improvement duly authorized by Congress, for the purpose of conveying the same to the United States free of cost, and shall be unable for any reason to obtain the same by purchase and acquire a valid title thereto, the Secretary of War may, in his discretion, cause proceedings to be instituted in the name of the United States for the acquirement by condemnation of said land or easement, and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General of the United States to institute and conduct such proceedings upon the request of the Secretary of War: Provided, That all expenses of said proceedings and any award that may be made thereunder shall be paid by such State, or reclamation, flood control or drainage district, or other public agency as aforesaid, to secure which payment the Secretary of War may require such State, or reclamation, flood control or drainage district, or other public agency as aforesaid, to execute a proper bond in such amount as he may deem necessary before said proceedings are commenced. (Aug. 8, 1917, c. 49, § 9, 40 Stat. 267.)

594. When immediate possession of land may be taken.—Whenever the Secretary of War, in pursuance of authority conferred on him by law, causes proceedings to be instituted in the name of the United States for the acquirement by condemnation of any lands, easements, or rights of way needed for a work of river and harbor improvements duly authorized by Congress, the United States, upon the filing of the petition in any such proceedings, shall have the right to take immediate possession of said lands, easements, or rights of way, to the extent of the interest to be acquired, and proceed with such public works thereon as have been authorized by Congress: Provided, That certain and adequate provision shall have been made for the payment of just compensation to the party or parties entitled thereto, either by previous appropriation by the United States or by the deposit of moneys or other form of security in such amount and form as shall be approved by the court in which such proceedings shall be instituted. The respondent or respondents may move at any time in the court to increase or change the amounts or securities, and the court shall make such order as shall be just in the premises and as shall adequately protect the respondents. In every case the proceedings in condemnation shall be diligently prosecuted on the part of the United States in order that such compensation may be promptly ascertained and paid. (July 18, 1918, c. 155, § 5, 40 Stat. 911.)

595. Consideration of benefits in assessing compensation.—In all cases where private property shall be taken by the United States for the public use in connection with any improvement of rivers, harbors, canals, or waterways of the United States, and in all condemnation proceedings by the United States to acquire lands or easements for such improvements, where a part only of any such parcel, lot, or tract of land shall be taken, the jury or other tribunal awarding the just compensation or assessing the damages to the owner, whether for the value of the part taken or for any injury to the part not taken, shall take into consideration by way of reducing the amount of compensation or damages any special and direct benefits to the remainder arising from the improvement, and shall render their award or verdict accordingly. (July 18, 1918, c. 155, § 6, 40 Stat. 911.)

PARTICULAR WORK OR IMPROVEMENTS

601. Mississippi River; regulation of reservoirs at headwaters.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to prescribe such rules and regulations in respect to the use and administration of the reservoirs at the headwaters of the Mississippi River as in his judgment the public interest and necessity may require; which rules and regulations shall be posted in some conspicuous place or places for the information of the public. And any person knowingly and willfully violating such rules and regulations shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $500, or imprisonment, not exceeding six months, the same to be enforced by prosecution in any district court of the United States within whose territorial jurisdiction such offense may have been committed. And the Secretary of War shall cause such gaugings to be made at or near Saint Paul during the annual operation of said reservoirs as shall determine accurately the discharge at that point, the cost of same to be paid out of the annual appropriation for gauging the waters of the Mississippi River and its tributaries. (Aug. 11, 1888, c. 860, § 1, 25 Stat. 419.)

602. Maintenance of channel of South Pass of Mississippi River.—Upon the termination of the contract entered into with the late James B. Eads for the maintenance of the channel through the South Pass of the Mississippi River, the Secretary of War is directed to take charge of said channel, including the jetties, and all auxiliary works connected therewith, and thereafter to maintain with the utmost efficiency said South Pass Channel; and for that purpose he is authorized to draw his warrants from time to time on the Treasurer of the United States, until otherwise provided for by law, for such sums of money as may be necessary, not to exceed in the aggregate for any one year $100,000. For that purpose any available Government dredge may be used.

For the purpose of securing the uninterrupted examinations and surveys at the South Pass of the Mississippi River, the Secretary of War, upon the application of the Chief of Engineers, is authorized to draw his warrant or requisition from time to time upon the Secretary of the Treasury for such sums as may be necessary to do such work, not to exceed in the aggregate for each year the sum of $10,000: Provided, however, That an itemized statement of said expenditures shall accompany the annual report of the Chief of Engineers. (Aug. 11, 1888, c. 860, §§ 1, 4, 25 Stat. 422, 424; June 6, 1900, c. 790, § 3, 31 Stat. 584; June 13, 1902, c. 1079, § 1, 32 Stat. 340.)

603. Removal of snags, etc., from tributaries.—The Chief of Engineers, in his discretion, and after approval by the Secretary of War, is hereby authorized to make preliminary examinations and minor surveys and to remove snags and other temporary or readily removable obstructions from tributaries of waterways already under Federal improvement or in general use by navigation, to be paid from the appropriations for the adjoining waterways: Provided, That the cost of such work in any single year shall not exceed $500 per tributary. (July 25, 1912, c. 253, § 1, 37 Stat. 222.)

604. Removal of snags, etc., from Mississippi River.—For the purpose of removing snags, wrecks, and other obstructions in the Mississippi River, the Atchafalaya and Old Rivers from the junction with the Mississippi and Red Rivers down the Atchafalaya River as far down as Melville, Louisiana, the Secretary of War, upon the application of the Chief of Engineers, is hereby authorized to draw his warrant or requisition from time to time upon the Secretary of the Treasury for such sums as may be necessary to do such work, not to exceed in the aggregate for each year the sum of $100,000: Provided, however, That an itemized statement of said expenses shall accompany the annual report of the Chief of Engineers. (Aug. 11, 1888, c. 860, §§ 1, 7, 25 Stat. 421, 424; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 264, § 3, 35 Stat. 817.)

605. Operation of snag boats on Upper Mississippi River.—For the purpose of securing the uninterrupted work of operating snag boats on the Upper Mississippi River, the Illinois River from its mouth to Copperas Creek, and the Minnesota River and other tributaries of the Upper Mississippi River improved by the United States, the Secretary of War, upon the application of the Chief of Engineers, is hereby authorized to draw his warrant or requisition from time to time upon the Secretary of the Treasury for such sums as may be necessary to do such work, not to exceed in the aggregate for each year the sum of $25,000: Provided, however, That an itemized statement of said expenses shall accompany the annual report of the Chief of Engineers. (Aug. 11, 1888, c. 860, §§ 1, 7, 25 Stat. 421, 424; Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2509, § 1, 34 Stat. 1102; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 264, § 3, 35 Stat. 817.)

606. Removal of snags, and so forth, from Ohio River.—For the purpose of securing the uninterrupted work of operating snag boats on the Ohio River and removing snags, wrecks, and other obstructions in said river, the Secretary of War, upon the application of the Chief of Engineers, is hereby authorized to draw his warrant or requisition from time to time upon the Secretary of the Treasury for such sums as may be necessary to do such work, not to exceed in the aggregate for each year the sum of $50,000: Provided, however, That an itemized statement of said expenses shall accompany the annual report of the Chief of Engineers. (Sept. 19, 1890, c. 907, § 13, 26 Stat. 455; June 3, 1896, c. 314, § 3, 29 Stat. 234.)

607. Removal of drift from New York Harbor.—So much as may be necessary of any appropriations made for specific portions of New York Harbor and its immediate tributaries may be allotted by the Secretary of War for the maintenance of these waterways by the collection and removal of drift. (Aug. 8, 1917, c. 49, § 1, 40 Stat. 252.)

608. Construction of fishways.—Whenever river and harbor improvements shall be found to operate (whether by lock and dam or otherwise), as obstructions to the passage of fish, the Secretary of War may, in his discretion, direct and cause to be constructed practical and sufficient fishways, to be paid for out of the general appropriations for the streams on which such fishways may be constructed. (Aug. 11, 1888, c. 860, § 11, 25 Stat. 425.)

609. Sluices and other work in dams for development of water power.—In order to make possible the economical future development of water power the Secretary of War, upon recommendation of the Chief of Engineers, is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to provide in the permanent parts of any dam authorized at any time by Congress for the improvement of navigation such foundations, sluices, and other works, as may be considered desirable for the future development of its water power. (July 25, 1912, c. 253, § 12, 37 Stat. 233.)

PROSECUTION OF WORK GENERALLY

621. By what methods river and harbor work may be authorized to be prosecuted.—Any public work on canals, rivers, and harbors adopted by Congress may be prosecuted by direct appropriations, by continuing contracts, or by both direct appropriations and continuing contracts. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 427, § 10, 42 Stat. 1043.)

622. Method of doing work generally.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to apply the money appropriated for improvements of rivers and harbors, other than surveys, estimates and gaugings, in carrying on the various works, by contract or otherwise, as may be most economical and advantageous to the Government. And all works of improvement authorized to be prosecuted or completed under contracts may, in the discretion of the Secretary of War, be carried on by contract or otherwise, as may be most economical or advantageous to the United States. In all cases where the project for a work of river or harbor improvement provides for the construction or use of Government dredging plant, the Secretary of War may, in his discretion, have the work done by contract if reasonable prices can be obtained. (Aug. 11, 1888, c. 380, § 3, 25 Stat. 423; July 25, 1912, c. 253, § 1, 37 Stat. 222; Mar. 2, 1919, c. 95, § 3, 40 Stat. 1287.)

623. Letting contract to lowest responsible bidder.—Where works for river and harbor improvements are done by contract, such contract shall be made after sufficient public advertisement for proposals, in such manner and form as the Secretary of War shall prescribe; and such contracts shall be made with the lowest responsible bidders, accompanied by such securities as the Secretary of War shall require, conditioned for the faithful prosecution and completion of the work according to such contract. (Aug. 11, 1888, c. 860, § 3, 25 Stat. 423.)

624. Limitation on power to let contract based on estimation of cost.—No part of the funds appropriated for works of river and harbor improvement shall be used to pay for any work done by private contract if the contract price is more than 25 per centum in excess of the estimated cost of doing the work by Government plant: Provided, That in estimating the cost of doing the work by Government plant, including the cost of labor and materials, there shall also be taken into account proper charges for depreciation of plant and all supervising and overhead expenses and interest on the capital invested in the Government plant, but the rate of interest shall not exceed the maximum prevailing rate being paid by the United States on current issues of bonds or other evidences of indebtedness. (Mar. 2, 1919, c. 95, § 8, 40 Stat. 1290.)

625. Combining several projects in one contract.—Whenever the appropriations made by Congress for river and harbor works can be more advantageously expended by combining in one contract two or more works, such combinations shall be made, and nothing contained in section 109 of chapter 1 of Title 40, PUBLIC BUILDINGS, PROPERTY, AND WORKS, nor in section 623 of this chapter, shall be so construed as to prohibit or prevent the cumulation of two or more works of river and harbor improvement in the same proposal and contract, where such works are situated in the same region and of the same kind or character. (Sept. 19, 1890, c. 907, § 2, 26 Stat. 452; July 25, 1912, c. 253, § 8, 37 Stat. 233.)

626. Prosecution of work when appropriation insufficient.—Whenever the appropriations made, or authorized to be made, for the completion of any river and harbor work shall prove insuffcient therefor, the Secretary of War may, in his discretion, on the recommendation of the Chief of Engineers, apply the funds so appropriated or authorized to the prosecution of such work. (July 25, 1912, c. 253, § 8, 37 Stat. 233.)

627. Application of appropriation when separate works are included therein.—Where separate works or items are consolidated in River and Harbor Acts and an aggregate amount is appropriated therefor, any balances remaining to the credit of the separate works or items may be transferred to the credit of the corresponding aggregate amounts appropriated for the consolidated items, and the amounts appropriated or transferred shall, unless otherwise expressed, be expended in securing maintenance and improvement according to the respective projects adopted by Congress, after giving due regard to the respective needs of traffic. The allotments to the respective works consolidated shall be made by the Secretary of War upon recommendations by the Chief of Engineers. In case such works or items are consolidated and separate amounts are given with each project, the amounts so named shall be expended upon such separate projects unless, in the discretion of the Secretary of War, another allotment or division should be made of the same. Any balances remaining to the credit of the consolidated items shall be carried to the credit of the respective aggregate amounts appropriated for the consolidated items. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 142, § 3, 38 Stat. 1052.)

628. Expenditure for dredging within harbor lines.—No money appropriated for the improvement of rivers and harbors shall be expended for dredging inside of harbor lines duly established. (July 13, 1892, c. 158, § 5, 27 Stat. 111.)

629. Contract for hire of dredging plant.—Whenever it shall become, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, necessary or desirable to hire a dredging plant or plants for the performance of any of the public work carried on under his direction the said Secretary may, in his discretion, agree for the same, either in the manner now customary or on the basis of an equitable reimbursement for deterioration of plant when in use by the Government, and a reasonable percentage of the total cost of the work. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2509, § 5, 34 Stat. 1119.)

630. Limitation on expenditure for purchase of dredges.—No money authorized to be expended for the acquirement of any dredge or dredges shall be so expended for the purchase of any dredge or dredges from private contractors, which at the time of the proposed purchase can be manufactured at any navy yard or other Government-owned factory for a sum less than it can be purchased for from such private contractor. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 427, § 5, 42 Stat. 1042.)

631. Transfer of property between projects.—The Secretary of War may direct a temporary transfer of any property employed in the improvement of rivers and harbors whenever, in his judgment, such transfer would secure efficient or economical results, and such adjustment in the way of charges and credits shall be made between the projects affected as may be equitable. (June 13, 1902, c. 1079, § 5, 32 Stat. 373.)

Chapter 13.—MISSISSIPPI RIVER COMMISSION.

Sec.
641. Creation of Mississippi River Commission.
642. Appointment of commissioners; vacancies; chairman; tenure of office.
643. Compensation of commissioners.
644. Secretary of commission.
645. Traveling expenses of civilian members of commission and of Assistant Engineer of Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors.
646. Headquarters and meetings of commission.
647. Mississippi River survey; detail of assistants; vessels and instruments.
648. Arkansas River; levee and bank protection.
649. Vicksburg Harbor and Ohio River below Cache River.
650. Mississippi River below Rock Island; levee and bank protection.
651. Tributaries of Mississippi River below Cairo; levee and bank protection.

Section 641. Creation of Mississippi River Commission.—A commission is created to be called "The Mississippi River Commission," to consist of seven members. (June 28, 1879, c. 43, § 1, 21 Stat. 37.)

642. Appointment of commissioners; vacancies; chairman; tenure of office.—The President of the United States shall, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint seven commissioners, three of whom shall be selected from the Engineer Corps of the Army, one from the Coast and Geodetic Survey, and three from civil life, two of whom shall be civil engineers. And any vacancy which may occur in the commission shall in like manner be filled by the President of the United States; and he shall designate one of the commissioners appointed from the Engineer Corps of the Army to be president of the commission. The commissioners appointed under this chapter shall remain in office subject to removal by the President of the United States. (June 28, 1879, c. 43, § 2, 21 Stat 37.)

643. Compensation of commissioners.—The commissioners appointed from the Engineer Corps of the Army and the Coast and Geodetic Survey shall receive no other pay or compensation than is now allowed them by law; and the three commissioners appointed from civil life shall receive as pay and compensation for their services each the sum of $5,000 per annum. (June 28, 1879, c. 43, § 2, 21 Stat. 37; Mar. 1, 1917, c. 144, § 4, 39 Stat. 951.)

644. Secretary of commission.—The Secretary of War may detail from the Engineer Corps of the Army of the United States an officer to act as secretary of said commission. (June 28, 1879, c. 43, § 6, 21 Stat. 38.)

645. Traveling expenses of civilian members of commission and of Assistant Engineer of Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors.—The traveling expenses of the civilian members of the Mississippi River Commission, and of the Assistant Engineer of the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors, when on duty, shall be computed and paid in the same way as the traveling expenses of the Army members of said commission and of said board. (July 25, 1912, c. 253, § 1, 37 Stat. 218.)

646. Headquarters and meetings of commission.—The headquarters and general offices of said commission shall be located at some city or town on the Mississippi River, to be designated by the Secretary of War, and the meetings of the commission except such as are held on Government boats during the time of the semiannual inspection trips of the commission shall be held at said headquarters and general offices, the times of said meetings to be fixed by the president of the commission, who shall cause due notice of such meetings to be given members of the commission and the public. (Feb. 18, 1901, c. 377, 31 Stat. 793.)

647. Mississippi River survey; detail of assistants; vessels and instruments.—It shall be the duty of the Mississippi River Commission to direct and complete such surveys of the Mississippi River, between the Head of the Passes near its mouth to its headwaters as may have been in progress June 28, 1879, and to make such additional surveys, examinations, and investigations, topographical, hydrographical, and hydrometrical, of said river and its tributaries, as may be deemed necessary by said commission to carry out the objects of this chapter. And to enable said commission to complete such surveys, examinations, and investigations, the Secretary of War shall, when requested by said commission, detail from the Engineer Corps of the Army such officers and men as may be necessary, and shall place in the charge and for the use of said commission such vessel or vessels and such machinery and instruments as may be under his control and may be deemed necessary. And the Secretary of Commerce shall, when requested by said commission in like manner detail from the Coast and Geodetic Survey such officers and men as may be necessary, and shall place in the charge and for the use of said commission such vessel or vessels and such machinery and instruments as may be under his control and may be deemed necessary. And the said commission may, with the approval of the Secretary of War, employ such additional force and assistants, and provide, by purchase or otherwise, such vessels or boats and such instruments and means as may be deemed necessary.

Plans; report.—It shall be the duty of said commission to take into consideration and mature such plan or plans and estimates as will correct, permanently locate, and deepen the channel and protect the banks of the Mississippi River; improve and give safety and ease to the navigation thereof; prevent destructive floods; promote and facilitate commerce, trade, and the postal service; and when so prepared and matured, to submit to the Secretary of War a full and detailed report of their proceedings and actions, and of such plans, with estimates of the cost thereof, for the purposes aforesaid, to be by him transmitted to Congress: Provided, That the commission shall report in full upon the practicability, feasibility, and probable cost of the various plans known as the jetty system, the levee system, and the outlet system, as well as upon such others as they deem necessary.

Plans for immediate works.—The said commission may, prior to the completion of all the surveys and examinations contemplated by this chapter, prepare and submit to the Secretary of War plans, specifications, and estimates of costs for such immediate works as, in the judgment of said commission, may constitute a part of the general system of works herein contemplated, to be by him transmitted to Congress. (June 28, 1879, c. 43, §§ 3–5, 21 Stat. 38.)

648. Arkansas River; levee and bank protection.—The jurisdiction of the Mississippi River Commission is extended so as to include that part of the Arkansas River between its mouth and the intersection thereof with the division line between Lincoln and Jefferson Counties, and any funds which are appropriated by Congress for improving the Mississippi River between Head of Passes and the mouth of the Ohio River, and which may be allotted to levees and bank revetment, may be expended within the limits of said extended jurisdiction under the direction of the Secretary of War, in accordance with the plans, specifications, and recommendations of the Mississippi River Commission, as approved by the Chief of Engineers, and upon like terms and conditions for levees and bank revetment upon any part of the Mississippi River now under the jurisdiction of said commission, and in such manner as will best promote and accomplish the purposes for which commission was created, in so far as the territory hereby added to its said jurisdiction may be involved. (July 27, 1916, c. 260, § 1, 39 Stat. 402.)

649. Vicksburg Harbor and Ohio River below Cache River.—The harbor at Vicksburg, Mississippi, and the Ohio River from its mouth to the mouth of the Cache River, are transferred to and placed under the control and jurisdiction of the Mississippi River Commission: Provided, That no part of the improvement of the Ohio River, with a view to the construction of locks and dams, shall be considered as transferred to or placed under the control and jurisdiction of the Mississippi River Commission. (July 27, 1916, c. 260, § 1, 39 Stat. 402.)

650. Mississippi River below Rock Island; levee and bank protection.—Any funds which are appropriated by Congress for improving the Mississippi River between Head of Passes and the mouth of the Ohio River, and which may be allotted to levees, may be expended, under the direction of the Secretary of War, in accordance with the plans, specifications, and recommendations of the Mississippi River Commission, as approved by the Chief of Engineers, for levees upon any part of said river between Head of Passes and Rock Island, Illinois, in such manner as, in their opinion, shall best improve navigation and promote the interest of commerce at all stages of the river. (July 27, 1916, c. 260, § 1, 39 Stat. 402.)

651. Tributaries of Mississippi River below Cairo; levee and bank protection.—The jurisdiction of the Mississippi River Commission is extended, for the purposes of levee protection and bank protection, to the tributaries and outlets of the Mississippi River between Cairo, Illinois, and the Head of the Passes, in so far as these tributaries and outlets are affected by the flood waters of the Mississippi River. (Sept. 22, 1922, c. 427, § 13, 42 Stat. 1047.)

Chapter 14.—CALIFORNIA DÉBRIS COMMISSION.

Sec.
661. Creation of commission; appointment of members; vacancies; powers generally.
662. Organization; compensation of members; rules and regulations of procedure; traveling expenses.
663. Territorial jurisdiction over hydraulic mining; hydraulic mining injurious to navigation prohibited.
664. General duties as to plans for protection of navigation.
665. Survey for débris reservoirs; study of methods of mines and mining.
666. Noting conditions of navigable channels.
667. Annual reports.
668. "Hydraulic mining" and "mining by hydraulic process" defined.
669. Petition by hydraulic miners.
670. Surrender to United States of right to regulate débris of mine.
671. Petition for common dumping grounds, etc.
672. Notice of petition for dumping grounds, etc.; hearing.
673. Orders by commission directing method of mining, etc.; expenses of complying with order; exemption from mining taxes.
674. Plans for and supervision of work required by order; permit to commence mining.
675. Conditions precedent for commencement of mining operations.
676. Allotment of expenses for common dumping grounds; location of impounding works.
677. Limitation as to quantity of débris washed away.
678. Modification and revocation of permit to mine.
679. Violation of permit to mine; penalty.
680. Examination of mines; reports.
681. Use of public lands and materials; withdrawal of lands required from sale or entry.
682. Malicious injury to works; injury to navigable waters by hydraulic mining; penalty.
683. Tax on gross proceeds of hydraulic mines; "débris fund"; advances by mine owners.
684. Cooperation by commission with State authorities.
685. Construction by commission of restraining works, ec.; use of débris fund.
686. Construction of restraining work in conjunction with State.
687. Use of State dredge and appliances in river and harbor improvements.

Section 661. Creation of commission; appointment of members; vacancies; powers generally.—A commission is created, to be known as the California Débris Commission, consisting of three members. The President of the United States shall, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint the commission from officers of the Corps of Engineers, United States Army. Vacancies occurring therein shall be filled in like manner. It shall have the authority, and exercise the powers hereinafter set forth, in this chapter, under the supervision of the Chief of Engineers and direction of the Secretary of War. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 1, 27 Stat. 507.)

662. Organization; compensation of members; rules and regulations of procedure; traveling expenses.—Said commission shall organize by the selection of such officers as may be required in the performance of its duties, the same to be selected from the members thereof. The members of said commission shall receive no greater compensation than is now allowed by law to each, respectively, as an officer of said Corps of Engineers. It shall also adopt rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, to govern its deliberations and prescribe the method of procedure under the provisions of this chapter. While traveling on duty the officers of the commission shall receive the mileage allowed by law. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 2, 27 Stat. 507; June 6, 1900, c. 791, § 1, 31 Stat. 631.)

663. Territorial jurisdiction over hydraulic mining; hydraulic mining injurious to navigation prohibited.—The jurisdiction of said commission, in so far as the same affects mining carried on by the hydraulic process, shall extend to all such mining in the territory drained by the Sacramento and San Joaquin River systems in the State of California. Hydraulic mining, as defined in section 668 of this chapter, directly or indirectly injuring the navigability of said river systems, carried on in said territory other than as permitted under the provisions of this chapter is hereby prohibited and declared unlawful. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 3, 27 Stat. 507.)

664. General duties as to plans for protection of navigation.—It shall be the duty of said commission to mature and adopt such plan or plans, from examinations and surveys made prior to March 1, 1893, and from such additional examinations and surveys as it may deem necessary, as will improve the navigability of all the rivers comprising said systems, deepen their channels, and protect their banks. Such plan or plans shall be matured with a view of making the same effective as against the encroachment of and damage from débris resulting from mining operations, natural erosion, or other causes, with a view of restoring, as near as practicable and the necessities of commerce and navigation demand, the navigability of said rivers to the condition existing in 1860, and permitting mining by the hydraulic process, as the term is understood in said State, to be carried on, provided the same can be accomplished, without injury to the navigability of said rivers or the lands adjacent thereto. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 4, 27 Stat. 507.)

665. Survey for débris reservoirs; study of methods of mines and mining.—It shall further examine, survey, and determine the utility and practicability, for the purposes hereinafter indicated, of storage sites in the tributaries of said rivers and in the respective branches of said tributaries, or in the plains, basins, sloughs, and tule and swamp lands adjacent to or along the course of said rivers, for the storage of débris or water or as settling reservoirs, with the object of using the same by either or all of these methods to aid in the improvement and protection of said navigable rivers by preventing deposits therein of débris resulting from mining operations, natural erosion, or other causes, or for affording relief thereto in flood time and providing sufficient water to maintain scouring force therein in the summer season; and in connection therewith to investigate such hydraulic and other mines as are or may have been worked by methods intended to restrain the débris and material moved in operating such mines by impounding dams, settling reservoirs, or otherwise, and in general to make such study of and researches in the hydraulic mining industry as science, experience, and engineering skill may suggest as practicable and useful in devising a method or methods whereby such mining may be carried on as aforesaid. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 5, 27 Stat. 508.)

666. Noting conditions of navigable channels.—The said commission shall from time to time note the conditions of the navigable channels of said river systems, by cross-section surveys or otherwise, in order to ascertain the effect therein of such hydraulic mining operations as may be permitted by its orders and such as is caused by erosion, natural or otherwise. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 6, 27 Stat. 508.)

667. Annual reports.—Said commission shall submit to the Chief of Engineers, for the information of the Secretary of War, on or before the 15th day of November of each year, a report of its labors and transactions, with plans for the construction, completion, and preservation of the public works outlined in this chapter, together with estimates of the cost thereof, stating what amounts can be profitably expended thereon each year. The Secretary of War shall thereupon submit same to Congress on or before the meeting thereof. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 7, 27 Stat. 508.)

668. "Hydraulic mining" and "mining by hydraulic process" defined.—For the purposes of this chapter "hydraulic mining" and "mining by the hydraulic process" are hereby declared to have the meaning and application given to said terms in the State of California. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 8, 27 Stat. 508.)

669. Petition by hydraulic miners.—The individual proprietor or proprietors, or in case of a corporation, its manager or agent appointed for that purpose, owning mining ground in the territory in the State of California mentioned in section 663 of this chapter, which it is desired to work by the hydraulic process, must file with said commission a verified petition, setting forth such facts as will comply with law and the rules prescribed by said commission. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 9, 27 Stat. 508.)

670. Surrender to United States of right to regulate débris of mine.—Said petition shall be accompanied by an instrument duly executed and acknowledged, as required by the law of the said State, whereby the owner or owners of such mine or mines surrender to the United States the right and privilege to regulate by law, as provided in this chapter, or any law that may be enacted after March 1, 1893, or by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by virtue thereof, the manner and method in which the débris resulting from the working of said mine or mines shall be restrained, and what amount shall be produced therefrom; it being understood that the surrender aforesaid shall not be construed as in any way affecting the right of such owner or owners to operate said mine or mines by any other process or method in use in said State on March 1, 1893: Provided, That they shall not interfere with the navigability of the aforesaid rivers. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 10, 27 Stat. 509.)

671. Petition for common dumping ground, etc.—The owners of several mining claims situated so as to require a common dumping ground or dam or other restraining works for the débris issuing therefrom in one or more sites may file a joint petition setting forth such facts in addition to the requirements of section 669 of this chapter; and where the owner of a hydraulic mine or owners of several such mines have and use common dumping sites for impounding débris or as settling reservoirs, which sites are located below the mine of an applicant not entitled to use same, such fact shall also be stated in said petition. Thereupon the same proceedings shall be had as provided for in this chapter. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 11, 27 Stat. 509.)

672. Notice of petition for dumping grounds, etc.; hearing.—A notice specifying briefly the contents of said petition and fixing a time previous to which all proofs are to be submitted shall be published by said commission in some newspaper or newspapers of general circulation in the communities interested in the matter set forth therein. If published in a daily paper such publication shall continue for at least ten days; if in a weekly paper in at least three issues of the same. Pending publication thereof said commission, or a committee thereof, shall examine the mine and premises described in such petition. On or before the time so fixed all parties interested, either as petitioners or contestants, whether miners or agriculturists, may file affidavits, plans, and maps in support of their respective claims. Further hearings, upon notice to all parties of record, may be granted by the commission when necessary. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 12, 27 Stat. 509.)

673. Order by commission directing method of mining, etc.; expenses of complying with order; exemption from mining taxes.—In case a majority of the members of said commission, within thirty days after the time so fixed, concur in the decision in favor of the petitioner or petitioners, the said commission shall thereupon make an order directing the methods and specifying in detail the manner in which operations shall proceed in such mine or mines; what restraining or impounding works, if any, if facilities therefor can be found, shall be built and maintained; how and of what material; where to be located; and in general set forth such further requirements and safeguards as will protect the public interests and prevent injury to the said navigable rivers and the lands adjacent thereto, with such further conditions and limitations as will observe all the provisions of this chapter in relation to the working thereof and the payment of taxes on the gross proceeds of the same: Provided, That all expense incurred in complying with said order shall be borne by the owner or owners of such mine or mines: And provided further, That where it shall appear to said commission that hydraulic mining may be carried on without injury to the navigation of said navigable rivers and the lands adjacent thereto, an order may be made authorizing such mining to be carried on without requiring the construction of any restraining or impounding works or any settling reservoirs: And provided also, That where such an order is made a license to mine, no taxes provided for in this chapter on the gross proceeds of such mining operations shall be collected. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 13, 27 Stat. 509; Feb. 27, 1907, c. 2077, 34 Stat. 1001.)

674. Plans for and supervision of work required by order; permit to commence mining.—Such petitioner or petitioners must within a reasonable time present plans and specifications of all works required to be built in pursuance of said order for examination, correction, and approval by said commission; and thereupon work may immediately commence thereon under the supervision of said commission or representative thereof attached thereto from said Corps of Engineers, who shall inspect same from time to time. Upon completion thereof, if found in every respect to meet the requirements of the said order and said approved plans and specifications, permission shall thereupon be granted to the owner or owners of such mine or mines to commence mining operations, subject to the conditions of said order and the provisions of this chapter. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 14, 27 Stat. 509.)

675. Conditions precedent for commencement of mining operations.—No permission granted to a mine owner or owners under this chapter shall take effect, so far as regards the working of a mine, until all impounding dams or other restraining works, if any are prescribed by the order granting such permission, have been completed and until the impounding dams or other restraining works or settling reservoirs provided by said commission have reached such a stage as, in the opinion of said commission, it is safe to use the same: Provided, however, That if said commission shall be of the opinion that the restraining and other works already constructed at the mine or mines shall be sufficient to protect the navigable rivers of said systems and the work of said commission, then the owner or owners of such mine or mines may be permitted to commence operations. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 15, 27 Stat. 509.)

676. Allotment of expenses for common dumping grounds; location of impounding works.—In case the joint petition referred to in section 671 of this chapter is granted, the commission shall fix the respective amounts to be paid by each owner of such mines toward providing and building necessary impounding dams or other restraining works. In the event of a petition being filed after the entry of such order, or in case the impounding dam or dams or other restraining works have already been constructed and accepted by said commission, the commission shall fix such amount as may be reasonable for the privilege of dumping therein, which amount shall be divided between the original owners of such impounding dams or other restraining works in proportion to the amount respectively paid by each party owning same. The expense of maintaining and protecting such joint dam or works shall be divided among mine owners using the same in such proportion as the commission shall determine. In all cases where it is practicable, restraining and impounding works are to be provided, constructed, and maintained by mine owners near or below the mine or mines before reaching the main tributaries of said navigable waters. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 16, 27 Stat. 509.)

677. Limitation as to quantity of débris washed away.—At no time shall any more débris be permitted to be washed away from any hydraulic mine or mines situated on the tributaries of said rivers and the respective branches of each, worked under the provisions of this chapter, than can be impounded within the restraining works erected. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 17, 27 Stat. 509.)

678. Modification and revocation of permit to mine.—The said commission may at any time, when the condition of the navigable rivers or when the capacities of all impounding and settling facilities erected by mine owners or such as may be provided by Government authority require same, modify the order granting the privilege to mine by the hydraulic mining process so as to reduce amount thereof to meet the capacities of the facilities then in use, or if actually required in order to protect the navigable rivers from damage, may revoke same until the further notice of the commission. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 18, 27 Stat. 509.)

679. Violation of permit to mine; penalty.—An intentional violation on the part of a mine owner or owners, company, or corporation, or the agents or employees of either, of the conditions of the order granted pursuant to section 673 of this chapter, or such modifications thereof as may have been made by said commission, shall work a forfeiture of the privileges thereby conferred, and upon notice being served by the order of said commission upon such owner or owners, company, or corporation, or agent in charge, work shall immediately cease. Said commission shall take necessary steps to enforce its orders in case of the failure, neglect, or refusal of such owner or owners, company, or corporation, or agents thereof, to comply therewith, or in the event of any person or persons, company, or corporation working by said process in said territory contrary to law. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 19, 27 Stat. 510.)

680. Examination of mines; reports.—Said commission, or a committee therefrom, or officer of said corps assigned to duty under its orders, shall, whenever deemed necessary, visit said territory and all mines operating under the provisions of this chapter. A report of such examination shall be placed on file. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 20, 27 Stat. 510.)

681. Use of public lands and materials; withdrawal of lands required from sale or entry.—The said commission is hereby granted the right to use any of the public lands of the United States, or any rock, stone, timber, trees, brush, or material thereon or therein, for any of the purposes of this chapter; and the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized and requested, after notice has been filed with the Commissioner of the General Land Office by said commission, setting forth what public lands are required by it under the authority of this section, that such land or lands shall be withdrawn from sale and entry under the laws of the United States. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 21, 27 Stat. 511.)

682. Malicious injury to works; injury to navigable waters by hydraulic mining; penalty.—Any person or persons who willfully or maliciously injure, damage, or destroy, or attempt to injure, damage, or destroy, any dam or other work erected under the provisions of this chapter for restraining, impounding, or settling purposes, or for use in connection therewith, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not to exceed the sum of $5,000 or be imprisoned not to exceed five years, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. And any person or persons, company or corporation, their agents or employees, who shall mine by the hydraulic process directly or indirectly injuring the navigable waters of the United States, in violation of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $5,000, or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 22, 27 Stat. 511.)

683. Tax on gross proceeds of hydraulic mines; "débris fund"; advances by mine owners.—Upon the construction by the said commission of dams or other works for the detention of débris from hydraulic mines and the issuing of the order provided for by this chapter to any individual, company, or corporation to work any mine or mines by hydraulic process, the individual, company or corporation operating thereunder working any mine or mines by hydraulic process, the débris from which flows into or is in whole or in part restrained by such dams or other works erected by said commission, shall pay a tax of 3 per centum on the gross proceeds of his, their, or its mine so worked; which tax of 3 per centum shall be ascertained and paid in accordance with regulations to be adopted by the Secretary of the Treasury, and the Treasurer of the United States is hereby authorized to receive the same. All sums of money paid into the Treasury under this section shall be set apart and credited to a fund to be known as the "Débris Fund," and shall be expended by said commission under the supervision of the Chief of Engineers and direction of the Secretary of War, in addition to the appropriations made by law in the construction and maintenance of such restraining works and settling reservoirs as may be proper and necessary: Provided, That said commission is hereby authorized to receive and pay into the Treasury from the owner or owners of mines worked by the hydraulic process, to whom permission may have been granted so to work under the provisions of this chapter, such money advances as may be offered to aid in the construction of such impounding dams or other restraining works, or settling reservoirs, or sites therefor, as may be deemed necessary by said commission to protect the navigable channels of said river systems, on condition that all moneys so advanced shall be refunded as the said tax is paid into the said débris fund: And provided further, That in no event shall the Government of the United States be held liable to refund same except as directed by this section. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 23, 27 Stat. 511.)

684. Cooperation by commission with State authorities.—For the purpose of securing harmony of action and economy in expenditures in the work to be done by the United States and the State of California, respectively, the former in its plans for the improvement and protection of the navigable streams and to prevent the depositing of mining débris or other materials within the same, and the latter in its plans authorized by law for the reclamation, drainage, and protection of its lands, or relating to the working of hydraulic mines, the said commission is empowered to consult thereon with a commission of engineers of said State, if authorized by said State for said purpose, the result of such conference to be reported to the Chief of Engineers of the United States Army, and if by him approved shall be followed by said commission. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 24, 27 Stat. 511.)

685. Construction by commission of restraining works, etc.; use of débris fund.—Said commission, in order that such material as is now or may hereafter be lodged in the tributaries of the Sacramento and San Joaquin River systems resulting from mining operations, natural erosion, or other causes, shall be prevented from injuring the said navigable rivers or such of the tributaries of either as may be navigable and the land adjacent thereto, is hereby directed and empowered, when appropriations are made therefor by law, or sufficient money is deposited for that purpose in said débris fund, to build at such points above the head of navigation in said rivers and on the main tributaries thereof, or branches of such tributaries, or any place adjacent to the same, which in the judgment of said commission, will effect said object (the same to be of such material as will insure safety and permarency), such restraining or impounding dams and settling reservoirs, with such canals, locks, or other works adapted and required to complete same. The recommendations contained in Executive Document Numbered 267, Fifty-first Congress, second session, and Executive Document Numbered 98, Forty-seventh Congress, first session, as far as they refer to impounding dams, or other restraining works, are hereby adopted, and the same are directed to be made the basis of operations. (Mar. 1, 1893, c. 183, § 25, 27 Stat. 511.)

686. Construction of restraining works in conjunction with State.—The Secretary of War, in expending appropriations in the preparation for and construction of works for the restraining or impounding of mining débris in the State of California, is authorized to enter into an agreement that the contractor shall look solely to the State of California for one-half of such expense, to be paid out of said State's appropriation, and the United States shall in nowise be liable for said one-half.

The Secretary of War, in carrying out the provisions of any Act of Congress, providing for the restraining or impounding of mining débris in California, may, in his discretion, when in his judgment the aggregate of appropriations already made by said State and Congress and available therefor are sufficient to complete the same, undertake the works necessary thereto by hired labor and by purchase of supplies and materials therefor, and may accept payments on account thereof as the work progresses under and according to the provisions of the acts of the legislature of said State for such purposes. (July 1, 1898, c. 546, 30 Stat. 631; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 425, § 1, 30 Stat. 1148.)

687. Use of State dredge and appliances in river and harbor improvements.—The Secretary of War is authorized to accept from the State of California the use of any dredger, or appliances owned or controlled by said State, conformably to any offer thereof by the said State; and the Secretary of War is authorized to use any such dredger or appliances in any river or harbor improvement that may be prosecuted therein by the United States, either on the part of the United States alone or conjointly with said State: Provided, That nothing shall be paid to the State of California for the use of said dredger, and that nothing herein contained shall create any liability against the United States. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 425, § 1, 30 Stat. 1148.)

Chapter 15.—FLOOD CONTROL.

Sec.
701. Flood control generally.
702. Mississippi River.
703. Sacramento River, California.

Section 701. Flood control generally.—Laws applicable to works of improvement relating to flood control.—All the provisions of existing law relating to examinations and surveys and to works of improvement of rivers and harbors shall apply, so far as applicable, to examinations and surveys and to works of improvement relating to flood control. And all expenditures of funds appropriated for works and projects relating to flood control shall be made in accordance with and subject to the law governing the disbursement and expenditure of funds appropriated for the improvement of rivers and harbors.

Examinations and surveys; details from Government departments; reports.—All examinations and surveys of projects relating to flood control shall include a comprehensive study of the watershed or watersheds, and the report thereon in addition to any other matter upon which a report is required shall give such data as it may be practicable to secure in regard to (a) the extent and character of the area to be affected by the proposed improvement; (b) the probable effect upon any navigable water or waterway; (c) the possible economical development and utilization of water power; and (d) such other uses as may be properly related to or coordinated with the project. And the heads of the several departments of the Government may, in their discretion, and shall upon the request of the Secretary of War, detail representatives from their respective departments to assist the Engineers of the Army in the study and examination of such watersheds, to the end that duplication of work may be avoided and the various services of the Government economically coordinated therein: Provided, That all reports on preliminary examinations hereafter authorized, together with the report of the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors thereon and the separate report of the representative of any other department, shall be submitted to the Secretary of War by the Chief of Engineers, with his recommendations, and shall be transmitted by the Secretary of War to the House of Representatives, and are hereby ordered to be printed when so made.

Reports by Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors.—In the consideration of all works and projects relating to flood control which may be submitted to the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors for consideration and recommendation, said board shall, in addition to any other matters upon which it may be required to report, state its opinion as to (a) what Federal interest, if any, is involved in the proposed improvement; (b) what share of the expense, if any, should be borne by the United States; and (c) the advisability of adopting the project.

Aiding Committee on Flood Control.—All examinations and reports which may now be made by the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors upon request of the Committee on Rivers and Harbors relating to works or projects of navigation shall in like manner be made upon request of the Committee on Flood Control on all works and projects relating to flood control. (Mar. 1, 1917, c. 144, § 3, 39 Stat. 950.)

702. Mississippi River.—Authorization of flood-control work.—For controlling the floods of the Mississippi River and continuing its improvement from the Head of the Passes to the mouth of the Ohio River the Secretary of War is hereby empowered, authorized, and directed to carry on continuously, by hired labor or otherwise, the plans of the Mississippi River Commission, prior to March 3, 1923, or thereafter adopted, to be paid for as appropriations may from time to time be made by law; and a sum not to exceed $10,000,000 annually is hereby authorized to be appropriated for that purpose, for a period of six years beginning July 1, 1924.

How appropriations expended.—(a) All money appropriated under authority of this section shall be expended under the direction of the Secretary of War in accordance with the plans, specifications, and recommendations of the Mississippi River Commission as approved by the Chief of Engineers, for controlling the floods and for the general improvement of the Mississippi River, and for surveys, including the survey from the Head of the Passes to the headwaters of the river, and a survey of the Atchafalaya Outlet so far as may be necessary to determine the cost of protecting its basin from the flood waters of the Mississippi River either by its divorcement from the Mississippi River or by other means, and for salaries, clerical, office, traveling, and miscellaneous expenses of the Mississippi River Commission.

Contributions by local interests to levee work.—(b) No money appropriated under authority of this section shall be expended in the construction or repair of any levee unless and until assurances have been given satisfactory to the commission that local interests protected thereby will contribute for such construction and repair a sum which the commission shall determine to be just and equitable but which shall not be less than one-half of such sum as may have been allotted by the commission for such work: Provided, That such contributions shall be expended under the direction of the commission, or in such manner as it may require or approve, but no contribution made by any State or levee district shall be expended in any other State or levee district except with the approval of the authorities of the State or district so contributing.

Improvements between Head of Passes and Rock Island.—(c) Any funds which may be appropriated under authority of this section and which may be allotted to works of flood control, may be expended upon any part of the Mississippi River between the Head of the Passes and Rock Island, Illinois, and upon the tributaries and outlets of said river in so far as they may be affected by the flood waters of said river.

Expenditure of appropriations for rights of way.—(d) No money appropriated under authority of this section shall be expended in payment for any right of way for any levee which may be constructed in cooperation with any State or levee district under authority of this section, but all such rights of way shall be provided free of cost to the United States: Provided, That no money paid or expense incurred by any State or levee district in securing such rights of way, or in any temporary works of emergency during an impending flood, or for the maintenance of any levee line, shall be computed as a part of the contribution of such State or levee district toward the construction or repair of any levee within the meaning of paragraph (b) of this section.

Allotments for improvement of watercourses connected with Mississippi River.—The watercourses connected with the Mississippi River to such extent as may be necessary to exclude the flood waters from the upper limits of any delta basin, together with the Ohio River from its mouth to the mouth of the Cache River, may, in the discretion of said commission, receive allotments for improvements under way March 1, 1917, or thereafter to be undertaken.

Maintenance of levees constructed for flood control.—Upon the completion of any levee constructed for flood control under authority of this section, said levee shall be turned over to the levee district protected thereby for maintenance thereafter; but for all other purposes the United States shall retain such control over the same as it may have the right to exercise upon such completion. (Mar. 1, 1917, c. 144, § 1, 39 Stat. 948; Mar. 4, 1923, c. 277, 42 Stat. 1505.)

703. Sacramento River, California.—Flood-control works authorized.—For controlling the floods, removing the débris, and continuing the improvement of the Sacramento River, California, in accordance with the plans of the California Débris Commission, the Secretary of War is authorized and directed to carry on continuously, by hired labor or otherwise, the plan of said commission contained in its report submitted August 10, 1910, and printed in House Document Numbered 81, Sixty-second Congress, first session, as modified by the report of said commission submitted February 8, 1913, approved by the Chief of Engineers of the United States Army and the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors, and printed in Rivers and Harbors Committee Document Numbered 5, Sixty-third Congress, first session, in so far as said plan provides for the rectification and enlargement of river channels and the construction of weirs, to be paid for as appropriations may from time to time be made by law, not to exceed in the aggregate $5,600,000: Provided, That not more than $1,000,000 shall be expended therefor during any one fiscal year.

Limitation on expenditure of appropriations generally.—(a) All money appropriated under authority of this section shall be expended under the direction of the Secretary of War, in accordance with the plans, specifications, and recommendations of the California Débris Commission, as approved by the Chief of Engineers, for the control of floods, removal of débris, and the general improvement of the Sacramento River: Provided, That no money shall be expended under authority of this section until assurances have been given satisfactory to the Secretary of War (a) that the State of California will contribute annually for such work a sum equal to such sum as may be expended annually therefor by the United States under authority of this section; (b) that such equal contributions by the State of California will continue annually until the full equal share of the cost of such work shall have been contributed by said State; and (c) that the river levees contemplated in the report of the California Débris Commission, dated August 10, 1910, will be constructed to such grade and section and within such time as may be required by said commission: Provided further, That said State shall not be required to expend for such work, for any one year, a sum larger than that expended thereon by the United States during the same year: And provided further, That the total contributions so required of the State of California shall not exceed in the aggregate $5,600,000.

Expenditure of contributions by State of California; acquisition of sites, easements, etc.—(b) All money contributed by the State of California, as herein provided, shall be expended under the direction of the California Débris Commission and in such manner as it may require or approve, and no money appropriated under authority of this section shall be expended in the purchase of or payment for any right of way, easement, or land acquired for the purposes of this improvement, but all such rights of way, easements, and lands shall be provided free of cost to the United States: Provided, That no money paid or expense incurred therefor shall be computed as a part of the contribution of the State of California toward the work of improvement herein provided for within the meaning of paragraph (a) of this section.

Maintenance of works for flood control by State of California.—(c) Upon the completion of all works for flood control herein authorized the said works shall be turned over to the State of California for maintenance thereafter; but for all other purposes the United States shall retain such control over the same as it may have the right to exercise upon such completion. (Mar. 1, 1917, c. 144, § 2, 39 Stat. 949.)

Section 711. Establishment of Bureau of Lighthouses; personnel; salaries; annual reports.—There shall be in the Department of Commerce a Bureau of Lighthouses and a Commissioner of Lighthouses, who shall be the head of said bureau, to be appointed by the President, who shall receive a salary of $5,000 per annum. There shall also be in the bureau a deputy commissioner, to be appointed by the President, who shall receive a salary of $4,000 per annum, and a chief clerk, who shall perform the duties of chief clerk and such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Secretary of Commerce or by the commissioner. There shall also be in the bureau such inspectors, clerical assistants, and other employees as may from time to time be authorized by Congress, and there shall also be employed one chief constructing engineer at a salary of $4,000 per annum and one superintendent of naval construction at a salary of $4,000 per annum, both to be appointed by the President. The Commissioner of Lighthouses shall make an annual report to the Secretary of Commerce, who shall transmit the same to Congress at the beginning of each regular session thereof. (June 17, 1910, c. 301, § 4, 36 Stat. 537; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 141, § 1, 37 Stat. 736; June 5, 1920, c. 264, § 2, 41 Stat. 1059.)

712. Acting commissioner.—In case of the absence of the Commissioner and Deputy Commissioner of the Bureau of Lighthouses, the Secretary of Commerce may designate some officer of said bureau to perform the duties of the commissioner during his absence. (July 27, 1912, c. 255, § 2, 37 Stat. 239.)

713. Regulations for Lighthouse Service generally.—The Commissioner of Lighthouses, under the direction and control of the Secretary of Commerce, shall, from time to time, prescribe and distribute such regulations as he may deem proper for securing an efficient, uniform, and economic administration of the Lighthouse Service. (June 17, 1910, c. 301, § 10, 36 Stat. 538.)

714. Transfer of duties of Lighthouse Board.—All duties performed and all power and authority possessed or exercised by the Lighthouse Board, prior to July 1, 1910, under any provision of law not repealed by Act, are transferred to and imposed and conferred upon and vested in the Commissioner of Lighthouses, under the direction and control of the Secretary of Commerce. (June 17, 1910, c. 301, § 6, 36 Stat. 538.)

715. Transfer of employees.—All employees of or in the Lighthouse Board or the Lighthouse Establishment, on July 1, 1910, are transferred to the Bureau of Lighthouses, excepting, however, Army and Navy officers. (June 17, 1910, c. 301, § 5, 36 Stat. 537.)

716. Employment of temporary draftsmen.—The Commissioner of Lighthouses is authorized to employ temporarily draftsmen for the preparation of plans for tenders and light vessels which may be authorized by Congress, to be paid from the respective appropriations therefor. (June 17, 1910, c. 301, § 9, 36 Stat. 538.)

717. Detail of Army engineers as construction aids.—The President may detail officers of the Engineer Corps of the United States Army for consultation or to superintend the construction or repair of any aid to navigation authorized by Congress. (June 17, 1910, c. 301, § 11, 36 Stat. 538.)

718. Traveling expenses of Army and Navy officers.—Officers of the Army or Navy detailed for service in connection with the Lighthouse Service shall be paid their actual traveling expenses when traveling under orders on official duty to and from points which can not be conveniently reached by vessel or railroad. (Feb. 26, 1907, c. 1638, § 6, 34 Stat. 997.)

719. Additional compensation to civil, military, or naval officers prohibited.—No additional salary shall be allowed to any civil, military, or naval officer on account of his being employed in the Bureau of Lighthouses, or being in any manner attached to the Lighthouse Service. (R. S. § 4679.)

720. General control by Commissioner of Lighthouse Service.—The Commissioner of Lighthouses shall, under the direction and control of the Secretary of Commerce, have charge and control of the construction, maintenance, repair, illumination, inspection, and superintendence of lighthouse depots, supply stations, light and signal stations, lighthouses, light vessels, lighthouse tenders, fog signals, submarine signals, beacons, buoys, day marks, post-lantern lights, and seamarks and their appendages, and generally of the Lighthouse Service; and the charge and custody of all the archives, books, documents, drawings, models, returns, apparatus, and other things appertaining to the Lighthouse Service. (June 17, 1910, c. 301, § 7, 36 Stat. 538.)

721. Power of commissioner to settle claims for damages.—The Commissioner of Lighthouses, subject to the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, is authorized to consider, ascertain, adjust, and determine all claims for damages, where the amount of the claim does not exceed the sum of $500, occasioned by collisions, for which collisions vessels of the Lighthouse Service shall be found to be responsible, and report the amounts so ascertained and determined to be due the claimants to Congress at each session thereof through the Treasury Department for payment as legal claims out of appropriations that may be made by Congress therefor. (June 17, 1910, c. 301, § 4, 36 Stat. 537.)

722. Necessity for contract for expenditure of appropriations.—It shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Lighthouses to apply the money appropriated, other than for surveys, as far as can be without detriment to the interests of the Government, by contract. (July 7, 1884, c. 332, 23 Stat. 198.)

723. Proposals for repair of vessels; specifications.—Any and all proposals for bids for any new machinery or other new equipment necessary in the repair of any vessel in the Lighthouse Service shall be on specifications prepared and submitted that will secure competition in the bids for furnishing such machinery or equipment. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 973.)

724. Contracts for materials; necessity for public letting.—All materials for construction, maintenance, repair, and operation shall be procured by public contracts, under such regulations as may from time to time be prescribed by the commissioner, subject to the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, and no contract shall be made except after public advertisement for proposals in such form and manner as to secure general notice thereof, and the same shall only be made with the lowest and best bidder therefor, upon security deemed sufficient in the judgment of the Commissioner of Lighthouses, but all bids may at any time be rejected by the commissioner: Provided, however, That the Commissioner of Lighthouses may purchase illuminating oil, wicks, and chimneys for lights, and ground tackle for light vessels and buoys, and to an amount not exceeding $500 at any one time, other materials and supplies when immediate delivery is required by an exigency, by private contract or in the open market, if he deems it for the best interests of the service so to do; but such purchases shall be set forth in the annual report of the commissioner with the reasons for purchasing other than upon bids after public advertisement. (June 17, 1910, c. 301, § 8, 36 Stat. 538.)

725. Prohibition against officers and employees being interested in contracts for materials, etc.—No member of the Bureau of Lighthouses, Superintendent of Lighthouses, light keeper, or other person in any manner connected with the Lighthouse Service, shall be interested, either directly or indirectly, in any contract for labor, materials, or supplies for the Lighthouse Service, or in any patent, plan, or mode of construction or illumination, or in any article of supply for the Lighthouse Service. (R. S. § 4680.)

726. Furnishing supplies, etc., for special works from general stock.—Supplies and equipment for special works of the Lighthouse Service may be furnished from general stock and the appropriation "Lighthouse Service, General Expenses," reimbursed therefor from the respective appropriations for special works. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 168, 37 Stat. 1018.)

727. Lighthouse and other sites; necessity for cession by State of jurisdiction.—No lighthouse, beacon, public piers, or landmark, shall be built or erected on any site until cession of jurisdiction over the same has been made to the United States. (R. S. § 4661.)

728. Sufficiency of cession by State; service of State process in lands ceded.—A cession by a State of jurisdiction over a place selected as the site of a lighthouse, or other structure or work of the Lighthouse Service, shall be deemed sufficient within the preceding section, notwithstanding it contains a reservation that process issued under authority of such State may continue to be served within such place. And notwithstanding any such cession of jurisdiction contains no such reservation, all process may be served and executed within the place ceded, in the same manner as if no cession had been made. (R. S. § 4662.)

729. Purchase by commissioner of sites for lighthouses.—The Commissioner of Lighthouses, under the direction of the Secretary of Commerce, is authorized, whenever an appropriation is made by Congress for a new lighthouse, the proper site for which does not belong to the United States, to purchase the necessary land for such site, provided the purchase money be paid from the amount appropriated for such lighthouse without exceeding the limit of cost, if any, fixed in such case. (June 17, 1910, c. 301, § 9, 36 Stat. 538.)

730. Purchase of additional land for lighthouses and depots.—The purchase of necessary additional land for light stations and depots is authorized under rules prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce: Provided, That no single acquisition of such additional land shall cost in excess of $500. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 168, 37 Stat. 1018.)

731. Lease of sites for temporary lights.—The Commissioner of Lighthouses is authorized to lease the necessary ground for all such lights and beacons as are for temporary use or are used to point out changeable channels, and which in consequence can not be made permanent. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 972.)

732. Exchange of right of way pertaining to Lighthouse Service.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized, whenever he shall deem it advisable, to exchange any right of way of the United States in connection with lands pertaining to the Lighthouse Service for such other right of way as may be advantageous to the service, under such terms and conditions as he may deem to be for the best interests of the Government; and in case any expenses, not exceeding the sum of $500, are incurred by the United States in making such exchange, the same shall be payable from the appropriation, "Lighthouse Service, General Expenses," for the fiscal year during which such exchange shall be effected. (Aug. 28, 1916, c. 414, § 2, 39 Stat. 538.)

733. Approval by Attorney General of title to site before expenditure of moneys.—No public money shall be expended upon any site or land purchased by the United States for the purposes of erecting thereon any lighthouse until the written opinion of the Attorney General shall be had in favor of the validity of the title, nor until the consent of the legislature of the State in which the land or site may be, to such purchase, has been given. The district attorneys of the United States, upon the application of the Attorney General, shall furnish any assistance or information in their power in relation to the titles of the public property lying within their respective districts. And the Secretary of Commerce, upon the application of the Attorney General, shall procure any additional evidence of title which he may deem necessary, and which may not be in the possession of the officers of the Government, and the expense of procuring it shall be paid out of the appropriations made for the contingencies of the department. (R. S. § 355.)

734. Coloring and numbering buoys.—All buoys along the coast, or in bays, harbors, sounds, or channels, shall be colored and numbered, so that passing up the coast or sound, or entering the bay, harbor, or channel, red buoys with even numbers shall be passed on the starboard hand, black buoys with uneven numbers on the port hand, and buoys with red and black stripes on either hand. Buoys in channel ways shall be colored with alternate white and black perpendicular stripes. (R. S. § 4678.)

735. Marking pierheads in certain lakes.—The Commissioner of Lighthouses shall properly mark all pierheads belonging to the United States situated on the northern and northwestern lakes, whenever he is duly notified by the department charged with the construction or repair of pierheads that the construction or repair of any such pierheads has been completed. (R. S. § 4677.)

736. Placing warnings over obstructions.—The Commissioner of Lighthouses may, when he deems it is necessary, place a light vessel, or other suitable warning of danger, on or over any wreck or temporary obstruction to the entrance of any harbor, or in the channel or fairway of any bay or sound. (R. S. § 4676.)

737. Maintenance of anchorage buoys in New York and Philadelphia Harbors.—It is hereby made the duty of the Commissioner of Lighthouses to care for and maintain the anchorage buoys in New York Harbor and Philadelphia Harbor placed there by the United States prior to May 14, 1908. (May 14, 1908, c. 168, § 4, 35 Stat. 162.)

(See also section 472.)

738. Cooperation with Coast Guard in marking anchorage grounds in New York and Hampton Roads Harbors.—The Lighthouse Service shall cooperate with the Coast Guard in marking anchorage grounds in the harbors of New York and Hampton Roads by furnishing and maintaining buoys necessary for such purposes. (June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 880.)

739. Substitution of lighthouses for lightships.—Whenever any of the light vessels occupying positions which are adapted to the erection of lighthouses upon pile foundations require to be rebuilt, or require such extensive repairs as to render the substitution of such lighthouses advisable and practicable, such permanent structures may be erected in place of any such light vessels; but the expense arising from all such changes and erections shall be defrayed from the general annual appropriations for repairs, and so forth, of light vessels, except when a special appropriation is made for such change. (R. S. § 4668.)

740. Post-lantern lights, etc., on particular waters authorized.—Post-lantern lights and other aids to navigation may be established and maintained, in the discretion of the Commissioner of Lighthouses, out of the annual appropriations for the Bureau of Lighthouses on Lakes Okechobee and Hicpochee and connecting waterways across the State of Florida and on the Apalachicola River and Chipola cut-off; on the Mobile, Tombigbee, Warrior, and Black Warrior Rivers, Alabama, and Lake Tahoe, California and Nevada; on Lakes Union and Washington, in the State of Washington; and on the Yukon River and its tributaries, Alaska. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 81, § 5, 38 Stat. 927; Aug. 28, 1916, c. 414, § 3, 39 Stat. 538; June 20, 1918, c. 103, § 5, 40 Stat. 608; June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 927.)

741. Reports by commissioner as to aids to navigation not needed.—The Secretary of Commerce shall annually cause the Commissioner of Lighthouses to make a report to him for transmission to Congress of all aids to navigation in service which may be discontinued without distinct injury to the interests of navigation. (May 14, 1908, c. 168, § 7, 35 Stat. 162.)

742. Discontinuance and reestablishment of lights.—The Secretary of Commerce may, upon the recommendation of the Commissioner of Lighthouses, discontinue from time to time such lights as may from any cause become useless or unnecessary. And he may, upon the like recommendation, from time to time reestablish any lights which have been thus discontinued, whenever he believes such reestablishment to be required by public convenience or the necessities of trade or commerce. (R. S. § 4674.)

743. Lighthouse districts.—The ocean, gulf, and lake coasts and the rivers of the United States, Porto Rico, and the naval station in Cuba shall be arranged into not exceeding nineteen lighthouse districts. (June 17, 1910, c. 301, § 11, 36 Stat. 538.)

744. Superintendents of lighthouses; salary.—A superintendent of lighthouses shall be assigned in charge of each lighthouse district: Provided, That officers designated as lighthouse inspectors prior to June 20, 1918, shall be transferred to the positions of superintendent of lighthouses herein authorized in lieu of lighthouse inspectors: Provided further, That in the districts which include the Mississippi River and its tributaries the President may designate Army engineers to perform the duties of and act as superintendent of lighthouses without additional compensation. (June 20, 1918, c. 103, § 7, 40 Stat. 608.)

745. Keepers of lighthouses; salary.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized to regulate the salaries of the respective keepers of lighthouses in such manner as he deems just and proper, but the whole sum allowed for such salaries shall not exceed an average of $840 per annum for each keeper; and the authority herein granted to regulate the salaries of keepers of lighthouses shall not be abridged or limited by the provisions of section 629 of chapter 11 of Title 31, MONEY AND FINANCE. (June 20, 1918, c. 103, § 8, 40 Stat. 609.)

747. Medical relief to lighthouse keepers; physical examination before appointment.—Light keepers and assistant light keepers of the Lighthouse Service shall be entitled to medical relief without charge at hospitals and other stations of the Public Health Service under the rules and regulations governing the care of seamen of the merchant marine: Provided, That this benefit shall not apply to any keeper or assistant keeper who receives an original appointment after August 28, 1916, unless the applicant passes a physical examination in accordance with rules approved by the Secretary of Commerce and the Secretary of the Treasury. (Aug. 28, 1916, c. 414, § 5, 39 Stat. 538.)

748. Teachers for children of lighthouse keepers.—The appropriation, "Bureau of Lighthouses, General Expenses," shall be available, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce, for the payment of traveling and subsistence expenses of teachers while actually employed by States or private persons to instruct the children of keepers of lighthouses. (June 20, 1918, c. 103, § 2, 40 Stat. 608.)

749. Reimbursement of lighthouse keepers, and so forth, for clothing, etc., furnished shipwrecked persons.—Reimbursement, under rules prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce, is authorized to keepers of light stations and masters of light vessels and of lighthouse tenders for rations and provisions and clothing furnished shipwrecked persons who may be temporarily provided for by them, not exceeding in all $5,000 in any fiscal year. (July 27, 1912, c. 255, § 2, 37 Stat. 230.)

750. Leave of absence to salaried employees.—Employees of the Lighthouse Service, who were not, prior to August 1, 1914, entitled to leave of absence with pay and who have served twelve consecutive months, shall be given fifteen days' leave of absence with pay each year: Provided, That pro rata leave shall be allowed those serving fractional parts of a year: Provided further, That heads of divisions shall have discretion as to the time when the leave shall be granted. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 223, § 1, 38 Stat. 658.)

751. Leave of absence to per diem employees.—Employees of the Lighthouse Service compensated at a per diem rate of pay may be granted fifteen working days' leave of absence each year without forfeiture of pay during such absence, under rules prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce: Provided, That no employee of the class herein mentioned shall be entitled to any leave until he has served twelve consecutive months, when he may be granted fifteen days' leave, and that during the second or any subsequent year fifteen days' leave at the rate of one and one-fourth days per month, as earned, may be granted from the beginning of the second service year: Provided further, That the superintendents of the several lighthouse districts shall have discretion as to the time when the leave can be allowed without detriment to the service, and that absence on account of sickness shall be deducted from the leave hereby granted. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 81, § 4, 38 Stat. 927.)

752. Sale of condemned supplies, etc., and land not needed; disposition of moneys.—When any condemned supplies, materials, equipment, or land can not be profitably used in the work of the Lighthouse Service the same shall be appraised and sold, either by sealed proposals for the purchase of the same or by public auction after advertisement of the sale for such time as in the judgment of the Secretary of Commerce the public interests require, the proceeds of such sales, after the payment therefrom of the expenses of making the sales, to be deposited and covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts as now provided for by law in like cases. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 168, 37 Stat. 1018.)

753. Sale of publications of bureau.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized to provide, under regulations to be prescribed by him, for the sale of publications of the Bureau of Lighthouses and the Lighthouse Service, including the allowance of a commission for such sales. (June 20, 1918, c. 103, § 4, 40 Stat. 608.)

754. Sale of clothing to employees.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized to purchase, from the appropriations for the Bureau of Lighthouses, clothing for the crews of vessels, to be sold to the employees of said service and the appropriations reimbursed. (July 27, 1912, c. 255, § 2, 37 Stat. 230.)

755. Police powers of masters of lighthouse tenders.—Masters of lighthouse tenders shall have police powers in matters pertaining to Government property and smuggling. (June 16, 1880, c. 235, 21 Stat. 263.)

756. Use of appropriations for cooperation with Forest Service.—The annual appropriations for the Bureau of Lighthouses, Lighthouse Service, shall be available for defraying the expenses of cooperation between the Lighthouse Service and the Forest Service in the management of forest land on lighthouse reservations. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 81, § 6, 38 Stat. 928.)

757. Cooperation with War and Navy Departments in time of or in preparation for war.—The Secretary of the Navy, the Secretary of War, and the Secretary of Commerce shall jointly prescribe regulations governing the duties to be performed by the Lighthouse Service in time of war, and for the cooperation of that service with the Navy and War Departments in time of peace in preparation for its duties in war, and this may include arrangements for a direct line of communication between the officers or bureaus of the Navy and War Departments and the Bureau of Lighthouses to provide for immediate action on all communications from these departments. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417. 39 Stat. 602.)

758. Transfer of vessels, equipment, etc., to Navy or War Department in case of national emergency.—The President is authorized, whenever in his judgment a sufficient national emergency exists to transfer to the service and jurisdiction of the Navy Department, or of the War Department, such vessels, equipment, stations, and personnel of the Lighthouse Service as he may deem to the best interest of the country and after such transfer all expenses connected therewith shall be defrayed out of the appropriations for the department to which transfer is made: Provided, That such vessels, equipment, stations, and personnel shall be returned to the Lighthouse Service when such national emergency ceases in the opinion of the President, and nothing in this or the preceding section shall be construed as transferring the Lighthouse Service or any of its functions from the Department of Commerce except in time of national emergency and to the extent herein provided: Provided further, That any of the personnel of the Lighthouse Service who may be transferred as herein provided shall, while under the jurisdiction of the Navy Department or War Department, be subject to the laws, regulations, and orders for the government of the Navy or Army, as the case may be, in so far as the same may be applicable to persons whose retention permanently in the military service of the United States is not contemplated by law. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 602.)

759. Unauthorized establishment of lights, etc.; penalty.—After the 1st day of January, 1907, it shall be unlawful for any person, company, corporation, or municipality not under the control of the Commissioner of Lighthouses, to establish, erect, or maintain in the navigable waters of the United States any light as an aid to navigation, or any other aid to navigation similar to any of those maintained by the United States under the control and direction of the Commissioner of Lighthouses, without first obtaining permission so to do from the Commissioner of Lighthouses, in accordance with rules and regulations to be established by the Secretary of Commerce; and any person violating the provisions of this section or any of the rules and regulations established by the Secretary of Commerce in accordance herewith shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be subject to a fine not exceeding the sum of $100 for each offense, and each day during which such violation shall continue shall be considered as a new offense. (June 20, 1906, c. 3447, § 3, 34 Stat. 324; June 17, 1910, c. 301, § 6, 36 Stat. 538.)

760. Failure to maintain, etc., lights on bridges; penalty.—Any person, firm, company, or corporation required by law to maintain a light or lights upon any bridge or abutments over or in any navigable waters, who shall fail or refuse to maintain such light or lights, or to obey any of the lawful rules and regulations relating to the same, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be subject to a fine not exceeding the sum of $100 for each offense, and each day during which such violation shall continue shall be considered as a new offense. (May 14, 1908, c. 168, § 5, 35 Stat. 162.)

761. Wrongful interference with Government aids to navigation; penalty.—It shall be unlawful for any person to obstruct or interfere with any aid to navigation established or maintained in the Lighthouse Service under the Commissioner of Lighthouses, or to anchor any vessel in any of the navigable waters of the United States so as to obstruct or interfere with range lights maintained therein, and any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and be subject to a fine not exceeding the sum of $500 for each offense, and each day during which such violation shall continue shall be considered as a new offense. (May 14, 1908, c. 168, § 6, 35 Stat. 162.)

762. Wrongful interference with private aids to navigation; penalty.—The penalties provided in the preceding section for obstruction to or interference with any aid to navigation maintained by the Lighthouse Service shall apply with equal force and effect to any private aid to navigation lawfully maintained under the authority granted the Secretary of Commerce and the Commissioner of Lighthouses by section 759 of this chapter. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 81, § 8, 38 Stat. 928.)

763. Retirement for age of officers and employees generally.—All officers and employees engaged in the field service or on vessels of the Lighthouse Service, except persons continuously employed in district offices or shops, who shall have reached the age of sixty-five years, after having been thirty years in the active service of the Government, may at their option be retired from further performance of duty; and all such officers and employees who shall have reached the age of seventy years shall be compulsorily retired from further performance of duty: Provided, That the annual compensation of persons so retired shall be a sum equal to one-fortieth of the average annual pay received for the last five years of service for each year of active service in the Lighthouse Service or in a department or branch of the Government having a retirement system, not to exceed in any case thirty-fortieths of such average annual pay received: Provided further, That such retirement pay shall not include any amount on account of subsistence or other allowance: Provided further, That the retirement provisions and pay shall not apply to persons in the field service of the Lighthouse Service whose duties do not require substantially all their time. (June 20, 1918, c. 103, § 6, 40 Stat. 608; Nov. 4, 1918, c. 201, § 1, 40 Stat. 1036.)

764. Privilege to employee to continue service after retirement age.—The provision of the preceding section shall not apply to an employee of the Lighthouse Service if within sixty days after March 4, 1921, or not less than thirty days before the arrival of such employee at the age of seventy, the Secretary of Commerce shall certify as a matter of public record that by reason of his efficiency and willingness to remain in the Lighthouse Service of the United States the continuance of such employee therein would be advantageous to the public service. In that event such employee may be retained for a term not exceeding two years, and at the end of two years such employee may, by similar certification, be continued for an additional term not exceeding two years: Provided, however, That at the end of ten years after March 4, 1921, no employee shall be continued in the Lighthouse Service beyond the age of compulsory retirement defined in the preceding section: Provided further, That nothing herein shall exclude or prevent any employee of the Lighthouse Service who shall have reached the age of compulsory retirement within thirty days before or after March 4, 1921, from enjoying the privileges thereof. (Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1417.)

765. Retirement for disability.—Any officer or employee to whom the second preceding section applies, who has been in the active service of the Government fifteen years or more and who is found, after examination by a medical officer of the United States, to be disabled for useful and efficient service by reason of disease or injury not due to vicious habits, intemperance or willful misconduct on his part, shall be retired under rules to be prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce on an annuity computed in the manner provided in such second preceding section. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 523, § 1, 43 Stat. 1261.)

766. Restoration to active duty after retirement for disability.—Any officer or employee retired under the preceding section may, upon recovery, be restored to active duty, and shall from time to time, before reaching the age at which he may be retired under the third preceding section, be reexamined by a medical officer of the United States upon the request of the Secretary of Commerce. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 523, § 2, 43 Stat. 1262.)

767. Oaths of office of employees; power to administer.—Chief clerks in offices of superintendents of lighthouses and employees designated by them are authorized to administer oaths of office to employees of the Lighthouse Service. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 81, § 7, 38 Stat. 928.)

768. Oaths to expense accounts.—Chief clerks in the offices of superintendents of lighthouses or other employees in the Lighthouse Service designated by them, are required, empowered, and authorized, when requested, to administer oaths, required by law or otherwise, to accounts for travel or other expenses against the United States, with like force and effect as officers having a seal; for such services when so rendered, or when rendered on demand by notaries public, who at the time are also salaried officers or employees of the United States, no charge shall be made; and no fee or money paid for the services herein described shall be paid or reimbursed by the United States. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 355, § 8, 37 Stat. 487; Mar. 3, 1915, c. 81, § 7, 38 Stat. 928.)

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 851. Commissioned personnel; relative rank with Navy; retired officers; assistant director.—There are in the Coast and Geodetic Survey, commissioned officers as follows: One director with relative rank of captain in the Navy; two hydrographic and geodetic engineers with relative rank of captain in the Navy; seven hydrographic and geodetic engineers with relative rank of commander in the Navy; nine hydrographic and geodetic engineers with relative rank of lieutenant commander in the Navy; thirty-eight hydrographic and geodetic engineers with relative rank of lieutenant in the Navy; fifty-five junior hydrographic and geodetic engineers with relative rank of lieutenant (junior grade) in the Navy; twenty-nine aids with relative rank of ensign in the Navy, and officers retired in accordance with law: Provided, That the Secretary of Commerce may designate one of the hydrographic and geodetic engineers to act as assistant director. (Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title III, 43 Stat. 1046.)

852. Director; appointment; pay and allowances.—The title of "Superintendent" of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, existing prior to June 5, 1920, is as of that date changed to "Director." The Director of the Coast and Geodetic Survey shall have the relative rank, pay, and allowances of a captain in the Navy, and he shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, from the list of commissioned officers of the Coast and Geodetic Survey not below the rank of commander for a term of four years, and may be reappointed for further periods of four years each. (June 4, 1920, c. 228, § 1, 41 Stat. 825; June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 929.)

853. Power of director to settle claims.—The Director of the Coast and Geodetic Survey, subject to the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, is hereby authorized to consider, ascertain, adjust, and determine all claims for damages, where the amount of the claim does not exceed $500, occasioned, subsequent to June 5, 1920, by acts for which the Coast and Geodetic Survey shall be found to be responsible, and report the amounts so ascertained and determined to be due the claimants to Congress at each session thereof through the Treasury Department for payment as legal claims out of appropriations that may be made by Congress therefor. (June 5, 1920, c. 256, 41 Stat. 1054.)

854. Qualification of officers for appointment or promotion generally.—No person shall be appointed aid or shall be promoted from aid to junior hydrographic and geodetic engineer or from junior hydrographic and geodetic engineer to hydrographic and geodetic engineer until after passing a satisfactory mental and physical examination conducted in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce. (May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 16, 40 Stat. 88.)

855. Cooperation with and transfer to Army or Navy generally.—The President is authorized, whenever in his judgment a sufficient national emergency exists, to transfer to the service and jurisdiction of the War Department, or of the Navy Department, such vessels, equipment, stations, and personnel of the Coast and Geodetic Survey as he may deem to the best interest of the country, and after such transfer all expenses connected therewith shall be defrayed out of the appropriations for the department to which transfer is made: Provided, That such vessels, equipment, stations, and personnel shall be returned to the Coast and Geodetic Survey when such national emergency ceases, in the opinion of the President, and nothing in this section shall be construed as transferring the Coast and Geodetic Survey or any of its functions from the Department of Commerce except in time of national emergency and to the extent herein provided: Provided further, That any of the personnel of the Coast and Geodetic Survey who may be transferred as herein provided, shall, while under the jurisdiction of the War Department or Navy Department, have proper military status and shall be subject to the laws, regulations, and orders for the government of the Army or Navy, as the case may be, in so far as the same may be applicable to persons whose retention permanently in the military service of the United States is not contemplated by law. (May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 16, 40 Stat. 87.)

856. Relative rank of officers when serving with Army or Navy.—When serving with the Army or Navy the relative rank of officers of the Coast and Geodetic Survey shall be as follows:

Hydrographic and geodetic engineers with rank of captain in the Navy shall rank with and after colonels in the Army and captains in the Navy.

Hydrographic and geodetic engineers with rank of commander in the Navy shall rank with and after lieutenant colonels in the Army and commanders in the Navy.

Hydrographic and geodetic engineers with rank of lieutenant commander in the Navy shall rank with and after majors in the Army and lieutenant commanders in the Navy.

Hydrographic and geodetic engineers with rank of lieutenant in the Navy shall rank with and after captains in the Army and lieutenants in the Navy.

Junior hydrographic and geodetic engineers shall rank with and after first lieutenants in the Army and lieutenants (junior grade) in the Navy.

Aids shall rank with and after second lieutenants in the Army and ensigns in the Navy.

And nothing in this section shall be construed to affect or alter their rates of pay and allowances when not assigned to military duty as hereinbefore mentioned. (May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 16, 40 Stat. 88.)

857. Disability, etc., benefits when cooperating with Army or Navy.—While actually employed in active service under direct orders of the War Department or of the Navy Department members of the Coast and Geodetic Survey shall receive the benefit of all provisions of law relating to disability incurred in line of duty or loss of life. (May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 16, 40 Stat. 88.)

858. Rules and regulations when cooperating with Army or Navy.—The Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, and the Secretary of Commerce shall jointly prescribe regulations governing the duties to be performed by the Coast and Geodetic Survey in time of war, and for the cooperation of that service with the War and Navy Departments in time of peace in preparations for its duties in war, which regulations shall not be effective unless approved by each of the said Secretaries, and included therein may be rules and regulations for making reports and communications between the officers or bureaus of the War and Navy Departments and the Coast and Geodetic Survey. (May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 16, 40 Stat. 88.)

859. Pay and allowances of commissioned officers generally.—The commissioned officers of the Coast and Geodetic Survey are entitled to pay and allowances as provided in Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, 42 Stat. 625–633.)

860. Pay and allowances of naval officers made applicable to Coast and Geodetic Survey generally.—Commissioned officers of the Coast and Geodetic Survey shall receive the same pay and allowances as are or hereafter may be prescribed for officers of the Navy with whom they hold relative rank, including longevity. (May 18, 1920, c. 190, § 11, 41 Stat. 603.)

861. Expenses when traveling on Government-owned vessels.—Officers of the Coast and Geodetic Survey performing travel by Government-owned vessels for which no transportation fare is charged shall only be entitled to reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred. (Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title III, 43 Stat. 1046.)

862. Assignments of pay.—Scientific and other employees of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, while employed outside of the District of Columbia, are hereby authorized to make assignments of their pay, under such regulations as the Secretary of Commerce may prescribe. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, 34 Stat. 1322.)

863. Leave of absence; accrued leave while on duty in Philippines.—The Secretary of Commerce, at his discretion, may grant to officers of the field force of the Coast and Geodetic Survey on duty in the Philippine Islands, at one time the whole or any portion of the annual leave accrued and unused during a period of three years. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 974.)

864. Retirement of officers generally.—All laws relating to the retirement of commissioned officers of the Navy shall, after May 18, 1920, apply to commissioned officers of the Coast and Geodetic Survey. (May 18, 1920, c. 190, § 11, 41 Stat. 603.)

865. Computation of length of service of officers; service at Naval or Military Academy.—In computing for any purpose the length of service of any officer of the Coast and Geodetic Survey who was appointed to the United States Naval Academy or to the United States Military Academy after March 4, 1913, the time spent at either academy shall not be counted. (May 28, 1924, c. 203, 43 Stat. 194.)

866. Seismological investigations.—The Coast and Geodetic Survey is hereby authorized to make investigations and reports in seismology, including such investigations as have been, prior to January 31, 1925, performed by the Weather Bureau. (Jan. 31, 1925, c. 121, 43 Stat. 802.)

867. Transfer of instruments to institutions.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized to transfer, under such rules and regulations as he may deem advisable, to educational institutions and to museums, such instruments of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey as, in his judgment, are of historical value but of no further use in the work of that survey, except such historical instruments as may be needed by the Smithsonian Institution for exhibit at the National Museum. (June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 930.)

868. Purchase of supplies or procurement of services in field.—The purchase by the Coast and Geodetic Survey of supplies or the procurement of services outside the District of Columbia may be made in the open market in the manner common among business men when the aggregate amount of the purchase does not exceed $50. (July 1, 1918, c. 113, § 1, 40 Stat. 688.)

SURVEYS

881. Authority of President to order surveys of coast.—The President is authorized to cause a survey to be taken of the coasts of the United States, in which shall be designated the islands and shoals, with the roads or places of anchorage, within twenty leagues of any part of the shores of the United States; and also the respective courses and distances between the principal capes or headlands, together with such other matters as he may deem proper for completing an accurate chart of every part of the coasts. (R. S. § 4681.)

882. Additional authority to order surveys beyond twenty-league limit.—The President may also cause such examinations and observations to be made with respect to Saint George's Bank, and to any other bank, or shoal, and the soundings and currents, although beyond the distance of twenty leagues from the shore to the Gulf Stream, as he may deem especially subservient to the commercial interests of the United States. (R. S. § 4682.)

883. Mode of conducting surveys generally.—All appropriations made for the work of surveying the coast of the United States shall, unless otherwise provided by law, be expended in accordance with the plan of reorganizing the mode of executing the survey which has been submitted to the President by a board of officers organized under the Act of March 3, 1843, chapter 100.

The President shall carry into effect the plan of the board, as agreed upon by a majority of its members; and shall cause to be employed as many officers of the Army and Navy of the United States as will be compatible with the successful prosecution of the work; the officers of the Navy to be employed on the hydrographical parts, and the officers of the Army on the topographical parts of the work; and no officer of the Army or Navy shall receive any extra pay out of any appropriations for surveys. (R. S. §§ 4683, 4684.)

884. Power to use books, maps, etc., and to employ persons.—The President is authorized, in executing the foregoing provisions relating to the coast survey, to use all maps, charts, books, instruments, and apparatus belonging to the United States, and to direct where the same shall be deposited, and to employ all persons in the land or naval service of the United States, and such astronomers and other persons as he shall deem proper. (R. S. § 4685.)

885. Power to use public vessels.—The President is authorized, for any of the purposes of surveying the coast of the United States, to cause to be employed such of the public vessels in actual service as he deems it expedient to employ, and to give such instructions for regulating their conduct as he deems proper, according to the tenor of this chapter. (R. S. § 4686.)

886. Manner of employment of officers of Army or Navy.—Officers of the Army and Navy shall, as far as practicable, be employed in the work of surveying the coast of the United States, whenever and in the manner required by the department having charge thereof. (R. S. § 4687.)

887. Allowance for subsistence to officers of Army or Navy.—The Secretary of the Treasury may make such allowances to the officers and men of the Army and Navy, while employed on coast survey service, for subsistence, in addition to their compensation, as he may deem necessary, not exceeding the sum authorized by the Treasury regulation of the 11th day of May, 1844: Provided, That there shall be no allowance for subsistence to officers of the Navy attached to the Coast and Geodetic Survey, except that when officers are detached to do work away from their vessels under circumstances involving them in extra expenditures, the superintendent may allow to any such officer subsistence at a rate not exceeding $1 per day for the period actually covered by such duty away from such vessel. (R. S. § 4688; Aug. 30, 1890, c. 837, § 1, 26 Stat. 382.)

888. Report to Congress on coast surveys.—The Secretary of Commerce shall report to Congress annually the number and names of the persons employed during the last preceding fiscal year upon the coast survey and business connected therewith; the amount of compensation of every kind respectively paid them, for what purpose, and the length of time employed; and shall report a full statement of all other expenditures made under the direction of the Director of the Coast and Geodetic Survey.

The coast survey report shall be submitted to Congress during the month of December in each year, and shall be accompanied by a general chart of the whole coasts of the United States, on as large a scale as convenient and practicable, showing, as near as practicable, the configuration of the coasts, and showing, by lines, the probable limits of the Gulf Stream, and showing, by lines, the probable limit to which the soundings off the coast will extend, and showing, by the use of colors and explanations, the exact portions of our coasts, of which complete charts have been published by the coast survey; also, showing such other parts of the coasts of which the triangulation, the topography, and the soundings have been completed, but not published, and, also, such parts of the coasts of which the triangulation and topography, or the triangulation only, have been completed. (R. S. §§ 264, 4690.)

889. Cooperation with North Carolina State Fish Commission in survey of waters of State.—The Secretary of Commerce is authorized and directed, upon the request of the Governor of the State of North Carolina, to designate such officers, experts, and employees of the Coast and Geodetic Survey and of the Bureau of Fisheries as may be necessary to cooperate with the North Carolina State fish commissioner in making a survey of and marking in a prominent manner all those areas of the waters of the sounds and their tributaries of the State in which the use of any or all fishing appliances are prohibited by law; and the Secretary of Commerce is hereby authorized and directed to furnish to the officers, experts, and employees of said bureaus so detailed as aforesaid such instruments, appliances, and steam launches as may be necessary to make the survey aforesaid; and the Secretary of Commerce is hereby authorized to have made in the Coast and Geodetic Survey all the plats necessary to show the results of the aforesaid survey, and to furnish to the fish commissioner of the State of North Carolina such copies as may be necessary for his use, and for this purpose to employ in the District of Columbia and elsewhere such technically qualified persons as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this section. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 313, § 1, 35 Stat. 1064.)

890. Marking triangulation points of North Carolina survey.—The Secretary of Commerce is further authorized to have erected or constructed by the officers detailed as provided in the preceding section, while making said survey, such structures as may be necessary to mark in a prominent and satisfactory manner the points of triangulation so that the same may be used for such future work of the Coast and Geodetic Survey as the said Coast and Geodetic Survey may be hereafter required to perform in prosecuting the Government coast survey of the navigable waters of the United States located within the State of North Carolina. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 313, § 2, 35 Stat. 1065.)

GRADES, NUMBER, AND DISTRIBUTION OF LINE AND STAFF

Section 1. Grades of line officers.—The active list of the line officers of the Navy of the United States shall be divided into grades as follows, namely:

First, admirals; second, vice admirals; third, rear admirals; fourth, captains; fifth, commanders; sixth, lieutenant commanders; seventh, lieutenants; eighth, lieutenants (junior grade); ninth, ensigns. (R. S. § 1362; 22 Stat. 472; June 26, 1884, c. 122, 23 Stat. 60; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, 30 Stat. 1004; May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 127, 128; May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 18, 40 Stat. 89; Oct. 6, 1917, c. 105, § 3, 40 Stat. 411.)

2. Number of commissioned officers of line.—The total number of commissioned officers of the active list of the line of the Navy, exclusive of commissioned warrant officers, shall be 4 per centum of the total authorized enlisted strength of the active list, exclusive of the Hospital Corps, prisoners undergoing sentence of discharge, enlisted men detailed for duty with the Naval Militia, and the Flying Corps. (Aug. 29, 1916, 39 Stat. 576.)

3. Number of commissioned officers of staff corps.—The total authorized number of commissioned officers of the active list of the following staff corps, exclusive of commissioned warrant officers, shall be based on percentages of the total number of commissioned officers of the active list of the line of the Navy as follows:

Supply Corps, 12 per centum; Construction Corps, 5 per centum; Corps of Civil Engineers, 2 per centum; and the total authorized number of commissioned officers of the Medical Corps shall be sixty-five one hundredths of 1 per centum of the total authorized number of the officers and enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps, including midshipmen, Hospital Corps, prisoners undergoing sentence of discharge, enlisted men detailed for duty with the Naval Militia, and the Flying Corps: Provided, That hereafter the authorized number of surgeons in the United States Navy be, and it is hereby, increased by one.

Dental Corps.—There shall be one dental officer in the Navy for each thousand of the total authorized number of officers and enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps.

Corps of Chaplains.—The total number of chaplains and acting chaplains in the Navy shall be one to each twelve hundred and fifty of the total personnel of the Navy and Marine Corps as fixed by law, including midshipmen, apprentice seamen, and naval prisoners. (June 30, 1914, c. 130, 38 Stat. 404; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 576, 581; July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 708.)

4. Distribution of commissioned line officers among grades.—The total number of commissioned line officers on the active list at any one time, exclusive of commissioned warrant officers, shall be distributed in the proportion of one of the grade of rear admiral to four in the grade of captain, to seven in the grade of commander, to fourteen in the grade of lieutenant commander, to thirty-two and one-half in the grade of lieutenant, to forty-one and one-half in the grades of lieutenant (junior grade) and ensign, inclusive. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 576.)

5. Distribution of commissioned officers among grades of staff corps.—The total number of commissioned officers of the active list of the following mentioned staff corps at any one time, exclusive of commissioned warrant officers, shall be distributed in the various grades of the respective corps as follows:

Medical Corps: One-half medical directors with the rank of rear admiral to four medical directors with the rank of captain, to eight medical inspectors with rank of commander, to eighty-seven and one-half in the grades below medical inspector.

Supply Corps: One-half pay directors with the rank of rear admiral to four pay directors with the rank of captain, to eight pay inspectors with the rank of commander, to eighty-seven and one-half in the grades below pay inspector.

Construction Corps: One-half naval constructors with the rank of rear admiral to eight and one-half naval constructors with the rank of captain, to fourteen naval constructors with the rank of commander, to seventy-seven naval constructors and assistant naval constructors with rank below commander.

Corps of Civil Engineers: One-half civil engineers with the rank of rear admiral to five and one-half civil engineers with the rank of captain, to fourteen civil engineers with the rank of commander, to eighty civil engineers and assistant civil engineers with the rank below commander. Nothing contained herein shall be held to reduce below that authorized by law prior to August 29, 1916, the number of officers in any grade or rank in the staff corps. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 577.)

6. Distribution in rank of chaplains and acting chaplains.—Of the total number of chaplains and acting chaplains authorized 10 per centum thereof shall have the rank of captain in the Navy, 20 per centum the rank of commander, 20 per centum the rank of lieutenant commander, and the remainder to have the rank of lieutenants and lieutenants, junior grade. (June 30, 1914, c. 130, 38 Stat. 403.)

7. Dates for determining number of officers in various grades and ranks of line and staff.—To determine the authorized number of officers in the various grades and ranks of the line and of the staff corps as provided in sections 4 and 5 computations shall be made by the Secretary of the Navy at least once each year, and at such times as he may direct, and the resulting numbers in the various grades and ranks, as so computed, shall be held and considered for all purposes as the authorized number of officers in such various grades and ranks and shall not be varied between such computations. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 577; July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 139.)

8. Officers excluded from consideration in determining number.—For the purpose of determining the authorized number of officers in any grade or rank of the line or of the staff corps, there shall be excluded from consideration those officers carried by law as additional numbers, including staff officers permanently commissioned prior to August 29, 1916, with the rank of rear admiral. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 577.)

9. Rule where final fraction occurs in computing number of corps, grade, or rank.—Whenever a final fraction occurs in computing the authorized number of any corps, grade, or rank in the naval service, the nearest whole number shall be regarded as the authorized number: Provided, That at least one officer shall be allowed in each grade or rank. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 577.)

10. Rule in case of odd number of rear admirals.—When there is an odd number of officers in the grade or rank of rear admiral in the line or in each corps, the lower division thereof shall include the excess in number, except where there is but one. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 577.)

11. Appointment of commissioned officers of staff corps.—All appointments as commissioned officers of the staff corps of the Navy shall be made by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. (R. S. §§ 1369, 1378, 1395, 1402, 1413; July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 708.)

MEDICAL CORPS

21. Acting appointments; how made.—The President is authorized to appoint for temporary service twenty-five acting assistant surgeons, who shall have the rank and compensation of assistant surgeons: Provided, That the Secretary of the Navy may appoint, for temporary service, such acting assistant surgeons as the exigencies of the service may require who shall receive the compensation of assistant surgeons. (R. S. §§ 1369, 1411; May 4, 1898, c. 234, 30 Stat. 380; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 7, 30 Stat. 1006.)

22. Assistant surgeon; age.—Appointees to the grade of assistant surgeon shall be between the ages of twenty-one and thirty-two at the time of appointment. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 577.)

23. Examination for appointment.—No person shall be appointed assistant surgeon until he has been examined and approved by a board of naval surgeons, designated by the Secretary of the Navy, or by his authority as provided by section 233. (R. S. § 1370; May 4, 1898, c. 234, § 1, 30 Stat. 380; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 577.)

24. Surgeon of the fleet; appointment.—The President may designate among the surgeons in the service, and appoint to every fleet or squadron an experienced and intelligent surgeon, who shall be denominated "surgeon of the fleet," and shall be surgeon of the flagship. (R. S. § 1373.)

25. Duties of surgeon of the fleet.—The surgeon of the fleet shall, in addition to his duties as surgeon of the flagship, examine and approve all requisitions for medical and hospital stores for the squadron or fleet, and inspect their quality. He shall, in difficult cases, consult with the surgeons of the several ships, and he shall make, and transmit to the Navy Department, records of the character and treatment of diseases in the squadron or fleet. (R. S. § 1374.)

26. Detail of medical officers for duty with Red Cross.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to detail one or more officers of the Medical Corps of the United States Navy for duty with the Military Relief Division of the American National Red Cross. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 581.)

HOSPITAL CORPS

31. Establishment.—A Hospital Corps of the United States Navy is hereby established. (June 17, 1898, c. 463, § 1, 30 Stat. 474.)

32. Relation to Medical Department.—The Hospital Corps shall be a constituent part of the Medical Department of the Navy. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 573.)

33. Subject to laws and regulations for government of Navy.—The Hospital Corps shall be subject to the laws and regulations for the government of the Navy except as provided by section 716. (June 17, 1898, c. 463, § 2, 30 Stat. 475.)

34. Authorized strength; grades and ratings.—The authorized strength of the Hospital Corps of the Navy shall equal 3½ per centum of the authorized enlisted strength of the Navy and Marine Corps, and shall be in addition thereto, and the Hospital Corps of the United States Navy shall consist of the following grades and ratings, subject to the authority conferred upon the Secretary of the Navy by section 176: Chief pharmacists, pharmacists, and enlisted men classified as chief pharmacists' mates; pharmacists' mates, first class; pharmacists' mates, second class; pharmacists' mates, third class; hospital apprentices, first class; and hospital apprentices, second class; such classifications in enlisted ratings to correspond respectively to the enlisted ratings, seamen branch, of chief petty officers; petty officers, first class; petty officers, second class; petty officers, third class; seamen, first class; and seamen, second class: Provided, That enlisted men of other ratings in the Navy and in the Marine Corps shall be eligible for transfer to the Hospital Corps, and men of that corps to other ratings in the Navy and the Marine Corps. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 572.)

35. Enlistment in Hospital Corps; regulations.—The Secretary of the Navy is empowered to enlist or cause to be enlisted the authorized number of enlisted men as provided for in section 34, and to make such regulations as may be required for their enlistment and government. (June 17, 1898, c. 463, 30 Stat. 474; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 572.)

36. Enlisted men as part of enlisted force of Navy.—Enlisted men of the Hospital Corps shall be a part of the enlisted force provided by law for the Navy. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 573.)

37. Duties of corps.—Hospital and ambulance service with such commands and at such places as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy shall be performed by members of the Hospital Corps. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 573.)

NURSE CORPS

41. Establishment.—The Nurse Corps (female) of the United States Navy is hereby established. (May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 146.)

42. Composition; appointment and removal; qualifications; duties.—The Nurse Corps shall consist of one superintendent, to be appointed by the Secretary of the Navy, who shall be a graduate of a hospital training school having a course of instruction of not less than two years, whose term of office may be terminated at his discretion, and of as many chief nurses, nurses, and reserve nurses as may be needed: Provided, That all nurses in the Nurse Corps shall be appointed or removed by the Surgeon General, with the approval of the Secretary of the Navy, and that they shall be graduates of hospital training schools having a course of instruction not less than two years. The appointment of superintendent, chief nurses, nurses, and reserve nurses shall be subject to an examination as to their professional, moral, mental, and physical fitness, and that they shall be eligible for duty at naval hospitals and on board of hospital and ambulance ships and for such special duty as may be deemed necessary by the Surgeon General of the Navy. Reserve nurses may be assigned to active duty when the necessities of the service demand. (May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 146.)

DENTAL CORPS

51. Officers; grades; original appointments.—Dental officers in the Navy in the grades of assistant dental surgeon, passed assistant dental surgeon and dental surgeon, shall constitute the Naval Dental Corps, and shall be a part of the Medical Department of the Navy. Original appointments to the Naval Dental Corps shall be made in the grade of assistant dental surgeon. (July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 708.)

52. Qualifications of appointees.—All appointees authorized by the preceding section shall be citizens of the United States between twenty-one and thirty-two years of age, and shall be graduates of standard medical or dental colleges and trained in the several branches of dentistry, and shall, before appointment, have successfully passed mental, moral, physical, and professional examinations before medical and professional examining boards appointed by the Secretary of the Navy, or by his authority in accordance with section 233, and have been recommended for appointment by such boards. (Mar. 4, 1917, c. 180, 39 Stat. 1171; July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 709.)

SUPPLY CORPS

61. Qualifications for office of assistant paymaster.—No person shall be appointed assistant paymaster who is, at the time of such appointment, less than twenty-one or more than twenty-six years of age; nor until his physical, mental, and moral qualifications have been examined and approved by a board of paymasters appointed by the Secretary of the Navy, or by his authority in accordance with section 233, and according to such regulations as he may prescribe, except that chief pay clerks and pay clerks must be between the ages of twenty-one and thirty-five years at the time of appointment as assistant paymasters: Provided, That this shall not be construed as giving any preference in said appointment of assistant paymasters to said chief pay clerks and pay clerks except as to the limitation of age. (R. S. § 1379; Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 943; Mar. 4, 1917, c. 180, 39 Stat. 1171.)

62. Acting appointments at sea, on foreign stations, or on Pacific coast.—When the office of paymaster or assistant paymaster becomes vacant, by death or otherwise, in ships at sea, or on foreign stations, or on the Pacific coast of the United States, the senior officer present may make an acting appointment of any fit person, who shall perform the duties thereof until another paymaster or assistant paymaster shall report for duty, and shall be entitled to receive the pay of such grade while so acting. (R. S. § 1381.)

63. Paymaster of the fleet.—The President may designate among the paymasters in the service, and appoint to every fleet or squadron a paymaster, who shall be denominated "paymaster of the fleet." (R. S. § 1382.)

64. Bonds of pay officers generally.—Except as provided in Title 6, OFFICIAL AND PENAL BONDS, every paymaster, passed assistant paymaster, and assistant paymaster shall, before entering on the duties of his office, give bond, with two or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Secretary of the Navy, for the faithful performance thereof. Paymasters shall give bonds in the sum of $25,000, passed assistant paymasters in the sum of $15,000, and assistant paymasters in the sum of $10,000. (R. S. § 1383.)

65. Requirement of new bonds.—Officers of the Supply Corps shall give new bonds with sufficient sureties, whenever required to do so by the Secretary of the Navy. (R. S. § 1384; July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 147.)

66. New appointment and commission as affecting existing bonds.—The issuing of a new appointment and commission to any officer of the Supply Corps shall not affect or annul any existing bond, but the same shall remain in force, and apply to such new appointment and commission. (R. S. § 1385; July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 147.)

67. Loans to officers prohibited.—It shall not be lawful for any paymaster, passed assistant paymaster, or assistant paymaster, to advance or loan, under any pretense whatever, to any officer in the naval service, any sum of money, public or private, or any credit, or any article or commodity whatever. (R. S. § 1389.)

OFFICERS FOR ENGINEERING DUTY

71. Assignment of line officers to engineering duty.—Officers of the line of the Navy not below the grade of lieutenant may, upon application, and with the approval of the Secretary of the Navy, be assigned to engineering duty only. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 580.)

72. Number of line officers assigned.—The number of officers of the line of the Navy assigned to engineering duty only for any one year, under the preceding section, shall be in accordance with the requirements of the service as determined by the Secretary of the Navy. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 580.)

73. Nature of duty.—Officers of the line of the Navy assigned to engineering duty only under section 71, shall when so assigned and until they reach the grade of commander, perform sea or shore duty such as is performed by engineers in the Navy, and thereafter shore duty only as prescribed prior to August 29, 1916, for officers transferred to the line from the former Engineer Corps, except that commanders may be assigned to duty as fleet and squadron engineers: Provided, That when so assigned they shall retain their place with respect to other line officers in the grades they then or thereafter occupy, and also the right to succession to command on shore in accordance with their seniority. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 580.)

74. Officers performing shore duty in 1911 as additional to numbers of each grade.—Officers on the active list of the line of the United States Navy who, under authority of law, were, on March 4, 1911, performing engineering duty on shore only shall be additional to the numbers in the grades in which they are now serving, and shall be carried as additional to the numbers of each grade to which they may hereafter be promoted: Provided, That said officers shall be entitled to all the benefits of retirement under existing or future laws equally with other officers of like rank and service. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1267.)

75. Acting ensigns for engineering duty.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to appoint annually in the line of the Navy for a period of ten years from August 29, 1916, in the order of merit determined by such competitive examination as he may prescribe, thirty acting ensigns for the performance of engineering duties only. Persons so appointed must have received a degree of mechanical or electrical engineer from a college or university of high standing or be graduates of technical schools approved by the Secretary of the Navy, must have been found physically qualified by a board of medical officers of the Navy for the performance of the duties required, and must at the time of appointment be not less than twenty nor more than twenty-six years of age. Such appointments shall be for a probationary period of three years, and may be revoked at any time by the Secretary of the Navy. Such acting ensigns shall, upon the completion of the probationary period of three years, of which two years shall have been spent on board cruising vessels and one year pursuing a course of instruction at the Naval Academy prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, be commissioned in the grade of lieutenant of the junior grade after satisfactorily passing such examination as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, and having been recommended for promotion by the examining board and found physically qualified by a board of medical officers of the Navy. Such officers shall thereafter be required to perform engineering duties only, and shall be eligible for advancement to the higher grades in the manner herein provided for line officers assigned to engineering duty only. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 580.)

76. Engineer of the fleet.—The President may designate among the officers of the Navy performing engineering duty and appoint to every fleet or squadron, an engineer, who shall be denominated "engineer of the fleet." (R. S. § 1393.)

CONSTRUCTION CORPS

81. Appointment of midshipmen as assistant naval constructors.—Midshipmen who are graduated with credit in the scientific and mechanical class of the Naval Academy may, upon the recommendation of the academic board, be immediately appointed as assistant naval constructors. (R. S. § 1403; Aug. 5, 1882, c. 391, § 1, 22 Stat. 285; July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 686.)

82. Filling vacancies in corps.—Vacancies in the Construction Corps shall be filled in the manner now prescribed by law, at such annual rate as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 577.)

83. Transfer of line officers to corps.—(a) Officers of the line of the Navy who have had not less than three years' service in the grade of ensign and have taken or are taking satisfactorily a postgraduate course in naval architecture under orders from the Secretary of the Navy shall be eligible for transfer to the grade of assistant naval constructor: Provided, That there shall not be more than five such transfers in any one calendar year. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 945.)

(b) Ensigns of not less than one year's service as such shall be eligible for transfer to the Construction Corps. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 577.)

CORPS OF CHAPLAINS

91. Age of appointees.—A chaplain shall not be less than twenty-one nor more than thirty-five years of age at the time of his appointment. (R. S. § 1396.)

92. Appointment of acting chaplain.—Original appointments shall be made by the Secretary of the Navy in the grade of acting chaplain, after such examination as he may prescribe. (June 30, 1914, c. 130, 38 Stat. 403, 404.)

93. Revocation of appointment of acting chaplain.—The appointment of any acting chaplain may be revoked at any time in the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy. (June 30, 1914, c. 130, 38 Stat. 403.)

94. Commissioning acting chaplains as chaplains.—After three years' sea service on board ship each acting chaplain before receiving a commission in the Navy shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Navy by examination by a board of chaplains and medical officers of the Navy his physical, mental, moral, and professional fitness to perform the duties of chaplain in the Navy, and if found so qualified, shall be commissioned a chaplain in the Navy. If any acting chaplain shall fail on the examinations herein prescribed he shall be honorably discharged from the naval service. Not more than seven acting chaplains shall be commissioned chaplains in any one year. (June 30, 1914, c. 130, 38 Stat. 403.)

95. Form of worship.—Every chaplain shall be permitted to conduct public worship according to the manner and forms of the church of which he may be a member. (R. S. § 1397.)

96. Annual report by chaplains.—Chaplains shall report annually to the Secretary of the Navy the official services performed by them. (R. S. § 1398.)

CORPS OF PROFESSORS OF MATHEMATICS

101. Abolition of corps.—No further appointments shall be made to the Corps of Professors of Mathematics, and that corps shall cease to exist upon the death, resignation, or dismissal of the officers now carried in that corps on the active and retired lists of the Navy. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 577.)

102. Duties of existing professors.—Professors of mathematics shall perform such duties as may be assigned them by order of the Secretary of the Navy, at the Naval Academy, the Naval Observatory, and on board ships of war, in instructing the midshipmen of the Navy, or otherwise. (R. S. § 1401.)

SECRETARIES AND CLERKS

111. Secretaries to Admiral and Vice Admiral.—The Admiral and Vice Admiral shall each be allowed a secretary, who shall be entitled to the rank and allowances of a lieutenant in the Navy. (R. S. § 1367; Mar. 3, 1883, c. 97, 22 Stat. 472.)

112. Detail of officers as secretaries and clerks.—There shall be no appointments made from civil life of secretaries or clerks to the Admiral, or Vice Admiral, when on sea service, commanders of squadrons, or of clerks to commanders of vessels; and an officer not above the grade of lieutenant shall be detailed to perform the duties of secretary to the Admiral or Vice Admiral, when on sea service, and one not above the grade of lieutenant (junior grade) to perform the duties of clerk to a rear admiral or commander, and one not above the grade of ensign to perform the duties of clerk to a captain, commander, or lieutenant commander when afloat. (May 4, 1878, c. 91, § 1, 20 Stat. 50.)

COMMISSIONED WARRANT AND WARRANT OFFICERS

121. In general.—Boatswains, gunners, carpenters, sailmakers, pharmacists, machinists, pay clerks, electricians, and radio electricians shall be known and entered upon the Naval Register as "warrant officers in the naval service of the United States." Chief boatswains, chief gunners, chief carpenters, chief sailmakers, chief pharmacists, chief machinists, chief pay clerks, chief electricians, and chief radio electricians shall be known as "commissioned warrant officers." (R. S. § 1406; June 17, 1898, c. 463, 30 Stat. 474; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 12, 30 Stat. 1007; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 771; Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 942; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 573; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 12, 43 Stat. 1274.)

122. Boatswains, gunners, sailmakers, and carpenters.—The President may appoint for the vessels in actual service, as many boatswains, gunners, sailmakers, and carpenters as may, in his opinion, be necessary and proper. (R. S. § 1405.)

123. Electricians, chief electricians, radio electricians, and chief radio electricians; appointments.—The commissioned warrant grades of chief electrician and chief radio electrician, and the warrant grades of electrician and radio electrician are hereby established in the United States Navy, and all appointments in such grades shall be in accordance with such regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 12, 43 Stat. 1274.)

124. Machinists; number.—There shall be as many machinists as the President may from time to time deem necessary to appoint. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 14, 30 Stat. 1007; Mar. 3, 1901, c. 852, 31 Stat. 1108; Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1622, 33 Stat. 324; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 771; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 575; Feb. 11, 1925, c. 209, 43 Stat. 872.)

125. Manner of appointment.—All appointments as machinists shall be by competitive examination before a board ordered by the Secretary of the Navy, or by his authority in accordance with section 233, and open to all machinists by trade who are in the Navy, and machinists of good character, not above thirty years of age, in civil life authorized by the Secretary of the Navy to appear before said board, and, where candidates from civil life and from the naval service possess equal qualifications, the preference shall be given to those from the naval service. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 14, 30 Stat. 1007; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 771; Mar. 4, 1917, c. 180, 39 Stat. 1171.)

126. Acting appointment.—Machinists shall receive at first an acting appointment, which may be made permanent under regulations established by the Navy Department for other warrant officers. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 15, 30 Stat. 1008.)

127. Uniform.—Machinists shall wear such uniform as may be prescribed by the Navy Department. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 15, 30 Stat. 1008.)

128. Pharmacists; appointment.—The President may hereafter, from time to time, appoint as many pharmacists as may be deemed necessary, from the rating of chief pharmacist's mate, subject to the provisions of section 34 and to such moral, physical, and professional examinations and requirements as to length of service as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 572.)

129. Chief pay clerks, pay clerks, and acting pay clerks; number.—The total number of chief pay clerks, pay clerks, and acting pay clerks allowed by this chapter shall not exceed one for each two hundred and fifty enlisted men in the United States Navy allowed by law. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 942.)

130. General qualifications for appointment.—No person shall be appointed a chief pay clerk, pay clerk, or acting pay clerk under any provisions contained in this chapter until his physical, mental, moral, and professional qualifications have been satisfactorily established by examination before a board of examining officers appointed by the Secretary of the Navy, or by his authority in accordance with section 233, from officers of the Supply Corps when practicable and according to such regulations as he may prescribe: Provided, That no person shall be appointed a chief pay clerk, pay clerk, or acting pay clerk unless his accumulated previous service in the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps, together with his possible future service prior to attaining the age of sixty-four years, will amount to at least thirty years, except that this proviso shall not apply to such persons as were serving in the Navy as paymasters' clerks during the period from September 1, 1913, to October 31, 1913. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 942; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 579; Mar. 4, 1917, c. 180, 39 Stat. 1171; July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 147.)

131. Appointment of pay clerks and acting pay clerks.—All pay clerks shall be warranted from acting pay clerks, who shall be appointed from enlisted men in the Navy holding acting or permanent appointments as chief petty officers who have served at least three years as enlisted men, at least two years of which service must have been on board a cruising vessel of the Navy. All appointments as acting pay clerks shall be made by the Secretary of the Navy, and all such appointees, in addition to the qualifications above set forth, must be citizens of the United States. All acting appointments herein provided for shall be made permanent under regulations established by the Secretary of the Navy. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 942.)

132. Assignment to duty.—Chief pay clerks, pay clerks, and acting pay clerks shall be assigned to duty with pay officers under such rules as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 942.)

133. Preference in appointment of warrant officers.—In the appointment of warrant officers in the naval service of the United States, preference shall be given to men who have been honorably discharged upon the expiration of an enlistment as an apprentice or boy, to serve during minority, and reenlisted within three months after such discharge, to serve during a term of three or more years: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be held to abrogate the provisions of the next section. (R. S. § 1417; June 30, 1876, c. 159, 19 Stat. 66; May 12, 1879, c. 5, 21 Stat. 3.)

134. Promotion of seamen to warrant officers for heroism.—Seamen distinguishing themselves in battle, or by extraordinary heroism in the line of their profession, may be promoted to warrant officers, upon the recommendation of their commanding officer, approved by the flag officer and Secretary of the Navy. (R. S. § 1407.)

STOREKEEPERS AND PETTY OFFICERS

141. Appointment of storekeepers at navy yards.—The President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, may appoint a naval storekeeper at each of the navy yards where such officers may be necessary. (R. S. § 1413.)

142. Appointment on foreign stations.—The Secretary of the Navy may appoint citizens who are not officers of the Navy to be storekeepers on foreign stations, when suitable officers of the Navy can not be ordered on such service, or when, in his opinion, the public interest will be thereby promoted. (R. S. § 1414.)

143. Bond required of appointee on foreign station.—Every person who is appointed storekeeper under the provisions of the preceding section shall be required to give a bond, in such amount as may be fixed by the Secretary of the Navy, for the faithful performance of his duty. (R. S. § 1415.)

144. Officers as storekeepers on foreign stations.—The Secretary of the Navy shall order a suitable commissioned or warrant officer of the Navy, except in the case provided in section 142, to take charge of the naval stores for foreign squadrons at each of the foreign stations where such stores may be deposited, and where a storekeeper may be necessary. (R. S. § 1438.)

145. Bonds of officers acting as storekeepers.—Every officer so acting as storekeeper on a foreign station shall be required to give a bond, in such amount as may be fixed by the Secretary of the Navy, for the faithful performance of his duty. (R. S. § 1439.)

146. Petty officers.—All officers not holding commissions or warrants, or who are not entitled to them, except such as are temporarily appointed to the duties of a commissioned or warrant officer, and except secretaries and clerks, shall be deemed petty officers, and shall be entitled to obedience, in the execution of their offices, from persons of inferior ratings. (R. S. § 1410.)

NUMBER

Section 151. General provisions.—The permanent authorized enlisted strength of the active list of the regular Navy shall be one hundred and thirty-one thousand four hundred and eighty-five: Provided, That the President is hereby authorized, whenever in his judgment a sufficient emergency exists, to increase the authorized enlisted strength of the Navy to one hundred and ninety-one thousand men. (July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 714; July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 137, 138.)

152. "Authorized enlisted strength" defined.—The phrase "authorized enlisted strength," as applied to the personnel of the Navy, shall mean the total number of enlisted men of the Navy authorized by law, exclusive of the Hospital Corps, apprentice seamen, those sentenced by court-martial to discharge, those detailed for duty with Naval Militia, those furloughed without pay, enlisted men of the Flying Corps, and those under instruction in trade schools: Provided further, That the number of enlisted men for instruction in trade schools shall not at any time exceed fourteen thousand. (May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 2, 40 Stat. 84; July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 714.)

153. Daily average number as test of strength.—The number of enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps provided for shall be construed to mean the daily average number of enlisted men in the naval service during the fiscal year. (June 30, 1914, c. 130, 38 Stat. 403.)

ELIGIBILITY FOR ENLISTMENT

161. Minors.—No minor under the age of fourteen years shall be enlisted in the naval service; and minors between the age of fourteen and eighteen years shall not be enlisted for the naval service without the consent of their parents or guardians. (R. S. §§ 1419, 1420, 1624, Art. 19; May 12, 1879, c. 5, 21 Stat. 3; Feb. 23, 1881, c. 73, § 2, 21 Stat. 338; Aug. 22, 1912, c. 336, 37 Stat. 356.)

162. Evidence required in recruiting minors.—No part of any appropriation for the naval service shall be expended in recruiting seamen or apprentice seamen unless, in case of minors, a certificate of birth or a verified written statement by the parents, or either of them, or in case of their death a verified written statement by the legal guardian, be first furnished to the recruiting officer, showing applicant to be of age required by naval regulations, which shall be presented with the application for enlistment; except in cases where such certificate is unobtainable, enlistment may be made when the recruiting officer is convinced that oath of applicant as to age is credible. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 931; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 575.)

163. Insane or intoxicated person or deserter.—No insane or intoxicated person, and no person who has deserted in time of war from the naval or military service of the United States, shall be enlisted in the naval service. (R. S. § 1420; May 12, 1879, c. 5, 21 Stat. 3; Feb. 23, 1881, c. 73, § 2, 21 Stat. 338; Aug. 22, 1912, c. 336, 37 Stat. 356.)

GRADES, RATINGS, AND TRANSFERS

171. Ratings in artificer branch.—Subject to the provisions of section 176 of this title and section 15 of Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES, the ratings of storekeeper; engineman, first class; engineman, second class; coppersmith, first class; coppersmith, second class; pattern maker, first class; pattern maker, second class; molder, first class; molder, second class; chief special mechanic and special mechanic, first class, are established in the artificer branch of the Navy: Provided, That appointments or enlistments in the said ratings may be made from enlisted men in the Navy or from civil life respectively, and the qualifications of candidates for any of said ratings shall be determined in accordance with such regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 575; Oct. 6, 1917, c. 103, 40 Stat. 397.)

172. Changing designation of rating of ordinary seaman.—The designation of the rating of ordinary seaman is changed to seaman, second class, without change of pay, subject to the provisions of section 176 of this title and section 15 of Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 575.)

173. Changing designation of rating of coal passer.—The designation of the rating of coal passer is changed to fireman, third class, without change of pay, subject to the provisions of section 176 of this title and section 15 of Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 575.)

174. Rating mates from enlisted men.—Mates may be rated, under authority of the Secretary of the Navy, from men who have enlisted in the naval service for not less than two years. (R. S. § 1408; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 575; June 4, 1920, c. 228, § 7, 41 Stat. 836.)

175. Ratings of printers.—The Bureau of Navigation is authorized under rules established for the advancement of other enlisted men, to advance printers to the ratings of printer, first class, and chief printer, which ratings are hereby authorized subject to the provisions of section 176 of this title and section 15 of Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 575.)

176. Establishment of grades and ratings by Secretary of Navy.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized, in his discretion, to establish such grades and ratings as may be necessary for the proper administration of the enlisted personnel of the Navy and Marine Corps. (June 4, 1920, c. 228, § 7, 41 Stat. 836.)

86270°—26——70

177. Transfers from military to naval service.—Any person enlisted in the military service of the United States may, on application to the Navy Department, approved by the President, be transferred to the Navy or Marine Corps, to serve therein the residue of his term of enlistment, subject to the laws and regulations for the government of the Navy. But such transfer shall not release him from any indebtedness to the Government, nor, without the consent of the President, from any penalty incurred for a breach of military law. (R. S. § 1421.)

TERM OF ENLISTMENT

181. Length of term.—Enlistments in the Navy may be for terms of two, three, four, or six years, and all laws applicable on March 4, 1925, to four-year enlistments shall apply, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, to enlistments for a shorter or longer period with proportionate benefits upon discharge and reenlistment. (R. S. §§ 1418, 1608; July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 134; June 4, 1920, c. 228, § 7, 41 Stat. 836; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 19, 43 Stat. 1276.)

182. Minority enlistments.—Boys between the ages of fourteen and eighteen years may, under such limitations as are contained in sections 161 and 162, be enlisted to serve in the Navy until they shall arrive at the age of twenty-one years. (R. S. § 1418; May 12, 1879, c. 5, 21 Stat. 3; Feb. 23, 1881, c. 73, § 2, 21 Stat. 338.)

183. Term as affected by absence from duty on account of sickness resulting from misconduct.—An enlistment in the Navy or Marine Corps shall not be regarded as complete until the enlisted man shall have made good any time in excess of one day lost on account of injury, sickness, or disease resulting from his own intemperate use of drugs or alcoholic liquors, or other misconduct. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 580; July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 717.)

184. Extension of term.—The term of enlistment of any enlisted man in the Navy and Marine Corps, including enlistment for minority, may, by his voluntary written agreement, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy with the approval of the President, be extended for a period of either one, two, three, or four full years from the date of expiration of the then existing term of enlistment, and subsequent to said date such enlisted men as extend the term of enlistment as authorized in this section shall be entitled to and shall receive the same pay and allowances in all respects as though regularly discharged and reenlisted immediately upon expiration of their term of enlistment, and such extension shall not operate to deprive them upon discharge at the termination thereof of any right, privilege, or benefit to which they would be entitled at the expiration of the former term of enlistment. (Aug. 22, 1912, c. 335, 37 Stat. 331; Apr. 25, 1917, c. 6, 40 Stat. 38; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 19, 43 Stat. 1276.)

FURLOUGHS AND DISCHARGES; DISPOSITION OF ENLISTED MEN AT EXPIRATION OF TERM OF ENLISTMENT

191. Furlough without pay for unexpired portion of enlistment.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to grant furlough without pay to enlisted men for a period covering the unexpired portion of their enlistment: Provided, That such furlough be granted under the same conditions and in lieu of discharge by purchase or by special order of the department. Enlisted men so furloughed shall be subject to recall in time of war or national emergency to complete the unexpired portion of their enlistment, and shall be in addition to the authorized number of enlisted men of the Navy. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 580.)

192. Honorable discharges; to whom granted.—Honorable discharges may be granted to all enlisted persons in the Navy. (R. S. § 1426; June 11, 1896, No. 62, 29 Stat. 476; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 19, 43 Stat. 1276.)

193. Form of honorable discharge.—Honorable discharges shall be granted according to a form prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy. (R. S. § 1427.)

194. Report of men entitled to honorable discharge.—It shall be the duty of every commanding officer of a vessel, on returning from a cruise, and immediately on his arrival in port, to forward to the Secretary of the Navy a list of the names of such of the crew as, in his opinion, on being discharged, are entitled to an "honorable discharge" as a testimonial of fidelity and obedience; and he shall grant the same to the persons so designated. (R. S. § 1429; Aug. 22, 1912, c. 335, 37 Stat. 330; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 19, 43 Stat. 1276.)

195. Discharge within three months before expiration of term.—Under such regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe, with the approval of the President, any enlisted man may be discharged at any time within three months before the expiration of his term of enlistment or extended enlistment without prejudice to any right, privilege, or benefit that he would have received, except pay and allowances for the unexpired period not served, or to which he would thereafter become entitled, had he served his full term of enlistment or extended enlistment. (Aug. 22, 1912, c. 335, 37 Stat. 331.)

196. Purchase of discharge.—In time of peace the President may in his discretion, and under such rules and upon such conditions as he may prescribe, permit any enlisted man to purchase his discharge from the Navy, the amounts received therefrom to be covered into the Treasury. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 212, 27 Stat. 717.)

197. Discharge for good of service; payments.—Persons discharged from the naval service by dishonorable discharge, bad-conduct discharge, or any other discharge for the good of the service, may, upon discharge, be paid a sum not to exceed $25: Provided, That the said sum shall be fixed by, and in the discretion of, the Secretary of the Navy, and shall be paid only in cases where the person so discharged would otherwise be without funds to meet his immediate needs. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 10, 43 Stat. 1274.)

198. New rating or promotion as not effecting discharge.—The rating of an enlisted man as a mate, or his appointment as a warrant officer, shall not discharge him from his enlistment. (R. S. § 1409.)

199. Temporary home for discharged seamen.—The Secretary of the Navy is hereby authorized to permit any person receiving the honorable discharge authorized by section 194 to elect a home on board of any of the United States receiving ships, during any portion of the three months granted by law as the limit of time within which to receive the pecuniary benefit of such discharge, the men so choosing a home to be entitled to one ration per day for their keeping while furnished with such home, but not to pay, other than the enlistment allowance authorized by section 16 of Title 37 upon reenlistment: Provided, That the persons so furnished with a home shall be amenable to such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy or other competent authority. (Feb 8, 1889, c. 115, 25 Stat. 657; Aug. 22, 1912, c. 335, 37 Stat. 331)

200. Refund of bounty on discharge.—The Secretary of the Navy may, in his discretion, require the whole or a part of the bounty allowed upon enlistment to be refunded in cases where men are discharged during the first year of enlistment by request, for inaptitude, as undesirable, or for disability not incurred in line of duty. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2512, 34 Stat. 1176.)

201. Disposition of enlisted men at expiration of term of enlistment.—It shall be the duty of the commanding officer of any fleet, squadron, or vessel acting singly, when on service, to send to an Atlantic or to a Pacific port of the United States, as their enlistment may have occurred on either the Atlantic or Pacific coast of the United States, in some public or other vessel, all petty officers and persons of inferior ratings desiring to go there at the expiration of their terms of enlistment, or as soon thereafter as may be, unless, in his opinion, the detention of such persons for a longer period should be essential to the public interests, in which case he may detain them, or any of them, until the vessel to which they belong shall return to such Atlantic or Pacific port. All persons enlisted without the limits of the United States may be discharged, on the expiration of their enlistment, either in a foreign port or in a port of the United States, or they may be detained as above provided beyond the term of their enlistment. All persons sent home, or detained by a commanding officer, according to the provisions of this section, shall be subject in all respects to the laws and regulations for the government of the Navy until their return to an Atlantic or Pacific port and their regular discharge; and all persons so detained by such officer, or reentering to serve until the return to an Atlantic or Pacific port of the vessel to which they belong, shall in no case be held in service more than thirty days after their arrival in said port. All persons who shall be so detained beyond their terms of enlistment or who shall, after the termination of their enlistment, voluntarily reenter to serve until the return to an Atlantic or Pacific port of the vessel to which they belong, and their regular discharge therefrom, shall receive for the time during which they are so detained, or shall so serve beyond their original terms of enlistment, an addition of one-fourth of their former pay: Provided, That the shipping articles shall hereafter contain the substance of this section. (R. S. § 1422; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 155, 18 Stat. 484.)

202. Discharge of men under twenty-one.—Upon the presentation of satisfactory evidence as to his age, and upon application for discharge by his parent or guardian presented to the Secretary within sixty days after the date of his enlistment, any man enlisted in the naval service, including the Marine Corps, under twenty-one years of age, who was enlisted without the written consent of his parent or guardian, if any, shall be discharged for his own convenience. (May 28, 1924, c. 203, 43 Stat. 194; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 19, 43 Stat. 1276.)

203. Discharge of men under eighteen.—In cases provided for in section 162 where it is afterwards found, upon evidence satisfactory to the Navy Department, that recruit has sworn falsely as to age, and is under eighteen years of age at the time of enlistment, he shall, upon request of either parent, or, in case of their death, by the legal guardian, be released from service in the Navy, upon payment of full cost of first outfit, unless, in any given case, the Secretary, in his discretion, shall relieve said recruit of such payment. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 931.)

Chapter 3.—GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO OFFICERS.

230. Computation of length of service; time spent at Naval or Military Academy excluded.
231. Credit for all service in Regular or Volunteer Army or Navy.
232. Officers reappointed; credit for service in different corps.
233. Examination on foreign station of candidates for appointment, promotion, and retirement.

Section 211. Citizenship.—The officers of vessels of the United States shall in all cases be citizens of the United States. (R. S. § 1428.)

212. Designation of officers for command of fleets; number and rank.—The President is authorized to designate six officers of the Navy for the command of fleets or subdivisions thereof, and, after being so designated, from the date of assuming such command until relinquishing thereof, not more than three of such officers shall each have the rank and pay of an Admiral, and the others shall each have the rank and pay of a Vice Admiral; and the grades of Admiral and Vice Admiral are hereby authorized and continued for the purpose of this section. (May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 18, 40 Stat. 89.)

213. From what grades designated.—In time of war the selections under the provisions of the preceding section shall be made from the grades of rear admiral or captain on the active list of the Navy. In time of peace officers for the command of fleets and subdivisions thereof, as authorized in the preceding section, shall be designated from among the rear admirals on the active list of the Navy. (May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 18, 40 Stat. 89.)

214. Designation as not creating vacancies in grades or increasing number of officers.—Nothing contained in the two preceding sections shall create any vacancy in any grade in the Navy or increase the total number of officers authorized by law. (May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 18, 40 Stat. 89.)

215. Detachment from command; return to former rank.—When an officer with the rank of Admiral or Vice Admiral is detached from the command of a fleet or subdivision thereof, as authorized in this chapter, he shall return to his regular rank in the list of officers of the Navy and shall thereafter receive only the pay and allowances of such rank. (May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 18, 40 Stat. 89.)

216. Commanding officer of squadron; rank and title; authority.—The President may select any officer not below the grade of commander on the active list of the Navy, and assign him to the command of a squadron, with the rank and title of "flag officer"; and any officer so assigned shall have the same authority and receive the same obedience from the commanders of ships in his squadron, holding commissions of an older date than his, that he would be entitled to receive if his commission were the oldest. (R. S. § 1434; May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 18, 40 Stat. 89.)

217. Consular powers of commanding officers.—The commanding officer of any fleet, squadron, or vessel acting singly, when upon the high seas or in any foreign port where there is no resident consul of the United States, shall be authorized to exercise all the powers of a consul in relation to mariners of the United States. (R. S. § 1433.)

218. Commanding officers of vessels not required to act as pay officers.—No commanding officer of any vessel of the Navy shall be required to perform the duties of a paymaster, passed assistant paymaster, or assistant paymaster. (R. S. § 1432.)

219. Duty of commanding officer to discourage sale of wages by crew.—Every commanding officer of a vessel is required to discourage his crew from selling any part of their wages, and never to attest any power of attorney for the transfer thereof until he is satisfied that the same is not granted in consideration of money given for the purchase of wages. (R. S. § 1430; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 13, 30 Stat. 1006.)

220. Duty of commanding officers in granting leave and liberty.—It shall be the duty of commanding officers of vessels, in granting temporary leave of absence and liberty on shore, to exercise carefully a discrimination in favor of the faithful and obedient. (R. S. § 1431.)

221. Lieutenant commanders; assignment to duty.—Lieutenant commanders may be assigned to duty as first lieutenants of naval stations, as navigation and watch officers on board of vessels of war, and as first lieutenants of vessels not commanded by lieutenant commanders. (R. S. § 1435.)

222. Shore duty; employment of officers.—No officer of the Navy shall be employed on any shore duty, except in cases specially provided by law, unless the Secretary of the Navy shall determine that the employment of an officer on such duty is required by the public interests, and he shall so state in the order of employment, but need not state the duration of such service. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 97, § 2, 22 Stat. 481; July 19, 1892, c. 206, 27 Stat. 245.)

223. Eligibility for shore duty.—Officers who, prior to March 3, 1915, performed engineering duty on shore only and officers of the Construction Corps shall be eligible for any shore duty compatible with their rank and grade to which the Secretary of the Navy may assign them. (R. S. § 1404; June 30, 1914, 38 Stat. 394; Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 930.)

224. Sea service; what constitutes.—No service shall be regarded as sea service except such as shall be performed at sea, under the orders of a department and in vessels employed by authority of law. (R. S. § 1571.)

225. Staff officers; exemption from sea duty.—Any staff officer of the Navy who has performed the duty of a chief of a bureau of the Navy Department for a full term shall thereafter be exempt from sea duty, except in time of war. (R. S. § 1436.)

226. Effect of appointment in Diplomatic Service.—If any officer of the Navy accepts or holds an appointment in the Diplomatic or Consular Service of the Government, he shall be considered as having resigned his place in the Navy, and it shall be filled as a vacancy. (R. S. § 1440.)

227. Effect of dismissal or resignation to escape dismissal.—No officer of the Navy who has been dismissed by the sentence of a court-martial, or suffered to resign in order to escape such dismissal, shall ever again become an officer of the Navy. (R. S. § 1441.)

228. Furlough.—The Secretary of the Navy shall have authority to place on furlough any officer on the active list of the Navy. (R. S. § 1442.)

229. Leave of absence to warrant officers.—Warrant officers shall be allowed such leave of absence, with full pay, as is now or may hereafter be allowed other officers of the United States Navy. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 578.)

230. Computation of length of service; time spent at Naval or Military Academy excluded.—The service of a midshipman at the United States Naval Academy, or that of a cadet at the United States Military Academy, appointed to the United States Naval Academy, or to the United States Military Academy, after March 4, 1913, shall not be counted in computing for any purpose the length of service of any officer in the Navy or in the Marine Corps. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 148, 37 Stat. 891; May 28, 1924, c. 203, 43 Stat. 194; Feb. 11, 1925, c. 209, 43 Stat. 872.)

231. Credit for all service in Regular or Volunteer Army or Navy.—All officers of the Navy shall be credited with the actual time they may have served as officers or enlisted men in the Regular or Volunteer Army or Navy, or both, and shall receive all the benefits of such actual service in all respects in the same manner as if all said service had been continuous and in the regular Navy in the lowest grade having graduated pay held by such officer since last entering the service: Pro- vided, That nothing in this section shall be so construed as to authorize any change in the dates of commission or in the relative rank of such officers: Provided further, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to give any additional pay to any such officer during the time of his service in the Volunteer Army or Navy. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 97, § 1, 22 Stat. 473.)

232. Officers reappointed; credit for service in different corps.—All officers who have been or may be appointed to any corps of the Navy or to the Marine Corps after service in a different corps of the Navy or of the Marine Corps shall have all the benefits of their previous service in the same manner as if said appointments were a reentry into the Navy or into the Marine Corps. (June 10, 1896, c. 399, § 1, 29 Stat. 361.)

233. Examination on foreign station of candidates for appointment, promotion, and retirement.—The Secretary of the Navy may authorize the senior officer present, or other commanding officer, on a foreign station to order boards of medical examiners, examining boards, and retiring boards for the examination of such candidates for appointment, promotion, and retirement in the Navy and Marine Corps as may be serving in such officer's command and may be directed to appear before any such board. (Mar. 4, 1917, c. 180, 39 Stat. 1171.)

Chapter 4.—RANK AND PRECEDENCE.

Sec.
241. Relative rank of Navy and Army officers.
242. Dates of commissions as determining rank; line officers.
243. Officers of staff corps.
244. Precedence between officers of line and staff.
245. Estimating length of service generally.
246. Precedence accorded commanding officers of vessels and stations.
247. Aid or executive of commanding officer of vessel or station.
248. Staff officers, when to communicate directly with commanding officer.
249. Precedence in processions, courts, and boards.
250. Ensigns as steerage officers.
251. Rank of certain lower grade staff officers.
252. Rank of professors of mathematics.
253. Rank given officers of staff corps confers no authority to command.
254. Rank and precedence of assistant surgeons.
255. Rank and precedence of officers of Dental Corps.
256. Rank and precedence of officers of Corps of Civil Engineers.
257. Rank of chaplains and acting chaplains.
258. Rank of graduates of Naval Academy.
259. Rank of commissioned warrant and warrant officers.
260. Commissioned warrant officers; quarters and command.
261. Inscription of rank on monuments, tablets, or other memorials.

Section 241. Relative rank of Navy and Army officers.—The relative rank between officers of the Navy, whether on the active or retired list, and officers of the Army, shall be as follows, lineal rank only being considered:

Vice admirals shall rank with lieutenant generals.
Rear admirals with major generals.
Commodores with brigadier generals.
Captains with colonels.
Commanders with lieutenant colonels.
Lieutenant commanders with majors.
Lieutenants with captains.
Lieutenants (junior grade) with first lieutenants.
Ensigns with second lieutenants. (R. S. § 1466; Mar. 3, 1883, c. 97, § 1, 22 Stat. 472.)

242. Dates of commissions as determining rank; line officers.—Line officers shall take rank in each grade according to the dates of their commissions. (R. S. § 1467.)

243. Officers of staff corps.—Officers shall take rank in each staff corps according to the dates of commission in the several grades, excepting in cases where they have gained or lost numbers. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 578.)

244. Precedence between officers of line and staff.—The officers of the staff corps of the Navy shall take precedence with officers of the line with whom they hold rank according to length of service in the Navy: Provided, That all officers entering the Navy after March 4, 1913, shall take precedence when of the same grade according to their respective dates of commission in that grade. (R. S. § 1485; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 148, 37 Stat. 892; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 578.)

245. Estimating length of service generally.—In estimating the length of service under the preceding section, the several officers of the staff corps shall, respectively, take precedence with those officers of the line of the Navy with whom they hold rank who have been in the naval service six years longer than such officers of said staff corps have been in said service; and officers who have been advanced or lost numbers on the Navy Register shall be considered as having gained or lost length of service accordingly: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be so construed as to give to any officer of the staff corps precedence of, or a higher rank than that of, another staff officer in the same grade and corps, and whose commission in such grade and corps antedates that of such officer: Provided further, That this section shall not apply in the case of officers entering the Navy after March 4, 1913. (R. S. § 1486; Mar. 3, 1881, c. 150, 21 Stat. 510; Mar. 3, 1899, § 7, 30 Stat. 1006; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 148, 37 Stat. 892; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 578.)

246. Precedence accorded commanding officers of vessels and stations.—Commanding officers of vessels of war and of naval stations shall take precedence over all officers placed under their command. (R. S. § 1468.)

247. Aid or executive of commanding officer of vessel or station.—The Secretary of the Navy may, in his discretion, detail a line officer to act as the aid or executive of the commanding officer of a vessel of war or naval station, which officer shall, when not impracticable, be next in rank to said commanding officer. Such aid or executive shall, while executing the orders of the commanding officer on board the vessel or at the station, take precedence over all officers attached to the vessel or station. All orders of such aid or executive shall be regarded as proceeding from the commanding officer, and the aid or executive shall have no independent authority in consequence of such detail. (R. S. § 1469.)

248. Staff officers, when to communicate directly with commanding officer.—Staff officers, senior to the officer detailed in accordance with the preceding section, shall have the right to communicate directly with the commanding officer. (R. S. § 1470.)

249. Precedence in processions, courts, and boards.—In processions on shore, or courts-martial, summary courts, courts of inquiry, boards of survey, and all other boards, line and staff officers shall take precedence according to rank. (R. S. § 1489.)

250. Ensigns as steerage officers.—Ensigns shall be steerage officers, unless assigned to duty as watch and division officers. (R. S. § 1490.)

251. Rank of certain lower grade staff officers.—Officers of the lower grades of the Medical Corps, Supply Corps, and Construction Corps, on the active list of the Navy, shall have rank as follows: Medical Corps, surgeons, the rank of lieutenant commander or lieutenant; passed assistant surgeons, the rank of lieutenant or lieutenant (junior grade); assistant surgeons, the rank of lieutenant (junior grade). Supply Corps, paymasters, the rank of lieutenant commander or lieutenant; passed assistant paymasters, the rank of lieutenant or lieutenant (junior grade); assistant paymasters, the rank of lieutenant (junior grade) or ensign. Construction Corps, assistant naval constructors, the rank of lieutenant or lieutenant (junior grade), and, when authorized by operation of sections 321 and 324, the rank of lieutenant commander. (R. S. §§ 1474, 1475, 1477; Mar. 3, 1883, 22 Stat. 472; Mar. 3, 1899, §§ 7, 10, 30 Stat. 1006; June 7, 1900, c. 859, 31 Stat. 697; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 577; July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 147.)

252. Rank of professors of mathematics.—Subject to the provisions of section 101, professors of mathematics shall have rank as follows: Three, the rank of captain; four, that of commander; and five, that of lieutenant commander or lieutenant. (R. S. § 1480; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 7, 30 Stat. 1006.)

253. Rank given officers of staff corps confers no authority to command.—The rank conferred on March 3, 1899, upon officers or positions in the staff corps of the Navy shall not entitle officers of such corps to command in the line or in other staff corps; nor shall the rank given to such officers or positions on said date be construed as changing the titles of officers in the staff corps: Provided, That line officers may be detailed for duty under staff officers in the manufacturing and repair departments of navy yards and naval stations. (R. S. § 1488; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 7, 30 Stat. 1006; June 24, 1910, c. 378, 36 Stat. 614.)

254. Rank and precedence of assistant surgeons.—All assistant surgeons shall from date of their original appointment take rank and precedence with lieutenants (junior grade). (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 577.)

255. Rank and precedence of officers of Dental Corps.—All officers in the Dental Corps shall take rank and precedence with officers of the Naval Medical Corps of the same rank according to the dates of their respective commissions or original appointments. Assistant dental surgeons shall have the rank of lieutenant (junior grade), and all dental officers shall be eligible for advancement in grade and rank in the same manner and under the same conditions as officers of the Naval Medical Corps with or next after whom they take precedence, up to and including the rank of lieutenant commander. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 573; July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 708.)

256. Rank and precedence of officers of Corps of Civil Engineers.—Officers of the Corps of Civil Engineers appointed after March 4, 1917, shall, from the date of their original appointment, take rank and precedence with lieutenants (junior grade). (Mar. 4, 1917, c. 180, 39 Stat. 1184.)

257. Rank of chaplains and acting chaplains.—Acting chaplains shall have the rank of lieutenant (junior grade) in the Navy. Naval chaplains commissioned from acting chaplains shall have the rank of lieutenant (junior grade) in the Navy until they shall have completed four years' service in that grade, when, subject to examination as prescribed in section 94, they shall have the rank of lieutenant in the Navy, and chaplains with the rank of lieutenant shall have at least four years' service in that grade before promotion to the grade of lieutenant commander, after which service chaplains shall be promoted as vacancies occur to the grades of lieutenant commander, commander, and captain: Provided, That no provision of this section or of section 6 shall operate to reduce the rank that would have been received by any person in the Navy except for the passage of said sections. (June 30, 1914, c. 130, 38 Stat. 403.)

258. Rank of graduates of Naval Academy.—Graduates of the Naval Academy shall take rank according to their proficiency as shown by their order of merit at the date of graduation. (R. S. § 1483.)

259. Rank of commissioned warrant and warrant officers.—Commissioned warrant officers shall rank with but after ensign. Warrant officers shall take rank with other warrant officers according to date of appointment: Provided, That chief gunners and gunners in the service on March 4, 1925, appointed in the grades of chief electrician, chief radio electrician, electrician, or radio electrician, shall take precedence from the dates of their original appointments as commissioned warrant and warrant officers, respectively. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 12, 30 Stat. 1007; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 15, 30 Stat. 1008; Mar. 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 771; Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 942; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 573; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 12, 43 Stat. 1274.)

260. Commissioned warrant officers; quarters and command.—Nothing in the preceding section shall give commissioned warrant officers additional rights to quarters on board ship or to command. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 12, 30 Stat. 1007.)

261. Inscription of rank on monuments, tablets, or other memorials.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized, in his discretion, to sanction the inscription upon any monument, tablet, or other memorial erected to any person who has died or may hereafter die from wounds, injuries, or disease incurred in the line of duty while a member of the naval service, of the rank for which the deceased qualified and to which he would have been appointed in due course except for his death. (Mar. 8, 1922, c. 95, 42 Stat. 415.)

Chapter 5.—PROMOTION AND ADVANCEMENT.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 271. Physical examination as prerequisite to promotion.—Subject to the provisions of section 284 no officer shall be promoted to a higher grade on the active list of the Navy, except in the case provided in the next section, until he has been examined by a board of naval surgeons and pronounced physically qualified to perform all his duties at sea. (R. S. § 1493.)

272. Effect of examination showing physical disqualification by wounds.—The provisions of the preceding section shall not exclude from the promotion to which he would otherwise be regularly entitled any officer in whose case such medical board may report that his physical disqualification was occasioned by wounds received in the line of his duty, and that such wounds do not incapacitate him for other duties in the grade to which he shall be promoted. (R. S. § 1494.)

273. When applicants for examination entitled thereto.—Officers subject to examination before promotion to a grade limited in number by law shall not be entitled to examination in such a sense as to give increase of pay until designated by the Secretary of the Navy to fill vacancies in the higher grade; and officers eligible for promotion to a grade not limited in number shall not be entitled to examination until ordered to present themselves for examination or until a class, in which they are included, has been so ordered by the Secretary of the Navy. (R. S. § 1495.)

274. Mental, moral, and professional examination; appointment of examining board.—Subject to the provisions of section 284 no officer shall be promoted to a higher grade on the active list of the Navy until his mental, moral, and professional fitness to perform all his duties at sea have been established to the satisfaction of a board of examining officers appointed by the President or as provided in section 233. (R. S. § 1496; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 4, 30 Stat. 1005.)

275. Composition of board.—Such examining board shall consist of not less than three officers, senior in rank to the officer to be examined. (R. S. § 1498.)

276. Powers of board.—Said board shall have power to take testimony and to examine all matter on the files and records of the Navy Department relating to any officer whose case may be considered by them. The witnesses, when present, shall be sworn by the president of the board: Provided, That no fact which occurred prior to the last examination of the candidate whereby he was promoted, which has been inquired into and decided upon, shall be again inquired into, but such previous examination, if approved, shall be conclusive, unless such fact continuing shows the unfitness of the officer to perform all his duties at sea. (R. S. § 1499; June 18, 1878, c. 267, § 1, 20 Stat. 165.)

277. Officer may be present and make statements.—Any officer whose case is to be acted upon by such examining board shall have the right to be present, if he so desires, and to submit a statement of his case on oath. (R. S. § 1500.)

278. Record of proceedings at examination.—The statement of such officer, if made, and the testimony of the witnesses and his examination shall be recorded. (R. S. § 1501.)

279. Presentation of findings to President for approval.—Subject to the provisions of sections 276 and 280, any matter on the files and records of the Navy Department, touching each case, which may, in the opinion of the board, be necessary to assist them in making up their judgment, shall, together with the whole record and finding, be presented to the President for his approval or disapproval of the finding. (R. S. § 1502.)

280. Secretary of Navy empowered to act for President on records of board.—The President is authorized to direct the Secretary of the Navy to take such action on the records of proceedings of naval examining boards and boards of naval surgeons for the promotion of officers of the Navy as is now required by law to be taken by the President. (May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 20, 40 Stat. 89.)

281. Officer not to be rejected without public examination.—No officer shall be rejected until after such public examination of himself and of the records of the Navy Department in his case, unless he fails, after having been duly notified, to appear before said board. (R. S. § 1503.)

282. Report of recommendation of officer for promotion.—Such examining board shall report their recommendation of any officer for promotion in the following form: "We hereby certify that ——— ——— has the mental, moral, and professional qualifications to perform efficiently all the duties, both at sea and on shore, of the grade to which he is to be promoted, and recommend him for promotion." (R. S. § 1504.)

283. Suspension from promotion of officer found not professionally qualified.—Subject to the provisions of section 300, any officer of the Navy on the active list below the rank of commander who, upon examination for promotion, is found not professionally qualified, shall be suspended from promotion for a period of six months from the date of approval of said examination, and shall suffer a loss of numbers equal to the average six months' rate of promotion to the grade for which said officer is undergoing examination during the five fiscal years next preceding the date of approval of said examination, and upon the termination of said suspension from promotion he shall be reexamined, and in case of his failure upon such reexamination, he shall be dropped from the service with not more than one year's pay. (R. S. § 1505; Mar. 11, 1912, c. 55, 37 Stat. 73.)

284. Laws relating to examination applicable to advancement of staff officers.—All laws relating to the examination of officers of the Navy for promotion shall be construed to apply to the regular advancement of staff officers to higher ranks on the active list the same as though such advancements in rank were promotions to higher grades: Provided, That examinations for such staff officers shall not be required except for such regular advancements in rank. (May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 20, 40 Stat. 89; July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 708.)

285. Examination of officers of line assigned to engineering duties.—Officers of the line of the Navy assigned to engineering duty only under section 71 shall be promoted as vacancies occur subject to physical examination and to such examination in engineering as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 580.)

MODE OF PROMOTION TO GRADES OF COMMANDER, CAPTAIN, AND REAR ADMIRAL

291. In general.—Subject to the provisions of sections 341 and 345 all promotions to the grades of commander, captain, and rear admiral of the line of the Navy, including the promotion of those captains, commanders, and lieutenant commanders who are, or may be, carried on the Navy list as additional to the numbers of such grades, shall be by selection only from the next lower respective grade upon the recommendation of a board of naval officers as herein provided. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 578.)

292. Composition, appointment, and convening of selection board.—The board shall consist of nine rear admirals on the active list of the line of the Navy not restricted by law to the performance of shore duty only, and shall be appointed by the Secretary of the Navy and convened at least once each year and at such times as the Secretary of the Navy may direct. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 578; July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 139.)

293. Oath of members of board.—Each member of said board shall swear, or affirm, that he will, without prejudice or partiality, and having in view solely the special fitness of officers and the efficiency of the naval service, perform the duties imposed upon him as herein provided. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 578.)

294. Secretary of Navy to furnish number of vacancies; written communications of candidates.—The board shall be furnished by the Secretary of the Navy with the number of vacancies in the grades of rear admiral, captain, and commander then existing and which may occur during the next period of time, and with the names of all officers who are eligible for consideration for selection as herein authorized, together with the record of each officer: Provided, That any officer eligible for consideration for selection shall have the right to forward through official channels at any time not later than ten days after the convening of said board a written communication inviting attention to any matter of record in the Navy Department concerning himself which he deems important in the consideration of his case. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 578; July 11, 1919, 41 Stat. 139.)

295. Service in grade necessary before selection.—No captains, commanders, or lieutenant commanders who shall have had less than four years' service in the grade in which they are serving on November 30 of the year of the convening of the board shall be eligible for consideration by the board. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 578.)

296. Engineer officers; eligibility for selection; additional numbers.—The recommendation of the board in the case of officers of the former Engineer Corps who are restricted by law to the performance of shore duty only and in that of officers who may hereafter be assigned to engineering duty only shall be based upon their comparative fitness for the duties prescribed for them by law. Upon promotion they shall be carried as additional numbers in grade. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 578.)

297. Number of officers recommended for promotion; necessity for concurrence of six members of board.—The board shall recommend for promotion such number of officers as may be necessary to fill vacancies then existing and which may occur during the next period of time: Provided, That no officer shall be recommended for promotion unless he shall have received the recommendation of not less than six members of said board. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 579; May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 14, 40 Stat. 87; July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 139.)

298. Report of board.—The report of the board shall be in writing signed by all of the members and shall certify that the board has carefully considered the case of every officer eligible for consideration under the provisions of this law, and that in the opinion of at least six of the members, the officers therein recommended are the best fitted of all those under consideration to assume the duties of the next higher grade, except that the recommendation of the board in the case of officers of the former Engineer Corps who are restricted by law to the performance of shore duty only, and in that of officers who may hereafter be assigned to engineering duty only, shall be based upon their comparative fitness for the duties prescribed for them by law. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 579.)

299. Submission of report to President; reconvening of board in case of disapproval.—The report of the board shall be submitted to the President for approval or disapproval. In case any officer or officers recommended by the board are not acceptable to the President, the board shall be informed of the name of such officer or officers, and shall recommend a number of officers equal to the number of those found not acceptable to the President and if necessary shall be reconvened for this purpose. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 579.)

300. Effect of President's approval; examinations; failure to pass.—When the report of the board shall have been approved by the President, the officers recommended therein shall be deemed eligible for selection, and if promoted shall take rank with one another in accordance with their seniority in the grade from which promoted: Provided, That any officers so selected shall prior to promotion be subject in all respects to the examinations prescribed by law for officers promoted by seniority, and in case of failure to pass the required professional examination such officer shall thereafter be ineligible for selection and promotion. And should any such officer fail to pass the required physical examination he shall not be considered, in the event of retirement, entitled to the rank of the next higher grade. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 579.)

301. Provisions relating to promotion by selection as applicable to staff corps.—The provisions of existing laws with reference to promotion by selection in the line of the Navy are hereby extended to include and authorize advancement to the ranks of commander, captain, and rear admiral in the staff corps of the Navy under the same conditions in all respects except as may be necessary to adapt the said provisions to such staff corps: Provided, That boards of selection shall in each case be composed, when practicable, of not less than five members of the corps concerned and promotions shall be made on the basis of fitness alone by selection from among the officers of the rank next below: Provided further, That the requirements for sea service in grade, length of service in grade and maximum age in grade for promotion shall not apply. (July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 718; July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 139.)

302. Effect of provisions on promotion of captains wounded in line of duty.—The provisions regarding the promotion by selection of captains in the line of the permanent Navy shall not restrict the promotion of such captains as may have been wounded in line of duty prior to July 11, 1919, and who were on the active list on that date, and such captains shall be entitled to the benefits of the provisions of section 272 and also to the benefits of section 390. (July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 147.)

SERVICE AND AGE REQUIREMENTS

311. Sea service and age of captain, commander, or lieutenant commander.—No captain, commander, or lieutenant commander shall be promoted unless he has had not less than two years' actual sea service on seagoing ships in the grade in which serving or who is more than fifty-six, fifty, or forty-five years of age, respectively: Provided, That in exceptional cases where officers are specifically designated during war or national emergency declared by the President by the Secretary of the Navy as performing, or as having performed, such highly important duties on shore that their services can not be or could not have been spared from such assignment without serious prejudice to the successful prosecution of the war, the qualification of sea service in the cases of those officers so specifically designated shall not apply while the United States is at war, or during a national emergency declared by the President, or within two and one-half years subsequent to the ending of such war or national emergency: Provided, That the qualification of sea service shall not apply to officers restricted to the performance of engineering duty only. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 579; July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 717.)

312. Requirements temporarily suspended as to officers appointed from sources other than Naval Academy.—Officers of the line of the Navy who were appointed thereto pursuant to the Act of June 4, 1920, from sources other than the Naval Academy shall not be ineligible for promotion by reason of age, as prescribed by the preceding section, until they have rendered ten years' service in the grade of lieutenant commander, six years' service in the grade of commander, or eight years' service in the grade of captain, respectively, upon the completion of which service such officers, if then ineligible for promotion by reason of age, shall be retired in accordance with section 992. (June 4, 1920, c. 228, § 5, 41 Stat. 836; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 9, 43 Stat. 1273.)

313. Lieutenants (junior grade).—Lieutenants (junior grade) shall have had not less than three years' service in that grade before being eligible for promotion to the grade of lieutenant. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 576.)

314. Ensigns.—Officers, after performing three years' service in the grade of ensign, shall, after passing the examinations required by law, be eligible to promotion to the grade of lieutenant (junior grade). (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 7, 30 Stat. 1005.)

ADVANCEMENT OF CERTAIN LOWER-GRADE STAFF OFFICERS

321. General provision.—Officers of the lower grades of the Medical Corps, Supply Corps, Construction Corps, and Corps of Civil Engineers shall be advanced in rank up to and including the rank of lieutenant commander with the officers of the line with whom or next after whom they take precedence under existing law. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 576; July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 147.)

322. Assistant surgeons and passed assistant surgeons.—Assistant surgeons shall be regularly promoted and commissioned as passed assistant surgeons, and passed assistant surgeons as surgeons. (Feb. 13, 1897, c. 221, 29 Stat. 526; May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 20, 40 Stat. 89.)

323. Passed assistant paymasters and assistant paymasters.—Passed assistant paymasters shall be regularly promoted and commissioned from assistant paymasters, and paymasters from passed assistant paymasters. (R. S. § 1380; May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 20, 40 Stat. 89.)

324. Assistant naval constructors.—Assistant naval constructors shall be promoted to the grade of naval constructor after not less than eight or more than fourteen years' service as assistant naval constructor. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 10, 30 Stat. 1006.)

PROMOTION OF WARRANT OFFICERS

331. Eligibility of boatswains, gunners, carpenters, and sailmakers for commissions as chief boatswains, etc.—Subject to the restriction imposed by the next section, boatswains, gunners, carpenters, and sailmakers shall be eligible for commissions as chief boatswains, chief gunners, chief carpenters, and chief sailmakers after six years from date of warrant. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 12, 30 Stat. 1007; Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1622, 33 Stat. 346.)

332. Examination as prerequisite for promotion.—No warrant officer shall be promoted under the preceding section until he shall have passed an examination before a board of chief boatswains, chief gunners, chief carpenters and chief sailmakers, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 12, 30 Stat. 1007.)

333. Machinists commissioned chief machinists.—All machinists shall, after six years from date of warrant, be commissioned chief machinists: Provided, That no machinist shall be so promoted until he shall have passed such examination before a board as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 771.)

334. Appointment to fill vacancies in grade of ensign.—Whenever, in view of the vacancies in the grade of ensign unfilled by graduates of the Naval Academy, the Secretary of the Navy shall so recommend, the President may appoint to that grade, from among the boatswains, gunners, or machinists, not exceeding twelve in any one calendar year. No person shall be so appointed who is over thirty-five years of age; who has served less than four years as a warrant officer; who is not recommended by a commanding officer under whom he has served; nor until he shall have passed such competitive examination as may be prescribed by the Navy Department. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 852, 31 Stat. 1129; Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1010, 32 Stat. 1197; Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1622, 33 Stat. 346; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 577.)

335. Eligibility of chief boatswains, chief gunners, and chief machinists for appointment as ensigns.—Chief boatswains, chief gunners, and chief machinists shall be eligible for appointment to the grade of ensign under the restrictions imposed by the preceding section, upon the appointment of boatswains, gunners, and machinists to that grade. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 771.)

336. Pharmacists commissioned chief pharmacists.—Pharmacists shall, after six years from the date of warrant, be commissioned chief pharmacists after passing satisfactorily such examinations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 573.)

337. Pay clerks commissioned chief pay clerks.—Subject to the provisions of section 130 all pay clerks shall, after six years' service as such, be commissioned chief pay clerks. In computing the six years' service credit shall be given for all service in the Navy as pay clerk, acting pay clerk, and paymaster's clerk. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 942.)

ADVANCEMENT IN RANK FOR EMINENT AND CONSPICUOUS CONDUCT

341. Advancement in number.—Any officer of the Navy may, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, be advanced, not exceeding thirty numbers in rank, for eminent and conspicuous conduct in battle or extraordinary heroism; and the rank of officers shall not be changed except in accordance with the provisions of existing law, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. (R. S. § 1506; June 17, 1878, c. 260, 20 Stat. 143.)

342. Advancement as affecting promotion when higher grade is full.—Any officer who is nominated to a higher grade by the provisions of the preceding section, shall be promoted, notwithstanding the number of said grade may be full; but no further promotions shall take place in that grade, except for like cause, until the number is reduced to that provided by law. (R. S. § 1507.)

343. Officers advanced and later promoted carried as additional numbers.—Subject to the provisions of section 631, officers of the Navy and Marine Corps advanced in rank for eminent and conspicuous conduct in battle or extraordinary heroism, and who since such advancement have been or may hereafter be promoted, shall be carried as additional numbers of each grade in which they serve. (June 16, 1906, c. 3338, 34 Stat. 296.)

344. Officers advanced for services in Spanish War carried as additional numbers.—Subject to the provisions of section 631 the advancement in rank of officers of the Navy and Marine Corps, whensoever made, for service rendered during the war with Spain, pursuant to the provisions of sections 341 and 670 shall not interfere with the regular promotion of officers otherwise entitled to promotion, but officers so advanced, by reason of war service, shall, after they are promoted to higher grades, be carried thereafter as additional to the numbers of each grade to which they may at any time be promoted except as provided in section 631; and subject to the provisions of sections 291 and 301 each such officer shall hereafter be promoted in due course, contemporaneously with and to take rank next after the officer immediately above him; and all advancements made by reason of war service shall be appropriately so designated upon the official Navy list: Provided, however, That no promotion shall be made to fill a vacancy occasioned by the promotion, retirement, death, resignation, or dismissal of any officer who, at the time of such promotion, retirement, death, resignation, or dismissal, is an additional member of his grade under the foregoing provisions. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 852, 31 Stat. 1108.)

345. Advancement of officers receiving thanks of Congress.—Any line officer, whether of volunteers or of the regular Navy, may be advanced one grade, if, upon recommendation of the President by name, he receives the thanks of Congress for highly distinguished conduct in conflict with the enemy or for extraordinary heroism in the line of his profession. (R. S. § 1508.)

346. Advancements resulting from thanks of Congress as affecting other officers.—A vote of thanks by Congress to any officer of the Navy shall be held to affect such officer only; and whenever, as an incident thereof, an officer who would otherwise be retired is retained on the active list, such retention shall not interfere with the regular promotion of others who would otherwise have been entitled by law to promotion. (R. S. § 1509.)

347. Filling vacancies caused by death of officers advanced as result of thanks of Congress.—No promotion shall be made to fill a vacancy occasioned by the final retirement, death, resignation, or dismissal of an officer who has received a vote of thanks, unless the number of officers left in the grade where the vacancy occurs shall be less than the number authorized by law. (R. S. § 1510.)

374. Regular Army and Navy Union badge.
375. Army and Navy Union badge.

GRATUITIES, MEDALS, ETC.

Section 351. Gratuities and medals of honor to enlisted men for heroism.—Enlisted men of the Navy or Marine Corps distinguishing themselves in battle, or by extraordinary heroism in the line of their profession, shall, upon the recommendation of their commanding officer, approved by the flag officer and Secretary of the Navy, receive a gratuity of $100 and a medal of honor, to be prepared under the direction of the Secretary of the Navy. (R. S. § 1407; Mar. 3, 1901, c. 850, 31 Stat. 1099; June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 21, 42 Stat. 633.)

352. Rosettes and ribbons for holders of medals.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to issue to any person to whom a medal of honor has been awarded, or may hereafter be awarded, under the provisions of the preceding section a rosette or knot to be worn in lieu of the medal, and a ribbon to be worn with the medal; said rosette or knot and ribbon to be each of a pattern to be prescribed and established by the President of the United States, and any appropriation that may hereafter be available for the contingent expenses of the Navy Department is hereby made available for the purposes of this section: Provided, That whenever a ribbon issued under the provisions of this section shall have been lost, destroyed, or rendered unfit for use, without fault or neglect on the part of the person to whom it was issued, the Secretary of the Navy shall cause a new ribbon to be issued to such person without charge therefor. (May 4, 1898, No. 30, 30 Stat. 741.)

353. Medals of honor to officers.—The President of the United States is empowered to prepare a suitable medal of honor to be awarded to any officer of the Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard who shall have distinguished himself in battle or displayed extraordinary heroism in the line of his profession. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 931.)

354. Medals of honor, to whom presented.—The President of the United States is authorized to present, in the name of Congress, a medal of honor to any person who, while in the naval service of the United States, shall, in action involving actual conflict with the enemy, distinguish himself conspicuously by gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty and without detriment to the mission of his command or the command to which attached. (Feb. 4, 1919, c. 14, § 1, 40 Stat. 1056.)

355. Distinguished-service medals; to whom presented.—The President is authorized to present, but not in the name of Congress, a distinguished-service medal of appropriate design and a ribbon, together with a rosette or other device to be worn in lieu thereof, to any person who, while in the naval service of the United States, since the 6th day of April, 1917, has distinguished, or who hereafter shall distinguish, himself by exceptionally meritorious service to the Government in a duty of great responsibility. (Feb. 4, 1919, c. 14, § 2, 40 Stat. 1056.)

356. Navy crosses; to whom presented.—The President is authorized to present, but not in the name of Congress, a Navy cross of appropriate design and a ribbon, together with a rosette or other device to be worn in lieu thereof, to any person who, while in the naval service of the United States, since the 6th day of April, 1917, has distinguished, or who shall hereafter distinguish, himself by extraordinary heroism or distinguished service in the line of his profession, such heroism or service not being sufficient to justify the award of a medal of honor or a distinguished-service medal. (Feb. 4, 1919, c. 14, § 3, 40 Stat. 1056.)

357. Additional pay to persons awarded medals or crosses.—Each enlisted or enrolled person of the naval service to whom is awarded a medal of honor, distinguished-service medal, or a Navy cross shall, for each such award, be entitled to additional pay at the rate of $2 per month from the date of the distinguished act or service on which the award is based, and each bar, or other suitable emblem or insignia, in lieu of a medal of honor, distinguished-service medal, or Navy cross, as hereinafter provided for, shall entitle him to further additional pay at the rate of $2 per month from the date of the distinguished act or service for which the bar is awarded, and such additional pay shall continue throughout his active service, whether such service shall or shall not be continuous. (Feb. 4, 1919, c. 14, § 4, 40 Stat. 1056; June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 21, 42 Stat. 633.)

358. Bars or other insignia for additional acts of valor.—No more than one medal of honor or one distinguished-service medal or one Navy cross shall be issued to any one person; but for each succeeding deed or service sufficient to justify the award of a medal of honor or a distinguished-service medal or Navy cross, respectively, the President may award a suitable bar, or other suitable emblem or insignia, to be worn with the decoration and the corresponding rosette or other device. (Feb. 4, 1919, c. 14, § 5, 40 Stat. 1056.)

359. Expenditure for medals, crosses, or other devices; replacement of lost medals, crosses, or devices.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to expend from the appropriation "Pay of the Navy" of the Navy Department so much as may be necessary to defray the cost of the medals of honor, distinguished-service medals, and Navy crosses, and bars, emblems, or insignia herein provided for, and so much as may be necessary to replace any medals, crosses, bars, emblems, or insignia as are herein or may heretofore have been provided for: Provided, That such replacement shall be made only in those cases where the medal of honor, distinguished-service medal, or Navy cross, or bar, emblem, or insignia presented shall have been lost, destroyed, or rendered unfit for use without fault or neglect on the part of the person to whom it was awarded, and shall be made without charge therefor. (Feb. 4, 1919, c. 14, § 6, 40 Stat. 1056.)

360. Time limit on award of medals, crosses, or other devices; statement or report as to act or distinguished service.—Except as otherwise prescribed in the next section, no medal of honor, distinguished-service medal, Navy cross, or bar or other suitable emblem or insignia in lieu of either of said medals or of said cross, shall be issued to any person after more than five years from the date of the act or service justifying the award thereof, nor unless a specific statement or report distinctly setting forth the act or distinguished service and suggesting or recommending official recognition thereof shall have been made by his naval superior through official channels at the time of the act or service or within three years thereafter. (Feb. 4, 1919, c. 14, § 7, 40 Stat. 1057.)

361. Exceptions to rule as to time.—In cases of persons now in the naval service for whom the award of the medal of honor has been recommended in full compliance with then existing regulations, but on account of services which, though insufficient fully to justify the award of the medal of honor, appear to have been such as to justify the award of the distinguished-service medal or Navy cross hereinbefore provided for, such cases may be considered and acted upon under the provisions of this chapter authorizing the award of the distinguished-service medal and Navy cross notwithstanding that said services may have been rendered more than five years before said cases shall have been considered as authorized by this proviso, but all consideration or any action upon any of said cases shall be based exclusively upon official records now on file in the Navy Department. (Feb. 4, 1919, c. 14, § 8, 40 Stat. 1057.)

362. Entire subsequent service must have been honorable.—No medal or cross or bar or other emblem or insignia shall be awarded or presented to any individual or to the representative of any individual whose entire service subsequent to the time he distinguished himself shall not have been honorable. (Feb. 4, 1919, c. 14, § 8, 40 Stat. 1057.)

363. Awards in case of death.—In case an individual who shall distinguish himself dies before the making of the award to which he may be entitled the award may nevertheless be made and the medal or cross or the bar or other emblem or insignia presented within five years from the date of the act or service justifying the award thereof to such representative of the deceased as the President may designate. (Feb. 4, 1919, c. 14, § 8, 40 Stat. 1057.)

364. Delegation of power to make awards; rules and regulations.—The President is authorized to delegate, under such conditions, regulations, and limitations as he shall prescribe, to flag officers who are commanders in chief or commanding on important independent duty the power conferred upon him by this chapter to award the Navy cross; and he is further authorized to make from time to time any and all rules, regulations, and orders which he shall deem necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter and to execute the full purpose and intention thereof. (Feb. 4, 1919, c. 14, § 9, 40 Stat. 1057.)

365. Medal of honor roll.

(a) Establishment; conditions for entry on.—There is hereby established in the Navy Department, a roll designated as "the Navy medal of honor roll." Upon written application made to the Secretary of the Navy, and subject to the conditions and requirements hereinafter contained, the name of each surviving person who has served in the naval service of the United States in any war, who has attained or shall attain the age of sixty-five years, and who has been awarded a medal of honor for having in action involving actual conflict with an enemy distinguished himself conspicuously by gallantry or intrepidity, at the risk of his life, above and beyond the call of duty, and who was honorably discharged from service by muster out, resignation, or otherwise, shall be, by the Secretary of the Navy, entered and recorded on said roll. Applications for entry on said roll shall be made in such form and under such regulations as shall be prescribed by the Navy Department, and proper blanks and instructions shall be, by the Secretary of the Navy, furnished without charge upon request made by any person claiming the benefits of this section. (Apr. 27, 1916, c. 88, § 1, 39 Stat. 53.)

(b) Evidence to be considered; certificate to be issued.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Navy to carry this section into effect and to decide whether each applicant, under this section is entitled to the benefit of this section. If the official award of the medal of honor to the applicant, or the official notice to him thereof, shall appear to show that the medal of honor was awarded to the applicant for such an act as is required by the provisions of this section, it shall be deemed sufficient to entitle the applicant to such special pension without further investigation. Otherwise all official correspondence, orders, reports, recommendations, requests, and other evidence now on file in any public office or department shall be considered. A certificate of service and of the act of heroism, gallantry, bravery, or intrepidity for which the medal of honor was awarded, and of enrollment under this section, and of the right of the special pensioner to be entitled to and to receive the special pension herein granted, shall be furnished each person whose name shall be so entered on said roll. The Secretary of the Navy shall deliver to the Commissioner of

Pensions a certified copy of each of such of said certificates as he may issue, as aforesaid, and the same shall be full and sufficient authority to the Commissioner of Pensions for the payment by him to the beneficiary named in each such certificate the special pension herein provided for. (Apr. 27, 1916, c. 88, § 2, 39 Stat. 54.)

(c) Special pension to persons enrolled.—Each such surviving person whose name shall have been entered on said roll in accordance with this section shall be entitled to and shall receive and be paid by the Commissioner of Pensions in the Department of the Interior, a special pension of $10 per month for life, payable quarter yearly. The Commissioner of Pensions shall make all necessary rules and regulations for making payment of such special pensions to the beneficiaries thereof.

Such special pension shall begin on the day that such person shall file his application for enrollment on said roll in the office of the Secretary of the Navy after April 27, 1916, and shall continue during the life of the beneficiary.

Such special pension shall not deprive any such special pensioner of any other pension or of any benefit, right, or privilege to which he is or may hereafter be entitled under any existing or subsequent law, but shall be in addition thereto.

The special pension allowed under this section shall not be subject to any attachment, execution, levy, tax, lien, or detention under any process whatever. (Apr. 27, 1916, c. 88, § 3, 39 Stat. 54.)

(d) Fund from which pensions to be paid.—All allowances made, or hereafter to be made, to medal of honor pensioners under the provisions of this section, shall be paid from the moneys appropriated for the payment of invalid and other pensions. (June 30, 1916, c. 194, 39 Stat. 242.)

(e) Number of pensions limited to one; rank not considered in the applications.—In case any person has been awarded two or more medals of honor, he shall not be entitled to and shall not receive more than one such special pension.

Rank in the service shall not be considered in applications filed hereunder. (Apr. 27, 1916, c. 88, § 4, 39 Stat. 54.)

BADGES

371. Military society badges.—The distinctive badges adopted by military societies of men who served in the armies and navies of the United States in the war of the Revolution, the war of 1812, the Mexican war, and the war of the rebellion, respectively, may be worn upon all occasions of ceremony by officers and enlisted men of the Army and Navy of the United States, who are members of said organizations in their own right. GENERAL PROVISIONS AS TO RETIREMENT OF OFFICERS

Section 381. Retirement after forty years' service.—When any officer of the Navy has been forty years in the service of the United States he may be retired from active service by the President upon his own application. (R. S. § 1443.)

382. Exceptions.—The preceding section shall not apply to any lieutenant commander, lieutenant, lieutenant (junior grade), ensign, passed assistant surgeon, passed assistant paymaster, assistant surgeon, or assistant paymaster. (R. S. § 1445; Mar. 3, 1883, c. 97, 22 Stat. 472; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413,

§ 1, 30 Stat. 1004; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 8, 30 Stat. 1006; May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 128; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 579.)

383. Retirement after thirty years' service.—When an officer of the Navy has been thirty years in the service, he may, upon his own application, in the discretion of the President, be retired from active service and placed upon the retired list with three-fourths of the highest pay of his grade. (May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 128.)

384. Age of retirement.—When any officer below the rank of vice admiral is sixty-four years old, he shall be retired by the President from active service. (R. S. § 1444; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 579.)

385. Officers not to be retired for misconduct.—No officer of the Navy shall be placed on the retired list because of misconduct; but he shall be brought to trial by court-martial for such misconduct. (R. S. § 1456.)

386. Discharge of officers unfit for promotion by reason of drunkenness or other misconduct.—Whenever on an inquiry had pursuant to law, concerning the fitness of an officer of the Navy for promotion, it shall appear that such officer is unfit to perform at sea the duties of the place to which it is proposed to promote him, by reason of drunkenness, or from any cause arising from his own misconduct, and having been informed of and heard upon the charges against him, he shall not be placed on the retired list of the Navy, and if the finding of the board be approved by the President, he shall be discharged with not more than one year's pay. (Aug. 5, 1882, c. 391, § 1, 22 Stat. 286.)

387. Voluntary retirements, to create vacancies.—Officers of the line in the grades of captain, commander, and lieutenant commander may, by official application to the Secretary of the Navy, have their names placed on a list which shall be known as the list of "Applicants for voluntary retirement," and when at the end of any fiscal year the average vacancies for the fiscal years subsequent to March 3, 1899, above the grade of commander have been less than thirteen, above the grade of lieutenant commander less than twenty, above the grade of lieutenant less than twenty-nine, and above the grade of lieutenant (junior grade) less than forty, the President may, in the order of the rank of the applicants, place a sufficient number on the retired list to cause the aforesaid vacancies for the fiscal year then being considered. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 8, 30 Stat. 1006; Aug. 22, 1912, c. 335, 37 Stat. 328.)

388. Rank and pay of officer so retired.—Any officer retired under the provisions of the preceding section shall be retired with the rank and three-fourths the sea pay of the grade from which he is retired. (Aug. 22, 1912, c. 335, 37 Stat. 328.)

389. Grades and status of retired officers; privileges and liabilities.—Except as otherwise provided in this title, officers retired from active service shall be placed on the retired list of officers of the grades to which they belonged respectively at the time of their retirement, and continue to be borne on the Navy Register. They shall be entitled to wear the uniform of their respective grades, and shall be subject to the rules and articles for the government of the Navy and to trial by general court-martial. The names of officers wholly retired from the service shall be omitted from the Navy Register. (R. S. § 1457.)

390. Retired rank of officer failing in physical examination.—Hereafter, if any officer of the United States Navy, below the rank of lieutenant commander, shall fail in his physical examination for promotion and be found incapacitated for service by reason of physical disability contracted in the line of duty, he shall be retired with the rank to which his seniority entitled him to be promoted. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1267; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 579; July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 718.)

391. Retired rank and pay of officers of Civil War; in general.—Any officer of the Navy, with a creditable record, who served during the Civil War, shall, when retired, be retired with the rank and three-fourths the sea pay of the next higher grade. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 11, 30 Stat. 1007.)

392. Retirement in next higher grade.—Any officer of the Navy not above the grade of captain who served with credit as an officer or as an enlisted man in the regular or volunteer forces during the Civil War prior to April 9, 1865, otherwise than as a cadet, and whose name is borne on the official register of the Navy, and who has heretofore been, or may hereafter be, retired on account of wounds or disability incident to the service or on account of age or after forty years' service, may, in the discretion of the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, be placed on the retired list of the Navy with the rank and retired pay of one grade above that actually held by him at the time of retirement: Provided, That this section shall not apply to any officer who received an advance of grade at or since the date of his retirement or who has been restored to the Navy, and placed on the retired list by virtue of the provisions of a special Act of Congress. (June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 554.)

393. Officer not to be deprived of increased rank and pay.—The provisions of the preceding section providing for the retirement in the next higher grade of officers of the Navy who served during the Civil War, shall not operate to deprive any officer of the Navy who has been, or may be, retired, since June 29, 1906, of the right to increased rank and pay to which, but for said section, he would have been entitled. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 753.)

394. Commissions to retired officers advanced in rank.—Commissioned officers of the Navy and Marine Corps on the retired list whose rank has been or shall hereafter be advanced by operation of or in accordance with law shall be entitled to and shall receive commissions in accordance with such advanced rank. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 266, 36 Stat. 1354.)

395. Officers of Medical and Supply Corps, chaplains, professors of mathematics, and constructors.—Officers of the Medical and Supply Corps, chaplains, professors of mathematics, and constructors, who shall have served faithfully for forty-five years, shall, when retired, have the rank of commodore; and officers of these several corps who have been or shall be retired for age after completing forty years from their entry into the service and before having served forty-five years, but who shall have served faithfully until retired, shall have the rank of commodore: Provided, That no person shall be retired with the rank of commodore, under the provisions of this section unless he has attained at the time of retirement the rank of captain in the Navy. (R. S. § 1481; Aug. 5, 1882, c. 391, 22 Stat. 286; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 1, 30 Stat. 1004; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 7, 30 Stat. 1006; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 579; July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 147; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 5, 43 Stat. 1271.)

396. Officers of Naval Dental Corps.—Officers of the Naval Dental Corps shall become eligible for retirement in the same manner and under the same conditions as now prescribed by law for officers of the Naval Medical Corps, except that section 382 shall not be applicable to dental officers, and they shall not be entitled to rank above lieutenant commander on the retired list, or to retired pay above that of captain. No dental officer in the Navy who on original appointment as dental officer was over forty years of age shall be eligible for retirement before he has reached the age of seventy years, except for physical disability incurred in line of duty. (July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 709.)

397. Staff officers retired for causes incident to service.—Except as otherwise provided in this Code, staff officers, who have been or shall be retired for causes incident to the service before arriving at the retirement age, shall have the same rank on the retired list as pertained to their position on the active list. (R. S. § 1482; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 579.)

398. Staff officers with permanent rank of rear admiral during World War.—Any staff officer of the Navy now on the active list who held the permanent rank of rear admiral during the World War, after serving ten years in that rank, may, in the discretion of the President, be placed upon the retired list with three-fourths of the pay received by him on the active list at the date of his retirement. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 29, 43 Stat. 1278.)

399. Officers of Navy and Marine Corps specifically commended for performance of duty in actual combat during World War.—All officers of the Navy and Marine Corps who have been specially commended for their performance of duty in actual combat with the enemy during the World War, by the head of the executive department under whose jurisdiction such duty was performed, when retired by reason of age ineligibility for promotion, shall be placed upon the retired list with the rank of the next higher grade and with three-fourths of the pay they would have received if not advanced in rank pursuant to this section. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 30, 43 Stat. 1279.)

400. Vacancies consequent on retirement filled by promotion according to seniority.—Except as otherwise provided in this title, the next officer in rank shall be promoted to the place of a retired officer, according to the established rules of the service; and the same rule of promotion shall be applied successively to the vacancies consequent upon the retirement of an officer. (R. S. § 1458.)

401. Officers on retired list withdrawn from command and from line of promotion.—Except as otherwise provided in this title, officers on the retired list shall be withdrawn from command and from the line of promotion on the active list. (R. S. § 1459.)

402. No promotion or increase of pay in retired list.—Except as otherwise provided in this title, there shall be no promotion or increase of pay in the retired list of the Navy but the rank and pay of officers on the retired list shall be the same that they are when such officers shall be retired. (Aug. 5, 1882, c. 391, § 1, 22 Stat. 286.)

RETIRING BOARD

411. Cases proper for reference to retiring board; composition of board.—Whenever any officer, on being ordered to perform the duties appropriate to his commission, reports himself unable to comply with such order, or whenever, in the judgment of the President, an officer is incapacitated to perform the duties of his office, the President, at his discretion may direct the Secretary of the Navy to refer the case of such officer to a board of not more than nine nor less than five commissioned officers, two-fifths of whom shall be members of the Medical Corps of the Navy. Said board, except the officers taken from the Medical Corps, shall be composed, as far as may be, of seniors in rank to the officer whose disability is inquired of. (R. S. § 1448.)

412. Officers not to be retired without a hearing before board; exceptions.—No officer of the Navy shall be retired from active service, or wholly retired from the service, without a full and fair hearing before such Navy retiring board, if he shall demand it, except in cases where he may be retired by the President at his own request, or on account of age or length of service, or because of his ineligibility for promotion on account of age. (R. S. § 1455; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 579.)

413. Powers and duties of board.—Said retiring board shall be authorized to inquire into and determine the facts touching the nature and occasion of the disability of any such officer, and shall have such powers of a court-martial and of a court of inquiry as may be necessary. (R. S. § 1449.)

414. Oath of members of board.—The members of said board shall be sworn in each case to discharge their duties honestly and impartially. (R. S. § 1450.)

415. Findings; cause of incapacity.—When said retiring board finds an officer incapacitated for active service, it shall also find and report the cause which, in its judgment, produced his incapacity, and whether such cause is an incident of the service. (R. S. § 1451.)

416. Revision by the President.—A record of the proceedings and decision of the board in each case shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Navy, and shall be laid by him before the President for his approval or disapproval, or orders in the case. (R. S. § 1452.)

417. Effect of finding of disability due to incident of service.—When a retiring board finds that an officer is incapacitated for active service, and that his incapacity is the result of an incident of the service, such officer shall, if said decision is approved by the President, be retired from active service with retired pay. (R. S. § 1453.)

418. Effect of finding of disability from other causes.—When said board finds that an officer is incapacitated for active service and that his incapacity is not the result of any incident of the service, such officer shall, if said decision is approved by the President, be retired from active service on furlough pay, or wholly retired from service with one year's pay, as the President may determine. (R. S. § 1454.)

ACTIVE DUTY OF RETIRED OFFICERS

421. General rule.—Except as otherwise provided by law, no officer on the retired list of the Navy shall be employed on active duty except in time of war. (R. S. § 1462.)

422. Employment on active duty with officer's consent.—In time of peace any naval officer on the retired list may, with his consent, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy, be ordered to such duty as he may be able to perform at sea or on shore. (Aug. 22, 1912, c. 335, 37 Stat. 329.)

423. Liability to active duty in time of war or national emergency.—During the existence of war or of a national emergency declared by the President to exist, any commissioned or warrant officer of the Navy or Marine Corps of the United States on the retired list may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy, be ordered to active duty at sea or on shore. (July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 717; June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 17, 42 Stat. 632.)

424. Assignment of retired officers to command of squadrons and ships.—In time of war the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, may detail officers on the retired list for the command of squadrons and single ships, when he believes that the good of the service requires that they shall be so placed in command. (R. S. § 1463; May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 18, 40 Stat. 89.)

425. From what grades commanders of squadrons selected; rank, title, and authority.—In making said details the President may select any officer not below the grade of commander and assign him to the command of a squadron, with the rank and title of "flag officer"; and any officer so assigned shall have the same authority and receive the same obedience from the commanders of ships in his squadron holding commissions of an older date than his that he would be entitled to receive if his commission were the oldest. (R. S. § 1464; May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 18, 40 Stat. 89.)

426. Restoration of such commanders to active list.—Retired officers so detailed for the command of squadrons and single ships may be restored to the active list, if, upon the recommendation of the President, they shall receive a vote of thanks of Congress for their services and gallantry in action against the enemy, and not otherwise. (R. S. § 1465.)

RETIREMENT OF ENLISTED MEN AND PETTY OFFICERS

431. In general.—When an enlisted man of the Navy or Marine Corps shall have served thirty years he shall, upon making application to the President, be placed upon the retired list with the rating or rank held by him at the date of retirement, and with 75 per centum of the pay of the said rating or rank as provided by sections 13, and 16 of Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES, and with the following allowances: $9.50 per month in lieu of rations and clothing and $6.25 per month in lieu of quarters, fuel, and light. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 17, 30 Stat. 1008; Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2515, 34 Stat. 1217.)

432. Computation of length of service.—In computing the necessary thirty years' time for retirement under the preceding section, all service in the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps, and all creditable service in the Coast Guard and former Revenue Cutter Service, shall be credited; and if said enlisted man had active service in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, either as volunteer or regular, during the Civil or Spanish-American War, such war service shall be computed as double time in computing the thirty years necessary to enable him to be retired. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 17, 30 Stat. 1008; June 22, 1906, c. 3518, 34 Stat. 451; Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2515, § 1, 34 Stat. 1217; June 4, 1920, c 228, § 3, 41 Stat. 834.)

433. Call into active service of retired enlisted men.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized in time of war, or when a national emergency exists, to call any enlisted man on the retired list into active service for such duty as he may be able to perform. While so employed such enlisted men shall receive the pay and allowances authorized by section 26 of Title 37, except as otherwise provided in the next section. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 941; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 591.)

434. Promotion of retired enlisted men called into active service.—Any enlisted man of the Navy or Marine Corps upon the retired list who has been ordered into active service since April 6, 1917, or who may hereafter be ordered into active service, shall be eligible for promotion and he shall be entitled to the pay and benefits of continuous service of such rank and for such length of time as he is or has been employed in active service, and when relieved of active service shall retain upon the retired list the rank and service held by him at the time of such relief, with the pay and allowances of such rank on the retired list. (July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 719.)

435. Provision as to promotion construed.—So much of the preceding section as authorizes the promotion of retired enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps ordered to active duty shall not be so construed as to make illegal promotions of such men as have heretofore been made to warrant grades or as to deprive them of any of the pay, allowances, or other benefits accruing under such promotion. (July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 153.)

Chapter 8.—DETAIL OF OFFICERS AND ENLISTED MEN.

449. Enlisted men prohibited from civil employment.

Section 441. Detail of officers to service with Republics of South America.—The President of the United States is authorized, upon application from the foreign governments concerned, and whenever in his discretion the public interests require, to detail officers of the United States naval service to assist the governments of the Republics of South America in naval matters: Provided, That the officers so detailed are authorized to accept offices from the government to which detailed with such compensation and emoluments therefor as may be first approved by the Secretary of the Navy: Provided further, That while so detailed such officers shall receive, in addition to the compensation and emoluments allowed them by such governments, the pay and allowances of their rank in the United States naval service, and they shall be entitled to the same credit while so detailed for longevity, retirement, and for all other purposes that they would receive if they were serving with the United States naval service. (June 5, 1920, c. 261, 41 Stat. 1056.)

442. Detail of officers to assist Republic of Brazil.—The President is authorized, in his discretion, to grant leave of absence to not more than two commissioned officers of the line of the Navy of the United States to assist the Republic of Brazil as instructors in naval strategy and tactics in the Naval War College of Brazil, in pursuance of an arrangement to be made between such officers so detailed and the Government of Brazil; and such officers while absent on such leave are authorized to accept from the Government of Brazil the said employment with compensation from the said Government: Provided, however, That the permission so given shall be held to terminate at such date as the President may determine. To insure the continuance of this work during such times as may be desirable, the President may have the power of substitution in case of the termination of the detail of an officer for any cause; and the officers, while so absent in the service of the Republic of Brazil, shall receive no pay or allowances from the United States Government. (Oct. 13, 1914, No. 48, 38 Stat. 780.)

443. Detail of officers and men to service with Republic of Haiti; in general.—The President of the United States is authorized, in his discretion, to detail to assist the Republic of Haiti such officers and enlisted men of the United States Navy and the United States Marine Corps as may be mutually agreed upon by him and the President of the Republic of Haiti: Provided, That the officers and enlisted men so detailed be, and they are hereby, authorized to accept from the Government of Haiti the said employment with compensation and emoluments from the said Government of Haiti, subject to the approval of the President of the United States. (June 12, 1916, c. 140, § 1, 39 Stat. 223.)

444. Substitution; pay and allowances.—To insure the continuance of the work provided for in the preceding section during such time as may be desirable, the President may have the power of substitution in the case of the termination of the detail of any officer or enlisted man for any cause: Provided, That during the continuance of such details the officers and enlisted men shall continue to receive the pay and allowances of their ranks or ratings in the Navy or Marine Corps. (June 12, 1916, c. 140, § 2, 39 Stat. 224.)

445. Credit for service.—Officers and enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps detailed for duty to assist the Republic of Haiti shall be entitled to the same credit for such service, for longevity, retirement, foreign service, pay, and for all other purposes, that they would receive if they were serving with the Navy or with the Marine Corps. (June 12, 1916, c. 140, § 5, 39 Stat. 224.)

446. Detail of officers and men to assist Dominican Republic.—The President of the United States is authorized, in his discretion, to detail to assist the Dominican Republic, officers and enlisted men of the United States Navy and the United States Marine Corps: Provided, That officers and enlisted men so detailed are authorized to accept from the Government of the Dominican Republic offices under said Government with compensation and emoluments from the said Dominican Republic, subject to the approval of the President of the United States: Provided further, That while so detailed such officers and enlisted men shall receive, in addition to the compensation and emoluments allowed them by the Dominican Republic, the pay and allowances of their rank or rating in the United States Navy or United States Marine Corps, as the case may be, and they shall be entitled to the same credit, while so serving, for longevity, retirement, foreign-service pay, and for all other purposes that they would receive if they were serving with the United States Navy or Marine Corps in said Dominican Republic. (Feb. 11, 1918, c. 15, 40 Stat. 437.)

447. Detail of officers for service of War Department.—The President may detail, temporarily, three competent naval officers for the service of the War Department in the inspection of transport vessels, and for such other services as may be designated by the Secretary of War. (R. S. § 1437.)

448. Detail of officers or men for work on rural post roads.—No officer or enlisted man of the Navy or Marine Corps shall be detailed for work on the roads which come within the provisions of the Act of February 28, 1919, chapter 69, Fortieth Statutes 1202, except by his own consent. (Feb. 28, 1919, c. 69, § 9, 40 Stat. 1202.)

449. Enlisted men prohibited from civil employment.—No enlisted man in the active service of the United States in the Navy and Marine Corps, except as provided in section 702 of this title, whether a noncommissioned officer, musician, or private, shall be detailed, ordered, or permitted to leave his post to engage in any pursuit, business, or performance in civil life, for emolument, hire, or otherwise, when the same shall interfere with the customary employment and regular engagement of local civilians in the respective arts, trades, or professions. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 35, 39 Stat. 188; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 612.)

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 451. Classification of vessels; assignments to command.—The President of the United States is authorized to establish, and from time to time to modify, as the needs of the service may require, a classification of vessels of the Navy, and to formulate appropriate rules governing assignments to command of vessels and squadrons. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 852, 31 Stat. 1133.)

452. Vessels kept in service in time of peace.—The President is authorized to keep in actual service in time of peace, such of the public armed vessels as, in his opinion, may be required by the nature of the service, and to cause the residue thereof to be laid up in ordinary in convenient ports. (R. S. § 1534.)

453. How such vessels officered and manned.—Vessels in actual service, in time of peace, shall be officered and manned as the President may direct. (R. S. § 1535.)

NAMES OF VESSELS

461. First-class battleships and monitors.—All first-class battleships owned by the United States shall be named for the States, and shall not be named for any city, place, or person until the names of the States shall have been exhausted. Monitors now owned by the United States or hereafter built may be named as the President may direct. (May 4, 1898, c. 234, 30 Stat. 390; May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 159.)

462. Avoidance of duplication in names.—Care shall be taken that not more than one vessel in the Navy shall bear the same name. (R. S. § 1532.)

463. Change in names of purchased vessels.—The Secretary of the Navy may change the names of any vessels purchased for the Navy by authority of law. (R. S. § 1533.)

EMPLOYMENT OF VESSELS

471. Assistance of distressed navigators.—The President may, when the necessities of the service permit it, cause any suitable number of public vessels adapted to the purpose to cruise upon the coast in the season of severe weather and to afford such aid to distressed navigators as their circumstances may require; and such public vessels shall go to sea fully prepared to render such assistance. (R. S. § 1536.)

472. Salvage service.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to cause vessels under his control adapted to the purpose, to afford salvage service to public or private vessels in distress: Provided, That when such salvage service is rendered by a vessel specially equipped for the purpose or by a tug, the Secretary of the Navy may determine and collect reasonable compensation therefor. (July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 705.)

473. Detail to remove or destroy derelicts.—The President in his discretion may temporarily detail any vessel or vessels of the Navy to remove or destroy derelicts in the course of vessels at sea. The regulations to govern the detail and service of said vessels shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy and approved by the President. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, 33 Stat. 1164.)

CONSTRUCTION AND REPAIR

481. Steel material for construction of vessels.—Subject to the provisions of section 568 of this title, in the construction of all naval vessels the steel material shall be of domestic manufacture, and of the quality and characteristics best adapted to the various purposes for which it may be used, in accordance with specifications approved by the Secretary of the Navy. (Aug. 3, 1886, c. 849, § 2, 24 Stat. 215; May 4, 1898, c. 234, 30 Stat. 390.)

482. Factory for manufacture of armor.—The Secretary of the Navy shall keep accurate and itemized account of the cost per ton of the product of any factory now owned by the United States for the manufacture of armor for the vessels of the Navy, and report the same to Congress in his annual report. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 563.)

483. Purchase and use of patented articles connected with marine engines.—No patented article connected with marine engines shall be purchased or used in connection with any steam vessels of war until the same shall have been submitted to a competent board of naval engineers, and recommended by such board, in writing, for purchase and use. (R. S. § 1537.)

484. Repairs; hull and spars.—Not more than $3,000 shall be expended at any navy yard in repairing the hull and spars of any vessel, until the necessity and expediency of such repairs and the probable cost thereof are ascertained and reported to the Navy Department by an examining board, which shall be composed of one captain or commander in the Navy, designated by the Secretary of the Navy, the naval constructor of the yard where such vessel may be ordered for repairs, and two master workmen of said yard, or one master workman and an engineer of the Navy, according to the nature of the repairs to be made. Said master workmen and engineer shall be designated by the head of the Bureau of Construction and Repair. (R. S. § 1538.)

485. Repairs on sails and rigging.—Not more than $1,000 shall be expended in repairs on the sails and rigging of any vessel, until the necessity and expediency of such repairs and the estimated cost thereof have been ascertained and reported to the Navy Department by an examining board, which shall be composed of one naval officer, designated by the Secretary of the Navy, and the master rigger and the master sail maker of the yard where such vessel may be ordered. (R. S. § 1539.)

DISPOSAL OF UNFIT OR UNSUITABLE VESSELS

491. Examination of vessels; unfit vessels stricken from register.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Navy to cause to be examined by competent boards of officers of the Navy, to be designated by him for that duty, all vessels on their return from foreign stations, and all vessels in the United States as often as once in three years, when practicable; and said boards shall ascertain and report to the Secretary of the Navy, in writing, which of said vessels are unfit for further service, or, if the same are unfinished in any navy yard, those which can not be finished without great and disproportionate expense, and shall in such report state fully the grounds and reasons for their opinion. And it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Navy, if he shall concur in opinion with said report, to strike the name of such vessel or vessels from the Navy Register and report the same to Congress. (Aug. 5, 1882, c. 391, § 2, 22 Stat. 296.)

492. Sale of vessels stricken from register.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Navy to cause to be appraised, in such manner as may seem best, all vessels of the Navy which have been stricken from the Navy Register under the provisions of the preceding section. And if the said Secretary shall deem it for the best interest of the United States to sell any such vessel or vessels, he shall, after such appraisal, advertise for sealed proposals for the purchase of the same, for a period not less than three months, in such newspapers as other naval advertisements are published, setting forth the name and location and the appraised value of such vessel, and that the same will be sold, for cash, to the person or persons or corporation or corporations offering the highest price therefor above the appraised value thereof; and such proposals shall be opened on a day and hour and at a place named in said advertisement, and record thereof shall be made. The Secretary of the Navy shall require to accompany each bid or proposal a deposit in cash of not less than 10 per centum of the amount of the offer or proposal, and also, except as provided in Title 6, OFFICIAL AND PENAL BONDS, a bond, with two or more sureties to be approved by him, conditioned for the payment of the remaining 90 per centum of the amount of such offer or proposal within the time fixed in the advertisement. And in case default is made in the payment of the remaining 90 per centum, or any part thereof, the Secretary, within the prescribed time thereof, shall advertise and resell said vessel under the provisions of this section. And in that event said cash deposit of 10 per centum shall be considered as forfeited to the Government, and shall be applied, first, to the payment of all costs and expenditures attending the advertisement and resale of said vessel; second, to the payment of the difference, if any, between the first and last sale of said vessel; and the balance, if any, shall be covered into the Treasury: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent a suit upon said bond for breach of any of its conditions. Any vessel sold under the foregoing provisions shall be delivered to the purchaser upon the full payment to the Secretary of the Navy of the amount of such proposal or offer; and the net proceeds of such sale shall be covered into the Treasury. Except as otherwise provided by law, no vessel of the Navy shall hereafter be sold in any other manner than herein provided, or for less than such appraised value, unless the President of the United States shall otherwise direct in writing. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 141, § 5, 22 Stat. 599.)

493. Sale of unsuitable vessels.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to sell any or all of the auxiliary ships of the Navy classified as colliers, transports, tenders, supply ships, special types, and hospital ships, which are eighteen years and over in age, which he deems unsuited to present needs of the Navy and which can be disposed of at an advantageous price, which shall not be less than 50 per centum of their original cost, the money obtained from such sale to be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 605.)

Chapter 10.—NAVY YARDS AND NAVAL STATIONS.

Sec.
501. Commandants of navy yards.
502. Master workmen.
503. Pay and number of clerical, drafting, inspection, and messenger force; annual report to Congress.
504. Pay of drafting, technical, and inspection force.
505. Conformity of rates of pay with those of private establishments in vicinity.
506. Travel pay of civilian employees in certain islands.
507. Selection of laborers.
508. Preference for employment.
509. Force not to be increased before elections.
510. Requiring contributions for political purposes prohibited.
511. Leave of absence of navy yard employees.
512. Extension of leave of absence.
513. Accrued leave of absence of employees outside United States.
514. Duties of enlisted men or seamen on battleships docked or laid up at navy yard for repairs.

Section 501. Commandants of navy yards.—The President may select the commandants of the several navy yards from officers not below the grade of commander. (R. S. § 1542.)

502. Master workmen.—The persons employed at the several navy yards to superintend the mechanical departments, and heretofore known as master mechanics, master carpenters, master joiners, master blacksmiths, master boiler makers, master sailmakers, master plumbers, master painters, master calkers, master masons, master boat builders, master spar makers, master block makers, master laborers, and the superintendents of ropewalks shall be men skilled in their several duties and appointed from civil life, and shall not be appointed from the officers of the Navy. (R. S. § 1543.)

503. Pay and number of clerical, drafting, inspection, and messenger force; annual report to Congress.—The rates of pay of the clerical, drafting, inspection, and messenger force at navy yards and naval stations and other stations and offices under the Navy Department shall be paid from lump appropriations and shall be fixed by the Secretary of the Navy on a per annum or per diem basis as he may elect; the number may be increased or decreased at his option and shall be distributed at the various navy yards and naval stations by the Secretary of the Navy to meet the needs of the naval service. The total amount expended annually for pay for such clerical, drafting, inspection, and messenger force shall not exceed the amounts specifically allowed by Congress under the several lump appropriations, and the Secretary of the Navy shall each year, in the annual estimates, report to Congress the number of persons so employed, their duties, and the amount paid to each. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 754.)

504. Pay of drafting, technical, and inspection force.—Such amount may be expended annually for pay of drafting, technical, and inspection force from the several lump-sum appropriations in which specific authority for such expenditure is given, as the Secretary of the Navy may deem necessary within the limitation of appropriation provided for such service in said lump-sum appropriations at such rates of compensation as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe; and the Secretary of the Navy shall each year, in the annual estimates, report to Congress the number of persons so employed, their duties, and the amount paid to each. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 558.)

505. Conformity of rates of pay with those of private establishments in vicinity.—The rate of wages of the employees in the navy yards shall conform, as nearly as is consistent with the public interest, with those of private establishments in the immediate vicinity of the respective yards, to be determined by the commandants of the navy yards, subject to the approval and revision of the Secretary of the Navy. (July 16, 1862, c. 184, 12 Stat. 587.)

506. Travel pay of civilian employees in certain islands.—The Secretary of the Navy, in his discretion, is authorized to pay all civilian employees appointed for duty in the Philippine, Hawaiian, and Samoan Islands, the island of Guam, and the island of Porto Rico, from the date of their sailing from the United States until they report for duty to the officer under whom they are to serve, and while returning to the United States by the most direct route and with due expedition, a per diem compensation corresponding to their pay while actually employed; and in cases where the appointee is not to fill an existing vacancy his pay while traveling may be charged to the annual appropriation of the bureau concerned. (July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 663.)

507. Selection of laborers.—Laborers shall be employed in the several navy yards by the proper officers in charge with reference to skill and efficiency, and without regard to other considerations. (R. S. § 1544.)

508. Preference for employment.—Persons employed in the clerical, drafting, and inspection force at navy yards and stations discharged for lack of work or insufficiency of funds shall for one year thereafter be preferred for employment in such navy yards and stations in the clerical, drafting, inspection, and messenger forces. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 755.)

509. Force not to be increased before elections.—No increase of the force at any navy yard shall be made at any time within sixty days next before any election to take place for President of the United States, or members of Congress, except when the Secretary of the Navy shall certify that the needs of the public service make such increase necessary at that time which certificate shall be immediately published when made. (June 30, 1876, c. 159, § 1, 19 Stat. 69.)

510. Requiring contributions for political purposes prohibited.—No officer or employee of the Government shall require or request any workingman in any navy yard to contribute or pay any money for political purposes, nor shall any workingman be removed or discharged for political opinion; and any officer or employee of the Government who shall offend against the provisions of this section shall be dismissed from the service of the United States. (R. S. § 1546.)

511. Leave of absence of navy yard employees.—Each and every employee of the navy yards, gun factories, naval stations, and arsenals of the United States Government is hereby granted thirty days' leave of absence each year, without forfeiture of pay during such leave: Provided, That it shall be lawful to allow pro rata leave only to those serving twelve consecutive months or more: Provided further, That in all cases the heads of divisions shall have discretion as to the time when the leave can best be allowed: Provided further, That not more than thirty days' leave with pay shall be allowed any such employee in one year: Provided further, That this provision shall not be construed to deprive employees of any sick leave or legal holidays to which they may now be entitled under existing law. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 617.)

512. Extension of leave of absence.—The leave of absence of the per diem employees referred to in section 503 may, in exceptional and meritorious cases, where such an employee is ill, be extended, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy, not to exceed fifteen days additional in any one year. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 755; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 617.)

513. Accrued leave of absence of employees outside United States.—Any civilian employee of the Navy Department who is a citizen of the United States and employed at any station outside the continental limits of the United States may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy, after at least two years' continuous, faithful, and satisfactory service abroad, and subject to the interests of the public service, be granted accrued leave of absence, with pay, for each year of service, and if an employee should elect to postpone the taking of any or all of the leave to which he may be entitled in pursuance hereof such leave may be allowed to accumulate for a period of not exceeding four years, the rate of pay for accrued leave to be the rate obtaining at the time the leave is granted. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 557.)

514. Duties of enlisted men or seamen on battleships docked or laid up at navy yard for repairs.—No enlisted men or seamen, not including commissioned and warrant officers, on battleships of the Navy, when such battleships are docked or laid up at any navy yard for repairs, shall be ordered or required to perform any duties except such as are or may be performed by the crew while at sea or in a foreign port. (Aug. 22, 1912, c. 335, 37 Stat. 355.)

GENERAL PROVISIONS AS TO ACQUISITION, USE, AND DISPOSITION

Section 520. Prerequisites to expenditure of public money on site purchased for navy yard or buildings.—No public money shall be expended upon any site or land purchased by the United States for the purposes of erecting thereon any armory, arsenal, fort, fortification, navy yard, customhouse, lighthouse, or other public building, of any kind whatever, until the written opinion of the Attorney General shall be had in favor of the validity of the title, nor until the consent of the legislature of the State in which the land or site may be, to such purchase, has been given. The district attorneys of the United States, upon the application of the Attorney General, shall furnish any assistance or information in their power in relation to the titles of the public property lying within their respective districts. And the Secretaries of the departments, upon the application of the Attorney General, shall procure any additional evidence of title which he may deem necessary, and which may not be in the possession of the officers of the Government, and the expense of procuring it shall be paid out of the appropriations made for the contingencies of the departments, respectively. (R. S. § 355.)

521. Leases of water-front property from State or municipality.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized in leasing water-front property from any State or municipality where the State law or charter of the municipality requires that the improvements placed upon leased lands shall at the termination of the lease become the property of the State or municipality, to provide, as a part or all of the consideration therefor, that improvements placed thereon by the United States shall become the property of the lessor upon the expiration of the lease or any renewal thereof. (July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 705.)

522. Lease of property of United States not required for public use.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized, when in his discretion it will be for the public good, to lease for periods not exceeding five years and revocable at any time, such property of the United States under his control as may not for the time being be required for public use and for the leasing of which there is no authority under existing law, and such leases shall be reported annually to Congress. The authority herein granted shall not be held to apply to oil, mineral, or phosphate lands. All moneys received from such leases shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 559.)

523. Site for radio station or other naval purposes.—Such land of the United States under the control of a particular department or other branch of the Government that has been or may hereafter be mutually selected as a site for a naval radio station may, by direction of the President, be transferred to and placed under the control and jurisdiction of the Navy Department for use as a naval radio station or other naval purposes. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 606.)

524. Naval petroleum reserves; Secretary of Navy to take possession of, conserve, develop, use, operate, or lease; rights of claimants; royalties.—The Secretary of the Navy is directed to take possession of all properties within the naval petroleum reserves as are or may become subject to the control and use by the United States for naval purposes, and on which there are no pending claims or applications for permits or leases under the provisions of sections 223–229 of Title 30, MINERAL LANDS AND MINING, or pending applications for United States patent under any law; to conserve, develop, use, and operate the same in his discretion, directly or by contract, lease, or otherwise, and to use, store, exchange, or sell the oil and gas products thereof, and those from all royalty oil from lands in the naval reserves, for the benefit of the United States: And provided further, That the rights of any claimant under sections 223–229 of Title 30 are not affected adversely thereby. (June 4, 1920, c. 228, § 1, 41 Stat. 813.)

525. Transfer of accumulated supplies.—For the purpose of utilizing accumulated naval supplies, the transfer is authorized, after requisition upon the Paymaster General of the Navy, of any supplies belonging to one bureau and available for the use of another without reimbursement therefor by the bureau receiving the supplies so transferred: Provided, That supplies obtained for a specific object and still needed therefor, and supplies bought within the fiscal year in which the requisition is made, and provisions, clothing, and small stores shall not be subject to transfer without charge under the terms of this section. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 371, 25 Stat. 818.)

526. Experiments for private shipbuilders at model tank.—Upon the authorization of the Secretary of the Navy experiments may be made at the model tank at the navy yard at Washington, District of Columbia, for private shipbuilders, who shall defray the cost of material and of labor of per diem employees for such experiments: Provided, That the results of such private experiments shall be regarded as confidential and shall not be divulged without the consent of the shipbuilder for whom they may be made. (June 10, 1896, c. 399, § 1, 29 Stat. 372.)

527. Heat and light for Young Men's Christian Association buildings.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized, in his discretion, to furnish without charge, heat and light for the Young Men's Christian Association buildings in navy yards and stations. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 239, 36 Stat. 1274.)

528. Transportation of supplies.—Vessels of the United States, or belonging to the United States, and no others, shall be employed in the transportation by sea of coal, provisions, fodder, or supplies of any description, purchased pursuant to law, for the use of the Navy unless the President shall find that the rates of freight charges by such vessels are excessive and unreasonable: Provided, That no greater charges be made by such vessels for transportation for the use of the said Navy than are made by such vessels for transportation of like goods for private parties or companies. (Apr. 28, 1904, c. 1766, § 1, 33 Stat. 518.)

529. Regulations as to articles, stores, and supplies for persons in Navy; duty of President to make.—It shall be the duty of the President to make, subject to the provisions of law concerning supplies, such regulations for the purchase, preservation, and disposition of all articles, stores, and supplies for persons in the Navy, as may be necessary for the safe and economical administration of that branch of the public service. (R. S. § 1549.)

530. Reserve material fund.—The reserve material Navy fund shall be used for procuring apparatus and materials (other than ordnance materials and medical stores), as a war reserve necessary to be carried in the supply departments for the purpose of fitting out vessels of the fleet and merchant auxiliaries in time of war or when, in the opinion of the President, a national emergency exists: Provided, That to prevent deterioration materials purchased under this fund shall be used as required in time of peace, and when so used reimbursement shall be made to this fund from current naval appropriations in order that additional stocks may be procured. (Mar. 4, 1917, c. 180, 39 Stat. 1183; June 15, 1917, c. 29, 40 Stat. 211.)

531. Sale of fuel to volunteer patrol squadrons.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to sell at cost and issue lubricating oil and fuel to vessels of the volunteer patrol squadrons duly enrolled in the several naval districts; and during maneuvers or practice drills when any vessels of said patrol-boat squadrons shall be acting singly or as squadrons under the direct command or control of an officer or officers of the United States Navy, fuel shall be supplied to them free of charge. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 600; Mar. 4, 1917, c. 180, 39 Stat. 1172.)

532. Exchanging worn-out motor vehicles.—Worn-out motor-propelled vehicles for the Naval Establishment may be exchanged as a part of the purchase price of new ones. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 565.)

533. Procurement and sale of stores to officers and men and to civilian employees.—Such stores as the Secretary of the Navy may designate may be procured and sold to officers and enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps, also to civilian employees at naval stations beyond the continental limits of the United States and in Alaska, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 768.)

534. Sales to officers, enlisted men, and civilian employees, of subsistence stores.—So much of the appropriation "Provisions, Marine Corps," as may be necessary may be applied for the purchase, for sale to officers, enlisted men, and civilian employees, of such articles of subsistence stores as may from time to time be designated and under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 613.)

535. Sale of naval supplies to personnel of Coast Guard and Public Health Service.—Officers and enlisted men of the Coast Guard and officers of the Public Health Service may be permitted to purchase quartermaster supplies from the Navy and Marine Corps at the same price as is charged the officers and enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps. (Mar. 6, 1920, c. 94, 41 Stat. 506, 507.)

536. Sale of subsistence stores, etc., to discharged persons under Public Health treatment.—Honorably discharged officers and enlisted men of the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps who are being cared for and are receiving medical treatment from the Public Health Service or United States Veterans' Bureau shall, while undergoing such care and treatment, be permitted to purchase subsistence stores and articles of other authorized supplies, except articles of the uniform, from the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps at the same price as charged the officers and enlisted men of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps. (June 5, 1920, c. 240, 41 Stat. 976; Aug. 29, 1921, c. 57, 42 Stat. 148; June 7, 1924, c. 320, 43 Stat. 610.)

537. Sale of uniforms, accouterments, and equipment at cost.—Uniforms, accouterments, and equipment shall, upon the request of any officer of the Navy or any officer of the Marine Corps or any officer of the Coast Guard while operating with the Navy or any midshipman at the Naval Academy or cadets at the Coast Guard Academy, be furnished by the Government at cost, subject to such restrictions and regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe. (Jan. 12, 1919, c. 8, 40 Stat. 1054.)

538. Sale of Army subsistence supplies.—The officers and enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps shall be permitted to purchase subsistence supplies from the Army at the same price as is charged the officers and enlisted men of the Army; and the officers and the enlisted men of the Army shall be permitted to purchase subsistence supplies from the Navy and Marine Corps at the same price as is charged the officers and enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 418, § 1, 39 Stat. 630.)

539. Sale of Army quartermaster property.—Articles of serviceable quartermaster property may be sold by the Quartermaster General of the Army to officers of the Navy and Marine Corps for their use in the public service, in the same manner as these articles are now sold to officers of the Army. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 143, § 1, 38 Stat. 1079.)

540. Sale of Army ordnance property.—Articles of ordnance property may be sold by the Chief of Ordnance to officers of the Navy and Marine Corps, for their use in the public service, in the same manner as these articles are now sold to officers of the Army. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 252, 35 Stat. 751.)

541. Supplies and transportation to naval and marine detachments cooperating with land troops.—The officers of the Quartermaster Corps of the Army shall, upon the requisition of the naval or marine officer commanding any detachment of seamen or marines under orders to act on shore, in cooperation with land troops, and during the time such detachment is so acting or proceeding to act, furnish the officers and seamen with camp equipage, together with transportation for said officers, seamen, and marines, their baggage, provisions, and cannon, and shall furnish the naval officer commanding any such detachment, and his necessary aids, with horses, accouterments, and forage, and shall furnish rations to the officers, seamen, and marines. (R. S. §§ 1135, 1143.)

542. Profit on sales of stores.—A profit not to exceed 15 per centum may be charged on sales from ships' stores, such profit to be expended in the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy, under such regulations as he may prescribe, for the amusement, comfort, and contentment of the enlisted force, and to be accounted for to the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts, Navy Department. (June 24, 1910, c. 378, 36 Stat. 619.)

543. Sale of condemned supplies, stores, and materials.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to sell, after advertisement of the sale for such time as in his judgment the public interests may require, condemned naval supplies, stores, and materials, either by public auction or by advertisement for sealed proposals for the purchase of the same. (June 30, 1890, c. 640, § 1, 26 Stat. 194.)

544. Use or sale of old material.—No old material of the Navy shall hereafter be sold or exchanged by the Secretary of the Navy, or by any officer of the Navy, which can be profitably used by reworking or otherwise in the construction or repair of vessels, their machinery, armor, armament, or equipment; but the same shall be stored and preserved for future use. And when any such old material can not be profitably used as aforesaid, the same shall be appraised and sold at public auction after public notice and advertisement shall have been given according to law under such rules and regulations and in such manner as the said Secretary may direct. The net proceeds arising from the sales of such old materials shall be paid into the Treasury. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Navy annually to report in detail to Congress, in his annual report, the proceeds of all sales of materials, stores, and supplies, made under the provisions of this section, and the expenses attending such sales. (Aug. 5, 1882, c. 391, § 2, 22 Stat. 296.)

545. Sale of armament; sentimental reasons.—Individual pieces of United States armament which are not needed on account of historical value, and can be advantageously replaced, may be sold at a price not less than their cost price, when there exist for such sale sentimental reasons adequate in the judgment of the Secretary of the Navy. (Mar. 2, 1905, c. 1307, 33 Stat. 841.)

546. Loan or gift of condemned ordnance.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized, in his discretion, to loan or give to soldiers' monument associations, posts of the Grand Army of the Republic, and municipal corporations, condemned ordnance, guns, and cannon balls which may not be needed in the service of the Navy Department. Such loan or gift shall be made subject to rules and regulations covering the same, and the Government shall be at no expense in connection with any such loan or gift. (May 22, 1896, c. 231, 29 Stat. 133.)

547. Useless papers in files of naval vessels.—Accumulations in the files of vessels of the Navy of papers that, in the judgment of the commander in chief of the fleet, are not needed or useful in the transaction of current business and have no permanent value or historical interest may be disposed of by the commander in chief of the fleet by sale, after advertisement for proposals, as waste paper if practicable, or if not practicable, then otherwise as may appear best for the interests of the Government, the commander in chief of the fleet to make report thereon to the Secretary of the Navy: Provided always, That no papers less than two years old from the date of the last indorsement thereon and no correspondence, or the related papers, with officers or representatives of a foreign government shall be destroyed or disposed of by such commander in chief of the fleet. (Aug. 22, 1912, c. 335, 37 Stat. 329–330.)

548. Useless papers in files of navy yards and naval stations.—Accumulations in the files of navy yards and naval stations that, in the judgment of the Secretary of the Navy, are not needed or useful in the transaction of current business and have no permanent value or historical interest may be disposed of by the Secretary of the Navy by sale, after advertisement for proposals as waste paper if practicable, or if not practicable then otherwise as may appear best for the interests of the Government, the said Secretary to make detailed report to the Congress in every case of the papers destroyed: Provided always, That no papers less than two years old from the date of the last indorsement thereon shall be destroyed or disposed of by the Secretary of the Navy, except in the manner provided in section 112 of Title 5, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS AND GOVERNMENT OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 929.)

549. Issue of articles required for instruction and practice by organizations formed by Red Cross.—The Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy are hereby, authorized to issue, each at his discretion and under proper regulations to be prescribed by him, out of equipment for medical and other establishments on hand, belonging to the Government and which can be temporarily spared, such articles as may appear to be required for instruction and practice by organizations formed by the American National Red Cross, for the purpose or rendering aid to the Army and Navy in war. (May 8, 1914, No. 15, § 1, 38 Stat. 771.)

550. Regulations for return of such articles.—The regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War or by the Secretary of the Navy, in pursuance of the authority granted by the preceding section, shall provide for the immediate return of the articles of equipment loaned the American National Red Cross when called for by the authority which issued them; and the said Secretaries shall require a bond in each case, in double the value of the property, for the care and safe-keeping thereof and for the return of the same when required. (May 8, 1914, No. 15, § 2, 38 Stat. 771.)

551. Issue of national flag free of cost under certain circumstances.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized at his discretion to issue free of cost the national flag (United States national ensign No. 7) used for draping the coffin of any officer or enlisted man of the Navy or Marine Corps whose death occurs while in the service of the United States Navy or Marine Corps, upon request, to the relatives of the deceased officer or enlisted man or upon request to a school, patriotic order, or society to which the deceased officer or man belonged: Provided, That the Secretary of the Navy is further authorized at his discretion to issue free of cost the national flag (United States national ensign No. 7), upon request, to the mother or nearest relative of any officer, enlisted man or nurse, whose death occurred at any time during the period between April 6, 1917, and March 3, 1921, while in the service of the United States Navy, Marine Corps, Naval Reserve Force, or Marine Corps Reserve, and whose mother or nearest relative has not heretofore been issued such a flag free of cost. (June 30, 1914, c. 130, 38 Stat. 406; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 27, 43 Stat. 1278.)

CONTRACTS FOR NAVAL SUPPLIES

561. Supplies to be furnished by contract by lowest bidder when time will permit; advertisements; security.—All provisions, clothing, hemp, and other materials of every name and nature, for the use of the Navy, and the transportation thereof, when time will permit, shall, except as otherwise provided by law, be furnished by contract, by the lowest bidder, as follows: In the case of provisions, clothing, hemp, and other materials, the Secretary of the Navy shall advertise, twice a week for two weeks or longer, not to exceed four weeks, or once a week for two weeks or longer, not to exceed four weeks, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy, in one or more of the principal papers published in the place where such articles are to be furnished, for sealed proposals for furnishing the same, or the whole of any particular class thereof, specifying the classes of materials and referring bidders to the several chiefs of bureaus, who will furnish them with printed schedules, giving a full description of each and every article, with dates of delivery, and so forth. In the case of transportation of such articles, he shall advertise for a period of not less than five days. All such proposals shall be kept sealed until the day specified in such advertisement for opening the same, when they shall be opened by or under the direction of the officer making such advertisement, in the presence of at least two persons. The person offering to furnish any class of such articles, and giving satisfactory security for the performance thereof, under a forfeiture not exceeding twice the contract price in case of failure, shall receive a contract for furnishing the same. (R. S. § 3718; June 30, 1890, c. 640, § 1, 26 Stat. 197; July 19, 1892, c. 206, § 1, 27 Stat. 243; Mar. 3, 1893, c. 212, § 1, 27 Stat. 724.)

562. Guarantee of bid; delinquent bidder; new contract.—Except as provided in section 564, every proposal for naval supplies invited by the Secretary of the Navy, under the preceding section, shall be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, to the effect that he or they undertake that the bidder, if his bid is accepted, will, at such time as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, give bond, with good and sufficient sureties, to furnish the supplies proposed; and no proposal shall be considered, unless accompanied by such guarantee. If, after the acceptance of a proposal, and a notification thereof to the bidder, he fails to give such bond within the time prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, the Secretary shall proceed to contract with some other person for furnishing the supplies; and shall forthwith cause the difference between the amount contained in the proposal so guaranteed and the amount for which he may have contracted for furnishing the supplies, for the whole period of the proposal, to be charged up against the bidder and his guarantor; and the same may be immediately recovered by the United States, for the use of the Navy Department, in an action of debt against either or all of such persons. (R. S. § 3719.)

563. Record of bid; liability of delinquent contractor and sureties.—All such proposals for naval supplies shall be preserved and recorded. In case of a failure to supply the articles or to perform the work by the person entering into such contract, he and his sureties shall be liable for the forfeiture specified in such contract, as liquidated damages, to be sued for in the name of the United States. (R. S. § 3720; June 22, 1910, c. 331, 36 Stat. 591.)

564. Certified check in lieu of guaranty and bond.—The Secretary of the Navy may, in his discretion, accept, in lieu of the written guaranty and bond required by section 562, a certified check, payable to the order of the Secretary of the Navy, for from 25 to 50 per centum of the amount of such proposal or contract, the check to be held by the Secretary of the Navy until the requirements of the proposal or contract shall be complied with and as a guaranty for compliance with the same. (May 25, 1896, c. 239, 29 Stat. 136; Dec. 11, 1906, c. 1, 34 Stat. 841.)

565. Material for steam boilers.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to purchase at the lowest market price, such plate iron and other material as may enter into the construction of steam boilers for the Navy without advertising for bids to furnish the same: Provided, That he shall cause to be sent to the principal dealers and manufacturers of iron and such other materials as may be required specifications of the quality, description and character of such iron and materials so required: And provided further, That such plate iron and materials shall be subjected to the same tests and inspection as now provided for and which inspection and tests shall be made publicly and in presence of such bidders or their authorized agents as may choose to attend at the making thereof. (June 14, 1878, No. 30, 20 Stat. 253.)

566. Gun steel or armor.—No contract for the purchase of gun steel or armor for the Navy shall be made until the subject matter of the same shall have been submitted to public competition by the department by advertisement. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 212, § 1, 27 Stat. 732.)

567. Projectiles.—No part of any appropriation shall be expended for the purchase of shells or projectiles for the Navy except for shells or projectiles purchased in accordance with the terms and conditions of proposals submitted by the Secretary of the Navy to all the manufacturers of shells and projectiles and upon bids received in accordance with the terms and requirements of such proposals: Provided, That this restriction shall not apply to purchases of shells or projectiles of an experimental nature or to be used for experimental purposes and paid for from the appropriation "Experiments, Bureau of Ordnance." (June 30, 1914, c. 130, 38 Stat. 398.)

568. Emergency purchases abroad.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to make emergency purchases of war material abroad: Provided, That when such purchases are made abroad, this material shall be admitted free of duty. (June 30, 1914, c. 130, 38 Stat. 399.)

569. Purchases without advertisement.—The provisions which require that supplies shall be purchased by the Secretary of the Navy from the lowest bidder, after advertisement, shall not apply to ordnance, gunpowder, or medicines, or the supplies which it may be necessary to purchase out of the United States for vessels on foreign stations, or bunting delivered for the use of the Navy, or butter or cheese destined for the use of the Navy, or things contraband of war. Contracts for butter and cheese for the use of the Navy may be made for periods longer than one year, if, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Navy, economy and the quality of the ration will be promoted thereby. (R. S. § 3721; June 10, 1896, c. 399, § 1, 29 Stat. 370.)

570. Purchase of tobacco.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized and directed to cause advertisement to be made for tobacco for the use of the Navy, as the needs of the service may require, in the manner prescribed by law for other supplies. Bidders shall submit with their proposals a sample of the tobacco which they propose to furnish. The said Secretary may enter into contracts for tobacco for a period not exceeding four years, and in making such contracts he shall not be restricted to the lowest bidder but the contract shall, in his discretion, be awarded to the bidder whose sample is found by a board of officers to be best adapted for use in the Navy. (R. S. § 3721; June 10, 1896, c. 399, § 1, 29 Stat. 370.)

571. When open market purchases without contract or bond are authorized.—The purchase of supplies and the procurement of services for all branches of the naval service may be made in open market in the manner common among business men, without formal contract or bond, when the aggregate of the amount required does not exceed $500, and when, in the opinion of the proper administrative officers, such limitation of amount is not designed to evade purchase under formal contract or bond, and equally or more advantageous terms can thereby be secured. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2512, 34 Stat. 1193.)

572. Rejection of bids; contractor must be manufacturer or regular dealer; right of bidders to inspect bids.—The chief of any bureau of the Navy Department, in contracting for naval supplies, shall be at liberty to reject the offer of any person who, as principal or surety, has been a defaulter in any previous contract with the Navy Department. Parties who have made default as principals or sureties in any former contract shall not be received as sureties on other contracts; nor shall the copartners of any firm be received as sureties for such firm or for each other; nor, in contracts with the same bureau, shall one contractor be received as surety for another. Every contract shall require the delivery of a specified quantity, and no bids having nominal or fictitious prices shall be considered. If more than one bid be offered by any one party, by or in the name of his or their clerk, partner, or other person, all such bids may be rejected; and no person shall be received as a contractor who is not a manufacturer of, or regular dealer in, the articles which he offers to supply. All persons offering bids shall have the right to be present when the bids are opened and inspect the same. (R. S. § 3722.)

573. Contracts for foreign supplies.—No chief of a bureau shall make any contract for supplies for the Navy, to be executed in a foreign country, except it be on first advertising for at least thirty days in two daily newspapers of the city of New York, inviting sealed bids for furnishing the supplies desired; which bids shall be opened in the presence of the Secretary of the Navy and the heads of two bureaus; and contracts shall in all cases be awarded to the lowest bidder; and paymasters for the Navy on foreign stations shall render, when practicable, with their accounts, an official certificate from the resident consul, or consular agent of the United States, if there be one, to be furnished gratuitously, vouching that all purchases and expenditures made by the paymasters were made at the ruling market prices of the place at the time of purchase or expenditure. (R. S. § 3723; Apr. 5, 1906, c. 1366, § 3, 34 Stat. 100.)

574. Rejection of excessive bids.—Where articles are advertised and bid for in classes, and in the judgment of the Secretary of the Navy any one or more articles appear to be bid for at excessive or unreasonable prices, exceeding 10 per centum above their fair market value, he shall be authorized to reject such bid. (R. S. § 3724.)

575. Awards by items.—All awards of contracts for provisions for the Navy shall be made by individual items; the contract for each item being awarded to the lowest responsible bidder. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 148, 37 Stat. 904.)

576. Hemp.—All hemp, or preparations of hemp, used for naval purposes by the Government of the United States, shall be of American growth or manufacture, when the same can be obtained of as good quality and at as low a price as foreign hemp. (R. S. § 3725.)

577. Preserved meats; pickles; butter, and desiccated vegetables.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to procure the preserved meats, pickles, butter, and desiccated vegetables, in such manner and under such restrictions and guarantees as in his opinion will best insure the good quality of said articles. (R. S. § 3726.)

578. Flour and bread.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to purchase, in such manner as he shall deem most advantageous to the Government, the flour required for naval use; and to have the bread for the Navy baked from this flour by special contract under naval inspection. (R. S. § 3727.)

579. Bunting.—The Secretary of the Navy may enter into contract, in open market, for bunting of American manufacture, as the naval service requires, for a period not exceeding one year, and at a price not exceeding that at which an article of equal quality can be imported. (R. S. § 3729.)

580. Articles of home growth, production, and manufacture preferred, other things being equal; discrimination as to fuel.—The Secretary of the Navy, in making contracts and purchases of articles for naval purposes, shall give the preference, all other things, including price and quality, being equal, to articles of the growth, production, and manufacture of the United States. In purchasing fuel for the Navy, or for naval stations and yards, the Secretary of the Navy shall have power to discriminate and purchase, in such manner as he may deem proper, that kind of fuel which is best adapted to the purpose for which it is to be used. (R. S. § 3728.)

581. Relinquishment of reservations on deliveries.—The Secretary of the Navy may relinquish and pay all reservations of the 10 per centum upon deliveries made under contracts with the Navy Department, where these reservations have arisen and the contracts have been afterward extended, or where the contracts have been completed after the time of delivery, by and with the consent of the department, or where the contracts have been dissolved by the like consent, or have been terminated, or an extension thereof has been prevented by operation of law, where no injury has been sustained by the public service. (R. S. § 3730.)

582. Partial payments during work.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized, in his discretion, to make partial payments from time to time during the progress of the work under all contracts made under the Navy Department for public purposes, but not in excess of the value of work already done; and the contracts made shall provide for a lien in favor of the Government, which lien is made paramount to all other liens, upon the articles or thing contracted for on account of all payments so made: Provided, That partial payments shall not be made under such contracts except where stipulated for, and then only in accordance with contract provisions. (Aug. 22, 1911, c. 42, 37 Stat. 32.)

583. Name of contractor to appear on supplies.—Every person who shall furnish supplies of any kind to the Navy shall be required to mark and distinguish the same with the name of the contractor furnishing such supplies, in such manner as the Secretary of the Navy may direct; and no supplies of any kind shall be received, unless so marked and distinguished. (R. S. § 3731.)

Chapter 12.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE NAVY.

Sec.
591. Regulations of Navy; what constitute.
592. Officers to be furnished with copy of regulations and general orders of Navy Department.
593. Oath of allegiance.
594. Appointment of persons disbursing money on foreign stations.
595. Care of insane; payments to hospitals.
596. United States Navy Band.
597. Certificates of discharge in true names of persons enlisting or serving under assumed names.
598. Lost or destroyed certificates of discharge.
599. Claims for damages occasioned by vessels.
600. Claims for damages not occasioned by vessels.

Section 591. Regulations of Navy; what constitute.—The orders, regulations, and instructions issued by the Secretary of the Navy prior to July 14, 1862, with such alterations as he may since have adopted, with the approval of the President, shall be recognized as the regulations of the Navy, subject to alterations adopted in the same manner. (R. S. § 1547.)

592. Officers to be furnished with copy of regulations and general orders of Navy Department.—The Secretary of the Navy shall cause each commissioned or warrant officer of the Navy, on his entry into the service, to be furnished with a copy of the regulations and general orders of the Navy Department then in force, and thereafter with a copy of all such as may be issued. (R. S. § 1548.)

593. Oath of allegiance.—The oath of allegiance now provided for the officers and men of the Army and Marine Corps shall be administered hereafter to the officers and men of the Navy. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 25, 30 Stat. 1009.)

594. Appointment of persons disbursing money on foreign stations.—No person shall be employed or continued abroad, to receive and pay money for the use of the naval service on foreign stations, whether under contract or otherwise, who has not been, or shall not be, appointed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. (R. S. § 1550.)

595. Care of insane; payments to hospitals.—The Secretary of the Navy may cause persons in the naval service or Marine Corps, who become insane while in the service, to be placed in such hospital for the insane as, in his opinion, will be most convenient and best calculated to promise a restoration of reason. And he may pay to any such hospital, other than Saint Elizabeths Hospital, in the District of Columbia, the pay which may from time to time be due to such insane person, and he may, in addition thereto, pay to such institution, from the annual appropriation for the naval service, under the head of contingent enumerated, any deficiency of a reasonable expense, not exceeding $100 per annum. (R. S. § 1551; July 1, 1916, § 1, 39 Stat. 309.)

596. United States Navy Band.—Hereafter the band now stationed at the navy yard, Washington, District of Columbia, and known as the Navy Yard Band, shall be designated as the United States Navy Band, and the leader of this band shall receive the pay and allowances of a lieutenant in the Navy: Provided, That all service as an enlisted man in the naval service shall be counted in computing longevity increases for pay of this leader: Provided further, That no back pay or allowances shall be allowed to this leader by reason of the passage of this section: And provided further, That hereafter during concert tours approved by the President members of the United States Navy Band shall suffer no loss of allowances. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 17, 43 Stat. 1275.)

597. Certificates of discharge in true names of persons enlisting or serving under assumed names.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized and required to issue certificates of discharge or orders of acceptance of resignation, upon application and proof of identity, in the true name of such persons as enlisted or served under assumed names, while minors or otherwise, in the Navy during the War of the Rebellion, or any war between the United States and any other nation or people, and were honorably discharged therefrom. Applications for said certificates of discharge or amended orders of resignation may be made by or on behalf of persons entitled to them, but no such certificate or order shall be issued where a name was assumed to cover a crime or to avoid its consequence. (Apr. 14, 1890, c. 80, 26 Stat. 55; June 25, 1910, c. 393, 36 Stat. 824; Aug. 22, 1912, c. 329, 37 Stat. 324.)

598. Lost or destroyed certificates of discharge.—Whenever satisfactory proof is furnished at the Navy Department that any commissioned officer, regular or volunteer, appointed or enlisted man who served in the Navy or the Marine Corps of the United States in the War of 1812, the Mexican War, or the War of the Rebellion, has lost his certificate of discharge, or the same has been destroyed without his privity or procurement, the Secretary of the Navy shall be authorized to furnish to such commissioned officer, regular or volunteer, appointed or enlisted man, a certificate of discharge in lieu thereof: Provided, That such certificate shall not be accepted as a voucher for the payment of any claim against the United States for pay, bounty, or any other allowance, or as evidence in any other case. (Feb. 7, 1890, c. 8, 26 Stat. 6.)

599. Claims for damages occasioned by vessels.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to consider, ascertain, adjust, and determine the amounts due on all claims for damages occasioned since the 6th day of April, 1917, where the amount of the claim does not exceed the sum of $3,000, occasioned by collisions or damages incident to the operation of vessels for which collisions or other damage vessels of the Navy or vessels in the naval service shall be found to be responsible, and report the amounts so ascertained and determined to be due the claimants to the Congress through the Treasury Department for payment as legal claims out of appropriations that may be made by Congress therefor. (Dec. 28, 1922, c. 16, 42 Stat. 1066.)

600. Claims for damages not occasioned by vessels.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to consider, ascertain, adjust, determine, and pay the amounts due in all claims for damages (other than such as are occasioned by vessels of the Navy), to and loss of privately owned property, occurring subsequent to April 6, 1917, where the amount of the claim does not exceed $500, for which damage or loss men in the naval service or Marine Corps are found to be responsible, all payments in settlement of said claims to be made out of the appropriation "Pay, miscellaneous." All claims adjusted under this authority during any fiscal year shall be reported in detail to the Congress by the Secretary of the Navy. (July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 132; July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 132.)

ORGANIZATION GENERALLY

Section 621. Major General Commandant; appointment and tenure.—When a vacancy shall exist in the position of Major

General Commandant of the Marine Corps the President may appoint to such position, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, an officer of the Marine Corps on the active list, not below the rank of colonel, who shall hold office as such Major General Commandant for a term of four years, unless sooner relieved. (Dec. 19, 1913, c. 3, 38 Stat. 241; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 609.)

622. Major General Commandant; rank and pay.—The Major General Commandant of the Marine Corps, while so serving, shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of a major general in the Army. (Dec. 19, 1913, c. 3, 38 Stat. 241; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 609.)

623. Officer serving as Major General Commandant shall be additional number.—An officer serving as Major General Commandant shall be carried as an additional number in his grade while so serving, and after his return to duty in his grade until said grade is reduced to the number authorized by law. This section shall not operate to increase or reduce the total number of officers in the Marine Corps. (Dec. 19, 1913, c. 3, 38 Stat. 241; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 609.)

624. Appointment of heads of staff department.—Hereafter, as vacancies occur, the heads of staff departments shall be appointed for terms of four years from officers holding permanent appointments in the departments in which the vacancies occur whose names appear on eligible lists prepared annually by a board of not less than five officers of the Marine Corps above the grade or rank of colonel, including the Major General Commandant and the heads of the staff departments, and approved by the President, but no head of a staff department appointed for a term of four years shall sit as a member of the board during consideration of names for the eligible list for his department. Such appointments shall be made by the President and be for a term of four years, and the officer so appointed shall be recommissioned in the grade to which appointed: Provided, That in case there be no officer holding a permanent appointment in a staff department whose name is borne on the eligible list for appointment as head of that department, the appointment shall be made from officers of field rank of the Marine Corps whose names are borne on the aforesaid eligible list for that department. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 610; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 7, 43 Stat. 1272.)

625. Officers with rank and pay of brigadier general.—The officers serving in the senior grade of the Adjutant and Inspector's, Quartermaster's, and Paymaster's Departments shall, while serving therein, have the rank, pay, and allowances of a brigadier general. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 609.)

626. Commissioned personnel; proportionate distribution.—The total number of commissioned officers of the active list of the line and staff of the Marine Corps, exclusive of officers borne on the Navy list as additional numbers, shall be 4 per centum of the total authorized enlisted strength of the active list of the Marine Corps, exclusive of the Marine Band, and of men under sentence of discharge by court-martial, distributed in the proportion of one officer with rank senior to colonel to four with the rank of colonel, to five with the rank of lieutenant colonel, to fourteen with the rank of major, to thirty-seven with the rank of captain, to thirty-one with the rank of first lieutenant, to thirty-one with the rank of second lieutenant. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 609.)

627. Major General Commandant included in determining officers with rank senior to colonel.—In determining the officers with rank senior to colonel there shall be included the officer serving as Major General Commandant. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 609.)

628. Staff officers counted as being of rank of colonel.—For the purpose of determining the number of officers in the various ranks as herein provided the staff officers mentioned in section 625 shall be counted as being of the rank of colonel. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 609.)

629. Major generals.—The rank and title of major general is hereby created in the Marine Corps, and the President is authorized to nominate, and, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint one major general, who shall at all times be junior in rank to the Major General Commandant, and also one temporary major general in the Marine Corps, who shall at all times be junior to the permanent major general. (July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 715.)

630. Brigadier generals.—Brigadier generals of the line shall, subject to physical examination, be appointed from colonels of the line whose names are borne on the eligible list prepared annually by a board of not less than five general officers of the Marine Corps, and approved by the President. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 609; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 7, 43 Stat. 1272.)

631. Promotion to grade of brigadier general as filling vacancy therein.—The promotion to the grade of brigadier general of any officer carried as an additional number in the grade of colonel shall be held to fill a vacancy in the grade of brigadier general. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 609; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 7, 43 Stat. 1272.)

632. Staff officers; number; distribution among departments.—The total commissioned personnel of the active list of the staff departments, whether serving therein under permanent appointments or under temporary detail, as herein provided, shall be 8 per centum of the authorized commissioned strength of the Marine Corps, and of this total one-fifth shall constitute the adjutant and inspector's department, one-fifth the paymaster's department, and three-fifths the quartermaster's department. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 610.)

633. Vacancies in lower grades of staff departments; how filled.—Any vacancy hereafter occurring in the lower grade of any staff department shall be filled by the detail of an officer of the line for a period of four years unless sooner relieved. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 610.)

634. Vacancies in grade of second lieutenant; how filled.—Vacancies in the grade of second lieutenant shall be filled, first, as far as practicable from graduates at the Naval Academy each year on completing the prescribed course at the Naval Academy; second, from meritorious noncommissioned officers of the Marine Corps; and, third, from civil life. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 19, 30 Stat. 1008; Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1010, 32 Stat. 1198; May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 155; Mar. 7, 1912, c. 53, 37 Stat. 73; July 9, 1913, c. 5, 38 Stat. 103.)

635. Midshipmen or cadets; when not eligible.—No midshipman at the United States Naval Academy or cadet at the United States Military Academy who fails to graduate therefrom shall be eligible for appointment as a commissioned officer in the Marine Corps until after the graduation of the class of which he was a member. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 611.)

636. Appointees from civil life.—Appointees to the grade of second lieutenant, if appointed from civil life, shall be between the ages of twenty and twenty-five years, and before receiving a commission in the Marine Corps, each appointee shall establish to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Navy his mental, physical, moral, and professional qualifications for such commission. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 610.)

637. Age and qualifications of appointees; in general.—Except as otherwise provided in this title, no person shall be appointed a commissioned officer in the Marine Corps who is under twenty or over thirty years of age nor until he shall have passed such examination as may be prescribed by the President of the United States. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 20, 30 Stat. 1009.)

638. Probationary appointments.—Appointments from noncommissioned officers of the Marine Corps and from civil life, except as provided in section 639, shall be for a probationary period of two years and may be revoked at any time during that period by the Secretary of the Navy: Provided further,

That the rank of such officers of the same date of appointment among themselves at the end of said probationary period shall, with the approval of the Secretary of the Navy, be determined by the report of a board of Marine officers who shall conduct a competitive professional examination under such rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy and the rank of such officers so determined shall be as of date of original appointment with reference to other appointments to the Marine Corps. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 611.)

639. Appointment of former officers.—The President of the United States is authorized, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint as second lieutenants on the active list in the United States Marine Corps, to take rank at the foot of the list of second lieutenants as it stands at the date of reinstatement, former officers of the Marine Corps who resigned from the naval service in good standing: Provided, That they shall establish their moral, physical, mental, and professional qualifications to perform the duties of that grade to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Navy: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Navy, in his discretion, may waive the age limit in favor of the aforesaid former officers of the Marine Corps: Provided further, That the prior service of such officers and the service after reinstatement shall be not less than thirty years before the age of retirement. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 610.)

640. Warrant grades of marine gunner and quartermaster clerk.—The warrant grades of marine gunner and quartermaster clerk shall consist of fifty marine gunners and fifty quartermaster clerks and such additional officers in each said grade as have heretofore been appointed thereto in accordance with law. Officers in said grades shall have the rank and receive the allowances, except as otherwise provided in Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES, of warrant officers in the Navy. They shall be appointed from noncommissioned officers of the Marine Corps. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 611; May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 11, 40 Stat. 87.)

641. Pay clerks.—Pay clerks shall receive the same allowances and other benefits as provided by law for second lieutenants in the Army; and the total number of pay clerks shall not exceed ten for duty in the office of the paymaster, Marine Corps, fifteen for duty in the paymaster's department at large, and one for each assistant paymaster: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed to reduce the allowances or other benefits granted by law in force July 1, 1918, to any clerk for assistant paymasters who was then in service. (June 24, 1910, c. 378, 36 Stat. 625; June 3, 1916, c. 134, 39 Stat. 170; July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 735; June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 1, 42 Stat. 625.)

RANK; BREVETS; COMPUTATION OF LENGTH OF SERVICE; CREDIT FOR VOLUNTEER SERVICE

651. Relative rank with Army.—The officers of the Marine Corps shall be, in relation to rank, on the same footing as officers of similar grades in the Army. (R. S. § 1603.)

652. Brevets.—Commissions by brevet may be conferred upon commissioned officers of the Marine Corps in the same cases, upon the same conditions, and in the same manner as are or may be provided by law for officers of the Army. (R. S. § 1604.)

653. Credit for volunteer service.—All marine officers shall be credited with the length of time they may have been employed as officers or enlisted men in the volunteer service of the United States. (R. S. § 1600.)

PROMOTIONS AND ADVANCEMENTS

661. Promotions as in Army.—Promotions to every grade of commissioned officers in the Marine Corps below the grade of major general commandant shall, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, be made in the same manner and under the same conditions as were, prior to June 4, 1920, prescribed in pursuance of law, for commissioned officers of the Army. (Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1241, § 1, 26 Stat. 562; July 28, 1892, c. 315, 27 Stat. 321; June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 24, 39 Stat. 183; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 609, 610; June 4, 1920, c. 227, § 24, 41 Stat. 774.)

662. Examining board; composition.—Examining boards which may be organized under the provisions of the preceding section to determine the fitness of officers of the Marine Corps for promotion shall in all cases consist of not less than five officers, three of whom shall, if practicable, be officers of the Marine Corps, senior to the officer to be examined, and two of whom shall be medical officers of the Navy: Provided, That when not practicable to detail officers of the Marine Corps as members of such examining boards, officers of the line in the Navy shall be so detailed. (July 28, 1892, c. 315, 27 Stat. 321.)

663. Certificate of examining board.—No officer of the Marine Corps below the grade or rank of colonel shall be promoted or advanced in grade or rank on the active list unless the examining board provided for in the preceding section shall, in addition to making such certificate of qualification for promotion or advancement as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, certify that there is sufficient evidence before the board to satisfy the board that the officer is fully qualified professionally for the higher grade or rank. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 7, 43 Stat. 1272.)

664. Examinations generally.—The officers of the Marine Corps above the grade of captain, except brigadier general, shall, before being promoted, be subject to such physical, mental and moral examination as is now, or may hereafter be, prescribed by law for other officers of the Marine Corps. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 20, 30 Stat. 1009.)

665. Physical examination.—No officer shall be promoted to a higher grade on the active list of the Marine Corps, except in the case provided in the next section, until he has been examined by a board of naval surgeons and pronounced physically qualified to perform all his duties at sea. (R. S. § 1493; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 611.)

666. Physical disqualification by wounds.—The provisions of the preceding section shall not exclude from the promotion to which he would otherwise be regularly entitled any officer in whose case such medical board may report that his physical disqualification was occasioned by wounds received in the line of his duty and that such wounds do not incapacitate him for other duties in the grade to which he shall be promoted. (R. S. § 1494; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 611.)

667. Common promotion list.—For the purpose of advancement in rank to and including the grade of colonel, all commissioned officers of the line and staff of the Marine Corps shall be placed on a common list in the order of seniority each would hold had he remained continuously in the line. All advancements in rank to captain, major, lieutenant colonel, and colonel shall, subject to the usual examinations, be made from officers with the next junior respective rank, whether of the line or staff, in the order in which their names appear on said list. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 610.)

668. Loss of numbers for professional failure.—Any officer of the Marine Corps who fails to pass a satisfactory professional examination for promotion shall suffer loss of numbers, upon approval of the recommendation of the examining board, in the respective ranks, as follows: Lieutenant colonel, one; major, two; captain, three; first lieutenant, five; second lieutenant, eight. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 611.)

669. Reexamination for promotion or advancement; discharge or retirement on failure to qualify on reexamination; retired pay.—Any officer of the Marine Corps who fails to qualify professionally upon examination for promotion or advancement shall be reexamined as soon as may be expedient after the expiration of one year if he in the meantime again becomes due for promotion, and if he does not in the meantime again become due for promotion he shall be reexamined at such time anterior to again becoming due for promotion as may be for the best interests of the service: Provided, That if any such officer of less than ten years' total active service, exclusive of service as midshipman or cadet at the United States Naval Academy or the United States Military Academy, fails to qualify professionally upon reexamination he shall be honorably discharged from the Marine Corps with one year's pay: Provided further, That if any such officer of more than ten years' total active service, exclusive of service as midshipman or cadet at the United States Naval Academy or the United States Military Academy, fails to qualify professionally upon reexamination, he shall not be discharged from the Marine Corps on account of such failure, but shall thereafter be ineligible for promotion or advancement; and any such officer shall be retired with a percentage of the pay received by him at the date of retirement equal to 2½ per centum for each year of total active service to be computed in accordance with the provisions of Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES, not to exceed 75 per centum, upon attaining, or if he had previously attained, the ages in the various grades and ranks, as follows: Lieutenant colonel, fifty years, major and company officers, forty-five years. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 7, 43 Stat. 1272.)

670. Advancement in number.—Any officer of the Marine Corps may, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, be advanced not exceeding thirty numbers in rank, for eminent and conspicuous conduct in battle or extraordinary heroism. (R. S. § 1605.)

671. Promotion when grade is full.—Any officer who is nominated to a higher grade by the provisions of the preceding section shall be promoted, notwithstanding the number of said grade may be full. (R. S. § 1606.)

672. Promotion for gallantry.—Any officer of the Marine Corps may, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, be advanced one grade, if, upon recommendation of the President by name, he receives the thanks of Congress for highly distinguished conduct in conflict with the enemy, or for extraordinary heroism in the line of his profession. (R. S. § 1607.)

RETIREMENT

681. In general.—The commissioned officers of the Marine Corps shall be retired in like cases, in the same manner, and with the same relative conditions, in all respects, as are provided for officers of the Army: Provided, That in case of an officer of the Marine Corps, the retiring board shall be selected by the Secretary of the Navy, under the direction of the President. Two-fifths of the board shall be selected from the Medical Corps of the Navy, and the remainder shall be selected from officers of the Marine Corps, senior in rank, so far as may be, to the officer whose disability is to be inquired of. (R. S. §§ 1622, 1623.)

682. Officers who served during Civil War.—Officers of the Marine Corps with creditable records who served during the Civil War shall, when retired, be retired in like manner and under the same conditions as provided for officers of the Navy who served during the civil war. (Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1622, 33 Stat. 349.)

683. Officers below grade of brigadier general who served during Civil War.—Any officer of the Marine Corps below the grade of brigadier general who served with credit as an officer or as an enlisted man in the regular or volunteer forces during the Civil War prior to April 9, 1865, otherwise than as a cadet, and whose name is borne on the official register of the Marine Corps, and who has heretofore been, or may hereafter be, retired on account of wounds or disability incident to the service, or on account of age or after forty years' service, may, in the discretion of the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, be placed on the retired list of the Marine Corps with the rank and retired pay of one grade above that actually held by him at the time of retirement: Provided, That this section shall not apply to any officer who received an advance of grade since the date of his retirement or who has been restored to the Marine Corps and placed on the retired list by virtue of the provisions of a special Act of Congress. (June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 554.)

684. Retirement of certain officers of grade or rank of colonel; pay.—Any officer of the grade or rank of colonel whose name is not borne on one of the current eligible lists for appointment as brigadier general or head of a staff department shall, if more than fifty-six years of age, be retired with a percentage of the pay received by him at the date of retirement equal to 2½ per centum, to be computed in accordance with the provisions of Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES, not to exceed 75 per centum. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 7, 43 Stat. 1273.)

685. Major General Commandant, retirement of.—Any officer who shall be retired from the position of Major General Commandant of the Marine Corps by reason of incaapcity for active service resulting from an incident of the service, or by reason of age or length of service, shall have the rank and retired pay of a major general; if retired for any other reason, he shall be placed on the retired list of officers of the grade to which he belonged at the time of his retirement. (Dec. 19, 1913, c. 3, 38 Stat. 241; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 609.)

686. Retirement of marine gunners and quartermaster clerks.—Marine gunners and quartermasters' clerks shall have the privileges of retirement of warrant officers in the Navy. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 611.)

ENLISTED FORCE

691. Authorized enlisted strength of active list.—The authorized enlisted strength of the active list of the Marine Corps is permanently established at twenty-seven thousand four hundred, distribution in the various grades to be made in the same proportion as provided under existing law, subject to the provisions of section 176. (June 4, 1920, c. 228, § 1, 41 Stat. 830.)

692. Term of enlistment.—Enlistments in the Marine Corps may be for terms of two, three, or four years, and all laws applicable to four-year enlistments shall apply, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, to enlistments for a shorter period with proportionate benefits upon discharge and reenlistment. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 852, 31 Stat. 1132; June 4, 1920, c. 228, § 7, 41 Stat. 836.)

693. Advertising for recruits.—Authority is granted to employ the services of advertising agencies in advertising for recruits under such terms and conditions as are most advantageous to the Government. (July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 736.)

694. Oath.—The officers and enlisted men of the Marine Corps shall take the same oaths, respectively, which are provided by law for the officers and enlisted men of the Army. (R. S. § 1609.)

695. Exemption from arrest.—Marines shall be exempt, while enlisted in said service, from all personal arrest for debt or contract. (R. S. § 1610.)

MARINE BAND

701. Composition; pay and allowances.—The band of the United States Marine Corps shall consist of one leader whose pay and allowances shall be those of a captain in the Marine Corps; one second leader whose pay shall be $200 per month and who shall have the allowances of a sergeant major; ten principal musicians whose pay shall be $150 per month; twenty-five first-class musicians whose pay shall be $125 per month; twenty second-class musicians whose pay shall be $100 per month; and ten third-class musicians whose pay shall be $85 per month; such musicians of the band to have the allowances of a sergeant: Provided, That the second leader and musicians of the band shall receive the same increases for length of service and the same enlistment allowance or gratuity for reenlisting as is now or may hereafter be provided for other enlisted men of the Marine Corps: Provided further, That the pay authorized herein for the second leader and the musicians of the band shall be effective from July 1, 1922, and shall apply in computing the pay of former members of the band now on the retired list and who have been retired since June 30, 1922: Provided further, That in the event of promotion of the second leader, or a musician of the band to leader of the band, all service as such second leader, or as such musician of the band, or both, shall be counted in computing longevity increase in pay: And provided further, That hereafter during concert tours approved by the President, members of the Marine Band shall suffer no loss of allowances. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 11, 43 Stat. 1274.)

702. Competition with civilian musicians; remuneration for furnishing music.—A member of the said band shall not, as an individual, furnish music, or accept an engagement to furnish music, when such furnishing of music places him in competition with any civilian musician or musicians, and shall not accept or receive remuneration for furnishing music except under special circumstances when authorized by the President. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 612.)

DUTIES, POWERS, AND GOVERNMENT OF MARINES; FORMATION INTO COMPANIES AND DETACHMENTS

711. Service on armed vessels.—Marines may be detached for service on board the armed vessels of the United States, and the President may detach and appoint, for service on said vessels, such of the officers of said corps as he may deem necessary. (R. S. § 1616.)

712. Duty on shore.—The Marine Corps shall be liable to do duty in the forts and garrisons of the United States, on the seacoast, or any other duty on shore, as the President, at his discretion, may direct. (R. S. § 1619.)

713. Marine officers not to command navy yards or vessels.—No officer of the Marine Corps shall exercise command over any navy yard or vessel of the United States. (R. S. § 1617.)

714. Regulations.—The President is authorized to prescribe such military regulations for the discipline of the Marine Corps as he may deem expedient. (R. S. § 1620.)

715. Laws governing.—The Marine Corps shall, at all times, be subject to the laws and regulations established for the government of the Navy, except when detached for service with the Army by order of the President; and when so detached they shall be subject to the rules and Articles of War prescribed for the government of the Army: Provided, That an officer or soldier of the Marine Corps when so detached may be tried by military court-martial for an offense committed against the laws for the government of the naval service prior to his detachment, and for an offense committed against the Articles of War he may be tried by naval court-martial after such detachment ceased. (R. S. § 1621; June 4, 1920, c. 227, art. 2, 41 Stat. 787.)

716. Members of Navy Medical Department serving with marines.—Officers and enlisted men of the Medical Department of the Navy, serving with a body of marines detached for service with the Army in accordance with the provisions of the preceding section, shall, while so serving, be subject to the rules and Articles of War prescribed for the government of the Army in the same manner as the officers and men of the Marine Corps while so serving. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 573.)

717. Brigades, regiments, etc.—The Marine Corps may be formed into as many brigades, regiments, battalions, companies, or detachments as the President may direct, with a proper distribution of the commissioned and noncommissioned officers and musicians to each brigade, regiment, battalion, company or detachment. (R. S. § 1611; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 586.)

MISCELLANEOUS

721. Purchase of uniforms, accouterments, and equipment for sale at cost prices.—The appropriation "Clothing, Marine Corps" shall be available for the purchase of uniforms, accouterments, and equipment for sale at cost prices to officers under such regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe. (July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 132.)

722. Clothing for marines discharged for bad conduct.—The appropriation, "General expenses, Marine Corps," shall be available for the purchase of civilian outer clothing, not to exceed $15 per man, to be issued when necessary to marines discharged for bad conduct, undesirability, unfitness, or inaptitude. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 10, 43 Stat. 1274.)

723. Exchange of used articles in part payment for purchase of like articles.—Worn-out sewing machines, machinery, rubber tires, and band instruments may be exchanged in part payment for the purchase of like articles. (Mar. 4, 1917, c. 180, 39 Stat. 1189.)

724. Use of receipts from post laundries.—Hereafter the funds received in payment for laundry work performed by post laundries shall be used to defray the cost of operation of such laundries and the receipts and expenditures shall be accounted for in accordance with the methods prescribed by law and any sums remaining at the end of the fiscal year after such cost of maintenance and operation have been defrayed shall be deposited in the Treasury to the credit of the appropriation from which the cost of operation of such plants is paid. (July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 155.)

Chapter 14.—NAVAL AVIATION.

Sec.
731. Naval aviation to control all aerial operations attached to a fleet.
732. Number of officers and enlisted men of Navy and Marine Corps detailed to duty in aircraft.
733. Temporary detail of other officers and men for aircraft duty.
734. Command of flying units or detachments.

NAVAL FLYING CORPS

741. Composition of Naval Flying Corps.
742. Promotion of officers commissioned for aeronautic duty only.
743. Regulations governing term of enlistment, qualifications, and advancement of enlisted men.
744. Ratings of enlisted men.
745. Pay.
746. Student flyers in addition to officers and enlisted men.
747. Detail from other branches as student aviators or airmen.
748. Pay and allowances of officers and enlisted men thus detailed.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 731. Naval aviation to control all aerial operations attached to a fleet.—Naval aviation shall have control of all aerial operations attached to a fleet, including shore stations whose maintenance is necessary for operation connected with the fleet, for construction and experimentation and for the training of personnel. (June 5, 1920, c. 240, 41 Stat. 954.)

732. Number of officers and enlisted men of Navy and Marine Corps detailed to duty in aircraft.—Subject to the provisions of section 29 of Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES, the number of officers and enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps detailed to duty in aircraft and involving actual flying and to duties in connection with aircraft shall hereafter be in accordance with the requirements of naval aviation as determined by the Secretary of the Navy. (July 12, 1921, c. 44, § 8, 42 Stat. 141.)

733. Temporary detail of other officers and men for aircraft duty.—Nothing in this or any other chapter shall be so construed as to prevent the temporary detail of officers and enlisted men of any branch of the Navy for duty with aircraft. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 585.)

734. Command of flying units or detachments.—Flying units or detachments, with the exception of aircraft carriers or other vessels, shall in all cases be commanded by flying officers. (July 12, 1921, c. 44, § 8, 42 Stat. 141.)

NAVAL FLYING CORPS

741. Composition of Naval Flying Corps.—The Naval Flying Corps shall be composed of one hundred and fifty officers and three hundred and fifty enlisted men, detailed, appointed, commissioned, enlisted, and distributed in the various grades, ranks, and ratings of the Navy and Marine Corps as hereafter provided. The said number of officers, student fliers, and enlisted men shall be in addition to the total number of officers and enlisted men which is now or may hereafter be provided by law for the other branches of the naval service. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 582.)

742. Promotion of officers commissioned for aeronautic duty only.—Officers commissioned for aeronautic duty only shall be eligible for advancement to the higher grades, not above captain in the Navy or colonel in the Marine Corps, in the same manner as other officers whose employment is not so restricted, except that they shall be eligible to promotion without restriction as to sea duty, and their professional examinations shall be restricted to the duty to which personally assigned: Provided, That any such officer must serve at least three years in any grade before being eligible to promotion to the next higher grade. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 584.)

743. Regulations governing term of enlistment, qualifications, and advancement of enlisted men.—The Secretary of the Navy shall establish regulations governing the term of enlistment, the qualifications, and advancement of the enlisted men of the Flying Corps. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 586.)

744. Ratings of enlisted men.—Subject to the provisions of section 176, the enlisted personnel of the Naval Flying Corps shall be distributed by the Secretary of the Navy in the various ratings as obtained in the Navy on August 29, 1916, in so far as such ratings are applicable to duties connected with aircraft. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 585.)

745. Pay.—The officers detailed and the enlisted men of the Naval Flying Corps shall receive the same pay and allowances that are now provided by law for officers and enlisted men of the same grade or rank and rating in the Navy and Marine Corps detailed to duty with aircraft involving actual flying. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 583.)

746. Student flyers in addition to officers and enlisted men.—The student flyers hereinafter provided for shall be in addition to the officers and enlisted men comprising the Naval Flying Corps. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 582.)

747. Detail from other branches as student aviators or airmen.—Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to prevent the detail of officers and enlisted men of other branches of the Navy as student aviators or student airmen in such numbers as the needs of the service may require. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 584.)

748. Pay and allowances of officers and enlisted men thus detailed.—Such officers and enlisted men, while detailed as student aviators and student airmen involving actually flying in aircraft, shall receive the same pay and allowances that are now provided by law for officers and enlisted men of the same grade or rank and rating in the Navy detailed for duty with aircraft. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 584.)

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 751. Naval Reserve; classes; status and pay of retired members of Naval Reserve Force unaffected.—The Naval Reserve, which shall be a component part of the United States Navy, shall consist of three classes, namely: the Fleet Naval Reserve, the Merchant Marine Naval Reserve, and the Volunteer Naval Reserve: Provided, That transfers of officers and enrolled men heretofore made from the Naval Reserve Force to the Naval Reserve shall be for the unexpired period of their current enrollment in the Naval Reserve Force on July 1, 1925: Provided further, That nothing in this chapter shall affect the status or pay of members of the Naval Reserve Force heretofore retired with or without pay. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, §§ 1, 40, 43 Stat. 1080, 1090.)

752. Marine Corps Reserve created; classes.—The Marine Corps Reserve is created and established as a component part of the United States Marine Corps, under the same provisions in all respects (except as may be necessary to adapt the said provisions to the Marine Corps) as those contained in this chapter or which may hereafter be enacted providing for the Naval Reserve: Provided, That the Marine Corps Reserve shall consist of two classes, namely: The Fleet Marine Corps Reserve and the Volunteer Marine Corps Reserve, corresponding, as near as may be, to the Fleet Naval Reserve and the Volunteer Naval Reserve, respectively. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 2, 43 Stat. 1080.)

753. Composition of Naval Reserve; transfers; aliens; membership in other naval or military organizations; employment in civil branch of public service.—The Naval Reserve shall be composed of male citizens of the United States and of the insular possessions of the United States of eighteen years of age or over who by appointment or enlistment therein, under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, or by transfer or assignment thereto as in this chapter provided, obligate themselves to serve in the Navy in time of war or during the existence of a national emergency declared by the President: Provided, That any enlisted man who was serving in the regular Navy on July 1, 1925, who is not a citizen of the United States and who on that date had completed not less than eight years' naval service shall be deemed eligible for transfer to the Fleet Naval Reserve upon completion of the minimum amount of service required for such transfer: Provided further, That no officer or man of the Naval Reserve shall be a member of any other naval or military organization except the Naval Militia: And provided further, That no existing law shall be construed to prevent any member of the Naval Reserve from accepting employment in any civil branch of the public service, nor from receiving the pay and allowances incident to such employment in addition to any pay or allowances to which he may be entitled under the provisions of this chapter. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, §§ 4, 40, 43 Stat. 1081, 1090.)

754. Ranks, grades, and ratings in Naval Reserve; officers appointed for various duties; regulations governing appointments, etc., commissions; term of enlistment.—There shall be allowed in the Naval Reserve the various ranks, grades, and ratings corresponding to those in the regular Navy, but not above the rank of lieutenant commander, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. Officers of the line may be appointed for deck duties, engineering duties, or both, or for aviation duties. All appointments and promotions of officers, and enlistments and changes in rating of men, in the Naval Reserve, and transfers to and from any of the three classes therein, unless otherwise provided in this chapter, shall be made in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy: Provided, That persons appointed to commissioned grades in the Naval Reserve shall be commissioned by the President alone and those appointed to warrant grades shall be warranted by the Secretary of the Navy: Provided further, That enlistments in the Naval Reserve shall be for a term of four years, subject to the provisions of section 757 of this chapter, and may be extended for periods of one, two, three, or four years, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 5, 43 Stat. 1081.)

755. Discharges from service in Naval Reserve; separation from service in time of war or national emergency.—In time of peace no officer or man of the Naval Reserve shall be discharged except upon expiration of his term of service or upon his own request, or for full and sufficient cause, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy; Provided, That enlisted men heretofore or hereafter transferred to the Fleet Naval Reserve from the regular Navy in accordance with law shall at all times be governed by the laws and regulations for the government of the Navy and shall not be discharged from the Naval Reserve without their consent except by sentence of a court-martial or in accordance with the provisions of section 784 of this chapter: Provided further, That in time of war, or a national emergency, declared by the President to exist, officers and enlisted, enrolled and assigned men of the Naval Reserve shall be subject to separation therefrom in the same manner as may be provided by or in pursuance of law for the separation of officers and enlisted men from the regular Navy, subject to the provisions of section 757 of this chapter. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 6, 43 Stat. 1081.)

756. Commissioned and warrant officers appointed or transferred to Naval Reserve; grades and ranks.—Commissioned and warrant officers appointed or transferred to the Naval Reserve shall be commissioned or warranted to serve during the pleasure of the President, in grades or ranks not above that of lieutenant commander, except that a small percentage of officers, who may be required in higher grades or ranks for the recruiting, organization, administration, training, inspection, and mobilization of the Naval Reserve, may be commissioned in the grades or ranks of commodore, captain, and commander. The actual number of line officers so commissioned in higher grades shall be distributed in the proportion of one in the grade of commodore, to fifteen in the grade of captain, to twenty-eight in the grade of commander. The actual number of staff officers so commissioned in higher ranks shall be commissioned in the proportion of eight in the rank of captain, to sixteen in the rank of commander. The total number of line officers in such higher grades shall not exceed forty-four one-hundredths of 1 per centum and of staff officers in such higher ranks shall not exceed twenty-four one-hundredths of 1 per centum of the actual number of enlisted men regularly assigned to divisions or other organized units of the Fleet Naval Reserve entitled to pay as provided in section 782 of this chapter. Whenever a final fraction occurs in computing the authorized number of officers in said higher grades or ranks, the nearest whole number shall be regarded as the authorized number, but at least one officer may be allowed in each grade or rank: Provided, That to determine the authorized number of officers in the various grades or ranks above lieutenant commander as provided in this section, computations shall be made by the Secretary of the Navy at least once during each calendar year and the resulting numbers as so computed shall be held and considered for all purposes as the authorized number of officers in such various grades or ranks and shall not be varied between the dates of such computations: Provided further, That no officer shall be reduced in rank as the result of any computation so made and that nothing in this chapter shall be construed as reducing the confirmed grade, rank, or rating on July 1, 1925, of any officer or man transferred to the Naval Reserve from the Naval Reserve Force, pursuant to law, or as prohibiting the appointment of such officers in the confirmed grades or ranks then held by them, or as restricting the promotion of officers of the Naval Reserve in time of war as provided for in section 765 of this chapter. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, §§ 7, 40, 43 Stat. 1082, 1090.)

757. Active duty of officers and men of Naval Reserve.—Officers and men of the Naval Reserve, including those who may have been retired, may be ordered to active duty by the Secretary of the Navy in time of war or when in the opinion of the President a national emergency exists and may be required to perform active duty throughout the war or until the national emergency ceases to exist; but in time of peace, except as is otherwise provided in this chapter, they shall only be ordered to or continued on active duty with their own consent: Provided, That the Secretary of the Navy may release any officer or man from active duty at any time. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 9, 43 Stat. 1082.)

758. Laws of Navy as governing officers and men of Naval Reserve.—Officers and men of the Naval Reserve, when employed on active duty, authorized training duty, with or without pay, drill, or other equivalent instruction or duty, or when employed in authorized travel to and from such duty, drill, or instruction, or during such time as they may by law be required to perform active duty in accordance with their obligations, or while wearing a uniform prescribed for the Naval Reserve, shall be subject to the laws, regulations, and orders for the government of the Navy: Provided, That disciplinary action for an offense committed while so subject to the laws, regulations, and orders for the government of the Navy shall not be barred by reason of release from duty status of an officer or man charged with the commission thereof: Provided further, That officers and men who have heretofore been or may hereafter be transferred to the retired list of the Naval Reserve Force or the Naval Reserve with pay shall at all times be subject to the laws, regulations, and orders for the government of the Navy. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 10, 43 Stat. 1083.)

759. Pay, allowances, transportation, and mileage of officers and men of Naval Reserve.—Commissioned officers of the Naval Reserve when employed on active duty or on training duty, with pay, or when employed in authorized travel to and from such duty, shall be deemed to have been confirmed in grade and qualified for all general service and shall receive the pay, allowances, including longevity pay, as provided by law for the reserve forces of the United States, and shall when traveling under orders receive transportation in kind, mileage or actual expenses as provided by law for travel performed by officers of the regular Navy. Warrant officers and men of the Naval Reserve when employed on active duty or on training duty with pay or when employed in authorized travel to and from such duty shall receive the same pay and allowances as received by warrant officers and enlisted men of the regular Navy of the same rank, grade, or rating, and of the same length of service which shall include service in the Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Naval Reserve Force, Navy Militia, National Naval Volunteers, Marine Corps Reserve, or Naval Reserve: Provided, That when officers or men of the Naval Reserve perform active duty or training duty with pay for a period of less than thirty days such duty performed on the thirty-first day of any month shall be paid for at the same rate as for other days. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 11, 43 Stat. 1083.)

760. Uniform gratuity to officers of Fleet Naval Reserve and Naval Reserve.—Upon being appointed in the Fleet Naval Reserve an officer shall be paid a sum of $100 for purchase of required uniforms and thereafter he shall be paid an additional sum of $50 for the same purpose upon completion of each period of four years in the Fleet Naval Reserve: Provided, That any officer who received a uniform gratuity prior to July 1, 1925, shall not be entitled to either of the above-mentioned sums until the expiration of four years from the date of the receipt of such gratuity: Provided further, That in time of war or national emergency a further sum of $150 for purchase of required uniforms shall be paid to officers of all classes of the Naval Reserve when they first report for active duty. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, §§ 12, 40, 43 Stat. 1083, 1090.)

761. Issuance of uniforms, bedding, and equipment to enlisted men of Naval Reserve.—In time of peace enlisted men of the Naval Reserve shall be issued articles of uniform, bedding, and equipment in accordance with regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy: Provided, That upon first reporting for active duty in time of war or national emergency enlisted men of the Naval Reserve shall receive in addition the same outfit as may be authorized for the enlisted personnel of the regular Navy upon first enlistment. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 13, 43 Stat. 1083.)

762. Compensation for physical injuries to officers or men of Naval Reserve in time of peace.—If in time of peace any officer or enlisted man of the Naval Reserve is physically injured in the line of duty while performing active duty, authorized training duty with or without pay, or when employed in authorized travel to and from such duty, or dies as the result of such physical injury, he or his beneficiary shall be entitled to all the benefits prescribed by law for civil employees of the United States who are physically injured in the line of duty or who die as the result thereof, and the United States Employees' Compensation Commission shall have jurisdiction in such cases and shall perform the same duties with reference thereto as in the cases of civil employees of the United States so injured: Provided, That in no case shall sickness or disease be regarded as an injury within the meaning of this section relating to the Naval Reserve. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 14, 43 Stat. 1084.)

763. Precedence among officers of Naval Reserve.—Commissioned officers of the same rank and warrant officers in the Naval Reserve shall take precedence among themselves by date of commission or warrant. Officers of the same date of commission or warrant shall take precedence according to such regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe: Provided, That commissioned officers of the same rank and warrant officers who were transferred from the Naval Reserve Force to the Naval Reserve in accordance with law shall take precedence among themselves and with other officers of the Naval Reserve according to the dates of the commissions, warrants, or provisional assignments of rank or grade held by them at the time of transfer, except that such officers who were transferred to the Naval Reserve Force from the National Naval Volunteers, if they were not separated from the Naval Reserve Force for more than four months since said transfer, shall take precedence among themselves and with other officers of the Naval Reserve according to the date of the commissions or warrants held by them on the active lists of the Naval Militia at the time of their enrollment in the National Naval Volunteers, or, if subsequently promoted in the National Naval Volunteers, according to the dates of said promotions: Provided further, That former officers of the Navy or Coast Guard who, within four months of their separation therefrom, enrolled in the Naval Reserve Force in the same ranks or grades last held by them in the Navy or Coast Guard, and who were transferred to the Naval Reserve in the said ranks or grades pursuant to law, and such former officers of the Navy or Coast Guard who have been since July 1, 1925, or who may hereafter, within the same period, be appointed in the Naval Reserve in the same ranks or grades as last held by them in the Navy or Coast Guard, shall take precedence among themselves and with other officers of the Naval Reserve according to the dates of the commissions or warrants held by them in the Navy or Coast Guard when separated therefrom. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, §§ 15, 40, 43 Stat. 1084, 1090.)

764. Precedence with officers of regular Navy.—In time of peace officers of the Naval Reserve shall take precedence with but after officers of the same rank or grade in the regular Navy. When mobilized with the regular Navy for war or national emergency, officers of the Naval Reserve shall, for the duration of the war or national emergency, take precedence after the junior of their respective ranks or grades in the regular Navy on date of such mobilization: Provided, That officers of the Naval Reserve of and above the rank of lieutenant commander who are selected for advancement in accordance with the provisions of section 765 of this chapter shall, when so advanced, take precedence during the then existing war or national emergency with officers of the regular Navy of the same rank or grade in accordance with the dates stated in their commissions. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 16, 43 Stat. 1084.)

765. Advancement of officers of Naval Reserve in time of war or national emergency; pay and allowances.—In time of war or national emergency, officers on the active list of the Naval Reserve employed on active duty shall be advanced in grade and rank up to and including the rank of lieutenant commander with the officers of the regular Navy with whom or next after whom they take precedence in accordance with this chapter and such officers of and above the rank of lieutenant commander shall be eligible for selection upon recommendation by a board appointed, constituted, and approved as required by law for the regular Navy and when so selected shall be eligible for advancement, either temporary or permanent, to the next higher grade or rank in the Naval Reserve corresponding to such higher grades or ranks as may then exist on the active list of the regular Navy, in such numbers for each grade or rank as may be prescribed from time to time by the Secretary of the Navy: Provided, That no officer of the Naval Reserve shall be advanced to a higher rank until he has qualified therefor by such mental, moral, professional, and physical examinations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe: Provided further, That all officers of the Naval Reserve who may be advanced to a higher grade or rank shall be allowed the pay and allowances of the higher grade or rank from the dates stated in their commissions: Provided further, That the provisions of this section shall not apply to officers who have been or may hereafter be retired from the Naval Reserve Force or the Naval Reserve. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 17, 43 Stat. 1084.)

766. Physical examination of officers of Naval Reserve; discharge or retirement for disability.—All officers of the Naval Reserve shall be examined physically once every four years, or oftener, as may be deemed necessary, and if upon such examination they are found not physically qualified for active service they shall be honorably discharged or, within the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy, placed on the honorary retired list provided for in section 767 of this chapter. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 18, 43 Stat. 1085.)

767. Retirement of officers of Naval Reserve for age or length of service.—Officers of the Naval Reserve shall be placed on an honorary retired list of the Naval Reserve without pay or allowances upon reaching the age of sixty-four years, or, within the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy, upon the officer's own request, after twenty-five years' service in the Naval Reserve: Provided, That service in the Navy, Marine Corps, Naval Reserve Force, National Naval Volunteers, Naval Militia, Naval Auxiliary Service, and Coast Guard shall be counted as service in the Naval Reserve under the provisions of this section. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 19, 43 Stat. 1085.)

768. Regulations for recruiting, organization, etc., of Naval Reserve; detail of officers and men and furnishing of vessels and supplies from Navy; leave of absence of United States employees for training duty.—The Secretary of the Navy shall prescribe all necessary and proper regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, for the recruiting, organization, government, administration, training, inspection, and mobilization of the Naval Reserve hereby created and established, and shall detail such officers and enlisted men and shall make available such vessels, material, armament, equipment, and other facilities of the regular Navy as he may deem necessary and advisable for the development of the Naval Reserve in accordance with the provisions of this chapter: Provided, That all officers and employees of the United States or of the District of Columbia, who are members of the Naval Reserve, shall be entitled to leave of absence from their respective duties, without loss of pay, time, or efficiency rating, on all days during which they are employed, under orders, on training duty for periods not to exceed fifteen days in any one calendar year. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 36, 43 Stat. 1089.)

769. Annual appropriation of funds for support of Naval Reserve.—The necessary funds are hereby authorized to be appropriated annually, to be paid out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the support of the Naval Reserve, including all expenses pertaining thereto as authorized by law. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 37, 43 Stat. 1090.)

770. Annual estimates by Secretary of the Navy.—The Secretary of the Navy shall submit annually in connection with the estimates for the Navy Department a statement showing separately the sums required for the following purposes under this chapter:

(a) The estimated amount necessary for all purposes for the Fleet Naval Reserve for the succeeding fiscal year, not including pay and allowances of former enlisted men of the regular Navy transferred or assigned to the Fleet Naval Reserve.

(b) The estimated amount for said fiscal year required to cover the pay and allowances of those former enlisted men of the regular Navy transferred to the Fleet Naval Reserve.

(c) The amount estimated for said fiscal year to cover the annual payment of $25 allowed by section 783 of this chapter to those men of the Naval Reserve who have been assigned thereto. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 38, 43 Stat. 1090.)

THE FLEET NAVAL RESERVE

781. Training or other duty; subsistence; pay for aviation duty.—In time of peace, except as herein otherwise provided, officers and enrolled and enlisted men of the Fleet Naval Reserve shall be required to perform such training duty, not to exceed fifteen days annually, as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, unless excused therefrom for good and sufficient reasons by direction of the Secretary of the Navy: Provided, That they may be given additional training or other duty, either with or without pay, as may be authorized, with their consent, by the Secretary of the Navy: Provided further, That when authorized training or other duty without pay is performed by officers or men they may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy, be furnished subsistence in kind or commutation thereof at a rate to be fixed from time to time by the Secretary of the Navy: And provided further, That officers and men while detailed for training or other duty in aviation which involves actual flying in aircraft, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, shall receive the same increase of the pay of their grades, ranks, or ratings as may be received by officers and enlisted men in similar grades, ranks, and ratings in the regular Navy for the performance of similar duty. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 20, 43 Stat. 1085.)

782. Drill pay; annual pay for satisfactory performance of duties; additional pay to certain officers.—Officers below the grade or rank of lieutenant commander and enlisted men of the Fleet Naval Reserve attached to a division thereof, organized under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, shall receive compensation at the rate of one-thirtieth of the monthly base pay of their grades, ranks, or ratings for attending, under competent orders, each regular drill, or other equivalent instruction or duty, as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy: Provided, That no such officer or enlisted man shall receive pay for more than 60 drills or other equivalent instruction or duty in any one fiscal year: Provided further, That week-end cruises shall not be regarded as drills or other equivalent instruction or duty.

For satisfactory performance of their appropriate duties under such regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe, officers above the grade or rank of lieutenant of the Fleet Naval Reserve shall receive compensation at the rate of not more than $500 a year, and officers below the grade or rank of lieutenant commander and enlisted men of the Fleet Naval Reserve not attached to a division thereof, shall receive not more than four-thirtieths of the monthly base pay of their grades, ranks, or ratings, each month.

In addition to the pay to which they may otherwise become entitled under this section, officers of or below the grade or rank of captain of the Fleet Naval Reserve regularly assigned to and commanding organizations of the Fleet Naval Reserve, organized under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, and having administrative functions, shall receive compensation at the rate of $240 a year for the faithful performance of the administrative duties connected therewith.

Pay under the provisions of this section shall not accrue to any officer or enlisted man during a period when he shall be lawfully entitled to pay for active duty or training duty. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 21, 43 Stat. 1085.)

783. Obligation of enlisted men in regular Navy to serve in Fleet Naval Reserve on termination of Navy enlistment; assignment; duty; pay and allowances; reenlistment in regular Navy.—The Secretary of the Navy, in his discretion, under such regulations as he may prescribe, may require any person hereafter when first enlisting in the regular naval service and may authorize any enlisted man in such service to obligate himself to serve four years in the Fleet Naval Reserve upon termination of his enlistment in the regular naval service: Provided, That upon termination of their enlistment in the regular naval service, men who have so obligated themselves shall be assigned to the Fleet Naval Reserve for the four-year period, unless they apply for reenlistment or extension of their enlistment in the regular naval service, in which event they may be reenlisted or may extend their enlistment in the regular naval service: Provided further, That the men so assigned to the Fleet Naval Reserve for the four-year period shall not, in time of peace, be ordered to active duty, except with their own consent, and shall be under no obligation to perform training duty or drill during that period, but shall be paid in advance $25 per annum, except when, with their own consent, they become attached to a division of the Fleet Naval Reserve, or satisfactorily perform appropriate duties assigned by direction of the Secretary of the Navy, in which case they shall receive the pay, allowances, gratuities, and other emoluments as herein specifically provided for enlisted men of the Fleet Naval Reserve.

Enlisted men of the regular naval service assigned to the Fleet Naval Reserve in accordance with the provisions of this section, or enlisted men who within three months from date of discharge from the regular naval service upon completion of a four or six year enlistment, enlist in the Naval Reserve, may, while so in the Naval Reserve, be permitted to reenlist in the regular naval service, in which case they shall be entitled to the same benefits as if they had enlisted in the regular naval service within three months of their last discharge therefrom. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 22, 43 Stat. 1086; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 19, 43 Stat. 1276.)

784. Transfer to Fleet Naval Reserve of men enlisted in regular Navy; pay; duties; discharge for physical disqualification; retirement.—Men who have enlisted since July 1, 1925, or may hereafter enlist in the regular Navy after the passage of this chapter, except as herein otherwise provided, may be transferred to the Fleet Naval Reserve only upon the completion of at least twenty years' naval service and provided they are then found physically and otherwise qualified to perform duty in time of war and apply for such transfer, and thereafter, except when on active duty, shall be paid at the rate of one-half of the base pay they are receiving at the time of transfer: Provided, That in time of peace all enlisted men so transferred to the Fleet Naval Reserve may be required to perform not more than two months' active duty in each four-year period and shall be physically examined at least once during each four-year period, and if upon such examination they are found not physically qualified to perform duty in time of war they shall be discharged: Provided further, That all enlisted men so transferred to the Fleet Naval Reserve shall upon completion of thirty years' service, including naval service and time in the Fleet Naval Reserve, be transferred to the retired list of the regular Navy with one-half of the base pay of their ratings plus all permanent additions thereto, and the allowances to which enlisted men of the same ratings are entitled on retirement after thirty years' naval service. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, §§ 23, 40, 43 Stat. 1087, 1090.)

785. Pay and retirement of enlisted men transferred under former law.—All enlisted men who, prior to July 1, 1925, were transferred from the regular Navy to the Fleet Naval Reserve of the Naval Reserve Force established by the Act of August 29, 1916, and who on that date were transferred by law to the Fleet Naval Reserve of the Naval Reserve, shall receive the rate of pay they were legally entitled to receive in the Naval Reserve Force: Provided, That such enlisted men so transferred to the Fleet Naval Reserve of the Naval Reserve shall, upon completing thirty years' service, including naval service and time in the Fleet Naval Reserve of the Naval Reserve Force and in the Fleet Naval Reserve of the Naval Reserve, be transferred to the retired list of the regular Navy with the pay they were then legally entitled to receive, plus the allowances to which enlisted men of the regular Navy are entitled on retirement after thirty years' naval service. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, §§ 24, 40, 43 Stat. 1087, 1090.)

786. Reenlistment in regular Navy of enrolled men of old Naval Reserve Force transferred to Naval Reserve; benefits.—Enrolled men of the Naval Reserve Force transferred by law to the Naval Reserve herein created, who had enrolled in the Naval Reserve Force within four months from the date of their discharge from the regular Navy, and who have reenlisted since July 1, 1925, or who may hereafter reenlist in the regular Navy within three months from the date of their discharge from the Naval Reserve shall be entitled to the same benefits as if they had reenlisted in the regular Navy within three months of their last discharge therefrom. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, §§ 25, 40, 43 Stat. 1087, 1090.)

787. Transfer of enlisted men serving in regular Navy or serving in Naval Reserve Force and reenlisting in regular Navy; pay.—Enlisted men who were serving in the regular Navy on July 1, 1925, or who, having been discharged therefrom prior to that date, reenlisted in the regular Navy after July 1, 1925, and within three months from date of said discharge, or who were serving in the Naval Reserve Force on July 1, 1925, in an enrollment entered into within four months from the date of their discharge from the regular Navy and have heretofore reenlisted or may hereafter reenlist in the regular Navy within three months from the date of their discharge from the Naval Reserve, shall be entitled to be transferred to the Fleet Naval Reserve on the completion of sixteen or more years' naval service, and when so transferred shall, except when on active duty, be entitled to receive, if they have had sixteen but less than twenty years' naval service, pay at the rate of one-third the base pay received by them at the time of transfer, plus all permanent additions thereto, and if they have had twenty or more years' naval service, pay at the rate of one-half of the base pay received by them at the time of transfer, plus all permanent additions thereto: Provided, That the pay authorized in this section shall be increased 10 per centum for all men who may be credited with extraordinary heroism in the line of duty or whose average marks in conduct for twenty years or more shall not be less than 95 per centum of the maximum: Provided further, That for all purposes of this section a complete enlistment during minority shall be counted as four years' service, and any enlistment terminated within three months prior to the expiration of the term of such enlistment shall be counted as the full term of service for which enlisted. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, §§ 26, 40, 43 Stat. 1087, 1090.)

788. Active duty and retirement of enlisted men transferred under provisions of preceding section; pay and allowances.—In time of peace all enlisted men so transferred to the Fleet Naval Reserve in accordance with the preceding section may be required to perform not more than two months' active duty in each four-year period and shall be examined physically at least once during each four-year period, and if upon such examination they are found not physically qualified they shall be transferred to the retired list of the regular Navy, with the pay they are then receiving, and upon the completion of thirty years' service, including naval service, time in the Fleet Naval Reserve and time on the retired list of the Navy, they shall receive the allowances to which enlisted men of the regular Navy are entitled on retirement after thirty years' naval service: Provided, That all enlisted men so transferred to the Fleet Naval Reserve who are not transferred to the retired list pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this section shall, upon completion of thirty years' service, including naval service and time in the Fleet Naval Reserve, be transferred to the retired list of the regular Navy with the pay they were then receiving, and the allowances to which enlisted men of the same rating are entitled on retirement after thirty years' naval service. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 27, 43 Stat. 1088.)

789. Inspection of Naval Reserve units.—An inspection of Naval Reserve units shall be made at least once each year by officers of the regular Navy detailed by the Secretary of the Navy for that purpose, and said officers shall report to the Secretary of the Navy upon the qualifications, organization, and administration of said units. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 29, 43 Stat. 1088.)

THE MERCHANT MARINE NAVAL RESERVE

801. Composition.—The Merchant Marine Naval Reserve shall be composed of male citizens of the United States and of the insular possessions of the United States who follow or who have followed the sea as a profession and who are employed, or who have been employed within three years, on public vessels of the United States or such other seagoing vessels documented under the laws of the United States as may be approved by the Secretary of the Navy. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 30, 43 Stat. 1089.)

802. Transfer of members to Volunteer Naval Reserve; discharge.—Officers and enlisted men of the Merchant Marine Naval Reserve shall be transferred to the Volunteer Naval Reserve, or discharged, three years after they have ceased to follow the sea as a profession. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 31, 43 Stat. 1089.)

803. Training duty.—Officers and enlisted men of the Merchant Marine Naval Reserve may, upon their own application, approved by direction of the Secretary of the Navy, be given the same training duty, with or without pay, as is provided for officers and enlisted men of the Fleet Naval Reserve. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 32, 43 Stat. 1089.)

804. Pay of officers and enlisted men in time of peace.—In time of peace officers and enlisted men of the Merchant Marine Naval Reserve when not employed on active duty with the regular Navy shall be paid per annum, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe, at the rate of not exceeding one month's base pay of their corresponding grades, ranks, or ratings in the regular Navy, which pay shall be additional to any pay to which they may be entitled for training duty: Provided, That funds equal to the amount required for the purposes of this section shall first have been made available by the Congress for this specific purpose. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 33, 43 Stat. 1089.)

805. Flag or pennant.—The Secretary of the Navy shall prescribe a suitable flag or pennant which may be flown as an emblem of the Merchant Marine Naval Reserve on any seagoing merchant vessel documented under the laws of the United States: Provided, That such vessel be first designated by the Secretary of the Navy as suitable for service as a naval auxiliary in time of war: Provided further, That the master or commanding officer and not less than 50 per centum of the officers are members of the Naval Reserve: And provided further, That such flag or pennant shall not be flown in lieu of the national ensign. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 34, 43 Stat. 1089.)

THE VOLUNTEER NAVAL RESERVE

811. Active or training duty; pay and allowances.—Officers and enlisted men of the Volunteer Naval Reserve shall not be required to attend drills or perform training duty and shall receive no pay or allowances, except when ordered to active duty or training duty: Provided, That they may, upon their own application, approved by the direction of the Secretary of the Navy, be given the same active duty or training duty, with or without pay, as is provided for officers and enlisted men of the Fleet Naval Reserve. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 35, 43 Stat. 1089.)

NAVAL RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS

821. Establishment and operation; regulations; appropriations for expenditures; appointment of members as Naval Reserve officers; total of personnel.—A Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps is hereby authorized to be established and operated under such regulations as the President may prescribe, which regulations shall, so far as may be practicable, conform to the provisions of sections 381 to 390, of Title 10, ARMY: Provided, That the powers conferred therein upon the Secretary of War with regard to the Reserve Officers' Training Corps are hereby conferred upon the Secretary of the Navy with regard to the Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps: Provided further, That all expenditures in connection with the establishment and operation of the Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps shall be specifically appropriated therefor: And provided further, That members of the Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps shall be eligible for appointment as Naval Reserve officers under the same conditions as provided by law for the appointment of Naval Reserve officers from other citizens of the United States, and when so appointed shall have the same status and be entitled to the same benefits in all respects as provided by law for other members of the Naval Reserve: And provided further, That the word "naval" wherever used in this section shall be construed to include Marine Corps: Provided further, That the total personnel of the Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps shall not exceed at any one time more than twelve hundred. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 22, 43 Stat. 1276.)

MARINE CORPS TRAINING CAMPS

831. Establishment, maintenance, and regulation.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to establish and maintain at such places as he may designate, and prescribe regulations for the government thereof, Marine Corps training camps for the instruction of citizens of the United States who make application and are designated for such training; no such camps to be in existence for a period longer than six weeks in each fiscal year, except in time of actual or threatened war; to use Marine Corps and such other Government property as he may deem necessary for the military training of such citizens while in attendance at such camps. The Quartermaster's Department, United States Marine Corps, is authorized to sell such articles of uniform clothing as may be prescribed at cost price to the volunteer citizens who are designated to participate in these instructions: Provided, That these citizens shall be required to furnish at their own expense transportation and subsistence to and from these camps, and subsistence while undergoing training therein. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 614.)

NAVAL MILITIA

841. Admission of officers or enlisted men in Fleet Naval Reserve; rank and rating; exemptions; use of facilities of Navy.—Of the Organized Militia, as provided by law, such part as may be duly prescribed in any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia shall constitute a Naval Militia. Any officer or enlisted man of such Naval Militia may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy, be appointed or enlisted in the Fleet Naval Reserve in the grade, rank, or rating not above the rank of lieutenant for which he may be found qualified in accordance with such special regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy: Provided, That each officer and enlisted man of the Naval Militia appointed or enlisted in the Fleet Naval Reserve shall be required within one year after the date of his appointment or enlistment in the Fleet Naval Reserve to qualify for the rank or rating he may hold in accordance with the general regulations governing the Fleet Naval Reserve: Provided further, That officers and men of the Naval Reserve who are members of the Naval Militia of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia shall stand relieved from all service or duty in said Naval Militia when on active duty in time of war or national emergency: Provided further, That such vessels, material, armament, equipment, and other facilities of the regular Navy as are or may be made available for the Fleet Naval Reserve shall also be available, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy, for issue or loan to the several States, Territories, or the District of Columbia, for the administration and training of units of the Naval Militia, but no such facilities of the regular Navy shall be furnished for use by any portion or unit of the Naval Militia unless at least 95 per centum of its personnel has been appointed or enlisted in the Fleet Naval Reserve and unless its organization, administration, and training conform to the standard prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy for such units. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 28, 43 Stat. 1088.)

ELIGIBLE LIST FOR REGULAR AND RESERVE FORCES

851. Civilians commissioned in regular Navy in time of war; reappointment of former officers.—For the purpose of securing a list of persons especially qualified to hold commissions in the Navy or in any reserve or volunteer naval force which may hereafter be called for and organized under the authority of Congress, other than a force composed of Organized Naval Militia, the Secretary of the Navy is authorized from time to time to convene examining boards at suitable and convenient places in different parts of the United States, who shall examine as to their qualifications for naval duties all applicants who shall have served in the regular Navy of the United States or in the Organized Naval Militia of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia. Such examination shall be under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy. The record of previous services of the applicant shall be considered as part of the examination. Those applicants who pass such examinations shall be certified as to their fitness for naval duties and rank, and shall, subject to a physical examination at any time, constitute an eligible class for commissions, pursuant to such certification, in any volunteer naval force hereafter called for and organized under the authority of Congress other than a force composed of Organized Naval Militia; and the President is hereby further authorized, upon the outbreak of war, or when, in his opinion, war is imminent, to commission in the regular Navy for the exigency of such war such of the persons whose names have been certified as above provided as he may select: Provided, That no one shall be commissioned to a higher rank than the rank for which he may have been recommended by said examining board: And provided further, That the President may also commission or warrant as of the highest rank formerly held by him, or the present equivalent of such former rank in case the nomenclature or some of the specific duties of the same may have been changed, any person who having been formerly a commissioned or warrant officer of the United States Navy shall have been honorably discharged from the service: And provided further, That persons may be commissioned in the Navy, for engineer duties only, and for all line duties other than engineer duties, and when so commissioned shall have the full rank, pay, precedence, and so forth, of the line grade for which they are commissioned. (Feb. 16, 1914, c. 21, § 21, 38 Stat. 289.)

Section 862. Commencement of pay of officer on original entry into service.—The pay of an officer of the Navy, upon his original entry into the service, except where he is required to give an official bond, shall commence upon the date of his acceptance of his appointment; but where he is required to give such bond his pay shall commence upon the date of the approval of his bond by the proper authority. (R. S. § 1560.)

863. Pay of graduates of Naval Academy.—Every midshipman who has heretofore graduated or may hereafter graduate from the Naval Academy, and who has been or may hereafter be commissioned, within six months after such graduation, an officer in the Navy or Marine Corps of the United States, under the laws appointing such graduate to the Navy or Marine Corps, shall be allowed the pay of the grade in which he may be so commissioned from the date he takes rank as stated in his commission to the date of qualification and acceptance of his commission. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 212, 27 Stat. 715; July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 686.)

864. Pay of Admiral and Vice Admiral.—Except as otherwise provided in section 12 of Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES, the pay of an Admiral shall be $10,000 and the pay of a Vice Admiral $9,000 per annum. (May 22, 1917, c. 20, § 18, 40 Stat. 89.)

865. Allowances; commissioned officers generally.—Commissioned officers of the Navy shall receive the same allowances, except forage, as provided by or in pursuance of law for the officers of corresponding rank in the Army. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 13, 30 Stat. 1007; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 581; June 10, 1922, § 21, c. 212, 42 Stat. 633.)

866. Allowances of Admiral and Vice Admiral.—Except as otherwise provided in section 12 of Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES, the officers of the Navy holding the rank and title of Admiral and Vice Admiral in the Navy while holding such rank and title shall receive the allowances of a General and lieutenant general of the Army, respectively. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 421, 30 Stat. 1024; July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 717.)

867. Additional pay of aids to rear admirals.—Aids to rear admirals embraced in the lower half of that grade shall each receive $150 additional per annum, and aids to all other rear admirals, $200 additional per annum each. (May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 128; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 577; June 10, 1922, § 21, c. 212, 42 Stat. 633.)

868. Pay of Superintendent, Naval Academy.—The pay of the Superintendent of the Naval School at Annapolis shall be at the rate allowed to an officer of his rank when in service at sea. (Sept. 28, 1850, c. 80, 9 Stat. 515.)

869. Pay of commandant, Mare Island Navy Yard.—The pay of the officer of the Navy assigned to the command of the navy yard at Mare Island, California, shall be the sea pay of his grade. (Mar. 3, 1863, No. 25, 12 Stat. 825.)

870. Pay and allowances of officers advanced in grade and rank after March 3, 1899.—All officers of the Navy who, since the 3d day of March, 1899, have been advanced or may hereafter be advanced in grade or rank pursuant to law shall be allowed the pay and allowances of the higher grade or rank from the dates stated in their commissions. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 148, 37 Stat. 892.)

871. Pay and allowances of officer of Navy or Marine Corps on leave of absence and engaged in service other than that of Government.—No officer of the Navy or Marine Corps while on leave of absence engaged in a service other than that of the Government of the United States, shall be entitled to any pay or allowances for a period in excess of that for which he is entitled to full pay, unless the President otherwise directs. (May 28, 1924, c. 203, 43 Stat. 202; Feb. 11, 1925, c. 209, 43 Stat. 879.)

872. Pay and allowances of officers of Navy and Marine Corps while serving on duty in coordination of business of Government.—Hereafter no commissioned officer of the Navy or Marine Corps shall be deprived of his right to pay and allowances while serving on such duty as the President may direct in the coordination of the business of the Government, as now being conducted by him under the general supervision of the Director of the Bureau of the Budget: Provided, That the number of officers detailed to this duty shall not at any time exceed twenty-six. (June 7, 1924, c. 291, Title I, 43 Stat. 481; Feb. 12, 1925, c. 225, Title I, 43 Stat. 895.)

873. Pay and allowances of acting chaplains.—Acting chaplains provided for in section 92 shall have the pay and allowances of lieutenant (junior grade) in the Navy. .(June 30, 1914, c. 130, 38 Stat. 403.)

874. Pay and allowances of dental officers.—All dental officers shall receive the same pay and allowances as officers of corresponding rank and length of service in the Naval Medical Corps up to and including the rank of lieutenant commander: Provided, That dental surgeons shall be eligible for advancement in pay and allowances, but not in rank, to and including the pay and allowances of commander and captain, subject to such examinations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe, except that the number of dental surgeons with the pay and allowances of captain shall not exceed 4½ per centum and the number of dental surgeons with the pay and allowances of commander shall not exceed 8 per centum of the total authorized number of dental officers: Provided further, That dental surgeons shall be eligible for advancement to the pay and allowances of commander and captain when their total active service as dental officers in the Navy is such that if rendered as officers of the Naval Medical Corps, it would place them in the list of medical officers with the pay and allowances of commander or captain, as the case may be: And provided further, That dental officers who shall have gained or lost numbers on the Navy list shall be considered to have gained or lost service accordingly; and the time served by dental officers on active duty as acting assistant dental surgeons and assistant dental surgeons under provisions of law existing prior to July 1, 1918, shall be reckoned in computing the increased service pay and service for precedence and promotion of dental officers herein authorized or heretofore appointed. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 573; July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 708.)

875. Advances to officers ordered to and from sea or shore duty beyond seas.—Advances of pay not to exceed three months' pay in any one case may be made to officers ordered to and from sea duty and to and from shore duty beyond the seas, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe: Provided, That the President of the United States may direct such advances, as he may deem necessary and proper, to such persons in the Naval Service as may be employed on distant stations where the discharge of the pay and emoluments to which they are entitled can not be regularly effected. (R. S. § 1563; Mar. 4, 1917, c. 180, 39 Stat. 1181.)

876. Pay of persons acting as paymaster when office vacant in ship at sea.—Any person performing the duties of paymaster, acting assistant paymaster, or assistant paymaster, in a ship at sea, or on a foreign station, or on the Pacific coast of the United States, by appointment of the senior officer present, in case of vacancy of such office, in accordance with the provisions of section 62, and not otherwise, shall be entitled to receive the pay of such grade while so acting. (R. S. § 1564.)

877. Pay, allowances, and benefits of electricians and radio electricians.—All persons appointed in the commissioned warrant grades of chief electrician and chief radio electrician, and the warrant grades of electrician and radio electrician in the United States Navy, shall have the same pay, allowances, and other benefits as now are or may hereafter be allowed other commissioned warrant and warrant officers in the Navy. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 12, 43 Stat. 1274.)

878. Pay and allowances of reserve nurses.—Reserve nurses when assigned to active duty as provided in section 42 shall receive the pay and allowances of nurses. But they shall receive no compensation except when on active duty. (May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 146.)

879. Longevity pay; credit for service in Coast Guard and former Revenue-Cutter Service.—For the purposes of computing longevity pay and retirement privileges of officers and enlisted men of the Navy, all creditable service in the Coast Guard and former Revenue-Cutter Service shall be counted. (June 4, 1920, c. 228, § 3, 41 Stat. 835.)

880. Constructive service; not to apply to officers appointed after March 4, 1913.—All officers, including warrant officers, who have been or may be appointed to the Navy from civil life shall, on the date of appointment, be credited, for computing their pay, with five years' service: Provided, That this shall not apply to any person entering the Navy from and after March 4, 1913. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 13, 30 Stat. 1007; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 148, 37 Stat. 891.)

881. Furlough pay.—Officers on furlough shall receive only one-half of the pay to which they would have been entitled if on leave of absence. (R. S. § 1557.)

882. Pay as affected by absence from duty on account of sickness resulting from misconduct.—No officer or enlisted man in the Navy or Marine Corps in active service who shall be absent from duty on account of injury, sickness, or disease resulting from his own intemperate use of drugs or alcoholic liquors, or other misconduct, shall receive pay for the period of such absence, the time so absent and the cause thereof to be ascertained under such procedure and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 580; July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 717.)

883. No payment to be made to officers employed by contractors.—No payment shall be made from appropriations made by Congress to any officer in the Navy or Marine Corps on the active or retired list while such officer is employed by any person or company furnishing naval supplies or war material to the Government; and such employment is hereby made unlawful. (June 10, 1896, c. 399, 29 Stat. 361.)

884. Promotion of warrant officers not to reduce pay.—No warrant officer promoted six years from date of warrant shall suffer a reduction in pay which but for such promotion would have been received by him. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 771.)

MILEAGE AND TRAVEL ALLOWANCE

891. Mileage books or commutation tickets.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to continue to purchase such mileage books, commutation tickets, and other similar transportation tickets as may in his discretion seem necessary, and to furnish same to officers and others ordered to perform travel on official business; and payment for such transportation tickets upon their receipt, in accordance with commercial usage, or prior to the actual performance of the travel involved, shall not be regarded as an advance of public money within the meaning of section 529 of Title 31, MONEY AND FINANCE. (Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1630, § 1, 33 Stat. 403.)

892. Officers traveling abroad.—Officers of the Navy traveling abroad under orders shall travel by the most direct route, the occasion and necessity for such order to be certified by the officer issuing the same. (Aug. 5, 1882, c. 391, 22 Stat. 286.)

893. Per diem to officers and enlisted men of Navy and Marine Corps making aerial surveys of rivers, harbors, etc.—To cover actual additional expenses to which fliers are subjected when making aerial surveys, hereafter a per diem of $7 in lieu of other travel allowances shall be paid to officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps for the actual time consumed while traveling by air, under competent orders, in connection with aerial surveys of rivers and harbors, or other governmental projects, and a per diem of $6 for the actual time consumed in making such aerial surveys, to be paid from appropriations available for the particular improvement or project for which the survey is being made: Provided, That not more than one of the per diem allowances authorized in this section shall be paid for any one day. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 467, § 5, 43 Stat. 1190.)

894. Settlement of traveling expense claims.—The settlement of all traveling expense claims, where the payment of such is authorized by existing law, and the determination of distances and of what constitutes the shortest usually traveled route in the meaning of laws relating to traveling allowances, shall accord to such rules as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 774.)

895. Travel allowance to enlisted men on discharge.—An enlisted man discharged from the Navy or Marine Corps, except by way of punishment for an offense, shall receive 5 cents per mile for the distance from the place of his discharge to the place of his acceptance for enlistment, enrollment, or muster into the service: Provided, That for sea travel involved in travel between place of discharge and place of acceptance for enrollment, enlistment, or muster into the service only transportation in kind and subsistence en route shall be allowed: Provided further, That enlisted men under the age of eighteen discharged on the application of either of their parents or legal guardian shall be furnished with transportation in kind from the place of discharge to the railroad station at or nearest to the place of acceptance for enlistment, or to their home if the distance thereto is no greater than from the place of discharge to the place of acceptance for enlistment, but if the difference be greater they may be furnished transportation in kind for a distance equal to that from the place of discharge to the place of acceptance for enlistment. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 126, 39 Stat. 217; Feb. 28, 1919, c. 70, § 3, 40 Stat. 1203; Sept. 22, 1922, c. 409, 42 Stat. 1021.)

896. Transportation to families of officers and enlisted men on permanent change of station; transportation of household effects.—Subject to the provisions of section 20 of Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES, hereafter when any commissioned officer, noncommissioned officer of the grade of color sergeant and above, including any noncommissioned officer of the Marine Corps of corresponding grade, warrant officer, chief petty officer, or petty officer (first class), having a wife or dependent child or children, is ordered to make a permanent change of station, the United States shall furnish transportation in kind from funds appropriated for the transportation of the Army, the Navy, the Marine Corps, the Coast Guard, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, and the Public Health Service to his new station for the wife and dependent child or children: Provided, That for persons in the naval service the term "permanent station," as used in this section, shall be interpreted to mean a shore station or the home yard of the vessel to which the person concerned may be ordered; and a duly authorized change in home yard or home port of such vessel shall be deemed a change of station: Provided further, That if the cost of such transportation exceeds that for transportation from the old to the new station the excess cost shall be paid to the United States by the officer concerned: Provided further, That transportation supplied the wife or dependent child or children of such officer, to or from stations beyond the continental limits of the United States, shall not be other than by Government transport, if such transportation is available: And provided further, That the personnel of the Navy shall have the benefit of all existing laws applying to the Army and the Marine Corps for the transportation of household effects. (May 18, 1920, c. 190, § 12, 41 Stat. 604.)

RATIONS

901. Rations of enlisted men and boys, and midshipmen.—All enlisted men and boys in the Navy, attached to any United States vessel or station and doing duty thereon, and midshipmen, shall be allowed a ration, or commutation thereof in money, under such limitations and regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe. (Jan. 30, 1885, c. 43, § 1, 23 Stat. 291.)

902. Constituents of Navy ration.—The Navy ration shall consist of the following daily allowance of provisions to each person: One pound and a quarter of salt or smoked meat, with three ounces of dried or six ounces of canned or preserved fruit, and three gills of beans or pease, or twelve ounces of flour; or one pound of preserved meat, with three ounces of dried or six ounces of canned or preserved fruit and eight ounces of rice or twelve ounces of canned vegetables, or six ounces of desiccated vegetables; together with one pound of biscuit, two ounces of butter, four ounces of sugar, two ounces of coffee or cocoa, or one-half ounce of tea and one ounce of condensed milk or evaporated cream; and a weekly allowance of one-quarter pound of macaroni, four ounces of cheese, four ounces of tomatoes, one-half pint of vinegar or sauce, one-quarter pint of pickles, one-quarter pint of molasses, four ounces of salt, one-half ounce of pepper, one-eighth ounce of spices, and one-half ounce of dry mustard. Seven pounds of lard, or a suitable substitute, shall be allowed for every hundred pounds of flour issued as bread, and such quantities of yeast and flavoring extracts as may be necessary. (R. S. § 1580; July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 679; June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 570.)

903. Substitutions in ration.—The following substitution for the components of the ration may be made when deemed necessary by the senior officer present in command: For one and one-quarter pounds of salt or smoked meat or one pound of preserved meat, one and three-quarter pounds of fresh meat or fresh fish, or eight eggs; in lieu of the articles usually issued with salt, smoked or preserved meat, one and three-quarter pounds of fresh vegetables; for one pound of biscuit, one and one-quarter pounds of soft bread or eighteen ounces of flour; for three gills of beans or pease, twelve ounces of flour or eight ounces of rice or other starch food, or twelve ounces of canned vegetables; for one pound of condensed milk or evaporated cream, one quart of fresh milk; for three ounces of dried or six ounces of canned or preserved fruit, nine ounces of fresh fruit; and for twelve ounces of flour or eight ounces of rice or other starch food, or twelve ounces of canned vegetables, three gills of beans or pease; in lieu of the weekly allowance of one-quarter pound of macaroni, four ounces of cheese, one-half pint of vinegar or sauce, one-quarter pint of pickles, one-quarter pint of molasses, and one-eighth ounce of spices, three pounds of sugar, or one and a half pounds of condensed milk, or one pound of coffee, or one and a half pounds of canned fruit, or four pounds of fresh vegetables, or four pounds of flour.

Any article comprised in the Navy ration may be issued in excess of the authorized quantity, provided there be an under issue of the same value in some other article or articles. (R. S. § 1581; June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 571; Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2512, 34 Stat. 1193; May 3, 1880, c. 73, 21 Stat. 86; July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 680.)

904. Short allowance.—In case of necessity the daily allowance of provisions may be diminished at the discretion of the senior officer present in command; but payment shall be made to the persons whose allowance is thus diminished, according to the scale of prices for the same established at the time of such diminution. And every commander who makes any diminution or variation shall give to the paymaster written orders therefor, specifying particularly the diminution or variation which is to be made, and shall report to his commanding officer, or to the Navy Department, the necessity for the same. (R. S. § 1582.)

905. Rations stopped for the sick.—Rations stopped for the sick on board vessels shall remain and be accounted for by the paymaster as a part of the provisions of the vessels. (R. S. § 1583.)

906. Extra allowance to men standing night watches.—An extra allowance of one ounce of coffee or cocoa, two ounces of sugar, four ounces of hard bread or its equivalent, and four ounces of preserved meat or its equivalent shall be allowed to enlisted men of the engineer and dynamo force who stand night watches between eight o'clock postmeridian and eight o'clock antemeridian, under steam. (June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 571.)

907. Commutation price of ration.—Forty cents shall in all cases be deemed the commutation price of the Navy ration: Provided, however, That after January 1, 1918, the commutation price shall not exceed the average cost of the ration during the preceding six months, not to exceed 40 cents. (R. S. § 1585; Oct. 6, 1917, c. 102, 40 Stat. 397.)

908. Money accruing from rations commuted for benefit of mess; payment to commissary officer.—Money accruing from the rations of enlisted men commuted for the benefit of any mess may be paid on public bills to the commissary officer by the pay officer having their accounts. (July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 680.)

QUARTERS

911. Assignment of quarters or commutation thereof; authority of Secretary of Navy.—The Secretary of the Navy may determine where and when there are no public quarters available for persons in the Navy and Marine Corps, or serving therewith, within the meaning of any Acts or parts of Acts relating to the assignment of quarters. (July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 718; June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 21, 42 Stat. 633.)

912. Heat or light in kind prohibited to persons receiving allowance for rental of quarters.—Nothing contained in any existing laws, or regulations or orders promulgated in pursuance of law, shall authorize the issue of heat or light in kind to any person in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, Coast and Geodetic Survey, and Public Health Service while such person is receiving an allowance for rental of quarters under the provisions of Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES. (Mar. 2, 1923, c. 178, Title I, 42 Stat. 1385.)

913. Rank or precedence of staff officer as giving no additional right to quarters.—No staff officer shall, in virtue of his rank or precedence, have any additional right to quarters. (R. S. § 1487.)

CLOTHING ALLOWANCE

916. Outfits on first enlistment.—In order to encourage the enlistment of boys as apprentices in the United States Navy, the Secretary of the Navy is authorized to furnish as a bounty to each of said apprentices after his enlistment, and when first received on board of a training ship, an outfit of clothing not to exceed in value the sum of $45. (Mar. 1, 1889, c. 331, 25 Stat. 781.)

917. Outfits on second enlistment.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to issue a clothing outfit to all enlisted men serving in their second enlistment who failed to receive an outfit of the value authorized by law on their first enlistment, or who, having received such outfit, were required to refund its value on account of discharge prior to expiration of enlistment: Provided further, That the net cost to the Government of clothing outfits furnished any one enlisted man shall not exceed $60. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 932.)

MEDICINES AND MEDICAL ATTENDANCE; FUNERAL EXPENSES

921. Medicines and medical attendance.—Expenses incurred by any officer of the Navy for medicines and medical attendance shall not be allowed unless they were incurred when he was on duty, and the medicines could not have been obtained from naval supplies, or the attendance of a naval medical officer could not have been had. (R. S. § 1586.)

922. Funeral expenses.—No funeral expense of a naval officer who dies in the United States, nor expenses for travel to attend the funeral of an officer who dies there, shall be allowed. But when an officer on duty dies in a foreign country the expenses of his funeral, not exceeding his sea pay for one month, shall be defrayed by the Government, and paid by the paymaster upon whose books the name of such officer was borne for pay. (R. S. § 1587.)

ALLOTMENT OF PAY; ASSIGNMENT OF WAGES; DEPOSITS OF SAVINGS

931. Allotment of pay by officers.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to permit officers of the Navy and the Marine Corps to make allotments from their pay, under such regulations as he may prescribe, for the support of their families or relatives, for their own savings, or for other proper purposes, during such time as they may be absent at sea, on distant duty, or under other circumstances warranting such action. (June 10, 1896, c 399, § 1, 29 Stat. 361.)

932. Assignment of wages.—Every assignment of wages due to persons enlisted in the naval service, and all powers of attorney, or other authority to draw, receipt for, or transfer the same, shall be void, unless attested by the commanding officer and paymaster. The assignment of wages must specify the precise time when they commence. (R. S. § 1576.)

933. Deposits of savings.—Any enlisted man or appointed petty officer of the Navy may deposit his savings, in sums not less than $5, with the paymaster upon whose books his account is borne; and he shall be furnished with a deposit book, in which the said paymaster shall note, over his signature, the amount, date, and place of such deposit. The money so deposited shall be accounted for in the same manner as other public funds, and shall pass to the credit of the appropriation for "Pay for the Navy," and shall not be subject to forfeiture by sentence of court-martial, but shall be forfeited by desertion, and shall not be permitted to be paid until final payment on discharge, or to the heirs or representatives of a deceased sailor, and that such deposit be exempt from liability for such sailor's debts: Provided, That the Government shall be liable for the amount deposited to the person so depositing the same. (Feb. 9, 1889, c. 119, § 1, 25 Stat. 657.)

934. Interest on deposits.—For any sums not less than $5 so deposited for the period of six months or longer, the sailor, on his final discharge, shall be paid interest at the rate of 4 per centum per annum. (Feb 9, 1889, c. 119, § 2, 25 Stat. 658.)

935. Regulation of system of deposits.—The system of deposits established under the preceding sections shall be carried into execution under such regulations as may be established by the Secretary of the Navy. (Feb. 9, 1889, c. 119, § 3, 25 Stat. 658.)

SETTLEMENT OF ACCOUNTS OF DECEASED OFFICERS AND MEN; ALLOWANCES TO DEPENDENTS

941. Settlement of accounts of deceased officers and men.—In the settlement of the accounts of deceased officers or enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps, where the amount due the decedent's estate is less than $500 and no demand is presented by a duly appointed legal representative of the estate, the accounting officers may allow the amount found due to the decedent's widow or legal heirs in the following order of precedence: First, to the widow; second, if the decedent left no widow, or widow be dead at time of settlement, then to the children or their issue, per stirpes; third, if no widow or descendants, then to the father and mother in equal parts, provided father has not abandoned the support of his family, in which case to the mother alone; fourth, if either the father or mother be dead, then to the one surviving; fifth, if there be no widow, child, father, or mother at the date of settlement, then to the brothers and sisters and children of deceased brothers and sisters, per stirpes: Provided, That this section shall not be so construed as to prevent payment from the amount due the decedent's estate of funeral expenses, provided a claim therefor is presented by the person or persons who actually paid the same before settlement by the accounting officers. (May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 373.)

942. Disposition of effects of decedents.—All moneys, articles of value, papers, keepsakes, and other similar effects belonging to deceased persons in the naval service, not claimed by their legal heirs or next of kin, shall be deposited in safe custody, and if any such moneys, articles of value, papers, keepsakes, or other similar effects so deposited have been, or shall hereafter be, unclaimed for a period of two years from the date of the death of such person, such articles and effects shall be sold and the proceeds thereof, together with the moneys above mentioned, shall be deposited in the Treasury to the credit of the Navy pension fund: Provided, That the Secretary of the Navy is authorized and directed to make diligent inquiry in every instance after the death of such person to ascertain the whereabouts of his heirs or next of kin, and to prescribe such regulations as may be necessary to carry out the foregoing provisions: Provided further, That claims may be presented hereunder at any time within five years after such moneys or proceeds have been so deposited in the Treasury, and, when supported by competent proof in any case after such deposit in the Treasury, shall be certified to Congress for consideration. (Mar. 29, 1918, c. 31, 40 Stat. 231.)

943. Allowance on death of officer or enlisted man or nurse, to widow, child, or dependent relative.—Immediately upon official notification of the death from wounds or disease, not the result of his or her own misconduct, of any officer, enlisted man, or nurse on the active list of the regular Navy or regular Marine Corps, or on the retired list when on active duty, the Paymaster General of the Navy shall cause to be paid to the widow, and if there be no widow to the child or children, and if there be no widow or child, to any other dependent relative of such officer, enlisted man, or nurse previously designated by him or her, an amount equal to six months' pay at the rate received by such officer, enlisted man, or nurse at the date of his or her death. The Secretary of the Navy shall establish regulations requiring each officer and enlisted man or nurse having no wife or child to designate the proper dependent relative to whom this amount shall be paid in case of his or her death. Said amount shall be paid from funds appropriated for the pay of the Navy and pay of the Marine Corps, respectively: Provided, That nothing in this section or in other existing legislation shall be construed as making the provisions of this section applicable to officers, enlisted men, or nurses of any forces of the Navy of the United States other than those of the regular Navy and Marine Corps, and nothing in this section shall be construed to apply in commissioned grades to any officers except those holding permanent or probationary appointments in the regular Navy or Marine Corps: Provided, That the provisions of this section shall apply to the officers and enlisted men of the Coast Guard, and the Secretary of the Treasury will cause payment to be made accordingly. (June 4, 1920, c. 228, § 1, 41 Stat. 824.)

PAY AND EMOLUMENTS OF CREWS OF VESSELS WRECKED, LOST, OR TAKEN BY ENEMY

951. Pay and emoluments of crews of wrecked or lost vessels.—When the crew of any vessel of the United States are separated from such vessel, by means of her wreck, loss, or destruction, the pay and emoluments of such of the officers and men as shall appear to the Secretary of the Navy, by the sentence of a court-martial or court of inquiry, or by other satisfactory evidence, to have done their utmost to preserve her, and, after said wreck, loss, or destruction, to have behaved themselves agreeably to the discipline of the Navy, shall go on and be paid them until their discharge or death. (R. S. § 1574.)

952. Pay and emoluments of crews of vessels taken by enemy.—The pay and emoluments of the officers and men of any vessel of the United States taken by an enemy who shall appear, by the sentence of a court-martial or otherwise, to have done their utmost to preserve and defend their vessel, and, after the taking thereof, to have behaved themselves agreeably to the discipline of the Navy, shall go on and be paid to them until their exchange, discharge, or death. (R. S. § 1575.)

953. Fixing date of loss of missing vessel.—The General Accounting Office is authorized, under the direction of the Secretary of the Navy, in settling the accounts of seamen, and others, not officers, borne on the books of any vessel in the Navy which shall have been wrecked, or which shall have been unheard from so long that her wreck may be presumed, or which shall have been destroyed or lost with the rolls and papers necessary to a regular and exact settlement of such accounts, to fix a day when such wreck, destruction, or loss shall be deemed to have occurred. (R. S. § 286; June 10, 1921, §§ 301, 310, c. 18, 42 Stat. 23, 25.)

954. Accounts of petty officers on lost vessel.—The General Accounting Office is authorized, in settling the accounts of the petty officers, seamen, and others, not officers, on board of any vessel in the employ of the United States, which by any casualty, or in action with the enemy, has been or may be sunk or otherwise destroyed, together with the rolls and papers necessary to the exact ascertainment of the several accounts of the same at the date of such loss, to assume the last quarterly return of the paymaster of any such vessel as the basis for the computation of the subsequent credits to those on board, to the date of such loss, if there be no official evidence to the contrary. Where such quarterly return has, from any cause, not been made, the accounting officers are authorized to adjust and settle such accounts on principles of equity and justice. (R. S. § 287; June 10, 1921, §§ 301, 310, c. 18, 42 Stat. 23, 25.)

ALLOWANCES TO PRISONERS

961. General provisions.—Persons confined in prisons in pursuance of the sentence of a naval court-martial shall, during such confinement, be allowed a reasonable sum, not to exceed $3 per month, for necessary prison expenses, and shall upon discharge be furnished with suitable civilian clothing and paid a gratuity, not to exceed $25: Provided, That such allowances shall be made in amounts to be fixed by, and in the discretion of, the Secretary of the Navy and only in cases where the prisoners so discharged would otherwise be unprovided with suitable clothing or without funds to meet their immediate needs. (Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 13, 35 Stat. 622.)

962. Transportation and clothing for discharged prisoners.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to transport to their homes or places of enlistment, as he may designate, all discharged naval prisoners; the expense of such transportation shall be paid out of any money that may be to the credit of prisoners when discharged; where there is no such money, the expense shall be paid out of money received from fines and forfeitures imposed by naval courts-martial: Provided further, That the Secretary of the Navy is hereby authorized to furnish naval prisoners upon discharge suitable civilian clothing in case, and only where, said discharged prisoners would otherwise be unprovided with suitable clothing to meet their immediate needs. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 756.)

PAY AND ALLOWANCES OF MARINE CORPS

971. Same as in Army.—Except as otherwise provided by law the officers of the Marine Corps shall be entitled to receive the same pay and allowances, and the enlisted men shall be entitled to receive the same pay and bounty for reenlisting, as are or may be provided by or in pursuance of law for the officers and enlisted men of like grades in the Infantry of the Army. (R. S. § 1612.)

972. Additional pay of members of Marine Band.—The marines who compose the corps of musicians known as the "Marine Band" shall be entitled to receive at the rate of $4 a month, each, in addition to their pay as noncommissioned officers, musicians, or privates of the Marine Corps, so long as they shall perform, by order of the Secretary of the Navy, or other superior officer, on the Capitol grounds or the President's grounds. (R. S. § 1613.)

973. Additional pay of privates detailed as cooks.—Privates of the Marine Corps regularly detailed and serving as cooks, shall receive, in addition to the pay otherwise allowed by law, the following: First-class cooks, $10 per month; second-class cooks, $8; third-class cooks, $7; and fourth-class cooks, $5. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2512, 34 Stat. 1200.)

974. No forfeiture of pay and allowances on furlough.—No part of the pay and allowances authorized for enlisted men detailed as clerks and messengers in the office of the Major General Commandant and the several staff offices shall be forfeited when granted furlough for not exceeding thirty days in each calendar year. (Mar. 4, 1917, c. 180, 39 Stat. 1191.)

975. Deposits of savings by enlisted men.—Enlisted men of the Marine Corps shall be entitled to deposit their savings with the United States, through any paymaster, in the same manner and under the same conditions as is now or may hereafter be provided for the enlisted men of the Navy: Provided, however, That the sums so deposited shall pass to the credit of the appropriation for pay of the Marine Corps. (June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 579.)

976. Rations or commutations to enlisted men on shore.—Except when detached by the President of the United States for duty with the Army, enlisted men of the Marine Corps shall be entitled to the same allowance for rations as are enlisted men of the Navy, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy. (July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 154.)

REIMBURSEMENT OF OFFICERS AND MEN OF NAVY AND MARINE CORPS FOR PERSONAL PROPERTY LOST, DESTROYED, OR DAMAGED BY OPERATIONS OF WAR, ETC.

981. Nature and extent of liability of Government; claims.—The Paymaster General of the Navy is authorized and directed to reimburse such officers, enlisted men, and others in the naval service of the United States as may have suffered, or may hereafter suffer, loss or destruction of or damage to their personal property and effects in the naval service due to the operations of war or by shipwreck or other marine disaster when such loss, destruction, or damage was without fault or negligence on the part of the claimant, or where the private property so lost, destroyed, or damaged was shipped on board an unseaworthy vessel by order of an officer authorized to give such order or direct such shipment, or where it appears that the loss, destruction, or damage of or to the private property of the claimant was in consequence of his having given his attention to the saving of the lives of others or of property belonging to the United States which was in danger at the same time and under similar circumstances. And the liability of the Government under this section shall be limited to such articles of personal property as the Chief of the Bureau of Navigation of the Navy Department, with reference to the personnel of the Navy, or the Major General Commandant of the Marine Corps, with reference to the personnel of that corps, in his discretion, shall decide to be reasonable, useful, and proper for such officer, enlisted man, or other person while engaged in the public service in line of duty, and the certificate of said chief of bureau or Major General Commandant, as the case may be, shall be sufficient voucher for and shall be final as to all matters necessary to the establishment and payment or settlement of any claim filed hereunder; and the action of the said chief of bureau or Major General Commandant, as the case may be, upon all claims arising under this section shall be final, and no right to prosecute a claim or action in the Court of Claims or in any other court of the United States, or before any accounting officer of the United States, or elsewhere, except as herein provided, shall accrue to any person by virtue of this section: Provided, That the liability of the Government under this section shall be limited to such articles of personal property as are required by the United States Naval Regulations and in force at the time of loss or destruction for such officers, petty officers, seamen, or others engaged in the public service in the line of duty: Provided further, That with reference to claims of persons in the Marine Corps filed under the terms of this section the paymaster of the Marine Corps shall make the reimbursement in money, and the quartermaster of the Marine Corps shall make the reimbursement in kind herein provided for: Provided further, That all claims hereafter arising under this section shall be presented within two years from the occurrence of the loss, destruction, or damage: And provided further, That the term "in the naval service," as herein employed, shall be held to include service performed on board any vessel, whether of the Navy or not, provided the claimant is serving on such vessel pursuant to the orders of duly constituted naval authority: And provided further, That all claimants under this section shall be required to submit their claims in writing and under oath to the said Chief of the Bureau of Navigation or Major General Commandant, as the case may be: And provided further, That claims arising in the manner indicated in this section and which have been settled under the terms of previously existing law shall be regarded as finally determined and no other or further right of recovery under the provisions hereof shall accrue to persons who have submitted such claims as aforesaid. (Oct. 6, 1917, c. 85, 40 Stat. 389.)

982. Reimbursement in kind or in money; from what appropriations made.—Reimbursement for loss, destruction, or damage sustained and determined as provided in the preceding section shall be made in kind for such articles as are customarily issued to the service and shall be made in money for other articles at the valuation thereof at the time of their loss, destruction, or damage: Provided, That in cases involving persons in the Navy reimbursement in money shall be made from the appropriation "Pay of the Navy," and reimbursement in kind shall be made from the appropriation "Outfits on first enlistment," and in cases involving persons in the Marine Corps reimbursement in money shall be made from the appropriation "Pay, Marine Corps," and reimbursement in kind shall be made from the appropriation "Clothing, Marine Corps," respectively, current at the time the claim covering such loss, damage, or destruction is paid. (Oct. 6, 1917, c. 85, 40 Stat. 389.)

RETIRED PAY

991. General provisions.—Except as otherwise provided by law, the pay of all officers of the Navy who have been retired on account of age or length of service, or on account of incapacity resulting from long and faithful service, from wounds or injuries received in the line of duty, or from sickness or exposure therein, shall, when not on active duty, be equal to 75 per centum of the pay provided by law for the grade or rank which they held, respectively, at the time of their retirement; and the pay of all other officers on the retired list shall, when not on active duty, be equal to one-half the pay provided by law for the grade or rank held by them, respectively, at the time of their retirement. (R. S. § 1588; May 30, 1908, c. 227, 35 Stat. 501; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 579.)

992. Pay of captains, commanders, and lieutenant commanders ineligible for promotion on account of age.—Captains, commanders, and lieutenant commanders who become ineligible for promotion on account of age shall be retired on a percentage of pay equal to 2½ per centum of their shore-duty pay for each year of service: Provided further, That the total retired pay shall not exceed 75 per centum of the shore-duty pay they were entitled to receive while on the active list. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 579.)

993. Pay not increased by promotion.—Except as otherwise provided by law, no officer, heretofore or hereafter promoted upon the retired list, shall, in consequence of such promotion, be entitled to any increase of pay. (R. S. § 1591.)

994. Active-duty pay, generally.—(a) Officers on the retired list, when on active duty, shall receive the full pay of their respective grades. (R. S. § 1592.)

(b) Any naval officer on the retired list, employed on active duty in time of peace shall receive the pay and allowances of an officer of the active list of the same rank: Provided, That no such retired officer so employed on active duty shall receive, in time of peace, any greater pay and allowances than the pay and allowances which are now or may hereafter be provided by law for a lieutenant (senior grade) on the active list of like length of service: And provided further, That any such officer whose retired pay exceeds the highest pay and allowances of the grade of lieutenant (senior grade), shall, while so employed in time of peace, receive his retired pay only, in lieu of all other pay and allowances. (Aug. 22, 1912, c. 335, 37 Stat. 329.)

(c) Any retired officer of the naval service who shall be detailed on active duty shall, while so serving, receive the active duty pay and allowances of the grade, not above that of lieutenant commander in the Navy or of major in the Marine Corps, that he would have attained in due course of promotion if he had remained on the active list for a period beyond the date of his retirement equal to the total amount of time during which he has been detailed on active duty since his retirement: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed to reduce the pay of any retired officer on active duty whose retired pay exceeds the active duty pay and allowances for the grade of lieutenant commander. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 581.)

995. Active-duty pay of retired chief warrant officers.—Any retired chief warrant officer who has been on active duty since August 29, 1916, or who may hereafter perform active duty, and whose record is creditable, shall, during such time as he has been or may hereafter be, on active duty, and from the time his service on the active list after date of commission, plus his service on active duty while on the retired list, is equal to six years, receive the pay and allowances that are now, or may hereafter be, allowed a lieutenant (junior grade), United States Navy; and shall, during such time as he has been, or may hereafter be, on active duty, and from the time such total service is equal to twelve years, receive the pay and allowances that are now, or may hereafter be, allowed a lieutenant, United States Navy. (Apr. 10, 1918, c. 49, § 1, 40 Stat. 516.)

996. Active-duty pay of retired warrant officers.—Any retired warrant officer who has been on active duty since August 29, 1916, or who may hereafter perform active duty, and whose record is creditable, shall, during such time as he has been or may hereafter be on active duty, and from the time his service on the active list after date of warrant, plus his service on active duty while on the retired list, is equal to twelve years, receive the pay and allowances that are now or may hereafter be allowed a lieutenant (junior grade), United States Navy; and shall, during such time as he has been or may hereafter be on active duty, and from the time such total service is equal to eighteen years, receive the pay and allowances that are now or may hereafter be allowed a lieutenant, United States Navy. (Apr. 10, 1918, c. 49, § 2, 40 Stat. 516.)

997. Credit for service in World War.—All retired commissioned and warrant officers of the United States Navy and Marine Corps who served on active duty in the Navy and Marine Corps of the United States during the World War shall be credited with all active duty performed since retirement during the period from April 6, 1917, to March 3, 1921, in the computation of their longevity pay. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 3, 43 Stat. 1271.)

998. Officers retired on furlough pay.—Officers placed on the retired list, on furlough pay, shall receive only one-half of the pay to which they would have been entitled if on leave of absence on the active list. (R. S. § 1593.)

999. Pay of retired enlisted men of Navy or Marine Corps with service as commissioned officers.—Retired enlisted men of the regular Navy and Marine Corps heretofore or hereafter retired who served honorably as commissioned officers, regular, temporary, or reserve, in the naval service at some time between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, and who at the time of their retirement were members of the regular Navy or Marine Corps, shall be entitled to receive the pay of retired warrant officers of the Navy and Marine Corps, respectively: Provided, That such enlisted man retired prior to July 1, 1922, shall be entitled to receive the pay provided by law for retired warrant officers of equal length of service retired prior to that date, and that any such enlisted man retired subsequent to June 30, 1922, shall be entitled to receive the pay provided by law for retired warrant officers of equal length of service retired subsequent to that date: Provided further, That nothing in this section shall operate to prevent any person from receiving the pay and allowances of his grade, rank, or rating on the retired list when such pay and allowances exceed the pay to which he would be entitled under this section by virtue of his commissioned service. (June 6, 1924, c. 275, § 8, 43 Stat. 472.)

Chapter 17.—DESERTIONS FROM NAVY OR MARINE CORPS.

Sec.

1011. Arrest of deserter by civil officers.
1012. Civil War cases; removal from record of charge of desertion.
1013. Return to duty or death after desertion.
1014. Reenlistment without discharge from previous enlistment.
1015. Certificate of discharge.
1016. Effect of removal of charge on right to pay and bounty.
1017. Removal from record of charge of desertion; World War.

Section 1011. Arrest of deserter by civil officers.—It shall be lawful for any civil officer having authority under the laws of the United States or of any State, Territory, or District to arrest offenders, to summarily arrest a deserter from the Navy or Marine Corps of the United States and deliver him into the custody of the naval authorities. (Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 15, 35 Stat. 622.)

1012. Civil War cases; removal from record of charge of desertion.—The charge of desertion now standing on the rolls and records of the Navy or Marine Corps against any appointed or enlisted man of the Navy or Marine Corps who served in the Civil War may in the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy be removed in all cases where it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Navy from such rolls and records or from other satisfactory evidence, that any such appointed or enlisted man served faithfully until the expiration of his term of enlistment, or until the 1st day of May anno Domini 1865, having previously served six months or more, or was prevented from completing his term of service by reason of wounds received or disease contracted in the line of duty, but who, by reason of absence from his command at the time he became entitled to his discharge, failed to be mustered out and to receive a discharge from the service: Provided, That no such appointed or enlisted man shall be relieved under this section who, not being sick or wounded, left his command, without proper authority, while the same was in presence of the enemy. (Aug. 14, 1888, c. 890, § 1, 25 Stat. 442; May 24, 1900, c. 550, § 1, 31 Stat. 183.)

1013. Return to duty or death after desertion.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to remove the charge of desertion standing on the rolls or records of the Navy or Marine Corps against any appointed or enlisted man of the Navy or Marine Corps who served in the Civil War, in all cases where it shall be made to appear, to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Navy, from such rolls or from other satisfactory evidence, that such appointed or enlisted man charged with desertion or with absence without leave, after such charge of desertion or absence without leave, and within a reasonable time thereafter, voluntarily returned to and served in the line of his duty until he was mustered out of the service, and received a certificate of discharge therefrom, or, while so absent, and before the expiration of his term of enlistment, died from wounds, injury, or disease received or contracted in the service and in the line of duty. (Aug. 14, 1888, c. 890, § 2, 25 Stat. 442; May 24, 1900, c. 550, § 1, 31 Stat. 183.)

1014. Reenlistment without discharge from previous enlistment.—The charge of desertion now standing on the rolls or records of the Navy or Marine Corps against any appointed or enlisted man of the Navy or Marine Corps who served in the Civil War, by reason of his having enlisted at any station or on board of any vessel of the Navy without having first received a discharge from the station or vessel in which he had previously served, shall be removed in all cases wherein it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Navy from such rolls and records, or from other satisfactory testimony, that such reenlistment was not made for the purpose of securing bounty or other gratuity that he would not have been entitled to, had he remained under his original term of enlistment: Provided, That no appointed or enlisted man shall be relieved under sections 1011 to 1016, inclusive, who, not being sick or wounded, left his command without proper authority while the same was in presence of the enemy, or who, at the time of leaving his command, was in arrest or under charges, or in whose case the period of absence from the service exceeded three months. (Aug. 14, 1888, c. 890, § 3, 25 Stat. 442; May 24, 1900, c. 550, § 1, 31 Stat. 183.)

1015. Certificate of discharge.—In all cases where the charge of desertion shall be removed under the provisions of the preceding sections from the record of any appointed or enlisted man of the Navy or Marine Corps who has not received a certificate of discharge it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Navy to issue to such appointed or enlisted man, or in case of his death, to his heirs or legal representatives, a certificate of discharge. (Aug. 14, 1888, c. 890, § 4, 25 Stat. 443; May 24, 1900, c. 550, § 1, 31 Stat. 183.)

1016. Effect of removal of charge on right to pay and bounty.—When the charge of desertion shall be removed under the provisions of the preceding sections from the record of any appointed or enlisted man of the Navy or Marine Corps, such man, or, in case of his death, the heirs or legal representatives of such man, shall receive all pay and bounty which may have been withheld on account of such charge of desertion or absence without leave: Provided, however, That sections 1011 to 1016, inclusive, shall not be so construed as to give to any such man as may be entitled to relief under the provisions thereof, or, in case of his death, to the heirs or legal representatives of any such man, the right to receive pay and bounty for any period of time during which such man was absent from his command without leave of absence: And provided further, That no appointed or enlisted man, nor the heirs or legal representatives of any such man, who served in the Navy or Marine Corps a period of less than six months shall be entitled to the benefit of the provisions of the aforesaid sections. (Aug. 14, 1888, c. 890, § 5, 25 Stat. 443; May 24, 1900, c. 550, §§ 1, 2, 31 Stat. 183.)

1017. Removal from record of charge of desertion; World War.—In all cases where it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the President that a commissioned or warrant officer or an enlisted man with the charge of desertion now standing against him on the rolls and records of the Navy or Marine Corps has since such charge was entered served honorably in the World War, either in the military or naval forces of the Allies or in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps or in other branches of the military service of the United States prior to November 11, 1918, the President is authorized, in his discretion, to cause an entry to be made on said rolls and records of the Navy or Marine Corps, relieving said officer or enlisted man of all the disabilities which he had heretofore or would hereafter suffer by virtue of said charge of desertion thus appearing against him; and upon such action being taken by the President, such officer or enlisted man shall be regarded as having been honorably discharged on the date the charge of desertion was entered against him: Provided, That nothing contained in this section shall operate to entitle any officer or enlisted man to back pay or allowances of any kind or to a pension for any service rendered prior to the World War. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 2, 43 Stat. 1270.)

LOCATION

Section 1021. Where established.—The Naval Academy shall be at Annapolis, in the State of Maryland. (R. S. § 1511.)

NUMBER OF MIDSHIPMEN

1031. Students styled midshipmen.—The students at the Naval Academy shall be styled midshipmen. (R. S. § 1512; Aug. 5, 1882, c. 391, 22 Stat. 285; July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 686.)

1032. Number of midshipmen exclusive of Naval and Marine Reserve.—There shall be allowed at the United States Naval Academy five midshipmen for each Senator, Representative, Delegate in Congress, and Resident Commissioner from Porto Rico, and five for the District of Columbia, fifteen appointed each year at large, and one hundred appointed annually from enlisted men of the Navy. (Dec. 20, 1917, c. 5, § 1, 40 Stat. 430; July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 140; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 3, 43 Stat. 1081.)

1033. Number of midshipmen from Naval Reserve and Marine Corps Reserve.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to appoint midshipmen to the Naval Academy from the enlisted men of the Naval Reserve and Marine Corps Reserve under similar conditions as prescribed by law for appointments from enlisted men of the Navy: Provided, That not more than twenty-five midshipmen shall be appointed in any one year under the authority contained in this section. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 8, 43 Stat. 1082.)

1034. Additional midshipman from Porto Rico.—There shall be at the Naval Academy one midshipman from Porto Rico, who shall be a native of said island, and whose appointment shall be made by the President on the recommendation of the Governor of Porto Rico. (Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1010, 32 Stat. 1198.)

1035. Additional midshipmen from Philippine Islands.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to permit not exceeding four Filipinos, to be designated, one for each class, by the Governor General of the Philippine Islands, to receive instruction at the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland: Provided, That the Filipinos undergoing instruction, as herein authorized, shall receive the same pay, allowances, and emoluments, to be paid out of the same appropriations, and shall be subject to the same rules and regulations governing admission, attendance, discipline, resignation, discharge, dismissal, and graduation as are authorized by law and regulation for midshipmen appointed from the United States, but the Filipino midshipmen herein authorized shall not be entitled to appointment to any commissioned office in the United States Navy by reason of their graduation from the Naval Academy. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 576.)

1036. Admission of foreigners.—No person shall be admitted for instruction at the Naval Academy at Annapolis from any foreign country except upon authority of law hereafter enacted. (June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 577.)

APPOINTMENT OF MIDSHIPMEN

1041. Nomination of candidates; authority of Secretary and President.—The Secretary of the Navy shall, as soon as possible after the 1st day of June of each year preceding the graduation of midshipmen in the succeeding year, notify in writing each Senator, Representative, and Delegate in Congress of any vacancy that will exist at the Naval Academy because of such graduation, or that may occur for other reasons and which he shall be entitled to fill by nomination of a candidate and one or more alternates therefor. The nomination of a candidate and alternate or alternates to fill said vacancy shall be made upon the recommendation of the Senator, Representative, or Delegate, if such recommendation is made by the 4th day of March of the year following that in which said notice in writing is given, but if it is not made by that time the Secretary of the Navy shall fill the vacancy by appointment of an actual resident of the State, congressional district, or Territory, as the case may be, in which the vacancy will exist, who shall have been for at least two years immediately preceding the date of his appointment an actual and bona fide resident of the State, congressional district, or Territory in which the vacancy will exist and of the legal qualification under the law as now provided. In cases where by reason of a vacancy in the membership of the Senate or House of Representatives, or by the death or declination of a candidate for admission to the academy there occurs or is about to occur at the academy a vacancy from any State, district, or Territory that can not be filled by nomination as herein provided, the same may be filled as soon thereafter and before the final entrance examination for the year as the Secretary of the Navy may determine. The candidates allowed for the District of Columbia and all the candidates appointed at large, together with alternates therefor, shall be selected by the President within the period herein prescribed for nomination of other candidates. (June 29, 1906, c. 3590, 34 Stat. 578.)

1042. Appointments from enlisted men.—The appointments allowed from enlisted men of the Navy shall be made by the Secretary of the Navy from enlisted men of the Navy who are citizens of the United States and who shall have served not less than one year as enlisted men on the date of entrance. Such appointments shall be made in the order of merit from candidates who have, in competition with each other, passed the mental examination now or hereafter required by law for entrance to the Naval Academy, and who passed the physical examination before entrance under existing laws. (Mar. 4, 1917, c. 180, 39 Stat. 1182; May 14, 1918, c. 73, 40 Stat. 550; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 8, 43 Stat. 1082.)

1043. Examination of candidates.—All candidates for admission into the academy shall be examined according to such regulations and at such stated times as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe. Candidates rejected at such examination shall not have the privilege of another examination for admission to the same class, unless recommended by the board of examiners. (R. S. § 1515.)

1044. Second recommendation.—When any candidate who has been nominated upon the recommendation of a Member or Delegate of the House of Representatives is found, upon examination, to be physically or mentally disqualified for admission, the Member or Delegate shall be notified to recommend another candidate, who shall be examined according to the provisions of the preceding section. (R. S. § 1516.)

1045. Qualifications.—Candidates allowed for congressional districts, for Territories, and for the District of Columbia must be actual residents of the districts or Territories, respectively, from which they are nominated. And all candidates for admission to the Naval Academy must be not less than sixteen years of age nor more than twenty years of age on April 1 of the calendar year in which they enter the academy, and must be physically sound, well formed, and of robust constitution. (R. S. § 1517; Mar. 2, 1889, c. 396, § 2, 25 Stat. 879; Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1010, 32 Stat. 1198; May 14, 1918, c. 73, 40 Stat. 550.)

1046. Appropriations; how applied.—No money appropriated for the support of the Naval Academy shall be applied to the support of any midshipman appointed otherwise than in strict conformance with the provisions of this chapter. (R. S. § 1518.)

PAY AND ALLOWANCES; STUDIES; GRADUATION

1051. Pay of midshipmen.—The pay of midshipmen shall be $780 per annum. (July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 146.)

1052. Initial money credit.—Each new midshipman shall, upon admission to the Naval Academy, be credited with the sum of $250 to cover the cost of his initial clothing and equipment issue, to be deducted subsequently from his pay. (July 12, 1921, c. 44, § 1, 42 Stat. 131.)

1053. Midshipmen found deficient.—Midshipmen found deficient at any examination shall not be continued at the academy or in the service unless upon the recommendation of the academic board. (R. S. § 1519; Aug. 5, 1882, c. 391, 22 Stat. 285; July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 686; Oct. 22, 1921, c. 113, § 1, 42 Stat. 207.)

1054. Length of course.—The course at the Naval Academy shall be four years. (R. S. § 1520; Mar. 7, 1912, c. 53, 37 Stat. 73.)

1056. Studies on Sunday.—The Secretary of the Navy shall arrange the course of studies and the order of recitations at the Naval Academy so that the students in said institution shall not be required to pursue their studies on Sunday. (R. S. § 1526.)

1057. Commission on graduation.—Midshipmen on graduation shall be commissioned ensigns in the Navy, or may be assigned by the Secretary of the Navy to fill vacancies in the lowest commissioned grades of the Marine Corps or Staff Corps of the Navy. They may be commissioned effective from date of graduation. They shall take rank according to their proficiency as shown by the order of their merit at date of graduation: Provided, That if there be a surplus of graduates, those who do not receive such appointments shall be given a certificate of graduation, an honorable discharge, and one year's sea pay. (R. S. § 1521; Aug. 5, 1882, c. 391, § 1, 22 Stat. 285; July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 686; Mar. 7, 1912, c. 53, 37 Stat. 73; July 9, 1913, c. 5, 38 Stat. 103; July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 716.)

GOVERNMENT

1061. General courts-martial.—The Secretary of the Navy shall have power to convene general courts-martial for the trial of midshipmen, subject to the same limitations and conditions now existing as to other general courts-martial, and to approve the proceedings and execute the sentences of such courts, except the sentences of suspension and dismissal, which, after having been approved by the superintendent, shall not be carried into effect until confirmed by the President. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 186, 28 Stat. 838; July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 686.)

1063. Rules to prevent hazing.—The Superintendent of the Naval Academy shall make such rules, to be approved by the Secretary of the Navy, as will effectually prevent the practice of hazing. (Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1010, 32 Stat. 1198.)

1064. Hazing defined.—The offense of "hazing" shall consist of any unauthorized assumption of authority by one midshipman over another midshipman whereby the last-mentioned midshipman shall or may suffer or be exposed to suffer any cruelty, indignity, humiliation, hardship, or oppression, or the deprivation or abridgment of any right, privilege, or advantage to which he shall be legally entitled. (Apr. 9, 1906, c. 1370, § 4, 34 Stat. 105.)

1065. Hazing punishable as offense against discipline.—The offense known as "hazing" may be proceeded against, dealt with, and punished as offenses against good order and discipline and for violation and breaches of the rules of the Naval Academy. But no midshipman shall be dismissed for a single act of hazing except under the provisions of the following section. (Apr. 9, 1906, c. 1370, § 2, 34 Stat. 104.)

1066. Trial by Naval Academy court-martial; punishment.—The Superintendent of the United States Naval Academy may, in his discretion and with the approval of the Secretary of the Navy, cause any midshipman in the said academy to be tried by court-martial for the offense of hazing. Such court-martial shall be ordered by the said superintendent and shall be composed of not less than three commissioned officers, who shall minutely examine into all the facts and circumstances of the case and make a finding thereon, and such court-martial, upon conviction, may sentence such midshipman to be dismissed or summarily expelled from the academy, or to any punishment authorized for any violation or breach of the rules of the said academy by the said rules, or, in cases of brutal or cruel hazing may, in addition to dismissal, sentence such midshipman to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year: Provided, That such midshipman shall not be confined in a military or naval prison or elsewhere with men who have been convicted of crimes or misdemeanors; and such finding and sentence shall be subject to review by the convening authority and by the Secretary of the Navy, as in the cases of other courts-martial. (June 23, 1874, c. 453, 18 Stat. 203; Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1010, 32 Stat. 1198; Apr. 9, 1906, c. 1370, § 3, 34 Stat. 104.)

1067. Effect of dismissal.—Any midshipman found guilty of participating in or encouraging or countenancing the practice of hazing, and dismissed or summarily expelled from the academy in punishment thereof, shall not thereafter be reappointed to the corps of midshipmen or be eligible for appointment as a commissioned officer in the Army or Navy or Marine Corps until two years after the graduation of the class of which he was a member. (June 23, 1874, c. 453, 18 Stat. 203; July 1, 1902, c. 1368, 32 Stat. 686; Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1010, 32 Stat. 1198.)

1068. Duty of officers and civilian instructors to report offenses.—It shall be the duty of every professor, assistant professor, academic officer, or any cadet officer or cadet petty officer, or instructor, as well as every other officer stationed at the United States Naval Academy, to promptly report to the superintendent thereof any fact which comes to his attention tending to indicate any violation by a midshipman or midshipmen of any of the provisions of this chapter relating to hazing, or any violation of the regulations of the said academy. Any naval officer attached to the academy who shall fail to make such report as provided in this section shall be tried by court-martial for neglect of duty and if convicted he shall be dismissed from the service. Any civilian instructor attached to the academy who shall fail to make such report as provided in this section shall be dismissed by the superintendent of the academy upon the approval of the Secretary of the Navy. (Apr. 9, 1906, c. 1370, § 5, 34 Stat. 105.)

PROFESSORS AND INSTRUCTORS

1071. Number and compensation.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to employ at the Naval Academy such number of professors and instructors, including one professor as librarian, as, in his opinion, may be necessary for the proper instruction of the midshipmen; and professors and instructors so employed shall receive such compensation for their services as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy. The Secretary of the Navy shall report to Congress each year the number of professors and instructors so employed and the amount of compensation prescribed for each. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 607; May 18, 1920, c. 190, § 7, 41 Stat. 603; Feb. 11, 1925, c. 209, 43 Stat. 878.)

1072. Professors of ethics, Spanish, and drawing.—Subject to the provisions of section 101 of this title, three professors of mathematics shall be assigned to duty at the Naval Academy, one as professor of ethics and English studies, one as professor of the Spanish language, and one as professor of drawing. (R. S. § 1528.)

BOARD OF VISITORS

1081. Composition, appointment, and compensation.—There shall be appointed every year, in the following manner, a Board of Visitors, to visit the academy, the date of the annual visit of the board aforesaid to be fixed by the Secretary of the Navy: Seven persons shall be appointed by the President and four Senators and five Members of the House of Representatives shall be designated as visitors by the Vice President or President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, respectively, in the month of January of each year. The chairman of the Committee on Naval Affairs of the Senate and chairman of the Committee on Naval Affairs of the House of Representatives shall be ex officio members of said board.

Each member of said board shall receive while engaged upon duties as a member of the board not to exceed $5 a day and actual expenses of travel by the shortest mail routes. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 608.)

1082. Use of appropriation for expenses.—No part of any appropriation by Congress for expenses of the Board of Visitors, shall be used to pay for intoxicating liquors. (Aug. 4, 1886, c. 903, § 1, 24 Stat. 268.)

BAND

1091. Composition and pay.—The Naval Academy Band shall consist of one leader, with pay and allowances of first lieutenant in the Marine Corps; one second leader; forty-five musicians, first class; twenty-seven musicians, second class; one drum major; and the said leader of the band, second leader of the band, drum major of the band, and the enlisted musicians of the band shall be entitled to the same benefits in respect to pay, emoluments, and retirement arising from longevity, reenlistment, and length of service as are or may hereafter become applicable to other officers or enlisted men of the Navy. (July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 152.)

The pay and allowances of the members of the Naval Academy Band shall be those provided for enlisted men of the Navy by section 14 of Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES, except that the second leader shall receive the pay and allowances provided in said section for warrant officers of the Navy of corresponding length of service: Provided, That nothing in this section shall operate to reduce the pay that any member of the Naval Academy Band was in receipt of on June 30, 1922, nor to deprive him of credit for any service with which he was then entitled to be credited. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 18, 43 Stat. 1275.)

STORES AND SUPPLIES

1101. Storekeeper; authority.—The storekeeper at the Naval Academy shall be detailed from the Supply Corps, and shall have authority, with the approval of the Secretary of the Navy, to procure clothing and other necessaries for the midshipmen in the same manner as supplies are furnished to the Navy, to be issued under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy. (R. S. § 1527; Aug. 5, 1882, c. 391, 22 Stat. 285; July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 147.)

1102. Duty to render returns of property.—The storekeeper at the Naval Academy, authorized by the preceding section, shall render quarterly returns of property to the Chief of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe. A full report shall be made annually of receipts and expenditures by the Chief of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts to the Secretary of the Navy. (May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 153.)

1103. Inspection of storekeeper's accounts.—An inspection of the storekeeper's accounts shall be made quarterly by the general inspector of the Supply Corps, with such recommendation as he may deem necessary, to the Chief of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts. (May 13, 1908, c. 166, 35 Stat. 153; July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 147.)

1104. Dairy farm.—The dairy farm shall be continued and operated as an activity of the midshipmen's store. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 536, § 26, 43 Stat. 1278.)

1105. Additional payments to servants in commissary department.—Such additional payments from the midshipmen's commissary fund as the Superintendent of the Naval Academy may deem necessary may be made to the servants authorized in the commissary department. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 148, 37 Stat. 907.)

MEMORIALS IN CHAPEL

1111. Restriction on use of crypt and window spaces.—The crypt and window spaces of the United States Naval Academy chapel are to be used only for memorials to United States naval officers who have successfully commanded a fleet or squadron in battle, or who have received or may receive the thanks of the Congress of the United States for conspicuously distinguished services in time of war, and no memorial shall be accepted for or installed in said crypt or window spaces until at least five years after the death of the officer in question: Provided, That nothing in this provision shall be considered as invalidating any agreement made by any Superintendent of the Naval Academy prior to March 3, 1909, authorizing a memorial window in the old Naval Academy chapel to be transferred to the new Naval Academy chapel. (Mar. 3, 1909, c. 255, 35 Stat. 773.)

Chapter 19.—NAUTICAL INSTRUCTION IN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

Sec.
1121. Vessels for nautical schools at certain points.
1122. Appropriations for nautical schools.
1123. Detail of Navy officers as superintendents or instructors; restoration of vessel and recall of officers.
1124. Nautical schools, Philippine Islands.
1125. Detail of enlisted men as ship keepers.
1126. Detail of engineer officers to educational institutions.
1127. Detail of retired officers as teachers or professors in schools or colleges.
1128. Loan of naval equipment to military schools.

Section 1121. Vessels for nautical schools at certain points.—The Secretary of the Navy, to promote nautical education, is authorized and empowered to furnish, upon the application in writing of the governor of a State, a suitable vessel of the Navy, with all her apparel, charts, books, and instruments of navigation, provided the same can be spared without detriment to the naval service, to be used for the benefit of any nautical school, or school or college having a nautical branch, established at each of the following ports of the United States: Boston, Philadelphia, New York, Seattle, San Francisco, Baltimore, Detroit, Saginaw, Michigan, Norfolk, and Corpus Christi, upon the condition that there shall be maintained at such port a school or branch of a school for the instruction of youths in navigation, steamship-marine engineering, and all matters pertaining to the proper construction, equipment, and sailing of vessels or any particular branch thereof. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 265, § 1, 36 Stat. 1353.)

1122. Appropriations for nautical schools.—A sum not exceeding the amount annually appropriated by any State or municipality for the purpose of maintaining such a marine school or schools or the nautical branch thereof is authorized to be appropriated for the purpose of aiding in the maintenance and support of such school or schools: Provided, however, That appropriations shall be made for one school in any port heretofore named in the preceding section and that the appropriation for any one year shall not exceed $25,000 for any one school. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 265, § 2, 36 Stat. 1353.)

1123. Detail of Navy officers as superintendents or instructors; restoration of vessel and recall of officers.—The President of the United States is hereby authorized, when in his opinion the same can be done without detriment to the public service, to detail proper officers of the Navy as superintendents of or instructors in such schools: Provided, That if any such school shall be discontinued, or the good of the naval service shall require, such vessel shall be immediately restored to the Secretary of the Navy and the officers so detailed recalled: And provided further, That no person shall be sentenced to or received at such schools as a punishment or commutation of punishment for crime. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 265, § 3, 36 Stat. 1353.)

1124. Nautical schools, Philippine Islands.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized and empowered to loan temporarily to the government of the Philippine Islands, upon the written application of the Secretary of War, a vessel of the United States Navy, to be selected from such vessels as are not suitable or required for general service, together with such of her apparel, charts, books, and instruments of navigation as he may deem proper, said vessel to be used only by such nautical schools as are or may hereafter be maintained by said government of the Philippine Islands: Provided, That when such schools shall be abandoned, or when the interests of the naval service shall so require, such vessel, together with her apparel, charts, books, and instruments of navigation, shall be immediately restored to the custody of the Secretary of the Navy. (June 30, 1906, c. 3937, 34 Stat. 817.)

1125. Detail of enlisted men as ship keepers.—When such loan is made to the government of the Philippine Islands, in accordance with the preceding section, the Secretary of the Navy is authorized to detail from the enlisted force of the Navy a sufficient number of men, not exceeding six for any vessel, as ship keepers, the men so detailed to be additional to the number of enlisted men allowed by law for the naval establishment, and in making details for this service preference shall be given to those men who have served twenty years or more in the Navy. (June 30, 1906, c. 3937, 34 Stat. 817.)

1126. Detail of engineer officers to educational institutions.—For the purpose of promoting a knowledge of steam engineering and iron-ship building among the young men of the United States, the President may, upon the application of an established scientific school or college within the United States, detail an engineer officer of the Navy as professor in such school or college: Provided, That the number of officers so detailed shall not at any time exceed twenty-five, and such details shall be governed by rules to be prescribed from time to time by the President: And provided further, That such details may be withheld or withdrawn whenever, in the judgment of the President, the interests of the public service shall so require. (Feb. 26, 1879, c. 105, 20 Stat. 322; Mar. 3, 1899, § 1, c. 413, 30 Stat. 1004; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 580.)

1127. Detail of retired officers as teachers or professors in schools or colleges.—Any retired officer of the Navy or Marine Corps may, on his own application, be detailed to service as a teacher or professor in any school or college, but while so serving such officer shall be allowed no additional compensation. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 186, 28 Stat. 826.)

1128. Loan of naval equipment to military schools.—The President is authorized, upon the application of the governor of any State having seacoast line or bordering on one or more of the Great Lakes, to direct the Secretary of the Navy to furnish to one well-established military school in that State, desiring to afford its cadets instruction in elementary seamanship, one fully equipped man-of-war's cutter for every twenty-five cadets in actual attendance, and such other equipment as may be spared and be deemed adequate for instruction in elementary seamanship: Provided, That the said school shall have adequate facilities for cutter drill, and shall have in actual attendance at least seventy-five cadets over fifteen years of age in uniform receiving military instruction and quartered in barracks under military regulation, and shall have the capacity to quarter and educate at the same time one hundred and fifty cadets: And provided further, That the Secretary of the Navy shall require a bond in each case, in double the value of the property, for the care and safe-keeping thereof and for the return of the same when required. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 863, 31 Stat. 1440; June 29, 1906, c. 3612, 34 Stat. 620; June 24, 1910, c. 378, 36 Stat. 613.)

Chapter 20.—PRIZE.

Sec.
1131. Application of provisions of chapter.

1133. Duties of commanding officer making capture.
1134. Duties of prize master.
1135. Libel and proceedings by district attorney.
1136. Duties of district attorneys.
1137. Appointment of prize commissioners.
1138. Duties of prize commissioners.
1139. Duties of marshal.
1140. Appraisal of property taken for Government.
1141. Proceedings for adjudication where property not sent in; effect of failure to commence proceedings within reasonable time.
1142. Delivery of property on stipulation.
1143. Sale of prize; when ordered.
1144. Mode of making sale.
1145. Transfer of prize property to another district for sale.
1146. Appeals and amendments in prize cases.
1147. Powers of district court after appeal.
1148. Security for costs.
1149. Costs and expenses.
1150. Payment of expenses from prize fund.
1151. Payment of prize money.
1152. Accounts of clerks of district courts.
1153. Allowances and commissions to marshals.
1154. Compensation of prize commissioners.
1155. Accounts of prize commissioners.
1156. Commissions of auctioneers.
1157. Payment of witness fees.
1158. Recaptures; award of salvage, costs and expenses.

Section 1131. Application of provisions of chapter.—The provisions of this chapter shall apply to all captures made as prize by authority of the United States, or adopted and ratified by the President of the United States. (R. S. § 4613.)

1132. "Vessels of the Navy" defined.—The term "vessels of the Navy," as used in this chapter, shall include all armed vessels officered and manned by the United States, and under the control of the Department of the Navy. (R. S. § 4614.)

1133. Duties of commanding officer making capture.—The commanding officer of any vessel making a capture shall secure the documents of the ship and cargo, including the log book, with all other documents, letters, and other papers found on board, and make an inventory, of the same, and seal them up, and send them, with the inventory, to the court in which proceedings are to be had, with a written statement that they are all the papers found, and are in the condition in which they were found; or explaining the absence of any documents or papers, or any change in their condition. He shall also send to such court, as witnesses, the master, one or more of the other officers, the supercargo, purser, or agent of the prize, and any person found on board whom he may suppose to be interested in, or to have knowledge respecting, the title, national character, or destination of the prize. He shall send the prize, with the documents, papers, and witnesses, under charge of a competent prize master and prize crew, into port for adjudication, explaining the absence of any usual witnesses; and in the absence of instructions from superior authority as to the port to which it shall be sent, he shall select such port as he shall deem most convenient, in view of the interests of probable claimants. If the captured vessel, or any part of the captured property, is not in condition to be sent in for adjudication, a survey shall be had thereon and an appraisement made by persons as competent and impartial as can be obtained, and their reports shall be sent to the court in which proceedings are to be had; and such property, unless appropriated for the use of the Government, shall be sold by the authority of the commanding officer present, and the proceeds deposited with the Treasurer of the United States or public depositary most accessible to such court, and subject to its order in the cause. (R. S. § 4615; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 13, 30 Stat. 1007; May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 654.)

1134. Duties of prize master.—The prize master shall make his way diligently to the selected port, and there immediately deliver to a prize commissioner the documents and papers, and the inventory thereof, and make affidavit that they are the same, and are in the same condition as delivered to him, or explaining any absence or change of condition therein, and that the prize property is in the same condition as delivered to him, or explaining any loss or damage thereto; and he shall further report to the district attorney and give to him all the information in his possession respecting the prize and her capture; and he shall deliver over the persons sent as witnesses to the custody of the marshal, and shall retain the prize in his custody until it shall be taken therefrom by process from the prize court. (R. S. § 4617.)

1135. Libel and proceedings by district attorney.—Upon receiving the report of the prize master directed by the preceding section, the attorney of the United States for the district shall immediately file a libel against such prize property, and shall forthwith obtain a warrant from the court, directing the marshal to take it into his custody, and shall proceed diligently to obtain a condemnation thereof; and to that end shall see that the proper preparatory evidence is taken by the prize commissioners, and that the prize commissioners also take the depositions de bene esse of the prize crew, and of other transient persons cognizant of any facts bearing on condemnation. (R. S. § 4618; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, 30 Stat. 1007.)

1136. Duties of district attorneys.—The district attorneys of the several judicial districts shall represent the interests of the United States in all prize causes. They shall examine all fees, costs, and expenses, sought to be charged on any prize fund, and protect the interest of the United States. The district attorneys of all districts in which any prize causes are or may be pending shall, as often as once in three months, send to the Secretary of the Navy a statement of the condition of all prize causes pending in their districts, in such form and embracing such particulars as the Secretary of the Navy shall require. (R. S. § 4619; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, 30 Stat. 1007.)

1137. Appointment of prize commissioners.—Any district court may appoint prize commissioners, not exceeding three in number; of whom one shall be a retired naval officer, approved by the Secretary of the Navy, who shall receive no other compensation than his pay in the Navy, and who shall protect the interests of the Department of the Navy in the prize property; and at least one of the others shall be a member of the bar of the court, of not less than three years' standing, and acquainted with the taking of depositions. (R. S. § 4621; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, 30 Stat. 1007.)

1138. Duties of prize commissioners.—The prize commissioners, or one of them, shall receive from the prize master the documents and papers, and inventory thereof, and shall take the affidavit of the prize master required by section

1134, and shall forthwith take the testimony of the witnesses sent in, separate from each other, on interrogatories prescribed by the court, in the manner usual in prize courts; and the witnesses shall not be permitted to see the interrogatories, documents, or papers, or to consult with counsel, or with any persons interested, without special authority from the court; and witnesses who have the rights of neutrals shall be discharged as soon as practicable. The prize commissioners shall also take depositions de bene esse of the prize crew and others, at the request of the district attorney, on interrogatories prescribed by the court. They shall also, as soon as any prize property comes within the district for adjudication, examine the same, and make an inventory thereof, founded on an actual examination, and report to the court whether any part of it is in a condition requiring immediate sale for the interests of all parties, and notify the district attorney thereof; and if it be necessary to the examination or making of the inventory that the cargo be unladen, they shall apply to the court for an order to the marshal to unlade the same, and shall, from time to time, report to the court anything relating to the condition of the property, or its custody or disposal, which may require any action by the court, but the custody of the property shall be in the marshal only. They shall also seasonably return into court, sealed and secured from inspection, the documents and papers which shall come to their hands, duly scheduled and numbered, and the other preparatory evidence, and the evidence taken de bene esse, and their own inventory of the prize property; and if the captured vessel, or any of its cargo or stores, are such as in their judgment may be useful to the United States in war, they shall report the same to the Secretary of the Navy. (R. S. § 4622.)

1139. Duties of marshal.—The marshal shall safely keep all prize property under warrant from the court, and shall report to the court any cargo or other property that he thinks requires to be unladen and stored, or to be sold. He shall insure prize property, if in his judgment it is for the interest of all concerned. He shall keep in his custody all persons found on board a prize and sent in as witnesses, until they are released by the prize commissioners or the court. If a sale of property is ordered, he shall sell the same in the manner required by the court, and collect the purchase money, and forthwith deposit the gross proceeds of the sales with the Treasurer of the United States or public depositary nearest the place of sale, subject to the order of the court in the particular cause; and each marshal shall forward to the Secretary of the Navy, whenever and as often as the Secretary of the Navy may require it, a full statement of the condition of each prize and of the disposal made thereof. (R. S. § 4623; May 29, 1920, § 1, c. 214, 41 Stat. 654.)

1140. Appraisal of property taken for Government.—Whenever any captured vessel, arms, munitions, or other material are taken for the use of the United States before it comes into the custody of the prize court, it shall be surveyed, appraised, and inventoried, by persons as competent and impartial as can be obtained, and the survey, appraisement, and inventory shall be sent to the court in which proceedings are to be had; and if taken afterward, sufficient notice shall first be given to enable the court to have the property appraised for the protection of the rights of the claimants. In all cases of prize property taken for or appropriated to the use of the Government, the department for whose use it is taken or appropriated shall deposit the value thereof with the Treasurer of the United States or public depositary nearest to the place of the session of the court, subject to the order of the court in the cause. (R. S. § 4624; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, 30 Stat. 1007; May 29, 1920, c. 214, 41 Stat. 654.)

1141. Proceedings for adjudication where property not sent in; effect of failure to commence proceedings within reasonable time.—If by reason of the condition of the captured property, or if because the whole has been appropriated to the use of the United States, no part of it has been or can be sent in for adjudication, or if the property has been entirely lost or destroyed, proceedings for adjudication may be commenced in any district the Secretary of the Navy may designate; and in any such case the proceeds of anything sold, or the value of anything taken or appropriated for the use of the United States, shall be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States or public depositary in or nearest to that district, subject to the order of the court in the cause. And if in any case of capture no proceedings for adjudication are commenced within a reasonable time, any parties claiming the captured property may, in any district court as a court of prize, move for a monition to show cause why such proceedings shall not be commenced, or institute an original suit in such court for restitution, and the monition issued in either case shall be served on the attorney of the United States for the district, and on the Secretary of the Navy, as well as on such other persons as the court shall order to be notified. (R. S. § 4625; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, 30 Stat. 1007; May 29, 1920, c. 214, 41 Stat. 654.)

1142. Delivery of property on stipulation.—No prize property shall be delivered to the claimants on stipulation, deposit, or other security, except where the claimant of any property shall satisfy the court that the same has a peculiar and intrinsic value to him, independent of its market value. In such case, the court may deliver the property on stipulation or deposit of its value, if satisfied that the rights and interests of the United States, or of other claimants, will not be prejudiced thereby; but a satisfactory appraisement shall be first made, and an opportunity given to the district attorney and naval prize commissioner to be heard as to the appointment of appraisers. Any money deposited in lieu of stipulation, and all money collected on a stipulation, not being costs, shall be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States or public depositary in the same manner as proceeds of a sale. (R. S. § 4626; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, 30 Stat. 1007; May 29, 1920, c. 214, 41 Stat. 654.)

1143. Sale of prize; when ordered.—Whenever any prize property is condemned, or at any stage of the proceedings is found by the court to be perishing, perishable, or liable to deteriorate or depreciate, or whenever the costs of keeping the same are disproportionate to its value, the court shall order a sale of such property; and whenever, after the return day on the libel, all the parties in interest who have appeared in the cause agree thereto, the court may make such order; and no appeal shall operate to prevent the making or execution of such order. (R. S. § 4627.)

1144. Mode of making sale.—Upon a sale of any prize property by order of the court, the Secretary of the Navy shall employ an auctioneer of known skill in the branch of business to which any sale pertains, to make the sale, but the sale shall be conducted under the supervision of the marshal, and the collecting and depositing of the gross proceeds shall be by the auctioneer or his agent. Before any sale the marshal shall cause full catalogues and schedules to be prepared and circulated, and a copy of each shall be returned by the marshal to the court in each cause. The marshal shall cause all sales to be advertised fully and conspicuously in newspapers ordered by the court, and by posters, and he shall, at least five days before the sale, serve notice thereof upon the naval prize commissioner, and the goods shall be open to inspection at least three days before the sale. (R. S. § 4628.)

1145. Transfer of prize property to another district for sale.—Whenever it appears to the court, in the case of any prize property ordered to be sold, that it will be for the interest of all parties to have it sold in another district, the court may direct the marshal to transfer the same to the district selected by the court for the sale, and to insure the same, with proper orders as to the time and manner of selling the same. It shall be the duty of the marshal so to transfer the property, and keep and sell the same in like manner as if the property were in his own district; and he shall deposit the gross proceeds of the sale with the Treasurer of the United States or public depositary nearest to the place of sale, subject to the order of the court in which the adjudication thereon is pending. The necessary expenses attending the insuring, transferring, receiving, keeping, and selling the property shall be a charge upon it and upon the proceeds thereof; and whenever any such expense is paid in advance by the marshal, and he is not repaid from the proceeds, any amount not so repaid shall be allowed to him, as in case of expenses incurred in suits in which the United States is a party. The Secretary of the Navy may, in like manner, either by a general regulation or by special direction in any cause, require a marshal to transfer any prize property from the district in which the judicial proceedings are pending, to any other district for sale; and the same proceedings shall be had as if such transfer had been made by order of the court. (R. S. § 4629; May 29, 1920, c. 214, 41 Stat. 654.)

1146. Appeals and amendments in prize cases.—The circuit court of appeals may, if, in its judgment, the purposes of justice require it, allow any amendment, either in form or substance, of any appeal in prize cases, or allow a prize appeal therein, if it appears that any notice of appeal or of intention to appeal was filed with the clerk of the district court within thirty days next after the rendition of the final decree therein. (R. S. §§ 1006, 4636; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 128, 36 Stat. 1133; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, 43 Stat. 938.)

1147. Powers of district court after appeal.—Notwithstanding any appeal, the district court may make and execute all necessary orders for the custody and disposal of the prize property. (R. S. § 4637; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, 30 Stat. 1007; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 128, 36 Stat. 1133; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 229, 43 Stat. 938.)

1148. Security for costs.—The court may require any party, at any stage of the cause, and on claiming an appeal, to give security for costs. (R. S. § 4638.)

1149. Costs and expenses.—All costs and all expenses incident to the bringing in, custody, preservation, insurance, sale, or other disposal of prize property, when allowed by the court, shall be a charge upon such property, and shall be paid from the proceeds thereof, unless the court shall decree restitution free from such charge. (R. S. § 4639.)

1150. Payment of expenses from prize fund.—No payments shall be made for any prize fund, except upon the order of the court. All charges for work and labor, materials furnished, or money paid, shall be supported by affidavit or vouchers. The court may, at any time, order the payment, from the deposit made with the Treasurer or public depositary in the cause, of any costs or charges accrued and allowed. When the cause is finally disposed of, the court shall make its order or orders on the Treasurer or public depositary to pay the costs and charges allowed and unpaid; and in case the final decree shall be for restitution, or in case there shall be no money subject to the order of the court in the cause, any costs or charges allowed by the court, and not paid by the claimants, shall be a charge upon, and be paid out of, the fund for defraying the expenses of suits in which the United States is a party or interested. (R. S. § 4640; May 29, 1920, c. 214, 41 Stat. 654.)

1151. Payment of prize money.—The net proceeds of all property condemned as prize shall be decreed to the United States, and shall be ordered by the court to be paid into the Treasury of the United States. (R. S. §§ 4630, 4641, 4752; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 13, 30 Stat. 1007.)

1152. Accounts of clerks of district courts.—The clerk of each district court shall render, to the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of the Navy, a semiannual statement of all the sums allowed by the court, and ordered to be paid, within the previous half year, to the prize commissioners for services; and he shall, in all prize causes in the district, for the purpose of the final decree, ascertain and keep an account of the amount deposited with the Treasurer or public depositary, subject to the order of the court, in each prize cause, and the amounts ordered to be paid therefrom as costs and charges; and shall send copies of all final decrees to the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of the Navy; and shall draw the orders of the court for the payment of all costs and allowances, and for the disposition of the residue. (R. S. § 4644; May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 6, 29 Stat. 179; Mar. 3, 1899, § 13, 30 Stat. 1007; Feb. 26, 1919, c. 49, § 1, 40 Stat. 1182; May 19, 1920, c. 214, 41 Stat. 654.)

1153. Allowances and commissions to marshals.—The marshal shall be allowed his actual and necessary expenses for the custody, care, preservation, insurance, sale, or other disposal of the prize property, and for executing any order of the court respecting the same. No charges of the marshal for expenses or disbursements shall be allowed, except upon his oath that the same have been actually and necessarily incurred for the purpose stated. (R. S. § 4645; May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 6, 29 Stat. 179.)

1154. Compensation of prize commissioners.—The prize commissioners, except the naval officer, shall be allowed a just and suitable compensation for their respective services in each prize cause, to be adjusted and determined by the court, and to be paid as costs in the cause. (R. S. § 4646.)

1155. Accounts of prize commissioners.—Each prize commissioner, except the naval officer, shall render to the Attorney General an annual account of all sums he shall have received for all services in prize causes within the previous year; and each such prize commissioner shall be allowed to retain a sum not exceeding $3,000 a year, which shall be in full for all his official services in prize causes; and any excess over those respective amounts shall be paid by the officer receiving the same into the Treasury of the United States, and shall be credited to the fund for paying naval pensions. (R. S. § 4647; May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 6, 29 Stat. 179.)

1156. Commissions of auctioneers.—The auctioneers employed to make sales of prize property shall be entitled to receive commissions by a scale to be established by the Secretary of the Navy, not to exceed, in any case, one-half of 1 per centum on any sum exceeding $10,000 on vessels, nor 1 per centum on that sum on other prize property, which shall be in full for expenses, as well as for services; and in case no such scale shall be established, they shall be entitled to receive such compensation as the court shall deem just under the circumstances of each case. (R. S. § 4650.)

1157. Payment of witness fees.—Whenever the court shall allow fees to any witness in a prize cause, or fees for taking evidence out of the district in which the court sits, and there is no money subject to its order in the cause, the same shall be paid by the marshal, and shall be repaid to him from any money deposited to the order of the court in the cause; and any amount not so repaid the marshal shall be allowed as witness fees paid by him in cases in which the United States is a party. (R. S. § 4651.)

1158. Recaptures; award of salvage, costs, and expenses.—When any vessel or other property shall have been captured by any force hostile to the United States, and shall be recaptured, and it shall appear to the court that the same had not been condemned as prize before its recapture, by any competent authority, the court shall award a meet and competent sum as salvage, according to the circumstances of each case. If the captured property belonged to the United States, it shall be restored to the United States, and there shall be paid from the Treasury of the United States the costs, and expenses ordered by the court. If the recaptured property belonged to persons residing within or under the protection of the United States, the court shall adjudge the property to be restored to its owners, upon their claim, on the payment of such sum as the court may award as salvage, costs, and expenses. If the recaptured property belonged to any person permanently resident within the territory and under the protection of any foreign prince, government, or State in amity with the United States, and by the law or usage of such prince, government, or State, the property of a citizen of the United States would be restored under like circumstances of recapture, it shall be adjudged to be restored to such owner, upon his claim, upon such terms as by the law or usage of such prince, government, or State would be required of a citizen of the United States under like circumstances of recapture; or when no such law or usage shall be known, it shall be adjudged to be restored upon the payment of such salvage, costs, and expenses as the court shall order. The whole amount awarded as salvage shall be disposed of as in the case of proceeds of property condemned as prize. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to contravene any treaty of the United States. (R. S. § 4652; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 13, 30 Stat. 1007.)

Section 1200. Articles established.—The Navy of the United States shall be governed by the following articles (R. S. § 1624):

CONDUCT AND MORALS IN GENERAL

Article 1. Commanders' duties of example and correction.—The commanders of all fleets, squadrons, naval stations, and vessels belonging to the Navy, are required to show in themselves a good example of virtue, honor, patriotism, and subordination; to be vigilant in inspecting the conduct of all persons who are placed under their command; to guard against and suppress all dissolute and immoral practices, and to correct, according to the laws and regulations of the Navy, all persons who are guilty of them; and any such commander who offends against this article shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (R. S. § 1624, art. 1.)

Article 2. Divine service.—The commanders of vessels and naval stations to which chaplains are attached shall cause divine service to be performed on Sunday, whenever the weather and other circumstances allow it to be done; and it is earnestly recommended to all officers, seamen, and others in the naval service diligently to attend at every performance of the worship of Almighty God. (R. S. § 1624, art. 2.)

Article 3. Irreverent behavior.—Any irreverent or unbecoming behavior during divine service shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (R. S. § 1624, art. 3; Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, §§ 1, 2, 35 Stat. 621.)

OFFENSES PUNISHABLE BY DEATH

Article 4. Persons to whom applicable.—The punishment of death, or such other punishment as a court-martial may adjudge, may be inflicted on any person in the naval service—

First (Mutiny). Who makes, or attempts to make, or unites with any mutiny or mutinous assembly, or, being witness to or present at any mutiny, does not do his utmost to suppress it; or, knowing of any mutinous assembly or of any intended mutiny, does not immediately communicate his knowledge to his superior or commanding officer;

Second (Disobedience of orders). Or disobeys the lawful orders of his superior officer;

Third (Striking superior officer). Or strikes or assaults, or attempts or threatens to strike or assault, his superior officer while in the execution of the duties of his office;

Fourth (Intercourse with an enemy). Or gives any intelligence to, or holds or entertains any intercourse with, an enemy or rebel, without leave from the President, the Secretary of the Navy, the commander in chief of the fleet, the commander of the squadron, or, in case of a vessel acting singly, from his commanding officer;

Fifth (Messages from an enemy). Or receives any message or letter from an enemy or rebel, or, being aware of the unlawful reception of such message or letter, fails to take the earliest opportunity to inform his superior or commanding officer thereof;

Sixth (Desertion in time of war). Or, in time of war, deserts or entices others to desert;

Seventh (Deserting trust). Or, in time of war, deserts or betrays his trust, or entices or aids others to desert or betray their trust;

Eighth (Sleeping on watch). Or sleeps upon his watch;

Ninth (Leaving station). Or leaves his station before being regularly relieved;

Tenth (Willful stranding or injury of vessels). Or intentionally or willfully suffers any vessel of the Navy to be stranded, or run upon rocks or shoals, or improperly hazarded; or maliciously or willfully injures any vessel of the Navy, or any part of her tackle, armament, or equipment, whereby the safety of the vessel is hazarded or the lives of the crew exposed to danger;

Eleventh (Unlawful destruction of public property). Or unlawfully sets on fire, or otherwise unlawfully destroys, any public property not at the time in possession of an enemy, pirate, or rebel;

Twelfth (Striking flag or treacherously yielding). Or strikes or attempts to strike the flag to an enemy or rebel, without proper authority, or, when engaged in battle, treacherously yields or pusillanimously cries for quarter;

Thirteenth (Cowardice in battle). Or, in time of battle, displays cowardice, negligence, or disaffection, or withdraws from or keeps out of danger to which he should expose himself;

Fourteenth (Deserting duty in battle). Or, in time of battle, deserts his duty or station, or entices other to do so;

Fifteenth (Neglecting orders to prepare for battle). Or does not properly observe the orders of his commanding officer, and use his utmost exertions to carry them into execution, when ordered to prepare for or join in, or when actually engaged in, battle, or while in sight of an enemy;

Sixteenth (Neglecting to clear for action). Or, being in command of a fleet, squadron, or vessel acting singly, neglects, when an engagement is probable, or when an armed vessel of an enemy or rebel is in sight, to prepare and clear his ship or ships for action;

Seventeenth (Neglecting to join on signal for battle). Or does not, upon signal for battle, use his utmost exertions to join in battle;

Eighteenth (Failing to encourage men to fight). Or fails to encourage, in his own person, his inferior officers and men to fight courageously;

Nineteenth (Failing to seek encounter). Or does not do his utmost to overtake and capture or destroy any vessel which it is his duty to encounter;

Twentieth (Failing to afford relief in battle). Or does not afford all practicable relief and assistance to vessels belonging to the United States or their allies when engaged in battle. (R. S. § 1624, art. 4.)

Article 5. Spies.—All persons who, in time of war, or of rebellion against the supreme authority of the United States, come or are found in the capacity of spies, or who bring or deliver any seducing letter or message from an enemy or rebel, or endeavor to corrupt any person in the Navy to betray his trust, shall suffer death, or such other punishment as a court-martial may adjudge. (R. S. § 1624, art. 5.)

Article 6. Murder.—If any person belonging to any public vessel of the United States commits the crime of murder without the territorial jurisdiction thereof, he may be tried by court-martial and punished with death. (R. S. § 1624, art. 6.)

Article 7. Imprisonment in lieu of death.—A naval court-martial may adjudge the punishment of imprisonment for life, or for a stated term, at hard labor, in any case where it is authorized to adjudge the punishment of death; and such sentences of imprisonment and hard labor may be carried into execution in any prison or penitentiary under the control of the United States, or which the United States may be allowed, by the legislature of any State, to use; and persons so imprisoned in the prison or penitentiary of any State or Territory shall be subject, in all respects, to the same discipline and treatment as convicts sentenced by the courts of the State or Territory in which the same may be situated. (R. S. § 1624, art 7.)

OFFENSES PUNISHABLE AT DISCRETION OF COURT-MARTIAL

Article 8. Persons to whom applicable.—Such punishment as a court-martial may adjudge may be inflicted on any person in the Navy—

First (Scandalous conduct). Who is guilty of profane swearing, falsehood, drunkenness, gambling, fraud, theft, or any other scandalous conduct tending to the destruction of good morals;

Second (Cruelty). Or is guilty of cruelty toward, or oppression or maltreatment of, any person subject to his orders;

Third (Quarreling). Or quarrels with, strikes, or assaults, or uses provoking or reproachful words, gestures, or menaces toward, any person in the Navy;

Fourth (Fomenting quarrels). Or endeavors to foment quarrels between other persons in the Navy;

Fifth (Duels). Or sends or accepts a challenge to fight a duel or acts as a second in a duel;

Sixth (Contempt of superior officer). Or treats his superior officer with contempt, or is disrespectful to him in language or deportment, while in the execution of his office;

Seventh (Combinations against commanding officer). Or joins in or abets any combination to weaken the lawful authority of, or lessen the respect due to, his commanding officer;

Eighth (Mutinous words). Or utters any seditious or mutinous words;

Ninth (Neglect of orders). Or is negligent or careless in obeying orders, or culpably inefficient in the performance of duty;

Tenth (Preventing destruction of public property). Or does not use his best exertions to prevent the unlawful destruction of public property by others;

Eleventh (Negligent stranding). Or, through inattention or negligence, suffers any vessel of the Navy to be stranded, or run upon a rock or shoal, or hazarded;

Twelfth (Negligence in convoy service). Or, when attached to any vessel appointed as convoy to any merchant or other vessels, fails diligently to perform his duty, or demands or exacts any compensation for his services, or maltreats the officers or crews of such merchant or other vessels;

Thirteenth (Receiving articles for freight). Or takes, receives, or permits to be received, on board the vessel to which he is attached, any goods or merchandise, for freight, sale, or traffic, except gold, silver, or jewels, for freight or safe-keeping; or demands or receives any compensation for the receipt or transportation of any other article than gold, silver, or jewels, without authority from the President or Secretary of the Navy;

Fourteenth (False muster). Or knowingly makes or signs, or aids, abets, directs, or procures the making or signing of, any false muster;

Fifteenth (Waste of public property). Or wastes any ammunition, provisions, or other public property, or, having power to prevent it, knowingly permits such waste;

Sixteenth (Plundering on shore). Or, when on shore, plunders, abuses, or maltreats any inhabitant, or injures his property in any way;

Seventeenth (Refusing to apprehend offenders). Or refuses, or fails to use, his utmost exertions to detect, apprehend, and bring to punishment all offenders, or to aid all persons appointed for that purpose;

Eighteenth (Refusing to receive prisoners). Or, when rated or acting as master-at-arms, refuses to receive such prisoners as may be committed to his charge, or, having received them, suffers them to escape, or dismisses them without orders from the proper authority;

Nineteenth (Absence from duty without leave). Or is absent from his station or duty without leave, or after his leave has expired;

Twentieth (Violating general orders or regulations). Or violates or refuses obedience to any lawful general order or regulation issued by the Secretary of the Navy;

Twenty-first (Desertion in time of peace). Or, in time of peace, deserts or attempts to desert, or aids and entices others to desert;

Twenty-second (Harboring deserters). Or receives or entertains any deserter from any other vessel of the Navy, knowing him to be such, and does not, with all convenient speed, give notice of such deserter to the commander of the vessel to which he belongs, or to the commander in chief, or to the commander of the squadron. (R. S. § 1624, art. 8.)

SPECIAL PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO OFFICERS

Article 9. Officer absent without leave reduced.—Any officer who absents himself from his command without leave, may, by the sentence of a court-martial, be reduced to the rating of seaman, second class. (R. S. § 1624, art. 9; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 575.)

Article 10. Desertion by resignation.—Any commissioned officer of the Navy or Marine Corps who, having tendered his resignation, quits his post or proper duties without leave, and with intent to remain permanently absent therefrom, prior to due notice of the acceptance of such resignation, shall be deemed and punished as a deserter. (R. S. § 1624, art. 10.)

RESTRICTIONS ON PRIVATE PROPERTY

Article 11. Dealing in supplies.—No person in the naval service shall procure stores or other articles or supplies for, and dispose thereof to, the officers or enlisted men on vessels of the Navy, or at navy yards or naval stations, for his own account or benefit. (R. S. § 1624, art. 11.)

Article 12. Importing dutiable goods in public vessels.—No person connected with the Navy shall, under any pretense, import in a public vessel any article which is liable to the payment of duty. (R. S. § 1624, art. 12.)

Article 13. Distilled spirits only as medical stores.—Distilled spirits shall be admitted on board of vessels of war only upon the order and under the control of the medical officers of such vessels, and to be used only for medical purposes. (R. S. § 1624, art. 13.)

OFFENSES PUNISHABLE BY FINE AND IMPRISONMENT

Article 14. Persons to whom applicable.—Fine and imprisonment, or such other punishment as a court-martial may adjudge, shall be inflicted upon any person in the naval service of the United States—

First (Presenting false claims). Who presents or causes to be presented to any person in the civil, military, or naval service thereof, for approval or payment, any claim against the United States or any officer thereof, knowing such claim to be false or fraudulent; or

Second (Agreement to obtain payment of false claims). Who enters into any agreement or conspiracy to defraud the United States by obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the allowance or payment of any false or fraudulent claim; or

Third (False paper). Who, for the purpose of obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance, or payment of any claim against the United States or against any officer thereof, makes or uses, or procures or advises the making or use of, any writing, or other paper, knowing the same to contain any false or fraudulent statement; or

Fourth (Perjury). Who, for the purpose of obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance, or payment of any claim against the United States or any officer thereof, makes, or procures or advises the making of, any oath to any fact or to any writing or other paper, knowing such oath to be false; or

Fifth (Forgery). Who, for the purpose of obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance, or payment of any claim against the United States or any officer thereof, forges or counterfeits, or procures or advises the forging or counterfeiting of, any signature upon any writing or other paper, or uses, or procures or advises the use of, any such signature, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited; or

Sixth (Delivering less property than receipt calls for). Who, having charge, possession, custody, or control of any money or other property of the United States, furnished or intended for the naval service thereof, knowingly delivers, or causes to be delivered, to any person having authority to receive the same, any amount thereof less than that for which he receives a certificate or receipt; or

Seventh (Giving receipt without knowing truth of). Who, being authorized to make or deliver any paper certifying the receipt of any money or other property of the United States, furnished or intended for the naval service thereof, makes, or delivers to any person, such writing, without having full knowledge of the truth of the statements therein contained, and with intent to defraud the United States; or

Eighth (Stealing, wrongfully selling, etc.). Who steals, embezzles, knowingly and willfully misappropriates, applies to his own use or benefit, or wrongfully and knowingly sells or disposes of any ordnance, arms, equipments, ammunition, clothing, subsistence stores, money or other property of the United States, furnished or intended for the military or naval service thereof; or

Ninth (Buying public military property). Who knowingly purchases, or receives in pledge for any obligation or indebtedness, from any other person who is a part of or employed in said service, any ordnance, arms, equipments, ammunition, clothing, subsistence stores, or other property of the United States, such other person not having lawful right to sell or pledge the same; or Tenth (Any other fraud against United States). Who executes, attempts, or countenances any other fraud against the United States.

Eleventh (Trial of offender after discharge). And if any person, being guilty of any of the offenses described in this article while in the naval service, receives his discharge, or is dismissed from the service, he shall continue to be liable to be arrested and held for trial and sentence by a court-martial, in the same manner and to the same extent as if he had not received such discharge nor been dismissed. (R. S. § 1624, art. 14.)

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO PRIZE

Article 15. Prize money.—The proceeds of vessels or any property hereafter captured, condemned as prize, shall not be distributed among the captors, in whole or in part, nor shall any bounty be paid for the sinking or destruction of vessels of the enemy hereafter occurring in time of war. (R. S. § 1624, art. 15; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 413, § 13, 30 Stat. 1007.)

Article 16. Removing property from a prize.—No person in the Navy shall take out of a prize, or vessel seized as a prize, any money, plate, goods, or any part of her equipment, unless it be for the better preservation thereof, or unless such articles are absolutely needed for the use of any of the vessels or armed forces of the United States, before the same are adjudged lawful prize by a competent court; but the whole, without fraud, concealment, or embezzlement, shall be brought in, in order that judgment may be passed thereon; and every person who offends against this article shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (R. S. § 1624, art. 16.)

Article 17. Maltreating persons on board prize.—If any person in the Navy strips off the clothes of, or pillages, or in any manner maltreats, any person taken on board a prize, he shall suffer such punishment as a court-martial may adjudge. (R. S. § 1624, art. 17.)

SPECIAL PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO DESERTERS AND RECRUITING

Article 18. Forfeiture of citizenship rights for desertion.—Every person who in time of war deserts the naval service of the United States shall be deemed to have voluntarily relinquished and forfeited his rights of citizenship, as well as his right to become a citizen, and shall be forever incapable of holding any office of trust or profit under the United States, or of exercising any rights of citizens thereof. (R. S. §§ 1996, 1998; Aug. 22, 1912, c. 336, 37 Stat. 356.)

Article 19. Enlisting deserters, minors, etc.—Any officer who knowingly enlists into the naval service any person who has deserted in time of war from the naval or military service of the United States, or any insane or intoxicated person, or any minor between the ages of fourteen and eighteen years, without the consent of his parents or guardian, or any minor under the age of fourteen years, shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (May 12, 1879, c. 5, 21 Stat. 3; Aug. 22, 1912, c. 336, § 2, 37 Stat. 356.)

DUTIES OF COMMANDING OFFICERS

Article 20. Rules to be obeyed by.—Every commanding officer of a vessel in the Navy shall obey the following rules:

First (Men received on board). Whenever a man enters on board, the commanding officer shall cause an accurate entry to be made in the ship's books, showing his name, the date, place, and term of his enlistment, the place or vessel from which he was received on board, his rating, his descriptive list, his age, place of birth, and citizenship, with such remarks as may be necessary.

Second (List of officers, men, and passengers). He shall, before sailing, transmit to the Secretary of the Navy a complete list of the rated men under his command, showing the particulars set forth in rule 1, and a list of officers and passengers, showing the date of their entering. And he shall cause similar lists to be made out on the 1st day of every third month and transmitted to the Secretary of the Navy as opportunities occur, accounting therein for any casualty which may have happened since the last list.

Third (Deaths and desertion). He shall cause to be accurately minuted on the ship's books the names of any persons dying or deserting, and the times at which such death or desertion occurs.

Fourth (Property of deceased persons). In case of the death of any officer, man, or passenger on said vessel, he shall take care that the paymaster secures all the property of the deceased, for the benefit of his legal representatives.

Fifth (Accounts of men received). He shall not receive on board any man transferred from any other vessel or station to him, unless such man is furnished with an account, signed by the captain and paymaster of the vessel or station from which he came, specifying the date of his entry on said vessel or at said station, the period and term of his service, the sums paid him, the balance due him, the quality in which he was rated, and his descriptive list.

Sixth (Accounts of men sent from the ship). He shall, whenever officers or men are sent from his ship, for whatever cause, take care that each man is furnished with a complete statement of his account, specifying the date of his enlistment, the period and term of his service, and his descriptive list. Said account shall be signed by the commanding officer and paymaster.

Seventh (Inspection of provisions). He shall cause frequent inspections to be made into the condition of the provisions on his ship, and use every precaution for their preservation.

Eighth (Health of crew). He shall frequently consult with the surgeon in regard to the sanitary condition of his crew, and shall use all proper means to preserve their health. And he shall cause a convenient place to be set apart for sick or disabled men, to which he shall have them removed, with their hammocks and bedding, when the surgeon so advises, and shall direct that some of the crew attend them and keep the place clean.

Ninth (Attendance at final payment of crew). He shall attend in person, or appoint a proper officer to attend, when his crew is finally paid off, to see that justice is done to the men and to the United States in the settlement of the accounts.

Tenth (Articles for the government of the Navy). He shall cause the articles for the government of the Navy to be hung up in some public part of the ship and read once a month to his ship's company.

Eleventh (Punishment for offending against this article). Every commanding officer who offends against the provisions of this article shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (R. S. § 1624, art. 20.)

PUNISHMENT OF OFFENSES NOT SPECIFIED

Article 21. Authority of officers after loss of vessel.—When the crew of any vessel of the United States are separated from their vessel by means of her wreck, loss, or destruction, all the command and authority given to the officers of such vessel shall remain in full force until such ship's company shall be regularly discharged from or ordered again into service, or until a court-martial or court of inquiry shall be held to inquire into the loss of said vessel. And if any officer or man, after such wreck, loss, or destruction, acts contrary to the discipline of the Navy, he shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (R. S. § 1624, art. 21.)

Article 22. (a) Offenses not specified.—All offenses committed by persons belonging to the Navy which are not specified in the foregoing articles shall be punished as a court-martial may direct. (R. S. § 1624, art. 22.)

(b) Fraudulent enlistment.—Fraudulent enlistment, and the receipt of any pay or allowance thereunder, is hereby declared an offense against naval discipline and made punishable by general court-martial, under this article. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 212, 27 Stat. 716.)

Article 23. Offenses committed on shore.—All offenses committed by persons belonging to the Navy while on shore shall be punished in the same manner as if they had been committed at sea. (R. S. § 1624, art. 23.)

Article 24. Punishments by order of commander.—No commander of a vessel shall inflict upon a commissioned or warrant officer any other punishment than private reprimand, suspension from duty, arrest, or confinement, and such suspension, arrest, or confinement shall not continue longer than ten days, unless a further period is necessary to bring the offender to trial by a court-martial; nor shall he inflict, or cause to be inflicted, upon any petty officer, or person of inferior rating, or marine, for a single offense, or at any one time, any other than one of the following punishments, namely:

First. Reduction of any rating established by himself.

Second. Confinement not exceeding ten days, unless further confinement be necessary, in the case of a prisoner to be tried by court-martial.

Third. Solitary confinement, on bread and water, not exceeding five days.

Fourth. Solitary confinement not exceeding seven days.

Fifth. Deprivation of liberty on shore.

Sixth. Extra duties.

No other punishment shall be permitted on board of vessels belonging to the Navy, except by sentence of a court-martial. All punishments inflicted by the commander, or by his order, except reprimands, shall be fully entered upon the ship's log. (R. S. § 1624, art. 24; Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, §§ 1, 2, 35 Stat. 621.)

Article 25. Punishments by other officers.—(a) All officers of the Navy and Marine Corps who are authorized to order either general or summary courts-martial shall have the same authority to inflict minor punishments as is conferred by law upon the commander of a naval vessel.

(b) No officer who may command by accident, or in the absence of the commanding officer, except when such commanding officer is absent for a time by leave, shall inflict any other punishment than confinement. (R. S. § 1624, art. 25; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 586.)

SUMMARY COURTS-MARTIAL

Article 26. Convening authority.—Summary courts-martial may be ordered upon petty officers and enlisted men in the naval service under his command by the commanding officer of any vessel, the commandant of any navy yard or naval station, brigade, regiment, or separate or detached battalion, or other separate or detached command, or marine barracks, and, when empowered by the Secretary of the Navy, by the commanding officer or officer in charge of any command not specifically mentioned in the foregoing, for the trial of offenses which such commanding officer or commandant may deem deserving of greater punishment than he is authorized to inflict, but not sufficient to require trial by a general court martial. (R. S. § 1624, art. 26; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 586.)

Article 27. Constitution of summary courts-martial.—A summary court-martial shall consist of three officers not below the rank of ensign, as members, and of a recorder. The commander of a ship may order any officer under his command to act as such recorder. (R. S. § 1624, art. 27.)

Article 28. Oath of members and recorder.—Before proceeding to trial the members of a summary court-martial shall take the following oath or affirmation, which shall be administered by the recorder: "I, A B, do swear (or affirm) that I will well and truly try, without prejudice or partiality, the case now depending, according to the evidence which shall be adduced, the laws for the government of the Navy, and my own conscience." After which the recorder of the court shall take the following oath or affirmation, which shall be administered by the senior member of the court: "I, A B, do swear (or affirm) that I will keep a true record of the evidence which shall be given before this court and of the proceedings thereof." (R. S. § 1624, art. 28.)

Article 29. Testimony.—Except as provided in articles 60 and 68, all testimony before a summary court-martial shall be given orally, upon oath or affirmation, administered by the senior member of the court. (R. S. § 1624, art. 29.)

Article 30. Punishments by summary courts-martial.—Summary courts-martial may sentence petty officers and persons of inferior ratings to either a part or the whole, as may be appropriate, of any one of the following punishments, namely:

First. Discharge from the service with bad conduct discharge; but the sentence shall not be carried into effect in a foreign country.

Second. Solitary confinement, not exceeding thirty days, on bread and water, or on diminished rations.

Third. Solitary confinement not exceeding thirty days.

Fourth. Confinement not exceeding two months.

Fifth. Reduction to next inferior rating.

Sixth. Deprivation of liberty on shore on foreign station.

Seventh. Extra police duties, and loss of pay, not to exceed three months, may be added to any of the above-mentioned punishments. (R. S. § 1624, art. 30; Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 8, 35 Stat. 621.)

Article 31. Disrating for incompetency.—A summary court-martial may disrate any rated person for incompetency. (R. S. § 1624, art. 31.)

Article 32. Execution of sentence of summary court.—No sentence of a summary court-martial shall be carried into execution until the proceedings and sentence have been approved by the officer ordering the court, or his successor in office, and by his immediate superior in command: Provided, That if the officer ordering the court, or his successor in office, be the senior officer present, such sentence may be carried into execution upon his approval thereof, subject to the provisions of article 54 (b). (R. S. § 1624, art. 32; Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 17, 35 Stat. 623; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 586.)

Article 33. Remission of sentence.—The officer ordering a summary court-martial shall have power to remit, in part or altogether, but not to commute, the sentence of the court. And it shall be his duty either to remit any part or the whole of any sentence, the execution of which would, in the opinion of the surgeon or senior medical officer on board, given in writing, produce serious injury to the health of the person sentenced, or to submit the case again, without delay, to the same or to another summary court-martial, which shall have power, upon the testimony already taken, to remit the former punishment and to assign some other of the authorized punishments in the place thereof. (R. S. § 1624, art. 33.)

Article 34. Proceedings and record of summary court.—The proceedings of summary courts-martial shall be conducted with as much conciseness and precision as may be consistent with the ends of justice, and under such forms and rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, with the approval of the President, and all such proceedings shall be transmitted in the usual mode to the Navy Department, where they shall be kept on file for a period of two years from date of trial, after which time they may be destroyed in the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy. (Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 14, 35 Stat. 622.)

GENERAL COURTS-MARTIAL

Article 35. Authority to inflict summary court-martial punishments.—Any punishment which a summary court-martial is authorized to inflict may be inflicted by a general court-martial. (R. S. § 1624, art. 35.)

Article 36. Dismissal of officers.—No officer shall be dismissed from the naval service except by the order of the President or by sentence of a general court-martial; and in time of peace no officer shall be dismissed except in pursuance of the sentence of a general court-martial or in mitigation thereof: Provided, That the President is authorized to drop from the rolls of the Navy or Marine Corps any officer thereof who is absent from duty without leave for a period of three months or more, or who, having been found guilty by the civil authorities of any offense, is finally sentenced to confinement in a State or Federal penitentiary: Provided further, That no officer so dropped shall be eligible for reappointment. (R. S. §§ 1229, 1624, art. 36; Apr. 2, 1918, c. 39, 40 Stat. 501.)

Article 37. Officer dismissed by President may demand trial.—When any officer, dismissed by order of the President, makes, in writing, an application for trial, setting forth, under oath that he has been wrongfully dismissed, the President shall, as soon as the necessities of the service may permit, convene a court-martial to try such officer on the charges on which he shall have been dismissed. And if such court-martial shall not be convened within six months from the presentation of such application for trial, or if such court, being convened, shall not award dismissal or death as the punishment of such officer, the order of dismissal by the President shall be void: Provided, That the accounting officers of the Treasury are prohibited from making any allowance to any officer of the Navy who has been, or may hereafter be, dismissed from the service and restored to the same under the provisions of the twelfth section of the act of March 3, 1865, entitled "An act to amend the several acts heretofore passed to provide for the enrolling and calling out the national forces and for other purposes," to exceed more than pay as on leave for six months from the date of dismissal, unless it shall appear that the officer demanded in writing, addressed to the Secretary of the Navy, and continued to demand as often as once in six months, a trial as provided for in said act. (R. S. § 1624, art. 37; June 22, 1874, c. 392, § 2, 18 Stat. 192.)

Article 38. Convening authority.—General courts-martial may be convened:

First. By the President, the Secretary of the Navy, the commander in chief of a fleet or squadron, and the commanding officer of a naval station beyond the continental limits of the United States; and

Second. When empowered by the Secretary of the Navy, by the commanding officer of a squadron, division, flotilla, or larger naval force afloat, and of a brigade or larger force of the naval service on shore beyond the continental limits of the United States; and Third. In time of war, if then so empowered by the Secretary of the Navy, by the commandant of any navy yard or naval station and by the commanding officer of a brigade or larger force of the Navy or Marine Corps on shore not attached to a navy yard or naval station. (R. S. § 1624, art. 38; Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 10, 35 Stat. 621; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 586.)

Article 39. Constitution of general court-martial.—A general court-martial shall consist of not more than thirteen nor less than five commissioned officers as members; and as many officers, not exceeding thirteen, as can be convened without injury to the service, shall be summoned on every such court. But in no case, where it can be avoided without injury to the service, shall more than one-half, exclusive of the president, be junior to the officer to be tried. The senior officer shall always preside and the others shall take place according to their rank. (R. S. § 1624, art. 39.)

Article 40. Oaths of members and judge advocate.—The president of the general court-martial shall administer the following oath or affirmation to the judge advocate or person officiating as such:

"I, A B, do swear (or affirm) that I will keep a true record of the evidence given to and the proceedings of this court; that I will not divulge or by any means disclose the sentence of the court until it shall have been approved by the proper authority; and that I will not at any time divulge or disclose the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court, unless required so to do before a court of justice in due course of law."

This oath or affirmation being duly administered, each member of the court, before proceeding to trial, shall take the following oath or affirmation, which shall be administered by the judge advocate or person officiating as such:

"I, A B, do swear (or affirm) that I will truly try without prejudice or partiality, the case now depending, according to the evidence which shall come before the court, the rules for the government of the Navy, and my own conscience; that I will not by any means divulge or disclose the sentence of the court until it shall have been approved by the proper authority; and that I will not at any time divulge or disclose the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court, unless required so to do before a court of justice in due course of law." (R. S. § 1624, art. 40.)

Article 41. Oath of witness.—An oath or affirmation in the following form, shall be administered to all witnesses, before any court-martial, by the president thereof:

"You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that the evidence you shall give in the case now before this court shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, and that you will state everything within your knowledge in relation to the charges. So help you God; (or 'this you do under the pains and penalties of perjury')." (R. S. § 1624, art. 41.)

Article 42. (a) Contempts of court.—Whenever any person refuses to give his evidence or to give it in the manner provided by these articles, or prevaricates, or behaves with contempt to the court, it shall be lawful for the court to imprison him for any time not exceeding two months: Provided, That the person charged shall, at his own request but not otherwise, be a competent witness before a court-martial or court of inquiry, and his failure to make such request shall not create any presumption against him. (R. S. § 1624, art. 42; Mar. 16, 1878, c. 37, 20 Stat. 30.)

(b) Witnesses; process for.—A naval court-martial or court of inquiry shall have power to issue like process to compel witnesses to appear and testify which United States courts of criminal jurisdiction within the State, Territory, or District where such naval court shall be ordered to sit may lawfully issue. (Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 11, 35 Stat. 621.)

(c) Refusal of witness to appear or testify; privilege.—Any person duly subpœnaed to appear as a witness before a general court-martial or court of inquiry of the Navy, who willfully neglects or refuses to appear, or refuses to qualify as a witness or to testify or produce documentary evidence, which such person may have been legally subpœnaed to produce, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, for which such person shall be punished on information in the district court of the United States; and it shall be the duty of the United States district attorney, on the certification of the facts to him by such naval court to file an information against and prosecute the person so offending, and the punishment of such person, on conviction, shall be a fine of not more than $500 or imprisonment not to exceed six months, or both, at the discretion of the court: Provided, That this shall not apply to persons residing beyond the State, Territory, or District in which such naval court is held, and that the fees of such witness and his mileage at the rates provided for witnesses in the United States district court for said State, Territory, or District shall be duly paid or tendered said witness, such amounts to be paid by the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts out of the appropriation for compensation of witnesses: Provided further, That no witness shall be compelled to incriminate himself or to answer any question which may tend to incriminate or degrade him. (Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 12, 35 Stat. 622.)

Article 43. Charges and specifications; arrest of accused.—The person accused shall be furnished with a true copy of the charges, with the specifications, at the time he is put under arrest; and no other charges than those so furnished shall be urged against him at the trial, unless it shall appear to the court that intelligence of such other charge had not reached the officer ordering the court when the accused was put under arrest, or that some witness material to the support of such charge was at that time absent and can be produced at the trial; in which case reasonable time shall be given to the accused to make his defense against such new charge. (R. S. § 1624, art. 43.)

Article 44. Duty of officer arrested.—Every officer who is arrested for trial shall deliver up his sword to his commanding officer and confine himself to the limits assigned him, on pain of dismissal from the service. (R. S. § 1624, art. 44.)

Article 45. Suspension of proceedings.—When the proceedings of any general court-martial have commenced, they shall not be suspended or delayed on account of the absence of any of the members, provided five or more are assembled; but the court is enjoined to sit from day to day, Sundays excepted, until sentence is given, unless temporarily adjourned by the authority which convened it. (R. S. § 1624, art. 45.)

Article 46. Absence of members.—No member of a general court-martial shall, after the proceedings are begun, absent himself therefrom, except in case of sickness, or of an order to go on duty from a superior officer, on pain of being cashiered. (R. S. § 1624, art. 46.)

Article 47. Witnesses examined in absence of a member.—Whenever any member of a court-martial, from any legal cause, is absent from the court after the commencement of a case, all the witnesses who have been examined during his absence must, when he is ready to resume his seat, be recalled by the court, and the recorded testimony of each witness so examined must be read over to him, and such witness must acknowledge the same to be correct and be subject to such further examination as the said member may require. Without a compliance with this rule, and an entry thereof upon the record, a member who shall have been absent during the examination of a witness shall not be allowed to sit again in that particular case. (R. S. § 1624, art. 47.)

Article 48. Suspension of pay.—Whenever a court-martial sentences an officer to be suspended, it may suspend his pay and emoluments for the whole or any part of the time of his suspension. (R. S. § 1624, art. 48.)

PUNISHMENTS AND SENTENCES; IN GENERAL

Article 49. Prohibited punishments.—In no case shall punishment by flogging, or by branding, marking, or tattooing on the body be adjudged by any court-martial or be inflicted upon any person in the Navy. The use of irons, single or double, is abolished, except for the purpose of safe custody or when part of a sentence imposed by a general court-martial. (R. S. § 1624, art. 49; Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 8, 35 Stat. 621.)

Article 50. Sentences, how determined.—No person shall be sentenced by a court-martial to suffer death, except by the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present, and in the cases where such punishment is expressly provided in these articles. All other sentences may be determined by a majority of votes. (R. S. § 1624, art. 50.)

Article 51. Adequate punishment; recommendation to mercy.—It shall be the duty of a court-martial, in all cases of conviction, to adjudge a punishment adequate to the nature of the offense; but the members thereof may recommend the person convicted as deserving of clemency, and state, on the record, their reasons for so doing. (R. S. § 1624, art. 51.)

Article 52. Authentication of judgment.—The judgment of every court-martial shall be authenticated by the signature of the president, and of every member who may be present when said judgment is pronounced, and also of the judge advocate. (R. S. § 1624, art. 52.)

Article 53. Confirmation of sentence.—No sentence of a court-martial, extending to the loss of life, or to the dismissal of a commissioned or warrant officer, shall be carried into execution until confirmed by the President. All other sentences of a general court-martial may be carried into execution on confirmation of the commander of the fleet or officer ordering the court. (R. S. § 1624, art. 53.)

Article 54 (a). Remission and mitigation of sentence.—Every officer who is authorized to convene a general court-martial shall have power, on revision of its proceedings, to remit or mitigate, but not to commute, the sentence of any such court which he is authorized to approve and confirm. (R. S. § 1624, art. 54.)

(b) Power of Secretary of Navy over proceedings and sentences of courts-martial.—The Secretary of the Navy may set aside the proceedings or remit or mitigate, in whole or in part, the sentence imposed by any naval court-martial convened by his order or by that of any officer of the Navy or Marine Corps. (Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 9, 35 Stat. 621.)

COURTS OF INQUIRY

Article 55. By whom convened.—Courts of inquiry may be convened by the President, the Secretary of the Navy, the commander of a fleet or squadron, and by any officer of the naval service authorized by law to convene general courts-martial. (R. S. § 1624, art. 55; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 586.)

Article 56. Constitution.—A court of inquiry shall consist of not more than three commissioned officers as members, and of a judge advocate, or person officiating as such. (R. S. § 1624, art. 56.)

Article 57. Powers.—Courts of inquiry shall have power to summon witnesses, administer oaths, and punish contempts, in the same manner as courts-martial; but they shall only state facts, and shall not give their opinion, unless expressly required so to do in the order for convening. (R. S. § 1624, art. 57.)

Article 58. Oath of members and judge advocate.—The judge advocate, or person officiating as such, shall administer to the members the following oath or affirmation: "You do swear (or affirm) well and truly to examine and inquire, according to the evidence, into the matter now before you, without partiality." After which the president shall administer to the judge advocate, or person officiating as such, the following oath or affirmation: "You do swear (or affirm) truly to record the proceedings of this court and the evidence to be given in the case in hearing." (R. S. § 1624, art. 58.)

Article 59. Rights of party or attorney.—The party whose conduct shall be the subject of inquiry, or his attorney, shall have the right to cross-examine all the witnesses. (R. S. § 1624, art. 59.)

Article 60. Proceedings; authentication; use in evidence.—The proceedings of courts of inquiry shall be authenticated by the signature of the president of the court and of the judge advocate, and shall, in all cases not capital, nor extending to the dismissal of a commissioned or warrant officer, be evidence before a court-martial, provided oral testimony can not be obtained. (R. S. § 1624, art. 60.)

LIMITATION OF TRIAL AND PUNISHMENT

Article 61. Limitation of trials; offenses in general.—No person shall be tried by court-martial or otherwise punished for any offense, except as provided in the following article, which appears to have been committed more than two years before the issuing of the order for such trial or punishment, unless by reason of having absented himself, or of some other manifest impediment he shall not have been amenable to justice within that period. (R. S. § 1624, art 61; Feb. 25, 1895, c. 128, 28 Stat. 680.)

Article 62. Desertion in time of peace.—No person shall be tried by court-martial or otherwise punished for desertion in time of peace committed more than two years before the issuing of the order for such trial or punishment, unless he shall meanwhile have absented himself from the United States, or by reason of some other manifest impediment shall not have been amenable to justice within that period, in which case the time of his absence shall be excluded in computing the period of the limitation: Provided, That said limitation shall not begin until the end of the term for which said person was enlisted in the service. (R. S. § 1624, art. 62; Feb. 25, 1895, c. 128, 28 Stat. 680.)

Article 63. Punishment for offenses in time of peace.—Whenever, by any of the Articles for the Government of the Navy of the United States, the punishment on conviction of an offense is left to the discretion of the court-martial, the punishment therefor shall not, in time of peace, be in excess of a limit which the President may prescribe. (R. S. § 1624, art. 63; Feb. 27, 1895, c. 137, 28 Stat. 689.)

DECK COURTS

Article 64 (a). Officers authorized to order.—All officers of the Navy and Marine Corps who are authorized to order either general or summary courts-martial may order deck courts upon enlisted men under their command, for minor offenses now triable by summary court-martial. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 586.)

(b) Constitution and powers.—Deck courts shall consist of one commissioned officer only, who, while serving in such capacity shall have power to administer oaths, to hear and determine cases, and to impose either a part or the whole, as may be appropriate, of any one of the punishments prescribed by article 30 of the Articles for the Government of the Navy: Provided, That in no case shall such courts adjudge discharge from the service or adjudge confinement of forfeiture of pay for a longer period than twenty days. (Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 2, 35 Stat. 621.)

(c) Recorder.—Any person in the Navy under command of the officer by whose order a deck court is convened may be detailed to act as recorder thereof. (Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 3, 35 Stat. 621.)

(d) Approval of sentence of deck court.—All sentences of deck courts may be carried into effect upon approval of the convening authority or his successor in office, who shall have full power as reviewing authority to remit or mitigate, but not to commute, any such sentence and to pardon any punishment such court may adjudge; but no sentence of a deck court shall be carried into effect until it shall have been so approved or mitigated. (Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, §§ 4, 17, 35 Stat. 621, 623.)

(e) Rules governing.—Deck courts shall be governed in all details of their constitution, powers, and procedure, except as herein provided, by such rules and regulations as the President may prescribe. (Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 5, 35 Stat. 621.)

(f) Records of proceedings; filing and review.—The records of the proceedings of deck courts shall contain such matters only as are necessary to enable the reviewing authorities to act intelligently thereon, except that if the party accused demands it within thirty days after the decision of the deck court shall become known to him, the entire record or so much as he desires shall be sent to the reviewing authority. Such records, after action thereon by the convening authority, shall be forwarded directly to, and shall be filed in, the office of the Judge Advocate General of the Navy, where they shall be reviewed, and, when necessary, submitted to the Secretary of the Navy for his action. (Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 6, 35 Stat. 621.)

(g) Objection to trial by deck court.—No person who objects thereto shall be brought to trial before a deck court. Where such objection is made by the person accused, trial shall be ordered by summary or by general court-martial, as may be appropriate. (Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 7, 35 Stat. 621.)

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Article 65. Personnel; eligibility of officers of auxiliary naval forces.—When actively serving under the Navy Department in time of war or during the existence of an emergency, pursuant to law, as a part of the naval forces of the United States, commissioned officers of the Naval Reserve, Marine Corps Reserve, Naval Militia, Coast Guard, Lighthouse Service, Coast and Geodetic Survey, and Public Health Service are empowered to serve on naval courts-martial and deck courts under such regulations necessary for the proper administration of justice and in the interests of the services involved, as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy. (Oct. 6, 1917, c. 93, 40 Stat. 393; July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 708; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, §§ 1, 28, 43 Stat. 1080, 1088.)

Article 66. Courts-martial and punishments in hospitals and hospital ships.—When empowered by the Secretary of the Navy pursuant to article 26 to order summary courts-martial, the commanding officer of a naval hospital or hospital ship shall be empowered to order such courts and deck courts, and inflict the punishments which the commandant of a naval vessel is authorized by law to inflict, upon all enlisted men of the naval service attached thereto, whether for duty or as patients. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 586.)

Article 67. Authority of officers of separate organization of marines.—When a force of marines is embarked on a naval vessel, or vessels, as a separate organization, not a part of the authorized complement thereof, the authority and powers of the officers of such separate organization of marines shall be the same as though such organization were serving at a navy yard on shore, but nothing herein shall be construed as impairing the paramount authority of the commanding officer of any naval vessel over the vessel under his command and all persons embarked thereon. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 586.)

Article 68. Depositions in naval courts.—The depositions of witnesses may be taken on reasonable notice to the opposite party, and when duly authenticated, may be put in evidence before naval courts, except in capital cases and cases where the punishment may be imprisonment or confinement for more than one year as follows:

First, depositions of civilian witnesses residing outside the State, Territory, or District in which a naval court is ordered to sit.

Second, depositions of persons in the naval or military service stationed or residing outside the State, Territory, or District in which a naval court is ordered to sit, or who are under orders to go outside of such State, Territory, or District.

Third, where such naval court is convened on board a vessel of the United States, or at a naval station not within any State, Territory, or District of the United States, the depositions of witnesses may be taken and used as herein provided whenever such witnesses reside or are stationed at such a distance from the place where said naval court is ordered to sit, or are about to go to such a distance as, in the judgment of the convening authority, would render it impracticable to secure their personal attendance. (Feb. 16, 1909, c. 131, § 16, 35 Stat. 622.)

Article 69. Oaths for purpose of naval justice, etc.—Judges advocate of naval general courts-martial and courts of inquiry, and all commanders in chief of naval squadrons, commandants of navy yards and stations, officers commanding vessels of the Navy, and recruiting officers of the Navy, and the adjutant and inspector, assistants adjutant and inspector, commanding officers, recruiting officers of the Marine Corps, and such other officers of the regular Navy and Marine Corps, of the Naval Reserve, and of the Marine Corps Reserve, as may be hereafter designated by the Secretary of the Navy, are authorized to administer oaths for the purposes of the administration of naval justice and for other purposes of naval administration. (Jan. 25, 1895, c. 45, 28 Stat. 639; Mar. 3, 1901, c. 834, 31 Stat. 1086; Mar. 4, 1917, c. 180, 39 Stat. 1171; July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 708; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 374, § 1, 43 Stat. 1080.)

Article 70. Investigations; oaths of witnesses.—Any officer of the Navy or Marine Corps detailed to conduct an investigation, and the recorder, and if there be none the presiding officer, of any naval board appointed for such purpose, shall have authority to administer an oath to any witness attending to testify or depose in the course of such investigation. (R. S. § 183; Feb. 13, 1911, c. 43, 36 Stat. 898.)

17. Custody of collections of exploring expeditions.
18. Commission to select Patent Office models for preservation and exhibition; expenses; report to Congress.
19. Disbursements for Patent Office.
20. Annual report of commissioner.

Section 1. Establishment.—There shall be in the Department of Commerce an office known as the Patent Office, where all records, books, models, drawings, specifications, and other papers and things pertaining to patents shall be safely kept and preserved. (R. S. § 475; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 12, 32 Stat. 830.)

2. Officers and employees.—There shall be in the Patent Office a Commissioner of Patents, one first assistant commissioner, one assistant commissioner, and five examiners in chief, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The first assistant commissioner and the assistant commissioner shall perform such duties pertaining to the office of commissioner as may be assigned to them, respectively, from time to time by the Commissioner of Patents. All other officers, clerks, and employees authorized by law for the office shall be appointed by the Secretary of Commerce upon the nomination of the Commissioner of Patents. (R. S. §§ 476, 477; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 12, 32 Stat. 830; May 4, 1909, c. 297, § 1, 35 Stat. 891; June 27, 1910, c. 297, § 1, 36 Stat. 514; Feb. 15, 1916, c. 22, §§ 1, 2, 39 Stat. 8; May 10, 1916, c. 117, § 1, 39 Stat. 101; May 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 8.)

3. Seal.—The seal provided for the Patent Office prior to July 8, 1870, shall be the seal of the office, with which letters patent and papers issued from the office shall be authenticated. (R. S. § 478.)

4. Restrictions on officers and employees of Patent Office as to interest in patents.—All officers and employees of the Patent Office shall be incapable, during the period for which they hold their appointments, to acquire or take, directly or indirectly, except by inheritance or bequest, any right or interest in any patent issued by the office. (R. S. § 480.)

5. Bonds of commissioner and chief clerk.—The Commissioner of Patents and the chief clerk, who shall be qualified to act as a principal examiner, before entering upon their duties, shall severally give bond, with sureties, to the Treasurer of the United States, the former in the sum of $10,000, and the latter in the sum of $5,000, conditioned for the faithful discharge of their respective duties, and that they shall render to the General Accounting Office a true account of all money received by virtue of their offices. (R. S. § 479; Mar. 4, 1909, c. 297, § 1, 35 Stat. 891.)

6. Duties of commissioner.—The Commissioner of Patents, under the direction of the Secretary of Commerce, shall superintend or perform all duties respecting the granting and issuing of patents directed by law; and he shall have charge of all books, records, papers, models, machines, and other things belonging to the Patent Office. He may, subject to the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, from time to time establish regulations, not inconsistent with law, for the conduct of proceedings in the Patent Office. (R. S. §§ 481, 483; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 12, 32 Stat. 830.)

7. Duties of examiners in chief.—The examiners in chief shall be persons of competent legal knowledge and scientific ability, whose duty it shall be, on the written petition of the appellant, to revise and determine upon the validity of the adverse decisions of examiners upon applications for patents, and for reissues of patents, and in interference cases; and, when required by the commissioner, they shall hear and report upon claims for extensions, and perform such other like duties as he may assign them. (R. S. § 482.)

10. Library.—There shall be purchased for the use of the Patent Office a library of such scientific works and periodicals, both foreign and American, as may aid the officers in the discharge of their duties, not exceeding the amount annually appropriated for that purpose. (R. S. § 486.)

11. Patent agents or attorneys; rules and regulations for; suspension or exclusion from practice.—The Commissioner of Patents, subject to the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, may prescribe rules and regulations governing the recognition of agents, attorneys, or other persons representing applicants or other parties before his office, and may require of such persons, agents, or attorneys, before being recognized as representatives of applicants or other persons, that they shall show that they are of good moral character and in good repute, are possessed of the necessary qualifications to enable them to render to applicants or other persons valuable service, and are likewise competent to advise and assist applicants or other persons in the presentation or prosecution of their applications or other business before the office. The Commissioner of Patents may, after notice and opportunity for a hearing, suspend or exclude, either generally or in any particular case, from further practice before his office any person, agent, or attorney shown to be incompetent or disreputable, or guilty of gross misconduct, or who refuses to comply with the said rules and regulations, or who shall, with intent to defraud in any manner, deceive, mislead, or threaten any applicant or prospective applicant, or other person having immediate or prospective business before the office, by word, circular, letter, or by advertising. The reasons for any such suspension or exclusion shall be duly recorded. The action of the commissioner may be reviewed upon the petition of the person so refused recognition or so suspended or excluded by the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia under such conditions and upon such proceedings as the said court may by its rules determine. (R. S. § 487; Feb. 18, 1922, c. 58, § 3, 42 Stat. 390.)

12. Printing of papers filed.—The Commissioner of Patents may require all papers filed in the Patent Office, if not correctly, legibly, and clearly written, to be printed at the cost of the party filing them. (R. S. § 488.)

13. Printing copies of claims, laws, decisions.—The Commissioner of Patents may print, or cause to be printed, copies of the claims of current issues, and copies of such laws, decisions, regulations, and circulars as may be necessary for the information of the public. (R. S. § 489.)

14. Certified copies of drawings of patents issued; fees.—Certified copies of drawings and specifications of patents issued may be furnished by the Commissioner of Patents to persons applying therefor upon payment of the rates for uncertified copies, and 25 cents additional for each certification. Nothing in sections 487 to 491 of Title 5 shall be so construed as to repeal the provisions of this section. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 541, § 1, 26 Stat. 939; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 370, § 5, 37 Stat. 498.)

15. Exchange of printed copies of patents with Canada.—The Commissioner of Patents of the United States is authorized to exchange with the Dominion of Canada, under such terms of contract as may by him be deemed practicable, printed copies of patents issued by the United States. (Jan. 14, 1915, No. 3, 38 Stat. 1221.)

16. Multigraphing headings of drawings for patented cases.—Headings of the drawings for patented cases may be multigraphed in the Patent Office for the purpose of photolithography. (June 5, 1924, c. 264, 43 Stat. 415; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1165.)

17. Custody of collections of exploring expedition.—The collections of the exploring expedition, now in the Patent Office, shall be under the care and management of the Commisioner of Patents. (R. S. § 495.)

18. Commission to select Patent Office models for preservation and exhibition; expenses; report to Congress.—A commission to consist of the Commissioner of Patents and the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, or their representatives, and a patent attorney duly registered as such in the Patent Office, the latter to be designated by the Commissioner of Patents, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, is created to select such of the Patent Office models and exhibition exhibits as may be deemed to be of value and of historical interest, and thereafter store or place the same on exhibition in the Patent Office or the National Museum, and cause the remainder of the said models and exhibits to be disposed of by public auction, gift to Federal, State, or private museums or institutions, or returned without expense to the Government to the original depositors or their representatives, where demanded in writing by them, or destroyed, as the commission may determine.

The Commissioner of Patents is authorized to pay necessary drayage and all other expenses incident to handling and removing the said models and exhibits and to employ per diem employees in such numbers and at such times as he may determine, and pay each of the said employees at a rate of compensation not to exceed $5 per day, such employees to be engaged upon the work of uncrating, removing, crating, storing, listing, sorting, and otherwise handling said models and exhibits.

All actions and expenditures herein authorized shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of Commerce.

A report shall be made to Congress of the action of the commission hereunder. (Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 12, 32 Stat. 830; Feb. 13, 1925, c. 230, 43 Stat. 942.)

19. Disbursements for Patent Office.—Disbursements for the Patent Office shall be made by the disbursing clerk of the Department of Commerce. (R. S. § 496; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 12, 32 Stat. 830.)

20. Annual report of commissioner.—The Commissioner of Patents shall lay before Congress, in the month of January, annually, a report, giving a detailed statement of all moneys received for patents, for copies of records or drawings, or from any other source whatever; a detailed statement of all expenditures for contingent and miscellaneous expenses; a list of all patents which were granted during the preceding year, designating under proper heads the subjects of such patents; an alphabetical list of all the patentees, with their places of residence; a list of all patents which have been extended during the year; and such other information of the condition of the Patent Office as may be useful to Congress or the public. (R. S. § 494.)

82. Certain manufacturing, etc., rights not abridged.
83. Applications executed by agents between August 1, 1914, and June 15, 1920.
84. Applications subscribed before consular officers since August 1, 1914, etc.
85. Rights as to inventions made while serving abroad with United State forces during World War.
86. Claims under patent rights owned by alien enemies.
87. Special war measures not affected.
88. Mistake in registration of patent; certificate thereof issued by Patent Office; effect.

INVENTIONS PATENTABLE

Section 31. Inventions patentable.—Any person who has invented or discovered any new and useful art, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvements thereof, not known or used by others in this country, before his invention or discovery thereof, and not patented or described in any printed publication in this or any foreign country, before his invention or discovery thereof, or more than two years prior to his application, and not in public use or on sale in this country for more than two years prior to his application, unless the same is proved to have been abandoned, may, upon payment of the fees required by law, and other due proceeding had, obtain a patent therefor. (R. S. § 4886; Mar. 3, 1897, c 391, § 1, 29 Stat. 692.)

32. Inventions previously patented abroad.—No person otherwise entitled thereto shall be debarred from receiving a patent for his invention or discovery, nor shall any patent be declared invalid by reason of its having been first patented or caused to be patented by the inventor or his legal representatives or assigns in a foreign country, unless the application for said foreign patent was filed more than twelve months, in cases within the provisions of section 31 of this title, and four months in cases of designs, prior to the filing of the application in this country, in which case no patent shall be granted in this country.

An application for patent for an invention or discovery or for a design filed in this country by any person who has previously regularly filed an application for a patent for the same invention, discovery, or design in a foreign country which, by treaty, convention, or law, affords similar privileges to citizens of the United States shall have the same force and effect as the same application would have if filed in this country on the date on which the application for patent for the same invention, discovery, or design was first filed in such foreign country, provided the application in this country is filed within twelve months in cases within the provisions of section 31 of this title, and within four months in cases of designs, from the earliest date on which any such foreign application was filed. But no patent shall be granted on an application for patent for an invention or discovery or a design which had been patented or described in a printed publication in this or any foreign country more than two years before the date of the actual filing of the application in this country, or which had been in public use or on sale in this country for more than two years prior to such filing. (R. S. § 4887; Mar. 3, 1897, c. 391, § 3, 29 Stat. 693; Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1019, § 1, 32 Stat. 1225.)

GENERAL PROVISIONS GOVERNING APPLICATION FOR AND ISSUE OF PATENTS

33. Application for patent; description; specification and claim.—Before any inventor or discoverer shall receive a patent for his invention or discovery he shall make application therefor, in writing, to the Commissioner of Patents, and shall file in the Patent Office a written description of the same, and of the manner and process of making, constructing, compounding, and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art or science to which it appertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make, construct, compound, and use the same; and in case of a machine, he shall explain the principle thereof, and the best mode in which he has contemplated applying that principle, so as to distinguish it from other inventions; and he shall particularly point out and distinctly claim the part, improvement, or combination which he claims as his invention or discovery. The specification and claim shall be signed by the inventor. (R. S. § 4888; Mar. 3, 1915, c. 94, § 1, 38 Stat. 958.)

34. Same; drawings, specimen of ingredients or models to accompany.—When the nature of the case admits of drawings, the applicant shall furnish one copy signed by the inventor or his attorney in fact, which shall be filed in the Patent Office; and a copy of the drawing to be furnished by the Patent Office, shall be attached to the patent as a part of the specification. When the invention or discovery is of a composition of matter, the applicant, if required by the commissioner, shall furnish specimens of ingredients and of the composition, sufficient in quantity for the purpose of experiment. In all cases which admit of representation by model, the applicant, if required by the commissioner, shall furnish a model of convenient size to exhibit advantageously the several parts of his invention or discovery. (R. S. §§ 4889 to 4891; Mar. 3, 1915, c. 94, § 2, 38 Stat. 959.)

35. Same; oath of applicant.—The applicant shall make oath that he does verily believe himself to be the original and first inventor or discoverer of the art, machine, manufacture, composition, or improvement for which he solicits a patent; that he does not know and does not believe that the same was ever before known or used; and shall state of what country he is a citizen. Such oath may be made before any person within the United States authorized by law to administer oaths, or, when the applicant resides in a foreign country, before any minister, chargé d'affaires, consul, or commercial agent holding commission under the Government of the United States, or before any notary public, judge, or magistrate having an official seal and authorized to administer oaths in the foreign country in which the applicant may be, whose authority shall be proved by certificate of a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States. (R. S. § 4892; Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1019, § 2, 32 Stat. 1226.)

36. Same; examination of invention, and issuing of patent.—On the filing of any such application and the payment of the fees required by law, the Commissioner of Patents shall cause an examination to be made of the alleged new invention or discovery; and, if on such examination it shall appear that the claimant is justly entitled to a patent under the law, and that the same is sufficiently useful and important, the commissioner shall issue a patent therefor. (R. S. § 4893.)

37. Time of completing application; applications regarded abandoned.—All applications for patents shall be completed and prepared for examination within one year after the filing of the application, and in default thereof, or upon failure of the applicant to prosecute the same within one year after any action therein, of which notice shall have been given to the applicant, they shall be regarded as abandoned by the parties thereto, unless it be shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Patents that such delay was unavoidable. No application shall be regarded as abandoned which has become the property of the Government of the United States and with respect to which the head of any department of the Government shall have certified to the Commissioner of Patents, within a period of three years, that the invention disclosed therein is important to the armament or defense of the United States. Within ninety days, and not less than thirty days, before the expiration of any such three-year period the Commissioner of Patents shall, in writing, notify the head of the department interested in any pending application for patent, of the approaching expiration of the three-year period within which any application for patent shall have been pending. (R. S. § 4894; Mar. 3, 1897, c. 391, § 4, 29 Stat. 693; July 6, 1916, c. 225, § 1, 39 Stat. 348.)

38. Renewal of application in cases of failure to pay fees in season.—Any person who has an interest in an invention or discovery, whether as inventor, discoverer, or assignee, for which a patent was ordered to issue upon the payment of the final fee, but who fails to make payment thereof within six months from the time at which it was passed and allowed, and notice thereof was sent to the applicant or his agent, shall have a right to make an application for a patent for such invention or discovery the same as in the case of an original application. But such second application must be made within two years after the allowance of the original application. But no person shall be held responsible in damages for the manufacture or use of any article or thing for which a patent was ordered to issue under such renewed application prior to the issue of the patent. And upon the hearing of renewed applications preferred under this section, abandonment shall be considered as a question of fact. (R. S. § 4897.)

39. Patents, how issued, attested, and recorded.—All patents shall be issued in the name of the United States of America, under the seal of the Patent Office, and shall either be signed by the Commissioner of Patents or have his name printed thereon and attested by an Assistant Commissioner of Patents or by one of the law examiners duly designated by the commissioner, and shall be recorded, together with the specifications, in the Patent Office in books to be kept for that purpose. (R. S. § 4883; Feb. 18, 1888, c. 15, 25 Stat. 40; Apr. 11, 1902, c. 417, 32 Stat. 95; Feb. 18, 1922, c. 58, § 5, 42 Stat. 391.)

40. Same; contents and duration.—Every patent shall contain a short title or description of the invention or discovery, correctly indicating its nature and design, and a grant to the patentee, his heirs or assigns, for the term of seventeen years, of the exclusive right to make, use, and vend the invention or discovery throughout the United States, and the Territories thereof, referring to the specification for the particulars thereof. A copy of the specification and drawings shall be annexed to the patent and be a part thereof. (R. S. § 4884.)

41. Same; time of issue; payment of final fee; withholding patent.—Every patent shall issue within a period of three months from the date of the payment of the final fee, which fee shall be paid not later than six months from the time at which the application was passed and allowed and notice thereof was sent to the applicant or his agent; and if the final fee is not paid within that period the patent shall be withheld. (R. S. § 4885; May 23, 1908, c. 189, 35 Stat. 246.)

42. Same; publication of inventions during war; compensation for war-time use of invention tendered to the United States.—Whenever during a time when the United States is at war the publication of an invention by the granting of a patent might, in the opinion of the Commissioner of Patents, be detrimental to the public safety or defense or might assist the enemy or endanger the successful prosecution of the war he may order that the invention be kept secret and withhold the grant of a patent until the termination of the war. The invention disclosed in the application for said patent may be held abandoned upon it being established before or by the commissioner that in violation of said order said invention has been published or that an application for a patent therefor has been filed in a foreign country by the inventor or his assigns or legal representatives, without the consent or approval of the Commissioner of Patents, or under a license of the Secretary of Commerce as provided by law.

When an applicant whose patent is withheld as herein provided and who faithfully obeys the order of the Commissioner of Patents above referred to shall tender his invention to the Government of the United States for its use, he shall, if and when he ultimately received a patent, have the right to sue for compensation in the Court of Claims, such right to compensation to begin from date of the use of the invention by the Government. (Oct. 6, 1917, c. 95, 40 Stat. 394.)

43. Same; representation of heads of departments requesting expedition of patents.—In every case where the head of any department of the Government shall request the Commissioner of Patents to expedite the consideration of an application for a patent it shall be the duty of such head of a department to be represented before the commissioner in order to prevent the improper issue of a patent. (Mar. 3, 1897, c. 391, § 7, 29 Stat. 694.)

44. Same; issue to assignee.—Patents may be granted and issued or reissued to the assignee of the inventor or discoverer; but the assignment must first be entered of record in the Patent Office. And in all cases of an application by an assignee for the issue of a patent, the application shall be made and the specification sworn to by the inventor or discovered; and in all cases of an application for a reissue of any patent, the application must be made and the corrected specification signed by the inventor or discoverer, if he is living, unless the patent was issued and the assignment made before the 8th day of July, 1870. (R. S. § 4895.)

45. Same; issue to Government officers for inventions used in public service.—The Secretary of Commerce and the Commissioner of Patents are authorized to grant any officer of the Government, except officers and employees of the Patent Office, a patent for any invention of the classes mentioned in section 31 of this title, when such invention is used or to be used in the public service, without the payment of any fee. The applicant in his application shall state that the invention described therein, if patented, may be used by the Government or any of its officers or employees in the prosecution of work for the Government, or by any other person in the United States, without the payment to him of any royalty thereon, which stipulation shall be included in the patent. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 143, 22 Stat. 625; Feb. 14, 1903, c. 552, § 12, 32 Stat. 830.)

46. Death or insanity of inventor or person making discovery.—When any person, having made any new invention or discovery for which a patent might have been granted, dies before a patent is granted the right of applying for and obtaining the patent shall devolve on his executor or administrator, in trust for the heirs at law of the deceased, in case he shall have died intestate; or if he shall have left a will disposing of the same, then in trust for his devisees in as full manner and on the same terms and conditions as the same might have been claimed or enjoyed by him in his lifetime; and when any person having made any new invention or discovery for which a patent might have been granted becomes insane before a patent is granted the right of applying for and obtaining the patent shall devolve on his legally appointed guardian, conservator, or representative in trust for his estate in as full manner and on the same terms and conditions as the same might have been claimed or enjoyed by him while sane; and when the application is made by such legal representatives the oath or affirmation required to be made shall be so varied in form that it can be made by them. The executor or administrator duly authorized under the law of any foreign country to administer upon the estate of the deceased inventor shall, in case the said inventor was not domiciled in the United States at the time of his death, have the right to apply for and obtain the patent. The authority of such foreign executor or administrator shall be proved by certificate of a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States. (R. S. § 4896; Feb. 28, 1899, c. 227, 30 Stat. 915; Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1019, § 3, 32 Stat. 1226; May 23, 1908, c. 188, 35 Stat. 245.)

47. Assignments of patents; evidence of execution.—Every patent or any interest therein shall be assignable in law by an instrument in writing, and the patentee or his assigns or legal representatives may in like manner grant and convey an exclusive right under his patent to the whole or any specified part of the United States. An assignment, grant, or conveyance shall be void as against any subsequent purchaser or mortgagee for a valuable consideration, without notice, unless it is recorded in the Patent Office within three months from the date thereof or prior to such subsequent purchase or mortgage.

If any such assignment, grant, or conveyance of any patent shall be acknowledged before any notary public of the several States or Territories or the District of Columbia, or any commissioner of any court of the United States for any District or Territory, or before any secretary of legation or consular officer authorized to administer oaths or perform notarial acts under section 131 of Title 22, the certificate of such acknowledgment, under the hand and official seal of such notary or other officer, shall be prima facie evidence of the execution of such assignment, grant, or conveyance. (R. S. § 4898; Mar. 3, 1897, c. 391, § 5, 29 Stat. 692; Feb. 18, 1922, c. 58, § 6, 42 Stat. 391.)

48. Use or sale by persons purchasing of inventor, before application.—Every person who purchases of the inventor, or discoverer, or with his knowledge and consent constructs any newly invented or discovered machine, or other patentable article, prior to the application by the inventor or discoverer for a patent, or who sells or uses one so constructed, shall have the right to use, and vend to others to be used, the specific thing so made or purchased, without liability therefor. (R. S. § 4899.)

49. Patented articles marked as such; notice of infringement.—It shall be the duty of all patentees, and their assigns and legal representatives, and of all persons making or vending any patented article for or under them, to give sufficient notice to the public that the same is patented; either by fixing thereon the word "patented," together with the day and year the patent was granted; or when, from the character of the article, this can not be done, by fixing to it, or to the package wherein one or more of them is inclosed, a label containing the like notice; and in any suit for infringement, by the party failing so to mark, no damages shall be recovered by the plaintiff, except on proof that the defendant was duly notified of the infringement, and continued, after such notice, to make, use, or vend the article so patented. (R. S. § 4900.)

50. Falsely marking or labeling articles; penalty.—Every person who, in any manner, marks upon anything made, used, or sold by him for which he has not obtained a patent, the name or any imitation of the name of any person who has obtained a patent therefor without the consent of such patentee, or his assigns or legal representatives; or

Who, in any manner, marks upon or affixes to any such patented article the word "patent" or "patentee," or the words "letters patent," or any word of like import, with intent to imitate or counterfeit the mark or device of the patentee, without having the license or consent of such patentee or his assigns or legal representatives; or

Who, in any manner, marks upon or affixes to any unpatented article the word "patent," or any word importing that the same is patented, for the purpose of deceiving the public, shall be liable, for every such offense, to a penalty of not less than $100, with costs; one-half of said penalty to the person who shall sue for the same, and the other to the use of the United States, to be recovered by suit in any district court of the United States within whose jurisdiction such offense may have been committed. (R. S. § 4901.)

51. Notice of rejection of claim.—Whenever, on examination, any claim for a patent is rejected, the commissioner shall notify the applicant thereof, giving him briefly the reasons for such rejection, together with such information and references as may be useful in judging of the propriety of renewing his application or of altering his specification; and if, after receiving such notice, the applicant persists in his claim for a patent, with or without altering his specifications, the commissioner shall order a reexamination of the case. (R. S. § 4903.)

52. Interferences; determination of priority; issue of patent.—Whenever an application is made for a patent which, in the opinion of the commissioner, would interfere with any pending application, or with any unexpired patent, he shall give notice thereof to the applicants, or applicant and patentee, as the case may be, and shall direct the primary examiner to proceed to determine the question of priority of invention. And the commissioner may issue a patent to the party who is adjudged the prior inventor, unless the adverse party appeals from the decision of the primary examiner, or of the board of examiners in chief, as the case may be, within such time, not less than twenty days, as the commissioner shall prescribe. (R. S. § 4904.)

53. Affidavits and depositions.—The Commissioner of Patents may establish rules for taking affidavits and depositions required in cases pending in the Patent Office, and such affidavits and depositions may be taken before any officer authorized by law to take depositions to be used in the courts of the United States, or of the State where the officer resides. (R. S. § 4905.)

54. Subpœnas to witnesses; subpœnas duces tecum.—The clerk of any court of the United States, for any district or Territory wherein testimony is to be taken for use in any contested case pending in the Patent Office, shall, upon the application of any party thereto, or of his agent or attorney, issue a subpœna for any witness residing or being within such district or Territory, commanding him to appear and testify before any officer in such district or Territory authorized to take depositions and affidavits at any time and place in the subpœna stated. But no witness shall be required to attend at any place more than forty miles from the place where the subpœna is served upon him; and the provisions of section 647 of Title 28 relating to the issuance of subpœnas duces tecum shall apply to contested cases in the Patent Office. (R. S. § 4906; Feb. 18, 1922, c. 58, § 7, 42 Stat. 391.)

55. Witness fees.—Every witness duly subpœnaed and in attendance shall be allowed the same fees as are allowed to witnesses attending the courts of the United States. (R. S. § 4907.)

56. Failing to attend or refusing to testify.—Whenever any witness, after being duly served with such subpœna, neglects or refuses to appear, or after appearing refuses to testify, the judge of the court whose clerk issued the subpœna may, on proof of such neglect or refusal, enforce obedience to the process, or punish the disobedience, as in other like cases. But no witness shall be deemed guilty of contempt for disobeying such subpœna, unless his fees and traveling expenses in going to, returning from, and one day's attendance at the place of examination, are paid or tendered him at the time of the service of the subpœna; nor for refusing to disclose any secret invention or discovery made or owned by himself. (R. S. § 4908.)

APPEALS IN PATENT CASES AND DEFECTIVE PATENTS

57. Appeals; from primary examiners to examiners in chief.—Every applicant for a patent or for the reissue of a patent, any of the claims of which have been twice rejected, and every party to an interference, may appeal from the decision of the primary examiner, or of the examiner in charge of interferences in such case, to the board of examiners in chief; having once paid the fee for such appeal. (R. S. § 4909.)

58. Same; from examiners in chief to commissioner.—If such party is dissatisfied with the decision of the examiners in chief, he may, on payment of the fee prescribed, appeal to the commissioner in person. (R. S. § 4910.)

59. Same; from commissioner.—The determination of appeals from the decision of the Commissioner of Patents is vested in the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia; and in addition, any party aggrieved by a decision of the Commissioner of Patents in any interference case may appeal therefrom to said court of appeals. (Feb. 9, 1893, c. 74, § 9, 27 Stat. 436.)

60. Same; notice of appeal from decision of commissioner.—When an appeal is taken to the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, the appellant shall give notice thereof to the commissioner, and file in the Patent Office, within such time as the commissioner shall appoint, his reasons of appeal, specifically set forth in writing. (R. S. § 4912.)

61. Same; proceedings on appeal from decision of commissioner.—The court shall, before hearing such appeal, give notice to the commissioner of the time and place of the hearing, and on receiving such notice the commissioner shall give notice of such time and place in such manner as the court may prescribe, to all parties who appear to be interested therein. The party appealing shall lay before the court certified copies of all the original papers and evidence in the case, and the commissioner shall furnish the court with the grounds of his decision, fully set forth in writing, touching all the points involved by the reasons of appeal. And at the request of any party interested, or of the court, the commissioner and the examiners may be examined under oath, in explanation of the principles of the thing for which a patent is demanded. (R. S. § 4913.)

62. Same; determination of appeal; revision of former decision.—The court, on petition, shall hear and determine such appeal, and revise the decision appealed from in a summary way, on the evidence produced before the commissioner, at such early and convenient time as the court may appoint; and the revision shall be confined to the points set forth in the reasons of appeal. After hearing the case the court shall return to the commissioner a certificate of its proceedings and decision, which shall be entered of record in the Patent Office, and shall govern the further proceedings in the case. But no opinion or decision of the court in any such case shall preclude any person interested from the right to contest the validity of such patent in any court wherein the same may be called in question. (R. S. § 4914.)

63. Bill in equity to obtain patent.—Whenever a patent on application is refused, either by the Commissioner of Patents or by the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia upon appeal from the commissioner, the applicant may have remedy by bill in equity; and the court having cognizance thereof, on notice to adverse parties and other due proceedings had, may adjudge that such applicant is entitled, according to law, to receive a patent for his invention, as specified in his claim, or for any part thereof, as the facts in the case may appear. And such adjudication, if it be in favor of the right of the applicant, shall authorize the commissioner to issue such patent on the applicant filing in the Patent Office a copy of the adjudication, and otherwise complying with the requirements of law. In all cases, where there is no opposing party, a copy of the bill shall be served on the commissioner; and all the expenses of the proceeding shall be paid by the applicant, whether the final decision is in his favor or not. (R. S. § 4915.)

64. Reissue of defective patents; patents for separate parts.—Whenever any patent is inoperative or invalid, by reason of a defective or insufficient specification, or by reason of the patentee claiming as his own invention or discovery more than he had a right to claim as new, if the error has arisen by inadvertence, accident, or mistake, and without any fraudulent or deceptive intention, the commissioner shall, on the surrender of such patent and the payment of the duty required by law, cause a new patent for the same invention, and in accordance with the corrected specification, to be issued to the patentee, or, in the case of his death or of an assignment of the whole or any undivided part of the original patent, then to his executors, administrators, or assigns, for the unexpired part of the term of the original patent. Such surrender shall take effect upon the issue of the amended patent. The commissioner may, in his discretion, cause several patents to be issued for distinct and separate parts of the thing patented, upon demand of the applicant, and upon payment of the required fee for a reissue for each of such reissued letters patent. The specifications and claim in every such case shall be subject to revision and restriction in the same manner as original applications are. Every patent so reissued, together with the corrected specification, shall have the same effect and operation in law, on the trial of all actions for causes thereafter arising, as if the same had been originally filed in such corrected form; but no new matter shall be introduced into the specification, nor in case of a machine patent shall the model or drawings be amended, except each by the other; but when there is neither model nor drawing, amendments may be made upon proof satisfactory to the commissioner that such new matter or amendment was a part of the original invention, and was omitted from the specification by inadvertence, accident, or mistake, as aforesaid. (R. S. § 4916.)

PROTECTION OF PATENT RIGHTS

65. Disclaimer.—Whenever, through inadvertence, accident, or mistake, and without any fraudulent or deceptive intention, a patentee has claimed more than that of which he was the original or first inventor or discoverer, his patent shall be valid for all that part which is truly and justly his own, provided the same is a material or substantial part of the thing patented; and any such patentee, his heirs or assigns, whether of the whole or any sectional interest therein, may, on payment of the fee required by law, make disclaimor of such parts of the thing patented as he shall not choose to claim or to hold by virtue of the patent or assignment, stating therein the extent of his interest in such patent. Such disclaimor shall be in writing, attested by one or more witnesses, and recorded in the Patent Office; and it shall thereafter be considered as part of the original specification to the extent of the interest possessed by the claimant and by those claiming under him after the record thereof. But no such disclaimer shall affect any action pending at the time of its being filed, except so far as may relate to the question of unreasonable neglect or delay in filing it. (R. S. § 4917.)

66. Interfering patents; relief against.—Whenever there are interfering patents, any person interested in any one of them, or in the working of the invention claimed under either of them, may have relief against the interfering patentee, and all parties interested under him, by suit in equity against the owners of the interfering patent; and the court, on notice to adverse parties, and other due proceedings had according to the course of equity, may adjudge and declare either of the patents void in whole or in part, or inoperative, or invalid in any particular part of the United States, according to the interest of the parties in the patent or the invention patented. But no such judgment or adjudication shall affect the right of any person except the parties to the suit and those deriving title under them subsequent to the rendition of such judgment. (R. S. § 4918.)

67. Infringement of patent; damages for.—Damages for the infringement of any patent may be recovered by action on the case, in the name of the party interested, either as patentee, assignee, or grantee. And whenever in any such action a verdict is rendered for the plaintiff, the court may enter judgment thereon for any sum above the amount found by the verdict as the actual damages sustained, according to the circumstances of the case, not exceeding three times the amount of such verdict, together with the costs. (R. S. § 4919.)

68. Suit for unlicensed use of invention by the United States; compensation for; Government employees.—Whenever an invention described in and covered by a patent of the United States shall be used or manufactured by or for the United States without license of the owner thereof or lawful right to use or manufacture the same, such owner's remedy shall be by suit against the United States in the Court of Claims for the recovery of his reasonable and entire compensation for such use and manufacture. The Court of Claims shall not entertain a suit or award compensation under the provisions of this section where the claim for compensation is based on the use or manufacture by or for the United States of any article owned, leased, used by, or in the possession of the United States prior to June 25, 1910. In any such suit the United States may avail itself of any and all defenses, general or special, that might be pleaded by a defendant in an action for infringement, as set forth in this chapter, or otherwise. The benefits of the provisions of this section shall not inure to any patentee who, when he makes such claim, is in the employment or service of the Government of the United States, or the assignee of any such patentee. This section shall not apply to any device discovered or invented by such employee during the time of his employment or service. (June 25, 1910, c. 423, 36 Stat. 851; July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 705.)

69. Pleading and proof in actions for infringement.—In any action for infringement the defendant may plead the general issue, and, having given notice in writing to the plaintiff or his attorney thirty days before, may prove on trial any one or more of the following special matters:

First. That for the purpose of deceiving the public the description and specification filed by the patentee in the Patent Office was made to contain less than the whole truth relative to his invention or discovery, or more than is necessary to produce the desired effect; or,

Second. That he had surreptitiously or unjustly obtained the patent for that which was in fact invented by another, who was using reasonable diligence in adapting and perfecting the same; or,

Third. That it has been patented or described in some printed publication prior to his supposed invention or discovery thereof, or more than two years prior to his application for a patent therefor; or,

Fourth. That he was not the original and first inventor or discoverer or any material and substantial part of the thing patented; or,

Fifth. That it had been in public use or on sale in this country for more than two years before his application for a patent, or had been abandoned to the public.

And in notices as to proof of previous invention, knowledge, or use of the thing patented, the defendant shall state the names of the patentees and the dates of their patents, and when granted, and the names and residences of the persons alleged to have invented or to have had the prior knowledge of the thing patented, and where and by whom it had been used; and if any one or more of the special matters alleged shall be found for the defendant, judgment shall be rendered for him with costs. And the like defenses may be pleaded in any suit in equity for relief against an alleged infringement; and proofs of the same may be given upon like notice in the answer of the defendant, and with the like effect. (R. S. § 4920; Mar. 3, 1897, c. 391, § 2, 29 Stat. 692.)

70. Power of courts to grant injunctions and estimate damages; assessment of damages and profits; increase of damages; limitation on recovery of damages or profits; notice to commissioner of suits filed and decrees rendered.—The several courts vested with jurisdiction of cases arising under the patent laws shall have power to grant injunctions according to the course and principles of courts of equity, to prevent the violation of any right secured by patent, on such terms as the court may deem reasonable; and upon a decree being rendered in any such case for an infringement the complainant shall be entitled to recover, in addition to the profits to be accounted for by the defendant, the damages the complainant has sustained thereby, and the court shall assess the same or cause the same to be assessed under its direction. If on the proofs it shall appear that the complainant has suffered damage from the infringement or that the defendant has realized profits therefrom to which the complainant is justly entitled, but that such damages or profits are not susceptible of calculation and determination with reasonable certainty, the court may, on evidence tending to establish the same, in its discretion, receive opinion or expert testimony, which is hereby declared to be competent and admissible, subject to the general rules of evidence applicable to this character of testimony; and upon such evidence and all other evidence in the record the court may adjudge and decree the payment by the defendant to the complainant of a reasonable sum as profits or general damages for the infringement. The court shall have the same power to increase such damages, in its discretion, as is given to increase the damages found by verdicts in actions in the nature of actions of trespass upon the case; but in any suit or action brought for the infringement of any patent there shall be no recovery of profits or damages for any infringement committed more than six years before the filing of the bill of complaint or the issuing of the writ in such suit or action. And it shall be the duty of the clerks of such courts within one month after the filing of any action, suit, or proceeding arising under the patent laws to give notice thereof in writing to the Commissioner of Patents, setting forth in order so far as known the names and addresses of the litigants, names of the inventors, and the designating number or numbers of the patent or patents upon which the action, suit, or proceeding has been brought, and in the event any other patent or patents be subsequently included in the action, suit, or proceeding by amendment, answer, cross bill, or other pleading, the clerk shall give like notice thereof to the Commissioner of Patents, and within one month after the decision is rendered or a decree issued the clerk of the court shall give notice thereof to the Commissioner of Patents, and it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Patents on receipt of such notice forthwith to indorse the same upon the file wrapper of the said patent or patents and to incorporate the same as a part of the contents of said file or file wrapper; and for each notice required to be furnished to the Commissioner of Patents in compliance herewith a fee of 50 cents shall be taxed by the clerk as costs of suit. (R. S. § 4921; Mar. 3, 1897, c. 391, § 6, 29 Stat. 694; Feb. 18, 1922, c. 58, § 8, 42 Stat. 392.)

71. Suit for infringement where specification too broad.—Whenever, through inadvertence, accident, or mistake, and without any willful default or intent to defraud or mislead the public, a patentee has, in his specification, claimed to be the original and first inventor or discoverer of any material or substantial part of the thing patented, of which he was not the original and first inventor or discoverer, every such patentee, his executors, administrators, and assigns, whether of the whole or any sectional interest in the patent, may maintain a suit at law or in equity, for the infringement of any part thereof, which was bona fide his own, if it is a material and substantial part of the thing patented, and definitely distinguishable from the parts claimed without right, notwithstanding the specifications may embrace more than that of which the patentee was the first inventor or discoverer. But in every such case in which a judgment or decree shall be rendered for the plaintiff no costs shall be recovered unless the proper disclaimer has been entered at the Patent Office before the commencement of the suit. But no patentee shall be entitled to the benefits of this section if he has unreasonably neglected or delayed to enter a disclaimer. (R. S. § 4922.)

72. Patent not void for previous use of thing in foreign country.—Whenever it appears that a patentee, at the time of making his application for the patent, believed himself to be the original and first inventor or discoverer of the thing patented, the same shall not be held to be void on account of the invention or discovery, or any part thereof, having been known or used in a foreign country, before his invention or discovery thereof, if it had not been patented or described in a printed publication. (R. S. § 4923.)

DESIGN PATENTS

73. Patents for designs; how obtained; regulations applicable.—Any person who has invented any new, original, and ornamental design for an article of manufacture, not known or used by others in this country before his invention thereof, and not patented or described in any printed publication in this or any foreign country before his invention thereof, or more than two years prior to his application, and not in public use or on sale in this country for more than two years prior to his application, unless the same is proved to have been abandoned, may, upon payment of the fees required by law and other due proceedings had, the same as in cases of inventions or discoveries covered by section 31 of this title, obtain a patent therefor.

All the regulations and provisions which apply to obtaining or protecting patents for inventions or discoveries not inconsistent with the provisions of this title, shall apply to patents for designs. (R. S. §§ 4929, 4933; May 9, 1902, c. 783, 39 Stat. 193.)

74. Same; penalty for unauthorized use; injunction to restrain infringement.—During the term of letters patent for a design, it shall be unlawful for any person other than the owner of said letters patent, without the license of such owner, to apply the design secured by such letters patent, or any colorable imitation thereof, to any article of manufacture for the purpose of sale, or to sell or expose for sale any article of manufacture to which such design or colorable imitation shall, without the license of the owner, have been applied, knowing that the same has been so applied. Any person violating the provisions, or either of them, of this section, shall be liable in the amount of $250; and in case the total profit made by him from the manufacture or sale, as aforesaid, of the article or articles to which the design, or colorable imitation thereof, has been applied, exceeds the sum of $250, he shall be further liable for the excess of such profit over and above the sum of $250. And the full amount of such liability may be recovered by the owner of the letters patent, to his own use, in any district court of the United States having jurisdiction of the parties, either by action at law or upon a bill in equity for an injunction to restrain such infringement. (Feb. 4, 1887, c. 105, § 1, 24 Stat. 387.)

75. Same; remedy by existing law not impaired, but owner not to recover twice.—Nothing in section 74 of this title contained shall prevent, lessen, impeach, or avoid any remedy at law or in equity which any owner of letters patent for a design, aggrieved by the infringement of the same, might have had if said section 74 had not been passed; but such owner shall not twice recover the profit made from the infringement. (Feb. 4, 1887, c. 105, § 2, 24 Stat. 388.)

76. Same; drawings or photographs in lieu of models.—The commissioner may dispense with models or designs when the design can be sufficiently represented by drawings or photographs. (R. S. § 4930.)

77. Same; duration.—Patents for designs may be granted for the term of three years and six months, or for seven years, or for fourteen years, as the applicant may, in his application, elect. (R. S. § 4931.)

PATENT FEES

78. Patent fees.—The following shall be the rates for patent fees:

On filing each original application for a patent, except in design cases, $20.

On issuing each original patent, except in design cases, $20.

In design cases: For three years and six months, $10; for seven years, $15; for fourteen years, $30.

On every application for the reissue of a patent, $30.

On filing each disclaimer, $10.

On an appeal for the first time from the primary examiners to the examiners in chief, $10.

On every appeal from the examiners in chief to the commissioner, $20.

For uncertified printed copies of specifications and drawings of patents, 10 cents per copy: Provided, That the Commissioner of Patents may supply public libraries of the United States with such copies as published, for $50 per annum: Provided further, That the Commissioner of Patents may exchange copies of United States patents for those of foreign countries.

For copies of records made by the Patent Office, excluding printed copies, 10 cents per hundred words.

For each certificate, 25 cents.

For recording every assignment, agreement, power of attorney, or other paper of three hundred words or under, $1; of over three hundred and under one thousand words, $2; and for each additional thousand words or fraction thereof, $1; for each additional patent or application included or involved in one writing, where more than one is so included or involved, 25 cents additional.

For copies of drawings, the reasonable cost of making them.

Nothing in sections 487 to 491 of Title 5 shall be so construed as to repeal the provisions of this section. (R. S. §§ 493, 4934; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 541, § 1, 26 Stat. 939; May 19, 1896, c. 204, 29 Stat. 124; May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 343; June 25, 1910, c. 414, § 2, 36 Stat. 843; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 370, § 5, 37 Stat. 498; Nov. 4, 1919, c. 93, § 1, 41 Stat. 335; Feb. 18, 1922, c. 58, § 9, 42 Stat. 393.)

79. Same; disposition of; return of excess fees.—All patent fees shall be paid to the Commissioner of Patents, who shall give the depositor a receipt or certificate of deposit therefor and shall deposit the same in the Treasury of the United States in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury shall direct, and said commissioner is authorized to pay back any sum or sums of money paid to him by any person by mistake or in excess of the fee required by law. (R. S. §§ 4935, 4936; Mar. 6, 1920, c. 94, § 1, 41 Stat. 512.)

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS; CERTIFICATES CORRECTING MISTAKES

80. Certain priority rights for filing applications extended.—The rights of priority provided by section 32 of this title, for the filing of applications for patent for inventions and designs, which rights had not expired on the 1st day of August, 1914, or which rights have arisen since the 1st day of August, 1914, are extended until the expiration of a period of six months from March 3, 1921, in favor of the citizens of the United States or citizens or subjects of all countries which have extended, or which now extend, or which within said period of six months shall extend substantially reciprocal privileges to citizens of the United States, and such extension shall apply to applications upon which patents have been granted, as well as to applications now pending or filed within the period herein. Such extension shall in no way furnish a basis of claim against the Government of the United States, and shall in no way affect the right of any citizen of the United States, who, prior to March 3, 1921, was bona fide in possession of any rights in patents or applications for patent conflicting with rights in patents granted or validated by reason of such extension, to exercise such rights by itself or himself personally, or by such agents, or licensees, as derived their rights from it, or him, before March 3, 1921, and such persons shall not be amenable to any action for infringement of any patent granted or validated by reason of such extension.

A patent shall not be refused on an application coming within the provisions of this section, and sections 81 to 87 of this title, nor shall a patent granted on such application be held invalid by reason of the invention having been patented or described in any printed publication or in public use or on sale in the United States prior to the filing of the application, unless such patent or publication or such public use or sale was prior to the filing of the foreign application upon which the right of priority is based. (Mar. 3, 1921, c. 126, § 1, 41 Stat. 1313.)

81. Time for payment of fee or taking of action on application extended after August 1, 1914.—The time fixed by law on March 3, 1921, for the payment of any fee or for the taking of any action with respect to an application for patent, which time had not expired on August 1, 1914, or which commenced after August 1, 1914, is extended until the expiration of one year from March 3, 1921, without the payment of extension fees or other penalty in favor of the citizens or subjects of countries which have extended, now extend, or shall extend during a period of one year from March 3, 1921, substantially reciprocal privileges to citizens of the United States, provided that no extension herein shall confer such privileges on the citizens or subjects of a foreign country for a longer term than the term during which such privileges are conferred by such foreign country on the citizens of the United States, but nothing in this section, or sections 80 and 82 to 87 of this title, shall give any right to reopen interference proceedings where final hearing before the examiner of interferences has taken place. (Mar. 3, 1921, c. 126, § 2, 41 Stat. 1314.)

82. Same; certain manufacturing, etc., rights not abridged.—No patent granted or validated by reason of the extensions provided for in sections 80 and 81 of this title shall abridge or otherwise affect the right of any citizen of the United States, or his agent or agents, or his successor in business, to continue any manufacture, use, or sale commenced prior to March 3, 1921, by such citizen, nor shall the continued manufacture, use, or sale by such citizen, or the use or sale of the devices resulting from such manufacture or use constitute an infringement. (Mar. 3, 1921, c. 126, § 3, 41 Stat. 1314.)

83. Applications executed by agents between August 1, 1914, and June 15, 1920.—All applications for patent filed since August 1, 1914, and prior to June 15, 1920, which were executed by an agent of the applicant and in which a petition, specification, and oath, signed by the inventor, or his executor or administrator, was filed within a period of one year after March 3, 1921, and the patents granted on such applications, shall have the same force and effect as if the papers signed by the inventor, or his executor or administrator, had been filed on the date on which the papers signed by the agent were filed. (Mar. 3, 1921, c. 126, § 4, 41 Stat. 1314.)

84. Applications subscribed before consular officers since August 1, 1914, etc.—All applications for patent filed since August 1, 1914, in which the oath was executed before or authenticated by a consular officer, or other representative qualified to administer oaths, of a government acting in the interest of the Government of the United States, shall have the same force and effect as if said oath had been executed by the applicant before a consular officer of the United States. (Mar. 3, 1921, c. 126, § 5, 41 Stat. 1314.)

85. Rights as to inventions made while serving abroad with United States forces during World War.—Where an invention was made by a person while serving abroad, during the World War, with the forces of the United States, civil or military, the inventor thereof shall be entitled, in interference and other proceedings arising in connection with such invention, to the same rights of priority with respect of such invention as if the same had been made in the United States. (Mar. 3, 1921, c. 126, § 6, 41 Stat. 1314.)

86. Claims under patent rights owned by alien enemies.—No claim shall be made or action brought in respect of the use since August 1, 1914, up to March 3, 1921, by the Government of the United States, or by any persons acting on behalf of, or under contract with, or with the assent of the Government of the United States or of Governments or their representatives associated with the United States, under any patent rights owned in whole or in part since August 1, 1914, by an alien enemy, nor in respect of the use of any process during such period, or the sale, offering for sale, or use, at any time, of any products, articles, or apparatus whatsoever manufactured during such period to which such patent rights applied. (Mar. 3, 1921, c. 126, § 7, 41 Stat. 1314.)

87. Special war measures not affected.—Nothing in sections 80 to 86 of this title shall affect any Act done by virtue of the special measures taken during the World War under legislative, executive, or administrative authority of the United States in regard to the rights of an enemy, or ally of an enemy, as defined by the Trading with the Enemy Act, October 6, 1917, chapter 106, Fortieth Statute, page 411, in patents for inventions and designs. (Mar. 3, 1921, c. 126, § 8, 41 Stat. 1315.)

88. Mistake in registration of patent; certificate thereof issued by Patent Office; effect.—Whenever a mistake in a patent, incurred through the fault of the Patent Office, is clearly disclosed by the records or files of the office, a certificate, stating the fact and nature of such mistake, signed by the Commissioner of Patents and sealed with the seal of the Patent Office, may be issued, without charge, and recorded in the records of patents, and a printed copy thereof attached to each printed copy of the patent, and such certificate shall thereafter be considered as part of the original, and every patent, together with such certificate, shall have the same effect and operation in law on the trial of all actions for causes thereafter arising as if the same had been originally issued in such corrected form. All such certificates issued prior to March 4, 1925, in accordance with the rules of the Patent Office and the patent to which they are attached shall have the same force and effect as if such certificates had been specifically authorized by statute. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 535, § 1, 43 Stat. 1268.)

Taylor Ellyson, of Virginia; Daniel R. Noyes, of Minnesota; Emanuel Fiske, Marshall Fiske, of Connecticut, together with five other persons to be named by the President of the United States, one to be chosen from each of the Departments of State, War, Navy, Treasury, and Justice, their associates and successors, are created a body corporate and politic in the District of Columbia. (Jan. 5, 1905, c. 23, § 1, 33 Stat. 599.)

2. Name of corporation; powers.—The name of the corporation created by this chapter shall be "The American National Red Cross" and by that name shall have perpetual succession, with the power to sue and be sued in courts of law and equity within the jurisdiction of the United States; to have and to hold such real and personal estate as shall be deemed advisable and to accept bequests for the purposes of this corporation hereinafter set forth; to adopt a seal and the same to alter and destroy at pleasure; and to have the right to have and to use, in carrying out its purposes hereinafter designated, as an emblem and badge, a Greek red cross on a white ground, as the same has been described in the treaty of Geneva, August 22, 1864, for the amelioration of the condition of the wounded in armies in the field, and adopted by the several nations acceding thereto; to ordain and establish by-laws and regulations not inconsistent with the laws of the United States of America or any State thereof, and generally to do all such acts and things (including the establishment of regulations for the election of associates and successors) as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter and promote the purposes of said organization; and the corporation hereby created is designated as the organization which is authorized to act in matters of relief under said treaty. In accordance with article 7 of the treaty so providing, the delivery of the brassard allowed for individuals neutralized in time of war shall be left to military authority. (Jan. 5, 1905, c. 23, § 2, 33 Stat. 600.)

3. Purposes.—The purposes of the corporation are and shall be—

First. To furnish volunteer aid to the sick and wounded of armies in time of war, in accordance with the spirit and conditions of the conference of Geneva of October, 1863, and also of the treaty of the Red Cross, or the treaty of Geneva, of August 22, 1864, to which the United States of America gave its adhesion on March 1, 1882.

Second. And for said purposes to perform all the duties devolved upon a national society by each nation which has acceded to said treaty.

Third. To succeed to all the rights and property which have been hitherto held and to all the duties which have heretofore been performed by the American National Red Cross as a corporation duly incorporated by Act of Congress June 6, 1900, which Act is hereby repealed and the organization created thereby is hereby dissolved.

Fourth. To act in matters of voluntary relief and in accord with the military and naval authorities as a medium of communication between the people of the United States of America and their Army and Navy, and to act in such matters between similar national societies of other governments through the "Comité International de Secours," and the Government and the people and the Army and Navy of the United States of America.

Fifth. And to continue and carry on a system of national and international relief in time of peace and apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, floods, and other great national calamities, and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same. (Jan. 5, 1905, c. 23, § 3, 33 Stat. 600.)

4. Fraudulent representations or use of insignia.—It shall be unlawful for any person within the jurisdiction of the United States to falsely or fraudulently hold himself out as or represent or pretend himself to be a member of or an agent for the American National Red Cross for the purpose of soliciting, collecting, or receiving money or material; or for any person to wear or display the sign of the Red Cross or any insignia colored in imitation thereof for the fraudulent purpose of inducing the belief that he is a member of or an agent for the American National Red Cross. It shall be unlawful for any person, corporation, or association other than the American National Red Cross and its duly authorized employees and agents and the Army and Navy sanitary and hospital authorities of the United States for the purpose of trade or as an advertisement to induce the sale of any article whatsoever or for any business or charitable purpose to use within the territory of the United States of America and its exterior possessions the emblem of the Greek red cross on a white ground, or any sign or insignia made or colored in imitation thereof or of the words "Red Cross" or "Geneva Cross" or any combination of these words. No person, corporation, or association that actually used or whose assignor actually used the said emblem, sign, insignia, or words for any lawful purpose prior to January 5, 1905, shall be deemed forbidden to continue the use thereof for the same purpose and for the same class of goods. If any person violates the provision of this section he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction in any Federal court shall be liable to a fine of not less than one or more than five hundred dollars, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, or both, for each and every offense. (Jan. 5, 1905, c. 23, § 4, 33 Stat. 600; June 23, 1910, c. 372, § 1, 36 Stat. 604.)

5. Governing body; meetings.—The governing body of the American National Red Cross shall consist, in the first instance, of a central committee numbering eighteen persons, to be appointed in the manner following, namely: Six by the incorporators herein named and twelve by the President of the United States, one of whom shall be designated by the President to act as chairman. It shall be the duty of the central committee to organize with as little delay as possible State and Territorial societies, including the District of Columbia, under such rules as the said committee may prescribe. When six or more State or Territorial societies have been formed, thereafter the central committee shall be composed as follows: Six to be appointed by the incorporators, six by the representatives of the State and Territorial societies at the annual meeting of the incorporators and societies, and six by the President of the United States, one of whom shall be designated by him as chairman and one each to be named by him from the Departments of State, War, Navy, Treasury, and Justice.

The first six members of the central committee elected by the incorporators at the first annual meeting, and the first six members of the central committee elected by the State and Territorial delegates, shall when elected select by lot from their number two members to serve one year, two members to serve two years, and two members to serve three years, and each subsequent election of members shall be for a period of three years or until their successors are duly elected and qualify. The six members of the central committee appointed by the President at the annual meeting shall serve for one year.

The President shall fill as soon as may be any vacancy that may occur by death, resignation, or otherwise in the chairmanship or in the membership of the central committee appointed by him. And any vacancy that may occur in the six members of the central committee herein provided to be appointed by the incorporators or in the six to be appointed by the representatives of the State societies shall be filled by temporary appointments to be made by the remaining members of the six in which the vacancy or vacancies may occur, such appointees to serve until the next annual meeting.

The central committee shall have power to appoint from its own members an executive committee of nine persons, five of whom shall be a quorum, who, when the central committee is not in session, shall have and exercise all the powers of the central committee.

The annual meeting of said incorporators, their associates and successors, shall be held in the city of Washington on Wednesday preceding the second Thursday in the month of December in each and every year. Fifteen members shall constitute a quorum at any annual or special meeting.

Voting by proxy shall not be allowed at any meeting of the incorporators, annual or special, nor at any meeting of State or Territorial societies organized under the provisions of this charter. (Jan. 5, 1905, c. 23, § 5, 33 Stat. 601; Dec. 10, 1912, c. 1, § 1, 37 Stat. 647; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 131, § 1, 41 Stat. 1354.)

6. Reports; auditing of accounts by War Department.—The American National Red Cross shall as soon as practicable after the first day of July of each year make and transmit to the Secretary of War a report of its proceedings for the fiscal year ending June 30 next preceding, including a full, complete, and itemized report of receipts and expenditures of whatever kind, which report shall be duly audited by the War Department, and a copy of said report shall be transmitted to Congress by the War Department. (Jan. 5, 1905, c. 23, § 6, 33 Stat. 602; Feb. 27, 1917, c. 137, 39 Stat. 946.)

7. Reimbursement of War Department for auditing accounts.—The American National Red Cross annually shall reimburse the War Department for auditing its accounts, and the sum so paid shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States as a miscellaneous receipt. (May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 659.)

8. Repeal or amendment of chapter.—Congress shall have the right to repeal, alter, or amend this chapter at any time. (Jan. 5, 1905, c. 23, § 7, 33 Stat. 602.)

9. Endowment fund.—The endowment fund of the American National Red Cross shall be kept and invested under the management and control of a board of nine trustees, who shall be elected from time to time by the incorporators and their successors under such regulations regarding terms and tenure of office, accountability, and expense as said incorporators and successors shall prescribe. (June 23, 1910, c. 372, § 2, 36 Stat. 604.)

10. Aid to land and naval forces in time of war.—Whenever in time of war, or when war is imminent, the President may deem the cooperation and use of the American National Red Cross with the sanitary services of the land and naval forces to be necessary, he is authorized to accept the assistance tendered by the said Red Cross and to employ the same under the sanitary services of the Army and Navy in conformity with such rules and regulations as he may prescribe. (Apr. 24, 1912, c. 90, § 1, 37 Stat. 90.)

11. Transportation and subsistence.—When the Red Cross cooperation and assistance with the land and naval forces in time of war or threatened hostilities shall have been accepted by the President, the personnel entering upon the duty specified in section 10 of this title shall, while proceeding to their place of duty, while serving thereat, and while returning therefrom, be transported and subsisted at the cost and charge of the United States as civilian employees employed with the said forces, and the Red Cross supplies that may be tendered as a gift and accepted for use in the sanitary service shall be transported at the cost and charge of the United States. (Apr. 24, 1912, c. 90, § 2, 37 Stat. 91.)

12. Buildings for Red Cross supplies.—Authority is given to the Secretary of War to grant permission, by revocable license, to the American National Red Cross to erect and maintain on any military reservations within the jurisdiction of the United States buildings suitable for the storage of supplies, or to occupy for that purpose buildings erected by the United States, under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe, such supplies to be available for the aid of the civilian population in case of serious national disaster. (June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 10, 39 Stat. 173.)

Section 21. Corporation created.—Colin H. Livingstone and Ernest P. Bicknell, of Washington, District of Columbia; Benjamin L. Dulaney, of Bristol, Tennessee; Milton A. McRae, of

22. Name; general powers and duties.—The name of the corporation created by this chapter shall be "Boy Scouts of America," and by that name it shall have perpetual succession, with power to sue and be sued in courts of law and equity within the jurisdiction of the United States; to hold such real and personal estate as shall be necessary for corporate purposes, and to receive real and personal property by gift, devise, or bequest; to adopt a seal, and the same to alter and destroy at pleasure; to have offices and conduct its business and affairs within and without the District of Columbia and in the several States and Territories of the United States; to make and adopt by-laws, rules, and regulations not inconsistent with the laws of the United States of America, or any State thereof, and generally to do all such acts and things (including the establishment of regulations for the election of associates and successors) as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter and promote the purposes of said corporation. (June 15, 1916, c. 148, § 2, 38 Stat. 227.)

23. Purpose of organization.—The purpose of the corporation shall be to promote, through organization, and cooperation with other agencies, the ability of boys to do things for themselves and others, to train them in scoutcraft, and to teach them patriotism, courage, self-reliance, and kindred virtues, using the methods which were in common use by boy scouts on June 15, 1916. (June 15, 1916, c. 148, § 3, 39 Stat. 228.)

24. Assets of existing corporation; stock; dividends.—The corporation may acquire, by way of gift, all the assets of the existing national organization of Boy Scouts, a corporation under the laws of the District of Columbia, and defray and provide for any debts or liabilities to the discharge of which said assets shall be applicable; but said corporation shall have no power to issue certificates of stock or to declare or pay dividends, its object and purposes being solely of a benevolent character and not for pecuniary profit to its members. (June 15, 1916, c. 148, § 4, 39 Stat. 228.)

25. Executive board; powers.—The governing body of the said Boy Scouts of America shall consist of an executive board composed of citizens of the United States. The number, qualifications, and terms of office of members of the executive board shall be prescribed by the by-laws. The persons mentioned in section 21 of this title shall constitute the first executive board and shall serve until their successors are elected and have qualified. Vacancies in the executive board shall be filled by a majority vote of the remaining members thereof. The by-laws may prescribe the number of members of the executive board necessary to constitute a quorum of the board, which number may be less than a majority of the whole number of the board. The executive board shall have power to make and to amend the by-laws, and, by a two-thirds vote of the whole board at a meeting called for this purpose, may authorize and cause to be executed mortgages and liens upon the property of the corporation. The executive board may, by resolution passed by a majority of the whole board, designate three or more of their number to constitute an executive or governing committee, of which a majority shall constitute a quorum, which committee, to the extent provided in said resolution or in the by-laws of the corporation, shall have and exercise the powers of the executive board in the management of the business affairs of the corporation, and may have power to authorize the seal of the corporation to be affixed to all papers which may require it. The executive board, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the whole board, may appoint any other standing committees, and such standing committees shall have and may exercise such powers as shall be conferred or authorized by the by-laws. With the consent in writing and pursuant to an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of said corporation, the executive board shall have authority to dispose in any manner of the whole property of the corporation. (June 15, 1916, c. 148, § 5, 39 Stat. 228.)

26. Annual and special meetings; quorum.—An annual meeting of the incorporators, their associates and successors, shall be held once in every year after the year of incorporation, at such time and place as shall be prescribed in the by-laws, when the annual reports of the officers and executive board shall be presented and members of the executive board elected for the ensuing year. Special meetings of the corporation may be called upon such notice as may be prescribed in the by-laws. The number of members which shall constitute a quorum at any annual or special meeting shall be prescribed in the by-laws. The members and executive board shall have power to hold their meetings and keep the seal, books, documents, and papers of the corporation within or without the District of Columbia. (June 15, 1916, c. 148, § 6, 39 Stat. 228.)

27. Emblems and badges.—The corporation shall have the sole and exclusive right to have and to use, in carrying out its purposes, all emblems and badges, descriptive or designating marks, and words or phrases now or heretofore used by the Boy Scouts of America in carrying out its program, it being distinctly and definitely understood, however, that nothing in this chapter shall interfere or conflict with established or vested rights. (June 15, 1916, c. 148, § 7, 39 Stat. 228.)

28. Reports.—On or before the 1st day of April of each year the said Boy Scouts of America shall make and transmit to Congress a report of its proceedings for the year ending December 31 preceding, including a full, complete, and itemized report of receipts and expenditures, of whatever kind. (June 15, 1916, c. 148, § 8, 39 Stat. 229.)

29. Reservation of power to repeal, alter, or amend chapter.—Congress shall have the right to repeal, alter, or amend this chapter at any time. (June 15, 1916, c. 148, § 9, 39 Stat. 229.)

The name of this corporation shall be "The American Legion." (Sept. 16, 1919, c. 59, § 1, 41 Stat. 284.)

42. Organization of corporation; delegates.—The persons named in section 41 of this title and such other persons as may be selected from among the membership of the American Legion, an unincorporated society of the soldiers, sailors, and marines of the Great War of 1917–1918, are hereby authorized to meet to complete the organization of said corporation by the selection of officers, the adoption of a constitution and by-laws, and to do all other things necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter, at which meeting any person duly accredited as a delegate from any local or State organization of the existing unincorporated organization known as the "American Legion" shall be permitted to participate in the proceedings thereof. (Sept. 16, 1919, c. 59, § 2, 41 Stat. 284.)

43. Purposes of corporation.—The purpose of the corporation shall be: To promote peace and good will among the peoples of the United States and all the nations of the earth; to preserve the memories and incidents of the Great War of 1917–1918; to cement the ties of love and comradeship born of service; and to consecrate the efforts of its members to mutual helpfulness and service to their country. (Sept. 16, 1919, c. 59, § 3, 41 Stat. 285.)

44. Powers of corporation.—The corporation hereby created shall have the following powers: To have perpetual succession with power to sue and be sued in courts of law and equity; to receive, hold, own, use, and dispose of such real estate and personal property as shall be necessary for its corporate purposes; to adopt a corporate seal and alter the same at pleasure; to adopt a constitution, by-laws, and regulations to carry out its purposes, not inconsistent with the laws of the United States or of any State; to use in carrying out the purposes of the corporation such emblems and badges as it may adopt; to establish and maintain offices for the conduct of its business; to establish State and Territorial organizations and local chapter or post organizations; to publish a magazine or other publications, and generally to do any and all such acts and things as may be necessary and proper in carrying into effect the purposes of the corporation. (Sept. 16, 1919, c. 59, § 4, 41 Stat. 285.)

45. Persons eligible to membership.—No person shall be a member of this corporation unless he served in the naval or military service of the United States at some time during the period between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, both dates inclusive, or who, being citizens of the United States at the time of enlistment, served in the military or naval services of any of the Governments associated with the United States during the Great War. (Sept. 16, 1919, c. 59, § 5, 41 Stat. 285.)

46. Political activities prohibited.—The organization shall be nonpolitical and, as an organization, shall not promote the candidacy of any person seeking public office. (Sept. 16, 1919, c. 59, § 6, 41 Stat. 285.)

47. Acquisition of assets of existing American Legion.—The corporation may acquire any or all the assets of the existing unincorporated national organization known as the "American Legion" upon discharging or satisfactorily providing for the payment and discharge of all its liabilities. (Sept. 16, 1919, c. 59, § 7, 41 Stat. 285.)

48. Use of name "American Legion."—The corporation and its State and local subdivisions shall have the sole and exclusive right to have and to use in carrying out its purposes the name "The American Legion." (Sept. 16, 1919, c. 59, § 8, 41 Stat. 285.)

49. Reports to Congress.—The said corporation shall, on or before the 1st day of January in each year, make and transmit to the Congress a report of its proceedings for the preceding calendar year, including a full and complete report of its receipts and expenditures. Said report shall not be printed as public documents. (Sept. 16, 1919, c. 59, § 9, 41 Stat. 285.)

50. Agents for service of process.—As a condition precedent to the exercise of any power or privilege herein granted or conferred the American Legion shall file in the office of the secretary of state of each State the name and post-office address of an authorized agent in such State upon whom legal process or demands against the American Legion may be served. (Sept. 16, 1919, c. 59, § 9½, 41 Stat. 285.)

51. Reservation of right to repeal chapter.—The right to repeal, alter, or amend this chapter at any time is expressly reserved. (Sept. 16, 1919, c. 59, § 10, 41 Stat. 285.)

65. Reports to Congress.
66. Right to alter or amend reserved.

Section 61. Incorporators; name.—Ira E. Bennett, Tasker H. Bliss, Nathalie Boynton, Marie Moore Forrest, Elizabeth Van Rensselaer Frazer, James E. Freeman, Margaret Overman Gregory, Harry V. Haynes, John A. LeJeune, A. L. McClellan, Wendell C. Neville, Frank B. Noyes, John Barton Payne,

Augusta Reath, Alice Hay Wadsworth, John Walsh, and their associates and successors, are hereby created a body corporate by the name of "Belleau Wood Memorial Association." (Mar. 3, 1923, c. 228, § 1, 42 Stat. 1441.)

62. Purposes of corporation.—The purposes of the corporation shall be: (a) To acquire and maintain the whole or any portion of Belleau Wood, Department of Aisne, France, for memorial purposes; (b) to erect such buildings and monuments and establish such institutions thereon as it may deem appropriate as a memorial to the men of the American Expeditionary Forces who participated in the Battle of Belleau Wood, France, and vicinity during the World War; (c) to solicit and obtain members; (d) to charge and collect membership dues, and to solicit and receive contributions of money to be devoted to carrying out such purposes; and (e) to care for and maintain such memorial. (Mar. 3, 1923, c. 228, § 2, 42 Stat. 1441.)

63. Powers of corporation.—The corporation (a) shall have perpetual succession; (b) may sue and be sued; (c) may adopt a corporate seal and alter it at pleasure; (d) may adopt and alter by-laws not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States or of any State; (e) may establish and maintain offices for the conduct of its business; (f) may appoint officers and agents; (g) may choose a board of trustees consisting of not more than fifteen persons nor less than five persons, to conduct the business and exercise the powers of the corporation; (h) may acquire, by purchase, devise, bequest, gift, or otherwise, and hold, encumber, convey, or otherwise dispose of, such real and personal property as may be necessary or appropriate for its corporate purposes, and especially the whole or any portion of Belleau Wood, Department of Aisne, France, to the extent that it may be or become consistent with, or permitted by, the laws of the French Republic; and (i) generally may do any and all lawful acts necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes for which the corporation is created. (Mar. 3, 1923, c. 228, § 3, 42 Stat. 1441.)

64. Transfer of property to, by Belleau Wood Memorial Association, incorporated under laws of District of Columbia.—The Belleau Wood Memorial Association, a corporation heretofore incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia, is authorized to transfer to the corporation created by this chapter all of its property, rights, and assets, and such corporation is authorized to receive all of such property, rights, and assets. Upon such transfer, such association shall thereby be dissolved, and such corporation shall be liable for all the obligations of, and claims against, such association, and all of such obligations and claims may be enforced against the corporation. (Mar. 3, 1923, c. 228, § 4, 42 Stat. 1441.)

65. Reports to Congress.—The corporation shall, on or before the 1st day of December in each year, transmit to Congress a report of its proceedings and activities for the preceding calendar year, including the full and complete statement of its receipts and expenditures. Such reports shall not be printed as public documents. (Mar. 3, 1923, c. 228, § 5, 42 Stat. 1441.)

66. Right to alter or amend reserved.—The right to alter, amend, or repeal this chapter at any time is expressly reserved. (Mar. 3, 1923, c. 228, § 6, 42 Stat. 1441.)

Chapter 5.—GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.

Sec.

71. Body corporate; name; corporate powers.
72. Object and purpose of corporation; office; acquisition, etc., of property.
73. Governing body.
74. Membership.
75. Agencies of corporation.
76. Corporate existence; modification of governing powers.
77. Disposition of property, archives, etc.

Section 71. Body corporate; name; corporate powers.—The organization known as the Grand Army of the Republic, with a membership limited to persons who served as soldiers and sailors of the United States Army and Navy or Marine Corps and Revenue Cutter Service between April 12, 1861, and April 9, 1865, and of such State regiments as were called into active service and subject to the orders of the United States general officers between the dates mentioned, and have been honorably discharged therefrom after such service, is created a body corporate and politic of the District of Columbia, by the name of "The Grand Army of the Republic," by which name it shall be a person in law, capable of suing and being sued, and of having and exercising all incidental powers as a litigant or otherwise as if it were a natural person, with power to acquire by purchase, gift, devise, or bequest, and to hold, convey, or otherwise dispose of property, real or personal, as may be necessary or calculated to carry into effect the patriotic, fraternal, and charitable purposes of its organization. (June 3, 1924, c. 242, § 1, 43 Stat. 358.)

72. Object and purpose of corporation; office; acquisition, etc., of property.—The object and purpose of the corporation shall be to perpetuate the name of "The Grand Army of the Republic" and to preserve in corporate form said organization as on June 3, 1924, and thereafter maintained and conducted, and to thus provide and continue an agency and instrumentality through and by which its members, for and during the remainder of their natural lives, may assemble and meet for the promotion of comradeship and social intercourse. The corporation shall not at any time engage in any business for pecuniary profit and gain.

The principal office of this corporation shall be kept and maintained in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, but annual, or other meetings, of its governing body and members may be held in any State or Territory of the Union, and the corporation shall have the power to possess and hold property needful or desirable for its objects and purposes anywhere in the United States or any of its Territories or dependencies, consistently with the provisions of local laws pertaining thereto. (June 3, 1924, c. 242, § 2, 43 Stat. 359.)

73. Governing body.—The supreme governing and controlling authority in said organization shall be the national encampment thereof, composed of representatives from the several department encampments existing on June 3, 1924, or thereafter organized: Provided, That there shall never be any change in the plan of organization of said national encampment that shall materially change its present representative form of government or render possible the concentration of the control thereof in the hands of a limited number, or in a self-perpetuating body not representative of the membership at large. (June 3, 1924, c. 242, § 3, 43 Stat. 359.)

74. Membership.—The qualifications for membership in said organization, except as they are limited by the provisions of section 71 of this title, and the rights and privileges of the members thereof, shall be such as are fixed by the ordinances, rules, and regulations adopted by said national encampment. (June 3, 1924, c. 242, § 4, 43 Stat. 359.)

75. Agencies of corporation.—The activities of said corporation shall be exercised through and by the following agencies, in accordance with the laws, rules, and regulations in force on June 3, 1924, or thereafter enacted by the national encampment thereof, namely:

First. Through the national encampment, its officers and committees.

Second. Through such department encampments as may have been, or may be, organized, their officers and committees.

Third. Through such posts as may have been, or may be, organized, their officers and committees.

Such department encampments shall be subject and subordinate in authority to the national encampment, and such posts shall be also subject to such control, exercised through the department encampment and department officers of the particular department to which it belongs. (June 3, 1924, c. 242, § 5, 43 Stat. 359.)

76. Corporate existence; modification of governing powers.—The corporate existence of the Grand Army of the Republic, and the exclusive rights of its surviving members to wear the insignia of membership therein, shall terminate only when the last of its members dies. If at any national encampment a memorial shall be adopted by the vote of three-fourths of the members present, reciting that because of the decrease in its membership, or because of the age and infirmity of its surviving members, it is no longer advisable and practicable to hold future national annual encampments, such action shall not operate to deprive said organization of any of its corporate powers, but the government thereof may be modified to provide for such contingency, subject to the restrictions contained in section 73 of this title. Nothing in this chapter shall in any manner affect the right or the power of such posts or departments to dispose of, or otherwise affect the ownership of, property held by any post or department in its own name, nor affect the right of such posts or departments to organize corporations under State laws for the purpose of caring for and disposing of such property. (June 3, 1924, c. 242, § 6, 43 Stat. 360.)

77. Disposition of property, archives, etc.—The national encampment may, by resolution, provide for the disposition and future ownership of its property and archives, and may declare the event in which such disposition shall become effective and such ownership vested, and a duly authenticated copy of such resolution shall be filed in the office of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia. Upon the happening of the event thus declared, and upon the filing of a petition in said Supreme Court reciting said facts, said court shall take jurisdiction thereof, and upon due proof being made the court shall enter a decree which shall be effectual to vest title and ownership in accordance with the provisions of such resolution. (June 3, 1924, c. 242, § 7, 43 Stat. 360.)

The name of this corporation shall be "The United States Blind Veterans of the World War." (June 7, 1924, c. 296, § 1, 43 Stat. 535.)

82. Completion of organization.—The persons named in section 81 of this title are authorized to meet to complete the organization of the corporation by the selection of officers, the adoption of a constitution and by-laws, and to do all other things necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter. (June 7, 1924, c. 296, § 2, 43 Stat. 535.)

83. Purpose of corporation.—The purposes of the corporation are to bind together for their mutual fellowship and assistance those citizens of the United States of America who have served their country in war, and who bear as a mark of such service the loss of their sight and to perpetuate and keep alive the memories of their comradeship and to enable them by their organization to render what aid they can to the blind in general. (June 7, 1924, c. 296, § 3, 43 Stat. 535.)

84. Corporate powers.—The corporation created by this chapter shall have the following powers: To have perpetual succession with power to sue and be sued in courts of law and equity; to receive, hold, own, use, and dispose of such real estate and personal property as shall be necessary for its corporate purposes; to adopt a corporate seal and alter the same at pleasure; to adopt a constitution, by-laws, and regulations to carry out its purposes, not inconsistent with the laws of the United States or of any State; to use in carrying out the purposes of the corporation such emblems and badges as it may adopt; to establish and maintain offices for the conduct of its business; to establish State and Territorial organizations and local chapter or post organizations; to publish a magazine or other publications, and generally do any and all such acts and things as may be necessary and proper in carrying into effect the purposes of the corporation. (June 7, 1924, c. 296, § 4, 43 Stat. 536.)

85. Membership.—Any honorably discharged American veteran of the allied forces who participated in the World War and whose vision has become defective to such an extent that he is eligible for training under supervisor for the blind of the United States Veterans' Bureau, and any ex-service man who is eligible for such training shall be eligible for "active membership" in the United States Blind Veterans of the World War. The members of this corporation shall have the power to admit such other persons to "honorary" membership as they may see fit. (June 7, 1924, c. 296, § 5, 43 Stat. 536.)

86. Nonpolitical nature of corporation.—This organization shall be nonpolitical and shall not be used for the dissemination of partisan principles. (June 7, 1924, c. 296, § 6, 43 Stat. 536.)

87. Exclusive right to name.—The corporation and its State and local subdivisions shall have the sole and exclusive right to have and to use in carrying out its purposes the name "The United States Blind Veterans of the World War." (June 7, 1924, c. 296, § 7, 43 Stat. 536.)

88. Right to repeal, etc., reserved.—The right to repeal, alter, or amend this chapter at any time is expressly reserved. (June 7, 1924, c. 296, § 8, 43 Stat. 536.)

(Feb. 24, 1925, c. 303, § 1, 43 Stat. 966.)

92. Completion of organization.—The persons named in section 91 of this title and such other persons as may be selected from among the membership of American War Mothers, an association of women whose sons and daughters served the allied cause in the great World War between the dates of April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, are hereby authorized to meet to complete the organization of said corporation by the selection of officers, the adoption of a constitution and by-laws, and to do all other things necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter, at which meeting any person duly accredited as a delegate from any local or State organization of the existing organization known as American War Mothers shall be permitted to participate in the proceedings thereof. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 303, § 2, 43 Stat. 967.)

93. Purpose of corporation.—The object of the corporation shall be to keep alive and develop the spirit that prompted world service; to maintain the ties of fellowship born of that service and to assist and further any patriotic work; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, State, and Nation; to work for the welfare of the Army and Navy; to assist in any way in their power men and women who served and were wounded or incapacitated in the World War; to foster and promote friendship and understanding between America and the Allies in the World War. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 303, § 3, 43 Stat. 967.)

94. Meetings.—The corporation shall hold its meetings in such place as the incorporators or their successors shall determine. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 303, § 4, 43 Stat. 967.)

95. Corporate powers.—The corporation created by this chapter shall have the following powers: To have succession until the membership as hereinafter provided for shall become extinct, with power to sue and be sued in courts of law and equity; to receive, hold, own, use, and dispose of such real estate and personal property as shall be necessary for its corporate purposes; to adopt a corporate seal and alter the same at pleasure; to adopt a constitution, by-laws, and regulations to carry out its purposes, not inconsistent with the laws of the United States or of any State; to use in carrying out the purposes of the corporation such emblems and badges as it may adopt; to establish and maintain offices for the conduct of its business; to establish State, Territorial, and local subdivisions; to publish a magazine or other publications, and generally to do any and all such acts and things as may be necessary and proper to carry into effect the purposes of the corporation. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 303, § 5, 43 Stat. 967.)

96. Property; exemption from taxation.—All of the personal property and funds of the corporation held or used for the purposes hereof, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, whether of principal or income, shall, so long as the same shall be so used, be exempt from taxes by the United States or any Territory or district thereof. The corporation shall not accept, own, or hold directly or indirectly any property, real or personal, except such as may be reasonably necessary to carry out the purposes of its creation as defined in this chapter. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 303, § 6, 43 Stat. 967.)

97. Membership.—Membership is limited to women, and no woman shall be a member of this corporation unless she is a citizen of the United States and unless her son or sons or daughter or daughters of her blood served in the Army or Navy of the United States or in the military or naval service of its allies in the great World War at some time during the period between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, both dates inclusive, having an honorable discharge or still in the service. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 303, § 7, 43 Stat. 968.)

98. Nonpolitical.—This organization shall be nonpolitical, and as an organization shall not promote the candidacy of any person seeking public office. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 303, § 8, 43 Stat. 968.)

99. Assets of existing corporation.—The corporation may acquire any or all of the assets of the existing organization known as American War Mothers upon discharging or satisfactorily providing for the payment and discharge of all its liabilities. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 303, § 9, 43 Stat. 968.)

100. Exclusive right to name.—The corporation and its State, Territorial, and local subdivisions shall have the sole and exclusive right to have and to use in carrying out its business purposes the name of American War Mothers. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 303, § 10, 43 Stat. 968.)

101. Reports to Congress.—The corporation shall, on or before the 1st day of January in each year, make and transmit to the Congress a report of its proceedings for the preceding calendar year, including a full and complete report of its receipts and expenditures. Said report shall not be printed as a public document. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 303, § 11, 43 Stat. 968.)

102. State agents.—As a condition precedent to the exercise of any power or privilege herein granted or conferred the corporation shall file in the office of the secretary of each State the name and post-office address of an authorized agent in such State upon whom local process or demands against American War Mothers may be served. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 303, § 12, 43 Stat. 968.)

103. Acceptance by majority of incorporators.—This charter shall take effect upon its being accepted by a majority vote of the incorporators named herein who shall be present at the first meeting of the corporation, due notice of which meeting shall be given to each of the incorporators named herein, and a notice of such acceptance shall be given by said corporation, causing a certificate to that effect, signed by its president and secretary, to be filed in the office of the recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 303, § 13, 43 Stat. 968.)

104. Right to repeal, etc., reserved.—Congress may from time to time alter, repeal, or modify this chapter of incorporation, but no contract or individual right made or acquired shall hereby be divested or impaired. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 303, § 14, 43 Stat. 968.)

105. Present officers.—The management and direction of the affairs of the corporation and the controlling and disposing of its property and funds shall be vested in the persons duly elected at the last annual convention held in Kansas City, Missouri, who shall be the officers of the American War Mothers for the year beginning October, 1923, to serve until the next annual convention to be held at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on October 8, 1925, or until their successors are duly appointed, and who are the following:

Margaret N. McCluer, National War Mother, Kansas City, Missouri; Carrie L. Root, first vice National War Mother, Gardner, Illinois; Blanche A. Bellak, second vice National War Mother, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Mary E. Spence, third vice National War Mother, Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Rose S. Latham, national corresponding secretary, Kansas City, Missouri; Mahala M. Boyd, national treasurer, Newcastle, Indiana; Kate C. De Kay, national historian, Blackfoot, Idaho; Carrie White Avery, national custodian of records, Washington, District of Columbia; Estelle T. Wilcox, national auditor, Omaha, Nebraska. (Feb. 24, 1925, c. 303, § 15, 43 Stat. 968.)

Chapter 8.—AMERICAN BATTLE MONUMENTS COMMISSION.

Sec.
121. American Battle Monuments Commission; members; appointment; secretary; terms of office; vacancies; expenses; designation of personnel of Army, Navy, or Marine Corps to assist.
122. Expense of Army officers serving on commission.
123. Powers and duties as to memorials.
124. Approval of designs or materials for memorials.
125. Arrangements with foreign countries.
126. Funds received from States, municipalities, or private individuals.
127. Preparations, etc., of memorials at arsenals or navy yards; use of captured war material.
128. Replicas of memorials.
129. Cooperation with States, etc., in erection of memorials.
130. Maintenance of memorials erected.
131. Statements to President.
132. Records and archives.
133. Disbursing agent for disbursement of expenditures outside of United States.

Section 121. American Battle Monuments Commission; members; appointment; secretary; terms of office; vacancies; expenses; designation of personnel of Army, Navy, or Marine Corps to assist.—A commission is created and established, to be known as the American Battle Monuments Commission (hereinafter referred to as the commission), to consist of seven members who shall be appointed by the President, who shall also appoint one officer of the Regular Army to serve as its secretary. The members and secretary shall serve at the pleasure of the President who shall fill any vacancies that from time to time occur. The secretary shall also serve as disbursing officer of the commission, who shall make disbursements upon vouchers approved by its chairman.

The members of the commission shall serve without compensation except that their actual expenses in connection with the work of the commission may be paid from any funds appropriated for the purposes of this chapter, or acquired by other means hereinafter authorized.

Upon the request of the commission the President is authorized to designate such personnel of any department or of the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps as may be necessary to assist in carrying out the purposes of this chapter, and the commission is authorized to employ such further personnel as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter, within the limits of any appropriation or appropriations made for such purposes. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 283, § 1, 42 Stat. 1509.)

122. Expenses of Army officers serving on commission.—When traveling with the commission or on the business of the commission officers of the Army serving as members or as secretary of the commission shall be reimbursed as provided by law for Army officers. (Apr. 2, 1924, c. 81, § 1, 43 Stat. 35; June 7, 1924, c. 292, § 1, 43 Stat. 522.)

123. Powers and duties as to memorials.—The commission shall prepare plans and estimates for the erection of suitable memorials to mark and commemorate the services of the American forces in Europe and erect memorials therein at such places as the commission shall determine, including works of architecture and art in the American cemeteries in Europe.

The commission shall control as to materials and design, provide regulations for and supervise the erection of all memorial monuments and buildings in the American cemeteries in Europe.

The commission shall cause such photographs to be secured or taken of the terrain of the various battle fields of Europe, upon which units of the armed forces of the United States were actively engaged with the enemy, as will complete the historical photographic record of the operations of such units; and the commission shall transmit such record when completed to the Secretary of War for permanent file with the records of the War Department. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 283, § 2, 42 Stat. 1509.)

124. Approval of designs or materials for memorials.—Before any design or material for memorials is accepted by the commission, the same shall be approved by the National Commission of Fine Arts. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 283, § 3, 42 Stat. 1510.)

125. Arrangements with foreign countries.—The President is requested to make the necessary arrangements with the proper authorities of the countries concerned to enable the commission to carry out the purposes of this chapter. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 283, § 4, 42 Stat. 1510.)

126. Funds received from States, municipalities, or private individuals.—The commission is authorized to receive funds from any State, municipal, or private source for the purposes of this chapter, and such funds shall be deposited by the commission with the Chief of Finance of the United States Army and shall be kept by him in separate accounts and shall be disbursed upon vouchers approved by the chairman of the commission. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 283, § 5, 42 Stat. 1510.)

127. Preparation, etc., of memorials at arsenals or navy yards; use of captured war material.—Authority is given for the preparation of models and designs and the fabrication of memorials, and the materials for such memorials, at arsenals or navy yards or by other governmental agencies, if the commission shall so determine.

Authority is given for the use of captured war materials, not otherwise disposed of by congressional action, in the fabrication of not to exceed ten thousand pounds of bronze to be used on the memorials constructed under the provisions of this chapter. In the selection of materials the commission shall refrain from utilizing material which might otherwise be available for decorative or memorial purposes. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 283, § 6, 42 Stat. 1510.)

128. Replicas of memorials.—The commission is authorized to furnish replicas of any memorial, or any part thereof, to States, municipalities, or interested private persons or associations at actual cost, and to apply any proceeds from such sales to the purposes of this chapter. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 283, § 7, 42 Stat. 1510.)

129. Cooperation with States, etc., in erection of memorials.—The commission is authorized and directed to cooperate with American citizens, States, municipalities, or associations desiring to erect war memorials in Europe in such manner as may be determined by the commission. No assistance in erecting any such memorial shall be given by any administrative agency of the United States unless the plan has been approved in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 283, § 8, 42 Stat. 1510.)

130. Maintenance of memorials erected.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to maintain the memorials erected by the commission under authority of this chapter, and the commission shall advise the Secretary of War of the location and date of completion of each memorial. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 283, § 9, 42 Stat. 1510.)

131. Statements to President.—The commission shall transmit to the President of the United States annually on the 1st of July a statement of all its financial and other transactions during the preceding fiscal year. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 283, § 10, 42 Stat. 1510.)

132. Records and archives.—The records and archives of the commission shall, upon the termination of its duties, be deposited with the Secretary of War. (Mar. 4, 1923, c. 283, § 12, 42 Stat. 1510.)

133. Disbursing agent for disbursement of expenditures outside of United States.—Disbursements for expenditures outside of continental United States may be made by a special disbursing agent designated by the commission and under such regulations as it may prescribe. (Apr. 2, 1924, c. 81, § 1, 43 Stat. 35; June 7, 1924, c. 292, § 1, 43 Stat. 522.)

Chapter 9.—MISCELLANEOUS.

Sec.

141. Display of flag on buildings on second Sunday in May.
142. Second Sunday in May designated as Mother's Day.

Section 141. Display of flag on buildings on second Sunday in May.—The President of the United States is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the Government officials to display the United States flag on all Government buildings, and the people of the United States to display the flag at their homes or other suitable places, on the second Sunday in May, as a public expression of our love and reverence for the mothers of our country. (May 8, 1914, No. 13, § 1, 38 Stat. 770.)

142. Second Sunday in May designated as Mother's Day.—The second Sunday in May shall hereafter be designated and known as Mother's Day, and it shall be the duty of the President to request its observance as provided for in this resolution. (May 8, 1914, No. 13, § 2, 38 Stat. 771.)

Section 1. General provisions as to pay periods and rates of pay.—Beginning July 1, 1922, for the purpose of computing the annual pay of the commissioned officers of the Regular Army and Marine Corps below the grade of brigadier general, of the Navy below the grade of rear admiral, of the Coast Guard, of the Coast and Geodetic Survey, and of the Public Health Service below the grade of surgeon general, pay periods are prescribed, and the base pay for each is fixed as follows:

The first period, $1,500; the second period, $2,000; the third period, $2,400; the fourth period, $3,000; the fifth period, $3,500; and the sixth period, $4,000.

The pay of the sixth period shall be paid to colonels of the Army, captains of the Navy, and officers of corresponding grade who have completed twenty-six years' service, or whose first appointment in the permanent service was in a grade above that corresponding to captain in the Army, or who were appointed to the Regular Army to fill vacancies created by the increase of the commissioned personnel thereof in 1920; to officers of the Staff Corps of the Navy advanced by selection under existing laws to the rank or pay of captain; to lieutenant colonels of the Army, commanders of the Navy, and officers of corresponding grade, and lieutenant commanders of the line and Engineer Corps of the Coast Guard who have completed thirty years' service; and to the Chief of Chaplains of the Army.

The pay of the fifth period shall be paid to colonels of the Army, captains of the Navy, and officers of corresponding grade who are not entitled to the pay of the sixth period; to lieutenant colonels of the Army, commanders of the Navy, and officers of corresponding grade who have completed twenty years' service, or whose first appointment in the permanent service was in a grade above that corresponding to captain in the Army, or who were appointed to the Regular Army to fill vacancies created by the increase of the commissioned personnel thereof in 1920; to officers of the Staff Corps of the Navy advanced by selection under existing laws to the rank or pay of commander; and to majors of the Army, lieutenant commanders of the Navy, and officers of corresponding grade who have completed twenty-three years' service: Provided, That lieutenant commanders of the Staff Corps of the Navy who were appointed between the dates of March 4, 1913, and June 7, 1916, in a grade above that of ensign, shall receive the pay of this pay period after completing twenty years' service.

The pay of the fourth period shall be paid to lieutenant colonels of the Army, commanders of the Navy, and officers of corresponding grade who are not entitled to the pay of the fifth or sixth period; to majors of the Army, lieutenant commanders of the Navy, and officers of corresponding grade who have completed fourteen years' service, or whose first appointment in the permanent service was in a grade above that corresponding to second lieutenant in the Army, or who were appointed to the Regular Army to fill vacancies created by the increase of the commissioned personnel thereof in 1920; to captains of the Army, lieutenants of the Navy, and officers of corresponding grade who have completed seventeen years' service, except those whose promotion is limited by law to this grade and who are not entitled under existing law to the pay and allowances of a higher grade; and to lieutenants of the Staff Corps of the Navy, and lieutenants and lieutenants (junior grade) of the line and Engineer Corps of the Coast Guard whose total commissioned service equals that of lieutenant commanders of the line of the Navy drawing the pay of this period.

The pay of the third period shall be paid to majors of the Army, lieutenant commanders of the Navy, and officers of corresponding grade who are not entitled to the pay of the fourth, fifth, or sixth period; to captains of the Army, lieutenants of the Navy, and officers of corresponding grade who have completed seven years' service, or whose first appointment in the permanent service was in a grade above that corresponding to second lieutenant in the Army, or whose present rank dates from July 1, 1920, or earlier; to first lieutenants of the Army, lieutenants (junior grade) of the Navy, and officers of corresponding grade who have completed ten years' service; and to lieutenants (junior grade) of the line and Engineer Corps of the Coast Guard whose total commissioned service equals that of lieutenants of the line of the Navy drawing the pay of this period.

The pay of the second period shall be paid to captains of the Army, lieutenants of the Navy, and officers of corresponding grade who are not entitled to the pay of the third or fourth period; to first lieutenants of the Army, lieutenants (junior grade) of the Navy, and officers of corresponding grade who have completed three years' service, or whose first appointment in the permanent service was in a grade above that corresponding to second lieutenant in the Army; and to second lieutenants of the Army, ensigns of the Navy, and officers of corresponding grade who have completed five years' service.

The pay of the first period shall be paid to all other officers whose pay is provided for in this section. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 1, 42 Stat. 625.)

2. Pay of certain officers during existence of state of war.—During the existence of a state of war, formally recognized by Congress, officers of grades corresponding to those of colonel, lieutenant colonel, major, captain, and first lieutenants of the Army, holding either permanent or temporary commissions as such, shall receive the pay of the sixth, fifth, fourth, third, and second periods, respectively, unless entitled under the foregoing provisions of the preceding section to the pay of a higher period. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 1, 42 Stat. 625.)

3. Increase for length of service; no increase of pay of officers or warrant officers on retired list.—Every officer paid under the provisions of the first five sections of this title shall receive an increase of 5 per centum of the base pay of his period for each three years of service up to thirty years: Provided, That the base pay plus pay for length of service of no officer below the grade of colonel of the Army, captain of the Navy, or corresponding grade, shall exceed $5,750. Nothing contained in the first sentence of section 26 or in any other section of this title shall authorize an increase in the pay of officers or warrant officers on the retired list on June 30, 1922. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 1, 42 Stat. 625.)

4. Service to be counted in computing pay.—For officers appointed on and after July 1, 1922, no service shall be counted for purposes of pay except active commissioned service under a Federal appointment and commissioned service in the National Guard when called out by order of the President. For officers in the service on June 30, 1922, there shall be included in the computation all service which was then counted in computing longevity pay, and service as a contract surgeon serving full time; and also 75 per centum of all other periods of time during which they have held commissions as officers of the Organized Militia between January 21, 1903, and July 1, 1916, or of the National Guard, the Naval Militia, or the National Naval Volunteers since June 3, 1916, and service as a contract surgeon serving full time, shall be included in the computation. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 1, 42 Stat. 625.)

5. Pay of persons not officers but whose pay equivalent to that of commissioned officers of certain grades; contract surgeons; commissioned warrant officers.—The provisions of this title shall apply equally to those persons serving, not as commissioned officers in the Army, or in the other services mentioned in the first paragraph of section 1 of this title, but whose pay under existing law is an amount equivalent to that of a commissioned officer of one of the above grades, those receiving the pay of colonel, lieutenant colonel, major, captain, first lieutenant, and second lieutenant, being classified as in the sixth, fifth, fourth, third, second, and first periods, respectively. Pay clerks of the Marine Corps shall receive the pay of second lieutenants of the Army of the same length of service. Contract surgeons serving full time shall have the pay and allowances for subsistence and rental authorized for officers serving in their second pay period. Commissioned warrant officers on the active list with cerditable records shall, after six years' commissioned service, receive the pay of the second period, and after twelve years' commissioned service, receive the pay of the third period: Provided, That a commissioned warrant officer promoted from the grade of warrant officer shall suffer no reduction of pay by reason of such promotion. Army field clerks and field clerks, Quartermaster Corps, shall have the allowances for subsistence and rental authorized for officers receiving the pay of the first period. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 1, 42 Stat. 625.)

6. No increase of pay for field or sea duty.—No commissioned officer while on field or sea duty shall receive any increase of his pay or compensation by reason of such duty. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 2, 42 Stat. 627.)

7. Pay of officers of National Guard or of reserve forces authorized to receive Federal pay; increase.—When officers of the National Guard or of the reserve forces of any of the services mentioned in the first paragraph of section 1 of this title are authorized by law to receive Federal pay, those serving in grades corresponding to those of colonel, lieutenant colonel, major, captain, first lieutenant, and second lieutenant of the Army shall receive the pay of the sixth, fifth, fourth, third, second, and first periods, respectively. Such officers whenever entitled to Federal pay, except armory drill and administrative function pay, shall receive as longevity pay, in addition to base pay provided but not exceeding the maximum pay prescribed by law, an increase thereof at the per centum and time rates up to thirty years provided in section 3. In computing the increase of pay for each period of three years' service, such officers shall be credited with full time for all periods during which they have held commissions as officers of any of the services mentioned in the first paragraph of section 1 of this title, or in the Organized Militia prior to July 1, 1916, or in the National Guard, or in the Naval Militia, or in the National Naval Volunteers, or in the Naval Reserve Force or Marine Corps Reserve Force, when confirmed in grade and qualified for all general service, with full time for all periods during which they have performed active duty under reserve commissions, and with one-half time for all other periods during which they have held reserve commissions. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 3, 42 Stat. 627; May 31, 1924, c. 224, § 1, 43 Stat. 250.)

8. "Dependent" defined.—The term "dependent" as used in the succeeding sections of this title shall include at all times and in all places a lawful wife and unmarried children under twenty-one years of age. It shall also include the mother of the officer provided she is in fact dependent on him for her chief support. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 4, 42 Stat. 627.)

9. Subsistence allowance to commissioned officers below grade of brigadier general or equivalent.—Each commissioned officer on the active list, or on active duty below the grade of brigadier general or its equivalent, in any of the services mentioned in the first paragraph of section 1 of this title, shall be entitled at all times, in addition to his pay, to a money allowance for subsistence, the value of one allowance to be determined by the President for each fiscal year in accordance with a certificate furnished by the Secretary of Labor showing the comparative retail cost of food in the United States for the previous calendar year as compared with the calendar year 1922. The value of one allowance is hereby fixed at 60 cents per day for the fiscal year 1923, and this value shall be the maximum and shall be used by the President as the standard in fixing the same or lower values for subsequent years. To each officer of any of the said services receiving the base pay of the first period the amount of this allowance shall be equal to one subsistence allowance, to each officer receiving the base pay of the second, third, or sixth period the amount of this allowance shall be equal to two subsistence allowances, and to each officer receiving the base pay of the fourth or fifth period the amount of this allowance shall be equal to three subsistence allowances: Provided, That an officer with no dependents shall receive one subsistence allowance in lieu of the above allowances. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 5, 42 Stat. 628.)

10. Rental allowance to commissioned officers below grade of brigadier general or equivalent.—Except as otherwise provided in the fourth paragraph of this section, each commissioned officer below the grade of brigadier general or its equivalent, in any of the services mentioned in the first paragraph of section 1 of this title, while either on active duty or entitled to active duty pay shall be entitled at all times to a money allowance for rental of quarters. The amount of such money allowance for the rental of quarters shall be determined by the rate for one room to be fixed by the President for each fiscal year in accordance with a certificate furnished by the Secretary of Labor showing the cost of rents in the United States for the preceding calendar year as compared with rents for the calendar year 1922. Such rate for one room is hereby fixed at $20 per month for the fiscal year 1923, and this rate shall be the maximum and shall be used by the President as the standard in fixing the same or lower rates for subsequent years.

To an officer having a dependent, receiving the base pay of the first period the amount of this allowance shall be equal to that for two rooms, to such an officer receiving the base pay of the second period the amount of this allowance shall be equal to that for three rooms, to such an officer receiving the base pay of the third period the amount of this allowance shall be equal to that for four rooms, to such an officer receiving the base pay of the fourth period the amount of this allowance shall be equal to that of five rooms, and to such an officer receiving the base pay of the fifth or sixth period the amount of this allowance shall be equal to that for six rooms.

An officer having no dependent, receiving the base pay of the first or second period shall receive the allowance for two rooms, such an officer receiving the base pay of the third or fourth period shall receive the allowance for three rooms, and such an officer receiving the base pay of the fifth or sixth period shall receive the allowance for four rooms.

No rental allowance shall accrue to an officer, having no dependents, while he is on field or sea duty, nor while an officer with or without dependents is assigned as quarters at his permanent station the number of rooms provided by law for an officer of his rank or a less number of rooms in any particular case wherein, in the judgment of competent superior authority of the service concerned, a less number of rooms would be adequate for the occupancy of the officer and his dependents.

Regulations in execution of the provisions of this section in peace and in war shall be made by the President and shall, whenever practicable in his judgment, be uniform for all of the services concerned, including adjunct forces thereof. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 6, 42 Stat. 628; May 31, 1924, c. 224, § 2, 43 Stat. 250.)

11. Amount of allowances, where subject to reduction.—When the total of base pay, pay for length of service and allowances for subsistence and rental of quarters, authorized in this title for any officer below the grade of brigadier general or its equivalent, shall exceed $7,200 a year, the amount of the allowances to which such officer is entitled shall be reduced by the amount of the excess above $7,200: Provided, That this section shall not apply to the commandant of the Coast Guard nor to the Director of the Coast and Geodetic Survey. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 7, 42 Stat. 628; Jan. 12, 1923, c. 25, § 2, 42 Stat. 1130.)

12. Base pay and allowances of brigadier generals, rear admirals and commodores, surgeon general, and officers above those grades.—Commencing July 1, 1922, the annual base pay of a brigadier general of the Army and of the Marine Corps, rear admiral (lower half) of the Navy, commodore of the Navy, and Surgeon General of the Public Health Service shall be $6,000; and the annual base pay of a major general of the Army and of the Marine Corps, and rear admiral (upper half) of the Navy shall be $8,000. Every such officer shall be entitled to the same money allowance for subsistence as is authorized in section 9 of this title for officers receiving the pay of the sixth period and to the same money allowance for rental of quarters as is authorized in section 10 of this title for officers receiving the pay of the sixth period: Provided, That when the total of base pay, subsistence, and rental allowances exceeds $7,500 for officers serving in the grade of brigadier general of the Army and of the Marine Corps, rear admiral (lower half) of the Navy, commodore of the Navy, and Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, and $9,700 for those serving in the grade of major general of the Army and of the Marine Corps, and rear admiral (upper half) of the Navy, the amount of the allowances to which such officer is entitled shall be reduced by the amount of the excess above $7,500 or $9,700, respectively. Rear admirals of the Navy serving in higher grades shall be entitled, while so serving, to the pay and allowances of a rear admiral (upper half) and to a personal money allowance per year as follows: When serving in the grade of vice admiral, $500; when serving in the grade of admiral or as Chief of Naval Operations, $2,200. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 8, 42 Stat. 629.)

13. Base pay of warrant officers and enlisted men of Army and Marine Corps; increase for service; reenlistment allowances; retired pay of enlisted men.—Commencing July 1, 1922, the monthly base pay of warrant officers and enlisted men of the Army and Marine Corps shall be as follows: Warrant officers of the Army and Marine Corps, $148; warrant officers, Army Mine Planter Service, master, $185; first mate, $141; second mate, $109; engineer, $175; assistant engineer, $120; enlisted men of the first grade, $126; enlisted men of the second grade, $84; enlisted men of the third grade, $72; enlisted men of the fourth grade, $54; enlisted men of the fifth grade, $42; enlisted men of the sixth grade, $30; enlisted men of the seventh grade, $21; and the pay for specialists' ratings shall be as follows: First class, $30; second class, $25; third class, $20; fourth class, $15; fifth class, $6; sixth class, $3. Existing laws authorizing continuous-service pay for each five years of service are hereby repealed, effective June 30, 1922. Commencing July 1, 1922, warrant officers of the Army and Marine Corps, including warrant officers of the Army Mine Planter Service and enlisted men of the Army and Marine Corps, shall receive, as a permanent addition to their pay, an increase of 5 per centum of their base pay for each four years of service in any of the services mentioned in the first paragraph of section 1 of this title not to exceed 25 per centum. On and after July 1, 1922, an enlistment allowance equal to $50, multiplied by the number of years served in the enlistment period from which he has last been discharged, shall be paid to every honorably discharged enlisted man of the first three grades who reenlists within a period of three months from the date of his discharge, and an enlistment allowance of $25, multiplied by the number of years served in the enlistment period from which he has last been discharged, shall be paid to every honorably discharged enlisted man of the other grades who reenlists within a period of three months from the date of his discharge. Nothing contained herein shall operate to reduce the pay now being received by any transferred member of the Fleet Marine Corps Reserve. On and after July 1, 1922, retired enlisted men of the Army and Marine Corps shall have their retired pay computed as now authorized by law on the basis of pay provided in this title. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 9, 42 Stat. 629.)

14. Base pay of warrant officers and enlisted men of Navy and Coast Guard.—On and after July 1, 1922, the monthly base pay of warrant officers of the Navy and Coast Guard shall be as follows: During the first six years of service—at sea, $153; on shore, $135; during the second six years of service—at sea, $168; on shore, $147; after twelve years' service—at sea, $189; on shore, $168. On and after July 1, 1922, for purposes of pay, enlisted men of the Navy and Coast Guard shall be distributed in seven grades, with monthly base rates of pay as follows: First grade, $126; second grade, $84; third grade, $72; fourth grade, $60; fifth grade, $54; sixth grade, $36; seventh grade, $21. Chief petty officers under acting appointment shall be included in the first grade at a monthly base pay of $99. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 10, 42 Stat. 630.)

15. Pay grade for various ratings of enlisted men of Navy and Coast Guard; increase for length of service.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to fix the pay grade for the various ratings of enlisted men of the Navy; and the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to fix the pay grade for the various ratings of enlisted men of the Coast Guard. Mates shall receive the pay of enlisted men of the first grade of the Navy. Nothing contained herein shall operate to reduce the pay now being received by any transferred member of the Fleet Naval Reserve. In lieu of all permanent additions to pay now authorized for enlisted men of the Navy and Coast Guard, they shall receive, as a permanent addition to their pay, an increase of 10 per centum on the base pay of their rating upon completion of the first four years of enlisted service, and an additional increase of 5 per centum for each four years' service thereafter, the total not to exceed 25 per centum. All transient additions to pay of enlisted men of the Navy and Coast Guard are hereby repealed, except as provided for in section 30 of this title. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 10, 42 Stat. 630.)

16. Pay of insular force of Navy; reenlistment gratuity laws repealed; enlistment allowances; retired pay of enlisted men.—The rates of pay of the insular force of the Navy shall be one-half the rates of pay prescribed for enlisted men of the Navy in corresponding ratings. Existing laws authorizing a reenlistment gratuity to enlisted men of the Navy and Coast Guard are hereby repealed, and an enlistment allowance equal to $50 multiplied by the number of years served in the enlistment period from which he has last been discharged, but not to exceed $200, shall be paid to every honorably discharged enlisted man of the first three grades who reenlists within a period of three months from the date of his discharge; and an enlistment allowance of $25 multiplied by the number of years served in the enlistment period from which he has last been discharged, but not to exceed $100, shall be paid to every honorably discharged enlisted man of the other grades who reenlists within a period of three months from the date of his discharge. On and after July 1, 1922, retired enlisted men of the Navy and Coast Guard shall have their retired pay computed as now authorized by law on the basis of pay provided by this title. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 10, 42 Stat. 630.)

17. Retainer pay of men transferred to Fleet Naval Reserve or Fleet Marine Corps Reserve.—The retainer pay of all men who were on July 1, 1922, transferred members of the Fleet Naval Reserve or the Fleet Marine Corps Reserve shall be computed on the rates of pay authorized for enlisted men of the naval service by this title: Provided, That the retainer pay of such reservists shall be not less than that to which they were entitled on June 30, 1922, under decisions of the Comptroller of the Treasury in force on that date. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 10; May 31, 1924, c. 224, § 3, 43 Stat. 251.)

18. Credit to enlisted men of service as warrant or commissioned officers.—All enlisted men of all the services mentioned in the first paragraph of section 1 of this title who serve as warrant or commissioned officers in any of said services, including adjunct forces thereof, shall be credited with all active service so performed during the period from April 6, 1917, to December 31, 1921, in the computation of their enlisted service for longevity pay purposes, and shall be paid accordingly. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 10; May 31, 1924, c. 224, § 3, 43 Stat. 251.)

19. Money allowances to warrant officers and enlisted men for subsistence and rental of quarters; subsistence for pilots; commutation of rations of enlisted men.—Warrant officers of the Army, including those of the Army Mine Planter Service, of the Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, shall be entitled at all times to the same money allowance for subsistence as is authorized in section 9 of this title for officers receiving the pay of the first period, and to the same money allowance for rental of quarters as is authorized in section 10 of this title for officers receiving the pay of the first period. To each enlisted man not furnished quarters or rations in kind there shall be granted, under such regulations as the President may prescribe, an allowance for quarters and subsistence, the value of which shall depend on the conditions under which the duty of the man is being performed, and shall not exceed $4 per day. These regulations shall be uniform for all the services mentioned in the first paragraph of section 1 of this title. Subsistence for pilots shall be paid in accordance with existing regulations, and rations for enlisted men may be commuted as now authorized by law. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 11, 42 Stat. 630.)

20. Mileage allowance to officers; travel expenses.—Officers of any of the services mentioned in the first paragraph of section 1 of this title, when traveling under competent orders without troops, shall receive a mileage allowance at the rate of 8 cents per mile, distance to be computed by the shortest usually traveled route and existing laws providing for the issue of transportation requests to officers of the Army traveling under competent orders, and for deduction to be made from mileage accounts when transportation is furnished by the United States, are hereby made applicable to all the services mentioned in the first paragraph of section 1 of this title, but in cases when orders are given for travel to be performed repeatedly between two or more places in the same vicinity, as determined by the head of the executive department concerned, he may, in his discretion, direct that actual and necessary expenses only be allowed. Actual expenses only shall be paid for travel under orders outside the limits of the United States in North America. Unless otherwise expressly provided by law, no officer of the services mentioned in the first paragraph of section 1 of this title shall be allowed or paid any sum in excess of expenses actually incurred for subsistence while traveling on duty away from his designated post of duty, nor any sum for such expenses actually incurred in excess of $7 per day. The heads of the executive departments concerned are authorized to prescribe per diem rates of allowance, not exceeding $6, in lieu of subsistence to officers traveling on official business and away from their designated posts of duty. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 12, 42 Stat. 631.)

21. Money allowance in lieu of transportation in kind for dependents of commissioned and enlisted personnel.—In lieu of the transportation in kind authorized by section 896, Title 34, NAVY, to be furnished by the United States for dependents, the President may authorize the payment in money of amounts equal to such commercial transportation costs when such travel shall have been completed. Dependent children shall be such as are defined in section 8 of this title. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 12, 42 Stat. 631.)

22. Pay and allowances of female nurses of Army and Navy.—Commencing July 1, 1922, the annual pay of female nurses of the Army and Navy shall be as follows: During the first three years of service, $840; from the beginning of the fourth year of service until the completion of the sixth year of service, $1,080; from the beginning of the seventh year of service until the completion of the ninth year of service, $1,380; from the beginning of the tenth year of service, $1,560. Superintendents of the Nurse Corps shall receive a money allowance at the rate of $2,500 a year, assistant superintendents, directors, and assistant directors at the rate of $1,500 a year, and chief nurses at the rate of $600 a year, in addition to their pay as nurses. Nurses shall be entitled to the same allowance for subsistence as is authorized in section 9 of this title for officers receiving the pay of the first period, and to the same allowance for rental of quarters as is authorized in section 10 of this chapter for officers receiving the pay of the first period. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 13, 42 Stat. 631.)

23. National Guard officers and enlisted men; reserve officers; pay and allowances; armory drill pay; validation of payments.—Officers of the National Guard receiving Federal pay, except for armory drill, and reserve officers of any of the services mentioned in the first paragraph of section 1 of this title, while on active duty shall receive the allowances herein prescribed for officers of the regular services in sections 9 and 10 in addition to the pay authorized in section 143 of Title 32; field officers and lieutenants of the National Guard commanding organizations less than a brigade, and having administrative functions, shall receive $240 per year for the faithful performance of the administrative duties connected therewith; and warrant officers of the National Guard shall receive not more than four-thirtieths of the monthly base pay of their grade for satisfactory performance of their appropriate duties, under such regulations as the Secretary of War may prescribe.

On and after July 1, 1922, the armory drill pay for enlisted men of the National Guard of the sixth grade shall be $1.15, and for those of the seventh grade shall be $1, in lieu of that theretofore authorized; and the pay of enlisted men of the National Guard of the sixth and seventh grades shall be $1.15 and $1 per day, respectively, whenever they are participating in exercises provided for by sections 63, 64, and 65 of Title 32.

Officers and warrant officers of the National Guard, while participating in exercises or performing the duties provided for by sections 63, 64, and 65 of Title 32, and reserve officers and reserve warrant officers of any of the services mentioned in the first paragraph of section 1 of this chapter, while on active duty, including duty for training purposes, shall receive the allowances prescribed for officers and warrant officers of the Regular services under sections 9, 10, and 19 of this title, and payments heretofore made, or accruing under the operation of this section, hereby made retroactive in effect, for rental allowances to officers and warrant officers of the National Guard or reserves while attending camps of instruction or service schools are hereby validated. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 14, 42 Stat. 631, 632; Mar. 4, 1923, c. 281, 42 Stat. 1507.)

24. Laws authorizing increase of pay for foreign service and commutation of quarters, heat, and light repealed.—Existing laws authorizing increase of pay for foreign service and commutation of quarters, heat, and light are hereby repealed, effective July 1, 1922. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 15, 42 Stat. 632.)

25. Existing pay of officers and persons whose pay is based on pay of commissioned officers not reduced; total of existing pay and allowances of enlisted men not reduced.—Nothing contained in this title shall operate to reduce the pay of any officer on the active list below the pay to which he is entitled by reason of his grade and length of service on June 30, 1922, not including additional pay then authorized by law; and nothing contained in this title shall operate to reduce the total of the pay and allowances which any enlisted man of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard is now receiving during his current enlistment and while he holds his present grade or rating.

The provisions of this section shall apply in like manner to each person not commissioned whose pay is based by law on that of a commissioned officer. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 16, 42 Stat. 632.)

26. Retired pay; officers and warrant officers; no promotion of retired officers for active duty; pay and allowances of retired officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men when on active duty.—On and after July 1, 1922, retired officers and warrant officers shall have their retired pay, or equivalent pay, computed as now authorized by law on the basis of pay provided in this title: Provided, That nothing contained in this title shall operate to reduce the present pay of officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men now on the retired list or officers or warrant officers in an equivalent status of any of the services mentioned in the first paragraph of section 1 of this title: Provided, That the pay saved to an officer by section 25 of this title or by section 972 of Title 10 shall be construed as the pay provided in this title for the purpose of computing retired pay. Active duty performed after June 30, 1922, by an officer on the retired list or its equivalent shall not entitle such officer to promotion: Provided, That officers and former officers of the Philippine Scouts who were placed on the retired list prior to June 4, 1920, shall be entitled to promotion on the retired list for active duty performed prior to July 1, 1922, subsequent to retirement, in accordance with the provisions of section 1011 of Title 10, and to the same pay and benefits received by other officers of the Army of like grade and length of service, on the retired list. Retired officers of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, and Coast and Geodetic Survey below the grade of brigadier general or commodore and retired warrant officers and enlisted men of those services, shall, when on active duty, receive full pay and allowances. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 17, 42 Stat. 632; May 31, 1924, c. 224, § 6, 43 Stat. 252.)

27. Additional pay to enlisted men for special qualifications.—Under such regulations as the President may prescribe, enlisted men of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard may receive additional compensation not less than $1 or more than $5 per month, for special qualification in the use of the arm or arms which they may be required to use. All laws and parts of laws authorizing extra pay for qualification in the use of arms or instruments, or for holding rated positions, except as otherwise specifically provided herein, are hereby repealed, to take effect July 1, 1922. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 18, 42 Stat. 632.)

28. Pay and allowances of cadets and cadet engineers.—Cadets at the Military Academy and cadets and cadet engineers of the Coast Guard shall receive the same pay and allowances as are now or may hereafter be provided by law for midshipmen in the Navy. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 19, 42 Stat. 632.)

29. Increase of pay of officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men detailed to duty involving flying; number detailed.—All officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men of all branches of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, when detailed to duty involving flying, shall receive the same increase of their pay and the same allowance for traveling expenses as are now authorized for the performance of like duties in the Army. Exclusive of the Army Air Service, and student aviators and qualified aircraft pilots of the Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, the number of officers of any of the services mentioned in the first paragraph of section 1 of this title detailed to duty involving flying shall not at any one time exceed one-half of 1 per centum of the total authorized commissioned strength of such service. Officers, warrant officers, and enlisted men of the National Guard participating in exercises or performing duties provided for by sections 62, 63, 64, and 65 of Title 32, and of the reserves of the services mentioned in the first paragraph of section 1 of this title called to active duty shall receive an increase of 50 per centum of their pay while on duty requiring them to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flights, and when such flying duty involves travel they shall also receive the same allowances for traveling expenses as are or hereafter may be authorized for the Regular Army. Regulations in execution of the provisions of this section shall be made by the President and shall, whenever practicable in his judgment, be uniform for all the services concerned. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 20, 42 Stat. 632; May 31, 1924, c. 224, § 4, 43 Stat. 251.)

30. Existing laws and regulations governing pay and allowances which are not affected by readjustment provisions.—Nothing in this title shall operate to change in any way existing laws, or regulations made in pursuance of law, governing pay and allowances of the General of the Armies, the enlisted men of the Philippine Scouts, Marine Band, Naval Academy Band, Indian scouts, or flying cadets; nor the allowances in kind for rations, quarters, heat, and light for enlisted men; nor allowances in kind for quarters, heat, and light for officers and warrant officers; nor allowances for private mounts for officers; nor transportation in kind for officers and warrant officers and enlisted men and their dependents; nor transportation and packing allowances for baggage or household effects of officers and warrant officers and enlisted men; nor additional pay for aides; nor extra pay to enlisted men serving as stenographic reporters, or employed as cooks or messmen, or mail clerks, or assistant mail clerks, or engaged in submarine diving or service on submarines; nor money allowances granted to enlisted men on account of awards of medals or decorations expressly authorized by Congress: Provided, That the pay and allowances of the members of the Naval Academy Band shall be not less than that which was authorized for the various ranks and ratings in said bands on June 30, 1922, under decisions of the Comptroller of the Treasury in force on that date. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 21, 42 Stat. 633; May 31, 1924, c. 224, § 5, 43 Stat. 251.)

31. When provisions of chapter effective; inconsistent laws repealed.—The provisions of this title shall be effective beginning July 1, 1922, and all laws and parts of laws which are inconsistent herewith or in conflict with the provisions hereof are hereby repealed as of that date. (June 10, 1922, c. 212, § 22, 42 Stat. 633.)

5. Pension disbursing clerk; appointment.
6. Acting pension disbursing clerk; designation of clerks to sign checks.
7. Bond of disbursing clerk.
8. Detail of clerks to assist House Committees on Pensions.

Section 1. Commissioner of Pensions.—There shall be in the Department of the Interior a Commissioner of Pensions who shall be appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. (R. S. § 470; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1164.)

2. Same; duties.—The Commissioner of Pensions shall perform, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, such duties in the execution of the various pension laws as may be prescribed by the President. (R. S. § 471.)

3. Deputy commissioner; duties.—There shall be in the Department of the Interior a Deputy Commissioner of Pensions, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, who shall be charged with such duties in the Pension Bureau as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior, or may be required by law, and in case of death, resignation, absence, or sickness of the commissioner, his duties shall devolve upon the deputy commissioner, until a successor is appointed or such absence or sickness ceases. (R. S. § 472.)

4. Annual report of pensions.—The Commissioner of Pensions shall, so far as may be practicable, in his annual reports state the amount paid for pensions during the fiscal year for which the report is made, in such manner as will indicate, separately, the number of pensioners and the aggregate payments for pensions on account of each of the wars for which pensions have been authorized, and on account of military and naval services since the close of the Civil War. He shall report in his annual report the total annual amount paid for additions also reductions on the annual pension rolls. (Jan. 19, 1877, c. 27, § 1, 19 Stat. 223; Apr. 4, 1890, c. 63, 26 Stat. 40.)

5. Pension disbursing clerk; appointment.—There shall be one disbursing clerk in the Bureau of Pensions to be selected and appointed by the Secretary of the Interior. (Aug. 17, 1912, c. 301, § 1, 37 Stat. 312.)

6. Acting pension disbursing clerk; designation of clerks to sign checks.—In case of sickness or unavoidable absence of the disbursing clerk for the payment of pensions from his office, the Commissioner of Pensions may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, authorize the chief clerk of his office or some other clerk employed therein to temporarily act as such disbursing clerk for payment of pensions.

With the approval of the Commissioner of Pensions and the Secretary of the Interior, the disbursing clerk for the payment of pensions may designate and authorize the necessary number of clerks to sign the name of the disbursing clerk for the payment of pensions to official checks. (Aug. 17, 1912, c. 301, § 5, 37 Stat. 313.)

7. Bond of disbursing clerk.—The disbursing clerk shall give bond with good and sufficient surety for such amount and in such form as the Secretary of the Interior may approve, and such bond shall be held to cover and apply to the acts of persons authorized to act in his place. (Aug. 17, 1912, c. 301, § 5, 37 Stat. 313.)

8. Detail of clerks to assist House Committees on Pensions.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, if in his opinion the public interests will not suffer thereby, upon the request of either of the committees hereinafter named, to detail from that department, one clerk to act as assistant clerk to the House Committee on Pensions, and one clerk to act as assistant clerk to the House Committee on Invalid Pensions. (Feb. 1, 1884, No. 4, 23 Stat. 266.)

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 21. Laws extended to rates prior to March 4, 1861.—The provisions of this title in respect to the rates of pension to persons whose right accrued since the 4th day of March, 1861, are extended to pensioners whose right to pension accrued under general Acts passed since the War of the Revolution and prior to the 4th day of March, 1861. (R. S. § 4712.)

23. Provisions extended to Missouri State Militia.—The provisions of sections 151 and 191 of this title are extended to the officers and privates of the Missouri State Militia, and the Provisional Missouri Militia, disabled by reason of injury received or disease contracted in the line of duty while such militia was cooperating with United States forces, and the widow or children of any such person, dying of injury received or disease contracted under the circumstances herein set forth, shall be entitled to the benefits of this title. But the pensions on account of such militia shall not commence prior to the 3d day of March, 1873. (R. S. § 4722.)

24. Applicants presumed not disabled at time of enlistment.—All applicants for pensions shall be presumed to have had no disability at the time of enlistment; but such presumption may be rebutted. (Mar. 3, 1885, c. 340, 23 Stat. 362.)

25. One pension at a time.—Nothing in this title shall be so construed as to allow more than one pension at the same time to the same person, or to persons entitled jointly; but any pensioner who shall so elect may surrender his certificate, and receive, in lieu thereof, a certificate for any other pension to which he would have been entitled had not the surrendered certificate been issued. But all payments previously made for any period covered by the new certificate shall be deducted from the amount allowed by such certificate. (R. S. § 4715.)

26. Allowance to persons in Army, Navy, or Marine Corps.—No pension shall be allowed or paid to any officer, noncommissioned officer, or private in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States, either on the active or retired list. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 548, § 1, 26 Stat. 1082.)

27. Pension to retired officers and men of Revenue Cutter Service or Coast Guard.—No pension shall be allowed or paid to any commissioned officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man in the Revenue Cutter Service or Coast Guard on the retired list. (May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 322; Jan. 28, 1915, c. 20, § 1, 38 Stat. 800; Jan. 28, 1915, c. 20, § 3, 38 Stat. 801.)

28. Pension allowed by special Acts not subject to general laws; suspension of payment.—When the rate, commencement, and duration of a pension allowed by special Act are fixed by such Act, they shall not be subject to be varied by the provisions and limitations of the general pension laws, but when not thus fixed the rate and continuance of the pension shall be subject to variation in accordance with the general laws, and its commencement shall date from the passage of the special Act, and the Commissioner of Pensions shall, upon satisfactory evidence that fraud was perpetrated in obtaining such special Act, suspend payment thereupon until the propriety of repealing the same can be considered by Congress. (R. S. § 4720.)

29. Same; pensioners under special Act; rights under general law.—No person receiving a pension under a special Act shall be entitled to receive in addition thereto a pension under the general law, unless the special Act expressly states that the pension granted thereby is in addition to the pension which said person is entitled to receive under the general law. (July 25, 1882, c. 349, § 5, 22 Stat. 176.)

30. Absentees on furlough.—Officers absent on sick leave, and enlisted men absent on sick furlough, or on veteran furlough with the organization to which they belong, shall be regarded in the administration of the pension laws in the same manner as if they were in the field or hospital. (R. S. § 4700.)

31. Period of service construed.—The period of service of all persons entitled to the benefits of the pension laws, or on account of whose death any person may become entitled to a pension, shall be construed to extend to the time of disbanding the organization to which such persons belonged, or until their actual discharge for other cause than the expiration of the service of such organization. (R. S. § 4701.)

32. Presumption of death after seven years' unexplained absence.—In considering claims filed under the pension laws, the death of an enlisted man or officer shall be considered as sufficiently proved if satisfactory evidence is produced establishing the fact of the continued and unexplained absence of such enlisted man or officer from his home and family for a period of seven years, during which period no intelligence of his existence shall have been received. And any pension granted under this title shall cease upon proof that such officer or enlisted man is still living. (Mar. 13, 1896, c. 54, 29 Stat. 57.)

APPLICATION AND DECLARATION OF CLAIMANT; PAYMENT OF PENSIONS

41. Pension forms furnished on application; notice of issuance of certificate.—The Commissioner of Pensions, on application being made to him in person, or by letter, by any claimant or applicant for pension, or other allowance required by law to be adjusted or paid by the Pension Office, shall furnish such person, free of all expense, all such printed instructions and forms as may be necessary in establishing and obtaining said claim; and on the issuing of a certificate of pension, he shall forthwith notify the claimant or applicant, and also the attorney in the case, if there be one, that such certificate has been issued, or allowance made, and the date and amount thereof. (R. S. § 4748; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 301, § 1, 37 Stat. 312.)

42. Declarations of claimants; before whom made; certificate of official character; recognition.—Declarations of pension claimants shall be made before a court of record, or before some officer thereof having custody of its seal, or before some officer who, under the laws of his State, city or county, has authority to administer oaths for general purposes; and said officers are fully authorized and empowered to administer and certify any oath or affirmation relating to any pension or application therefor. Where such declaration or other papers are executed before an officer authorized as above but not required by the laws of his State to have and use a seal to authenticate his official acts, he shall file in the Pension Bureau a certificate of his official character, showing his official signature and term of office, certified by a clerk of a court of record or other proper officer of the State as to the genuineness thereof; and when said certificate has been filed in the Bureau of Pensions his own certificate will be recognized during his term of office. (July 26, 1892, c. 255, § 1, 27 Stat. 272.)

43. Same; in foreign countries; Indians.—The Commissioner of Pensions may accept declarations and other papers of claimants residing in foreign countries made before a United States minister or consul or other consular officer, or before some officer of the country duly authorized to administer oaths for general purposes, and whose official character and signature shall be duly authenticated by the certificate of a United States minister or consul or other consular officer; and declarations in claims of Indians may be made before a United States Indian agent. (July 26, 1892, c. 255, § 2, 27 Stat. 272.)

44. Payment of pension to persons entitled only; exceptions.—No pension shall be paid to any person other than the pensioner entitled thereto, nor otherwise than according to the provisions of this title; and no warrant, power of attorney, or other paper executed or purporting to be executed by any pensioner to any attorney, claim agent, broker, or other person shall be recognized, nor shall any pension be paid thereon; but the payment to persons laboring under legal disabilities may be made to the guardians of such persons in the manner herein prescribed. In case of an insane invalid pensioner having no guardian, but having a wife or children dependent upon him (the wife being a woman of good character), the Commissioner of Pensions may, in his discretion, cause the pension to be paid to the wife, upon her properly executed voucher, or in case there is no wife, to the guardian of the children, upon the properly executed voucher of such guardian, and in like manner cause the pension of invalid pensioners who are or may be imprisoned as punishment for offenses against the laws to be paid while so imprisoned to their wives or the guardians of their children. (R. S. § 4766; Aug. 8, 1882, c. 469, 22 Stat. 373; Mar. 14, 1898, c. 60, 30 Stat. 276; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 460, 30 Stat. 1379; Aug. 17, 1912, c. 301, §§ 1, 3, 37 Stat. 312.)

45. Same; desertion of wife or minor children by resident pensioner.—In case a resident pensioner of the United States shall for a period of over six months desert his lawful wife, she being a woman of good moral character and in necessitous circumstances, or, if he have no lawful wife, shall desert his legitimate minor child or children under sixteen years of age, or his permanently helpless and dependent child, the Commissioner of Pensions, upon being satisfied by competent evidence of such desertion, shall cause one-half of the pension due or to become due said pensioner during the continuance of such desertion to be paid to the wife, or in case there is no wife, to the legal guardian of the child or children. (R. S. § 4766; Aug. 8, 1882, c. 469, 22 Stat. 373; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 460, 30 Stat. 1379.)

46. Same; pensioner inmate of national soldiers' home.—If any such pensioner shall become an inmate of a national soldiers' home one-half of the pension drawn in his behalf or to which he may become entitled during his residence therein shall be paid by the treasurer of that institution to such pensioner's wife, she being in necessitous circumstances and a woman of good moral character, or, if there be no wife, to the legal guardian of the minor child or children, or the permanently dependent and helpless child or children of such pensioner, on the order of the Commissioner of Pensions. (R. S. § 4766; Aug. 8, 1882, c 469, 22 Stat. 373; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 460, 30 Stat. 1379.)

47. Same; pensioner entering State home for soldiers or sailors.—When a soldier or sailor enters into a State home for soldiers or sailors as an inmate thereof, one-half of his pension accruing during his residence therein shall be paid on the order of the Commissioner of Pensions to his wife, she being a woman of good moral character and in necessitous circumstances, or if there be no wife, then to his child or children under sixteen years of age, or his permanently helpless and dependent child, if any, unless such wife and children shall also be inmates of the same institution or of some home provided for the wives and children of soldiers and sailors. (R. S. § 4766; Aug. 8, 1882, c. 469, 22 Stat. 373; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 460, 30 Stat. 1379.)

48. Same; inmates of State soldiers' and sailors' homes for volunteer soldiers.—All pensioners who may be inmates of any soldiers' and sailors' home, or other institution maintained by any State for the benefit of dependent or other disabled volunteer soldiers, shall have their respective pensions paid to them directly instead of to the treasurer or other officer of the home or institution at which they may be respectively located. (May 28, 1908, c. 208, 35 Stat. 419.)

49. Same; determination of questions of desertion, entrance into a home; necessitous circumstances, etc.—In all cases under sections 44 to 47, inclusive, of this title the questions of desertion, entrance into a home, necessitous circumstances, and of good moral character shall be ascertained and determined by the Commissioner of Pensions under such rules and regulations as he shall prescribe, and the treasurers or governors of the several soldiers' and sailors' homes shall be advised of such action from time to time. (R. S. § 4766; Aug. 8, 1882, c. 469, 22 Stat. 373; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 460, 30 Stat. 1379.)

50. Payment of pensions by checks without vouchers; delivery or return of mail.—Pensions shall be paid by checks drawn, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, in such form as to protect the United States against loss, without separate vouchers or receipts, and payable by the proper assistant treasurer or designated depositary, except in the case of any pension which the law authorizes to be paid to some person other than the pensioner, or in any case in which the Secretary of the Interior may consider a voucher necessary for the protection of the Government. Such checks shall be transmitted by mail to the payee thereof at his last known address.

Postmasters, delivery clerks, letter carriers, and all other postal employees are prohibited from delivering any such mail to any person whomsoever, if the addressee has died or removed, or in the case of a widow believed by the postal employee intrusted with the delivery of such mail to have remarried; and the postmaster in every such case shall forthwith return such mail with a statement of the reasons for so doing, and if because of death or remarriage, the date thereof, if known. Checks returned as herein provided on account of the death or remarriage of the pensioner shall be canceled. (Mar. 14, 1898, c. 60, 30 Stat. 276; Aug. 17, 1912, c. 301, § 3, 37 Stat. 312.)

51. Same; payable monthly.—Payment of pensions shall be made monthly, on the 4th day of each month. The provisions of this section shall not apply to civil pensions. (Aug. 17, 1912, c. 301, § 2, 37 Stat. 312; May 3, 1922, c. 177, § 1, 42 Stat. 505.)

52. Same; payment to inmates of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers unaffected.—Nothing in sections 50 and 128 of this title shall be construed as amending or repealing section 138 of Title 24 of this Code, concerning the payment of pensions due inmates of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers. (Aug. 17, 1912, c. 301, § 6, 37 Stat. 313.)

53. Unclaimed pensions.—The failure of any pensioner to claim his pension for three years after the same shall have become due shall be deemed presumptive evidence that such pension has legally terminated by reason of the pensioner's death, remarriage, recovery from the disability, or otherwise, and the pensioner's name shall be stricken from the list of pensioners, subject to the right of restoration to the same on a new application by the pensioner, or, if the pensioner is dead, by the widow or minor children entitled to receive the accrued pension, accompanied by evidence satisfactorily accounting for the failure to claim such pension, and by medical evidence in cases of invalids who were not exempt from biennial examinations as to the continuance of the disability. (R. S. § 4719.)

54. Attachment, levy, or seizure of moneys due pensioners prohibited.—No sum of money due, or to become due, to any pensioner shall be liable to attachment, levy, or seizure by or under any legal or equitable process whatever, whether the same remains with the Pension Office, or any officer or agent thereof, or is in course of transmission to the pensioner entitled thereto, but shall inure wholly to the benefit of such pensioner. (R. S. § 4747.)

55. Withholding pension prohibited.—The provisions of law which allow the withholding of the compensation of any person who is in arrears shall not be construed to authorize the pension of any pensioner of the United States to be withheld. (R. S. § 4734.)

56. Same; notice and hearing.—Any pension granted to any applicant therefor under any law of the United States authorizing the granting and payment of pensions, on application made and adjudicated upon, shall be deemed and held by all officers of the United States to be a vested right in the grantee to that extent that payment thereof shall not be withheld or suspended until, after due notice to the grantee of not less than thirty days, the Commissioner of Pensions, after hearing all the evidence, shall decide to annul, vacate, modify, or set aside the decision upon which such pension was granted. Such notice to grantee must contain a full and true statement of any charges or allegations upon which such decision granting such pension shall be sought to be in any manner disturbed or modified. (Dec. 21, 1893, c. 3, 28 Stat. 16.)

57. Same; increase or reduction of pensions.—The Commissioner of Pensions shall have power to increase or reduce pensions according to right and justice; but in no case shall a pension be withdrawn or reduced except upon notice to the pensioner and a hearing upon sworn testimony, except as to the certificate of the examining surgeon. (June 21, 1879, c. 34, § 3, 21 Stat. 30.)

58. Increase of pension from date of examiner's certificate.—Except in cases of permanent specific disabilities, no increase of pension shall be allowed to commence prior to the date of the examining surgeon's certificate establishing the same made under the pending claim for increase; and in this, as well as all other cases, the certificate of an examining surgeon, or of a board of examining surgeons, shall be subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Pensions. (R. S. § 4698½.)

EXAMINATION OF CLAIMANTS AND PENSIONERS; FEES

71. Boards of examining surgeons; reviewing boards; examinations; expert surgeons; fees for examination of nonresidents.—The Commissioner of Pensions is authorized to appoint surgeons who, under his control and direction shall make such examination of pensioners and claimants for pension or increased pension as he shall require; and he shall organize boards of surgeons, to consist of three members each, at such points in each State as he shall deem necessary, and all examinations, so far as practicable, shall be made by the boards, and no examination shall be made by one surgeon excepting under such circumstances as make it impracticable for a claimant to present himself before a board. The commissioner may, when in his opinion the exigencies of the service require it, organize a board of three surgeons who, under his direction, shall review the work of any regularly appointed board or surgeon. All examinations shall be thorough and searching. When a claimant is so disabled as not to be able to present himself to a board of surgeons for examination, the commissioner may order a surgeon to make the examination at the claimant's residence. The commissioner may, when in his judgment the degree of disability can not be determined truthfully or satisfactorily excepting by expert examination, employ an expert, not a regularly appointed surgeon, to make the examination; and the fee for such examination shall be $5. The fee for an expert examination shall not be paid to any regularly appointed examining surgeon. The fee for the examination of claimants who reside out of the United States shall not exceed $10, which shall be paid, upon the presentation of satisfactory vouchers, out of the appropriation for the payment of the examining surgeons, and through the United States consulate nearest to the claimant's place of residence. (July 25, 1882, c. 349, § 4, 22 Stat. 175; Sept. 22, 1922, c. 417, § 1, 42 Stat. 1030.)

72. Same; fees; mileage.—Each duly designated examining surgeon except expert and foreign surgeons, and each member of a board of examining surgeons, appointed by the Commissioner of Pensions for the examination of pensioners and claimants for pension or increased pension, shall receive the sum of $3 for each examination and satisfactory report thereof. The fee for each examination made by an examining surgeon at a claimant's residence for use in a pension claim shall be $5, and in lieu of actual traveling expenses there shall be paid the sum of 20 cents per mile for the distance actually and necessarily traveled, not exceeding the distance by the usually traveled route from the surgeon's office to the claimant's home and return. No fee shall be paid to any member of an examining board unless he is personally present and assists in the examination of the claimant. The report shall specifically and accurately set forth the physical condition of the claimant and include a full description of every existing disability. (May 28, 1908, c. 208, 35 Stat. 419; Mar. 3, 1917, c. 170, 39 Stat. 1132; Sept. 22, 1922, c. 417, § 1, 42 Stat. 1030.)

73. Same; report; inspection by claimant.—The report of examining surgeons when filed in the Pension Office shall be open to the examination and inspection of the claimant or his attorney, under such reasonable rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may provide. (July 18, 1894, c. 141, 28 Stat. 113.)

74. Medical referee and examining surgeons.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to appoint a duly qualified surgeon as medical referee who, under the control and direction of the Commissioner of Pensions, shall have charge of the examination and revision of the reports of examining surgeons and such other duties touching medical and surgical questions in the Pension Office, as the interests of the service may demand. And the Secretary of the Interior is further authorized to appoint such qualified surgeons (not exceeding four) as the exigencies of the service may require, who may perform the duties of examining surgeons when so required, but such appointments shall not increase the clerical force of said bureau. (R. S. § 4776.)

75. Visit to medical examining boards or surgeons by Commissioner of Pensions; expenses.—The Commissioner of Pensions may, when in his judgment it shall be deemed necessary or proper, visit in person, for the purpose of examination and inspection, any of the medical examining boards or surgeons, or may send any one or more of the officers of his bureau for that purpose, and the necessary and actual expenses of such visits shall be paid by the Secretary of the Interior, upon properly executed vouchers, out of the contingent fund of said bureau. (R. S. § 4766; Aug. 8, 1882, c. 469, 22 Stat. 373; Mar. 8, 1899, c. 460, 30 Stat. 1379.)

ACCRUAL AND COMMENCEMENT OF PENSIONS

91. Commencement of pension.—All pensions granted in consequence of death occurring from a cause which originated in the service since March 4, 1861, or in consequence of wounds, or injuries received or disease contracted since that date shall commence, except as otherwise provided by law, from the date of filing the application in the Bureau of Pensions. (Jan. 25, 1879, c. 23, § 1, 20 Stat. 265; Mar. 3, 1879, c. 187, § 2, 20 Stat. 470; June 7, 1888, c. 369, 25 Stat. 173.)

92. Same; insane persons and children.—Except as otherwise provided by law, all pensions granted, on claims by or in behalf of insane persons and children under sixteen years of age, in consequence of death occurring from a cause which originated in the service since the 4th day of March, 1861, or in consequence of wounds or injuries received or death contracted since that date, shall commence from the death or discharge of the person on whose account the claim is granted, if the disability occurred prior to discharge, and if such disability occurred after the discharge then from the date of actual disability or from the termination of the right of the party having prior title to such pension. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 187, § 2, 20 Stat. 470.)

93. Same; applications filed prior to July 1, 1880.—Where application was filed prior to July 1, 1880, all pensions granted in consequence of death occurring from a cause which originated in the service since March 4, 1861, or in consequence of wounds or injuries received or disease contracted since that date shall commence from the death or discharge of the person on whose account the claim has been granted if the disability occurred prior to discharge and if such disability occurred after the discharge, then from the date of actual disability, or from the termination of the right of party having prior title to such pension. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 187, § 2, 20 Stat. 470.)

94. Widows' pensions to date from death of husband.—All pensions granted under the general laws regulating pensions to widows in consequence of death occurring from a cause which originated in the service since the 4th day of March, 1861, shall commence from the date of death of the husband except as otherwise provided in this title. (June 7, 1888, c. 369, 25 Stat. 173.)

95. Commencement; for services prior to March 4, 1861.—In all cases in which the cause of disability or death originated in the service prior to the 4th day of March, 1861, and an application for pension shall not have been filed within three years from the discharge or death of the person on whose account the claim is made, or within three years of the termination of a pension previously granted on account of the service and death of the same person, the pension shall commence from the date of filing by the party prosecuting the claim the last paper requisite to establish the same. But no claim allowed prior to the 6th day of June, 1866, shall be affected by anything herein contained. (R. S. § 4713.)

96. Accrued pensions.—The accrued pension to the date of the death of any pensioner, or of any person entitled to a pension having an application therefor pending, and whether a certificate therefor shall issue prior or subsequent to the death of such person, shall, in the case of a person pensioned, or applying for pension, on account of his disabilities or service, be paid, first, to his widow; second, if there is no widow, to his child or children under the age of sixteen years at his death; third, in case of a widow, to her minor children under the age of sixteen years at her death. Such accrued pension shall not be considered a part of the assets of the estate of such deceased person, nor be liable for the payment of the debts of said estate in any case whatsoever, but shall inure to the sole and exclusive benefit of the widow or children. And if no widow or child survive such pensioner, and in the case of his last surviving child who was such minor at his death, and in case of a dependent mother, father, sister, or brother, no payment whatsoever of their accrued pension shall be made or allowed except so much as may be necessary to reimburse the person who bore the expense of their last sickness and burial, if they did not leave sufficient assets to meet such expense. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 193, 28 Stat. 964; Aug. 17, 1912, c. 301, § 1, 37 Stat. 312.)

97. Settlement of claims for reimbursement of last sickness and burial of deceased pensioners; reimbursement of claims.—The settlement of all claims for the reimbursement of expenses of the last sickness and burial of deceased pensioners shall be under the direction of the Commissioner of Pensions.

No part of any accrued pension shall be used to reimburse any State, county, or municipal corporation for expenses incurred by such State, county, or municipal corporation under State law for expenses of the last sickness or burial of a deceased pensioner. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, 33 Stat. 1169; Mar. 4, 1909, c. 302, 35 Stat. 1058.)

FEES OF AGENTS AND ATTORNEYS

111. Compensation of agent or attorney.—No agent or attorney or other person shall demand or receive any other compensation for his services in prosecuting a claim for pension than such as the Commissioner of Pensions shall direct to be paid to him, not exceeding $25; nor shall such agent, attorney or other person demand or receive such compensation, in whole or in part, until such pension shall be allowed. In all claims allowed since June 20, 1878, where it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Pensions that the fee of $10, or any part thereof, has not been paid, he shall cause the same to be deducted from the pension, and pay the same to the recognized attorney. (R. S. § 4785; July 4, 1884, c. 181, § 3, 23 Stat. 99; Aug. 17, 1912, c. 301, § 1, 37 Stat. 312.)

112. Same; demanding more than legal fee.—Any agent or attorney, or any other person instrumental in prosecuting any claim for pension, who shall directly or indirectly contract for, demand, or receive or retain any greater compensation for his services, or instrumentality in prosecuting a claim for pension than is provided in this title, or who shall wrongfully withhold from a pensioner the whole, or any part of the pension or claim allowed and due such pensioner or claimant, shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall for every such offense be fined not exceeding $500, or imprisonment at hard labor not exceeding two years, or both, at the discretion of the court. (R. S. § 5485; July 4, 1884, c. 181, § 4, 23 Stat. 98.)

113. Same; for procuring pension legislation.—No pension attorney, claim agent, or other person shall be entitled to receive any compensation for services rendered in securing the introduction of a bill or the passage thereof through Congress granting pension or increase of pension, and any person who shall, directly or indirectly, contract for, demand, receive, or retain any compensation for such services shall be deemed guilty of an offense, and upon conviction thereof shall, for each and every such offense, be fined not exceeding $500 or imprisoned not exceeding two years, or both, in the discretion of the court. (May 28, 1908, c. 208, 35 Stat. 419.)

114. Same; agreement for fee filed; fee in case of failure to file; form; amount paid deducted from fee.—The agent or attorney of record in the prosecution of the case may cause to be filed with the Commissioner of Pensions, articles of agreement, without additional cost to the claimant, setting forth the fee agreed upon by the parties, which agreement shall be executed in the presence of and certified by some officer competent to administer oaths. In all cases where application is made for pension, and no agreement is filed with the commissioner as herein provided, the fee shall be $10 and no more And such articles of agreement as may be filed with the Commissioner of Pensions are not authorized, nor will they be recognized except in claims for original pensions, claims for increase of pension on account of a new disability, in claims for restoration where a pensioner's name has been or may hereafter be dropped from the pension rolls on testimony taken by a special examiner, showing that the disability or cause of death, on account of which the pension was allowed, did not originate in the line of duty, and in cases of dependent relatives whose names have been or may hereafter be, dropped from the rolls on like testimony, upon the ground of nondependence, and in such other cases of difficulty and trouble as the Commissioner of Pensions may see fit to recognize them. No greater fee than $2 shall be demanded, received, or allowed in any claim for pension granted by special act of Congress, nor in any claim for increase of pension on account of the increase of the disability for which the pension had been allowed. No fee shall be demanded, received, or allowed in any claim for arrears of pension or arrears of increase of pension allowed by any act of Congress passed subsequent to the date of the allowance of the original claims in which such arrears of pension, or of increase of pension, may be allowed. The articles of agreement herein provided for shall be in substance as follows, to wit:

And if in the adjudication of any claim for pension in which such articles of agreement have been, or may be, filed, it shall appear that the claimant had, prior to the execution thereof, paid to the attorney any sum for his services in such claim, and the amount so paid is not stipulated therein, then every such claim shall be adjudicated in the same manner as though no articles of agreement had been filed, deducting from the fee of $10 allowed by law such sum as claimant shall show that he has paid to his said attorney. Any agent or attorney or other person instrumental in prosecuting any claim for pension, who shall directly or indirectly contract for, demand or receive or retain any greater compensation for his services or instrumentality in prosecuting a claim for pension than is herein provided, or for payment thereof at any other time or in any other manner than is herein provided, or who shall wrongfully withhold from a pensioner or claimant the whole or any part of the pension or claim allowed and due such pensioner or claimant, or any agent, attorney, or other person instrumental in prosecuting any claim for increase of pension on account of the increase of disability for which pension was allowed, who shall directly or indirectly contract for, demand, receive, or retain any compensation for such services, except as hereinbefore provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall, for each and every such offense, be fined not exceeding $500 or imprisoned, not exceeding two years, or both, in the discretion of the court. (R. S. § 4786; July 4, 1884, c. 181, § 4, 23 Stat. 99; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 548, 26 Stat. 1082.)

115. Same; commissioner may reject contract for fees.—The commissioner shall have power, subject to review by the Secretary, to reject or refuse to recognize any contract for fees, provided for in section 114 of this title, whenever it shall be made to appear that any undue advantage has been taken of the claimant in respect to such contract. (July 4, 1884, c. 181, § 6, 23 Stat. 101.)

116. Same; prosecuting claims for arrears.—No claim agent or other person shall be entitled to receive any compensation for services in making application for arrears of pension. (R. S. § 4711; Jan. 25, 1879, c. 23, § 4, 20 Stat. 265.)

IRREGULARITIES IN CONNECTION WITH PENSIONS; FRAUDS AND INVESTIGATIONS

121. Investigating frauds; special service.—The Commissioner of Pensions is authorized to detail from time to time clerks or persons employed in his office to make special examinations into the merits of such pension claims, whether pending or adjudicated, as he may deem proper, and to investigate any suspected attempt to defraud the United States in or affecting the administration of any laws relative to pensions, and to aid in the prosecution of any party appearing on such examinations to be guilty of fraud, either in the presentation or in procuring the allowance of such claims; and any person so detailed shall have power to administer oaths and take affidavits and depositions in the course of such examinations, and to orally examine witnesses, and may employ a stenographer, when deemed necessary by the Commissioner of Pensions, in important cases. Such stenographer to be paid by such clerk or person, and the amount so paid to be allowed in his accounts. Any person so detailed shall be entitled to such additional compensation as is customary in cases of special service. (R. S. §§ 474, 4744; July 25, 1882, c. 349, § 2, 22 Stat. 175.)

122. Same; special examiners authorized to administer oaths.—Special examiners and additional special examiners employed under authority of Congress to aid in investigating suspected attempts at fraud on the Government through and by virtue of the pension laws, and to aid in prosecuting any person so offending, shall have the same power to administer oaths and take affidavits as is conferred by section 121 of this title upon clerks detailed by the Commissioner of Pensions from his office for that purpose. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 548, § 3, 26 Stat. 1083.)

123. Same; compensation.—Clerks detailed to investigate suspected attempts of fraud upon the Government through and by virtue of the pension laws under section 121 of this title, shall be paid the actual and necessary expenses of transportation, and a per diem allowance in lieu of subsistence, not exceeding $4 per diem. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 130, § 1, 18 Stat. 374.)

124. Same; subpœna to witnesses; witnesses' fees.—In addition to the authority conferred by section 94 of Title 5, any judge or clerk of any court of the United States in any State, District, or Territory shall have power, upon the application of the Commissioner of Pensions, to issue a subpœna for a witness, being within the jurisdiction of such court, to appear, at a time and place in the subpœna stated, before any officer authorized to take depositions to be used in the courts of the United States, or before any officer, clerk, or person from the Pension Bureau designated or detailed to investigate or examine into the merits of any pension claim and authorized by law to administer oaths and take affidavits in such investigation or examination, there to give full and true answers to such written interrogatories and cross-interrogatories as may be propounded, or to be orally examined and cross-examined upon the subject of such claims; and witnesses subpœnaed pursuant to this section or section 121 of this title shall be allowed the same compensation as is allowed witnesses in the courts of the United States, and paid in the same manner. (July 25, 1882, c. 349, § 3, 22 Stat. 175.)

125. Same; report of special examiners; inspection.—The reports of the special examiners of the Bureau of Pensions shall be open to inspection and copy by the applicant or his attorney, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe. (May 28, 1908, c. 208, 35 Stat. 419.)

126. False affidavit and postdating vouchers; false certificate to vouchers.—Every person who knowingly or willfully makes or aids, or assists in the making, or in any wise procures the making or presentation of any false or fraudulent affidavit, declaration, certificate, voucher, or paper or writing purporting to be such, concerning any claim for pension or payment thereof, or pertaining to any other matter within the jurisdiction of the Commissioner of Pensions, or who knowingly or willfully makes or causes to be made, or aids or assists in the making, or presents or causes to be presented any paper required as a voucher in drawing a pension, which paper bears a date subsequent to that upon which it was actually signed or acknowledged by the pensioner, and every person before whom any declaration, affidavit, voucher, or other paper or writing to be used in aid of the prosecution of any claim for pension or payment thereof purports to have been executed who shall knowingly certify that the declarant, affiant, or witness named in such declaration, affidavit, voucher, or other paper or writing personally appeared before him and was sworn thereto, or acknowledged the execution thereof, when, in fact, such declarant, affiant, or witness did not personally appear before him or was not sworn thereto, or did not acknowledge the execution thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500, or by imprisonment for a term of not more than five years. (R. S. § 4746; July 7, 1898, c. 578, 30 Stat. 718; Aug. 17, 1912, c. 301, § 1, 37 Stat. 312.)

127. Embezzlement by guardian, etc.; penalties.—Every guardian, conservator, curator, committee, tutor, or other person having charge and custody in a fiduciary capacity of the pension of his ward, who shall embezzle the same in violation of his trust, or fraudulently convert the same to his own use, shall be punished by fine not exceeding $2,000 or imprisonment at hard labor for a term not exceeding five years, or both, at the discretion of the court. (R. S. § 4783; Feb. 10, 1891, c. 130, 26 Stat. 746.)

128. Forgery of indorsement of pension checks.—Whoever shall forge the indorsement of the person to whose order any pension check shall be drawn, or whoever with the knowledge that such indorsement is forged shall utter such check, or whoever, by falsely personating such person, shall receive from any person, firm, corporation, or officer or employee of the United States the whole or any portion of the amount represented by such check, shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000, or be imprisoned not more than five years, or both. (Aug. 17, 1912, c. 301, § 4, 37 Stat. 313.)

129. Pledge or transfer of pension; penalty; retaining pension certificate.—Any pledge, mortgage, sale, assignment, or transfer of any right, claim, or interest in any pension which has been, or may hereafter be, granted, shall be void and of no effect, and any person who shall pledge, or receive a pledge, mortgage, sale, assignment or transfer of any right, claim, or interest in any pension, or pension certificate, which has been, or may hereafter be granted or issued, or who shall hold the same as collateral security for any debt, or promise, or upon any pretext of such security, or promise, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not exceeding $100 and the costs of the prosecution; and any person who shall retain the certificate of a pensioner and refuse to surrender the same upon the demand of the Commissioner of Pensions, or any other person, authorized by the Commissioner of Pensions, or the pensioner, to receive the same shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not exceeding $100 and the costs of the prosecution. (R. S. § 4745; Feb. 28, 1883, c. 58, § 2, 22 Stat. 432; Aug. 17, 1912, c. 301, § 1, 37 Stat. 312.)

130. Claim agent withholding discharge papers.—Any claim agent, attorney, or other person engaged in the collection of claims for pension, for any soldier, sailor, or marine, or for any commissioned officer of the military or naval forces, or person who may have been a soldier, sailor, marine, or officer of the regular or volunteer forces of the United States, and honorably discharged, who shall retain, without the consent of the owner or owners thereof, or shall refuse to deliver or account for the same upon demand duly made by the owner or owners thereof, or by their agent or attorney, the discharge papers of any such soldier, sailor, or marine, or commissioned officer, which may have been placed in his hands for the purpose of collecting said claims, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction be punished by fine not exceeding $500, or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or both, at the discretion of the court, and shall thereafter be debarred from prosecuting any such claim in any executive department of the Government. (May 21, 1872, c. 178, 17 Stat. 137.)

VETERANS

Section 151. Pensions; who are eligible.—Every person specified in the several classes enumerated in the following section, who has been, since the 4th day of March, 1861, or who is hereafter disabled under the conditions therein stated, shall, upon making due proof of the fact, according to such forms and regulations as are or may be provided in pursuance of law, be placed on the list of invalid pensioners of the United States, and be entitled to receive, for a total disability, or a permanent specific disability, such pension as is hereinafter provided in such cases; and for an inferior disability, except in cases of permanent specific disability, for which the rate of pension is expressly provided, an amount proportionate to that provided for total disability; and such pension shall commence as hereinafter provided, and continue during the existence of the disability. (R. S. § 4692.)

152. Classes enumerated.—The persons entitled as beneficiaries under the preceding section are as follows:

(1) Officers of Army, Navy or Marine Corps, and enlisted men.—Any officer of the Army, including Regulars, Volunteers, and militia, or any officer in the Navy or Marine Corps, or any enlisted man, however employed, in the military or naval service of the United States, or in its Marine Corps, whether regularly mustered or not, disabled by reason of any wound or injury received, or disease contracted, while in the service of the United States and in the line of duty.

(2) Lieutenants serving on gunboat.—Any lieutenant serving on a gunboat, or any pilot, engineer, sailor, or other person not regularly mustered, serving upon any gunboat or war vessel of the United States, disabled by any wound or injury received, or otherwise incapacitated while in the line of duty, for procuring his subsistence by manual labor.

(3) Volunteers, not enlisted.—Any person not an enlisted soldier in the Army, serving for the time being as a member of the militia of any State, under orders of an officer of the United States, or who volunteered for the time being to serve with any regularly organized military or naval force of the United States, or who otherwise volunteered and rendered service in any engagement with rebels or Indians, disabled in consequence of wounds or injury received in the line of duty in such temporary service, and whose claim was prosecuted to a successful issue prior to July 4, 1874.

(4) Acting assistant surgeon.—Any acting assistant or contract surgeon disabled by any wound or injury received or disease contracted in the line of duty while actually performing the duties of assistant surgeon or acting assistant surgeon with any military force in the field, or in transitu, or in hospital.

(5) Provost marshal.—Any provost marshal, deputy provost marshal, or enrolling officer disabled, by reason of any wound or injury, received in the discharge of his duty, to procure a subsistence by manual labor. (R. S. § 4693.)

153. Rates for total disability.—The pension for total disability shall be as follows, except as otherwise provided in this title: For lieutenant colonel and all officers of higher rank in the military service and in the Marine Corps, and for captain, and all officers of higher rank, commander, surgeon, paymaster, and chief engineer, respectively ranking with commander by law, lieutenant commander, lieutenant commanding and master commanding, in the naval service, $30 per month; for major in the military service and in the Marine Corps, and lieutenant, surgeon, paymaster, and chief engineer, respectively ranking with lieutenant by law, and passed assistant surgeon in the naval service, $25 per month; for captain in the military service and in the Marine Corps, chaplain in the Army, and provost marshal, professor of mathematics, master, assistant surgeon, assistant paymaster, and chaplain in the naval service, $20 per month; for first lieutenant in the military service and in the Marine Corps, acting assistant or contract surgeon, and deputy provost marshal, $17 per month; for second lieutenant in the military service and in the Marine Corps, first assistant engineer, ensign, and pilot in the naval service, and enrolling officer, $15 per month; for cadet midshipman, passed midshipman, midshipmen, clerks of admirals and paymasters and of other officers commanding vessels, second and third assistant engineer, master's mate, and all warrant officers in the naval service, $10 per month; and for all other persons whose rank or office is not mentioned in this section, $8 per month; and the masters, pilots, engineers, sailors, and crews upon the gunboats and war vessels shall be entitled to receive the pension allowed herein to those of like rank in the naval service. (R. S. § 4695; June 18, 1878, c. 268, 20 Stat. 166.)

154. Same; according to rank.—Except as otherwise provided by law, every commissioned officer of the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps shall receive such and only such pension as is provided in the preceding section, for the rank he held at the time he received the injury or contracted the disease which resulted in the disability, on account of which he may be entitled to a pension; and any commission or presidential appointment, regularly issued to such person, shall be taken to determine his rank from and after the date, as given in the body of the commission or appointment conferring said rank: Provided, That a vacancy existed in the rank thereby conferred; that the person commissioned was not disabled for military duty; and that he did not willfully neglect or refuse to be mustered. (R. S. § 4696.)

155. Wounds received or diseases contracted only in line of duty pensionable.—No person shall be entitled to a pension by reason of wounds or injury received or disease contracted in the service of the United States subsequent to the 27th day of July, 1868, unless the person who was wounded, or injured, or contracted the disease was in the line of duty; and, if in the military service, was at the time actually in the field, or on the march, or at some post, fort, or garrison, or en route, by direction of competent authority to some post, fort, or garrison; or, if in the naval service, was at the time borne on the books of some ship or other vessel of the United States, at sea or in harbor, actually in commission, or was at some naval station, or on his way, by direction of competent authority, to the United States, or to some other vessel or naval station, or hospital. (R. S. § 4694.)

156. Permanent specific disability; rate after June 4, 1872.—Except as otherwise provided in this title from and after June 4, 1872, all persons entitled by law to a less pension than hereinafter specified, who, while in the military or naval service of the United States, and in line of duty, shall have lost the sight of both eyes, or shall have lost the sight of one eye, the sight of the other having been previously lost, or shall have lost both hands, or shall have lost both feet, or been permanently and totally disabled in the same, or otherwise so permanently and totally disabled as to render them utterly helpless, or so nearly so as to require the regular personal aid and attendance of another person, shall be entitled to a pension of $31.25 per month; and all persons who, under like circumstances, shall have lost one hand and one foot, or been totally and permanently disabled in the same, or otherwise so disabled as to be incapacitated for performing any manual labor, but not so much as to require regular personal aid and attendance, shall be entitled to a pension of $24 per month; and all persons who, under like circumstances, shall have lost one hand, or one foot, or been totally and permanently disabled in the same, or otherwise so disabled as to render their incapacity to perform manual labor equivalent to the loss of a hand or foot, shall be entitled to a pension of $18 per month: Provided, That all persons who, under like circumstances, have lost a leg above the knee, and in consequence thereof are so disabled that they can not use artificial limbs, shall be rated in the second class and receive $24 per month from and after June 4, 1872; and all persons who, under like circumstances, shall have lost the hearing of both ears, shall be entitled to a pension of $13 per month from the same date: Provided, That the pension for a disability not permanent, equivalent in degree to any provided for in this section, shall, during the continuance of the disability in such degree, be at the same rate as that herein provided for a permanent disability of like degree. (R. S. § 4698.)

157. Same; from and after June 18, 1874.—Except as hereinafter provided in this title, all persons who, while in the military or naval service of the United States, and in the line of duty, shall have been so permanently and totally disabled as to require the regular personal aid and attendance of another person, by the loss of the sight of both eyes, or by the loss of the sight of one eye, the sight of the other having been previously lost, or by the loss of both hands, or by the loss of both feet, or by any other injury resulting in total and permanent helplessness, shall be entitled from and after June 18, 1874, to a pension of $50 per month in lieu of a pension of $31.25 per month granted to such person by section 156 of this title: Provided, That the increase of pension shall not be granted by reason of any of the injuries herein specified unless the same have resulted in permanent total helplessness requiring the regular personal aid and attendance of another person. (June 18, 1874, c. 298, § 1, 18 Stat. 78.)

158. Increase; for permanent disability.—All soldiers and sailors who were receiving on June 16, 1880, a pension of $50 per month, under the provisions of section 157 of this title, shall receive, in lieu, and there shall be paid them in the same manner as pensions are paid to such persons, the sum of $72 per month thereafter. (June 16, 1880, c. 236, § 1, 21 Stat. 281.)

159. Loss of both hands, or both feet, or both eyes; pension after June 17, 1878.—On and after June 17, 1878, except as provided in sections 160 to 163 of this title, all soldiers and sailors who have lost either both their hands or both their feet or the sight of both eyes in the service of the United States, shall receive, and there shall be paid to them, in the same manner as pensions are paid to such persons, the sum of $72 per month. This section shall be so construed as to include all soldiers and sailors who have become totally blind from causes occurring in the service of the United States. (June 17, 1878, c. 261, 20 Stat. 144; Mar. 3, 1879, c. 200, 20 Stat. 484.)

160. Loss of both eyes or total blindness; pension after April 8, 1904.—From and after April 8, 1904, all persons who, while in the military or naval service of the United States and in the line of duty, shall have lost both eyes, or who have become totally blind from causes occurring in the service of the United States, shall receive a pension at the rate of $100 per month: Provided, however, That this section shall not be so construed as to reduce any pension under any Act, public or private. (Apr. 8, 1904, c. 945, 33 Stat. 163.)

161. Blindness or loss of sight due to injury.—From and after June 5, 1920, all persons whose names are on the pension roll, and who, while in the service of the United States in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, and in the line of duty shall have lost both eyes, or been disabled in the same, or who, in like service and in like manner, sustained injuries that proved the direct cause of the subsequent total loss of the sight of both eyes shall receive a pension at the rate of $100 per month. (June 5, 1920, c. 245, § 3, 41 Stat. 982.)

162. Loss of both feet.—From and after March 2, 1903, all persons who while in the military or naval service of the United States and in the line of duty shall have lost both feet shall receive a pension at the rate of $100 per month. (Mar. 2, 1903, c. 977, 32 Stat. 944.)

163. Loss of both hands.—From and after February 12, 1889, all persons who, in the military or naval service of the United States and in the line of duty, have lost both hands, shall be entitled to a pension of $100 per month. (Feb. 12, 1889, c. 132, 25 Stat. 659.)

164. Loss of one hand and one foot.—All persons who, while in the military or naval service of the United States, and in the line of duty, shall have lost one hand and one foot, or been totally or permanently disabled in both, shall be entitled to a pension for each of such disabilities, and at such a rate as is provided for by the provisions of the existing laws for each disability: Provided, That this section shall not be so construed as to reduce pensions in any case. (Feb. 28, 1877, c. 73, 19 Stat. 264.)

165. Loss of hand, foot, arm, or leg; pension from and after March 3, 1883.—From and after March 3, 1883, and except as otherwise provided in this title all persons who, while in the military or naval service of the United States, and in the line of duty, shall have lost one hand or one foot, or been totally or permanently disabled in the same, shall receive a pension of $24 per month; all persons who in like manner shall have lost either an arm at or above the elbow, or a leg at or above the knee, shall receive a pension of $30 per month: Provided, That nothing contained in this section shall be construed to repeal section 177 of this title, or to change the rate of $18 per month therein mentioned to be proportionately divided for any degree of disability established for which section 153 of this title makes no provision. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 91, 22 Stat. 453.)

166. Increase; from and after August 4, 1886.—From and after August 4, 1886, and except as otherwise provided in this title, all persons who, while in the military or naval service of the United States and in line of duty, shall have lost one hand or one foot, or been totally disabled in the same, shall receive a pension of $30 a month; all persons who in like manner shall have lost either an arm at or above the elbow or a leg at or above the knee, or been totally disabled in the same, shall receive a pension of $36 per month; and all persons who in like manner shall have lost either an arm at the shoulder joint or a leg at the hip joint, or so near the joint as to prevent the use of an artificial limb, shall receive a pension at the rate of $45 per month. (Aug. 4, 1886, c. 899, 24 Stat. 220.)

167. Same; from and after March 2, 1903.—From and after March 2, 1903, and except as otherwise provided in this title, all persons who, while in the military or naval service of the United States and in the line of duty, shall have lost one hand or one foot, or been totally disabled in the same, shall receive a pension at the rate of $40 per month; that all persons who, in like manner, shall have lost an arm at or above the elbow or a leg at or above the knee, or been totally disabled in the same, shall receive a pension at the rate of $46 per month; all persons who, in like manner, shall have lost an arm at the shoulder joint or a leg at the hip joint, or so near the shoulder or hip joint or where the same is in such a condition as to prevent the use of an artificial limb, shall receive a pension at the rate of $55 per month, and all persons who, in like manner, shall have lost one hand and one foot, or been totally disabled in the same, shall receive a pension at the rate of $60 per month. (Mar. 2, 1903, c. 977, 32 Stat. 944.)

168. Same; increase from and after May 1, 1920, and June 5, 1920.—From and after May 1, 1920, all persons whose names were on the pension roll at that date and who while in the service of the United States in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps during the Civil War, and from and after June 5, 1920, all persons whose names are on the pension roll, and who, while in the service of the United States in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps and in the line of duty, shall have lost one hand or one foot or been totally disabled in the same, shall receive a pension at the rate of $60 per month; all persons who, in such service and in like manner, shall have lost an arm at or above the elbow, or a leg at or above the knee, or been totally disabled in the same, shall receive a pension at the rate of $65 per month; all persons who, in such service and in like manner, shall have lost an arm at the shoulder joint or a leg at the hip joint, or so near the shoulder or hip joint, or where the same is in such condition as to prevent the use of an artificial limb, shall receive a pension at the rate of $72 per month; and all persons who, in such service and in like manner, shall have lost one hand and one foot, or been totally disabled in the same, shall receive a pension at the rate of $90 per month. (May 1, 1920, c. 165, § 3, 41 Stat. 585; June 5, 1920, c. 245, § 3, 41 Stat. 982.)

169. Disability equivalent to loss of hand or foot.—From and after March 3, 1883, all persons who while in the military or naval service of the United States, and in the line of duty shall have been so disabled as to render their incapacity to perform manual labor equivalent to the loss of a hand or a foot, shall receive a pension of $24 per month. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 91, 22 Stat. 453.)

170. Incapacity for performing manual labor.—All persons who while in the military or naval service of the United States and in the line of duty shall have been so disabled otherwise than as stated in section 165 or 169 of this title as to be incapacitated for performing any manual labor, but not so much as to require regular personal aid and attendance, shall receive a pension of $30 per month. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 91, 22 Stat. 453.)

171. Deafness; rate from and after August 27, 1888.—From and after August 27, 1888, and except as provided in section 172 of this title, all persons on the pension rolls of the United States, drawing pensions on account of loss of hearing, shall be entitled to receive the sum of $30, in cases of total deafness. (Aug. 27, 1888, c. 913, 25 Stat. 449.)

172. Same; from and after January 15, 1903.—From and after January 15, 1903, all persons on the pension roll of the United States on that date, or who may be placed thereon, receiving pension for total loss of hearing due to causes originating in the military or naval service of the United States and in the line of duty, shall be entitled to receive the sum of $40 per month. (R. S. § 4698; Aug. 27, 1888, c. 913, 25 Stat. 449; Jan. 15, 1903, c. 190, 32 Stat. 773.)

173. Partial deafness.—From and after August 27, 1888, all persons on the pension rolls of the United States drawing pensions on account of loss of hearing shall be entitled to receive in cases of partial deafness such proportion of the sum of $30 per month as the Secretary of the Interior may deem equitable; the amount paid to be determined by the degree of disability existing in each case. (Aug. 27, 1888, c. 913, 25 Stat. 449.)

174. Disability requiring regular personal attention.—All soldiers, sailors and marines who may become so totally and permanently helpless from injuries received or disease contracted in the service and line of duty as to require the regular personal aid and attendance of another person otherwise than as specifically provided for under section 158 of this title shall be entitled to receive a pension at the rate of $72 per month from the date of the certificate of the examining surgeons or board of examining surgeons, showing such degree of disability. (Mar. 4, 1890, c. 25, 26 Stat. 16.)

175. Disability requiring frequent and periodical attendance.—From and after July 14, 1892, soldiers and sailors who are shown to be totally incapacitated for performing manual labor by reason of injuries received or disease contracted in the service of the United States and in line of duty, and who are thereby disabled to such a degree as to require frequent and periodical, though not regular and constant, personal aid and attendance of another person, shall be entitled to receive a pension of $50 per month from and after the date of the certificate of the examining surgeon or board of examining surgeons showing such degree of disability. (July 14, 1892, c. 169, 27 Stat. 149.)

176. Minimum rate for pensions.—Pensioners shall be rated at not less than $6 per month. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 161, 28 Stat. 704.)

177. Disability not otherwise provided for.—The rate of $18 per month may be proportionately divided for any degree of disability established for which section 153 of this title makes no provision. (R. S. § 4699.)

178. Age of 62 and over considered a disability.—The age of sixty-two years and over shall be considered a permanent specific disability within the meaning of the pension laws. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2920, 34 Stat. 1406.)

WIDOWS, REMARRIED WIDOWS, CHILDREN, AND DEPENDENTS

191. Widows, or children under sixteen; right to pension.—If any person embraced within the provisions of sections 151 and 152 of this title has died since the 4th day of March, 1861, or hereafter dies, by reason of any wound, injury, or disease which under the conditions and limitations of such sections would have entitled him to an invalid pension had he been disabled, his widow or if there be no widow, or in case of her death without payment to her of any part of the pension hereinafter mentioned, his child or children under sixteen years of age, shall be entitled to receive the same pension as the husband or father would have been entitled to had he been totally disabled, except as otherwise provided in this title, to commence from the death of the husband or father, to continue to the widow during her widowhood, and to his child or children until they severally attain the age of sixteen years, and no longer; and if the widow remarry, the child or children shall be entitled from the date of remarriage, except when such widow has continued to draw the pension money after her remarriage, in contravention of law, and such child or children have resided with and been supported by her, their pension will commence at the date to which the widow was last paid. (R. S. § 4702; Aug. 7, 1882, c. 438, § 1, 22 Stat. 345.)

192. Widow's pension; marriage prior to March 3, 1899; widows of Spanish War veterans excepted.—Except as hereinafter specifically provided no pension under any law of the United States shall be granted, allowed, or paid to the widow of a soldier, sailor, officer, naval or military, marine, marine officer, or any other male person entitled to a pension under any law of the United States, unless it shall be proved and established that the marriage of such widow to the soldier, sailor, officer, marine, or other person on account of whose service the pension is asked, was duly and legally contracted and entered into prior to March 3, 1899, or unless such wife shall have lived and cohabited with such soldier, sailor, officer, marine, marine officer, or other person continuously from the date of the marriage to the date of his death, or unless the marriage shall have taken place after that date and prior to or during the military or naval service of the soldier, sailor, officer, marine, or other person on account of whose service the pension is asked or claimed. This section shall not apply to or affect the widow of any soldier, sailor, marine, officer, or marine officer who served in the war between the United States and the Kingdom of Spain. (R. S. § 4766; Aug. 8, 1882, c. 469, 22 Stat. 373; Mar. 3, 1899, c. 460, 30 Stat. 1379.)

193. Same; increase on account of minor children.—Except as hereinafter provided the pensions of widows shall be increased at the rate of $2 per month for each child under the age of sixteen years, of the husband on account of whose death the claim has been, or shall be, granted. And in every case in which the deceased husband has left, or shall leave, no widow, or where his widow has died or married again, or where she has been deprived of her pension under the provisions of the pension law, the pension granted to such child or children shall be the same amount per month that would be allowed under the foregoing provisions to the widow, if living and entitled to a pension. The additional pension herein granted to the widow on account of the child or children of the husband by a former wife shall be paid to her only for such period of her widowhood as she has been, or shall be, charged with the maintenance of such child or children; for any period during which she has not been, or she shall not be, so charged, it shall be granted and paid to the guardian of such child or children: Provided, That a widow or guardian to whom increase of pension has been, or shall hereafter be, granted on account of minor children, shall not be deprived thereof by reason of their being maintained in whole or in part at the expense of a State or the public in any educational institution, or in any institution organized for the care of soldiers' orphans. (R. S. § 4703.)

194. Additional pension by special act on account of helpless child not to affect rate to widow.—When an additional pension has been, or may be, granted by special act to a widow or guardian on account of a helpless child, such additional pension shall in no wise affect the rate of pension the widow may be entitled to independent of such additional allowance. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 302, 35 Stat. 1058.)

195. Widows, children, and dependent relatives; increase from and after March 19, 1886; limitation.—From and after March 19, 1886, and except as hereinafter provided in this title, the rate of pension for widows, minor children, and dependent relatives placed on the pension roll, and entitled to receive a less rate than hereinafter provided, shall be $12 per month; and nothing herein shall be construed to affect the existing allowance for each child under the age of sixteen years. This section shall apply only to widows who were married to the deceased soldier or sailor prior to March 19, 1886, and to those who married prior to or during the service of the soldier or sailor. (Mar. 19, 1886, c. 22, § 1, 24 Stat. 5.)

196. Same; claim agents not to receive compensation.—No claim agent or attorney shall be recognized in the adjudication of claims under section 195 of this title, nor shall any such person be entitled to receive any compensation whatever for services or pretended services in making applications thereunder. (Mar. 19, 1886, c. 22, § 2, 24 Stat. 6.)

197. Widows and children; minimum rate from and after April 19, 1908.—From and after April 19, 1908, the rate of pension for widows, minor children under the age of sixteen years, and helpless minors as defined by existing laws, otherwise entitled to receive a less rate than hereinafter provided, shall be $12 per month; and nothing herein shall be construed to affect the existing allowance for each child under the age of sixteen years and for each helpless child: Provided, however, That this section shall not be so construed as to reduce any pension under any Act, public or private. (Apr. 19, 1908, c. 147, § 1, 35 Stat. 64.)

198. Widows of colored and Indian soldiers.—The widows of colored and Indian soldiers and sailors, enlisting prior to March 1, 1873, dying, by reason of wounds or injuries received, or casualty received, or disease contracted, in the military or naval service of the United States, and in the line of duty, shall be entitled to receive the pension provided by law without other evidence of marriage than satisfactory proof that the parties were joined in marriage by some ceremony deemed by them obligatory, or habitually recognized each other as man and wife, and were so recognized by their neighbors, and lived together as such up to the date of enlistment, when such soldier or sailor died in the service, or, if otherwise, to date of death; and the children born of any marriage so proved shall be deemed and held to be lawful children of such soldier or sailor. (R. S. § 4705.)

199. Proof of marriage; adulterous cohabitation terminating pension.—Marriages, except such as are mentioned in section 198 of this title, shall be proven in pension cases to be legal marriages according to the law of the place where the parties resided at the time of marriage or at the time when the right to pension accrued; and the open and notorious adulterous cohabitation of a widow who is a pensioner shall operate to terminate her pension from the commencement of such cohabitation. (Aug. 7, 1882, c. 438, § 2, 22 Stat. 345.)

200. Abandonment by widow; children's pension.—If any person die, leaving a widow entitled to a pension by reason of his death, and a child or children under sixteen years of age by such widow, and it shall be duly certified under seal by any court having probate jurisdiction, that satisfactory evidence has been produced before such court, upon due notice to the widow, that she has abandoned the care of such child or children, or that she is an unsuitable person, by reason of immoral conduct, to have the custody of the same, on presentation of satisfactory evidence thereof to the Commissioner of Pensions, no pension shall be allowed to such widow until such child or children shall have attained the age of sixteen years, any provisions of law to the contrary notwithstanding; and the said child or children shall be pensioned in the same manner, and from the same date, as if no widow had survived such person, and such pension shall be paid to the guardian of such child or children; but if in any case payment of pension shall have been made to the widow, the pension to the child or children shall commence from the date to which her pension has been paid. (R. S. § 4706.)

201. Time for which a widow shall not receive pension.—No pension shall be granted to a widow for the same time that her husband received one. (R. S. § 4735.)

202. What children deemed legitimate.—In the administration of the pension laws, children born before the marriage of their parents, if acknowledged by the father before or after the marriage, shall be deemed legitimate. (R. S. § 4704.)

203. Succession of dependent relatives; when dependent parents entitled.—If any person embraced within the provisions of sections 151 and 152 of this title, die, by reason of any wound, injury, casualty, or disease, which, under the conditions and limitations of such sections, would have entitled him to an invalid pension, and has not left or shall not leave a widow or legitimate child, but has left or shall leave other relative or relatives who were dependent upon him for support, in whole or in part, at the date of his death, such relative or relatives shall be entitled, in the following order of precedence, to receive the same pension as such person would have been entitled to had he been totally disabled, except as otherwise provided by law, namely: first, the mother; secondly, the father; thirdly, orphan brothers and sisters under sixteen years of age, who shall be pensioned jointly. When orphan children of the same parent have different guardians, or a portion of them only are under guardianship, the share of the joint pension to which each ward shall be entitled shall be paid to the guardian of such ward. If in any case said person shall have left father and mother who were dependent upon him, then, on the death of the mother, the father shall become entitled to the pension, commencing from and after the death of the mother; and upon the death of the mother and father, or upon the death of the father and the remarriage of the mother, the dependent brothers and sisters under sixteen years of age shall jointly become entitled to such pension until they attain the age of sixteen years respectively, commencing from the death or remarriage of the party who had the prior right to the pension.

In considering the pension claims of dependent parents, the fact of the soldier's death by reason of any wound, injury, casualty, or disease which, under the conditions and limitations of existing laws, would have entitled him to an invalid pension, and the fact that the soldier left no widow or minor children having been shown as required by law, it shall be necessary only to show by competent and sufficient evidence that such parent or parents are without other present means of support than their own manual labor or the contributions of others not legally bound for their support. All pensions allowed to dependent parents under this title shall commence from the date of the filing of the application hereunder and shall continue no longer than the existence of the dependence. (R. S. § 4707; June 27, 1890, c. 634, § 1, 26 Stat. 182.)

204. Minor brothers and sisters; dependency construed.—A minor brother or sister shall be assumed to have been dependent within the meaning of section 203 of this title if, at the date of the brother's death, said brother or sister had no other adequate means of support than the ordinary proceeds of their own manual labor and the contributions of said brother or of any other persons not legally bound to aid in their support; and if, by actual contributions, or in any other way, the brother had recognized his obligations to aid in support of his minor brother or sister, or was by law bound to such support. The pension allowed to any person on account of his or her dependence, as hereinbefore provided, shall not be paid for any period during which it shall not be necessary as a means of adequate subsistence. (R. S. § 4707.)

205. Widows and dependent mothers and sisters; remarriage of; restoration on renewed widowhood.—The remarriage of any widow, dependent mother, or dependent sister entitled to pension shall not bar her right to such pension to the date of her remarriage, whether an application therefor was filed before or after such marriage; but on the remarriage of any widow, dependent mother, or dependent sister having a pension such pension shall cease. Any widow who was the lawful wife of any officer or enlisted man or other person in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States, as described in paragraphs 1, 2, and 3 of section 152 of this title, during the period of his service in any war, and whose name was placed or shall be placed on the pension roll because of her husband's death as the result of wound or injury received or disease contracted in such military or naval service, and whose name has been or shall be dropped from said pension roll by reason of her marriage to another person who has since died or shall die, or from whom she has been or shall be divorced, upon her own application and without fault on her part, and if she is without means of support other than her daily labor and has an actual net income of not exceeding $250 per year, shall be entitled to have her name again placed on the pension roll at the rate provided for widows by law, such pension to commence from the date of the filing of her application in the Pension Bureau. Where such widow is already in receipt of a pension from the United States she shall not be entitled to restoration under this section. Where the pension of said widow on her second or subsequent marriage has accrued to a helpless or idiotic child, or a child or children under the age of sixteen years, she shall not be entitled to restoration under this section unless said helpless or idiotic child, or child or children under sixteen years of age, be then a member or members of her family and cared for by her, and upon the restoration of said widow the payment of pension to said child or children shall cease. (R. S. § 4708; June 27, 1890, c. 634, § 3, 26 Stat. 182; May 9, 1900, c. 385, 31 Stat. 171; Mar. 3, 1901, c. 865, § 1, 31 Stat. 1445; Feb. 28, 1903, c. 858, § 1, 32 Stat. 920.)

206. Same; compensation of claim agents.—No claim agent or other person shall be entitled to receive any compensation for services in making application for pension under section 205 of this title. (Feb. 28, 1903, c. 858, § 3, 32 Stat. 921.)

Chapter 4.—NAVY PENSIONS.

Sec.
221. Officers; warrant officers and other naval ratings; disability prior to March 4, 1861.
222. Same; engineer officers.
223. Same; widows and children.
224. Navy pension fund; trustee.
225. Same; prize money.
226. Same; investment.
227. Same; rate of interest.
228. Same; pensions payable from.

Sec.
229. Navy or Marine Corps; half rating to disabled enlisted persons serving twenty years.
230. Same; serving not less than ten years.
231. Double pension in cases of death or disability as result of aviation accident.

Section 221. Officers; warrant officers and other naval ratings; disability prior to March 4, 1861.—If any officer, warrant or petty officer, seaman, engineer, first, second, or third assistant engineer, fireman or coal heaver of the Navy or any marine has been disabled prior to the 4th day of March, 1861, by reason of any injury received or disease contracted in the service and line of duty, he shall be entitled to receive during the continuance of his disability a pension proportionate to the degree of his disability not exceeding half the monthly pay of his rank as it existed in January, 1835, except as otherwise provided in this title. But the pension of a chief engineer shall be the same as that of a lieutenant of the Navy; the pension of a first assistant engineer the same as that of a lieutenant of marines; the pension of a second or third assistant engineer the same as that of a forward officer; the pension of a fireman or coal heaver the same as that of a seaman; but an engineer, fireman or coal heaver shall not be entitled to any pension by reason of a disability incurred prior to the 31st day of August, 1842. (R. S. § 4728.)

222. Same; engineer officers.—From and after March 3, 1877, the pension for total disability of passed assistant engineers, and assistant engineers, and cadet engineers in the naval service, respectively, shall be the same as the pensions allowed to officers of the line in the naval service with whom they have relative rank. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 121, 19 Stat, 403; Aug. 5, 1882, c. 391, § 1, 22 Stat. 285.)

223. Same; widows and children.—If any person referred to in section 221 of this title has died in the service, of injury received or disease contracted under the conditions therein stated, his widow shall be entitled to receive half the monthly pay to which the deceased was entitled at the date of his death except as otherwise provided in this title; and in case of her death or marriage, the child or children under sixteen years of age shall be entitled to the pension. But the rate of pension herein allowed shall be governed by the pay of the Navy as it existed in January, 1835; and the pension of the widow of a chief engineer shall be the same as that of a widow of a lieutenant in the Navy; the pension of the widow of a first assistant engineer shall be the same as that of the widow of a lieutenant of marines; the pension of the widow of a second or third assistant engineer the same as that of the widow of a forward officer; the pension of the widow of a fireman or coal heaver shall be the same as that of the widow of a seaman. The rate of pension prescribed by this section and section 221 of this title shall be varied in accordance with the provisions of section 21 of this title. (R. S. § 4729.)

224. Navy pension fund; trustee.—The Secretary of the Navy shall be trustee of the Navy pension fund. (R. S. § 4750.)

225. Same; prize money.—All money accruing or which has already accrued to the United States from sale of prizes shall be and remain forever a fund for the payment of pensions to the officers, seamen, and marines who may be entitled to receive the same; and if such fund be insufficient for the purpose, the public faith is pledged to make up the deficiency; but if it should be more than sufficient, the surplus shall be applied to the making of further provision for the comfort of the disabled officers, seamen, and marines. (R. S. § 4752.)

226. Same; investment.—The Secretary of the Navy, as trustee of the naval pension fund, is directed to cause to be invested in the registered securities of the United States, on the 1st day of January and the 1st day of July of each year, so much of such fund then in the Treasury of the United States as may not be required for the payment of naval pensions for the then current fiscal year; and upon the requisition of the Secretary, so much of the fund as may not be required for such payment of pensions accruing during the current fiscal year shall be held in the Treasury on the days above named in each year, subject to his order, for the purpose of such immediate investment; and the interest payable in coin upon the securities in which the fund may be invested, shall be so paid, when due, to the order of the Secretary of the Navy, and he is authorized and directed to exchange the amount of such interest when paid in coin, for so much of the legal currency of the United States as may be obtained therefor at the current rates of premium on gold, and to deposit the interest so converted in the Treasury to the credit of the naval pension fund; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to interfere with the payment of naval pensions under the supervision of the Secretary of the Interior, as regulated by law. (R. S. § 4753.)

227. Same; rate of interest.—The interest on the naval pension fund shall be at the rate of 3 per centum per annum in lawful money. (R. S. § 4754.)

228. Same; pensions payable from.—Navy pensions shall be paid from the Navy pension fund, so far as the same shall be sufficient for that purpose, but no payments shall be made therefrom except upon appropriations authorized by Congress. (R. S. § 4755; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1164.)

229. Navy or Marine Corps; half rating to disabled enlisted persons serving twenty years.—There shall be paid out of the naval pension fund to every person who, from age or infirmity, is disabled from sea service, but who has served as an enlisted person or as an appointed petty officer, or both, in the Navy or Marine Corps for the period of twenty years, and not been discharged for misconduct, in lieu of being provided with a home in the Naval Home, Philadelphia, if he so elects, a sum equal to one-half the pay of his rating at the time he was discharged, to be paid to him monthly, under the direction of the Commissioner of Pensions; and applications for such pension shall be made to the Secretary of the Navy, who, upon being satisfied that the applicant comes within the provisions of this section, shall certify the same to the Commissioner of Pensions, and such certificate shall be his warrant for making payment as herein authorized. (R. S. § 4756; Dec. 23, 1886, c. 9, 24 Stat. 353; May 3, 1922, c. 177, § 1, 42 Stat. 505.)

230. Same; serving not less than ten years.—Every disabled person who has served in the Navy or Marine Corps as an enlisted man or as an appointed petty officer, or both, for a period not less than ten years, and not been discharged for misconduct, may apply to the Secretary of the Navy for aid from the surplus income of the naval pension fund; and the Secretary of the Navy is authorized to convene a board of not less than three naval officers, one of whom shall be a surgeon, to examine into the condition of the applicant, and to recommend a suitable amount for his relief, and for a specified time, and upon the approval of such recommendation by the Secretary of the Navy, and certificate thereof to the Commissioner of Pensions, the amount shall be paid in the same manner as is provided in the preceding section for the payment to persons disabled by long service in the Navy; but no allowance so made shall exceed the rate of a pension for full disability corresponding to the grade of the applicant, nor, if in addition to a pension, exceed one-fourth the rate of such pension. (R. S. § 4757; Dec. 23, 1886, c. 9, 24 Stat. 353.)

231. Double pension in cases of death or disability as result of aviation accident.—In all cases where an officer or enlisted man or student flyer of the Navy or Marine Corps dies, or where a student flyer or an enlisted man of the Navy or Marine Corps is disabled by reason of any injury received or disease contracted in line of duty, the result of an aviation accident, received while employed in actual flying in or in handling aircraft, the amount of pension allowed shall be double that authorized to be paid should death or the disability have occurred by reason of an injury received or disease contracted in line of duty, not the result of an aviation accident. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 83, 38 Stat. 940; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 417, 39 Stat. 585.)

247. Trusses; to whom furnished.
248. Same; application for.
249. Same; purchase of.
250. Same; naval service.

Section 241. Artificial limbs; furnished every five years.—Every officer, soldier, seaman and marine, who, in the line of duty, in the military or naval service of the United States, shall have lost a limb, or sustained bodily injuries, depriving him of the use of any of his limbs, shall receive once every five years, except as provided in section 242 of this title, an artificial limb or appliance, or commutation therefor, as provided and limited by law, under such regulations as the Surgeon General of the Army may prescribe; and the period of five years shall be held to commence with the filing of the first application. (Aug. 15, 1876, c. 300, § 1, 19 Stat. 203.)

242. Same; veterans of the Civil War every three years.—Every officer, soldier, seaman, and marine who was disabled during the Civil War, in the military or naval service, and in the line of duty, or in consequence of wounds received or disease contracted therein, and who was furnished by the War Department since the 17th day of June, 1870, with an artificial limb or apparatus for resection, or who was entitled to receive such limb or apparatus since said date, shall be entitled to receive a new limb or apparatus at the expiration of every three years thereafter, under such regulations as have been or may be prescribed by the Surgeon General of the Army, who is authorized to pay not exceeding $125 for each artificial limb or apparatus for resection furnished in kind. (R. S. § 4787; Aug. 15, 1876, c. 300, § 1, 19 Stat. 203; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 252; Mar. 3, 1891, c. 562, 26 Stat. 1103; June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 901.)

243. Same; commutation rates in money value for limb.—Every person entitled to the benefits of the preceding section including every such person who from the nature of his injury is not able to use an artificial limb may, if he so elects, receive, instead of such limb or apparatus, the money value thereof, at the following rates, namely: For artificial legs, $75; for arms, $50; for feet, $50; for apparatus for resection, $50. (R. S. §§ 4788, 4790; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 252.)

244. Same; payment of money commutation; fee to agent or attorney.—In case of commutation, as provided hereinbefore, the money shall be paid directly to the soldier, sailor, or marine, and no fee or compensation shall be allowed or paid to any agent or attorney. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 542, 26 Stat. 979.)

245. Same; transportation for fitting.—Except as provided in section 246 of this title, necessary transportation to have artificial limbs fitted shall be furnished by the Quartermaster General of the Army, the cost of which shall be refunded out of any money appropriated for the purchase of artificial limbs. (Aug. 15, 1876, c. 300, § 2, 19 Stat. 204.)

246. Same; transportation for Civil War veterans to whom limbs are furnished.—The Secretary of War shall furnish to the persons embraced by the provisions of section 242 of this title, transportation to and from their homes and the place where they may be required to go to obtain artificial limbs provided for them under authority of law. The transportation allowed for having artificial limbs fitted shall be furnished by the Quartermaster General of the Army, the cost of which shall be refunded from the appropriations for invalid pensions. (R. S. § 4791; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 252.)

247. Trusses; to whom furnished.—Every soldier of the Union Army, or petty officer, seamen, or marine in the naval service, who was ruptured while in the line of duty during the Civil War, or who shall be so ruptured thereafter in any war, shall be entitled to receive a single or double truss of such style as may be designated by the Surgeon General of the United States Army as best suited for such disability; and whenever the said truss or trusses so furnished shall become useless from wear, destruction, or loss, such soldier, petty officer, seaman, or marine shall be supplied with another truss on making application as provided for in section 248 of this title: Provided, That such application shall not be made more than once in two years and six months. (May 28, 1872, c. 228, § 1, 17 Stat. 164; Mar. 3, 1879, c. 173, 20 Stat. 353.)

248. Same; application for.—Application for truss as mentioned in section 247 of this title shall be made by the ruptured soldier, to an examining surgeon for pensions, whose duty it shall be to examine the applicant, and when found to have a rupture or hernia, to prepare and forward to the Surgeon General an application for such truss without charge to the soldier. (R. S. § 1177.)

249. Same; purchase of.—The Surgeon General is authorized and directed to purchase the trusses required for such soldiers, at wholesale prices, and the cost of the same shall be paid upon the requisition of the Surgeon General out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated. (R. S. § 1178.)

250. Same; naval service.—Sections 248 and 249 of this title shall be construed so as to apply to petty officers, seamen, and marines of the naval service. (May 28, 1872, c. 228, § 1, 17 Stat. 164; Mar. 3, 1879, c. 173, 20 Stat. 353.)

VETERANS

Section 261. Mexican War survivors placed on pension roll; widows.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to place on the pension roll the names of the surviving officers and enlisted men, including marines, militia, and volunteers, of the military and naval services of the United States, who being duly enlisted, actually served sixty days with the Army or Navy of the United States in Mexico, or on the coasts or frontier thereof, or en route thereto, in the war with that nation, or were actually engaged in a battle in said war, and were honorably discharged, and such other officers and soldiers and sailors as may have been personally named in any resolution of Congress for any specific service in said war, and the surviving widow of such officers and enlisted men who have not remarried: Provided, That every such officer, enlisted man, or widow who is or may become sixty-two years of age, or who is or may become subject to any disability or dependency equivalent to some cause prescribed or recognized by the pension laws of the United States as a sufficient reason for the allowance of a pension, shall except as otherwise provided for in this title be entitled to the benefits of this section; but it shall not be held to include any person not within the rule of age or disability or dependence herein defined, or who incurred such disability while in any manner voluntarily engaged in or aiding or abetting the late rebellion against the authority of the United States. (Jan. 29, 1887, c. 70, § 1, 24 Stat. 371.)

262. Same; rate.—Except as otherwise provided in this title pensions under section 261 of this title shall be at the rate of $8 per month and payable from January 29, 1887, for and during the natural lives of the persons entitled thereto, or during the continuance of the disability for which same shall be granted. Said section 261 of this title shall not apply to any person who was receiving a pension at the rate of $8 per month or more, nor to any person receiving a pension less than $8 per month, during the period for which such pension is claimed, except for the difference between the pension received (if less than $8 per month) and $8 per month. (Jan. 29, 1887, c. 70, § 2, 24 Stat. 371.)

264. Same; increase.—The Secretary of the Interior may increase to $12 per month from and after April 23, 1900, the pension of all survivors of the Mexican War who are pensionable under Mexican War service pension laws, and who have become or may become wholly disabled for manual labor and in such destitute circumstances that $8 per month are insufficient to provide them the necessaries of life, and for whom no greater pension is otherwise provided by law, irrespective of the date of the granting of the said service pension. (Jan. 5, 1893, c. 18, 27 Stat. 413; Apr. 23, 1900, c. 251, 31 Stat. 137.)

265. March 3, 1903; rate of pension.—From and after March 3, 1903, all Mexican War survivors placed on the roll, under section 261 of this title, shall receive, except as otherwise provided for in this title, a pension of $12 per month. (Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1021, 32 Stat. 1228.)

266. Civil War service and disability pension from and after June 27, 1890.—Except as otherwise provided in this title, all persons who served ninety days or more in the military or naval service of the United States during the Civil War and who have been honorably discharged therefrom, and who were on June 27, 1890, or who may thereafter be suffering from any mental or physical disability or disabilities of a permanent character, not the result of their own vicious habits, which so incapacitates them from the performance of manual labor as to render them unable to earn a support, shall, upon making due proof of the fact, according to such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may provide, be placed upon the list of invalid pensioners of the United States, and be entitled to receive a pension not exceeding $12 per month and not less than $6 per month, proportioned to the degree of inability to earn a support; and in determining such inability each and every infirmity shall be duly considered, and the aggregate of the disabilities shown be rated, and such pension shall commence from the date of the filing of the application in the Bureau of Pensions, after June 27, 1890, upon proof that the disability or disabilities then existed, and shall continue during the existence of the same. (June 27, 1890, c. 634, § 2, 26 Stat. 182; May 9, 1900, c. 385, 31 Stat. 170.)

267. Civil War and war with Mexico; pension on account of service and age from and after February 6, 1907.—Except as provided hereinafter any person who served ninety days or more in the military or naval service of the United States during the Civil War or sixty days in the war with Mexico, and who has been honorably discharged therefrom, and who has reached the age of sixty-two years or over, shall, upon making proof of such facts according to such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may provide, be placed upon the pension roll, and be entitled to receive a pension as follows: In case such person has reached the age of sixty-two years, $12 per month; seventy years, $15 per month; seventy-five years or over, $20 per month; and such pension shall commence from the date of the filing of the application in the Bureau of Pensions after February 6, 1907. (Feb. 6, 1907, c. 468, § 1, 34 Stat. 879.)

268. Same; pension from and after May 11, 1912; commencement of pension.—Except as hereinafter provided any person who served ninety days or more in the military or naval service of the United States during the late Civil War, who has been honorably discharged therefrom, and who has reached the age of sixty-two years or over, shall, upon making proof of such facts, according to such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may provide, be placed upon the pension roll and be entitled to receive a pension as follows: In case such person has reached the age of sixty-two years and served ninety days, $13 per month; six months, $13.50 per month; one year, $14 per month; one and a half years, $14.50 per month; two years, $15 per month; two and a half years, $15.50 per month; three years or over, $16 per month. In case such person has reached the age of sixty-six years and served ninety days, $15 per month; six months, $15.50 per month; one year, $16 per month; one and a half years, $16.50 per month; two years, $17 per month; two and a half years, $18 per month; three years or over, $19 per month. In case such person has reached the age of seventy years and served ninety days, $18 per month; six months, $19 per month; one year, $20 per month; one and a half years, $21.50 per month; two years, $23 per month; two and a half years, $24 per month; three years or over, $25 per month. In case such person has reached the age of seventy-five years and served ninety days, $21 per month; six months, $22.50 per month; one year, $24 per month; one and a half years, $27 per month; two years or over, $30 per month. Any person who served in the military or naval service of the United States during the Civil War and received an honorable discharge, and who was wounded in battle or in line of duty and was on May 11, 1912, unfit for manual labor by reason thereof, or who from disease or other causes incurred in line of duty resulting in his disability was unable to perform manual labor, shall be paid the maximum pension under this section, to wit, $30 per month, without regard to length of service or age.

Except as hereinafter provided, any person who has served sixty days or more in the military or naval service of the United States in the war with Mexico and has been honorably discharged therefrom, shall, upon making like proof of such service, be entitled to receive a pension of $30 per month.

All of the aforesaid pensions shall commence from the date of filing of the applications in the Bureau of Pensions after May 11, 1912. (May 11, 1912, c. 123, § 1, 37 Stat. 112.)

269. Service pension Civil War; period June 10, 1918, to May 1, 1920; increase on account of age.—Except as provided in section 270 of this title, from and after June 10, 1918, the rate of pension for any person who served ninety days or more in the military or naval service of the United States during the Civil War, on the pension roll on that date or thereafter placed on the pension roll and entitled to receive a less rate than hereinafter provided, shall be $30 per month. In case such a person has reached the age of seventy-two years and served six months, the rate shall be $32 per month; one year, $35 per month; one and a half years, $38 per month; two years or over, $40 per month. (May 11, 1912, c. 123, § 6; June 10, 1918, c. 96, 40 Stat. 603.)

270. Civil War or war with Mexico; pension from and after May 1, 1920.—Every person who served ninety days or more in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States during the Civil War, and who has been honorably discharged therefrom, or who, having so served less than ninety days, was discharged for a disability incurred in the service and in the line of duty, or who on May 1, 1920, was upon the pension rolls as a Civil War veteran, and every person who served sixty days or more in the war with Mexico, or on the coasts or frontier thereof, or en route thereto, during the war with that nation, and was honorably discharged therefrom, and who on May 1, 1920, was in receipt of, or entitled to receive, a pension of less than $50 per month, shall, from and after that date, be entitled to and shall be paid a pension at the rate of $50 per month. (May 1, 1920, c. 165, § 1, 41 Stat. 585.)

271. Same; persons helpless or blind; amount.—Every person who served ninety days or more in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States during the Civil War, and who has been honorably discharged therefrom, or who, having so served less than ninety days, was discharged for a disability incurred in the service and in the line of duty, or was on May 1, 1920, upon the pension rolls as a Civil War veteran, and every person who served sixty days or more in the war with Mexico, or on the coasts or frontier thereof, or en route thereto, during the war with that nation, and was honorably discharged therefrom, and who was on May 1, 1920, or thereafter became, by reason of age and physical or mental disabilities, helpless or blind, or so nearly helpless or blind as to require the regular personal aid and attendance of another person, shall be entitled to and shall be paid a pension at the rate of $72 per month. (May 1, 1920, c. 165, § 2, 41 Stat. 586.)

272. Civil War pension law construed; limitation.—Sections 266, 267, and 268 of this title shall include all persons and sections 281 and 282 of this title shall include the widows and minor children of all deceased persons, subject to the limitations of said sections, who served for ninety days in the military or naval service of the United States during the Civil War, and who have been honorably discharged therefrom: Provided, however, That the foregoing shall not apply to those who served in the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Regiments United States Volunteer Infantry who had a prior service in the Confederate army or navy and who enlisted in said regiments while confined as prisoners of war under a stipulation that they were not to be pensionable under the laws of the United States, nor to those who, having had such prior service, enlisted in the military or naval service of the United States after the 1st day of January, 1865. (July 1, 1902, No. 42, § 1, 32 Stat. 750.)

WIDOWS, CHILDREN, AND DEPENDENT RELATIVES

281. Widows of Civil War veterans; children; pension from and after June 27, 1890.—If any officer or enlisted man who served ninety days or more in the Army or Navy of the United States during the late Civil War, and who was honorably discharged has died, or shall hereafter die, leaving a widow without means of support other than her daily labor, and an actual net income not exceeding $250 per year, or minor children under the age of sixteen years, such widow shall, except as otherwise provided in this title, upon due proof of her husband's death, without proving his death to be the result of his Army service, be placed on the pension roll from the date of the application therefor under this section, at the rate of $8 per month during her widowhood, and shall also be paid $2 per month for each child of such officer or enlisted man under sixteen years of age; and in case of the death or remarriage of the widow, leaving a child or children of such officer or enlisted man under the age of sixteen years, such pension shall be paid such child or children until the age of sixteen: Provided, That in case a minor child is insane, idiotic, or otherwise physically or mentally helpless, the pension shall continue during the life of said child, or during the period of such disability; and this proviso shall apply to all pensions heretofore granted or hereafter to be granted under this or any former statute; and such pensions shall commence from the date of application therefor after June 27, 1890: And provided further, That said widow shall have married said soldier prior to that date. (June 27, 1890, c. 634, § 3, 26 Stat. 182; May 9, 1900, c. 385, 31 Stat. 171.)

282. Same; from and after April 19, 1908; income or dependency immaterial.—If any officer or enlisted man who served ninety days or more in the Army or Navy of the United States during the Civil War and who has been honorably discharged therefrom has died or shall die leaving a widow, such widow shall, upon due proof of her husband's death, without proving his death to be the result of his Army or Navy service, be placed on the pension roll from the date of the filing of her application therefor under this section at the rate of $12 per month, except as hereinafter provided, during her widowhood: Provided, That said widow shall have married said soldier or sailor prior to June 27, 1890. (Apr. 19, 1908, c. 147, § 2, 35 Stat. 64.)

283. Same; pension extended to widows marrying soldiers or sailors prior to June 27, 1905.—Any widow, as described in section 282 of this title, who married the soldier or sailor prior to June 27, 1905, shall have title to pension under the provisions of said section, to commence from the date of filing her application in the Bureau of Pensions after September 8, 1916: Provided, however, That where a pension has been granted to a soldier's or sailor's helpless or idiotic child or children, or child or children under the age of sixteen years, his widow shall not be entitled to pension under this section, unless the pension to such child or children has terminated, or unless such child or children be a member or members of her family and cared for by her, and upon allowance of pension to the widow, payment of pension to such child or children shall cease. (Sept. 8, 1916, c. 470, § 3, 39 Stat. 845.)

284. Widows of veterans of Civil War, war with Mexico, and War of 1812; pension from and after September 8, 1916; agents.—From and after September 8, 1916, except as otherwise provided in this title, the rate of pension for a widow, on the roll at that date or thereafter to be placed on the pension roll and entitled to receive a less rate than hereinafter provided, who was the lawful wife of any officer or enlisted man in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States, during the period of his service in the Civil War, shall be $20 per month, and the rate of pension for a widow of an officer or enlisted man of the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States who served in the Civil War, the war with Mexico, or the War of 1812, on the roll on September 8, 1916, or thereafter to be placed on the pension roll and entitled to receive a less rate than hereafter provided, who has reached or shall hereafter reach the age of seventy years shall be $20 per month; and nothing herein shall be construed to affect the allowance for each child under the age of sixteen years and for each helpless child. This section shall not be so construed as to reduce any pension under any Act, public or private. No claim agent or attorney shall be recognized in the adjudication of claims under this section. (Sept. 8, 1916, c. 470, §§ 1, 4, 39 Stat. 844, 845.)

285. Remarried widows of Civil War restored to roll on termination of marriage.—Except as hereinafter provided in this title any widow of an officer or enlisted man who served in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States during the Civil War whose name was placed or shall hereafter be placed on the pension roll, under any existing law, and whose name has been or shall hereafter be dropped from said pension roll by reason of her marriage to another person who has since died or shall hereafter die or from whom she has been heretofore or shall be hereafter divorced upon her own application and without fault on her part, shall be entitled to have her name again placed on the pension roll at the rate allowed by the law under which she was formerly pensioned, and the law or laws amendatory thereof, unless she be entitled to a greater rate of pension under section 284 of this title, such pension to commence from the date of filing her application in the Bureau of Pensions after September 8, 1916. Where the pension of said widow on her second or subsequent marriage has accrued to a helpless or idiotic child, or a child or children under the age of sixteen years, she shall not be entitled to renewal under this section unless said helpless or idiotic child, or child or children under sixteen years of age, be then a member or members of her family and cared for by her, and upon the renewal of pension to said widow payment of pension to said child or children shall cease. The provisions of this section shall be extended to those widows otherwise entitled, whose husbands died of wounds, injuries, or disease incurred during the period of their military or naval service, but who were deprived of pension under section 191 of this title, because of their failure to draw any pensions by reason of their remarriage, and to any person who was lawfully married to an officer or enlisted man, who served in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States during the Civil War and was honorably discharged therefrom and has since deceased, and who, having remarried since his death is again a widow, or has been divorced from her last husband upon her own application without fault on her part and who, otherwise entitled, was barred by reason of such remarriage from receiving pension under any existing law. (Sept. 8, 1916, c. 470, § 2, 39 Stat. 845.)

286. Same; claim agents or attorneys; limitation of fees under.—No claim agent or attorney shall be recognized in the adjudication of claims under section 285 of this title for renewal of pension previously allowed, and in claims for original pension under said section no greater sum than $10 shall be allowed for services in preparing, presenting, or prosecuting such claim, which sum shall be payable only upon the order of the Commissioner of Pensions under such rules and regulations as he may deem proper to make. (Sept. 8, 1916, c. 470, § 4, 39 Stat. 845.)

287. Minimum rate to widows of officers and enlisted men of Army serving in Civil War from and after October 6, 1917.—From and after October 6, 1917, the rate of pension for a widow of an officer or enlisted man of the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States who served in the Civil War, on the pension roll at that date or thereafter to be placed on the pension roll and entitled to receive a less rate than hereinafter provided shall be $25 per month; and nothing herein shall be construed to affect the additional allowance provided on account of a helpless child or child under sixteen years of age. This section shall not be so construed as to reduce any pension under any Act, public or private. The provisions of this section shall be administered, executed and enforced by the Commissioner of Pensions. (Oct. 6, 1917, c. 105, § 2, 40 Stat. 408.)

288. Widows and children of veterans of the Civil War; widows of veterans of War of 1812 or war with Mexico; pension from and after May 1, 1920.—The widow of any person who served in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States during the Civil War for ninety days or more, and was honorably discharged from such service, or regardless of the length of service was discharged for or died in service of a disability incurred in the service and in the line of duty, such widow having been married to such soldier, sailor, or marine prior to the 27th day of June, anno Domini 1905, shall be entitled to and shall be paid, subject to the provisions of section 321 of this title, a pension at the rate of $30 per month. And this section shall apply to a former widow of any person who served for ninety days or more in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States during the Civil War and was honorably discharged from such service, or who, having so served for less than ninety days was discharged for or died in service of a disability incurred in the service and in the line of duty, such widow having remarried, either once or more than once after the death of the soldier, sailor, or marine, if it be shown that such subsequent or successive marriage has, or have been dissolved, either by the death of the husband or husbands, or by divorce without fault on the part of the wife; and any such former widow shall be entitled to and be paid a pension at the rate of $30 per month; and any widow as mentioned in this section, shall also be paid $6 per month for each child of such officer or enlisted man under the age of sixteen years, and in case of the death or remarriage of the widow leaving a child or children of such officer or enlisted man under the age of sixteen years, such pension shall be paid such child or children until the age of sixteen years. In case a minor child is insane, idiotic, or otherwise mentally or physically helpless, the pension shall continue during the life of such child, or during the period of such disability, and this shall apply to all pensions heretofore granted or hereafter to be granted. In case of any widow whose name has been dropped from the pension roll because of her remarriage, if the pension has been granted to an insane, idiotic, or otherwise helpless child, or to a child or children under the age of sixteen years, she shall not be entitled to renewal of pension under this section until that pension to such child or children terminates, unless such child or children be a member or members of her family and cared for by her, and upon the renewal of pension to such widow, payment of pension to such child or children shall cease. The rate of pension for the widow of any person who served in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States in the War of 1812, or for sixty days or more in the war with Mexico, on the coasts or frontier thereof, or en route thereto during the war with that nation, and was honorably discharged therefrom, shall be $30 per month. (May 1, 1920, c. 165, § 4, 41 Stat. 586.)

289. Certain battalions of Arkansas and Missouri Volunteers; application of pension law.—The names of all of the honorably discharged surviving officers and enlisted men of Gray's Battalion of Arkansas Volunteers and of Powell's Battalion of Missouri Mounted Volunteers, raised under the Act of Congress of May 13, 1846, for service during the war with Mexico, and the names of surviving widows of such officers and enlisted men, shall be carried on the pension roll subject to the limitations and regulations of this chapter for pensioning the survivors of the war with Mexico. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 568, 26 Stat. 1418; Feb. 17, 1897, c. 248, 29 Stat. 805.)

290. Laws extended to Missouri militia.—The provisions of sections 266, 267, 268, 281, and 282 of this title shall include the officers and privates of the Missouri State Militia and the Provisional Missouri Militia who served ninety days during the Civil War, and were honorably discharged, and the widows and minor children of such persons. (Feb. 15, 1895, No. 13, 28 Stat. 970.)

ARMY NURSES AND DEPENDENT PARENTS OF CIVIL WAR VETERANS

311. Army nurses.—Except as hereinafter provided in this title all women employed by the Surgeon General of the Army as nurses, under contract or otherwise, during the Civil War, or who were employed as nurses during such period by authority which is recognized by the War Department, and who rendered actual service as nurses in attendance upon the sick or wounded in any regimental, post, camp, or general hospital of the Armies of the United States for a period of six months or more, and who were honorably relieved from such service, and who were on August 5, 1892, or may thereafter be unable to earn a support, shall, upon making due proof of the fact according to such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may provide, be placed upon the list of pensioners of the United States and be entitled to receive a pension of $12 per month, and such pension shall commence from the date of the filing of the application in the Pension Office after said date: Provided, That no person shall receive more than one pension for the same period. (Aug. 5, 1892, c. 379, § 1, 27 Stat. 348; May 1, 1920, c. 165, § 5, 41 Stat. 587.)

312. Nurses and dependent parents entitled to pension; amount.—All Army nurses of the Civil War and all dependent parents of any officer or enlisted man who served in the Civil War whose names were on the pension roll on May 1, 1920, or who are entitled to pension under any existing law, shall be entitled to and shall be paid a pension at the rate of $30 per month. (Aug. 5, 1892, c. 379, 27 Stat. 348; May 1, 1920, c. 165, § 5, 41 Stat. 587.)

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS; COMMENCEMENT OF PENSION

321. Time of commencement of pensions provided for.—The increase of pension provided for under section 271 of this title shall commence at the rate therein provided when the requisite condition is shown to exist after May 1, 1920, and as to persons whose names were not on the pension roll on that date, or who were not then in receipt of a pension but who may be entitled to pension under the provisions of sections 270, 271, 288, or 312 of this title, such pensions shall commence from the date of filing application therefor in the Bureau of Pensions in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior: Provided, That as to any former widow as mentioned in section 288 of this title, who since the death of her soldier, sailor, or marine husband has remarried either once or more than once, and such subsequent or successive marriage has been dissolved, either by the death of the husband or husbands, or by divorce without fault on the part of the wife, and who filed her application for pension under sections 283 to 285 of this title, her pension shall commence from the date when her original application was filed in the Bureau of Pensions, and shall be at the rate in such sections provided, with increase at the rate or rates subsequently provided for the widows of Civil War soldiers, sailors, and marines, and by section 288 of this title from the date or dates when any such subsequent Act or Acts took effect or may hereafter take effect, it being the intent and purpose to give to any such widow the same status as other widows of Civil War soldiers, sailors, and marines who have not remarried, and from September 8, 1916. (May 1, 1920, c. 165, § 6, 41 Stat. 587.)

322. Honorable discharge from last contract of service during Civil War; effect on right to pension.—In the administration of the pension laws any enlisted man or commissioned officer of the Army, including regulars, volunteers, and militia, or any appointed or enlisted man or commissioned officer of the Navy or Marine Corps, who was honorably discharged from any subsequent contract of service entered into by him during the Civil War, shall be held and considered to have been honorably discharged from all previous contracts of service as commissioned officer or enlisted man previously entered into by him with the United States during said war, where such enlisted or appointed man or commissioned officer served at least six months under any subsequent enlistment, appointment, or commission; and his entire service under any said subsequent enlistment, appointment, or commission was faithful, and he did not receive by reason of said enlistment, appointment, or commission any bounty or gratuity other than from the United States in excess of that to which he would have been entitled if he had continued to serve faithfully until honorably discharged under any contract of service previously entered into by him, either in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps, during the said Civil War. (July 1, 1902, No. 42, § 2, 32 Stat. 750; June 28, 1906, No. 39, 34 Stat. 536.)

323. Same; date of pension on application after rejection of claim.—Whenever a claim for pension under sections 203 and 266 of this title has been rejected, suspended, or dismissed, and a new application filed, and a pension allowed in such claim, such pension shall date from the time of filing the first application, provided the evidence in the case shall show a pensionable disability to have existed, or to exist, at the time of filing such first application, anything in any law or ruling of the department to the contrary notwithstanding. (Mar. 6, 1896, c. 46, 29 Stat. 45.)

324. Same; fees of attorneys for prosecuting claims; withholding pension; penalty.—No agent, attorney, or other person engaged in preparing, presenting, or prosecuting any claim under the provisions of sections 203 and 266 of this title shall, directly or indirectly, contract for, demand, receive, or retain for such services in preparing, presenting, or prosecuting such claim a sum greater than $10, which sum shall be payable only upon the order of the Commissioner of Pensions, by the pension agent making payment of the pension allowed, and any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section, or who shall wrongfully withhold from a pensioner or claimant the whole or any part of a pension or claim allowed or due such pensioner or claimant under this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall, for each and every such offense, be fined not exceeding $500, or be imprisoned at hard labor not exceeding two years, or both, in the discretion of the court. (June 27, 1890, c. 634, § 4, 26 Stat. 183.)

325. Same; compensation for prosecuting claims for pensions.—No pension attorney, claim agent, or other person shall be entitled to receive any compensation for services rendered in presenting any claim to the Bureau of Pensions, or securing any pension, under sections 268 or 269 of this title, except in applications for original pension by persons who have not heretofore received a pension. (May 11, 1912, c. 123, § 3, 37 Stat. 113; June 10, 1918, c. 96, 40 Stat. 603.)

326. Claim agents or attorneys; recognition of; punishment.—No claim agent or attorney or other person shall be recognized in the adjustment of claims under sections 270, 271, 288, 312 and 321 of this title, except in claims for original pension, and in such cases no more than the sum of $10 shall be allowed for services in preparing, presenting, or prosecuting any such claim, which sum shall be payable only on the order of the Commissioner of Pensions; and any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section, or shall wrongfully withhold from the pensioner or claimant the whole or any part of a pension allowed or due to such pensioner or claimant under said sections, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall, for each and every offense, be fined not exceeding $500 or be imprisoned not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court. (May 1, 1920, c. 165, § 8, 41 Stat. 588.)

327. Pensions to Army and Navy Medal Roll not diminished.—Nothing in sections 270, 271, 288, 312 and 321 of this title contained shall be held to affect or diminish the additional pension to those on the roll designated as "The Army and Navy Medal of Honor Roll," as provided in sections 391 to 393 of this title, but any increase herein provided for shall be in addition thereto; and no pension granted prior to May 1, 1920, under any Act, public or private, shall be reduced by anything contained in said sections 270, 271, 288, 312 and 321 of this title. (May 1, 1920, c. 165, § 7, 41 Stat. 587.)

328. Same; rank not considered.—Rank in the service shall not be considered in applications filed under the provisions of this chapter. (May 11, 1912, c. 123, § 2, 37 Stat. 113; Feb. 6, 1917, c. 468, § 2, 34 Stat. 879.)

329. Certain claims for Revolutionary pensions prohibited.—No claim for a pension, or for an increase of pension, shall be allowed in favor of the children or other descendants of any person who served in the War of the Revolution, or of the widow of such person, when such person or his widow died without having established a claim to a pension. (R. S. § 4742.)

Chapter 7.—WAR WITH SPAIN, PHILIPPINE INSURRECTION, AND CHINESE BOXER REBELLION; VETERANS, WOMEN NURSES, AND DEPENDENTS.

Sec.

351. Pensions to persons serving in military or naval service during war with Spain, Philippine insurrection, and China relief expedition; amount; commencement and duration.

356. Same; from and after September 1, 1922.
357. Rate of widows of officers or enlisted men of Army serving in war with Spain or the Philippine insurrection; pension laws not affected.
358. Contract nurses of war with Spain; dependent parents of officers or enlisted men serving in war with Spain, Chinese Boxer rebellion, or Philippine insurrection.
359. Commencement of pension to specified person.
360. Determining period of pensionable service; furlough under certain general orders.
361. Claim agents or attorneys; compensation in disability cases; punishment.
362. Rank in service not considered.
363. Claim agents or attorneys; compensation in disability cases; nurses or widows' claims; punishment.

Section 351. Pensions to persons serving in military or naval service during war with Spain, Philippine insurrection, and China relief expedition; amount; commencement and duration.—All persons who served ninety days or more in the military or naval service of the United States during the war with Spain, the Philippine insurrection, and the China relief expedition, and who have been honorably discharged therefrom, and who were, on June 5, 1920, or may thereafter be suffering from any mental or physical disability or disabilities of a permanent character, not the result of their own vicious habits, which so incapacitates them from the performance of manual labor as to render them unable to earn a support, shall, upon making due proof of the fact, according to such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may provide, be placed upon the list of invalid pensioners of the United States, and be entitled to receive a pension not exceeding $30 per month and not less than $12 per month, proportioned to the degree of inability to earn a support; and in determining such inability each and every infirmity shall be duly considered, and the aggregate of the disabilities shown be rated, and such pension shall commence from the date of the filing of the application in the Bureau of Pensions, after June 5, 1920, upon proof that the disability or disabilities then existed, and shall continue during the existence of the same. (June 5, 1920, c. 245, § 1, 41 Stat. 982.)

352. Same; disability pensions coupled with age; amounts.—Any person mentioned in section 351 of this title who has reached the age of sixty-two years shall, upon making proof of such fact, be placed upon the pension roll and entitled to receive a pension of $12 per month. In case such person has reached the age of sixty-eight years, $18 per month; in case such person has reached the age of seventy-two years, $24 per month; and in case such person has reached the age of seventy-five years, $30 per month. (June 5, 1920, c. 245, § 1, 41 Stat. 982.)

353. Same; persons receiving pensions.—Persons who were receiving pensions under laws existing on June 5, 1920, or whose claims were pending in the Bureau of Pensions, at that date, may, by application to the Commissioner of Pensions, in such form as he may prescribe, showing themselves entitled thereto, receive the benefits of sections 351 and 352 of this title; and nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent any pensioner thereunder from prosecuting his claim and receiving his pension under any other general or special Act. (June 5, 1920, c. 245, § 1, 41 Stat. 982.)

354. Loss of both hands, both feet, or total disability of same; amount.—From and after September 1, 1922, all persons who, while in the military or naval service of the United States, served in the war with Spain, the Philippine insurrection, or the Chinese Boxer rebellion and in line of duty shall have lost both hands or both feet or been totally disabled therein, or who while in such service and in like manner sustained injuries that proved the direct cause of the subsequent total disability of both hands or both feet, shall receive a pension at the rate of $100 per month. (Sept. 1, 1922, c. 302, § 3, 42 Stat. 835.)

355. Widows and children of officers and enlisted men serving in war with Spain, Chinese Boxer rebellion, or Philippine insurrection; amount.—From and after July 16, 1918, if any volunteer officer or enlisted man who served ninety days or more in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States, during the war with Spain or the Philippine insurrection, between April 21, 1898, and July 4, 1902, inclusive, service to be computed from date of enlistment to date of discharge, or any officer or enlisted man of the Regular Establishment who rendered ninety days or more actual military or naval service in the United States Army, Navy, or Marine Corps in the war with Spain or the Philippine insurrection between April 21, 1898, and July 4, 1902, inclusive, or as a participant in the Chinese Boxer rebellion campaign between June 16, 1900, and October 1, 1900, and who has been honorably discharged therefrom, has died or shall hereafter die leaving a widow without means of support other than her daily labor, and an actual net income not exceeding $250 per year, or leaving a minor child or children under the age of sixteen years, such widow shall except as otherwise provided in this title upon due proof of her husband's death, without proving his death to be the result of his Army or Navy service, be placed on the pension roll from the date of the filing of her application therefor under this section, at the rate of $12 per month during her widowhood, and shall also be paid $2 per month for each child of such officer or enlisted man under sixteen years of age, and in case of the death or remarriage of the widow, leaving a child or children of such officer or enlisted man under the age of sixteen years, such pension shall be paid such child or children until the age of sixteen: Provided, That in case a minor child is insane, idiotic, or otherwise permanently helpless, the pension shall continue during the life of said child, or during the period of such disability, and shall commence from the date of application therefor after July 16, 1918: Provided further, That said widow shall have married said officer or enlisted man previous to that date. (July 16, 1918, c. 153, § 1, 40 Stat. 903.)

356. Same; from and after September 1, 1922.—The widow of any officer or enlisted man who served ninety days or more in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States during the war with Spain, the Chinese Boxer rebellion, or the Philippine insurrection, between April 21, 1898, and July 4, 1902, inclusive, service to be computed from date of enlistment to date of discharge, and was honorably discharged from such service, or, regardless of the length of service, was discharged for or died in service of a disability incurred in the service and line of duty, such widow having married such soldier, sailor, or marine prior to September 1, 1922, shall, upon due proof of her husband's death, without proving his death to be the result of his Army or Navy service, be placed upon the pension roll from the date of the filing of her application therefor under this section, at the rate of $20 per month during her widowhood. And this section shall apply to a former widow of any officer or enlisted man who rendered service as hereinbefore described, and who was honorably discharged, or died in service due to disability or disease incurred in the service, such widow having remarried either once or more than once after the death of the soldier, sailor, or marine, if it be shown that such subsequent or successive marriage has or have been dissolved, either by the death of the husband or husbands, or by divorce without fault on the part of the wife; and any such former widow shall be entitled to and be paid a pension at the rate of $20 per month; and any widow or former widow as mentioned in this section shall also be paid $4 per month for each child of such officer or enlisted man under the age of sixteen years, and in case of the death or remarriage of the widow leaving a child or children of such officer or enlisted man under the age of sixteen years, such pension shall be paid such child or children until the age of sixteen years. In case a minor child is insane, idiotic, or otherwise mentally or physically helpless, the pension shall continue during the life of such child, or during the period of such disability; and this proviso shall apply to all pensions heretofore granted or hereafter to be granted. In case of any widow whose name has been dropped from the pension roll because of her remarriage, if the pension has been granted to an insane, idiotic, or otherwise helpless child or to a child or children under the age of sixteen years, she shall not be entitled to renewal of pension under this section until the pension to such child or children terminates, unless such child or children be a member or members of her family and cared for by her, and upon renewal of pension to such widow payment of pension to such child or children shall cease. (Sept. 1, 1922, c. 302, § 1, 42 Stat. 834.)

357. Rate to widows of officers or enlisted men of Army serving in war with Spain or the Philippine insurrection; pension laws not affected.—From and after October 6, 1917, the rate of pension for a widow of an officer or enlisted man of the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States who served in the war with Spain, or the Philippine insurrection, on the pension roll at that date or thereafter to be placed on the pension roll, under then existing law and entitled to receive a less rate than hereinafter provided, shall be $25 per month; and nothing herein shall be construed to affect the additional allowance provided by existing pension laws on account of a helpless child or child under sixteen years of age. This section shall not be so construed as to reduce any pension under any Act, public or private. The provisions of this section shall be administered, executed, and enforced by the Commissioner of Pensions. (Sept. 2, 1914, c. 293, § 314; Oct. 6, 1917, c. 105, § 4, 40 Stat. 408.)

358. Contract nurses of war with Spain; dependent parents of officers or enlisted men serving in war with Spain, Chinese Boxer rebellion, or Philippine insurrection.—The benefits of sections 351 to 353, and 362 of this title shall include any woman who served honorably as an Army nurse, chief nurse, or superintendent of the Nurse Corps, under contract for ninety days or more between the beginning of the war with Spain and February 2, 1901, when the Nurse Corps (female) was declared by law a component part of the Army, and any such nurse who was released from service before the expiration of ninety days because of disability contracted in line of duty in said service. The release from service of any nurse, chief nurse, or superintendent shall operate as if she had received an honorable discharge, it being the intent and purpose to give to said nurses, chief nurses, and superintendents of the Nurse Corps (female) the same status in all respects as members of said corps who served after February 2, 1901. All dependent parents of any officer or enlisted man who served in the war with Spain, the Philippine insurrection, or the Chinese Boxer rebellion, whose names were, on September 1, 1922, on the pension roll, or who were, on that date, entitled to pension under any existing law, shall be entitled to and shall be paid a pension at the rate of $20 per month. (Sept. 1, 1922, c. 302, § 2, 42 Stat. 835.)

359. Commencement of pension to specified persons.—The pension or increase of pension provided for in sections 354, 356 and 358 of this title as to all persons whose names were on the pension roll on September 1, 1922, or who were at that date in receipt of a pension under then existing law shall commence at the rates provided in said above mentioned sections from September 1, 1922, and as to persons whose names were not on the pension roll on that date or who were not then in receipt of pension under then existing laws but who may be entitled to a pension under the provisions of sections 354, 356 and 358 of this title such pension shall commence from the date of filing application therefor in the Bureau of Pensions in such form as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior. (Sept. 1, 1922, c. 302, § 4, 42 Stat. 835.)

360. Determining period of pensionable service; furlough under certain General Orders.—In the adjudication of claims arising under section 356 of this title, and claims arising under the provisions of sections 351 to 353 of this title, all leaves of absence, and furloughs under General Orders, Numbered 130, August 29, 1898, War Department, shall be included in determining the period of pensionable service. As to any claimant who filed an application for pension under section 355 of this title or under sections 351 to 353 of this title, and whose application is still pending in the Bureau of Pensions or has been rejected on the ground that ninety days' service was not shown exclusive of the leave of absence or furlough under the order herein referred to, the pension shall commence from the date when the original application was filed in the Bureau of Pensions, and as to claims under said section 355 of this title, the pension shall be at the rate provided in that section, with increase at the rate provided under section 356 of this title from September 1, 1922; Provided, That persons who were, on September 1, 1922, receiving pensions under then existing law, or whose claims were then pending in the Bureau of Pensions, may by application to the Commissioner of Pensions, in such form as he may prescribe, showing themselves entitled thereto receive the benefits of sections 354, 356, and 358 of this title; and nothing herein shall be so construed as to prevent any pensioner thereunder from prosecuting his claim under any other general or special Act. This section shall not be so construed as to reduce any pension under any Act, public or private. (Sept. 1, 1922, c. 302, § 5, 42 Stat. 835.)

361. Claim agents or attorneys; compensation in veterans' cases; punishment.—No agent, attorney, or other person engaged in preparing, presenting, or prosecuting any claim under the provisions of sections 351 to 353 of this title shall, directly or indirectly, contract for, demand, receive, or retain for such services in preparing, presenting, or prosecuting such claim a sum greater than $20, which sum shall be payable only upon the order of the Commissioner of Pensions under such rules and regulations as he may deem proper to make, and any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section, or who shall wrongfully withhold from a pensioner or claimant the whole or any part of a pension or claim allowed or due such pensioner or claimant under this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall, for each and every such offense, be fined not exceeding $500, or be imprisoned at hard labor not exceeding two years, or both, in the discretion of the court. (June 5, 1920, c. 245, § 2, 41 Stat. 982.)

362. Rank in service not considered.—Rank in the service shall not be considered in applications filed under this chapter. (June 5, 1920, c. 245, § 1, 41 Stat. 982; Sept. 1, 1922, c. 302, § 5, 42 Stat. 835.)

363. Claim agents or attorneys; compensation in disability cases; nurses or widows' claims; punishment.—No claim agent or attorney or other person shall be recognized in the adjustment of claims under sections 354 to 356 or 358 and 360 of this title, except in claims for original pension, and in such cases no more than the sum of $10 shall be allowed for services in preparing, presenting, or prosecuting any such claim, which sum shall be payable only on the order of the Commissioner of Pensions; and any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section, or shall wrongfully withhold from the pensioner or claimant the whole or any part of a pension allowed or due to such pensioner or claimant under this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall, for each and every such offense, be fined not exceeding $500 or be imprisoned not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court. (July 16, 1918, c. 153, § 2, 40 Stat. 904; Sept. 1, 1922, c. 302, § 7, 42 Stat. 836.)

375. Same; further extension to Texas volunteers serving in defense of frontier against Indians; widows; proof of enlistment or muster, and so forth.
376. Same; period of service.
377. Residence of pensioners; proof of citizenship.
378. Laws applicable.
379. Proof required; perjury; striking from rolls; loss of certificate of discharge.

Section 371. Survivors of certain wars and widows placed on pension roll; rate.—The Secretary of the Interior is directed to place on the pension roll the names of the surviving officers and enlisted men, including marines, militia, and volunteers of the military and naval service of the United States, who served for thirty days in the Black Hawk war, the Creek war, the Cherokee disturbances, or the Florida war with the Seminole Indians, embracing a period from 1832 to 1842, inclusive, and were honorably discharged, and such other officers, soldiers, and sailors as may have been personally named in any resolution of Congress, for any specific service in said Indian wars, although their term of service may have been less than thirty days, and the surviving widows of such officers and enlisted men, where such widows have not remarried. This section shall not apply to any person not a citizen of the United States. Pensions under this section, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, shall bear the rate of $8 per month, payable from and after July 27, 1892, for and during the natural lives of the persons entitled thereto. (July 27, 1892, c. 277, §§ 1, 2, 27 Stat. 281.)

372. Same; benefits extended to survivors of other wars; widows.—From and after June 27, 1902, the provisions, limitations, and benefits contained in section 371 of this title, are hereby extended to the surviving officers and enlisted men, including marines, militia, and volunteers of the military and naval service of the United States who served for thirty days or more and were honorably discharged under the United States military, State, Territorial, or provisional authorities in the Florida and Georgia Seminole Indian war of 1817 and 1818; the Fevre River Indian war of Illinois of 1827; the Sac and Fox Indian war of 1831; the Sabine Indian disturbances of 1836 and 1837; the Cayuse Indian war of 1847 and 1848, on the Pacific coast; the Florida wars with the Seminole Indians, from 1842 to 1858, inclusive; the Texas and New Mexico Indian war of 1849 to 1856; the California Indian disturbances of 1851 and 1852; the Utah Indian disturbances of 1850 to 1853, inclusive, and the Oregon and Washington Territory Indian wars from 1851 to 1856, inclusive; and also include the surviving widows of such officers and enlisted men provided such widows have not remarried. Where there is no record of enlistment or muster into the service of the United States in any of the wars mentioned in this section the record of pay by the United States shall be accepted as full and satisfactory proof of such enlistment and service. All contracts made between the beneficiaries under this section and pension attorneys and claim agents prior to June 27, 1902, are hereby declared null and void. (June 27, 1902, c. 1156, 32 Stat. 399.)

373. Same; extension to Texas volunteers who served in defense of frontier against Mexicans and Indians; widows; proof of enlistment or muster; contracts with attorneys and claim agents.—From and after May 30, 1908, the provisions, limitations, and benefits contained in section 371 of this title, are hereby extended to the surviving officers and enlisted men of the Texas volunteers who served in the defense of the frontier of that State against Mexican marauders and Indian depredations from the year 1855 to the year 1860, inclusive; and also include the surviving widows of such of said officers and enlisted men, provided such widows have not remarried. Where there is no record of enlistment or muster into the service of the United States in the service mentioned herein the fact of reimbursement to Texas by the United States, as evidenced by the muster rolls and vouchers on file in the War Department, shall be accepted as full and satisfactory proof of such enlistment and service. All contracts made between the beneficiaries under this section and pension attorneys and claim agents prior to May 30, 1908, are hereby declared null and void. (May 30, 1908, c. 230, 35 Stat. 553.)

374. Increase of pension rate from and after February 19, 1913.—From and after February 19, 1913, the rate of pension to surviving soldiers of the various Indian wars who were then on the pension roll or who may be placed thereon under sections 371, 372, or 373 of this title shall be $20 per month. (Feb. 19, 1913, c. 59, 37 Stat. 679.)

375. Same; further extension to Texas volunteers serving in defence of frontier against Indians; widows; proof of enlistment or muster, etc.—From and after March 4, 1917, the provisions, limitations, and benefits of sections 371 and 374 of this title shall also extend to the surviving officers and enlisted men of the Texas volunteers who served in defense of the frontier of that State against Indian depredations from January 1, 1859, to January 1, 1861, inclusive, and from the year 1866 to the year 1877, inclusive, and to the surviving officers and enlisted men, including militia and volunteers of the military service of the United States, who have reached the age of sixty-two years, and who served for thirty days in the campaign in southern Oregon and Idaho and northern parts of California and Nevada from 1865 to 1868, inclusive; the campaign against the Sioux in Minnesota and the Dakotas in 1862 and 1863, and the campaigns against the Sioux in Wyoming in 1865 to 1868; to the following organizations of the First Regiment Nebraska Militia engaged in fighting Indians and guarding United States mails on the western frontier: Company A, First Regiment, First Brigade Nebraska Militia, who served from August 30, 1864, to November 12, 1864; Company B, First Regiment Nebraska Militia, who served from August 13, 1864, to February 13, 1865; Company C, First Regiment, Second Brigade Nebraska Militia, who served from August 24, 1864, to February 7, 1865; to Captain Edward P. Childs's artillery detachment, Nebraska Militia, who served from August 30, 1864, to November 12, 1864; and Company A, First Regiment, Second Brigade Nebraska Militia, who served from August 12, 1864, to December 24, 1864; the campaign against the Cheyennes, Arapahoes, Kiowas, and Comanches in Kansas, Colorado, and Indian Territory from 1867 to 1869, inclusive; the Modoc war of 1872 and 1873; the campaign against the Apaches of Arizona and New Mexico, or either of them, in 1873; the campaign against the Kiowas, Comanches, and Cheyennes in Kansas, Colorado, Texas, Indian Territory, and New Mexico in 1874 and 1875; the campaign against the Northern Cheyennes and Sioux in 1876 and 1877; the Nez Perce war of 1877; the Bannock war of 1878; the campaign against the Northern Cheyennes in 1878 and 1879; the campaigns in the Black Hawk Indian war in Utah from 1865 to 1867, inclusive; the campaign against the Ute Indians in Colorado and Utah, from September, 1879, to November, 1880, inclusive; the campaign against the Apache Indians in Arizona and New Mexico, or either of them, in 1885 and 1886; and the campaign against the Sioux Indians in South Dakota, from November, 1890, to January, 1891, inclusive; and to the surviving officers and enlisted men of the organization known as Tyler's Rangers, recruited at Black Hawk, Colorado, in 1864, for services against the Indians; and also to include the surviving widows of said officers and enlisted men who shall have married said survivor prior to March 4, 1917, and have not remarried. If any certain one of the said campaigns did not cover a period of thirty days, the provisions of this chapter shall apply to those who served during the entire period of said campaign. Where there is no record of enlistment or muster into the service of the United States in any of the wars mentioned in this section, the record of pay by the United States shall be accepted as full and satisfactory proof of such enlistment and service. All contracts made between the beneficiaries under this section and pension attorneys and claim agents prior to March 4, 1917, are hereby declared null and void. (Mar. 4, 1917, c. 189, § 1, 39 Stat. 1199.)

376. Same; period of service.—The period of service performed by beneficiaries under section 375 of this title shall be determined: First, by reports from the records of the War Department, where there are such records; second, by reports from the records of the Treasury Department showing payment by the United States, where there is no record of regular enlistment or muster into the United States military service; and third, when there is no record of service or payment for same in the War Department or the Treasury Department, by satisfactory evidence from muster rolls on file in the several State or territorial archives; fourth, where there is no muster roll or pay roll on file in the several State or territorial archives showing service of the beneficiary or same has been destroyed by fire or otherwise lost, and no record of service has been made in the War Department or Treasury Department, the applicant may make proof of service by furnishing evidence satisfactory to the Commissioner of Pensions. The want of a certificate of discharge shall not deprive any applicant of the benefits of section 375 of this title. (Mar. 4, 1917, c. 189, § 2, 39 Stat. 1200; Sept. 1, 1922, c. 302, § 6, 42 Stat. 836.)

377. Residence of pensioners; proof of citizenship.—The Commissioner of Pensions shall accept as sufficient proof of the citizenship of an applicant for pension under this chapter, the fact that such applicant at the date of the application was an actual and bona fide resident of the United States. (Feb. 3, 1893, c. 58, 27 Stat. 429.)

378. Laws applicable.—The pension laws in force, which are not inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of this chapter, shall be a part of this chapter, so far as they may be applicable thereto. (July 27, 1892, c. 277, § 5, 27 Stat. 282.)

379. Proof required; perjury; striking from rolls; loss of certificate of discharge.—Before the name of any person shall be placed on the pension roll under the provisions of this chapter, proof shall be made, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe, of the right of the applicant to a pension; and any person who shall falsely and corruptly take any oath required under this act shall be deemed guilty of perjury; and the Secretary of the Interior shall cause to be stricken from the pension roll the name of any person whenever it shall be made to appear by proof satisfactory to him that such name was put upon such roll through false and fraudulent representations, and that such person is not entitled to a pension under the provisions of this chapter. The loss of the certificate of discharge shall not deprive any person of the benefits of said provisions, but other evidence of service performed and of an honorable discharge may be deemed sufficient. (July 27, 1892, c. 277, § 3, 27 Stat. 282.)

Chapter 9.—ARMY AND NAVY MEDAL OF HONOR ROLL.

Sec.
391. Army and Navy Medal of Honor Roll; persons eligible.
392. Same; certificates entitling holder to pension; procedure.
393. Same; pensions; additional to other pensions; liability to attachment, etc.
394. Same; one special pension only awarded; rank immaterial.

Section 391. Army and Navy Medal of Honor Roll; persons eligible.—There is established in the War Department and Navy Department, respectively, a roll designated as "the Army and Navy Medal of Honor Roll." Upon written application made to the Secretary of the proper department, and subject to the conditions and requirements hereinafter contained, the name of each surviving person who has served in the military or naval service of the United States in any war, who has attained or shall attain the age of sixty-five years, and who has been awarded a medal of honor for having in action involving actual conflict with an enemy distinguished himself conspicuously by gallantry or intrepidity, at the risk of his life, above and beyond the call of duty, and who was honorably discharged from service by muster out, resignation, or otherwise, shall be, by the Secretary of the proper department, entered and recorded on said roll. Applications for entry on said roll shall be made in such form and under such regulations as shall be prescribed by the War Department and Navy Department, respectively, and proper blanks and instructions shall be, by the proper Secretary, furnished without charge upon request made by any person claiming the benefits of sections 391 to 394 of this title. (Apr. 27, 1916, c. 88, § 1, 39 Stat. 53.)

392. Same; certificates entitling holder to pension; procedure.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of War and of the Secretary of the Navy to carry the provisions of sections 391 to 394 of this title into effect and to decide whether each applicant, under said sections, in his department is entitled to the benefit thereof. If the official award of the medal of honor to the applicant, or the official notice to him thereof, shall appear to show that the medal of honor was awarded to the applicant for such an act as is required by the provisions of said sections, it shall be deemed sufficient to entitle the applicant to such special pension without further investigation. Otherwise all official correspondence, orders, reports, recommendations, requests, and other evidence now on file in any public office or department shall be considered. A certificate of service and of the act of heroism, gallantry, bravery, or intrepidity for which the medal of honor was awarded, and of enrollment under said sections, and of the right of the special pensioner to be entitled to and to receive the special pension herein granted, shall be furnished each person whose name shall be so entered on said roll. The Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy shall deliver to the Commissioner of Pensions a certified copy of each of such of said certificates as he may issue, as aforesaid, and the same shall be full and sufficient authority to the Commissioner of Pensions for the payment by him to the beneficiary named in each such certificate the special pension herein provided for. (Apr. 27, 1916, c. 88, § 2, 39 Stat. 54.)

393. Same; pensions; additional to other pensions; liability to attachment, etc.—Each such surviving person whose name shall have been entered on said roll in accordance with the provisions of sections 391 to 394 of this title shall be entitled to and shall receive and be paid by the Commissioner of Pensions in the Department of the Interior, from the moneys appropriated for the payment of invalid and other pensions, a special pension of $10 per month for life, payable monthly. The Commissioner of Pensions shall make all necessary rules and regulations for making payment of such special pensions to the beneficiaries thereof.

Such special pension shall begin on the day that such person shall file his application for enrollment on said roll in the office of the Secretary of War or of the Secretary of the Navy, and shall continue during the life of the beneficiary.

Such special pension shall not deprive any such special pensioner of any other pension or of any benefit, right, or privilege to which he is or may hereafter be entitled under any existing or subsequent law, but shall be in addition thereto.

The special pension allowed under this section shall not be subject to any attachment, execution, levy, tax, lien, or detention under any process whatever. (Apr. 27, 1916, c. 88, § 3, 39 Stat. 54; June 30, 1916, c. 194, 39 Stat. 242.)

394. Same; one special pension only awarded; rank immaterial.—In case any person has been awarded two or more medals of honor, he shall not be entitled to and shall not receive more than one such special pension.

Rank in the service shall not be considered in applications filed hereunder. (Apr. 27, 1916, c. 88, § 4, 39 Stat. 54.)

PART I.—GENERAL

Section 421. Citation.—This chapter may be cited as the "World War Veterans' Act, 1924." (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 1, 43 Stat. 607.)

422. Purpose; other gratuities or pensions; military or naval retirement laws; compensation to persons receiving active service or retirement pay.—This chapter is intended to provide a system for the relief of persons who were disabled, and for the dependents of those who died as a result of disability suffered in the military service of the United States between April 6, 1917, and July 2, 1921. For such disabilities and deaths no other pension laws or laws providing for gratuities or payments in the event of death in the service shall be applicable: Provided, however, That the laws relating to the retirement of persons in the regular military or naval service shall not be considered to be laws providing for pensions, gratuities, or payments within the meaning of this section: And provided further, That compensation under Part I of this chapter shall not be paid while the person is in receipt of active-service or retirement pay. Parts II and IV of this chapter shall not be applicable to any disability or resultant death in the service if such disability occurred as a result of service prior to April 6, 1917, or after July 2, 1921. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 212, 43 Stat. 623.)

423. General definitions.—When used in this chapter—

The term "bureau" means the United States Veterans' Bureau.

The term "director" means the Director of the United States Veterans' Bureau. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 2, 43 Stat. 607.)

424. Definitions of words and phrases.—In Parts II, III, and IV of this chapter unless the context otherwise requires—

(1) The term "child" includes—

(a) A legitimate child.

(b) A child legally adopted.

(c) A stepchild, if a member of the man's household.

(d) An illegitimate child, but, as to the father only, if acknowledged in writing signed by him, or if he has been judicially ordered or decreed to contribute to such child's support, or has been judicially decreed to be the putative father of such child.

(2) The term "grandchild" means a child as above defined of a child as above defined.

(3) Except as used in section 511 the terms "child" and "grandchild" are limited to unmarried persons either (a) under eighteen years of age, or (b) of any age, if permanently incapable of self-support by reason of mental or physical defect.

(4) The term "parent" includes a father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, father through adoption, mother through adoption, stepfather, and stepmother, either of the persons in the service or of the spouse.

(5) The terms "father" and "mother" include stepfathers and stepmothers, fathers and mothers through adoption, and persons who have stood in loco parentis to a member of the military or naval forces at any time prior to his enlistment or induction for a period of not less than one year.

(6) The terms "brother" and "sister" include brothers and sisters of the half blood as well as those of the whole blood, stepbrothers and stepsisters, and brothers and sisters through adoption.

(7) The terms "brother" and "sister" include the children of a person who, for a period of not less than one year, stood in loco parentis to a member of the military or naval forces of the United States at any time prior to his enlistment or induction, or another member of the same household as to whom such person during such period likewise stood in loco parentis.

(8) The term "commissioned officer" includes a warrant officer, but includes only an officer in active service in the military or naval forces of the United States.

(9) The terms "man" and "enlisted man" mean a person, whether male or female and whether enlisted, enrolled, or drafted into active service in the military or naval forces of the United States, and include noncommissioned and petty officers and members of training camps authorized by law.

(10) The term "enlistment" includes voluntary enlistment, draft, and enrollment in active service in the military or naval forces of the United States.

(11) The term "injury" includes disease.

(12) The term "pay" means the pay for service in the United States according to grade and length of service, excluding all allowances.

(13) The term "military or naval forces" means the Army, the Navy, the Marine Corps, the Coast Guard, the Naval Reserves, the National Naval Volunteers, and any other branch of the United States service while serving pursuant to law with the Army or the Navy.

(14) The terms "World War," "during the period of the war," and "during the World War" mean the period beginning April 6, 1917, and ending July 2, 1921.

(15) The terms "date of termination of the war" and "termination of the war" mean July 2, 1921. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 3, 43 Stat. 607; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 1, 43 Stat. 1302.)

425. United States Veterans' Bureau; establishment; director; appointment; salary; technical and administrative staff.—There is established an independent bureau under the President to be known as the United States Veterans' Bureau, the director of which shall be appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Director of the United States Veterans' Bureau shall receive a salary of $10,000 per annum, payable monthly.

There shall be included on the technical and administrative staff of the director such staff officers, experts, inspectors, and assistants as the director shall prescribe; and there shall be in the United States Veterans' Bureau such sections and subdivisions thereof as the director shall prescribe. With such exceptions as the President may deem advisable, all employees shall be subject to the civil-service law and regulations made thereunder. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 4, 43 Stat. 608.)

426. Same; director; powers and duties; duties of officers and employees; rules and regulations; proofs and evidence; forms of applications; investigations; medical examinations; adjudications and awards.—The director, subject to the general direction of the President, shall administer, execute, and enforce the provisions of this chapter, and for that purpose shall have full power and authority to make rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, which are necessary or appropriate to carry out its purposes, and shall decide all questions arising under this chapter and all decisions of questions of fact affecting any claimant to the benefits of Parts II, III, or IV of this chapter, shall be conclusive except as otherwise provided herein. All officers and employees of the bureau shall perform such duties as may be assigned them by the director. All official acts performed by such officers or employees specially designated therefor by the director shall have the same force and effect as though performed by the director in person. Wherever under any provision or provisions of this chapter regulations are directed or authorized to be made, such regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, shall or may be made by the director. The director shall adopt reasonable and proper rules to govern the procedure of the divisions and to regulate and provide for the nature and extent of the proofs and evidence and the method of taking and furnishing the same in order to establish the right to benefits of compensation, insurance, vocational training or maintenance and support allowance provided for in this chapter, the forms of application of those claiming to be entitled to such benefits, the methods of making investigations and medical examinations, and the manner and form of adjudications and awards. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 5, 43 Stat. 608.)

427. Statement by director to Congress of employees and rates of pay.—On the first day of each regular session of Congress the Director of the Veterans' Bureau shall transmit to the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives a statement giving in detail (a) the total number of positions at a rate of $2,000 or more per annum, (b) the rate of salary attached to each position, (c) the number of positions at each rate in the central office and in each regional office or suboffice and hospital, and (d) a brief statement of the duties of each position. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 468, § 1, 43 Stat. 1210.)

428. Report by director to Congress of activities of bureau.—The Director of the United States Veterans' Bureau shall on the first Monday in December of each year file with the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate a full and complete report of all activities of the United States Veterans' Bureau, showing in detail the number of claimants and the amount of compensation paid, the number of veterans of the various wars and expeditions receiving hospitalization and medical treatment, the number of dependents drawing compensation and the amount of such compensation, the number of persons holding and paying for Government life insurance, and a full and itemized statement of all moneys received and disbursed by the director, or any of his agents, for the preceding year. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 14, 43 Stat. 611.)

429. Placement of rehabilitated persons; use of facilities of Department of Labor.—The bureau shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to provide for the placement of rehabilitated persons in suitable or gainful occupations. The director is authorized and directed to utilize, with the approval of the Secretary of Labor, the facilities of the Department of Labor, in so far as may be practicable, in the placement of rehabilitated persons in suitable or gainful occupations. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 6, 43 Stat. 609.)

430. Central and regional and suboffices of bureau; powers.—The director shall establish a central office in the District of Columbia, and such regional offices and suboffices, not exceeding one hundred in number, within the territory of the United States and its outlying possessions as may be deemed necessary by him and in the best interests of the work committed to the Veterans' Bureau and to carry out the purposes of this chapter. Such regional offices and sub-offices, may, subject to final action by the director in case of an appeal, and under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the director, exercise such powers for hearing complaints and for examining, rating, and awarding compensation claims, granting medical, surgical, dental, and hospital care, convalescent care, and necessary and reasonable after care, granting vocational training and all other matters delegated to them, or some of them, by the director as could be performed lawfully under this chapter by the central office.

The director may abolish any regional offices or suboffices when in his judgment this may be done without detriment to the administration of this chapter, and upon such termination all records and supplies pertaining thereto shall be delivered to the central office, or as the director shall otherwise prescribe. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 7, 43 Stat. 609.)

431. Witnesses; subpœnas; contempt; fees.—For the purposes of this chapter the director, and such persons as the director may designate, shall have the power to issue subpœnas for and compel the attendance of witnesses within a radius of one hundred miles from the place of hearing, to require the production of books, papers, documents, and other evidence, to administer oaths, and to examine witnesses upon any matter within the jurisdiction of the bureau. In case of disobedience to a subpœna the bureau may invoke the aid of any district court of the United States in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence, and such court, within the jurisdiction of which the inquiry is carried on, may, in case of contumacy or refusal to obey a subpœna issued to any officer, agent, or employee of any corporation or other person, issue an order requiring such corporation or other person to appear before the bureau or to give evidence touching the matter in question; and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by such court as a contempt thereof. Any person so required to attend as a witness shall be allowed and paid the same fees and mileage as are paid witnesses in the district courts of the United States. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 8, 43 Stat. 609.)

432. Detail of employees to examine claims.—For the purpose of this chapter, the director is authorized to detail from time to time clerks or persons employed in the bureau to make examinations into the merits of compensation and insurance claims, whether pending or adjudicated, as he may deem proper, and to aid in the preparation, presentation, or examination of such claims; and any such person so detailed shall have power to administer oaths, take affidavits, and certify to the correctness of the papers and documents pertaining to the administration of the provisions of this chapter. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 8, 43 Stat. 609.)

433. Opinions of Attorney General.—In addition to the services of the legal assistants employed by the bureau, the director may require the opinion of the Attorney General on any questions of law arising in the administration of the bureau. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 9, 43 Stat. 610.)

434. Hospitalization, medical care, and treatment of beneficiaries; powers of director; hospital facilities; transfer of hospitals from Treasury and Public Health Department.—The director, subject to the general directions of the President, shall be responsible for the proper examination, medical care, treatment, hospitalization, dispensary, and convalescent care, necessary and reasonable after care, welfare of, nursing, vocational training, and such other services as may be necessary in the carrying out of the provisions of this chapter, and for that purpose is authorized, at the direction of the President or with the approval of the head of the department concerned, to utilize the facilities of the United States Public Health Service, the War Department, the Navy Department, the Interior Department, the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, and such other governmental facilities as may be made available for the purposes set forth in this chapter; and such governmental agencies are authorized to furnish such facilities, including personnel, equipment, medical, surgical, and hospital services and supplies as the director may deem necessary and advisable in carrying out the provisions of this chapter, in addition to such governmental facilities as are made available.

When, in the opinion of the director, the facilities and services utilized for the hospitalization, medical care, and treatment for beneficiaries under this chapter are unsatisfactory, the director shall make arrangements for the further hospitalization, care, and treatment of such beneficiaries by other means.

In the event that there are not sufficient Government hospital and other facilities for the proper medical care and treatment of beneficiaries under this chapter, and the director deems it necessary and advisable to secure additional Government facilities, he may, within the limits of appropriations made for carrying out the provisions of this paragraph, and with the approval of the President, improve or extend governmental facilities, or acquire additional facilities by purchase or otherwise. Such new property and structures as may be improved, extended, or acquired shall become part of the permanent equipment of the United States Veterans' Bureau or of some one of the now existing agencies of the Government, including the War Department, Navy Department, Interior Department, Treasury Department, the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, in such way as will best serve the present emergency, taking into consideration the future services to be rendered the veterans of the World War, including the beneficiaries under this chapter.

In the event Government hospital facilities are insufficient or inadequate the director may, subject to the provisions of section 438 of this title, contract with State, municipal, or, in exceptional cases, with private hospitals for such medical, surgical, and hospital services and supplies as may be required, and such contracts may be made for a period of not exceeding three years and may be for the use of a ward or other hospital unit or on such other basis as may be in the best interest of the beneficiaries under this chapter.

There shall be permanently transferred to the Veterans' Bureau all hospitals on June 7, 1924, or prior to that date, under the jurisdiction of the Public Health Service or of the Treasury Department, the operation, management, or control of which have, prior to June 7, 1924, been transferred by the President to said bureau pursuant to the authority contained in section 9 of the Act entitled "An Act to establish a Veterans' Bureau and to improve the facilities and service of such bureau and further to amend and modify the War Risk Insurance Act, approved August 9, 1921, chapter 57, Forty-second Statutes, page 147." (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 10, 43 Stat. 610.)

435. Additional hospital and out-patient dispensary facilities; powers of director; construction, etc.—In order to provide sufficient hospital and out-patient dispensary facilities to enable the United States Veterans' Bureau to care for its beneficiaries in Veterans' Bureau hospitals rather than in contract temporary facilities and other institutions, the Director of the United States Veterans' Bureau, subject to the approval of the President, is authorized to provide additional hospital and out-patient dispensary facilities for persons entitled to hospitalization under this chapter by purchase, replacement, and remodeling or extension of existing plants, and by construction on sites owned by the Government or on sites to be acquired by purchase, condemnation, gift, or otherwise, such hospitals and out-patient dispensary facilities, to include the necessary buildings and auxiliary structures, mechanical equipment, approach work, roads and trackage facilities leading thereto; vehicles, livestock, furniture, equipment and accessories, and also to provide accommodations for officers, nurses, and attending personnel; and also to provide proper and suitable recreational centers, and the Director of the United States Veterans' Bureau is authorized to accept gifts or donations for any of the purposes named herein. Such hospital plants to be constructed shall be of fireproof construction and existing plants purchased shall be remodeled to be fireproof, and the location and nature thereof, whether for the treatment of tuberculosis, neuropsychiatric, or general medical and surgical cases, shall be in the discretion of the Director of the United States Veterans' Bureau, subject to the approval of the President: Provided, however, That the director, with the approval of the President, may utilize such suitable buildings, structures, and grounds, owned by the United States, as may be available for the purposes aforesaid, and the President is authorized by Executive order to transfer any such buildings, structures, and grounds to the control and jurisdiction of the United States Veterans' Bureau upon the request of the director thereof. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 469, § 1, 43 Stat. 1212.)

436. Same; construction of buildings.—The construction of new hospitals or dispensaries, or the replacement, extension, alteration, remodeling, or repair of all hospitals or dispensaries constructed prior to, or after March 3, 1925, shall be done in such manner as the President may determine, and he is authorized to require the architectural, engineering, constructing, or other forces of any of the departments of the Government to do or assist in such work, and to employ individuals and agencies not now connected with the Government, if in his opinion desirable, at such compensation as he may consider reasonable. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 469, § 2, 43 Stat. 1213.)

437. Same; appropriation; use of.—A sum not to exceed 3 per centum of the $10,000,000 appropriated March 3, 1925, for carrying into effect the provisions of sections 435 and 436 of this title relating to additional hospital and out-patient dispensary facilities shall be available for the employment in the District of Columbia and in the field of necessary technical and clerical assistants at the customary rates of compensation, exclusively to aid in the preparation of the plans and specifications for the projects authorized herein and for the supervision of the execution thereof, and for traveling expenses, field-office equipment and supplies in connection therewith. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 469, § 3, 43 Stat. 1213.)

438. Same; other hospitals not to be used.—Upon completion of the hospital program provided for in sections 435 to 437 of this title no contract or other hospital or institution other than those hospitals and institutions under the jurisdiction and control of the United States Veterans' Bureau or those governmental hospitals or institutions specified in section 434 of this title, shall be used, except where due to the nature of a claimant's disease or disability it would endanger his life to remove him from such hospital to a Veterans' Bureau hospital, or in the event of extreme emergency in the discretion of the director. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 469, § 4, 43 Stat. 1213.)

439. Same; rules and regulations; penalty for breaches.—The director is authorized to make such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary in order to promote good conduct on the part of persons who are receiving care or treatment in hospitals, homes, or institutions as patients or beneficiaries of said bureau during their stay in such hospitals, homes, institutions, or training centers. Penalties for the breach of such rules and regulations may, with the approval of the director, extend to a forfeiture by the offender of such portion of the compensation payable to him, not exceeding three-fourths of the monthly installment per month for three months, for a breach committed while receiving treatment in such hospital, home, institution, or training center as may be prescribed by such rules and regulations. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 11, 43 Stat. 611.)

440. Vocational rehabilitation; gifts and donations for; special fund for.—The bureau is authorized and empowered to receive, for purposes of benefits provided by Part IV of this chapter, such gifts and donations from either public or private sources as may be offered unconditionally. All moneys so received as gifts or donations shall be paid into the Treasury of the United States, and shall constitute a permanent fund, to be called the "Special fund for vocational rehabilitation," to be used under the direction of the said bureau in connection with the appropriations made or to be made, to defray the expenses of providing and maintaining courses of vocational rehabilitation; and a full report of all gifts and donations offered and accepted and all disbursements therefrom shall be submitted annually to Congress by the director. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 12, 43 Stat. 611.)

441. Same; revolving fund for.—All sums appropriated prior to June 7, 1924, for use by the Federal Board for Vocational Education as a revolving fund, not exceeding $500,000, may be used by the bureau as a revolving fund for the purpose of making advancement to persons commencing or undergoing training under Part IV of this chapter, such advancements to bear no interest and to be reimbursed in such installments as may be determined by the director by proper deductions from the monthly maintenance and support allowances allowed by this chapter. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 13, 43 Stat. 611.)

442. Previous appropriations for military and naval insurance appropriation and premiums collected for term insurance available for bureau; future premiums for term insurance.—All sums appropriated prior to June 7, 1924, for the military and naval insurance appropriation and all premiums collected for the yearly renewable term insurance provided by the provisions of Part III deposited and covered into the Treasury to the credit of this appropriation, shall, where unexpended, be made available for the bureau. All premiums that may be collected after June 7, 1924, for the yearly renewable term insurance provided by the provisions of Part III shall be deposited and covered into the Treasury for the credit of this appropriation. Such sum including all premium payments is made available for the payment of the liabilities of the United States incurred under contracts of yearly renewable term insurance made under the provisions of Part III, including such liabilities as shall have been or shall hereafter be reduced to judgment in a district court of the United States or in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia. Payments from this appropriation shall be made upon and in accordance with the awards by the director. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 16, 43 Stat. 612.)

443. United States Government life insurance fund; premiums paid on account of converted insurance credited to; payments from; reserve funds.—All premiums paid on account of insurance converted under the provisions of Part III of this chapter shall be deposited and covered into the Treasury to the credit of the United States Government life insurance fund and shall be available for the payment of losses, dividends, refunds, and other benefits provided for under such insurance, including such liabilities as shall have been or shall be reduced to judgment in a district court of the United States or in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia. Payments from this fund shall be made upon and in accordance with awards by the director.

The bureau is authorized to set aside out of the fund so collected such reserve funds as may be required, under accepted actuarial principles, to meet all liabilities under such insurance; and the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to invest and reinvest the said United States Government life insurance fund, or any part thereof, in interest-bearing obligations of the United States or bonds of the Federal farm-loan banks and to sell said obligations of the United States or the bonds of the Federal farm-loan banks for the purposes of such fund. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 17, 43 Stat. 612.)

444. Credit in accounts of disbursing clerk of bureau for payments of insurance installments.—The Comptroller General of the United States is authorized and directed to allow credit in the accounts of the disbursing clerk of the bureau for all payments of insurance installments made after June 7, 1924, without verification of the deduction on the pay rolls, of such premiums as may have accrued prior to January 1, 1921, while the insured was in the service. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 18, 43 Stat. 612.)

445. Actions on claims; jurisdiction; parties; procedure.—In the event of disagreement as to claim under a contract of insurance between the bureau and any person or persons claiming thereunder an action on the claim may be brought against the United States either in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia or in the district court of the United States in and for the district in which such persons or any one of them resides, and jurisdiction is conferred upon such courts to hear and determine all such controversies. The procedure in such suits shall be the same as that provided in sections 762 and 763 of Title 28, and section 765 of Title 28 in so far as applicable. All persons having or claiming to have an interest in such insurance may be made parties to such suit, and such as are not inhabitants of or found within the district in which suit is brought may be brought in by order of the court to be served personally or by publication or in such other reasonable manner as the court may direct. In all cases where the bureau acknowledges the indebtedness of the United States upon any such contract of insurance and there is a dispute as to the person or persons entitled to payment, a suit in the nature of a bill of interpleader may be brought by the bureau in the name of the United States against all persons having or claiming to have any interest in such insurance in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia or in the district court in and for the district in which any of such claimants reside. Not less than thirty days prior to instituting such suit the bureau shall mail a notice of such intention to each of the persons to be made parties to the suit. The circuit courts of appeal and the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia shall respectively exercise appellate jurisdiction and, except as provided in sections 346 and 347 of Title 28, the decrees of the circuit courts of appeal and the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia shall be final. This section shall apply to all suits pending against the United States, under the provisions of the War Risk Insurance Act, as amended or of this chapter on March 4, 1925. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 19, 43 Stat. 612; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 2, 43 Stat. 1302.)

446. Proof of marriage of claimant.—For the purpose of this chapter the marriage of the claimant to the person on account of whom the claim is made shall be shown by such testimony as the director may prescribe by regulations. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 20, 43 Stat. 613.)

447. Effect of discharge from military or naval forces on insurance, etc.—The discharge or dismissal of any person from the military or naval forces on the ground that he was guilty of mutiny, treason, spying, or any offense involving moral turpitude, or willful and persistent misconduct, of which he was found guilty by a court-martial, or that he was an alien, conscientious objector who refused to perform military duty or refused to wear the uniform, or a deserter, shall bar all rights to any compensation under Part II, or any training, or any maintenance and support allowance under Part IV of this chapter: Provided, That this section shall not apply to an alien who volunteered or who was drafted into or who served in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps of the United States during the World War, who was discharged subsequent to November 11, 1918, or who was not discharged from the service on or prior to November 11, 1918, on his own application or solicitation by reason of his being an alien, and whose service was honest and faithful: Provided further, That in case any person has been discharged or dismissed from the military or naval forces as a result of a court-martial trial, and it is thereafter established to the satisfaction of the director that at the time of the commission of the offense resulting in such court-martial trial and discharge such person was insane, such person shall be entitled to the compensation and vocational training benefits under Parts II and IV hereof: Provided further, That discharge or dismissal or finding of guilt for any of the offenses specified in this section shall not affect the payment of compensation or maintenance and support allowance for disabilities incurred in or aggravated by service in any prior or subsequent enlistment: Provided further, That no compensation or insurance shall be payable for death inflicted as a lawful punishment for crime or military offense, except when inflicted by the enemy: Provided further, That as to converted insurance the cash surrender value, if any, on the date of such death shall be paid to the designated beneficiary if living, or if there be no designated beneficiary alive at the death of the insured the said value shall be paid to the estate of the insured: Provided further, That the discharge of a person for having concealed the fact that he was a minor at the time of his enlistment shall not bar him from the benefits of this chapter if his service was otherwise honorable. This section shall be deemed to be in effect as of April 6, 1917. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 23, 43 Stat. 613; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 3, 43 Stat. 1303.)

448. Effect of death or disability, after induction by draft boards or calling into Federal service, but before enrollment for actual service.—If after induction by the local draft board, or after being called into Federal service as a member of the National Guard, but before being accepted and enrolled for active service, the person died or became disabled as a result of disease contracted or injury suffered in the line of duty and not due to his own willful misconduct involving moral turpitude, or as a result of the aggravation, in the line of duty and not because of his own willful misconduct involving moral turpitude, of an existing disease or injury, he or those entitled thereto shall receive the benefits of compensation payable under Part II of this chapter, and any insurance application made by such person after induction by the local draft board but before being accepted and enrolled for active service shall be deemed valid. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 24, 43 Stat. 614.)

449. Persons applying for enlistment or enrollment between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, and accepted provisionally; benefits.—Any person who between the 6th day of April, 1917, and the 11th day of November, 1918, applied for enlistment or enrollment in the military or naval forces, and who was accepted provisionally and directed or ordered to a camp, post, station, or other place for final acceptance into such service, shall be deemed to have the same status as an inducted man not yet accepted and enrolled for active service during the period while such person was complying with such order or direction, and during such compliance, and until his final acceptance or rejection for enlistment or enrollment into the military or naval forces, shall be entitled to the same benefits under Parts II and III of this chapter as an inducted man not yet accepted and enrolled for active service. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 25, 43 Stat. 614.)

450. Payments to minors, mental incompetents, or persons under legal disability.—Where any payment under this chapter is to be made to a minor, other than a person in the military or naval forces of the United States, or to a person mentally incompetent, or under other legal disability adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction, such payment may be made to the person who is constituted guardian, curator, or conservator by the laws of the State or residence of claimant, or is otherwise legally vested with responsibility or care of the claimant or his estate: Provided, That prior to receipt of notice by the bureau that any such person is under such other legal disability adjudged by some court of competent jurisdiction, payment may be made to such person direct: Provided further, That for the purpose of payments of benefits under Part II of this chapter, where no guardian, curator, or conservator of the person under a legal disability has been appointed under the laws of the State or residence of the claimant, the director shall determine the person who is otherwise legally vested with responsibility or care of the claimant or his estate: And provided further, That the director, in his discretion, may suspend such payments to any such guardian, curator, conservator, or other person who shall neglect or refuse, after reasonable notice, to render an account to the director from time to time showing the application of such payments for the benefit of such minor or incompetent beneficiary. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 21, 43 Stat. 613.)

451. Payments to personal representatives.—The amount of the monthly installments of compensation, yearly renewable term insurance, or accrued maintenance and support allowance which has become payable under the provisions of Parts II, III, or IV of this chapter, but which has not been paid prior to the death of the person entitled to receive the same, may be payable to the personal representatives of such person: Provided, That in cases where the estate of the decedent would escheat under the laws of the place of his residence, such installments shall not be paid to the estate of the decedent but shall escheat to the United States and shall be credited to the appropriation from which the original award was made. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 26, 43 Stat. 614.)

452. Validation of payments made prior to June 7, 1924.—All payments of compensation and insurance made prior to June 7, 1924, pursuant to a regulation permitting permanent and total disability to be presumed from hospitalization or ratings of less than permanent total disability shall be deemed valid and no recovery thereof shall be made: Provided, That nothing in this chapter shall operate to validate insurance not in force on the date an award thereof was approved, except where premiums have been thereafter accepted. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 27, 43 Stat. 615.)

453. Payments not to be recovered from beneficiaries, when.—There shall be no recovery of payments from any beneficiary who, in the judgment of the director, is without fault on his part, and where, in the judgment of the director, such recovery would defeat the purpose of benefits otherwise authorized or would be against equity and good conscience. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 28, 43 Stat. 615.)

454. Assignability and exempt status of compensation, insurance, and maintenance and support allowances.—The compensation, insurance, and maintenance and support allowance payable under Parts II, III, and IV, respectively, shall not be assignable; shall not be subject to the claims of creditors of any person to whom an award is made under Parts II, III, or IV; and shall be exempt from all taxation. Such compensation, insurance, and maintenance and support allowance shall be subject to any claims which the United States may have, under Parts II, III, IV, and V, against the person on whose account the compensation, insurance, or maintenance and support allowance is payable.

The provisions of this section shall not be construed to prohibit the assignment by any person to whom converted insurance shall be payable under Part III of this chapter of his interest in such insurance to any other member of the permitted class of beneficiaries. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 22, 43 Stat. 613.)

455. Sale, etc., by director of surplus equipment, etc.—The director is authorized, in his discretion, to sell, lease, or exchange surplus equipment, supplies, products, or waste materials belonging to the bureau or any of its plants, or institutions; and to lease for a term, not exceeding three years, lands or buildings, or parts or parcels thereof, belonging to the United States and under the control of the bureau. The net proceeds of all such sales, leases, or exchanges shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 29, 43 Stat. 615.)

456. Files, records, etc., confidential and privileged.—All files, records, reports, and other papers and documents pertaining to any claim for the benefits of the provisions of this chapter, whether pending or adjudicated, shall be deemed confidential and privileged and no disclosure thereof shall be made except as follows:

(a) To a claimant or his duly authorized representative, as to matters concerning himself alone, when in the judgment of the director such disclosure would not be injurious to the physical or mental health of the claimant;

(b) Where required by the process of a United States court to be produced in any suit or proceeding therein pending; or when such production is deemed by the director to be necessary in any suit or proceeding brought under the provisions of this chapter;

(c) In all proceedings in the nature of an inquest into the mental competency of a claimant, and in all other judicial proceedings, when in the judgment of the director such disclosure is deemed necessary and proper;

(d) The amount of compensation or training allowance of any beneficiary shall be made known to any person who applies for such information.

Wherever the production of a file, record, report, or other document is required or permitted by this section a certified copy thereof may be produced in lieu of the original, and such certified copy shall be received in evidence with like force and effect as the original. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 30, 43 Stat. 615.)

457. Telephone service; payment for.—Payment may be made for official telephone service and rental in the field wherever incurred in case of official telephones for medical officers of the bureau where such telephones are installed in private residences or private apartments or quarters when authorized under regulations established by the director. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 5, 43 Stat. 1304.)

PART II.—COMPENSATION AND TREATMENT

471. Compensation for death or disability; to whom payable and for what causes payable; presumptions as to soundness of condition and time of acquisition of disabilities.—For death or disability resulting from personal injury suffered or disease contracted in the military or naval service on or after April 6, 1917, and before July 2, 1921, or for an aggravation or recurrence of a disability existing prior to examination, acceptance, and enrollment for service, when such aggravation was suffered or contracted in, or such recurrence was caused by, the military or naval service on or after April 6, 1917, and before July 2, 1921, by any commissioned officer or enlisted man, or by any member of the Army Nurse Corps (female) or of the Navy Nurse Corps (female) when employed in the active service under the War Department or Navy Department, the United States shall pay to such commissioned officer or enlisted man, member of the Army Nurse Corps (female) or of the Navy Nurse Corps (female) or, in the discretion of the director, separately to his or her dependents, compensation as hereinafter provided; but no compensation shall be paid if the injury, disease, aggravation, or recurrence has been caused by his own willful misconduct: Provided, That no person suffering from paralysis, paresis, or blindness shall be denied compensation by reason of willful misconduct, nor shall any person who is helpless or bedridden as a result of any disability be denied compensation by reason of willful misconduct. For the purposes of this section every such officer, enlisted man, or other member employed in the active service under the War Department or Navy Department who was discharged or who resigned prior to July 2, 1921, and every such officer, enlisted man, or other member employed in the active service under the War Department or Navy Department on or before November 11, 1918, who on or after July 2, 1921, is discharged or resigns, shall be conclusively held and taken to have been in sound condition when examined, accepted, and enrolled for service, except as to defects, disorders, or infirmities made of record in any manner by proper authorities of the United States at the time of, or prior to, inception of active service, to the extent to which any such defect, disorder, or infirmity was so made of record: Provided, That an ex-service man who is shown to have or, if deceased, to have had, prior to January 1, 1925, neuropsychiatric disease, an active tuberculosis disease, paralysis agitans, encephalitis lethargica, or amœbic dysentery developing a 10 per centum degree of disability or more in accordance with the provisions of section 474 of this title, shall be presumed to have acquired his disability in such service between April 6, 1917, and July 2, 1921, or to have suffered an aggravation of a preexisting neuropsychiatric disease, tuberculosis, paralysis agitans, encephalitis lethargica, or amœbic dysentery in such service between said dates, and said presumption shall be conclusive in cases of active tuberculous disease, but in all other cases said presumption shall be rebuttable by clear and convincing evidence; but nothing in this proviso shall be construed to prevent a claimant from receiving the benefits of compensation and medical care and treatment for a disability due to these diseases of more than 10 per centum degree (in accordance with the provisions of section 474 of this title) on or subsequent to January 1, 1925, if the facts in the case substantiate his claim. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 200, 43 Stat. 615; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 6, 43 Stat. 1304.)

472. Death resulting from injury; amounts payable; burial allowances; payments to widow or children; veterans of other wars.—If death results from injury—

If the deceased leaves a widow or child, or if he leaves a mother or father either or both dependent upon him for support, the monthly compensation shall be the following amounts:

(a) If there is a widow but no child, $30.

(b) If there is a widow and one child, $40, with $6 for each additional child.

(c) If there is no widow, but one child, $20.

(d) If there is no widow, but two children, $30.

(e) If there is no widow, but three children, $40, with $5 for each additional child.

(f) If there is a dependent mother (or dependent father), $20, or both, $30. The amount payable under this subdivision shall not exceed the difference between the total amount payable to the widow and children and the sum of $75. Such compensation shall be payable, whether the dependency of the father or mother or both arises before or after the death of the person, but no compensation shall be payable if the dependency arises more than five years after the death of the person.

(1) If death occurred subsequent to April 6, 1917, and before discharge or resignation from the service, the United States Veterans' Bureau shall pay for burial and funeral expenses and the return of body to his home a sum not to exceed $100, as may be fixed by regulation. Where a veteran of any war, including those persons who served honorably as Army nurses under contracts for ninety days or more during the Spanish-American War, who was not dishonorably discharged dies after discharge or resignation from the service and does not in the judgment of the director leave sufficient assets to meet the expenses of burial and funeral and the transportation of the body, the United States Veterans' Bureau shall pay the following sums: For a flag to drape the casket, and after burial to be given to the next of kin of the deceased, a sum not exceeding $7; also, for burial and funeral expenses and the transportation of the body (including preparation of the body) to the place of burial, a sum not exceeding $100 to cover such items and to be paid to such person or persons as may be fixed by regulations: Provided, That when such person dies while receiving from the bureau compensation or vocational training, the above benefits shall be payable in all cases: Provided further, That where such person, while receiving from the bureau medical, surgical, or hospital treatment or vocational training, dies away from home and at the place to which he was ordered by the bureau, or while traveling under orders of the bureau, the above benefits shall be payable in all cases and in addition thereto the actual and necessary cost of the transportation of the body of the person (including preparation of the body) to the place of burial, within the continental limits of the United States, its Territories or possessions and including also, in the discretion of the director, the actual and necessary cost of transportation of an attendant: And provided further, That no accrued pension, compensation, or insurance due at the time of death shall be deducted from the sum allowed.

(2) The payment of compensation to a widow shall continue until her death or remarriage, and the payment of compensation to a parent shall continue to the death of such parent.

(3) The payment of compensation to or for a child shall continue until such child reaches the age of eighteen years or marries, or if such child be permanently incapable of self-support by reason of mental or physical defect, then during such incapacity.

(4) Whenever the compensation payable to or for the benefit of any person under the provisions of this section is terminated by the happening of the contingency upon which it is limited, the compensation thereafter for the remaining beneficiary or beneficiaries, if any, shall be the amount which would have been payable to them if they had been the sole original beneficiaries.

(5) As between the widow and the children not in her custody, and as between children, the amount of compensation shall be apportioned as may be prescribed by regulation.

(6) The term "widow," as used in this section, shall not include one who shall have married the deceased later than ten years after July 2, 1921, and shall include widower whenever his condition is such that if the deceased person were living he would have been dependent upon her for support.

(7) This section shall be deemed to be in effect as of April 6, 1917: Provided however, That the receipt of a gratuity, pension, or compensation, including adjusted compensation, by widow, child, or parent, on account of the death, disability, or service of any person shall not bar the payment of compensation on account of the death or disability of any other person. Before compensation under this section shall be paid the claimant shall first surrender all claim to any gratuity or pension payable under any other law on account of the death of the same person. No changes in rates or compensation made by the provisions of this chapter shall be retroactive in effect. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 201, 43 Stat. 616; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 7, 43 Stat. 1305.)

473. Disability resulting from injury; total and permanent disability; loss of both eyes; loss of use of both eyes and one or more limbs; tubercular ex-service men.—If and while the disability is rated as total and permanent, the rate of compensation shall be $100 per month: Provided, however, That the permanent loss of the use of both feet or both hands, or of both eyes, or of one foot and one hand, or of one foot and one eye, or of one hand and one eye, or the loss of hearing of both ears, or becoming permanently helpless or permanently bedridden, shall be deemed to be total, permanent disability: Provided further, That the compensation for the loss of the use of both eyes shall be $150 per month, and compensation for the loss of the use of both eyes and one or more limbs shall be $200 per month. For double total, permanent disability the rate of compensation shall be $200 per month.

Any ex-service man shown to have a tuberculous disease of compensable degree, and who has been hospitalized for a period of one year, and who in the judgment of the director will not reach a condition of arrest by further hospitalization, and whose discharge from hospitalization will not be prejudicial to the beneficiary or his family, and who is not, in the judgment of the director, feasible for training, shall, upon his request, be discharged from hospitalization and rated as temporarily totally disabled, said rating to continue for the period of three years: Provided, however, That nothing in this section shall deny the beneficiary the right, upon presentation of satisfactory evidence, to be adjudged to be permanently and totally disabled. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, §§ 8, 9, 43 Stat. 1306, 1307.)

474. Same; partial and permanent disability; reduction in earning power.—If and while the disability is rated as partial and permanent, the monthly compensation shall be a percentage of the compensation that would be payable for his total and permanent disability equal to the degree of the reduction in earning capacity resulting from the disability, but no compensation shall be payable for a reduction in earning capacity rated at less than 10 per centum. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, §§ 8, 9, 43 Stat. 1306, 1307.)

475. Same; total and temporary disability; rates.—If and while the disability is rated as total and temporary, the monthly compensation shall be the following amounts, payable monthly or semimonthly as the director may prescribe:

(a) If the disabled person has neither wife nor child living, $80.

(b) If he has a wife but no child living, $90.

(c) If he has a wife and one child living, $95, and $5 for each additional child.

(d) If he has no wife and one child living, $90, with $5 for each additional child.

(e) If he has a mother or father, either or both dependent on him for support, then, in addition to the above amounts, $10 for each parent so dependent. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, §§ 8, 9, 43 Stat. 1306, 1307.)

476. Same; partial and temporary disability; tubercular ex-service men after complete arrest of disease.—If and while the disability is rated as partial and temporary, the monthly compensation shall be a percentage of the compensation that would be payable for his total and temporary disability, equal to the degree of the reduction in earning capacity resulting from the disability, but no compensation shall be payable for a reduction in earning capacity rated at less than 10 per centum.

Any ex-service man shown to have had a tubercular disease of compensable degree, and who has been hospitalized for a period of one year, and who in the judgment of the director has reached a condition of complete arrest of his disease, and who shall be discharged from further hospitalization, shall be rated as temporarily totally disabled, and such rating shall not be decreased within a period of six months. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, §§ 8, 9, 43 Stat. 1306, 1307.)

477. Schedule of rating in reduction of earning capacity; readjustment of ratings.—A schedule of ratings of reductions in earning capacity from injuries or combinations of injuries shall be adopted and applied by the bureau. Ratings may be as high as 100 per centum. The ratings shall be based, as far as practicable, upon the average impairments of earning capacity resulting from such injuries in civil occupations similar to the occupation of the injured man at the time of enlistment and not upon the impairment in earning capacity in each individual case, so that there shall be no reduction in the rate of compensation for individual success in overcoming the handicap of an injury. The bureau in adopting the schedule of ratings of reduction in earning capacity shall consider the impairment in ability to secure employment which results from such injuries. The bureau shall from time to time readjust this schedule of ratings whenever actual experience shall show that it is unjust to the disabled veteran. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, §§ 8, 9, 43 Stat. 1306, 1307.)

478. Disability requiring nurse or attendant; additional compensation.—If the disabled person is so helpless as to be in constant need of a nurse or attendant, such additional sum shall be paid, but not exceeding $50 per month, as the director may deem reasonable. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, §§ 8, 9, 43 Stat. 1306, 1307.)

479. Medical, surgical, and dental treatment in addition to compensation; artificial limbs, trusses, etc.—In addition to the compensation above provided, the injured person shall be furnished by the United States Veterans' Bureau such reasonable governmental care or medical, surgical, dental, and hospital services, including payment of court costs and other expenses incident to proceedings heretofore or hereafter taken for the commitment of mentally incompetent persons to institutions for the care or treatment of the insane, and shall be furnished with such supplies including dental appliances, wheel chairs, artificial limbs, trusses, and similar appliances, including special clothing made necessary by the wearing of prosthetic appliances prescribed by the bureau, as the director may determine to be useful and reasonably necessary, which dental appliances, wheel chairs, artificial limbs, trusses, special clothing, and similar appliances may be procured by the bureau in such manner, either by purchase or manufacture, as the director may determine to be advantageous and reasonably necessary. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to affect the necessary military control over any member of the Military or Naval Establishments before he shall have been discharged from the military or naval service. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, §§ 8, 9, 43 Stat. 1306, 1307.)

480. Insane persons maintained in institutions; payment of compensation; additional allowance on recovery of reason.—Where any disabled person having neither wife, child, nor dependent parent shall, after July 1, 1924, have been maintained by the bureau for a period or periods amounting to six months in an institution or institutions, and shall be deemed by the director to be insane, the compensation for such person shall thereafter be $20 per month so long as he shall thereafter be maintained by the bureau in an institution; and such compensation may, in the discretion of the director, be paid to the chief officer of said institution to be used for the benefit of such person: Provided, however, That if such person shall recover his reason and shall be discharged from such institution as competent, an additional amount of $60 per month shall be paid to him for each month the rate of compensation was $20 per month as provided by this section.

All or any part of the compensation, of any mentally incompetent inmate of an institution, may, in the discretion of the director, be paid to the chief officer of said institution to be properly accounted for and to be used for the benefit of such inmate, or may in the discretion of the director be apportioned to wife, child, or children, or dependent parents, in accordance with regulations. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, §§ 8, 9, 43 Stat. 1306, 1307.)

481. Compensation of veterans in institutions; rate after June 30, 1927.—After June 30, 1927, the monthly rate of compensation for all veterans (other than those totally and permanently disabled), who are being maintained by the bureau in an institution of any description and who are without wife, child, or dependent parent, shall not exceed $40. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, §§ 8, 9, 43 Stat. 1306, 1307.)

482. Director to prescribe regulations for allowing apportionment of compensation of hospital patients; deposit of portion of compensation in Treasury investments.—The director shall prescribe by regulation the conditions and limitations whereby all patients or beneficiaries of the bureau who are receiving treatment through the bureau as patients in a hospital may allot any proportion or proportions or any fixed amount or amounts of their monthly compensation for such purposes and for the benefit of such person or persons as they may direct.

In case such patient has not allotted three-fourths of his monthly compensation and in case the director shall find that by gross dissipation he is retarding his own progress to recovery, then regulations to be made by the director may provide that (except in the case of neuropsychiatric patients who are within the terms of the first paragraph of section 480 of this title) any unallotted portion of such three-fourths compensation shall be deposited to the patient's credit with the Treasurer of the United States to accumulate at such rate of interest as the Secretary of the Treasury may determine but at a rate never less than 3½ per centum per annum, and when such patient shall be discharged by the bureau from hospital care, the said deposit and interest shall be paid to such patient if living, otherwise to any beneficiary or beneficiaries he may have designated, or if there be no such beneficiary, then to the executor or administrator of the estate of such deceased person: Provided, That this paragraph shall not be so construed as to prevent payment by the bureau from the amounts due to the decedent's estate of his funeral expenses, expenses of last illness, board, rent, lodging, or other household expenses for which the decedent is liable, provided a claim therefor is presented by the creditors or by the person or persons who actually paid the same before settlement by the bureau.

The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to invest and reinvest the said allotments deposited with him, or any part thereof, in interest-bearing obligations of the United States and to sell the obligations for the purposes of said funds. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, §§ 8, 9, 43 Stat. 1306, 1307.)

483. Additional medical, surgical, and convalescent treatment.—In addition to the care, treatment, and appliances otherwise authorized by law, said bureau shall also provide, without charge therefor, hospital, dental, medical, surgical, and convalescent care and treatment and prosthetic appliances (including such dental appliances as may be found reasonably necessary by the director) for any member of the military or naval forces of the United States, not dishonorably discharged, disabled by reason of any wound or injury received or disease contracted, or by reason of any aggravation of a preexisting injury or disease, specifically noted at examination for entrance into or employment in the active military or naval service while in the active military or naval service of the United States on or after April 6, 1917, and before July 2, 1921, provided the wound or injury received or disease contracted or aggravation of a preexisting injury or disease, for which such hospital, dental, medical, surgical, and convalescent care and treatment and prosthetic appliances (including such dental appliances as may be found reasonably necessary by the director) shall be furnished, was incurred in the military or naval service and not caused by his own willful misconduct. Where a beneficiary of the bureau suffers or has suffered an injury or contracted a disease in service entitling him to the benefits of this section, and an emergency develops or has developed requiring immediate treatment or hospitalization on account of such injury or disease, and no bureau facilities are or were then feasibly available and in the judgment of the director delay would be or would have been hazardous, the director is authorized to reimburse such beneficiary the reasonable value of such service received from sources other than the bureau. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, §§ 8, 9, 43 Stat. 1306, 1307.)

484. Hospitalization for veterans of other wars; hospitalization in the insular possessions.—All hospital facilities under the control and jurisdiction of the bureau shall be available for every honorably discharged veteran of the Spanish-American War, the Philippine insurrection, the Boxer rebellion, or the World War suffering from neuropsychiatric or tubercular ailments and diseases paralysis agitans, encephalitis lethargica or amœbic dysentery, or the loss of sight of both eyes regardless whether such ailments or diseases are due to military service or otherwise, including traveling expenses as granted to those receiving compensation and hospitalization under this chapter. The director is further authorized, so far as he shall find that existing Government facilities permit, to furnish hospitalization and necessary traveling expenses to veterans of any war, military occupation, or military expedition since 1897, not dishonorably discharged without regard to the nature or origin of their disabilities. Preference to admission to any Government hospital for hospitalization under the provisions of this section shall be given to those veterans who are financially unable to pay for hospitalization and their necessary traveling expenses. In the insular possessions of the United States, the director is further authorized to furnish hospitalization in other than Government hospitals. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, §§ 8, 9, 43 Stat. 1306, 1307.)

485. Sale of surplus supplies; sale or disposal of articles produced by patients.—The director shall have the same power, and shall be subject to the same limitations, in the sale of surplus or condemned supplies, material, and other personal property as otherwise pertains to the Secretary of War. The director is authorized to make regulations governing the disposal of articles produced by patients of such bureau in the course of their curative treatment, or to allow the patients to sell or to retain such articles. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, §§ 8, 9, 43 Stat. 1306, 1307.)

486. Apportioning compensation.—Where the disabled person is a patient in a hospital or where for any other reason the disabled person and his wife are not living together, or where the children are not in the custody of the disabled person, the amount of the compensation shall be apportioned as may be prescribed by regulations. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, §§ 8, 9, 43 Stat. 1306, 1307.)

487. Definition; "wife"; "husband."—The term "wife" as used in sections 473 to 491 of this title shall include "husband" if the husband is dependent upon the wife for support. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, §§ 8, 9, 43 Stat. 1306, 1307.)

488. Discharged members of military or naval forces of allied Governments.—The bureau is authorized to furnish transportation, also the medical, surgical, and hospital services and the supplies and appliances provided by section 479 of this title to discharged members of the military or naval forces of those Governments which have been associated in war with the United States since April 6, 1917, and come within the provisions of laws of such Governments similar to this chapter, at such rates and under such regulations as the director may prescribe; and the bureau is authorized to utilize the similar services, supplies, and appliances provided for the discharged members of the military and naval forces of those Governments which have been associated in war with the United States since April 6, 1917, by the laws of such Governments similar to this chapter, in furnishing the discharged members of the military and naval forces of the United States who live within the territorial limits of such Governments and come within the provisions of said section 479, with the services, supplies, and appliances provided for in such section; and any appropriations that have been or may hereafter be made for the purpose of furnishing the services, supplies, and appliances provided for by said section 479 are made available for the payment to such Governments or their agencies for the services, supplies, and appliances so furnished at such rates and under such regulations as the director may prescribe. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, §§ 8, 9, 43 Stat. 1306, 1307.)

489. Surrender of prior gratuity or pension before receiving compensation.—Any person who is otherwise receiving a gratuity or pension from the United States under existing law shall not receive compension under sections 473 to 491, inclusive, of this title, unless he shall first surrender all claim to further payments of such gratuity or pension, except as provided in subdivision 7 of section 472 of this title. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, §§ 8, 9, 43 Stat. 1306, 1307.)

490. Compensation during period of vocational rehabilitation and support.—No compensation under sections 473 to 491, inclusive, shall be paid for the period during which any such person is being furnished by the bureau a course of vocational rehabilitation and support as authorized in Part IV of this chapter: Provided, however, That in the event any person pursuing a course of vocational rehabilitation is entitled under Part II of this chapter to compensation in an amount in excess of the payments made to him under Part IV hereof for his support and the support of his dependents, if any, the bureau shall pay monthly to such person such additional amount as may be necessary to equal the total compensation due under Part II hereof. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, §§ 8, 9, 43 Stat. 1306, 1307.)

491. Change in rates of compensation not retroactive.—No changes in rates of compensation made by this chapter shall be retroactive in effect. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 202, 43 Stat. 618; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, §§ 8, 9, 43 Stat. 1306. 1307.)

492. Examination of applicants for compensation for disability; necessity for; neglect or refusal to submit to.—Every person applying for or in receipt of compensation for disability under the provisions of Part II of this chapter and every person applying for treatment under the provisions of sections 483 and 484 of this title shall, as frequently and at such times and places as may be reasonably required, submit himself to examination by a medical officer of the United States or by a duly qualified physician designated or approved by the director. He may have a duly qualified physician designated and paid by him present to participate in such examination. For all examinations he shall, in the discretion of the director, be paid his reasonable traveling and other expenses and also loss of wages incurred in order to submit to such examination. If he shall neglect or refuse to submit to such examination, or shall in any way obstruct the same, his right to claim compensation under Part II of this chapter shall be suspended until such neglect, refusal, or obstruction ceases. No compensation shall be payable while such neglect, refusal or obstruction continues, and no compensation shall be payable for the intervening period. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 203, 43 Stat. 622.)

493. Examination of persons receiving compensation for disability.—Every person in receipt of compensation for disability shall submit to any reasonable medical or surgical treatment furnished by the bureau whenever requested by the bureau; and the consequences of unreasonable refusal to submit to any such treatment shall not be deemed to result from the injury compensated for. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 204, 43 Stat. 622.)

494. Review by bureau of awards; increase or decrease of compensation.—Upon its own motion or upon application the bureau may at any time review an award and, in accordance with the facts found upon such review, may end, diminish, or increase the compensation previously awarded, or, if compensation is increased, or if compensation has been refused, reduced. or discontinued, may (subject to the provisions of section 499 of this title) award compensation in proportion to the degree of disability sustained as of the date such degree of disability began, but not earlier than the date of discharge or resignation. Except in cases of fraud participated in by the beneficiary, no reduction in compensation shall be made retroactive, and no reduction or discontinuance of compensation shall be effective until the 1st day of the third calendar month next succeeding that in which such reduction or discontinuance is determined. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 205, 43 Stat. 622.)

495. Time of occurrence of death or disability as affecting liability therefor.—No compensation shall be payable for death or disability which does not occur prior to or within one year after discharge or resignation from the service, except as provided in section 471 of this title, and except where there is an official record of the injury during service or at the time of separation from active service, or where within one year from June 7, 1924, satisfactory evidence is furnished the bureau to establish that the injury was suffered or aggravated during active service. Where there is official record of injury during service compensation shall be payable in accordance with the provisions of Part II of this chapter, for death or disability whenever occurring, proximately resulting from such injury. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 206, 43 Stat. 622.)

496. Official record of death necessary; compensation for period reported "missing."—Compensation shall not be payable for death in the course of the service until the death be officially recorded in the department under which the person may be serving. No compensation shall be payable for a period during which the man has been reported "missing" and a family allowance has been paid for him under the provisions of Article II of the Act of October 6, 1917 (chapter 105, Fortieth Statutes, pages 402–405). (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 207, 43 Stat. 622.)

497. Arrests for crimes in hospital reservations.—For the purpose of maintaining law and order and of protecting persons and property at United States Veterans' Bureau hospitals the director is authorized to designate at such hospitals persons who shall have authority to make arrests for any crime or offense against the United States committed on the hospital reservation. Any person so arrested shall be taken forthwith before the nearest United States commissioner, within whose jurisdiction the hospital is located. Travel and transportation expenses incident to carrying out the provisions of this section shall be paid from the appropriation for administrative expenses. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 208, 43 Stat. 622; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 10, 43 Stat. 1308.)

498. Time for filing claim for compensation or treatment; extension of time.—No compensation shall be payable and (except as provided by section 484) no treatment shall be furnished unless a claim therefor shall be filed in case of disability within five years after discharge or resignation from the service, or, in case of death during the service, within five years after such death is officially recorded in the department under which he may be serving: Provided, however, That where compensation is payable for death or disability occurring after discharge or resignation from the service, claim must be made within five years after such death or the beginning of such disability.

The time herein provided may be extended by the director not to exceed two years for good cause shown. If at the time that any right accrues to any person under the provisions of this title such person is a minor, or is of unsound mind or physically unable to make a claim, the time herein provided shall not begin to run until such disability ceases. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 209, 43 Stat. 623.)

499. Payment of compensation for period prior to claim; retroactive effect of increase of compensation.—No compensation shall be payable for any period more than one year prior to the date of claim therefor, nor shall increased compensation be awarded to revert back more than six months prior to the date of claim therefor. Except in case of fraud participated in by the beneficiary, no reduction in compensation shall be made retroactive. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 210, 43 Stat. 623.)

500. Compensation to members of Army or Navy Nurse Corps (female).—Compensation because of disability or death of members of the Army Nurse Corps (female) or of the Navy Nurse Corps (female) shall be in lieu of any compensation for such disability or death under sections 751 to 791, inclusive, of Title 5. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 211, 43 Stat. 623.)

501. Compensation to beneficiaries suffering injuries or aggravation of injuries due to training, hospitalization, or medical or surgical treatment.—Where any beneficiary suffers or has suffered an injury or an aggravation of an existing injury as the result of training, hospitalization, or medical or surgical treatment, awarded to him under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act, June 27, 1918 (chapter 107, Fortieth Statutes, page 617), as amended, the War Risk Insurance Act, September 2, 1914 (chapter 293, Thirty-eighth Statutes, page 711), as amended, or this chapter, or as a result of having submitted to examination under authority of section 303 of the War Risk Insurance Act, October 6, 1917 (chapter 105, Fortieth Statutes, pages 406–407), or section 492 of this chapter, and not the result of his misconduct, and such injury or aggravation of an existing injury results in additional disability to or the death of such beneficiary, the benefits of this title shall be awarded in the same manner as though such disability, aggravation, or death was the result of military service during the World War. The benefits of this section shall be in lieu of the benefits under sections 751 to 791, inclusive, of Title 5. Application shall be made for such benefits within two years after such injury or aggravation was suffered or such death occurred or after March 4, 1925, whichever is the later date. The provisions of section 502 of this title shall be applicable to beneficiaries under this section. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 213, 43 Stat. 623; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 11, 43 Stat. 1308.)

502. Assignment of right of action to the United States for injury causing death or disability.—(1) If an injury or death for which compensation is payable under Part II of this chapter is caused under circumstances creating a legal liability upon some person other than the United States or the enemy to pay damages therefor, the director, as a condition to payment of compensation by the United States, may require the beneficiary to assign to the United States any right of action he may have to enforce such liability of such other person, or if it appears to be for the best interests of the beneficiary the director may require him to prosecute the said action in his own name, subject to regulations. The director may require such assignment or prosecution at any time after the injury or death, and the failure on the part of the beneficiary to so assign or to prosecute said cause of action in his own name within a reasonable time, to be fixed by the director, shall bar any right to compensation on account of the same injury or death. The cause of action so assigned to the United States may be prosecuted or compromised by the director, and any money realized or collected thereon, less the reasonable expenses of such realization or collection, shall be placed to the credit of the military and naval compensation appropriation. If the amount placed to the credit of such appropriation in such case is in excess of the amount of the award of compensation, if any, such excess shall be paid to the beneficiary after any compensation award for the same injury or death is made.

If a beneficiary or conditional beneficiary shall have recovered, as a result of a suit brought by him or on his behalf, or as a result of a settlement made by him or on his behalf, any money or other property in satisfaction of the liability of such other person, such money or other property so recovered shall be credited upon any compensation payable, or which may become payable, to such beneficiary, or conditional beneficiary by the United States on account of the same injury or death.

(2) If an injury or death for which compensation may be payable under Part II of this chapter is caused under circumstances creating a legal liability upon some person, other than the United States or the enemy, to pay damages therefor, then, in order to preserve the right of action, the director may require the conditional beneficiary at any time after the injury or death, to assign such right of action to the United States, or, if it appears to be for the best interests of such conditional beneficiary, to prosecute the said cause of action in his own name, subject to regulations. The failure on the part of the beneficiary to so assign or to prosecute the said cause of action in his own name within a reasonable time, to be fixed by the director, shall bar any right to compensation on account of the same injury or death. The cause of action so assigned may be prosecuted or compromised by the director, and any money realized or collected thereon, less the reasonable expenses of such realization or collection, shall be paid to such beneficiary, and be credited upon any future compensation which may become payable to such beneficiary by the United States on account of the same injury or death.

(2a) The Veterans' Bureau is authorized to pay the beneficiary or other person or persons in whose name an action may have been commenced or prosecuted, and all witnesses in such action, fees and mileage, the same as is paid and allowed to witnesses in the United States courts in going to, remaining at, and returning from place of trial, and without any regard to whether the action, if any, is brought or prosecuted in a court of the United States or some other court.

In all cases of assignment of causes of action under this section, whether the assignment be heretofore or hereafter made, where it shall appear to the director to be to the best interests of the beneficiary so to do, the director, acting for and in the name of the United States, may assign the cause of action back to the beneficiary or to his personal representatives.

(3) The bureau shall make all necessary regulations for carrying out the purposes of this section. For the purposes of computation only under this section the total amount of compensation due any beneficiary shall be deemed to be equivalent to a lump sum equal to the present value of all future payments of compensation computed as of the date of the award of compensation at 4 per centum, true discount, compounded annually. The probability of the beneficiary's death before the expiration of the period during which he is entitled to compensation shall be determined according to the American Experience Table of Mortality.

A conditional beneficiary is any person who may become entitled to compensation under Part II of this chapter on or after the death of the injured person.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to impose any administrative duties upon the War or Navy Departments. (Sept. 2, 1914, c. 293, § 313; Oct. 6, 1917, c. 105, § 2, 40 Stat. 408; June 25, 1918, c. 104, § 18, 40 Stat. 613; Aug. 9, 1921, c. 57, § 21, 42 Stat. 154.)

PART III.—INSURANCE

511. Persons entitled to; amounts; time for application for; to whom payable; expense of; premium rates.—In order to give to every commissioned officer and enlisted man and to every member of the Army Nurse Corps (female) and of the Navy Nurse Corps (female) when employed in active service under the War Department or Navy Department protection for themselves and their dependents, the United States, upon application to the bureau and without medical examination, shall grant United States Government life insurance (converted insurance) against the death or total permanent disability of any such person in any multiple of $500, and not less than $1,000 or more than $10,000, upon the payment of the premiums as hereinafter provided. Such insurance must be applied for within one hundred and twenty days after enlistment or after entrance into or employment in the active service and before discharge or resignation.

The insurance shall be payable only to a spouse, child, grandchild, parent, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, nephew, niece, brother-in-law or sister-in-law, or to any or all of them, and also during total and permanent disability to the injured person.

Where a beneficiary at the time of designation by the insured is within the permitted class of beneficiaries and is the designated beneficiary at the time of the maturity of the insurance because of the death of the insured, such beneficiary shall be deemed to be within the permitted class even though the status of such beneficiary shall have been changed.

The United States shall bear the expenses of administration and the excess mortality and disability cost resulting from the hazards of war. The premium rates shall be the net rates based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at 3½ per centum per annum. This section shall be deemed to be in effect as of June 7, 1924. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 300, 43 Stat. 624; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 12, 43 Stat. 1308.)

512. Term insurance; when terminated; conversion to elected policies; payment.—Not later than July 2, 1926, all term insurance held by persons who were in the military service after April 6, 1917, shall be converted, without medical examination, into such form or forms of insurance as may be prescribed by regulations and as the insured may request. Regulations shall provide for the right to convert into ordinary life, twenty-payment life, endowment maturing at age sixty-two, and into other usual forms of insurance, and shall prescribe the time and method of payment of the premiums thereon, but payments of premiums in advance shall not be required for periods of more than one month each and may be deducted from the pay or deposit of the insured or be otherwise made at his election.

All term insurance shall cease on July 2, 1926, except when death or total permanent disability shall have occurred before July 2, 1926.

In case where an insured whose yearly renewable term insurance has matured by reason of total permanent disability is found and declared to be no longer permanently and totally disabled, and where the insured is required under regulations to renew payment of premiums on said term insurance, and where this contingency is extended beyond the period during which said yearly renewable term insurance otherwise must be converted, there shall be given such insured an additional period of two years from the date on which he is required to renew payment of premiums in which to convert said term insurance as hereinbefore provided.

The insurance except as provided herein shall be payable in two hundred and forty equal monthly installments. Provisions for maturity at certain ages, for continuous installments during the life of the insured or beneficiaries, or both, for cash, loan, paid-up and extended values, dividends from gains and savings, and such other provisions for the protection and advantage of and for alternative benefits to the insured and the beneficiaries as may be found to be reasonable and practicable, may be provided for in the contract of insurance, or from time to time by regulations. All calculations shall be based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at 3½ per centum per annum, except that no deduction shall be made for continuous installments during the life of the insured in case his total and permanent disability continues more than two hundred and forty months. Subject to regulations, the insured shall at all times have the right to change the beneficiary or beneficiaries without the consent of such beneficiary or beneficiaries, but only within the classes herein provided.

If no beneficiary within the permitted class be designated by the insured as beneficiary for converted insurance granted under the provisions of Article IV of the War Risk Insurance Act, October 6, 1917, chapter 105, Fortieth Statutes, pages 409 and 410, or Part III of this chapter, either in his lifetime or by his last will and testament, or if the designated beneficiary does not survive the insured, then there shall be paid to the estate of the insured the present value of the remaining unpaid monthly installments; or if the designated beneficiary survives the insured and dies before receiving all of the installments of converted insurance payable and applicable, then there shall be paid to the estate of such beneficiary the present value of the remaining unpaid monthly installments: Provided, That no payments shall be made to any estate which under the laws of the residence of the insured or the beneficiary, as the case may be, would escheat, but same shall escheat to the United States and be credited to the United States Government life insurance fund.

The bureau may make provision in the contract for converted insurance for optional settlements, to be selected by the insured, whereby such insurance may be made payable either in one sum or in installments for thirty-six months or more. The bureau may also include in said contract a provision authorizing the beneficiary to elect to receive payment of the insurance in installments for thirty-six months or more, but only if the insured has not exercised the right of election as hereinbefore provided; and even though the insured may have exercised his right of election the said contract may authorize the beneficiary to elect to receive such insurance in installments spread over a greater period of time than that selected by the insured. This section shall be deemed to be in effect as of June 7, 1924. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 301, 43 Stat. 624; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 13, 43 Stat. 1309.)

513. Liability of United States for matured converted insurance; funds usable for payment of; reserve fund.—Whenever benefits under United States Government life insurance (converted insurance) become, or have become, payable because of total permanent disability of the insured or because of the death of the insured as a result of disease or injury traceable to the extra hazard of the military or naval service, as such hazard may be determined by the director, the liability shall be borne by the United States, and the director is authorized and directed to transfer from the military and naval insurance appropriation to the United States Government life insurance fund a sum which, together with the reserve of the policy at the time of maturity by total permanent disability or death, will equal the then value of such benefits. When a person receiving total permanent disability benefits under a United States Government life policy (converted policy), recovers from such disability, and is then entitled to continue a reduced amount of insurance, the director is authorized and directed to transfer to the military and naval insurance appropriation all of the loss reserve to the credit of such policy claim except a sum sufficient to set up the then required reserve on the reduced amount of the insurance that may be continued, which sum shall be retained in the United States Government life insurance fund for the purpose of such reserve. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 302, 43 Stat. 625.)

514. Payment of insurance to estate of deceased beneficiary; escheat to United States.—If no person within the permitted class be designated as beneficiary for yearly renewable term insurance by the insured either in his lifetime or by his last will and testament or if the designated beneficiary does not survive the insured or survives the insured and dies prior to receiving all of the two hundred and forty installments or all such as are payable and applicable, there shall be paid to the estate of the insured the present value of the monthly installments thereafter payable, said value to be computed as of date of last payment made under any existing award: Provided, That all awards of yearly renewable term insurance which were in course of payment on March 4, 1925, shall continue until the death of the person receiving such payments, or until he forfeits same under the provisions of this chapter. When any person to whom such insurance was awarded prior to such date dies or forfeits his rights to such insurance then there shall be paid to the estate of the insured the present value of the remaining unpaid monthly installments of the insurance so awarded to such person: Provided further, That no award of yearly renewable term insurance made to the estate of a last surviving beneficiary prior to March 4, 1925, shall be affected by the foregoing provisions. In cases when the estate of an insured would escheat under the laws of the place of his residence the insurance shall not be paid to the estate but shall escheat to the United States and be credited to the military and naval insurance appropriation. This section shall be deemed to be in effect as of October 6, 1917. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 303, 43 Stat. 625; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 14, 43 Stat. 1310.)

515. Lapsed or canceled insurance; reinstatement; procedure; termination of term insurance unaffected.—In the event that all provisions of the rules and regulations other than the requirements as to the physical condition of the applicant for insurance have been complied with, an application for reinstatement, in whole or in part, of lapsed or canceled yearly renewable term insurance or United States Government life insurance (converted insurance) made after June 7, 1924, may be approved if made within one year after that date, or within two years after the date of lapse or cancellation: Provided, That the applicant's disability is the result of an injury or disease, or of an aggravation thereof, suffered or contracted in the active military or naval service during the World War: Provided further, That the applicant during his lifetime submits proof satisfactory to the director showing that he is not totally and permanently disabled. As a condition, however, to the acceptance of an application for the reinstatement of lapsed or canceled yearly renewable term insurance, where the requirements as to the physical condition of the applicant have not been complied with, or, for the reinstatement of United States Government life insurance (converted insurance), the applicant shall be required to pay all the back monthly premiums which would have become payable if such insurance had not lapsed, together with interest at the rate of 5 per centum per annum compounded annually, on each premium from the date said premium is due by the terms of the policy: And provided further, That no term insurance shall be reinstated after July 2, 1926. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 304, 43 Stat. 625; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 15, 43 Stat. 1310.)

516. Same; availability of compensation to revive insurance.—Where any person has, prior to June 7, 1924, allowed his insurance to lapse while suffering from a compensable disability for which compensation was not collected and dies or has died, or becomes or has become permanently and totally disabled and at the time of such death or permanent total disability was or is entitled to compensation remaining uncollected, then and in that event so much of his insurance as said uncollected compensation, computed in all cases at the rate provided by section 302 of the War Risk Insurance Act as amended December 24, 1919, chapter 16, Forty-first Statutes, page 371, would purchase if applied as premiums when due, shall not be considered as lapsed; and the United States Veterans' Bureau is authorized and directed to pay to said soldier, or his beneficiaries as the case may be the amount of said insurance less the unpaid premiums and interest thereon at 5 per centum per annum compounded annually in installments as provided by law. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 305, 43 Stat. 626.)

517. Waiver of lapse of yearly renewable term insurance from nonpayment of premiums; regulations for.—The bureau is authorized to make provisions in accordance with regulations, whereby the payment of premiums on yearly renewable term insurance and United States Government life insurance (converted insurance) on the due date thereof may be waived and the insurance may be deemed not to lapse in the cases of the following persons, to wit: (a) Those who are confined in hospital under said bureau for a compensable disability during the period while they are so confined; (b) those who are rated as temporarily totally disabled by reason of any injury or disease entitling them to compensation during the period of such total disability and while they are so rated; (c) those who, while mentally incompetent and for whom no legal guardian had been or has been appointed, allowed or may allow their insurance to lapse while such rating is effective during the period for which they have been or hereafter may be so rated, or until a guardian has notified the bureau of his qualification, but not later than six months after appointment as guardian, the waiver in such cases to be made without application and retroactive when necessary: Provided, That such relief from payment of premiums on yearly renewable term insurance on the due date thereof shall be for full calendar months, beginning with the month in which said confinement to hospital, temporary total disability rating, or in cases of mental incompetents for whom no guardian has been appointed with the month in which such rating or mental incompetency began or begins and ending with that month during the half or major fraction of which the person is confined in hospital is rated as temporarily totally disabled or had or has no legal guardian while rated as mentally incompetent or until a guardian has notified the bureau of his qualification, but not later than six months after appointment as guardian: Provided further, That all premiums the payment of which when due is waived as above provided shall bear interest at the rate of 5 per centum per annum, compounded annually from the due date of each premium, and if not paid by the insured shall be deducted from the insurance in any settlement thereunder or when the same matures either because of permanent total disability or death: And provided further, That in the event any lien or other indebtedness established by the provisions of this chapter exists against any policy of converted insurance in excess of the then cash surrender value thereof at the time of the termination of such policy of converted insurance for any reason other than by death or total permanent disability the director is authorized to transfer and pay from the military or naval insurance appropriation to the United States Government life insurance fund a sum equal to the amount such lien or indebtedness exceeds the then cash surrender value. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 306, 43 Stat. 626.)

518. Policies incontestable; exceptions; contest defined.—Policies of insurance heretofore or hereafter issued shall be incontestable after the insurance has been in force six months from the date of issuance or reinstatement, except for fraud or nonpayment of premiums and subject to the provisions of section 447 of this title. A letter mailed by the bureau to the insured at his last known address informing him of the invalidity of his insurance shall be deemed a contest within the meaning of this section. This section shall be deemed to be in effect as of April 6, 1917. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 307, 43 Stat. 627.)

PART IV.—VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION

531. Vocational rehabilitation; persons entitled to; rehabilitation already commenced.—Every person who was enlisted, enrolled, drafted, inducted, or appointed in the military or naval forces of the United States, including members of training camps authorized by law, and who has resigned or has been discharged or furloughed therefrom, having a disability incurred, increased, or aggravated after April 6, 1917, and before July 2, 1921, in the military or naval service and not the result of his own willful misconduct, while a member of such forces, or later developing a disability traceable in the opinion of the director to service during said period with such forces, and not the result of his own willful misconduct, and who, in the opinion of the director, is in need of vocational rehabilitation to overcome the handicap of such disability, shall be furnished by the bureau, where vocational rehabilitation is feasible, such course of vocational rehabilitation as the bureau shall prescribe and provide. Nothing in this section shall operate to terminate any course of vocational training prescribed and actually commenced under the Vocational Rehabilitation Act (June 27, 1918, chapter 107, Fortieth Statutes, pages 617 to 620), as originally enacted and subsequently amended, where such course was actually commenced prior to June 7, 1924. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 400, 43 Stat. 627.)

532. Same; maintenance and support allowance to persons undergoing; amounts; alternative payments.—The bureau shall have the power, and it shall be its duty until June 30, 1926, to furnish the persons included in section 531 of this title suitable courses of vocational rehabilitation, to be prescribed and provided by the bureau; and every person electing to follow such a course of vocational rehabilitation shall, while following the same, be paid by the bureau monthly or semimonthly as the director may prescribe such sum as in the judgment of the director is necessary for his maintenance and support and for the maintenance and support of persons depending upon him, if any. The sum so paid such person while pursuing such course shall not exceed $80 per month for a single man without dependents, or for a man with dependents $100 per month plus the following family allowances:

(a) If there is a wife, but no child, $15.

(b) If there is a wife and one child, $25, with $5 per month additional for each additional child.

(c) If there is no wife, but one child, $10.

(d) If there is no wife, but two children, $15, with $5 per month additional for each additional child.

The bureau may pay, subject to the conditions and limitations prescribed by this title, to all trainees undergoing training hereunder, residing where the cost of maintenance and support is above the average and comparatively high, in lieu of the monthly payments for maintenance and support prescribed by this title, such sum as in the judgment of the director is necessary for the trainee's maintenance and support and for the maintenance and support of persons dependent upon him, if any. The sum so paid such person while pursuing such course shall not exceed $100 per month for a single man without dependents or for a man with dependents $120 per month, plus the several sums prescribed as family allowances under this section: Provided, That payments for the support and maintenance of persons dependent upon any trainee of the bureau as provided herein may, in the discretion of the director, be paid either direct to such dependent or dependents or to the trainee upon whom they are dependent. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 401, 43 Stat. 627.)

533. Same; other persons entitled to for limited period.—Until June 30, 1926, the courses of vocational training provided for under this chapter shall, as far as practicable, and under such conditions as the director may prescribe, be made available without cost for instruction for the benefit of any person who is disabled under circumstances entitling him, after discharge from the military or naval forces of the United States, to compensation under Part II of this chapter and who is not included in section 531 thereof. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 402, 43 Stat. 628.)

534. Same; failure to commence training; time for commencement of training.—No person who has been declared eligible for training under the provisions of Part IV of this chapter, for whom training has been prescribed, and who has been notified by the bureau to begin training, shall be eligible to the benefits of Part IV of this chapter in the event of his failure to commence training within a reasonable time after notice has been sent such person by the bureau. Except when such failure is due, in the opinion of the director, to physical incapacity, such time shall not be longer than twelve months after notice shall have been given for persons declared eligible and notified to begin training. No training shall be furnished to any person under any of the provisions of this chapter unless such person actually commenced such training on or before June 30, 1925. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 403, 43 Stat. 628.)

535. Same; test for rehabilitation; maintenance and support allowance and liability of United States to cease, when.—The test of rehabilitation shall be employability, to be determined by the director. The allowance for maintenance and support provided by the provisions of Part IV of this chapter shall be payable for two months after the employability of the rehabilitated person is determined, and thereupon all duty and obligation of the United States toward such person with respect to his vocational rehabilitation shall cease and determine. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 404, 43 Stat. 628.)

536. Same; time for application for vocational training.—Vocational training provided by this chapter shall be granted to persons entitled under its provisions only where application therefor was made on or prior to June 30, 1923. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 405, 43 Stat. 628.)

537. Same; time after which training and allowance shall not be granted.—No vocational training shall be granted or continued to any person whatsoever after June 30, 1926, and no training allowance shall thereafter be paid to any person. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 406, 43 Stat. 628.)

538. Sale by director of surplus vocational-training material, supplies, and equipment.—Under such regulations as the director may prescribe he is authorized to sell at 90 per cent of the appraised valuation to rehabilitated trainees of the United States Veterans' Bureau, trade, technical, and public schools and universities, and other recognized educational institutions, upon application in writing, such surplus material, supplies, and equipment acquired for the purpose of vocational training as are suitable for their use which were owned by the United States of America and under control of the United States Veterans' Bureau on March 3, 1925, and are not needed for Government purposes. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 468, § 1, 43 Stat. 1211.)

539. Equipment and supplies retained by trainees.—The director is authorized to make provisions by regulation whereby trainees of the United States Veterans' Bureau who have successfully completed their courses or such part of their courses as enables them to enter employment or business in line with their training shall be allowed to retain such equipment, supplies, and books as the director may by regulation prescribe. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 16, 43 Stat. 1311.)

PART V.—PENALTIES

551. Amount permitted to be paid agents or attorneys; solicitation, etc., of unauthorized fees or compensation; punishment.—Except in the event of legal proceedings under section 445 of this chapter, no claim agent or attorney except the recognized representatives of the American Red Cross, the American Legion, the Disabled American Veterans, and Veterans of Foreign Wars, and such other organizations as shall be approved by the director shall be recognized in the presentation or adjudication of claims under Parts II, III, and IV of this chapter, and payment to any attorney or agent for such assistance as may be required in the preparation and execution of the necessary papers in any application to the bureau shall not exceed $10 in any one case: Provided, however, That wherever a judgment or decree shall be rendered in an action brought pursuant to said section 445 of this chapter the court, as a part of its judgment or decree, shall determine and allow reasonable fees for the attorneys of the successful party or parties and apportion same if proper, said fees not to exceed 10 per centum of the amount recovered and to be paid by the bureau out of the payments to be made under the judgment or decree at a rate not exceeding one-tenth of each of such payments until paid. Any person who shall, directly or indirectly, solicit, contract for, charge, or receive, or who shall attempt to solicit, contract for, charge, or receive, any fee or compensation, except as herein provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and for each and every offense shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $500 or by imprisonment at hard labor for not more than two years, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 500, 43 Stat. 628; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 17, 43 Stat. 1311.)

552. False statements; punishment.—Whoever in any claim for compensation, insurance, or maintenance and support allowance, or in any document required by this chapter, or by regulation made under this chapter, makes any sworn statement of a material fact knowing it to be false, shall be guilty of perjury and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 501, 43 Stat. 628.)

553. Fraudulent acceptance of payments; punishment.—If any person entitled to payment of compensation, or maintenance and support allowance under this chapter, whose right to such payment under this chapter ceases upon the happening of any contingency, thereafter fraudulently accepts any such payment, he shall be punished by a fine of not more than $2,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 502, 43 Stat. 629.)

554. Receiving money, etc., without being entitled thereto; punishment.—Whoever shall obtain or receive any money, check, compensation, insurance, or maintenance and support allowance under the War Risk Insurance Act (September 2, 1914, chapter 293, Thirty-eighth Statutes, page 711) as amended, the Vocational Rehabilitation Act (June 27, 1918, chapter 107, Fortieth Statutes, pages 617 to 620) as amended, or under provisions of this chapter, and any amendments thereto without being entitled to the same, and with intent to defraud the United States or any beneficiary of the United States Veterans' Bureau shall be punished by a fine of not more than $2,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 503, 43 Stat. 629; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 18, 43 Stat. 1311.)

555. False or fraudulent affidavits, etc.; punishment.—Any person who shall knowingly make or cause to be made, or conspire, combine, aid, or assist in, agree to, arrange for, or in any wise procure the making or presentation of a false or fraudulent affidavit, declaration, certificate, statement, voucher, or paper, or writing purporting to be such, concerning any claim or the approval of any claim for compensation or maintenance and support allowance, or the payment of any money, for himself or for any other person, under Parts II or IV of this chapter, shall forfeit all rights, claims, and benefits under said titles, and, in addition to any and all other penalties imposed by law, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, for each such offense. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 504, 43 Stat. 629; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 19, 43 Stat. 1312.)

556. Embezzlement by guardian, etc.; punishment.—Every guardian, curator, conservator, committee, or person legally vested with the responsibility or care of the claimant or his estate, having charge and custody in a fiduciary capacity of money paid, under the War Risk Insurance Act (September 2, 1914, chapter 293, Thirty-eighth Statutes, page 711) as amended, or under the provisions of this chapter, for the benefit of any minor or incompetent claimant, who shall embezzle the same in violation of his trust or fraudulently convert the same to his own use, shall be punished by fine not exceeding $2,000 or imprisonment at hard labor for a term not exceeding five years, or both. (Mar. 4, 1925, c. 553, § 20, 43 Stat. 1312.)

PART VI.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

571. Acts, proceedings, etc., under certain prior laws unaffected.—The repeal of—

An Act entitled "An Act to authorize the establishment of a Bureau of War Risk Insurance in the Treasury Department," approved September 2, 1914.

An Act entitled "An Act to amend an Act entitled 'An Act to authorize the establishment of a Bureau of War Risk Insurance in the Treasury Department,' approved September 2, 1914," approved August 11, 1916.

An Act entitled "An Act to amend an Act entitled 'An Act to authorize the establishment of a Bureau of War Risk Insurance in the Treasury Department,' approved September 2, 1914," approved March 3, 1917.

An Act entitled "An Act to amend an Act entitled 'An Act to authorize the establishment of a Bureau of War Risk Insurance in the Treasury Department,' approved September 2, 1914, and for other purposes," approved June 12, 1917.

An Act entitled "An Act to amend an Act entitled 'An Act to authorize the establishment of a Bureau of War Risk Insurance in the Treasury Department,' approved September 2, 1914, and for other purposes," approved October 6, 1917; saving and excepting from repeal sections 313 and 314 of Article III of said Act.

An Act entitled "An Act to amend the War Risk Insurance Act," approved July 11, 1918.

The War Risk Insurance Act as amended.

The Vocational Rehabilitation Act as amended. And,

The Act entitled "An Act to establish a Veterans' Bureau and to improve the facilities and service of such bureau, and, further, to amend and modify the War Risk Insurance Act," as of June 7, 1924, shall not affect any act done or any right or liability accrued, or any suit commenced before the said repeal, but all such rights and liabilities under said Acts shall continue and may be enforced in the same manner as if said repeal had not been made; nor shall said repeal in any manner affect the right to any office or change the term or tenure thereof. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 602, 43 Stat. 630.)

572. Offenses, etc., under repealed Acts not affected.—All offenses committed and all penalties or forfeiture incurred under any of the repealed laws referred to in section 571 of this title may be prosecuted and punished in the same manner and with the same effect as if said repeal had not been made. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 603, 43 Stat. 630.)

573. Limitation laws not affected.—All Acts of limitation, whether applicable to civil causes and proceedings or to the prosecution of offenses embraced in this chapter and covered by said repeal, shall not be affected thereby, but all suits, proceedings, or prosecutions, whether civil or criminal, for causes arising or acts done or committed prior to June 7, 1924, may be commenced and prosecuted within the same time as if said repeal had not been made. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 604, 43 Stat. 630.)

574. Partial invalidity; effect of.—If any clause, section, paragraph, or part of this chapter shall for any reason be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder of this chapter, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment has been rendered. (June 7, 1924, c. 320, § 605, 43 Stat. 630.)

575. Recovery of allotments in certain cases.—No recovery of allotments paid prior to August 9, 1921, to beneficiaries designated under the Army allotment system by any person who served in the Army, shall be made for any reason whatsoever. (Oct. 6, 1917, c. 105, § 2, 40 Stat. 398; June 25, 1918, c. 104, § 8, 40 Stat. 611; Feb. 25, 1919, c. 36, 40 Stat. 1160; Aug. 9, 1921, c. 57, § 17, 42 Stat. 153; Feb. 24, 1925, c. 299, 43 Stat. 964.)

576. Care of alien persons discharged from military service.—The President of the United States is authorized and empowered to make provision for such care and treatment as he may deem advisable of persons discharged from the military or naval forces of the United States on account of physical disability who are citizens of any nation at war with a nation with which the United States is at war; but such provision shall be made only for the citizens of a nation that makes suitable provision for the care and treatment of persons discharged from military or naval forces on account of physical disability who are citizens of the United States: Provided, That such care and treatment shall in no case exceed the care and treatment authorized by law and regulations for members of the Army and Navy of the United States discharged from the military or naval service for like cause. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter VIII, 40 Stat. 881.)

PART I.—DEFINITIONS.

Section 591. Citation.—This chapter may be cited as the "World War Adjusted Compensation Act." (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 1, 43 Stat. 121.)

592. Definitions.—As used in this chapter—

(a) The term "veteran" includes any individual, a member of the military or naval forces of the United States at any time after April 5, 1917, and before November 12, 1918; but does not include (1) any individual at any time during such period or thereafter separated from such forces under other than honorable conditions, (2) any conscientious objector who performed no military duty whatever or refused to wear the uniform, or (3) any alien at any time during such period or thereafter discharged from the military or naval forces on account of his alienage;

(b) The term "oversea service" means service on shore in Europe or Asia, exclusive of China, Japan, and the Philippine Islands; and service afloat, not on receiving ships; including in either case the period from the date of embarkation for such service to the date of disembarkation on return from such service, both dates inclusive;

(c) The term "home service" means all service and not oversea service;

(d) The term "adjusted service credit" means the amount of the credit computed under the provisions of Part II; and

(e) The term "person" includes a partnership, corporation, or association as well as an individual. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 2, 43 Stat. 121.)

PART II.—ADJUSTED SERVICE CREDIT

601. Computation of amount; maximum.—The amount of adjusted service credit shall be computed by allowing the following sums for each day of active service, in excess of sixty days, in the military or naval forces of the United States after April 5, 1917, and before July 1, 1919, as shown by the service or other record of the veteran: $1.25 for each day of oversea service, and $1 for each day of home service; but the amount of the credit of a veteran who performed no oversea service shall not exceed $500, and the amount of the credit of a veteran who performed any oversea service shall not exceed $625. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 201, 43 Stat. 122.)

602. Persons to whom allowances shall not be made.—In computing the adjusted service credit no allowance shall be made to—

(a) Any commissioned officer above the grade of captain in the Army or Marine Corps, lieutenant in the Navy, first lieutenant or first lieutenant of engineers in the Coast Guard, or passed assistant surgeon in the Public Health Service, or having the pay and allowances, if not the rank, of any officer superior in rank to any of such grades—in each case for the period of service as such;

(b) Any individual holding a permanent or provisional commission or permanent or acting warrant in any branch of the military or naval forces, or (while holding such commission or warrant) serving under a temporary commission in a higher grade—in each case for the period of service under such commission or warrant or in such higher grade after the accrual of the right to pay thereunder. This subdivision shall not apply to any noncommissioned officer;

(c) Any civilian officer or employee of any branch of the military or naval forces, contract surgeon, cadet of the United States Military Academy, midshipman, cadet or cadet engineer of the Coast Guard, member of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, member of the Students' Army Training Corps (except an enlisted man detailed thereto), Philippine Scout, member of the Philippine Guard, member of the Philippine Constabulary, member of the National Guard of Hawaii, member of the insular force of the Navy, member of the Samoan native guard and band of the Navy, or Indian Scout—in each case for the period of service as such;

(d) Any individual entering the military or naval forces after November 11, 1918—for any period after such entrance;

(e) Any commissioned or warrant officer performing home service not with troops and receiving commutation of quarters or of subsistence—for the period of such service;

(f) Any member of the Public Health Service—for any period during which he was not detailed for duty with the Army or the Navy;

(g) Any individual granted a farm or industrial furlough—for the period of such furlough;

(h) Any individual detailed for work on roads or other construction or repair work—for the period during which his pay was equalized to conform to the compensation paid to civilian employees in the same or like employment, pursuant to the provisions of section 47 of Title 23; or

(i) Any individual who was discharged or otherwise released from the draft—for the period of service terminating with such discharge or release. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 202, 43 Stat. 122.)

603. Allowance to commissioned or warrant officer performing home service not with troops; manner of computing credit to veteran; part oversea and part home service; computation of excluded sixty-day period; computation of service of members of National Guard or National Guard Reserve.—(a) The periods referred to in subdivision (e) of section 602 of this title may be included in the case of any individual if and to the extent that the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy jointly find that such service subjected such individual to exceptional hazard. A full statement of all action under this subdivision shall be included in the reports of the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy required by section 617 of this title.

(b) In computing the credit to any veteran under this title effect shall be given to all subdivisions of section 602 of this title which are applicable.

(c) If part of the service is oversea service and part is home service, the home service shall first be used in computing the sixty days' period referred to in section 601 of this title.

(d) For the purpose of computing the sixty days' period referred to in section 601 of this title, any period of service after April 5, 1917, and before July 1, 1919, in the military or naval forces in any capacity may be included, notwithstanding allowance of credit for such period, or a part thereof, is prohibited under the provisions of section 602 of this title, except that the periods referred to in subdivisions (b), (c), and (d) of that section shall not be included.

(e) For the purposes of section 601 of this title, in the case of members of the National Guard or of the National Guard Reserve called into service by the proclamation of the President dated July 3, 1917, the time of service between the date of call into the service as specified in such proclamation and August 5, 1917, both dates inclusive, shall be deemed to be active service in the military or naval forces of the United States. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 203, 43 Stat. 123.)

PART III.—GENERAL PROVISIONS

611. Adjusted service pay; adjusted service certificate.—Each veteran shall be entitled:

(1) To receive "adjusted service pay" as provided in Part IV of this chapter if the amount of his adjusted service credit is $50 or less;

(2) To receive an "adjusted service certificate" as provided in Part V of this chapter if the amount of his adjusted service credit is more than $50. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 301, 43 Stat. 123.)

612. Application for benefits; time for making; by whom made; regulations as to.—(a) A veteran may receive the benefits to which he is entitled by filing an application claiming the benefits of this chapter with the Secretary of War, if he is serving in, or his last service was with, the military forces; or with the Secretary of the Navy, if he is serving in, or his last service was with, the naval forces.

(b) Such application shall be made on or before January 1, 1928, and if not made on or before such date shall be held void.

(c) An application shall be made (1) personally by the veteran, or (2) in case physical or mental incapacity prevents the making of a personal application, then by such representative of the veteran and in such manner as the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy shall jointly by regulation prescribe. An application made by a representative other than one authorized by any such regulation shall be held void.

(d) The Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy shall jointly make any regulations necessary to the efficient administration of the provisions of this section. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 302, 43 Stat. 123.)

613. Transmittal of application to Director of United States Veterans' Bureau; certificate accompanying.—(a) As soon as practicable after the receipt of a valid application the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, as the case may be, shall transmit to the Director of the United States Veterans' Bureau (hereinafter in this chapter referred to as the "director") the application and a certificate setting forth—

(1) That the applicant is a veteran;

(2) His name and address;

(3) The date and place of his birth; and

(4) The amount of his adjusted service credit together with the facts of record in his department upon which such above conclusions are based.

(b) Upon receipt of such certificate the director shall proceed to extend to the veteran the benefits provided for in Part

IV or V of this chapter. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 303, 43 Stat. 124.)

614. Publication of digest of and information relating to law.—(a) The director shall, as soon as practicable after May 19, 1924, prepare and publish a pamphlet or pamphlets containing a digest and explanation of the provisions of this chapter; and shall from time to time thereafter prepare and publish such additional or supplementary information as may be found necessary.

(b) The publications provided for in subdivision (a) shall be distributed in such manner as the director may determine to be most effective to inform veterans and their dependents of their rights under this chapter. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 304, 43 Stat. 124.)

615. Lists of veterans with amounts of credits; payments by disbursing officers in accordance with.—The Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy shall ascertain the individuals who are veterans as defined in section 592 of this title, and, as to each veteran, the number of days of oversea service and of home service, as defined in section 592 of this title, for which he is entitled to receive adjusted service credit, and their findings shall not be subject to review by the General Accounting Office, and payments made by disbursing officers of the United States Veterans' Bureau made in accordance with such findings shall be passed to their credit. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 305, 43 Stat. 124.)

616. Persons who may make regulations.—Any officer charged with any function under the provisions of this chapter shall make such regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, as may be necessary to the efficient administration of such function. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 306, 43 Stat. 124.)

617. Administrative reports to Congress.—Any officer charged with the administration of any part of this chapter shall make a full report to Congress on the first Monday of December of each year as to his administration thereof. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 307, 43 Stat. 124.)

618. Benefits exempt from seizure under process and taxation.—No sum payable under this chapter to a veteran or his dependents, or to his estate, or to any beneficiary named under Part V of this chapter, no adjusted service certificate, and no proceeds of any loan made on such certificate, shall be subject to attachment, levy, or seizure under any legal or equitable process, or to National or State taxation. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 308, 43 Stat. 125.)

619. Unlawful fees for services rendered; punishment.—Any person who charges or collects, or attempts to charge or collect, either directly or indirectly, any fee or other compensation for assisting in any manner a veteran or his dependents in obtaining any of the benefits, privileges, or loans to which he is entitled under the provisions of this chapter shall, upon conviction thereof, be subject to a fine of not more than $500, or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 309, 43 Stat. 125.)

PART IV.—ADJUSTED SERVICE PAY

631. To whom payable.—There shall be paid to each veteran by the director (as soon as practicable after receipt of an application in accordance with the provisions of section 612 of this title), in addition to any other amounts due such veteran in pursuance of law, the amount of his adjusted service credit, if, and only if, such credit is not more than $50. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 401, 43 Stat. 125.)

632. Assignment; to whom payable.—No right to adjusted service pay under the provisions of this title shall be assignable or serve as security for any loan. Any assignment or loan made in violation of the provisions of this section shall be held void. Except as provided in Part VI, the director shall not pay the amount of adjusted service pay to any person other than the veteran or such representative of the veteran as he shall by regulation prescribe. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 402. 43 Stat. 125.)

PART V.—ADJUSTED SERVICE CERTIFICATES

641. Amounts; time when certificates become operative; naming and changing beneficiaries; to whom and when payable.—The director upon certification from the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, as provided in section 613 of this title, is directed to issue without cost to the veteran designated therein a nonparticipating adjusted service certificate (hereinafter in this title referred to as a "certificate") of a face value equal to the amount in dollars of twenty-year endowment insurance that the amount of his adjusted service credit increased by 25 per centum would purchase, at his age on his birthday nearest the date of the certificate, if applied as a net single premium, calculated in accordance with accepted actuarial principles and based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at 4 per centum per annum, compounded annually. The certificate shall be dated, and all rights conferred under the provisions of this chapter shall take effect, as of the 1st day of the month in which the application is filed, but in no case before January 1, 1925. The veteran shall name the beneficiary of the certificate and may from time to time, with the approval of the director, change such beneficiary. The amount of the face value of the certificate (except as provided in subdivisions (c), (d), (e), and (f) of section 642 of this title shall be payable out of the fund created by section 645 of this title (1) to the veteran twenty years after the date of the certificate, or (2) upon the death of the veteran prior to the expiration of such twenty-year period, to the beneficiary named; except that if such beneficiary dies before the veteran and no new beneficiary is named, or if the beneficiary in the first instance has not yet been named, the amount of the face value of the certificate shall be paid to the estate of the veteran. If the veteran died after making application under section 612 of this title, but before January 1, 1925, then the amount of the face value of the certificate shall be paid in the same manner as if his death had occurred after January 1, 1925. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 501, 43 Stat. 125.)

642. Loans on adjusted service certificates; when and by whom made; amounts; interest; sale, discount, or rediscount of notes secured by certificates; payment of loans; redemption of certificates by Director of United States Veterans' Bureau; redemption by veteran; death of veteran before or after maturity of loan; loan basis of certificates; payments on loans by director to banks; fees by bank officers in making loans.—(a) A loan may be made to a veteran upon his adjusted service certificate only in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(b) Any national bank, or any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of any State, Territory, possession, or the District of Columbia (hereinafter in this section called "bank"), is authorized, after the expiration of two years after the date of the certificate, to loan to any veteran upon his promissory note secured by his adjusted service certificate (with or without the consent of the beneficiary thereof) any amount not in excess of the loan basis (as defined in subdivision (g) of this section) of the certificate. The rate of interest charged upon the loan by the bank shall not exceed, by more than 2 per centum per annum, the rate charged at the date of the loan for the discount of ninety-day commercial paper under sections 324 to 326 of Title 12 by the Federal reserve bank for the Federal reserve district in which the bank is located. Any bank holding a note for a loan under this section secured by a certificate (whether the bank originally making the loan or a bank to which the note and certificate have been transferred) may sell the note to, or discount or rediscount it with, any bank authorized to make a loan to a veteran under this section and transfer the certificate to such bank. Upon the indorsement of any bank, which shall be deemed a waiver of demand, notice, and protest by such bank as to its own indorsement exclusively, and subject to regulations to be prescribed by the Federal Reserve Board, any such note secured by a certificate and held by a bank shall be eligible for discount or rediscount by the Federal reserve bank for the Federal reserve district in which the bank is located. Such note shall be eligible for discount or rediscount whether or not the bank offering the note for discount or rediscount is a member of the Federal Reserve System and whether or not it acquired the note in the first instance from the veteran or acquired it by transfer upon the indorsement of any other bank. Such note shall not be eligible for discount or rediscount unless it has at the time of discount or rediscount a maturity not in excess of nine months exclusive of days of grace. The rate of interest charged by the Federal reserve bank shall be the same as that charged by it for the discount or rediscount of ninety-day notes drawn for commercial purposes. The Federal Reserve Board is authorized to permit, or on the affirmative vote of at least five members of the Federal Reserve Board to require, a Federal reserve bank to rediscount, for any other Federal reserve bank, notes secured by a certificate. The rate of interest for such rediscounts shall be fixed by the Federal Reserve Board. In case the note is sold, discounted, or rediscounted the bank making the transfer shall promptly notify the veteran by mail at his last known post-office address.

(c) If the veteran does not pay the principal and interest of the loan upon its maturity, the bank holding the note and certificate may, at any time after maturity of the loan but not before the expiration of six months after the loan was made, present them to the director. The director may, in his discretion, accept the certificate and note, cancel the note (but not the certificate), and pay the bank, in full satisfaction of its claim, the amount of the unpaid principal due it, and the unpaid interest accrued, at the rate fixed in the note, up to the date of the check issued to the bank. The director shall restore to the veteran, at any time prior to its maturity, any certificate so accepted, upon receipt from him of an amount equal to the sum of (1) the amount paid by the United States to the bank in cancellation of his note, plus (2) interest on such amount from the time of such payment to the date of such receipt, at 6 per centum per annum, compounded annually.

(d) If the veteran fails to redeem his certificate from the director before its maturity, or before the death of the veteran, the director shall deduct from the face value of the certificate (as determined in section 641 of this title) an amount equal to the sum of (1) the amount paid by the United States to the bank on account of the note of the veteran, plus (2) interest on such amount from the time of such payment to the date of maturity of the certificate or of the death of the veteran, at the rate of 6 per centum per annum, compounded annually, and shall pay the remainder in accordance with the provisions of section 641.

(e) If the veteran dies before the maturity of the loan, the amount of the unpaid principal and the unpaid interest accrued up to the date of his death shall be immediately due and payable. In such case, or if the veteran dies on the day the loan matures or within six months thereafter, the bank holding the note and certificate shall, upon notice of the death, present them to the director, who shall thereupon cancel the note (but not the certificate) and pay to the bank, in full satisfaction of its claim, the amount of the unpaid principal and unpaid interest, at the rate fixed in the note, accrued up to the date of the check issued to the bank; except that if, prior to the payment, the bank is notified of the death by the director and fails to present the certificate and note to the director within fifteen days after the notice, such interest shall be only up to the fifteenth day after such notice. The director shall deduct the amount so paid from the face value (as determined under section 641 of this title) of the certificate and pay the remainder in accordance with the provisions of said section 641 of this title.

(f) If the veteran has not died before the maturity of the certificate, and has failed to pay his note to the bank or the Federal reserve bank holding the note and certificate, such bank shall, at the maturity of the certificate, present the note and certificate to the director, who shall thereupon cancel the note (but not the certificate) and pay to the bank, in full satisfaction of its claim, the amount of the unpaid principal and unpaid interest, at the rate fixed in the note, accrued up to the date of the maturity of the certificate. The director shall deduct the amount so paid from the face value (as determined in section 641 of this title) of the certificate and pay the remainder in accordance with the provisions of said section 641 of this title.

(g) The loan basis of any certificate at any time shall, for the purpose of this section, be an amount which is not in excess of 90 per centum of the reserve value of the certificate on the last day of the current certificate year. The reserve value of a certificate on the last day of any certificate year shall be the full reserve required on such certificate, based on an annual level net premium for twenty years and calculated in accordance with the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at 4 per centum per annum, compounded annually.

(h) No payment upon any note shall be made under this section by the director to any bank, unless the note when presented to him is accompanied by an affidavit made by an officer of the bank which made the loan, before a notary public or other officer designated for the purpose by regulation of the director, and stating that such bank has not charged or collected, or attempted to charge or collect, directly or indirectly, any fee or other compensation (except interest as authorized by this section) in respect of any loan made under this section by the bank to a veteran. Any bank which, or director, officer, or employee thereof who, does so charge, collect, or attempt to charge or collect any such fee or compensation, shall be liable to the veteran for a penalty of $100, to be recovered in a civil suit brought by the veteran. The director shall upon request of any bank or veteran furnish a blank form for such affidavit. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 502, 43 Stat. 126.)

643. Prohibited negotiations or assignments of certificates.—No certificate issued or right conferred under the provisions of this title shall, except as provided in section 642 of this title, be negotiable or assignable or serve as security for a loan. Any negotiation, assignment, or loan made in violation of any provision of this section shall be held void. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 503, 43 Stat. 128.)

644. Conditions and terms printed on certificates.—Any certificate issued under the provisions of this title shall have printed upon its face the conditions and terms upon which it is issued and to which it is subject, including loan values under section 642 of this title. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 504, 43 Stat. 128.)

645. Adjusted service-certificate fund; how constituted; appropriations for; estimates for.—There is created a fund in the Treasury of the United States to be known as "The adjusted service-certificate fund," hereinafter in this title called "fund." There is authorized to be appropriated for each calendar year (ending with the calendar year 1946) an amount sufficient as an annual premium to provide for the payment of the face value of each adjusted service certificate in twenty years from its date or on the prior death of the veteran, such amount to be determined in accordance with accepted actuarial principles and based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and interest at 4 per centum per annum, compounded annually. The amounts so appropriated shall be set aside in the fund on the first day of the calendar year for which appropriated. The director shall submit estimates for appropriations for the fund created by this section. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, §§ 505, 703, 43 Stat. 128, 131.)

646. Investment of fund.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to invest and reinvest the moneys in the fund, or any part thereof, in interest-bearing obligations of the United States and to sell such obligations of the United States for the purposes of the fund. The interest on and the proceeds from the sale of any such obligations shall become a part of the fund. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 506, 43 Stat. 128.)

647. Fund available for payments.—All amounts in the fund shall be available for payment, by the director, of adjusted service certificates upon their maturity or the prior death of the veteran, and for payments under section 642 of this title to banks on account of notes of veterans. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 507, 43 Stat. 128.)

PART VI.—PAYMENTS TO VETERAN'S DEPENDENTS

661. Enumeration of preference of dependents.—(a) If the veteran has died before making application under section 612 of this title, or, if entitled to receive adjusted service pay, has died after making application but before he has received payment under Part IV of this chapter, then the amount of his adjusted service credit shall (as soon as practicable after receipt of an application in accordance with the provisions of section 664 of this title, but not before March 1, 1925) be paid to his dependents, in the following order of preference:

(1) To the widow or widower if unmarried;

(2) If no unmarried widow or widower, then to the children, share and share alike;

(3) If no unmarried widow or widower, or children, then to the mother;

(4) If no unmarried widow or widower, children, or mother, then to the father.

(b) For the purposes of this section payments made under paragraph (2) of subdivision (g) of section 301 of the War Risk Insurance Act (October 6, 1917, chapter 105, Fortieth Statutes, page 405) shall not be considered payments made by the United States on account of the death of the veteran. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 601, 43 Stat. 128.)

662. Dependent defined.—(a) No payment shall be made to any individual under Part VI of this chapter unless at the time of the death of the veteran such individual was dependent.

(b) For the purposes of this section:

(1) A child of the veteran shall be presumed to have been dependent upon him at the time of his death if at such time such child was under eighteen years of age;

(2) The widow or widower shall be presumed to have been dependent upon the veteran upon showing by them, respectively, the marital cohabitation; the father and mother, respectively, shall submit under oath a statement of the dependency, to be filed with the application. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 602, 43 Stat. 129.)

663. Installments; by whom and to whom made.—The payments authorized by section 661 of this title shall be made in ten equal quarterly installments, unless the total amount of the payment is less than $50, in which case it shall be paid on the first installment date. No payments under the provisions of this title shall be made to the heirs or legal representatives of any dependents entitled thereto who die before receiving all the installment payments, but the remainder of such payments shall be made to the dependent or dependents in the next order of preference under section 661 of this title. All payments under Part VI of this chapter shall be made by the director. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 603, 43 Stat. 129.)

664. Application by dependents; how and when made; regulations.—(a) A dependent may receive the benefits to which he is entitled under this title by filing an application therefor with the Secretary of War, if the last service of the veteran was with the military forces, or with the Secretary of the Navy, if his last service was with the naval forces.

(b) Applications for such benefits, whether vested or contingent, shall be made by the dependents of the veteran on or before January 1, 1928; except that in case of the death of the veteran during the six months immediately preceding such date the application shall be made at any time within six months after the death of the veteran. Payments under this title shall be made only to dependents who have made application in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision.

(c) An application shall be made (1) personally by the dependent, or (2) in case physical or mental incapacity prevents the making of a personal application, then by such representative of the dependent and in such manner as the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy shall jointly by regulation prescribe. An application made by a representative other than one authorized by any such regulation shall be held void.

(d) The Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy shall jointly make any regulations necessary to the efficient administration of the provisions of this section. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 604, 43 Stat. 129.)

665. Same; certificates accompanying transmittal; contents.—(a) As soon as practicable after the receipt of a valid application the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy, as the case may be, shall transmit to the director the application and a certificate setting forth—

(1) The name and address of the applicant;

(2) That the individual upon whom the applicant bases his claim to payment was a veteran;

(3) The name of such veteran and the date and place of his birth; and

(4) The amount of the adjusted service credit of the veteran, together with the facts of record in the department upon which such above conclusions are based.

(b) Upon receipt of such certificate the director shall proceed to extend to the applicant the benefits provided in Part VI of this chapter if the director finds that the applicant is the dependent entitled thereto. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 605, 43 Stat. 130.)

666. Assignments void; persons to whom payments shall not be made.—No right to payment under the provisions of Part VI of this chapter shall be assignable or serve as security for any loan. Any assignment or loan made in violation of the provisions of this section shall be held void. The director shall not make any payments under Part VI of this chapter to any person other than the dependent or such representative of the dependent as the director shall by regulation prescribe. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 606, 43 Stat. 130.)

667. "Dependent," "child," "father," and "mother" defined.—As used in this chapter—

(a) The term "dependent" means a widow, widower, child, father, or mother;

(b) The term "child" includes (1) a legitimate child; (2) a child legally adopted; (3) a stepchild, if a member of the veteran's household; (4) an illegitimate child, but, as to the father only, if acknowledged in writing signed by him or if he has been judicially ordered or decreed to contribute to such child's support or has been judicially decreed to be the putative father of such child; and

(c) The terms "father" and "mother" include stepfathers and stepmothers, fathers and mothers through adoption, and persons who have, for a period of not less than one year, stood in loco parentis to the veteran at any time prior to the beginning of his service. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 607, 43 Stat. 130.)

PART VII.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

681. Authority of administrative officers; appointment of officers, employees, etc.; expenditures.—The officers having charge of the administration of any of the provisions of this chapter are authorized to appoint such officers, employees, and agents in the District of Columbia and elsewhere, and to make such expenditures for rent, furniture, office equipment, printing, binding, telegrams, telephone, law books, books of reference, stationery, motor-propelled vehicles or trucks used for official purposes, traveling expenses and per diem in lieu of subsistence at not exceeding $4 for officers, agents, and other employees, for the purchase of reports and materials for publications, and for other contingent and miscellaneous expenses, as may be necessary efficiently to execute the purposes of this chapter and as may be provided for by the Congress from time to time. All such appointments shall be made subject to the civil-service laws. In all appointments under this section preference shall so far as practicable, be given to veterans. For the administration of the provisions of this chapter, the President may except from the operation of sections 6, 8, 27, 28, 29, and 1026 of Title 10, or of any Act amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, not more than seven officers of the Army. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 701, 43 Stat. 130.)

682. False or fraudulent statements; penalty.—Whoever knowingly makes any false or fraudulent statement of a material fact in any application, certificate, or document made under the provisions of Parts III, IV, V, or VI of this chapter, or of any regulation made under any such title, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $1,000, or imprisoned not more than five years, or both. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 702, 43 Stat. 131.)

683. Estimates by Secretary of War, Secretary of the Navy, and director.—The Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, and the director shall severally submit in the manner provided by law estimates of the amounts necessary to be expended in carrying out such provisions of this chapter as each is charged with administering. There is authorized to be appropriated amounts sufficient to defray such expenditures. (May 19, 1924, c. 157, § 703, 43 Stat. 131.)

Chapter 1.—POST OFFICES.

Sec.
1. Establishment of post offices.
2. Discontinuing offices.
3. Offices at county seats continued.
4. Post offices to be kept open.
5. Sundays; first and second class excepted.
6. Making up mail.
7. Arrival and departure of mail.
8. Disposal of useless papers.
9. Rewards for detection of post-office burglars.
10. Premises leased for post offices.
11. Rental of first, second, and third class post offices.
12. Monthly payment of rental for post offices.
13. Restrictions on allowances for rent for third-class offices.

Section 1. Establishment of post offices.—The Postmaster General shall establish post offices at all such places on post roads established by law as he may deem expedient, and he shall promptly certify such establishment to the General Accounting Office. (R. S. § 3829; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

2. Discontinuing offices.—The Postmaster General may discontinue any post office where the safety and security of the Postal Service and revenues are endangered from any cause whatever, or where the efficiency of the service requires such discontinuance, and he shall promptly certify such discontinuance to the General Accounting Office. (R. S. § 3864; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

3. Offices at county seats continued.—No post office established at any county seat shall be abolished or discontinued by reason of any consolidation of post offices made by the Postmaster General, and any such post office at a county seat heretofore consolidated shall be established as a separate post office at such county seat. This provision shall not apply to the city of Cambridge, Massachusetts, or to Towson, Maryland, or to Clayton, Saint Louis County, Missouri. (June 9, 1896, c. 386, 29 Stat. 313; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 1, 37 Stat. 545.)

4. Post offices to be kept open.—Every postmaster shall keep an office in which one or more persons shall be on duty during such hours of each day as the Postmaster General may direct, except as provided in section 5 of this title, for the purpose of receiving, delivering, making up, and forwarding all mail matter received thereat. (R. S. § 3839.)

5. Sundays; first and second classes excepted.—Post offices of the first and second classes shall not be open on Sundays for the purpose of delivering mail to the general public, but this provision shall not prevent the prompt delivery of special delivery mail. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 1, 37 Stat. 543.)

6. Making up mail.—All letters brought to any post office half an hour before the time for the departure of the mail shall be forwarded therein; but at offices where, in the opinion of the Postmaster General, more time for making up the mail is required, he may prescribe accordingly, not exceeding one hour. (R. S. § 3840.)

7. Arrival and departure of mail.—The Postmaster General shall furnish to the postmasters at the termination of each route a schedule of the time of arrival and departure of the mail at their offices, respectively, to be posted in a conspicuous place in the office; and he shall also give them notice of any change in the arrival and departure that may be ordered; and he shall cause to be kept and returned to the department, at short and regular intervals, registers, showing the exact times of the arrivals and departures of the mail. (R. S. § 3841.)

8. Disposal of useless papers.—The Postmaster General is hereby authorized to sell as waste paper or otherwise dispose of the files of papers which have accumulated or may accumulate in post offices, that are not needed in the transaction of current business and have no permanent value or historical interest, and pay the proceeds of said sales into the Treasury as postal revenues. (May 11, 1906, c. 2448, 34 Stat. 186.)

9. Rewards for detection of post-office burglars.—Rewards may be paid for the detection, arrest, and conviction of post-office burglars, robbers, and highway mail robbers, or, in the discretion of the Postmaster General, when an offender of the class mentioned is killed in the act of committing the crime or in resisting lawful arrest. (Mar. 3, 1917, c. 162, § 1, 39 Stat. 1059; June 19, 1922, c. 227, § 1, 42 Stat. 655; Feb. 14, 1923, c. 79, § 1, 42 Stat. 1251; Apr. 4, 1924, c. 84, Title II, 43 Stat. 85; Dec. 5, 1924, c. 4, § 1, 43 Stat. 690; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title II, 43 Stat. 784; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 556, § 1, 43 Stat. 1337.)

10. Premises leased for post offices.—Whenever any building or part of a building under lease becomes unfit for use as a post office, no rent shall be paid until the same shall be put in a satisfactory condition by the owner thereof for occupation as a post office, or the lease may be canceled, at the option of the Postmaster General. (Mar. 3, 1885, c. 342, § 1, 23 Stat. 386; June 19, 1922, c. 227, § 1, 42 Stat. 656.)

11. Rental of first, second, and third class post offices.—The Postmaster General may, in the disbursement of the appropriation for rent, light, and fuel for first, second, and third class post offices, apply a part thereof to the purpose of leasing premises for the use of post offices of the first, second, and third classes at a reasonable annual rental, to be paid monthly for a term not exceeding twenty years. (July 24, 1888, c. 702, § 1, 25 Stat. 345; Apr. 24, 1920, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 578; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 420, 43 Stat. 1105.)

12. Monthly payment of rental for post offices.—The Postmaster General may make monthly payment of rental for post-office premises under lease. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 420, 43 Stat. 1105.)

13. Restrictions on allowances for rent for third-class offices.—The aggregate allowance for rent of third-class post offices made in any year shall not exceed the amount appropriated for such purpose. (July 24, 1888, c. 702, § 1, 25 Stat. 345.)

Section 31. Appointment and removal; tenure of office.—Postmasters of the first, second, and third classes shall be appointed and may be removed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall hold their offices for four years unless sooner removed or suspended according to law; and postmasters of the fourth class shall be appointed and may be removed by the Postmaster General, by whom all appointments and removals shall be notified to General Accounting Office. (July 12, 1876, c. 179, § 6, 19 Stat. 80; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

32. Residence.—Every postmaster shall reside within the delivery of the office to which he is appointed or within the town or city where the same is situated. (Apr. 28, 1904, c. 1759, § 8, 33 Stat. 441.)

33. Oaths to expense accounts.—Postmasters and assistant postmasters are required, empowered, and authorized, when requested, to administer oaths, required by law or otherwise, to accounts for travel or other expenses against the United States, with like force and effect as officers having a seal; for such services when so rendered, or when rendered on demand by notaries public, who at the time are also salaried officers or employees of the United States, no charge shall be made; and no fee or money paid for the services herein described shall be paid or reimbursed by the United States. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 355, § 8, 37 Stat. 487.)

34. Bond.—Every postmaster, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall give bond, with good and approved security, and in such penalty as the Postmaster General shall deem sufficient, conditioned for the faithful discharge of all duties and trusts imposed on him either by law or the rules and regulations of the department. On the death, resignation, or removal of a postmaster, his bond shall be delivered to the Bureau of Accounts in the Post Office Department. The bond of any married woman who may be appointed postmaster shall be binding upon her and her sureties, and she shall be liable for misconduct in office as if she were sole. (R. S. § 3834; Mar. 1, 1909, c. 232, 35 Stat. 670; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

35. Approval of bonds.—The bonds of all postmasters may by the direction of the Postmaster General be approved and accepted, and the approval and acceptance signed by the First Assistant Postmaster General or by the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General in the name of the Postmaster General. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 103, § 2, 19 Stat. 335; Dec. 21, 1893, c. 6, 28 Stat. 21.)

36. New bonds; application of payments.—Whenever any postmaster is required to execute a new bond, all payments made by him after the execution of such new bond, may, if the Postmaster General or the Comptroller General deem it just, be applied first to discharge any balance which may be due from such postmaster under his old bond. (R. S. § 3835; Feb. 4, 1879, c. 45, 20 Stat. 281.)

37. Deficiency in accounts; notice to sureties.—When a deficiency shall be discovered in the accounts of any postmaster, who after the adjustment of his accounts fails, to make good such deficiency, it shall be the duty of the General Accounting Office to notify the Postmaster General of such failure, and upon receiving such notice the Postmaster General shall forthwith deposit a notice in the post office at Washington, District of Columbia, addressed to the sureties respectively upon the bonds of said postmaster, at the office where he or they may reside, if known; but a failure to give or mail such notice shall not discharge such surety or sureties upon such bond. (R. S. § 3835; Feb. 4, 1879, c. 45, 20 Stat. 281; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

38. Time of sureties' liability.—Every postmaster and his sureties shall be responsible under their bond for the safekeeping of the public property of the post office, and the due performance of the duties thereof, until the expiration of the commission, or until a successor has been duly appointed and qualified, and has taken possession of the office; except that in cases where there is a delay of sixty days in supplying a vacancy, the sureties may terminate their responsibility by giving notice, in writing, to the Postmaster General, such termination to take effect ten days after sufficient time shall have elapsed to receive a reply from the Postmaster General. When a person designated to act as postmaster under section 39 of this title shall have taken charge of such post office, the liability of the sureties of the former postmaster shall cease. (R. S. § 3836.)

39. Vacancies; ad interim appointments; bonds of appointees; regular appointments to fill vacancies.—Whenever the office of a postmaster becomes vacant through death, resignation, or removal, the Postmaster General shall designate some person to act as postmaster until a regular appointment can be made by the President in case the office is in the first, second, or third class, and by the Postmaster General when the office is in the fourth class; and the Postmaster General shall notify the General Accounting Office of the change. The postmaster so appointed shall be responsible under his bond for the safe-keeping of the public property pertaining to the post office and the performance of the duties of his office until a regular postmaster has been duly appointed and qualified and has taken possession of the office. Whenever a vacancy occurs from any cause the appointment of the regular postmaster shall be made without unnecessary delay and the Postmaster General shall promptly notify the General Accounting Office of the change. (R. S. § 3836; Mar. 1, 1921, c. 88, § 1, 41 Stat. 1151; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

40. Release of sureties on bond.—If on the settlement of the account of any postmaster it shall appear that he is indebted to the United States, and suit therefor shall not be instituted within three years after the close of such account, the sureties on his bond shall not be liable for such indebtedness. (R. S. § 3838.)

41. Records at post offices.—Every postmaster shall keep a record, in such form as the Postmaster General shall direct, of all postage stamps, envelopes, postal books, blanks, and property received from his predecessor, or from the department or any of its agents; of all receipts in money for postages and box rents, and of all other receipts on account of the postal service, and of any other transactions which may be required by the Postmaster General; and these records shall be preserved and delivered to his successor, and shall be at all times subject to examination by any post-office inspector. (R. S. §§ 3842, 4017; June 11, 1880, c. 206, § 1, 21 Stat. 177.)

42. Quarterly accounts of receipts.—Every postmaster shall render to the Postmaster General, under oath, and in such form as the latter shall prescribe, a quarterly account of all moneys received or charged by him or at his office, for postage, rent of boxes or other receptacles for mail matter, or by reason of keeping a branch office, or for the delivery of mail matter in any manner whatever. (R. S. § 3843.)

43. Same; to be sworn to.—The Postmaster General may require a sworn statement to accompany each quarterly account of a postmaster, to the effect that such account contains a true statement of the entire amount of postage, box rents, charges, and moneys collected or received at his office during the quarter; that he has not knowingly delivered, or permitted to be delivered, any mail matter on which the postage was not at the time paid; that such account exhibits truly and faithfully the entire receipts collected at his office, and which, by due diligence, could have been collected; and that the credits he claims are just and right. (R. S. § 3844.)

44. Neglect to render accounts.—Whenever any postmaster neglects to render his accounts for one month after the time, and in the form and manner prescribed by law and the regulations of the Postmaster General, he and his sureties shall forfeit and pay double the amount of the gross receipts at such office during any previous or subsequent equal period of time; and if, at the time of trial, no account has been rendered, they shall be liable to a penalty of such sum as the court and jury shall estimate to be equivalent thereto, to be recovered in an action on the bond. (R. S. § 3845.)

45. Withholding commissions based on false returns; affidavit to returns.—In any case where the Postmaster General shall be satisfied that a postmaster has made a false return of business, it shall be within his discretion to withhold commissions on such returns, and to allow any compensation that under the circumstances he may deem reasonable. The form of affidavit to be made by postmasters upon their returns shall be such as may be prescribed by the Postmaster General. (June 17, 1878, c. 259, § 1, 20 Stat. 141.)

46. Money to be safely kept.—Postmasters shall keep safely without loaning, using, depositing in an unauthorized bank, or exchanging for other funds, all the public money collected by them, or which may come into their possession, until it is ordered by the Postmaster General to be transferred or paid out. (R. S. § 3846.)

47. Custody of money in hands of postmasters.—Any postmaster, having public money belonging to the Government, at an office within a city or town where there is no designated depositary, may deposit the same temporarily, at his own risk and in his official capacity, in any national or State bank in the State in which the said postmaster resides, or in which his office is located, or within a reasonable radius of his post office in an adjacent State, but no authority or permission is or shall be given for the payment to or receipt by a postmaster or any other person, of interest, directly or indirectly, on any deposit made as herein described. (R. S. § 3847; May 27, 1908, c. 206, 35 Stat. 415.)

48. Frequent deposits of revenues.—Postmasters shall deposit the postal revenues and all money accruing at their office, as often as once a week at least, and as much oftener as the Postmaster General may direct. (R. S. § 3848.)

49. Adjustment of claims of postmasters and Navy mail clerks for losses by burglary and fire.—The Postmaster General may investigate all claims of postmasters, Navy mail clerks, and assistant Navy mail clerks, for the loss of money-order funds, postal funds, postal savings funds, postage stamps, stamped envelopes, newspaper wrappers, postal cards, postal savings cards, postal savings stamps, postal savings certificates, United States war savings certificate stamps, United States Government thrift stamps, war-tax revenue stamps, and funds received from the sale of such stamps belonging to the United States in the hands of such postmasters, Navy mail clerks, or assistant Navy mail clerks, and for the loss of key-deposit funds, funds deposited to cover postage on mailings, and funds received as deposits to cover orders for stamped envelopes, in the hands of such postmasters, Navy mail clerks, or assistant Navy mail clerks, resulting from burglary, fire, or other unavoidable casualty, and if he shall determine that such loss resulted from no fault or negligence on the part of such postmasters, Navy mail clerks, or assistant Navy mail clerks, may pay to such postmasters, Navy mail clerks, or assistant Navy mail clerks, or credit them with the amount so ascertained to have been lost or destroyed, and may also credit postmasters, Navy mail clerks, or assistant Navy mail clerks with the amount of any remittance of money-order funds, postal funds, postal savings funds or funds received from the sale of United States war savings certificate stamps, United States Government thrift stamps, and war tax revenue stamps, made by them in compliance with the instructions of the Postmaster General, which shall have been lost or stolen while in transit by mail from the office of the remitting postmaster, Navy mail clerk, or assistant Navy mail clerk to the office designated as his depository, or after arrival at such depository office and before the postmaster at such depository office has become responsible therefor. No claim exceeding the sum of $10,000 shall be paid or credited until after the facts shall have been ascertained by the Postmaster General and reported to Congress, together with his recommendation thereon, and an appropriation made therefor. All such claims must be presented within six months from the time the loss occurred. The Postmaster General shall report his action herein to Congress annually with his reasons therefor in each particular case. (Mar. 17, 1882, c. 41, § 1, 22 Stat. 29; May 9, 1888, c. 231, § 1, 25 Stat. 135; June 11, 1896, c. 424, 29 Stat. 458; Jan. 21, 1914, c. 12, § 1, 38 Stat. 279; May 18, 1916, c. 126, § 14, 39 Stat. 163; July 2, 1918, c. 117, § 10, 40 Stat. 754.)

50. Postmasters as disbursing officers.—Postmasters may be designated by the Postmaster General as disbursing officers for the payment of mail messengers and others engaged under their supervision in transporting the mails. He may also designate postmasters at presidential post offices as disbursing officers for the payment of the salaries of the officers and employees of the postal service concerned in the transportation of mails or in their distribution in transit, and for such other payments as they are authorized to make from postal revenues, and he may designate postmasters at money-order post offices as disbursing officers for the payment of the salaries of officers and employees of the postal service, and for such other payments as postmasters are authorized to make from postal revenues. (May 4, 1882, c. 116, § 1, 22 Stat. 54; July 5, 1884, c. 234, § 1, 23 Stat. 156; July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 418; June 3, 1924, c. 237, 43 Stat. 356.)

51. Report of delinquencies.—Every postmaster shall promptly report to the Postmaster General every delinquency, neglect, or malpractice of contractors, their agents or carriers, which comes to his knowledge. (R. S. § 3849.)

52. Postmasters not to be contractors.—No postmaster, assistant postmaster, or clerk employed in any post office shall be a contractor or concerned in any contract for carrying the mail. (R. S. § 3850.)

53. Classification of postmasters and employees of Postal Service and adjustment of salaries and compensation.—Postmasters and employees of the Postal Service shall be classified and their salaries and compensation adjusted, except as otherwise provided as follows:

Postmasters shall be divided into four classes, as follows:

The first class shall embrace all those whose annual salaries are $3,200 or more.

The second class shall embrace all those whose annual salaries are less than $3,200, but not less than $2,400.

The third class shall embrace all those whose annual salaries are less than $2,400, but not less than $1,100.

The fourth class shall embrace all postmasters whose annual compensation amounts to less than $1,100, exclusive of commissions on money orders issued. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 1, 43 Stat. 1053.)

54. Same; compensation of postmasters of first, second, and third classes to be annual salaries payable semimonthly; computation of salaries of respective classes; transfer of third-class offices to fourth class.—The respective compensation of postmasters of the first, second, and third classes shall be annual salaries, graded in even hundreds of dollars, and payable in semimonthly payments to be ascertained and fixed by the Postmaster General from their respective quarterly returns to the General Accounting Office, or copies of duplicates thereof to the First Assistant Postmaster General, for the calendar year immediately preceding the adjustment, based on gross postal receipts at the following rates, namely:

First class—$40,000, but less than $50,000, $3,200; $50,000, but less than $60,000, $3,300; $60,000, but less than $75,000, $3,400; $75,000, but less than $90,000, $3,500; $90,000, but less than $120,000, $3,600; $120,000, but less than $150,000, $3,700; $150,000, but less than $200,000, $3,800; $200,000, but less than $250,000, $3,900; $250,000, but less than $300,000, $4,000; $300,000, but less than $400,000, $4,200; $400,000, but less than $500,000, $4,500; $500,000, but less than $600,000, $5,000; $600,000, but less than $7,000,000, $6,000; $7,000,000 and upward, $8,000.

Second class—$8,000, but less than $12,000, $2,400; $12,000, but less than $15,000, $2,500; $15,000, but less than $18,000, $2,600; $18,000, but less than $22,000, $2,700; $22,000, but less than $27,000, $2,800; $27,000, but less than $33,000, $2,900; $33,000, but less than $40,000, $3,000.

Third class—$1,500, but less than $1,600, $1,100; $1,600, but less than $1,700, $1,200; $1,700, but less than $1,900, $1,300; $1,900, but less than $2,100, $1,400; $2,100, but less than $2,400, $1,500; $2,400, but less than $2,700, $1,600; $2,700, but less than $3,000, $1,700; $3,000, but less than $3,500, $1,800; $3,500, but less than $4,200, $1,900; $4,200 but less than $5,000, $2,000; $5,000, but less than $6,000, $2,100; $6,000, but less than $7,000, $2,200; $7,000, but less than $8,000, $2,300. When the gross postal receipts of a post office of the third class for each of two consecutive calendar years are less than $1,500, or when in any calendar year the gross postal receipts are less than $1,400, it shall be relegated to the fourth class.

In order to ascertain the amount of the postal receipts of each office, the Postmaster General may require postmasters to furnish the department with certified copies of their quarterly returns to the Bureau of Accounts in the Post Office Department at such times and for such periods as he may deem necessary in each case. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 128, § 1, 18 Stat. 340; Mar. 3, 1883, c. 142, §§ 1, 4, 22 Stat. 600, 602; Feb. 7, 1900, c. 11, 31 Stat. 6; Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1009, § 1, 32 Stat. 1166; May 27, 1908, c. 206, 35 Stat. 407; Mar. 4, 1911; c. 241, § 1, 36 Stat. 1329; July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 413; Oct. 28, 1919, c. 86, 41 Stat. 323; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 1, 43 Stat. 1053.)

55. Salary of postmaster at Washington.—In fixing the salary of the postmaster in the post office at Washington, District of Columbia, the Postmaster General may, in his discretion, add not to exceed 75 per centum to the gross receipts of that office. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 3, 43 Stat. 1058.)

56. Postmasters' salaries; certain sales of stamps not included.—In determining the gross receipts upon which the salary of a postmaster shall be based, stamps, stamped envelopes, and postal cards sold in large or unusual quantities to any person to be used in mailing matter at other post offices, or in mailing matter diverted from other offices, shall not be included, whether the sale be made with or without solicitation by the postmaster. (Mar. 9, 1914, c. 33, 38 Stat. 296.)

57. Compensation of postmasters of fourth class.—The compensation of postmasters of the fourth class shall be fixed upon the basis of the whole of the box rents collected at their offices and commissions upon the amount of canceled postage-due stamps and on postage stamps, stamped envelopes, and postal cards canceled, on matter actually mailed at their offices, and on the amount of newspaper and periodical postage collected in money, and on the postage collected in money on identical pieces of third and fourth class matter mailed without postage stamps affixed, and on postage collected in money on matter of the first class mailed without postage stamps affixed, and on amounts received from waste paper, dead newspapers, printed matter, and twine sold, at the following rates, namely:

On the first $75 or less per quarter the postmaster shall be allowed 160 per centum on the amount; on the next $100 or less per quarter, 85 per centum; and on all the balance, 75 per centum, the same to be ascertained and allowed by the General Accounting Office in the settlement of the accounts of such postmasters upon their sworn quarterly returns. In no case shall there be allowed any postmaster of this class a compensation greater than $300 in any one of the first three quarters of the fiscal year, exclusive of money-order commissions, and in the last quarter of each fiscal year there shall be allowed such further sums as he may by law be entitled to, not exceeding for the whole fiscal year the sum of $1,100, exclusive of money-order commissions. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 142, § 2, 22 Stat. 602; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 1, 43 Stat. 1054.)

58. Additional compensation to fourth-class postmasters for separating services and for unusual conditions during portion of year.—The Postmaster General may allow to fourth-class postmasters additional compensation for separating services and for unusual conditions during a portion of the year, in lieu of an allowance for clerical services for this purpose. (May 12, 1910, c. 230, 36 Stat. 359.)

59. Assignment of fourth-class offices to proper class on increase of receipts.—When the total compensation of any postmaster at a post office of the fourth class for the calendar year shall amount to $1,100, exclusive of commissions on money orders issued, and the receipts of such post office for the same period shall aggregate as much as $1,500, the office shall be assigned to its proper class on July 1, following, and the salary of the postmaster fixed according to the receipts. (May 18, 1916, c. 126, § 16, 39 Stat. 163; July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 418; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 1, 43 Stat. 1055.)

60. Advancement of fourth-class offices to appropriate class under unusual conditions; reduction to appropriate class.—Whenever unusual conditions prevail the Postmaster General, in his discretion, may advance any post office from the fourth class to the appropriate class indicated by the receipts of the preceding quarter, notwithstanding the provisions of section 59 of this title. When the Postmaster General has exercised the authority herein granted, he shall, whenever the receipts are no longer sufficient to justify retaining such post office in the class to which it has been advanced, reduce the grade of such office to the appropriate class indicated by its receipts for the last preceding quarter. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 1, 43 Stat. 1055.)

61. Salaries; orders relating to.—The Postmaster General shall make all orders relative to the salaries of postmasters; and any change made in such salaries shall not take effect until the first day of the quarter next following the order; and the General Accounting Office shall be notified of any and all changes of salaries. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 142, § 3, 22 Stat. 602; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

62. Same; limit of pay.—No postmaster shall, under any pretense whatever, have, receive, or retain for himself, in the aggregate, more than the amount of his salary and his commission on the money-order business as provided by law. (R. S. § 3857.)

63. Salaries of acting postmasters.—Any person performing the duties of postmaster, by authority of the President, at any post office where there is a vacancy for any cause, shall receive for the term for which the duty is performed the same compensation to which he would have been entitled if regularly appointed and confirmed as such postmaster. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 31, 20 Stat. 362.)

64. Post offices; expenses.—The Postmaster General may allow to the postmasters at offices of the first and second classes, out of the surplus revenues of their respective offices, that is to say, the excess of box rents and commissions over and above the salary assigned to the office, a reasonable sum for the necessary cost of rent, fuel, lights, furniture, stationery, printing, and necessary incidentals to be adjusted on a satisfactory exhibit of the facts, and no such allowance shall be made except upon the order of the Postmaster General. (R. S. § 3860.)

65. Deductions out of receipts.—The salary of a postmaster, and such other expenses of the Postal Service authorized by law as may be incurred by him, and for which appropriations have been made, may be deducted out of the receipts of his office, under the direction of the Postmaster General. (R. S. § 3861.)

66. Same; audit of vouchers.—Vouchers for all deductions made by a postmaster out of the receipts of his office, on account of the expenses of the Postal Service, shall be submitted for examination to the Bureau of Accounts in the Post Office Department, who shall transmit them for settlement to the General Accounting Office, and no such deduction shall be valid unless found to be in conformity with law. (R. S. § 3862; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

Section 81. Allowance for clerk hire at third-class post offices.—Postmasters at offices of the third class shall be granted for clerk hire an allowance of $240 per annum where the salary of the postmaster is $1,100 per annum; an allowance of $330 per annum where the salary of the postmaster is $1,200 per annum; an allowance of $420 per annum where the salary of the postmaster is $1,300 per annum; an allowance of $510 per annum where the salary of the postmaster is $1,400 per annum; an allowance of $600 per annum where the salary of the postmaster is $1,500 per annum; an allowance of $690 per annum where the salary of the postmaster is $1,600 per annum; an allowance of $780 per annum where the salary of the postmaster is $1,700 per annum; an allowance of $870 per annum where the salary of the postmaster is $1,800 per annum; an allowance of $960 per annum where the salary of the postmaster is $1,900 per annum; an allowance of $1,050 per annum where the salary of the postmaster is $2,000 per annum; an allowance of $1,140 per annum where the salary of the postmaster is $2,100 per annum; an allowance of $1,400 per annum where the salary of the postmaster is $2,200 per annum; an allowance of $1,600 per annum where the salary of the postmaster is $2,300 per annum. The Postmaster General may modify these allowances for clerk hire to meet varying needs, but in no case shall they be reduced by such modification more than 25 per centum: Provided, however, That the aggregate of such allowances, as modified, shall not exceed in any fiscal year the aggregate of allowances herein prescribed for postmasters of the third class. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 128, § 1, 18 Stat. 340; Mar. 3, 1883, c. 142, §§ 1, 4, 22 Stat. 600, 602; Feb. 7, 1900, c. 11, 31 Stat. 6; Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1009, § 1, 32 Stat. 1166; May 27, 1908, c. 206, 35 Stat. 407; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 241, § 1, 36 Stat. 1329; July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 413; Oct. 28, 1919, c. 86, 41 Stat. 323; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 1, 43 Stat. 1053.)

82. Distributing offices; allowance for clerk hire.—The Postmaster General may designate offices at the intersection of mail routes as distributing or separating offices; and where any such office is of the third or fourth class, he may make a reasonable allowance to the postmaster for the necessary cost of clerical services arising from such duties. (July 12, 1876, c. 179, § 11, 19 Stat. 82.)

83. Clerk-hire allowances to postmasters of first, second, and third class; what to cover.—The allowances for clerk hire made to postmasters of the first, second, and third class post offices by the Postmaster General out of the annual appropriations therefor shall cover the cost of clerical service of all kinds in such post offices, including the cost of clerical labor in the money-order business, and excepting allowances for separating mails at third-class post offices, as provided by law. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 1, 43 Stat. 1054.)

84. Clerk hire for third-class postmasters on leave without pay for military purposes.—Where postmasters at offices of the third class are granted leave without pay for military purposes, the Postmaster General may allow, in addition to the maximum amounts which may otherwise be allowed such offices for clerk hire, in accordance with law, an amount not to exceed 50 per centum of the salary of the postmaster. (Oct. 3, 1917, c. 63, § 1109, 40 Stat. 329.)

85. Appointment and assignment of clerks.—The appointment and assignment of clerks at first and second class post offices shall be so made during each fiscal year as not to involve a greater aggregate expenditure than the sum appropriated. (Mar. 3, 1917, c. 162, § 1, 39 Stat. 1060; Apr. 24, 1920, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 577.)

86. Salaries of employees other than in automatic grades at offices of first class; computation.—At offices of the first class the annual salaries of the employees, other than those in the automatic grades, shall be in even hundreds of dollars, based on the gross postal receipts for the preceding calendar year, as follows:

Receipts $40,000, but less than $50,000—assistant postmaster, $2,600; superintendent of mails, $2,400. Receipts $50,000, but less than $60,000—assistant postmaster, $2,600; superintendent of mails, $2,400. 89. Assistant postmasters at certain third-class offices.—The Postmaster General may in the disbursement of the appropriation for clerical services at third-class post offices and within its limitation provide for the employment at a salary of $900 per annum, unless increased under section 676 of Title 5, of assistant postmasters at post offices of the third class where the salary of the postmaster is $2,200 or $2,300 per annum. (Mar. 3, 1917, c. 162, § 1, 39 Stat. 1063; June 5, 1920, c. 254, 41 Stat. 1052; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 1, 43 Stat. 1053.)

90. Salaries of supervisory employees at Washington post office.—In fixing the salaries of the supervisory employees in the post office at Washington, District of Columbia, the Postmaster General may, in his discretion, add not to exceed 75 per centum to the gross receipts of that office. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 3, 43 Stat. 1058.)

91. Number of assistant superintendents of mails, delivery, registry, and assistant cashiers to be paid maximum salaries.—Not more than one assistant superintendent of mails, one assistant superintendent of delivery, one assistant superintendent of registry, and one assistant cashier shall be paid the maximum salary provided for these positions, except where receipts are $9,000,000 and less than $14,000,000, to which offices two assistant superintendents of mail shall be assigned at the maximum salary, one to be in charge of city delivery. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 3, 43 Stat. 1058.)

92. Employees in charge of records and adjustment of accounts in State depositories for surplus postal funds and central accounting offices; increased salaries.—At State depositories for surplus postal funds and central accounting offices, where the gross receipts are less than $500,000, and no postal cashier is provided, the employee in charge of such records and adjustments of the accounts shall be allowed an increase of $200 per annum; if receipts are $500,000 and less than $5,000,000, the postal cashier shall be allowed an increase of $200 per annum. At all central accounting offices where the bookkeeper in charge performs the duties of auditor, he shall be designated chief bookkeeper, at a salary equal to that of the assistant cashier of the highest grade at that office. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 3, 43 Stat. 1058.)

93. Superintendents of classified stations; salaries; basis.—The salary of superintendents of classified stations shall be based on the number of employees assigned thereto and the annual postal receipts. No allowance shall be made for sales of stamps to patrons residing outside of the territory of the stations. At classified stations each $25,000 of postal receipts shall be considered equal to one additional employee. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 3, 43 Stat. 1057.)

94. Same; salaries; rates.—At classified stations the salary of the superintendent shall be as follows: One and not exceeding five employees, $2,400; six and not exceeding eighteen employees, $2,500; nineteen and not exceeding thirty-two employees, $2,600; thirty-three and not exceeding forty-four employees, $2,700; forty-five and not exceeding sixty-four employees, $2,800; sixty-five and not exceeding ninety employees, $2,900; ninety-one and not exceeding one hundred and twenty employees, $3,000; one hundred and twenty-one and not exceeding one hundred and fifty employees, $3,100; one hundred and fifty-one and not exceeding three hundred and fifty employees, $3,300; three hundred and fifty-one and not exceeding five hundred employees, $3,500; five hundred and one or more employees, $3,800. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 3, 43 Stat. 1057.)

95. Assistant superintendents of classified stations; salaries.—At classified stations having forty-five or more employees there shall be assistant superintendents of stations with salaries as follows: Forty-five and not exceeding sixty-four employees, $2,400; sixty-five and not exceeding ninety employees, $2,500; ninety-one and not exceeding one hundred and twenty employees, $2,600; one hundred and twenty-one and not exceeding one hundred and fifty employees, $2,700; one hundred and fifty-one and not exceeding three hundred and fifty employees, $2,900; three hundred and fifty-one and not exceeding five hundred employees, $3,100; five hundred and one employees and upward, $3,400. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 3, 43 Stat. 1058.)

96. Superintendents of delivery and assistant superintendents of delivery at certain post offices; salaries.—At post offices where the receipts are $14,000,000 but less than $20,000,000, there shall be a superintendent of delivery whose salary shall be the same as that provided for the superintendent of mails, and assistant superintendents of delivery at the salaries provided for assistant superintendents of mails. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 3, 43 Stat. 1058.)

97. Promotion of supervisory employees on advancement of office to higher grade.—When an office advances to a higher grade because of increased gross postal receipts for a calendar year, promotion of all supervisory employees shall be made to the corresponding grade at the higher salary provided for the same titles or designations under the higher classification of the office based on its postal receipts. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 3, 43 Stat. 1058.)

98. Minimum of salaries of employees in supervisory grades.—No employee in the supervisory grades shall receive a salary less than $100 more than that paid to the highest grade of clerk or special clerk. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 3, 43 Stat. 1058.)

99. Expenses of supervisory employees.—Supervisory employees of post offices shall be paid their actual expenses as fixed by law. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 2, 43 Stat. 1055.)

100. Grades of certain employees designated by titles for which more than one grade of salary is provided.—In the readjustment of salaries of all employees above the highest grade for special clerks, those designated on December 31, 1924, by titles for which more than one grade of salary is provided shall be placed in the same relative grade and designation and receive the increased salary provided for. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 3, 43 Stat. 1058.)

101. Messengers, watchmen, and laborers in first and second class post offices; grades; salaries; promotion; substitute watchmen, etc.; pay.—Messengers, watchmen, and laborers in first and second class post offices shall be divided into two grades, as follows: First grade, salary $1,500; second grade, salary $1,600. Watchmen, messengers, and laborers shall be promoted to the second grade after one year's satisfactory service in grade 1. The pay of substitute watchmen, messengers, and laborers shall be at the rate of 55 cents per hour. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 5, 43 Stat. 1060.)

102. Excess of number of clerks appropriated for for particular grades.—The Postmaster General to carry out the provisions of this chapter may exceed the number of clerks appropriated for for particular grades. (Mar. 3, 1917, c. 162, § 1, 39 Stat. 1002; Apr. 24, 1920, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 577.)

103. Clerks in first and second class post offices and letter carriers in City Delivery Service; grades; salaries; readjustment of grades.—Clerks in first and second class post offices and letter carriers in the City Delivery Service shall be divided into five grades as follows: First grade—salary, $1,700; second grade—salary, $1,800; third grade—salary, $1,900; fourth grade—salary, $2,000; fifth grade—salary, $2,100. In the readjustment of grades for clerks at first and second class post offices and letter carriers in the City Delivery Service to conform to the grades herein provided, each of the various grades shall include the grade of the same number existing on December 31, 1924. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2513, 34 Stat. 1206; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 4, 43 Stat. 1059.)

104. Substitute clerks in first and second class offices and substitute letter carriers appointed regular clerks or carriers; credit for time served as substitutes.—Substitute clerks in first and second class post offices and substitute letter carriers in the City Delivery Service when appointed regular clerks or carriers shall have credit for actual time served on a basis of one year for each three hundred and six days of eight hours served as substitute, and appointed to the grade to which such clerk or carrier would have progressed had his original appointment as substitute been to grade 1. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 143, 37 Stat. 796; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 4, 43 Stat. 1059.)

105. Substitute clerks at other than first and second class offices; other temporary employees.—Except as otherwise provided substitute clerks when assigned to perform the work of regular employees absent on vacations, or when performing auxiliary or temporary work, shall be paid at the rate of 30 cents an hour unless increased under section 676 of Title 5. Other temporary employees connected with the Postal Service shall be paid at the usual rate for each day's service. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2513, 34 Stat. 1213; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 143, 37 Stat. 796.)

106. Salaries of carriers and substitutes in Village Delivery Service.—The pay of carriers in the Village Delivery Service, under such rules and regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe, shall be from $1,150 to $1,350 per annum. The pay of substitute letter carriers in the Village Delivery Service shall be at the rate of 50 cents per hour. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 10, 43 Stat. 1064.)

107. Credit to postal employees and substitute postal employees for time served in military, naval, or marine service.—Postal employees and substitute postal employees who served in the military, marine, or naval service of the United States during the World War and have not reached the maximum grade of salary shall receive credit for all time served in the military, marine, or naval service on the basis of one day's credit of eight hours in the Postal Service for each day served in the military, marine, or naval service, and be promoted to the grade to which such postal employee or substitute postal employee would have progressed had his original appointment as substitute been to grade 1. This provision shall apply to postal employees and substitute postal employees who were in the Postal Service on October 1, 1920. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 11, 43 Stat. 1065.)

108. Promotion of clerks in first and second class offices and letter carriers in City Delivery Service.—Clerks in first and second class post offices and letter carriers in the City Delivery Service shall be promoted successively after one year's satisfactory service in each grade to the next higher grade until they reach the fifth grade. All promotions shall be made at the beginning of the quarter following one year's satisfactory service in the grade. (Feb. 21, 1879, c. 95, § 4, 20 Stat. 317; Aug. 2, 1882, c. 373, § 2, 22 Stat. 185; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 4, 43 Stat. 1059.

109. Same.—No promotion shall be made except upon evidence satisfactory to the Post Office Department of the efficiency and faithfulness of the employee during the preceding year. The Post Office Department may reduce a clerk or carrier from a higher to a lower grade whenever his efficiency falls below a fair standard or whenever necessary for purposes of discipline. Clerks and carriers of the highest grade in their respective offices shall be eligible for promotion to the higher positions in said post offices. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2513, 34 Stat. 1206.)

110. Special clerks; grades; salaries; adjustment of grades; promotion.—There shall be two grades of special clerks, as follows: First grade—salary, $2,200; second grade—salary, $2,300. In the adjustment of grades for special clerks to conform to the grades herein provided special clerk grade 1 shall include grade 1 existing on December 31, 1924, and special clerk grade 2 shall include grade 2 existing on that date. In all special clerk promotions the senior competent employee shall have preference. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 4, 43 Stat. 1059.)

111. Special clerks; executive, finance, money-order, postal-savings, registry, mailing, and other divisions of first-class offices.—As a reward for faithful and meritorious service, special clerks may be appointed in the executive, finance, money-order, postal-savings, registry, mailing, and other divisions of first-class post offices. Clerks in the executive, finance, money-order, postal-savings, registry, and other divisions of first-class post offices who were designated as special clerks, finance clerks, cashiers, foremen, bookkeepers, chief stamp clerks, chief mailing clerks, and stenographers on June 30, 1920, and who were, on and after July 1, 1920, assigned as clerks of grade 5 shall, unless they were demoted for cause, be given the designation and status of special clerks, and assigned to the first or second grade. Clerks who have been designated as special clerks shall not be demoted except for cause. (July 21, 1921, c. 50, § 2, 42 Stat. 144.)

112. Auxiliary and substitute employees.—Auxiliary employees may be employed at offices of the first and second classes and in the City Delivery Service. Such employees shall be required to work not less than two hours daily, and may serve as substitutes and shall be eligible for appointment as clerks and carriers of the first grade.

Substitutes may be employed who shall be eligible for appointment as auxiliary employees and as clerks and carriers of the first grade. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2513, 34 Stat. 1206.)

113. Pay of substitute, temporary, or auxiliary clerks at first and second class offices and substitute letter carriers in City Delivery Service.—The pay of substitute, temporary, or auxiliary clerks at first and second class post offices and substitute letter carriers in the City Delivery Service shall be at the rate of 65 cents per hour. (Mar. 9, 1914, c. 33, 38 Stat. 299; July 27, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 412; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 4, 43 Stat. 1059.)

114. No distinction in salary between carriers assigned to collection and to delivery duty.—There shall be no distinction in salary made between letter carriers assigned to collection duty and letter carriers assigned to delivery duty. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 417.)

115. Salaries of marine carriers assigned to Detroit River Marine Service.—Marine carriers assigned to the Detroit River Marine Service shall be paid an annual salary of $300 in excess of the highest salary paid carriers in the City Delivery Service. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 417; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 4, 43 Stat. 1059.)

116. Employees in motor-vehicle service; classification; salaries; grades; readjustment; promotion; pay of substitutes; hours of work of certain employees; overtime pay.—Employees in the motor-vehicle service shall be classified as follows: Superintendents, $2,400, $2,600, $2,800, $3,000, $3,400, $3,600, $3,800, $4,000, and $5,000 per annum; assistant superintendents, $2,500, $2,600, and $2,800 per annum; chiefs of records, $2,200, $2,300, $2,400, $2,500, $2,600, $2,800, and $3,000; chiefs of supplies, $2,200, $2,300, and $2,400; chief dispatchers, $2,300 and $2,500; route supervisors, $2,400, $2,500, and $2,600; dispatchers, $2,100, $2,200, and $2,300; chief mechanics, $2,400, $2,500, $2,600, $2,800, and $3,000; mechanics in charge, $2,200, $2,300, and $2,400, and special mechanics, $2,100, $2,200, and $2,300. Assistant superintendents shall not be authorized at offices where the salary of the superintendent is less than $3,000 per annum. General mechanics employed in the motor-vehicle service shall be divided into three grades: First grade, salary $1,900; second grade, salary $2,000; third grade, salary $2,100; and clerks employed in the motor-vehicle service shall be divided into five grades, as follows: First grade, salary $1,700; second grade, salary $1,800; third grade, salary $1,900; fourth grade, salary $2,000; fifth grade, salary $2,100. In the readjustment of grades for clerks in the motor-vehicle service to conform to the grades above provided, each of the various grades shall include the grade of the same number existing on December 31, 1924. General mechanics employed in the motor-vehicle service shall be promoted successively after one year's satisfactory service in each grade to the next higher grade until they reach the third grade, and clerks employed in the motor-vehicle service shall be promoted successively after one year's satisfactory service in each grade to the next higher grade until they reach the fifth grade, at the respective offices where employed, and promotion shall be made at the beginning of the quarter following one year's satisfactory service in the grade. At first-class post offices there shall be two grades of special clerks in the motor-vehicle service—grade 1, salary $2,200; grade 2, salary $2,300. In the readjustment of grades for special clerks to conform to the grades herein provided, special clerk, grade 1, shall include special clerk, grade 1, existing on December 31, 1924, and special clerk, grade 2, shall include special clerk, grade 2, existing on that date.

Mechanics' helpers employed in the motor-vehicle service shall receive a salary of $1,600 per annum. On satisfactory evidence of their qualifications after one year's service mechanics' helpers shall be promoted to the first grade of general mechanics as vacancies may occur.

Driver-mechanics employed in the motor-vehicle service shall be divided into five grades: First grade, salary $1,600; second grade, salary $1,700; third grade, salary $1,800; fourth grade, salary $1,900; fifth grade, salary $2,000; and garagemen-drivers employed in the motor-vehicle service shall be divided into two grades: First grade, salary $1,550; second grade, salary $1,650. In the readjustment of salaries provided for in this title all driver-mechanics shall be classified in the respective grades as follows: Those with less than one year's service shall be placed in grade 1; those with more than one year's service and less than two years' service shall be placed in grade 2; those with more than two years' service and less than three years' service shall be placed in grade 3; those with more than three years' service and less than four years' service shall be placed in grade 4; those with more than four years' service shall be placed in grade 5. Driver-mechanics employed in the motor-vehicle service shall be promoted successively after one year's satisfactory service in each grade to the next higher grade until they reach the fifth grade at the respective offices where employed. Garagemen-drivers in the motor-vehicle service shall be promoted after one year's satisfactory service in the first grade to the second grade at the respective offices where employed, and promotions of driver-mechanics and garagemen-drivers shall be made at the beginning of the quarter following one year's satisfactory service in the grade.

The pay of substitute, temporary, or auxiliary employees in the motor-vehicle service shall be as follows: Special mechanics at the rate of 75 cents per hour; general mechanics at the rate of 70 cents per hour; clerks and driver-mechanics at the rate of 65 cents per hour; and garagemen-drivers at the rate of 55 cents per hour.

Special mechanics, general mechanics, mechanics' helpers, driver-mechanics, and garagemen-drivers in the motor-vehicle service shall be required to work not more than eight hours a day. The eight hours of service shall not extend over a longer period than ten consecutive hours, and the schedules of duties of the employees shall be regulated accordingly. In cases of emergency, or if the needs of the service require, special clerks, clerks, special mechanics, general mechanics, mechanics' helpers, driver-mechanics, and garagemen-drivers in the motor-vehicle service can be required to work in excess of eight hours per day, and for such overtime service they shall be paid on the basis of the annual pay received by such employees. In computing the compensation for such overtime the annual salary or compensation for such employees shall be divided by three hundred and six, the number of working days in the year less all Sundays and legal holidays enumerated in section 119 of this title; the quotient thus obtained will be the daily compensation which divided by eight will give the hourly compensation for such overtime service. When the needs of the service require the employment on Sundays and holidays of route supervisors, special clerks, clerks, dispatchers, mechanics in charge, special mechanics, general mechanics, mechanics' helpers, driver-mechanics, and garagemen-drivers in the motor-vehicle service, they shall be allowed compensatory time on one day within six days next succeeding the Sunday, except the last three Sundays in the calendar year, and on one day within thirty days next succeeding the holiday and the last three Sundays in the year on which service is performed: Provided, however, That the Postmaster General may, if the exigencies of the service require it, authorize the payment of overtime in lieu of compensatory time for service on Sundays and holidays. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 6, 43 Stat. 1060.)

117. Hours of work for special clerks, clerks, and laborers in first and second class offices, and carriers in City Delivery Service; overtime pay.—Special clerks, clerks, and laborers, in the first and second class post offices and carriers in the City Delivery Service shall be required to work not more than eight hours a day. The eight hours of service shall not extend over a longer period than ten consecutive hours, and the schedules of duty of the employees shall be regulated accordingly. In cases of emergency, or if the needs of the service require, and it is not practicable to employ substitutes, special clerks, clerks, and laborers, in first and second class post offices and carriers in the City Delivery Service can be required to work in excess of eight hours per day, and for such overtime service they shall be paid on the basis of the annual pay received by such employees. In computing compensation for such overtime the annual salary or compensation for such employees shall be divided by three hundred and six, the number of working days in the year less all Sundays and legal holidays enumerated in section 119 of this title; the quotient thus obtained will be the daily compensation which divided by eight will give the hourly compensation for such overtime service. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 241, § 3, 36 Stat. 1339; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 5, 37 Stat. 554; July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 416; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 4, 43 Stat. 1059.)

118. Compensatory time to foremen, special clerks, carriers, watchmen, messengers, or laborers, at first and second class offices for work on Sundays or holidays; overtime in lieu thereof.—When the needs of the service require the employment on Sundays and holidays of foremen, special clerks, clerks, carriers, watchmen, messengers, or laborers at first and second class post offices they shall be allowed compensatory time on one day within six days next succeeding the Sunday, except the last three Sundays in the calendar year, and on one day within thirty days next succeeding the holiday and the last three Sundays in the year on which service is performed: Provided, however, That the Postmaster General may, if the exigencies of the service require it, authorize the payment of overtime for service on the last three Sundays in the calendar year or on Christmas Day in lieu of compensatory time. (Mar. 3, 1917, c. 162, § 1, 39 Stat. 1062; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 4, 43 Stat. 1059.)

119. Holidays in Postal Service.—For the purpose of sections 116, 118, and 616 of this title holidays shall be New Year's Day (January 1); Washington's Birthday (February 22); Memorial Day (May 30); Independence Day (July 4); the first Monday in September, known as Labor Day; Christmas (December 25); and such other days as the President of the United States may set apart as fast or thanksgiving days. All days, other than the holidays enumerated herein, set aside by the President of the United States as holidays to be observed by the other departments of the Government throughout the United States shall be construed as applicable to the Postal Service in the same manner and to the same extent as the executive departments. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 416; Feb. 28, 1919, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 1193; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 4, 43 Stat. 1059.)

120. Compensatory time to supervisory employees.—For services required on Sundays of supervisory officers in first and second class post offices, compensatory time off during working days in amount equal to that of the Sunday employment may be allowed, under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 241, § 3, 36 Stat. 1339.)

121. Reduction in salary; restoration to former grade or advancement to intermediate grade.—Whenever an employee provided for in this chapter shall have been reduced in salary for any cause, he may be restored to his former grade or advanced to an intermediate grade at the beginning of any quarter following the reduction, and a restoration to a former grade or advancement to an intermediate grade shall not be construed as a promotion within the meaning of the law prohibiting advancement of more than one grade within one year. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 11, 43 Stat. 1064.)

122. Promotion regardless of increase of pay.—All employees provided for in this chapter in automatic grades who have not reached the maximum grades to which they are entitled to progress automatically, shall be promoted at the beginning of the quarter following the completion of one year's satisfactory service since their last promotion, regardless of any increases in salaries granted them by the provisions of this chapter. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 11, 43 Stat. 1065.)

123. Promotion of employee whose promotion withheld.—Whenever the promotion of an employee provided for in this chapter is withheld because of unsatisfactory service, such employee may be promoted at the beginning of the second quarter thereafter, or of any subsequent quarter, on evidence that his record has been satisfactory during the intervening period. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 11, 43 Stat. 1064.)

124. Substitutes for clerks; first or second class post offices, or carriers in City Free Delivery Service.—When any clerk in post offices of the first or second class, or any letter carrier in the City Free Delivery Service, is absent from duty from any cause, other than the fifteen days' annual leave with pay allowed by law, the Postmaster General, under such regulations as he may prescribe, may authorize the employment of a substitute for such work, and payment therefor from the lapsed salary of such absent clerk, or letter carrier, at a rate not to exceed the pay of the grade of work performed by such substitute. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1480, § 1, 33 Stat. 1085.)

125. Same; employment to prevent overtime.—Whenever practicable, in case of emergency or otherwise, if a substitute is available the postmaster shall not employ a regular clerk overtime. (Feb. 28, 1919, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 1192.)

126. Same; clerks subpœnaed as witnesses.—The Postmaster General may employ substitutes in the place of clerks subpœnaed as witnesses in the United States courts in cases arising under the United States laws, and expend for the employment of such substitutes a sum equal to the compensation allowed the clerks during the time actually absent from duty attending court. (June 13, 1898, c. 446, § 1, 30 Stat. 440.)

127. Same; carriers on annual leave.—The Postmaster General may employ, when necessary, during the time leave of absence is granted to letter carriers at free-delivery offices, such number of substitute letter carriers as may be deemed advisable. (June 27, 1884, c. 126, 23 Stat. 60.)

128. Assignment of clerks to duty.—Postmasters are authorized, with the approval of the Postmaster General, to assign at any time any clerk or employee of their respective post offices to duty in any branch thereof: Provided always, That any employee shall be paid from money-order funds for such time as he is engaged in money-order work. (Mar. 3, 1885, c. 342, § 1, 23 Stat. 385.)

129. Transfer of clerks, carriers, etc.—The Postmaster General may, when the interest of the service requires, transfer any clerk to the position of carrier or any carrier to the position of clerk and interchange the clerical force between the post office and the motor-vehicle service, such transfer or interchange to be made to the corresponding grade and salary of the clerk or carrier transferred or interchanged. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 11, 43 Stat. 1065.)

130. Computation of service on transfer.—The time which such clerk or carrier shall have served in the grade from which such transfer was made shall be counted in connection with the service to which such transfer may be made in computing the time of service necessary to entitle such employees to promotion: Provided, That no clerk or carrier shall be promoted more than one grade within any one year's period of service. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2513, 34 Stat. 1206.)

131. No reduction in rank.—No employee in the Postal Service shall be reduced in rank or salary as the result of the provisions of this title. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 11, 43 Stat. 1065.)

132. Bonds of assistant postmasters and cashiers at first, second, and third class offices.—Assistant postmasters and cashiers at first, second, and third class post offices, and when deemed necessary by the Postmaster General for the better protection of the interests of the Government any other employees in such offices, shall, before entering upon the duties of their office, give bond to the United States with good and approved security, and in such penalty as the Postmaster General shall prescribe, conditioned for the faithful discharge of all duties and trusts imposed upon them either by law or the rules and regulations of the Post Office Department. (June 13, 1898, c. 446, § 3, 30 Stat. 444.)

133. Extra labor at offices.—Whenever unusual business accrues at any post office, the Postmaster General shall make a special order allowing reasonable compensation for clerical service, and a proportionate increase of salary to the postmaster during the time of such extraordinary business. (R. S. § 3863.)

134. Navy mail clerks and assistants.—Enlisted men of the United States Navy or Marine Corps may, upon selection by the Secretary of the Navy, be designated by the Post Office Department as "Navy mail clerks" and "assistant Navy mail clerks," who shall be authorized to receive and open all pouches and sacks of mail addressed to naval vessels, to make proper delivery of such mail, to receive matter for transmission in the mails, to receipt for registered matter (keeping an accurate record thereof), to keep and have for sale an adequate supply of postage stamps, to make up and dispatch mails, and other postal duties as may be authorized by the Postmaster General, all in accordance with such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the commanding officer of the vessel or of the squadron to which the vessel is attached. Such enlisted men may also be designated as Navy mail clerks and assistant Navy mail clerks with expeditionary forces on shore or for duty at stations and shore establishments under the Navy Department where the services of such mail clerks and assistant mail clerks are necessary. Each mail clerk and assistant mail clerk shall take the oath of office prescribed for employees of the Postal Service and shall give bond to the United States in the sum of $1,000 for the faithful performance of his duties as such clerk, and shall be amenable in all respects to naval discipline, except that, as to their duties as such clerks, the commanding officers of the vessels upon which they are stationed shall require them to be governed by the postal laws and regulations of the United States. Whenever necessity arises therefor any assistant mail clerk may be required by the commanding officer of the vessel upon which he is stationed or of the squadron to which said vessel is attached to perform the duties of mail clerk. They shall receive as compensation for such services from the Navy Department, in addition to that paid them of the grade to which they are assigned, such sum in the case of mail clerks not to exceed $500 per annum, and in that of assistant mail clerks not to exceed $300 per annum, as may be determined and allowed by the Navy Department. (May 27, 1908, c. 206, 35 Stat. 417; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 11, 37 Stat. 560; Mar. 4, 1917, c. 180, 39 Stat. 1188; July 1, 1918, c. 114, 40 Stat. 718.)

135. Same; bonds.—Every Navy mail clerk and assistant Navy mail clerk shall give bond to the United States in such penal sum as the Postmaster General may deem sufficient for the faithful performance of his duties as such clerk. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 3, 37 Stat. 554.)

Section 151. Letter-carrier delivery.—Letter carriers shall be employed for the free delivery of mail matter, as frequently as the public business may require, at every incorporated city, village, or borough containing a population of fifty thousand within its corporate limits, and may be so employed at every place containing a population of not less than ten thousand, within its corporate limits, according to the last general census, taken by authority of State or United States law, or at any post office which produced a gross revenue, for the preceding fiscal year, of not less than $10,000. This section shall not affect the existence of the free delivery in places where it was established prior to January 3, 1887. In offices where the free delivery shall be established, such free delivery shall not be abolished by reason of decrease below ten thousand in population or $10,000 in gross postal revenue, except in the discretion of the Postmaster General. (Jan. 3, 1887, c. 14, § 1, 24 Stat. 355.)

152. Letter carriers on consolidation of offices.—When two or more post offices situated within the corporate limits of any city, village, or borough are consolidated by authority of the Postmaster General, and the said offices together produced a gross revenue for the preceding fiscal year of not less than $10,000, letter carriers may be employed for the free delivery of mail matter in like manner as if any one of such post offices had produced such revenue in said fiscal year. (Feb. 16, 1911, c. 87, 36 Stat. 911.)

153. Experimental delivery.—Experimental mail delivery may be established, under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe, in towns and villages having post offices of the second or third class that are not by law entitled to free-delivery service. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 9, 37 Stat. 559.)

154. Uniform for carriers.—The Postmaster General may prescribe a uniform dress to be worn by letter carriers. (R. S. § 3867.)

155. Receiving boxes.—The Postmaster General may establish, in places where letter carriers are employed, and in other places where, in his judgment, the public convenience requires it, receiving boxes for the deposit of mail matter, and shall cause the matter deposited therein to be collected as often as public convenience may require. (R. S. § 3868.)

156. Same; in buildings; chutes as part of.—No boxes for the collection of mail matter by carriers shall be placed inside of any building except a public building, or a building which is freely open to the public during business hours, or a railroad station, and the Postmaster General is authorized, in his discretion, to declare by official order that the chutes connected with mail boxes that are attached to any chute or device which may be approved by him are a part of said receiving boxes and under the exclusive care and custody of the Post Office Department. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 388, § 1, 24 Stat. 569; Jan. 23, 1893, c. 41, 27 Stat. 421.)

157. Bonds of carriers.—Every letter carrier shall give bonds, with sureties, to be approved by the Postmaster General, for the safe custody and delivery of all mail matter, and the faithful account and payment of all money received by him. (R. S. § 3870.)

158. Branch offices.—The Postmaster General, when the public convenience requires it, may establish within any post-office delivery one or more branch offices for the receipt and delivery of mail matter and the sale of stamps and envelopes; and he shall prescribe the rules and regulations for the government thereof. But no letter shall be sent for delivery to any branch office contrary to the request of the party to whom it is addressed. (R. S. § 3871.)

159. Same; in Hawaii, Porto Rico, and Virgin Islands.—The Postmaster General shall establish in the islands of Hawaii, in Porto Rico and the Virgin Islands under appropriate regulations to be prescribed by him, such branch offices, nonaccounting offices, or stations of Honolulu, San Juan, and Charlotte Amalie, respectively, as in his judgment may be necessary to improve the service and as may be required for the convenience of the public. Such branches, nonaccounting offices, and stations shall be conducted under the name of the existing post offices affected so as to maintain the identity of the offices concerned. (Oct. 28, 1919, c. 86, 41 Stat. 323.)

160. Restrictions on establishing stations and branches.—No station, substation, or branch post office shall be established beyond the corporate limits or boundaries of any city or town in which the principal office to which such station, substation, or branch office is attached is located, except in cases of villages, towns, or cities of fifteen hundred or more inhabitants not distant more than five miles as near as may be from the outer boundary or limits of such city or town in which the principal office is located. (June 9, 1896, c. 386, 29 Stat. 313.)

161. Contracts for conduct of contract stations.—The Postmaster General may enter into contracts for the conduct of contract stations for a term not exceeding two years. (May 18, 1916, c. 126, § 15, 39 Stat. 163.)

162. Extra postage or carriers' fees prohibited.—No extra postage or carriers' fees shall be charged or collected upon any mail matter collected or delivered by carriers. (R. S. § 3873.)

163. Expenses of carriers and branch offices.—All expenses of letter carriers, branch offices, and receiving boxes, or incident thereto, shall be kept and reported in a separate account, and shall be shown in comparison with the proceeds from postage on local mail matter at each office, and the Postmaster General shall be guided in the expenditures for this branch of the service by the income derived therefrom. (R. S. § 3874.)

164. Contracts for supplies for free-delivery service.—The Postmaster General may, if in his judgment the good of the service so requires make contract for necessary supplies for the free-delivery service for a period not exceeding four years. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 374, § 1, 25 Stat. 844.)

165. Special delivery; stamps; deficient postage.—A special stamp of the face valuation of 10 cents may be provided and issued, whenever deemed advisable or expedient, in such form and bearing such device as may meet the approval of the Postmaster General, which, when attached to a letter or article of mailable matter weighing not more than two pounds, in addition to the lawful postage thereon, shall be regarded as entitling such letter or other article to immediate delivery within the limits and at the offices specified in section 167 of this title. The omission by the sender to place the lawful postage upon a letter bearing such special-delivery stamp and otherwise entitled to immediate delivery under the provisions of this section shall not hinder or delay the transmission and delivery thereof as provided herein, but such lawful postage shall be collected upon its delivery, in the manner provided by law for the collection of deficient postage resulting from the overweight of letters. (Mar. 3, 1885, c. 342, § 3, 23 Stat. 387; Aug. 4, 1886, c. 901, § 1, 24 Stat. 220; Jan. 16, 1889, c. 50, 25 Stat. 650.)

166. Same; stamps for mail matter weighing more than two pounds.—(a) To procure the immediate delivery of mail matter weighing more than two pounds and not more than ten pounds, stamps of the value of 15 cents shall be affixed (in addition to the regular postage).

(b) To procure the immediate delivery of mail matter weighing more than ten pounds, stamps of the value of 20 cents shall be affixed (in addition to the regular postage).

(c) The Postmaster General is authorized to provide and issue special-delivery stamps of the denominations of 15 and 20 cents. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 212, 43 Stat. 1069.)

167. Same; offices at which special delivery may be had; messengers; contracts and compensation.—Every article of mailable matter upon which the proper special stamp shall be duly affixed, shall be entitled to immediate delivery, within the carrier-delivery limit of any free-delivery office, and within one mile of any other post office which the Postmaster General shall at any time designate as a special-delivery post office. The postmaster shall be responsible for such immediate delivery of every such article, and shall cause delivery to be made of all such articles received at his office bearing such stamp and entitled to delivery thereat, and may employ any persons, including clerks and assistants, at third and fourth class offices, as messengers, on such terms as he shall fix as compensation for such delivery; and to defray the expense thereof, such postmaster shall be entitled, upon the adjustment of his quarterly account, to 80 per centum of the face value of all such special-delivery stamps received at his office and recorded, according to this chapter and regulations of the Post Office Department during the quarter; and such allowance shall be in full of all the expenses of such delivery. The Postmaster General may, in his discretion, direct any free-delivery office to be excepted from the foregoing provision, and require the delivery to be made entirely by special messengers, according to the provisions of sections 169 and 170 of this title. He may contract for the immediate delivery of all articles from any post office at any price less than 8 cents per piece, when he shall deem it expedient. (Aug. 4, 1886, c. 901, § 1, 24 Stat. 220.)

168. Same; use of ordinary stamps.—When, in addition to the stamps required to transmit any letter or package of mail matter through the mails, there shall be attached to the envelope or covering ordinary postage stamps of any denomination equivalent to the value fixed by law to procure the immediate delivery of any mail matter, with the words "special delivery" or their equivalent written or printed on the envelope or covering, under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe, said letter or package shall be handled, transmitted, and delivered in all respects as though it bore a regulation special-delivery stamp. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2561, 34 Stat. 1244; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 213, 43 Stat. 1069.)

169. Same; employment to deliver; receipts.—To provide for the immediate delivery of letters bearing the special stamp, the postmaster may, with the approval of the Postmaster General, employ such person or persons as may actually be required for such service, who, upon the delivery of such letter, will procure a receipt from the party addressed, or some one authorized to receive it, in a book to be furnished for the purpose, which shall, when not in use, be kept in the post office, and at all times subject to examination by an inspector of the department; but the Postmaster General may, under such rules and regulations as he shall prescribe, authorize the delivery of special-delivery matter without obtaining a receipt therefor: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed as excusing the delivery of special-delivery matter by messenger in the first instance. (Mar. 3, 1885, c. 342, § 5, 23 Stat. 388; June 19, 1922, c. 227, § 1, 42 Stat. 656.)

170. Same; compensation of persons employed.—To provide for the payment of such persons as may be employed for this service, the postmaster at any office designated by section 167 of this title shall keep a record of the number of letters received at such office bearing such special stamp, which number shall correspond with the number entered in the receipt books heretofore specified, and at the end of each month he may pay to such person or persons employed a sum not exceeding 80 per centum of the face value of all stamps of the face value of 10 cents received and recorded during that month. For the special delivery of mail matter weighing more than two pounds and not more than ten pounds, 11 cents may be paid to the messenger or other person making such delivery, and for the special delivery of mail matter weighing more than ten pounds, 15 cents may be so paid. Nothing in this section and sections 165 and 169 of this title shall interfere with the prompt delivery of letters as now provided by law or regulations of the Post Office Department. (Mar. 3, 1885, c. 342, § 6, 23 Stat. 388; Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1009, § 2, 32 Stat. 1175; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 212, 43 Stat. 1069.)

171. Same; regulations.—The Postmaster General shall prescribe suitable regulations, not inconsistent with law, for the performance of the immediate-delivery service, the keeping of the records and rendering of accounts thereof, and all matters connected therewith, and may prescribe the hours within which such immediate delivery shall be made at any post office. (Aug. 4, 1886, c. 901, § 2, 24 Stat. 221.)

172. Same; false returns; compensation in case of.—Any postmaster, or any assistant postmaster, clerk, or employee of a postmaster, who shall make any false return or record of the receipt or delivery of any article of mailable matter as being stamped with a special-delivery stamp, or shall make any false return of the number of articles specially delivered from his office, for the purpose of increasing his compensation, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500, or imprisoned for a term of not less than thirty days nor more than one year, or both such fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the court; and whenever, upon evidence deemed satisfactory to him, the Postmaster General shall determine that any such false return has been made, he may, by order, fix absolutely the compensation of the postmaster for such special delivery during any quarter or quarters which he shall deem affected by such false return, and the General Accounting Office shall adjust the postmaster's account accordingly. (Aug. 4, 1886, c. 901, § 3, 24 Stat. 221; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

173. Same; persons employed deemed postal employees.—Any person employed to make immediate delivery of letters or other mail matter shall be deemed an employee of the postal service, whether he may have been sworn or not, or temporarily or permanently employed, and as such employee shall be liable to any penalties or punishments provided by law for the improper detention, delay, secretion, rifling, embezzlement, purloining, or destruction of any letter or other article of mail matter, or the contents thereof, intrusted to him for delivery or placed in his custody. (Aug. 4, 1886, c. 901, § 4, 24 Stat. 221.)

174. Same; messengers deemed carriers.—Every special-delivery messenger, when actually engaged in carrying or delivering letters or other mail matter under contract, directly or indirectly, with the Post Office Department, or employed by the Post Office Department, shall be deemed a carrier or person intrusted with the mail and having custody thereof within the meaning of sections 320, 321, and 324 of Title 18. (Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1009, § 4, 32 Stat. 1176.)

175. Same; allowance for car fare for messengers in first-class offices; delivery in first and second class offices.—Out of the revenue arising from special-delivery business the Postmaster General may allow expenditures by postmasters at first-class post offices, under regulations to be established by him, for car fare for special-delivery messengers in emergent cases where immediate delivery in the usual way is impracticable, not to exceed in the aggregate, for all offices, $10,000 a year. At first and second class post offices the Postmaster General may establish rules under which special delivery may be effected by any salaried clerk or employee thereof, and the lawful special-delivery fees allowed therefor, in cases where such delivery can not be made by regular messengers. (June 2, 1900, c. 613, § 1, 31 Stat. 260.)

176. Same; assistant superintendents; per diem.—The assistant superintendents of free-delivery shall be allowed a per diem of $4 in lieu of all expenses when traveling on business of the department. (Feb. 24, 1899, c. 187, § 1, 30 Stat. 884.)

211. Post-office inspectors; administering oaths.

Section 191. Extension of service.—Rural mail delivery shall be extended so as to serve, as nearly as practicable, the entire rural population of the United States. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 423.)

192. Routes; classes; increase of length of routes and pay of carriers.—All rural mail-delivery routes shall be divided into two classes to be known as—

Standard horse-drawn vehicle routes, which shall be twenty-four miles in length, and

Standard motor-vehicle routes, which shall be fifty miles in length, and shall only be established when a majority of the proposed patrons who are heads of families residing upon such proposed routes shall by written petition ask the Post Office Department to establish the same.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the establishment of horse-drawn vehicle routes of less length than the standard of twenty-four miles. If, in the discretion of the Postmaster General, in order to render more complete service, it should be necessary to do so the Postmaster General may increase the length of routes not to exceed 50 per centum above the standards herein prescribed. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 423.)

193. Motor vehicles.—Nothing herein shall be construed, and no order shall be issued, to prevent the use of motor vehicles on horse-drawn vehicle routes. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 423.)

194. Carriers to furnish necessary vehicle equipment.—Carriers in rural mail-delivery service shall furnish all necessary vehicle equipment for prompt handling of the mail. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 423.)

195. Sufficient equipment.—The Postmaster General in his discretion may require all carriers to furnish sufficient equipment to properly handle postal business on their routes. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 423.)

196. Carriers; restrictions; carrying merchandise.—Letter carriers of the rural free-delivery service shall not solicit business or receive orders of any kind for any person, firm, or corporation, and shall not, during their hours of employment, carry any merchandise for hire: Provided, That said carriers may carry merchandise for hire for and upon the request of patrons residing upon their respective routes, whenever the same shall not interfere with the proper discharge of their official duties, and under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe. (Apr. 28, 1904, c. 1759, § 1, 33 Stat. 439; Mar. 4, 1915, No. 15, 38 Stat. 1227; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 8, 43 Stat. 1063.)

197. Salaries of carriers.—The salary of carriers in the Rural Mail Delivery Service for serving a rural route of twenty-four miles six days in the week shall be $1,800; on routes twenty-two miles and less than twenty-four miles, $1,728; on routes twenty miles and less than twenty-two miles, $1,620; on routes eighteen miles and less than twenty miles, $1,440; on routes sixteen miles and less than eighteen miles, $1,260; on routes fourteen miles and less than sixteen miles, $1,080; on routes twelve miles and less than fourteen miles, $1,008; on routes ten miles and less than twelve miles, $936; on routes eight miles and less than ten miles, $864; on routes six miles and less than eight miles, $792; on routes four miles and less than six miles, $720. Each rural carrier assigned to a route on which daily service is performed shall receive $30 per mile per annum for each mile said route is in excess of twenty-four miles or major fraction thereof, based on actual mileage, and each rural carrier assigned to a route on which triweekly service is performed shall receive $15 per mile for each mile said route is in excess of twenty-four miles or major fraction thereof, based on actual mileage. (Mar. 4, 1915, No. 15, 38 Stat. 1227; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 8, 43 Stat. 1063.)

198. Salaries of carriers serving triweekly routes.—A rural carrier serving one triweekly route shall be paid a salary and equipment allowance on the basis of a route one-half the length of the route served by him. A rural carrier serving two triweekly routes shall be paid a salary and equipment allowance on the basis of a route one-half of the combined length of the two routes. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 8, 43 Stat. 1064.)

199. Determination of pay of carriers and substitute carriers.—The pay of rural carriers and substitute rural carriers, which depends upon the length of the route, shall be determined in accordance with the records of the Post Office Department, which records shall be promptly corrected whenever the Postmaster General determines that such records are not correct. (Apr. 24, 1920, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 582.)

200. Deductions from salaries.—Deductions for failure to perform service on a standard rural delivery route for twenty-four miles and less shall not exceed the rate of pay per mile for service for twenty-four miles and less; and deductions for failure to perform service on mileage in excess of twenty-four miles shall not exceed the rate of compensation allowed for such excess mileage. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 8, 43 Stat. 1064.)

201. Substitute carriers.—Under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe, a substitute carrier may be employed at the expense of the regular carrier, to temporarily perform the service on any rural free-delivery mail route. (Apr. 21, 1902, c. 563, § 1, 32 Stat. 112.)

202. Rate of compensation of temporary carriers.—Acting or substitute rural letter carriers shall be paid at the usual rate for each day's service. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2513, 34 Stat. 1213.)

203. Carriers; leave of absence; substitutes.—Rural letter carriers after twelve months' service shall be allowed annual leave with pay not to exceed fifteen days; the substitutes for carriers on vacation to be paid during said service at the rate paid the carrier. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2513, 34 Stat. 1215.)

204. Compensation of carriers on water routes.—In the discretion of the Postmaster General the pay of any rural carrier on a water route who furnishes his own power boat and is employed during the summer months may be fixed at an amount not exceeding $900 in any one calendar year, unless increased under section 676 of Title 5. (Mar. 1, 1909, c. 232, 35 Stat. 669.)

205. Additional compensation to carriers carrying pouch mail to intermediate post offices.—The Postmaster General may, in his discretion, allow and pay additional compensation to rural letter carriers who are required to carry pouch mail to intermediate post offices, or for intersecting loop routes, in all cases where it appears that the carriage of such pouches increases the expense of the equipment required by the carrier or materially increases the amount of labor performed by him, such compensation not to exceed the sum of $12 per annum for each mile such carrier is required to carry such pouch or pouches. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 423.)

206. Carriers; equipment maintenance.—In addition to the salary herein provided, each carrier in Rural Mail Delivery Service shall be paid for equipment maintenance a sum equal to 4 cents per mile per day for each mile or major fraction of a mile scheduled. Payments for equipment maintenance as provided herein shall be at the same periods and in the same manner as payments for regular compensation to rural carriers. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 423; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 8, 43 Stat. 1064.)

207. Temporary reduction of pay of rural carriers.—The Postmaster General may, in his discretion, whenever for disciplinary purposes he deems it advisable to do so, reduce temporarily the pay of rural carriers. In no case shall such a reduction in pay be of more than one grade as fixed by law, nor extend over a greater period of time than one year. (Sept. 21, 1922, c. 363, 42 Stat. 993.)

208. Carrier on Lake Winnepesaukee.—The compensation of the carrier of mail on Lake Winnepesaukee from the post office at Laconia, New Hampshire, who furnishes his own equipment shall be $1,800 per annum unless increased under section 676, of Title 5. (Mar. 3, 1917, c. 162, § 1, 39 Stat. 1068; Feb. 28, 1919, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 1194.)

209. Classification of clerks in Rural Free Delivery Service not otherwise provided for.—The Postmaster General may classify clerks in the Rural Free Delivery Service into four classes, graded even hundreds of dollars, at $900, $1,000, $1,100, and not exceeding $1,200 per annum unless increased under section 676 of Title 5. (Apr. 21, 1902, c. 563, § 1, 32 Stat. 112.)

210. Allowance of expenses by Postmaster General.—The Postmaster General may allow such per diem and other incidental expenses in connection with the Rural Free Delivery Service as Congress may from time to time provide. (Apr. 21, 1902, c. 563, § 1, 32 Stat. 112.)

211. Post-office inspectors; administering oaths.—Post-office inspectors and examining inspectors in the Rural Free Delivery Service shall be authorized and empowered to administer oaths to carriers and other persons employed in said service or in connection with any business relating to the same. (Apr. 21, 1902, c. 563, § 1, 32 Stat. 113; Apr. 28, 1904, c. 1759, § 1, 33 Stat. 439; June 26, 1906, c. 3546, 34 Stat. 467.)

Section 221. Classification of mail matter.—Mailable matter shall be divided into four classes:

First, written matter;

Second, periodical publications;

Third, miscellaneous printed matter and other mailable matter not in the second, third, or fourth classes;

Fourth, merchandise and other mailable matter weighing not less than eight ounces and not in any other class. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 7, 20 Stat. 358; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, §§ 206, 207, 43 Stat. 1067.)

222. First-class matter.—Mailable matter of the first class shall embrace letters, postal cards, and all matters wholly or partly in writing, except as hereinafter provided. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 8, 20 Stat. 358.)

223. Same; limit of weight.—The limit of weight of mail matter of the first class shall be the same as is applicable to mail of the fourth class. (May 18, 1916, c. 126, § 11, 39 Stat. 162.)

224. Second-class matter.—Mailable matter of the second class shall embrace all newspapers and other periodical publications which are issued at stated intervals, and as frequently as four times a year and are within the conditions named in sections 225 and 226 of this title. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 10, 20 Stat. 359.)

225. Same; examination; advertisements attached to periodicals.—Matter of the second class may be examined at the office of mailing, and if found to contain matter which is subject to a higher rate of postage, such matter shall be charged with postage at the rate to which the inclosed matter is subject. Nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prohibit the insertion in periodicals of advertisements attached permanently to the same. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 12, 20 Stat. 359.)

226. Same; conditions admitting publications to.—Except as otherwise provided by law, the conditions upon which a publication shall be admitted to the second class are as follows: First. It must regularly be issued at stated intervals, as frequently as four times a year, and bear a date of issue, and be numbered consecutively. Second. It must be issued from a known office of publication. Third. It must be formed of printed paper sheets, without board, cloth, leather, or other substantial binding, such as distinguish printed books for preservation from periodical publications. Fourth. It must be originated and published for the dissemination of information of a public character, or devoted to literature, the sciences, arts, or some special industry, and having a legitimate list of subscribers. Nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to admit to the second class rate regular publications designed primarily for advertising purposes, or for free circulation, or for circulation at nominal rates. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 14, 20 Stat. 359.)

227. Same; foreign periodicals as; publications violating copyright laws.—Foreign newspapers and other periodicals of the same general character as those admitted to the second class in the United States may, under the direction of the Postmaster General, on application of the publishers thereof or their agents, be transmitted through the mails at the same rates as if published in the United States. Nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to allow the transmission through the mails of any publication which violates any copyright granted by the United States. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 15, 20 Stat. 359.)

228. Same; supplements to periodicals.—Publishers of matter of the second class may without subjecting it to extra postage, fold within their regular issues a supplement; but in all cases the added matter must be germane to the publication which it supplements, that is to say, matter supplied in order to complete that to which it is added or supplemented, but omitted from the regular issue for want of space, time, or greater convenience, which supplement must in every case be issued with the publication. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 16, 20 Stat. 359.)

229. Same; publications of benevolent or professional societies, educational institutions, State boards, and trades-unions; advertisements; circulation.—All periodical publications issued from a known place of publication at stated intervals, and as frequently as four times a year, by or under the auspices of a benevolent or fraternal society or order organized under the lodge system and having a bona fide membership of not less than one thousand persons, or by a regularly incorporated institution of learning, or by a regularly established State institution of learning supported in whole or in part by public taxation, or by or under the auspices of a trades-union, and all publications of strictly professional, literary, historical, or scientific societies, including the bulletins issued by State boards of health, and by State boards or departments of public charities and corrections, shall be admitted to the mails as second-class matter, and the postage thereon shall be the same as on other second-class matter; and such periodical publications, issued by or under the auspices of benevolent or fraternal societies or orders or trades-unions, or by strictly professional, literary, historical, or scientific societies, shall have the right to carry advertising matter, whether such matter pertains to such benevolent or fraternal societies or orders, trades-unions, strictly professional, literary, historical, or scientific societies, or to other persons, institutions, or concerns; but such periodical publications, hereby permitted to carry advertising matter, must not be designed or published primarily for advertising purposes, and shall be originated and published to further the objects and purposes of such benevolent or fraternal societies or orders, trades-unions, or other societies, respectively; and all such periodicals shall be formed of printed paper sheets, without board, cloth, leather or other substantial binding, such as distinguish printed books for preservation from periodical publications. The circulation through the mails of periodical publications issued by, or under the auspices of, benevolent or fraternal societies or orders, or trades-unions, or by strictly professional, literary, historical, or scientific societies, as second-class mail matter, shall be limited to copies mailed to such members as pay therefor, either as a part of their dues or assessments, or otherwise, not less than 50 per centum of the regular subscription price; to other bona fide subscribers; to exchanges, and 10 per centum of such circulation as sample copies. When such members pay therefor as a part of their dues or assessments, individual subscriptions or receipts shall not be required. The office of publication of any such periodical publication shall be fixed by the association or body by which it is published, or by its executive board, and such publication shall be printed at such place and entered at the nearest post office thereto. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 1, 37 Stat. 550.)

230. Same; periodical publications of State departments of agriculture.—All periodical publications issued from a known place of publication at stated intervals as frequently as four times a year by State departments of agriculture shall be admitted to the mails as second-class mail matter: Provided, That such matter shall be published only for the purpose of furthering the objects of such departments: And provided further, That such publications shall not contain any advertising matter of any kind. (June 6, 1900, c. 801, 31 Stat. 660.)

231. Same; affidavit of publishers; prepayment of postage.—The Postmaster General, when in his judgment it shall be necessary, may prescribe, by regulation, an affidavit in form, to be taken by each publisher of any newspaper or periodical publication sent through the mails, or news agent who distributes any of such newspapers or periodical publications, or employee of such publisher or news agent, stating that he will not send, or knowingly permit to be sent, through the mails any copy or copies of such newspaper or periodical publications except to regular subscribers thereto, or news agents, without prepayment of the postage thereon at the rate of 1 cent for each two ounces or fractional part thereof; and if such publisher or news agent, or employee of such publisher or news agent, when required by the Postmaster General or any special agent of the Post Office Department to make such affidavit, shall refuse so to do, and shall thereafter, without having made such affidavit deposit any newspapers in the mail for transmission, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction, shall be fined not exceeding $1,000 for each refusal; and if any such person shall knowingly and willfully mail any such matter without the payment of postage, or procure the same to be done with the intent to avoid the prepayment of postage due thereon; or if any postmaster or post-office official shall knowingly permit any such matter to be mailed without prepayment of postage, he or they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than $1,000, or imprisoned not exceeding one year, one or both, in the discretion of the court. (Aug. 24, 1874, c. 456, § 9, 18 Stat. 233.)

232. Same; privileges annulled only after hearing.—When any publication has been accorded second-class mail privileges, the same shall not be suspended or annulled until a hearing shall have been granted to the parties interested. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 851, § 1, 31 Stat. 1107.)

233. Same; sworn statements relating to newspapers and other publications.—The editor, publisher, business manager, or owner of every newspaper, magazine, periodical, or other publication, except religious, fraternal, temperance, scientific, or other similar publications, shall file with the Postmaster General and the postmaster at the office at which said publication is entered, not later than the 1st day of April and the 1st day of October of each year, on blanks furnished by the Post Office Department, a sworn statement setting forth the names and post-office addresses of the editor and managing editor, publisher, business managers, and owners, and, in addition, the stockholders, if the publication be owned by a corporation; and also the names of known bondholders, mortgagees, or other security holders; and also, in the case of daily newspapers, the average of the number of copies of each issue of such publication sold or distributed to paid subscribers during the preceding six months. It shall not be necessary to include in such statement the names of persons owning less than 1 per centum of the total amount of stock, bonds, mortgages, or other securities. A copy of such sworn statement shall be published in the second issue of such newspaper, magazine, or other publication printed next after the filing of such statement. Any such publication shall be denied the privileges of the mail if it shall fail to comply with the provisions of this section within ten days after notice by registered letter of such failure. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 2, 37 Stat. 553.)

234. Same; paid editorials and reading matter marked "Advertisement."—All editorial or other reading matter published in any such newspaper, magazine, or periodical for the publication of which money or other valuable consideration is paid, accepted, or promised shall be plainly marked "Advertisement." Any editor or publisher printing editorial or other reading matter for which compensation is paid, accepted, or promised without so marking the same, shall upon conviction in any court having jurisdiction, be fined not less than $50 nor more than $500. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 2, 37 Stat. 554.)

235. Third-class matter.—Mail matter of the third class shall include books, circulars, and other matter wholly in print (except newspapers and other periodicals entered as second-class matter), proof sheets, corrected proof sheets, and manuscript copy accompanying same, merchandise (including farm and factory products) and all other mailable matter not included in the first or second class, or in the fourth class as defined in section 240 of this title. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 206 (a), 43 Stat. 1067.)

236. Same; circular defined.—The term "circular" is defined to be a printed letter, which, according to internal evidence, is being sent in identical terms to several persons. A circular shall not lose its character as such, when the date and the name of the addressed and of the sender shall be written therein, nor by the correction of mere typographical errors in writing. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 18, 20 Stat. 360.)

237. Same; printed matter defined.—"Printed matter" is defined to be the reproduction upon paper, by any process except that of handwriting, of any words, letters, characters, figures, or images, or of any combination thereof, not having the character of an actual and personal correspondence. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 19, 20 Stat. 360.)

238. Same; letters written by blind.—All letters written in point print or raised characters used by the blind when unsealed shall be transmitted through the mails as third-class matter. (Mar. 2, 1899, c. 362, 30 Stat. 984.)

239. Foreign publications; when free of customs duty.—Printed matter other than books received in the mails from foreign countries under the provisions of postal treaties or conventions shall be free of customs duty, and books which are admitted to the international mails exchanged under the provisions of the Universal Postal Union Convention may, when subject to customs duty, be delivered to addresses in the United States under such regulations for the collection of duties as may be agreed upon by the Secretary of the Treasury and the Postmaster General. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 17, 20 Stat. 359; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 206, 43 Stat. 1067.)

240. Fourth-class matter; minimum weight; nonmailable matter.—Mail matter of the fourth class shall weigh in excess of eight ounces, and shall include books, circulars, and other matter wholly in print (except newspapers and other periodicals entered as second-class matter), proof sheets, corrected proof sheets and manuscript copy accompanying same, merchandise (including farm and factory products), and all other mailable matter not included in the first or second class, or in the third class as defined in section 235 of this title, not exceeding eleven pounds in weight, nor greater in size than seventy-two inches in length and girth combined, nor in form or kind likely to injure the person of any postal employee or damage the mail equipment or other mail matter and not of a character perishable within a period reasonably required for transportation and delivery. (R. S. § 3879; June 8, 1896, c. 370, 29 Stat. 262; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 8, 37 Stat. 557; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 207 (a), 43 Stat. 1067.)

241. Same; experimental transportation of food products.—During the twelve months next succeeding February 28, 1925, the Postmaster General is authorized to conduct experiments in the operation of not more than fifty rural routes, in localities to be selected by him; said experiments shall be designed primarily to develop and to encourage the transportation of food products directly from producers to consumers or vendors, and, if the Postmaster General shall deem it necessary or advisable during the progress of said experiments, he is hereby authorized, in his discretion, on such number or all of said routes as he may desire, to reduce to such an extent as he may deem advisable the rate of postage on food products mailed directly on such routes for delivery at the post offices from which such routes start, and to allow the rural carriers thereon a commission on the postage so received at such rate as the Postmaster General may prescribe, which commission shall be in addition to the carriers' regular salaries. The amounts due the carriers for commissions shall be determined under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Postmaster General directly from the postal revenues. The amount so paid shall in no case exceed the actual amount of revenue derived from this experimental service.

A report on the progress of this experiment shall be made to Congress at the next regular session. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 424; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 207 (c), 43 Stat. 1068.)

242. Same; purchase or rental of equipment and supplies for Parcel Post System.—The Postmaster General may provide by purchase, rental, or otherwise, such equipment and supplies, including vehicles, maps, stamps, directories, and printed instructions, as may be necessary, to carry out the provisions of this chapter with reference to fourth-class mail matter, and appoint and compensate such employees as may be required. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 8, 37 Stat. 558; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 149, 37 Stat. 928.)

243. Same; disposition of nonmailable matter.—All matter of the fourth class shall be subject to examination. If any matter excluded from the mails by section 240 of this title, except that declared nonmailable by section 334 of Title 18, shall, by inadvertence, reach the office of destination, the same shall be delivered in accordance with its address. The party addressed shall furnish the name and address of the sender to the postmaster at the office of delivery, who shall immediately report the facts to the Postmaster General. If the person addressed refuse to give the required information, the postmaster shall hold the package subject to the order of the Postmaster General. All matter declared nonmailable by section 334 of Title 18, which shall reach the office of delivery, shall be held by the postmaster at the said office subject to the order of the Postmaster General. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 21, 20 Stat. 360; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 8, 37 Stat. 557.)

244. Insurance of parcels and collection of postage.—The Postmaster General shall make provision by regulation for the indemnification of shippers of articles sent by fourth-class mail or third-class domestic mail, for shipments injured or lost, by insurance or otherwise, and, when desired, for the collection on delivery of the postage and price of the article shipped, fixing such charges as may be necessary to pay the cost of such additional services. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 8, 37 Stat. 558; June 7, 1924, c. 347, 43 Stat. 652; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 211 (c), 43 Stat. 1069.)

245. Same; fee for insurance; receipt of delivery.—The fee for insurance shall be 5 cents for indemnification not to exceed $5; 8 cents for indemnification not to exceed $25; 10 cents for indemnification not to exceed $50; and 25 cents for indemnification not to exceed $100. Whenever the sender of an insured article of mail matter shall so request, and upon payment of a fee of 3 cents, a receipt shall be taken on the delivery of such insured mail matter, showing to whom and when the same was delivered, which receipt shall be returned to the sender, and be received in the courts as prima facie evidence of such delivery. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 211 (a), 43 Stat. 1069.)

246. Same; collect-on-delivery fee.—The fee for collect-on-delivery service shall be 12 cents for collections not to exceed $10; 15 cents for collections not to exceed $50; and 25 cents for collections not to exceed $100. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 211 (b), 43 Stat. 1069.)

247. Reformation of classification, etc.—If the Postmaster General shall find on experience that the classification of articles mailable, the weight limit, the rates of postage, zone or zones and other conditions of mailability or any of them are such as to prevent the shipment of articles desirable, or to permanently render the cost of the service greater than the receipts of the revenue therefrom, he shall, subject to the consent of the Interstate Commerce Commission after investigation, reform from time to time such classifications, weight limit, rates, zone or zones or conditions, or either, in order to promote the service to the public or insure the receipt of revenue from such service adequate to pay the cost thereof. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 6, 39 Stat. 431; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 207 (b), 43 Stat. 1067.)

248. Addresses on postal cards and unsealed circulars.—Addresses upon postal cards and unsealed circulars may be either written, printed, or affixed thereto, at the option of the sender. (July 12, 1876, c. 179, § 15, 19 Stat. 82.)

249. Permissible marks on and inclosures in second, third, and fourth class matter.—Mailable matter of the second class shall contain no writing, print, or sign thereon or therein in addition to the original print, except as herein provided, to wit: the name and address of the person to whom the matter shall be sent, index figures of subscription book either printed or written, the printed title of the publication and the place of its publication, the printed or written name and address without addition of advertisement of the publisher or sender, or both, and written or printed words or figures, or both, indicating the date on which the subscription to such matter will end, the correction of any typographical error, a mark except by written or printed words, to designate a word or passage to which it is desired to call attention; the words "Sample copy" when the matter is sent as such, the words "Marked copy" when the matter contains a marked item or article, and publishers or news agents may inclose in their publications bills, receipts, and orders for subscriptions thereto, but the same shall be in such form as to convey no other information than the name, place of publication, subscription price of the publication to which they refer and the subscription due thereon. Upon matter of the third and fourth classes or upon the wrapper or envelope inclosing the same or the tag or label attached thereto the sender may write his own name, occupation, and residence or business address, preceded by the word "From," and may make marks other than by written or printed words to call attention to any word or passage in the text, and may correct any typographical errors. There may be placed upon the blank leaves or cover of any book or printed matter of such classes a simple manuscript dedication or inscription not of the nature of a personal correspondence. Upon the wrapper or envelope or the tag or label attached thereto may be printed any matter mailable as third-class matter. The sender of any third or fourth class matter may write upon the wrapper or cover thereof, or tag or label accompanying the same, any marks, numbers, names, or letters for purpose of description, or may print thereon the same, and any printed matter not in the nature of a personal correspondence, but there must be left on the address side or face of the package a space sufficient for a legible address and necessary stamps. In all cases directions for transmit, delivery, forwarding, or return shall be deemed part of the address; and the Postmaster General shall prescribe suitable regulations for carrying this section into effect. There may be placed on third or fourth class mail matter, or on the package, wrapper, or envelope inclosing the same, or on a tag or label attached thereto, either in writing or otherwise, the words "Please do not open until Christmas," or words to that effect. With a package of fourth-class matter prepaid at the proper rate for that class the sender may inclose any mailable third-class matter. (Jan. 20, 1888, c. 2, § 1, 25 Stat. 1; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 241, § 6, 36 Stat. 1340; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 206, 43 Stat. 1067.)

250. Wrapping and securing matter not charged with first-class postage.—The Postmaster General may prescribe, by regulation, the manner of wrapping and securing for the mails all packages of matter not charged with first-class postage, so that the contents of such packages may be easily examined; and no package the contents of which can not be easily examined shall pass in the mails, or be delivered at a less rate than for matter of the first class. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 24, 20 Stat. 361.)

251. Same; removing wrappers.—Postmasters at the office of delivery may remove the wrappers and envelopes from mail matter not charged with letter postage, when it can be done without destroying them, for the purpose of ascertaining whether there is upon or connected with any such matter anything which would authorize or require the charge of a higher rate of postage thereon. (R. S. § 3882.)

252. Newspapers; dried and in wrappers.—No newspapers shall be received to be conveyed by mail unless they are sufficiently dried and inclosed in proper wrappers. (R. S. § 3883.)

253. Same; notice of refusal to receive.—Postmasters shall notify the publisher of any newspaper, or other periodical, when any subscriber shall refuse to take the same from the office, or neglect to call for it for the period of one month. (R. S. § 3885.)

254. Same; carrying out of mail.—Contractors or mail carriers may convey, out of the mail, newspapers for sale or distribution to subscribers. (R. S. § 3888.)

255. Identification of persons claiming mail under fictitious address.—The Postmaster General may, upon evidence satisfactory to him, that any person is using any fictitious, false, or assumed name, title, or address in conducting, promoting, or carrying on or assisting therein, by means of the Post Office Establishment of the United States, any business scheme or device in violation of the provisions of sections 338 and 339 of Title 18, instruct any postmaster at any post office at which such letters, cards, or packets, addressed to such fictitious, false, or assumed name or address arrive to notify the party claiming or receiving such letters, cards, or packets to appear at the post office and be identified; and if the party so notified fails to appear and be identified, or if it shall satisfactorily appear that such letters, cards, or packets are addressed to a fictitious, false, or assumed name or address, such letters, postal cards, or packages shall be forwarded to the dead-letter office as fictitious matter. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 393, § 3, 25 Stat 873.)

256. Matter relating to spurious money not mailable.—All matter the deposit of which in the mails is made punishable by sections 338 and 339 of Title 18 is hereby declared nonmailable; but nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to authorize any person other than an employee of the dead-letter office, duly authorized thereto, to open any letter not addressed to himself. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 393, § 4, 25 Stat. 874.)

257. Delivery of mail to persons not residents of place of address.—Whenever the Postmaster General is satisfied that letters or packets sent in the mails are addressed to places not the residence or business address of the persons for whom they are intended, to enable such persons to escape identification, he may direct postmasters to deliver such letters only from the post office upon identification of persons addressed. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 393, § 5, 25 Stat. 874.)

258. Letters seized to be returned to senders.—All letters, packets, or other matter which may be seized or detained for violation of law shall be returned to the owner or sender of the same, or otherwise disposed of as the Postmaster General may direct. (R. S. § 3895.)

259. Mail of persons conducting lotteries or fraudulent schemes returned; evidence of agency.—The Postmaster General may, upon evidence satisfactory to him that any person or company is engaged in conducting any lottery, gift enterprise, or scheme for the distribution of money, or of any real or personal property by lot, chance, or drawing of any kind, or that any person or company is conducting any other scheme or device for obtaining money or property of any kind through the mails by means of false or fraudulent pretenses, representations, or promises, instruct postmasters at any post office at which registered letters or any other letters or mail matter arrive directed to any such person or company, or to the agent or representative of any such person or company, whether such agent or representative is acting as an individual or as a firm, bank, corporation, or association of any kind, to return all such mail matter to the postmaster at the office at which it was originally mailed, with the word "Fraudulent" plainly written or stamped upon the outside thereof; and all such mail matter so returned to such postmasters shall be by them returned to the writers thereof, under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe. Nothing contained in this section shall be so construed as to authorize any postmaster or other person to open any letter not addressed to himself. The public advertisement by such person or company so conducting such lottery, gift enterprise, scheme, or device, that remittances for the same may be made by mail to any other person, firm, bank, corporation, or association named therein shall be held to be prima facie evidence of the existence of said agency by all the parties named therein; but the Postmaster General shall not be precluded from ascertaining the existence of such agency in any other legal way satisfactory to himself. (R. S. § 3929; Sept. 19, 1890, c. 908, § 2, 26 Stat. 466; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 191, § 4, 28 Stat. 964.)

299. Postage on aeroplane mail.
300. Refund of postage paid for service not rendered, or in excess of legal rate.
301. Special joint Congressional committee to investigate postal rates.

Section 271. Prepayment of postage.—Postage on all mail matter must be prepaid by stamps at the time of mailing, unless herein otherwise provided for. (R. S. § 3896.)

272. Payment of postage before delivery.—No mail matter shall be delivered until the postage due thereon has been paid. (R. S. § 3900.)

273. Acceptance and delivery of prepaid first-class matter without stamps affixed.—The Postmaster General, under such regulations as he may prescribe for the collection of such postage, may accept for delivery and deliver, without postage stamps affixed thereto, mail matter of the first class on which the postage has been fully prepaid at the rate provided by law. (Apr. 24, 1920, c. 161, § 5, 41 Stat. 583.)

274. Disposal of partly paid and unpaid mail matter.—If any mail matter, on which by law the postage is required to be prepaid at the mailing office, shall by inadvertence reach its destination without any prepayment, double the prepaid rates shall be charged and collected on delivery. (R. S. § 3898; June 13, 1898, c. 446, § 4, 30 Stat. 444; Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1009, § 8, 32 Stat. 1176.)

275. Disposal of part-paid first-class matter; deficiency stamps.—All mail matter of the first class upon which one full rate of postage has been prepaid shall be forwarded to its destination, charged with the unpaid rate, to be collected on delivery; but postmasters, before delivering the same, or any article of mail matter upon which prepayment in full has not been made, shall affix, or cause to be affixed, and canceled as ordinary stamps are canceled, one or more stamps equivalent in value to the amount of postage due on such article of mail matter, which stamps shall be of such special design and denomination as the Postmaster General may prescribe, and which shall in no case be sold by any postmaster nor received by him in prepayment of postage. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 26, 20 Stat. 361.)

276. Forwarding or returning to sender charged with postage certain fourth-class mail matter.—Under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe, fourth-class matter of obvious value which is of a perishable nature may be forwarded to the addressee at another post office charged with the amount of the forwarding postage, and when such matter of a perishable nature is undeliverable to the addressee it may be returned to the sender charged with the return postage. Other undeliverable matter of the second, third, and fourth classes may be forwarded to the addressee or to such other person as the sender may direct, at another post office, charged with the amount of the forwarding postage, or it may be returned to the sender charged with the return postage, when it bears the sender's pledge that the postage for forwarding and return will be paid, such postage to be collected on delivery but when the sender refuses to furnish such postage in accordance with his pledge, the acceptance from him of further matter bearing such pledge may be refused. (June 13, 1898, c. 446, § 4, 30 Stat. 444; Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1009, § 9, 32 Stat. 1176; Nov. 19, 1919, c. 119, 41 Stat. 360.)

277. Second-class publications not deliverable at address thereon; return charged with third-class rate.—When copies of any publication of the second class, mailed by a publisher at the pound rate or free in the county of publication, are undeliverable at the address thereon, the postmaster at the office of destination shall promptly notify the publisher of the fact, giving the reason therefor, and copies received five weeks after the mailing of the notice to the publisher, and in no instance until two successive issues thereof have been published, shall, under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe, be separately returned to the publisher thereof charged with postage at the third-class rate. (May 12, 1910, c. 230, 36 Stat. 366.)

278. Returning or remailing without full prepayment; second, third, and fourth class matter.—Except as provided in sections 276 and 277 of this title second, third, and fourth class mail matter shall not be returned to sender or remailed until the postage has been fully prepaid on the same. In all cases where undelivered matter of the second class is of obvious value, the sender, if known, shall be notified of the fact of nondelivery, and be given the opportunity of prepaying the return postage. In all cases when undelivered mail matter of the third and fourth classes is of obvious value, the sender, if known, shall be given the opportunity of prepaying the return postage or accepting delivery to himself or upon his order, at the office where it is held, upon the payment of 1 cent postage for each card notice given him, under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe. (June 13, 1898, c. 446, § 4, 30 Stat. 444; Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1009, § 9, 32 Stat. 1176.)

279. Box rents to be prepaid.—No box at any post office shall be assigned to the use of any person until the rent thereof has been paid for at least one quarter in advance, for which the postmaster shall give a receipt. (R. S. § 3901.)

280. Postage on first-class matter.—On mailable matter of the first class, except postal cards and drop letters, postage shall be prepaid at the rate of 2 cents for each ounce or fraction thereof; postal cards shall be transmitted through the mails at a postage charge of 1 cent each, including the cost of manufacture; and drop letters shall be mailed at the rate of 2 cents per ounce or fraction thereof, including delivery at letter-carrier offices, and 1 cent for each ounce or fraction thereof where free delivery by carrier is not established. The Postmaster General may, however, provide, by regulation, for transmitting unpaid and duly certified letters of soldiers, sailors, and marines in the service of the United States to their destination, to be paid on delivery. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 9, 20 Stat. 358; Mar. 3, 1885, c. 342, § 1, 23 Stat. 386; Oct. 3, 1917, c. 63, § 1100, 40 Stat. 327; Feb. 24, 1919, c. 18, § 1401, 40 Stat. 1150.)

281. Postage on private mailing cards.—It shall be lawful to transmit by mail, at the postage rate of 2 cents apiece, payable by stamps to be affixed by the sender, and under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe, written messages on private mailing cards, such cards to be sent openly in the mails, to be no larger than the size fixed by the convention of the Universal Postal Union, and to be approximately of the same form, quality, and weight as the stamped postal card in general use in the United States on May 19, 1898. (May 19, 1898, c. 347, 30 Stat. 419; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 201, 43 Stat. 1066.)

282. Postage on second-class matter; time for paying.—Upon the receipt of newspapers and periodical publications at the office of mailing, they shall be weighed in bulk, and postage paid thereon. (June 23, 1874, c. 456, § 6, 18 Stat. 233.)

283. Postage on second-class matter sent by publisher or news agent; second-class matter issued by religious, etc., organizations; second-class matter for delivery by carriers; statements, etc., filed by publishers.—(a) In the case of publications entered as second-class matter (including sample copies to the extent of 10 per centum of the weight of copies mailed to subscribers during the calendar year) when sent by the publisher thereof from the post office of publication or other post office, or when sent by news agents to actual subscribers thereto, or to other news agents for the purpose of sale—

(1) The rate of postage on that portion of any such publication devoted to matter other than advertisements shall be 1½ cents per pound, or fraction thereof;

(2) On that portion of any such publication devoted to advertisements the rates per pound or fraction thereof for delivery within the eight postal zones established for fourth-class matter shall be as follows:

For the first and second zones, 2 cents, and third zone, 3 cents.

For the fourth, fifth, and sixth zones, 6 cents.

For the seventh and eighth zones, and between the Philippine Islands and any portion of the United States, including the District of Columbia and the several Territories and possessions, 9 cents;

(3) The rate of postage on newspapers or periodicals maintained by and in the interests of religious, educational, scientific, philanthropic, agricultural, labor, or fraternal organizations or associations, not organized for profit and none of the net income of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual, shall be 1½ cents per pound or fraction thereof, and the publisher of any such newspaper or periodical, before being entitled to such rate, shall furnish to the Postmaster General, at such times and under such conditions as the Postmaster General may prescribe, satisfactory evidence that none of the net income of such organization or association inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual.

(b) Where the space devoted to advertisements does not exceed 5 per centum of the total space, the rate of postage shall be the same as if the whole of such publication was devoted to matter other than advertisements.

(c) The rate of postage on daily newspapers and on the periodicals and newspapers provided for in this section when deposited in a letter-carrier office for delivery by its carriers, shall be the same as otherwise provided by law, and nothing herein shall affect existing law as to free circulation and existing rates on second-class mail matter within the county of publication. The Postmaster General may require publishers to separate or make up to zones, in such a manner as he may direct, all mail matter of the second class when offered for mailing.

(d) With the first mailing of each issue of each such publication the publisher shall file with the postmaster a copy of such issue together with a statement containing such information as the Postmaster General may prescribe for determining the postage chargeable thereon. (June 23, 1874, c. 456, § 5, 18 Stat. 232; Mar. 3, 1885, c. 342, § 1, 23 Stat. 387; Oct. 3, 1917, c. 63, §§ 1101, 1102, 1103, 40 Stat. 327, 328; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 202, 43 Stat. 1066.)

284. Postage on proofs of advertisements intended for publications entered as second-class matter.—Single sheets or portions thereof from any publication entered as second-class matter, sent by a publisher to an advertiser or the latter's agent on account of and in proof of the insertion of an advertisement, shall, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Postmaster General, be received and transmitted through the mails at the zone rates of postage applicable under the law to the advertising portions of such second-class matter. (Mar. 3, 1923, c. 215, 42 Stat. 1434.)

285. Discontinuance of newspaper stamps; collecting and accounting for postage on second-class matter; prepayment.—Newspaper and periodical stamps need not be used, and all postage on second-class matter mailed shall be collected and accounted for under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe. This shall in no manner be construed so as to repeal existing law requiring prepayment of postage upon second-class mail matter. (June 23, 1874, c. 456, § 6, 18 Stat. 233; June 13, 1898, c. 446, § 1, 30 Stat. 443.)

286. Postage on newspapers mailed in county of publication and at free-delivery offices.—Publications of the second class, one copy to each actual subscriber residing in the county where the same are printed, in whole or in part, and published, shall go free through the mails; but the same shall not be delivered at letter-carrier offices, or distributed by carriers, unless postage is paid thereon at the rate prescribed in section 283 of this title. The rate of postage on newspapers, excepting weeklies, and periodicals not exceeding two ounces in weight, when the same are deposited in a letter-carrier office for delivery by its carriers, shall be uniform at 1 cent each; periodicals weighing more than two ounces shall be subject, when delivered by such carriers, to a postage of 2 cents each, and these rates shall be prepaid by stamps affixed. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 25, 20 Stat. 361.)

287. Postage on second-class matter mailed by others than publishers or news agents.—The rate of postage on publications entered as second-class matter, when sent by others than the publisher or news agent, shall be 2 cents for each two ounces or fraction thereof, for weights not exceeding eight ounces, and for weights of such matter exceeding eight ounces the rates of postage prescribed for fourth-class matter shall be applicable thereto. (June 9, 1884, c. 73, 23 Stat. 40; Oct. 3, 1917, c. 63, § 1106, 40 Stat. 328; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 203, 43 Stat. 1067.)

288. Postage on second-class matter not exceeding one pound.—Where the total weight of any one edition or issue of any such publication mailed to any one zone does not exceed one pound, the rate of postage shall be 1 cent. (Oct. 3, 1917, c. 63, § 1104, 40 Stat. 328; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 204, 43 Stat. 1067.)

289. Zone rate to relate to entire bulk.—The zone rates provided in section 283 of this title shall relate to the entire bulk mailed to any one zone and not to individually addressed packages. (Oct. 3, 1917, c. 63, § 1105, 40 Stat. 328; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 205, 43 Stat. 1067.)

290. Postage on Congressional Record mailed at Washington.—The postage on each copy of the daily Congressional Record mailed from the city of Washington as transient matter shall be 1 cent. (June 23, 1874, c. 456, § 13, 18 Stat. 237.)

291. Third-class matter; rate of postage.—The rate of postage on mail matter of the third class shall be 1½ cents for each two ounces or fraction thereof, up to and including eight ounces in weight, except that the rate of postage on books, catalogues, seeds, cuttings, bulbs, roots, scions, and plants, not exceeding eight ounces in weight, shall be 1 cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 206, 43 Stat. 1067.)

292. Fourth-class matter; postal zones.—For fourth-class mail matter the United States and its several Territories and possessions, excepting the Philippine Islands, shall be divided into units of area thirty minutes square, identical with a quarter of the area formed by the intersecting parallels of latitude and meridians of longitude, represented on appropriate postal maps or plans, and such units of area shall be the basis of eight postal zones, as follows:

The first zone shall include all territory within such quadrangle, in conjunction with every contiguous quadrangle, representing an area having a mean radial distance of approximately fifty miles from the center of any given unit of area.

The second zone shall include all units of area outside the first zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately one hundred and fifty miles from the center of a given unit of area.

The third zone shall include all units of area outside the second zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately three hundred miles from the center of a given unit of area.

The fourth zone shall include all units of area outside the third zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately six hundred miles from the center of a given unit of area.

The fifth zone shall include all units of area outside the fourth zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately one thousand miles from the center of a given unit of area.

The sixth zone shall include all units of area outside the fifth zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately one thousand four hundred miles from the center of a given unit of area.

The seventh zone shall include all units of area outside the sixth zone lying in whole or in part within a radius of approximately one thousand eight hundred miles from the center of a given unit of area.

The eighth zone shall include all units of area outside the seventh zone. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 8, 37 Stat. 557.)

293. Same; rates of postage; service charge.—The rate of postage on fourth-class matter shall be by the pound, as hereinafter provided, the postage in all cases to be prepaid by distinctive postage stamps affixed.

Postage on matter of the fourth class shall be prepaid at the following rates:

On all matter mailed at the post office from which a rural route starts, for delivery on such route, or mailed at any point on such route for delivery at any other point thereon, or at the office from which the route starts, or on any rural route starting therefrom, and on all matter mailed at a city carrier office, or at any point within its delivery limits, for delivery by carriers from that office, or at any office for local delivery, 5 cents for the first pound or fraction of a pound and 1 cent for each additional pound or fraction of a pound.

For delivery within the first zone, except as provided in the next preceding paragraph, 5 cents for the first pound or fraction of a pound and 3 cents for each additional pound or fraction of a pound.

For delivery within the second zone, 6 cents for the first pound or fraction of a pound and 4 cents for each additional pound or fraction of a pound.

For delivery within the third zone, 7 cents for the first pound or fraction of a pound and 5 cents for each additional pound or fraction of a pound.

For delivery within the fourth zone, 8 cents for the first pound or fraction of a pound and 6 cents for each additional pound or fraction of a pound.

For delivery within the fifth zone, 9 cents for the first pound or fraction of a pound and 7 cents for each additional pound or fraction of a pound.

For delivery within the sixth zone, 10 cents for the first pound or fraction of a pound and 9 cents for each additional pound or fraction of a pound.

For delivery within the seventh zone, 11 cents for the first pound or fraction of a pound and 10 cents for each additional pound or fraction of a pound.

For delivery within the eighth zone and between the Philippine Islands and any portion of the United States, including the District of Columbia and the several Territories and possessions, 12 cents for the first pound or fraction of a pound and 12 cents for each additional pound or fraction of a pound. In addition to the rate of postage as established in this section, there shall be a service charge of 2 cents for each parcel, except upon parcels or packages collected on rural delivery routes, to be prepaid by postage stamps affixed thereto, or as otherwise prescribed by the regulations of the Postmaster General. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 8, 37 Stat. 557; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 207 (a, b), 43 Stat. 1067.)

294. Same; special handling.—Whenever, in addition to the postage as hereinbefore provided, there shall be affixed to any parcel of mail matter of the fourth-class postage of the value of 25 cents with the words "Special handling" written or printed upon the wrapper, such parcel shall receive the same expeditious handling, transportation, and delivery accorded to mail matter of the first class. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 207 (b), 43 Stat. 1067.)

295. Quantities of identical pieces of third or fourth class matter accepted for transmission without stamps if prepaid.—Under such regulations as the Postmaster General may establish for the collection of the lawful revenue and for facilitating the handling of such matter in the mails it shall be lawful to accept for transmission in the mails, without postage stamps affixed, quantities of not less than three hundred identical pieces of third-class matter and of second-class matter and two hundred and fifty identical pieces of fourth-class matter, and packages of money and securities mailed under postage at the first or fourth class rate by the Treasury Department: Provided, That postage shall be fully prepaid thereon at the rate required by law for a single piece of such matter. (Apr. 28, 1904, c. 1759, § 2, 33 Stat. 440; May 18, 1916, c. 126, § 13, 39 Stat. 162.)

296. Clothing to soldiers by mail.—Packages of woolen, cotton, or linen clothing, not exceeding two pounds in weight, may be sent through the mail to any noncommissioned officer or private in the Army of the United States, if prepaid, at the rate of 1 cent for each one ounce or fraction thereof, subject to such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe. (R. S. § 3911.)

297. Postage on foreign mail matter.—The rate of United States postage on mail matter sent to or received from foreign countries with which different rates have not been established by postal convention or other arrangement, when forwarded by vessels regularly employed in transporting the mail, shall be 10 cents for each half ounce or fraction thereof on letters, unless reduced by order of the Postmaster General; 2 cents each on newspapers; and not exceeding 2 cents for each two ounces, or fraction thereof, on pamphlets, periodicals, books, and other printed matter, which postage shall be prepaid on matter sent and collected on matter received; and to avoid loss to the United States in the payment of balances, the Postmaster General may collect the unpaid postage on letters from foreign countries in coin or its equivalent. (R. S. § 3912.)

298. Postage on irregular sea letters.—All letters conveyed by vessels not regularly employed in carrying the mail shall, if for delivery within the United States, be charged with double postage, to cover the fee paid to the vessel. (R. S. § 3913.)

299. Postage on aeroplane mail.—The Postmaster General, in his discretion, may require the payment of postage on mail carried by aeroplane at not exceeding 24 cents per ounce or fraction thereof. (May 10, 1918, c. 71, 40 Stat. 548.)

300. Refund of postage paid for service not rendered, or in excess of legal rate.—Whenever it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General that any postage is paid on any mail matter for which service is not rendered, or is collected in excess of the lawful rate, he may, in his discretion, authorize the postmaster at the office where paid to refund the proper amount out of the postal receipts in the possession of the postmaster. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1480, §, 2, 33 Stat. 1091.)

301. Special joint Congressional committee to investigate postal rates.—A special joint subcommittee is hereby created to consist of three members of the Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads of the Senate and three members of the Committee on the Post Office and Post Roads of the House, to be appointed by the respective chairmen of said committees. The said special joint subcommittee is authorized and directed to hold hearings prior to the beginning of the first regular session of the Sixty-ninth Congress, to sit in Washington or at any other convenient place and to report during the first week of the first regular session of the Sixty-ninth Congress, by bill, its recommendations for a permanent schedule of postal rates. Said special joint subcommittee is hereby authorized to administer oaths, to send for persons or papers, to employ necessary clerks, accountants, experts, and stenographers, the latter to be paid at a cost not exceeding 25 cents per one hundred words; and the expense attendant upon the work of said special joint subcommittee shall be paid one-half from the contingent fund of the Senate and one-half from the contingent fund of the House of Representatives upon voucher of its chairman. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, Title II, § 217, 43 Stat. 1070.)

Chapter 8.—THE FRANKING PRIVILEGE.

332. Hawaiian Islands.
333. Matter admitted under penalty privilege restricted.
334. Overweight matter.
335. Lending or permitting use of frank unlawful.

Section 321. Matter relating to official business; official envelopes.—It shall be lawful to transmit through the mail, free of postage, any letters, packages, or other matters relating exclusively to the business of the Government of the United States; official mail matter of all officers of the United States Government, not including Members of Congress; all official mail matter of Smithsonian Institute; all official mail matter of the Pan American Union; and all official mail matter of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, the envelopes of such matter in all cases to bear appropriate indorsement containing the proper designation of the office from which, or officer from whom, the same is transmitted with the statement of the penalty for their misuse. Every such letter or package to entitle it to pass free, shall bear over the words "Official business" an indorsement showing also the name of the department, and if from a bureau or office, the names of the department and bureau or office, as the case may be, whence transmitted. It shall be the duty of each of the executive departments of the United States to provide for itself and its subordinate offices necessary envelopes and in addition to the indorsement designating the department in which they are to be used, the penalty for the unlawful use of these envelopes shall be stated thereon. Any department or office authorized to use the penalty envelopes may inclose them with return address to any person or persons from or through whom official information is desired, the same to be used only to cover such official information and indorsements relating thereto. Any part paid letter or packet addressed to any of the departments or bureaus may be delivered free, but where there is good reason to believe the omission to prepay the full postage thereon was intentional such letter or packet shall be returned to the sender. This section shall not extend or apply to officers who receive a fixed allowance as compensation for their services including expenses of postages. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 103, §§ 5, 6, 19 Stat. 335; Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 29, 20 Stat. 362; July 5, 1884, c. 234, § 3, 23 Stat. 158; Aug. 18, 1894, c. 301, § 1, 29 Stat. 412; Feb. 20, 1897, c. 268, 29 Stat. 590.)

322. Penalty envelopes for answers inclosed.—The respective departments shall inclose to Senators, Representatives and Delegates in Congress, in all official communications requiring answers, or to be forwarded to others, penalty envelopes, addressed as far as practicable, for forwarding or answering such official correspondence. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 128, § 2, 22 Stat. 563.)

323. Official correspondence of Superintendent of Documents.—All official correspondence of the Superintendent of Documents and all replies to the same shall be entitled to free transmission by mail; and he shall be entitled to frank public documents: Provided, That in the transmission of such mail matter envelopes, labels, or postal cards are used on which the name of the office and the penalty clause are printed. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 65, 28 Stat. 611.)

324. Matter relating to naturalization and census.—All mail matter, of whatever class, relating to naturalization, including duplicate papers required by law or regulation to be sent to the Bureau of Naturalization by clerks of State or Federal courts, addressed to the Department of Labor, or the Bureau of Naturalization, or to any official thereof, and indorsed "Official business," and all mail matter, of whatever class or weight, relating to the census and addressed to the Census Office, or to any official thereof, and indorsed "Official business, Census Office," shall be transmitted free of postage, and by registered mail if necessary, and so marked: Provided, That if any person shall make use of such indorsement to avoid the payment of postage or registry fee on his or her private letter, package, or other matter in the mail, the person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of $300, to be prosecuted in any court of competent jurisdiction. (July 2, 1909, c. 2, § 29, 36 Stat. 10; Oct. 6, 1917, c. 79, § 1, 40 Stat. 376; Mar. 3, 1919, c. 97, § 29, 40 Stat. 1301.)

325. Congressional Record under frank of Members of Congress.—The Congressional Record, or any part thereof, or speeches or reports therein contained, shall, under the frank of a Member of Congress, or Delegate, or Resident Commissioner from Porto Rico or the Philippines, written by himself, be carried in the mail free of postage, under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 128, § 5, 18 Stat. 343; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 416, § 20, 39 Stat. 552; Mar. 2, 1917, c. 145, § 36, 39 Stat. 963.)

326. Public documents sent and received by Vice President and Members of Congress.—The Vice President, Senators, Representatives, and Delegates in Congress, the Resident Commissioners from Porto Rico and the Philippines, the Secretary of the Senate, and Clerk of the House of Representatives may send and receive through the mail all public documents printed by order of Congress; and the name of the Vice President, Senator, Representative, Delegate, Secretary of the Senate, and Clerk of the House shall be written thereon, with the proper designation of the office he holds; and the provisions of this section shall apply to each of the persons named therein until the 1st day of December following the expiration of their respective terms of office. (Jan. 12, 1895, c. 23, § 85, 28 Stat. 622; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 416, § 20, 39 Stat. 552; Mar. 2, 1917, c. 145, § 36, 39 Stat. 963.)

327. Official correspondence of Vice President and Members of Congress.—The Vice President, Members and Members-elect of, Delegates and Delegates-elect to Congress, and the Resident Commissioners from Porto Rico and the Philippines, shall have the privilege of sending free through the mails, and under their frank, any mail matter to any Government official or to any person, correspondence, not exceeding four ounces in weight, upon official or departmental business. (Apr. 28, 1904, c. 1759, § 7, 33 Stat. 441; Aug. 29, 1916, c. 416, § 20, 39 Stat. 552; Mar. 2, 1917, c. 145, § 36, 39 Stat. 963.)

328. Resident Commissioners.—The Resident Commissioners from Porto Rico and the Philippines shall be allowed the franking privileges allowed by law to Members of Congress. (Aug. 29, 1916, c. 416, § 20, 39 Stat. 552; Mar. 2, 1917, c. 145, § 36, 39 Stat. 963.)

329. Seeds and reports from Department of Agriculture.—Seeds transmitted by the Department of Agriculture, or by any Member of Congress or Delegate receiving seeds for distribution from said department, together with agricultural reports emanating from that department, and so transmitted, shall, under such regulations as the Postmaster General shall prescribe, pass through the mails free of charge. And the provisions of this section shall apply to ex-Members of Congress and ex-Delegates for the period of nine months after the expiration of their terms as Members and Delegates. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 128, § 7, 18 Stat. 343; Feb. 9, 1889, c. 122, § 1, 25 Stat. 659.)

330. Agricultural extension work between agricultural colleges and Department of Agriculture.—All correspondence, bulletins, and reports for the furtherance of the purposes of sections 341 to 348 of Title 7, may be transmitted in the mails of the United States free of charge for postage, under such regulations as the Postmaster General, from time to time, may prescribe, by such college officer or other person connected with the extension department of such college as the Secretary of Agriculture may designate to the Postmaster General. (June 30, 1914, c. 131, 38 Stat. 438.)

331. Reading matter for blind; Bibles.—Books, pamphlets, and other reading matter in raised characters for the use of the blind, whether prepared by hand or printed, in single volumes, not exceeding ten pounds in weight, or in packages not exceeding four pounds in weight and containing no advertising or other matter whatever, unsealed and when sent by public institutions for the blind, or by any public libraries, as a loan to blind readers, or when returned by the latter to such institutions or public libraries, and magazines, periodicals and other regularly issued publications in such raised characters whether prepared by hand or printed, which contain no advertisements, and for which no subscription fee is charged, shall be transmitted in the United States mails free of postage, and under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe. Volumes of the Holy Scriptures, or any part thereof, in raised characters for the use of the blind, whether prepared by hand or printed, which do not contain advertisements, (a) when furnished by an organization, institution, or association not conducted for private profit, to a blind person without charge, shall be transmitted in the United States mails free of postage; (b) when furnished by an organization, institution, or association not conducted for private profit to a blind person at a price not greater than the cost price thereof, shall be transmitted in the United States mails at the postage rate of 1 cent for each pound or fraction thereof; under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe. (Apr. 27, 1904, c. 1612, 33 Stat. 313; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 1, 37 Stat. 556; June 7, 1924, c. 375, 43 Stat. 668.)

332. Hawaiian Islands.—The franking privilege, as the same is regulated by law, shall extend to the Hawaiian Islands. (Mar. 1, 1899, c. 327, § 4, 30 Stat. 966.)

333. Matter admitted under penalty privilege restricted.—No article, package, or other matter, except postage stamps, stamped envelopes, newspaper wrappers, postal cards, and internal-revenue stamps, shall be admitted to the mails under a penalty privilege, unless such article, package, or other matter, except postage stamps, stamped envelopes, newspaper wrappers, postal cards, and internal-revenue stamps would be entitled to admission to the mails under laws requiring payment of postage. (June 26, 1906, c. 3546, 34 Stat. 477.)

334. Overweight matter.—No article or package exceeding four pounds in weight shall be admitted to the mails under the penalty privilege except postage stamps, stamped envelopes, newspaper wrappers, postal cards, internal-revenue stamps, single books weighing in excess of that amount, and books and documents published or circulated by order of Congress, or printed or written official matter emanating from any of the departments of the Government, or from the Smithsonian Institution. (June 8, 1896, c. 370, 29 Stat. 262; June 26, 1906, c. 3546, 34 Stat. 477; May 18, 1916, c. 126, § 11, 39 Stat. 162.)

335. Lending or permitting use of frank unlawful.—It shall be unlawful for any person entitled under the law to the use of a frank to lend said frank or permit its use by any committee, organization, or association, or permit its use by any person for the benefit or use of any committee, organization, or association. This provision shall not apply to any committee composed of Members of Congress. (June 26, 1906, c. 3546, 34 Stat. 477.)

365. Stamps to be defaced; precanceled stamps.
366. Failure to deface; report.
367. Uniform ink or appliance for canceling stamps.
368. Permits for special cancellation stamps or postmarking dies; when authorized; duration of; no expenditure of postal funds or appropriations; revocation of permits.
369. Use of precanceled stamped envelopes.

Section 351. Stamps.—The Postmaster General shall prepare postage stamps of suitable denominations, which, when attached to mail matter, shall be evidence of the payment of the postage thereon. (R. S. § 3914.)

352. Same; manufacture by Bureau of Engraving and Printing.—When in the opinion of the Postmaster General the interests of the Post Office Department require it, the manufacturing of special-delivery and adhesive postage stamps may be done by the Treasury Department (Bureau of Engraving and Printing), in conformity with an agreement satisfactory to both the Postmaster General and the Secretary of the Treasury. (Apr. 21, 1902, c. 563, § 1, 32 Stat. 117.)

353. Same; contracts for manufacture.—No contract for the manufacture of adhesive postage stamps, special-delivery stamps, or books of stamps shall be made by the Government with any department or bureau of the Government below the cost of such work to the Government. (June 26, 1906, c. 3546, 34 Stat. 475.)

354. Stamped envelopes.—The Postmaster General shall provide suitable letter and newspaper envelopes, with such watermarks or other guards against counterfeits as he may deem expedient, and with postage stamps with such device and of such suitable denominations as he may direct, impressed thereon; and such envelopes shall be known as "stamped envelopes," and shall be sold, as nearly as may be, at the cost of procuring them, with the addition of the value of the postage stamps impressed thereon; but no stamped envelope or any other envelope furnished or sold by the Government shall contain any lithographing or engraving, nor any printing nor advertisement except that the usual request for return of the letter to the writer may be printed thereon. Letters and papers inclosed in such stamped envelopes shall, if the postage stamp is of a denomination sufficient to cover the postage properly chargeable thereon, pass in the mail as prepaid matter. (R. S. § 3915; June 23, 1874, c. 456, § 1, 18 Stat. 231; Mar. 3, 1893, c. 213, § 1, 27 Stat. 733; June 26, 1906, c. 3546, 34 Stat. 476.)

355. Contracts for envelopes by Postmaster General.—The Postmaster General shall contract, for a period not exceeding four years, for all envelopes, stamped or otherwise, designed for sale to the public, or for use by the Post Office Department, the Postal Service, and other executive departments, and all Government bureaus and establishments, and the branches of the service coming under their jurisdiction, and may contract for them to be plain or with such printed matter as may be prescribed by the department making requisition therefor. (R. S. § 3915; June 26, 1906, c. 3546, 34 Stat. 476.)

356. Postal cards.—To facilitate letter correspondence, and to provide for the transmission in the mails, at a reduced rate of postage, of messages, orders, notices, and other short communications, either printed or written in pencil or ink, the Postmaster General is authorized and directed to furnish and issue to the public, with postage stamps impressed upon them, "postal cards," manufactured of good stiff paper, of such quality, form, and size as he shall deem best adapted for general use; which cards shall be used as a means of postal intercourse, under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Postmaster General, and when so used shall be transmitted through the mails at a postage charge of 1 cent each, including the cost of their manufacture. (R. S. § 3916.)

357. Same; international cards.—The Postmaster General may furnish and issue to the public, postal cards with postage stamps impressed upon them, for circulation in the mails exchanged with foreign countries under the provisions of the Universal Postal Union Convention of June 1, 1878, at a postage charge of 2 cents each, including the cost of their manufacture. (June 11, 1880, c. 206, § 1, 21 Stat. 179.)

358. Letter-sheet envelopes, double postal cards, double-letter envelopes.—The Postmaster General may take the necessary steps to introduce and furnish for public use a letter-sheet envelope, on which postage stamps of the denominations in use on ordinary envelopes shall be placed. He may also furnish for public use a double postal card, on which shall be placed two 1-cent stamps, said card to be so arranged for the address that it may be forwarded and returned, and to be sold for 2 cents apiece; and also introduce and furnish for public use a double-letter envelope, on which stamps of the denominations in use may be placed, and with the arrangement for the address similar to the double postal card; said letter sheet and double postal card and double envelope to be issued under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe. No money shall be paid for royalty or patent on any of the articles named. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 32, 20 Stat. 362.)

359. Deliveries by contractor.—In making contracts for stamped envelopes, stamped paper, and all other supplies, the Postmaster General may require the contractor, under such regulations as he may prescribe, to make delivery at such points in the United States as he may direct, whenever, in his opinion, any such contract can be made at a saving to the Government. (July 16, 1894, c. 137, § 2, 28 Stat. 106.)

360. Improvements in stamps and envelopes.—The Postmaster General may, from time to time, adopt such improvements in postage stamps and stamped envelopes as he may deem advisable; and when any such improvement is adopted it shall be subject to all the provisions herein respecting postage stamps or stamped envelopes. (R. S. § 3917.)

361. Sale of stamps at post offices.—Postage stamps and stamped envelopes shall be furnished by the Postmaster General to all postmasters, and shall be kept for sale at all post offices; and each postmaster shall be held accountable for all such stamps and envelopes furnished to him. (R. S. § 3918.)

362. Limitation on price of stamped envelopes and newspaper wrappers.—No stamped envelopes or newspaper wrappers shall be sold by the Post Office Department at less (in addition to the legal postage) than the cost, including all salaries, clerk hire, and other expenses connected therewith. (July 12, 1876, c. 179, § 14, 19 Stat. 82.)

363. Stamps and envelopes at discount.—Postage stamps and stamped envelopes may be sold at a discount to certain designated agents, who will agree to sell again without discount, under rules to be prescribed by the Postmaster General; but the quantities of each sold to any one agent at one time shall not exceed $100 in value, and the discount shall not exceed 5 per centum on the face value of the stamps, nor the same per centum on the current price of the envelopes when sold in less quantities. (R. S. § 3919.)

364. Selling stamps at more than face.—Postage stamps shall not be sold for any larger sum than the value indicated on their face, nor stamped envelopes for more than is charged therefor by the Post Office Department for like quantities. (R. S. § 3920.)

365. Stamps to be defaced; precanceled stamps.—Postage stamps affixed to all mail matter or to stamped envelopes in which the same is inclosed shall, when deposited for mailing or delivery, be defaced by the postmaster at the mailing office in such manner as the Postmaster General may direct. When practicable postage stamps may be furnished to postmasters precanceled by printing on them the name of the post office at which they are to be used, under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe. (R. S. § 3291; May 18, 1916, c. 126, § 12, 39 Stat. 162.)

366. Failure to deface; report.—If any mail matter shall be forwarded without the stamps or envelopes being so defaced, the postmaster at the office of delivery shall deface them, and report the delinquent postmaster to the Postmaster General. (R. S. § 3921.)

367. Uniform ink or appliance for canceling stamps.—The Postmaster General may adopt a uniform canceling ink or other appliance for canceling stamps which experiments and tests have proved or may prove to be the most practicable and the best calculated to protect the revenues of the department from the frauds practiced upon it, to be used in all the post offices where stamps are canceled, and he may distribute said canceling ink or other appliance in the same manner as other supplies are distributed to the different post offices in the United States. (June 20, 1878, c. 359, § 1, 20 Stat. 240.)

368. Permits for special cancellation stamps or postmarking dies; when authorized; duration of; no expenditure of postal funds or appropriations; revocation of permits.—The Postmaster General may, under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, grant permission for the use in first and second class post offices of special canceling stamps or postmarking dies for advertising purposes in the following cases only: First, where the event to be advertised is for some national purpose for which Congress has made an appropriation; second, where the event to be advertised is of general public interest and importance and is to endure for a definite period of time and is not to be conducted for private gain or profit. Such permit shall not be for a longer period than six months and the duration of the event to be advertised. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the expenditure of any postal funds or appropriation either for the purchase of special canceling stamps or postmarking dies or for adapting canceling machines for the use of such stamps or dies or for installing the same, but all expense shall be prepaid by the permittee. Any permission granted under this section shall be revocable in the event the Government shall find it expedient or necessary to use special canceling stamps or postmarking dies for its own purposes. (May 11, 1922, c. 186, §§ 1, 2, 42 Stat. 540.)

369. Use of precanceled stamped envelopes.—The Postmaster General may, under such regulations as he may prescribe, issue a permit to persons using Government stamped envelopes to deface the postage stamps thereon in connection with the placing on the envelopes of the name of the post office and State of mailing, together with such other indicia as may be prescribed. (Feb. 20, 1925, c. 275, 43 Stat. 955.)

Chapter 10.—REGISTERED MAIL.

Sec.
381. System of registration; indemnity for loss of first-class matter.
382. Payment of limited indemnity claims by postmasters.
383. Indemnity for loss of third-class and fourth-class matter.
384. Registered matter and fees.
385. Registry of letters containing currency.
386. Receipt for delivery of registered mail.

Section 381. System of registration; indemnity for loss of first-class matter.—For the greater security of valuable mail matter the Postmaster General may establish a uniform system of registration, and as a part of such system he may provide rules under which the sender or owners of first-class registered matter shall be indemnified for losses thereof in the mails, the indemnity to be paid out of the postal revenues, but in no case to exceed $100 for any one registered piece, or the actual value thereof when that is less than $100, and for which no other compensation or reimbursement to the loser has been made. The Post Office Department or its revenues shall not be liable for the loss of mail matter on account of its having been registered except as provided in this chapter. (R. S. § 3926; Feb. 27, 1897, c. 340, § 1, 29 Stat. 559; Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1009, § 1, 32 Stat. 1174.)

382. Payment of limited indemnity claims by postmasters.—The Postmaster General may, under such rules and regulations as he shall prescribe, authorize postmasters to pay limited indemnity claims on insured and collect-on-delivery mail. (Apr. 24, 1920, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 581.)

383. Indemnity for loss of third-class and fourth-class matter.—The Postmaster General may indemnify the senders or owners of third and fourth class domestic registered matter lost in the mails, the indemnity, which shall be paid out of the postal revenues, not to exceed $25 for a single piece of registered matter or the actual value thereof if less than $25: Provided, That no indemnity shall be paid if the loser has been otherwise reimbursed. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 241, § 1, 36 Stat. 1337.)

384. Registered matter and fees.—Mail matter shall be registered only on the application of the party posting the same, and the fees therefor shall not be less than 15 nor more than 20 cents in addition to the regular postage, to be, in all cases, prepaid; and all such fees shall be accounted for in such manner as the Postmaster General shall direct; but the Postmaster General may fix the fee for registered mail matter at any amount less than 20 cents. Letters upon the official business of the Post Office Department which require registering shall be registered free of charge, and pass through the mails free of charge, and any letter or packet to be registered by any of the executive departments or bureaus thereof or by the Public Printer may be registered without the payment of any registry fee. (R. S. § 3927; Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 29, 20 Stat. 362; July 6, 1884, c. 234, § 3, 23 Stat. 158; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 209, 43 Stat. 1068.)

385. Registry of letters containing currency.—Under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe, all postmasters are authorized to register in the manner prescribed by law, but without payment of any registration fee, all letters containing fractional or other currency of the United States, which shall be by them sent by mail to the Treasurer of the United States for redemption; and the postmaster at the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia, shall register, in like manner, without charge, all letters containing new currency returned for currency redeemed, which shall be received by him from the Treasurer, in sealed packages, marked with the word "Register" over the official signature of the said Treasurer. (R. S. § 3932.)

386. Receipt for delivery of registered mail.—Whenever the sender shall so request, and upon payment of a fee of 3 cents, a receipt shall be taken on the delivery of any registered mail matter, showing to whom and when the same was delivered, which receipt shall be returned to the sender, and be received in the courts as prima facie evidence of such delivery. (R. S. § 3928; May 23, 1910, c. 255, 36 Stat. 416; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 210, 43 Stat. 1068.)

Chapter 11.—UNCLAIMED, DEAD, AND REQUEST LETTERS, AND UNCLAIMED PRINTED MATTER.

Sec.
401. Advertising letters not delivered.
402. Same; foreign letters.
403. Same; posting lists.
404. Same; pay for.
405. Same; charge on.
406. Return of undelivered letters.
407. Unpaid letters to dead-letter office.
408. Disposition of dead letters.
409. Request for return.
410. Forwarding letters.
411. Disposal of uncalled-for printed matter.

Section 401. Advertising letters not delivered.—The Postmaster General may direct the publication of the list of nondelivered letters at any post office by written list posted in some public place, or, when he shall deem it for the public interest, he may direct the publication of such list in the daily or weekly newspaper regularly published within the post-office delivery which has the largest circulation within such delivery, and where no daily paper is published within the post-office delivery, such list may be published in the daily newspaper of any adjoining delivery having the largest circulation within the delivery of the post office publishing the list; and in case of dispute as to the circulation of competing newspapers, the postmaster shall receive evidence and decide upon the fact. Such list shall be published as frequently as the Postmaster General may deem proper, but not oftener than once a week. (R. S. § 3930.)

402. Same; foreign letters.—The list of nondelivered letters addressed to foreign-born persons may be published in a newspaper printed in the language most used by them, which shall be selected in the manner prescribed in section 401 of this title. (R. S. § 3931.)

403. Same; posting lists.—Every postmaster shall post, in a conspicuous place in his office, a copy of each list of nondelivered letters immediately after its publication. (R. S. § 3933.)

404. Same; pay for.—The compensation for publishing the list of nondelivered letters shall in no case exceed 1 cent for each letter so published. (R. S. § 3934.)

405. Same; charge on.—All letters published as nondelivered shall be charged with 1 cent in addition to the regular postage, to be accounted for as part of the postal revenue. (R. S. § 3935.)

406. Return of undelivered letters.—The Postmaster General may regulate the period during which undelivered letters shall remain in any post office and when they shall be returned to the dead-letter office; and he may make regulations for their return from the dead-letter office to the writers when they can not be delivered to the parties addressed. When letters are returned from the dead-letter office to the writers, a fee of 3 cents shall be collected at the time of delivery, under such rules and regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe. (R. S. § 3936; Apr. 24, 1920, c. 161, § 4, 41 Stat. 583.)

407. Unpaid letters to dead-letter office.—All domestic letters deposited in any post office for mailing, on which the postage is wholly unpaid or paid less than one full rate as required by law, except letters lawfully free, and duly certified letters of soldiers, sailors, and marines in the service of the United States, shall be sent by the postmaster to the dead-letter office in Washington. But in large cities and adjacent districts of dense population, having two or more post offices within a distance of three miles of each other, any letter mailed at one of such offices and addressed to a locality within the delivery of another of such offices, which shall have been inadvertently prepaid at the drop or local letter rate of postage only, may be forwarded to its destination through the proper office, charged with the amount of the deficient postage, to be collected on delivery. (R. S. § 3937.)

408. Disposition of dead letters.—All letters of domestic origin which can not be delivered by postmasters shall be sent to the Post Office Department or to a post office designated by the Postmaster General and such as contain inclosures of value, other than correspondence, shall be recorded. If the sender or addressee can not be identified, such letters shall be held for a period of one year awaiting reclamation. If within one year they have not been claimed, they shall be disposed of as the Postmaster General may direct. All other undeliverable letters shall be disposed of without record and not held for reclamation. (R. S. § 3938; July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 418.)

409. Request for return.—When the writer of any letter on which the postage is prepaid shall indorse on the outside thereof his name and address, such letter shall not be advertised, but, after remaining uncalled for at the office to which it is directed the time the writer may direct or the Postmaster General prescribe, shall be returned to the writer without additional charge for postage, and if not then delivered, shall be treated as a dead letter. (R. S. § 3939; June 24, 1910, c. 380, 36 Stat. 630.)

411. Disposal of uncalled-for printed matter.—The Postmaster General may provide, by regulations, for disposing of printed and mailable matter which may remain in any post office, or in the department, not called for by the party addressed; but if the publisher of any refused or uncalled-for newspaper or other periodical shall pay the postage due thereon, such newspaper or other periodical shall be excepted from the operation of such regulations. (R. S. § 4061.)

448. Services performed for contractor or subcontractor.
449. Water-route contracts.
450. Water routes; carriage of mails as freight or express.
451. Star routes served entirely by Rural Delivery Service.

Section 421. Advertisement; general mail lettings.—The Postmaster General shall cause advertisements of all general mail lettings of each State and Territory to be conspicuously posted in each post office named in said advertisements for at least sixty days before the time of such general lettings, and no other advertisement of such lettings shall be required; but this provision shall not apply to any other than general mail lettings. (R. S. § 3941; Mar. 1, 1881, c. 96, § 1, 21 Stat. 374; May 12, 1910, c. 230, 36 Stat. 366.)

422. Same; temporary mail lettings; contracts.—After providing by general advertisement for the transportation of the mails in any State or Territory as authorized by law, the Postmaster General may secure any mail service that may become necessary before the next general advertisement for said State or Territory by posting notices, for a period of not less than ten days, in the post offices at the termini of any route to be let, and upon a bulletin board in the Post Office Department, inviting proposals, in such form and with such guaranty as may be prescribed by the Postmaster General, for the performance of the proposed service. The contract for such service shall be made to run to the end of the contract term under the general advertisement, shall be made with the lowest bidder whose proposal is in due form, and who, under the law, is eligible as a bidder for such postal service. (July 26, 1892, c. 249, § 1, 27 Stat. 268.)

423. Transmission by pneumatic tubes; contracts; expert commission; report.—The Postmaster General may enter into contracts not exceeding in the aggregate $1,388,750 for the transmission of mail by pneumatic tubes or other similar devices, for a period not exceeding ten years, after public advertisement once a week for a period of six consecutive weeks in not less than five newspapers, one of which shall be published in each city where the service is to be performed. Contracts for this service shall be subject to the provisions of the postal laws and regulations relating to the letting of mail contracts, except as herein otherwise provided, and no advertisement shall issue until after a careful investigation shall have been made as to the needs and practicability of such service and until a favorable report, in writing, shall have been submitted to the Postmaster General by a commission of not less than three expert postal officials, to be named by him; nor shall such advertisement issue until in the judgment of the Postmaster General the needs of the Postal Service are such as to justify the expenditure involved. Advertisements shall state in general terms only the requirements of the service and in form best calculated to invite competitive bidding.

The Postmaster General shall have the right to reject any and all bids; no contract shall be awarded except to the lowest responsible bidder, tendering full and sufficient guaranties, to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General, of his ability to perform satisfactory service, and such guaranties shall include an approval bond in double the amount of the bid.

No contract shall be entered into in any city for the character of mail service herein provided which will create an aggregate annual rate of expenditure, including necessary power and labor to operate the tubes, and all other expenses of such service in excess of 4 per centum of the gross postal revenue of said city for the last preceding fiscal year.

In the city of New York, including the borough of Brooklyn, the annual rate of expenditure for the transmission of mail by such tubes or devices, including power, labor, and all operating expenses, shall not exceed $18,500 per mile of double line of tubes or such other sum not exceeding $19,500 per mile as may have been prescribed by the Interstate Commerce Commission under the Act of June 19, 1922, chapter 227.

No contract shall be made in any other city providing for three miles or more of double lines of tube which shall involve an expenditure in excess of $17,000 per mile per annum, and said compensation shall cover power, labor, and all operating expenses.

Only such contracts shall be made as may from time to time be provided for in the annual appropriation Act for the Postal Service. Said service shall not be extended in any cities other than those in which the service was under contract under authority of Congress on March 2, 1907, except the borough of Brooklyn, of the city of New York, and the cities of Baltimore, Maryland, Cincinnati, Ohio, Kansas City, Missouri, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and San Francisco, California. (Apr. 21, 1902, c. 563, § 1, 32 Stat. 114; Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2513, 34 Stat. 1211; May 27, 1908, c. 206, 35 Stat. 412.)

424. Contracts for inland and foreign steamboat mail service.—The Postmaster General is authorized to contract for inland and foreign steamboat mail service, when it can be combined in one route, where the foreign office or offices are not more than two hundred miles distant from the domestic office, on the same terms and conditions as inland steamboat service, and pay for the same out of the appropriation for inland steamboat service. (Mar. 3, 1885, c. 342, § 1, 23 Stat. 386.)

425. Proposals; sealing; opening.—Proposals for carrying the mail shall be delivered sealed, and so kept until the bidding is closed, and shall then be opened and marked in the presence of the Postmaster General, and one of the Assistant Postmasters General, or of two of the Assistant Postmasters General, or of any other two officers of the department, to be designated by the Postmaster General; and any bidder may withdraw his bid at any time before twenty-four hours previous to the time fixed for the opening of proposals, by serving upon the Postmaster General notice in writing of such withdrawal. (R. S. § 3944; July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 418.)

426. Bond of bidder.—Every proposal for carrying the mail shall be accompanied by the bond of the bidder, with sureties approved by a postmaster, and in cases where the amount of the bond exceeds $5,000, by a postmaster of the first, second, or third class, in a sum to be designated by the Postmaster General in the advertisement of each route; to which bond a condition shall be annexed, that if the said bidder shall, within such time after his bid is accepted as the Postmaster General shall prescribe, enter into a contract with the United States of America, with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Postmaster General, to perform the service proposed in his said bid, and, further, that he shall perform the said service according to his contract, then the said obligation to be void, otherwise to be in full force and obligation in law; and in case of failure of any bidder to enter into such contract to perform the service, or, having executed a contract, in case of failure to perform the service, according to his contract, he and his sureties shall be liable for the amount of said bond as liquidated damages, to be recovered in an action of debt on the said bond. No proposal shall be considered unless it shall be accompanied by such bond, and there shall have been affixed to said proposal the oath of the bidder, taken before an officer qualified to administer oaths, that he has the ability, pecuniarily, to fulfill his obligations, and that the bid is made in good faith, and with the intention to enter into contract and perform the service in case his bid is accepted. (R. S. § 3945; June 8, 1872, c. 335, § 245, 17 Stat. 313; June 23, 1874, c. 456, § 12, 18 Stat. 235.)

427. Same; justification of sureties; false oath.—Before the bond of a bidder, provided for in section 426 of this title, is approved, there shall be indorsed thereon the oaths of the sureties therein, taken before an officer qualified to administer oaths, that they are owners of real estate worth in the aggregate a sum double the amount of said bond, over and above all debts due and owing by them, and all judgments, mortgages, and executions against them, after allowing all exemptions of every character whatever. Accompanying said bond and as a part thereof, there shall be a series of interrogatories, in print or writing, to be prescribed by the Postmaster General, and answered by the sureties under oath showing the amount of real estate owned by them, a brief description thereof, and its probable value, where it is situated, in what county and State the record evidence of their title exists. And if any surety shall knowingly and willfully swear falsely to any statement made under the provisions of this section he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and, on conviction thereof, be punished as is provided by law for commission of the crime of perjury. (R. S. § 3946; June 8, 1872, c. 335, § 246, 17 Stat. 313; June 23, 1874, c. 456, § 12, 18 Stat. 235; Aug. 11, 1876, c. 260, 19 Stat. 129.)

428. Recording and preserving bids; unaccepted bids; reports as to movement of mails.—The Postmaster General shall have recorded, in a book to be kept for that purpose, a true and faithful abstract of all proposals made to him for carrying the mail, giving the name of the party offering, the terms of the offer, the sum to be paid, and the time the contract is to continue; and he shall put on file and preserve the originals of all such proposals until the end of the contract term to which they relate, after which the proposals that were not accepted may be destroyed or disposed of as waste paper. The reports of the arrivals and departures of the mails on mail routes made and sent by postmasters to the Second Assistant Postmaster General, on which no fines or deductions from the pay of contractors for carrying the mails have been based, and the certificates of oaths taken by carriers on mail routes may be disposed of as waste paper after the expiration of one year from the end of the contract term to which they relate. (R. S. § 3948; June 13, 1898, c. 446, § 2, 30 Stat. 444.)

429. Contracts to lowest bidder.—All contracts for carrying the mail shall be in the name of the United States and shall be awarded to the lowest bidder tendering sufficient guaranties for faithful performance in accordance with the terms of the advertisement. Such contracts shall require due celerity, certainty, and security in the performance of the service; but the Postmaster General shall not be bound to consider the bid of any person who has willfully or negligently failed to perform a former contract. (R. S. § 3949; May 18, 1916, c. 126, § 6, 39 Stat. 161.)

430. Signing contracts for mail transportation.—Contracts made in the Post Office Department for the various classes of mail transportation may, upon order of the Postmaster General, be signed in the place and stead of the Postmaster General by the Assistant Postmaster General who is charged with the supervision of the mail transportation involved, and such officer shall attest his signature to such contracts by the seal of the Post Office Department. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 103, § 3, 19 Stat. 335; Mar. 3, 1917, c. 162, § 2, 39 Stat. 1068.)

431. Copies of contracts.—The Postmaster General shall deliver to the General Accounting Office, within sixty days after the making of any contract for carrying the mail, a duplicate copy thereof. (R. S. § 404; June 10, 1921, c. 18 § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

432. Combinations to prevent bids.—No contract for carrying the mail shall be made with any person who has entered, or proposed to enter, into any combination to prevent the making of any bid for carrying the mail, or who has made any agreement, or given or performed, or promised to give or perform, any consideration whatever to induce any other person not to bid for any such contract; and if any person so offending is a contractor for carrying the mail, his contract may be annulled; and for the first offense the person so offending shall be disqualified to contract for carrying the mail for five years, and for the second offense shall be forever disqualified. (R. S. § 3950.)

433. Same; for star routes; service, how obtained.—Whenever in the judgment of the Postmaster General the bids received for any star route are exhorbitant or unreasonable, or whenever he has reason to believe that a combination of bidders has been entered into to fix the rate for star-route service, the Postmaster General may, out of the appropriation for inland transportation by star routes, employ and use such means or methods to provide the desired service as he may deem expedient, without reference to existing law or laws respecting the employment of personal service or the procurement of conveyances, materials, or supplies. (May 18, 1916, c. 126, § 7, 39 Stat. 161.)

434. Failure to enter into or perform contract; proceedings.—After any regular bidder whose bid has been accepted shall fail to enter into contract for the transportation of the mails according to his proposals, or having entered into contract, shall fail to commence the performance of the service stipulated in his or their contract as therein provided, the Postmaster General shall proceed to contract with the next lowest bidder or bidders in the order of their bids, for the same service, who will enter into a contract for the performance thereof, unless the Postmaster General shall consider such bid or bids too high, and in case each of said bids shall be considered too high, then the Postmaster General shall be authorized to enter into contract, at a price less than that named in said bids, with any person, whether a bidder or not, who will enter into contract to perform the service in accordance with the terms and provisions prescribed for the execution of other contracts for similar service; and in case no satisfactory contract can be thus obtained, he shall readvertise such route. And if any bidder whose bid has been accepted, and who has entered into a contract to perform the service according to his proposal, and in pursuance of his contract has entered upon the performance of the service, to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General, shall subsequently fail or refuse to perform the service according to his contract, the Postmaster General shall proceed to contract with the next lowest bidder for such service, under the advertisement thereof, (unless the Postmaster General shall consider such bid too high) who will enter into contract and give bond, with sureties, to be approved by the Postmaster General, for the faithful performance thereof, in the same penalty and with the same terms and conditions thereto annexed as were stated and contained in the bond which accompanied his bid; and in case said next lowest bidder shall decline to enter into contract for the performance of such service, then the Postmaster General may award the service to, and enter into contract with, any person, whether a bidder on said route or not, who will enter into contract to perform the service and execute a bond of like tenor and effect as that required of bidders, in a penalty to be prescribed, and with sureties to be approved by the Postmaster General, for the performance of the service contracted to be performed at a price not exceeding that named in the bid of the said next lowest bidder; and if no contract can be secured at the price named in said next lowest bid, then the Postmaster General shall proceed to secure a contract, at a price not considered too high, with any person who will execute such contract in accordance with the law applicable thereto, giving in all cases, the preference to the regular bidders on the list whose bids do not exceed the price at which others will contract therefor; and if no satisfactory contract can be thus secured, the route shall be readvertised. Whenever an accepted bidder shall fail to enter into contract, or a contractor on any mail route shall fail or refuse to perform the service on said route according to his contract, or when a new route shall be established or new service required, or when, from any other cause, there shall not be a contractor legally bound or required to perform such service, the Postmaster General may make a temporary contract for carrying the mail on such route, without advertisement, for such period as may be necessary, not in any case exceeding one year, until the service shall have commenced under a contract made according to law. The cost of temporary service rendered necessary by reason of the failure of any accepted bidder to enter into contract or a contractor to perform service shall be charged to such bidder or contractor. The Postmaster General shall not employ temporary service on any route at a higher price than that paid to the contractor who shall have performed the service during the last preceding contract term. In all cases of regular contracts the contract may, in the discretion of the Postmaster General, be continued in force beyond its express terms for a period not exceeding six months, until a new contract with the same or other contractors shall be made by the Postmaster General. (R. S. § 3951; June 8, 1872, c. 335, § 251, 17 Stat. 314; June 23, 1874, c. 456, § 12, 18 Stat. 235; Aug. 11, 1876, c. 260, 19 Stat. 129; Aug. 3, 1882, c. 379, § 21, 22 Stat. 216; May 18, 1916, c. 126 § 8, 39 Stat. 16.)

435. New sureties on mail contracts.—The Postmaster General, whenever, he may deem it consistent with the public interest, may accept or require new surety upon any contract existing or hereafter made for carrying the mails, in substitution for and release of any existing surety. (R. S. § 3955; Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 30, 20 Stat. 362.)

436. Limit of time of contract.—Except as otherwise provided by law, no contract for carrying the mail shall be made for a longer term than four years, and no contract for carrying the mail on the sea shall be made for a longer term than two years. (R. S. § 3956.)

437. Changing terms of contract.—Whenever, by reason of any error, omission, or other cause, any route which should properly be advertised for the regular letting is omitted, it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General to advertise the same as soon as the error or omission shall be discovered, and the proposals for such route shall be opened as soon as possible after the other proposals in the same contract section; and the contract made under such supplementary advertisement shall run, as nearly as possible, from the beginning to the end of the regular contract term, and, during the time necessarily lost by reason of such error, omission, or other cause, the Postmaster

General shall provide for the carrying of the mail on such route at as low rate as possible, without advertising. (R. S. § 3957.)

438. Same; notice of intention.—Whenever it becomes necessary to change the terms of an existing contract for carrying the mail otherwise than as provided in section 437 of this title, notice thereof shall be given and proceedings had thereon the same as at the letting of original contracts. (R. S. § 3958.)

439. Payment on contract.—No person whose bid for carrying the mail is accepted shall receive any pay until he has executed his contract according to law and the regulations of the department. (R. S. § 3959.)

440. Pay for additional regular service.—Compensation for additional service in carrying the mail shall not be in excess of the exact proportion which the original compensation bears to the original service; and when any such additional service is ordered, the sum to be allowed therefor shall be expressed in the order, and entered upon the books of the department; and no compensation shall be paid for any additional regular service rendered before the issuing of such order. (R. S. § 3960.)

441. Allowance for additional expedition; limit.—No extra allowance shall be made for any increase of expedition in carrying the mail unless thereby the employment of additional stock and carriers is made necessary and in such case the additional compensation shall bear no greater proportion to the additional stock and carriers necessarily employed than the compensation in the original contract bears to the stock and carriers necessarily employed in its execution. The Postmaster General shall not expedite the service under any contract either now existing or hereafter given to a rate of pay exceeding 50 per centum upon the contract as originally let. (R. S. § 3961; Apr. 7, 1880, c. 48, § 2, 21 Stat. 72.)

442. Extension of mail route.—The Postmaster General may, in cases where the mail service would be thereby improved, extend service on a mail route under contract, at not exceeding pro rata additional pay. The extensions beyond either terminus ordered during a contract term shall not, in the aggregate, exceed twenty-five miles. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 241, § 1, 36 Stat. 1339.)

443. Fining contractors.—The Postmaster General may make deductions from the pay of contractors, for failures to perform service according to contract, and impose fines upon them for other delinquencies. He may deduct the price of the trip in all cases where the trip is not performed; and not exceeding three times the price if the failure be occasioned by the fault of the contractor or carrier. (R. S. § 3962.)

444. Mail contracts not assignable.—No contractor for transporting the mail within or between the United States and any foreign country shall assign or transfer his contract, and all such assignments or transfers shall be null and void. (R. S. § 3963.)

445. Subletting or transfer of contract.—No subletting or transfer of any mail contracts shall be permitted without the consent in writing of the Postmaster General; and whenever it shall come to the knowledge of the Postmaster General that any contractor has sublet or transferred his contract, except with the consent of the Postmaster General as aforesaid, the same shall be considered as violated and the service may be again advertised as provided by law; and the contractor and his securities shall be liable on their bond to the United States for any damage, resulting to the United States in the premises. (May 17, 1878, c. 107, § 2, 20 Stat. 62.)

446. Same; settlements and payments.—When any person or persons being under contract with the Government of the United States for carrying the mails, shall lawfully sublet any such contract, or lawfully employ any other person or persons to perform the service by such contractor agreed to be performed, or any part thereof, he or they shall file in the office of the Postmaster General a copy of his or their contract; and thereupon it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General to notify the General Accounting Office of the fact of the filing in his office of such contract. Said notice shall embrace the name or names of the original contractor or contractors, the number of the route or routes, the name or names of the subcontractor or subcontractors, and the amount agreed to be paid to the subcontractor or subcontractors. And upon the receipt of said notice by the General Accounting Office it shall be his duty to retain, out of the amount due the original contractor or contractors, the amount stated in said notice as agreed to be paid to the subcontractor or subcontractors, and shall pay said amount, upon the certificate of the Postmaster General, to the subcontractor or subcontractors, under the same rules and regulations governing the payments made to original contractors. Upon satisfactory evidence that the original contractor or contractors have paid off and discharged the amount due under his or their contract to the subcontractor or subcontractors, it shall be the duty of the Postmaster General to certify such fact to the General Accounting Office; and thereupon said office shall settle with the original contractor or contractors, under the same rules as are provided by law for such settlements. (May 17, 1878, c. 107, § 3, 20 Stat. 62; July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 418; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

447. Cancellation of contract sublet; subcontractor's rights.—Whenever any contractor or subcontractor shall sublet his contract for the transportation of the mail on any route for a less sum than that for which he contracted to perform the service, the Postmaster General may, whenever he shall deem it for the good of the service, declare the original contract at an end, and enter into a contract with the last subcontractor, without advertising, to perform the service on the terms at which the last subcontractor agreed with the original contractor or former subcontractor to perform the same. Such last subcontractor shall enter into a good and sufficient bond and the original contractor shall not be released from his contract until a good and sufficient bond has been made by such last subcontractor and accepted by the Post Office Department. When a contract is declared void on account of its having been sublet, the contractor shall not be entitled to one month's extra pay as formerly provided. Where any person, corporation, or partnership shall have contracts for the performance of mail service upon more than one route, and any failure to perform the service according to contract on any one or more of such routes shall occur, no payment shall be made for service on any of the routes under contract with such person, corporation, or partnership until such failure has been removed and all penalties therefor fully satisfied. (May 4, 1882, c. 116, § 1, 22 Stat. 53.)

448. Services performed for contractor or subcontractor.—If any person shall hereafter perform any service for any contractor or subcontractor in carrying the mail, he shall, upon filing in the department his contract for such service and satisfactory evidence of its performance, thereafter have a lien on any money due such contractor or subcontractor for such service to the amount of same; and if such contractor or subcontractor shall fail to pay the party or parties who have performed service as aforesaid the amount due for such service within two months after the expiration of the month in which such service shall have been performed the Postmaster General may cause the amount due to be paid said party or parties and charged to the contractor. Such payment shall not in any case exceed the rate of pay per annum of the contractor or subcontractor. (May 18, 1916, c. 126, § 9, 39 Stat. 162.)

449. Water-route contracts.—When from any cause it may become necessary to make a new contract for carrying the mails upon any water route between the ports of the United States, upon which mail service has previously been performed, the Postmaster General may contract with the owner or master of any steamship, steamboat or other vessel plying upon the waters or between ports of the United States, for carrying the mail upon said route for any length of time not exceeding four years and without advertising for proposals therefor whenever the public interest and convenience will thereby be promoted; but the price paid for such service shall in no case be greater than the average price paid under the last preceding or then existing regular contract upon the same route. And the Postmaster General may contract with the owners or masters of steamships, steamboats or other vessels plying upon the waters or between ports of the United States for carrying the mails upon such routes where no mail service has previously been performed, without advertising for proposals therefor; but no contract for such new service shall be for a longer time than one year. No contract for carrying the mails between the United States and any foreign port shall be for a longer time than two years, unless otherwise directed by Congress. (R. S. § 3943; May 17, 1878, c. 107, § 5, 20 Stat. 62.)

450. Water routes; carriage of mails as freight or express.—When there is no competition for inland transportation by steamboat or other power-boat routes or by aeroplanes and the rate of compensation asked is excessive, or no proposal is received, the Postmaster General may require that the mails be carried as freight or express, and it shall be unlawful for any common carrier by water to refuse to carry the mails when so required, and the penalty for such offense shall be a fine of $500. Each day of refusal shall constitute a separate offense. (July 2, 1918, c. 117, § 1, 40 Stat. 747.)

451. Star routes served entirely by Rural Delivery Service.—No part of the appropriation for inland transportation by star routes shall be expended for continuance of any star route service the patronage of which shall be served entirely by the extension of Rural Delivery Service, nor shall any of said sum be expended for star-route service for a patronage a major portion of which has been served by Rural Delivery Service, unless the services of a qualified rural carrier can not be secured. (July 2, 1918, c. 117, § 1, 40 Stat. 751.)

Chapter 13.—AIR MAIL.

Sec.
461. Short title.
462. Air mail defined.
463. Same; postage rates.
464. Same; contracts for transportation of air mail.
465. Same; rules and regulations.
466. Aeroplane for aeroplane mail service.
467. Purchase of equipment and supplies for aeroplane mail service.
468. Sale of unsuitable aviation material.

Section 461. Short title.—Sections 461 to 465 of this chapter may be cited as the "Air Mail Act." (Feb. 2, 1925, c. 128, § 1, 43 Stat. 805.)

462. Air mail defined.—When used in sections 463 to 465 of this title the term "air mail" means first-class mail prepaid at the rates of postage herein prescribed. (Feb. 2, 1925, c. 128, § 2, 43 Stat. 805.)

463. Same; postage rates.—The rates of postage on air mail shall be not less than 10 cents for each ounce or fraction thereof. (Feb. 2, 1925, c. 128, § 3, 43 Stat. 805.)

464. Same; contracts for transportation of air mail.—The Postmaster General may contract with any individual, firm, or corporation for the transportation of air mail by aircraft between such points as he may designate at a rate not to exceed four-fifths of the revenues derived from such air mail, and further contract for the transportation by aircraft of first-class mail other than air mail at a rate not to exceed four-fifths of the revenues derived from such first-class mail. The cost of such transportation to be paid for out of the appropriation for inland transportation by railroad routes. (Mar. 1, 1921, c. 88, § 1, 41 Stat. 1152; Feb. 2, 1925, c. 128, § 4, 43 Stat. 805.)

465. Same; rules and regulations.—The Postmaster General may make such rules, regulations, and orders as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of sections 462 to 465 of this title. Nothing in such sections shall be construed to interfere with the postage charged or to be charged on Government-operated air mail routes. (Feb. 2, 1925, c. 128, § 5, 43 Stat. 806.)

466. Aeroplanes for aeroplane mail service.—The Postmaster General may expend any sum appropriated for that purpose for the purchase of aeroplanes and the operation and maintenance of aeroplane mail service between such points, including service to and between points in Alaska, as he may determine. (Mar. 3, 1917, c. 162, § 1, 39 Stat. 1064; Feb. 28, 1919, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 1194.)

467. Purchase of equipment and supplies for aeroplane mail service.—The Postmaster General shall purchase, as far as practicable, such available and suitable equipment and supplies for the aeroplane mail service as may be owned by or under construction for the War Department or the Navy Department when no longer required because of the cessation of war activities, and it shall be his duty to first ascertain if such articles of the character described may be secured from the War Department or the Navy Department before purchasing such equipment or supplies elsewhere. If such equipment or supplies, other than emergency supplies, are purchased elsewhere than from the War Department or the Navy Department, the Postmaster General shall report such action to Congress, together with the reasons for such purchases. All articles purchased from either of said departments shall be paid for at a reasonable price considering wear and tear and general condition. Said departments are authorized to sell such equipment and supplies to the Post Office Department under the conditions specified, and the proceeds of such sales shall be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts. The Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy are authorized and directed to deliver immediately to the Postmaster General, as he may request, and as hereinbefore provided, such aeroplane machines, supplies, equipment, and parts as may be serviceable and available for the aeroplane mail service, the same to be out of any equipment that the War Department or the Navy Department has on hand or under construction, the War Department and the Navy Department appropriations to be credited with the equipment turned over to the Post Office Department. Separate accounts shall be kept of the amount expended for aeroplane mail service. (Feb. 28, 1919, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 1194.)

468. Sale of unsuitable aviation material.—The Postmaster General may sell under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe any airplanes, parts thereof, field equipment, tools and other aviation material which have become unsuitable in the Postal Service or which will deteriorate and become unsuitable before it can be used. The proceeds of such sales shall be covered into the Treasury as "Miscellaneous receipts." (June 5, 1920, c. 253, § 1, 41 Stat. 1031.)

Section 481. What are post roads.—The following are established post roads:

All the waters of the United States, during the time the mail is carried thereon.

All railroads or parts of railroads which are now or hereafter may be in operation.

All canals, during the time the mail is carried thereon.

All plank roads during the time the mail is carried thereon.

The road on which the mail is carried to supply any courthouse which may be without a mail, and the road on which the mail is carried under contract made by the Postmaster General for extending the line of posts to supply mails to post offices not on any established route, during the time such mail is carried thereon.

All letter-carrier routes established in any city or town for the collection and delivery of mail matters. (R. S. § 3964.)

482. Post routes.—All public roads and highways while kept up and maintained as such are post routes. (Mar. 1, 1884, c. 9, 23 Stat. 3.)

483. Provisions for carrying the mail.—The Postmaster General shall provide for carrying the mail on all post roads established by law, as often as he, having due regard to productiveness and other circumstances, may think proper. (R. S. § 3965.)

484. Mail to every courthouse.—The Postmaster General shall cause a mail to be carried from the nearest post office on any established post road to the courthouse of any county in the United States which is without a mail. (R. S. § 3966.)

485. Carrying the mail on canals.—The Postmaster General may contract for carrying the mail on the navigable canals of the several States, when, in his opinion, the public interest or convenience requires it. (R. S. § 3967.)

486. Carrying the mail on plank roads.—The Postmaster General may contract for carrying the mail on any plank road in the United States, when the public interest or convenience requires it. (R. S. § 3968.)

487. Carrying the mail on waters of the United States.—The Postmaster General may cause the mail to be carried in any steamboat or other vessel used as a packet on any of the waters of the United States. (R. S. § 3969.)

488. Emergency mail service in Alaska.—The Postmaster General may provide difficult or emergency mail service in Alaska, including the establishment and equipment of relay stations, in such manner as he may think advisable without advertising therefor. (Feb. 21, 1925, c. 283, 43 Stat. 960.)

489. Extending line of posts; compensation.—The Postmaster General may enter into contracts for extending the line of posts to supply mails to post offices not on any established route, and, as a compensation for carrying the mail under such contracts, may allow not exceeding two-thirds of the salary paid to the postmaster at such special offices. (R. S. § 3971.)

490. Selecting post roads.—When there is more than one road between places designated by law for a post road, the Postmaster General may direct which shall be considered the post road. (R. S. § 3972.)

80270°—26——80

491. Change of post-road terminus.—The Postmaster General may change the terminus of post roads connecting with or intersecting railways when the service can be thereby improved. (R. S. § 3973.)

492. Discontinuing service on post road.—Whenever, in the opinion of the Postmaster General, the postal service can not be safely continued, the revenues collected, or the laws maintained on any post road, he may discontinue the service on such road or any part thereof until the same can be safely restored. (R. S. § 3974.)

493. Contract for service over routes not established by law.—The Postmaster General may, when he deems it advisable, contract for the transportation of the mails to and from any post office; but where such service is performed over a route not established by law, he shall report the same to Congress at its meeting next thereafter, and such service shall cease at the end of the next session of Congress, unless such route is established a post route by Congress. (R. S. § 3975.)

494. Mail carrying by vessels not in mail service.—The Postmaster General may pay, to the master or owner of any vessel not regularly employed in carrying the mail, 2 cents for each letter carried by such vessel between ports or places in the United States, or from any foreign port to any port in the United States; but all such letters shall be deposited in the post office at the port of arrival. (R. S. § 3978.)

495. Prepaid way letters to be received.—Every railway postal clerk or other carrier of the mail shall receive any mail matter presented to him, if properly prepaid by stamps, and deliver the same for mailing at the next post office at which he arrives; but no fees shall be allowed him therefor. (R. S. § 3980; July 31, 1882, c. 361, § 1, 22 Stat. 180.)

496. Carrying foreign letters.—No vessel departing from the United States for any foreign port shall receive on board or convey any letter or packet originating in the United States which has not been regularly received from the post office at the port of departure, and which does not relate to the cargo of such vessel, except as provided in section 500 of this title; and every collector, or other officer of the port empowered to grant clearances, shall require from the master of such vessel, as a condition of clearance, an oath that he has not received on board, has not under his care or control, and will not receive or convey any letter or packet contrary to the provisions of this section. (R. S. § 3987.)

497. Searching vessels for letters.—Any post-office inspector, when instructed by the Postmaster General to make examinations and seizures, and the collector or other customs officer of any port, without special instructions, shall carefully search all vessels for letters which may be on board or which have been conveyed contrary to law. (R. S. §§ 3989, 4017; June 11, 1880, c. 206, § 1, 21 Stat. 177.)

498. Seizing and detaining letters.—Any post-office inspector, collector, or other customs officer, or United States marshal or his deputy, may at all times seize all letters and bags, packets or parcels, containing letters which are being carried contrary to law on board any vessel or on any post route, and convey the same to the nearest post office, or may, by the direction of the Postmaster General or Secretary of the Treasury, detain them until two months after the final determination of all suits and proceedings which may, at any time within six months after such seizure, be brought against any person for sending or carrying such letters. (R. S. §§ 3990, 4017; June 11, 1880, c. 206, § 1, 21 Stat. 177.)

499. Disposition of seizures.—Every package or parcel seized by any post-office inspector, collector, or other customs officer, or United States marshal or his deputies, in which any letter is unlawfully concealed, shall be forfeited to the United States, and the same proceedings may be had to enforce the forfeiture as are authorized in respect to goods, wares, and merchandise forfeited for violation of the revenue laws; and all laws for the benefit and protection of customs officers making seizures for violating revenue laws shall apply to officers making seizures for violating the postal laws. (R. S. §§ 3991, 4017; June 11, 1880, c. 206, § 1, 21 Stat. 177.)

500. Letters in stamped envelopes carried out of mail.—All letters inclosed in stamped envelopes, if the postage stamp is of a denomination sufficient to cover the postage that would be chargeable thereon if the same were sent by mail, may be sent, conveyed, and delivered otherwise than by mail, provided such envelope shall be duly directed and properly sealed, so that the letter cannot be taken therefrom without defacing the envelope, and the date of the letter or of the transmission or receipt thereof shall be written or stamped upon the envelope. But the Postmaster General may suspend the operation of this section upon any mail route where the public interest may require such suspension. (R. S. § 3993.)

501. Separating letter mail for expedition.—When the amount of mail matter to be carried on any mail route is so great as to seriously retard the progress or endanger the security of the letter mail, or materially increase the cost of carriage at the ordinary rate of speed, the Postmaster General may provide for the separate carriage of the letter mail at the usual rate of speed; but the other mail matter shall not be delayed any more than is absolutely necessary, having due regard to the cost of expedition and the means at his disposal for effecting the same. (R. S. § 3994; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 319.)

502. Transfer of motor-propelled vehicles and equipment belonging to Military Establishment to Post Office Department; purposes of.—The Secretary of War is hereby authorized and directed to transfer such motor-propelled vehicles and motor equipment, including spare parts, pertaining to the Military Establishment as are or may be found to be surplus and no longer required for military purposes, to the Post Office Department for use in the transmission of mails. (Mar. 15, 1920, c. 100, § 1, 41 Stat. 530.)

503. Freight charges on property transferred; payment by States for property received.—Freight charges incurred in the transfer of the property provided for in section 502 of this title shall not be defrayed by the War Department, and if the War Department shall load any of said property for shipment the expense of said loading shall be reimbursed the War Department by the Post Office Department by an adjustment of the appropriations of the two departments. (Mar. 15, 1920, c. 100, § 4, 41 Stat. 531.)

504. Transfer of motor vehicles, aeroplanes, machinery, and tools to Postmaster General for use in Postal Service.—The Secretary of War is also authorized, in his discretion, to deliver and turn over to the Postmaster General, without charge therefor, from time to time, such motor vehicles, aeroplanes, and parts thereof, and machinery and tools to repair and maintain the same, as may be suitable for use in the Postal Service; and the Postmaster General is authorized to use the same in the transportation of the mails and to pay the necessary expenses thereof, including the replacement, maintenance, exchange, and repair of such equipment, out of any appropriation available for the service in which such vehicles or aeroplanes are used. (July 2, 1918, c. 117, § 8, 40 Stat. 753; Apr. 24, 1920, c. 161, § 3, 41 Stat. 583.)

Section 521. Carrying mail on railway routes by horse express.—If the Postmaster General is unable to contract for carrying the mail on any railway route at a compensation not exceeding the maximum rates herein provided, or for what he may deem a reasonable and fair compensation, he may separate the letter mail from the other mail, and contract, either with or without advertising, for carrying such letter mail by horse express or otherwise, at the greatest speed that can reasonably be obtained, and for carrying the other mail in wagons, or otherwise, at a slower rate of speed. (R. S. § 3999.)

522. Transportation of official matter by railway or express companies.—The Postmaster General may provide for the transportation of official matter of any department of the Government, over any railroad or express company, whenever he can do so at a saving to the Government and without detriment to the public service. Nothing in this section shall apply to official matter franked by Members of Congress. (July 13, 1892, c. 165, § 5.)

523. Carrying on trains without extra charge persons in charge of.—Every railroad company carrying the mails shall carry on any train it operates and without extra charge therefor the persons in charge of the mails and when on duty and traveling to and from duty, and all duly accredited agents and officers of the Post Office Department and the Railway Mail Service and post-office inspectors while traveling on official business, upon the exhibition of their credentials. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 419.)

524. Conditions of railway service; adjustment of compensation.—The Postmaster General is authorized and directed to adjust the compensation to be paid to railroad companies for the transportation and handling of the mails and furnishing facilities and services in connection therewith upon the conditions and at the rates hereinafter provided. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 1, 39 Stat. 425.)

525. Classes of routes enumerated.—The Postmaster General may state railroad mail routes and authorize mail service thereon of the following four classes, namely: Full railway post-office car service, apartment railway post-office car service, storage-car service, and closed-pouch service. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 2, 39 Stat. 425.)

526. Full railway post-office car service.—Full railway post-office car mail service shall be service by cars forty feet or more in length, constructed, fitted up, and maintained for the distribution of mails on trains. The authorizations of full railway post-office cars shall be for standard-sized cars sixty feet in length, inside measurement, except as hereinafter provided. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 3, 39 Stat. 425.)

527. Apartment railway post-office car service.—Apartment railway post-office car mail service shall be service by apartments less than forty feet in length in cars constructed, fitted up, and maintained for the distribution of mails on trains. Two standard sizes of apartment railway post-office cars may be authorized and paid for, namely, apartments fifteen feet and thirty feet in length, inside measurement, except as hereinafter provided. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 4, 39 Stat. 425.)

528. Storage-car service.—Storage-car mail service shall be service by cars used for the storage and carriage of mails in transit other than by full and apartment railway post-office cars. The authorizations for storage cars shall be for cars sixty feet in length, inside measurement, except as hereinafter provided. Storage space in units of three feet, seven feet, fifteen feet, and thirty feet, both sides of car, may be authorized in baggage cars at not exceeding pro rata of the rates hereinafter named for sixty-foot storage cars. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 5, 39 Stat. 425.)

529. Service by full and apartment railway post-office cars and storage cars.—Service by full and apartment railway post-office cars and storage cars shall include the carriage therein of all mail matter, equipment, and supplies for the mail service and the employees of the Postal Service or Post Office Department, as shall be directed by the Postmaster General to be so carried. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 6, 39 Stat. 426.)

530. Closed-pouch service.—Closed-pouch mail service shall be the transportation and handling by railroad employees of mails on trains on which full or apartment railway post-office cars are not authorized, except as hereinbefore provided. The authorizations for closed-pouch service shall be for units of seven feet and three feet in length, both sides of car. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 7, 39 Stat. 426.)

531. Rates of payment for classes of routes.—The rates of payment for the services authorized in accordance with this section shall be as follows, namely:

(a) Full railway post-office car service.—For full railway post-office car mail service at not exceeding 21 cents for each mile of service by a sixty-foot car.

In addition thereto he may allow not exceeding $4.25 as a combined initial and terminal rate for each one-way trip of a sixty-foot car.

(b) Apartment railway post-office car service.—For apartment railway post-office car mail service at not exceeding 11 cents for each mile of service by a thirty-foot apartment car and 6 cents for each mile of service by a fifteen-foot apartment car.

In addition thereto he may allow not exceeding $2.75 as a combined initial and terminal rate for each one-way trip of a thirty-foot apartment car and $2 as a combined initial and terminal rate for each one-way trip of a fifteen-foot apartment car.

(c) Storage-car service.—For storage-car mail service at not exceeding 21 cents for each mile of service by a sixty-foot car.

In addition thereto he may allow not exceeding $4.25 as a combined initial and terminal rate for each one-way trip of a sixty-foot car.

(d) Closed-pouch service.—For closed-pouch service, at not exceeding 1½ cents for each mile of service when a three-foot unit is authorized, and 3 cents for each mile of service when a seven-foot unit is authorized.

In addition thereto he may allow not exceeding 25 cents as the combined initial and terminal rate for each one-way trip of a three-foot unit of service and 50 cents as a combined initial and terminal rate for each one-way trip of a seven-foot unit of service. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 8 (a, b, c, e), 39 Stat. 426.)

532. Cars of less than standard lengths; cars of excess length.—Where authorizations are made for cars of the standard lengths of sixty, thirty, and fifteen feet, as provided by sections 526 and 527 of this title, and the railroad company is unable to furnish such cars of the length authorized, but furnishes cars of lesser length than those authorized, but which are determined by the department to be sufficient for the service, the Postmaster General may accept the same and pay only for the actual space furnished and used, the compensation to be not exceeding pro rata of that provided by section 531 of this title for the standard length so authorized. The Postmaster General may accept cars and apartments of greater length than those of the standard requested, but no compensation shall be allowed for such excess lengths. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 8 (d), 39 Stat. 426.)

533. Initial and terminal rates to cover certain expenses; varying allowances for full railway post-office cars, apartment railway post-office cars, and storage cars.—The initial and terminal rates provided for in section 531 of this title shall cover expenses of loading and unloading mails, switching, lighting, heating, cleaning mail cars, and all other expenses incidental to station service and required by the Postmaster General in connection with the mails that are not included in the car-mile rate. The allowance for full railway post-office cars, apartment railway post-office cars, and storage cars may be varied in accordance with the approximate difference in their respective cost of construction and maintenance. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 8 (g), 39 Stat. 426.)

534. Computation of car-miles; railway post-office cars and apartment railway post-office cars.—In computing the car-miles of the full railway post-office cars and apartment railway post-office cars, the maximum space authorized in either direction of a round-trip car run shall be regarded as the space to be computed in both directions, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 8 (h), 39 Stat. 427.)

535. Same; storage cars.—In computing the car-miles of storage cars, the maximum space authorized in either direction of a round-trip car run shall be regarded as the space to be computed in both directions, unless the car be used by the company in the return movement, or otherwise mutually agreed upon. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 8 (i), 39 Stat. 427.)

536. Land-grant roads.—Railroad companies whose railroads were constructed in whole or in part by a land grant made by Congress, on the condition that the mails should be transported over their roads at such price as Congress should by law direct, shall receive only 80 per centum of the compensation otherwise authorized by this chapter. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 8 (f), 39 Stat. 426.)

537. Style, construction, and maintenance of post-office cars; pay for unsound cars; steel cars.—All cars or parts of cars used for the Railway Mail Service shall be of such construction, style, length, and character, and furnished in such manner as shall be required by the Postmaster General, and shall be constructed, fitted up, maintained, heated, lighted, and cleaned by and at the expense of the railroad companies. No pay shall be allowed for service by any railway post-office car which is not sound in material and construction and which is not equipped with sanitary drinking-water containers and toilet facilities, nor unless such car is regularly and thoroughly cleaned. The Postmaster General shall not approve or allow to be used, or pay for service by, any full railway post-office car not constructed of steel or steel underframe or equally indestructible material; and all full railway post-office cars accepted for this service and contracted for by the railroad companies shall be constructed of steel. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 11, 39 Stat. 427.)

538. Facilities for carrying and handling mails; cars at station; station room; offices for employees.—Railroad companies carrying the mails shall furnish all necessary facilities for caring for and handling them while in their custody. They shall furnish all cars or parts of cars used in the transportation and distribution of the mails, except as herein otherwise provided, and place them in stations before the departure of trains at such times and when required to do so. They shall provide station space and rooms for handling, storing, and transfer of mails in transit, including the separation thereof, by packages for connecting lines, and such distribution of registered mail in transit as may be necessary, and for offices for the employees of the Railway Mail Service engaged in such station work when required by the Postmaster General, in which mail from station boxes may be distributed if it does not require additional space. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 13, 39 Stat. 427.)

539. Selection of trains; carrying on any train.—The Postmaster General shall in all cases decide upon what trains and in what manner the mails shall be conveyed. Every railroad company carrying the mails shall carry on any train it operates, and with due speed, all mailable matter, equipment, and supplies directed to be carried thereon. If any such railroad company shall fail or refuse to transport the mails, equipment, and supplies when required by the Postmaster General on any train or trains it operates, such company shall be fined such reasonable amount as may, in the discretion of the Postmaster General, be deemed proper. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 15, 39 Stat. 425.)

540. Service operated by railroad and steamboats.—The provisions of sections 524 to 568, 576 and 579 of this title shall apply to service operated by railroad companies partly by railroad and partly by steamboats. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 17, 39 Stat. 428.)

541. Transportation required in manner, under conditions, and with service prescribed by Postmaster General; compensation therefor.—All railway common carriers are hereby required to transport such mail matter as may be offered for transportation by the United States in the manner, under the conditions, and with the service prescribed by the Postmaster General and shall be entitled to receive fair and reasonable compensation for such transportation and for the service connected therewith. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 27, 39 Stat. 429.)

542. Interstate Commerce Commission to fix and determine rates and compensation.—The Interstate Commerce Commission is hereby empowered and directed to fix and determine from time to time the fair and reasonable rates and compensation for the transportation of such mail matter by railway common carriers and the service connected therewith, prescribing the method or methods by weight, or space, or both, or otherwise, for ascertaining such rate or compensation, and to publish the same, and orders so made and published shall continue in force until changed by the commission after due notice and hearing. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 28, 39 Stat. 429.)

543. Relation between the railroads as public-service corporations and the Government to be considered.—In fixing and determining the fair and reasonable rates for such service the commission shall consider the relation existing between the railroads as public-service corporations and the Government, and the nature of such service as distinguished, if there be a distinction, from the ordinary transportation business of the railroads. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 29, 39 Stat. 429.)

544. Procedure for ascertaining rates.—The procedure for the ascertainment of said rates and compensation shall be as provided in sections 545 to 554 of this title. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 30, 39 Stat. 429.)

545. Filing of statement by Postmaster General with Interstate Commerce Commission showing transportation required.—The Postmaster General shall file with the commission a statement showing the transportation required of all railway common carriers, including the number, equipment, size, and construction of the cars necessary for the transaction of the business; the character and speed of the trains which are to carry the various kinds of mail; the service, both terminal and en route, which the carriers are to render; and all other information which may be material to the inquiry, but such other information may be filed at any time in the discretion of the commission. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 30 (a), 39 Stat. 429.)

546. Employment of clerical assistance; plan for transportation filed with Interstate Commerce Commission.—The Postmaster General may employ such clerical and other assistance as shall be necessary to carry out the provisions of sections 524 to 568, 576 and 579 of this title, and may rent quarters in Washington, District of Columbia, if necessary, for the clerical force engaged thereon, and pay for the same out of the appropriation for inland transportation by railroad routes. The Postmaster General shall file with the commission a comprehensive plan for the transportation of the mails on said railways and shall embody therein what he believes to be the reasonable rate or compensation the said railway carriers should receive. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 30 (b), 39 Stat. 430.)

547. Notice by Interstate Commerce Commission to railroads; answer of railroads; hearings.—Thereupon the commission shall give notice of not less than thirty days to each carrier so required to transport mail and render service, and upon a day to be fixed by the commission, not later than thirty days after the expiration of the notice herein required, each of said carriers shall make answer and the commission shall proceed with the hearing as provided by law for other hearings between carriers and shippers or associations. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 30 (c), 39 Stat. 430.)

548. Taking testimony, evidence, penalties, and procedure.—All the provisions of the law for taking testimony, securing evidence, penalties, and procedure are hereby made applicable. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 30 (d), 39 Stat. 430.)

549. Classification of carriers by Interstate Commerce Commission.—For the purpose of determining and fixing rates or compensation hereunder the commission is authorized to make such classification of carriers as may be just and reasonable and, where just and equitable, fix general rates applicable to all carriers in the same classification. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 30 (e), 39 Stat. 430.)

550. Additional weighing of mails.—Pending such hearings, and the final determination of the question, if the Interstate Commerce Commission shall determine that it is necessary or advisable, in order to carry out the provisions of this chapter, to have additional and more frequent weighing of the mails for statistical purposes, the Postmaster General, upon request of the commission, shall provide therefor in the manner prescribed by law, but such weighing need not be for more than thirty days. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 30 (f), 39 Stat. 430.)

551. Orders of Interstate Commerce Commission establishing rate or compensation.—At the conclusion of the hearing the commission shall establish by order a fair, reasonable rate or compensation to be received, at such stated times as may be named in the order, for the transportation of mail matter and the service connected therewith, and during the continuance of the order the Postmaster General shall pay the carrier from the appropriation for inland transportation by railroad routes such rate or compensation. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 30 (g), 39 Stat. 430.)

552. Percentage of rates allowed land-grant railroads.—The Interstate Commerce Commission shall allow to railroad companies whose railroads were constructed in whole or in part by a land grant made by Congress on condition that the mails should be transported over their roads at such price as Congress should by law direct only 80 per centum of the compensation paid other railroads for transporting the mails and all service by the railroads in connection therewith. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 30 (j), 39 Stat. 430.)

553. Applications for reexaminations.—Either the Postmaster General or any such carrier may at any time after the lapse of six months from the entry of the order assailed apply for a reexamination, and thereupon substantially similar proceedings shall be had with respect to the rate or rates for service covered by said application, provided said carrier or carriers have an interest therein. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 30 (h), 39 Stat. 425.)

554. Powers conferred on Interstate Commerce Commission.—For the purposes of sections 524 to 568 of this title the Interstate Commerce Commission is hereby vested with all the powers which it is authorized by law to exercise in the investigation and ascertainment of the justness and reasonableness of freight, passenger, and express rates to be paid by private shippers. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 30 (i), 39 Stat. 430.)

555. Conveyance under special arrangement in freight trains; rates.—The provisions of sections 524 to 568 of this title respecting the rates of compensation shall not apply to mails conveyed under special arrangement in freight trains, for which rates not exceeding the usual and just freight rates may be paid, in accordance with the classifications and tariffs approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 18, 39 Stat. 428.)

556. Proof of performance of service.—Railroad companies carrying the mails shall submit, under oath when and in such form as may be required by the Postmaster General, evidence as to the performance of service. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 19, 39 Stat. 428.)

557. Information from Interstate Commerce Commission as to revenues from express companies; rates for transporting matter other than first class.—The Postmaster General shall, from time to time, request information from the Interstate Commerce Commission as to the revenue received by railroad companies from express companies for services rendered in the transportation of express matter, and may, in his discretion, arrange for the transportation of mail matter other than of the first class at rates not exceeding those so ascertained and reported to him, and it shall be the duty of the railroad companies to carry such mail matter at such rates fixed by the Postmaster General. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 20, 39 Stat. 428.)

558. Determination by Interstate Commerce Commission of postal carload or less rate for transportation of fourth-class matter and periodicals.—The Postmaster General may, in his discretion, petition the Interstate Commerce Commission for the determination of a postal carload or less-than-carload rate for transportation of mail matter of the fourth class and periodicals, and may provide for and authorize such transportation, when practicable, at such rates, and it shall be the duty of the railroad companies to provide and perform such service at such rates and on the conditions prescribed by the Postmaster General. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 21, 39 Stat. 428.)

559. Distinguishing between several classes of matter.—The Postmaster General may, in his discretion, distinguish between the several classes of mail matter and provide for less frequent dispatches of mail matter of the third and fourth classes and periodicals when lower rates for transportation or other economies may be secured thereby without material detriment to the service. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 22, 39 Stat. 428.)

560. Return to mails; postal cards, stamped envelopes, and newspaper wrappers.—The Postmaster General may return to the mails, when practicable for the utilization of car space paid for and not needed for the mails, postal cards, stamped envelopes, newspaper wrappers, empty mail bags, furniture, equipment, and other supplies for the Postal Service. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 23, 39 Stat. 429.)

561. Same; empty mail bags.—The Postmaster General, in cases of emergency between October 1 and April 1 of any year, may return to the mails empty mail bags and other equipment theretofore withdrawn therefrom as required by law, and, where such return requires additional authorization of car space pay for the transportation thereof as provided for herein out of the appropriation for inland transportation by railroad routes. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 24, 39 Stat. 429.)

562. Weighing mail; computations.—The Postmaster General may have the weights of mail taken on railroad mail routes, and computations of the average loads of the several classes of cars and other computations for statistical and administrative purposes made at such times as he may elect, and pay the expense thereof out of the appropriation for inland transportation by railroad routes. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 25, 39 Stat. 429.)

563. Refusal to perform service at rates or methods of compensation provided by law.—It shall be unlawful for any railroad company to refuse to perform mail service at the rates or methods of compensation provided by law when required by the Postmaster General so to do, and for such offense shall be fined $1,000. Each day of refusal shall constitute a separate offense. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 33, 39 Stat. 431.)

564. New and additional service; reduction or discontinuance of service.—New service and additional service may be authorized at not exceeding the rates herein provided, and service may be reduced or discontinued with pro rata reductions in pay, as the needs of the Postal Service may require. No additional pay shall be allowed for additional service unless specifically authorized by the Postmaster General. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 9, 39 Stat. 427.)

565. Special contracts for transportation; reports of.—The Postmaster General is authorized to make special contracts with the railroad companies for the transportation of the mails where in his judgment the conditions warrant the application of higher rates than those herein specified, and make report to Congress of all cases where such special contracts are made and the terms and reasons therefor. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 10, 39 Stat. 427.)

566. Service over property owned by another company; over land-grant companies.—Service over property owned or controlled by another company or a terminal company shall be considered service of the railroad company using such property and not that of the other or terminal company. Service over land-grant road shall be paid for as herein provided. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 12, 39 Stat. 427.)

567. Failure to furnish cars or compartments.—If any railroad company carrying the mails shall fail or refuse to provide cars or apartments in cars for distribution purposes when required by the Postmaster General, or shall fail or refuse to construct, fit up, maintain, heat, light, and clean such cars and provide such appliances for use in case of accident as may be required by the Postmaster General, it shall be fined such reasonable sum as may, in the discretion of the Postmaster General, be deemed proper. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 14, 39 Stat. 428.)

568. Deductions from pay for reduction in or nonperformance of service.—The Postmaster General may make deductions from the pay of railroad companies carrying the mails under the provisions of sections 524 to 568 of this title for reduction in service or infrequency of service where, in his judgment, the importance of the facilities withdrawn or reduced requires it, and impose fines upon them for delinquencies. He may deduct the price of the value of the service in cases where it is not performed, and not exceeding three times its value if the failure be occasioned by the fault of the railroad company. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 5, subd. 16, 39 Stat. 428.)

569. Rates for transportation by electric and cable cars.—The rate of compensation to be paid per mile for inland transportation of mail by electric and cable cars shall not exceed the rate paid on April 24, 1920, to companies performing such service, except that the Postmaster General, in cases where the quantity of mail is large and the number of exchange points numerous, may, in his discretion, authorize payment for closed-pouch service at a rate per mile not to exceed one-third above the rate per mile paid on that date for closed-pouch service; and for mail cars and apartments carrying the mails, not to exceed the rate of 1 cent per linear foot per car-mile of travel. The rates for electric-car service on routes over twenty miles in length outside of cities shall not exceed the rates paid for service on steam railroads. (Mar. 3, 1917, c. 162, § 1, 39 Stat. 1066; Apr. 24, 1920, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 580.)

570. Same; rates fixed by Interstate Commerce Commission.—The Interstate Commerce Commission is empowered and directed to fix and determine from time to time the fair and reasonable rates and compensation for the transportation of mail matter by urban and interurban electric railway common carriers and the service connected therewith, prescribing the method or methods by weight or space, or both, or otherwise, for ascertaining such rate or compensation and to publish same, and orders so made and published shall continue in force until changed by the commission after due notice and hearing. It shall be unlawful for any urban or interurban electric railroad to refuse to perform mail service at the rates or methods of compensation thus provided for such service when required by the Postmaster General so to do, and for such offense shall be fined $100. Each day of refusal shall constitute a separate offense. (July 2, 1918, c. 117, § 1, 40 Stat. 748.)

571. Contracts with railways without advertising.—The Postmaster General may enter into contracts for carrying the mail, with railway companies, without advertising for bids therefor. (R. S. § 3942.)

572. Weighing of mails; readjustments.—When, during a weighing period, on account of floods or other causes, interruptions in service occur on railroad routes and the weights of mail are decreased below the normal, or where there is an omission to take weights, the Postmaster General, for the purpose of readjusting compensation on such railroad routes as are affected thereby, may, in his discretion, add to the weights of mails ascertained on such routes during that part of the weighing period when conditions are shown to have been normal the estimated weights for that part of the weighing period when conditions are shown to have been not normal, or where there has been an omission to take weights, based upon the average of weights taken during that part of the weighing period during which conditions are shown to have been normal, the actual weights and the estimated weights to form the basis for the average weight per day upon which to readjust the compensation according to law on such railroad routes for the transportation of the mails. (May 18, 1916, c. 126, § 4, 39 Stat. 161.)

573. Same; withdrawal of freightable lots of postal supplies.—The Postmaster General shall require, when in freightable lots and whenever practicable, the withdrawal from the mails of all postal cards, stamped envelopes, newspaper wrappers, empty mail bags, furniture, equipment, and other supplies for the postal service, except postage stamps, in the respective weighing divisions of the country, immediately preceding the weighing period in said divisions, and thereafter such postal cards, stamped envelopes, newspaper wrappers, empty mail bags, furniture, equipment, and other supplies for the Postal Service, except postage stamps, shall be transmitted by either freight or express. (May 12, 1910, c. 230, 36 Stat. 362.)

574. Readjustment of pay for mail diverted after weighing periods.—When, after a weighing of the mails for the purpose of readjusting the compensation for their transportation on a railroad route, mails are diverted therefrom or thereto, the Postmaster General may, in his discretion, ascertain the effect of such diversion by a weighing of such mails for such number of successive working days as he may determine, and have the weights stated and verified to him as in other cases, and readjust the compensation on the routes affected accordingly. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 4, 37 Stat. 554.)

575. Weighing mails; payment of expenses of computations.—Out of the appropriation for inland mail transportation the Postmaster General may pay rental if necessary in Washington, District of Columbia, and compensation to tabulators and clerks employed in connection with the weighings for assistance in completing computations, in connection with the expenses of taking the weights of mails on railroad routes, as provided by law. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 241, § 1, 36 Stat. 1334.)

576. Sending second-class matter by freight; discriminations; appeals; precedence of proceedings in Court of Appeals.—No publication shall be sent by freight if such method of transportation results in unfair discrimination. Whenever the owner of any publication required by an order of the Post Office Department to be transmitted by freight believes that he is unfairly discriminated against, he may apply to the Post Office Department for an opportunity to be heard; and upon such application being duly filed in writing, the owner of such publication shall have opportunity for a full and fair hearing before said department, and pending final determination no change shall be made in the method of transportation of such publication as ordered by the department. The testimony in any such hearing or proceedings shall be reduced to writing and filed in the Post Office Department prior to entering an order upon such hearing. Upon such hearing if the Post Office Department decides adversely to the contention of the publisher, such publisher shall have the right, within the period of twenty days after the date of the order of the Post Office Department made upon such hearing, to appeal to the United States Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, for a review of such order by said court of appeals, by filing in the court a written petition praying that the order of the Post Office Department be set aside. A copy of such petition shall be forthwith served upon the Post Office Department and thereupon the said department forthwith shall certify and file in the court a transcript of the record and testimony. Upon the filing of such transcript the court shall have jurisdiction to affirm, set aside or modify the order of the department.

The jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia to affirm, set aside or modify such orders of the Post Office Department shall be exclusive.

Such proceedings in the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia shall be given precedence over other cases pending therein and shall be in every way expedited. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 2, 39 Stat. 424.)

577. Lease of terminal railway post offices.—The Postmaster General may apply a part of the appropriation for rental of space for terminal railway post offices for the distribution of the mails when the furnishing of space for such distribution can not properly be required of railroad companies without additional compensation, to the purpose of leasing premises for the use of terminal railway post offices at a reasonable annual rental, to be paid quarterly, for a term not exceeding twenty years. (Mar. 9, 1914, c. 33, 38 Stat. 301; Apr. 24, 1920, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 580.)

578. Mail messengers.—The Postmaster General may employ such mail-messenger service as may be necessary for the carriage of the mails in connection with railroad and steamboat service, transfer service between depots, over bridges or ferries, between post offices, post offices and branch offices or stations, in cases where by the laws and regulations of the Post Office Department, railroad companies, steamboat companies, and the masters of vessels are not required to deliver into and take from the post offices the mails carried on their lines or vessels. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 346, 24 Stat. 492.)

579. Same; contracts for service.—In the discretion of the Postmaster General, postmasters, assistant postmasters, and clerks at post offices of the third class, and postmasters, assistant postmasters, and clerks at post offices of the fourth class may enter into contracts for the performance of mail-messenger service, and allowance may be made therefor from the appropriations for mail-messenger service. The total amount payable under such contract to any postmaster, assistant postmaster, or clerk shall not exceed $300 in any one year. Special-delivery messengers at post offices of all classes may enter into contracts for mail-messenger service. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 418; June 3, 1924, c. 237, 43 Stat. 356.)

632. Transfer; salaries not reduced.
633. Same; travel allowances.
634. Same; preference in transfers from service to department or post offices.
635. Same; annual vacation.
636. Same; full time to clerks deadheading under orders.
637. Substitutes for clerks absent otherwise than on annual leave.
638. Badges of postal clerks and mail messengers.
639. Newspapers; delivery by railway postal clerks.

Section 601. Expenses of officers of Railway Mail Service.—The superintendent and the assistant general superintendent and chief clerk of the Railway Mail Service shall be paid their necessary and actual expenses while traveling on the business of the department. (Apr. 16, 1890, c. 85, 26 Stat. 56.)

602. Salaries of division superintendents, assistant division superintendents, assistant superintendents at large, assistant superintendents in charge of car construction, chief clerks, and assistant chief clerks.—The annual salaries of employees of the Railway Mail Service shall be as follows: Division superintendents, $4,500; assistant division superintendents and assistant superintendents at large, $3,600; assistant superintendent in charge of car construction, $3,300; chief clerks, $3,300; assistant chief clerks, $2,800. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 7, 43 Stat. 1061.)

603. Assistant superintendents; traveling expenses.—Assistant superintendents may receive a per diem allowance in lieu of actual and necessary traveling expenses at the rate of $4 per day while actually traveling on business of the department away from their several designated headquarters. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 851, §1, 31 Stat. 1105.)

604. Expenses of supervisory employees.—Supervisory employees of the Railway Mail Service shall be paid their actual expenses as fixed by law. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 2, 43 Stat. 1055.)

605. Rating of clerks in charge of sections in offices of division superintendents.—The clerks in charge of sections in the offices of the division superintendents shall be rated as assistant chief clerks at $2,800 salary. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 7, 43 Stat. 1062.)

606. Laborers; grades; salaries.—Laborers in the Railway Mail Service shall be divided into two grades with annual salaries as follows: Grade 1, salary $1,500; grade 2, $1,600. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 7, 43 Stat. 1062.)

607. Same; promotion; readjustment of grades.—Laborers shall be promoted to grade 2 after one year's satisfactory service in grade 1. In the readjustment of the service to conform to the grades herein provided for laborers, each grade shall include laborers in the grade of the same number existing on December 31, 1924. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 7, 43 Stat. 1062.)

608. Classification of railway postal clerks.—The Postmaster General shall classify and fix the salaries of railway postal clerks, under such regulations as he may prescribe, in the grades provided by law. He may assign to the offices of division superintendents and chief clerks such railway postal clerks as may be necessary and fix their salaries within the grades provided by law without regard to the classification of railway post offices. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 7, 37 Stat. 555.)

609. Railway postal clerks; appointment.—The Postmaster General may appoint railway postal clerks in such manner and of such respective grades and salaries as may be provided for in the annual appropriation acts for the service of the Post Office Department, for the purpose of sorting and distributing the mail in railway post offices, railway post-office terminals and transfer offices, and for service in the offices of division superintendents and chief clerks, and as transfer clerks and such other services as may pertain to the Railway Mail Service. Such clerks shall be designated as railway postal clerks. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 7, 37 Stat. 555.)

610. Same; classes and grades; salaries.—Railway postal clerks shall be divided into two classes, class A and class B, and into seven grades with annual salaries as follows: Grade 1, salary $1,900; grade 2, salary $2,000; grade 3, salary $2,150; grade 4, salary $2,300; grade 5, salary $2,450; grade 6, salary $2,600; grade 7, salary $2,700. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 7, 43 Stat. 1062.)

611. Same; original appointments; time of promotion.—All original appointments shall be made to the rank of substitute railway postal clerk, and promotions shall be made successively at the beginning of the quarter following a total satisfactory service of three hundred and six days in the next lower grade. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 7, 37 Stat. 556; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 7, 43 Stat. 1062.)

612. Same; readjustment of grades.—In the readjustment of the service to conform to the grades herein provided, each grade shall include clerks in the grade of the same number existing on December 31, 1924. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 7, 43 Stat. 1062.)

613. Same; hours of service; overtime pay or compensatory time.—Service of clerks shall be based on an average of not exceeding eight hours daily for three hundred and six days per annum, including proper allowances for all service required on lay-off periods. Clerks required to perform service in excess of eight hours daily, as herein provided, shall be paid in cash at the annual rate of pay or granted compensatory time at their option for such overtime. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 7, 43 Stat. 1063.)

614. Substitute clerks; probationary period; pay; credit for time served as probationers on appointment as regular clerks; promotion.—Substitute railway postal clerks shall be paid for services actually performed at the rate of $1,850 per annum, the first year of service to constitute a probationary period, and when appointed regular clerks shall receive credit on the basis of one year of actual service performed as a substitute and be appointed to the grade to which such clerk would have progressed had his original appointment as a substitute been to grade 1. Any fractional part of a year's substitute service will be included with his service as a regular clerk in determining eligibility for promotion to the next higher grade following appointment to a regular position. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2513, 34 Stat. 1213; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 7, 43 Stat. 1062.)

615. Same; full time and travel expenses when traveling under orders.—Substitute railway postal clerks shall be credited with full time while traveling under orders of the department to and from their designated headquarters to take up an assignment, together with actual and necessary travel expenses, not to exceed $3 per day, while on duty away from such headquarters. When a substitute clerk performs service in a railway post office starting from his official headquarters he shall be allowed travel expenses under the law applying to clerks regularly assigned to the run. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 7, 43 Stat. 1062.)

616. Compensatory time to laborers or railway postal clerks at terminal railway post offices and transfer offices for work on Sundays or holidays; overtime in lieu thereof.—When the needs of the service require the employment on Sundays or holidays of laborers or railway postal clerks at terminal railway post offices and transfer offices, they shall be allowed compensatory time on one day within six days next succeeding the Sunday, except the last three Sundays in the calendar year, and on one day within thirty days next succeeding the holiday and the last three Sundays in the year on which service is performed: Provided, however, That the Postmaster General may, if the exigencies of the service require it, authorize the payment of overtime for service on the last three Sundays in the calendar year or on Christmas Day in lieu of compensatory time. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 11, 43 Stat. 1065.)

617. Classes of railway post-office lines; promotion of clerks.—Railway post-office lines shall be divided into two classes, class A and class B, and clerks assigned to class A lines shall be promoted successively to grade 4 and clerks in charge to grade 5. Clerks assigned to class B lines shall be promoted successively to grade 5 and clerks in charge to grade 6. Lines in class A existing on December 31, 1924, shall be continued in class A, and lines in class B existing on that date shall be continued in class B. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 7, 43 Stat. 1062.)

618. Classes of terminal railway post offices; promotion of clerks.—Terminal railway post offices shall be divided into two classes, class A and class B; those having less than twenty employees shall be assigned to class A, and those having twenty or more employees shall be assigned to class B. Clerks in class A terminals shall be promoted successively to grade 4, and clerks in charge of tours to grade 5. Clerks in class B terminals shall be promoted successively to grade 5, and clerks in charge of tours to grade 6. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 7, 43 Stat. 1063.)

619. Classes of transfer offices; promotion of clerks.—Transfer offices shall be divided into two classes, class A and class B; those having less than five employees shall be assigned to class A and those having five or more employees to class B. Clerks in class A shall be promoted successively to grade 4, and clerks in charge of tours to grade 5. Clerks in class B shall be promoted successively to grade 5, and clerks in charge of tours to grade 6. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 7, 43 Stat. 1063.)

620. Clerk in charge defined.—A clerk in charge is defined as a clerk in charge of a railway post office, terminal railway post office, or transfer office whether he performs service alone or has a crew of clerks under his supervision, or of a tour or a crew within a tour of a terminal railway post office or transfer office. (June 5, 1920, c. 254, 41 Stat. 1050.)

621. Promotion of clerks assigned to offices of division superintendents or chief clerks.—Clerks assigned to the office of division superintendent or chief clerk shall be promoted successively to grade 4, and in the office of division superintendent four clerks may be promoted to grade 5 and eight clerks to grade 6, and in the office of chief clerk one clerk may be promoted to grade 5 and two clerks to grade 6. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 7, 43 Stat. 1063.)

622. Promotion of examiners.—Examiners shall be promoted successively to grade 6 and assistant examiners to grade 5 whether assigned to the office of division superintendent or chief clerk. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 7, 43 Stat. 1063.)

623. Promotions for meritorious services.—Promotions above these grades hereinbefore specified, but within the maximum grades of the classification, may be made in the discretion of the Postmaster General for meritorious service. No promotion shall be made except upon evidence satisfactory to the Post Office Department of the efficiency and faithfulness of the employee during the preceding year. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 7, 37 Stat. 556.)

624. Same; transfer.—A clerk of any grade of any classification of railway post offices, terminal railway post offices, transfer offices, or in the office of a division superintendent or chief clerk, may be transferred and assigned to any classification of railway post offices, terminal railway post offices, transfer offices, or to an office of a division superintendent or chief clerk under such regulations as the Postmaster General may deem proper. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 7, 37 Stat. 556.)

625. Same; failing of promotion.—Whenever the promotion of an employee provided for in this chapter is withheld because of unsatisfactory service such employee may be promoted at the beginning of the second quarter thereafter or any subsequent quarter on evidence that his record has been satisfactory during the intervening period. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 7, 37 Stat. 556; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 11, 43 Stat. 1064.)

626. Same; in highest grades of their lines; promotions.—Clerks in the highest grade in their respective lines or other assignments shall be eligible for promotion to positions of clerks in charge in said lines or corresponding positions in other assignments, and clerks assigned as assistant chief clerks and clerks in charge of crews consisting of more than one clerk, either assigned to the line, the transfer service, or to a terminal railway post office, and clerks in the highest grades in offices of division superintendents in their respective divisions, shall, after two years of continuous service in such capacity, be eligible for promotion to positions of chief clerks in said division for satisfactory, efficient, and faithful service during the preceding two-year period, under such regulations as the Postmaster General shall prescribe. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 7, 37 Stat. 556.)

627. Same; restoration after reduction in grade.—Whenever an employee provided for in this chapter shall have been reduced in salary for any cause he may be restored to his former grade or advanced to an intermediate grade at the beginning of any quarter following the reduction, and a restoration to a former grade or advancement to an intermediate grade shall not be construed as a promotion within the meaning of the law prohibiting advancement of more than one grade within one year. All employees provided for in this chapter in automatic grades who have not reached the maximum grades to which they are entitled to progress automatically, shall be promoted at the beginning of the quarter following the completion of one year's satisfactory service since their last promotion, regardless of any increases granted them by the provisions of this chapter. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 7, 37 Stat. 556; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 11, 43 Stat. 1065.)

628. Same; advancement restricted.—In filling positions below that of chief clerk no clerk shall be advanced more than one grade in a period of a year. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 7, 37 Stat. 556.)

629. Hours of work for postal clerks assigned to terminal railway post offices and transfer offices, and laborers in Railway Mail Service; overtime pay.—Railway postal clerks assigned to terminal railway post offices and transfer offices and laborers in the Railway Mail Service shall be required to work not more than eight hours a day, and the eight hours of service shall not extend over a longer period than ten consecutive hours, but in cases of emergency, or if the needs of the service require, they may be required to work in excess of eight hours a day, and for such additional service they shall be paid in proportion to their salaries as fixed by law. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 7, 43 Stat. 1063.)

630. Postal clerks assigned to road duty; full time for delay to trains.—Clerks assigned to road duty shall be credited with full time for delays to trains equal to the period of time between the scheduled arrival and actual arrival of the train at destination of run. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 7, 43 Stat. 1063.)

631. Postal clerks; residences.—All clerks appointed to the Railway Mail Service and to perform duty on railway post offices shall reside at some point on the route to which they are assigned; but railway postal clerks appointed prior to February 28, 1895, and performing such duty on August 24, 1912, shall not be required to change their residences, except when transferred to another line. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 7, 37 Stat. 556.)

632. Transfer; salaries not reduced.—When railway postal clerks are transferred from one assignment to another because of changes in the service their salaries shall not be reduced by reason of such change. (Mar. 3, 1917, c. 162, § 1, 39 Stat. 1065.)

633. Same; travel allowances.—In addition to the salaries provided by law, the Postmaster General may make travel allowances in lieu of actual expenses, at fixed rates per annum, not exceeding in the aggregate the sum annually appropriated, to railway postal clerks, acting railway postal clerks, and substitute railway postal clerks, including substitute railway postal clerks for railway postal clerks granted leave with pay on account of sickness, assigned to duty in railway post-office cars, while on duty, after ten hours from the time of beginning their initial run, under such regulations as he may prescribe, and in no case shall such an allowance exceed $3 per day. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 1, 37 Stat. 548; Mar. 3, 1917, c. 162, § 1, 39 Stat. 1065; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 7, 43 Stat. 1062.)

634. Same; preference in transfers from service to department or post offices.—In the assignment or transfer of clerks from the Railway Mail Service, preference shall be given to the persons honorably discharged from the military or naval service who served in the civil war and who are serving as clerks on the railway mail cars in order that they may be transferred to clerical service in the department or in the post offices and relieved from service on said cars as rapidly as practicable, provided they are found to possess the business capacity necessary for the proper discharge of the duties of the offices to which they may be transferred. (June 26, 1906, c. 3546, 34 Stat. 474.)

635. Same; annual vacation.—The Postmaster General may allow railway postal clerks an annual vacation of fifteen days, with pay, and may, in his discretion, under such regulations as he may provide, allow any railway postal clerk leave of absence with pay for a period not exceeding thirty days, with the understanding that his duties will be performed without expense to the Government during the period for which leave is granted, he to provide a substitute at his own expense. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 851, § 1, 31 Stat. 1105; Mar. 1, 1909, c. 232, 35 Stat. 667; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 143, 37 Stat. 798; July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 420.)

636. Same; full time to clerks deadheading under orders.—Railway postal clerks and substitute railway postal clerks shall be credited with full time when deadheading under orders of the department. (Mar. 3, 1917, c. 162, § 1, 39 Stat. 1065; Apr. 24, 1920, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 580.)

637. Substitutes for clerks absent otherwise than on annual leave.—When any clerk in the Railway Mail Service is absent from duty for any cause, other than the fifteen days' annual leave with pay allowed by law, the Postmaster General, under such regulations as he may prescribe, may authorize the employment of a substitute for such work, and payment therefor from the lapsed salary of such absent clerk, at a rate not to exceed the pay of the grade of work performed by such substitute. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1480, § 1, 33 Stat. 1085.)

638. Badges of postal clerks and mail messengers.—Postal clerks, railway postal clerks, and mail messengers shall not be required to wear uniform other than a cap or badge. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 180, § 1, 20 Stat. 357; July 31, 1882, c. 361, § 1, 22 Stat. 180.)

639. Newspapers; delivery by railway postal clerks.—The Postmaster General may provide by order the terms upon which railway postal clerks may receive from publishers or any news agents in charge thereof, and deliver the same as directed, if presented and called for at the mail car or steamer, packages of newspapers and other periodicals not received from or intended for delivery at any post office. (R. S. § 3889.)

Chapter 17.—FOREIGN MAIL SERVICE.

Sec.

660. Same; construction of vessels; specifications; inspection.
661. Same; rates of compensation; deductions and fines.
662. Same; transportation of messengers.
663. Same; service of naval officers on vessels; compensation; duties.
664. Same; cadets or apprentices on vessels.
665. Same; payment for vessels taken as transports.
666. Contracts for service on American vessels; rate.
667. Sea post service; transfer of foreign mails.
668. Sea post clerks; disability allowance; compensation for death.
669. Transportation of Canadian mail through the United States.
670. Payment of postage by consuls.
671. Postage on letters carried in foreign vessel.
672. Resident agents on Isthmus of Panama, etc.
673. Agents on mail steamers to foreign ports.
674. Postal agencies in China and Japan.

Section 651. Foreign mail-transportation contracts.—The Postmaster General, after advertising for proposals, may enter into contracts or make suitable arrangements for transporting the mail through any foreign country, between any two points in the United States, and such transportation shall be by the speediest, safest, and most economical route; and all contracts therefor may be revoked whenever any new road or canal shall be opened affording a speedier, more economical, and equally safe transportation between the same points; but in case of the revocation of any such contract, a fair indemnity shall be awarded to the contractor. (R. S. § 4006.)

652. Same; for carrying mails between the United States and foreign countries.—The Postmaster General may, after advertising for proposals, enter into contract for the transportation of the mail between the United States and any foreign country whenever the public interests will thereby be promoted. (R. S. § 4007.)

653. How mail transported.—The mail between the United States and any foreign port, or between ports of the United States touching at a foreign port, shall be transported in steamships; but the Postmaster General may have such transportation performed by sailing vessels when the service can be facilitated thereby. (R. S. § 4008.)

654. Pay for transporting.—For transporting the mail between the United States and any foreign port, or between ports of the United States touching at a foreign port, the Postmaster General may allow as compensation, if by a United States steamship, any sum not exceeding the sea and United States inland postage except as otherwise provided by law; and if by a foreign steamship or by a sailing vessel, any sum not exceeding the sea postage, on the mail so transported. (R. S. § 4009.)

655. Fine of contractors for delay.—The Postmaster General may impose fines on contractors for transporting the mail between the United States and any foreign country, for any unreasonable or unnecessary delay in the departure of such mail, or the performance of the trip; but the fine for any one default shall not exceed one-half the contract price for the trip except as otherwise provided by law. (R. S. § 4010.)

656. Discontinuing transportation contracts.—Every contract for transporting the mail between the United States and any foreign country shall contain, besides the usual stipulation for the right of the Postmaster General to discontinue the same, the further stipulation that it may be terminated by Congress. (R. S. § 4011.)

657. Ocean mail service on American vessels; contracts.—The Postmaster General is authorized and empowered to enter into contracts for a term not less than five nor more than ten years in duration, with American citizens, for the carrying of mails on American steamships, between ports of the United States and such ports in foreign countries, the Dominion of Canada excepted, as in his judgment will best subserve and promote the postal and commercial interests of the United States, the mail service on such lines to be equitably distributed among the Atlantic, Mexican Gulf, and Pacific ports. Said contracts shall be made with the lowest responsible bidder for the performance of said service on each route, and the Postmaster General shall have the right to reject all bids not in his opinion reasonable for the attaining of the purposes named. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 519, § 1, 26 Stat. 830.)

658. Same; advertisements for proposals.—Before making any contract for carrying ocean mails in accordance with sections 657 to 665 of this title the Postmaster General shall give public notice by advertising once a week, for three months, in such daily papers as he shall select in each of the cities of Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, New Orleans, Saint Louis, Charleston, Norfolk, Savannah, Galveston, and Mobile, and when the proposed service is to be on the Pacific Ocean, then in San Francisco, Tacoma, and Portland. Such notice shall describe the route, the time when such contract will be made, the duration of the same, the size of the steamers to be used, the number of trips a year, the times of sailing, and the time when the service shall commence, which shall not be more than three years after the contract shall be let. The details of the mode of advertising and letting such contracts shall be conducted in the manner prescribed in chapter 12 of this title so far as the same shall be applicable to the ocean mail service. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 519, § 2, 26 Stat. 831.)

by American citizens, in conformity with law, or so owned and officered and registered according to law, and upon each departure from the United States the following proportion of the crew shall be citizens of the United States, to wit: During the first two years of such contract for carrying the mails, one-fourth thereof; during the next three succeeding years, one-third thereof; and during the remaining time of the continuance of such contract at least one-half thereof; and shall be constructed after the latest and most approved types, with all the modern improvements and appliances for ocean steamers. They shall be divided into four classes. The first class shall be iron or steel screw steamships, capable of maintaining a speed of twenty knots an hour at sea in ordinary weather, and of a gross registered tonnage of not less than eight thousand tons. No vessel except of said first class shall be accepted for said mail service under the provisions of sections 657 to 665 between the United States and Great Britain. The second class shall be iron or steel steamships, capable of maintaining a speed of sixteen knots an hour at sea in ordinary weather, and of a gross registered tonnage of not less than five thousand tons. The third class shall be iron or steel steamships, capable of maintaining a speed of fourteen knots an hour at sea in ordinary weather, and of a gross registered tonnage of not less than two thousand five hundred tons. The fourth class shall be iron or steel or wooden steamships, capable of maintaining a speed of twelve knots an hour at sea in ordinary weather, and of a gross registered tonnage of not less than one thousand five hundred tons. It shall be stipulated in the contract or contracts to be entered into for the said mail service that said vessels may carry passengers with their baggage in addition to said mails and may do all ordinary business done by steamships. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 519, § 3, 26 Stat. 831; Mar. 3, 1917, c. 162, § 1, 39 Stat. 1066.)

660. Same; construction of vessels; specifications; inspection.—All steamships of the first, second, and third classes employed as above and built after March 3, 1891, shall be constructed with particular reference to prompt and economical conversion into auxiliary naval cruisers, and according to plans and specifications to be agreed upon by and between the owners and the Secretary of the Navy, and they shall be of sufficient strength and stability to carry and sustain the working and operation of at least four effective rifled cannon of a caliber of not less than six inches, and shall be of the highest rating known to maritime commerce. And all vessels of said three classes built prior to such date and so employed shall, before they are accepted for the mail service herein provided for, be thoroughly inspected by a competent naval officer or constructor detailed for that service by the Secretary of the Navy; and such officer shall report, in writing, to the Secretary of the Navy, who shall transmit said report to the Postmaster General; and no such vessel not approved by the Secretary of the Navy as suitable for the service required shall be employed by the Postmaster General. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 519, § 4, 26 Stat. 831.)

661. Same; rates of compensation; deductions and fines.—The rate of compensation to be paid for such ocean mail service of the said first-class ships shall not exceed the sum of $4 a mile, and for the second-class ships, $2 a mile, by the shortest practicable route, for each outward voyage; for the third-class ships shall not exceed $1 a mile. And for the fourth-class ships two-thirds of $1 a mile for the actual number of miles required by the Post Office Department to be traveled on each outward-bound voyage. In the case of failure from any cause to perform the regular voyages stipulated for in said contracts, or any of them, a pro rata deduction shall be made from the compensation on account of such omitted voyage or voyages. Suitable fines and penalties may be imposed for delays or irregularities in the due performance of service according to the contract, to be determined by the Postmaster General. No steamship so employed and so paid for carrying the United States mails shall receive any other bounty or subsidy from the Treasury of the United States. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 519, § 5, 26 Stat. 832.)

662. Same; transportation of messengers.—Upon each of said vessels the United States shall be entitled to have transported, free of charge, a mail messenger, whose duty it shall be to receive, sort, take in charge and deliver the mails to and from the United States, and who shall be provided with suitable room for the accommodation of himself and the mails. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 519, § 6, 26 Stat. 832.)

663. Same; service of naval officers on vessels; compensation; duties.—Officers of the United States Navy may volunteer for service on said mail vessels, and when accepted by the contractor or contractors may be assigned to such duty by the Secretary of the Navy whenever in his opinion such assignment can be made without detriment to the service, and while in said employment they shall receive furlough pay from the Government, and such other compensation from the contractor or contractors as may be agreed upon by the parties. They shall only be required to perform such duties as appertain to the merchant service. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 519, § 7, 26 Stat. 832.)

664. Same; cadets or apprentices on vessels.—Said vessels shall take, as cadets or apprentices, one American-born boy under twenty-one years of age for each one thousand tons gross register, and one for each majority fraction thereof, who shall be educated in the duties of seamanship, rank as petty officers, and receive such pay for their services as may be reasonable. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 519, § 8, 26 Stat. 832.)

665. Same; payment for vessels taken as transports.—Such steamers may be taken and used by the United States as transports or cruisers, upon payment to the owners of the fair actual value of the same at the time of the taking, and if there shall be a disagreement as to the fair actual value of the same at the time of the taking, between the United States and the owners, then the same shall be determined by two impartial appraisers, one to be appointed by each of said parties, they at the same time selecting a third, who shall act in said appraisement in case the two shall fail to agree. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 519, § 9, 26 Stat. 832.)

666. Contracts for service on American vessels; rate.—The Postmaster General may enter into contracts with American citizens for the carrying of the mail between the United States and Great Britain on steamships built in the United States capable of maintaining a speed of thirty knots an hour at sea in ordinary weather and of a gross registered tonnage of not less than thirty-five thousand tons, the said service to commence not more than four years after the contract shall be let. The rate of compensation to be paid for the said ocean mail service shall not exceed the sum of $8 per mile by the shortest practicable route for each outward voyage. The Postmaster General shall have the right to reject all bids not in his opinion reasonable for the attaining of the purposes named. All of the provisions of sections 657 to 665 of this title, so far as they are not inconsistent herewith shall control and apply to the methods to be used and contracts to be made hereunder. (Mar. 3, 1917, c. 162, § 1, 39 Stat. 1066.)

667. Sea post service; transfer of foreign mails.—The Postmaster General is authorized to expend such sums as may be necessary, not to exceed the amounts appropriated by Congress, to cover the cost to the United States for maintaining sea post service on ocean steamships conveying the mails to and from the United States; and for transferring the foreign mail from incoming steamships in New York Bay to the steamship and railway piers, for transferring the foreign mail from incoming steamships in San Francisco Bay to the piers and for transferring the foreign mail from incoming steamships at Honolulu from quarantine to the piers; also for transferring the mail from steamships performing service under contract for transporting United States mail. (Mar. 2, 1907, c. 2513, 34 Stat. 1214; Mar. 4, 1913, c. 143, 37 Stat. 799; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title II, 43 Stat. 786.)

668. Sea post clerks; disability allowance; compensation for death.—Acting clerks may be employed in place of clerks or substitutes injured while on duty who shall be granted leave of absence with full pay during the period of disability, but not exceeding one year, then at the rate of 50 per centum of the clerk's annual salary for the period of disability exceeding one year but not exceeding twelve months additional, and the Postmaster General may pay the sum of $2,000, which shall be exempt from payment of debts of the deceased, to the legal representative of any sea post clerk or substitute sea post clerk who shall be killed while on duty, or who, being injured while on duty, shall die within one year thereafter as the result of such injury. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 143, 37 Stat. 799.)

669. Transportation of Canadian mail through the United States.—The Postmaster General may, by and with the advice and consent of the President, make any arrangements which may be deemed just and expedient for allowing the mails of Canada, or any other country adjoining the United States, to be transported over the territory of the United States from one point in such country to any other point in the same, at the expense of the country to which the mail belongs, upon obtaining a like privilege for the transportation of the United States mail through the country to which the privilege is granted; but such privilege may at any time be annulled by the President or Congress from and after one month succeeding the day on which notice of the act of the President or Congress is given to the chief executive or head of the post office department of the country whose privilege is to be annulled. (R. S. § 4012.)

670. Payment of postage by consuls.—The Postmaster General or the Secretary of State is hereby authorized to empower the consuls of the United States to pay the foreign postage on such letters destined for the United States as may be detained at the ports of foreign countries for the nonpayment of postage, which postage shall be by the consul marked as paid by him, and the amount thereof shall be collected in the United States as other postage, on the delivery of the letters, and repaid to said consul, or credited on his account at the State Department. (R. S. § 4014.)

671. Postage on letters carried in foreign vessel.—The Postmaster General, under the direction of the President of the United States, is authorized and empowered to charge upon, and collect from, all letters and other mailable matter carried to or from any port of the United States, in any foreign packet ship or other vessel, the same rate or rates of charge for American postage which the government to which such foreign packet or other vessel belongs imposes upon letters and other mailable matter conveyed to or from such foreign country in American packets or other vessels as the postage of such government, and at any time to revoke the same; and all custom-house officers and other United States agents designated or appointed for that purpose shall enforce or carry into effect the foregoing provision, and aid or assist in the collection of such postage, and to that end it shall be lawful for such officers and agents, on suspicion of fraud, to open and examine, in the presence of two or more respectable persons, being citizens of the United States, any package or packages supposed to contain mailable matter found on board such packets or other vessels or elsewhere, and to prevent, if necessary, such packets or other vessels from entering, breaking bulk, or making clearance until such letters or other mailable matter are duly delivered into the United States post office. (R. S. § 4015.)

672. Resident agents on Isthmus of Panama, etc.—The Postmaster General may establish resident mail agencies at the ports of Panama and Colon, in the Republic of Panama; Havana, in Cuba; at Saint Thomas, and at such other foreign ports at which United States mail steamers touch to land and receive mails, as may, in his judgment, promote the efficiency of the Foreign Mail Service; and may pay the agents employed by him at such ports, out of the appropriation for transportation of the mail, a reasonable compensation for their services, and the necessary expenses for office rent, clerk hire, office furniture, and other incidentals, to be allowed him at each of such agencies. (R. S. § 4021.)

673. Agents on mail steamers to foreign ports.—The Postmaster General may appoint an agent in charge of the mail on board of each of the mail steamers on the routes between San Francisco, Japan, and China; between San Francisco and Honolulu, in the Hawaiian Islands, and between New York and Rio Janeiro, who shall be allowed, out of the appropriation for transportation of the mail, a salary of $2,000 a year. (R. S. § 4022.)

674. Postal agencies in China and Japan.—The Postmaster General may establish, in connection with the mail steamship service to Japan and China, a general postal agency at Shanghai, in China, or at Yokohama, in Japan, with such branch agencies at any other ports in China and Japan as he shall deem necessary for the prompt and efficient management of the postal service in those countries; and he may pay the postal agents employed thereat a reasonable compensation for their services, in addition to the necessary expenses for rent, furniture, clerk hire, and incidental expenses. (R. S. § 4023.)

Chapter 18.—POST-OFFICE INSPECTORS.

Sec.
691. Expenses of chief of post-office inspectors.
692. Post-office inspectors; appointment.
693. Same; grades and salaries; promotions.
694. Same; expenses while on official business away from homes.
695. Salary and per diem of inspector detailed to free-delivery system.
696. When to give bond.
697. Assistant Postmasters General as inspectors.
698. Clerks at division headquarters; grades; promotions; transfer of clerks or carriers in City Delivery Service to position of clerks at division headquarters.
699. Same; substitutes.
700. Searches authorized.
701. Reduction in salary; restoration to former grade or advancement to immediate grade.
702. Promotion regardless of increase of pay.
703. Promotion of employee whose promotion withheld.

Section 691. Expenses of chief of post-office inspectors.—The chief of post-office inspectors shall be paid his actual expenses while traveling on the business of the department. (Mar. 1, 1881, c. 96, § 1, 21 Stat. 374.)

692. Post-office inspectors; appointment.—The Postmaster General may employ such number of post-office inspectors as the good of the service and the safety of the mail may require; and the appointment of additional inspectors shall be made upon certification of the Civil Service Commission. (R. S. § 4017; June 11, 1880, c. 206, § 1, 21 Stat. 177; June 19, 1922, c. 227, § 1, 42 Stat. 655; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title II, 43 Stat. 784.)

693. Same; grades and salaries; promotions.—Post-office inspectors shall be divided into six grades, as follows: Grade 1—salary, $2,800; grade 2—salary, $3,000; grade 3—salary, $3,200; grade 4—salary, $3,500; grade 5—salary, $3,800; grade 6—salary, $4,000, and there shall be fifteen inspectors in charge at $4,500. In the readjustment of grades for inspectors to conform to the grades herein provided, inspectors in grades 1 and 2 on December 31, 1924, shall be included in grade 1; inspectors in grade 3 on that date shall be included in grade 2; inspectors in grade 4 on that date shall be included in grade 3; inspectors in grade 5 on that date shall be included in grade 4; inspectors in grade 6 on that date shall be included in grade 5; and inspectors in grade 7 on that date shall be included in grade 6. Inspectors shall be promoted successively to grade 5 at the beginning of the quarter following a year's satisfactory service in the next lower grade, and not to exceed 35 per centum of the force to grade 6 for meritorious service after not less than one year's service in grade 5; and the time served by inspectors in their grade on December 31, 1924, shall be included in the year's service required for promotion in the grades provided herein, except as to inspectors in grade 1 on that date. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 2, 43 Stat. 1055.)

694. Same; expenses while on official business away from homes.—Inspectors shall be paid their actual expenses not to exceed $5 per day while engaged on official business away from their homes and official domiciles. (Apr. 24, 1920, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 574; June 5, 1920, c. 254, 41 Stat. 1052; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 2, 43 Stat. 1055.)

695. Salary and per diem of inspector detailed to free-delivery system.—The bureau of accounts, in the Post Office Department, shall charge to the appropriation for the free-delivery system the salary and per diem of the post-office inspector detailed for that service. (R. S. §§ 4017, 4020; June 11, 1880, c. 206, § 1, 21 Stat. 177; Mar. 3, 1897, c. 385, § 1, 29 Stat. 648; June 10, 1921, c. 18, 42 Stat. 23.)

696. When to give bond.—Whenever a post-office inspector is required to collect or disburse any public money, he shall, before entering upon such duty, give bond in such sum and form, and with such security, as the Postmaster General may approve. (R. S. § 4018.)

697. Assistant Postmasters General as inspectors.—The Postmaster General may employ, when the service requires it, the Assistant Postmasters General and superintendents in his department as post-office inspectors; and he may allow them therefor not exceeding the amount expended by them as necessary traveling expenses while so employed. (R. S. § 4019.)

698. Clerks at division headquarters; grades; promotions; transfer of clerks or carriers in City Delivery Service to position of clerks at division headquarters.—Clerks at division headquarters of post-office inspectors shall be divided into six grades, as follows:

Grade 1—salary, $1,900; grade 2—salary, $2,000; grade 3—salary, $2,150; grade 4—salary, $2,300; grade 5—salary, $2,450; grade 6—salary, $2,600; and there shall be one chief clerk at each division headquarters at a salary of $3,000. In the readjustment of grades for clerks at division headquarters to conform to the grades herein provided, clerks in each of the grades existing on December 31, 1924, shall be included in the grade of the same number herein provided. Clerks at division headquarters shall be promoted successively to grade 5 at the beginning of the quarter following a year's satisfactory service in the next lower grade and not to exceed 35 per centum of the force to grade 6 for meritorious service after not less than one year's service in grade 5, and the time served by clerks in their grades on December 31, 1924, shall be included in the year's service required for promotion in the grades provided herein. Whenever in the discretion of the Postmaster General the needs of the service require such action, he is authorized to transfer clerks or carriers in the City Delivery Service from post offices at which division headquarters of post-office inspectors are located to the position of clerk at such division headquarters after passing a noncompetitive examination at a salary not to exceed $2,300. After such transfer is made effective clerks so transferred shall be eligible for promotion to the grades of salary provided for clerks at division headquarters of post-office inspectors. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 2, 43 Stat. 1055.)

699. Same; substitutes.—When any clerk in the office of division headquarters in the post-office inspection service is absent from duty for any cause other than leave with pay allowed by law, the Postmaster General, under such regulations as he may prescribe, may authorize the employment of a substitute for such work, and payment therefor from the lapsed salary of such absent clerk at a rate not to exceed the grade of pay of the clerk absent without pay. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 2, 43 Stat. 1056.)

700. Searches authorized.—The Postmaster General may, by a letter of authorization under his hand, to be filed among the records of his department, empower any post-office inspector or other officer of the Post Office Establishment to make searches for mailable matter transported in violation of law; and the inspector or officer so authorized may open and search any car or vehicle passing, or having lately before passed, from any place at which there is a post office of the United States to any other such place, or any box, package, or packet, being, or having lately before been, in such car or vehicle, or any store or house, other than a dwelling house, used or occupied by any common carrier or transportation company, in which such box, package, or packet may be contained, whenever such inspector or officer has reason to believe that mailable matter, transported contrary to law, may therein be found. (R. S. § 4026.)

701. Reduction in salary; restoration to former grade or advancement to intermediate grade.—Whenever an employee provided for in this chapter shall have been reduced in salary for any cause, he may be restored to his former grade or advanced to an intermediate grade at the beginning of any quarter following the reduction, and a restoration to a former grade or advancement to an intermediate grade shall not be construed as a promotion within the meaning of the law prohibiting advancement of more than one grade within one year. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 11, 43 Stat. 1064.)

702. Promotion regardless of increase of pay.—All employees provided for in this chapter in automatic grades who have not reached the maximum grades to which they are entitled to progress automatically, shall be promoted at the beginning of the quarter following the completion of one year's satisfactory service since their last promotion, regardless of any increases in salaries granted them by the provisions of this chapter. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 11, 43 Stat. 1065.)

703. Promotion of employee whose promotion withheld.—Whenever the promotion of an employee provided for in this chapter is withheld because of unsatisfactory service, such employee may be promoted at the beginning of the second quarter thereafter, or of any subsequent quarter, on evidence that his record has been satisfactory during the intervening period. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 11, 43 Stat. 1064.)

Chapter 19.—THE MONEY-ORDER SYSTEM.

721. Limited money-order offices.
722. Regulations; designation of officer to sign warrants.
723. Indorsement of orders.
724. Identification of payee.

Sec.
725. Changes and modification of orders.
726. Orders to correct errors.
727. Orders payable at any office.
728. Repayment of orders.
729. Replacing lost orders.
730. Payment; unpaid orders after lapse of seven years.
731. Same; domestic orders unpaid after three years.
732. Payment of orders issued in favor of lotteries.
733. Transfer of funds.
734. Transfer by warrant to funds.
735. Report of funds.
736. What to be funds.
737. Duplicates of lost checks.
738. Postal notes.
739. Disposition of money-order statements.

Section 711. Money-order system established.—To promote public convenience, and to insure greater security in the transfer of money through the mail, the Postmaster General may establish and maintain, under such rules and regulations as he may deem expedient, a uniform money-order system, at all suitable post offices, which shall be designated as "money-order offices." (R. S. § 4027.)

712. Foreign money-order exchanges.—The Postmaster General may conclude arrangements with the post departments of foreign governments with which postal conventions have been or may be concluded for the exchange, by means of postal orders, of small sums of money, not exceeding $100 in amount, at such rates of exchange and compensation to postmasters and under such rules and regulations as he may deem expedient; and the expenses of establishing and conducting such systems of exchange may be paid out of the proceeds of the money-order business. (R. S. § 4028; Jan. 30, 1889, c. 100, § 1, 25 Stat. 654.)

713. Issuance of money orders at branch offices and stations.—The postmaster of every city where branch post offices or stations are established and in operation, subject to his supervision, is authorized, under the direction of the Postmaster General, to issue, or to cause to be issued, by any of his assistants or clerks in charge of branch post offices or stations, postal money orders, payable at his own or at any other money-order office, or at any branch post office or station of his own, or of any other money-order office, as the remitters thereof may direct; and the postmaster and his sureties shall, in every case, be held accountable upon his official bond for all moneys received by him or his designated assistants or clerks in charge of stations, from the issue of money orders, and for all moneys which may come into his or their hands, or be placed in his or their custody by reason of the transaction by them of money-order business. (R. S. § 4029.)

714. Who to act in absence of postmaster.—In case of the sickness or unavoidable absence from his office of the postmaster of any money-order post office, he may, with the approval of the Postmaster General, authorize the chief clerk, or some other clerk employed therein, to act in his place, and to discharge all the duties required by law of such postmaster; and the official bond given by the principal of the office shall be held to cover and apply to the acts of the person appointed to act in his place in such cases; and such acting officer shall, for the time being, be subject to all the liabilities and penalties prescribed by law for the official misconduct in like cases of the postmaster for whom he shall act. (R. S. § 4031.)

715. Blanks and books in business.—Except as provided in section 111 of Title 44, or otherwise provided by law, all blanks, blank books, and printed or engraved matter supplied to postmasters by the Postmaster General or used in his department for the transaction of the money-order business shall be obtained from the lowest responsible bidders for furnishing printed and engraved matter, respectively, under separate advertisements calling for proposals to furnish the same for a period of four years, upon such conditions as the Postmaster General may prescribe. The Director of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing of the Treasury Department shall submit estimates of the cost of furnishing such printed and engraved matter as may be required for use in the money-order business, and shall furnish such printed and engraved matter whenever upon his estimates of cost the expenditure therefor will be less than upon proposals made as above provided for. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 123, § 2, 22 Stat. 527; June 4, 1897, c. 2, § 1, 30 Stat. 18.)

716. Amount of orders, and fees.—A money order shall not be issued for more than $100, and the fees for domestic orders shall be as follows—

For orders not exceeding $2.50, 5 cents.
For orders exceeding $2.50 and not exceeding $5, 7 cents.
For orders exceeding $5 and not exceeding $10, 10 cents.
For orders exceeding $10 and not exceeding $20, 12 cents.
For orders exceeding $20 and not exceeding $40, 15 cents.
For orders exceeding $40 and not exceeding $60, 18 cents.
For orders exceeding $60 and not exceeding $80, 20 cents.
For orders exceeding $80 and not exceeding $100, 22 cents.

(Mar. 3, 1883, c. 123, § 3, 22 Stat. 527; Jan. 27, 1894, c. 21, § 2, 28 Stat. 31; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 208, 43 Stat. 1068.)

717. Clerks; compensation; additional clerks at international exchange offices.—Postmasters at money-order post offices of the first and second classes may be allowed by the Postmaster General to employ such number of clerks in the transaction of their money-order business, and at such rates of compensation, respectively, as he may deem expedient, except as otherwise provided in chapter 1 of this title. At all money-order post-offices, other than post offices of the first, second, and third classes, the compensation for the clerical labor in the money-order business shall be paid out of the fees received for the issue of money orders, and shall be 3 cents for each domestic or international money order issued. The Postmaster General may allow to the postmaster at each international exchange office such additional amount in each case, out of the annual appropriation for clerks in post offices, as he may deem expedient to enable these postmasters to obtain the clerical labor necessary for the performance of such special duties as are imposed upon them by the operations of the money-order system and are not required of other postmasters. The salaries of postmasters, as fixed by law, shall be deemed and taken to be full compensation for the responsibility and risk incurred and for the personal services rendered by them as custodians of the money-order and other funds of the Post Office Department. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 123, § 4, 22 Stat. 528; Jan. 27, 1894, c. 21, § 3, 28 Stat. 31; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, §§ 1, 3, 4, 43 Stat. 1054, 1056, 1059.)

718. Unpaid orders.—Domestic money orders shall not be paid at the offices upon which they are drawn, or at the offices of issue after one year from the last day of the month of issue of such money orders; but such money orders shall be sent to the Post Office Department and shall be paid by a warrant of the Postmaster General countersigned by the Comptroller General of the United States out of any money in the Treasury to the credit of the Post Office Department, to the extent of the moneys paid in on this account, the payments so made to be charged to an appropriation account hereby created to be denominated "Unpaid money orders more than one year old." (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 123, § 5, 22 Stat. 528; Jan. 27, 1894, c. 21, § 4, 28 Stat. 32; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

719. Blank applications for orders.—The Postmaster General shall supply such money-order offices, as he may deem expedient, with blank forms of applications for money orders, in such form as he may direct. (R. S. § 4033; Jan. 27, 1894, c. 21, § 7, 28 Stat. 32.)

720. Forms for orders.—The Postmaster General shall prescribe the forms for the issue of money orders and shall furnish money-order offices with printed or engraved forms for domestic money orders, and no money order shall be valid unless drawn upon such form. (R. S. § 4034; Jan. 27, 1894, c. 21, § 9, 28 Stat 33; Mar. 1, 1899, c. 327, § 5, 30 Stat. 966; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

721. Limited money-order offices.—The Postmaster General may authorize postmasters at post offices other than those designated as money-order offices to issue money orders in the same form as provided for in section 720 of this title, excepting that such money orders shall be in such form as to prevent their being drawn for a sum in excess of $5; the rates for such money orders to be the same as those provided for in section 716 of this title, and post offices so authorized shall be designated "limited money-order offices." (Jan. 27, 1894, c. 21, § 10, 28 Stat. 33.)

722. Regulations; designation of officer to sign warrants.—The Postmaster General shall have power to make all needful regulations for the enforcement of this chapter, and may designate any officer of the Post Office Department above the grade of fourth-class clerk to sign all warrants authorized by this chapter in his stead, and such warrants when so signed shall be of the same validity as if they had been signed by the Postmaster General. (Jan. 27, 1894, c. 21, § 12, 28 Stat. 33.)

723. Indorsement of orders.—The payee of a money order may, by his written indorsement thereon, direct it to be paid to any other person, and the postmaster on whom it is drawn shall pay the same to the person thus designated, provided he shall furnish such proof as the Postmaster General may prescribe that the indorsement is genuine, and that he is the person empowered to receive payment; but more than one indorsement shall render an order invalid and not payable, and the holder, to obtain payment, must apply in writing to the Postmaster General for a new order in lieu thereof, returning the original order, and making such proof of the genuineness of the indorsements as the Postmaster General may require. (R. S. § 4037; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 320.)

724. Identification of payee.—Postmasters shall not issue any money order conditioned that identification of payee, indorsee, or attorney may be waived, nor shall any postmaster pay any money order issued without requiring identification of the payee, indorsee, or attorney. (Mar. 1, 1899, c. 327, § 5, 30 Stat. 966.)

725. Changes and modification of orders.—After a money order has been issued, if the purchaser desires to have it modified or changed, the postmaster who issued the order shall take it back and issue another in lieu of it, for which a new fee shall be exacted. (R. S. § 4038.)

726. Orders to correct errors.—Money orders may be drawn by the Superintendent of the Division of Money Orders without the exaction of an additional fee for the purpose of correcting errors made by issuing or paying postmasters. (Mar. 1, 1899, c. 327, § 5, 30 Stat. 966.)

727. Orders payable at any office.—Under such rules and regulations as the Postmaster General shall prescribe postal money orders may be issued payable at any money-order post office, and all money orders shall be legally payable at any money-order post office, although drawn on a specified office. (Feb. 6, 1914, c. 15, 38 Stat. 280.)

728. Repayment of orders.—The postmaster issuing a money order shall repay the amount of it upon the application of the person who obtained it, and the return of the order; but the fee paid for it shall not be returned. (R. S. § 4039; Jan. 27, 1894, c. 21, § 6, 28 Stat. 32; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

729. Replacing lost orders.—Whenever a money order has been lost within one year from the last day of the month of issue the Postmaster General, upon the application of the remitter or payee of such order, may cause a duplicate thereof to be issued, without charge, providing the person losing the original shall furnish a certificate from the postmaster by whom it was payable that it has not been, and will not thereafter be, paid; and a similar certificate from the postmaster by whom it was issued that it has has not been, and will not thereafter be, repaid. Whenever a money order, which has not been paid within one year from the last day of the month of issue, has been lost, the Postmaster General, upon the application of the remitter or payee of such order, shall issue a warrant for the payment thereof, as provided for in section 718 of this title, without charge, on the certificate of the General Accounting Office, or upon such other proof satisfactory to the Postmaster General, that the order has not been paid. (R. S. § 4040; Jan. 27, 1894, c. 21, § 11, 28 Stat. 33; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

730. Payment; unpaid orders after lapse of seven years.—The Postmaster General upon evidence satisfactory to him, and under such special regulations as he shall prescribe, may cause payment to be made in the manner prescribed in sections 718 and 729 of this title, of the amount of any money order remaining unpaid after the lapse of seven years from the date of its issue. (July 16, 1894, c. 137, § 4, 28 Stat. 107; Mar. 3, 1897, c. 385, 29 Stat. 648.)

731. Same; domestic orders unpaid after three years.—The Postmaster General, upon evidence satisfactory to him, and under such special regulations as he shall prescribe, may cause payment to be made in the manner prescribed in sections 718 and 729 of this title, of the amount of any domestic money order remaining unpaid after the lapse of three years from the date of its issue. It shall be the duty of the General Accounting Office to maintain a complete and permanent record of all unpaid money orders issued by postmasters in the United States, or such of its insular possessions as are amenable to the authority of the Postmaster General for payment within its own territory, such record to serve as a basis for adjudicating claims for payment by warrant of the amounts of said orders. (May 27, 1908, c. 206, 35 Stat. 416; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

732. Payment of orders issued in favor of lotteries.—The Postmaster General may, upon evidence satisfactory to him that any person or company is engaged in conducting any lottery, gift enterprise, or scheme for the distribution of money, or of any real or personal property by lot, chance, or drawing of any kind, or that any person or company is conducting any other scheme for obtaining money or property of any kind through the mails by means of false or fraudulent pretenses, representations, or promises, forbid the payment by any postmaster to said person or company of any postal money orders drawn to his or its order, or in his or its favor, or to the agent of any such person or company, whether such agent is acting as an individual or as a firm, bank, corporation, or association of any kind, and may provide by regulation for the return to the remitters of the sums named in such money orders.

This shall not authorize any person to open any letter not addressed to himself.

The public advertisement by such person or company so conducting any such lottery, gift enterprise, scheme, or device, that remittances for the same may be made by means of postal money orders to any other person, firm, bank, corporation, or association named therein shall be held to be prima facie evidence of the existence of said agency by all the parties named therein; but the Postmaster General shall not be precluded from ascertaining the existence of such agency in any other legal way. (R. S. § 4041; Sept. 19, 1890, c. 908, § 3, 26 Stat. 466.)

733. Transfer of funds.—All payments and transfers to and from money-order offices shall be under the direction of the Postmaster General. He may transfer money-order funds from one postmaster to another, and from the postal revenue to the money-order funds; and he may transfer money-order funds to creditors of the department, to be replaced by equivalent transfers from the postal revenues. (R. S. § 4042.)

734. Transfer by warrant to funds.—The Postmaster General may transfer to the postmaster at any money-order office, by warrant on the Treasury, countersigned by the Comptroller General of the United States and payable out of the postal revenues, such sum as may be required over and above the current revenues at his office to pay the money orders drawn upon him. (R. S. § 4043; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

735. Report of funds.—It shall be the duty of postmasters at post offices authorized to issue money orders to render to the comptroller, bureau of accounts, Post Office Department, quarterly, monthly, semimonthly, weekly, semiweekly, or daily accounts of all money orders issued and paid, of all fees received for issuing them, of all transfers and payments made from money-order funds, and of all money received to be used for the payment of money orders or on account of money-order business. (R. S. § 4044; Jan. 27, 1894, c. 21, § 8, 28 Stat. 32; Feb. 18, 1925, c. 265, 43 Stat. 950.)

736. What to be funds.—All money received for the sale of money orders, including all fees thereon, all money transferred from the postal revenues to the money-order funds, all money transferred or paid from the money-order funds to the service of the Post Office Department, and all money-order funds transferred from one postmaster to another, shall be deemed and taken to be money-order funds and money in the Treasury of the United States. And it shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the United States or depositary designated by the Secretary of the Treasury under section 476 of Title 31 to open, at the request of the Postmaster General, an account of "money-order funds" deposited by postmasters to the credit of the Postmaster General, and of drafts against the amount so deposited, drawn by him and countersigned by the comptroller of the bureau of accounts in the Post Office Department. (R. S. § 4045; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24; May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 655.)

737. Duplicates of lost checks.—Disbursing officers of the United States shall issue, under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, duplicates of lost checks drawn by them in favor of any postmaster on account of money order or other public funds received by them from some other postmaster. (R. S. § 4046.)

738. Postal notes.—The Postmaster General may authorize postmasters at such offices as he shall designate, under such regulations as he shall prescribe, to issue and pay money orders of fixed denominations, not exceeding $10, to be known as postal notes.

Postal notes shall be valid for six calendar months from the last day of the month of their issue, but thereafter may be paid under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe.

Postal notes shall not be negotiable or transferable through indorsement.

If a postal note has been once paid, to whomsoever paid, the United States shall not be liable for any further claim for the amount thereof. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 241, § 8, 36 Stat. 1340.)

739. Disposition of money-order statements.—The Secretary of the Treasury and the Postmaster General shall cause to be destroyed, in such manner as they may deem best, all money-order statements rendered by postmasters and all paid money orders accompanying the same, as well as all descriptive lists of international money orders certified to or by the exchange offices designated for conducting money-order transactions with foreign countries, and all coupons of issued international money orders filed in the General Accounting Office, after three years shall have elapsed from the expiration of the period covered by such statements and lists. (May 27, 1908, c. 206, § 1, 35 Stat. 415; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

Section 751. Board of trustees; regulations; annual report.—There shall be a board of trustees for the control, supervision, and administration of the postal savings depository offices designated and established under the provisions of this chapter, and of the funds received as deposits at such postal savings depository offices by virtue thereof. Said board shall consist of the Postmaster General, the Secretary of the Treasury, and the Attorney General, severally, acting ex officio, and, except as otherwise provided by section 768 of this title, shall have power to make all necessary and proper regulations for the receipt, transmittal, custody, deposit, investment, and repayment of the funds deposited at postal savings depository offices.

The board of trustees shall submit a report to Congress at the beginning of each regular session showing by States and Territories (for the preceding fiscal year) the number and names of post offices receiving deposits, the aggregate amount of deposits made therein, the aggregate amount of withdrawals therefrom, the number of depositors in each, the total amount standing to the credit of all depositors at the conclusion of the year, the amount of such deposits at interest, the amount of interest received thereon, the amount of interest paid thereon, the amount of deposits surrendered by depositors for bonds issued by authority of this chapter, and the number and amount of unclaimed deposits. Also the amount invested in Government securities by the trustees, the amount of extra expense of the Post Office Department and the Postal Service incident to the operation of the postal savings depository system, and all other facts which it may deem pertinent and proper to present. (June 25, 1910, c. 386, § 1, 36 Stat. 814; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 10, 37 Stat. 559; Sept. 23, 1914, c. 308, 38 Stat. 716.)

752. Mail pertaining to business transmitted free.—The provisions of section 321 of this title are hereby extended and made applicable to all official mail matter pertaining to the business of the Postal Savings System. (June 25, 1910, c. 386, § 2, 36 Stat. 815; Sept. 23, 1914, c. 308, 38 Stat. 716.)

753. Designation of offices.—Every post office designated by order of the Postmaster General is declared to be a postal savings depository office within the meaning of this chapter and to be authorized and required to receive deposits of funds from the public and to account for and dispose of the same, according to the provisions of this chapter and the regulations made in pursuance thereof. (June 25, 1910, c. 386, § 3, 36 Stat. 815; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 10, 37 Stat. 559.)

754. Opening accounts and making deposits.—Accounts may be opened and deposits made in any postal savings depository established under this chapter by any person of the age of ten years or over, in his or her own name, and by a married woman in her own name and free from any control or interference by her husband; but no person shall at the same time have more than one postal savings account in his or her own right. (June 25, 1910, c. 386, § 4, 36 Stat. 815.)

755. Pass books; entries therein.—The postmaster at a postal savings depository office shall, upon the making of an application to open an account under this chapter and the submission of an initial deposit, deliver to the depositor a pass book free of cost, upon which shall be written the name and signature or mark of the depositor and such other memoranda as may be necessary for purposes of identification, in which pass book entries of all deposits and withdrawals shall be made in both figures and writing: Provided, That the Postmaster General may adopt some other device or devices in lieu of a pass book as a means of making and preserving evidence of deposits and withdrawals. (June 25, 1910, c. 386, § 5, 36 Stat. 815; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 10, 37 Stat. 559.)

756. Deposits; amount; cards and stamps for small amounts.—At least $1, or a larger amount in multiples thereof, must be deposited before an account is opened with the person depositing the same, and $1, or multiples thereof, may be deposited after such account has been opened, but the balance to the credit of any one person, upon which interest is payable, shall not exceed $2,500, exclusive of accumulated interest, and noninterest paying deposits shall not be accepted. In order that smaller amounts may be accumulated for deposit, any person may purchase for 10 cents, from any postal savings depository, specially prepared adhesive stamps to be known as "postal savings stamps," and attach them to a card which shall be furnished for the purpose. A card with ten postal savings stamps affixed shall be accepted as a deposit of $1 either in opening an account or in adding to an existing account, or may be redeemed in cash. It is hereby made the duty of the Postmaster General to prepare such postal savings cards and postal savings stamps of denominations of 10 cents, and to keep them on sale at every postal savings depository office, and to prescribe all necessary rules and regulations for the issue, sale, and cancellation thereof. (June 25, 1910, c. 386, § 6, 36 Stat. 815; May 18, 1916, c. 126, § 1, 39 Stat. 159; July 2, 1918, c. 117, §§ 12, 13, 40 Stat. 754.)

757. Interest; limitation of balance.—Interest at the rate of 2 per centum per annum shall be allowed and entered to the credit of each depositor once in each year, the same to be computed on such basis and under such rules and regulations as the board of trustees may prescribe; but interest shall not be computed or allowed on fractions of a dollar. (June 25, 1910, c. 386, § 7, 36 Stat. 816; May 18, 1916, c. 126, § 1, 39 Stat. 159; July 2, 1918, c. 117, § 12, 40 Stat. 754.)

758. Withdrawals; payment from deposits.—Any depositor may withdraw the whole or any part of the funds deposited to his or her credit, with the accrued interest, upon demand and under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe. Withdrawals shall be paid from the deposits in the State or Territory, so far as the postal funds on deposit in such State or Territory may be sufficient for the purpose, and, so far as practicable, from the deposits in the community in which the deposit was made. No bank in which postal savings funds shall be deposited shall receive any exchange or other fees or compensation on account of the cashing or collection of any checks or the performance of any other service in connection with the Postal Savings Depository System. (June 25, 1910, c. 386, § 8, 36 Stat. 816; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 10, 37 Stat. 559.)

759. Deposit of funds in banks; interest; reserve; security; deposits with treasurer of board of trustees.—Postal savings funds received under the provisions of this chapter shall be deposited in solvent banks, whether organized under national or State laws, and whether member banks or not of the Federal reserve system, being subject to national or State supervision and examination, and the sums deposited shall bear interest at the rate of not less than 2¼ per centum per annum, which rate shall be uniform throughout the United States and Territories thereof; but 5 per centum of such funds shall be withdrawn by the board of trustees and kept with the Treasurer of the United States, who shall be treasurer of the board of trustees, in lawful money as a reserve. The board of trustees shall take from such banks such security in public bonds or other securities, authorized by Act of Congress or supported by the taxing power, as the board may prescribe, approve, and deem sufficient and necessary to insure the safety and prompt payment of such deposits on demand. The funds received at the postal savings depository offices in each city, town, village, and other locality shall be deposited in banks located therein (substantially in proportion to the capital and surplus of each such bank) willing to receive such deposits under the terms of this chapter and the regulations made by authority thereof. If one or more member banks of the Federal reserve system exists in the city, town, village, or locality where the postal savings deposits are made, such deposits shall be placed in such qualified member banks substantially in proportion to the capital and surplus of each such bank, but if such member banks fail to qualify to receive such deposits, then any other bank located therein may, as hereinbefore provided, qualify and receive the same. If no such member bank and no other qualified bank exists in any city, town, village, or locality, or if none where such deposits are made will receive such deposits on the terms prescribed, then such funds shall be deposited under the terms of this chapter in the bank most convenient to such locality. If no such bank in any State or Territory is willing to receive such deposits on the terms prescribed, then such funds shall be deposited with the treasurer of the board of trustees and shall be counted in making up the reserve of 5 per centum. Such funds may be withdrawn from the treasurer of said board of trustees, and all other postal savings funds, or any part of such funds, may be at any time withdrawn from the banks and savings depository offices for the repayment of postal savings depositors when required for that purpose. If at any time the postal savings deposits in any State or Territory shall exceed the amount which the qualified banks therein are willing to receive under the terms of this chapter, and such excess amount is not required to make up the reserve fund of 5 per centum hereinbefore provided for, the board of trustees may invest all or any part of such excess amount in bonds or other securities of the United States. When, in the judgment of the President, the general welfare and interests of the United States so require, the board of trustees may invest all or any part of the postal savings funds, except the reserve fund of 5 per centum herein provided for, in bonds or other securities of the United States. The board of trustees may in its discretion purchase from the holders thereof bonds which have been or may be issued under the provisions of section 760 of this title. Interest and profit accruing from the deposits or investment of postal savings funds shall be applied to the payment of interest due to postal savings depositors, as hereinbefore provided, and the excess thereof, if any, shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States as a part of the postal revenue. Postal savings funds in the treasury of said board shall be subject to disposition as provided in this chapter, and not otherwise. The board of trustees may at any time dispose of bonds held as postal savings investments and use the proceeds to meet withdrawals of deposits by depositors. The word "Territory" as used herein shall be held to include the District of Columbia, the Territory of Alaska, and Porto Rico, and the word "bank" shall be held to include savings banks and trust companies doing a banking business. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 387, § 1, 37 Stat. 512; May 18, 1916, c. 126, § 2, 39 Stat. 159.)

760. Bonds issued to depositors; investment of savings funds in bonds.—Any depositor in a postal savings depository may surrender his deposit, or any part thereof, in sums of $20, $40, $60, $80, $100, and multiples of $100 and $500, and receive in lieu of such surrendered deposits, under such regulations as may be established by the board of trustees, the amount of the surrendered deposits in United States coupon or registered bonds of the denominations of $20, $40, $60, $80, $100, and $500, which bonds shall bear interest at the rate of 2½ per centum per annum, payable semiannually, and be redeemable at the pleasure of the United States after one year from the date of their issue and payable twenty years from such date, and both principal and interest shall be payable in United States gold coin of the present standard of value. The bonds herein authorized shall be issued only (first) when there are outstanding bonds of the United States subject to call, in which case the proceeds of the bonds shall be applied to the redemption at par of outstanding bonds of the United States subject to call, and (second) at times when under authority of law other than that contained in this chapter the Government desires to issue bonds for the purpose of replenishing the Treasury, in which case the issue of bonds under authority of this chapter shall be in lieu of the issue of a like amount of bonds issuable under authority of law other than that contained in this chapter. The bonds authorized by this chapter shall be issued by the Secretary of the Treasury under such regulations as he may prescribe. The authority contained in section 759 of this title for the investment of postal savings funds in United States bonds shall include the authority to invest in the bonds herein authorized whenever such bonds may be lawfully issued. The bonds herein authorized shall be exempt from all taxes or duties of the United States as well as from taxation in any form by or under State, municipal, or local authority. No bonds authorized by this chapter shall be receivable by the Treasurer of the United States as security for the issue of circulating notes by national banking associations. (June 25, 1910, c. 386, § 10, 36 Stat. 817.)

761. Investment of funds in United States bonds subject to call for redemption.—Whenever the trustees of the postal savings fund have in their possession funds available for investment in United States bonds they may notify the Secretary of the Treasury of the amount of such funds in their hands which they desire to invest in bonds of the United States subject to call, whereupon, if there are United States bonds subject to call, the Secretary of the Treasury shall call for redemption an amount of such bonds equal to the amount of the funds in the hands of the trustees which the trustees desire to thus invest, and the bonds so called shall be redeemed at par with accrued interest at the Treasury of the United States on and after three months from the date of such call, and interest on the said bonds shall thereupon cease. Said bonds when redeemed shall be reissued at par to the trustees without change in their terms as to rate of interest and date of maturity. The bonds so reissued may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, be called for redemption from the trustees in like manner as they were originally called for redemption from their former owners whenever there are funds in the Treasury of the United States available for such redemption. (June 25, 1910, c. 386, § 11, 36 Stat. 818.)

762. Funds kept separate; accountability therefor; application of laws relating to postal receipts; additional bonds of postmasters.—Postal savings depository funds shall be kept separate from other funds by postmasters and other officers and employees of the Postal Service, who shall be held to the same accountability under their bonds for such funds as for public moneys; and no person connected with the Post Office Department shall disclose to any person other than the depositor the amount of any deposits, unless directed so to do by the Postmaster General. All statutes relating to the safekeeping of and proper accounting for postal receipts are made applicable to postal savings funds, and the Postmaster General may require postmasters, assistant postmasters, and clerks at postal savings depositories to give any additional bond he may deem necessary. (June 25, 1910, c. 386, § 12, 36 Stat. 818.)

763. No additional compensation to postmasters or other employees.—Postmasters, assistant postmasters, clerks, or other employees at post offices of the presidential grade, and postmasters at post offices of the fourth class, shall not be allowed or paid any additional compensation for the transaction of postal savings depository business. (June 25, 1910, c. 386, § 13, 36 Stat. 818; Sept. 23, 1914, c. 308, 38 Stat. 716.)

764. Duties of postmasters and other officers.—The Postmaster General is authorized to require postmasters and other postal officers and employees to transact, in connection with their other duties, such postal savings depository business as may be necessary; and he is also authorized to make, and with the approval of the board of trustees to promulgate, and from time to time to modify or revoke, subject to the approval of said board, such rules and regulations not in conflict with law as he may deem necessary to carry the provisions of this chapter into effect. (June 25, 1910, c. 386, § 14, 36 Stat. 818.)

765. Application of safeguards for protection of public moneys and of laws as to offenses against Postal Service.—All the safeguards provided by law for the protection of public moneys, and all statutes relating to the embezzlement, conversion, improper handling, retention, use, or disposal of postal and money-order funds and the punishments provided for such offenses are hereby extended and made applicable to postal savings depository funds, and all statutes relating to false returns of postal and money-order business, the forgery, counterfeiting, alteration, improper use or handling of postal and money-order blanks, forms, vouchers, accounts, and records, and the dies, plates, and engravings therefor, with the penalties provided in such statutes, are hereby extended and made applicable to postal savings depository business, and the forgery, counterfeiting, alteration, improper use or handling of postal savings depository blanks, forms, vouchers, accounts, and records, and the dies, plates, and engravings therefor. (June 25, 1910, c. 386, § 15, 36 Stat. 818.)

766. Faith of United States pledged to payment of deposits.—The faith of the United States is solemnly pledged to the payment of the deposits made in postal savings depository offices, with accrued interest thereon as herein provided. (June 25, 1910, c. 386, § 16, 36 Stat. 819.)

767. Judgment adjudicating right or interest in deposit.—The final judgment, order, or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction adjudicating any right or interest in the credit of any sums deposited by any person with a postal savings depository if the same shall not have been appealed from and the time for appeal has expired shall, upon submission to the Postmaster General of a copy of the same, duly authenticated in the manner provided by the laws of the United States for the authentication of the records and judicial proceedings of the courts of any State or Territory or of any possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, when the same are proved or admitted within any other court within the United States, be accepted and pursued by the board of trustees as conclusive of the title, right, interest, or possession so adjudicated, and any payment of said sum in accordance with such order, judgment, or decree shall operate as a full and complete discharge of the United States from the claim or demand of any person or persons to the same. (June 25, 1910, c. 386, § 17. 36 Stat. 819.)

768. Powers of Postmaster General as to designation of offices, compensation of superintendents and inspectors, office hours, and regulations as to deposits and withdrawals.—The Postmaster General shall select and designate the post offices which are to be postal savings depository offices, and shall appoint and unless otherwise provided by law, fix the compensation of such superintendents, inspectors, and other employees as may be necessary in conducting, supervising, and directing the business of such offices, including the employees of a central office at Washington, District of Columbia, and shall prescribe the hours during which postal savings depository offices shall remain open. He shall also from time to time make rules and regulations with respect to the deposits in and withdrawals of moneys from postal savings depositories and the issue of pass books or such other devices as he may adopt as evidence of such deposits or withdrawals. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 10, 37 Stat. 559.)

769. Transaction of business of Postal Savings System.—The Secretary of the Treasury may employ such number of clerks and employees of the several classes and at the several rates of compensation recognized by law, and expend such sums for contingent and miscellaneous items, as may be necessary, in his judgment, to transact the business of the Postal Savings System in the office of the Treasurer of the United States: Provided, That the money required to pay such clerks and employees, and contingent and miscellaneous items, shall be advanced to the Secretary of the Treasury at regular intervals out of any available appropriation for the establishment, maintenance, and extension of postal savings depositories: Provided further, That estimates hereunder shall be submitted in detail annually. (Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 377.)

Chapter 21.—ACCOUNTS AND REVENUES.

Sec.
781. Manner of keeping accounts.
782. Miscellaneous and money-order receipts.
783. Postal revenue to be accounted for.
784. Disposal of moneys recovered for loss of registered matter not restored to owners.
785. Box holders may provide lock boxes.
786. Revenues appropriated for Postal Service.
787. Payments, how made; advances.
788. Transfer of debts to contractors.
789. Suits to recover wrongful or fraudulent payments.
790. Delivery of stolen money to owner.
791. Disposal of fines, penalties, and forfeitures.
792. Preservation of accounts.

Section 781. Manner of keeping accounts.—The accounts of the postal service shall be kept in such a manner as to exhibit separately the amount of revenue derived from the following sources respectively:

First. Letter postage.
Second. Book, newspaper, and pamphlet postage.
Third. Registered letters.
Fourth. Box rents and branch offices.
Fifth. Postage stamps and envelopes.
Sixth. Dead letters.
Seventh. Fines and penalties.
Eighth. Revenue from money-order business.
Ninth. Miscellaneous. (R. S. § 4049; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 128, § 4, 18 Stat. 343.)

782. Miscellaneous and money-order receipts.—Unclaimed money in dead letters for which no owner can be found; all money taken from the mail by robbery, theft, or otherwise, which may come into the hands of any agent or employee of the United States, or any other person whatever; all fines and penalties imposed for any violation of the postal laws, except such part as may by law belong to the informer or party prosecuting for the same; and all money derived from the sale of waste paper or other public property of the Post Office Department, shall be deposited in the Treasury, under the direction of the Postmaster General, as part of the postal revenue. And the Postmaster General shall cause to be placed to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States, for the service of the Post Office Department, the net proceeds of the money-order business; and the receipts of the Post Office Department derived from this source during each quarter shall be entered by the bureau of accounts in the Post Office Department in the accounts of such department, under the head of "revenue from money-order business." (R. S. § 4050; June 10, 1921, c. 18, 42 Stat. 23.)

783. Postal revenue to be accounted for.—All postages, box rents, and other receipts at post offices, shall be accounted for as part of the postal revenues; and each postmaster shall be charged with and held accountable for any part of the same, accruing at his office, which he has neglected to collect, the same as if he had collected it. (R. S. § 4051.)

784. Disposal of moneys recovered for loss of registered matter not restored to owners.—All moneys recovered or collected on account of loss of first-class domestic registered matter which in the course of adjustment are not restored to the original owners, shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States. (May 27, 1908, c. 206, 35 Stat. 415.)

785. Box holders may provide lock boxes.—Postmasters may allow box holders who desire to do so to provide lock boxes or drawers for their own use, at their own expense, which lock boxes or drawers, upon their erection in any post office, shall become the property of the United States, and be subject to the direction and control of the Post Office Department, and shall pay a rental at least equal to that of other boxes in the same office, or, if there be no other boxes in such office, of boxes in other offices of the same class, which rental shall be accounted for as other box rents. (R. S. § 4052.)

786. Revenues appropriated for Postal Service.—The money required for the Postal Service in each year shall be appropriated by law out of the revenues of the service except as otherwise provided by law. (R. S. § 4054.)

787. Payments, how made; advances.—All payments on account of the Postal Service shall be made to persons to whom the same shall be certified to be due by the General Accounting Office; but advances of necessary sums to defray expenses may be made by the Postmaster General to post-office inspectors employed to investigate mail depredations, examine post routes and offices, and on other like services, to be charged to them by the General Accounting Office, and to be accounted for in the settlement of their accounts. (R. S. § 4055; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24.)

788. Transfer of debts to contractors.—The Postmaster General may transfer debts due to the department from postmasters and others to such contractors as have given bonds, with security, to refund any money that may come into their hands over and above the amount found due them on the settlement of their accounts; but such transfers shall only be in satisfaction of legal demands for which appropriations have been made. (R. S. § 4056.)

789. Suits to recover wrongful or fraudulent payments.—In all cases where money has been paid out of the funds of the Post Office Department under the pretense that service has been performed therefor, when, in fact, such service has not been performed, or as additional allowance for increased service actually rendered, when the additional allowance exceeds the sum which, according to law, might rightfully have been allowed therefor, and in all other cases where money of the department has been paid to any person in consequence of fraudulent representations, or by the mistake, collusion, or misconduct of any officer or other employee in the Postal Service, the Postmaster General shall cause suit to be brought to recover such wrong or fraudulent payment or excess, with interest thereon. (R. S. § 4057.)

790. Delivery of stolen money to owner.—Whenever the Postmaster General is satisfied that money or property stolen from the mail, or the proceeds thereof, has been received at the department, he may, upon satisfactory evidence as to the owner, deliver the same to him. (R. S. § 4058.)

791. Disposal of fines, penalties, and forfeitures.—All penalties and forfeitures imposed for any violation of law affecting the Post Office Department for its revenue or property shall be recoverable, one half to the use of the person informing and prosecuting for the same, and the other half to be paid into the Treasury for the use of the Post Office Department, unless a different disposal is expressly prescribed. All fines collected for violations of such laws shall be paid into the Treasury for the use of the Post Office Department. (R. S. § 4059.)

792. Preservation of accounts.—The Postmaster General may dispose of any quarterly returns of mails sent or received, preserving the accounts current and all accompanying vouchers, and use such portions of the proceeds as may be necessary to defray the cost of separating and disposing of them; but the accounts shall be preserved entire for at least two years. (R. S. § 4060.)

Section 801. Salaries of requisition fillers and packers in division of equipment and supplies.—The salary of requisition fillers and packers in the division of equipment and supplies shall be as follows: One foreman, $2,100 per annum; ten requisition fillers and nine packers at $1,800 each per annum. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 9, 43 Stat. 1064.)

802. Contracts; rental of canceling machines, hire of equipages for City Delivery Service and collection service.—The Postmaster General may, in his discretion, enter into contracts for a period of not exceeding four years for the rental of canceling machines, for the hire of the equipages for the City Delivery Service, for the collection service by means of boxes attached to street cars, and for the steamboat and other equipment necessary for the Detroit River Postal Service, but no contract shall be made for any canceling machine for more than $270 per annum, including repairs on said machine, and all contracts entered into shall be let after having advertised for bids and shall be awarded on the basis of cheapness and efficiency. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 241, § 1, 36 Stat. 1333; Mar. 9, 1914, c. 33, 38 Stat. 303.)

803. Same; miscellaneous supplies.—The Postmaster General may also contract for a term not exceeding four years, for miscellaneous equipment and supplies for the Postal Service, when, in his judgment, it shall appear to be for the best interests of the service. (Apr. 21, 1902, c. 563, § 1, 32 Stat. 114.)

804. Same; printing post-route maps.—The Postmaster General may, in his discretion, cause the contract for printing post-route maps to be let for a term of four years. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 1, 28 Stat. 803.)

805. Sale of post-route maps and rural-delivery maps.—The Postmaster General may authorize the sale to the public of post-route maps and rural-delivery maps or blue prints at the cost of printing and 10 per centum thereof added, the proceeds of such sale to be used as a further appropriation for the preparation and publication of post-route maps and rural-delivery maps or blue prints. (Mar. 3, 1917, c. 162, § 1, 39 Stat. 1067; Mar. 1, 1921, c. 88, § 1, 41 Stat. 1154.)

806. Post-route maps; pay rolls of topographer's office.—The disbursements of the moneys appropriated for the preparation and publication of post-route maps shall be made by a regular bonded disbursing officer of the Post Office Department, according to the laws, rules, and customs as recognized by the General Accounting Office. The pay rolls of the draftsmen, clerks, messengers, and other employees of the topographer's office, shall be regularly made out by the topographer, examined and checked by the appointment clerk of the Post Office Department, and the payments thereof made by a bonded disbursing officer of the Post Office Department. All expenditures made by the topographer for the preparation and publication of post-route maps shall be accounted for by vouchers, accompanied by affidavit, and the moneys therefor shall be disbursed by a disbursing officer of the Post Office Department; and all of the above disbursements shall be paid out of the appropriation for the preparation and publication of post-route maps. (June 17, 1878, c. 259, § 2, 20 Stat. 143; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 304, 42 Stat. 24; Feb. 14, 1923, c. 79, 42 Stat. 1249.)

807. Contracts for furnishing Official Postal Guide; sale thereof.—Except as otherwise provided in section 111 of Title 44 Postmaster General may, in his discretion, cause the contract for furnishing the Official Postal Guide to be let for a term of four years, and he may authorize the sale to the public of such guides at the total cost thereof, the proceeds of such sale to be covered into the Treasury as a miscellaneous receipt.

Contracts let for the publication of such guide shall provide for the supply of such copies as may be required for public use by the several executive departments and other Government establishments at a price not exceeding the cost of such guides to the Post Office Department. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 1, 29 Stat. 176; May 10, 1916, c. 117, § 1, 39 Stat. 108; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 124, § 1, 41 Stat. 1295.)

808. Contracts for supplies with persons combining to fix prices.—No contract for furnishing supplies to the Post Office Department or the Postal Service shall be made with any person who has entered, or proposed to enter, into any combination to prevent the making of any bid for furnishing such supplies, or to fix a price or prices therefor, or who has made any agreement, or given or performed, or promised to give or perform, any consideration whatever to induce any other person not to bid for any such contract, or to bid at a specified price or prices thereon; and if any person so offending is a contractor for furnishing such supplies, his contract may be annulled, and the person so offending shall be liable to a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $5,000, and may be further punished, in the discretion of the court, by imprisonment for not less than three months nor more than one year. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, § 2, 37 Stat. 553.)

809. Contracts; mail bags, mail locks, and keys.—Section 13 of Title 41 shall not apply to, or include mail bags, mail locks and keys, postal cards, postage stamps, newspaper wrappers, or stamped envelopes. (Mar. 24, 1874, No. 6, 18 Stat. 286.)

810. Metric postal balances.—The Postmaster General shall furnish to the post offices exchanging mails with foreign countries, and to such other offices as he may deem expedient, postal balances denominated in grams of the metric system, fifteen grams of which shall be the equivalent for postal purposes, of one-half ounce avoirdupois, and so on in progression. (R. S. § 3880.)

811. Civil pension roll prohibited.—Except as otherwise provided by law, the establishment of a civil pension roll or an honorable-service roll, or the exemption of any of the officers, clerks, and persons in the Postal Service from the existing laws respecting employment in such service, is hereby prohibited. (Mar. 1, 1909, c. 232, 35 Stat. 670.)

812. No employee to receive fees.—No person employed in the Postal Service shall receive any fees or perquisites on account of the duties to be performed by virtue of his appointment. (R. S. § 3858.)

813. Rewards for inventions and improvements in service.—The Postmaster General may pay a cash reward for any invention, suggestion, or series of suggestions for an improvement or economy in device, design, or process applicable to the Postal Service submitted by one or more employees of the Post Office Department or the Postal Service which shall be adopted for use and will clearly effect a material economy or increase efficiency. The sums so paid to employees shall be in addition to their usual compensation. The total amount paid shall not exceed $1,000 in any month or for any one invention or suggestion. No employee shall be paid a reward until he has properly executed an agreement to the effect that the use by the United States of the invention, suggestion, or series of suggestions made by him shall not form the basis of a further claim of any nature upon the United States by him, his heirs, or assigns. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 143, 37 Stat. 795; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, 43 Stat. 782.)

814. Bonds; Liberty loan bonds in lieu of other bonds.—The Postmaster General may, under such rules and regulations as he shall prescribe, accept United States Liberty loan bonds in lieu of either corporate or personal surety from contractors, officers, and employees of the Postal Service to indemnify the Government against losses resulting from the failure of any contractor, officer, or employee of the Postal Service to properly discharge his official duty. (July 2, 1918, c. 117, § 6, 40 Stat. 753.)

815. Bonds of postmaster, clerk, carrier, or postal employees; renewal.—Whenever any postmaster, clerk, carrier, or other person in the Postal Service, employed in the Post Office Department or elsewhere, notifies the Postmaster General of his desire to execute a new bond, or whenever any of the sureties of such postmaster, clerk, carrier, or other person, notifies the Postmaster General of his desire to be released from such suretyship, or whenever the Postmaster General deems a new bond necessary or expedient, the execution of the new bond may be directed by the Postmaster General. When accepted by the Postmaster General the sureties of postmasters in the prior bond shall be released from responsibility for all acts or defaults of the postmaster which may be done or committed subsequent to the last day of the quarter in which such new bond shall be executed and accepted, and the sureties of other persons in the prior bond shall be released from responsibility for all acts or defaults of such persons which may be done or committed subsequent to the day such new bond becomes operative. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1488, 33 Stat. 1259.)

816. Payment to legal representatives of deceased clerks killed or dying from injuries.—The Postmaster General may pay the sum of $2,000, which shall be exempt from payment of debts of the deceased, to the legal representatives, for the benefit of wife, children, or dependent relatives, of any railway postal clerk, substitute railway postal clerk, supervisory official of the Railway Mail Service, post-office inspector, letter carrier in the City Delivery Service, rural letter carrier, post-office clerk, special-delivery messenger, post-office laborer or any classified civil-service employee in post offices of the first and second classes who shall be killed while on duty, or who, being injured while on duty, shall die within one year thereafter as the result of such injury. No compensation shall be paid any such employee for any injury occasioned by his own negligence. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 413.)

817. Acting employees for employees and substitutes injured while on duty.—The Postmaster General shall have authority to employ acting employees in place of all employees or substitutes mentioned in section 816 of this title who are injured while on duty, who shall be granted leave of absence with full pay during the period of disability, but not exceeding one year, then at the rate of 50 per centum of the employee's salary for the period of disability exceeding one year, but not exceeding twelve months additional. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 413.)

818. Reinstatement of employees entering military service.—Any postal employee who has entered or shall enter the military service of the United States shall, upon being honorably discharged therefrom, be permitted to resume the position in the postal department which he left to enter such military service. Employees, including substitute employees, of the Postal Service who entered the military or naval service of the United States prior to July 2, 1918, or thereafter during the existence of the World War shall, when honorably discharged from such service, be reassigned to their duties in the Postal Service at the salary to which they would have been automatically promoted had they remained in the Postal Service, provided they are physically and mentally qualified to perform the duties of such positions. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 413; July 2, 1918, c. 117, § 9, 40 Stat. 754.)

819. Termination of employment by reason of absence on account of illness.—The Postmaster General shall not approve or continue any rule or regulation which terminates the employment of any employee by reason of absence on account of illness for a period of less than one year. (July 28, 1916, c. 261, § 1, 39 Stat. 413.)

820. Per diem allowed to officers and employees of department only when actually traveling.—All officers and employees of the Post Office Department who are entitled to a per diem allowance when traveling, in lieu of actual expenses, shall only be allowed such per diem when actually engaged in traveling on official business away from their home, their official domicile, and their headquarters. The Postmaster General shall designate an official domicile and headquarters within the division or territory to which such officer or employee is assigned. (Apr.

28, 1904, c. 1759, § 4, 33 Stat. 440; Apr. 24, 1920, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 574; June 5, 1920, c. 254, 41 Stat. 1052.)

821. Compensation and promotion of printers, mechanics, etc.—Printers, mechanics, and skilled laborers, employees of the United States Stamped Envelope Agency at Dayton, Ohio, shall for the purpose of promotion and compensation be deemed a part of the clerical force. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 4, 43 Stat. 1059.)

822. Salaries at annual or monthly rate; division of time and computation of pay.—Where the salary or compensation of any employee in the Postal Service is at an annual or monthly rate, the following rules shall be followed in computing the amount due: An annual salary or compensation shall be divided into twelve equal installments, one of which shall be the pay for each calendar month; and in making payment for a fractional part of any calendar month there shall be paid such proportion of one of such installments, or of the amount of the monthly salary or compensation, as the number of days in the fractional part of that month bears to the actual number of days in that month. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 241, § 4, 36 Stat. 1339.)

823. Leaves of absence; sick leave.—Employees in the Postal Service shall be granted fifteen days' leave of absence with pay exclusive of Sundays and holidays, each fiscal year, and sick leave with pay at the rate of ten days a year, exclusive of Sundays and holidays, to be cumulative, but no sick leave with pay in excess of thirty days shall be granted during any one fiscal year. Sick leave shall be granted only upon satisfactory evidence of illness in accordance with regulations to be prescribed by the Postmaster General.

The fifteen days' leave shall be credited at the rate of one and one-quarter days for each month of actual service. Not exceeding five days of the fifteen days' annual leave with pay, exclusive of Sundays and holidays, granted to railway postal clerks assigned to road duty each fiscal year may be carried over to the succeeding fiscal year. (June 27, 1884, c. 126, 23 Stat. 60; Oct. 1, 1890, c. 1260, 26 Stat. 648; May 27, 1908, c. 206, 35 Stat. 413; Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, 37 Stat. 346; June 5, 1920, c. 254, 40 Stat. 1052; June 19, 1922, c. 227, § 3, 42 Stat. 660; Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, §§ 7, 11, 43 Stat. 1063, 1064.)

824. Same; employees of mail-bag and mail-lock repair shops.—The employees of the mail-bag repair shop in Washington, District of Columbia, and Chicago, Illinois, and the employees of the mail-lock repair shop in Washington, District of Columbia, may be allowed thirty days' annual leave of absence. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 389, 37 Stat. 546.)

825. Suits and prosecutions in State courts.—All causes of action arising under the postal laws may be sued, and all offenders against the same may be prosecuted, before the justices of the peace, magistrates, or other judicial courts of the several States and Territories having competent jurisdiction by the laws thereof, to the trial of claims and demands of as great value, and of prosecutions where the punishments are of as great extent; and such justices, magistrates, or judiciary shall take cognizance thereof, and proceed to judgment and execution as in other cases. (R. S. § 3833.)

826. Ascertainment of revenues derived from and cost of carrying and handling several classes of mail matter; statement of annually; payment of cost.—The Postmaster General is authorized to continue the work of ascertaining the revenues derived from and the cost of carrying and handling the several classes of mail matter and of performing the special services, and to state the results annually as far as practicable and pay the cost thereof out of the appropriation for inland transportation by railroad routes. (Feb. 28, 1925, c. 368, § 214, 43 Stat. 1069.)

827. Motor-vehicle truck routes and motor express routes.—To promote the conservation of food products and to facilitate the collection and delivery thereof from producer to consumer and the delivery to producers of articles necessary in the production of such food products, the Postmaster General is hereby authorized to conduct experiments in the operation of motor-vehicle truck routes, to be selected by him. The Postmaster General is further authorized to conduct experiments in the operation of country motor express routes, which shall be primarily operated as a means of expediting the transportation of fourth-class mail between producing and consuming localities and shall not displace or supplant any existing methods of mail transportation or delivery. These two classes of experiments shall be conducted under such rules and regulations, including modifications in rates of postage and in packing and wrapping requirements, as the Postmaster General may prescribe.

Mail other than that of the fourth class shall not be dispatched on experimental motor-vehicle truck routes or on experimental country motor express routes unless the same can be expedited thereby in delivery at destination.

Separate accounts shall be kept of the amount of all the mail of all classes carried on such routes. The Postmaster General shall report to Congress the result of such experiments at the beginning of the next regular session. (Feb. 28, 1919, c. 69, § 1, 40 Stat. 1198.)

Section 1. Public Buildings Commission; members; powers and duties.—With a view to the control and allotment of space in owned or leased Government buildings in the District of Columbia, a Public Buildings Commission is created to be composed of two Senators to be appointed by the President of the Senate and two Members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker, who shall serve thereon only so long as they are Members of Congress, and the Architect of the Capitol, the officer in charge of public buildings and grounds, and the Supervising Architect or the Acting Supervising Architect of the Treasury during any vacancy in said office. Said commission shall elect one of its members as chairman of the commission and is authorized to employ such expert clerical or other services as it may deem necessary.

Any vacancies in said commission shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointments were made.

Said commission shall have the absolute control of and the allotment of all space in the several public buildings owned or buildings leased by the United States in the District of Columbia, with the exception of the Executive Mansion and office of the President, Capitol Building, the Senate and House Office Buildings, the Capitol power plant, the buildings under the jurisdiction of the Regents of the Smithsonian Institution, and the Congressional Library Building, and shall from time to time assign and allot, for the use of the several activities of the Government, all such space. (July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 398; Mar. 1, 1919, c. 86, § 10, 40 Stat. 1269; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 124, § 1, 41 Stat. 1291.)

2. Office of Public Buildings and Public Parks of National Capital; Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks of National Capital.—The office of Public Buildings and Grounds under the Chief of Engineers, United States Army, and the office of superintendent of the State, War, and Navy Department Buildings are consolidated into a single office and shall be designated as the office of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital. The superintendent of the State, War, and Navy Department Buildings and the officer in charge of Public Buildings and Grounds shall be designated as the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital, and shall be assigned by the President from the officers of the Corps of Engineers for duty in this position as on February 26, 1925, provided by law for the officer in charge of Public Buildings and Grounds and the superintendent of the State, War, and Navy Department Buildings. (Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 1, 43 Stat. 983.)

3. Commission in charge of State, War, and Navy Department Building abolished; duties, etc., of commission and superintendent transferred to director.—The commission in charge of the State, War, and Navy Department Building, established by the Act approved March 3, 1883, is abolished and all powers and duties conferred and imposed by law upon such commission and the superintendent of the State, War, and Navy Department Buildings shall be exercised and performed by such director, under the general direction of the President of the United States. (Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 2, 43 Stat. 983.)

4. Office of Public Buildings and Grounds abolished; duties, etc., transferred to director.—The office of Public Buildings and Grounds, under the direction and control of the Chief of Engineers of the United States Army, is abolished, and all authority, powers, and duties conferred and imposed by law upon the Secretary of War or upon the Chief of Engineers of the United States Army in relation to the construction, maintenance, care, custody, policing, upkeep, or repair of public buildings, grounds, parks, monuments, or memorials in the District of Columbia, together with the authority, powers, and all duties and powers conferred and imposed by law upon the officer in charge of public buildings and grounds, shall be held, exercised, and performed by the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital, under the general direction of the President of the United States. (Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 3, 43 Stat. 983.)

5. Officers and employees of office of Public Buildings and Public Parks; records, papers, etc., transferred; detail of Army officers to assist director.—The officers and employees in the offices hereby consolidated shall become officers and employees of the office of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital without reappointment, and all official records, papers, files, furniture, supplies, and other property in use in or in the possession of the offices so consolidated are hereby transferred to the office hereby created. The director is authorized to appoint, in accordance with existing law, such officers and employees, and to incur such expenses, as may be necessary for the proper administration of his office within the limits of the appropriations from time to time granted therefor. There may be detailed to assist the director not to exceed two qualified officers of the United States Army not above the rank of major. (Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 4, 43 Stat. 983.)

6. Laws not affected by creation of office of Public Buildings and Public Parks of National Capital.—Nothing contained in sections 2 to 6 of this title shall be held to modify existing law with respect to the assignment of space in the public buildings in the District of Columbia by the Public Buildings Commission or to modify sections 4 to 10, inclusive, of the Act approved May 27, 1924, relating to the United States park police, except as provided in section 4 of this title. (Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 6, 43 Stat. 984.)

7. Distribution of employees.—The said director may from time to time alter the distribution among the various office buildings under his direction and control of the employees allowed by law as he may find it necessary and proper to do. (July 8, 1918, c. 139, § 1, 40 Stat. 831; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 2, 43 Stat. 983.)

8. Estimates and appropriations.—All estimates for public buildings and grounds in charge of the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks shall be approved and submitted by the Secretary of War, through the Treasury Department, as other estimates, to the two Houses of Congress; and all appropriations, which have been or may be made for repairs or improvements of the public buildings and grounds in the District of Columbia, and now in charge of the said director, shall be expended under the direction of the Secretary of War. (R. S. § 1798.)

9. State, War, and Navy Building; care and supervision.—The Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks shall have charge of the State, War, and Navy Department Building, and all the engines, machinery, steam and water supply, heating, lighting, and ventilating apparatus, elevators, and all other fixtures in said building, and all necessary repairs and alterations thereof, as well as the direction and control of such force of engineers, watchmen, laborers, and others engaged about the building or the apparatus under his supervision; of the cleaning of the corridors and water closets; of the approaches, sidewalks, lawns, courtyards, and areas of the building, and of all rooms in the sub-basement which contain the boilers and other machinery, or so much of said rooms as may be indispensable to the proper performance of his duties as herein provided. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 128, § 1, 22 Stat. 553; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 2, 43 Stat. 983.)

10. Director's duties extended to annex buildings.—The Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks shall also act as superintendent of the Navy Department Annex, or Mills Building, and the State Department Annex Building, and the War and Navy Department Buildings (Henry Park Reservation). (May 22, 1908, c. 186, § 1, 35 Stat. 218; Mar. 28, 1918, c. 28, § 1, 40 Stat. 482; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 2, 43 Stat. 983.)

11. Duties extended to temporary office buildings.—The maintenance and protection of the temporary office building erected by the War Department between Eighteenth and Nineteenth Streets and B Street and Virginia Avenue northwest, the two three-story temporary office buildings of reinforced concrete for the Navy Department and War Department in Potomac Park west of Seventeenth Street and south of B Street, the two three-story temporary office buildings of the type erected in Henry Park, one located in Seaton Park (north) between Four-and-a-half and Sixth Streets and south of Missouri Avenue and one located on the Mall between Seventh and Ninth Streets and B Street north and B Street south, and the three-story temporary office building of reinforced concrete located in Seaton Park (south) between Four-and-a-half and Sixth Streets and north of Maine Avenue shall be under the supervision and direction of the said director. (Mar. 28, 1918, c. 28, § 1, 40 Stat. 483; June 4, 1918, c. 92, 40 Stat. 598; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 2, 43 Stat. 983.)

12. Care, maintenance, etc., of Interior Department, Pension Office, Patent Office, and General Land Office buildings.—The responsibility for the care, maintenance, and protection of the Interior Department Building, the Pension Office Building, the Patent Office Building, and the General Land Office Building, including the power, heating and lighting plant therein, and the disbursement of the funds appropriated therefor, together with all the machinery, tools, equipment, and supplies used, or for use, in connection therewith, is transferred to the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital. (May 24, 1922, c. 199, 42 Stat. 554; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, §§ 1, 6, 43 Stat. 983.)

13. Care, maintenance, etc., of Department of Justice buildings.—The responsibility for the care, maintenance, and protection of the building or buildings occupied by the Department of Justice in the District of Columbia and the disbursement of the funds appropriated therefor, together with all the machinery, tools, equipment, and supplies used, or for use, in connection therewith is transferred to the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital. (Feb. 13, 1923, c. 72, 42 Stat. 1239; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, §§ 1–6, 43 Stat. 983.)

14. 19. Director to have charge of public buildings and grounds.—The said Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks shall also have charge of all other public buildings and grounds in the District of Columbia, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the President, through the War Department, except those buildings and grounds which are otherwise provided for by law; and when it shall be made to appear to the said director, or to the officer under his direction having immediate charge of said public buildings and grounds, that any person or persons is in unlawful occupation of any portion of said public lands in the District of Columbia, it shall be the duty of said officer in charge thereof to notify the marshal of the District of Columbia in writing of such unlawful occupation, and the said marshal shall thereupon cause the said trespasser or trespassers to be ejected from said lands, and shall restore possession of the same to the officer charged by law with the custody thereof. (R. S. § 1797; Apr. 28, 1902, c. 594, 32 Stat. 152; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 3, 43 Stat. 983.)

20. Report of director.—He shall annually submit to the Secretary of War in time to accompany the annual message of the President to Congress, a report of his operations for the preceding year, with an account of the manner in which all appropriations for public buildings and grounds have been applied, including a statement of the number of public lots sold, or remaining unsold each year, of the condition of the public buildings and grounds, and of the measures necessary to be taken for the care and preservation of all public property under his charge. (R. S. § 1812.)

21. Manufacture and sale of ice, electricity, and steam to executive departments and independent establishments.—The Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks, is authorized to manufacture and sell at cost to the executive departments and independent establishments of the Government such quantities of ice, electricity, and steam as he may be able to manufacture or generate with the equipment that is available in the buildings under his supervision. (May 24, 1922, c. 199, 42 Stat. 554.)

22. Central heatifig, lighting, and power plant.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to furnish heat, light, and power from the central heating, lighting, and power plant for the buildings, old and new, of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, the buildings of the Department of Agriculture, the Treasury Building, the White House and the buildings on the grounds thereof, the State, War, and Navy Building, the Winder Building, the Mills Building, the Court of Claims Building, the buildings, old and new, of the National Museum, the Smithsonian Institution Building, the Army Medical Museum Building, the Fish Commission Building, the Washington Monument, the District Building, the Post Office Department Building, and the buildings, when constructed on the site acquired, for each of the Departments of State, Justice, and Commerce and Labor, the Pan American Building, the building occupied by the Civil Service Commission, and the municipal fish market. Authority is given for making a cross connection between the central heating, lighting, and power plant aforesaid and the Capitol power plant, so that either plant may supply to the other electric energy in case of a breakdown or other emergency, such connection to be equipped with the necessary meters so that reimbursement may be made for the amount of current actually supplied by either of said plants to the other. (June 23, 1913, c. 3, § 1, 38 Stat. 25; June 12, 1917, c. 27, § 1, 40 Stat. 112.)

23. Maximum rates for gas.—No part of any money appropriated by any Act shall be used for the payment to the Washington Gas Light Company or the Georgetown Gas Light Company for any gas furnished by said companies for use in any of the public buildings of the United States or the District of Columbia at a rate in excess of 70 cents per one thousand cubic feet. (Sept. 1, 1916, c. 433, § 6, 39 Stat. 716.)

24. Lighting lamps in public grounds.—No greater sum shall be paid any company for lighting any gas or electric lamp in the public grounds, or for installing or moving the same, than is paid by the District of Columbia for similar services, and no contract shall be required to be entered into for lighting the public grounds. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1404.)

25. Rentals for gas governors.—Rentals shall not be paid for gas governors for use in buildings under the control of the Treasury Department greater than 35 per centum of the actual value of the gas saved thereby, which saving shall be determined by such tests as the Secretary of the Treasury shall direct. (Feb. 17, 1922, c. 55, 42 Stat. 388; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1109; Apr. 4, 1924, c. 84, Title I, 43 Stat. 83; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title I, 43 Stat. 781.)

26. Inspection of gas and electric meters.—The superintendent of meters, of the Capitol power plant shall inspect all gas and electric meters of the Government in the District of Columbia without compensation other than his annual compensation as such superintendent. (Mar. 20, 1922, c. 103, 42 Stat. 430; Feb. 20, 1923, c. 98, 42 Stat. 1273; June 7, 1924, c. 303, § 1, 43 Stat. 587; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 549, § 1, 43 Stat. 1295.)

27. Superintendent of meters to report consumption of gas.—The said superintendent of meters shall render to the proper accounting officers of the Treasury Department the consumption of gas each month in the several department buildings. (July 31, 1876, c. 246, 19 Stat. 115.)

28. Telegraph connecting public buildings; supervision.—The lines of telegraph, connecting the Capitol with the various departments in Washington, constructed under and by virtue of the Act of Congress approved March 3, 1873, entitled "An Act making appropriations for sundry civil expenses of the Government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1874, and for other purposes," are placed under the supervision of the officer in charge of the public buildings and grounds; and the said officer is authorized and empowered to make rules and regulations for the working of said lines. And the Secretary or head of each executive department, and the Public Printer, are authorized to detail one person from their force of employees to operate the instruments in said departments and printing office, and each House of Congress may provide for the employment of an operator in their respective wings of the Capitol, at a compensation not exceeding $100 per month, during the sessions of Congress. (Feb. 4, 1874, c. 22, 18 Stat. 14.)

29. Same; use of lines.—Said lines of telegraph shall be for the use only of Senators, Members of Congress, judges of the United States courts, and officers of Congress and of the executive departments, and solely on public business. (Mar. 7, 1874, c. 50, 18 Stat. 20.)

30. Same; sale of material or lines.—The Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks is authorized to sell any condemned material or lines not needed by the departments, and cover the proceeds into the Treasury. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 182, § 1, 20 Stat. 388; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 3, 43 Stat. 983.)

31. Use of public buildings for public ceremonies.—No public building, or the approaches thereto, other than the Capitol Building and the White House, in the District of Columbia, shall be used or occupied in any manner whatever in connection with ceremonies attending the inauguration of President of the United States, or other public function, except as may hereafter be expressly authorized by law. (Apr. 28, 1902, c. 594, 32 Stat. 152.)

32. Alterations or work on Treasury Building.—No alteration shall be made, or work done upon the Treasury Building, except for ordinary repairs, except upon authorization of and in accordance with specific appropriations therefor. (July 15, 1870, c. 293, § 1, 16 Stat. 311.)

33. Restriction on expenditures for production of electricity.—No appropriation for the construction or equipment of any executive or municipal building in the District of Columbia shall be expended for the production of electricity for light or power, unless, in the judgment of the Secretary of the Treasury, such necessary electric current for light and power can not be obtained at a less cost. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 9, 34 Stat. 1371.)

34. Rent of buildings in District of Columbia; contracts not to be made until appropriation.—No contract shall be made for the rent of any building, or part of any building, to be used for the purposes of the Government in the District of Columbia, until an appropriation therefor shall have been made in terms by Congress, and this clause shall be regarded as notice to all contractors or lessors of any such building or any part of building. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 106, 19 Stat. 370.)

35. Same; rent of other buildings.—Where buildings are rented for public use in the District of Columbia, the executive departments are authorized, whenever it shall be advantageous to the public interest, to rent others in their stead: Provided, That, except as otherwise provided, no increase in the number of buildings in use, nor in the amounts paid for rents, shall result therefrom. (Aug. 5, 1882, c. 389, § 1, 22 Stat. 241.)

36. Lease of storage accommodations by heads of executive departments.—The heads of the several executive departments are authorized to enter into contracts for the lease, for periods of not exceeding six years, of modern fireproof storage accommodations within the District of Columbia for their respective departments, at rates per square foot of available floor space not exceeding 25 cents, payable from appropriations that Congress may from time to time make for rent of buildings for their respective departments. (Mar. 2, 1913, c. 93, 37 Stat. 718.)

37. Lease of buildings; for military purposes.—In time of war, or when war is imminent, the Secretary of War is authorized, in his discretion, to rent or lease any building or part of building in the District of Columbia that may be required for military purposes. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, 40 Stat. 861.)

38. Rent of building; for Navy Department.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized to enter into contract for the rental of a suitable fireproof building or buildings or parts thereof for the use of the Navy Department for a period of not exceeding ten years from July 1, 1913, at an annual rental of not exceeding $30,000. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 142, § 1, 37 Stat. 771.)

39. Same; for Department of Justice.—The Attorney General is authorized to enter into a contract for the lease of a modern fireproof office building for the use of the Department of Justice for a period not to exceed five years, renewable, at the option of the Government, for an additional period not exceeding five years, at an annual rental not exceeding $36,000 and at a rate per annum per square foot of available floor space not to exceed 36$\frac{3}{10}$ cents. (May 10, 1916, c. 117, § 1, 39 Stat. 109.)

40. Same; for Department of Labor.—The Secretary of Labor is authorized to enter into a contract for the lease of a modern fireproof building for the use of the Department of Labor for a period not to exceed five years, renewable, at the option of the Government, for an additional period not exceeding five years, at an annual rental not exceeding $24,000 and at a rate per annum per square foot of available floor space not to exceed 36$\frac{3}{10}$ cents. (May 10, 1916, c. 117, § 1, 39 Stat. 118.)

41. Requisition of buildings in District of Columbia by Secretary of War.—The Secretary of War is authorized, for the official purposes of the War Department, and within the limits of the appropriations for rent made by any act making appropriations for the War Department, to requisition the use of, and take possession of, any building or any space in any building, and the appurtenances thereof, in the District of Columbia, other than a dwelling house occupied as such or a building occupied by any other branch of the United States Government, and he shall ascertain and pay just compensation for such use. If the amount of compensation so ascertained be not satisfactory to the person entitled to receive the same, such person shall be paid 75 per centum of such amount and shall be entitled to sue the United States to recover such further sum as, added to said 75 per centum, will make up such amount as will be just compensation for such use in the manner provided by section 41, paragraph 20, of Title 28, and section 250 of Title 28. (July 8, 1918, c. 139, § 1, 40 Stat. 826.)

42. Rooms and accommodations for Civil Service Commission.—It shall be the duty of the Civil Service Commission to cause suitable and convenient rooms and accommodations to be assigned or provided, and to be furnished, heated, and lighted, at the city of Washington, for carrying on the work of said commission and the examinations provided for in section 635 of Title 5, and to cause the necessary stationery and other articles to be supplied and the necessary printing to be done for the said commission. (Jan. 16, 1883, c. 27, § 4, 22 Stat. 405; May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 642.)

43. Advertisements and sales in or around Washington Monument.—No advertisement of any kind shall be displayed and no articles of any kind shall be sold in or around the Washington Monument, except upon the written authority of the Secretary of War. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 997.)

44. Fishponds in Monument Grounds.—When the fishponds in the Monument Grounds, the ground around them and the buildings upon the same, are abandoned by the Bureau of Fisheries, the officer in charge of public buildings and grounds is authorized to assume control of them. (June 30, 1906, c. 3912, § 1, 34 Stat. 659.)

45. Chief of Engineers; charge of Washington Aqueduct.—The Chief of Engineers shall have the immediate superintendence of the Washington Aqueduct, together with all rights, appurtenances, and fixtures connected with the same, and belonging to the United States, and of all other public works and improvements in the District of Columbia in which the Government has an interest, and which are not otherwise specially provided for by law. (R. S. § 1800.)

46. Same; compensation.—The Chief of Engineers shall receive no compensation, other than his regular pay as an officer of the Corps of Engineers, for the services required of him under the provisions of this title. (R. S. § 1807.)

47. Same; apartments for.—He shall be furnished official apartments in one of the public buildings in the city of Washington, as may be directed by the Public Buildings Commission, and shall be supplied by the Government with the stationery, instruments, books, and furniture which may be required for the performance of his duties. (R. S. § 1808; Mar. 1, 1919, c. 86, § 10, 40 Stat. 1269.)

48. Same; to obey President.—He shall obey, in the discharge of the duties mentioned in section 45 of this title, such regulations, pursuant to law, as may be prescribed by the President, through the Department of War. (R. S. § 1801.)

49. Same; record of property.—He shall keep in his office a complete record of all the lands and other property connected with or belonging to the Washington Aqueduct and other public works under his charge, together with accurate plans and surveys of the public grounds and reservations in the District of Columbia. (R. S. § 1809.)

50. Same; reports.—He shall, as superintendent of the Washington Aqueduct, annually submit to the Secretary of War, in time to accompany the annual message of the President to Congress, a report of his operations for the preceding year and a report of the condition, progress, repairs, casualties, and expenditures of the Washington Aqueduct and other public works under his charge. (R. S. § 1812.)

51. Same; authority.—He and his necessary assistants are empowered to use all lawful means for the discharge of their duties; and, particularly, he shall have full control over the Washington Aqueduct, to regulate the manner in which the authorities of the District of Columbia may tap the supply of water to the inhabitants thereof; and he shall stop the same whenever it is found to be no more than adequate to the wants of the public buildings and grounds. (R. S. § 1810.)

52. Same; appeal to Secretary of War.—His decision on all questions concerning the supply of water, as provided in the preceding section, shall be subject to appeal to the Secretary of War only. (R. S. § 1811.)

53. Same; regulations for protection of Washington Aqueduct and Filtration Plant.—The Chief of Engineers of the War Department is authorized and empowered to enforce the following regulations of traffic for the protection of the Washington Aqueduct and Filtration Plant and their accessories, including Conduit Road: No vehicle shall, on the Conduit Road, exceed a speed of twenty miles per hour within the District of Columbia, and in the State of Maryland the speed laws of that State. No reckless or careless driving shall be permitted, and drivers of all vehicles shall conform to the generally accepted rules for the use of public roads as to passing to the right, signaling desire to pass, and so forth, and all vehicles using this road shall carry and display the lights specified by municipal regulations for vehicles within the District of Columbia, and all such lights shall be so dimmed or masked as to obviate any blinding effect upon travelers on the road, and any violation of the above regulations shall constitute an offense upon conviction for which the party or parties offending shall be punished by a fine of not less than $1 or more than $40. (Sept. 1, 1916, c. 433, § 1, 39 Stat. 693.)

54. Moneys for public works; expenditure.—All moneys appropriated for the Washington Aqueduct, and for the other public works in the District of Columbia, not otherwise expressly provided for by law, shall be expended under the direction of the Secretary of War. (R. S. § 1802.)

55. Mains or pipes; laying for use of public buildings.—No greater number of main pipes of the Washington Aqueduct shall be laid at the expense of the United States than are sufficient to furnish the public buildings, offices, and grounds with the necessary supply of water. The cost of any main pipe, for the supply of water to the inhabitants of Washington and Georgetown, must be paid by the District of Columbia, in the manner provided by law. (R. S. § 1805.)

56. Same; unauthorized opening.—No person, unless by consent of the Chief of Engineers, shall tap or open the mains or pipes laid or hereafter to be laid by the United States, under a penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $500. (R. S. § 1803.)

57. Same; malicious breaking.—Every person who maliciously breaks, injures, defaces, or destroys any main or pipe, bend, branch, valve, hydrant, service pipe, or any other fixture used for the distribution of water throughout the streets and avenues, or for its introduction into the houses, tenements, or buildings of Washington and Georgetown, shall be punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than two years. (R. S. § 1804.)

58. Maliciously making water impure.—Every person who maliciously commits any act by reason of which the supply of water, or any part thereof, to the cities of Washington and Georgetown, becomes impure, filthy, or unfit for use, shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $1,000, or imprisoned at hard labor in the District of Columbia not more than three years nor less than one year. (R. S. § 1806.)

59. Water in public buildings; shutting off.—All officers in charge of public buildings in the District of Columbia shall cause the flow of water in the buildings under their charge to be shut off from five o'clock post meridian to eight o'clock ante meridian: Provided, That the water in said public buildings is not necessarily in use for public business. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 143, 22 Stat. 615.)

60. Street parking.—The jurisdiction and control of the street parking in the streets and avenues of the District of Columbia is transferred to and vested in the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. (July 1, 1898, c. 543, § 1, 30 Stat. 570.)

61. Jurisdiction of Highway Bridge given to Commissioners of District.—The jurisdiction and control of the Highway Bridge across the Potomac River, including appropriations and employees, shall be under the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. (Feb. 22, 1921, c. 70, § 1, 41 Stat. 1117.)

62. Francis Scott Key Bridge.—The jurisdiction and control of the Georgetown bridge, to be known as the Francis Scott Key Bridge, across the Potomac River and approaches shall be under the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. (Feb. 28, 1923, c. 148, § 1, 42 Stat. 1338.)

63. Use of appropriations for bridges.—Appropriations made for the construction and repair of bridges shall be available for repairing, when necessary, any bridge carrying a public street over the right of way or property of any railway company, or for constructing, reconstructing, or repairing, in such manner as shall in the judgment of the commissioners be necessary reasonably to accommodate public traffic, any bridge required to carry or carrying such traffic in a public street over the right of way or property of any canal company operating as such in the District of Columbia, on the neglect or refusal of such railway or canal company to do such work when notified and required by the commissioners, and the amounts thus expended shall be a valid and subsisting lien against the property of such railway company or of such canal company, and shall be collected from such railway company or from such canal company in the manner provided in section 5 of an act providing a permanent form of government for the District of Columbia, approved June 11, 1878, and shall be deposited in the Treasury to the credit of the United States and the District of Columbia in the manner provided by law. (June 7, 1924, c. 302, § 1, 43 Stat. 550.)

64. Jurisdiction over portion of B Street.—The jurisdiction over that portion of B Street west of Virginia Avenue, formerly under the control of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, shall be under the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks. (May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 356; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 3, 43 Stat. 983.)

65. Limitation on contracts of District Commissioners.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are prohibited from incurring or contracting liabilities on behalf of the United States in the improvement of streets, avenues, and reservations beyond the amount of appropriations previously made by Congress, and from entering into any contract touching such improvements on behalf of the United States, except in pursuance of appropriations made by Congress. (R. S. § 1813; June 20, 1874, c. 337, 18 Stat. 116.)

66. Improper appropriation of streets.—The Secretary of the Interior is directed to prevent the improper appropriation or occupation of any of the public streets, avenues, squares, or reservations in the city of Washington, belonging to the United States, and to reclaim the same if unlawfully appropriated; and particularly to prevent the erection of any permanent building upon any property reserved to or for the use of the United States, unless plainly authorized by act of Congress, and to report to Congress at the commencement of each session his proceedings in the premises, together with a full statement of all such property, and how, and by what authority, the same is occupied or claimed. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to interfere with the temporary and proper occupation of any portion of such property, by lawful authority, for the legitimate purposes of the United States. (R. S. § 1818.)

67. Permits for extensions of buildings beyond building line.—The action of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia in granting permits before March 3, 1891, for the extension of any building or buildings, or any part or parts thereof, in the District of Columbia, beyond the building line, and upon the streets and avenues of said District, is hereby ratified, without prejudice, however, to the legal rights of the Government in the event of the destruction by fire, or otherwise, of any such structure. And after June 21, 1906, no such permits shall be granted except upon special application and with the concurrence of all of said Commissioners, and where such extensions are to be placed upon buildings to be erected on land adjoining United States public reservations, the approval of the Secretary of War. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 540, 26 Stat. 868; July 1, 1898, c. 543, § 3, 30 Stat. 570; June 21, 1906, c. 3506, 34 Stat. 385.)

68. Buildings on reservations, parks, or public grounds.—There shall not be erected on any reservation, park, or public grounds, of the United States within the District of Columbia, any building or structure without express authority of Congress. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 355, § 1, 37 Stat. 444.)

69. Watchmen; powers of police.—All watchmen provided for by the United States Government for service in any of the public squares and reservations in the District of Columbia shall have and perform the same powers and duties as the Metropolitan Police of said District. (Aug. 5, 1882, c. 389, § 1, 22 Stat. 243.)

70. Same; medical attendance.—Park watchmen provided for by law for service in any of the public squares and reservations in the District of Columbia shall receive free medical attendance, the same as the Metropolitan Police of said District. (Apr. 28, 1902, c. 594, 32 Stat. 152.)

71. Park and playground system; National Capital Park Commission.—To preserve the flow of water in Rock Creek, to prevent pollution of Rock Creek and the Potomac and Anacostia Rivers, to preserve forests and natural scenery in and about Washington, and to provide for the comprehensive systematic, and continuous development of the park, parkway, and playground system of the National Capital, there is constituted a commission, to be known as the National Capital Park Commission, composed of the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital, the Engineer Commissioner of the District of Columbia, the Director of the National Park Service, the Chief of the Forest Service, the officer in charge and the chairmen of the Committees on the District of Columbia of the Senate and House of Representatives. At the close of each Congress the presiding officer of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint, respectively, a Senator elect and a Representative elect to the succeeding Congress to serve as members of this commission until the chairmen of committees of the succeeding Congress shall be chosen. The officer in charge of public buildings and grounds shall be the executive and disbursing officer of said commission. (June 6, 1924, c. 270, § 1, 43 Stat. 463; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, 43 Stat. 983.)

72. Same; acquisition of land by commission.—Said commission or a majority thereof is authorized and directed to acquire such lands as in its judgment shall be necessary and desirable in the District of Columbia and adjacent areas in Maryland and Virginia, within the limits of the appropriations made for such purposes, for suitable development of the National Capital park, parkway, and playground system. Said commission is authorized to acquire such lands by purchase when they can be acquired at prices reasonable in the judgment of said commission, otherwise by condemnation proceedings, such proceedings to acquire lands within the District of Columbia to be in accordance with the provisions of section 120 of this title, the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks being, for the purposes of sections 71 to 74 of this title, hereby clothed with all the power vested by section 120 of this title in the board thereby created. Said commission is hereby authorized to acquire such lands, located in Maryland or Virginia, either by purchase or condemnation proceedings, by such arrangements as to acquisition and payment for the lands as it shall determine upon by agreement with the proper officials of the States of Maryland and Virginia. In the selection of lands to be acquired the advice of the Commission of Fine Arts shall be requested. The designation of all lands to be acquired by condemnation, all contracts for purchase of lands, and all agreements between said commission and the officials of the States of Maryland and Virginia shall be subject to the approval of the President of the United States. (June 6, 1924, c. 270, § 2, 43 Stat. 463; Feb. 6, 1925, c. 339, § 3, 43 Stat. 983.)

73. Same; appropriation.—There is authorized to be appropriated, each year, in the annual District of Columbia Appropriation Act, a sum not exceeding 1 cent for each inhabitant of the continental United States as determined by the last preceding decennial census, said sum to be used by said commission for the payment of its expenses and for the acquisition of the lands herein authorized to be acquired by said commission for the purposes named, the compensation for the land, the expense of surveys, ascertainment of title, condemnation proceedings, if any, and necessary conveyancing to be paid from said appropriations. The funds so appropriated shall be paid from the revenues of the District of Columbia and the general funds of the Treasury in the same proportion as other expenses of the District of Columbia. The land so acquired within the District of Columbia shall be a part of the park system of the District of Columbia and be under control of the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks. Areas suitable for playground purposes may, in the discretion of said commission, be assigned to the control of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia for playground purposes. The land so acquired outside the District of Columbia shall be controlled as determined by agreement between said commission and the proper officers of the States of Maryland and Virginia, such agreements to be subject to the approval of the President. (June 6, 1924, c. 270, § 3, 43 Stat. 463; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 3, 43 Stat. 983.)

74. Same; report to Congress; estimate for Bureau of Budget.—Said commission shall report to Congress annually on the first Monday of December the lands acquired during the preceding fiscal year, the method of acquisition, and the cost of each tract. It shall also submit to the Bureau of the Budget on or before September 15 of each year its estimate of the total sum to be appropriated for expenditure under the provisions of sections 71 to 73 of this title during the succeeding fiscal year. (June 6, 1924, c. 270, § 4, 43 Stat. 464.)

75. Park system; control.—The park system of the District of Columbia is placed under the exclusive charge and control of the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the President of the United States, through the Secretary of War.

The said park system shall include in addition to parks specifically mentioned in this chapter:

(a) All public spaces laid down as reservations on the map of 1894 accompanying the annual report of the officer in charge of public buildings and grounds for 1894;

(b) All portions of the space in the streets and avenues of the said District, after the same shall have been set aside by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia for park purposes.

Provided, That no areas less than two hundred and fifty square feet between sidewalk lines shall be included within the said park system, and no improvements shall be made in unimproved public spaces in streets between building lines or building lines prolonged until the outlines of such portions as are to be improved as parks shall have been laid out by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia: And provided further, That the said director is authorized temporarily to turn over the care of any of the parking spaces included in classes (a) and (b) above, to private owners of adjoining lands under such regulations as he may prescribe and with the condition that the said private owners shall pay special assessments for improvements contiguous to such parking, under the same regulations as are or may be prescribed for private lands: And provided further, That the Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and directed to denominate portions of streets in the District of Columbia as business streets and to authorize the use, on such portions of streets, for business purposes by abutting property owners, under such general regulations as said commissioners may prescribe, of so much of the sidewalk and parking as may not be needed, in the judgment of said commissioners, by the general public, under the following conditions, namely: First, where in a portion of a street not already denominated a business street a majority of a frontage not less than three blocks in length is occupied and used for business purposes; and second, where a portion of a street has already been denominated a business street, and there exists adjoining such portion a block or more whose frontage is occupied and used for business purposes. (July 1, 1898, c. 543, § 2, 30 Stat. 570; Feb. 2, 1904, c. 89, 33 Stat. 10; Apr. 14, 1906, c. 1622, 34 Stat. 112; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 3, 43 Stat. 983.)

76. Same; control by director; traffic regulations.—Nothing contained in the provision regarding the making and enforcing of regulations governing the speed of motor vehicles in the District of Columbia found in section 1 of the District of Columbia Act approved March 3, 1917, shall be construed to interfere with the exclusive charge and control committed to the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks over the park system of the District of Columbia, and he is authorized and empowered to make and enforce all regulations for the control of vehicles and traffic, and limiting the speed thereof on roads, highways, and bridges within the public grounds in the District of Columbia, under his control, subject to the penalties prescribed in the Act entitled "An Act regulating the speed of automobiles in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes," approved June 29, 1906. (June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 898; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 3, 43 Stat. 983.)

77. Special police; appointment; powers.—The officer in charge of public buildings and grounds, in his discretion, may appoint special policemen, without compensation, for duty in connection with the policing of the public parks and other reservations under his jurisdiction within the District of Columbia, such special policemen to have the same powers and perform the same duties as the United States park police and the Metropolitan police of said District of Columbia, and to be subject to such regulations as the Chief of Engineers may prescribe: Provided, That the jurisdiction and police power of such special policemen shall be restricted to the public parks and other reservations under the control of the officer in charge of public buildings and grounds. (May 27, 1924, c. 199, § 9, 43 Stat. 176.)

78. Use of spaces or reservations for widening roadways.—When, in the judgment of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, the public necessity or convenience requires them to enter upon any of the spaces or reservations under the jurisdiction of the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks, for the purpose of widening the roadway of any street or avenue adjacent thereto or to establish sidewalks along the same, the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks is authorized to grant the necessary permission upon the application of the commissioners. (July 1, 1898, c. 543, § 4, 30 Stat, 570; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 3, 43 Stat. 983.)

79. Transfers of jurisdiction between director and Commissioners of District.—When in accordance with law or mutual legal agreement, spaces or portions of public land are transferred from the jurisdiction of the director as established by sections 60, 67, 75, and 78 to 80 of this title to that of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, or vice versa, the letters exchanged between them of transfer and acceptance shall be sufficient authority for the necessary change in the official maps and for record when necessary. (July 1, 1898, c. 543, § 5, 30 Stat. 570; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 3, 43 Stat. 983.)

80. Regulations for care of public grounds.—The said director and the said commissioners are authorized to make all needful rules and regulations for the government and proper care of all the public grounds placed by sections 60, 67, 75, 78, and 79 of this title under their respective charge and control; and to annex to such rules and regulations such reasonable penalties as will secure their enforcement. (July 1, 1898, c. 543, § 6, 30 Stat. 571; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 3, 43 Stat. 983.)

81. Same; extended to sidewalks.—The application of such rules and regulations as have been or that may be prescribed for the government and proper care of all public grounds placed by sections 60, 67, 75, and 78 to 80 of this title under the charge and control of the said director, is extended to cover the sidewalks around the public grounds and the carriageways of such streets as lie between and separate the said public grounds. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 994; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 3, 43 Stat. 983.)

82. Public spaces resulting from filling of canals under jurisdiction of director.—All public spaces resulting from the filling of canals in the original city of Washington, except such portions as are included in the navy yard or in actual use as roadways and sidewalks, and except the portions assigned by law to the District of Columbia for use as a property yard and the location of a sewerage pumping station, respectively, are placed under the jurisdiction of the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks and shall be laid out as reservations as a part of the park system of the District of Columbia. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 223, § 1, 38 Stat. 633; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 3, 43 Stat. 983.)

83. Rock Creek Park; establishment.—The tract of land lying on both sides of Rock Creek, beginning at Klingle Ford Bridge, and running northwardly, following the course of said creek, acquired under the Act of September 27, 1890, chapter 1001, shall be perpetually dedicated and set apart as a public park or pleasure ground for the benefit and enjoyment of the people of the United States, to be known by the name of Rock Creek Park. (Sept. 27, 1890, c. 1001, § 1, 26 Stat. 492.)

84. Same; control and regulations.—The public park authorized and established by section 83 of this title shall be a part of the park system of the District of Columbia, defined by section 75 of this title and shall be under the control of the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks, whose duty it shall be, as soon as practicable, to lay out and prepare roadways and bridle paths, to be used for driving and for horseback riding, respectively, and footways for pedestrians; and whose duty it shall also be to make and publish such regulations as he deems necessary and proper for the care and management of the same. Such regulations shall provide for the preservation from injury or spoliation of all timber, animals, or curiosities within said park, and their retention in their natural condition, as nearly as possible. (Sept. 27, 1890, c. 1001, § 7, 26 Stat. 495; July 1, 1918, c. 113, § 1, 40 Stat. 650; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 3, 43 Stat. 983.)

85. Piney Branch Parkway part of park system.—The Piney Branch Parkway is made a part of the park system of the District of Columbia defined by section 75 of this title. (July 1, 1918, c. 113, § 1, 40 Stat. 650.)

86. Potomac Park; establishment.—The entire reclaimed area formerly known as the Potomac Flats, together with the tidal reservoirs, are made and declared a public park, under the name of the Potomac Park, and to be forever held and used as a park for the recreation and pleasure of the people. (Mar. 3, 1897, c. 375, 29 Stat. 624.)

87. Same; control.—Potomac Park is made a part of the park system of the District of Columbia undeer the exclusive charge and control of the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks and subject to the provisions of section 80 of this title. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 223, § 1, 38 Stat. 634; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 3, 43 Stat. 983.)

88. Same; restriction on construction of lagoon or speedway.—No part of any money appropriated in any Act shall be expended for or toward the construction of any lagoon, or other artificial body of water, or speedway, on any portion of said park unless specifically authorized by Congress. (Aug. 1, 1914, c. 223, § 1, 38 Stat. 634.)

89. Same; temporary occupancy by Department of Agriculture.—The Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks is authorized to grant permission to the Department of Agriculture for the temporary occupation of such area or areas of Potomac Park, not exceeding a total of seventy-five acres in extent, as may not be needed in any one season for the reclamation or park improvement, the said areas to be used by the Department of Agriculture as testing grounds: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to change the essential character of the lands so used, which lands shall continue to be a public park, as provided in section 86 of this title: And provided further, That said area or areas shall be vacated by the Department of Agriculture at the close of any season upon the request of the said director: And provided further, That the entire park shall remain under the charge of the said director. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 458, § 2, 30 Stat. 1378.)

90. Licenses for boathouses on banks of tidal reservoir.—Licenses may be granted for the erection of boathouses along the banks of the tidal reservoir on the Potomac River fronting Potomac Park, under regulations to be prescribed by the Chief of Engineers, and all such licenses granted under this authority shall be revocable, without compensation, by the Secretary of War. (May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 355.)

91. Same; tidal basin bathing beach.—The Chief of Engineers of the United States Army is authorized and directed to establish and maintain at a suitable place upon the shore of the tidal basin, in Potomac Park, a public bathhouse, with the necessary equipment, with a sloping sandy beach in the tidal basin, and to install a proper equipment to purify the water entering the basin so that it will not endanger the health of those bathing in it. The direction and control of said public bathing facilities shall be vested in the Chief of Engineers of the United States Army, who shall prescribe such regulations for their use as may be necessary to insure the greatest benefit to the public: Provided, That no charge shall be made for the use of the bathhouse or beach, except that uniform fees may be collected for the hire of bathing suits, soap, towels, and such other conveniences as may be provided upon the request of persons desiring to use them. (June 12, 1917, c. 27, § 1, 40 Stat. 133.)

92. Same; parkway connecting with Zoological and Rock Creek Parks.—For the purpose of preventing the pollution and obstruction of Rock Creek and of connecting Potomac Park with the Zoological Park and Rock Creek Park, a commission, to be composed of the Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of War, and the Secretary of Agriculture, is authorized and directed to acquire, by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, such land and premises as were not, on March 4, 1913, the property of the United States in the District of Columbia shown on the map on file in the office of the Engineer Commissioner of the District of Columbia, dated May 17, 1911, and lying on both sides of Rock Creek, including such portion of the creek bed as may be in private ownership, between the Zoological Park and Potomac Park; and the sum of $1,300,000 is hereby authorized to be expended toward the acquirement of such lands. All lands belonging, on March 4, 1913, to the United States or to the District of Columbia lying within the exterior boundaries of the land to be acquired by this section as shown and designated on said map are appropriated to and made a part of the parkway herein authorized to be acquired. One-half of the cost of the said lands shall be reimbursed to the Treasury of the United States out of the revenues of the District of Columbia in eight equal annual installments, with interest at the rate of 3 per centum per annum, upon the deferred payments. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 147, § 22, 37 Stat. 885.)

93. Small parks at certain street intersections.—Public parks acquired by the condemnation of small park areas at the intersections of streets outside the limits of the original city of Washington, shown on the map on file showing areas surrounded by streets, in the office of the engineer commissioner, shall become a part of the park system of the District of Columbia and be under the control of the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 150, § 1, 37 Stat. 971; Aug. 1, 1914, c. 223, § 1, 38 Stat. 625; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 3, 43 Stat. 983.)

94. Anacostia Park.—The entire area of the Anacostia River and Flats reclaimed and to be reclaimed from the mouth of the river to the District line is made and declared a part of the park system of the District of Columbia and designated Anacostia Park. (Aug. 31, 1918, c. 164, § 1, 40 Stat. 950, 951.)

95. Glover Parkway and Children's Playground.—The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are authorized and directed to accept the land lying along Foundry Branch between Massachusetts Avenue and Reservoir Street, dedicated by Charles C. Glover for park purposes, and containing approximately seventy-seven and one-half acres, as more accurately shown on map Number 1003, filed in the office of the surveyor of the District of Columbia, which tract of land shall be known as "The Glover Parkway and Children's Playground"; and the said commissioners are further authorized to accept any dedications of additional land contiguous to this tract for park purposes. (June 6, 1924, c. 271, § 1, 43 Stat. 464.)

96. Same; part of park system of District.—The Glover Parkway and Children's Playground and additions thereto, when acquired, shall become a part of the park system of the District of Columbia. (June 6, 1924, c. 271, § 2, 43 Stat. 464.)

97. Jurisdiction over reservation 185.—When in the judgment of the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks the use of reservation 185, transferred to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia for use as a property yard, is desirable for park purposes, the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, upon his request, are authorized and directed to retransfer said reservation to his jurisdiction. (May 18, 1910, c. 248, 36 Stat. 383; Feb. 26, 1925, c. 339, § 3, 43 Stat. 983.)

98. Use of public grounds for playgrounds.—The officer in charge of public buildings and grounds may authorize the temporary use of the Monument Grounds or ground south of the Executive Mansion or other reservations in the District of Columbia for playgrounds for children and adults, under regulations to be prescribed by him. (Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1007, 32 Stat. 1122.)

99. Licenses for temporary structures on reservations used as playgrounds.—Such officer is authorized to grant licenses revocable by him, without compensation, to erect temporary structures upon reservations used as children's playgrounds, under such regulations as he may impose. (May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 355.)

100. Part of Washington Aqueduct for playground purposes.—The Chief of Engineers is authorized to transfer for playground purposes the possession, use, and control of all that portion of the land of the Washington Aqueduct adjacent to the Champlain Avenue pumping station and lying outside of the fence around said pumping station existing on August 31, 1918, to the control and jurisdiction of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia. (Aug. 31, 1918, c. 164, § 1, 40 Stat. 951.)

101. Laws of District extended to public buildings and grounds.—The provisions of the several laws and regulations within the District of Columbia for the protection of public or private property and the preservation of peace and order are extended to all public buildings and public grounds belonging to the United States within the District of Columbia. Any person guilty of disorderly and unlawful conduct in or about the same, or who shall willfully injure the buildings or shrubs, or shall pull down, impair, or otherwise injure any fence, wall, or other inclosure, or shall injure any sink, culvert, pipe, hydrant, cistern, lamp, or bridge, or shall remove any stone, gravel, sand, or other property of the United States, or any other part of the public grounds or lots belonging to the United States in the District of Columbia, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $50. (July 29, 1892, c. 320, § 15, 27 Stat. 325.)

102. Ailantus trees prohibited.—No more ailantus trees shall be purchased for or planted in the public grounds. (R. S. § 1830.)

103. Trees, shrubs, and plants, in greenhouses and nursery.—Only such trees, shrubs, and plants shall be propagated at the greenhouses and nursery as are suitable for planting in the public reservations, to which purpose only the said productions of the greenhouses and nursery shall be applied. (June 20, 1878, c. 359, § 1, 20 Stat. 220.)

104. Commission of Fine Arts.—A permanent Commission of Fine Arts is created to be composed of seven well-qualified judges of the fine arts, who shall be appointed by the President, and shall serve for a period of four years each, and until their successors are appointed and qualified. The President shall have authority to fill all vacancies. It shall be the duty of such commission to advise upon the location of statues, fountains, and monuments in the public squares, streets, and parks in the District of Columbia, and upon the selection of models for statues, fountains, and monuments erected under the authority of the United States and upon the selection of artists for the execution of the same. It shall be the duty of the officers charged by law to determine such questions in each case to call for such advice. The foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply to the Capitol Building of the United States and the building of the Library of Congress. The commission shall also advise generally upon questions of art when required to do so by the President, or by any committee of either House of Congress. Said commission shall have a secretary and such other assistance as the commission may authorize, and the members of the commission shall each be paid actual expenses in going to and returning from Washington to attend the meetings of said commission and while attending the same. (May 17, 1910, c. 243, § 1, 36 Stat. 371.)

105. Same; secretary and executive officer.—The officer in charge of public buildings and grounds shall be the secretary and shall act as the executive officer of said commission. (June 25, 1910, c. 384, § 1, 36 Stat. 728.)

106. Same; limitation of annual expenditure.—To meet the expenses made necessary by section 104 of this title an expenditure of not exceeding $10,000 a year is authorized. (May 17, 1910, c. 243, § 2, 36 Stat. 371.)

107. Wharf property; control by Commissioners of District.—With the exceptions hereinafter provided, the Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall have exclusive charge and control of all wharf property belonging to the United States or to the District of Columbia within said District, including all the wharves, piers, bulkheads, and structures thereon and waters adjacent thereto within the pier lines, and all slips, basins, docks, water fronts, land under water, and structures thereon, and the appurtenances, easements, uses, reversions, and rights belonging thereto, which on March 3, 1899, were owned or possessed by the United States or the District of Columbia, or to which they or either of them was on that date or may thereafter become entitled, or which they or either of them may acquire under the provisions hereof or otherwise; and said Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall have exclusive charge and control of the repairing, building, rebuilding, maintaining, altering, strengthening, leasing, and protecting said property and every part thereof, and all the cleaning, dredging, and deepening necessary in and about the same within the pier lines. Said commissioners are also authorized and empowered to make all needful rules and regulations for the government and control of all wharves, piers, bulkheads, and structures thereon, and waters adjacent thereto within the pier lines, and all the basins, slips, and docks, with the land under water, in said District not owned by the United States or the District of Columbia: Provided, That the following described property shall be placed under the immediate jurisdiction and control of the Chief of Engineers of the United States: The banks of the Potomac River from the north line of the Arsenal Grounds to the southern curb line of N Street south; also five hundred linear feet of shore line in the Flushing Reservoir at the foot of Seventeenth Street, west, and west from the western curb of said street, including a levee one hundred feet wide. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 458, § 1, 30 Stat. 1377.)

108. Same; regulation.—Said commissioners and the Chief of Engineers of the United States Army are authorized and empowered to make all needful rules and regulations for the government and proper care of all the property placed in their charge and under their respective control by the provisions of section 107 of this title and to annex such reasonable penalties to said rules and regulations as will secure their enforcement; and also to make and enforce rules and regulations in regard to building and repairing wharves, the rental thereof, and the rate of wharfage. All rents so collected shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States, one-half to be placed to the credit of the United States and one-half to the credit of the District of Columbia. No lease made under the provisions of said section 107 shall extend beyond the period of ten years. (Mar. 3, 1899, c. 458, § 2, 30 Stat. 1378.)

109. Inspection of fuel in District of Columbia; inspectors, weighers, and measurers.—It shall not be lawful for any officer or person in the civil, military, or naval service of the United States in the District of Columbia to purchase anthracite or bituminous coal or wood for the public service except on condition that the same shall, before delivery, be inspected and weighed or measured by some competent person, to be appointed by the head of the department or chief of the branch of the service for which the purchase is made from among the persons authorized to be employed in such department or branch of the service. The person appointed under this section shall ascertain that each ton of coal weighed by him shall consist of two thousand two hundred and forty pounds, and that each cord of wood to be so measured shall be of the standard measure of one hundred and twenty-eight cubic feet. Each load or parcel of wood or coal weighed and measured by him shall be accompanied by his certificate of the number of tons or pounds of coal and the number of cords or parts of cords of wood in each load or parcel. The proper accounting officer of the Treasury shall be furnished with a copy of the appointment of each inspector, weigher, and measurer appointed under this section. It shall not be lawful for any accounting officer to pass or allow to the credit of any disbursing officer in the District of Columbia any money paid by him for purchase of anthracite or bituminous coal or for wood, unless the voucher therefor is accompanied by a certificate of the proper inspector, weigher, and measurer that the quantity paid for has been determined by such officer. (R. S. §§ 3711, 3712, 3713; Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 6, 28 Stat. 808; Mar. 15, 1898, c. 68, § 6, 30 Stat. 316.)

110. Government fuel yards.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to establish in the District of Columbia storage and distributing yards for the storage of fuel for the use of and delivery to all branches of the Federal service and the municipal government in the District of Columbia and such parts thereof as may be situated immediately without the District of Columbia and economically can be supplied therefrom, and to select, purchase, contract for, and distribute all fuel required by the said services. Authority is granted the Secretary of the Interior, in connection with the establishment of the said yards, to procure by purchase, requisition for immediate use, condemnation, or lease for such period as may be necessary, land, wharves, and railroad trestles and sidings requisite therefor. All branches of the Federal service except as provided in section 111 of this title, and the municipal government in the District of Columbia, from and after the establishment of the said fuel yards, shall purchase all fuel from the Secretary of the Interior and make payment therefor from applicable appropriations at the actual cost thereof to the United States, including all expenses connected therewith. (July 1, 1918, c. 113, § 1, 40 Stat. 672.)

111. Same; Naval Establishment excepted.—The provisions of section 110 of this title shall not apply to the fuel required for the Naval Establishment, except the naval hospital, in the District of Columbia. (July 11, 1919, c. 9, 41 Stat. 148.)

112. Appropriation for fuel; contracts in advance of.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to contract for the purchase of fuel for the Government fuel yard in advance of the availability of the appropriation for the payment thereof. Such contracts, however, shall not exceed the necessities of the current year. (July 19, 1919, c. 24, § 1, 41 Stat. 200.)

113. Delivery of coal for use during ensuing fiscal year.—The said Secretary is authorized to deliver, during the months of April, May, and June of each year, to all branches of the Federal service and the municipal government in the District of Columbia, such quantities of fuel for their use during the following fiscal year as it may be practicable to store at the points of consumption, payment therefor to be made by these branches of the Federal service and municipal government from their applicable appropriations for such fiscal year. (June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 913.)

114. Payments for fuel furnished.—The various branches of the Federal service and the municipal government in the District of Columbia shall make payment of accounts rendered against them by the Government fuel yard for fuel furnished them by depositing the proper amount directly to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States for the credit of the appropriation "Maintenance and operation, United States Government fuel yard," and duplicate certificates of deposits issued therefor shall be promptly forwarded by the depositors to the Government fuel yard. (Jan. 24, 1923, c. 42, 42 Stat. 1211.)

115. Disposition of proceeds of sale of fuel.—All moneys received from the sales of fuel shall be credited to the appropriation for operating expenses of the fuel yard and be available for the purposes of such appropriation. (Jan. 24, 1923, c. 42, 42 Stat. 1211; June 5, 1924, c. 264, 43 Stat. 422; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1176.)

116. Appropriation for fuel; use.—No part of any moneys appropriated shall be used for the purpose of taking over or in any way interfering with the yards or coal dumps or other facilities for storage and distribution of coal that have been used and occupied during the year preceding July 1, 1918, by coal dealers for supplying the general public. (July 1, 1918, c. 113, § 1, 40 Stat. 673.)

117. Appropriations for fuel yard and garage; use of.—All appropriations made for the maintenance and operation of the fuel yard in the District of Columbia may also be used and expended for the purchase or condemnation of land for fuel yard and garage purposes as well as for the construction of a garage building thereon, for the joint use of, and in connection with, such fuel yard and the Department of the Interior, and shall continue available for those purposes until expended: Provided, however, That no moneys expended for those purposes shall be considered as expenditures to be returned to such appropriations: And provided also, That the Department of the Interior shall from applicable appropriations reimburse said appropriations for its proportionate share of the expenses of maintaining and operating the garage mentioned. (Jan. 24, 1923, c. 42, 42 Stat. 1211.)

118. Exchange of motor vehicles for new equipment.—The Secretary of the Interior may exchange, as part consideration in the purchase of new equipment, motor vehicles and any other equipment used by said fuel yards. (July 19, 1919, c. 24, § 1, 41 Stat. 200.)

119. Use of fuel trucks to haul sand, gravel, stone, etc.—The said Secretary of the Interior may have sand, gravel, stone, and other material hauled for the municipal government of the District of Columbia and for branches of the Federal service in the District of Columbia, whenever it may be practicable and economical to have such work performed by using trucks of the Government fuel yards not needed at the time for the hauling of fuel. Payment for such work shall be made on the basis of the actual cost to the Government fuel yards. (June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 913.)

80270°—26——82

120. Acquisition of lands in District of Columbia; proceedings.—In all cases of the taking of property in the District of Columbia for public use, if the proper officer shall be unable to purchase said land by agreement with any one or more of the respective owners at a reasonable price he shall make application to the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, at any general or special term thereof, by petition for the condemnation of such land not so purchased, and for the ascertainment of its value. Such petition shall contain a particular description of the property not so purchased, and selected for the purpose aforesaid, with the name of the owner or owners thereof and their residences, so far as the same may be ascertained, together with a plan of the land proposed to be taken; and thereupon the said court is authorized and required to cite all such owners and all other persons interested to appear in said court at a time to be fixed by such court, on reasonable notice, to answer the said petition; and if it shall appear to the court that there are any owners or other persons interested who are under disability the court shall give public notice of the time at which the said court will proceed with the matter of condemnation; and at such time if it shall appear that there are any persons under disability either who have appeared or who have not appeared, the court shall appoint guardians ad litem for each such persons, and the court shall thereupon proceed to appoint three capable and disinterested commissioners to appraise the value of the respective interests of all persons concerned in such lands, under such regulations as to notice and hearing as to the court shall seem meet. Such commissioners shall thereupon, after being duly sworn for the proper performance of their duties, examine the premises and hear the persons in interest who may appear before them, and return their appraisement of the value of the interests of all persons, respectively, in such land; and in case any of the persons entitled according to the judgment of the court are under disability, or can not be found, or neglect to receive payment, the money to be paid to any of them shall be deposited in the Treasury to their credit, unless there shall be some person lawfully authorized to receive the same under the direction of the court, and when such payments are so made, or the amounts belonging to persons to whom payment shall not be made are so deposited, the said lands shall be deemed to be condemned and taken by the United States for the public use. (Aug. 30, 1890, c. 837, § 3, 26 Stat. 412.)

Section 161. Title of Superintendent of Capitol Building and Grounds changed to Architect of the Capitol.—The title of "Superintendent of the Capitol Building and Grounds" is changed to "Architect of the Capitol." (Feb. 14, 1902, c. 17, 32 Stat. 20; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 124, § 1, 41 Stat. 1291.)

162. Architect of Capitol; powers and duties.—The Architect of the Capitol shall exercise all the power and authority exercised by the former Architect of the Capitol and perform all the duties relative to the Capitol Building heretofore performed by the Commissioner of Public Buildings and Grounds, and shall be appointed by the President: Provided, That no change in the architectural features of the Capitol Building or in the landscape features of the Capitol Grounds shall be made except on plans to be approved by Congress. (Aug. 15, 1876, c. 287, § 1, 19 Stat. 147; Feb. 14, 1902, c. 17, 32 Stat. 20; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 124, § 1, 41 Stat. 1291.)

163. Same; care and superintendence of Capitol.—The Architect of the Capitol shall have the care and superintendence of the Capitol, including lighting, and shall submit through the Secretary of the Interior estimates thereof. His office shall be in the Capitol Building. (Aug. 15, 1876, c. 287, § 1, 19 Stat. 147.)

164. Same; chief clerk to act in case of absence, disability, or vacancy.—In case of the absence or disability of the Architect of the United States Capitol, the chief clerk shall have full power and authority to do and perform all the acts which the said Architect might himself do, and in case of a vacancy the chief clerk shall perform the duties of the Architect until the vacancy shall be filled according to law. (July 7, 1898, c. 571, § 1, 30 Stat. 672.)

165. Same; disbursing clerk of Interior Department to act as disbursing clerk of.—The disbursing clerk of the Department of the Interior shall act as disbursing clerk of the Architect of the Capitol, and disburse all moneys appropriated for the United States Capitol extension and improvement of the grounds, and receive an annual compensation of $1,000, to be paid out of said appropriation. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 182, § 1, 20 Stat. 391.)

166. Same; repairs of Capitol.—All improvements, alterations, additions, and repairs of the Capitol Building shall be made by the direction and under the supervision of the Architect of the Capitol, and the same shall be paid for by the Secretary of the Interior out of the appropriations for such extension, and from no other appropriation. (R. S. § 1816.)

167. Lighting, heating, and ventilating House of Representatives.—The electrician, together with everything pertaining to the electrical machinery and apparatus, and the ventilation and heating of the House of Representatives, and all laborers and others connected with the lighting, heating and ventilating thereof, shall be subject exclusively to the orders, and in all respects under the direction, of the Architect of the Capitol, subject to the control of the Speaker; and no removal or appointment shall be made except with his approval. And all engineers and others who are engaged in heating and ventilating the House shall be subject to the orders, and in all respects under the direction, of the Architect of the Capitol, subject to the control of the Speaker; and no removal or appointment shall be made except with his approval. (Mar. 3, 1877, c. 105, 19 Stat. 348; Mar. 3, 1881, c. 130, § 1, 21 Stat. 388.)

168. Heating and ventilating Senate wing.—All engineers and others who are engaged in heating and ventilating the Senate wing of the Capitol shall be subject to the orders and in all respects under the direction of the Architect of the Capitol, subject to the approval of the Senate Committee on Rules. (July 11, 1888, c. 615, § 1, 25 Stat. 258.)

169. Furniture for House of Representatives.—The Architect of the Capitol shall supervise and direct the care and repair of all furniture in the Hall, cloakrooms, lobby, committee rooms, and offices of the House, and all furniture required for the House of Representatives or for any of its committee rooms or offices shall be procured on designs and specifications made or approved by the said Architect. (Apr. 28, 1902, c. 594, 32 Stat. 125; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 124, § 1, 41 Stat. 1291.)

170. Purchase of furniture or carpets for House or Senate.—No furniture or carpets for either House shall be purchased without the written order of the chairman of the Committee to Audit and Control the Contingent Expenses of the Senate, for the Senate, or without the written order of the chairman of the Committee on Accounts of the House of Representatives, for the House. (R. S. § 1816.)

171. Transfer of discontinued apparatus to other branches.—The Architect of the Capitol may transfer apparatus, appliances, equipments, and supplies of any kind, discontinued or permanently out of service, to other branches of the service of the United States, or District of Columbia, whenever, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, in his judgment the interests of the Government service may require it. A detailed statement of all such transfers shall be submitted in the annual report to Congress of the Architect. (June 26, 1912, c. 182, § 11, 37 Stat. 184; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 124, § 1, 41 Stat. 1291.)

172. Unused documents and Patent Office models removed from Capitol.—The Architect of the Capitol shall be the custodian of the building or buildings on reservation numbered 13 in the District of Columbia selected by him in which to store unused documents and material removed from the Capitol Building and Senate and House Office Buildings, and the Patent Office models removed from the Senate and House Office Buildings under the Act of July 16, 1914, chapter 141. (July 16, 1914, c. 141, § 1, 38 Stat. 458; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 124, § 1, 41 Stat. 1291.)

173. Estimates for improvements in grounds.—All changes and improvements in the Capitol Grounds, including approaches to the Capitol, shall be estimated for in detail, showing what modifications are proposed and the estimate cost of the same. (Mar. 3, 1883, c. 143, 22 Stat. 621.)

174. Care and control of buildings and land acquired for enlargement of grounds.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, until their removal becomes necessary, to rent for such periods and under such terms and conditions as he may deem proper, any building or buildings, or vacant land, that may be acquired under the provisions of the sundry civil Acts of June 25, 1910 (Thirty-sixth Statutes, page 738), and March 4, 1911 (Thirty-sixth Statutes, page 1414), or subsequent Acts, for the enlargement of the Capitol Grounds, the proceeds to be deposited in the Treasury and a detailed report thereof to be submitted to Congress at the beginning of each regular session thereof. The Architect of the Capitol, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, is charged with the immediate care of said buildings, and the direction and supervision of all repairs thereto, and the lands acquired under the provision of the above-mentioned Acts: Provided, That the authority hereby granted shall also apply to the Maltby Building. (Aug. 26, 1912, c. 208, § 1, 37 Stat. 605; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 124, § 1, 41 Stat.1291.)

175. House Office Building; control, supervision, and care.—The House of Representatives Office Building, which shall hereafter be designated as the House Office Building and the employment of all service, other than officers and privates of the Capitol police, that may be appropriated for by Congress, necessary for its protection, care, and occupancy, shall be under the control and supervision of the Architect of the Capitol, subject to the approval and direction of a commission consisting of the Speaker of the House of Representatives and two Representatives in Congress, to be appointed by the Speaker. Vacancies occurring by resignation, termination of service as Representatives in Congress, or otherwise in the membership of said commission shall be filled by the Speaker, and any two members of said commission shall constitute a quorum to do business. The Architect of the Capitol shall submit annually to Congress estimates in detail for all services, other than officers and privates of the Capitol police, and for all other expenses in connection with said office building and necessary for its protection, care, and occupancy; and said commission herein referred to shall from time to time prescribe rules and regulations to govern said architect in making all such employments, together with rules and regulations governing the use and occupancy of all rooms and space in said building. (Mar. 4, 1907, c. 2918, § 1, 34 Stat. 1365; May 28, 1908, No. 30, § 1, 35 Stat. 578; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 124, § 1, 41 Stat. 1291.)

176. Same; Speaker as member of commission.—The Speaker shall continue a member of the commission in control of said building until his successor as Speaker is elected or his term as a Representative in Congress shall have expired. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 240, 36 Stat. 1306.)

177. Same; assignment of rooms.—The assignment of rooms in the House Office Building, heretofore made by resolution or order of the House of Representatives, shall continue in force until modified or changed in accordance with the provisions of sections 177 to 184 of this title, and the room so assigned to any Representative shall continue to be held by such Representative as his individual office room so long as he shall remain a Member or Member elect of the House of Representatives, or until he shall relinquish the same, subject, however, to the provisions of sections 177 to 184 of this title, and no Representative shall allow his office room to be used for any other purpose. (May 28, 1908, No. 30, § 1, 35 Stat. 578.)

178. Same; vacant rooms; assignment.—Any Member or Member elect of the House of Representatives may file with the Architect of the Capitol a request in writing that any individual office room be assigned to him whenever it shall become vacant. If only one such request has been made for any room which shall at any time have become vacant, the room shall be assigned as requested. If two or more requests are made for the same vacant room, preference shall be given to the Representative making the request who has been longest in continuous service as a Member and Member elect of the House of Representatives. If two or more Representatives with equal length of continuous service, or two or more Representatives elect make request for the same room, preference shall be given to the one first preferring his request. (May 28, 1908, No. 30, § 1, 35 Stat. 578; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 124, 41 Stat. 1291.)

179. Same; vacant rooms; withdrawal of request for assignment; relinquishment of rooms previously assigned.—A Representative or Representative elect making request for the assignment of a vacant room may withdraw the same at any time and no one shall have pending at the same time more than one such request. The assignment of a new room to a Representative, upon his request, or the appointment of any Representative having an individual office room as chairman of a committee having a committee room, shall act as a relinquishment by him of the room previously assigned to him. (May 28, 1908, No. 30, § 1, 35 Stat. 578.)

180. Same; exchange of rooms.—Representatives having rooms assigned to them in the foregoing manner may exchange rooms one with another, but such exchange shall be valid only so long as both Members making the exchange shall remain continuously Members or Members elect of the House of Representatives. (May 28, 1908, No. 30, § 1, 35 Stat. 578.)

181. Same; record of assignment of rooms, etc.—The Architect of the Capitol shall keep a record of the assignment of rooms heretofore or hereafter made, exchanges which may be made, requests for vacant rooms which may be filed, and the assignment thereof, which record shall be open for the inspection of Representatives or Representatives elect of the House. (May 28, 1908, No. 30, § 1, 35 Stat. 579; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 124, § 1, 41 Stat. 1291.)

182. Same; assignment of rooms to Delegates and Commissioners.—In the matter of the assignment of rooms under sections 177 to 184 of this title, Delegates in Congress and the Commissioners from Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands shall be treated the same as Representatives. (May 28, 1908, No. 30, § 1, 35 Stat. 579.)

183. Same; assignment, etc., of rooms; control of by House.—The assignment and reassignment of the rooms and other space in the House Office Building shall be subject to the control of the House of Representatives by rule, resolution, order, or otherwise. Nothing in sections 177 to 184 of this title shall be construed to affect or repeal the provisions of section 175 of this title, placing said House Office Building under the control of the Architect of the Capitol, subject to the approval and direction of the commission provided therein. (May 28, 1908, No. 30, § 1, 35 Stat. 579; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 124, § 1, 41 Stat. 1291.)

184. Same; assignment of unoccupied space.—Unoccupied space in said building shall be assigned by the Architect of the Capitol under the direction of the commission and subject to the control of the House of Representatives. (May 28, 1908, No. 30, § 1, 35 Stat. 579; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 124, § 1, 41 Stat. 1291.)

185. Capitol power plant.—The heating, lighting, and power plant constructed under the terms of the Act approved April 28, 1904, shall be known as the Capitol power plant; and all vacancies occurring in the force operating said plant and the substations in connection therewith shall be filled by the Architect of the Capitol with the approval of the said commission in control of the House Office Building appointed under section 175 of this title. (Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 414; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 124, § 1, 41 Stat. 1291.)

186. Transfer of material and equipment to architect.—The Secretary of War is authorized to transfer, without payment, to the Architect of the Capitol, such material and equipment, not required by the War Department, as the superintendent may request for use at the Capitol power plant, the Capitol Building, and the Senate and House Office Buildings. (June 5, 1920, c. 253, § 1, 41 Stat. 1035; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 124, § 1, 41 Stat. 1291.)

187. National Statuary Hall.—Suitable structures and railings shall be erected in the old hall of Representatives for the reception and protection of statuary, and the same shall be under the supervision and direction of the Architect of the Capitol. And the President is authorized to invite all the States to provide and furnish statues, in marble or bronze, not exceeding two in number for each State, of deceased persons who have been citizens thereof, and illustrious for their historic renown or for distinguished civic or military services, such as each State may deem to be worthy of this national commemoration; and when so furnished, the same shall be placed in the old hall of the House of Representatives, in the Capitol of the United States, which is set apart, or so much thereof as may be necessary, as a national statuary hall for the purpose herein indicated. (R. S. § 1814; Aug. 15, 1876, c. 287, § 1, 19 Stat. 147; Mar. 3, 1921, c. 124, § 1, 41 Stat. 1291.)

188. Works of fine arts.—The Joint Committee on the Library, whenever, in their judgment, it is expedient, are authorized to accept any work of the fine arts, on behalf of Congress, which may be offered, and to assign the same such place in the Capitol as they may deem suitable, and shall have the supervision of all works of art that may be placed in the Capitol. (R. S. § 1831.)

189. Art exhibits.—No work of art or manufacture other than the property of the United States shall be exhibited in the National Statuary Hall, the rotunda, or the corridors of the Capitol. (R. S. § 1815; Mar. 3, 1875, c. 130, § 1, 18 Stat. 376; Mar. 3, 1879, c. 182, § 1, 20 Stat. 391.)

190. Same.—No room in the Capitol shall be used for private studios or works of art, without permission from the Joint Committee on the Library, given in writing; and it shall be the duty of the Architect of the Capitol to carry this provision into effect. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 130, § 1, 18 Stat. 376.)

191. Sale of intoxicating liquors in Capitol.—No intoxicating liquors of any character shall be sold within the limits of the Capitol Building of the United States. (Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1012, § 34, 32 Stat. 1221.)

192. Laws of District extended to Capitol Square.—All laws and regulations of the District of Columbia for the preservation of the public peace and order shall extend to the Capitol Square, whenever application for the same is requested by the presiding officer of either House of Congress, or by the Architect of the Capitol. (R. S. § 1819; Aug. 15, 1876, c. 287, § 1, 19 Stat. 147.)

193. Protection of buildings and property.—The Sergeants at Arms of the Senate and of the House of Representatives are authorized to make such regulations as they may deem necessary for preserving the peace and securing the Capitol from defacement, and for the protection of the public property therein, and they shall have power to arrest and detain any person violating such regulations, until such person can be brought before the proper authorities for trial. (R. S. § 1820.)

194. Capitol grounds; public use.—Public travel in and occupancy of the Capitol Grounds shall be restricted to the roads, walks, and places prepared for the purpose by flagging, paving, or otherwise. (July 1, 1882, c. 258, § 1, 22 Stat. 126.)

195. Same; obstruction of roads.—It is forbidden to occupy the roads in such manner as to obstruct or hinder their proper use, to drive violently upon them, or with animals not under perfect control, or to use them for the conveyance of goods or merchandise, except to or from the Capitol on Government service. (July 1, 1882, c. 258, § 2, 22 Stat. 126.)

196. Same; offer of articles for sale; signs.—It is forbidden to offer or expose any article for sale; to display any sign, placard, or other form of advertisement; to solicit fares, alms, subscriptions, or contributions. (July 1, 1882, c. 258, § 3, 22 Stat. 126.)

197. Same; injuries to.—It is forbidden to step or climb upon, remove, or in any way injure any statue, seat, wall, or other erection, or any tree, shrub, plant, or turf. (July 1, 1882, c. 258, § 4, 22 Stat. 126.)

198. Same; firearms or fireworks; harangues or orations.—It is forbidden to discharge any firearm, firework, or explosive, set fire to any combustible, make any harangue or oration, or utter loud, threatening, or abusive language. (July 1, 1882, c. 258, § 5, 22 Stat. 127.)

199. Same; parades or assemblages; display of flags.—It is forbidden to parade, stand, or move in processions or assemblages, or display any flag, banner, or device designed or adapted to bring into public notice any party, organization, or movement. (July 1, 1882, c. 258, § 6, 22 Stat. 127.)

200. Same; prosecution and punishment of offenses.—Offenses against sections 194 to 199 of this title shall be triable before the police court of the District of Columbia, and shall be punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, at the discretion of the judge of said court; the fine not to exceed $100, the imprisonment not to exceed sixty days. But in the case of heinous offenses by reason of which public property shall have suffered damage to an amount exceeding $100 in value, said judge of the police court may commit or hold to bail the offender for trial before the supreme court of the District of Columbia, when the offense shall be punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a period of not less than six months nor more than five years. (July 1, 1882, c. 258, § 7, 22 Stat. 127.)

201. Same; arrests.—It shall be the duty of all policemen and watchmen having authority to make arrests in the District of Columbia to be watchful for offenses against sections 194 to 199 of this title, and to arrest and bring before the proper tribunal those who shall offend against it under their observation, or of whose offenses they shall be advised by witnesses. (July 1, 1882, c. 258, § 8, 22 Stat. 127.)

202. Same; Capitol employees to aid in enforcement.—It shall be the duty of all persons employed in the service of the Government in the Capitol or on its grounds to prevent, as far as may be in their power, offenses against sections 194 to 199 of this title, and to aid the police, by information or otherwise, in securing the arrest and conviction of offenders. (July 1, 1882, c. 258, § 9, 22 Stat. 127.)

203. Same; suspending regulations.—In order to admit of the due observance within the Capitol Grounds of occasions of national interest becoming the cognizance and entertainment of Congress, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, acting concurrently, are authorized to suspend for such proper occasions so much of the above prohibitions as would prevent the use of the roads and walks of the said grounds by processions or assemblages, and the use upon them of suitable decorations, music, addresses, and ceremonies: Provided, That responsible officers shall have been appointed, and arrangements determined, adequate, in the judgment of said President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives, for the maintenance of suitable order and decorum in the proceedings, and for guarding the Capitol and its grounds from injury. (July 1, 1882, c. 258, § 10, 22 Stat. 127.)

204. Same; suspending regulations; Capitol police commission.—In the absence from Washington of either of the officers designated in the last section the authority therein given to suspend certain prohibitions of sections 194 to 199 of this title shall devolve upon the other, and in the absence from Washington of both it shall devolve upon the Capitol police commission. (July 1, 1882, c. 258, § 11, 22 Stat. 127.)

205. Same; concerts on grounds.—Nothing in sections 194 to 204 of this title, shall be construed to prohibit concerts on the Capitol Grounds at times when neither House of Congress is sitting by any band in the service of the United States under the direction of the Architect of the Capitol. (June 6, 1900, c. 791, § 1, 31 Stat. 613.)

206. Capitol police; appointment.—There shall be a Capitol police. The captain and lieutenants shall be selected jointly by the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate and the Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives; and one-half of the privates shall be selected by the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate and one-half by the Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives. (R. S. § 821; Apr. 28, 1902, c. 594, § 1, 32 Stat. 124; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 540, § 1, 43 Stat. 1294.)

207. Same; payment.—The said police shall be paid on the order of the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate and the Sergeant at Arms of the House, or of either of them. (R. S. § 1822.)

208. Same; suspension of members.—The captain of the Capitol police may suspend any member of the force, subject to the approval of the two Sergeants at Arms and of the Architect of the Capitol. (R. S. § 1823.)

209. Same; pay of members under suspension.—Whenever a member of the Capitol police or watch force is suspended from duty for cause, said policeman or watchman shall receive no compensation for the time of such suspension if he shall not be reinstated. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 129, § 1, 18 Stat. 345.)

210. Same; uniform, belts and arms.—The Sergeant at Arms of the Senate and the Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives shall select and regulate the pattern for a uniform for the Capitol police and watchmen, and furnish each member of the force with the necessary belts and arms, at a cost not to exceed $20 per man, payable out of the contingent fund of the Senate and House of Representatives upon the certificate of the officers above named. (R. S. § 1824.)

211. Same; uniform; at whose expense.—The members of the Capitol police shall furnish, at their own expense, each his own uniform, which shall be in exact conformity to that required by regulation of the Sergeants at Arms. (R. S. § 1825.)

212. Same; wearing uniform on duty.—The officers, privates, and watchmen of the Capitol police shall, when on duty, wear the regulation uniform. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 830, § 1, 31 Stat. 963.)

213. Same; to police building and grounds.—The Capitol police, under the direction of the Sergeants at Arms of the Senate and of the House of Representatives and of the Architect of the Capitol, shall police the Capitol Building and the Capitol Grounds. (May 28, 1896, c. 252, § 1, 29 Stat. 143.)

214. Same; to protect grounds.—It shall be the duty of the Capitol police to prevent any portion of the Capitol Grounds and terraces from being used as playgrounds or otherwise, so far as may be necessary to protect the public property, turf and grass from destruction or injury. (Apr. 29, 1876, c. 86, 19 Stat. 41.)

215. Same; supervision of Botanical Garden.—The supervision of the Capitol police shall extend over the Botanical Garden. (R. S. § 1826.)

216. Superintendent, etc., of Botanical Garden and greenhouses.—There shall be a superintendent and assistants in the Botanical Garden and greenhouses, who shall be under the direction of the Joint Committee on the Library. (R. S. § 1827.)

217. Purchases for Botanic Garden exceeding $25.—The sum of $25 may be expended at any one time by the Botanic Garden for the purchase of plants, trees, shrubs, and other nursery stock, without reference to section 7 of Title 41. (Mar. 20, 1922, c. 103, 42 Stat. 431; Feb. 20, 1923, c. 98, 42 Stat. 1275; June 7, 1924, c. 303, § 1, 43 Stat. 588; Mar. 4, 1925, c. 549, § 1, 43 Stat. 1297.)

218. Annual statement of public property.—It shall be the duty of the officer or officers having in charge the property of the United States in and about the Capitol and the Botanical Garden, to furnish an annual statement to the Architect of the Capitol by the 1st day of December, setting forth the public property in all the buildings, rooms, and grounds under their charge, purchased during each year, and an account of the disposition of such property during the same period, whether by sale or otherwise. (R. S. § 1832.)

219. Inventory of public property.—The Architect of the Capitol shall make out and keep in proper books, a complete inventory of all public property in and about the Capitol and the Botanical Garden, adding thereto, from time to time, an account of such property as may be procured, subsequently to the taking of the first inventory, as well as an account of the sale of other disposal of such property. And he shall submit an annual report of such inventories and accounts, on the first Monday of December to Congress. (R. S. § 1833.)

220. Application of sections 218 and 219 to Library of Congress.—Sections 218 and 219 of this title shall not apply to the books, pamphlets, papers and documents in the Library of Congress, nor to the supplies of stationery and fuel in the several public buildings and offices therein referred to. (R. S. § 1834.)

221. Extra pay.—No pay or compensation other than is fixed by chapters 1 and 2 of this title shall be allowed to any officer, employee, or laborer embraced within the provisions hereof. (R. S. § 1835.)

Section 251. Supervising Architect; annual estimates.—Annual specific estimates shall be submitted for salaries for all personal services required in the office of the Supervising Architect of the Treasury, and except as appropriations may be made thereunder no such personal services shall be employed in said office at Washington, District of Columbia. (Aug. 23, 1912, c. 350, § 1, 37 Stat. 374.)

252. Same; technical experts.—The employment of an architectural designer, a structural engineering expert, and a heating, lighting, and ventilating engineering expert, is authorized to serve in the Office of the Supervising Architect of the Treasury Department, to assist the Supervising Architect in connection with the designing and standardizing of public buildings authorized to be erected under the control of the Treasury Department and the mechanical equipment thereof, and in connection with architectural and engineering work of said office of unusual magnitude or complication. Such services may be employed without regard to civil-service laws, rules, or regulations, and no person in the employ of the Supervising Architect's Office on March 4, 1913, shall be eligible to such employment. The foregoing authorization for the employment of technical experts to assist the Supervising Architect shall be in addition to and independent of the authorizations and appropriations for personal services for the Office of the Supervising Architect otherwise made. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 147, § 28, 37 Stat. 888.)

253. Detail of members of field force of public-buildings service.—Members of the field force of the public-buildings service, such as supervising superintendents, superintendents, junior superintendents, and inspectors of the several classes, may be detailed to the District of Columbia, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, for temporary duty for periods not exceeding thirty days in any one case, in the Office of the Supervising Architect, but no subsistence or other expenses of like character shall be allowed such employees while on duty in Washington serving under such details. (June 23, 1913, c. 3, § 1, 38 Stat. 17.)

254. Building sites; selection.—In the selection of a site for any public building, reference shall be had to the interest and convenience of the public, as well as to the best interests of the Government; and the Secretary of the Treasury shall have power, and it shall be his duty, to set aside any selection which in his opinion has not been made solely with reference thereto. Before any site shall be finally adopted each and every person appointed as commissioner in selecting such site shall make and file with the Secretary of the Treasury an oath or affirmation that he is not at the time of making the affidavit, and was not at the date of making the selection of such site, directly or indirectly interested in the property selected for the same. A failure on the part of any commissioner to make and file such an affidavit shall render the selection void. (June 23, 1874, c. 476, § 2, 18 Stat. 276.)

255. Title to land to be purchased by United States.—No public money shall be expended upon any site or land purchased by the United States for the purposes of erecting thereon any customhouse, or other public building, of any kind whatever, until the written opinion of the Attorney General shall be had in favor of the validity of the title, nor until the consent of the legislature of the State in which the land or site may be, to such purchase, has been given. The district attorneys of the United States, upon the application of the Attorney General, shall furnish any assistance or information in their power in relation to the titles of the public property lying within their respective districts. And the Secretaries of the departments, upon the application of the Attorney General, shall procure any additional evidence of title which he may deem necessary, and which may not be in the possession of the officers of the Government, and the expense of procuring it shall be paid out of the appropriations made for the contingencies of the departments respectively. (R. S. § 355.)

256. Legal services by district attorneys; abstracts of title.—All legal services connected with the procurement of titles to site for public buildings, other than for life-saving stations and pierhead lights, shall be rendered by United States district attorneys: Provided, That in the procurement of sites for such public buildings, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to require of the grantors in each case to furnish, free of all expenses to the Government, all requisite abstracts, official certifications, and evidences of title that the Attorney General may deem necessary. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 411, § 1, 25 Stat. 941.)

257. Condemnation of sites; jurisdiction.—In every case in which the Secretary of the Treasury or any other officer of the Government has been or shall be, authorized to procure real estate for the erection of a public building or for other public uses he shall be authorized to acquire the same for the United States by condemnation, under judicial process, whenever in his opinion it is necessary or advantageous to the Government to do so. And the United States district courts of the district wherein such real estate is located, shall have jurisdiction of proceedings for such condemnation, and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General of the United States, upon every application of the Secretary of the Treasury, under this section and section 258 of this title, or such other officer, to cause proceedings to be commenced for condemnation, within thirty days from the receipt of the application at the Department of Justice. (Aug. 1, 1888, c. 728, § 1, 25 Stat. 357.)

258. Same; procedure.—The practice, pleadings, forms and modes of proceedings in causes arising under the provisions of section 257 of this title shall conform, as near as may be, to the practice, pleadings, forms and proceedings existing at the time in like causes in the courts of record of the State within which such district court is held, any rule of the court to the contrary notwithstanding. (Aug. 1, 1888, c. 728, § 2, 25 Stat. 357.)

259. Payment for sites; limit of cost.—No money shall be paid nor contracts made for payment for any site for a public building in excess of the amount specifically appropriated therefor. (R. S. § 3734; June 25, 1910, c. 383, § 33, 36 Stat. 699.)

260. Commissions on purchases of sites; payment for sites.—Commissions shall not be paid for disbursements on account of sites for public buildings; and payments for sites for public buildings under the control of the Treasury Department shall be made by the Treasury Department, at Washington, District of Columbia, by drafts or checks payable to the grantors of such sites or their legal representatives. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 411, § 1, 25 Stat. 941.)

261. Contracts authorized within limit of cost fixed, though appropriations are in part only.—In all cases where appropriations are made in part only for carrying into effect the provisions of legislation authorizing the acquisition of land for sites or for the enlargement of sites for public buildings, or for the erection or remodeling, extension, alteration, and repairs of public buildings, the Secretary of the Treasury, unless otherwise specifically directed, may enter into contracts within the full limit of cost fixed by Congress therefor. (May 30, 1908, c. 228, § 34, 35 Stat. 545.)

262. Renting buildings on lands acquired for sites.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized, until their removal becomes necessary, to rent any building or buildings not reserved by the vendors on lands acquired before March 4, 1909, or thereafter for building sites or for the enlargement of building sites, the proceeds to be deposited in the Treasury, and a report thereof to be submitted to Congress at the beginning of each regular session thereof. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 959.)

263. Acts not construed to appropriate money.—No Act passed authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to purchase a site and erect a public building thereon shall be held or construed to appropriate money unless the Act in express language makes such appropriations. (Aug. 7, 1882, c. 433, § 1, 22 Stat. 305.)

264. Restriction on future authorizations for construction of post offices.—No authorization shall be made for the construction of a building to be used exclusively for post-office purposes at any town or city where the postal receipts have not reached the sum of $10,000 annually, nor shall any authorization for the purchase of a site for post-office purposes only be made at any town or city where the postal receipts have not reached the sum of $6,000 annually. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 147, § 5, 37 Stat. 879.)

265. Plans by Treasury Department for buildings under other executive departments or establishments.—The Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, upon the request of the head of any other executive department, or establishment of the Government not under any executive department, cause the plans, drawings, designs, specifications, and estimates to be prepared in the Office of the Supervising Architect, for any building or building for governmental purposes which the head of any other executive department or establishment not under an executive department may be authorized to have constructed: Provided, That the proper appropriations for the support and maintenance of the Office of the Supervising Architect be reimbursed for the cost of such work. (June 25, 1910, c. 383, § 35, 36 Stat. 699.)

266. Plans for public buildings.—The purchase of specially prepared paper for the duplication of plans, and such other incidental expenses and supplies as the Secretary of the Treasury may deem necessary and specially order for the use of the Office of the Supervising Architect, exclusively for the purpose of carrying into effect appropriations for public buildings, shall be paid for from and equitably charged against such appropriations, in accordance with the practice existing on March 3, 1903. (Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1007, § 1, 32 Stat. 1091.)

267. Restrictions on buildings; approval of sketch plans; changes; limit of cost.—No money shall be expended upon any public building until after sketch plans showing the tentative design and arrangement of such building, together with outline description and detailed estimates of the cost thereof shall have been made by the Supervising Architect of the Treasury Department (except when otherwise authorized by law) and said sketch plans and estimates shall have been approved by the Secretary of the Treasury and the head of each executive department who will have officials located in such building; but such approval shall not prevent subsequent changes in the design, arrangement, materials, or methods of construction or cost which may be found necessary or advantageous: Provided, That no such changes shall be made involving an expense in excess of the limit of cost fixed or extended by Congress, and all appropriations made for the construction of such building shall be expended within the limit of cost so fixed or extended. (R. S. § 3734; June 25, 1910, c. 383, § 33, 36 Stat. 699.)

268. Plans not to be approved until selection of site.—No plan shall be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury for any public building authorized by Congress to be erected until after the site therefor shall have been finally selected; and he shall not authorize or approve any plan for any such building which shall involve a greater expenditure in the completion of such building, including heating apparatus, elevators, and approaches thereto, than the amount that shall remain of the sum specified in the law authorizing the erection of such building excluding cost of site. (Mar. 2, 1889, c. 411, § 1, 25 Stat. 941.)

269. Contracts for public buildings or works; stipulation for damages for delay.—In all contracts entered into with the United States for the construction or repair of any public building or public work under the control of the Treasury Department, a stipulation shall be inserted for liquidated damages for delay; and the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and empowered to remit the whole or any part of such damages as in his discretion may be just and equitable; and in all suits commenced on any such contracts or on any bond given in connection therewith it shall not be necessary for the United States, whether plaintiff or defendant, to prove actual or specific damages sustained by the Government by reason of delays, but such stipulation for liquidated damages shall be conclusive and binding upon all parties. (June 6, 1902, c. 1036, § 21, 32 Stat. 326.)

270. Bonds of contractors for public buildings or works; rights of persons furnishing labor and materials.—Any person or persons entering into a formal contract with the United States for the construction of any public building, or the prosecution and completion of any public work, or for repairs upon any public building or public work, shall be required, before commencing such work, to execute the usual penal bond, with good and sufficient sureties, with the additional obligation that such contractor or contractors shall promptly make payments to all persons supplying him or them with labor and materials in the prosecution of the work provided for in such contract; and any person, company, or corporation who has furnished labor or materials used in the construction or repair of any public building or public work, and payment for which has not been made, shall have the right to intervene and be made a party to any action instituted by the United States on the bond of the contractor, and to have their rights and claims adjudicated in such action and judgment rendered thereon, subject, however, to the priority of the claim and judgment of the United States. If the full amount of the liability of the surety on said bond is insufficient to pay the full amount of said claims and demands, then, after paying the full amount due the United States, the remainder shall be distributed pro rata among said interveners. If no suit should be brought by the United States within six months from the completion and final settlement of said contract, then the person or persons supplying the contractor with labor and materials shall, upon application therefor, and furnishing affidavit to the department under the direction of which said work has been prosecuted that labor or materials for the prosecution of such work has been supplied by him or them, and payment for which has not been made, be furnished with a certified copy of said contract and bond, upon which he or they shall have a right of action, and shall be, and are hereby, authorized to bring suit in the name of the United States in the district court of the United States in the district in which said contract was to be performed and executed, irrespective of the amount in controversy in such suit, and not elsewhere, for his or their use and benefit, against said contractor and his sureties, and to prosecute the same to final judgment and execution: Provided, That where suit is instituted by any of such creditors on the bond of the contractor it shall not be commenced until after the complete performance of said contract and final settlement thereof, and shall be commenced within one year after the performance and final settlement of said contract, and not later: And provided further, That where suit is so instituted by a creditor or by creditors, only one action shall be brought, and any creditor may file his claim in such action and be made party thereto within one year from the completion of the work under said contract, and not later. If the recovery on the bond should be inadequate to pay the amounts found due to all of said creditors, judgment shall be given to each creditor pro rata of the amount of the recovery. The surety on said bond may pay into court, for distribution among said claimants and creditors, the full amount of the sureties' liability, to wit, the penalty named in the bond, less any amount which said surety may have had to pay to the United States by reason of the execution of said bond, and upon so doing the surety will be relieved from further liability: Provided further, That in all suits instituted under the provisions of this section such personal notice of the pendency of such suits, informing them of their right to intervene as the court may order, shall be given to all known creditors, and in addition thereto notice of publication in some newspaper of general circulation, published in the State or town where the contract is being performed, for at least three successive weeks, the last publication to be at least three months before the time limited therefor. (Aug. 13, 1894, c. 280, 28 Stat. 278; Feb. 24, 1905, c. 778, 33 Stat. 811; Mar. 3, 1911, c. 231, § 291, 36 Stat. 1167.)

271. Relief of certain contractors and subcontractors for losses due to increased costs.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed, under such regulations as he may prescribe, to receive fully itemized and verified claims and reimburse contractors and their subcontractors, including material men, for the construction, improvement, special repair, equipment, or furnishing of post offices and other buildings or work under the supervision of the Treasury Department (as well as the United States Courthouse in the District of Columbia and the approaches and retaining wall to the Lincoln Memorial in the District of Columbia) whose contracts were awarded or whose bids as thereafter accepted were mailed or delivered to the proper governmental authority prior to the entrance of the United States into the war with Germany, to wit, April 6, 1917, and whose contracts have been or will be completed after said date, for loss due directly to increased costs thereafter arising, due either, first, to increased cost of labor or materials, or, second, to delay on account of the action of the United States Priority Board or other governmental activities, or, third, to commandeering by the United States Government of plants or materials shown to the Secretary of the Treasury to have been sustained by them in the fulfillment of such contracts by reason of war conditions alone: Provided, That any subcontractor may submit his claim through the contractor or to the Secretary of the Treasury. And the Secretary of the Treasury is directed to submit from time to time estimates for appropriations to carry out the provisions of this section: Provided further, That no claims for such reimbursement shall be paid unless filed with the Treasury Department within three months after August 25, 1919: And provided further, That in no case shall the contractor or subcontractor be reimbursed to an extent greater than is sufficient to cover his actual increased cost in fulfilling his contract or subcontract, exclusive of any and all profits to such contractor or subcontractor; nor shall such reimbursement include any advances or payments made by the sureties of such contractor or subcontractor in executing the work, but the surety on any contract coming within the provisions of this section who, as surety, has completed, or may complete, the work of any defaulting contractor on any such contract or who has furnished financial assistance to a failing contractor on any such contract whereby such contractor has been enabled to complete such contract, may file claim, within the period hereinbefore fixed, and be reimbursed in the manner hereinbefore provided for the increased cost due to the causes hereinbefore specified of the labor and material supplied in so completing any such contract, or for the increased cost of the labor and material paid for from funds so furnished by such surety: And provided further, That the Secretary of the Treasury shall report to Congress at the beginning of each session thereof the amount of each expenditure and the facts on which the same is based. (Aug. 25, 1919, c. 52, 41 Stat. 281.)

272. Same; payments.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to make partial payments of any claim payable under section 271 of this title, and to make payment of any and all loss and expense (exclusive of profits) incurred by a contractor or subcontractor in fulfilling his contract or subcontract with the Treasury Department in excess of the amount which such contractor or subcontractor may receive under the terms of his contract or subcontract, if such loss and expense were, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury, due to war conditions. (Mar. 6, 1920, c. 94, § 1, 41 Stat. 507.)

273. Contracts for heating apparatus.—Contracts shall be made by the Secretary of the Treasury for furnishing and putting in heating apparatus for public buildings, upon advertisements in some leading newspaper in the State where each building is situated, containing specifications of the kind of heating apparatus required, and such contracts shall be made with the lowest responsible bidder therefor. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 362, 24 Stat. 512.)

274. Payment for electric wiring.—The Secretary of the Treasury is directed, if in his judgment such work should be performed, to pay for the wiring for electric lighting of all buildings in process of erection or which may be erected under the control of the Treasury Department from the construction funds of such buildings. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 189, § 1, 28 Stat. 914.)

275. Payment for gas and electric fixtures.—Gas and electric-lighting fixtures for the equipment of public buildings and extensions in course of construction under the control of the Treasury Department, except such gas and electric-lighting fixtures as are under contract or may be otherwise provided for by law, shall be paid for from the respective appropriations provided for the construction of such public buildings or extensions. (July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 273.)

276. Payment for engineering and electric-light plants.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized, whenever in his judgment such work should be performed, to pay for the installation of engineering and electric-light plants in all buildings in process of erection, or which may be erected, under the control of the Treasury Department, from the construction funds of such buildings. (June 6, 1900, c. 791, § 1, 31 Stat. 591.)

277. Compensation of employees from appropriations for public buildings.—Not more than $6 per day shall be paid to any person employed outside of the District of Columbia, in any capacity whatever, whose compensation is paid from appropriations for public buildings in course of construction, but the Secretary of the Treasury may, in his discretion, authorize payment in cities of eighty thousand or more inhabitants of a sum not exceeding $8 per day for such purposes. (Aug. 5, 1892, c. 380, § 1, 27 Stat. 351.)

278. Employment of persons for supervision and care of buildings.—Where public buildings shall be completed with the exception of heating apparatus and approaches but one person shall be employed by the Government for the supervision and care of such building. (Mar. 3, 1887, c. 362, 24 Stat. 512.)

279. Appropriations for buildings available for use in temporary rented quarters.—Unless otherwise specifically provided by law, whenever the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to secure temporary quarters for the use of Government officials pending the alteration, improvement, or repairs to, or the remodeling, reconstruction, or enlargement of, any public building belonging to the United States under the control of the Treasury Department, the appropriation for vaults, safes, and locks for public buildings shall be available, if necessary, in connection with such portions of the premises as may be rented for or occupied by such officials in the same manner, for the same purpose, and to the same extent as if the title to such premises were vested in the United States. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1483, § 1, 33 Stat. 1161.)

280. Same; operating supplies, operating force, and repairs.—Unless otherwise specifically provided by law, whenever the Secretary of the Treasury is so authorized to secure temporary quarters for the use of the Government officials pending the alteration, improvement, or repairs to, or the remodeling, reconstruction, or enlargement of any public building under the control of the Treasury Department, including the customhouse at Washington, District of Columbia, but excluding any other public building under the control of the Treasury Department within the District of Columbia, and excluding also marine hospitals and quarantine stations, mints and branch mints, appropriations for operating force and operating supplies for public buildings shall be available, if necessary, in connection with such portions of the premises as may be rented for or occupied by such officials in the same manner, for the same purpose, and to the same extent as if the title to such premises were vested in the United States. (Aug. 24, 1912, c. 355, § 1, 37 Stat. 432; June 23, 1913, c. 3, § 1, 38 Stat. 22.)

281. Same; furniture and repairs.—Unless otherwise specifically provided by law, whenever the Secretary of the Treasury is so authorized to secure temporary quarters for the use of Government officials pending the alteration, improvement, or repairs to, or the remodeling, reconstruction or enlargement of any public building under the control of the Treasury Department, excluding marine hospitals and quarantine stations, mints and branch mints, appropriations for furniture and repairs of furniture, shall be available, if necessary, in connection with such portions of the premises as may be rented for or occupied by such officials in the same manner, for the same purpose, and to the same extent as if the title to such premises were vested in the United States. (June 23, 1913, c. 3, § 1, 38 Stat. 22.)

282. Appropriations for care, maintenance, and repair available for assay offices.—The annual appropriations for the care, maintenance, and repair of Federal buildings and their mechanical and vault and safe equipments, shall be available in the same manner and to the same extent for assay offices assigned quarters in Federal buildings under the authority contained in section 285 of this title, as such appropriations are available for other branches of the Government service quartered in such buildings. (July 1, 1916, c. 209, § 1, 39 Stat. 273.)

283. Furniture for new buildings.—The furniture for all new public buildings shall be procured in accordance with plans and specifications approved by the Supervising Architect of the Treasury. (May 27, 1908, c. 200, § 1, 35 Stat. 327.)

284. Old furniture to be used.—All furniture owned on February 17, 1922, by the United States in other public buildings or in buildings rented by the United States shall be used, so far as practicable, whether it corresponds with the present regulation plan for furniture or not. (Feb. 17, 1922, c. 55, 42 Stat. 387; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1108; Apr. 4, 1924, c. 84, Title I, 43 Stat. 82; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title I, 43 Stat. 781.)

285. Buildings under control of Secretary of Treasury.—All courthouses, customhouses, post offices, appraiser's stores, barge offices, subtreasuries, and other public buildings outside of the District of Columbia and outside of military reservations which have been purchased or erected, or are in course of construction, or which may be erected or purchased out of any appropriation under the control of the Treasury Department, together with the site or sites thereof, are expressly declared to be under the exclusive jurisdiction and control and in the custody of the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall have full power to take possession of and assign and reassign rooms therein to such Federal officials, clerks, and employees as in his judgment and discretion should be furnished with offices or rooms therein. (July 1, 1898, c. 546, § 1, 30 Stat. 614.)

286. Buildings not to be draped in mourning.—No building owned, or used for public purposes, by the Government of the United States, shall be draped in mourning and no part of the public fund shall be used for such purpose. (Mar. 3, 1893, c. 211, § 3, 27 Stat. 715.)

287. Reports of Supervising Architect.—The Supervising Architect of the Treasury shall include in his annual report statements showing, under the following titles, the number of customhouses, courthouses, post offices, and buildings used for two or more of said objects: The actual cost of construction, cost of alterations and repairs, cost of sites, and date of purchase, as to each of said buildings, and the aggregate of such expenditures under each of said titles; also the same information, under their respective titles, as to marine hospitals, quarantine stations, and all other buildings under the control of the Treasury Department. (June 6, 1900, c. 791, § 1, 31 Stat. 592.)

288. Customhouse wharf at Charleston, South Carolina.—The United States customhouse wharf at Charleston, South Carolina, shall be in the custody and under the control of the War Department, and all branches of the public service using said wharf on January 11, 1922, shall be permitted to continue their use of the same. (Jan. 11, 1922, c. 27, 42 Stat. 356.)

Chapter 4.—THE PUBLIC PROPERTY.

Sec.
301. Charge of property transferred to the United States.
302. Renting or selling unproductive lands or property.
303. Leasing unproductive property or property not required for public use.
304. Sale of lands acquired by devise.
305. Power to obtain releases.
306. Release of lands in certain cases.
307. Conveyance of lots in certain reservations.
308. Releasing property from attachment.
309. Payment.
310. Abandoned property.
311. Purchase of material and supplies from Government services.
312. Disposition of typewriters and computing machines transferred to General Supply Committee.
313. Repairs to typewriting machines in District of Columbia.

Section 301. Charge of property transferred to the United States.—The Solicitor of the Treasury shall have charge of all lands and other property which have been or may be assigned, set off, or conveyed to the United States in payment of debts, and of all trusts created for the use of the United States in payment of debts due them; and of the sale and disposal of lands assigned or set off to the United States in payment of debts, or vested in them by mortgage or other security for the payment of debts: Provided, That this section shall not apply to real estate which has been or shall be assigned, set off, or conveyed to the United States, in payment of debts arising under the internal-revenue laws, nor to trusts created for the use of the United States, in payment of such debts due them. (R. S. § 3750.)

302. Renting or selling unproductive lands or property.—The Solicitor of the Treasury is authorized, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, to rent, for a period not exceeding three years, or to sell, at public sale, any unproductive lands, or other property of the United States acquired under judicial process or otherwise in the collection of debts, after advertising the time, place, and conditions of such sale for three months preceding the same in some newspaper published in the vicinity thereof, in such manner and upon such terms as may, in his judgment, be most advantageous to the public interest. (R. S. § 3749.)

303. Leasing unproductive property or property not required for public use.—Authority is given to the Secretary of War, when in his discretion it will be for the public good, to lease, for a period not exceeding five years and revocable at any time, such property of the United States under his control as may be unoccupied and unproductive, or may not for the time be required for public use and for the leasing of which there is no other authority under existing law, and such leases shall be reported annually to Congress: Provided, That nothing in this section contained shall be held to apply to mineral or phosphate lands. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 182, § 1, 20 Stat. 383; July 28, 1892, c. 316, 27 Stat. 321.)

304. Sale of lands acquired by devise.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to sell such lands as have been or may be acquired by the United States by devise, upon such terms and after such public notice by advertisement as he may deem best for the public interest. (Mar. 3, 1903, c. 1007, § 1, 32 Stat. 1112.)

305. Power to obtain releases.—Whenever any lands have been or shall be conveyed to individuals or officers, for the use or benefit of the United States, the President is authorized to obtain from such person a release of his interest to the United States. (R. S. § 3752.)

306. Release of lands in certain cases.—In cases where real estate has become the property of the United States, by conveyance, extent, or otherwise, in payment of a debt, and such debt is afterward fully paid in money, and the same has been received by the United States, the Solicitor of the Treasury may release by deed or otherwise convey the same real estate to the debtor from whom it was taken, if he is living, or, if such debtor is dead, to his heirs or devisees, or such person as they may appoint: Provided, That this section shall not apply to real estate so acquired by the United States in payment of any debt arising under the internal-revenue laws. (R. S. § 3751.)

307. Conveyance of lots in certain reservations.—Upon payment of the purchase money, and upon compliance with the conditions of improvement by the purchaser or purchasers of lots sold under section 2 of the Act of May 7, 1822, chapter 96, or his or their heirs or assigns, the Secretary of the Interior shall execute, under his hand and official seal, a deed or deeds in fee to such purchaser, or purchasers, his or their heirs or assigns, when it shall appear to him that the persons applying for such deeds are duly entitled to have the same, which deed or deeds shall be recorded among the land records of the District of Columbia within the time prescribed for the recording of conveyances of real estate: Provided, That this shall not be so construed as to create or revive any right lost by lapse of time. (May 7, 1822, c. 96, § 3, 3 Stat. 691; July 1, 1879, c. 62, 21 Stat. 47.)

308. Releasing property from attachment.—Whenever any property owned or held by the United States, or in which the United States have or claim an interest, shall, in any judicial proceeding under the laws of any State, District, or Territory, be seized, arrested, attached, or held for the security or satisfaction of any claim made against such property, the Secretary of the Treasury, in his discretion, may direct the Solicitor of the Treasury to cause a stipulation to be entered into by the proper district attorney for the discharge of such property from such seizure, arrest, attachment, or proceeding, to the effect that upon such discharge, the person asserting the claim against such property shall become entitled to all the benefits of this and the following section. Nothing herein contained shall, however, be considered as recognizing or conceding any right to enforce by seizure, arrest, attachment, or any judicial process, any claim against any property of the United States, or against any property held, owned, or employed by the United States, or by any department thereof, for any public use, or as waiving any objection to any proceeding instituted to enforce any such claim. (R. S. § 3753.)

309. Payment.—In all cases where a stipulation is entered into under the preceding section, and, in consequence thereof, the property is discharged, and final judgment is afterward given in the court of last resort to which the Secretary of the Treasury may deem proper to cause such proceedings to be carried, affirming the claim for the security or satisfaction of which such proceedings have been instituted, and the right of the person asserting the same to enforce it against such property by means of such proceedings, notwithstanding the claims of the United States thereto, such final judgment shall be deemed, to all intents and purposes, a full and final determination of the rights of such person, and shall entitle such person, as against the United States, to such rights as he would have had in case possession of such property had not been changed. Whenever such claim is for the payment of money, and the same is by such judgment found to be due, the presentation of a duly authenticated copy of the record of such judgment and proceedings shall be sufficient evidence to the proper accounting officers for the allowance thereof; and the same shall thereupon be allowed and paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated. The amount so to be allowed and paid shall not, however, exceed the value of the interest of the United States in the property in question. (R. S. § 3754.)

310. Abandoned property.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to make such contracts and provisions as he may deem for the interest of the Government, for the preservation, sale, or collection of any property, or the proceeds thereof, which may have been wrecked, abandoned, or become derelict, being within the jurisdiction of the United States, and which ought to come to the United States, and in such contracts to allow such compensation to any person giving information thereof, or who shall actually preserve, collect, surrender, or pay over the same, as the Secretary of the Treasury may deem just and reasonable. No costs or claim shall, however, become chargeable to the United States in so obtaining, preserving, collecting, receiving, or making available property, debts, dues, or interests, which shall not be paid from such moneys as shall be realized and received from the property so collected, under each specific agreement. (R. S. § 3755.)

311. Purchase of material and supplies from Government services.—The heads of the several executive departments and other responsible officials, in expending appropriations contained in any Act, so far as possible shall purchase material, supplies, and equipment, when needed and funds are available, from other services of the Government possessing material, supplies, and equipment no longer required because of the cessation of war activities. It shall be the duty of the heads of the several executive departments and other officials, before purchasing any of the articles described herein, to ascertain from the other services of the Government whether they have articles of the character described that are serviceable. Articles purchased by one service from another, if the same have not been used, shall be paid for at a reasonable price not to exceed actual cost, and if the same have been used, at a reasonable price based upon length of usage. The various services of the Government are authorized to sell such articles under the conditions specified, and the proceeds of such sales shall be covered into the Treasury as a miscellaneous receipt:

Provided, That this section shall not be construed to amend, alter, or repeal the Executive order of December 3, 1918, concerning the transfer of office material, supplies, and equipment in the District of Columbia falling into disuse because of the cessation of war activities. (July 11, 1919, c. 6, § 5, 41 Stat. 67.)

312. Disposition of typewriters and computing machines transferred to General Supply Committee.—Typewriters and computing machines transferred to the General Supply Committee as surplus, where such machines have become unfit for further use, may, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, be issued to other Government departments and establishments at exchange prices quoted in the current general schedule of supplies or sold commercially. (Feb. 17, 1922, c. 55, 42 Stat. 369; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1090; Apr. 4, 1924, c. 84, Title I, 43 Stat. 67; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title I, 43 Stat. 766.)

313. Repairs to typewriting machines in District of Columbia.—Repairs to typewriting machines (except bookkeeping and billing machines) in the Government service in the District of Columbia may be made at cost by the General Supply Committee, payment therefor to be effected by transfer and counter warrant, charging the proper appropriation and crediting the appropriation "General Supply Committee, transfer of office material, supplies, and equipment." (Feb. 17, 1922, c. 55, 42 Stat. 369; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1090; Apr. 4, 1924, c. 84, Title I, 43 Stat. 67; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title I, 43 Stat. 766.)

Chapter 5.—HOURS OF LABOR ON PUBLIC WORKS.

Sec.

321. Eight-hour day on public works; river and harbor dredging; longer hours unlawful.
322. Violation of act punishable.
323. Existing contracts not affected.
324. Public contracts to provide for eight-hour day; stipulation for penalty; inspectors to report violations; deduction of penalty; appeals; right of action in Court of Claims.
325. Same; contracts excepted; work included; waiver in time of war; when penalty not to be imposed; eight-hour law not affected.
326. Suspension of eight-hour law in case of emergency; overtime pay.

Section 321. Eight-hour day on public works; river and harbor dredging; longer hours unlawful.—The service and employment of all laborers and mechanics who are or may be employed by the Government of the United States or the District of Columbia, or by any contractor or subcontractor, upon a public work of the United States or of the District of Columbia, and of all persons who are or may be, employed by the Government of the United States or the District of Columbia, or any contractor or subcontractor, to perform services similar to those of laborers and mechanics in connection with dredging or rock excavation in any river or harbor of the United States or of the District of Columbia, is limited and restricted to eight hours in any one calendar day; and it shall be unlawful for any officer of the United States Government or of the District of Columbia, or any such contractor or subcontractor whose duty it shall be to employ, direct, or control the services of such laborers or mechanics or of such persons employed to perform services similar to those of laborers and mechanics in connection with dredging or rock excavation in any river or harbor of the United States or of the District of Columbia, to require or permit any such laborer or mechanic or any such person employed to perform services similar to those of laborers and mechanics in connection with dredging or rock excavation in any river or harbor of the United States or of the District of Columbia, to work more than eight hours in any calendar day, except in case of extraordinary emergency: Provided, That nothing in this section and section 322 of this title, shall apply or be construed to apply to persons employed in connection with dredging or rock excavation in any river or harbor of the United States or of the District of Columbia while not directly operating dredging or rock excavating machinery or tools, nor to persons engaged in construction or repair of levees or revetments necessary for protection against floods or overflows on the navigable rivers of the United States. (Aug. 1, 1892, c. 352, § 1, 27 Stat. 340; Mar. 3, 1913, c. 106, 37 Stat. 726.)

322. Violation of act punishable.—Any officer or agent of the Government of the United States or of the District of Columbia, or any contractor or subcontractor whose duty it shall be to employ, direct, or control any laborer or mechanic employed upon a public work of the United States or of the District of Columbia, or any person employed to perform services similar to those of laborers and mechanics in connection with dredging or rock excavation in any river or harbor of the United States or of the District of Columbia, who shall intentionally violate any provision of section 321 of this title, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and for each and every such offense shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine not to exceed $1,000, or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court having jurisdiction thereof. (Aug. 1, 1892, c. 352, § 2, 27 Stat. 340; Mar. 3, 1913, c. 106, 37 Stat. 726.)

323. Existing contracts not affected.—The provisions of sections 321 and 322 of this title shall not be so construed as to in any manner apply to or affect contractors or subcontractors, or to limit the hours of daily service of laborers or mechanics engaged upon a public work of the United States or of the District of Columbia, or persons employed to perform services similar to those of laborers and mechanics in connection with dredging or rock excavation in any river or harbor of the United States or of the District of Columbia, for which contracts were entered into prior to August 1, 1892, or under the provisions of appropriation Acts approved prior to that date. (Aug. 1, 1892, c. 352, § 3, 27 Stat. 340; Mar. 3, 1913, c. 106, 37 Stat. 727.)

324. Public contracts to provide for eight-hour day; stipulation for penalty; inspectors to report violations; deduction of penalty; appeals; right of action in Court of Claims.—Every contract made to which the United States, any Territory, or the District of Columbia is a party, and every such contract made for or on behalf of the United States, or any Territory, or said District, which may require or involve the employment of laborers or mechanics shall contain a provision that no laborer or mechanic doing any part of the work contemplated by the contract, in the employ of the contractor or any subcontractor contracting for any part of said work contemplated, shall be required or permitted to work more than eight hours in any one calendar day upon such work; and every such contract shall stipulate a penalty for each violation of such provision in such contract of $5 for each laborer or mechanic for every calendar day in which he shall be required or permitted to labor more than eight hours upon said work; and any officer or person designated as inspector of the work to be performed under any such contract, or to aid in enforcing the fulfillment thereof, shall, upon observation or investigation, forthwith report to the proper officer of the United States, or of any Territory, or of the District of Columbia, all violations of the provisions of this section directed to be made in every such contract, together with the name of each laborer or mechanic who has been required or permitted to labor in violation of such stipulation and the day of such violation, and the amount of the penalties imposed according to the stipulation in any such contract shall be directed to be withheld for the use and benefit of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Territory contracting by the officer or person whose duty it shall be to approve the payment of the moneys due under such contract, whether the violation of the provisions of such contract is by the contractor or any subcontractor. Any contractor or subcontractor aggrieved by the withholding of any penalty as hereinbefore provided shall have the right within six months thereafter to appeal to the head of the department making the contract on behalf of the United States or the Territory, and in the case of a contract made by the District of Columbia to the commissioners thereof, who shall have power to review the action imposing the penalty, and in all such appeals from such final order whereby a contractor or subcontractor may be aggrieved by the imposition of the penalty hereinbefore provided such contractor or subcontractor may within six months after decision by such head of a department or the Commissioners of the District of Columbia file a claim in the Court of Claims, which shall have jurisdiction to hear and decide the matter in like manner as in other cases before said court. (June 19, 1912, c. 174, § 1, 37 Stat. 137.)

325. Same; contracts excepted; work included; waiver in time of war; when penalty not to be imposed; eight-hour law not affected.—Nothing in section 324 of this title shall apply to contracts for transportation by land or water, or for the transmission of intelligence, or for the purchase of supplies by the Government, whether manufactured to conform to particular specifications or not, or for such materials or articles as may usually be bought in open market, except armor and armor plate, whether made to conform to particular specifications or not, or to the construction or repair of levees or revetments necessary for protection against floods or overflows on the navigable waters of the United States: Provided, That all classes of work which have been, or may be performed by the Government shall, when done by contract, by individuals, firms, or corporations for or on behalf of the United States or any of the Territories or the District of Columbia, be performed in accordance with the terms and provisions of section 324. No penalties shall be imposed for any violation of such provision in such contract due to any extraordinary events or conditions of manufacture, or to any emergency caused by fire, famine, or flood, by danger to life or to property, or by other extraordinary event or condition on account of which the President shall subsequently declare the violation to have been excusable. Nothing in this section or section 324 shall be construed to repeal or modify sections 321 to 323 of this title, or apply to contracts entered into under the provisions of appropriation Acts approved prior to June 19, 1912. (June 19, 1912, c. 174, § 2, 37 Stat. 138.)

326. Suspension of eight-hour law in case of emergency; overtime pay.—In case of national emergency the President is authorized to suspend provisions of law prohibiting more than eight hours labor in any one day of persons engaged upon work covered by contracts with the United States: Provided, That the wages of persons employed upon such contracts shall be computed on a basic day rate of eight hours work, with overtime rates to be paid for at not less than time and one-half for all hours work in excess of eight hours. (Mar. 4, 1917, c. 180, 39 Stat. 1192.)

19. Instructions.
20. Deposit of contracts.
21. Same; rules and regulations.
22. Interest of Member of Congress.
23. Orders or contracts for material placed with Government-owned establishments deemed obligations.
24. Contracts for transportation of moneys, bullion, coin, and securities.
25. Contracts for bunting.
26. Exchange of typewriters and adding machines in part payment for new machines.
27. Disposition of typewriting machines.

Section 1. Returns office; establishment.—The Secretary of the Interior shall from time to time provide a proper apartment, to be called the returns office, in which he shall cause to be filed the returns of contracts made by the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, and the Secretary of the Interior, and shall appoint a clerk to attend to the same. (R. S. § 512.)

2. Same; clerk to file returns.—The clerk of the returns office shall file all returns made to the office, so that the same may be of easy access, keeping all returns made by the same officer in the same place, and numbering them in the order in which they are made. (R. S. § 513.)

3. Same; indexes.—The clerk of the returns office shall provide and keep an index book, with the names of the contracting parties, and the number of each contract opposite to the names; and shall submit the index book and returns to any person desiring to inspect it. (R. S. § 514.)

4. Same; copies of returns.—The clerk of the returns office shall furnish copies of such returns to any person paying therefor at the rate of 5 cents for every one hundred words, to which copies certificates shall be appended in every case by the clerk making the same, attesting their correctness, and that each copy so certified is a full and complete copy of the return. (R. S. § 515.)

5. Advertisements for proposals for purchases and contracts for supplies or services for departments of Government.—Except as otherwise provided by law all purchases and contracts for supplies or services in any of the departments of the Government and purchases of Indian supplies, except for personal services, shall be made by advertising a sufficient time previously for proposals respecting the same, when the public exigencies do not require the immediate delivery of the articles, or performance of the service. When immediate delivery or performance is required by the public exigency, the articles or service required may be procured by open purchase or contract, at the places and in the manner in which such articles are usually bought and sold, or such services engaged, between individuals. (R. S. § 3709; June 25, 1910, c. 431, § 23, 36 Stat. 861.)

6. Same; exceptions to section 5.—Section 5 of this title shall not be construed to apply to any purchase or service for the Department of Agriculture, the Indian field service, or the United States Veterans' Bureau when the aggregate amount involved does not exceed the sum of $50. Nor shall such section be construed to apply to any purchase or service for the Department of Commerce, the Department of Labor, the Department of Justice, the Civil Service Commission, or the District of Columbia when the aggregate amount involved does not exceed the sum of $25. Nor shall so much of said section as requires advertisement before purchase apply to the purchase of medicines and medical supplies for the Medical Department of the Army. (Feb. 27, 1893, c. 168, 27 Stat. 485; Mar. 1, 1899, c. 325, 30 Stat. 957; Mar. 2, 1911, c. 192, 36 Stat. 975; May 8, 1916, c. 125, § 1, 39 Stat. 126; Mar. 1, 1919, c. 86, § 1, 40 Stat. 1262, 1264; May 29, 1920, c. 214, § 1, 41 Stat. 677; June 12, 1922, c. 218, 42 Stat. 638; Feb. 13, 1923, c. 72, 42 Stat. 1244.)

7. (1) Miscellaneous supplies for executive departments and other Government establishments in Washington; advertisements and contracts for.—Except as otherwise provided by law all supplies of fuel, ice, stationery, and other miscellaneous supplies for the executive departments and other Government establishments in Washington, when the public exigencies do not require the immediate delivery of the article, shall be advertised and contracted for by the Secretary of the Treasury, upon such days as he may designate.

(2) Same; General Supply Committee; composition of; annual schedule of required miscellaneous supplies; examination and tests.—There shall be a General Supply Committee composed of officers, one from each of the executive departments, designated by the head thereof, except that no disbursing officer shall be a member of such committee, the duties of which committee shall be to make, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, an annual schedule of required miscellaneous supplies, to standardize such supplies, eliminating all unnecessary grades and varieties, and to aid said Secretary in soliciting bids based upon formulas and specifications drawn up by such experts in the service of the Government as the committee may see fit to call upon, who shall render whatever assistance they may require. The committee shall aid said Secretary in securing the proper fulfillment of the contracts for such supplies, for which purpose the said Secretary shall prescribe, and all departments comply with, rules providing for such examination and tests of the articles received as may be necessary for such purpose; in making additions to the said schedule; in opening and considering the bids, and shall perform such other similar duties as he may assign to them: Provided, That the articles intended to be purchased in this manner are those in common use by or suitable to the ordinary needs of two or more such departments or establishments; but the said Secretary shall have discretion to amend the annual common supply schedule from time to time as to any articles that, in his judgment, can as well be thus purchased.

(3) Same; bond of contractor.—In all cases only one bond for the proper performance of each contract shall be required, notwithstanding that supplies for more than one department or Government establishment are included in such contract.

(4) Same; purchase or drawing of supplies.—Every purchase or drawing of such supplies from the contractor shall be immediately reported to said committee. No department or establishment shall purchase or draw supplies from the common schedule through more than one office or bureau, except in case of detached bureaus or offices having field or outlying service, which may purchase directly from the contractor with the permission of the head of their department: Provided, That telephone service, electric light, and power service purchased or contracted for from companies or individuals shall be so obtained by him. (June 17, 1910, c. 297, § 4, 36 Stat. 531.)

8. Opening bids.—Whenever proposals for supplies have been solicited, the parties responding to such solicitation shall be duly notified of the time and place of opening the bids, and be permitted to be present either in person or by attorney, and a record of each bid shall then and there be made. (R. S. § 3710.)

9. Separate proposals for works or material or labor.—Whenever the Secretary of War invites proposals for any works, or for any material or labor for any works, there shall be separate proposals and separate contracts for each work, and also for each class of material or labor for each work. (R. S. § 3717.)

10. Contracts for material for public improvements.—In all contracts for material for any public improvement, the Secretary of War shall give preference to American material; and all labor thereon shall be performed within the jurisdiction of the United States. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 133, § 2, 18 Stat. 455.)

11. No contracts or purchases unless authorized or under adequate appropriation.—No contract or purchase on behalf of the United States shall be made, unless the same is authorized by law or is under an appropriation adequate to its fulfillment, except in the War and Navy Departments, for clothing, subsistence, forage, fuel, quarters, transportation, or medical and hospital supplies, which, however, shall not exceed the necessities of the current year. (R. S. § 3732; June 12, 1906, c. 3078, 34 Stat. 255.)

12. No contract to exceed appropriation.—No contract shall be entered into for the erection, repair, or furnishing of any public building, or for any public improvement which shall bind the Government to pay a larger sum of money than the amount in the Treasury appropriated for the specific purpose. (R. S. § 3733.)

13. Contracts limited to one year.—It shall not be lawful for any of the executive departments to make contracts for stationery or other supplies for a longer term than one year from the time the contract is made. (R. S. § 3735.)

14. Restriction on purchases of land.—No land shall be purchased on account of the United States, except under a law authorizing such purchase. (R. S. § 3736.)

15. No transfer of contract.—No contract or order, or any interest therein, shall be transferred by the party to whom such contract or order is given to any other party, and any such transfer shall cause the annulment of the contract or order transferred, so far as the United States are concerned. All rights of action, however, for any breach of such contract by the contracting parties, are reserved to the United States. (R. S. § 3737.)

16. Contracts to be in writing.—Except as otherwise provided by law, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of War, of the Secretary of the Navy, and of the Secretary of the Interior, to cause and require every contract made by them severally on behalf of the Government, or by their officers under them appointed to make such contracts, to be reduced to writing, and signed by the contracting parties with their names at the end thereof; a copy of which shall be filed by the officer making and signing the contract in the returns office of the Department of the Interior, as soon after the contract is made as possible, and within thirty days, together with all bids, offers, and proposals to him made by persons to obtain the same, and with a copy of any advertisement he may have published inviting bids, offers, or proposals for the same. All the copies and papers in relation to each contract shall be attached together by a ribbon and seal, and marked by numbers in regular order, according to the number of papers composing the whole return: Provided, That the Secretary of War or the Secretary of the Navy may extend the time for filing such contracts in the returns office of the Department of the Interior to ninety days whenever in their opinion it would be to the interest of the United States to follow such a course. (R. S. § 3744; June 15, 1917, c. 29, § 1, 40 Stat. 198.)

17. Oath to contract.—It shall be the further duty of the officer, before making his return, according to section 16 of this title, to affix to the same his affidavit in the following form, sworn to before some magistrate having authority to administer oaths: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that the copy of contract hereto annexed is an exact copy of a contract made by me personally with ———; that I made the same fairly without any benefit or advantage to myself, or allowing any such benefit or advantage corruptly to the said ———, or any other person; and that the papers accompanying include all those relating to the said contract, as required by the statute in such case made and provided." (R. S. § 3745.)

18. Omitting returns.—Every officer who makes any contract, and fails or neglects to make return of the same, according to the provisions of sections 16 and 17 of this title, unless from unavoidable accident or causes not within his control, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500, and imprisoned not more than six months. (R. S. § 3746.)

19. Instructions.—It shall be the duty of the Secretary of War, of the Secretary of the Navy, and of the Secretary of the Interior to furnish every officer appointed by them with authority to make contracts on behalf of the Government with a printed letter of instructions, setting forth the duties of such officer, under sections 17 and 18 of this title, and also to furnish therewith forms, printed in blank, of contracts to be made, and the affidavit of returns required to be affixed thereto, so that all the instruments may be as nearly uniform as possible. (R. S. § 3747.)

20. Deposit of contracts.—All contracts to be made, by virtue of any law, and requiring the advance of money, or in any manner connected with the settlement of public accounts, shall be deposited promptly in the General Accounting Office: Provided, That this section shall not apply to the existing laws in regard to the contingent funds of Congress. (R. S. § 3743; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 249; July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 18, 28 Stat. 210; June 10, 1921, c. 18, §§ 304, 310, 42 Stat. 24, 25.)

21. Same; rules and regulations.—The heads of the several executive departments and the proper officers of other Government establishments, not within the jurisdiction of any executive department, shall make appropriate rules and regulations to secure a proper administrative examination of all accounts sent to them as required by section 78 of Title 31, before their transmission to the General Accounting Office, and for the execution of the requirements of section 20 of this title, in so far as the same relate to the several departments or establishments. (July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 22, 28 Stat. 210.)

22. Interest of Member of Congress.—In every contract or agreement to be made or entered into, or accepted by or on behalf of the United States, there shall be inserted an express condition that no Member of or Delegate to Congress shall be admitted to any share or part of such contract or agreement, or to any benefit to arise thereupon. (R. S. § 3741; Feb. 27, 1877, c. 69, § 1, 19 Stat. 249.)

23. Orders or contracts for material placed with Government-owned establishments deemed obligations.—All orders or contracts for the manufacture of material pertaining to appropriate projects placed before June 5, 1920, or thereafter or hereafter with Government-owned establishments shall be considered as obligations in the same manner as provided for similar orders placed with commercial manufacturers, and the appropriations shall remain available for the payment of the obligations so created as in the case of contracts or orders with commercial manufacturers. (June 5, 1920, c. 240, 41 Stat. 975.)

24. Contracts for transportation of moneys, bullion, coin, and securities.—Whenever it is practicable contracts for the transportation of moneys, bullion, coin, notes, bonds, and other securities of the United States, and paper shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder therefor, after notice to all parties having means of transportation. (July 7, 1884, c. 332, § 1, 23 Stat. 204.)

25. Contracts for bunting.—The Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, and the Secretary of the Treasury may enter into contract, in open market, for bunting of American manufacture, as their respective services require, for a period not exceeding one year, and at a price not exceeding that at which an article of equal quality can be imported. (R. S. § 3729.)

26. Exchange of typewriters and adding machines in part payment for new machines.—The executive departments and other Government establishments and all branches of the public service may exchange typewriters, adding machines, and other similar labor-saving devices in part payment for new machines used for the same purpose as those proposed to be exchanged. There shall be submitted to Congress, on the first day of the session following the close of each fiscal year, a report showing, as to each exchange hereunder, the make of the article, the period of its use, the allowance therefor, and the article, make thereof, and price, including exchange value paid or to be paid for each article procured through such exchange. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 147, § 5, 38 Stat. 1161.)

27. Disposition of typewriting machines.—No department or other Government establishment shall dispose of any typewriting machines by sale, exchange, or as part payment for another typewriter, that has been used less than three years. (June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 7, 41 Stat. 947.)

Section 1. Public Health Service; laws and regulations applicable to.—The Public Health and Marine Hospital Service shall be known and designated as the Public Health Service; and all laws appertaining to said Public Health and Marine Hospital Service shall apply to the Public Health Service, and all regulations in force, made in accordance with law for said Public Health and Marine Hospital Service shall apply to and be in force as regulations of and for the Public Health Service until changed or rescinded. (July 1, 1902, c. 1370, § 1, 32 Stat. 712; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 1, 37 Stat. 309.)

2. Jurisdiction of Treasury Department over service.—The Public Health Service shall be under the jurisdiction of the Treasury Department until otherwise specifically provided by law. (Feb. 3, 1905, c. 297, § 1, 33 Stat. 650; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 1, 37 Stat. 309.)

3. Rules and regulations for service by President.—The President shall from time to time prescribe rules for the conduct of the Public Health Service. He shall also prescribe regulations respecting its internal administration and discipline, and the uniforms of its officers and employees. (July 1, 1902, c. 1370, § 9, 32 Stat. 714; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 1, 37 Stat. 309.)

4. Report of Surgeon General.—It shall be the duty of the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service to transmit annually to the Secretary of the Treasury, for transmission by said Secretary to Congress, a full and complete report of the transactions of said service, including a detailed statement of receipts and disbursements. (R. S. § 4802; July 1, 1902, c. 1370, § 9, 32 Stat. 714.)

5. Appointment to higher grade of officers of Public Health Service detailed with Isthmian Canal Commission.—The President is authorized, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint such officers of the Public Health Service as were detailed for duty with the Isthmian Canal Commission on the Isthmus of Panama for more than three years to the grade next above that at present held by such officers. (Mar. 4, 1915, c. 167, § 4, 38 Stat. 1191.)

6. Duties, funds, and property of Public Health Service; care of sick and disabled seamen.—The care of sick and disabled seamen and all other duties formerly required by law to be performed by the Marine Hospital Service shall be performed by the Public Health Service, and all funds, properties, and rights pertaining to said Marine Hospital Service shall be available for use for like purposes and in like manner by the Public Health Service. (July 1, 1902, c. 1370, § 1, 32 Stat. 712; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 1, 37 Stat. 309.)

7. Investigations by service, and publications relating thereto.—The Public Health Service may study and investigate the diseases of man and conditions influencing the propagation and spread thereof, including sanitation and sewage and the pollution either directly or indirectly of the navigable streams and lakes of the United States, and it may from time to time issue information in the form of publications for the use of the public. (July 1, 1902, c. 1370, § 1, 32 Stat. 712; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 1, 37 Stat. 309.)

8. Use of service in time of war.—The President is authorized, in his discretion, to utilize the Public Health Service in times of threatened or actual war to such extent and in such manner as shall in his judgment promote the public interest without, however, in any wise impairing the efficiency of the service for the purposes for which the same was created and is maintained. (July 1, 1902, c. 1370, § 4, 32 Stat. 713; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 1, 37 Stat. 309.)

9. Suppression of Spanish influenza and other communicable diseases.—The Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, and the Secretary of the Treasury are authorized and directed, respectively, to utilize jointly the personnel and facilities of the Medical Department of the Army, the Medical Department of the Navy, and the Public Health Service, so far as possible, in aiding to combat and suppress Spanish influenza and other communicable diseases. (Oct. 1, 1918, c. 179, § 2, 40 Stat. 1008.)

10. Surgeon General; appointment.—The Surgeon General of the Public Health Service shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. (Mar. 3, 1875, c. 130, § 1, 18 Stat. 377; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 1, 37 Stat. 309.)

11. Same; supervisory powers.—The Surgeon General of the Public Health Service shall, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, supervise all matters connected with the Public Health Service. (R. S. § 4802; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 1, 37 Stat. 309.)

12. Medical officers; appointment after examination.—Medical officers of the Public Health Service of the United States shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate; and no person shall be so appointed until after passing a satisfactory examination in the several branches of medicine, surgery, and hygiene before a board of medical officers of the said service. Said examination shall be conducted according to rules prepared by the Surgeon General, and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury and the President. (Jan. 4, 1889, c. 19, § 1, 25 Stat. 639.)

13. Original appointments as assistant surgeon; promotion.—Original appointments in the service shall only be made to the rank of assistant surgeon; and no officer shall be promoted to the rank of passed assistant surgeon until after four years' service and a second examination as aforesaid; and no passed assistant surgeon shall be promoted to be surgeon until after due examination. (Jan. 4, 1889, c. 19, § 2, 25 Stat. 639.)

14. Help provided by Congress.—There may be employed in the Public Health Service such help as may be provided for from time to time by Congress. (Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 2, 37 Stat. 309.)

15. Details; duty in bureau.—The Surgeon General is authorized to cause the detail of two surgeons, two passed assistant surgeons, and one medical officer and one hospital steward for duty in the bureau, who shall each receive the pay and allowances of their respective grades in the general service. (Mar. 3, 1891, c. 541, 26 Stat. 923; July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 1, 28 Stat. 179.)

16. Same; for work with Bureau of Mines.—The Secretary of the Treasury may detail medical officers of the Public Health Service for cooperative health, safety, or sanitation work with the Bureau of Mines, and the compensation and expenses of the officers so detailed may be paid from applicable appropriations made for the Bureau of Mines. (June 12, 1917, c. 27, § 1, 40 Stat. 146; May 24, 1922, c. 199, 42 Stat. 588; Jan. 24, 1923, c. 42, 42 Stat. 1210; June 5, 1924, c. 264, 43 Stat. 422; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1175.)

17. Same; to Department of Agriculture.—The Secretary of of the Treasury may detail medical officers of the Public Health Service to the Department of Agriculture for cooperative assistance in the administration of sections 1 to 14, inclusive, of Title 21, FOOD AND DRUGS, and the compensation and expenses of the officers so detailed may be paid from applicable appropriations made for enforcement of said sections. (Oct. 1, 1918, c. 178, 40 Stat. 992.)

18. Reserve of Public Health Service.—For the purpose of securing a reserve for duty in the Public Health Service in time of national emergency there shall be organized, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, under such rules and regulations as the President shall prescribe, a reserve of the Public Health Service. The President alone shall be authorized to appoint and commission as officers in the said reserve such citizens as, upon examination prescribed by the President, shall be found physically, mentally, and morally qualified to hold such commissions, and said commissions shall be in force for a period of five years, unless sooner terminated in the discretion of the President, but commission in said reserve shall not exempt the holder from military or naval service: Provided, That the officers commissioned under this section, none of whom shall have rank above that of Assistant Surgeon General, shall be distributed in the several grades in the same proportion as obtained on October 27, 1918 among the commissioned medical officers of the United States Public Health Service and shall at all times be subject to call to active duty by the Surgeon General and when on such active duty shall receive the same pay and allowances, as are provided by law and regulation for the commissioned medical officers in the said regular commissioned medical corps. (Oct. 27, 1918, c. 196, 40 Stat. 1017.)

19. Leave of absence to medical officers.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized, in his discretion, to grant to the medical officers of the Public Health Service commissioned by the President, without deduction of pay, leaves of absence for the same periods of time and in the same manner as is authorized to be granted to officers of the Army by the Secretary of War. (Feb. 19, 1897, c. 265, § 1, 29 Stat. 554.)

20. Pensions to officers detailed for service with Coast Guard, Army, or Navy.—When officers of the United States Public Health Service are serving on Coast Guard vessels in time of war, or are detailed in time of war for duty with the Army or Navy in accordance with law, they shall be entitled to pensions for themselves and widows and children, if any, as on July 9, 1917 were provided for officers of corresponding grade and length of service of the Coast Guard, Army or Navy, as the case may be, and shall be subject to the laws prescribed for the government of the service to which they are respectively detailed. (July 9, 1917, c. 37, 40 Stat. 242.)

21. Hygienic Laboratory; advisory board.—There shall be an advisory board for the Hygienic Laboratory for consultation with the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service relative to the investigations to be inaugurated, and the methods of conducting the same, in said laboratory. Said board shall consist of three competent experts, to be detailed from the Army, the Navy, and the Bureau of Animal Industry by the Surgeon General of the Army, the Surgeon General of the Navy, and the Secretary of Agriculture, respectively, which experts, with the director of the said laboratory, shall be ex officio members of the board, and serve without additional compensation. Five other members of said board shall be appointed by the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall be skilled in laboratory work in its relation to the public health, and not in the regular employment of the Government. The said five members shall each receive compensation of $10 per diem while serving in conference, as aforesaid, together with allowance for actual and necessary traveling expenses and hotel expenses while in conference. Said conference is not to exceed ten days in any one fiscal year. The term of service of the five members of said board, not in the regular employment of the Government, first appointed shall be so arranged that one of said members shall retire each year, the subsequent appointments to be for a period of five years. Appointments to fill vacancies occurring in a manner other than as above provided shall be made for the unexpired term of the member whose place has become vacant. (July 1, 1902, c. 1370, § 5, 32 Stat. 713.)

22. Same; chiefs of divisions; director of laboratory.—There shall be appointed by the Surgeon General, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, whenever, in the opinion of the Surgeon General, commissioned medical officers of the Public Health Service are not available for this duty by detail, competent persons to take charge of the divisions, respectively, of chemistry, zoology, and pharmacology of the Hygienic Laboratory, who shall each receive such pay as shall be fixed by the Surgeon General, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. The director of the said laboratory shall be an officer detailed from the corps of commissioned medical officers of the Public Health Service. All commissioned officers of the Public Health Service not below the grade of passed assistant surgeon shall be eligible to assignment to duty in charge of the said divisions of the Hygienic Laboratory, and while serving in such capacity shall be entitled to the pay and emoluments of their rank. (July 1, 1902, c. 1370, § 6, 32 Stat. 713; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 1, 37 Stat. 309.)

23. Same; pay of director.—The director of the Hygienic Laboratory shall receive the pay and allowances of a senior surgeon. (Mar. 4, 1913, c. 149, § 1, 37 Stat. 915.)

24. Division of Venereal Diseases; officers and employees.—There is established in the Bureau of the Public Health Service a Division of Venereal Diseases, to be under the charge of a commissioned medical officer of the United States Public Health Service detailed by the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, which officer while thus serving shall be an Assistant Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, subject to the provisions of law applicable to Assistant Surgeons General in charge of administrative divisions in the District of Columbia of the Bureau of the Public Health Service. There shall be in such division such assistants, clerks, investigators, and other employees as may be necessary for the performance of its duties and as may be provided for by law. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter XV, § 3, 40 Stat. 886.)

25. Same; duties.—The duties of the Division of Venereal Diseases shall be in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury (1) to study and investigate the cause, treatment, and prevention of venereal diseases; (2) to cooperate with State boards or departments of health for the prevention and control of such diseases within the States; and (3) to control and prevent the spread of these diseases in interstate traffic. Nothing in sections 24 to 27, inclusive, of this title shall be construed as limiting the functions and activities of other departments or bureaus in the prevention, control, and treatment of venereal diseases and in the expenditure of moneys therefor. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter XV, § 4, 40 Stat. 886.)

26. Isolation of civilians for protection of military and naval forces.—The Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy are authorized and directed to adopt measures for the purpose of assisting the various States in caring for civilian persons whose detention, isolation, quarantine, or commitment to institutions may be found necessary for the protection of the military and naval forces of the United States against venereal diseases. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter XV, § 2, 40 Stat. 886.)

27. Definitions.—The terms "State" and "States," as used in sections 25 and 26 of this title, shall be held to include the District of Columbia. (July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter XV, § 8, 40 Stat. 887.)

28. Divisions under Assistant Surgeons General; assistants; pay and allowances; rank.—Commissioned medical officers, when detailed by the Surgeon General for duty in the Bureau of the Public Health Service at Washington, District of Columbia, in charge of the administrative divisions thereof, namely, marine hospitals and relief, domestic quarantine, foreign and insular quarantine, personnel and accounts, sanitary reports and statistics, venereal diseases, and scientific research, shall, while thus serving, be Assistant Surgeons General of the Public Health Service. Their pay and allowances shall be the same as are provided by regulations of the Public Health Service for officers in charge of said divisions. The senior officer thus serving shall be the assistant within the meaning of section 5 of Title 5. No such officer shall be detailed in charge of said divisions who is below the rank of passed assistant surgeon. (July 1, 1902, c. 1370, § 3, 32 Stat. 712; July 9, 1918, c. 143, subchapter XV, § 3, 40 Stat. 886.)

29. Conferences with State and Territorial boards of health.—When, in the opinion of the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, the interests of the public health would be promoted by a conference of said service with State or Territorial boards of health, quarantine authorities, or State health officers, the District of Columbia included, he may invite as many of said health and quarantine authorities as he deems necessary or proper to send delegates, not more than one from each State or Territory and District of Columbia, to said conference. An annual conference of the health authorities of all the States and Territories and the District of Columbia shall be called, each of said States, Territories, and the District of Columbia to be entitled to one delegate. It shall be the duty of the said Surgeon General to call a conference upon the application of not less than five State or Territorial boards of health, quarantine authorities, or State health officers, each of said States and Territories joining in such request to be represented by one delegate. (July 1, 1902, c. 1370, § 7, 32 Stat. 713.)

30. Mortality, morbidity, and vital statistics.—To secure uniformity in the registration of mortality, morbidity, and vital statistics it shall be the duty of the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, after the annual conference required by section 29 of this title to be called, to prepare and distribute suitable and necessary forms for the collection and compilation of such statistics, and said statistics, when transmitted to the Public Health Bureau on said forms, shall be compiled and published by the Public Health Service as a part of the health reports published by said service. (July 1, 1902, c. 1370, § 8, 32 Stat. 714.)

31. Allotments of pay.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to permit officers of the Public Health Service to make allotments from their pay under such regulations as he may prescribe. (June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 883.)

32. Purchase of quartermaster supplies.—Officers of the Public Health Service may purchase quartermaster supplies from the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps at the same price as is charged officers of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps. (Mar. 6, 1920, c. 94, § 1, 41 Stat. 507.)

33. Limitation on expenditure of appropriations.—Appropriations for the Public Health Service shall not be expended for advertising in newspapers, magazines, or periodicals for any purpose other than the procurement of necessary employees and bids for necessary services, supplies, materials, and equipment. (Mar. 4, 1921, c. 161, § 1, 41 Stat. 1378.)

34. Titles of officers.—The officers of the Public Health Service shall be known as the Surgeon General, Assistant Surgeons General, senior surgeons, of which there shall be ten in number, on active duty, surgeons, passed assistant surgeons, and assistant surgeons. (July 1, 1902, c. 1370, § 1, 32 Stat. 712; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 2, 37 Stat. 309.)

PAY

Cross reference—Pay of officers of the Public Health Service, see Title 37, PAY AND ALLOWANCES.

61. Travel expenses for travel on Government-owned vessels.—Officers of the Public Health Service performing travel by Government-owned vessels for which no transportation fare is charged shall only be entitled to reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred. (Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title I, 43 Stat. 774.)

62. Longevity pay; credit for service in other branches.—Officers of the Public Health Service shall be credited with service in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast and Geodetic Survey, and the Coast Guard in computing longevity pay. (Mar. 6, 1920, c. 94, § 1, 41 Stat. 507; May 18, 1920, c. 190, § 11, 41 Stat. 604.)

63. Computation of length of service of officers of Public Health Service.—In computing for any purpose the length of service of any officer of the Public Health Service, who was appointed to the United States Naval Academy or to the United States Military Academy after March 4, 1913, the time spent at either academy shall not be counted. (May 28, 1924, c. 203, 43 Stat. 194; Feb. 11, 1925, c. 209, 43 Stat. 872.)

64. Transportation of dependents.—When any commissioned officer, having a wife or dependent child or children, is ordered to make a permanent change of station, the United States shall furnish transportation in kind from funds appropriated for the transportation of the Public Health Service to his new station for the wife and dependent child or children. If the cost of such transportation exceeds that for transportation from the old to the new station the excess cost shall be paid to the United States by the officer concerned. Transportation supplied the wife or dependent child or children of such officer, to or from stations beyond the continental limits of the United States, shall not be other than by Government transport, if such transportation is available. (May 18, 1920, c. 190, § 12, 41 Stat. 604.)

65. Heat or light prohibited to persons receiving allowances for rental of quarters.—No person in the Public Health Service while such person is receiving an allowance for rental of quarters shall receive any issuance for heat or light in kind. (Mar. 2, 1923, c. 178, Title I, 42 Stat. 1385.)

Section 81. Entry of vessels in violation of quarantine laws.—It shall be unlawful for any merchant ship or other vessel from any foreign port or place to enter any port of the United States except in accordance with the provisions of this section and sections 82 to 84, 92 to 94, 99, 100, 102, and 111 of this title and with such rules and regulations of State and municipal health authorities as may be made in pursuance of, or consistent with said sections; and any such vessel which shall enter, or attempt to enter, a port of the United States in violation thereof shall forfeit to the United States a sum, to be awarded in the discretion of the court, not exceeding $5,000, which shall be a lien upon said vessel, to be recovered by proceedings in the proper district court of the United States. In all such proceedings the United States district attorney for such district shall appear on behalf of the United States; and all such proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the rules and laws governing cases of seizure of vessels for violation of the revenue laws of the United States. (Feb. 15, 1893, c. 114, § 1, 27 Stat. 449.)

82. Bill of health; contents; fees; detail of medical officer at consulate; vessel clearing without bill; vessels from ports near frontier.—Any vessel at any foreign port clearing or departing for any port or place in the United States or its possessions or other dependencies or any vessel at any port in the possessions or other dependencies of the United States clearing or departing for any port or place in the United States or its possessions or other dependencies, shall be required to obtain from the consul, vice consul, or other consular officer of the United States at the port of departure, or from the medical officer where such officer has been detailed by the President for that purpose, a bill of health in duplicate, in the form prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, setting forth the sanitary history and condition of said vessel, and that it has in all respects complied with the rules and regulations in such cases prescribed for securing the best sanitary condition of the said vessel, its cargo, passengers, and crew; and said consular or medical officer is required, before granting such duplicate bill of health, to be satisfied that the matters and things therein stated are true; and for his services in that behalf he shall be entitled to demand and receive such fees as shall by lawful regulation be allowed, to be accounted for as is required in other cases.

The provisions of the preceding paragraph shall not apply to vessels operating exclusively in trade between foreign ports on or near the northern frontier of the United States and ports in the United States; but the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized, when, in his discretion, it is expedient for the preservation of the public health, to establish regulations governing such vessels.

The President, in his discretion, is authorized to detail any medical officer of the Government to serve in the office of the consul at any foreign port for the purpose of furnishing information and making the inspection and giving the bills of health hereinbefore mentioned. Any vessel clearing and sailing from any such port without such bill of health, and entering any port of the United States, shall forfeit to the United States not more than $5,000, the amount to be determined by the court, which shall be a lien on the same, to be recovered by proceedings in the proper district court of the United States. In all such proceedings the United States district attorney for such district shall appear on behalf of the United States; and all such proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with the rules and laws governing cases of seizure of vessels for violation of the revenue laws of the United States.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to vessels plying between foreign ports on or near the frontiers of the United States and ports of the United States adjacent thereto; but the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized, when, in his discretion, it is expedient for the preservation of the public health, to establish regulations governing such vessels. (Feb.

15, 1893, c. 114, § 2, 27 Stat. 450; Aug. 18, 1894, c. 300, 28 Stat. 372; Feb. 27, 1921, c. 80, 41 Stat. 1149; Feb. 7, 1925, c. 146, 43 Stat. 809.)

83. Vessels from foreign ports without bill of health not entering United States subject to regulations.—Any vessel sailing from any foreign port without the bill of health required by section 82 of this title, and arriving within the limits of any collection district of the United States, and not entering or attempting to enter any port of the United States, shall be subject to such quarantine measures as shall be prescribed by regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury, and the cost of such measures shall be a lien on said vessel, to be recovered by proceedings in the proper district court of the United States and in the manner set forth above as regards vessels from foreign ports without bills of health and entering any port of the United States. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 836, 31 Stat. 1086.)

84. Disposition of infected vessels.—On the arrival of an infected vessel at any port not provided with proper facilities for treatment of the same, the Secretary of the Treasury may remand said vessel, at its own expense, to the nearest national or other quarantine station, where accommodations and appliances are provided for the necessary disinfection and treatment of the vessel, passengers, and cargo; and after treatment of any infected vessel at a national quarantine station, and after certificate shall have been given by the United States quarantine officer at said station that the vessel, cargo, and passengers are each and all free from infectious disease, or danger of conveying the same, said vessel shall be admitted to entry to any port of the United States named within the certificate. But at any ports where sufficient quarantine provision has been made by State or local authorities the Secretary of the Treasury may direct vessels bound for said ports to undergo quarantine at said State or local station. (Feb. 15, 1893, c. 114, § 6, 27 Stat. 452.)

85. Unauthorized entry within or departure from quarantine grounds or anchorages; masters or owners of vessels violating law or making false statement as to condition of vessel or contents, or as to health of passenger or person thereon.—Any vessel, or any officer of any vessel, or other person other than State health or quarantine officers, entering within the limits of any quarantine grounds and anchorages, or any quarantine station and anchorage, or departing therefrom, in disregard of the quarantine rules and regulations or without the permission of the officer in charge of such quarantine ground and anchorage, or of such quarantine station and anchorage, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $300 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the court. Any master or owner of any vessel violating any provision of sections 81 to 85, 92 to 94, 96, 99 to 105, and 111 of this title, or violating any rule or regulation made in accordance with said sections, relating to the inspection of vessels, or to the prevention of the introduction of contagious or infectious diseases into the United States, or any master, owner, or agent of any vessel making a false statement relative to the sanitary condition of such vessel or its contents, or as to the health of any passenger or person thereon shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the court. (June 19, 1906, c. 3433, § 4, 34 Stat. 300.)

86. Vessels from infected ports subject to State quarantine laws.—No vessel or vehicle coming from any foreign port or country where any contagious or infectious disease may exist, and no vessel or vehicle conveying any person or persons, merchandise or animals, affected with any infectious or contagious disease, shall enter any port of the United States or pass the boundary line between the United States and any foreign country, contrary to the quarantine laws of any one of said United States, into or through the jurisdiction of which said vessel or vehicle may pass, or to which it is destined, or except in the manner and subject to the regulations to be prescribed as provided in this chapter. (Apr. 29, 1878, c. 66, § 1, 20 Stat. 37.)

87. Cost of fumigation and disinfection of foreign vessels.—The cost of fumigation and disinfection shall be charged vessels from foreign ports at rates to be fixed by the Secretary of the Treasury. (Apr. 17, 1917, c. 3, § 1, 40 Stat. 6.)

88. Discharge of cargo of vessel in quarantine.—Whenever, by the health laws of any State, or by the regulations made pursuant thereto, any vessel arriving within a collection district of such State is prohibited from coming to the port of entry or delivery by law established for such district, and such health laws require or permit the cargo of the vessel to be unladen at some other place within or near to such district, the collector, after due report to him of the whole of such cargo, may grant his warrant or permit for the unlading and discharge thereof, under the care of the surveyor, or of one or more inspectors, at some other place where such health laws permit, and upon the conditions and restrictions which shall be directed by the Secretary of the Treasury, or which such collector may, for the time, deem expedient for the security of the public revenue. (R. S. § 4793.)

89. Quarantine warehouses; erection.—There shall be purchased or erected, under the orders of the President, suitable warehouses, with wharves and inclosures, where merchandise may be unladen and deposited, from any vessel which shall be subject to a quarantine, or other restraint, pursuant to the health laws of any State, at such convenient places therein as the safety of the public revenue and the observance of such health laws may require. (R. S. § 4794.)

90. Same; deposit of goods in.—Whenever the cargo of a vessel is unladen at some other place than the port of entry or delivery under sections 88 and 89 of this title, all the articles of such cargo shall be deposited, at the risk of the parties concerned therein, in such public or other warehouses or inclosures as the collector shall designate, there to remain under the joint custody of such collector and of the owner, or master, or other person having charge of such vessel, until the same are entirely unladen or discharged, and until the articles so deposited may be safely removed without contravening such health laws. And when such removal is allowed, the collector having charge of such articles may grant permits to the respective owners or consignees, their factors or agents, to receive all merchandise which has been entered, and the duties accruing upon which have been paid, upon the payment by them of a reasonable rate of storage; which shall be fixed by the Secretary of the Treasury for all public warehouses and inclosures. (R. S. § 4795.)

91. Extending time for entry of vessels subject to quarantine.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized, whenever a conformity to such quarantines and health laws requires it, and in respect to vessels subject thereto, to prolong the terms limited for the entry of the same, and the report or entry of their cargoes, and to vary or dispense with any other regulations applicable to such reports or entries. No part of the cargo of any vessel shall, however, in any case, be taken out or unladen therefrom, otherwise than is allowed by law, or according to the regulations hereinafter established. (R. S. § 4796.)

92. Enforcement of regulations.—The Surgeon General of the Public Health Service shall, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, cooperate with and aid State and municipal boards of health in the execution and enforcement of the rules and regulations of such boards and in the execution and enforcement of the rules and regulations made by the Secretary of the Treasury to prevent the introduction of contagious or infectious diseases into the United States from foreign countries, and into one State or Territory or the District of Columbia from another State or Territory or the District of Columbia; and all rules and regulations made by the Secretary of the Treasury shall operate uniformly and in no manner discriminate against any port or place; and at such ports and places within the United States as have no quarantine regulations under State or municipal authority, where such regulations are, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury, necessary to prevent the introduction of contagious or infectious diseases into the United States from foreign countries, or into one State or Territory or the District of Columbia from another State or Territory or the District of Columbia, and at such ports and places within the United States where quarantine regulations exist under the authority of the State or municipality which, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Treasury, are not sufficient to prevent the introduction of such diseases into the United States, or into one State or Territory or the District of Columbia from another State or Territory or the District of Columbia, the Secretary of the Treasury shall, if in his judgment it is necessary and proper, make such additional rules and regulations as are necessary to prevent the introduction of such diseases into the United States from foreign countries, or into one State or Territory or the District of Columbia from another State or Territory or the District of Columbia, and when said rules and regulations have been made they shall be promulgated by the Secretary of the Treasury and enforced by the sanitary authorities of the States and municipalities, where the State or municipal health authorities will undertake to execute and enforce them; but if the State or municipal authorities shall fail or refuse to enforce said rules and regulations the President shall execute and enforce the same and adopt such measures as in his judgment shall be necessary to prevent the introduction or spread of such diseases, and may detail or appoint officers for that purpose. The Secretary of the Treasury shall make such rules and regulations as are necessary to be observed by vessels at the port of departure and on the voyage, where such vessels sail from any foreign port or place to any port or place in the United States, to secure the best sanitary condition of such vessel, her cargo, passengers, and crew; which shall be published and communicated to and enforced by the consular officers of the United States. None of the penalties imposed by any of sections 81 to 84, 92 to 94, 99, 100, 102, and 111 of this title shall attach to any vessel or owner or officer thereof until a copy of all the above-mentioned sections, with the rules and regulations made in pursuance thereof, has been posted up in the office of the consul or other consular officer of the United States for ten days, in the port from which said vessel sailed; and the certificate of such consul or consular officer over his official signature shall be competent evidence of such posting in any court of the United States. (Feb. 15, 1893, c. 114, § 3, 27 Stat. 450; July 1, 1902, c. 1370, § 1, 32 Stat. 712; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 1, 37 Stat. 309.)

93. Duties of Surgeon General as to quarantine; reports.—It shall be the duty of the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, to perform all the duties in respect to quarantine and quarantine regulations which are provided for by sections 81 to 84, 92 to 94, 99, 100, 102, and 111 of this title, and to obtain information of the sanitary condition of foreign ports and places from which contagious and infectious diseases are or may be imported into the United States, and to this end the consular officer of the United States at such ports and places as shall be designated by the Secretary of the Treasury shall make to the Secretary of the Treasury weekly reports of the sanitary condition of the ports and places at which they are respectively stationed, according to such forms as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe; and the Secretary of the Treasury shall also obtain, through all sources accessible, including State and municipal sanitary authorities throughout the United States, weekly reports of the sanitary condition of ports and places within the United States, and shall prepare, publish, and transmit to collectors of customs and to State and municipal health officers and other sanitarians weekly abstracts of the consular sanitary reports and other pertinent information received by him, and shall also, as far as he may be able, by means of the voluntary cooperation of State and municipal authorities, of public associations, and private persons, procure information relating to the climatic and other conditions affecting the public health, and shall make an annual report of his operations to Congress, with such recommendations as he may deem important to the public interest. (Feb. 15, 1893, c. 114, § 4, 27 Stat. 451; July 1, 1902, c. 1370, § 1, 32 Stat. 712; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 1, 37 Stat. 309.)

94. Regulations to secure sanitary conditions of vessels; inspection; health certificate.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall from time to time issue to the consular officers of the United States and to the medical officers serving at any foreign port, and otherwise make publicly known, the rules and regulations made by him, to be used and complied with by vessels in foreign ports, for securing the best sanitary conditions of such vessels, their cargoes, passengers, and crew, before their departure for any port in the United States, and in the course of the voyage; and all such other rules and regulations as shall be observed in the inspection of the same on the arrival thereof at any quarantine station at the port of destination, and for the disinfection and isolation of the same, and the treatment of cargo and persons on board, so as to prevent the introduction of cholera, yellow fever, or other contagious or infectious diseases; and it shall not be lawful for any vessel to enter said port to discharge its cargo, or land its passengers, except upon a certificate of the health officer at such quarantine station certifying that said rules and regulations have in all respects been observed and complied with, as well on his part as on the part of the said vessel and its master, in respect to the same and to its cargo, passengers and crew; and the master of every such vessel shall produce and deliver to the collector of customs at said port of entry, together with the other papers of the vessel, the said bills of health required to be obtained at the port of departure and the certificate herein required to be obtained from the health officer at the port of entry; and that the bills of health herein prescribed shall be considered as part of the ship's papers, and when duly certified to by the proper consular or other officer of the United States, over his official signature and seal, shall be accepted as evidence of the statements therein contained in any court of the United States. (Feb. 15, 1893, c. 114, § 5, 27 Stat. 451.)

95. Regulations to prevent spread of contagious diseases; violation of rules.—Whenever it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the President that cholera, yellow fever, smallpox, or plague exists in any State or Territory, or in the District of Columbia, and that there is danger of the spread of such disease into other States, Territories, or the District of Columbia, he is authorized to cause the Secretary of the Treasury to promulgate such rules and regulations as in his judgment may be necessary to prevent the spread of such disease from one State or Territory into another, or from any State or Territory into the District of Columbia, or from the District of Columbia into any State or Territory, and to employ such inspectors and other persons as may be necessary to execute such regulations to prevent the spread of such disease. The said rules and regulations shall be prepared by the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury. Any person who shall willfully violate any rule or regulation so made and promulgated shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500, or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, in the discretion of the court. (Mar. 27, 1890, c. 51, § 1, 26 Stat. 31; July 1, 1902, c. 1370, § 1, 32 Stat. 712; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 1, 37 Stat. 309.)

96. Jurisdiction over established station, to be ceded before payment of compensation.—Whenever any established station, or any land or water, or any part thereof, shall be acquired by the United States under the provisions of this section and sections 85, 101, and 103 to 105 of this title, jurisdiction over the same shall be ceded to the United States by any State in which the same is situated before any compensation therefor shall be paid. (June 19, 1906, c. 3433, § 6, 34 Stat. 301.)

97. State health laws observed by United States officers.—The quarantines and other restraints established by the health laws of any State, respecting any vessels arriving in, or bound to, any port or district thereof, shall be duly observed by the officers of the customs revenue of the United States, by the masters and crews of the several revenue cutters, and by the military officers commanding in any fort or station upon the seacoast; and all such officers of the United States shall faithfully aid in the execution of such quarantines and health laws, according to their respective powers and within their respective precincts, and as they shall be directed, from time to time, by the Secretary of the Treasury. But nothing in this section and sections 88 to 91 and 112 to 114 of this title shall enable any State to collect a duty of tonnage or impost without the consent of Congress. (R. S. § 4792.)

98. Vessels for quarantine officers.—The Secretary of the Navy is authorized, in his discretion, at the request of the Secretary of the Treasury, to place gratuitously, at the disposal of the Public Health Service, at any of the ports of the United States, to be used temporarily for quarantine purposes, such vessels or hulks belonging to the United States as are not required for other uses of the National Government, subject to such restrictions and regulations as the Secretary of the Navy may deem necessary to impose for the preservation thereof. (June 14, 1879, No. 6, 21 Stat. 50; Feb. 15, 1893, c. 114, 27 Stat. 449.)

99. Authority of medical officers acting as quarantine officers.—The medical officers of the United States, duly clothed with authority to act as quarantine officers at any port or place within the United States, and when performing the said duties, are hereby authorized to take declarations and administer oaths in matters pertaining to the administration of the quarantine laws and regulations of the United States. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 836, 31 Stat. 1086.)

100. Compensation for use of State buildings.—Whenever the proper authorities of a State shall surrender to the United States the use of the buildings and disinfecting apparatus at a State quarantine station, the Secretary of the Treasury shall be authorized to receive them and to pay a reasonable compensation to the State for their use, if, in his opinion, they are necessary to the United States. (Feb. 15, 1893, c. 114, § 8, 27 Stat. 452.)

101. Acquisition of quarantine stations and plants already established by State or local authorities.—In any place where a quarantine station and plant is already established by State or local authorities it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury, before selecting and designating a quarantine station and grounds and anchorage for vessels, to examine such established stations and plants, with a view of obtaining a transfer of the site and plants to the United States, and whenever the proper authorities shall be ready to transfer the same or surrender the use thereof to the United States, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to obtain title thereto or possession and use thereof, and to pay a reasonable compensation therefor, if, in his opinion, such purchase or use will be necessary to the United States for quarantine purposes and the quarantine stations established by authority of this section and sections 85, 96, and 103 to 105 of this title shall, when so established, be used to prevent the introduction of all quarantinable diseases. (June 19, 1906, c. 3433, § 5, 34 Stat. 301.)

102. Establishment of quarantine grounds; trespasses; violation of quarantine laws.—The Surgeon General, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, is authorized to designate and mark the boundaries of the quarantine grounds and quarantine anchorages for vessels which are reserved for use at each United States quarantine station; and any vessel or officer of any vessel or other person, other than State or municipal health or quarantine officers, trespassing or otherwise entering upon such grounds or anchorages in disregard of the quarantine rules and regulations, or without permission of the officer in charge of such station, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to arrest, and upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not more than $300 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the court. Any master or owner of any vessel, or any person violating any provision of this section and sections 81 to 84, 92 to 94, 99, 100, and 111 of this title, or any rule or regulation made in accordance therewith, relating to inspection of vessels or relating to the prevention of the introduction of contagious or infectious diseases, or any master, owner, or agent of any vessel making a false statement relative to the sanitary condition of said vessel or its contents or as to the health of any passenger or person thereon, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to arrest, and upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not more than $500 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the court. (Mar. 3, 1901, c. 836, 31 Stat. 1086.)

103. Quarantine stations, grounds, and anchorages.—The Secretary of the Treasury shall have the control, direction, and management of all quarantine stations, grounds, and anchorages established by authority of the United States, and shall select and designate such suitable places for them and establish the same at such points on or near the coast line of the United States or the border of the United States and a foreign country, as in his judgment are best suited for the same and necessary to prevent the introduction of yellow fever into the United States, and, in his discretion, he may also establish at the group of islands known as the Dry Tortugas, at the western end of the Florida Reef, and at such other point or points on or near the coast line of the United States (not to exceed four in the aggregate) as he deems necessary, quarantine grounds, stations, and anchorages, whereat or whereto infected vessels bound for any port in the United States may be detained or sent for the purpose of being disinfected, having their cargoes disinfected and discharged, if necessary, and their sick treated in hospitals until all danger of infection or contagion from such vessels, their cargoes, passengers, or crews has been removed. (June 19, 1906, c. 3433, § 1, 34 Stat. 299.)

104. Land and water selected for quarantine stations transferred from other departments to Secretary of Treasury, or acquired by purchase or condemnation.—In cases in which the title to the land and water so selected and designated is in the United States it shall be the duty of the department, bureau, or official of the United States having custody or possession of such land and water, or any part thereof, not used by the Government for other purposes designated by law, or possession of said Dry Tortugas Islands, on demand of the Secretary of the Treasury, to deliver the same into his custody and possession for the use of the Public Health Service, evidencing such delivery by a suitable instrument in writing to be delivered to the Secretary of the Treasury. That in cases in which the title to such land and water, or any part thereof, is in any other owner than the United States it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to secure the title and possession of the same to the United States for the use of the Public Health Service of the United States, by purchase at a reasonable price, if possible; but if, in his judgment, the price demanded for such property be excessive, he is authorized to apply to the Attorney General of the United States to cause to be instituted, in the proper tribunal, condemnation proceedings in the name of the United States for the purpose of acquiring for the United States the title and possession of such land and water, and said Attorney General shall, as soon as possible after such application by the Secretary of the Treasury, cause such proceedings to be instituted and conducted to a conclusion, and the custody and possession of such land and water, when duly acquired in accordance with the award made in such condemnation proceedings, shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Treasury for the use of the Public Health Service. (June 19, 1906, c. 3433, § 2, 34 Stat. 299; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 1, 37 Stat. 309.)

105. Notice of selection of places for quarantine stations and anchorages; instrumentalities for disinfecting vessels and cargoes and hospital buildings; treatment of sick and eradication of disease.—On acquiring possession of any land and water in accordance with the provisions of sections 103 and 104 of this title for the purpose of establishing thereat a quarantine station and anchorage, the Secretary of the Treasury shall cause to be published in such newspapers as he may think proper, once a week for four successive weeks, a notice of the selection and designation of such places for quarantine stations and anchorages, with a description of the boundaries of such quarantine stations and anchorages, and such rules and regulations as he shall adopt and promulgate, requiring vessels with yellow fever among their passengers or crews to go to specified quarantine stations and anchorages, to be dealt with there before visiting any port of the United States. He shall establish at such quarantine stations and anchorages all necessary instrumentalities for disinfecting vessels and their cargoes, and where the same shall be required shall erect the necessary hospital buildings and install the necessary furniture and fittings for receiving and treating the sick among the passengers and crews of vessels going to such quarantine stations and anchorages, and provide for the separation of those among their passengers and crews who are suffering from yellow fever from those who are in good health, and shall further provide for doing all things necessary to eradicate such disease from such vessels, their cargoes, passengers, and crews. (June 19, 1906, c. 3433, § 3, 34 Stat. 300.)

106. Trespass on quarantine reservations; vessels entering United States in violation of laws.—Whenever any person shall trespass upon the grounds belonging to any quarantine reservation, or whenever any person, master, pilot, or owner of a vessel entering any port of the United States, shall so enter in violation of section 86 of this title, or in violation of the quarantine regulations framed under said section, such person trespassing, or such master, pilot, or other person in command of a vessel shall, upon conviction thereof, pay a fine of not more than $300, or be sentenced to imprisonment for a period of not more than thirty days, or shall be punished by both fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court. And it shall be the duty of the United States attorney in the district where the misdemeanor shall have been committed to take immediate cognizance of the offense, upon report made to him by any medical officer of the Public Health Service, or by any officer of the customs service, or by any State officer acting under proper authority. (Aug. 1, 1888, c. 727, § 1, 25 Stat. 355; July 1, 1902, c. 1370, § 1, 32 Stat. 712; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, § 1, 37 Stat. 309.)

107. Violation of quarantine laws; by officers.—Any officer, or person acting as an officer, or agent of the United States at any quarantine station, or other person employed to aid in preventing the spread of such disease, who shall willfully violate any of the quarantine laws of the United States, or any of the rules and regulations made and promulgated by the Secretary of the Treasury as provided for in section 95 of this title, or any lawful order of his superior officer or officers, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than $300 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the court. (Mar. 27, 1890, c. 51, § 2, 26 Stat. 31.)

108. Same; by common carriers.—When any common carrier or officer, agent, or employee of any common carrier shall willfully violate any of the quarantine laws of the United States, or the rules and regulations made and promulgated as provided for in section 95 of this title, such common carrier, officer, agent, or employee, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine of not more than $500, or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, in the discretion of the court. (Mar. 27, 1890, c. 51, § 3, 26 Stat. 31.)

109. Report of expenditures to prevent epidemics.—A detailed report shall be submitted annually to Congress, showing the expenditures made under appropriations to enable the President, in case only of threatened or actual epidemic of cholera, typhus fever, yellow fever, smallpox, bubonic plague, Chinese plague or black death, trachoma, influenza, Rocky Mountain spotted fever, or infantile paralysis, to aid State and local boards, or otherwise, in his discretion, in preventing and suppressing the spread of the same, and in such emergency in the execution of any quarantine laws which may be then in force. (June 12, 1917, c. 27, § 1, 40 Stat. 121; Feb. 17, 1922, c. 55, 42 Stat. 380; Jan. 3, 1923, c. 22, 42 Stat. 1102; Apr. 4, 1924, c. 84, Title I, 43 Stat. 76; Jan. 20, 1925, c. 85, § 1, 43 Stat. 757; Jan. 22, 1925, c. 87, Title I, 43 Stat. 775.)

110. Schedule of fees for vessels at quarantine stations; New York Station.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to promulgate such a schedule of fees to be charged vessels at each of the national quarantine stations as will be fair and reasonable for the services rendered by each station. This authority shall not be applicable to any quarantine station where the fees are fixed by law.

The schedule of fees and rates of charges in effect at the New York Quarantine Station at the time of the transfer of the title thereto to the United States shall be adopted and promulgated by the Secretary of the Treasury as the schedule of fees and rates of charges for the operation of the said station under the jurisdiction of the United States. (June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 875; June 16, 1921, c. 23, § 1, 42 Stat. 38.)

111. Suspension of immigration.—Whenever it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the President that by reason of the existence of cholera or other infectious or contagious diseases in a foreign country there is serious danger of the introduction of the same into the United States, and that notwithstanding the quarantine defense this danger is so increased by the introduction of persons or property from such country that a suspension of the right to introduce the same is demanded in the interest of the public health, the President shall have power to prohibit, in whole or in part, the introduction of persons and property from such countries or places as he shall designate and for such period of time as he may deem necessary. (Feb. 15, 1893, c. 114, § 7, 27 Stat. 452.)

112. Removal of revenue officers from port during epidemic.—Whenever, by the prevalence of any contagious or epidemic disease in or near the place by law established as the port of entry for any collection district, it becomes dangerous or inconvenient for the officers of the revenue employed therein to continue the discharge of their respective offices at such port, the Secretary of the Treasury, or, in his absence, the Undersecretary of the Treasury, may direct the removal of the officers of the revenue from such port to any other more convenient place, within, or as near as may be to, such collection district. And at such place such officers may exercise the same powers, and shall be liable to the same duties, according to existing circumstances, as in the port or district established by law. Public notice of any such removal shall be given as soon as may be. (R. S. § 4797; July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 4, 28 Stat. 205; June 10, 1921, c. 18, § 301, 42 Stat. 23; Feb. 17, 1922, c. 55, 42 Stat. 366.)

113. Adjournment of courts during epidemic.—Whenever, in the opinion of the Chief Justice, or, in case of his death, or inability, of the senior Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, a contagious or epidemic sickness shall render it hazardous to hold the next stated session of the court at the seat of government, the Chief or such Associate Justice may issue his order to the marshal of the Supreme Court, directing him to adjourn the next session of the court to such other place as such justice deems convenient. The marshal shall thereupon adjourn the court, by making publication thereof in one or more public papers printed at the seat of government from the time he shall receive such order until the time by law prescribed for commencing the session. The several circuit and district judges shall, respectively, under the same circumstances, have the same power, by the same means, to direct adjournments of the several circuit courts of appeals and district courts to some convenient place within their circuits or districts respectively. (R. S. § 4799.)

114. Removal of prisoners during epidemic.—The judge of any district court, within whose district any contagious or epidemic disease shall at any time prevail, so as, in his opinion, to endanger the lives of persons confined in the prison of such district, in pursuance of any law of the United States, may direct the marshal to cause the persons so confined to be removed to the next adjacent prison where such disease does not prevail, there to be confined until they may safely be removed back to the place of their first confinement. Such removals shall be at the expense of the United States. (R. S. § 4800.)

STATION AND LABORATORY AT MOLOKAI, HAWAII

Section 121. Establishment.—There is established on the tract of land on the leper reservation at Molokai, Hawaii, ceded by the Territorial government of Hawaii to the United States in perpetuity a hospital station and laboratory of the Public Health Service of the United States for the study of the methods of transmission, cause, and treatment of leprosy. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1443, § 1, 33 Stat. 1009.)

122. Patients; admission and treatment.—For the purposes of this subchapter the Surgeon General, through his accredited agent, is authorized to receive at such station such patients afflicted with leprosy as may be committed to his care under legal authorization of the Territory of Hawaii, not to exceed forty in number to be under treatment at any time, said patients to remain under the jurisdiction of the said Surgeon General, or his agent, until returned to the proper authorities of Hawaii. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1443, § 3, 33 Stat. 1009.)

123. Detail of medical officers and employees of Public Health Service.—The Surgeon General of the Public Health Service of the United States is authorized to detail or appoint, for the purposes of these investigations and treatment, such medical officers, acting assistant surgeons, pharmacists, and employees as may be necessary for said purpose. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1443, § 4, 33 Stat. 1009.)

124. Regulations for administration.—The Surgeon General of the Public Health Service shall, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, make and adopt regulations for the administration and government of the hospital station and laboratory and for the management and treatment of all patients of such hospital. (Mar. 3, 1905, c. 1443, § 6, 33 Stat. 1010.)

125. Additional pay and allowances to officers detailed.—When any commissioned or noncommissioned officer of the Public Health Service is detailed for duty at the leprosarium provided for in sections 121 to 124 of this title, or while engaged in investigations of leprosy at Kalihi and other places in Hawaii, he shall receive, in addition to the pay and allowances of his grade, one-half the pay of said grade and such allowances as may be provided for by the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. (Mar. 3, 1905. c. 1443, § 7, 33 Stat. 1010; Mar. 4, 1911, c. 285, § 1, 36 Stat. 1394.)

LEPROSY HOME IN UNITED STATES

131. Establishment; administration by Public Health Service.—There is established a home for the care and treatment of persons afflicted with leprosy, to be administered by the United States Public Health Service. (Feb. 3, 1917, c. 26, § 1, 39 Stat. 872.)

132. Erection of buildings.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to cause the erection upon such site of suitable and necessary buildings for the purposes of this subchapter at a cost not to exceed the sum appropriated for such purpose. (Feb. 3, 1917, c. 26, § 4, 39 Stat. 873.)

133. Persons receivable into; removal of afflicted persons to.—There shall be received into said home, under regulations prepared by the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, any person afflicted with leprosy who presents himself or herself for care, detention, and treatment, or who may be apprehended under authority of the United States Quarantine Acts, or any person afflicted with leprosy duly consigned to said home by the proper health authorities of any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia. The Surgeon General of the Public Health Service is authorized, upon request of said authorities, to send for any person afflicted with leprosy within their respective jurisdicitions, and to convey said persons to such home for detention and treatment, and when the transportation of any such person is undertaken for the protection of the public health, the expense of such removal shall be paid from funds set aside for the maintenance of said home. (Feb. 3, 1917, c. 26, § 2, 39 Stat. 873.)

134. Regulations.—Regulations shall be prepared by the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, for the government and administration of said home and for the apprehension, detention, treatment, and release of all persons who are inmates thereof. (Feb. 3, 1917, c. 26, § 3, 39 Stat. 873.)

135. Detail of officers of Public Health Service to; pay.—When any commissioned or other officer of the Public Health Service is detailed for duty at the home herein provided for he shall receive, in addition to the pay and allowances of his grade, one-half the pay of said grade and such allowances as may be provided by the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. (Feb. 3, 1917, c. 26, § 5, 39 Stat. 873.)

141. Regulation of sale of and interstate traffic.
142. Falsely labeling or marking package or container; altering label or mark.
143. Inspection of establishment for propagation and preparation.
144. Same; foreign establishments; conditional license.
145. Board to prescribe regulations for licenses for establishments for propagation and preparation.
146. Enforcement of regulations.
147. Interference with officers.
148. Offenses; punishment.

Section 141. Regulation of sale of and interstate traffic.—No person shall sell, barter, or exchange, or offer for sale, barter, or exchange in the District of Columbia, or send, carry, or bring for sale, barter, or exchange from any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia into any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or from any foreign country into the United States, or from the United States into any foreign country, any virus, therapeutic serum, toxin, antitoxin, or analogous product applicable to the prevention and cure of diseases of man, unless (a) such virus, serum, toxin, antitoxin, or product has been propagated and prepared at an establishment holding an unsuspended and unrevoked license, issued by the Secretary of the Treasury as hereinafter authorized, to propagate and prepare such virus, serum, toxin, antitoxin, or product for sale in the District of Columbia, or for sending, bringing, or carrying from place to place aforesaid; nor (b) unless each package of such virus, serum, toxin, antitoxin, or product is plainly marked with the proper name of the article contained therein, the name, address, and license number of the manufacturer, and the date beyond which the contents can not be expected beyond reasonable doubt to yield their specific results. The suspension or revocation of any license shall not prevent the sale, barter, or exchange of any virus, serum, toxin, antitoxin, or product aforesaid which has been sold and delivered by the licentiate prior to such suspension or revocation, unless the owner or custodian of such virus, serum, toxin, antitoxin, or product aforesaid has been notified by the Secretary of the Treasury not to sell, barter, or exchange the same. (July 1, 1902, c. 1378, § 1, 32 Stat. 728.)

142. Falsely labeling or marking package or container; altering label or mark.—No person shall falsely label or mark any package or container of any virus, serum, toxin, antitoxin, or product aforesaid; nor alter any label or mark on any package or container of any virus, serum, toxin, antitoxin, or product aforesaid so as to falsify such label or mark. (July 1, 1902, c. 1378, § 2, 32 Stat. 729.)

143. Inspection of establishment for propagation and preparation.—Any officer, agent, or employee of the Treasury Department, duly detailed by the Secretary of the Treasury for that purpose, may during all reasonable hours enter and inspect any establishment for the propagation and preparation of any virus, serum, toxin, antitoxin, or product aforesaid for sale, barter, or exchange in the District of Columbia, or to be sent, carried, or brought from any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia into any other State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or from the United States into any foreign country, or from any foreign country into the United States. (July 1, 1902, c. 1378, § 3, 32 Stat. 729.)

144. Same; foreign establishments; conditional license.—All licenses issued for the maintenance of establishments for the propagation and preparation in any foreign country of any virus, serum, toxin, antitoxin, or product aforesaid, for sale, barter, or exchange in the United States, shall be issued upon condition that the licentiates will permit the inspection of the establishments where said articles are propagated and prepared in accordance with the provisions of section 143 of this title. (July 1, 1902, c. 1378, § 4, 32 Stat. 729.)

145. Board to prescribe regulations for licenses for establishments for propagation and preparation.—The Surgeon General of the Army, the Surgeon General of the Navy, and the Surgeon General of the Public Health Service are constituted a board with authority, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, to promulgate from time to time such rules as may be necessary in the judgment of said board to govern the issue, suspension, and revocation of licenses for the maintenance of establishments for the propagation and preparation of viruses, serums, toxins, antitoxins, and analogous products, applicable to the prevention and cure of diseases of man, intended for sale in the District of Columbia or to be sent, carried or brought for sale from any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, into any other State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, or from the United States into any foreign country, or from any foreign country into the United States. (July 1, 1902, c. 1378, § 4, 32 Stat. 729; Aug. 14, 1912, c. 288, 37 Stat. 309.)

146. Enforcement of regulations.—The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to enforce the provisions of sections 141 to 148 of this title and of such rules and regulations as may be made by authority thereof; to issue, suspend, and revoke licenses for the maintenance of establishments aforesaid, and to detail for the discharge of such duties such officers, agents, and employees of the Treasury Department as may in his judgment be necessary. (July 1, 1902, c. 1378, § 5, 32 Stat. 729.)

147. Interference with officers.—No person shall interfere with any officer, agent, or employee of the Treasury Department in the performance of any duty imposed upon him by sections 141 to 148 of this title or by regulations made by authority thereof. (July 1, 1902, c. 1378, § 6, 32 Stat. 729.)

148. Offenses; punishment.—Any person who shall violate, or aid or abet in violating, any of the provisions of sections 141 to 148 of this title shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. (July 1, 1902, c. 1378, § 7, 32 Stat. 729.)

175. Provisions of chapter extended to Hawaii.

Section 161. Board of Maternity and Infant Hygiene; members; chairman; powers and duties of Children's Bureau.—There is created a Board of Maternity and Infant Hygiene, which shall consist of the Chief of the Children's Bureau, the Surgeon General of the United States Public Health Service, and the United States Commissioner of Education. The board shall elect its own chairman and perform the duties provided for in this chapter.

The Children's Bureau of the Department of Labor shall be charged with the administration of this chapter, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, and the Chief of the Children's Bureau shall be the executive officer. It shall be the duty of the Children's Bureau to make or cause to be made such studies, investigations, and reports as will promote the efficient administration of this chapter. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 135, § 3, 42 Stat. 224.)

162. Appropriation for.—There is authorized to be appropriated annually, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sums specified in section 163 of this title, to be paid to the several States for the purpose of cooperating with them in promoting the welfare and hygiene of maternity and infancy as provided. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 135, § 1, 42 Stat. 224.)

163. Same; amount; apportionment to States; additional apportionment.—For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter, there is authorized to be appropriated annually until June 30, 1927, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, $240,000, to be equally apportioned among the several States in the manner provided in this chapter, and for the use of the States, subject to the provisions of this chapter, annually, for the same period, an additional sum not to exceed $1,000,000. The additional appropriations authorized shall be apportioned $5,000 to each State and the balance among the States in the proportion which their population bears to the total population of the States of the United States, according to the last preceding United States census. No payment out of the additional appropriation authorized shall be made in any year to any State until an equal sum has been appropriated for that year by the legislature of such State for the maintenance of the services and facilities provided for in this chapter.

So much of the amount apportioned to any State for any fiscal year as remains unpaid to such State at the close thereof shall be available for expenditures in that State until the close of the succeeding fiscal year. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 135, § 2, 42 Stat. 224.)

164. Acceptance of provisions by States.—In order to secure the benefits of the appropriations authorized in section 163 of this title, any State shall, through the legislative authority thereof, accept the provisions of this chapter and designate or authorize the creation of a State agency with which the Children's Bureau shall have all necessary powers to cooperate as herein provided in the administration of the provisions of this chapter. In any State having a child-welfare or child-hygiene division in its State agency of health, the said State agency of health shall administer the provisions of this chapter through such divisions. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 135, § 4, 42 Stat. 225.)

165. Deduction from appropriation for administrative expenses.—So much, not to exceed 5 per centum, of the additional appropriations authorized for any fiscal year under section 163 of this title, as the Children's Bureau may estimate to be necessary for administering the provisions of this chapter, shall be deducted for that purpose, to be available until expended. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 135, § 5, 42 Stat. 225.)

166. Clerical assistants for Children's Bureau.—Out of the amounts authorized under section 165 of this title the Children's Bureau is authorized to employ such assistants, clerks, and other persons in the District of Columbia and elsewhere, to be taken from the eligible lists of the Civil Service Commission, and to purchase such supplies, material, equipment, office fixtures, and apparatus, and to incur such travel and other expense as it may deem necessary for carrying out the purposes of this chapter. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 135, § 6, 42 Stat. 225.)

167. Apportionment of appropriation to States.—Within sixty days after any appropriation authorized by this chapter has been made, the Children's Bureau shall make the apportionment provided for and shall certify to the Secretary of the Treasury the amount estimated by the bureau to be necessary for administering the provisions of this chapter, and shall certify to the Secretary of the Treasury and to the treasurers of the various States the amount which has been apportioned to each State for the fiscal year for which such appropriation has been made. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 135, § 7, 42 Stat. 225.)

168. Submission of plans by States; approval.—Any State desiring to receive the benefits of this chapter shall, by its agency described in section 164 of this title, submit to the Children's Bureau detailed plans for carrying out the provisions of this chapter within such State, which plans shall be subject to the approval of the board. The plans of the States under this chapter shall provide that no official, or agent, or representative in carrying out the provisions of this chapter shall enter any home or take charge of any child over the objection of the parents, or either of them, or the person standing in loco parentis or having custody of such child. If these plans shall be in conformity with the provisions of this chapter and reasonably appropriate and adequate to carry out its purposes they shall be approved by the board and due notice of such approval shall be sent to the State agency by the Chief of the Children's Bureau. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 135, § 8, 42 Stat. 225.)

169. Power of representatives of Children's Bureau to enter homes or take charge of children.—No official, agent, or representative of the Children's Bureau shall by virtue of this chapter have any right to enter any home over the objection of the owner thereof, or to take charge of any child over the objection of the parents, or either of them, or of the person standing in loco parentis or having custody of such child. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as limiting the power of a parent or guardian or person standing in loco parentis to determine what treatment or correction shall be provided for a child or the agency or agencies to be employed for such purpose. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 135, § 9, 42 Stat. 225.)

170. Certification of amounts apportioned to States.—Within sixty days after any appropriation authorized by this chapter has been made, and as often thereafter while such appropriation remains unexpended as changed conditions may warrant, the Children's Bureau shall ascertain the amounts that have been appropriated by the legislatures of the several States accepting the provisions of this chapter and shall certify to the Secretary of the Treasury the amount to which each State is entitled under the provisions of this chapter. Such certificate shall state (1) that the State has, through its legislative authority, accepted the provisions of this chapter and designated or authorized the creation of an agency to cooperate with the Children's Bureau, or that the State has otherwise accepted this chapter, as provided in section 164 of this title; (2) the fact that the proper agency of the State has submitted to the Children's Bureau detailed plans for carrying out the provisions of this chapter, and that such plans have been approved by the board; (3) the amount, if any, that has been appropriated by the legislature of the State for the maintenance of the services and facilities of this chapter, as provided in section 163 of this title; and (4) the amount to which the State is entitled under the provisions of this chapter. Such certificate, when in conformity with the provisions hereof, shall, until revoked as provided in section 172 of this title, be sufficient authority to the Secretary of the Treasury to make payment to the State in accordance therewith. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 135, § 10, 42 Stat. 225.)

171. Reports by States; withholding certifications to States.—Each State agency cooperating with the Children's Bureau under this chapter shall make such reports concerning its operations and expenditures as shall be prescribed or requested by the bureau. The Children's Bureau may, with the approval of the board, and shall, upon request of a majority of the board, withhold any further certificate provided for in section 170 of this title whenever it shall be determined as to any State that the agency thereof has not properly expended the money paid to it or the moneys required to be appropriated by such State for the purposes and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Such certificate may be withheld until such time or upon such conditions as the Children's Bureau, with the approval of the board, may determine; when so withheld the State agency may appeal to the President of the United States who may either affirm or reverse the action of the bureau with such directions as he shall consider proper. Before any such certificate shall be withheld from any State, the chairman of the board shall give notice in writing to the authority designated to represent the State, stating specifically wherein said State has failed to comply with the provisions of this chapter. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 135, § 11, 42 Stat. 226.)

172. Limitation on expenditure of amounts apportioned to States.—No portion of any moneys apportioned under this chapter for the benefit of the States shall be applied, directly or indirectly, to the purchase, erection, preservation, or repair of any building or buildings or equipment, or for the purchase or rental of any buildings or lands, nor shall any such moneys or moneys required to be appropriated by any State for the purposes and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter be used for the payment of any maternity or infancy pension, stipend, or gratuity. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 135, § 12, 42 Stat. 226.)

173. Children's Bureau to perform duties of chapter; report to Congress.—The Children's Bureau shall perform the duties assigned to it by this chapter under the supervision of the Secretary of Labor, and he shall include in his annual report to Congress a full account of the administration of this chapter and expenditures of the moneys herein authorized. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 135, § 13, 42 Stat. 226.)

174. Construction of chapter.—This chapter shall be construed as intending to secure to the various States control of the administration of this chapter within their respective States, subject only to the provisions and purposes of this chapter. (Nov. 23, 1921, c. 135, § 14, 42 Stat. 226.)

175. Provisions of chapter extended to Hawaii.—The Territory of Hawaii shall be entitled to share in the benefits of this chapter and any Act amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, upon the same terms and conditions as any of the several States. There is authorized to be appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, such sum as would be apportioned to the Territory if such chapter had originally included the Territory. (Mar. 10, 1924, c. 46, § 3, 43 Stat. 17.)

191. Bureau established.
192. Chief of Bureau; investigations and reports.
193. Quarters for bureau.

Section 191. Bureau established.—There shall be established in the Department of Labor a bureau to be known as the Children's Bureau. (Apr. 9, 1912, c. 73, § 1, 37 Stat. 79.)

192. Chief of Bureau; investigations and reports.—The said bureau shall be under the direction of a chief, to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The said bureau shall investigate and report to said department upon all matters pertaining to the welfare of children and child life among all classes of our people, and shall especially investigate the questions of infant mortality, the birth rate, orphanage, juvenile courts, desertion, dangerous occupations, accidents and diseases of children, employment, legislation affecting children in the several States and Territories. But no official, or agent, or representative of said bureau shall, over the objection of the head of the family, enter any house used exclusively as a family residence. The chief of said bureau may from time to time publish the results of these investigations in such manner and to such extent as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Labor. (Apr. 9, 1912, c. 73, § 2, 37 Stat. 79; Feb. 27, 1925, c. 364, Title IV, 43 Stat. 1050.)

193. Quarters for bureau.—The Secretary of Labor is directed to furnish sufficient quarters for the work of this bureau at an annual rental not to exceed $2,000. (Apr. 9, 1912, c. 73, § 4, 37 Stat. 80.)

Section 1. Commissioner.—There shall be in the Department of the Interior a Commissioner of the General Land Office, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. (R. S. § 446.)

2. Duties of commissioner.—The Commissioner of the General Land Office shall perform, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, all executive duties appertaining to the surveying and sale of the public lands of the United States, or in anywise respecting such public lands, and, also, such as relate to private claims of land, and the issuing of patents for all grants of land under the authority of the Government. (R. S. § 453; Feb. 18, 1875, c. 80, § 1, 18 Stat. 317.)

3. Assistant commissioner.—One assistant commissioner shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, who shall be authorized to sign such letters, papers, and documents, and to perform such other duties as may be directed by the commissioner, and shall act as commissioner in the absence of that officer, or in case of a vacancy in the office of commissioner. (July 11, 1890, c. 667, § 1, 26 Stat. 257; June 17, 1910, c. 297, 36 Stat. 512.)

4. Temporary assistant commissioner.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to designate an officer or employee of the General Land Office to act temporarily as assistant commissioner of that office during the absence of the assistant commissioner, or in case of a vacancy in the office of such assistant commissioner, or when such assistant commissioner is acting as commissioner, and all acts performed by any officer or employee while acting under such designation shall have the same force and effect as if performed by the commissioner or assistant commissioner. (May 22, 1908, c. 186, § 1, 35 Stat. 225.)

5. Recorder.—There shall be in the General Land Office an officer called the Recorder of the General Land Office, who shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. (R. S. § 447.)

6. Duties of recorder.—It shall be the duty of the Recorder of the General Land Office, in pursuance of instructions from the commissioner, to certify and affix the seal of the office to all patents for public lands, and to attend to the correct engrossing, recording, and transmission of such patents. He shall prepare alphabetical indexes of the names of patentees, and of persons entitled to patents; and he shall prepare such copies and exemplifications of matters on file or recorded in the General Land Office as the commissioner may from time to time direct. (R. S. § 459.)

7. Temporary recorder.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to designate an officer or employee of the General Land Office to perform temporarily the duties of the recorder of that office in the absence of that officer and in the case of a vacancy in the office of such recorder, and the acts of any person so designated shall have all the force and effect of an act performed by the recorder. (May 22, 1908, c. 186, § 1, 35 Stat. 225.)

8. Clerk to sign land patents.—A clerk in the office of the Secretary of the Interior of grade 1, clerical, administrative and fiscal service, shall be designated by the President to sign in his name, and for him, all patents for lands sold or granted under the authority of the United States. (R. S. § 450; June 19, 1878, c. 329, § 1, 20 Stat. 183; May 24, 1922, c. 199, 42 Stat. 552; Jan. 24, 1923, c. 42, 42 Stat. 1174; June 5, 1924, c. 264, 43 Stat. 391; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1142.)

9. Assistant to sign land patents.—If at any time the number of patents for lands sold or granted under the authority of the United States, is such that they cannot be signed within a reasonable time by the clerk designated under the preceding section, the President may appoint an assistant to sign the same, but such assistant shall be employed by the express direction of the President, and only for such time as may be necessary to bring up the arrears of patents which may be ready for signature. (R. S. § 451; June 19, 1878, c. 329, § 1, 20 Stat. 183.)

10. Depositary acting for commissioner as receiver of public moneys.—The depositary acting for the commissioner as receiver of public moneys may, with the approval of the commissioner, designate a clerk of the General Land Office to act as such depositary in his absence. (May 24, 1922, c. 199, 42 Stat. 555; Jan. 24, 1923, c. 42, 42 Stat. 1177.)

11. Restriction on officers, clerks, and employees.—The officers, clerks, and employees in the General Land Office are prohibited from directly or indirectly purchasing or becoming interested in the purchase of any of the public land; and any person who violates this section shall forthwith be removed from his office. (R. S. § 452.)

12. Seal, books and records.—The Commissioner of the General Land Office shall retain the charge of the seal adopted for the office, which may continue to be used, and of the records, books, papers, and other property appertaining to the office. (R. S. § 454.)

13. Original papers on file as evidence.—Whenever the register of any United States land office shall be served with a subpœna duces tecum or other valid legal process requiring him to produce, in any United States court or in any court of record of any State, the original application for entry of public lands or the final proof of residence and cultivation or any other original papers on file in the General Land Office of the United States on which a patent to land has been issued or which furnish the basis for such patent, it shall be the duty of such register to at once notify the Commissioner of the General Land Office of the service of such process, specifying the particular papers he is required to produce, and upon receipt of such notice from any register of a United States land office the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall at once transmit to such register the original papers specified in such notice, and which such register is required to produce, and to attach to such papers a certificate, under seal of his office, properly authenticating them as the original papers upon which patent was issued; and such papers so authenticated shall be received in evidence in all courts of the United States and in the several State courts of the States of the Union: Provided, That the Secretary of the Interior shall make rules and regulations to secure the return of such documents to the General Land Office, after use in evidence, without cost to the United States. (Apr. 19, 1904, c. 1398, 33 Stat. 186.)

14. Returns relative to lands.—All returns relative to the public lands shall be made to the Commissioner of the General Land Office. (R. S. § 456; July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 7, 28 Stat. 207.)

15. Issue of patents.—All patents issuing from the General Land Office shall be issued in the name of the United States, and be signed by the President, and countersigned by the Recorder of the General Land Office; and shall be recorded in the office, in books to be kept for the purpose. (R. S. § 458; June 19, 1878, c. 329, § 1, 20 Stat. 183; May 24, 1922, c. 199, 42 Stat. 552; Jan. 24, 1923, c. 42, 42 Stat. 1174; June 5, 1924, c. 264, 43 Stat. 391; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1142.)

16. Engrossing and recording patents.—The engrossing and recording of patents for public lands may be done by means of typewriters or other machines, under regulations to be made by the Secretary of the Interior and approved by the President. (Mar. 2, 1895, c. 177, § 3, 28 Stat. 807.)

17. Plats of land surveyed.—The Commissioner of the General Land Office shall, when required by the President or either House of Congress, make a plat of any land surveyed under the authority of the United States, and give such information respecting the public lands and concerning the business of his office as shall be directed. (R. S. § 455.)

18. Copies of papers filed.—Whenever any person claiming to be interested in or entitled to land, under any grant or patent from the United States, applies to the Department of the Interior for copies of papers filed and remaining therein, in anywise affecting the title to such land, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior to cause such copies to be made out and authenticated, under his hand and the seal of the General Land Office, for the person so applying. (R. S. § 460.)

19. Certified copies of records.—The Commissioner of the General Land Office shall cause to be prepared, and shall certify, under the seal of the office, such copies of records, books, and papers on file in his office, as may be applied for, to be used in evidence in courts of justice. (R. S. § 2469.)

20. Exemplifications of records as evidence.—Literal exemplifications of any records which have been or may be granted in virtue of the preceding section shall be deemed of the same validity in all proceedings, whether at law or in equity, wherein such exemplifications are adduced in evidence, as if the names of the officers signing and countersigning the same had been fully inserted in such record. (R. S. § 2470.)

21. Fees for exemplifications.—All exemplifications of patents or papers on file or of record in the General Land Office which may be required by parties interested shall be furnished by the commissioner upon payment by such parties at the rate of 15 cents per hundred words, and 30 cents each for photolithographic copies of township plats or diagrams unverified, not to exceed ten copies to any one person, and 25 cents each for all copies in excess of ten, with an additional sum of $1 for the commissioner's certificate of verification, with the General Land Office seal; and the amount so received shall, under the direction of the commissioner, be paid into the Treasury; but fees shall not be demanded for such authenticated copies as may be required by the officers of any branch of the Government, nor for such unverified copies as the commissioner, in his discretion, may deem proper to furnish; but said commissioner may, if he deem it advisable, make such charge for unverified copies as will, in his judgment, cover the cost of the preparation thereof. (R. S. § 461; Apr. 2, 1888, c. 54, 25 Stat. 76; Oct. 12, 1888, c. 1098, 25 Stat. 557; May 29, 1908, c. 220, § 15, 35 Stat. 469; June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 908.)

22. Sale of photolithographic copies of township plats.—Photolithographic copies of township plats shall be sold to the public at 50 cents each. (June 5, 1920, c. 235, § 1, 41 Stat. 908.)

23. Fees for depositions in hearings in land office.—Where depositions are taken for use in hearings or other proceedings held by order of the Commissioner of the General Land Office to determine the character of lands; whether alleged fraudulent entries are of that character or have been made in compliance with law; and hearings in disbarment proceedings, the fees of the officer taking them shall be 20 cents per folio for taking and certifying same and 10 cents per folio for each copy furnished to a party on request. (Mar. 3, 1915, c. 75, § 1, 38 Stat. 855; May 24, 1922, c. 199, 42 Stat. 558; Jan. 24, 1923, c. 42, 42 Stat. 1179; June 5, 1924, c. 264, 43 Stat. 395; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1145.)

Section 31. Appointment and duties of director; prohibitions in respect to lands and surveys.—The Director of the Geological Survey, which office is hereby established, under the Interior Department, shall be appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and shall receive a salary of $6,000 a year. This officer shall have the direction of the Geological Survey, and the classification of the public lands and examination of the geological structure, mineral resources, and products of the national domain. The Director and members of the Geological Survey shall have no personal or private interests in the lands or mineral wealth of the region under survey, and shall execute no surveys or examinations for private parties or corporations. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 182, § 1, 20 Stat. 394.)

32. Acting Director.—The Secretary of the Interior may authorize one of the geologists to act as Director of the Geological Survey in the absence of that officer. (July 31, 1894, c. 174, § 1, 28 Stat. 197.)

33. Detail of ordnance officers.—The Secretary of War is authorized to detail not exceeding two officers of the Ordnance Department to serve with the Geological Survey: Provided, That in his judgment it can be done without injury to the service. (June 16, 1880, c. 235, 21 Stat. 274; June 3, 1916, c. 134, § 12, 39 Stat. 174.)

34. Scientific employees.—The scientific employees of the Geological Survey shall be selected by the director, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior exclusively for their qualifications as professional experts. (July 7, 1884, c. 332, 23 Stat. 212.)

35. Assignments of pay by employees.—The Secretary of the Interior is authorized to permit scientific and other employees of the United States Geological Survey, employed in the field, to make assignments of their pay, under such regulations as he may prescribe, during such time as they may be in the employ of the United States Geological Survey. And the Secretary of the Interior is further authorized, in his discretion, under such regulations as he may prescribe, to reimburse the scientific and other employees for expenses incurred by them in the discharge of their duties in the field and paid from their personal funds. (June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 1, 34 Stat. 727.)

36. Purchase of books.—The purchase of professional and scientific books and periodicals needed for statistical purposes by the scientific divisions of the United States Geological Survey is hereby authorized to be made and paid for out of appropriations made for the said Survey. (June 28, 1902, c. 1301, § 1, 32 Stat. 455.)

37. Purchases or services for Geological Survey.—The purchase of supplies or the procurement of services outside the District of Columbia may be made in open market in the manner common among business men when the aggregate amount of the purchase does not exceed $50. (June 12, 1917, c. 27, § 1, 40 Stat. 144.)

38. Topographic surveys; marking elevations.—In making topographic surveys west of the ninety-fifth meridian elevations above a base level located in each area under survey shall be determined and marked on the ground by iron or stone posts or permanent bench marks, at least two such posts or bench marks to be established in each township or equivalent area, except in the forest-clad and mountain areas, where at least one shall be established, and these shall be placed, whenever practicable, near the township corners of the public-land surveys; and in the areas east of the ninety-fifth meridian at least one such post or bench mark shall be similarly established in each area equivalent to the area of a township of the public land surveys. (June 11, 1896, c. 420, §-1, 29 Stat. 435.)

39. Utility topographical survey; completion.—The President is authorized to complete, within a period of twenty years from February 27, 1925, a general utility topographical survey of the territory of the United States, including adequate horizontal and vertical control, and the securing of such topographic and hydrographic data as may be required for this purpose, and the preparation and publication of the resulting maps and data: Provided, That in carrying out the provisions of this and the following section the President is authorized to utilize the services and facilities or such agency or agencies of the Government as exist, or may be created, and to allot to them (in addition to and not in substitution for other funds available to such agencies under other appropriations or from other sources) funds from such appropriation or appropriations as may be made for the purpose of said sections. (Feb. 27, 1925, c. 360, § 1, 43 Stat. 1011.)

40. Cooperative agreements with States to expedite completion of topographical survey.—The agencies which may be engaged in carrying out the provisions of this and the preceding section are authorized to enter into cooperative agreements with and to receive funds made available by any State or civic subdivision for the purpose of expediting the completion of the mapping within its borders. (Feb. 27, 1925, c. 360, § 2, 43 Stat. 1011.)

41. Reports of operations.—Except as otherwise provided in section 260 of Title 44, PUBLIC PRINTING, the publications of the Geological Survey shall consist of the annual report of operations, geological and economic maps illustrating the resources and classification of the lands, and reports upon general and economic geology and paleontology. The annual report of operations of the Geological Survey shall accompany the annual report of the Secretary of the Interior. All special memoirs and reports of said survey shall be issued in uniform quarto series if deemed necessary by the director, but otherwise in ordinary octavos. Three thousand copies of each shall be published for scientific exchanges and for sale at the price of publication, and all literary and cartographic materials received in exchange shall be the property of the United States and form a part of the library of the organization; and the money resulting from the sale of such publications shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States, under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior. (Mar. 3, 1879, c. 182, § 1, 20 Stat. 394; May 16, 1902, No. 22, 32 Stat. 741.)

42. Distribution of maps and atlases.—The Director of the Geological Survey is authorized and directed, on the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, to dispose of the topographic and geologic maps and atlases of the United States, made and published by the Geological Survey, at such prices and under such regulations as may from time to time be fixed by him and approved by the Secretary of the Interior; and a number of copies of each map or atlas, not exceeding five hundred, shall be distributed gratuitously among foreign governments and departments of our own Government, to literary and scientific associations, and to such educational institutions or libraries as may be designated by the Director of the Survey and approved by the Secretary of the Interior. (Feb. 18, 1897, No. 13, § 1, 29 Stat. 701.)

43. Copies to Senators, Representatives, and Delegates.—One copy of each map and atlas shall be sent to each Senator and each Representative and Delegate in Congress, if published within his term; and a second copy shall be placed at the disposal of each such Senator, Representative, and Delegate (Feb. 18, 1897, No. 13, § 2, 29 Stat. 701.)

44. Sale of transfers or copies of data.—The Director of the Geological Survey shall, if the regular map work of the Survey is in no wise interfered with thereby, furnish to any person, concern, institution, State or foreign government, that shall pay in advance the whole cost thereof with 10 per centum added, transfers or copies of any cartographic or other engraved or lithographic data in the division of engraving and printing of the Survey, and the moneys received by the Director for such transfers or copies shall be deposited in the Treasury. (June 30, 1906, c. 3914, § 1, 34 Stat. 727.)

45. Sale of copies of photographs or lantern slides.—The Director of the Geological Survey shall furnish to any person, concern, or institution, in the interest of education and the dissemination of knowledge, that shall pay in advance the whole cost of material and services thereof, copies of any photographs or lantern slides in the possession of the United States Geological Survey; and the moneys received by the director for the same shall be deposited in the United States Treasury. (Mar. 4, 1909, c. 299, § 1, 35 Stat. 989.)

46. Exchange of old freight-carrying vehicles as part payment for new.—The Geological Survey is authorized to exchange unserviceable and worn-out freight-carrying vehicles as part payment for new freight-carrying vehicles. (May 24, 1922, c. 199, 42 Stat. 586; Jan. 24, 1923, c. 42, 42 Stat. 1208; June 5, 1924, c. 264, 43 Stat. 419; Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1172.)

Chapter 3.—SUPERVISOR OF SURVEYS AND DEPUTY SURVEYORS.

Sec.
51. Office of surveyor general abolished; activities transferred to Field Surveying Service.
52. Supervisor of Surveys; general duties.
53. Powers devolved on Commissioner of Land Office on turning over of papers to States.
54. Completion of surveys; delivery to States.

59. Official papers in office of Surveyor General in California; copies.
60. Stationery for mineral surveys.
61. Deputy surveyor; bond.
62. Oath of deputy surveyor.
63. Suit on bond of deputy.

Section 51. Office of surveyor general abolished; activities transferred to Field Surveying Service.—The office of surveyor general is abolished, effective July 1, 1925, and the administration of all activities theretofore in charge of surveyors general, including the necessary personnel, all records, furniture, and other equipment, and all supplies of their respective offices, are transferred to and consolidated with the Field Surveying Service, under the jurisdiction of the United States Supervisor of Surveys, who shall administer same in association with the surveying operations in his charge and under such regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may provide. (Mar. 3, 1925, c. 462, 43 Stat. 1144.)

52. Supervisor of Surveys; general duties.—The Supervisor of Surveys shall engage a sufficient number of skillful surveyors as his deputies, to whom he is authorized to administer the necessary oaths upon their appointments. He shall have authority to frame regulations for their direction, not inconsistent with law or the instructions of the General Land Office, and to remove them for negligence or misconduct in office.

Second. He shall cause to be surveyed, measured, and marked, without delay, all base and meridian lines through such points and perpetuated by such monuments, and such other correction parallels and meridians as may be prescribed by law or by instructions from the General Land Office, in respect to the public lands to which the Indian title has been or may be extinguished.

Third. He shall cause to be surveyed all private land claims after they have been confirmed by authority of Congress, so far as may be necessary to complete the survey of the public lands.

Fourth. He shall transmit to the register of the respective land offices general and particular plats of all lands surveyed by him for each land district; and he shall forward copies of such plats to the Commissioner of the General Land Office.
